GAME 11—ARIZONA

BUFFS HOST WILDCATS IN SENIOR DAY HOME FINALE AT FOLSOM

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2011 • 12:30 p.m. MST • Folsom Field (53,613), Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 11 (November 6, 2011)

FCS-Pacific (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (1-9, 0-6 Pac-12) wrap up the home portion of their 2011 schedule this Saturday, hosting the Arizona Wildcats (2-7, 1-6 Pac-12) in a 12:30 p.m. mountain time kickoff at Folsom Field ... The game will be televised nationally by Fox College Sports (FCS) on its Pacific network ... It's the final home game for CU's 28 seniors (complete list on page 19), as they will run out behind Ralphie for the final time in their collegiate careers ... The CU coaches will wear a special patch on their game day shirts this week, along with several other Pac-12 staffs, as the conference is honoring the 70th anniversary of the Tuskegee Airmen, the first unit of African American military pilots who flew in World War II ... CU will present Honorary C Club letters this Saturday as well (list on page 3), and postgame, the "Fans Behind The Bench" will award their annual Buffalo Heart Award ... The Buffs are also 0-4 at home, having never gone winless at Folsom; CU has not recorded a home win just three times, in its first two years of football (0-2 in both 1890 and 1891 on campus grass fields) and in 1920 (0-1-2 at Gamble Field) ... CU is 16-7 dating back to 1988 on "Senior Day," with five of the seven losses to Nebraska ... There are just over 5,000 tickets remaining for the UA game ... The UCLA game on Nov. 19 has been selected for national broadcast by Versus; thus, all 13 Colorado games this season will be/have been televised (11 national, two regional). The last time every CU game was televised was 1995 (including several local broadcasts on KCNC); this is the first time all will have been national or regional telecasts ... Visit CUBuffs.com/ gameday as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Colorado did not have a turnover against USC, a complete reversal from the previous week when the Buffs coughed up the ball five times at Arizona State. It was the fourth time this year that CU did not commit a turnover, also doing so against California, Colorado State and Washington. That has tied the school record for the most games in a season without a turnover, done three times previously in the regular season, in 1989 (11-0 record), in 1993 (7-3-1) and in 2006 (2-10). There were four other years where CU had three games without a turnover: 1956, 1987, 1994 and 2010. The seven turnover free games over the last two seasons match a school best, first done over the 1993-94 seasons.

OBSURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

TB Rodney Stewart now has 561 rushing and 502 receiving yards on the season; earlier this year, he became just the 12th player in school history to record at least 500 in both for a career. He is now the first player at Colorado who has accomplished that feat in a single season, and is the only player in the NCAA this season to have accumulated at least 500 of each (only one other player has at least 400 of each—New Mexico State's Kenny Turner). Stewart is bidding to become the 27th player in NCAA history (FBS) to have 3,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in a career; he enters the last three games of his college career with 3,305 rushing and 900 receiving.

COLORADO FOOTBALL MEDIA SERVICES

- Head coach Jon Embree holds a Tuesday press luncheon in the Dal Ward Athletic Center, starting at 11:30 a.m. with lunch (Embree starts promptly at Noon). This year's dates: Aug. 30, Sept. 6-13-20-27, Oct. 4-11-18-25, Nov. 1-8-15-22-29, Dec. TBA (bowl). The press conference portion of the luncheon is streamed live on www.CUBuffs.com (in the BuffsTV area); press conferences on CUBuffs.com are free and do not require access codes.
- Embree can be heard Tuesdays (Aug. 31-Nov. 30) on the Pac-12 Teleconference Call at 11:00 a.m. MT, with a taped replay available after 4 p.m. MT those afternoons. All coaches participate; for access numbers to the conference call and the replay, e-mail David Plati (david.plati@colorado.edu) with audio files available at www.pac-12.org.
- Video highlights of CU football games are available anytime provided by the Pac-12 Digital Xchange. To gain access, send an email with name, job title, company and phone to pac-12@pac-12.org with the subject line "Request for Pac-12 Media Access." Special requests can also be made through CU's BuffVision (Deric Swanson or Eric Pelloni: 303/735-3637). Stock Embree footage can be found here: <http://buffvision.com/FTP/embree.zip> and his weekly presser here: http://buffvision.com/FTP/embree_presser.zip.
- The Colorado lockerroom (home and road) is closed after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be available (a list will be solicited immediately following the game; no cutoff to request players).
- Colorado's regular season football practices are closed to the general public. The first 20 minutes of the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday practices are open to the media for any photography/video needs (follow parameters listed in CU's media policies). Thursday practices are entirely closed (except network TV).
- This year's standard meeting/practice schedule (mountain time, pre-time change): Sunday: off; Monday: 3:30-5:00/5:10-5:30; Tuesday: 2:15-4:00/4:00-6:15; Wednesday: 2:15-4:00/4:00-5:45; Thursday: 2:00-3:30/3:45-5:15; Friday (3:00-4:00/4:00-5:00 walkthrough/evening meetings).
- Interviews with Colorado players are allowed pre- (12:45-2:00) and post-practice on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays (the cutoff moves up to Wednesday pre-practice for Friday games). Phone interviews with out-of-town media are allowed all three days in all time slots. Interviews on Sundays are at the discretion of the player, as it being the standard player day off (no meetings/practice), CU can't arrange due to NCAA rules.
- Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Pac-12 football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for the conference and each member of its member schools. Most FBS conferences are also accessible as well. Login information will be distributed to accredited media, and media members can also apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.
- CU On-Line Photo Database. The CU SID office has an online photo database that allows registered members of the media instant access to print quality head shots of all CU coaches and student-athletes as well as action shots of key players. Registration is easy: for a login and password, simply log on to www.CUBuffs.com, select "Sports Information" from the "Athletic Department" menu located on the left navigation bar and follow the instructions.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE INTERNET

- Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Visit the official CU site at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes, press conference broadcasts (free) and articles by former Rocky Mountain News sportswriter B.G. Brooks. Go to www.CUBuffs.com/media and click on Media Center: it will link you to everything you'll need to know about CU football. "BuffsTV" offers the opportunity to listen and/or watch live game action of several CU athletic teams. Breaking news with the program will be found here first every time and delivered in full without others editing out what they might deem unessential.

- Audio. Colorado football and basketball can now be heard for free on the Internet at either CUBuffs.com or KOA-Radio (or its sister station, KKZN/AM760 for hoops). Links: www.CUBuffs.com, www.850koa.com, www.am760.net.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE AIRWAYS

- KOA-Radio in Denver (850 AM) originates the 10-station CU Football Network, with sports director Mark Johnson in his eighth year as the play-by-play voice of the Buffs. Larry Zimmer (analysis) is in his 38th season broadcasting Colorado football (he handled play-by-play from 1971-81 and 1985-2003). Pre- and postgame shows/sidelines are handled by KOA's Andy Lindahl (second year). Other cities on the network in addition to KOA/Denver metro: Alamosa (KALQ/94.5FM), Aspen (KFNO/106.1 FM, which also serves Eagle, 96.7FM; Roaring Fork, 94.3FM and Old Snowmass, 93.9FM), Durango (KRSJ/100.5 FM), Grand Junction (KTMM/1340AM), Rifle (KNAM, 1490AM) and Salida (KSBV/93.7FM). KOA has been the home to CU football for 67 of the last 70 years.
- Tuesdays at 7 p.m. (Aug. 30-Nov. 22), the CU Coaches Radio Show originates from The West End Tavern (926 Pearl Street, Boulder), with Johnson and Zimmer hosting the program which airs on KOA (or AM760 if a conflict with Colorado Rockies baseball).
- Satellite Radio: Sirius-XM is the satellite home of the Buffaloes; the CU-UA game (KOA broadcast) will be on Sirius Channel 139 and XM Channel 196.
- ROOT Sports is the television home of the Buffaloes, as "The Buffalo Stampede" is broadcast in the six-state ROOT area. The show airs a bit erratically in September due to Colorado Rockies baseball, though will be on all Fridays; the schedule: Sept. 2 (6 p.m.), Sept. 9 (5 p.m.), Sept. 16 (4 p.m.), Sept. 23 (4:30 p.m.), Sept. 30 (6 p.m.). Former CU QB Charles Johnson hosts the program, which airs through the end of basketball season. It is also online at <http://buffalostampede.tv/>.

HONORARY C-CLUB AWARDS

Begun in 1955, Honorary C Club Awards are annually presented to a person or persons for their dedication of service or contributions to CU Athletics. Those who will be honored this Saturday: Gail Pederson (CU's chief of athletic staff, who has worked two stints over two decades with the department); Paul Repeto and Janet Pyle (avid soccer program supporters and donors); Micahel McFadden (avid fan who was CU's version of the "barrel man" for five years); and long-time stat crew members Gene DiTolla, Dave Einspahr, Art Rosener and Rocky Rockafellow.

INJURY UPDATE

Here's a look at Colorado's current injury situation as of November 7:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Arizona
WR	Kyle Cefalo	knee	suffered a sprain against Washington (Oct. 15), improving and could resume running soon	PROBABLE
ILB	Brady Daigh	wrist	suffered a sprain early in the USC game (Nov. 4; after playing just two snaps)	PROBABLE
WR	Logan Gray	leg	suffered a bruise in the second half against USC (Nov. 4)	DAY-TO-DAY
CB	Brian Lockridge	ankle	suffered a sprained ankle late in the Washington State game (Oct. 1)	DAY-TO-DAY
SS	Anthony Perkins	ankle	suffered a high sprain after just nine snaps against Oregon (Oct. 22); did not return to game	OUT/1-2 WEEKS
FS	Ray Polk	concussion	suffered at Washington (Oct. 15), missed Oregon but returned for ASU; symptoms returned	DAY-TO-DAY
FS	Kyle Washington	concussion	suffered in the second quarter against USC (Nov. 4), wasn't cleared to return to game	DAY-TO-DAY
OUT FOR THE SEASON
OL	Blake Behrens	shoulder	chronic shoulder and bicep tendinitis has basically ended career	OUT
CB	Jered Bell	knee	suffered a torn ACL in the third fall practice (Aug. 6); scheduled for surgery	OUT
TB	Malcolm Creer	knee	suffered a severe sprain in the second quarter at Arizona State (Oct. 29); surgery pending	OUT

DL	Tony Poremba	concussion	suffered in practice (Oct. 4); has had multiple in his career	OUT
ILB	Douglas Rippy	knee	suffered torn ligaments against Washington (Oct. 15); will undergo surgery after a healing period	OUT

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

INJURY BUGABOO STRIKES AGAIN

The injuries have been mounting all season, with perhaps the most severe hits coming in the 52-24 loss at Washington when the Buffaloes lost two of its most productive starters, junior ILB Douglas Rippy (torn knee ligaments), and his cousin, senior TB Rodney Stewart (severely sprained knee).

Stewart entered the season in pursuit of several CU career records, most notably rushing, all-purpose yards and yards from scrimmage, trailing his position coach, Eric Bieniemy, in all three categories. He's caught and passed him in all-purpose yards, is in position to do the same in yards from scrimmage, but the rushing title is likely out of reach. How valuable was Stewart? At the time of his injury, he led the Buffs in rushing (473 yards) and was second in both receptions (28) and receiving yards (435); his 1,169 all-purpose yards represented 38 percent of CU's team total (3,082) at the time.

Rippy, Colorado's leading tackler with 62 when he went down, was the fourth player to be lost for the season due to injury; previously guard Blake Behrens (shoulder), cornerback Jered Bell (knee) and defensive end Tony Poremba (concussions) had their seasons come to an end. Behrens and Poremba are fifth-year seniors while Bell is a sophomore who had a redshirt year available. Offensive tackle Jack Harris (broken ankle) was injured against California, CU's second game of the season, but he has a slim chance he could return for the final game or two.

Colorado has thus far in 2011 lost a total of 90 games to injury by players who figured in either the two-deep or prominently on special teams, or just over 20 percent of the possible 440 (10 games times 44); this currently projects to be the second-highest figure in the last 25 seasons at the school. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 25 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost	Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost
2011	10	106	820	12.9	90	440	20.5	2010	12	103	924	11.1	88	528	16.7
2008	12	121	1008	12.0	110	528	20.8	2002	13	139	1118	12.4	80	572	14.0
1998	11	101	864	11.7	89	484	18.4	2003	12	74	876	8.4	58	528	11.0
2000	11	101	880	11.5	82	484	16.9	1997	11	51	770	6.6	41	484	8.5

Dating back to 1987, only eight times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10).

EMBREE SUSPENDS FIVE INDEFINITELY

On October 6, Jon Embree announced the indefinite suspensions of five players for failing to meet the expectations of being member of the team. Four of the five are sophomores: outside linebacker Liloe Nobriga and defensive backs Ayodeji Olatoye, Parker Orms and Paul Vigo; the fifth was redshirt freshman defensive back Josh Moten. Embree said the five are prohibited from engaging in any football-related activity, but are still responsible to meet all academic requirements. "We are disappointed that these student-athletes have not lived up to the high expectations we have here at the University of Colorado," Embree said. "While not going into specifics, there are no issues with law enforcement, but they have not met their obligations and responsibilities to be active members of the team."

➤ Moten did all that was required for reinstatement and rejoined the team on Oct. 10; Orms and Vigo did the same and rejoined the team on Oct. 31.

RANDOM LINERS

- Iron Man. There is just one player who played every snap from scrimmage through nine games (all offense or all defense), and that's OG Ryan Miller. He's been in there for every one of the 653 snaps on offense (OG Ethan Adkins is next with 607 and OT Ryan Dannewitz 586; QB Tyler Hansen has the most snaps of the non-linemen with 581). CB Greg Henderson has played 634 of 671 on defense.
- Atop The Rushing List. For a game, that is: TB Tony Jones led CU in rushing with 49 yards on 14 carries (two touchdowns) at Washington; that snapped a streak of 15 straight games where TB Rodney Stewart led the team (and 27 of 28 games). Stewart has led the team in 33 of the 40 games he has played in.
- Buff Baptisms. Through 10 games, 33 players have seen their first action as Buffaloes this season; that is a high for the most players getting their first taste of ball as a Buffalo in one single year over the last 28 seasons (dating back to 1984). Within that number are 25 freshmen (15 true/10 redshirt); the 15 true frosh are tied for the fifth most in the nation in 2011, and the most who have played for CU in a single season dating back to at least 1984. In only three other years since then has Colorado played double digit prep rookies: 11 in 2002 and 10 each in 1984 and 2000.
- Precision. QB Tyler Hansen has thrown just six interceptions in 319 attempts this season, an interception percentage of just .0188; that is flirting with the school record for a minimum of 250 passes (.020, 8 in 400, by Joel Klatt in 2005). Hansen's 16-to-6 touchdown-to-interception ratio right now stands to be one of the best in team history; Kordell Stewart's 10-to-3 ratio in 1994 is the best for player with at least 10 touchdown passes.
- Forcing The Issue. Sophomore DE Chidera Uzo-Diribe has three forced fumbles—that's the most at Colorado since CB Clyde Surrell had three in 2003.
- Terrel Smith's tackle for a safety against Oregon averted CU's first home shutout since Nov. 15, 1986 (a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma); the last time the Buffs did not score at least one touchdown at home was on Sept. 16, 2006 (a 21-3 loss to Arizona State); the last time the offense did not score at Folsom was on Oct. 30, 2004 (a 31-7 loss to Texas; CU's touchdown was on an interception return by Terrence Wheatley); the last time CU's only points in a game came on a safety was on Nov. 14, 1914 in a 6-2 loss to Colorado Mines in Denver (the only other game in CU's 1,158-game history its only points came via a safety).
- Audition/Got The Part. Freshman D.D. Goodson, ticketed for a redshirt year and practicing mainly on offense, "auditioned" for the defense for four snaps in 7-on-7 drills on Oct. 18 ahead of the Oregon game; he then moved there full time the next day. Thus, he had all of two full practices before seeing his first career action, which included starting against the No. 9 Ducks and playing 44 snaps (he had four tackles, three solo, and returned five kickoffs for 97 yards).
- Take The Week Off, Please. October was a basic nightmare for the Buffs, as injuries kept mounting and an overall record of 0-5, all Pac-12 games, saw CU outscored 224-74. Three of those five opponents, Washington State, Washington and Arizona State, all had a bye week before playing CU to compound matters.
- Two Months Of Taking Care Of The Football. The Buffaloes committed just seven turnovers (three fumbles, four interceptions) in the first eight games of the season, tied for the sixth fewest in the NCAA at the time. But disaster finally hit in game nine at Arizona State, when CU turned it over five times. While leading only to 10 ASU points, they did more damage in preventing the Buffs from scoring up to 21 points. CU did bounce back with zero against USC the next game.
- Double Duty. Through 10 games, a CU-record 40 players have earned at least one point in CU's special teams points system/competition (previous high was 35 in 2009). It is a grading program that was first implemented in 1987 that rewards players for a variety of accomplishments on special teams, from the standard tackles and caused fumbles to forced fair catches and knockdown blocks. ILB Derrick Webb had a season-high nine points against Oregon (four tackles, two inside-the-20, two forced fair catches and a knockdown), as has assumed the team lead and is pulling away with 24 points.

Honor Candidates

There are a few Colorado players worthy of consideration for national and conference honors as the season; for those of you who have votes in such, please consider the below players that the coaching staff thought were deserving:

✓ OG ETHAN ADKINS All-Pac-12 Candidate

Sr. / 6-4 / 290 / Castle Rock, Colo. He is grading out to a team-best 84.2 percent on the season (plus plays), with 17 GEB (great effort blocks); he has allowed just one quarterback sack and no pressures; his high game grade was 86.5 percent against Arizona State.

✓ OT DAVID BAKHTIARI Sophomore All-American / All-Pac 12 Candidate

Soph. / 6-4 / 295 / Burlingame, Calif. He saw only seven snaps from scrimmage in the season opener before going down with a knee sprain; he returned in the fourth game and is grading out second best among all the O-linemen at 84.1 percent. He has allowed just two sacks and two pressures while being flagged just one time for a penalty in 2011; he has 14 GEB (great effort blocks).

✓ QB TYLER HANSEN All-Pac 12 Candidate (Honorable mention)

Sr. / 6-1 / 215 / Murrietta, Calif. In a league full of great quarterbacks, he's quietly enjoyed a decent season. Owns a passer rating of 128.3, a touchdown-to-interception ratio of 16-to-6 (currently among the best in CU history), with just the six picks in 319 attempts (he had a streak of 131 without one come to an end earlier this year). Against California earlier this season, he set a school record with 474 passing yards and tied the total offense mark with 500.

✓ OG RYAN MILLER All-American Candidate / All Pac-12 Candidate

Sr. / 6-8 / 295 / Littleton, Colo. He is grading out at 82.2 percent on the season (plus plays), as he really has come on the last three games (all against ranked teams; he had his best single-game grade of 85.5 percent against USC); he has a team-best 28 GEB (great effort blocks); he has allowed just one quarterback sack, one pressure and has been called for only one penalty.

✓ FS RAY POLK All-Pac-12 Candidate

INJURED/EXPECTED TO RETURN / Jr. / 6-1 / 205 / Scottsdale, Ariz. In eight games (he missed the Oregon and USC games with concussion symptoms), he's racked up 60 tackles (433 solo), with five pass deflections, three third down stops, an interception and a team-high six touchdown saves as with his position, he's often helped cover for others.

✓ WR PAUL RICHARDSON Sophomore All-American / All-Pac 12 Candidate

Soph. / 6-1 / 175 / Gardena, Calif. He missed four October games with a severe knee sprain, but returned in November against USC. Prior to the injury, he had set the world on fire early, with 11 catches for a school record 284 yards against California, and is the team's second leading receiver with 31 for 492, a 15.9 average per catch. He has six catches of 20-plus yards, 19 of 10 or more, with 23 earning first downs.

✓ TB RODNEY STEWART All-Pac-12 Candidate DOAK WALKER AWARD CANDIDATE

(Sr. / 5-6 / 175 / Westerville, Ohio) He missed the better part of three games with a sprained knee, but remains one of the nation's top all-purpose performers. The first player in the nation in 2011 to accumulate 500 yard in both rushing and receiving (561, 502 through Nov. 5), he is averaging 165.5 yards per game (10th in the NCAA) and has five scrimmage plays of over 30 yards with 49 first downs earned. A true workhorse, he's averaging 23 touches a game in accounting for almost a third of CU's offense.

✓ DT WILL PERICAK All-Pac-12 Candidate

Jr. / 6-4 / 285 / Boulder He's been the stopper in the middle, with 49 tackles (29 solo), two tackles for loss, three tackles for zero, two third down stops and five hurries along with a blocked PAT—the first by a Buff in six seasons.

✓ PK WILL OLIVER Freshman All-American / Freshman All-Pac 12 Candidate

(Fr.) He won the placekicking job midway through August camp and has not disappointed. He has scored 51 points (22-22 PAT, 10-15 FG), just one shy of the CU freshman record and the fourth most kicking points by a freshman in the nation. He's the only frosh to make a field goal from 50 yards or longer (52 vs. California), and opened his career by making his first six attempts, second best in school annals. The average length of his nine makes: 38.6 yards.

✓ P DARRAGH O'NEILL Freshman All-American / Freshman All-Pac 12 Candidate

(Fr.) Playing in his first year of football on any level, he won the punting job early in fall camp and has been a steady performer. He has led all freshmen punters in the nation for most of the season, he is currently second averaging 43.0 yards for 61 punts (16 inside-the-20, only one touchback). He set school records for punts inside-the-20 (six) and inside-the-10 (four) against Oregon. He can kick with both legs, though all but four have been right-footed kicks.

HENDERSON BROACHING UNFAMILIAR TERRITORY FOR A TRUE DEFENSIVE FROSH

CB Greg Henderson, thrust into action from the get-go due to the depth in the secondary, is in position to go where no true freshman defensive player has gone—leading the team in snaps from scrimmage. He currently has played a team-high 634, assuming the top spot due to injuries elsewhere (ILB Jon Major is next with 556). He's already played the most snaps by a true frosh on defense since play counts started being tracked in 1984. A closer look at the latter:

Greg Henderson, CB (2011) ... 634	Terrel Smith, S (2010)..... 414	Deon Figures, CB (1988)..... 358	Alfred Williams, OLB (1987)..... 320
Jordan Dizon, ILB (2004) 597	Jashon Sykes, ILB (1998) 392	Kanavis McGhee, OLB (1987) ... 323	Ty Gregorak, ILB (1997)..... 316

ONE-TWO PUNCH IN THE FACE

CU lost a large chunk of its offensive production for four games when TB Rodney Stewart and WR Paul Richardson went out with knee injuries. Richardson was injured in practice (Oct. 5) and Stewart went down early at Washington; both returned for the USC game to open November. But at the time both were first out, the two had combined for 41 percent of CU's offensive yards and 38 percent of the overall yards).

IN-SEASON POSITION SWITCHES

- Freshman Stephane Nembot switched from defensive end to offensive tackles at the end of August camp; he now wears No. 77.
- Senior Jason Espinoza switched from wide receiver to cornerback the week of the Hawai'i game (Sept. 3); he is still in No. 15.
- Senior Brian Lockridge switched from tailback to cornerback after the Ohio State game (Sept. 27); he now wears No. 10.
- Freshman K.T. Tu'umalo moved from inside linebacker to defensive back (safety); he is still in No. 42.
- Junior Vince Ewing switched from safety to inside linebacker upon his return from a knee injury; he is still in No. 27.
- Junior Nick Kasa moved from defensive line to tight end (Oct. 26); he now wears No. 90.

COULD EVERY PLAY BE PRECIOUS?

The play counts in 2011 appear to be down; the Buffaloes have run 66 or fewer plays in seven of 10 games this fall and are averaging just 65.3 plays per game this season (and the opponent 66 or fewer four times and is averaging only 67.1). But carrying out a step further, three of the 10 games with the fewest combined plays since the end of the platoon era that the Buffaloes have participated in have occurred this season. A closer look:

NO REST FOR THE WEARY

Colorado and Tulane (13 games) and Central Michigan (12) are the only three schools in the FBS without a bye week in 2011. All but three of the other 117 schools have enjoyed their bye through last Saturday (November 12: Ball State, Indiana and Louisiana-Lafayette).

TRUE FRESHMEN PLAYING ALL OVER

Through the first 10 weeks of the season, 35 schools (or just under one-third of the FBS) have played 10 or more freshmen. Texas leads the way with 18, followed by Auburn (17), Army and Indiana (16) and then Colorado and Tennessee (15), tied for playing the fifth most. That number leads the Pac-12 Conference (Arizona, Cal and Oregon State are next from the Pac-12 with 10). Here's a nationwide look of true freshmen played through October 29:

Texas	18	Florida State	14	Virginia	12	South Carolina	11	Central Mich.	10	Oregon State	10
Auburn	17	Ohio State	14	Arkansas	11	Texas Tech	11	Georgia Tech	10	Rutgers	10
Army	16	Akron	13	Kentucky	11	Wyoming	11	Iowa	10	Tulane	10
Indiana	16	Clemson	13	Louisville	11	Arizona	10	Kent State	10	Washington St.	10
Colorado	15	Florida	13	Marshall	11	Boston College	10	Navy	10
Tennessee	15	Georgia	13	North Texas	11	California	10	North Carolina	10

GAINING EXPERIENCE ... THERE'S NO OTHER CHOICE

Colorado's two starting cornerbacks in 2010 were both drafted into the NFL — Jimmy Smith in the first round by Baltimore and Jalil Brown in the fourth by Kansas City — but with CU involved in many close games and often against passing teams, the two accounted for 1,571 out of 1,618 snaps. That means the backups played just 47 snaps in 12 games, or four snaps a game. Now, they got more than that appearing in different situations (nickel, safety), but just the 47 when lining up at corner. The most plays in a single game played at corner by a sub were 15 by Ayodeji Olatoye against Baylor when Smith was injured.

CB Greg Henderson played all 65 snaps at right cornerback in the opener at Hawai'i, just the second true freshman to play every snap in a season opener at any position in CU history; CB Travis Sandersfeld played all 65 snaps at left cornerback; thus, their combined 130 snaps were 83 more than the entire roster had at the position entering the season. Parker Orms started at corner against Cal, but when CU was in a five-back set, Orms shifted to the nickel position and Henderson played corner. Sandersfeld was injured in practice prior to the Colorado State game, Arthur Jaffee was injured in the CSU game, Paul Vigo pulled a hamstring in practice, and Orms had to leave the Ohio State game early with a leg injury. Then the suspensions hit. A timeline:

THE CU/CORNERBACK SHUFFLE

Nov. 26, 2010	Jimmy Smith, Jalil Brown	Final game of 2010 season at Nebraska; both drafted into NFL
April 9, 2011	Parker Orms, Arthur Jaffee	Depth chart at the end of spring
August 6, 2011	Jared Bell	One of the contenders to start, suffers torn ACL, out for season
August 10, 2011	Vince Ewing	Another contender, surgically repaired knee suffers inflammation and swelling
August 29, 2011	Jason Espinoza	Moves from wide receiver to cornerback
Sept. 3, 2011	Travis Sandersfeld, Greg Henderson	Starters; 2011 season opener
September	Arthur Jaffee, Paul Vigo	Injured at various times
Oct. 1, 2011	Jason Espinoza, Brian Lockridge	Espinoza sees first action (starts, plays all 76 snaps), Lockridge plays 15 snaps, 5 tackles/sack
Oct. 6, 2011	Josh Moten, Ayodeji Olatoye, Parker Orms, Paul Vigo	Four cornerbacks are suspended by Embree for not meeting team expectations (Moten reinstated Oct. 10)

OUT AT THE SAME TIME FOR THE WSU GAME: BELL, EWING, HAWKINS (family issue), JAFFEE, OLATOYE, ORMS, SANDERSFELD, VIGO

TALK ABOUT BEING DUE

Colorado has lost a school-record 22 consecutive road games (21 at campus sites, with the other at Jacksonville still considered to be a Florida State home game back in 2008). Five of the losses have been by a touchdown or less, and the string includes 16 straight league games on the road as well, also a school record. During this span, CU has played four other games away from Folsom Field, all at true neutral sites: the 2007 Independence Bowl versus Alabama (a 30-24 loss), and three win against Colorado State in Denver (38-17 in 2008, 24-3 in 2010 and 28-14 this year). A closer look at the streak:

THE VERTICAL GAME

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass
1994	76	37	39	1999	57	12	45	2004	48	13	35	2009	44	7	37

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts 10 games into the 2011 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career number will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ WR TONEY CLEMONS is 24th in receptions (74) and is 29th in receiving yards (895);
- ⇒ TE RYAN DEEHAN is 34th in receptions (58) and is 43rd in receiving yards (673);
- ⇒ QB TYLER HANSEN is fifth in passing yards (5,101), fourth in pass completions (451), fourth in passing attempts (779), seventh in touchdown passes (31), fifth in total offense (5,526) and is eighth in adjusted rushing yards by a quarterback (1,025);
- ⇒ TB BRIAN LOCKRIDGE is seventh in kickoff return yards (968), tied for eighth in returns (44) and 101st in rushing (412);
- ⇒ SS ANTHONY PERKINS is 51st in total tackles (219);
- ⇒ FS RAY POLK is 90th in total tackles (172);
- ⇒ TE PAUL RICHARDSON is 29th in receptions (65), 22nd in receiving yards (1,006), is tied for ninth in touchdown receptions (11) and is 63rd in scoring (80 points).
- ⇒ TB RODNEY STEWART is second in rushing yards (3,305), is first in rushing attempts (754), is 18th in receptions (82), is 28th in receiving yards (900, first by a RB), is second in yards from scrimmage (4,205), first in all-purpose yards (4,466), is 14th in rushing touchdowns (22) and is tied for 26th in scoring (132 points).

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2011

- 1 The number of turnovers CU had in its first three games, tied for the lowest total in the nation (and the fewest in CU history after three games).
- 2:53 The length of the Stanford and Washington games, tied for the 11th quickest played in by the Buffs since 1990.
- 6 The number of consecutive field goals PK Will Oliver made to open his career, second best in school history (record: 7) before one was blocked.
- 6 The number of punts inside-the-20 that P Darragh O'Neill had against Oregon to go with four inside-the-10, both school records.
- 10 The number of overtime games in Colorado history, as the loss to Cal was the first CU game extended into extra time since 2008 (WVU).
- 13 The number of players who have returned kickoffs for CU in 2011 (record is 14 in 1956, followed by 13 in 1949-1951-1953-1959 and now 2011).
- 17-17 Colorado was 2-of-2 in the red zone against CSU, thus is now 17-of-17 (11 TDs) when cracking the 20 in the last six season openers.
- 21 The number of first-time starters in 2011 for Colorado (13 offense/8 defense).
- 21-of-68 The opponents' combined efforts on third down inside-the-CU 20 (or 30.9 percent) in the last 34 games (dating to 2008).
- 22 The consecutive number of games that Colorado has lost on the road (does not include neutral sites).
- 25 The number of games played in less than three hours since 1990 (out of 265 games; includes three in 2011).
- 26 The number of head coaches in Colorado history with the hiring of Jon Embree on December 6 (24 full-time).
- 27.7 The average length of WR Toney Clemons nine career receiving TDs (44, 11, 4, 21, 37 and 10 this year, 73, 26 and 23 in 2010 for 249 total yards).
- 34.9 The third down efficiency of opponents against Colorado in the state's borders since the '09 opener (82-of-235).
- 38.6 The average length of the nine field goals freshman PK Will Oliver has made this season (386 total yards).

- 284 The number of receiving yards that WR Paul Richardson had against California, a school record and the third-most in Pac-12 history.
- 474 The number of passing yards that QB Tyler Hansen had against California, a school record.
- 3,351 The approximate number of air miles between Denver (DIA) and Honolulu, as CU played at Hawai'i for the first time since 1925.

THREE RANKED IN A ROW

Colorado played three straight ranked opponents for the 14th time in its history this season, though lost all three: No. 9 Oregon beat CU 45-2 on Oct. 22; No. 23 Arizona State topped the Buffs 48-14 in Tempe on Oct. 29; and No. 21 USC bested CU, 42-17 on Nov. 4. CU had last played three straight ranked teams in 2006; on one occasion, Colorado played four straight (in 1973) and one season where the Buffs did it twice (1994). CU has only been swept three times (2000, 2006, 2011) with one sweep (the first '94 run, which included the "Miracle in Michigan"). It was also the ninth time that Colorado lined up against four ranked teams in a five-game span when including No. 8 Stanford on Oct. 8.

FIELD POSITION STRUGGLES

Field position is one factor in CU's 1-9 record. Opponents are averaging their 33-yard line to begin their 119 drives, 18 of which have started in CU territory (compared to the Buffs starting at their 27, and just seven times in enemy territory). Minus three long scores, the opponent has run at least one play in Buff territory 78 of 116 drives (67 percent), gaining 45 percent of their yards on the CU side of the 50 with 88 points (11 TD/4 FG) on those 18 possessions begun in plus territory.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL STAT / 1971

Forty years ago, on Nov. 13, 1971, TB Charlie Davis had the greatest day a Colorado running back has ever had; in a 40-6 drubbing of Oklahoma State by No. 12 Colorado, Davis rushed 34 times for 342 yards and a touchdown (with two receptions for 11 more, giving him the single-game all-purpose mark that would stand until 1994). To move the ball this day, you had to be able to run it; the game time temperature was 48, with winds constantly at 30 but gusting to 55-to-60 miles an hour every few minutes (putting the wind chill at 32 degrees). Davis' only touchdown came on a 67-yard run in the second quarter, the play putting him above 1,000 yards for the year (23 years later, Rashaan Salaam, who broke Davis' all-purpose record with 362 at Texas, went over 2,000 yards on ... a 67-yard TD run). As time ran out, CU QB Ken Johnson was trying to get one more play to give Davis a chance at breaking the national record of 350 yards, set by Michigan State's Eric Allen.

DAVIS CARRY-BY-CARRY: 6, 3, 9, 15, 9, 19, 15, 0, 2, 10, 4, 8 | 3, 18, 67t, 4, 14 | (17-206 @ Half) | -4, 9, 5, 8, 1, 5, 1, 2 | 2, 24, 6, 1, 44, 1, 3, 24, 4 (34-342-1 TD)

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. ARIZONA

Colorado leads the all-time series with Arizona by a 12-1 count, reeling off a dozen straight wins in the series before the Wildcats finally broke through in the last meeting a quarter century ago; the Buffs lead by a 4-1 count in Boulder. The bulk of the games came in the 1950s, when the two schools met 10 times in an 11 year span between 1950 and 1960; CU won all 10 of those games, eight decided by two touchdowns or more.

- UA coach Tim Kish has never coached against the Buffaloes, while CU head coach Jon Embree is in his first season, but he's seen the Wildcats as an assistant at UCLA and played against them twice (his junior and senior seasons; in fact, his career long reception of 68 yards came against UA in 1986).
- UA defensive backs coach Ryan Walters is a 2008 CU graduate and four-year letterman; he is in his first year as a full-time coach after spending one season as a graduate assistant (he accompanied current CU defensive coordinator Greg Brown to UA when Brown left CU for the 2010 season to become co-defensive coordinator for the Wildcats).

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—In the 1958 game at Tucson, a 65-12 Colorado win, the Buffs set what is still the school's all-time rushing mark with 551 yards (on 66 carries, or 8.3 per). Ten Buffs contributed to the total: Chuck Weiss (15-159), Eddie Dove (13-130), Howard Cook (10-60), Leroy Clark (6-58), Don Maurer (7-44), Ray Engle (4-32), George Adams (6-25), Jerry Steffen (3-23), Dave Rife (1-22) and Jim Flowers (1-minus 2).

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 80th. The Buffaloes defeated Arizona, 27-7, in the school's first-ever meeting, which took place in Tucson on Thanksgiving Day, 1931 (Nov. 26). Unfortunately, there's no account of the game in CU's 1932 yearbook, other than a mention that the non-conference game ended CU's 5-3 season. It would be the final game in the 12-year coaching tenure of Myron Witham, who led Colorado to a 63-26-7 record during that time frame, still the third best record for any coach with three or more seasons at the reins of the CU program.

COLORADO-ARIZONA AT-A-GLANCE / SERIES TRENDS

Colorado leads the series, 12-1 (4-1 in Boulder, 8-0 in Tucson). A game-by-game look:

ARIZONA NOTES

Arizona is 2-7 overall and 1-6 in the Pac-12 this season. Interim coach Tim Kish took over mid-season for Mike Stoops, who was relieved of his duties after the Wildcats opened 1-5; Kish led ASU to a 48-12 win over UCLA in his first game. Behind NFL caliber senior QB Nick Foles, Arizona boats the No. 4 passing offense in the nation — and best in the Pac-12 — averaging 370.1 yards per game. Foles ranks fifth nationally in total offense with 350.3 yards per game and No. 24 in passing efficiency, No. 5 in the Pac 12, with a QB rating of 147.8. His favorite targets are Juron Criner, who ranks fifth in the Pac-12 and 30th nationally with 6.25 catches per game, while Gino Crump and David Douglas both average 5.11 receptions per game, both tied for sixth in the Pac-12 and 63rd nationally, meaning that duo all rank in the top seven of Pac-12 rankings. The Wildcats rank 112th in rushing offense at 94.7 yards per game but still maintain a top 20 ranking in total offense, No. 18 at 464.8 yards per game. On defense, the Wildcats rank No. 106 in total offense (452.2 yards per game), No. 74 in rushing defense (169.4), No. 112 in passing defense (282.8) and 106th in scoring defense at 37.4 points per game allowed. Foles ranks No. 2 in Arizona history in passing yards (8,937), touchdowns (61), pass attempts (1,248) and has the record for completions with 830.. He has 15 career 300-yard passing games, including seven in nine games this year (239 and 291 yards in the other two) and he has surpassed 400-yards twice this season. Criner also ranks high on the Arizona receiving charts, No. 4 in receptions (184) and receiving yards (2,510) and No. 2 in touchdowns (29). On defense, Paul Vassallo leads the way with 6.7 tackles per game including five for a loss and one sack. Shaquille Richardson leads the way with three interceptions on the season.

➔ Arizona interim coach Tim Kish is 1-2 in his first assignment as a head coach. He has 36 years of experience at the college level, including the last eight in Tucson, as he was Mike Stoops' linebackers coach. Arizona was his first assignment in the Pac-12, but he also has served as an assistant coach at Illinois, Northwestern, Ball State, Bowling Green, Ohio University and Army, as well as in the Ohio High School ranks. He has made his career on the defensive side of the ball, coaching that side all but one season, when he was the quarterbacks coach at 1982 at Ball State. He played defensive back at Otterbein College, graduating there and then earned his master's degree at Bowling Green.

➔ Arizona is 2-7 on the season, including a 1-6 mark in the Pac-12. The Wildcats are 2-3 at home and 0-4 on the road. They opened the season with a 41-10 win at home against Northern Arizona, then lost five straight, the first three of those to ranked opponents; No. 9 Oklahoma State, 37-14, No. 6 Stanford 37-14 and No. 6 Stanford 37-10. They opened October falling to USC, 48-41, before they entered the rankings, and then lost at Oregon State, 37-27. After firing Mike Stoops, they defeated UCLA, 48-12, and then lost at Washington, 42-31 two weeks ago and at home to Utah, 34-21, last week. After CU, they travel to Arizona State on Nov. 19 and then close the season out of conference hosting Louisiana-Lafayette, Nov. 26.

CU-ARIZONA BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia (or lack thereof) in the Colorado-Arizona series:

- No. 10 The highest national ranking of either team (Arizona in 1986) when the two have lined up across from each other;
- 8-5 Colorado's record against Arizona in men's basketball, with the last meeting in 2009 in the Maui Invitational (a 91-87 UA win in OT);
- 6-3 Colorado's record against Arizona in women's basketball, with the last meeting in 1991 (a 74-63 CU win in Boulder);
- 13 Number of games played between Colorado and Arizona in their football histories;
- 25 The number of years since the two schools last played on the gridiron;
- 63 The number of passes CU has completed in the 12 games since 1950 in the series (with a high of 9);
- 551 Colorado's rushing yards in the 1958 game, the school's single-game record to this day;
- 625 The number of miles between Boulder, Colorado, and Tucson, Arizona;
- 2,956 The difference in elevation (feet) between Boulder (5,345) and Tucson (2,389);
- 218,107 The combined square miles of both states (Arizona 114,007/Colorado 104,100), as the two rank sixth and eighth, respectively, among the 50 states.

THE LAST TIME: ARIZONA 24, COLORADO 21SEPTEMBER 27, 1986 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Alfred Jenkins found Jeff Fairholm cutting across the middle for a 67-yard catch-and-run touchdown to give No. 10 Arizona a come-from-behind 24-21 victory that sent Colorado to 0-4 for the season. CU has now lost the past three games by a combined eight points, while the Wildcats improve to 4-0 for the season.

The Buffs struck first as on their second offensive play of the game quarterback Mark Hatcher connected with tight end Jon Embree over the middle on a 68-yard completion that set up first-and-goal on the Arizona 6. The reception was the longest of Embree's career. On fourth-and-goal fullback Anthony Weatherspoon scored on a one-yard dive to give CU a 7-0 lead.

Following an Arizona field goal, CU took their first two-possession lead of the game early in the second quarter after Jenkins was intercepted by CU's Rodney Rogers who returned the theft 30 yards to the Arizona 6. On the next play freshman O.C. Oliver ran it in over the right side and Dave DeLine's extra point gave the Buffs a 14-3 lead.

CU led 14-6 at halftime after Arizona's Jeff Valdez nailed a career-long 50-yard field goal. On the Wildcats' first drive of the second half they scored their first touchdown as David Adams completed a seven-play, 66-yard drive with a touchdown run from the Colorado 3. Jenkins was sacked on the two-point conversion attempt by Darin Schubeck and CU retained the lead, 14-12.

Colorado answered right back on their ensuing possession as the Buffs drove 55 yards on only four plays to set up Oliver's second rushing touchdown of the game, this time from two yards out. The drive took only 52 seconds off the clock and once again put CU ahead by two possessions as they took a 21-12 lead.

Gary Coston, Arizona's short-distance kicker, made a 35-yarder to trim CU's lead to 21-15 heading into the final frame. The Buffs took over at their own 9 on their first drive of the fourth quarter, but after a pair of CU penalties wiped out two muffed punts by Arizona deep man Derek Hill, on the third punt attempt, this time from the 4, CU punter Barry Helton intentionally stepped out the back of the end zone for a safety, narrowing CU's lead to 21-17.

With 4:45 left in the game, Jenkins dealt the decisive blow as he hooked up with Fairholm for the 67-yard score that put Arizona ahead for good, 24-21. CU's final drive was doomed after Hatcher was hit and fumbled on a third-and-ten that resulted in a 22-yard loss. Helton would punt on fourth-and-32 and three Wildcat first downs allowed them to run out the clock.

Arizona outgained the Buffs 434-246 on the afternoon, and held onto the ball for 35 minutes. Hatcher threw for a career-high 134 yards and the Buffs committed only one turnover.

GAME NOTES

The loss to No. 10 Arizona dropped CU to 0-4 on the season going into conference play where the Buffs would go 6-1 to finish second in the Big Eight and earn a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl ... It was the third of three straight nail-biters, as the Buffs lost to Oregon (32-30), Ohio State (13-10) and Arizona by a combined eight points (with those games following a home loss to rival Colorado State to open the season) ... It completed a home-and-home series, as the Buffaloes won 14-13 in Tucson in 1985; this was Arizona's first win the overall series after Colorado had won the first 12 meetings ... The 68-yard pass play from QB Mark Hatcher to TE Jon Embree was the longest reception of Embree's career ... FS Rodney Rogers' interception of Alfred Jenkins' pass early in the second quarter snapped Jenkins' consecutive streak of 141 passes thrown without an interception; two short of tying the then-Pac-10 record of 143 set by USC's Paul McDonald in 1979 ... Coupling this game's attendance of 41,024 with the season opening crowd of 45,109 against Colorado State in 1986, it marked the first time since 1982 that the Buffs drew consecutive crowds of over 40,000 to Folsom Field.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 12

Michael J. Fox, a.k.a., Marty McFly returned to the future on this date in 1955 (Back to the Future, Part II), but CU fared better on his arrival date (Nov. 5) than on his departure, as the Buffaloes own a 5-12 record in games played on November 12. The Buffs were 3-5 on the date prior to World War II and are 2-7 on it since. Significant games on this date: 1904—CU drubs State Agricultural College (a.k.a., CSU), 46-0 in Boulder in what the yearbook simply termed, “a splendid performance.” 1938—The Buffs record a second straight shutout in whitewashing BYU, 8-0, in Boulder to pull to 3-3-1 on the season in the first year of the post-Byron White era. 1977—No. 3 Oklahoma deals the Buffs a 52-14 setback in Norman, building a 35-0 halftime lead as a virtual unknown named Billy Sims scores three touchdowns on just six touches. James Mayberry had 108 yards and a score to lead CU. 1988—A 7-0 loss at Nebraska has since turned out to be the last time the Buffs were shutout until 2008, a span that would reach 242 games. CU should certainly had scored if not won, as J.J. Flannigan, in the clear for a touchdown, dropped the ball at the Husker 20 when switching hands and the Buffs failed to punch it in even after recovering the fumble. Otherwise, CU’s scoring streak would be 23 games longer. Flannigan still had 133 yards on 27 carries. 1994—Colorado amassed 639 total yards, including 232 on the ground from eventual Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam, as CU built a 31-7 lead early in the second half en route to a 51-26 win at Kansas. Kordell Stewart threw for 202 yards, with Michael Westbrook hauling down six passes for 117 yards. 2005—In a game delayed by a tornado in the vicinity and with winds reminiscent of the Wizard of Oz, Iowa State used a pair of 66-yard defensive scores to defeat Colorado, 30-16, the first of three devastating losses that would mark the end of Gary Barnett’s tenure as head coach at Colorado. Somehow in all that wind, PK Mason Crosby made three field goals for CU, including a 57-yarder with the wind that some thought would have been good from 80; however, that was sandwiched by Steve Paris’ 66-yard fumble return and Brent Curvey’s interception return for the same distance with 1:31 left ended CU’s last scoring threat.

NOVEMBER 12 COLORADO MVP: TB Rashaan Salaam, 1994. In Colorado’s 51-26 win at Kansas, Salaam rushed for 232 yards and three touchdowns in just a little over three quarters of action in helping CU build a 44-14 lead. It was Salaam’s third 200-plus yard game of the season, and in the process, he set new single-season marks for rushing yards, touchdowns and overall points. He ended the game with 1,796 yards and would eclipse 2,000 the following week against Iowa State.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 24th most all-time (Iowa is 23rd with 297, Pittsburgh is 25th with 292). Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (111), trailing only Florida (123), Florida State (113) and Ohio State (112); LSU and Michigan have also played 111.

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 12TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 12th most in the nation in this time frame (22-plus seasons). Florida State has the most with 71, followed by Florida (68), Ohio State (64), Michigan (60), Miami, Fla. (56), Southern Cal (54), Alabama (53), Tennessee (52), LSU (51), Oklahoma (49), Texas (46), Colorado (43), Auburn (43), Penn State (43), Nebraska (42), Notre Dame (42) and Georgia (40); as for the Pac-12, after USC and CU, the next schools on the list are Washington (39), UCLA (38) and Oregon (37). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost eight straight against ranked teams (last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009); the Buffs have lost 18 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

TIME TIME TIME

Colorado had a monster drive to clinch the Colorado State win, using 10:03 off the clock in 16 plays en route to scoring the final points in the 28-14 win. It was the second longest drive time-wise in CU history: :

10:07—(21 plays, 99 yards) vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (TD)
10:03—(16 plays, 85 yards) vs. Colorado State in Denver, Sept. 17, 2011 (TD).
 9:54—(22 plays, 70 yards) vs. Kansas in Boulder, Nov. 23, 1985 (FG).

9:33—(19 plays, 97 yards) vs. Tennessee at Anaheim, Aug. 26, 1990 (TD).
 8:51—(18 plays, 96 yards) vs. Colorado State at Fort Collins, Sept. 7, 1996 (TD).

The 11:49 fourth quarter time of possession is not a record for a quarter; that mark is 13:14 versus Indiana in 1980.

AND SPEAKING OF TIME ... ZONES, THAT IS: Colorado has played in four different time zones this year (HST, MDT, EDT, PDT), doing so in the first six games. And in fact, for the first time since 1945, the Buffs will not play a game in the central time zone.

COLORADO MAKES MOVE TO PAC-12 CONFERENCE

To the surprise of many, in the wild conference realignment scenarios in the spring of 2010, Colorado was the first domino to fall when the Buffaloes officially accepted an invitation to join the Pacific-10 Conference on June 11. The CU Board of Regents voted 9-0 in favor of the move, which originally was scheduled to take place for the 2012-13 athletic season was accelerated a year ahead of time, also by a 9-0 board vote on Sept. 21, which ratified a Big proposal to withhold $6.8 million in revenue distribution from the school for its departure penalty. And despite some incredible fabrications by a current Big 12 school president, CU's leaving for the Pac-12 was not based on what any other league member was doing.

"This is an historic moment for the Conference, as the Pac-10 is poised for tremendous growth," said Commissioner Larry Scott. "The University of Colorado is a great fit for the Conference both academically and athletically and we are incredibly excited to welcome Colorado to the Pac-10."

Colorado played a vital role in the creation of the Big 12, something apparently forgotten by many in the South Division, both media and administration alike. CU chancellor Jim Corbridge and athletic director Bill Marolt were key participants, Marolt being one of the top AD's in the nation at the time, which was the spring and summer of 1994; the school received an invitation of December that same year to join the Pac-10, but the Regents voted 6-3 not to join on the advice of both Corbridge and Marolt because CU had played such a significant role in expanding the old Big 8 Conference to add the four Texas schools.

Marolt: "The Big 12 was created when CU was sitting in the chair of the Big 8. All of the decisions related to the conference and the television deals were done at meetings of all members of the 12 eventual schools. I was chair of the athletic directors and Jim was the same for the faculty reps. As you know the chair controls meetings and the agenda so both Jim and I were intimately involved. It's too bad Carl James is no longer alive because he would confirm our role and quiet the historical revisionists." In short, Texas and Oklahoma played no greater role than Colorado.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

Last Oct. 21, several announcements about the future of the now Pac-12 Conference were released, including divisions in football: CU joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California, UCLA and Utah in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of November 5 (2011 records in parenthesis):

PAC-12/BIG 12 ROLL CALL

Colorado's move from the Big 12 to Pac-12 wasn't a surprise to most; CU's demographics for years have shown that outside of Colorado, western states and in particular California, have supplied CU with the most students and have the most alumni. In the Fall 2010 enrollment numbers, after the state of Colorado's 16,964 undergraduates, California was second with 2,034 (unspecified came in third with 678, so both Colorado and California likely had a few more). The five Pac-12 states were represented by 2,457 total students (California 2,034; Washington 187; Arizona 143; Oregon 66; Utah 27), while the six Big 12 states sent just 832 to Boulder (Texas 564, Missouri 109, Kansas 65, Oklahoma 37, Iowa 35 and Nebraska 22). As for the living alumni numbers, there are 36,000 in the Pac-12 states (led by 23,500 in California), with 11,000 in the Big 12 states (topped by 6,373 in Texas); there are over 100,000 in Colorado.

PAC-12 INSTITUTIONS AMONG THE WORLD'S BEST, BUFFS WHERE THEY BELONG

The Center of World-Class Universities of Shanghai Jiao Tong University has recognized the academic excellence of Pac-12 member institutions in its 2011 Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU). Stanford, Cal and UCLA were three of the top 10 U.S. universities in the rankings, leaving the Pac-12 second only to the Ivy League, which had four in the top 10. Harvard was No. 1, followed by Stanford, MIT, California and Cambridge (England). Overall, nine Pac-12 schools were ranked in the top 100 schools worldwide, including Stanford (2), Cal (4), UCLA (12), Washington (16), Colorado (32), USC (46), Arizona State (78), Utah (79) and Arizona (80). As for CU's former conference, the Big 12? Texas (35) and soon-to-be in another conference, Texas A&M (100) were the only two in the top 100. So for those who claimed Colorado's academics didn't fit in with the Pac-12, they might want to do a little research.

COLORADO HAD THIRD LARGEST CROWD FOR SPRING GAME AMONG NEW PAC-12 BRETHREN

Colorado drew the second largest crowd for a spring game in its history on April 9, as 15,655 turned out to see new coach Jon Embree's first CU team. That crowd ranked as the third-highest among all Pac-12 schools, with Oregon's 43,468 in attendance for its game on April 30 the largest in conference history. The largest crowd that has witnessed a CU spring game was in 2008, when 17,800 came out in force. The numbers (Cal does not have a formal spring game in a stadium setting):

STEWART MAKING HIS MARK ... AND THEN SOME

Senior TB Rodney Stewart has been the featured runner in the Buffs' rushing attack, getting the bulk of the carries the last three seasons and again so far in 2011; an unheralded recruit who was in the same class as Darrell Scott, the nation's No. 1 ranked high school running back in the class of '08 (he has since transferred to South Florida), "Speedy" has already set several CU career marks and looks to become the first player to lead CU in rushing for four consecutive seasons. Some "Speedy" bumps:

- ◆ He had a career single-season best of 1,318 yards in 2010, 374 after contact; becoming the ninth player in CU history to lead the Buffaloes in rushing three seasons (the eighth to do it three in a row, and the fifth to do it with at least 600 yards all three seasons). He and Lamont Warren (1991-93) are the only two players to lead the team in rushing as a freshman, sophomore and junior (Warren left after the '93 season for the NFL).
- ◆ With 754 career carries, he broke Eric Bieniemy's all-time school mark of 699 in the Washington State game. He had 290 carries in 2010, 240 which gained yards (29 for no gain/21 for losses). The 290 carries were the second most in a CU single season (Rashaan Salaam had the most, 298, in 1994), with his 36 carries versus Iowa State the fifth most in a single game at CU (and the most in 12 seasons); he had 34 the next game (KSU), thus had 70 carries in back-to-back games, the third CU player to accomplish that two-game workload, joining Byron White (71 in 1937) and Tony Reed (71 in 1976).
 - ◆ He had 19 carries for 149 yards against Georgia, and was never thrown for a loss, the 43rd game in CU history where a player rushed for 140 or more yards without being tackled once for a loss (it tied for 34th on the list). The record is 259 yards by Rashaan Salaam versus Iowa State on Nov. 19, 1994.
- ◆ Stewart has 15 career 100-yard rushing games, now the second most in school history. Ahead of him, who else, but Eric Bieniemy (22). He came into the season tied for second with Chris Brown and Rashaan Salaam (all had 14). He, Bieniemy and Brown are the only three to have at least five in two different seasons. One of his came as a sophomore against Nebraska's vaunted rushing defense (110 yards; NU had allowed only 99 yards per game and less than three yards per carry).
- ◆ Season 100-Yard Games (Colorado): Eric Bieniemy 10 (1990), Rashaan Salaam 10 (1994), Chris Brown 9 (2002), James Mayberry 7 (1977), Bieniemy 7 (1988), Byron White 6 (1937), Charlie Davis 6 (1971), Tony Reed 6 (1976), Darian Hagan 6 (1989), Rodney Stewart 6 (2010), Brown 5 (2001), Bobby Purify 5 (2004), Stewart 5 (2009).
- ◆ And in the NCAA? — CAREER 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES (active players through Nov. 5): T1. Montel Harris, Sr., Boston College 22; T1. LaMichael James, Jr., Oregon 22; T3. Lance Dunbar, Sr., North Texas 20; T3. Bobby Rainey, Sr., Western Kentucky, 20; 5. Chris Polk, Jr., Washington 18; T6. Rodney Stewart, Sr., Colorado 15; T6. Bernard Pierce, Jr., Temple 15; T6. Zach Line, Jr., SMU 15; 8. Cyrus Gray, Sr., Texas A&M 14; T10. Denard Robinson, Jr., Michigan 13; T10. Ronnie Hillman, Soph., San Diego State 13; T10. Robert Turbin, Jr., Utah State 13; T10. Doug Martin, Sr., Boise State 13; T10. Alfred Morris, Sr., FAU 13; T15. Stepan Taylor, Jr., Stanford, 11; T15. David Wilson, Jr., Virginia Tech 11; T17. Trent Richardson, Jr., Alabama 10; T17. Robbie Rouse, Jr., Fresno State 10; T19. Bryce Beall, Sr., Houston 9; T19. Asher Clark, Jr., Air Force 9; T19. Johnathan Franklin, Sr., UCLA 9; T19. Rex Burkhead, Nebraska 9; T19. Michael Dyer, Auburn 9 (—Harris has a knee injury and is seeking a medical redshirt for the year).

◆ STEWART'S POSITION ON ACTIVE NCAA LISTS: Attempts: 754 (3rd) Yards: 3,305 (6th) Yards Per Game: 82.6 (15th)

- ◆ He became the 49th player in Colorado history to record at least 1,000 career rushing yards, and reached the number in his 14th game, and the 12th to reach the mark as a sophomore. He recorded the second most career yards by a player at CU entering his junior year with 1,426, trailing only Eric Bieniemy, CU's all-time leading rusher, who had 1,751 after two seasons; Stewart was just the 12th player at CU to reach 1,000 yards by his junior season.
- ◆ He had three multiple rushing TD games in 2009, the most since Chris Brown had six in 2002 (and five in '01).
- ◆ His 2,744 career yards were the second most to Rashaan Salaam (3,057) through a junior year at CU, and ranked as the most by a player entering his senior season since Salaam declared early for the NFL Draft after winning the Heisman Trophy in 1994.
- ◆ In 2010, he recorded 14th 1,000-yard season in CU history (done by 13 different players; Eric Bieniemy is the lone player to do it twice), the first to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark since Bobby Purify raced for 1,017 yards in 2004 (note: Hugh Charles surpassed 1,000 in 2007 counting the bowl game, but Colorado does not include bowl stats in season totals). His 1,318 yards in 2010 were the fifth highest single season total in CU history.
- ◆ With 561 yards rushing and 502 receiving, he is the only player in the nation to have 500 of both through games of November 5.
- ◆ Those 502 receiving yards in 2011 (eight games) are the 101st most in the nation for all players but third among running backs. Stewart's 76-yard reception at Stanford was the seventh longest by a running back in Colorado history.
- ◆ He is in the top two on several charts, and was in hot pursuit prior to his knee injury of CU's all-time rushing record of 3,940 yards, held by his position coach, Eric Bieniemy. A look at where Rodney ranks:

3,000-1,000 CLUB

Though sidetracked at the moment due to a sprained knee, Stewart is on the brink of becoming either the 27th or 28th player in FBS history to record 3,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving for a career. Two active players are within range; North Texas' Lance Dunbar just joined the club and Stewart can attain the honor with 167 more receiving yards upon his return to the lineup. A look at who's accomplished the feat (*—active):

HANSEN'S A 1,000-YARD RUSHER ... IF THIS WAS THE NFL

One of the most puzzling things is that the NCAA has always viewed a quarterback sack as a rushing play; one of the reasons long ago was that some stat crews couldn't differentiate between a run and a pass call for an option team. And of course, if the NFL does something, the NCAA tends to go the opposite (like counting postseason stats, not including sacks for zero, etc.; though the NFL could pick up a tip or two from the NCAA and count kneeldowns and spiked passes to stop the clock as team stats and not individual ones). But Colorado QB Tyler Hansen is the perfect example of why counting sacks as rushing losses is long overdue to be abolished: he gained 48 yards on two carries last Saturday, minus three for a sack for a net 45 yards; but those two carries pushed him over the 1,000-yard mark. NCAA-wise, he has 425 career yards, but if you subtract the sacks, he now has 1,028 yards rushing. A look at CU's most prolific running quarterbacks:

STREAKING... AND WE JINXED HIM

As soon as we put the below list together, we jinxed QB Tyler Hansen; he came up just shy of the school record for the most passes thrown without an interception when his 11th pass of the game was tipped and fell into the hands of a WSU defender. Still, the streak of 131 was impressive, Tyler has just two interceptions in 173 attempts this year and four in his last 278 throws (with 15 touchdowns in the same span). CU's top streaks without an interception:

139—Joel Klatt (five games, Oct. 15 to Nov. 12, 2005)
131—Tyler Hansen (four games, Sept. 3-Oct. 1, 2011)
 114—Cody Hawkins (four games, Oct. 9 to Nov. 6, 2010)
 104—Craig Ochs (four games, Oct. 14 to Nov. 4, 2000);

100—John Hessler (six games: Sept. 2 to Oct. 7, 1995);
 99—Darian Hagan (six games: Sept. 21 to Nov. 2, 1991)
 98—Kordell Stewart (1994)
 92—Sal Aunese (1988)

CU'S 130 WINS OVER BCS TEAMS RANKS 19TH

Looking inside the above numbers, Colorado's 130 wins over BCS teams rank as the 19th most nationally over the last 22-plus seasons (or since the start of the 1989 season). A closer look through games of November 5:

RICHARDSON MAKING HISTORY

WR Paul Richardson, officially the last member of the 2010 recruiting class when he joined the team just two days ahead of fall camp, just keeps making history in his short time in a CU uniform.

He was rapidly climbing the charts in receiving (receptions, yards, touchdowns; see charts later in these notes) until sidelined by a severe knee sprain he suffered in practice on Oct. 5; he missed four games and returned for USC game, but obviously was a little rusty and not totally 100 percent. He has set several records, including the most yards in game, and now has six career plays over 50 yards, five for touchdowns (62t, 60t, 55, 50t in 2010; 78t, 66t in 2011).

SOPHOMORE SEASON / 2011

- Against California, he tied the school record (again) for most receptions in a game with 11, with his 284 yards shattering the old mark of 222, first set almost 30 years ago to the day by WR Walter Stanley and then matched 15 years later/ago by WR Rae Carruth.

- Richardson has played just 18 games in a CU uniform, he already has 11 touchdown receptions, including four games with two TD catches; the latter already ranks as the third-most games with two, trailing only Rae Carruth and Derek McCoy, who had five two-TD games; Carruth and Richard Johnson are the only players with three in a game, each doing so once. As for the 11 touchdowns overall, he's already tied for the ninth-most in Buff annals.

FRESHMAN SEASON / 2010

- Against Hawai'i, he scored the first two-point conversion scored by a CU freshman since Sept. 30, 2000, when QB Craig Ochs ran one in against Kansas State; those are the only 2-point conversions scored by freshmen (true or redshirt) in CU history.
- Against Texas Tech, when he caught four passes for 79 yards (career highs), he became the first true freshman in CU history to have two touchdown receptions in the same game, and just the third frosh (true/redshirt) to do it, joining WR Michael Westbrook (1991 vs. Missouri) and TE Brody Heffner (1996 vs. Iowa State).
- Against Kansas, he set school records for most catches (11) and yards (141) by a freshman, true or redshirt, in CU history, and tied the mark he set with two TDs in a single game against Texas Tech. The 11 receptions also tied the school's overall mark for catches in a game previously done by five different players (a total of five times).
- He had six TD receptions on the season, a school record for the most receiving touchdowns by a true or redshirt freshman (Donnie Holmes had the old true frosh mark of three in 1979, Westbrook the redshirt mark of five in '91).
- His 514 receiving yards were the most by a freshman (true or redshirt) and he was the first freshman to have two 100-yard receiving games.

TWO TRUE FROSH KICKERS A CU FIRST & A NATIONAL RARITY

CU debuted with two true freshmen kickers in the 2011 season opener at Hawai'i, the first time in school history that two freshmen are handling the kicking specialist duties—Will Oliver at placekicker and Darragh O'Neill at punter. This is the first time in school history the Buffaloes have two true freshmen handling the kicking chores simultaneously at any point in the same season. North Carolina State is the only other school in the nation that as of now, also going with two freshmen kicking specialists (both are also true frosh for the Wolfpack). The CU frosh responded tremendously, especially since they started their careers in a hostile enemy stadium: Oliver made both PAT kicks and a 34-yard field goal, splitting the uprights on all three kicks, while O'Neill had seven punts for a 44.9 average, which included four inside-the-20 and two over 50 yards, including a long of 56 he booted from the CU 4-yard line. He is currently second in the NCAA among all freshman punters (with the minimum 3.6 kicks per game) through 10 games in 2011.

Previously, six players attempted placekicks for the Buffs as true freshmen: Tim Mangnall (1976), Tom Field (1979), Ken Culbertson (1986), Eric Hannah (1987), Mason Crosby (2003) and Justin Castor (2010); only Field and Crosby played in the opener. Field made 1-of-2 PATs and field goals of 30 and 51 yards in a 33-19 loss to Oregon in Boulder on Sept. 8, 1979 (known for Chuck Fairbanks' first game as CU head coach and the first college football game that aired on ESPN, though it was tape-delayed). Crosby made all six PAT kicks in a wild 42-35 win over Colorado State in Denver on Aug. 30, 2003. And only three other players in Colorado history have punted as true frosh, though none played in the season opener: Stan Koleski (1973), Lance Olander (1977) and Nick Pietsch (1996); Koleski was a 25-year old freshman, as he came to CU after six years in the U.S. Navy, Olander was a running back recruit who could also punt, and Pietsch was also a walk-on. OLIVER MAKES HISTORY FAST

PK Will Oliver is the only freshman who has hit from 50-plus in the first five weeks of the season; his 52-yarder against Cal was a CU freshman record and remains the longest in the nation to date by a freshman. Through November 5, that is still tied for the 14th longest in the nation and the third longest in the Pac-12 in 2011 (there have been 42 50-yard kicks made to date).

In just his second game, Oliver was named one of the three "Stars of the Week" by the Lou Groza Award, as he kicked four field goals and three extra points in CU's 36-33 overtime loss to California. He nailed a 32-yarder to send the game into overtime in the final minute, made a 22-yarder to account for CU's OT scoring, and in the first half, made good on a 52-yard kick that was the longest by a freshman in CU history. He was 6-of-6, the first player to make his first six field goals in a CU career in a single season (old mark was five by Mason Crosby in 2003). He missed out tying the record for the most consecutive made field goals to start a Buff career (7, by Jeremy Flores, over 2000-01); his seventh try was blocked by Washington State as the right side of the FG/PAT unit was overrun on the attempt. He bounced back to make two 48-yard efforts, however, and the average distance of his 10 makes has been 38.6 yards.

CU FRESHMAN SCORING

And don't look now, but Oliver has rapidly risen up the freshman scoring chart at Colorado. A look (*--redshirt freshman; all others true):

2011 SENIORS

There are 28 seniors on the Colorado team this fall (22 fifth-year, six fourth-year); here's a look at where they stand academically. Four have already graduated, and 13 more are on schedule to do so this December. The 2011 senior class (*—denotes fourth-year senior; TGD—targeted graduation date):

GRADUATION REVIEW

Through this past August, over the last decade (2002-11), CU has had 163 of its 184 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.6 percent (with two of the 21 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while four are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado.

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two will be travel partners, and most assume it won't be a cozy as the current five mates. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FLAGGED, BUT NOT ALONE

It's been widely documented that Colorado's had some penalties issues to open the season, but recently, the Buffs have settled down (32 flags in the last five games after 48 in the first five). CU is still 118th nationally in the number of flags (80, or 8.0 per game). But the Buffs aren't alone, at least when it comes to their new conference brethren, as nine of the 12 Pac-12 schools are in the bottom half of the nation, and six in the bottom 18 through games of November 5 (rank is by penalties per game):

Nat'l Rank	School	No.	Yards	Nat'l Rank	School	No.	Yards	Nat'l Rank	School	No.	Yards
45	USC	49	445	69	Washington	55	556	112	Arizona State	69	691
49	Utah	51	462	75	Washington State	57	571	113	Oregon	70	599
56	Stanford	52	463	103	California	66	627	118	Colorado	80	709
77	UCLA	58	523	107	Oregon State	68	635	119	Arizona	74	600

Colorado's had 47 penalties in the first half; 33 in the second.

HEAD COACH JON EMBREE

Jon Embree is in his first season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program (his first as a head coach on any level of football); the 24th full-time head coach in school history (26th overall) and just the third alum to ever take over the reins. He owns a record of 1-9 at Colorado. This is Embree's first head coaching job, but the list of head coaches he's worked under is most impressive: Bill McCartney (Colorado), Rick Neuheisel (CU), Gary Barnett (CU), Karl Dorrell (UCLA), Herm Edwards (Kansas City, NFL) and Mike Shanahan (Washington, NFL), not to mention the countless coordinators and assistant coaches he had worked closely with. A four-year letterman at tight end under McCartney at Colorado (1983-86), he was the Lee Willard Award winner as the team's most outstanding freshman in '83, and earned first-team All-Big 8 honors as a sophomore when he set single season school records for receptions (51) and yards (680). He then became the consummate team player his final two years, as after CU switched to the wishbone on offense, his primary role became that of a blocker. He played in two bowl games (1985 Freedom, 1986 Bluebonnet) and has coached as an assistant in 12 bowl games (9 CU, 3 UCLA). Embree's Essentials:

Longest winning streak: 1. Longest losing streak: 7.

- ◆ Embree, 46, has been a part of 189 Colorado Buffalo games with a 107-80-2 record: previously, he logged 121 as a full-time assistant coach (81-39-1), 12 as a volunteer coach (8-3-1) and 46 as a player (17-27; he missed the ninth and 10th games of his freshman season in 1983 with mono).
- ◆ The Third Alum. Embree is just Colorado's third head football coach and the first in nearly 50 years who also graduated from the school, as he earned his degree in Communication in 1988. The last was Bud Davis ('51), who coached for one season (1962) to steady the waters after the Sonny Grandelius era, with the only other, Harry Heller, also coaching just one year, leading CU to an 8-1 record in 1894; Heller was an 1885 graduate.
- ◆ In addition to the head coaches he learned from above, he also cited Chan Galey, who was Kansas City's offensive coordinator in 2008; he said he learned "how flexible you need to be. If players don't fit your scheme, you'd better find something to fit your players."
- ◆ Embree adorned the cover of this past June's Colorado Avid Golfer, posing for the photo with his former coach and mentor, Bill McCartney. The two had played golf together just one time prior to the shoot, which took place in April and includes an interview during a round of golf.
- ◆ Subconscious Tradition. Coaches develop their own signature "whistle blow" to signify that practice has ended and to call the team together to summarize things, make announcements, etc. Embree's consists of six tweets (the whistle kind), the first and last consisting of three notes before a pause with four short ones in the middle. It's the exact same one that McCartney used for 13 seasons at CU, but he didn't realize it until he was told that it matched Mac's, well, to the tweet. When McCartney was informed that Embree was using his whistle sonata, he just laughed, admitting that it was the same one that the late Bo Schembachler used when Mac was an assistant at Michigan. Mac said he didn't realize that he was using Bo's either until after he established it at CU: "It's distinct and stands out from regular whistle blows, so that's why I must have subconsciously started using it." And the same goes for Embree.
- ◆ Embree philosophy: "There are a million excuses of why you can't do something... find the one reason you can."
- ◆ Embree became just the fourth African-American head coach in Pac-12 Conference football history when he was named to the CU position (with Stanford's David Shaw the fifth when he was promoted a month later): Dennis Green was the first when he coached Stanford (1989-91), followed by Ty Willingham, also at Stanford (1995-2001), and then former Colorado assistant Karl Dorrell at UCLA (2003-07); Willingham also was the head coach at Washington (2004-08). Nationally, Embree is one of seven African-American head coaches among the 66 BCS schools and one of the 16 at the 120 Football Bowl Subdivision programs.
- ◆ After his professional career was cut short due to an elbow injury (he had Tommy John surgery), in the spring of 1991, he was ready job to accept a job in television: KCNC in Denver, where he had interned as a student, was working to place him in a smaller market with the eventual plan to return him to Colorado (as he says of what could have been, "This is Jon Embree reporting live from the pig races in Nowheresville."). But McCartney called and offered him a volunteer position to help coach the tight ends that spring, which was right after CU was the consensus '90 national champion. "He didn't ask me, he told me," Embree said. So he thought he'd try it out in the spring, and his very first day, he knew it was his calling. "At the end of the (first) day, Mac asked me, 'What do you think?' I told him I was all in, this is for me, I love it. What I didn't say to him is, 'I want your job.'" Fast-forward 20 years, he has exactly that.
- ◆ While at UCLA, Embree coached the wide receivers and one his players was Josh Roenicke ... the same Josh Roenicke who is now a relief pitcher with the Colorado Rockies. Roenicke walked on both the football and baseball teams at UCLA and his schedule permits him to attend the CU-CSU game.
- ◆ Embree's return to Boulder has it much easier for him to procure his favorite pizza: since the mid-1990s, he's had a pie named for him at Pasta Jay's just off the Pearl Street Mall. The "Pizza Embo" includes pesto, pepperoni and meatballs and sells for $11.99 (small), $13.99 (medium) and $15.99 (large). Jay, a huge Buffalo donor and fan, also has menu items for others in athletics at CU, including the "Cabral Pizza" (Alfredo sauce, capocollo and pineapple, for linebacker coach Brian Cabral), The "Hagan Option" named for CU's 1989-91 quarterback, Darian Hagan (three entrée items and sides), and the "Alfredo Williams" for CU's Hall of Fame linebacker Alfred Williams (chicken cutlet baked in Alfredo sauce, served over fettuccine).
- ◆ Embree is a voter in the Division I-A coaches poll coordinated by USA Today/ESPN; coaches are now selected by a random draw. CU's head coach had voted every season from 1987-2009, but Dan Hawkins was not selected last year. Thus, CU has a vote for the 24th year in the last 25.
- ◆ CONTRACT. Embree was officially named CU's 24th full-time head coach on Dec. 6, 2010, and signed a 5-year contract worth $3.7 million overall, not including incentives to coach the Buffaloes, with the contract dates officially running from March 1, 2011 through January 11, 2016.

PERHAPS A COLLEGE FOOTBALL FIRST?

There's no real way to research this, but Jon Embree might be the first collegiate head coach to face three schools who all appear on his first schedule that he selected his alma mater over. Back in January 1983, when Embree, along with a dozen other top prospects in Colorado, listened to the pitch from then CU-head coach Bill McCartney, he was one a dozen players who bought into McCartney's vision for the program. The high school All-American from Englewood's Cherry Creek High School then committed and signed with the Buffs, in the end selecting Colorado over Ohio State, Southern California and UCLA, all of whom are opponents on his first schedule as a head coach.

TRIVIA Who were the other Colorado high school seniors who signed along with Embree in that benchmark 1983 recruiting class? Here's the entire class that is credited with helping turn the Buff fortunes around by 1985: Dave DeLine (PK, Mullen), Jon Embree (TE, Cherry Creek), Jeff Glenn (OL, Pomona), Barry Helton (QB/P, Simla), Curt Koch (DL, Littleton), Eric McCarty (FB, Boulder), Ed Reinhardt (TE, Heritage), Sam Smith (TB, Aurora Hinkley), David Tate (WR/CB, Mullen), Rick Wheeler (QB, Cherry Creek) and Troy Wolf (WR/TE, Arvada). Two others walked on: Tom Gebhardt (CB, Boulder) and Mike Marquez (RB/CB, Pomona).

THE CLASS OF '11

This season, 22 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 11 of whom are first-time head coaches on the collegiate level (with Ohio State a late addition with the resignation of Jim Tressel). Here's a look at what coaches make up the "class of 2011" and their records through November 5 (*—denotes first college head coaching job):

WE'VE PUT THE BAND BACK TOGETHER...

When Jon Embree was hired last December as head coach and he eventually hired three former Buffaloes as assistant coaches, some reacted like that was a rarity in college football. After some research, that was anything but the case. Turns out, the other FBS schools in the state, Air Force and Colorado State, have five alumni on the 10-man staff, including their head coaches as well. In all, there are 18 alumni coaching their alma maters in 2011, with six schools that have half (5 of 10) of the full-time that are alums (led by Utah, which has six), along with 12 that have four or more alumni as full-time coaches, 19 with three or more (22 others have two on staff, and at least 21 have one, meaning over half of the FBS schools, or 62 of 120, have someone on staff who also played there). A look at FBS schools with alumni head coaches and/or with two or more assistants who are alums on staff:

School	Alumni Head Coach	Alumni Assistants (minimum of 2 to be listed if the head coach is not an alum)	Total Alums On F/T Staff

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Jon Embree wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Greg Brown, special teams coach J.D. Brookhart, linebacker coach Brian Cabral, receivers coach Bobby Kennedy, offensive line coach Steve Marshall and defensive line coach Mike Tuiasosopo. Offensive coordinator Eric Bieniemy, assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach Rip Scherer and defensive ends coach Kanavis McGhee are upstairs in the press box with grad assistants Jeff Smart and Matt Thurin (Bieniemy was on the field for the Hawai'i game but moved upstairs for the second game). Plays are sent in a variety of ways, mainly through signals or shuttled in from substituting players.

COORDINATOR ALUMS NOT SO COMMON, EITHER

As stated above, Jon Embree is just the third alum to be named head coach at Colorado; however, when it comes to coordinators, since the position came into vogue in the 1960s, no CU alum has ever served in the capacity until now. Eric Bieniemy, CU's all-time leading rusher with 3,940 yards in his career that spanned from 1987-90, was named offensive coordinator/running backs coach the same day Embree was hired – Dec. 6, 2010. He is just the second minority coach to serve in a coordinator capacity for CU, joining Karl Dorrell, who was the offensive coordinator under Rick Neuheisel from 1995-98.

Bieniemy philosophy (picked up in the NFL): "You either adapt or die. The dinosaurs couldn't figure it out, and look what happened to them."

PREVIOUS PAC-10 CONFERENCE TIES

CU's football staff does have a familiarity with the school's new conference, as seven members have had experience coaching in the league when it was known as the Pac-10. Jon Embree and Eric Bieniemy both served as assistant coaches under another former CU assistant, Karl Dorrell, at UCLA between from 2003-05; Greg Brown was at Arizona in 2010 and returned Boulder with Mike Tuiasosopo, who spent seven years with the Wildcats, while assistant head coach Rip Scherer also logged three years in Tucson from 1988-90; receivers coach Bobby Kennedy also spent a year at Arizona (2001) before spending the next two on the staff at Washington; and offensive line boss Steve Marshall coached the last two seasons at California and was at UCLA for one in 1996. And an eighth staffer, defensive technical intern Bert Watts, is a California alum who also worked two years as a grad assistant for the Bears.

NFL EXPERIENCE

Colorado's staff also has plenty of experience both playing and coaching in the National Football League, with 63 total seasons (38 coached, 25 played). Eight of the 10 coaches either played or coached in the NFL (two did both). Research by the Florida SID office indicates that the 63 combined NFL years by Colorado coaches ranks first among all 120 schools in the FBS, followed by Florida with 52 (36 coaching, 16 played). The Pac-12 led the way, with eight schools combining for 269 yards served in the NFL (the SEC was a distant second, six schools combining for 169). Here's a look at the 10 full-time staff members connections to "the league":

(Note: CU's Greg Brown ranks fourth in NFL coaching experience with 15 years, trailing Monte Kiffin, USC, 26; Dale Lindsey, NMSU, 20; and Charlie Weis, Florida, 16).

OLD-TIMER

Associate head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. Now in his 22nd season (315 games), he is the longest tenured assistant coach in Colorado all sports history. A closer look at the top eight in football:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Brian Cabral 22 (1990-current); 2. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 8. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58).

Cabral is tied for 10th on the list of active coaches for continuous full-time service at the same school in the nation; eighth among all assistant coaches. The entire national list:

CABRAL CELEBRATES 300TH GAME AS A BUFFALO, TURNS EYE TO ... 400?

Long-time linebacker coach Brian Cabral celebrated his 300th game as Colorado Buffalo in 2009, and did it in style in CU's thrilling 35-34 win over Texas A&M (he now has been involved in 325). He wore his famous trademark lava lava wrap in CU colors for the game (the Buffs are 6-3 when he dons the garb, which he did once in 2010—for CU's 29-27 win over Georgia; he won't wear more than once anymore, as he lost the last two times he wore it for the second time in the same year). After two weeks of speculation, he did wear it for CU's 2011 opener in his native Hawai'i; he referred to it all along as a game decision but didn't want to take any attention away from the new staff, who all urged him to wear it. He first donned a lava lava for CU's 51-43 win over Oregon in the 1998 Aloha Bowl, wearing a red and blue wrap to honor the family of the late Sal Auneis (CU's starting quarterback who passed away from stomach cancer in 1989). Then at the urging of then-head coach Dan Hawkins, Cabral debuted his personalized wrap with CU colors in 2007 against No. 3 Oklahoma; down 24-7, the Buffs rallied for a 27-24 win.

A former inside linebacker for the Buffs, he originally was a middle guard until suffering an elbow injury midway through his freshman year ('74) before switching to linebacker in a career that spanned 46 games from 1974-77. He has coached in 257 since joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1989. He had a 9-year career in the National Football League (1978-86) and then worked two years as GA for Purdue before making his way back to Boulder. Cabral finished his CU career as the Buffs' all-time leading tackler with 297; he is still tied for 16th on the all-time list. He has coached eight of the players who have passed him on the list: Matt Russell, Greg Biekert, Jordon Dizon, Ted Johnson, Chad Brown, Michael Jones, Thaddaeus Washington and Jashon Sykes, with a ninth, senior Jeff Smart, finishing just six behind his total with 291.

INAUGURATIONS

Colorado named Brian Cabral as interim head coach on November 9, the 25th to assume the role in CU's 121 years of intercollegiate football; when the Buffs beat Iowa State 34-14 in his debut, he became just the second coach to win his CU opener in the last 78 years. The only one to do so since Herbert Hoover was U.S. President was Rick Neuheisel, who saw his team defeat Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7, in 1995. Jon Embree was looking to join Neuheisel as the first full-time coach to claim a win in his debut as CU's field boss, but Hawai'i spoiled the party with a 34-17 win. Overall, Colorado coaches are 10-15-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look (*—denotes interim head coach):

FIRST PLAYS HAVE BEEN HO-HUM

Here's a look at what transpired on the first play on offense, defense and special teams for CU head coaches, dating back to 1959 when information is available. Amazingly, CU had never earned a first down offensively until 2005 (James Cox 16 pass to Evan Judge in the Champs Sports Bowl, Mike Hankwitz' debut), and then followed it up with its longest first play of the year ever in 2006 in Dan Hawkins' rookie game (Cox to Patrick Williams for 42 yards). CU has allowed just one first down defensively, and including special teams, three of the longest plays are kickoff returns of 19, 16 and 13 yards. A closer look:

Season	Coach	Opponent	Offense	Defense	Special Teams
1959	Sonny Grandelius	WASHINGTON	Gale Weidner incomplete pass	Sam Hurworth 1 run	(UW) Sam Hurworth 16 KOR to UW18

TRENDS1985-2011

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 190-132-4; in these 326 games spanning 26-plus seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

◆ with 400-plus yards total offense	108-23-2	◆ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	90-19-1
◆ with 500-plus yards total offense	52- 6-0	◆ when leading at halftime	152-25-2
◆ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	74-10-1	◆ when leading after three quarters (152-16-3 in last 171)	157-19-3
◆ when punting three or fewer times	67-20-1	◆ when scoring 24 or more points	156-29-2
◆ with zero turnovers (139-46-2 with two or fewer)	35-15-2	◆ when held to 13 points or less	3-49-0
◆ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	111-19-1	◆ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	14- 1-0
◆ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	97-14-1	◆ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	105-24-2

TRENDS II1989-2011

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings for the next 16 seasons, Colorado has posted an overall record at 162-113-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (279 games over 22-plus seasons, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	93-46-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	82- 5-1
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (47-6 with 500-plus)	94-23-2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	55- 2-1
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	106-10-1	➤ when rushing for 300-plus yards	31- 0-1
➤ when leading in possession time (54-75-1 when not)	108-38-3	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	36- 2-0
➤ when making 20-plus first downs	102-39-1	➤ when passing for 200-plus yards	87-58-2
➤ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	60- 9-1	➤ when passing for 300-plus yards (10-1-1 400-plus)	25-18-1
➤ when scoring first	100-32-1	➤ when passing for more yards than rushing	82-97-2
➤ with zero turnovers (122-70-2 with two or fewer)	29-15-2	➤ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	87-24-2
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	86-13-1	➤ when holding edge in field position	125-31-1
➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	81-14-1	➤ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	13- 1-0
➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	68-14-1	➤ when out-rushing the opponent	132-16-3
➤ when average field position is CU 30+ (26-3 40+)	116-47-2	➤ when owning the edge in return yards	117-41-2
➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	135-35-2

TRENDS IIIEMBREE ERA (2011)

Jon Embree took over the Buffalo program for the 2011 season (1-9 record); so it's obviously early but we'll chart his numbers in below categories:

Category		Category
➤ when scoring 20 or more points (0-6 when not)	1- 3	➤ when leading after three (0-8 trailing, 0-0 tied)	1- 1
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	0- 1	➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	1- 1
➤ when scoring 40 or more points	0- 0	➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards offense	1- 0
➤ when scoring 50 or more points	0- 0	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	0- 0
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	1- 0	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards (0-0 300-plus)	0- 0
➤ in games decided by 7 points or less	0- 2	➤ when rushing for more yards than passing	0- 0
➤ with two or fewer turnovers (1-3 with zero)	1- 8	➤ with a 100-yard rusher	0- 1
➤ when turnover margin was plus or even	1- 5	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	0- 0
➤ when scoring first (1-7 when not)	0- 2	➤ when passing for 200-plus yards	1- 7
➤ when leading at halftime	1- 1	➤ with 400-plus yards total offense	0- 2
➤ when trailing at halftime (0-0 when tied)	0- 8	➤ with 500-plus yards total offense (0-0 with 600-plus)	0-1

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 22-plus seasons. A closer look:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
162 WINS	266	402	+ 136	1,319	544	+775
EMBREE ERA (1 WIN)	0	1	+ 1	7	0	+ 7
113 LOSSES (& 4 TIES)	276	187	- 89	447	887	-440
EMBREE ERA (9 LOSSES)	12	8	- 4	23	35	- 12
22-SEASON TOTALS (279 Games)	542	589	+ 47	1,766	1,431	+335
EMBREE ERA (10 GAMES)	12	9	- 3	30	35	- 5

BYE ... IDLE ... OFF

Whatever your pleasure in calling a week off after the season has begun, Colorado is now 21-15 since 1985 right around the time bye weeks started to come into vogue (the only other season that featured an open weekend between 1967 and 1985 was in 1979). Only seven non-conference games had a break prior, including both West Virginia games in 2008 and 2009; CU has won all five home non-league games after bye in this time frame: Stanford (1990), Wisconsin (1994), Wyoming (1997), WVU (2008) and Georgia (2010); the two losses both came on the road, at Miami-Fla. (2005) and at West Virginia (2009).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. But two other streaks remain:

- CU has scored in 146 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986), and has scored in 140 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 283 games (all the way back to 1963).
- CU has been shutout just nine times in its last 512 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only five schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice, the last two), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 140 times in 225 tries, including 24 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the "two-minute offense" drill since 1988; that's 62 percent of the time including 3-of-6 this year: field goals versus Cal (end of regulation) and Washington State (first half); and a first half TD vs. CSU. However, the Buffs were 2-of-9 in the drill in 2010 (scoring first half TDs at Kansas and versus Kansas State); highlights last year (9-of-14) included the game winning score against Texas A&M (Cody Hawkins was 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 4-of-7 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. Thus, in the Dan Hawkins Era, CU was 25-of-43 in the drill (58.1 percent). One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 35 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 219 of 243 times, losing 21 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 25 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were to Washington State (led 27-17 early in the fourth), to California in Boulder this year (led 27-23 early in fourth) and to Kansas (45-17 with 11:04 to play) and Texas Tech (led 24-14 at start of the fourth quarter) last year. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 103 of its last 119 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—and 30 of the last 41. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 34 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came last year against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining) and in 2008 versus Iowa State (won 28-24 after trailing 24-13 with 9:14 left) and Eastern Washington (won 31-24 after being down 24-17). In 2007 CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

STARTING STREAKS

Through 10 games in 2011, DT Will Pericak has made the most consecutive starts on the team with 34; next in line are OG Ryan Miller (25) and OG Ethan Adkins (20). FS Ray Polk (17 straight) and TB Rodney Stewart (11) had their streaks end as they were injured for the Oregon game.

TWENTY-ONE MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2011

Five players made their first career starts in the season opener at Hawai'i: FB Evan Harrington, OT Jack Harris, CB Greg Henderson, C Daniel Munyer and NT Conrad Obi. Henderson became the first true freshman to start at cornerback in a season opener since Victor Scott in 1980, while Munyer was the first redshirt freshman to start at center since Andre Gurode in 1998 (who also started in the season opener), and just the third freshman to start a game at the position (Bryan Stoltzenberg started all 12 games in 1992 as a redshirt; no true CU frosh has ever started a game at center). Two others made their first ones in the next five games: California (OT Ryan Dannewitz, WR Tyler McCulloch); Colorado State (OT Alexander Lewis, OT Sione Tau); Ohio State (C Gus Handler, DE Tony Poremba); Washington State (OLB Juda Parker, TE Kyle Slavin) and Stanford (WR Keenan Canty, OLB David Goldberg). WR Logan Gray cracked the starters at Washington, DB D.D. Goodson, TB Tony Jones and S Kyle Washington started versus Oregon and QB Nick Hirschman and CB Josh Moten at Arizona State. Lewis became just the second true frosh to start a game at tackle (first at left tackle; the last was Ryan Miller in 2007). Henderson also became just the seventh true freshmen in CU history to have started from scrimmage in the opening game of the season; here are those who were thrown into the fray from play one from scrimmage: TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming); ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State) and CB Greg Henderson, 2011 (vs. Hawai'i). Add an eighth for the first play of the game/season on special teams (kickoff coverage team): PK Kevin Eberhart (kicked off vs. Colorado State in Denver).

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11), 2006 (24), 2007 (18), 2008 (15), 2009 (18), 2010 (21), 2011 (21).

33 HAVE SEEN FIRST CU ACTION

A total of 33 players have tasted their first action in a CU uniform this year; 16 in the opener and 17 since; it includes 25 freshmen (15 true, 10 redshirts). Here's the breakdown by class of those players who have seen their first CU action in 2011 (*—mainly special teams duty):

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2010, juniors and seniors made the most starts since 2005. In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen; that's when the current cycle of youth really started. A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

Season	G	SR	JR	SO	FR (RS-True)	UpperCl%	Fr-Pct.
1999	12	115	42	86	21 (20-1)	59.5	8.0

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009, with Auburn doing it again in 2010):

School	National Championships	Heisman Trophies	School	National Championships	Heisman Trophies

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its roster with players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (70 percent of the entire roster as of September 8—78 of 111 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 40, California 29, Texas 9, Hawai'i 5, Arizona 4, New Jersey 3, Ohio 3, North Carolina 2, Pennsylvania 2, Tennessee 2, Alabama 1, Florida 1, Georgia 1, Idaho 1, Illinois 1, Kansas 1, Louisiana 1, Missouri 1, Nevada 1 and New Mexico 1. That's 20 states total along with the District of Columbia (2) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

► AROUND THE WORLD: Four Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: OL Paulay Asiata (Auckland, New Zealand), DL Stephane Nembot (Douala, Cameroon), PK Darragh O'Neill (Cork, Ireland) and OL Sione Tau (Pago Pago, American Samoa). CB Ayodeji Olatoye is American-born, but both his parents were born in Nigeria, and grayshirt OL Alex Kelley, who will enroll in January, was born in Madrid, Spain, where his parents were working as missionaries.

MOST SENIORS SINCE 1987

There are 28 seniors suiting up for the final time as Buffaloes this fall—the most since 30 did so in the 1987 season. CU has had under 20 seniors each of the last four seasons after having 26 in 2006; the all time low was seven in 1995 (all of whom were invited to the Hula Bowl, likely the only time in college football history 100 percent of a school's senior class were in the same postseason all-star game). A look at the annual numbers:

1982—13	1985—16	1988—10	1991—13	1994—13	1997—22	2000—9	2003—21	2006—26	2009—16
1983—25	1986—9	1989—14	1992—11	1995—7	1998—13	2001—26	2004—11	2007—17	2010—16
1984—22	1987—30	1990—24	1993—19	1996—18	1999—22	2002—23	2005—20	2008—17	2011—28

★ In the program's most recent heyday, 1989-96, when CU sported the fourth best record in college football (78-15-4), the average number of seniors per team was 14.9. The 1989 team that went 11-0 boasted just 14 seniors, and that 1995 team, minus 10 NFL draft selections in the first 71 picks, went 10-2 with just the seven seniors.

FOUR NAMED 2011 CAPTAINS

Jon Embree announced the selection of four captains for his inaugural season as head coach of the University of Colorado, with the group consisting of three seniors and a junior. Seniors Tyler Hansen and Ryan Miller will serve as the offensive captains, while senior Anthony Perkins and junior Jon Major will have the honors as the defensive captains, as all four were selected in a vote by their teammates on August 18. "They were voted on by the players, and I think they made excellent choices for who the leaders of the team will be this year. There's no finer honor than having that kind of respect from your peers."

Embree also will select a fifth captain for each game, which he said will almost always be based on the previous week's special teams performances or for a special situation that would warrant a player being chosen.

👉 Hansen, who stands 6-1, 215 pounds and hails from Murrieta, Calif., is the first fourth-year quarterback to be named a CU captain since 1987, when Mark Hatcher was tapped by his peers. He joins only Mike Moschetti (1999), Joel Klatt (2004-05) and Cody Hawkins (2010) as quarterbacks who have been picked as season-long captains since Hatcher.

👉 Miller, a 6-8, 295 pound offensive guard who has received some preseason All-America mention, played at Littleton's Columbine High School and with his selection, makes it five in the last six years that an offensive lineman will serve as one CU's captains. He follows Nate Solder (OT, 2010), Daniel Sanders (C, 2008), Tyler Polumbus (OT, 2007) and the last guard to be named, Brian Daniels (2006).

👉 Perkins is a 5-10, 200-pound strong safety who prepped at Northglenn High School; the last safety to serve as a captain was Ryan Walters in 2008. They are the only two since Medford Moorer in 2003; Moorer is now an academic counselor for the Buffs. Perkins is at full-strength after missing the last half of the 2010 season after suffering a season-ending knee injury.

👉 Major, a 6-2, 230-pounder from Ponderosa High School in Parker, will be the first junior captain since Klatt was named for the first of two years in the role in 2004. Major also had his season last fall cut short with a knee injury and is back at 100 percent.

It's the first time as many as three Colorado high school performers are serving as team captains since 2004, when Klatt (Arvada), defensive tackle Matt McChesney (Niwot) and tailback Bobby Purify (Colorado Springs) earned the distinction.

CEFALO AWARDED LAST AVAILABLE SCHOLARSHIP

Embree also announced on August 19 that senior wide receiver Kyle Cefalo has been placed on scholarship, as he filled the last vacancy on the 85-man active scholarship list allowed all FBS schools by the NCAA. Cefalo transferred to Colorado in the spring of 2009 from Wenatchee Community College, where he attended one semester after originally signing out of high school with Oregon State on a baseball scholarship. But his career there was cut short due to an arm injury, so he turned to his next love, football. A teammate of Cody Hawkins at Bishop Kelly High School in Boise, he then decided to follow his friend to Boulder. He caught six passes for 35 yards as junior in 2010, playing in 11 games which included a start in the season opener against Colorado State. "Since I've been here from day one, Kyle has done it both on and off the field," Embree said. "He works hard and he is a great teammate. He'll be a great contributor for us and I'm happy for him and his family."

"When coach Embree told me, I was speechless at first, but I'm just really excited and happy," Cefalo said. "It's nice when four years of hard work can pay off and the coaches recognize that. It was totally out of the blue, coach called me up on stage in front of the whole team. I had no idea what he was going to do. Everybody was really excited, it was really cool to see all my teammates react like they did and give me hugs. It was a great moment."

COMEBACK BUFFS

Colorado has won only 22 games over the last five-plus seasons, but in nine of those games, the Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down, including three in 2010. The Buffaloes spotted Hawai'i a 10-0 halftime lead, but a strong third quarter, including two short TB Rodney Stewart touchdown runs, did UH in as the Buffaloes outscored the Warriors 31-3 in the second half. In the next game, CU took an early 14-3 lead against Georgia, but the Bulldogs responded with 21 straight points to go up 24-14; Colorado countered with a 15-3 run to rally and win, 29-27. Later in the year, the Buffs were down early 14-3 against Kansas State, but stormed back with 27 unanswered points and take control of the game. Eight have taken place in Boulder, with the ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State. A closer look:

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 122nd season of competition having played 1,157 games with an all-time record of 672-451-36. CU currently stands 21st on the all-time win list and is 25th in all-time winning percentage (.595; those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 121, with only USC having won more games (776) and USC, Washington and Arizona State the Pac-12 schools owning higher winning percentages than the Buffs. In Boulder, the Buffs are 296-150-10 in 86 seasons on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 31 occasions (and are 23-8 in games when this occurs). It's happened twice this year, both times with TB Rodney Stewart (175, 123) and WR Paul Richardson (141, 121) eclipsing 100 yards in back-to-back games against Kansas and Iowa State. It occurred nine times last decade, twice in 2009 (versus Texas A&M: TB Rodney Stewart 118 yards, WR Markques Simas 135; and against Nebraska: Stewart 110 yards, WR Scotty McKnight 114, Simas 108). The previous time was at Baylor in 2007 (TB High Charles 109 yards, and WR Josh Smith 103). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 159 of the 2011 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity is now 53,613, as school officials have removed 137 seats over the last few years from the fourth rows of the three Flatiron Club levels on the west side, all of which had obstructed views. The capacity had been listed as 53,750 since the east side stadium expansion in 2003. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 120 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older. Cal's was older, but it is undergoing a complete renovation this year.

THIS-N-THAT

Two members of the CU roster now have an interesting item on their resumes: WR Toney Clemons, who transferred from Michigan in 2009, can say that he played in three conferences (Big 10, Big 12, Pac-12), while WR Makiri Pugh can say that he practiced on teams in three (SEC, Big 12, Pac-12; he transferred to CU last year from Georgia and had to sit out the season, so he was ineligible to appear in a game) ... Summer Lovin': Fifteen of the 20 high school recruits in the '11 recruiting class took at least one summer school class in Boulder (as did six invited walk-ons) ... Non-League: CU hosted California on Sept. 10 in its home opener, but the game was not a Pac-12 conference game (it completed a previous home-and-home series between the two) ... Uniforms: The Buffaloes have returned to the uniforms of their most revered glory days (late 80s/early 90s), both home and road; they're not considered throwbacks, CU has returned to the look permanently.

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 89-62 in its last 151 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 77-29 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 70-34-1 in its last 105 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 531-251-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through 10 games in 2011, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 478 CU games in his career, including 214 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. In 2009, he was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution. Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 279 in a row on the coaching staff (three as the interim head coach); including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 325 CU games. Other dinosaurs: SID Dave Plati has worked 380 overall including the last 338 (dating to the '83 finale), while facilities man John Krueger has worked 317 in all (a string of 144 straight ended in 2008). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 28 seniors on its roster in 2011, including several professional prospects; last year, four Buffs were drafted into the NFL and it could be a similar number this year. History has proven that most, if not all, NFL teams pass through Boulder every season for a game or practice(s). Twenty teams have scouted CU games so far in 2011: Atlanta, Buffalo, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Green Bay, Houston, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Miami, Minnesota, New England, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Oakland, San Diego, San Francisco, Seattle, Tampa Bay, Tennessee and Washington. In 2010, all 32 teams sent scouts to either camp practices or games, and around half have already logged time in Boulder during camp; 533 scouts have attended Colorado games (home/road/neutral) dating back to 2000.

2011 NFL DRAFT

Colorado had four players selected in last April's NFL Draft, its most since four were also drafted in 2006. The list (position, player, team, round, overall pick):

OT	Nate Solder	New England	1st (17)	CB	Jalil Brown	Kansas City	4th (118)
CB	Jimmy Smith	Baltimore	1st (27)	WR	Scotty McKnight	New York Jets	7th (227)

The last time CU had three or more players drafted that all went into the same NFL conference was in 2000 (also all by AFC teams); the only other years were 1971 and 1988 (both all NFC). The last time a Buff offensive tackle was taken in the first round was in 1980, when Stan Brock went to New Orleans with the No. 12 pick; the only other first round O-tackle selected was Mark Koncar in 1974 (Green Bay, No. 23). The last CU cornerback to be drafted in round one was in 1993, when Thorpe Award winner Deon Figures was selected 23rd by Pittsburgh; the only other Buff corner taken in the first round was Mark Haynes, who went No. 8 to the New York Giants in 1980. Solder joined Byron White (No. 4, Pittsburgh, 1938), Bobby Anderson (No. 11, Denver, 1970) and Daniel Graham (No. 21, New England, 2002) as the fourth CU player to be a first round draft choice who played his high school and college football in the state of Colorado. Three of CU's four NFL draft selections are on teams that play the Broncos in Denver this year: McKnight (N.Y. Jets, Nov. 17), Solder (New England, Dec. 18) and Brown (Kansas City, Jan. 1).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 16 former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of November 6; there were 18 on the rosters at the end of the 2010 season (22 in 2009). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last 23 years of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th — though with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 when it was 19th. CU either led (five times) or was among the top four schools in the Big 12 Conference its entire time as a member of the league. Nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other three years). The active list (♣—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; i—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured status; club still owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

BY TEAM (12of 32)— Baltimore 2, Green Bay 2, Indianapolis 1, N.Y. Jets 1, Chicago 1, Houston 1, Kansas City 1, New England 1, New Orleans 1, St. Louis 1, Seattle 1, Tennessee 1.

CANADA & ELSEWHERE: Three former Buffs are making livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his eighth year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, TB Hugh Charles is in his fourth with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders, OG Edwin Harrison is in his second with the Calgary Stampeders and WR Travon Patterson his first with the Montreal Alouettes. DE Gabe Nyenhuis ('03) is with the San Jose Sabercats in the AFL.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the six who head prep programs: Dave Logan (Mullen), Mike Marquez (Northglenn), Bill Mondt (Eaton), Tom Tesone (Bishop Machebeuf), Ron Woolfork (Overland) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

➔ CU has had 257 players drafted into the NFL; that's 20th all-time, and fourth among Big 12 schools behind Oklahoma (339), Nebraska (331) and Texas (316); Notre Dame leads with 462, one more than second place USC. OU is fourth, NU sixth and UT ninth; Texas A&M is right being CU in 21st with 255.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 23 of 30 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

SANDERSFELD, GOLDBERG THE LATEST IN LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS TO RISE TO FIRST-TEAM

After the NCAA started reducing the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (30 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

Player	Pos	First Season	Letters	Notes
Willie Beebe	FB	1978	4L	Solid blocker who scored nine career touchdowns as a bruiser near the goal line
Kyle Rappold	NT	1985	3L	Known as the "trash compactor" for his stature, the Fort Lewis transfer clogged the run
Jeff Campbell	WR/KR	1986	4L	Earned scholarship second day of freshman camp; played five years in the NFL
Ken Culbertson	PK	1986	3L	Scored 98 points in CU's 11-0 run in '89 season, making 59-59 PAT and 11-17 FG
David Gibbs	CB	1986	4L	Solid corner and special teams performer, now coaching with NFL Kansas City Chiefs
Mark Henry	WR	1987	3L	Big play guy with 18 career catches for 416 yards, or 23.1 per catch
Robbie James	WR	1987	1L	Threw TD pass on third down FG fake at Oklahoma State to lead CU to 16-12 win in 1991
Charles Johnson	QB	1987	2L	Often subbed for an injured Darian Hagan, earning Orange Bowl MVP honors in '91 vs. Notre Dame
Chris O'Donnell	LB/SN	1987	4L	Solid as a rock at long snapper on special teams all four years
Keith Miller	FB	1992	2L	From tiny Ovid, Colo., he was a solid blocking back. Now an opera singer with the MET.
Ryan Black	SS	1993	4L	Led team in tackles as a junior in 1996 with 154 (78 solo)
Ryan Sutter	FS	1993	3L	CU's all-time special team points leader, led Buffs in tackles (170, 98 solo) in 1997
Neil Voskeritchian	PK	1993	2L	Won the starting placekicker job in 1994, finished career ninth in scoring at CU (161 points)
Nick Pietsch	P	1996	4L	Led CU in punting in 1997-98-99, finished with a career average of 39.9
Beau Williams	TE	1998	2L	Primarily a blocking tight end, played a big role on CU's 2001 Big 12 title team
D.J. Hackett	WR	2001	2L	Walked on after CS-Northridge dropped football; led CU in receiving in '03, four-year NFL veteran
Tom Hubbard	FS	2001	2L	Defensive MVP of the 2004 Houston Bowl with two interceptions
Evan Judge	WR	2001	4L	Caught 69 balls for 903 yards to finish in top 20 in receiving yards
John Torp	P	2001	3L	Finished second for the '05 ray Guy Award; set a school records with 205 punts, 65 inside the 20
Paul Creighton	TE	2002	4L	Also saw action at FB, he primarily was a
Greg Pace	SN	2002	4L	Took over all special team snapping chores early as a freshman and handled through senior year
Joel Klatt	QB	2003	3L	Former infielder in Padres organization went on to set 44 CU passing and total offense records
Cody Crawford	WR	2004	3L	Has cracked the school's all-time lists in catches and yards
Jeff Smart	ILB	2005	4L	Earned a scholarship 3 games into the 2007 season, first LB to do so under Cabral; second most tackles by a WO
Scotty McKnight	WR	2006	4L	First freshman wide receiver to ever lead CU in receiving (43-488, 4 TD), approaching top 10 in catches and yards
Aric Goodman	PK	2008	3L	In his first season, he was awarded a scholarship after making the game-winning FG versus West Virginia
Jason Espinoza	WR	2008	2L	Suffered two breaks to his collarbone in '08, playing briefly in-between; co-first team WR in '09
Keenan Stevens	C	2009	2L	Pressed into duty in the season opener due to injury, he soon became a fixture and started 10 games
Travis Sandersfeld	DB (N)	2010	3L	One of the CU's top perennial special teams performers, he emerged as the starting nickel back for 5 games in 2010
David Goldberg	DE	2011	2L	Coaches cited how hard he worked daily in practice and assumed a starting spot midway through his senior year

2011 TEAM MAKE-UP

The 111 players listed on the roster on September 8 broke down into 28 seniors, 11 juniors, 24 sophomores and 48 freshmen (including 12 redshirt frosh and two transfers). An expanded breakdown:

Lettermen Returning: 49 (21 offense, 25 defense, 3 specialists)

Lettermen Lost: 24 (13 offense, 9 defense, 2 specialists)

Starters Returning (16)—Offense 8: OG Ethan Adkins (20/11), OT David Bakhtiari (11/11), WR Toney Clemons (8/8), TE Ryan Deehan (18/7), QB Tyler Hansen (16/7), OG Ryan Miller (35/12), WR Paul Richardson (4/4), TB Rodney Stewart (17/9). Defense 8: DT Curtis Cunningham (24/12), DE Josh Hartigan (9/9), ILB Jon Major (7/7), DT Will Pericak (24/12), SS Anthony Perkins (18/5), FS Ray Polk (15/12), DB Travis Sandersfeld (5/5), SS Terrel Smith (6/6). [Career/2010 starts in parenthesis; calculated by those with six-plus starts in 2010 or by who played the majority of snaps at a position.]

Others Returning With Significant Starting Experience (6; min. 3 career starts)— OLB Tyler Ahles (4/2), TE Matt Bahr (14/3), WR Jason Espinoza (5/2), SS Patrick Mahnke (6/3), ILB Liloa Nobriga (5/5).

Specialists Lost (2)— PK Aric Goodman, SN Joe Silipo.

Scholarship Players (85)— Seniors 26, Juniors 10, Sophomores 18, Redshirt Freshmen 11, Freshmen 19.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 111 players on the 2011 roster (active and inactive, as of September 8) totaled 8,172 inches in height and weighed 24,970 collective pounds, or an average of 6-1½, 224 pounds per player. The 8,319 inches translate roughly into 681 feet or 227 yards, about the average distance of a par-three hole on the PGA Tour, while the weight of 24,970 pounds is roughly the equivalent of 3,000 gallons of water, or the equal to the amount of the water wasted in a calendar year by a leaky faucet that drips at the rate of one drip per second (okay, I had to look that up). Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position (Seniors)	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position (Seniors)	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Defensive Backs (4)	23	11	6-0	190	Quarterbacks (1)	6	1	6-3	220
Defensive Linemen (3)	14	7	6-3½	263	Special Teams Snappers (0)	3	1	6-1	232
Fullbacks (2)	3	2	6-0	228	Tailbacks (2)	6	2	5-8	183
Inside Linebackers (1)	6	3	6-1½	215	Tight Ends (2)	7	4	6-3¼	244
Kickers/Punters (1)	5	2	6-1½	189	Wide Receivers (4)	15	5	6-1	191
Offensive Linemen (6)	16	7	6-4½	294	Team (28)	111	49	6-1½	225
Outside Linebackers (2)	7	4	6-2	233

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 299-15-1 when scoring 30 or more points (the last loss the 36-33 OT setback to Cal), along with records of 211-5 with 35-plus points and 195-4 with 36-plus, 172-3 with 38-plus and 110-1 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009) and Kansas (52-45 this year). CU has played 1,159 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 102-71-3 in its last 175 league games, and has the 19th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 117 of its last 279 games, posting a 106-10-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 185 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 22-70-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. The last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ In the Hawkins Era (2006-10), CU averaged 5.5 per first down play in 2006, followed by 5.3 (2007), 4.4 (2008 and 2009) and 4.5 in 2010. Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2011, the Buffs have continued to struggle in the 4's, averaging 4.5 yards on first down through 10 games. Against CSU, the Buffs averaged 7.2 yards a crack on first down, their best since a 7.2 average against Nebraska in the 2008 finale, and also averaged a health 6.8 versus USC.
 - ➔ CU's been in second-and-long much too often in 2011; 105 times out of 213 second down plays, the Buffs have been faced with 2nd-and-10 or longer (50 percent of the time). CU has earned first downs on first down 48 times (compared to 78 by the opponent).
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 48 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 156 games (season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 69 scores by return in 205 games (62 regular season, seven bowl).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 15 times in the last 155 games (and 36 times in the last 228, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 36-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 70-62 in its last 132 games on grass, including a 43-34 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass.
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 92-47-3 in its last 142 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 59-34-3 mark in conference games. CU was 0-3 on the fake stuff in 2010 and is 0-3 thus far in 2011.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per). In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions, but jumped to 12.0 in 2006 (1,022 yards on the 85 conversions). In '07, as opponents had 838 yards on 60 makes (14.0 per), and just 130 on 113 misses (1.1). In '08, opponents had 643 yards on its' 66 makes (9.7 per), and just 78 on the 102 misses (0.8). In 2009, opponents had 913 yards on its' 58 makes (15.7 per), and just 15 on the 112 misses (0.1). In 2010, the foe had 66 makes, gaining 814 yards (12.3 per) conversion; it had 7 yards on the other 95 tries (0.07).
 - ➔ So far in '11, opponents have gained 876 yards on 60 makes (14.6 per), with eight touchdowns (that have averaged 18.0 yards per) and just 90 on the 61 misses (1.5).
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-1 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, losing for the first time against Cal this season (36-33 in OT). The previous last two occurrences of this were in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. In these 15 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 633-320, with only four games decided by less than 17 points (this year, a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ In 2009, one of the most all-time perplexing stats to never come across these pages showed that the Buff defense was likely to shut you down four times in five. But that fifth time was one of the reasons CU went 3-9: example—Missouri gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on its other 56. That was practically the case for every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent picked up 3,027 of its 4,356 yards on 142 plays, averaging 21.3 yards for those plays; the other 663 plays netted 1,329, or 2.00 per try; it all added up to 17.6 percent of opponent plays gaining 69 percent of the yardage.
 - ➔ As Lee Corso would say, in 2010, not so fast, my friend; CU allowed 50 plays over 20 yards, totaling 1,633 yards; basically 6.2 percent of the plays producing 34 percent of the yards.
 - ➔ In 2011, opponents have 62 plays of 20-plus yards that have collectively gained 1,823 yards (29.4 per); the other 609 have gained 2,649 (4.3).
- ➔ Colorado has had slow starts in nine of 10 games in 2011 (USC being the only exception); the Buffs are being outscored 118-20 in the first quarter (and 165-37 in the first 22:30, or quarter-in-a-half). Opponents have a hefty 1,482-523 edge in first quarter offense (and 1,921-738 in the first quarter-and-a-half).
- ➔ In 2011, opponents have started 37 drives inside or at their 20, but have 18 scores (15 TD/3 FG), or 115 points. By contrast, CU has 46 such drives (28 inside its 20), and just 11 scores (8 TD/3 FG), or 65 points.
- ➔ Considering CU's injury situation, the Buff defense has been outstanding on 3rd/4th-&1. Opponents are 12-of-20 (9-of-15 on third, 2-of-4 on fourth); in fact, they have a much better percentage on 3rd-&-2 or 3 (15-of-19).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-103 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09 (and 11 before Stanford and Andrew Luck did it). The CU offense is 9-of-102 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 650 of 944 quarters (69%). Those numbers include 24 of 36 quarters in 2011.

2011 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1891 (Nov. 26) After going 0-4 in its first season of intercollegiate football the previous year, and dropping the first four games in '91, Colorado earns its first-ever win in the sport with a 24-4 win on the road against the Colorado Springs Athletic Association.
- 1896 Colorado records its first undefeated season with a 5-0-0 mark, outscoring the five opponents 161-6.
- 1901 After a one-year absence, Fred Folsom returns for his second of three stints as CU head coach, piloting the Buffs to a 5-1-1 mark.
- 1906 Colorado posts perhaps its weirdest record in its football history: 2-3-4, the four ties all of the scoreless variety. CU scored just 28 points but allowed only 32.
- 1911 The 100th anniversary of the third of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. Colorado outscores the six opponents 88-5, allowing one field goal on defense and a safety for the only points.
- 1916 The first year of the post-Fred Folsom Era, as CU's legendary coach retired following the 1915 season; Bob Evans takes over but the Silver & Gold go 1-5-1.
- 1921 (Oct. 29) CU travels its furthest east for a football game, some 926 miles, but lose 35-0 at the University of Chicago, then a powerhouse in college football; the only longer trip at the time in program history was a 1915 game against Washington in Seattle, 999 miles from the CU campus. Trains took CU to both locales.
- 1926 CU opens the year with four straight home games, only done three times since (1937, 1943 and 1978 – in all of which the first five were at Folsom Field).
- 1931 (Nov. 26) Colorado defeats Arizona in Tucson, 27-7, on Thanksgiving, the last time (and of three total) Thanksgiving Day games CU has played out of the state.
- 1936 (Nov. 7) Byron White sets a school record by scoring 25 points (4 TD, 1 PAT) in a 31-7 win at Utah. White sets up his All-America season the following year by rushing for 643 yards with 1,339 all-purpose yards and 10 touchdowns.
- 1946 Jim Yeager reassumes head coaching position after serving in World War II for two years. An Oct. 12 win at Wyoming (20-0) was played in a blizzard.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado drills Nebraska in Lincoln, 36-14, in the program's first-ever televised game. Bill Stern (play-by-play) and Ray Michael (commentary) call the game, produced independently and aired regionally on NBC.
- 1956 (Nov. 4) After giving Oklahoma fits most of the decade, the Sooners roll into Boulder ranked No. 1 in the nation, CU's first-ever against the No. 1 team, and it appears the Buffaloes might finally break through. CU builds a 19-6 halftime lead, only to see OU rally with 21 second half points for a 27-19 win. The Buffs go on to finish 4-1-1 in the Big 7, earning the invitation to the Orange Bowl where CU beat Clemson, 27-21, for the first bowl win in school history.
- 1961 Colorado won its first Big 8 Conference championship, its first league title since 1942 (when it shared the Mountain States crown). The two biggest wins were a 20-19 win over Kansas (after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), and a 7-6 win over No. 10 Missouri. A 7-0 win at Nebraska remains to this day one of the school's all-time defensive gems: the Buffs held Nebraska to 31 total yards and zero first downs. CU reached No. 6 in the polls but lost to No. 4 LSU in the Orange Bowl, 25-7. Joe Romig is named an All-American for the second straight year and earns the Rhodes Scholarship.
- 1966 Colorado finished second in the Big 8 Conference race with a 5-2 mark (7-3 overall), the two league setbacks by a combined three points, 11-10 at Oklahoma State and 21-19 against Nebraska. After losing 24-3 to open the season at No. 20 Miami, the Buffaloes bounce back and win at No. 10 Baylor, 13-7, in a game where CU was on a mission to win after its black players were subject to racist taunts, including on a pregame radio show piped into the team lockerroom.
- 1971 Artificial surfacing makes its debut in Boulder on Sept. 18 versus Wyoming, as an AstroTurf carpet blanketed Folsom Field; fittingly, it snowed two feet that day and likely prevented cancellation of the game. CU's stunning road upsets of No. 9 Louisiana State and No. 6 Ohio State paved the way for a 10-2 season, as the Big 8 owned the top three spots in the final Associated Press poll after the bowls. With Nebraska (#1), Oklahoma (#2) and Colorado (#3), it was the first and to date only time in history one conference has occupied all top three positions at the end of the year. Charlie Davis rushes for a then-record 1,386 yards for the season, including a still-record 342 against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, while Cliff Branch returns an NCAA record four punts for touchdowns. CU caps its first 10-win season with a 29-17 win over No. 15 Houston in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.
- 1976 Colorado won its second Big 8 Conference title with a 5-2 league record; the Buffs were tied with Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, but CU earned the title via tiebreaker by virtue of its wins over the Sooners (42-31) and Cowboys (20-10). Nine players off the '76 team would be selected in the following spring's NFL Draft, including five in the second round in an 18-pick span between Nos. 35 and 52.
- 1981 The Buffs were 3-8, winning their season opener (45-27 over Texas Tech), homecoming (11-10 over Oklahoma State) and season finale (24-21 against Kansas State). Coach Chuck Fairbanks would resign the following June 1 to take a similar job with the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1986 Fresh off a season where CU won the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over a 1-10 record in 1984), the Buffaloes open up a disappointing 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined eight points. CU rallies to win its next five, including a 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska which many refer to as the "Turning Point" in the Coach Bill McCartney Era. That run set up a battle for first place in the Big 8 and the Orange Bowl berth that went with it against Oklahoma on Nov. 15. But the Sooners end the dream with a 28-0 win in Boulder, in a game where OU did not attempt a single pass.
- 1991 Colorado ties for a third straight Big 8 title with a 6-0-1 mark, as a Nov. 2 tie with Nebraska (19-19) ends a 19-game winning streak in conference play, dating back to the '88 finale. Lamont Warren rushes for 830 yards, to this day a single-season best by a CU freshman, and in one of the most daring personnel moves since the days of platoon football, coach Bill McCartney plays his starting quarterback, senior Darian Hagan, as the team's top punt returner so he can better showcase his talents for professional football.
- 1996 A 33-21 win over Washington gives CU a 10-2 record, its third consecutive 10-win season for the first time in school history. It was also the inaugural season of the Big 12 Conference, and Colorado won its first league game, 24-10, at Texas A&M in a game where the Buffs had the quickest score from scrimmage in their history: after Ryan Sutter recovered an A&M fumble on the opening kickoff, Rae Carruth scored on a 28-yard end around just 13 seconds into the game. Koy Detmer set a school record with 3,156 passing yards, and the 20-4 start over his first two seasons as a college coach by Rick Neuheisel ranks as one of the top 5 all-time in NCAA history.
- 2001 A Sept. 15 game at Washington State was cancelled due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the east coast. CU plays in its first Big 12 Championship game and wins the title with a 39-37 win over Texas in basically a road win at Irving; a 62-36 win over Nebraska the previous week gave the Buffs their first North Division title, as Chris Brown rushed for 198 yards and a school-record six touchdowns. Daniel Graham wins the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, and is named the school's sixth unanimous All-American. No. 2 Colorado plays in its first (and only) BCS game, but loses to No. 3 Oregon 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl.
- 2006 Dan Hawkins named 23rd full-time head coach at Colorado; PK Mason Crosby repeated as first-team All-American, as he was the first placekicker at CU to earn the honor even one time.

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2011 Record	Jon Embree Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-50-2	8-18-1	0-1	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-86-3	14-32-2	0-2	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-110-3	20-44-2	0-2	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-145-3	43-66-2	0-4	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7). Now in the Pac-12, the Buffaloes are now among similar company when it comes to scheduling, as the Big 12 had a reputation for usually going the cupcake route in non-conference play (sans Oklahoma).

CU FOOTBALL STILL SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2010 was 281,182, an average of 46,863 per game, marking the 16th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 34th time in the last 36 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (final numbers will be around 25,000 public and 37,000 overall when adding in student holders, as those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate).

WHO'S GONNA GET IT? PERICAK, THAT'S WHO

Against Cal, junior DT Will Pericak became the first Buffalo to block an extra point since James Garee batted one away against Clemson in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl. Overall, opponents had made 158 in a row (155 regular season), with the last miss coming on a wide kick by Baylor in 2007; but the enemy had tried 199 PAT kicks without a Buff breaking through to reject one. In general, opponents have been almost automatic when lining up for a placement kick against CU, also making 76-of-94 field goals (80.9%) since late in the '07 season.

SEASON TICKET UPDATE

It appears CU's move to the Pac-12 Conference was a grand success on the season ticket front: CU sold 24,471 tickets, some 4,833 more than last year's final count of 19,638. CU's move to the Pac-12 obviously along with the coaching change are the two biggest factors in what is now the third largest increase from one season to the next in the number of season tickets in CU history: the largest bump was 10,885 tickets from 1971 (17,104) to 1972 (27,989), followed by 6,963 from 1989 (19,368) to 1990 (26,331). But in both those instances, CU was coming off one of its best seasons in history, finishing No. 3 in the nation in '71 and the 11-0 regular season run and national championship ramifications in '89. Dating back to 1970 when data is available, CU has had a losing record and increased its season ticket numbers the following year just three times: in 1974 (29,260, or 1,264 more than in '73), in 2007 (21,203, or 753 up over '06) and in 2008 (22,603, a 1,400 increase over '07), with that 1,400 the previous highest gain after a losing season until this year's number has more than tripled it (and remember, the '07 team only had a losing record because of a 30-24 loss to Alabama in the Independence Bowl). So this is definitely new territory.

SINGLE GAME/STUDENT SALES ... Single game tickets went on public sale August 1 for all five of CU's home games and the Colorado State game in Denver, and sales for those were steady; less than 6,000 tickets remain for the Oregon and USC games. CU ticket manager Will Simpson also reported that 10,833 student season tickets were sold (out of a 12,000 allotment), and those are still on sale on a prorated basis through the WSU game.

GIMME FIVE

Senior OG Ryan Miller will letter for the fifth time this fall (all seniors automatically letter), thus he will join a very exclusive group at Colorado (and likely in college football in general). He missed the last eight games of the 2008 season with a broken fibula, but still played in four contests and more than enough plays to letter. He thus will be come just the ninth out of 1,892 lettermen to earn five letters in a CU uniform, the first since TB Bobby Purify earned his fifth in 2004; Purify had been the first to do it since 1908. He gained a fifth year after an ankle injury sidelined him for the bulk of the 2003 season.

- 64 The length of the pass from QB Kordell Stewart to WR Michael Westbrook (via WR Blake Anderson tip), known as "The Catch" at Michigan.
- 66 The number of wins Colorado has over teams ranked in the Associated Press weekly polls (23rd most all-time; 43 since 1989, 12th most).
- 67 The length of TB Charlie Davis' TD run against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, 1971, one that put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season.
- 67 The length of TB Rashaan Salaam's TD run against Iowa State on Nov. 19, 1994, one that put him over the 2,000-yard mark for the season.
- 72 The number of yards that 64-yard pass was in the air, thrown from the CU 32 to four yards deep in the end zone to rally CU to a 27-26 win.
- 78-15-4 Colorado's record in games from 1989-96, the nation's fourth best overall record in the nation during that time frame.
- 93 The number of wins by Bill McCartney, CU's all-time winningest coach (93-55-5, 1982-94).
- 188 The number of national or regional regular season games CU has had on television since 1990, one of the top 10 figures in the nation.
- 198, 6 The number of rushing yards and touchdowns, respectively, by TB Chris Brown against Nebraska on Nov. 23, 2001 in CU's 62-36 win.
- 211-5 Colorado's all-time record in games when it has scored 35 or more points (299-15-1 with 30 or more points, with 110-1 with 43 or more).
- 215 The number of career receptions by CU's all-time reception leader, WR Scotty McKnight (2007-10).
- 222 The number of receiving yards by WR Walter Stanley (vs. Texas Tech, Sept. 12, 1981) and by WR Rae Carruth (at Missouri, Nov. 2, 1996), as the two share CU's single-game receiving yards record.
- 225 The number of players from CU who have played in the National Football League, a top 20 figure nationally.
- 242 The number of consecutive games Colorado scored in between 1988 and 2008, the ninth-longest all-time in Division I football.
- 293 The number of times Colorado has been ranked in the Associated Press weekly poll (23rd most all-time).
- 296 The number of wins Colorado has at Folsom Field since it opened on Oct. 1, 1924 (296-146-10).
- 307 The number of career points by CU's all-time scoring leader, PK Mason Crosby (2003-06).
- 342 The number of rushing yards by TB Charlie Davis against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, 1971, CU's single-game rushing record.
- 362 The number of all-purpose yards by TB Rashaan Salaam at Texas on Oct. 1, 1994, CU's single-game record (317 rushing, 45 receiving).
- 465 The number of passing yards by QB Mike Moschetti against San Jose State on Sept. 11, 1999, CU's single-game passing record.
- 478 The number of games long-time announcer Larry Zimmer has called on the radio for the Buffaloes, the most by anyone in CU history.
- 493 The number of career tackles by CU's all-time leading tackler, ILB Barry Remington (1982-86).
- 533 The number of passing yards against Northeast Louisiana on Sept. 16, 1995, CU's single-game record.
- 551 The number of rushing yards at Arizona on Oct. 11, 1958, CU's single-game record.
- 672 The number of wins Colorado has in its history (17th most all-time).

- 7,770 The number of career yards by CU's all-time total offense leader, QB Kordell Stewart (1991-94).

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, Colorado is 54-31-1 in its last 86 November games (48-19 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month). The Buffs are 51-41-2 in their last 94 October games and 52-30 in their last 82 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays. CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Colorado State, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State and UCLA. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern Cal (6), Missouri and Texas (5), LSU and Ohio State (4) and then Arizona State, California, Florida State, Michigan State, Nebraska, Stanford and Washington (3 each).

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS

Colorado is looking at a different road when it comes to bowl games with it now being a member of the Pac-12 Conference, with a much more western flavor. Here's the conference's lineup for the 2011 bowl season:

- # 1 Rose Bowl (Jan. 2) and/or BCS National Championship (Jan. 9)
 # 2 Valero Alamo (Dec. 29 vs. Big 12)
 # 3 Bridgepoint Education Holiday (Dec. 28 vs. Big 12)
 # 4 Sun (Dec. 31 vs. ACC)

- # 5 Las Vegas (Dec. 22 vs. Mountain West)
 # 6 Kraft Fight Hunger (Dec. 31 vs. Army or At-Large)
 # 7 New Mexico Bowl (Dec. 17 vs. Mountain West)

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-5 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas this year, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 20 seasons, which is the 12th most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Ohio State (12), Oklahoma (10), Miami, Fla. (9), Nebraska (9), Texas (9), Florida (8) and Florida State (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2010 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 23 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of those 11 occasions, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 18 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 22 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2011: Ohio State 23, Florida State 22, Florida 20, Michigan 19, Nebraska 19, Oklahoma 19, Tennessee 19, Miami, Fla. 18, Penn State 18, Texas 18, Alabama 16, Auburn 16, Notre Dame 16, Georgia 15, LSU 15, Virginia Tech 15, Oregon 13, Colorado 12.

A LONG, LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). The 143 consecutive polls still ranks as the eighth longest all-time in college football history. In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-'98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

18 OUT OF 22

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, behind only Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. CU snapped that streak with a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007, and with the 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 and the 34-30 verdict over No. 17 Kansas in 2009, it's now 18 out of 22 years defeating at least one ranked program. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). The Buffs have defeated at least two in nine of the last 15 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 188 of its last 267 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (70 percent), including all 10 games thus far in 2011. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began and TV contracts changed, and not including pay-per-view, 151 of CU's 194 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, which is an impressive 78 percent. In addition, CU has had 40 of its last 46 non-conference games (87%) televised on a national or regional basis (36 of 42 was easily tops in the Big 12). ANNUAL TV APPEARANCES SINCE 1996 (142): 1996 (10), 1997 (10), 1998 (9), 1999 (9), 2000 (7), 2001 (10), 2002 (12), 2003 (7), 2004 (9), 2005 (10), 2006 (7), 2007 (11), 2008 (10), 2009 (11), 2010 (9), 2011 (10).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's last two annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom didn't happen, the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the third most attending in 2009. CU has now had five occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. The national average worked to 12,996 in 2008 and 14,407 in 2009. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming off an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history

OPPONENTS & 2011 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

Colorado is playing 13 regular season games for the second time in its history, joining the 2002 team that had a slate of 12 plus the Big 12 Championship game; CU would play a school-record 14 that season and finish with a 9-5 record. This year's 13 opponents year combined for a 98-67 (59.4%) record in 2010, with five teams winning 10-plus games and seven teams earning bowl invitations. CU will travel to Hawaii for the first time since 1925, will play California in a non-conference game to complete a home-and-home series, faces off against Colorado State in the newly renamed Sports Authority Field at Mile High in Denver, and plays Ohio State for the first time since 1986. CU's renews two dormant rivalries in league play, Arizona (last met in 1986) and Utah (the two last played in the 1962 season opener, but were all set to resume the series next year until both became Pac-12 members).

PAC-12 Championship Game, 6:20 p.m. (at campus TBA)

All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Pacific-12 Conference game (note: the California at Colorado game on Sept. 10 is a non-conference game to complete a previous home-and-home agreement). Television selections Sept. 24 and beyond are made on 12 days notice by the Pac-12 television partners (ESPN/ABC, Fox Sports Network, Versus, FX); ESPN/ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. In all, ESPN/ABC will televise 20 Pac-12 games during the 2011 season, with Fox Sports Net (which also sublicenses Pac-12 games to Versus and FX) rights to 24 Pac-12 games. ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Pac-12, ACC, Big East, Big 10 or Big 12). ESPN/ESPN 2 will utilize both Saturday afternoon (1:30 p.m. MT) and Saturday evening (8:15 p.m. MT) telecast windows; Thursday and Friday games carried by ESPN/ESPN 2 usually have a 7 p.m. MT start. ESPN/ABC has five dates with opponents TBD: Oct. 15 (8:15 p.m.), Nov. 5 (1:30 p.m.), Nov. 12 (assorted), Nov. 19 (1:30 p.m.) and Nov. 26 (1:30 p.m.). FSN provides national coverage via its lineup of 11 regional sports networks (RSNs) in the afternoon (1:30 p.m. MT) and evening (8:30 p.m. MT) windows, and on occasion may move a game into the prime-time window (4:30 p.m. or 5 p.m. MT). National cable networks Versus and FX usually utilize that same prime-time window (4:30 or 5 p.m. MT). Game inventory not used by the Pac-12 is returned to the institutions, which have the option to televise games locally if a window can be secured that doesn't conflict with exclusivity provided to ESPN/ABC and FSN.

GAME 1

HAWAII 34, COLORADO 17

SEPTEMBER 3, 2011

ALOHA STADIUM, HONOLULU

HONOLULU — Turns out, the big question of whether Colorado's rebuilt secondary could hold up to Hawai'i's passing game wasn't the biggest one for the Buffaloes.

Instead, as they prepared for Jon Embree's CU coaching debut, the Buffs should have been asking themselves this: Can UH quarterback Bryant Moniz beat us with his feet rather than his arm?

Moniz led the Warriors to a 34-17 win Saturday in Aloha Stadium and extending the Buffs' road losing streak to 18. Whereas last season Moniz threw for 330 yards and a touchdown with minus-5 yards on the ground, including sacks, this time he ran for 121 yards and 3 TDs and added 178 through the air and a fourth score.

A fumbled snap on the first play from scrimmage set an ugly tone for the first half, and the loss of left tackle David Bakhtiari on CU's seventh play of the game further disrupted the offense.

Trailing 17-0 at half, CU finally shook its offense awake and would pull to within seven early in the fourth quarter. But the Warriors, set on avenging last season's 31-13 loss in Boulder, put away their mainland visitors with a touchdown and a field goal in the game's final 6:17.

Tyler Hansen completed 16-of-30 for 223 yards and two scores, both impressive grabs by Paul Richardson; he was also intercepted once and sacked seven times for 44 yards in losses.

The Buffs were attempting a second-half rejuvenation like they fashioned last season in Boulder, when they trailed 10-0 at intermission. Colorado opened the half with a six-play, 73-yard drive that was highlighted by a Hansen-to-Rodney-Stewart run-and-catch on a screen for 52 yards to the Warriors' 15. On the very next play, Hansen hit Richardson for their first touchdown and after freshman Will Oliver's PAT — the first of his college career — the Buffs had pulled within 17-7.

UH promptly responded, returning the ensuing kickoff to the Buffs' 48-yard line. From there, Moniz needed 10 plays to score his third rushing TD of the game and pushed the Warriors ahead 24-7 with 5:53 left in the third quarter.

But two series later, the Buffs — primarily Hansen and Richardson with another assist from Stewart — made some more noise. After another successful Hansen-to-Stewart screen for 26 yards, Hansen and Richardson again teamed for a TD strike — this one covering 21 yards, and with Oliver's extra point, drawing CU to within 24-14 with 1:51 left in the third quarter.

On the first play of the Warriors' next possession, Chidera Uzo-Diribe blasted Moniz from the blind side, forcing a fumble that was recovered by Conrad Obi at the UH 34-yard line. CU moved to the 15 on a Hansen-to-Tyler McCulloch pass, but that's where the drive stalled and Oliver kicked a clutch 34-yard field goal on fourth down, pulling the Buffs within a touchdown at 24-17, only 9 seconds into the last quarter.

The Warriors pushed to the Buffs' 24, where on fourth-and-one Moniz sneaked over left guard for 2 yards and a monstrous first down. Two plays later the Buffs had what would prove to be their final shot when Travis Sandersfeld couldn't hold on to a potential interception in which he would've had a hefty lead in a sprint to tie the game at 24-24 going the other way. Instead, Moniz flipped an unlikely shovel pass to running back Joey Iosefa, who ran 22 yards for his first career TD and UH was up 31-17 with 6:17 left.

Now the Buffs needed something big but on fourth down, Hansen was intercepted by Art Laurel, giving the Warriors a first down at the Buffs' 11-yard line. Four plays later, Tyler Hadden kicked a 22-yard field goal, the game's final points to seal the 34-17 win for the Warriors.

GAME NOTES

CB Greg Henderson became just the seventh true freshmen in CU history to have started from scrimmage in the opening game of the season, and just the second cornerback to do so ... Since 1967, CU is 23-1 when scoring first in a season opener and 4-16-1 when the opponent scores first ... With 24 freshmen on the trip, several were scheduled to make their debuts; 11 did ... CU has now lost 18 straight road games (19 out-of-state), though this is only the second one that did not take place in the central/eastern time zones (other: at Cal in 2010) ... Longtime assistant coach Brian Cabral wore his trademark black and gold floral print lava lava ... QB Tyler Hansen had a string of 63 straight passes without an interception come to an end with a fourth quarter pick; he was sacked a career high seven times, the most since Texas A&M recorded eight against the Buffs in 2009 ... Hansen did become the 11th player to throw for 3,000 yards in a CU career, finishing the game with 3,045; he passed Gale Weidner (1959-61, 3,033) into 10th all-time on the overall list ... WR Paul Richardson had his third career two-TD reception game, tying him for the third most in school history ... In the last six season openers, the Buffaloes are perfect in scoring percentage inside-the-20, as they are 17-of-17 in the red zone (11 TDs, 6 FGs).

GAME 2CALIFORNIA 36, COLORADO 33 (OT)*SEPTEMBER 10, 2011*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — California quarterback Zach Maynard hit receiver Keenan Allen with a 5-yard touchdown pass in overtime Saturday at Folsom Field, giving the Bears a 36-33 victory over Colorado in the Buffs' home opener.

CU got a record setting passing performance from senior quarterback Tyler Hansen, who completed 28-of-49 passes for a school-record 474 yards and three touchdowns, while tying the mark for the most total offense with 500 yards. Two of the scoring tosses went to sophomore Paul Richardson, who finished with 11 catches for 282 yards — also a single-game school record.

The contest matched Pac-12 Conference teams did not count in the league standings as it completed a previously arranged home-and-home series. Cal remained unbeaten at 2-0, while CU fell to 0-2.

Freshman kicker Will Oliver was perfect on four field goal attempts, the first set up by a Jon Major interception that gave the Buffs a first down at their own 40-yard line. Six plays later, Oliver made his first kick, giving Colorado its only lead of the half.

After holding Cal to a three-and-out on the game's first series, CU used a methodical 13-play march and ended up at the Bears' 9-yard line. Facing fourth-and-one there, CU elected to go for the first down but Rodney Stewart was stuffed for no gain.

The Bears responded by driving 81 yards in 10 plays, and aided by a pair of CU pass interference penalties, scored on a 2-yard Maynard-to-Nico Dumont pass and after the PAT attempt was blocked by defensive tackle Will Pericak, the Bears led, 6-3.

Two series later, a 39-yard Georgio Tavecchio field goal pushed Cal ahead 9-3, but CU responded with an Oliver 52-yard kick — the longest field goal by a freshman in CU history — and pulled to 9-6 with 4:18 left before halftime.

That was enough time for the Bears to drive 62 yards in seven plays, scoring on a 7-yard Maynard-to-Anthony Miller pass to take a 16-6 lead just before intermission.

Opening the second half, Hansen immediately directed a 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive, hitting senior tight end Ryan Deehan with a 37-yard scoring pass on third-and-eight and cut the deficit to three at 16-13.

After CU's defense held, Cal returned the favor and then blocked a Darragh O'Neill punt that traveled just 15 yards and gave the Bears possession at the Buffs' 35-yard line. Four plays later, Maynard and Miller connected for a TD, the pass this time covering 20 yards to put the Bears back up 10 at, 23-13.

Hansen and Richardson then teamed up for a 66-yard scoring play to close the third quarter with Cal leading 23-20. Then to open the fourth quarter, the two teamed up again for a 78-yard score and the Buffs took their first lead since 3-0 at 27-23.

Cal responded quickly, driving 80 yards in 11 plays and scoring on a 19-yard burst up the middle by tailback C.J. Anderson to get its lead back at 30-27 with 9:55 left.

Later in the fourth, the Buffs got the ball back at their own 15-yard line with 7:10 to play. Hansen drove the Buffs into field goal range and with: 30 left, Oliver nailed a 32-yarder to tie the game at 30-30.

Cal won the coin toss to start overtime and chose to play defense as most always do; the Buffs looked good early in the possession earning a first-and-goal but settled for a 22-yard field goal from Oliver to take a 33-30 lead.

Cal earned a quick first down at the 15-yard line but then had consecutive penalties and found themselves at first-and-30 at the 35. A 32-yard pass from Maynard to Allen gave the Bears a first down inside the 5-yard line and then that same duo won it on a 5-yard pass play two plays later, giving Cal the 36-33 victory.

GAME NOTES

Colorado dropped to 5-5 in overtime games, 5-4 in single OT affairs and 3-3 when the opponent plays defense first ... CU's last OT game was on Sept. 18, 2008 in Boulder, a 17-14 win over No. 21 West Virginia ... Colorado went from allowing seven sacks in the season opener (on 37 called pass plays) to zero today on 50; the downside of that this marked the first time the Buffs have ever lost a game when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack; CU is 14-1 since 1972 in such situations ... CU had three sacks, giving the Buffs at least one in 32 of the last 33 games ... Colorado's 582 yards of offense was its first game with 500 since recording 518 against Nebraska in a 65-51 win on Nov. 23, 2007 and its most since Sept. 22, 2007 when it rolled up 634 against Miami-Ohio ... CU had 474 yards passing, its first 400-yard game since throwing for 401 against Texas A&M in Boulder on Oct. 8, 2005; it tied for the second most passing yards in CU history, matching the number against San Jose State in 1999 and behind only 533 against NE Louisiana in 1995 ... DT Will Pericak became the first player to block an extra point since DE James Garee batted one away against Clemson in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl (opponents had made 154 in a row, the last miss in 2007; but the enemy had tried 195 PAT kicks without a Buff breaking through to reject one.

GAME 3COLORADO 28, COLORADO STATE 14*SEPTEMBER 17, 2011*SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Senior quarterback Tyler Hansen marched CU on an 85-yard, 10:03 fourth-quarter drive, capping it with a 2-yard sneak to help push the Buffs past Colorado State 28-14 at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

The drive was second-longest time-wise in CU history, enabling the Buffs to win their first game in the CU coaching career of former Buffs tight end Jon Embree.

Senior Rodney Stewart nearly was a one-man show for CU, rushing 19 times for 98 yards and catching seven passes for 93, or 191 yards of total offense. Hansen completed 17-of-32 passes for 215 yards and was in on all four touchdowns, running for two and throwing the other two.

Stewart helped the Buffs to a season best 145 yards on the ground while holding the Rams to 67. CU limited CSU quarterback Pete Thomas to 18-of-28 passing for 157 yards.

CU had its third different starting lineup on the offensive line with Sione Tau, Alex Lewis and Ryan Dannewitz all splitting the duties at tackle. The Buffs were also short-handed in the secondary with Travis Sandersfeld out and shifted Parker Orms from nickel to corner alongside Greg Henderson.

CU led 14-7 at intermission, but it took a bounce-back second-quarter from the Buffs to establish that advantage. CSU took the opening kickoff and methodically marched 80 yards in nine plays to take a 7-0 lead on Thomas' first career rushing touchdown — a 4-yard scramble up the middle. The Buffs, meanwhile, managed just 10 yards of offense in the first quarter.

The Buffs were a different team in the next 15 minutes. After the teams traded punts to open the quarter, CU finally got untracked, fashioning a nine-play, 80-yard scoring drive of its own and getting the TD on a 2-yard option run left by Hansen.

After forcing a CSU punt, CU took over on its own 25 with 2:04 before intermission. Darragh O'Neill's punt was partially blocked by CSU's Joe McKay. But in the scramble that ensued about 15 yards downfield, the ball was inadvertently touched by CSU's Derek Good — and CU's Ryan Deehan was there to recover it.

The Buffs had a welcome reprieve at their 40-yard line, and Hansen quickly took them to the Rams 24. On third-and-10 there, with 19 seconds left in the half, Hansen scrambled right and found senior receiver Kyle Cefalo crossing the back of the end zone to accommodate his quarterback.

The 24-yard strike from Hansen was the first receiving TD of Cefalo's life and after Oliver's PAT gave the Buffs their first lead (14-7), 12 seconds later the half ended that way.

Offensively, the second quarter was a major turnaround for CU, which finished the half with 171 yards in total offense to CSU's 121.

After intermission, CU scored on its third possession of the third quarter. Hansen capped a five-play, 68-yard with a 44-yard TD pass to a wide open Toney Clemons. It was only the senior receiver's fourth reception of the season and first for a score.

After Oliver kicked the Buffs ahead 21-7, they were penalized 15 yards on the kickoff for the touchdown celebration, enabling the Rams to take over at their 36-yard line. Eight plays later — two plays into the fourth quarter — Thomas lateraled to Charles Lovett, who found tight end Crockett Gilmore alone on the left sideline.

The trick play covered 23 yards, and after DeLine's extra point, the Rams had pulled to within a touchdown (21-14) with 14:20 to play.

After trading punts, Hansen directed CU's ground- and time-consuming winning drive to put the game away.

GAME NOTES

Jon Embree recorded his first win as CU's head coach, as the third time proved to be the proverbial charm; he joined Dal Ward (1948, 19-6 over Nebraska), Eddie Crowder (1963; 21-7 at Kansas State) and Bill Mallory (1974; 24-21 vs. Wisconsin) to win their first game in their third try since World War II ... OC/RB Coach Eric Bieniemy presented Embree with the game ball in the lockerroom postgame ... No doubt 28-14 is a very common football score; but the last time CU won a game by this score was on Nov. 6, 1948, over Utah State in Boulder, some 63 years ago ... The 57,186 in attendance was the lowest of the 11 games in Denver; CU sold 37,914 of its allotment of about 38,300 tickets ... Colorado now leads the series with the Rams by a 61-20-2 count, including by a 7-4 margin in Denver ... CU has outscored the Rams 52-17 in the last two games, limiting CSU to 488 total yards (243 today) ... CU had four sacks today (including one for zero the school recognizes that the NCAA does not), giving CU at least one in 34 of its last 35 games ... WR Kyle Cefalo had his first career touchdown reception; the last time he scored a TD in a game was as a senior in high school in 2006 (Bishop Kelly in Boise), and it was by rushing. Cefalo confirmed that it was the first receiving TD in his life (in a game) ... OT Alexander Lewis made history, becoming just the second true freshman in CU history to start a game at offensive tackle; he the only other to do was playing on the same line — OG Ryan Miller, who started six games at right tackle in 2007; Lewis is the first to start at left tackle.

GAME 4OHIO STATE 37, COLORADO 17*SEPTEMBER 24, 2011*OHIO STADIUM, COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS — Behind yet another slow start for the Colorado Buffaloes, the Ohio State Buckeyes never let the Buffs recover and won, 37-17, at Ohio Stadium in front of 105,096.

CU fell to 1-3 and dropped its 19th straight road game (20th outside of Colorado), while Ohio State improved to 3-1.

After forcing the Buckeyes to punt on the game's opening series, the Buffs also went three-and-out. Whether called or done impromptu, CU's Darragh O'Neill attempted a left-footed rugby style punt that traveled 20 yards before it appeared to hit an Ohio State player, but no Buff made a move for it.

The Buckeyes took possession at the Buffs' 43-yard line and quickly used seven plays to take a 7-0 lead. Tailback Jordan Hall scored on a 1-yard run and pushed the Buckeyes in front 7-0. Hall finished with 84 yards rushing.

It was the first of seven possessions OSU would start inside Colorado territory in the game; in fact, the Buckeyes averaged starting at CU's 47 for its 12 drives and ran 44 of their 62 plays from a CU yardline.

On CU's next series, Hansen and Stewart botched a handoff and OSU tackle Adam Bellamy pounced on it at the Buffs' 22. The Buffs' defense held and a 28-yard field goal gave Ohio State a 10-0 lead that held up through the rest of the first quarter.

Midway through the second quarter, the Buckeyes pulled ahead 17-0 after Stewart signaled for a fair catch at his 5-yard line and put the Buffs offense in another precarious position.

Three plays later, O'Neill had to punt out of his end zone. Hall returned the punt 12 yards to the CU 46, and from there Miller capped a six-play scoring drive with a 32-yard TD pass to freshman Devin Smith, who got behind Buffs corner Ayodeji Olatoye.

CU showed its only offensive spark of the first half on the following possession, with Hansen driving the Buffs 83 yards and hitting receiver Toney Clemons with an 11-yard scoring pass. It was Clemons' second TD reception in as many games.

After Will Oliver's extra point, CU trailed by 10 (17-7) and appeared to possibly be finding itself. Then came Justin Castor's kickoff, which sailed out of bounds and gave Ohio State possession at its own 40. The Buffs defense looked like it had worked out of that jam, forcing the Buckeyes to punt.

But Stewart, signaling for a fair catch, had teammate Terrel Smith blocked into his leg, causing him to fumble; OSU recovered at the CU 10 with 15 seconds left in the half. After one play, Basil's 18-yard field goal gave OSU a 20-7 halftime lead.

CU started the second half as unsteadily as the first, getting whistled for holding on the kickoff and taking possession at its own 9-yard line. After punting, Hall carried five times and moved Ohio State to the CU 17. On Play No. 6, with the Buffs possibly expecting another dose of Hall, Miller and Smith hooked up for their second TD — this one a 17-yarder and CU was looking at a 27-7 deficit with 9:04 left in the third.

Hansen and his offense strung together a 60-yard drive, positioning Oliver for his sixth field goal of his freshman season — this one a 47-yarder that brought the Buffs to within 27-10. But CU's momentum was short-lived, as Hall returned the ensuing kickoff 90 yards to the Buffs' 5-yard line, and on the next play tailback Carlos Hyde scored, putting the Buckeyes up 34-10 at the end of three quarters.

OSU built on its lead as Basil booted a 47-yard field goal with 11:42 to play, increasing the Buckeyes' advantage to 37-10. The Buffs made one last attempt at it and scored on a 14-yard Hansen-to-Tyler McCulloch pass with 3:31 remaining, which proved to be the final points of the game, 37-17.

GAME NOTES

Ohioans and Columbus area products ILB Douglas Rippy and TB Rodney Stewart were added as captains for the game ... Ohio State won for the fourth straight time in the series to take a 4-1 edge over the Buffs ... CU dropped to 1-3 in the state of Ohio and 7-22 all-time in games played in the Eastern Time Zone, dropping its last nine; the last win was at Michigan in 1994 (yes, "The Catch"), 17 years ago to the day ... This was the third largest crowd (105,096) that a CU team has ever played before (the other two were 106,000+ at Michigan in 1997 and 1994) ... CU had three sacks, giving the Buffs at least one in 35 of their last 36 games ... Colorado has now lost 19 straight road games (20 straight out-of-state including one neutral site—the '07 Independence Bowl) ... The 16 rushing attempts by Colorado tied the second-fewest in school history; the Buffs had 14 against Iowa State in Boulder in 1992 and previously had 16 twice (the last in the 2004 Big 12 Championship game versus Oklahoma) ... WR Tyler McCulloch had his first career touchdown reception (14 yards from Tyler Hansen in the fourth quarter). It came on his fifth career catch ... OT Alexander Lewis has been practicing some at tight end and saw his first game action at the position (three snaps) ... CU came into the game one of just eight schools to have committed a single turnover in the first three weeks of the season, but that run ended on the fumbled exchange in the first quarter between Hansen and Stewart. The Buffs were gunning for three turnover-free games in a row for the first time ever; CU went 133:09 between turnovers.

GAME 5WASHINGTON STATE 31, COLORADO 27*OCTOBER 1, 2011*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Washington State quarterback Marshall Lobbestael had his favorite, and the nation's leading receiver, Marquess Wilson held under wraps until the pair connected on a 63-yard touchdown pass with 1:10 remaining in the game to rally the Cougars to a 31-27 win over host Colorado in the Buffaloes' Pac-12 Conference debut.

The Buffs appeared to have put the game away with a 78-yard scoring drive that gave them a 10-point lead (27-17) with 5:11 to play. But Lobbestael, who completed 32-of-49 passes for 376 yards, brought WSU back by throwing two of his three TD passes in the final 2:35.

The scoring pass to Wilson, who entered the game averaging 143 receiving yards per game, came after a mix-up in the injury-riddled CU secondary. Wilson almost stopped and then used his speed to get wide open behind freshman cornerback Greg Henderson and senior safety Anthony Perkins.

CU rediscovered its running game, but that timely find was futile. Rodney Stewart rushed 26 times for 132 yards, breaking the 100-yard barrier for the 15th time in his career. Buffs quarterback Tyler Hansen completed 15-of-23 passes for 175 yards and two TDs, with one interception.

The Buffs (1-4 overall, 0-1 Pac-12) led 13-10 at halftime on the strength of Will Oliver's 48-yard field goal on the final play. He also kicked a 48-yarder late in the first quarter for CU's first points and had an earlier 29-yard attempt blocked.

After the field goal block, WSU (3-1, 1-0) responded immediately, driving 81 yards in 15 plays. Carl Winston scored on a 2-yard run to put the Cougars up 7-0 with 3:57 left in the first quarter.

After Oliver's 48-yarder trimmed the deficit to 7-3, the Buffs stopped the Cougars on fourth-and-one at the CU 40. Hansen and his offense then took advantage of a pair of major penalties and cruised 56 yards for the Buffs' go-ahead touchdown — a 9-yard pass from Hansen to Paul Richardson.

Lobbestael and his group then capitalized on a rare Hansen interception — his pass was tipped by tight end Ryan Deehan and picked by safety Deonne Buchanan, who returned it 29 yards to the CU 38.

With 21 seconds left in the half, the Cougars had to settle for a 28-yard Furney field goal that tied the score (10-10). After a short kickoff returned to the CU 48 by Evan Harrington, Hansen and Deehan teamed for a 21-yard completion, bringing on Oliver with 5 seconds before intermission, where he gave the Buffs their 13-10 halftime lead.

To open the second half, Hansen engineered a nine-play, 79-yard drive. CU had first-and-goal at the WSU 8-yard line, and two plays later Hansen tossed another fade to the left corner — this time to Toney Clemons for a 4-yard score to give the Buffs a 10-point (20-10) cushion.

Lobbestael responded again and drove his team 80 yards in five minutes, completing the journey with an 11-yard scoring pass to fullback Jared Byers to pull WSU to within three (20-17).

That score held until the Buffs took over with 11:18 remaining in the game. CU drove 78 yards for the TD that gave them a 10-point lead at 27-17.

Lobbestael then engineered a 77-yard drive, capped with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Isaiah Barton to bring WSU back to within three points (27-24).

The Buffs did pick up one first down trying to run the final 2:30 off the clock, but then were forced to punt and pinned WSU at its 9-yard line. Lobbestael proved to be too much, completing 4-of-5 passes on the final drive, the last of which was the 63-yarder that proved to be the game winner.

The Buffs did have one final shot, but on the first play of their final drive, Richardson fumbled at the WSU 38 after Hansen hit him over the middle. It was the sophomore's first career fumble after 70 touches.

GAME NOTES

Colorado led for 37:45 of the game, just a few minutes under the time it held leads in the first four games combined ... Colorado now leads the series 4-3, but WSU leads 3-2 in Boulder ... Colorado is now 16-4 in games played on Parent's/Family Weekend and 12-4 at home since mid-1984 when losing by 20 or more points the previous week on the road (CU fell 37-17 at Ohio State last Saturday) ... Colorado dropped to 78-38-2 in conference openers (51-15-1 at home) and to 5-3 in "new" conference openers.

CU's three first half scores were a season-high (1 TD/2 FG); the 13 points were second to the CSU game where the Buffs led 14-7 at halftime ... Colorado ran 62 plays in the game, the fourth time in five the Buffs ran 66 or fewer (exception: 82 vs. Cal). CU is averaging just 64.6 offensive plays per game for the season ... TE Kyle Slavin started the game, which was also served as his first collegiate snap ... TB turned CB Brian Lockridge played his first game on defense, and the first stat he recorded was a 9-yard quarterback sack in the second quarter ... WR turned CB Jason Espinoza saw his first career action on defense and in fact, started the game at left cornerback.

GAME 6STANFORD 48, COLORADO 7*OCTOBER 8, 2011*STANFORD STADIUM, PALO ALTO

PALO ALTO, Calif. — Behind Heisman Trophy hopeful Andrew Luck's 370 yards passing and the Pac-12's top defense, No. 7 Stanford stormed past undermanned Colorado, 48-7, in CU's first conference road game as a member of the league.

Luck, who finished second in last season's Heisman voting, played barely over three quarters in completing 26-of-33 passes for the Cardinal (5-0, 2-0 Pac-12), three for touchdowns with one interception. The Buffs fall to 1-5 and 0-2, respectively.

CU's secondary has been ravaged by injuries and last week lost four players to indefinite suspensions. Also, the Buffs lined up Saturday without their top receiver, sophomore Paul Richardson, who is out with a knee injury suffered last week in practice. Redshirt freshman Keenan Canty took Richardson's place, making three catches for 23 yards.

The Buffs, who rushed for a season-high 161 yards last week, were limited to 60 by a Cardinal defense that entered the game yielding a league-low 62.2 yards per game.

CU starting quarterback Tyler Hansen was 15-of-29 for 202 yards and accounted for the Buffs' lone TD — a 5-yard shovel pass to tailback Tony Jones.

The Buffs trailed 27-7 at halftime, yet they got the start they wanted after linebacker Jon Major recovered the opening kickoff at the Stanford 36-yard line. CU drove to the 12 where the drive stalled and Will Oliver was summoned to attempt a 29-yard field goal attempt.

Inside linebacker Max Bergen burst through the Buffs O-line, blocked Oliver's attempt — it was his second blocked kick in as many weeks — and scooped up the ball, returning it 75 yards for a touchdown. Just like that, the Buffs trailed 7-0 instead of potentially having the lead.

After that, it was all Luck — every bit of it of the Andrew variety.

The Stanford senior didn't throw an incompleteness in the first quarter (6-for-6, 109 yards) and had his team up 13-0 by quarter's end. On the Cardinal's 78-yard scoring drive, Luck accounted for 72 of the yards on four completions, then handed off to tailback Stepfan Taylor for a 1-yard TD dive. The extra point attempt caromed off the right upright, but Stanford still led, 13-0.

The Buffs pulled to within 13-7 after Williamson sailed a 47-yard field goal attempt wide right early in the second quarter. Following his miss, CU capitalized on a 76-yard Hansen-to-Rodney Stewart screen pass to the Stanford 5, then Hansen and Jones connected on the short shovel pass for Jones' first career score.

Oliver's PAT pulled the Buffs to 13-7, and after safety-turned-corner Terrel Smith intercepted Luck on a deflection at the Buffs' 19-yard line, it appeared CU might still be in the fight. But it was short lived.

CU went three-and-out, and the Cardinal went 53 yards — converting a third-and-26 — with a 1-yard Jeremy Stewart TD dive and PAT kick giving Stanford a 20-7 lead.

By halftime, Luck had completed 14-of-18 passes for 219 yards, with a 1-yard TD toss to Ryan Hewitt that gave Stanford its 27-7 lead when first-half play ended. A potential beat-down was brewing, and on its first second-half possession the Cardinal worked toward making it happen.

Luck and Hewitt teamed for a 10-yard scoring completion and Williamson's PAT pushed Stanford comfortably ahead 34-7 with 11:03 left in the third quarter. Later in the third, tailback Tyler Gaffney capped an 84-yard drive with a 1-yard plunge to make it 41-7.

The fourth quarter began with Luck still throwing. Just under 4 minutes in, he teamed with Griff Whalen for a 30-yard score, 48-7, and then both teams surrendered to their second team players and the game ended with that score.

GAME NOTES

Bergen's blocked field goal return for a touchdown was the first ever in a Colorado game, either by a Buff or an opponent ... Stanford's first six rushes of the game all were for 2 yards or less (2, 1, 2, 0, 1, 2) ... Stanford's miss on a 47-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter was the opponents first miss in 2011 and snapped a streak of 16 straight field goals made by the opponent dating back to last year's Baylor game ... Stanford's conversion of a 3rd-&-26 in the second quarter snapped an 0-of-11 run on 3rd-&-20 or more by CU opponents, who are now just 5-of-102 in such situations dating back to 1993 ... Colorado had season lows in penalties (6) and penalty yards (47) ... Stanford's 553 total yards are the most in the series, topping the 551 that Colorado amassed here in the 1993 game ... WR Keenan Canty made his first career start, and on the play, caught his first career pass (5 yards from Tyler Hansen) ... QB Tyler Hansen moved into a tie for seventh in career touchdown passes (27), pulling even with Steve Vogel and Darian Hagan ... TB Rodney Stewart's 76-yard reception was the longest play of his career, and tied for the 27th longest pass play in CU history and was the seventh longest pass reception by a running back ... OLB Woodson Greer III saw his first career action, the 13th true freshman to play for CU in 2011.

GAME 7WASHINGTON 52, COLORADO 24*OCTOBER 15, 2011*HUSKY STADIUM, SEATTLE

SEATTLE — Jon Embree observed his 46th birthday here Saturday, but it was anything but a celebration for Colorado, who fell 52-24 to Washington, the Buffaloes' 21st consecutive road loss and fourth straight defeat this season.

UW won for the eighth time in nine games dating to last year and improved to 5-1 overall and remained unbeaten (3-0) in the Pac-12 Conference. CU, meanwhile, slipped to 1-6 overall and still winless (0-3) in its new league.

The Huskies scored on all six of their first-half possessions (five touchdowns, one field goal) to lead 38-10 by intermission. Their first-half point total was the schools most since scoring 45 against Oregon State in 1999.

None of UW's first-half touchdown drives — marches of 65, 74, 70, 70 and 56 yards — required more than 3:44 on the clock. The Huskies were denied the end zone only by the clock: Taking possession for a sixth time with 1:08 left before the half ended, they simply ran out of time and settled for a 41-yard Erik Folk field on the half's final play.

The banged up Buffs, who have allowed an average of 42 points in their current four game losing streak, and 550-plus yards in total offense in the past two, played most of Saturday's final three quarters minus leading rusher and receiver Rodney Stewart (sprained knee). Starting inside linebacker Doug Rippey (knee) also left early and starting jack linebacker Josh Hartigan (stinger) didn't dress for the game. Receiver Paul Richardson (knee) did not make the trip.

CU matched UW's 65-yard opening scoring drive with a 70-yard march to tie the score at 7-7 on Tyler Hansen's 5-yard TD pass to Kyle Cefalo and Will Oliver's PAT. It was the Buffs' first score on an opening drive this season.

That happened at the 9:42 mark of the first quarter — and from that point forward, the first half (and ultimately the afternoon) was under the Huskies' control. When Oliver kicked his 46-yard field goal — CU's only other first-half scoring — UW was comfortably ahead 21-10.

In the first half, the Huskies totaled 42 plays for 379 yards in total offense, including 230 passing by quarterback Keith Price. Aided by CU's depleted secondary, Price completed four of his 18 first-half completions (23 attempts) in the end zone.

UW tailback Chris Polk, the Pac-12's second-leading rusher, ran 18 times for 117 yards — five below his average. The Huskies totaled 562 yards in total offense, topping the 553 Stanford hung on the Buffs in their previous game. CU managed 269 yards in total offense with 62 rushing.

Finding a spark at intermission, the Buffs scored on their first series of the second half. Tailback Tony Jones' 2-yard plunge capped a 74-yard drive, and Oliver's extra point made the count 38-17. But two series later, UW matched it with a 26-yard TD run by Jesse Callier — the first of his career — that shot the Huskies' advantage back to 28 points (45-17).

When Price's departure brought on Nick Montana, the Buffs got an immediate break. On his first play, Montana fumbled after being sacked from the blind side by Chidera Udo-Diribe. Following defensive end David Goldberg's recovery at the UW 36, CU scored six plays later on a 1-yard Jones run off right tackle. Oliver's extra point kick made the score 45-24 with 13:34 remaining.

The Huskies punched it in one more time, their final TD coming on a 3-yard run by Bishop Sankey with 2:32 to play.

GAME NOTES

Washington moved ahead in the series, 6-5-1 ... CU sold 1,750 tickets to the game and counting player comps, moved 2,000 overall (this time in 2010 with a 3-1 team, CU moved under 300 for a game at Missouri) ... The Buffs scored on their first possession for the first time in 2011 (the first in nine games, since a field goal versus Iowa State last November) ... Washington's 209 yards in the first quarter was an opponent season-high for any quarter ... This was the highest scoring game in the series (76 points), eclipsing the 1989 game (a 45-28 CU win) ... UW had 562 yards after Stanford's 553 last week; the last time CU surrendered 500-plus yards in back-to-back games was in 1983 (three straight: Nebraska 609, Oklahoma State 524, Kansas 531) ... It was CU's 21st straight road loss ... TB Tony Jones scored his first career rushing touchdowns and had his career long run of 38 yards; he caught a career best seven passes for 49 yards and had 121 all-purpose yards filling in for TB Rodney Stewart after he left with a first half knee injury ... PK Will Oliver improved to 9-of-12 in field goals, including 5-of-6 from 40 or more yards; the average distance of those makes has been 39.6 yards ... DE Chidera Uzo-Diribe had a quarterback sack to give him a team best 4½; he forced a fumble on the play, his third on the year and the most by a Buff in a season since CB Clyde Surrell had three in 2003 ... Coach Jon Embree celebrated his 46th birthday on game day, falling to 3-3 in games played or coached on the day he entered the world.

GAME 8OREGON 45, COLORADO 2*OCTOBER 22, 2011*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Scoring on its first four possessions and rolling up 206 of its 371 yards rushing in the opening quarter, No. 9 Oregon overpowered Colorado 45-2, dropping the Buffaloes to 1-7 overall and 0-4 in their Pac-12 Conference debut season.

Oregon, improving to 6-1, 4-0, has won 16 consecutive Pac-12 games, including eight straight on the road. For what it was worth, Oregon's 45 points were 3.7 under its scoring average, and with 527 total yards, the Ducks finished 12 yards below their total offense average. But those below-average numbers were of little solace to the Buffs.

CU avoided being shut out on a safety when Oregon returner Cliff Harris, who attempted to return a Darragh O'Neill punt after running back into his own end zone. He was engulfed by Terrel Smith and Derrick Webb for the safety.

Due to new injuries, previous ones and suspensions in the secondary, CU's starting corners were senior Jonathan Hawkins and freshman Greg Henderson (a seven-game starter), with senior Anthony Perkins (seven-game starter) and freshman Kyle Washington (first career start) opening at safety.

Freshman D.D. Goodson got a crash course on defense and was the Buffs' starting nickel back. The injury bug in the secondary didn't stay away as both Goodson and Perkins were unable to finish the game. Perkins went down at 8:32 of the first quarter with an ankle injury and Goodson suffered a concussion. Perkins was replaced by K.T. Tu'umalo, normally a linebacker.

Just past the midway point of the second quarter, CU lost starting quarterback Tyler Hansen, who got up woozy after being hit in the head on a 9-yard run and was replaced on the Buffs' final series of the half by freshman Nick Hirschman.

In addition to the other freshmen who have filtered into CU's lineup, tailback Malcolm Creer was added to the list. He carried 11 times for 37 yards, with redshirt freshman Tony Jones CU's leading rusher (19 carries, 71 yards).

By the end of the first quarter, Oregon had scored on its first four possessions and led 29-0 after creasing CU for more than half of its final rushing total. Oregon's first-quarter scoring drives covered 80, 58, 87 and 80 yards, with the longest march requiring 2:11 and the shortest 50 seconds — that one featured an 84-yard TD sprint by De'Anthony Thomas. It tied for the third-longest run ever against CU.

Meanwhile, the Buffs crossed midfield three times in the first half, moving only as far as the Ducks' 36 on their deepest march.

The Ducks got their final first-half TD on a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Michael Clay, who picked off Hansen and scored to up the Oregon lead to 35-0 by halftime. Alejandro Maldonado missed the extra point, but that mistake already had been accounted for; the Ducks were successful on a two-point conversion run by Maldonado's holder, Jackson Rice, after their first TD.

The Buffs' anemic starts continued. The previous weekend, CU allowed Washington six scores on its first six drives (5 TDs/1 FG) and trailed 38-10 at halftime.

Hirschman, playing in just his second game, opened at quarterback for CU in the second half, but the Buffs went three-and-out. The Ducks answered with a six-play, 48-yard scoring drive and went up 42-0 only 3:09 into the third quarter.

Maldonado added a 36-yard field goal with 6:25 left in the third quarter (45-0), and just under 5 minutes later Harris' brain lock in the end zone put the Buffs on the board (45-2) and end the game's scoring.

GAME NOTES

The CU-Oregon series is now tied at 8-8 (CU leads 4-3 in Boulder, where UO has won the last two) ... Colorado is now 61-31-5 in 97 Homecoming games in its history ... The 43-point loss was CU's worst at home since a 55-10 setback to Missouri in 2007; it was the largest overall since a 52-7 loss at Cal lasty September ... Oregon's 293 yards in the first quarter was the second most ever against CU in a single quarter; Oklahoma had 312 in the third quarter On Oct. 4, 1980 ... Oregon gained 527 total yards, the third straight game CU has allowed 500 or more, the first time that has occurred since the 1983 season ... CU has also allowed over 30 points in five straight games for the first time since doing so six in a row in 2003 ... Oregon's 371 rushing yards were the most against the Buffs since Iowa State had 377 in Ames on Nov. 20, 1993 ... Kenyon Barner's 84-yard touchdown run tied for the third longest rushing play ever against Colorado (and the seventh from scrimmage) ... The last and only other time CU's only points in a game came on a safety was on Nov. 14, 1914 in a 6-2 loss to Colorado Mines in Denver ... FB Evan Harrington had his first career rush, picking up a first down on a 3rd-&-1 ... P Darragh O'Neill had a career high 12 punts (CU record is 14), with school records of six inside-the-20 and four inside-the-10 ... With two more true freshmen (TB Malcolm Creer and DB D.D. Goodson) seeing the field for the first time, Colorado has now played 15 true freshmen in 2011, the fifth most in the NCAA.

GAME 9ARIZONA STATE 48, COLORADO 14*OCTOBER 29, 2011*SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE

TEMPE, Ariz. — A 21-point first quarter was cushion enough to allow No. 23 Arizona State to hit cruise control and ultimately coast to a 48-14 victory here over Colorado at Sun Devil Stadium.

It was the 22nd consecutive road game for CU (1-8 overall, 0-5 Pac-12), while ASU improved to 6-2 and 4-1, strengthening its hold on the South Division lead.

ASU quarterback Brock Osweiler completed 18-of-28 passes for 307 yards and two touchdowns, with tailback Cameron Marshall adding 114 yards rushing and three TDs on his 15 carries. CU quarterback Tyler Hansen finished 23-of-36 for 321 yards and one TD (two interceptions). Tailback Josh Ford was the Buffs' leading rusher, gaining 73 yards on 10 carries.

Nick Hirschman opened at quarterback, but Hansen, recovering from a concussion, replaced him on CU's third possession. Neither could help generate any early offense; the Buffs managed 54 total first-quarter yards to ASU's 222.

The Sun Devils scored on three of their first four possessions, two of the touchdowns coming on Osweiler passes (26, 33 yards) and the third on a 19-yard run by Marshall.

ASU, the third CU opponent this month to have an open week before playing the Buffs, fattened its margin to 24-0 on a 38-yard Alex Garoutte field goal with 7:56 left in the second quarter.

The Buffs' deepest penetration of the first half came on the following series, when they marched to the Sun Devils' 16-yard line. But at that point, Hansen was intercepted by safety Clint Floyd, killing the threat.

The defense accounted for CU's only first half points. After Sandersfeld batted an Osweiler backward pass, Josh Moten - making his first start in the secondary - snatched the ball off the ground and ran 16 yards for a touchdown. Will Oliver's PAT brought the Buffs to within 24-7, but that might have aroused the Devils after they appeared to be nodding off.

ASU needed just three plays and 43 seconds to cover 62 yards and get its final first-half TD. Marshall got it on an 11-yard run and the halftime score was 31-7.

The Buffs accepted the second half kickoff but didn't do anything with it. Hansen's second interception led to another Garoutte field goal — this one a 46-yarder — and ASU padded its lead to 34-7 with 9:58 left in the third quarter.

On the ensuing possession, CU drove to the ASU 1-yard line, where three runs — two by Tony Jones sandwiched around one by Hansen, — were all stuffed. The Buffs then forced a punt, then fumbled it and the Sun Devils recovered at the CU 13. Three plays later, Marshall scored his third TD on a 4-yard run.

The third quarter was 28 seconds from ending, and the fourth quarter once again presented little hope for CU. But on the brighter side, the Buffs offense scored for the first time since the fourth quarter of the Washington game (Oct. 15).

With 12:45 remaining, Hansen and Toney Clemons hooked up for a 21-yard TD, a catch that topped SportsCenter's top college plays of the day. Oliver's extra point made the score 41-14. ASU responded by changing quarterbacks, pulling Osweiler and letting backup Mike Bercovici and No. 3 Taylor Kelly close this one out.

Kelly led a five-play, 51-yard march for the Sun Devils' final TD, handing off to No. 3 tailback James Morrison for an 8-yard run that put the score at 48-14.

The Buffs kept battling, driving to the Sun Devils 2-yard line in the final 3 minutes. But a lost fumble by Ford snuffed that scoring opportunity and sent CU home with its 34-point loss.

GAME NOTES

Arizona State now leads the series 3-0 (all games since 2006) ... Opponents scored a touchdown on its first possession for the fourth straight games ... CU's conversion on 3rd-&-17 at the end of the first quarter (18 yard pass from Tyler Hansen to Keenan Canty) was the longest conversion made by CU in 2011 (coming in, CU was 1-of-17 on 3rd-&-15 or longer) Colorado committed a season-high five turnovers (after having just seven in the first eight games this year) ... The Sun Devils averaged 9.8 yards on first down and had 10 plays of 20 yards or longer (22 of 10 or more); Colorado had six and 17, respectively ... ASU gained 27 yards on its last possession to finish with 522 for the game, thus CU allowed 500-plus yards in four straight games for the first time in its history ... Two more players made their first career starts, QB Nick Hirschman and DB Josh Moten, upping the total to 21 players making their first career starts for CU in 2011 ... QB Tyler Hansen became just the seventh player in CU history to attain 5,000 yards of total offense (finishing the game with 5,231) ... Hirschman played the first two series before Hansen, who had suffered a concussion the previous game against Oregon, replaced him ... WR Toney Clemons matched his CU career best with the eight catches and was one yard shy of his yardage high with 97 ... Earlier in the day in Tempe, Colorado's men's and women's cross country teams won the inaugural Pac-12 championship titles.

GAME 10SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 42, COLORADO 17*NOVEMBER 4, 2011*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Southern California quarterback Matt Barkley took advantage of Colorado's injury-riddled secondary under the lights in the first Friday night game in Folsom Field history, as the No. 21 Trojans defeated the Buffaloes, 42-17.

Completing 25-of-39 passing attempts, Barkley threw for 318 yards and a USC record six touchdowns as the Trojans improve to 7-2 overall and 4-2 in the Pac-12, while the Buffs fell to 1-9 and 0-6, respectively. CU lost its eighth straight game to a ranked opponent and stayed winless (0-6) in its series with USC.

The Buffs welcomed back Rodney Stewart and Paul Richardson, and got a career performance from Toney Clemons, but it wasn't enough. Stewart did rack up 155 yards from scrimmage (88 rushing, 67 receiving) and passed his position coach Eric Bieniemy on CU's career all-purpose yardage list.

Clemons caught five of quarterback Tyler Hansen's passes for 112 yards and two touchdowns, recording the first 100-yard receiving and multiple-touchdown game and of his career.

But the night belonged to Barkley, who saw two of his receivers — Robert Woods and Marqise Lee — each catch nine passes for 100-plus yards and two touchdowns; Woods' catches netted 130 yards, Lee's 124. The Trojans' ground game also prospered, gaining 243 yards, giving USC 561 yards in total offense to the Buffs' 384.

The Buffs did open the game on a high note, scoring on a 69-yard drive to open this game. Hansen hit Clemons with a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap the six-play march and pushed CU ahead, 7-0, much to the delight of over 50,000 in attendance, most dressed in all black as were the Buffs, including just the second time ever CU donned black helmets.

Barkley responded quickly by driving USC 80 yards in seven plays, teaming with Lee for a 33-yard score that tied the score at 7-7 and the first quarter ended that way.

After punts were exchanged, the Buffs opened their next series with an 18-yard Hansen-to-Stewart pass. But a personal foul penalty cost CU 15 of those yards and severely damaged that drive.

Barkley took immediate advantage, pushing USC 85 yards and capping the six-play march with a 5-yard TD pass to tight end Xavier Grimble. The Trojans were up 14-7 and wouldn't trail again.

The teams traded punts again, and USC began to pull away. Barkley threw two more TD passes — a 15-yarder to Woods, a 25-yarder to Lee — and the Trojans were cruising, 28-7, just before halftime.

Following senior corner Jason Espinoza's first career interception and 26-yard return in the first half's final minute, the Buffs had first-and-goal at the Trojans' 8-yard line and Will Oliver kicked a 30-yard field goal to make the halftime score 28-10. The field goal was Oliver's 10th of the season, tying a CU freshman record set in 1979 by Tom Field.

Oliver's first field goal attempt — a 31-yarder — was blocked, and after the Buffs' first drive of the second half faltered at the Trojans' 21, Oliver had a 37-yard try batted down at the line of scrimmage.

Just over 5 minutes later, Barkley rewarded the USC defense by throwing his fifth TD pass, this time buying time with a scramble and allowing Woods to free himself. The hook-up covered 45 yards and put the Trojans in command 35-10 with 2:23 left in the third quarter — and that's how the period ended.

The Buffs pulled to 35-17 on a 7-yard Hansen-to-Clemons scoring pass and Justin Castor's PAT — the first of his career — at the 11:19 mark of the fourth quarter. But Barkley responded with a short toss that Amir Carlisle turned into a 19-yard score that put his QB atop the school's legends and was the game's final points.

GAME NOTES

Colorado donned all black garb (jersey/pant) for the first time since 2009, and wore black helmets for just the second time (the lone other occasion was against Baylor in 1998) ... USC extended its lead in the series to 6-0 ... Colorado dropped to 23-11-2 all-time in Folsom Field night games (2-2-1 in November; this was first-ever Friday night one) ... Colorado's first quarter touchdown was the first TD the Buffs scored against USC in three games in Boulder (lost 14-0 in 1963, 40-3 in 2002) ... That score gave CU its first lead since late in the Washington State game (Oct. 1), with a span of 244:10 in-between leads for the Buffs ... It was just the second time in 10 games that CU was on offense first; the only other time was at Stanford when CU recovered a fumble after kicking to the Cardinal ... Colorado went from committing five turnovers at Arizona State to having none versus USC ... USC finished with 561 total yards; that's five straight games CU has allowed 500 or more (a school first; it had never happened more than three times) ... CU has also allowed over 30 points in seven straight games and 40-plus five straight games, the latter for the first time since 1980 ... WR Toney Clemons (5-112, 2 TD) recorded his first career 100-yard game ... PK Will Oliver tied the school freshman record for the most field goals made in a season with his 10th ... TB Rodney Stewart had 155 all-purpose yards to give him 4,466 for his career, as he passed his position coach, Eric Bieniemy (4,351, 1987-90) for CU's all-time record.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado wore its all black uniforms, complete with a black helmet, for the Southern California game; it was the first time since 2009 that the Buffs donned the look, and just the second time CU has ever worn a black helmet (along with a 1998 “throwback” game against Baylor). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a CU game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU’s old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the lockerroom at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. “It was something we thought about a long time ago,” Mac said at the time. “You couldn’t do this overnight. We didn’t tell the kids, and they were real excited.” He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.
