QUICKLY: CU is looking for their first Pac-12 road win this weekend (0-2). Last conference road win: Feb. 23, 2011 at Texas Tech (71-68) part of the Big 12 • CU is 0-6 all-time in road trips to USC (0-2) and UCLA (0-4) • CU is 5-2 in conference play for the first time since the 2005-06 team (advanced to NIT) after seven games. That team under Ricardo Patton went 9-7 in Big 12 play and finished 20-10 • The Buffs are 11-1 at home this season and 29-3 at home (.906) under head coach Tad Boyle.

20 WINS THIS SEASON?: We're getting ahead of ourselves, but 20 wins this season could happen. If it does, head coach Tad Boyle will become the first CU coach EVER to win 20 games in back-to-back seasons. That's 111 seasons of Buff Basketball. Already, Coach Boyle holds the school-record for wins in a season (24).

Pac-12 CONFERENCE-ONLY: Andre Roberson is No. 1 rebounding (10.3) and defensive rebounds (7.6) • CU's five starters are averaging 78.0 combined at the FT line • Four of five starters are averaging in double-digits and three of the five are shooting 46.1 or better FG% (Dufault, Brown, Roberson) • The Buffs are No. 1 in FG% defense (.371) and defensive rebounding (26.1).

Pac-12 (ALL GAMES): Carlon Brown (1,090 pts.) and Andre Roberson (508) are the conference's No. 1 scorer and rebounder among active Pac-12 players • Austin Dufault is fifth in rebounding (471) and seventh in scoring (898) • Nate Tomlinson is second in assists (356), third in three-pointers (108), sixth in steals (95) • Roberson is third in blocks (73) and first in double-doubles (11) this season.

A.D.: Senior forward Austin Dufault is on fire over his last five games averaging 14.6 ppg., and a team-best 56.3 FG% (27-of48). He's also shooting 50% from 3-pt. arc (5-of-10) last 5 games. He's also first overall in FG% (min. 100 shots) with 51.6%; second in scoring (11.6 ppg.) and rebounding 4.8 rpg. Dufault has also scored 898 career points (34th all-time).

INDIVIDUAL PLAYER NOTES

• Carlon Brown is shooting 53.7 percent (66-of-123) from the field in CU's 13 wins this season, but is just 25-of-65 (38.5 percent) in six losses. Additionally, CU is 8-1 this season in games in which Brown shoots 40 percent or better from beyond the three-point arc.

• Askia Booker has scored in double-digits seven times this season with CU going 7-0 in those games.

• Nate Tomlinson only scored in double-digits once in the 2010-11 season, but has already done so on five occasions this season with CU going 4-1 in those games. Tomlinson has 19 games with 10+ points in his career.

• Spencer Dinwiddie ranks third among Pac-12 freshmen by averaging 10.8 points per game on the season. In addition, he ranks

-CU's 3-0 start to conference play marks the 13th time they have done so in the postseason era (since the 1937-38 season). In 9 of the previous 12 times they have done so, CU has played in either the NCAA tournament or the NIT. Here is a look at those starts:

*-Mountain States Conference

• CU ranks 31st nationally (through games of Jan. 22) in defensive field goal percentage by limiting opponents to 39.2 percent shooting from the field. The Buffs are first in Pac-12 games in the category, holding conference opponents to just 37.1 percent on field goals. In CU's 13 wins this season opponents are shooting just 36.4 percent, as opposed to 45.8 percent in the Buffs' six losses.

• When posting a better shooting percentage than their opponent, CU is 13-0 this season. Additionally, the Buffs are 9-2 this season when outrebounding the opposition. CU ranks 39th nationally (through games of Jan. 22) with a rebounding margin of +5.3 boards per game.

• CU is 8-0 this season when a player scores 10-or-more points off the bench (seven times by Askia Booker, once by Sabatino Chen). In CU's 13 wins, they are averaging 19.1 bench points per game, opposed to just 13.8 bench points per game in their six losses.

Andre Roberson

• Through 19 games this season, Roberson has 211 rebounds. Projecting his current per game average over 12 more games that CU is guaranteed to play this season, Roberson is on pace for 344 boards which would nearly be a new CU record:

Player	Season	Reb.
Burdette Haldorson	1954-55	346
Andre Roberson	2011-12	344*
Cliff Meely	1968-69	337
Shaun Vandiver	1989-90	336

• Roberson ranks eighth nationally (through games of Jan. 22) in rebounds per game with 11.1. Roberson trails the national leader (Siena's O.D. Anosike) by 1.5 rebounds per game, as he seeks to become the first Buff since 1982-83 (Jay Humphries in steals and Rob Gonzalez in free throw percentage) to lead the NCAA in a category. The highest finish for a CU player in rebounding was Alex Stivrins who finished sixth in the nation with an 11.7 average in the 1984-85 season.

• Through the first 57 games of Roberson's career, he is averaging 8.9 rebounds per game, ranking sixth highest per game in CU history. However, Roberson is averaging 14.5 rebounds per 40 minutes played which ranks best among all CU players since minutes began being recorded in 1978-79. The previous high is Stephane Pelle (1999-2003) at over a full rebound less per 40 minutes (13.4).

• Roberson ranks eighth nationally (through games of Jan. 22) with 11 double-doubles this season. CU is 8-3 in those contests.

• Last season Roberson became just the third CU player to lead the team in rebounds, blocks, and steals in the same season, and he is nearly duplicating that feat this season. In addition to his 11.1 boards per game, Roberson leads the team with 31 blocks on the season and is second with 15 steals.

• Over the past two seasons, CU is 12-4 when Roberson grabs 12+ rebounds in a game.

first among conference frosh in free throw percentage (68-of-84, 81.0 percent) and three-point percentage (25-of-56, 44.6 percent).

BUFFS IN THE NBA: For the first time since the 1992-93 season (Matt Bullard, Jay Humphries, Alex Stivrins), CU currently has three players on NBA rosters. Here is a look at how they are faring (through games of Jan. 22):

Chauncey Billups, Los Angeles Clippers
Billups is averaging 15.8 points and 4.4 assists per game for the 9-5 Clippers. On Sunday night, Billups dished out 14 assists in the Clippers' win over Toronto; his highest total in a game since having 14 as a member of the Denver Nuggets on Dec. 2, 2008. On Jan. 18, Billups matched a season-high with 21 points and set a season-high with eight rebounds in the Clippers' win over the Mavericks. "Mr. Big Shot" hit a three-pointer with 1.0 on the clock to give L.A. a 91-89 lead over Dallas in the victory. Billups missed four games earlier this season with a groin injury.

Alec Burks, Utah Jazz
Burks has worked his way into Utah's rotation and over the past four games has averaged 8.8 points, 2.8 rebounds, and 18 minutes per game with the Jazz going 3-1 and Burks scoring in double-digits in three of the four. For the season, Burks is averaging 6.4 points in 13 minutes per game and has played in 14 of Utah's 15 games. He has scored in double-digits four times (including three straight games from Jan. 15-Jan. 19) and set a career-high with 15 points (all coming in the fourth quarter) at Denver on Dec. 28.

Cory Higgins, Charlotte Bobcats
Higgins has played in 10 of the Bobcats' 17 games, including the last seven. Over the weekend, Higgins notched consecutive double-digit scoring games, scoring 10 points apiece against Chicago and New Jersey. The performance against the Bulls set a career scoring high that was then matched against the Nets. Higgins is averaging 4.4 points and 11 minutes per game in his 10 appearances.

WHAT WAS SAID
"This is it (my dream job), there's no doubt. I remember talking with Mark Turgeon once when he asked me where I wanted to be in 10 years, and I said the head coach at the University of Colorado. This is a destination job. I'm humbled and honored."
- University of Colorado head coach Tad Boyle, the day he was hired as the new CU men's basketball coach

"CU is getting a great person, a guy with great character and a value system, which is most important. He's a very well-rounded basketball coach and an excellent recruiter. He's a guy who will be very good with alumni and boosters. He's got great people skills and he develops relationships. Good coaches never stop trying to get better, and Tad does that. He was great as an assistant - extremely loyal, hard working and positive."
- Mark Turgeon, former Texas A&M Head Basketball Coach, now the Head Coach at the University of Maryland

"This exciting process was all about both the young men we have currently and those in the future who will be joining our program, and is an investment in them and represents the competitive spirit, teamwork, passion and dedication they stand for. Tad Boyle represents everything that is right about college basketball. We look forward to his leadership, poise and competitive drive to unite all our collective Buff interests to support our team and this enterprise that has so much promise for the long term."
- Mike Bohn, University of Colorado Athletics Director on what made Tad Boyle stand out above the other candidates

"It's an incredible opportunity for him, but a phenomenal hire for Colorado. He's worked hard to get to this point; he's got an amazing background. I'm thrilled to death for him. I've been around some great basketball minds - Bill Self (Kansas), John Calipari (Kentucky), Alvin Gentry (Phoenix Suns), Greg Popovich (San Antonio Spurs), to name a few. A lot of quality guys have helped me coach. Tad has the same qualities those guys have. His kids play hard and unselfishly. They guard and play smart. He had those qualities as a player and he values them as a coach. He'll also make that program part of the whole community, and that's important at a school. The football coach, the women's coaches . . . they'll all love him. I love college athletics; it's more of a we thing than (in the NBA). You support everything. Tad will do that. This is an incredible opportunity for him and just as an incredible opportunity for Colorado."
- Larry Brown, Charlotte Bobcats Head Coach and former University of Kansas head coach (1983–1988)

"Tad's a heckuva coach and a lot better guy. I know that for a fact. I know you have to win at that level, and he'll win the right way. (The hiring of Boyle)"A very wise move on Colorado's part; the test of time will show that. I'm not saying that to kiss anybody's butt; I believe it."
- Don Meyer, former legendary coach, Northern State University, winner of 923 games

"I am happy for Tad and his family. Colorado made a great hire. He had a great season at Northern Colorado and he had that program moving in a positive direction. I believe he will have the same impact at CU."

BUFFS ROLL PAST OVERMATCHED SKYHAWKS

BOULDER (Nov. 11) - Tad Boyle wasn't facing a complete makeover with his 2011-12 Colorado basketball team, but it came close. He unveiled his retooled Buffs Friday night against Fort Lewis College, and while he was the first to acknowledge there's work to be done before the schedule toughens - and that happens quickly - he also found plenty to applaud in CU's 85-57 season-opening victory at the Coors Events Center.

"The good thing is you can win by this margin and still have room for improvement," Boyle said after watching his second CU team struggle at times to find its half-court offense and lapse occasionally on defense but still do enough right to rout an overmatched opponent.

"Defensively we played pretty well," Boyle continued. "I challenged our guys to guard for 40 minutes. We had a few lapses, but I thought overall we played well - especially with the number of new guys we had on the court."

Playing without Cory Higgins, Alec Burks, Levi Knutson and Marcus Relphorde - a foursome that accounted for about 75 percent of CU's scoring load last season - was "really weird," sophomore forward Andre Roberson said. "But it's time to move on."

And so the Buffs did - at least in their opener.

CU senior forward Austin Dufault, who led CU with 18 points and added 10 rebounds, called Fort Lewis "a good Division II team" and said the Buffs submitted a first night they can build on: "You always want to get off to a good start and our team did that . . . we had a good team effort crashing the boards."

Boyle said Dufault and senior guard Nate Tomlinson, who had five points, four assists and three steals, "gave us great stability on the court . . . I don't know if Austin can get 18 and 10 every night, but I won't be mad at him if he does."

The Buffs' board work was controlled by the 6-7 Roberson, who at 215 pounds weighs about 15 more than last season and, said Boyle, "is a beast . . . he's a lot stronger, he's athletic and explosive." Roberson exhibited all of those things, collecting a game-best 15 of CU's 48 rebounds and scoring 13 points - all in the first half.

BUFFS FALL TO SHOCKERS IN PUERTO RICO OPENER

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 17) - Carlon Brown scored 15 points and added four rebounds but the Colorado Buffaloes fell to Wichita State, 67-58, in the first round of the Fifth Annual 5 Hour Energy Puerto Rico Shootout here Thursday.

The Buffs will now face Maryland Friday at 4:30 p.m. In an ironic twist, Maryland is now coached by Mark Turgeon, who was the head coach for the Shockers when Boyle was his assistant.

No other CU player hit double figures, but sophomore Andre Roberson did pull down 10 rebounds for the Buffaloes.

The two teams played even for the first 15 minutes of the first half when the game was tied at 24-24 before the Shockers went on a 7-0 run in less than two minutes to take a 31-24 lead with 3:15 left in the half.

Each team scored just once the remainder of the first half, 33-26.

The Shockers held the lead near double digits early in the second half, and the Buffs cut it to five points twice, first at 37-32 and then again at 40-35.

Colorado cut the Shocker lead to just three midway through the second half, 50-47, after Austin Dufault made a 3-pointer.

Askia Booker made a free throw with 2:13 left to bring CU to within five points at 62-57 and the Buffs didn't score again as the Shockers put the game away at the line with the final score, 67-58.

TERPS RALLY TO DEFEAT BUFFS 78-71

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (Nov. 18) - Andre Roberson scored a career-high 21 points, however Maryland's Terrell Stoglin scored 32 to lead the Terrapins to a 78-71 victory over Colorado on Friday in the Puerto Rico Tip-Off.

Stoglin tied the single-game tournament record with 12 field goals, including 4-for-7 on 3-pointers, and keyed the run that put the Terrapins (2-1) ahead to stay. Sean Mosley added 16 points and Nick Faust 15.

Roberson had a double-double for the Buffaloes (1-2) with 21 points and 13 rebounds. The performance marked the seventh double-double of his career, and he has double-digit rebounds in the first three games of this season (averaging 12.7 per game). Carlon Brown scored 14 points and Austin Dufault 12 for Colorado, which led by 12 in the first half.

Roberson gave Colorado a 60-56 lead with 8:25 left. But Stoglin scored eight straight to finish an 11-0 run that put Maryland ahead 67-60 with 6:01 left.

"Not a very good performance by the Buffaloes," said CU head coach Tad Boyle. "I didn't like the way we played, especially in the second half. I felt like we gave the game to Maryland tonight. I'm disappointed."

The Terrapins hit 49 percent (27 of 55) and shot 52 percent (11 of 21) from 3-point range.

BUFFS TOP FALCONS IN OT, 76-73

"He is a madman," said the Colorado coach about the sophomore guard who now has 57 rebounds for the Buffaloes in five games this season. "I don't know where his head was in the first 30 minutes of the game." Boyle said. "But was there at the end when it mattered.

Askia Booker hit a 3-pointer and Roberson got a key block and layup in overtime to help CU to a 76-73 victory over Air Force.

"I do what I can to win," Roberson said. "I will get rebound when it is needed."

Nate Tomlinson led Colorado (3-2) with 19 points on 4-of-7 shooting from 3-point range. Carlon Brown added 16 points, and Roberson had 11 points and 13 rebounds.

Roberson went scoreless in the first half, missing his only shot. He did have eight rebounds in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado's win couldn't overshadow the brilliant game of Michael Lyons of the Falcons. Lyons made 10-of-19 shots and clutch free throws at the end of regulation to finish with a career-high 31 points for Air Force (3-1).

It was the most points by a Falcon player since Jarvis Croff scored 31 on March 9, 2000 against Utah.

The Falcons' scrambling defense forced 18 turnovers, turning the mistakes into 27 points.

Air Force was the better team taking care of the ball, committing a season-low six turnovers.

The Falcons led 72-69 in overtime after a layup by Taylor Stewart and Mike Fitzgerald's 3-pointer. The Buffaloes then got Roberson's layup off a rebound and went ahead 74-72 on Booker's 3-pointer with 15 seconds left.

"Air Force is a tough team to defend," Boyle said. "You them get either get layups or threes against you."

CU almost won the game in regulation after Roberson tipped in his own miss with 13 seconds remaining to make it 67-65. But Fitzgerald sank two free throws with 3.7 seconds left to send the game into overtime.

BUFFS OPEN LAST HALF STRONG, BEAT BULLDOGS

BOULDER (Nov. 28) – The more Tad Boyle sees of his pair of California freshman guards – Spencer Dinwiddie and Askia Booker – the more he likes. And did he ever like them on Monday night at the Coors Events Center.

The talented Dinwiddie shook himself out of a first-month freshman funk and Booker – Can you say 'Ski' season is upon us? – played up to his role as Boyle's "energizer bunny" in helping Colorado overcome then outlast athletic, game Georgia, 70-68. In pushing its non-conference home winning streak to 26, CU won its third consecutive game this season and improved to 4-2, while UGA lost its second straight and dropped to 4-3.

Before Boyle stated the obvious – "It wasn't pretty" – he emphasized a couple of points that were every bit as noticeable: "There's a lot of room for improvement for this team – and that's exciting . . . this was a great win for our program, especially where we are in the developmental stage."

He can say that with conviction, namely because he's allowing big minutes for freshmen like Dinwiddie and Booker – and the new kids are responding. Taking Boyle's and his teammates' advice to heart, Dinwiddie opened aggressively with a three-pointer from the left wing for CU's first points and went on to score a career-high 16 and tied a career high with seven rebounds.

Dinwiddie said those are the kinds of numbers he expects from himself, and when they weren't showing up "it was rough . . . but I thank my teammates and my coach for believing in me."

Booker, meanwhile, came off the bench and contributed a career-best 14 points in his 23 minutes. He provided a second-half lift after the Bulldogs had fallen behind by six early but rallied to tie the score at 45-45.

"Those freshmen have an unbelievable belief in themselves . . . I had more confidence in 'Ski' and Spencer than I've had all year," Boyle said, adding that Dinwiddie knew he was playing below his capabilities while Booker might be playing above the ticket-buying public's expectations – but not those of Boyle and his staff. "'Ski' is such an energizer bunny . . . the quintessential guy to bring off the bench," Boyle said.

"He's fearless."

Under that same heading, it's appropriate to place Buffs sophomore forward Andre Roberson, who added 15 points and continued his beastly board work with 15 rebounds. "The kid's incredible," Boyle said.

BUFFS' LATE RALLY FALLS ONE POINT SHORT

FORT COLLINS (Nov. 30) – Of all the questions about his Colorado basketball team crowding Tad Boyle's mind, the one that puzzled him most was this: "Really, how were we ever in it?"

But somehow – despite committing 15 turnovers, missing 16 free throws and shooting 36.8 percent from the field – Wednesday night's game against Colorado State came down to the Buffaloes' final possession.

And when senior guard Nate Tomlinson's long jumper bounded off the rim at the buzzer, CSU had escaped with a 65-64 victory at raucous Moby Gym.

"I have no idea how we had a chance to win this game, but I think it's a testament to our team that we did. I told our guys in the lockerroom I do not fault your competitiveness, I don't fault your desire . . . your will to win, I don't fault any of that stuff. But what I fault is our execution," said Boyle, reflecting on how poorly his team executed for most of the previous 48 minutes then amazingly put itself in position to steal a win from its in-state rival.

The Buffs overcame an eight-point deficit in the final 1:25 and even went ahead 64-63 on a Tomlinson layup with just over 10 seconds to play. But a floater from the right baseline by CSU's Dorian Green returned what would be the final advantage to the Rams and set the stage for Tomlinson's miss.

"We just needed one extra stop and didn't get it," said CU senior Austin Dufault.

Tomlinson, one of three CU players in double figures (he had 11, Dufault 13 and freshman Spencer Dinwiddie 16), said he didn't get the final shot he wanted because CSU switched defenders. Boyle had called for a high ball screen involving Dufault and Tomlinson, with either of them taking the final shot. But a bigger player switched on Tomlinson as time was expiring and he took the only shot he could.

"I didn't get a very good look," Tomlinson said. "I didn't get a very good feel for the ball and it just didn't go down."

Boyle said he takes responsibility for the poor execution overall, but added, "This team's heart is there. And we're not going to lose that. We're going to be in a lot of close games like this – we already have been. We've won our fair share."

The Buffs had missed 15 free throws in Monday night's 70-68 home win against Georgia, and Tomlinson said missing one more than that two nights later indicated more of a mental issue than anything else. "The more we talk about it, the worse it gets," he said. "That's the game . . . . we're a real young team, but we're a tough team and that's not going to change."

BUFFS REGAIN COMPOSURE, SQUEEZE BY BULLDOGS

BOULDER (Dec. 7) – A veteran basketball team with a 15-point halftime lead is pretty close to being a certain winner. A young team clutching the same advantage . . . no guarantees.

With his team up 38-23 at intermission on Wednesday night, Colorado men's coach Tad Boyle fervently tried to head off the onset of complacency, telling his young Buffaloes, "Don't play the scoreboard, play the possession on both sides of the ball . . . it wasn't something we didn't talk about, but sometimes all you can do as a coach is talk. (Players) have to take it out on the floor and do it."

It took awhile in the second half for Boyle's message to register, but in the end it did. CU righted itself against surprisingly unflappable Fresno State and its zone defense, finally pulling free of the Bulldogs for a 71-64 win at the Coors Events Center. If the Buffs' one-point loss a week earlier at Colorado State was directly traceable to the free throw line - 16 misses - this win plopped on the same thin stripe. CU shot 84.4 percent (27-of-32) Wednesday night from foul line, making 13-of-14 in the final 5:39 when Fresno State had closed to within three points and simply wouldn't vanish.

CU sophomore Andre Roberson, whose one made free throw in seven attempts accounted for his only point at CSU, recovered in a big way against Fresno State. He scored a career- and team-best 21 points on five-of-six shooting while making all nine of his free throw attempts. He also contributed a game-high 10 rebounds for his 10th career double-double, half of them this year.

"Andre was dialed in mentally . . . you could see it tonight," said Boyle, adding he hoped Roberson "getting his mojo going" doesn't require a pair of three-pointers every game. Roberson hit back-to-back treys in the first half when the Buffs appeared to be toying with the Bulldogs and building their 15-point halftime lead.

Tomlinson, who had a game-best six assists, and Dinwiddie occasionally alternated at the high post as the Buffs sought to distribute the ball against the Bulldogs' zone.

Roberson, who has reached double-digit rebounds in seven of eight games this season, said the Buffs can't relax after rolling to a halftime lead like Wednesday night's: "It's really important that we work on playing the full 40 minutes. We can't get comfortable with ourselves. We've got to work on that in practice."

COWBOYS' RUGGED SECOND HALF BURIES BUFFS

BOULDER (Dec. 9) – On a night when bad news trumped good, Tad Boyle opened with the good - that being the 10 days between games that he and his Colorado basketball team now can use to try and cure what ails them.

That said, Boyle quickly skipped to the darker side of the upcoming week and a half layoff: "We've got to live with this in the pit of our stomachs."

And there's the nagging, gnawing difficulty in not playing again until Monday, Dec. 19. CU's 65-54 loss on Friday night to Wyoming can fester much longer than Boyle and the Buffaloes would like before it can be purged.

Making only their second road trip of the season (the first ended in a 52-44 loss at Wisconsin-Green Bay in mid-November), the Cowboys outworked the Buffs in Friday night's second half and decisively snapped CU's 27-game non-conference winning streak at the Coors Events Center.

With things other than that broken streak in mind, Boyle called the loss "as disappointing as I've been a part of since I've been at Colorado . . . Wyoming came in and took it from us; they beat us fair and square."

The Buffs can count the ways . . . none of them palatable for their coach. The Cowboys had a 34-29 rebounding edge. They played primarily zone defense in the second half and still forced nine of CU's 15 turnovers. And Wyoming's two big men - 6-10 senior Adam Waddell and 6-7 junior Leonard Washington - dominated inside with 17 and 16 points, respectively.

All of Waddell's points were scored in the second half, with Washington getting eight points in each half.

"I'm hoping fatigue was a factor, because we couldn't do anything inside the entire first 25-30 minutes," first-year Wyoming coach Larry Shyatt said. "But I thought down the home stretch, Washington and Waddell got their way inside, which is a product of conditioning."

"We knew they were good players," Boyle said of the Wyoming bigs. "Our scouting report wasn't followed at times."

And that was true for the first-half defense on Wyoming's best three-point shooter, Luke Martinez. CU had taken a 10-point lead (14-4), but Martinez, who entered the game hitting 46 percent from beyond the arc, got free for three consecutive treys and resuscitated Wyoming. He finished with 14 points, nine in the first half.

BUFFS FINALLY PUT AWAY FEISTY ROADRUNNERS

BOULDER (Dec. 19) - Mark Monday night down as a "rust buster" for the Colorado Buffaloes. Of more importance, also mark it down as a 'W.'

Overcoming their own sluggish start and withstanding their opponent's frantic finish, the Buffs eventually put away California State University-Bakersfield 70-64 at the Coors Events Center.

"That was a good win for us," said CU coach Tad Boyle. "I thought there were some really positive things that came out, but there's also lots of room for improvement - and that excites me as a coach."

He was noticeably more excited than he was 10 days previously, when Wyoming visited the Events Center and snapped CU's 27-game non-conference home court winning streak. Boyle gave his players the next two days off, then practiced them for 10 consecutive days.

Not playing for that long and laboring through a week of semester finals, said Boyle, resulted in "a little rust and mental fatigue" that was evident in the Buffs struggling to find the basket and falling behind by as many as 11 points in the first half.

"We didn't get out of the gate (Monday night) . . . and we've been a team that's always gotten out fast," said Boyle.

If the Buffs didn't quite start or finish the night rust-free - they allowed the Roadrunners to cut a 12-point deficit to four in the final 31/2 minutes - they compensated nicely in the mid-section.

Senior Carlon Brown scored eight of his of 15 points when the Buffs were in first-half recovery, and reserve Sabatino Chen provided a huge shot of hustle that spanned the last 5 seconds of the first half and stayed with Boyle's bunch well into the second.

"I thought Sabatino's minutes in the first half energized the team," said Boyle, adding that Brown, who had eight assists to go with his 15 points, "was terrific . . . he played within himself. Those two performances (by Chen and Brown) were terrific."

Chen finished with six points, five rebounds, a pair of steals and a blocked first-half shot - which led to the game's most disputed whistle but also revved up the Buffs and the crowd. Counting Brown, four Buffs reached double figures, topped by Andre Roberson's 18. Spencer Dinwiddie added 13 and Austin Dufault 10.

BUFFS GET INTO GIVING, BUT HOLD ON TO WIN

BOULDER (Dec. 22) - Nothing against holiday spirit, but the Colorado Buffaloes went overboard with their giving Thursday night. They allowed Texas Southern back into what had all the early earmarks of a pre-Christmas stocking stuffer before escaping with a 56-51 win at the Coors Events Center.

A perplexed Tad Boyle knows what he wants under his tree - and any shopping mall St. Nick who has watched the Buffs this season already knows what tops the CU coach's list.

"I'm asking Santa for a consistent team," Boyle said. "Consistently good or consistently bad . . . then I'll know what we have to work on. Right now, it's a hard thing to manage, but I have to do a better job of it. It's going to be on my mind for the next three days . . . we have to get better."

Boyle's frustration came from a festive first half that saw the Buffs handle the visitors' 2-3 zone, shoot 50 percent from the field, hold the Tigers to 22.7 percent and lead by as many as 23 points (32-9).

Said Boyle: "The first half there were so many good things that happened . . . but what we talk about (at halftime) and what our team does sometimes are different things."

Different, indeed . . . the second half was all switches and ashes for the Buffs as those shooting percentages nearly flipped (50 percent for Texas Southern, 28.6 for CU) and the home team's nice habits turned naughty. Whatever the reason(s), the Buffs were a different - and in a bad way - bunch in the last 20 minutes. The Tigers, playing perfectly respectable Grinches, made seven of their dozen steals in the second half and forced the Buffs into 12 of their 20 turnovers.

"Once again, it was a tale of two halves," said CU freshman guard Spencer Dinwiddie, who made four of five treys in the first half and finished five-for-six from beyond the arc. His 18 points were a team and career best. "We're just very inconsistent and until we solve that, we won't be a great team . . . you can't play basketball with an on/off switch."

Playing their eighth consecutive road game and searching for their first win in that stretch, the Tigers rallied behind a trapping defense that the Buffs had expected and the three-point shooting of guard Omar Strong (23 points). TSU closed to within three points (51-48) in the final half minute.

And although the visitors never led, they came close to making Christmas weekend very uncomfortable for the Buffs. CU (7-4) held off TSU (1-9) by making five of six free throws in the last 21.2 seconds - two of the foul shots by Dinwiddie and another pair by sophomore Andre Roberson, who added 11 points and 16 rebounds.

BUFFS TRAMPLE PRIVATEERS, EYE PAC-12 OPENER

BOULDER (Dec. 28) - Colorado men's basketball coach Tad Boyle got his wish - and maybe a bit more. Encouraging his enigmatic team to play a full 40 minutes and finally put away a December opponent, Boyle witnessed a demolition job Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

CU 92, New Orleans 34.

For the Buffaloes' purposes, it was the right opponent at the right time. But if a disclaimer is necessary, here goes: UNO was undersized, overmatched and probably tired. The Privateers (9-6) had been slapped around Tuesday night in Denton, Texas, losing by 31 (78-47) and having their six-game winning streak snapped.

"We played (Tuesday) night against North Texas, got on a plane (Wednesday) morning and flew here," lamented first-year UNO coach Mark Slessinger, who called Boyle "one of the best up-and-coming coaches in the country. (CU) is very lucky to have him and they need to try and keep him as long as they can."

Privately, Boyle might have empathized with Slessinger's travel travails, but publicly he said the Buffs' 58-point win - and the way it was accomplished - was exactly what they needed with their Pac-12 Conference debut looming.

"I don't know how they scored 34 points," Boyle said jokingly to begin his postgame press conference. "We wanted to put two halves together; better late than never . . . we took a step forward; we talked at halftime about not playing the scoreboard . . . it's not going to be like this every night, but it's about Colorado basketball and how we approach games."

CU approached and finished this one precisely as Boyle intended. After leading 51-20 at halftime, the Buffs continued to pour it on in the final 20 minutes, leading by as many as 58 twice in the last 2:30 before holding that margin at the buzzer. And the Privateers' 34 points were the lowest total by a Buffs opponent in the modern era, or since Jan. 17, 1949, when CU put down Kansas 42-30.

The Buffs were all business in rolling to their highest point total of the season and their largest margin of victory since a 116-52 mauling of Savannah State in the 2005-06 season.

Wearing all black uniforms for the first time since Feb. 9, 2008 - a 72-58 rout of Oklahoma - the Buffs improved to 8-4.

Five CU players reached double figures, led by Carlon Brown's 18 points - 16 of them before halftime. Senior Austin Dufault added 14, freshman guard Askia Booker 13 and sophomore Andre Roberson and freshman Spencer Dinwiddie 12 each. Roberson also collected 12 rebounds.

BUFFS' SMOTHERING 'D' BRINGS FIRST PAC-12 WIN

BOULDER (Dec. 31) - Don't take Colorado's 40-point win on Saturday in its Pac-12 Conference men's basketball debut as an indicator of things to come. If you're into indicators, as is Buffaloes coach Tad Boyle, you'll join him in the Coors Events Center on Thursday night.

That's when Washington visits, and as Boyle prophesied early on New Year's Eve after CU had undressed Utah, 73-33, "We'll find out a lot about our team when Washington comes in . . . If we're talking about a win then, I'll say our program is headed in the right direction."

Still, there always has to be a first step in a new conference - and the Buffs took a respectable one against the hapless Utes. CU (9-4, 1-0) held its first-time Pac-12 visitor to the lowest point total ever by an opponent in the Events Center, which opened for the 1979-80 season, and the lowest overall since a 42-30 win at Kansas on Jan. 17, 1949.

Utah's total was its lowest since 1947. The Utes (3-10, 0-1) entered the conference opener averaging 58.8 points.

Coupled with the Buffs' previous rout of New Orleans - 92-34 four nights earlier - they've held their last two opponents to 67 points. Boyle's nightly, weekly, monthly, yearly areas of emphasis are defense and rebounding, and he's gotten consecutive nearly air-tight nights from his team on the defensive end.

But predictably, instead of gloating about holding a pair of struggling opponents under 40, Boyle prefers to focus on the Buffs' daily progress. "I'm concerned about how Colorado basketball is playing . . . I'm not going to talk about Utah or New Orleans," he said, noting that CU's harder-than-it-had-to-be 56-51 win against Texas Southern three days before Christmas, "as bittersweet as it was, maybe it was a good thing for our team."

"We had put a big emphasis on defense," CU freshman guard Askia Booker said. "At halftime (Boyle) gave us a lot of credit for our defense. . . . we didn't shoot well, but he told us our defense is why we had a 16-point lead."

Booker, tying his CU career high with 14 points, was one of four Buffs in double figures. Freshman Spencer Dinwiddie hit a career-best 19 points, while sophomore Andre Roberson had his ninth double-double of the season (17 points, career-high 17 rebounds). Senior Carlon Brown, who transferred from Utah two seasons ago, added 10 points.

BUFFS MEASURE UP (AND MORE) AGAINST HUSKIES

BOULDER (Jan. 5) - It came only two games into an 18-game Pac-12 Conference schedule, but it was a huge early test nonetheless - and the Colorado Buffaloes aced it.

CU overcame an erratic start Thursday night to dispose of Washington 87-69 at the Coors Events Center, winning for the fifth consecutive time and remaining unbeaten in the Pac-12.

"I thought that was a really good win for our program, for where we are right now . . . I have such respect for Lorenzo Romar and the Washington program and what they've done over the last 10 years . . . they've got good players," said Buffs coach Tad Boyle, who after his team's 40-point blowout of Utah last weekend in the conference opener had termed UW's upcoming visit a "measuring stick" for his program.

With that in mind, the Buffs measured up nicely, particularly in the areas of composing themselves after falling behind 7-0, overtaking the Huskies by halftime with determined defense, then never allowing their talented visitors back in the game.

Over the last several weeks, Boyle said, his message to the Buffs has centered on "pride and toughness . . . being proud of representing Colorado basketball, what we want it to represent, taking ownership in our program and playing with unbelievable toughness every night."

Did the Buffs do that Thursday? Ask the Huskies, who came to Boulder as the Pac-12's second-highest scoring team, averaging 80.6 points. The Buffs held them to their second-lowest total of the season.

"You've got to give credit to Colorado," Romar said. "They guarded us. We got out to a 14-5 lead and then they really clamped down defensively. They made shot after shot. They were very efficient offensively; they did a great job."

The Buffs (10-4, 2-0) got significant contributions from everyone who started or left the bench. Five CU players scored in double figures, topped by Carlon Brown's 18. Spencer Dinwiddie and Askia Booker added 13 and 12, respectively. Austin Dufault and Nate Tomlinson chipped in 13 and 11. And Andre Roberson got his conference-leading rebounding average (12) along with eight points.

But the Buffs' list of contributors kept going. Junior Sabatino Chen was instrumental in the first-half rally, hitting three twisting layups. Sophomore Jeremy Adams also had six points and five rebounds, playing what Boyle termed Adams' "best game as a Buff." Sophomore Shane Harris-Tunks didn't score, but made a pair of blocks and two steals against one of the Pac-12 most athletic teams. The Huskies (8-6, 2-1) were led by Tony Wroten's 21. C.J. Wilcox (19) and Terrence Ross (13) were the only other UW players in double figures.

BUFFS SURGE TO 3-0 IN PAC-12 COMPETITION

BOULDER (Jan. 7) - Now comes the hard part. The Colorado Buffaloes capped an eight-game home stand on Saturday with a 71-60 win against Washington State that kept them unbeaten in the Pac-12 Conference and atop their new league with a 3-0 record.

But the road awaits . . .

The Buffs, the Pac-12's easternmost member, head west this week for games at California (Thursday) and Stanford (Saturday). But by all accounts - including theirs - they are more well-equipped to hit the trail than they were a month ago.

"I'm proud of our guys for coming together, believing and improving," CU coach Tad Boyle said, noting that his team being picked to finish 11th in the Pac-12 was and will be motivation for the Buffs as they head into the teeth of their conference schedule.

Saturday's victory was CU's sixth straight and seventh in the eight-game stand at the Coors Events Center, pushing the Buffs to 11-4 overall. Boyle said his team's 3-0 conference start was what he and his players expected, given the league schedule's friendly front end.

"The schedule has favored us, but we've done what we need to do," he said. "The difference in being good and great is winning on the road (and) we start out with what is arguably our toughest trip."

But it's not as daunting as it might have been had the Buffs' pieces not begun coming together after their 65-54 home loss to Wyoming and their survival of a second-half sleepwalk against Texas Southern (a 56-51 win after leading by 16 at the half).

A month ago, had CU faced a zone defense at the outset of a game as it did Saturday against WSU, Boyle's team might have gone into shake, rattle and get-rolled mode. But the Buffs handled it Saturday like they should have, working patiently inside to Austin Dufault (17 points, 12 in the first half) and getting a blistering perimeter performance from Carlon Brown (season-best 28 points).

It's reasonable to call him "Downtown Brown;" he hit six of his 12 three-point attempts Saturday, including four-of-four in the second half to help yank the Cougars out of their 2-3 zone.

"Brown lit us up," said WSU coach Ken Bone. "He's a good player, playing with a lot of confidence, and he's a tough matchup. But they do a great job of spacing, knowing where he's at and getting him the ball."

Dufault and Brown, got an assist (three on the scoresheet) from CU's third senior starter - Nate Tomlinson, who finished with 11 points. "Our seniors were terrific," Boyle said. "We had called them out in Puerto Rico (tournament) . . . Our young guys had stepped up, but there weren't as good (Saturday) as they usually are."

He was referring primarily to freshmen Spencer Dinwiddie and Askia Booker and sophomore Andre Roberson, who finished with five points each (Roberson had eight rebounds). For Dinwiddie, it was his first game in the last 10 that he hasn't been in double figures.

BUFFS FALL TO CAL 57-50 IN PAC-12 ROAD OPENER

BERKELEY, Calif. (Jan. 12/AP) - Colorado led at halftime and hung tough with California, but the Golden Bears pulled away late to defeat the Buffs 57-50 at Haas Pavilion.

Austin Dufault hit a three-pointer to make it a one-point game at 51-50 with 1:05 left in the game, but Cal's Harper Kamp responded with a layup to put the Bears up three. Colorado (11-5, 3-1 Pac-12) turned it over on their next possession and after Justin Cobbs made his first free throw, Allen Crabbe got an offensive rebound on the missed second attempt. Crabbe made both his ensuing free throw attempts to push the Bears' lead to 56-50 with 35.3 seconds remaining.

"Our guys battled," CU head coach Tad Boyle said following the loss. "They scratched and they fought, and like I told them in the locker room, I'll live with that kind of effort. Now we have to get better, certainly. Our offensive execution has to get better, especially in the second half, but I love the grit this team plays with."

Cal (14-4, 4-1 Pac-12) struggled to get over the hump, finally taking a lead at 39-37 with 10:08 left in the game on a David Kravish put-back. It was the Bears' first lead since being ahead 9-8 with 12:40 remaining in the first half.

Cal would take a five-point lead at 42-37, but CU fought back to retake the lead at 45-43 on a Dufault three. Cal then went on an 8-0 run, including four points from Richard Solomon, from 5:41 to 2:23 showing on the clock to take control of the game and go ahead 51-45.

Colorado led 29-22 at halftime as Dufault hit a jumper late in the period to extend the Buffs' lead to seven points. CU created the separation with a 7-0 run to break an 11-11 tie from 10:31 to 6:21 left on the clock in the first half. Dufault led all scorers with nine points at the break. Cal opened the second half on a 5-0 run to get back to within one possession.

Dufault led the Buffs with a game-high 19 points, and Andre Roberson added a double-double with 11 points and 14 boards. Kamp led Cal with 14 points with Cobbs also scoring in double-digits with 12.

Colorado won the rebounding battle 40-36, but was outshot by the Bears 35.1 percent (20-of-57) to CU's 31.9 percent (15-of-47). The Buffs also turned the ball over 17 times, leading to 22 points by Cal. The Golden Bears only turned the ball over eight times, leading to just two points for the Buffs off turnovers.

"Seventeen turnovers to eight, on the road, you're putting yourself behind the eight-ball," Boyle said about the significance turnovers played in the game.

SECOND-HALF SURGE LEADS STANFORD PAST BUFFS

PALO ALTO, Calif. (Jan. 14/AP) - Stanford outscored Colorado 45-31 in the second half to defeat the Buffs 84-64 at Maples Pavilion on Saturday afternoon.

The Buffs (11-6, 3-2 Pac-12) opened the second half on a 9-3 run fueled by five points from Spencer Dinwiddie to tie the game at 42 with 17:01 remaining in the game. Stanford (15-3, 5-1 Pac-12) then took over, going on a 32-5 run to open up a 74-47 lead with 7:48 to play.

"We tried to get a little aggressive defensively," Colorado head coach Tad Boyle said about the Cardinal's second-half streak.

"We started doubling their ball screens a little bit and they got a couple shooters loose. They went up five and then we got out of that and tried to get back to just guarding and the floodgates just kind of opened. Our defense wasn't good enough to keep us in the game tonight and our offense wasn't good either. I think you have to credit Stanford because they played a heck of a game."

Andre Roberson led CU with 15 points, while Austin Dufault (14), Carlon Brown (13), and Dinwiddie (11) all scored in double-digits as well.

Freshman Chasson Randle led the Cardinal with 18 points, including a 4-of-8 performance from beyond the three-point arc. Aaron Bright scored 14, Josh Huestis scored 13, and Josh Owens scored 10 points in addition to a game-high seven boards.

Stanford's 84 points were the most allowed by CU this season as the Cardinal shot 52.9 percent from the field (27-of-51), including 10-of-23 from long range (43.5 percent). The Buffs shot 42.1 percent (24-of-57) for the contest.

CU's last lead in the game came at 21-19 with 9:09 left in the first half before Stanford went on a 12-3 over the next 3:32 of game time to build their lead. The Cardinal led 39-33 at intermission.

Roberson had a game-high 13 points at halftime and Dufault also was in double-digits with 10 points at the break.

After starting 3-0 in conference play, CU has now dropped their first two road games in the Pac-12. The Buffs return to action on Thursday night as they host Arizona State at Coors Events Center. The game will tip at 6:30 p.m. and will be televised on ROOT Sports.

BUFFS GET DEFENSIVE, WALTZ PAST SUN DEVILS

BOULDER (Jan. 19) - After their defensive intensity went missing in the second of two Pac-12 Conference road losses last weekend, the Colorado Buffaloes went on a recovery mission Thursday night. Mission accomplished. CU clamped down on Arizona State early and thoroughly, leaving the Coors Events Center with a 69-54 Pac-12 win.

"Our focus tonight was terrific . . . I felt we were there mentally for the whole 40 minutes," said CU coach Tad Boyle, who made a special trip to the scorer's table after the game and publicly thanked a full student section - "You're the heartbeat of this arena" - for returning from winter break and putting Buffs hoops on their calendars.

And you'd better believe Boyle wants them all back on Saturday for Arizona's visit (4 p.m., ROOT Sports). Apologies to the deliberate, grind-it-out Sun Devils, but the more athletic, up-tempo Wildcats will offer an altogether different challenge.

Boyle termed Saturday "a marquee game" whose style should better suit the Buffs than what the Sun Devils presented them. Not that CU couldn't handle it . . . ASU was forced into missing six of its first seven shots and by halftime had scored only 15 points - the Sun Devils' lowest first-half total since they managed 13 on Feb. 25, 2006 against Arizona.

Limiting ASU to half a dozen first-half field goals (6-of-18, 33.3 percent), CU led 31-15 at the break. It marked the fifth time this season the Buffs have led an opponent by 15 or more points at intermission.

"It was really big, especially coming from our second half at Stanford when we really didn't defend that well," CU senior Austin Dufault said. "We wanted to come back (home) and just get back to what we do and the things that we focus on. I think we did a good job in the first half."

ASU coach Herb Sendek agreed. Sendek, who was whistled for back-to-back technical fouls and ejected with 4:12 to play, called CU "the more aggressive, physical team from the get-go."

CU outrebounded ASU 34-22 and converted the visitors' 14 turnovers into 25 points. Sendek's team obviously was handicapped by the loss of top scorer Trent Lockett (13.9 average). He suffered an ankle sprain in ASU's 76-66 home win against Oregon State last weekend.

But Lockett's presence might not have mattered, given how the Buffs smothered the Sun Devils in the first 20 minutes. "I thought we hit a little bit of a lull in the first half - which we are capable of . . .," Boyle said. "But the good is that our defense kind of stemmed the tide and we were able to go into halftime with a good lead."

Offensively, CU (12-6, 4-2) was efficient against ASU's matchup zone, passing crisply inside and outscoring the visitors 36-22 in the paint (18-8 in the first half). Boyle said that particular defense is difficult to prepare for because it's rare, and he was delighted the visit by ASU (6-12, 2-4) preceded Arizona's.

"I'm so thankful to be able to play ASU on front end, because of their matchup zone and flex offense," he said. "Arizona plays more like us than Arizona State does."

Senior Carlon Brown, CU's leading scorer (13.8), left the game with just under 5 minutes to play having made only two free throws. But balanced scoring from his teammates picked him up; junior Andre Roberson collected another double-double (12 points, 10 rebounds), with freshman Spencer Dinwiddie adding 12 points and Dufault and freshman Askia Booker 11 each.

BUFFS STAY TOUGH IN CRUNCH, EDGE WILDCATS

BOULDER (Jan. 21) - The way the game had rocked back and forth for 39 minutes, Colorado coach Tad Boyle couldn't see it shifting toward the Buffaloes with a seamless offensive possession. Arizona had made it a deliver-a-blow, absorb-a-blow kind of Saturday, and the Wildcats - down one point with no timeouts - had a last chance to hush the season's first sellout crowd at the Coors Events Center.

It didn't happen - and that the Buffs outlasted the Wildcats 64-63 on what Boyle later called a "rock solid" final defensive stand simply made his afternoon.

"We work on time and score in practice a lot . . . up one and having to get a stop," he said. "All it takes is one break down; we made them take a contested three and they missed. I thought it was appropriate that we won the game that way."

The win, CU's fifth at home in Pac-12 Conference play (13-6 overall, 5-2 conference), finally unfolded like this:

After a Kevin Parrom layup gave UA a 63-61 lead, CU senior Carlon Brown drained a three-pointer to put CU ahead by a point with 1:18 showing. When Kyle Fogg missed the front end of a critical one-and-one with 1:01 left, Brown in turn misfired from just inside the top of the key with less than half a minute remaining.

The Wildcats controlled the rebound and had a final chance for the win, but they didn't have a timeout to set anything up. UA coach Sean Miller had sped through his second-half timeouts, using his last one with about 2:50 left.

As a result, the Wildcats sped down court and tried find a crack in the Buffs' defense. When none was found, the ball went to Parrom on the right perimeter. His trey attempt at the buzzer was long - and the Buffs and their rowdy capacity crowd (11,056) exhaled. Victoriously.

As the crowd roared, most of CU's players joined in the celebration - all but senior Austin Dufault, who celebrated a little late. "I thought the game was tied," Dufault said sheepishly. "I saw Nate (Tomlinson) sprinting down the court, and thought, 'What's he doing? We're going into overtime.' Then I looked at the scoreboard, grabbed Carlon and said, 'We won."

Duh . . . shocking, but true. Dufault, though, was infinitely more in tune to what preceded the final frantic seconds. To go along with Brown's team-best 19 points - 12 in the second half, seven of those in the last 9:57 - Dufault contributed 12 points, six rebounds and pair of steals, continuing his steady play in his final season. CU's pair of freshman guards - Spencer Dinwiddie and Askia Booker - combined for 21 points (Dinwiddie 12, Booker nine). UA's Jesse Perry led all scorers with 20.

The contributions of Brown, Dufault, Dinwiddie and Booker were made all the more vital by what Boyle termed an off night for leading rebounder (11.3) and second-leading scorer (11.6) Andre Roberson, who collected seven boards but didn't score (0-for-8 from the field, 0-for-2 from the free throw line).

"It wasn't his night," Boyle said. "He wasn't getting to the foul line and missed some shots he normally makes. Basketball is going to be like that sometimes . . . I kept telling him to keep his head up and don't get down on yourself. Andre's not going to do that and we know that. It's just one of those nights."

Fortunately for the Buffs, Brown & Co. were there to compensate and push CU to 11-1 at home this season and 29-3 in 11/2 seasons under Boyle. Brown's only points on Thursday night against Arizona State came on a pair of free throws, but he was taking what ASU's matchup zone gave him. Against UA, he morphed back into more of a creator, and Boyle acknowledged, "It was key . . . we knew we were going to have to have guys make plays because against normal teams you wait for the defense to break down. Against great defensive teams, and I consider Arizona a very good defensive team, they may not break down.

"So if they don't break down, guess what? You're going to have to make a play and your offense has to be better than their defense. Sometimes it just takes a guy like Carlon who can make plays . . . we kept calling his number and putting the ball in his hands."

After Brown missed his jumper from the top of the key that could have put the Buffs ahead by four points, the final seconds blurred: "I don't know what happened . . . I ran back after missing the shot."

But he also immediately turned defensive, as did his teammates.

"When it came down to the bottom line, we had to get the stop," said Brown, who added six rebounds, two assists and a steal to his stat line. "We found a way to do that . . . we got a stop to win it. We talk about that every day in practice; sometimes the offense doesn't click and the defense has to step up. Today we did that."

As proud as he was about the Buffs' defense in the final half minute, Boyle also pointed to his team's season-low six turnovers, which led to a dozen points. CU needed an advantage there, because UA won the board battle 44-35 - not a statistical duel Boyle likes to lose. And CU missed 10 free throws (16-of-26), hit just four three-pointers in 17 attempts and finished at 40.7 percent from the field (22-of-54).

But the Buffs, Boyle noted, "made one extra play" on defense. "That's what makes me the happiest and the most proud."

CU trailed 39-35 at the half and never led by more than four points in the first 20 minutes. And that 32-28 advantage disappeared quickly as the Wildcats put together an 11-1 run to go up 39-33 with 1:15 remaining before the break.

The Buffs played the final 13 minutes of the first half minus Roberson, who picked up two quick fouls and went to the bench with no points and no boards with 11:49 left in the half. He was back in the lineup to start the second half, but he remained uncharacteristically ineffective.

The second half was back-and-forth. Back-to-back layups and a free throw by Dufault, who had only three first-half points, opened CU's biggest lead (61-56) with 3:52 to play.

It lasted slightly over a minute. Fogg (16 points) followed with a three-pointer from the right wing, and Solomon Hill (10) hit a layup to tie the score at 61-61 with 2:51 remaining.

But crunch time - featuring Brown's big trey and the Buffs' big final stop - was approaching . . .

Miller, whose third UA team is now 13-7, 4-3, called it "a great college basketball game, and I give a lot of credit to Colorado. They have an incredible home court here and I think they have a very good team."
