GAME 3—COLORADO STATE

EMBREE LOOKING FOR FIRST WIN AGAINST IN-STATE RIVAL

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2011 • 11:40 a.m. MDT • Sports Authority Field at Mile High (76,125), Denver, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 3 (September 13, 2011)

Fox Sports Net (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (0-2, 0-0 Pac-12) renew their in-state rivalry this Saturday against the Colorado State Rams (2-0, 1-0 MWC) in the 11th Annual Cinch Jeans Rocky Mountain Showdown, with kickoff scheduled for 11:30 a.m. at Denver's recently renamed Sports Authority Field at Mile High ... The game will be televised nationally by Fox Sports Net (Comcast Ch. 26 in Denver-Boulder, DISH Ch. 414, DirecTV Ch. 683) ... First-year head coach Jon Embree last coached both a game against Colorado State as a member of the CU coaching staff and in Denver in 2002, when CSU edged the Buffs, 19-14 ... This is the 83rd meeting between the two schools, the 11th in Denver where CU leads the series, 6-4 ... CU-CSU is one of 12 games Saturday matching intra-state rivals; other top battles include Utah-BYU, Kentucky-Louisville and Oklahoma State-Tulsa ... CU is coming off a tough 36-33 overtime loss to Cal, where the Buff offense and particularly the passing game came alive with 582 and 474 yards, respectively; that was 342 more yards than in the opener at Hawai'i, making it the third best improvement from one week to the next in total offense where the second opponent was a BCS school ... This will be Colorado State's third straight game along the Rocky Mountain Front Range, opening with a win at New Mexico followed by a victory at home over Northern Colorado; the Rams don't leave the I-25 corridor until next week at Utah State ... ABC has selected the Sept. 24 Colorado at Ohio State game for telecast with a 1:30 p.m. MDT kickoff; it will likely shown in the Colorado and Ohio regions, but will be a national broadcast as a "reverse mirror" will have the game shown everywhere else on ESPN2 ... There are less than 2,500 tickets of CU's 35,000 or so allotment remaining for the CSU game ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Jon Embree is searching for his first win as a head coach; since the end of World War II (modern era), out of 11 head coaches, only Sonny Grandelius (1959), Chuck Fairbanks (1979) and Dan Hawkins (2006) didn't record a win by the time they finished coaching their third career game on the Buff sidelines. The proverbial "third time was the charm" for three coaches, winning in their third game: Dal Ward (1948; 19-6 over Nebraska), Eddie Crowder (1963; 21-7 at Kansas State) and Bill Mallory (1974; 24-21 versus Wisconsin).

OBSURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

A combination of 400 yards passing, 500 yards total offense, not committing a turnover and not allowing quarterback sack has almost always added up to a winning combination for the Buffaloes – and likely most other teams – but that wasn't the case against Cal. In the 36-33 overtime loss, CU gained 582 yards, 474 passing, and played turnover free ball while protecting quarterback (zero sacks after allowing seven in the opener against Hawai'i). It was CU's first loss ever when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover (now 14-1), and just the 15th when scoring 30 or more points in a game (out of 315, as CU is 299-15-1 when scoring 30 or more, 57-6 since 1985).

2010 QUICK SUMMARY

Early into the 2010 season, CU was standing tall at 3-1 after a thrilling 29-27 win over Georgia with the school's final Big 12 season ahead and a wide-open race for the North Division title. But a five-game losing streak dropped the Buffs to 3-6, with a 52-45 loss at Kansas after CU held a 28-point lead with 11 minutes to play leading to the early dismissal of head coach Dan Hawkins. Associate head coach Brian Cabral took over as interim head coach for the last three games of the season, and wins over Iowa State and Kansas State put the Buffs in position to become bowl-eligible. In the final Big 12 league game for both teams, Big 10-bound Nebraska defeated CU, headed for the Pac-12, 45-17 to end Colorado's season with a 5-7 record. The devastating loss to Kansas were where the proverbial wheels finally came off; the Buffs were methodically worn down in road losses at Missouri (26-0) to open the conference season, and at Oklahoma (43-10) the week prior to the KU fiasco. In-between is really where the troubles started to mount, coming in a pair of home losses to Baylor and Texas Tech. The Buffs led the Bears 15-7 late in the first half and blew one opportunity after another before losing 31-25, and had a 24-14 third quarter lead over the Red Raiders before watching Tech score the game's last 13 points to win, 27-24. The final straw was in Lawrence; after controlling the game the first 49 minutes, the Buffs were well ahead, 45-17, only to see KU rally, albeit with some help from the officials. After KU cut the lead to 45-24, Kansas was awarded the ball after an onside kick was recovered by the Buffaloes, and with two Jayhawks offside on the play, both of which the conference confirmed to CU officials of four days later. Kansas surely would not have rallied for the win, and Hawkins' fate would have been delayed but probably inevitable—but it did in all likelihood keep CU from becoming bowl-eligible. Hawkins was relieved of his duties on November 9, and Cabral took over and reinvigorated the program in the short time he was at the helm. Then on December 6, Jon Embree was brought back to his alma mater and the place where he began his collegiate coaching career as the school's 24th full-time head coach.

GAME-BY-GAME STARTERS

Here are CU's starters for the 2011 season (bold indicates first career start); this list often does not reflect who might be "listed" first at a position, as especially on offense, the first play selected often involves personnel for a specific play:

OFFENSE	WR	WR	LT	LG	C	RG	RT	TE	QB	TB	FB
Hawai'i	Bahr (TE)	Richardson	Bakhtiari	Adkins	Munyer	Miller	Harris	Deehan	Hansen	Stewart	Harrington

California	Pericak	Obi	Uzo-Diribe	Hartigan	Rippy	Webb	Major	Sandersfeld	Perkins	Polk	Orms

PLAYER PARTICIPATION (dressed/played): Hawai'i 71/58; California 83/58.

COLORADO COACHES' WEEKLY AWARD WINNERS

A look at Colorado's weekly award winners for each game as selected by the coaching staff (none selected following losses):

Opponent	Offensive	Defensive	Special Teams	Scout Team Offense	Scout Team Defense
none selected

SPECIAL TEAMS CAPTAINS (the 5th captain): Hawai'i (none); California (none)

THIS-N-THAT

Two members of the CU roster will now have an interesting thing for their resumes: WR Toney Clemons, who transferred from Michigan in 2009, can say that he played in three conferences (Big 10, Big 12, Pac-12), while CB Makiri Pugh can say that he practiced on teams in three (SEC, Big 12, Pac-12; he transferred to CU last year from Georgia and had to sit out the season, so he was ineligible to appear in a game) ... Scheduling Irony: now members of two different conferences, both Colorado and Nebraska play Ohio State in 2011... the last time the two played the same opponent where it wasn't a league game for both was in 1996 (Colorado State; CU won 48-34 in Fort Collins, the last game in the series there, and NU won 65-9 in Lincoln) ... Summer Lovin': Fifteen of the 20 high school recruits in the '11 recruiting class took at least one summer school class in Boulder (as did six invited walk-ons) ... Non-League: CU hosted California on Sept. 10 in its home opener, but the game was not a Pac-12 conference game (it completed a previous home-and-home series between the two); the last time CU had played a league opponent when it didn't count as a league game was in 1923 (Northern Colorado, which for whatever reason 88 years ago played just two league games that year instead of eight like most of the other schools). CU's last non-league game against a "Pac-10" opponent proved to be most exciting, as Cal escaped Boulder with a 36-33 overtime win ... Uniforms: The Buffaloes have returned to the uniforms of their most revered glory days (late 80s/early 90s), both home and road; they're not considered throwbacks, CU has returned to the look permanently.

LATE WALK-ONS

With school started and the first game now under the belt, six additional walk-ons and one four-year transfer have been added to the CU roster; five are true freshmen who enrolled at Colorado last month for the fall semester, with a seventh (Papillion) eligible as he is a sophomore transfer who enrolled at CU in the fall of 2010. The eighth in Connor Wood, who just transferred to CU from Texas last week; he must sit out a year. The list:

No.	Player	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Class	Exp.	Hometown (High School/Previous College)	Status
40	BRISCO, Brandon	DB	5-11	170	Fr.	HS	Oakland, Calif. (Bishop O'Dowd)	WO 5/4

INJURY UPDATE

The Buffs suffered a second serious injury to an offensive lineman this season when RT Jack Harris went down with a broken ankle against Cal; he'll be out for quite some time is the initial prognosis. The previous week, CU lost LT David Bakhtiari to a severe knee sprain on CU's seventh offensive play from scrimmage. Here's a look at the current injury situation:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Colorado State
OT	David Bakhtiari	knee	suffered a sprain on the seventh CU play of the game at Hawai'i (Sept. 3)	DAY-TO-DAY

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

CU-SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAME ONE OF 20 SET FOR ESPN "3D"

CU's home game against Southern California on Friday, Nov. 4, will be televised nationally on ESPN2; that was announced months ago. But in early August, the game was also one of 20 ESPN broadcasts this fall to be earmarked for broadcast by ESPN 3D. The newest technology in television, it requires its own broadcast setup and has its own set of announcers.

WHO'S GONNA GET IT? PERICAK, THAT'S WHO

Against Cal, junior DT Will Pericak became the first Buffalo to block an extra point since James Garee batted one away against Clemson in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl. Overall, opponents had made 158 in a row (155 regular season), with the last miss coming on a wide kick by Baylor in 2007; but the enemy had tried 199 PAT kicks without a Buff breaking through to reject one. In general, opponents have been almost automatic when lining up for a placement kick against CU, also making 76-of-94 field goals (80.9%) since late in the '07 season.

SEASON TICKET UPDATE

It appears CU's move to the Pac-12 Conference was a grand success on the season ticket front: at the close of business Monday (September 12), there were 24,471 tickets sold, which is some 4,833 more than last year's final count of 19,638; the Buffs are still selling prorated season tickets through the Washington State game. CU's move to the Pac-12 obviously along with the coaching change are the two biggest factors in what is now the third largest increase from one season to the next in the number of season tickets in CU history: the largest bump was 10,885 tickets from 1971 (17,104) to 1972 (27,989), followed by 6,963 from 1989 (19,368) to 1990 (26,331). But in both those instances, CU was coming off one of its best seasons in history, finishing No. 3 in the nation in '71 and the 11-0 regular season run and national championship ramifications in '89. Dating back to 1970 when data is available, CU has had a losing record and increased its season ticket numbers the following year just three times: in 1974 (29,260, or 1,264 more than in '73), in 2007 (21,203, or 753 up over '06) and in 2008 (22,603, a 1,400 increase over '07), with that 1,400 the previous highest gain after a losing season until this year's number has more than tripled it—with two weeks remaining before CU's 2011 home opener (and remember, the '07 team only had a losing record because of a 30-24 loss to Alabama in the Independence Bowl). So this is definitely new territory.

SINGLE GAME/STUDENT SALES UPDATE ... Single game tickets went on public sale August 1 for all five of CU's home games and the Colorado State game in Denver, and sales for those have been steady; less than 7,000 tickets remain for the Oregon and USC games. CU ticket manager Will Simpson also reported that 10,708 student season tickets have been sold (out of a 12,000 allotment), and those are also still on sale on a prorated basis through the WSU game.

GIMME FIVE

Senior OG Ryan Miller will letter for the fifth time this fall (all seniors automatically letter), thus he will join a very exclusive group at Colorado (and likely in college football in general). He missed the last eight games of the 2008 season with a broken fibula, but still played in four contests and more than enough plays to letter. He thus will be come just the ninth out of 1,892 lettermen to earn five letters in a CU uniform, the first since TB Bobby Purify earned his fifth in 2004; Purify had been the first to do it since 1908. He gained a fifth year after an ankle injury sidelined him for the bulk of the 2003 season.

TALK ABOUT BEING DUE

Colorado has lost a school-record 18 consecutive road games (17 at campus sites, with the other at Jacksonville still considered to be a Florida State home game back in 2008). Five of the losses have been by a touchdown or less, and the string includes 13 straight league games on the road as well, also a school record. During this span, CU has played three other games away from Folsom Field, all at true neutral sites: the 2007 Independence Bowl versus Alabama (a 30-24 loss), and two against Colorado State in Denver (38-17 in 2008 and 24-3 this year). A closer look at the streak:

THE VERTICAL GAME

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts two games into the 2011 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career number will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ WR TONEY CLEMONS is 51st in receptions (44) and is 69th in receiving yards (491);
- ⇒ TE RYAN DEEHAN is 48th in receptions (46) and is 70th in receiving yards (483);
- ⇒ QB TYLER HANSEN is ninth in passing yards (3,519), seventh in pass completions (318), eighth in passing attempts (539), ninth in touchdown passes (20), 10th in total offense (3,873) and is 14th in adjusted rushing yards by a quarterback (834);
- ⇒ TB BRIAN LOCKRIDGE is seventh in kickoff return yards (968), tied for eighth in returns (44) and 101st in rushing (412);
- ⇒ TE PAUL RICHARDSON is 43rd in receptions (48), 29th in receiving yards (847) and is tied for 13th in touchdown receptions (10);

BUFFS HAVE ONE OF TOP RETURNING VETERAN OFFENSIVE LINES

The Buffaloes rank 10th in the nation among offensive lines with the most career starts by its returning players. CU had 82 such career starts entering the year, the most made by OG Ryan Miller (35), followed by OG Ethan Adkins (20), OG Blake Behrens (16) and OT David Bakhtiari (11).

The reverse is true for CU's first opponent in 2010, as Hawai'i is 101st on the list, with only 21 starts among its returning linemen.

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2011

- 1 The number of turnovers CU has in its first two games, matching the fewest its had in two games the last 30 years (with 1998, 2000, 2006).

- 5 The number of consecutive field goals PK Will Oliver has made to open his career, third best in school history (record: 7).
- 17-of-58 The opponents' combined efforts on third down inside-the-CU 20 (or 29.3 percent) in the last 27 games (dating to 2008).
- 8 The number of "three-and-outs" the Buff defense has forced the opponent into (out of 25 possessions).
- 10 The number of overtime games in Colorado history, as the loss to Cal was the first CU game extended into extra time since 2008 (WVU).

- 171 The number of yards gained in the fourth quarter versus California, the season high for a single quarter.
- 175 The number of yards gained in the third quarter versus Texas Tech, the season high for a single quarter in 2010.
- 199 The number of opponent PAT kicks between blocks by Colorado (Will Pericak vs. Cal this year, James Garee vs. Clemson in 2005).
- 284 The number of receiving yards that WR Paul Richardson had against California, a school record and the third-most in Pac-12 history.
- 474 The number of passing yards that QB Tyler Hansen had against California, a school record.
- 3,350 The approximate number of air miles between Denver (DIA) and Honolulu, as CU played at Hawai'i for the first time since 1925.

GRADUATION REVIEW

Through this past August, over the last decade (2002-11), CU has had 163 of its 184 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.6 percent (with two of the 21 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while four are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado.

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two will be travel partners, and most assume it won't be a cozy as the current five mates. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

SERIES HISTORY—CU VS. COLORADO STATE

Colorado leads the all-time series by a 60-20-2 count; the Buffs have won comfortably the last time the two schools met in Denver, 38-17, in 2008 and 24-3 last year; in-between, CSU hung on in 2009 in Boulder for a 23-17 win (its first at Folsom Field since 1986). The six games between 2002-07 were some of the most thrilling in the series, decided by just 25 points combined (all of which came down to the final minute, if not the final seconds). A 31-28 overtime win in 2007 was the first in the series that went into extra sessions, and overall, the Buffs have won six of the last eight in the series. The teams split the first go-round of games in Denver (1998-2003) with CU taking the next series of three by 2-1 (2006-08); last year's game was the first of the next 10 at the neutral site, where CU now leads 6-4. Colorado leads 31-9-1 in Boulder, and 23-7-1 in Fort Collins. This is the eighth straight game in the series where neither team is ranked, though between 1989 and 2003 at least one team was among the nation's top 25. CU coach Jon Embree is 0-0 against CSU, while CSU coach Steve Fairchild is 1-2 against Colorado.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—The 1910 game, listed for years as a 10-0 CSU win, was actually never played? CU refused to travel to Fort Collins to play because CSU had a player who had previously played professionally, which has never been disputed (whatever that meant in the pre-NFL days).

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 15th. In 1996, the Buffaloes won the last meeting between the two in Fort Collins by a 48-34 score. QB Koy Detmer completed 31-of-42 passes for 364 yards and two touchdowns, while TB Herchell Troutman ran 26 times for 184 yards to lead a Buffalo offensive attack that amassed 645 yards of total offense. CSU led 7-0 and 14-7, but the Buffs went on a 34-6 spree from late in the first quarter to early in the third (a span of 18 minutes). TB Lendon Henry scored three touchdowns (2 rush/1 receiving) and DT Viliami Maumau returned an interception 33 yards for a score to highlight the defense.

A CLOSER LOOK

CU leads the series by a 17-6 count since it was resumed in 1983 after a 25-year dormancy. The Buffs have outscored the Rams by 674-469 in those games; CU has held the lead in 20 games, CSU in 14 games, and in 11 of the 23 both teams owned a lead. Out of 1,380 minutes of game time, CU has led for 749:20 (54% of the time), CSU for 397:46 (29%). Colorado is 6-0 when rushing for 250 or more yards, and is 10-2 when holding the Rams under 100.

A CLOSER LOOK

Colorado State is 2-0 after opening with a 14-10 win over New Mexico in Albuquerque and then returning home to best Northern Colorado, 33-14. In the season opener against the Lobos, sophomore Nordly Capi, a defensive end from Ocoee, Fla., recorded four forced fumbles, and NCAA record. Last week, the CSU offense racked up 501 yards of total offense over the Bears. Pete Thomas has completed an impressive 73.5 percent of his passes and compiled a 218.5 quarterback rating despite having two touchdowns and three interceptions on the season. He is 50-of-68 for 437 yards and his favorite targets are Joe Brown (10 catches, 70 yards) and Crock Gillmore (8-80, one touchdown). On the ground, the Rams rely on the duo of Raymond Carter (28 rushes, 146 yards, 2 TDs) and Chris Nwoke (24-105-2), who have combined for 249 yards and four scores in two games. Defensively, on top of his four forced fumbles, Capi also leads the defense in sacks with 4½ on the season, racking up 29 yards in losses. Mike Orakpo leads the team with 9.0 tackles per game. This will be the first time since World War II that Colorado State will play CU with a record of 2-0 or better.

- ➔ Colorado State coach Steve Fairchild is in his fourth season in Fort Collins and boasts a 15-24 record there, including 2-0 in this young season. It is his first head coaching job, but his third stint at Colorado State, where he was a quarterback from 1978-80 and an assistant coach from 1993-2000. CSU was 37-12 when he was on the coaching staff in the 1990s when the Rams won five conference titles and went to five bowl games. Four of those 12 losses in his tenure were to the Buffaloes as CU won four of six match-ups during that time frame. Between his stints at CSU, he was a running backs coach and offensive coordinator in the NFL for the Buffalo Bills and St. Louis Rams. His coaching career started in 1982 at San Diego Mesa Community College and he spent time at Ferris State, New Mexico and twice at San Diego State before heading to Colorado State the first time.
- ➔ The Rams opened the season with a 14-10 win at New Mexico and followed it up with a 33-14 win over Northern Colorado at home Saturday. DE Nordly Capi forced an NCAA record four fumbles, all of which came on sacks of UNM QB Tarean Austin. Two of those forced fumbles came in the fourth quarter after the Rams took a 14-10 lead and the final one, which he recovered, put the game on ice as New Mexico was in the red zone with less than 10 seconds left in the game. Last week the Rams opened up a 28-0 halftime lead over Northern Colorado and extended it to 31-0 before UNC scored two touchdowns, including a 66-yard run by former Buff Quentin Hildreth, who finished the game with 10 carries for 117 yards and that score. In a balanced attack the Rams passed for 259 yards and ran for 242, including an even 100 from Raymond Carter on 18 carries with two touchdowns.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 17

Colorado is 5-1 all-time on September 17, having first played on the date in 1901 when the Buffs topped State Prep (now Boulder High School), 5-0, to open the season; CU next played on the date 65 years later. Highlighted games: 1967—The Buffs fall to Miami, Fla., in their only other opener on the date, 24-3, in a defensive battle in Boulder. The Hurricanes held CU to just 178 total yards (46 rushing), with seven passes intercepted in the game, four by the Buffaloes. A look back: 1977—TB James Mayberry rushed for 95 yards and two touchdowns, QB Jeff Knapple completed 12-of-17 passes for 278 yards and a score and WR Steve Gauntty caught three balls for 124 yards including a 79-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring as the Buffaloes topped Kent State, 42-0. CU's defense limited the Golden Flashes to just 137 total yards. 1983—The Buffs led Michigan State for three quarters but let victory slip away in the final 15 minutes, succumbing to the Spartans, 23-17 in the hottest game (89 degrees/75% humidity) played at the tie in Spartan Stadium history. CU took a 7-3 lead late in the first quarter on a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Steve Vogel to WR Loy Alexander, and added a 35-yard Tom Field field goal in the third quarter to go up, 10-6. But MSU scored 17 points in the fourth, 10 off CU turnovers, to take control of the game. 1988—QB Sal Aunese's 1-yard plunge with 1:55 remaining in the game capped an 85-yard drive to rally Colorado to a 24-21 win at No. 19 Iowa. TB Eric Bieniemy rushed for 153 yards, but it was Aunese's calm demeanor leading the comeback that paved the way for the first real signature road win over a ranked team in Bill McCartney's tenure. A fierce CU defense held Iowa to 75 rushing yards—on 38 tries, with SS Bruce Young and ILB Don DeLuzio each recording 11 tackles. 1994—The No. 7 Buffaloes steamrolled the defending Rose Bowl champion and No. 10 Wisconsin Badgers, 55-17, in Boulder. TB Rashaan Salaam rushed for 85 yards (his only non-100 yard game that season) and four touchdowns, tying the school record, while QB Kordell Stewart completed 8-of-15 passes for 249 yards and two scores; Buff receivers averaged 27.7 yards per catch in chewing up the Wisconsin secondary. SEPTEMBER 17 COLORADO MVP: QB Sal Aunese. He completed 5-of-8 passes for 116 yards, and rushed for 31 yards and two touchdowns in CU's 24-21 win at No. 19 Iowa in 1988. CU led 14-0 only to see Iowa claw back and take a 21-17 lead in the third quarter.

THE LAST TIME: COLORADO 24, COLORADO STATE 3SEPTEMBER 4, 2010 (INVESCO FIELD, DENVER)

DENVER—That long-awaited win against their bitter in-state rival? Check. That much-needed fast start on college football's opening weekend? Check. The defense increasing its weekly turnover totals? Check. Scotty McKnight breaking the school career receiving mark? Check.

But attending to business and leaving town with unfinished business amounts to good news and even better news for the Buffs, who dispatched Colorado State 24-3 at sweltering Invesco Field at Mile High in the Cinch Jeans Rocky Mountain Showdown.

That also goes for the Buffs offense, which rolled to a 17-0 halftime lead under quarterback Tyler Hansen and added another third-quarter touchdown (24-0) before the Rams managed a fourth-quarter field goal to avoid being shutout in the series for the first time since 1957 (20-0).

Hansen finished with 17 completions in 25 attempts for 192 yards and two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

During CU's first-half surge, Hansen and McKnight connected on a pair of passes for 42 yards in an 82-yard drive. McKnight's second catch tied Michael Westbrook's 167 CU career receptions; his next - a 27-yarder for a score - shoved Westbrook's record aside.

McKnight, a senior captain, called his achievement "humbling, a great feeling," but added, "Numbers don't mean so much to me . . . I've been through a season where we won three games (2009) and I caught 76 balls - it's not fun."

Jon Major led a CU defense that snuffed CSU and its freshman quarterback, Pete Thomas. The Buffs intercepted him three times, allowed the Rams only 49 yards rushing and forced them into three-and-outs on their first three series of the game.

Major made the game's most significant stop - a fourth-and-one stuff of CSU's running quarterback, T.J. Borcky that gave the Buffs possession on the Rams' 44-yard line.

Five plays later, Hansen and "newly acquired" receiver Travon Patterson, a transfer from Southern California, teamed for an 18-yard touchdown pass on which "TP" showed the leave-'em-looking speed he was expected to bring to a position that now is, ah, up to speed.

After Aric Goodman's PAT, the Buffs went up 7-0 and were in control of almost everything except themselves for the rest of the game. They were penalized 10 times for 104 yards - a decidedly less-than-efficient start for a team that drew 107 flags in 2009.

In addition to his pair of TD passes, Hansen also ran six times for 31 yards, including a 1-yard scoring sneak. But he also was sacked twice and lost 29 yards, one of the sacks costing CU 16 yards on a regrettable series that started in CSU territory (49 yard line) after an interception by safety Anthony Perkins.

Still, coupled with tailback Rodney "Speedy" Stewart's 16 carries for 67 yards, Hansen's mobility gave the Buffs a running dimension they didn't have in last season's 23-17 loss to the Rams. Behind Stewart was true freshman Justin Torres, who carried five times in the fourth quarter for 26 yards (5.2 average).

The Buffs got a boost from Goodman, who hit a 28-yard field goal in the first half, made three extra point attempts and sailed three of his five kickoffs into or out of the end zone.

If there was an opening-day downer for the Buffs, it was the serious knee injury suffered by nickel back Parker Orms during punt coverage in the first half; he tore his ACL and was lost for the remainder of the season.

GAME NOTES

Colorado now leads the series 60-20-2, including a 6-4 edge in Denver ... This was the fewest points CU has allowed in a season opener since a 45-3 win over Fresno State in 1988 ... This marked the first time the losing team in the series failed to score at least 10 points since a 23-7 CSU win in Boulder in 1986, and the first time the loser did not score a touchdown since 1983, when CU won 31-3 in Boulder in game that resumed the series after a 25-year dormancy (CU now leads the series 17-6 since its resumption) ... Colorado's 17-0 lead at halftime was the largest by either team in the series since CSU led 28-0 at halftime in 1999; it was CU's largest intermission lead since 1995 in Boulder (28-7) ... The 3 points allowed by CU were the third lowest in the 58-game Dan Hawkins Era, trailing two shutouts (the last of which was last Sept. 19, a 24-0 win over Wyoming) ... The 245 yards allowed by the Buff defense is the fewest surrendered in a season opener since 1998, when CSU had 202 in a 42-14 CU win in what was the first series game played in Denver ... CSU's first nine plays all gained less than 5 yards (and just one of which gained 4); 36 of CSU's 58 plays went for fewer than 15 feet ... CSU ran just 15 plays in CU territory (for a net 44 yards) ... WR Scotty McKnight became CU's all-time leading receiver in style, catching his 168th career ball to pass Michael Westbrook (167, 1991-94) on a 27-yard touchdown pass from QB Tyler Hansen ... ILB Jon Major had a career-high 10 tackles, besting the four he had last year at Iowa State ... With four quarterback sacks, the Buffs extended their streak with a least one sack to 21 straight games ... Colorado sold about 33,500 of its allotted 37,000 tickets for the game; the crowd of 60,989 was the lowest of the 10 games in Denver (previous low was 65,701 in 2006).

SPECIAL REMEMBRANCE

With Conor McGahey making his debut last weekend as CU's new stadium public address announcer, replacing Alan Cass, this Saturday marks the 28th anniversary of the passing of the man Cass replaced, A.B. "Father Pat" Patterson. His son Ralph, a life-long Boulderite who was an assistant at the time on Tom Apke's basketball staff, sent in this story:

"My dad died Sept 17, 1983, the morning of the (renewal of the CU-CSU rivalry) game ... That was my first year on Apke's basketball staff, but keep in mind I'd never missed a home football game in my life, ever, until that day. You know how some people are ready to die and go to heaven? Well, he wasn't. About five minutes before he died at Boulder Community Hospital in the ICU, he knew that CU and CSU were going to play a few hours later. He grabbed my hand, squeezed it, and said, "Don't give my tickets away yet." Those may have been his last words. They ushered me out of the ICU unit, and I sat with my mom in a waiting room. A few minutes later they came out and told us he died. They made an announcement at the game that dad had died (I think "The Count", Fred Casotti, wrote something for Alan to read), but he wanted to be there. So, when Colorado and Colorado State play in football – for me, IT IS ON!!!! Dad would have enjoyed that win in 1983, but he wouldn't have liked the field goal CSU got that day..." Ralph is now the Vice President for University Advancement at Lander University.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 24th most all-time (Iowa is 23rd with 297, Pittsburgh is 25th with 292). Since 1989, CU has played the fifth most ranked teams in the nation (107), trailing only Florida (119), Florida State (110), Michigan (110) and Ohio State (109).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 12TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 12th most in the nation in this time frame (22 seasons). Florida State has the most with 71, followed by Florida (68), Ohio State (62), Michigan (60), Miami, Fla. (54), Southern Cal (54), Tennessee (52), Alabama (51), LSU (46), Texas (46), Oklahoma (46), Colorado (43), Penn State (43), Nebraska (41), Notre Dame (41) and Georgia (40); as for the Pac-12, after USC and CU, the next schools on the list are Washington (39), UCLA (37) and Oregon (36). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team. CU has lost 16 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win at UCLA 31-17 in 2002.

COLORADO MAKES MOVE TO PAC-12 CONFERENCE IN 2011

To the surprise of many, in the wild conference realignment scenarios in the spring of 2010, Colorado was the first domino to fall when the Buffaloes officially accepted an invitation to join the Pacific-10 Conference on June 11. The CU Board of Regents voted 9-0 in favor of the move, which originally was scheduled to take place for the 2012-13 athletic season was accelerated a year ahead of time, also by a 9-0 board vote on Sept. 21, which ratified a Big proposal to withhold $6.8 million in revenue distribution from the school for its departure penalty. The Buffs will now become a member of the newly created Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2011.

"This is an historic moment for the Conference, as the Pac-10 is poised for tremendous growth," said Commissioner Larry Scott. "The University of Colorado is a great fit for the Conference both academically and athletically and we are incredibly excited to welcome Colorado to the Pac-10."

Colorado played a vital role in the creation of the Big 12, something apparently forgotten by many in the South Division, both media and administration alike. CU chancellor Jim Corbridge and athletic director Bill Marolt were key participants, Marolt being one of the top AD's in the nation at the time, which was the spring and summer of 1994; the school received an invitation of December that same year to join the Pac-10, but the Regents voted 6-3 not to join on the advice of both Corbridge and Marolt because CU had played such a significant role in expanding the old Big 8 Conference to add the four Texas schools.

Marolt: "The Big 12 was created when CU was sitting in the chair of the Big 8. All of the decisions related to the conference and the television deals were done at meetings of all members of the 12 eventual schools. I was chair of the athletic directors and Jim was the same for the faculty reps. As you know the chair controls meetings and the agenda so both Jim and I were intimately involved. It's too bad Carl James is no longer alive because he would confirm our role and quiet the historical revisionists." In short, Texas and Oklahoma played no greater role than Colorado.

A LOOK AHEAD: PAC-12 DIVISIONS

Last Oct. 21, several announcements about the future of the now Pac-12 Conference were released, including divisions in football: CU will join Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California, UCLA and Utah in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford will comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program through games of September 10 (2011 records in parenthesis):

PAC-12/BIG 12 ROLL CALL

Colorado's move from the Big 12 to Pac-12 wasn't a surprise to most; CU's demographics for years have shown that outside of Colorado, western states and in particular California, have supplied CU with the most students and have the most alumni. In the Fall 2010 enrollment numbers, after the state of Colorado's 16,964 undergraduates, California was second with 2,034 (unspecified came in third with 678, so both Colorado and California likely had a few more). The five Pac-12 states were represented by 2,457 total students (California 2,034; Washington 187; Arizona 143; Oregon 66; Utah 27), while the six Big 12 states sent just 832 to Boulder (Texas 564, Missouri 109, Kansas 65, Oklahoma 37, Iowa 35 and Nebraska 22). As for the living alumni numbers, there are 36,000 in the Pac-12 states (led by 23,500 in California), with 11,000 in the Big 12 states (topped by 6,373 in Texas); there are over 100,000 in Colorado.

PAC-12 INSTITUTIONS AMONG THE WORLD'S BEST, BUFFS WHERE THEY BELONG

The Center of World-Class Universities of Shanghai Jiao Tong University has recognized the academic excellence of Pac-12 member institutions in its 2011 Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU). Stanford, Cal and UCLA were three of the top 10 U.S. universities in the rankings, leaving the Pac-12 second only to the Ivy League, which had four in the top 10. Harvard was No. 1, followed by Stanford, MIT, California and Cambridge (England). Overall, nine Pac-12 schools were ranked in the top 100 schools worldwide, including Stanford (2), Cal (4), UCLA (12), Washington (16), Colorado (32), USC (46), Arizona State (78), Utah (79) and Arizona (80). As for CU's former conference, the Big 12? Texas (35) and soon-to-be in another conference, Texas A&M (100) were the only two in the top 100. So for those who claimed Colorado's academics didn't fit in with the Pac-12, they might want to do a little research.

COLORADO HAD THIRD LARGEST CROWD FOR SPRING GAME AMONG NEW PAC-12 BRETHREN

Colorado drew the second largest crowd for a spring game in its history on April 9, as 15,655 turned out to see new coach Jon Embree's first CU team. That crowd ranked as the third-highest among all Pac-12 schools, with Oregon's 43,468 in attendance for its game on April 30 the largest in conference history. The largest crowd that has witnessed a CU spring game was in 2008, when 17,800 came out in force; CU's top five spring game crowds:

OREGON	43,468	ARIZONA STATE	6,400
USC	16,850	UCLA.....	6,400
COLORADO	15,655	OREGON STATE	5,519
UTAH	15,000	ARIZONA.....	4,500
WASHINGTON.....	10,000	WASHINGTON STATE	4,076
STANFORD	6,800	*CALIFORNIA.....	1,500

*—Cal does not have a formal spring game in a stadium setting.

TWO TRUE FROSH KICKERS A CU FIRST

CU debuted with two true freshmen kickers in the 2011 season opener at Hawai'i, the first time in school history that two freshmen are handling the kicking specialist duties—Will Oliver at placekicker and Darragh O'Neill at punter. This is the first time in school history the Buffaloes have two true freshmen handling the kicking chores simultaneously at any point in the same season. North Carolina State is the only other school in the nation that as of now, also going with two freshmen kicking specialists (both are also true frosh for the Wolfpack). The CU frosh responded tremendously, especially since they started their careers in a hostile enemy stadium: Oliver made both PAT kicks and a 34-yard field goal, splitting the uprights on all three kicks, while O'Neill had seven punts for a 44.9 average, which included four inside-the-20 and two over 50 yards, including a long of 56 he booted from the CU 4-yard line. He is first in the NCAA among all freshman punters (with the minimum 3.6 kicks per game) through two games in 2011.

Previously, six players attempted placekicks for the Buffs as true freshmen: Tim Mangnall (1976), Tom Field (1979), Ken Culbertson (1986), Eric Hannah (1987), Mason Crosby (2003) and Justin Castor (2010); only Field and Crosby played in the opener. Field made 1-of-2 PATs and field goals of 30 and 51 yards in a 33-19 loss to Oregon in Boulder on Sept. 8, 1979 (known for Chuck Fairbanks' first game as CU head coach and the first college football game that aired on ESPN, though it was tape-delayed). Crosby made all six PAT kicks in a wild 42-35 win over Colorado State in Denver on Aug. 30, 2003. And only three other players in Colorado history have punted as true frosh, though none played in the season opener: Stan Koleski (1973), Lance Olander (1977) and Nick Pietsch (1996); Koleski was a 25-year old freshman, as he came to CU after six years in the U.S. Navy, Olander was a running back recruit who could also punt, and Pietsch was also a walk-on. OLIVER MAKES HISTORY FAST

PK Will Oliver is the only freshman who has hit from 50-plus in the first two weeks of the season; his 52-yarder against Cal is a CU freshman record, is the fifth-longest in the nation to date and the second-longest among Pac-12 kickers. Through September 10, kickers nationwide are 13-of-27 from 50-yards or longer this season on field goals. The list of those 50-yard kicks made to date:

50-YARD FIELD GOALS (13)

56 – Bobby Zalud, Soph., Arkansas State vs. Memphis, Sept. 10	50 – Dan Conroy, Jr., Michigan State vs. Florida Atlantic, Sept. 10
54 – Grant Mahoney, Sr., Iowa State vs. Iowa, Sept. 10	50 – Trey Farquhar, Jr., Idaho vs. North Dakota, Sept. 10

53 – Erik Folk, Sr., Washington vs. Eastern Washington, Sept. 3	50 – Mike Meyer, Soph., Iowa at Iowa State, Sept. 10
52 – Will Oliver, Fr., Colorado vs. California, Sept. 10	50 – San San Te, Sr., Rutgers at North Carolina, Sept. 10

51 – Caleb Sturgis, Jr., Florida vs. Florida Atlantic, Sept. 3

In just his second game, Oliver was named one of the three “Stars of the Week” by the Lou Groza Award, as he kicked four field goals and three extra points in CU's 36-33 overtime loss to California. He nailed a 32-yarder to send the game into overtime in the final minute, made a 22-yarder to account for CU's OT scoring, and in the first half, made good on a 52-yard kick that was the longest by a freshman in CU history. He is now 5-of-5, the first player to make his first five field goals in a CU career since Mason Crosby opened with five makes in 2003. The record for the most consecutive made field goals to start a Buff career in seven by Jeremy Flores, doing so over two seasons (2000-01), with the next best being six by Jeremy Aldrich, also done over two seasons (1996-97). Crosby and Oliver now share the best for the same year.

30TH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado still has the nation's 30th best record over the last 22 seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 161-106-4 record. From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks). The best Division I-A records from the start of 1989 through games of September 5 (includes only those teams who were FBS members the entire 22 seasons):

A TAD INEXPERIENCED

Colorado's two starting cornerbacks in 2010 were both drafted into the NFL — Jimmy Smith in the first round by Baltimore and Jalil Brown in the fourth by Kansas City — but with CU involved in many close games and often against passing teams, the two accounted for 1,571 out of 1,618 snaps. That means the backups played just 47 snaps in 12 games, or four snaps a game. Now, they got more than that appearing in different situations (nickel, safety), but just the 47 when lining up at corner. The most plays in a single game played at corner by a sub were 15 by Ayodeji Olatoye against Baylor when Smith was injured.

CB Greg Henderson played all 65 snaps at right cornerback in the opener at Hawai'i, just the second true freshman to play every snap in a season opener at any position in CU history; CB Travis Sandersfeld played all 65 snaps at left cornerback; thus, their combined 130 snaps were 83 more than the entire roster had at the position entering the season. Parker Orms started at corner against Cal, but when CU was in a five-back set, Orms shifted to the nickel position and Henderson played corner.

HEAD COACH JON EMBREE

Jon Embree is in his first season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program (his first as a head coach on any level of football); the 24th full-time head coach in school history (26th overall) and just the third alum to ever take over the reins. He owns a record of 0-2 at Colorado. This is Embree's first head coaching job, but the list of head coaches he's worked under is most impressive: Bill McCartney (Colorado), Rick Neuheisel (CU), Gary Barnett (CU), Karl Dorrell (UCLA), Herm Edwards (Kansas City, NFL) and Mike Shanahan (Washington, NFL), not to mention the countless coordinators and assistant coaches he had worked closely with. A four-year letterman at tight end under McCartney at Colorado (1983-86), he was the Lee Willard Award winner as the team's most outstanding freshman in '83, and earned first-team All-Big 8 honors as a sophomore when he set single season school records for receptions (51) and yards (680). He then became the consummate team player his final two years, as after CU switched to the wishbone on offense, his primary role became that of a blocker. He played in two bowl games (1985 Freedom, 1986 Bluebonnet) and has coached as an assistant in 12 bowl games (9 CU, 3 UCLA). Embree's Essentials:

- ◆ Embree has been a part of 179 Colorado Buffalo games with a 106-71-2 record: previously, he logged 121 as a full-time assistant coach (81-39-1), 12 as a volunteer coach (8-3-1) and 46 as a player (17-27; he missed the ninth and 10th games of his freshman season in 1983 with mono).
- ◆ The Third Alum. Embree is just Colorado's third head football coach and the first in nearly 50 years who also graduated from the school, as he earned his degree in Communication in 1988. The last was Bud Davis ('51), who coached for one season (1962) to steady the waters after the Sonny Grandelius era, with the only other, Harry Heller, also coaching just one year, leading CU to an 8-1 record in 1894; Heller was an 1885 graduate.
- ◆ In addition to the head coaches he learned from above, he also cited Chan Gailey, who was Kansas City's offensive coordinator in 2008; he said he learned "how flexible you need to be. If players don't fit your scheme, you'd better find something to fit your players."
- ◆ Embree adorned the cover of this past June's Colorado Avid Golfer, posing for the photo with his former coach and mentor, Bill McCartney. The two had played golf together just one time prior to the shoot, which took place in April and includes an interview during a round of golf.
- ◆ Subconscious Tradition. Coaches develop their own signature "whistle blow" to signify that practice has ended and to call the team together to summarize things, make announcements, etc. Embree's consists of six tweets (the whistle kind), the first and last consisting of three notes before a pause with four short ones in the middle. It's the exact same one that McCartney used for 13 seasons at CU, but he didn't realize it until he was told that it matched Mac's, well, to the tweet. When McCartney was informed that Embree was using his whistle sonata, he just laughed, admitting that it was the same one that the late Bo Schembachler used when he was an assistant under him at Michigan. Mac said he didn't realize that he was using Bo's either until after he established it at CU: "It's distinct and stands out from regular whistle blows, so that's why I must have subconsciously started using it." And the same goes for Embree.
- ◆ Embree became just the fourth African-American head coach in Pac-12 Conference football history when he was named to the CU position (with Stanford's David Shaw the fifth when he was promoted a month later): Dennis Green was the first when he coached Stanford (1989-91), followed by Ty Willingham, also at Stanford (1995-2001), and then former Colorado assistant Karl Dorrell at UCLA (2003-07); Willingham also was the head coach at Washington (2004-08). Nationally, Embree is one of seven African-American head coaches among the 66 BCS schools and one of the 17 at the 120 Football Bowl Subdivision programs.
- ◆ After his professional career was cut short due to an elbow injury (he had Tommy John surgery), in the spring of 1991, he was ready job to accept a job in television: KCNC in Denver, where he had interned as a student, was working to place him in a smaller market with the eventual plan to return him to Colorado (as he says of what could have been, "This is Jon Embree reporting live from the pig races in Nowheresville."). But McCartney called and offered him a volunteer position to help coach the tight ends that spring, which was right after CU was the consensus '90 national champion. "He didn't ask me, he told me," Embree said. So he thought he'd try it out in the spring, and his very first day, he knew it was his calling. "At the end of the (first) day, Mac asked me, 'What do you think?' I told him I was all in, this is for me, I love it. What I didn't say to him is, 'I want your job.'" Fast-forward 20 years, he has exactly that.
- ◆ Embree's return to Boulder also has it much easier for him to procure his favorite pizza: since the mid-1990s, he has had a pie named for him at Pasta Jay's just off the Pearl Street Mall. The "Pizza Embo" includes pesto, pepperoni and meatballs and sells for $11.99 (small), $13.99 (medium) and $15.99 (large). Jay, a huge Buffalo donor and fan, also has menu items for others in athletics at CU, including the "Cabral Pizza" (Alfredo sauce, capocollo and pineapple, for linebacker coach Brian Cabral), The "Hagan Option" named for CU's 1989-91 quarterback, Darian Hagan (three entrée items and sides), and the "Alfredo Williams" for CU's Hall of Fame linebacker Alfred Williams (chicken cutlet baked in Alfredo sauce, served over fettuccine).
- ◆ Embree is a voter in the Division I-A coaches poll coordinated by USA Today/ESPN; coaches are now selected by a random draw. CU's head coach had voted every season from 1987-2009, but Dan Hawkins was not selected last year. Thus, CU has a vote for the 24th year in the last 25.
- ◆ CONTRACT. Embree was officially named CU's 24th full-time head coach on Dec. 6, 2010, and signed a 5-year contract worth $3.7 million overall, not including incentives to coach the Buffaloes, with the contract dates officially running from March 1, 2011 through January 11, 2016.

PERHAPS A COLLEGE FOOTBALL FIRST?

There's no real way to research this, but Jon Embree might be the first collegiate head coach to face three schools who all appear on his first schedule that he selected his alma mater over. Back in January 1983, when Embree, along with a dozen other top prospects in Colorado, listened to the pitch from then CU-head coach Bill McCartney, he was one a dozen players who bought into McCartney's vision for the program. The high school All-American from Englewood's Cherry Creek High School then committed and signed with the Buffs, in the end selecting Colorado over Ohio State, Southern California and UCLA, all of whom are opponents on his first schedule as a head coach.

TRIVIA Who were the other Colorado high school seniors who signed along with Embree in that benchmark 1983 recruiting class? Here's the entire class that is credited with helping turn the Buff fortunes around by 1985: Dave DeLine (PK, Mullen), Jon Embree (TE, Cherry Creek), Jeff Glenn (OL, Pomona), Barry Helton (QB/P, Simla), Curt Koch (DL, Littleton), Eric McCarty (FB, Boulder), Ed Reinhardt (TE, Heritage), Sam Smith (TB, Aurora Hinkley), David Tate (WR/CB, Mullen), Rick Wheeler (QB, Cherry Creek) and Troy Wolf (WR/TE, Arvada). Two others walked on: Tom Gebhardt (CB, Boulder) and Mike Marquez (RB/CB, Pomona).

THE CLASS OF '11

This season, 22 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 11 of whom are first-time head coaches on the collegiate level (with Ohio State a late addition with the resignation of Jim Tressel). WE'RE PUTTING THE BAND BACK TOGETHER...

When Jon Embree was hired last December as head coach and he eventually hired three former Buffaloes as assistant coaches, some reacted like that was a rarity in college football. After some research, that was anything but the case. Turns out, the other FBS schools in the state, Air Force and Colorado State, have five alumni on the 10-man staff, including their head coaches as well. In all, there are 18 alumni coaching their alma maters in 2011, with six schools that have half (5 of 10) of the full-time that are alums (led by Utah, which has six), along with 12 that have four or more alumni as full-time coaches, 19 with three or more (22 others have two on staff, and at least 21 have one, meaning over half of the FBS schools, or 62 of 120, have someone on staff who also played there). A look at FBS schools with alumni head coaches and/or with two or more assistants who are alums on staff:

OTHER BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Cedric Cormier, WR, UNLV ('01), Steve Stripling, DL, Cincinnati ('76). IN THE FCS: Ty Gregorak, LB, Montana ('99). AND DOWN I-25 AT CSU-PUEBLO: Paul Creighton, DL ('03), Bernard Jackson, WR ('06), Donnell Leomiti, DB ('95), Chris Symington, OL ('87).

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Jon Embree wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Greg Brown, special teams coach J.D. Brookhart, linebacker coach Brian Cabral, receivers coach Bobby Kennedy, offensive line coach Steve Marshall and defensive line coach Mike Tuiaosopo. Offensive coordinator Eric Bieniemy, assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach Rip Scherer and defensive ends coach Kanavis McGhee are upstairs in the press box with grad assistants Jeff Smart and Matt Thurin (Bieniemy was on the field for the Hawai'i game but moved upstairs for the second game). Plays are sent in a variety of ways, mainly through signals or shuttled in from substituting players.

COORDINATOR ALUMS NOT SO COMMON, EITHER

As stated above, Jon Embree is just the third alum to be named head coach at Colorado; however, when it comes to coordinators, since the position came into vogue in the 1960s, no CU alum has ever served in the capacity until now. Eric Bieniemy, CU's all-time leading rusher with 3,940 yards in his career that spanned from 1987-90, was named offensive coordinator/running backs coach the same day Embree was hired – Dec. 6, 2010. He is just the second minority coach to serve in a coordinator capacity for CU, joining Karl Dorrell, who was the offensive coordinator under Rick Neuheisel from 1995-98.

PREVIOUS PAC-10 CONFERENCE TIES

CU's new football staff does have a familiarity with the school's new conference, as seven members have had experience coaching in the league when it was known as the Pac-10. Jon Embree and Eric Bieniemy both served as assistant coaches under another former CU assistant, Karl Dorrell, at UCLA between from 2003-05. Greg Brown was at Arizona last season and was accompanied to Boulder by Mike Tuiaosopo, who spent seven years with the Wildcats, while assistant head coach Rip Scherer also logged three years in Tucson from 1988-90. Receivers coach Bobby Kennedy also spent a year at Arizona (2001) before spending the next two on the staff at Washington, with offensive line boss Steve Marshall coaching the last two seasons at California and was at UCLA for one in 1996. And an eighth staffer, defensive technical intern Bert Watts, is a California alum who also worked two years as a grad assistant for the Bears.

NFL EXPERIENCE

Colorado's staff also has plenty of experience both playing and coaching in the National Football League, with 63 total seasons (38 coached, 25 played). Eight of the 10 coaches either played or coached in the NFL (two did both). Research by the Florida SID office indicates that the 63 combined NFL years by Colorado coaches ranks first among all 120 schools in the FBS, followed by Florida with 52 (36 coaching, 16 played). The Pac-12 led the way, with eight schools combining for 269 yards served in the NFL (the SEC was a distant second, six schools combining for 169). Here's a look at the 10 full-time staff members connections to "the league":

OLD-TIMER

Associate head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. Now in his 22nd season (315 games), he is the longest tenured assistant coach in Colorado all sports history. A closer look at the top eight in football:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Brian Cabral 22 (1990-current); 2. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 8. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58).

Cabral is tied for 10th on the list of active coaches for continuous full-time service at the same school in the nation; eighth among all assistant coaches. The entire national list:

CABRAL CELEBRATES 300TH GAME AS A BUFFALO, TURNS EYE TO ... 400?

Long-time linebacker coach Brian Cabral celebrated his 300th game as Colorado Buffalo in 2009, and did it in style in CU's thrilling 35-34 win over Texas A&M (he now has been involved in 317). He wore his famous trademark lava lava wrap in CU colors for the game (the Buffs are 6-3 when he dons the garb, which he did once in 2010—for CU's 29-27 win over Georgia; he won't wear more than once anymore, as he lost the last two times he wore it for the second time in the same year). After two weeks of speculation, he did wear it for CU's 2011 opener in his native Hawai'i; he referred to it all along as a game decision but didn't want to take any attention away from the new staff, who all urged him to wear it. He first donned a lava lava for CU's 51-43 win over Oregon in the 1998 Aloha Bowl, wearing a red and blue wrap to honor the family of the late Sal Aunese (CU's starting quarterback who passed away from stomach cancer in 1989). Then at the urging of then-head coach Dan Hawkins, Cabral debuted his personalized wrap with CU colors in 2007 against No. 3 Oklahoma; down 24-7, the Buffs rallied for a 27-24 win.

A former inside linebacker for the Buffs, he originally was a middle guard until suffering an elbow injury midway through his freshman year ('74) before switching to linebacker in a career that spanned 46 games from 1974-77. He has coached in 257 since joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1989. He had a 9-year career in the National Football League (1978-86) and then worked two years as GA for Purdue before making his way back to Boulder. Cabral finished his CU career as the Buffs' all-time leading tackler with 297; he is still tied for 16th on the all-time list. He has coached eight of the players who have passed him on the list: Matt Russell, Greg Biekert, Jordon Dizon, Ted Johnson, Chad Brown, Michael Jones, Thaddaeus Washington and Jashon Sykes, with a ninth, senior Jeff Smart, finishing just six behind his total with 291.

INAUGURATIONS

Colorado named Brian Cabral as interim head coach on November 9, the 25th to assume the role in CU's 121 years of intercollegiate football; when the Buffs beat Iowa State 34-14 in his debut, he became just the second coach to win his CU opener in the last 78 years. The only one to do so since Herbert Hoover was U.S. President was Rick Neuheisel, who saw his team defeat Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7, in 1995. Jon Embree was looking to join Neuheisel as the first full-time coach to claim a win in his debut as CU's field boss, but Hawai'i spoiled the party with a 34-17 win. Overall, Colorado coaches are 10-15-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look (*—denotes interim head coach):

FIRST PLAYS HAVE BEEN HO-HUM

Here's a look at what transpired on the first play on offense, defense and special teams for CU head coaches, dating back to 1959 when information is available. Amazingly, CU had never earned a first down offensively until 2005 (James Cox 16 pass to Evan Judge in the Champs Sports Bowl, Mike Hankwitz' debut), and then followed it up with its longest first play of the year ever in 2006 in Dan Hawkins' rookie game (Cox to Patrick Williams for 42 yards). CU has allowed just one first down defensively, and including special teams, three of the longest plays are kickoff returns of 19, 16 and 13 yards. A closer look:

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 22 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 30th best overall record:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
161 WINS	266	401	+ 135	1,312	544	+768

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is now 21-15 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior, including both West Virginia games in 2008 and 2009; CU has won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (2010); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. But two other streaks remain:

- CU has scored in 143 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986), and has scored in 138 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 281 games (all the way back to 1963).
- CU has been shutout just nine times in its last 504 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only five schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 138 times in 220 tries, including 24 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the "two-minute offense" drill since 1988; that's 64 percent of the time (1-of-1 this year, the field goal at the end of regulation in the Cal game). However, the Buffs were 2-of-9 in the drill in 2010 (scoring first half TDs at Kansas and versus Kansas State); highlights last year (9-of-14) included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. Thus, in the Dan Hawkins Era, CU was 25-of-43 in the drill (58.1 percent). One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 35 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 218 of 241 times, losing 20 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 24 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were California in Boulder this year (led 27-23 early in fourth) and to Kansas (45-17 with 11:04 to play) and Texas Tech (led 24-14 at start of the fourth quarter) last year. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 102 of its last 117 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—and 29 of the last 39). A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 34 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came last year against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining) and in 2008 versus Iowa State (won 28-24 after trailing 24-13 with 9:14 left) and Eastern Washington (won 31-24 after being down 24-17). In 2007 CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

FIVE MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2011

Five players made their first career starts in the season opener at Hawai'i: FB Evan Harrington, OT Jack Harris, CB Greg Henderson, C Daniel Munyer and NT Conrad Obi. Two others made their first ones in game two versus Cal, OT Ryan Dannewitz and WR Tyler McCulloch. Henderson became the first true freshman to start at cornerback in a season opener since Victor Scott in 1980, while Munyer was the first redshirt freshman to start at center since Andre Gurode in 1998 (who also started in the season opener), and just the third freshman to start a game at the position (Bryan Stoltenberg started all 12 games in 1992 as a redshirt; no true CU frosh has ever started a game at center). Henderson also became just the seventh true freshmen in CU history to have started from scrimmage in the opening game of the season; here are those who were thrown into the fray from play one from scrimmage: TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming); ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State) and CB Greg Henderson, 2011 (vs. Hawai'i). Add an eighth for the first play of the game/season on special teams (kickoff coverage team): PK Kevin Eberhart (kicked off vs. Colorado State in Denver).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2010, juniors and seniors made the most starts since 2005. In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen; that's when the current cycle of youth really started. A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

Season	G	SR	JR	SO	FR (RS-True)	UpperCl%	Fr-Pct.
1999	12	115	42	86	21 (20-1)	59.5	8.0

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009, with Auburn doing it again in 2010):

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its roster with players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (70 percent of the entire roster as of September 8—78 of 111 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 40, California 29, Texas 9, Hawai'i 5, Arizona 4, New Jersey 3, Ohio 3, North Carolina 2, Pennsylvania 2, Tennessee 2, Alabama 1, Florida 1, Georgia 1, Idaho 1, Illinois 1, Kansas 1, Louisiana 1, Missouri 1, Nevada 1 and New Mexico 1. That's 20 states total along with the District of Columbia (2) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

► AROUND THE WORLD: Four Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: OL Paulay Asiata (Auckland, New Zealand), DL Stephane Nembot (Douala, Cameroon), PK Darragh O'Neill (Cork, Ireland) and OL Sione Tau (Pago Pago, American Samoa). CB Ayodeji Olatoye is American-born, but both his parents were born in Nigeria, and grayshirt OL Alex Kelley, who will enroll in January, was born in Madrid, Spain, where his parents were working as missionaries.

MOST SENIORS SINCE 1987

There are 28 seniors suiting up for the final time as Buffaloes this fall—the most since 30 did so in the 1987 season. CU has had under 20 seniors each of the last four seasons after having 26 in 2006; the all time low was seven in 1995 (all of whom were invited to the Hula Bowl, likely the only time in college football history 100 percent of a school's senior class were in the same postseason all-star game). A look at the annual numbers:

1982—13	1985—16	1988—10	1991—13	1994—13	1997—22	2000—9	2003—21	2006—26	2009—16
1983—25	1986—9	1989—14	1992—11	1995—7	1998—13	2001—26	2004—11	2007—17	2010—16
1984—22	1987—30	1990—24	1993—19	1996—18	1999—22	2002—23	2005—20	2008—17	2011—28

★ In the program's most recent heyday, 1989-96, when CU sported the fourth best record in college football (78-15-4), the average number of seniors per team was 14.9. The 1989 team that went 11-0 boasted just 14 seniors, and that 1995 team, minus 10 NFL draft selections in the first 71 picks, went 10-2 with just the seven seniors.

FOUR NAMED 2011 CAPTAINS

Jon Embree announced the selection of four captains for his inaugural season as head coach of the University of Colorado, with the group consisting of three seniors and a junior. Seniors Tyler Hansen and Ryan Miller will serve as the offensive captains, while senior Anthony Perkins and junior Jon Major will have the honors as the defensive captains, as all four were selected in a vote by their teammates on August 18. "They were voted on by the players, and I think they made excellent choices for who the leaders of the team will be this year. There's no finer honor than having that kind of respect from your peers."

Embree also will select a fifth captain for each game, which he said will almost always be based on the previous week's special teams performances or for a special situation that would warrant a player being chosen.

👤 Hansen, who stands 6-1, 215 pounds and hails from Murrieta, Calif., is the first fourth-year quarterback to be named a CU captain since 1987, when Mark Hatcher was tapped by his peers. He joins only Mike Moschetti (1999), Joel Klatt (2004-05) and Cody Hawkins (2010) as quarterbacks who have been picked as season-long captains since Hatcher.

👤 Miller, a 6-8, 295 pound offensive guard who has received some preseason All-America mention, played at Littleton's Columbine High School and with his selection, makes it five in the last six years that an offensive lineman will serve as one CU's captains. He follows Nate Solder (OT, 2010), Daniel Sanders (C, 2008), Tyler Polumbus (OT, 2007) and the last guard to be named, Brian Daniels (2006).

👤 Perkins is a 5-10, 200-pound strong safety who prepped at Northglenn High School; the last safety to serve as a captain was Ryan Walters in 2008. They are the only two since Medford Moorer in 2003; Moorer is now an academic counselor for the Buffs. Perkins is at full-strength after missing the last half of the 2010 season after suffering a season-ending knee injury.

👤 Major, a 6-2, 230-pounder from Ponderosa High School in Parker, will be the first junior captain since Klatt was named for the first of two years in the role in 2004. Major also had his season last fall cut short with a knee injury and is back at 100 percent.

It's the first time as many as three Colorado high school performers will serve as team captains since 2004, when Klatt (Arvada), defensive tackle Matt McChesney (Niwot) and tailback Bobby Purify (Colorado Springs) earned the distinction.

CEFALO AWARDED LAST AVAILABLE SCHOLARSHIP

Embree also announced on August 19 that senior wide receiver Kyle Cefalo has been placed on scholarship, as he filled the last vacancy on the 85-man active scholarship list allowed all FBS schools by the NCAA.

Cefalo transferred to Colorado in the spring of 2009 from Wenatchee Community College, where he attended one semester after originally signing out of high school with Oregon State on a baseball scholarship. But his career there was cut short due to an arm injury, so he turned to his next love, football. A teammate of Cody Hawkins at Bishop Kelly High School in Boise, he then decided to follow his friend to Boulder. He caught six passes for 35 yards as junior in 2010, playing in 11 games which included a start in the season opener against Colorado State.

"Since I've been here from day one, Kyle has done it both on and off the field," Embree said. "He works hard and he is a great teammate. He'll be a great contributor for us and I'm happy for him and his family."

"When coach Embree told me, I was speechless at first, but I'm just really excited and happy," Cefalo said. "It's nice when four years of hard work can pay off and the coaches recognize that. It was totally out of the blue, coach called me up on stage in front of the whole team. I had no idea what he was going to do. Everybody was really excited, it was really cool to see all my teammates react like they did and give me hugs. It was a great moment."

COMEBACK BUFFS

Colorado has won only 21 games over the last five-plus seasons, but in nine of those games, the Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down, including three in 2009. The Buffaloes spotted Hawai'i a 10-0 halftime lead, but a strong third quarter, including two short TB Rodney Stewart touchdown runs, did UH in as the Buffaloes outscored the Warriors 31-3 in the second half. In the next game, CU took an early 14-3 lead against Georgia, but the Bulldogs responded with 21 straight points to go up 24-14; Colorado countered with a 15-3 run to rally and win, 29-27. Later in the year, the Buffs were down early 14-3 against Kansas State, but stormed back with 27 unanswered points and take control of the game. Eight have taken place in Boulder, with the ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State. A closer look:

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 122nd season of competition having played 1,151 games with an all-time record of 671-444-36. CU currently stands 20th on the all-time win list and is 24th in all-time winning percentage (.600; those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 121, with only USC having won more games (771) and USC, Washington and Arizona State the Pac-12 schools owning higher winning percentages than the Buffs. In Boulder, the Buffs are 296-147-10 in 86 seasons on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 31 occasions (and are 23-8 in games when this occurs). It's happened twice this year, both times with TB Rodney Stewart (175, 123) and WR Paul Richardson (141, 121) eclipsing 100 yards in back-to-back games against Kansas and Iowa State. It occurred nine times last decade, twice in 2009 (versus Texas A&M: TB Rodney Stewart 118 yards, WR Markques Simas 135; and against Nebraska: Stewart 110 yards, WR Scotty McKnight 114, Simas 108). The previous time was at Baylor in 2007 (TB High Charles 109 yards, and WR Josh Smith 103). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 159 of the 2011 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity is now 53,613, as school officials have removed 137 seats over the last few years from the fourth rows of the three Flatiron Club levels on the west side, all of which had obstructed views. The capacity had been listed as 53,750 since the east side stadium expansion in 2003. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older. Cal's was older, but it is undergoing a complete renovation this year.

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 299-15-1 when scoring 30 or more points (the last loss the 36-33 OT setback to Cal), along with records of 211-5 with 35-plus points and 195-4 with 36-plus, 172-3 with 38-plus and 110-1 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009) and Kansas (52-45 this year). CU has played 1,151 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 102-65-3 in its last 170 league games, and has the 14th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 117 of its last 271 games, posting a 106-10-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 181 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 22-65-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ CU has allowed 482 touchdowns in the 908 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 dating back to 1988; the other 426 times have yielded 227 field goals as well as 199 non-scores. In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 24% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 48% of the time, solid defensive numbers.
 - ➔ Since 2006, the opponent penetrated the CU red zone 233 times, with 138 touchdowns, 59 field goals and 36 non-scores.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 126 touchdowns out of 308 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 184 scores overall, meaning 122 non-scores). Over the last six seasons, CU's allowed just 142 scores (98 TD/44 FG) in 225 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory (13 scores out of 22 times in 2010, and just 11 TDs).
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards of total offense in 59 of its last 168 contests (once so far in 2011), as CU has made a decent habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 222 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 95 times (43 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 44 of the 222 games since the '93 season opener (21%)... and note that CU has played 86 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. The last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ In the Hawkins Era, CU averaged 5.5 per first down play in 2006, followed by 5.3 (2007), 4.4 (2008 and 2009) and 4.5 in 2010. Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979.
 - ➔ In the 2011 opener, CU averaged 4.0 yards a crack on first down against Hawaii, but just 1.1 on 12 rushing plays; 5.3 and 3.2 for the Cal game.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 47 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 148 games (one in 2010, with season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 68 scores by return in 197 games (61 regular season, seven bowl), or two every five games.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 15 times in the last 147 games (and 36 times in the last 220, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 36-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 73-63-1 in its last 137 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (69-57 in the last 126, including a 43-31 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 92-45-3 in its last 140 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 59-33-3 mark in conference games. CU was 0-3 on the fake stuff in 2010 and is 0-1 thus far in 2011.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per). In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions, but jumped to 12.0 in 2006 (1,022 yards on the 85 conversions). In '07, as opponents had 838 yards on 60 makes (14.0 per), and just 130 on 113 misses (1.1). In '08, opponents had 643 yards on its' 66 makes (9.7 per), and just 78 on the 102 misses (0.8). In 2009, opponents had 913 yards on its' 58 makes (15.7 per), and just 15 on the 112 misses (0.1). In 2010, the foe had 66 makes, gaining 814 yards (12.3 per) conversion; it had 7 yards on the other 95 tries (0.07).
- ➔ In '11, Hawai'i and Cal gained 222 yards on 15 makes (14.8 per), and just 13 on the 14 misses (0.9).
- ➔ Third Down & 36 Inches. CU was 18-of-22 on 3rd-&-1 (81.8%) in 2010.
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-1 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, losing for the first time against Cal this season (36-33 in OT). The latest occurrence of this was in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. In these 15 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 633-320, with only four games decided by less than 17 points (this year, a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ In 2009, it is what it is as the saying goes, but one of the most all-time perplexing stats to never come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five in 2009. But take for example the Missouri game: the Tigers gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on the other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all added up to 17.6 percent of opponent plays gaining 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU allowed 50 plays over 20 yards, totaling 1,633 yards; basically 6.2 percent of the plays producing 34 percent of the yards.
- ➔ Colorado was fairly stout in goal-to-go defense in 2009; the opponent had 21 G-T-G's and had just 12 touchdowns (16 scores overall); opponents started 29 drives in CU territory, but had just eight touchdowns (18 scores overall) to show for it. In 2010, the foe had 23 TDs in 28 G-T-G situations, but only 11 TDs on 22 drives started on CU's side of the field.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 4-of-101 on 3rd-and-20 or more (0-of last-11; Kansas converted on a 3rd-&-29 in 2009). The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09. The CU offense is 9-of-97 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 629 of 912 quarters (70%). Those numbers include 6 of 8 quarters in 2011.

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 89-56 in its last 145 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 77-29 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 69-31-1 in its last 101 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 530-248-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through two games in 2011, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 470 CU games in his career, including 207 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. In 2009, he was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution. Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 271 in a row on the coaching staff (three as the interim head coach); including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 317 CU games. Other dinosaurs: SID Dave Plati has worked 372 including the last 330 (dating to the '83 finale), while facilities man John Krueger has worked 313 in all (a string of 144 straight ended in 2008). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 28 seniors on its roster in 2011, including several professional prospects; last year, four Buffs were drafted into the NFL and it could be a similar number this year. History has proven that most, if not all, NFL teams pass through Boulder every season for a game or practice(s). Eight teams have scouted CU games so far in 2011: Atlanta, Buffalo, Dallas, Denver, Miami, New England, N.Y. Jets and Tampa Bay. In 2010, all 32 teams sent scouts to either camp practices or games, and around half have already logged time in Boulder during camp; 491 scouts have attended Colorado games (home/road/neutral) dating back to 2000. There were no scouts at the season opener in Hawai'i, but a half dozen are expected at Folsom Field for the Cal game.

2011 NFL DRAFT

Colorado had four players selected in this past April's National Football League Draft, its most since four were also drafted in 2006. The list (position, player, team, round, overall pick):

OT	Nate Solder	New England	1st (17)	CB	Jalil Brown	Kansas City	4th (118)
CB	Jimmy Smith	Baltimore	1st (27)	WR	Scotty McKnight	New York Jets	7th (227)

The last time CU had three or more players drafted that all went into the same NFL conference was in 2000 (also all by AFC teams); the only other years were 1971 and 1988 (both all NFC). The last time a Buff offensive tackle was taken in the first round was in 1980, when Stan Brock went to New Orleans with the No. 12 pick; the only other first round O-tackle selected was Mark Koncar in 1974 (Green Bay, No. 23). The last CU cornerback to be drafted in round one was in 1993, when Thorpe Award winner Deon Figures was selected 23rd by Pittsburgh; the only other Buff corner taken in the first round was Mark Haynes, who went No. 8 to the New York Giants in 1980. Solder joined Byron White (No. 4, Pittsburgh, 1938), Bobby Anderson (No. 11, Denver, 1970) and Daniel Graham (No. 21, New England, 2002) as the fourth CU player to be a first round draft choice who played his high school and college football in the state of Colorado. Three of CU's four NFL draft selections are on teams that play the Broncos in Denver this year: McKnight (N.Y. Jets, Nov. 17), Solder (New England, Dec. 18) and Brown (Kansas City, Jan. 1).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 14 former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of September 11; there were 18 on the rosters at the end of the 2010 season (22 in 2009). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last 23 years of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. CU either led (five times) or was among the top four schools in the Big 12 Conference its entire time as a member of the league. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other three years). The active list (i—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; i—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured status; club still owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

CANADA & ELSEWHERE: Three former Buffs are making livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his eighth year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, TB Hugh Charles is in his fourth year with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders and OG Edwin Harrison is in his second year with the Calgary Stampeders. DE Gabe Nyenhuis ('03) is with the San Jose Sabercats in the AFL.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the six who head prep programs: Dave Logan (Mullen), Mike Marquez (Northglenn), Bill Mondt (Eaton), Tom Tesone (Bishop Machebeuf), Ron Woolfork (Overland) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

➔ CU has had 257 players drafted into the NFL; that's 20th all-time, and fourth among Big 12 schools behind Oklahoma (339), Nebraska (331) and Texas (316); Notre Dame leads with 462, one more than second place USC. OU is fourth, NU sixth and UT ninth; Texas A&M is right being CU in 21st with 255.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 23 of 30 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 111 players on the 2011 roster (active and inactive, as of September 8) totaled 8,172 inches in height and weighed 24,970 collective pounds, or an average of 6-1½, 224 pounds per player. The 8,319 inches translate roughly into 681 feet or 227 yards, about the average distance of a par-three hole on the PGA Tour, while the weight of 24,970 pounds is roughly the equivalent of 3,000 gallons of water, or the equal to the amount of the water wasted in a calendar year by a leaky faucet that drips at the rate of one drip per second (okay, I had to look that up). Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

2011 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1891 (Nov. 26) After going 0-4 in its first season of intercollegiate football the previous year, and dropping the first four games in '91, Colorado earns its first-ever win in the sport with a 24-4 win on the road against the Colorado Springs Athletic Association.
- 1896 Colorado records its first undefeated season with a 5-0-0 mark, outscoring the five opponents 161-6.
- 1901 After a one-year absence, Fred Folsom returns for his second of three stints as CU head coach, piloting the Buffs to a 5-1-1 mark.
- 1906 Colorado posts perhaps its weirdest record in its football history: 2-3-4, the four ties all of the scoreless variety. CU scored just 28 points but allowed only 32.
- 1911 The 100th anniversary of the third of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. Colorado outscores the six opponents 88-5, allowing one field goal on defense and a safety for the only points.
- 1916 The first year of the post-Fred Folsom Era, as CU's legendary coach retired following the 1915 season; Bob Evans takes over but the Silver & Gold go 1-5-1.
- 1921 (Oct. 29) CU travels its furthest east for a football game, some 926 miles, but lose 35-0 at the University of Chicago, then a powerhouse in college football; the only longer trip at the time in program history was a 1915 game against Washington in Seattle, 999 miles from the CU campus. Trains took CU to both locales.
- 1926 CU opens the year with four straight home games, only done three times since (1937, 1943 and 1978 – in all of which the first five were at Folsom Field).
- 1931 (Nov. 26) Colorado defeats Arizona in Tucson, 27-7, on Thanksgiving, the last time (and of three total) Thanksgiving Day games CU has played out of the state.
- 1936 (Nov. 7) Byron White sets a school record by scoring 25 points (4 TD, 1 PAT) in a 31-7 win at Utah. White sets up his All-America season the following year by rushing for 643 yards with 1,339 all-purpose yards and 10 touchdowns.
- 1946 Jim Yeager reassumes head coaching position after serving in World War II for two years. An Oct. 12 win at Wyoming (20-0) was played in a blizzard.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado drills Nebraska in Lincoln, 36-14, in the program's first-ever televised game. Bill Stern (play-by-play) and Ray Michael (commentary) call the game, produced independently and aired regionally on NBC.
- 1956 (Nov. 4) After giving Oklahoma fits most of the decade, the Sooners roll into Boulder ranked No. 1 in the nation, CU's first-ever against the No. 1 team, and it appears the Buffaloes might finally break through. CU builds a 19-6 halftime lead, only to see OU rally with 21 second half points for a 27-19 win. The Buffs go on to finish 4-1-1 in the Big 7, earning the invitation to the Orange Bowl where CU beat Clemson, 27-21, for the first bowl win in school history.
- 1961 Colorado won its first Big 8 Conference championship, its first league title since 1942 (when it shared the Mountain States crown). The two biggest wins were a 20-19 win over Kansas (after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), and a 7-6 win over No. 10 Missouri. A 7-0 win at Nebraska remains to this day one of the school's all-time defensive gems: the Buffs held Nebraska to 31 total yards and zero first downs. CU reached No. 6 in the polls but lost to No. 4 LSU in the Orange Bowl, 25-7. Joe Romig is named an All-American for the second straight year and earns the Rhodes Scholarship.
- 1966 Colorado finished second in the Big 8 Conference race with a 5-2 mark (7-3 overall), the two league setbacks by a combined three points, 11-10 at Oklahoma State and 21-19 against Nebraska. After losing 24-3 to open the season at No. 20 Miami, the Buffaloes bounce back and win at No. 10 Baylor, 13-7, in a game where CU was on a mission to win after its black players were subject to racist taunts, including on a pregame radio show piped into the team lockerroom.
- 1971 Artificial surfacing makes its debut in Boulder on Sept. 18 versus Wyoming, as an AstroTurf carpet blanketed Folsom Field; fittingly, it snowed two feet that day and likely prevented cancellation of the game. CU's stunning road upsets of No. 9 Louisiana State and No. 6 Ohio State paved the way for a 10-2 season, as the Big 8 owned the top three spots in the final Associated Press poll after the bowls. With Nebraska (#1), Oklahoma (#2) and Colorado (#3), it was the first and to date only time in history one conference has occupied all top three positions at the end of the year. Charlie Davis rushes for a then-record 1,386 yards for the season, including a still-record 342 against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, while Cliff Branch returns an NCAA record four punts for touchdowns. CU caps its first 10-win season with a 29-17 win over No. 15 Houston in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.
- 1976 Colorado won its second Big 8 Conference title with a 5-2 league record; the Buffs were tied with Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, but CU earned the title via tiebreaker by virtue of its wins over the Sooners (42-31) and Cowboys (20-10). Nine players off the '76 team would be selected in the following spring's NFL Draft, including five in the second round in an 18-pick span between Nos. 35 and 52.
- 1981 The Buffs were 3-8, winning their season opener (45-27 over Texas Tech), homecoming (11-10 over Oklahoma State) and season finale (24-21 against Kansas State). Coach Chuck Fairbanks would resign the following June 1 to take a similar job with the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1986 Fresh off a season where CU won the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over a 1-10 record in 1984), the Buffaloes open up a disappointing 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined eight points. CU rallies to win its next five, including a 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska which many refer to as the "Turning Point" in the Coach Bill McCartney Era. That run set up a battle for first place in the Big 8 and the Orange Bowl berth that went with it against Oklahoma on Nov. 15. But the Sooners end the dream with a 28-0 win in Boulder, in a game where OU did not attempt a single pass.
- 1991 Colorado ties for a third straight Big 8 title with a 6-0-1 mark, as a Nov. 2 tie with Nebraska (19-19) ends a 19-game winning streak in conference play, dating back to the '88 finale. Lamont Warren rushes for 830 yards, to this day a single-season best by a CU freshman, and in one of the most daring personnel moves since the days of platoon football, coach Bill McCartney plays his starting quarterback, senior Darian Hagan, as the team's top punt returner so he can better showcase his talents for professional football.
- 1996 A 33-21 win over Washington gives CU a 10-2 record, its third consecutive 10-win season for the first time in school history. It was also the inaugural season of the Big 12 Conference, and Colorado won its first league game, 24-10, at Texas A&M in a game where the Buffs had the quickest score from scrimmage in their history: after Ryan Sutter recovered an A&M fumble on the opening kickoff, Rae Carruth scored on a 28-yard end around just 13 seconds into the game. Koy Detmer set a school record with 3,156 passing yards, and the 20-4 start over his first two seasons as a college coach by Rick Neuheisel ranks as one of the top 5 all-time in NCAA history.
- 2001 A Sept. 15 game at Washington State was cancelled due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the east coast. CU plays in its first Big 12 Championship game and wins the title with a 39-37 win over Texas in basically a road win at Irving; a 62-36 win over Nebraska the previous week gave the Buffs their first North Division title, as Chris Brown rushed for 198 yards and a school-record six touchdowns. Daniel Graham wins the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, and is named the school's sixth unanimous All-American. No. 2 Colorado plays in its first (and only) BCS game, but loses to No. 3 Oregon 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl.
- 2006 Dan Hawkins named 23rd full-time head coach at Colorado; PK Mason Crosby repeated as first-team All-American, as he was the first placekicker at CU to earn the honor even one time.

CU TO RECOGNIZE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF 1961 BIG 8 CHAMPION TEAM

Colorado will have a reunion of its 1961 Big 8 champion team the weekend of the Washington State game (Sept. 30-Oct. 1), marking the 50th anniversary of CU's first title after joining the old Big 7 in 1948. All members of the team (players, coaches, staff) have been invited back for the game. The Buffs finished 1961 with a 10-3 record with a 7-1 mark in conference games. That will also serve as Living Legends Weekend, when CU brings back all lettermen who earned their first letter 50 years ago. A capsule look at the 1961 season:

BUFFS AGAINST THE BESTHere's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2010 Record	Jon Embree Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-50-2	8-17-1	0-0	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-86-3	14-30-2	0-0	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-110-3	20-42-2	0-0	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-143-3	43-62-2	0-0	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7). Now in the Pac-12, the Buffaloes are now among similar company when it comes to scheduling, as the Big 12 had a reputation for usually going the cupcake route in non-conference play (sans Oklahoma).

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2010 was 281,182, an average of 46,863 per game, marking the 16th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 34th time in the last 36 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (final numbers will be around 25,000 public and 37,000 overall when adding in student holders, as those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate).

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are 51-29 in their last 80 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays. Colorado is 51-37-2 in its last 90 October games, and is 54-30-1 in its last 85 November games (48-18 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month). CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 10 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State and UCLA. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern Cal, Missouri and Texas (5), followed by LSU (4) and Florida State, Michigan State and Nebraska (3 each).

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS

Colorado is looking at a different road when it comes to bowl games with it now being a member of the Pac-12 Conference, with a much more western flavor. Here's the conference's lineup for the 2011 bowl season:

- # 1 Rose Bowl (Jan. 2) and/or BCS National Championship (Jan. 9)
 # 2 Valero Alamo (Dec. 29 vs. Big 12)
 # 3 Bridgepoint Education Holiday (Dec. 28 vs. Big 12)
 # 4 Sun (Dec. 31 vs. ACC)

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas this year, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 20 seasons, which is the 12th most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Ohio State (12), Oklahoma (10), Miami, Fla. (9), Nebraska (9), Texas (9), Florida (8) and Florida State (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Uvas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2010 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 23 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of those 11 occasions, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 18 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 22 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2011: Ohio State 23, Florida State 22, Florida 20, Michigan 19, Nebraska 19, Oklahoma 19, Tennessee 19, Miami, Fla. 18, Penn State 18, Texas 18, Alabama 16, Auburn 16, Notre Dame 16, Georgia 15, LSU 15, Virginia Tech 15, Oregon 13, Colorado 12.

A LONG, LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). The 143 consecutive polls still ranks as the eighth longest all-time in college football history. In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-'98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

18 OUT OF 22

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, behind only Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. CU snapped that streak with a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007, and with the 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 and the 34-30 verdict over No. 17 Kansas in 2009, it's now 18 out of 22 years defeating at least one ranked program. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). The Buffs have defeated at least two in nine of the last 15 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 180 of its last 259 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (69 percent), including the season opener at Hawai'i in 2011. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began and TV contracts changed, and not including pay-per-view, 143 of CU's 186 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, which is an impressive 76.9 percent. In addition, CU has had 38 of its last 44 non-conference games (86.4%) televised on a national or regional basis (36 of 42 was easily tops in the Big 12). ANNUAL TV APPEARANCES SINCE 1996 (142): 1996 (10), 1997 (10), 1998 (9), 1999 (9), 2000 (7), 2001 (10), 2002 (12), 2003 (7), 2004 (9), 2005 (10), 2006 (7), 2007 (11), 2008 (10), 2009 (11), 2010 (9), 2011 (2).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

18 OF 26

The Buffs have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 26 years (1985-2010), matched only by two dozen or so schools across the nation (6-6 records do not count). The exceptions came in 1997, 2000, 2003, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 18 of these 26 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000, 2003, 2006, 2008, 2009 and 2010 (the first time CU isn't going to a bowl over a three-year span since an eight year drought from 1977-84).

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's last two annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom didn't happen, the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the third most attending in 2009. CU has now had five occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. The national average worked to 12,996 in 2008 and 14,407 in 2009. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

KEY: ◆—Pac-12 Conference game; ⇄—Big 10 Conference game; +—Mountain West Conference game; □—Western Athletic Conference game.

OPPONENTS & 2011 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

Colorado will play 13 regular season games for the second time in its history, joining the 2002 team that had a slate of 12 plus the Big 12 Championship game; CU would play a school-record 14 that season and finish with a 9-5 record. This year's 13 opponents year combined for a 98-67 (59.4%) record in 2010, with five teams winning 10-plus games and seven teams earning bowl invitations. CU will travel to Hawaii for the first time since 1925, will play California in a non-conference game to complete a home-and-home series, faces off against Colorado State in the newly renamed Sports Authority Field at Mile High in Denver, and plays Ohio State for the first time since 1986. CU's renews two dormant rivalries in league play, Arizona (last met in 1986) and Utah (the two last played in the 1962 season opener, but were all set to resume the series next year until both became Pac-12 members).

All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Pacific-12 Conference game (note: the California at Colorado game on Sept. 10 is a non-conference game to complete a previous home-and-home agreement). Television selections Sept. 24 and beyond are made on 12 days notice by the Pac-12 television partners (ESPN/ABC, Fox Sports Network, Versus, FX); ESPN/ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. In all, ESPN/ABC will televise 20 Pac-12 games during the 2011 season, with Fox Sports Net (which also sublicenses Pac-12 games to Versus and FX) rights to 24 Pac-12 games. ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Pac-12, ACC, Big East, Big 10 or Big 12). ESPN/ESPN 2 will utilize both Saturday afternoon (1:30 p.m. MT) and Saturday evening (8:15 p.m. MT) telecast windows; Thursday and Friday games carried by ESPN/ESPN 2 usually have a 7 p.m. MT start. ESPN/ABC has five dates with opponents TBD: Oct. 15 (8:15 p.m.), Nov. 5 (1:30 p.m.), Nov. 12 (assorted), Nov. 19 (1:30 p.m.) and Nov. 26 (1:30 p.m.). FSN provides national coverage via its lineup of 11 regional sports networks (RSNs) in the afternoon (1:30 p.m. MT) and evening (8:30 p.m. MT) windows, and on occasion may move a game into the prime-time window (4:30 p.m. or 5 p.m. MT). National cable networks Versus and FX usually utilize that same prime-time window (4:30 or 5 p.m. MT). Game inventory not used by the Pac-12 is returned to the institutions, which have the option to televise games locally if a window can be secured that doesn't conflict with exclusivity provided to ESPN/ABC and FSN.

GAME 1HAWAII 34, COLORADO 17*SEPTEMBER 3, 2011*ALOHA STADIUM, HONOLULU

HONOLULU — Turns out, the big question of whether Colorado's rebuilt secondary could hold up to Hawaii's passing game wasn't the biggest one for the Buffaloes.

Instead, as they prepared for Jon Embree's CU coaching debut, the Buffs should have been asking themselves this: Can UH quarterback Bryant Moniz beat us with his feet rather than his arm?

Moniz led the Warriors to a 34-17 win Saturday in Aloha Stadium and extending the Buffs' road losing streak to 18. Whereas last season Moniz threw for 330 yards and a touchdown with minus-5 yards on the ground, including sacks, this time he ran for 121 yards and 3 TDs and added 178 through the air and a fourth score.

A fumbled snap on the first play from scrimmage set an ugly tone for the first half, and the loss of left tackle David Bakhtiari on CU's seventh play of the game further disrupted the offense.

Trailing 17-0 at half, CU finally shook its offense awake and would pull to within seven early in the fourth quarter. But the Warriors, set on avenging last season's 31-13 loss in Boulder, put away their mainland visitors with a touchdown and a field goal in the game's final 6:17.

Tyler Hansen completed 16-of-30 for 223 yards and two scores, both impressive grabs by Paul Richardson; he was also intercepted once and sacked seven times for 44 yards in losses.

The Buffs were attempting a second-half rejuvenation like they fashioned last season in Boulder, when they trailed 10-0 at intermission. Colorado opened the half with a six-play, 73-yard drive that was highlighted by a Hansen-to-Rodney-Stewart run-and-catch on a screen for 52 yards to the Warriors' 15. On the very next play, Hansen hit Richardson for their first touchdown and after freshman Will Oliver's PAT — the first of his college career — the Buffs had pulled within 17-7.

UH promptly responded, returning the ensuing kickoff to the Buffs' 48-yard line. From there, Moniz needed 10 plays to score his third rushing TD of the game and pushed the Warriors ahead 24-7 with 5:53 left in the third quarter.

But two series later, the Buffs — primarily Hansen and Richardson with another assist from Stewart — made some more noise. After another successful Hansen-to-Stewart screen for 26 yards, Hansen and Richardson again teamed for a TD strike — this one covering 21 yards, and with Oliver's extra point, drawing CU to within 24-14 with 1:51 left in the third quarter.

On the first play of the Warriors' next possession, Chidera Uzo-Diribe blasted Moniz from the blind side, forcing a fumble that was recovered by Conrad Obi at the UH 34-yard line. CU moved to the 15 on a Hansen-to-Tyler McCulloch pass, but that's where the drive stalled and Oliver kicked a clutch 34-yard field goal on fourth down, pulling the Buffs within a touchdown at 24-17, only 9 seconds into the last quarter.

The Warriors pushed to the Buffs' 24, where on fourth-and-one Moniz sneaked over left guard for 2 yards and a monstrous first down. Two plays later the Buffs had what would prove to be their final shot when Travis Sandersfeld couldn't hold on to a potential interception in which he would've had a hefty lead in a sprint to tie the game at 24-24 going the other way. Instead, Moniz flipped an unlikely shovel pass to running back Joey Iosefa, who ran 22 yards for his first career TD and UH was up 31-17 with 6:17 left.

Now the Buffs needed something big but on fourth down, Hansen was intercepted by Art Laurel, giving the Warriors a first down at the Buffs' 11-yard line. Four plays later, Tyler Hadden kicked a 22-yard field goal, the game's final points to seal the 34-17 win for the Warriors.

GAME NOTES

CB Greg Henderson became just the seventh true freshmen in CU history to have started from scrimmage in the opening game of the season, and just the second cornerback to do so ... Since 1967, CU is 23-1 when scoring first in a season opener and 4-16-1 when the opponent scores first ... With 24 freshmen on the trip, several were scheduled to make their debuts; 11 did ... CU has now lost 18 straight road games (19 out-of-state), though this is only the second one that did not take place in the central/eastern time zones (other: at Cal in 2010) ... Longtime assistant coach Brian Cabral wore his trademark black and gold floral print lava lava ... QB Tyler Hansen had a string of 63 straight passes without an interception come to an end with a fourth quarter pick; he was sacked a career high seven times, the most since Texas A&M recorded eight against the Buffs in 2009 ... Hansen did become the 11th player to throw for 3,000 yards in a CU career, finishing the game with 3,045; he passed Gale Weidner (1959-61, 3,033) into 10th all-time on the overall list ... WR Paul Richardson had his third career two-TD reception game, tying him for the third most in school history ... In the last six season openers, the Buffaloes are perfect in scoring percentage inside-the-20, as they are 17-of-17 in the red zone (11 TDs, 6 FGs).

GAME 2CALIFORNIA 36, COLORADO 33 (OT)*SEPTEMBER 10, 2011*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — California quarterback Zach Maynard hit receiver Keenan Allen with a 5-yard touchdown pass in overtime Saturday at Folsom Field, giving the Bears a 36-33 victory over Colorado in the Buffs' home opener.

CU got a record setting passing performance from senior quarterback Tyler Hansen, who completed 28-of-49 passes for a school-record 474 yards and three touchdowns, while tying the mark for the most total offense with 500 yards. Two of the scoring tosses went to sophomore Paul Richardson, who finished with 11 catches for 282 yards — also a single-game school record.

The contest matched Pac-12 Conference teams did not count in the league standings as it completed a previously arranged home-and-home series. Cal remained unbeaten at 2-0, while CU fell to 0-2.

Freshman kicker Will Oliver was perfect on four field goal attempts, the first set up by a Jon Major interception that gave the Buffs a first down at their own 40-yard line. Six plays later, Oliver made his first kick, giving Colorado its only lead of the half.

After holding Cal to a three-and-out on the game's first series, CU used a methodical 13-play march and ended up at the Bears' 9-yard line. Facing fourth-and-one there, CU elected to go for the first down but Rodney Stewart was stuffed for no gain.

The Bears responded by driving 81 yards in 10 plays, and aided by a pair of CU pass interference penalties, scored on a 2-yard Maynard-to-Nico Dumont pass and after the PAT attempt was blocked by defensive tackle Will Pericak, the Bears led, 6-3.

Two series later, a 39-yard Georgio Tavecchio field goal pushed Cal ahead 9-3, but CU responded with an Oliver 52-yard kick — the longest field goal by a freshman in CU history — and pulled to 9-6 with 4:18 left before halftime.

That was enough time for the Bears to drive 62 yards in seven plays, scoring on a 7-yard Maynard-to-Anthony Miller pass to take a 16-6 lead just before intermission.

Opening the second half, Hansen immediately directed a 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive, hitting senior tight end Ryan Deehan with a 37-yard scoring pass on third-and-eight and cut the deficit to three at 16-13.

After CU's defense held, Cal returned the favor and then blocked a Darragh O'Neill punt that traveled just 15 yards and gave the Bears possession at the Buffs' 35-yard line. Four plays later, Maynard and Miller connected for a TD, the pass this time covering 20 yards to put the Bears back up 10 at, 23-13.

Hansen and Richardson then teamed up for a 66-yard scoring play to close the third quarter with Cal leading 23-20. Then to open the fourth quarter, the two teamed up again for a 78-yard score and the Buffs took their first lead since 3-0 at 27-23.

Cal responded quickly, driving 80 yards in 11 plays and scoring on a 19-yard burst up the middle by tailback C.J. Anderson to get its lead back at 30-27 with 9:55 left.

Later in the fourth, the Buffs got the ball back at their own 15-yard line with 7:10 to play. Hansen drove the Buffs into field goal range and with: 30 left, Oliver nailed a 32-yarder to tie the game at 30-30.

Cal won the coin toss to start overtime and chose to play defense as most always do; the Buffs looked good early in the possession earning a first-and-goal but settled for a 22-yard field goal from Oliver to take a 33-30 lead.

Cal earned a quick first down at the 15-yard line but then had consecutive penalties and found themselves at first-and-30 at the 35. A 32-yard pass from Maynard to Allen gave the Bears a first down inside the 5-yard line and then that same duo won it on a 5-yard pass play two plays later, giving Cal the 36-33 victory.

GAME NOTES

Colorado dropped to 5-5 in overtime games, 5-4 in single OT affairs and 3-3 when the opponent plays defense first ... CU's last OT game was on Sept. 18, 2008 in Boulder, a 17-14 win over No. 21 West Virginia ... Colorado went from allowing seven sacks in the season opener (on 37 called pass plays) to zero today on 50; the downside of that this marked the first time the Buffs have ever lost a game when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack; CU is 14-1 since 1972 in such situations ... CU had three sacks, giving the Buffs at least one in 32 of the last 33 games ... Colorado's 582 yards of offense was its first game with 500 since recording 518 against Nebraska in a 65-51 win on Nov. 23, 2007 and its most since Sept. 22, 2007 when it rolled up 634 against Miami-OHio ... CU had 474 yards passing, its first 400-yard game since throwing for 401 against Texas A&M in Boulder on Oct. 8, 2005; it tied for the second most passing yards in CU history, matching the number against San Jose State in 1999 and behind only 533 against NE Louisiana in 1995 ... DT Will Pericak became the first player to block an extra point since DE James Garee batted one away against Clemson in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl (opponents had made 154 in a row, the last miss in 2007; but the enemy had tried 195 PAT kicks without a Buff breaking through to reject one.
