Other Tidbits / Did You Know?

- Romeo Bandison lists as the one person he most would most like to meet as American entrepreneur Russell Simmons, the co-founder of the hip-hop label Def Jam among his many accomplishments.
- Greg Brown scored on his first play at UTEP as a collegian and never came close to scoring again.
- Brian Cabral was the special teams captain of the Super Bowl champion 1985 Chicago Bears; however, he did not appear in the infamous Super Bowl Shuffle song and video recorded that season. He was on hand to participate, but the session was running two hours late and he had to get to another appointment. He let us in on this secret: "It was pretty prophetic; we filmed it in week seven."
- That while the very low-key Ron Collins loves to golf, he was so frustrated in his first Casotti Classic that he actually tossed his golf bag in a creek.
- Bob Foster is a vocalist and has performed the National Anthem quite a few times prior to sporting events.
- Darian Hagan lists the 1991 Orange Bowl (national championship game for CU vs. Notre Dame) as the most memorable sporting event in his life, despite being injured (torn ACL) late in the first half.
- Dan Hawkins said if he hadn't met his wife, Misti, when he did, he says he likely would have been destined to be a "football monk."
- Hawkins' first car is also one he would love to find and buy in original condition: a 1959 Chevy Stepside Slant 6 Automatic Pickup Truck.
- Denver Johnson was already familiar with Ralphie, CU's live mascot, before he came to Boulder. As a graduate assistant on the Oklahoma State coaching staff in 1985, he was wandering on the field, when as he puts it, "I look around and here came a rather large buffalo running toward me with some young people dangling at the end of ropes."
- Eric Kiesau is good friends with Adam Durwitz, the lead singer of the Counting Crows? Durwitz, a Cal-Berkeley grad, always used to go to the Bears' football practices (Eric said he'd miss sound checks to be at some of them).
- Kent Riddle spent six years on the Army staff and some of his greatest memories were the opportunities to hear some of our greatest generals like Norman Schwarzkopf speak in rooms that held less than 100 people.

LATE BIOS

One junior college transfer and several walk-ons joined the program either in camp or after the Colorado State game. Below are bios of the eight players who went through the full August camp and two who joined the team after the CSU game:

17 TONEY CLEMONS, WR

6-2, 205, Jr., TR, New Kensington, Pa. (Valley/Michigan)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—He will sit out due to NCAA transfer rules, but he will practice all season at wide receiver.

AT MICHIGAN (2007, 2008/ Fr., Soph.)— Played in 19 games and made three starts at Michigan in two seasons, earning a varsity letter both his freshman and sophomore campaigns. He caught 12 passes for 106 yards in his career. As a sophomore in 2008, played nine games and made one start, hauling in 11 passes for 101 yards. He also had two rushes for six yards on laterals. He caught his career long pass, a 29-yarder, against Michigan State setting up a key score in that game. As a freshman in 2007, made his first career reception, and only one of the season, against Purdue and the play resulted in a five-yard gain. He also played in the 2008 Capital One Bowl on Jan. 1, 2008.

HIGH SCHOOL—He earned four-star status and was ranked as the No. 10 wide receiver in the country by Scout.com. He was also a four-star prospect by Rivals.com and was ranked the No. 12 receiver in the nation and the No. 3 player in the state of Pennsylvania. In his career, he had 100 receptions for 1,541 yards and 17 touchdowns. On defense, he produced eight interceptions, forced 13 fumbles and posted 217 tackles in his career. He also returned seven kicks for touchdowns, five punts and two kickoffs, in his career. As a senior, he was one of five finalists for the Gatorade Player of the Year in Pennsylvania after hauling in 39 passes for 665 yards and eight touchdowns for Valley High School under coach Troy Hill. He earned All-State honors at both wide receiver and defensive back and was named to the Harrisburg Patriot-News "Platinum 33." He also earned first-team All-Conference and was named to the Fab-22 team by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette his senior season. After his senior season, he was selected to participate in the East-West game in Orlando. As a junior, he caught 43 passes for 666 yards and eight touchdowns and was named All-State and earned All-Conference mention as a wide receiver, defensive back, kick returner and punt returner and he was also named to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Fab-22 team. His sophomore season he tallied 33 catches for 642 yards. He also participated in track and field and in 2006, he also earned two Class AA state championships – in the long hurdles and 110-m high hurdles. He lettered four times in both track and field and basketball, where he owned a career scoring average of 15 points per game.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on a major at Colorado but is interested in becoming a broadcaster.

PERSONAL—Born October 11, 1988 in Pittsburgh. He enjoys writing, reading and making music in his spare time. His brother, Wes, played football at California University (Pa.) and his sisters, Mycah and Mycaiah, both run track at the University of Pittsburgh. His cousin, Steve Breaston, played football at Michigan and is a member of the Arizona Cardinals, and he lists Breaston as his favorite athlete. He is also a cousin of Swin Cash, who won two NCAA championships in basketball at Connecticut. Cash is currently a member of the WNBA's Seattle Storm and was the MVP of the 2009 WNBA All-Star game, scoring an all-star record 22 points in the process and she also owns an Olympic Gold Medal in basketball from Athens in 2004.

89 MARIO CONTE, WR

5-10, 170, Fr., HS, Lakewood, Colo. (Mullen)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Fr.)—Projected as a wide receiver as a true freshman in college; joined the team as an invited walk-on for August drills.

HIGH SCHOOL—He earned honorable mention All-Centennial League honors as a senior when Mullen compiled a 12-1 record and won the 2008

Colorado 5A State Championship. In the title game, he led all players with 12 tackles. On the season, he compiled 91 tackles, including 13 for a loss and one sack. He also had two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble, eight passes broken up and one interception, which he returned 43 yards for a touchdown. He caught seven passes for 123 yards on offense. As a junior, he also earned honorable mention All-Centennial League honors as Mullen compiled an 11-1 mark. He had six interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns, to go with 73 tackles and four pass break-ups. He had 31 tackles and one interception as a sophomore. He lettered four times as Mullen compiled a 46-5 record in his time there under coach Dave Logan, who was an All-American wide receiver for CU in 1975. He also lettered twice in both basketball and lacrosse.

COLORADO FOOTBALL INDIVIDUAL PLAYER NOTES

ANDRE SIMMONS
WIDE RECEIVER
6-3, 210, JR.

- Simmons is listed fourth on the combined "x" and "z" wide receiver grouping for wide receivers on the latest depth chart.
- Simmons' first career reception was a 44-yard toss from Cody Hawkins on the third play of the second half against Colorado State in the season opener.
- Simmons' 44 yard reception against Colorado State is the longest first career reception since Jeremy Bloom's 94 yard touchdown reception from Robert Hodge against Kansas State on Oct. 5, 2002. Hodge-to-Bloom is the longest pass play in CU history.
- Simmons had to complete nine college courses from the time he signed with CU in February of 2009 and when he arrived on Campus in August of 2009.
- Simmons was a highly recruited player coming out of the junior college ranks, as he was preseason first-team All-America selection by The Sporting News prior to his sophomore season at Independence (Kan.) Community College in 2008. He was also rated the No. 35 overall junior college player regardless of position on the Rivals.com top 100.
- In high school, he was a first-team All-State, All-Region and All-Area player as a senior in Blackville-Hilda High School in South Carolina.
- Simmons has a 4-year-old son, Omarion, who lives in South Carolina with his mother, Thomasann Elmore. Omarion was born premature and weighed just two pounds at birth and spent his first nine months of life in the hospital. Simmons' mother agreed to care for Omarion so Simmons and Omarion's mother could continue their educations.
- Simmons son, Omarion, is a source of motivation for him, "Since day one when he was born, he's always been motivating me. I feel like every time I step on the field I do it for him."
- Widely referred to as Dre by teammates and coaches, he's also known as Flo back home in South Carolina.

JIMMY SMITH
CORNERBACK
6-2, 205, JR.

- Smith is listed as the starting right cornerback on the latest depth chart.
- Smith has played in all but two snaps on defense for the Buffs this year (603 of 605, 99.7 percent), second behind Cha'pelle Brown, who has played on all 605.
- Smith had an outstanding performance against Missouri with three pass break-ups and one interception to go along with five tackles while playing all 75 snaps on defense.
- Smith had a highly publicized series in the Texas game with WR Jordan Shipley in which both players were called for penalty, Shipley had a catch and Smith had a break-up on consecutive plays. He finished the UT game with six tackles, all solo and one for a loss, with one fumble recovery and one pass break-up.
- Smith led the Buffs compiling a career-high 12 tackles (nine solo) against Colorado State in the 2009 season opener.
- Smith earned his first career start in 2008 against Iowa State and had a great game, registering nine tackles (eight solo), one of which went for a two-yard loss, two third down stops, four pass break-ups and assisted on the game winning tackle on the last play of the game. The Cyclones were inside the one-yard line and ran an option to the right where Smith and D.J. Dykes tackled Iowa State running back Alexander Robinson for a two yard loss, clinching the 28-24 win for the Buffs.

- Greg Brown, the Defensive Passing Game Coordinator and Secondary coach, who spent 15 years coaching defensive backs in the NFL, has said many times that Smith has the ideal body for his position and has the potential to play in the NFL. Said Brown, "Everybody who's watched us play knows that Jimmy Smith has a world of talent."

RODNEY STEWART
TAILBACK
5-6, 175, SOPH.

- Stewart changed from jersey No. 43 his freshman year to No. 5 this season.
- Stewart is listed atop the depth chart at running and leads the Buffs in rushing with 588 yards on 150 carries this season.
- Stewart has nine touchdowns in the last seven games after scoring two touchdowns in his first 10 games at CU (spanning his freshman season and the first game of 2009).
- Stewart has four 100-yard rushing games in the last seven games after recording three such games as a freshman in 2008, giving him seven career games with 100-plus rushing yards (14th all-time at CU).
- Stewart has three games this season with multiple touchdowns, the most a player has had since Hugh Charles did so in 2005. One of Charles' games he had one rushing and one receiving touchdowns. It marks the first time a running back has scored multiple rushing touchdowns in three or more games since Chris Brown did so in 2002.
- Against Texas A&M, Stewart rushed 20 times for 125 yards and a pair of touchdowns, marking his fourth 100-yard day this season and seventh of his career. His two touchdowns give him nine on the season.
- Against Kansas, Stewart rushed 24 times for 108 yards and two touchdowns. In the game, he surpassed the 1,000-yard plateau for a career becoming the 49th player in school history to accomplish that feat. He was awarded with co-Big 12 offensive player of the week.
- Against Wyoming, Stewart recorded 32 rushes for 127 yards and two touchdowns. The 32 rushes set a new career best and his 127 yards marked the third best mark of his career. It is also the highest mark among all Big 12 players this season.
- At West Virginia, Stewart followed up his Wyoming game with a 21-carry, 105-yard, one-touchdown performance. His touchdown came from 34 yards out, the longest run of his career by 14 yards.
- Stewart is one of just three Big 12 players with four or more 100-yard rushing games this season, along with Daniel Thomas, Kansas State (5) and Alexander Robinson, Iowa State (4).
- Stewart is 8-of-9 (88.9 percent) in his career on 3rd-&-1 runs, including 3-of-4 in 2009.
- Stewart was given the nickname "Speedy" after winning a race as a little kid and the nickname has stuck with him since.
- He has "Googled" his name before, but as he says, "Only that singer guy's name has come up." He has never heard of any of the Scottish singer's songs; of course, Rock and Roll Hall of Famer Rod Stewart hasn't had a No. 1 single since 1993, when Speedy was just 3-years old. (Rod Stewart has had two No. 1 albums in the last five years in his songbook series).
- Colorado coaches discovered Stewart thanks in large part to current CU linebacker Doug Rippy, who told running backs coach Darian Hagan about him when he learned that CU was looking for another running back to add to their 2008 signing class.

- Stewart and Rippey have been good friends for years and learned just before their arrival in Boulder (but after they had been friends for several years) that they are cousins. They are, in fact, first cousins once removed.
- Stewart finished his freshman campaign with three 100-yard rushing performances, which is tied with Lamont Warren for the school record for the most 100-yard performances by a freshman.
- Before Stewart suffered a broken fibula against Texas A&M, he was on pace to break CU's freshman (true or redshirt) rushing record as he recorded 622 yards rushing in just nine games, good for fourth all-time on the freshman rushing chart.
- Hagan's Take: "He is going to be a fan favorite here, he's lighting in a bottle. He's fast and he runs with power for his size. I see him doing some great things here and really being a fun player to watch."
- Texas Coach Mack Brown: "Pound for pound, he's as good as anybody. He's hard to tackle, really strong and has good vision. He's very much like (current San Diego Charger and former K-State RB Darrin Sproles)."

Stewart's Career 100-Yard Rushing Games (7):

- 28-166-0 vs. No. 21 West Virginia, Sept. 18, 2008
- 21-107-0 vs. Florida State (Jacksonville), Sept. 27, 2008
- 29-147-1 vs. Kansas State, Oct. 18, 2008

MARKQUES SIMAS
WIDE RECEIVER
6-2, 215, SOPH.

- Name is pronounced (marcus see-muss).
- Simas is listed second on the combined "x" and "z" wide receiver grouping on the latest depth chart, essentially making him a starter alongside Scotty McKnight.
- Simas has caught multiple passes now in five of the last six games.
- Against Texas A&M, Simas had a break-out game with 7 receptions for 135 yards. It marked his first career 100-yard receiving day and the 135 yards ranks tied for 32nd in CU history. It is also the most by a Buffs since 2004, when both Derek McCoy (6-171) and D.J. Hackett (4-143) had more against Baylor. It is also the sixth-highest total this decade.
- Simas had 7 receptions for 135 yards against Texas A&M after compiling 9 receptions for 107 yards in his first six collegiate games.
- Simas and Hansen hooked up for a 47-yard diving reception in the second quarter that led to the Buffs taking a 10-7 lead. They then hooked up for a 45-yard reception on the game winning drive in the fourth quarter. The 47-yard play was No. 10 on ESPN's SportsCenter's Top 10 plays of the day.
- The two 40-plus yard plays that Simas and Hansen hooked up for against Texas A&M were just the third and fourth offensive plays of 40-plus yards all season, and the first in six games, as the other two came in the first two games of the year against Colorado State and at Toledo.
- At West Virginia, Simas caught his first two career passes, including a touchdown on the last offensive play of the game with just :03 left from 20 yards out.
- Simas saw his first career action against Wyoming in 2009 after missing for various reasons the first 28 games since he first arrived on campus (including redshirting, academics and suspension).
- Simas was the co-recipient of the Offensive Scout Award in 2008, as he maintained a positive attitude despite being ruled academically ineligible. He also won a scout team award as a true freshman in 2007 for the Texas Tech game.
- Simas was ranked as one of the 20 best receivers in the nation coming out of Mira Mesa High School in San Diego by most recruiting publications.

CODY HAWKINS
QUARTERBACK
5-11, 190, JR.

- Hawkins is listed second on the latest depth chart at quarterback.
- Last summer, Hawkins went back to the National ESPN RISE Magazine Elite 11 Quarterback Camp (he participated as a high school rising senior in 2005) to help coach the soon-to-be high school seniors. While at the camp, Hawkins proceeded to win both the accuracy competition and the overall competition over the likes of Mark Sanchez (New York Jets/USC), Chase Daniel (Washington Redskins/Missouri), Juice Williams (Illinois), Colt McCoy (Texas), Zac Robinson (Oklahoma State), Daryll Clark (Penn State) along with the nation's top 11 rated senior high school quarterbacks.
- At Kansas State, Hawkins saw action on two series, at the end of the first half and the end of the game, when the Buffs were in two-minute situations.
- Against Toledo, he completed 30-of-64 passes for 356 yards with four touchdowns. The 64 attempts is a new CU record, surpassing the old record of 54 by Joel Klatt at Kansas on Oct. 11, 2003, and is the most by any player in the Big 12 this season. His 356 yards is a career high and he tied his career high in both touchdowns and interceptions. He also became the fourth Buff to pass for 5,000 career yards against Toledo.

- Hawkins ranks high in several categories on CU's career charts. His career numbers are now 526-of-949 for 5,698 yards with 45 touchdowns. He now ranks first in career touchdown passes, second in career completions, attempts, and touchdowns responsible for, third in passing yards fourth in total offense. (see "Hawkins In The CU Record Book" below for further detail)
- During spring drills, he earned the Eddie Crowder Award for outstanding leadership. In the spring, he completed 44-of-72 passes for 669 yards and 10 touchdowns with no interceptions.
- A football "gym rat," he often times in the off season would spend up to 18 hours a day watching film, throwing the ball or picking the brain of one of CU's coaches.
- Hawkins makes very few mistakes in the red zone, as he has a career ratio of 31-to-5 of touchdowns to interceptions. His ratio in 2009 is 7-to-2.
- Hawkins is one of nine CU quarterbacks to have defeated a top-five ranked team, as he helped lead the Buffs to their 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007.
- Going back to his grade school days, he has always been a quarterback. In organized games, from sixth grade through his senior year as a prep, his teams were a combined 59-0 and he extended that record to 60-0 after defeating Colorado State 31-28 in his first collegiate start in 2007 before the streak ended a week later in a 33-14 loss at Arizona State.
- During the 2008 Iowa State game, (the 22nd of his career), Hawkins came in to start the second half and lead the Buffs to a 28-24 comeback win over Iowa State. In the game he recorded a career best passer rating of 179.95, as he completed 20-of-29 passes for 226 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions.
- On signing day of 2006, Hawkins went to school with a letter of intent for both Boise State and Colorado signed by his mother. Even Dan Hawkins did not know he committed until the letter was faxed to the CU football offices.
- Coach Hawkins said that he believes that former major leaguer Bill Buckner made a real difference when it came to Cody's confidence as a young athlete. He was his baseball coach and the combination of Buckner believing in him (Cody was a pitcher) and the expectations and demands placed on him really had an impact.
- Hawkins received a letter of commendation from athletic director Mike Bohn for his role in assisting an injured biker after a football practice in August. Hawkins, along with Aric Goodman, Scotty McKnight, Kyle Cefalo and volleyball player Becah Fogle happened upon the accident, where senior geology student Jacob Dana was unconscious still clutching the handlebars with his feet still strapped in his pedals.
- Dan Hawkins' Take: "He brings a heck of a work ethic and a lot of credibility. He can stand out there on any given game day and run our offense without anybody saying a word. He is extremely accurate. Does he have a hose? No, but he has a strong enough arm."

Hawkins In CU's Record Book

- Ranks third in career passing yards (5,698 – needs 786 to pass second-place Kordell Stewart and 1,678 to pass Joel Klatt for the CU record)
- Ranks second in career pass attempts (949 – needs 147 to pass Joel Klatt for the CU record)
- Ranks second in career pass completions (526 – needs 141 to pass Joel Klatt for the CU record)
- Ranks first in career passing touchdowns (45)
- Ranks fourth in career total offense (5,585 – needs 224 to pass third-place Darian Hagan; 1,661 to pass second-place Joel Klatt and 2,186 to pass Kordell Stewart for the CU record)
- Ranks second in career touchdowns responsible for (52 –needs three to pass Darian Hagan for the CU record)

DEMETRIUS SUMLER
TAILBACK
5-10, 215, JR.

- Still a junior, but the "old timer" of CU's three-man tailback group with Brian Lockridge and Rodney Stewart and could be the most consistent back of the group. He is currently listed second on the depth chart at tailback.
- Sumler had just one carry against Texas A&M, but it was a big one, as he busted a 7-yard run up the middle for a touchdown to bring the Buffs within 31-28 mid-way through the fourth quarter en route to a 35-34 win. He also caught three receptions for 10 yards.
- Sumler finished his high school career as the San Diego area's career rushing leader.
- Sumler credit's his consistency to being the son of a basketball coach who played point guard for his father. "I had to do everything right as a point guard and that transitioned over to football."
- Hawkins' Take: "He's a blue-collar guy. He never misses a cut; he always maximizes every run, and if there is a crease there he is good at getting leverage and getting back to where he needs to be. You can use him anywhere. He's not a 4.4 guy but he's fast enough. We have total confidence in him. He is a very, very productive player."
- Hagan's Take: "He's the one I go into battle with, when all the chips are down. He's going to do everything well; he's not going to outrun anybody, but you're going to get what you want out of him."

TYLER HANSEN
QUARTERBACK
6-1, 205, SOPH.

- Hansen is listed as the starting quarterback on the latest depth chart.
- Hansen was stellar against Texas A&M in a 35-34 win despite being sacked eight times for the second straight week. He completed 21-of-32 passes for 271 yards and a touchdown while also throwing one interception. Hansen hooked up with Markques Simas for plays of 47-yards and 45-yards, both on critical drives, marking just the third and fourth 40-plus yard plays of the season (and the first two of his career). Hansen finished with 45 rushing yards on 20 attempts, but taking the eight sacks out he gained 105 yards on 12 rushes (8.8 per rush) including a career-long 31 yard scamper on the drive that tied the game at 21 all.
- In his first start of 2009, Hansen led CU to a 34-30 win over No. 17 Kansas. He completed 14-of-25 passes for 175 yards and a touchdown. He gained 64 yards on the ground, but lost 30 on three sacks for 34 net rushing yards and also scored on the ground, the first rushing touchdown of his career.
- Hansen led the Buffs to a fourth-quarter come-from-behind victory over No. 17 Kansas in his first start of 2009. After the Buffs led 24-10, Kansas took a 30-27 lead in the fourth. On that drive, Hansen found TE Riar

Geer for a 29 yard gain on 3rd-and-15 after eluding pressure. He was 2-for-4 passing for 34 yards and rushed twice for nine yards on the drive.

- Hansen saw his redshirt removed by the coaching staff for the second straight season, as he saw his first action in 2009 against Texas (Game 5). He replaced Cody Hawkins and completed 3-of-5 passes for 17 yards. He rushed five times and gained 14 yards but lost 29 on a pair of sacks to finish at -15 for the game.
- Hansen saw his first game experience in 2008 when after six games the CU coaching staff removed his redshirt and he came in the game against Kansas State. He responded, carrying the ball 19 times for 86 yards and also throwing a 21-yard touchdown strike to Scotty McKnight.
- In 2008, Hansen became the 11th true freshman quarterback to take snaps since 1972.
- The son of a coach, Hansen's father, Rick, also played quarterback at San Diego State (1978-83) and his mother, Pamela, was an All-American sprinter and hurdler for the Aztecs.
- In 2008, Hansen set the school record for the most season rushing yards by a true freshman quarterback with 261 in just six games; the previous best was 177 by Marc Walters in 1986 in five games; Darian Hagan also had 175 in five games in 1988.
- Hansen is a perfect example of how the so-called recruiting experts are exposed. Colorado was on him from the get-go when he was a 1-star prospect by the services as late as June 23, 2007; CU offers him and then Michigan and Iowa get interested as is often the case when someone is offered; and just six days later he was a 3-star guy without playing as much as a flag football game or likely even backgammon.
- Hansen throws right handed but he writes and is otherwise left handed.
- Kansas Coach Mark Mangino: "It's unfortunate they picked this week to take his redshirt off, but I think they found their quarterback, that's for sure. He's a heck of a player. He made the difference tonight in my opinion."

MICHAEL SIPILI
INSIDE LINEBACKER
6-1, 240, JR.

- Last name is pronounced (sih-pill-E).
- Sipili is listed atop the depth chart at the mike (inside) linebacker spot along with Marcus Burton on the latest depth chart.
- Sipili has started the last four games for the Buffs and has seen action on 127 defensive snaps in those four games.
- Against Texas A&M, Sipili recorded eight tackles on just 29 snaps played. He had a tackle for loss, one for zero and a third down stop.
- Against Missouri, Sipili nearly doubled his season tackle total by leading the Buffs with 10 tackles while playing on just 31 snaps defensively. In the first five games of the season playing 112 combined snaps, he had 11 tackles.
- At K-State, Sipili played in 37 snaps on defense and had four tackles and one quarterback pressure.
- Sipili returned for the Toledo game after missing the Colorado State game. He suffered a knee injury near the end of Spring camp and is nearing 100 percent.
- His reputation for being a hard hitter has turned his last named into a verb. Early in 2007 fall camp, coaches were wincing when some players were getting "Sipili'd," so they told him to let up a little. In a drill without pads, Sipili hit senior running back Byron Ellis so hard, Hawkins said he thought he had broken Ellis' collarbone. Fortunately Ellis was OK. But make no mistake, when players are in pads Sipili has the green light.

- Sipili earned honorable mention Freshman All-America in 2006 after seeing action in 10 games.
- Sipili loves to dance and as he states it, "I get down on the dance floor."

PATRICK MAHNKE
SAFETY
6-1, 205, SOPH.

- Mahnke is listed third at the free safety spot on the latest depth chart.
- Mahnke sprained his ankle just two days before the season opener against Colorado State and missed the first game of the season. He returned for the second game against Toledo and played all 66 snaps on defense, registering seven tackles and a pass break-up.
- Mahnke played in all 12 games as a freshman including one start in the season finale against Nebraska, and responded with nine tackles (four solo) with one third down stop and one sack.
- Mahnke appeared to have made the play to push CU into a bowl game when he sacked Nebraska quarterback Joe Ganz for a 15-yard loss on second down with a little over two minutes left, but alas NU trotted out Alex Henery to boot the game-winning 57-yard field goal for the win.
- Mahnke was the first verbal commitment for the Buffs in the 2008 recruiting class.

PLACEKICKER
5-10, 190, JR.

- Goodman is the starting kicker and kickoff specialist. He has made good on 24-of-25 point after touchdowns and on 9-of-13 field goals this season. Goodman has hit five straight field goal attempts and if you take out his 1-of-4 performance at West Virginia, he is 8-of-9 in the Buffs other eight games this season.
- Goodman hit both of his field goal attempts, both from 37 yards out, against Texas A&M and he hit all three of his PAT attempts, including the final one with 2:04 left that put the Buffs up 35-34.
- Goodman was listed as 50-50 prior to the Kansas game due to an abdominal strain. He played and had a great game, connecting on both field goal attempts (39 and 45 yards) and hit all four of his PAT tries. He also had seven kickoffs and five resulted in touchbacks including three that sailed through the end zone. The two that were returned were both returned from the goal line.
- Goodman has also started punting more often in practice and is now listed second at that position behind Matt DiLallo.
- Goodman made good on the longest field goal of his career with a 54-yard boot in the second quarter of the Colorado State game to give the Buffs their first points of the 2009 season. Goodman's previous long was a 52-yarder against San Diego State during his time at Wyoming. At CU, his career long was a 37-yard boot last season.
- Goodman has three times won the College Football Performance Awards National Kickoff Specialist of the Week after his performance with kickoff duties against Colorado State in the 2009 season opener and again against Kansas. He also earned honorable mention status against Texas A&M. The CFPA is scientific and weekly winners are calculated, not voted on. The kickoff specialist variables include kickoff distance, touchback performance and return yardage.

- In 2008, Goodman earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors after he kicked a 25-yard field goal in overtime to beat No. 21 West Virginia, 17-14. He was awarded a scholarship postgame by coach Dan Hawkins.
- After that kick to beat West Virginia, he struggled and missed his next eight kicks (unfortunately setting a school record), although two of those misses hit the uprights and the combined distance he missed by was likely less than 20 feet.
- Goodman has a twin sister (Ally) who is a junior soccer player for the CU Soccer. He also has younger sisters (also twins) who are freshmen at CU, meaning there are two sets of Goodman twins enrolled at Colorado.
- Goodman's father (Curtis) was a placekicker at the University of Hawai'i from 1975-78.
- Goodman received a letter of commendation from athletic director Mike Bohn for his role in assisting an injured biker after a football practice in August. Goodman, along with Cody Hawkins, Scotty McKnight, Kyle Cefalo and volleyball player Becah Fogle happened upon the accident, where senior geology student Jacob Dana was unconscious still clutching the handlebars with his feet still strapped in his pedals. Said Goodman, "I feel like that's the standard and any student would follow it. We were put in that situation and it wasn't anything extraordinary that we did."

MATT DILALLO
PUNTER
6-1, 205, SR.

- Last name is pronounced (di-lah-low).
- DiLallo is just the second player in school history to be the regular punter for four seasons as he has had all 46 punt attempts in 2009. He joins Stan Koleski (1973-76) as CU's four-year punters.
- DiLallo has five punts of 50-plus yards and nine punts inside the opponent 20 this season, climbing the CU charts. His 57 punts inside the 20 ranks second-most in CU history behind John Torp's 65.
- DiLallo had a career day against Wyoming. He had the three longest punts of the season (54, 55 and 57), all three of which came as CU was pinned inside its own 20 yard line. He had one other inside the opponent 20 yard line and in all he had six punts and averaged 47.7 yards per boot.
- DiLallo ranks ninth in the Big 12 in punting average (39.0), a mark that's good for 78th nationally.
- DiLallo was ranked the No. 15 punter in the country by Phil Steele's College Football and will be nominated for the Ray Guy Award.
- In 2006, DiLallo was only the third true freshman to ever handle the punting chores at CU, and he set a school frosh record for the longest punt with a 73-yard kick against Colorado State in Denver and earned unanimous first-team Freshman All-America honors.
- DiLallo was mentored by kicking/punting guru Tony Bugeja, a former placekicker for the Osceola Ghost Riders of the World Indoor Football League. DiLallo is from the Palm Beach area where Bugeja also coached soccer and did volunteer instructional work with local punters and kickers.

- DiLallo enjoys cooking, which he often does for teammates. He was the top choice among players when they were asked which teammate they would want to cook for them.

JASON ESPINOZA
WIDE RECEIVER
5-8, 175, SOPH.

- Espinoza is listed sixth on the latest depth chart at the combined "x" and "z" receiver grouping. He is also atop the depth chart at punt returner.
- Espinoza didn't play at wide receiver in each of the last six games with a broken thumb he suffered prior to the West Virginia game during practice. Coaches expect that he could return and see some action at wide receiver against Iowa State.
- Espinoza's often goes by the nickname of "Espy."
- Espinoza teamed with Scotty McKnight against Toledo as the duo became just the seventh in CU history to both have 100-plus receiving yards in a game. Espinoza had eight catches for 109 yards and a touchdown while McKnight had 11 grabs for 114 yards and a touchdown. It marked the 12th time in CU history that two receivers have surpassed the 100 yard plateau in the same game. The last time the feat was accomplished was October 4, 2003, when Derek McCoy (6 receptions, 171 yards, 2 touchdowns) and D.J. Hackett (4-143-0) accomplished the feat.
- Espinoza reached the 100 yard mark before Scotty McKnight in the Toledo game, officially marking the 100th 100-yard receiving game in CU history. He finished with eight grabs for 109 yards and he recorded his first collegiate touchdown reception.
- He won the Iron Buffalo Award for the receivers in the spring, presented to the player at each position who represents hard work, dedication, toughness and total poundage lifted in the weight room.
- Espinoza claims that, even though he says that he's built more like a wrestler, he's actually a good basketball player.

ANTHONY WRIGHT
WIDE RECEIVER/CORNERBACK
6-0, 190, SOPH.

- Wright was listed as high as fifth on the depth chart at the combined "x" and "z" wide receiver grouping on the depth chart but is currently listed as doubtful with a knee injury.
- In an attempt to get their best players on the field, Wright made the switch from cornerback to wide receiver towards the end of fall camp, as the Buffs found themselves with a lot of talent and experience at corner and in need of some depth at wide receiver.
- Wright made his first catch of the season against Toledo with a 42 yard grab in the fourth quarter. He also had a potential 56-yard reception called back due to a holding penalty earlier in the game.
- Wright's uncle, Michael Richardson, was teammates with current CU Associate Head Coach and linebackers coach Brian Cabral on the 1985 Chicago Bears Super Bowl Champion team. Cabral was a linebacker and special team's captain and Richardson was a defensive back.

- Wright made his collegiate debut on the opening kickoff CU's 2008 season opener against intrastate rival Colorado State.

TRAVIS SANDERSFELD
SAFETY
6-0, 205, SOPH.

- Sandersfeld is listed second on the depth chart at the strong safety spot and sees extensive action on special teams units.
- Against Texas A&M, Sandersfeld played on 17 defensive snaps and recorded his first three defensive tackles of his career. In the first five games he's seen action on defense, he totaled 19 plays without any tackles.
- Sandersfeld saw his first action on defense in 2009 at Kansas State and was on the field for one snap.
- Sandersfeld has been CU's special teams' star, accumulating 32 special teams points so far this season, the most on the squad. The 32 points is also the second most in CU history since the Buffs began tracking special teams points in 1987 (chart below).
- Sandersfeld now has 45 career special teams points, 11th most in CU history (chart below).
- Sandersfeld had five points against Toledo with two tackles inside the 20, one forced fumble and had two knockdown blocks on returns. He had three points on one play with his tackle inside the 20 and forced fumble of a kick return in the third quarter of the Toledo game.
- Sandersfeld was named the Iron Buffalo Award winner for the defensive backs in the spring; it is presented to the player at each position who represents hard work, dedication, toughness and total poundage lifted in the weight room.
- Sandersfeld was placed on scholarship prior to the start of fall practices.

BRIAN LOCKRIDGE
TAILBACK
5-7, 180, SOPH.

- Lockridge is listed third on the depth chart at running back behind Rodney Stewart and Demetrius Sumler. He is also used as a wide receiver in certain situations and is listed fifth in the combined "x" and "z" wide receiver groupings there, as well. He is also listed as the starting kick returner and has returned 22 kickoffs the last five games.
- Lockridge has 31 touches that have combined for 561 yards (18.1 yards per touch), which includes nine touches for 57 yards offensively and a touchdown.
- He scored a touchdown on a nine-yard run, his only of the game, against Colorado State in the 2009 season opener. It marked his second career rushing touchdown. He also had his first career reception against the Rams, as well.
- Lockridge missed the 2008 season recovering from surgery to repair a sports hernia he suffered in the Iowa State game in 2007. He didn't initially alert the training staff to his sports hernia, running backs coach Darian Hagan noticed he was a little less explosive than normal.
- In 2007, he suffered a concussion in practice the Tuesday before the Oklahoma game, but didn't tell trainers until two days later. He was held out of the OU game but played every game the rest of the way.
- In 2007, he had 14 carries for 90 yards and a touchdown against Miami (Ohio) with two potential touchdowns called back: a 9-yarder which was originally called a touchdown but then re-spotted at the 1-yard line and a 56-yarder voided because of a holding call.
- Lockridge was a published model prior to his arrival at CU and attended the prestigious John Robert Powers Acting School. He did photo shoots and had some photos published when he was younger in "things like Sears and JC Penny's catalogs." Abercrombie & Fitch was eyeing him for a shoot to promote its 2010 spring line, but he is unable to continue his modeling career at CU due to NCAA regulations. He calls his acting and modeling career more of a "hobby" than a serious career pursuit.
- Lockridge is also an accomplished musician. He self-taught himself starting when he was 5-years old and he can write his own music. At the Independence Bowl, he started playing the piano for teammates and actually got some tips from passers-by (He politely declined to accept the tips).
- Lockridge started his own clothing line in Orange County with friends from school – the clothing line is called S.F.C. (Stay Fresh Crew).
- Fast Food Nation: Lockridge has a problem a lot of Americans would love to have: he has to eat fast food. In high school, his body fat index was too low and he would cramp up all the time; he even tore both of his hamstrings because his body was too tense. After one workout, his whole body cramped up and he was basically paralyzed from the neck down. He was given three IVs before he could move again. Doctors told him that he was eating too healthy. He began taking fish oil pills, and now before games or hard workouts he eats fast food—although he doesn't like it—and hasn't had cramps since.

Hawkins' Take:

- "He has a lot of speed, but he also has a different style in that he'll pour it up in there and has no trepidation about that, he'll just throw a rock on the gas pedal and go. He's kind of like an energizer bunny, the guy just has a tremendous spirit about him."

- The veteran of a young receiver corps (the only current Buff who lettered at the position in both 2007 and '08), McKnight was ranked as the No. 43 receiver in the nation by Phil Steele's College Football.
- McKnight is listed first on the depth chart at the combined "x" and "z" grouping.
- McKnight has played in 33 career games and started 22. He is one of seven active Buffs to have 20 or more career starts and just one of two that's not a senior.
- McKnight has career numbers of 143 receptions for 1,608 yards and 12 touchdowns and he ranks in the top 10 in school history in all three categories. (See McKnight in the CU record book below).
- McKnight has caught a pass in each of his 33 (34 including the post season) career games, a new school record, surpassing Charles E. Johnson's 27 such games between 1991-93.
- McKnight finished the Missouri game with 9 receptions for 104 yards including 8 for 96 in the second half. He moved from sixth to third in career receptions at CU and became CU's all-time receptions leader by players through their junior year of eligibility in CU history.
- McKnight picked up a Demetrius Sumler fumble at the two yard line and dove into the end zone against Wyoming. That score was officially tabulated as a rushing touchdown.
- McKnight recorded career highs with 11 receptions and 114 yards against Toledo and also caught a touchdown pass. It marked his second career 100-yard game and first since his first game as a Buff against Colorado State in 2007.
- McKnight suffered a concussion against Colorado State on an apparent helmet-to-helmet hit in the third quarter. He came back in the game and scored a touchdown late in the contest, the 10th touchdown of his career as he became the 12th player in CU history with 10 or more touchdown receptions.
- McKnight was credited with a fumble in the Colorado State game after replay overturned the call on the field. It was McKnight's first fumble of his career on his 98th touch and came on an apparent illegal helmet-to-helmet hit in which he suffered a concussion.
- McKnight earned the John Mack Award in 2008 as the team's most outstanding offensive player.
- McKnight led the team in receiving in both his freshman and sophomore seasons, becoming the first former walk-on to lead the team in receiving in consecutive seasons. He is accomplishing the feat for the third straight season as the leads CU in receptions and receiving yards in 2009.
- McKnight has proven to be a man of firsts as he has scored CU's first touchdown of the season in both his freshman and sophomore campaign. If that wasn't enough he was also the recipient of both Cody Hawkins' and Tyler Hansen's first career touchdown passes.
- He attended an Elite 11 Quarterback Camp in Mission Viejo before his senior year of high school, where he shagged balls, caught passes and struck up a friendship with future teammate Cody Hawkins.
- McKnight's father, Scott, was a college teammate of Dan Hawkins at UC Davis.

- McKnight is a close friend of New York Jets first-round pick Mark Sanchez, as Sanchez has attended at least one CU game in each of the last three seasons.

McKnight In CU's Record Book:

- Ranks third in career receptions (143 – needs 10 pass second place Phil Savoy)
- Ranks seventh in career receiving yards (1,608 – needs 424 to pass six place Javon Green)
- Ranks tied for seventh in career receiving touchdowns (12–Joe Klopfenstein, needs two to tie Phil Savoy for sixth place)

McKnight's Career 100-Yard Receiving Games (3):

- 8-106-1 vs. Colorado State (Denver), Sept. 1, 2007
- 11-114-1 at Toledo, Sept. 11, 2009
- 9-104-0 vs. Missouri, Oct. 31, 2009

McKnight In The Rankings (overall):

- 6.00 receptions per game (6th Big 12; t-33rd NCAA)
- 66.8 receiving yards per game (8th Big 12; 60th NCAA)
- 2 100-yard receiving games (t-9th Big 12)

McKnight In The Rankings (Big 12 games only):

- 5.0 receptions per game (10th Big 12)
- 1 100-yard receiving game (t-9th Big 12)

ARTHUR JAFFEE
CORNERBACK
5-11, 205, SOPH.

- Jaffee is a force on special teams for the Buffs and is second on the team with 23 points on the season. He is listed third on the depth chart at the left cornerback spot. He also made his way onto the depth chart at kick returner and is currently listed third there.
- Jaffee returned his first two kickoffs of the year against Missouri, combining for 68 yards with both returns going for 30 or more yards (30 and 38).
- Jaffee recorded six special teams' points against Colorado State in the 2009 season opener. He had two tackles – both inside the opponent 20 yard line – and two knock down blocks to open the 2009 season.
- Jaffee's middle name is Pendragon, and there is a story behind his unique middle name. His mother would read to him from King Arthur before he was born...the Jaffee's are primarily Italian, but when Arthur was born he had light skin and red hair. So his mother knew he was a king and gave him the middle name Pendragon.
- Jaffee enjoys both surfing and wakeboarding.

JALIL BROWN
CORNERBACK
6-1, 205, JR.

- Brown is listed second at the left cornerback spot on the latest depth chart and is the starting left cornerback when the Buffs open in nickel formation (as has happened every game this season) as Cha'pelle Brown moves to the nickel spot.
- Brown has two interceptions this season, ranking tied for 6th in the Big 12 and 95th nationally.
- Brown played in 67 of 70 snaps against Texas A&M defensively and has played in all but 10 snaps (396-of-406) in the last six games combined.
- Against Texas A&M, Brown led CU with a career-high 15 tackles and three pass break-ups. He had one tackle for zero, two third down stops and one quarterback hurry. The 15 tackles ties for the most by a Buff this season.

- Brown played perhaps his best game in CU's 34-30 win over No. 17 Kansas. He recorded an interception for the second straight game and had a team-best three pass break-ups. He broke up the game's second-to-last pass play setting up teammate Cha'pelle Brown's PBU on the last play of the game to preserve the victory.
- Brown has three career interceptions, two in the last three games, and he has picked off Colt McCoy twice and Todd Reesing once. Both are candidates for the Davey O'Brien Trophy given to the nation's best quarterback.
- Against Texas, Brown recorded his second career pick with both to that point against Colt McCoy. His first came last year (his first career pick) and he returned that one 57 yards.
- Brown had a stellar game against Wyoming. Playing all but two snaps on defense, he recorded five tackles (four solo) and had two third down stops, a quarterback pressure, his first career fumble recovery, one pass break-up and one touchdown saving tackle, as well.
- Brown was a special teams' standout in 2007 and '08. He had 10 special teams' points against Missouri alone, and led the team with 31 points on the season; that tied for the second most points since CU began tracking beginning points in 1987. Against the Tigers, he had three solo tackles, an assisted tackle inside-the-20, two knockdown blocks and three forced fair catches.
- In 2008 on special teams, Brown led the Buffs with 25 points. He has seen more limited special teams action in 2009 with his heightened role on defense, but he has 59 career special teams points, which is good for fifth most in CU history.
- Brown made his collegiate debut in 2007 against CSU, playing on special teams. As the season has progressed, he has really improved his ST play (he's one of the gunners). He was named CU's special teams' player of the week for the Texas Tech game.
- The last addition to Hawkins' first recruiting class, he was largely overlooked in the recruiting process because he was home-schooled and it was difficult for coaches to track down all of his necessary academic records.

RAY POLK
SAFETY
6-1, 210, FR.

- Polk is listed as the starting strong safety on the latest depth chart.
- In his first two games after being named the starter at strong safety, Polk responded by compiling 24 tackles (14 solo) and one third down stop.
- In his first start of the season at strong safety (second of the season) at Kansas State, Polk led CU with 15 tackles (nine solo) and also had a third-down stop. He played all 60 snaps on defense for the Buffs, as well.

- Polk's 15 tackles at Kansas State were the most by a CU player since Jeff Smart had 15 at Nebraska in 2008 and the most by a defensive back since Ryan Walters had 16 tackles against Iowa State in 2008.
- In his first game his redshirt freshman year against Colorado State in 2009, Polk started at safety (for the injured Pat Mahnke) and responded with six tackles (two solo, one for a loss).
- Polk came to CU as the nation's No. 11 running back prospect, but moved to safety after redshirting his true freshman season in 2008. He missed spring practices with surgeries on both shoulders.
- Polk was teammates with CU offensive lineman Blake Behrens in high school, as both attended Brophy Prep in the Phoenix area.
- Polk is no stranger to defense despite this being his first collegiate season playing on that side of the ball. He made the game-winning interception to secure a state championship in 2005 for Brophy Prep.
- Polk is often called "Ray Ray" by his teammates as his full name is Raymond Ray Polk.
- He logged 70 hours of community service at the Upward Foundation, where he helps mentally challenged kids.
- His father (Raymond) played cornerback for Oklahoma State and was drafted by the Los Angeles Raiders in 1985.
- He chose CU over a number of other Division I-A schools, including Oklahoma State where his father's uncle (Curtis Looper) is the running backs coach.

- First name is pronounced (shuh-pell)
- Brown is listed as the starting left cornerback on the latest depth chart and is the Buffs' nickel back when situations call for it.
- First-team preseason All-Big 12 by Phil Steele's College Football.
- Brown is the only Buff to have played all 535 defensive snaps through the first eight games of the 2009 season.
- Brown has played in 45 career games (43 on defense), tied for the most among active players. He has also started 32 games, second most among active players and the most on the defensive side of the ball. His streak of 23 consecutive starts ranks second among active players.
- Brown now has 227 career tackles and he is one of just 15 defensive backs in school history to record 200-plus tackles in a career and now ranks 12th on that list.
- With his first pass break-up of 2009 against Kansas (on the game's last play in the end zone to preserve a 34-30 win), Brown now has 25 career pass break-ups, tied with Alfred Williams for 11th most in school history. Brown had a seven game drought without a pass break-up. Technically, he didn't have a PBU in the 60 minutes of action against Kansas, either, as it came on the game's final play after time expired.
- Brown has been effective putting pressure on the quarterback and he ranks tied for second on the team with three sacks and also has two quarterback pressures through eight games in 2009.
- Against Kansas, Brown came up with a huge play as he knocked down a Todd Reesing pass in the end zone as time expired to preserve a CU 34-30 victory.
- Brown led the Buffs' defense with eight tackles in the Wyoming game. He had five solo stops and one tackle for a loss, as well.
- Earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from the Associated Press in 2008 after starting all 12 games. He started at right cornerback and then moved to the nickel slot when five defensive backs were used and responded with 84 tackles (58 solo), 14 third down stops, 10 pass break-ups and two interceptions.
- In 2007, Brown played in a team-high 87 plays from scrimmage against Missouri, even though he often lined up against Missouri's tight ends, who at 6-6, were 11 inches taller than him. He recorded a team-high 12 total tackles (11 solo).

- Brown served as the team's nickel corner during his true freshman and sophomore seasons, where he saw a lot of action with the number of spread offenses the Buffs face in the Big 12.
- He briefly switched to wide receiver during the 2007 offseason before returning to the secondary.
- His third career interception was the game winner against Eastern Washington (2008), he returned the pick 27 yards for a touchdown with 1:44 remaining in the game—giving CU their first lead and the eventual win.
- The interception was also the first interception returned for a touchdown in school history that was late in a game and proved to be the game winning touchdown.
- While Brown may not be the tallest player on the field, he makes up for it in overall athleticism. Many players and coaches have noted that he has excellent 'hops' as he can dunk a basketball.
- Greg Brown's Take: "He's an old school warrior. A hard-nosed tackler, great ball skills and a huge leader for our defense. He's a smart ballplayer who has got natural instincts and great vision who knows what's coming. Some might glance at him size-wise and might dismiss him, but he'll tackle you."

- Major is listed third on the depth chart at the will (inside) linebacker spot on the latest depth chart behind seniors Jeff Smart and Shaun Mohler.
- Coach Brian Cabral expected Major to begin to work his way back on the field as the season wore on and he saw some action on special teams against Toledo and then saw his first defensive action of his career against Wyoming.
- Major played just under half of the defensive snaps against Wyoming in his first collegiate defensive action and responded with three tackles, a third down stop, a quarterback pressure and a quarterback chase down.

- Major was considered by most as the top high school senior in the state of Colorado (over 50 scholarship offers from around the nation) in 2007. He was a Parade All-American and Colorado's Gatorade Player of the Year.
- Major had worked his way into the second-team on the depth chart just a week into his true freshman fall camp before he went down with a torn ACL in a non-contact drill on August 13, 2007, forcing him to miss the entire season.

PATRICK DEVENNY
TIGHT END
6-3, 240, SR.

- Last name pronounced (duh-vain-E).
- Devenny is listed second on the latest depth chart at the tight end spot. The Buffs often times use double-tight end formations and have split out Devenny in the formation, as well.
- Devenny has had a flair for the dramatic in 2009, as his last two touchdown receptions have been spectacular. Against Texas A&M, his one-handed catch with 2:04 left gave CU a 35-34 victory (after the PAT). Against Texas, CU's first touchdown was an acrobatic Devenny catch in the first quarter.
- Devenny's lone catch against Texas A&M was a huge one. He caught a 22-yard pass down the middle from Tyler Hansen with just 2:04 left to tie the game at 34-34 before Aric Goodman's PAT gave CU a 35-34 lead that the Buffs would hold on to.
- Devenny caught CU's first touchdown pass against Texas, an acrobatic catch on 3rd-and-21 from the 25 yard line. It was his longest career reception.
- Devenny had four catches for 57 yards at West Virginia in 2009 setting new career highs in both categories. He caught three passes for 41 yards on the game's final drive, shortly after he was attended to on the field for having the wind knocked out of him. Devenny has dry heaving and had flash backs of being "that guy on national TV that pukes on the field."
- Devenny was originally a quarterback for the Buffs but switched to tight end, and then back to quarterback when injuries dictated so before returning to tight end where he has seen all of his game action.
- With his touchdown reception against Toledo, Devenny became one of just 10 tight ends in school history to catch touchdown passes in three different seasons. Current teammate Riar Geer is on the list as one of three to catch a touchdown in four seasons in CU history.
- Devenny caught 14 passes for 116 yards and two touchdowns in 2008 and prior to that, his only career reception was a three-yard touchdown in 2007.

RYAN DEEHAN
TIGHT END
6-5, 245, SOPH.

- Deehan is listed third on the depth chart at the tight end spot and second at the fullback spot. CU's full backs and tight ends are interchangeable.
- Deehan matched his career best with three receptions at Kansas State, compiling 18 yards on those grabs.
- Deehan started and had a career-best three receptions for 20 yards against Colorado State to open the 2009 season.

- Deehan made his collegiate debut in the season opener against Colorado State his true freshman season (2008). Deehan made his first start four games later as he got the call against Texas.
- Deehan recorded his first career touchdown on a seven-yard grab against Eastern Washington (2008); it was his second career game. With that touchdown, Deehan became the first true freshman tight end to record a receiving touchdown in 25 years (Jon Embree, 10/8/83 against Missouri).
- He played in all 12 games in 2008 and made six starts.
- Deehan's family lost their home in Poway in October 2007 to the Witch Creek Fire, one of several massive wildfires spurred by the Santa Ana winds that devastated Southern California. They were able to move many possessions to his father's office ahead of the blaze.
- Riddle's On Deehan: "Ryan is a big, physical and well-developed kid. He comes from a great program. He can run really well, he can make plays down field and he can make plays after the catch. Beyond that he is a very strong and physical blocker and knows how to work in the off-season."

JAKE BEHRENS
FULLBACK
6-0, 240, SR.

- Behrens is listed as the starting fullback on the latest depth chart and whether he starts or not depends on the position grouping used on the first play of the game.
- Behrens caught a 14-yard pass against Texas in 2009, marking his career long reception.
- Behrens made his first career start against Kansas State in 2008 and played in all 12 games that season.
- Behrens first two receptions in his career—for a total of 3 yards—went for touchdowns. His first career reception was a 1-yard touchdown from Cody Hawkins to pull the Buffs within seven points of the Wildcats in the second quarter of their 2007 matchup. His second career reception came against Eastern Washington, and was good for a 2-yard touchdown grab.
- Behrens TD catch somersault-flip vs. Texas was the No. 6 play on Sports Center's Top 10 Plays of the weekend (NFL, MLB, CFB, Soccer, Golf, etc.). It was the No. 2 college football play.
- He has finished his coursework in Finance and is currently taking classes in Accounting. The programs are concurrent and when done, he will have both his B.S. and master's degrees. Always a good student, he had a 4.0 in high school, scored 1280 on his SAT and earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 in 2008 and honorable mention academic All-Big 12 in 2007.
- Behrens has made a name for himself as a student, as in the summer before the 2008 season Behrens went to London for four weeks for and international finance internship through CU's business school. Behrens also graduated high school with an International Baccalaureate (IB) Program degree; it is the equivalent to taking all Advanced Placement (AP) courses all four years of high school and adding 150 hours of community service and a 4,000-word work of original research. The IB program earned Behrens 24 hours of college credit prior to arriving at CU and helped him graduate with a degree in finance in just three years. He is currently working towards a master's in accounting.
- Riddle's Take: "He has improved as much as anybody in the program over the last three years. He's a reliable receiver, a good blocker and we can hand him the ball on occasion. He's in tune with the offense and what we're trying to get done."

BENJAMIN BURNEY
CORNERBACK
5-11, 195, SR.

- Burney made the gradual move from cornerback to safety and is listed as the starting strong safety as well as second at right cornerback on the latest depth chart.
- Burney is an All-American and All-Big 12 candidate in 2009.
- Burney has two interceptions this season, one he returned for a touchdown against Missouri. He ranks tied for 9th in the Big 12 and 95th nationally in interceptions.
- Burney has played every snap in six of the last seven games, with the exception being that he missed 12 plays against Missouri while he was in the locker room getting his shoulder checked out. He did return in the Missouri game and then played all 70 snaps against Texas A&M.
- Burney has played in 44 career games (34 on defense) and started 22. He is one of seven active players to have started 20 or more career games and his 44 games played ranks third most among active players.
- Burney has forced two fumbles the last five games.
- Burney had three tackles against Missouri while playing on 63 of the 75 defensive snaps, missing 12 plays with a shoulder injury. He made a big play by returning an interception 78 yards for a touchdown.
- At Kansas State, Burney recorded seven tackles, had a quarterback chase down and a pass break-up.
- At West Virginia, Burney recorded four tackles, including one for a loss, and had one third down stop, one quarterback hurry (the first of his career) and one forced fumble.
- Against Wyoming, Burney and had a great game with five tackles (three solo and one for a loss). He also had one third down stop, one forced fumble and one pass break-up.
- Burney responded well to his first action in over a year and he recorded one third down stop and had an interception against Colorado State in the 2009 season opener, his third career pick.
- Burney redshirted in 2008 after undergoing five surgeries to mend chronic injuries to both of his shoulders, a wrist and a knee.
- Burney started all 13 games in 2007, one of only eight players to start every game for the Buffs that year despite playing through multiple injuries that would need surgery after the season ended. He started opposite of Terrence Wheatley, who was a two-time first team All-Big 12 cornerback and a second round pick of the New England Patriots.
- He started his first career game at cornerback against CSU (he started two games at free safety in 2006), playing all 83 snaps from scrimmage on defense.
- A two-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 selection after his sophomore and junior seasons.
- His father, Jacob, was the defensive line coach for the Denver Broncos from 2002-09.
- Burney has lived in nine different states: while living in North Carolina, he helped out with the Special Olympics and taught math and reading to underprivileged children at elementary schools.
- One of Burney's nicknames is "The Last Super Saiyan." He gave the nickname to himself because he "loved Dragon Ball Z growing up and my hair is similar to those guys and slightly blonde at the tips." According to wikipedia, A Saiyan in Dragon Ball is a fictionally humanoid extraterrestrial race that are naturally aggressive and the strongest warriors in the fictions universe.

NICK KASA
DEFENSIVE END
6-7, 270, FR.

- Last name is pronounced (cah-suh).
- After returning from a knee injury (partially torn MCL) and playing in four games in the middle of the season, Kasa missed the Missouri game is and doubtful for the rest of the season with an illness.
- In his four games of action, Kasa played 47 snaps on defense and compiled two tackles (both solo), one of which was for a loss.
- Kasa earned All-American honors as a senior in high school and participated in the U.S. Army All-American all-star game in San Antonio. EA Sports selected him to its All-America second team.

JEFF SMART
INSIDE LINEBACKER
6-0, 225, SR.

- Smart is listed atop the depth chart at the will (inside) linebacker position.
- Smart is currently ranked 18th in school history in tackles with 282 career stops.
- Smart has played in 44 career games (37 on defense), tied for third most among active players. His 30 starts ranks tied for third most by active players and his 30 consecutive starts is the most on the squad.
- Smart had 11 tackles, all solo, at Kansas State. It was the fourth time in seven games he has reached double figures in tackles and he has had at least seven stops in all seven games this season. He also had one third down stop, one quarterback chase down and one fumble recovery.
- Smart led the Buffs with 11 tackles at Texas and always has a knack to be near the ball at the end of each play. He has three games with 10-plus tackles this season, including two straight games, and seven or more tackles in all five games.
- Smart had a solid game against Colorado State in the 2009 season opener, coming up with nine tackles (six solo) with one sack and one QB pressure along with one interception. It was his first career interception.
- Smart recorded his 200th career tackle against Colorado State in the season opener, becoming the 57th player in school history to accomplish that feat.
- Smart is tied for 38th all-time in career tackles with 248. He is just two tackles away from becoming the 29th player in school history with 250 or more tackles in a career.
- Smart was voted as and named one of three team captains for the 2009 season.
- Smart is the first CU captain from Boulder since linebacker Barry Remington served in the capacity as both a junior and senior for the 1985 and 1986 seasons. He was a graduate of Fairview High; the last two from Boulder High were linebacker Phil Irwin (1970) and All-America tailback Bobby Anderson (1969). Irwin's son, Heath, also played at BHS and was an offensive guard as a senior in 1996 and served as a captain on occasion when they were appointed each game between 1995 and 1997.

- Smart is just the third full-time captain that started as a walk-on.
- Smart earned second-team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2008.
- Smart, a former walk-on, made his first career start in 2007 against Miami (Ohio) after being placed on scholarship following the Florida State game.
- After the 2007 Independence Bowl Coach Hawkins was watching game film and continued to be wowed by plays that consensus All-American and Jordon Dizon was making. The only problem was that many of those plays, were being made by Smart (45), not Dizon (44).
- In taking over for Dizon in 2008, Smart has also taken over the role as the team's leading tackler, he finished the season with 118 tackles.
- Smart recently figured out a connection to new outside linebacker coach Bob Foster. Foster coached Smart's uncle, Elliot Smart, who was a student and player for Foster at Varden (Calif.) high school. Foster taught Elliot Smart in a driver's education class.
- Cabral's Take on Smart: "His last name is what he is—smart. One week I had him backing up at will, and the next at mike. He can play both equally well, knows what he is doing and can line up wherever we need him to be."

ANTHONY PERKINS
SAFETY
5-10, 195, SOPH.

- Perkins is listed second on the depth chart at free safety and also is a valuable asset on special teams this season. He currently has 16 special teams points, third most on the team.
- Perkins came up huge against Texas A&M, coming up with nine tackles on 43 defensive snaps played. He also had one tackle for zero yards, one third down stop and his first career interception, that helped ice the game as the Buffs took a 35-34 lead on the previous drive with less than 2 minutes left.
- Perkins played on 37 defensive snaps against Missouri and responded with three tackles, including one sack. All three of his tackles, including his sack, came on third down and he also had one quarterback chase down and one pass break-up.
- Perkins had a solid game against Texas, coming up with nine tackles (five solo), the second most on the team behind Jeff Smart's 11 stops.
- Perkins' grandfather, Don Perkins, was an All-American running back at New Mexico (1956-59) and was later drafted by the Dallas Cowboys. He played for the Cowboys from 1960-68, he was the 1961 NFL Rookie of the Year, a six-time pro bowler and is in the Cowboy's Ring of Fame.
- Perkins earned his first game action in the season opener against Colorado State his redshirt-freshman season in 2008. His first start came during the third game of the season against West Virginia.

INSIDE LINEBACKER
6-3, 225, SR.

- Last name is pronounced (mole-er).
- Mohler is listed second on the latest depth chart at the will (inside) linebacker spot behind fellow senior Jeff Smart.
- Mohler had six tackles on just 18 defensive snaps at Texas.
- After not traveling to Toledo with a concussion, Mohler returned for the Wyoming.
- A preseason third-team All-Big 12 selection by Phil Steele's College Football. He was named honorable mention All-Big 12 by the Associated Press in 2008.
- Many of Mohler's teammates call him "Mauler" which is a slight variation of his last name (Mole-er).
- Mohler earned his first start against Florida State his junior season (2008), his first at Colorado. The game was his fourth at CU. He then started the remainder of the season for the Buffs, compiling nine starts.
- Mohler finished just three tackles short of 100 in his junior campaign and had nine games with six-plus tackles and four games with 10-plus stops.
- Mohler also had eight third down stops and tied for the team lead with two interceptions.
- Mohler was rated the top junior college outside linebacker by SuperPrep in 2007.

CURTIS CUNNINGHAM
DEFENSIVE TACKLE
6-1, 275, SOPH.

- Cunningham is listed as the starting defensive tackle on the latest depth chart. He is the most experienced defensive tackle on the team despite being a sophomore.
- Cunningham has recorded a sack in two of the last three games, the first two sacks of his career.
- On the season, he has played in 450 of a possible 605 snaps (74.4 percent) on defense, the most on the defensive line.
- At Kansas State, Cunningham had four tackles (three solo), one sack, a third down stop and a pass break-up.
- Cunningham registered his first career sack (for 14 yards) against Kansas in a 34-30 CU win.
- Cunningham played in 58 of a possible 62 plays (93.5 percent) against Colorado State, the most of any player on the CU defensive line, and he responded with four tackles.
- Through the first six games as a sophomore in 2009, Cunningham had already played twice as many plays (292 to 145) and almost three times as many tackles (24) than he did as a freshman (nine) in 12 games in 2008.
- Cunningham earned playing time as a true freshman, adding depth behind three-year starters George Hypolite and Brandon Nicolas (being groomed as a replacement for one or the other). He was the third in the three-man rotation at defensive tackle/nose guard as a true freshman.

- Cunningham played in the Under Armor All-American Game as a high school senior in 2008.

DOUG RIPPY
OUTSIDE LINEBACKER
6-1, 240, FR.

- Rippy is listed third on the depth chart at the sam (outside) linebacker. Rippy is often used as a pass rusher at one defensive end spot on select formations and plays.
- Rippy saw action on just over half (35-of-66) the snaps at Toledo in his second collegiate game and responded with three tackles and a quarterback hurry. He was also clutch on special teams, blocking two punts.
- Rippy recorded his first sack against Wyoming near the end of the game.
- On special teams, Rippy has accumulated seven points in three games. He has one assisted tackle, one wedge break and two blocked kicks (both punts against Toledo).
- FoxSports.com (Scout.com)* named him to its preseason redshirt freshman All-America team prior to this season.
- Rippy can be credited with helping the Colorado coaching staff discover standout tailback Rodney Stewart, as he told running backs coach Darian Hagan about Stewart, his friend over the last four to five years.
- Rippy and Stewart learned that they are in fact cousins just before arriving in Boulder (but after they had known each other for several years). They are, in fact, first cousins once removed, and they both showed up to a family barbeque without knowing they are related. The two have roomed together since arriving on campus.
- Rippy has an extremely large family; his paternal grandparents have over 90 grandchildren and several of his cousins are playing or have played college football and basketball. He will square off against a first cousin, James Davis, who is a sophomore running back at Wyoming. A cousin, Chris Wright, is a sophomore basketball player at Dayton while cousin Greg Moore played basketball at Cincinnati.

BRYAN STENGEL
INSIDE LINEBACKER
6-2, 220, SR.

- Stengel is listed third at the mike (inside) linebacker spot on the latest depth chart.
- Stengel has bounced around in practice between inside and outside 'backer, but has settled in on the inside. His playing time steadily increased in 2008 after cracking playing time late in CU's non-conference schedule and he played in each of CU's eight Big 12 conference games last season.

54

MARCUS BURTON
INSIDE LINEBACKER
6-0, 265, SR.

- Burton is listed as the starting mike (inside) linebacker on the latest depth chart along with Michael Sipili.
- On 37 plays against Missouri, he compiled seven tackles (five solo) including two for a loss, two third down stops and one quarterback hurry.
- Burton had one of the most memorable plays in a good defensive effort against Texas, bursting through the line to sack Colt McCoy, force a fumble and help CU take a 14-3 lead.
- Burton has three sacks this year to tie for the team lead with Cha'pelle Brown.
- Burton had eight tackles to open the 2009 season against Colorado State, matching his tackle total from the entirety of his junior season in which he played in 10 games.
- Burton followed up that performance with his second career sack with three tackles and a third down stop at Toledo in week 2.
- Burton had a solid game against Wyoming with five tackles, including one for a loss, with two third down stops, one quarterback pressure and one pass break-up.
- Burton was voted as and named one of three team captains for the 2009 season.
- Burton's selection marks the sixth straight year a player with Texas high school roots will serve as a Colorado captain, as he follows Sam Wilder (OT, 2004), Lawrence Vickers (FB, 2005), Mason Crosby (PK, 2006), Hugh Charles (TB, 2007), Terrence Wheatley (CB, 2007) and Patrick Williams (WR, 2008).
- Potentially one of the better stories on this year's team. In his career, he has experienced injury (fractured tibia in 2006) and academic issues (ineligible in 2007) as well as getting married and having a child.
- Burton attended the Big 12 media day in July and was characterized by a few of the league's radio personalities as a "throw back" linebacker because of his size (265 lbs). Not so, says coach Dan Hawkins, "He can run. He's a big guy but he can run, he's not just a stand-in-there-and-take-people-on guy."
- He won the Hale Irwin Award as the most improved defensive back (linebacker or secondary), and also was the Iron Buffalo Award winner for the linebackers, given for hard work, dedication, toughness and total poundage lifted in the weight room.
- Burton entered the fall listed as the No. 1 mike linebacker, being fueled by his performance in the three spring scrimmages: 20 tackles (11 solo, two for a loss and one sack).
- Burton has proven to be one of, if not the most versatile player on the defense as he can play all three of the linebacker spots, and was in a neck-and-neck battle for the starting "will" slot throughout camp. With his size, he has also show up on occasion on the defensive line.
- Burton and his wife, Krislen, had their second child on Sept. 6 (the day of CU's season opener against CSU), as Noah Alanea Christopher Burton was born at 9:59 a.m. at Boulder Community Hospital. Burton was allowed to leave the team hotel the night before the game and did play against CSU. Marcus and Krislen already have another son, Tysen, 2.
- Burton has the second longest play by a true freshman in school history, when he returned an interception 99 yards for a touchdown at Oklahoma State in 2005 (WR Walter Stanley had a 100-yard kickoff return versus Oklahoma in 1980).
- Hawkins' Take on Burton: "One of the great joys of coaching, to see a guy go through a transitory period of having a child and getting married and getting swamped. To see him galvanize and get his life in perspective and see how that translates onto the football field, I'm proud of him for that."

JOSH HARTIGAN
DEFENSIVE END
6-1, 230, SO.

- Hartigan moved from inside linebacker to defensive end mid way through the 2009 season to account for more depth on the defensive line and he's currently listed second at both right and left defensive end on the latest depth chart.
- Hartigan saw action in his second game defensively and made his first career tackle against Missouri.
- Hartigan saw his first action on defense at Kansas State with one play at defensive end late in the game.
- Hartigan practiced his true freshman season (2007) at outside linebacker and then moved inside after that season prior to spring drills.
- An All-Broward County player out of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Hartigan had 100 tackles at linebacker for Northeast High School and also saw action on offense as a wide receiver.
- Hartigan's father, Sterling Palmer, was played for the Washington Redskins for three seasons after a career at Florida State.
- Hartigan owns a '95 Mercury Grant Marquis that he has fixed up and enjoys taking to car shows.

55

MAX TUIOTI-MARINER
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-3, 285, FR.

- First half of his last name is pronounced (two-E-oh-T).
- Tuioti-Mariner has suffered three torn ACLs in less than two years, and had initially decided to embark on his two-year Mormon mission, partially to allow his knees time to heal, decided to postpone those plans in hopes of being ready to play by the Buffs Big 12 Conference opener (Oct. 12 at Texas).
- Tuioti-Mariner returned to practice after the Wyoming game and is progressing toward a potential return to the field soon.
- He suffered a torn ACL in a non-contact drill in practice on Sept. 22, 2008 (leading up to the Florida state game), ending a promising freshman campaign—but was later granted a medical hardship.
- Tuioti-Mariner's older brother, Lafu, is a senior offensive lineman at Hawai'i. His cousin, Pisa Tinoosamoa, is a linebacker for the St. Louis Rams.
- Tuioti-Mariner's second cousin was former CU quarterback Sal Aunese, who was the starting quarterback for the Buffs in 1988 before being diagnosed with cancer. Aunese lost his battle with the disease during the open week (Sept. 23) of the 1989 season and his legacy became the backbone to the Buffs back-to-back trips to the National Championship game in 1989 and 1990.
- Tuioti-Mariner earned his first career playing time in the season opener against intrastate rival Colorado State his true freshman season in 2008.
- Tuioti-Mariner earned his first collegiate start as a true freshman against Eastern Washington in 2008, it was his second career game.
- Tuioti-Mariner is extremely family-oriented and mild-mannered off the football field. He lists "loving to make people smile and laugh" as one of his favorite things to do.

56

KEENAN STEVENS
OFFENSIVE LINE
6-2, 290, JR.

- Stevens is listed as the starting center on the latest depth chart.
- Stevens has played on 448 offensive snaps for CU this season, fourth most among offensive linemen. He has played in eight of the nine games and played every snap in five of those eight. He has played in all 204 offensive snaps in the last three games combined.
- Stevens graded out to 94 percent at Kansas State, the highest mark by a CU offensive lineman this season. He has graded out to 90 percent or better a team best four times and has hit over 80 percent in all eight games in which he's played, good for second on the squad.
- A fourth-year junior, Stevens has worked his way into playing time. As a true freshman walk-on in 2006, he redshirted and practiced at both guard and center during the fall.
- Stevens saw his first action in 2007 against Miami, Ohio, playing 10 snaps and grading out to 80 percent.
- In 2008, Stevens didn't see any action as the back-up to Daniel Sanders at center.
- This past spring, Stevens posted some of the best numbers in the weight room with a bench press of 388 lbs., a power clean of 358 lbs. and a squat of 526.

58

TYLER AHLES
OUTSIDE LINEBACKER
6-2, 240, SOPH.

- Last name is pronounced alice.
- Ahles is listed second on the depth chart along at the sam (outside) linebacker position on the latest depth chart.
- At Kansas State, Ahles played on 40 defensive snaps and compiled seven tackles (three solo) including two for a loss. In the first six games of the season, Ahles played on 66 snaps and had eight total tackles.
- Ahles has a knack for tackling behind the line of scrimmage, as four of his 15 tackles have been for negative yardage this season.
- Ahles moved to the outside linebacker position prior to spring practice.
- After redshirting his true freshman season in 2007, Ahles saw action in the final eight games in 2008 on special teams.
- All-league at both running back and linebacker in high school, Ahles was ranked the No. 80 linebacker in the nation out of Cajon High School in San Bernardino, Calif. He was also an all-league discus and shot put performer on the track team and lettered twice in wrestling, as well.
- Ahles owns a 49cc scooter that he completely customized himself. The only original part on the entire scooter is the frame.

B.J. BEATTY
OUTSIDE LINEBACKER
6-2, 220, JR.

- Beatty is listed atop the depth chart at the sam (outside) linebacker spot.
- Beatty suffered a knee contusion early in the Kansas State game and played just 20 snaps. He is listed as day-to-day on the injury report.
- Beatty was all over the field against Wyoming. He tallied 4 tackles, all solo, and had two sacks, a third down stop, a quarterback pressure and a pass break-up.

- Beatty played a few snaps in the season-opening win over Colorado State in 2008 but missed the next four games due to a fractured fibula. He returned to game day action against Kansas.
- Beatty's uncle, Chris Naeole, was a former CU All-American offensive guard who has played the last nine years in the NFL with New Orleans and Jacksonville.
- His dad, Byron, played linebacker at BYU in the late 1980s.
- Beatty enjoys longboarding and often uses it as his primary mode of transportation.
- Like his dad, his first name is Byron. B.J. stands for Byron junior.
- Beatty credits former graduate assistant Andy Avalos as helping him turn the corner in his collegiate career as a sophomore in 2008.

63

ETHAN ADKINS
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-4, 305, SOPH.

- Adkins moved into the starting lineup at left guard during fall camp and has started all nine games and played in 575 of 635, third most among offensive linemen.
- Adkins was ranked as the No. 30 offensive guard in the country coming out of Douglas Country High School in 2007.
- Denver Johnson's Take: "He's probably been the guy that's been a pleasant surprise. He did some good things in spring, and he's really solidified himself this fall as one of our better players up front."

MIKE ILTIS
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-3, 280, SOPH.

- Iltis suffered a sprained ankle in the first quarter of the 2009 season opener against Colorado State. He also missed the West Virginia game with an injury. He could have played against Texas, but was not cleared by team doctors until late in the week and didn't get much practice time in.
- Iltis saw action for the first time in three games against No. 17 Kansas, playing 50 snaps out of 68 offensively. He is listed second on the depth chart at the center position. He graded out to a season best 84 percent against Kansas and has two games grading out above 80 percent on the season.
- Iltis has recovered well from knee surgery to replace the graduated three-year starter Daniel Sanders at center. Iltis has been running with the first team at offense at center throughout spring ball and fall camp.
- Iltis was expected to earn playing time during his redshirt freshman campaign, but tore his ACL on the first day of fall camp in 2008.
- Denver Johnson's Take: "He's just such a conscientious guy - a very smart, very heads up ball player and he helps us a lot there."

66

BLAKE BEHRENS
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-3, 285, SOPH.

- Behrens started at right guard against Wyoming and Texas A&M and is currently listed second on the depth at left guard.
- Behrens has played in three games and the Buffs are 3-0 in those games, as he saw action on 70 snaps against Texas A&M, 18 against No. 17 Kansas and 44 against Wyoming.

- Behrens was playing both the left and right guard positions in the first three games of the 2008 season, but after Tuioti-Mariner went down with a knee injury, he became entrenched solely on the left side.
- Behrens earned his first game time experience and first career start against Colorado State (2008), which was the season opener of his redshirt-freshman season.
- Behrens was a high school teammate of current CU tailback Ray Polk as they both attend Brophy Prep in Arizona. Behrens is a year older than Polk.

(No relation to FB Jake Behrens)

68

SHAWN DANIELS
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-3, 285, SOPH.

- A versatile player, Daniels is listed third on the depth chart at the right tackle and center.
- Daniels saw his first action of the season against Wyoming, playing one snap.
- He saw his first career action (15 snaps) in the second half in the loss to Texas (2008).
- Daniels is the brother of former CU standout offensive lineman Brian Daniels. He arrived on campus the year after his brother graduated and signed with the Minnesota Vikings.
- He is an avid fisherman and loves just about anything to do with the outdoors including riding his ATV.

70

JUSTIN DRESCHER
LONG SNAPPER
6-1, 230, SR.

- Drescher is the starting long and short snapper and has handled every punt and placement snap since the first game of his true freshman year in 2006.
- Drescher has played in 45 career games, tied with Cha'pelle Brown for the most among active players.
- Drescher is just the third four-year starting long snapper in school history, joining Chris O'Donnell (1988-91) and Greg Pace (2002-05), and it is believed to be one of the few instances in college football where one four-year starter replaced another, as he took over after Pace graduated in 2006.
- Drescher recovered a fumble by Oklahoma's Reggie Smith to set up the tying touchdown in the fourth quarter of CU's eventual win in 2007 against the third-ranked Sooners.
- As a freshman in 2006, he was tutored by former CU long snapper Greg Pace.

MATTHEW BAHR
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-4, 295, SOPH.

- Bahr is listed as the starting right guard on the latest depth chart.
- Bahr started and played all 128 offensive snaps at right guard at Kansas State and vs. Missouri. He has played 183 of 272 offensive snaps in the last four games combined.
- Bahr graded out to a season best 87 percent at K-State and has graded out to 80 percent or better twice this season.
- Bahr saw action against Texas, playing seven snaps, and started against Kansas, playing 50 out of 68 offensive snaps.
- Bahr started the last eight games of the season in 2008 and graded out to a season-best 93 percent in the finale against Nebraska.

RYAN MILLER
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-8, 320, SOPH.

- Miller has started all nine games this season and been in on each of CU's 635 offensive snaps, the only offensive player to play every down this season. He has four starts each at right guard and five at right tackle, including each of the last four at tackle, although he played most of the game at guard against Texas A&M.
- Miller is currently listed as the starting right tackle on the latest depth chart but will see action at guard if Bryce Givens is inserted into the game.
- Miller graded out to a season best 89 percent at Kansas State. He has seven games grading out to 80 percent or better this season.
- Miller is second on the team with 55 finish / knockdown blocks this season and also ranks second with five touchdown blocks.
- Miller has given up 3½ sacks on 635 offensive snaps this season through nine games.
- Miller was more or less 'rolled' in the Florida State game in 2008 and suffered a fractured fibula in the process. He underwent surgery and missed the rest of the 2008 season, later receiving a medical hardship.
- Miller was named a second-team freshman All-American by Scout.com in 2007.
- Hawkins said Miller "dominated" an Oklahoma player on several plays run to his side in a 27-24 win over the Sooners in 2007. He graded to 83 percent.
- Miller competed on the indoor track and field squad in 2009, competing in three meets in the shot put. He intends to compete throughout his career as long as it doesn't interfere with football. His toss of 46'-7.25" at Air Force was best throw of the season for a Buff and the second best throw in the last two years. He is mentored by throws coach Casey Malone, who placed fifth in the world in the discus at the World Championships in August and also participated in Beijing.
- Miller enjoys many outdoor sports and activities such as four-wheeling and camping. He enjoys playing the guitar and drums and line dancing. He is also an avid kite flyer, something he's done since he was four years old.
- His maternal grandfather, David Peterson, was an end on Colorado's 1960 freshman team.
- Hawkins' Take: "He is a tremendous athlete and a great football player. I told him if he went to a Division III school he would still be an NFL player. He is totally our kind of guy. He loves Colorado; he is a very humble kid, he's a blue-collar guy and he is a guy that when he is in your football program everybody knows that he is a marquee player and a marquee guy. He is a guy that sets the bar not only for the talent that you want but also your attitude and approach to off the field, school and everything else."
- Denver Johnson's Take: "A big, strong guy. He's not as athletic as Solder, but in offensive lineman parameters, he's certainly a talented guy."

BRYCE GIVENS
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-6, 275, FR.

- Givens started the first two games of the season at right tackle for CU and played every snap in both games. He missed the Wyoming game with a personal matter and returned to start against West Virginia and Texas before missing the next three games. He returned to action against Texas A&M and played 44 snaps.
- Givens graded out to a season best 85 percent at Toledo and has three games in five played grading out to better than 80 percent.
- Givens ranks fifth on the o-line in snaps played but he ranks fourth with 17 finishes / knockdown blocks and he has given up just one sack on 333 offensive snaps.

- FoxSports.com (Scout.com) named Givens to their Redshirt Freshman All-America team.
- Givens has added 30 pounds of muscle to his frame since arriving in Boulder as a true freshman.
- Givens and fellow offensive line starter Ryan Miller were bitter enemies in high school, as the two highly competitive guys had some memorable battles in high school and both admit they did not like each other until they became teammates at CU. The two are now good friends who hang out together outside of football.
- Givens has traveled to Mexico to build a church and hoses and helped with a bike race to raise money for cancer research.
- Givens' father, Brian, played for the Milwaukee Brewers from 1995-96.
- Denver Johnson's Take: "A young guy, he's got four years left and can do a lot of things."

NATE SOLDER
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-9, 305, JR.

- Last name is pronounced (sold-er).
- Solder is atop the depth chart at the left tackle spot.
- Solder earned Academic All-District honors, owning a 3.45 GPA in Biology.
- Solder has played in 33 career games and started 24. His 24 starts is the fifth most among active players and his 20 consecutive starts ranks third most on the squad, and first among non-seniors.
- Solder has played all but one snap on the offensive line this season at left tackle, a total of 634 out of 635 plays (99.8 percent).
- Solder graded out to a season best 92 percent against Texas A&M and has four games grading out to 90 percent or better and has graded out above 80 percent in all nine games this season, most on the team.
- Solder leads the Buffs with 77 finish/knockdown blocks this season and he leads the team with seven touchdown blocks, as well.
- Solder has given up just three sacks in 634 snaps offensively this season.
- Solder is a physical specimen as he is 6-9 and weighs 305 with a remarkably low 8.3 percent body fat and running a 4.8 40-yard dash.
- Solder was named to the ESPN.com College Football Workout Warriors, he was No. 4 on the list. He power cleans 407, hang cleans 445, squats 622, and has a vertical of 34 inches.
- He had a monster game against Kansas State (2008)—in earning the highest game grade – 99 percent – by a CU offensive lineman since All-American guard Joe Garten scored a perfect 100 versus K-State in 1990, he registered 11 knockdown blocks.
- Solder, the tallest member of the Buffs at 6-foot-9, caught the first three catches of his career against Miami (Ohio) with fellow tight ends Tyson DeVree and Riar Geer on the mend.
- Hawkins has said multiple times that he thinks that Nate has the potential to be first round pick in the NFL Draft.
- WR Scotty McKnight's Take: "He's the new freak. Jevon Kearse get out of the way, he (Solder) is unbelievable. He's huge, strong and really fast. When he gets on the field people need to watch out."
- Denver Johnson's Take: "Just immense God-given ability, just an enormous talent."

WILL JEFFERSON
WIDE RECEIVER
5-11, 190, FR.

- Jefferson has slowly moved his way up the depth chart this season and is currently listed third on the combined "x" and "z" wide receiver groupings on the latest depth chart, making him the first Buff off the bench or a starter if the Buffs start in a three-wide out formation.

- Jefferson was the last recruit of the 2009 class as he signed with the Buffs just two days prior to the start of camp. He had been planning to attend Chaffey (Calif.) Junior College prior to signing with CU.
- Jefferson started his first collegiate game against No. 17 Kansas and had one catch for 11 yards against the Jayhawks. He became the first true freshman to start for the Buffs this season.
- Jefferson caught his first career pass against Wyoming and has slowly been working his way up the depth chart.
- Jefferson was a dual-threat player in high school, playing both running back and wide receiver while earning first-team All-State honors in Moreno Valley, Calif. His senior year he rushed 116 times for 755 yards and four touchdowns while hauling in 83 receptions for 1,146 yards and 12 touchdowns.
- When asked how he picked up the game plan so quickly (Jefferson signed too late to participate in seven-on-seven drills over the summer), he attributes it to "great coaching, great help and a lack of TV and Xbox in my room. I knew I would be behind, so I came in with the mindset of learning as much as possible."

RIAR GEER
TIGHT END
6-4, 250, SR.

- First name is pronounced (rye-er).
- Geer is listed as the starting tight end on the latest depth chart.
- Geer is a John Mackey Award candidate, given to the nation's top tight end. He is also an All-America and All-Big 12 candidate.
- Geer is one of 30 players on the official watch list for the John Mackey Award, presented to the nation's top tight end.
- Geer is one of five active Buffs to have played in 40 or more games. He has played in 43 and started 33. His 33 starts is the most among active players.
- With two catches for 19 yards against Missouri, Geer moved into fourth place on CU's career reception list for tight ends, passing Jon Embree and Joe Klopfenstein. He currently has 81 receptions for 917 yards and 10 touchdowns.
- Geer caught a touchdown pass in two of the last four games, both against nationally ranked competition (No. 2 Texas and No. 17 Kansas).
- Geer caught four passes for 65 yards and a touchdown against No. 17 Kansas. Two of his catches were critical in the game, as one went for a touchdown and another was a 29 yard completion on 3rd-and-15 on the game-winning drive in CU's 34-30 win.

- With his touchdown against No. 17 Kansas, Geer became the sixth tight end in school history to record 10 or more touchdown receptions. He is just two behind the school record of 12 by Joe Klopfenstein.
- With his 11-yard touchdown against Texas, his second of the season, Geer became the first tight end in CU history to catch multiple touchdown receptions in four different seasons.
- Geer had seven catches for 89 yards at West Virginia.
- With his touchdown in the Toledo game, Geer became just the third tight end to catch a touchdown pass in four different seasons, joining Ed Pudlik (1946-49) and Christian Fauria (1991-94).
- Geer was voted as and named one of three team captains for the 2009 season.
- Geer is the first from Grand Junction to be named a Buff captain since tackle Jerry McClurg served as a senior in 1964; he attended Grand Junction High. Since then, two others from the state's Western Slope have been so honored, defensive end Mike Pruett (Delta High School, 1969) and offensive tackle Matt Miller (Durango High School, 1978).
- Geer led the Buffs in the 2009 season opener against Colorado State with six receptions for 65 yards.
- Geer was hobbled by injuries during much of the 2007 season, mainly issues with a knee, which he had scoped prior to the start of the 2008 season. He missed the first two games before returning in time for the West Virginia contest.
- In 2006, Geer became the first-ever freshman to lead CU in receiving.
- Geer came almost out of nowhere in 2006 against Georgia to lead the Buffs in receiving with seven catches for 71 yards. He was the primary reason the Buffs were able to keep the Bulldogs off-balance for most of the day after coaches decided the best way to attack the Georgia defense was on the perimeter and in the flats.

Geer In CU's Record Book:

- Ranks tied for 17th in CU history for receptions (83 – needs three to pass 16th place Lee Rouson)
- Ranks fourth in CU history for receptions among tight ends (83 – needs nine to pass Dave Hestera for third place).
- Ranks 23rd in CU history for receiving yards (942 – needs three to pass 22nd place James Kidd and 30 to pass 21st place John Minardi).
- Ranks sixth in CU history for receiving yards among tight ends (942 – needs 116 to pass fourth place Dave Hestera).
- Ranks fourth in CU history for receptions among tight ends (83 – needs nine to pass third place Dave Hestera)
- Ranks tied for fourth in CU history for touchdown receptions among tight ends (10 – tied with Ed Pudlik, needs one to tie Gary Knaflec, Daniel Graham and Christian Fauria for second place).

92FORREST WEST
DEFENSIVE END
6-1, 245, FR.

- West is listed as the starting left defensive end on the latest depth chart.
- Against Kansas, West finished with two tackles, one quarterback hurry and one forced fumble in 35 snaps, the most action he's seen in a game this season.
- West had a solid game against Texas as he saw action in 19 plays and finished with three tackles, all solo stop. One was a tackle for loss (two yards) and the other two were for no gain.
- West has played defensively on 78 snaps for the Buffs in his first collegiate season and he had two pass breakups through four games along with five tackles.
- West was named the MVP of the National Underclassmen Showcase as a high school sophomore in May of 2007. But a weight room injury that summer forced him to miss his entire junior season. West was being recruited by about 90 schools nationwide at the time.
