NO.2 TEXAS TO WELCOME COLORADO:

No. 2 Texas (4-0/1-0 Big 12) will host Big 12 foe Colorado (1-3) at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium/Joe Jamail Field (6:15 p.m./Central/ESPN) on Saturday, Oct. 10. The Horns are off to a 4-0 start for the seventh time in the last nine years. Prior to Mack Brown's arrival in 1998, Texas failed to open the year with at least four straight wins for 14 consecutive seasons, dating back to 1983. Texas is seeking to open the year with five straight victories for the fourth time in the Mack Brown era with two of those teams earning berths in the Big 12 title game (2001 and '05). Texas is 29-4 (87.9%) in regular-season contests against the North Division since 1998. The Horns are coming off a 64-7 victory over UTEP, its 16th consecutive non-conference victory (tied for the second-longest streak nationally), while Colorado lost at West Virginia, 35-24.

HORNS' SUCCESS AFTER BYE WEEKS: The Longhorns have had great success following regular-season bye weeks in recent years. Since Mack Brown took over the program in 1998, the Horns have posted a 14-4 (.778) record following regular-season bye weeks. The only defeats came against Texas A&M (38-30, 2007; 12-7, 2006; 20-16, 1999) and versus Arkansas in 2003 (38-28). If you include bowl games, in which Brown is 8-3 at Texas, the Horns have posted a 22-7 (.758) mark in the last 11 years when they've had at least one extra week to prepare. In 10 seasons at North Carolina, Brown was 8-2-1 following regular-season bye weeks. Brown has led his teams to victories in 22 of their last 26 games (.846) following bye weeks (not including bowls).

THE SERIES: Texas leads the 17-game series that began in 1940, 10-7, and has won six of the last seven, including four straight. Since both teams joined the Big 12 in 1996, UT holds a 6-3 advantage over CU. Texas won the first meeting in 1940 (39-7) and went on to win the first four matchups. CU won the next six before the Horns claimed six of the last seven, including a 70-3 victory in the 2005 Big 12 Championship game, their second victory over the Buffs that season. The Longhorns lead the series in Austin, 4-3. In 2000, UT snapped a six-game CU series winning streak with a 28-14 victory in Boulder. A year later, No. 9 Texas knocked off No. 14 Colorado, 41-7, in Austin during the 2001 regular season, but the ninth-ranked Buffs returned the favor in a 39-37 shootout win over No. 3 Texas at the Big 12 Championship game that year. The loss knocked UT out of a possible berth in the BCS Championship game. Earlier that day, No. 2 Florida was upset by No. 5 Tennessee, 34-32, in Gainesville in a game that was rescheduled due to the tragic events of 9/11, setting up the possibility of the third-ranked Horns moving into the No. 2 spot with a win. That spot would have been even more certain when No. 2 Tennessee wound up getting upset by No. 21 LSU (31-20) in the rescheduled SEC Championship game the following Saturday. That opened the door for Nebraska to move into the BCS title game.

TEXAS VS. CU TRENDS: This week marks the 17th meeting between UT and CU, with Saturday's game marking the 12th contest between the two schools in the last 17 years ... Texas has outscored Colorado 601-339 in the 17 games ... both teams have entered the game ranked among the nation's Top 25 seven times in series history with CU holding a 4-3 advantage ... at least one team has been ranked in the nation's Top 25 in 13 of the all-time meetings with both Texas winning seven of the games ... Texas has outscored Colorado, 181-41, over the last four games.

NON-CONFERENCE STREAKS: With a 64-7 victory against UTEP, Texas has won 16 straight non-conference games, which is tied for the second-longest non-conference winning streak in the nation. The streak is the longest in UT history, bettering a 15-game streak from 1945-48. UT also had a streak of 11 straight non-conference victories from 1963-65 and a 10-game streak from 1968-70. Texas is also currently on a school-record non-conference road winning streak of 10, which bettered the previous mark of seven from 1956-63.

TEXAS RIDING A NATIONAL-LEADING STREAK OF EIGHT CONSECUTIVE 10-WIN SEASONS:

Texas has posted at least 10 wins in each of the last eight seasons, becoming just the third team in college football history to win at least 10 games in eight straight seasons. The Horns' streak is tied for second all-time with Miami (1985-92), trailing Florida State's streak of 14 consecutive seasons. The current streak also is the longest active mark in the nation. Overall, Texas' 119 victories over the last 12 years are the most in the nation. The Horns also have won more Big 12 games (73) than any other team in the conference during that time. In addition, the Horns set a school record last season by winning a bowl game for the fifth straight year after defeating No. 10 Ohio State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Texas is one of only two schools nationally that has won five consecutive bowl games. The Fiesta Bowl win marked UT's seventh bowl victory in the last eight years, including three BCS triumphs and a BCS Championship Game victory. Mack Brown's eight bowl victories at UT are tied with Darrell Royal. In fact, UT's eight bowl victories over the last 11 seasons under Brown equals the amount Texas won in the 30 years prior to Brown's arrival.

BOWL ROLL: Texas played in a bowl game for a UT-record 11th straight season in 2008, bettering the previous mark of nine-straight from 1977-85. The Horns have won seven of their last eight bowls and have an 8-3 record under Mack Brown. In the 11 years prior to Brown's arrival, Texas went to five bowls and was 2-3. Brown is the first UT coach since Darrell Royal, who was 8-7-1 in bowl games, to post a .500 or better record. With a 24-21 victory over No. 10 Ohio State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Texas has won bowl games in five consecutive years for the first time in school history (2004-08). They are one of only two schools nationally to accomplish that feat. The Horns did win five straight previously (1963-64, '66, '68-69), but the streak was interrupted by seasons that did not result in a bowl. Brown's personal string, including

THE LAST TIME - NO. 5 TEXAS 38, COLORADO 14

Boulder, Colorado, October 4, 2008- No. 5 Texas jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead and led 38-7 late in the fourth quarter before Colorado tacked on a late score in a 38-14 Longhorn victory. The Longhorns opened the year 5-0 for the third time in the Mack Brown era, a feat that, prior to his arrival, was last accomplished in 1983. Texas also won its Big 12 opener for the 10th time in 11 tries under Brown. Offensively, four of Texas' five TD drives covered at least 66 yards, including the first two of the game, as the Longhorns registered 431 yards of offense (169r/262p) on 76 plays (5.7 ypp). Texas, which played a penalty free game on offense, recorded 12 plays of 10 yards or more (eight passing/four rushing) and scored on all four of its trips inside the red zone. Chris Ogbonnaya had a record-setting day in leading the offense. The senior running back, who entered the game with 150 yards from scrimmage (22 rushing/128 receiving), led the Horns with 189 yards (71 rushing/118 receiving) and two TDs on 15 plays (12.6 ypp). His 116 receiving yards were the second-most ever in a game by a UT running back. Ogbonnaya opened the scoring with a 65-yard TD catch (seventh-longest reception by a RB in UT history) on Texas' first drive and later scored on a 13-yard run, which put the Horns up 21-0. He also had a 51-yard run that was the key play in a third-quarter TD drive. Ogbonnaya became the first Longhorn player since Cedric Benson in 2001 to have a 50-yard catch and run in the same game. Colt McCoy completed 23-of-30 passes (76.7%) for 262 yards and two TDs and rushed for 39 yards to tally 301 yards of total offense. Cody Johnson added two scores, both from inside the five-yard line, extending his streak to five straight games with a TD, the longest by a freshman to start their career in UT history. Jordan Shipley caught four passes for 47 yards and a TD, his fifth straight game with a TD catch, which is tied for the third-longest streak in UT history. Quan Cosby added 71 yards on nine catches. Defensively, 89 of Colorado's 266 yards (49 rushing/217 passing) of offense came on its final drive late in the fourth quarter with Texas leading 38-7. Prior to that, the Horns had held the Buffs to just 177 yards on 59 plays (3.0 ypp) and 13 yards rushing on 24 carries (0.5 ypc). CU converted on just seven-of-17 (41.2%) third down tries and managed just one score in three trips inside the Horns' red zone. Six of the Buffs 13 drives went for eight yards or less and nine covered less than 20 yards. One of the key points in the game for the defense came with Texas leading 14-0 early in the second quarter. After Ogbonnaya made one of the defensive plays of the game, running down Colorado cornerback Jallil Brown at the Texas 16 when Brown appeared headed for a score, the defense stood. Not only did they hold their ground, they pushed the Buffs back 10 yards on three plays, forcing a 36-yard field goal attempt, which CU missed. Texas held CU QB Cody Hawkins, who was completing 64 percent of his passes and throwing for nearly 200 yards per game, to just 13-of-33 passing (39.4%) and 118 yards passing. The Buffs leading rusher Rodney Stewart, who entered the game averaging 87.3 yards per game, was held to 27 yards on 12 carries (2.3 ypc). Roddrick Muckelroy led the defense with 10 tackles (seven solo). Roy Miller added eight stops, a TFL, a fumble recovery and three pressures, while batting down a pair of passes. Brian Orakpo had five pressures as the Horns tallied three sacks, eight TFL, 11 hits on the QB and 14 pressures on the game. Hunter Lawrence led the special teams, connecting on a career-long 46-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to close out the Horns' scoring. He also was 5-of-5 on PATs and has yet to miss a field goal (4-of-4) or PAT (24-of-24) this season.

Lawrence is a member of the Lou Groza Award watch list (nation's top place-kicker). McCoy was named to three watch lists, the Walter Camp Football Foundation Player of the Year award, which he won last season, the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback) and the Manning Award (nation's top quarterback). Muckelroy was tabbed for the Bednarik Award (nation's top defensive player), while Shipley earned spots on the WCFF Player of the Year award and Biletnikoff Award (nation's top wide receiver) watch lists. Thomas was recognized on the Jim Thorpe Award (nation's top defensive back) watch list and Ulatoski was named to the Outland Trophy (nation's top interior lineman) watch list.

NO. 2 ALL-TIME: In 2008, Texas moved ahead of Notre Dame for second place on the NCAA all-time victory list. At 836 victories, Texas trails only Michigan in all-time wins. With the Longhorns in second place on that list, it marks the first time since 1932 that Michigan and Notre Dame do not occupy the one-two spots in all-time wins. Since Mack Brown arrived in 1998, Texas has posted a 119-26 record and moved ahead of Alabama, Notre Dame and Nebraska on the all-time victory chart.

TWELFTH YEAR UNDER MACK BROWN: With Mack Brown in his 12th season at Texas, he is just the fourth coach in the 117 years of Texas football to coach the Longhorns for at least a decade and just the second UT coach to win 100 games while at Texas. Darrell Royal, who won 167 games, has the longest tenure at 20 years, while

D.X. Bible and Fred Akers each coached in Austin for 10 seasons. Brown is the first coach in UT history to post 200 victories during a career. With a 119-26 (.821) record at UT, Brown is the architect of the nation's best record during that stretch. In addition, Brown has led the Horns to a 92-15 (.860) mark over the last nine seasons, which is the nation's second-best record over that timespan, and includes five 11-win seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05 and '08). The 11-win seasons are third-best to UT's 13-win campaign in 2005 and its 12-win season in '08. Texas is the only school in the nation that has posted at least 10 wins in each of the last eight seasons (a UT record). Brown is the lone coach nationally to lead his team to nine or more victories in 13 straight seasons. His 11 straight seasons at UT of nine or more victories are a school best. Under Brown, the Horns have posted Top 10 finishes six times in the last eight years (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07 and '08). Prior to his arrival, the last time UT finished in the Top 10 was 1983. In addition, Texas played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th-consecutive season, bettering the previous streak of nine straight from 1977-85. Brown's personal strings, including time at North Carolina, go back even further. He has posted 19 consecutive winning seasons and taken his teams to 17 consecutive bowl games. Both of those marks are the second-longest active streaks in the nation.

200 CAREER VICTORIES: With a victory against Texas A&M in 2008, Mack Brown became the first head coach in UT history to reach the 200-victory plateau (205-100-1/.672) during a career. Brown became just the 19th coach, who has spent at least 10 years at a NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) school, to win 200 games and the seventh-youngest coach to do so. He also is one of only four active coaches, who has spent at least 10 years at an FBS school, to reach the 200-victory mark. In addition, Brown is one of only 10 active coaches at FBS schools who have won 100 games at their current school (119-26/.821). Of the 80 coaches that have ever won 100 games at a FBS school, Brown is the 14th fastest to reach the century mark (124 games) and the third-fastest among active coaches.

With 205 victories, Brown ranks 14th on the NCAA all-time victories list.

UT'S NO. 2 ALL-TIME: Mack Brown has won 119 games at Texas. He is in second place on UT's all-time list behind only Darrell Royal, who tallied 167 victories from 1957-76. Brown moved ahead of Fred Akers, who posted 86 wins from 1977-86, during the 2006 season.

NINE-WIN SEASONS: Texas has posted at least nine victories for 11 straight seasons. The streak of 11 straight seasons of nine or more victories is a UT first and the longest active string in the nation. In addition, with 10 wins in his final two seasons at North Carolina, Mack Brown is the lone coach nationally to lead his team to nine or more victories in 13 straight seasons.

STRING OF SUCCESS: With a 2008 No. 3 final ranking, Texas has finished the year ranked among the nation's Top 15 in each of the last nine seasons, a Longhorn best. In addition, UT has finished in the Top 10 in six of the last eight seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07 and '08). You have to go back to Darrell Royal's string of success in the late 1960s, when the Horns finished among the Top Five four out of five years (1968-72), to equal that consistency in UT history.

REWRITE THE RECORD BOOK: During Mack Brown's 12-year tenure at Texas, the Horns have set 215 school records. The offense has led the way by setting 136 team, individual, game, season and career records. UT also has set 14 defensive records, 32 special teams records and 28 freshman records under Brown. In addition, the Horns have set every major school attendance record during the Mack Brown era.

BROWN'S TOP 10 HORNS: Mack Brown revived the Horns as a Top 10 regular beginning with a No. 5 preseason ranking in 2001. Since then, the Horns have earned a Top 10 standing in 111 of the last 134 AP polls. All totaled, UT has spent 118 weeks ranked among the Top 10 since Brown arrived in 1998. In the same 12-year stretch prior to his arrival, UT spent just 16 weeks rated among the Top 10. Brown has led the Horns to a final Top 10 ranking in six of the last eight seasons. In 2008, Brown led Texas to its first regular-season No. 1 ranking since 1984. In 2005, he led UT to its first No. 1 ranking to end the season since 1969. Before Brown took over the program, the last time UT earned a Top 10 finish was 1983. From the start of the 1984 season to Brown's arrival in 1998, UT was in the Top 10 just 28 times in 14 seasons.

UT AND THE AP TOP 10: As a result of its loss at Kansas State in 2006, Texas had its string of 46-straight weeks in The AP Top 10 snapped. Prior to that, the last time the Horns were not among The AP Top 10 was in the final poll of the 2003 season. The 46-straight weeks was the second-longest streak in the nation and bettered the Horns' run of 40 straight weeks from 1968-71. It also was the longest for the Horns in the Mack Brown era. The longest Texas streak in The AP Top 10 is 60 weeks from 1961-65. Currently, Texas has an active streak of 21 consecutive weeks ranked in the Top 10. In addition, the Horns have been ranked in The AP Top 5 for 18 consecutive weeks, which is the longest active streak in the nation and the second-longest streak in the Mack Brown era (19 weeks, 2005-06).

EIGHT STRAIGHT TOP 15 FINISHES: Texas' No. 3 ranking in 2008 marked the ninth straight year the Horns finished ranked among the nation's Top 15. That is the first time UT has ever accomplished that feat. The 2008 standing followed a No. 10 ranking in 2007, a No. 13 ranking in 2006, a No. 1 ranking in 2005, a No. 5 ranking in 2004, a No. 12 ranking in 2003, a No. 6 ranking in 2002, a No. 5 ranking in 2001 and a No. 12 ranking in 2000.

WIRE-TO-WIRE: Texas is the nation's only school that has both started and finished the season ranked among the nation's Top 15 in each of the last nine seasons.

TACKLING THE TOP 25: Texas is 23-6 (.793) in its last 29 games versus Top 25 opponents, including a 17-3 mark (.850) in its last 20 match-ups with all three losses coming to Top-10 ranked teams. That's a continuation of the success the Longhorns have had against ranked foes during the Mack Brown era. In Brown's 12 years in Austin, UT is 30-17 (.638) versus Top 25 opponents. That compares to a 14-31-2 (40.5%) mark in the 12 years before Brown arrived. In fact, the Longhorns have posted a winning record against ranked opponents in each of the last seven seasons as compared to just two seasons in the 12 prior to Brown's arrival.

AP TOP 25 STREAK AT UT RECORD 147 STRAIGHT WEEKS: Texas has been ranked among The Associated Press Top 25 for a UT-record and nation-leading 147 straight weeks, bettering a 114-week streak from 1968-76. The next longest active streak is USC's 122 weeks. In addition, the Horns have been ranked in The AP Top 5 for 18 consecutive weeks, which is the longest active streak in the nation and the second-longest streak in the Mack Brown era (19 weeks, 2005-06). Texas has finished the year ranked among The AP Top 25 in each of Mack Brown's 11 years in Austin. That marks the first time in school history Texas has finished in The AP Top 25 for 11 straight years, bettering the previous record of eight straight seasons from 1968-75. Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among The AP Top 25 in each of the last 13 seasons, including eight Top 10 finishes.

UT-RECORD 175 STRAIGHT WEEKS IN COACHES POLL: UT has been ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll for 175 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 175 straight weeks is the longest UT streak in any poll and the nation's longest active streak in the coaches poll. The next longest active streak is USC's 120 weeks. The Horns' previous longest streak in the coaches poll was 54 weeks from 1977-80. Texas has been ranked in the first and last coaches poll in all 11 of Mack Brown's seasons in Austin, a UT best. Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the coaches' Top 25 in each of the last 13 seasons, including eight Top 10 finishes.

CONFERENCE COMPETITION: Mack Brown, who has guided the Horns to the 2005 Big 12 Championship and has won or shared the Big 12 South Division Championship five times, is 73-16 (.820) in 12 seasons of Big 12 play. That is the best league record over that span, ahead of Oklahoma (70-18), Nebraska (53-35) and Texas Tech (52-37). UT has won 41 of its last 48 games (.854) against Big 12 foes. The Horns had tied the school record by winning 21 straight conference games from 2004-06 before the streak was snapped at Kansas State in 2006. The record of 21 straight conference victories was set from 1968-71 when Texas was competing in the Southwest Conference. The 21-straight Big 12 victories also marked the longest streak in league history. At 81-24 (.771), Texas has the top intraconference record since the Big 12 formed in 1996.

JAMAIL FIELD ADVANTAGE: During Mack Brown's 12-year tenure, Texas has won 62 of its 68 games (.912) at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium/Jamail Field. The Horns' .902 home winning percentage (37-4) since 2003 ranks fourth nationally. That is a dramatic improvement from the Horns' 40-23-1 record in the 12 seasons prior to Brown's arrival. Under Brown, the Horns have outscored their opponents by an average of 43-16 and outgained them by an average of 469.7 yards to 286.8 at home.

JAMAIL FIELD STREAKS: Texas is currently on a 12-game home winning streak, which is tied for the sixth-longest streak on UT record and is the fourth-longest active streak in the nation behind Oklahoma (25), Boise St. (21) and Utah (13). In addition, the Horns have posted two of the five-longest home winning streaks in school history during the Mack Brown era. The Horns won 20 in a row at home from 1999-2003 (third-longest in school history). Then, from 2003-06, Texas won 16-straight home games, which tied for the fourth-best string on UT record. The longest home winning streak in school history is a 41-game streak from 1968-76. Texas also holds the Big 12 record for longest home intraconference winning streak with a 26-game streak from 1999-2006.

UT'S BIG 12 SUCCESS AT HOME: Texas is 37-3 (.925) at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium/Jamail Field versus league opponents during the Mack Brown era. The 37 home victories are the most by any team in the conference over the last 12 years. In addition, the Horns set the league record with a 26-game home winning streak over Big 12 opponents, which was snapped in 2006. Prior to 2006, the last time UT had lost a home game against a league foe was 1999 (35-17 to No. 13 Kansas State).

ROAD WARRIORS: Texas is 55-20 (.733) away from home (road and neutral sites) over the last 12 years compared to a 36-38-1 (.487) record in the 12 years prior to Mack Brown's arrival in 1998. The Horns' 53-17 (.757) mark in road and neutral-site games since 1999 is the nation's best record over that span. Texas is 42-9 (.824) on the road (not including neutral-site games) and 36-5 (.878) versus unranked road foes during the Mack Brown era. Of the nine true-road-game losses in Brown's 12-year tenure, two came in his first three games at UT. Prior to Brown's arrival, UT posted just four winning road records in the 12 seasons leading up to 1998. All totalled during that time, UT was just 27-30 (.474) in true road games. The Longhorns have won 37 of their last 41 true road games (.902). The only losses during that stretch were a group of shootouts, 42-38 at Texas Tech in 2002, 45-42 at Kansas State in 2006, 38-30 at Texas A&M in 2007 and 39-33 at No. 6 Texas Tech in 2008. UT's loss at KSU in '06 snapped a school-record streak of 17 consecutive road wins. The 17-straight road wins eclipsed the previous record of 13 set from 1981-84. UT also won 12 consecutive road games from 2000-02. In addition, UT is currently on a streak of 10 consecutive non-conference road wins, which is a school record, bettering the previous streak of seven from 1956-63.

BIG 12 ROAD SUCCESS: Texas has won 27 of its last 31 (.871) true Big 12 Conference road games (not including neutral-site games), including a league-record 13 consecutive conference road wins from 2002-06. The Horns are 31-6 (.838) in league road contests under Mack Brown. Highlighting the Horns' road record under Brown are victories at Nebraska (1998) to end the Huskers' nation-best 47-game home winning streak, another win that snapped a Nebraska 26-game home winning streak (2002) and a victory to break Oklahoma State's 10-game winning streak (2003).

CAPS AND GOWNS: In 11 seasons under Mack Brown, the Longhorn football program has had a great deal of success when it comes to graduating its student-athletes. Over the last four years, that success in the classroom has reached an all-time high. By the end of the 2009 spring semester, 86 of Texas' 99 (86.9%) seniors, who completed their eligibility at Texas during that stretch, earned their degrees. The top year in that time came during the Horns' National Championship season in 2005. From that group, 26 of 29 (89.7%) seniors earned their degrees by last May. Eighteen of those seniors had received their diplomas prior to UT's victory over USC. The early graduation has been a positive trend at UT as well. Over the last four years, nearly 50 percent (48-of-99) of Texas' seniors have graduated prior to the Longhorns' bowl game. The Longhorns' 2008 class of seniors featured 19-of-23 (82.6%) graduates by the end of spring with all 23 on schedule to complete their degrees by the Spring of 2010. Twenty-two of 24 seniors (91.7%) from the class of 2007 have graduated with the other two on pace to complete their degrees in 2009. From the 2006 group of 23 seniors, 19 (82.6%) have graduated and four more are less than two semesters short of their degrees.

EARLIER GRADUATION: Another growing trend has been Longhorns earning their degrees in three and a half years. Over the last two seasons, six Longhorns have graduated in that timespan. In 2007, WR Nate Jones, who is now with the St. Louis Rams, S Drew Kelson, DT Derek Lokey, who was on the Kansas City Chiefs' roster in 2008, and DT Frank Okam, who plays with the Houston Texans, earned their degrees in under four years. In 2008, DT Roy Miller received his degree in communications studies after just three and a half years, and RB Chris Ogbonnaya finished his degree in history in the same timeframe.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFL: The Texas Football program is not only one of the best at the collegiate level, but since Mack Brown's arrival, it has become one of the premier sources of talent for the NFL as well. Currently, Texas has 42 players on NFL rosters, including five from last year's team. The 42 players is tied for the most nationally and easily leads the Big 12. And, they aren't just roster players either. Of the 33 Longhorns on rosters prior to this season, 30 have started games during their NFL careers, including 23 who were 2008 starters and 24 that started as rookies. Among that group of 33, seven have earned a spot in a Pro Bowl and seven have played in a Super Bowl with four coming away as Super Bowl Champions. In addition, Texas has the most Top 10 and Top Five picks in the NFL Draft since 1999. The Horns' eight Top 10 picks are tied with USC and their six Top Five picks lead LSU, Miami, Penn State and USC (three).

DKR'S RENOVATIONS: As Texas football proceeds through the 21st century, Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium continues to evolve as a state-of-the-art facility at the forefront of college football. Following the 2008 season, Texas installed FieldTurf as its playing surface and permanent bleachers were added to the south end of the stadium. Combined with the previous year's north end zone project, DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium now has a stadium capacity of 100,119, which is the fifth-largest college stadium in the country and the largest college stadium in the southwest. The north end zone expansion project that was completed prior to the 2008 season featured an upper deck, club seating, an academic center and a war memorial plaza. The expansion added approximately 2,108 club seats and 47 suites. The lower deck of the north end zone was completed for the 2007 season. Another major upgrade was made prior to 2007, when a new video board was installed at the south end of the stadium. At the time, the scoreboard was the nation's largest high-definition video display board thanks to DAKtronics. The $8-million Prostar Video Board is 55 feet high by 134 feet wide. In addition, the interior of the Moncrief-Neuhaus Athletics Complex, most notably the players' lounge, is consistently being upgraded. Prior to this season, a new academic center was constructed. It is approximately three times the size of the old one at Moncrief-Neuhaus. It features writing, math and computer labs, numerous tutoring areas, a multimedia classroom and academic staff office space. It is all part of a $176.5-million renovation project at the Longhorns' stadium.

“FAN”-TASTIC: Texas has been one of the best-attended programs in the nation over the past 10 years, drawing over 84,000 fans per game. The Horns, who have played in front of a sellout crowd in their last 56 home games, have attracted 48 of the top 50 crowds in UT history since Mack Brown took over in 1998. Texas' school-record season-ticket sales of 84,100 in 2009 are more than double the 39,743 sold in 1997, the UT record when Brown arrived. With the completion of the stadium expansion project, the Horns opened 2009 against ULM by hosting 101,096 fans. They upped the single-game attendance record to 101,297 during the Texas Tech game, which is the largest crowd to see a college sporting event in the Southwest. UT's previous single-game attendance record of 98,621 was established when it hosted Texas A&M on Thanksgiving night last season. Texas also set a season-attendance record in 2008 with a total of 686,324, which bettered the Horns' previous season best of 619,534, set in 2006. Overall, the top 22 home crowds at Texas have come since '06. On top of that, Texas has attracted record crowds in six of its road games over the past four seasons, at Texas Tech (56,333, 2008 and 56,158, 2006), vs. Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl (92,182, 2008), at UTEP (53,415, 2008), at Texas A&M (88,253, 2007) and at Nebraska (85,187, 2006).

COMEBACKS UNDER MACK

BROWN: During Mack Brown's 12 seasons at Texas, the Horns have registered 22 second-half comebacks, including 12 fourth-quarter comebacks. UT has recorded the six largest comebacks in school history during the Mack Brown era.

vs. NO. 10 OHIO STATE (2008): Texas trailed 6-3 at the half before taking a 17-6 lead entering the fourth quarter. But, the Buckeyes ran off 15 straight points to take a 21-17 lead with just 2:05 remaining. From there, Colt McCoy led an 11-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard TD pass to Quan Cosby with 16 seconds left to give UT the 24-21 victory.

vs. NO. 1 OKLAHOMA (2008): The Horns erased two 11-point deficits in the first half and trailed by one, 21-20, at halftime. OU went up 28-20 before Texas scored 10 straight to take a 30-28 lead late in the third quarter. OU answered with a TD early in the fourth to make it 35-30, but UT scored the game's final 15 points over the last 7:37 to win, 45-35. In total, Texas went on a 25-7 run to seal the victory.

at OKLAHOMA STATE (2007): Texas erased two fourth-quarter deficits and a second-half deficit, including the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history against Oklahoma State. The Horns trailed 35-14 entering the final stanza before scoring 24 unanswered points to win, 38-35.

NEBRASKA (2007): Texas trailed Nebraska, 17-9, entering the fourth quarter before running off 19 straight points to win, 28-25. After falling behind 17-3 early in the third quarter, Texas produced 336 total yards and 25 points in the second half to help seal the victory.

at TEXAS TECH (2006): After trailing the Texas Tech, 21-0, in the first quarter, the Horns closed the gap to 31-21 at halftime and 31-28 entering the fourth quarter, before going on to win 35-31.

at NO. 4 OHIO STATE (2005): The Horns trailed the Buckeyes, 22-16, entering the final quarter, but Vince Young connected with Limas Sweed for a 24-yard TD with 2:37 remaining to give Texas a 23-22 lead. A late safety gave the Horns a 25-22 victory.

vs. NO. 1 USC (2005): The Longhorns trailed 38-26 with 6:42 remaining in the game before Vince Young led two TD drives, including his game-winning eight-yard TD run with just 19 seconds left, to secure the win and the National Championship.

Prior to 2005: The Horns notched four second-half comebacks and a fourth-quarter comeback in 2004, including a 28-point comeback against Oklahoma State, the largest in school history. UT also registered a half-time comeback in '02, a fourth-quarter comeback in '01, two halftime comebacks in 1999 and two fourth-quarter comebacks in '98.

OFFENSE-DEFENSE BALANCE:

With a No. 4 national ranking in total offense (521.3 ypg) and a No. 11 ranking in total defense (259.5 ypg), Texas is one of just three teams that rank in the top 15 of both categories this season. Alabama and Florida are the others.

DOMINANT PERFORMANCE: In the UTEP game, Texas set a school record in yardage differential at 586 yards after the offense posted 639 yards and the defense allowed just 53 yards. The previous best was a 570-yard differential, set in 1969 against TCU when the offense posted 651 yards and the defense gave up 81 yards. Texas' 639 yards were the sixth-most in UT history and the 53 yards were the fewest allowed by a Texas defense since it gave up 37 yards to Southwestern in 1944 and the lowest total in UTEP history. The Longhorns held the Miners without an offensive touchdown for the first time since 2003 and limited UTEP to 53 total yards on 51 snaps (1.04 ypp). The Miners only ran eight plays in Texas territory with four of the plays coming after a UT turnover at the Texas 41. UT's 810 all-purpose yards (335p/304r/94kr/73pr/4intr) ranks fourth on UT's all-time list.

BALANCED ATTACK: After four games, Texas is averaging 314.0 passing yards per game (ninth NCAA) and 207.3 rushing yards (21st NCAA). UT is one of just three teams nationally that is averaging at least 300 yards passing and 200 yards rushing with the other two teams being Big 12 members Kansas and Texas A&M. In addition, UT is one of only 14 teams nationally and one of four teams in the Big 12 that is averaging over 200 yards both rushing and passing on the season.

RED-ZONE RESULTS: Texas is one of just eight teams nationally that is perfect in the red zone, having gone 23-of-23 this season. The Horns have scored 16 TDs and kicked seven FGs.

THIRD-DOWN MAGIC: Texas is one of just eight teams nationally that ranks in the Top 25 in both third-down offense and defense. The Horns rank 21st nationally on offense, having converted 29-of-61 third downs (47.5%), while the defense ranks second after allowing just 12 conversions on 57 attempts (21.1%).

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION: In 11 completed seasons under Mack Brown and offensive coordinator Greg Davis, UT's offense has produced nine of the top 10 passing seasons, 10 of the top 12 total yardage campaigns and the top eight scoring years in school history. The Horns have also averaged at least 200 yards both rushing and passing in four of the 11 seasons. During their tenure, the Longhorns have registered 136 school records, thirty-nine 50-point games and five of the top seven total offense games on school record. In addition, UT has produced forty-two 500-yard total offense performances (there are only 65 of them in the 117 years of Texas football) and has recorded 10 of the school's twenty 600-yard total offense games. The Horns' balanced attack has produced at least 400 yards of offense in 74 of its last 107 games and has registered 200 yards both passing and rushing 46 times under Brown and Davis. Texas has scored at least 25 points in 56 of its last 63 games. In addition, the Horns had scored at least 28 points in a UT best 19 consecutive games, bettering the previous mark of 12 straight (2005-06), prior to last season's Fiesta Bowl. Texas also posted an 11-game streak from 2000-01. Prior to Brown's arrival, the longest streak of scoring at least 28 points was seven games.

2009: Over the first four games, Texas is averaging 49.5 points per game (first NCAA), 521.3 total yards (fourth NCAA), 314.0 passing yards (ninth NCAA) and 207.3 yards rushing (21st NCAA). UT is one of just three teams nationally that is averaging over 300 yards passing and 200 yards rushing. The Horns have scored 198 points over their first four games, which is the exact same amount UT scored through four games last year. Those totals are the most since 2003 (205 points) and the second-most since 1915 (236 points). UT has scored on 53.4 percent of its possessions (31-or-58/23 TDs/eight FGs) and is a perfect 23-of-23 in the red zone (t-first NCAA), including 16 TDs. In addition, UT has scored on 13 (11 TDs/two FGs) of its first 20 drives (65.0%) of the second half in its four games. The Horns have also moved the chains, averaging 28.0 first downs per game, which ranks third nationally.

ULM: The Longhorns opened the season by posting 562 yards of total offense (363p/199r), including 311 total yards in the first half, against ULM. The Horns produced nine scoring drives, including three 10-play drives and an 11-play drive. UT scored on all seven of its red-zone possessions, including six TDs and a FG to end the first half.

Wyoming: The Horns posted 544 yards of total offense (353p/191r), including 301 yards in the second half. UT scored the final 35 points of the game, including TDs on five of their final eight possessions, while going 4-of-4 on red zone chances. The Horns also produced 20 plays of at least 10 yards (13p/7r).

Texas Tech: Texas posted 340 yards of total offense (205p/135r) and scored on four of its six second-half possessions (3 TD/1 FG), including consecutive TD drives to open the third quarter. After entering the fourth quarter with a 24-17 lead, Texas held the ball for 9:15 of the final stanza and ran 21 plays for 71 yards. During the pivotal stretch, Colt McCoy was 6-of-7 for 42 yards and a TD.

UTEP: Texas posted 639 yards of total offense (335p/304r), which is the sixth-best total in UT history. It marked only the second time in UT history that the offense went over 300 yards both rushing and passing with the other game coming in 1990 against Houston. In addition, Texas posted 47 points and 320 yards of total offense in the first half alone. With the defense allowing just 53 total yards, the 586-yard differential is the largest margin in school history. The Horns scored on 10 of their 16 drives (seven TDs/ three FGs), including 7-of-9 first-half drives (five TDs/two FGs).

2008: Texas averaged 42.4 points per game (fifth NCAA), 475.8 total yards (ninth NCAA), 308.3 passing yards (seventh NCAA) and 167.5 rushing yards (41st NCAA). UT posted at least 400 yards of total offense in 12 of its 13 games, at least 500 yards in five games and posted a 600-yard game against Rice. Overall, Texas' 4,008 passing yards set a school record by almost 500 yards, while its 551 points and 6,185 total yards rank second on UT's single-season list. Texas ranked third nationally on third down, converting 95-of-173 (54.9%), and 16th in red zone offense after converting 61-of-68 chances (90.0%, 52 TDs/nine FGs).

2007: The Texas offense finished the 2007 campaign as one of only 10 teams nationally to average 200 yards passing and 200 yards rushing. The Horns posted 255.4 yards passing (39th NCAA), 207.5 yards rushing (17th NCAA), 462.9 total yards (13th NCAA) and 37.2 points per game (14th NCAA). UT produced at least 400 yards of total offense in nine games and at least 500 yards in five, while scoring at least 30 points in nine of the 13 games. UT eclipsed the 200-yard rushing plateau on seven occasions and reached at least 300 yards rushing in three of its last five games.

2006: Texas finished the 2006 season ranked sixth nationally in scoring offense (35.9 ppg), ninth in passing efficiency (155.9 rating) and 22nd in total offense (391.5 ypg). The Horns registered at least 400 yards in seven of the 13 games and scored at least 35 points in eight contests.

2005: UT led the nation in scoring offense (50.2 ppg), ranked second in rushing offense (274.9 ypg) and finished third in total offense (512.1 ypg). The Horns produced at least 600 yards of offense three times in 2005, which was a first in UT history. Texas also came close to having three more 600-yard games with 591 against La.-Lafayette, 585 at Missouri and 556 in the Rose Bowl versus No. 1 USC. UT's 600-yard games came in three consecutive contests against Oklahoma State (606), Baylor (645) and Kansas (617). Texas rushed for at least 300 yards six times in 2005, matching 2004's total for the most by a Texas team since 1977. UT averaged a balanced 274.9 rushing yards and 237.2 passing yards in 2005, marking just the fifth time in school history the Horns averaged better than 200 yards both rushing and passing.

Prior to 2005: UT ranked second in the nation in rushing (299.2 ypg), seventh in total offense (464.4 ypg) and 12th in scoring (35.3 ppg) in 2004. The Horns posted at least 600 yards of offense twice. They recorded 673 yards of offense (third-most in UT history) versus North Texas and 600 total yards against No. 19 Oklahoma State. In 2003, Texas averaged 232.5 rushing yards (eighth NCAA) and 206.6 passing yards, which was the fourth time in school history UT averaged better than 200 yards for each. Texas also averaged 439.2 yards of offense (20th NCAA) while averaging 41.0 points per game (sixth NCAA) in 2003. That came one year after UT averaged 250.1 passing yards and 33.8 points per game (16th NCAA) in 2002. In 2001, the Horns' led the Big 12 in scoring (39.2 ppg/ sixth NCAA) and pass efficiency (136.1 rating/27th NCAA). Brown's first UT squad produced a school-best 692 yards against Rice in 1998 and averaged a balanced 266.5 yards passing per game and 204.2 yards rushing per game.

SCORING SPREE: Texas has averaged 39.8 points per game this decade, which ranks second nationally and first among BCS conference schools. The Horns have averaged at least 35 ppg in eight of the nine seasons this decade, including three seasons of at least 40 ppg. In 2005, UT set a then-NCAA record with 652 total points and a school record by averaging 50.2 ppg. During the Mack Brown era, Texas has averaged at least 34 ppg in each of his 11 seasons. In contrast, Texas averaged at least 30 ppg only 12 times in the 45 seasons prior to Brown's arrival.

RECORD-BREAKING YEAR: In 2005, Texas not only set records, it shattered them, in several team offensive categories. The Longhorns set an NCAA record for points scored in a season with 652. The previous high was 624 by Nebraska in 1983, and the previous UT record was 533 in 2003. The team also set school marks with 50.2 points per game (41.4, 1969),

Mack Brown era in bold // * bowl game

6,657 total yards (5,709, 2003), 512.1 yards per game (472.1, 1969) and 5.91 yards per carry (5.84, 2004). UT became one of only four teams in NCAA history to average 50 or more points and 500 or more yards per game for a season, and the first to do it since 1995. Texas scored at least 40 points in each of its last 11 games and 12-of-13 contests on the season. In 2005, only one other team in the nation (USC) scored 40 points in more than nine games. Texas scored at least 50 points in a game seven times in 2005. UT was the only school in the nation besides USC to accomplish that (versus NCAA Div. I-A). That is the most 50-point games the Horns have ever had in a season, surpassing the previous best of four set in 2003. As for 60-point games, Texas registered at least 60 points four times, which was also a UT first.

PRODUCTIVE PERFORMERS: Since Mack Brown and offensive coordinator Greg Davis took over UT's offense in 1998, Texas has produced its only 2,000-yard rusher (2,124, Ricky Williams, 1998), 1,000-yard receivers (1,087, Wane McGarity, 1998/1,188, Kwame Cavil, 1999/1,142, Roy Williams, 2002/1,079, Roy Williams, 2003/1,123, Quan Cosby, 2008/1,060, Jordan Shipley, 2008), 3,000-yard passers (3,859, Colt McCoy, 2008/3,357, Major Applewhite, 1999/3,303 Colt McCoy, 2007/3,207, Chris Simms, 2002/3,036 Vince Young, 2005) and 1,000 yard rusher/passers (Vince Young, 2004 and '05) in a season in school history. UT has seen players record school single-season bests for rushing touchdowns (28, Ricky Williams, 1998), TD passes (32, Colt McCoy, 2008), TD receptions (12, Roy Williams, 2002/Limas Sweed, 2006), total TDs (45, Colt McCoy, 2008), passing yards (3,859, Colt McCoy, 2008), receptions (100, Kwame Cavil, 1999), scoring (168, Ricky Williams, 1998) and total offense (4,420, Colt McCoy, 2008). In addition, Colt McCoy set the NCAA single-season completion percentage record at 76.7% (332-of-433) in 2008. Cedric Benson became the fifth player in NCAA history to rush for over 1,000 yards in four straight seasons and finished his career ranked sixth on the NCAA all-time rushing list (5,540 yards). Vince Young became the first player in UT history to rush (1,079 yards) and pass (1,849 yards) for more than 1,000 yards in the same season in 2004 and then repeated the feat in 2005 with 1,050 yards rushing and 3,036 yards passing. He became the first player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards or more and pass for at least 3,000 yards in the same season. He came within two rushing yards of becoming just the third freshman QB in NCAA history to post 1,000 yards rushing and passing in a season in 2003. The Longhorns' freshman records for rushing yards (1,053, Cedric Benson, 2001), rushing TDs (12, Cedric Benson, 2001/12, Cody Johnson, 2008), total TDs (13, Cedric Benson, 2001), 100-yard rushing games (5, Cedric Benson, 2001), passing yards (2,570, Colt McCoy, 2006), total offense (2,740, Colt McCoy, 2006), receptions (41, B.J. Johnson, 2000), receiving yards (809, Roy Williams, 2000), TD catches (8, Roy Williams, 2000) and TD passes (29, Colt McCoy, 2006) have also been set in the Brown era. In addition, McCoy's 29 TD passes in 2006 tied the NCAA record for freshmen.

MUSCHAMP'S STINGY SCORING D:

In his first season at Texas, defensive coordinator Will Muschamp led a Longhorn defense that held all 13 opponents under their season scoring averages and seven teams under 14 points. That's a trend that goes back a few years for one of the nation's premier defensive coordinators. Over the last four seasons at Auburn and Texas, Muschamp has led defenses that have allowed 21 points or less in 33 of the last 43 games, including 14 or less 23 times. On average, his units are giving up just 16.5 points per game during that stretch. Over the first four games of 2009, the Horns have held all four opponents under their scoring averages and haven't allowed an offensive TD in two of four games. Overall, Texas has given up just 61 total points for a 15.3 points-per-game average (19th NCAA). In 2008, UT's defense allowed just 18.8 points per game (18th NCAA/first Big 12). Previously, while at Auburn, Muschamp led a group that finished sixth nationally after allowing just 16.9 points per game in 2007. The Tigers held opponents to 20 points or less in 10 of their 13 games, including six games with 13 points or less. In 2006, Muschamp's D ranked seventh nationally after allowing just 13.9 points per game, including seven games with 14 points or less and two shutouts.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE: After inheriting a program that ranked among the NCAA's bottom half in total defense for the five seasons prior to his arrival, Mack Brown and the Longhorns' staff have reversed that trend. Texas has ranked among the nation's top 25 in total defense in eight of the last 11 seasons.

2009: Over the first four games, the Texas defense is allowing 15.3 points (19th NCAA), 259.5 total yards (11th NCAA), a 98.0 pass efficiency rating (18th NCAA) and 47.3 rushing yards per game (second NCAA). On 57 total drives, the Horns have given up five TDs and three FGs. Two of the field goals came after possession changes when the Horns gave up just 10 yards on eight plays. On 57 drives, the Horns' D has forced 23 three-and-outs or better (40.4%) and given up two first downs or less on 45 of the 57 drives (78.9%). Overall, the Texas defense has allowed just 1,038 total yards on 280 plays for a 3.7 yards-per-play average. The unit ranks second nationally in third-down defense, having allowed only 12 conversions on 57 attempts (21.1%). They have only let the opponent reach the red zone on seven possessions and have given up just three TDs (43.0%), forcing three FGs and coming up with one INT. In addition, the Horns D has forced 12 turnovers (six INTs/six fumbles), which is the sixth-most nationally.

ULM: The Texas defense allowed 298 total yards (197p/101r). If you subtract ULM's long play of 75 yards, the Horns gave up just 223 yards on 64 plays for an average of 3.5 yards per play. Over the first three quarters, Texas only gave up 188 yards and eight first downs. UT's defense allowed just five third-down conversions on 15 attempts, including 1-of-8 in the first half. ULM had three drives that started inside the UT 40-yard line, but the Texas D stiffened and only allowed three points. On one of the series, UT defended six plays inside the 10-yard line and forced a turnover thanks to a Nolan Brewster INT.

Wyoming: The Horns allowed just 99

total yards in the first half and 273 yards for the game (188p/85r). The defense held the Cowboys to three points for the game with the other seven coming on a blocked punt return for a TD. The three points came on a field goal after Wyoming took over on the UT 14 and failed to make a first down, forcing the field-goal attempt. During the second quarter alone, the Horns gave up just 21 yards on 16 plays and did not allow a first down. For the game, UT held Wyoming to 3.2 yards per play and just 3-of-17 on third down. Eight of Wyoming's 15 drives went for less than 10 yards and the Cowboys managed to reach Texas territory just twice on their final 11 drives.

Texas Tech: UT allowed just 125 yards on 44 plays (2.8 ypp) on the nine Texas Tech drives that did not result in scores. The Horns held the Red Raiders to two first downs or less on all nine of those drives and only allowed three third-down conversions on 13 attempts for the game. UT's D also limited Tech to minus-6 yards rushing. Texas held Texas Tech without a TD and only gave up 156 total yards in the first half. Tech opened the game with a 10-play, 56-yard FG drive, but could only manage 100 yards on 32 plays (3.1 ypp) for the rest of the half. It marked the first time in 19 games that Texas Tech did not score a TD in the first half.

UTEP: Texas held UTEP to just 53 total yards on 51 plays (1.04 ypp). The 53 yards were the fewest allowed by a Texas defense since it allowed 37 yards to Southwestern in 1944 and it marked the lowest total in UTEP history. It was the first time since 2003 the Miners were held without an offensive TD. Texas didn't allow UTEP to gain more than one first down on any of its 15 drives and forced three-and-outs or better on eight of them. Of UTEP's 51 plays, 47 went for less than 10 yards, including 38 plays of three yards or less. The Horns forced five turnovers, including four INTs. The five turnovers forced are the most since the 2007 Holiday Bowl victory over Arizona State and the four INTs were the most since the Baylor game of '07.

2008: The Texas defense led the Big 12 in scoring defense (18.8 ppg/18th NCAA), total defense (342.9 ypg/51st NCAA) and rushing defense (83.5 ypg/third NCAA) and was second in the conference in pass efficiency defense (124.2 rating). In addition, the Horns led the nation in sacks with 3.62 per game (47 total sacks) and posted at least four sacks in five of UT's 13 games. The unit gave up just 29 TDs, which tied for the 18th fewest nationally and were 12 fewer than any other Big 12 team. UT's opponents converted on only 64 of their 183 third-down attempts (35.0%) and the Horns allowed only 31 scores on 42 red-zone possessions (74.0%), which tied for 11th nationally, and gave up just 20 TDs (47.6%).

2007: Texas allowed 25.3 points, 371.2 total yards and 93.4 rushing yards per game (sixth NCAA) in 2007, while holding opponents to a 127.5 passer rating. UT held seven teams under 100 yards rushing, including three games of 10 yards or less. Texas held Rice to -11 yards rushing, which marked the fourth-best performance by the Longhorn D since 1990. The Horns also held five opponents to 14 points or fewer.

2006: Texas finished 2006 ranked third nationally against the run (61.2 ypg), 22nd in total defense (297.4 ypg) and 26th in scoring defense (18.3 ppg). The Horns only allowed two teams to rush for 100 yards and held seven opponents to 14 points or fewer. The 2006 UT defense produced the school's second-best effort since 1990 by holding North Texas to just 95 total yards. UT also held Rice to -12 yards rushing, which marked the fourth time since 1990 that UT held a team to negative yards rushing. In fact, seven of UT's top 22 performances against the rush since 1990 came during the 2006 campaign.

2005: The Longhorns ranked 10th nationally in total defense (302.9 ypg), eighth in scoring defense (16.4 ppg), eighth in passing defense (172.0 ypg) and 33rd in rushing defense (130.9 ypg). Texas only allowed opponents to reach 300 yards of total offense five times and held the remaining eight opponents to 267 yards or fewer. Statistically, UT's best defensive performance came against Oklahoma in the Red River Rivalry. The Sooners only managed 171 total yards and one TD. The Longhorns weren't far off that pace by allowing only 191 yards and one field goal to Colorado in the Big 12 Championship game.

Prior to 2005: Texas held its opponents to 320.1 yards (23rd NCAA), 17.9 points (18th NCAA) and 107.4 yards per game (16th NCAA). Texas ranked 25th nationally in total defense (329.8 ypg) and allowed just 21.1 points per game in 2003, while holding its opponents to 307.7 yards (16th NCAA) and 16.3 points per game (eighth NCAA) in 2002. UT was one of only two teams to post three shutouts against NCAA Division I-A opponents in 2002. The Longhorns defense went from ranking 85th nationally in total defense in 1997, the year prior to Brown's arrival, to back-to-back top 10 finishes in total defense in 1999-2000 and captured an NCAA statistical title in total defense in 2001. UT's 236.2 yards per game allowed that season were the fewest it had allowed since 1983 (212.0 ypg). It marked the first time since '83 and only the third time in school history that UT led the nation in total defense. Texas also led the Big 12 in rushing (89.5 ypg/sixth NCAA), passing (146.7 ypg/third NCAA) and scoring defense (13.7 ppg/third NCAA) while establishing itself as one of only two defenses ranked among the nation's top 10 in every major defensive category in 2001.

AIR DEFENSE: Texas' pass defense has been ranked in the Top 10 in five of the last nine seasons. It has allowed opponents to complete 53.1 percent (2,074-of-3,908) of their passes for only 199.5 yards per game (23,745 in 119 games), while intercepting 135 passes (1.1 pg).

2009: After four games, Texas is allowing 212.3 passing yards per game, a 54.8% completion rate and a 98.0 pass efficiency rating (18th NCAA). UT opened the season by holding ULM's quarterback to 14-of-30 passing (46.7%) for 197 yards, while intercepting one pass and breaking up eight. ULM managed just 6.6 yards per attempt. If you subtract their long completion of 75 yards, the Horns allowed just 122 yards passing on 29 attempts (4.2 yards per attempt). At Wyoming, the Horns gave up 188 passing yards, including just 58 in the first half, on 23-of-50 (46.0%) for an average of 3.8 yards per attempt. Wyoming's longest pass play went for 14 yards and the Horns broke up five passes. The Horns allowed just 44 yards passing on 9-of-26 (34.6%) against UTEP. The 44 yards passing are the fewest given up by a Texas defense since the Rice game in 2003. Texas gave up just 1.7 yards per attempt and intercepted four passes, the most in a game since the 2007 Baylor game.

2008: The Texas secondary had to replace three of its four starters from 2007 and it did so with a senior, a junior and four underclassmen, including two true freshmen. Overall, the Horns had eight members of its secondary see significant action. UT gave up 259.4 yards per game, but held opponents to a 124.2 passer rating, which ranked second in the Big 12. The Horns held five teams to 220 yards passing or less. In addition, on 69 attempts, the Horns' defense only allowed 13 conversions of third down and 10 or more (18.8%).

2007: UT allowed 277.8 yards passing per game, held opponents to a 127.5 passer rating and intercepted 17 passes on the season. Marcus Griffin led the team in tackles (99) and INTs (five), while Ryan Palmer (80 tackles, 14 PBU) and Brandon Foster (71 tackles, four INTs, 12 PBU) finished second and third on the team in tackles.

2006: The 2006 campaign saw Aaron Ross win the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. It marked the second consecutive season that a Longhorn won the award after Michael Huff did so in 2005. Ross' six INTs helped UT total 13 for the season, and he also finished second nationally with 25 passes defended. Michael Griffin led the team in tackles for the second consecutive year and, along with Ross, earned All-America and first-team All-Big 12 honors.

2005: UT finished eighth nationally in pass defense (172.0 ypg). The Horns also finished fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense (96.7 rating) that year. Opponents averaged only 5.13 yards per pass attempt, which led the nation, and threw for only 10 TDs compared to UT's 11 INTs. In 13 games, Texas allowed only two teams, Texas Tech and USC, to throw for over 200 yards. Both of those teams finished in the top five nationally in passing offense.

Prior to 2005: The Horns intercepted 13 passes and ranked 31st nationally in pass efficiency defense (114.3 rating) in 2004. Texas allowed opponents to complete just 167-of-354 passes (47.2%/third NCAA) for 2,305 yards (177.3 ypg/ninth NCAA) and ranked 18th nationally in pass efficiency defense (106.5 rating) in 2003. UT's recent pass defense efforts continue a turnaround that started when Mack Brown took over the Longhorns' program in 1998. That year, UT was coming off a season that saw it rank 75th nationally in pass efficiency defense (132.7 rating). In just their third season (2000), UT led the nation in pass efficiency defense (88.3 rating). The Horns limited opponents to the second-lowest completion percentage in the nation (45.2%/171-of-378), 184.3 yards per game, 5.36 yards per pass attempt (second NCAA), while allowing just eight TD passes that season. The Horns put up comparable numbers in 2001, holding a schedule that featured several high-powered passing attacks to a Big 12-low 146.7 passing yards per game (third NCAA) and ranked fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.0). Texas held its opponents to a NCAA-low 4.77 yards per attempt and just six TDs (t-2nd NCAA) in 2001. In 2002, Texas allowed opponents to complete just 192-of-400 passes (48.0%) for 2,147 yards (165.2 ypg/eighth NCAA). UT also ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency defense (96.1 rating). Texas' 22 interceptions were tied for the fourth-most nationally and second-most in UT history. The Horns ranked 92nd nationally in pass efficiency defense (138.7 rating) in '98 and improved to 12th in '99 (101.6 rating) before leading the nation in 2000.

GROUND PATROL: Mack Brown and his staff inherited a ground defense that had ranked no better than 64th nationally in the five seasons prior to their arrival. In 12 seasons at Texas, they have turned that around dramatically. The Horns have limited 55 of their last 104 opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing and allowed just twenty-eight 100-yard rushers in the last 131 games. In addition, at home over the last three seasons (23 games), Texas has only allowed six teams to break the 100-yard plateau and has only allowed three individual 100-yard rushers. In true road games over the last four seasons (12 games), Texas has only allowed five teams to reach 100 yards rushing and just two individual 100-yard rushers. Texas has held its opponent under 50 yards rushing 37 times during the Mack Brown era. During the last nine seasons (107 games), UT has held opponents to just 104.6 rushing yards per game (11,197 yards on 3,503 carries) and 3.2 yards per carry.

2009: Over the first four games, Texas is allowing just 47.3 rushing yards per game (second NCAA) and just 1.7 yards per carry. In total, the Horns have allowed just 189 yards rushing, while tallying 197 yards in losses via tackles for loss and sacks. They have also given up just one rushing TD on the season. The Horns held Texas Tech to minus-6 yards rushing on 18 attempts. Tech gained just 51 yards and lost 57 on nine TFL. Against UTEP, the Horns gave up just nine yards on 25 carries for a 0.4 yards-per-carry average. Sixteen of the Miner's 25 carries went for two yards or less, including 10 that went for negative yardage.

2008: Texas gave up just 83.5 yards rushing per game (third NCAA/first Big 12) and allowed just eight rushing TDs, which tied for eighth nationally and was 11 fewer than the next best Big 12 team. Overall, Texas gave up just 1,086 rushing yards on 356 carries (3.1 ypc) and forced its opponents into 522 lost yards on sacks and TFL. The Horns allowed only five teams to rush for over 100 yards and just three individual 100-yard rushers, while holding the other eight opponents to less than 50 yards rushing.

2007: Texas allowed just 93.4 yards per game to rank sixth nationally. The Horns held seven of their 13 opponents under 100 yards rushing and gave up just 2.9 yards per carry. Highlighting the season were games against No. 19 TCU (43 yards), Rice (-11 yards), Baylor (eight yards), Texas Tech (10 yards) and Arizona State (22 yards). All five games rank in UT's top 35 performances since 1990. In fact, the minus-11 yards by Rice were the fourth-fewest since 1990 and the fifth time UT has held an opponent to negative rushing yards in that span. All five occasions have come during the Mack Brown era.

2006: The Horns rush defense gave up just 61.2 yards per game in 2006 (third NCAA), turning in the best performance on school record since 1942 (57.5 ypg). They gave up only 795 yards rushing on 345 carries (2.3 ypc). UT allowed just two teams to rush for 100 yards and held six teams to 27 yards or less, including two games in which the opponent rushed for negative yards (Texas Tech, -13; Rice, -12). In addition, seven of UT's top 22 performances against the rush since 1990 came during the 2006 campaign.

2005: Texas allowed 130.9 ypg on the ground, 3.7 ypc and gave up only 15 rushing TDs, while holding nine of their 13 opponents to under 120 yards.

Prior to 2005: The Horns ranked 16th nationally in rushing defense (107.4 ypg) in 2004, allowing just 60.0 yards per game over the final six contests. UT held six foes to 70 (or fewer) yards rushing that season. After inheriting a unit that ranked 104th nationally and allowed 241.5 yards per game in 1997, Brown and company guided the Horns to the nation's 17th-best run defense (105.7 ypg) in 1999 and the 12th-best ground defense (94.0 ypg) in 2000. UT's 94.0 yards allowed rushing per game in 2000 was, at the time, the fewest allowed by a Longhorns' squad since 1977 (91.1 ypg). UT followed that effort up in 2001 by allowing a Big 12-low 89.5 rushing ypg (sixth NCAA) and just 2.8 yards per carry.

GUARDING THE END ZONE: Texas' defense has made it difficult for opponents to reach the end zone over the last 10 seasons. Since 2000, the Horns have allowed only 245 TDs in 119 games (2.1 TDs per game), which ranks fifth nationally. Miami has allowed the fewest TDs, giving up only 219. In 2009, the Horns' defense have allowed just five TDs on 57 possessions (8.8%). UT's best season came in 2001, when the Horns' top-ranked unit gave up only 19 TDs. Texas has allowed 29 TDs or fewer in six of the last nine seasons. Conversely, Texas has scored at least 45 TDs in each of the last nine seasons, with a high of 81 scores in 2005. The Horns have scored 25 TDs in 2009 and 554 TDs over the 10-year span, averaging 4.7 TDs per game.

FORCING TURNOVERS: Texas' defense has forced 316 turnovers during the Mack Brown era (145 games/2.2 per game), while only giving up 243 turnovers for a plus-73 turnover margin. Overall, the Horns have averaged a plus-six turnover margin per season during Brown's tenure. The Horns are plus-3 in the turnover margin in 2009 having forced 12 turnovers (six fumbles/six INTs), while giving up nine (four fumbles/five INTs). Last season, Texas forced 16 turnovers (10 fumbles/six INTs), while giving up 14 (six fumbles/eight INTs). In 2007, Texas forced 27 turnovers (10 fumbles/17 INTs), while giving up 26 (seven fumbles/19 INTs). In 2006, UT forced 32 turnovers (19 fumbles/13 INTs), while only giving up 23 (14 fumbles/nine INTs), for a plus-nine margin (T-No. 13 NCAA). The 32 takeaways were tied for the sixth-most in the nation and the 19 fumble recoveries tied for the most nationally. In 2005, UT forced 27 turnovers (16 fumbles/11 INTs). Three of those 27 turnovers were returned or recovered for scores, and the 16 fumble recoveries ranked fourth nationally. The Horns finished the season with a plus-nine turnover margin. Texas had a plus-five turnover margin, forcing 23 turnovers (10 fumbles/13 INTs) and losing 18, in 2004. UT forced 29 turnovers (14 fumbles/15 INTs) in 2003. UT's attacking unit provided several big plays in forcing 35 turnovers (T-No. 12 NCAA) in '02. The Longhorns combined for 22 INTs (T-No. 4 NCAA) by eight different players and recovered 13 fumbles.

UNEXPECTED OFFENSE: Even though Texas' offense is one of the most potent in the country, it has received help from the rest of the team when it comes to scoring TDs. Since 1999, UT has scored 66 TDs via returns, turnovers and blocked kicks. The 66 scores during that stretch rank third nationally behind Virginia Tech (74) and Kansas State (70). UT has scored three non-offensive TDs in 2009 on 89 (ULM) and 91-yard (UTEP) kickoff returns by D.J. Monroe and a 46-yard punt return by Jordan Shipley against Texas Tech. Texas posted five non-offensive TDs in 2008 behind two INT returns, a fumble return, a kickoff return and a punt return. In 2007, UT posted five non-offensive TDs on three INT returns, a fumble return and a kickoff return, which was UT's first since 2003. The Horns scored eight non-offensive TDs in 2006 with four coming off fumble recoveries, two from punt returns, one on an INT return and one on a blocked punt recovery in the end zone. In the nine-season stretch, Texas scored the most non-offensive TDs in 2003 (nine).

SCORING DEFENSE: Texas' defense has been a scoring machine since 1999. During that time, the defense has accounted for 246 points and scored in 36 of the 133 games. The Horns' defense has scored at least three TDs in nine of the last 10 seasons, led by the seven TDs scored in 2000. That defense tallied 46 points, which is the most over the nine-year stretch. The 2003 unit scored six TDs, while the 2006 unit scored five TDs.

SHORT DRIVES: The Texas defense has prevented its opponents from moving the chains on 36.3 percent of their drives over the last eight seasons (107 games). During that time, UT has forced 499 three-and-outs or better in 1,374 possessions. In 2009, the Horns have forced 23 three-and-outs or better on 57 possessions (40.4%). In addition, the Horns have held opponents to two first downs or less on 49 of 57 drives (86.0%). UT opened against ULM by forcing five three-and-outs or better on 14 possessions, while holding the Warhawks to two first downs or less on 8-of-14 possessions. Texas forced seven three-and-outs or better on 15 Wyoming possessions and held them to two first downs or less on 10 of the drives. UT added three three-and-outs or better against Texas Tech and held them to two first downs or less on 9-of-13 drives. Texas didn't allow UTEP to gain more than one first down on any of its 15 drives and forced three-and-outs or better on eight of them. The Horns forced 44 three-and-outs or better on 152 possessions (.289) in 2008, averaging over three three-and-outs per game. In 2007, UT forced 52 three-and-outs or better on 168 possessions (.310). Texas forced 60 three-and-outs or better on 154 possessions (.390) in 2006. Previously, the Horns held foes to three-and-outs or better on 73-of-178 possessions (.438) in 2005, 46-of-153 possessions (.307) in 2004, 56-of-181 possessions (.309) in 2003, 73-of-176 possessions (.414) in 2002 and 73-of-165 possessions (.442) in 2001.

BLOCK THAT KICK: The Texas special teams have been just that since Mack Brown took over the program in 1998. Since then, Texas has blocked 64 kicks (36 punts/16 FGs/12 PATs), an average of 5.7 per season. That is 38 more than the 25 recorded in the 12-year span prior to Brown's arrival. UT has blocked the second-most kicks in the nation since 2002 with 42 behind Fresno St. (46). Since Brown arrived, the Longhorns have had players set or equal UT records for career blocked kicks, single-season blocked kicks, career blocked punts and single-season blocked punts.

RETURN GAME: Texas has improved its kick returning and defending on kick-offs and punts since Mack Brown arrived in 1998. The Longhorns have scored on nine punt returns, while only giving up three punt return TDs since Brown's arrival. It had been 101 games (Kansas State, 1999) since Texas had given up a punt return for a TD before Kansas State returned one in 2007. That is a major difference from the 12 years prior to Brown's arrival. During that time, Texas scored on four punt returns, while its opponents scored on seven returns. When Brown arrived in 1998, Texas hadn't returned a kickoff for a score since 1978. Then, in the 2000 Holiday Bowl, Victor Ike returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD, snapping the 265-game streak. Selvin Young added a 97-yard kickoff return TD against New Mexico State in 2003, Quan Cosby posted a 91-yard kickoff return TD at Texas A&M in 2007 and Jordan Shipley notched a 96-yard kickoff return TD versus Oklahoma in 2008. D.J. Monroe has already returned two kickoffs for TDs in 2009, an 89-yarder against ULM and a 91-yarder versus UTEP. He is the first player in Texas history to notch two kickoff return TDs in their career. In fact, six of the 11 kickoff returns for TDs in UT history have come during the Mack Brown era.

PLACE-KICKS: Since 1998, four of Texas' most accurate field goal kickers (Kris Stockton, 1996, '98-2000, Dusty Mangum, 2001-04, Ryan Bailey, 2006-present and Hunter Lawrence 2006-present) have come during Brown's time at Texas. Bailey (25-of-30/.833) and Stockton (58-of-77/.753) rank first and second, respectively, on UT's field-goal accuracy chart (min. 25 attempts), while Lawrence is 18-of-21 (.857) during his career. Mangum (121), Lawrence (76), Bailey (60) and Stockton (57) also are at the top of UT's consecutive made extra points list.

2009 SENIORITY: A group of 16 seniors, who have played in a combined 495 games (217 starts), are leading the 2009 Longhorns. That group has posted a 36-7 (.837) record. QB Colt McCoy (43 games/43 starts), WR Jordan Shipley (43 games/24 starts) and linemen Chris Hall (35 games/27 starts), Charlie Tanner (34 games/21 starts) and Adam Ulatoski (40 games/34 starts) return as starters on the offensive side of the ball, while CB Deon Beasley (35 games/11 starts), DT Lamarr Houston (39 games/22 starts), DE/LB Sergio Kindle (36 games/15 starts) and LB Rodrick Muckelroy (33 games/21 starts) lead the way for the defense. DS Will Harvey (30 games) and place-kickers Ryan Bailey (28 games) and Hunter Lawrence (36 games) also return with first-team experience. In addition, DT Ben Alexander (28 games) and TE Mac McWhorter (36 games) are providing senior leadership in 2009.

THE REAL MCCOY: Colt McCoy's 36-7 record as a starter ranks first on UT's all-time victories list ahead of Vince Young (30-2, 2003-05) and is six victories shy of tying Georgia's David Greene for the all-time NCAA wins record (42). With a victory against UTEP, McCoy passed Alabama's Jay Barker, Iowa's Chuck Long and Syracuse's Donovan McNabb on the all-time list. McCoy already holds 44 school records including 14 career, 12 single-season, five single-game, six freshman and seven miscellaneous marks. During his 43-game career, McCoy has completed 928-of-1,320 passes (70.3%) for 10,877 yards and 94 TDs (38 INTs) for a passer rating of 157.3. McCoy's 928 completions, 1,320 attempts, 70.3 completion percentage, 10,877 yards, 94 TDs and 157.3 passer rating rank first on UT's all-time list and he is the first Longhorn to pass for more than 10,000 yards. He holds three of UT's top seven single-season marks for passing yardage (No. 1, 3,859, 2008; No. 3, 3,303, 2007; No. 7, 2,570, 2006). In combining his passing (94) and rushing (18) TDs, McCoy ranks first on UT's TD responsible for list with 112, having passed Ricky Williams (76) and Vince Young (81). McCoy joined Major Applewhite as the only two Texas QBs to surpass 2,000 yards passing in three seasons and McCoy is only the fifth to record multiple seasons of at least 2,000 passing yards. He has thrown for at least 200 yards 33 times in 43 career games, which ranks first on UT's all-time list ahead of Applewhite, and has thrown for at least 300 yards 12 times, which is a UT record. In fact, McCoy has thrown for at least 300 yards in seven of his last 11 games. McCoy holds the school record for consecutive completions and consecutive completions in a game with 18 against No. 7 Oklahoma State (2008). He now holds nine of UT's top 13 consecutive-completion streaks. McCoy has produced 69 plays of 30 yards or more, 26 of 40 yards or more and 18 of 50 yards or more during his career. He has thrown a TD pass in 40 of 43 career games, at least two TD passes in 30 games, which is the most in UT history, and at least four TD passes in seven games. McCoy has thrown a TD pass in 21 consecutive games, which is the longest streak in school history and currently ranks second nationally. McCoy is the only quarterback in Texas history who has recorded three seasons of at least 20 TD passes. McCoy's 56 TDs over the last two seasons (22, 2007; 34, 2008) are the most in consecutive years, bettering his own mark of 51 (29, 2006; 22, 2007) and Chris Simms' total of 48 (22, 2001; 26, 2002). In addition, McCoy has rushed for 1,284 yards and 18 TDs on 346 carries (3.7 ypc) and has rushed and passed for a TD in the same game 13 times during his career. Overall, McCoy is UT's all-time leader in total offense and ranks 12th on the NCAA all-time list, having produced 12,161 yards (10,877p/1,284r) to better Vince Young's 9,167 total yards. McCoy holds three of the top seven single-season marks for total offense (No. 1, 4,420, 2008; No. 3, 3,795, 2007; No. 7, 2,740, 2006) and is the first player in UT history to record at least 2,500 total yards in three seasons. He has posted 24 games of at least 300 total yards, which is a UT record, and holds five of the top 15 total offense games in UT history.

MCCOY'S CAREER HONORS:

Colt McCoy, who is a three-time UT MVP and three-time bowl game Offensive MVP (Alamo '06, Holiday '07, Fiesta '08), has already filled the trophy case during his three seasons at Texas. As a junior in 2008, McCoy was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation Player of the Year, the Chevrolet Offensive Player of the Year, the Archie Griffin Award winner and was a consensus first-team All-American. In addition, he was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, a finalist for the Maxwell Award (college player of the year), Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback) and Manning Award (nation's top quarterback) and was tabbed the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press. McCoy also picked up numerous weekly awards during his junior campaign, being named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week once, the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week three times and Big 12 Player of the Week three times. As a freshman in 2006, McCoy was a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top QB) and was named The Sporting News and Touchdown Club of Columbus National Freshman of the Year. He also was named the Big 12 Freshman of the Year, becoming the sixth UT player to win that honor. McCoy was twice named the Cingular All-America Player of the Week and earned the Walter Camp Player of the Week and Master Coaches Survey Game Ball once.

Among his many community service activities, McCoy spent his 2008 and '09 Spring Breaks on missions to Peru, where he volunteered at a weeklong Christian Sports camp that hosted less fortunate children in the areas of rainforests on the Amazon. He also earned a spot on the Big 12 Good Works team in 2007.

MCCOY'S ACADEMIC HONORS:

Colt McCoy has been selected as a semifinalist for the 2009 William V. Campbell Trophy, formerly known as the Draddy Trophy. Boasting better than a 3.0 GPA, McCoy is a three-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree and has earned a spot on UT's Athletics Director's Honor Roll five times. He was an Academic All-America nominee in 2007 and is on pace to graduate in December with a degree in sports management.

MCCOY VS. THE TOP 25: Colt McCoy is 8-3 versus ranked opponents. His only losses came to No. 1 Ohio State in just the second start of his career, to No. 10 Oklahoma in 2007 and at No. 6 Texas Tech in 2008. In the 11 games, McCoy has gone 276-of-388 (71.1%) for 2,932 yards and 18 TDs (seven INTs) for a passer rating of 146.3.

ing of 146.3. He has also rushed for 219 yards and five TDs. McCoy is averaging 286.5 total yards and two TDs per game. In 2008, McCoy led Texas to a 4-1 record against Top 11 teams by going 156-of-204 (76.5%) for 1,713 yards and nine TDs (three INTs) for a passer rating of 158.6, while adding 96 yards and four TDs on the ground.

SENIOR SENSATION: Senior QB Colt McCoy has continued to build off his stellar 2008 season. In four games this season, McCoy has gone 103-of-145 (71.0%) for 1,145 yards and nine TDs for a 151.0 passer rating, while rushing for another 61 yards and a TD. He is averaging 301.5 total yards per game (11th NCAA). McCoy has posted at least 300 yards of total offense in three of four games and passed for at least 300 yards in two. He has led 50 drives with Texas scoring on 28 of them (56.0%/20 TDs/eight FGs).

ULM: Despite playing just one snap into the fourth quarter, McCoy went 21-of-29 (72.4%) for 317 yards and two TDs. He connected on the second-longest pass play of his career when he hit Jordan Shipley for a 78-yard TD.

at WYOMING: McCoy went 30-of-47 (63.8%) for 337 yards and three TDs, while rushing for another TD. His 381 total yards rank 15th on UT's all-time list. TEXAS TECH: McCoy went 24-of-34 (70.6%) for 205 yards and a TD. In the second half, McCoy engineered scoring drives on four of UT's six possessions, including consecutive TD drives to open the third quarter. He went 15-of-18 (83.3%) for 135 yards and a TD over that span.

UTEP: Despite playing just one series into the second half, McCoy went 28-of-35 (80.0%) for 286 yards and three TDs. With 15 rushing yards, McCoy posted 301 yards of total offense. In the second quarter alone, McCoy was 15-of-19 (78.9%) for 152 yards and two TDs. Texas scored on eight of his 10 drives (five TDs/three FGs).

ONE IF BY LAND, ONE IF BY AIR:

Colt McCoy was one of eight QBs nationally who led his team in both rushing and passing in 2008. One of 12 players nationally to throw for 3,500 yards (3,859) in 2008, McCoy also rushed for a team-high 561 yards (11 TDs). He was joined by Chase Clement (Rice) as the only players in the country to pass for at least 3,500 yards and rush for more than 500. McCoy was just the second quarterback since Bobby Layne in 1946 to lead the Horns in both rushing and passing with Vince Young being the other in 2005.

CRUNCH TIME: In Texas' three biggest games of 2008, against No. 1 Oklahoma in Dallas, at No. 6 Texas Tech and versus No. 10 Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl, Colt McCoy's late game heroics were at their finest. In six late game drives in those three games, McCoy directed the Longhorns to TDs on all six. On those six TD drives, McCoy completed 21-of-27 passes for 301 yards and three TDs (no interceptions). With UT trailing 35-30 with 11:42 left in the game against the Sooners, McCoy directed two TD drives to put the Horns on top for a 45-35 victory. He completed 6-of-7 passes for 67 yards on those two drives with the only miss being a dropped pass in the end zone by UT's fullback. At Texas Tech, Texas trailed 29-13 with 2:38 left in the third quarter. In a hostile environment on the road, McCoy directed three straight scoring drives to put the Horns up 33-32 with 1:29 left, a game UT eventually lost 39-33. On those three drives, McCoy completed 8-of-10 passes for 173 yards and two TDs. Then, with Texas trailing 21-17 with 1:58 remaining against Ohio State, McCoy went 7-of-10 for 76 yards, including a 26-yard TD pass with 16 seconds left, to give the Horns a 24-21 victory.

IN THE ZONE: Colt McCoy was at his best in critical situations in 2008. McCoy completed 42-of-53 passes (79.2%) for 331 yards and 20 TDs (two INTs) in the red zone. And, those numbers were equally good against the nation's best. In games against Top 25 opponents, McCoy completed 16-of-20 passes (80.0%) for 108 yards and five TDs (one INT) in the red zone. So far in 2009, McCoy is 17-of-22 (77.3%) for 112 yards and four TDs (no INTs), while adding a rushing TD, in the red zone.

HOME COOKING: Colt McCoy has been in total control of the offense over the last two seasons at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium/Jamail Field. In 10 home games since the start of the 2008 season, McCoy has gone 249-of-311 (80.1%) for 2,883 yards and 27 TDs (seven INTs) for a 182.1 passer rating. He's thrown at least two TD passes in nine of the 10 games and for at least 300 yards six times. In the three home games this season, McCoy is 73-of-98 (74.5%) for 808 yards and six TDs for a 155.8 rating. In Texas' seven home games of 2008, McCoy went 176-of-213 (82.6%) for 2,075 yards and 21 TDs (three INTs) for a 194.2 passer rating. In addition, he rushed 69 times for 404 yards (5.9 ypc) and nine TDs. McCoy averaged 8.8 yards per play and posted 30 total TDs compared to just 37 incomplete passes.

ON A ROLL: Over his last 25 games, Colt McCoy has gone 594-of-816 (72.8%) for 7,056 yards and 57 TDs for a passer rating of 163.1, while rushing for 1,012 yards and 16 TDs. During that span, he is averaging 322.7 yards of total offense and three TDs per game. Overall, McCoy has thrown for at least 275 yards 16 times and had five games with at least four TD passes. He also has posted at least 50 yards rushing in nine games, including two 100-yard games (Oklahoma St., 106, 2007; FAU, 103, 2008).

MCCOY'S GROUND GAME: Colt McCoy is the fifth QB in Longhorn history to rush for 1,000 yards. He has posted 1,284 yards and 18 TDs on 346 carries (3.7 ypc) during his 43-game career, but the bulk of that yardage has come during the last three seasons. Since the beginning of 2007, McCoy has posted 1,114 yards and 16 TDs on 278 carries (4.0 ypc). In 2008 alone, McCoy tallied 561 yards and 11 TDs on 136 carries (4.1 ypc). The 561 yards rushing were the most by a Texas QB other than Vince Young since 1975. In 2007, McCoy finished second on the team in rushing with 492 yards, but his production was even better if you figure his totals purely as a runner (minus sack yardage). On 88 rushes, McCoy gained 665 yards (7.6 ypc), scored four TDs and posted 37 first downs. His 7.5 ypc average would have ranked him third nationally. Excluding sacks, McCoy has rushed for at least 50 yards in 10 of the last 16 games. He produced his first career 100-yard rushing game with 106 at Oklahoma State in 2007 and his 14-yard scramble on the final drive set up Texas' 40-yard game-winning field goal. McCoy added his second career 100-yard game in the 2008 season opener against FAU with 106 yards on 12 carries (8.6 ypc). During his career, McCoy has tallied 57 runs of at least 10 yards, 17 runs of at least 20 yards and four of at least 30 yards during his career.

MCCOY'S 2008 REWIND:

Already entrenched in the record books after two seasons, Colt McCoy was even better as a junior. McCoy was one of just two QBs nationally who posted over 3,500 yards passing and 500 yards rushing. He also rushed and passed for a TD in eight games and became the first Longhorn to rush and pass for a TD in three of the first four games of a season. For the year, McCoy went 332-of-433 (76.7%) for 3,859 yards and 34 TDs, with eight INTs, for a passer rating of 173.8. His 76.7 completion percentage set an NCAA record, bettering Daunte Culpepper's mark (73.6%, 296-of-402, 1998). In addition, McCoy's 173.8 passer rating ranked third nationally and set a UT single-season record. His 3,859 passing yards, 34 TDs and 332 completions also are UT single-season records. He threw for at least 300 yards six times, which broke Major Applewhite's single-season record of five (1999). In addition, McCoy led the team in rushing with 561 yards and 11 TDs on 136 carries (4.1 ypc). Overall, McCoy posted a single-season school record with 4,420 yards of total offense (3,859p/561r), bettering Vince Young's 4,086 total yards in 2005, and averaged 7.8 yards per play and 340.0 total yards per game, which ranked fifth nationally. His 4,420 total yards were more than 49 teams in the FBS. He also was responsible for 21.1 points per game, which ranked sixth nationally. His 45 total TDs were more than 75 teams in the FBS.

FAU: In Texas' 52-10 victory over FAU, McCoy threw for 222 yards and three TDs, while notching his second career 100-yard rushing game with 103 yards on 12 carries (8.6 ypc). He joined Vince Young as the only players in UT history to pass for 200 or more yards and rush for 100 or more yards in a game more than once in a career. McCoy also accomplished the feat with 282 passing yards and 106 rushing yards against Oklahoma State in 2007. McCoy opened the season by completing his first 13 passes, which set a single-game record (previous record: Vince Young, 12, vs. Oklahoma St., 2004), on his way to completing 24-of-29 passes (82.8%). He shared Big 12 Player of the Week honors for his efforts.

at UTEP: McCoy completed 20-of-29 passes (70.0%) for 282 yards and four TDs. He started fast against the Miners, completing 14-of-16 (87.5%) for 187 yards and three TDs in the first half. It marked the fifth time in his career that he threw for at least four TDs in a game.

RICE: McCoy threw four TD passes, which moved him into first on UT's career TD passes list with 62. He went 19-of-23 (82.6%), including 13 consecutive completions to tie the single-game record he set against FAU, for 329 yards (no INTs). McCoy's 260.2 passer rating for the game was the highest of his career. In the first half alone, McCoy went 15-of-18 (83.3%) for 269 yards and two TDs. The 269 first-half yards tied for the third-highest first-half total in UT history. In addition, McCoy's 175 passing yards in the second quarter are the eighth-most for an individual quarter in Texas history. McCoy also rushed for 83 yards and a TD on eight carries (10.4 ypc). His 412 total yards were a career high and rank fourth on UT's single-game list.

ARKANSAS: McCoy set a then-personal best in completion percentage (17-of-19, 89.5%), while helping UT set a school record in single-game completion percentage (21-of-23, 91.3%). He threw for 185 yards and three TDs, while rushing for 84 yards and two TDs on nine carries (9.3 ypc). McCoy produced 180 (100p/80r) of his 269 total yards and three of his five TDs in the first half, while helping UT take a 31-3 lead.

at COLORADO: McCoy went 23-of-30 (76.7%) for 262 yards and two TDs to go along with 39 yards rushing. With 301 total yards, it marked the third time this season McCoy has eclipsed the 300-yard mark. He also moved into second place on

NO. 1 OKLAHOMA: McCoy posted a 155.9 passer rating against an Oklahoma defense that entered the game leading the nation in pass efficiency defense (85.6 rating) after going 28-of-35 (80.0%) for 277 yards and a TD (no INTs). He also rushed for 31 yards to give him 308 total yards, his second consecutive game of at least 300 total yards. In addition, McCoy was 7-of-10 for 89 yards and a TD on third down.

NO. 11 MISSOURI: McCoy set a UT record by completing 90.6 percent of his passes (29-of-32), while throwing for 337 yards, which was just nine shy of his career mark, and two TDs. He also rushed for 23 yards and two scores. McCoy led UT on five consecutive TD drives in a first half that saw him go 18-of-20 for 230 yards and two TDs. In the second quarter alone, McCoy was 9-of-9 for 131 yards and two TDs. In addition, McCoy went on to complete 17 straight passes to set a new UT mark, breaking the previous mark of 15 he shared with Vince Young.

NO. 7 OKLAHOMA STATE: McCoy set UT single-game records by completing 18 straight passes at one point and 38 passes overall, while establishing career highs in yards (391) and total offense (432). Overall, McCoy was 38-of-45 (84.4%) for 391 yards and two TDs, while rushing for 41 yards and a TD on 10 carries (4.1 ypc). The 391 passing yards are the fifth most in UT history and the 432 total yards are fourth-best on UT record. His 268 passing yards in the first half rank sixth on UT's all-time list. In the second quarter alone, McCoy was 14-of-14 for 160 yards and a TD.

NO. 6 TEXAS TECH: Despite starting slow, McCoy finished 20-of-34 for 294 yards and two TDs (one INT). After Texas fell behind 22-6 at the half, McCoy went 13-of-19 for 216 yards and two TDs in the second half and led Texas to TDs on its last three possessions, giving UT its first lead of the game, 33-32, with just 1:29 left to play. He was 5-of-6 for 128 yards and a TD as the Horns registered 14 fourth-quarter points.

BAYLOR: McCoy threw for 300 yards and five TDs on 26-of-37 passing (70.3%). It was just the fourth time in UT history a QB has thrown for at least five TDs in a game and McCoy is the only QB to do it twice. In addition, McCoy completed his first eight passes of the second half and was 9-of-10 for 133 yards through the first 18 minutes after halftime, helping the Horns go on a 14-0 run before going to the sidelines with the game in hand.

at KANSAS: McCoy went 23-of-34 (70.6%) for 255 yards and two TDs (no INTs), while rushing for 78 yards and a score on 16 carries (4.9 ypc), to post 33 yards of total offense. With Texas holding a 14-0 halftime lead, McCoy led the Horns to TDs on three of their four third-quarter drives. During the quarter, McCoy went 8-of-12 for 106 yards and two TDs, while rushing for 52 yards.

TEXAS A&M: McCoy posted 360 yards of total offense and notched a rushing and passing TD in the same game for the seventh time in 2008. He went 23-of-28 (82.1%) for 311 yards and two TDs, while rushing for 49 yards and two scores on 11 carries in just over three quarters of work. McCoy led UT to TDs on 6-of-8 drives, including three of at least 78 yards, and helped UT convert 14-of-17 third downs.

NO. 10 OHIO STATE: McCoy tallied career highs in completions (41), attempts (58) and passing yards (414) and was named Offensive MVP of the 2009 Fiesta Bowl. The 41 completions and 58 attempts set school and BCS records and the 414 passing yards rank second in BCS history and third overall on UT's all-time list. McCoy posted two passing TDs and a rushing TD and went 7-of-10 for 76 yards, including a 26-yard TD pass with 16 seconds left, on UT's game-winning drive.

SOPHOMORE SUCCESS: After one of the most productive seasons by a QB in UT history in 2006, Colt McCoy returned in 2007 to earn both team and Holiday Bowl MVP honors. For the season, McCoy went 276-of-424 (65.1%) for 3,303 yards (No. 3 on UT's single-season list) and 22 TDs (T-No. 5 on UT's single-season list) for a passer rating of 139.2 (24th NCAA). McCoy's 276 completions rank second on UT's single-season list, while his 424 attempts stand third. McCoy also was the team's second-leading rusher with 492 yards, including at least 40 yards rushing in six of the last seven games and his first career 100-yard rushing game (106 at Oklahoma State). He amassed 3,795 total yards on the season (22nd NCAA/No. 3 on UT's single-season list). He passed for at least 200 yards 11 times and posted at least 300 yards of total offense six times. He matched UT's all-time record by reaching the 1,000-yard plateau after the first four games of 2007 and tied for second on UT's all-time list by reaching 2,000 yards passing after eight games.

MCCOY'S 2007 HIGHLIGHTS

NO. 19 TCU: Colt McCoy helped defeat a ranked opponent for the third time in his career by going 25-of-38 (65.8%) for 239 yards and a TD.

at UCF: McCoy completed a UT single-game record 32 passes and tied the school record in attempts with 47.

six TDs were just one shy of the UT single-game record (seven, Clyde Littlefield, 1915).

vs. NO. 12 ARIZONA STATE: McCoy notched his second bowl Offensive MVP honor after completing 21-of-31 passes (67.7%) for 174 yards and a TD and rushing for 84 yards and a TD on 16 carries (5.2 ypc) in a 52-34 Holiday Bowl victory.

FANTASTIC FIRST SEASON: After redshirting in 2005, Colt McCoy took over the reins of the Longhorn offense from former National Player of the Year and NFL Pro Bowler Vince Young in 2006. He progressed throughout the season and earned The Sporting News and Touchdown Club of Columbus National Freshman of the Year awards, while becoming a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback). McCoy also shared UT's MVP honors with Aaron Ross. He finished his redshirt-freshman campaign with a 161.8 passer rating (eighth NCAA), completing 217-of-318 passes (68.2%) for 2,570 yards (No. 7 on UT's single-season list/No. 1 on UT's freshman single-season list) and a then UT-record 29 TDs (T-No. 2 on NCAA single-season freshman list), while throwing just seven INTs. His 217 completions rank fifth on UT's single-season list and first on the school's freshman list. During 2006, he posted 14 plays of 30 yards or more, nine of 40 yards or more and six of 50 yards or more. McCoy opened the season by throwing for 200 yards in only one of the first six games, but finished by exceeding the 200-yard mark in five of the final seven games, including two games over 300 yards. The two games he didn't throw for 200 yards over that stretch were the Kansas State and Texas A&M games, when he was suffering from an injury. During 2006, McCoy had a streak of 10-straight games with a TD pass, which is the second-longest in UT history. He threw a TD pass in 11 of 13 games and two TDs in 10 of 13. He also spread the ball around, completing passes to 12 different receivers and TD passes to nine different players. In addition, McCoy tied the then-UT record for consecutive completions at 15 after completing the final four passes against Oklahoma state, his only four attempts at Kansas State and the first seven passes versus Texas A&M. In total, McCoy tallied a UT freshman record 2,740 yards of total offense (No. 7 on UT's single-season list). He became UT's first freshman QB to win a season opener since Bobby Layne in 1944.

MCCOY'S 2006 HIGHLIGHTS

IOWA STATE: Colt McCoy threw for 200 yards for the first time in his career when he threw for 212 yards and two TDs.

BAYLOR: McCoy's season took off when he threw a UT single-game record six TD passes. The six TDs also tied the NCAA mark for TD passes by a freshman in a game. He ended the game going 21-of-32 (65.6%) for 275 yards, while rushing for another 26. The 301 yards of total offense rank seventh on UT's freshman list. He was named the Cingular All-America Player of the Week for his performance.

at NEBRASKA: McCoy went 25-of-39 (64.1%) for 220 yards, two TDs and no INTs in the snow. He helped the Horns come back twice from fourth-quarter deficits to win that game.

at TEXAS TECH: McCoy went 21-of-31 (67.7%) for 256 yards and four TDs, while rushing for 68 yards on nine carries (7.6 ypc) in helping UT come back from a 21-point deficit, which is tied for the second-largest comeback in UT history. As

RECORD-BREAKING FRESHMAN

SEASON: As a freshman in 2006, Colt McCoy threw 29 TD passes, which set the UT single-season mark, breaking the record of 26 shared by Chris Simms (2002) and Vince Young (2005). He also tied the then-NCAA freshman record held by Nevada's David Neill (1998). Against Baylor in 2006, McCoy threw six TD passes, which set the UT record for TD passes in a game and tied the NCAA freshman mark. The six TD throws eclipsed the previous mark of five set by James Brown (at Baylor, 1994) and matched by Chris Simms (at Oklahoma State, 2001). McCoy's 2,570 yards passing as a freshman rank first on UT's single-season freshman list and seventh on the overall single-season list. His 2,740 yards of total offense also rank first on UT's freshman single-season list and seventh on the overall single-season list. He produced 352 yards of total offense against Oklahoma State in 2006, which ranks as the second-highest single-game total by a freshman in UT history. He also posted 324 yards of total offense at Texas Tech (No. 6 on UT's freshman single-game total offense list) and 301 yards of total offense against Baylor (No. 8 on UT's freshman single-game total offense list). His 72-yard TD pass to Jamaal Charles in the 2006 Alamo Bowl is the fourth-longest pass play by a freshman in UT history, while his 62-yard TD pass to Billy Pittman against Baylor ranks seventh. He also threw a 50-yard TD pass to Limas Sweed against Baylor to become just the second freshman QB, along with Major Applewhite, to throw two TD passes of 50 or more yards in the same game. McCoy had a streak of 10-straight games with a TD pass, which is the third-longest in UT history.

COMEBACK KID: Over the past few seasons, Texas has developed a never-say-die attitude that has helped pull off comebacks on several occasions. Much like his mentor Vince Young, who engineered six fourth-quarter comebacks and eight second-half comebacks, Colt McCoy has proven that he is capable of leading the Horns when they are behind. He has already posted 10 second-half comebacks, including seven fourth-quarter comebacks, during his career.

vs. NO. 14 OKLAHOMA (2006): The first comeback of McCoy's career came after Texas trailed 10-7 at halftime, but the Horns stormed back for a 28-10 victory. McCoy opened the second half by going 5-of-5 passing for 66 yards and two TDs, while rushing for 23 yards on two scoring drives that put away the Sooners.

vs. BAYLOR (2006): Texas fell behind 10-0 after the first quarter before McCoy hit stride. He racked up 268 yards and a UT-record six TD passes on 19-of-26 passing (73.1%) over the final three quarters to lead UT to a 63-31 victory.

at NO. 17 NEBRASKA (2006): McCoy brought the Horns back in his first test on the road. With Nebraska leading 20-19, Texas got the ball back at the Nebraska 44-yard line with 2:17 to play. McCoy methodically moved the Horns to the Nebraska five before UT kicked a field goal with 23 seconds left to take the lead for good, 22-20.

at TEXAS TECH (2006): Texas Tech jumped out to a 21-0 lead after the first quarter and 31-21 lead at the half, but McCoy led Texas to a 35-31 victory. The 21-point comeback is tied for the second-largest comeback in school history. After at UCF (2007): McCoy added his third fourth-quarter comeback, leading Texas to 12 straight points (TD, two FGs) on three consecutive drives after the Horns fell behind 24-23. On those three drives, McCoy went 7-of-10 for 82 yards, while adding 12 yards rushing.

NEBRASKA (2007): After falling behind 17-3 in the third quarter (17-9 entering the fourth quarter), McCoy guided a Texas offense that produced 336 total yards and 25 points in the second half and helped the Horns go on to win, 28-25.

at OKLAHOMA STATE (2007): McCoy notched his second-consecutive fourth-quarter comeback in leading Texas from a 35-14 deficit entering the final stanza. While helping Texas score 24-unanswered points to win the game, 38-35, McCoy went 8-of-9, including eight straight completions, for 145 yards and rushed for 38 yards, while leading the Horns to 311 yards of total offense. His 14-yard scramble on the final drive set up Texas' 40-yard game-winning field goal.

vs. NO. 1 OKLAHOMA (2008): McCoy helped Texas erase two 11-point deficits in the first half and brought the Horns to within one, 21-20, at halftime. OU went up 28-20 before McCoy helped Texas score 10 straight points to take a 30-28 lead late in the third quarter. OU responded with a TD early in the fourth to make it 35-30, but McCoy helped Texas answer, leading the Horns to 15 straight points over the last 7:37 to win, 45-35. In total, after the Sooners went up, 28-20, after their first drive of the second half, McCoy helped Texas go on a 25-7 run to seal the victory.

vs. NO. 10 OHIO STATE (2008): With Texas trailing 21-17 with 1:58 remaining, McCoy went 7-of-10 for 76 yards, including a 26-yard TD pass with 16 seconds left, to give the Horns a 24-21 victory. For the game, McCoy tallied career highs in completions (41), attempts (58) and passing yards (414) and was named Offensive MVP. The 41 completions and 58 attempts set school and BCS records and the 414 passing yards rank second in BCS history and third overall on UT's all-time list.

SPREADING THE WEALTH:

Colt McCoy has excelled in keeping his entire receiving corps involved in UT's offensive attack. Over the first four games of 2009, McCoy has completed passes to 10 different receivers and TD passes to four different players. In addition, he has completed passes of at least 20 yards to four different receivers. Last season, McCoy completed passes to 12 different receivers and TD passes to seven different receivers. The Horns had two players catch at least 80 passes and post at least 1,000 yards for the first time in school history, and for the second consecutive season, had three players post at least 40 receptions and at least 500 yards. In addition, McCoy produced completions of at least 30 yards to five receivers. In 2007, McCoy hit 12 different receivers and completed TD passes to seven pass catchers. The Longhorns had three players with 40 or more receptions in the same season for the first time in school history. The Horns also had three players with 500 or more receiving yards for just the third time in school history. In addition, McCoy completed passes of at least 50 yards to four different players.

FAMILIAR TARGET: Since Colt McCoy and Jordan Shipley began seeing the field at the same time, the duo has become one of the most prolific tandems in UT history. Of Shipley's 168 career catches, McCoy has been the quarterback for 163 of them. Their 163 connections rank second on UT's QB-to-WR combo chart. McCoy-to-Quan Cosby ranks first all-time with 191 connections (2006-08), while Chris Simms-to-Roy Williams (131, 2000-02) ranks third.

BELITNIKOFF AWARD CANDIDATE

JORDAN SHIPLEY: Senior Jordan Shipley is one of the most versatile and dangerous pass catchers in the nation. Shipley has recorded 168 receptions (No. 5 on UT's all-time list) for 2,142 yards (No. 6 on UT's all-time list) and 22 TDs

(No. 2 on UT's all-time list) during his 43-game career (25 starts). He's tallied eight games with at least eight catches and five 100-yard receiving games during his career. Shipley has caught a TD pass in 13 of his last 20 games. He's scored TDs in three of the four games this season with two receiving TDs and a 46-yard punt return TD against Texas Tech. Last season, he scored a TD in 10 of 13 games with a 45-yard punt return for a TD at No. 6 Texas Tech accounting for a score in one of the games he didn't catch a TD pass. With two punt return TDs and a kickoff return for a TD (96 yards vs. Oklahoma, 2008), Shipley is just the fourth Longhorn to return a kickoff and a punt for a TD during a career and his three return TDs are tied for the most in UT history. He is one of only three returning players in the NCAA FBS that returned a punt and a kickoff for a TD last season. Shipley averages 14.2 yards per punt return (17-for-241) and 26.3 yards per kickoff return (15-for-394) during his career. He also serves as UT's holder.

2009: Over the first four games, Shipley has caught 36 passes for 436 yards (12.1 ypc) and two TDs. His nine receptions per game rank third nationally and his 109.0 receiving yards per game rank 13th. He already has two 100-yard receiving games this season, which is just one off his career total coming into the season. He has caught at least 10 passes in each of the last two games, becoming the first Longhorn in school history to have back-to-back games with double-digit receptions. In addition to his receiving skills, Shipley has returned 11 punts for 177 yards and a TD. His 16.1 ypr average ranks 14th nationally and his 153.3 all-purpose yards per game are 23rd. Shipley has posted at least 100 all-purpose yards in each game this season. He opened the year by recording eight receptions for 180 yards (22.5 ypc) and a TD against

ULM. The 180 receiving yards were the most ever by a UT receiver in an opener and tied for seventh on UT's single-game list. It also was a career high for Shipley and was the fourth-most receiving yards nationally during the opening weekend. Of Shipley's 180 yards, 164 came in the first half, which ranks third on UT's first-half list. At Wyoming, Shipley added seven catches for 61 yards. Against Texas Tech, Shipley posted 11 catches for 73 yards and returned a punt 46 yards for a TD, the second straight year he has returned a punt for a TD against the Red Raiders. Shipley added 10 catches for 122 yards and a TD against UTEP. He posted nine of the catches and 111 of the yards in the first half and only played one series in the second half. He also returned three punts for 73 yards (24.3 ypr) against the Miners.

2008: A third-team All-American and a first-team All-Big 12 selection, Shipley posted 89 receptions for 1,060 yards (11.9 ypc) and 11 TDs. The 89 receptions rank third on UT's single-season list, the 1,060 yards rank sixth and the 11 TDs are third. He set the UT record by catching a TD pass in eight consecutive games to open the season, bettering Limas Sweed's seven-game streak in 2006. Shipley's 6.9 recpetions per game ranked 18th nationally and his 81.5 yards per game ranked 31st. Over his last 11 games, Shipley notched 82 receptions for 973 yards (11.9 ypc) and nine TDs. He posted at least five receptions in nine of 13 games and three 100-yard games. Shipley posted the first 100-yard receiving game of his career against Rice after notching five catches for 155 yards and two TDs, all in the first half. The 155 yards rank 24th on UT's single-game list and are the fourth-most ever recorded in a half at UT. Shipley had a career day in the Red River Rivalry against No. 1 Oklahoma. His 11 catches were a Red River Rivalry record and a career high at the time. He posted his second career 100-yard receiving game (112) and caught a TD against the Sooners. Shipley also added a 96-yard kickoff return for a TD, which was the only kickoff return for a TD in Red River Rivalry history, and the third-longest in UT history. His 225 all-purpose yards were also a career high. Shipley set a UT single-game record with 15 catches against No. 7 Oklahoma State, while posting a career-high 168 yards and a TD. The 15 receptions bettered Roy Williams' mark of 13 against Nebraska in 2002. Against No. 6 Texas Tech, Shipley added six receptions for 42 yards and posted a 45-yard punt return for a TD. He became just the fourth Longhorn to return a kickoff and a punt for a TD during a career.

2007: Shipley notched 27 receptions for 417 yards and five TDs. His 15.4 yards per catch average led the team (20+ receptions). He saw his first action at receiver in 2007 against UCF after suffering from a hamstring injury and notched four receptions for 47 yards. Shipley posted 71 yards, while notching the first multiple TD game of his career, including a 58-yarder, at Iowa State. He added two receptions for 70 yards, including a career-long 60-yarder to set up UT's game-tying score late in the fourth quarter, at Oklahoma State. Shipley posted six receptions in the Holiday Bowl against Arizona State.

2006: Shipley played in all 13 games and caught 16 passes for 229 yards and four TDs. He posted 17 plays of at least 10 yards and averaged 32.3 yards per TD catch. He also produced both a run and a reception of 40 or more yards.

ESPN Helmet Sticker for his efforts. Shipley tallied 11 receptions for 112 yards (10.2 ypc) and a TD and returned a kick-off 96 yards for a TD. The 11 receptions are the most for anyone in a Red River Rivalry game and his 225 all-purpose yards were a career high. On top of that, Shipley became the first player in Red River Rivalry history to return a kickoff for a TD. It was the longest return in the storied rivalry and was the third-longest in UT history.

SHIPLEY'S STRETCH: Jordan Shipley played the best football of his career during Texas' four-game stretch against teams ranked in the Top 11 in 2008. He tallied 40 receptions for 411 yards (10.3 ypc/102.3 ypg) and three TDs. The stretch started when he posted 11 catches for 112 yards and a TD against No. 1 Oklahoma in the Red River Rivalry. He also returned a kickoff 96 yards for a TD in that game to post a career-best 225 all-purpose yards. He followed that by notching eight receptions for 89 yards and a TD versus No. 11 Missouri before tallying career highs with 15 receptions and 168 yards, to go along with another TD, against No. 7 Oklahoma State. Shipley added six catches for 42 yards and returned a punt 45 yards for a TD at No. 6 Texas Tech to become just the fourth Longhorn to return both a kickoff and a punt for a TD during a career. In five games total against teams ranked in the Top 25 in 2008, Shipley posted 50 receptions for 489 yards and three TDs.

SCORING FAST: Jordan Shipley became the fourth player in the Mack Brown era to score on UT's first offensive play from scrimmage in a game. He opened the Iowa State game in 2007 with a 58-yard TD reception to join Jamaal Charles, who scored on a three-yard run on the first play at Missouri in 2005, Cedric Benson, who notched a 38-yard TD run against North Texas in 2004, and Hodges Mitchell, who scored on an 80-yard run at Oklahoma State in 1999.

FRESH FACES: With the departure of Quan Cosby, a trio of young receivers, who all saw action in 2008, have been asked to step up and fill the void. The group of junior James Kirkendoll and sophomores Dan Buckner and Malcolm Williams combined to post 43 receptions for 609 yards and six TDs last season. Already this season, the group has notched 44 catches for 529 yards and five TDs.

James Kirkendoll: Kirkendoll has posted 14 catches for 162 yards and a TD in 2009. He started the season opener against ULM and made two receptions for 19 yards. He posted the first 100-yard receiving game of his career at Wyoming, going for 102 yards on seven catches. He notched a 25-yard TD reception and a career-long 42-yard reception. He added an 11-yard reception against Texas Tech and caught four passes for 30 yards against UTEP. Last season, Kirkendoll played in all 13 games, making five starts, and caught 21 passes for 221 yards and a TD. Kirkendoll also made one of the most important catches of the season when he converted a fourth down with just 38 seconds left in the game to extend UT's game-winning drive against No. 10 Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl. He saw action in four games at wide receiver as a true freshman in 2007 before an injury shortened his season. For his career, Kirkendoll has made 35 catches for 383 yards and two TDs in 21 games.

Dan Buckner: Buckner has become a more focal part of the offense in 2009 after moving from an outside receiver to a flex end position. After four games, he has posted 23 catches for 294 yards (12.8 ypc) and four TDs. His 5.8 receptions per game is tied for 45th nationally and his 73.5 yards per game rank 55th. He's caught at least five passes in every game this season and posted at least 70 yards in three of the four games. Buckner opened the year against ULM by posting five receptions for 62 yards. He followed that up with career highs in receptions (six) and yards (86), including a 33-yard TD reception, at Wyoming. Buckner added six more receptions for 75 yards and a TD against Texas Tech. He also had six receptions against UTEP to go along with 71 yards and two TDs, the first multi-TD game of his career. Buckner entered the rotation as a true freshman in 2008, posting five catches for 84 yards and two TDs. He made the first catch and first TD reception of his career at UTEP and had a 51-yard TD reception against No. 11 Missouri. For his career, Buckner has caught 28 passes for 378 yards (13.5 ypc) and six TDs.

DID YOU KNOW?

Jordan Shipley averaged 10 catches for 97.8 yards in five games against Top 25 opponents in 2008.

Malcolm Williams: Williams, who started the first four games of 2008, caught 17 passes for 304 yards and three TDs as a redshirt freshman. His 304 yards rank fifth on UT's single-season freshman list and his three TDs are tied for second. The first big play of Williams' career came against No. 11 Missouri, when he made a leaping grab for a 32-yard TD. Then, at No. 6 Texas Tech, Williams posted 182 yards on four receptions. He notched a 91-yard TD catch and a 37-yard TD reception. The 91-yarder was the fifth-longest reception in UT history and the second-longest by a freshman. His 182 receiving yards rank fifth on UT's single-game chart and are the second-most by a freshman in UT history. So far in 2009, Williams has made seven catches for 73 yards.

CHILES TO WR: The receiving corps has been bolstered by John Chiles' switch from quarterback to receiver. Chiles moved to receiver in the spring of 2009 after spending his first two seasons at quarterback, where he produced 488 yards of total offense (322r/166p) and six TDs (4r/2p) in limited action. Chiles spent time at wide receiver as a prepster and posted 694 receiving yards and eight TDs as a junior before making the full-time switch to quarterback. In his first game at wide receiver at Texas, Chiles caught three passes for 35 yards and a TD against ULM. Then, at Wyoming, Chiles caught five passes for 49 yards, including a 26-yard TD reception. He added three catches for 30 yards and posted a 34-yard run against Texas Tech. Chiles posted four catches for 41 yards against UTEP. For the season, he's got 15 catches for 155 yards and two TDs.

CHILES IN THE BACKFIELD: Despite moving to wide receiver for the 2009 season, junior John Chiles is still occasionally taking snaps from center in the "Wild Horn" formation. Texas unveiled the alignment against Texas Tech in week three, and on the first play, Chiles posted a 34-yard run. Texas used the formation sparingly against UTEP and overall, the Horns have run seven plays from the formation, six runs for 31 yards and an 11-yard reverse pass from Colt McCoy to James Kirkendoll, for 42 total yards (7.0 ypp).

TWO-SPORT STAR: As a prepster, true freshman Marquise Goodwin posted 132 receptions for 1,709 yards and 17 TDs over his three-year career, but he made a name for himself as a track and field standout. Goodwin, the national high school record holder in the long jump with a mark of 26-10, is a two-time World Junior Champion (long jump, 4x100) and four-time Texas 5A state champion (long jump (2), triple jump, 4x100). Boasting a personal best 10.24 in the 100 meters, Goodwin's leap of 26-4.75 to win the 2009 state long jump championship would have won the Big 12 Championship in that event. Goodwin saw the first action of his career against ULM and made three catches for 39 yards. He added a nine-yard reception at Wyoming and then caught five passes for 36 yards against UTEP. For the season, Goodwin has posted nine catches for 84 yards.

FOUR-BACK ATTACK: With Chris Ogbonnaya playing in the NFL with the St. Louis Rams, Texas returned three running backs with significant game experience from 2008. The group includes junior Vondrell McGee and sophomores Cody Johnson and Foswhitt "Fozzy" Whittaker. That three-some combined to rush for 998 yards and 16 TDs on 228 carries (4.4 ypc) in 2008. A fourth, Tre Newton, joined the mix early this year and earned his first start against UTEP.

Vondrell McGee: For the season, McGee has carried the ball 38 times for 244 yards (6.4 ypc) and two TDs, while making four receptions for 14 yards. McGee earned the starting nod for UT's season-opening victory over ULM. He tallied 70 yards and a TD on 15 carries. McGee added 61 yards on 11 carries (5.5 ypc) at Wyoming and posted the first 100-yard game of his career when he rushed for 104 yards and a TD on eight carries (13.0 ypc) against UTEP. In 2008, McGee carried the ball 88 times for 376 yards and four TDs, while making nine receptions for 49 yards. He opened the season against FAU by posting 63 yards and a TD on 12 carries (5.2 ypc). He added 58 yards on six carries (9.7 ypc) against No. 11 Missouri and 55 yards on 10 carries versus Baylor. McGee posted 75 carries for 325 yards (4.0 ypc) and eight TDs as a redshirt freshman in 2007. His eight TDs are tied for sixth all-time on UT's freshman list. For his career, McGee has rushed for 917 yards and 14 TDs on 201 carries (4.6 ypc).

Cody Johnson: As a redshirt freshman in 2008, Johnson rushed 76 times for 338 yards and 12 TDs. His 12 TDs tied for first on UT's freshman list with Cedric Benson. Johnson opened 2008 with a streak of seven straight games with a TD, which was snapped against No. 7 Oklahoma State. The streak is a UT freshman record and is tied for fourth on UT's overall list. As UT's goal-line specialist, Johnson converted 10 of his 12 carries inside the five into TDs, including three against No. 1 Oklahoma. Johnson posted the first 100-yard game of his career against Texas A&M with 102 yards and two TDs on eight carries (12.8 ypc). In 2009, Johnson has rushed for 53 yards and five TDs on 15 carries. He opened the year with three rushing TDs against ULM and finished the game with 27 yards on 11 carries. He added another rushing TD against Texas Tech and posted an 18-yard TD run against UTEP. For his career, Johnson's carried the ball 91 times for 391 yards and 17 TDs.

Fozzy Whittaker: Whittaker spent the 2007 season gaining valuable experience on the scout team after finishing his prep career ranked sixth on the all-time Texas 5A rushing chart with 5,717 yards. After missing the 2008 season-opener against FAU with a knee injury, he saw his first action as a Longhorn at UTEP and rushed for 72 yards on 12 carries (6.0 ypc). He added 20 yards on two carries against No. 11 Missouri and 42 yards on six carries at No. 6 Texas Tech. Whittaker earned the first start of his career against Baylor and rushed for 77 yards on 15 carries. On the season, Whittaker posted 284 yards on 64 carries. After missing the first three games of 2009 with a knee injury, Whittaker returned against UTEP and posted 38 yards and a TD on four carries.

Tre Newton: Redshirt freshman Tre Newton saw the first action of his career late in the 2009 season opener against ULM and carried the ball four times for 28 yards (7.0 ypc). He built on that at Wyoming, rushing for 62 yards and a TD on eight carries (7.8 ypc). He also had a 15-yard reception and averaged 8.6 yards per touch on nine plays. Against Texas Tech, Newton set career highs with 20 carries and 88 yards, while tallying a 19-yard TD run. He added 25 yards and a TD on nine carries against UTEP. For the season, Newton has carried the ball 41 times for 203 yards (5.0 ypc) and three TDs. A three-time all-state selection, Newton, who is the son of former Dallas Cowboy great Nate Newton, is accustomed to running out of the spread. He produced 4,728 yards and 49 TDs on the ground and 784 yards and six TDs receiving in a Southlake Carroll spread offense that went 59-2 and won three state titles with Newton in the backfield.

RECENT O-LINE SUCCESS: The Texas offensive line has been one of the nation's steadiest units over the past five seasons, and despite five linemen moving on to the NFL over the previous three seasons, the Horns rushed for 167.5 ypg and tallied 475.8 ypg (ninth NCAA) in 2008. The pipeline to the NFL over the last four years began with OT Jonathan Scott, who was taken in the fifth round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions and is now playing with the Buffalo Bills. Then, in the 2007 draft, the Horns had two players, OL Justin Blalock and OG Kasey Studdard, picked. Blalock was selected in the second round by the Atlanta Falcons and has started all 31 games of his professional career, while Studdard was taken in the sixth round by the Houston Texans. In addition, C Lyle Sendlein signed with the Arizona Cardinals as a free agent and has played in 34 career games, starting 22, including all 20 of Arizona's 2008 run to the Super Bowl. Then, in 2008, the Horns dealt with the departure of two seniors from 2007 in OT Tony Hills, a first-team All-America selection who was drafted in the fourth round by the Pittsburgh Steelers, and C Dallas Griffin, who won the Draddy Trophy and was an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection. This season, the Horns will have to make up for the loss of OG Cedric Dockery, who was a second-team All-Big 12 selection and played in 41 career games, starting 30.

VETERAN FRONT: Texas' offensive line, led by four returning starters, including three seniors, returns nearly intact in 2009. That foursome, which has combined to post 102 career starts, is led by a trio of seniors. LT Adam Ulatoski (34 starts) is in his fourth year as a starter while C Chris Hall (27 starts) and LG Charlie Tanner (23 starts) are in their third year as starters. The fourth returning starter on the line, junior RT Kyle Hix (18 starts) is a second-year starter. Junior Michael Huey, who started three games in 2008, earned the start against ULM to open 2009, but missed the Wyoming game with an ankle injury. He returned for the Texas Tech game. Ulatoski has played in 40 career games and is a two-time All-Big 12 selection. After playing right tackle during his first two seasons, he moved to left tackle in 2008 to fill the void caused by Tony Hills' graduation. Hall (35 games) settled in at center for 2008 and started the first 10 games before missing the final two regular-season games with a knee injury. He returned to start the Fiesta Bowl. In 2007, he started at least one game at all five line positions. Tanner, who was tabbed honorable mention All-Big 12 in 2008, has seen action in 35 career games and is a three-time Academic All-Big 12 performer. Hix (30 games) has started the last 18 games at right tackle. He also saw action in all 13 games of 2007 and started at right tackle in UT's Holiday Bowl victory over No. 12 Arizona State. Huey has played in 29 of 30 games during his first three seasons, including all 26 during his first two years.

LINE DEPTH: In addition to the five projected starters, Texas has a group of returnees that have combined to play in 86 games. Juniors OT Tray Allen (24 games), OT Britt Mitchell (29 games) and OG Steve Moore (16 games) will help solidify the offensive line in 2009, while sophomore David Snow returns after playing in all 13 games as a true freshman. Snow started the last two games of the 2008 regular season at center against Kansas and Texas A&M, replacing an injured Chris Hall, and earned starts in three games this season.

THE GO-TO GUY: Senior Chris Hall entered 2007 as the starting right guard, but the right-guard label was quickly changed to offensive lineman as the versatile Hall became the go-to-guy at all five line positions for a Longhorn line that battled injuries. Hall started the second game of 2007 against No. 19 TCU at left guard before moving in as the starter at right tackle for an injured Adam Ulatoski against UCF and Rice. Hall moved back to left guard against Kansas State, but was back filling injured Ulatoski's shoes at right tackle for the Oklahoma game. Hall continued to plug holes along the offensive line by starting at left guard at Iowa State, right guard at Baylor and left guard against Nebraska before not starting against Oklahoma State due to his own injury. But, when Dallas Griffin sustained a season-ending knee injury in Stillwater, Hall slid over and played most of the game at center. He then started for Griffin at center against Texas Tech before moving to left tackle after Tony Hills sustained a season-ending leg injury. Then, Hall started at left tackle against Texas A&M, which meant he started at least one game at every offensive line position in 2007. In comparison, only three recent linemen have even started at the combination of center/guard or guard/tackle during a season. Justin Blalock started at right guard and right tackle (2006), Derrick Dockery started at right guard and right tackle (2002) and Dan Neil started at right guard and center (1993).

ULI: Senior Adam Ulatoski has been a mainstay along the offensive line during his five-year career. After redshirting in 2005, Ulatoski has seen action in 40 of UT's 43 games since 2006, including 34 starts. He earned a starting position at right tackle for the seventh game of 2006 and held that spot for the remainder of the season. In 2007, Ulatoski started nine games at right tackle before making the switch to left tackle for Texas' Holiday Bowl victory over No. 12 Arizona State. He remained at left tackle for the 2008 season, when he started all 13 games. During his career, Ulatoski has earned two All-Big 12 honors, a first-team honor in 2008 and an honorable mention nod in 2007. In addition to his on-field skills, Ulatoski earned his degree in corporate communications in December of 2008 and is now working towards a master's degree in advertising. He has been recognized as an Academic All-Big 12 performer twice and has been a member of UT's Athletics Director's Honor Roll eight times.

PRESSURE AT A PREMIUM: Since 1999, Texas ranks third nationally in sacks at 386 behind USC (399) and TCU (392). Texas led the nation in sacks last season with 47, which was also the most in the Mack Brown era, bettering the 43-sack total in 2000. It marked the first time in school history that Texas led the country in sacks. In addition, the 2008 defense produced 100 TFL, 170 pressures and 129 hits on opponents' quarterbacks. Through four games in 2009, the Horns have registered 13 sacks, 40 TFL, 50 pressures and 66 hits on opponents' quarterbacks.

KINDLE TIME: While splitting time at LB and DE in 2008, senior Sergio Kindle posted 10 sacks en route to honorable mention All-America and first-team All-Big 12 honors. On the heels of that breakout year, Kindle elected to pass on early entry into the NFL Draft to return to Texas and spent the spring focusing on his pass rushing skills from the defensive end position. He'll continue to work at both LB and DE in 2009, but with the departure of DEs Brian Orakpo and Henry Melton, will be counted on to be a focal part of Will Muschamp's Longhorn defense. So far in 2009, Kindle has posted 13 tackles, two sacks, 12 pressures, two forced fumbles and a PBU. In UT's season-opening win over ULM, Kindle notched three tackles, a PBU and two pressures. He added five tackles and six pressures at Wyoming. Against Texas Tech, Kindle posted three tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and three pressures, one of which forced Texas Tech QB Taylor Potts into an interception. He added two tackles, a sack and a forced fumble in limited action against UTEP. A member of the prestigious Playboy Preseason All-American team, Kindle played in all 13 games in 2008, starting 11. He finished second on the team in sacks with 10 (t-21st NCAA) and TFL with 14 to go along with 15 quarterback pressures. His 53 tackles ranked fifth on the team. Kindle was particularly effective during UT's four-game stretch against Top 11 teams. He tallied 19 tackles, four sacks, one in each game, five TFL and six pressures. Kindle also finished the season strong, posting 3.5 sacks, six TFL and three pressures over the final three games. After playing in 11 games as a true freshman in 2006 and notching 21 tackles and three TFL, he appeared in eight games in 2007, posting 32 tackles, a half sack, four TFL, five pressures and a PBD. For his career, Kindle has played in 36 games (15 starts) and posted 119 tackles, 12.5 sacks, 23 TFL, 32 pressures, four PBU, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

RETURNING DEFENSIVE ENDS:

Texas has two other veterans at defensive end who have made an impact over their first two seasons in juniors Sam Acho and Eddie Jones. The duo has combined to notch 82 tackles, 10 sacks, 18 TFL, 32 pressures, nine PBD and four fumble recoveries during their three seasons. Acho has seen action in 28 career games (four starts) and tallied 39 tackles, 7.5 sacks, nine TFL, 15 pressures, six PBD, a forced fumble and four fumble recoveries. In 2009, Acho has notched 13 tackles, three sacks, four pressures, two PBD and four fumble recoveries. The four fumble recoveries rank first nationally and are already tied for third on UT's single-season list. In his first career start against ULM, Acho posted four tackles, a pressure, two PBD and two fumble recoveries. He added five tackles, two sacks, a pressure and a fumble recovery at Wyoming. Against Texas Tech, Acho tallied a tackle and a fumble recovery. He added three tackles, a sack and two pressures against UTEP. Jones, who redshirted in 2006, has appeared in 28 career games and posted 43 tackles, 3.5 sacks, nine TFL, 17 pressures, an INT and three PBD. He has posted seven tackles, a sack, two TFL, seven pressures and a forced fumble in 2009. Against Texas Tech, Jones tallied three tackles, a sack and two pressures. He added a TFL and two pressures against UTEP.

MANNING THE MIDDLE: The defensive tackles unit has been a major reason why Texas' rush defense has ranked in the Top Six nationally in each of the last three seasons. The Horns finished third in 2008 after allowing 83.5 ypg, sixth in '07 (93.4 ypg) and third in '06 (61.2 ypg). Of the group manning the middle over the last three seasons, three have gone on to the NFL. DTs Frank Okam and Derek Lokey combined to play in 83 games, while making 60 starts during their four-year careers that included '06 and '07. Okam, who was a third-team All-American in '07 before being drafted in the fifth round by the Houston Texans, finished his career with 160 tackles, 10 sacks, 28 TFL, 12 PBD, one forced fumble and five fumble recoveries. Lokey garnered first-team All-Big 12 honors in '07 and earned a spot on the Kansas City Chiefs' practice squad during the 2008 season. He finished his career with 101 tackles, three sacks, 18 TFL, three PBD and a fumble recovery. Roy Miller played a major role on all three defenses prior to being drafted in the third round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Miller finished his career with 138 tackles, 10 sacks, 25 TFL, 44 pressures, six PBD, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

NEXT UP AT DT: Next in line to carry on UT's DT tradition is senior Lamarr Houston. After playing his first two seasons at defensive end, Houston made the switch to defensive tackle prior to the 2008 season. For his career, he has tallied 118 tackles, eight sacks, 26 TFL, 48 pressures, 10 PBD, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries in 40 games (23 starts). Senior Ben Alexander also returns and has played in 28 career games. In four games in 2009, Alexander has posted nine tackles, three TFL and a pressure. Sophomore Kheeston Randall, who saw action in eight games as a true freshman, earned the first start of his career against ULM to open 2009 and notched two tackles. He added two tackles and a pressure at Wyoming and three tackles and a pressure against Texas Tech. Randall also had a TFL and a pressure against UTEP. For the season, he has tallied eight tackles, a TFL and three pressures.

HOUSTON'S SECOND YEAR INSIDE:

Senior Lamarr Houston spent his first two seasons at Texas as a productive defensive end before making the switch to defensive tackle during the spring of 2008. He went on to post 22 tackles, 1.5 sacks, seven TFL, 11 pressures and five PBD in 12 games (eight starts) despite battling a foot injury for much of the season. Now in his second year at defensive tackle, Houston has notched 16 tackles, a sack, five TFL, 11 pressures, a PBD and two fumble recoveries in 2009. He opened the season by posting four tackles, a TFL and two pressures against ULM. At Wyoming, Houston notched six tackles, a sack, two TFL, five pressures and a PBD. He tallied five tackles, a TFL, two pressures and a fumble recovery against Texas Tech. Houston added a TFL, two pressures and a fumble recovery against UTEP. A former prep linebacker and running back, Houston was named honorable mention All-Big 12 by The Associated Press in 2007 at defensive end after tallying 66 tackles, 12 TFL, 4.5 sacks, 24 pressures, four PBD and a forced fumble. After opening the season as a backup, Houston replaced an injured Brian Orakpo in the week two starting lineup and posted six tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a PBD against No. 19 TCU. He went on to start 11 of the final 12 games. As a true freshman in 2006, Houston saw action at defensive end and on special teams and notched 14 tackles, two TFL and a sack. In total, Houston has posted 118 tackles, eight sacks, 26 TFL, 48 pressures, 10 PBD, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries in 40 career games (23 starts).

MUCKELROY LEADS THE

LINEBACKERS: Senior Roddrick Muckelroy has been one of the most consistent defensive players at Texas over the last three seasons and he's taken his game to another level as a senior. For his career, Muckelroy has tallied 215 tackles (132 solo), 17 TFL, 4.5 sacks, 10 pressures, an INT, seven PBU, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 32 career games (21 starts). He has posted eight 10-tackle games during his career. After four games in 2009, Muckelroy has tallied 26 tackles, a sack, four TFL, four pressures and three PBU. He opened the year by notching a team-high seven tackles to go along with two TFL, a pressure and a PBU. He added six tackles and a pressure at Wyoming. Muckelroy had his first 10-tackle game of the season against Texas Tech with 10 stops, a sack, two TFL, two pressures and a PBU. He added three tackles and a PBU against UTEP. A second-team All-Big 12 selection in 2008, Muckelroy posted five 10-tackle games and led the team with 112 tackles (71 solo) to go along with four TFL, six pressures, four PBU, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. His 8.6 tackles per game ranked 50th nationally and fifth in the Big 12 and his 71 solo tackles tied for the 17th-most nationally. Muckelroy earned UT's Most Productive Performer award at UTEP after posting 14 tackles and a pressure, while returning a fumble 26 yards for his first career TD. He set a career high with 16 tackles versus No. 1 Oklahoma to go along with a forced fumble and a PBU. As a redshirt freshman in 2006, Muckelroy earned a starting position and was off to a great start before an injury ended his year. He started the first three games of 2006, posting 10 tackles, three TFL and a sack before sustaining a ruptured tendon in his ring finger, which forced him to miss the rest of the season. Back at full strength in 2007, Muckelroy posted 67 tackles, 2.5 sacks, six TFL, an INT, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. He finished the year strong, tallying 29 tackles, 2.5 sacks, five TFL and two forced fumbles over the final four games, including the Holiday Bowl victory over No. 12 Arizona State, when he notched three tackles, a sack, two TFL and a forced fumble in his only start of the season.

Asst. Head Coach/DBs Duane Akina has mentored nine current NFL defensive backs, five of which are starting for their team.

HALLSVILLE PRIDE: Longhorn senior WLB Roddrick Muckelroy may be a self-professed small town country kid from the East Texas town of Hallsville (population is about 3,000) but he made big plays on the field in 2008. Including a 14-tackle game in which he returned a fumble 26 yards for a TD at UTEP and a career-high 16 tackles versus No. 1 Oklahoma, Muckelroy led the Horns with 112 tackles (71 solo). His 8.6 tackles per game ranked 50th nationally and fifth in the Big 12 and his 71 solo tackles tied for the 17th-most nationally. Muckelroy has been UT's most productive linebacker over the past three seasons, but even more so over the last 19 games. During that stretch, Texas' hard-hitting linebacker has posted 151 tackles (8.0 tpg), 13 TFL, four sacks, seven PBU, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

YOUNG BACKERS: In addition to the outstanding play of senior Roddrick Muckelroy, Texas has two fresh faces flanking him at linebacker in sophomores Emmanuel Acho and Keenan Robinson. The duo has combined to post 31 tackles (20 solo), a sack, six TFL, three pressures, two PBU and three forced fumbles. Acho, the younger brother of DE Sam Acho, has posted 15 tackles (11 solo), a sack, five TFL, three pressures and three forced fumbles. His three forced fumbles are tied for first nationally. He started the season by posting three tackles and a forced fumble against ULM. Against Texas Tech, Acho tallied four tackles, two TFL and two forced fumbles. He led the team in tackles with seven against UTEP to go along with a sack, three TFL and two pressures. For his career, Acho has posted 26 tackles (19 solo), a sack, five TFL, three pressures and four forced fumbles in 14 games. Robinson has started all four games in 2009 opposite Muckelroy and posted 16 tackles (nine solo), a TFL and two PBU. He opened the season with three tackles, a TFL and a PBU against ULM. Robinson added five tackles and a PBU at Wyoming before notching six tackles against Texas Tech. For his career, Robinson has posted 40 tackles (25 solo), a sack, three TFL and three PBU in 16 games (four starts).

FAMILIAR FACES FOR A CHANGE:

Entering the last two seasons, the Longhorn secondary has had to replace three of its four starters from the previous year. In 2008, the Horns had to replace first-team All-Big 12 performer S Marcus Griffin, second-team All-Big 12 honoree CB Brandon Foster and S Erick Jackson, who started 10 of 13 games, from the 2007 secondary. The year before, Texas needed to replace three players who are currently playing in the NFL in CB Tarell Brown (San Francisco 49ers), S Michael Griffin (Tennessee Titans) and CB Aaron Ross (New York Giants). Brown was a three-year starter, who played in 51 career games. Griffin earned first-team All-America honors from Pro Football Weekly, was a semifinalist for the Lott Trophy (Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year) and finished his career as UT's eighth all-time leading tackler (364 tackles). Ross was a Thorpe Award winner and first-team All-American, who led the team in INTs (six) and PBU (19), while making 80 tackles, as a senior in 2006. In addition, the Horns secondary produced two NFL starters from its 2005 squad in Thorpe Award winner and seventh overall pick S Michael Huff and first-team All-Big 12 performer and second-round NFL Draft pick CB Cedric Griffin. But, in 2009, the secondary returns almost completely intact with the only loss coming in the form of DB Ryan Palmer, who was a two-year starter and second-team All-Big 12 selection in 2008. The Horns have nine members of the secondary returning with game experience and six returning with starting experience including senior Deon Beasley (35 games/11 starts), juniors Chykie Brown (28 games/12 starts) and Curtis Brown (30 games/eight starts) and sophomores Nolan Brewster (17 games), Blake Gideon (17 games/17 starts), Earl Thomas (17 games/17 starts), Ben Wells (16 games) and Aaron Williams (17 games/five starts).

Deon Beasley: Senior Deon Beasley has played in 35 career games, starting 11, at cornerback, posting 87 tackles (69 solo), a sack, six TFL, three INTs, 16 PBU, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. In 2008, Beasley tallied 40 tackles (27 solo), a sack, three TFL, six PBU and a fumble recovery. He posted a career-high nine tackles at No. 6 Texas Tech and led the team with eight tackles to go along with a TFL, a PBU and a fumble recovery at

He stepped into the starter's role against No. 7 Oklahoma State when Chykie Brown was injured and posted three tackles and two PBU, while helping to hold one of the nation's leading receivers, Dez Bryant, scoreless and 40 yards below his season average. Also a special-teams standout, Brown tied for second on the team with nine special-teams tackles. He also made a key play in the Red River Rivalry when he chased down OU punter Mike Knall from behind on a fake punt, stopping the Sooners just shy of a first down.

Blake Gideon: Sophomore Blake Gideon has posted 15 tackles (11 solo), an INT and two PBU in 2009. He opened the season by posting four tackles versus ULM. He added eight stops and a PBU at Wyoming and three tackles against Texas Tech. Gideon notched his first career INT against UTEP. A second-team Freshman All-American and honorable mention All-Big 12 selection as a true freshman in 2008, Gideon finished third on the team with 64 tackles (41 solo) to go along with a TFL, eight pressures, seven PBU and a forced fumble. Gideon posted eight tackles and a PBU in his first Red River Rivalry game against No. 1 Oklahoma and added five stops and four pressures in UT's victory over No. 10 Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl. For his career, Gideon has started all 17 games and tallied 79 tackles (52 solo), a TFL, eight pressures, an INT, nine PBU and a forced fumble.

Earl Thomas: Sophomore Earl Thomas, a 2009 preseason second-team All-Big 12 selection, has posted 16 tackles (11 solo), three INTs and six PBU in 2009. His nine passes defended are tied for the most nationally and his three INTs are tied for the third-most. He opened the season by notching three tackles and two PBU versus ULM before tallying two tackles and two PBU at Wyoming. Thomas matched his career high with 10 tackles to go along with an INT and two PBU against Texas Tech. He had the second two-INT game of his career against UTEP. A first-team Freshman All-American in 2008, Thomas started all 13 games as a redshirt freshman. He finished second on the team with 72 tackles (51 solo) to go along with three TFL, two INTs, 17 PBU (No. 1 on UT's freshman list) and four forced fumbles in 2008. In the first start of his career against FAU, Thomas posted five tackles, two PBU, a forced fumble and blocked a punt that led to a Texas TD. In his first Red River Rivalry against No. 1 Oklahoma, Thomas notched three tackles, two INTs, two PBU and a forced fumble. He had the first double-digit tackle performance of his career at No. 6 Texas Tech, posting 10 tackles and two PBU. For his career, Thomas has started all 17 games and posted 88 tackles (62 solo), three TFL, five INTs, 23 PBU and four forced fumbles.

Aaron Williams: Sophomore Aaron Williams earned a starting position in 2009 and has posted 19 tackles (11 solo), three TFL, two PBU and two forced fumbles. He opened the season against ULM with two tackles and added four stops, a TFL, a PBU and a forced fumble at Wyoming. Against Texas Tech, Williams tallied nine tackles, two TFL, a PBU and a forced fumble. He added four tackles against UTEP. Williams saw action in all 13 games, starting one, as a true freshman in 2008. He posted 16 tackles, a TFL, an INT, three PBU, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Williams returned his interception 81 yards for a TD against Arkansas. The 81-yard return is the seventh-longest INT return in UT history. In addition to his play in the secondary, Williams also was a special-teams standout. He blocked four punts, which tied for first on UT's single-season list, and tied for second on the team with nine special-teams tackles. For his career, Williams has tallied 35 tackles (20 solo), four TFL, an INT, five PBU, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

SPECIAL START: Speedy redshirt freshman D.J. Monroe has only played in four career games, but he's already entered his name into UT's record book. He joined a group of nine other Longhorns who have returned kickoffs for TDs when he returned a kickoff 89 yards for a score on his first career touch against ULM. Then, in week four against UTEP, Monroe, who was the 2006 Texas 4A State 100-meter Champion, brought another kickoff back 91 yards for a TD to become the first Longhorn in school history to post two kickoff return TDs. For the season, Monroe, who has clocked a personal-best 10.08 100 meters, has returned six kickoffs for 309 yards (51.5 ypr/second NCAA) and two TDs. In addition to his special-teams work, Monroe has carried the ball 16 times for 85 yards as a running back, giving him 394 all-purpose yards (98.5 ypg) on 22 plays (17.9 ypp) this season.

LAWRENCE HANDLING PLACE-KICKING: After serving as UT's kickoff specialist during his first two seasons, senior Hunter Lawrence, who is on the Lou Groza Award watch list, has handled the place-kicking duties over the last two seasons. In four games in 2009, Lawrence is 8-of-9 on FG attempts and 20-of-21 on PATs. He missed his second PAT attempt against UTEP halting his streak of made PATs at 76, which ranks second on UT's all-time list. Lawrence's 11 points per game (44 total points) are tied for fifth nationally and his two made field goals per game (eight total) are tied for sixth. He opened 2009 against ULM by going 6-of-6 on PATs, while converting a 32-yard field goal. He added five more PATs and two field goals (29, 32) at Wyoming and four PATs and two FGs (43, 33) against Texas Tech. Lawrence made 5-of-6 PATs against UTEP and went 3-of-4 on FGs with the only miss coming on a 54-yard attempt that hit the crossbar to end the first half. A second-team All-Big 12 selection last season, Lawrence was perfect on PATs, going 60-for-60, and made 10-of-12 field-goal attempts, including 4-of-5 from at least 40 yards, for 90 points. After his performance against No. 1 Oklahoma, Lawrence was named the Lou Groza Star of the Week for posting a career-high 13 points after making all three of his field-goal attempts (26, 28 and 33) and all four PATs. Adding depth to the kicking game is senior Ryan Bailey, who handled the place-kicking duties for half of 2006 and the '07 season. In 2007, Bailey went 58-of-59 on PATs and 18-of-22 on FGs, including 8-of-10 from over 40 yards. A former walk-on who earned a scholarship in 2007, Bailey took over the place-kicking duties at

DID YOU KNOW?

No. 17 Nebraska in 2006, attempting and making the first field goal of his career, a 22-yarder, late in the game to give Texas a 22-20 victory. He went on to finish that season going 6-of-6 on FGs and 17-of-18 on PATs. The duo has combined to hit 171-of-174 PATs and 43-of-51 FGs, including 14-of-17 from over 40 yards, over the last four seasons.

IMMEDIATE IMPACT: Ten true freshmen, Eryon Barnett, Marcus Davis, Garrett Gilbert, Marquise Goodwin, Calvin Howell, Barrett Matthews, Tevin Mims, Alex Okafor, Kenny Vaccaro and Mason Walters, have seen action for Texas in 2009. Mack Brown has played 103 of a possible 276 true freshmen (37.3%) in his 12 seasons at Texas.

TEXAS BY THE NUMBERS

0: The number of first downs Texas gave up in the second quarter at Wyoming.

1: Senior QB Colt McCoy ranks first all-time at UT in completion percentage (70.3%) and passer rating (157.3).

2: Texas ranks second nationally in rush defense (47.3 ypg), after ranking third in 2008 (83.5 ypg), sixth in 2007 (93.4 ypg) and third in 2006 (61.2 ypg).

4: Jordan Shipley is one of just four Longhorns (Raymond Clayborn, 1973-76; Selvin Young, 2002-06; Quan Cosby, 2005-08) who have recorded a kickoff and punt return for a TD during their careers.

5: Texas is just one of two schools nationally that has won five consecutive bowl games. The five straight bowl wins also is a UT first.

6: Texas leads the nation with six Top Five NFL Draft picks over the last nine years.

6: The number of victories Colt McCoy needs to match the NCAA record for all-time victories held by Georgia's David Greene (42).

7: The number of active Longhorns in the NFL who have played in a Pro Bowl.

8: Eight Longhorns have been drafted in the Top 10 of the NFL Draft in the last nine years, the most of any school in the nation.

8: Since Duane Akina arrived in 2001, eight of his nine starting cornerbacks have gone on to play in the NFL.

9: Texas is the only school in the nation to both start and finish the season ranked in the Top 15 for each of the last nine seasons.

10: With 11 catches against Texas Tech and 10 against UTEP, Jordan Shipley is the first Longhorn in school history to post back-to-back games with double-digit receptions.

10: Texas has won at least 10 games in each of the last eight seasons, becoming just the third team in college football history to accomplish the feat.

11: The Longhorns extended their UT record with their 11th consecutive bowl berth in 2008.

13: Including his time at North Carolina, Brown is the lone coach nationally to have won at least nine games in each of the past 13 seasons.

15: Colt McCoy is the 15th player in NCAA history to amass 12,000 yards of total offense. He now ranks 13th all-time with 12,161 total yards.

17: Texas has won 17 of its last 20 games against ranked opponents.

18: Texas has been ranked in the AP Top 5 for 18 consecutive weeks. The 17 weeks is the longest streak in the nation and the fourth longest streak in school history.

18: Colt McCoy completed 18 consecutive passes in the 28-24 victory over Oklahoma State in 2008, breaking his own single-game school record for consecutive completions. He now holds nine of the 13 consecutive pass completion marks.

22: For the third consecutive year, Texas led the conference with 22 Academic All-Big 12 selections in 2008, including 17 first-teamers.

37: Texas had 37 players named to last spring's Athletics Director's Honor Roll (3.0 GPA).

41: In 12 seasons under Mack Brown, Texas' offense has produced 41 games with 500 or more total yards of offense. UT had accomplished that only 23 times in the 105 years prior to his arrival.

42: There are currently 42 Longhorns active in the NFL, which is tied for the most nationally and easily leads the Big 12.

43: Texas has produced 43 All-Americans, including seven unanimous selections, during Mack Brown's tenure.

44: Colt McCoy currently holds 44 school records, including 14 career, 12 single-season, five single-game, six freshman and seven miscellaneous marks.

46: The Longhorns have won 46-of-52 games against teams from the state of Texas under Mack Brown.

53: The Texas defense surrendered just 53 total yards to UTEP, the fewest allowed by a Texas defense since it allowed 37 yards to Southwestern in 1941 and the fewest yards gained in Miners' history.

56: The Texas football team has played in front of a sellout crowd for 56 consecutive home games.

62: Texas has won 62-of-67 home games (92.5%) under Mack Brown.

63: Texas has blocked 63 kicks in 11 seasons under Mack Brown, an average of about six per season.

66: UT has scored 66 non-offensive TDs since 1999, which ranks third nationally.

76.7: Colt McCoy set the NCAA record for completion percentage at 76.7% in 2008, bettering Daunte Culpepper's mark of 73.6%.

80: Texas' 80 wins in Big 12 play are the most of any team in the conference. Oklahoma is second with 75.

101.7: The average daily high in Austin during August when the Horns were going through fall camp. So far in 2009, Austin has had 68 days of over 100-degree temperatures, which is just one day shy of the all-time record of 69 set in 1925.

103: Mack Brown has played 103 true freshmen in his 11 years at Texas.

116: The Longhorns have spent 116 weeks in The AP Top 10 and finished the year ranked in the Top 10 six times during the Mack Brown era. Texas, which had not finished a year ranked among the Top 10 since 1983 prior to Brown's arrival, spent just 16 weeks rated among the nation's Top 10 in the 11 years before Brown took over.

119: Mack Brown's 119 wins at Texas are the second-most in school history, trailing only Darrell Royal's 167. The 119 wins are also the most in the nation since 1998.

147: Texas has now been ranked in The AP Top 25 for a Longhorn record 147 straight weeks. It's the longest active streak in the nation.

175: The Longhorns have been ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll Top 25 for 175 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 175 consecutive weeks leads the nation and is the longest UT streak in any poll.

180: The number of receiving yards Jordan Shipley had in the season opener against ULM. It is the most receiving yards ever in an opener by a Texas player.

200: Mack Brown is just the 19th coach, who has spent at least 10 years at an FBS program, to win 200 games. He has now won 205 for his career.

215: During Mack Brown's 11 years at Texas, the Horns have set 215 school records.

551: Points scored in 2008, the second most in school history behind 652 points scored in 2005.

586: Texas set a school record by outgaining UTEP by 586 yards. Texas accumulated 639 yards of total offense, the sixth most in school history, while allowing only 53 yards, the fewest amount in Miners' history.

836: With 836 victories in the program's history, Texas ranks second on the all-time victories list behind only Michigan.

84,100: The number of season tickets sold for the 2009 season, a UT best.

SPANISH LANGUAGE BROADCAST

The Longhorns Sports Network will also offer a Spanish Language Radio broadcast of all Texas Football games. The games will be broadcast on a statewide network (Flagship: HITZ 107.7 FM) and on the web at www.univision.com.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO IN COVERAGE

Any media entity collecting "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, post-practice/post-game interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, Web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Its usage also must be used only as supporting video/audio for a reported story and not simply as rebroadcasted/streamed highlights or interview sessions. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape-delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance, written permission of The University of Texas Athletics Department.

POSTGAME

The Longhorns' locker room is closed. Interview requests should be given to Assistant AD for Media Relations John Bianco. Requested players will be brought to the Moncrief-Neuhaus Athletics Complex meeting rooms following home contests and to a designated interview area at road games. NO INTERVIEWS ARE TO BE CONDUCTED ON THE FIELD FOLLOWING THE GAME. After a NCAA required and team-enforced 10-minute cooling off period, players and coaches will be escorted to the interview area. Failure to abide by this rule will result in termination of credential.

POST-PRACTICE AVAILABILITY

Practices are closed to the public and media. Players and assistant coaches are available by request after Tuesday's practice and head coach Mack Brown is available prior to Wednesday's practice to wrap up the week. Your requests should be given to Assistant AD for Media Relations John Bianco. All post-practice interviews are done at the Moncrief-Neuhaus Athletics Complex.

PHONE

Phone interviews with Longhorns players and assistant coaches should be requested at least 24 hours in advance through Assistant AD for Media Relations John Bianco (office: 512/471-1346/cell: 512/748-9315). Based on their schedules, the call will either be made following practice or at an assigned time. The last chance for player/assistant coach interviews is after Tuesday's practice. Phone interviews with head coach Mack Brown should be requested at least 24 hours in advance through Bill Little (office: 512/471-6062/cell: 512/748-9316).
