

2011 CU GAMEDAY NOTES—GAME 3: BUFFALOES VS. COLORADO STATEColorado Buffaloes (0-2, 0-0 Pac-12) vs. Colorado State Rams (2-0, 1-0 MWC)

September 17, 2011 ● Folsom Field ● Boulder, Colo. ● 11:40 a.m. MDT

BUFFALO GAME DAY

"GREEN GAME NOTES" Instead of running up to 60 pages of notes and statistics, Colorado has gone "green" to conserve paper. All seats in the press box receive the CU "short stack," four pages plus stats; we do have a few sets of full in-depth game notes for those who would like them. Also, due to NCAA regulations and limitations, we no longer print a bound media guide; we do have all that information available in a supplement, but we are not allowed to bind; you'll have to punch holes in it or take to Kinko's to have it wire bound (not our choice, it's actually against NCAA rules to do so). Just ask for either or both at the Colorado SID area of the press box!

THE QUICK OF IT The Colorado Buffaloes (0-2, 0-0 Pac-12) are hoping the proverbial third time is the charm in their attempt to get first-year head coach Jon Embree his first win, as they line up against intrastate rival the Colorado State Rams (2-0, 1-0 MWC) in an 11:40 a.m. kickoff in the Cinch Jeans Rocky Mountain Showdown at the newly-renamed Sports Authority Field at Mile High (76,125) ... This is the 83rd meeting between the two schools, just 45 miles apart (38 as the crow flies, but has it been proven that crows fly straight?); it's the 11th in Denver, where the Buffs lead 6-4 with three straight wins ('07, '08, '10); CU leads overall, 60-20-2 ... The Buffs are 43-33-3 all-time in Denver, and 20-15-2 in neutral site games (15-9-1 in Denver) not including bowl games ... This marks the first time that the Showdown will take place a day before a Bronco game (Denver hosts Cincinnati Sunday); the Broncos will start moving in gear to their lockerroom at halftime, with the Bengals set to do the same once CSU clears the NFL visitor's lockerroom ... Today's crowd should be somewhere in the 60-65,000 range; as of Noon Friday, CU had moved 37,124 tickets, including all 8,500 student tickets, out of its allotment of about 38,300.

A COLLEGE RARITY TODAY As a late tribute for those who lost their lives on Sept. 11, 2001, CU asked the Pac-12 for permission for pregame to be adjusted for the teams to be on the sideline during the playing of the national anthem. CSU immediately agreed to the idea; both head coaches, CU's Jon Embree and CSU's Steve Fairchild came from the NFL where the anthem is played right before the coin toss and kickoff.

THE WELCOME A few notables are present today in the press box include one of the handful, if that many, of players who played for both CU and CSU as well as the Denver Broncos, Tom Rouen (who said he found it amusing that the Raiders would request Sebastian Janikowski's 63-yard field goal last Monday night be revised to 64; Rouen held for Jason Elam's 63-yarder); Colorado Rockies relief pitcher Josh Roenicke, who played baseball and football at UCLA, where Jon Embree was his position coach; and we have scouts from five NFL teams: Cincinnati, Cleveland, Denver, Miami and San Francisco.

TV REPLAY Fox Sports Net is broadcasting today's game, which will air locally on ROOT Sports; ROOT will replay the game twice this week: Sunday (Sept. 18) at 6 p.m., and Wednesday (Sept. 21) at 6 p.m. Prior to the Wednesday rebroadcast, "Runnin' With the Pac '12" will air at 5:30, as this edition features Colorado.

THE WEATHER The temperature at kickoff is expected to be right around 70 degrees (high of 73 forecast); there is a 30 percent chance of isolated thunderstorms, which if they occur wouldn't happen until 2 p.m. or so; the CU-CSU game in Denver has only experienced bad weather on one occasion, but it was a doozy: back in 2003, the game was delayed for 28 minutes after the stadium was surrounded by lightning with heavy rains. The teams did complete the game, CU holding off a CSU rally to win, 42-35.

THE LOOKOUT Here are some things to look for in today's game from the Colorado perspective:

☒ TB Brian Lockridge has 968 career kickoff return yards, needing 32 to reach 1,000 which will make him the 101st player in CU history to reach 1,000 yards in a statistical category.

☒ WR Paul Richardson has three career 100-yard receiving games off of his record 284 last week; a fourth could enable him to reach 1,000 yards in career receiving (he has 847, or 153 shy), which has him in a race with Lockridge to be the 101st Buff with 1,000 yards in a category. The CU record for most receiving yards over two games is 376 by Rae Carruth (222 at Missouri, 154 vs. Iowa State in 1996); he would need 93 yards to day to topple that mark. He had 11 receptions last week; the two-game CU best is 19 (co-held by Michael Westbrook and Charles Johnson).

THE WEEK AHEAD Sunday is the team day off (no interviews); Monday is video review and a short practice, mostly conditioning (5:10-5:30); Jon Embree's weekly press luncheon is Tuesday (11:30 a.m. lunch, 12:00 Embree, 12:30 selected players), with practice roughly from 4-6 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday and 4-5:30 on Thursday, with a Friday walk-through (in Boulder) ahead of next Saturday's game against Colorado State (11:30 a.m., FSN). Interview windows are Monday through Wednesday from 12:45-2:00 and after practice.

LOCKERROOM POLICY... Colorado's lockerroom is closed; Jon Embree and 3-4 players will speak to the media in the interview room located between the CU and CSU lockerrooms on the field level; additional players will be available in the hallway outside CU's lockerroom. Associate SID Curtis Snyder will coordinate the conference; graduate assistant Cole Mickelson and senior student assistant Ron Knabenbauer will coordinate player interviews (no deadline to submit requests). David Plati coordinates notes and the injury report.

GAME 3—COLORADO STATE

EMBREE LOOKING FOR FIRST WIN AGAINST IN-STATE RIVAL

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2011 • 11:40 a.m. MDT • Sports Authority Field at Mile High (76,125), Denver, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 3 (September 13, 2011)

Fox Sports Net (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (0-2, 0-0 Pac-12) renew their in-state rivalry this Saturday against the Colorado State Rams (2-0, 1-0 MWC) in the 11th Annual Cinch Jeans Rocky Mountain Showdown, with kickoff scheduled for 11:30 a.m. at Denver's recently renamed Sports Authority Field at Mile High ... The game will be televised nationally by Fox Sports Net (Comcast Ch. 26 in Denver-Boulder, DISH Ch. 414, DirecTV Ch. 683) ... First-year head coach Jon Embree last coached both a game against Colorado State as a member of the CU coaching staff and in Denver in 2002, when CSU edged the Buffs, 19-14 ... This is the 83rd meeting between the two schools, the 11th in Denver where CU leads the series, 6-4 ... CU-CSU is one of 12 games Saturday matching intra-state rivals; other top battles include Utah-BYU, Kentucky-Louisville and Oklahoma State-Tulsa ... CU is coming off a tough 36-33 overtime loss to Cal, where the Buff offense and particularly the passing game came alive with 582 and 474 yards, respectively; that was 342 more yards than in the opener at Hawai'i, making it the third best improvement from one week to the next in total offense where the second opponent was a BCS school ... This will be Colorado State's third straight game along the Rocky Mountain Front Range, opening with a win at New Mexico followed by a victory at home over Northern Colorado; the Rams don't leave the I-25 corridor until next week at Utah State ... ABC has selected the Sept. 24 Colorado at Ohio State game for telecast with a 1:30 p.m. MDT kickoff; it will likely shown in the Colorado and Ohio regions, but will be a national broadcast as a "reverse mirror" will have the game shown everywhere else on ESPN2 ... There are less than 2,500 tickets of CU's 35,000 or so allotment remaining for the CSU game ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Jon Embree is searching for his first win as a head coach; since the end of World War II (modern era), out of 11 head coaches, only Sonny Grandelius (1959), Chuck Fairbanks (1979) and Dan Hawkins (2006) didn't record a win by the time they finished coaching their third career game on the Buff sidelines. The proverbial "third time was the charm" for three coaches, winning in their third game: Dal Ward (1948; 19-6 over Nebraska), Eddie Crowder (1963; 21-7 at Kansas State) and Bill Mallory (1974; 24-21 versus Wisconsin).

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

A combination of 400 yards passing, 500 yards total offense, not committing a turnover and not allowing quarterback sack has almost always added up to a winning combination for the Buffaloes – and likely most other teams – but that wasn't the case against Cal. In the 36-33 overtime loss, CU gained 582 yards, 474 passing, and played turnover free ball while protecting quarterback (zero sacks after allowing seven in the opener against Hawai'i). It was CU's first loss ever when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover (now 14-1), and just the 15th when scoring 30 or more points in a game (out of 315, as CU is 299-15-1 when scoring 30 or more, 57-6 since 1985).

GAME-BY-GAME STARTERS

Here are CU's starters for the 2011 season (bold indicates first career start); this list often does not reflect who might be "listed" first at a position, as especially on offense, the first play selected often involves personnel for a specific play:

THIS-N-THAT

Two members of the CU roster will now have an interesting thing for their resumes: WR Toney Clemons, who transferred from Michigan in 2009, can say that he played in three conferences (Big 10, Big 12, Pac-12), while CB Makiri Pugh can say that he practiced on teams in three (SEC, Big 12, Pac-12; he transferred to CU last year from Georgia and had to sit out the season, so he was ineligible to appear in a game) ... Scheduling Irony: now members of two different conferences, both Colorado and Nebraska play Ohio State in 2011... the last time the two played the same opponent where it wasn't a league game for both was in 1996 (Colorado State; CU won 48-34 in Fort Collins, the last game in the series there, and NU won 65-9 in Lincoln) ... Summer Lovin': Fifteen of the 20 high school recruits in the '11 recruiting class took at least one summer school class in Boulder (as did six invited walk-ons) ... Non-League: CU hosted California on Sept. 10 in its home opener, but the game was not a Pac-12 conference game (it completed a previous home-and-home series between the two); the last time CU had played a league opponent when it didn't count as a league game was in 1923 (Northern Colorado, which for whatever reason 88 years ago played just two league games that year instead of eight like most of the other schools). CU's last non-league game against a "Pac-10" opponent proved to be most exciting, as Cal escaped Boulder with a 36-33 overtime win ... Uniforms: The Buffaloes have returned to the uniforms of their most revered glory days (late 80s/early 90s), both home and road; they're not considered throwbacks, CU has returned to the look permanently.

LATE WALK-ONS

With school started and the first game now under the belt, six additional walk-ons and one four-year transfer have been added to the CU roster; five are true freshmen who enrolled at Colorado last month for the fall semester, with a seventh (Papillion) eligible as he is a sophomore transfer who enrolled at CU in the fall of 2010. The eighth in Connor Wood, who just transferred to CU from Texas last week; he must sit out a year. The list:

No.	Player	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Class	Exp.	Hometown (High School/Previous College)	Status

INJURY UPDATE

The Buffs suffered a second serious injury to an offensive lineman this season when RT Jack Harris went down with a broken ankle against Cal; he'll be out for quite some time is the initial prognosis. The previous week, CU lost LT David Bakhtiari to a severe knee sprain on CU's seventh offensive play from scrimmage. Here's a look at the current injury situation:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Colorado State
OT	David Bakhtiari	knee	suffered a sprain on the seventh CU play of the game at Hawai'i (Sept. 3)	QUESTIONABLE
OL	Shawn Daniels	calf	suffered a severe strain in practice (Aug. 11)	OUT/2-4 WEEKS
CB	Vince Ewing	knee	suffered a torn ACL in a 2010 camp scrimmage (Aug. 12); underwent arthroscopic surgery on Sept. 8	OUT
CB	Sherrard Harrington	hip	suffered a hip contusion in summer workouts, will likely redshirt	OUT/3-5 WEEKS
OUT FOR THE SEASON
CB	Jered Bell	knee	suffered a torn ACL in the third fall practice (Aug. 6); scheduled for surgery	OUT

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

CU-SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAME ONE OF 20 SET FOR ESPN "3D"

CU's home game against Southern California on Friday, Nov. 4, will be televised nationally on ESPN2; that was announced months ago. But in early August, the game was also one of 20 ESPN broadcasts this fall to be earmarked for broadcast by ESPN 3D. The newest technology in television, it requires its own broadcast setup and has its own set of announcers.

WHO'S GONNA GET IT? PERICAK, THAT'S WHO

Against Cal, junior DT Will Pericak became the first Buffalo to block an extra point since James Garee batted one away against Clemson in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl. Overall, opponents had made 158 in a row (155 regular season), with the last miss coming on a wide kick by Baylor in 2007; but the enemy had tried 199 PAT kicks without a Buff breaking through to reject one. In general, opponents have been almost automatic when lining up for a placement kick against CU, also making 76-of-94 field goals (80.9%) since late in the '07 season.

SEASON TICKET UPDATE

It appears CU's move to the Pac-12 Conference was a grand success on the season ticket front: at the close of business Monday (September 12), there were 24,471 tickets sold, which is some 4,833 more than last year's final count of 19,638; the Buffs are still selling prorated season tickets through the Washington State game. CU's move to the Pac-12 obviously along with the coaching change are the two biggest factors in what is now the third largest increase from one season to the next in the number of season tickets in CU history: the largest bump was 10,885 tickets from 1971 (17,104) to 1972 (27,989), followed by 6,963 from 1989 (19,368) to 1990 (26,331). But in both those instances, CU was coming off one of its best seasons in history, finishing No. 3 in the nation in '71 and the 11-0 regular season run and national championship ramifications in '89. Dating back to 1970 when data is available, CU has had a losing record and increased its season ticket numbers the following year just three times: in 1974 (29,260, or 1,264 more than in '73), in 2007 (21,203, or 753 up over '06) and in 2008 (22,603, a 1,400 increase over '07), with that 1,400 the previous highest gain after a losing season until this year's number has more than tripled it—with two weeks remaining before CU's 2011 home opener (and remember, the '07 team only had a losing record because of a 30-24 loss to Alabama in the Independence Bowl). So this is definitely new territory.

SINGLE GAME/STUDENT SALES UPDATE ... Single game tickets went on public sale August 1 for all five of CU's home games and the Colorado State game in Denver, and sales for those have been steady; less than 7,000 tickets remain for the Oregon and USC games. CU ticket manager Will Simpson also reported that 10,708 student season tickets have been sold (out of a 12,000 allotment), and those are also still on sale on a prorated basis through the WSU game.

GIMME FIVE

Senior OG Ryan Miller will letter for the fifth time this fall (all seniors automatically letter), thus he will join a very exclusive group at Colorado (and likely in college football in general). He missed the last eight games of the 2008 season with a broken fibula, but still played in four contests and more than enough plays to letter. He thus will be come just the ninth out of 1,892 lettermen to earn five letters in a CU uniform, the first since TB Bobby Purify earned his fifth in 2004; Purify had been the first to do it since 1908. He gained a fifth year after an ankle injury sidelined him for the bulk of the 2003 season.

TALK ABOUT BEING DUE

Colorado has lost a school-record 18 consecutive road games (17 at campus sites, with the other at Jacksonville still considered to be a Florida State home game back in 2008). Five of the losses have been by a touchdown or less, and the string includes 13 straight league games on the road as well, also a school record. During this span, CU has played three other games away from Folsom Field, all at true neutral sites: the 2007 Independence Bowl versus Alabama (a 30-24 loss), and two against Colorado State in Denver (38-17 in 2008 and 24-3 this year). A closer look at the streak:

THE VERTICAL GAME

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts two games into the 2011 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career number will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ WR TONEY CLEMONS is 51st in receptions (44) and is 69th in receiving yards (491);
- ⇒ TE RYAN DEEHAN is 48th in receptions (46) and is 70th in receiving yards (483);
- ⇒ QB TYLER HANSEN is ninth in passing yards (3,519), seventh in pass completions (318), eighth in passing attempts (539), ninth in touchdown passes (20), 10th in total offense (3,873) and is 14th in adjusted rushing yards by a quarterback (834);
- ⇒ TB BRIAN LOCKRIDGE is seventh in kickoff return yards (968), tied for eighth in returns (44) and 101st in rushing (412);
- ⇒ TE PAUL RICHARDSON is 43rd in receptions (48), 29th in receiving yards (847) and is tied for 13th in touchdown receptions (10);
- ⇒ TB RODNEY STEWART is fifth in rushing yards (2,869), is second in rushing attempts (662), is 31st in receptions (59), is 53rd in receiving yards (582), is fourth in yards from scrimmage (3,451), seventh in all-purpose yards (3,451), is tied for 14th in rushing touchdowns (21) and is tied for 28th in scoring (126 points).

BUFFS HAVE ONE OF TOP RETURNING VETERAN OFFENSIVE LINES

The Buffaloes rank 10th in the nation among offensive lines with the most career starts by its returning players. CU had 82 such career starts entering the year, the most made by OG Ryan Miller (35), followed by OG Ethan Adkins (20), OG Blake Behrens (16) and OT David Bakhtiari (11).

The reverse is true for CU's first opponent in 2010, as Hawai'i is 101st on the list, with only 21 starts among its returning linemen.

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2011

- 1 The number of turnovers CU has in its first two games, matching the fewest its had in two games the last 30 years (with 1998, 2000, 2006).

- 5 The number of consecutive field goals PK Will Oliver has made to open his career, third best in school history (record: 7).
- 17-of-58 The opponents' combined efforts on third down inside-the-CU 20 (or 29.3 percent) in the last 27 games (dating to 2008).
- 8 The number of "three-and-outs" the Buff defense has forced the opponent into (out of 25 possessions).
- 10 The number of overtime games in Colorado history, as the loss to Cal was the first CU game extended into extra time since 2008 (WVU).

- 175 The number of yards gained in the third quarter versus Texas Tech, the season high for a single quarter in 2010.
- 199 The number of opponent PAT kicks between blocks by Colorado (Will Pericak vs. Cal this year, James Garee vs. Clemson in 2005).
- 284 The number of receiving yards that WR Paul Richardson had against California, a school record and the third-most in Pac-12 history.
- 474 The number of passing yards that QB Tyler Hansen had against California, a school record.
- 3,350 The approximate number of air miles between Denver (DIA) and Honolulu, as CU played at Hawai'i for the first time since 1925.

GRADUATION REVIEW

Through this past August, over the last decade (2002-11), CU has had 163 of its 184 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.6 percent (with two of the 21 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while four are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado.

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two will be travel partners, and most assume it won't be a cozy as the current five mates. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

COLORADO-COLORADO STATE AT-A-GLANCE

Colorado leads the all-time series with the Rams, 60-20-2 (in Boulder 31-9-1; at Fort Collins 23-7-1, in Denver 6-4). A game-by-game look:

SERIES HISTORY—CU VS. COLORADO STATE

Colorado leads the all-time series by a 60-20-2 count; the Buffs have won comfortably the last time the two schools met in Denver, 38-17, in 2008 and 24-3 last year; in-between, CSU hung on in 2009 in Boulder for a 23-17 win (its first at Folsom Field since 1986). The six games between 2002-07 were some of the most thrilling in the series, decided by just 25 points combined (all of which came down to the final minute, if not the final seconds). A 31-28 overtime win in 2007 was the first in the series that went into extra sessions, and overall, the Buffs have won six of the last eight in the series. The teams split the first go-round of games in Denver (1998-2003) with CU taking the next series of three by 2-1 (2006-08); last year's game was the first of the next 10 at the neutral site, where CU now leads 6-4. Colorado leads 31-9-1 in Boulder, and 23-7-1 in Fort Collins. This is the eighth straight game in the series where neither team is ranked, though between 1989 and 2003 at least one team was among the nation's top 25. CU coach Jon Embree is 0-0 against CSU, while CSU coach Steve Fairchild is 1-2 against Colorado.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—The 1910 game, listed for years as a 10-0 CSU win, was actually never played? CU refused to travel to Fort Collins to play because CSU had a player who had previously played professionally, which has never been disputed (whatever that meant in the pre-NFL days).

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 15th. In 1996, the Buffaloes won the last meeting between the two in Fort Collins by a 48-34 score. QB Koy Detmer completed 31-of-42 passes for 364 yards and two touchdowns, while TB Herchell Troutman ran 26 times for 184 yards to lead a Buffalo offensive attack that amassed 645 yards of total offense. CSU led 7-0 and 14-7, but the Buffs went on a 34-6 spree from late in the first quarter to early in the third (a span of 18 minutes). TB Lendon Henry scored three touchdowns (2 rush/1 receiving) and DT Viliami Maumau returned an interception 33 yards for a score to highlight the defense.

A CLOSER LOOK

CU leads the series by a 17-6 count since it was resumed in 1983 after a 25-year dormancy. The Buffs have outscored the Rams by 674-469 in those games; CU has held the lead in 20 games, CSU in 14 games, and in 11 of the 23 both teams owned a lead. Out of 1,380 minutes of game time, CU has led for 749:20 (54% of the time), CSU for 397:46 (29%). Colorado is 6-0 when rushing for 250 or more yards, and is 10-2 when holding the Rams under 100.

A CLOSER LOOK

Colorado State is 2-0 after opening with a 14-10 win over New Mexico in Albuquerque and then returning home to best Northern Colorado, 33-14. In the season opener against the Lobos, sophomore Nordly Capi, a defensive end from Ocoee, Fla., recorded four forced fumbles, and NCAA record. Last week, the CSU offense racked up 501 yards of total offense over the Bears. Pete Thomas has completed an impressive 73.5 percent of his passes and compiled a 218.5 quarterback rating despite having two touchdowns and three interceptions on the season. He is 50-of-68 for 437 yards and his favorite targets are Joe Brown (10 catches, 70 yards) and Crock Gillmore (8-80, one touchdown). On the ground, the Rams rely on the duo of Raymond Carter (28 rushes, 146 yards, 2 TDs) and Chris Nwoke (24-105-2), who have combined for 249 yards and four scores in two games. Defensively, on top of his four forced fumbles, Capi also leads the defense in sacks with 4½ on the season, racking up 29 yards in losses. Mike Orakpo leads the team with 9.0 tackles per game. This will be the first time since World War II that Colorado State will play CU with a record of 2-0 or better.

- ➔ Colorado State coach Steve Fairchild is in his fourth season in Fort Collins and boasts a 15-24 record there, including 2-0 in this young season. It is his first head coaching job, but his third stint at Colorado State, where he was a quarterback from 1978-80 and an assistant coach from 1993-2000. CSU was 37-12 when he was on the coaching staff in the 1990s when the Rams won five conference titles and went to five bowl games. Four of those 12 losses in his tenure were to the Buffaloes as CU won four of six match-ups during that time frame. Between his stints at CSU, he was a running backs coach and offensive coordinator in the NFL for the Buffalo Bills and St. Louis Rams. His coaching career started in 1982 at San Diego Mesa Community College and he spent time at Ferris State, New Mexico and twice at San Diego State before heading to Colorado State the first time.
- ➔ The Rams opened the season with a 14-10 win at New Mexico and followed it up with a 33-14 win over Northern Colorado at home Saturday. DE Nordly Capi forced an NCAA record four fumbles, all of which came on sacks of UNM QB Tarean Austin. Two of those forced fumbles came in the fourth quarter after the Rams took a 14-10 lead and the final one, which he recovered, put the game on ice as New Mexico was in the red zone with less than 10 seconds left in the game. Last week the Rams opened up a 28-0 halftime lead over Northern Colorado and extended it to 31-0 before UNC scored two touchdowns, including a 66-yard run by former Buff Quentin Hildreth, who finished the game with 10 carries for 117 yards and that score. In a balanced attack the Rams passed for 259 yards and ran for 242, including an even 100 from Raymond Carter on 18 carries with two touchdowns.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 17

Colorado is 5-1 all-time on September 17, having first played on the date in 1901 when the Buffs toppled State Prep (now Boulder High School), 5-0, to open the season; CU next played on the date 65 years later. Highlighted games: 1967—The Buffs fall to Miami, Fla., in their only other opener on the date, 24-3, in a defensive battle in Boulder. The Hurricanes held CU to just 178 total yards (46 rushing), with seven passes intercepted in the game, four by the Buffaloes. A look back: 1977—TB James Mayberry rushed for 95 yards and two touchdowns, QB Jeff Knappe completed 12-of-17 passes for 278 yards and a score and WR Steve Gauntty caught three balls for 124 yards including a 79-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring as the Buffaloes toppled Kent State, 42-0. CU's defense limited the Golden Flashes to just 137 total yards. 1983—In the renewal of CU-CSU series after a 25-year dormancy, the Buffs sprinted out to a 24-0 second quarter lead over the Rams en route to a 31-3 win. QB Steve Vogel threw a pair of touchdown passes to WR Loy Alexander, and the CU defense held the Rams to 234 total yards, just 42 rushing on as many attempts; the Buffs rushed for 233 (100 by TB Chris McLemore on 13 carries) and had 386 overall. 1988—QB Sal Aunese's 1-yard plunge with 1:55 remaining in the game capped an 85-yard drive to rally Colorado to a 24-21 win at No. 19 Iowa. TB Eric Bieniemy rushed for 153 yards, but it was Aunese's calm demeanor leading the comeback that paved the way for the first real signature road win over a ranked team in Bill McCartney's tenure. A fierce CU defense held Iowa to 75 rushing yards—on 38 tries, with SS Bruce Young and ILB Don DeLuzio each recording 11 tackles. 1994—The No. 7 Buffaloes steamrolled the defending Rose Bowl champion and No. 10 Wisconsin Badgers, 55-17, in Boulder. TB Rashaan Salaam rushed for 85 yards (his only non-100 yard game that season) and four touchdowns, tying the school record, while QB Kordell Stewart completed 8-of-15 passes for 249 yards and two scores; Buff receivers averaged 27.7 yards per catch in chewing up the Wisconsin secondary.

SEPTEMBER 17 COLORADO MVP: QB Sal Aunese. He completed 5-of-8 passes for 116 yards, and rushed for 31 yards and two touchdowns in CU's 24-21 win at No. 19 Iowa in 1988. CU led 14-0 only to see Iowa claw back and take a 21-17 lead in the third quarter.

THE LAST TIME: COLORADO 24, COLORADO STATE 3

SEPTEMBER 4, 2010 (INVESCO FIELD, DENVER)

DENVER—That long-awaited win against their bitter in-state rival? Check. That much-needed fast start on college football's opening weekend? Check. The defense increasing its weekly turnover totals? Check. Scotty McKnight breaking the school career receiving mark? Check.

But attending to business and leaving town with unfinished business amounts to good news and even better news for the Buffs, who dispatched Colorado State 24-3 at sweltering Invesco Field at Mile High in the Cinch Jeans Rocky Mountain Showdown.

That also goes for the Buffs offense, which rolled to a 17-0 halftime lead under quarterback Tyler Hansen and added another third-quarter touchdown (24-0) before the Rams managed a fourth-quarter field goal to avoid being shutout in the series for the first time since 1957 (20-0).

Hansen finished with 17 completions in 25 attempts for 192 yards and two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

During CU's first-half surge, Hansen and McKnight connected on a pair of passes for 42 yards in an 82-yard drive. McKnight's second catch tied Michael Westbrook's 167 CU career receptions; his next - a 27-yarder for a score - shoved Westbrook's record aside.

McKnight, a senior captain, called his achievement "humbling, a great feeling," but added, "Numbers don't mean so much to me . . . I've been through a season where we won three games (2009) and I caught 76 balls - it's not fun."

Jon Major led a CU defense that snuffed CSU and its freshman quarterback, Pete Thomas. The Buffs intercepted him three times, allowed the Rams only 49 yards rushing and forced them into three-and-outs on their first three series of the game.

Major made the game's most significant stop - a fourth-and-one stuff of CSU's running quarterback, T.J. Borcky that gave the Buffs possession on the Rams' 44-yard line.

Five plays later, Hansen and "newly acquired" receiver Travon Patterson, a transfer from Southern California, teamed for an 18-yard touchdown pass on which "TP" showed the leave-'em-looking speed he was expected to bring to a position that now is, ah, up to speed.

After Aric Goodman's PAT, the Buffs went up 7-0 and were in control of almost everything except themselves for the rest of the game. They were penalized 10 times for 104 yards - a decidedly less-than-efficient start for a team that drew 107 flags in 2009.

In addition to his pair of TD passes, Hansen also ran six times for 31 yards, including a 1-yard scoring sneak. But he also was sacked twice and lost 29 yards, one of the sacks costing CU 16 yards on a regrettable series that started in CSU territory (49 yard line) after an interception by safety Anthony Perkins.

Still, coupled with tailback Rodney "Speedy" Stewart's 16 carries for 67 yards, Hansen's mobility gave the Buffs a running dimension they didn't have in last season's 23-17 loss to the Rams. Behind Stewart was true freshman Justin Torres, who carried five times in the fourth quarter for 26 yards (5.2 average).

The Buffs got a boost from Goodman, who hit a 28-yard field goal in the first half, made three extra point attempts and sailed three of his five kickoffs into or out of the end zone.

If there was an opening-day downer for the Buffs, it was the serious knee injury suffered by nickel back Parker Orms during punt coverage in the first half; he tore his ACL and was lost for the remainder of the season.

GAME NOTES

Colorado now leads the series 60-20-2, including a 6-4 edge in Denver . . . This was the fewest points CU has allowed in a season opener since a 45-3 win over Fresno State in 1988 . . . This marked the first time the losing team in the series failed to score at least 10 points since a 23-7 CSU win in Boulder in 1986, and the first time the loser did not score a touchdown since 1983, when CU won 31-3 in Boulder in game that resumed the series after a 25-year dormancy (CU now leads the series 17-6 since its resumption) . . . Colorado's 17-0 lead at halftime was the largest by either team in the series since CSU led 28-0 at halftime in 1999; it was CU's largest intermission lead since 1995 in Boulder (28-7) . . . The 3 points allowed by CU were the third lowest in the 58-game Dan Hawkins Era, trailing two shutouts (the last of which was last Sept. 19, a 24-0 win over Wyoming) . . . The 245 yards allowed by the Buff defense is the fewest surrendered in a season opener since 1998, when CSU had 202 in a 42-14 CU win in what was the first series game played in Denver . . . CSU's first nine plays all gained less than 5 yards (and just one of which gained 4); 36 of CSU's 58 plays went for fewer than 15 feet . . . CSU ran just 15 plays in CU territory (for a net 44 yards) . . . WR Scotty McKnight became CU's all-time leading receiver in style, catching his 168th career ball to pass Michael Westbrook (167, 1991-94) on a 27-yard touchdown pass from QB Tyler Hansen . . . ILB Jon Major had a career-high 10 tackles, besting the four he had last year at Iowa State . . . With four quarterback sacks, the Buffs extended their streak with a least one sack to 21 straight games . . . Colorado sold about 33,500 of its allotted 37,000 tickets for the game; the crowd of 60,989 was the lowest of the 10 games in Denver (previous low was 65,701 in 2006).

SPECIAL REMEMBRANCE

With Conor McGahey making his debut last weekend as CU's new stadium public address announcer, replacing Alan Cass, this Saturday marks the 28th anniversary of the passing of the man Cass replaced, A.B. "Father Pat" Patterson. His son Ralph, a life-long Boulderite who was an assistant at the time on Tom Apke's basketball staff, sent in this story:

"My dad died Sept 17, 1983, the morning of the (renewal of the CU-CSU rivalry) game ... That was my first year on Apke's basketball staff, but keep in mind I'd never missed a home football game in my life, ever, until that day. You know how some people are ready to die and go to heaven? Well, he wasn't. About five minutes before he died at Boulder Community Hospital in the ICU, he knew that CU and CSU were going to play a few hours later. He grabbed my hand, squeezed it, and said, "Don't give my tickets away yet." Those may have been his last words. They ushered me out of the ICU unit, and I sat with my mom in a waiting room. A few minutes later they came out and told us he died. They made an announcement at the game that dad had died (I think "The Count", Fred Casotti, wrote something for Alan to read), but he wanted to be there. So, when Colorado and Colorado State play in football – for me, IT IS ON!!!! Dad would have enjoyed that win in 1983, but he wouldn't have liked the field goal CSU got that day..." Ralph is now the Vice President for University Advancement at Lander University.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 24th most all-time (Iowa is 23rd with 297, Pittsburgh is 25th with 292). Since 1989, CU has played the fifth most ranked teams in the nation (107), trailing only Florida (119), Florida State (110), Michigan (110) and Ohio State (109).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 12TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 12th most in the nation in this time frame (22 seasons). Florida State has the most with 71, followed by Florida (68), Ohio State (62), Michigan (60), Miami, Fla. (54), Southern Cal (54), Tennessee (52), Alabama (51), LSU (46), Texas (46), Oklahoma (46), Colorado (43), Penn State (43), Nebraska (41), Notre Dame (41) and Georgia (40); as for the Pac-12, after USC and CU, the next schools on the list are Washington (39), UCLA (37) and Oregon (36). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team. CU has lost 16 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win at UCLA 31-17 in 2002.

HEAD COACH JON EMBREE

Jon Embree is in his first season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program (his first as a head coach on any level of football); the 24th full-time head coach in school history (26th overall) and just the third alum to ever take over the reins. He owns a record of 0-2 at Colorado. This is Embree's first head coaching job, but the list of head coaches he's worked under is most impressive: Bill McCartney (Colorado), Rick Neuheisel (CU), Gary Barnett (CU), Karl Dorrell (UCLA), Herm Edwards (Kansas City, NFL) and Mike Shanahan (Washington, NFL), not to mention the countless coordinators and assistant coaches he had worked closely with. A four-year letterman at tight end under McCartney at Colorado (1983-86), he was the Lee Willard Award winner as the team's most outstanding freshman in '83, and earned first-team All-Big 8 honors as a sophomore when he set single season school records for receptions (51) and yards (680). He then became the consummate team player his final two years, as after CU switched to the wishbone on offense, his primary role became that of a blocker. He played in two bowl games (1985 Freedom, 1986 Bluebonnet) and has coached as an assistant in 12 bowl games (9 CU, 3 UCLA). Embree's Essentials:

	Overall	Home	Road	Neutral	2nd Half	Ranked	Unranked	Non-league	Pac-12	Bowls

COLORADO STREAKS: 2-game plus wins, 2-game plus losses: 0, 1. 3-game plus wins, 3-game plus losses: 0, 0. 4-game plus wins, 4-game plus losses: 0, 0. 5-game plus wins, 5-game plus losses: 0, 0. Longest winning streak: 0. Longest losing streak: 0.

- ◆ Embree has been a part of 179 Colorado Buffalo games with a 106-71-2 record: previously, he logged 121 as a full-time assistant coach (81-39-1), 12 as a volunteer coach (8-3-1) and 46 as a player (17-27; he missed the ninth and 10th games of his freshman season in 1983 with mono).
- ◆ The Third Alum. Embree is just Colorado's third head football coach and the first in nearly 50 years who also graduated from the school, as he earned his degree in Communication in 1988. The last was Bud Davis ('51), who coached for one season (1962) to steady the waters after the Sonny Grandelius era, with the only other, Harry Heller, also coaching just one year, leading CU to an 8-1 record in 1894; Heller was an 1885 graduate.
- ◆ In addition to the head coaches he learned from above, he also cited Chan Gailley, who was Kansas City's offensive coordinator in 2008; he said he learned "how flexible you need to be. If players don't fit your scheme, you'd better find something to fit your players."
- ◆ Embree adorned the cover of this past June's Colorado Avid Golfer, posing for the photo with his former coach and mentor, Bill McCartney. The two had played golf together just one time prior to the shoot, which took place in April and includes an interview during a round of golf.
- ◆ Subconscious Tradition. Coaches develop their own signature "whistle blow" to signify that practice has ended and to call the team together to summarize things, make announcements, etc. Embree's consists of six tweets (the whistle kind), the first and last consisting of three notes before a pause with four short ones in the middle. It's the exact same one that McCartney used for 13 seasons at CU, but he didn't realize it until he was told that it matched Mac's, well, to the tweet. When McCartney was informed that Embree was using his whistle sonata, he just laughed, admitting that it was the same one that the late Bo Schembachler used when Mac was an assistant at Michigan. Mac said he didn't realize that he was using Bo's either until after he established it at CU: "It's distinct and stands out from regular whistle blows, so that's why I must have subconsciously started using it." And the same goes for Embree.
- ◆ Embree became just the fourth African-American head coach in Pac-12 Conference football history when he was named to the CU position (with Stanford's David Shaw the fifth when he was promoted a month later): Dennis Green was the first when he coached Stanford (1989-91), followed by Ty Willingham, also at Stanford (1995-2001), and then former Colorado assistant Karl Dorrell at UCLA (2003-07); Willingham also was the head coach at Washington (2004-08). Nationally, Embree is one of seven African-American head coaches among the 66 BCS schools and one of the 17 at the 120 Football Bowl Subdivision programs.
- ◆ After his professional career was cut short due to an elbow injury (he had Tommy John surgery), in the spring of 1991, he was ready job to accept a job in television: KCNC in Denver, where he had interned as a student, was working to place him in a smaller market with the eventual plan to return him to Colorado (as he says of what could have been, "This is Jon Embree reporting live from the pig races in Nowheresville."). But McCartney called and offered him a volunteer position to help coach the tight ends that spring, which was right after CU was the consensus '90 national champion. "He didn't ask me, he told me," Embree said. So he thought he'd try it out in the spring, and his very first day, he knew it was his calling. "At the end of the (first) day, Mac asked me, 'What do you think?' I told him I was all in, this is for me, I love it. What I didn't say to him is, 'I want your job.'" Fast-forward 20 years, he has exactly that.
- ◆ While at UCLA, Embree coached the wide receivers and one his players was Josh Roenicke ... the same Josh Roenicke who is now a relief pitcher with the Colorado Rockies. Roenicke walked on both the football and baseball teams at UCLA and his schedule permits him to attend the CU-CSU game.
- ◆ Embree's return to Boulder has it much easier for him to procure his favorite pizza: since the mid-1990s, he's had a pie named for him at Pasta Jay's just off the Pearl Street Mall. The "Pizza Embo" includes pesto, pepperoni and meatballs and sells for $11.99 (small), $13.99 (medium) and $15.99 (large). Jay, a huge Buffalo donor and fan, also has menu items for others in athletics at CU, including the "Cabral Pizza" (Alfredo sauce, capocollo and pineapple, for linebacker coach Brian Cabral), The "Hagan Option" named for CU's 1989-91 quarterback, Darian Hagan (three entrée items and sides), and the "Alfredo Williams" for CU's Hall of Fame linebacker Alfred Williams (chicken cutlet baked in Alfredo sauce, served over fettuccine).
- ◆ Embree is a voter in the Division I-A coaches poll coordinated by USA Today/ESPN; coaches are now selected by a random draw. CU's head coach had voted every season from 1987-2009, but Dan Hawkins was not selected last year. Thus, CU has a vote for the 24th year in the last 25.
- ◆ CONTRACT. Embree was officially named CU's 24th full-time head coach on Dec. 6, 2010, and signed a 5-year contract worth $3.7 million overall, not including incentives to coach the Buffaloes, with the contract dates officially running from March 1, 2011 through January 11, 2016.

PERHAPS A COLLEGE FOOTBALL FIRST?

There's no real way to research this, but Jon Embree might be the first collegiate head coach to face three schools who all appear on his first schedule that he selected his alma mater over. Back in January 1983, when Embree, along with a dozen other top prospects in Colorado, listened to the pitch from then CU-head coach Bill McCartney, he was one a dozen players who bought into McCartney's vision for the program. The high school All-American from Englewood's Cherry Creek High School then committed and signed with the Buffs, in the end selecting Colorado over Ohio State, Southern California and UCLA, all of whom are opponents on his first schedule as a head coach.

TRIVIA Who were the other Colorado high school seniors who signed along with Embree in that benchmark 1983 recruiting class? Here's the entire class that is credited with helping turn the Buff fortunes around by 1985: Dave DeLine (PK, Mullen), Jon Embree (TE, Cherry Creek), Jeff Glenn (OL, Pomona), Barry Helton (QB/P, Simla), Curt Koch (DL, Littleton), Eric McCarty (FB, Boulder), Ed Reinhardt (TE, Heritage), Sam Smith (TB, Aurora Hinkley), David Tate (WR/CB, Mullen), Rick Wheeler (QB, Cherry Creek) and Troy Wolf (WR/TE, Arvada). Two others walked on: Tom Gebhardt (CB, Boulder) and Mike Marquez (RB/CB, Pomona).

WE'RE PUTTING THE BAND BACK TOGETHER...

When Jon Embree was hired last December as head coach and he eventually hired three former Buffaloes as assistant coaches, some reacted like that was a rarity in college football. After some research, that was anything but the case. Turns out, the other FBS schools in the state, Air Force and Colorado State, have five alumni on the 10-man staff, including their head coaches as well. In all, there are 18 alumni coaching their alma maters in 2011, with six schools that have half (5 of 10) of the full-time that are alums (led by Utah, which has six), along with 12 that have four or more alumni as full-time coaches, 19 with three or more (22 others have two on staff, and at least 21 have one, meaning over half of the FBS schools, or 62 of 120, have someone on staff who also played there). A look at FBS schools with alumni head coaches and/or with two or more assistants who are alums on staff:

OTHER BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Cedric Cormier, WR, UNLV ('01), Steve Stripling, DL, Cincinnati ('76). IN THE FCS: Ty Gregorak, LB, Montana ('99). AND DOWN I-25 AT CSU-PUEBLO: Paul Creighton, DL ('03), Bernard Jackson, WR ('06), Donnell Leomiti, DB ('95), Chris Symington, OL ('87).

COACHES ON GAME DAY

COORDINATOR ALUMS NOT SO COMMON, EITHER

As stated above, Jon Embree is just the third alum to be named head coach at Colorado; however, when it comes to coordinators, since the position came into vogue in the 1960s, no CU alum has ever served in the capacity until now. Eric Bieniemy, CU's all-time leading rusher with 3,940 yards in his career that spanned from 1987-90, was named offensive coordinator/running backs coach the same day Embree was hired – Dec. 6, 2010. He is just the second minority coach to serve in a coordinator capacity for CU, joining Karl Dorrell, who was the offensive coordinator under Rick Neuheisel from 1995-98.

PREVIOUS PAC-10 CONFERENCE TIES

CU's new football staff does have a familiarity with the school's new conference, as seven members have had experience coaching in the league when it was known as the Pac-10. Jon Embree and Eric Bieniemy both served as assistant coaches under another former CU assistant, Karl Dorrell, at UCLA between from 2003-05. Greg Brown was at Arizona last season and was accompanied to Boulder by Mike Tuiasosopo, who spent seven years with the Wildcats, while assistant head coach Rip Scherer also logged three years in Tucson from 1988-90. Receivers coach Bobby Kennedy also spent a year at Arizona (2001) before spending the next two on the staff at Washington, with offensive line boss Steve Marshall coaching the last two seasons at California and was at UCLA for one in 1996. And an eighth staffer, defensive technical intern Bert Watts, is a California alum who also worked two years as a grad assistant for the Bears.

NFL EXPERIENCE

Colorado's staff also has plenty of experience both playing and coaching in the National Football League, with 63 total seasons (38 coached, 25 played). Eight of the 10 coaches either played or coached in the NFL (two did both). Research by the Florida SID office indicates that the 63 combined NFL years by Colorado coaches ranks first among all 120 schools in the FBS, followed by Florida with 52 (36 coaching, 16 played). The Pac-12 led the way, with eight schools combining for 269 yards served in the NFL (the SEC was a distant second, six schools combining for 169). Here's a look at the 10 full-time staff members connections to "the league":

OLD-TIMER

Associate head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. Now in his 22nd season (315 games), he is the longest tenured assistant coach in Colorado all sports history. A closer look at the top eight in football:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Brian Cabral 22 (1990-current); 2. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Cabral is tied for 10th on the list of active coaches for continuous full-time service at the same school in the nation; eighth among all assistant coaches. The entire national list:

CABRAL CELEBRATES 300TH GAME AS A BUFFALO, TURNS EYE TO ... 400?

Long-time linebacker coach Brian Cabral celebrated his 300th game as Colorado Buffalo in 2009, and did it in style in CU's thrilling 35-34 win over Texas A&M (he now has been involved in 317). He wore his famous trademark lava lava wrap in CU colors for the game (the Buffs are 6-3 when he dons the garb, which he did once in 2010—for CU's 29-27 win over Georgia; he won't wear more than once anymore, as he lost the last two times he wore it for the second time in the same year). After two weeks of speculation, he did wear it for CU's 2011 opener in his native Hawai'i; he referred to it all along as a game decision but didn't want to take any attention away from the new staff, who all urged him to wear it. He first donned a lava lava for CU's 51-43 win over Oregon in the 1998 Aloha Bowl, wearing a red and blue wrap to honor the family of the late Sal Aunese (CU's starting quarterback who passed away from stomach cancer in 1989). Then at the urging of then-head coach Dan Hawkins, Cabral debuted his personalized wrap with CU colors in 2007 against No. 3 Oklahoma; down 24-7, the Buffs rallied for a 27-24 win.

A former inside linebacker for the Buffs, he originally was a middle guard until suffering an elbow injury midway through his freshman year ('74) before switching to linebacker in a career that spanned 46 games from 1974-77. He has coached in 257 since joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1989. He had a 9-year career in the National Football League (1978-86) and then worked two years as GA for Purdue before making his way back to Boulder. Cabral finished his CU career as the Buffs' all-time leading tackler with 297; he is still tied for 16th on the all-time list. He has coached eight of the players who have passed him on the list: Matt Russell, Greg Biekert, Jordon Dizon, Ted Johnson, Chad Brown, Michael Jones, Thaddaeus Washington and Jashon Sykes, with a ninth, senior Jeff Smart, finishing just six behind his total with 291.

➤ CU has been shutout just nine times in its last 504 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only five schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan.

FIVE MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2011

Five players made their first career starts in the season opener at Hawai'i: FB Evan Harrington, OT Jack Harris, CB Greg Henderson, C Daniel Munyer and NT Conrad Obi. Two others made their first ones in game two versus Cal, OT Ryan Dannewitz and WR Tyler McCulloch. Henderson became the first true freshman to start at cornerback in a season opener since Victor Scott in 1980, while Munyer was the first redshirt freshman to start at center since Andre Gurode in 1998 (who also started in the season opener), and just the third freshman to start a game at the position (Bryan Stoltenberg started all 12 games in 1992 as a redshirt; no true CU frosh has ever started a game at center). Henderson also became just the seventh true freshmen in CU history to have started from scrimmage in the opening game of the season; here are those who were thrown into the fray from play one from scrimmage: TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming); ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State) and CB Greg Henderson, 2011 (vs. Hawai'i). Add an eighth for the first play of the game/season on special teams (kickoff coverage team): PK Kevin Eberhart (kicked off vs. Colorado State in Denver).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2010, juniors and seniors made the most starts since 2005. In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen; that's when the current cycle of youth really started. A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 15 former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of September 11; there were 18 on the rosters at the end of the 2010 season (22 in 2009). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last 23 years of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. CU either led (five times) or was among the top four schools in the Big 12 Conference its entire time as a member of the league. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other three years). The active list (♣—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; i—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured status; club still owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

CANADA & ELSEWHERE: Three former Buffs are making livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his eighth year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, TB Hugh Charles is in his fourth year with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders and OG Edwin Harrison is in his second year with the Calgary Stampeders. DE Gabe Nyenhuis ('03) is with the San Jose Sabercats in the AFL COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the six who head prep programs: Dave Logan (Mullen), Mike Marquez (Northglenn), Bill Mondt (Eaton), Tom Tesone (Bishop Machebeuf), Ron Woolfork (Overland) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

➔ CU has had 257 players drafted into the NFL; that's 20th all-time, and fourth among Big 12 schools behind Oklahoma (339), Nebraska (331) and Texas (316); Notre Dame leads with 462, one more than second place USC. OU is fourth, NU sixth and UT ninth; Texas A&M is right being CU in 21st with 255.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 23 of 30 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

OPPONENTS & 2011 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

Colorado will play 13 regular season games for the second time in its history, joining the 2002 team that had a slate of 12 plus the Big 12 Championship game; CU would play a school-record 14 that season and finish with a 9-5 record. This year's 13 opponents year combined for a 98-67 (59.4%) record in 2010, with five teams winning 10-plus games and seven teams earning bowl invitations. CU will travel to Hawaii for the first time since 1925, will play California in a non-conference game to complete a home-and-home series, faces off against Colorado State in the newly renamed Sports Authority Field at Mile High in Denver, and plays Ohio State for the first time since 1986. CU's renews two dormant rivalries in league play, Arizona (last met in 1986) and Utah (the two last played in the 1962 season opener, but were all set to resume the series next year until both became Pac-12 members).

All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Pacific-12 Conference game (note: the California at Colorado game on Sept. 10 is a non-conference game to complete a previous home-and-home agreement). Television selections Sept. 24 and beyond are made on 12 days notice by the Pac-12 television partners (ESPN/ABC, Fox Sports Network, Versus, FX); ESPN/ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. In all, ESPN/ABC will televise 20 Pac-12 games during the 2011 season, with Fox Sports Net (which also sublicenses Pac-12 games to Versus and FX) rights to 24 Pac-12 games. ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Pac-12, ACC, Big East, Big 10 or Big 12). ESPN/ESPN 2 will utilize both Saturday afternoon (1:30 p.m. MT) and Saturday evening (8:15 p.m. MT) telecast windows; Thursday and Friday games carried by ESPN/ESPN 2 usually have a 7 p.m. MT start. ESPN/ABC has five dates with opponents TBD: Oct. 15 (8:15 p.m.), Nov. 5 (1:30 p.m.), Nov. 12 (assorted), Nov. 19 (1:30 p.m.) and Nov. 26 (1:30 p.m.). FSN provides national coverage via its lineup of 11 regional sports networks (RSNs) in the afternoon (1:30 p.m. MT) and evening (8:30 p.m. MT) windows, and on occasion may move a game into the prime-time window (4:30 p.m. or 5 p.m. MT). National cable networks Versus and FX usually utilize that same prime-time window (4:30 or 5 p.m. MT). Game inventory not used by the Pac-12 is returned to the institutions, which have the option to televise games locally if a window can be secured that doesn't conflict with exclusivity provided to ESPN/ABC and FSN.

GAME 1HAWAII 34, COLORADO 17*SEPTEMBER 3, 2011*ALOHA STADIUM, HONOLULU

HONOLULU — Turns out, the big question of whether Colorado's rebuilt secondary could hold up to Hawai'i's passing game wasn't the biggest one for the Buffaloes.

Instead, as they prepared for Jon Embree's CU coaching debut, the Buffs should have been asking themselves this: Can UH quarterback Bryant Moniz beat us with his feet rather than his arm?

Moniz led the Warriors to a 34-17 win Saturday in Aloha Stadium and extending the Buffs' road losing streak to 18. Whereas last season Moniz threw for 330 yards and a touchdown with minus-5 yards on the ground, including sacks, this time he ran for 121 yards and 3 TDs and added 178 through the air and a fourth score.

A fumbled snap on the first play from scrimmage set an ugly tone for the first half, and the loss of left tackle David Bakhtiari on CU's seventh play of the game further disrupted the offense.

Trailing 17-0 at half, CU finally shook its offense awake and would pull to within seven early in the fourth quarter. But the Warriors, set on avenging last season's 31-13 loss in Boulder, put away their mainland visitors with a touchdown and a field goal in the game's final 6:17.

Tyler Hansen completed 16-of-30 for 223 yards and two scores, both impressive grabs by Paul Richardson; he was also intercepted once and sacked seven times for 44 yards in losses.

The Buffs were attempting a second-half rejuvenation like they fashioned last season in Boulder, when they trailed 10-0 at intermission. Colorado opened the half with a six-play, 73-yard drive that was highlighted by a Hansen-to-Rodney-Stewart run-and-catch on a screen for 52 yards to the Warriors' 15. On the very next play, Hansen hit Richardson for their first touchdown and after freshman Will Oliver's PAT — the first of his college career — the Buffs had pulled within 17-7.

UH promptly responded, returning the ensuing kickoff to the Buffs' 48-yard line. From there, Moniz needed 10 plays to score his third rushing TD of the game and pushed the Warriors ahead 24-7 with 5:53 left in the third quarter.

But two series later, the Buffs — primarily Hansen and Richardson with another assist from Stewart — made some more noise. After another successful Hansen-to-Stewart screen for 26 yards, Hansen and Richardson again teamed for a TD strike — this one covering 21 yards, and with Oliver's extra point, drawing CU to within 24-14 with 1:51 left in the third quarter.

On the first play of the Warriors' next possession, Chidera Uzo-Diribe blasted Moniz from the blind side, forcing a fumble that was recovered by Conrad Obi at the UH 34-yard line. CU moved to the 15 on a Hansen-to-Tyler McCulloch pass, but that's where the drive stalled and Oliver kicked a clutch 34-yard field goal on fourth down, pulling the Buffs within a touchdown at 24-17, only 9 seconds into the last quarter.

The Warriors pushed to the Buffs' 24, where on fourth-and-one Moniz sneaked over left guard for 2 yards and a monstrous first down. Two plays later the Buffs had what would prove to be their final shot when Travis Sandersfeld couldn't hold on to a potential interception in which he would've had a hefty lead in a sprint to tie the game at 24-24 going the other way. Instead, Moniz flipped an unlikely shovel pass to running back Joey Iosefa, who ran 22 yards for his first career TD and UH was up 31-17 with 6:17 left.

Now the Buffs needed something big but on fourth down, Hansen was intercepted by Art Laurel, giving the Warriors a first down at the Buffs' 11-yard line. Four plays later, Tyler Hadden kicked a 22-yard field goal, the game's final points to seal the 34-17 win for the Warriors.

GAME NOTES

CB Greg Henderson became just the seventh true freshmen in CU history to have started from scrimmage in the opening game of the season, and just the second cornerback to do so ... Since 1967, CU is 23-1 when scoring first in a season opener and 4-16-1 when the opponent scores first ... With 24 freshmen on the trip, several were scheduled to make their debuts; 11 did ... CU has now lost 18 straight road games (19 out-of-state), though this is only the second one that did not take place in the central/eastern time zones (other: at Cal in 2010) ... Longtime assistant coach Brian Cabral wore his trademark black and gold floral print lava lava ... QB Tyler Hansen had a string of 63 straight passes without an interception come to an end with a fourth quarter pick; he was sacked a career high seven times, the most since Texas A&M recorded eight against the Buffs in 2009 ... Hansen did become the 11th player to throw for 3,000 yards in a CU career, finishing the game with 3,045; he passed Gale Weidner (1959-61, 3,033) into 10th all-time on the overall list ... WR Paul Richardson had his third career two-TD reception game, tying him for the third most in school history ... In the last six season openers, the Buffaloes are perfect in scoring percentage inside-the-20, as they are 17-of-17 in the red zone (11 TDs, 6 FGs).

GAME 2CALIFORNIA 36, COLORADO 33 (OT)*SEPTEMBER 10, 2011*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — California quarterback Zach Maynard hit receiver Keenan Allen with a 5-yard touchdown pass in overtime Saturday at Folsom Field, giving the Bears a 36-33 victory over Colorado in the Buffs' home opener.

CU got a record setting passing performance from senior quarterback Tyler Hansen, who completed 28-of-49 passes for a school-record 474 yards and three touchdowns, while tying the mark for the most total offense with 500 yards. Two of the scoring tosses went to sophomore Paul Richardson, who finished with 11 catches for 282 yards — also a single-game school record.

The contest matched Pac-12 Conference teams did not count in the league standings as it completed a previously arranged home-and-home series. Cal remained unbeaten at 2-0, while CU fell to 0-2.

Freshman kicker Will Oliver was perfect on four field goal attempts, the first set up by a Jon Major interception that gave the Buffs a first down at their own 40-yard line. Six plays later, Oliver made his first kick, giving Colorado its only lead of the half.

After holding Cal to a three-and-out on the game's first series, CU used a methodical 13-play march and ended up at the Bears' 9-yard line. Facing fourth-and-one there, CU elected to go for the first down but Rodney Stewart was stuffed for no gain.

The Bears responded by driving 81 yards in 10 plays, and aided by a pair of CU pass interference penalties, scored on a 2-yard Maynard-to-Nico Dumont pass and after the PAT attempt was blocked by defensive tackle Will Pericak, the Bears led, 6-3.

Two series later, a 39-yard Georgio Tavecchio field goal pushed Cal ahead 9-3, but CU responded with an Oliver 52-yard kick — the longest field goal by a freshman in CU history — and pulled to 9-6 with 4:18 left before halftime.

That was enough time for the Bears to drive 62 yards in seven plays, scoring on a 7-yard Maynard-to-Anthony Miller pass to take a 16-6 lead just before intermission.

Opening the second half, Hansen immediately directed a 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive, hitting senior tight end Ryan Deehan with a 37-yard scoring pass on third-and-eight and cut the deficit to three at 16-13.

After CU's defense held, Cal returned the favor and then blocked a Darragh O'Neill punt that traveled just 15 yards and gave the Bears possession at the Buffs' 35-yard line. Four plays later, Maynard and Miller connected for a TD, the pass this time covering 20 yards to put the Bears back up 10 at, 23-13.

Hansen and Richardson then teamed up for a 66-yard scoring play to close the third quarter with Cal leading 23-20. Then to open the fourth quarter, the two teamed up again for a 78-yard score and the Buffs took their first lead since 3-0 at 27-23.

Cal responded quickly, driving 80 yards in 11 plays and scoring on a 19-yard burst up the middle by tailback C.J. Anderson to get its lead back at 30-27 with 9:55 left.

Later in the fourth, the Buffs got the ball back at their own 15-yard line with 7:10 to play. Hansen drove the Buffs into field goal range and with: 30 left, Oliver nailed a 32-yarder to tie the game at 30-30.

Cal won the coin toss to start overtime and chose to play defense as most always do; the Buffs looked good early in the possession earning a first-and-goal but settled for a 22-yard field goal from Oliver to take a 33-30 lead.

Cal earned a quick first down at the 15-yard line but then had consecutive penalties and found themselves at first-and-30 at the 35. A 32-yard pass from Maynard to Allen gave the Bears a first down inside the 5-yard line and then that same duo won it on a 5-yard pass play two plays later, giving Cal the 36-33 victory.

GAME NOTES

Colorado dropped to 5-5 in overtime games, 5-4 in single OT affairs and 3-3 when the opponent plays defense first ... CU's last OT game was on Sept. 18, 2008 in Boulder, a 17-14 win over No. 21 West Virginia ... Colorado went from allowing seven sacks in the season opener (on 37 called pass plays) to zero today on 50; the downside of that this marked the first time the Buffs have ever lost a game when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack; CU is 14-1 since 1972 in such situations ... CU had three sacks, giving the Buffs at least one in 32 of the last 33 games ... Colorado's 582 yards of offense was its first game with 500 since recording 518 against Nebraska in a 65-51 win on Nov. 23, 2007 and its most since Sept. 22, 2007 when it rolled up 634 against Miami-Ohio ... CU had 474 yards passing, its first 400-yard game since throwing for 401 against Texas A&M in Boulder on Oct. 8, 2005; it tied for the second most passing yards in CU history, matching the number against San Jose State in 1999 and behind only 533 against NE Louisiana in 1995 ... DT Will Pericak became the first player to block an extra point since DE James Garee batted one away against Clemson in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl (opponents had made 154 in a row, the last miss in 2007; but the enemy had tried 195 PAT kicks without a Buff breaking through to reject one.
