2010 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL

GAME 9—KANSAS

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2010 • 12:05 p.m. MDT • Memorial Stadium (50,270), Lawrence, Kan.

RELEASE NUMBER 9 (November 2, 2010)

No Television | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (3-5, 0-4 Big 12) open November with the first of four straight games against Big 12 North Division competition, traveling east to Lawrence to take on the Kansas Jayhawks (2-6, 0-4 Big 12) in a 1:05 p.m. MDT kickoff at Memorial Stadium ... The game is not on any live television ... While the Buffs and Jayhawks have struggled to date this fall, they are a combined 2-0 against the state of Georgia: CU beat the University of Georgia 29-27 on Oct. 2 and Kansas dealt Georgia Tech a 28-25 setback on Sept. 11 (home wins for both) ... It's the "something has to give" game, as CU and KU are the last league teams searching for their first league win; the Buffs last opened 0-5 in conference play in 1979, ending that skein with a 31-17 win at ... Kansas. In fact, Colorado has won seven straight against KU in November dating back to 1985 and is 21-10 all-time versus the Jayhawks in the "turkey" month ... Colorado is also out to stop school-record losing streaks of 15 overall road games and 11 straight conferences games ... OT Nate Solder is one of 15 finalists for the William V. Campbell Trophy (the "academic" Heisman; formerly the Draddy Award); he receives an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame and will attend the Hall of Fame festivities this December, which will also include the induction of CU's Alfred Williams ... CU will induct its eighth class into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame on Thursday, Nov. 11; the 10 inductees will be introduced at halftime of the CU-Iowa State game two days later (about 10,000 tickets are available for the ISU affair) ... The Iowa State game will be televised by Fox College Sports (will air on its Central network), with kickoff yet to be determined (late morning/early afternoon) ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK

When Colorado didn't commit a turnover against Texas Tech, it was CU's first turnover-free game since the 2007 finale against Nebraska, a span of 31 games. The Buffs then came back and didn't have a turnover at Oklahoma, the first back-to-back games by Colorado without one since the last two games of the 2006 season (Iowa State, Nebraska); CU has gone nine straight quarters without coughing the ball up to the opponent. The last time the Buffaloes did not commit a turnover in consecutive road games was in 1994 (at Nebraska, at Kansas), and CU has never gone three straight games without one (10 quarters five times).

OBSCURER NOTE OF THE WEEK

Colorado had 28 penalties (for 224 yards) after three games this season, with both numbers near the bottom of the NCAA rankings. And some in the media were sure to let that fact be known. But how about some follow-up? In the five games since, CU has committed 27 for 175 yards; the 55 total ranks 83rd nationally, but seventh in the Big 12, just seven out of second. The 399 yards penalized is 50th nationally, but the third fewest in the conference. Penalties, while often key, are another stat that is often overblown. As the Oakland Raider teams of the 70's ... and by the way, the Big 12 leader in penalties committed and yards right now? Baylor, which is 7-2 and 4-1 in the league (75 for 686 yards); North Division leader Nebraska has committed 58 for 544 yards, and media darling No. 1 Oregon has committed the same number as CU, 55, for over a hundred more yards (500).

COLORADO FOOTBALL MEDIA SERVICES

- Coach Dan Hawkins holds a Tuesday press luncheon in the Dal Ward Athletic Center, starting at 11:30 a.m. with lunch, followed by Hawkins beginning the interview session promptly at Noon. This year's dates: Sept. 7-14-28, Oct. 5-12-19-26, Nov. 2-9-16-22 (Monday)-30, Dec. TBA (bowl). NOTE that there is no organized press luncheon on Sept. 21 (bye week). The press conference portion of the luncheon is streamed live on www.CUBuffs.com (in the BuffsTV area); all press conferences on CUBuffs.com are free and thus do not require access codes.
- Hawkins can be heard Mondays (Aug. 31-Nov. 30) on the Big 12 Teleconference Call at 10:40 a.m. MT. All coaches participate; call the Big 12 office (469-524-1007) for access (media only—you must register). A teleconference replay is available after 3 p.m. MT the same day by phone (706/634-1618) or on www.Big12sports.com.
- Video highlights of CU football games are available anytime provided by the Big 12 Conference. Contact Bob Burda at the Big 12 office for approval and access (469/524-1007; bob@big12sports.com). Special requests can also be made through CU's BuffVision (Deric Swanson or Eric Pelloni: 303-735-3637).
- The Colorado lockerroom (home and road) is closed after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be made available (a list of players will be solicited immediately following the game; no cutoff to request players).
- Colorado's regular season football practices are closed to the general public (exception: those Sundays when the team does practice). The last 15 minutes of the Tuesday and Wednesday practices are open to the media and for any photography/video needs (just follow all parameters listed in CU's media policies). Thursday practices are closed to all except network TV personnel broadcasting the game.
- This year's standard meeting/practice schedule (mountain time, pre-time change): Sunday (3:15-4:00, 4:00-5:45); Monday (off); Tuesday (6:30-7:30/8:00-10:00), Wednesday (6:30-7:30/8:00-10:00), Thursday (6:30-7:30/8:15-10:00), Friday (9:00-10:00, afternoon/evening meetings).
- Interviews with Colorado players are allowed post-practice on Sundays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays (the cutoff moves up Tuesday for the Friday Nebraska game). Phone interviews with out-of-town media are allowed all three days in all time slots. Interviews on Mondays and later in the day on Tuesdays and Wednesdays are at the discretion of the player, as it being the standard player day off (no meetings/practice), CU can't arrange due to NCAA rules.
- Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Big 12 football. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, quotes, media guides and more for the conference and each member school throughout the season. Most FBS conferences are also accessible as well. Login information will be distributed to accredited media, and media members can also apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.
- CU On-Line Photo Database. The CU sports information service has an online photo database that allows registered members of the media instant access to print quality head shots of all CU coaches and student-athletes as well as action shots of key players. Registration is easy: for a login and password, simply log on to www.CUBuffs.com, select "Sports Information" from the "Athletic Department" menu located on the left navigation bar and follow the instructions.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE INTERNET

- Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Visit the official CU site at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes, press conference broadcasts (free) and articles by former Rocky Mountain News sportswriter B.G. Brooks. Go to www.CUBuffs.com/media and click on Media Center: it will link you to everything you'll need to know about CU football. "BuffsTV" offers the opportunity to listen and/or watch live game action of several CU athletic teams. Breaking news with the program will be found here first every time and delivered in full without others editing out what they might deem unessential.
- Audio. University of Colorado football and basketball can now be heard for free on the Internet at either CUBuffs.com or KOA-Radio (or its sister station, KKZN/AM760 for basketball). Your links: www.CUBuffs.com, www.850koa.com, www.am760.net.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE AIRWAYS

- KOA-Radio in Denver (850 AM) originates the 8-station CU Football Network, with sports director Mark Johnson in his seventh year as the play-by-play voice of the Buffs. Larry Zimmer (analysis) is in his 37th season broadcasting Colorado football (he handled play-by-play from 1971-81 and 1985-2003). Former CU offensive tackle Victor Rogers (pre- and postgame shows/sidelines) is in his first year on the broadcast team. Other cities on the network in addition to KOA/Denver metro: Alamosa (KALQ, 94.5FM), Aspen (KFNO, 106.1 FM), Durango (KRSJ, 100.5 FM), Grand Junction (KTMM, 1340AM) and Salida (KSBV, 93.7FM).
- Wednesdays at 7 p.m. (Sept. 1-Nov. 24), the Dan Hawkins Radio Show originates from The Lazy Dog Sports Bar & Grill (1346 Pearl Street in Boulder), with Johnson and Zimmer hosting the program which airs on KOA (or AM760 if a conflict with Colorado Rockies baseball).
- Satellite Radio: Sirius-XM is the satellite home of the Buffaloes; the CU-Kansas game (KOA broadcast) will be on Sirius Channel 158 (KU broadcast on Ch. 129).
- FOX Sports Net Rocky Mountain is the television home of the Buffaloes, as "The Buffalo Stampede" is broadcast in the six-state FSN area. The show airs a bit erratically in September due to Colorado Rockies baseball; the schedule: Sept. 2 (11:30 p.m.), Sept. 9 (7 p.m.), Sept. 16 (7 p.m.), Sept. 23 (6 p.m.), Sept. 30 (10 p.m.). Assistant AD and former CU QB Charles Johnson hosts the program; the show airs through the end of basketball season. It is also online at <http://buffalostampede.tv>.

Honor Candidates

There are several Colorado players worthy of consideration for national and conference honors as the season; for those of you who have votes in such, please consider the below players!

✓ OT NATE SOLDER All-American & All-Big 12 Candidate OUTLAND, LOMBARDI CANDIDATE
 He is having the best year of all the CU linemen, grading out to 92.8 percent for the season, having played every snap on offense (583). He has graded out to 90 percent or higher in seven of eight games (cleared 80 percent in the other). He has twice had 18 knockdown/finish blocks (versus CSU and Hawai'i) with a team-high 91 total. He also has five touchdown blocks while allowing just two quarterback sacks and three pressures. Thirty NFL teams have scouted the Buffaloes in 2010, and the general consensus is that he will be a first-round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft. A finalist for the William V. Campbell Award (academic Heisman), he is one of 15 NFF Scholar-Athletes and has been awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

✓ CB JIMMY SMITH All-American & All-Big 12 Candidate JIM THORPE AWARD CANDIDATE
 One of the best cover corners in the nation, he's allowed just eight completions in man coverage over the last two seasons (only three this year, and just one of those for a first down). He has 47 tackles (34 solo) with four PBU's, a forced fumble and a team-best five touchdown saves. Opponents have shied away from his side of the field all season. (Note: he did not advance as one of 10 semifinalists for the Thorpe, eight of whom came from schools in the top 15).

✓ WR SCOTTY MCKNIGHT All-Big 12 Candidate BILETNIKOFF AWARD CANDIDATE
 Likely to become the first player to lead Colorado in receiving for four straight years, he's caught 36 balls for 422 yards (11.7 per), with four touchdowns and 20 first downs earned. Already CU's all-time leading receiver in terms of catches, he is in hot pursuit the yards and TD marks as well.

✓ OG RYAN MILLER All-Big 12 Candidate
 He has the second most knockdown/finishing blocks (44) as well as touchdown blocks (5), as through eight games, he is grading at 85.8 percent in playing all 583 snaps on offense. He has reached 80 percent in seven of his eight games. He had a season-high of 10 knockdowns against Oklahoma.

✓ CB JALIL BROWN All-Big 12 Candidate
 Also having a fine season, he's played all but five snaps on defense and has racked up 30 tackles (19 solo), with four third down stops, two fumble recoveries and three interceptions and a touchdowns save.

✓ DT CURTIS CUNNINGHAM All-Big 12 Candidate
 One of the big ones who clogs the middle, he's had a solid year in limiting the opponent rushing game up the middle. He's been in on 16 tackles (13 solo), with two for losses, three third down stops and two tackles for zero.

✓ DT WILL PERICAK All-Big 12 Candidate
 He has quietly put together a solid year, starting in the opener when he blocked a CSU field goal try. He's been in on 24 tackles (three for losses, one sack), with five third down stops, six tackles for zero and three pressures.

✓ TB RODNEY STEWART All-Big 12 Candidate DOAK WALKER AWARD CANDIDATE
 One of the top backs in the Big 12, he's sixth in the conference and 30th nationally in rushing (92.1 yards per game, 737 net yards). He's cracked CU's top 20 in all-time rushing (13th), is a workhorse with 173 carries (22 per game). He's ran for five or more yards 63 times, has earned 48 first downs (20 on third/fourth down) and is 13-of-15 on third/fourth-&-1 runs.

✓ DE JOSH HARTIGAN All-Big 12 Candidate (2nd Team/H.M.)

He moved to defensive end (from OLB) in the spring, and has adapted well at his new position; he's CU's fastest speed-rusher. Has had a knack for the big play, as in 190 snaps from scrimmage, he has 10 tackles (9 solo), a team-best three sacks, six third down stops rarely throwing in his direction (he missed the Texas Tech game with an ankle sprain he suffered early in the Baylor game).

✓ WR/KR TONEY CLEMONS All-Big 12 Candidate (2nd Team/H.M.)

He's been getting more touches lately, and could still be a factor as an all-league candidate at either receiver (30-344, 11.5, 1 TD) or as a return man (10-255, 25.5 kickoff return). He's been in on two of CU's four long plays, a 73-yard reception for a TD against Hawai'i and a 53-yard kickoff return at Missouri.

✓ TE RYAN DEEHAN All-Big 12 Candidate (2nd Team/H.M.) ORIGINAL DOAK WALKER WATCH LIST

He was on the original John Mackey Watch List but did not make it into the 22 semifinalists. He has caught 19 passes for 197 yards in addition to his blocking duties for the CU running game. An additional catch earned a 2-point conversion in the Georgia game.

✓ OLB B.J. BEATTY All-Big 12 Candidate (2nd Team/H.M.)

His forced fumble near the end of the Georgia game helped preserve a 29-27 CU win. He has 20 tackles, five for losses including two sacks, a team-high 10 quarterback pressures, two of which caused interceptions, three third down stops, two tackles for zero, a pass break up and a touchdown save.

ONCE A CANDIDATE FOR HONORS BUT INJURED: ILB Jon Major

✓ OT DAVID BAKHTIARI Freshman All-American / Freshman All-Big 12 Candidate

(Fr.-RS) He is enjoying a rookie season, as he won the starting right tackle job in fall camp and has had a stranglehold on it all season. He is grading out to 87.0 percent, playing 532 snaps from scrimmage. He has 31 knockdown/finish blocks, two touchdown blocks and has not allowed a quarterback sack.

✓ DE CHIDERA UZO-DIRIBE Freshman All-American / Freshman All-Big 12 Candidate

(Fr.) His playing time has slowly been increasing ... has played 101 snaps ... first career tackle was a quarterback sack against Colorado State ... has seven tackles, five solo including two-and-a-half sacks, two tackles for zero, three third down stops and a forced fumble in his time on the field to date.

GAME-BY-GAME STARTERS

Here are CU's starters for the 2010 season (bold indicates first career start); this list often does not reflect who might be "listed" first at a position, as especially on offense, the first play selected often involves a particular grouping:

GOOD-MAN NOTE

Many have criticized PK Aric Goodman for his on-and-off success as CU's field goal kicker throughout his career; he's 20-of-41, with the 20 makes tied for ninth and the 41 attempts tied for fifth all-time at Colorado (and it's been well documented that he's hit an upright on seven of those misses). But one area he's usually done fairly well in that has received little attention has been kicking off: of his 32 kickoffs this season, the opponent has started inside its 25-yard line 25 times (inside-the-20 five times). For his career, he has 85 kickoffs (58 returns, 25 touchbacks, 1 out of bounds), with the opponent having to start inside its 25 some 60 times. The average starting yardline for the 85 kicks has been the opponent 24.

TALK ABOUT BEING DUE

Colorado has lost a school-record 15 consecutive road games (14 at campus sites, with the other at Jacksonville still considered to be a Florida State home game back in 2008). Four of the losses have been by a touchdown or less, and the string includes 11 straight league games on the road as well, also a school record. During this span, CU has played three other games away from Folsom Field, all at true neutral sites: the 2007 Independence Bowl versus Alabama (a 30-24 loss), and two against Colorado State in Denver (38-17 in 2008 and 24-3 this year). A closer look at the streak:

INJURY UPDATE

The injury list keeps mounting, with now six players lost for the remainder of the season; and it does not include DT Nate Bonsu, who is redshirting while he builds up strength in a surgically corrected knee. The injury list as of November 2:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Kansas
WR	Dusty Ebner	ankle	suffered a fracture in the first fall scrimmage (Aug. 12), had surgery to mend; limited practice this week	OUT
OT	Bryce Givens	ankle	suffered a sprain early in the second half against Texas Tech (did not travel to Oklahoma)	PROBABLE
WR	William Jefferson	hip	suffered a hip pointer against Oklahoma	PROBABLE
WR	Travon Patterson	ankle	suffered a sprain against Oklahoma	QUESTIONABLE
C	Keenan Stevens	knee	underwent arthroscopic surgery on 10/19 to mend a cartilage injury suffered in practice 9/14	DOUBTFUL
CB	Paul Vigo	leg	suffered a lower leg fracture in the second quarter versus Hawai'i; returning to limited practice	OUT
OUT FOR THE SEASON
OL	Shawn Daniels	foot	suffered a fracture against CSU; had surgery (Sept. 17)
CB	Vince Ewing	knee	suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament late in the first scrimmage (Aug. 12)
QB	Tyler Hansen	spleen	suffered a ruptured spleen against Texas Tech (clean hit) on Oct. 23; could return for a bowl game
TB	Brian Lockridge	ankle	suffered a sprain against Georgia; tests indicated muscle tear; had surgery on Oct. 15
ILB	Jon Major	knee	suffered a sprained MCL, will be re-evaluated in near future to determine surgery/rehab
FS	Parker Orms	knee	suffered a torn ACL on the third play of the opener (CSU, Sept. 4), had surgery (Sept. 24)
SS	Anthony Perkins	knee	suffered a sprain at Missouri, re-evaluation indicated torn ACL; had surgery Oct. 22

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

THIRD DOWN DEFENSE REMAINS STRONG

In 2009, Colorado was solid defensively on third down, as the enemy converted at just 34.1 percent on the year (58-of-170); within those numbers were 26-of-89 (29.2%) at Folsom Field; 3-of-22 (13.6%) inside the Buff 20; and 13-of-28 on 3rd-&-2 or less and 28-of-59 on 3rd-&-4 or less, distances teams usually click around 60 percent or better. There was still a feast or famine factor, as opponents gained 913 yards on 58 makes (15.7 per), but gained just a net 15 on the 112 misses (0.1). Colorado was 21st in the nation in third down defense, spending all season in the top 25 and much of it in the top 15; only No. 2 Texas (7-of-14) converted at 50 percent or better against CU in 2009, the only team to do so against the Buffs in the last 22 games.

➡ In 2010 (seven games), CU's third down defense continues to be solid, as the Buffs have held the opponent to 35-of-100 (35.0, good for 26th in the NCAA).

The opponent is also just 3-of-11 on fourth down (CU is ninth nationally; the combined 38-of-111 (34.2) on third/fourth down is the 12th best in the land.

AND ON OFFENSE

Third-and-short wasn't exactly CU's forte in 2009, as the Buffs were just 8-of-12 on 3rd-&-1 last fall; fast-forward to 2010, and Colorado is a much improved 13-of-16 on 3rd-&-1 (16-of-19 when including 4th-&-1). But it's just not with short yardage; CU is 61-of-132 (46.2%, 25th in the NCAA) with the second most makes and attempts in the top 20 (Air Force has the top numbers in both, 62-of-121). The Buffs are 29-of-42 (69.0%) on 3rd-&-4 or less, and 50-of-87 (57.5%) on 3rd-&-8 or less.

INJURY BUGABOO STRIKES AGAIN

Colorado lost 121 games due to injury or illness in 2008, with all but 11 of those 121 by players who figured in either the two-deep or prominently on special teams. It was an entirely different story in 2009, as CU for the most part escaped a barrage of serious injury (49 total games missed due to maladies). But in 2010, they have once again reared their ugly head. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 20 years, with 2009 thrown in for comparison's sake (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost — percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost	Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost
2010	8	66	616	10.7	58	352	16.5	2002	13	139	1118	12.4	80	572	14.0
2008	12	121	1008	12.0	110	528	20.8	2003	12	74	876	8.4	58	528	11.0
1998	11	101	864	11.7	89	484	18.4	1997	11	51	770	6.6	41	484	8.5
2000	11	101	880	11.5	82	484	16.9	2009	12	49	972	5.0	43	528	8.1

Dating back to 1987, only seven times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08).

UP AND AT 'EM... EARLY

Colorado is practicing regularly in the morning for first time in recent memory (at least since the 1950s as far as anyone can recall). The team begins meetings at 6:30 a.m., and practices in the 8-10 a.m. range on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Now college kids aren't exactly known for being early risers, but the team has embraced the new schedule; also with an abundance of upperclassmen for the first time in the Hawkins Era, classes they need for graduation are offered more and more in the afternoon, and over the last couple of years, many players were missing practice or had to be excused early to attend an afternoon class they needed to complete their requirements.

NO NAMES Also in 2010, the Buffaloes are not wearing nametags on the back of their jerseys after several seniors wanted to do away with them and to play for "the name on the front." It's the first time since 1983 that the Buffs are not displaying names. And in camp, the Buff helmets did not display the buffalo logos until after two-a-days ended, and even at that point, not all positions donned the mark until the season opener against Colorado State.

DEFENSE AMONG NATIONAL 3-&-OUT LEADERS AGAIN

Colorado was among the national leaders in 2009 in forcing "three-and-outs," when the opponent is held to three plays then punting (or less if forcing a turnover or if stopped on fourth down without earning a first); the Buffs forced 53 in 12 games, 11th best in the nation. In 2010, the Buffaloes are once again among the nation's best, standing in 16th through games of October 30; here's a look at the national numbers (compiled by Ohio State SID office):

School	G	3 & Outs	Avg.	School	G	3 & Outs	Avg.	School	G	3 & Outs	Avg.
Ohio State	9	53	5.88	Buffalo	8	34	4.25	LSU	8	31	3.88
TCU	9	50	5.55	Florida State	8	33	4.13	Colorado	8	30	3.75
West Virginia	8	41	5.13	Alabama	8	32	4.00	Idaho	8	30	3.75
Texas	9	46	5.11	Missouri	8	32	4.00	Arizona State	8	30	3.75
Boise State	7	35	5.00	North Carolina State	8	32	4.00
Utah	8	39	4.88	Arizona	8	31	3.88
Nebraska	8	37	4.63	San Diego State	8	31	3.88

TOUGHEST SCHEDULES

Colorado is once again playing one of the toughest schedules in the nation according to the Sagarin Ratings, generally perceived to be a better system than the NCAA's simplistic/misleading W-L record tabulations. CU has played the nation's fifth toughest schedule to date, one of four Big 12 schools in the top 20 (Iowa State is at No. 11, Texas at No. 15 and Oklahoma No. 18). The top 10 is littered with Pac-10 Conference schools, CU's future home: 1. Oregon State; 2. Washington State; 3. Washington; 4. UCLA; 5. Colorado; 6. Tennessee; 7. California; 8. Wyoming; 9. Arizona State; 10. Southern California.

FOUR IF BY LAND ...

The Buffaloes remain among the national leaders in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed. CU is tied for ninth in the nation, having permitted just five scores by rushing at the two-thirds mark of the year; Baylor (two), California, Oklahoma and Texas Tech are the only teams to punch one in against the Buffs on the ground. The last time a Colorado team allowed fewer than 10 in a single season was in 1989, when only eight opponent scores came via the rush.

FEWEST RUSHING TOUCHDOWNS ALLOWED (through October 30)—1. West Virginia 2; 2 (tie). South Florida, TCU 3; 4 (tie). Alabama, Arizona, Illinois, South Carolina, Wisconsin 4; 9 (tie). Colorado, Boston College, Clemson, Syracuse, Utah 5.

DÉJÀ VU

Not that this is a particular great déjà vu, as it is not, but the parallels between CU's 52-7 loss at California on Sept. 11 and a loss by the exact same score 19 years ago against Nebraska in Lincoln are almost spooky. Take a look at the chart at the right, and the similarities in several categories are practically carbon copies. Late in the first half, turnovers deep in CU territory led to touchdowns in the final seconds (:11 remaining at Berkeley, :01 in Lincoln), scores that demoralized both CU teams going into the lockerroom. The score was 31-7 after three quarters in both instances, and the winning team fattened up the stats in the fourth quarter: NU had just 281 yards entering the fourth, while Cal had just 168—and was actually being outgained by the Buffaloes. Both CU teams placed its defense in terrible field position, especially in the first half. The good news is that the '92 team rebounded, won the rest of their games, and earned a berth in the Fiesta Bowl. Take a closer look:

Category	1992 vs. Nebraska	2010 vs. California
Score	7-52	7-52
Halftime	7-24	0-31
4th Qtr Pts Allowed	21	21
Opp. Average Starting Field Position....	N47	Ca40
Yards Allowed	428	356
4th Qtr Yards Allowed	147	188
Opponent Return Yards	89	169
Turnovers	6	5
Opponent Points	24	31
Red Zone	6-8	6-6
TD's/FGs	5/1	5/1

Both teams used short fields and defensive returns to either score or set-up the bulk of its points. In CU history, the Buffaloes have allowed 50 or more points just 25 times (in 1,140 games); the Cal game marked just the fourth time that an opponent scored 50 points but did not record at least 400 yards in offense. The low was by Notre Dame, which gained 351 in a 55-14 win in South Bend in 1984; right behind was 352 by UCLA in the Bruins 56-14 win in the 1980 season opener (that's deceiving because UCLA coach Terry Donahue called off the dogs after building a 56-0 halftime lead). Next comes the 356 that California amassed this year in the 52-7 win, and then 398 by Missouri in a 57-0 win in Columbia in 1957.

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2010

- 2 The number of games played in less than three hours to date in 2010 (1 under 2:50; just the 5th that fast or faster since 1990).
- 3 The number of interceptions the Buff defense had in the season opener; their most in 25 games ('07 finale vs. Nebraska).
- 7 The number of kicks (6 field goal/1 PAT) by PK Aric Goodman that have hit the upright in his CU career (out of 23 misses).
- 8-of-45 The opponents' combined efforts on third down inside-the-CU 20 (or 17.7 percent) in the last 21 games (dating to 2008).
- 9-3 Dan Hawkins' record following a bye week (3-3 at Colorado), which CU had prior to the Georgia game on October 2.
- 15 The consecutive number of games that Colorado has lost on the road (does not include neutral sites).
- 15-15 Colorado was 3-of-3 in the red zone against CSU, thus are now 15-of-15 (10 TDs) when cracking the 20 in Dan Hawkins' five season openers.
- 22 The number of games played in less than three hours since 1990, including the two this year (out of 253 games).
- 23 The number of games under Dan Hawkins that have been decided by seven points or less (out of 57).
- 23-1 Colorado's record in season openers since 1967 when scoring first.
- 27 The number of games CU has had at least one sack in (out of the last 28; the school record mark of 25 ended versus Baylor).
- 29.5 The third down efficiency of opponents against Colorado in the state's borders since the '09 opener (43-of-146).
- 30 The number of "three-and-outs" the Buff defense has forced the opponent into (out of 97 possessions).
- 44 The consecutive number of games that WR Scotty McKnight has caught a pass in, an active player best in the NCAA (45 including bowls).
- 68 The number of players CU used in the Colorado State game, its most since Sept. 8, 2001, when 68 also played in a 51-15 win over San Jose State.
- 85.7 The career conversion percentage on 3rd/4th-&-1 runs by TB Rodney Stewart (24-of-28; 13-of-15 this season).
- 1,145 The number of games Colorado has played in its history (121st season of intercollegiate football).

THREE HOURS? WE DON'T NEED NO STINKIN' THREE HOURS

Thanks to combining for just 118 plays (60 by Colorado, 58 by CSU), the third lowest combined count in a CU game since the elimination of the platoon era (1965), the season opener took just 2:49 to play. That was CU's first-sub three hour game since 2006 (2:55 vs. Iowa State), and its fastest since earlier that same year when the CU-CSU game took all of 2:48 to play (also in Denver). Perhaps the players and coaches wanted it to end fast; the 90 degree temperature tied for the sixth warmest temp at kickoff in school annals, just one degree off the school high for a game played in the state of Colorado (two 91 degree affairs in Boulder (vs. Washington in 2000 and vs. Fresno State in 2001).

➤ Fast-forward to week three, and the Hawai'i game took just 2:57; however in that one, the teams combined for 133 plays (CU 78, UH 55).

SPEAKING OF TIME...

The Buffaloes rank eighth nationally in time of possession, averaging 32:44 per game; the Buffs had the advantage for the first seven games this year, with a high of 36:36 against Baylor; Oklahoma was the first to "out-possess" CU this season. The last time CU averaged over 32 minutes a game was in 2001 (32:05), with the school record set in 1989, when the norm was 32:09. Those two CU squads were dominant rushing teams that thrived on keeping the ball away from the opponent, something this CU team has also done for the most part.

NATIONAL T.O.P. LEADERS (through October 30)—1. Stanford 34:24; 2. Army 34:01; 3. TCU 33:45; 4. Central Florida 33:43; 5. Ohio State 33:03; 6. North Carolina State 32:53; 7. Northern Illinois 32:52; 8. Colorado 32:44; 9. North Texas 32:33; 10. Southern Miss 32:29.

HANSEN QUICKLY MOVING UP A SPECIALTY CHART

QB Tyler Hansen is CU's first real dual threat quarterback (run and pass) in a decade, realistically since Mike Moschetti put up quality numbers in both disciplines in 1998 and 1999. He's already 11th in passing yards (2,822) and 13th in total offense (3,185); but to grasp how adept he is with his legs, look closer below.

➤ He is 14th in school history in true rushing yards by a quarterback: when adjusting for sack yardage to be thrown out of the equation, he has 141 true rushes for 806 yards, a healthy 5.71 average per rush. That last figure at present is topped by just two previous quarterbacks: Kordell Stewart averaged 7.04 yards per true rushing attempt (1991-94) and Bernard Jackson figured to 6.21 every time he carried the ball. A closer look and a chart Hansen no doubt will make one day:

COLORADO TO MAKE MOVE TO PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE IN 2011

To the surprise of many, in the wild conference realignment scenarios this past spring, Colorado was the first domino to fall when the Buffaloes officially accepted an invitation to join the Pacific-10 Conference on June 11. The CU Board of Regents voted 9-0 in favor of the move, which originally was scheduled to take place for the 2012-13 athletic season was accelerated a year ahead of time, also by a 9-0 board vote on Sept. 21, which ratified a Big proposal to withhold $6.8 million in revenue distribution from the school for its departure penalty. The Buffs will now become a member of the newly created Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2011.

"This is an historic moment for the Conference, as the Pac-10 is poised for tremendous growth," said Commissioner Larry Scott. "The University of Colorado is a great fit for the Conference both academically and athletically and we are incredibly excited to welcome Colorado to the Pac-10."

"On behalf of The University of Colorado students, faculty, alumni and fans, we are proud to accept this invitation from the Pac-10 and join the most prestigious academic and athletic conference in the nation," said Phil DiStefano, chancellor of CU-Boulder. "The University of Colorado is a perfect match — academically and athletically — with the Pac-10," said University of Colorado President Bruce Benson, "our achievements and aspirations match those of the universities in the conference and we look forward to a productive relationship."

Colorado played a vital role in the creation of the Big 12, something apparently forgotten by many in the South Division, both media and administration alike. CU chancellor Jim Corbridge and athletic director Bill Marolt were key participants, Marolt being one of the top AD's in the nation at the time, which was the spring and summer of 1994; the school received an invitation of December that same year to join the Pac-10, but the Regents voted 6-3 not to join on the advice of both Corbridge and Marolt because CU had played such a significant role in expanding the old Big 8 Conference to add the four Texas schools.

Marolt: "The Big 12 was created when CU was sitting in the chair of the Big 8. All of the decisions related to the conference and the television deals were done at meetings of all members of the 12 eventual schools. I was chair of the athletic directors and Jim was the same for the faculty reps. As you know the chair controls meetings and the agenda so both Jim and I were intimately involved. It's too bad Carl James is no longer alive because he would confirm our role and quiet the historical revisionists." In short, Texas and Oklahoma played no greater role than Colorado.

On Oct. 21, several announcements about the future of the now Pac-12 Conference were released, including divisions in football: CU will join Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California, UCLA and Utah in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford will comprise the Pac-12 North.

A LOOK AHEAD: PAC-12 DIVISIONS

On Oct. 21, several announcements about the future of the now Pac-12 Conference were released, including divisions in football: CU will join Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California, UCLA and Utah in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford will comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program (2010 records in parenthesis):

Football is the only sport that will compete with a divisional set-up; there will be nine league games, five from within the division and four from the other; the basketball teams will play an 18-game conference schedule. Other sports are yet to be determined.

STATBULLETS

- Opponents have scored 21 percent of its points this season (46 of 222) after 12 Buff turnovers. CU had forced 14 opponent turnovers but has converted into just 9 points; part of that is due to the fact that nine of those miscues have occurred in CU territory, while seven of CU's turnovers have occurred on its side of the 50.
- TB Rodney Stewart's 22-yard run for a first down on 3rd-&-22 late in the first half at Missouri was the 3rd-&-20 or longer conversion by a rush since at least 1993, when numbers are much more accessible.
- New Sack Streak. The Buffs had one or more quarterback sacks in 25 straight games, the longest streak in school history, until Baylor ended the run by not allowing one on October 16. CU started a new streak with two versus Texas Tech and the new streak stands at 2.
- Interception Streak. CU picked off at least one pass in five straight games (games 3 through 7), the longest such streak since plucking seven foe passes over the 2007 (last five games) and 2008 (first two) seasons.
- Lost in Texas Tech's 27-24 win over Colorado was the fact that the Buffaloes enjoyed their first turnover-free game since a 65-51 win over Nebraska on Nov. 23, 2007. Tech had two turnovers, which has contributed to a "turnover turnaround." At halftime of the Hawai'i game, CU was minus-4 in turnover margin (committing 7, forcing 3); since that juncture, the Buffs have committed only five turnovers in these last 18 quarters while forcing 11.
- Back-to-Back Scores. The opponents have the edge on CU by 9-6 through eight games, though each time adds up to a 31-15 advantage. The enemy had two runs of five straight scores, one of four, five of three in a row and one of two; CU has one four-score run, one three in a row and four of two.
- 200 Rushing Back-to-Back. Colorado rushed for 235 yards in its 29-27 win over Georgia, the second straight game the Buff rushing attack amassed over 200 yards (CU had 252 against Hawai'i). That marked the first time the Buffs rushed for 200-plus yards back-to-back (after going 19 straight games under 200) since 2006, when they did it twice (Baylor/Texas Tech and Kansas State/Iowa State); all six of these games were in Boulder. In his career, coach Dan Hawkins' teams are now 40-1 in his career when rushing for 200 or more yards (8-1 at Colorado; the only loss was against KSU in 2006, and have won six in a row since then when hitting 200 yards on the ground). Colorado is 81-5-1 when rushing for 200 or more yards since the start of the 1989 season.
- In 2009, the Buffs started 55 drives either inside (39) or at its own 20-yard line (16), but only scored three times on those possessions (16 points total on two touchdowns and a field goal). But in 2010, Colorado has started 42 drives in the same circumstances (20 inside, 18 at the 20), and have already doubled the number of scores from a year ago (three) with six touchdowns (or 43 points).

SERIES HISTORY—COLORADO VS. KANSAS

Colorado leads the series by a 42-24-3 count, including a 24-9 edge in Boulder and by 17-15-3 in Lawrence (1-0 in Denver); CU leads by just 9-6 in the last 15 games and had reeled off five straight in the series until KU's come-from-behind 20-15 win in 2006 in Lawrence, the first of three straight by the Jayhawks. Prior to a KU win in Boulder in 1995, CU had reeled off 10 straight wins, the longest streak by either school in the series, which began back in 1903. Though CU has dominated in the win column over the last 24 meetings (20-6), 14 of the games have been decided by 13 points or less (with eight by seven or fewer). And dating back to 1965, CU owns a hefty 34-9-1 lead in the series, turning around a 13-9-3 KU advantage established in the first two-thirds of last century. Dan Hawkins is 1-3 versus KU, while Turner Gill is in his first season at Kansas. SERIES DID YOU KNOW — The second largest comeback in CU history was registered against the Jayhawks in 1961; Kansas led 19-0 with 13:18 left in the game but CU rallied for a 20-19 win. It stands as the second largest comeback in school history behind only a 20-point comeback at Missouri in 1978. But the Buffs also have rallied from 14 down twice, in 1991 (winning 30-24 after trailing 24-10) and in 2004 (30-21 after falling behind 14-0), and also came back from 13 down (winning 17-16 in 1974 after being behind 13-0). Thus, four of CU's 17 all-time greatest comebacks have come at the Jayhawks' expense.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 25th. In 1985, Colorado won the game with the least number of total scores (3) and touchdowns (2) in 18 years (and since as well) with a 14-3 triumph in Lawrence. The defensive battle was highlighted by CU's Dan McMillen, the Big 8's defensive player of the week, who recorded what still stands as a school best five quarterback sacks. Mickey Pruitt opened the scoring with a 27-yard interception return for a touchdown, and the Buffs limited KU to just 62 yards on 32 rushes in a game where the winner had the inside track to earn a Freedom Bowl invitation.

THE SET-UP

- The last four games in the series have been close, with three decided by five points or less and the fourth—a Kansas 30-14 win in 2008, just a two-point game entering the fourth quarter. CU's 34-30 win last year prevented the Jayhawks from winning for in a row for the first time in the series.

HEAD TURNING DEBUT

SS Terrel Smith was asked to give up his redshirt season in the seventh game of the season. How did he respond in his first start? By tying the school record for the most tackles by true freshman with 15 against Texas Tech (he had four solo stops, 11 assists, two half-sacks and a third down stop). J.J. Billingsley had 15 (12 solo) against San Diego State on Sept. 7, 2002; that was the second game of his career and Smith's 15 is more than likely the most by a Buff in his first career game. Smith added two more tackles on special teams coverage duty for an overall total of 17. He followed that game up with eight tackles (five solo) at Oklahoma.

BUFFS & JAYHAWKS BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia or fun facts with Colorado and Kansas:

- 2:09 The time of the final drive that led to CU's 30-24 comeback win on a snow-covered Folsom Field in the 1991 game;
- 4 The number of touchdown passes by Colorado's Joel Klatt, the most by any quarterback in the series;
- 5 The record number of quarterback sacks by Colorado ILB Dan McMillen in the 1985 game (including one "helmet-less");
- 10 The number of turnovers forced by Colorado in the 1976 game, a 40-17 Buffalo win (six fumbles, four interceptions);
- 18 The number of yards DT Leonard Renfro returned an interception for a touchdown to open the scoring in the 1992 game;
- 41.4 The average number of points by Colorado in its last eight wins in the series (42, 51, 27, 53, 50, 30, 44, 34);
- 47 The points scored by Kansas in the 2003 overtime loss, the most ever allowed by Colorado when winning a game;
- 59 The length of a field goal by KU's Johnny Beck at the halftime gun of the 2001 game, a Folsom Field record until Crosby's 60-yarder in 2004;
- 87 The number of rushing attempts by the Buffaloes in the 1970 game (for 429 yards);
- 94 The number of yards Melvin Johnson returned a kickoff for a TD in the 1974 game (a key play in an eventual 17-16 CU win);
- 166 The number of yards receiving by Charles Johnson in 1992, which made him the first CU receiver to top 1,000 yards for a season;
- 232 The number of yards by Rashaan Salaam in the 1994 game that allowed him to break Eric Bieniemy's single-season record;
- 309 The number of yards by Chris Brown in the 2002 game, the third most in CU history (and the third 300-yard game);
- 1981 The last year there was a shutout in the series (at Lawrence, a 27-0 Kansas win).

KANSAS NOTES

Kansas is 2-6 overall and 0-4 in the Big 12 under first-year coach Turner Gill. The Jayhawks have lost 11 straight Big 12 games, a streak that started in Boulder a season ago, when ranked Kansas came into Boulder 5-0 overall and 1-0 in the Big 12 before the Buffs prevailed 34-30. QB Quinn Mecham is coming off his first start, a 28-16 loss at Iowa State last week, and completed 22-of-33 passes for 149 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His touchdown was to James Sims, who caught five passes for 13 yards. Sims leads the Jayhawks in rushing with 435 yards and three touchdowns after having played in seven of the eight games. Jordan Webb, who played quarterback in the first seven games of the season, had compiled 1,114 yards and seven touchdowns in those games. Two players have just under half of the Jayhawks receptions on the season, with Daymond Patterson having caught 44 passes for 338 yards and two touchdowns and Johnathan Wilson has 28 receptions for 230 yards and a touchdown. The Jayhawks rank 77th or lower in every NCAA statistical category except pass defense (42nd, 199.25) and kickoff returns (42nd, 22.9). They rank last in the Big 12 in scoring offense (112th nationally), scoring defense (100th), sacks (113th), turnover margin (116th), punt returns (112th), net punting (87th) and pass efficiency defense (111th), and 11th in total offense (96th), pass efficiency (102nd) and sacks allowed (105th). Three Jayhawks rank in the top 40 nationally in a statistical category as D.J. Beshears ranks 17th nationally in kickoff returns, averaging 27.8 yards per return, Alonso Rojas ranks 31st in punting (43.6 yards per punt) and Patterson ranks tied for 39th with 5.5 receptions per game.

- ➔ Kansas coach Turner Gill is in his first season at Kansas and is 22-36 in his fifth season as a head coach, previously compiling a 20-30 record at Buffalo. He was a standout quarterback at Nebraska and then spent 13 seasons on the Cornhuskers staff as an assistant coach before spending one season as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers.
- ➔ Kansas is coming off a 28-16 loss at Iowa State last week. The Jayhawks led 9-7 at the half before the Cyclones scored 21 unanswered points in the third quarter and then held on for the 12 point victory. Daymond Patterson had six receptions for 22 yards while James Sims had five for 13 yards and a score receiving and he ran 19 times for 60 yards. Agnus Quigley had 14 rushes for 69 yards. Quinn Mecham, in his first start, completed 22-of-33 passes for 149 yards and one touchdown and one interception. The Jayhawks gave up 5.8 yards per rush to the Cyclones, who racked up 232 yards rushing on 40 attempts, but held the Cyclones to 168 yards through the air.

CREEK CLEANUP

How did CU spice up its bye week? Practice on Thursday (Sept. 23) started a little earlier so it would end at 9 a.m.; at that time, the players and coaches, numbering over 100, participated in cleaning up Boulder Creek from Broadway to 28th Street. We normally don't promote most of our community service ventures, as all players are required to do a minimum amount every semester at the request of head coach Dan Hawkins. But when an entire team cleans a public creek, well, that's news. It was no easy task, as the group easily removed a half ton of garbage if not more from the roughly 2-mile stretch of the creek.

PUNCH VS. PUNCH

Looks like turnover margin, as CU is on the plus side both overall (+0.25) and in the Big 12 (+1), while Kansas is minus-1.13 for the year, and down 2.0 in league games.

THE LAST TIME: COLORADO 34, KANSAS 30

OCTOBER 17, 2009 (FOLSOM FIELD)

Boulder—Colorado's Cha'pelle Brown batted down a Todd Reesing pass in the end zone on the game's final play, preserving a 34-30 CU victory over previously unbeaten No. 17 Kansas, the 11th ranked, undefeated team since 1989 to visit Folsom Field and leave with its first loss.

The Buffs (2-4, 1-1 Big 12) snapped a two-game losing streak and won their first Big 12 game of the season. CU's defense held KU (5-1, 1-1) to minus-8 yards rushing, but surrendered 431 passing yards with Reesing doing the majority of the work (30-of-51, 401 yards, two touchdowns). KU took a 3-0 lead into the second quarter as both offenses struggled early, going three-and-out on each of their first two possessions.

CU got untracked under quarterback Tyler Hansen, making his first start of the season, near the end of the first quarter. He fashioned a 45-yard drive, and on the first play of the second quarter, CU's Aric Goodman, kicking despite an abdominal strain, hit a 45-yarder to tie the score.

On KU's second play of the next drive, the scrambling Reesing had the football knocked from his grasp when he ran into offensive tackle Jeff Spikes and Will Pericak recovered at the Jayhawks' 3-yard line. One play later, Stewart scored, giving CU a 10-3 lead with two scores just 29 seconds into the second quarter.

Hansen then began to roll, directing an 8-play, 79-yard drive. There were three big plays on that drive: a 20-yard scramble by Hansen, a 36-yard Hansen to Markques Simas completion, and a 12-yard scoring pass from Hansen to tight end Riar Geer.

Hansen then made his first mistake of the night, throwing an interception to safety Darrell Stuckey, but Jilil Brown had his QB's back, picking off Reesing and returning it 35 yards to the KU 1-yard line. Two plays later, Hansen went over right tackle for the touchdown, his first career score and CU led 24-3 with 2:24 before intermission.

That was more than enough time for Reesing to execute a textbook 2-minute drill. In an 11-play, 80-yard march, he hit Kerry Meier on a 4-yard TD pass with 11 seconds left in the half.

CU took the second-half kickoff, positioned Goodman for a 39-yard field goal and increased its lead to 27-10. Kansas then went to work as Reesing directed his offense on another 80-yard drive, capped Toben Oporum's 2-yard dive to pull within 27-17.

After another CU turnover, this time a Rodney Stewart fumble, CU's defense held Kansas to a field goal and CU's lead was down to a touchdown at 27-20. In a bit of déjà-vu, Hansen fumbled the ball away and again CU's defense held Kansas to another field goal, as KU continued to chip away at the lead, now at 27-23 as the third quarter came to a close.

Following a CU punt, Reesing capped a 58-yard drive with a 25-yard TD pass to Briscoe, giving KU a 30-27 lead.

Giving up the lead is perhaps what the Buffs needed to get their offense back into gear, and Hansen directed a 10-play, 76-yard march and the Buffs reclaimed the lead, 34-30, on a 13-yard Stewart run. Stewart was first hit at the 7-yardline and bulled his way to pay dirt. Hansen hit Geer for 29 yards on 3rd-and-15 earlier in the drive.

But 8:36 remained for Reesing, who converted a third-and-29 with a 41-yard pass to Briscoe. On fourth-and-goal from the 6-yard line, Reesing's pass for Briscoe was broken up in the end zone by Jimmy Smith.

CU was unable to run the clock out and KU took over with 59 seconds left. Reesing pushed his team to the Buffs 19-yard line, where after he spiked the ball to stop the clock, Jilil Brown batted away one pass and then Cha'pelle Brown batted the ball away from Dezmon Briscoe in the end zone as time expired.

GAME NOTES

With Kansas entering the game ranked No. 17 (Associated Press), since the start of the 1989 season, Colorado has now played the second most ranked teams in the nation (103), trailing only Florida (112) and equaled by Florida State ... CU is 43-58-2 in those games ... WR Will Jefferson made his first career start, the first true freshman to start for CU in 2009 ... The teams went "three-and-out" on the first four possessions; the game's initial first down came at the 8:19 mark of the first quarter ... Kansas netted only a first quarter field goal, extending the opponent streak to eight quarters at Folsom Field without a touchdown (CSU scored two first quarter TDs in the opener and KU got the next one late in the first half) ... PK Aric Goodman's 45-yard field goal to open the second quarter was his first career make as a Buffalo between 40-49 yards (he was 0-for-8, and 2-of-14 including his time at Wyoming); he did make a 54-yard kick against CSU and had a 52-yard boot when he was a Cowboy ... Colorado's 24-3 lead in the second quarter was its second largest of the year, behind only the 24-0 final score in the win over Wyoming; it also marks the largest margin KU has trailed in 2009 ... WR Scotty McKnight extended his regular season streak to 30 games with at least one reception ... CU was in danger of tying its record for losing its largest lead (21 points on two previous occasions, once to Kansas: in 1950, CU led 21-0 but lost 27-21; the other was in 2007 at Iowa State, losing 31-28 after leading 21-0) ... The 24 points scored by Colorado was its most in a single quarter since Aug. 30, 2003, when the Buffs scored 28 points in the second quarter of a 42-35 win over Colorado State in Denver.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 6

Colorado is 11-6-1 all-time on November 6, opening 4-0 on the date in games from 1894 to 1909 where CU outscored those four schools 118-0. Here's a brief look at some of the games played on the date: 1909—CU smears New Mexico at Gamble Field, 53-0, but the Coloradan (school yearbook) summed it up as such: "The game was exceedingly uninteresting, both from the spectators point of view and that of the players. The formations were loose, the fumbles many, and the tackling poor." And it was referring to Colorado. 1937—Byron White accounts for all CU's points in a 17-7 win at Utah, as he scored on an 86-yard punt return, a 57-yard run and kicked both extra points and a 15-yard field goal. By now, word of this phenom in the Rocky Mountains was spreading and White was on display for several national sportswriters this day in Salt Lake City. 1954—John Bayuk scored two touchdowns, the second putting CU up 19-13 late in the third quarter in Columbia, but host Missouri rallied for a 19-19 tie. Perhaps the second most famous blocked extra point in Colorado history took place this day, when Frank Bernardi crashed through the line and literally blocked the ball with his face, causing a broken nose. 1971—Perhaps hung over from the previous Saturday's 31-7 loss at No. 1 Nebraska, the Buffs trail Kansas in Lawrence, 14-7, midway in the third quarter before exploding for 28 points in the final 20 minutes for a 35-14 win. Four different Buffs score those touchdowns, three 1-yard runs to cap drives, and an 85-yard run on an end-around by Cliff Branch that gave CU the lead for good. Branch had 100 yards rushing on just carries, while Charlie Davis ran for 85 with two scores. 1976—Colorado took an early 7-0 lead in Columbia, but that was the only time it lit up the scoreboard as Missouri came back for a 16-7 win. At the end of the day, Nebraska was atop the Big 8 standings at 4-1, followed by five teams with 3-2 marks in one of the most wide open seasons in league history. 1982—It was homecoming for first-year CU head coach Bill McCartney, but not a good one as he returned to his alma mater but lost, 35-14, to Missouri. CU fell behind 35-0 by halftime, but turned things around and played much better in the second half but the mountain was too big to climb. 1993—Kordell Stewart threw for 328 yards and three touchdowns in becoming CU's all-time leading passer, leading the No. 23 Buffaloes to a 31-14 win over host Oklahoma State. Stewart's three scoring tosses covered 152 yards, 26 and 54 to Charles E. Johnson that broke open a 10-7 game, and a 72-yard bomb to Michael Westbrook that sealed the Cowboys fate with 11 minutes left in the game. 1999—After spotting No. 6 Kansas State a 20-0 lead, the Buffs gave the host Wildcats a fourth quarter scare with two touchdowns, both long passes from Mike Moschetti to Javon Green (64 and 70 yards). It was defensive chess match, with the teams combining for 411 yards, 18 punts and 16 three-and-outs. 2004—CU needed three straight wins to have a shot at the Big 12 North title, and got the first one in Lawrence, leaving town with a 30-21 win. The Buffs overcame four turnovers and just 253 yards on offense, but had return touchdowns from Dominique Brooks (41 yard, fumble) and Stephone Robinson (48, punt) to bolster the effort.

NOVEMBER 6 COLORADO MVP: Byron White, 1937. Not only did the future U.S. Supreme Court Justice score all 17 points in CU's 17-7 win at Utah, he did it under the watchful eye of several national sportswriters, paving the way to being named the school's first All-American in football.

McKNIGHT KEEPS MAKING HISTORY; TWO BIG ONES REMAIN

Junior Scotty McKnight has caught a pass in every game he has played in as a Colorado Buffalo—44 regular season plus the one bowl game for a total of 45. He shattered the previous school record for the most consecutive games with at least one reception, 27, set by Charles E. Johnson between 1991 and 1993 (CU records do not include bowl games; if it did, McKnight also topped Johnson's 29 straight). That was his first foray into the record books in 2009.

NCAA BEST: Nationally, McKnight remains the holder of the nation's longest streak of games played with at least one reception; here's the list as compiled by the Central Michigan SID office (these include postseason): Scotty McKnight, Colorado 45; Dwayne Harris, East Carolina 39; Titus Young, Boise State 37; Jock Sanders, West Virginia 36; Greg Salas, Hawai'i 36; Tyson Carrier, Houston 35; Damaris Johnson, Tulsa 34; Ryan Broyles, Oklahoma 33; Kito Poblach, CMU 33; Kendall Wright, Baylor 33; Kris Adams, UTEP 33. Oregon State's James Rodgers was at 33 but he's out for the season with an injury.

He cracked the top 10 at Colorado in both all-time receptions and all-time receiving yards early in 2009, and continued to zoom up both charts; he's now first in catches (passing Michael Westbrook in the first game this season), fourth in receiving yards and fourth in touchdown receptions. A closer look:

All-Time Receptions

6	Derek McCoy (2000-03)	134	2,038	15.2	20

RECEIVING TOUCHDOWNS: 1 (tie). Rae Carruth, Derek McCoy 20; 3 (tie). Scotty McKnight, Michael Westbrook 19; 5. Javon Green 17.

2009: McKnight finished the '09 season with 76 receptions for 893 yards; those numbers tied for second and seventh for a single-season at CU. His 56-yard TD catch to close the Nebraska game (and CU's season) is the longest pass reception of his career (previous long was 40 his freshman year).

OTHER WALKONS TO MAKE THEIR MARK

McKnight, a former walk-on who was awarded a scholarship prior to his sophomore year, joined a few other prominent former walk-ons in making his mark on the CU program:

WR JEFF CAMPBELL (1986-89): Led CU in punt returns three seasons and his 84 returns is still tied as the school career mark; his 31.3 average per catch for the 1988 season remains as the school record for the highest with a minimum of 15 receptions; at one point held the record for the longest reception (90 yards).

QB JOEL KLATT (2002-05): He set 44 school records, mostly passing, including setting the mark for all-time passing yards (7,375) which still stands.

DB RYAN SUTTER (1994-97): Set the school record for most career special teams tackles (64) as well as points (123); his 170 tackles as a senior were (and remain) the second most in a single season in school annals.

P JOHN TORP (2002-05): The runner-up for the '05 Ray Guy Award set five school records, including most punts inside-the-20 (65) and over 50 yards (64).

NON-CONFERENCE POUNDING

The assumption by some was that Colorado was going to air it out in 2010, but that didn't prove to be the case in non-league play. The Buffs ran 281 plays, calling 166 running plays (59 percent) and 115 pass plays (which include 10 times the quarterback has been sacked). If the trend holds, it would be the first time CU will predominately run the ball since 2006, when Bernard Jackson was at the controls and was a running QB. In 2009, CU called rushing plays 39 percent of time, with figures of 48 percent in 2008 and 49 percent in 2007; with Jackson behind center in '06, running plays were on the agenda 60 percent of the calls. Otherwise, you have to go back to 2002 to find a Buff team that ran the ball over 50 percent of the time (and with Chris Brown and Bobby Purify taking handoffs, CU ran the rock to the tune of 65 percent of its plays).

- However in league play, the Buffs have run 302 plays or 75.5 per game, with 180 called pass plays (59.6%) and 122 rushing plays (Rodney Stewart has 87 of those carries).

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 23rd most all-time (Michigan State in 22nd with 303, Pittsburgh is 24th with 288). Since 1989, CU has played the fifth most ranked teams in the nation (106), trailing only Florida (117), Florida State (108), Ohio State (107) and Michigan (107).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 12TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 12th most in the nation in this time frame (22 seasons). Florida State has the most with 71, followed by Florida (68), Ohio State (61), Michigan (60), Miami, Fla. (54), Southern Cal (53), Tennessee (52), Alabama (49), Texas (46), LSU (44), Oklahoma (44), Colorado (43), Penn State (43), Nebraska (41), Georgia (40) and Notre Dame (40); as for the Big 12, after CU, UT, OU and NU, the next schools on this list are Texas A&M (29) and Texas Tech (23). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas last year (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team. CU has lost 10 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win at UCLA 31-17 in 2002.

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-10: the two will be travel partners, and most assume it won't be a cozy as the current five mates. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

SHARING SNAPS

Senior SN Joe Silipo and true freshman SN Ryan Iverson are handling the short and long snapping honors, respectively; together, they equal the total number of special team snappers CU had for the previous eight seasons. Greg Pace handled all the chores from 2002-05, with Justin Drescher doing the same from 2006-09. Iverson's snapped it 46 times and Silipo 26 to date.

RICHARDSON MAKING HISTORY

WR Paul Richardson, officially the last member of the 2010 recruiting class when he joined the team just two days ahead of fall camp, has made some history in his short history in a CU uniform. Against Hawai'i, he scored the first two-point conversion scored by a CU freshman since Sept. 30, 2000, when QB Craig Ochs ran one in against Kansas State; those are the only 2-point conversions scored by freshmen (true or redshirt) in CU history. Then against Texas Tech, when he caught four passes for 79 yards (career highs), he became the first true freshman in CU history to have two touchdown receptions in the same game, and just the third frosh (true/redshirt) to do it, joining WR Michael Westbrook (1991 vs. Missouri) and TE Brody Heffner (1996 vs. Iowa State).

He currently has the 11th most single-season receiving yards by a freshman in CU history; a closer look (*—redshirt freshman):

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts through games of October 30 (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career number will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ CB JALIL BROWN is tied for 28th in interceptions (6), is 15th in pass deflections (22) and 11th in special team tackles (21);
- ⇒ PK ARIC GOODMAN is 23rd in scoring and eighth in kick-scoring (136 points), is tied for seventh in field goals made (20);
- ⇒ QB TYLER HANSEN is 11th in passing yards (2,822), eighth in pass completions (275), 10th in passing attempts (460), 11th in touchdown passes (15), 13th in total offense (3,185) and is 14th in adjusted rushing yards by a quarterback (798);
- ⇒ QB CODY HAWKINS is third in passing yards (6,456), is second in completions (598), is tied for first in attempts (1,095), is first in touchdown passes (49), is first in interceptions (37), is third in total offense (6,297) and first in touchdowns responsible for (56).
- ⇒ DE MARQUEZ HERROD is 31st in quarterback sacks (10);
- ⇒ TB BRIAN LOCKRIDGE is seventh in kickoff return yards (917), is ninth in returns (40) and 101st in rushing (412);
- ⇒ WR SCOTTY MCKNIGHT is first in receptions (201), is fourth in receiving yards (2,322), is third in receiving touchdowns (19), is tied for 31st in scoring (120), is 18th in total yards from scrimmage (2,326) and is 30th in all-purpose yards (2,383);
- ⇒ CB JIMMY SMITH is 95th in tackles (160) and is 16th in pass deflections (20);
- ⇒ TB RODNEY STEWART is 13th in rushing yards (2,163), is 17th in yards from scrimmage (2,424), is 27th in all-purpose yards (2,424) and is tied for 45th in scoring (96 points).

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001, 2002 and 2004 seasons—when the Buffs won the Big 12 North. The Buffs had advantages of 854-417 (2001), 803-607 (2002) and 574-499 (2004) in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. In the Hawkins Era, in 2006, the opponent had the upper hand at 390-277, but in 2007 (677-408) and 2008 (518-323) CU had hefty edges; opponents had a rare 631-267 command in 2009 and again this fall (373-146). And the Buffs have 46 return and/or non-offensive touchdowns over the last 12 seasons (42 regular season, four bowl game), the 17th most in the nation for this span. STEWART CLIMBING THE RUSHING CHARTS

Junior TB Rodney Stewart is the featured runner in the Buffs' rushing attack, figuring to get the bulk of the carries as he did over the last 10 games of the 2009 season (197 attempts compared to 36 by the other three tailbacks combined). He had five 100-yard games as a sophomore, ending with a 110-yard day against Nebraska's vaunted rushing defense, which had been allowing 99 yards per game and less than three yards per carry. He had three multiple rushing TD games in 2009, the most since Chris Brown had six in 2002 (and five in '01). Overall, 367 of his 804 yards came after he was first hit by a defender (45.6 percent). But on to 2010:

- ◆ He has 742 yards on the season, 221 after contact; he will become the ninth player in CU history to lead the Buffaloes in rushing three seasons (the eighth to do it three in a row, and the fifth to do it with at least 600 yards all three seasons).
- ◆ He has 173 carries on the season, 141 which have gained yards (17 for no gain and 15 for losses); he actually had more yards lost (12, on four minus runs) against Texas Tech than he had in the first six games (11 lost on nine stops behind the line).
- ◆ He had 19 carries for 149 yards against Georgia, and was never thrown for a loss, the 43rd game in CU history where a player rushed for 140 or more yards without being tackled once for a loss (it tied for 34th on the list). The record is 259 yards by Rashaan Salaam versus Iowa State on Nov. 19, 1994.
- ◆ He has now cracked the top 20 on CU's all-time rushing chart, holding down the 13th spot with 2,163 career yards.
- ◆ Stewart now has 11 career 100-yard rushing games (three in 2010); that's tied for the fifth most in school history. Ahead of him: Eric Bieniemy 22, Chris Brown 14, Rashaan Salaam 14, Charlie Davis 13, Bobby Anderson 11, James Mayberry 11, Rodney Stewart 11.
- ◆ And in the NCAA? — CAREER 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES (NCAA Active Players): 1. Vai Taua, Nevada 23; 2. Noel Devine, West Virginia 19; 3. John Clay, Wisconsin 18; 3. Jacquizz Rogers, Oregon State 18; 3. Montel Harris, Boston College 18; 3. Kendall Hunter, Oklahoma State 18; 7. LaMichael James, Oregon 15; 8. Colin Kaepernick, Nevada 14; 8. Evan Royster, Penn State 14; 10. Mark Ingram, Alabama 13; 10. Alexander Robinson, Iowa State 13; 11. Lance Dunbar, North Texas 13; 13. Rodney Stewart, Colorado 11 (also with 11: Lewis, Pitt; Helu, Nebraska; Grigsby, Arizona; Toddman, UConn).
- ◆ He became the 49th player in Colorado history to record at least 1,000 career rushing yards, and reached the number in his 14th game, and the 12th to reach the mark as a sophomore. He recorded the second most career yards by a player at CU entering his junior year with 1,426, trailing only Eric Bieniemy, CU's all-time leading rusher, who had 1,751 after two seasons; Stewart was just the 12th player at CU to reach 1,000 yards by his junior season.

CHART-MANIA

The below charts offer a look at what Colorado has accomplished over the 24 football seasons between 1985 through 2009 (list includes only those schools who have been members of Division I-A all 21 seasons):

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-10 Record	Dan Hawkins Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-50-2	8-17-1	1-2	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-86-3	14-30-2	1-4	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-109-3	20-41-2	1-10	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-142-3	43-61-2	3-15	20 / Bill McCartney

CU, Nebraska and Texas have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the 15-year old league owns a 39-85 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own nine of those wins. CU is 9-12 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 8-7, Texas 7-6, Oklahoma 4-6, Missouri 3-5, Kansas 2-3, Kansas State 2-5, Baylor 1-6, Oklahoma State 1-6, Iowa State 1-10, Texas Tech 1-10 and Texas A&M 0-9. CU has played 21 of the 123 games, with Nebraska next with 15 followed by Texas (13).

HANSEN JUST THE ELEVENTH

When he appeared late in the first quarter against Kansas State as a true freshman (Oct. 18, 2008), QB Tyler Hansen became just the 11th true freshman to see action in a game for Colorado since 1972, the year freshmen were once again eligible to play. Hansen was ticketed to redshirt in 2009, but the wraps came off that in the Texas game (fifth of the season) and he was promoted to starter for the following game. It's still possible another true freshman could very well join the below list at some point this season (CU's has three quarterbacks who are all true frosh). Here's a look at the group Hansen joined and how they fared; game number indicates how far into the season the player made his debut (Colorado is 9-2 in games when a true frosh made his Buffalo debut):

The most interesting of the above might be the first listed; in 1977, CU traveled three quarterbacks to Ames, and the first two, Jeff Knappe and Pete Cyphers, both went down with injuries and Lillo took over for the last 11:40 of the game and helped preserve a 12-7 Colorado win. It was the only action of his career at quarterback as he redshirted in 1978, and then played free safety his sophomore through senior seasons. NOTE: In 1984, Mark Hatcher was originally a quarterback but was moved to tailback where he saw action for seven games; he returned to quarterback in 1985 in CU's switch to the wishbone offense.

And in 1986, Bill McCartney opened up the competition at quarterback after the fifth game of the year, and true frosh Marc Walters (father of current Buff Ryan) appeared for the first time in game seven (Nebraska), and started the season finale at Kansas State when CU needed the win to secure a Bluebonnet Bowl bid.

AND JUST THE FIFTH Hansen started the next game at Missouri on October 25, becoming just the fifth true freshman to start a game at quarterback for the Buffaloes (and just the eight freshman overall when three redshirts are included). Here's how he compared with the four before him:

TRUE FRESHMAN STARTING QB DEBUTS

Date	Quarterback	Opponent	Result	Statistics
Oct. 18, 1980	Randy Essington	at Missouri	L 7-45	Rushing: 4-(-19), 0 td Passing: 22-11-1, 58, 0 td (57.2 rating)
Nov. 22, 1986	Marc Walters	at Kansas State	W 49-3	Rushing: 18- 88, 2 td Passing: 4-4-0, 111, 1 td (415.6 rating)
Oct. 17, 1992	Koy Detmer	OKLAHOMA	T 24-24	Rushing: 9-(-22), 0 td Passing: 50-33-5, 418, 2 td (129.4 rating)
Oct. 7, 2000	Craig Ochs	at Texas A&M	W 26-19	Rushing: 6-6, 1 td Passing: 25-15-0, 239, 1 td (153.5 rating)
Oct. 25, 2008	Tyler Hansen	at Missouri	L 0-58	Rushing: 16-30, 0 td Passing: 16-12-0, 72, 0 td (112.8 rating)

THIRD DOWN SPECIALIST Hansen was near perfect in the 31-13 win over Hawai'i on third downs: he was 9-of-10 for 149 yards (2 touchdowns and eight downs). Through five games, he's completing 66 percent of his passes on third and fourth downs, picking up 19 first downs with three scores.

HAWKINS RISE UP THE CHARTS GETS A BUMP

QB Cody Hawkins was one of 16 freshman starting quarterbacks in the nation in 2007 (8 at BCS schools), and threw for 2,693 yards, just the fifth 2,500-yard season in school history (the total tied for the third most a season at CU). He set all the major passing and total offense records for a true freshman, and also set a record for attempts in a season by any class. Hawkins placed high on the other single season lists as well, such as attempts, completions and total offense. His 19 touchdown passes were the fourth most in a single season (record: 22, Koy Detmer in 1996), while his 15 interceptions tied for the second most in a single year (record: 16, John Hessler in 1997, followed by 15, Joel Klatt 2004). The interception count was a bit skewed—seven were by deflection. As is sometimes the case after a solid freshman year, a sophomore slump set in to a degree, and he was replaced as CU's starter six games into the 2009 season (CU was 11-16 when he started).

- He is in the top 5 in every major passing category, including first in TD passes (49), tied for first in attempts (1,095), second in completions (598) and third in yards (6,456).
- Red Zone. He has a 35-to-6 career ratio of touchdowns to interceptions in the red zone (1-to-1 this year; 7-to-2 in 2009, 11-to-2 in 2008; one pick last year was costly, as CU was trying to capitalize on a Texas turnover and retake the lead in the third quarter; instead, UT's Earl Thomas returned it 92 yards for a score).
- The 40-On-In. Hawkins has solid numbers once reaching the opponent 40-yard line. He has completed 220-of-374 passes for 2,513 yards, with 45 touchdowns and 12 interceptions. That works to a passer rating of 149.4.
- He had his career game when it came to passer rating with a figure of 179.95 in a 28-24 come-from-behind win over Iowa State in 2007. But looking inside the numbers, once CU crossed midfield, he was even more deadly: he completed 11 of 13 passes for 91 yards and four touchdowns, which worked to a rating of 244.96 (and it was even higher from the 40-on-in, at 250.03).
- Speaking of ratings, his career rating is a modest 112.1; however, he has been hurried/pressured 190 times, 16 of which were intercepted, both numbers being rather high due to playing behind a young and/or patchwork offensive line at times. His rating when the opponent is not credited with a pressure? 138.4.

CLOSE CALLS TEND TO GO CU'S WAY

Colorado is 19-15 dating back to the start of the 2003 season when the final margin has been seven or fewer points. These "close calls" include a 10-13 record in the Dan Hawkins Era. Starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, which helped propel Colorado to the Big 12 title, the Buffaloes area 23-17 in seven-point or less decisions the last 10 seasons.

THE BUFFALOES IN THE BIG 12

The Big 12 Conference is now in its 15th season; the Buffaloes are tied for the fourth most division titles won with four, trailing only Oklahoma's seven and Nebraska's and Texas' five; seven of the schools in the conference have won a division title. A closer look:

➔ Big 12 Division Titles: Oklahoma 7, Nebraska 5, Texas 5, Colorado 4, Kansas State 3, Texas A & M 2, Missouri 2.

➔ Big 12 Championship Game Records: Oklahoma 6-1, Texas 3-2, Nebraska 2-3, Texas A & M 1-1, Kansas State 1-2, Colorado 1-3, Missouri 0-2.

CU vs. THE BIG 12 NORTH: Colorado owns the second best record in intra-division competition going back to the start of the 2001 season against Big 12 North Division rivals, as the Buffaloes are 25-21; other records: Nebraska is 31-16, Missouri 25-22, Kansas State 25-23, Kansas 19-28 and Iowa State 16-31. Colorado is 16-7 at home in this stretch versus the North, the only losses to NU (2003, 2005, 2009), MU (2007, 2009), KSU (2006) and KU (2007).

29TH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's 29th best record over the last 21-plus seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 159-102-4 record. From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks). The best Division I-A records from the start of 1989 through games of October 30 (includes only those teams who were FBS members the entire 21 seasons):

HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS

Dan Hawkins is in his fifth season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, and his 10th overall as a FBS/Division I-A head coach and 16th as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 19-38 record at Colorado, along with a 72-49 record in the Division I-A ranks (53-11 at Boise State) and an overall career mark of 111-61-1 including five years at NAIA Willamette (Ore.) College. In his final year at Willamette (1997), his team posted a 13-1 record, falling in the NAIA Championship game, before he moved on to Boise State where he was assistant head coach under Dirk Koetter for three seasons. At BSU, he coached the tight ends and special teams while coordinating recruiting; when Koetter left BSU for Arizona State after the 2000 season, Hawkins was promoted to head coach. He took the Broncos to four bowl games in five years, with his 2004 team compiling an 11-0 regular season mark and ascending to No. 10 in the national polls; in the most anticipated non-BCS bowl game to date, Boise State dropped a thriller to No. 7 Louisville, 44-40. In the modern history of Division I-A football, only three coaches won more games in their first five seasons than Hawkins (53, bested by Bob Pruett, Marshall; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma; and Pete Carroll, USC). Hawk's

- ♦ Hawkins & Bye Weeks. Hawkins is 9-3 in games following bye weeks, not including bowls (3-3 at Colorado, 6-0 at Boise State). At Colorado, the 3-3 mark includes a 1-2 mark against Nebraska, a split with West Virginia in 2008 and 2009 and a 1-0 record versus Georgia.
- ♦ Hawkins has been a head coach for 173 games (111-61-1), with that record and 64.5 winning percentage the 20th best in the nation for active coaches with five or more seasons coached.
- ♦ Hawkins coached the CU wide receivers for one year (2009), as his staff was in transition after a late coaching change, so he handled the daily chores himself.
- ♦ In 15 seasons as a head coach, Hawkins' teams have been shutout just twice, the first coming in his 149th game at the hands of Missouri (58-0 in 2008). He had never dropped more than two games in a row in the same season (which happened just three times) until his first season at CU and won at least eight games seven times (10-plus four times).

- ♦ Hawkins tells his players: "You're in America, you're going to college, you live in Colorado. You have it better than 90 percent of the people in the world."
- ♦ Hawkins has used the term "conflama" when referring to some people's desire for conflict and drama (the reason someone like Jerry Springer and that lot is even on the air). He references it when people on the outside of a program choose to look at the negative without choosing to understand why something may very well be the way it is.
- ♦ Hawk on depth charts: "To be honest, we really don't pay too much attention to depth charts, we run a lot of personnel in and out of there at several positions. For example, I view the defensive line like hockey; they're playing in shifts as we want them fresh."

As a result, especially on offense at receiver, tight end and in the backfield, CU utilizes different "groupings" as opposed to following a depth chart.

- ♦ Hawk on the vertical passing game: "I love the long pass. As I've come along in this game, I've learned you've got to pound it and launch it."
- ♦ Hawkins believes the four most important positions on a football team are the offensive and defensive lines, quarterback and cornerback.
- ♦ Hawk's philosophy on big wins, like CU's 27-24 over No. 3 OU in 2007: "You enjoy it on Saturday, but come Sunday, it's in the vapor trail."
- ♦ One of his beliefs is, "Once is a mistake; twice is a behavior." He applies it to football, whether for things on or off the field, and to life.
- ♦ Hawk's response about potential for disaster after the 0-3 start in 2006: "There's always potential. When you get in your car and get out on the freeway, there's potential for disaster. I knew when I left Boise State there was potential for disaster. That doesn't scare me... there's also the potential for greatness. So you can hide behind the shadow if you want, but that's not living."
- ♦ Versus' Ron Thulin on Hawkins' optimism: "His glass isn't half-full, it's overflowing. He's not going to change. He said they are going to keep fighting and doing the little things every day. I think everyone on our crew was ready to put on a football helmet after talking to this man yesterday. He is excitable and he cares."
- ♦ As with many coaches, at the end of practice, the team will run for turnovers, mistakes, missed field goals, etc. One day in 2006 after PK Mason Crosby missed a kick within his range, Hawk felt a little bad as he wondered to himself, "How many coaches are making their kids run for a missed 64-yard field goal?" He also often has fun, sending linemen on post-patters, with linebackers as the quarterbacks, and sometimes he even includes media in attendance in a drill.
- ♦ Hawkins is not a voter in the Division I-A coaches poll coordinated by USA Today/ESPN; coaches are now selected by a random draw; the CU head coach had voted every season from 1987-2009, so this snaps the streak.
- ♦ CONTRACT. In 2008 (Oct. 7), Hawkins' contract was extended through the 2012 season. Hawkins was named the 23rd head football coach in Colorado history on December 16, 2005, and originally signed a five-year, $4.25 million contract that was effective January 1, 2006, through December 31, 2010, not including incentive compensation (see below). The new contract was effective as of July 1, 2008 and runs through January 31, 2013, with the guaranteed compensation package includes base salary ($174,720); radio, television and public appearances ($514,500); sponsorship support ($210,000); and football camps ($52,500) for a total of $951,720, prior to performance incentives. Those incentives includes academic progress toward graduation of football program athletes; meeting performance objectives in the area of player welfare and development; development of football program outreach; participation in the Big 12 Conference championship game; league and national titles and bowl participation and wins; and competitive success (e.g., if named conference or national coach of the year).

THE CLASS OF '06

In 2006, 10 programs hired new head coaches, including Colorado (with Northwestern being the 11th to do so when head coach Randy Walker passed away unexpectedly in July '06). HAWKINS THE 10TH TO COACH FIVE YEARS AT COLORADO

Dan Hawkins has become the 10th head coach out of 23 overall in CU history to coach at least five seasons. The nine coaches who previously reached year number five generally had winning teams, with six posting winning records, a seventh going .500 with a bowl loss and two others under .500. The fifth year being the "charm" happened on two occasions: the 1967 Buffaloes under Eddie Crowder went 9-2, and were ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation after 5-0 start, and capped the season with a 31-21 win in the Bluebonnet Bowl over Miami, Fla.; the 1986 team under Bill McCartney opened 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined 10 points, but then rebounded to go 6-1 in Big 8 play, toppling No. 3 Nebraska on the way and played for the league title against Oklahoma but fell, 28-0. A look at the 10 who spent at least five years at the helm of the Buffs (*—denotes final season):

EIGHT DOUBLE-DIGIT COMEBACKS IN HAWKINS ERA

Colorado has rallied from 10 or more points down in the Dan Hawkins Era to win eight games, two this season. The most recent was against Georgia; after taking an early 14-3 lead, UGA responded with 21 straight points to go up 24-14. Colorado countered with a 15-3 run to rally and win 19-27. The previous week, the Buffaloes spotted Hawai'i a 10-0 halftime lead, but a strong third quarter, including two short TB Rodney Stewart touchdown runs, did UH in as the Buffaloes took control. In 2009, CU also came back from 10-plus down twice: Trailing 21-10, CU tied the game at 21 in the third quarter against Texas A&M (Nov. 7, 2009) only to see the Aggies score 10 quick points to open the fourth quarter to go back up, 31-21. But the Buffaloes persevered; CU pulled back to within 31-28 on a 7-yard run by TB Demetrius Sumler with 7:14 left, and then took the lead 35-34 on a 22-yard pass from QB Tyler Hansen to TE Patrick Devenny with 2:04 left. The Buffs then held on defense to secure the win. Seven have taken place in Boulder, with the eighth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State. A closer look:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. Upstairs are offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau, secondary coach Ashley Ambrose and graduate assistants Ben Steele and Bert Watts. Head coach Dan Hawkins wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Ron Collins, linebackers coach Brian Cabral, passing game coordinator/wide receiver coach Robert Prince, offensive line coach Denver Johnson, running backs coach Darian Hagan, defensive line coach Romeo Bandison and special teams/tight ends coach Kent Riddle. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

OLD-TIMER

Associate head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. Now in his 21st full-time season (304 games), he is now the longest tenured assistant coach in Colorado all sports history. A closer look at the top eight in football:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Brian Cabral 20 (1990-current); 2. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 8. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58).

Cabral ranks 12th on the list of active coaches for continuous full-time service at the same school in the nation; 10th among all assistant coaches. The entire national list:

Versus' Ron Thulin said about Cabral: "He's one of the great individuals. Besides being an outstanding football coach he has been the barometer for this football program for the last two decades. He teaches a lot more than just football to these players and that's why Dan Hawkins kept him on the staff. He's one of the best in the business."

EXPERIENCE

Colorado's 2010 coaching staff is again youthful (average age of 44.2), yet experienced. The 10 full-time coaches who comprised the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 107 seasons in Division I-A, combining to coach in 1,223 games (with a record of 681-531-11, .561). The aggregate age of the 10 is 442 years through October 4; associate head coach Brian Cabral (54) is the elder statesman, followed by Denver Johnson (51), the only two over 50. Five of the coaches are 40 or older, including head coach Dan Hawkins (49), and two under, with offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau the youngest (37). Kiesau is the 27th youngest coordinator in the Division I-A/FBS ranks, the 19th most youthful on the offensive side (15th with full-title); a closer look:

QUARTERBACK BATTLES OVER THE LAST TWO DECADES

The competition for the starting quarterback the last two years was really just the seventh real battle in the last 19 years at Colorado, though the fourth time in the last eight seasons (the other times the incumbent was either entrenched or had little competition); this was the first time the same pair dueled it out close for two seasons. Cody Hawkins topped Tyler Hansen in 2009, with Hawkins pulling ahead a bit the second half of camp with the plan to redshirt Hansen if possible (that was scrubbed when Hansen played the fourth quarter at Texas and then assumed the starting role the following week, leading CU to a 34-30 win over Kansas); Hawkins also beat out Nick Nelson and Matt Ballenger for the nod in 2007. In 2010, Hansen had a slight edge after spring ball and then distanced himself a bit from Hawkins in fall camp. There was a three-way competition for the job in 2006 among James Cox, the initial winner, Bernard Jackson (who would start games two through 12) and Brian White (who quit after the first game). The last time had been in 2003, when walk-on Joel Klatt earned the nod; in 2000, the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter but four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and did not relinquish the role the remainder of the season. In 1998, the first real battle in six years, juniors Mike Moschetti and Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won the job and Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety. Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91, taking over for the dying Sal Aunese after he was diagnosed with stomach cancer in March 1989.

AND MORE— In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best examples of this came in the 1991 Orange Bowl, when Johnson replaced an injured Hagan in the second half and earned MVP honors in leading CU to a 10-9 win over Notre Dame which paved the way for Colorado to be named the consensus national champion, and in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

How did the Hansen and Hawkins compare in the six main scrimmages each year (three each in the spring and fall)? Pretty darn close; take a look:

THE VERTICAL GAME

Dan Hawkins noted that one thing missing from CU's offense his first season in 2006 that was prevalent of his past offenses at Boise State was the vertical passing game. "By the end of the season, we'd always be up in the 70s or 80s in the number of pass plays over 20 yards," he said. He was definitely on mark with his assessment. In 2006, CU had just 35 total, 18 rushing and 17 passing, the Buffs' fewest overall 20-yard plays since 2000 (38) as well as pass plays of 20 yards or more since 2002 (23, also the last time CU had a quarterback quit the team after the season began). Colorado did have 18 rushing plays of 20 yards or more, and while not an overly large number, it was its most since 2002 and higher than nine of the totals in the 13 season snapshot below. In 2007, CU had 58 plays of 20 yards or longer (66 percent more than in 2006, more than doubling the pass play count). But in 2008, the Buffs went the other direction, with just 40 plays of 20 yards or more, reflective of the troubles CU had on offense when it comes to consistency; the number did spike up a bit to 44 total for 2009 but is back down in 2010, with just 21 such plays (though 210 of 515 overall have gained five or more yards). Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass

TRENDS

1985-2010

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 187-121-4; in these 312 games spanning 25-plus seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

♦ with 400-plus yards total offense	107-20-2	♦ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	88-19-1
♦ with 500-plus yards total offense	52- 5-0	♦ when leading at halftime	149-23-2
♦ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	72- 9-1	♦ when leading after three quarters (149-15-3 in last 167)	154-17-3
♦ when punting three or fewer times	67-17-1	♦ when scoring 24 or more points	153-26-2
♦ with zero turnovers (136-38-2 with two or fewer)	33-12-2	♦ when held to 13 points or less	3-47-0
♦ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	109-19-1	♦ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	14- 0-0
♦ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	95-13-1	♦ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	102-21-2

TRENDS II

1989-2010

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings, Colorado has posted the nation's 29th best overall record at 159-102-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (265 games over 22 seasons, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	90-42-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	81- 5-1
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (47-5 with 500-plus)	93-20-2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	54- 2-1
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	104- 8-1	➤ when rushing for 300-plus yards	31- 0-1
➤ when leading in possession time (54-69-1 when not)	105-33-3	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	35- 2-0
➤ when making 20-plus first downs	100-35-1	➤ when passing for 200-plus yards	85-50-2
➤ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	58- 8-1	➤ when passing for 300-plus yards (10-0-1 400-plus)	25-15-1
➤ when scoring first	99-29-1	➤ when passing for more yards than rushing	80-86-2
➤ with zero turnovers (119-62-2 with two or fewer)	27-12-2	➤ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	84-21-2
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	85-12-1	➤ when holding edge in field position	124-30-1

➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	66-14-1	➤ when out-rushing the opponent	129-14-3
➤ when average field position is CU 30+ (26-3 40+)	114-45-2	➤ when owning the edge in return yards	116-37-2
➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	132-33-2

TRENDS III

HAWKINS ERA (2005-2010)

Some trends of Colorado coach Dan Hawkins both overall and at his former school, Boise State; totals are for 121 games including bowls (72-49; the Broncos were 53-11 under his guidance in five seasons):

Category	At CU	Overall	Category	At CU	Overall
➤ when scoring 20 or more points (2-30 when not)	17-13	70-19	➤ when leading after three (11-39 trailing, 3-2 tied)	13- 5	58- 6
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	12- 3	59- 5	➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	10- 5	42- 8

➤ when trailing at halftime (4-1 when tied)	7-27	13-35

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Dan Hawkins, as with most head coaches, believes that when it comes to turnovers, that they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. He has penalties and rewards daily in the practice dependent on the number of turnovers committed or forced. Former CU coach Gary Barnett drilled home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football, which he learned from the legendary Bill McCartney. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 22 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 29th best overall record:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
159 WINS	265	398	+ 133	1,295	537	+758
HAWKINS ERA (19 WINS)	30	41	+ 11	97	81	+ 16
102 LOSSES (& 4 TIES)	257	175	- 82	407	810	-403
HAWKINS ERA (38 LOSSES)	80	64	- 16	145	228	- 83
22-SEASON TOTALS (265 Games)	522	571	+ 49	1,702	1,347	+355
HAWKINS ERA (57 Games)	110	103	- 7	242	309	- 67

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is now 21-15 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior, including both West Virginia games in 2008 and 2009; CU has now won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (this year); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009).

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes will begin their 121st season of competition having played 1,145 games with an all-time record of 669-440-36. CU currently stands 17th on the all-time win list and is 23rd in all-time winning percentage (.600; 21st for those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 294-146-10 in 86 seasons on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 135 times in 215 tries, including 23 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the “two-minute offense” drill since 1988; that’s 64 percent of the time. However, the Buffs are 0-of-6 in the drill in 2010; highlights last year (9-of-14) included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. Thus, in the Dan Hawkins Era, CU is 24-of-41 in the drill (58.5 percent). One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU’s scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 34 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 216 of 238 times, losing 18 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 22 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were Texas Tech in Boulder this year (led 24-14 at start of the fourth quarter), at Oklahoma State in 2009 (led 21-17 and 28-24) and in 2008 at Nebraska (when the Huskers scored 10 points in the final 1:43). In conference play, only Kansas (1984, 2006), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2008), Oklahoma State (1997), Texas A&M (2004), Baylor (2006) and Oklahoma State (2009) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

➤ Colorado has won 100 of its last 113 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—and 27 of the last 36. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 34 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came this year against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining) and last year versus Iowa State (won 28-24 after trailing 24-13 with 9:14 left) and Eastern Washington (won 31-24 after being down 24-17). In 2007 CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 29 occasions (and are 22-7 in games when this occurs). It happened nine times last decade, twice in 2009 (versus Texas A&M: TB Rodney Stewart 118 yards, WR Markques Simas 135; and against Nebraska: Stewart 110 yards, WR Scotty McKnight 114, Simas 108). The previous time was at Baylor in 2007 (TB High Charles 109 yards, and WR Josh Smith 103). That was the first time since 2004, when it occurred three times, as it did in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game: TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State (172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB's Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 151 of the 2010 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below are the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2010 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on this year's opening roster collectively had played in 877 games, with 313 starts entering the season. Recent past numbers entering a season have been 847 games played/236 started (2009), 817/277 (2008), 853/251 (2007), 1,053/295 (2006), 1,080/314 (2005), 761/182 (2004), 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). Hackett (2003).

STARTING STREAKS

OT Nate Solder has made the most consecutive starts on the team with 32, or every game since the start of the 2008 season. CB Jimmy Smith is next, as he has made 23 in a row, and he's followed by DT Curtis Cunningham and NT Will Pericak, both with 20. A reminder of what Dan Hawkins thinks of depth charts: he prefers the term contributors, so whatever play they want to run to open a game could feature virtually anyone that fits a particular play or scheme and affect a player's so-called starting streak if he's not in a particular package.

TWENTY PLAYERS HAVE MADE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2010

Seven players made their first career starts for the Buffaloes in the season opener against Colorado State (four offense/three defense): OT David Bakhtiari, WR Kyle Cefalo, WR Toney Clemons, DE Josh Hartigan, ILB Jon Major, S Parker Orms and TE DaVaughn Thornton. WR Travon Patterson, S Travis Sandersfeld and TE Luke Walters all made their first starts at California game, and CB Paul Vigo did the same versus Hawai'i. Skip ahead to Missouri, and when the Buffs' first drive started at their 2, UB Scott Fernandez started at fullback. And with the injuries mounting in the secondary, S Jered Bell started against Baylor, the first true frosh to start a game for CU in 2010. Two more true frosh started the next game (Texas Tech), WR Paul Richardson and SS Terrel Smith, with CB Jonathan Hawkins (at nickel) and DE Nick Kasa also in the starting lineup for the first time. At Oklahoma, add three more: DE Forrest West, ILB Derrick Webb and ILB Liloa Nobriga (at nickel).

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11), 2006 (24), 2007 (18), 2008 (15), 2009 (18), 2010 (20).

TWENTY-SIX SEE FIRST CU ACTION IN 2010

Last year, 22 players saw their first career action in a CU uniform; in the 2010 opener against Colorado State, that number was equaled as 22 players took the field for the first representing the Buffaloes, including five true freshmen. Since, four others have taken the field for the first time. Here's the breakdown by class of those players seeing their first CU action in 2010 (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (7): DB Jered Bell, *PK Justin Castor, *SN Ryan Iverson, WR Paul Richardson, DB Terrel Smith, TB Justin Torres, DE Chidera Uzo-Diribe.

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (12): OT David Bakhtiari, WR Mario Conte, WR Jarrod Darden, UB Scott Fernandez, P Zach Grossnickle, TB Quentin Hildreth,

*OLB Liloa Nobriga, *S Deji Olatoye, S Parker Orms, TE DaVaughn Thornton, CB Paul Vigo, ILB Derrick Webb.

SOPHOMORES (0).

JUNIORS (4): WR Kyle Cefalo, WR Toney Clemons, ILB Evan Harrington, *PK Marcus Kirkwood.

SENIORS (3): *S Matt Meyer, WR Travon Patterson, *SN Joe Siliipo.

Recent counts seeing their first action at Colorado: 26 (2010), 22 (2009), 30 (2008), 28 (2007), 19 (2006), 16 (2005), 24 (2004) and 24 (2003).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

The percentage of upperclassmen starting games slowly dropped from nearly 80 percent in 2005 to just under 56 percent in 2009, but that number is heading back in the other direction this year in a big way due to Dan Hawkins having his most experienced team in his five years at the school. Early on in his tenure, over the course of the 2007 and 2008 seasons, 95 freshmen made starts, the most in any two-year period in school history (the old mark, on two occasions, was only 54, last occurring in 1999-2000). In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen; that's when the current cycle of youth really started. It's historically a cyclical pattern, showing up in breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class since 1999:

Season	G	SR	JR	SO	FR (RS-True)	UpperCl%	Fr-Pct.
1999	12	115	42	86	21 (20-1)	59.5	8.0
2000	11	55	116	38	33 (15-18)	70.7	13.6
2001	13	102	95	83	7 (0-7)	68.9	2.4
2002	14	155	130	14	9 (0-9)	92.5	2.9
2003	12	105	49	78	32 (14-18)	58.3	12.1

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY ADJUSTMENT

Folsom Field's official capacity is now 53,613, as school officials have removed 137 seats over the last few years from the fourth rows of the three flatiron club levels, all of which had obstructed views. The capacity had been listed as 53,750 since the east side stadium expansion in 2003. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest (tied) in the Big 12 Conference, and will be the fifth oldest in the Pacific-10 when Colorado joins that conference in either 2011 or 2012.

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

School	National Championships	Heisman Trophies	School	National Championships	Heisman Trophies
Alabama	1961-64-65-73-78-79-92	2009	Nebraska	1970-71-94-95-97	1972-83-2001

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

GRADUATION STAT(US)

Three of CU's 17 seniors in 2010 earned their degrees prior to the season: TB Corey Nabors (Psychology, graduated on August 13), OT Nate Solder (Biology, graduated last May) and TE Luke Walters (Environmental Studies, graduated last December); all three are taking course work toward a second major. Ten are on schedule to graduate in December: OLB B.J. Beatty (Ethnic Studies), CB Jalil Brown (Sociology/Business Management), PK Aric Goodman (Business/Operation & Information Management), S Cameron Ham (double in Business & Economics), QB Cody Hawkins (Humanities), DE Marquez Herrod (double in Psychology and Business Management), WR Scotty McKnight (Sociology), WR Travon Patterson (Sociology), Joe Silipo (English) and CB Jimmy Smith (Sociology). Three are targeting next May: S Matt Meyer (Communication), ILB Michael Sipili (Ethnic Studies) and C Keenan Stevens (Anthropology). The 16th senior, WR Andre Simmons (Ethnic Studies), is slated for May 2012.

► NOTE: Including the 2009 seniors, over the last eight years (2002-09), CU has had 146 of its 166 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.0 percent (with one of the 20 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while six are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. Hawkins Era: 69 of the 79 seniors who completed their eligibility have graduated (87.3 percent).

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (69 percent of the entire roster as of September 14—74 of 108 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 40, California 28, Texas 6, Hawai'i 4, Arizona 3, Florida 3, New Jersey 3, Ohio 3, Idaho 2, Louisiana 2, North Carolina 2, Pennsylvania 2, Tennessee 2, Alabama 1, Connecticut 1, Georgia 1, Illinois 1, Nevada 1 and South Carolina 1. That's 19 states total along with the District of Columbia (1) and Canada (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

FOUR SENIORS SERVING AS 2010 CAPTAINS

The University of Colorado football squad selected its captains on August 22, and after the ballots were counted, four seniors were selected by their Buffalo teammates, head coach Dan Hawkins announced. The 2010 captains are cornerback Jalil Brown, quarterback Cody Hawkins, wide receiver Scotty McKnight and offensive tackle Nate Solder.

All four are fifth-year seniors and three-year lettermen, with Brown, McKnight and Solder atop their respective positions on the depth chart; Hawkins is second at quarterback but has started 28 games in is CU career. The veteran foursome combined has played in 144 games, with 97 starts among them.

"It was great to see a number of players receive votes," Hawkins said, noting that all players and not just seniors were eligible to be selected. "Scotty, Cody, Jalil and Nate clearly stuck out in the majority of our team's minds as people they respected as players, students and people. These captains have the ability to both reach out and build up others and carry a firm stance when needed. They are a fine example of our program's foundation of "Excellence with Class."

Brown is a 6-foot-1, 205-pound cornerback from Phoenix, Ariz.; Hawkins a 5-11, 190, and prepped at Boise (Idaho) Bishop Kelly; McKnight is 5-11, 185 who hails from Coto de Caza, Calif.; and Solder, 6-9, 315, is from the small Colorado mountain town of Buena Vista.

McKnight is on the verge of becoming CU's all-time leading receiver in terms on receptions, as his 165 trail Michael Westbrook by just two. Hawkins already owns several school records, most notably career touchdown passes (46) and is in the top five of most passing and total offense marks.

Solder, a preseason All-American by several entities, including the prestigious Playboy team, is the first captain from Buena Vista – but then again, he's the first CU player from there. Brown was among the nation's leaders last season in passes defended with 17 (15 broken up and two interceptions); he also led the Buffs in special team points as a freshman and sophomore.

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 297-13-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 210-4 with 35-plus points and 194-3 with 36-plus, 171-2 with 38-plus and 109-0 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993) and Toledo (54-38 in 2009). CU has played 1,145 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 100-63-3 in its last 166 league games, and has the 12th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 113 of its last 265 games, posting a 104-8-1 record. The most recent losses were to Toledo last year (54-38) and at Nebraska to close 2008 (40-31). The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 178 of these 265 games dating to the start of 1989, going 137-39-2 (CU is 22-63-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed 461 touchdowns in the 882 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 dating back to 1988; the other 421 times have yielded 223 field goals as well as 198 non-scores. In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 24% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 48% of the time, solid defensive numbers.
 - ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the opponent has penetrated the CU red zone 207 times, with 117 touchdowns, 55 field goals and 35 non-scores.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 115 touchdowns out of 293 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 174 scores overall, meaning 119 non-scores). Over the last six seasons, CU's allowed just 133 scores (90 TD/43 FG) in 214 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory (7 scores out of 14 times in 2010, and just 5 TDs).
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards of total offense in 56 of its last 162 contests (once in 2010; 11 times in the Hawkins Era), as CU has made a decent habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 216 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 92 times (43 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 43 of the 216 games since the '93 season opener (21%)... and note that CU has played 85 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. The last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Colorado averaged 5.3 per first down play in 2007, but was inconsistent; the average was 5.5 in Hawkins' first year. That dipped to a modest 4.4 yards in both 2008 and 2009; since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979
 - ➔ In 2010, CU opened with a healthy 6.1 yards a crack on first down against CSU, but is at 4.04 overall through eight games, so it remains a struggle.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 46 scores by return in the last 142 games (two in 2009, with season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 67 scores by return in 191 games (59 regular season, seven bowl), or two every five games.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 14 times in the last 141 games (and 35 times in the last 214, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 35-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 71-62-1 in its last 134 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (67-56 in the last 123, including a 41-30 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 92-42-3 in its last 137 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 59-31-3 mark in conference games. CU was 0-5 on the fake stuff in 2009 (0-2 in '10); the Buffs are 2-15 on it under Hawkins.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per). In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions, but jumped to 12.0 in 2006 (1,022 yards on the 85 conversions). In '07, as opponents had 838 yards on 60 makes (14.0 per), and just 130 on 113 misses (1.1). In '08, opponents had 643 yards on its' 66 makes (9.7 per), and just 78 on the 102 misses (0.8). In 2009, opponents had 913 yards on its' 58 makes (15.7 per), and just 15 on the 112 misses (0.1).
 - ➔ Thus far in 2010, the foe has 35 makes, gaining 463 yards, or 13.2 per conversion; it has minus-7 yards on the other 65 tries (-0.3).
- ➔ Third Down & 36 Inches. Under Hawkins, CU is 59-of-76 on 3rd-&-1 (77.8%), including 13-of-16 in 2010.
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-0 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover. The latest occurrence of this was in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. It also happened twice in 2005, when CU did it in a three-game span (in a 41-20 conquest of Texas A & M and a 44-13 win over Kansas). Those were the first times since 2001, when CU also did it twice (San Jose State and Nebraska). In these 14 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 570-284, with only three games decided by less than 17 points (a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ In 2009, it is what it is as the saying goes, but one of the most all-time perplexing stats to never come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five in 2009. Much like four out of five dentists recommend... well, maybe not. But take for example the Missouri game: the Tigers gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on the other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all meant that 17.6 percent of opponent plays gained 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU has allowed 33 plays over 20 yards in eight games (totaling 1,170 yards); basically 6.3 percent of the plays producing 35 percent of the yards.
- ➔ Colorado was fairly stout in goal-to-go defense in 2009; the opponent had 21 G-T-G's and had just 12 touchdowns (16 scores overall); opponents started 29 drives in CU territory, but had just eight touchdowns (18 scores overall) to show for it. In 2010, the foe has 12 TDs in 16 G-T-G situations, but only five TDs on 14 drives started on CU's side of the field.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 4-of-95 on 3rd-and-20 or more (0-of last-4; Kansas converted on a 3rd-&-29 in 2009). The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09. The CU offense is 9-of-93 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the Buffs have scored in 140 of 228 quarters (61 percent) and 4 of 5 overtime periods. All told, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 609 of 890 quarters (70%). Those numbers include 17 of 30 quarters in 2010.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 17 seniors on its roster in 2010, including its most professional prospects in quite some time. History has proven that most, if not all, NFL teams pass through Boulder every season for a game or practice(s). In 2009, 57 scouts from 22 teams witnessed the Buffs in person; so far in 2010, 31 teams have sent scouts to either camp practices or games (the latter denoted by an *): *Atlanta, *Arizona, *Baltimore, *Buffalo, *Chicago, *Cincinnati, *Cleveland, *Dallas, *Denver, *Detroit, *Green Bay, Houston, *Indianapolis, *Jacksonville, *Kansas City, *Miami, *Minnesota, *New England, *New Orleans, *N.Y. Giants, *N.Y. Jets, *Oakland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, *San Diego, *St. Louis, *San Francisco, *Seattle, *Tampa Bay, *Tennessee and *Washington. Dating back to 2000, all 32 teams have seen multiple CU games in person (469 scouts in the decade-long period).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 87-54 in its last 141 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 75-28 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 67-31-1 in its last 99 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 528-247-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through eight games in 2010, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 464 CU games in his career, including 201 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. In 2009, he was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution. Other dinosaurs: SID Dave Plati has worked 366 including the last 324 (dating to the '83 finale), while facilities man John Krueger has worked 310 in all (a string of 144 straight ended in 2008). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 264 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 310 CU games (celebrating No. 300 in 2009 with a 35-34 win over Texas A&M). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 16 former Colorado Buffaloes on the opening National Football League rosters as of November 1; there were 22 on the rosters at the end of the 2009 season (23 in 2008). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last 22 years of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was second in 2002 and 2003, and was third seven other seasons (including 2004 through 2007). Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other three years). The active list (i—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; a—played three games with San Francisco before being waived—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured status; club still owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

CANADA & ELSEWHERE: Three former Buffs are making livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his seventh year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, TB Hugh Charles is in his third year with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders and OG Edwin Harrison is in his first year with the Calgary Stampeders. TE Tyson DeVree is with Hartford in the UFL.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the six who head prep programs: Dave Logan (Mullen), Mike Marquez (Northglenn), Bill Mondt (Eaton), Tom Tesone (Bishop Machebeuf), Ron Woolfork (Overland) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

➔ CU has had 257 players drafted into the NFL; that's 20th all-time, and fourth among Big 12 schools behind Oklahoma (339), Nebraska (331) and Texas (316); Notre Dame leads with 462, one more than second place USC. OU is fourth, NU sixth and UT ninth; Texas A&M is right being CU in 21st with 255.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 22 of 29 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

STEVENS THE LATEST IN LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS TO RISE TO FIRST-TEAM

After the NCAA started reducing the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (28 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

Player	Pos	First Season	Letters	Notes
Willie Beebe	FB	1978	4L	Solid blocker who scored nine career touchdowns as a bruiser near the goal line
Kyle Rappold	NT	1985	3L	Known as the "trash compactor" for his stature, the Fort Lewis transfer clogged the run
Jeff Campbell	WR/KR	1986	4L	Earned scholarship second day of freshman camp; played five years in the NFL
Ken Culbertson	PK	1986	3L	Scored 98 points in CU's 11-0 run in '89 season, making 59-59 PAT and 11-17 FG
David Gibbs	CB	1986	4L	Solid corner and special teams performer, now coaching with NFL Kansas City Chiefs
Mark Henry	WR	1987	3L	Big play guy with 18 career catches for 416 yards, or 23.1 per catch
Robbie James	WR	1987	1L	Threw TD pass on third down FG fake at Oklahoma State to lead CU to 16-12 win in 1991
Charles Johnson	QB	1987	2L	Often subbed for an injured Darian Hagan, earning Orange Bowl MVP honors in '91 vs. Notre Dame
Chris O'Donnell	LB/SN	1987	4L	Solid as a rock at long snapper on special teams all four years
Keith Miller	FB	1992	2L	From tiny Ovid, Colo., he was a solid blocking back. Now an opera singer with the MET.
Ryan Black	SS	1993	4L	Led team in tackles as a junior in 1996 with 154 (78 solo)
Ryan Sutter	FS	1993	3L	CU's all-time special team points leader, led Buffs in tackles (170, 98 solo) in 1997
Neil Voskeritchian	PK	1993	2L	Won the starting placekicker job in 1994, finished career ninth in scoring at CU (161 points)
Nick Pietsch	P	1996	4L	Led CU in punting in 1997-98-99, finished with a career average of 39.9
Beau Williams	TE	1998	2L	Primarily a blocking tight end, played a big role on CU's 2001 Big 12 title team
D.J. Hackett	WR	2001	2L	Walked on after CS-Northridge dropped football; led CU in receiving in '03, four-year NFL veteran
Tom Hubbard	FS	2001	2L	Defensive MVP of the 2004 Houston Bowl with two interceptions
Evan Judge	WR	2001	4L	Caught 69 balls for 903 yards to finish in top 20 in receiving yards
John Torp	P	2001	3L	Finished second for the '05 ray Guy Awa rd; set a school records with 205 punts, 65 inside the 20
Paul Creighton	TE	2002	4L	Also saw action at FB, he primarily was a
Greg Pace	SN	2002	4L	Took over all special team snapping chores early as a freshman and handled through senior year
Joel Klatt	QB	2003	3L	Former infielder in Padres organization went on to set 44 CU passing and total offense records
Cody Crawford	WR	2004	3L	Has cracked the school's all-time lists in catches and yards
Jeff Smart	ILB	2005	3L	Earned a scholarship 3 games into the 2007 season, first LB to do so under Cabral; second most tackles by a WO
Scotty McKnight	WR	2006	3L	First freshman wide receiver to ever lead CU in receiving (43-488, 4 TD), approaching top 10 in catches and yards
Aric Goodman	PK	2008	2L	In his first season, he was awarded a scholarship after making the game-winning FG versus West Virginia
Jason Espinoza	WR	2008	1L	Suffered two breaks to his collarbone in '08, playing briefly in-between; co-first team WR in '09
Keenan Stevens	C	2009	1L	Pressed into duty in the season opener due to injury, he soon became a fixture and started 10 games

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. But two other streaks remain:

➤ CU has scored in 140 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986), and has scored in 136 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 279 games (all the way back to 1963).

➤ CU has been shutout just nine times in its last 498 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only five schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan.

2010 TEAM MAKE-UP

Specialists Lost (3)— SN Austin Bisnow, P Matt DiLallo, SN Justin Drescher.

2010 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1905 Due to a disagreement with the powers-that-be with the Colorado Football Association, Colorado pulls out of the league for the 1905 season, only to rejoin a year later. Thus, 1905 is the last year in CU football history it competed as an independent (going 8-1 and outscoring the foe 359-28).
- 1910 The 100th anniversary of the second of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. It's the first year of the Rocky Mountain Faculty Athletic Conference (RMAC), and the Buffs allow a single field goal all year in outscoring the opponent 119-3.
- 1920 (Nov. 25) CU closes a 4-1-2 season with a 40-7 win at Oklahoma State, the program's most decisive win outside of the state's borders in 21 seasons of competition and one that wouldn't be bested until a 48-7 win at Brigham Young in 1934 (sans a 43-0 win over an Hawaiian All-Star team in 1924).
- 1935 Kayo Lam becomes the first player in CU history to rush for 1,000 yards (1,043 in nine games), and CU wins its first outright conference title in 11 seasons by going 5-1 in RMAC play, sealing the title with a 14-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day.
- 1940 (Oct. 26) In a 62-0 win over Wyoming in Boulder, 10 different players score for the Buffaloes—still a record to this day. Seven different players score touchdowns (Paul McClung and Leo Stasica scored two), while three others tack on the conversions.
- 1950 Though it's Colorado's third year as a member of the Big 7 Conference, Oklahoma finally appears as a conference opponent for the first time. The Sooners win a tough 27-18 battle in Boulder, the first of many over the course of the decade where CU was a thorn in the side of an Oklahoma team that was in the midst of a 47-0-1 run in conference play (the lone tie a 21-21 affair with the Buffs in 1952).
- 1955 After a 34-13 win at Kansas State, the Buffs improve to 4-0 and vault to No. 14 in the nation prior to their annual showdown with Oklahoma; the following week in Norman, the No. 3 Sooners topple the Buffs, 56-21 in CU's first game as a ranked team against a ranked opponent.
- 1960 (Oct. 29) After going 0-9-1 in the previous decade against Oklahoma, the Buffs start off the new one with a 7-0 win over the Sooners in Boulder; the schools would split the 10 games in the 1960s with five wins apiece. When coupled with a 19-6 win over Nebraska the previous week, it's the first time CU defeats NU and OU in the same calendar year.
- 1965 After three straight 2-8 seasons after the program was ravaged by NCAA sanctions, Eddie Crowder's third team goes 6-2-2; the season opener at Wisconsin (Sept. 18) is the last 0-0 tie in Colorado history and one of the last in college football.
- 1970 (Sept. 26) No. 4 Penn State visits Boulder riding a 31-game unbeaten streak, but the No. 18 Buffaloes end the Nittany Lions impressive run with a 41-13 win before a national televised audience on ABC. The Buffs jump 10 spots in the AP poll to No. 8 (still the school best for improvement from one week to the next), and Phil Irwin becomes the first CU football player to grace the cover of Sports Illustrated the following week (and the jinx holds true as CU loses 21-20 at Kansas State). On Nov. 21, the Buffs close the regular season with a 49-19 blowout of No. 10 Air Force in the Springs.
- 1975 (Oct. 4) The Buffs almost knocked off No. 1 Oklahoma in Norman, but did knock the Sooners from No. 1 to No. 2 in the polls. CU pulled to within the eventual final score of 21-20 with 1:19 left, but elected to go for the tie against OU, which was riding a 32-game unbeaten streak at the time. The extra point kick sailed off to the left. Coach Bill Mallory went for the tie on the belief that a tie could give CU the conference championship later in the year. The Buffs finished the season with a 9-3 mark, finishing third in the Big 8.
- 1980 (Oct. 4) A total of 63 school, conference and national records are set in Oklahoma's 82-42 win over the Buffaloes in Boulder. It was one of 10 losses on the year for CU, which recorded its worst record (1-10) in 91 seasons of intercollegiate football.
- 1985 CU earns a bowl invitation for the first time since 1976, and wins the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over the 1-10 record in 1984). In a bold move, the Buffs switch from a passing oriented offense to the wishbone, the end result being CU's first winning season since 1978 (7-5) after going 14-51-1 the previous six seasons.
- 1990 Colorado clinches its first national championship in football with a 10-9 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, the second team to do so when playing what was deemed the nation's toughest schedule. Wins over Stanford, Texas, Washington, Oklahoma and Nebraska (the latter two back-to-back for the second straight year) highlighted CU's 11 wins. Alfred Williams wins the Butkus Award, becoming the first player in CU history to win one of college football's major postseason trophies. And unbeknownst to all involved at the time, CU gets a fifth down at Missouri to score the winning touchdown as time expired. In actuality, Colorado had two second downs when the marker and scoreboard did not change.
- 1995 CU overcomes 10 players drafted into the NFL (seven in the first 71 picks) to have a 10-win season, with all seven seniors invited to play in the Hula Bowl, Rick Neuheisel wins his debut as head coach with a 43-7 drubbing of Wisconsin on the road, the only CU head coach to win his first game since 1932. QB Koy Detmer is lost for the season with a knee injury early on, but John Hessler fills in and leads CU to a 10-2 mark and a Cotton Bowl win over Oregon.
- 2000 (Oct. 28) QB Craig Ochs becomes the first player in Colorado history to rush for a touchdown, throw for a touchdown and catch a touchdown pass in CU's 37-21 win over Oklahoma State. The lone instance in CU history was the 16th time in NCAA history at the time that this trifecta occurred.
- 2005 Colorado reappeared in the national rankings after a 25-month drought, but the Buffaloes couldn't remain there after a 7-2 start, losing their final four games of the year. CU did win the Big 12 North Division and appear in the league championship game for the fourth time in five years (a feat matched by no other team in either division). PK Mason Crosby was the runner-up for the Lou Groza Award, becoming CU's first-ever first-team All-American placekicker, and P John Torp finished second in the balloting for the Ray Guy Award.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, Colorado is 52-28-1 in its last 81 November games (46-17 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-11-1 against NU in turkey month). The Buffs are 51-37-2 in their last 90 October games, which follows a 51-27 mark in the last 78 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays. CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history.

BIG 12 BOWL AGREEMENTS

Here's the Big 12 Conference bowl lineup; the league is guaranteed a spot in the Dallas Football Classic for the 2010 and '12 seasons; and the Eagle Bank Bowl in 2013. The conference will provide a team to either bowl in 2011 if the conference/team under contract that season is unable to supply an opponent. For 2011 the Dallas Football Classic has agreements with the Big Ten and Conference USA to provide teams; while the Eagle Bank Bowl is partnered with the ACC and Navy:

Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and/or BCS National Championship
AT&T Cotton (SEC)
Valero Alamo (Pac-10)
Insight (Big Ten)

Bridgepoint Education Holiday (Pac-10)
Texas (Big Ten)
New Era Pinstripe Bowl (Big East)
Dallas Football Classic/Eagle Bank (Big Ten/ACC)

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-4 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas this year, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 10 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State and UCLA. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern Cal, Missouri and Texas (5), followed by LSU (4) and Florida State and Michigan State (3 each).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 20 seasons, which is the 11th most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Ohio State (12), Oklahoma (10), Miami, Fla. (9), Nebraska (9), Texas (9) and Florida State (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Uteas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2009 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

WILLIAMS TO BECOME FIFTH BUFFALO TO BE INDUCTED INTO THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Alfred Williams, one of the key figures in the University of Colorado football team's rise to national prominence in the late 1980s, will become the fifth Buffalo to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, the National Football Foundation announced May 27. Williams, 41, who still resides in the metro Denver area (Centennial) will be the second youngest Colorado player to go into the Hall. He is a member of a very impressive overall class, as he will be inducted with 13 others, including two coaches, this December in New York City. Williams is the third youngest player of the newest dozen who will be enshrined. They will be inducted at the 53rd annual awards dinner at the famed Waldorf Astoria on December 7 and the group will officially be enshrined in the Hall in the summer of 2011. CU honored him on September 18 against Hawai'i in what was billed as Alfred Williams Day; over 300 kids wearing #94 jerseys, his number at CU, lined a tunnel from the end zone to midfield for the presentation, which included two of CU's living Hall of Famers, Joe Romig and Dick Anderson.

This was the third year Williams was on the national ballot, which usually numbers around 75 candidates (77 this year), as he first appeared in 2008. Two other Buffaloes were also on the ballot, former head coach Bill McCartney and tailback Eric Bienenmy; both were candidates for the first time and automatically advance to subsequent national ballots for the next decade. The minimum requirement for players is first-team All-America mention at least one season.

"I am so proud and honored by this, but it's a tribute to my teammates and coaches," Williams said. "I was honestly speechless when I found out. A lot of people deserve to go into the College Football Hall of Fame but they select so few, so I am both humble and proud to represent all my teammates as the first to go in from our national championship team. Hopefully there will be others, including Coach Mac. I'm so proud of all the guys I played with over the years at CU, they were my family. Everyone knows how I feel about the University of Colorado and my love for the school."

Williams was a member of one of the most decorated recruiting classes in CU history, as the 1987 group added to the foundation for McCartney's teams to take things up a notch to eventually win three straight Big Eight Conference titles from 1989-91 and the consensus national championship in 1990. Williams was a standout player all four of his seasons, first playing as a true freshman in 1987 and culminating with his selection as a unanimous All-American and the Butkus Award winner as the nation's top linebacker as a senior in 1990. He was a consensus All-American as junior in 1989 when he was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Award along with teammate and childhood friend, Kanavis McGhee.

Williams' Butkus Award was the first major trophy honoring an individual won by a Colorado player. During his career, CU was 37-10-1, including a 22-6 mark in Big Eight games (22-2-1 and 14-0, respectively, his junior and senior seasons when he was a unanimous All-Big Eight performer and two-time league defensive player-of-the-year).

Williams finished his career with 263 tackles (180 solo), the 10th most at the time in school history (still 23rd overall). His 59 tackles for loss and 35 quarterback sacks are both still school bests, along with the 303 and 242 yards lost, respectively, for each category. He had at least one sack in 28 of 48 career games (including a streak of 10 straight games to open 1990), and led the Big Eight Conference in sacks as a junior (10½) and senior (12½). He also had 53 quarterback hurries (second all-time), 42 third down stops (third) and 25 passes broken up (11th). He was the recipient of CU's Dave Jones Award as the team's defensive MVP his junior and senior years. He was second-team All-Big Eight as a sophomore, a season in which he had one of his best "monster" games. In a 24-21 win at Iowa, he had seven tackles, four for losses including two sacks, a forced fumble, a recovery, a pass deflection and a blocked punt.

He was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008, the seventh class to receive the distinction; his jersey number – 94 – was honored in the first group recognized in 1998. He was selected as an honorable mention performer on CU's All-Century Team (1890-1989), voted on the team by fans and alumni midway through his junior season.

Byron "Whizzer" White and Joe Romig were the first two Buffaloes to enter the Hall, inducted in 1952 and 1984, respectively, and followed by the Anderson brothers, with Dick inducted in 1993 and Bobby in 2006. White was a back and Romig a guard/linebacker in the old platoon days, while Dick Anderson was a safety and Bobby a tailback.

Williams is thus the second fastest to be inducted into the Hall, exactly 20 years since he last suited up for the Buffaloes; White was inducted 15 years after his collegiate playing days. Williams will also be the first African-American from CU inducted into the Hall, and is one of just a handful who has won a national championship and a Super Bowl playing for a school and then a pro team in the same state. CU won the consensus national championship in 1990, and the Denver Broncos won the Super Bowl following the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

After his playing days in the NFL, he co-founded At Light Speed, a communications data center, with former CU teammate Charles S. Johnson. He then made his foray into radio and television work, handling color commentary on the Altitude Network for area games and appearing on several guest panels. He is currently a radio personality, co-hosting a daily talk show on KKFN (104.3 fm). He has been a volunteer Pop Warner coach for the last 11 years, and is a past board member of the American Red Cross.

McCartney was asked what comes to mind when he hears Alfred's name. "Potential. Extraordinary potential. The sky's the limit. How high is up. He had it all," McCartney said. "He could run, he could jump, he was instinctive, smart. He was light on his feet. He was unrelenting, persevering. It was just a matter of how much he wanted to put into it because he had the whole package. He had native strength; he was wiry, he was explosive even though he'll readily admit that he didn't wear out the weight room. The great ones are instinctive; he just had a sense about him. He basically knew before they snapped the ball if they were running, throwing or coming at you with the option, and you can't coach that. He was the type of guy who played his best games in the big games. When he was physically and emotionally prepared, he was dominant. When we needed him most, he came up big. Alfred would stand out today, guys like him don't come along very often. He's as talented as anyone Colorado has ever had, and I'm proud of him for receiving this recognition."

Williams went on to play nine years in the NFL, and after stints with Cincinnati and San Francisco, finished his career with the Denver Broncos where in addition to playing for two Super Bowl champion teams, he earned All-Pro honors at defensive end in 1996. The Bengals drafted him in the first round of the 1991 draft, making him the 18th pick overall. He would play in 128 NFL games in his career, racking up 59½ quarterback sacks.

How special is induction and enshrinement into the College Hall of Fame? Prior to this class, of the 4.72 million people who have played college football since 1869, only 870 players and 188 coaches have been selected for the Hall.

He was born November 6, 1968 in Houston, and was a sociology major at Colorado. He earned a host of All-America honors as a senior at Houston's Jesse Jones High School, when he had 123 tackles, 18 quarterback sacks and 33 tackles for loss. He was an accomplished basketball player, averaging 24 points and 10 rebounds as a senior. He also threw the discus in track.

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 22 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of those occasions, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 18 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 22 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2010: Ohio State 22, Florida State 21, Florida 19, Michigan 19, Tennessee 19, Miami, Fla. 18, Nebraska 18, Oklahoma 18, Penn State 18, Texas 18, Notre Dame 15, Alabama 15, Auburn 15, Georgia 14, LSU 14, Virginia Tech 14, Colorado 12, Oregon 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). The 143 consecutive polls still ranks as the eighth longest all-time in college football history. In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll / All-Time Appearances (1936-2009; out of 1,005 polls)

1. Ohio State 769; 2. Michigan 757; 3. Notre Dame 712; 4. USC 689; 5. Oklahoma 688; 6. Texas 672; 7. Nebraska 654; 8. Alabama 645; 9. Penn State 578; 10. Tennessee 564; 11. Florida 517; 12. ...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-'98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

18 OUT OF 22

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, behind only Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. CU snapped that streak with a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007, and with the 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 and the 34-30 verdict over No. 17 Kansas in 2009, it's now 18 out of 22 years defeating at least one ranked program. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). The Buffs have defeated at least two in nine of the last 15 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 176 of its last 253 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (70 percent), including seven games this season. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, and not including pay-per-view, 139 of CU's 180 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, which is an impressive 77.5 percent (the second most in the Big 12 Conference in this time frame). In addition, CU has had 36 of its last 42 non-conference games (85.7%) televised on a national or regional basis (tops in the Big 12). ANNUAL TV APPEARANCES SINCE INCEPTION OF THE BIG 12 (133): 1996 (10), 1997 (10), 1998 (9), 1999 (9), 2000 (7), 2001 (10), 2002 (12), 2003 (7), 2004 (9), 2005 (10), 2006 (7), 2007 (11), 2008 (10), 2009 (11), 2010 (7).

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. It recently has improved, but CU and UT still blaze the trail. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 28 (14-13-1), Texas 23 (8-13-2), Oklahoma 17 (8-9), Nebraska 15 (8-7), Texas Tech 13 (0-13), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Baylor 12 (2-10), Missouri 10 (2-8), Iowa State 10 (1-9), Oklahoma State 7 (1-6), Kansas 8 (1-7) and Kansas State 4 (1-3).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

18 OF 25

The Buffs have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 25 years (1985-2009), matched only by a handful of schools across the nation (6-6 records do not count). The exceptions came in 1997, 2000, 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2009; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 18 of these 25 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000, 2003, 2006, 2008 and now this year (the first time CU isn't going to a bowl over a two-year span since an eight year drought from 1977-84).

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's last two annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom didn't happen, the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the third most attending in 2009. CU has now had five occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. The national average worked to 12,996 in 2008 and 14,407 in 2009. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history
2010	Gold 37, Black 27	9,100	Teams are determined by the players drafting themselves

In Hawk's first two years, the spring game attracted 6,400 (2006, cloudy skies, temperature in the low 50s, very windy) and 5,800 last year (perfect weather, 60 degrees, clear skies, just a bit windy at times).

OPPONENTS IN 2010

Colorado's 12 opponents this year combined for an 82-71 (53.6%) record in 2009, with seven teams earning bowl invitations and Nebraska the lone 10-game winner last year (10-3). CU will play California for the first time since 1982 (Bill McCartney's first game as head coach) and Hawaii for the second time ever (the first was a UH 13-0 win on New Year's Day in 1925). Georgia makes its first visit ever to Boulder, and CU swaps in Baylor, Oklahoma and Texas Tech for Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas A&M from the Big 12 South Division. Colorado's 2009 opponents had a very similar mark, combining for an 82-70 record in 2008 (53.9%), with two teams winning double figure games and three others all going 9-4.

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2009 was 300,527, an average of 50,088 per game, marking the 15th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 33rd time in the last 35 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public season ticket base in the state with 22,020 public in 2009, along with another 12,500 student holders.

Week Fourteen (Dec. 4)

Big 12 Championship Game (ABC; at Arlington) 6:00 p.m.

Home team in CAPS. All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Big 12 Conference game. Television selections Sept. 25 and beyond are made on 12 days notice by the Big 12 television partners (ABC/ESPN, Fox Sports Network, Versus); ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Big 12, ACC, Big East, Big 10 or Pac 10). FSN provides national coverage via its lineup of 11 regional cable systems in both the morning (10 or 10:30 a.m. MT) and prime time (4:30 or 5 p.m. MT) windows, and on occasion may move a game into the afternoon window (1:30 p.m. MT) should ABC opt to pass on a telecast in that time slot. In all, FSN will televise 25 games during the 2010 season with projected late morning windows on Sept. 4-11-18, Oct. 2-9-16-23-30 and Nov. 6-13-20-27. FSN is scheduled to carry games in prime time on Oct. 2 (CU-Georgia)-9-14-16-23-30 and Nov. 6-13-20. In addition, the Big 12 has entered into an agreement to allow institutions to authorize telecast of games on Fox College Sports (FCS) and pay-per-view in available windows.

CABRAL CELEBRATES 300TH GAME AS A BUFFALO, TURNS EYE TO ... 400?

Associate head coach and long-time linebacker coach Brian Cabral celebrated his 300th game as Colorado Buffalo in 2009, and did it in style in CU's thrilling 35-34 win over Texas A&M (he now has been involved in 311). He wore his famous trademark lava lava wrap in CU colors for the game (the Buffs are 5-2 when he dons the garb, which he has done once in 2008—for CU's 29-27 win over Georgia). A former inside linebacker for the Buffs, he originally was a middle guard until suffering an elbow injury midway through his freshman year ('74) before switching to linebacker in a career that spanned 46 games from 1974-77. He has coached in 257 since joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1989. He had a 9-year career in the National Football League (1978-86) and then worked two years as GA for Purdue before making his way back to Boulder. Cabral finished his CU career as the Buffs' all-time leading tackler with 297; he is still tied for 16th on the all-time list. He has coached eight of the players who have passed him on the list: Matt Russell, Greg Biekert, Jordon Dizon, Ted Johnson, Chad Brown, Michael Jones, Thaddeus Washington and Jashon Sykes, with a ninth, senior Jeff Smart, finishing just six behind his total with 291.

GAME #1: COLORADO 24, COLORADO STATE 3SEPTEMBER 4, 2010 (INVESCO FIELD, DENVER)

DENVER—That long-awaited win against their bitter in-state rival? Check. That much-needed fast start on college football's opening weekend? Check. The defense increasing its weekly turnover totals? Check. Scotty McKnight breaking the school career receiving mark? Check.

But attending to business and leaving town with unfinished business amounts to good news and even better news for the Buffs, who dispatched Colorado State 24-3 at sweltering Invesco Field at Mile High in the Cinch Jeans Rocky Mountain Showdown.

That also goes for the Buffs offense, which rolled to a 17-0 halftime lead under quarterback Tyler Hansen and added another third-quarter touchdown (24-0) before the Rams managed a fourth-quarter field goal to avoid being shutout in the series for the first time since 1957 (20-0).

Hansen finished with 17 completions in 25 attempts for 192 yards and two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

During CU's first-half surge, Hansen and McKnight connected on a pair of passes for 42 yards in an 82-yard drive. McKnight's second catch tied Michael Westbrook's 167 CU career receptions; his next - a 27-yarder for a score - shoved Westbrook's record aside.

McKnight, a senior captain, called his achievement "humbling, a great feeling," but added, "Numbers don't mean so much to me . . . I've been through a season where we won three games (2009) and I caught 76 balls - it's not fun."

Jon Major led a CU defense that snuffed CSU and its freshman quarterback, Pete Thomas. The Buffs intercepted him three times, allowed the Rams only 49 yards rushing and forced them into three-and-outs on their first three series of the game.

Major made the game's most significant stop - a fourth-and-one stuff of CSU's running quarterback, T.J. Borcky that gave the Buffs possession on the Rams' 44-yard line.

Five plays later, Hansen and "newly acquired" receiver Travon Patterson, a transfer from Southern California, teamed for an 18-yard touchdown pass on which "TP" showed the leave-'em-looking speed he was expected to bring to a position that now is, ah, up to speed.

After Aric Goodman's PAT, the Buffs went up 7-0 and were in control of almost everything except themselves for the rest of the game. They were penalized 10 times for 104 yards - a decidedly less-than-efficient start for a team that drew 107 flags in 2009.

In addition to his pair of TD passes, Hansen also ran six times for 31 yards, including a 1-yard scoring sneak. But he also was sacked twice and lost 29 yards, one of the sacks costing CU 16 yards on a regrettable series that started in CSU territory (49 yard line) after an interception by safety Anthony Perkins.

Still, coupled with tailback Rodney "Speedy" Stewart's 16 carries for 67 yards, Hansen's mobility gave the Buffs a running dimension they didn't have in last season's 23-17 loss to the Rams. Behind Stewart was true freshman Justin Torres, who carried five times in the fourth quarter for 26 yards (5.2 average).

The Buffs got a boost from Goodman, who hit a 28-yard field goal in the first half, made three extra point attempts and sailed three of his five kickoffs into or out of the end zone.

If there was an opening-day downer for the Buffs, it was the serious knee injury suffered by nickel back Parker Orms during punt coverage in the first half; he tore his ACL and was lost for the remainder of the season.

GAME NOTES

Colorado now leads the series 60-20-2, including a 6-4 edge in Denver . . . CU is now 23-1 in season openers since 1967 when scoring first . . . This is the fewest points CU has allowed in a season opener since a 45-3 win over Fresno State in 1988 . . . This marked the first time the losing team in the series failed to score at least 10 points since a 23-7 CSU win in Boulder in 1986, and the first time the loser did not score a touchdown since 1983, when CU won 31-3 in Boulder in game that resumed the series after a 25-year dormancy (CU now leads the series 17-6 since its resumption) . . . Colorado's 17-0 lead at halftime was the largest by either team in the series since CSU led 28-0 at halftime in 1999; it was CU's largest intermission lead since 1995 in Boulder (28-7) . . . The win was Dan Hawkins' 70th on the I-A/FBS level (70-44) . . . In five season openers under Hawkins, the Buffs are now 15-of-15 in the Red Zone (10 TD/5 FG) . . . The 3 points allowed by CU are the third lowest in the 50-game Hawk Era, trailing two shutouts (the last of which was last Sept. 19, a 24-0 win over Wyoming) . . . The 245 yards allowed by the Buff defense is the fewest surrendered in a season opener since 1998, when CSU had 202 in a 42-14 CU win in what was the first series game played in Denver . . . CSU's first nine plays all gained less than 5 yards (and just one of which gained 4); 36 of CSU's 58 plays went for fewer than 15 feet . . . CSU ran just 15 plays in CU territory (for a net 44 yards) . . . WR Scotty McKnight became CU's all-time leading receiver in style, catching his 168th career ball to pass Michael Westbrook (167, 1991-94) on a 27-yard touchdown pass from QB Tyler Hansen . . . ILB Jon Major had a career-high 10 tackles, besting the four he had last year at Iowa State . . . With four quarterback sacks, the Buffs extended their streak with a least one sack to 21 straight games . . . Colorado sold about 33,500 of its allotted 37,000 tickets for the game; the crowd of 60,989 was the lowest of the 10 games in Denver (previous low was 65,701 in 2006).

GAME #2: CALIFORNIA 52, COLORADO 7SEPTEMBER 11, 2010 (MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, CALIF.)

BERKELEY, Calif. — Kevin Riley threw four touchdown passes for California, which turned five Colorado turnovers into 31 points, as the Golden Bears provided a rude welcome to their future conference mates in the Buffaloes, scoring early and often in a 52-7 win.

CU dropped to 1-1 on the season, while Cal improved to 2-0 and then appeared in the coaches' poll at No. 24 the day following the win.

The two are scheduled for a return game in Boulder on Sept. 10, 2011, but it's unknown at present whether that game will be a non-conference game or a league tilt; CU is set to join the Pacific-10 in either 2011 or 2012. So the Buffaloes will have to wait either one or two years for their revenge against Cal, which rolled to a 31-0 halftime lead and then poured it on late, including running a double reverse up by 31 with seven minutes left in the game.

Poor field position helped dictate the tough start; after forcing Cal to punt after picking up three first downs, CU was pinned deep and a poor punt (38 yards) and long return (23) set the Bears up at the CU 19, the first of four straight possessions Cal started in CU territory. The Buff defense tried to hold, allowing two touchdowns and a field goal with a fourth down stop, but the Bears put 17 points into the books and the rout was on.

Offensively, the offensive line could not contain Cal and thus put quarterback Tyler Hansen at risk early and often; he was sacked six times, threw three interceptions and lost a fumble. Combined with nine penalties, eight in the first half, the Buffs were behind the 8-ball from the start.

Cal used its longest first-half drive—72 yards on six plays—to take a 24-0 lead on Shane Vereen's 3-yard run with 10:29 left in the half. The Buffs actually dominated the game's next 22:52 stretch, possessing the ball for 20:11, forcing the Bears into three straight three-and-outs while scoring their only points in the window, a 4-yard run on fourth down by Hansen late in the third quarter. Unfortunately for the Buffs, those matched what Cal had already scored in the span — linebacker Mike Mohamed returned a Hansen interception 41 yards for the Bears' final TD of the first half to account for the 31-0 intermission lead.

The Bears closed the scoring with an 82-yard fumble return by senior cornerback Darian Hagan, Jr., the son of CU's former quarterback and current running backs coach, who scooped up the ball after Ryan Deehan lost possession. It was a punctuation mark for Cal.

Riley hit Vereen with a 13-yard scoring pass, capping a meager 19-yard drive, for Cal's first TD. He went on to complete 15-of-24 passes for 197 yards, doing most of his damage deep in CU territory which subsequently led to his throwing four scoring passes.

Colorado actually held an edge in total offense, 179-168, through three quarters, but the Bears more than matched that total in the fourth quarter with 188 yards, the bulk coming on two touchdown drives. The big advantage for Cal came in return yardage, as the Bears held a 169-8 margin, those yards playing a huge role early in the field position game.

GAME NOTES

CU officials sold out its tickets allotment (4,000) to the game, but plenty of other fans bought tickets from Cal for an estimated 7,500 Buffalo fans in attendance ... California took a 3-2 lead in the series; in the five games, the lead has never changed hands as the team that scored first went on to win ... The series resumed 28 years to the day after the last meeting (Sept. 11, 1982, when both teams debuted new head coaches: Bill McCartney for CU and Joe Kapp for Cal) ... The Buffs extended their streak with a least one sack to 22 straight games ... One bright spot for the Buffaloes was its offense in third-and-short situations: CU was 6-of-6 on 3rd-&-1 or 2, with TB Rodney Stewart rushing for the first down on all six occasions ... FTE Ryan Deehan finally caught his first pass of the year, or the game (12 drives), California's starting field position was at its own 40; but the first seven drives, it was on average at the CU 49 ... UB Mat Bahr caught his first career pass since moving over from offensive tackle ... This was CU's 13th straight road loss, the ninth in a row on artificial turf; the last win in both situations was the same game, a 31-26 win at Texas Tech in 1997 ... For all its points, Cal only had three plays over 20 yards in length, two of those coming in the meaningless fourth quarter ... Cal didn't overtake Colorado in total offense for good until early in the fourth quarter; CU had wrestled the lead away late in the third, overcoming a first quarter where it gained minus-8 yards.

GAME #3: COLORADO 31, HAWAII 13SEPTEMBER 18, 2010 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER — It was a classic tale of two halves, but Colorado's dominance after intermission enabled the Buffaloes to cruise to a 31-13 win over the Hawai'i Warriors.

The first half belonged to the defense, the second half to the offense. Hawai'i outgained CU 237-124 in the first half in building a 10-0 lead; but in the second half, CU had the edge in yards by 328-100 and points, 31-3.

The defense began the afternoon with a pair of first-half goal-line stands that limited UH's halftime lead to 10-0. The Warriors rushed 13 times for seven yards, with the 13 attempts tied for the second fewest against CU in its history (12 by Texas Tech in 2007 are the fewest).

On their second play from scrimmage, the Warriors (1-2) showed what they intended to do, striking for an 80-yard Bryant Moniz to Kealoha Pilares completion. CU corner Jimmy Smith crossed the field to run down Pilares at the Buffs' 3-yard line - and the Warriors went no further than the 2.

After three runs gained nothing, a fumbled snap on fourth down recovered by CU safety Anthony Perkins preserved the goal line stand. Two series later - after CU began the offensive ineptness that would follow it to halftime - UH again had possession at the Buffs' 3-yard line, this time taking advantage of a punt fumbled by Travon Patterson and recovered by Warriors linebacker Po'okela Ahmad.

But this UH possession at the CU 3 was no more effective than the first. After Moniz threw three incompletions, placekicker Scott Enos was wide right on a 20-yard field goal attempt. The upshot: on eight plays inside the Buffs' 3-yard line, the Warriors gained one yard and missed a chip shot field goal attempt.

The Buffs shook themselves awake in the second half and scored on their first two series on short touchdown runs (4 & 2 yards) by Rodney Stewart and the Warriors' first possession (safety). CU mostly used the no-huddle, taking advantage of the altitude and perhaps UH being road weary at the tail end of a 13-day, roughly 11,000-mile trip.

The Buffs rediscovering their running game was the second half's biggest find. Stewart (22 carries, 106 yards, 2 TDs) and Lockridge (14-109) became the first two CU running backs to go over 100 yards in the same game since Chris Brown (127) and Bobby Purify (174) did it in 2002 against Iowa State. The Buffs rushed for 183 of their 252 yards - their largest total to date in 2010 - in the second half.

Running backs coach Darian Hagan had planned on using Stewart and Lockridge in fairly equal amounts, but after Stewart's xxxxxxxx was all Lockridge said he needed to record his first career 100-yard rushing game. In 2009, he carried 12 times for 53 yards last season - total.

In addition to Stewart's heroics, CU's second-half point spree featured a pair of TD passes from Hansen to Clemons (73 yards) and to Scotty McKnight via Clemons (23 yards). A series after the Hansen-to-Clemons scoring play gave CU 24-13 lead, a Hansen pass intended for Clemons bounded off of his shoulder pads and caromed to McKnight, who made the catch, ran a couple of steps and dove into the end zone.

Hansen finished the game with 200 yards passing (19 of 26) and the two TD tosses. He was not intercepted. Moniz was 27-of-41 for 330 yards and one TD. He was intercepted in the fourth quarter by nickel back Jonathan Hawkins, the fourth player CU has used at the position this season because of injuries.

GAME NOTES

CU evened the series with Hawai'i at 1-1; it had been 31,305 days since they first played, but the two open the 2011 season against each other in Honolulu next Sept. 3 (just 350 days this time) ... The 55 degree temperature at kickoff was the coldest for a CU opener at Folsom Field since 1982 (Sept. 11), when it was 49 degrees in a 31-17 loss to California (rainfall, 15 mph winds); that game was Bill McCartney's first as Buff head coach ... Redshirt frosh CB Paul Vigo made his first career start, doing so as the nickel back; unfortunately, he was the third NB lost in as many games to an extensive injury ... The third quarter safety by Anthony Perkins was CU's first safety since Oct. 22, 2005 versus Kansas in Boulder ... CU's 252 yards rushing marked its first time the Buffs went over 200 since 2008 versus Kansas State (247) and its most since running for 257 against Nebraska in 2007 (both games in Boulder) ... Hawai'i finished the game with 13 rushes for a net 7 yards (11-for-19 if excluding sacks). That is tied for the second fewest rushing plays against CU in its history (lowest: 12 by Texas Tech in 2007); the net 7 yards is the 10th lowest ever allowed by a CU team, the second fewest in the Dan Hawkins Era as Kansas had a net minus-8 last year ... The Buffs honored Alfred Williams at halftime, as he will become CU's fifth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame this December (over 300 youngsters wearing replica #94 jerseys, Williams' number at CU, lined a tunnel for him to the center of the field) ... This was the seventh comeback from 10-plus points down by the Buffs under Dan Hawkins.

GAME #4: COLORADO 29, GEORGIA 27OCTOBER 2, 2010 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Just as Georgia appeared ready to parlay a One Dawg Night - that would be A.J. Green's superlative 2010 debut - into a last-minute win, Colorado linebackers B.J. Beatty and Jon Major stepped forward and changed the script.

Beatty's strip of quarterback Aaron Murray and Major's recovery with 1:55 remaining allowed the confident and steadily improving Buffaloes to leave Folsom Field with a 29-27 victory and head into their final Big 12 Conference season with a respectable 3-1 non-conference record, winning consecutive games for the first time since 2008.

The Buffs took a good start - leading at one point 14-3 - to a near heart-stopping finish. With 1:55 to play, after kicker Aric Goodman just missed a 52-yard field goal attempt, CU clung to a two-point lead and watched UGA try to position itself for the win at the Buffs' 27-yard line, where Beatty and Major made the game-securing play.

Green, playing in his first game after a four-game NCAA suspension, didn't touch the ball for the first time until the second quarter, but when he did he nearly single-handedly turned the CU 11-point lead into a Georgia 10-point advantage.

His first touch of the season was a 40-yard gain on a flanker reverse. His second touch produced an acrobatic one-handed catch of a Murray pass for a 3-yard touchdown that pulled UGA to within four points (14-10). He then connected with Murray on a 39-yard score, giving UGA its first lead at 17-14.

He then opened the second half with 50-yard pass play, putting the Bulldogs into scoring position, where they would take a 24-14 lead five minutes into the third quarter. But that catch was the last of the game, leaving with cramps and seeing limited action the rest of the way.

The Buffs then sparked and would score a pair of touchdowns and a 2-point conversion in a span of just over three minutes to turn the 24-14 deficit into a 29-24 lead. Keyed by an option play where Rodney Stewart ran through a huge hole and rambled for 65 yards to the UGA 8, Hansen scored on a 2-yard dive three plays later for a touchdown. The Buffs then lined up in a strange formation where Ryan Deehan is the center - but an eligible receiver - and most of his teammates, including Goodman, are split to the left of the formation. Cody Hawkins took the snap and threw to a wide open Deehan for an easy two points and CU was within 24-22.

CU's next drive appeared to have ended with a 38-yard Goodman field goal, but he was roughed on the play and the Bulldogs were penalized 10 yards to the 11. Stewart scored on the next play, diving like a missile into the end zone at the pylon, and Goodman's PAT put CU back in front 29-24 with 4:39 left in the third quarter.

The Buffs went on the offensive early with tailbacks Brian Lockridge (16 carries, 36 yards, 1 TD) and Stewart (19-149, 1 TD). Lockridge started, then Stewart then came on strong, catching three passes for 31 yards in addition to his rushing total. Hansen completed 13-of-20 passes for 158 yards and a touchdown, while also running 10 times for 51 yards and the score (eight rushes for 65 yards not counting two sacks).

After Blair Walsh brought Georgia within two points at 29-27 with a 20-yard field goal with 12:30 left to play, CU responded by running almost 9 minutes off the clock, with its drive stalling at the UGA 35-yard line where Goodman just missed a 52-yard field goal attempt. With 3:37 remaining, the Bulldogs took over on their 35-yard line and pushed as far as the CU 27 before Beatty's timely strip and Major's recovery snuffed them.

GAME NOTES

UB Matt Bahr, a converted offensive tackle (last spring) scored his first career touchdown on CU's opening drive, the first points CU scored this year on its first possession ... TB Brian Lockridge made his third career start; the other two were on the road, boat at Kansas State (2007, 2009) ... CB Jalil Brown made his second interception of the season in the second quarter, the fifth of his career ... TB Rodney Stewart had the 10th 100-yard game of his career (19-149, 1 TD); he also converted on one 3rd-&-1 and one 4th-&-1, and is now 7-for-7 in such situations this season (and 18-of-20 in his career) ... CU extended its streak to 24 consecutive games with at least one sack ... The fourth quarter drive where CU missed a 52-yard field goal attempt was 15 plays for 45 yards (10-for-13 in plus territory), but consumed 8:53 off the clock ... Georgia averaged an astonishing 10.6 yards on first down plays (317 yards on 30 plays), but managed just 92 yards on 29 second/third down plays (3.2 per) ... CU was flagged for a season-low three penalties (two special teams, one on the defense); it was a team low since being called for two at Nebraska on Nov. 28, 2008 ... The Buffs rushed for 235 yards, and coupled with the 252 against Hawai'i, for 200-plus yards in back-to-back games (after going 19 straight games under 200) for the first time since 2006 ... Dan Hawkins' teams are now 40-1 in his career when rushing for 200 or more yards (8-1 at Colorado) ... The Buffs did not have a single forced fumble in their first three games, but had two tonight; DE Josh Hartigan had one in the third quarter when he sacked Aaron Murray, and OLB B.J. Beatty had the other with 1:55 left that may have saved the game.

GAME #5: MISSOURI 26, COLORADO 0OCTOBER 9, 2010 (FAUROT FIELD, COLUMBIA, MO.)

COLUMBIA, Mo. — No. 24 Missouri administered one last win over Colorado before the Buffaloes bolt the Big 12 Conference next season for the Pac-12, handing CU a 26-0 defeat at Faurot Field in the league opener for both teams, the final such one for Colorado.

Falling for the fifth consecutive time to Mizzou and losing its 14th straight regular season road game, the Buffs had a modest two-game win streak halted and dropped to 3-2, 0-1 in the Big 12. MU remained unbeaten (5-0, 1-0) and signed off in the series with a 41-31-3 advantage (8-7 in the Big 12).

The Buffs struggled early on special teams and throughout the night offensively. In addition to Cody Hawkins replacing Tyler Hansen at quarterback, freshman Justin Castor was given a chance at placekicker in place of senior Aric Goodman, who missed a crucial 40-yard field goal attempt when MU's lead was only 5-0.

Before they were victimized by their own special teams play, the Buffs were victimized by the Tigers'. CU started its first two possessions at its own 2- and 1-yard lines, respectively, courtesy of punts by MU's Matt Grabner.

The first possession ended in Zach Grossnickle's partially blocked punt, and the Buffs ran only one play on its second series, which ended in a safety when Hansen was ruled to have intentionally grounded the ball from his own end zone though it appeared he was throwing to a spot but a receiver had run a wrong route. A similar play by Missouri later in the game was not ruled in a similar fashion.

MU extended its lead to 5-0 with a Grant Ressel 47-yard field goal with 2:06 left in the first quarter. Toney Clemons gave the Buffs a spark, returning the kickoff 53 yards to the Tigers 44-yard line, and Hansen used the next six plays to march CU to the MU 23, but the drive stalled and Goodman's 40-yard field goal drifted wide left.

Mizzou responded to CU's missed opportunity by driving 77 yards for its first touchdown. On fourth-and-4 at the MU 44, Trey Barrow took the direct snap on the fake, sprinted to his left and gained 26 yards to the CU 30. Two plays later, Blaine Gabbert hooked up with Jerrell Jackson for a 30-yard score, pushing the Tigers in front 12-0.

Still, CU hadn't succumbed. Jalil Brown gathered in a fumble forced by Chidera Uzo-Diribe at the MU 13-yard line, offering the Buffs another chance to wriggle back into the fight. But after the offense lost 19 yards on their first three plays, CU summoned Castor to attempt a 40-yard field goal, but Terrell Resonno blocked the low kick.

Gabbert then marched Mizzou 97 yards in 17 plays, linking up with tight end Michael Egnew for a 10-yard scoring pass that sent the Tigers into halftime with a 19-0 lead.

Opening the second half, the Buffs drove to the Tigers' 40- and 37-yard lines on their first pair of second-half possessions, but penalties sabotaged both. By quarter's end, Dan Hawkins decided a switch at quarterback might produce some late energy.

Starting at the MU 48, Hawkins directed the final three plays of the quarter and moved the Buffs as far as the Tigers 17, where on fourth-and-7, CU was whistled for a delay of game, followed by Hawkins being sacked for an 8-yard loss to end that threat.

Mizzou pulled Gabbert, who suffered a hip pointer, in favor of freshman James Franklin, who promptly drove the Tigers 70 yards to put MU up 26-0 with 9:24 to play.

Just under 3 minutes later, Hawkins was intercepted by Edwards, who returned the pick 49 yards to CU's 32-yard line, where Ryan Miller ran him down. The Tigers attempted to score but the defense held. CU again drove deep into MU territory, in fact running 44 plays on the plus-side of the 50 in the game, but the Buffs couldn't convert on fourth down. Mizzou then ran out the clock and secured the win.

GAME NOTES

One positive about the series like coming to a close was the end of the annual week of reminiscing about CU's win in 1990, the infamous Fifth Down game where the Tigers failed to inform opponents about conditions of their terrible field (had CU brought the right shoes, it likely wins something like 45-7), and the Big 8 officials and Mizzou chain crew messed up the down count, but 20 years of Missouri followers playing the victim at least has now come to an end ... This was CU's fifth straight Big 12 opener against a ranked opponent ... PK Justin Castor saw his first career action (his first FGA was blocked); he was the sixth true freshman to play this year for CU; TB Quentin Hildreth also played for the first time in a Buff uniform (he's a redshirt frosh) ... QB Cody Hawkins saw his first action of the season at quarterback; he's played in every game as he is also the holder on special teams ... This was just the ninth time in CU's last 495 games that the Buffs were shutout; Missouri has administered the last two, and the only two, in CU's last 262 games dating back to 1988 ... All eight of CU's penalties were on the offense ... The Buffs came in tied for 11th in the nation in "three-and-outs" with 18, and forced Mizzou in that predicament on five occasions ... DE Josh Hartigan made his first career interception in the fourth quarter, the first by a Buff defensive lineman since 2007, when DT Curtis Cunningham snared one at Florida State ... The third quarter has been a strong suit for both teams in 2010, and while there were no points scored in the period, CU did own a 97-17 edge in total offense, holding MU some 109 yards under its average for the quarter (126.3) ... TB Rodney Stewart (18-91, 0 TD) moved into 20th all-time at CU in rushing yards, passing Byron White (1,864) and Bob Stransky (1,868) to crack the top 20. Stewart was stopped on 3rd-&-1 on CU's first drive after coming into the game 7-for-7 on 3rd-&-1 and 4th-&-1 attempts (now 18-of-21 in his career). His 22-yard rush on 3rd-&-22 for a first down late in the first half improved CU to 9-of-92 on 3rd-&-20 or longer since 1993, a span in which the opponents is 4-of-93 in the same situations.

GAME #6: BAYLOR 31, COLORADO 25OCTOBER 16, 2010 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Colorado had a second straight dramatic, nail-biting game at Folsom Field, but this time the Buffs were on the wrong end of a 31-25 score against the Baylor Bears.

Two weeks earlier, CU bested Georgia 29-27 with a great defensive play. This time, it was one final shot in the end zone, Tyler Hansen to Toney Clemons, but it was not to be and Colorado fell to 3-3 (0-2 in the Big 12) on the season.

Baylor, chasing its first postseason appearance since 1994, improved to 5-2 (2-1) and now is a win away from postseason eligibility.

It was Robert Griffin III who made play after play after play against the Buffs, accounting for 371 yards — 137 rushing and 234 passing. He was assisted by Jay Finley's 143 rushing yards on just 14 carries with two scores.

After Hansen and receiver Scotty McKnight teamed for a 7-yard touchdown pass to draw the Buffs to 28-25 with 5:14 left, Griffin pushed the Bears 59 yards to position Aaron Jones for a 38-yard field goal to send Baylor ahead by six points, 31-25.

With no timeouts and 1:54 remaining, Hansen took CU from its 29 to the Baylor 19, where on the game's final play his pass for Clemons was batted down in the end zone.

The Buffs and Bears traded turnovers to open the game, with Baylor safety Bryan Lander intercepting a Hansen pass to kill a promising 10-play CU drive at the Bears 39-yard line. Two plays after that pick, Finley had the ball stripped by Mike Sipili, allowing nickel back Pat Mahanke to recover.

CU led 15-10 at halftime on a pair of touchdown runs (18, 6 yards) from Rodney Stewart (30 carries, 125 yards, two TDs) but failing both two-point conversions.

CU's 6-0 lead lasted until Griffin and tight end Jerod Monk teamed for a 9-yard scoring pass with 5:32 left before intermission, beginning a flurry of scoring before the half. CU retaliated with Stewart's 6-yard dive at the left pylon, capping an eight-play, 65-yard drive give CU a 12-7 advantage.

Griffin's first pass on the next series was tipped by defensive tackle Will Pericak and intercepted by Sipili at the Baylor 24. Aric Goodman capitalized by making a 45-yard field goal to go up 15-7, but Jones hit a 50-yard field goal on the final play of the half to cut the Bears' deficit to 15-10. The Bears continued the momentum in the second half and Jones hit a 25-yarder to pull Baylor to within 15-13.

CU appeared poised to respond, but Will Jefferson — double dipping at running back and receiver — fumbled into the end zone after a 23-yard gain. Finley then concluded a five-play, 80-yard drive with a 23-yard run up the middle and Griffin skirted left end for the two-point conversion run. Baylor led 21-15.

Cornerback Jalil Brown recovered a Griffin fumble at the Baylor 21. But after gaining a first-and-goal at the 10, CU was forced to have Goodman kick his second field goal — a 25-yarder — trimming Baylor's lead to 21-18.

The Bears cruised 80 yards in just over 3 minutes and increased their advantage to 28-18 on a 14-yard run by Finley.

CU responded with a drive to the Baylor 7, where on third-and-goal Hansen hit Scotty McKnight in the end zone, pulling CU within 28-25 with 5:14 to play. Griffin put the Bears in field goal position before CU's defense held strong and on fourth-and-17, Jones hit his final field goal (38 yards) to make it 31-25, setting up CU's final 2-minute drive.

GAME NOTES

Colorado's 6-0 edge after the first quarter stopped a streak of 12 straight quarters that Baylor had scored in (just the fourth scoreless quarter in 28 for the Bears in 2010) ... WR/TB Will Jefferson's first collegiate rush (2nd Qtr) went for 10 yards and a first down ... ILB Michael Sipili made his first career interception late in the second quarter ... TE Ryan Deehan had career highs in catches (7) and yards (70) ... PK Aric Goodman (2-2 FG) made two field goals in the same game since last year's Texas A&M contest in Boulder (10 games ago); he made his first kick of the year and missed the next three until his two makes tonight to improve to 3-for-6 in 2010 ... Baylor ran 35 first down plays before losing yardage on its 36th and final one of the evening (only three of the 35 gained zero, meaning 32 plus plays) ... CU's streak of 25 straight games with a quarterback sack came to an end ... Nine players earned first downs for CU, five of whom earned at least one both rushing and receiving ... Baylor scored 11 points in the third quarter; CU had allowed just 10 in the period in the first five games ... Play was stopped for six times for reviews; all were upheld ... CU possessed the ball for a season high 36:36, doing so for at least eight minutes in each quarter (11:33 in the first) ... The Buffs were tied for second in the nation coming into this game allowing just one rushing TD, but Baylor scored two ... Baylor gained its most yards (543) in the 16-game history of the series (CU's 399 was only its eighth most); the 942 combined yards was a series high, eclipsing the 915 in the 2007 game ... Baylor was the first team not to punt against the Buffs in 27 years; the last team not to was Nebraska in 1983 ... DB Jered Bell made his first career start, subbing for the injured Anthony Perkins at strong safety; Bell was the first true freshman to make a start for CU in 2010.

GAME #7: TEXAS TECH 27, COLORADO 24OCTOBER 23, 2010 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Texas Tech rallied from an early fourth quarter 10-point deficit and to defeat Colorado, 27-24, extending the Buffaloes' losing streak to three straight games.

After a 3-1 start, CU is 3-4 overall and winless (0-3) in their final season of Big 12 Conference play. The Red Raiders improved to 4-3, 2-3 in the league.

The Buffs were on the verge of knocking out the Red Raiders, holding a 24-14 lead late in the third quarter. But Tech would take advantage of a pair of miscues by the Buffs' special teams. One was a missed 35-yard field goal by Aric Goodman, the other a 29-yard punt by Zach Grossnickle. The Red Raiders scored their tying touchdown after Goodman's miss and kicked the winning field goal after Grossnickle's punt.

From 5:50 of the second quarter through the end of the game, CU's offense was directed by Cody Hawkins, who filled in for Tyler Hansen after the Buffs starter suffered what would eventually determined to be a ruptured spleen. Hawkins provided a spark in the passing game — the Buffs' pass offense out-gained the Red Raiders, 336-286, but Tech outrushed CU 144-28, holding CU to more nearly 130 yards under its average.

The Buffs used a 45-yard punt return by Travon Patterson to set up their first touchdown, a 1-yard sneak by Hansen, giving CU a 7-0 lead that held until just after the midway point of the second quarter, when Tech tied on a 1-yard dive by Aaron Crawford.

After Hansen went down, Hawkins pushed the Buffs from their 19 to the Red Raiders' 6-yard line. On 4th-and-5, Goodman hit a 23-yard field goal to put CU ahead 10-7 at halftime.

Hawkins then opened the second half and engineered an 11-play, 80-yard drive for a score that culminated in an acrobatic 3-yard grab by Paul Richardson to put CU up 17-7.

But Tech answered with a Taylor Potts 15-yard scoring toss to Alex Torres, culminating a 93-yard drive that narrowed the Buffs' advantage to three (17-14) with 8:43 left in the third quarter.

Hawkins and Richardson then teamed for a 60-yard TD and CU again went ahead by 10 (24-14). Richardson became only CU true freshman to catch a pair of TD passes in the same game.

The Red Raiders opened the fourth quarter with a 40-yard field goal by Matt Williams that cut the Buffs' advantage to 24-17.

CU got a break when Grossnickle's 45-yard rugby style punt hit Blake Kelley and was recovered by Arthur Jaffee, but CU advanced only as far as the Tech 18, where Goodman was wide right — by inches — on a 35-yard field goal attempt.

After that miss, Potts pushed his offense 80 yards in just seven plays and hit receiver Lyle Leong in the end zone, tying the game at 24-24 with 10:54 remaining.

The Buffs went three-and-out on their next series. CU couldn't force the Red Raiders to do the same, but Jalil Brown ended the drive by intercepting Potts in the end zone.

CU took over at its 20 yard line with 5:56 left. But in addition to suffering another three-and-out, Grossnickle's rugby punt covered only 29 yards and gave Tech the ball at its own 47-yard line with 4:26 left.

The Red Raiders stalled but Williams saved the drive - and ultimately the game - with his 36-yard field goal, giving the Red Raiders their first lead (27-24) with 2:08 to play.

Once again, CU assumed possession at its 20, but turned the ball over on downs with 1:44 left. The Buffs did get the ball back with 16 seconds left, but couldn't get into field goal position.

GAME NOTES

The series for the time being concludes at 5-5; the home team won the first eight games, with the road team breaking through for the final two (each is 4-1 at home and 1-4 on the road) ... The first quarter took all of 32 minutes to play (and that included 5½ of commercial breaks) ... Travon Patterson's 43-yard punt return in the first quarter was the longest CU punt return since Josh Smith had a 51-yarder vs. Eastern Washington on Sept. 6, 2008 P Zach Grossnickle had his first collegiate punt for 50 or more yards (51-yarder in fourth quarter) ... Tech rushed for 144 yards after CU had held it under 100 the last four games in the series (91, 91, 31, 39) ... Ten different Buffs had a hand in earning the team's 20 first downs ... QB Tyler Hansen piloted the offense for 26 plays (for 80 yards) prior to leaving the game with a rib injury in the second quarter; QB Cody Hawkins directed 59 plays for 284 yards ... Tech averaged 6.9 yards on first down, well below the 10-plus both Georgia and Baylor had averaged in CU's last two home games; three plays accounted for 107 of its 233 first down yards ... The Buffs are 0-3 in Big 12 Conference play for the first time in the 15 year history of the league, and dropped their first three league games since opening 0-4 in the Big Eight in 1983 ... TTU scored one touchdown rushing, just the fourth allowed on the ground this season; the Buffs were among the national leaders in fewest rushing TDs allowed (tied for fifth going in) ... Colorado came in ranked fourth in the nation in time of possession (33:59), and promptly came out and held the ball for 20:03 in the first half (10:21 in the first quarter). The Buffs have held the time advantage in all seven games this season, though Tech made it closer today than in any of the seven, as TTU had it for 19:26 in the second half ... Mainly due to injuries, three players started for the first time, all on defense: DE Nick Kasa, SS Terrel Smith and CB Jonathan Hawkins (at the nickel position); OT Bryce Givens also made his first start of the season at right tackle.

GAME #8: OKLAHOMA 43, COLORADO 10OCTOBER 30, 2010 (OKLAHOMA MEMORIAL STADIUM, NORMAN)

NORMAN, Okla. — Landry Jones threw for 453 yards and four touchdowns and No. 11 Oklahoma used a 26-point second quarter to break open the game as the Sooners defeated Colorado, 43-10.

The Buffs lost their fourth consecutive game, dropping two games below .500 (3-5) and still in search of its first Big 12 win (0-4). Oklahoma (7-1, 3-1) bounced back from a 36-27 loss to Missouri and received record-setting performances on offense.

Ryan Broyles, who caught nine of Jones' passes for a single-game school record 208 yards and three touchdowns was one such performance. Another was Jones 453 passing yards, third-most allowed by CU, and when coupled with backup Drew Allen's total, OU wound up with both a school record as well as the second-highest number of passing yards (488) ever yielded by the Buffs.

Jones kept hitting Broyles and tailback DeMarco Murray (10 catches, 73 yards) on quick out patterns in the Sooners' hurry up offense and OU finished with 635 yards, tied for the seventh most ever allowed by the Buffs and the highest since 1984. CU countered with just 263 yards, struggling most of the night against a tough Sooner defense which allowed CU to gain yardage on only 32 of 68 plays.

The Buffs defense made things relatively difficult for awhile, limiting the Sooners to a first-quarter field goal and another short three-pointer by Jimmy Stevens - his first kick traveled 33 yards, his second 26 - on the first play of the second quarter.

CU trailed only 6-0 with 14:57 remaining until intermission, but at that point, OU's no-huddle pace appeared to be wearing on CU. The second quarter signaled a slow slide into the abyss for the Buffs. After holding Cody Hawkins (17-of-44, 187 yards, one TD) and the Buff offense to their third consecutive three-and-out, Jones pushed the Sooners 79 yards in eight plays, the last of which was a 16-yard touchdown pass to Broyles to put OU up 13-0.

CU managed a 40-yard field goal by Aric Goodman to cut its deficit to 13-3, but in the first half's final 7:46, OU scored 16 points and was comfortably ahead 29-3 at the break. Jones and the speedy Broyles teamed for an 81-yard scoring play - career long TD plays for both - to send the Sooners ahead 20-3.

The half's last 2 ½ minutes were particularly painful for the Buffs, who were forced into another three-and-out and had to punt from their end zone. Javon Harris blocked Zach Grossnickle's rugby punt for a safety, making the score 22-3 and after the free kick, giving Jones and his offense the ball back at the CU 48 with 1:22 left in the half. Jones needed 61 seconds to cover that distance, ultimately throwing a 7-yard scoring pass to tight end James Hannah for the Sooners' 26-point halftime cushion.

OU opened fast in the third quarter, scoring on its first possession on a 64-yard Jones-to-Broyles pass to make it 36-3. CU answered right back with a 49-yard Cody Hawkins-to-Scotty McKnight pass to cut into the lead at 36-10, giving the appearance the second half might become a shootout to mimic the 30th anniversary of the 1980 game in Boulder, which OU won, 82-42. But after swapping scoreless possessions, the Sooners went on an 11-play, 96-yard drive and scored what would be the game's final points on DeMarco Murray's 5-yard run with just over five minutes left in the quarter.

GAME NOTES

The kickoff time of 8:21 p.m. (local) marked the fifth latest in Colorado history ... With no future games scheduled, the Colorado-Oklahoma series stalls at 59 games, with OU ahead 40-17-2 (though CU held the edge by 9-6-1 over the last 16) ... CU dropped to 0-2 against ranked opponents in 2010 ... DE Forrest West, ILB Derrick Webb and ILB Liloa Nobriga (at nickel) made their first career starts to up the number to 20 players who have done so this season ... S Travis Sandersfeld played for the first time since suffered a fractured bone in his ankle Sept. 11 at California ... The teams combined for 17 yards on 13 rushes in the first quarter (and the number was not deflated due to sacks) ... P Zach Grossnickle had his career long punt (52 yards) as well as a career-high nine punts; a 10th was blocked for the safety ... This marked the first time in 2010 that the opponent possessed the ball longer than the Buffs (OU: 32:55) ... Oklahoma's 488 yards passing were the second most ever against Colorado; Fresno State had 523 in the '93 Aloha Bowl ... The Sooners' 635 total yards tied for the seventh most against a CU team; of the eight top efforts, OU has recorded five of those (it was the most yards allowed by CU since Missouri had 639 in 1984 in Columbia) ... OU converted twice on 3rd-&-11 or more, the first team to do so against the Buffs this year (opponents were 0-of-10 coming in) ... Colorado went a second straight game without committing a turnover (OU had none as well) ... Hawkins' 49-yard TD pass to McKnight tied the pair for the most touchdown passes by a duo in CU history, as they matched Koy Detmer-to-Rae Carruth, who teamed for 12 between 1992-96. That was the 199th reception of McKnight's career; he ended the game with 201, the first Buff to ever reach the 200 plateau.

DEPTH CHART

A note about CU's depth: in-season, depth charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries; also, the coaches often use "groupings" at certain positions (i.e. receiver-tight end-tailback-fullback), and often a group enters the game to run a play that does not match the depth.
