STUDENT HOST FORM

To Be Completed PRIOR to the Visit

Prior to serving as a student host the student-athlete must be certified through the Office of Compliance Services. A student host is required to adhere to the laws of the State of Colorado, the NCAA, the Pac 12, and the University of Colorado Recruitment of Prospective Student-Athletes policy.

1. The following expectations apply during any prospects' visit to the CU campus:
   - No illegal activity.
   - No use of alcohol or drug, such as marijuana.
   - No activities or entertainment at any location that would be judged inappropriate or that may cause a perception of impropriety.
   - Returning to lodging before 1:00 a.m. curfew.
   - All entertainment arranged during the visit will meet the University's expectations of appropriate activities and NCAA rules; prospective student-athlete hosts will follow the staff's directions for activities during the visit.

   Violations of any of these rules will result any of the following actions:
   - The Director of Athletics, in consultation with the Boulder Campus Chancellor or his/her designee, may suspend from competition student-athletes involved in such violations pending a review of the violations, disciplinary actions following the review may include suspension or dismissal from the team.
   - The Director of Athletics may suspend any Athletics staff members involved in violations pending a review of the violations, and disciplinary actions may be applied by the AD following the review.
   - The Director of Athletics may determine that prospective student-athletes in violation of these standards will no longer be recruited to CU-Boulder.

2. A maximum of up to $40.00 per day may be provided to cover the entertainment expenses of both yourself and the prospect. You may be provided with an additional $20.00 per day for each additional prospect entertained by you. The money provided may only be used to entertain you, the prospect, the prospect's parents (legal guardian) or spouse. Other student-athletes may assist with the hosting of the prospect but shall pay for their own entertainment. No cash may be given to the prospect or anyone else. You must bring your photo ID to pick up the host funds from the Athletic Business Office, and money must be picked up within 2 weeks of the visit.

3. You may not use the entertainment funds to purchase, or otherwise provide the prospect with, gifts of value (e.g., souvenirs, clothing, etc.).

4. You may not use any vehicle provided or arranged for by any CU staff member or booster

5. You may not transport the prospect or anyone accompanying the prospect more than 30 miles from the CU-Boulder campus.

6. You should not allow any conversations to occur, on- or off-campus, between the prospect and a booster/donor/mentor of the athletics program. If an unplanned meeting occurs, only an exchange of greetings is permissible.

7. You may receive a complimentary admission to a home athletics contest when accompanying a prospect.

8. Neither you nor the prospect can pay for additional entertainment above and beyond the $40/day provided to you by the Athletic Department.

9. At the conclusion of the official visit, you must schedule a meeting with a coach/staff member to summarize with them, any additional meals or entertainment provided to the prospect. You may be subject to a Compliance interview regarding the activities of your visit.
