* - Big 12 Conference game.

QUICKLY -- Kansas (2-6 overall, 0-4 Big 12) returns home to host Colorado (3-5, 0-4) Saturday, Nov. 6 at 1 p.m. in the final matchup between the schools as members of the Big 12 Conference. The game will not be televised.

- The game features the only two teams in the conference, who do not have a league win this year.
- Kansas is 2-3 at home this season.
- KU has lost four straight home games against Big 12 Conference opponents dating back to last year's 41-36 victory against Iowa State Oct. 10.
- KU had played 22 consecutive games on television before last week's game at Iowa State. This week's game marks the second straight non-televised game for the Jayhawks.
- KU is 4-1 in its first game in the month of November in the last five years since losing to Colorado in the first game of the month in 2004. KU defeated Nebraska twice, Iowa State and Kansas State and lost a narrow 17-10 decision to Kansas State to open the month in the last five years.
- KU has lost 11 consecutive Big 12 games since beating Iowa State Oct. 10, 2009.
- KU has lost four straight games, as well as 13 of its last 15 games since opening the 2009 season with five consecutive victories.

BACK-TO-BACK WITH DEPARTING MEMBERS -- Kansas is playing consecutive games against the two teams leaving the Big 12 Conference with this Saturday's meeting against Colorado and next week's game at Nebraska.

LOOKING FOR RIGHT COMBINATIONS -- Last year against Colorado Kansas played six guys on defense for the first time on the year, while four players made their first starts of the 2009 season. With first-year coach Turner Gill, the Jayhawks are looking for the right combination. Here are a few notes:

- Last Saturday at Iowa State three Jayhawks made their first career starts (WR Erick McGriff, QB Quinn Meacham and CB Greg Brown), while DT John Williams made his first season start.
- This year 35 different players have started a game.
- Fifteen different players have made their first career start this year.
- In the last two weeks six different players have made their first start of the season.
- From 2007-09 Todd Reesing started 38 consecutive games at quarterback, but through eight games this season the Jayhawks have started three different players at that position in Kale Pick, Jordan Webb and Quinn Meacham.
- KU has three players who have started on both offense and defense in their careers (D.J. Beshears, Toben Oporum and Daymond Patterson).

DID YOU KNOW? -- The winning team in the Kansas-Colorado series has scored at least 30 points in six of the last eight meetings in the series.

DID YOU KNOW? -- Both KU head coach Turner Gill and offensive coordinator Chuck Long were Heisman Trophy finalists during their playing days. Gill was fourth in the 1983 balloting behind teammate and winner Mike Rozier, runner-up Steve Young and third-place finisher Doug Flutie. Long was the runner-up to Bo Jackson in 1985. Both later coached Heisman Trophy winners and finalists (Gill coached 1995 runner-up Tommie Frazier and 2001 winner Eric Crouch, while Long mentored 2000 runner-up Josh Heupel and 2003 winner and 2004 finalist Jason White).

This Week's Game

KU-CU SERIES -- Colorado leads the all-time series by a 42-24-3 count, including a narrow 17-15-3 advantage in games played in Lawrence. KU had won three straight in the series before dropping a 34-30 decision at Boulder last year. That loss was KU's first of the 2009 season after starting the season 5-0 and earning a national ranking of 17th in the Associated Press poll.

KU-CU LAST TIME -- No. 17 Kansas erased a 21-point deficit, but couldn't manage to come up with a victory as the Jayhawks fell at Colorado 34-30 to suffer their first loss of the season after starting 5-0 on Oct. 17, 2009. Kansas trailed 24-3 late in the second quarter before fighting back to take a 30-27 lead with 13:02 remaining. Colorado responded with the go-ahead touchdowns at the 8:36 mark to lead 34-30. Kansas then had two potential go-ahead touchdown drives stopped at the Colorado six and 19-yard lines to end the game. Todd Reesing threw for 401 yards and two touchdowns while Dezmon Briscoe pulled in eight balls for 154 yards and one score and Kerry Meier had 11 receptions for 103 yards and another touchdown. Two KU turnovers gave Colorado the ball at the three and one-yard lines and the Buffaloes took advantage with touchdowns. On the day Kansas registered 431 passing yards, but had minus-eight rushing yards due to five Colorado sacks for 50 yards. KU played six players on defense for the first time on the season. LB Drew Dudley recorded 17 tackles while Darrell Stuckey added 12 tackles, an interception and a pass broken up.

KU-CU LAST TIME IN LAWRENCE -- Behind 186 all-purpose yards from Jake Sharp and an impressive second-half passing performance from Todd Reesing, Kansas turned a 20-point halftime deficit into a 35-33 win at Iowa State Oct. 4, 2008. The come-from-behind victory tied for the third biggest comeback in school history. By halftime KU was down 20-0 and had mustered just 93 yards and five first downs. In the second half KU scored on five of six possessions as Reesing was 10 of 12 for 260 yards and three touchdowns in the second half. Reesing finished 18 of 26 for 319 yards, while Sharp rushed for 79 yards and one touchdown and had 107 yards and another score on three receptions. Kerry Meier pulled in seven balls for 125 yards and two touchdowns. KU gained 436 yards and Iowa State had 365.

KU-CU CONNECTIONS -- Redshirt freshman RB Ryan Burton (Colorado Springs/Air Academy HS) is the only KU player on the roster from the state of Colorado... KU DL coach Buddy Wyatt coached the DL at Colorado in 1999 when the Buffaloes went to the Insight Bowl... KU CB coach Vic Shealy coached in the state as the DB coach at Air Force from 1999-2004... KU offensive assistant Brian Miller was born in Golden, Colo... KU FB SID Mike Strauss was a student assistant in the CU media relations office.

2009 GAME STARTED SLIDE -- The 2009 loss against Colorado stopped a seven-game winning streak which had dated back to the 2008 season for Kansas. It started a streak of seven straight losses to end that season and turned into eight straight with a 2010 season-opening loss.

THINGS TO LOOK FOR AGAINST COLORADO:

- WR Johnathan Wilson (109) needs nine receptions to pass Richard Estell (117) for eighth on the KU career receptions list.
- Wilson (1,347) needs 81 receiving yards to move past Kenny Drayton (1,427) for 17th on the KU career receiving yardage list.
- QB Jordan Webb (1,114) needs 102 passing yards to set the KU season freshman passing yardage record held by Mario Kinsey, who threw for 1,215 yards in 2001.
- DE Jake Laptad (18.5) needs two sacks to tie for second on the KU career sacks list passing a pair of players with 20 and tying Ron Warner (20.5).
- P Alonso Rojas has at least one 50-yard punt and landed at least one punt inside the 20-yard line in all eight games this season.
- PK Jacob Branstetter (192) needs seven points to pass Dezmon Briscoe (198) for sixth on the KU career scoring list.
- KU has not recorded an interception in five straight games.
- CB Chris Harris should make his team-high 38th career start.
- Four Jayhawks should make their 21st consecutive starts in CB Chris Harris and OL Tanner Hawkinson, Brad Thorson and Sal Capra.

A KU win would...

- Stop a four-game losing streak and an 11-game Big 12 losing streak.
- Be KU's fourth in the last five meetings with Colorado

A KU loss would...

- Give KU a five-game losing streak and a 12-game Big 12 losing streak.
- Be its second straight against Colorado after winning three straight against the Buffaloes.
- Be less good than a win.

Kansas Team Notes

LAST TIME OUT -- Despite leading 9-7 at the half, Kansas fell 28-16 at Iowa State last Saturday. Behind the leg of PK Jacob Branstetter, the Jayhawks were able to take a 6-0 first quarter lead on kicks of 34 and 42 against the wind. Iowa State scored its only points of the half on a 62-yard punt return by Josh Lenz midway through the second, but Branstetter hit a 38 yard field goal to give the Jayhawks a halftime 9-7 advantage. Iowa State -- which only had 12 yards of total offense in the first quarter -- came out a different team after halftime, racking up 21 points and 218 yards in the third quarter alone. Kansas was not able to keep pace and, although holding ISU to just 60 yards and no points in the fourth, could not come back. A late five-yard touchdown pass from junior college transfer quarterback Quinn Mecham to freshman running back James Sims made the final score 28-16. In his first start for Kansas, Mecham was 22-of-33 passing for 149 yards, a touchdown and an interception. He completed throws to seven receivers; his favorite receiver being Daymond Patterson who made six catches for 22 yards. Senior running back Angus Quigley posted 124 all purpose yards including 14 carries for 69 yards and four catches for 56 yards. Sims finished with 19 carries for 60 yards. LB Steven Johnson and DT Richard Johnson each had seven tackles to lead the defense.

BALANCED OFFENSE -- The 2010 Kansas offense has been very balanced this season:

- KU has passed for 182 yards and rushed for 142 yards per game and the 40-yard difference is the second closest ratio in the last nine years (KU threw for 197 and rushed for 176 in 2006 for a 21-yard difference).
- KU has eight passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns.
- KU has five players with more than 100 rushing yards already this season, the most since five players on the 2006 team ran for 100-plus yards each on the season.
- Thirteen different players have receptions this season.
- Eight different players have scored touchdowns this year.

LONG SCORING DRIVE -- Against Iowa State, Kansas recorded an 80-yard scoring drive, its longest scoring drive in four games, since a 99-yard drive against New Mexico State.

SECOND QUARTER WOES -- While Kansas is getting out-scored in every quarter this year, the second quarter has been the biggest issue for the Jayhawks as KU has been out-scored 103-41 in that period. In Big 12 games KU has been outscored 27-6 in the first quarter and 69-24 in the second quarter.

NO BIG PLAYS -- In four non-conference games Kansas produced four rushes and 11 pass plays of 20 or more yards, but in four Big 12 games the Jayhawks have only one rush and six passes of 20 or more yards. In fact, KU has scored just twice from outside the red zone this year, a 32-yard reception by Daymond Patterson vs. Georgia Tech and a 41-yard catch by Johnathan Wilson against New Mexico State. Meanwhile the opponent has produced six rushes and 12 passes of 20 or more yards in Big 12 play

TURNOVER ISSUES -- After a three-game stretch with just one turnover, Kansas has turned the ball over 10 times in the last four games combined. Meanwhile the KU defense has forced just two turnovers in the last five games combined and just five on the season. The Jayhawks rank 116th in the country in turnover margin at -1.13 per game.

TURNOVERS TWO -- Kansas has converted each of the three turnovers it has caused in the last six games into three scores (one touchdown and two field goals). In four Big 12 games, the opponent has taken 10 turnovers committed by the Jayhawks and turned them into nine scores (six touchdowns and three field goals).

HARRIS REACHES 250 TACKLES -- CB Chris Harris recorded his 250th career tackle at Iowa State Saturday. The senior needs 33 tackles in the final four games to tie for third on the KU career tackle list by a defensive back. LeRoy Irvin is the all-time leader with 347 stops, followed by Darrell Stuckey (295) and Tony Blevins and Paul Friday, who each had 283.

OFFENSIVE NOTES -- KU has rushed for at least 100 yards in six games this season (96 and 99 in the other two games) and last year the Jayhawks ran for 100 or more yards in each of the first five games, but none in the last seven games... KU has rushed for only one touchdown in the last four games (vs. Kansas State)... KU's 22 completions and 33 pass attempts at Iowa State Saturday were both second only to a 26 of 46 day vs. Kansas State this season... KU committed just one turnover against Iowa State, its fewest in the last four games.

DEFENSIVE NOTES -- KU forced a fumble, four punts and a series ending on downs on Iowa State's first six possessions before the Cyclones scored on three straight possessions to open the second half... KU held Iowa State to just 12 yards in the first quarter Saturday... After going two games without a sack, KU has recorded two sacks in each of the last two games... KU has not recorded an interception since Phillip Strozier picked off a pass at Southern Miss. in the third game of the year...

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES -- Kansas had averaged worse starting field position than its opponents in six of the first seven games (Georgia Tech was exception) before having an identical starting field position average of its own 27-yard line with Iowa State... KU made three field goals against Iowa State (on four attempts) to match its season total before that game (entered three of six)... P Alonso Rojas has recorded at least one 50-yard punt in every game this season and a 70-plus yard punt in two straight games... He also has landed at least one punt inside the 20-yard line every game this year and has just one touchback in the last five contests.

FRESHMEN QB AND RB -- Only twice in history has KU had freshmen lead the team in both rushing and passing in the same year. This year true freshman James Sims leads the team with 375 rushing yards, while redshirt freshman Jordan Webb has thrown for a team-best 1,114 yards. The first time freshmen led in both categories was 1945 (George Gear threw for 223 yards and Dick Bertuzzi ran for 360) and the second time was 1980 (Frank Seurer threw for 797 and Kerwin Bell ran for 1,114).

FRESHMEN MOVING UP CHARTS ALREADY -- Here is a look at where redshirt freshman Jordan Webb and true freshman James Sims rank on the KU freshman season lists:

KU GRADUATES -- Four current Kansas players (all starters in the first two games) have already received their college degrees. This group includes OG Sal Capra (finance), S Olaitan Oguntodu (marketing and also finance), RB Angus Quigley (African and African-American studies) and OT Brad Thorson (business).

NON-SATURDAY GAMES -- Kansas will play two non-Saturday games this season as the Jayhawks played at Southern Mississippi on Friday, Sept. 17 and hosted Kansas State on Thursday, Oct. 14. The last time KU played two non-Saturday regular season games in the same season was 1994 when the Jayhawks played at Houston on a Thursday (won) and on a Thursday vs. Kansas State (lost).

UNIFORM CHANGES -- There are a couple of small tweaks to the Kansas football uniforms this season. The red stripe which has been on the helmet has been taken off this year. Instead of names, a Jayhawk logo will be on the back of the jerseys. The last time KU players did not have names on their jerseys was 1981. In the season opener KU players wore blue tops with white pants for the first time since 2003 (had worn gray pants) and also wore white shoes for the first time since 1998. Against Texas A&M Kansas wore all blue uniforms for the first time since the Glen Mason era (1988-96).

UP NEXT -- Kansas will hit the road traveling to Nebraska for the final time with both teams as members of the Big 12 Conference.
