2013 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL

GAME 3—OREGON STATE

BUFFALOES REGROUP FROM AREA FLOODS, OPEN PAC-12 PLAY AT OSU

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2013 • 1:07 p.m. MDT • Reser Stadium (45,674), Corvallis, Ore.

RELEASE NUMBER 3 (September 23, 2013)

Pac-12 Mountain Network (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (2-0, 0-0 Pac-12) resume action after what will be a 20-day layoff this Saturday, Sept. 28, traveling to the Pacific Northwest to take on the Oregon State Beavers (3-1, 1-0 Pac-12) in a 12:07 p.m. (PDT/1:07 p.m. MDT) kickoff at Reser Stadium, with the game to be televised nationally on the Pac-12 Network ... CU's last game was supposed to be on Sept. 14 against Fresno State in Boulder was postponed due to severe flooding in the Boulder area after record rainfall (over 21 inches in a single week); that game (or a replacement) has yet to be rescheduled ... This will mark Colorado's first-ever appearance in Corvallis; two previous trips to Oregon to face the Beavers saw the games played in Portland (1931, 1963) ... The Beavers are the last Pac-12 team that CU has yet to play since joining the Pac-12 in 2011, although the California game that year was the back end of a home-and-home agreement in non-league play and was not counted in the conference standings ... None of the previous five CU-OSU games have been televised, thus this will be the first ... Of the 31 programs that hired new head coaches for 2013, CU's Mike MacIntyre is just one of four yet to lose ... As stated above, Colorado last opened with a pair of wins in 2008, which was also the last time CU opened 3-0 (2004 was the time before that) ... This week is the sixth annual Coach to Cure MD effort (see note on page 11) ... CU sold in excess of 800 tickets for the OSU game ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Colorado opened with a 41-27 win over rival Colorado State in Denver on Sept. 1; last Saturday, CSU battled No. 1 Alabama in Tuscaloosa on near equal terms for the first three quarters before succumbing, 31-6. The numbers put up against the Rams on offense and defense were quite comparable; take a look:

Offense vs. CSU	Rushing	Passing	Total	Avg.	Defense vs. CSU	Rushing	Passing	Total	Avg.
Colorado	37-109	46-33-0, 400	509	6.1	Colorado	28- 94	39-22-0, 201	295	4.4
Alabama	21- 66	27-21-1, 272	338	7.0	Alabama	26- 51	38-24-0, 228	279	4.4

OBSCURE NOTES OF THE WEEK

The Fresno State game was the third in CU history that was postponed; in 1963, the CU-Air Force game in Colorado Springs, set for Nov. 23, was delayed until Dec. 7 after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas one day before; and in 2001, CU was set to travel to Pullman to play Washington State on Sept. 15 but all college games were called off after the terrorist attacks on Sept. 11. That game was not rescheduled that season but was eventually made up in the 2004 season (and played in Seattle).

LAST TIME OPEN TWO STRAIGHT WEEKS BETWEEN REGULAR SEASON GAMES: That would be 1963, CU lost to Kansas in Boulder, 43-14, on Nov. 16; JFK was murdered on Nov. 22. The game the next day at Air Force was postponed until Dec. 7 (AFA won it, 17-14); thus CU was idle on Nov. 23 and 30. Otherwise, you have to go back to 1901 when CU defeated Colorado Mines on Oct. 22 (23) and then lost at the Denver Athletic Club on Nov. 28 (29-0).

COLORADO FOOTBALL MEDIA SERVICES

- Head coach Mike MacIntyre holds a Tuesday press luncheon, with this year's location in the Flatirons Club inside Balch Fieldhouse (access the room by the back stairway on the north side of the building). All will start at 11:30 a.m. with lunch, followed by MacIntyre promptly at Noon and select players afterwards depending on class conflicts. This year's dates: Aug. 27; Sept. 3-10-24; Oct. 1-8-22-29; Nov. 5-12-19-26; Dec. 3-TBA (bowl); no presser ahead of open Saturdays (Sept. 17, Oct. 15). The press conference portion of the luncheon is streamed live on www.CUBuffs.com (in the BuffsTV area); press conferences on CUBuffs.com are free and do not require access codes. (TV Pool Assignments: KCNC 9/03, 10/1, 10/29, 11/19; KDVR 9/24, 10/22, 11/12, 12/03; KUSA 9/10, 10/8, 11/05, 11/26 (all on own 8/27).
- MacIntyre can be heard Tuesdays (Aug. 27-Nov. 26) on the Pac-12 Teleconference Call at 11:15 a.m. MT, with a taped replay available after 4 p.m. MT those afternoons. All coaches participate; for access numbers to the conference call and the replay, e-mail David Plati (david.plati@colorado.edu) with audio files available at www.pac-12.com.
- Video highlights of CU games are available through the Pac-12 Network and Digital Xchange. There are a few restrictions in place; please work with Duane Lindberg at the Pac-12 to coordinate your needs (dlindberg@pac-12.org).
- The Pac-12 Networks are available nationwide through many platforms; check with your local cable or satellite subscriber for more info. Comcast and Time Warner carry the Network in Colorado and DISH Network is the league's satellite provider (there remains no deal with DirecTV). In the Boulder-Denver area it can be found on Comcast 430 & 431 (840 HD); Pac-12 DISH channels include 406 and 413 (along with 5453 and 5454 in its auxiliary area).
- The Colorado lockerroom (home and road) is closed after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be available (a list will be solicited immediately following the game; no cutoff to request players).
- Colorado's football practices are currently closed (to the media and general public); the first 20-25 minutes of the Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday practices are open to the media for any photography/video needs (follow parameters listed in CU's media policies). Thursday practices are entirely closed (except network TV).
- This year's standard meeting/practice schedule (mountain time, pre-time change): Sunday: 3:00-5:30/5:45-7:00; Monday: Off; Tuesday: 7:00-8:30/8:45-11:00; Wednesday: 7:00-8:30/8:45-11:00; Thursday: 8:00-9:10/9:35-11:00; Friday (5:30-6:00 walkthrough/evening meetings). Daylight savings time ends on Sunday, Nov. 3 at 2:00 a.m.
- Interviews with Colorado players are allowed post-practice on Sundays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Phone interviews with out-of-town media are allowed all four days in all time slots. Interviews on Mondays are at the discretion of the player, as it being the standard player day off (no meetings/practice), CU can't arrange due to NCAA rules.
- Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I (FBS) football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for all major conferences and their member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.
- CU On-Line Photo Database. The CU SID office has an online photo database that allows registered members of the media instant access to print quality head shots of all CU coaches and student-athletes as well as action shots of key players. Registration is easy: for a login and password, simply log on to www.CUBuffs.com, select "Sports Information" from the "Athletic Department" menu located on the left navigation bar and follow the instructions.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE INTERNET

- Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Visit the official CU site at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes, press conference broadcasts (free) and articles by former Rocky Mountain News sportswriter B.G. Brooks. Go to www.CUBuffs.com/media and click on Media Center: it will link you to everything you'll need to know about CU football. Through the Pac-12, "BuffsTV" offers the opportunity to listen and/or watch live game action of several CU athletic teams. Breaking news with the program will be found here first every time and delivered in full without others editing out what they might deem unessential.
- Audio. Colorado football and basketball can now be heard for free on the Internet at either CUBuffs.com or KOA-Radio (or its sister station, KKZN/AM760 for hoops). Links: www.CUBuffs.com, www.850koe.com, www.am760.net.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE AIRWAYS

- KOA-Radio in Denver (850 AM) originates the CU Football Network, with sports director Mark Johnson in his ninth year as the play-by-play voice of the Buffs. Larry Zimmer (analysis) is in his 40th season broadcasting Colorado football (he handled play-by-play from 1971-81 and 1985-2003). Sideline duties will be handled by former Buff and NFL All-Pro linebacker Chad Brown (second year). Cities on the network in addition to KOA/Denver: Alamosa (KALQ/94.5FM), Aspen (KFNO/106.1 FM, which also serves Eagle, 96.7FM; Roaring Fork, 94.3FM and Old Snowmass, 93.9FM), Durango (KRSJ/100.5 FM), Grand Junction (KTMM/1340AM), Rifle (KNAM, 1490AM) and Steamboat Springs (KTYV/98.9FM). KOA has been the home to CU football for 69 of the last 72 years.
- Tuesdays at 7 p.m. (Aug. 27-Nov. 19), the CU Coaches Radio Show originates from Fate Brewery (1600 38th Street, Boulder), with Johnson and Zimmer as hosts (it airs on KOA, or AM760 if a conflict with Colorado Rockies baseball).
- Satellite Radio: Sirius-XM is the satellite home of the Pac-12 and the Buffs; the CU-Oregon St. game (OSU broadcast) will be on Sirius Channel 139 (XM 197).
- The Pac-12 Mountain Network is the television home of the Buffaloes; there are no coaches show specific to league schools as the Network produces a variety of programming featuring all 12 member institutions.

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last decade, Colorado has had 195 of its 221 seniors graduate; these are the 2001-2012 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. That translates to 88.2 percent. Ten of the 12 seniors (or juniors graduating early) have earned degrees, with 25 of the 26 seniors in 2011 doing the same; 35 of the last 38 have graduated (92.1) starting with the 2006 senior class, 127 of 142 have earned degrees (89.4%). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado.

TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The football team recorded its fifth consecutive semester with a 2.60 grade point average or higher for the Spring 2013 term, coming at exactly 2.600 for the semester.

STAFF NOW COMPLETE

Mike MacIntyre's first Colorado full staff, coaches and support personnel, is now complete with the hiring of former CU wide receiver Patrick Williams, who started as the assistant director of recruiting on August 29. Williams, a 2008 Colorado graduate (Sociology), spent four seasons in the National Football League with Green Bay, Seattle and Baltimore, a combination of being a practice squad player and active on games days, though he never did get into a game. He joins CU from the Heloise Munson Foundation, where he worked for non-profit during the last year, as well as did some personal training of high school and college athletes. Williams' hiring followed that of Derek Fribbs as one of two student assistants working with the coaches. Fribbs completed his eligibility this past May after lettering four years on the golf team; he played the fourth most rounds in school history (146) and finished with a 74.25 career stroke average. The other student assistant working with the coaches is senior outside linebacker Tommy Papilion, whose career has been cut short due to knee injuries.

MCCARTNEY TO BE HONORED AT OREGON GAME

The winningest coach in CU football history, Bill McCartney, will be honored at halftime of the Oregon game on Oct. 5 as he will become the seventh Buffalo (the first coach) to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Over 13 seasons (1982-94), McCartney compiled a 93-55-5 record coaching the Buffaloes, but after one of the most daring moves in modern college football annals, after CU switched to the wishbone on offense ahead of the 1985 season, the Buffaloes went 86-30-4 over his last 10 seasons with the consensus 1990 national championship and three consecutive Big 8 titles (two outright, one shared).

McCartney will first be recognized at a luncheon on Thursday, Oct. 3, at the University Memorial Center, and then will participate in the Pearl Street Stampede on Friday night (Oct. 4). He will be inducted in New York City with 13 players and one other coach on Tuesday, Dec. 10 (with a public reception for him the night before at Traffic East on 2nd Avenue near 53rd Street). He will be enshrined next summer in Atlanta at the new home of the permanent College Hall of Fame. He will join Byron White (inducted in the Hall's second class in 1952), Joe Romig (1984), Dick Anderson (1993), Bobby Anderson (2006), Alfred Williams (2010) and John Wooten (2012) as Buffaloes in the Hall.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION SCHOLAR-ATHLETE NOMINEE

DT NATE BONSU (International Affairs & Political Science; 3.38 grade point average)

BONSU'S UNIQUE ACADEMIC ROAD

Senior DT Nate Bonsu is CU's 2013 nomination for the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award, with the winning recipients to receive a financial award for postgraduate studies; Nate currently owns a 3.38 grade point average through his junior year and is majoring in International Affairs and Political Science at Colorado; in conjunction with those majors, he has learned to speak Arabic and is also earning an Entrepreneurship Certificate from CU's Leeds School of Business. So, with studies like those aforementioned three, here's the course load he is taking this fall (all 3-credit classes): Advanced Arabic I, Principles of Business for Entrepreneurs, Writing a Venture Plan, Intro to Middle East History and Gender/Race/Class/Global Studies. Bonsu was a first-team Pac-12 All-Academic Team member as a junior, after earning second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named honorable mention Academic All-State by the Texas High School Coaches Association and earned status as a Texas Scholar and had a perfect score on the associated test. He hopes to go to law school after his football days are over and also wants to attend culinary school.

SERIES HISTORY—CU VS. OREGON STATE

Oregon State leads the series, which has been dormant for 25 years, by a 3-2 count; the last three games were in Boulder (1964, 1983, 1988) while the first two were in Portland; thus, this is the first meeting between the two on the Oregon State campus. OSU won the first three, outscoring the Buffs, 71-13; CU has won the last two by a combined 66-35 margin. Neither coach (CU's Mike MacIntyre and OSU's Mike Riley) has coached against the other team in his collegiate career as a head coach.

DID YOU KNOW—Colorado's has had just three of its 25 head coaches who have owned west coast collegiate roots; Dal Ward was the first, and he was an Oregon State graduate (1927). Ward, for which the CU football building is named, coached at CU from 1948-58, compiling a 63-41-6 record; his 110 games coached trail only Bill McCartney (153) and Eddie Crowder (118). The other two Buff pilots with west coast college degrees were Rick Neuheisel (UCLA '84) and Dan Hawkins (UC-Davis '84).

DID YOU KNOW II—The 1988 game was the last in CU history that was played with a split officiating crew. The head referee, Larry Fisher, was from the Big 8 Conference, with the other six officials split between being from the Big 8 and the Pac-10.

SERIES ANNIVERSARY GAME—30th: On Sept. 24, 1983, the Buffs defeated the Beavers, 38-14, to move to 2-1 on the season, marking the first time since 1978 that CU was over .500 after three games. Colorado took a 21-0 lead with 1:21 left in the first quarter on touchdowns by Darryl Johnson (2-yard run), Jeff Donaldson (44-yard interception return) and Ron Brown (62-yard pass from Steve Vogel). Lee Rouson rushed for 106 yards on nine carries while Brown caught five passes for 143 yards and the TD; at the time it was just the fourth time in school history that CU had a 100-yard rusher and receiver (ironically, the fifth time would be when the two met next in 1988; there are now 33 total). Defensively, Clyde Riggins (12 tackles, 1 PBU), Tony Armstrong (10 tackles, four for losses, two quarterback sacks) and Wayne Carroll (10 tackles, four for losses, one sack) led the way.

CU-OREGON STATE BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia with Colorado and Oregon State:

- 1 The number of CU points scored by PAT kick in the '88 game (one made, one snapped over holder's head, one pass failed, one no attempt).
- 5 The number of games between CU and OSU, the third fewest in all the Pac-12 rivalries (trailing 4 between Arizona State-CU and Stanford-Utah).
- 5 The number of touchdown passes thrown by Oregon State in the '63 game, half of its total in all five previous games.
- 11 The number of tackles for loss by Colorado in the 1983 game (for 55 yards, including five quarterback sacks).
- 13.9 The average per play by HB Bill Harris in the 1963 game (4-71 rushing; 3-26, 1 TD receiving).
- 21 The passing yards (on 2-of-4) by QB/DB Hale Irwin in the '64 game; his first swings as a CU golfer came the next semester.
- 25 The number of years since the two schools have met on the football field;
- 59.8 The average for five punts by the late Keith English in the '88 game, setting a CU record for the highest average with a minimum five punts.
- 211 The number of rushing yards by Eric Bieniemy in the 1988 game, his career high at the time.
- 541 The current area code for Corvallis and vicinity (503 for the first five meetings).
- 969 The distance (as the crow flies) between Boulder, Colo., and Corvallis, Ore. (but by road, the shortest route covers 1,330 miles).
- 5,110 The difference, in feet, between the elevation of Folsom Field (5,345 feet) and the city of Corvallis (235 feet).

OREGON STATE NOTES

Oregon State is 3-1, reeling off three straights wins after opening the year ranked No. 25 in the country but falling in its opener, 49-46, to Eastern Washington. The Beavers have been in three high scoring affairs and either they and/or the opponent have reached or eclipsed 30 points seven out of eight possible times, combining for 305 total points. Only Texas A&M (322) and Indiana (309) have been involved in games with more points at this stage.

- ➔ Oregon State coach Mike Riley is in his 13th season in Corvallis, owning a record of 84-68 (55.3 winning percentage). He coached the Beavers in 1997-98, and then after a short stint in the NFL (San Diego head coach, 1999-2001; New Orleans assistant, 2002), returned to Corvallis in 2003.
- ➔ LAST TIME OUT: Oregon State rallied from a 27-14 deficit to defeat San Diego State on the road, 34-30. Steve Nelson's 16-yard interception return for a touchdown with 2:31 remaining came just nine seconds after OSU pulled to within 30-28 on a 10-yard pass from Sean Mannion to Terron Ward. The Beaves outgained the Atzecs, 377-325 (367-251 through the air); neither team ran the ball well (54 rushes, 132 yards when allowing for sacks), as the defenses combined for 21 tackles for loss. Throw in 33 plays for no gain, that's one out of every 2.6 plays went for zero or minus yardage.

REUNITED

Coaching against his alma mater this week will be Rod Perry, who is the secondary coach for the Beavers. Perry played at Colorado the 1973 and 1974 seasons (he attended Fresno City College prior), and made his mark for the Buffaloes. He was a first-team All-Big 8 performer as a senior in 1974, when he was also afforded honorable mention All-America honors. A fourth round draft pick by the Los Angeles Rams in the National Football League draft, he went on to become a two-time Pro Bowl participant (1978, 1980) and spent 10 seasons in the league, the first eight with the Rams and the final two with Cleveland. A member of the 1980 Rams' Super Bowl team (started at cornerback), he was named a member of the Rams' 40th Anniversary team. He played 188 games in the NFL, intercepting 30 passes, returning four for touchdowns. At Colorado, he led the team in interceptions as a senior with three (for 97 yards return yards, including a 54-yard score), with 31 tackles (23 solo) and seven pass deflections that year. He also led the team in punt returns (8.0 average on 15 runbacks). Perry coached in the NFL for 24 seasons overall, and this is his second stint in college; he coached at Fresno State in the 1997-98 seasons (and against the Buffs in the latter year, a 29-21 CU win in Boulder). He actually earned his bachelor's degree from Fresno after his NFL playing days.

THE LAST TIME: COLORADO 28, OREGON STATE 21SEPTEMBER 24, 1988*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Eric Bieniemy rushed for 211 yards and three touchdowns, including the go-ahead score with 9:16 left in the game, to lead the Colorado Buffaloes to their third straight win to open the 1988 season, a 28-21 verdict over the Oregon State Beavers.

It was CU's best game to date in its "I-Bone" offense, a variation of the wishbone that the Buffaloes utilized the previous three seasons.

Bieniemy enjoyed the fifth best rushing day in school history at the time (now tied for 16th), and also became the first player at CU to rush for 100-plus yards in three straight games for the first time in 11 years. It was his 45-yard run on a fourth-and-one play early in the game which put the Buffs ahead, 7-0.

The Beavers pulled even some five minutes later on a 48-yard pass play from quarterback Erik Wilhelm to Jason Kent. On the ensuing drive, the Buffs went 80 yards on just six plays, going ahead 13-7 on a four-yard run by Bieniemy. The extra point was no good as the snap sailed over placekicker Eric Hannah's head. Hannah made good on a 26-yard field goal in the second quarter to give CU a 16-7 edge, which stood up at the half.

Robb Thomas hauled in a 24-yard scoring pass from Wilhelm in the third quarter to pull OSU to within 16-14, and the Beavers took the lead, 21-16, on a one-yard plunge by Brian Swanson early in the fourth. But on CU's fifth play after getting the ball back, Bieniemy sprinted around the left side and ran 66 yards for what proved to be the winning score. Quarterback Sal Aunese added a 10-yard run as time ran out.

"In the predicament we were in, it turned out to be a great victory," CU head coach Bill McCartney said afterward. "At the end of the game, our offense reached back and performed at a high level. In the intermediate stages of the game, we didn't do that. We had trouble picking up their defensive stunts and just didn't perform well."

Colorado gained 498 yards on the afternoon, including 190 through the air, a career-high for Aunese and a team best since 1984.

"I think the late touchdown drives say something about the poise and confidence of our football team," McCartney added. "We're still finding new things about ourselves each week. This offense has more versatility than the wishbone and gives us a greater ability to come back if we're behind."

GAME NOTES

Colorado opened 3-0 for the first time since 1978 (when it got off to a 5-0 start); it was CU's 14th straight win when leading at the half, the 15th in a row when leading after three quarters and 13th straight win when scoring first ... Colorado had 498 yards of total offense, 230 coming on four big plays of 67, 66, 52 and 45 yards ... There were 130 total plays in the game, 107 that gained yards, with just 16 that gained zero and nine for losses ... The lengths of Keith English's five punts, in order, covered 70, 53, 58, 54 and 64 yards; the 70-yard bomb was the longest by a CU punter since 1974 (Stan Koleski, 72 yards at Kansas State; CU punters have six punts of 70 yards or longer since) ... His 59.8 average set a school and Big 8 record, but he needed 3 more yards to set the NCAA one ... WR Jeff Campbell became the first Buff in the team's "Wishbone/I-Bone" era to have 100 or more receiving yards in a game (3-107); CU had not had a 100-yard receiving game since 1984 ... CU's 190 passing yards were its most since converting to the wishbone for the 1985 season ... Of those 190, 171 came in the first half, marking the first time in 75 halves of football the Buffs had more passing than rushing yards in a half ... TB Eric Bieniemy rushed for 211 yards (second-most in his career, he had 217 at Missouri in '90), the first 200-yard game by a Buffalo since 1977 when TB James Mayberry had 250 against Oklahoma State; it was also his third straight 100-yard game, last done by Mayberry in '77.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 28

Colorado is 5-6 all-time on September 28, having last played in 1996 on the date (on which, 50 years ago in 1963 saw the cartoon Tennessee Tuxedo debut on CBS, featuring the voices of Don Adams as the lead character with Bradley Bolke voicing his sidekick Chumley and F-Troop's Larry Storch playing Phineas J. Whoopee; now how's that for some trivia). A look at some of the games on the date: 1912—A 20-0 win over the Alumni, games against which back then were allowed to count in the record. 1935—The Buffaloes, in their first full season with the nickname, take a train to Norman but fall 3-0 to the Oklahoma Sooners in the season opener. 1940—CU drops a 39-7 decision at Texas; it would be worse six years later. 1946—The Buffs suffer their worst loss ever to a major college program, falling 76-0 at Texas; UT outgained CU 594-59 in scoring 11 touchdowns (7 rush, 4 pass). 1957—Bob Stransky's 1-yard leap over right tackle capped a 66-yard drive in the game's final six minutes to rally CU to a 30-24 win over Utah in Boulder. The Utes had taken their first lead with 6:27 remaining on a 30-yard field goal by George Boss. Lee Grosscup threw for 201 yards and two touchdowns to pace the Utes. 1963—Colorado and Oregon State meet for just the second time, in Portland as they did in 1931, and the Beavers come away with a 41-6 win one week after the Buffs give No. 1 USC all it could handle in losing 14-0 in Eddie Crowder's first game as CU's head coach. OSU threw a then-record five TD passes against the Buffs. 1968—The defenses forced 17 punts and seven turnovers, but California was able to snap a scoreless tie at halftime and defeat the Buffaloes in Berkeley, 10-0. Bobby Anderson threw a school record 40 passes, completing 17 for 166 yards, but the Bears picked off three, and Monte Huber's nine receptions also set a school mark. 1974—Billy Waddy rushed for 151 yards and the go-ahead touchdown with 13:55 remaining to rally the Buffs from 21-10 down to defeat Wisconsin in Boulder, 24-21. Rod Perry's 28-yard punt return to the Badger 37 set up the winning drive. 1985—Mark Hatcher scored on a 2-yard run and Larry Eckel added what proved to be the winning point as Colorado held off an Arizona rally and defeated the Wildcats in Tucson, 14-13. It was a key win in CU's turnaround season (the Buffs were the NCAA's Most Improved Team), as it enabled the Buffs to open 3-1 en route to a 7-4 regular season record and the school's first bowl appearance since the '76 campaign. 1991—Stanford deals the Buffs a 28-21 setback, avenging CU's win in the final seconds the year before. Tommy Vardell ran for 114 yards and three touchdowns while the Cardinal defense held the Buffs to 270 total yards. 1996—In the first Big 12 Conference games for both teams, Colorado scored in the first minute en route to a 24-10 win at Texas A&M. FS Ryan Sutter forced a fumble on the opening kickoff and Brandon Southward recovered at the A&M 28; on CU's first offensive play, Rae Carruth ran it in on a reverse and CU was ahead 7-0 just 13 seconds into the game and never looked back (it was and remains the quickest score from scrimmage in a game in CU history). Koy Detmer threw two touchdown passes (50 yards to Herchell Troutman and nine yards to Darrin Chiaverini); A&M threw 64 passes, completing 34, 18 to Albert Connell to set a record for the most catches by a CU opponent. Colorado had a record 18 passes broken up, five by Steve Rosga and four each from Dalton Simmons and Marcus Washington.

SEPTEMBER 28 COLORADO MVP: Bob Stransky, 1957: he rushed for 162 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries, and completed 3-of-4 passes for 47 more and a TD.

LONG DROUGHTS

It has been 25 years since Colorado and Oregon State have lined up against each other on the gridiron; however, there are 15 other schools CU has played before that have longer stretches where the two haven't played. A look at these 15, with the last season the teams met in parenthesis (*—denotes met just once and that was in a bowl game):

*Rice (1937)	*Tulane (1970)	*Auburn (1972)	New Mexico (1977)	Louisiana State (1980)
Tulsa (1969)	*Houston (1971)	Air Force (1974)	Army (1977)	Indiana (1980)

BATTLE OF THE NATION'S TOP TWO RECEIVERS

Colorado junior Paul Richardson and Oregon State junior Brandin Cooks rank 1-2 in the nation (and thus the conference) in receiving: Richardson is first in yards per game (208.5) with Cooks second (159.8); Cooks has the edge in receptions per game (10.75-to-10.5). Cooks leads the nation in receiving TDs with seven, while Richardson is tied for ninth. Richardson has two consecutive 200-yard games to open 2013; a third one would tie the NCAA record held by two others. Here's a comparative look at the two players who are serious contenders for the Biletnikoff Award (presented to the nation's top receiver):

RICHARDSON'S ROOST

WR Paul Richardson, a legitimate Biletnikoff Award candidate (possible among others), is enjoying a major breakout season, not that he wasn't heard of prior to this year. But he's taken the world by storm to date:

- He has become the first player in Pac-12 Conference history to have back-to-back 200-yard receiving games (208 vs. Colorado State, 209 vs. Central Arkansas); only two players in NCAA history have had three straight 200-plus games (Howard Twilley, Tulsa, 1965; Trevor Insley, Nevada, 1999; Insley holds the NCAA single-season record with an amazing six that year).
- His 21 receptions in back-to-back games to open the 2013 season are a CU two-game record, snapping the old mark of 19.
- He now has three career 200-yard games, a CU record, and in fact has three of the school's five.
- He now has nine plays of 50-yards or longer in his career, all receptions:

- Richardson has played just 23 games in a CU uniform, he already has 15 touchdown receptions, including four games with two TD catches; the latter already ranks as the third-most games with two, trailing only Rae Carruth and Derek McCoy, who had five two-TD games; Carruth and Richard Johnson are the only players with three in a game, each doing so once. As for the 11 touchdowns overall, he's already tied for the ninth-most in Buff annals.

His 15 career touchdowns have covered 613 yards, or 40.8 per (2010: 3, 60, 62, 4, 3, 50; 2011: 15, 21, 66, 78, 9; 2012: 82, 75, 55, 30)

JUNIOR SEASON, TAKE 1 / 2012

- He missed the entire 2012 season after tearing his ACL the Monday before the spring game (April 9), and underwent surgery that ended his year on April 16. He had a good rehab and was able to practice some by the end of the year. He returned at full-speed for spring drills, and looked like his old self if not better: he caught eight passes for 294 yards and three touchdowns (36.8 yards per catch) in the four main spring scrimmages.

SOPHOMORE SEASON / 2011

- Against California, he tied the school record (again) for most receptions in a game with 11, with his 284 yards shattering the old mark of 222, first set almost 30 years earlier to the day by WR Walter Stanley and then matched 15 years later by WR Rae Carruth.
- He was rapidly climbing the charts in receiving (receptions, yards, touchdowns; see charts later in these notes) until sidelined by a severe knee sprain he suffered in practice on Oct. 5; he missed four games and returned for USC game, but obviously was a little rusty and not totally 100 percent the remainder of the season. He set several records, including the most yards in game, and had six career plays over 50 yards in his first two seasons, five for touchdowns (62t, 60t, 55, 50t in 2010; 78t, 66t in 2011).

RICHARDSON CONTINUEDFRESHMAN SEASON / 2010

- He officially was the last member of the 2010 recruiting class when he joined the team just two days ahead of fall camp.
- Against Hawai'i, he scored the first two-point conversion scored by a CU freshman since Sept. 30, 2000, when QB Craig Ochs ran one in against Kansas State; those are the only 2-point conversions scored by freshmen (true or redshirt) in CU history.
- Against Texas Tech, when he caught four passes for 79 yards (career highs), he became the first true freshman in CU history to have two touchdown receptions in the same game, and just the third frosh (true/redshirt) to do it, joining WR Michael Westbrook (1991 vs. Missouri) and TE Brody Heffner (1996 vs. Iowa State).
- Against Kansas, he set school records for most catches (11) and yards (141) by a freshman, true or redshirt, in CU history, and tied the mark he set with two TDs in a single game against Texas Tech. The 11 receptions also tied the school's overall mark for catches in a game previously done by five different players (a total of five times).
- He had six TD receptions on the season, a school record for the most receiving touchdowns by a true or redshirt freshman (Donnie Holmes had the old true frosh mark of three in 1979, Westbrook the redshirt mark of five in '91).
- His 514 receiving yards were the most by a freshman (true or redshirt) and he was the first freshman to have two 100-yard receiving games.

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several returning Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts through two games in 2013 (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career numbers for players past and present will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ TB TONY JONES is 70th in rushing yards (702) and 38th in receptions (57).
- ⇒ WR TYLER McCULLOCH is 51st in receptions (51) and is 54th in receiving yards (594).
- ⇒ FS MARQUES MOSLEY is 20th in kickoff return yards (568).
- ⇒ P DARRAGH O'NEILL is seventh in punting average (43.10) and fourth in punts inside-the-20 (50).
- ⇒ PK WILL OLIVER is 29th in scoring and ninth in kick scoring (131 points), and is tied for sixth in field goals made (22).
- ⇒ TB CHRISTIAN POWELL is 58th in rushing yards (755).
- ⇒ WR PAUL RICHARDSON is 20th in receptions (94), 10th in receiving yards (1,486), is tied for sixth in TD receptions (15) and is 50th in scoring (92 points).
- ⇒ SS TERREL SMITH is 97th in tackles (166) and 14th in special team tackles (24).
- ⇒ WR NELSON SPRUCE is tied for 33rd in receptions (60) and is 54th in receiving yards (669).
- ⇒ DE CHIDERA UZO-DIRIBE is 12th in quarterback sacks (16).
- ⇒ ILB DERRICK WEBB is 86th in defensive tackles (178), tied for sixth in special team tackles (31) and fourth in special team points (75).
- ⇒ QB JORDAN WEBB is 23rd in passing yards (1,434).

UNHERALDED

SN Ryan Iverson largely goes unnoticed, but do know that the coaching staff knows his value. He forced one fair catch against Colorado State, giving him 19 in his career; he also has 12 tackles, one shy of the mark (13) by a long snapper, set by Chris O'Donnell (1987-90). He has handled all 230 punt team snaps dating back to his freshman year, and has snapped all 98 balls for placement kicks the last two years; Of those 328 combined snaps, there was only one bad snap in the bunch. He joined the team as an invited walk-on for August drills in 2010, and would become just the sixth walk-on to play as a true freshman since 1986 at Colorado.

INJURY UPDATE

Here's a look at Colorado's injury report as of Monday, September 23 (CU has produced an injury report weekly dating back to 1984, with few exceptions):

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Oregon State
TB	Josh Ford	ankle	suffered a high ankle sprain (Aug. 11), underwent surgery (Aug. 19) to aide healing process	OUT/2-3 WEEKS
FB	Clay Jones	neck	suffered a neck sprain against Central Arkansas (Sept. 7)	OUT/3-5 WEEKS
OL	Jeromy Irwin	foot	suffered a broken bone in his foot doing yard work at a friend's house (July 30)	OUT/2-3 WEEKS
QB	Jordan Webb	knee	suffered a torn ACL in practice (Apr. 9); underwent surgery (Apr. 18), return this season possible	OUT/2-3 WEEKS

Out for the season:

DB	Josh Moten	Achilles	suffered initially in late May, was rehabbing and recently reinjured it a second time (late July)	OUT/SEASON
PK	Justin Castor	hip	suffered an avulsion (severe flexor strain on Aug. 21) and may require surgery	OUT/SEASON
S	Terrel Smith	shoulder	underwent surgery on Sept. 5 to mend a chronic injury and will redshirt	OUT/SEASON
QB	Tommy Papillion	knee	suffered a torn ACL in the spring game (Apr. 13); he has elected to be a student coach	OUT/SEASON

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status is listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame and the Monday after the game.

SIXTH ANNUAL COACH TO CURE MD EFFORT THIS SATURDAY

The Colorado and Oregon State coaching staffs will be wearing Coach to Cure MD patches this week to raise awareness and funding for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy research. Fans are encouraged to donate online at www.CoachtoCureMD.org or donate $5 by texting CURE to 90999.

- ◆ This is the sixth year of the Coach to Cure MD program, which has now surpassed the million dollar mark for donations.
- ◆ The goal is to raise money and awareness of Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, which is the most common fatal genetic disorder among boys worldwide.
- ◆ Fans can text the word CURE to 90999 to donate $5 to Duchenne MD research. The charge will be shown on their phone bill.
- ◆ Fans are also encouraged to make donations on www.CoachtoCureMD.org
- ◆ The program is a partnership between Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy and the American Football Coaches Association

UNDERCLASSMEN IN 2013 ON OPENING DEPTH CHARTS

CU tied for 15th in the nation for the most underclassmen (freshmen, redshirt frosh and sophomores) on the 2013 opening day two-deeps with 27 players; that was the most in the Pac-12 Conference, one ahead of Arizona (26). A closer look:

WOOD CRACKS RECORD BOOK AS WELL

QB Connor Wood also has etched his name into the CU record book after just two games: he set a school record for passer rating with 40 or more attempts in game with a 166.3 number versus Colorado State (33-of-46, 400 yards, 3 TD; Alabama's A.J. McCarron had a 165.3 rating versus the Rams but threw 20 fewer passes). He also tied Koy Detmer for the most 300-yard passing games back-to-back in school annals with two and has thrown for the third most passing yards in two consecutive games. A look at the latter:

Most Passing Yards, Back-to-Back Games (CU History)

- 858—Koy Detmer, 1996 (457 at Missouri, 401 vs. Iowa State)
- 756—Mike Moschetti, 1999 (291 vs. Colorado State, 465 vs. San Jose State)
- 741—Connor Wood, 2013 (400 vs. Colorado State, 341 vs. Central Arkansas)
- 709—Joel Klatt, 2003 (465 vs. Kansas, 290 at Kansas State)
- 681—Koy Detmer, 1995 (255 vs. Colorado State, 426 vs. NE Louisiana)

2012: FEWEST SENIORS SINCE 1995; 2013: TIED FOR THE SEVENTH FEWEST SINCE '82

In 2011, Colorado had its most seniors (28) since there were 30 on the roster in 1987; last fall, only eight players will be suiting up for the final time as Buffaloes—the fewest since seven did so in the 1995 season. It was the second smallest CU senior class since 1962 (the last 50 years), as only that 1995 team had fewer with seven (a rarity occurred that year: all seven CU seniors were invited to the Hula Bowl, likely the only time in college football history 100 percent of a school's senior class was in the same postseason all-star game). In 2013, the count after injuries that have sidelined three seniors for the season stands at 13, which ties for the seventh fewest dating back to 1982. The counts:

1982—13	1986—9	1989—14	1992—11	1995—7	1998—13	2001—26	2004—11	2007—17	2010—16
1983—25	1987—30	1990—24	1993—19	1996—18	1999—22	2002—23	2005—20	2008—17	2011—28
1984—22	1988—10	1991—13	1994—13	1997—22	2000—9	2003—21	2006—26	2009—16	2012—8
1985—16									2013—13

★ In the program's most recent heyday, 1989-96, when CU sported the fourth best record in college football (78-15-4), the average number of seniors per team was 14.9. The 1989 team that went 11-0 boasted just 14 seniors, and that 1995 team, minus 10 NFL draft selections in the first 71 picks, went 10-2 with just the seven seniors.

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the latest world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing. The Big 10 placed 10 schools in the top 100 (Wisconsin has the highest rank – No. 19); the ACC placed four (Duke was its highest at No. 31); the SEC two (Vanderbilt at No. 49, Florida at No. 71) and the Big 12 one (Texas, No. 36).

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2013

- 3 The number of interceptions Colorado had against Central Arkansas, matching the number the Buffaloes had in all of 2012.
- 4 The number of first-time starters in 2012 for Colorado (2 offense/2 defense).
- 14 The number of “three-and-outs” by the opponent this season (opponent had 29 in all of 2012).
- 20 The number days between game two (Central Arkansas) and game four (at Oregon State, the longest in-season idle period since 1963)
- 23-24 Colorado was 3-of-3 in the red zone against CSU, thus is now 23-of-24 (14 TDs) when cracking the 20 in the last eight season openers; the first 19 of those were in a row until CSU stopped the Buffs on a 4th-&-goal from the 1 in 2012.
- 26 The number of Colorado games played in less than three hours since 1990 (out of 281 games; includes four in 2011 but none since).
- 38 The number of consecutive PAT kicks PK Will Oliver has made (dating back to 2011).
- 30.3 The opponents' combined percentage on third down inside-the-CU 20 (30-of-99) in the last 43 games (dating to 2008).
- 35.7 The third down efficiency of opponents against Colorado in the state's borders since the '09 opener (136-of-381).
- 40.9 The average length (yards) of WR Paul Richardson's 15 career touchdown receptions (613 total yards: 3, 60, 62, 4, 3, 50, 9, 78, 66, 21, 15, 82, 75, 55, 30).
- 49.8 The average length of QB Connor Wood's six touchdown passes (covering 299 total yards).
- 52:57 The amount of time CU led in its 41-27 win over Colorado State (the Rams led for just 4:44).
- 53 The number of games CU has had at least one sack in out of the last 59; it include runs of 25, 11 and 9 in a row).
- 60.5 The average length (yards) of WR Paul Richardson's 4 touchdown receptions in 2013 (242 total yards: 82, 75, 55, 30).
- 93 The number of coaching wins at Colorado by Bill McCartney (93-55-5), who will become CU's seventh inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame this December 10.
- 267 The number of passes by the opponent between CU interceptions (a 10-game span that started at Washington State on Sept. 22, 2012 and ended with Greg Henderson's 46-yard return for a touchdown against Central Arkansas on Sept. 7, 2013).
- 509 Colorado's total offense in the season opener (400 pass/109 rush), its most to open a season since it had 532 against CSU in 2000 and the seventh most ever by the Buffs in a season opener.

INTERCEPTIONS IN BUNCHES AFTER A LOOOOOOONG DROUGHT

Talk about when it rains, it pours: the Buffaloes intercepted just three passes in all of 2012 (after just making seven in 2011), and had a span of 267 passes by the opponent without picking one off until the second quarter of the Central Arkansas game. CB Greg Henderson jumped a route and raced 46 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter; early in the fourth quarter, FS Jered Bell did the same, except his covered 79 yards for a score that tied the game at 24; late in the quarter, CB Kenneth Crawley picked one off on fourth down in the end zone, ending any chance of a late UCA rally. It was the first time the Buffs returned two interceptions for scores since the last day of the last century: Dec. 31, 1999 when ILB Jashon Sykes and SS Rashidi Barnes did it against Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl.

FAVORITE AUGUST QUOTES

QB Connor Wood on having WR Paul Richardson back from knee surgery: “It’s like Christmas in August.” When asked the same after CU’s 41-27 season opening win over Colorado State, he replied ... “Christmas in September.”

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Iowa is 25th with 297, Pittsburgh is 27th with 292), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the new College Football Playoff come 2014 will include the top four teams; only USC, with 11, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 16TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 16th most in the nation in this time frame (24 seasons). Florida State has the most (73), with Florida right behind (72); next are Ohio State (67), Michigan (63), Alabama (60), LSU (57), Miami, Fla. (57), Southern Cal (55), Tennessee (52), Oklahoma (51), Texas (48), Notre Dame (46), Georgia (46), Penn State (45), Nebraska (44), Oregon (44), Colorado (43) and Auburn (43). As for the Pac-12, after USC and CU, the next schools on the list are UCLA (42) and Washington (42). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the sixth most ranked teams in the nation (114, with a record of 43-69-2), trailing only Florida (130), LSU (121), Michigan (118), Ohio State (117) and Florida State (116). (AP polls used for these figures as the coaches' poll omits teams on probation but the AP does not.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost 11 straight against ranked teams (last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009); the Buffs have lost 20 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

CU'S 133 WINS OVER BCS TEAMS RANKS 21ST

Looking inside the above numbers, Colorado's 133 wins over BCS teams rank as the 21st most nationally over the last 24-plus seasons (or since the start of the 1989 season). A closer look through games of September 21:

HEAD COACH MIKE MACINTYRE

Mike MacIntyre is in his first season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, his second as a head coach on any level of football. He has a 2-0 record at Colorado and is 18-21 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. A veteran coach of 22 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 48, has coached in a total of 295 football games in his career (39 as a head coach): 136 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ◆ He is just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and became just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins.
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received my Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:

Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;

Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;

Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;

Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game. MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On Playing Music At Practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ◆ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.
- ◆ MacIntyre has voted in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll (did so in 2012), but coaches are now selected by a random draw and he was not drawn for 2013. CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, thus CU has had a vote for the 24 of the last 27 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million.

POINT DIFFERENTIAL AT COLORADO

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MACINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

THE CLASS OF '13

For the 2013 season, 31 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 14 of whom were first-time head coaches on the collegiate level. Here's a look at what coaches make up the "class of 2013" and their records through games of September 21:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are special teams coordinator Toby Neinas, offensive line coach Gary Bernardi, safeties coach Charles Clark, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat and receivers coach Troy Walters. Defensive coordinator Kent Baer, offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, running backs/tight ends coach Klayton Adams and cornerbacks coach Andy LaRussa are in the press box. Also upstairs will be the quality control coaches, Omar Young and Joe Bleymaier, and signaling in plays when not brought in by substituting players are graduate assistants T.C. McCartney (offense) and Nate Tave (defense).

A FIRST SINCE 1979

Colorado has had six head coach changes dating back to when Bill McCartney was named head coach in 1982. He retained Buck Nystrom as offensive line coach (and kept Mike McNeely as an assistant linebacker coach, though he had worked in administration and recruiting). In the next four coaching changes, all kept at least one assistant on staff: Rick Neuheisel (Brian Cabral, Jon Embree, Ben Gregory, Chuck Heater, Terry Lewis), Gary Barnett (Cabral, Embree, Tom Cable), Dan Hawkins (Cabral, Darian Hagan), and Jon Embree (Cabral). Mike MacIntyre interviewed several of the assistants, but in the end brought in all new full-time assistant coaches. The last time that occurred was in 1979, when Chuck Fairbanks took over for Bill Mallory.

- Of the 31 schools that hired new head coaches for the 2013 season, 11 completely turned over the entire coaching staff: Auburn, California, Cincinnati, Colorado, Florida International, Georgia State, Kentucky, Purdue, South Florida, Tennessee and Western Kentucky. Six others retained one coach (Arkansas, Boston College, Idaho, North Carolina State, Southern Miss, Western Michigan), while the other 14 kept two more former assistants on staff.

INAUGURATIONS

Mike MacIntyre was named the 25th head coach in Colorado history last December 10, the 15th dating back to 1935; he became just the second coach in that group to win his CU opener in the last 81 years with the 41-27 win over Colorado State. The only other coach to do so since Herbert Hoover was U.S. President was Rick Neuheisel, who saw his team defeat Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7, in 1995. Both teams have scored 10 or more points in a new CU chief's debut only nine times, all since 1959. Overall, Colorado coaches are 10-14-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look (number in parenthesis indicates how many games that coach won in a row to begin career):

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

With former CU head coach Bill McCartney (1982-94) set to host his own radio show on Fridays (debuts Aug. 31, 4-6 p.m., 102.3 FM in Denver), the last four CU head coaches all have media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) is a studio host on the Pac-12 Network; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) is an analyst on Sports USA Radio with some other independent appearances; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute.

JEFFCOAT'S PEDIGREE: RUSHING AND GETTING TO THE QB

Defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

CU'S BAER IN THE ORIENT

Kent Baer, CU's new defensive coordinator in 2013, used his involvement with the military in the 1970s to create an all-star game in 1989 in Japan that has lasted 25 years; it draws 20-30,000 fans annually. Baer served as the director of athletics and recreation for the commander of United States Naval Forces in Japan along with serving as the head coach for the Yokosuka Seahawks from 1973-1976 (a member of a service league featuring military bases). With this background, Baer created the Heisei Bowl (now the New Era Bowl) as the annual all-star game played annually on the first Saturday of July. Baer coordinates the selection of two American coaches and a dozen U.S. players who are integrated to practice and then play with two Japanese All-Star teams.

In the late 1980s, Baer was brainstorming ways to improve Japanese coaching techniques when he hit on the idea of this cultural exchange. Coaches from all the Pac-10 (now Pac-12) staffs have joined Baer along with individuals from Michigan, Notre Dame and Army. Japanese interest in football has been whetted by various U.S. excursions to the Far East. The old Mirage Bowl in the 1980s featured two Pac-10 teams playing their last game of the regular season in Tokyo. After that, there was the Coca Cola Bowl, also part of the regular schedule. From 1976 to 1993, there was the Japan Bowl, a postseason all-star game of U.S. players. Before joining the Colorado staff this past winter, Baer continued to be involved with the armed services as he coached San Jose State to a 29-20 win over Bowling Green in the Military Bowl.

TWO NEW TRADITIONS BEGUN IN 2013

New Colorado head coach Mike MacIntyre has installed a couple of new traditions that began in earnest prior to the Central Arkansas game: when the team takes the field, one player will carry a toolbox and another a sledgehammer (the players will vote on who gets the nod). MacIntyre did this at San Jose State with a sword (because they were the Spartans) and the sledgehammer. The toolbox is representative of the commitment the players have made to each other and the team as a whole; now, there aren't actual tools in the box, rather it contains "commitment cards" where each player wrote down something of significance he will do in the game. So when they view the toolbox during the game, it will serve as a reminder of that commitment. The sledgehammer will go to the big hit of the previous game (the biggest or most important "legal" hit – the play cannot draw a penalty). The winners:

Opponent	Toolbox	Sledgehammer
Colorado State	(none—awards inaugurated on display)
Central Arkansas	OT Stephane Nembot	S Parker Orms
Oregon State	TBD	OG Daniel Munyer

BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Brad Bedell ('99), OL, Arkansas State; Cedric Cormier ('01), WR, UNLV; Rich Fisher ('92), WR, Nebraska; Chris Naeole ('96), Offensive Assistant, Hawaii; Rod Perry ('75), DB, Oregon State; Steve Stripling ('76), Assoc. HC/DL, Tennessee. IN THE FCS: Brian Cabral, AHC/DC ('78), Indiana State; Ty Gregorak ('99), DC/LB, Montana; Anthony Perkins ('11), DB, Indiana State. AND DOWN I-25 AT CSU-PUEBLO: Paul Creighton ('03), DL; Bernard Jackson ('06), WR; Donnell Leomiti ('95), DB; Chris Symington ('87), OL.

GEORGE NAMED CU ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Rick George was introduced as just the sixth full-time athletic director in University of Colorado history on July 17, 2013, returning to Boulder where he helped play a role in the school's first and only national championship in football some 23 years earlier.

George, 53, came to Colorado from the Texas Rangers baseball club of the American League, where he was named chief operating officer on October 5, 2010 with a promotion to president of business operations this past February. He agreed to a 5-year contract at CU, and officially started on August 12.

He replaced Mike Bohn, who served as athletic director for just over eight years (2005-13). Harry Carlson (1927-65), Eddie Crowder (1965-84), Bill Marolt (1984-96) and Dick Tharp (1996-2004) all served in full-time roles, with Jack Lengyel (six months between Tharp and Bohn) and Ceal Barry (two months between Bohn and George) serving in interim capacities. George is thus only the sixth full-time person to hold the position in 87 years.

George brings the most diverse background to the position than any before him at Colorado: all five others had extensive and primarily exclusive college athletic histories, the only exceptions being when Marolt left CU after 10 years as ski coach to lead the U.S. Olympic ski team before returning, and Tharp, who was a university attorney with strong CU-Boulder campus ties. While George began and worked in the college athletic world for the first half of his professional career, he stepped outside that box for the second half.

George was with the Rangers for less than three years, but saw the team win two American League championships and compile a 243-176 record (.580 winning percentage) during his time there, the second-best in the major leagues during that time frame. As the COO, he worked closely with team president and CEO, baseball Hall-of-Famer Nolan Ryan, and was responsible for all facets of the Rangers' business operations, including oversight of all sales and marketing efforts, broadcast and communications, ticket and suite sales, naming rights, etc., in addition to overseeing the finance, human resource and operations departments.

Among his many accomplishments with the Rangers was a comprehensive branding study that successfully rebranded the ball club, and an implementation of a new ticketing strategy that over the course of three seasons increased ticket revenues by over $30 million. The club's attendance saw an increase of 40 percent from the 2010 season to nearly 3.5 million in 2012, second in the American League (behind the New York Yankees) and third in the majors. The 2013 numbers were on pace to exceed the 3 million mark again when he left the franchise for CU.

Prior to joining the Rangers, George served as executive vice president and chief of operations for the PGA TOUR for two-and-a-half years (beginning in June 2008). While with the TOUR, he worked with the corporate marketing department in renewing sponsorships and creating new events. He also oversaw the Tournament Business Affairs division that worked with Tournaments to increase tournament revenue.

He also worked for the PGA TOUR as president of the Champions Tour from 2003-08, and as the executive vice president for championship management his last three years there. His major accomplishments included increasing revenues and sponsorships and the development of strategic plans, the latter including a vision and mission statement as well as core values. The Champions Tour had grown to a minimum 29 events with over $55 million in prize money when he left for the PGA TOUR.

From 1998-2003, George served as President and CEO of the Fore!Kids Foundation, a 501c3 organization that raised money for children's charities via golf-related events, where he led rebranding and organizational efforts that resulted in increases in charitable giving to the Foundation.

At the collegiate level, George worked in three major conferences (Big Ten, Big 8, Southeastern) in football operations, beginning with his alma mater, the University of Illinois, as football recruiting coordinator (1983-87).

He graduated from Illinois in 1982 with a degree in sports communications and information. He was a four-year letterman at cornerback for the Illini, playing in 44 straight games and starting in 27 games in all, as he played two years each under coaches Gary Moeller and Mike White. He was a two-time recipient of the school's Bruce Capel Award, given for dedication and courage to honor Capel who lost his life serving his country in Vietnam; George received the honor for his junior and senior seasons.

Upon his graduation, White named him the assistant director for player personnel for the Illini, and a year later (1983), he assumed the all sports recruiting coordinator. In March 1984, George took over the recruiting chores solely for football, with his first class ranked No. 1 in the nation by the recruiting services with all in the top 20; he coordinated five classes in all at Illinois when the call came to take him out west to Colorado.

On March 2, 1987, Bill McCartney hired him as Colorado's football recruiting coordinator. Two-and-a-half years later (Dec. 21, 1989), George was promoted to assistant athletic director for football operations, not coincidentally after the Buffaloes finished the regular season with an 11-0 record and the school's first-ever No. 1 national ranking in the polls. CU lost to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl and would finish No. 4, but came back to go 11-1-1 in 1990, this time defeating the Irish in the Orange Bowl to earn consensus national champion honors.

Shortly thereafter, he left the Buffaloes for Vanderbilt University, where he was reunited with former CU offensive coordinator Gerry DiNardo, who was named the Commodores' head coach a year earlier. In eight years at Vanderbilt (1991-98), he also served as associate athletic director for external operations in conjunction with overseeing the football program. This was where George first expanded his professional role outside of solely football, as he had oversight over all external departments, particularly in the area of managing budgets and developing marketing and promotional strategies for all sports.

George was born April 3, 1960 in Woodstock, Ill., and graduated from Collinsville (Ill.) High School, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Nancy Green, and the couple has two grown daughters, Jenni Reed (husband Tom) and Christi, and one granddaughter (Harper).

TRENDS1985-2013

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 195-144-4; in these 343 games spanning the last 28-plus seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

◆ with 400-plus yards total offense	112-25-2	◆ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	91-20-1
◆ with 500-plus yards total offense	55- 6-0	◆ when leading at halftime	155-26-2
◆ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	76-10-1	◆ when leading after three quarters (154-17-3 in last 174)	159-21-3
◆ when punting three or fewer times	68-22-1	◆ when scoring 24 or more points	160-31-2
◆ with zero turnovers (142-52-2 with two or fewer)	36-16-2	◆ when held to 13 points or less	3-53-0
◆ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	112-19-1	◆ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	14- 1-0
◆ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	102-14-1	◆ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	109-27-2

TRENDS II1989-2013

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings for the next 16 seasons, Colorado has posted an overall record at 168-125-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (297 games over the last 24-plus seasons, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	95-51-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	83- 6-1
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (50-6 with 500-plus)	98-25-2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	56- 2-1

➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	136-40-2

TRENDS IIIMACINTYRE ERA (2013)

Mike MacIntyre took over the Buffalo program this season, so the trend watch is wide open, but here's a start in his one game as head coach (2-0 record):

Category

➤ when scoring 20 or more points (0-0 when not)	2- 0
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	2- 0
➤ when scoring 40 or more points	1- 0
➤ when scoring 50 or more points	0- 0
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	0- 0
➤ in games decided by 7 points or less	0- 0
➤ with two or fewer turnovers (1-0 with zero)	1- 0
➤ when turnover margin was plus or even	2- 0
➤ when scoring first (0-0 when not)	2- 0
➤ when leading at halftime	1- 0
➤ when trailing at halftime (1-0 when tied)	0- 0

Category

➤ when leading after three (1-0 trailing, 1-0 tied)	0- 0
➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	2- 0
➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards offense	1- 0
➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	0- 0
➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards (0-0 300-plus)	0- 0
➤ when rushing for more yards than passing	0- 0
➤ with a 100-yard rusher	0- 0
➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	0- 0
➤ when passing for 200-plus yards	2- 0
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense	2- 0
➤ with 500-plus yards total offense (0-0 with 600-plus)	1- 0

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 24-plus seasons. A closer look:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
167 WINS	277	416	+ 139	1,368	586	+782
MacINTYRE ERA (2 WINS)	4	6	+ 2	28	21	+ 7
125 LOSSES (& 4 TIES)	310	200	- 110	467	1047	-580
25-SEASON TOTALS (296 Games)	587	616	+ 29	1,834	1,633	+202
MacINTYRE ERA (2 GAMES)	4	6	+ 2	28	21	+ 7

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is 21-16 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior; CU has won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (2010); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009). CU lost to UCLA after its first Pac-12 league schedule bye this year.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 528 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Now one streak remains:

- CU has scored in 145 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 291 games (all the way back to 1963).

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 142 times in 232 tries, including 25 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the "two-minute offense" drill since 1988; that's 61 percent of the time. That includes 1-of-1 this year (field goal vs. Colorado State) and 3-of-7 in 2012 (the highlight being the winning TD drive at Washington State). CU was 3-of-8 in 2011: field goals versus Cal (end of regulation) and Washington State (first half); and a first half TD vs. CSU and were 2-of-9 in the drill in 2010 (scoring first half TDs at Kansas and versus Kansas State). 2009 was a good year for the drill (9-of-14) which included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 37-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 223 of 249 times, losing 23 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 28 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were three in 2012 to Utah (leading 28-20 after three), Sacramento State (led 28-24 entering the quarter and lost on a field goal at the gun) and to CSU (led 17-16 with 13:27 remaining); and two in 2011 to Washington State (led 27-17 early in the fourth) and California (led 27-23 early in fourth). The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 107 of its last 125 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 37 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent are the first two games of the '13 season (CSU led briefly 26-24 late in the third quarter and into the fourth; UCA led 24-17, also early in the fourth); the two previous to those came by the same score: this year at Washington State (won 35-34 after trailing 31-14 with 8:07 left) and in 2009 against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining). Two big ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below are the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2013 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on the 2013 opening roster collectively have played in 896 games, with 268 starts. The 2012 team was easily CU's youngest/most inexperienced team in quite some time with just 674 games played/223 started; other recent years: 890/303 (2011), 877/313 (2010), 847/236 (2009), 817/277 (2008), 853/251 (2007), 1,053/295 (2006) and 1,080/314 (2005). STARTING STREAKS

Through two games in 2013, OG Daniel Munyer has made the most consecutive starts on the team with 14; no one else is really close, as WR Nelson Spruce is next with 11, followed by OT Jack Harris (7), DE Chidera Uzo-Diribe (7) and OT Stephane Nembot (6).

TWENTY-ONE MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2012, JUST FOUR THROUGH TWO GAMES IN 2013

In 2012, a total of 21 players made their first career starts in a Colorado uniform: NT Nate Bonsu, CB Kenneth Crawley, DE Kirk Poston, WR Gerald Thomas, QB Jordan Webb (though he had 19 starts with Kansas) and FB Alex Wood (Colorado State); DB Marques Mosley (at nickel), FB Christian Powell (at TB), DT Josh Topou and CB Yuri Wright (Sacramento State); C Brad Cotner, TE Vincent Hobbs and WR Nelson Spruce (Fresno State); OT Stephane Nembot (Washington State); DL Samson Kafovalu (Arizona State); TB Donta Abron (Oregon); ILB Brady Daigh, DT Justin Solis (at Stanford); and DT Tyler Henington, QB Connor Wood (Washington). Crawley joined Greg Henderson ('11) as the only true freshmen to start at cornerback in a season opener since Victor Scott in 1980. In 2013, OG Kaiwi Crabb, ILB Addison Gillam and OLB Woodson Greer started the opener against Colorado State; FB Jordan Murphy made his first start versus Central Arkansas. Gillam became just the 10th true freshman in CU history to have started from scrimmage in the opening game of the season; here are those who were thrown into the fray from play one from scrimmage: TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming); ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State); CB Greg Henderson, 2011 (vs. Hawai'i); CB Kenneth Crawley and WR Gerald Thomas, 2012 (vs. Colorado State); and ILB Addison Gillam, 2013 (vs. Colorado State); add an 11th for the first play of the game/season on special teams (kickoff coverage team): PK Kevin Eberhart (2003, kicked off vs. Colorado State in Denver).

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11), 2006 (24), 2007 (18), 2008 (15), 2009 (18), 2010 (21), 2011 (21), 2012 (21).

11 HAVE SEEN FIRST CU ACTION IN 2013

A total of 13 players have tasted their first action in a CU uniform this season, including 11 against CSU in the opener; a few more are likely to do so in the coming weeks. Here's the breakdown by class of those players who have seen their first CU action in 2013 (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (7): CB Chidobe Awuzie, DE Jimmie Gilbert, ILB Addison Gillam, ILB *Kenneth Olugbode, WR Devin Ross, ILB *Ryan Severson, S *Tedric Thompson.

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (3): TE Sean Irwin, OG *Alex Kelley, DL De'Jon Wilson.

SOPHOMORES (1): FB Jordan Murphy.

JUNIORS (1): WR Wesley Christensen.

SENIORS (1): WR Alex Turbow.

Recent counts seeing their first action at Colorado: 26 (2012), 33 (2011), 26 (2010), 22 (2009), 30 (2008), 28 (2007), 19 (2006), 16 (2005), 24 (2004 and 2003).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2012, the Buffaloes started its fewest seniors believed ever (17.8%) and a record number of freshmen (28.0%; 21.6% true frosh). A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

Season	G	SR	JR	SO	FR (RS-True)	UpperCl%	Fr-Pct.
1999	12	115	42	86	21 (20-1)	59.5	8.0

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 123rd season of competition having played 1,176 games with an all-time record of 677-463-36. CU currently stands 23rd on the all-time win list and is 33rd in all-time winning percentage (.591; those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 123, with only USC (787) and Washington (679) having won more games with USC, Washington and Arizona State the Pac-12 schools owning higher winning percentages than the Buffs. In Boulder, the Buffs are 298-156-10 in 88-plus seasons on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-5 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Colorado has won only 25 games over the last six-plus seasons, but in 10 of those games, the Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down, including CU's first win in 2012. Andrew Furney opened the fourth quarter with a 45-yard field goal to put Washington State ahead, 31-14. The teams traded scoreless possessions, and CU took over on its 8 with 8:07 left. The Buffs then marched for the first of three straight TD drives to close the game, with QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. Three occurred in 2010 and three back in 2007, with three in-between. Eight have taken place in Boulder, with the ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State with the Washington State comeback the first on the road; it turned into the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 33 occasions (and are 25-8 in games when this occurs). The last time it happened was at Washington State this year, when TB Tony Jones rushed for 105 yards and a touchdown with WR Nelson Spruce snaring eight passes for 103 yards and TD. Against Arizona in 2011, TB Rodney Stewart rushed for 181 yards and WR Toney Clemons had 115 receiving yards. It happened twice in 2010, both times with Stewart (175, 123) and WR Paul Richardson (141, 121) eclipsing 100 yards in back-to-back games against Kansas and Iowa State, and two times in 2009 (versus Texas A&M: Stewart 118 yards, WR Markques Simas 135; and against Nebraska: Stewart 110 yards, WR Scotty McKnight 114, Simas 108). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 158 of the 2012 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity is 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2012 was 272,235, an average of 45,373 for six home games, marking the 18th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 36th time in the last 38 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (CU's season ticket count in 2012 was 22,991 public and 32,382 overall when adding in student holders, as those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2012 Record	Jon Embree Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-51-2	8-19-1	0-2	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-87-3	14-33-2	0-3	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-113-3	20-47-2	0-5	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-148-3	43-69-2	0-7	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7). Now in the Pac-12, the Buffaloes are now among similar company when it comes to scheduling, as most Big 12 schools had a reputation for taking it easy in non-conference play (sans Oklahoma).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 92-72 in its last 164 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 79-33 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 72-38-1 in its last 111 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 535-259-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through games of September 7, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 462 CU games in his career, including the last 235 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (520) has called more games than Zim, who is fourth in years with the same school (40th) behind Robertson (47), Bill Hillgrove, Pitt (44) and Don Fischer, Indiana (41). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he has called 546 college games in all, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for Colorado State). Other dinosaur: SID Dave Plati has worked 397 overall including the last 355 (dating to the '83 finale). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is now in his 41st year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then the football group two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 11th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 13 healthy seniors on its roster in 2013, and if history is any kind of indication, they'll get plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League. Scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so in 2012. This year, nine teams already have had scouts witness the Buffs in person at games: Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Dallas, Denver, Miami, N.Y. Jets, N.Y. Giants and San Diego. Not including camps; 614 scouts have attended Colorado games (home/road/neutral) dating back to 2000.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 12 former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of Sept. 22; there were 14 on the rosters at the end of the 2012 season (15 at the end of 2011, 18 in 2010 and 22 in 2009). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; i—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured; club owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

CANUCKS: Three former Buffs continue to make livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his 10th year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, TB Hugh Charles is in his third with the Edmonton Eskimos (after three-plus with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders) and OG Edwin Harrison is in his fourth with the Calgary Stampeders.

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Three players are the sons of former National Football League players: SN Keegan LaMar (father Kevin spent time with Buffalo and San Francisco); DL Derek McCartney (father Shannon Clavelle, Green Bay); and ILB Clay Norgard (father Erik, 11 years with the Houston Oilers).

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Five former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the five who head prep programs: Matt Flavin (Buena Vista), Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Mike Marquez (Thornton), Bill Mondt (Eaton) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver); in addition, Bob Simmons, a member of Bill McCartney's staff from 1988-94, is the head coach at Boulder High and McCartney's second son, Tom McCartney, is the head coach at Boulder Fairview and was a one-time grad assistant for the Buffs ... when Simmons was also on the staff. And Mark Nolan, the head coach at Regis, was Dan Hawkins administrative assistant for two years.

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 27 of 35 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

A LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS HAVE RISEN TO FIRST-TEAM AT COLORADO

After the NCAA reduced the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (34 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

Player	Pos	First Season	Letters	Notes
Willie Beebe	FB	1978	4L	Solid blocker who scored nine career touchdowns as a bruiser near the goal line
Kyle Rappold	NT	1985	3L	Known as the "trash compactor" for his stature, the Fort Lewis transfer clogged the run
Jeff Campbell	WR/KR	1986	4L	Earned scholarship second day of freshman camp; played five years in the NFL
Ken Culbertson	PK	1986	3L	Scored 98 points in CU's 11-0 run in '89 season, making 59-59 PAT and 11-17 FG
David Gibbs	CB	1986	4L	Solid corner and special teams performer, now coaching with NFL Kansas City Chiefs
Mark Henry	WR	1987	3L	Big play guy with 18 career catches for 416 yards, or 23.1 per catch
Robbie James	WR	1987	1L	Threw TD pass on third down FG fake at Oklahoma State to lead CU to 16-12 win in 1991
Charles Johnson	QB	1987	2L	Often subbed for an injured Darian Hagan, earning Orange Bowl MVP honors in '91 vs. Notre Dame
Erik Norgard	C	1987	2L	Walked on in the spring after transferring from Western Washington; All-Big 8 as a senior
Chris O'Donnell	LB/SN	1987	4L	Solid as a rock at long snapper on special teams all four years
Keith Miller	FB	1992	2L	From tiny Ovid, Colo., he was a solid blocking back. Now an opera singer with the MET.
Ryan Black	SS	1993	4L	Led team in tackles as a junior in 1996 with 154 (78 solo)
Ryan Sutter	FS	1993	3L	CU's all-time special team points leader, led Buffs in tackles (170, 98 solo) in 1997
Neil Voskeritchian	PK	1993	2L	Won the starting placekicker job in 1994, finished career ninth in scoring at CU (161 points)
Nick Pietsch	P	1996	4L	Led CU in punting in 1997-98-99, finished with a career average of 39.9
Beau Williams	TE	1998	2L	Primarily a blocking tight end, played a big role on CU's 2001 Big 12 title team
D.J. Hackett	WR	2001	2L	Walked on after CS-Northridge dropped football; led CU in receiving in '03, four-year NFL veteran
Tom Hubbard	FS	2001	2L	Defensive MVP of the 2004 Houston Bowl with two interceptions
Evan Judge	WR	2001	4L	Caught 69 balls for 903 yards to finish in top 20 in receiving yards
John Torp	P	2001	3L	Finished second for the '05 Ray Guy Award; set a school records with 205 punts, 65 inside the 20
Paul Creighton	TE	2002	4L	Also saw action at FB, he primarily was a
Greg Pace	SN	2002	4L	Took over all special team snapping chores early as a freshman and handled through senior year
Joel Klatt	QB	2003	3L	Former infielder in Padres organization went on to set 44 CU passing and total offense records
Cody Crawford	WR	2004	3L	Has cracked the school's all-time lists in catches and yards
Jeff Smart	ILB	2005	4L	Earned a scholarship 3 games into the 2007 season, first LB to do so under Cabral; second most tackles by a WO
Scotty McKnight	WR	2006	4L	First freshman WR to ever lead CU in receiving (43-488, 4 TD), finished first in career receptions and third in yards
Aric Goodman	PK	2008	3L	In his first season, he was awarded a scholarship after making the game-winning FG versus West Virginia
Jason Espinoza	WR	2008	3L	Suffered two breaks to his collarbone in '08, playing briefly in-between; co-first team WR in '09
Dustin Ebner	WR	2009	3L	Primarily on special teams until his senior year, when he became a regular in the rotation and caught his first TD pass
Keenan Stevens	C	2009	2L	Pressed into duty in the season opener due to injury, he soon became a fixture and started 10 games
Travis Sandersfeld	DB (N)	2010	4L	One of the CU's top perennial special teams performers, he emerged as the starting nickel back for 5 games in 2010
David Goldberg	DE	2011	3L	Coaches cited how hard he worked daily in practice and assumed a starting spot midway through his senior year
Darragh O'Neill	P	2011	2L	Had more punts (74) than any other freshman at CU, with his 42.3 average second best by a frosh in the NCAA
Alex Wood	FB	2012	1L	Hybrid tight end/fullback worked exceptionally hard and became the first player from Steamboat to start in decades.
Scott Fernandez	TE	2010	2L	Ascended to the top of the depth chart his senior year ('13); first career catch was fifth longest (71 yards vs.UA).

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (80 percent of the entire roster—active and inactive—as of August 26: 92 of 115 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 47, Colorado 31, Texas 14, Hawai'i 4, New Jersey 3, Louisiana 2, New York 2, Arizona 1, Illinois 1, Michigan 1, Missouri 1, New Mexico 1, Pennsylvania 1, Tennessee 1, Washington 1. That's 16 states total along with the District of Columbia (3) and MEXICO that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Six Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: PK Diego Gonzalez (Monterrey, Mexico), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), OL Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries), DL Stephane Nembot (Douala, Cameroon), P Darragh O'Neill (Cork, Ireland) and CB Yuri Wright (Saint Vincent and the Grenadines in the Caribbean).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 303-17-1 when scoring 30 or more points (two such losses in 2012), along with records of 215-6 with 35-plus points and 198-4 with 36-plus, 175-3 with 38-plus and 112-1 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009) and Kansas (52-45 this year). CU has played 1,176 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 105-80-3 in its last 188 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 3-15 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 123 of its last 296 games, posting a 110-12-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 191 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 23-80-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ In the Hawkins Era (2006-10), CU averaged 5.5 per first down play in 2006, followed by 5.3 (2007), 4.4 (2008 and 2009) and 4.5 in 2010. Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979.
 - ➔ Things did not change in Jon Embree's two seasons: in 2011, the Buffs averaged 4.8 yards on first down for 13 games, though averaged over six yards three times (two of those wins); in 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ Though early in 2013 (two games), the Buffs averaged 6.4 yards on first down against Colorado State and 6.2 per try against Central Arkansas.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 51 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 173 games (season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 72 scores by return in 222 games (63 regular season, seven bowl). After none in 2012, CU already has three in 2013.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 17 times in the last 172 games (and 38 times in the last 247, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 43-3 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 51-6 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 73-72 in its last 145 games on grass, including a 45-41 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass.
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 94-49-3 in its last 146 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 61-35-3 mark in conference games. CU was 1-2 on the fake stuff in 2012.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, that number was 14.1 in 2005, 10.2; in 2006, 12.0; in 2007, 14.0; in 2008, 9.7 (the only time under 10 in this span); in 2009, 15.7; in 2010, 12.3; in 2011, opponents gained 1,000 yards on 73 makes (13.7 per), with eight TDs (that averaged 18.0 yards per) and just 146 yards on the 83 misses (1.6).
 - ➔ In 2012, it appeared the trend was reversing through three games, but WSU's spread offense did some damage (165 yards on eight conversions after CU allowed just 135 on 14 conversions in the first three games). For the year, opponents gained 810 yards on 66 makes (12.3 per) and 128 yards on the other 84 plays (1.5).
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-1 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, losing for the first time against Cal in 2011 (36-33 in OT). The previous last two occurrences of this were in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. In these 15 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 633-320, with only four games decided by less than 17 points (Cal in 2011, a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ Opponents have made 110-of-140 field goals dating back to 2006 (78.6 percent), including 3-of-3 in 2013. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 78-of-90 (86.7) on kicks inside the 40. In the same span, CU is 81-of-131 (61.8).
- ➔ In 2009, one of the most all-time perplexing stats to ever come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five. But that fifth time was one of the reasons CU went 3-9: example—Missouri gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on its other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all added up to 17.6 percent of opponent plays gaining 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU allowed 50 plays over 20 yards, totaling 1,633 yards; basically 6.2 percent of the plays producing 34 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2011, opponents had 75 plays of 20-plus yards that collectively gained 2,191 yards (29.2 per); the other 793 gained 3,520 (4.4); thus 8.6 percent of the plays gained 38.4 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2012, the opponent had 81 plays of 20 yards or longer, gaining 2,511 yards (31.0 per); the other 743 plays netted 3,351 yards (4.5 per).
 - ➔ In 2013, things have changed, at least from the get-go: through two games (148 plays), opponents have just five plays of 20 yards or more, netting 126 yards (21.2 per) and 19.8 percent of the total yards (635).
- ➔ Colorado had slow starts in its 10 of its 13 games in 2011, outscored 142-34 in the first quarter and outgained 1,737-952. In the season finale, a 17-14 win at Utah, CU outgained the Utes 185-17 in the first quarter, it's most dominant quarter of the season and led 7-0. In 2012, the Buffs again struggled out of the gate: opponents almost doubled CU in offense (1,598-881) and more than tripled the Buffs on the scoreboard (136-41). CU was held to under 50 yards in seven of the 12 first quarters, though the scoring was a bit skewed by the Fresno State and Oregon games where the Bulldogs and Ducks combined to jump on the Buffs, 63-0 (FSU 35-0, UO 28-0).
 - In 2013, another reversal so far: CU has outgained the opponent in the opening stanza 306-129 and owns a 17-0 edge in first quarter scoring.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-113 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09 (and 11 more before Stanford and Andrew Luck did it in '11). The CU offense is 11-of-112 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 693 of 1,012 quarters (68%). Those numbers include 8 of 8 this year and 12 in a row dating back to 2012.

2013 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1893 After defeating Colorado A&M in February of this year in a challenge game (CU won, 70-6 in Fort Collins), the Aggies appear on the CU schedule for the first time, traveling to Boulder for a game on October 7; the result is more of the same, as Colorado won, 44-6.
- 1898 Now in its ninth year of intercollegiate football, Colorado plays its first opponent from outside the state boundaries, as Nebraska visited Boulder on Nov. 17; the then-Bugeaters left town with a 23-10 win over the Silver & Gold.
- 1903 Colorado matches its high win total for a season in going 8-2; included a 4-0 mark in Colorado Football Association play and a 17-0 win at Colorado Mines on Halloween; Mines challenges CU to a postseason rematch, and Colorado wins that one as well, 23-5 in Boulder.
- 1908 Fred Folsom returns for his third of four stints as head coach, and leads CU to the Colorado Football Association title and a 5-2 record.
- 1913 Colorado concludes a 5-1-1 season with its first trip ever to the state of Oklahoma, where on Thanksgiving Day, CU drops a 14-3 decision to the University of Oklahoma in Oklahoma City. It's the fifth state Colorado travels to in its history, after Nebraska, Utah, Kansas and Wyoming.
- 1918 Many schools play an abbreviated schedule due to World War I, which came to a halt on November 11 (officially with the signing of the Treaty of Versailles on June 28, 1919 for you history Buffs). CU was 2-3, all five games played in a 21 day span (Nov. 16-Dec. 7); one of the wins was a 20-6 with over The Lieutenants.
- 1923 Colorado completes the season with a 9-0-0 record, its best in 34 years of football, as CU outscores its opponents by 280-27 (no team scored more than seven). The popularity of the team is at an all-time high, and thus the school begins work on a new stadium on the northeast side of campus.
- 1928 (Oct. 13) Bill Smith records the first known 100-yard rushing game ever by a CU player, running for 132 yards and a touchdown in a 21-7 win at Northern Colorado.
- 1933 Sophomore William "Kayo" Lam bursts on the scene and leads CU to a 7-2 record. It's the last year the school is known as the Silver & Gold, as Buffaloes wins a contest the following year and the teams have been named such ever since.
- 1938 It's Colorado's first year in the Mountain State Conference (also called the Skyline and Big 7), as seven schools broke away from the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. The Buffaloes go 3-4-1 in the first year after Byron White's graduation.
- 1943 The full effect of World War II hits college football, CU being no exception. The Buffs played a limited conference schedule (two games), sweeping Utah home and away, lost twice to No. 18 Colorado College and defeated three military teams in going 5-2.
- 1948 CU's first year in the old Missouri Valley Conference (also called the Big 6), to make it the Big 7; the Buffaloes go 2-3 in league play (due to scheduling conflicts, Oklahoma did not appear on a CU schedule until 1950). That was good for a fourth place finish, with the wins coming over Nebraska (19-6 on Oct. 9, also Dal Ward's first win) and Kansas State (51-7 on Oct. 23). Colorado loses close games to two former conference mates, at Utah (14-12) and Colorado State (29-25).
(Feb. 3) Dallas Ward named the 14th head coach in Colorado history, selected by then-athletic director Harry Carlson to lead CU into the Big 7 Conference.
- 1953 Colorado wins its last four games to finish 6-4 for the season; senior Gary Knafelc caught 22 passes for 451 yards and eight TDs, averaging 20.5 yards per catch; he went on to star for the Green Bay Packers, and upon his retirement, was the team's stadium PA announcer for 40 years.
- 1958 Howard Cook ties Byron White's record by scoring 25 points against Arizona in Tucson, as he scored four touchdowns and kicked an extra point in CU's 65-12 rout of the Wildcats; the record would stand for 43 years. Cook also became the first Buff to lead the nation in punt returns (averaging 10.1 per).
- 1963 (Jan. 3) Eddie Crowder is named the 17th head coach in Buff history, replacing alum Bud Davis ('51) who took over the program for a year after it was devastated by NCAA penalties. CU goes 2-8 for a second straight year, but is much more competitive from the get-go: the Buffs lost the season opener at No. 1 USC by just 14-0. Later in the year, the Air Force game, scheduled for Nov. 23, is postponed for two weeks as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy.
- 1968 QB Bobby Anderson becomes the first Buff to go over 2,000 yards total offense for a single-season, recording 2,129 yards (1,341 passing, 788 rushing).
- 1973 A senior-laden Buffalo team opens the year ranked No. 10 in the nation, and opens 5-2 with the losses to two ranked teams; but CU loses its last four games, and following a 17-14 season-ending home loss to Kansas State, Eddie Crowder announces his resignation as head coach. He remains on as CU's athletic director for the next 11 years (a position he took over in 1965).
- 1978 Unbeknownst at the time, this would be CU's last winning season until 1985; the Buffaloes opened 5-0, allowing exactly seven points in each of those games, and climbed to a No. 13 national ranking; but the Buffs dropped five of their last six and coach Bill Mallory was fired three days after the last game. Senior Howard Ballage becomes the third Buff to lead the nation in kickoff returns (averaging 29.4 yards per).
(Oct. 28) Colorado rallies from a 27-7 deficit to defeat Missouri in Columbia, 28-27; the rally from 20 points down is still the largest comeback in school history.
- 1983 (Sept. 17) After a 25-year dormancy, the CU-Colorado State rivalry in football is resumed; KWGN (Ch. 2) televises the game locally, which saw the Buffaloes cruise to a 31-3 win. Sans a 1969 NCAA tournament game, the two schools had also gone 20 years without playing in men's basketball (1959-79).
- 1988 (Oct. 22) Oklahoma edges CU, 17-14, in the first night game ever played at Folsom Field. A 7-2 start paves the way for the Buffs to crack the Top 20, as at No. 19 the Buffs are ranked for the first time since 1978; an 8-4 final record is the school's best since a similar mark in 1976. QB Sal Aunese led CU to a 24-21 win at No. 19 Iowa, CU's most significant road win in over a decade, and senior Keith English became the second Buff to lead the nation in punting (45.0 average).
- 1993 (Oct. 16) Colorado wins 27-10 at Oklahoma, the 78th victory by head coach Bill McCartney, as he becomes the all-time winningest coach in school history, passing Fred Folsom. In that game, Lamont Warren throws a 34-yard touchdown pass to Charles Johnson; Warren slipped on the slick Astroturf and Johnson was interfered with but still caught the ball while lying on the ground in a play that was selected as the national play of the year (the first of two in a row for CU). Johnson went on to be named the offensive player of the year in the Big 8, the first wide receiver to ever receive the award.
- 1998 Two milestones this season: CU's 37-8 win over Iowa State is the school's 600th win all-time, and the 51-43 win over Oregon in the Aloha Bowl is the 1,000th game in school history. In the latter, Mike Moschetti throws four touchdown passes and Ben Kelly returns the opening kickoff for a touchdown.
- 2003 An injury-marred season led to a 5-7 record, but it was not without its highlights. WR D.J. Hackett set a school record with 78 receptions (for 1,013 yards, just the sixth and to date the last 1,000-yard season), and QB Joel Klatt throws for 2,614 yards (the third 2,500+ season in school history).
- 2008 The Buffaloes open 3-0, capped by a 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia before an ESPN national audience; but a rash of injuries (122 games lost by two-deep players) was the main reason for a 2-7 finish over the final nine games. Still, CU appeared bowl-bound until a school-record 57-yard field goal by Alex Henery rallied Nebraska to a 40-31 win in the season finale (the Huskers added a late score on an interception return).

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS ALL-TIME HISTORIC

- 6+ 1 The number of CU players enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (White, Romig, D. Anderson, B. Anderson, Wooten, Williams; Bill McCartney will join them this December)
- 14-1 Colorado's record in games since 1972 when not committing a turnover or allowing a quarterback sack.
- 16 The number of career interceptions by CU's all-time leader, S John Stearns (1970-72).

- 231 The number of players from CU who have played in the National Football League, a top 20 figure nationally.
- 242 The number of consecutive games Colorado scored in between 1988 and 2008, the ninth-longest all-time in Division I football.
- 284 The number of receiving yards by WR Paul Richardson (vs. California, Sept. 10, 2011), breaking the old mark of 222 first set by WR Walter Stanley (vs. Texas Tech, Sept. 12, 1981) and then matched by WR Rae Carruth (at Missouri, Nov. 2, 1996).
- 293 The number of times Colorado has been ranked in the Associated Press weekly poll (23rd most all-time).
- 297 The number of wins Colorado has at Folsom Field since it opened on Oct. 1, 1924 (297-156-10).
- 307 The number of career points by CU's all-time scoring leader, PK Mason Crosby (2003-06).
- 342 The number of rushing yards by TB Charlie Davis against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, 1971, CU's single-game rushing record.
- 362 The number of all-purpose yards by TB Rashaan Salaam at Texas on Oct. 1, 1994, CU's single-game record (317 rushing, 45 receiving).
- 462 The number of games long-time announcer Larry Zimmer has called on the radio for the Buffaloes, the most by anyone in CU history.
- 465 The number of passing yards by QB Mike Moschetti against San Jose State on Sept. 11, 1999, CU's single-game passing record.
- 493 The number of career tackles by CU's all-time leading tackler, ILB Barry Remington (1982-86).
- 533 The number of passing yards against Northeast Louisiana on Sept. 16, 1995, CU's single-game record.
- 551 The number of rushing yards at Arizona on Oct. 11, 1958, CU's single-game record.
- 677 The number of wins Colorado has in its history (23rd most all-time).
- 767 The number of yards of total offense against San Jose State on Sept. 11, 1999, CU's single-game record.
- 1,149 The number of receiving yards by WR Charles Johnson in 1992, CU's single-season record.
- 1,176 The number of games Colorado has played in its history (123rd season of intercollegiate football).
- 2,055 The number of rushing yards TB Rashaan Salaam had in 1994 (the fourth at the time with a 2,000-yard season), on his way to the Heisman.
- 2,548 The number of career yards by CU's all-time receiving leader, WR Michael Westbrook (1991-94).
- 3,156 The number of passing yards by QB Koy Detmer in 1996, CU's single-season record.
- 3,940 The number of career yards by CU's all-time rushing leader, TB Eric Bieniemy (1987-90).
- 5,345 The elevation in feet of CU's Folsom Field (field level), the third highest stadium elevation in the FBS (behind Wyoming and Air Force).
- 7,409 The number of career yards by CU's all-time passing leader, QB Cody Hawkins (2007-10).
- 7,770 The number of career yards by CU's all-time total offense leader, QB Kordell Stewart (1991-94).

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are and 56-36-1 in their last 93 November games (50-24 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month, and 51-14 against unranked teams). Colorado is 51-44-2 in its last 97 October games and 54-33 in its last 87 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS

No change in the Pac-12 Conference bowl agreements in the off-season; here's the conference's lineup for the 2013 bowl season:

- # 1 Rose Bowl presented by Vizio (Jan. 1; 3:00 ESPN) and/or VIZIO BCS National Championship (Jan. 6; 6:30 ESPN)

- # 6 Kraft Fight Hunger (Dec. 27 vs. BYU or ACC; 7:30 ESPN)
- # 7 Gildan New Mexico Bowl (Dec. 21 vs. MCWC; Noon ESPN)

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against nine Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame and Oregon State. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (7), Missouri and Texas (5), Arizona State, LSU, Ohio State, Stanford and Washington (4) and then California, Florida State, Michigan State, Nebraska, and Oregon (3 each).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

School	National Championships	Heisman Trophies	School	National Championships	Heisman Trophies
Alabama	1961-64-65-73-78-79-92-09-11	2009	Nebraska	1970-71-94-95-97	1972-83-2001

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 23 seasons (1990-2012), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (but tied for 11th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2012 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. For more information, visit Ralphie's Green Stampede at http://www.cubuffs.com/ViewArticle.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=600&ATCLID=1549954.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom hasn't happened (yet), the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the second most attending in Jon Embree's first game (2011), also the first nighttime affair. CU has now had seven occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor the late Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
2011	(none/O-D scrimmage)	15,655	Jon Embree's first spring game also featured a first: it was the first one played at night
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
2013	Black 17, White 16	10,244	Good crowd turned out to see Mike MacIntyre's first spring game in Boulder
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history
2010	Gold 37, Black 27	9,100	Teams are determined by the players drafting themselves

OPPONENTS & 2013 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2013 Colorado schedule combined for an 84-63 record last year (57.1 winning percentage); it includes nine teams that CU played in 2012, and the Buffaloes dropped all nine games. After the 85th meeting with in-state rival Colorado State that opens the season, the Buffaloes will play their fourth Football Championship Subdivision opponent in history in Central Arkansas, a preseason top 10 team in the FCS poll (CU is 1-2 against FBS teams, losing 19-10 to Montana State in 2006, defeating Eastern Washington 31-24 in 2008 and falling to Sacramento State, 30-28 in 2012). CU closes non-league play against Fresno State, and the Buffs haven't forgot about a 50-yard pass thrown by the Bulldogs when they were down 62-7 in the fourth quarter last year (that's okay, it's your job to stop 'em as they say).

Oregon State and California swap out for Stanford and Washington State on the Pac-12 league slate; the Buffs played Cal in 2011, CU's first year in the league, but that was the back end of a home-and-home agreement and did not count as a league game.

- Colorado opens its third year of Pac-12 league competition on Sept. 28 at Oregon State, the only Pac-12 opponent the Buffaloes have not played since joining the conference on July 1, 2011. The Buffs and Beavers last faced each other in 1988, with CU winning 28-21 in Boulder; it will be Colorado's first-ever trip to Corvallis; the schools have played five times, three games in Boulder and two in Portland.
- Colorado will play five games in November, just the fifth time in its history and the first since 1958 that many are scheduled in the "turkey month." The Buffs have back-to-back road games just once visiting defending Pac-12 North Division champion UCLA (Nov. 2) and then Washington (Nov. 9).
- The season finale will be at Utah on Saturday, Nov. 30; Colorado had played the Friday after Thanksgiving for the last 17 seasons, or every year from 1996 through 2012, but this year's rivalry game with the Utes returns to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) selected other games for the Friday slots.
- In fact, CU does not have a weeknight game in 2013, the first time since 1995 that the Buffaloes will play every regular season game on a Saturday.
- The Buffaloes will have two byes, which fall on Sept. 21 and Oct. 19; while CU had two Saturdays off last year, it was because of a weeknight game against Arizona State; the last time Colorado had two natural byes in the same season was in 2008 ... The Buffs had two bye weeks every year from 1996 through 2005, one usually after non-league play and the other prior to the regular season finale against Nebraska.

Week Fifteen (Dec. 7)

Pac-12 Championship Game (ABC/ESPN), 5:45/6:00 p.m.
 (at campus site TBD)

All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Pacific-12 Conference game. Television selections Sept. 21 and beyond are made on 12 days' notice by the Pac-12 television partners (ESPN/ABC, FOX/FOX Sports 1, Pac-12 Networks); ESPN/ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. With the advent of the Pac-12 Networks (National; Arizona, Mountain, Oregon, Northern California, Southern California, Washington), all conference games and all home non-league games will again be televised in 2013. ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Pac-12, American Athletic, ACC, Big 10 or Big 12). ESPN/ESPN 2 will utilize several windows, including a 7 p.m. MT window on Thursdays, with those games preselected ahead of the season.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

Late in 2010, the divisions in football for the new Pac-12 were announced: CU joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California, UCLA and Utah in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of September 21 (2013 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two will be travel partners, and most assume it won't be a cozy as the current five mates. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a., the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the latest world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing. The Big 10 placed 10 schools in the top 100 (Wisconsin has the highest rank – No. 19); the ACC placed four (Duke was its highest at No. 31); the SEC two (Vanderbilt at No. 49, Florida at No. 71) and the Big 12 one (Texas, No. 36).

REUNIONS IN 2013

There are no specific team reunions planned this fall (the most celebrated Buff team on a 5- or 10- year anniversary hit would be the 1998 Aloha Bowl champions, 8-4 overall). "C Day," a reunion of all letter winners, took place for the Central Arkansas game (Sept. 7); the annual Living Legends (which honors all athletes who lettered for the first time 50 years ago) is set for the California (Nov. 16) and the Honorary C awards will be presented at the USC game (Nov. 23). As for other sports, it is the 40th anniversary of the 1974 NCAA champion ski team, and the 10th anniversary of the 2004 NCAA champion men's and women's cross country teams.

MCCARTNEY TO BECOME SEVENTH BUFFALO TO BE ENSHRINED IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S HALL OF FAME

Bill McCartney first set foot on the University of Colorado campus in Boulder in June 1982; little did he know at the time that just over a dozen years later he would retire as the winningest coach in CU football history.

And now the turnaround “Mac” orchestrated in Boulder with a program that won just 14 games over a six-year span to one that claimed three Big 8 Conference titles and the 1990 consensus national championship is being rewarded on college football’s biggest stage.

McCartney has been selected by the National Football Foundation for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame this December 10 in New York City. He will join 12 players and two coaches in the Class of 2013.

He will become the seventh Buffalo enshrined in the Hall, joining Byron White (inducted in 1952), Joe Romig (1984), Dick Anderson (1993), Bobby Anderson (2006), Alfred Williams (2010) and John Wooten (2012). He is the school’s first coach to be so-honored.

“It’s a surprise and it is very humbling when you look at the men that have been recognized with this honor over the years,” McCartney said. “It’s very gratifying and rewarding. Keep in mind I’ve been out of coaching almost 20 years, so to be remembered after such a long absence was a complete surprise to me.”

McCartney was 93-55-5 in 13 seasons at the reins of the Buffaloes, guiding the program to its first and only national championship in football in 1990, doing so by playing the nation’s toughest schedule, just the second time that feat was ever accomplished. He coached CU in more bowl games, nine, than anyone before or after him, as well as to three consecutive Big 8 titles in 1989-90-91 during a run of 10 consecutive winning seasons in league competition. After a 4-16-1 start in conference games, the Buffs finished 58-29-4 against Big 8 competition, going an impressive 54-13-3 over his last 10 seasons.

In the six-year span from 1989-94, Mac’s last six seasons, Colorado was 58-11-4, the fifth-best record in the nation behind Miami, Fla. (63-9), Florida State (64-9-1), Nebraska (61-11-1) and Alabama (62-12-1). CU’s 36-3-3 record in the conference games in the same period was the nation’s best. CU finished in the nation’s top 20 each of those six years, including a No. 3 ranking his final season.

All 93 wins came against Division I-A/FBS competition, with just nine against so-called non-BCS schools (though five of those versus in-state rival Colorado State). He coached the most games ever (153) at Colorado, with his 13 seasons are second to only the legendary Fred Folsom (15) in the number of seasons working on the “hilltop.”

“This is one of our strongest classes of Hall of Famers,” said Steve Hatchell, the president and CEO of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. “Mac had tremendous support and received a strong vote from the Honors Court. We’re very proud to have someone like Bill McCartney make it into the Hall, and he will be part of the first class to be enshrined in the new Hall of Fame in Atlanta in the summer of 2014.”

Mac was quick to credit two specific groups for his election to the Hall.

“It all started with my first recruiting class, that winter of ’83,” he recalled. “I asked all the in-state players not to make a decision until they visited CU, and we wanted them to come in the last weekend before signing day. They gave their word and most of them held to it. They stuck together, and they helped recruit our great class in ’87 that made up the core of the national championship team.

“That’s how I am in the Hall of Fame,” he said boldly. “This means something to the state of Colorado, it’s part of our history. What led us to the national championship is that seven years earlier, the in-state kids stayed home.”

He also had great assistant coaches through the years, coaches he only hired because they could recruit; he would pass on coaches they were great with X’s and O’s if they couldn’t recruit.

And those who worked under him formed a pool that eventually would produce 12 future collegiate head coaches: Gary Barnett, Jim Caldwell, Ron Dickerson, Jon Embree, Gerry DiNardo, Karl Dorrell, Les Miles, Rick Neuheisel, Bob Simmons, Lou Tepper, Ron Vanderlinden and John Wristen.

McCartney, 72, had coaching in his blood almost from the get-go.

“When I was 7 years old, I knew I was going to be a coach,” he said. “My friends, other kids at that age were going to president, businessmen, attorneys, firemen. Ever since I was a little kid, I imitated my coaches, critiqued them, always followed and studied them. I was a student of the great coaches. I was a disciple of Bobby Knight’s when I was (high school) basketball coach.”

McCartney attended the University of Missouri on a football scholarship and lettered three times as a center-linebacker for the Tigers. He played in two Orange Bowl games and was named second-team All-Big 8 as a senior.

He graduated from Missouri in 1962 with a degree in education and immediately turned his attention to coaching. His first job was as an assistant at Joplin (Mo.) High in 1963 and 1964. He then returned to Michigan to coach the basketball team at Holy Redeemer High School in Detroit. He coached there from 1964 to 1968.

The next stop for Mac was at Divine Child High in Dearborn, where he was the head basketball coach from 1969 to 1973 and the head football coach from 1971 to 1973. His ’69 hoops team won the Detroit Catholic League title, and his ’73 team won the state class B crown. His three Divine Child football teams compiled a 30-5 record, winning the DCL title all three years and the state championship in ’71 and ’73.

His feats of winning state title in football and basketball in 1973 made him the first coach ever in Michigan high school history to win both the same season, and it would serve as his entry into the college ranks.

“After we won the state championship in both sports, (the University of Michigan’s) Bo Schembechler and Johnny Orr both offered me an assistant’s job within one week of each other,” McCartney said. “I played college football but wasn’t good enough to play college basketball, so that settled that,” he joked. “My first love really was football, and being a Michigan native (born and raised in Riverview), to become a part of Schembechler’s staff was the opportunity of a lifetime.”

He joined the Michigan coaching staff as a defensive aide in 1974, coaching outside linebackers for the next three seasons. In 1977, he took over the chores as Michigan’s defensive coordinator, a position he held until he departed for CU. One publication had Mac rated as one of the top five defensive coordinators in the nation in 1981, and he was considered one of the finest recruiters in the country.

McCartney gained national recognition at Michigan in 1980 when he devised a scheme to stop Purdue quarterback Mark Herrmann (using six defensive backs to neutralize Herrmann and his receivers). He was named the Big Ten’s “player” of the week for his plan.

He points to Schembechler as the coach he owes the most for his successful coaching career. Mac had started entertaining thoughts about becoming a head coach, so it was a matter of time before someone called.

MCCARTNEY TO BECOME SEVENTH BUFFALO TO BE ENSHRINED IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S HALL OF FAME, CONTINUED

That call came the first week of June in 1982. The late Chuck Fairbanks abruptly resigned on June 1 to become president and head coach of the New Jersey Generals in the fledgling United States Football League. (The late) athletic director Eddie Crowder was faced with hiring a new coaching staff with the season opener just 102 days away.

"I went in to talk to Bo, and I told him that if the right opportunity came along, I'd be interested. He said, 'Okay, when the right job comes along, come see me.' The Michigan State job opened shortly after that, and I went in to see him and he said, 'You do not want to go there and I am not considering helping you get there. Get that out of your mind.' And I did. So that was the first one that came along I was interested in and I didn't pursue it.

"When the Colorado job opened, it was the perfect time for me," McCartney recalled. "Because of the timing, there was really no head coach in America who could have applied for the job, because if you didn't get it, you would have been run out of town because you were willing to abandon your team. Chuck Shelton interviewed from Drake, which had just beat CU twice, but I didn't have to fight several head coaches who would have been interested had the job opened at a more opportune time. When I saw that Chuck resigned, I was immediately interested, I went in and saw Bo. At the appropriate time, Bo called Eddie Crowder. He was instrumental in my getting strong consideration.

"It was my good fortune, the timing was such that I was in position to be a candidate because of the success Michigan had had and the fact that I worked for Bo."

"Colorado was one of the premier jobs in the country," he continued. "It was in a prestigious conference, the location, the history, and there was something about raising your family in a college town. All the opportunities you can ask for in a dynamic collegiate environment. Boulder is just the right size, not too big, not too small and has access to a major city in Denver. The populace and all that goes with that, the professional teams, the arts, a major airport providing access to wherever you'd want to go. The aesthetic beauty of Boulder, Colorado is that it has no parallel, and offers what I call the 'maximum experience.'

"You look at its extraordinary beauty, when every day you wake and say, 'All right, let's get up and get it on.' When you look at the academic experience, there's none better. But when you look around at everything, raising your family, tell me there's a safer place than Boulder. We have more winter sunshine than Phoenix, Miami or L.A. You look at the whole experience and not just focus on football and say, 'What do you want out of life?' When you add all those things up, Boulder and CU can't be matched. I've been looking around all these years, and nobody else can match what Colorado can offer—the premier college experience in America. And I say that not trying to recruit anybody—I'm done."

"You look at its extraordinary beauty, when every day you wake and say, 'All right, let's get up and get it on.' When you look at the academic experience, there's none better. But when you look around at everything, raising your family, tell me there's a safer place than Boulder. We have more winter sunshine than Phoenix, Miami or L.A. You look at the whole experience and not just focus on football and say, 'What do you want out of life?' When you add all those things up, Boulder and CU can't be matched. I've been looking around all these years, and nobody else can match what Colorado can offer—the premier college experience in America. And I say that not trying to recruit anybody—I'm done."

On a roll, he continued on: "When I was recruiting, I would say there are other schools that have won more games, others that have better academics, others that might have a better campus. But not all three in a package like the University of Colorado. I personally believed I had the greatest product to sell, and I truly believed what I was saying. I never had a kid say to me even once, 'Coach, you oversold me on Boulder.'"

It wasn't a slam dunk that Crowder was going to hire him, though. In fact, he was the longshot. He wasn't even contacted until six days into the search. He told the story best to CUBuffs.com back in 2007:

"What happened was that Eddie Crowder called me on a Sunday night (June 6) and asked if would I be interested; I said absolutely. He said 'When can you be here?' And I said the next morning. So I took the first flight out of Detroit and got to Colorado pretty early in the day, but I got here so fast that they weren't ready to interview me. It took him until Tuesday morning to put together an interview panel. That gave me a day here where nothing was happening and I was able to get acquainted. I had been here before as an assistant with Michigan and as a player with Missouri, so I had a little familiarity with the place. Eddie assigned me to (the late associate AD) Fred Casotti; when the interview took place Tuesday morning, there were about 15 people representing all kind of factions on campus and the alumni. About 15 minutes before I was going to go before them for the interview, I said to Fred, 'What do you think my chances are?' He said, 'Coach, it's third and long. You'd better make a big play.'

"That was the best thing he could have told me, otherwise I might have tiptoed into the interview. But after Fred told me that, I threw caution to the wind, decided to get aggressive and put my best foot forward. The format was for them to ask me questions, or that's what they had in mind. But I stood up, and I said before I take any questions, I want to make a statement. I spoke for about 20 minutes and told them who I was, my background, what I had done at the University of Michigan, my philosophies and values, and what I would bring to the University of Colorado if I was to get the job. I was the only one talking, and after I was done speaking, nobody asked me a question.

"I went from there to meet the president, Arnold Weber, and he had already gotten a phone call following the first interview. He was energized and anxious to see me, and was warm and welcoming. Later that night, they took me to meet the Board of Regents, as by chance they were having their monthly meeting in Denver. I was waiting with Casotti in the car, waiting for a break in their meeting to be introduced, and I asked Fred again, 'What do you think my chances are?' And Fred said, 'Coach, fourth and short. You just need to make a first down.' So I just needed to move the chains. That Tuesday night, Eddie offered me the job. Really it all happened so fast, we didn't have a lot of time because of the unusual circumstances."

McCartney was hired as the 20th head coach in CU history on June 9, 1982, taking over a team which had just suffered through three of its worst seasons in an otherwise tradition-rich football program. And the rest, as they say, is history.

"All you have to is recruit, and if you recruit the right kids and get them, you'll find yourself playing in a lot of big games," he concluded. "So it's not about me, it's about the University, what a great place it is, it's about all the good assistants we had, and it's about that first recruiting class that got things going for us."

GAME 1COLORADO 41, COLORADO STATE 27*SEPTEMBER 1, 2013*SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — The Colorado Buffaloes rumbled into the Mike MacIntyre era with a gutsy 41-27 victory against rival Colorado State in the Rocky Mountain Showdown.

In his first game in CU's multiple/pistol offense, Connor Wood completed 33-of-46 passes for 400 yards and three touchdowns. Two of the TD passes — 82 and 75 yards — went to Paul Richardson, playing in his first game after sitting out last season with a knee injury.

And with the CU defense needing a big play in Sports Authority Field at Mile High, Greg Henderson delivered a monstrous one. With the Buffs cradling a 26-24 lead early in the fourth quarter, he scooped up a CSU fumble and raced 53 yards to score.

The Buffs couldn't have had a more effective start — scoring on their second play from scrimmage — an 82-yard Wood-to-Richardson pass.

After his PAT pushed CU ahead 7-0, Oliver then kicked a 22-yard field goal in the final minute of the first quarter and the Buffs were up 10-0. CSU's first points then came courtesy of a 39-yard Jared Roberts field goal three plays into the second quarter, cutting CU's advantage to 10-3 with 14:17 left before intermission.

It took nearly 11 minutes for either team to score again, but in the final 3:56 of the half CU got 10 points and CSU seven. Wood drove the Buffs 63 yards in seven plays, hitting D.D. Goodson in the back of the end zone with an 18-yard touchdown.

CSU answered immediately with a seven-play, 74-yard march capped by Kapri Bibbs' first career TD — a 7-yard run around left end. Roberts' extra point brought the Rams to within 17-10 and the Buffs had 1:13 remaining to respond.

Starting at his own 25, Wood used six plays to cover 51 yards and position Oliver for a 41-yard field goal on the first half's final play. The Buffs trotted to their locker room holding a 10-point lead (20-10).

CU accepted the second-half kickoff and was forced to give the ball back to CSU. Darragh O'Neill's punt traveled 46 yards, but sophomore Joe Hansley's return covered 74 — and the Rams suddenly were down only by three points (20-17).

With momentum swinging to CSU, CU needed an answer — and the Buffs drove as far as the Rams' 24-yard line before a holding call snuffed the drive. The Buffs forced a punt and this time marched to the Rams 18-yard line, where the drive stalled again but Oliver connected on a 44-yard field and CU increased its lead to 23-17.

CSU got another long return — this one 84 yards by junior Thomas Coffman on Oliver's kickoff — and set up at the CU 16-yard line. It took three plays to score, with Bibbs running 2 yards to give the Rams their first lead of the afternoon, 24-23, with 2:51 left in the third quarter.

When CU's ensuing drive stalled at the CSU 35-yard line, Oliver tied a career-long kick with a 52-yarder, giving the Buffs a 26-24 lead with 13:07 remaining.

Grayson moved the Rams to mid-field and on second down hit Bibbs across the middle for a short gain — but he couldn't escape Chidera Uzo-Diribe's strip, which Henderson scooped up and raced 53 yards to put CU up 33-24.

CSU again responded with 3:47 to play as a 30-yard Roberts filed goal allowed the Rams to pull within 33-27.

Wood and Richardson then delivered again — this time connecting for a 75-yard score. For good measure, Wood hit Goodson for the two-point conversion and the Buffs had their largest lead of the game — 41-27, which would eventually become the final.

GAME NOTES

Attendance for the game was 59,601; CU accounted for 32,779 of those as attendance was below 60,000 for the third straight year (and for the fourth in the last five) ... CSU 18,169 and the Broncos 5,032 (many of which were out of CU's allotment)... Eleven players, including six true freshmen, made their CU debuts in the game ... Colorado snapped an 8-game losing streak with the win ... The Buffaloes did not commit a turnover in their season opener for the first time since 2000 ... Colorado made its first 2-point conversion in three years when Wood found Goodson on a short pass for the deuce ... Colorado improved to 9-4-2 all-time on Sundays ... The Buffs donned their traditional home gold pants with the white road jerseys for the first time in 2008 (Nov. 1 at Texas A&M), winning in the look for the first time since the 2004 Houston Bowl over UTEP ... Colorado dominated the majority of the game, leading for 52:57 (CSU led for just 4:44), and defensively held the Rams to under 200 yards until their last two drives netted 100, but the game had been decided by then ... The Buffs improved to 24-1 in season openers dating back to 1967 when scoring first ... Colorado allowed under 30 points for the first time since the '12 opener against the Rams (11 games).

GAME 2COLORADO 38, CENTRAL ARKANSAS 24*SEPTEMBER 7, 2013*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER – The Colorado Buffaloes rallied with three fourth-quarter touchdowns to put away stubborn Central Arkansas squad, 38-24, and win its home opener under first-year coach Mike MacIntyre. In the process, CU improved to 2-0 and ended a six-game losing streak at Folsom Field.

CU quarterback Connor Wood passed for 341 yards (23-of-36) and submitted his second straight three-TD game of the season. Wood outdueled UCA quarterback Wynrick Smothers, who was 33-of-55 for 280 yards (2 TDs/2 INT) for the Bears, who came into the game ranked No. 5 in the FCS.

Wood connected with Richardson 11 times for 209 yards and two of his three scores. The Buffs took a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter after a 55-yard Wood-to-Richardson touchdown pass, and then Greg Henderson made it 14-0 with a 46-yard interception return, the first pick for the Buffs secondary in 267 pass attempts.

The Bears didn't blink as Wood fumbled as he was sacked by defensive end Markeith Gaines. Fellow end Derek Floyd recovered at the UCA 31, and six plays later Smothers hit Lewis with a 23-yard TD pass to make the game 14-7.

On CU's next series, Wood suffered his first interception of the season – a deflected ball intended for slot receiver D.D. Goodson that was lunged for and grabbed by defensive back Bobby Watkins at his own 24-yard line.

Ten plays later, Smothers capped a 76-yard march with an 11-yard scoring pass to tight end Chase Dixon. Denker's extra point tied the score at 14-14 with 22 seconds remaining before intermission.

Things appeared to settle down for the Buffs, but it was short lived as the Buffs gave up an 88-yard kickoff return to set up a 28-yard Denker field goal and the Bears' first lead (17-14) of the game.

Wood and CU answered with a 55-yard march that positioned Oliver for a 31-yard field goal that tied the score at 17-17 with 11:28 left in the third quarter.

It held until UCA's Gaines got his hands on Wood once more – and once again Wood fumbled. Defensive end Jonathan Woodard scooped up the ball and ran to the CU 16 before being hauled down from behind by Buffs tackle Stephane Nembot.

The Bears ran six plays and advanced to the Buffs' 1-yard line, where on the first play of the fourth quarter Smothers scored on a quarterback sneak to push UCA up 24-17 with all but four seconds of the last quarter remaining.

Time was on the Buffs' side, but the Bears weren't clock watching – they were zeroing in on Wood. The pressure continued, and Wood tossed his second pick of the game – this one picked by free safety Marvin Mitchell at the UCA 44.

Smothers drove the Bears as far as the Buffs' 24-yard line before CU safety Jered Bell stepped in front of a Smothers pass, picked it and ran 79 yards for the TD to tie the game once more (24-24).

The Buffs went ahead with 9:16 to play when Chidobe Awuzie pilfered the football from Wilson after a short reception and set up Wood & Co. at the UCA 30-yard line. On the second play, Wood found Richardson open again – this time for 30 yards and their fourth TD hookup of the season to make the game 31-24 in the Buffs favor.

The Buffs couldn't relax until Wood hit Nelson Spruce on a third-and-20 receiver screen which he took 39 yards for a touchdown to push the Buffs lead to 38-24.

CU corner Kenneth Crawley intercepted Smothers in the end zone with 1:50 to play. The Buffs took over at their 20-yard line, got one first down and put a period on a wild home opener.

GAME NOTES

Colorado last opened with a pair of wins in 2008 ... CU improved to 2-2 all-time against FCS schools ... The temperature at kickoff – 90 degrees – tied for the ninth warmest for any game in CU history and tied for the second warmest ever in Boulder (with the Aug. 26, 2001 Fresno State game; both are tied for the warmest night game in Boulder) ... WR Paul Richardson became the first player in Pac-12 Conference history to have back-to-back 200-yard receiving games ... Ralphie V did not lead the team out for the first time since 2003 (against Nebraska) because of a timing snafu; she made the second half run just fine, however ... Colorado scored 30 points in back-to-back games for the first time since the 10th and 11th games of the 2010 season, and has allowed under 30 for two games in a row since games 4 and 5 of that same year ... Henderson's interception was the first by a Buff in a 10-game span and 267 opponent passes since the last one (a fourth quarter pick by ILB Jon Major at Washington State on Sept. 22, 2012) ... The Buffs returned two interceptions for scores in the same game for the first time since the last day of the last century: Dec. 31, 1999 when ILB Jashon Sykes and SS Rashidi Barnes did it against Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl ... The attendance of 35,168 was the smallest for CU home game in Boulder that wasn't affected due to the weather since 1988.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 43 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants. The Buffs have also worn black helmets on four occasions (twice with the all-black unis; the first time was in a 1998 “throwback” game against Baylor). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a CU game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU’s old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the lockerroom at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. “It was something we thought about a long time ago,” Mac said at the time. “You couldn’t do this overnight. We didn’t tell the kids, and they were real excited.” He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.
