2014 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

Game 10—Arizona

BUFFS HEAD TO THE DESERT IN SEARCH OF FIRST PAC-12 WIN

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2014 ● 6:07 p.m. MST ● Arizona Stadium (56,029) ● Tucson, Ariz.

RELEASE NUMBER 10 (November 4, 2014)

Pac-12 Networks (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (2-7, 0-6 Pac-12) hit the road and will head southwest in search of their first league win in traveling to Tucson to take on the No. 21 Arizona Wildcats (6-2, 3-2 Pac-12) in a 6:07 p.m. (MST) kickoff this Saturday, Nov. 8, at Arizona Stadium ... The game will be broadcast nationally on the Pac-12 Networks ... The Buffs are out to snap several losing streaks: 17 games against ranked opponents (22 losses to ranked foes on the road), nine games in Pac-12 play, 10 straight league setbacks away from home and five games overall ... Colorado has won four straight games on November 8 (Kansas, at Iowa State, Missouri, Iowa State), and six of the last seven ... Colorado is 9-6 all-time in the state of Arizona, which includes a 2-2 mark in bowl games ... This will be CU's third game this season on artificial turf; the Buffs split the first two (winning at UMass and losing at Cal) ... It is Arizona's annual Homecoming game, thus it will be CU's third such game in four weeks, as it had its own against UCLA and was the opponent for Southern California's game ... CU has lost three of its Pac-12 games by a combined 11 points; you have to go back 50 years to find a season where the Buffs lost three league games by as many or fewer combined points (8, in the Big Eight in 1964; CU actually dropped four by 12 points that year) ... CU is coming off a 38-23 loss to Washington, a game it led until the last portion of the third quarter, as the contest turned on interception and punt return touchdowns for the Huskies ... Arizona dropped a defensive battle to UCLA at the Rose Bowl, 17-7; it was just the second time in 35 Pac-12 games this season where both teams did not score at least 10 points ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

CU-Arizona (Pac-12 Networks, National): Kevin Calabro (play-by-play) / Glenn Parker (color analyst) / Jill Savage (sideline reporter) / Michael Molinari (producer)

STAT OF THE WEEK

The Buffs ran 89 plays against Washington, the second time this season it was one short of 90, which CU has eclipsed on four occasions. CU is on target to smash its school record of 906 set in 2002 (a 13-game regular season). CU has had 90-plus plays in a game four times total over the last 21 seasons (once each in 1999, 2002, 2005 and 2007). CU last had two in the same season in 1978, also the last year it had two back-to-back before the last two games this year (in games three and four, versus San Jose State and Northwestern, respectively). The only other time it had more than one was in 1970, when the Buffs had their previous high of three, all in a row including two that hit the century mark (100 vs. Kansas, 91 at Oklahoma State and 100 at Air Force).

OBSCURE NOTE(S) OF THE WEEK

Colorado has gone for it on fourth down an average of three times per game this season ... the Buffaloes are 14-of-27 on the year, converting at 51.9 percent. One might wonder where that stands all-time at CU ... The most makes and attempts in a single season both came way back in 1962, when the Buffs converted 21-of-41 fourth down attempts (51.2%), and that was a 10-game season. The best percentages came in 1993 (72.7%, 8-of-11) and 2008 (72.0%, 18-of-25). Under coach Mike MacIntyre, the Buffaloes are 18-of-41 in 21 games on fourth downs (4-of-14 last season).

> At one point during the 1964 season, CU made nine straight fourth down attempts. So Happy 50th Anniversary to those Buffs who pulled that feat off!

COLORADO FOOTBALL MEDIA SERVICES

- ➤ Head coach Mike MacIntyre holds a Tuesday press luncheon, with this year's location in the Flatirons Club inside Balch Fieldhouse (access the room by the back stairway on the north side of the building). All will start at 11:30 a.m. with lunch, followed by MacIntyre promptly at Noon and select players afterwards depending on class conflicts. This year's dates: Aug. 26; Sept. 2-9-16-23-30; Oct. 14-21-28; Nov. 4-18-25; Dec. 2-TBA (bowl); no presser ahead of open Saturdays (Oct. 11, Nov. 15). The press conference portion of the luncheon is streamed live on www.CUBuffs.com (in the BuffsTV area); press conferences on CUBuffs.com are free and do not require access codes. (TV Pool Assignments: KCNC 8/26, 9/16, 10/14, 11/04; KDVR 9/09, 9/30,
 - 10/28, 11/25; KUSA 9/02, 9/23, 10/21, 11/18 (all on own 12/02). MacIntyre can be heard Tuesdays (Aug. 26-Nov. 25) on the Pac-12 Teleconference Call at 11:25 a.m. MT, with a taped replay available after 4 p.m. MT those afternoons. All 12 coaches participate; for access numbers to the conference call and the replay, e-mail David Plati (david.plati@colorado.edu)
- with audio files available at www.pac-12.com). Video highlights of CU games are available through the Pac-12 Network and Digital Xchange. There are a few restrictions in place; please work with Duane Lindberg at the Pac-12 to coordinate your needs (dlindberg@pac-12.org).
- The Pac-12 Networks are available nationwide through many platforms; check with your local cable or satellite subscriber for more info. Comcast and Time Warner carry the Network in Colorado and DISH Network is the league's satellite provider (there remains no deal with DirecTV). In the Boulder-Denver area it can be found on Comcast 430 & 431 (840 HD); Pac-12 DISH channels include 406 and 413 (along with 5453 and 5454 in its auxiliary area).
- The Colorado lockerroom (home and road) is closed after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be available (a list will be solicited immediately following the game; no cutoff to request players).
- Colorado's football practices are usually open (to the media and public) but are currently temporarily closed; the first 20-25 minutes of the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday practices are open to the media for any photography/video needs (follow parameters listed in CU's media policies). Thursday practices are entirely closed (except to network TV).
- This year's standard meeting/practice schedule (mountain time, pre-time change): Sunday: Off; Monday: 7:30-9:00a/9:25-10:50a; Tuesday: 7:30-8:30/8:45-10:50; Wednesday: 7:30-8:30/8:45-10:50; Thursday: 8:00-9:00,10:30-11:00/9:00-10:15 walkthrough); Friday (8:00-9:00/9:30-11:00; evening meetings). Daylight savings time ends on Sunday, Nov. 2 at 2:00 a.m.
- Interviews with Colorado players are allowed post-practice on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Phone interviews with out-of-town media are allowed all three days in all time slots. Interviews on Sundays are at the discretion of the player, as it being the standard player day off (no meetings/practice), CU can't arrange due to NCAA rules.
- Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I (FBS) football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for all major conferences and their member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.
- CU On-Line Photo Database. The CU SID office has an online photo database that allows registered members of the media instant access to print quality head shots of all CU coaches and student-athletes as well as action shots of key players. Registration is easy: for a login and password, simply log on to www.CUBuffs.com, select "Sports Information" from the "Athletic Department" menu located on the left navigation bar and follow the instructions.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE INTERNET

- > Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Visit the official CU site at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes, press conference broadcasts (free) and articles by former Rocky Mountain News sportswriter B.G. Brooks. Go to www.CUBuffs.com/media and click on Enter Media Center: it will link you to everything you'll need to know about CU football. Breaking news with the program will be found here first every time and delivered in full without others editing out what they might deem unessential or don't have room for.
- Stats. A live in-game stats link is available for media only in the press box.
- Audio. Colorado football and basketball can be heard for free on the Internet at either CUBuffs.com or KOA-Radio (or its sister station, KKZN/AM760 for hoops). Links: www.CUBuffs.com, www.850koa.com, www.am760.net.
- BuffsTV. Through the Pac-12, "BuffsTV" offers the opportunity to listen and/or watch live game action along with weekly features; all can be found here: http://www.cubuffs.com/mediaPortal/player.dbml?id=3093348.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE AIRWAYS

- KOA-Radio in Denver (850 AM) originates the CU Football Network, with sports director Mark Johnson in his 11th year as the play-by-play voice of the Buffs. Larry Zimmer (analysis) is in his 41st season broadcasting Colorado football (he handled play-by-play from 1971-81 and 1985-2003). Sideline duties will be handled by former Buff and NFL All-Pro linebacker Chad Brown (third year). Cities on the network in addition to KOA/Denver: Alamosa (KALQ/94.5FM), Aspen (KFNO/106.1 FM, which serves Eagle, 96.7FM; Roaring Fork, 94.3FM and Old Snowmass, 93.9FM), Colorado Springs (KREL, 1580AM) Durango (KRSJ/ 100.5 FM), Grand Junction (KTMM/1340AM) and Steamboat Springs (KTYV/ 98.9FM). KOA has been the home to CU football for 70 of the last 73 years.
- Wednesdays at 7 p.m. (Aug. 27-Nov. 19), the CU Coaches Radio Show originates from Fate Brewery (1600 38th St., Boulder); Johnson and Zimmer host (it airs on KOA, or AM760 if a conflict with Colorado Rockies baseball).
- Satellite Radio: Sirius-XM is the satellite home of the Pac-12 and the Buffs; the CU-Arizona game (UA broadcast) will be on Sirius Channel 139 (XM 197).
- The Pac-12 Mountain Network is the television home of the Buffaloes; it produces a variety of programming featuring all 12 member institutions.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases pl ayer name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status is listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame and the Monday after the game.

Anniversary-Mania in 2014

This season signifies the anniversaries of some great — and not so great — milestones in CU history. It's the 125th football season, but the 125th anniversary of CU athletics (there was a lone varsity baseball game in April 1890); the homecoming game against UCLA on Oct. 25 was the 100th in school history; it's the 90th anniversary of Folsom Field (opened as Colorado Stadium on Oct. 11, 1924); it's the 80th anniversary of CU adopting the nickname "Buffaloes" (in November 1934); it's the 75th anniversary of CU's first Mountain States Conference title in 1939 (after an 0-3 start); it's the 45th anniversary of CU's 1969 Liberty Bowl champion team that thumped Alabama; the 35th anniversary of the Sept. 8, 1979 game against Oregon—the first college game televised on a fledgling network known as ESPN; the 30th anniversary of Ed Reinhardt's tragic injury at Oregon (Sept. 15, 1984); the 25th anniversary of CU's first 11-0 regular season and first-ever No. 1 ranking, but also of the death of Sal Aunese (Sept. 23, 1989); and the 20th anniversary of "The Catch" (or Miracle in Michigan, Sept. 24, 1994), Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a CU player, and coach Bill McCartney's surprise retirement.

LONGTIME VOICE OF THE BUFFALOES REMAINS ON THE "DL"

Larry Zimmer, the longtime voice of the Colorado Buffaloes, has missed his first CU football games in 21 seasons, absent for the last three as he has been hospitalized since Oct. 4 with an illness (he has missed just nine overall in 41 seasons of calling CU games on KOA-Radio). Zimmer, 78, suffered a fall in his Lookout Mountain (Golden) home on October 4 after the CU-Oregon State game and has been hospitalized since; a stroke or any kind of seizure were ruled out. A streak of 251 straight CU games as either the play-by-play voice or the color analyst unfortunately came to an end; he had last missed a game in 1993 (the Aloha Bowl) when there was a conflict with a Denver Bronco game (he was doing the play-by-play for both at the time, and Denver had a home game the next day and there was no way he could make it back in time from Honolulu). His first year was 1971, and all tallied up, he's called 483 football games for CU, not to mention well over 1,000 basketball games. He is a member of the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame and CU's Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as the 2009 recipient of the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award from the National Football Foundation, recognizing service and dedication to one school. Here's to a speedy recovery and quick return to the "lineup."

SPREADING IT THICK BUT AROUND AS WELL

Colorado has five players with 20 or more receptions — one of just 14 teams nationally to have that many and just the 12th time in school history CU has had as many as five catch 20 passes in a season, all since 1982 (and 11 times over the course of the last 15 years). In 2004 and 2005, seven Buffaloes caught at least 20 passes, though the leaders topped out at 29 and 43; no CU team has ever had four players with 30-plus. This year, WR Nelson Spruce has 90 by himself, which are more receptions that the entire CU team had in 32 seasons since the end of World War II — including every year from 1985 through 1989, but 15 players in all have caught at least one pass (13 with four or more). CU has twice has as many as 19 players make a receptions in a season, in 1999 and 2004.

> Players With 20+ Receptions: 7—Washington State; 6—Cal, Texas A&M, W. Kentucky; 5—Arizona, Bowling Green, Colorado, UCLA, Virginia (CU is one of 13 with three 30+).

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several returning Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts nine games into the 2014 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career numbers for players past and present will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ TB MICHAEL ADKINS is 54th in rushing yards (932).
- ⇒ WR D.D. GOODSON is 38th in receptions (59) and is 44th in receiving yards (680).
- ⇒ CB GREG HENDERSON is 43rd in interceptions (5), is third in pass deflections (37) and is 59th in total tackles (215).
- ⇒ TB TONY JONES is 38th in rushing yards (1,204), 22nd in receptions (83) and 68th in receiving yards (524).
- ⇒ TB PHILLIP LINDSAY is 16th in kickoff return yards (836).
- ⇒ QB SEFO LIUFAU is ninth in passing yards (4,369), fourth in touchdown passes (37), first in completion percentage (63.0) and is 10th in total offense (4,550).
- ⇒ WR TYLER McCULLOCH is 23rd in receptions (82) and is 27th in receiving yards (970).
- ⇒ FS MARQUES MOSLEY is 19th in kickoff return yards (604).
- ⇒ P DARRAGH O'NEILL is ninth in punting average (42.69), first in punts (263), first in punting yards (11,228) and first in punts inside-the-20 (88).
- ⇒ PK WILL OLIVER is second in both scoring and kick scoring (257 points), third in field goals made (45) and attempted (63), and first in both extra points made (122) and attempted (124).
- ⇒ TB CHRISTIAN POWELL is 27th in rushing yards (1,562) and tied for 35th in rushing touchdowns (11).
- ⇒ ILB RYAN SEVERSON is 12th in kickoff return yards (836).
- ⇒ SS TERREL SMITH is 95th in tackles (137), is tied for sixth in special team tackles (33) and is eighth in special team points (64).
- ⇒ WR NELSON SPRUCE is second receptions (189), is seventh in receiving yards (2,098) and is sixth in touchdown receptions (18).

Colorado Honor Candidates

There are a few Colorado players worthy of consideration for national and conference honors as the season; for those of you who have votes in such, please consider the below players that the coaching staff thought were deserving. The list (ALPHABETICAL) and quick hits on each:

✓ FS CHIDOBE AWUZIE

All-Pac 12 Candidate (Sophomore All-America team candidate)

Soph. / 6-0 / 190 / San Jose, Calif. The team leader in tackles with 64 (57 solo), he's also either the leader or tied for the lead in third down stops (11), touchdown saves (10) and tackles for zero (4) ... Has eight passes broken and a fumble recovery as well.

✓ CB GREG HENDERSON

All-Pac-12 Candidate

Sr. / 5-11 / 185 / Corona, Calif. He has been consistent and recently became just the 23rd player in school history to earn the honor of being a four-year starter ... He has been in on 42 tackles (35 solo), with a team-high 13 pass deflections ... Also has eight third down stops, four tackles for losses including a sack in playing all but three snaps from scrimmage.

All-Pac 12 Candidate (Sophomore All-America team candidate)

Soph. / 6-4 / 230 / Tacoma, Wash. He has enjoyed a breakout season, and is on pace to shatter most of CU's season passing marks – he already owns the records for touchdown passes (25) and completions (274), with many others in site ... He has at least one TD pass in all 17 career games, the fourth-longest streak in the nation, and within that, the last 12 have been multiple TD games, the longest such streak in the NCAA.

✓ OG DANIEL MUNYER

All-Pac 12 Candidate

Sr. / 6-2 / 295 / Los Angeles, Calif. Colorado's top offensive lineman, he's coming off two of the best games of his career, grading to 95.6% versus UCLA and 95.5% against Washington ... He owns a team-best 65.4 plus-play percentage for the year, and when factoring in those that are deemed neutral (he didn't beat his defender, but the defender didn't beat him either), he's grading to 91.4 percent for the year. Has ateam-best 39 knockdown (pancake-esque) blocks.

✓ P DARRAGH O'NEILL

All-American & All-Pac 12 Candidate

Sr. / 6-2 / 190 / Louisville, Colo. He is CU's all-time leader in punts, yards and inside-the-20 (and 10) kicks ... Enjoying his best year, with a 44.4 average, has 20 punts inside-the-20 (eight inside-the-15), 66 percent of his punts (47) are not returned and he has but three touchbacks ... hang time has produced 11 fair catches.

✓ PK WILL OLIVER

All-Pac-12 Candidate (LOU GROZA AWARD CANDIDATE)

Jr. / 5-11 / 190 / Los Angeles, Calif. CU's second all-time leading scorer leads the team this year with 68 points, perfect on PAT kicks (35-of-35) and has made seven straight field goals to improve to 11-of-15 ... Has made a school record 95 straight PATs ... His 11 field goals have covered 376 yards, or 34.2 yards per.

✓ WR NELSON SPRUCE

All-American & All-Pac 12 Candidate (BILETNIKOFF AWARD CANDIDATE)

Jr. / 6-1 / 195 / Westlake Village, Calif. He is enjoying his finest season as a Buff, as he has been among the nation's receiving leaders since week one, continues to lead the nation in receptions (90), is the runner-up in TD catches (11) and fifth in total yards (1,002). Has set numerous school records this season.

✓ DT JOSH TUPOU

All-Pac 12 Candidate

Jr. / 6-3 / 325 / Buena Park, Calif. A big force in clogging the middle, he has been excellent against the run in posting 29 tackles (18 solo), with two for losses (one sack), four tackles for zero and two third down stops.

Sophomore All-American Candidates: TB Michael Adkins, C Alex Kelley, ILB Kenneth Olugbode, S Tedric Thompson Freshman All-American Candidates: WR Shay Fields, KR Phillip Lindsay, DE Derek McCartney, S Evan White

"TOE-JO" MAKES HISTORY

Senior TB Tony Jones has joined two distinct "clubs" in CU history: he is the ninth player to join the 1,000/500 club (career rushing and receiving yards); he's also the 13th to join the 500/500 grouping. A closer look:

IN GOES FRAZIER! IN GOES FRAZIER!

Okay, so Howard Cosell we're not, but redshirt freshman George Frazier is playing on both sides of the ball – fullback/tight end on offense and at end on defense – and not just in specialized situations. When he appeared on offense and defense for the first time against Arizona State, it marked the first time a Buff had done so in the same game since 2005, when John Guydon did so several times at guard and tackle. Frazier has actually seen more time on defense lately but figures prominently on both units. A game-by-game look at his play count (on offense and defense, he has over 100 more on several special team units):

Opponent	Offense	Defense	Total	Opponent	Offense	Defense	Total	Opponent	Offense	Defense	Total
Colorado State	10		10	California	16	16	32	UCLA	7	18	25
Massachusetts	19		19	Oregon State	6	12	18	Washington	5	14	19
Arizona State	5	14	19	USC	6	23	29	Total	87	115	202
Hawai'i	13	18	31

➤ He scored a touchdown via both rushing (1-yard dive) and receiving (2 yards) at Cal, which hadn't been done by a Colorado player since the 2007 season, when Hugh Charles did it last at Texas Tech in a 31-26 win; just three games earlier, Demetrius Sumler did it in a 43-23 win at Baylor. Prior to that duo, you have to go back to 2001, when Cortlen Johnson did it at Iowa State (the same game he had 100 yards rushing and receiving, the only time that has happened in CU history).

STREAKING INSIDE THE 20

Connor Cook, Jr.

(FACT: CU INVENTED CHARTING THE RED ZONE IN 1981; AS IN THE NFL, THE 20 IS NOT IN THE RED ZONE)

In the last seven season openers, the Buffaloes are 24-of-25 in the red zone (15 TDs, 10 FGs), having gone 2-of-2 against CSU this year (and 3-of-3 last year). That followed a five year stretch between 2001 and 2005 where Colorado was just 11-of-18 (9 TDs, 2 FG). The Buffs were 3-of-4 inside-the-20 against Colorado State in 2012, 2-of-2 in 2011, 3-of-3 in 2010, 2-of-2 in 2009, 4-of-4 in 2007 and 2008 and 2-of-2 in 2006.

This year, Colorado has 32 scores in 37 trips when penetrating the opponent 20-yard line (including 25 touchdowns); last year, the Buffs scored 26 times in 32 penetrations of the opponent 20, but only 14 of those were TDs, so CU has already topped its red zone TD count from last year by 79 percent. The most in the last 10 seasons are 30 in 2004 followed by 25 in 2007 and now this year.

LIUFAU OBLITERATES SCHOOL TO STREAK

Sophomore QB Sefo Liufau has wiped out the previous CU mark for consecutive games with a touchdown. Activated from a potential redshirt year in the fourth game in 2013, he has thrown for at least one TD in every game he's played in -17. That is also the fourth longest current streak in the country, and he owns the longest run in the NCAA in games with multiple TDs (12). The old marks for both overall and for the first games to start a career was nine, Koy Detmer in 1996 and Cody Hawkins in 2007. Liufau has already set the school record for the most touchdowns in a season at Colorado with 25 (old mark was 22 by Koy Detmer in 1996); the 23 are the sixth most in the nation this season. A look at the nation's longest streaks, which includes bowls (original research by Temple sports information):

CONSECUTIVE GAME	S WITH A TD PA	ASS	CONSECUTIVE GAMES/MULTIPLE TD PASSE
Player, Class	School	Streak	Player, Class	School	Streak
Rakeem Cato, Sr.	Marshall	40*	Sefo Liufau, Soph.	Colorado	12

Bryce Petty, Sr.	Baylor	20	Everett Golson, Sr.	Notre Dame	8
Sefo Liufau, Soph.	Colorado	17	(*—NCAA FBS record.)

(Note: Florida State's Jameis Winston missed a game earlier this season but has thrown a TD pass in 20 straight games he has played; Texas Tech's Davis Webb has also missed a game but has thrown one in 18 straight games (9 multiple.)

SECOND HALF OF FIRST HALF AND SECOND HALF ... OTHERWISE KNOWN AS SECOND AND FOURTH QUARTERS

Hmmm ... could it be a case of conditioning and the altitude? Read on:

Michigan State

- ⇒ Second Quarter Mastery: Colorado has been fairly dominant this season in the second quarter. On the year, CU has outscored the opponent 100-68 and outgained the foe, 1,262-822 in the period. At home, it's even more amplified, as in the five games at Folsom, CU has outscored the enemy 66-33 with a 802-385 edge in total yards.
- → Fourth Quarter As Well: CU also has the edge in the fourth quarter, outscoring the opponent 62-58 and outgaining them 1,096-633 (including 17-0 and 186-65, respectively, in the big comeback against UCLA); in CU's five home games, CU has advantages of 34-20 in scoring and 666-274 in yards.

^{*—}fourth-year seniors (Brisco, Eaton and Yates are juniors ineligibility but have decided to forego next year and play as seniors in 2014).

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last 13 years, Colorado has had 218 of its 243 seniors graduate, including 15 of the 17 seniors in 2013 (two others are in need of just one class); these are the 2001-2013 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. That translates to 89.7 percent in this time frame. In addition, two of this year's seniors have already earned their diplomas as well: FS Jered Bell (Sociology) and TE Kyle Slavin (Communication & Political Science). Over the last six years, minus the two players still in school, 104 of the last 111 have graduated (93.7%), and starting with the 2006 senior class, 141 of 153 have earned degrees (92.2%). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.682 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2014 semester is its second-highest on record (with the semester GPA of 2.564 the seventh straight term with a 2.50 or better).

BALL SECURITY UNDER MAC

In 2013, CU tailbacks didn't have a fumble until the ninth game last year at Washington—the first and only one by any in the group (did not occur until the 254th carry); now three-fourths into 2014, the tailbacks have 268 carries and just three fumbles (two others have come on kickoff returns). Career counts: Christian Powell has just two fumbles in 396 career touches (371 rushes), Tony Jones has only two in 375 (284 rushes), Michael Adkins II just two in 206 touches (183 rushes) and Phillip Lindsay three in 82 (48 rushes; two of his fumbles came when he was popped pretty hard on kickoff returns). In 2014, the entire team has just nine fumbles in 687 touches (353 rushes, 287 receptions, 47 returns).

POWELL HITS A GRAND, JONES CLOSING IN

In 2013, TB Christian Powell became the 50th player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career, and this year, TB Tony Jones joined him as the 51st; Michael Adkins (932) is in position to become the 52nd before the season is over. CU is seventh all-time in 1,000-yard runners; Oklahoma tops the list with 70. The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 1K and 2K plateaus:

MAC ATTACK LEADING YOUNG DEFENSIVE ENDS

Redshirt freshman DE Derek McCartney is threatening the school's quarterback sack record by a freshman, as he has four on the season, threatening the record of six set by OLB Alfred Williams back in 1987. And another redshirt frosh end, Tim Coleman, has two. A look at CU's all-time freshman sack leaders (*—denotes redshirt freshman):

FIRST DOWNS MOUNTING

CU now has 245 first downs in nine games; while a statistic that sometimes can be overrated, the fact is the Buffs need just 17 more to better the school mark of 261 in 2001 (also a 12-game regular season); 135 of those have come through the air, with the mark of 150 set in 1996 also in danger. The Buffs have earned 28 by penalty, snapping the old high of 25 set in 2001 and 2012.

DRESSING AND TRAVELING YOUNG

When it comes to dressing players for games (and traveling as well), the Buffs are hovering right around 60 percent underclassmen in everything it does. A look at the make-up of those dressing for Buff games in 2014:

Opponent (Total)	Sr.	Jr.	Soph.	RFr.	Fr.	Under	Opponent (Total)	Sr.	Jr.	Soph.	RFr.	Fr.	Under

YOUTH CAMP(S)

Colorado had 71 players out of its 105 in August camp as underclassmen – 44 freshmen and 27 sophomores. That ranked the Buffs as the youngest team in the Pac-12 Conference and the 11th youngest in the nation. Here's the list for top 25 schools with the most underclassmen in camp for 2014 (freshmen and sophomore numbers include redshirts):

Youth, Part II

The quarterbacks on the Colorado roster have appeared in eight total career FBS games through the 2013 season; all eight games were by then-true freshman Sefo Liufau. He did make seven starts, which places him outside the top 25. But no other Buffalo has played a game at quarterback in his career heading into this season. Here's a look at those schools with the fewest career games played at the signal caller position entering 2014:

School	GP	GS	School	GP	GS	School	GP	GS
New Mexico State	0	0	Ball State	7	0	UCF	9	0
Troy	4	0	ldaho	7	7	LSU	9	1
UT-San Antonio	5	0	Virginia Tech	8	0	Eastern Michigan	9	4
SMU	5	2	Colorado	8	7	Louisiana Tech	9	6
Louisville	6	0	Texas State	8	7	Purdue	9	7

2014 UNDERGLASSMEN ON DEPTH CHARTS

At the midway point of the season, CU has the third-most underclassmen in the nation on its depth chart (freshmen, redshirt frosh, all sophomores) with 32 players (13 freshmen, five true); it ranked fourth on the opening day two-deeps with 28; that is the most in the Pac-12 Conference. A closer look (Arizona State SID research):

Oklahoma State	35	Arkansas State	29	Arkansas	27	Connecticut	26	Purdue	25	Washington State	21
Tulane	33	Tennessee	29	Northern Illinois	27	Florida	26	SMU	25	Southern Cal	19
Colorado	32	Wake Forest	29	Texas A&M	27	San Jose State	26	California	21
Alabama	29	Pittsburgh	28	Arizona	26	Arizona State	25	Utah	21

Colorado is tied for the 29th fewest seniors in the two-deep with 11; Temple (6), Baylor (7) and Arizona State and Pittsburgh (8 each) top that list.

WHO WILL IT BE IN 2014?

In each of the last four seasons, there has been at least one freshman on defense who has cracked the 300-play mark in snaps played from scrimmage. Just 15 true freshmen have played over 300 snaps from scrimmage on defense in CU history, but nine of those joined the list the last four seasons. In 2013, Addison Gillam and CB/N Chidobe Awuzie became the latest true freshmen to make a splash on defense for the Buffaloes. Current junior CB Greg Henderson set the record in 2011 with 823 plays, with now-sophomore CB Kenneth Crawley second at the time with 642 in 2012. Gillam broke Henderson's record and played 838 snaps this fall, while Awuzie became the 14th true frosh to crack the 300-play barrier, and finished third on the list with 643. And with S Tedric Thompson seeing a lot of late season action subbing for an injured Parker Orms, he finished with 323 to crack the list and finish with the 12th most snaps played. A closer look at the most snaps played by true defensive freshmen (minimum 300):

HIGH SCORING AND CLOSE

The Colorado-California game tied for the 10th highest scoring game in NCAA history where the margin of victory was three points or less (and that already fell three spots just one month afterward with the crazy scoring this year). Here's the list of those close high scoring affairs (research by Tex Noel, IFRA):

NOT AS EASY AS IT'S BEEN

Through nine games, Colorado opponents are 172-of-297 passing, or a 57.9 percent completion rate; that is considerably lower than the average over the past several seasons. Last year, CU allowed a 59.1 completion rate, which was a big improvement from 2012, when that figure was 67.8. The figure was over 65 percent in 2010 and 2011 and hasn't been under 55 percent since the 2001 season.

- → Opponents had completed 49.2 percent through four games that marked the first time the opponent had completed less than 50 percent of its passes in-season since 2007, when the foe was 66-of-133 (49.6) through five games.
- ➡ Hawai'i quarterbacks were only able to complete 17-of-46 throws (37.0), and that was the first time in 36 games that an opponent failed to complete 50 percent of its throws (Ohio State was 7-of-5 on Sept. 24, 2011), and the first time since Sept. 22, 2007 since an opponent was under 40 percent (Miami-Ohio was 11-of-32, 34.4 percent ... or 85 games in-between.

THE VERTICAL GAME ... RETURNING?

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. At the midway point of the season, the Buffs are on target to have its most 20-plus plays since 2007. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Seaso	n Total	Rush	Pass	Seaso	n Total	Rush	Pass	2010	43
1994	76	37	39	1998	40	11	29	2002	58	35	23	2006	35	18	17	2011	56

IT TOOK MORE TIME THAN EVER BEFORE ...

CU did not commit a turnover in a season opener for the eighth time in its history; the Buffs have never opened a season with two turnover-free games. It took a deflected pass and then an interception by UMass for CU to have its first in 2014, but coming early in the third quarters, it did mark the longest CU has ever gone into a season before committing its first (92 minutes, 28 seconds); the eight season opener turnover-free seasons and when the first occurred:

SON OF A BUFF

There are six current Buffaloes who are following in the legacies of their fathers, who at one time donned the CU football uniform. The legacies: OL Isaiah Holland (Darius, DT, 1991-94), DE Aaron Howard (Paul), OL Alex Kelley (Karry, OL, 1976-79), DE Derek McCartney (Shannon Clavelle, DT, 1993-95), DT Clay Norgard (Erik, C, 1987-88) and S Richard Yates (Scott, SS, 1976-79). Three others had cousins who previously lettered: TE Brian Boatman (Joe Liley, golf, 1998-2001), LB Deaysean Rippy (Doug Rippy, LB, 2009-12) and DB Evan White (J.J. Billingsley, SS, 2002-06). NATIONALLY: California and Idaho lead the nation in "legacy" players, as each has eight sons of former players currently on their rosters. Tennessee has seven, followed by Colorado, Iowa and Texas A&M (six each).

THE SET-UP

Over the last decade, Colorado has a decent track record of rebounding from sudden heartbreak, as the Buffaloes are 4-4 in such games. It's what CU had to do following the gut-wrenching double overtime losses at Cal (59-56) and to UCLA (40-37). All of the below were games that CU owned significant leads in but the opponent got up off the proverbial floor and rallied for the win. A closer look at how the Buffaloes have recently bounced back from heartbreak in their next game (losing on either the last play or in the final minute after owning a two-score lead at any point in the game):

BILETNIKOFF AWARD CANDIDATE

Has a Biletnikoff Award winner ever coached a Biletnikoff winner? Not yet. But CU receivers coach Troy Walters, the 1999 recipient, appears to have a solid candidate in junior Nelson Spruce for the honor, which will be the 21st awarded this December since the inaugural one in 1994. Walters earned the trophy as a senior at Stanford in 1999, when he caught 74 passes for 1,456 yards (19.7 per) and 10 touchdowns. The 10 semifinalists will be announced Monday, Nov. 17, with the three finalists to be revealed a week later (Nov. 24); the Buffs have had one Biletnikoff finalist in its history, Rae Carruth, in 1996. If Spruce keeps this up, it will be hard not to issue him a ticket to Orlando and the Home Depot College Football Awards Show on Thursday, Dec. 11.

A quick look at some of Spruce's accomplishments to date in 2014:

- Nation's leader in receptions (90), runner-up in TDs (12) and fifth yards (1,002) through games of Nov. 1.
- ➡ School record and a Pac-12 Conference tying 19 receptions at California.
- Five 100-yard games.
- → Four multi-TD games.
- → He has earned 49 first downs, and 12 catches of 20-plus yards (with 36 of 10 yards or longer).
- → TD receptions in school record seven straight games, including the first five games of 2014.
- → His TD catches have covered near and far: 27.6 yards per (304 total yards: 54, 12, 70, 3, 15, 31, 71, 12, 6, 25, 5).

SPRUCE IS LOOSE

Junior WR Nelson Spruce has basically been on fire in 2014; he's already etched his name into the record book several times (see list later in this release), as he's rewriting several of the school's longstanding reception records. Something clicked with him late in his sophomore season; working with the coaches and receivers coach Troy Walters specifically, they taught him to turn up field and increase his yards after the catch, which as a result has turned him into one of the most prolific receivers in the nation. A closer look:

Span	No.	Yards	Avg.	TD	20+	10+
First 21 games	81	838	10.3	5	6	36
Last 12 games	108	1,260	11.7	13	16	44
Totals	189	2,098	11.1	18	22	80

On September 15, he was fittingly added to the watch list for the Biletnikoff Award, presented to the nation's top receiver. Through nine games, Spruce has 90 receptions for 1,002 yards and 11 touchdowns; he has set CU's single season record for receptions and tied the mark for TD's. He is second nationally in receiving TDs (he had the longest consecutive streak in the nation with one in seven straight games until being shut out by Oregon State). He is first nationally in receptions per game (10.0) and sixth in receiving yards per game (111.3). In 2013, Paul Richardson was on the list but surprisingly did not make it to semifinalist status; CU has had one finalist for the honor, Rae Carruth in 1996.

> His 11 touchdown receptions in 2014 have covered 304 total yards, or 27.6 per (54, 12, 70, 3, 15, 31, 71, 12, 6, 25, 5).

Here's a look at the longest streaks in Colorado history (bowl games NOT included; for streaks to be considered continuous, player has to appear in all CU games during time span; if did not play or missed due to injury, streak is considered stopped):

PLAY COUNT, MARGIN ON RECORD PACES

With the Buffaloes running an offensive play every 22.7 seconds of possession time, Colorado is currently on pace to run a record number of offensive plays in a season, both in raw count and average. CU has 796 plays in seven games, an average of 88.4 per game; CU ran a school record 110 at California with the season-low of 73 in the opener against CSU (the season "low" for fewest plays in a game was in 1969 – CU ran at least 70 plays in all 10 regular season games). A look at the top seasons in CU history:

Season	G	W-L	Plays	(Rush, Pass)	Average	Season	G	W-L	Plays	(Rush, Pass)	Average
2014	9	2-7	796	(353, 443)	88.4	1976	11	8-3	847	(651, 196)	77.0
1970	10	6-4	840	(625, 215)	84.0	1999	11	6-5	843	(454, 389)	76.6
1969	10	7-3	784	(586, 198)	78.4	1978	11	6-5	842	(657, 185)	76.5

The most plays run in any season are 906 in 2002, but that was a 13-game season so the average per game was just 69.7. Also, CU has run 100 or more plays than its opponents in a season just six times, last doing so in 1999. Thus far in 2014, Colorado has run 185 more plays than the foe. A closer look:

Season	G	W-L	CU Plays	Opp Plays	Diffe	erence	Season	G	W-L	CU Plays	Opp Plays	Differ	ence

NATIONALLY

Colorado is one of just 12 teams (out of 129) that are averaging 80 or more plays per game ... in fact, the Buffaloes are second with 88.4, just a shade behind Baylor (88.5), with this week's opponent, Arizona, in fourth (85.0). By contrast, the leader in the NFL, Philadelphia, averages 72.1; the national leaders:

School	G	Plays	Average	School	G	Plays	Average	School	G	Plays	Average
Baylor	8	708	88.50	Washington State	9	764	84.89	BYU	9	727	80.77

THIRD DOWN SUCCESS

Through nine games, Colorado is converting on third downs at 40.6 percent (63-of-155); much of that could be traced to the fact that the Buffaloes are averaging 6.3 yards to go per third down try. The latter would be the first sub-7.1 figure since 2002, when CU averaged 6.1 yards to go for a first down. CU has converted at 40 percent or higher just once in the last 10 seasons (45.1 in 2010, when it averaged 7.2 yards to go, a basic anomaly when looking at the numbers all-time). CU has averaged under 7 yards to go just twice (2001, 2002) since the figure started being tracked in 1998, and generally, the higher that number, the lower the conversion rate. In 2013, CU averaged 7.1 yards and converted at 33.7 percent (7.5 and 29.9 in 2012, 8.1 and 36.0 in 2011). CU's best season was 1989 - 53.9 - followed by 1990 (48.9), 1954 (46.8), 1966 (46.0), 1987 (45.2) and 1957 (45.1).

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. ARIZONA

Colorado leads the all-time series with Arizona by a 13-3 count, reeling off a dozen straight wins in the series before the Wildcats finally broke through in the final meeting last century (1986 in Boulder); the Buffs lead by a 5-2 count in Boulder and an 8-1 edge in Tucson. The bulk of the games came in the 1950s, when the two schools met 10 times in an 11-year span between 1950 and 1960; CU won all 10 of those games, eight decided by two touchdowns or more. The series resumed in 2011 when Colorado joined the Pac-12 Conference and the two became division rivals. CU's 48-29 win in that game in Boulder proved to be CU's first-ever win in Pac-12 league play. CU coach Mike MacIntyre is 0-1 against Arizona, while UA coach Rich Rodriguez is 2-0 against the Buffaloes (he left West Virginia just prior to the CU-WVU home-and-home series in 2008-09).

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?— Colorado and Arizona had played just once, in 1931, until CU athletic director Harry Carlson signed a 10-game contact with the Wildcats that saw the two neighboring state schools meet from 1950-60 (sans 1952), six times in Tucson. CU won all 10 games, eight by two or more scores.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME— 60th. John "The Beast" Bayuk rushed 25 times for 183 yards and four touchdowns with Homer Jenkins adding 108 yards on 14 tries to lead a powerful Colorado rushing attack as the Buffaloes defeated Arizona in a night game at Tucson, 40-18. CU rolled up 421 yards on the ground in averaging seven yards per carry in cruising to a fifth straight win over the Wildcats. Bayuk's four touchdown runs covered 20, 2, 1 and 25 yards, the first two coming in the second quarter that helped CU build a 27-6 intermission lead. Colorado scored seven touchdowns on 12 possessions and had 460 yards overall, while UA was held to just 49 offensive plays (and 308 yards). Unranked entering the game, the Buffaloes moved to 4-0 on the season and entered the Associated Press poll at No. 17 following the win.

COLORADO-ARIZONA AT-A-GLANGE / SERIES TRENDS

Colorado leads the series, 13-3 (5-2 in Boulder, 8-1 in Tucson). A game-by-game look:

ARIZONA SNAPSHOT

Arizona is 6-2 overall and 3-2 in the Pac-12. The Wildcats boast one of the nation's top offenses, ranking 13th in total offense, averaging 506.0 yards per game, including boasting the nation's 10th best passing offense at 326.8 yards per game, while also averaging 36.4 points per game, ranking 20th in scoring. QB Anu Solomon ranks third in the Pac-12 and sixth nationally, averaging 325.6 yards per game. He has completed 218-of-364 passes for 2,605 yards (21 TD/5 INT). WR Cayleb Jones leads the receivers with 50 catches for 716 yards and eight scores, ranking seventh in the Pac-12 in both receptions and yards and third in receiving touchdowns. RB Nick Wilson (109 carries, 610 yards, 7 TDs) and Terris Jones-Grisby (81-456-3) have combined for over 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns on the ground this season. Defensively, the Wildcats have struggled in areas, ranking 118th in pass defense, giving up 293.3 yards per game, and 99th in total defense at 449.4 yards per game. LB Scooby Wright III has been outstanding for the Wildcats, leading the nation in forced fumble with five and also ranking second in both sacks (12) and tackles for loss (18) and fourth in tackles (12.1 per game).

Rich Rodriguez is in his third year as Arizona head coach, returning to coaching in 2012 after a year as a television commentator. He is 22-12 at the reins of the Wildcat program, going 8-5 in each of his first two seasons before this year's 6-2 mark. Prior to heading west, he was 15-22 in three years at Michigan (2008-10); he went to Ann Arbor from West Virginia, who he coached to a 60-26 mark from 2001-07 with four Big East Championships and two BCS Bowl games (2005 Sugar and 2007 Fiesta). Prior to becoming a FBS head coach, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Clemson from 1999-2000 after serving in the same position at Tulane from 1997-98. He was also a head coach at the Division II level, leading Glenville State to a 43-28-2 mark from 1990-96 after a year at West Virginia as a volunteer assistant in 1989. He was at Salem from 1986-88, first as secondary and special teams coach in 1986, then as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 1987 before assuming head coaching duties in 1988 leading the squad to a 2-8 mark. He started as a walk-on at West Virginia and became a three-year letterman at defensive back (1982-84) before serving as a student assistant in 1985 and graduating from the school in 1986.

CU-ARIZONA BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia (or lack thereof) in the Colorado-Arizona series:

- No. 10 The highest national ranking of either team (Arizona in 1986) when the two have lined up across from each other;
 - 4-1 Colorado's record against Arizona when scoring 20 or fewer points;
- 11-11 Colorado's record against Arizona in men's basketball; the Buffaloes' 53-51 win in March 2012 gave CU the tournament title and catapulted the Buffaloes to the NCAA tournament;
- 12-3 Colorado's record against Arizona in women's basketball, with the Buffs winning all six games since joining the Pac-12 in 2011;
- 16 Number of games played between Colorado and Arizona in their football histories;
- 25 & 27 The number of years, respectively, between the two schools playing in Boulder (1986, 2011) and in Tucson (1985, 2012);
 - 30.4 Colorado's scoring average on offense in the 16 games in the Arizona series (487 points);
 - 113 The number of passes CU has completed in the 14 games since 1950 in the series (only three games with 10-plus—50 total last three years);
 - 551 Colorado's rushing yards in the 1958 game, the school's single-game record to this day;
 - 625 The number of miles between Boulder, Colorado, and Tucson, Arizona;
 - 2,956 The difference in elevation (feet) between Boulder (5,345) and Tucson (2,389);
- 218,107 The combined square miles of Arizona (114,007) and Colorado (104,100) as the two rank sixth and eighth, respectively, among the 50 states.

ARIZONA 44, COLORADO 20 OCTOBER 26, 2013

BOULDER — Behind a career-high 192 yards rushing by quarterback B.J. Denker and another 119 by tailback Ka'Deem Carey, the Arizona Wildcats slowly pulled away to a 44-20 win over the Colorado Buffaloes.

Denker also completed 21-of-32 passes for 265 yards and a touchdown, giving him 457 yards in total offense – the sixth-highest output in school history, with his 192 yards rushing believed to be a school record for a QB. The Buffs held Carey, the nation's leading rusher, to 42 yards below his average but he did find the end zone four times.

Sefo Liufau, making his first Pac-12 start for the Buffaloes (3-4, 0-4 Pac-12), finished 17-for-32 for 212 vards and a 75-vard touchdown to Paul Richardson, who made seven catches for 132 yards. The Buffs managed 349 yards in total offense, 137 of them on the ground.

Indeed, the Buffs played the Wildcats toe-to-toe through the game's first 27 1/2 minutes, even taking a 13-10 lead on Liufau's 75-yard TD pass to Richardson and a pair of Will Oliver field goals that were set up by Arizona turnovers.

CU linebacker Woodson Greer recovered an Arizona fumble that led to Oliver's career-long 53-yard field goal and tied the score at 10-10 with 14:50 left in the second quarter. Just under 5 minutes later, after Oliver was just wide left on a 52yard attempt, Denker was intercepted by Buffs safety Jered Bell, who returned the pick 26 yards to the Wildcats 49, a drive that ended with an Oliver 48-yarder to make it 13-10 with 5:07 left in the first half.

Allowing the Wildcats (5-2, 2-2 Pac-12) two touchdowns in the first half's final 2:28. the Buffs found themselves trailing 24-13 at intermission. Arizona got the first of those two scores on a 7-yard run by Carey, capping a nine-play, 75-yard march. Then, after Arizona's defense forced a CU three-and-out, Carey ran 30 yards and Denker connected with slot receiver Nate Phillips, who got a step on Bell, for a 44yard TD pass.

CU tied the score on the long Liufau-Richardson scoring pass, then Jake Smith's 37yard field goal sent Arizona up 10-7 with 4:34 left in the first quarter.

Needing a defensive stop to open the second half, the Buffs got a partial stop. Three plays – two of them runs by Denker that netted 65 yards – put the Wildcats inside the Buffs' 10 with first-and-goal. But CU held Arizona to a field goal – a 26-yarder by Smith – then responded with its own 75-yard drive (nine plays) and pulled to within seven (27-20) on Michael Adkins II's 1-yard plunge and Oliver's PAT.

Carey scored his third TD of the night - another 1-yard dive - and Smith kicked Arizona ahead again by two touchdowns (34-20) with 7:55 left in the third quarter.

Liufau, with the help of a personal foul (facemask) on Arizona cornerback Jonathan McKnight that nullified an interception, drove CU to the Arizona 4-yard line but no further. Liufau's fourth-down pass to the end zone fell incomplete.

After it was made, just over 3 minutes later, the fourth quarter began with the Buffs still trailing by 14 points.

And the end was beginning . . . CU attempted a fake punt at its own 15-yard line, with punter Darragh O'Neill trying to skirt left end but being hammered after a 3yard gain to the 18. Carey needed two runs to cover that distance, scoring his fourth TD on a 6-yard run up the middle.

After Smith's extra point the Wildcats were cruising, 41-20, with 14:30 remaining. He added a 28-yard field goal to make it 44-20 with 9:10 to play and that ended the scoring.

GAME NOTES

It was the annual Blackout Breast Cancer game, so the Buffaloes wore all black, including pink accessories (and the Ralphie logo was pink as well); but the Buffs dropped to 21-22-1 all-time wearing all black (0-3 with black helmets) ... Colorado fell to 61-33-5 in 99 homecoming games, to 50-50-2 in night games overall (6-1 vs. Arizona, 24-13-2 at home) ... WR Paul Richardson's 75-vard TD reception was his sixth play of 50 yards or longer this season, tving the modern day record for most plays 50 yards or longer in year (and it was the 12th of his career) ... OLB Woodson Greer started on the inside (at the will spot) with the Buffs opening in the nickel ... DL Samson Kafovalu returned to action as he completed all requirements to play after violating assorted team rules ... Arizona ran 39 first down plays, and gained yardage on 36 of those; the other plays were two rushes for zero and an incomplete pass as UA averaged 9.97 vards on first down; CU averaged a healthy 6.4 ... FS Jered Bell made his third interception of the season, which he has returned for 109 yards and a TD; his four career picks he has returned 146 yards ... P Darragh O'Neill punted three times inside UA territory, placing all inside the 15 ... PK Will Oliver made his career long field goal of 53 yards; he previously had two from 52 yards.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 8

Colorado is 11-5 all-time on November 8, having won its last four times on the date and six times in the last seven. Here's a brief look at some of the games played on the date: 1930—CU deals Northern Colorado (then Greeley State Teacher's College) a 27-7 setback; the '31 Coloradoan: "Three of (CU's) touchdowns in this game resulted from sustained drives down the field, made possible by the brilliant play of the Silver & Gold forewall." (I assume that means the O-line). 1969—Paul Arendt and Bobby Anderson scored fourth quarter touchdowns, the latter coming with 2:29 remaining, rallying CU to a 17-14 win over Kansas in Lawrence. 1975—Terry Kunz rushed for 119 yards and a touchdown with Jim Kelleher adding 77 and a TD reception as CU's defense shined in a 17-7 win over Oklahoma State. The Buffs outgained the 'Pokes, 409-187, with David Williams throwing for 186 yards and Dave Logan being his favorite target (4-48 receiving). 1986—CU worked to an early 17-0 lead and then set things on cruise control en route to its fifth straight win, a 17-10 verdict over Kansas. Colorado rushed for 332 yards, led by Anthony Weatherspoon who picked up 98 of them, with Mike Marquez and Jeff Campbell scoring touchdowns for the Buffs. 1997—Dwayne Cherrington scored from one yard out with nine seconds remaining to complete the third biggest comeback in school history as Colorado defeated Iowa State in Ames, 43-38. The Cyclones twice had leads of 18 points, leading 28-10 at halftime and 35-17 with 8:20 left in the third quarter. John Hessler passed for 299 yards and Troutman rushed for 108 in the game, including 21 on the game winning drive, as CU outgained ISU 479-311 (466-157 after the first quarter). 2003—Joel Klatt threw two touchdown passes and safeties Clyde Surrell, J.J. Billingsley and Dominique Brooks combined for 23 tackles, two interceptions, two passes broken up, a forced fumble and a recovery in a 21-16 win over No. 22 Missouri. Klatt threw TD passes to Derek McCoy and Lawrence Vickers and Brian Calhoun added CU's other on a short run. 2008—Cody to Cody. Cody Hawkins threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Cody Crawford with 1:30 remaining and then the CU defense came up big as the Buffaloes rallied from 11 points down in the final 9:14 to defeat Iowa State in Boulder, 28-24. Though it was CU's 22nd win over the Cyclones in the last 25 meetings, this one went down to the wire. After Hawkins' fourth TD pass of the game, ISU drove to the CU with 40 seconds to go. A fourth-and-one pass earned Iowa State a first down at the CU 1, and after spiking the ball, the Cyclones had one last chance with 3 seconds on the clock. ISU called an option play, but when quarterback Austen Arnaud turned up field, he was greeted by D.J. Dykes and Jimmy Smith and tacked for a loss as time ran out. Scotty McKnight caught two TD passes from Hawkins, with the other hauled in by Patrick Williams.

NOVEMBER 8 COLORADO MVP's: DB Jim Cooch & LB Phil Irwin, 1969. Cooch's interception at the CU 25 with 1:36 left preserved a 17-14 win over Kansas; Irwin also had an interception in the contest and recorded a game-high 15 tackles.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL STAT / 1955 & 1994

Fifty-nine years ago this month (Nov. 5, 1955 versus Utah to be exact), Colorado had its first game with a 100-yard rusher (Jack Becker, 20-109) and receiver (Frank Clarke, 2-100). It's happened only 33 times since, last occurring in 2013 against Charleston Southern (200/100 has occurred three times, while 100/200 never has). In the first instance, Becker and Clarke both just barely hit the century mark; one time when it didn't occur until after time expired was 20 years ago. Yes, The Miracle In Michigan: Rashaan Salaam had rushed for 141 yards, the most by any opposing back in Michigan's Big House in some 31 years. But as the final drive started, Michael Westbrook had five catches for 72 yards, not a bad day by any means in front of his home folk. It got better quick: he caught a 21-yard pass on the first play of CU's winning drive, and of course the 64-yard reception on the game's final play to finish up with 157 receiving yards.

HENDERSON OFFICIALLY MAKES HISTORY

Senior CB Greg Henderson has started all nine games this season (he has 42 career starts in 44 games), and since he has started over half of CU's games in 2014, he has already qualified as a starter for the season. The significance of this is that Henderson started 12 games as a freshman, nine as a sophomore (he missed time on the front end of the year with a sprained knee), 12 as a junior and now eight as a senior — he has become just the 23rd player in school history to earn the honor of being listed as a four-year starter (and just the sixth defensive back to do it), as he joins a pretty illustrious group (list of all on page 380 of CU's 2014 info guide):

Player, Pos.	Seasons	Starts	Player, Pos.	Seasons	Starts	Player, Pos.	Seasons	Starts

GROWING UP BEFORE YOUR EYES

In 2012, the Buffs easily had the youngest secondary in the Pac-12; though talented, the group took its limps from the simple combination of its youth having to go week-in and week-out against Pac-12 quarterback: no weeks off there. Fast-forward to 2014, and the unit has grown up. A look at some comparative opponent passing numbers from the two years (the numbers took a hit in the crazy Cal game as well as USC, as those games skewed the numbers a bit):

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)

99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)

99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays)

99—vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2014

- 1 The number of yards lost rushing in the Colorado State game, almost 20 years to the day that last happened (vs. NE Louisiana, Sept. 3, 1994).
- 3 The number of interceptions by SS Tedric Thompson, the most by a CU strong safety in a season since Michael Lewis had 5 in 2001.
- 4 The number of fumbles by CU tailbacks (on offense) in 21 games under Mike MacIntyre (521 carries; 3 this year in 268).
- 3:28 The average length of CU's games in 2014 (the quickest being 3:10 vs. Colorado State; the longest 4:01 at California).
 - 4 The number of games Colorado will play on artificial surfaces this season (1-1 so far).
 - 4 The number of times CU has run 90 or more plays (and 89 twice), its most 90-plus plays ever in a season (and the total combined the last 21 years).
- 4:01 The time of the California game, that went two overtimes, the longest game in CU history by 1 minute (4:00 against Missouri in OT in 1999).
 - 5 The number of true freshmen the Buffs have played in 2013 (2 offense/3 defense).
- 5-1 Colorado's non-conference record over the last two seasons under Mike MacIntyre, its best since a similar mark over the 2004-05 seasons.
- 7 The number of years between the same player scoring a TD rushing and receiving in the same game (George Frazier, 2014; Hugh Charles, 2007)
- 8 The number of season openers in which CU did not commit a turnover (including both this year and 2013 against Colorado State).
- 8:11 (p.m.) The kickoff time for the Arizona State game, the second latest for a home game in Folsom Field history.
 - 11 The number of first-time starters in 2014 for Colorado (6 offense/5 defense).
 - 14 The number of combined touchdown passes in the CU-California game (7 by each team), the most in a game in FBS history.
 - 16 The number of games in CU history where the Buffs did not commit a turnover or allow a quarterback sack (vs. Colorado State).
 - 21 The number of points scored by CU in the first quarter at Cal, its most in an opening quarter since scoring 21 versus Texas A&M in 2005 (a 41-20 win).
- 22.7 The average number of seconds between plays by the Colorado offense in 2014 (796 plays, 301:30 possession time, or 18,090 seconds).
- 24-of-25 Colorado was 2-of-2 in the red zone against CSU, thus is now 24-of-25 (14 TDs) when cracking the 20 in the last nine season openers.
 - 25 The number of touchdown passes by QB Sefo Liufau, who needed just eight games to break Koy Detmer's single-season record of 22 (set in 1996).
 - 27.6 The average length (yards) of WR Nelson Spruce's 11 touchdown receptions in 2014 (304 total yards: 54, 12, 70, 3, 15, 31, 71, 12, 6, 25, 5).
 - 28 The number of Colorado games played in less than three hours since 1990 (out of 300 games; none yet this year).
 - 30 The number of states CU has played a football game in with the addition of Massachusetts on Sept. 6.
 - 35.5 The third down efficiency of opponents against Colorado in the state's borders since the '09 opener (194-of-546).
 - 36.6 The opponents' combined percentage on third down inside-the-CU 20 (53-of-145) in the last 70 games (dating to 2008).
 - 37 The number of CU offensive records set or tied in the double-overtime loss at California (29 individual, 8 team).
 - 44.6 The percentage of plays (4,943 of 11,088) that CU underclassmen played on defense in 2013 (Soph.: 2556, Fr.-RS: 261, Fr.: 2126)...
 - 59-56 The final score of the Cal game in double OT, matching that of a CU men's basketball team win over the Bears in March's tourney quarterfinal.
 - 59.1 The percentage of plays (3,969 of 6,721) that CU underclassmen have played on defense in 2014 (Soph.: 2986, Fr.-RS: 563, Fr.: 420)
 - 88.4 The average number of plays CU has run on offense in 2014.
 - 92:28 The time in minutes and seconds before CU committed its first turnover in 2014 ... the longest it took for the first one in any season in CU history.
 - 95 The number of consecutive PAT kicks PK Will Oliver has made (35-of-35 in 2014; streak dates back to 2011).
 - 99 The length of a fourth quarter touchdown drive against Arizona State, the seventh of that distance in CU history.
 - 110 The number of offensive plays versus California, just the fourth time CU has run 100+ in its history (last: 105 vs. Kansas State in 1992, a 54-7 win).
 - 115 The number of combined points in the 2OT game with California, the third-most ever in a Colorado game.
 - 185 The number of additional plays on offense that Colorado has run compared to its opponents this season.
 - 245 The number of first downs earned by Colorado, well on target to obliterate the school record of 261 in 2001.
 - 301 The number of all-time wins Colorado has recorded at Folsom Field since it opened on Oct. 11, 1924 (No. 300 came vs. California in 2013).
 - 630 CU's total offense against California, its most ever when losing a game (the Buffs are 55-9 since 1981 when gaining 500-plus).
 - 1,770 The number of miles CU traveled from Boulder to Foxborough, the longest road trip (by 24 miles) the Buffs have ever made in the continental U.S.

O'NEILL ENJOYING FINEST SEASON RAY GUY AWARD CANDIDATE

Senior P Darragh O'Neill, a candidate for the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter, is enjoying his finest year to date. Among the national leaders all season, O'Neill is currently averaging career bests of 44.4 yards per punt, with a net average of 40.6. He is third in the conference and 20th in the nation in gross average, and third and 38th in the net number. He has almost half his kicks inside-the-20 (20 of 47), with eight of those inside-the-15, six inside-the-10 and three inside-the-five, with just 16 of his kicks returned. The average spot of his kicks has been the Colorado 36, with just 11 kicks inside the CU 25 (43.2 average) and six inside opponent territory (four pinned inside-the-20). He is 12th nationally in percentage of punts placed inside-the-20 (see below):

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 296, Pittsburgh is 27th with 292), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the new College Football Playoff come this winter will include the top four teams; only USC, with 11, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 18TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 18th most in the nation in this time frame (25-plus seasons). Florida State has the most (77), followed by Florida (73), Ohio State (69), Alabama (63), Michigan (63), LSU (61), Southern Cal (59), Miami, Fla. (57), Oklahoma (55), Tennessee (53), Auburn (50), Georgia (49), Texas (49), Notre Dame (48), Oregon (48), Penn State (47), Nebraska (45), UCLA (45), Colorado (43) and Washington (42). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (120, with a record of 43-75-2), trailing only Florida (137), LSU (128) and Michigan (121); Ohio State has also played 120. (AP polls used for these figures as the coaches' poll omits teams on probation but the AP does not.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- > CU has lost 17 straight against ranked teams (last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009); the Buffs have lost 22 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

OLIVER MAKING HIS MARK LOU GROZA AWARD CANDIDATE

PK Will Oliver enjoyed a fine junior year in 2013 and was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, handed out annually to the nation's top placekicker (he did not advance to the finalist stage). He is once again on the watch list for this year, as he is wrapping up his CU career by etching his name in the CU record book. He's already in there as the first player in CU history to make all his PAT kicks in two straight seasons (with a record string of 95 in a row), and now CU's all-time leader in extra points made (122) and attempted (124), is second in scoring (257, trailing only PK Mason Crosby), and third in field goals made (45) and attempted (63). He's also been good in the clutch, as including the UCLA game, he has now made two career field goals in the final minute to send a game into overtime (and is 3-of-3 in overtime kicks):

OLIVER FOURTH QUARTER FIELD GOALS (11-of-13, 84.6%)

- 2011 3 3 28 (at Hawai'i, 14:51), 32 (California, 0:30), 22 (California, OT)

- 2013 3 4 52 (Colorado State, 13:07), 37 (at UCLA, 6:17), 38 wl (at Washington, 14:55), 19 (at Utah, 12:17)
- 2014 4 5 45wl (at California, 12:10), 44 (Oregon State, 10:52), 35 (UCLA, 0:36), 38 (UCLA, OT), 34 (UCLA, OT)

HEAD COACH MIKE MACINTYRE

Mike Macintyre is in his second season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, his fifth season as a collegiate head coach; he has a 6-15 record at Colorado and is 22-36 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). This season, he also assumed coaching the cornerbacks, highlighting his defensive roots. The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. A veteran coach of 23 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 49, has coached in a total of 314 football games in his career (58 as a head coach): 155 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ♦ He became just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins. Rick Neuheisel was the last to do both (in 1995).
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.

5-game plus wins, 5-game plus losses: 0, 1. 6-game plus wins, 6-game plus losses: 0, 0. Longest winning streak: 1. Longest losing streak: 0.

- ♦ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received by Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ♦ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:

Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility:

Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. Cu's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates — on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;

Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;

Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.

- ♦ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "Tm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game (in both 2013 and 2014). MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- On players having to be ready at a moment's notice to go into the game: "It's the only game in the world where you have 100 guys on the side watching just eleven in the game at any one time. So you're like the dog sitting on the porch. When that rabbit runs by, you've got to be ready to go."
- On playing music at practice: "Bill Belichik, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ♦ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ Unhappy that he had gained weight since college, slowly adding one a few pounds here and there over the years (and of course recruiting season never helps when the coaches often eat two or even three dinners at various recruits' homes), he decided to do something about it. After the 2013 season, he read the book, Why Diets Fail Us; he started to each much healthier, consumer either one or two nutrition-rich shakes a day (as replacement meals) and increased his workout regimen. The end result was that after six months, he dropped 63 pounds (he now weighs what he did as a junior in high school; he played at 175 in college).
- ♦ MacIntyre is a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll (also did so in 2012), as coaches are now selected by a random draw (he was not drawn for 2013). CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 25 of the last 28 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million. This past February, CU's Board of Regents approved a one-year extension through the 2018 season.

HEAD COACH MIKE MAGINTYRE CONTINUED

- ◆ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MAGINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ibenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family — the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence — and there is a great deal of that — Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

THE CLASS OF '13

For the 2013 season, 31 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 14 of whom (denoted by an *) were first-time head coaches on the collegiate level. Here's a look at what coaches make up the "class of 2013" and their records through games of November 1:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are special teams coordinator Toby Neinas, offensive line coach Gary Bernardi, safeties coach Charles Clark, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat and receivers coach Troy Walters. Defensive coordinator Kent Baer, offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, running backs/tight ends coach Klayton Adams and cornerbacks coach Andy LaRussa are in the press box. Also upstairs will be the quality control coaches, Omar Young and Joe Bleymaier and graduate assistants A.J. Baer and Nate Taye; signaling in plays when not brought in by substituting players are graduate assistants Patrick Williams (offense) and J.B. Hall (defense).

A FIRST SINCE 1979

Colorado has had six head coach changes dating back to when Bill McCartney was named head coach in 1982. He retained Buck Nystrom as offensive line coach (and kept Mike McNeely as an assistant linebacker coach, though he had worked in administration and recruiting). In the next four coaching changes, all kept at least one assistant on staff: Rick Neuheisel (Brian Cabral, Jon Embree, Ben Gregory, Chuck Heater, Terry Lewis), Gary Barnett (Cabral, Embree, Tom Cable), Dan Hawkins (Cabral, Darian Hagan), and Jon Embree (Cabral). Mike MacIntyre interviewed several of the assistants, but in the end brought in all new full-time assistant coaches. The last time that occurred was in 1979, when Chuck Fairbanks took over for Bill Mallory.

▶ But for just the third since 1988, the entire full-time staff returns intact, just the second time a first-year staff didn't have any changes (joining CU's 2012 group under Jon Embree).

FIRST & SECOND YEAR COACHING COMPARISONS

Only two coaches had winning records in their first season at CU since 1944 (Frank Potts, 6-2), which is fairly common nationally since they're more often than not coming into a rebuilding situation. Going back to Dal Ward's inaugural year (1948, when CU became a member of the Big Seven Conference), only two of CU's 12 coaches had winning records, with a third posting a .500 mark. All time, Bill Mallory is the coach that had the most improvement in W-L record from year one to year two, going 9-3 in 1975 after a 5-6 mark his first year (+4); That's followed by William Saunders (+3½, 1932-33), Dan Hawkins (+3½, 2006-07), Jim Yeager (+3, 1941-42), Bill McCartney (+1½, 1982-83) and Sonny Grandelius (+1, 1959-60).

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

The last four CU head coaches all have or have had media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) is a studio host on the Pac-12 Network; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) is an analyst on Sports USA Radio and recently was added to the lineup at SiriusXM; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute. Bill McCartney (1982-94) hosted a radio show last year on 102.3 FM in Denver.

JEFFCOAT'S PEDIGREE: RUSHING AND GETTING TO THE OB

Defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

CU'S BAER IN THE ORIENT

Kent Baer, who joined CU as its defensive coordinator in 2013, used his involvement with the military in the 1970s to create an all-star game in 1989 in Japan that has lasted 25 years; it draws 20-30,000 fans annually. Baer served as the director of athletics and recreation for the commander of United States Naval Forces in Japan along with serving as the head coach for the Yokosuka Seahawks from 1973-1976 (a member of a service league featuring military bases). With this background, Baer created the Heisei Bowl (now the New Era Bowl) as the annual all-star game played annually on the first Saturday of July. Baer coordinates the selection of two American coaches and a dozen U.S. players who are integrated to practice and then play with two Japanese All-Star teams.

In the late 1980s, Baer was brainstorming ways to improve Japanese coaching techniques when he hit on the idea of this cultural exchange. Coaches from all the Pac-10 (now Pac-12) staffs have joined Baer along with individuals from Michigan, Notre Dame and Army. Japanese interest in football has been whetted by various U.S. excursions to the Far East. The old Mirage Bowl in the 1980s featured two Pac-10 teams playing their last game of the regular season in Tokyo. After that, there was the Coca Cola Bowl, also part of the regular schedule. From 1976 to 1993, there was the Japan Bowl, a postseason all-star game of U.S. players. Before joining the CU staff this past winter, Baer continued to be involved with the armed services as he coached San Jose State to a 29-20 win over Bowling Green in the Military Bowl.

TWO NEW TRADITIONS BEGUN IN 2013, THREE ADDED IN 2014

Mike MacIntyre installed a couple of new traditions in 2013 when the team took the field. One player carries out a toolbox and another a sledgehammer (the players will vote on who gets the nod). MacIntyre did this at San Jose State with a sword (because they were the Spartans) and the sledgehammer. The toolbox is representative of the commitment the players have made to each other and the team as a whole; now, there aren't actual tools in the box, rather it contains "commitment cards" where each player wrote down something of significance he will do in the game. So when they view the toolbox during the game, it will serve as a reminder of that commitment. The sledgehammer goes to the big hit of the previous game (the biggest or most important "legal" hit — the play cannot draw a penalty). In 2014, the staff added the "special teams belt" which is awarded to the special teams player of the week, a Buffalo head and midway through the season, added the flags of the United States and the state of Colorado. Here who has been honored with the three objects for player-of-the-week recognition:

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 77 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including seven active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Mike MacIntyre and his oldest son, Jay; Colorado is one of a handful of schools to have it happen twice, as Dan Hawkins had son Cody on his CU teams from 2007-10.

Perhaps the most famous and best head coach father and son tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career). Note: another famous combo was at Marshall, when they were a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

A FIRST? We polled the nation on two occasions, and no other instance has yet to turn up where a head coach had his father as a head coach in college and then had a son on a team that he is the head coach. But that appears to be the case with Mike MacIntyre, who was coached by his father George at Vanderbilt in 1984-85 and is now coaching his son, Jay, at Colorado.

There are currently eight schools where a player is playing for his head coach father: Boston College, Colorado, Iowa, Iowa State, Massachusetts, Middle Tennessee, Utah and Wisconsin. Here's a look at the all-time list of known head coaching father-player son pairings at the same school (#—denotes active):

While this is the first time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons') and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

STAFF STABILITY

For just the third time since 1988, the entire Buffalo coaching staff will return intact; there were no changes in 2009 (Dan Hawkins' fourth CU team) and again in 2012 (Jon Embree's second). And it's just the second time since 1974 that a first-time CU head coach returns all his full-timers (Bill Mallory's group at that time), as Embree's staff was on that list as well. Perhaps with so many young players in the program, now more than ever is consistency in the coaching ranks a welcome non-change. Nationally, just 20 programs did not undergo at least one change, led by Baylor and Northwestern, who have the same full-time coaching staff for a fourth straight year. The list:

4—Baylor, Northwestern. 2—Arizona, Auburn, Boston College, BYU, Clemson, Colorado, Colorado State, Iowa, Kansas State, UL-Lafayette, Michigan State, Mississippi, San Diego State, South Carolina, Tennessee, UNLV, UTEP, Washington State.

TRENDS 1985-2014

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 199-159-4; in these 362 games spanning the last 30 seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

♦ with 400-plus yards total offense	116-31-2
♦ with 500-plus yards total offense	55- 9-0
♦ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	78-12-1
 when punting three or fewer times 	68-25-1
♦ with zero turnovers (146-61-2 with two or fewer)	37-17-2
♦ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	114-19-1
♦ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	102-14-1

 when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense 	93-20-1
♦ when leading at halftime	158-30-2
♦ when leading after three quarters (157-18-3 in last 177)	163-22-3
when scoring 24 or more points	163-37-2
when held to 13 points or less	3-55-0
♦ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	14- 2-0
♦ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	111-33-2

TRENDS II 1989-2014

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings for the next 16 seasons, Colorado has posted an overall record at 172-140-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (316 games over the last 26 seasons, including bowls):

TRENDS III MAGINTYRE ERA (2013-PRESENT)

Mike MacIntyre took over the Buffalo program in 2013, so it is still early, but here are some numbers through 20 games (6-15 record):

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 26 seasons. A closer look:

	Turnovers	Turnovers	Scoring Off Turnovers

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 25-20 in games following a bye week since 1948, when the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference; CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 27 of 29 seasons, with two weeks off 11 of those years and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 22-18 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes a 0-3 mark as a member of the Pac-12 Conference (losing to Arizona State in 2012 and at Oregon State in 2013).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 548 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Now one streak remains:

- > CU has scored in 149 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 301 games (all the way back to 1963).

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 149 times in 245 tries, including 27 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the "two-minute drill" since 1988; that's 61 percent of the time. CU is 3-of-7 this year (the game-tying TD drive at Cal, first half TD versus Oregon State, game-tying FG vs. UCLA), and includes 3-of-4 last year (field goal vs. CSU, TD at Oregon State, TD vs. Cal) and 3-of-7 in 2012 (the highlight being the winning TD drive at Washington State). The last really great year of the drill, and prior to all the hurry up offenses becoming the norm, was 2009: 9-of-14, which included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 38-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 227 of 256 times, losing 26 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 31 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses are this year, in the 2014 season opener to Colorado State (led 17-14 entering the fourth), and in the double OT losses to Cal (CU took a 42-35 lead late, which saw four touchdowns scored in the final 3:23 of regulation) and UCLA (the Buffs led 37-34 before the Bruins' second OT possession) The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

➤ Colorado has won 111 of its last 131 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 37 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent are the first two games of the '13 season (CSU led briefly 26-24 late in the third quarter and into the fourth; UCA led 24-17, also early in the fourth); the two previous to those came by the same score: this year at Washington State (won 35-34 after trailing 31-14 with 8:07 left) and in 2009 against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining). Two big ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below are the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2014 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on the opening roster collectively have played in 904 games, with 314 starts, a little above the average over the last decade (887/275). Other recent years: 896/268 (2013), 674/223 (2012), 890/303 (2011), 877/313 (2010), 847/236 (2009), 817/277 (2008), 853/251 (2007), 1,053/295 (2006) and 1,080/314 (2005). The list entering 2014:

STARTING STREAKS

Through nine games in 2014, OG Daniel Munyer has made the most consecutive starts on the team with 33, followed by WR Nelson Spruce (30), OT Stephane Nembot (25), DT Josh Tupou (24) and CB Greg Henderson (23). After that foursome, next on the list is QB Sefo Liufau with 16.

11 HAVE MADE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2014

In the season opener against Colorado State, six Buffaloes made their first career starts: WR Shay Fields, OT Jeromy Irwin, C Alex Kelley, DE Derek McCartney, OLB Kenneth Olugbode and DE Christian Shaver. FB George Frazier, S Evan White, CB Ahkello Witherspoon, WR Bryce Bobo and OG Gerrad Kough have since followed. Shaver was just the sixth player on defense to start the season opener as a true freshman, and the first freshman ever to do so at defensive end. Fields was the fifth true freshman to start a season opener on offense, the second wide receiver (joining Gerald Thomas in 2012). It was the third time that two true freshmen started in a season opener (also occurred in 1980 and 2012). The duo became the 11th and 12th true CU freshmen to start from scrimmage in the opener; here are those previously who were thrown into the fray from play one: TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming); ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State); CB Greg Henderson, 2011 (vs. Hawai'i); CB Kenneth Crawley and WR Gerald Thomas, 2012 (vs. Colorado State); and ILB Addison Gillam, 2013 (vs. Colorado State); add a 13th for the first play of the game/season on special teams (kickoff coverage team): PK Kevin Eberhart (2003, kicked off vs. CSU in Denver).

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11), 2006 (24), 2007 (18), 2008 (15), 2009 (18), 2010 (21), 2011 (21), 2012 (21), 2013 (12), 2014 (11).

24 PLAYERS HAVE SEEN FIRST GU ACTION IN 2014

A total of 24 players have tasted their first action in a CU uniform in 2014, including 14 in the opener against Colorado State; since then 10 others have seen their first action as a Buffalo. Here's the breakdown by class of those players (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (5): WR Shay Fields, WR Donovan Lee, DT Eddy Lopez, DE Christian Shaver, DB *Evan White

REDSHIRT FROSH (10): WR Bryce Bobo, DE Timothy Coleman, FB George Frazier, PK *Chris Graham, OT Jonathan Huckins, OL Gerrad Kough, OL *Sam Kronshage, TB Phillip Lindsay, DE Derek McCartney, DB *Ryan Moeller

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2012, the Buffaloes started its fewest seniors believed ever (17.8%) and a record number of freshmen (28.0%; 21.6% true frosh). A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

2014 COLORADO FOOTBALL • General / Historical • Page 26

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes finished their 124th season of competition having played 1,195 games with an all-time record of 681-478-36. CU currently stands 23rd on the all-time win list and is 32nd in all-time winning percentage (.585; those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 125 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,205), with only USC (802) and Washington (694) having won more games (USC, UW and Arizona State only own higher winning percentages than the Buffs.

▶ In Boulder, the Buffs are 301-164-10 in 90 seasons on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-7 all-time in overtime games (3-4 at home); the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Colorado has won only 27 games over the last eight-plus seasons, but in 11 of those games, the Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down. This year, UMass got up by 11 early in the second half after cashing in a tipped interception for a touchdown. Two of the rallies came from 17 down: in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Eight have taken place in Boulder, a ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 35 occasions (and are 26-9 in games when this occurs). The last time it happened was against Washington this year, when TB Michael Adkins rushed for 109 yards and WR Nelson Spruce hauled in 13 passes for 138 yards. It's the fourth time CU's done it as a member of the Pac-12 (one each year), in 2013 against Charleston Southern, in 2012 at Washington State and against Arizona in 2011. In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 164 of the 2014 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion project underway, the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands are undergoing a complete redesign. When all is said and done come the season opener on September 13, capacity will likely drop somewhere in the 3,000-seat range. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2013 was 239,778, an average of 38,296 for six home games, which was down from the 2012 average of 45,373 (mainly because there were less total giveaways). It did mark the 19th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 37th time in the last 39 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (CU's season ticket count in 2013 was just under 28,000 when adding in 8,362 student holders, as those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate).

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- □ Colorado is 95-84 in its last 179 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- Colorado is 80-37 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- □ Colorado is 72-43-1 in its last 116 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- □ Colorado is 538-269-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest however came in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run. And two

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Nine games into 2014, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 478 CU games in his career, but a recent string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized October 4 and he missed CU's game at USC; he remains in the hospital and will miss the rest of the season. He's only missed seven games overall, three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts) and four regular season games due to travel conflicts; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (534) has called more games than Zim, who is tied for fourth in consecutive years calling major college football (41st) behind Robertson (48), Bill Hillgrove, Pitt (45) and Don Fischer, Indiana (42). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he has called 562 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006, rejoined the department this past summer and has worked 437 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's now seen a total of 457 overall, working and non-working). SID Dave Plati has worked 416 overall including the last 374 (dating to the '83 finale). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 42nd year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 19th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 20 seniors on its 2014 roster, and if history is any kind of indication, they'll get plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League. Scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so in 2012 and 2013. So far this year, 23 teams have had scouts witness the Buffs in person at games: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Carolina, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Denver, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Miami, Minnesota, New England, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Oakland, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Seattle, St. Louis, Tampa Bay, Tennessee and Washington. Not including camps, 691 scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites).

2014 COLORADO FOOTBALL In-The-Pros Page 28

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 10 former Colorado Buffaloes on preseason National Football League rosters as of November 2; there were 12 on the rosters at the end of the 2013 season (14 at the end of 2012, 15 at the end of 2011, 18 in 2010 and 22 in 2009). CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; a—active/physically unable to perform; i—on injured reserve; p—practice squad):

CANUCKS: Two former Buffs continue to make livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, both with the Calgary Stampeders: TB Hugh Charles is in seventh year in the league (Calgary is his third team) and OG Edwin Harrison is in his fifth (all with the Stampeders). C Marwan Hage retired his year after 10 years in the league, all with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, but still serves as a player representative.

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Three players are the sons of former National Football League players: DL Terran Hasselbach (father Harald played with Washington and Denver); DL Derek McCartney (father Shannon Clavelle, Green Bay); and ILB Clay Norgard (father Erik, 11 years with the Houston Oilers).

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the five who head prep programs: Matt Flavin (Buena Vista), Phil Jackson (Sierra), Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Mike Marquez (Thornton), Bill Mondt (Eaton) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver); in addition, Bob Simmons, a member of Bill McCartney's staff from 1988-94, is the head coach at Boulder High and McCartney's second son, Tom McCartney, is the head coach at Boulder Fairview and was a one-time grad assistant for the Buffs ... when Simmons was also on the staff. And Mark Nolan, the head coach at Regis, was Dan Hawkins administrative assistant for two years.

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 27 of 37 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

A LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS HAVE RISEN TO FIRST-TEAM AT COLORADO

After the NCAA reduced the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (34 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

Player	Pos	First Season	Letters	Notes
Willie Beebe	FB	1978	4L	Solid blocker who scored nine career touchdowns as a bruiser near the goal line
Kyle Rappold	NT	1985	3L	Known as the "trash compactor" for his stature, the Fort Lewis transfer clogged the run
Jeff Campbell	WR/KR	1986	4L	Earned scholarship second day of freshman camp; played five years in the NFL
Ken Culbertson	PK	1986	3L	Scored 98 points in CU's 11-0 run in '89 season, making 59-59 PAT and 11-17 FG
David Gibbs	CB	1986	4L	Solid corner and special teams performer, now coaching with NFL Kansas City Chiefs
Mark Henry	WR	1987	3L	Big play guy with 18 career catches for 416 yards, or 23.1 per catch
Robbie James	WR	1987	1L	Threw TD pass on third down FG fake at Oklahoma State to lead CU to 16-12 win in 1991
Charles Johnson	QB	1987	2L	Often subbed for an injured Darian Hagan, earning Orange Bowl MVP honors in '91 vs. Notre Dame
Erik Norgard	С	1987	2L	Walked on in the spring after transferring from Western Washington; All-Big 8 as a senior
Chris O'Donnell	LB/SN	1987	4L	Solid as a rock at long snapper on special teams all four years
Keith Miller	FB	1992	2L	From tiny Ovid, Colo., he was a solid blocking back. Now an opera singer with the MET.
Ryan Black	SS	1993	4L	Led team in tackles as a junior in 1996 with 154 (78 solo)
Ryan Sutter	FS	1993	3L	CU's all-time special team points leader, led Buffs in tackles (170, 98 solo) in 1997
Neil Voskeritchian	PK	1993	2L	Won the starting placekicker job in 1994, finished career ninth in scoring at CU (161 points)
Nick Pietsch	Р	1996	4L	Led CU in punting in 1997-98-99, finished with a career average of 39.9
Beau Williams	TE	1998	2L	Primarily a blocking tight end, played a big role on CU's 2001 Big 12 title team
D.J. Hackett	WR	2001	2L	Walked on after CS-Northridge dropped football; led CU in receiving in '03, four-year NFL veteran
Tom Hubbard	FS	2001	2L	Defensive MVP of the 2004 Houston Bowl with two interceptions
Evan Judge	WR	2001	4L	Caught 69 balls for 903 yards to finish in top 20 in receiving yards
John Torp	Р	2001	3L	Finished second for the '05 ray Guy Awa rd; set a school records with 205 punts, 65 inside the 20
Paul Creighton	TE	2002	4L	Also saw action at FB, he primarily was a
Greg Pace	SN	2002	4L	Took over all special team snapping chores early as a freshman and handled through senior year
Joel Klatt	QB	2003	3L	Former infielder in Padres organization went on to set 44 CU passing and total offense records
Cody Crawford	WR	2004	3L	Has cracked the school's all-time lists in catches and yards
Jeff Smart	ILB	2005	4L	Earned a scholarship 3 games into the 2007 season, first LB to do so under Cabral; second most tackles by a WO
Scotty McKnight	WR	2006	4L	First freshman WR to ever lead CU in receiving (43-488, 4 TD), finished first in career receptions and third in yards
Aric Goodman	PK	2008	3L	In his first season, he was awarded a scholarship after making the game-winning FG versus West Virginia
Jason Espinoza	WR	2008	3L	Suffered two breaks to his collarbone in '08, playing briefly in-between; co-first team WR in '09
Dustin Ebner	WR	2009	3L	Primarily on special teams until his senior year, when he became a regular in the rotation and caught his first TD pass
Keenan Stevens	С	2009	2L	Pressed into duty in the season opener due to injury, he soon became a fixture and started 10 games
Alex Wood	FB	2009	1L	Hybrid tight end/fullback worked exceptionally hard and became the first player from Steamboat to start in decades.
Scott Fernandez	TE	2010	2L	Ascended to the top of the depth chart his senior year ('13); first career catch was fifth longest (71 yards vs.UA).
Travis Sandersfeld	DB (N)	2010	4L	One of the CUs top perennial special teams performers, he emerged as the starting nickel back for 5 games in 2010
David Goldberg	DE	2011	3L	Coaches cited how hard he worked daily in practice and assumed a starting spot midway through his senior year
Darragh O'Neill	Р	2011	2L	Had more punts (74) than any other freshman at CU, with his 42.3 average second best by a frosh in the NCAA

2014 TEAM MAKE-UP

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked it rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (80 percent of the entire roster—active, those reporting the first day of class and inactive—as of August 25: 90 of 112 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 55, Colorado 26, Texas 9, Hawai'i 4, Arizona 2, New Jersey 2, New York 2, Utah 2, Idaho 1, Michigan 1, Mississippi 1, New Mexico 1, Pennsylvania 1, Washington 1. That's 14 states total along with the District of Columbia (3) and MEXICO that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

→ AROUND THE WORLD: Six Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: PK Diego Gonzalez (Monterrey, Mexico), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), OL Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries), DL Stephane Nembot (Douala, Cameroon), P Darragh O'Neill (Cork, Ireland) and CB Yuri Wright (Saint Vincent and the Grenadines in the Caribbean).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- → 30+. In its history, Colorado is 306-20-1 when scoring 30 or more points (two such losses in 2014), along with records of 218-8 with 35-plus points and 201-6 with 36-plus, 178-4 with 38-plus and 113-2 with 43 or more tallies. The six losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012) and California (59-56 in 20T in 2014). CU has played 1,195 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- → Colorado is 106-94-3 in its last 203 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 4-29 as a member of the Pac-12.
- → 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 129 of its last 307 games, posting a 113-15-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 203 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 23-88-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- → For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ⇒ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979.
 - → In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - → In 2013, the Buffs enjoyed their best season on first down in years: CU averaged over six yards in seven games and 5.83 for the season overall, their best since 2001 (6.7).
 - → In 2014, the Buffs are over five yards (5.4 per) through nine games.
- → Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 53 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 16 seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 74 scores by return in 241 games (67 regular season, seven bowl). After none in 2012, CU had five in 2013.
- → 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 19 times in the last 191 games (and 40 times in the last 266, dating to 1993), accomplishing it twice this season. CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 43-5 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 51-8 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- → Grass. Colorado is 76-83 in its last 159 games on grass, including a 48-48 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass.
- → Artificial Turf. Colorado is 95-53-3 in its last 151 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 61-39-3 mark in conference games. CU is 1-1 this year (and will have four games overall on the fake stuff) after going 0-3 last year and 1-2 in 2012.
- The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, that number was 14.1 in 2005, 10.2; in 2006, 12.0; in 2007, 14.0; in 2008, 9.7 (the only time under 10 in this span); in 2009, 15.7; in 2010, 12.3; in 2011, 13.7; and in 2012, 12.3.
 - → In 2013, opponents gained 815 yards on their 73 conversions (11.2 per), and 115 on the 115 misses (1.0); excludes a 19-yard play with a hold.

- → In 2014, CU has allowed just eight 20-plus plays on third down: opponents have gained 547 yards on 43 makes (12.7 per) and have a net 72 yards on the other 83 plays (0.87).
- No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-2 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, though losing for the first times the last two times it has happened (CSU this year and against Cal in 2011, a 36-33 OT loss). The last win came against Nebraska in 2007 (65-51). In these 16 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 650-351, with only four games decided by less than 17 points.
- → Opponents have made 137-of-170 field goals dating back to 2006 (80.6 percent), including 14-of-15 this year and 45-of-51 (88.2) dating back to the start of the 2012 season. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 99-of-111 (89.2) on kicks inside 40 yards. In the same span, CU is 104-of-164 (63.4).
- → Between 2010 and 2013, opponents had 279 plays of 20 yards or more, earning a combined 8,651 yards (31.0 yards per); the average annually has always hovered around 30 yards, which makes sense since the cutoff is all plays of 20 yards or longer. But it's the count that's the concern: in 2008, opponents had just 44 plays of 20-plus, followed by 53 in 2009 and 50 in 2010; but those counts ballooned to 75 in 2011 and then 81 in 2012 before dropping a shade to 73 in 2013.
 - → In 2013, opponents had 73 plays of 20 yards or more (out of 924), netting 2,316 yards (31.7 per) and 41.2 percent of the total yards (5,616); but five of these games were against teams ranked in the nation's top 15 in offense, including the No. 2 overall offense (Oregon) and the No. 2 passing offense (Oregon State). Thus 7.9 percent of opponent plays were of the 20+ variety.
 - ▶ In 2015, through nine games, opponents have 51 plays that have gained 20 or more yards (8.3 percent of the 611 overall), with those collectively gaining 1,806 yards (1092 pass/714 rush, 35.4 per).
- ➡ Colorado has struggled in the first and third quarters this year, being outscored by a combined 203-103, as well as being outgained in both as well (2,468-1,841). But in the second and fourth quarters, where often conditioning can surface as a factor, CU has outscored the foe by 162-126 with a decided advantage in yardage: 2,358-1,455 (440-plus in each quarter).
- → The Buffs are averaging 473.1 yards per game through nine games, over 100 yards more than their 2013 season average (369.9), with an average 303.8 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season 13 times, last doing so in 2001 (434.4), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season; CU gained 400-plus yards in nine of 11 regular season games that year. The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once − 303.5 − in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just two other times.
 - → The Buffs now have eight games in a row with 400 or more yards of total offense, a program first.
- → Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-119 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09; Stanford is the last to do it (2011; the opponent is now 0-of-18 since). The CU offense is 11-of-122 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- Speaking of third downs, CU is actually better on 3rd-&-7 thru 3rd-&-10 (19-of-48, 39.6%), than it is on 3rd-&-3 thru 3rd-&-6 (21-of-55, 38.2%) ... and, so are the opponents: also 16-of-43 (37.2) compared to 10-of-32 (31.3). Go figure ...
- → Dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 745 of 1,088 quarters (69%; 27 of 36 in 2014). Those numbers included 33 of 48 in 2013 (69 percent).

2014 COLORADO FOOTBALL Anniversaries Page 31

2014 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).
- 1909 Colorado finished 6-0 the first of three in a row to do so while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. CU squeezes by the State Prep School and an Alumni squad, both by 3-0 scores, but follow those up with routs over Colorado A&M (57-0) and New Mexico (53-0) before closing with road wins over Colorado College (9-0) and Colorado Mines (16-0).
- 1914 The 100th anniversary of a 5-1 Colorado team, the next-to-last squad that Fred Folsom would coach in Boulder, but what would be his last winner (CU went 1-6 in his final year in 1915).
- 1924 (Oct. 11) The 90th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State on its way to an 8-1-1 record, which included its first overseas games—two in Hawai'i.
- (Nov. 10) The 80th anniversary of CU's 7-6 win over Utah, snapping a nine-game losing streak at the time against its conference archrival. It's the first game that the school is known as the "Buffaloes" following a contest in the school newspaper to come up with a permanent nickname. In the 7-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day, the foundation for future Ralphie's is laid down when students rent a buffalo calf and more or less control it on the sidelines during the win.
- 1939 The Buffaloes open 0-3, but would go on and post their best finish after such a start, rallying to win five in a row to finish 5-3 and win their first Mountain States Conference title.
- 1949 (Oct. 29) The 65th anniversary of perhaps the most wackiest game in CU history when it comes to the weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.
- 1954 The 60th anniversary of one of the most prolific rushing offenses in Colorado history, the unit averaging 316 yards per game, ranking third in the nation.

 John Bayuk (824 yards), Frank Bernardi (668), Carroll Hardy (642), Homer Jenkins (446) and Emerson Wilson (419) combine to average 6.8 yards per carry and 31 touchdowns in CU's 7-2-1 season.
- The 55th anniversary of Sonny Grandelius' first season as CU coach, as well as what tied for the second-largest comeback in school history, a 21-20 win over Missouri on Halloween (Oct. 31). Trailing 20-6 with 13:05 left, Gale Weidner threw one touchdown pass (12 yards to Jerry Hillebrand), completed a 2-point pass to Jim Counter, and then ran in the game-tying score himself with 6:15 left; Boyd Dowler converted the PAT kick for the winning margin.
- 1964 The 50th anniversary of Eddie Crowder's second CU team; though it repeated with a 2-8 record with one fewer win in Big 8 play, observers could see the future: in 1963, Colorado's five league losses came by a combined 132 points; in '64, this six by 39 (including four by a total of 12).
- 1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players and the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time. Bobby Anderson is moved from quarterback to tailback the third game of the season and goes on to earn All-America honors. On Oct. 25, the Buffs topple No. 5 Missouri, 31-24 in Boulder, the Tigers' lone conference loss of the year.
- 1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-4, but won nine of the last 10 by an average margin of 19 points.
- 1979 (Sept. 8) The 35th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.
- (Sept. 15) The 30th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver, despite CU's new two-tight offense being revealed by the Denver Post in one of those weak "public's right to know" defenses. CU is never the same after the injury and fights its way through a 1-10 season.
- 1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer. His replacement, Darian Hagan, leads the team to the first of three straight undefeated seasons in Big 8 conference play and finishes fifth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy. The season is defined with back-to-back wins at Oklahoma (20-3) and then over No. 3 Nebraska (27-21).
- The 20th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan, Sept. 24); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.
- 1999 The 15th anniversary of Gary Barnett returning to head the program where he spent nine seasons as an assistant (1983-91); along the way, CU defeats at least one ranked opponent for a 12th straight season, plays in and wins its first overtime game in its history (46-39 over Missouri) and a monster bowl win (62-36 over Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl) extends CU's bowl winning streak to a nation's best six games.
- 2004 (Oct. 16) Hard to believe it's been five years since Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60 yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State. And 10 years after "The Catch," Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh hook up for the exact same distance—64 yards—with five seconds left to give CU a 38-31 win over Kansas State. Colorado, 1-4 in league play entering November, rallies to win the Big 12 North Division.
- 2009 (Oct. 17) One of the few highlights in an otherwise disappointing season, CU defeated No. 17 Kansas, 34-30, in a thriller at Folsom Field. It stands as the last win over a ranked team by the Buffaloes.

SOUTH PARK DEBUTS RALPHIE INTRO

Most know that the creators of South Park are CU alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. Trey voices Eric Cartman; he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that debuted during the countdown to kickoff prior to the Arizona State game. Cartnan is seen in his usual garb and he introduced Ralphie before the real buffalo led the Buffs on the field.

2014 COLORADO FOOTBALL All-Time Numbers Page 32

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS ALL-TIME HISTORIC

- 7 The number of Buffaloes enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (six players: White, Romig, D. Anderson, B. Anderson, Wooten, Williams; and one coach: Bill McCartney)
- 14-2 Colorado's record in games since 1972 when not committing a turnover or allowing a quarterback sack.
 - 16 The number of career interceptions by CU's all-time leader, S John Stearns (1970-72).
 - 26 The number of national championships CU has won in its athletic history: 19 skiing, 6 cross country (4 men's/2 women's), 1 football.
- 26-9 Colorado's record in games in its history when it has had a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver in the same game.
 - 30 The number of tackles by LB Jeff Geiser against Kansas State on Nov. 24, 1973, CU's single game record (5 solo, 25 assists).

- 465 The number of passing yards by QB Mike Moschetti against San Jose State on Sept. 11, 1999, CU's single-game passing record.
- 478 The number of games long-time announcer Larry Zimmer has called on the radio for the Buffaloes, the most by anyone in CU history.
- 493 The number of career tackles by CU's all-time leading tackler, ILB Barry Remington (1982-86).
- 533 The number of passing yards against Northeast Louisiana on Sept. 16, 1995, CU's single-game record.
- 551 The number of rushing yards at Arizona on Oct. 11, 1958, CU's single-game record.
- 681 The number of wins Colorado has in its history (23rd most all-time).
- 767 The number of yards of total offense against San Jose State on Sept. 11, 1999, CU's single-game record.
- 1,149 The number of receiving yards by WR Charles Johnson in 1992, CU's single-season record.
- 1,195 The number of games Colorado has played in its history (123rd season of intercollegiate football).
- 2,055 The number of rushing yards TB Rashaan Salaam had in 1994 (the fourth at the time with a 2,000-yard season), on his way to the Heisman.
- 2.548 The number of career yards by CU's all-time receiving leader, WR Michael Westbrook (1991-94).
- 3,156 The number of passing yards by QB Koy Detmer in 1996, CU's single-season record.
- 3,940 The number of career yards by CU's all-time rushing leader, TB Eric Bieniemy (1987-90).
- 5,345 The elevation in feet of CU's Folsom Field (field level), the third highest stadium elevation in the FBS (behind Wyoming and Air Force).
- 7,409 The number of career yards by CU's all-time passing leader, QB Cody Hawkins (2007-10).
- 7,770 The number of career yards by CU's all-time total offense leader, QB Kordell Stewart (1991-94).

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are and 57-40-1 in their last 98 November games (51-28 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month, and 52-16 against unranked teams). Colorado is 52-50-2 in its last 104 October games and 56-36 in its last 92 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 3-3-1 in August games in its history.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS CHANGE IN 2014

The Pac-12 has changed and upgraded its bowls (and opponents) for the 2014 bowl season with the advent of the new college football playoff; these are in place for the 2014-20 seasons (unless the sun explodes and engulfs the Earth). Here's the conference's lineup for the 2014 bowl season:

- # 1 Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (or Sugar Bowl, if Pac-12 has teams in the top four for the new playoff; otherwise, champion will play in Fiesta, Cotton or Peach bowl; vs. Big Ten/At-large)
- #2 Valero Alamo (vs. Big 12)
- #3 National University Holiday (vs. Big Ten)

- # 4 San Francisco (vs. Big Ten)
- # 5 Hyundai Sun (vs. ACC)
- #6 Royal Purple Las Vegas (vs. MWC)
- #7 Cactus (vs. Big Ten)

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against eight Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe and Notre Dame. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (9), Arizona State and Washington (6), Missouri and Texas (5), and LSU, Ohio State, Oregon, Stanford and UCLA (4)

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

School	National Championships	Heisman Trophies	School	National Championships	Heisman Trophies
Alabama	1961-64-65-73-78-79-92-09-11-12	2009	Nebraska	1970-71-94-95-97	1972-83-2001

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last the 24 seasons (1990-2013), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (but tied for 12th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullsworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2012 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

School	Players Tr	ophies	School	Players Trop	hies	School Pla	yers Tro	phies	School Pla	ayers Tro	phies	School Pla	yers Tro	phies

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game? George Frazier, that's who. He appeared for 14 snaps at defensive end for the first time against Arizona State, while lining up for five plays per game at fullback. He became the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and has continued to do so since. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player before Frazier in 2014 to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snap

WHY GU AND NOT UG?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom hasn't happened (yet), the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the second most attending in Jon Embree's first game (2011), also the first nighttime affair. CU has now had seven occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor the late Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
2011	(none/O-D scrimmage)	15,655	Jon Embree's first spring game also featured a first: it was the first one played at night
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
2013	Black 17, White 16	10,244	Good crowd turned out to see Mike MacIntyre's first spring game in Boulder
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history

OPPONENTS & 2013 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2014 Colorado schedule combined for an 91-74 record last year (55.2 winning percentage); four teams won 10 or more games a year ago, while three went 1-11 (thus minus those three, the other nine teams were a gaudy 88-41). It includes nine teams that CU played in 2013 (the Buffaloes went 2-7 against those schools). The Buffs again won't play Stanford and Washington State in Pac-12 league play; both reappear on the 2015-16 schedules as California and Washington come off those two seasons.

- > The Buffaloes opened the 2014 season on a Friday; CU did not have a weeknight game in 2013, the first time since 1995 that the Buffaloes played every regular season game on a Saturday.
- Colorado will travel 10,290 air miles during the regular season this fall, or the equivalent of just over 40 percent around the Earth (at the equator). The longest round trip will be to play Massachusetts in Foxboro: 3,540 miles (the Buffs will stay in Providence, just southwest of Foxboro). Other round trip distances: Oregon (Eugene: 1,916), California (Berkeley: 1,858), USC (Los Angeles: 1,666), Arizona (Tucson: 1,250) and Colorado State (Denver: 60). That's only the third most miles a Pac-12 school will travel this fall: Washington is first with 12,146 miles (trips to Hawai'i, Arizona, Colorado, Cal, Washington State and Oregon), followed by UCLA with 11,934 (which will travel to Virginia, Arlington—to play Texas, Washington, Colorado, Arizona State and Cal). Oregon State is fourth with 9,978, but it has only five trips (Hawai'i, Colorado, USC, Stanford and Washington).
- Colorado played Massachusetts at Foxborough (Gillette Stadium) on Sept. 6; it was CU's first trip to the northeast in nearly 37 years, last visiting the vicinity on Oct. 1, 1977 when it defeated Army at West Point, 31-0.
- Colorado and Hawai'i began the second phase a four-game home-and-home; the Warriors visited Boulder Sept. 20, and CU opens the 2015 season in Honolulu.
- Oregon State became the last member of the Pac-12 Conference to make a visit to Boulder since the Buffs joined the league in 2011; the Beavers' last visit prior to this year to Folsom Field was in 1988.
- The season finale against Utah is on Saturday, Nov. 29; Colorado had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons, but last year's rivalry game with the Utes was returned to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) selected other games for the Friday slots.
- Conference misses: the Buffaloes won't play Stanford or Washington State for the second straight year; in 2015-16, CU won't play California or Washington.
- The Buffaloes again have two bye weeks, which fall on Oct. 11 and Nov. 15; Colorado had two bye weeks every year from 1996 through 2005, one usually after non-league play and the other prior to the regular season finale against Nebraska. Due to the flooding in Boulder last year and the cancellation of the Fresno State game, the Buffs had their bye weeks in succession.

Pac-12 Championship Game at Santa Clara, Calif. (Levi's Stadium, 7:00 p.m.)

All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Pacific-12 Conference game. Television selections Sept. 20 and beyond are made on 12 days' notice by the Pac-12 television partners (ESPN/ABC, FOX/FOX Sports 1 or 2, Pac-12 Networks); ESPN/ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. With the advent of the Pac-12 Networks (National; Arizona, Mountain, Oregon, Northern California, Southern California, Washington), all conference games and all home non-league games will again be televised in 2014. ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Pac-12, American Athletic, ACC, Big 10 or Big 12). ESPN/ESPN 2 will utilize several windows, including a 7 p.m. MT window on Thursdays, with those games preselected ahead of the season.

2014 COLORADO FOOTBALL Pac-12 Page 37

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of November 1 (with 2014 records in parenthesis):

PAC-12 SOUTH	Season	Games	W	L	Т	Pct.
Arizona (6-2)	111	1,055	587	435	33	.573

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a, the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. lowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the latest world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing. The Big 10 placed 10 schools in the top 100 (Wisconsin has the highest rank – No. 19); the ACC placed four (Duke was its highest at No. 31); the SEC two (Vanderbilt at No. 49, Florida at No. 71) and the Big 12 one (Texas, No. 36).

300 + AT FOLSOM

With a 3-3 home record in 2013, Colorado won its 300th game at Folsom Field (now 301-163-10 in its 91st season playing its home games at Folsom). The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 393-185-16 all-time at home. Colorado's last winning record at home was in 2010, when the Buffaloes went 4-2; over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season.

ALL SPRUCED UP: 25,000 POINT MILESTONE

WR Nelson Spruce scored Colorado's 139th point this season, which was also the 25,000th point in the school's football history, which dates back to 1890. Here's a look at who scored some of the previous milestone points in CU history:

- 1— George Darley. He returned a fumble 65 yards for a touchdown, the first points in CU history in a 50-4 loss to Colorado Mines on Dec. 13, 1890.
- 1,000 Unknown; the 109th point of the 1897 season, coming in a 30-0 win over the Littleton Athletic Club in Boulder on Oct. 30.
- 5,000 Pete Middlemist. He scored on a 10-yard run versus Northern Colorado in Boulder on Oct. 12, 1929, the 41st point of the season and the 14th point in a 19-0 win
- 10,000— Bob Stransky. He scored on a 1-yard touchdown a run at Nebraska on Nov. 16, 1957, the 187th point of the season, the second point of a 27-0 win.
- 15,000— Craig Keenan. He scored on a 1-yard touchdown run versus Wyoming on Sept. 25, 1982, the 35th point of the season and sixth point in a 24-10 loss.
- 20,000 Jeremy Aldrich. He kicked a 46-yard field goal at Kansas State on Nov. 15, 1997, the 262nd point of the season and sixth point in a 37-20 loss.
- 25,000 Nelson Spruce. He scored on a 6-yard touchdown pass from Sefo Liufau at California on Sept. 27, 2014, the 139th point of the season and 36th point in a 59-56 double overtime loss.

2014 CAPTAINS

Head coach Mike MacIntyre named Colorado's captains for the 2014 season prior to the spring game on April 12, just the second time in recent memory the Buffaloes had their captains selected heading into summer workouts. There are six in all, three players each on offense and defense, and for the first time in program history, it includes a sophomore — and not just one, but two. The captains were selected by a vote of their teammates at a Friday night meeting prior to the spring game and team was informed the next morning. Seniors OT Daniel Munyer, DT Juda Parker and S Terrel Smith, junior WR Nelson Spruce and sophomores ILB Addison Gillam and QB Sefo Liufau (quarterback) rounded out the rest of the choices. MacIntyre said he's never been in a program where two sophomores have been named captains adding, "It was pretty impressive for their leadership as sophomores."

6-6, 300, Soph., TR, Parker, Colo. (Chaparral)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—He is eligible to compete this fall after transferring from Auburn in the offseason; the NCAA granted a waiver to the rule where a player must sit out a year (CU filed a waiver for him due to family reasons). He enrolled at CU in the summer, joining the team in late July and thus in time to participate in August drills.

AT AUBURN (2012/2013, Fr.,/Fr.-RS)—He saw brief action against Western Carolina and Florida Atlantic for the Southeastern champion Tigers, and dressed for the national championship game against Florida State (a 34-31 loss). Auburn was 12-2 overall and defeated Missouri, 59-42, in the SEC Championship game. He redshirted as a true freshman for the 2012 season; he had enrolled at Auburn in January and participated in spring practices.

HIGH SCHOOL—He was named to the prestigious 2011 Parade All-America Team as a senior, his top honor among many in his prep career; SuperPrep also tabbed him as an All-American and ranked him as the 24th offensive lineman in the nation (and as a member of its All-Midlands team). Rivals.com ranked as the nation's No. 22 offensive tackle and the 212th-ranked player nationally, while Scout.com pegged him the No. 33 tackle nationally and the No. 299 overall prospect in the country, with ESPN.com ranking him as the No. 28 OT nationally and 247Sports.com 35th at the offensive tackle position; all four had him as the fourth-rated player overall from the state of Colorado. He participated in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio after the season. He was an All-Colorado and All-State (5A) selection by the Denver Post as a senior, which ranked him as the state's No. 5 overall prospect (the top offensive lineman) in its postseason Top 15. He was an honorable mention All-State performer as a junior, and was a two-time All-Continental League performer. His senior year, he had 43 pancake blocks, did not allow a quarterback sack or pressure by the man he was guarding, and had numerous downfield and touchdown blocks. Under coach John Vogt, Chaparral was 7-4 his senior year, 9-3 his junior season, and 8-3 both his sophomore and freshman years. He also lettered once in basketball, playing center in a reserve role as a junior.

 $\label{lem:communication} \textbf{ACADEMICS} — \textbf{He is interested in Communication as his major at Colorado.}$

PERSONAL—He was born October 9, 1993 in Denver. He is an avid country music fan.

ROSTER NOTES

The Buffaloes lost two players for the season with ACL injuries suffered during August camp: FS Jered Bell and DE Tyler Henington. Bell will petition or a sixth year from the NCAA since he will now miss two full seasons due to injury, while Henington has a redshirt year available to him.

At the end of fall camp, Coach MacIntyre placed two senior walk-ons on scholarship: WR Wes Christensen and S Richard Yates; neither is expected to play much from scrimmage at the onset but each figure prominently on special teams. Yates was previously placed on scholarship one other semester. Yates is also one of three players who are juniors in eligibility and seniors academically, who have decided to forego a fifth-year and will play as seniors in 2014; he's joined by DB Brandan Brisco and ILB Thor Eaton.

Two walk-ons decided not to return but have remained in school, both fullbacks: sophomore Jesse Hiss and junior Clay Jones. Junior DT Samson Kafovalu is not enrolled this semester, as he returned home to California for personal reasons; he will rejoin the team in January (he'll still have two years of eligibility remaining).

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 47 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on five occasions (CU will also sport black helmets on the road occasionally). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the lockerroom at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

GAME 1 COLORADO STATE 31, COLORADO 17

AUGUST 29, 2014

SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVEY

DENVER — Revving up its running game in the second half, Colorado State rallied from 10 points down early in the second half to defeat Colorado 31-17 in a Friday night Rocky Mountain Showdown at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

The game drew its highest attendance in four years, 63,363, the first in the series ever played on a Friday.

The Buffaloes, cradling a 17-14 lead entering the fourth quarter, were outscored 17-0 in the final 15 minutes as the Rams avenged a 41-27 loss in last season's meeting.

Alabama transfer Dee Hart scampered for 139 yards and two touchdowns, while Treyous Jarrells, rushed for 121 and one score. Overshadowed by CSU's leg work was a superb 100-yard receiving night by CU's Nelson Spruce, who caught seven of Sefo Liufau's passes for 104 yards and two TDs.

The Buffs led 10-7 at halftime, but they couldn't have been happy with their point total, as in no way did it reflect their first half domination. CU outgained CSU 223-119 in total offense, including 163-38 in passing, and ran 39 plays to CSU's 27.

The night started promisingly for the Buffs, scoring on their second offensive series on a 54-yard Liufau-to-Spruce pass to go up 7-0 with 10:31 left in the first quarter. On its final possession of the quarter that spilled into the second, CU used 10 plays to march to the CSU 2-yard line and was rewarded with a first-and-goal there, but the Buffs had to settle for a Will Oliver 23-yard field goal to go ahead 10-0.

Later in the quarter, CU drove to the CSU 24-yard line before the drive stalled; Oliver attempted a 41-yard field goal that drifted wide left. CSU then embarked on a penalty-aided 76-yard drive that was capped by Hart's inspired 8-yard scoring run to make it 10-7 with 2:39 left in the half.

The Rams got the ball first in the second half with momentum despite being down 10-7. They drove to the Buffs' 34 before defensive end Derek McCartney sacked Grayson and caused a fumble that was gathered in by tackle Josh Tupou.

Liufau then drove the Buffs 62 yards in nine plays, capping the march with his second scoring pass to Spruce, whose catch was of the "oh, wow" variety. Shielding a defender with his right arm and hand, Spruce went low in the back of the end zone, extended his left hand and gathered in Liufau's pass.

Oliver's extra point gave CU a 10-point lead (17-7), but it took the Rams just 3:20 and seven plays to once again make it a three-point game. Jarrells, who gained 20 of the drive's 56 yards, scored from the 3-yard line to make it 17-14 with 6:18 left in the third quarter.

As the third quarter ended, the Rams were again driving, and it was Grayson's arm that gave CSU its first lead. On the 12th play of a 92-yard drive, Grayson lofted a 16-yard pass that Rashard Higgins caught to push ahead 21-17 with 13:10 left.

After forcing a CU punt, Grayson marched the balanced Rams 60 yards in seven plays, with 32 yards gained on runs and 28 passing. Hart skirted around the right end for a 3-yard TD and a 28-17 advantage with 9:28 remaining.

The Buffs were forced to punt again and on the next drive halted the Rams at the CU 35, but on fourth-and-four, Roberts booted a 52-yard field goal. CSU's lead ballooned to 31-17, and CU had only 2:28 to make up the difference.

Liufau finished the night 24-of-39 for 241 yards and two TDs, while CSU's Garrett Grayson checked out with 13 completions in 23 attempts for 134 yards and one TD. CSU accumulated 400 yards in total offense to CU's 375.

GAME NOTES

Attendance for the game was 63,363 (tickets distributed); CU accounted for 32,480 of those as attendance was above 60,000 for the first time since 2010 ... Fourteen players saw their first-ever action in a CU uniform, including six who made their first career starts; among those were two freshmen, WR Shay Fields and DE Christian Shaver, just the 11th and 12th true frosh to ever start in a season opener for the Buffs (and Shaver was the first DE to ever do so) ... Colorado dropped to 77-43-5 in season openers (6-5-1 at neutral sites), 12-8 versus Colorado State ... CU now leads the series 62-22-2 (but 8-6 in Denver) ... The Buffs had just three negative offensive gains in the game, the anomaly being that all three came on receptions; the Buffs were not sacked and 30 of their 34 rushes gained yards with the four others for zero gain ... It was CU's second turnover free season opener since 2000; the other came last year ... CSU amassed 400 yards in total offense, the most by a CU foe to open the season since the Rams had 447 in the 2003 game ... CU's 368 yards were its second most in its last nine openers (had 509 last year) ... WR Nelson Spruce hade seven receptions, including his 100th career catch, making him the 13th Buffalo to snare triple digits ... PK Will Oliver extended his string of consecutive PAT kicks made to 62, four shy of the school record ... CSU did not run a play in CU territory until there was 4:51 left in the first half; 28 of its last 48 then came on the other side of the 50 ... Colorado lost when scoring first in a season opener for just the second time in 47 years (now 24-2 when scoring first dating back to 1967).

GAME 2 COLORADO 41, MASSACHUSETTS 38

SEPTEMBER 6, 2014

GILLETTE STADIUM, FOXBOROUGH, MAS

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. —Rallying from an 11-point deficit early in the second half, the Colorado Buffaloes finally steeled themselves for a strong finish and put away the Massachusetts Minutemen 41-38 at Gillette Stadium. Many of the 10,227 in attendance on a hot and muggy afternoon were rooting for the Buffs.

CU received a second consecutive stellar performance from junior receiver Nelson Spruce, who tied a career-best with 10 catches for 145 yards and two touchdowns.

The Buffs also got exemplary work in its kicking game. Senior Will Oliver hit all seven of his kicks, two field goals and five PAT's, the latter of which gave him a CU record for hitting 67 straight. Senior Darragh O'Neill averaged 48.8 yards on five punts, including a 62-yarder that was downed at the UMass 4 and helped flip the field for Oliver's second field goal.

On the game's first possession, CU drove deep into UMass territory before stalling, but still took a 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal from Oliver. It took two series before UMass answered with a 12-play, 85-yard drive capped by Blake Frohnapfel's 14-yard scoring pass to Rodney Mills.

Then on the final play of a 63-yard, seven-play CU march, Sefo Liufau hit Shay Fields with a short pass in the left flat — and Fields did the rest, tight-roping down the sideline for a 19-yard TD to put the Buffs up 10-7 only a minute into the second quarter.

Not quite 6 minutes later, Oliver kicked his second field goal – this one covered 47 yards – and CU went ahead 13-7.

Frohnapfel responded, taking UMass 70 yards in six plays, hitting Jean Sifrin, a 6-7 tight end who had been cleared to play just days earlier, for a TD to make it 14-13 in favor of the Minutemen.

With his first carries of the afternoon, Christian Powell got 11 yards on consecutive carries and helped launch an 85-yard CU drive that senior Tony Jones ended with a 5-yard TD to make it 20-14 Buffs with 2:23 left in the first half.

But only 18 seconds before intermission, UMass responded with an amazing onehanded grab by Sifrin as UMass snared a 21-20 halftime lead.

The Minutemen threatened to break the afternoon open by scoring 10 unanswered to open the second half. The first three were courtesy of a 34-yard Lucas field goal on UMass' first second-half possession. Needing an answer, CU instead suffered an interception when UMass DB Randall Jette outdueled Fields for a Liufau pass and returned the pick to the CU 2-yard line, where Jamal Wilson ran in it, making it 31-20 in favor of the Minutemen.

The Buffs responded with a 77-yard drive capped by Powell's 14-yard run to pull with 31-27. On CU's next possession, with a 3rd-and-9 at his own 30-yard line, Liufau scrambled right and got Spruce breaking toward the right sideline, lofting a pass that Spruce ran under and hauled in for a 70-yard play to put CU up 34-31.

Continuing a drive started with two plays in the third quarter, CU opened the final quarter with seven more plays that completed an 81-yard scoring march. After Liufau and Spruce teamed for a 3-yard TD pass, the Buffs were up 41-31.

Chidobe Awuzie and fellow safety Tedric Thompson then teamed to stop a UMass march, with Thompson gathering in an interception of Frohnapfel that Awuzie had deflected, and then the Minutemen didn't threaten again until scoring with 2:55 left to make it 41-38.

Aided by a first down grab from Spruce and clock management in which the Buffs used up every possible second, Liufau and Co. were able to run the clock out and preserve the victory.

GAME NOTES

The win snapped an eight-game road losing streak for the Buffaloes, and gave Mike MacIntyre his first road win as CU's head coach ... Colorado sold 2,000 tickets to this game and utilized another 350 for player requests, the most – 49 – used by S Terrel Smith, who hails from New Jersey ... Colorado improved to 46-31 all-time when the game time temperature is 80 degrees or higher), and to 10-21 all-time in the Eastern Time Zone ... The Buffs wore white uniforms with gold pants, the fourth time since 2008 but having done so three times last year (2-2 in the look the last two years) ... Colorado had 502 yards of total offense until losing 28 yards on the last three plays to run out the clock ... Colorado's first turnover of the season came early in the third quarter (an interception off a deflected pass); however, it did mark the longest into a season any Buffalo team went before committing one (92 minutes, 28 seconds) ... QB Sefo Liufau has his second career 300-yard passing game, jumping from 20th into 14th place all-time on CU's passing yards list having played just 10 games ... TB Tony Jones, also from New Jersey, dazzled his friends and family in attendance, not only on offense (which included a 33-yard rush), but he earned six special team points as he was all over the field on those units.

GAME 3 ARIZONA STATE 38, COLORADO 24 SEPTEMBER 13, 2014 FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — The Colorado Buffaloes spotted the undefeated and No. 16 Arizona State Sun Devils a 17-0 lead before making a game of it on a late Saturday night at Folsom Field.

The Sun Devils (3-0, 1-0 Pac-12) outgained the Buffs 222-22 in total yards and 11-1 in first downs in the first quarter en route to building a 14-0 edge. But the Buffs fought back and wound up outgaining the Sun Devils 545-426 in total offense and 28-18 in first downs. CU outrushed ASU 232-223, with the Buffs' yardage a season high, and had a 313-203 advantage in passing. But turnovers negated CU's statistical advantages and forced the Buffs to play catchup for the entire night.

Sefo Liufau finished 31-of-46 passing for 278 yards, three touchdowns and the two interceptions for Colorado (1-2, 0-1). Two of his scoring tosses went to Nelson Spruce, who now has caught a pair of TD passes in each of the season's first three games and leads the nation in touchdown receptions. Spruce finished with a gamebest seven catches for 97 yards.

In the running game, Christian Powell led the Buffs with 11 carries for 118 yards – a season-best for CU.

ASU's first quarter touchdowns came on a 15-yard run by D.J. Foster on ASU's first possession and a 38-yard pass from Taylor Kelly to Kalen Ballage that was set up by defensive back Jordan Simone's interception of Liufau.

After Zane Gonzalez sent ASU ahead 17-0 with a 31-yard field goal early in the second quarter, the Buffs woke up and Liufau drove them 77 yards in 10 plays, hitting Shay Fields with a 4-yard pass for the TD.

Then the Buffs defense took the cue, forcing the Sun Devils into their first three-andout of the night. The offense then fashioned an eight-play, 77-yard drive that Liufau capped with a 15-yard TD pass to Spruce — his fifth scoring catch of the season, making the game 17-14. Once again, the Buffs defense stood strong and sent the Sun Devils back to the sideline with a second consecutive three-and-out. But after Matt Haack's 57-yard punt was downed at the CU 10-yard line, the Buffs were bludgeoned by their second turnover.

This one was Adkins' fumble, and it was recovered by linebacker D.J. Calhoun at the CU 9-yard line. Three plays later, Kelly and Foster teamed for a 5-yard TD pass, giving ASU a 24-14 lead headed into halftime.

The Sun Devils then received the second half kickoff and quickly extended their lead to 31-14. Fueled by a 45-yard Kelly-to-Jaelen Strong pitch-and-catch, ASU completed a 75-yard, six-play drive with a 1-yard Kelly-to-Strong TD.

The Buffs answered with a 27-yard field goal by Oliver (31-17), but the quick-striking Sun Devils had a more potent response. On first down from midfield, Kelly executed a perfect read-option, kept the ball after a fake to Foster and sprinted 50 yards to the end zone and the ASU lead became 38-17 midway through the third quarter.

The Buffs pulled to within two touchdowns (38-24) by driving 99 yards – the seventh 99-yard march in school history – and scoring on a 31-yard Liufau-to-Spruce pass with 8:38 to play in the game.

After CU's defense forced another ASU three-and-out, the Buffs took over with 6:46 remaining. They drove as far as the Sun Devils before Liufau suffered his second interception.

With 2:10 left, needing 14 points to tie, the Buffs final possession began at their own 7-yard line. Jordan Gehrke replaced Liufau at quarterback and marched CU as far as the ASU 48 before turning the ball over on downs with 15 seconds to play.

GAME NOTES

Arizona State now leads the all-time series, 6-0, though this marked the first game CU outgained ASU in total offense (545-426; that margin was 523-204 the last three quarters). ASU gained 253 of its 426 yards on seven of its 60 plays ... CU had 28 first downs – earned by 13 different players ... CU's final score came on a 99-yard drive, the seventh in school history ... WR Nelson Spruce (7-97-2 TD) just missed out on becoming the third player in CU history to record three straight 100-yard receiving games (and the first since 1993). He did become the first Buff to have three straight 2-TD reception games ... WR Shay Fields set a school record for the most receptions for the first three games in a career with 21 (old mark was 20) ... FB George Frazier played both fullback and defensive end in the game –the first CU player to play on both sides of the ball since DT John Guydon played 13 snaps on defense and three at offensive guard at Texas on Oct.15, 2005 ... PK Will Oliver extended his streak to 70 consecutive extra points made ... TB Michael Adkins suffered his first career fumble after 142 touches to open his career without one (125 rushes).

GAME 4 GOLORADO 21, HAWAI'I 12 SEPTEMBER 20, 2014 FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — The Colorado Buffaloes did their offensive work early, but the defense played a complete game and successfully protected a 21-12 victory against Hawai'i on a beautiful Saturday afternoon at Folsom Field.

CU (2-2) did not allow a touchdown for the first time in 51 games and put up 405 yards of offense, with Sefo Liufau and Nelson Spruce teaming up for 172 yards on 13 passes, the latter giving Spruce the school single-game record for receptions.

Liufau finished 29-of-45 for 287 yards and touchdowns to Spruce and fullback George Frazier. CU's third TD came on an end around run by freshman receiver Shay Fields – his third score of the year but first by rushing on his first career carry.

CU's defense held Hawai'i to 286 total yards and stopped the Rainbow Warriors twice inside the 5-yard line and four total times inside the 20.

Both teams traded turnovers on their first possessions. The Buffs started with the ball and Liufau, believing a flag was about to be thrown for pass interference and thinking he had free play, threw deep toward Spruce but was intercepted. Hawai'i didn't capitalize as Greg Henderson blitzed on third down, sacking Ikaika Woolsey, forcing a fumble that he would recover.

The game remained scoreless until Tyler Hadden put the Rainbow Warriors ahead 3-0 with a 37-yard field goal. But their lead lasted all of 17 seconds.

On the Buffs' first play of the next drive, Liufau and Spruce connected for a 71-yard touchdown. He muscled the catch at the 25-yard line as the UH corner fell to the ground, watching Nelson sprint the final distance by himself.

Early in the second quarter, Hadden's second field goal cut the Colorado lead to 7-6. An eight-play, 75-yard drive culminated in Fields' 13-yard scoring run put the Buffs up 14-6. After holding UH to three-and-out, the Buffs drove 56 yards in 12 plays and increased their lead to 21-6 on a 9-yard pass from Liufau to Frazier.

Hawai'i received the second half kickoff and promptly went with a new quarterback — Jeremy Higgins — who marched his offense to the CU 20-yard line. Brady Daigh, subbing for the injured Addison Gillam (concussion late in the first half), threw tailback Diocemy Saint Juste for a 2-yard loss on third down, forcing Hadden to kick another field goal, a 41-yarder that pulled Hawai'i to within 21-9.

On the next drive, Liufau's pass wound up in the hands of UH outside linebacker TJ Taimatuia, who returned the ball 34 yards to the CU 6-yard line.

Once again, the Buffs defense stiffened – and once again it was a Daigh third-down play that ended the drive, this one a pressure of Higgins, forcing an incompletion. Hadden's last field goal closed the gap to 21-12, which held entering the fourth quarter.

An apparent John Walker interception that would have given the Buffs the ball inside the UH 5-yard line was called back after a penalty, and after the Buffs got another flag on the next play and the Rainbow Warriors looked to be driving.

The defense rebounded on that drive and the Buffs got the ball back. CU took 4:13 off the clock and Darragh O'Neill downed the ball at the UH 6-yard line with just over 5 minutes remaining. Midway through that possession O'Neill had surprised the Bows with a 19-yard run on a punt fake to keep the drive alive.

The Buffs held Hawai'i to another punt and the Buffs forced the Rainbow Warriors to use all their timeouts on the next drive. With just over 90 seconds left in the game, O'Neill struck again, this time pinning UH at the 1-yard line. A late Tedric Thompson interception of Hawai'i's third quarterback, Taylor Graham, allowed the Buffs to run the clock out and secure the 21-12 victory.

GAME NOTES

Colorado evened the all-time series at 2-2 ... For the fourth straight game, CU won the coin toss and elected to receive ... The Buffs improved to 5-1 in non-league games over the last two years, their best two-year mark since going 5-1 over the 2004-05 seasons ... Hawai'i lost its 14th straight road game... George Frazier started his first career game (at FB, and he also appeared again for 18 plays at DE) ... The 286 yards by Hawai'i were the fewest by an FBS team against CU since the 2011 finale (Utah in Salt Lake, 274 yards); the 3.7 yards per play is the lowest by an FBS team against the Buffs since Nov. 13, 2010 (Iowa State, 3.4, 68 plays for 229 yards) ... CU has just 16 fumbles in as many games under MacIntyre ... Hawaii gained two yards or less on 24 of 33 first down plays (CU did so on 18 of 32) ... The Rainbow Warriors ran 11 plays in the red zone for a net 9 yards, and had 33 plays in plus territory for 91 (and 57 of those came on four plays) ... Over the last two games, the opponent has run 19 red zone plays for 37 yards ... The Buffs had season-highs of four QB sacks and 10 pass deflections ... Spruce took over the reception record previously held by five players who combined to catch 11 passes nine different times ... He also set a school record with at least one receiving touchdown in six straight games (old mark was 5).

GAME 5 CALIFORNIA 59, COLORADO 56 (2 OT)

SEPTEMBER 27, 2014

CALIFORNIA MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY

BERKELEY, Calif. — California senior James Langford kicked a 34-yard field goal in the second overtime Saturday in Memorial Stadium, allowing the Bears to escape with a 59-56 win in a classic Pac-12 shootout.

The Buffs outgained the Bears (3-1, 1-1 Pac-12) in total yardage 630-585 and had 110 plays to the Bears' 71. But CU allowed 35 second-half points and the game went into OT tied at 49-49.

Nelson Spruce, the Pac-12's leading receiver, caught 19 passes for 179 yards – breaking his own school reception record set a week earlier and matching the Pac-12 record – and scored three TDs, giving him a nation's-best 10 in five games. Sefo Liufau completed 46-of-67 passes for 455 yards and 7 touchdowns, setting CU records for completions, attempts and touchdown passes, along with total offense (527 yards).

CU safety Tedric Thompson intercepted Cal QB Jared Goff on its first possession, setting up the Buffs at their own 44-yard line. Thompson's third pick of the season enabled Liufau to engineer a seven-play, 56-yard scoring drive that ended with a 22-yard pass to tight end Sean Irwin to go up 7-0.

On its next possession, CU pushed its lead to 14-0 on a Liufau to George Frazier 2-yard pass before Cal got on the scoreboard with a 5-yard Goff-to-Lucas Gingold pass, but the Buffs answered with a 75-yard, 15-play march and scored on Liufau's third TD pass of the half — an 7-yarder to D.D. Goodson to make it 21-7 CU with 1:35 left in the first quarter.

With 10:02 left in the second quarter, the Bears closed to 21-14 on a Goff screen that tailback Daniel Lasco turned into a 92-yard TD. CU's fourth touchdown drive of the first half was a 70-yard penalty aided drive. Flags cost Cal 33 yards in the march as Frazier scored from 2-yards out to put CU up 28-14.

The Bears didn't take much time in the second half to tie the game at 28-28, scoring on their first two possessions: a 26-yard Goff-to-Kenny Lawler pass and then a 10-yard run by Khalfani Muhammad with 7:39 left in the third quarter. The Bears then scored again for their first lead of the game as Goff and Lawler teamed up for a 5-yard TD to make it 35-28

Liufau and Spruce hooked up for a score for the first time on the afternoon and eighth time this season, covering 12 yards to tie the game at 35 near the end of the third quarter.

After missed field goals on both sides, Liufau took the Buffs 76 yards, completing 6-of-6 passes including a 6-yarder to Spruce for the go-ahead touchdown to go up 42-35 with just 3:16 to go. But Goff and Anderson teamed up for a 75-yard score just 20 seconds later to make it 42-42.

On the next possession, LB Jack Kearney intercepted Liufau and Cal scored on a 3rd-and-13 play from 40 yards out as Goff hit Chris Harper to give the Bears a 49-42 advantage with 2:29 remaining.

That was plenty of time for a 10-play drive where, with 21 seconds left, Liufau found Bryce Bobo in the end zone for his sixth TD pass to force the 11th overtime in CU history.

Cal had the OT's first possession and got its go-ahead score on a 25-yard Goff to Bryce Treggs pass, which was matched by a Liufau to Spruce 25-yard connection on CU's first play to knot the game at 56-all.

The Buffs took first possession in the second OT and Liufau hit tight end Kyle Slavin for a first down at the 2 yard line, but the Buffs couldn't score on four tries and the Bears kicked their 34-yard field goal to get the win, snapping a 15-game Pac-12 losing streak in the process.

GAME NOTES

Records galore were broken or tied in this one: 37 individual (29) and/or team (8) for Colorado alone ... This was the first FBS game in history with 14 touchdown passes (7 for each side) ... Colorado fell to 5-6 all-time in overtime games ... The game time of 4:01 was the longest in CU history, topping the previous by 1 minute (4:00 vs. Missouri, also in OT, in Boulder on Oct. 9, 1999) ... The 56 points were the most ever scored by Colorado is losing a game (old: at Kansas in 2010 in a 52-45 loss) ... The 115 combined points were the third most in a CU game (trailing 124 in an 82-42 loss to Oklahoma on 10/4/1980, and 116 in a 65-51 win over Nebraska on 11/23/2007) ... CU tied its record for the most first downs in a game with 39 (matching the mark set against Northwestern in 1978) ... This was just the fourth time CU ran 100 or more plays in a game, and the 110 today were the most in its history (old high: 105) ... With 630 yards of total offense, it marked the first time CU topped 600 in a game since rolling up 634 against Miami-Ohio on 9/22/2007 (359 rush, 275 pass) ... Colorado's 21 first quarter points were its most since Oct. 8, 2005, when it also scored 21 in an eventual 41-20 win over Texas A&M in Boulder ... WR Nelson Spruce scored CU's 25,000th point on a 6-yard TD reception with 3:23 remaining (the Buffs had 24,999 prior to the play) ... TB Tony Jones became the 51st Colorado Buffalo to rush for 1,000 career yards (ending the game with 1,041).

GAME 6 OREGON STATE 36, COLORADO 31 OCTOBER 4, 2014 FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDE

BOULDER — Seven days after a three-point, double-overtime defeat at California, the Colorado Buffaloes walked off Folsom Field with a five-point loss to Oregon State — and still searching for some way to end the close calls.

Their 36-31 loss on Saturday matched last week's Pac-12 Conference loss for resilience, drama and ultimately heartbreak.

CU led 21-20 at the half, but getting there was an uphill climb for the Buffs, who spotted the Beavers a two-score first quarter before the offense got rolling on their fourth possession.

After CU failed on third-and-one at its own 34-yard line and fourth-and-one at the OSU 37, the Beavers drove 63 yards in four plays and scored on 4-yard run by Terron Ward to go up 7-0. On CU's subsequent possession, quarterback Sefo Liufau was picked off by D.J. Alexander, who returned it to the Buffs' 8, and two plays later tailback Storm Woods had another TD to send the Beavers up 14-0.

Undaunted, the Buffs answered with a 75-yard, six-play march, scoring on Liufau's 31-yard pass to McCulloch to make it 14-7 with 3:59 left in the first quarter.

OSU went ahead by 10 (17-7) on a 38-yard Trevor Romaine field goal, but CU answered with its second 75-yard march – this one capped by Adkins' 12-yard sprint around left end. On the PAT, kicker Will Oliver nailed his 110th career, a new CU record passing Mason Crosby.

After a bad snap, the Buffs were forced to punt and the Beavers promptly positioned Romaine for a 33-yard field goal and a 20-14 Oregon State lead with 2:54 left in the half. But that was more than enough time for Liufau to conduct his third 75-yard drive of the half.

CU succeeded despite early drops on the drive by Adkins and Jones, and Jones more than redeemed himself. Jones caught a pass for 12 yards and three plays later, he and Liufau connected for a 19-yard catch and run to the OSU 9. Two plays later, he scored from a yard out to give the Buffs a 21-20 halftime lead.

Neither team threatened on its first possession of the second half. But on their second series, the Beavers traveled to the Buffs 20-yard line, where CU defensive end Timothy Coleman sacked Sean Mannion for a 9-yard loss. Romaine connected on his third field goal to give OSU the lead at 23-21.

Two snaps into the fourth quarter, Mannion hit tight end Caleb Smith with a 24-yard TD pass and a 30-21 OSU lead. The Buffs again responded, this time with a 44-yard field goal from Oliver to make it 30-24.

The Beavers got the ball back with 10:48 to play, ran the clock to 5:09 and capped a 12-play, 85-yard drive with a 10-yard TD run by Ward to make it 36-24, but failed on a two-point conversion try.

Colorado countered immediately again, embarking on yet another 75-yard drive and pulled to 36-31 on another Liufau-to-McCulloch connection, this time covering 17 vards.

The Buffs forced a three-and-out, and then a 30-yard Keith Kostol punt gave the Buffs possession at the Beavers 44, but they could advance only as far as the 40. Jones couldn't field a first-down pass, but caught a 4-yard pass on second down. On a third-and-six incompletion, Nelson Spruce appeared to be interfered with but there was no call, and Liufau was hurried into an errant throw on fourth down to end CU's day, as the Beavers assumed possession and ran out the clock with three kneel-downs.

Colorado gained 431 yards on offense, its fifth straight game of 400 or more, the first time a CU team has accomplished that since the 1996 season.

GAME NOTES

Oregon State now leads the series by a 5-2 count (2-0 with both as members of the Pac-12) ... The Buffs dropped to 21-25-1 when they wear all black (11 losses in a row) ... The Buffs finished with 431 yards of total offense, the fifth straight game over 400; the last time a CU team had five straight 400+ yard games was in the middle of the 1996 season ... Colorado was 10-of-17 converting on second down in the first half (5-of-10 on 2nd-&-5 or more), and 13-of-28 for the game ... CU averaged just 4.7 yards to go on third down ... 10 different Buffs earned first downs ... WR Nelson Spruce saw his streak of seven straight games with a TD reception come to an end, but he did move into third all-time in career receptions with 161, passing Paul Richardson; he did add to his school mark with at least six receptions in seven straight games ... WR Tyler McCulloch (4-76, 2 TD) had the first multi-TD game of his career, with the second-most yards in his career ... PK Will Oliver took over CU's all-time record for most PAT kicks made in a career with 112 ... P Darragh O'Neill averaged over 50 yards per punt in a game (4-50.8) for the first time in his career ... Head coach Mike MacIntyre was fined $10,000 for his postgame actions with the officials, violating Pac-12 policy (the Pac-12 head of officiating resigned three days later, unrelated to the OSU game).

GAME 7 SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 56, COLORADO 28

OCTOBER 18, 2014

LOS ANGELES (CALIF.) MEMORIAL COLISUEM

LOS ANGELES — Two early turnovers and a pair of drive-saving penalties helped stake the No. 22 Southern California Trojans an insurmountable 28-0 first quarter lead and relegated Colorado to a painful afternoon of catch up at the Los Angeles Coliseum, as the Buffaloes eventually fell, 56-28.

USC (5-2, 4-1) intercepted CU quarterback Sefo Liufau twice in the first quarter and converted both picks into touchdowns, though his second interception was a carom off of receiver Bryce Bobo and couldn't be hung solely on Liufau.

Along with those two TDs, a pair of long penalty-aided drives also helped the Trojans open up their early four touchdown lead. One of the flags was a holding call that nullified a CU third-down stop on the Trojans' first possession, the other was a roughing-the-kicker penalty that kept USC moving toward the end zone on its third offensive series (video showed CU's Donavan Lee was thrown/blocked into the punter, but he wasn't supposed to rush the kick to begin with).

After USC opened the game with an 84-yard scoring drive and took a 7-0 lead, CU appeared unshaken. A pair of runs by Tony Jones netted 18 and 12 yards — a good early sign for the Buffs run game. But Liufau's first pass of the afternoon was picked off by outside linebacker Su'a Cravens, whose 16-yard return put USC at CU's 47-yard line.

Six plays later, Cody Kessler and Nelson Agholor collaborated for their first of three touchdowns and the Trojans — up 14-0 less than halfway through the first quarter — had a grip on the game's momentum. After two more TDs in just under 7 minutes, USC was up 28-0 and firmly in control.

Kessler collaborated with Agholor for 16- and 18-yard scores and one TD each with JuJu Smith (7 yards) and Bryce Dixon (15 yards). Kessler and Dixon also accounted for the Trojans' second quarter TD – one that answered CU's first score of the game that would keep the margin at 28 (35-7) at intermission.

CU's lone first half score was on a 1-yard run by Michael Adkins II with 10:06 remaining before the break. Liufau finished the half 14-of-21 passing for 90 yards and the two picks. Nelson Spruce caught five of those passes for 43 yards and also completed a throw-back pass to Liufau — Spruce's third career completion in three attempts.

CU did a credible job of slowing USC running back Javorius "Buck" Allen in the first half, limiting the Pac-12's leading rusher to 50 yards on eight carries. But the Buffs neither had an answer for their own mistakes nor Kessler, and Allen still wound up with 128 yards on 15 carries and scored USC's only rushing TD.

On the second play of their possession after halftime, Kessler hit an open Agholor for a 75-yard TD, sending the Trojans up 42-7. After the teams swapped "three-andouts," a 2-yard scoring pass from Liufau to freshman Shay Fields made the score 42-14 halfway through the quarter. But less than two minutes later, Kessler and Steven Mitchell teamed for a 24-yard score, restoring the Trojans' 35-point lead (49-14) and giving Kessler a school record seventh TD pass.

CU answered that score with a Liufau-to-Spruce 5-yard touchdown pass, enabling the Buff junior to tie the school record in single-season TD receptions (11). USC immediately responded with a 39-yard run from Allen, its final points of the game. The Buffaloes then let backup Jordan Gehrke take over at quarterback, and in his second series, he engineered a 13-play, 91-yard drive and scored on a 9-yard keeper with 8:19 to play to end the day's scoring.

Jones led CU in rushing with 62 yards on 11 carries, while Spruce caught nine passes for 69 yards.

GAME NOTES

USC now leads the series by a 9-0 count (5-0 in Los Angeles, 4-0 with both as Pac-12 conference mates) ... Colorado fell to 2-18-1 all-time in the state of California and to 1-10 when they wear black helmets ... The Buffs finished with 403 yards of total offense, the sixth straight game over 400; a CU team has not strung that many in a row since opening the 1994 season with seven straight ... Longtime voice of the Buffaloes, Larry Zimmer, missed his first CU game since the 1993 Aloha Bowl; he was hospitalized since the night of Oct. 4 for causes yet to be determined (a streak of 251 games in a row was thus snapped) ... WR Nelson Spruce, in addition to tying the single-season TD reception mark with 11, caught a pass for the 20th straight game and is also now 3-of-3 as a passer in his career for 64 yards; all three passes were caught by quarterbacks (Liufau 2-49, Jordan Webb 1-15).

GAME 8 UCLA 40, COLORADO 37 (20T) OCTOBER 25, 2014 FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDE

BOULDER — The Colorado Buffaloes kept UCLA quarterback Brett Hundley in check for the majority of the afternoon, but in two plays in double overtime, he inflicted his damage, covering the 25 yards in two runs, including an 8-yard touchdown scamper to secure a 40-37 win for the No. 25 Bruins at Folsom Field.

CU rallied from 17-0 (first quarter) and 31-14 (fourth quarter) deficits to force overtime.

Quarterback Sefo Liufau set a CU single-season school record touchdown passes, throwing a pair to Bryce Bobo to reach 23 and break Koy Detmer's mark of 22 set in 1996. Liufau finished 27-of-45 passing for 246 yards, but also had two interceptions.

The Buffs got a strong ground performance from Michael Adkins II, who carried 17 times for 107 yards and a touchdown. Tony Jones added 104 total yards (68 rushing with one score, 36 receiving) and the Buffs finished with a season-high 233 rushing yards.

By halftime the Buffs had sliced lead down to 24-14, but they went to their locker room fuming over what might have been. Liufau hit D.D. Goodson with a 6-yard pass for a first down at the UCLA 4, and the entire Buffs sideline believed Goodson made it out of bounds to stop the clock. It did stop on the first down, then restarted, but while the Buffs scrambled to line up and run a play, time expired.

UCLA took a 7-0 lead on its second offensive play as Paul Perkins ran 92 yards for a touchdown. Two series later, Hundley hit Jordan Payton with a 20-yard scoring pass and the Bruins were up 14-0. UCLA then increased its first-quarter lead to 17-0 on a 31-yard field goal by Ka'imi Fairbairn.

The Buffs got on the board their first touchdown two plays after Liufau was roughed up on third down and Jones scored on a 1-yard run. The Bruins' only score of the second quarter then followed on a 24-yard run by Perkins with 4:48 left before intermission.

A pair of Bruin penalties wiped out back-to-back picks — one thrown by Nelson Spruce on a receiver reverse pass, the other by Liufau — thus keeping a 75-yard TD drive intact. Adkins capped the drive with a 17-yard scoring run and Will Oliver's PAT brought the Buffs to 24-14.

The only score of the third quarter was by UCLA's Myles Jack, who plays tailback and linebacker, who bullied his way in for a 3-yard TD, enabling the Bruins to carry a 31-14 lead into the fourth quarter. Liufau hit Bryce Bobo for 38-yard touchdown on a fourth-and-two, as the Buffs inched to within 10 points (31-21) with plenty of time left (12:59).

Liufau then engineered an eight-play, 64-yard drive, finishing it with a 3-yard TD pass to Bobo to make it a one-possession game at 31-28. CU's defense then forced a three-and-out, giving the Buffs the ball at their own 30 with 6:40 remaining, but two plays into the possession, corner Marcus Rios intercepted Liufau.

But the Buffs defense again rose to the occasion, making a fourth-and-one stop at the CU 22. Liufau & Co. took over at the 23 with 2:55 to play and drove to the UCLA 18 in eight plays, where Oliver's 35-yard field goal with 36 seconds left sent the game into overtime.

The Buffs forced the Bruins to rely on Fairbairn for their first OT points and his 28-yard field goal was matched by Oliver's 38-yarder, forcing a second overtime tied at 34-34.

Stopped at the 17, the Buffs turned to Oliver for their first lead of the afternoon (37-34), but Hundley's 8-yard keeper trumped it and the game was over.

GAME NOTES

CU dropped to 5-7 in overtime games (0-3 in multiple); this was the third time CU has played two OT games in the same season (1999, 2002). All seven losses have been by 3 points ... Game time of 3:53 tied for the fourth longest in CU history (longest was 4:01 at Cal this year, also 2 OT) ... Colorado started a new tradition: the Buffs will carry out the flags of United States and Colorado when taking the field; Richard Yates had the Colorado flag and Jeromy Irwin the U.S. one ... TB Tony Jones became the ninth player in CU history to join the 1,000/500 club (rushing/receiving yards) ... The 92-yard run by Paul Perkins was the second longest ever at UCLA and also against CU (Robbie Rouse, Fresno State, 94 in 2012) ... Colorado was 8-of-8 in the first converting 2nd-and-4 or less situations into first downs (game: 11-of-13) ... CU finished with 500 yards of total offense, the seventh straight game over 400 (the first time since the first seven games of the 1994 season); with three 500+ games this year, that is the most since three in 2002 ... Not a lot of deep throws in this game (15-yards or more in the air from scrimmage: Liufau was 2-of-4, Hundley 0-of-6 ... TB Michael Adkins (17-107, 1 TD) had CU's second 100-yard rushing game this year, and the second of his career.

GAME 9 COLORADO 41, WASHINGTON 17 NOVEMBER 1, 2014 FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado started fast against Washington on this crisp Saturday morning at Folsom Field, but a tough stretch in the third quarter where the Buffaloes turned the ball over three times enables the Huskies to rally for a 38-23 win as the calendar turned to November.

The Buffs (2-7, 0-6) built a 10-0 first quarter lead and maintained a 20-17 advantage at halftime, but two lost fumbles and an interception in barely a three-minute span after CU scored a field goal on its first second half possession led to 14 quick points for Washington (6-3, 2-3), and the Huskies never looked back.

And Liufau's 36 pass completions — he was 36-of-52 for 314 yards, two touchdowns and one interception — put him at 274 this season, breaking Joel Klatt's school mark of 241 set in 2005.

Huskies linebacker/tailback Shaq Thompson rushed for 174 yards on 15 carries and scored one touchdown. Along with quarterback Cyler Miles' passing - 13-of-19, 206 yards, 2 TDs - the duo furnished UW with more balance than CU's defense could handle.

Michael Adkins contributed 109 yards on 13 carries, his second straight 100-yard game on the ground. Will Oliver hit all three of his field goal attempts (32, 39, 49 yards) and kicked two extra points to keep him perfect (35-of-35) with a string of 95 in a row as he wraps up his CU career.

The Buffs forced the Huskies into a three-and-out to open the game, and Liufau drove CU 70 yards in nine plays, combining with D.D. Goodson on a 30-yard pass for the score.

A fumble recovery by linebacker Kenneth Olugbode at the CU 13-yard line thwarted a UW drive and led to a 72-yard drive as Oliver made his first field goal to make it 10-0 with 3:42 left in the first quarter.

The Huskies closed to within 10-7 with an 86-yard drive to get on the board, as Thompson scored on a 24-yard run on a fourth-and-one play. A 41-yard kickoff return by Phillip Lindsay put the Buffs in position for their second TD. Liufau hit George Frazier in the back of the end zone to push the lead to 17-7.

The teams traded field goals and the Buffs held a 20-10 lead before Washington put a 78-yard drive together just before the half to pull back to within three on a Milesto-Kendyl Taylor pass.

The Buffs opened the second half with a 44-yard drive that positioned Oliver for his third field goal – a season-long 49-yarder that pushed CU in front 23-17.

After John Walker forced a UW fumble at the 1-yard line, recovered by Derek McCartney in the end zone, the Buffs good fortune quickly turned. Lindsay fumbled and the Huskies scored five plays later on a 28-yard pass from Miles to Dante Pettis to take their first lead at 24-23. Less than a minute later, Liufau was intercepted by linebacker Travis Feeney, who scored on a 30-yard return to quickly make it 31-23.

Lindsay was then rocked on the kickoff and was ruled to have fumbled, with UW's Cory Littleton recovering at the Buffs 31. The Huskies didn't capitalize but took momentum and a 31-23 lead into the final quarter.

Early in the fourth, Pettis took a Darragh O'Neill rugby-style punt and sprinted 87 yards untouched for his first second TD of the game, and the 38-23 score held for the final 13:10 of the game.

The afternoon's bright spots for CU: Liufau and two receivers — Shay Fields and Nelson Spruce — set school seasonal records. Fields' two catches give him 40 for the season, breaking the CU freshman seasonal mark of 39 by Chris McLemore in 1982. Spruce's 13 receptions gave him 90 this season and moved him past the 83 caught by Paul Richardson in 2013.

GAME NOTES

Washington has now won six straight in the series to take a 9-5-1 lead (4-0 with both as members of the Pac-12) ... The Buffs led for 34:52 in this game (UW for just 20:38, but it was the final quarter and a third) ... When Colorado took a 7-0 lead, it marked its first lead over Washington in four games as a member of the Pac-12 (its last in the series came in 2001, 7-3 late in the first half of an eventual 17-14 UW win) ... It also was CU's first lead since a 21-20 edge over Oregon State in the third quarter three games ago ... Washington had 298 yards at halftime on 34 plays ... but gained 208 of those (70 percent) on just five plays (it gained 286 of its 442 yards for the game on eight plays (65 percent) ... UW's interception and punt returns for touchdowns were the first non-offensive TDs in a CU game this season ... After UW scored its last offensive touchdown to take a 24-23 lead with 5:38 left in the third quarter, it ran just 14 plays for 24 yards with one first down the remainder of the game (11 for 27 minus the three kneel-downs at the end of the game) ... CU finished with 495 yards of total offense, a school record eighth straight game at 400 or more; it is now one shy of the season high of nine set in the 1993, 1994 and 1995 seasons ... Oliver moved into second place on CU's all-time scoring list.

PERSONNEL / DEPTH CHART

A note about CU's depth: in-season, charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries; also, depending on the formation to start the game, there could be a second tight end or third receiver in the game in lieu of a fullback:
