THIS WEEK'S MATCH-UP

The University of Hawai'i Warrior football team opens its 2011 season by hosting one of the Pac-12's newest members, Colorado, Saturday, Sept. 3 in a nationally televised game on ESPN2. Kickoff is 4:15 p.m. at Aloha Stadium.

The teams will play for the second straight season after the Buffaloes won 31-13 in Boulder, Colo., last season. In that game, the Warriors led 10-0 at the half, before Colorado ran off 17 unanswered points and out-scored UH, 31-3 after halftime. The teams had previously met only once prior, with Hawai'i winning, 13-0 in 1925.

Under fourth-year head coach Greg McMackin, Hawai'i finished 10-4 in 2010; captured a share of the Western Athletic Conference title; and appeared in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl for the sixth time in nine years. The Warriors are the preseason favorite to win the WAC, as they prepare to leave the league at the end of the this season before moving to the Mountain West Conference in 2012. Quarterback Bryant Moniz is the consensus preseason WAC player of the year and is mentioned on the watch list of nearly every major award as the nation's top player and quarterback.

Colorado finished 5-7 and 2-6 in the Big 12 last season. The Buffaloes will be led by first-year head coach Jon Embree, who inherits a team which returns 17 starters from a year ago.

What's that punctuation mark in the word Hawai'i? In the Hawaiian language, it's called an 'okina, which translates literally means separator. Phonetically it is referred to as a glottal stop, similar to the sound that would be made in the English oh-oh. The 'okina is actually a letter in the Hawaiian language.

HAWAI'I VS. COLORADO (SEPT. 3, 2011)

GREG MCMACKIN

4th Season

Overall Record: 23-18

WAC Record: 15-9

After short three seasons as head coach of the University of Hawai'i football program, Greg McMackin has returned the Warriors back to national prominence. During last season's 10-4 campaign, UH was nationally ranked in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, while leading the Warriors to a share of their fourth Western Athletic Conference title.

UH also secured a berth to the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl in 2010, its second bowl appearance in three years under McMackin, while becoming just the sixth team in the school's history to post double-digit wins. With 23 victories in three seasons, McMackin is tied with Bob Wagner for the most wins by a UH coach in his first three seasons during the school's modern era.

During McMackin's illustrious coaching career, his teams have participated in 14 bowl games.

McMackin served two stints as the Warriors' defensive coordinator in 1999 and 2007, the latter of which UH improved from 93rd nationally in total defense to 34th. The Warriors captured the WAC Championship both years, including the perfect 12-0 regular season and trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl in 2007. Under his tutelage, the UH defense ranked fifth nationally in tackles-for-loss, ninth in sacks, and 11th in interceptions, while recording five defensive touchdowns.

In McMackin's first stint, the Warriors finished 9-4, won the Jeep O'ahu Bowl and became the NCAA's all-time turnaround team after a winless 0-12 season the year prior. His defense, which improved from 109th to 35th nationally, accounted for five touchdowns, 17 interceptions, 33 sacks and 17 fumble recoveries.

Prior to joining the Warrior staff during his second go-around, McMackin spent three years with the National Football League's San Francisco 49ers as associate head coach and linebackers coach under Dennis Erickson from 2003-05.

"COACH MACK SHOW"

HawaiiNewsNow will televise "The Coach Mack Show," every Sunday during the 2011 season. The half-hour show, hosted by sports director Chris Tanaka, will feature comprehensive coverage of the 2011 Warrior football team. The show will air every Sunday at 10:30 p.m. and replayed every Monday at 6:30 p.m.

"CALL THE COACH SHOW"

Warrior head coach Greg McMackin is scheduled to participate in the "Call The Coach" show on ESPN 1420 AM every Tuesday during the football season. Bobby Curran hosts the one-hour show which begins at 6:00 p.m.

(Baltimore), Isaac Sopoaga (San Francisco), and David Veikune (Denver).

WALK-ON U.: UH's walk-on program, monitored by associate head coach Rich Miano, has produced many standout players for the Warriors over the years, namely 2007 Heisman Trophy finalist and record-setting quarterback Colt Brennan. Miano was a walk-on himself who later spent 11 seasons in the NFL. Former walk-ons currently on NFL rosters include defensive end Ikaika Alama-Francis (Miami), linebacker Travis LaBoy (San Diego), fullback Reagan Maui'a (Arizona), and punter Mat McBriar (Dallas). Prominent walk-ons on this year's squad include quarterback Bryant Moniz, wide receiver Royce Pollard, linebacker Corey Paredes, and safety Richard Torres.

MIGHTY "MO": Bryant Moniz was arguably one of the top quarterbacks in the country despite not being mentioned as a semifinalist for either of the national quarterback awards nor being selected to any All-America teams. The former walk-on, led the nation in both passing (360.0) and total offense (367.3) and completed 65.30 percent of his passes with 39 touchdowns and 15 interceptions. The junior also ranks third in points responsible for (18.43) and eighth in passing efficiency (159.1). In UH's win over San Jose State, Moniz set the single-game school record with 560 yards passing on 32-of-44 attempts. In that game, eight of his passes went for 25-yards or more including all three TD passes. With 5,040 passing yards, Moniz was also just the second quarterback in school history to surpass 5,000 passing yards in a season behind Colt Brennan's 5,549 yards in 2006. Moniz, who was selected second-team all-WAC, passed for 300-plus yards in 11 games, including three 400-plus yard games.

BALL HOGS: While UH's offense gained national attention for its high-powered attack, the Warrior defense was quietly setting records of their own. Led by linebacker Corey Paredes, UH led the nation in turnovers forced (38) and tied a school single-season record with five defensive touchdowns. The Warriors also ranked second nationally in interceptions (23) and ninth in fumbles recovered (15). Paredes ranked 14th nationally in tackles, averaging 10.8 per game and his 151 tackles were the second-highest total in school history. The first-team all-WAC pick had his first two interceptions of his career in UH's 45-7 win at Utah State and had two forced fumbles in the team's upset of then-No. 19 Nevada.

DEFENSIVELY SPEAKING: With nine wins in its last 10 regular season games, UH's defense came up big. Not counting the Boise State game, the defense allowed 16.1 points and 272.7 yards per game during that stretch and forced 28 turnovers while allowing only 2.4 yards per rush and 4.0 yards of total offense per play. The defense limited Utah State to 181 yards of total offense, UH's best defensive performance since 2005 until holding San Jose State to 164 yards of total offense three weeks later. UH also held Nevada's high-powered offense to 293 yards of total offense, while limiting Colin Kaepernick to only 30 yards rushing and 159 yards passing.

AUSIE, AUSIE, AUSIE: Punter Alex Dunnachie, one of two Australians on last year's team, displayed a powerful leg. His average of 43.0 yards per punt ranked 31st nationally. He had 19 punts of over 50 yards including a long of 61 at Colorado and pinned 15 punts inside the 20 yard line.

KICKING DUEL: The most sought-after starting spot of fall camp is at the place-kicking position where redshirt freshman Tyler Hadden and transfer Kenton Chun have been neck-and-neck. Hadden, of Whittier, Calif., was rated as the 10th-best kicker in the country by Chris Sailer Kicking out of high school while Chun, of Honolulu, is a transfer from Southern Oregon. Whomever wins the kicking job, Hadden will still handle the team's kickoffs.

THE RUN-AND-SHOOT: The Warriors led the country in passing, averaging 394.3 yards per game and ranked in the top three nationally for the 11th time in the last 12 years. UH also finished sixth in total offense (500.6), ranking in the Top 20 for the 10th time in the last 12 years.

LAST MEETING - UH VS. COLORADO

Sept. 18, 2010

FOLSOM FIELD (47,840); Boulder, CO

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
Hawai'i	7	3	3	0	-	13
Colorado	0	0	17	14	-	31

BOULDER, Colo. -Hawai'i fell victim to a second-half rally in a 31-13 loss to Colorado. In a tale of two halves, the Warriors (1-2) owned the first half only to see the Buffaloes (2-1) seize control of the second half. Colorado out-scored UH, 31-3 after the break, including 17 unanswered points in the pivotal third quarter.

UH took a 10-0 lead into the locker room and pitched a first half shutout on the road for the first time since 2005. But playing their second straight road game, the Warriors ran out of the gas in the second half.

Colorado out-gained UH, 452-337, including 328-100 in the decisive second half. The Buffs were led by the running back duo of Brian Lockridge (109 yards) and Rodney Stewart (106 yards, two touchdowns).

Bryant Moniz led UH with 330 yards passing and one touchdown on 27-of-41 attempts. Kealoha Pilares had six catches for 117 yards and scored his team-leading fifth touchdown, UH's only trip into the end zone on the day. Corey Paredes tallied a career-high 16 tackles to lead the defense.

It was a case of missed opportunities for UH in the first quarter. The Warriors got the ball within the Buff's 5-yard line on its first two possessions of the game but failed to put up any points after a fumble and missed field goal.

It was all Colorado after the break. The Buffaloes took their opening drive for a touchdown on a 14-play, 80 yard drive. The Buffs defense caused a safety on UH's first possession, then Colorado scored again on their ensuing possession to suddenly take a 17-10 lead just midway through the third quarter. A Scott Enos field goal cut the Colorado lead to 17-13 late in the third quarter, but the back breaker came five minutes into the fourth quarter when quarterback Hansen connected with Toney Clemons on a 73-yard pass to push the CU lead to 24-13.
