2012 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL

GAME 6—ARIZONA STATE

ESPN'S THURSDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL RETURNS TO BOULDER

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2012 • 7:01 p.m. MDT • Folsom Field (53,613), Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 7 (October 4, 2012)

ESPN (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (1-4, 1-1 Pac-12) have their first in-season bye since 2010 and then host just their third nationally televised Thursday night game on ESPN against the Arizona State Sun Devils (4-1, 2-0 Pac-12) in a 7:01 p.m. kickoff at Folsom Field ... The other two TNF's were thrillers, a 21-17 win over Stanford in 1990 when CU took its only lead of the game with 12 seconds remaining on an Eric Bieniemy fourth down, 1-yard TD run (a key win in CU's consensus national championship year) and a 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (Bieniemy is now CU's offensive coordinator) ... This marks the first time CU will be playing after a bye in Embree's brief career (18 games) ... This will be the seventh non-Saturday night game in Folsom Field's history; the Buffs are 3-3 in the previous six games (list on page 5) ... At halftime of the ASU game, there will be the On-Campus Salute to John Wooten ('58), who will become the sixth CU inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame this December (story on pages 3-4). Steve Hatchell (Colorado '70), the President and CEO of National Football Foundation/College Hall of Fame, will be at the game to honor Wooten, along with Chuck Neinas, CU athletic director Mike Bohn and as of press time, at least one CU Hall member (Dick Anderson) ... The men's basketball team will also receive their Pac-12 Tournament Champion rings between the first and second quarters as commissioner Larry Scott will be on hand ... Colorado is coming off a 42-14 loss to UCLA; it was a 21-7 game in the third quarter, but the Buffs were stopped on 4th-&-1 at midfield and then had a fumble and interception that led to two quick touchdowns and the Bruins pulled away ... Arizona State defeated California in Berkeley, 27-17, before the break and are alone atop the Pac-12 South with its 2-0 league mark ... ASU is not ranked, but is knocking on the door at No. 26 in the coaches poll (AP #32) ... All CU games have been 3:11 or longer (quickest, 3:11, happened last time out against UCLA; others were 3:23, 3:24, 3:35 and 3:47) ... STAT OF THE WEEK

Colorado's had its issues on defense, playing as many as six true freshmen at times, but has played decent "bookend" defense in the first five games; that's points early and late in halves. Only three times has a team scored on its first possession in a half against CU (all touchdowns: Fresno State and Washington State in the first half and Colorado State in the second), and the Buffs have allowed just 12 points total in the final two minutes of either half (nine at the end of the first—a touchdown and a field goal—and three at the end of the second).

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

A total of 21 freshmen have played in the first five games, 13 by true frosh. But a more telling number are the play counts, especially on defense. While freshmen (all true) have accounted for only 12 starts defensively, they have played 1,031 snaps, or just over 25 percent of all the plays on defense. Seniors have accounted for just 602 snaps (14.8 percent), while juniors have seen the most action (1,662 plays, or 40.8 percent). Sophomores have thus played 775 snaps, so underclassmen have been in for 1,806 plays (44.4 percent). CB Kenneth Crawley has seen the most action (362 snaps), with four playing 145 snaps or more.

WOOTEN TO BECOME SIXTH BUFFALO TO BE ENSHRINED IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S HALL OF FAME

John Wooten, the All-American guard for the University of Colorado in the mid-to-late 1950s, was selected by the National Football Foundation's Honors Court for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame this December 4 in New York City. He will join 13 other players and three coaches in the Class of 2012, and Colorado will honor Wooten with traditional On-Campus Salute for incoming Hall of Fame inductees this Thursday at halftime of the nationally televised Arizona State game on ESPN.

He will become the sixth Buffalo enshrined in the Hall, joining Byron White (inducted in 1952), Joe Romig (1984), Dick Anderson (1993), Bobby Anderson (2006) and Alfred Williams (2010). Like White and Romig, Wooten played in the platoon era of the sport and excelled at offensive guard along with playing defensive tackle.

"I always felt that I made a great decision to go to Colorado, I had a great time, and forged many relationships which still exist today," Wooten said. When an honor like this comes, it makes you reflect on all things that have happened across your life, and it makes you happy. I just smile at how great the good Lord has blessed me. My wife (Juanita) told me this is 'Your great birthday present for number 76'."

"This is something I never dreamed of," he continued. "I can truthfully say that it never really entered my mind that someday it could happen. I looked every year when it the new inductees were announced to see who made it, and had such a great feeling for the guys who I played against and knew of their great careers. It is difficult to believe that I am privileged to receive such an honor, but I am totally thrilled."

"We had some real fine players and some really good teams," Wooten said of the CU squads in the mid-to-late 1950s. So many outstanding players and leaders – Boyd Dowler, Bob Stransky, Wally Merz, Bob Salerno, the Stapp (Dick and Bob) brothers, John Bayuk, Bill Mondt – I could go on and on. I just played hard, did all I could to help us win. I felt very good about my career."

After earning All-State honors in football and basketball at Carlsbad (N.M.) High School, he arrived on the Colorado campus in the fall of 1955, just the second black player in the program's history, joining Frank Clarke who blazed the trail just one season before. Freshmen were ineligible to play at the time, so he went on to letter in the 1956, 1957 and 1958 seasons; he earned pre- and postseason (AFCA) All-America honors as a senior after garnering All-Big 7 Conference and UPI honorable mention All-America honors his junior season. He is believed to be one of the first African-Americans to earn All-America honors playing a position in the interior line. Colorado was 20-9-2 in his three years as a starter in the trenches, and he played in the 1959 Chicago All-Star game versus National Football League players.

Nicknamed the "Sun Devil" early in his CU career ("I like the sun and I try to be a regular devil out there on the football field," he said at the time), Wooten earned the starting spot at left guard for his very first varsity game in the late Dal Ward's single-wing offense. Considered big in size for the day, he was a 6-foot-2, 230-pound bulldozer on offense and a fierce hitter on defense. Reporters wrote not to worry about the left side of the offensive line, Wooten is there, while teams often geared their offensive attack away from Wooten's side of the defense.

Wooten would be selected as one of 25 members of CU's All-Century Team in 1989, honoring the school's first 100 years of intercollegiate football, and was a member of the fifth class to be inducted into Colorado's Athletic Hall of Fame, that honor coming in 2004. The following year, his jersey (#69) was officially honored and his name placed upon the façade of the Fred Casotti Press Box.

(At CU, parking spots in the football coaches' lot are not marked with their names, but of those in the Athletic HOF; football coach Jon Embree, who has met Wooten on several occasions, selected his name for his spot. "That was an easy choice; John stands for so many great accomplishments. It is an honor to pull in that spot and see his name every day.")

Individual statistics for offensive linemen were not kept in those days, but during the three years he lettered, Colorado ranked 12th (1956, 252.1 yards per game), first (322.4) and fifth (249.5) nationally in rushing offense; in '57, CU was second overall in total offense (415.2 ypg). In the latter, he blocked for the nation's second leading rusher, Bob Stransky, who amassed 1,097 yards in 10 games. The late Casotti, longtime sports information director and CU historian, summarized his play as such: "Wooten was a quick, agile tackle who provided bone-crunching lead blocks for one of the nation's top offensive teams during his collegiate career."

"This is just great, I am so happy for him," Stransky said. "He's a great guy. We were really close in college. He gave it 100 percent all the time and was a good blocker at a key position, pulling guard in our single-wing offense. He led most of our running plays."

While Colorado did not win a conference title in his three seasons as a player (the Buffaloes played second fiddle to Bud Wilkinson's great Oklahoma teams), he lists CU's 27-21 win over Clemson in the 1957 Orange Bowl as his second best memory from his time in Boulder. He and Clarke are believed to be among, if not the, first blacks to appear in the game, and as was unfortunately common at the time, were treated by some that they just did not belong and even were not permitted to attend a couple of team functions in town. But there were no problems with the CU contingent or the Clemson team.

His top memory? Graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education in June of '59. "I am the youngest of six, raised by a single parent, and I was he only one to go to college. Many people didn't march back then, they just said 'Mail me the diploma.' But that was a big accomplishment for me considering the odds against me, and I wanted my mom (Henrietta) there to watch me walk across the stage in the stadium. It is one of the best memories in my life, not just at CU."

Growing up in Carlsbad, Wooten attended segregated schools through the 9th grade, schools that didn't have enough students to field football if hardly any athletic teams. He thought he'd be destined to attend a segregated high school, with the 1954 Civil Rights Act (Brown vs. the Board of Education) that mandated schools had to start integrating still two years away.

"Our superintendent (Tom Hansen), principal (Guy Waid) and football coach (Ralph Bowyer), they took it upon themselves to go the students at Carlsbad High School and asked them if they would be willing to accept Negroes in high school at that time," Wooten recalled. "And they said yes. Otherwise I would have gone to a segregated high school and probably wouldn't have made it anywhere. That gave me the opportunity to play football; my first time was as a sophomore in 1952.

"It's not like Coach Bowyer saw us playing and he wanted us (blacks) for our athletic talents. He and the others did what they thought was right. In Coach Bowyer, you saw (Dallas Cowboys) Coach Tom Landry. They were very similar men. They never hooped or hollered, no cursing, treated you with total respect. If Coach Bowyer was mad, he'd yell, 'Get the dang lead out.' Those were the harshest words you ever heard him say. When I was with Dallas, I had Coach Bowyer come over and spend a weekend with us because I wanted those two to meet. That was a special occasion getting them together."

Recruiting was different in the 1950s, especially for African-Americans. He was courted by Dartmouth, Florida A&M, UCLA, New Mexico and New Mexico State. Dartmouth had an allure to it, being an Ivy League school, but that was too far away for his mother; after all, New Hampshire and New Mexico are only close alphabetically. So why did he choose the University of Colorado?

Wooten To Enter College Hall Of Fame, continued

"Hugh Davidson, our freshman football coach, recruited me to Colorado," Wooten said. "My mom just loved him, and really it came down to him and my mom being the main reasons I chose CU. She told me over and over, 'John, this is where I want you to go. Coach Davidson is such a good person. I know you'll be in great hands.' I thought my mom had great judgment of character and really knew people. Whatever she felt and saw in Coach Davidson I trusted in her as to where I should go. The minute he walked in our house, we knew. And once I saw the outstanding campus, there was no turning back."

Davidson also coached at Montana and Idaho before entering a long career in professional scouting, spending over 20 years with the Denver Broncos. In recruiting, Davidson, now 84 and retired in Hamilton, Mont., covered the west, in particular California, Arizona and New Mexico for Dal Ward.

"Between the three of us, we all made a great choice for me. Colorado was like my second family. Back in those days, we couldn't go home for Thanksgiving. Fred Casotti, his wife and children always had us over for Thanksgiving dinner. Having us to his home was gratifying; I can still remember playing with his kids, tumbling around on the floor with them. When I look at people like Coach Davidson, Fred Casotti, Jane Ward (Dal's wife), they were all really good to us. Nice, nice people."

"It wasn't very easy back then to get to Boulder from Carlsbad, not sure it is now," Wooten said of the pre-Interstate highway days. "We had to go north up through Roswell, turn off at Cline's Corner, and then we had to go over Raton Pass to pick up the main road into Colorado."

"I am honored to have had the opportunity to be associated with John starting almost 60 years ago and continuing to this day, and he's tops as far as I'm concerned," Davidson said. "This honor explains it for itself, it's very deserving. He was not only a productive player, he has always been a tremendous gentleman and a great representative for CU and his stops thereafter."

Davidson saw John's name on the usual listing for All-Stars for state high school players. "I had the help of a local judge in locating and making contact with the family," he recalled. "His mom was very positive, a lovely lady, and John was a very good student. I knew we'd welcome him in Boulder if he wanted to come, and the interest was mutual right from the start." Wooten's position coach at Colorado was the late Marshall Wells.

Drafted by Cleveland in the fifth round of the 1959 National Football League Draft (the 53rd overall pick), he was fortunate enough to join the Browns at a time when they were considered one of the top two or three franchises in professional football. He would play nine seasons in Cleveland, all at left guard, within a span where it posted a winning record 13 consecutive years. The Browns' 79-39-4 record in that time trailed only Green Bay (89-29-4) and basically matched Baltimore (80-39-3) for supremacy in the NFL.

Wooten's Browns defeated the Colts and its bevy of future Hall of Famers, 27-0, to win the 1964 NFL Championship; they returned to the title game a year later but lost to the Packers, 23-12. He was named to the Sporting News NFL All Star Team in 1965 and garnered All-Pro honors the next two seasons and played in the Pro Bowl (1966-67); in 1979, he was named to the Browns All-Time All-Star Team and in 2010, he was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor.

Wooten, of course, had the distinction of lining up to block for the great Jim Brown, widely regarded among the top two or three running backs in pro football history. He led the NFL in rushing for six of the seven seasons Wooten served as one his blockers, and was the NFL most valuable player in 1965 with 1,544 yards, the third most yards in league history at the time (and he owned the other two) and a league-best 21 touchdowns.

"The thing was that going to Cleveland, with the history of the Browns back in those days, to go there, and be in that huddle and be standing next to guys like the great Lou Groza (left tackle) and the great Jim Brown, and realize that you were playing with these men," Wooten recalled. "I never dreamed that one day I would be playing in the NFL, much less on a team with pro Hall of Fame members next to you."

"To have that opportunity to go in there and play, and then in '64 to beat one of the great teams in NFL history to win the title makes me feel all the more blessed," he continued. "They were favored to be beat us by three touchdowns, but we shut out that great offensive machine that included Johnny Unitas, John Mackey, Raymond Berry and others. To beat them 27-0 has always been a great memory and is something that stays with you forever."

Wooten added, "I still think Unitas is the best quarterback ever, several other guys were great, but they weren't Johnny U."

While a member of the Browns, he put his CU Education degree to use, as during the off seasons of 1960 through 1963, he was a teacher at Addison Junior High School in Cleveland. Wooten finished out his career with the Washington Redskins, retiring from the game after the 1968 season.

After his playing days, Wooten worked as a sports agent and then entered into administration in pro football. He was the Director of Pro Scouting with the Dallas Cowboys for 17 years (1975-91), again one of the first African-Americans to be named to that position. In 1991, he went to work for the NFL, creating player and player development programs which included financial planning, family assistance and continuing education, until the Philadelphia Eagles named him Vice President for Player Personnel the following year, one of the first personnel directors in league history to hold a VP title.

In 1998, he returned to where he started – sort of – he served as the Assistant Director of Pro & College Scouting for the Baltimore Ravens until his retirement in 2003; Baltimore, of course, lured the Cleveland Brown franchise east in 1995 after the city had lost its team, the Colts, to Indianapolis a decade earlier.

Wooten has now been involved with the NFL as a player and administrator for over five decades, and since 2003, has served as the Chairman of the Fritz Pollard Alliance, an affinity group who works in conjunction with the NFL as it relates to minority hiring in coaching, scouting and front office positions. He is also the President of Wooten Printing, Inc., in Dallas, and was inducted into the Texas Black Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

"All along the way, I had hundreds of people help me, Wooten said. "That's why the Fritz Pollard organization is so important, it's about giving back." The foundation's namesake, Pollard, was the first African-American to coach in the NFL. But Wooten has always had a deep commitment to the communities in which he has lived and thus has valued always giving back.

He has served on the Board of Directors of Big Brothers in Cleveland, where he was also a member of the City Planning Commission; he was the recipient of the City of Cleveland's William O. Walker Community Excellence Award in 2002. He also was a member of the National Minority Economic Development Council under President Lyndon Johnson's administration.

He was born December 5, 1936 in Riverview, Texas, but grew up in Carlsbad, located in southeastern New Mexico and about 150 miles northeast of El Paso. Currently a resident of Arlington, Texas, he and Juanita have five children together, Gina, Lynette, John David (who passed at the age of 41 in May 2009), Adrienne and Jennifer, along with five grandchildren, Lauren, Gabriel, Michael, Quentin and Sydney.

GARTEN, MCCARTNEY ADVANCED TO HALL OF FAME BALLOT

Two-time All-American guard Joe Garten and national championship coach Bill McCartney were named on this year's National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame ballot; Garten was one of just nine offensive linemen included on the 76-man ballot (and one of just three guards), while McCartney was one of eight coaches vying for the two spots in the 2012 class. When the smoke cleared, the NFF's Honors Court looked at the accomplishments of guard John Wooten and rightfully decided to make him its choice for induction of those who played over 50 years ago.

MEMORABLE QUOTES

Every now and then quotes come along we just have to include in the notes.

Mike Tuiasosopo (CU defensive line coach) on how hard it is being a defensive lineman playing all these newfangled spread offenses: "Any more, to be a defensive lineman, you have to have rhythm. They've got to be able to dance."

Jon Major (CU senior linebacker) on what it's like to play defense in college football today: "It stinks to be a defender. That's the truth."

Tyler McCulloch (CU sophomore receiver) on one of Washington State's cornerbacks: "The guy talked all game. But it was about my bio; he studied the whole thing. Even told me that my uncle (Tommy Sheppard, Washington Wizards vice president) and the Wizards weren't around to help me."

NIGHT HOME GAMES ... WEEKNIGHT HOME GAMES ... ESPN THURSDAYS

Colorado is 23-11-2 all-time in night games played at Folsom Field. That includes a 3-3 record in non-Saturday night home games (3-1 in weeknight games as two of the losses came on Sundays) and 2-0 in ESPN Thursday night contests. A closer look:

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last decade, Colorado has had 188 of its 210 seniors graduate; these are the 2001-2011 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. That translates to 89.5 percent, with one of the 11 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while four are in the NFL. Of the 26 seniors in 2011, 24 have graduated with one more on schedule to in December (two others already had undergraduate degrees); starting with the 2006 senior class, 110 of 122 have earned degrees (90.2%). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado.

WR TONEY CLEMONS (after the '11 win over Utah): "The best uniform I'll wear is that cap and gown."

GOOD MORNING STARSHINE ... OLIVER MAKES HISTORY

PK Will Oliver made some history unbeknownst to all with his game-winning PAT kick that enabled the Buffs to beat Washington State, 35-34 on Sept. 22. He missed wide left in the first half on a 30-yard field goal, and with WSU expected to fiercely rush the kick (which it did), it was not automatic by any means. But he drilled it over the outstretched arms of two defenders and in the process made the first-ever PAT kick that won a game for the Buffaloes in the last two minutes of a game. It was just the eighth time ever in CU history a player scored the final point to win a game on a PAT kick in the fourth quarter. A closer look:

THIS-N-THAT / 2012

♦ Conference Misses. Colorado does not play California or Oregon State in 2012 in Pac-12 play; CU and Cal completed a non-conference home-and-home series in 2010-2011 (the latter did not become a league game after CU joined the Pac-12); CU last played Oregon State in 1988. CU hosts Cal and travels to OSU in 2013.

♦ Heartbreak & Embo. Colorado opened 2012 with two tough losses by a combined seven points; it's the fourth time that kind of heartbreak at the top of a season has happened in school history, and unfortunately for Jon Embree, he's associated with all four years. In 2000, the Buffs opened 0-3 with the three setbacks by a combined 10 points and would go on and finish 3-8; in 1986, Embree's senior season, after a 23-7 loss to open the year against CSU, Colorado lost its next three by a combined eight points to fall to 0-4; that team rallied to finish second in the Big 8 and play in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Two years earlier (1984), an 0-2 start came by 10 total points, the latter at Oregon 27-20 when Embree's roommate, Ed Reinhardt, suffered a life-threatening brain injury.

♦ Straight from the "Spin" Department: At times, Colorado's defense did have its moments against Fresno State. The obvious problem were nine plays of 20 yards or longer that earned the Bulldogs 419 yards (or 46.6 per), including three long scores of 97, 94 and 60 yards. The other 58 plays netted 246 yards, just 4.2 yards per play; now obviously all the plays count but many times the Buffs made a good play or two on defense only to be burned by a long gainer. CU also had a season-high nine tackles for loss and Fresno was a pedestrian 4-of-11 on third down.

♦ 62/59. Not counting players who traveled who were injured and could not play, Colorado had 62 players available for game action at Fresno State – 59 played in the game. That's the second closest the Buffs have come to playing everyone suited up to play in a game. On Nov. 12, 1994, in a 51-26 win at Kansas, the Buffs dressed 60 players and 59 got onto the field. This could only really occur on the road in the regular season, as often the entire team dresses for home and bowl games. In-between 1994 and the 2012 Fresno State game, CU played 63 of 68 players at Iowa State in 2003 and at Oklahoma State in 2005.

♦ CU rallied from a 17-point deficit to win at Washington State, tying its fourth-largest comeback in school history; it was the second largest rally from a fourth quarter deficit ever and the largest in a road game. The top CU comebacks:

Trailed By	Time, Qtr.	Final	Opponent (Date)	Trailed By	Time, Qtr.	Final	Opponent (Date)
20 (7-27)	8:01, 3Q	28-27	at Missouri (Oct. 28, 1978)	17 (0-17)	7:00, 3Q	21-20	at Minnesota (Sept. 19, 1992)
19 (0-19)	13:18, 4Q	20-19	KANSAS (Oct. 7, 1961)	17 (7-24)	12:23, 3Q	27-24	OKLAHOMA (Sept. 29, 2007)
18 (17-35)	8:20, 3Q	43-38	at Iowa State (Nov. 8, 1997)	17 (14-31)	8:07, 4Q	35-34	at Washington State (Sept. 22, 2012)

♦ The Washington State win also marked the first time the Buffs won under Jon Embree when trailing at halftime and three quarters (were 0-11 in both).

♦ The CU defense, though allowing 451 yards in the 35-34 win at Washington State, came through in several categories. First, the Buffs had zero defensive penalties (and have had just six called on the defense in four games). Whatever adjustments were made at halftime worked, as the Cougars had 262 yards at halftime and 189 in the second half—though on first down, ran 17 plays for a net 31 yards. Those short first down plays also led WSU to convert just two of 17 times on second down. The defense helped the Buffs outscore WSU 28-13 in the second half, enabling the Buffs to win their first game when trailing at halftime under Jon Embree.

A FIRST ... TWICE

When Kenneth Crawley and Yuri Wright both started at their respective cornerback positions against Sacramento State, it marked just the sixth time that two freshmen started at the same position in the same game – the fifth time by two true freshmen – the second time at cornerback, but the first time both were true freshmen. Explanation: on Oct. 4, 2003 at Baylor, Sammy Joseph and Terrence Wheatley started at the corners, but Joseph was a redshirt frosh. Now against Sac State, Marquise Mosley also started as the nickel back, marking the first time three freshmen, true or redshirt, have started in any group (secondary, linebacker, the lines, receiver, backfield) in Colorado history.

TRUE FRESHMEN ACTION

Through games of October 6, Colorado is tied for fifth nationally with the most true freshmen played with 13. In 2011, Army and Texas played the most (18) while CU tied for seventh with 15. Fast-forward to 2012, and four schools are tied atop the list with 15 (LSU, Ohio State, TCU, Texas) with Colorado (13) again near the top of the list. There were 16 true frosh on the Buffs' depth chart entering the season seven offense and nine defense (with six of those also listed under returns). A look at the schools that have played the most true freshmen thus far in 2012 (with total freshman including redshirts in parenthesis):

LSU	15	Georgia	13	UAB	12	Arkansas (17)	10	Temple (18)	10	Virginia (16)	9
Ohio State (21)	15	Kentucky (26)	14	UCLA (25)	12	Duke	10	Tennessee (16)	10	Auburn (15)	8
Texas (19)	15	Maryland (19)	12	Alabama	11	E. Michigan (15)	10	Indiana	9	Clemson (21)	8
TCU (27)	15	Miami-Ohio (16)	12	Navy (11)	11	Florida (13)	10	North Carolina (28)	9	Hawai'i (13)	8
Akron	13	Mississippi (18)	12	USC (25)	11	Florida State (21)	10	Notre Dame (21)	9	Minnesota	8
Colorado (21)	13	Tulane (18)	12	Arizona (21)	10	Southern Miss (23)	10	Texas A&M (18)	9

Note: The 15 true frosh on the season opening depth chart were the most in history for the Buffaloes, topping the 14 who appeared on it in 1992 (seven offense, seven defense; that was one of the highest ranked recruiting classes in school history). In 1984, there were 11 on the opening depth (seven offense, four defense), same as in 2008 (seven offense, three defense, one kicker); 10 made the initial depth in 2002 (five offense, five defense).

AND HAND IN HAND WITH THE ABOVE ... FIRST-TIME STARTERS IN 2012

The Buffaloes are tied for fifth nationally for the most first-time starters with 14; course with schemes and formations dictating so many different packages, more freshman than ever before have worked their way into starting lineups though not necessarily listed first on the depth chart. But regardless, here's a look through games of October 6:

Air Force	19	Arkansas State	14	TCU	14	Kentucky	12	Maryland	11	Indiana	10
Hawai'i	18	Arizona State	14	Army	13	Navy	12	Memphis	11	N.C. State	10
Temple	17	Colorado	14	Nevada	13	San Diego State	12	North Texas	11	Notre Dame	10
East Carolina	15	N. Illinois	14	Penn State	13	Tulane	12	Wyoming	11
Arkansas	14	Oklahoma State	14	Virginia	13	Georgia Tech	11	Cincinnati	10

HISTORY BACK-TO-BACK? YEP.

In 2011, Greg Henderson started the season opener at right cornerback, joining Victor Scott (1980) as the only true freshmen in Colorado history to start a season opener at cornerback. This year, Kenneth Crawley ended fall camp No. 1 at left corner and made the start there against Colorado State, and thus became only the third true frosh to do so; he's played all but eight snaps so far on defense this season (362). Only five other players have even started at least one game at cornerback as true frosh: Deon Figures (1988), Toray Elton Davis (1994), Damen Wheeler (1996), Terrence Wheatley (2003) and Cha'pelle Brown (2006). Scott, Figures and Wheeler went on to play professionally, with Figures winning the 1992 Thorpe Award as the nation's best defensive back, while Brown is now on the CU staff as a graduate assistant.

SENIOR COUNTS

A lot of freshman can mean fewer seniors. Last year, Colorado had 28 seniors on its roster, 26 of whom played extensively either as starters, key second-team performers or on special teams; likely one of the higher numbers in the country. Things are a bit different for the Buffaloes in 2012: fast-forward ahead to this year and CU is tied for the second fewest seniors on its roster in Division I-A/FBS with eight (Rice has eight, but one's decided to redshirt). A closer look:

Rice	7	Alabama	9	Louisville	10	Middle Tennessee	11	Georgia Tech	12	Florida	13

FEWEST SENIORS SINCE 1995

Last year, Colorado had its most seniors (28) since there were 30 on the roster in 1987; this fall, only eight players will be suiting up for the final time as Buffaloes—the fewest since seven did so in the 1995 season. It's the second smallest CU senior class since 1962 (the last 50 years), as only that 1995 team had fewer with seven (a rarity occurred that year: all seven CU seniors were invited to the Hula Bowl, likely the only time in college football history 100 percent of a school's senior class was in the same postseason all-star game).

★ In the program's most recent heyday, 1989-96, when CU sported the fourth best record in college football (78-15-4), the average number of seniors per team was 14.9. The 1989 team that went 11-0 boasted just 14 seniors, and that 1995 team, minus 10 NFL draft selections in the first 71 picks, went 10-2 with just the seven seniors.

THREE EARN SCHOLARSHIPS

Three walk-ons were placed on scholarship, as Jon Embree made the announcement following the team's first practice on August 6; the families of juniors TE Scott Fernandez, TB Josh Ford and FB Alex Wood are now getting a huge break on tuition, room and board. All three are Colorado high school products and have logged extensive time as walk-ons in the program.

QUARTERBACKING TWO DIVISION I SCHOOLS

Jon Embree named Jordan Webb as CU's starting quarterback on August 16, just 10 days into camp, with one of the major reasons being his experience at Kansas where he started 19 games the last two seasons. Webb started two seasons at Kansas, and when it became apparent he wasn't going to fit into the scheme of KU's new coaching staff under Charlie Weis, he started to search for other options while working hard to graduate in a little over three years at Kansas (the NCAA allows players to transfer without penalty if they graduate and look to major in a subject that their undergraduate school does not offer); he arrived at CU in July and won the starting job. Webb will be one of eight quarterbacks who started games at a Division I school who will be doing so at another in 2012; below is a list of players since 1973 who started games (or will) at quarterback at two Division I/FBS schools:

YOUNG BUT NOT SO YOUNG

It's been rare when Colorado hasn't had at least one senior starter on its offensive line, but it has now happened for the second time in four years after CU started three juniors and two sophomores the first two games of the season. In 2009 nine, all 12 games never saw a senior make a start on the O-line, largely due to CU having no senior offensive linemen on its roster (the first time in known CU history that had occurred). Otherwise, you have to go back to 1998, when two different units of non-seniors started a combined five games, with the last time that a senior did not start at least one game on the offensive line for an entire season back in 1982, Bill McCartney's first season as head coach (he had just one senior OL, Mark Hasart). A look at senior-less starting offensive lines since 1978, when records are available:

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

With former CU head coach Bill McCartney (1982-94) set to host his own radio show on Fridays (debuts Aug. 31, 4-6 p.m., 102.3 FM in Denver), the last four CU head coaches all have media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) is a studio host on the Pac-12 Network; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) is an analyst on Sports USA Radio with some other independent appearances; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute.

POWELL POTPOURRI

In his first career start, and second collegiate game, FB/TB Christian Powell rushed 28 times for 147 yards and three touchdowns in CU's 30-28 loss to Sacramento State. He also caught one pass for 13 yards and earned six first downs total. His three touchdowns tied the record for the most in a game by a freshmen (true or redshirt), matching TB Herchell Troutman at Texas on Oct. 1, 1994. He became the first freshman to rush for 100-plus yards since TB Rodney Stewart versus Kansas State in Boulder on Oct. 18, 2008 (29-141, 1 TD). The last fullback to gain 100 or more yards in a game was Erich Kissick against Missouri in Boulder on Nov. 7, 1987 (16-129, 1 TD). His 64-yard TD scamper in the first quarter was the fourth longest rush by a freshman in CU history. Here are the longest runs by a true freshmen in Buff annals:

Yds	Player, Opponent, Date
76	Billy Waddy vs. Wisconsin at Madison, Sept. 22, 1973 (TD)
74	Lamont Warren vs. Iowa State at Ames, Nov. 23, 1991 (TD)

Yds	Player, Opponent, Date
67	Carroll Hardy vs. Utah in Boulder, Nov. 10, 1951 (TD)
64	Christian Powell vs. Sacramento State in Boulder, Sept. 8, 2012 (TD)

★ His 147 yards were the eighth most ever by any running back in his starting debut in CU history, and the most since TB Marcus Houston galloped for 150 on 25 carries at Southern California on Sept. 9, 2000. The 28 carries were the second most, behind only the 29 times TB Bobby Anderson carried the ball against Indiana (for 161 yards and 3 touchdowns) on Oct. 4, 1969 (Anderson, a senior, was moved to tailback from quarterback earlier in the week). Powell and Anderson are the only players to score three touchdowns in their starting Buffalo debuts.

★ The 28 carries were the second most by a true freshman in CU annals, on the heels of TB Rodney Stewart setting the mark of 29 against Kansas State in Boulder on Oct. 18, 2008 (he gained 141 yards).

2011: SECOND WORST INJURY YEAR ON RECORD

In 2011, Colorado endured its second-worst season when it came to games lost due to injury by players who figured in either the two-deep or prominently on special teams, which was 20.1 percent of the possible 572 games (13 games times 44). Colorado lost a total of 115 games by those players in 2011 to injury, second only to the 20.8 percent (110 of 528) lost in 2008. The number jumped to 141 games lost when counting all players that were not ticketed to redshirt (with that 12.8 percent figure being the highest since the info started to be tracked in 1987). The injuries mounted throughout the year, mainly in the secondary and then perhaps the final straw coming in the 52-24 loss at Washington when the Buffaloes lost two of its top players, junior ILB Douglas Rippy (torn knee ligaments), and his cousin, senior TB Rodney Stewart (severely sprained knee). CU had already lost WR Paul Richardson to a severe knee sprain in practice the previous week; Stewart and Richardson would return but were never 100 percent again (in fact, Stewart let the Utah game early).

Now in 2012, the injury bug has started to rear its ugly head again. Counting Richardson, who is out for the season after tearing ligaments in spring practices, one again CU has lost a fifth of its games by projected starters in the two deep.

Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 25 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost—percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost	Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost

2010	12	103	924	11.1	88	528	16.7

Dating back to 1987, only nine times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11).

SERIES HISTORY—CU VS. ARIZONA STATE

There's not much to tell, as Arizona State owns a 3-0 lead in the series after the two finally hooked up for the first time in 2006 in Boulder, despite the fact that the two Rocky Mountain region powers are located only 589 miles apart. ASU won that game, 21-3, and then the second half of the home-and-home series the following year, 33-14, in Tempe. The Sun Devils won the first Pac-12 league encounter between the two last year, 48-14; the Buffaloes were able to move the ball and gain 420 yards, but five turnovers did CU in (summary on page 13).

The schools have seen the most of each other in men's golf, as Colorado had always traditionally played a western schedule before joining the Pac-12. The Buffaloes swept the home-and-home series in men's basketball last year to take a 4-2 series lead, while the women's team lost both games to ASU, the first-ever wins for Arizona State in the series to cut CU's lead to 9-2. ASU won the other head-to-head encounters in 2011-12 (two volleyball, one in soccer and women's tennis).

Jon Embree is 0-1 against Arizona State; Todd Graham is 0-0 against Colorado.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?— The 2007 game in Tempe on September 8, despite a 7:15 p.m. local start time, set the record for the warmest game in Colorado football history at the time: the temperature at kickoff was 102 degrees. It was matched earlier this season at Fresno State.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 6th (by default). PK Mason Crosby's 29-yard field goal gave CU an early 3-0 lead, but turned out to be only scoring for the Buffs as Arizona State slowly pulled away to a 21-3 win in the first-ever meeting between the two schools; Crosby is now doing his thing for the NFL Green Bay Packers. The Sun Devils led 14-3 at halftime and after three quarters, sealing the game early in the fourth on a 5-yard touchdown pass from Rudy Carpenter to Zach Miller. TB Hugh Charles rushed for 109 yards, CU's top offensive highlight in the game.

ARIZONA STATE NOTES

Arizona State is 4-1 overall and 2-0 in the Pac-12. The Sun Devils boast one of the nation's top defenses, ranking No. 10 in total defense, allowing just 276.2 yards per game. ASU's defensive specialty is stopping the pass, as it ranks No. 7 in pass defense at 137.0 yards per game, No. 7 in pass efficiency defense with a rating of 90.3. The Sun Devils rank No. 5 nationally in sacks at 4.2 per game and No. 2 nationally in tackling behind the line of scrimmage with 9.8 tackles for loss per game. DL Will Sutton leads the way pressuring the quarterback, averaging more than one sack per game and over two tackles for loss per game. DB Chris Young, LB Carl Bradford and DL Junior Onyeali all average over one tackle per game behind the line of scrimmage, as well. Offensively, Taylor Kelly took over for former Sun Devil and current Denver Bronco backup QB Brock Osweiler and he leads the Pac-12 and ranks No. 16 nationally in pass efficiency with a rating of 166.3, and he is fourth in the Pac-12 in total offense at 287.0 yards per game. He has connected on 92-of-136 passes for 1,292 yards and nine touchdowns with two interceptions. His favorite target has been Chris Coyle, who has 26 catches for 338 yards and a pair of scores, while four other players have 13 or 14 receptions led by Kevin Ozier, who has seen three of his 13 catches (188 yards) go for a touchdown. Three ASU players have multiple rushing touchdowns on the season, as D.J. Foster (36 carries, 219 yards, two touchdowns), Marion Grice (36-208-5) and Cameron Marshall (49-276-4) have all shared the load, while Kelley has also been effective on the ground with 143 rushing yards on the season.

- ➔ Arizona State coach Todd Graham is in his first year in Tempe and his seventh year as a head coach. He was previously the head coach at Pittsburgh in 2011, where he went after four years at Tulsa from 2007-10. He got his head coaching start for Rice in 2006. He led the Golden Hurricane to a 36-17 mark in four years with three seasons of 10-plus wins and the team led the nation in total offense twice. He played defensive back for NAIA East Central University in Oklahoma from 1984-87 and got his coaching start on the high school level in Texas from 1988-90. He then went back to East Central to start his collegiate coaching career, serving as defensive coordinator from 1991-93 as ECU won the NAIA national championship. He then returned to the high school level in Oklahoma from 1994-2000 before returning to college as a linebackers coach for West Virginia in 2001 where he became the co-defensive coordinator in 2002. He then served as a defensive coordinator for Tulsa from 2003-05.
- ➔ Arizona State is 4-1 on the season, including a 2-0 mark in the Pac-12. The Sun Devils opened up the season with a 63-6 thrashing of Northern Arizona before an impressive 45-14 win over Illinois the following week. After a close loss at Missouri (24-20) in week three, ASU handled Utah easily to open Pac-12 play with a 37-7 win before heading to Berkeley on Sept. 29 and handing Cal a 27-17 defeat. For the second straight season, CU will be facing ASU coming off a bye week.

CU-ARIZONA STATE BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia (or lack thereof) in the Colorado-ASU series:

- 3 Number of games played between Colorado and Arizona State in their football histories.
- 4-2 Colorado's record against Arizona State in men's basketball, with the Buffs sweeping the series in 2011-12 in their first year in the Pac-12;

- 5 The number of turnovers Colorado had in the 48-14 loss in 2011, leading to 10 ASU points but perhaps killing 17-21 for the Buffs;
- 4 The number of U.S. Open (golf) titles won by the two schools alumni golfers (all by Buffs: Hale Irwin 3, Steve Jones 1).
- 5 The number of times Colorado has played in ASU's Sun Devil Stadium (in 2007 and 2011 and the 1993, 1995 and 2002 Fiesta Bowls).
- No. 22 The highest national ranking of either team (Arizona State in 2007) when the two have lined up across from each other;
- 109 The number of rushing yards by TB Hugh Charles in the 2006 game, one yard shy of 50 percent of CU's offensive total (209).
- 200/400 In the first two series' games, Colorado has gained in the low 200s on offense (219, 204) while Arizona State topped 400 in both (430, 407).
- 207 Phil Mickelson's winning 54-hole score in the 1990 CU-Fox Acres Invitational at Red Feather Lakes (rounds of 68-70-69 on the par-71 track)
- 589 The number of miles between Boulder, Colorado, and Tempe, Ariz.;
- 4,705 The difference in elevation (feet) between Boulder (5,345) and Tempe (1,175; though some areas are near 1,500).
- 218,107 The combined square miles of both states (Arizona 114,007/Colorado 104,100), as the two rank sixth and eighth, respectively, among the 50 states.

GAME 9ARIZONA STATE 48, COLORADO 14*OCTOBER 29, 2011*SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE

TEMPE, Ariz. — A 21-point first quarter was cushion enough to allow No. 23 Arizona State to hit cruise control and ultimately coast to a 48-14 victory here over Colorado at Sun Devil Stadium.

It was the 22nd consecutive road game for CU (1-8 overall, 0-5 Pac-12), while ASU improved to 6-2 and 4-1, strengthening its hold on the South Division lead.

ASU quarterback Brock Osweiler completed 18-of-28 passes for 307 yards and two touchdowns, with tailback Cameron Marshall adding 114 yards rushing and three TDs on his 15 carries. CU quarterback Tyler Hansen finished 23-of-36 for 321 yards and one TD (two interceptions). Tailback Josh Ford was the Buffs' leading rusher, gaining 73 yards on 10 carries.

Nick Hirschman opened at quarterback, but Hansen, recovering from a concussion, replaced him on CU's third possession. Neither could help generate any early offense; the Buffs managed 54 total first-quarter yards to ASU's 222.

The Sun Devils scored on three of their first four possessions, two of the touchdowns coming on Osweiler passes (26, 33 yards) and the third on a 19-yard run by Marshall.

ASU, the third CU opponent in October to have an open week before playing the Buffs, fattened its margin to 24-0 on a 38-yard Alex Garoutte field goal with 7:56 left in the second quarter.

The Buffs' deepest penetration of the first half came on the following series, when they marched to the Sun Devils' 16-yard line. But at that point, Hansen was intercepted by safety Clint Floyd, killing the threat.

The defense accounted for CU's only first half points. After Sandersfeld batted an Osweiler backward pass, Josh Moten - making his first start in the secondary - snatched the ball off the ground and ran 16 yards for a touchdown. Will Oliver's PAT brought the Buffs to within 24-7, but that might have aroused the Devils after they appeared to be nodding off.

ASU needed just three plays and 43 seconds to cover 62 yards and get its final first-half TD. Marshall got it on an 11-yard run and the halftime score was 31-7.

The Buffs accepted the second half kickoff but didn't do anything with it. Hansen's second interception led to another Garoutte field goal — this one a 46-yarder — and ASU padded its lead to 34-7 with 9:58 left in the third quarter.

On the ensuing possession, CU drove to the ASU 1-yard line, where three runs — two by Tony Jones sandwiched around one by Hansen, — were all stuffed. The Buffs then forced a punt, then fumbled it and the Sun Devils recovered at the CU 13. Three plays later, Marshall scored his third TD on a 4-yard run.

The third quarter was 28 seconds from ending, and the fourth quarter once again presented little hope for CU. But on the brighter side, the Buffs offense scored for the first time since the fourth quarter of the Washington game (Oct. 15).

With 12:45 remaining, Hansen and Toney Clemons hooked up for a 21-yard TD, a catch that topped SportsCenter's top college plays of the day. Oliver's extra point made the score 41-14. ASU responded by changing quarterbacks, pulling Osweiler and letting backup Mike Bercovici and No. 3 Taylor Kelly close this one out.

Kelly led a five-play, 51-yard march for the Sun Devils' final TD, handing off to No. 3 tailback James Morrison for an 8-yard run that put the score at 48-14.

The Buffs kept battling, driving to the Sun Devils 2-yard line in the final 3 minutes. But a lost fumble by Ford snuffed that scoring opportunity and sent CU home with its 34-point loss.

GAME NOTES

Arizona State now leads the series 3-0 (all games since 2006) ... Opponents scored a touchdown on its first possession for the fourth straight games ... CU's conversion on 3rd-&-17 at the end of the first quarter (18 yard pass from Tyler Hansen to Keenan Canty) was the longest conversion made by CU in 2011 (coming in, CU was 1-of-17 on 3rd-&-15 or longer) Colorado committed a season-high five turnovers (after having just seven in the first eight games this year) ... The Sun Devils averaged 9.8 yards on first down and had 10 plays of 20 yards or longer (22 of 10 or more); Colorado had six and 17, respectively ... ASU gained 27 yards on its last possession to finish with 522 for the game, thus CU allowed 500-plus yards in four straight games for the first time in its history ... Two more players made their first career starts, QB Nick Hirschman and DB Josh Moten, upping the total to 21 players making their first career starts for CU in 2011 ... QB Tyler Hansen became just the seventh player in CU history to attain 5,000 yards of total offense (finishing the game with 5,231) ... Hirschman played the first two series before Hansen, who had suffered a concussion the previous game against Oregon, replaced him ... WR Toney Clemons matched his CU career best with the eight catches and was one yard shy of his yardage high with 97 ... Earlier in the day in Tempe, Colorado's men's and women's cross country teams won the inaugural Pac-12 championship titles.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: OCTOBER 11

Colorado is 9-4-1 all-time on October 11, with some interesting events occurring on the date in school annals. Here's a look:

1902—CU defeats Denver on Gamble Field, 24-0, the sixth straight shutout of a visitor to Boulder. 1924—In the first game at brand new Colorado Stadium, the then-Silver & Gold handles Regis, 39-0 (the stadium name is later changed to Folsom Field upon Fred Folsom's death in 1944). 1930—CU and Utah State battle to a 0-0 tie in Logan, the scoreless tie common in college football prior to World War II. 1947—CU's final non-league game as a member of the Mountain States Conference is against a future league rival, but the Buffs fall at home to Missouri, 21-0. 1958—Colorado posts its largest margin of victory on the road in the modern era, whipping up on Arizona in Tucson, 65-12. The Buffs own huge advantages in yards (625-173), first downs (33-7) and plays (81-56) in overcoming 153 yards in penalties. Six Buffs score touchdowns, led by Howard Cook who gets into the end zone four times. 1969—Bobby Anderson scored on a 69-yard run and Paul Arendt added a 4-yard score to lead CU to a 14-0 win over Iowa State. Anderson rushed for 121 yards, but the Buff defense limited the Cyclones to a 3 rushing yards, perhaps motivated by the fact that most had their "heads shaved like Yul Brenner" two days before the game as was documented in newspaper accounts. 1980—Drake got the best of the Buffs, 41-22, in probably the low point of what was a 1-10 season; Lance Olander's 86-yard kickoff return for a touchdown was one of CU's few highlights, and the last by a Buff for what would be 17 seasons. Olander helped CU gain a 14-3 lead over Drake early in the second quarter; however, seven CU turnovers aided the Bulldogs scoring 35 unanswered points. 1986—Mark Hatcher and O.C. Oliver scored rushing touchdowns to lead Colorado to a 17-12 win at Missouri, CU's first win of the season after going 0-4 in non-league play. The win started a five-game winning streak that eventually led to the Buffaloes playing for the Big 8 Conference title. In the game, Tom Whelihan made a 62-yard field goal for the Tigers to cut the lead to 14-6 at halftime; Whelihan surfaced as a CU graduate assistant later in the decade. 1997—Oklahoma State used a touchdown with 2:00 remaining to defeat the Buffs in Stillwater, 33-29; the Cowboys, coached by former CU assistant head coach Bob Simmons, knock Colorado from the Top 25, ending CU's run of 143 consecutive weeks in the national polls. In a game that saw the lead change hands five times with each score beginning late in the first half, OSU got the last laugh. CU took its last lead with 9:46 remaining on a John Hessler 73-yard pass to Dwayne Cherrington, but Tony Lindsay's 19-yard pass to Alonzo Mayes with 120 seconds left to play sealed the win. 2003—Brian Calhoun's 12-yard run in overtime polished off a CU rally from 11 points down as the Buffs defeated Kansas, 50-47. Mason Crosby made two field goals in the final 5:24, including a 23-yard effort with just 14 seconds to go, in a game that saw the teams combine for 1,184 yards and 55 first downs. 2008—Jake Sharp's two fourth quarter touchdown runs broke open a close game and led Kansas to a 30-14 in Lawrence.

OCTOBER 11 COLORADO MVP: PK Mason Crosby. In addition to tying the game with two fourth quarter field goals in an eventual 50-47 win over Kansas, he also had eight of his nine kickoffs go for touchbacks.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL NOTE / 1942

Seventy years ago, with World War II raging in Europe and America now involved with the events of Pearl Harbor the previous December, the college football landscape begins to change. The last normal schedules by most schools were played in 1942, many not resumed until 1946. With rosters starting to become make-shift with many players going off to war, the Buffaloes still managed to go 7-2, including a 5-1 record in Mountain States Conference play which tied CU for first place. All games were decided by 12 or more points, and CU capped a season with a Thanksgiving Day win over Denver, 31-6.

GAME REPLAYS The CU-Arizona State game will be featured several times in the week following the game as part of the Pac-12 Network's acclaimed "Football in 60" series. Air dates and times are as follows (all times mountain): Sunday, Oct. 14 (7 & 11 p.m.); Monday, Oct. 15 (9:30 p.m.); Tuesday, Oct. 16 (8 p.m.); Thursday, Oct. 18 (9 a.m.) and Friday, Oct. 19 (3 a.m.).

THE VERTICAL GAME

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass

GETTING ATTENTION

Colorado signed nine defensive linemen in its 2012 recruiting class (six tackles, three ends), its most ever in surpassing seven in the 1993 and 2005 classes; two of the seven are grayshirting and will enroll in January. Jon Embree was asked at media day about the potential impact of the group in camp as compared to other times in CU history (he didn't know, who really would?). So we went to the archives and analyzed every recruiting class since 1979 to see which class produced the most multi-year starters in the defensive front seven. Several classes had two or even three who were regular starters, but the bell cow, not surprisingly was the '87 class which produced three All-Americans, Kanavis McGhee, Joel Steed and Alfred Williams.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Iowa is 23rd with 297, Pittsburgh is 25th with 292).

COLORADO IN THE POLLS – 2012 WEEKLY

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 14TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 14th most in the nation in this time frame (23-plus seasons). Florida State has the most with 72, followed by Florida (70), Ohio State (66), Michigan (62), Miami, Fla. (56), Alabama (55), Southern Cal (55), LSU (53), Tennessee (52), Oklahoma (49), Texas (46), Notre Dame (44), Penn State (45), Colorado (43), Auburn (43), Nebraska (43) and Georgia (42); as for the Pac-12, after USC and CU, the next schools on the list are Oregon (41), Washington (40) and UCLA (39). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the sixth most ranked teams in the nation (111, with a record of 43-66-2), trailing only Florida (126), LSU (115), Ohio State (116), Michigan (115) and Florida State (114). (AP polls used for these figures as the coaches' poll omits teams on probation but the AP does not.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost eight straight against ranked teams (last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009); the Buffs have lost 18 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

CU'S 133 WINS OVER BCS TEAMS RANKS 19TH

Looking inside the above numbers, Colorado's 133 wins over BCS teams rank as the 19th most nationally over the last 23-plus years (or since the start of the 1989 season). A closer look through games of October 6:

HEAD COACH JON EMBREE

Jon Embree is in his second season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, his first as a head coach on any level of football. He is the 24th full-time head coach in CU history (26th overall) and just the third alum ever at the reins; he owns a record of 4-14 at Colorado. Though his first head coaching job, the list of head coaches he's worked under is most impressive: Bill McCartney (Colorado), Rick Neuheisel (CU), Gary Barnett (CU), Karl Dorrell (UCLA), Herm Edwards (Kansas City, NFL) and Mike Shanahan (Washington, NFL), not to mention the countless coordinators and assistant coaches he had worked closely with. A four-year letterman at tight end under McCartney at Colorado (1983-86), he was the Lee Willard Award winner as the team's most outstanding freshman in '83, and earned first-team All-Big 8 honors as a sophomore when he set single season school records for receptions (51) and yards (680). He then became the consummate team player his final two years, as after CU switched to the wishbone on offense, his primary role became that of a blocker. He played in two bowl games (1985 Freedom, 1986 Bluebonnet) and has coached as an assistant in 12 bowl games (9 CU, 3 UCLA). Embree's Essentials:

Longest winning streak: 1. Longest losing streak: 7.

- ◆ Embree, 46, has been a part of 195 Colorado Buffalo games with a 110-83-2 record: previously, he logged 121 as a full-time assistant coach (81-39-1), 12 as a volunteer coach (8-3-1) and 44 as a player (17-27; he missed the ninth and 10th games of his freshman season in 1983 with mono).
- ◆ The Third Alum. Embree is just Colorado's third head football coach and the first in nearly 50 years who also graduated from the school, as he earned his degree in Communication in 1988. The last was Bud Davis ('51), who coached for one season (1962) to steady the waters after the Sonny Grandelius era, with the only other, Harry Heller, also coaching just one year, leading CU to an 8-1 record in 1894; Heller was an 1885 graduate.
- ◆ In addition to the head coaches he learned from above, he also cited Chan Galey, who was Kansas City's offensive coordinator in 2008; he said he learned "how flexible you need to be. If players don't fit your scheme, you'd better find something to fit your players."
- ◆ Embree adorned the cover of the June 2011 Colorado Avid Golfer, posing for the photo with his former coach and mentor, Bill McCartney. The two had played golf together just one time prior to the shoot, which took place in April and includes an interview during a round of golf.
- ◆ Subconscious Tradition. Coaches develop their own signature "whistle blow" to signify that practice has ended and to call the team together to summarize things, make announcements, etc. Embree's consists of six tweets (the whistle kind), the first and last consisting of three notes before a pause with four short ones in the middle. It's the exact same one that McCartney used for 13 seasons at CU, but he didn't realize it until he was told that it matched Mac's, well, to the tweet. When McCartney was informed that Embree was using his whistle sonata, he just laughed, admitting that it was the same one that the late Bo Schembachler used when Mac was an assistant at Michigan. Mac said he didn't realize that he was using Bo's either until after he established it at CU: "It's distinct and stands out from regular whistle blows, so that's why I must have subconsciously started using it." And the same goes for Embree.
- ◆ Embree philosophy: "There are a million excuses of why you can't do something... find the one reason you can."
- ◆ Embree became just the fourth African-American head coach in Pac-12 Conference football history when he was named to the CU position (with Stanford's David Shaw the fifth when he was promoted a month later): Dennis Green was the first when he coached Stanford (1989-91), followed by Ty Willingham, also at Stanford (1995-2001), and then former Colorado assistant Karl Dorrell at UCLA (2003-07); Willingham also was the head coach at Washington (2004-08). Nationally, Embree is one of seven African-American head coaches among the 66 BCS schools and one of the 16 at the 120 Football Bowl Subdivision programs.
- ◆ After his professional career was cut short due to an elbow injury (he had Tommy John surgery), in the spring of 1991, he was ready job to accept a job in television: KCNC in Denver, where he had interned as a student, was working to place him in a smaller market with the eventual plan to return him to Colorado (as he says of what could have been, "This is Jon Embree reporting live from the pig races in Nowheresville."). But McCartney called and offered him a volunteer position to help coach the tight ends that spring, which was right after CU was the consensus '90 national champion. "He didn't ask me, he told me," Embree said. So he thought he'd try it out in the spring, and his very first day, he knew it was his calling. "At the end of the (first) day, Mac asked me, 'What do you think?' I told him I was all in, this is for me, I love it. What I didn't say to him is, 'I want your job.'" Fast-forward 20 years, he has exactly that.
- ◆ While at UCLA, Embree coached the wide receivers and one his players was Josh Roenicke ... the same Josh Roenicke who is now a relief pitcher with the Colorado Rockies. Roenicke walked on both the football and baseball teams at UCLA and his scheduled permitted him to attend the '11 CU-CSU game.
- ◆ Embree's return to Boulder has it much easier for him to procure his favorite pizza: since the mid-1990s, he's had a pie named for him at Pasta Jay's just off the Pearl Street Mall. The "Pizza Embo" includes pesto, pepperoni and meatballs and sells for $11.99 (small), $13.99 (medium) and $15.99 (large). Jay, a huge Buffalo donor and fan, also has menu items for others in athletics at CU, including the "Cabral Pizza" (Alfredo sauce, capocollo and pineapple, for linebacker coach Brian Cabral), The "Hagan Option" named for CU's 1989-91 quarterback, Darian Hagan (three entrée items and sides), and the "Alfredo Williams" for CU's Hall of Fame linebacker Alfred Williams (chicken cutlet baked in Alfredo sauce, served over fettuccine).
- ◆ Jon and his wife Natalyn vacationed in Africa this past summer (2012), as Embree won the trip when he was on the staff of the Washington Redskins. Included in their eight days there was a tradition safari as the couple visited three countries in all.
- ◆ Embree voted in the 2011 Division I-A coaches poll coordinated by USA Today/ESPN; coaches are now selected by a random draw and he was not drawn for 2012. CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, thus CU has had a vote for the 24 of the last 26 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. Embree was officially named CU's 24th full-time head coach on Dec. 6, 2010, and signed a 5-year contract worth $3.7 million overall, not including incentives to coach the Buffaloes, with the contract dates officially running from March 1, 2011 through January 11, 2016.

PERHAPS A COLLEGE FOOTBALL FIRST?

There's no real way to research this, but Jon Embree might be the first collegiate head coach to coach against three schools in his first season that he selected his alma mater over. Back in January 1983, when Embree, along with a dozen other top prospects in Colorado, listened to the pitch from then CU-head coach Bill McCartney, he was one of a dozen players who bought into McCartney's vision for the program. The high school All-American from Englewood's Cherry Creek High School then committed and signed with the Buffs, in the end selecting Colorado over Ohio State, Southern California and UCLA, all of whom are opponents on his first schedule as a head coach. All three schools defeated CU, gaining some slight measure of revenge against Embree.

TRIVIA Who were the other Colorado high school seniors who joined Embree in that benchmark 1983 recruiting class? Here's the entire class that is credited with helping turn the Buff fortunes around by 1985: Dave DeLine (PK, Mullen), Jon Embree (TE, Cherry Creek), Jeff Glenn (OL, Pomona), Barry Helton (QB/P, Simla), Curt Koch (DL, Littleton), Eric McCarty (FB, Boulder), Ed Reinhardt (TE, Heritage), Sam Smith (TB, Aurora Hinkley), David Tate (WR/CB, Mullen), Rick Wheeler (QB, Cherry Creek) and Troy Wolf (WR/TE, Arvada). Two others walked on: Tom Gebhardt (CB, Boulder) and Mike Marquez (RB/CB, Pomona).

In 2011, 23 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 12 of whom were first-time head coaches on the collegiate level (Ohio State was a late addition after Jim Tressel resigned). THAT POUND 'EM MENTALITY

Jon Embree and Eric Bieniemy aren't shy about going running the ball on third/fourth-&-1; in 1989, Bieniemy's junior year at CU, the Buffs were 30-of-30 on 3rd-&-1, all running plays; then as assistant coaches in 2001-02, the pair watched Chris Brown and Bobby Purify to go 33-of-41 on 3rd/4th-&-1.

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Jon Embree wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Greg Brown, offensive coordinator Eric Bieniemy, special teams coach J.D. Brookhart, defensive ends coach Kanavis McGhee, receivers coach Bobby Kennedy, offensive line coach Steve Marshall, defensive line coach Mike Tuiasosopo and graduate assistants T.C. McCartney and Jeff Smart. Assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach Rip Scherer and linebackers coach Brian Cabral are upstairs in the press box with the other grad assistants and technical interns. Plays are sent in a variety of ways, mainly through signals or shuttled in from substituting players.

COORDINATOR ALUMS NOT SO COMMON, EITHER

As stated above, Jon Embree is just the third alum to be named head coach at Colorado; however, when it comes to coordinators, since the position came into vogue in the 1960s, no CU alum has ever served in the capacity until now. Eric Bieniemy, CU's all-time leading rusher with 3,940 yards in his career that spanned from 1987-90, was named offensive coordinator/running backs coach the same day Embree was hired — Dec. 6, 2010. He is just the second minority coach to serve in a coordinator capacity for CU, joining Karl Dorrell, who was the offensive coordinator under Rick Neuheisel from 1995-98.

Bieniemy philosophy (picked up in the NFL): "You either adapt or die. The dinosaurs couldn't figure it out, and look what happened to them."

STAFF STABILITY

For just the second time since 1988, the entire Buffalo coaching staff will return intact; the last time a first-time CU head coach's staff were all in tow for a second season it's been even longer—Bill Mallory's 1974 group. Perhaps with so many young players in the program, now more than ever is consistency in the coaching ranks a welcome non-change. Nationally, just 16 programs did not undergo at least one change, led by Oregon's full-time staff which is returning for a fourth year. Four schools have the same staff for a third straight year, and the other 11 for the second season in a row. The list:

4—Oregon; 3—Florida State, Georgia, Louisiana Tech, Virginia; 2—BYU, Colorado, UL-Lafayette, Miami-Fla., Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Northwestern, San Diego State, Texas, Virginia Tech.

NFL EXPERIENCE

Colorado's staff also has plenty of experience both playing and coaching in the National Football League, with 63 total seasons (38 coached, 25 played). Eight of the 10 coaches either played or coached in the NFL (two did both). The 63 combined NFL years by Colorado coaches ranks first among all 120 schools in the FBS. Here's a look at the 10 full-time staff members connections to "the league":

DC Greg Brown	0	15	15	OL Steve Marshall	0	6	6	*—served two NFL Minority Internships.

CU's Greg Brown ranks fourth in NFL coaching experience with 15 years, trailing Monte Kiffin, USC, 26; Dale Lindsey, NMSU, 20; and Charlie Weis, Kansas, 16. In addition, Colorado's strength and conditioning coach, Malcolm Blacken, has 15 years of NFL experience with Detroit and Washington.

OTHER BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Brad Bedell, OL, New Mexico State ('99); Cedric Cormier, WR, UNLV ('01); Rich Fisher, WR, Nebraska ('92); Rod Perry, DB, Oregon State ('75); Steve Stripling, DL, Cincinnati ('76). IN THE FCS: Ty Gregorak, DC/LB, Montana ('99). AND DOWN I-25 AT CSU-PUEBLO: Paul Creighton, DL ('03), Bernard Jackson, WR ('06), Donnell Leomiti, DB ('95), Chris Symington, OL ('87).

CABRAL FIRST PLAYER/COACH TO REACH 300 GAMES AS A BUFFALO, TURNS EYE TO ... 400?

Long-time linebacker coach Brian Cabral celebrated his 300th game as Colorado Buffalo in 2009, and did it in style in CU's thrilling 35-34 win over Texas A&M (he now has been involved in 333). He wore his famous trademark lava lava wrap in CU colors for the game; overall, the Buffs are 6-4 when he dons the garb, which he wants to avoid wearing twice in any season as noted the second game has been a loss on three occasions). After two weeks of speculation, he did wear it for CU's 2011 season opener in his native Hawai'i; he referred to it all along as a game decision but didn't want to take any attention away from the new staff, who all urged him to wear it. He first donned a lava lava for CU's 51-43 win over

Oregon in the 1998 Aloha Bowl, wearing a red and blue wrap to honor the family of the late Sal Aunese (CU's starting quarterback who passed away from stomach cancer in 1989). Then at the urging of then-head coach Dan Hawkins, Cabral debuted his personalized wrap with CU colors in 2007 against No. 3 Oklahoma; down 24-7, the Buffs rallied for a 27-24 win.

A former inside linebacker for the Buffs, he originally was a middle guard until suffering an elbow injury midway through his freshman year ('74) before switching to linebacker in a career that spanned 46 games from 1974-77. He has coached in 257 since joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1989. He had a 9-year career in the National Football League (1978-86) and then worked two years as GA for Purdue before making his way back to Boulder. Cabral finished his CU career as the Buffs' all-time leading tackler with 297; he is still tied for 16th on the all-time list. He has coached eight of the players who have passed him on the list: Matt Russell, Greg Biekert, Jordan Dizon, Ted Johnson, Chad Brown, Michael Jones, Thaddaeus Washington and Jashon Sykes, with a ninth, senior Jeff Smart, finishing just six behind his total with 291.

OLD-TIMER

Associate head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. Now in his 22nd season (330 games), he is the longest tenured assistant coach in Colorado all sports history. A closer look at the top eight in football:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Brian Cabral 23 (1990-current); 2. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 8. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58).

Cabral is sixth on the list of active coaches for continuous full-time service at the same school in the nation; fifth among all assistant coaches. The entire national list:

2012 RULE CHANGES

The Playing Rules Oversight Panel (PROP) on February 28 approved several rule changes for football, beginning this fall. The major ones:

- Teams will return to kicking off at the 35-yard line instead of the 30 (this was last in effect in 2006). Also, players on the kicking team can't line up for the play behind the 30-yard line, which is intended to limit the running start kicking teams used to have during the play.
- Touchbacks on free kicks will be moved to the 25-yard line instead of the 20 to encourage more touchbacks. Touchbacks on other plays (for example, punts that go into the end zone, or fumbles that go out of the end zone) will remain at the 20-yard line.
- If a player loses his helmet (other than as the result of a foul by the opponent, such as a facemask), it will be treated like an injury and the player must leave the game and is not allowed to participate for the next play. Current injury timeout rules guard against using this rule to gain an advantage from stopping the clock. Additionally, if a player loses his helmet, he must not continue to participate in the play, in order to protect him from injury.
- Players are now prohibited from leaping over blockers in an attempt to block a punt. Receiving-team players trying to jump over a shield-blocking scheme has become popular for teams in punt formation. Receiving-team players try to defeat this scheme by rushing into the backfield to block a punt. In some cases, these players are contacted and end up flipping in the air and landing on their head or shoulders.

TRENDS1985-2012

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 23-plus seasons. A closer look:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
165 WINS	273	410	+ 137	1,340	565	+775

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is now 21-15 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior, including both West Virginia games in 2008 and 2009; CU has won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (2010); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. But two other streaks remain:

- CU has scored in 149 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986), and has scored in 143 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 285 games (all the way back to 1963).
- CU has been shutout just nine times in its last 520 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only five schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 141 times in 231 tries, including 25 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the "two-minute offense" drill since 1988; that's 62 percent of the time including 1-of-4 this year (the winning TD drive at Washington State). CU was 3-of-8 in 2011: field goals versus Cal (end of regulation) and Washington State (first half); and a first half TD vs. CSU and were 2-of-9 in the drill in 2010 (scoring first half TDs at Kansas and versus Kansas State). 2009 was a good year for the drill (9-of-14) which included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 36-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 221 of 247 times, losing 23 and tying three when it blew the lead; unfortunately, two of those times has occurred in the 2012 season. Colorado has lost only 27 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were this year to Sacramento State (led 28-24 entering the quarter and lost on a field goal at the gun) and to CSU (led 17-16 with 13:27 remaining); and to Washington State (led 27-17 early in the fourth) and California (led 27-23 early in fourth) both in Boulder in 2011. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 105 of its last 123 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 35 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came by the same score: this year at Washington State (won 35-34 after trailing 31-14 with 8:07 left) and in 2009 against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining). Two big ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below are the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2012 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on the 2012 opening roster collectively had played in 674 games, with 223 starts entering the season, making this easily CU's youngest/most inexperienced team in quite some time. Recent past numbers entering a season have been 890 games played/303 started (2011), 877/313 (2010), 847/236 (2009), 817/277 (2008), 853/251 (2007), 1,053/295 (2006) and 1,080/314 (2005). Through five games in 2012, DT Will Pericak has made the most consecutive starts on the team with 41; next in line are OLB Jon Major (17) and OT David Bakhtiari (14). No other player on the team has a streak any longer than five, as no one else dates back to ending 2011 with a start.

FOURTEEN MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS TO DATE THIS FALL

Six players made their first career starts in a Colorado uniform in the season opener versus Colorado State: NT Nate Bonsu, CB Kenneth Crawley, DE Kirk Poston, WR Gerald Thomas, QB Jordan Webb (though he had 19 starts with Kansas) and FB Alex Wood. Four more did so in game two against Sacramento State: DB Marques Mosley (at nickel), FB Christian Powell (at TB), DT Josh Topou and CB Yuri Wright with three others at Fresno State (C Brad Cotner, TE Vincent Hobbs and WR Nelson Spruce) and one at Washington State (OT Stephane Nembot). Crawley joined Greg Henderson (last year) as the only true freshmen to start at cornerback in a season opener since Victor Scott in 1980, while Thomas was the first true frosh to start a season opener for CU at wide receiver since 1972 when freshmen once again became eligible to play. Crawley and Thomas also became just the eighth and ninth true freshmen in CU history to have started from scrimmage in the opening game of the season; here are those who were thrown into the fray from play one from scrimmage: TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming); ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State); CB Greg Henderson, 2011 (vs. Hawai'i); CB Kenneth Crawley and WR Gerald Thomas, 2012 (vs. Colorado State). Add a 10th for the first play of the game/season on special teams (kickoff coverage team): PK Kevin Eberhart (2003, kicked off vs. Colorado State in Denver).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2010, juniors and seniors made the most starts since 2005. In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen; that's when the current cycle of youth really started. A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 123rd season of competition having played 1,167 games with an all-time record of 675-456-36. CU currently stands 21st on the all-time win list and is 28th in all-time winning percentage (.595; those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 123, with only USC having won more games (783) and USC, Washington and Arizona State the Pac-12 schools owning higher winning percentages than the Buffs. In Boulder, the Buffs are 297-152-10 in 88-plus seasons on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-5 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Colorado has won only 25 games over the last six-plus seasons, but in 10 of those games, the Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down, including CU's first win in 2012. Andrew Furney opened the fourth quarter with a 45-yard field goal to put Washington State ahead, 31-14. The teams traded scoreless possessions, and CU took over on its 8 with 8:07 left. The Buffs then marched for the first of three straight TD drives to close the game, with QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. Three occurred in 2010 and three back in 2007, with three in-between. Eight have taken place in Boulder, with the ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State with the Washington State comeback the first on the road; it turned into the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 33 occasions (and are 25-8 in games when this occurs). The last time it happened was at Washington State this year, when TB Tony Jones rushed for 105 yards and a touchdown with WR Nelson Spruce snaring eight passes for 103 yards and TD. Against Arizona in 2011, TB Rodney Stewart rushed for 181 yards and WR Toney Clemons had 115 receiving yards. It happened twice in 2010, both times with Stewart (175, 123) and WR Paul Richardson (141, 121) eclipsing 100 yards in back-to-back games against Kansas and Iowa State, and two times in 2009 (versus Texas A&M: Stewart 118 yards, WR Markques Simas 135; and against Nebraska: Stewart 110 yards, WR Scotty McKnight 114, Simas 108). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 158 of the 2012 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity is 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2011 was 251,777, an average of 50,355 for five home games, marking the 17th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 35th time in the last 37 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (CU's season ticket count in 2011 was 24,471 public and 35,304 overall when adding in student holders, as those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2011 Record	Jon Embree Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-50-2	8-18-1	0-1	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-86-3	14-32-2	0-2	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-110-3	20-44-2	0-2	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-145-3	43-66-2	0-4	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7). Now in the Pac-12, the Buffaloes are now among similar company when it comes to scheduling, as most Big 12 schools had a reputation for taking it easy in non-conference play (sans Oklahoma).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 92-66 in its last 158 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 79-30 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 71-37-1 in its last 109 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 533-254-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through five games of the 2012 season, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 486 CU games in his career, including 221 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Morry Mannies, Ball State (547) and Bob Robertson, Washington State (512) have called more games. In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution. Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 287 in a row on the coaching staff (three as the interim head coach); including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 333 CU games. Other dinosaurs: SID Dave Plati has worked 388 overall including the last 346 (dating to the '83 finale), while facilities man John Krueger has worked 321 in all (a string of 144 straight ended in 2008). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has eight seniors on its roster in 2012, and if history is any kind of indication, they'll get plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League. Scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with almost half the league already doing so in 2012. Already this year, 14 teams have had their scouts witness the Buffs in person at games this year: Baltimore, Buffalo, Chicago, Cincinnati, Denver, Houston, Miami, Minnesota, New England, New Orleans, St. Louis, San Francisco, Tampa Bay and Tennessee. The last two years, all 32 teams sent scouts to either camp practices or games, and many have already logged time in Boulder during camp; 565 scouts have attended Colorado games (home/road/neutral) dating back to 2000.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 13 former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of October 3; there were 15 on the rosters at the end of the 2011 season (18 at the end of 2010 and 22 in 2009). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last 23 years of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. CU either led (five times) or was among the top four schools in the Big 12 Conference its entire time as a member of the league. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other three years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; †—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; i—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured status; club still owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

CANUCKS: Three former Buffs are making livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his ninth year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, TB Hugh Charles is in his second with the Edmonton Eskimos (after three-plus with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders) and OG Edwin Harrison is in his third with the Calgary Stampeders.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Five former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the six who head prep programs: Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Mike Marquez (Northglenn), Bill Mondt (Eaton), Tom Tesone (Bishop Machebeuf) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

➔ CU has had 257 players drafted into the NFL; that's 20th all-time, and fourth among Big 12 schools behind Oklahoma (339), Nebraska (331) and Texas (316); Notre Dame leads with 462, one more than second place USC. OU is fourth, NU sixth and UT ninth; Texas A&M is right being CU in 21st with 255.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 26 of 34 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (73 percent of the entire roster—active and inactive—as of September 7: 75 of 104 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 34, Colorado 29, Texas 12, Hawai'i 4, Louisiana 4, New Jersey 3, Arizona 2, Kansas 2, Missouri 2, Ohio 2, Illinois 1, Iowa 1, New Mexico 1, New York 1, Pennsylvania 1, Tennessee 1. That's 16 states total along with the District of Columbia (4) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Four Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: OL Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries), DL Stephane Nembot (Douala, Cameroon), P Darragh O'Neill (Cork, Ireland) and CB Yuri Wright (Saint Vincent and the Grenadines in the Caribbean).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 301-15-1 when scoring 30 or more points (the last loss the 36-33 OT setback to Cal in '11), along with records of 213-5 with 35-plus points and 196-4 with 36-plus, 173-3 with 38-plus and 111-1 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009) and Kansas (52-45 this year). CU has played 1,167 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 105-73-3 in its last 181 league games, and has the 21st fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 119 of its last 287 games, posting a 108-10-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 187 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 23-74-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. The last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ In the Hawkins Era (2006-10), CU averaged 5.5 per first down play in 2006, followed by 5.3 (2007), 4.4 (2008 and 2009) and 4.5 in 2010. Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2011, the Buffs continued to struggle in the 4's, averaging 4.8 yards on first down for 13. Against CSU, the Buffs averaged 7.2 yards a crack on first down, their best since a 7.2 average against Nebraska in the 2008 finale, and also averaged a healthy 6.8 versus USC and 6.0 at Utah.
 - ➔ CU was in second-and-long much too often in 2011; 133 times out of 277 second down plays, the Buffs were faced with 2nd-and-10 or longer (48 percent of the time). CU earned first downs on first down 67 times (compared to 98 by the opponent).
 - ➔ In five games in 2012, the Buffs are averaging 5.1 yards on first down, which has been fairly consistent and not skewed by too many long gainers.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 48 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 164 games (season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 69 scores by return in 213 games (62 regular season, seven bowl).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 16 times in the last 163 games (and 37 times in the last 238, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 43-2 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 51-5 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 71-66 in its last 137 games on grass, including a 44-37 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass.
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 94-48-3 in its last 145 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 61-34-3 mark in conference games. CU was 1-3 on the fake stuff in 2011 and is 1-1 in 2012.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, that number was 14.1 in 2005, 10.2; in 2006, 12.0; in 2007, 14.0; in 2008, 9.7 (the only time under 10 in this span); in 2009, 15.7; in 2010, 12.3; in 2011, opponents gained 1,000 yards on 73 makes (13.7 per), with eight TDs (that averaged 18.0 yards per) and just 146 yards on the 83 misses (1.6).
 - ➔ In 2012, things started out well, but WSU's spread offense did some damage (165 yards on eight conversions after CU allowed just 135 on 14 conversions in the first three games). Through five games, opponents have gained 372 yards on 29 makes (12.8 per) and 42 yards on the other 43 plays (0.98).
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-1 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, losing for the first time against Cal in 2011 (36-33 in OT). The previous last two occurrences of this were in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. In these 15 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 633-320, with only four games decided by less than 17 points (Cal in 2011, a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ Opponents have made 100-of-129 field goals dating back to 2006 (77.4 percent), including 8-of-10 this year. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 68-of-79 (86.1) on kicks inside the 40. In the same span, CU is 72-of-120 (60.0).
- ➔ In 2009, one of the most all-time perplexing stats to ever come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five. But that fifth time was one of the reasons CU went 3-9: example—Missouri gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on its other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all added up to 17.6 percent of opponent plays gaining 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU allowed 50 plays over 20 yards, totaling 1,633 yards; basically 6.2 percent of the plays producing 34 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2011, opponents had 75 plays of 20-plus yards that have collectively gained 2,191 yards (29.2 per); the other 793 gained 3,520 (4.4); thus 8.6 percent of the plays gained 38.4 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ Thus far in 2012, the opponent has 31 plays of 20 yards or longer, gaining 1,005 yards (32.4 per); the other 339 plays have netted 1,367 yards (4.0 per).
- ➔ Colorado had slow starts in its first nine games in 2011, finally starting strong against USC and Arizona; but then UCLA put a 21-0 drubbing on. The Buffs were outscored 142-34 in the first quarter (and 196-63 in the first 22:30, or quarter-in-a-half). Opponents had a hefty 1,737-952 edge in the first quarter offense (and 2,301-1,344 in the first quarter-and-a-half).
 - ➔ In the season finale 17-14 win at Utah, CU turned the table and outgained the Utes 185-17 in the first quarter, it's most dominant quarter of the season.
- ➔ Go Figure. Opponents have started 12 drives in plus territory, and have been held to eight scores (6 TD/2 FG). They have started 24 drives at or inside their 20, and had 13 scores (10 TD/3 FG). Thus, they have begun 34 drives between their own 21 and 49, with 10 scores (7 TD/3 FG).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-106 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09 (and 11 more before Stanford and Andrew Luck did it in '11). The CU offense is 9-of-106 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 673 of 976 quarters (69%). Those numbers included 35 of 52 quarters in 2011 (12 of 18 this year).

2012 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1892 (Feb. 10, 1893) This result was tacked on to the 1892 season: Colorado A&M challenged the University of Colorado to a game ... Oops, CU wins big in Fort Collins, 70-6, with it enabling the Silver & Gold to finish with their first winning record (3-2) in year three of their history.
- 1897 Every school has years like this and the NCAA counts the wins: in a 7-1 season, CU is 3-0 against DPL school (East, West, Manual), topples Mines, an Athletic Club from Littleton and the infamous Denver Wheel Club, though did beat Colorado College before ending the season with a loss to the Denver A.C.
- 1902 Fred Folsom coaches the Buffs to a 5-1 mark, including an 11-6 win over Colorado A&M; there's no available account of the game, but this was in the span of 1898 through 1903 where both touchdowns and field goals were worth five points and a PAT one, so CU had at least one TD/PAT... or three safeties.
- 1907 The 105th anniversary of the weirdest score in CU's football history: on Thanksgiving Day, Mines beats CU in Denver, 5-4 (field goals were back at 4 points, so it was either one of those or two safeties).
- 1912 Colorado A&M beats CU, 21-0, six months to the day of the Titanic setting sail; Colorado takes it out on Wyoming a week later, winning 75-0 in Boulder.
- 1917 After leading CU to a 1-5-1 mark in his first year, Bob Evans, the successor to Fred Folsom, pilots the team to a 6-2 mark and then leaves the profession.
- 1922 CU travels by train to Kansas where it succumbs, 39-6, then travels back for a Thanksgiving Day game just five days later and manages to beat Mines, 16-0.
- 1927 (Oct. 8) At the same time the '27 Yankees defeat Pittsburgh, 4-3, to win the World Series and finish 114-44 on the year, CU falls at Montana State, 12-6.
- 1932 William Saunders takes over the coaching reins from Myron Witham (who went 63-26-7 from 1920-31), and CU goes 2-4 in his first season.
- 1937 Byron White is named CU's first All-American in football, captivating the nation with his feats leading CU to an 8-0 regular season record and its first bowl game (Cotton Bowl, where Rice defeats CU, 28-14). White led the nation in rushing, scoring and all-purpose yards.
- 1942 The Buffs go 7-2, tie for the Mountain States title with Utah (though losing 13-0 to the Utes) in the last season before World War II brings the sport to a near standstill with many CU players, as was the case nationwide, enlisting to fight; many returned to play and graduate later in the decade.
- 1947 CU's last year in the Mountain States, as the Buffs announced earlier in the summer they were joining the Big 6/Missouri Valley Conference (to make it the Big 7); CU goes 3-3 in league play, but loses the season finale on Thanksgiving at Denver, 26-20, before the largest crowd in the series (28,063).
- 1952 (Sept. 27) The only blemish on Oklahoma's incredible 63-0-1 record in Big Seven and Eight conference play between 1947-1958 came on this day in Boulder: CU's Zack Jordan was a one-man wrecking crew for the Buffaloes in a 21-21 tie with the No. 4 Sooners. He scored on runs of 10 and 6 yards and caught a 16-yard touchdown pass from Lee Venzke with 11:50 remaining to put CU ahead, 21-14; OU tied it on a Billy Vessels 1-yard run with 1:51 left and the PAT; Frank Bernardi broke free for a 22-yard run to the Sooner 21 on the game's last play, as time ran out before CU had a chance to win it.
- 1957 Bob Stransky earned All-America honors, finishing second in the nation in rushing with 1,097 yards (CU led the nation with 322.4 yards per game); an Interesting year: CU opens 3-1-1 but isn't ranked until it falls in game six at Oklahoma, 14-13; edged at home by Missouri 9-6, CU falls out of the rankings but doesn't reappear despite closing with three blowout wins at Colorado State (20-0) and Nebraska (27-0), and over Iowa State at home (38-21).
- 1962 Devastated by NCAA penalties, Bud Davis ('51) takes over for Sonny Grandelius as head coach for just the '62 season to right the program; the team didn't know he was a one-year wonder until he told them the morning of the last game, and the Buffs go out and upset Air Force, 34-10, to end a 2-8 year.
- 1967 Eddie Crowder coaches the Buffs back into the postseason, where CU defeated Miami, Fla., in the Bluebonnet Bowl, 31-21, to finish 9-2. CU was 5-2 in Big 8 play, finishing second to Oklahoma (the Sooners won the head-to-head matchup 23-0 in Norman a week after Oklahoma State tripped up the Buffs in Boulder, 10-7). The Anderson brothers paced CU, senior Dick being named an All-American at safety (sixth nationally with seven interceptions) with sophomore Bobby passing for 733 yards and rushing for 625 more.
- 1972 (Sept. 30) Thirty-five years ago, some had Colorado pegged to be a national champion contender, but a stunning 38-6 loss at Oklahoma State sidetracked the dream; Oklahoma rolled into town ranked No. 2, but behind Gary Campbell and Jon Keyworth, the Buffaloes pull off a 20-14 upset. The latter, played on October 22, drew a then-record 52,022 in attendance for any sporting event in the state of Colorado. The Buffs climb back to No. 7 after the win but back-to-back losses to Missouri and No. 3 Nebraska drop CU back into the teens in the rankings, with the 33-10 loss to Huskers played before 52,128, breaking the state mark set just two weeks earlier versus Oklahoma (Mile High wasn't expanded over 50,000 until 1976).
- 1977 (Oct. 1) Colorado's last trip to the Northeast results in a 31-0 whitewash of Army at West Point; CU will finally return to the area on Sept. 6, 2014, playing the University of Massachusetts in Foxboro (home of the NFL New England Patriots).
- 1982 (Sept. 11) Bill McCartney makes his coaching debut for the Buffaloes, but California wins a rain-soaked game in Boulder, 31-17, to spoil it; he gets in the win column the next Saturday (Sept. 18) with a 12-0 win against Washington State in Spokane. McCartney took over the program on June 9 after Chuck Fairbanks resigned on June 1 to become head coach of the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1987 (Oct. 3) Sal Aunese makes his starting quarterback debut at Colorado State; in leading CU to a 29-16 win, he rushes 18 times for 83 yards a touchdown and completes 4-of-6 passes for 139 yards and a score. That was a 316.3 quarterback rating for the game (still third best in CU history for a game with five or more attempts). The Buffs rolled to a 26-0 lead early in the second quarter and coasted from there.
- 1992 (Oct. 17) Mitch Berger's 53-yard field goal at the gun completes a furious Colorado rally as the Buffs tie Oklahoma, 24-24, in Boulder; it extends CU's unbeaten streak in Big Eight play to 24 games; the streak would reach 25 (23-0-2) before coming to an end with a loss two weeks later at Nebraska.
- 1997 Following a 33-29 loss at Oklahoma State, CU drops out of the polls for the first time since the 1988 season; it ends a 143-consecutive week run being ranked, the eighth longest streak of all-time (at the time). The Buffs lose two family members in the offseason, linebacker Tyronee Bussey on January 3 to leukemia and assistant coach (running backs) Ben Gregory on April 10 to a heart attack.
- 2002 TB Chris Brown rushes for 1,744 yards, third in the nation, but his Heisman hopes are dashed by a late season ankle injury that forced him to miss the better part of three games. WR Jeremy Bloom makes his CU debut in style, returning a punt 75 yards for a touchdown the first time he touches the ball as a collegian in the season-opener against Colorado State. CU opens 9-3 in defending its Big 12 North Division title, but drops the league title game to Oklahoma and the Alamo Bowl to Wisconsin to finish 9-5, with the 14 games the most in a single season in school history.
- 2007 The last season the Buffaloes went to a bowl game (Independence); CU defeated both Oklahoma and Nebraska in the same season for a record fifth time (1960-61-89-90-2007); CU rallied from 17 down in the third quarter to beat No. 3 Oklahoma, 27-24 (on a 45-yard Kevin Eberhart field goal as time expired) and beat Nebraska in a wild affair, 65-51, qualifying for the postseason with the win.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, Colorado is 51-41-2 in their last 94 October games. CU is 52-33 in its last 85 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. The Buffs are and 56-32-1 in its last 89 November games (50-20 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month, and 51-11 against unranked teams). CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS

Colorado is looking at a different road when it comes to bowl games with it now being a member of the Pac-12 Conference, with a much more western flavor. Here's the conference's lineup for the 2011 bowl season:

- # 1 Rose Bowl (Jan. 1) and/or BCS National Championship (Jan. 7)
- # 2 Valero Alamo (Dec. 29 vs. Big 12)
- # 3 Bridgepoint Education Holiday (Dec. 27 vs. Big 12)
- # 4 Sun (Dec. 31 vs. ACC)

- # 5 Las Vegas (Dec. 22 vs. Mountain West)
- # 6 Kraft Fight Hunger (Dec. 29 vs. Navy or At-Large)

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against nine Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame and Oregon State. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern Cal (6), Missouri and Texas (5), LSU and Ohio State (4) and then Arizona State, California, Florida State, Michigan State, Nebraska, Stanford and Washington (3 each).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009, with Auburn doing it again in 2010):

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 22 seasons (1990-2011), which is tied for the 13th most nationally when it comes to trophies (though CU ranks 10th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2011 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

TOP 12 FOR 2012

To commemorate the 75th anniversary of the University of Colorado's first All-American in football, Byron "Whizzer" White, KOA and CUBuffs.com conducted a fan competition to select 12 of the best players since White to wear the Buffalo uniform. Candidates were broken down into six groups, and fans selected two from each to "share the spotlight." Thus two players from the following areas were voted on to come up with a dozen Buffaloes since 1937 who have excelled at their positions: offensive skill (quarterback, tailback and receiver), offensive line (tackle, guard, center and tight end), defensive line (end, tackle, nose guard), linebacker (inside/outside), defensive back and specialists. For a player to be listed in a group, he must have been named a first- or second team All-American, earned multiple first-team All-Conference honors, had a distinguished NFL career, or be at or very near the top on CU's all-time statistical lists. Voting concluded on August 28; groupings below (winners marked with  and in bold, announced weekly and in no particular order):

REUNIONS IN 2012

There are no specific team reunions planned this fall (the most celebrated Buff team on a 5- or 10- year anniversary hit would be the 1937 one that won the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference some 75 years ago, but there are few if any surviving team members). However, for the UCLA game on Sept. 29, there will be the first alumni gathering for an entire decade, as CU is inviting all football players from the 1970s to return for a weekend of activities. The '71 team finished No. 3 in the country, the '72 team opened with a No. 2 national ranking, the '75 narrowly lost to No. 1 Oklahoma in Norman (21-20), and the '76 team were tri-champions of the Big 8 but earned the nod to play in the Orange Bowl. In the 10 National Football League drafts from 1971-80, a total of 68 Colorado players were drafted (plus three more each in '81 and '82 who also played in the 70s). By the end of the decade, Colorado has more active players in the NFL (47) than any other school. Coach Eddie Crowder (1963-73) has passed, but Bill Mallory (1974-78) has already committed to returning; no word yet from Chuck Fairbanks (1979-81). The Buffaloes were 67-46-1 for the decade.

The UCLA game will also serve as the centerpiece of the annual Living Legends weekend, which honors all athletes who lettered for the first time 50 years ago.

DOZEN TO BE INDUCTED INTO CU ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

The ninth class that will be inducted into the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame this November 15 will include 12 Golden Buffalo luminaries with an impressive list of accomplishments equal to or even surpassing any of the eight classes previously inducted since Byron “Whizzer” White was the first and sole inductee in 1998. The dozen include the school’s first and only Heisman Trophy winner and a Butkus Award recipient among five football lettermen, the Buffaloes’ first and only two-time basketball All-American, a U.S. Open golf champion, a track performer who at one time set 10 world records, several NCAA champions, a Norwegian ski jumper that opened the floodgates for Scandinavians to attend CU, several with Olympic glory and the “Voice of the Buffs.”

The 2012 class will be the largest-ever inducted into the Hall, as the dozen will join 47 individuals and the entire 1959 ski team who have been enshrined to date. Every decade between the 1930s and 1990s with the exception of the 1960s are represented in this class. All inductees were nominated by their peers in the Alumni C-Club or by members of the selection committee; over 60 names originally submitted were pared to 25 finalists and then voted on by the seven-member committee that produced one of the deepest classes in CU Athletic HOF history. The group will be inducted in the Hall of Fame Thursday night, November 15 and will be introduced at halftime of the CU-Washington football game on the ensuing Saturday. The 2012 class:

➤ Frank Bernardi, Football/Baseball (1952-55)

He was selected not only for his football and baseball accomplishments, but for his heavy involvement in the Alumni C-Club for over 50 years. He rushed for 1,235 yards in his career, fifth-most by a Buff at the time, with his 6.33 average per carry still the fifth-best number by any of the school’s 49 players who have gained 1,000 career yards.

➤ Alan Culpepper, Cross Country & Track (1992-96)

A seven-time All-American in the three disciplines, he was the 1996 NCAA outdoor champion in the 5,000-meter run, in which he still holds the school record. He has enjoyed a stellar professional career, including participation in two Olympic games and becoming a seven-time U.S. champion.

➤ Mary Decker-Slaney, Cross Country & Track (1977-79)

The first star in any women’s varsity sport at Colorado, she basically established CU’s record book in numerous events and was a six-time All-American before turning professional following her sophomore year. In 1982 alone, she set six world records and at one time or another set world marks in 10 different events. A two-time Olympian, she won the coveted Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in the United States for 1982.

➤ Boyd Dowler, Football (1956-58)

Playing in the famed single-wing offense under Dal Ward, Dowler earned honorable mention All-American and first-team All-Big 7 honors as a senior in 1958. He caught 41 passes for 628 yards and 6 touchdowns in his CU career, big numbers for a primarily rushing offense at the time; in 1989, he was selected as a member of CU’s All-Century Football Team. Green Bay selected him in the third round in the 1959 NFL Draft, and he went on to be named the Rookie-of-the-Year and to the league’s all-decade team for the 1960s as he played a major role in Green Bay’s 1960s dynasty, leading the team in receiving seven seasons as the Packers won five NFL titles and posted victories in Super Bowls I and II.

➤ Joe Garten, Football (1987-90)

An offensive guard, he was one of the first three unanimous All-Americans in CU history as a senior in 1990, along with tailback Eric Bieniemy and outside linebacker Alfred Williams that same year, both of whom are already in the Hall. He was also a consensus first-team All-American as a junior and a two-time, unanimous first-team All-Big Eight performer as a junior and senior. He was the runner-up for the Outland Trophy as a senior and still shares the school record for the most starts by an offensive player in school history with 44 from 1987-90.

➤ Jack Harvey, Basketball (1937-40)

He remains the only CU basketball player to be selected twice as a first-team All-American (1938-39, 1939-40), when he led the Buffs to two Mountain States Conference titles, and as a senior, an N.I.T. title and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Harvey scored 27 points in CU’s 52-37 win at Denver in 1940, at the time the most points scored by a Buff in a single game and virtually an unheard total west of the Mississippi at the time. Known for his tough defense, he was a key performer in limiting the opponent to just 31.2 points per game his junior season and only 37.0 his senior year.

➤ Steve Jones, Golf (1977-81)

One of a just a handful of four-time, first-team all-conference performers in any sport at Colorado, he was a second-team All-American as a senior in 1980-81 when he set school records that still stand, nine top 10 finishes and 10 top 20 efforts. The first recruit of legendary CU coach Mark Simpson (who passed in 2005), he went on to have a solid professional career, including a victory in the 1996 U.S. Open, and he is now making a comeback on the Champions Tour (he’s 60th on the money list but has played just six events).

➤ Leason “Pete” McCloud, Basketball (1939-42)

A first-team All-American, the third in CU basketball history and just the sixth CU athlete in any sport at the time, he was the Buffs’ leading scorer on the 1941-42 team that reached the Final Four (he scored 19 points in a 46-44 win over Kansas that enabled CU to advance in the tournament). He was also a member of the 1939-40 team that won the N.I.T. and was invited to the first NCAA tournament. A two-time All-Mountain States performer (junior, senior seasons), he led the league in scoring both as a junior (14.1 per game) and senior (16.5, big for its day).

➤ Vidar Nilsgard, Skiing (1971-74)

A key performer on the front end of CU’s run to eight straight national titles in the 1970s, he was considered a huge star of his day in the most electrifying discipline, jumping. A three-time, first-team All-American, he was the 1971 and 1973 NCAA jumping champion (he was second in ’74 and fourth in ’72). He was a three-time Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association champion and a four-time member of the All-RMISA Jumping Team.

➤ Matt Russell, Football (1993-96)

He won the Butkus Award as the nation’s top linebacker as a senior in 1996, when he was a consensus first-team All-American; also a two-time, first-team all-conference selection (All-Big Eight as a junior in ’95; All-Big 12 as a senior in ’96). He finished his career as the second all-time leading tackler in Colorado history (446), with his 282 unassisted tackles setting a school record that still stands, and played in 44 career games, including starts in the last 40. He helped coach the secondary at Colorado in 2000 while assistant coach Tom McMahon was battling cancer; in 2009, he joined the Denver Broncos as their director of college scouting and in 2012 was named their director of player personnel.

➤ Rashaan Salaam, Football (1992-94)

He was just the fourth player in college football history at the time to rush for over 2,000 yards in a season, and did so in an 11-game campaign in 1994 that included six ranked opponents. He led the nation in rushing (2,055 yards), scoring (144 points) and all-purpose yards (213.6 per game) in leading CU to an 11-1 record and winning the Heisman Trophy, the school’s first and only, the Doak Walker Award (nation’s top running back) and the Walter Camp Trophy (national player of the year).

➤ Larry Zimmer, Announcer (1971-present)

He is the first inductee into the Hall who is not a former athlete, coach or administrator; but he’s been a part of more football and men’s basketball games than perhaps anyone else in school history, calling 481 for football and 525 in basketball, or 1,006 total, through the 2011 season. He was awarded an Honorary “C” in 1992, and was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award by the National Football Foundation in 2009, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution.

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 24 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (and just missing on three other occasions, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU.

A LONG, LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). The 143 consecutive polls still ranks as the eighth longest all-time in college football history. In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

18 OUT OF 23

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, behind only Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. CU snapped that streak with a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007, and with the 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 and the 34-30 verdict over No. 17 Kansas in 2009, it's now 18 out of 23 years defeating at least one ranked program. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). The Buffs have defeated at least two in nine of the last 16 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 196 of its last 275 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (71 percent), including three games this season and all 13 in 2011 (the first time in school history that all games were televised on a regional or national basis). Since 1996, when the Big 12 began and TV contracts changed, and not including pay-per-view, 159 of CU's 202 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, which is an impressive 79 percent. In CU's first year as a member of the Pac-12, all 13 of the Buffs' games were televised on a regional or national basis (something that never would have happened in the Big 12). In addition, CU has had 43 of its last 49 non-conference games (88%) televised on a national or regional basis (36 of 42 was easily tops in the Big 12). ANNUAL TV APPEARANCES SINCE 1996 (159): 1996 (10), 1997 (10), 1998 (9), 1999 (9), 2000 (7), 2001 (10), 2002 (12), 2003 (7), 2004 (9), 2005 (10), 2006 (7), 2007 (11), 2008 (10), 2009 (11), 2010 (9), 2011 (13), 2012 (5).

With the advent of the Pac-12 Networks, all Colorado football games will now be televised minimally on a regional level, but most are national now that the conference has secured DISH as a satellite provider.

50 PERCENT NEWBIES

Colorado is playing six teams with new coaches in 2012, including five the first half of the season: Colorado State (Jim McElwain in, Steve Fairchild out), Fresno State (Tim DeRuyter/Pat Hill), Washington State (Mike Leach/Paul Wulff), UCLA (Jim Mora Jr./Rick Neuheisel) and Arizona State (Todd Graham/Dennis Erickson). The other is in the 10th week of the year, Arizona (Rich Rodriguez/Mike Stoops).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. For more information, visit Ralphie's Green Stampede at http://www.cubuffs.com/ViewArticle.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=600&ATCLID=1549954.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom hasn't happened (yet), the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the second most attending in Jon Embree's first game (2011), also the first nighttime affair. CU has now had six occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
2011	(none/O-D scrimmage)	15,655	Jon Embree's first spring game also featured a first: it was the first one played at night

2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history

OPPONENTS & 2012 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 2012 slate is a tad easier than the first Jon Embree had to endure: 13 games in as many weeks, including seven road games stretching from Honolulu to Columbus; there is one less game and a bye week at top of October. The 12 opponents this year combined for a 79-73 record in 2011 (51.9 winning percentage), with three teams winning 10-plus games; the “problem” is that the Buffaloes will play all three in succession to lead off the second half of the season (games 7-9): Oct. 20 at Southern California (10-2), Oct. 27 at Oregon (12-2) and Nov. 3 versus Stanford (11-2). CU will travel for the first time to Fresno (Sept. 15, to take on Fresno State for the first time since the Bulldogs came to Boulder in 2001 and left with a 24-22 season-opening win in the Jim Thorpe Association Classic), and then a week later, visit Pullman for the first time to play Washington State (two previous games have been in Spokane and Seattle). In week two, CU’s home opener is against Sacramento State, the third time the Buffs will line up across an FCS (I-AA) team; the Buffs lost to Montana State 19-10 in 2006 and beat Eastern Washington in 2008, 31-24.

- The Buffs played UCLA at home on Saturday, Sept. 29 and don’t have another Saturday game at home until Nov. 3 when Stanford visits—in-between is a Thursday night tilt against Arizona State on Oct. 11. The 22 days between home games (Oct. 11-Nov. 2) will be the most since 1994, when Colorado last played three straight road games (Sept. 24-Oct. 1-8) and there were 27 days between home games (Sept. 17 vs. Wisconsin, Oct. 15 vs. Oklahoma). The ASU game is also the only home game in a 36-day span (Sept. 29-Nov. 3), the most days in such a circumstance since 1944; World War II greatly influenced travel and schedules, and CU’s game against Colorado College on Oct. 21 in Boulder was the only one in a 36-day span.
- CU will play three home games after Halloween for the first time since 1961, when Missouri (Nov. 4), Utah (Nov. 11), Iowa State (Nov. 25) and Air Force (Dec. 2) visited Folsom Field; the ‘61 season started on Sept. 30; this year’s began Thursday, Aug. 30.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

Late in 2010, the divisions in football for the new Pac-12 were announced: CU joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California, UCLA and Utah in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of October 6 (2012 records in parenthesis):

PAC-12/BIG 12 ROLL CALL

Colorado's move from the Big 12 to Pac-12 wasn't a surprise to most; CU's demographics for years have shown that outside of Colorado, western states and in particular California, have supplied CU with the most students and have the most alumni. In the Fall 2010 enrollment numbers, after the state of Colorado's 16,964 undergraduates, California was second with 2,034 (unspecified came in third with 678, so both Colorado and California likely had a few more). The five Pac-12 states were represented by 2,457 total students (California 2,034; Washington 187; Arizona 143; Oregon 66; Utah 27), while the six Big 12 states sent just 832 to Boulder (Texas 564, Missouri 109, Kansas 65, Oklahoma 37, Iowa 35 and Nebraska 22). As for the living alumni numbers, there are 36,000 in the Pac-12 states (led by 23,500 in California), with 11,000 in the Big 12 states (topped by 6,373 in Texas); there are over 100,000 in Colorado.

PAC-12 INSTITUTIONS AMONG THE WORLD'S BEST, BUFFS WHERE THEY BELONG

The Center of World-Class Universities of Shanghai Jiao Tong University has recognized the academic excellence of Pac-12 member institutions in its 2011 Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU). Stanford, Cal and UCLA were three of the top 10 U.S. universities in the rankings, leaving the Pac-12 second only to the Ivy League, which had four in the top 10. Harvard was No. 1, followed by Stanford, MIT, California and Cambridge (England). Overall, nine Pac-12 schools were ranked in the top 100 schools worldwide, including Stanford (2), Cal (4), UCLA (12), Washington (16), Colorado (32), USC (46), Arizona State (78), Utah (79) and Arizona (80). As for CU's former conference, the Big 12? Texas (35) and soon-to-be in another conference, Texas A&M (100) were the only two in the top 100. So for those who claimed Colorado's academics didn't fit in with the Pac-12, they might want to do a little research.

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two will be travel partners, and most assume it won't be a cozy as the current five mates. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports recently came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado wore its all black uniforms, complete with a black helmet, for the Southern California game; it was the first time since 2009 that the Buffs donned the look, and just the second time CU has ever worn a black helmet (along with a 1998 “throwback” game against Baylor). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a CU game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the lockerroom at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. “It was something we thought about a long time ago,” Mac said at the time. “You couldn’t do this overnight. We didn’t tell the kids, and they were real excited.” He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

GAME 1COLORADO STATE 22, COLORADO 17*SEPTEMBER 1, 2012*SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER - Colorado State capitalized on a sloppy first-half finish by Colorado and got three field goals by Jared Roberts - two in the final quarter - to upset the Buffaloes 22-17 Saturday at Sports Authority Field at Mile High before 58,607.

In the hottest game on record in the state of Colorado for the Buffs (94 degrees at kickoff), this sweltering day belonged to CSU, which fell behind 14-3 late in the second quarter but outscored CU 19-3 in the final 31 minutes to stun the Buffs

After spotting CSU a 3-0 lead with two three-and-out possessions, CU surged back behind the passing of junior Jordan Webb, making his debut, and went up 14-3 with barely 4½ minutes left in the half. CU's defense held after a turnover one time but couldn't a second time. Sophomore D.D. Goodson muffed a punt and the Rams recovered at the Buffs' 20-yard line. One play later, Garrett Grayson found Dominique Vinson wide open in the end zone to cut the lead to 14-9 with just 26 seconds left in the half.

In the second quarter, Webb threw touchdown passes to Spruce (15 yards) and Tyler McCulloch (9 yards) and finished the half 15-of-23 for 135 yards and the two scores. After his TD toss to McCulloch, Webb had connected on 14-of-18 passes after starting the game 0-of-3.

On CU's first scoring drive, Embree elected to go for a fourth-and-seven at the CSU 28 - and Webb and Spruce converted it with a 9-yard pitch-and-catch. Two plays later, Webb zipped the ball through a tight window in the back of the end zone to Spruce for a 15-yard score.

On the next possession, the Rams tried their hand at a fourth-down conversion, but the Buffs stuffed Tommey Morris on fourth-and-two for a 1-yard gain at the CSU 47.

Webb & Co. took over at the CSU 47 and marched that distance in 10 plays, with Webb and McCulloch - he controlled a low pass with one hand and gathered it in - teaming for the score. CU converted a fourth-and-five on that drive, too, but this time via a pass interference call.

And after stopping the Buffs on the first series of the second half, they marched 89 yards in eight plays to go ahead 16-14. CSU scored on a Grayson-to-Joe Hansley 32-yard catch and run, putting the Rams up by two with 8:37 left in the third quarter.

Less than 3 minutes later, Buffs linebacker Brady Daigh forced a fumble and Will Pericak grabbed it, giving CU possession at the CSU 15. The Buffs moved to the Rams' 3, where tailback Malcolm Creer went off tackle and stretched for the goal line. The ball bounced out of his grasp when it hit the ground, defensive back Austin Gray picked it up and ran 99 yards for what appeared to be a touchdown.

But when the play was reviewed, the call was reversed, giving the Buffs fourth down at the Rams 1-yard line, but the Buffs could not convert on a pass play and the third quarter ended with CSU in the lead, 16-14.

Less than 2 minutes into the final quarter, CU regained the lead (17-16) on a 30-yard Will Oliver field goal. It was set up by a 24-yard punt return to the Rams' 35 by freshman Kenneth Crawley. CSU responded with a field goal to go up 19-17 with 6:39 left in the game.

After the Buffs went three-and-out, the Rams added another Roberts field goal, this one from 32 yards, to push ahead 22-17 with 2:56 to play. CU took possession, picked up two first downs, the second on a roughing the passer call that wiped out a CSU interception, but the Rams regrouped to stop CU on a 4th-and-2 at its 39 to seal the victory.

GAME NOTES

The 94 degree temperature at kickoff tied for the third warmest in CU history but was the warmest for a game in Colorado, eclipsing the 91 degrees for Washington in Boulder on Sept. 16, 2000 ... Attendance for the game was 58,607; CU accounted for 35,406 of those, CSU 18,169 and the Broncos 5,032 (many of which were out of CU's allotment) ... CB Kenneth Crawley returned the first punt of the game for 14 yards—matching CU's longest punt return all of last year (by Rodney Stewart) and later in the game had a 24-yard effort, the longest by a Buff in two years; CU had 36 punt return yards as a team compared to 56 total last year ... It took 11 minutes to play the first 2 minutes of clock time in the game ... WR Nelson Spruce's first career TD catch also made a little history—it was the 2000th point CU has scored in 84 games against CSU, the first team the Buffs have scored that many against any single team ... The teams combined for 543 total yards, 321 on 58 first down plays (5.5 per); the other 77 plays went for 222 yards, or 2.9 per ... Keep Away: CU had 10:01 of possession time in the second quarter but just 16:29 in the other three quarters combined (ran 26 of its 70 plays in the period) ... Colorado now has at least one quarterback sack in 43 of the last 45 games ... The Buffs played nine true freshmen in the game, including two who started (Crawley, WR Gerald Thomas), the eighth and ninth true freshmen in CU history since 1972 to start in a season opener.

GAME 2SACRAMENTO STATE 30, COLORADO 28*SEPTEMBER 8, 2012*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER—Sacramento State's Edgar Castaneda kicked a 30-yard field goal as time expired, sending his Hornets to a 30-28 win over Colorado at Folsom Field.

CU's bright spot in its 2012 home opener was freshman Christian Powell, who carried 28 times for 147 yards and three touchdowns, tying a school freshman record. The revamped backfield featured the 235-pounder who had practiced at fullback all August. He lined up at tailback behind 245-pound fullback Alex Wood.

Powell ran 64 yards for a touchdown on his second carry, then capped a 72-yard drive with a one-yard plunge as the Buffs shot ahead 14-0 with 7:28 left in the first quarter. The 64-yard run was the fifth-longest run by a freshman in school history.

CU finished the first quarter with 95 yards rushing but finished the first half with only 18 more yards on the ground.

The Hornets took advantage, pulling within 14-7 on an 11-yard scoring pass from Garret Safron to DeAndre Carter, then tied the game on a 2-yard run by A.J. Ellis. A 35-yard Safron toss to Chris Broadnax gave Sac State its first lead - 21-14.

The Buffs answered with a 77-yard scoring drive, highlighted by a 40-yard Jordan Webb to Nick Kasa pass, and tied the game at 21-21 with 2:44 left before intermission. CU got the TD on a 9-yard pass from Webb to tight end Kyle Slavin, giving the sophomore his first career catch.

A 28-yard field goal from Edward Castaneda gave Sac State a 24-21 halftime lead and left the CU fan base more than a little disgruntled.

The Buffs opened the second half with some life, as Chidera Uzo-Diribe forced Safron into intentional grounding and the Hornets punted for the first time in five possessions.

Starting at its own 35, CU was aided by a reviewed pass interference call in the end zone on third down, giving the Buffs a first down at the 2. It took three tries for the 235-pound Powell, but he finally got the TD on third-and-one. Will Oliver's PAT pushed the Buffs ahead 28-24.

The drive covered 65 yards and featured two critical plays besides the pass interference call in the end zone on Kasa. The first was a Webb-to-Alex Wood pass that went for 18 yards on third-and-16, the second was a Connor Wood-to-Gerald Thomas screen pass that went for 26 yards on third-and-18. It was Connor Wood's first play for the Buffs; the Texas transfer entered the game when Webb's helmet came off and he was, by rule, forced to sit for a down.

CU's 28-24 lead held for the rest of the third quarter, but the start of the fourth found the Hornets advancing to the Buffs' 14-yard line, where Castaneda hit a 31-yard field to pull Sac State to within one (28-27) with 11:57 to play.

At the 4:42 mark, CU took over at its 28 but kept possession for less than 2 minutes. Sac State got the ball at its 15 with 2:26 left and promptly got four consecutive first downs, moving to the CU 34 with 1:13 to play.

A pass interference call on freshman corner Kenneth Crawley moved the ball to the 28, and an 11-yard Safron-to-Morris Norrise carried the Hornets to the Buffs' 17 with 54 seconds left.

Three plays later, after Sac State had let the game clock run from :30 to :01 and called time out, Castaneda kicked his game winner; postgame, the former walk-on was awarded a scholarship for his efforts in two games this season.

GAME NOTES

Colorado's score just 1:12 into the game was the quickest since Nov. 28, 2008 at Nebraska, when Cody Hawkins and Riar Geer hooked up on a 68-yard touchdown pass just 54 seconds into the action; NU rallied from 14-0 down to win, 40-31 that day ... Colorado running backs (TB, FB) had 47 carries without a loss to open the season until the run ended when Christian Powell was thrown for a 2-yard loss early in the fourth quarter ... Four of the eight kickoffs returned today were to the 23 ... CU now has 52 punt return yards in two games after having all of 56 in 13 games last year ... The Buffs made it hard on Sac State inside-the-20; though the Hornets scored all five times it cracked the 20 (2 TD/3 FG), they gained just 44 yards on 15 plays in the zone and were 1-of-4 on third downs (opponents are now 22-of-77 on third down inside-the-CU 20 dating back to 2008, or 28.6 percent) ... CU had three plays longer than 20 yards today after having none last week against Colorado State ... The Buffs dropped to 0-2 for just the 20th time in 123 seasons of varsity football ... Prior to losing the game today on a field goal as time expired, the last time it had happened in regulation was on Nov. 24, 2000, when Josh Brown kicked a 29-yard field goal as time expired in Lincoln to give Nebraska a 34-32 win over the Buffs. (CU lost to Wisconsin on field goal in overtime in the 2002 Alamo Bowl.)

GAME 3FRESNO STATE 69, COLORADO 14*SEPTEMBER 15, 2012*BULLDOG STADIUM, FRESNO

FRESNO, Calif. — On a night that tied for the hottest in history for a University of Colorado football game, fast-striking Fresno State scorched CU and made some entries in the school's 123-year-old record book in winning 69-14.

The temperature in Bulldogs Stadium at kickoff was 102 degrees, but Fresno State quarterback Derek Carr was several degrees beyond that. He threw for 300 yards and five touchdown passes in the first half as the Bulldogs rolled to a 35-0 advantage after one quarter and were up 55-7 at intermission.

Carr's help on the ground came from tailback Robbie Rouse, who would become the school's career rushing leader in the game, earning the record in the first quarter in shredding the CU defense for 144 yards on nine carries and scoring twice.

Fresno State (2-1) led by three touchdowns midway through the first quarter, having scored on an eight-play, 65-yard drive to open the game (7-0), intercepting Webb to set up its second score on a quick 45-yard march (14-0), then using a 28-yard punt return by Isaiah Burse to set up a one-play, four-second drive to make it 21-0.

After forcing a CU three-and-out, Carr and Burse connected for a 97-yard catch-and-run TD — the second-longest scoring play against the Buffs in history. That one-play drive required 13 seconds and sent the Bulldogs up 28-0.

They capped the quarter with Rouse's record-setting run — a 94-yarder that gave him the Fresno State career rushing mark and also was the longest ever allowed by the Buffs. After he crossed the goal line with 2:39 left in the quarter and Quentin Breashears kicked the PAT, the Bulldogs owned a 35-0 lead.

Fresno finished the quarter with a 322-45 edge in total offense and a 10-1 bulge in first-downs. The Bulldogs' yardage was a record in a quarter against CU, eclipsing the 312 by Oklahoma in the third quarter of its 82-42 rout in Boulder in 1980.

Fresno State then outscored CU 20-7 in the second quarter to take a 55-7 halftime lead and finished with 516 yards in total offense. The 55 points were second-most ever allowed by CU in a half, and the Bulldogs' 516 first-half yards were the most ever run up by a CU opponent in any half.

The Buffs avoided a shutout on a 23-yard scoring pass from Webb to Tyler McCulloch. But less than 3 minutes later, Webb gave those points back with his second interception of the half. Thomas returned it 16 yards for a score, and at 2:10 before intermission Fresno State had its 55-7 advantage while CU was stuck with one of its most humbling halves of football in school history; Colorado trailed UCLA by a 56-0 score at halftime in 1980 was one of the few that was worse.

Thomas opened Fresno State's second-half scoring by intercepting Wood and returning the pick 43 yards for his second TD of the night. Breashears kicked the Bulldogs in front 62-7 with 9:06 left in the third quarter.

The quarter ended that way, but the Bulldogs' reserves weren't satisfied. Freshman running back Marteze Waller's 1-yard run with 9:07 to play finished Fresno State's final drive and at 69-7 the carnage was complete for the Bulldogs.

With 2:58 remaining, CU got a 1-yard TD run by Josh Ford and an extra point kick by Will Oliver to make the score 69-14 — and that's how the Buffs' night ended.

GAME NOTES

The 102 degree temperature at kickoff matched the warmest in CU football history (2007 at Arizona State) ... Colorado played 59 of the 62 players on the trip who could have seen action (two were injured); no seniors were in on defense in the fourth quarter ... The 69-14 loss marked the Buffs' worst setback since losing 58-0 at Missouri in 2008 ... the 69 points were the most allowed by Colorado since dropping a 70-3 decision to Texas in the 2005 Big 12 Championship game ... The 665 yards were the most by either team in the 6-game CU-Fresno series, eclipsing the 526 the Bulldogs had in the '93 Aloha Bowl ... The Buffs dropped to 0-3 for just the 12th time in 123 seasons of varsity football, the first time since 2006 ... With Fresno State recording 97-yard pass and 94-yard rush plays, it marked the first time the CU defense has ever allowed two plays from scrimmage 80 yards or longer in the same game ... Colorado quarterbacks threw four interceptions in a game for the first time in 13 years (dating to the '99 season opener against Colorado State when it had four that night) ... Fresno also set CU opponent records for most points allowed in the first quarter (35), total yards in a quarter (322), total yards in a half (516), passing yards in a half (300) along with the longest rush (eclipsing the previous long of 90 by Kansas' Walter Mack in 1980) ... C Brad Cotner made his first career start in what also was his first career action for the Buffs ... TB Josh Ford rushed for 61 yards, 60 of those coming on CU's fourth quarter touchdown drive (on nine carries) ... S Marques Mosley made his first career interception ... CU averaged 20.0 yards for nine kickoff returns, but that's a bit deceiving; that included four pooch kickoffs that CU netted 40 yards, otherwise that average jumped to 30.0.

GAME 4COLORADO 35, WASHINGTON STATE 34*SEPTEMBER 22, 2012*MARTIN STADIUM, PULLMAN, WASH.

PULLMAN, Wash. — It might not have been 1994's Miracle in Michigan, but for the 2012 Colorado Buffaloes, it couldn't have been bigger. On a hazy, smoky Saturday, desperate and determined CU rallied from a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit with three touchdowns in the final 7:06 to stun Washington State 35-34 for the Buffs' first win this season can cap off the largest fourth-quarter comeback on the road in school history.

With 9 seconds remaining, CU quarterback Jordan Webb scampered 4 yards on a draw after reading the defense to tie the score at 34-34. Will Oliver's extra point broke the tie and give the Buffs a much needed victory. The win pushed CU to 1-0 in Pac-12 Conference play and 1-3 overall while WSU dropped to 2-2 and 0-1.

The Buffs had to overcome the passing of Cougars quarterback Connor Halliday, who threw for 401 yards (32-of-60) and four TDs. He was intercepted twice and sacked three times. Webb meanwhile completed 29-of-42 for 345 yards and a pair of scores. He was picked off once and sacked six times and also ran for two scores.

Both teams scored on their first possessions, Wazzu requiring only 1:37 to go 75 yards in six plays for its first touchdown. Halliday hit Gabe Marks for a 32-yard score to send the Cougars ahead 7-0 with 13:18 left in the first quarter. But CU answered immediately, also going 75 yards and scoring on a 16-yard Webb-to-Nelson Spruce pass to tie the score at 7-7.

WSU next capitalized with a six-play, 80-yard drive capped by Halliday's 23-yard pass to Marquess Wilson two plays into the second quarter to make it 14-7. It wouldn't take long to make it 21-7, as WSU corner Damante Hornton recovered a fumbled by CU's Tyler McCulloch at the Buffs' 39; Halliday hit Isiah Myers eight plays later.

Early in the second half, CU linebacker Paul Vigo dislodged the ball and safety Terrel Smith returned the fumble 11 yards to the WSU half-yard line. One play later, Webb sneaked in behind Munyer and left guard Alex Lewis on the first play and the Buffs were back in it at 21-14.

After a Webb interception, Halliday and Wilson teamed for 49-yard score on a receiver screen and the Buffs again trailed by 14 points (28-14) with 5:27 left in the third quarter.

After two CU mistakes, WSU took possession at the CU 30 but managed only a 45-yard field goal and WSU took a 17-point lead to open the final quarter at 31-41.

With 7:06 to play, the Buffs crept to within 10 (31-21) on a 70-yard pass from Webb to tight end Nick Kasa. Then less than 3 minutes later, CU pulled to 31-28 on Jones' 84-yard run and the Buffs were within 3 points with 4:23 left in the game.

After a solid kickoff return, all the Cougars could reap from it was a 42-yard Furney field goal, making it 34-28 and leaving the Buffs 3:11 to work their miracle. Starting at their own 30, they moved to the WSU 6-yard line, where a timeout was called with 43 seconds left after a pair of Powell runs.

On first-and-goal, Powell was thrown for a 2-yard loss and fumbled and the play of the game to that point may have been Kasa's recovery, keeping the Buffs hopes alive. After two more Powell runs, the Buffs had one last shot with just 11 seconds left.

On fourth down, Webb ran his QB draw for the 4-yard TD. WSU had one play left, but Major batted down Halliday's to end the game.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 7-3-1 in games played in the state of Washington, 3-0 versus WSU in three different cities: Spokane, Seattle, Pullman; CU now leads the series with the Cougars, 5-3 ... CU's last one-point win was by the same score, 35-34, over Texas A&M in Boulder on Nov. 7, 2009 ... With TB Tony Jones (4-105) and WR Nelson Spruce (8-103) both gaining 100 yards rushing and receiving, respectively, CU is now 25-8 in its history with a 100-yard rusher and receiver ... Colorado had 255 yards in the fourth quarter, after netting just 276 in the first three ... CU's defense was not flagged for a penalty (and had just six in the first four games) ... TE Nick Kasa had a big game: his 70-yard touchdown catch and run was the longest regular season receptions by a tight end in school history, and he recovered FB Christian Powell's fumble inside-the-5 with a minute remaining to keep CU's comeback alive ... Down 31-14 with 8:07 left when it took possession of the ball, the Buffs mounted what would tie for the fourth largest rally ever, as well as the biggest ever in a road game ... Jones reeled off the eighth longest rush (84 yards) in school annals with his TD scamper in the fourth quarter; he finished with 105 yards on four carries, the second fewest attempts a CU back has ever needed to gain 100 or more: Cliff Branch (2-100, 1 TD) did it in fewer at Kansas on Nov. 6, 1971 ... Spruce enjoyed his first 100-yard receiving game, with seven of his eight receptions earning first downs ... Colorado limited WSU to just one score (a TD) in three trips in the red zone; making two interceptions on the other two occasions ... The Buffalo defense tightened up in the second half; WSU averaged 7.3 yards per play in the first half, but in the second the Buff "D" really buckled down—WSU had 17 first down plays for 31 yards (1.8), and that wasn't skewed by long sacks.

GAME 5UCLA 42, COLORADO 14*SEPTEMBER 29, 2012*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER—UCLA turned a pair of third-quarter turnovers into touchdowns and broke open what had been a competitive game, eventually defeating Colorado, 42-14.

As costly as CU's second-half turnovers were, poor tackling by the Buffs contributed to UCLA's offensive show. Bruins quarterback Brett Hundley completed 25-of-38 passes for 281 yards and two touchdowns. He also ran for a pair of scores. Tailback Jonathan Franklin carried 15 times for 111 yards.

The Bruins dominated the first half, rolling up 285 yards in total offense to the Buffs' 122 and taking a 21-7 lead to their locker room.

CU missed an early opportunity to take a lead when defensive end Kirk Poston sacked Hundley and fellow end Samson Kafovalu recovered at the CU 41-yard line.

But after the drive advanced as far as the Bruins' 22, the Buffs were shoved into reverse. A Gerald Thomas fumble was recovered by tight end Nick Kasa but lost seven yards. Jordan Webb was sacked for a five-yard loss on the next play and successive five-yard penalties for an illegal formation and a false start pushed the Buffs back to Bruins' 48.

Darragh O'Neill finally got to punt, backing UCLA to its 13-yard line. But needing only nine plays and never facing third down, Hundley drove his offense 87 yards and scored on a 12-yard run that put UCLA ahead 7-0 with 4:53 left in the first quarter.

The Buffs didn't get a first down for the rest of the quarter, but neither could the Bruins score any more points. But that ended on their first drive of the second quarter, with Hundley directing a 10-play, 76-yard march capped by his 17-yard scoring pass to receiver Darius Bell to put the Bruins up 14-0.

CU answered with its only sustained drive of the first half, going 75 yards, mostly on Webb's passing. He completed six-of-six for 72 yards, with a 17-yard throw to senior Dustin Ebner to bring the Buffs to within a touchdown at 14-7.

Two series later, UCLA pushed its lead to 21-7, taking advantage of a short field (CU's 43) and scoring in five snaps. The big play was a 28-yard screen to Franklin that initially was ruled a touchdown. Upon review, UCLA was given the ball at the CU 1-yard line and scored a play later on Hundley's crafty keeper with 2:14 before intermission.

The Buffs were more effective defensively to open the second half, forcing the Bruins to punt on their first two series and then missed a 44-yard field goal attempt.

The first of CU's two third-quarter turnovers occurred on a third-down reception by freshman tight end Vincent Hobbs. He had gained first-down yardage but didn't protect the ball, allowing safety Tevin McDonald to poke the ball out from behind. Linebacker Eric Kendrick recovered at the UCLA 38, and seven plays later Hundley hit Joseph Fauria in the end zone with an 8-yard TD pass.

On CU's next series, Webb was intercepted by free safety Stan McKay, and 59 seconds later tailback Jordon James ran 25 yards to give UCLA its fifth TD.

With 10:54 remaining, the Bruins pushed the count to 42-7 on a 23-yard TD run by Damien Thigpen.

CU ended the scoring with its second touchdown on a 31-yard pass from Hirschman to Kasa, giving the senior tight end his second scoring reception in as many games.

GAME NOTES

UCLA now leads the series by a 5-3 count (3-1 in Boulder) ... Colorado dropped to 16-5 in games played on Parent's Weekend ... The Buffs donned their all-black uniform look for the game (and are 21-20-1 when doing so) ... CU has now scored in 149 straight games at home (last shutout: 28-0 to Oklahoma in 1986) ... At 3 hours, 11 minutes, this was Colorado's fastest game of the season ... Colorado was 8-of-8 on 3rd-&-1 plays in 2012 until UCLA stopped TB Tony Jones in the third quarter ... UCLA rushed for 211 yards and passed for 281; it's the second time in the series the Bruins went for 200/200 (also did so in 2011); CU did the same in the series' first game in 1980 ... UCLA's 29 first downs were a series best ... QB Stats: Jordan Webb engineered 14 drives (1 TD, 54 plays, 229 yards); Nick Hirschman 1 drive (1 TD, 11 plays, 80 yards counting earlier incompleteness on another series) ... WR Dustin Ebner made his first career touchdown catch (on his fifth career reception) ... DT Nate Bonsu had his first career quarterback sack ... QB Nick Hirschman threw his first career TD pass (31 yards to TE Nick Kasa) ... When UCLA's Joseph Fauria scored a touchdown, he joined his uncle, CU TE Christian Fauria ('94) in scoring touchdowns at Folsom Field ... The last known uncle-nephew combo to have scored TDs at Folsom was Hale Irwin (scored a rushing TD in 1964) and his nephew Heath Irwin (the last offensive lineman at CU to score a touchdown when he recovered a fumble in the end zone against Nebraska in 1995). Blake Anderson scored on a receiving TD the year before in 1994, with his uncle, Bobby, scoring plenty of them in his career from 1967-69.
