2010 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL

GAME 6—BAYLOR

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16, 2010 • 5:10 p.m. MDT • Folsom Field (53,613), Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 6 (October 11, 2010)

Fox College Sports-Central (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (3-2, 0-1 Big 12) will try to get into the conference win column this Saturday, the Boulder Campus' annual Family Weekend, as CU will host the Baylor Bears (4-2, 1-1 Big 12) for the final time in their history this Saturday, October 16, before joining the Pac-10 Conference next July 1 ... Kickoff is set for 5:10 p.m. and Fox College Sports will televise the game on a national basis (on its FCS Central channel, Comcast 414 in the Denver/Boulder area) ... It's also Living Legends Weekend, as CU honors those former alumni who earned their first varsity letter 50 years ago ... The Baylor game starts a three-game span against Big 12 South Division members, as Texas Tech and Oklahoma follow on the schedule; the Buffs last swept the South in 2007 and were last swept in 2008 ... CU is looking to go 4-2 for the first half of the season for the first time since 2007 (also logging that record in 2002, 2004 and 2005) ... CU will be playing its third straight night game and its 96th all-time under the lights, where it has posted a 49-44-2 record with artificial illumination; the Buffs are 23-9-2 in night games all-time at Folsom Field ... About 9,000 tickets remain for this weekend's game ... CU's annual homecoming game is up the following week versus Texas Tech (Oct. 23); kickoff has been set for 1:30 p.m. for the game, which will not be televised ... For the first time since 1948, there is no printed CU media guide this year (mostly due to NCAA legislation and restrictions); there is an on-line version, however ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including live stats for all games.

STAT OF THE WEEK

The Buffaloes are tied for second in the nation in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed, as CU has permitted just a single score via the run in five games this season. California is the only team that's been able to do it (Shane Vereen, from four yards out). The Buffalo "D" tightens up inside-the-20, as the opponent has run 51 plays for 121 yards in the red zone (2.4 per), has just 10 touchdowns in 19 tries inside-the-20 and is only 5-of-14 on third down (and 0-of-1 on fourth); the opponent has had four cracks at scoring from the 1-yard line, and has done it just once (a 1-yard TD pass, also by California). The leaders:

FEWEST RUSHING TOUCHDOWNS ALLOWED (through October 9)—1. Iowa 0; 2 (tie). Colorado, West Virginia & Wisconsin 1; 5 (tie). Arizona, TCU 2.

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

Colorado is ranked 20th in the nation in rushing defense, allowing 104.4 yards per game — but let's look inside the numbers. Of 138 rushing plays (125 actually, remember 13 quarterback sacks for 54 yards in losses). CU has allowed six runs of 20-plus yards (more on those in a moment), 22 of 10-plus and 43-of five plus, countered by 18 for zero gain, 32 for losses and 64 for two yards or less. But let's look at those six big gainers: 40 (on a reverse by Georgia), 34, 32, 26 (on a fake punt by Missouri), 23 (on a reverse late in the game by Cal against the second-team defense) and 20, with the top four runs between 10 and 19 yards accounting for 64 more, so those top 10 opponent rushes add to 239 of 522 net yards by the opponent. So when figuring in those, and accounting for the sacks on the other end, a better picture of the opponent run game thus far in 2010 shows 115 rushes for 337 yards, or 2.93 per attempt.

COLORADO FOOTBALL MEDIA SERVICES

- Coach Dan Hawkins holds a Tuesday press luncheon in the Dal Ward Athletic Center, starting at 11:30 a.m. with lunch, followed by Hawkins beginning the interview session promptly at Noon. This year's dates: Sept. 7-14-28, Oct. 5-12-19-26, Nov. 2-9-16-22 (Monday)-30, Dec. TBA (bowl). NOTE that there is no organized press luncheon on Sept. 21 (bye week). The press conference portion of the luncheon is streamed live on www.CUBuffs.com (in the BuffsTV area); all press conferences on CUBuffs.com are free and thus do not require access codes.
- Hawkins can be heard Mondays (Aug. 31-Nov. 30) on the Big 12 Teleconference Call at 10:40 a.m. MT. All coaches participate; call the Big 12 office (469-524-1007) for access (media only—you must register). A teleconference replay is available after 3 p.m. MT the same day by phone (706/634-1618) or on www.Big12sports.com.
- Video highlights of CU football games are available anytime provided by the Big 12 Conference. Contact Bob Burda at the Big 12 office for approval and access (469/524-1007; bob@big12sports.com). Special requests can also be made through CU's BuffVision (Deric Swanson or Eric Pelloni: 303-735-3637).
- The Colorado lockerroom (home and road) is closed after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be made available (a list of players will be solicited immediately following the game; no cutoff to request players).
- Colorado's regular season football practices are closed to the general public (exception: those Sundays when the team does practice). The last 15 minutes of the Tuesday and Wednesday practices are open to the media and for any photography/video needs (just follow all parameters listed in CU's media policies). Thursday practices are closed to all except network TV personnel broadcasting the game.
- This year's standard meeting/practice schedule (mountain time, pre-time change): Sunday (3:15-4:00, 4:00-5:45); Monday (off); Tuesday (6:30-7:30/8:00-10:00), Wednesday (6:30-7:30/8:00-10:00), Thursday (6:30-7:30/8:15-10:00), Friday (9:00-10:00, afternoon/evening meetings).
- Interviews with Colorado players are allowed post-practice on Sundays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays (the cutoff moves up Tuesday for the Friday Nebraska game). Phone interviews with out-of-town media are allowed all three days in all time slots. Interviews on Mondays and later in the day on Tuesdays and Wednesdays are at the discretion of the player, as it being the standard player day off (no meetings/practice), CU can't arrange due to NCAA rules.
- Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Big 12 football. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, quotes, media guides and more for the conference and each member school throughout the season. Most FBS conferences are also accessible as well. Login information will be distributed to accredited media, and media members can also apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.
- CU On-Line Photo Database. The CU sports information service has an online photo database that allows registered members of the media instant access to print quality head shots of all CU coaches and student-athletes as well as action shots of key players. Registration is easy: for a login and password, simply log on to www.CUBuffs.com, select "Sports Information" from the "Athletic Department" menu located on the left navigation bar and follow the instructions.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE INTERNET

- Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Visit the official CU site at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes, press conference broadcasts (free) and articles by former Rocky Mountain News sportswriter B.G. Brooks. Go to www.CUBuffs.com/media and click on Media Center: it will link you to everything you'll need to know about CU football. "BuffsTV" offers the opportunity to listen and/or watch live game action of several CU athletic teams. Breaking news with the program will be found here first every time and delivered in full without others editing out what they might deem unessential.
- Audio. University of Colorado football and basketball can now be heard for free on the Internet at either CUBuffs.com or KOA-Radio (or its sister station, KKZN/AM760 for basketball). Your links: www.CUBuffs.com, www.850koa.com, www.am760.net.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE AIRWAYS

- KOA-Radio in Denver (850 AM) originates the 8-station CU Football Network, with sports director Mark Johnson in his seventh year as the play-by-play voice of the Buffs. Larry Zimmer (analysis) is in his 37th season broadcasting Colorado football (he handled play-by-play from 1971-81 and 1985-2003). Former CU offensive tackle Victor Rogers (pre- and postgame shows/sidelines) is in his first year on the broadcast team. Other cities on the network in addition to KOA/Denver metro: Alamosa (KALQ, 94.5FM), Aspen (KFNO, 106.1 FM), Durango (KRSJ, 100.5 FM), Grand Junction (KTMM, 1340AM) and Salida (KSBV, 93.7FM).
- Wednesdays at 7 p.m. (Sept. 1-Nov. 24), the Dan Hawkins Radio Show originates from The Lazy Dog Sports Bar & Grill (1346 Pearl Street in Boulder), with Johnson and Zimmer hosting the program which airs on KOA (or AM760 if a conflict with Colorado Rockies baseball).
- Satellite Radio: Sirius-XM is the satellite home of the Buffaloes; the CU-Baylor game (KOA broadcast) will be on Sirius Channel 154 (BU broadcast on 161).
- FOX Sports Net Rocky Mountain is the television home of the Buffaloes, as "The Buffalo Stampede" is broadcast in the six-state FSN area. The show airs a bit erratically in September due to Colorado Rockies baseball; the schedule: Sept. 2 (11:30 p.m.), Sept. 9 (7 p.m.), Sept. 16 (7 p.m.), Sept. 23 (6 p.m.), Sept. 30 (10 p.m.). Assistant AD and former CU QB Charles Johnson hosts the program; the show airs through the end of basketball season. It is also online at <http://buffalostampede.tv>.

JIM THORPE AWARD DEFENSIVE BACK-OF-THE-WEEK: SS Anthony Perkins (honorable mention, Sept. 18 vs. Hawai'i)

BOUNCING BACK

Colorado has been shut out just 11 times in the last 45 years, but usually bounces back strong, going 8-3 in its next game (6-2 at home) and outscoring that next opponent by 260-148. A closer look:

CREEK CLEANUP

How did CU spice up its bye week? Practice on Thursday (Sept. 23) started a little earlier so it would end at 9 a.m.; at that time, the players and coaches, numbering over 100, participated in cleaning up Boulder Creek from Broadway to 28th Street. We normally don't promote most of our community service ventures, as all players are required to do a minimum amount every semester at the request of head coach Dan Hawkins. But when an entire team cleans a public creek, well, that's news. It was no easy task, as the group easily removed a half ton of garbage if not more from the roughly 2-mile stretch of the creek.

INJURY UPDATE

Five games into the year many are nursing a few bumps and bruises; the most pressing issues currently are TB Brian Lockridge, who will try to play on an ankle that has some muscle issues, and SS Anthony Perkins, who finished the Missouri game playing on a sprained knee that will be re-evaluated early this week. The secondary as been the hardest hit in '10, as Parker Orms was lost for the year when he suffered a non-contact knee injury against CSU; the following week at California, Travis Sandersfeld, suffered an ankle fracture, followed by Paul Vigo, who was injured in the second quarter versus Hawai'i after just 18 plays (all three lined up at the nickel spot). The injury list as of October 11:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Missouri
OL	Shawn Daniels	foot	suffered a fracture against CSU; had surgery (Sept. 17)	OUT/SEASON
WR	Dusty Ebner	ankle	suffered a fracture in the first fall scrimmage (Aug. 12), had surgery to mend	OUT/1-2 WEEKS
CB	Vince Ewing	knee	suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament late in the first scrimmage (Aug. 12)	OUT/SEASON
TB	Brian Lockridge	ankle	suffered a sprain against Georgia; sat out the Missouri game	DAY-TO-DAY
FS	Parker Orms	knee	suffered a torn ACL on the third play of the opener (CSU, Sept. 4), had surgery (Sept. 24)	OUT/SEASON
SS	Anthony Perkins	knee	suffered a sprain at Missouri, re-evaluation Tuesday	DAY-TO-DAY
FS	Travis Sandersfeld	ankle	suffered a slight fracture at California (Sept. 11), no surgery needed	OUT/2-3 WEEKS
CB	Paul Vigo	leg	suffered a lower leg fracture in the second quarter versus Hawai'i	OUT/2-3 WEEKS
DE	Forest Webb	hamstring	suffered a slight pull in post-practice conditioning on Oct. 7	DAY-TO-DAY

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

THIRD DOWN DEFENSE REMAINS STRONG

In 2009, Colorado was solid defensively on third down, as the enemy converted at just 34.1 percent on the year (58-of-170); within those numbers were 26-of-89 (29.2%) at Folsom Field; 3-of-22 (13.6%) inside the Buff 20; and 13-of-28 on 3rd-&-2 or less and 28-of-59 on 3rd-&-4 or less, distances teams usually click around 60 percent or better. There was still a feast or famine factor, as opponents gained 913 yards on 58 makes (15.7 per), but gained just a net 15 on the 112 misses (0.1). Colorado was 21st in the nation in third down defense, spending all season in the top 25 and much of it in the top 15; only No. 2 Texas (7-of-14) converted at 50 percent or better against CU in 2009, the only team to do so against the Buffs in the last 20 games.

➔ In 2010, four games in, CU's third down defense continues to be solid, as the Buffs have held the opponent to a combined 19-of-61 (31.1, good for 16h in the young NCAA season. The opponent is also 1-of-6 on fourth down, and CU is tied for sixth nationally in fourth down defense; the combined 20-of-67 (29.9) on third and fourth down is the 11th best in the land.

AND ON OFFENSE

Third-and-short wasn't exactly CU's forte in 2009, as the Buffs were just 8-of-12 on 3rd-&-1 last fall; fast-forward to 2010, and Colorado is a much improved 8-of-10 on 3rd-&-1 (10-of-12 when including 4th-&-1). But it's just not with short yardage; CU is 37-of-77 (48.1%, 22nd in the NCAA) overall on third down, including 31-of-48 (64.6%) on 3rd-&-8 or less.

CROSSING MIDFIELD

Colorado has had 61 possessions on offense, and minus an own-territory scoring play (the 73-yard TD pass from Tyler Hansen to Toney Clemons against Hawai'i), has moved the ball into opponent, or plus, territory 31 times for 60 drives (51.7 percent). CU is averaging 22.8 yards of offense for those 31 possessions; the opponent, while crossing into CU's side of the field 36 of 59 times (61.0%), is averaging just 18 yards of offense for those 36 possessions.

PAPER OR PLASTIC

The Buffs have had one or more sacks in 25 straight games; in 2009, CU had a sack in every game over the course of a single season for the first time since 1996. In the opener against CSU, the Buffs had four sacks (including one for zero yards by DE Chidera Uzo-Diribe, which CU recognizes like the NFL but the NCAA does not); the Buffs have had three in one game and two in three others since the opener, giving them 13 for the season (or 2.6 per game).

UP AND AT 'EM... EARLY

Colorado is practicing regularly in the morning for first time in recent memory (at least since the 1950s as far as anyone can recall). The team begins meetings at 6:30 a.m., and practices in the 8-10 a.m. range on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Now college kids aren't exactly known for being early risers, but the team has embraced the new schedule; also with an abundance of upperclassmen for the first time in the Hawkins Era, classes they need for graduation are offered more and more in the afternoon, and over the last couple of years, many players were missing practice or had to be excused early to attend an afternoon class they needed to complete their requirements.

NO NAMES Also in 2010, the Buffaloes are not wearing nametags on the back of their jerseys after several seniors wanted to do away with them and to play for "the name on the front." It's the first time since 1983 that the Buffs are not displaying names. And in camp, the Buff helmets did not display the buffalo logos until after two-a-days ended, and even at that point, not all positions donned the mark until the season opener against Colorado State.

SIX-PACK OF QUESTIONS: OLB B.J. BEATTY

A quick six "Q&A" with senior outside linebacker B.J. Beatty:

If you could visit/vacation anywhere, where would you go? "Bora Bora. I have always wanted to go there."

Is there an NFL player you model your game after? "Ray Lewis. He is aggressive every play, always running around. He's always been my favorite player to watch."

What's your favorite sport to watch other than football? "MMA (mixed martial arts)."

What movie have you seen so many times that you know most of the lines? "I have many, but let's go with Grease." (at right)

What is your favorite thing to do on a day off? "Take my dog (Nohea, a pit bull retriever) for a jog."

Why do you wear number 59? "It was the number given to me, so I represent the number, it doesn't represent me."

DEFENSE AMONG NATIONAL 3-&-OUT LEADERS AGAIN

Colorado was among the national leaders in 2009 in forcing "three-and-outs," when the opponent is held to three plays then punting (or less if forcing a turnover or if stopped on fourth down without earning a first); the Buffs forced 53 in 12 games, 11th best in the nation. In 2010, the Buffaloes are once again among the nation's best, tied for sixth as we near the midway point of the season; here's a look at the national numbers as maintained by the Ohio State SID office:

School	G	3 & Outs	Avg.	School	G	3 & Outs	Avg.	School	G	3 & Outs	Avg.
Ohio State	6	37	6.17	Nebraska	5	23	4.60	Alabama	6	23	3.83
TCU	6	34	5.67	Boise State	5	22	4.40	Central Michigan	6	23	3.83
Buffalo	5	28	5.60	Idaho	5	22	4.40	Missouri	5	19	3.80
West Virginia	5	27	5.40	LSU	6	26	4.33	San Diego State	5	19	3.80
Utah	5	24	4.80	North Carolina State	6	26	4.33	Navy	5	19	3.80
Colorado	5	23	4.60	Arizona	5	20	4.00	Arizona State	6	22	3.67

SHARING SNAPS

Senior SN Joe Silipo and true freshman SN Ryan Iverson are handling the short and long snapping honors, respectively; together, they equal the total number of special team snappers CU had for the previous eight seasons. Greg Pace handled all the chores from 2002-05, with Justin Drescher doing the same from 2006-09. Iverson's snapped it 26 times and Silipo 16 to date.

DÉJÀ VU

Not that this is a particular great déjà vu, as it is not, but the parallels between CU's 52-7 loss at California on Sept. 11 and a loss by the exact same score 19 years ago against Nebraska in Lincoln are almost spooky. Take a look at the chart at the right, and the similarities in several categories are practically carbon copies. Late in the first half, turnovers deep in CU territory led to touchdowns in the final seconds (:11 remaining at Berkeley, :01 in Lincoln), scores that demoralized both CU teams going into the lockerroom. The score was 31-7 after three quarters in both instances, and the winning team fattened up the stats in the fourth quarter: NU had just 281 yards entering the fourth, while Cal had just 168—and was actually being outgained by the Buffaloes. Both CU teams placed its defense in terrible field position, especially in the first half. The good news is that the '92 team rebounded, won the rest of their games, and earned a berth in the Fiesta Bowl. Take a closer look:

Category	1992 vs. Nebraska	2010 vs. California
Score	7-52	7-52
Halftime	7-24	0-31
4th Qtr Pts Allowed	21	21
Opp. Average Starting Field Position.....	N47	Ca40
Yards Allowed	428	356
4th Qtr Yards Allowed	147	188
Opponent Return Yards.....	89	169
Turnovers.....	6	5
Opponent Points.....	24	31
Red Zone	6-8	6-6
TD's/FGs.....	5/1	5/1

Both teams used short fields and defensive returns to either score or set-up the bulk of its points. In CU history, the Buffaloes have allowed 50 or more points just 25 times (in 1,140 games); the Cal game marked just the fourth time that an opponent scored 50 points but did not record at least 400 yards in offense. The low was by Notre Dame, which gained 351 in a 55-14 win in South Bend in 1984; right behind was 352 by UCLA in the Bruins 56-14 win in the 1980 season opener (that's deceiving because UCLA coach Terry Donahue called off the dogs after building a 56-0 halftime lead). Next comes the 356 that California amassed this year in the 52-7 win, and then 398 by Missouri in a 57-0 win in Columbia in 1957.

THE 1,000 CLUB

TB Brian Lockridge is poised to reach the 1,000-yard mark in career kickoff return yardage; he has 917 entering the Missouri game and is thus 83 shy of the threshold. He is looking to become the 101st player in Colorado history to accumulate at least 1,000 yards in a single statistical category: 49 players have 1,000-plus career rushing yards, 29 have passed for 1,000 or more yards, 21 have a grand-plus in receiving yards and six have reached them mark in kickoff return yardage (no player has hit the plateau in punt return yards—Charlie Greer set the career mark of 975 in 1968, and no player in college football history has 1,000 in interception or fumble return yards). Now that adds up to the 1,000-yard being reached 105 times in school history, but five players have accumulated that many on two lists, all rushing and passing yards and all quarterbacks: Bobby Anderson, Mark Hatcher, Sal Aunese, Darian Hagan and Kordell Stewart, the last to do (in 1994). Lockridge has 412 rushing yards (he had 109 of those against Hawai'i and 36 last week versus UGA, so it appears he could start to earn more carries and thus look at joining the above five as double-dippers if so.

HANSEN QUICKLY MOVING UP A SPECIALTY CHART

Through just five games into his junior season (13 career starts), QB Tyler Hansen is already 14th in school history in true rushing yards by a quarterback. When adjusting for sack yardage to be thrown out of the equation, he has 131 true rushes for 790 yards, a healthy six yard average per rush. That last figure at present is topped by just two previous quarterbacks: Kordell Stewart averaged 7.04 yards per true rushing attempt (1991-94) and Bernard Jackson figured to 6.21 every time he carried the ball.

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2010

- 2 The number of games played in less than three hours to date in 2010 (1 under 2:50; just the 5th that fast or faster since 1990).
- 3 The number of interceptions the Buff defense had in the season opener; their most in 25 games ('07 finale vs. Nebraska).
- 7-of-38 The opponents' combined efforts on third down inside-the-CU 20 (or 18.4 percent) in the last 18 games (dating to 2008).
- 7 The number of kicks (6 field goal/1 PAT) by PK Aric Goodman that have hit the upright in his CU career (out of 22 misses).
- 9-3 Dan Hawkins' record following a bye week (3-3 at Colorado), which CU had prior to the Georgia game on October 2.
- 14 The consecutive number of games that Colorado has lost on the road (does not include neutral sites).
- 15-15 Colorado was 3-of-3 in the red zone against CSU, thus are now 15-of-15 (10 TDs) when cracking the 20 in Dan Hawkins' five season openers.
- 22 The number of games played in less than three hours since 1990, including the two this year (out of 250 games).
- 23 The number of "three-and-outs" the Buff defense has forced the opponent into (out of 59 possessions).
- 23-1 Colorado's record in season openers since 1967 when scoring first.
- 28.2 The third down efficiency of opponents against Colorado in the state's borders since the '09 opener (35-of-124).
- 41 The consecutive number of games that WR Scotty McKnight has caught a pass in, an active player best in the NCAA (42 including bowls).
- 68 The number of players CU used in the Colorado State game, its most since Sept. 8, 2001, when 68 also played in a 51-15 win over San Jose State.
- 85.7 The career conversion percentage on 3rd/4th-&-1 runs by TB Rodney Stewart (18-of-21; 7-of-8 this season).
- 1,142 The number of games Colorado has played in its history (121st season of intercollegiate football).

COLORADO TO MAKE MOVE TO PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE IN 2011

To the surprise of many, in the wild conference realignment scenarios this past spring, Colorado was the first domino to fall when the Buffaloes officially accepted an invitation to join the Pacific-10 Conference on June 11. The CU Board of Regents voted 9-0 in favor of the move, which originally was scheduled to take place for the 2012-13 athletic season was accelerated a year ahead of time, also by a 9-0 board vote on Sept. 21, which ratified a Big proposal to withhold $6.8 million in revenue distribution from the school for its departure penalty. The Buffs will now become a member of the newly created Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2011.

"This is an historic moment for the Conference, as the Pac-10 is poised for tremendous growth," said Commissioner Larry Scott. "The University of Colorado is a great fit for the Conference both academically and athletically and we are incredibly excited to welcome Colorado to the Pac-10."

"On behalf of The University of Colorado students, faculty, alumni and fans, we are proud to accept this invitation from the Pac-10 and join the most prestigious academic and athletic conference in the nation," said Phil DiStefano, chancellor of CU-Boulder. "The University of Colorado is a perfect match — academically and athletically — with the Pac-10," said University of Colorado President Bruce Benson, "our achievements and aspirations match those of the universities in the conference and we look forward to a productive relationship."

Colorado played a vital role in the creation of the Big 12, something apparently forgotten by many in the South Division, both media and administration alike. CU chancellor Jim Corbridge and athletic director Bill Marolt were key participants, Marolt being one of the top AD's in the nation at the time, which was the spring and summer of 1994; the school received an invitation of December that same year to join the Pac-10, but the Regents voted 6-3 not to join on the advice of both Corbridge and Marolt because CU had played such a significant role in expanding the old Big 8 Conference to add the four Texas schools.

Marolt: "The Big 12 was created when CU was sitting in the chair of the Big 8. All of the decisions related to the conference and the television deals were done at meetings of all members of the 12 eventual schools. I was chair of the athletic directors and Jim was the same for the faculty reps. As you know the chair controls meetings and the agenda so both Jim and I were intimately involved. It's too bad Carl James is no longer alive because he would confirm our role and quiet the historical revisionists."

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-10: the two will be travel partners, and most assume it won't be a cozy as the current five mates. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

COLORADO, OHIO STATE TO MEET IN 2011

When it comes to intersectional match-ups on the football field, Colorado and Ohio State are often in a league of their own, so it makes perfect sense that the two will resume their brief but eventful series next year in Columbus. The schools jointly announced on August 24 that the Buffaloes will travel to Ohio Stadium on Sept. 24, 2011, to play the host Buckeyes in the nation's fourth largest stadium (102,329 capacity). It will mark the fifth time the two schools will play in football, the third time in Columbus, as the previous two times represented the sixth and eighth largest crowds a Colorado football team has ever played before. OSU leads the series, 3-1.

"Colorado has always recognized the significance of playing marquee opponents in the non-conference portion of our football schedule," CU athletic director Mike Bohn said. "This is a tremendous opportunity on the national platform to schedule a game with Ohio State, which has been one of the nation's premier programs and whom we have a lot of respect for. We're looking forward to what will be CU's first trip to the 'Horseshoe' in 25 years."

The 1986 game was the last meeting between the two, with the host Buckeyes escaping with a 13-10 win on a field goal with 25 seconds left in the game. The first meeting in 1971, also in Columbus, was the site of one of CU's greatest road victories in its history. The Buffs, who had won at No. 9 Louisiana State two weeks earlier, rolled into Ohio State ranked No. 10 and defeated the No. 6 Buckeyes, 20-14. CU went on to finish 10-2 and as the No. 3 team in the nation that season.

The two also met in the 1977 Orange Bowl; after taking an early 10-0 lead, the Buffs were shut down the rest of the way by a tremendous Buckeye defense in losing, 27-10. The other game in the series was in 1985, when Ohio State visited Boulder and left with a 36-13 win; that game also is historical in the fact that the Buffs started that season with a 2-0 record, and fans were coming back on board after six straight losing seasons: that day, 7,611 people purchased tickets, which still ranks as the largest walk-up game day sale in school history and one of the largest for any sporting event in state history, only recently topped by the Colorado Rockies.

The game, coordinated by both athletic directors and their respective television partners, is a one-time affair with no return trip to Boulder. Ohio State will pay CU $1.4 million for the visit, with the Buffs to earn additional dollars if the game is televised, which is highly likely.

Colorado opens the 2011 season at Hawai'i on Sept. 3, will have a home game on Sept. 10 (California was slated to return to Boulder in this slot, but that is now cancelled), is set to play Colorado State in Denver on Sept. 17, and is working with Fresno State to move a game in Boulder that had been scheduled on Oct. 8. The Buffaloes won't know its inaugural Pac-10 conference schedule until everything is sorted out, possibly later this month, in regard to divisions and revenue sharing. Because of the game in Honolulu, CU has the option of playing a 13th game, which it will do.

THREE HOURS? WE DON'T NEED NO STINKIN' THREE HOURS

Thanks to combining for just 118 plays (60 by Colorado, 58 by CSU), the third lowest combined count in a CU game since the elimination of the platoon era (1965), the season opener took just 2:49 to play. That was CU's first-sub three hour game since 2006 (2:55 vs. Iowa State), and its fastest since earlier that same year when the CU-CSU game took all of 2:48 to play (also in Denver). Perhaps the players and coaches wanted it to end fast; the 90 degree temperature tied for the sixth warmest temp at kickoff in school annals, just one degree off the school high for a game played in the state of Colorado (two 91 degree affairs in Boulder (vs. Washington in 2000 and vs. Fresno State in 2001).

➤ Fast-forward to week three, and the Hawai'i game took just 2:57; however in that one, the teams combined for 133 plays (CU 78, UH 55).

SERIES HISTORY—COLORADO VS. BAYLOR

Colorado leads the series by a 9-6 count, which up until both became members of the Big 12 Conference, consisted of three home-and-home arrangements, two solo Baylor trips to Folsom and the 1986 Bluebonnet Bowl. Colorado leads 5-3 in games played in Boulder, with the Bears taking the last meeting by a 34-31 score, the only game in CU history that has gone multiple overtimes (three). The Buffs own a 4-2 edge in the series since 1998, when the two first met as conference members. The Bears' 16-14 win in Boulder in 1991 ended a CU 11-game winning streak, the nation's longest at the time, as well as a 15-game winning streak at Folsom Field, which had tied a school record. Many games have been particularly high scoring, particularly in 1973, when CU won 52-28; in 1992, when the Buffs hung on in what turned out to be a second half track meet, 57-38, after leading 33-3 late in the first half; and in Waco in 2003, when Baylor rallied from a 23-14 deficit early in the second half for a 42-30 win. Since the Buffs won the two games before that loss via shutout (34-0 in 2002 and 37-0 in 1999), the teams have combined for 203 points in three games, or 67.7 per. Dan Hawkins is 1-1 against Baylor; Baylor's Art Briles is 0-0 against the Buffaloes. SERIES DID YOU KNOW — In the 1998 game at Folsom, CU donned gold jerseys in an effort to salute the past history of Colorado football. The idea was born out of the NFL's idea in 1995 to wear "throwback" jerseys to different eras of league franchises. The jerseys received mixed reviews; while looking sharp up close, they didn't make for good television. This year's 1990 throwbacks are much, much better.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 18th. In 1992, Kordell Stewart completed 16-of-17 passes for 251 yards before leaving with an ankle injury as the Buffaloes zoomed to a 33-3 lead two minutes before halftime and then held on for a 57-38 win. Baylor battled back to within 36-24 late in the third quarter, leading up to a scoring frenzy in the fourth with five touchdowns, three by CU with two by Lamont Warren. CU's last score of the game was a 39-yard touchdown pass from Duke Tobin to current CU defensive technical intern Donnell Leomiti (he had two catches in the game for 46 yards). Leomiti eventually switched to safety to finish off his career. WR Michael Westbrook had quite the game, with 11 catches for 186 yards and a touchdown, while Warren scored three times though only rushed for 41 yards on 19 tries. Baylor's J.J. Joe, who returns with the Baylor radio crew this year, completed just six passes in the game—but for 262 yards, as all six went for 25 yards or longer including an 80-yard pass play for a score.

BUFFS & BEARS BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia or fun facts with Colorado and Baylor:

- 3 The number of touchdown runs by Bobby Anderson in a 27-7 Colorado win in 1967;
- 3 The number of overtimes in the 2006 game, CU's first multiple-OT game in its history;
- 5 The number of offensive touchdowns Baylor scored in the 2003 meeting, a 42-30 Bear win in Waco in 2003;
- 22 The number of tackles by CU linebacker Greg Biekert in the 1991 game;
- 39 The length in yards of Kordell Stewart's "Hail Mary" pass at the end of the first half of the 1993 game; it was tipped by Michael Westbrook into the hands of Charles Johnson (the precursor to the next September at Michigan);
- 50 The length of a Pat Blottiaux field goal in the '92 game, the 13th longest in Colorado history at the time;
- 77.8 The completion percentage by Kordell Stewart in CU's 45-21 win over the Bears in 1993 (14-of-18 for 221 yards and 2 TDs);
- 85.3 The career completion percentage by Kordell Stewart in two games against Baylor (30-of-35 for 472 yards, 5 TDs, 0 INT);
- 89 The number of rushing and passing yards by Baylor in the 1998 game (or 178 total);
- 94.1 The completion percentage by Kordell Stewart in CU's 57-38 win at Baylor in 1992 (16-of-17 for 251 yards and 3 TDs);
- 915 The combined yards in the 2007 game in Waco, the most in a single game in the series (CU 450, BU 465);
- 282:43 The amount of time (out of 360 minutes) that CU has led Baylor in the five previous Big 12 conference games (BU has led 35:22; tied 41:55);
- 186 The number of receiving yards by Michael Westbrook in the 1992 game;
- 1986 The year the two schools met in the postseason—the 1986 Bluebonnet Bowl (won by Baylor, 21-9).

THE SET-UP

In what will likely be the last meeting between Colorado and Baylor in the regular season in football for the foreseeable future, the Buffs, coming off a 26-0 loss at Missouri, will be out to avoid a fifth 0-2 start in Big 12 league play in the 15 seasons of competition. Baylor, on the other hand, has opened 2-1 just once, doing so in 2006 (when the Bears opened 2-0 en route to their best league record ever posted in the Big 12, 3-5; that included a 34-31 three-overtime win over Colorado in Boulder).

PUNCH VS. PUNCH

Pretty much a basic offense versus defense match-up: the Bears are 12th nationally, clicking at 477 yards per game, held under 450 by only TCU (263), while the Buffs come in ranked 44th in defense, allowing 338.4 yards per game and have faced four high powered offenses (California, Hawai'i, Georgia, Missouri).

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: OCTOBER 16

Colorado is 8-3-3 all-time on October 16, having played on the road seven times the last nine times it has played on the date; the Buffs are 4-0-2 at home, starting with an 18-0 whitewash of Denver Manual High School in 1897. No one has come forth to tell us how that game played out, but here are some highlighted games on the date: 1926—Straight from the CU yearbook: "Wyoming came down to Laramie boasting a "wonder" team (a wonder team?), and confidently expected to win their first football victory (over CU) in the history of the football competition between the schools. Wyoming has yet to taste the fruits on victory, however, as C.U. played one of its best games of the season and held them to a 13 13 tie (no hyphen). Bill Bohn (no relation to current AD Mike Bohn) proved the hero of the day, scoring both (CU) touchdowns in addition to playing a strong defensive game." 1937—Erv Cheney scored both touchdowns and Byron White tacked on both extra points as the Buffs earned a hard-fought 14-0 win over Brigham Young in Boulder. CU held the edge in offense, 333-139, but the sloppy game saw each team turn the ball over four times and White was limited to a season-low 75 rushing yards. 1954—John Bayuk rushed for 109 yards to lead a methodical CU ground attack to lead the Buffs to a 20-0 win over Iowa State in Ames. Colorado had 319 total rushing yards and threw but three passes in not wanting tip off future opponents on hand scouting the Buffs. Coach Dal Ward was the only Buff on the injury list, aggravating a slipped disk in his back that almost prevented him from making the trip to Iowa. 1965—Frank Rogers' 33-yard field goal with 21 seconds left in the game salvaged a 10-10 tie with Iowa State in Boulder. Five CU turnovers helped do the Buffs in, but the defense held ISU to just 193 total yards to keep the Cyclones at bay. 1971—No. 2 Oklahoma dealt No. 6 Colorado its first loss of the year with a 45-17 defeat in Norman. The Sooners zoomed to a 24-0 halftime lead, but the Buffs battled back to within 31-17 after an explosive third quarter, nut a 68-yard pass from Jack Mildren to Joe Wylie to open the fourth sealed CU's fate. 1976—CU and Oklahoma State had already played their fair share of weird games, but this may have been the most bizarre. Leading 10-6 at home, OSU's Jerry Cramer intercepted a Jeff Knapple pass on the goal line with 1:37 left, only to have CU's Steve Gauntly dislodge the ball, giving CU new life on the Cowboy 1. After Knapple failed on a quarterback sneak, one which OSU was certain he fumbled but the referees ruled the play over before the ball came loose, Jim Kelleher powered in from a yard out for a 13-10 Buff lead with 43 seconds left. CU then added another score on a 25-yard interception return by Frank Patrick with 0:18 on the clock and CU escaped town with a 20-10 win, which would prove vital: CU, OSU and Oklahoma all tied for the league lead with 5-2 marks, but CU's wins over OU and OSU earned it the bid to the Orange Bowl. 1982—Tom Field's 49-yard field goal as time expired salvaged a 25-25 at Oklahoma State, culminating another wild finish in the series. Victor Scott had three interceptions, returning two for scores, the second helping CU to a 22-10 lead with less than five minutes to play. The Pokes' had worn down the CU defense and scored two quick touchdowns on 80 and 78 yard marches, tacking on a 22-point conversion after the second score for a 25-22 lead with 32 seconds to play. But Randy Essington completed a 22-yard pass to Donnie Holmes and then a 24-yard toss to Dave Hestera that worked the ball to the OSU 32, where Field made his heroics. 1993—Lamont Warren rushed for a career-high 182 yards with CU dominating the trenches on both sides of the ball to lead the No. 20 Buffaloes to a 27-10 win over the No. 9 Sooners in Norman. Kordell Stewart picked up 58 yards on just six tries and Rashaan Salaam added 55 and a touchdown on 10 carries and CU had 314 rushing yards; Stewart also threw for 151 and Warren for 34 for 185 through the air... and 499 total (some shenanigans on the last play by the stat crew lowered the Buff total from 500). Charles Johnson snagged five passes for 136 yards, including touchdowns covering 64 and 34 yards—the latter was from Warren on a halfback pass that earned college football's play of the year, as Warren slipped on the halfback option but still somehow got enough mustard on the ball. 1999—Texas Tech broke open a scoreless game with 17 second quarter points with freshman Shaud Williams rushing for 230 yards and two touchdowns as the Red Raiders defeated CU, 31-10, in the Buffs first visit to Lubbock since 1976. Cortlen Johnson did rush for a then-career high 107 yards in the game for one of the few CU highlights. 2004—Mason Crosby kicked four field goals—including a school record 60-yarder—to lead the Buffs to 19-14 win over Iowa State. The kick was his second of the game and gave CU a 13-0 lead at the time, and following an ISU interception return for a score, he made good on a 54-yard try as the clock expired in the second quarter for a 16-7 halftime lead. The outcome was never really in doubt, as ISU closed the gap to the final margin with 2:38 to play.

OCTOBER 16 COLORADO MVP: TB Lamont Warren (1993 at Oklahoma). He had 216 yards of total offense, a career-high 182 rushing and another 34 on a halfback option touchdown pass he threw to Charles E. Johnson that gave CU a 20-0 lead midway in the second quarter in an eventual win over the No. 9 Sooners.

BAYLOR NOTES

Baylor is 4-2 overall and 1-1 in the Big 12, opening up the second half of the season by traveling outside the state of Texas for the first time. They opened the season with nearly identical 34-3 and 34-6 wins over Sam Houston State and Buffalo, respectively, in Waco, before they traveled to then-No. 4 TCU and lost 45-10. The Bears closed out September with a 30-13 win at Rice before taking it to Kansas, 55-7, at home on October 2. Last week, Baylor and Texas Tech met in Dallas at Cowboys Stadium and the Red Raiders came out on top of a 45-38 shootout, the 15th consecutive win for Texas Tech in that series. QB Robert Griffin III has been the focus of the offense for Baylor, and he has been in on 19 of the Bears' 22 offensive touchdowns this season. He has completed 64.4 percent of his passes for 1,735 yards and 13 touchdowns with just two interceptions for a QB rating of 154.5, helping Baylor attain the No. 7 passing offense in the nation this season. He also has six of Baylor's eight rushing touchdowns this season and leads the Big 12 and ranks fourth nationally in total offense (329 yards per game). His favorite targets are Kendall Wright (33 receptions, 449 yards, 3 TDs), Terrance Williams (21-263-3) and Josh Gordon (19-423-5). The Bears ability for the big play through the air has been especially prevalent this season, as Griffin III's 13 touchdown passes have covered an average of 44.3 yards, as six players have caught at least one pass of 40-plus yards and three players have caught a pass of 62 yards or longer.

- ➔ Baylor coach Art Briles is in his third season, compiling a 12-18 record there. His four wins this season match his win total from each of his first two years. He is in his eighth year as a head coach and has a 46-46 record in 92 career games. Prior to Baylor, he was the head coach at his alma mater, Houston, for five years, with a 34-28 mark, including a 10-4 record in 2006 when he won the Eddie Robinson national coach of the year award. He went to Houston when the Cougars were just two years removed from an 0-11 season. He spent the first 21 years of his coaching career in the Texas high school ranks, the last of which (Stephenville) he led to four state championships. In 2000, he made the jump to the college ranks, coaching the running backs at Texas Tech for four seasons before moving on to head coach at Houston.
- ➔ Baylor is coming off a 45-38 shootout loss to Texas Tech at Cowboys Stadium in a game that saw 1,142 yards of total offense. The game was a back-and-forth affair with the team's alternating three touchdowns each until Texas Tech scored two unanswered mid-way through the second quarter to take a 35-21 lead. Baylor would pull with a touchdown at halftime, 35-28, but Texas Tech scored a touchdown and field goal in the third quarter to open up a 45-28 lead. Baylor pulled within a touchdown at 45-38 less than a minute into the fourth quarter and then the scoring stopped. The Bears did have a 12 play drive that took over five minutes off the clock mid way through the fourth quarter but it was stopped as Baylor turned the ball over on downs. Robert Griffin III had career highs with 31 completions off of 42 attempts for 384 yards and had two touchdowns passing and a pair of scores on the ground and he also caught a pass. He was responsible for four of the Bears' five touchdowns. Kendall Wright had 11 receptions for 145 yards and a score.

THE LAST TIME: COLORADO 43, BAYLOR 23

OCTOBER 7, 2007 (WACO, TEXAS)

WACO, Texas — Cody Hawkins passed for 293 yards and two touchdowns, Demetrius Sumler scored three times and Kevin Eberhart tied a school record with five field goals as Colorado raced to a 40-9 third quarter lead in coasting to a 43-23 win over the Baylor Bears.

The victory snapped a 7-game road losing streak for the Buffaloes, which had not won outside the state's borders since a 23-20 verdict at Kansas State in October 2005.

Sumler's 7-yard catch early in the second quarter was the second touchdown thrown by Hawkins and propelled the Buffs to what turned out to be an insurmountable 17-0 lead. It came after CU dominated the first period, with Hawkins and Dusty Sprague playing catch on the first possession of the game. Sprague caught three passes for 81 yards on the drive, with the last one a 26-yard bullet for the game's first score. Eberhart missed his first field goal attempt early in the quarter, but came back to drill a 41-yard effort later in the period for a 10-0 CU lead.

Sumler scored on a 3-yard run just two plays after Ryan Walters recovered a Baylor fumble at the Bears 26-yard line. Hawkins completed a 23-yard pass to Kendrick Celestine to the three, setting up Sumler's touchdown and a 24-3 CU lead. After a Baylor touchdown, Eberhart kicked three field goals in the next six minutes to run the lead to 33-9; within that trio of kicks was a career-best 54-yard kick as time expired in the first half, a play that was possible because D.J. Dykes sprinted some 30 yards up field to fair catch a short Baylor punt with just four seconds left before halftime.

The second half dragged a bit, especially since it was a typical hot, humid Texas evening. Sumler added his third score on a 2-yard run midway through the third quarter to give CU its big lead at 40-9; the Bears added a couple of late cosmetic scores well after the game was decided, with Eberhart closing the Buff scoring with a 30-yard chip shot, as his first four efforts were all in excess of 40 yards.

Hugh Charles ran 19 times for 109 yards and Hawkins completed 17 of 26 passes in pacing a balanced Buffalo offense. Eberhart tied the school mark for field goals made (5), attempted (6) as well as points scored by a kicker for a game (19).

Baylor quarterback Blake Szymanski also entered the record book, as he completed 36 of 60 passes, both school marks, for 410 yards.

GAME NOTES

Colorado opened 2-0 in the Big 12 for the sixth time in the 12-year history of the conference (previously done in 1996, 1998, 2001, 2002, 2005)... Colorado's 30-point first half was its highest since half leading Texas A&M 31-10 at intermission on Oct. 8, 2005... the 43 points were the most since a 44-13 win over Kansas that same season (Oct. 22) and were the second most points by the Buffs in the last 41 games... CU is now 19-4 the week after playing a top 5 team dating back to 1986... Colorado has now doubled its win total over last year's 2-10 mark; it's the 16th time in school history (118 seasons) that the Buffs will have at least doubled its win total from the previous season. This tied for the seventh quickest in doing so, but the second fastest in the last 75 seasons (1892, 1894, 1907, 1917, 1933, 1985)... The 60 passing attempts by Baylor were the fifth-most ever against CU (the most since Texas Tech set the record of 65 against CU in 2002); the 36 completions tied for the third most... The last team to throw for over 400 yards against CU was Colorado State, with 403 in the 2004 season opener... WR Dusty Sprague came in with eight catches for 93 yards and almost equaled the yards on CU's first scoring drive, as he caught three passes for 81 yards on CU's 7-play, 82-yard possession to open the game; he finished with five for 95 and the score... TE Nate Solder made his first career start tonight... ILB Jordon Dizon made his first interception of his career, coming in the first quarter; DE Alonzo Barrett had his first career interception, and the first interception by a CU defensive lineman since DE Abraham Wright at Oklahoma State on Oct. 1, 2005... TB Cory Nabors saw his first career action, in the first half on kickoff coverage; DT Eric Lawson played for the first time as a Buff (in the fourth quarter)... This was the 27th time in CU history the Buffaloes had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game, the first time since it happened three times in 2004 (TB Hugh Charles 20-122 rush; WR Josh Smith 2-103 receiving).

McKNIGHT KEEPS MAKING HISTORY; TWO BIG ONES REMAIN

Junior Scotty McKnight has caught a pass in every game he has played in as a Colorado Buffalo—40 regular season plus the one bowl game for a total of 41. He shattered the previous school record for the most consecutive games with at least one reception, 27, set by Charles E. Johnson between 1991 and 1993 (CU records do not include bowl games; if it did, McKnight also topped Johnson's 29 straight). That was his first foray into the record books in 2009.

NCAA BEST: Nationally, McKnight enters the year with the nation's longest streak of games played with at least one reception (he ended '09 tied for the ninth longest); here's the list as compiled by the Central Michigan SID office (these include postseason): Scotty McKnight, Colorado 42; Dwayne Harris, East Carolina 36; Titus Young, Boise State 35; James Rodgers, Oregon State 33; Jock Sanders, West Virginia 33; Greg Salas, Hawai'i 33; Tyson Carrier, Houston 32; Damaris Johnson, Tulsa 32; Shane Vereen, California 31; Ryan Broyles, Oklahoma 30; Kito Poblach, CMU 30; Kendall Wright, Baylor 30.

He cracked the top 10 at Colorado in both all-time receptions and all-time receiving yards early in 2009, and continued to zoom up both charts; he's now first in catches (passing Michael Westbrook in the first game this season), fifth in receiving yards and tied for fourth in touchdown receptions. A closer look:

All-Time Receptions

Rk	Player (Seasons)	No.	Yards	Avg.	TD
1	Scotty McKnight (2007-10)	186	2,150	11.6	17
2	Michael Westbrook (1991-94)	167	2,548	15.3	19
3	Phil Savoy (1994-97)	152	2,176	14.3	14

All-Time Receiving Yards

Rk	Player (Seasons)	No.	Yards	Avg.	TD
1	Michael Westbrook (1991-94)	167	2,548	15.3	19
2	Rae Carruth (1992-96)	135	2,540	18.8	20

4	Phil Savoy (1994-97)	152	2,176	14.3	14
5	Scotty McKnight (2007-10)	186	2,150	11.6	17
6	Derek McCoy (2000-03)	134	2,038	15.2	20

McKnight finished the '09 season with 76 receptions for 893 yards; those numbers tied for second and seventh for a single-season at CU. His 56-yard TD catch to close the Nebraska game (and CU's season) was the longest pass reception of his career (previous long was 40 his freshman year).

OTHER WALKONS TO MAKE THEIR MARK

McKnight, a former walk-on who was awarded a scholarship prior to his sophomore year, joined a few other prominent former walk-ons in making his mark on the CU program:

WR JEFF CAMPBELL (1986-89): Led CU in punt returns three seasons and his 84 returns is still tied as the school career mark; his 31.3 average per catch for the 1988 season remains as the school record for the highest with a minimum of 15 receptions; at one point held the record for the longest reception (90 yards).

QB JOEL KLATT (2002-05): He set 44 school records, mostly passing, including setting the mark for all-time passing yards (7,375) which still stands.

DB RYAN SUTTER (1994-97): Set the school record for most career special teams tackles (64) as well as points (123); his 170 tackles as a senior were (and remain) the second most in a single season in school annals.

P JOHN TORP (2002-05): The runner-up for the '05 Ray Guy Award set five school records, including most punts inside-the-20 (65) and over 50 yards (64).

200 BACK-TO-BACK

Colorado rushed for 235 yards in its 29-27 win over Georgia, the second straight game the Buff rushing attack amassed over 200 yards (CU had 252 against Hawai'i). That marked the first time the Buffs rushed for 200-plus yards back-to-back (after going 19 straight games under 200) since 2006, when they did it twice (Baylor/Texas Tech and Kansas State/Iowa State); all six of these games were in Boulder. In his career, coach Dan Hawkins' teams are now 40-1 in his career when rushing for 200 or more yards (8-1 at Colorado; the only loss was against KSU in 2006, and have won six in a row since then when hitting 200 yards on the ground). Colorado is 81-5-1 when rushing for 200 or more yards since the start of the 1989 season.

NON-CONFERENCE POUNDING

The assumption by some was that Colorado was going to air it out in 2010, but that didn't prove to be the case in non-league play. The Buffs ran 281 plays, calling 166 running plays (59 percent) and 115 pass plays (which include 10 times the quarterback has been sacked). If the trend holds, it would be the first time CU will predominately run the ball since 2006, when Bernard Jackson was at the controls and was a running QB. In 2009, CU called rushing plays 39 percent of time, with figures of 48 percent in 2008 and 49 percent in 2007; with Jackson behind center in '06, running plays were on the agenda 60 percent of the calls. Otherwise, you have to go back to 2002 to find a Buff team that ran the ball over 50 percent of the time (and with Chris Brown and Bobby Purify taking handoffs, CU ran the rock to the tune of 65 percent of its plays).

➤ Against Missouri, the Buffs fell behind early and had to play catch-up, thus threw the ball a season-high 46 times.

STATBULLETS

➤ Opponents have scored 40 percent of their points this season (38 of 121) after Buff turnovers, including two return for scores; they have just nine TDs in 47 possessions against CU in 2010 (with six field goals and 32 non-scores).

➤ TB Rodney Stewart's 22-yard run for a first down on 3rd-&-22 late in the first half at Missouri was the 3rd-&-20 or longer conversion by a rush since at least 1993; we're still researching that puppy.

COULD EVERY PLAY BE PRECIOUS?

Nobody, especially coaches, like to waste plays, but if the count from the first game of year is any indication, plays might be precious. There were no clock changes by the football rules committee in the off-season, which spent the last half of last decade tinkering with timing, so the fact that CU and CSU ran a combined 118 plays can't be attributed to that. But the 118 count ranks as the third fewest plays CU and its foe combined to run in a game since 1965, when college football eliminated the platoon system. And while CU did run 76 plays in game two at California, the Bears only ran 60 in their 52-7 win.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 23rd most all-time (Michigan State in 22nd with 303, Pittsburgh is 24th with 288). Since 1989, CU has played the fifth most ranked teams in the nation (105), trailing only Florida (117), Florida State (108), Ohio State (106) and Michigan (106).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 12TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 12th most in the nation in this time frame (21-plus seasons). Florida State has the most with 71, followed by Florida (68), Ohio State (61), Michigan (60), Miami, Fla. (54), Southern Cal (53), Tennessee (52), Alabama (49), Texas (45), LSU (44), Oklahoma (44), Colorado (43), Penn State (43), Georgia (40) and Notre Dame (40); as for the Big 12, after CU, UT and OU, the next schools on this list are Nebraska (39), Texas A&M (29) and Texas Tech (23). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas last year (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team. CU has lost 10 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win at UCLA 31-17 in 2002.

REVERSAL OF FORTUNE

In 2009, the Buffs started 55 drives either inside (39) or at its own 20-yard line (16), but only scored three times on those possessions (16 points total on two touchdowns and a field goal). But in 2010, Colorado has started 27 drives in the same circumstances (18 inside, 9 at the 20), and have already exceeded the number of scores from a year ago (three) with five touchdowns (or 36 points). So there's some evidence of offensive improvement via sustaining drives.

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts through games of October 9 (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career number will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ CB JALIL BROWN is tied for 42nd in interceptions (5) and is tied for 15th in pass deflections (21);
- ⇒ PK ARIC GOODMAN is 31st in scoring and ninth in kick-scoring (119 points) and is also tied for 11th in field goals made (16);
- ⇒ QB TYLER HANSEN is 12th in passing yards (2,553), 10th in pass completions (245), 12th in passing attempts (422), 11th in touchdown passes (14), 18th in total offense (2,925) and is 14th in adjusted rushing yards by a quarterback (790);
- ⇒ QB CODY HAWKINS is third in passing yards (5,995), is second in completions (559), is second in attempts (1,008), is first in touchdown passes (46), is first in interceptions (37) and is third in total offense (5,857);
- ⇒ DE MARQUEZ HERROD is 31st in quarterback sacks (10);
- ⇒ TB BRIAN LOCKRIDGE is seventh in kickoff return yards (917) and is ninth in returns (40);
- ⇒ WR SCOTTY McKNIGHT is first in receptions (186), is fifth in receiving yards (2,150), is tied for fourth in receiving touchdowns (17), is tied for 36th in scoring (108), is 21st in total yards from scrimmage (2,154) and is 32nd in all-purpose yards (2,211).
- ⇒ TB RODNEY STEWART is 20th in rushing yards (1,919), is 22nd in yards from scrimmage (2,142), is 39th in all-purpose yards (2,142) and is tied for 56th in scoring (84 points).

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001, 2002 and 2004 seasons—when the Buffs won the Big 12 North. The Buffs had advantages of 854-417 (2001), 803-607 (2002) and 574-499 (2004) in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. In the Hawkins Era, in 2006, the opponent had the upper hand at 390-277, but in 2007 (677-408) and 2008 (518-323) CU had hefty edges; opponents had a rare 631-267 command in 2009 and again this fall (318-91). And the Buffs have 46 return and/or non-offensive touchdowns over the last 12 seasons (42 regular season, four bowl game), the 17th most in the nation for this span. STEWART CLIMBING THE RUSHING CHARTS

Junior TB Rodney Stewart is the featured runner in the Buffs' rushing attack, figuring to get the bulk of the carries as he did over the last 10 games of the 2009 season (197 attempts compared to 36 by the other three tailbacks combined). He had five 100-yard games as a sophomore, ending with a 110-yard day against Nebraska's vaunted rushing defense, which had been allowing 99 yards per game and less than three yards per carry. He had three multiple rushing TD games in 2009, the most since Chris Brown had six in 2002 (and five in '01). Overall, 367 of his 804 yards came after he was first hit by a defender (45.6 percent). But on to 2010:

- ◆ He has started off 2010 on a good note, with 493 yards, 143 after contact, in the first five games.
- ◆ He has 104 carries on the season, 86 which have gained yards (10 for no gain and just eight for losses).
- ◆ He had 19 carries for 149 yards against Georgia, and was never thrown for a loss, the 43rd game in CU history where a player rushed for 140 or more yards without being tackled once for a loss (it tied for 34th on the list). The record is 259 yards by Rashaan Salaam versus Iowa State on Nov. 19, 1994.
- ◆ He has now cracked the top 20 on CU's all-time rushing chart, holding down the 20th spot with 1,919 career yards.
- ◆ Stewart now has 10 career 100-yard rushing games (two in 2010); that's tied for the 11th most in school history. Ahead of him: Eric Bieniemy 22, Chris Brown 14, Rashaan Salaam 14, Charlie Davis 13, Bobby Anderson 11, James Mayberry 11, Hugh Charles 10, Merwin Hodel 10, Cortlen Johnson 10, Bobby Purify 10, , Rodney Stewart 10.
- ◆ And in the NCAA? — CAREER 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES (NCAA Active Players): 1. Vai Taua, Nevada 10; 2. John Clay, Wisconsin 17; 3. Jacquizz Rogers, Oregon State 16; 4. Montel Harris, Boston College 15; 5. Kendall Hunter, Oklahoma State 14; 6. Mark Ingram, Alabama 13; 6. Colin Kaepernick, Nevada 13; 6. Evan Royster, Penn State 13; 6. LaMichael James, Oregon 13; 10. Lance Dunbar, North Texas 12; 11. Rodney Stewart, Colorado 10; 11. Dion Lewis, Pitt 10; 11. Alexander Robinson, Iowa State 10; 11. Ryan Williams, Virginia Tech 10.
- ◆ He became the 49th player in Colorado history to record at least 1,000 career rushing yards, and reached the number in his 14th game, and the 12th to reach the mark as a sophomore. He recorded the second most career yards by a player at CU entering his junior year with 1,426, trailing only Eric Bieniemy, CU's all-time leading rusher, who had 1,751 after two seasons; Stewart was just the 12th player at CU to reach 1,000 yards by his junior season.

CHART-MANIA

The below charts offer a look at what Colorado has accomplished over the 24 football seasons between 1985 through 2009 (list includes only those schools who have been members of Division I-A all 21 seasons):

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-09 Record	Dan Hawkins Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-50-2	8-17-1	1-2	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-86-3	14-30-2	1-4	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-108-3	20-40-2	1-9	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-141-3	43-60-2	3-14	20 / Bill McCartney

CU, Nebraska and Texas have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the 15-year old league owns a 39-85 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own nine of those wins. CU is 9-12 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 8-7, Texas 7-6, Oklahoma 4-6, Missouri 3-5, Kansas 2-3, Kansas State 2-5, Baylor 1-6, Oklahoma State 1-6, Iowa State 1-10, Texas Tech 1-10 and Texas A&M 0-9. CU has played 21 of the 123 games, with Nebraska next with 15 followed by Texas (13).

HANSEN JUST THE ELEVENTH

When he appeared late in the first quarter against Kansas State as a true freshman (Oct. 18, 2008), QB Tyler Hansen became just the 11th true freshman to see action in a game for Colorado since 1972, the year freshmen were once again eligible to play. Hansen was ticketed to redshirt in 2009, but the wraps came off that in the Texas game (fifth of the season) and he was promoted to starter for the following game. It's still possible another true freshman could very well join the below list at some point this season (CU's has three quarterbacks who are all true frosh). Here's a look at the group Hansen joined and how they fared; game number indicates how far into the season the player made his debut (Colorado is 9-2 in games when a true frosh made his Buffalo debut):

The most interesting of the above might be the first listed; in 1977, CU traveled three quarterbacks to Ames, and the first two, Jeff Knapple and Pete Cyphers, both went down with injuries and Lillo took over for the last 11:40 of the game and helped preserve a 12-7 Colorado win. It was the only action of his career at quarterback as he redshirted in 1978, and then played free safety his sophomore through senior seasons. NOTE: In 1984, Mark Hatcher was originally a quarterback but was moved to tailback where he saw action for seven games; he returned to quarterback in 1985 in CU's switch to the wishbone offense.

And in 1986, Bill McCartney opened up the competition at quarterback after the fifth game of the year, and true frosh Marc Walters (father of current Buff Ryan) appeared for the first time in game seven (Nebraska), and started the season finale at Kansas State when CU needed the win to secure a Bluebonnet Bowl bid.

AND JUST THE FIFTH Hansen started the next game at Missouri on October 25, becoming just the fifth true freshman to start a game at quarterback for the Buffaloes (and just the eighth freshman overall when three redshirts are included). Here's how he compared with the four before him:

TRUE FRESHMAN STARTING QB DEBUTS

Date	Quarterback	Opponent	Result	Statistics
Oct. 18, 1980	Randy Essington	at Missouri	L 7-45	Rushing: 4-(-19), 0 td Passing: 22-11-1, 58, 0 td (57.2 rating)
Nov. 22, 1986	Marc Walters	at Kansas State	W 49-3	Rushing: 18- 88, 2 td Passing: 4-4-0, 111, 1 td (415.6 rating)
Oct. 17, 1992	Koy Detmer	OKLAHOMA	T 24-24	Rushing: 9-(-22), 0 td Passing: 50-33-5, 418, 2 td (129.4 rating)
Oct. 7, 2000	Craig Ochs	at Texas A&M	W 26-19	Rushing: 6-6, 1 td Passing: 25-15-0, 239, 1 td (153.5 rating)
Oct. 25, 2008	Tyler Hansen	at Missouri	L 0-58	Rushing: 16-30, 0 td Passing: 16-12-0, 72, 0 td (112.8 rating)

THIRD DOWN SPECIALIST Hansen was near perfect in the 31-13 win over Hawai'i on third downs: he was 9-of-10 for 149 yards (2 touchdowns and eight downs). Through five games, he's completing 66 percent of his passes on third and fourth downs, picking up 19 first downs with three scores.

HAWKINS RISE UP THE CHARTS GETS A BUMP

QB Cody Hawkins was one of 16 freshman starting quarterbacks in the nation in 2007 (8 at BCS schools), and threw for 2,693 yards, just the fifth 2,500-yard season in school history (the total tied for the third most a season at CU). He set all the major passing and total offense records for a true freshman, and also set a record for attempts in a season by any class. Hawkins placed high on the other single season lists as well, such as attempts, completions and total offense. His 19 touchdown passes were the fourth most in a single season (record: 22, Koy Detmer in 1996), while his 15 interceptions tied for the second most in a single year (record: 16, John Hessler in 1997, followed by 15, Joel Klatt 2004). The interception count was a bit skewed—seven were by deflection. As is sometimes the case after a solid freshman year, a sophomore slump set in to a degree, and he was replaced as CU's starter six games into the 2009 season (CU was 11-16 when he started).

- He is in the top 5 in every major passing category, including first in TD passes (46), second in attempts (1008) and completions (559) and third in yards (5,995).
- Red Zone. He has a 34-to-6 career ratio of touchdowns to interceptions in the red zone (0-to-1 this year; 7-to-2 in 2009, 11-to-2 in 2008; one pick last year was costly, as CU was trying to capitalize on a Texas turnover and retake the lead in the third quarter; instead, UT's Earl Thomas returned it 92 yards for a score).
- The 40-On-In. Once the Buffs reach the opponent's 40-yard line, Hawkins was fairly deadly last season. He completed 55-of-91 passes for 564 yards, with 16 touchdowns and three interceptions. That worked out to a passer rating of 163.91 from the opponent 40- on-in for CU's sophomore signal caller. (In rallying CU to the win over Iowa State, he was 10-of-12 for 81 yards and 4 TDs, a rating of 250.03.) In 2009, he was 46-of-86 for 451 yards (9 TD/4 INT; 122.7).
- He had his career game when it came to passer rating with a figure of 179.95 in the 28-24 come-from-behind win over Iowa State. But looking inside the numbers, once CU crossed midfield, he was even more deadly: he completed 11 of 13 passes for 91 yards and four touchdowns, which worked to a rating of 244.96 (and it was even higher from the 40-on-in, at 250.03).
- Speaking of ratings, his career rating is a modest 113.1; however, he has been hurried/pressured 180 times, 16 of which were intercepted, both numbers being rather high due to playing behind a young and/or patchwork offensive line at times. His rating when the opponent is not credited with a pressure? 142.1.

CLOSE CALLS TEND TO GO CU'S WAY

Colorado was 2-3 in 2009 and is 19-13 dating back to the start of the 2003 season when the final margin has been seven or fewer points. These "close calls" include a 10-11 record in the Dan Hawkins Era. Starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, which helped propel Colorado to the Big 12 title, the Buffaloes are 23-15 in seven-point or less decisions the last 10 seasons.

THE BUFFALOES IN THE BIG 12

The Big 12 Conference is now in its 15th season; the Buffaloes are tied for the fourth most division titles won with four, trailing only Oklahoma's seven and Nebraska's and Texas' five; seven of the schools in the conference have won a division title. A closer look:

➔ Big 12 Division Titles: Oklahoma 7, Nebraska 5, Texas 5, Colorado 4, Kansas State 3, Texas A & M 2, Missouri 2.

➔ Big 12 Championship Game Records: Oklahoma 6-1, Texas 3-2, Nebraska 2-3, Texas A & M 1-1, Kansas State 1-2, Colorado 1-3, Missouri 0-2.

CU vs. THE BIG 12 NORTH: Colorado owns the second best record in intra-division competition going back to the start of the 2001 season against Big 12 North Division rivals, as the Buffaloes are 25-21; other records: Nebraska is 30-16, Missouri 25-21, Kansas State 24-23, Kansas 19-26 and Iowa State 15-31. Colorado is 16-7 at home in this stretch versus the North, the only losses to NU (2003, 2005, 2009), MU (2007, 2009), KSU (2006) and KU (2007).

ROAD-SWEET-ROAD: BUFFS 21st BEST IN ENEMY STADIUMS SINCE '88

Though not so much as of late (2-22 since '05), the Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 22-plus seasons. CU has been victorious 59 of the last 111 times in enemy stadiums with a 59-51-1 overall road record (a 53.6 winning percentage) since the start of the 1988 season. That stands 25th nationally and fifth among Big 12 Conference teams in this span; only 13 schools have won 60 percent of their away games in this time frame (and just two over 70 percent). The Buffaloes own a 48-34-1 mark in their last 83 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—with most of the losses at Nebraska (seven), Kansas State and Missouri (five)). CU is 23-34 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (0-4 in 2009), though have struggled since 2005 with a 2-15 mark. Winding down play in the Big 12, the Buffs have just three road games left in the league before joining the Pac-10 next summer. The chart to the right does not include neutral site games and includes games of October 9:

26TH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's 26th best record over the last 21-plus seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 158-98-4 record. From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks). The best Division I-A records from the start of 1989 through games of October 2 (includes only those teams who were FBS members the entire 21 seasons):

HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS

Dan Hawkins is in his fifth season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, and his 10th overall as a FBS/Division I-A head coach and 16th as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 19-35 record at Colorado, along with a 72-46 record in the Division I-A ranks (53-11 at Boise State) and an overall career mark of 111-58-1 including five years at NAIA Willamette (Ore.) College. In his final year at Willamette (1997), his team posted a 13-1 record, falling in the NAIA Championship game, before he moved on to Boise State where he was assistant head coach under Dirk Koetter for three seasons. At BSU, he coached the tight ends and special teams while coordinating recruiting; when Koetter left BSU for Arizona State after the 2000 season, Hawkins was promoted to head coach. He took the Broncos to four bowl games in five years, with his 2004 team compiling an 11-0 regular season mark and ascending to No. 10 in the national polls; in the most anticipated non-BCS bowl game to date, Boise State dropped a thriller to No. 7 Louisville, 44-40. In the modern history of Division I-A football, only three coaches won more games in their first five seasons than Hawkins (53, bested by Bob Pruett, Marshall; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma; and Pete Carroll, USC). Hawk's

- ♦ COLORADO STREAKS: 2-game plus wins, 2-game plus losses: 3, 11. 3-game plus wins, 3-game plus losses: 2, 5. 4-game plus wins, 4-game plus losses: 0, 2. 5-game plus wins, 5-game plus losses: 0, 1. Longest winning streak: 3, in 2007 & 2008. Longest losing streak: 6, in 2006.
- ♦ Hawkins & Bye Weeks. Hawkins is 9-3 in games following bye weeks, not including bowls (3-3 at Colorado, 6-0 at Boise State). At Colorado, the 3-3 mark includes a 1-2 mark against Nebraska, a split with West Virginia in 2008 and 2009 and a 1-0 record versus Georgia.
- ♦ Hawkins has been a head coach for 170 games (111-58-1), with that record and 65.6 winning percentage the 19th best in the nation for active coaches with five or more seasons coached.
- ♦ Hawkins coached the CU wide receivers for one year (2009), as his staff was in transition after a late coaching change, so he handled the daily chores himself.
- ♦ In 15 seasons as a head coach, Hawkins' teams have been shutout just once, coming in his 149th game at the hands of Missouri (58-0). He had never dropped more than two games in a row in the same season (which happened just three times) until his first season at CU and won at least eight games seven times (10-plus four times).

- ♦ Hawkins tells his players: "You're in America, you're going to college, you live in Colorado. You have it better than 90 percent of the people in the world."
- ♦ Hawkins has used the term "conflama" when referring to some people's desire for conflict and drama (the reason someone like Jerry Springer and that lot is even on the air). He references it when people on the outside of a program choose to look at the negative without choosing to understand why something may very well be the way it is.
- ♦ Hawk on depth charts: "To be honest, we really don't pay too much attention to depth charts, we run a lot of personnel in and out of there at several positions. For example, I view the defensive line like hockey; they're playing in shifts as we want them fresh."

As a result, especially on offense at receiver, tight end and in the backfield, CU utilizes different "groupings" as opposed to following a depth chart.

- ♦ Hawk on the vertical passing game: "I love the long pass. As I've come along in this game, I've learned you've got to pound it and launch it."
- ♦ Hawkins believes the four most important positions on a football team are the offensive and defensive lines, quarterback and cornerback.
- ♦ Hawk's philosophy on big wins, like CU's 27-24 over No. 3 OU in 2007: "You enjoy it on Saturday, but come Sunday, it's in the vapor trail."
- ♦ One of his beliefs is, "Once is a mistake; twice is a behavior." He applies it to football, whether for things on or off the field, and to life.
- ♦ Hawk's response about potential for disaster after the 0-3 start in 2006: "There's always potential. When you get in your car and get out on the freeway, there's potential for disaster. I knew when I left Boise State there was potential for disaster. That doesn't scare me... there's also the potential for greatness. So you can hide behind the shadow if you want, but that's not living."
- ♦ Versus' Ron Thulin on Hawkins' optimism: "His glass isn't half-full, it's overflowing. He's not going to change. He said they are going to keep fighting and doing the little things every day. I think everyone on our crew was ready to put on a football helmet after talking to this man yesterday. He is excitable and he cares."
- ♦ As with many coaches, at the end of practice, the team will run for turnovers, mistakes, missed field goals, etc. One day in 2006 after PK Mason Crosby missed a kick within his range, Hawk felt a little bad as he wondered to himself, "How many coaches are making their kids run for a missed 64-yard field goal?" He also often has fun, sending linemen on post-patters, with linebackers as the quarterbacks, and sometimes he even includes media in attendance in a drill.
- ♦ Hawkins is not a voter in the Division I-A coaches poll coordinated by USA Today/ESPN; coaches are now selected by a random draw; the CU head coach had voted every season from 1987-2009, so this snaps the streak.
- ♦ CONTRACT. In 2008 (Oct. 7), Hawkins' contract was extended through the 2012 season. Hawkins was named the 23rd head football coach in Colorado history on December 16, 2005, and originally signed a five-year, $4.25 million contract that was effective January 1, 2006, through December 31, 2010, not including incentive compensation (see below). The new contract was effective as of July 1, 2008 and runs through January 31, 2013, with the guaranteed compensation package includes base salary ($174,720); radio, television and public appearances ($514,500); sponsorship support ($210,000); and football camps ($52,500) for a total of $951,720, prior to performance incentives. Those incentives includes academic progress toward graduation of football program athletes; meeting performance objectives in the area of player welfare and development; development of football program outreach; participation in the Big 12 Conference championship game; league and national titles and bowl participation and wins; and competitive success (e.g., if named conference or national coach of the year).

HAWKINS THE 10TH TO COACH FIVE YEARS AT COLORADO

Dan Hawkins has become the 10th head coach out of 23 overall in CU history to coach at least five seasons. The nine coaches who previously reached year number five generally had winning teams, with six posting winning records, a seventh going .500 with a bowl loss and two others under .500. The fifth year being the "charm" happened on two occasions: the 1967 Buffaloes under Eddie Crowder went 9-2, and were ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation after 5-0 start, and capped the season with a 31-21 win in the Bluebonnet Bowl over Miami, Fla.; the 1986 team under Bill McCartney opened 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined 10 points, but then rebounded to go 6-1 in Big 8 play, toppling No. 3 Nebraska on the way and played for the league title against Oklahoma but fell, 28-0. A look at the 10 who spent at least five years at the helm of the Buffs (*—denotes final season):

EIGHT DOUBLE-DIGIT COMEBACKS IN HAWKINS ERA

Colorado has rallied from 10 or more points down in the Dan Hawkins Era to win eight games, two this season. The most recent was against Georgia; after taking an early 14-3 lead, UGA responded with 21 straight points to go up 24-14. Colorado countered with a 15-3 run to rally and win 19-27. The previous week, the Buffaloes spotted Hawai'i a 10-0 halftime lead, but a strong third quarter, including two short TB Rodney Stewart touchdown runs, did UH in as the Buffaloes took control. In 2009, CU also came back from 10-plus down twice: Trailing 21-10, CU tied the game at 21 in the third quarter against Texas A&M (Nov. 7, 2009) only to see the Aggies score 10 quick points to open the fourth quarter to go back up, 31-21. But the Buffaloes persevered; CU pulled back to within 31-28 on a 7-yard run by TB Demetrius Sumler with 7:14 left, and then took the lead 35-34 on a 22-yard pass from QB Tyler Hansen to TE Patrick Devenny with 2:04 left. The Buffs then held on defense to secure the win. Seven have taken place in Boulder, with the eighth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State. A closer look:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. Upstairs are offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau, secondary coach Ashley Ambrose and graduate assistants Ben Steele and Bert Watts. Head coach Dan Hawkins wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Ron Collins, linebackers coach Brian Cabral, passing game coordinator/wide receiver coach Robert Prince, offensive line coach Denver Johnson, running backs coach Darian Hagan, defensive line coach Romeo Bandison and special teams/tight ends coach Kent Riddle. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

OLD-TIMER

Associate head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. Now in his 21st full-time season (304 games), he is now the longest tenured assistant coach in Colorado all sports history. A closer look at the top eight in football:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Brian Cabral 20 (1990-current); 2. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 8. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58).

Cabral ranks 12th on the list of active coaches for continuous full-time service at the same school in the nation; 10th among all assistant coaches. The entire national list:

Versus' Ron Thulin said about Cabral: "He's one of the great individuals. Besides being an outstanding football coach he has been the barometer for this football program for the last two decades. He teaches a lot more than just football to these players and that's why Dan Hawkins kept him on the staff. He's one of the best in the business."

EXPERIENCE

Colorado's 2010 coaching staff is again youthful (average age of 44.1), yet experienced. The 10 full-time coaches who comprised the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 107 seasons in Division I-A, combining to coach in 1,223 games (with a record of 681-531-11, .561). The aggregate age of the 10 is 442 years through October 4; associate head coach Brian Cabral (54) is the elder statesman, followed by Denver Johnson (51), the only two over 50. Five of the coaches are 40 or older, including head coach Dan Hawkins (49), and two under, with offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau the youngest (37). Kiesau is the 27th youngest coordinator in the Division I-A/FBS ranks, the 19th most youthful on the offensive side (15th with full-title); a closer look:

QUARTERBACK BATTLES OVER THE LAST TWO DECADES

The competition for the starting quarterback the last two years was really just the seventh real battle in the last 19 years at Colorado, though the fourth time in the last eight seasons (the other times the incumbent was either entrenched or had little competition); this was the first time the same pair dueled it out close for two seasons. Cody Hawkins topped Tyler Hansen in 2009, with Hawkins pulling ahead a bit the second half of camp with the plan to redshirt Hansen if possible (that was scrubbed when Hansen played the fourth quarter at Texas and then assumed the starting role the following week, leading CU to a 34-30 win over Kansas); Hawkins also beat out Nick Nelson and Matt Ballenger for the nod in 2007. In 2010, Hansen had a slight edge after spring ball and then distanced himself a bit from Hawkins in fall camp. There was a three-way competition for the job in 2006 among James Cox, the initial winner, Bernard Jackson (who would start games two through 12) and Brian White (who quit after the first game). The last time had been in 2003, when walk-on Joel Klatt earned the nod; in 2000, the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter but four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and did not relinquish the role the remainder of the season. In 1998, the first real battle in six years, juniors Mike Moschetti and Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won the job and Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety. Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91, taking over for the dying Sal Aunese after he was diagnosed with stomach cancer in March 1989.

AND MORE— In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best examples of this came in the 1991 Orange Bowl, when Johnson replaced an injured Hagan in the second half and earned MVP honors in leading CU to a 10-9 win over Notre Dame which paved the way for Colorado to be named the consensus national champion, and in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

How did the Hansen and Hawkins compare in the six main scrimmages each year (three each in the spring and fall)? Pretty darn close; take a look:

THE VERTICAL GAME

Dan Hawkins noted that one thing missing from CU's offense his first season in 2006 that was prevalent of his past offenses at Boise State was the vertical passing game. "By the end of the season, we'd always be up in the 70s or 80s in the number of pass plays over 20 yards," he said. He was definitely on mark with his assessment. In 2006, CU had just 35 total, 18 rushing and 17 passing, the Buffs' fewest overall 20-yard plays since 2000 (38) as well as pass plays of 20 yards or more since 2002 (23, also the last time CU had a quarterback quit the team after the season began). Colorado did have 18 rushing plays of 20 yards or more, and while not an overly large number, it was its most since 2002 and higher than nine of the totals in the 13 season snapshot below. In 2007, CU had 58 plays of 20 yards or longer (66 percent more than in 2006, more than doubling the pass play count). But in 2008, the Buffs went the other direction, with just 40 plays of 20 yards or more, reflective of the troubles CU had on offense when it comes to consistency; the number did spike up a bit to 44 total for 2009 but is back down in 2010, with just 14 such plays (though 150 of 353 overall have gained five or more yards). Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass

TRENDS

1985-2010

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 187-118-4; in these 309 games spanning 25-plus seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

♦ with 400-plus yards total offense	107-20-2	♦ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	88-19-1
♦ with 500-plus yards total offense	52- 5-0	♦ when leading at halftime	149-21-2
♦ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	72- 8-1	♦ when leading after three quarters (149-14-3 in last 166)	154-16-3
♦ when punting three or fewer times	67-16-1	♦ when scoring 24 or more points	153-24-2
♦ with zero turnovers (136-35-2 with two or fewer)	33-10-2	♦ when held to 13 points or less	3-46-0
♦ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	109-19-1	♦ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	14- 0-0
♦ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	95-13-1	♦ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	102-21-2

TRENDS II

1989-2010

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings, Colorado has posted the nation's 26th best overall record at 159-99-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (262 games over 21-plus seasons, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	90-40-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	81- 5-1
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (47-5 with 500-plus)	93-20-2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	54- 2-1
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	104- 8-1	➤ when rushing for 300-plus yards	31- 0-1
➤ when leading in possession time (54-68-1 when not)	105-31-3	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	35- 2-0
➤ when making 20-plus first downs	100-33-1	➤ when passing for 200-plus yards	85-47-2
➤ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	58- 7-1	➤ when passing for 300-plus yards (10-0-1 400-plus)	25-14-1
➤ when scoring first (88-24-1 the last 113 times)	99-27-1	➤ when passing for more yards than rushing	80-83-2
➤ with zero turnovers (119-60-2 with two or fewer)	27-10-2	➤ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	84-21-2
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	85-12-1	➤ when holding edge in field position	124-28-1

➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	66-14-1	➤ when out-rushing the opponent	129-14-3
➤ when average field position is CU 30+ (26-3 40+)	114-44-2	➤ when owning the edge in return yards	116-36-2
➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	132-32-2

TRENDS III

HAWKINS ERA (2005-2010)

Some trends of Colorado coach Dan Hawkins both overall and at his former school, Boise State; totals are for 118 games including bowls (72-46; the Broncos were 53-11 under his guidance in five seasons):

Category	At CU	Overall	Category	At CU	Overall
➤ when scoring 20 or more points (2-29 when not)	17-11	70-17	➤ when leading after three (11-37 trailing, 3-2 tied)	13- 4	58- 5
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	12- 3	59- 5	➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	10- 5	42- 8
➤ when scoring 40 or more points	3- 0	38- 2	➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards offense	5- 7	29- 8
➤ when scoring 50 or more points	1- 0	20- 0	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	8- 1	40- 1
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	9- 4	38- 4	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards (7-0 300-plus)	3- 1	25- 1
➤ in games decided by 7 points or less	10-11	20-16	➤ when rushing for more yards than passing	9- 6	27- 7
➤ with two or fewer turnovers (10-2 with zero)	16-21	54-29	➤ with a 100-yard rusher	12- 6	39- 6

➤ when trailing at halftime (4-1 when tied)	7-26	13-34

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Dan Hawkins, as with most head coaches, believes that when it comes to turnovers, that they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. He has penalties and rewards daily in the practice dependent on the number of turnovers committed or forced. Former CU coach Gary Barnett drilled home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football, which he learned from the legendary Bill McCartney. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 22 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 26th best overall record:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
159 WINS	265	396	+ 131	1,295	537	+758
HAWKINS ERA (19 WINS)	30	39	+ 9	97	81	+ 16
99 LOSSES (& 4 TIES)	255	170	- 85	401	802	-401
HAWKINS ERA (35 LOSSES)	78	59	- 19	139	220	- 81
22-SEASON TOTALS (262 Games)	520	566	+ 46	1,696	1,339	+357
HAWKINS ERA (54 Games)	108	98	- 10	236	301	- 65

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is now 21-15 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior, including both West Virginia games in 2008 and 2009; CU has now won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (this year); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009).

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 135 times in 212 tries, including 23 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the “two-minute offense” drill since 1988; that’s 64 percent of the time. The Buffs are 0-of-4 in the drill in 2010; highlights last year (9-of-14) included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. Thus, in the Dan Hawkins Era, CU is 24-of-41 in the drill (58.5 percent). One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU’s scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 34 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 216 of 237 times, losing 18 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 21 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were at Oklahoma State last year (led 21-17 and 28-24) and in 2008 at Nebraska (when the Huskers scored 10 points in the final 1:43).

In conference play, only Kansas (1984, 2006), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2008), Oklahoma State (1997), Texas A&M (2004), Baylor (2006) and Oklahoma State (2009) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

➤ Colorado has won 100 of its last 112 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—and 27 of the last 35). A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 34 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came this year against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining) and last year versus Iowa State (won 28-24 after trailing 24-13 with 9:14 left) and Eastern Washington (won 31-24 after being down 24-17). In 2007 CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 38 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon. On several occasions, teams used the win over the Buffs to gain national notoriety and/or move into the rankings following the win; California did so this year, appearing at No. 24 in the coaches poll after defeating CU. The Buffs are 99-38-2 in their last 139 games against (AP) unranked teams, along with a record of 130-40-2 in the last 172. The Buffs are 169-99-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-9 in bowls); 115-70-3 in Big 8/12 games (including four league title games) and 55-29-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN BARIETY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 29 occasions (and are 22-7 in games when this occurs). It happened nine times last decade, twice in 2009 (versus Texas A&M: TB Rodney Stewart 118 yards, WR Markques Simas 135; and against Nebraska: Stewart 110 yards, WR Scotty McKnight 114, Simas 108). The previous time was at Baylor in 2007 (TB High Charles 109 yards, and WR Josh Smith 103). That was the first time since 2004, when it occurred three times, as it did in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game: TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State (172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB's Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 151 of the 2010 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below are the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2010 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on this year's opening roster collectively had played in 877 games, with 313 starts entering the season. Recent past numbers entering a season have been 847 games played/236 started (2009), 817/277 (2008), 853/251 (2007), 1,053/295 (2006), 1,080/314 (2005), 761/182 (2004), 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). Hackett (2003).

STARTING STREAKS

OT Nate Solder has made the most consecutive starts on the team with 29, or every game since the start of the 2008 season. CB Jimmy Smith is next, as he has made 20 in a row, and he's followed by DT Curtis Cunningham and NT Will Pericak, both with 17. A reminder of what Dan Hawkins thinks of depth charts: he prefers the term contributors, so whatever play they want to run to open a game could feature virtually anyone that fits a particular play or scheme and affect a player's so-called starting streak if he's not in a particular package.

TWELVE PLAYERS HAVE MADE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2010

Seven players made their first career starts for the Buffaloes in the season opener against Colorado State (four offense/three defense): OT David Bakhtiari, WR Kyle Cefalo, WR Toney Clemons, DE Josh Hartigan, ILB Jon Major, S Parker Orms and TE DaVaughn Thornton. WR Travon Patterson, S Travis Sandersfeld and TE Luke Walters all made their first starts at California game, and CB Paul Vigo did the same versus Hawai'i. Skip ahead to Missouri, and when the Buffs' first drive started at their 2, UB Scott Fernandez started at fullback.

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11), 2006 (24), 2007 (18), 2008 (15), 2009 (18), 2010 (11).

TWENTY-FOUR SEE FIRST CU ACTION IN 2010

Last year, 22 players saw their first career action in a CU uniform; in the 2010 opener against Colorado State, that number was equaled as 22 players took the field for the first representing the Buffaloes, including five true freshmen. Since, two others have taken the field for the first time (but it took until the conference opener to expand the list). Here's the breakdown by class of those players seeing their first CU action in 2010 (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (6): CB *Jered Bell, PK *Justin Castor, SN *Ryan Iverson, WR Paul Richardson, TB Justin Torres, DE Chidera Uzo-Diribe.

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (12): OT David Bakhtiari, WR Mario Conte, WR Jarrod Darden, UB Scott Fernandez, P Zach Grossnickle, TB Quentin Hildreth, OLB *Lilao Nobriga, S *Deji Olatoye, S Parker Orms, TE DaVaughn Thornton, CB Paul Vigo, ILB Derrick Webb.

SOPHOMORES (0).

JUNIORS (3): WR Kyle Cefalo, WR Toney Clemons, ILB Evan Harrington.

SENIORS (3): S *Matt Meyer, WR Travon Patterson, SN *Joe Silipo.

Recent counts of players seeing their first action at Colorado by season: 22 (2009), 30 (2008), 28 (2007), 19 (2006), 16 (2005), 24 (2004) and 24 (2003).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

The percentage of upperclassmen starting games slowly dropped from nearly 80 percent in 2005 to just under 56 percent in 2009, but that number is heading back in the other direction this year in a big way due to Dan Hawkins having his most experienced team in his five years at the school. Early on in his tenure, over the course of the 2007 and 2008 seasons, 95 freshmen made starts, the most in any two-year period in school history (the old mark, on two occasions, was only 54, last occurring in 1999-2000). In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen; that's when the current cycle of youth really started. It's historically a cyclical pattern, showing up in breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class since 1999:

Season	G	SR	JR	SO	FR (RS-True)	UpperCl%	Fr-Pct.
1999	12	115	42	86	21 (20-1)	59.5	8.0
2000	11	55	116	38	33 (15-18)	70.7	13.6
2001	13	102	95	83	7 (0-7)	68.9	2.4
2002	14	155	130	14	9 (0-9)	92.5	2.9
2003	12	105	49	78	32 (14-18)	58.3	12.1

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY ADJUSTMENT

Folsom Field's official capacity is now 53,613, as school officials have removed 137 seats over the last few years from the fourth rows of the three flatiron club levels, all of which had obstructed views. The capacity had been listed as 53,750 since the east side stadium expansion in 2003. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest (tied) in the Big 12 Conference, and will be the fifth oldest in the Pacific-10 when Colorado joins that conference in either 2011 or 2012.

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

GRADUATION STAT(US)

Three of CU's 17 seniors in 2010 earned their degrees prior to the season: TB Corey Nabors (Psychology, graduated on August 13), OT Nate Solder (Biology, graduated last May) and TE Luke Walters (Environmental Studies, graduated last December); all three are taking course work toward a second major. Ten are on schedule to graduate in December: OLB B.J. Beatty (Ethnic Studies), CB Jalil Brown (Sociology/Business Management), PK Aric Goodman (Business/Operation & Information Management), S Cameron Ham (double in Business & Economics), QB Cody Hawkins (Humanities), DE Marquez Herrod (double in Psychology and Business Management), WR Scotty McKnight (Sociology), WR Travon Patterson (Sociology), Joe Silipo (English) and CB Jimmy Smith (Sociology). Three are targeting next May: S Matt Meyer (Communication), ILB Michael Sipili (Ethnic Studies) and C Keenan Stevens (Anthropology). The 16th senior, WR Andre Simmons (Ethnic Studies), is slated for May 2012.

► NOTE: Including the 2009 seniors, over the last eight years (2002-09), CU has had 146 of its 166 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.0 percent (with one of the 20 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while six are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. Hawkins Era: 69 of the 79 seniors who completed their eligibility have graduated (87.3 percent).

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (69 percent of the entire roster as of September 14—74 of 108 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 40, California 28, Texas 6, Hawai'i 4, Arizona 3, Florida 3, New Jersey 3, Ohio 3, Idaho 2, Louisiana 2, North Carolina 2, Pennsylvania 2, Tennessee 2, Alabama 1, Connecticut 1, Georgia 1, Illinois 1, Nevada 1 and South Carolina 1. That's 19 states total along with the District of Columbia (1) and Canada (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

FOUR SENIORS SERVING AS 2010 CAPTAINS

The University of Colorado football squad selected its captains on August 22, and after the ballots were counted, four seniors were selected by their Buffalo teammates, head coach Dan Hawkins announced. The 2010 captains are cornerback Jalil Brown, quarterback Cody Hawkins, wide receiver Scotty McKnight and offensive tackle Nate Solder.

All four are fifth-year seniors and three-year lettermen, with Brown, McKnight and Solder atop their respective positions on the depth chart; Hawkins is second at quarterback but has started 28 games in is CU career. The veteran foursome combined has played in 144 games, with 97 starts among them.

"It was great to see a number of players receive votes," Hawkins said, noting that all players and not just seniors were eligible to be selected. "Scotty, Cody, Jalil and Nate clearly stuck out in the majority of our team's minds as people they respected as players, students and people. These captains have the ability to both reach out and build up others and carry a firm stance when needed. They are a fine example of our program's foundation of "Excellence with Class."

Brown is a 6-foot-1, 205-pound cornerback from Phoenix, Ariz.; Hawkins a 5-11, 190, and prepped at Boise (Idaho) Bishop Kelly; McKnight is 5-11, 185 who hails from Coto de Caza, Calif.; and Solder, 6-9, 315, is from the small Colorado mountain town of Buena Vista.

McKnight is on the verge of becoming CU's all-time leading receiver in terms on receptions, as his 165 trail Michael Westbrook by just two. Hawkins already owns several school records, most notably career touchdown passes (46) and is in the top five of most passing and total offense marks.

Solder, a preseason All-American by several entities, including the prestigious Playboy team, is the first captain from Buena Vista – but then again, he's the first CU player from there. Brown was among the nation's leaders last season in passes defended with 17 (15 broken up and two interceptions); he also led the Buffs in special team points as a freshman and sophomore.

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 297-13-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 210-4 with 35-plus points and 194-3 with 36-plus, 171-2 with 38-plus and 109-0 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993) and Toledo (54-38 in 2009). CU has played 1,142 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 100-60-3 in its last 163 league games, and has the 12th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 113 of its last 262 games, posting a 104-8-1 record. The most recent losses were to Toledo last year (54-38) and at Nebraska to close 2008 (40-31). The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 176 of these 262 games dating to the start of 1989, going 137-37-2 (CU is 22-62-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed 452 touchdowns in the 864 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 dating back to 1988; the other 412 times have yielded 217 field goals as well as 195 non-scores. In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 24% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 48% of the time, solid defensive numbers.
 - ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the opponent has penetrated the CU red zone 189 times, with 108 touchdowns, 49 field goals and 32 non-scores.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 114 touchdowns out of 290 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 173 scores overall, meaning 117 non-scores). Over the last six seasons, CU's allowed just 132 scores (89 TD/43 FG) in 211 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory (6 scores out of 11 times in 2010, and just 4 TDs).
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards of total offense in 56 of its last 159 contests (once in 2010; 11 times in the Hawkins Era), as CU has made a decent habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 213 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 92 times (43 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-yard mark in 43 of the 213 games since the '93 season opener (21%)... and note that CU has played 84 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. The last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Colorado averaged 5.3 per first down play in 2007, but was inconsistent; the average was 5.5 in Hawkins' first year. That dipped to a modest 4.4 yards in both 2008 and 2009; since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979
 - ➔ In 2010, CU opened with a healthy 6.1 yards a crack on first down against CSU, but is at 3.91 overall through five games, so the book is still out.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 46 scores by return in the last 139 games (two in 2009, with season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 67 scores by return in 188 games (59 regular season, seven bowl), or two every five games.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 14 times in the last 138 games (and 35 times in the last 211, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 35-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 71-59-1 in its last 131 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (67-53 in the last 120, including a 41-27 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 92-42-3 in its last 137 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 59-31-3 mark in conference games. CU was 0-5 on the fake stuff in 2009 (0-2 in '10); the Buffs are 2-15 on it under Hawkins.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per). In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions, but jumped to 12.0 in 2006 (1,022 yards on the 85 conversions). In '07, as opponents had 838 yards on 60 makes (14.0 per), and just 130 on 113 misses (1.1). In '08, opponents had 643 yards on its' 66 makes (9.7 per), and just 78 on the 102 misses (0.8). In 2009, opponents had 913 yards on its' 58 makes (15.7 per), and just 15 on the 112 misses (0.1).
 - ➔ Thus far in 2010, the foe has 19 makes, gaining 240 yards, or 12.6 per conversion; it has minus-15 yards on the other 42 tries (-0.3).
- ➔ Third Down & 36 Inches. Under Hawkins, CU is 54-of-70 on 3rd-&-1 (77.1%), including 8-of-10 in 2010.
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-0 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover. The latest occurrence of this was in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. It also happened twice in 2005, when CU did it in a three-game span (in a 41-20 conquest of Texas A & M and a 44-13 win over Kansas). Those were the first times since 2001, when CU also did it twice (San Jose State and Nebraska). In these 14 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 570-284, with only three games decided by less than 17 points (a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ In 2009, it is what it is as the saying goes, but one of the most all-time perplexing stats to never come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five in 2009. Much like four out of five dentists recommend... well, maybe not. But take for example the Missouri game: the Tigers gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on the other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all meant that 17.6 percent of opponent plays gained 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU has allowed 16 plays over 20 yards in five games (totaling 568 yards); basically 5 percent of the plays producing 34 percent of the yards.
- ➔ Colorado was fairly stout in goal-to-go defense in 2009; the opponent had 21 G-T-G's and had just 12 touchdowns (16 scores overall); opponents started 29 drives in CU territory, but had just eight touchdowns (18 scores overall) to show for it. In 2010, the foe has eight TDs in 11 G-T-G situations, but only six TDs on 11 drives started on CU's side of the field.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 4-of-93 on 3rd-and-20 or more (0-of last-2; Kansas converted on a 3rd-&-29 in 2009). The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09. The CU offense is 9-of-92 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the Buffs have scored in 132 of 216 quarters (61 percent) and 4 of 5 overtime periods. All told, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 601 of 868 quarters (70%). Those numbers include 9 of 20 quarters in 2010.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 17 seniors on its roster in 2010, including its most professional prospects in quite some time. History has proven that most, if not all, NFL teams pass through Boulder every season for a game or practice(s). In 2009, 57 scouts from 22 teams witnessed the Buffs in person; so far in 2010, 30 teams have sent scouts to either camp practices or games (the latter denoted by an *): Atlanta, *Arizona, *Baltimore, *Buffalo, *Chicago, *Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dallas, *Denver, *Detroit, Green Bay, Houston, *Indianapolis, *Jacksonville, *Kansas City, Miami, *New England, *New Orleans, *N.Y. Giants, *N.Y. Jets, *Oakland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, *San Diego, *St. Louis, *San Francisco, *Seattle, *Tampa Bay, *Tennessee and *Washington. Dating back to 2000, all 32 teams have seen multiple CU games in person (453 scouts in the decade-long period).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 87-51 in its last 138 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 75-27 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 67-31-1 in its last 99 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 528-245-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through five games in 2010, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 461 CU games in his career, including 198 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. In 2009, he was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution. Other dinosaurs: SID Dave Plati has worked 363 including the last 321 (dating to the '83 finale), while facilities man John Krueger has worked 308 in all (a string of 144 straight ended in 2008). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 262 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 308 CU games (celebrating No. 300 in 2009 with a 35-34 win over Texas A&M). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 15 former Colorado Buffaloes on the opening National Football League rosters as of October 10; there were 22 on the rosters at the end of the 2009 season (23 in 2008). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last 22 years of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was second in 2002 and 2003, and was third seven other seasons (including 2004 through 2007). Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other three years). The active list (i—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; i—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured status; club still owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

BY TEAM (13 of 32)— Denver 3, Green Bay 2, Cleveland 2, Baltimore 1, Buffalo 1, Carolina 1, Chicago 1, Dallas 1, Detroit 1, New England 1, San Diego 1, San Francisco 1, Seattle 1.

CANADA & ELSEWHERE: Three former Buffs are making livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his seventh year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, TB Hugh Charles is in his third year with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders and OG Edwin Harrison is in his first year with the Calgary Stampeders. TE Tyson DeVree is with Hartford in the UFL.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the six who head prep programs: Dave Logan (Mullen), Mike Marquez (Northglenn), Bill Mondt (Eaton), Tom Tesone (Bishop Machebeuf), Ron Woolfork (Overland) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

➔ CU has had 257 players drafted into the NFL; that's 20th all-time, and fourth among Big 12 schools behind Oklahoma (339), Nebraska (331) and Texas (316); Notre Dame leads with 462, one more than second place USC. OU is fourth, NU sixth and UT ninth; Texas A&M is right being CU in 21st with 255.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 22 of 29 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

STEVENS THE LATEST IN LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS TO RISE TO FIRST-TEAM

After the NCAA started reducing the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (28 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

Player	Pos	First Season	Letters	Notes
Willie Beebe	FB	1978	4L	Solid blocker who scored nine career touchdowns as a bruiser near the goal line
Kyle Rappold	NT	1985	3L	Known as the "trash compactor" for his stature, the Fort Lewis transfer clogged the run
Jeff Campbell	WR/KR	1986	4L	Earned scholarship second day of freshman camp; played five years in the NFL
Ken Culbertson	PK	1986	3L	Scored 98 points in CU's 11-0 run in '89 season, making 59-59 PAT and 11-17 FG
David Gibbs	CB	1986	4L	Solid corner and special teams performer, now coaching with NFL Kansas City Chiefs
Mark Henry	WR	1987	3L	Big play guy with 18 career catches for 416 yards, or 23.1 per catch
Robbie James	WR	1987	1L	Threw TD pass on third down FG fake at Oklahoma State to lead CU to 16-12 win in 1991
Charles Johnson	QB	1987	2L	Often subbed for an injured Darian Hagan, earning Orange Bowl MVP honors in '91 vs. Notre Dame
Chris O'Donnell	LB/SN	1987	4L	Solid as a rock at long snapper on special teams all four years
Keith Miller	FB	1992	2L	From tiny Ovid, Colo., he was a solid blocking back. Now an opera singer with the MET.
Ryan Black	SS	1993	4L	Led team in tackles as a junior in 1996 with 154 (78 solo)
Ryan Sutter	FS	1993	3L	CU's all-time special team points leader, led Buffs in tackles (170, 98 solo) in 1997
Neil Voskeritchian	PK	1993	2L	Won the starting placekicker job in 1994, finished career ninth in scoring at CU (161 points)
Nick Pietsch	P	1996	4L	Led CU in punting in 1997-98-99, finished with a career average of 39.9
Beau Williams	TE	1998	2L	Primarily a blocking tight end, played a big role on CU's 2001 Big 12 title team
D.J. Hackett	WR	2001	2L	Walked on after CS-Northridge dropped football; led CU in receiving in '03, four-year NFL veteran
Tom Hubbard	FS	2001	2L	Defensive MVP of the 2004 Houston Bowl with two interceptions
Evan Judge	WR	2001	4L	Caught 69 balls for 903 yards to finish in top 20 in receiving yards
John Torp	P	2001	3L	Finished second for the '05 ray Guy Awa rd; set a school records with 205 punts, 65 inside the 20
Paul Creighton	TE	2002	4L	Also saw action at FB, he primarily was a
Greg Pace	SN	2002	4L	Took over all special team snapping chores early as a freshman and handled through senior year
Joel Klatt	QB	2003	3L	Former infielder in Padres organization went on to set 44 CU passing and total offense records
Cody Crawford	WR	2004	3L	Has cracked the school's all-time lists in catches and yards
Jeff Smart	ILB	2005	3L	Earned a scholarship 3 games into the 2007 season, first LB to do so under Cabral; second most tackles by a WO
Scotty McKnight	WR	2006	3L	First freshman wide receiver to ever lead CU in receiving (43-488, 4 TD), approaching top 10 in catches and yards
Aric Goodman	PK	2008	2L	In his first season, he was awarded a scholarship after making the game-winning FG versus West Virginia
Jason Espinoza	WR	2008	1L	Suffered two breaks to his collarbone in '08, playing briefly in-between; co-first team WR in '09
Keenan Stevens	C	2009	1L	Pressed into duty in the season opener due to injury, he soon became a fixture and started 10 games

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. But several other streaks remain:

- CU has scored in 138 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986), and has scored in 136 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 277 games (all the way back to 1963).
- CU has been shutout just nine times in its last 495 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only five schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan.

2010 TEAM MAKE-UP

The 106 players listed on the roster on August 31 broke down into 17 seniors, 32 juniors, 14 sophomores and 43 freshmen (including 16 redshirt frosh). An expanded breakdown:

BUFFS' RISE IN LATE '80s RECALLED IN NEW FOOTBALL BOOK

Sports Illustrated senior writer Tim Layden has put out a magnificent book titled Blood, Sweat and Chalk: The Ultimate Football Playbook: How The Great Coaches Built Today's Game. It tells the tale of the great gridiron plays and formations, from the minds who were responsible for putting them to work. The stories are told through legendary coaches like the late Don Coryell (his last interview), Buddy Ryan, Urban Meyer, Mike Shanahan, Rex Ryan, Bobby Bowden, Joe Gibbs, Bill Walsh, Barry Switzer, Mouse Davis, Tom Osborne and many others.

In the chapter "Option Fever," former Colorado offensive coordinator Gerry DiNardo (1982-90) talks about meeting iconic Air Force coach Fisher DeBerry and his staff in February 1985 to investigate how the Falcons were able to successfully utilize the option. The Buffs installed the offense in spring practice that year and tweaked it till it worked, and worked it did. Here is an excerpt from the book's Chapter 5 ("Option Fever"):

... The transition was comically painful. DiNardo recalls a preseason gathering in Denver with a booster club. One of the gentlemen in the audience stood up and, having heard of the conversion to the wishbone, said to McCartney, "Please tell me the first play of the season isn't going to be a dive up the middle, because I don't think I can stand that."

McCartney let the question hang and then answered: "You might want to come for the second play."

With athletes recruited to play a passing game, the Buffaloes improved from 1-10 in '84 to 7-5 in '85 to 8-4 in '88, setting the stage for a two-year run at the national title. "The switch to the wishbone allowed us all to keep our jobs long enough to start recruiting players," says DiNardo. They did exactly that, picking up the quicksilver quarterback Darian Hagan, a classic, tough and slippery wishbone QB, and running backs Eric Bieniemy and J.J. Flannigan. In their prime the Buffaloes ran their option from an I-bone, with two backs directly behind the quarterback and the second (lead blocking) halfback offset to the side, which DiNardo felt give him a better angle to throw a lead block on the corner.

Colorado won 11 straight before losing to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl following the '89 season and beat the Irish a year later, 10-9, to earn a piece of the title with Georgia Tech. "Not only did we stop a very bad slide, but we won a national championship," says DiNardo. "Which was pretty good."

YOUTH FINALLY SERVED?

Colorado's been one of the younger programs year-in and year-out during the Hawkins Era, but that's finally changing this fall. Here's a look at the class, by eligibility, of players in the season-opening two-deep for 24 positions — 11 offense, 11 defense, punter/placekicker — since 2006; adds to more than 48 due to going three deep at TB, WR and/or TE along with ties for second-team at season's start:

Season	2010	2009	2008	2007	2006
2-Deep + Player Count	55	54	54	57	56
Percent Upperclassmen	60.0	40.7	44.4	52.6	58.9
SENIORS	12	10	12	15	16
JUNIORS	21	12	12	15	17
SOPHOMORES	10	23	14	10	11
FRESHMEN	12	9	16	17	12
True	4	3	7	10	5

Last year, Colorado had one of the younger teams in the country when combing through the season-ending standard offense/defense two-deeps. The Buffs had 23 freshmen, redshirt freshmen or sophomores in their final two-deep of the fall, including nine starters; the 23 tied for the 13th most nationally. Here's the list for those schools with a minimum 20 youngsters in their final 2009 two-deeps (redshirts included; no specialists):

School	2-Deep	Starters	School	2-Deep	Starters	School	2-Deep	Starters	School	2-Deep	Starters
Texas A&M	31	10	Western Kentucky	27	14	Michigan	25	10	Colorado	23	9

Akron	29	10	Miami, Fla.	26	8	Tulsa	24	10	South Carolina	23	8
SMU	28	13	Wisconsin	26	7	New Mexico	24	9	Utah State	22	9

NO. 1 & NO. 2 MET IN BOULDER

There have been 49 times when the Nos. 1 and 2 teams in the polls have met on the football field (44 of those matching the top two teams in the Associated Press poll). But on October 2, the top two teams in a different AP poll met in Boulder: the wire service recently did a national survey among its college poll voters on who has the coolest mascots, and Colorado and Georgia owned the top two spots. CU's live buffalo, Ralphie V, came in ranked number one, while Georgia's live bulldog, Uga VIII, occupied the number two spot. Ralphie made the trip to Athens in 2006, when the host Bulldogs rallied for a 14-13 win; Uga's visit to Boulder resulted in revenge for Ralphie as the Buffaloes won, 29-27. The top dozen mascots as selected by the Associated Press:

1. Colorado (Ralphie, live buffalo)
2. Georgia (Uga, live bulldog)
3. Florida State (Chief Osceola & Appaloosa horse)
4. LSU (Mike the Tiger; caged feline)
5. Auburn (golden eagle swoops down pregame)
6. Stanford (student in a tree costume)
7. Texas (Bevo, live longhorn steer)
8. West Virginia (the mountaineer, complete with buckskin suit and coonskin cap)
9. Texas Tech (masked rider on a black horse)
10. Michigan State (Sparty, a costumed mascot)
11. Notre Dame (leprechaun)
12. Oregon (a fighting, costumed Donald Duck)

USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those games it's lost over the last 21 seasons, as of the 101 losses, 46 have been by eight points or less. Missouri (seven times), Nebraska and Texas (six times), Kansas State and Oklahoma (four) and Kansas and Florida State (three times) are the only ones who have handled the Buffs by nine or more points more than twice since 1989. CU has really been dominated from the start only 11 times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU, 2002 vs. USC, 2004 in the Big 12 title game with Oklahoma, twice in 2005, both against Texas, Missouri (2008), Toledo and Missouri (2009) and at California this year. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04), Miami and Nebraska ('05) and Texas ('08) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes will begin their 121st season of competition having played 1,142 games with an all-time record of 669-437-36. CU currently stands 17th on the all-time win list and is 23rd in all-time winning percentage (.602; 21st for those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 294-144-10 in 86 seasons on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 253-229-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, The Buffs are 51-34-2 in their last 87 October games, which follows a 51-27 in the last 78 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays. Colorado is 52-28-1 in its last 81 November games (46-17 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-11-1 against NU in turkey month). CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history.

2010 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1905 Due to a disagreement with the powers-that-be with the Colorado Football Association, Colorado pulls out of the league for the 1905 season, only to rejoin a year later. Thus, 105 is the last year in CU football history it competed as an independent (going 8-1 and outscoring the foe 359-28).
- 1910 The 100th anniversary of the second of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. It's the first year of the Rocky Mountain Faculty Athletic Conference (RMAC), and the Buffs allow a single field goal all year in outscoring the opponent 119-3.
- 1920 (Nov. 25) CU closes a 4-1-2 season with a 40-7 win at Oklahoma State, the program's most decisive win outside of the state's borders in 21 seasons of competition and one that wouldn't be bested until a 48-7 win at Brigham Young in 1934 (sans a 43-0 win over an Hawaiian All-Star team in 1924).
- 1935 Kayo Lam becomes the first player in CU history to rush for 1,000 yards (1,043 in nine games), and CU wins its first outright conference title in 11 seasons by going 5-1 in RMAC play, sealing the title with a 14-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day.
- 1940 (Oct. 26) In a 62-0 win over Wyoming in Boulder, 10 different players score for the Buffaloes—still a record to this day. Seven different players score touchdowns (Paul McClung and Leo Stasica scored two), while three others tack on the conversions.
- 1950 Though it's Colorado's third year as a member of the Big 7 Conference, Oklahoma finally appears as a conference opponent for the first time. The Sooners win a tough 27-18 battle in Boulder, the first of many over the course of the decade where CU was a thorn in the side of an Oklahoma team that was in the midst of a 47-0-1 run in conference play (the lone tie a 21-21 affair with the Buffs in 1952).
- 1955 After a 34-13 win at Kansas State, the Buffs improve to 4-0 and vault to No. 14 in the nation prior to their annual showdown with Oklahoma; the following week in Norman, the No. 3 Sooners topple the Buffs, 56-21 in CU's first game as a ranked team against a ranked opponent.
- 1960 (Oct. 29) After going 0-9-1 in the previous decade against Oklahoma, the Buffs start off the new one with a 7-0 win over the Sooners in Boulder; the schools would split the 10 games in the 1960s with five wins apiece. When coupled with a 19-6 win over Nebraska the previous week, it's the first time CU defeats NU and OU in the same calendar year.
- 1965 After three straight 2-8 seasons after the program was ravaged by NCAA sanctions, Eddie Crowder's third team goes 6-2-2; the season opener at Wisconsin (Sept. 18) is the last 0-0 tie in Colorado history and one of the last in college football.
- 1970 (Sept. 26) No. 4 Penn State visits Boulder riding a 31-game unbeaten streak, but the No. 18 Buffaloes end the Nittany Lions impressive run with a 41-13 win before a national televised audience on ABC. The Buffs jump 10 spots in the AP poll to No. 8 (still the school best for improvement from one week to the next), and Phil Irwin becomes the first CU football player to grace the cover of Sports Illustrated the following week (and the jinx holds true as CU loses 21-20 at Kansas State). On Nov. 21, the Buffs close the regular season with a 49-19 blowout of No. 10 Air Force in the Springs.
- 1975 (Oct. 4) The Buffs almost knocked off No. 1 Oklahoma in Norman, but did knock the Sooners from No. 1 to No. 2 in the polls. CU pulled to within the eventual final score of 21-20 with 1:19 left, but elected to go for the tie against OU, which was riding a 32-game unbeaten streak at the time. The extra point kick sailed off to the left. Coach Bill Mallory went for the tie on the belief that a tie could give CU the conference championship later in the year. The Buffs finished the season with a 9-3 mark, finishing third in the Big 8.
- 1980 (Oct. 4) A total of 63 school, conference and national records are set in Oklahoma's 82-42 win over the Buffaloes in Boulder. It was one of 10 losses on the year for CU, which recorded its worst record (1-10) in 91 seasons of intercollegiate football.
- 1985 CU earns a bowl invitation for the first time since 1976, and wins the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over the 1-10 record in 1984). In a bold move, the Buffs switch from a passing oriented offense to the wishbone, the end result being CU's first winning season since 1978 (7-5) after going 14-51-1 the previous six seasons.
- 1990 Colorado clinches its first national championship in football with a 10-9 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, the second team to do so when playing what was deemed the nation's toughest schedule. Wins over Stanford, Texas, Washington, Oklahoma and Nebraska (the latter two back-to-back for the second straight year) highlighted CU's 11 wins. Alfred Williams wins the Butkus Award, becoming the first player in CU history to win one of college football's major postseason trophies. And unbeknownst to all involved at the time, CU gets a fifth down at Missouri to score the winning touchdown as time expired. In actuality, Colorado had two second downs when the marker and scoreboard did not change.
- 1995 CU overcomes 10 players drafted into the NFL (seven in the first 71 picks) to have a 10-win season, with all seven seniors invited to play in the Hula Bowl, Rick Neuheisel wins his debut as head coach with a 43-7 drubbing of Wisconsin on the road, the only CU head coach to win his first game since 1932. QB Koy Detmer is lost for the season with a knee injury early on, but John Hessler fills in and leads CU to a 10-2 mark and a Cotton Bowl win over Oregon.
- 2000 (Oct. 28) QB Craig Ochs becomes the first player in Colorado history to rush for a touchdown, throw for a touchdown and catch a touchdown pass in CU's 37-21 win over Oklahoma State. The lone instance in CU history was the 16th time in NCAA history at the time that this trifecta occurred.
- 2005 Colorado reappeared in the national rankings after a 25-month drought, but the Buffaloes couldn't remain there after a 7-2 start, losing their final four games of the year. CU did win the Big 12 North Division and appear in the league championship game for the fourth time in five years (a feat matched by no other team in either division). PK Mason Crosby was the runner-up for the Lou Groza Award, becoming CU's first-ever first-team All-American placekicker, and P John Torp finished second in the balloting for the Ray Guy Award.

BIG 12 BOWL AGREEMENTS

Here's the Big 12 Conference bowl lineup; the league is guaranteed a spot in the Dallas Football Classic for the 2010 and '12 seasons; and the Eagle Bank Bowl in 2013. The conference will provide a team to either bowl in 2011 if the conference/team under contract that season is unable to supply an opponent. For 2011 the Dallas Football Classic has agreements with the Big Ten and Conference USA to provide teams; while the Eagle Bank Bowl is partnered with the ACC and Navy:

Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and/or BCS National Championship
AT&T Cotton (SEC)
Valero Alamo (Pac-10)
Insight (Big Ten)

Bridgepoint Education Holiday (Pac-10)
Texas (Big Ten)
New Era Pinstripe Bowl (Big East)
Dallas Football Classic/Eagle Bank (Big Ten/ACC)

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-4 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas this year, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, Texas Tech and UCLA. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal and Texas (5), followed by LSU and Missouri (4) and Florida State and Michigan State (3 each).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 20 seasons, which is the 11th most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Ohio State (12), Oklahoma (10), Miami, Fla. (9), Nebraska (9), Texas (9) and Florida State (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Uteck, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2009 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

WILLIAMS TO BECOME FIFTH BUFFALO TO BE INDUCTED INTO THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Alfred Williams, one of the key figures in the University of Colorado football team's rise to national prominence in the late 1980s, will become the fifth Buffalo to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, the National Football Foundation announced May 27. Williams, 41, who still resides in the metro Denver area (Centennial) will be the second youngest Colorado player to go into the Hall. He is a member of a very impressive overall class, as he will be inducted with 13 others, including two coaches, this December in New York City. Williams is the third youngest player of the newest dozen who will be enshrined. They will be inducted at the 53rd annual awards dinner at the famed Waldorf Astoria on December 7 and the group will officially be enshrined in the Hall in the summer of 2011. CU honored him on September 18 against Hawai'i in what was billed as Alfred Williams Day; over 300 kids wearing #94 jerseys, his number at CU, lined a tunnel from the end zone to midfield for the presentation, which included two of CU's living Hall of Famers, Joe Romig and Dick Anderson.

This was the third year Williams was on the national ballot, which usually numbers around 75 candidates (77 this year), as he first appeared in 2008. Two other Buffaloes were also on the ballot, former head coach Bill McCartney and tailback Eric Bieniemy; both were candidates for the first time and automatically advance to subsequent national ballots for the next decade. The minimum requirement for players is first-team All-America mention at least one season.

"I am so proud and honored by this, but it's a tribute to my teammates and coaches," Williams said. "I was honestly speechless when I found out. A lot of people deserve to go into the College Football Hall of Fame but they select so few, so I am both humble and proud to represent all my teammates as the first to go in from our national championship team. Hopefully there will be others, including Coach Mac. I'm so proud of all the guys I played with over the years at CU, they were my family. Everyone knows how I feel about the University of Colorado and my love for the school."

Williams was a member of one of the most decorated recruiting classes in CU history, as the 1987 group added to the foundation for McCartney's teams to take things up a notch to eventually win three straight Big Eight Conference titles from 1989-91 and the consensus national championship in 1990. Williams was a standout player all four of his seasons, first playing as a true freshman in 1987 and culminating with his selection as a unanimous All-American and the Butkus Award winner as the nation's top linebacker as a senior in 1990. He was a consensus All-American as junior in 1989 when he was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Award along with teammate and childhood friend, Kanavis McGhee.

Williams' Butkus Award was the first major trophy honoring an individual won by a Colorado player. During his career, CU was 37-10-1, including a 22-6 mark in Big Eight games (22-2-1 and 14-0, respectively, his junior and senior seasons when he was a unanimous All-Big Eight performer and two-time league defensive player-of-the-year).

Williams finished his career with 263 tackles (180 solo), the 10th most at the time in school history (still 23rd overall). His 59 tackles for loss and 35 quarterback sacks are both still school bests, along with the 303 and 242 yards lost, respectively, for each category. He had at least one sack in 28 of 48 career games (including a streak of 10 straight games to open 1990), and led the Big Eight Conference in sacks as a junior (10½) and senior (12½). He also had 53 quarterback hurries (second all-time), 42 third down stops (third) and 25 passes broken up (11th). He was the recipient of CU's Dave Jones Award as the team's defensive MVP his junior and senior years. He was second-team All-Big Eight as a sophomore, a season in which he had one of his best "monster" games. In a 24-21 win at Iowa, he had seven tackles, four for losses including two sacks, a forced fumble, a recovery, a pass deflection and a blocked punt.

He was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008, the seventh class to receive the distinction; his jersey number – 94 – was honored in the first group recognized in 1998. He was selected as an honorable mention performer on CU's All-Century Team (1890-1989), voted on the team by fans and alumni midway through his junior season.

Byron "Whizzer" White and Joe Romig were the first two Buffaloes to enter the Hall, inducted in 1952 and 1984, respectively, and followed by the Anderson brothers, with Dick inducted in 1993 and Bobby in 2006. White was a back and Romig a guard/linebacker in the old platoon days, while Dick Anderson was a safety and Bobby a tailback.

Williams is thus the second fastest to be inducted into the Hall, exactly 20 years since he last suited up for the Buffaloes; White was inducted 15 years after his collegiate playing days. Williams will also be the first African-American from CU inducted into the Hall, and is one of just a handful who has won a national championship and a Super Bowl playing for a school and then a pro team in the same state. CU won the consensus national championship in 1990, and the Denver Broncos won the Super Bowl following the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

After his playing days in the NFL, he co-founded At Light Speed, a communications data center, with former CU teammate Charles S. Johnson. He then made his foray into radio and television work, handling color commentary on the Altitude Network for area games and appearing on several guest panels. He is currently a radio personality, co-hosting a daily talk show on KKFN (104.3 fm). He has been a volunteer Pop Warner coach for the last 11 years, and is a past board member of the American Red Cross.

McCartney was asked what comes to mind when he hears Alfred's name. "Potential. Extraordinary potential. The sky's the limit. How high is up. He had it all," McCartney said. "He could run, he could jump, he was instinctive, smart. He was light on his feet. He was unrelenting, persevering. It was just a matter of how much he wanted to put into it because he had the whole package. He had native strength; he was wiry, he was explosive even though he'll readily admit that he didn't wear out the weight room. The great ones are instinctive; he just had a sense about him. He basically knew before they snapped the ball if they were running, throwing or coming at you with the option, and you can't coach that. He was the type of guy who played his best games in the big games. When he was physically and emotionally prepared, he was dominant. When we needed him most, he came up big. Alfred would stand out today, guys like him don't come along very often. He's as talented as anyone Colorado has ever had, and I'm proud of him for receiving this recognition."

Williams went on to play nine years in the NFL, and after stints with Cincinnati and San Francisco, finished his career with the Denver Broncos where in addition to playing for two Super Bowl champion teams, he earned All-Pro honors at defensive end in 1996. The Bengals drafted him in the first round of the 1991 draft, making him the 18th pick overall. He would play in 128 NFL games in his career, racking up 59½ quarterback sacks.

How special is induction and enshrinement into the College Hall of Fame? Prior to this class, of the 4.72 million people who have played college football since 1869, only 870 players and 188 coaches have been selected for the Hall.

He was born November 6, 1968 in Houston, and was a sociology major at Colorado. He earned a host of All-America honors as a senior at Houston's Jesse Jones High School, when he had 123 tackles, 18 quarterback sacks and 33 tackles for loss. He was an accomplished basketball player, averaging 24 points and 10 rebounds as a senior. He also threw the discus in track.

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 22 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of those occasions, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 18 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 22 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2010: Ohio State 22, Florida State 21, Florida 19, Michigan 19, Tennessee 19, Miami, Fla. 18, Nebraska 18, Oklahoma 18, Penn State 18, Texas 18, Notre Dame 15, Alabama 15, Auburn 15, Georgia 14, LSU 14, Virginia Tech 14, Colorado 12, Oregon 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). The 143 consecutive polls still ranks as the eighth longest all-time in college football history. In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-'98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

18 OUT OF 22

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, behind only Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. CU snapped that streak with a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007, and with the 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 and the 34-30 verdict over No. 17 Kansas in 2009, it's now 18 out of 22 years defeating at least one ranked program. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). The Buffs have defeated at least two in nine of the last 15 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 174 of its last 250 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (70 percent), including the first five games this season. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, and not including pay-per-view, 137 of CU's 177 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, which is an impressive 77.4 percent (the second most in the Big 12 Conference in this time frame). In addition, CU has had 36 of its last 42 non-conference games (85.7%) televised on a national or regional basis (tops in the Big 12). ANNUAL TV APPEARANCES SINCE INCEPTION OF THE BIG 12 (133): 1996 (10), 1997 (10), 1998 (9), 1999 (9), 2000 (7), 2001 (10), 2002 (12), 2003 (7), 2004 (9), 2005 (10), 2006 (7), 2007 (11), 2008 (10), 2009 (11), 2010 (5).

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. It recently has improved, but CU and UT still blaze the trail. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 28 (14-13-1), Texas 23 (8-13-2), Oklahoma 17 (8-9), Nebraska 15 (8-7), Texas Tech 13 (0-13), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Baylor 12 (2-10), Missouri 10 (2-8), Iowa State 10 (1-9), Oklahoma State 7 (1-6), Kansas 8 (1-7) and Kansas State 4 (1-3).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

18 OF 25

The Buffs have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 25 years (1985-2009), matched only by a handful of schools across the nation (6-6 records do not count). The exceptions came in 1997, 2000, 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2009; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 18 of these 25 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000, 2003, 2006, 2008 and now this year (the first time CU isn't going to a bowl over a two-year span since an eight year drought from 1977-84).

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's last two annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom didn't happen, the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the third most attending in 2009. CU has now had five occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. The national average worked to 12,996 in 2008 and 14,407 in 2009. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history
2010	Gold 37, Black 27	9,100	Teams are determined by the players drafting themselves

In Hawk's first two years, the spring game attracted 6,400 (2006, cloudy skies, temperature in the low 50s, very windy) and 5,800 last year (perfect weather, 60 degrees, clear skies, just a bit windy at times).

OPPONENTS IN 2010

Colorado's 12 opponents this year combined for an 82-71 (53.6%) record in 2009, with seven teams earning bowl invitations and Nebraska the lone 10-game winner last year (10-3). CU will play California for the first time since 1982 (Bill McCartney's first game as head coach) and Hawaii for the second time ever (the first was a UH 13-0 win on New Year's Day in 1925). Georgia makes its first visit ever to Boulder, and CU swaps in Baylor, Oklahoma and Texas Tech for Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas A&M from the Big 12 South Division. Colorado's 2009 opponents had a very similar mark, combining for an 82-70 record in 2008 (53.9%), with two teams winning double figure games and three others all going 9-4.

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2009 was 300,527, an average of 50,088 per game, marking the 15th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 33rd time in the last 35 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public season ticket base in the state with 22,020 public in 2009, along with another 12,500 student holders.

Week Fourteen (Dec. 4)

Big 12 Championship Game (ABC; at Arlington) 6:00 p.m.

Home team in CAPS. All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Big 12 Conference game. Television selections Sept. 25 and beyond are made on 12 days notice by the Big 12 television partners (ABC/ESPN, Fox Sports Network, Versus); ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Big 12, ACC, Big East, Big 10 or Pac 10). FSN provides national coverage via its lineup of 11 regional cable systems in both the morning (10 or 10:30 a.m. MT) and prime time (4:30 or 5 p.m. MT) windows, and on occasion may move a game into the afternoon window (1:30 p.m. MT) should ABC opt to pass on a telecast in that time slot. In all, FSN will televise 25 games during the 2010 season with projected late morning windows on Sept. 4-11-18, Oct. 2-9-16-23-30 and Nov. 6-13-20-27. FSN is scheduled to carry games in prime time on Oct. 2 (CU-Georgia)-9-14-16-23-30 and Nov. 6-13-20. In addition, the Big 12 has entered into an agreement to allow institutions to authorize telecast of games on Fox College Sports (FCS) and pay-per-view in available windows.

CABRAL CELEBRATES 300TH GAME AS A BUFFALO, TURNS EYE TO ... 400?

Associate head coach and long-time linebacker coach Brian Cabral celebrated his 300th game as Colorado Buffalo in 2009, and did it in style in CU's thrilling 35-34 win over Texas A&M (he now has been involved in 308). He wore his famous trademark lava lava wrap in CU colors for the game (the Buffs are 5-2 when he dons the garb, which he has done once in 2008—for CU's 29-27 win over Georgia). A former inside linebacker for the Buffs, he originally was a middle guard until suffering an elbow injury midway through his freshman year ('74) before switching to linebacker in a career that spanned 46 games from 1974-77. He has coached in 257 since joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1989. He had a 9-year career in the National Football League (1978-86) and then worked two years as GA for Purdue before making his way back to Boulder. Cabral finished his CU career as the Buffs' all-time leading tackler with 297; he is still tied for 16th on the all-time list. He has coached eight of the players who have passed him on the list: Matt Russell, Greg Biekert, Jordon Dizon, Ted Johnson, Chad Brown, Michael Jones, Thaddeus Washington and Jashon Sykes, with a ninth, senior Jeff Smart, finishing just six behind his total with 291.

GAME #1: COLORADO 24, COLORADO STATE 3SEPTEMBER 4, 2010 (INVESCO FIELD, DENVER)

DENVER—That long-awaited win against their bitter in-state rival? Check. That much-needed fast start on college football's opening weekend? Check. The defense increasing its weekly turnover totals? Check. Scotty McKnight breaking the school career receiving mark? Check.

But attending to business and leaving town with unfinished business amounts to good news and even better news for the Buffs, who dispatched Colorado State 24-3 at sweltering Invesco Field at Mile High in the Cinch Jeans Rocky Mountain Showdown.

That also goes for the Buffs offense, which rolled to a 17-0 halftime lead under quarterback Tyler Hansen and added another third-quarter touchdown (24-0) before the Rams managed a fourth-quarter field goal to avoid being shutout in the series for the first time since 1957 (20-0).

Hansen finished with 17 completions in 25 attempts for 192 yards and two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

During CU's first-half surge, Hansen and McKnight connected on a pair of passes for 42 yards in an 82-yard drive. McKnight's second catch tied Michael Westbrook's 167 CU career receptions; his next - a 27-yarder for a score - shoved Westbrook's record aside.

McKnight, a senior captain, called his achievement "humbling, a great feeling," but added, "Numbers don't mean so much to me . . . I've been through a season where we won three games (2009) and I caught 76 balls - it's not fun."

Jon Major led a CU defense that snuffed CSU and its freshman quarterback, Pete Thomas. The Buffs intercepted him three times, allowed the Rams only 49 yards rushing and forced them into three-and-outs on their first three series of the game.

Major made the game's most significant stop - a fourth-and-one stuff of CSU's running quarterback, T.J. Borcky that gave the Buffs possession on the Rams' 44-yard line.

Five plays later, Hansen and "newly acquired" receiver Travon Patterson, a transfer from Southern California, teamed for an 18-yard touchdown pass on which "TP" showed the leave-'em-looking speed he was expected to bring to a position that now is, ah, up to speed.

After Aric Goodman's PAT, the Buffs went up 7-0 and were in control of almost everything except themselves for the rest of the game. They were penalized 10 times for 104 yards - a decidedly less-than-efficient start for a team that drew 107 flags in 2009.

In addition to his pair of TD passes, Hansen also ran six times for 31 yards, including a 1-yard scoring sneak. But he also was sacked twice and lost 29 yards, one of the sacks costing CU 16 yards on a regrettable series that started in CSU territory (49 yard line) after an interception by safety Anthony Perkins.

Still, coupled with tailback Rodney "Speedy" Stewart's 16 carries for 67 yards, Hansen's mobility gave the Buffs a running dimension they didn't have in last season's 23-17 loss to the Rams. Behind Stewart was true freshman Justin Torres, who carried five times in the fourth quarter for 26 yards (5.2 average).

The Buffs got a boost from Goodman, who hit a 28-yard field goal in the first half, made three extra point attempts and sailed three of his five kickoffs into or out of the end zone.

If there was an opening-day downer for the Buffs, it was the serious knee injury suffered by nickel back Parker Orms during punt coverage in the first half; he tore his ACL and was lost for the remainder of the season.

GAME NOTES

Colorado now leads the series 60-20-2, including a 6-4 edge in Denver . . . CU is now 23-1 in season openers since 1967 when scoring first . . . This is the fewest points CU has allowed in a season opener since a 45-3 win over Fresno State in 1988 . . . This marked the first time the losing team in the series failed to score at least 10 points since a 23-7 CSU win in Boulder in 1986, and the first time the loser did not score a touchdown since 1983, when CU won 31-3 in Boulder in game that resumed the series after a 25-year dormancy (CU now leads the series 17-6 since its resumption) . . . Colorado's 17-0 lead at halftime was the largest by either team in the series since CSU led 28-0 at halftime in 1999; it was CU's largest intermission lead since 1995 in Boulder (28-7) . . . The win was Dan Hawkins' 70th on the I-A/FBS level (70-44) . . . In five season openers under Hawkins, the Buffs are now 15-of-15 in the Red Zone (10 TD/5 FG) . . . The 3 points allowed by CU are the third lowest in the 50-game Hawk Era, trailing two shutouts (the last of which was last Sept. 19, a 24-0 win over Wyoming) . . . The 245 yards allowed by the Buff defense is the fewest surrendered in a season opener since 1998, when CSU had 202 in a 42-14 CU win in what was the first series game played in Denver . . . CSU's first nine plays all gained less than 5 yards (and just one of which gained 4); 36 of CSU's 58 plays went for fewer than 15 feet . . . CSU ran just 15 plays in CU territory (for a net 44 yards) . . . WR Scotty McKnight became CU's all-time leading receiver in style, catching his 168th career ball to pass Michael Westbrook (167, 1991-94) on a 27-yard touchdown pass from QB Tyler Hansen . . . ILB Jon Major had a career-high 10 tackles, besting the four he had last year at Iowa State . . . With four quarterback sacks, the Buffs extended their streak with a least one sack to 21 straight games . . . Colorado sold about 33,500 of its allotted 37,000 tickets for the game; the crowd of 60,989 was the lowest of the 10 games in Denver (previous low was 65,701 in 2006).

GAME #2: CALIFORNIA 52, COLORADO 7SEPTEMBER 11, 2010 (MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, CALIF.)

BERKELEY, Calif. — Kevin Riley threw four touchdown passes for California, which turned five Colorado turnovers into 31 points, as the Golden Bears provided a rude welcome to their future conference mates in the Buffaloes, scoring early and often in a 52-7 win.

CU dropped to 1-1 on the season, while Cal improved to 2-0 and then appeared in the coaches' poll at No. 24 the day following the win.

The two are scheduled for a return game in Boulder on Sept. 10, 2011, but it's unknown at present whether that game will be a non-conference game or a league tilt; CU is set to join the Pacific-10 in either 2011 or 2012. So the Buffaloes will have to wait either one or two years for their revenge against Cal, which rolled to a 31-0 halftime lead and then poured it on late, including running a double reverse up by 31 with seven minutes left in the game.

Poor field position helped dictate the tough start; after forcing Cal to punt after picking up three first downs, CU was pinned deep and a poor punt (38 yards) and long return (23) set the Bears up at the CU 19, the first of four straight possessions Cal started in CU territory. The Buff defense tried to hold, allowing two touchdowns and a field goal with a fourth down stop, but the Bears put 17 points into the books and the rout was on.

Offensively, the offensive line could not contain Cal and thus put quarterback Tyler Hansen at risk early and often; he was sacked six times, threw three interceptions and lost a fumble. Combined with nine penalties, eight in the first half, the Buffs were behind the 8-ball from the start.

Cal used its longest first-half drive—72 yards on six plays—to take a 24-0 lead on Shane Vereen's 3-yard run with 10:29 left in the half. The Buffs actually dominated the game's next 22:52 stretch, possessing the ball for 20:11, forcing the Bears into three straight three-and-outs while scoring their only points in the window, a 4-yard run on fourth down by Hansen late in the third quarter. Unfortunately for the Buffs, those matched what Cal had already scored in the span — linebacker Mike Mohamed returned a Hansen interception 41 yards for the Bears' final TD of the first half to account for the 31-0 intermission lead.

The Bears closed the scoring with an 82-yard fumble return by senior cornerback Darian Hagan, Jr., the son of CU's former quarterback and current running backs coach, who scooped up the ball after Ryan Deehan lost possession. It was a punctuation mark for Cal.

Riley hit Vereen with a 13-yard scoring pass, capping a meager 19-yard drive, for Cal's first TD. He went on to complete 15-of-24 passes for 197 yards, doing most of his damage deep in CU territory which subsequently led to his throwing four scoring passes.

Colorado actually held an edge in total offense, 179-168, through three quarters, but the Bears more than matched that total in the fourth quarter with 188 yards, the bulk coming on two touchdown drives. The big advantage for Cal came in return yardage, as the Bears held a 169-8 margin, those yards playing a huge role early in the field position game.

GAME NOTES

CU officials sold out its tickets allotment (4,000) to the game, but plenty of other fans bought tickets from Cal for an estimated 7,500 Buffalo fans in attendance ... California took a 3-2 lead in the series; in the five games, the lead has never changed hands as the team that scored first went on to win ... The series resumed 28 years to the day after the last meeting (Sept. 11, 1982, when both teams debuted new head coaches: Bill McCartney for CU and Joe Kapp for Cal) ... The Buffs extended their streak with a least one sack to 22 straight games ... One bright spot for the Buffaloes was its offense in third-and-short situations: CU was 6-of-6 on 3rd-&-1 or 2, with TB Rodney Stewart rushing for the first down on all six occasions ... FTE Ryan Deehan finally caught his first pass of the year, or the game (12 drives), California's starting field position was at its own 40; but the first seven drives, it was on average at the CU 49 ... UB Mat Bahr caught his first career pass since moving over from offensive tackle ... This was CU's 13th straight road loss, the ninth in a row on artificial turf; the last win in both situations was the same game, a 31-26 win at Texas Tech in 1997 ... For all its points, Cal only had three plays over 20 yards in length, two of those coming in the meaningless fourth quarter ... Cal didn't overtake Colorado in total offense for good until early in the fourth quarter; CU had wrestled the lead away late in the third, overcoming a first quarter where it gained minus-8 yards.

GAME #3: COLORADO 31, HAWAII 13SEPTEMBER 18, 2010 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER — It was a classic tale of two halves, but Colorado's dominance after intermission enabled the Buffaloes to cruise to a 31-13 win over the Hawai'i Warriors.

The first half belonged to the defense, the second half to the offense. Hawai'i outgained CU 237-124 in the first half in building a 10-0 lead; but in the second half, CU had the edge in yards by 328-100 and points, 31-3.

The defense began the afternoon with a pair of first-half goal-line stands that limited UH's halftime lead to 10-0. The Warriors rushed 13 times for seven yards, with the 13 attempts tied for the second fewest against CU in its history (12 by Texas Tech in 2007 are the fewest).

On their second play from scrimmage, the Warriors (1-2) showed what they intended to do, striking for an 80-yard Bryant Moniz to Kealoha Pilares completion. CU corner Jimmy Smith crossed the field to run down Pilares at the Buffs' 3-yard line - and the Warriors went no further than the 2.

After three runs gained nothing, a fumbled snap on fourth down recovered by CU safety Anthony Perkins preserved the goal line stand. Two series later - after CU began the offensive ineptness that would follow it to halftime - UH again had possession at the Buffs' 3-yard line, this time taking advantage of a punt fumbled by Travon Patterson and recovered by Warriors linebacker Po'okela Ahmad.

But this UH possession at the CU 3 was no more effective than the first. After Moniz threw three incompletions, placekicker Scott Enos was wide right on a 20-yard field goal attempt. The upshot: on eight plays inside the Buffs' 3-yard line, the Warriors gained one yard and missed a chip shot field goal attempt.

The Buffs shook themselves awake in the second half and scored on their first two series on short touchdown runs (4 & 2 yards) by Rodney Stewart and the Warriors' first possession (safety). CU mostly used the no-huddle, taking advantage of the altitude and perhaps UH being road weary at the tail end of a 13-day, roughly 11,000-mile trip.

The Buffs rediscovering their running game was the second half's biggest find. Stewart (22 carries, 106 yards, 2 TDs) and Lockridge (14-109) became the first two CU running backs to go over 100 yards in the same game since Chris Brown (127) and Bobby Purify (174) did it in 2002 against Iowa State. The Buffs rushed for 183 of their 252 yards - their largest total to date in 2010 - in the second half.

Running backs coach Darian Hagan had planned on using Stewart and Lockridge in fairly equal amounts, but after Stewart's xxxxxxxx was all Lockridge said he needed to record his first career 100-yard rushing game. In 2009, he carried 12 times for 53 yards last season - total.

In addition to Stewart's heroics, CU's second-half point spree featured a pair of TD passes from Hansen to Clemons (73 yards) and to Scotty McKnight via Clemons (23 yards). A series after the Hansen-to-Clemons scoring play gave CU 24-13 lead, a Hansen pass intended for Clemons bounded off of his shoulder pads and caromed to McKnight, who made the catch, ran a couple of steps and dove into the end zone.

Hansen finished the game with 200 yards passing (19 of 26) and the two TD tosses. He was not intercepted. Moniz was 27-of-41 for 330 yards and one TD. He was intercepted in the fourth quarter by nickel back Jonathan Hawkins, the fourth player CU has used at the position this season because of injuries.

GAME NOTES

CU evened the series with Hawai'i at 1-1; it had been 31,305 days since they first played, but the two open the 2011 season against each other in Honolulu next Sept. 3 (just 350 days this time) ... The 55 degree temperature at kickoff was the coldest for a CU opener at Folsom Field since 1982 (Sept. 11), when it was 49 degrees in a 31-17 loss to California (rainfall, 15 mph winds); that game was Bill McCartney's first as Buff head coach ... Redshirt frosh CB Paul Vigo made his first career start, doing so as the nickel back; unfortunately, he was the third NB lost in as many games to an extensive injury ... The third quarter safety by Anthony Perkins was CU's first safety since Oct. 22, 2005 versus Kansas in Boulder ... CU's 252 yards rushing marked its first time the Buffs went over 200 since 2008 versus Kansas State (247) and its most since running for 257 against Nebraska in 2007 (both games in Boulder) ... Hawai'i finished the game with 13 rushes for a net 7 yards (11-for-19 if excluding sacks). That is tied for the second fewest rushing plays against CU in its history (lowest: 12 by Texas Tech in 2007); the net 7 yards is the 10th lowest ever allowed by a CU team, the second fewest in the Dan Hawkins Era as Kansas had a net minus-8 last year ... The Buffs honored Alfred Williams at halftime, as he will become CU's fifth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame this December (over 300 youngsters wearing replica #94 jerseys, Williams' number at CU, lined a tunnel for him to the center of the field) ... This was the seventh comeback from 10-plus points down by the Buffs under Dan Hawkins.

GAME #4: COLORADO 29, GEORGIA 27

OCTOBER 2, 2010 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Just as Georgia appeared ready to parlay a One Dawg Night - that would be A.J. Green's superlative 2010 debut - into a last-minute win, Colorado linebackers B.J. Beatty and Jon Major stepped forward and changed the script.

Beatty's strip of quarterback Aaron Murray and Major's recovery with 1:55 remaining allowed the confident and steadily improving Buffaloes to leave Folsom Field with a 29-27 victory and head into their final Big 12 Conference season with a respectable 3-1 non-conference record, winning consecutive games for the first time since 2008.

The Buffs took a good start - leading at one point 14-3 - to a near heart-stopping finish. With 1:55 to play, after kicker Aric Goodman just missed a 52-yard field goal attempt, CU clung to a two-point lead and watched UGA try to position itself for the win at the Buffs' 27-yard line, where Beatty and Major made the game-securing play.

Green, playing in his first game after a four-game NCAA suspension, didn't touch the ball for the first time until the second quarter, but when he did he nearly single-handedly turned the CU 11-point lead into a Georgia 10-point advantage.

His first touch of the season was a 40-yard gain on a flanker reverse. His second touch produced an acrobatic one-handed catch of a Murray pass for a 3-yard touchdown that pulled UGA to within four points (14-10). He then connected with Murray on a 39-yard score, giving UGA its first lead at 17-14.

He then opened the second half with 50-yard pass play, putting the Bulldogs into scoring position, where they would take a 24-14 lead five minutes into the third quarter. But that catch was the last of the game, leaving with cramps and seeing limited action the rest of the way.

The Buffs then sparked and would score a pair of touchdowns and a 2-point conversion in a span of just over three minutes to turn the 24-14 deficit into a 29-24 lead. Keyed by an option play where Rodney Stewart ran through a huge hole and rambled for 65 yards to the UGA 8, Hansen scored on a 2-yard dive three plays later for a touchdown. The Buffs then lined up in a strange formation where Ryan Deehan is the center - but an eligible receiver - and most of his teammates, including Goodman, are split to the left of the formation. Cody Hawkins took the snap and threw to a wide open Deehan for an easy two points and CU was within 24-22.

CU's next drive appeared to have ended with a 38-yard Goodman field goal, but he was roughed on the play and the Bulldogs were penalized 10 yards to the 11. Stewart scored on the next play, diving like a missile into the end zone at the pylon, and Goodman's PAT put CU back in front 29-24 with 4:39 left in the third quarter.

The Buffs went on the offensive early with tailbacks Brian Lockridge (16 carries, 36 yards, 1 TD) and Stewart (19-149, 1 TD). Lockridge started, then Stewart then came on strong, catching three passes for 31 yards in addition to his rushing total. Hansen completed 13-of-20 passes for 158 yards and a touchdown, while also running 10 times for 51 yards and the score (eight rushes for 65 yards not counting two sacks).

After Blair Walsh brought Georgia within two points at 29-27 with a 20-yard field goal with 12:30 left to play, CU responded by running almost 9 minutes off the clock, with its drive stalling at the UGA 35-yard line where Goodman just missed a 52-yard field goal attempt. With 3:37 remaining, the Bulldogs took over on their 35-yard line and pushed as far as the CU 27 before Beatty's timely strip and Major's recovery snuffed them.

GAME NOTES

UB Matt Bahr, a converted offensive tackle (last spring) scored his first career touchdown on CU's opening drive, the first points CU scored this year on its first possession ... TB Brian Lockridge made his third career start; the other two were on the road, boat at Kansas State (2007, 2009) ... CB Jalil Brown made his second interception of the season in the second quarter, the fifth of his career ... TB Rodney Stewart had the 10th 100-yard game of his career (19-149, 1 TD); he also converted on one 3rd-&-1 and one 4th-&-1, and is now 7-for-7 in such situations this season (and 18-of-20 in his career) ... CU extended its streak to 24 consecutive games with at least one sack ... The fourth quarter drive where CU missed a 52-yard field goal attempt was 15 plays for 45 yards (10-for-13 in plus territory), but consumed 8:53 off the clock ... Georgia averaged an astonishing 10.6 yards on first down plays (317 yards on 30 plays), but managed just 92 yards on 29 second/third down plays (3.2 per) ... CU was flagged for a season-low three penalties (two special teams, one on the defense); it was a team low since being called for two at Nebraska on Nov. 28, 2008 ... The Buffs rushed for 235 yards, and coupled with the 252 against Hawai'i, for 200-plus yards in back-to-back games (after going 19 straight games under 200) for the first time since 2006 ... Dan Hawkins' teams are now 40-1 in his career when rushing for 200 or more yards (8-1 at Colorado) ... The Buffs did not have a single forced fumble in their first three games, but had two tonight; DE Josh Hartigan had one in the third quarter when he sacked Aaron Murray, and OLB B.J. Beatty had the other with 1:55 left that may have saved the game.

GAME #5: MISSOURI 26, COLORADO 0OCTOBER 9, 2010 (FAUROT FIELD, COLUMBIA, MO.)

COLUMBIA, Mo. — No. 24 Missouri administered one last win over Colorado before the Buffaloes bolt the Big 12 Conference next season for the Pac-12, handing CU a 26-0 defeat at Faurot Field in the league opener for both teams, the final such one for Colorado.

Falling for the fifth consecutive time to Mizzou and losing its 14th straight regular season road game, the Buffs had a modest two-game win streak halted and dropped to 3-2, 0-1 in the Big 12. MU remained unbeaten (5-0, 1-0) and signed off in the series with a 41-31-3 advantage (8-7 in the Big 12).

The Buffs struggled early on special teams and throughout the night offensively. In addition to Cody Hawkins replacing Tyler Hansen at quarterback, freshman Justin Castor was given a chance at placekicker in place of senior Aric Goodman, who missed a crucial 40-yard field goal attempt when MU's lead was only 5-0.

Before they were victimized by their own special teams play, the Buffs were victimized by the Tigers'. CU started its first two possessions at its own 2- and 1-yard lines, respectively, courtesy of punts by MU's Matt Grabner.

The first possession ended in Zach Grossnickle's partially blocked punt, and the Buffs ran only one play on its second series, which ended in a safety when Hansen was ruled to have intentionally grounded the ball from his own end zone though it appeared he was throwing to a spot but a receiver had run a wrong route. A similar play by Missouri later in the game was not ruled in a similar fashion.

MU extended its lead to 5-0 with a Grant Ressel 47-yard field goal with 2:06 left in the first quarter. Toney Clemons gave the Buffs a spark, returning the kickoff 53 yards to the Tigers 44-yard line, and Hansen used the next six plays to march CU to the MU 23, but the drive stalled and Goodman's 40-yard field goal drifted wide left.

Mizzou responded to CU's missed opportunity by driving 77 yards for its first touchdown. On fourth-and-4 at the MU 44, Trey Barrow took the direct snap on the fake, sprinted to his left and gained 26 yards to the CU 30. Two plays later, Blaine Gabbert hooked up with Jerrell Jackson for a 30-yard score, pushing the Tigers in front 12-0.

Still, CU hadn't succumbed. Jalil Brown gathered in a fumble forced by Chidera Uzo-Diribe at the MU 13-yard line, offering the Buffs another chance to wriggle back into the fight. But after the offense lost 19 yards on their first three plays, CU summoned Castor to attempt a 40-yard field goal, but Terrell Resonno blocked the low kick.

Gabbert then marched Mizzou 97 yards in 17 plays, linking up with tight end Michael Egnaw for a 10-yard scoring pass that sent the Tigers into halftime with a 19-0 lead.

Opening the second half, the Buffs drove to the Tigers' 40- and 37-yard lines on their first pair of second-half possessions, but penalties sabotaged both. By quarter's end, Dan Hawkins decided a switch at quarterback might produce some late energy.

Starting at the MU 48, Hawkins directed the final three plays of the quarter and moved the Buffs as far as the Tigers 17, where on fourth-and-7, CU was whistled for a delay of game, followed by Hawkins being sacked for an 8-yard loss to end that threat.

Mizzou pulled Gabbert, who suffered a hip pointer, in favor of freshman James Franklin, who promptly drove the Tigers 70 yards to put MU up 26-0 with 9:24 to play.

Just under 3 minutes later, Hawkins was intercepted by Edwards, who returned the pick 49 yards to CU's 32-yard line, where Ryan Miller ran him down. The Tigers attempted to score but the defense held. CU again drove deep into MU territory, in fact running 44 plays on the plus-side of the 50 in the game, but the Buffs couldn't convert on fourth down. Mizzou then ran out the clock and secured the win.

GAME NOTES

One positive about the series like coming to a close was the end of the annual week of reminiscing about CU's win in 1990, the infamous Fifth Down game where the Tigers failed to inform opponents about conditions of their terrible field (had CU brought the right shoes, it likely wins something like 45-7), and the Big 8 officials and Mizzou chain crew messed up the down count, but 20 years of Missouri followers playing the victim at least has now come to an end ... This was CU's fifth straight Big 12 opener against a ranked opponent ... PK Justin Castor saw his first career action (his first FGA was blocked); he was the sixth true freshman to play this year for CU; TB Quentin Hildreth also played for the first time in a Buff uniform (he's a redshirt frosh) ... QB Cody Hawkins saw his first action of the season at quarterback; he's played in every game as he is also the holder on special teams ... This was just the ninth time in CU's last 495 games that the Buffs were shutout; Missouri has administered the last two, and the only two, in CU's last 262 games dating back to 1988 ... All eight of CU's penalties were on the offense ... The Buffs came in tied for 11th in the nation in "three-and-outs" with 18, and forced Mizzou in that predicament on five occasions ... DE Josh Hartigan made his first career interception in the fourth quarter, the first by a Buff defensive lineman since 2007, when DT Curtis Cunningham snared one at Florida State ... The third quarter has been a strong suit for both teams in 2010, and while there were no points scored in the period, CU did own a 97-17 edge in total offense, holding MU some 109 yards under its average for the quarter (126.3) ... TB Rodney Stewart (18-91, 0 TD) moved into 20th all-time at CU in rushing yards, passing Byron White (1,864) and Bob Stransky (1,868) to crack the top 20. Stewart was stopped on 3rd-&-1 on CU's first drive after coming into the game 7-for-7 on 3rd-&-1 and 4th-&-1 attempts (now 18-of-21 in his career). His 22-yard rush on 3rd-&-22 for a first down late in the first half improved CU to 9-of-92 on 3rd-&-20 or longer since 1993, a span in which the opponents is 4-of-93 in the same situations.

DEPTH CHART

A note about CU's depth: in-season, depth charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries; also, the coaches often use "groupings" at certain positions (i.e. receiver-tight end-tailback-fullback), and often a group enters the game to run a play that does not match the depth.
