GAME 10—CALIFORNIA

BUFFS, BEARS BOTH LOOKING FOR FIRST PAC-12 LEAGUE WIN IN 2013

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 2013 • 3:37 p.m. MST • Folsom Field (53,613), Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 10 (November 12, 2013)

Pac-12 Networks (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (3-6, 0-6 Pac-12) return home for the first of two straight at Folsom Field, hosting the California Golden Bears (1-9, 0-7 Pac-12) this Saturday, Nov. 16, in a 3:37 p.m. mountain time kickoff ... California leads the series, 4-2; this is the first conference game between the two since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011—the meeting that year in Boulder was the back end of a home-and-home series that saw CU visit Berkeley in 2010, its final year in the Big 12 ... This will be the first game between the two that isn't in September; in fact, it will be the second latest visit to Boulder by a school in the Pacific Time Zone (until USC visits on Nov. 23); Oregon came to Boulder on Nov. 18, 1950, and left with a 21-7 loss to the Buffs ... Colorado has the next two league games at home, the fourth time since joining the Pac-12; the Buffs split the pair in 2011 (lost to USC, beat UA), and lost both ends twice in '12 (UCLA, ASU; UW, Utah) ... This is the second time in seven series games that the two schools are playing with first-year head coaches (Mike MacIntyre, Sonny Dykes); back in 1982, they opened the season against each other with Bill McCartney (CU) and Joe Kapp (Cal) coaching their first games ... Colorado is coming off a 59-7 loss at Washington, while Cal dropped a 62-28 decision to USC at home last Saturday ... CU-Southern California Television: the Pac-12 television partners exercised their option for a 6-day selection for four game on Nov. 23; CU's home finale against USC can land in one of four places (in order of selection, all times MST): 5 p.m. (FOX), 1:30 p.m. (ESPN networks), 7:30 p.m. (Pac-12 Networks) or 2 p.m. (FOX Sports 1) ... The Buffs enter this game having dropped 14 straight Pac-12 games since winning the '12 opener at Washington State ... HBO Real Sports and Bryant Gumbel were in town recently doing a piece on Ralphie, CU's live buffalo mascot as part of its look at mascots nationally; it will air on Tuesday, Nov. 19 ... Visit CUBuffs.com/ Gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats. DEPTH CHART ON PAGE 55; ROSTER ON PAGES 56-57

STAT OF THE WEEK

Colorado had just one penalty for four yards at Washington; that tied for the fifth-fewest in a game in CU history, and the least since the Buffs were flagged zero time against Texas Tech in 2006. Through nine games, the Buffaloes have just 43 penalties for 380 yards, numbers that rank 29th and 39th in the NCAA. Colorado is on target to have its fewest penalties since 1985, when the team had just 49 for 450 yards (in an 11-game season); that was the last season the Buffaloes were flagged under 60 times.

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

Colorado's game at Washington took just 2 hours and 48 minutes to play; in fact, it was over so fast that CU's team plane had yet to arrive at Sea-Tac International Airport when the Buffs' busses arrived there postgame. It tied for the third fastest game for the Buffs in the last 24 seasons (dating back to 1990); the only two quicker ones were both that season, also against Washington as well as Iowa State, both 2:46 and both at Folsom Field. The game at Kansas in 1990 also took 2:48, and the 2006 game against Colorado State in Denver was played in 2:48, so the UW game this year was the fastest since then.

INJURY UPDATE

Here's a look at Colorado's injury report as of Tuesday, November 12 (CU has produced an injury report weekly dating back to 1984, with few exceptions):

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/California
OLB	Woodson Greer	neck	suffered a stinger in practice on Nov. 6; missed Washington game and is limited in practice	QUESTIONABLE
FB	Clay Jones	neck	suffered a neck sprain against Central Arkansas (Sept. 7), conditioning, practicing on a limited basis	OUT
WR	Paul Richardson	ankle	suffered a sprained ankle against Arizona, reinjured at UCLA, was in a boot until pregame at Washington	DAY-TO-DAY
Out for the season:
PK	Justin Castor	hip	suffered an avulsion (severe flexor strain on Aug. 21) that required surgery	OUT/SEASON
TB	Josh Ford	ankle	suffered a high ankle sprain (Aug. 11), underwent surgery (Aug. 19)	OUT/WILL PETITION FOR 6TH YEAR
OL	Jeromy Irwin	foot	suffered a broken bone in his foot doing yard work at a friend's house (July 30)	SET TO REDSHIRT
DB	Josh Moten	Achilles	suffered initially in late May, was rehabbing and recently reinjured it a second time (late July)	OUT/SEASON
OT	Marc Mustoe	lower leg	suffered a fractured fibula against Charleston Southern (Oct. 19); surgery this Thursday (Oct. 24)	OUT/SEASON
OLB	Tommy Papilion	knee	suffered a torn ACL in the spring game (Apr. 13); he has elected to be a student coach	OUT/SEASON
S	Terrell Smith	shoulder	underwent surgery on Sept. 5 to mend a chronic injury and is redshirting	OUT/SEASON

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status is listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame and the Monday after the game.

INJURY TURNAROUND

Four of the last five seasons, Colorado has endured some of its worst injury years on record; that has done a 180-degree turn this season. Two years ago, Colorado lost a total of 115 games in the two-deep to injuries, second only to the 20.8 percent (110 of 528) lost in 2008. The number jumped to 141 games lost when counting all players that were not ticketed to redshirt (with that 12.8 percent figure being the highest since the info started to be tracked in 1987). This year, CU has lost more games to injury for two chronic reasons (PK Justin Castor, hip; SS Terrell Smith, shoulder), a freak summer injury (OL Jeromy Irwin, who broke a bone in his foot while doing yard work) and a spring practice malady (QB Jordan Webb, torn ACL). Thus, CU has lost just 27 games at present due to injuries (19 in the two-deep): TB Josh Ford (9, severe high ankle sprain), FB Clay Jones (7, neck sprain), OL Marc Mustoe (3, fibula; the only player injured during the year who has been lost for the season), FB/TE Alex Wood (2, concussion), TB Michael Adkins (1, concussion), OG Brad Cotner (1, ankle), CB Kenneth Crawley (1, ankle), OLB Woodson Greer (1, stinger), DE Andre Nichols (1, back) and ILB/KR Ryan Severson (1, hamstring).

Below, 2013 is compared to those four seasons that were the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 25 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last decade, Colorado has had 195 of its 221 seniors graduate; these are the 2001-2012 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. That translates to 88.2 percent. Ten of the 12 seniors (or juniors graduating early) have earned degrees, with 25 of the 26 seniors in 2011 doing the same; 35 of the last 38 have graduated (92.1) starting with the 2006 senior class, 127 of 142 have earned degrees (89.4%). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado.

TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The football team recorded its fifth consecutive semester with a 2.60 grade point average or higher for the Spring 2013 term, coming at exactly 2.600 for the semester.

Honor Candidates

There are a few Colorado players worthy of consideration for national and conference honors as the season; for those of you who have votes in such, please consider the below players that the coaching staff thought were deserving:

✓ WR PAUL RICHARDSON Junior All-American Candidate / All-Pac 12 Candidate (BILETNIKOFF CANDIDATE)
Jr. / 6-1 / 170 / Los Angeles, Calif. He is enjoying his finest season as a Buff, as he has been among the nation's receiving leaders since week one, when he caught 10 passes for 208 yards and two touchdowns in a win over Colorado State ... He has 60 catches for 1,061 yards and 9 touchdowns, well on his way in each to new CU single-season records in each ... Second and fifth, respectively, in the Pac-12 and NCAA in receiving yards per game (117.9) ... He has 16 catches for over 20 yards and 34 over 10; his nine TD grabs have covered 465 yards, or 51.7 yards per ... He has earned 35 first downs, 34 receiving and one passing – he also threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to D.D. Goodson (more on pages 14-15).

✓ PK WILL OLIVER Junior All-American Candidate (LOU GROZA AWARD SEMIFINALIST)
Jr. / 5-11 / 190 / Los Angeles, Calif. Announced as one of 20 Lou Groza Award finalists on Nov. 4 (one of four from the Pac-12) ... Has enjoyed a solid season, making good on all 20 point after touchdown kicks and 14-of-20 field goals ... Made a career long 53-yard field goal against Arizona, after matching his previous best of 52 in the opener against CSU (when he tied his career best of four) ... Has missed just once under 45 yards (9-of-10) ... He has made 50 straight PAT kicks dating back to 2011 ... Only 24 of his 43 kickoffs have been returned, with 10 of 18 touchbacks sailing through the end zone ... Since week three, only 13 kickoffs have been returned for 250 yards (19.2 per).

✓ DE JERED BELL Junior All-Pac 12 Candidate
Jr. / 6-1 / 195 / Ontario, Calif. He has already played more snaps this season (577) than he did as an underclassman (255; 201 last year) ... He has 48 tackles (36 solo), which includes seven third down stops and seven touchdown saves ... He has three interceptions, including one he returned 79 yards for a touchdown against Central Arkansas ... Also has four passes broken up and a forced fumble.

✓ OT JACK HARRIS Junior All-Pac 12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-7 / 295 / Parker, Colo. Made the successful transition to left tackle, replacing David Bakhtiari who opted for the NFL Draft (and is now starting for the Green Bay Packers) ... Is CU's best offensive lineman, grading out to almost 90 percent for the season, including a 75.2 plus-play percentage ... He has 15 knockdown blocks and TD a block, and has allowed just two quarterback sacks and three pressures ... Has had 70 percent or greater plus plays in five of nine games and has graded out over 80 percent in eight.

✓ CB GREG HENDERSON Junior All-Pac-12 Candidate
Jr. / 5-11 / 190 / Corona, Calif. He has enjoyed his breakout season and is one of the top corners in the Pac-12 ... Led the league in interceptions the first half of the season and is still third with four ... Has played 667 snaps on the year (all but 23), recording 51 tackles, 36 of the solo variety ... Leads the league in passes defended with 14 (also has 10 deflections) ... Returned a fumble 53 yards for a touchdown against Colorado State ... Between tackles, interceptions and break-ups, he's recorded a team-best 13 third down stops..

✓ P DARRAGH O'NEILL Junior All-Pac 12 Candidate
Jr. / 6-2 / 185 / Louisville, Colo. He doesn't boom his kicks, but his hang time and placement is what has pleased both coaching staffs he's kicked under ... He is averaged 41.2 per punt this year (47 kicks), with 18 of those inside-the-20 (14 inside-the-15, nine inside-the-10, two inside-the-5) ... Only 12 of his punts have been returned ... Average a bit lower than others because the average yard line he has punted from is the CU 38 (compared to the 30 in past years); he has punted 13 times inside opponent territory (35.8 average), but has placed 11 of those inside-the-20 (and 10 inside-the-15) ... Can kick with both legs (all but one punt this year has been right-footed).

✓ DE CHIDERA UZO-DIRIBE Senior All-Pac 12 Candidate/ Ted Hendricks Award Mid-Season Watch List
Sr. / 6-3 / 250 / Corona, Calif. He was named to the Hendricks midseason watch list on Nov. 11 ... he has been a terror for offenses, as he leads the team with eight tackles for loss (two sacks), five forced fumbles, three passes broken up, seven quarterback hurries and a caused interception. He has 37 tackles overall (28 solo), including three third down stops.

✓ SN RYAN IVERSON Senior All-American Candidate (Special Teams)/ Burlsworth Trophy Candidate
Sr. / 6-0 / 225 / Newport Beach, Calif. One of the top specialty players in the nation, he's handled almost 400 punt and placement snaps in his career and is someone opponents scheme against; his 4.6 speed enables him to make an extraordinary amount of forced fair catches (23 in his career, six this year) as well as tackles (13 career; two in 2013).

✓ TB MICHAEL ADKINS II Freshman All-American / Freshman All-Pac 12 Candidate
(Fr.) He did not play until the third game of the season, but has been a regular in the rotation since ... In his first career start (against Charleston Southern), he rushed for 137 yards on just 13 carries, the fourth-most yards by a true freshman in his first CU start, and he scored a Buff frosh record four touchdowns ... Currently second on the team in rushing with 395 yards with a healthy 5.6 yards per carry and five TDs ... He has 15 runs of 10 yards or longer, with 27 of five or more ... He missed the UCLA game with concussion symptoms.

✓ CB/N CHIDOBÉ AWUZIE Freshman All-American / Freshman All-Pac 12 Candidate
(Fr.) He worked his way into the top spot at the nickel position by the end of fall camp, and thus has already played 464 snaps from scrimmage ... He has 45 tackles on the season, which include six third down stops and two touchdown saves ... Had a career-high 12 tackles (5 solo) against Arizona ... Also has three PBU's, a forced fumble, a recovery and a sack.

✓ ILB ADDISON GILLAM Freshman All-American / Freshman All-Pac 12 Candidate
(Fr.) He leads the team in tackles with 88, which is now the most ever recorded by a freshman at Colorado (the record was 85 by a redshirt frosh, 82 by a true freshman) ... Has a nose for the football, as he has 16 tackles at or behind the line of scrimmage (eight for losses, eight for zero gains) ... Numbers include 11 third down stops and three quarterback sacks ... Also has three passes broken up and a pair of TD saves ... Set a single game freshman record with 18 tackles (14 solo) against Oregon (more on page 7).

✓ KR RYAN SEVERSON Freshman All-Pac 12 Candidate
(Fr.) He has all of his action on special teams as the main kickoff return man (he missed one game with hamstring tightness) ... He's come close to breaking the big one on a couple of occasions, and is currently sixth in the conference and 54th in the NCAA with a 22.6 average on 27 returns (with a long of 48).

BONSU'S UNIQUE ACADEMIC ROAD

Senior DT Nate Bonsu was CU's 2013 nomination for the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award (he was not one of the 16 winners); he owns a 3.38 grade point average through his junior year and is majoring in International Affairs and Political Science at Colorado; in conjunction with those majors, he has learned to speak Arabic and is also earning an Entrepreneurship Certificate from CU's Leeds School of Business. Here's the course load he is taking this fall (all 3-credit classes): Advanced Arabic I, Principles of Business for Entrepreneurs, Writing a Venture Plan, Intro to Middle East History and Gender/Race/Class/Global Studies. Bonsu was a first-team Pac-12 All-Academic Team member as a junior, after earning second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named honorable mention Academic All-State by the Texas High School Coaches Association and earned status as a Texas Scholar and had a perfect score on the associated test. He hopes to go to law school after his football days are over and also wants to attend culinary school.

GILLAM MAKING BID FOR FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN

True freshman ILB Addison Gillam (6-3, 225), who hails from a small town in northern California (Palo Cedro) has been a big-time find the Buffaloes; originally committed to San Jose State when coach Mike MacIntyre was there, he decided to follow Mac and many of his assistants to Colorado. Gillam set a CU freshman record (true or redshirt) with 18 tackles in Colorado's 57-16 loss to Oregon. In 86 plays, he had 14 unassisted stops, which included two tackles for loss, one a quarterback sack, along with a tackle for zero to give him three at or behind the line of scrimmage. Teammate Terrell Smith, who is redshirting after undergoing season-ending shoulder surgery, had held the true freshman mark of 17 (11 solo), which he set at Nebraska on Nov. 29, 2010. Gillam has 11 third down stops on the year (all in the first four games); the CU record for a season is 19, held by Jordan Dizon (2007). Gillam is CU's leading tackler with 81 on the year (57 solo), and has recorded the most tackles by a freshman, true or redshirt, in school history. Since tackles started being tracked in 1964, a freshman has never led Colorado for the year; in fact, a sophomore has led the team only five times in these 49 seasons and not since Jashon Sykes last did so in 1999. CU's all-time freshmen tackle leaders:

SPEAKING OF TRUE FRESHMEN ... LIUFU MAKES DEBUT

QB Sefo Liufau (seff-oh loo-fow) made his collegiate debut late in the first quarter at Arizona State, leading CU to a touchdown on his first drive (an 11-play, 80-yard march). In becoming the ninth true freshman to play for the Buffs this season, he went on to complete 18-of-26 passes for 169 yards and a touchdown; he also threw two interceptions, though one was off a deflection (his passer rating was 128.8). The last true freshman to appear in a game at quarterback for CU was Tyler Hansen, who made his debut in a 14-13 win against Kansas State in Boulder on Oct. 18, 2008; he completed 7-of-14 passes for 71 yards (1 TD/1 INT). Liufau then earned the starting nod the following week against Charleston Southern and performed well in CU's 43-10 win; in the process, he became just the 10th freshman (six true, four redshirt) to start a game at quarterback for Colorado. The list (*—denotes season opener):

TRUE FRESHMEN QB-RB RARE

QB Sefo Liufau and TB Michael Adkins, both true freshmen, both made their first career starts in CU's 43-10 win over Charleston Southern. It marked the first time in CU history that two true freshmen at the quarterback and running back positions started their first career games in the same contest. The last time two true frosh started the same game was against Iowa State in 2008, when QB Tyler Hansen started his second game and TB Darrell Scott his first. Prior to that, you have to go back to 1986, in the next-to-last game of the year when QB Marc Walters made his only career start, doing so as a true frosh subbing for an injured Mark Hatcher, with HB O.C. Oliver starting that year for the sixth time. These are the only three games in CU history where true freshmen have started at the quarterback and running back positions.

GILLAM, AWUZIE LATEST TRUE FRESHMEN TO SEE SIGNIFICANT ACTION ON DEFENSE

ILB Addison Gillam and CB/N Chidobe Awuzie are the latest true freshmen to make a splash on defense for the Buffaloes. Entering the season, just 12 true freshmen had played over 300 snaps from scrimmage, but six of those joined the list the last three seasons. Current junior CB Greg Henderson set the record in 2011 with 823 plays, with now-sophomore CB Kenneth Crawley second with 642 last year. Gillam already has played 618 snaps this fall, setting a freshman linebacker record (Jordan Dizon had the old mark of 597 in 2004). Awuzie became the 14th true frosh to crack the 300-play barrier, as he now has 464. A closer look at the most snaps played by true defensive freshmen (minimum 300):

Greg Henderson, CB (2011)	823
Kenneth Crawley, CB (2012)	642
Addison Gillam, ILB (2013)	618
Jordan Dizon, ILB (2004)	597
Marques Mosley, FS (2012)	524

Chidobe Awuzie, CB/N (2013)	464
Terrel Smith, S (2010)	414
Jashon Sykes, ILB (1998)	392
Deon Figures, CB (1988)	358
Josh Tupou, DT (2012)	343

Kanavis McGhee, OLB (1987)	323
Alfred Williams, OLB (1987)	320
Ty Gregorak, ILB (1997)	316
Yuri Wright, CB (2012)	310
Jimmie Gilbert, DE (2013)	199

BALL SECURITY

Colorado running backs hadn't suffered a fumble until the ninth game of the year at Washington (and of course, the first game after that fact was pointed out in these notes)—the first did not occur until the 254th carry. Regardless, the coaches have improved the ball security all around (CU has only 10 fumbles total in nine games, four of those by freshman ILB Ryan Severson who also is CU's chief kickoff return man). Christian Powell (116 rushes, 120 total touches), Michael Adkins II (70, 79), Tony Jones (57, 68) and Donta Abron (21, all rushes) have combined for 264 rushing attempts and 288 total touches with just one fumble, when Jones was hit just shy of the ground at Washington, with the Huskies recovering (and returning 53 yards for a touchdown to add more misery to the play). Jones has just two fumbles in 269 career touches (198 rushes), while Powell has just two in 286 (274 rushes).

FEAST OR FAMINE

The last three weeks has seen a “feast or famine” situation for CU's opponents in the Buffs' current three-game losing streak:

—First, in the 44-20 loss to Arizona, the Wildcats capitalized on the big play: it had the most 20-plus plays of the year against the Buffs at the time (10; CU had allowed 30 in the first six games of the season). Those 10 plays gained a whopping 373 yards (or 37.3 per), while the other 72 the 'Cats ran gained 292, or 4.1 per.

—Then, in the 45-23 loss at UCLA, the Bruins gained 317 yards on its 15 plays of 10 yards or longer, most significantly a 76-yard touchdown pass. The other 42 plays gained just 95 yards, or just 2.3 per; so if it appears the Buffs do seem to get a good number of stops, the math backs it up.

—And in the 59-7 setback at Washington, the Huskies had a season-high 12 plays of 20 yards or more against the Buff defense (six rushes and six passes), with those netting 319 yards (or 26.6 per); six others between 15 and 19 yards gained 100 yards, thus the other 63 plays generated 209 yards, or 3.3 each.

TOUGHEST SCHEDULE

Colorado is playing one of the nation's toughest schedules, as CU's seven FBS opponents are a combined 39-18 (68.4 winning percentage), which does not include those school's results against the Buffs (they are otherwise 45-19). Through games of November 9, that worked to be the second toughest schedule in the Pac-12 (behind Utah), and the sixth hardest nationally. The two FCS foes the Buffs have faced are a combined 15-4.

OLIVER NAMED SEMIFINALIST FOR GROZA AWARD

Will Oliver's kicking prowess has consistently grabbed local headlines and now the national media is starting to stand up and take notice. In the midst of another solid season, CU's junior kicker has been named as one of 20 semifinalists for the 2013 Lou Groza Award, handed out annually to the nation's top placekicker. Oliver has connected on 14-of-20 field goal attempts (70 percent), including makes from 53 (career-long) and 52 yards out, and has been perfect on extra points (with a string of 50 in a row, all 20 this season). The fact that he is also doubling as a kickoff specialist this season for the first time in his career makes his achievements as a place kicker that much more impressive.

"It's nice to get some recognition for the all the work I've put in," said Oliver. "I think I'm headed in the right direction but I still think I have a ways to go to be as good as I can be."

Oliver's season began with him going a perfect 4-of-4 on field goals in the team's win over Colorado State and has continued to steamroll in the weeks since. A month later he was perfect again, going 3-of-3 against Oregon. He boomed five kickoffs through the end zone in the team's win over Charleston Southern then made a career-long 53 yarder against Arizona. Despite all of the success Oliver has enjoyed this season, it's the mistakes that drive him and after missing twice in the loss at UCLA, Oliver knows he will have to get even better if he is to have a chance to win the award.

"I had a rough game last week," said Oliver. "It was really eye-opening to me to struggle like that but as long as I take it one kick at a time and stay engaged I think I'll have a chance to win it."

Oliver is joined on the list by some of the best kicking talent in the country including four kickers from Pac-12. Arizona State's Zane Gonzalez, Utah's Andy Phillips and California's Vincenzo D'Amato also made the list indicating that the position has become a strength throughout the conference.

"I think that's really good for the conference," said Oliver. "It's great for all of us in the Pac-12 to have that competition and it's a great motivational factor for me because there's just so much talent."

Oliver joins former kicker Mason Crosby as the only CU kickers to ever be named semifinalists for the prestigious award. Crosby was named a semifinalist twice and finished as the runner-up to winner Alexis Serna from Oregon State in 2005 in what was later revealed as a flawed balloting process. The list will be reduced to three finalists on Nov. 25 and on Dec. 12 the winner will be announced at the annual ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show.

UZO-DIRIBE EARNS SPOT ON HENDRICKS MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

On November 11, senior DE Chidera Uzo-Diribe was one of 18 players who advanced to the midseason watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award. The nation's leader in forced fumbles with five, he's been in on 37 tackles, 10 of which have been at or behind the line of scrimmage (eight for losses, including two sacks, and two tackles for zero). He also has seven pressures, three third down stops and three passes broken up.

He is joined on the list by two other Pac-12 players, Scott Chrichton (Oregon State) and Tony Washington (Oregon), as well as by Texas' Jackson Jeffcoat, which presents a bit of a unique situation: Uzo-Diribe is coached by Jeffcoat's father at CU, Jim Jeffcoat, the legendary Dallas Cowboy.

The Ted Hendricks Award is named in honor of college football's first three-time first-team All-American. As a defensive end at the University of Miami, Hendricks used his agility, height and reach to block passes and kicks, force interceptions and pressure quarterbacks and running backs. He roamed the front line, read plays and blitzed on impulse, completely transforming the way the defensive end position was played. His professional career spanned 15 years and 215 consecutive games. It included four Super Bowl victories, eight Pro Bowl selections and inductions into the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame. It is in the spirit of Ted Hendricks' aggressive style of play, winning attitude and determination that the Defensive End of the Year Award for college football's premier defensive end is presented.

On-field performance, exceptional winning attitude, leadership abilities, contributions to school and community and academic preparedness are some of the criteria used to determine the Award's winner. Members of the national media, head coaches, professional scouts and former winners are included in the Award's voting committee. Candidates may represent any class as well as any four-year NCAA accredited school. The candidate's primary position must be defensive end.

2012: FEWEST SENIORS SINCE 1995; 2013: TIED FOR THE SEVENTH FEWEST SINCE '82

In 2011, Colorado had its most seniors (28) since there were 30 on the roster in 1987; last fall, only eight players will be suiting up for the final time as Buffaloes—the fewest since seven did so in the 1995 season. It was the second smallest CU senior class since 1962 (the last 50 years), as only that 1995 team had fewer with seven (a rarity occurred that year: all seven CU seniors were invited to the Hula Bowl, likely the only time in college football history 100 percent of a school's senior class was in the same postseason all-star game). In 2013, the count after injuries that have sidelined three seniors for the season stands at 13, which ties for the seventh fewest dating back to 1982. The counts:

1982—13	1986—9	1989—14	1992—11	1995—7	1998—13	2001—26	2004—11	2007—17	2010—16
1983—25	1987—30	1990—24	1993—19	1996—18	1999—22	2002—23	2005—20	2008—17	2011—28
1984—22	1988—10	1991—13	1994—13	1997—22	2000—9	2003—21	2006—26	2009—16	2012—8
1985—16									2013—13

★ In the program's most recent heyday, 1989-96, when CU sported the fourth best record in college football (78-15-4), the average number of seniors per team was 14.9. The 1989 team that went 11-0 boasted just 14 seniors, and that 1995 team, minus 10 NFL draft selections in the first 71 picks, went 10-2 with just the seven seniors.

SERIES HISTORY—CU VS. CALIFORNIA

The Colorado-California series is rather brief, with Cal leading by a 4-2 margin; the first four games all between 1968 and 1982 until the series resumed in 2010-11 with a home-and-home series that was arranged in 2004. The first game in the series was in Berkeley, with Cal breaking a scoreless halftime tie with a third quarter touchdown en route to a 10-0 win; that was the only game of the four in Berkeley until 2010. The three in-between were in Boulder: in 1972, the No. 2-ranked Buffs methodically dispatched Cal, 20-10; in 1975, the Buffs captured a 34-27 victory, and in 1982, Cal came into Boulder and won in a rainstorm, 31-17. Though by 2011, both were members of the Pac-12 Conference, the game that year did not count in the league standings as it was the back end of the home-and-home agreement (CU was originally slated to join the Pac-12 in 2012); the game that year was a barn-burner, with Cal rallying for a 36-33 overtime win after the Buffs had comeback from 10 down to take a 27-23 lead in the fourth quarter.

- ➔ CU coach Mike MacIntyre is 0-0 against Cal; Cal coach Sonny Dykes is 0-0 against Colorado (he was 1-2 against CU as a Texas Tech assistant).
- ➔ MacIntyre vs. Dykes. The two squared off against each other at their previous schools, Mac at San Jose State and Dykes at Louisiana Tech; LTU won two of the three games, but they were all high scoring affairs: 38-45, 28-38, 52-43, or 244 points combined in the three games, which averaged 1,000 yards total offense (SJSU 1482, LTU 1517, or 2,999 yards combined in the three games).

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—The 1982 game was one of the occasional though rare instances where both programs were playing their first game under a new head coach: Bill McCartney for Colorado and Joe Kapp for California. Cal won the game in a rain storm, 31-17, and McCartney got his first win the following Saturday at Washington State (12-0) en route to a 2-8-1 season. Cal finished the year with a 7-4 mark, ending of course with a 25-20 win over a John Elway-led Stanford team in the infamous game where Stanford's band had run out on to the field at the end.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 31st. On Sept. 9, 1972, Cal gave No. 2 Colorado all it could handle in the season opener for both teams, but Ed Schoen and Fred Lima kept the Bears at bay as the Buffaloes won, 20-10, in Boulder. Though Cal never led, it wasn't until Lima's second field goal, a school and Big 8 Conference record 55-yarder, with 1:17 left in the game secured the win for CU, which was opening the year with what is still its highest preseason rank ever. Charlie Davis ran for 151 yards and Colorado's only touchdown, the latter opening the game's scoring. After trading field goals (Ray Wersching for Cal; Lima's first was from 46 yards), CU took a 10-3 lead into the third quarter. Steve Bartkowski was poised to drive Cal into CU territory for the fifth time in seven possessions, but was intercepted by Schoen who turned it into a pick-six with a 48-yard return for the touchdown and a 17-3 lead. Cal pulled to within 17-10 with 10:07 left, and would be stopped twice on fourth down on its next two possessions until Lima sealed the win. Overall, Schoen had 10 tackles including a quarterback sack and a fourth down stop, to go with his interception.

CU, CAL COLLABORATE ON "MAVEN"

The MAVEN (Mars Atmosphere and Volatile Evolution) spacecraft is one of NASA's upcoming new projects, and new Pac-12 Conference mates, the universities of Colorado and California, have collaborated on the venture. Bruce Jakosky of CU's Laboratory for Atmospheric and Space Physics is the principal investigator for the $670 million mission and several of the instruments were built at Berkeley's Space Sciences Laboratory. The mission will be the first devoted to understanding the Martian atmosphere, targeting the role that the loss of atmospheric gases to space played in changing the climate through time. The first day of the launch window for MAVEN is Monday, Nov. 18 from Cape Canaveral.

CALIFORNIA NOTES

California has struggled much like the Buffs; the two have five common opponents this fall (all Pac-12 colleagues), and are 0-5 in those games: Colorado has been outscored 244-89, Cal by 215-88. The Bears' lone win was over FCS foe Portland State, a 37-30 verdict back in week two (PSU is 6-4 on the season through last Saturday); their two non-league losses came to Big Ten schools, high scoring affairs to Northwestern in the season opener (44-30) and to Ohio State (52-34).

- ➔ Sonny Dykes is in his first season as head coach at California, his second head coaching job, with a record of 1-9 in Berkeley and 23-24 overall. He was hired last December from Louisiana Tech, where he was 22-15 with the Bulldogs for three seasons, including a 9-3 mark in 2012. LTU was 6-1 in the Western Athletic Conference in 2011, claiming the league title, and was third in 2012, when San Jose State claim co-champion honors. He is the son of legendary Texas Tech head coach Spike Dykes.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 16

Colorado is 9-6-1 all-time on November 16, the date on which two Burgess' were born: the late Burgess Meredith in 1907 (the Penguin in Batman; Mick in the Rocky movies) and Colin Burgess in 1946 (the drummer for AC/DC). A snapshot look at some of the games played on the date: 1907—CU's 24-10 win over Utah in Boulder was summed up this way in the '09 Coloradoan: "The Varsity worked listlessly during the first half but in the second half took a brace and scored all of their points during that live session. With plenty of ginger infused by (Coach Fred) Folsom's 'talk' between halves, the Varsity carried the Mormons back with a resistless assault that brought easy victory out of seeming defeat." Took a brace? Resistless assault? Okay ... 1929—CU defeated Colorado A&M, 6-0 in Fort Collins; not much in the old yearbook account, other than Buddy Reagan scored the only points of the game, and that "The tackling of Choice Elliott, stellar Colorado lineman, was particularly pleasing." 1935—Colorado took an early 6-0 lead on Kansas but the Jayhawks would rally for a 12-6 win in Boulder. 1940—Colorado defeated "the vaunted Cougars" as the CU yearbook put it, 25-2, as the Buffaloes played a "splendid game, with the most spectacular play occurring in the fourth quarter when Vern Lockard, the Kansas Flyer, fooled the entire BYU team with a bootleg play and sprinted 37 yards to the goal line." 1946—In a defensive battle which saw CU barely outgain Denver, 196-190, the Buffaloes and Pioneers battled to a 13-13 tie. 1957—A dominant first half which saw CU outgain Nebraska 288-44 in building a 20-0 lead paved the way for a Buffalo 27-0 win in Lincoln on a 37-degree afternoon. When all was done, CU had monster edges in yards (479-164) and first downs (27-9). Bob Stransky rushed for 97 yards and a TD to pace the Buff running attack, which netted 404 yards in the game. 1963—Kansas defeated the Buffs in Boulder, 43-14, though the legendary Gayle Sayers did minimal damage in the game (12 carries, 71 yards, no scores; 35 of the yards came on one rush). What did the damage were the Jayhawks on fourth down: CU led 7-6 late in the first quarter, but a 20-play, 74-yard drive that ate up 10:23 in possession time and saw KU convert three fourth downs, including the touchdown play, sent KU on its way. 1968—Nebraska leaves Boulder with a 22-6 win, though CU linebacker Rocky Martin is seemingly in on every play: he recorded 23 tackles (20 assisted) in making the Huskers earn every one of their yards (275 total on 79 plays). 1974—Terry Kunz scored twice and David Williams once in helping the Buffs build a 23-0 first half lead en route to a 37-20 win over Oklahoma State at Stillwater. Kunz ran for 80 yard and three touchdowns overall on just 18 carries, leading CU to 405 yards on offense while OSU mustered only 232, as Colorado had a huge 82-48 advantage in plays run. 1985—Colorado had switched to the wishbone offense for the '85 season and had enjoyed much success, but up against the program that perfected it, the Buffs were no match for Oklahoma in Norman, falling 31-0 to the Sooners. CU managed just 109 yards of total offense, running just 51 plays, while OU ran 91 in all for 399 total yards. Rodney Rogers had 21 tackles (17 solo) for the Buffs, which did hold the potent OU running attack to just 4.4 yards per carry. 1991—In the first game in which snow fell during a game in Boulder since 1979, Vance Joseph engineered an eight-play, 80-yard drive in the final two minutes, culminated by a 1-yard touchdown run by James Hill with 40 seconds remaining to rally Colorado to a 30-24 win over Kansas. The Buffs, down 24-10 midway through the third quarter, scored the game's final 20 points. Joseph, who subbed for an injured Darian Hagan who played just two possessions, connected with Michael Westbrook on a 20-yard TD pass late in the third quarter, with a 19-yard run by Lamont Warren pulling CU to within 24-23; CU elected to go for two but a pass failed. 1996—With the temperature hovering between 10 and 16 degrees and 10-15 mile per hour winds keeping the wind chill at or below zero through the evening, No. 6 Colorado used two first half touchdown runs from Herchell Troutman (27 yards) and Koy Detmer (1 yard) to defeat No. 9 Kansas State, 12-0. The Buff defense, led by Damen Wheeler who made two interceptions, limited a potent Kansas State offense to just 228 yards in posting the shutout. Troutman rushed for 112 yards, nearly double what K-State managed as a team (65). 2002—Bobby Purify took over for an injured Chris Brown and accumulated 225 all-purpose yards, and the CU defense came up big when it had to as the Buffaloes clinched their second straight Big 12 North Division title with a 41-27 win over Iowa State in Boulder. Purify rushed for 174 yards and caught five passes for 51 yards, with his 5-yard run for a score sealing the win with 1:43 remaining. Brown had rushed for 127 yards before leaving the game with sternum and ankle injuries in the third quarter. Seneca Wallace passed for 265 yards and ran for 102 for the pesky Cyclones, which led 20-17 early in the second half.

NOVEMBER 16 COLORADO MVP: QB Vance Joseph. His heroics in the '91 win over Kansas enabled the Buffaloes to remain tied with Nebraska atop the Big 8 standings and eventually share the league title with the Huskers, CU's third straight.

NEARING 300

With a 2-2 home record this year, Colorado is now 299-159-10 in its 90th season playing its home games at Folsom Field. The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 391-180-16 all-time at home.

POWELL HITS A GRAND, JONES CLOSING IN

TB/FB Christian Powell became the 50th player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career, as in 18 career games, he has 1,140; TB Tony Jones is closing in (821). UZO-DIRIBE WREAKING HAVOC

DE Chidera Uzo-Diribe has five forced fumbles in nine games; that's tied for the third most in a season at Colorado, and he is now third in career forces. The five lead the nation, and Uzo-Diribe was recently named to the mid-season watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award. A look at CU's season and career bests in an underrated category:

CU-CALIFORNIA BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia in the Colorado-California series:

- 5 The number of times the lead has changed hands in all five games in the series combined (all five times in the 2011 game);
- 5-1 The record of the team that scores first in the series, meaning:
- 10:37 The amount of time the losing team in each game has been in the lead (only CU in the 2011 game);
- 29 The number of years between Cal visits to Colorado's Folsom Field (1982, 2011);
- 31 The number of points Cal scored following five CU turnovers in the 2010 game;
- 37 87' 17" The latitude of Berkeley, which means it is technically southwest of Boulder;
- 42 The number of years between CU visits to California's Memorial Stadium (1968, 2010);
- 55 The margin that California has outscored Colorado in the five games (166-111);
- 122 27' 28" The longitude of Berkeley, the fourth furthest west on the mainland CU has played a football game (barely behind Seattle, Corvallis, Eugene)
- 272:27 The amount of time the winning team in each game has been in the lead (out of a max 360, or 75.7 percent of the time);
- 929 The number of miles between Boulder and Berkeley, Calif.;
- 5,222 The difference in elevation (feet) between Boulder (5,345) and Berkeley (123; though some areas are 0-1,320).

CALIFORNIA 36, COLORADO 33 (OT)SEPTEMBER 10, 2011*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — California quarterback Zach Maynard hit receiver Keenan Allen with a 5-yard touchdown pass in overtime Saturday at Folsom Field, giving the Bears a 36-33 victory over Colorado in the Buffs' home opener.

CU got a record setting passing performance from senior quarterback Tyler Hansen, who completed 28-of-49 passes for a school-record 474 yards and three touchdowns, while tying the mark for the most total offense with 500 yards. Two of the scoring tosses went to sophomore Paul Richardson, who finished with 11 catches for 282 yards — also a single-game school record.

The contest matched Pac-12 Conference teams did not count in the league standings as it completed a previously arranged home-and-home series. Cal remained unbeaten at 2-0, while CU fell to 0-2.

Freshman kicker Will Oliver was perfect on four field goal attempts, the first set up by a Jon Major interception that gave the Buffs a first down at their own 40-yard line. Six plays later, Oliver made his first kick, giving Colorado its only lead of the half.

After holding Cal to a three-and-out on the game's first series, CU used a methodical 13-play march and ended up at the Bears' 9-yard line. Facing fourth-and-one there, CU elected to go for the first down but Rodney Stewart was stuffed for no gain.

The Bears responded by driving 81 yards in 10 plays, and aided by a pair of CU pass interference penalties, scored on a 2-yard Maynard-to-Nico Dumont pass and after the PAT attempt was blocked by defensive tackle Will Pericak, the Bears led, 6-3.

Two series later, a 39-yard Georgio Tavecchio field goal pushed Cal ahead 9-3, but CU responded with an Oliver 52-yard kick — the longest field goal by a freshman in CU history — and pulled to 9-6 with 4:18 left before halftime.

That was enough time for the Bears to drive 62 yards in seven plays, scoring on a 7-yard Maynard-to-Anthony Miller pass to take a 16-6 lead just before intermission.

Opening the second half, Hansen immediately directed a 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive, hitting senior tight end Ryan Deehan with a 37-yard scoring pass on third-and-eight and cut the deficit to three at 16-13.

After CU's defense held, Cal returned the favor and then blocked a Darragh O'Neill punt that traveled just 15 yards and gave the Bears possession at the Buffs' 35-yard line. Four plays later, Maynard and Miller connected for a TD, the pass this time covering 20 yards to put the Bears back up 10 at, 23-13.

Hansen and Richardson then teamed up for a 66-yard scoring play to close the third quarter with Cal leading 23-20. Then to open the fourth quarter, the two teamed up again for a 78-yard score and the Buffs took their first lead since 3-0 at 27-23.

Cal responded quickly, driving 80 yards in 11 plays and scoring on a 19-yard burst up the middle by tailback C.J. Anderson to get its lead back at 30-27 with 9:55 left.

Later in the fourth, the Buffs got the ball back at their own 15-yard line with 7:10 to play. Hansen drove the Buffs into field goal range and with: 30 left, Oliver nailed a 32-yarder to tie the game at 30-30.

Cal won the coin toss to start overtime and chose to play defense as most always do; the Buffs looked good early in the possession earning a first-and-goal but settled for a 22-yard field goal from Oliver to take a 33-30 lead.

Cal earned a quick first down at the 15-yard line but then had consecutive penalties and found themselves at first-and-30 at the 35. A 32-yard pass from Maynard to Allen gave the Bears a first down inside the 5-yard line and then that same duo won it on a 5-yard pass play two plays later, giving Cal the 36-33 victory.

GAME NOTES

Colorado dropped to 5-5 in overtime games, 5-4 in single OT affairs and 3-3 when the opponent plays defense first ... CU's last OT game was on Sept. 18, 2008 in Boulder, a 17-14 win over No. 21 West Virginia ... Colorado went from allowing seven sacks in the season opener (on 37 called pass plays) to zero today on 50; the downside of that this marked the first time the Buffs have ever lost a game when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack; CU is 14-1 since 1972 in such situations ... CU had three sacks, giving the Buffs at least one in 32 of the last 33 games ... Colorado's 582 yards of offense was its first game with 500 since recording 518 against Nebraska in a 65-51 win on Nov. 23, 2007 and its most since Sept. 22, 2007 when it rolled up 634 against Miami-Ohio ... CU had 474 yards passing, its first 400-yard game since throwing for 401 against Texas A&M in Boulder on Oct. 8, 2005; it tied for the second most passing yards in CU history, matching the number against San Jose State in 1999 and behind only 533 against NE Louisiana in 1995 ... DT Will Pericak became the first player to block an extra point since DE James Garee batted one away against Clemson in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl (opponents had made 154 in a row, the last miss in 2007; but the enemy had tried 195 PAT kicks without a Buff breaking through to reject one.

RICHARDSON'S ROOST

WR Paul Richardson, a legitimate Biletnikoff Award and All-America candidate, is enjoying a major breakout season, not that he wasn't heard of prior to this year. But he's taken the world by storm to date:

- He became the first player in Pac-12 Conference history to have back-to-back 200-yard receiving games (208 vs. Colorado State, 209 vs. Central Arkansas);
- His 21 receptions in back-to-back games to open the 2013 season were a CU two-game record, snapping the old mark of 19;
- He now has three career 200-yard games, a CU record, and in fact has three of the school's five. His six 100-yard plus games are tied for fourth in school history;
- His 1,061 yards this season already are the fourth most ever at CU, with his 60 receptions the fifth-most;
- His seven plays of 50 yards or more are a school record (see below);
- He now has 13 plays of 50-yards or longer in his career, all receptions (from four different quarterbacks):

(*—denotes touchdown)

Now with seven plays of 50 yards or longer this season, he has set the modern day single-season high for the most plays of that distance or longer (it's possible players like Kayo Lam or Byron White in the 1930s had more). The old high was six, accomplished by TB Chris Brown (2002), WR Rae Carruth (1996) and TB Rashaan Salaam (1994). Carruth also had five in 1996, as did WR Charles Johnson (1992) and WB Michael Pritchard (1990).

RICHARDSON SEASON ANALYSIS

Here's a complete analysis of CU junior Paul Richardson and his season statistics to date. He opened the year with two consecutive 200-yard games, setting a Pac-12 record (the NCAA record is three, done only twice, so 200 back-to-back isn't common, either). The breakdown:

- Richardson has played 29 games in a CU uniform and has 19 touchdown receptions, including six games with two TD catches; the latter has set a school record, as he passed Rae Carruth and Derek McCoy, who had five two-TD games; Carruth and Richard Johnson are the only players with three in a game, each doing so once. As for the 19 touchdowns overall, he's tied for second in CU annals (see below):

JUNIOR SEASON, TAKE 1 / 2012

- He missed the entire 2012 season after tearing his ACL the Monday before the spring game (April 9), and underwent surgery that ended his year on April 16. He had a good rehab and was able to practice some by the end of the year. He returned at full-speed for spring drills, and looked like his old self if not better: he caught eight passes for 294 yards and three touchdowns (36.8 yards per catch) in the four main spring scrimmages.

SOPHOMORE SEASON / 2011

- Against California, he tied the school record (again) for most receptions in a game with 11, with his 284 yards shattering the old mark of 222, first set almost 30 years earlier to the day by WR Walter Stanley and then matched 15 years later by WR Rae Carruth.
- He was rapidly climbing the charts in receiving (receptions, yards, touchdowns; see charts later in these notes) until sidelined by a severe knee sprain he suffered in practice on Oct. 5; he missed four games and returned for USC game, but was a little rusty and not 100 percent the remainder of the season. He set several records, including the most yards in game, and had six career plays over 50 yards in his first two seasons, five for touchdowns (62t, 60t, 55, 50t in 2010; 78t, 66t in 2011).

FRESHMAN SEASON / 2010

- He officially was the last member of the 2010 recruiting class when he joined the team just two days ahead of fall camp.
- Against Hawai'i, he scored the first two-point conversion scored by a CU freshman since Sept. 30, 2000, when QB Craig Ochs ran one in against Kansas State; those are the only 2-point conversions scored by freshmen (true or redshirt) in CU history.
- Against Texas Tech, when he caught four passes for 79 yards (career highs), he became the first true freshman in CU history to have two touchdown receptions in the same game, and just the third frosh (true/redshirt) to do it, joining WR Michael Westbrook (1991 vs. Missouri) and TE Brody Heffner (1996 vs. Iowa State).
- Against Kansas, he set school records for most catches (11) and yards (141) by a freshman, true or redshirt, in CU history, and tied the mark he set with two TDs in a single game against Texas Tech. The 11 receptions also tied the school's overall mark for catches in a game previously done by five different players (five total times).
- He had six TD receptions on the season, a school record for the most receiving touchdowns by a true or redshirt freshman (Donnie Holmes had the old true frosh mark of three in 1979, Westbrook the redshirt mark of five in '91).
- His 514 receiving yards were the most by a freshman (true or redshirt) and he was the first freshman to have two 100-yard receiving games.

UNDERCLASSMEN IN 2013 ON OPENING DEPTH CHARTS

CU tied for 15th in the nation for the most underclassmen (freshmen, redshirt frosh and sophomores) on the 2013 opening day two-deeps with 27 players; that was the most in the Pac-12 Conference, one ahead of Arizona (26). A closer look:

MAC COMPLETED STAFF WITH FORMER BUFF

Mike MacIntyre's first Colorado full staff, coaches and support personnel, was completed with the hiring of former CU wide receiver Patrick Williams, who started as the assistant director of recruiting on August 29. Williams, a 2008 Colorado graduate (Sociology), spent four seasons in the National Football League with Green Bay, Seattle and Baltimore, a combination of being a practice squad player and active on games days, though he never did get into a game. He joins CU from the Heloise Munson Foundation, where he worked for non-profit during the last year, as well as did some personal training of high school and college athletes. Williams' hiring followed that of Derek Fribbs as one of two student assistants working with the coaches. Fribbs completed his eligibility this past May after lettering four years on the golf team; he played the fourth most rounds in school history (146) and finished with a 74.25 career stroke average. The other student assistant working with the coaches is senior outside linebacker Tommy Papilion, whose career has been cut short due to knee injuries.

UNHERALDED

SN Ryan Iverson largely goes unnoticed, but do know that the coaching staff knows his value. He has forced six fair catches this season, giving him 24 for his career; he also has 13 tackles (10 solo), tying the mark by a long snapper, first set by Chris O'Donnell (1987-90). He has handled all 268 punt team snaps dating back to his freshman year, and has snapped all 125 balls for placement kicks the last three years (including a pair of two-point fakes): of those 393 combined snaps, there was only one bad snap in the bunch. He joined the team as an invited walk-on for August drills in 2010, and would become just the sixth walk-on to play as a true freshman since 1986 at Colorado. He will be CU's nominee for the second straight year for the Bullsworth Award, presented to a top walk-on (or former).

WOOD CRACKS RECORD BOOK AS WELL

QB Connor Wood etched his name into the CU record book after just two games in 2013: he set a school record for passer rating with 40 or more attempts in game with a 166.3 number versus Colorado State (33-of-46, 400 yards, 3 TD; Alabama's A.J. McCarron had a 165.3 rating versus the Rams but threw 20 fewer passes). He also tied Koy Detmer for the most 300-yard passing games back-to-back in school annals with two and threw for the third most passing yards in two consecutive games (and the fourth-most for three games). A look at the latter:

Most Passing Yards, Three Consecutive Games (CU History)

INTERCEPTIONS IN BUNCHES AFTER A LOOOOOONG DROUGHT

Talk about when it rains, it pours: the Buffaloes intercepted just three passes in all of 2012 (after just making seven in 2011), and had a span of 267 passes by the opponent without picking one off until the second quarter of the Central Arkansas game. CB Greg Henderson jumped a route and raced 46 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter; early in the fourth quarter, FS Jered Bell did the same, except his covered 79 yards for a score that tied the game at 24; late in the quarter, CB Kenneth Crawley picked one off on fourth down in the end zone, ending any chance of a late UCA rally. It was the first time the Buffs returned two interceptions for scores since the last day of the last century: Dec. 31, 1999 when ILB Jashon Sykes and SS Rashidi Barnes did it against Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Iowa is 25th with 297, Pittsburgh is 27th with 292), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the new College Football Playoff come 2014 will include the top four teams; only USC, with 11, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 17TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 17th most in the nation in this time frame (24-plus seasons). Florida State has the most (76), with Florida right behind (72); next are Ohio State (69), Michigan (63), Alabama (62), LSU (58), Miami, Fla. (57), Southern Cal (55), Oklahoma (53), Tennessee (53), Texas (49), Georgia (47), Notre Dame (47), Oregon (46), Penn State (46), Auburn (44), Nebraska (44) and Colorado (43). As for the Pac-12, after USC, Oregon and CU, the next schools on the list are UCLA (42) and Washington (42). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the sixth most ranked teams in the nation (116, with a record of 43-70-2), trailing only Florida (133), LSU (124), Florida State (119), Michigan (119) and Ohio State (119). (AP polls used for these figures as the coaches' poll omits teams on probation but the AP does not.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost 13 straight against ranked teams (last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009); the Buffs have lost 21 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

CU'S 133 WINS OVER BCS TEAMS RANKS 23RD

Looking inside the above numbers, Colorado's 133 wins over BCS teams rank as the 23rd most nationally over the last 24-plus seasons (or since the start of the 1989 season). A closer look through games of November 9:

HEAD COACH MIKE MACINTYRE

Mike MacIntyre is in his first season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, his second as a head coach on any level of football. He has a 3-6 record at Colorado and is 19-27 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. A veteran coach of 22 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 48, has coached in a total of 302 football games in his career (46 as a head coach): 143 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ◆ He is just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and became just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins.
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received my Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:
 - Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;
 - Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;
 - Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;
 - Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game. MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On Playing Music At Practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ◆ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.
- ◆ MacIntyre has voted in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll (did so in 2012), but coaches are now selected by a random draw and he was not drawn for 2013. CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, thus CU has had a vote for the 24 of the last 27 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MACINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are special teams coordinator Toby Neinas, offensive line coach Gary Bernardi, safeties coach Charles Clark, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat and receivers coach Troy Walters. Defensive coordinator Kent Baer, offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, running backs/tight ends coach Klayton Adams and cornerbacks coach Andy LaRussa are in the press box. Also upstairs will be the quality control coaches, Omar Young and Joe Bleymaier, and signaling in plays when not brought in by substituting players are graduate assistants T.C. McCartney (offense) and Nate Taye (defense).

A FIRST SINCE 1979

Colorado has had six head coach changes dating back to when Bill McCartney was named head coach in 1982. He retained Buck Nystrom as offensive line coach (and kept Mike McNeely as an assistant linebacker coach, though he had worked in administration and recruiting). In the next four coaching changes, all kept at least one assistant on staff: Rick Neuheisel (Brian Cabral, Jon Embree, Ben Gregory, Chuck Heater, Terry Lewis), Gary Barnett (Cabral, Embree, Tom Cable), Dan Hawkins (Cabral, Darian Hagan), and Jon Embree (Cabral). Mike MacIntyre interviewed several of the assistants, but in the end brought in all new full-time assistant coaches. The last time that occurred was in 1979, when Chuck Fairbanks took over for Bill Mallory.

- Of the 31 schools that hired new head coaches for the 2013 season, 11 completely turned over the entire coaching staff: Auburn, California, Cincinnati, Colorado, Florida International, Georgia State, Kentucky, Purdue, South Florida, Tennessee and Western Kentucky. Six others retained one coach (Arkansas, Boston College, Idaho, North Carolina State, Southern Miss, Western Michigan), while the other 14 kept two more former assistants on staff.

INAUGURATIONS

Mike MacIntyre was named the 25th head coach in Colorado history last December 10, the 15th dating back to 1935; he became just the second coach in that group to win his CU opener in the last 81 years with the 41-27 win over Colorado State. The only other coach to do so since Herbert Hoover was U.S. President was Rick Neuheisel, who saw his team defeat Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7, in 1995. Both teams have scored 10 or more points in a new CU chief's debut only nine times, all since 1959. Overall, Colorado coaches are 10-14-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look (number in parenthesis indicates how many games that coach won in a row to begin career):

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

With former CU head coach Bill McCartney (1982-94) set to host his own radio show on Fridays (debuts Aug. 31, 4-6 p.m., 102.3 FM in Denver), the last four CU head coaches all have media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) is a studio host on the Pac-12 Network; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) is an analyst on Sports USA Radio with some other independent appearances; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute.

JEFFCOAT'S PEDIGREE: RUSHING AND GETTING TO THE QB

Defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

CU'S BAER IN THE ORIENT

Kent Baer, CU's new defensive coordinator in 2013, used his involvement with the military in the 1970s to create an all-star game in 1989 in Japan that has lasted 25 years; it draws 20-30,000 fans annually. Baer served as the director of athletics and recreation for the commander of United States Naval Forces in Japan along with serving as the head coach for the Yokosuka Seahawks from 1973-1976 (a member of a service league featuring military bases). With this background, Baer created the Heisei Bowl (now the New Era Bowl) as the annual all-star game played annually on the first Saturday of July. Baer coordinates the selection of two American coaches and a dozen U.S. players who are integrated to practice and then play with two Japanese All-Star teams.

In the late 1980s, Baer was brainstorming ways to improve Japanese coaching techniques when he hit on the idea of this cultural exchange. Coaches from all the Pac-10 (now Pac-12) staffs have joined Baer along with individuals from Michigan, Notre Dame and Army. Japanese interest in football has been whetted by various U.S. excursions to the Far East. The old Mirage Bowl in the 1980s featured two Pac-10 teams playing their last game of the regular season in Tokyo. After that, there was the Coca Cola Bowl, also part of the regular schedule. From 1976 to 1993, there was the Japan Bowl, a postseason all-star game of U.S. players. Before joining the Colorado staff this past winter, Baer continued to be involved with the armed services as he coached San Jose State to a 29-20 win over Bowling Green in the Military Bowl.

TWO NEW TRADITIONS BEGUN IN 2013

New Colorado head coach Mike MacIntyre has installed a couple of new traditions that began in earnest prior to the Central Arkansas game: when the team takes the field, one player will carry a toolbox and another a sledgehammer (the players will vote on who gets the nod). MacIntyre did this at San Jose State with a sword (because they were the Spartans) and the sledgehammer. The toolbox is representative of the commitment the players have made to each other and the team as a whole; now, there aren't actual tools in the box, rather it contains "commitment cards" where each player wrote down something of significance he will do in the game. So when they view the toolbox during the game, it will serve as a reminder of that commitment. The sledgehammer will go to the big hit of the previous game (the biggest or most important "legal" hit – the play cannot draw a penalty). The winners:

Opponent	Toolbox	Sledgehammer	Opponent	Toolbox	Sledgehammer
Colorado State	(none—awards inaugurated on display)		Arizona State	none	S Tedric Thompson
Central Arkansas	OT Stephane Nembot	S Parker Orms	Charleston Southern	none	ILB Brady Daigh
Oregon State	WR Keenan Canty	OG Daniel Munyer	Arizona	none	OLB Woodson Greer
Oregon	ILB Addison Gillam	ILB Derrick Webb	UCLA	DT Nate Bonsu	SS Parker Orms

BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Brad Bedell ('99), OL, Arkansas State; Cedric Cormier ('01), WR, UNLV; Rich Fisher ('92), WR, Nebraska; Chris Naeole ('96), Offensive Assistant, Hawaii; Rod Perry ('75), DB, Oregon State; Steve Stripling ('76), Assoc. TRENDS1985-2013

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 196-150-4; in these 350 games spanning the last 28-plus seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

◆ with 400-plus yards total offense	113-25-2	◆ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	92-20-1
◆ with 500-plus yards total offense	55- 6-0	◆ when leading at halftime	156-26-2
◆ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	77-11-1	◆ when leading after three quarters (155-17-3 in last 175)	160-21-3

◆ with zero turnovers (143-55-2 with two or fewer)	37-16-2	◆ when held to 13 points or less	3-55-0
◆ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	113-19-1	◆ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	14- 1-0
◆ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	102-14-1	◆ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	109-28-2

TRENDS II1989-2013

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings for the next 16 seasons, Colorado has posted an overall record at 169-131-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (304 games over the last 24-plus seasons, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	95-52-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	84- 6-1
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (50-6 with 500-plus)	99-25-2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	56- 2-1
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	111-12-1	➤ when rushing for 300-plus yards	31- 0-1
➤ when leading in possession time (56-83-1 when not)	113-48-3	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	37- 3-0

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 24-plus seasons. A closer look:

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is 21-17 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior; CU has won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (2010); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009). CU lost to UCLA after its first Pac-12 league schedule bye in 2011 and to Oregon State this year.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 536 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Now one streak remains:

- CU has scored in 146 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 294 games (all the way back to 1963).

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 143 times in 233 tries, including 25 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the "two-minute offense" drill since 1988; that's 61 percent of the time. That includes 2-of-2 this year (field goal vs. CSU, TD at Oregon State) and 3-of-7 in 2012 (the highlight being the winning TD drive at Washington State). CU was 3-of-8 in 2011: field goals versus Cal (end of regulation) and Washington State (first half); and a first half TD vs. CSU and were 2-of-9 in the drill in 2010 (scoring first half TDs at Kansas and versus Kansas State). 2009 was a good year for the drill (9-of-14) which included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 37-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 224 of 250 times, losing 23 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 28 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were three in 2012 to Utah (leading 28-20 after three), Sacramento State (led 28-24 entering the quarter and lost on a field goal at the gun) and to CSU (led 17-16 with 13:27 remaining); and two in 2011 to Washington State (led 27-17 early in the fourth) and California (led 27-23 early in fourth). The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 108 of its last 126 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 37 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent are the first two games of the '13 season (CSU led briefly 26-24 late in the third quarter and into the fourth; UCA led 24-17, also early in the fourth); the two previous to those came by the same score: this year at Washington State (won 35-34 after trailing 31-14 with 8:07 left) and in 2009 against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining). Two big ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below are the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2013 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on the 2013 opening roster collectively had played in 896 games, with 268 starts. The 2012 team was easily CU's youngest/most inexperienced team in quite some time with just 674 games played/223 started; other recent years: 890/303 (2011), 877/313 (2010), 847/236 (2009), 817/277 (2008), 853/251 (2007), 1,053/295 (2006) and 1,080/314 (2005). EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2012, the Buffaloes started its fewest seniors believed ever (17.8%) and a record number of freshmen (28.0%; 21.6% true frosh). A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 123rd season of competition having played 1,183 games with an all-time record of 678-469-36. CU currently stands 23rd on the all-time win list and is 33rd in all-time winning percentage (.589; those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 123, with only USC (793) and Washington (684) having won more games with USC, Washington and Arizona State the Pac-12 schools owning higher winning percentages than the Buffs. In Boulder, the Buffs are 299-159-10 in 89-plus seasons on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-5 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Colorado has won only 25 games over the last six-plus seasons, but in 10 of those games, the Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down, including CU's first win in 2012. Andrew Furney opened the fourth quarter with a 45-yard field goal to put Washington State ahead, 31-14. The teams traded scoreless possessions, and CU took over on its 8 with 8:07 left. The Buffs then marched for the first of three straight TD drives to close the game, with QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. Three occurred in 2010 and three back in 2007, with three in-between. Eight have taken place in Boulder, with the ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State with the Washington State comeback the first on the road; it turned into the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 34 occasions (and are 26-8 in games when this occurs). The last time it happened was against Charleston Southern this year, when TB Michael Adkins rushed for 137 yards and WR Paul Richardson hauled in eight passes for 122 yards. It's the third time CU's done it as a member of the Pac-12: in 2012, TB Tony Jones rushed for 105 yards and a touchdown with WR Nelson Spruce snaring eight passes for 103 yard and TD at Washington State. Against Arizona in 2011, TB Rodney Stewart rushed for 181 yards and WR Toney Clemons had 115 receiving yards. In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 162 of the 2013 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity is 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2012 was 272,235, an average of 45,373 for six home games, marking the 18th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 36th time in the last 38 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (CU's season ticket count in 2012 was 22,991 public and 32,382 overall when adding in student holders, as those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2013 Record	Mike MacIntyre Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-52-2	8-20-1	0-1	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-88-3	14-34-2	0-1	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-114-3	20-48-2	0-1	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-150-3	43-71-2	0-2	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7). Now in the Pac-12, the Buffaloes are now among similar company when it comes to scheduling, as most Big 12 schools had a reputation for taking it easy in non-conference play (sans Oklahoma).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 92-77 in its last 169 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 79-34 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 72-40-1 in its last 113 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 536-262-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through games of November 9, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 469 CU games in his career, including the last 242 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (523) has called more games than Zim, who is fourth in years with the same school (40th) behind Robertson (47), Bill Hillgrove, Pitt (44) and Don Fischer, Indiana (41). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he has called 546 college games in all, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for Colorado State). Other dinosaur: SID Dave Plati has worked 404 overall including the last 362 (dating to the '83 finale). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is now in his 41st year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then the football group two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 11th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 13 healthy seniors on its roster in 2013, and if history is any kind of indication, they'll get plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League. Scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so in 2012. This year, 18 teams have had scouts witness the Buffs in person at games: Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Miami, Minnesota, New England, N.Y. Jets, N.Y. Giants, Pittsburgh, San Diego, Seattle and Tennessee (as well as British Columbia in the Canadian Football League). Not including camps, 641 scouts have attended Colorado games (home/road/neutral) dating back to 2000.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 12 former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of November 3; there were 14 on the rosters at the end of the 2012 season (15 at the end of 2011, 18 in 2010 and 22 in 2009). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; i—on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured (club retains rights but does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Three players are the sons of former National Football League players: SN Keegan LaMar (father Kevin spent time with Buffalo and San Francisco); DL Derek McCartney (father Shannon Clavelle, Green Bay); and ILB Clay Norgard (father Erik, 11 years with the Houston Oilers).

And Mark Nolan, the head coach at Regis, was Dan Hawkins administrative assistant for two years.

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 27 of 35 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (80 percent of the entire roster—active and inactive—as of August 26: 92 of 115 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 47, Colorado 31, Texas 14, Hawai'i 4, New Jersey 3, Louisiana 2, New York 2, Arizona 1, Illinois 1, Michigan 1, Missouri 1, New Mexico 1, Pennsylvania 1, Tennessee 1, Washington 1. That's 16 states total along with the District of Columbia (3) and MEXICO that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Six Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: PK Diego Gonzalez (Monterrey, Mexico), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), OL Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries), DL Stephane Nembot (Douala, Cameroon), P Darragh O'Neill (Cork, Ireland) and CB Yuri Wright (Saint Vincent and the Grenadines in the Caribbean).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 304-17-1 when scoring 30 or more points (two such losses in 2012), along with records of 216-6 with 35-plus points and 199-4 with 36-plus, 176-3 with 38-plus and 113-1 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009) and Kansas (52-45 this year). CU has played 1,183 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 105-86-3 in its last 194 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 3-21 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 124 of its last 300 games, posting a 111-12-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 193 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 23-86-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ In the Hawkins Era (2006-10), CU averaged 5.5 per first down play in 2006, followed by 5.3 (2007), 4.4 (2008 and 2009) and 4.5 in 2010. Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979.
 - ➔ Things did not change in Jon Embree's two seasons: in 2011, the Buffs averaged 4.8 yards on first down for 13 games, though averaged over six yards three times (two of those wins); in 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ Though early in 2013 (nine games), the Buffs have averaged over six yards in six games and 5.90 for the season overall.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 51 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 180 games (season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 72 scores by return in 229 games (65 regular season, seven bowl). After none in 2012, CU already has three in 2013.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 17 times in the last 179 games (and 38 times in the last 254, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 43-3 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 51-6 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 74-76 in its last 150 games on grass, including a 46-43 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass.
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 94-51-3 in its last 148 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 61-37-3 mark in conference games. CU is 0-1 this year and was 1-2 on the fake stuff in 2012.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, that number was 14.1 in 2005, 10.2; in 2006, 12.0; in 2007, 14.0; in 2008, 9.7 (the only time under 10 in this span); in 2009, 15.7; in 2010, 12.3; in 2011, opponents gained 1,000 yards on 73 makes (13.7 per), with eight TDs (18.0 per) and just 146 yards on the 83 misses (1.6).
- ➔ In 2012, it appeared the trend was reversing through three games, but conference play did the Buffs in; for the year, opponents gained 810 yards on 66 makes (12.3 per) and 128 yards on the other 84 plays (1.5).
- ➔ In 2013, opponents have gained 603 yards on their 55 conversions (10.9 per), and 98 on the 83 misses (1.2).
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-1 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, losing for the first time against Cal in 2011 (36-33 in OT). The previous last two occurrences of this were in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. In these 15 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 633-320, with only four games decided by less than 17 points (Cal in 2011, a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ Opponents have made 120-of-152 field goals dating back to 2006 (78.9 percent), including 13-of-15 in 2013. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 86-of-98 (87.8) on kicks inside the 40. In the same span, CU is 90-of-145 (62.1).
- ➔ In 2009, one of the most all-time perplexing stats to ever come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five. But that fifth time was one of the reasons CU went 3-9: example—Missouri gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on its other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all added up to 17.6 percent of opponent plays gaining 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU allowed 50 plays over 20 yards, totaling 1,633 yards; basically 6.2 percent of the plays producing 34 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2011, opponents had 75 plays of 20-plus yards that collectively gained 2,191 yards (29.2 per); the other 793 gained 3,520 (4.4); thus 8.6 percent of the plays gained 38.4 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2012, the opponent had 81 plays of 20 yards or longer, gaining 2,511 yards (31.0 per); the other 743 plays netted 3,351 yards (4.5 per).
 - ➔ In 2013, things changed a bit at the start, but now through nine games (690 plays), opponents have 57 plays of 20 yards or more, netting 1,835 yards (32.2 per) and 42.8 percent of the total yards (4,368); but five of these games have been against teams ranked in the nation's top 15 in offense, including the No. 2 overall offense (Oregon) and the No. 2 passing offense (Oregon State).
- ➔ Colorado had slow starts in its 10 of its 13 games in 2011, outscored 142-34 in the first quarter and outgained 1,737-952. In 2012, the Buffs again struggled out of the gate: opponents almost doubled CU in offense (1,598-881) and more than tripled the Buffs on the scoreboard (136-41). CU was held to under 50 yards in seven of the 12 first quarters, though the scoring was a bit skewed by the Fresno State and Oregon games where the Bulldogs and Ducks combined to jump on the Buffs, 63-0 (FSU 35-0, UO 28-0).
 - ➔ In 2013, the slow starts appeared to be reversed after three games, but now through nine games, CU been outgained the opponent in the opening stanza 1,263-1,067 and has been outscored 91-55 in the first quarter (Oregon and ASU caused almost all the scoring damage, outscoring CU 54-10, and along with Washington, outgaining the Buffs 676-368).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-114 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09 (and 11 more before Stanford and Andrew Luck did it in '11). The CU offense is 11-of-116 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 710 of 1,040 quarters (69%). Those numbers include 25 of 36 this year; CU had scored in 13 in a row dating back to 2012 until being shutout in the second quarter at Oregon State.

2013 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1893 After defeating Colorado A&M in February of this year in a challenge game (CU won, 70-6 in Fort Collins), the Aggies appear on the CU schedule for the first time, traveling to Boulder for a game on October 7; the result is more of the same, as Colorado won, 44-6.
- 1898 Now in its ninth year of intercollegiate football, Colorado plays its first opponent from outside the state boundaries, as Nebraska visited Boulder on Nov. 17; the then-Bugeaters left town with a 23-10 win over the Silver & Gold.
- 1903 Colorado matches its high win total for a season in going 8-2; included a 4-0 mark in Colorado Football Association play and a 17-0 win at Colorado Mines on Halloween; Mines challenges CU to a postseason rematch, and Colorado wins that one as well, 23-5 in Boulder.
- 1908 Fred Folsom returns for his third of four stints as head coach, and leads CU to the Colorado Football Association title and a 5-2 record.
- 1913 Colorado concludes a 5-1-1 season with its first trip ever to the state of Oklahoma, where on Thanksgiving Day, CU drops a 14-3 decision to the University of Oklahoma in Oklahoma City. It's the fifth state Colorado travels to in its history, after Nebraska, Utah, Kansas and Wyoming.
- 1918 Many schools play an abbreviated schedule due to World War I, which came to a halt on November 11 (officially with the signing of the Treaty of Versailles on June 28, 1919 for you history Buffs). CU was 2-3, all five games played in a 21 day span (Nov. 16-Dec. 7); one of the wins was a 20-6 with over The Lieutenants.
- 1923 Colorado completes the season with a 9-0-0 record, its best in 34 years of football, as CU outscores its opponents by 280-27 (no team scored more than seven). The popularity of the team is at an all-time high, and thus the school begins work on a new stadium on the northeast side of campus.
- 1928 (Oct. 13) Bill Smith records the first known 100-yard rushing game ever by a CU player, running for 132 yards and a touchdown in a 21-7 win at Northern Colorado.
- 1933 Sophomore William "Kayo" Lam bursts on the scene and leads CU to a 7-2 record. It's the last year the school is known as the Silver & Gold, as Buffaloes wins a contest the following year and the teams have been named such ever since.
- 1938 It's Colorado's first year in the Mountain State Conference (also called the Skyline and Big 7), as seven schools broke away from the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. The Buffaloes go 3-4-1 in the first year after Byron White's graduation.
- 1943 The full effect of World War II hits college football, CU being no exception. The Buffs played a limited conference schedule (two games), sweeping Utah home and away, lost twice to No. 18 Colorado College and defeated three military teams in going 5-2.
- 1948 CU's first year in the old Missouri Valley Conference (also called the Big 6), to make it the Big 7; the Buffaloes go 2-3 in league play (due to scheduling conflicts, Oklahoma did not appear on a CU schedule until 1950). That was good for a fourth place finish, with the wins coming over Nebraska (19-6 on Oct. 9, also Dal Ward's first win) and Kansas State (51-7 on Oct. 23). Colorado loses close games to two former conference mates, at Utah (14-12) and Colorado State (29-25).
(Feb. 3) Dallas Ward named the 14th head coach in Colorado history, selected by then-athletic director Harry Carlson to lead CU into the Big 7 Conference.
- 1953 Colorado wins its last four games to finish 6-4 for the season; senior Gary Knafelc caught 22 passes for 451 yards and eight TDs, averaging 20.5 yards per catch; he went on to star for the Green Bay Packers, and upon his retirement, was the team's stadium PA announcer for 40 years.
- 1958 Howard Cook ties Byron White's record by scoring 25 points against Arizona in Tucson, as he scored four touchdowns and kicked an extra point in CU's 65-12 rout of the Wildcats; the record would stand for 43 years. Cook also became the first Buff to lead the nation in punt returns (averaging 10.1 per).
- 1963 (Jan. 3) Eddie Crowder is named the 17th head coach in Buff history, replacing alum Bud Davis ('51) who took over the program for a year after it was devastated by NCAA penalties. CU goes 2-8 for a second straight year, but is much more competitive from the get-go: the Buffs lost the season opener at No. 1 USC by just 14-0. Later in the year, the Air Force game, scheduled for Nov. 23, is postponed for two weeks as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy.
- 1968 QB Bobby Anderson becomes the first Buff to go over 2,000 yards total offense for a single-season, recording 2,129 yards (1,341 passing, 788 rushing).
- 1973 A senior-laden Buffalo team opens the year ranked No. 10 in the nation, and opens 5-2 with the losses to two ranked teams; but CU loses its last four games, and following a 17-14 season-ending home loss to Kansas State, Eddie Crowder announces his resignation as head coach. He remains on as CU's athletic director for the next 11 years (a position he took over in 1965).
- 1978 Unbeknownst at the time, this would be CU's last winning season until 1985; the Buffaloes opened 5-0, allowing exactly seven points in each of those games, and climbed to a No. 13 national ranking; but the Buffs dropped five of their last six and coach Bill Mallory was fired three days after the last game. Senior Howard Ballage becomes the third Buff to lead the nation in kickoff returns (averaging 29.4 yards per).
(Oct. 28) Colorado rallies from a 27-7 deficit to defeat Missouri in Columbia, 28-27; the rally from 20 points down is still the largest comeback in school history.
- 1983 (Sept. 17) After a 25-year dormancy, the CU-Colorado State rivalry in football is resumed; KWGN (Ch. 2) televises the game locally, which saw the Buffaloes cruise to a 31-3 win. Sans a 1969 NCAA tournament game, the two schools had also gone 20 years without playing in men's basketball (1959-79).
- 1988 (Oct. 22) Oklahoma edges CU, 17-14, in the first night game ever played at Folsom Field. A 7-2 start paves the way for the Buffs to crack the Top 20, as at No. 19 the Buffs are ranked for the first time since 1978; an 8-4 final record is the school's best since a similar mark in 1976. QB Sal Aunese led CU to a 24-21 win at No. 19 Iowa, CU's most significant road win in over a decade, and senior Keith English became the second Buff to lead the nation in punting (45.0 average).
- 1993 (Oct. 16) Colorado wins 27-10 at Oklahoma, the 78th victory by head coach Bill McCartney, as he becomes the all-time winningest coach in school history, passing Fred Folsom. In that game, Lamont Warren throws a 34-yard touchdown pass to Charles Johnson; Warren slipped on the slick Astroturf and Johnson was interfered with but still caught the ball while lying on the ground in a play that was selected as the national play of the year (the first of two in a row for CU). Johnson went on to be named the offensive player of the year in the Big 8, the first wide receiver to ever receive the award.
- 1998 Two milestones this season: CU's 37-8 win over Iowa State is the school's 600th win all-time, and the 51-43 win over Oregon in the Aloha Bowl is the 1,000th game in school history. In the latter, Mike Moschetti throws four touchdown passes and Ben Kelly returns the opening kickoff for a touchdown.
- 2003 An injury-marred season led to a 5-7 record, but it was not without its highlights. WR D.J. Hackett set a school record with 78 receptions (for 1,013 yards, just the sixth and to date the last 1,000-yard season), and QB Joel Klatt throws for 2,614 yards (the third 2,500+ season in school history).
- 2008 The Buffaloes open 3-0, capped by a 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia before an ESPN national audience; but a rash of injuries (122 games lost by two-deep players) was the main reason for a 2-7 finish over the final nine games. Still, CU appeared bowl-bound until a school-record 57-yard field goal by Alex Henery rallied Nebraska to a 40-31 win in the season finale (the Huskers added a late score on an interception return).

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are and 56-38-1 in their last 95 November games (50-26 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month, and 51-15 against unranked teams). Colorado is 52-47-2 in its last 101 October games and 54-34 in its last 88 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against eight Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe and Notre Dame. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (7), Missouri, Texas and Washington (5), Arizona State, LSU, Ohio State, Oregon and Stanford (4) and then California, Florida State, Michigan State and Nebraska (3 each).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 23 seasons (1990-2012), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (but tied for 11th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2012 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. For more information, visit Ralphie's Green Stampede at http://www.cubuffs.com/ViewArticle.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=600&ATCLID=1549954.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom hasn't happened (yet), the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the second most attending in Jon Embree's first game (2011), also the first nighttime affair. CU has now had seven occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor the late Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
2011	(none/O-D scrimmage)	15,655	Jon Embree's first spring game also featured a first: it was the first one played at night
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990

OPPONENTS & 2013 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2013 Colorado schedule combined for an 84-63 record last year (57.1 winning percentage); it includes nine teams that CU played in 2012, and the Buffaloes dropped all nine games. After the 85th meeting with in-state rival Colorado State that opens the season, the Buffaloes will play their fourth Football Championship Subdivision opponent in history in Central Arkansas, a preseason top 10 team in the FCS poll (CU is 1-2 against FBS teams, losing 19-10 to Montana State in 2006, defeating Eastern Washington 31-24 in 2008 and falling to Sacramento State, 30-28 in 2012). CU closes non-league play against Fresno State, and the Buffs haven't forgot about a 50-yard pass thrown by the Bulldogs when they were down 62-7 in the fourth quarter last year (that's okay, it's your job to stop 'em as they say).

Oregon State and California swap out for Stanford and Washington State on the Pac-12 league slate; the Buffs played Cal in 2011, CU's first year in the league, but that was the back end of a home-and-home agreement and did not count as a league game.

- Colorado opens its third year of Pac-12 league competition on Sept. 28 at Oregon State, the only Pac-12 opponent the Buffaloes have not played since joining the conference on July 1, 2011. The Buffs and Beavers last faced each other in 1988, with CU winning 28-21 in Boulder; it will be Colorado's first-ever trip to Corvallis; the schools have played five times, three games in Boulder and two in Portland.
- Colorado will play five games in November, just the fifth time in its history and the first since 1958 that many are scheduled in the "turkey month." The Buffs have back-to-back road games just once visiting defending Pac-12 North Division champion UCLA (Nov. 2) and then Washington (Nov. 9).
- The season finale will be at Utah on Saturday, Nov. 30; Colorado had played the Friday after Thanksgiving for the last 17 seasons, or every year from 1996 through 2012, but this year's rivalry game with the Utes returns to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) selected other games for the Friday slots.
- In fact, CU does not have a weeknight game in 2013, the first time since 1995 that the Buffaloes will play every regular season game on a Saturday.
- The Buffaloes will have two byes, which fall on Sept. 21 and Oct. 19; while CU had two Saturdays off last year, it was because of a weeknight game against Arizona State; the last time Colorado had two natural byes in the same season was in 2008 ... The Buffs had two bye weeks every year from 1996 through 2005, one usually after non-league play and the other prior to the regular season finale against Nebraska.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

Late in 2010, the divisions in football for the new Pac-12 were announced: CU joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California, UCLA and Utah in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of November 9 (2013 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two will be travel partners, and most assume it won't be a cozy as the current five mates. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the latest world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing. The Big 10 placed 10 schools in the top 100 (Wisconsin has the highest rank – No. 19); the ACC placed four (Duke was its highest at No. 31); the SEC two (Vanderbilt at No. 49, Florida at No. 71) and the Big 12 one (Texas, No. 36).

REUNIONS IN 2013

There are no specific team reunions planned this fall (the most celebrated Buff team on a 5- or 10- year anniversary hit would be the 1998 Aloha Bowl champions, 8-4 overall). "C Day," a reunion of all letter winners, took place for the Central Arkansas game (Sept. 7); the annual Living Legends (which honors all athletes who lettered for the first time 50 years ago) is set for the California (Nov. 16) and the Honorary C awards will be presented at the USC game (Nov. 23). As for other sports, it is the 40th anniversary of the 1974 NCAA champion ski team, and the 10th anniversary of the 2004 NCAA champion men's and women's cross country teams.

GAME 1COLORADO 41, COLORADO STATE 27*SEPTEMBER 1, 2013*SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — The Colorado Buffaloes rumbled into the Mike MacIntyre era with a gutsy 41-27 victory against rival Colorado State in the Rocky Mountain Showdown.

In his first game in CU's multiple/pistol offense, Connor Wood completed 33-of-46 passes for 400 yards and three touchdowns. Two of the TD passes — 82 and 75 yards — went to Paul Richardson, playing in his first game after sitting out last season with a knee injury.

And with the CU defense needing a big play in Sports Authority Field at Mile High, Greg Henderson delivered a monstrous one. With the Buffs cradling a 26-24 lead early in the fourth quarter, he scooped up a CSU fumble and raced 53 yards to score.

The Buffs couldn't have had a more effective start — scoring on their second play from scrimmage — an 82-yard Wood-to-Richardson pass.

After his PAT pushed CU ahead 7-0, Oliver then kicked a 22-yard field goal in the final minute of the first quarter and the Buffs were up 10-0. CSU's first points then came courtesy of a 39-yard Jared Roberts field goal three plays into the second quarter, cutting CU's advantage to 10-3 with 14:17 left before intermission.

It took nearly 11 minutes for either team to score again, but in the final 3:56 of the half CU got 10 points and CSU seven. Wood drove the Buffs 63 yards in seven plays, hitting D.D. Goodson in the back of the end zone with an 18-yard touchdown.

CSU answered immediately with a seven-play, 74-yard march capped by Kapri Bibbs' first career TD — a 7-yard run around left end. Roberts' extra point brought the Rams to within 17-10 and the Buffs had 1:13 remaining to respond.

Starting at his own 25, Wood used six plays to cover 51 yards and position Oliver for a 41-yard field goal on the first half's final play. The Buffs trotted to their locker room holding a 10-point lead (20-10).

CU accepted the second-half kickoff and was forced to give the ball back to CSU. Darragh O'Neill's punt traveled 46 yards, but sophomore Joe Hansley's return covered 74 — and the Rams suddenly were down only by three points (20-17).

With momentum swinging to CSU, CU needed an answer — and the Buffs drove as far as the Rams' 24-yard line before a holding call snuffed the drive. The Buffs forced a punt and this time marched to the Rams 18-yard line, where the drive stalled again but Oliver connected on a 44-yard field and CU increased its lead to 23-17.

CSU got another long return — this one 84 yards by junior Thomas Coffman on Oliver's kickoff — and set up at the CU 16-yard line. It took three plays to score, with Bibbs running 2 yards to give the Rams their first lead of the afternoon, 24-23, with 2:51 left in the third quarter.

When CU's ensuing drive stalled at the CSU 35-yard line, Oliver tied a career-long kick with a 52-yarder, giving the Buffs a 26-24 lead with 13:07 remaining.

Grayson moved the Rams to mid-field and on second down hit Bibbs across the middle for a short gain — but he couldn't escape Chidera Uzo-Diribe's strip, which Henderson scooped up and raced 53 yards to put CU up 33-24.

CSU again responded with 3:47 to play as a 30-yard Roberts filed goal allowed the Rams to pull within 33-27.

Wood and Richardson then delivered again — this time connecting for a 75-yard score. For good measure, Wood hit Goodson for the two-point conversion and the Buffs had their largest lead of the game — 41-27, which would eventually become the final.

GAME 2COLORADO 38, CENTRAL ARKANSAS 24*SEPTEMBER 7, 2013*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — The Colorado Buffaloes rallied with three fourth-quarter touchdowns to put away stubborn Central Arkansas squad, 38-24, and win its home opener under first-year coach Mike MacIntyre. In the process, CU improved to 2-0 and ended a six-game losing streak at Folsom Field.

CU quarterback Connor Wood passed for 341 yards (23-of-36) and submitted his second straight three-TD game of the season. Wood outdueled UCA quarterback Wynrick Smothers, who was 33-of-55 for 280 yards (2 TDs/2 INT) for the Bears, who came into the game ranked No. 5 in the FCS.

Wood connected with Richardson 11 times for 209 yards and two of his three scores. The Buffs took a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter after a 55-yard Wood-to-Richardson touchdown pass, and then Greg Henderson made it 14-0 with a 46-yard interception return, the first pick for the Buffs secondary in 267 pass attempts.

The Bears didn't blink as Wood fumbled as he was sacked by defensive end Markeith Gaines. Fellow end Derek Floyd recovered at the UCA 31, and six plays later Smothers hit Lewis with a 23-yard TD pass to make the game 14-7.

On CU's next series, Wood suffered his first interception of the season — a deflected ball intended for slot receiver D.D. Goodson that was lunged for and grabbed by defensive back Bobby Watkins at his own 24-yard line.

Ten plays later, Smothers capped a 76-yard march with an 11-yard scoring pass to tight end Chase Dixon. Denker's extra point tied the score at 14-14 with 22 seconds remaining before intermission.

Things appeared to settle down for the Buffs, but it was short lived as the Buffs gave up an 88-yard kickoff return to set up a 28-yard Denker field goal and the Bears' first lead (17-14) of the game.

Wood and CU answered with a 55-yard march that positioned Oliver for a 31-yard field goal that tied the score at 17-17 with 11:28 left in the third quarter.

It held until UCA's Gaines got his hands on Wood once more — and once again Wood fumbled. Defensive end Jonathan Woodard scooped up the ball and ran to the CU 16 before being hauled down from behind by Buffs tackle Stephane Nembot.

The Bears ran six plays and advanced to the Buffs' 1-yard line, where on the first play of the fourth quarter Smothers scored on a quarterback sneak to push UCA up 24-17 with all but four seconds of the last quarter remaining.

Time was on the Buffs' side, but the Bears weren't clock watching — they were zeroing in on Wood. The pressure continued, and Wood tossed his second pick of the game — this one picked by free safety Marvin Mitchell at the UCA 44.

Smothers drove the Bears as far as the Buffs' 24-yard line before CU safety Jered Bell stepped in front of a Smothers pass, picked it and ran 79 yards for the TD to tie the game once more (24-24).

The Buffs went ahead with 9:16 to play when Chidobe Awuzie pilfered the football from Wilson after a short reception and set up Wood & Co. at the UCA 30-yard line. On the second play, Wood found Richardson open again — this time for 30 yards and their fourth TD hookup of the season to make the game 31-24 in the Buffs favor.

The Buffs couldn't relax until Wood hit Nelson Spruce on a third-and-20 receiver screen which he took 39 yards for a touchdown to push the Buffs lead to 38-24.

CU corner Kenneth Crawley intercepted Smothers in the end zone with 1:50 to play. The Buffs took over at their 20-yard line, got one first down and put a period on a wild home opener.

GAME NOTES

Colorado last opened with a pair of wins in 2008 ... CU improved to 2-2 all-time against FCS schools ... The temperature at kickoff — 90 degrees — tied for the ninth warmest for any game in CU history and tied for the second warmest ever in Boulder (with the Aug. 26, 2001 Fresno State game; both are tied for the warmest night game in Boulder) ... WR Paul Richardson became the first player in Pac-12 Conference history to have back-to-back 200-yard receiving games ... Ralphie V did not lead the team out for the first time since 2003 (against Nebraska) because of a timing snafu; she made the second half run just fine, however ... Colorado scored 30 points in back-to-back games for the first time since the 10th and 11th games of the 2010 season, and has allowed under 30 for two games in a row since games 4 and 5 of that same year ... Henderson's interception was the first by a Buff in a 10-game span and 267 opponent passes since the last one (a fourth quarter pick by ILB Jon Major at Washington State on Sept. 22, 2012) ... The Buffs returned two interceptions for scores in the same game for the first time since the last day of the last century: Dec. 31, 1999 when ILB Jashon Sykes and SS Rashidi Barnes did it against Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl ... The attendance of 35,168 was the smallest for CU home game in Boulder that wasn't affected due to the weather since 1988.

GAME 3OREGON STATE 44, COLORADO 17*SEPTEMBER 28, 2013*RESER STADIUM, CORVALLIS

CORVALLIS, Ore. — If it was questionable whether a three-week layoff had an ill effect on Colorado, the answer was given in a 44-17 loss to Oregon State in CU's 2013 Pac-12 Conference opener.

CU (2-1, 0-1) trailed 17-3 at halftime, but hung tough with Oregon State for the majority of the first half.

The teams traded field goals in the game's first 13 minutes, OSU striking first with a 36-yarder from Trevor Romaine and the Buffs answering four minutes later with a 19-yarder from Will Oliver set up by a Greg Henderson interception, his third of the young season. Mannion hit Caleb Smith for the TD with 2:09 left in the first quarter from 3-yards out.

The Buffs' defense appeared fairly sound throughout the first half, snuffing a pair of Beavers' drives with an interception by corner Greg Henderson and a sack/forced fumble by end Chidera Uzo-Diribe and fumble recovery by end Juda Parker.

But following Parker's fumble recovery, which stopped an OSU drive at the CU 19, the Buffs couldn't capitalize. They went three-and-out, with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on Daniel Munyer ruining the series and forcing a punt.

The game remained 10-3 for the majority of the first half with the second quarter's only score the second connection between Mannion and Crooks, capping a 12-play, 71-yard march to end the half.

If the Buffs were going to rally, they needed to stop the Beavers immediately in the second half. It didn't happen; OSU took the second half kickoff and fashioned a drive that nearly matched their final first-half march.

It covered 75 yards, required seven plays and concluded with another Mannion-to-Cooks scoring pass — this one for 22 yards. Romaine's extra point pushed the Beavers comfortably in front 24-3 with 12:03 left in the third quarter.

Then the wheels appeared to be close to coming off for the Buffs. But after Marques Mosley fumbled the kickoff and Romaine recovered at the OSU 46, the Beavers were forced into a three-and-out. It didn't matter.

When CU again failed to generate any offense and punted, Mannion completed a 76-yard drive with his third TD pass of the afternoon — a 42-yard screen taken to the end zone by Terron Ward. Romaine made it 31-3 — and another special teams blunder awaited the Buffs on Romaine's kickoff.

When his squib kick wasn't handled by up man Brady Daigh, OSU's Zack Robinson recovered at the CU 26. Four plays later, Mannion tied the OSU single-game record with his fifth TD pass, this one covering 4 yards to Smith to make it 38-3. The disastrous third quarter was and including the final score of the first half, the Beavers put up 28 unanswered points in just over 10 minutes of game action.

Connor Wood and Tyler McCulloch hooked up for the Buffs score with 10:51 to play. When Wood hit freshman Devin Ross with a two-point conversion pass, the score was 38-11 — but time and most everything else wasn't on CU's side.

After Wood was intercepted with just under 7 minutes remaining, Mannion broke the OSU record for TD passes in a single game, hitting tight end Connor Hamlett with an 11-yard toss.

That made the game 44-11 with 6:48 remaining, but if anything can be said about the Buffs it's that they didn't give up.

Wood hit Paul Richardson from 28 yards out with just 13 seconds left in the game, little solace but giving the nation's leading receiver his fifth touchdown in three games on the season. The 2-point conversion failed and ended the game at 44-17.

GAME NOTES

A storm blew into Corvallis the night before the game (it lingered for three days), as it brought winds gusting to 30 miles per hour and constant rainfall (light to moderate) during the game ... This was the first game in 2013 that Colorado did not hold a lead ... TB Michael Adkins made his debut responding with 14 rushes for 98 yards, the second most yards by a true freshman in his first game at Colorado (the record is held by TB Marcus Houston, who had 100 versus Colorado State in Denver on Sept. 2, 2000) ... CB Greg Henderson made his second interception of the season and his third in his career (he has returned the pair for 82 yards) ... WR Tyler McCulloch had his fourth touchdown catch of his career ... Colorado outrushed Oregon State last Saturday (154-140); it was a rare loss when CU had the edge in rushing yards, as the Buffs are 137-17-3 since 1989 when doing so.

GAME 4OREGON 57, COLORADO 16*OCTOBER 5, 2013*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado had its early moments against No. 2 Oregon, but the Buffaloes couldn't make them last. The day belonged to Oregon quarterback Marcus Mariota, his hurry-up offense and his cadre of super-fast skill players.

Shrugging off early 3-0 and 10-8 deficits that might have offered Buffs fans a flickering glimpse of a shock-the-universe upset, the unbeaten Ducks won in a walk, 57-16, before 45,944 at Folsom Field. CU dropped to 2-2 overall and 0-2 in the Pac-12 while the Ducks improved to 5-0 and 2-0, respectively.

Mariota's night was finished midway through the third quarter, but he did more than enough to win Pac-12 player of the week honors. He accounted for seven touchdowns, hitting on 16-of-27 passes for 355 yards and five TDs, with seven rushes for 43 yards and two more scores.

CU receiver Paul Richardson caught five passes for 134 yards and completed one pass for 75 yards and his team's only TD. Christian Powell showed flashes with 20 carries for 78 yards.

CU was unconventional from the opening kickoff, calling for an on-sides kick that the Ducks recovered. But the Buffs forced a three-and-out, took possession and drove 69 yards to position Will Oliver for a 33-yard field goal that gave CU a 3-0 lead.

But that CU advantage lasted all of 1:49 — the time required for Oregon to score on its next possession. Mariota capped the 75-yard, nine-play march with a 2-yard run, then tight end Pharaoh Brown took a direct center snap and ran for the 2-point conversion. Oregon 8, CU 3.

The Buffs responded with a 75-yard pitch-and-catch from Richardson on a flanker reverse pass to receiver D.D. Goodson to put the Buffs back up, 10-8, with 9:35 left in the first quarter.

An ill-advised Wood pass under pressure was picked off by Oregon corner Terrance Mitchell, resulting in a short (43 yards) seven-play drive and a 2-yard scoring run by Thomas Tyner to go up 15-10. A 75-yard Mariota-to-Addison scoring pass shot Oregon in front 22-10 and preceded Wood's second interception. Mitchell got that one, too, and the Ducks quickly capitalized, with Mariota hitting Keanon Lowe for a 17-yard score that capped a 34-second possession to make it 29-10 Oregon at the end of the first quarter.

CU cut into the lead with another pair of Oliver field goals (22, 31 yards) to pull to within 29-16. Mariota then took advantage with 6:04 left before intermission with a rushing TD to make it 36-16, and Oregon added another TD — this one on a 4-yard Mariota-to-Huff pass — to take its 27-point (43-16) halftime lead.

Oregon further blew it open by scoring on its first two second-half possession, with Mariota hitting Addison for a 44-yard score, then finding Huff for a 26-yarder. With 6:50 left in the third quarter, the Ducks were cruising 57-16 and had comfortably entered name-your-score mode.

CU linebacker Addison Gillam finished with a CU freshman record 18 tackles (14 solo), four third down stops and two tackles for loss, one of which was a sack.

A fumble forced by Chidera Uzo-Diribe and recovered by CU linebacker Derrick Webb at the Oregon 10-yard line offered the Buffs a chance for a third-quarter score, but they couldn't take advantage. The Buffs actually took the ball away on three straight possessions, the other two coming on Greg Henderson interceptions, but the Buffs couldn't take advantage. CU closed the game with four straight three-and-outs, as the high-scoring affair saw a scoreless fourth quarter.

GAME NOTES

Colorado lost its 10th straight Pac-12 game ... The teams combined for 493 yards of offense in the first quarter (UO 262, CU 231), when they also combined for 12 possessions ... Colorado led for 6:29 in the first quarter, the most any team has led Oregon in five games this year (Tennessee led Oregon for 5:26 in the first quarter of their game); the 10 first quarter points were the most by an opponent in a quarter against UO this year ... Colorado had 318 yards in the first half, just 2.5 yards shy of what Oregon came in allowing per game (320.5); but the Buffs managed just 56 after halftime ... Oregon's 755 yards of total offense were the second most ever against a CU defense, trailing 875 by Oklahoma in an 82-42 loss on Oct. 4, 1980 (758 of those were rushing) ... Oregon became the first CU opponent to amass at least 400 yards of either rushing or passing and 300 of the other (406 pass/349 rush); the 406 passing yards were the 13th most ever by an opponent ... Colorado was 0-of-15 on third down, eclipsing its old worst mark on the down, as the Buffs were 0-of-13 against Kansas State in a 20-14 loss at Manhattan on Nov. 6, 1999 ... CB Greg Henderson was the first Buff to have two interceptions in the same game since Oct. 27, 2007, when CB Terrence Wheatley snared three at Texas Tech.

GAME 5ARIZONA STATE 54, COLORADO 13*OCTOBER 12, 2013*SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE

TEMPE, Ariz. — Host Arizona State jumped out to an early 25-0 lead in the game's first 10 minutes, forcing Colorado to change quarterbacks en route to a 54-13 win over the Buffaloes.

True freshman Sefo Liufau replaced Connor Wood after just three series, the coaches making the call after Wood opened 0-of-4 with an interception and two sacks.

Liufau, the first true freshman to quarterback the Buffs since Tyler Hansen in 2008, directed a pair of scoring drives, finishing his debut completing 18-of-26 passes for 169 yards, with one touchdown and two interceptions. He also ran three times for 19 yards, not including the one time he was sacked.

On their first possession under their new quarterback, the Buffs marched 80 yards in 11 plays and scored on a 10-yard Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce pass. Nice start, but the talented kid from Tacoma was up against nasty odds when he took his first college snap.

By the time Liufau entered the college game, the Buffs trailed 25-0 — and that was with 4:45 left in the first quarter. Wood was pulled after his pick by corner Lloyd Carrington that set up ASU at the CU 15-yard line and led to a 1-yard run by Marion Grice.

The Sun Devils kept the heat coming and had pushed their lead to 47-6 by intermission. ASU scored on eight of its nine first-half possessions and sacked Liufau in the end zone for a safety.

ASU outgained CU 392-94 in the first half (532-268 for the game), with Grice rushing 13 times for 88 yards and his pair of TDs and catching two passes for 46 yards. Like Kelly, he was done for the night as was receiver Jaelen Strong, whose three receptions went for 109 yards and one score. Kelly's other TD pass — a 1-yarder — went to Davon Coleman, who normally plays defensive end.

Kelly was replaced to start the second half by backup Mike Bercovi, who doubles as ASU's holder and hit Strong with a two-point conversion pass after the Sun Devils' second TD.

The Buffs, meanwhile, struggled to find any first-half offense with the exception of the 80-yard Liufau-led drive. Leading receiver Paul Richardson did not have a first-half catch, and didn't get one until CU's opening possession of the second half. Spruce, with three catches for 25 yards, was the Buffs' top receiver in the opening half.

The Buffs defense was minus CU senior safety Parker Orms for half the second quarter through the rest of the game. He was flagged for allegedly targeting an ASU receiver and ejected, spending the rest of the game in the locker room.

After Liufau suffered his second interception — a pick in the end zone on a pass intended for Richardson — Bercovi engineered a 14-play, 80-yard drive that was capped by senior R.J. Robinson's 1-yard run — the first scoring run of his career. With Gonzalez's PAT, ASU went ahead 54-6 with 3:22 left in the third quarter, and the final quarter started with that score.

Liufau led the Buffs on their second scoring drive of the night, this one 89 yards in 11 plays, with Christian Powell running 8 yards for the score. Will Oliver's PAT made it 54-13.

GAME NOTES

Colorado donned black helmets for just the sixth time in its history, and are now 1-5 in the head gear (this was the third road game; the other two were losses at UCLA in 2011 and at Arizona last year) ... The game time was exactly 3:00 (only 26 in CU's last 284 have been played un under three hours) ... CU lost its 11th straight Pac-12 game (school record for most consecutive losses in conference play; old mark was eight twice) ... CU snapped an 0-for-19 streak on third downs in the first quarter (last try at Oregon State; 0-of-15 vs. Oregon and 0-of-3 before converting against ASU); Colorado was 5-of-5 on third down in the second half ... TB Christian Powell's 8-yard run for a touchdown in the fourth quarter was CU's first rushing touchdown this season ... PK Will Oliver improved to 10-of-10 on PAT kicks in 2013, extending his consecutive streak made to 40 ... SN Ryan Iverson had one tackle on punt coverage, giving him 13 (10 solo) for his career, tying the most career tackles in school history by a long snapper (Chris O'Donnell had 13 from 1987-90) ... QB Sefo Liufau became the ninth true freshman to play for the Buffs this season when he appeared in the first quarter; the last true freshman to appear in a game at quarterback for CU was Tyler Hansen, who made his debut in a 14-13 win against Kansas State in Boulder on Oct. 18, 2008; he completed 7-of-14 passes for 71 yards (1 TD/1 INT). He made his starting debut the following week at Missouri.

GAME 6COLORADO 43, CHARLESTON SOUTHERN 10*OCTOBER 19, 2013*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Stepping away from their Pac-12 Conference schedule on a perfect mid-October Saturday, the Colorado Buffaloes eventually stepped out of Folsom Field with a 43-10 win over Charleston Southern.

Michael Adkins II, a true freshman from San Diego, accounted for a freshman school record four touchdowns on runs of 23, 5, 33 yards and 34 yards. Entering Saturday's game, the Buffs had scored one rushing TD in their previous five games.

Tailback/fullback Christian Powell also scored on a 2-yard run as the Buffs enjoyed their most productive running afternoon of the season (218 yards).

The Buffs broke a three-game losing streak, evened their record at 3-3 and won their first game under first-time starting quarterback Sefo Liufau.

In his first start Saturday, he was 14-of-20 for 198 yards. Liufau's TD pass covered 60 yards, most of them courtesy of fleet junior Paul Richardson in the second quarter. Richardson finished with eight receptions for 122 yards.

The game against previously unbeaten CSU, the FCS' No. 23-ranked team, was arranged on Sept. 30; it replaced a Sept. 14 game against Fresno State which was postponed due to the record rainfall and floods that ravaged the Boulder and area.

CSU, which entered the afternoon 7-0, was without its first two quarterbacks and started freshman Kyle Copeland, who was playing in only his third game and had thrown two incompletions in his only two attempts. Copeland's final passing stats: 7-of-14 for 48 yards, one TD, one interception.

CU outgained CSU 416-196 in total offense, with the Buffs adjusting to CSU's option attack and holding them to zero points and 46 total yards in the second half.

The Buffs got out of the first half with a 22-10 lead largely made possible by a timely forced fumble from Chidera Uzo-Diribe and Paul Richardson's runaway speed. Uzo-

Diribe stripped CSU quarterback Kyle Copeland at the Buccaneers' 12-yard line in the second quarter. Two plays later, Adkins took a handoff headed off left tackle, weaved to his right and scored from 5 yards out for his and the Buffs second score of the game. He previously broke free for a 23-yard TD on the opening drive. Punter Darragh O'Neill then scored on the two-point conversion.

CU's 15-3 lead ballooned to 22-3 after a three-and-out CSU series and the 60-yard pitch-and-catch executed by Liufau and Richardson. Credit Liufau with keeping the play afloat; he fielded a bouncing center snap, collected himself and spotted Richardson crossing right to left in front of the formation. Richardson took the short pass, reversed his field and outran two Buccaneers in pursuit to the right pylon.

But after CU had surged in front 22-3, CSU collected itself for its second 9-plus minute drive of the half — the first ended with a field goal when an apparent TD pass on a well-designed pitch was reviewed and overruled — and scored on a 7-yard Copeland to Colton Korn pass six seconds before intermission.

The Buffs scored on their first possession of the second half, opening a 29-10 lead after a 13-play, 64-yard march capped by Powell's 2-yard run. Exactly 3 minutes later — at 4:11 — Liufau and his offense failed to capitalize on a Jered Bell interception near midfield, and the quarter ended with CU clutching its 19-point advantage.

With 11:22 remaining, Adkins' 33-yard jaunt and Oliver's extra point sent the Buffs comfortably ahead 36-10. Just over 5 minutes later, Adkins shook loose again and broke three tackles and ran 34 yards en route to his record-setting fourth TD.

Wood replaced Liufau and Tony Jones replaced Adkins with just over 3 minutes remaining, with CU taking possession near its 15-yard line and ending the game near midfield.

GAME 7ARIZONA 44, COLORADO 20*OCTOBER 26, 2013*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Behind a career-high 192 yards rushing by QB B.J. Denker and another 119 by tailback Ka'Deem Carey, low by his standards, the Arizona Wildcats slowly pulled away to a 44-20 win over the Colorado Buffaloes.

Denker also completed 21-of-32 passes for 265 yards and a touchdown, giving him 457 yards in total offense — the sixth-highest output in school history, with his 192 yards rushing believed to be a school record for a QB. The Buffs held Carey, the nation's leading rusher, to 42 yards below his average but he did find the end zone four times.

Sefo Liufau, making his first Pac-12 start for the Buffaloes (3-4, 0-4 Pac-12), finished 17-for-32 for 212 yards and a 75-yard touchdown to Paul Richardson, who made seven catches for 132 yards. The Buffs managed 349 yards in total offense, 137 of them on the ground.

Indeed, the Buffs played the Wildcats toe-to-toe through the game's first 27 ½ minutes, even taking a 13-10 lead on Liufau's 75-yard TD pass to Richardson and a pair of Will Oliver field goals that were set up by Arizona turnovers.

CU linebacker Woodson Greer recovered an Arizona fumble that led to Oliver's career-long 53-yard field goal and tied the score at 10-10 with 14:50 left in the second quarter. Just under 5 minutes later, after Oliver was just wide left on a 52-yard attempt, Denker was intercepted by Buffs safety Jered Bell, who returned the pick 26 yards to the Wildcats 49, a drive that ended with an Oliver 48-yarder to make it 13-10 with 5:07 left in the first half.

Allowing the Wildcats (5-2, 2-2 Pac-12) two touchdowns in the first half's final 2:28, the Buffs found themselves trailing 24-13 at intermission. Arizona got the first of those two scores on a 7-yard run by Carey, capping a nine-play, 75-yard march. Then, after Arizona's defense forced a CU three-and-out, Carey ran 30 yards and Denker connected with slot receiver Nate Phillips, who got a step on Bell, for a 44-yard TD pass.

CU tied the score on the long Liufau-Richardson scoring pass, then Jake Smith's 37-yard field goal sent Arizona up 10-7 with 4:34 left in the first quarter.

Needing a defensive stop to open the second half, the Buffs got a partial stop. Three plays — two of them runs by Denker that netted 65 yards — put the Wildcats inside the Buffs' 10 with first-and-goal. But CU held Arizona to a field goal — a 26-yarder by Smith — then responded with its own 75-yard drive (nine plays) and pulled to within seven (27-20) on Michael Adkins II's 1-yard plunge and Oliver's PAT.

Carey scored his third TD of the night — another 1-yard dive — and Smith kicked Arizona ahead again by two touchdowns (34-20) with 7:55 left in the third quarter.

Liufau, with the help of a personal foul (facemask) on Arizona cornerback Jonathan McKnight that nullified an interception, drove CU to the Arizona 4-yard line but no further. Liufau's fourth-down pass to the end zone fell incomplete.

After it was made, just over 3 minutes later, the fourth quarter began with the Buffs still trailing by 14 points.

And the end was beginning . . . CU attempted a fake punt at its own 15-yard line, with punter Darragh O'Neill trying to skirt left end but being hammered after a 3-yard gain to the 18. Carey needed two runs to cover that distance, scoring his fourth TD on a 6-yard run up the middle.

After Smith's extra point the Wildcats were cruising, 41-20, with 14:30 remaining. He added a 28-yard field goal to make it 44-20 with 9:10 to play and that ended the scoring.

GAME 8UCLA 45, COLORADO 23*NOVEMBER 2, 2013*ROSE BOWL STADIUM, PASADENA

PASADENA, Calif. — What started as a promising day for Colorado ended in a 45-23 loss to the No. 17 UCLA Bruins on a beautiful Saturday at the Rose Bowl.

UCLA trailed 10-7 in the second quarter, but scored a pair of quick touchdowns to go ahead 21-10 and forced CU to play from behind the rest of the way.

Paul Richardson made seven catches for 70 yards, while Christian Powell carried 22 times for 97 yards and kicker Will Oliver hit three of his career-high five field goal attempts, uncharacteristically missing a pair of 45-yarders. Sefo Liufau, making his first Pac-12 road start, finished 25-of-36 passing for 247 yards and one TD.

UCLA quarterback Brett Hundley accounted for four touchdowns, completing 19 of 24 passes for 273 yards and two scores, and running 11 times for 72 yards and another pair of TDs.

Before the Bruins' final first-quarter possession, the Buffs had outgained them 111-17 in total offense and had six first downs to none for the Rose Bowl hosts. CU also had a 3-0 lead, courtesy of Oliver's 23-yard field goal, which followed a wide right 45-yard attempt on the Buffs' first possession and marked Oliver's first miss of the season from that distance.

But it took UCLA two plays — one of them a run for minus-one yard — to take the lead. Following that loss of a yard on first down, Hundley teamed with receiver Devin Fuller for a 75-yard TD pass that put UCLA up 7-3 with 19 seconds left in the first quarter.

The Buffs' effort spilled into the second quarter; Liufau drove them 73 yards in 10 plays, hitting Richardson with a 7-yard scoring pass, moving CU back in front 10-7 with 11:04 left before the half.

In the next 4:27, the Bruins scored twice to take a 21-10 lead. The first TD followed a 61-yard, eight-play drive and was scored by Hundley on an 11-yard run through the middle of the CU defense, then on the ensuing kickoff, Buffs returner Ryan Severson's fumble was recovered by Bruins freshman linebacker Jayon Brown at the CU 14. Three plays later, Hundley and Fuller hooked up again, this time for a 6-yard score. With Fairbairn's extra point, the Bruins took a deep breath and were up 21-10.

CU had 6:20 left before intermission to answer, and Oliver did with his second field goal of the half — a 47-yarder that pulled the Buffs to within eight (21-13).

Hundley took the Bruins 70 yards in 12 plays, scoring the TD on a 1-yard run two plays after he had run 14 yards — again up the middle — to convert a third-and-10 at the CU 19 and that put the Bruins up 28-13.

Liufau then pointed the Buffs in the right direction, marching them to the UCLA 28-yard line before the drive stalled. Oliver came on for a 45-yard field attempt, but it was wide right and after UCLA took possession at the Buffs 48-yard line on the next possession, UCLA extended its lead to 35-13.

CU opened the fourth quarter by completing a 75-yard, 13-play march, capped by Tony Jones' 2-yard dive. The Buffs pulled back to within 15 points (35-20). UCLA hit a 45-yard field goal on its next possession and the Buffs answered that with Oliver's third field goal of the day from 37-yards out to make the score 38-23.

After CU was unsuccessful on an on-sides kick attempt, UCLA benefitted from a short field (47 yards) and scored its final touchdown on an 8-yard Hundley-to-Fuller lateral. UCLA won 45-23.

GAME 9

WASHINGTON 59, COLORADO 7

NOVEMBER 9, 2013

HUSKY STADIUM, SEATTLE

SEATTLE — Washington used a wealth of offensive weapons and broke open a close game with two late first half touchdowns in defeating the Colorado Buffaloes, 59-7, on a cold, drizzly night at Husky Stadium.

After turning a 17-7 edge into a 31-7 halftime lead, Washington (6-3, 3-3 Pac-12) converted three consecutive CU turnovers in the third quarter into 21 points to put the game out of reach.

Two of the Buff turnovers were interceptions thrown by freshman quarterback Sefo Liufau, a product of Bellarmine Prep in nearby Tacoma. His first pick was returned 84 yards for a touchdown by safety Tre Watson, the second pick jump-started a seven-play, 40-yard scoring drive capped by quarterback Keith Price's 4-yard run.

And following those turnovers was a fumble by Tony Jones that was recovered and returned 53 yards for a touchdown by corner Marcus Peters, who also was credited with a tipped pass on Liufau's first pick. It was the first fumble by a CU running back in 2013. When the smoke finally cleared, the Huskies had built an insurmountable 52-7 lead entering the fourth quarter.

CU (3-6, 0-6 Pac-12) finished the night with 299 yards in total offense to UW's 628. The Buffs converted six of 15 third down attempts to the Huskies' eight of 13 — and two of those conversions were for 14 and 12 yards.

Colorado junior Paul Richardson, one of the nation's leading receivers, was still hampered by a sprained ankle he suffered two weeks earlier against Arizona, and in fact wore a protective boot when he exited the team bus and still had it on during the initial walk-through. But in the final warm-ups 30 minutes before the game, he shed the boot and appeared to fairly healthy.

Entering the game in pursuit of a pair of school records, Richardson only played the first half. His 53-yard first-half TD catch was his ninth of the year, two short of Derek McCoy's school record of 11 set in 2003. His 77 yards made him the seventh player to record over 1,000 yards in a season, with his 1,061 by game's end inching him closer to Charles E. Johnson's season mark of 1,149 set in 1992. And that 53-yard catch gave him seven plays (all receptions) of 50-plus yards this season, setting a school record.

UW, which had already scored on four of its first five possessions, drove 66 yards in 46 seconds and got a 15-yard TD pass from Price to Austin Seferian-Jenkins two seconds before halftime, its second score in the half's final four minutes. The Huskies had gone ahead 10-0, but CU answered with a seven-play, 76-yard march highlighted by the Liufau-to-Richardson play to cut it to 10-7.

Price, a senior, was a thorn in CU's side for three years, personally amassing close to 1,000 yards of total offense in leading UW to three wins by a combined score of 149-34. The Huskies had nine possessions in the game, and drove into CU territory on all nine, running 55 of their 80 plays on the Buffs side of the field.

Of the 70 players on the trip, 59 played in the game (with six redshirting) ... Washington converted all three CU turnovers into touchdowns (21 points); two via return (interception, fumble), the first defensive returns for scores against CSU this year ... the fumble (by TB Tony Jones) came after 253 carries without a fumble by CU running backs in 2013 ... The 53-yard TD reception by WR Paul Richardson was his ninth of the season, and he became just the fourth Buff to have that many in a year; the nine have covered 465 yards, or 51.7 per; his 20 career have spanned 836 yards (41.8) ... It was also his 13th career play of 50 yards or longer, the seventh in 2013; both are modern day Colorado records (the only players possibly with more would have been Kayo Lam in 1935 and Byron White in 1937, but those records do not exist) ... Richardson also surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for receiving yards for the season, just the seventh CU player to accomplish that feat ... ILB Addison Gillam recorded seven tackles to give him 88 for the season, a CU record for the most tackles by a freshman for a single season in school history ... ILB Ryan Severson tied for the second most kickoff returns in a game at Colorado (8), with the 171 yards the fifth-most ever.

MCCARTNEY TO BECOME SEVENTH BUFFALO TO BE ENSHRINED IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S HALL OF FAME

Bill McCartney first set foot on the University of Colorado campus in Boulder in June 1982; little did he know at the time that just over a dozen years later he would retire as the winningest coach in CU football history.

And now the turnaround “Mac” orchestrated in Boulder with a program that won just 14 games over a six-year span to one that claimed three Big 8 Conference titles and the 1990 consensus national championship is being rewarded on college football’s biggest stage.

McCartney has been selected by the National Football Foundation for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame this December 10 in New York City. He will join 12 players and two coaches in the Class of 2013.

He will become the seventh Buffalo enshrined in the Hall, joining Byron White (inducted in 1952), Joe Romig (1984), Dick Anderson (1993), Bobby Anderson (2006), Alfred Williams (2010) and John Wooten (2012). He is the school’s first coach to be so-honored.

“It’s a surprise and it is very humbling when you look at the men that have been recognized with this honor over the years,” McCartney said. “It’s very gratifying and rewarding. Keep in mind I’ve been out of coaching almost 20 years, so to be remembered after such a long absence was a complete surprise to me.”

McCartney was 93-55-5 in 13 seasons at the reins of the Buffaloes, guiding the program to its first and only national championship in football in 1990, doing so by playing the nation’s toughest schedule, just the second time that feat was ever accomplished. He coached CU in more bowl games, nine, than anyone before or after him, as well as to three consecutive Big 8 titles in 1989-90-91 during a run of 10 consecutive winning seasons in league competition. After a 4-16-1 start in conference games, the Buffs finished 58-29-4 against Big 8 competition, going an impressive 54-13-3 over his last 10 seasons.

In the six-year span from 1989-94, Mac’s last six seasons, Colorado was 58-11-4, the fifth-best record in the nation behind Miami, Fla. (63-9), Florida State (64-9-1), Nebraska (61-11-1) and Alabama (62-12-1). CU’s 36-3-3 record in the conference games in the same period was the nation’s best. CU finished in the nation’s top 20 each of those six years, including a No. 3 ranking his final season.

All 93 wins came against Division I-A/FBS competition, with just nine against so-called non-BCS schools (though five of those versus in-state rival Colorado State). He coached the most games ever (153) at Colorado, with his 13 seasons are second to only the legendary Fred Folsom (15) in the number of seasons working on the “hilltop.”

“This is one of our strongest classes of Hall of Famers,” said Steve Hatchell, the president and CEO of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. “Mac had tremendous support and received a strong vote from the Honors Court. We’re very proud to have someone like Bill McCartney make it into the Hall, and he will be part of the first class to be enshrined in the new Hall of Fame in Atlanta in the summer of 2014.”

Mac was quick to credit two specific groups for his election to the Hall.

“It all started with my first recruiting class, that winter of ‘83,” he recalled. “I asked all the in-state players not to make a decision until they visited CU, and we wanted them to come in the last weekend before signing day. They gave their word and most of them held to it. They stuck together, and they helped recruit our great class in ‘87 that made up the core of the national championship team.

“That’s how I am in the Hall of Fame,” he said boldly. “This means something to the state of Colorado, it’s part of our history. What led us to the national championship is that seven years earlier, the in-state kids stayed home.”

He also had great assistant coaches through the years, coaches he only hired because they could recruit; he would pass on coaches they were great with X’s and O’s if they couldn’t recruit.

And those who worked under him formed a pool that eventually would produce 13 future collegiate head coaches: Gary Barnett, Jim Caldwell, Ron Dickerson, Jon Embree, Gerry DiNardo, Karl Dorrell, Steve Logan, Les Miles, Rick Neuheisel, Bob Simmons, Lou Tepper, Ron Vanderlinden and John Wristen.

McCartney, 73, had coaching in his blood almost from the get-go.

“When I was 7 years old, I knew I was going to be a coach,” he said. “My friends, other kids at that age were going to president, businessmen, attorneys, firemen. Ever since I was a little kid, I imitated my coaches, critiqued them, always followed and studied them. I was a student of the great coaches. I was a disciple of Bobby Knight’s when I was (high school) basketball coach.”

McCartney attended the University of Missouri on a football scholarship and lettered three times as a center-linebacker for the Tigers. He played in two Orange Bowl games and was named second-team All-Big 8 as a senior.

He graduated from Missouri in 1962 with a degree in education and immediately turned his attention to coaching. His first job was as an assistant at Joplin (Mo.) High in 1963 and 1964. He then returned to Michigan to coach the basketball team at Holy Redeemer High School in Detroit. He coached there from 1964 to 1968.

The next stop for Mac was at Divine Child High in Dearborn, where he was the head basketball coach from 1969 to 1973 and the head football coach from 1971 to 1973. His ‘69 hoops team won the Detroit Catholic League title, and his ‘73 team won the state class B crown. His three Divine Child football teams compiled a 30-5 record, winning the DCL title all three years and the state championship in ‘71 and ‘73.

His feats of winning state title in football and basketball in 1973 made him the first coach ever in Michigan high school history to win both the same season, and it would serve as his entry into the college ranks.

“After we won the state championship in both sports, (the University of Michigan’s) Bo Schembechler and Johnny Orr both offered me an assistant’s job within one week of each other,” McCartney said. “I played college football but wasn’t good enough to play college basketball, so that settled that,” he joked. “My first love really was football, and being a Michigan native (born and raised in Riverview), to become a part of Schembechler’s staff was the opportunity of a lifetime.”

He joined the Michigan coaching staff as a defensive aide in 1974, coaching outside linebackers for the next three seasons. In 1977, he took over the chores as Michigan’s defensive coordinator, a position he held until he departed for CU. One publication had Mac rated as one of the top five defensive coordinators in the nation in 1981, and he was considered one of the finest recruiters in the country.

McCartney gained national recognition at Michigan in 1980 when he devised a scheme to stop Purdue quarterback Mark Herrmann (using six defensive backs to neutralize Herrmann and his receivers). He was named the Big Ten’s “player” of the week for his plan.

He points to Schembechler as the coach he owes the most for his successful coaching career. Mac had started entertaining thoughts about becoming a head coach, so it was a matter of time before someone called.

MCCARTNEY TO BECOME SEVENTH BUFFALO TO BE ENSHRINED IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S HALL OF FAME, CONTINUED

That call came the first week of June in 1982. The late Chuck Fairbanks abruptly resigned on June 1 to become president and head coach of the New Jersey Generals in the fledgling United States Football League. (The late) athletic director Eddie Crowder was faced with hiring a new coaching staff with the season opener just 102 days away.

"I went in to talk to Bo, and I told him that if the right opportunity came along, I'd be interested. He said, 'Okay, when the right job comes along, come see me.' The Michigan State job opened shortly after that, and I went in to see him and he said, 'You do not want to go there and I am not considering helping you get there. Get that out of your mind.' And I did. So that was the first one that came along I was interested in and I didn't pursue it.

"When the Colorado job opened, it was the perfect time for me," McCartney recalled. "Because of the timing, there was really no head coach in America who could have applied for the job, because if you didn't get it, you would have been run out of town because you were willing to abandon your team. Chuck Shelton interviewed from Drake, which had just beat CU twice, but I didn't have to fight several head coaches who would have been interested had the job opened at a more opportune time. When I saw that Chuck resigned, I was immediately interested, I went in and saw Bo. At the appropriate time, Bo called Eddie Crowder. He was instrumental in my getting strong consideration.

"It was my good fortune, the timing was such that I was in position to be a candidate because of the success Michigan had had and the fact that I worked for Bo."

"Colorado was one of the premier jobs in the country," he continued. "It was in a prestigious conference, the location, the history, and there was something about raising your family in a college town. All the opportunities you can ask for in a dynamic collegiate environment. Boulder is just the right size, not too big, not too small and has access to a major city in Denver. The populace and all that goes with that, the professional teams, the arts, a major airport providing access to wherever you'd want to go. The aesthetic beauty of Boulder, Colorado is that it has no parallel, and offers what I call the 'maximum experience.'

"You look at its extraordinary beauty, when every day you wake and say, 'All right, let's get up and get it on.' When you look at the academic experience, there's none better. But when you look around at everything, raising your family, tell me there's a safer place than Boulder. We have more winter sunshine than Phoenix, Miami or L.A. You look at the whole experience and not just focus on football and say, 'What do you want out of life?' When you add all those things up, Boulder and CU can't be matched. I've been looking around all these years, and nobody else can match what Colorado can offer—the premier college experience in America. And I say that not trying to recruit anybody—I'm done."

"You look at its extraordinary beauty, when every day you wake and say, 'All right, let's get up and get it on.' When you look at the academic experience, there's none better. But when you look around at everything, raising your family, tell me there's a safer place than Boulder. We have more winter sunshine than Phoenix, Miami or L.A. You look at the whole experience and not just focus on football and say, 'What do you want out of life?' When you add all those things up, Boulder and CU can't be matched. I've been looking around all these years, and nobody else can match what Colorado can offer—the premier college experience in America. And I say that not trying to recruit anybody—I'm done."

On a roll, he continued on: "When I was recruiting, I would say there are other schools that have won more games, others that have better academics, others that might have a better campus. But not all three in a package like the University of Colorado. I personally believed I had the greatest product to sell, and I truly believed what I was saying. I never had a kid say to me even once, 'Coach, you oversold me on Boulder.'"

It wasn't a slam dunk that Crowder was going to hire him, though. In fact, he was the longshot. He wasn't even contacted until six days into the search. He told the story best to CUBuffs.com back in 2007:

"What happened was that Eddie Crowder called me on a Sunday night (June 6) and asked if would I be interested; I said absolutely. He said 'When can you be here?' And I said the next morning. So I took the first flight out of Detroit and got to Colorado pretty early in the day, but I got here so fast that they weren't ready to interview me. It took him until Tuesday morning to put together an interview panel. That gave me a day here where nothing was happening and I was able to get acquainted. I had been here before as an assistant with Michigan and as a player with Missouri, so I had a little familiarity with the place. Eddie assigned me to (the late associate AD) Fred Casotti; when the interview took place Tuesday morning, there were about 15 people representing all kind of factions on campus and the alumni. About 15 minutes before I was going to go before them for the interview, I said to Fred, 'What do you think my chances are?' He said, 'Coach, it's third and long. You'd better make a big play.'

"That was the best thing he could have told me, otherwise I might have tiptoed into the interview. But after Fred told me that, I threw caution to the wind, decided to get aggressive and put my best foot forward. The format was for them to ask me questions, or that's what they had in mind. But I stood up, and I said before I take any questions, I want to make a statement. I spoke for about 20 minutes and told them who I was, my background, what I had done at the University of Michigan, my philosophies and values, and what I would bring to the University of Colorado if I was to get the job. I was the only one talking, and after I was done speaking, nobody asked me a question.

"I went from there to meet the president, Arnold Weber, and he had already gotten a phone call following the first interview. He was energized and anxious to see me, and was warm and welcoming. Later that night, they took me to meet the Board of Regents, as by chance they were having their monthly meeting in Denver. I was waiting with Casotti in the car, waiting for a break in their meeting to be introduced, and I asked Fred again, 'What do you think my chances are?' And Fred said, 'Coach, fourth and short. You just need to make a first down.' So I just needed to move the chains. That Tuesday night, Eddie offered me the job. Really it all happened so fast, we didn't have a lot of time because of the unusual circumstances."

McCartney was hired as the 20th head coach in CU history on June 9, 1982, taking over a team which had just suffered through three of its worst seasons in an otherwise tradition-rich football program. And the rest, as they say, is history.

"All you have to is recruit, and if you recruit the right kids and get them, you'll find yourself playing in a lot of big games," he concluded. "So it's not about me, it's about the University, what a great place it is, it's about all the good assistants we had, and it's about that first recruiting class that got things going for us."

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 44 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on four occasions (CU will also sport black helmets on the road occasionally). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a CU game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the lockerroom at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.
