2014 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

GAME 3—ARIZONA STATE

SUN DEVILS INVADE BOULDER FOR HOME & CONFERENCE OPENER

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2014 • 8:06 p.m. MDT • Folsom Field (50,548 est.), Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 3 (September 8, 2014)

ESPNU (National) | KOA-RADIO (AM 760) | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (1-1, 0-0 Pac-12) have its home and conference opener up next, hosting the No. 16 (AP; No. 14 USAT/Coaches) Arizona State Sun Devils (2-0, 0-0 Pac-12) in an 8:06 p.m. kickoff this Saturday, Sept. 13, at Folsom Field in Boulder ... It's the annual game where fans are asked to wear black ... The game will be CU's first home game in 2014, just the fourth time since 1980 the Buffs' third game of the year is the first at Folsom (2000, 2007, 2010), and being the Pac-12 Conference opener for both, date-wise it is the earliest CU will play a conference foe (the Buffs have opened against a league rival in week one or two before, but not as early as Sept. 13) ... CU has lost 14 straight against ranked teams (last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009) ... Eleven schools will enter Saturday having yet to play a true home game, CU among them; with a late kickoff, CU will be the fifth-latest to open as the other four have their first home games on Sept. 20 (Louisiana Tech, Navy, Ohio and Western Michigan) ... A crowd of 36,000 is expected for the ASU game; the actual capacity of Folsom won't be known until all the new seats are installed, thus the current estimate of 50,548 by ticket manager Kevin Fenton; the capacity before the northeast renovation was 53,613 ... CU is coming off a 41-38 wild win at Massachusetts, ending an 8-game road losing streak; ASU blasted New Mexico last week in Albuquerque, 58-23 ... CU's next two games will be on AM760 instead of KOA (conflicts with the Colorado Rockies) ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

SOUTH PARK COMES HOME

Most know that the creators of South Park are CU alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. Trey voices Eric Cartman; he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that will debut during this Saturday's countdown to kickoff prior to the Arizona State game. That's all we'll reveal at this time ...

STAT OF THE WEEK

Freshman WR Shay Fields has caught 14 passes in his first two games as Buffalo – that ties the school record for the most receptions in the first two games of a career. WR Scotty McKnight caught 14 in 2007, also the same way Fields has (eight in the opener, six in game two). McKnight holds the record for the most in the first three games of a career as well (20).

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

Colorado did not commit its first (and only) turnover in 2014 until early in the second half at Massachusetts ... and it came on a deflected pass that the Minutemen wound up intercepting. The Buffaloes did not turn it over in the season opener against Colorado State, the eighth time in its history they were turnover-free in an opener. The interception came 2:28 into the third quarter, or 92:28 into the season, the longest it took for a CU team to commit one in any season (by nearly a minute; see complete list on page 5).

ANNIVERSARY-MANIA IN 2014

This season signifies the anniversaries of some great – and not so great – milestones in CU history. It's the 125th football season, but the 125th anniversary of CU athletics (there was a lone varsity baseball game in April 1890); the homecoming game against UCLA on Oct. 25 will be the 100th in school history; it's the 90th anniversary of Folsom Field (opened as Colorado Stadium on Oct. 11, 1924); it's the 80th anniversary of CU adopting the nickname "Buffaloes" (in November 1934); it's the 75th anniversary of CU's first Mountain States Conference title in 1939 (after an 0-3 start); it's the 45th anniversary of CU's 1969 Liberty Bowl champion team that thumped Alabama; the 35th anniversary of the Sept. 8, 1979 game against Oregon—the first college game televised on a fledgling network known as ESPN; the 30th anniversary of Ed Reinhardt's tragic injury at Oregon (Sept. 15, 1984); the 25th anniversary of CU's first 11-0 regular season and first-ever No. 1 ranking, but also of the death of Sal Aunese (Sept. 23, 1989); and the 20th anniversary of "The Catch" (or Miracle in Michigan, Sept. 24, 1994), Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a CU player, and coach Bill McCartney's surprise retirement.

ROSTER NOTES

The Buffaloes lost two players for the season with ACL injuries suffered during camp: FS Jered Bell and DE Tyler Henington. Bell will petition for a sixth year from the NCAA since he will now miss two full seasons due to injury, while Henington has a redshirt year available to him.

At the end of fall camp, Coach MacIntyre placed two senior walk-ons on scholarship: WR Wes Christensen and S Richard Yates; neither is expected to play much from scrimmage at the onset but each figure prominently on special teams. Yates was previously placed on scholarship one other semester.

Yates is also one of three players who are juniors in eligibility and seniors academically, who have decided to forego a fifth-year and will play as seniors in 2014; he's joined by DB Brandan Brisco and ILB Thor Eaton.

Two walk-ons have decided not to return but remain in school, both fullbacks: sophomore Jesse Hiss and junior Clay Jones. And junior DT Samson Kafovalu is not enrolled this semester, as he has returned home to California for personal reasons, but he will rejoin the team in January (he'll still have two years of eligibility remaining).

25,000 ON THE HORIZON

Whoever scores Colorado's 139th point this fall will also score the 25,000th point in the school's football history, which dates back to 1890. Here's a look at who scored some of the previous milestone points in CU history:

1—George Darley. He returned a fumble 65 yards for a touchdown to score the first points in CU history in a 50-4 loss to Colorado Mines on Dec. 13, 1890.

1,000—Unknown; the 109th point of the 1897 season, coming in a 30-0 win over the Littleton Athletic Club in Boulder on Oct. 30.

5,000—Pete Middlemist. He scored on a 10-yard run versus Northern Colorado in Boulder on Oct. 12, 1929, the 41st point of the season and the 14th point in a 19-0 win.

10,000—Bob Stransky. He scored on a 1-yard touchdown run at Nebraska on Nov. 16, 1957, the 187th point of the season, the second point of a 27-0 win.

15,000—Craig Keenan. He scored on a 1-yard touchdown run versus Wyoming on Sept. 25, 1982, the 35th point of the season and sixth point in a 24-10 loss.

20,000—Jeremy Aldrich. He kicked a 46-yard field goal at Kansas State on Nov. 15, 1997, the 262nd point of the season and sixth point in a 37-20 loss.

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last 13 years, Colorado has had 218 of its 243 seniors graduate, including 15 of the 17 seniors in 2013 (two others are in need of just one class); these are the 2001-2013 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. That translates to 89.7 percent in this time frame. In addition, two of this year's seniors have already earned their diplomas as well: FS Jered Bell (Sociology) and TE Kyle Slavin (Communication & Political Science). Over the last six years, minus the two players still in school, 104 of the last 111 have graduated (93.7%), and starting with the 2006 senior class, 141 of 153 have earned degrees (92.2%). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.682 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2014 semester is its second-highest on record (with the semester GPA of 2.564 the seventh straight term with a 2.50 or better).

YOUTH

Colorado had 71 players out of its 105 in August camp as underclassmen — 44 freshmen and 27 sophomores. That ranked the Buffs as the youngest team in the Pac-12 Conference and the 11th youngest in the nation. Here's the list for top 25 schools with the most underclassmen in camp for 2014 (freshmen and sophomore numbers include redshirts):

YOUTH, PART II

The quarterbacks on the Colorado roster have appeared in eight total career FBS games through the 2013 season; all eight games were by then-true freshman Sefo Liufau. He did make seven starts, which places him outside the top 25. But no other Buffalo has played a game at quarterback in his career heading into this season. Here's a look at those schools with the fewest career games played at the signal caller position entering 2014:

| School | GP | GS | School | GP | GS | School | GP | GS |

2014 UNDERCLASSMEN ON OPENING DEPTH CHARTS

CU is currently tied for fourth in the nation for the most underclassmen (freshmen, redshirt frosh and all sophomores) on the 2014 opening day two-deeps with 28 players (11 freshmen, four true); that is the most in the Pac-12 Conference. A closer look:

| | | | | | | | | | | | |
|-----------------|-----------|-------------------|----|----------------|----|---------------|----|----------------|----|------------------|----|
| Oklahoma State | 32 | Wake Forest | 28 | Arizona | 26 | Purdue | 25 | Temple | 24 | Wisconsin | 23 |

| Pittsburgh | 28 | Northern Illinois | 27 | San Jose State | 26 | Mississippi | 24 | Tulsa | 23 | Washington State | 18 |

And in concert with the above, the Buffs also are tied for the 20th fewest seniors in the two-deep with 12; Temple (6), Baylor (7) and Arizona State and Pittsburgh (8 each) top that list.

IT TOOK MORE TIME THAN EVER BEFORE ...

CU did not commit a turnover in a season opener for the eighth time in its history; the Buffs have never opened a season with two turnover-free games. It took a deflected pass and then an interception by UMass for CU to have its first in 2014, but coming early in the third quarters, it did mark the longest CU has ever gone into a season before committing its first (92 minutes, 28 seconds); the eight season opener turnover-free seasons and when the first occurred:

SON OF A BUFF

There are six current Buffaloes who are following in the legacies of their fathers, who at one time donned the CU football uniform. The legacies: OL Isaiah Holland (Darius, DT, 1991-94), DE Aaron Howard (Paul), OL Alex Kelley (Karry, OL, 1976-79), DE Derek McCartney (Shannon Clavelle, DT, 1993-95), DT Clay Norgard (Erik, C, 1987-88) and S Richard Yates (Scott, SS, 1976-79). Three others had cousins who previously lettered: TE Brian Boatman (Joe Liley, golf, 1998-2001), LB Deaysean Rippy (Doug Rippy, LB, 2009-12) and DB Evan White (J.J. Billingsley, SS, 2002-06).

NATIONALLY: California and Idaho lead the nation in "legacy" players, as each has eight sons of former players currently on their rosters. Tennessee has seven, followed by Colorado, Iowa and Texas A&M (six each).

STREAKING INSIDE THE 20 (RED ZONE)

In the last seven season openers, the Buffaloes are 24-of-25 in the red zone (15 TDs, 10 FGs), having gone 2-of-2 against CSU this year (and 3-of-3 last year). That followed a five year stretch between 2001 and 2005 where Colorado was just 11-of-18 (9 TDs, 2 FG). The Buffs were 3-of-4 inside-the-20 against Colorado State in 2012, 2-of-2 in 2011, 3-of-3 in 2010, 2-of-2 in 2009, 4-of-4 in 2007 and 2008 and 2-of-2 in 2006.

WHO WILL IT BE IN 2014?

In each of the last four seasons, there has been at least one freshman on defense who has cracked the 300-play mark in snaps played from scrimmage. Just 15 true freshmen have played over 300 snaps from scrimmage on defense in CU history, but nine of those joined the list the last four seasons. In 2013, Addison Gillam and CB/N Chidobe Awuzie became the latest true freshmen to make a splash on defense for the Buffaloes. Current junior CB Greg Henderson set the record in 2011 with 823 plays, with now-sophomore CB Kenneth Crawley second at the time with 642 in 2012. Gillam broke Henderson's record and played 838 snaps this fall, while Awuzie became the 14th true frosh to crack the 300-play barrier, and finished third on the list with 643. And with S Tedric Thompson seeing a lot of late season action subbing for an injured Parker Orms, he finished with 323 to crack the list and finish with the 12th most snaps played. A closer look at the most snaps played by true defensive freshmen (minimum 300):

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. ARIZONA STATE

There's not much to tell, as Arizona State owns a 5-0 lead in the series after the two finally hooked up for the first time in 2006 in Boulder, despite the fact that the two Rocky Mountain regional powers are located only 589 miles apart. ASU won that game, 21-3, and then the second half of the home-and-home series the following year, 33-14, in Tempe. The Sun Devils won the first Pac-12 league encounter between the two in 2011, 48-14; the Buffaloes were able to move the ball and gain 420 yards, but five turnovers did CU in. In the first league game between the now-division rivals in Boulder, the Buffs scored 10 points in the last 24 seconds of the first half to pull to within 20-17, but Rashad Ross' 100-yard kickoff return to open the second half returned the momentum to the Arizona State side and the Sun Devils pulled away for a 51-17 victory. Last year in Tempe, ASU got off to a quick start, scoring 25 points in just under a 9-minute span in the first quarter en route to a 54-13 win (summary on page 8).

The schools have seen the most of each other in men's golf, as Colorado had always traditionally played a western schedule before joining the Pac-12. The Buffaloes swept the home-and-home series in men's basketball in 2011-12, with ASU returning the favor in 2012-13; the school split last year. The women's team lost both games in '11-12 and '13-14, sweeping the Sun Devils in-between. (ASU leads the other head-to-head encounters 9-2-1; 4-2 in volleyball, 2-0-1 in soccer and 3-0 in women's tennis).

Mike MacIntyre is 0-1 against Arizona State; Todd Graham is 2-0 against Colorado.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?— The 2007 game in Tempe on September 8, despite a 7:15 p.m. local start time, set the record for the warmest game in Colorado football history at the time: the temperature at kickoff was 102 degrees. It was matched in 2012 at Fresno State.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 8th (by default). PK Mason Crosby's 29-yard field goal gave CU an early 3-0 lead, but turned out to be only scoring for the Buffs as Arizona State slowly pulled away to a 21-3 win in the first-ever meeting between the two schools; Crosby is now doing his thing for the NFL Green Bay Packers. The Sun Devils led 14-3 at halftime and after three quarters, sealing the game early in the fourth on a 5-yard touchdown pass from Rudy Carpenter to Zach Miller. TB Hugh Charles rushed for 109 yards, CU's top offensive highlight in the game.

ARIZONA STATE SNAPSHOT

Arizona State is 2-0 overall and is also opening Pac-12 play this weekend; the Sun Devils have outscored their first two opponents by 103-37 (defeating Weber State 45-14 at home and winning at New Mexico last weekend, 58-23). The 58 points against the Lobos marked the 10th time ASU has scored 50 or more points in the last three seasons (29 games), including twice against the Buffs.

➔ Arizona State coach Todd Graham is in third year in Tempe and his ninth as a head coach; he is 20-9 at Arizona State and 69-38 overall. He was previously the head coach at Pittsburgh in 2011, where he went after four years at Tulsa from 2007-10 and after starting out at Rice in 2006. He led the Golden Hurricane to a 36-17 mark in four years with three seasons of 10-plus wins and the team led the nation in total offense twice.

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several returning Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts two games into the 2014 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career numbers for players past and present will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ TB MICHAEL ADKINS is 77th in rushing yards (608).
- ⇒ CB GREG HENDERSON is 43rd in interceptions (5) and is 86th in total tackles (181).

GAME 5

ARIZONA STATE 54, COLORADO 13

OCTOBER 12, 2013

SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE

TEMPE, Ariz. — Host Arizona State jumped out to an early 25-0 lead in the game's first 10 minutes, forcing Colorado to change quarterbacks en route to a 54-13 win over the Buffaloes.

True freshman Sefo Liufau replaced Connor Wood after just three series, the coaches making the call after Wood opened 0-of-4 with an interception and two sacks.

Liufau, the first true freshman to quarterback the Buffs since Tyler Hansen in 2008, directed a pair of scoring drives, finishing his debut completing 18-of-26 passes for 169 yards, with one touchdown and two interceptions. He also ran three times for 19 yards, not including the one time he was sacked.

On their first possession under their new quarterback, the Buffs marched 80 yards in 11 plays and scored on a 10-yard Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce pass. Nice start, but the talented kid from Tacoma was up against nasty odds when he took his first college snap.

By the time Liufau entered the college game, the Buffs trailed 25-0 — and that was with 4:45 left in the first quarter. Wood was pulled after his pick by corner Lloyd Carrington that set up ASU at the CU 15-yard line and led to a 1-yard run by Marion Grice.

The Sun Devils kept the heat coming and had pushed their lead to 47-6 by intermission. ASU scored on eight of its nine first-half possessions and sacked Liufau in the end zone for a safety.

ASU outgained CU 392-94 in the first half (532-268 for the game), with Grice rushing 13 times for 88 yards and his pair of TDs and catching two passes for 46 yards. Like Kelly, he was done for the night as was receiver Jaelen Strong, whose three receptions went for 109 yards and one score. Kelly's other TD pass — a 1-yarder — went to Davon Coleman, who normally plays defensive end.

Kelly was replaced to start the second half by backup Mike Bercovi, who doubles as ASU's holder and hit Strong with a two-point conversion pass after the Sun Devils' second TD.

The Buffs, meanwhile, struggled to find any first-half offense with the exception of the 80-yard Liufau-led drive. Leading receiver Paul Richardson did not have a first-half catch, and didn't get one until CU's opening possession of the second half. Spruce, with three catches for 25 yards, was the Buffs' top receiver in the opening half.

The Buffs defense was minus CU senior safety Parker Orms for half the second quarter through the rest of the game. He was flagged for allegedly targeting an ASU receiver and ejected, spending the rest of the game in the locker room.

After Liufau suffered his second interception — a pick in the end zone on a pass intended for Richardson — Bercovi engineered a 14-play, 80-yard drive that was capped by senior R.J. Robinson's 1-yard run — the first scoring run of his career. With Gonzalez's PAT, ASU went ahead 54-6 with 3:22 left in the third quarter, and the final quarter started with that score.

Liufau led the Buffs on their second scoring drive of the night, this one 89 yards in 11 plays, with Christian Powell running 8 yards for the score. Will Oliver's PAT made it 54-13.

GAME NOTES

Colorado donned black helmets for just the sixth time in its history, and are now 1-5 in the head gear (this was the third road game; the other two were losses at UCLA in 2011 and at Arizona last year) ... The game time was exactly 3:00 (only 26 in CU's last 284 have been played un under three hours) ... CU lost its 11th straight Pac-12 game (school record for most consecutive losses in conference play; old mark was eight twice) ... CU snapped an 0-for-19 streak on third downs in the first quarter (last try at Oregon State; 0-of-15 vs. Oregon and 0-of-3 before converting against ASU); Colorado was 5-of-5 on third down in the second half ... TB Christian Powell's 8-yard run for a touchdown in the fourth quarter was CU's first rushing touchdown this season ... PK Will Oliver improved to 10-of-10 on PAT kicks in 2013, extending his consecutive streak made to 40 ... SN Ryan Iverson had one tackle on punt coverage, giving him 13 (10 solo) for his career, tying the most career tackles in school history by a long snapper (Chris O'Donnell had 13 from 1987-90) ... QB Sefo Liufau became the ninth true freshman to play for the Buffs this season when he appeared in the first quarter; the last true freshman to appear in a game at quarterback for CU was Tyler Hansen, who made his debut in a 14-13 win against Kansas State in Boulder on Oct. 18, 2008; he completed 7-of-14 passes for 71 yards (1 TD/1 INT). He made his starting debut the following week at Missouri.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 13

Colorado is 1-4 all-time on September 13, winning the first time out on the date but dropping four in a row since. A quick look at Sept. 13 games in CU history: 1975—Mike McCoy opened the scoring with a 61-yard punt return after CU shutdown Cal on its opening series, and David Williams closed it with a 12-yard touchdown run to give the Buffaloes a wild 34-27 season opening win over the Bears. Terry Kunz rushed for 131 yards and a touchdown and Williams added 114 yards and his game winning score to lead the Buffs, who didn't seal the win until the final minute when Brian Cabral intercepted a pass at the CU 26 to end Cal's last threat. Chuck Muncie led Cal with 112 yards and two TDs on 15 rushing attempts. 1980—In the season opener of Chuck Fairbanks' second year as CU coach, things could not have gotten off to a worse start — UCLA beat up the Buffs, 56-14, at the Los Angeles Coliseum — building a 56-0 lead at halftime. 'Nuff said ... 1986—CU built a 17-7 first quarter lead and could not hold it, but still led 30-23 late in the fourth quarter only to see Oregon score 10 points in the final 44 seconds to rally for a 32-30 win in Eugene. It was CU's return visit there from 1984 when Ed Reinhardt suffered a life-threatening brain injury, and he was honored before the game as the city of Eugene had rallied around him and his family during a month coma after the injury. On a cool, rainy day that saw the teams lose a combined seven fumbles, the Ducks scored a TD to pull within 30-29 but missed the 2-point conversion for the win; however, Oregon recovered an onside kick and would win on a Matt McLeod 35-yard field goal as time ran out. It overshadowed a great game by CU quarterback Mark Hatcher, who rushed 17 times for 173 yards and two scores. 1997—Brian Griese threw for 258 yards and two touchdowns to lead Michigan to a 27-3 win over Colorado in Ann Arbor, three years after the Buffs left the "Big House" with a 27-26 win in the game known as the "Miracle in Michigan." Just a 7-0 game late in the first half, the Wolverines scored on a field goal to end the first half and a touchdown to open the second; after CU's John Hessler was intercepted on the Buffs' second play in the third quarter, Michigan scored another TD, meaning it outscored CU 17-0 in a span where CU ran only two plays. After the interception, media misinterpreted an exchange between Hessler and CU head coach Rick Neuheisel: the coach was seen on camera apparently ripping into Hessler and jamming a finger into his chest; in actuality, Neuheisel was telling him, "You're not Superman. You don't have an 'S' on your chest, don't think you have to do this all by yourself." The two laugh about it to this day. 2003—Washington State scored 27 straight points to break open a 20-13 game to defeat the Buffs in Boulder, 47-26. The Cougars converted five CU turnovers into 17 points and had interception and kickoff returns for touchdowns, the latter being a 97-yard effort by Sammy Moore to open the second half to build a 30-13 advantage and keep the Buffs from gaining any momentum.

SEPTEMBER 13 COLORADO MVP: Williams. In addition to rushing 16 times for 114 yards and the go-ahead touchdown in the 34-27 win against Cal in 1975, he also completed 9-of-15 passes for 108 yards and another score.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 296, Pittsburgh is 27th with 292), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the new College Football Playoff come this winter will include the top four teams; only USC, with 11, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 17TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 17th most in the nation in this time frame (25-plus seasons). Florida State has the most (74), followed by Florida (72), Ohio State (69), Michigan (63), Alabama (62), LSU (60), Southern Cal (58), Miami, Fla. (57), Oklahoma (55), Tennessee (53), Texas (49), Georgia (48), Auburn (47), Notre Dame (47), Oregon (47), Penn State (47), Nebraska (45) and Colorado (43). As for the Pac-12, after USC, Oregon and CU, the next schools on the list are UCLA (43) and Washington (42). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the fifth most ranked teams in the nation (117, with a record of 43-72-2), trailing only Florida (135), LSU (126), Ohio State (120) and Michigan (120). (AP polls used for these figures as the coaches' poll omits teams on probation but the AP does not.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost 14 straight against ranked teams (last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009); the Buffs have lost 21 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

OLIVER AGAIN CANDIDATE FOR LOU GROZA AWARD

PK Will Oliver enjoyed a fine junior year in 2013 and was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, handed out annually to the nation's top placekicker (he did not advance to the finalist stage). Oliver connected on 17-of-24 field goal attempts (71 percent), including makes from 53 (career-long) and 52 yards out, and was perfect on extra points for the second straight year, the first player in CU history to make all his PAT kicks in two straight seasons (he has a string of 67 in a row). He also doubled as the regular kickoff specialist for the first time in his career, making his achievements as a placekicker that much more impressive.

Mike MacIntyre is in his second season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, his fifth season as a collegiate head coach; he has a 5-9 record at Colorado and is 21-30 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. A veteran coach of 23 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 49, has coached in a total of 307 football games in his career (51 as a head coach): 148 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ◆ He became just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins. Rick Neuheisel was the last to do both (in 1995).
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received my Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:
Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;
Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;
Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;
Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game (in both 2013 and 2014). MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On players having to be ready at a moment's notice to go into the game: "It's the only game in the world where you have 100 guys on the side watching just eleven in the game at any one time. So you're like the dog sitting on the porch. When that rabbit runs by, you've got to be ready to go."
- ◆ On playing music at practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ Unhappy that he had gained weight since college, slowly adding one a few pounds here and there over the years (and of course recruiting season never helps when the coaches often eat two or even three dinners at various recruits' homes), he decided to do something about it. After the 2013 season, he read the book, Why Diets Fail Us; he started to eat much healthier, consumer either one or two nutrition-rich shakes a day (as replacement meals) and increased his workout regimen. The end result was that after six months, he dropped 60 pounds (he now weighs what he did as a junior in high school; he played at 175 in college).
- ◆ MacIntyre is a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll (also did so in 2012), as coaches are now selected by a random draw (he was not drawn for 2013). CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 25 of the last 28 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million. This past February, CU's Board of Regents approved a one-year extension through the 2018 season.

- ♦ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ♦ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MACINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are special teams coordinator Toby Neinas, offensive line coach Gary Bernardi, safeties coach Charles Clark, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat and receivers coach Troy Walters. Defensive coordinator Kent Baer, offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, running backs/tight ends coach Klayton Adams and cornerbacks coach Andy LaRussa are in the press box. Also upstairs will be the quality control coaches, Omar Young and Joe Bleymaier and graduate assistants A.J. Baer and Nate Tave; signaling in plays when not brought in by substituting players are graduate assistants Patrick Williams (offense) and J.B. Hall (defense).

A FIRST SINCE 1979

Colorado has had six head coach changes dating back to when Bill McCartney was named head coach in 1982. He retained Buck Nystrom as offensive line coach (and kept Mike McNeely as an assistant linebacker coach, though he had worked in administration and recruiting). In the next four coaching changes, all kept at least one assistant on staff: Rick Neuheisel (Brian Cabral, Jon Embree, Ben Gregory, Chuck Heater, Terry Lewis), Gary Barnett (Cabral, Embree, Tom Cable), Dan Hawkins (Cabral, Darian Hagan), and Jon Embree (Cabral). Mike MacIntyre interviewed several of the assistants, but in the end brought in all new full-time assistant coaches. The last time that occurred was in 1979, when Chuck Fairbanks took over for Bill Mallory.

➔ But for just the third since 1988, the entire full-time staff returns intact, just the second time a first-year staff didn't have any changes (joining CU's 2012 group under Jon Embree).

FIRST & SECOND YEAR COACHING COMPARISONS

Only two coaches had winning records in their first season at CU since 1944 (Frank Potts, 6-2), which is fairly common nationally since they're more often than not coming into a rebuilding situation. Going back to Dal Ward's inaugural year (1948, when CU became a member of the Big Seven Conference), only two of CU's 12 coaches had winning records, with a third posting a .500 mark. All time, Bill Mallory is the coach that had the most improvement in W-L record from year one to year two, going 9-3 in 1975 after a 5-6 mark his first year (+4); That's followed by William Saunders (+3½, 1932-33), Dan Hawkins (+3½, 2006-07), Jim Yeager (+3, 1941-42), Bill McCartney (+1½, 1982-83) and Sonny Grandelius (+1, 1959-60).

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

The last four CU head coaches all have or have had media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) is a studio host on the Pac-12 Network; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) is an analyst on Sports USA Radio and recently was added to the lineup at SiriusXM; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute. Bill McCartney (1982-94) hosted a radio show last year on 102.3 FM in Denver.

JEFFCOAT'S PEDIGREE: RUSHING AND GETTING TO THE QB

Defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

CU'S BAER IN THE ORIENT

Kent Baer, who joined CU as its defensive coordinator in 2013, used his involvement with the military in the 1970s to create an all-star game in 1989 in Japan that has lasted 25 years; it draws 20-30,000 fans annually. Baer served as the director of athletics and recreation for the commander of United States Naval Forces in Japan along with serving as the head coach for the Yokosuka Seahawks from 1973-1976 (a member of a service league featuring military bases). With this background, Baer created the Heisei Bowl (now the New Era Bowl) as the annual all-star game played annually on the first Saturday of July. Baer coordinates the selection of two American coaches and a dozen U.S. players who are integrated to practice and then play with two Japanese All-Star teams.

In the late 1980s, Baer was brainstorming ways to improve Japanese coaching techniques when he hit on the idea of this cultural exchange. Coaches from all the Pac-10 (now Pac-12) staffs have joined Baer along with individuals from Michigan, Notre Dame and Army. Japanese interest in football has been whetted by various U.S. excursions to the Far East. The old Mirage Bowl in the 1980s featured two Pac-10 teams playing their last game of the regular season in Tokyo. After that, there was the Coca Cola Bowl, also part of the regular schedule. From 1976 to 1993, there was the Japan Bowl, a postseason all-star game of U.S. players. Before joining the CU staff this past winter, Baer continued to be involved with the armed services as he coached San Jose State to a 29-20 win over Bowling Green in the Military Bowl.

TWO NEW TRADITIONS BEGUN IN 2013

Mike MacIntyre installed a couple of new traditions in 2013 when the team takes the field. One player carries out a toolbox and another a sledgehammer (the players will vote on who gets the nod). MacIntyre did this at San Jose State with a sword (because they were the Spartans) and the sledgehammer. The toolbox is representative of the commitment the players have made to each other and the team as a whole; now, there aren't actual tools in the box, rather it contains "commitment cards" where each player wrote down something of significance he will do in the game. So when they view the toolbox during the game, it will serve as a reminder of that commitment. The sledgehammer goes to the big hit of the previous game (the biggest or most important "legal" hit – the play cannot draw a penalty). In 2014, the staff added the "special teams belt" which is awarded to the special teams player of the week. The winners:

| Opponent | Toolbox | Sledgehammer | Special Teams Belt | Opponent | Toolbox | Sledgehammer | Special Teams Belt |

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 77 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including seven active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Mike MacIntyre and his oldest son, Jay; Colorado is one of a handful of schools to have it happen twice, as Dan Hawkins had son Cody on his CU teams from 2007-10.

Perhaps the most famous and best head coach father and son tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career). Note: another famous combo was at Marshall, when they were a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

A FIRST? We polled the nation on two occasions, and no other instance has yet to turn up where a head coach had his father as a head coach in college and then had a son on a team that he is the head coach. But that appears to be the case with Mike MacIntyre, who was coached by his father George at Vanderbilt in 1984-85 and is now coaching his son, Jay, at Colorado.

There are currently eight schools where a player is playing for his head coach father: Boston College, Colorado, Iowa, Iowa State, Massachusetts, Middle Tennessee, Utah and Wisconsin. Here's a look at the all-time list of known head coaching father-player son pairings at the same school (#—denotes active):

While this is the first time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

STAFF STABILITY

For just the third time since 1988, the entire Buffalo coaching staff will return intact; there were no changes in 2009 (Dan Hawkins' fourth CU team) and again in 2012 (Jon Embree's second). And it's just the second time since 1974 that a first-time CU head coach returns all his full-timers (Bill Mallory's group at that time), as Embree's staff was on that list as well. Perhaps with so many young players in the program, now more than ever is consistency in the coaching ranks a welcome non-change. Nationally, just 20 programs did not undergo at least one change, led by Baylor and Northwestern, who have the same full-time coaching staff for a fourth straight year. The list:

4—Baylor, Northwestern. 2—Arizona, Auburn, Boston College, BYU, Clemson, Colorado, Colorado State, Iowa, Kansas State, UL-Lafayette, Michigan State, Mississippi, San Diego State, South Carolina, Tennessee, UNLV, UTEP, Washington State.

TRENDS1985-2014

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 198-153-4; in these 355 games spanning the last 29-plus seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

TRENDS IIIMacINTYRE ERA (2013-PRESENT)

Mike MacIntyre took over the Buffalo program this season, so the trend watch is wide open, but here's a start in his one game as head coach (5-9 record):

| Category | | Category | |
| ➤ when scoring 20 or more points (0-6 when not) | 5- 3 | ➤ when leading after three (1-8 trailing, 1-0 tied) | 3- 1 |

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 26 seasons. A closer look:

| | Turnovers Committed | Turnovers Forced | +/- | Scoring Off Turnovers PF | PA | +/- |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------|---------------------|-------------|-----------------------------|--------------|-------------|
| 171 WINS | 279 | 421 | + 142 | 1,382 | 593 | +789 |
| MacINTYRE ERA (5 WINS) | 6 | 11 | + 5 | 42 | 28 | + 14 |
| 134 LOSSES (& 4 TIES) | 329 | 212 | - 117 | 493 | 1,143 | -650 |
| MacINTYRE ERA (9 LOSSES) | 19 | 12 | - 7 | 26 | 96 | - 70 |
| 26-SEASON TOTALS (309 Games) | 608 | 633 | + 25 | 1,875 | 1,736 | +139 |
| MacINTYRE ERA (13 GAMES) | 25 | 23 | - 2 | 68 | 124 | - 56 |

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is 21-17 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior; CU has won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (2010); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009). CU lost to UCLA after its first Pac-12 league schedule bye in 2011 and to Oregon State last year.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 541 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Now one streak remains:

- CU has scored in 148 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 296 games (all the way back to 1963).

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 146 times in 298 tries, including 25 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the "two-minute offense" drill since 1988; that's 61 percent of the time. That included 3-of-4 last year (field goal vs. CSU, TD at Oregon State, TD vs. Cal) and 3-of-7 in 2012 (the highlight being the winning TD drive at Washington State). CU was 3-of-8 in 2011: field goals versus Cal (end of regulation) and Washington State (first half); and a first half TD vs. CSU and were 2-of-9 in the drill in 2010 (scoring first half TDs at Kansas and versus Kansas State). 2009 was a good year for the drill (9-of-14) which included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 38-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 226 of 253 times, losing 24 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 29 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were in the 2014 season opener to Colorado State (led 17-14 entering the fourth), and three games in 2012, to Utah (leading 28-20 after three), Sacramento State (led 28-24 entering the quarter and lost on a field goal at the gun) and to CSU (led 17-16 with 13:27 remaining). The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 110 of its last 129 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 37 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent are the first two games of the '13 season (CSU led briefly 26-24 late in the third quarter and into the fourth; UCA led 24-17, also early in the fourth); the two previous to those came by the same score: this year at Washington State (won 35-34 after trailing 31-14 with 8:07 left) and in 2009 against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining). Two big ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

In the season opener against Colorado State, six Buffaloes made their first career starts: WR Shay Fields, OT Jeromy Irwin, C Alex Kelley, DE Derek McCartney, OLB Kenneth Olugbode and DE Christian Shaver. Shaver was just the sixth player on defense to start the season opener as a true freshman, and the first freshman ever to do so at defensive end. Fields was the fifth true freshman to start a season opener on offense, the second wide receiver (joining Gerald Thomas in 2012). It was the third time that two true freshmen started in a season opener (also occurred in 1980 and 2012). The duo became the 11th and 12th true CU freshmen to start from scrimmage in the opener; here are those previously who were thrown into the fray from play one: TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming); ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State); CB Greg Henderson, 2011 (vs. Hawai'i); CB Kenneth Crawley and WR Gerald Thomas, 2012 (vs. Colorado State); and ILB Addison Gillam, 2013 (vs. Colorado State); add a 13th for the first play of the game/season on special teams (kickoff coverage team): PK Kevin Eberhart (2003, kicked off vs. Colorado State in Denver).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2012, the Buffaloes started its fewest seniors believed ever (17.8%) and a record number of freshmen (28.0%; 21.6% true frosh). A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes finished their 124th season of competition having played 1,187 games with an all-time record of 680-472-36. CU currently stands 23rd on the all-time win list and is 32nd in all-time winning percentage (.588; those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 125 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,198), with only USC (798) and Washington (689) having won more games (USC, UW and Arizona State only own higher winning percentages than the Buffs).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 300-160-10 in 90 seasons on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-5 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Colorado has won only 27 games over the last eight-plus seasons, but in 11 of those games, the Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down. This year, UMass got up by 11 early in the second half after cashing in a tipped interception for a touchdown. Two of the rallies came from 17 down: in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Eight have taken place in Boulder, a ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 34 occasions (and are 26-8 in games when this occurs). The last time it happened was against Charleston Southern this year, when TB Michael Adkins rushed for 137 yards and WR Paul Richardson hauled in eight passes for 122 yards. It's the third time CU's done it as a member of the Pac-12: in 2012, TB Tony Jones rushed for 105 yards and a touchdown with WR Nelson Spruce snaring eight passes for 103 yard and TD at Washington State. Against Arizona in 2011, TB Rodney Stewart rushed for 181 yards and WR Toney Clemons had 115 receiving yards. In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 164 of the 2014 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion project underway, the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands are undergoing a complete redesign. When all is said and done come the season opener on September 13, capacity will likely drop somewhere in the 3,000-seat range. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2013 was 239,778, an average of 38,296 for six home games, which was down from the 2012 average of 45,373 (mainly because there were less total giveaways). It does mark the 19th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 37th time in the last 39 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (CU's season ticket count in 2013 was just under 28,000 when adding in 8,362 student holders, as those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

| Games | All-Time Record | 1989-2013 Record | Mike MacIntyre Record | Coach With The Most Wins |
|--------------------|----------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| versus Top 5..... | 12-52-2 | 8-20-1 | 0-1 | 5 / Bill McCartney |
| versus Top 10..... | 25-88-3 | 14-34-2 | 0-1 | 8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney |
| versus Top 15..... | 37-114-3 | 20-48-2 | 0-1 | 10 / Bill McCartney |
| versus Top 25..... | 69-151-3 | 43-72-2 | 0-3 | 20 / Bill McCartney |

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 94-79 in its last 173 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 80-36 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 72-41-1 in its last 114 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 537-265-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest however came in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run. And two did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998) and Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Two games into 2014, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 474 CU games in his career, including the last 247 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (528) has called more games than Zim, who is tied for fourth in consecutive years calling major college football (41st) behind Robertson (48), Bill Hillgrove, Pitt (45) and Don Fischer, Indiana (42). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he has called 557 college games in all, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for Colorado State).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006, rejoined the department this past summer and he has worked 433 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's now worked 454 all told at the time he left CU). SID Dave Plati has worked 409 overall including the last 367 (dating to the '83 finale). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94. STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 42nd year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 19th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 20 seniors on its 2014 roster, and if history is any kind of indication, they'll get plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League. Scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so in 2012 and 2013. Already this year, nine teams have had scouts witness the Buffs in person at games: Arizona, Carolina, Cleveland, Denver, Miami, New England, New Orleans, Oakland and Tennessee. Not including camps, 664 scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 10 former Colorado Buffaloes on preseason National Football League rosters as of September 7; there were 12 on the rosters at the end of the 2013 season (14 at the end of 2012, 15 at the end of 2011, 18 in 2010 and 22 in 2009). CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; a—active/physically unable to perform; i—on injured reserve; p—practice squad):

CANUCKS: Two former Buffs continue to make livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, both with the Calgary Stampeders: TB Hugh Charles is in seventh year in the league (Calgary is his third team) and OG Edwin Harrison is in his fifth (all with the Stampeders). C Marwan Hage retired his year after 10 years in the league, all with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, but still serves as a player representative.

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Three players are the sons of former National Football League players: DL Terran Hasselbach (father Harald played with Washington and Denver); DL Derek McCartney (father Shannon Clavelle, Green Bay); and ILB Clay Norgard (father Erik, 11 years with the Houston Oilers).

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the five who head prep programs: Matt Flavin (Buena Vista), Phil Jackson (Sierra), Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Mike Marquez (Thornton), Bill Mondt (Eaton) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver); in addition, Bob Simmons, a member of Bill McCartney's staff from 1988-94, is the head coach at Boulder High and McCartney's second son, Tom McCartney, is the head coach at Boulder Fairview and was a one-time grad assistant for the Buffs ... when Simmons was also on the staff. And Mark Nolan, the head coach at Regis, was Dan Hawkins administrative assistant for two years.

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 27 of 37 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (80 percent of the entire roster—active, those reporting the first day of class and inactive—as of August 25: 90 of 112 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 55, Colorado 26, Texas 9, Hawai'i 4, Arizona 2, New Jersey 2, New York 2, Utah 2, Idaho 1, Michigan 1, Mississippi 1, New Mexico 1, Pennsylvania 1, Washington 1. That's 14 states total along with the District of Columbia (3) and MEXICO that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Six Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: PK Diego Gonzalez (Monterrey, Mexico), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), OL Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries), DL Stephane Nembot (Douala, Cameroon), P Darragh O'Neill (Cork, Ireland) and CB Yuri Wright (Saint Vincent and the Grenadines in the Caribbean).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 306-17-1 when scoring 30 or more points (two such losses in 2012), along with records of 218-6 with 35-plus points and 201-4 with 36-plus, 178-3 with 38-plus and 113-1 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009) and Kansas (52-45 in 2010). CU has played 1,188 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 106-88-3 in its last 197 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 4-23 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 126 of its last 302 games, posting a 113-12-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 196 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 23-88-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979.
 - ➔ Things did not change in Jon Embree's two seasons: in 2011, the Buffs averaged 4.8 yards on first down for 13 games, though averaged over six yards three times (two of those wins); in 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2013, the Buffs enjoyed their best season on first down in years: CU averaged over six yards in seven games and 5.83 for the season overall, its best since 2001 (6.7).
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 53 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 185 games (season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 74 scores by return in 234 games (67 regular season, seven bowl). After none in 2012, CU had five in 2013.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 17 times in the last 184 games (and 38 times in the last 259, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 43-3 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 51-6 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 75-78 in its last 153 games on grass, including a 47-44 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass.
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 95-52-3 in its last 150 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 61-38-3 mark in conference games. CU is 1-0 this year (and will have four games on the fake stuff) after going 0-3 last year and 1-2 in 2012.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, that number was 14.1 in 2005, 10.2; in 2006, 12.0; in 2007, 14.0; in 2008, 9.7 (the only time under 10 in this span); in 2009, 15.7; in 2010, 12.3; in 2011, opponents gained 1,000 yards on 73 makes (13.7 per), with eight TDs (18.0 per) and just 146 yards on the 83 misses (1.6).
 - ➔ In 2012, it appeared the trend was reversing through three games, but conference play did the Buffs in; for the year, opponents gained 810 yards on 66 makes (12.3 per) and 128 yards on the other 84 plays (1.5).
 - ➔ In 2013, opponents gained 815 yards on their 73 conversions (11.2 per), and 115 on the 115 misses (1.0); excludes a 19-yard play with a hold.
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-2 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, though losing for the first times the last two times it has happened (CSU this year and against Cal in 2011, a 36-33 OT loss). The last win came against Nebraska in 2007 (65-51). In these 16 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 650-351, with only four games decided by less than 17 points.
- ➔ Opponents have made 125-of-157 field goals dating back to 2006 (79.6 percent), including 16-of-18 in 2013 and 2-of-2 this year. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 89-of-101 (88.1) on kicks inside the 40. In the same span, CU is 96-of-153 (62.7).
- ➔ In 2009, one of the most all-time perplexing stats to ever come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five. But that fifth time was one of the reasons CU went 3-9: example—Missouri gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on its other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all added up to 17.6 percent of opponent plays gaining 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU allowed 50 plays over 20 yards, totaling 1,633 yards; basically 6.2 percent of the plays producing 34 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2011, opponents had 75 plays of 20-plus yards that collectively gained 2,191 yards (29.2 per); the other 793 gained 3,520 (4.4); thus 8.6 percent of the plays gained 38.4 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2012, the opponent had 81 plays of 20 yards or longer, gaining 2,511 yards (31.0 per); the other 743 plays netted 3,351 yards (4.5 per).
 - ➔ In 2013, things changed a bit at the start, but in the end (924 plays), opponents had 73 plays of 20 yards or more, netting 2,316 yards (31.7 per) and 41.2 percent of the total yards (5,616); but five of these games were against teams ranked in the nation's top 15 in offense, including the No. 2 overall offense (Oregon) and the No. 2 passing offense (Oregon State).
- ➔ Colorado had slow starts in its 10 of its 13 games in 2011, outscored 142-34 in the first quarter and outgained 1,737-952. In 2012, the Buffs again struggled out of the gate: opponents almost doubled CU in offense (1,598-881) and more than tripled the Buffs on the scoreboard (136-41). CU was held to under 50 yards in seven of the 12 first quarters, though the scoring was a bit skewed by the Fresno State and Oregon games where the Bulldogs and Ducks combined to jump on the Buffs, 63-0 (FSU 35-0, UO 28-0).
 - ➔ In 2013, the slow starts appeared to be reversed after three games, sagged for a while, but in the end, CU was outgained the opponent in the opening stanza 1,536-1,354 and was outscored 114-58 in the first quarter (Oregon and ASU caused almost all the scoring damage, outscoring CU 54-10, and along with Washington, outgaining the Buffs 676-368).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-115 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09 (and 11 more before Stanford and Andrew Luck did it in '11). The CU offense is 11-of-120 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 725 of 1,060 quarters (68%; 7 of 8 in 2014). Those numbers included 33 of 48 in 2013 (69 percent).

2014 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).
- 1909 Colorado finished 6-0 the first of three in a row to do so while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. CU squeezes by the State Prep School and an Alumni squad, both by 3-0 scores, but follow those up with routs over Colorado A&M (57-0) and New Mexico (53-0) before closing with road wins over Colorado College (9-0) and Colorado Mines (16-0).
- 1914 The 100th anniversary of a 5-1 Colorado team, the next-to-last squad that Fred Folsom would coach in Boulder, but what would be his last winner (CU went 1-6 in his final year in 1915).
- 1924 (Oct. 11) The 90th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State on its way to an 8-1-1 record, which included its first overseas games—two in Hawai'i.
- 1934 (Nov. 10) The 80th anniversary of CU's 7-6 win over Utah, snapping a nine-game losing streak at the time against its conference archrival. It's the first game that the school is known as the "Buffaloes" following a contest in the school newspaper to come up with a permanent nickname. In the 7-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day, the foundation for future Ralphie's is laid down when students rent a buffalo calf and more or less control it on the sidelines during the win.
- 1939 The Buffaloes open 0-3, but would go on and post their best finish after such a start, rallying to win five in a row to finish 5-3 and win their first Mountain States Conference title.
- 1949 (Oct. 29) The 60th anniversary of perhaps the most wackiest game in CU history when it comes to the weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.
- 1954 The 55th anniversary of one of the most prolific rushing offenses in Colorado history, the unit averaging 316 yards per game, ranking third in the nation. John Bayuk (824 yards), Frank Bernardi (668), Carroll Hardy (642), Homer Jenkins (446) and Emerson Wilson (419) combine to average 6.8 yards per carry and 31 touchdowns in CU's 7-2-1 season.
- 1959 The 55th anniversary of Sonny Grandelius' first season as CU coach, as well as what tied for the second-largest comeback in school history, a 21-20 win over Missouri on Halloween (Oct. 31). Trailing 20-6 with 13:05 left, Gale Weidner threw one touchdown pass (12 yards to Jerry Hillebrand), completed a 2-point pass to Jim Counter, and then ran in the game-tying score himself with 6:15 left; Boyd Dowler converted the PAT kick for the winning margin.
- 1964 The 50th anniversary of Eddie Crowder's second CU team; though it repeated with a 2-8 record with one fewer win in Big 8 play, observers could see the future: in 1963, Colorado's five league losses came by a combined 132 points; in '64, this six by 39 (including four by a total of 12).
- 1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players and the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time. Bobby Anderson is moved from quarterback to tailback the third game of the season and goes on to earn All-America honors. On Oct. 25, the Buffs topple No. 5 Missouri, 31-24 in Boulder, the Tigers' lone conference loss of the year.
- 1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-4, but won nine of the last 10 by an average margin of 19 points.
- 1979 (Sept. 8) The 30th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.
- 1984 (Sept. 15) The 25th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver, despite CU's new two-tight offense being revealed by the Denver Post in one of those weak "public's right to know" defenses. CU is never the same after the injury and fights its way through a 1-10 season.
- 1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer. His replacement, Darian Hagan, leads the team to the first of three straight undefeated seasons in Big 8 conference play and finishes fifth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy. The season is defined with back-to-back wins at Oklahoma (20-3) and then over No. 3 Nebraska (27-21).
- 1994 The 20th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan, Sept. 24); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.
- 1999 The 10th anniversary of Gary Barnett returning to head the program where he spent nine seasons as an assistant (1983-91); along the way, CU defeats at least one ranked opponent for a 12th straight season, plays in and wins its first overtime game in its history (46-39 over Missouri) and a monster bowl win (62-36 over Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl) extends CU's bowl winning streak to a nation's best six games.
- 2004 (Oct. 16) Hard to believe it's been five years since Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60 yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State. And 10 years after "The Catch," Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh hook up for the exact same distance—64 yards—with five seconds left to give CU a 38-31 win over Kansas State. Colorado, 1-4 in league play entering November, rallies to win the Big 12 North Division.
- 2009 (Oct. 17) One of the few highlights in an otherwise disappointing season, CU defeated No. 17 Kansas, 34-30, in a thriller at Folsom Field. It stands as the last win over a ranked team by the Buffaloes.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are and 57-40-1 in their last 98 November games (51-28 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month, and 52-15 against unranked teams). Colorado is 52-47-2 in its last 101 October games and 55-34 in its last 89 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 3-3-1 in August games in its history.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS CHANGE IN 2014

The Pac-12 has changed and upgraded its bowls (and opponents) for the 2014 bowl season with the advent of the new college football playoff; these are in place for the 2014-20 seasons (unless the sun explodes and engulfs the Earth). Here's the conference's lineup for the 2014 bowl season:

- # 1 Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (or Sugar Bowl, if Pac-12 has teams in the top four for the new playoff; otherwise, champion will play in Fiesta, Cotton or Peach bowl; vs. Big Ten/At-large)
 - # 2 Valero Alamo (vs. Big 12)
 - # 3 National University Holiday (vs. Big Ten)
 - # 4 San Francisco (vs. Big Ten)
 - # 5 Hyundai Sun (vs. ACC)

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against eight Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe and Notre Dame. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (8), Missouri, Texas and Washington (5), Arizona State, LSU, Ohio State, Oregon and Stanford (4) and then California, Florida State, Michigan State and Nebraska (3 each).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 24 seasons (1990-2013), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (but tied for 12th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Uinitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullsworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2012 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. For more information, visit Ralphie's Green Stampede at http://www.cubuffs.com/ViewArticle.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=600&ATCLID=1549954.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well as painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom hasn't happened (yet), the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the second most attending in Jon Embree's first game (2011), also the first nighttime affair. CU has now had seven occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor the late Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

| Year | Score | Attendance | Notes |
| 2008 | Black 28, Gold 17 | 17,800 | A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom |
| 2011 | (none/O-D scrimmage) | 15,655 | Jon Embree's first spring game also featured a first: it was the first one played at night |
| 1989 | #White 38, Black 35 | 13,642 | A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer |
| 2009 | Black 17, Gold 10 | 11,700 | Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft |
| 1990 | #White 27, Black 25 | 11,336 | Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990 |
| 1991 | #Black 21, White 17 | 10,382 | Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run |
| 2013 | Black 17, White 16 | 10,244 | Good crowd turned out to see Mike MacIntyre's first spring game in Boulder |
| 1992 | #Black 44, White 7 | 9,617 | Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history |
| 2010 | Gold 37, Black 27 | 9,100 | Teams are determined by the players drafting themselves |

KEY: ◆—Pac-12 Conference game; ✚—Mountain West Conference game; ✚—Mid-American Conference game.

OPPONENTS & 2013 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2014 Colorado schedule combined for an 91-74 record last year (55.2 winning percentage); four teams won 10 or more games a year ago, while three went 1-11 (thus minus those three, the other nine teams were a gaudy 88-41). It includes nine teams that CU played in 2013 (the Buffaloes went 2-7 against those schools). The Buffs again won't play Stanford and Washington State in Pac-12 league play; both reappear on the 2015-16 schedules as California and Washington come off those two seasons.

- The Buffaloes opened the 2014 season on a Friday; CU did not have a weeknight game in 2013, the first time since 1995 that the Buffaloes played every regular season game on a Saturday.
- Colorado will travel 10,290 air miles during the regular season this fall, or the equivalent of just over 40 percent around the Earth (at the equator). The longest round trip will be to play Massachusetts in Foxboro: 3,540 miles (the Buffs will stay in Providence, just southwest of Foxboro). Other round trip distances: Oregon (Eugene: 1,916), California (Berkeley: 1,858), USC (Los Angeles: 1,666), Arizona (Tucson: 1,250) and Colorado State (Denver: 60). That's only the third most miles a Pac-12 school will travel this fall: Washington is first with 12,146 miles (trips to Hawaii, Arizona, Colorado, Cal, Washington State and Oregon), followed by UCLA with 11,934 (which will travel to Virginia, Arlington—to play Texas, Washington, Colorado, Arizona State and Cal). Oregon State is fourth with 9,978, but it has only five trips (Hawaii, Colorado, USC, Stanford and Washington).
- Colorado will play Massachusetts at Foxboro (Gillette Stadium) on Sept. 6; it will be CU's first trip to the northeast in nearly 37 years, last visiting the vicinity on Oct. 1, 1977 when it defeated Army at West Point, 31-0.
- Colorado and Hawaii begin the second phase a four-game home-and-home; the Warriors visit Boulder on Sept. 20, and CU opens the 2015 season in Honolulu.
- Oregon State is the last member of the Pac-12 Conference to make a visit to Boulder since the Buffs joined the league in 2011; the Beavers' last visit to Folsom Field was in 1988.
- The season finale against Utah is on Saturday, Nov. 29; Colorado had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons, but last year's rivalry game with the Utes was returned to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) selected other games for the Friday slots.
- The Buffaloes again have two bye weeks, which fall on Oct. 11 and Nov. 15; Colorado had two bye weeks every year from 1996 through 2005, one usually after non-league play and the other prior to the regular season finale against Nebraska. Due to the flooding in Boulder last year and the cancellation of the Fresno State game, the Buffs had their bye weeks in succession.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of September 6 (with 2014 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the latest world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing. The Big 10 placed 10 schools in the top 100 (Wisconsin has the highest rank – No. 19); the ACC placed four (Duke was its highest at No. 31); the SEC two (Vanderbilt at No. 49, Florida at No. 71) and the Big 12 one (Texas, No. 36).

CU TO INDUCT NINE NEW MEMBERS IN ITS 10TH HALL OF FAME CLASS THIS OCTOBER 30

The 10th class that will be inducted into the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame this October 30 will feature nine Golden Buffalo legends who left their indelible marks on the school with an impressive list of accomplishments. The nine, two of whom will be honored posthumously, have a definite coaching flavor among them: five list the profession on their resumes; three were student-athletes at Colorado, and two returned to as head coaches for the sports for which they were groomed.

Also included, one could say, are a leaper, a “rassler,” a harasser, a jumper, a picker and a grabber. Translation: a hurdler, wrestler, quarterback sacker, pole vaulter, interceptor and rebounder. The 2014 class will tie for the third-largest inducted into the Hall since it was conceived in 1998, as seven former Buffalo athletes, including two who went on to coach for the school, plus one legendary head coach will join 59 individuals and the entire 1959 ski team which have been enshrined to date (seven have been honored previously after their deaths). Every decade between the 1930s and 1990s is touched upon in the class.

Athletic director Rick George announced that moving forward with this group, CU will now induct classes annually instead of every two years, which has been the case since the third class was inducted in 2000. Those to be inducted on Thursday, October 30 and then honored at halftime of the Washington game on November 1 are:

Bob Beattie, Ski Coach (1957-65)

He was CU's head ski coach for nine years, leading the Buffaloes to their first national championship in any sport when his 1959 team claimed the NCAA title; that team was inducted as whole in the 2006 class. The team repeated as champions in 1960 and also won four Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association titles. Beattie coached some of the greatest skiers in school history, including Buddy Werner, Jimmie Heuga and Bill Marolt.

Forrest B. “Frosty” Cox, Basketball Coach (1935-50)

The winningest men's basketball coach in CU history in terms of percentage until recently (Tad Boyle), Cox coached the Buffaloes to a 147-89 record (.623) in 13 seasons. He led Colorado to three NCAA tournament appearances and to a pair of NIT berths, the latter considered the more significant postseason tourney at the time; CU was crowned the 1940 NIT champion and was generally considered one of the premier programs in the west in for a good period of time in his tenure. And as an assistant football coach in 1937, he coached the backs, which included CU's first All-American, Byron “Whizzer” White. He is the only member of the class who is no longer living, as he passed away in 1962 at the age of 54.

Jim Davis, Basketball (1961-64)

A three-year letterman under the legendary Sox Walseth, he earned first-team All-Big 8 honors his junior and senior seasons; CU was 53-24 in his career, winning two Big 8 titles and earning two trips to the NCAA Tournament. He averaged 14.4 points and 11.2 rebounds per game over his career, one of the few players in school history to average a double-double (scoring and rebounding) for a career and in two separate seasons. At the time of his graduation, he was CU's all-time leading rebounder and third all-time scorer. He was a fourth round selection by Detroit in the 1964 NBA Draft, but the 27th player overall in a 9-team league at the time; he played eight seasons in the league.

Deon Figures, Football (1988-92)

A consensus first-team All-American as a senior in 1992, when he was All-Big Eight and the conference's Defensive Player of the Year. He won the Jim Thorpe Award that season, presented to the nation's top defensive back, as he allowed only six completions while intercepting six and deflecting 12. He was the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame's co-College Athlete of the Year in the state for 1992. He was second-team All-Big Eight as a junior in 1991, and an honorable mention choice as a true freshman in '88, when he was the league's Defensive Newcomer of the Year. He was a first-round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1993 NFL draft (23rd player overall), he played five seasons in the league.

Bob Jeangerard, Basketball (1952-55)

A member of CU's last Final Four team, generally considered the “2” in the Buffs' 1-2 punch with Burdie Halderson (inducted in the second class in 1999) of the school's dominant early 50s teams under coach H.B. Lee. He was a two-time All-Big 7 Conference first-team selection, averaging 12.4 points and 6.1 rebounds per game during his collegiate career. As a senior, he averaged 16 points and 6.8 rebounds per game, ranking second on the team in both categories in helping CU win a then-record 19 games in reaching the national semifinals, falling to eventual champion San Francisco. He was the NCAA Tournament Regional Most Outstanding Player. Unfortunately, he passed away on July 5 from complications due to Alzheimer's at the age of 81.

Linn Long, Wrestling (1952-55; 1961-68)

He lettered four times in wrestling (1952-55) and would return as head coach of the team for eight seasons (1961-68). As an athlete, he placed second in the 130 lbs. weight class in the 1953, 1954 and 1955 Big 7 Conference Wrestling Championships, and as a senior, he was third in the NCAA Championships, garnering All-America honors in the process. His pinnacle moment as CU's coach came in 1964, when he led the Buffaloes to their best finish ever in the NCAA Championships, a tie for fourth place; four of his teams posted top 20 NCAA finishes. He coached arguably the other top two wrestlers in CU history, Dean Lahr (who is being inducted this weekend into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame) and Bob Justice. A two-sport performer, he also lettered four times in baseball for the Buffaloes.

Don Meyers, Track & Field (1959-62; 1968-75)

A three-year letterman in track under legendary CU coach Frank Potts, he would replace his mentor as coach of CU cross country and track teams in 1968 when Potts retired after 41 seasons. As an athlete, Meyers was a two-time NCAA outdoor champion, winning the long jump as a junior in 1961 and the pole vault as a senior in 1962. He was a four-time Big 8 Conference champion in the long jump, winning the indoor and outdoor versions in both 1960 and 1961. On Dec. 20, 1962, he became just the fifth person to clear 16 feet in the pole vault, as his 16-1¼ effort was the “unofficial” world indoor record (at the time, indoor marks weren't tracked). Meyers coached the Buffaloes for seven seasons, 1968-75, and under his direction CU started on the road to becoming the cross country power it is today.

—CONTINUED—

Herb Orvis, Football (1969-71)

A member of CU's All-Century football team selected in 1989, he was a near consensus All-American as a senior in 1971 and a two-time first-team All-Big Eight Conference performer. The Big Eight Conference Newcomer of the Year as a sophomore in 1969, he was also selected to the All-Big Eight Decade team for the 1970s. He played as significant a role as anyone in CU's 1971 season that saw the Buffaloes finish No. 3 in the nation, behind Nebraska and Oklahoma. A first round pick by Detroit in the 1972 NFL Draft (16th overall, the highest at the time that a CU defender had been selected), he went on to enjoy a 10-year pro career.

Yvonne Scott, Track (1992-96)

The most decorated women's hurdler in CU track history, she stills owns several school records and garnered All-American honors in both indoor and outdoor competition. Scott won three straight Big 8 Outdoor titles in the 100-hurdles from 1994-96, helping CU to the conference title as a senior, the last Big 8 Outdoor meet prior to the Big 12 being formed. She was also a two-time Olympian, competing for Japan in the 100-meter hurdles in 1996 and 2000 (she reached the semifinals in Sydney in '00). She is currently the head track coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas.

All inductees were nominated by their peers in the Alumni C-Club or by members of the selection committee; over 50 names were originally submitted and were pared to 29 finalists for an eight-member committee to vote upon, eventually producing another deep and talented class in CU Athletic HOF history.

The group will be inducted in the Hall of Fame Thursday night, October 30, in a festive gala in the Boedecker Gym at the Coors Events Center, be featured in the Pearl Street Stampede parade the next night and will be introduced at halftime of the CU-Washington football game on Saturday, Nov. 1, to complete the weekend.

2014 CAPTAINS

Head coach Mike MacIntyre named Colorado's captains for the 2014 season prior to the spring game on April 12, just the second time in recent memory the Buffaloes had their captains selected heading into summer workouts. There are six in all, three players each on offense and defense, and for the first time in program history, it includes a sophomore – and not just one, but two. The captains were selected by a vote of their teammates at a Friday night meeting prior to the spring game and team was informed the next morning. Seniors OT Daniel Munyer, DT Juda Parker and S Terrel Smith, junior WR Nelson Spruce and sophomores ILB Addison Gillam and QB Sefo Liufau (quarterback) rounded out the rest of the choices. MacIntyre said he's never been in a program where two sophomores have been named captains adding, "It was pretty impressive for their leadership as sophomores."

LATE BIOGRAPHY ADDITION70 SHANE CALLAHAN, OL*6-6, 300, Soph., TR, Parker, Colo. (Chaparral)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—He is eligible to compete this fall after transferring from Auburn in the offseason; the NCAA granted a waiver to the rule where a player must sit out a year (CU filed a waiver for him due to family reasons). He enrolled at CU in the summer, joining the team in late July and thus in time to participate in August drills.

AT AUBURN (2012/2013, Fr./Fr.-RS)—He saw brief action against Western Carolina and Florida Atlantic for the Southeastern champion Tigers, and dressed for the national championship game against Florida State (a 34-31 loss). Auburn was 12-2 overall and defeated Missouri, 59-42, in the SEC Championship game. He redshirted as a true freshman for the 2012 season; he had enrolled at Auburn in January and participated in spring practices.

HIGH SCHOOL—He was named to the prestigious 2011 Parade All-America Team as a senior, his top honor among many in his prep career; SuperPrep also tabbed him as an All-American and ranked him as the 24th offensive lineman in the nation (and as a member of its All-Midlands team). Rivals.com ranked as the nation's No. 22 offensive tackle and the 212th-ranked player nationally, while Scout.com pegged him the No. 33 tackle nationally and the No. 299 overall prospect in the country, with ESPN.com ranking him as the No. 28 OT nationally and 247Sports.com 35th at the offensive tackle position; all four had him as the fourth-rated player overall from the state of Colorado. He participated in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio after the season. He was an All-Colorado and All-State (5A) selection by the Denver Post as a senior, which ranked him as the state's No. 5 overall prospect (the top offensive lineman) in its postseason Top 15. He was an honorable mention All-State performer as a junior, and was a two-time All-Continental League performer. His senior year, he had 43 pancake blocks, did not allow a quarterback sack or pressure by the man he was guarding, and had numerous downfield and touchdown blocks. Under coach John Vogt, Chaparral was 7-4 his senior year, 9-3 his junior season, and 8-3 both his sophomore and freshman years. He also lettered once in basketball, playing center in a reserve role as a junior.

ACADEMICS—He is interested in Communication as his major at Colorado.

PERSONAL—He was born October 9, 1993 in Denver. He is an avid country music fan.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 45 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on four occasions (CU will also sport black helmets on the road occasionally). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a CU game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the lockerroom at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

GAME 1COLORADO STATE 31, COLORADO 17*AUGUST 29, 2014*SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Revving up its running game in the second half, Colorado State rallied from 10 points down early in the second half to defeat Colorado 31-17 in a Friday night Rocky Mountain Showdown at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

The game drew its highest attendance in four years, 63,363, the first in the series ever played on a Friday.

The Buffaloes, cradling a 17-14 lead entering the fourth quarter, were outscored 17-0 in the final 15 minutes as the Rams avenged a 41-27 loss in last season's meeting.

Alabama transfer Dee Hart scampered for 139 yards and two touchdowns, while Treyous Jarrells, rushed for 121 and one score. Overshadowed by CSU's leg work was a superb 100-yard receiving night by CU's Nelson Spruce, who caught seven of Sefo Liufau's passes for 104 yards and two TDs.

The Buffs led 10-7 at halftime, but they couldn't have been happy with their point total, as in no way did it reflect their first half domination. CU outgained CSU 223-119 in total offense, including 163-38 in passing, and ran 39 plays to CSU's 27.

The night started promisingly for the Buffs, scoring on their second offensive series on a 54-yard Liufau-to-Spruce pass to go up 7-0 with 10:31 left in the first quarter. On its final possession of the quarter that spilled into the second, CU used 10 plays to march to the CSU 2-yard line and was rewarded with a first-and-goal there, but the Buffs had to settle for a Will Oliver 23-yard field goal to go ahead 10-0.

Later in the quarter, CU drove to the CSU 24-yard line before the drive stalled; Oliver attempted a 41-yard field goal that drifted wide left. CSU then embarked on a penalty-aided 76-yard drive that was capped by Hart's inspired 8-yard scoring run to make it 10-7 with 2:39 left in the half.

The Rams got the ball first in the second half with momentum despite being down 10-7. They drove to the Buffs' 34 before defensive end Derek McCartney sacked Grayson and caused a fumble that was gathered in by tackle Josh Tupou.

Liufau then drove the Buffs 62 yards in nine plays, capping the march with his second scoring pass to Spruce, whose catch was of the "oh, wow" variety. Shielding a defender with his right arm and hand, Spruce went low in the back of the end zone, extended his left hand and gathered in Liufau's pass.

Oliver's extra point gave CU a 10-point lead (17-7), but it took the Rams just 3:20 and seven plays to once again make it a three-point game. Jarrells, who gained 20 of the drive's 56 yards, scored from the 3-yard line to make it 17-14 with 6:18 left in the third quarter.

As the third quarter ended, the Rams were again driving, and it was Grayson's arm that gave CSU its first lead. On the 12th play of a 92-yard drive, Grayson lofted a 16-yard pass that Rashard Higgins caught to push ahead 21-17 with 13:10 left.

After forcing a CU punt, Grayson marched the balanced Rams 60 yards in seven plays, with 32 yards gained on runs and 28 passing. Hart skirted around the right end for a 3-yard TD and a 28-17 advantage with 9:28 remaining.

The Buffs were forced to punt again and on the next drive halted the Rams at the CU 35, but on fourth-and-four, Roberts booted a 52-yard field goal. CSU's lead ballooned to 31-17, and CU had only 2:28 to make up the difference.

Liufau finished the night 24-of-39 for 241 yards and two TDs, while CSU's Garrett Grayson checked out with 13 completions in 23 attempts for 134 yards and one TD. CSU accumulated 400 yards in total offense to CU's 375.

GAME NOTES

Attendance for the game was 63,363 (tickets distributed); CU accounted for 32,480 of those as attendance was above 60,000 for the first time since 2010 ... Fourteen players saw their first-ever action in a CU uniform, including six who made their first career starts; among those were two freshmen, WR Shay Fields and DE Christian Shaver, just the 11th and 12th true frosh to ever start in a season opener for the Buffs (and Shaver was the first DE to ever do so) ... Colorado dropped to 77-43-5 in season openers (6-5-1 at neutral sites), 12-8 versus Colorado State ... CU now leads the series 62-22-2 (but 8-6 in Denver) ... The Buffs had just three negative offensive gains in the game, the anomaly being that all three came on receptions; the Buffs were not sacked and 30 of their 34 rushes gained yards with the four others for zero gain ... It was CU's second turnover free season opener since 2000; the other came last year ... CSU amassed 400 yards in total offense, the most by a CU foe to open the season since the Rams had 447 in the 2003 game ... CU's 368 yards were its second most in its last nine openers (had 509 last year) ... WR Nelson Spruce had seven receptions, including his 100th career catch, making him the 13th Buffalo to snare triple digits ... PK Will Oliver extended his string of consecutive PAT kicks made to 62, four shy of the school record ... CSU did not run a play in CU territory until there was 4:51 left in the first half; 28 of its last 48 then came on the other side of the 50 ... Colorado lost when scoring first in a season opener for just the second time in 47 years (now 24-2 when scoring first dating back to 1967).

COLORADO 41, MASSACHUSETTS 38

SEPTEMBER 6, 2014

GILLETTE STADIUM, FOXBOROUGH, MASS.

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. — Rallying from an 11-point deficit early in the second half, the Colorado Buffaloes finally steeled themselves for a strong finish and put away the Massachusetts Minutemen 41-38 at Gillette Stadium. Many of the 10,227 in attendance on a hot and muggy afternoon were rooting for the Buffs.

CU received a second consecutive stellar performance from junior receiver Nelson Spruce, who tied a career-best with 10 catches for 145 yards and two touchdowns.

The Buffs also got exemplary work in its kicking game. Senior Will Oliver hit all seven of his kicks, two field goals and five PAT's, the latter of which gave him a CU record for hitting 67 straight. Senior Darragh O'Neill averaged 48.8 yards on five punts, including a 62-yarder that was downed at the UMass 4 and helped flip the field for Oliver's second field goal.

On the game's first possession, CU drove deep into UMass territory before stalling, but still took a 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal from Oliver. It took two series before UMass answered with a 12-play, 85-yard drive capped by Blake Frohnapfel's 14-yard scoring pass to Rodney Mills.

Then on the final play of a 63-yard, seven-play CU march, Sefo Liufau hit Shay Fields with a short pass in the left flat — and Fields did the rest, tight-roping down the sideline for a 19-yard TD to put the Buffs up 10-7 only a minute into the second quarter.

Not quite 6 minutes later, Oliver kicked his second field goal — this one covered 47 yards — and CU went ahead 13-7.

Frohnapfel responded, taking UMass 70 yards in six plays, hitting Jean Sifrin, a 6-7 tight end who had been cleared to play just days earlier, for a TD to make it 14-13 in favor of the Minutemen.

With his first carries of the afternoon, Christian Powell got 11 yards on consecutive carries and helped launch an 85-yard CU drive that senior Tony Jones ended with a 5-yard TD to make it 20-14 Buffs with 2:23 left in the first half.

But only 18 seconds before intermission, UMass responded with an amazing one-handed grab by Sifrin as UMass snared a 21-20 halftime lead.

The Minutemen threatened to break the afternoon open by scoring 10 unanswered to open the second half. The first three were courtesy of a 34-yard Lucas field goal on UMass' first second-half possession. Needing an answer, CU instead suffered an interception when UMass DB Randall Jette outdued Fields for a Liufau pass and returned the pick to the CU 2-yard line, where Jamal Wilson ran in it, making it 31-20 in favor of the Minutemen.

The Buffs responded with a 77-yard drive capped by Powell's 14-yard run to pull with 31-27. On CU's next possession, with a 3rd-and-9 at his own 30-yard line, Liufau scrambled right and got Spruce breaking toward the right sideline, lofting a pass that Spruce ran under and hauled in for a 70-yard play to put CU up 34-31.

Continuing a drive started with two plays in the third quarter, CU opened the final quarter with seven more plays that completed an 81-yard scoring march. After Liufau and Spruce teamed for a 3-yard TD pass, the Buffs were up 41-31.

Chidobe Awuzie and fellow safety Tedric Thompson then teamed to stop a UMass march, with Thompson gathering in an interception of Frohnapfel that Awuzie had deflected, and then the Minutemen didn't threaten again until scoring with 2:55 left to make it 41-38.

Aided by a first down grab from Spruce and clock management in which the Buffs used up every possible second, Liufau and Co. were able to run the clock out and preserve the victory.
