COUGARS OPEN PAC-12 PLAY SATURDAY HOSTING COLORADO: Washington State University opens Pac-12 Conference play hosting University of Colorado, Saturday at 1 p.m. in Martin Stadium. The game will be nationally televised by FX.

NEXT WEEK: The Cougars continue Pac-12 play next weekend, matching up against three-time defending conference champion No. 3/3 University of Oregon in The Seattle Game at CenturyLink Field. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and the game will be nationally televised by either ESPN or ESPN2.

CU-WSU SERIES HISTORY: The Cougars and Buffaloes have met seven times, with Colorado owning a 4-3 advantage in the series. WSU came from behind to win last year's Pac-12 opener, using a 63-yard touchdown pass from Marshall Lobbestael to Marquess Wilson in the final minutes to pull out the 31-27 victory in Boulder. The meeting prior came during the 2004 season, a 20-12 victory by Colorado in a game played in Seattle. That game was originally scheduled for Sept. 15, 2001, in Pullman, however the events of 9/11 four days prior, forced the game to be pushed back to 2004. This will be Colorado's first trip to Pullman after previously playing four times in Boulder (1981, 1987, 1996, 2003 and 2011), once in Spokane (1982) and once in Seattle (2004).

MIKE LEACH AGAINST COLORADO: Head coach Mike Leach faced the University of Colorado four times during his tenure at Texas Tech University, posting a 1-3 record against the Buffaloes. While both programs were members of the Big 12 Conference, Colorado posted wins in 2002, 2006-07 while the Red Raiders won the 2003 meeting.

MIKE LEACH RADIO SHOW: Washington State Head Coach Mike Leach holds a weekly radio show on WSU's flagship station 920 KXLY live from Zeppos in Pullman. This week's show will be Thursday from 6-7 p.m.

COLLEGE GAMEDAY RECORD: In addition to Chris Fowler, Kirk Herbstreit and Lee Corso, ESPN's College Gameday has had another constant – the WSU flag, which this weekend will be making its 121st consecutive appearance on the weekly show, dating back to the beginning of the 2004 season. Two flags – Ol' Crimson and Whitey – have been flown in the background of the Gameday set by dozens of friends and alumni. WSU recognized the Gameday flag wavers in a pregame ceremony prior to the Montana State game last season. In addition to the flags that fly, there is a traveling flag signed by the holders after each episode. The traveling flag is retired after each season, the first of which is hanging in WSU's Alumni Center.

WSU QUICK HITS:

- The Cougars are looking for their first three-game winning streak since 2006 when they posted wins over Idaho, Baylor in Seattle and at Stanford.
- Marquess Wilson needs 93 receiving yards to pass Jason Hill for second on WSU's top 10 for career receiving yards and 145 yards to pass Brandon Gibson's school-record of 2,756.
- The win at Colorado last season was win No. 500 in program history.

DEFENSE RACKING UP THE SACKS: The Washington State defense has tallied eight sacks through the first three games after recording 17 all of last season. The switch to a 3-4 defense has seen more linebackers in the backfield as five of the six sacks have come from linebackers. Converted linebacker Travis Long enters the weekend leading the Pac-12 Conference with four sacks.

PAC-12 PLAYERS OF THE WEEK (Week 3)

Running back Stepfan Taylor of STANFORD, defensive end Ben Gardner of STANFORD and punter Tom Hackett of UTAH have been named Pac-12 Players of the Week.

Taylor recorded a career-high 213 all-purpose yards (153 rushing, 60 receiving) and two touchdowns in leading No. 21 Stanford to a 21-14 victory over No. 2 USC. He posted a 59-yard touchdown run to put Stanford on the board in the first quarter, then added a 23-yard touchdown reception on screen pass to tie the game late in the third quarter. He finished the night with 153 yards rushing on 27 carries, which none were stopped for a loss. He collected 60 yards on five receptions.

Gardner was instrumental in the Stanford defense holding USC to 26 total yards rushing, en route to the Cardinal's 21-14 win. Among his six total tackles, Gardner recorded 3.5 tackles for loss and a quarterback sack to lead the overall defensive effort of 12.0 tackles for loss and four sacks against USC.

Hackett showed off his ability to place the ball inside the 10-yard line during Utah's 24-21 victory over No. 25 BYU. He punted three times and all three punts were downed inside the BYU 10-yard line.

AUDIO ON INTERNET: WSU's football broadcasts are available on the Internet through WSU's web provider CBS College Sports. The address is: www.wsucougars.com, then use the Connect link near the top of the page and go to Cougars all Access.

THE WASHINGTON STATE IMG COLLEGE NETWORK

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via the Washington State IMG College Sports Network. The 22-station football network - one of the largest in the Pac-12 - reaches from British Columbia to Oregon and can be heard worldwide via the internet and XM Satellite radio. Cougar football broadcasts begin an hour before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with postgame interviews with student-athletes and coaches.

710 ESPN will air a weekly season-long segment featuring WSU head coach Mike Leach heard each Thursday during the "Kevin Calabro Show with Jim Moore" along with special Cougar Athletics programming on both 710 ESPN Seattle and KTTH 770 AM. In addition, a WSU section and archived game podcasts will be highlighted on the 710 Sports page of MyNorthwest.com.

IMG College produces the Washington State IMG College Sports Network, which also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and the Cougar Coaches Show in the fall and winter seasons.

IMG College, founded in 1992 in its corporate home of Winston-Salem, NC, manages corporate marketing opportunities and on-site promotions at WSU football and basketball games as well as oversees sales for all signage at Martin Stadium, Friel Court at Beasley Coliseum and all Cougar competition sites.

MEDIA INFORMATION

PAC-12 TELECONFERENCE: The Pac-12 Conference hosts a weekly teleconference call each Tuesday during the football season. The teleconference call begins at 9:55 a.m., PT, while Mike Leach participates at 10:55 a.m. Contact the Pac-12 media relations office at 925-932-4411 for details and call-in information.

LEACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE AVAILABILITY:

WSU head football coach Mike Leach is available for individual media interviews following practices Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday, along with after each Cougar game. Arrangements for interviews with coach Leach other than those times must be made through the WSU Athletic Communications office. WSU players are available for interviews after each game and then during Monday's weekly press conference. Three student-athletes will be brought to the press conference at 12:30 p.m. and will be available at that time. There will be no student-athlete availability following practices during game week. Contact Bill Stevens (wsstevens@wsu.edu) or Bobby Alworth (bobby.alworth@wsu.edu) in the WSU Athletic Communications Office. Media are reminded that they should not contact student-athletes via their cell phones or social media accounts. All interviews need to be scheduled through the Athletic Communications Office.

MIKE LEACH RADIO SHOW: Head coach Mike Leach holds a weekly radio show on WSU's flagship station 920 KXLY live from Zeppos in Pullman. This week's show will be Thursday's from 6-7 p.m.

WILSON AMONG PAC-12'S CAREER LEADERS: Junior wide receiver Marquess Wilson enters the week as the Pac-12 Conference's active career leader in receiving yards with 2,612, good for No. 33 all-time in conference history. His 1,388 receiving yards in 2011 was the 12th most in Pac-12 history.

WILSON CLIMBING WSU RECORD BOOKS: Junior Marquess Wilson continued his climb up WSU's career receiving records with five catches for 110 yards at UNLV last Friday. Wilson passed Philip Bobo and Jason Hill on the career receptions list and enters the week in fifth with 150 career catches, 16 away from Jared Karstetter who sits fourth with 166. Wilson's 110 receiving yards upped his career total to 2,612, good for third on WSU's career top-10. Following his two touchdown performance at UNLV, The Tulare, Calif. native sits in third on WSU's all-time top-10 for career touchdowns.

2. Jason Hill, 2003-06	2,704
3. Marquess Wilson, 2010-present	2,612
4. Hugh Campbell, 1960-62	2,459
5. Nian Taylor, 1996-99	2,447

WSU CAREER RECEIVING TDS

1. Jason Hill, 2003-06	32
2. Hugh Campbell, 1960-62	22
3. Marquess Wilson, 2010-present	20
4. Jared Karstetter, 2008-11	19

WILSON'S BIG PLAYS: Marquess Wilson's 81-yard touchdown at UNLV last Friday wasn't the first big play of his career. In 27 games, the junior wideout owns eight career touchdown catches of 50-plus yards, including five in 2011 highlighted by a 85-yard score from Connor Halliday against Arizona State. Dating back to the 1984 season, the only Cougar with as many as seven touchdown catches of 50-plus yards is former Cougar great Tim Stallworth.

TUEL TO WILSON ADDING UP: Senior quarterback Jeff Tuel and junior wide receiver Marquess Wilson have connected 69 times for 1,205 yards and seven touchdowns.

LONG LEADING THE WAY: Senior Travis Long matched career highs with nine tackles and two sacks at UNLV for the second time this season after reaching the marks at BYU in week one. The Spokane, Wash. native leads the Pac-12 Conference with four sacks, matching his total from a season ago and upping his career total to 15, good for tenth on WSU's top-10 for career sacks. Long's team-leading 4.5 tackles-for-loss puts his career total to 33.5, good for sixth on WSU's career top-10. Long is third on the team with 20 tackles.

FURNEY GOES LONG DISTANCE: Junior kicker Andrew Furney has provided a couple highlights for the Cougars during the first three weeks of the season, hitting a pair of 40+ yard field goals (47, 41) at BYU then closing the half against Eastern Washington with a 60-yard field goal. Furney's career-long was the second longest in WSU history behind Jason Hanson's 62-yarder at UNLV in 1991. The 60-yarder is also tied for the second longest in conference history and is the longest in Martin Stadium history. The kick also gave Furney is ninth straight make when attempting from 40+ yards. The streak ended after he missed wide right from 40 yards in the third quarter against EWU.

NEW FACES MAKING AN IMPACT: Washington State has seen a number of new faces on the field through the first three games of 2012. First-year Cougars making an impact are led by junior nose tackle loane Gauta who has started all three games and made 11 stops including a pair of tackles-for-loss. Freshman safety Taylor Taliulu started the first two games and was one of the top two tacklers in each contest, making nine at BYU and seven against Eastern Washington. Freshman wideouts Gabe Marks and Brett Bartolone own 12 and 10 receptions, respectively, with Marks posting his first career 100-yard performance at UNLV. Freshman running back Teondray Caldwell is second on the team in rushing and also serves as WSU's primary kick returner, already owning a 63-yard return at BYU.

MONROE MAKING HIS MARK: Redshirt-freshman linebacker Darryl Monroe has produced for the Cougars in his first three games, starting at MIKE linebacker, making the second most tackles (21) while forcing two fumbles and one sack. The Orlando, Fla. native redshirted last season after suffering a leg injury in the 2011 season opener against Idaho State. Monroe added 15 pounds to his frame since arriving from Dr. Phillips High School where he was named one of the top five linebackers in the state of Florida as a senior.

HALLIDAY AT IT AGAIN: Redshirt-sophomore quarterback Connor Halliday picked up where he left off from last season, tearing up the record books once again as the Spokane native passed for 378 yards and four touchdowns at UNLV last Friday to up his career touchdown total to 13. The 13 scores are more than Cougar great Drew Bledsoe's nine touchdown passes he threw in the first six games of his career. Bledsoe threw all nine touchdowns during his first six games as a freshman in 1990. Halliday now owns a pair of 300-yard performances and two four-touchdown performances after passing for 494 yards and four scores against Arizona State last season.

BOWLIN BLASTS AWAY: Redshirt-junior Michael Bowlin has provided a big boost to the WSU kicking game, already recording seven touchbacks on kickoffs to surpass last year's total of one and is closing in on Nick Grasu's mark of 11 in 2010. Bowlin also owns seven punts of 50+ yards including a 69-yarder against Eastern Washington, a 60-yarder at UNLV and has put three punts inside the 20.

TUEL AMONG WSU'S ELITE PASSERS: Senior quarterback Jeff Tuel enters Saturday's game against Colorado in eighth place on WSU's career top-10 for completions with 369 and eighth in career passing yards (4,245) after throwing for 229 yards at BYU and 171 against Eastern Washington. The Fresno, Calif. native's two touchdown passes against Eastern Washington also put him in a tie for eighth for career touchdown passes with 27. His career completion percentage also improved to .612 (369/603), the best by any quarterback in WSU history, after completing 20-of-26 against Eastern Washington.

BUCANNON'S INT'S: Junior safety Deone Bucannon made his seventh career interception when he picked off Kyle Padron of Eastern Washington. Bucannon notched two picks as a freshman in 2010 before making three interceptions last season, at San Diego State, at Colorado and at Oregon.

RETURN GAME: The Washington State return game as already seen improvement from 2011 as punt returner Leon Brooks followed up a 17-yard return at BYU with a career best 29-yard return against Eastern Washington. Kick returner Teondray Caldwell has shown the ability to break one, starting the second half at BYU with a 63-yard return and posting an 18-yard return against Eastern Washington.

TALIULU IMPRESSIVE IN COUGAR DEBUTS: Freshman safety Taylor Taliulu showed little nerves while making his collegiate debut against BYU, racking up nine tackles and breaking up two passes. It was the most tackles by a freshman in his debut since Chima Nwachukwu also recorded nine tackles at Wisconsin in 2007. The Aiea, Hawaii native followed that performance with by tying for a WSU game-high with seven tackles in the home opener against Eastern Washington.

WILSON PLACED ON PAIR OF PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA TEAMS: Junior wide receiver Marquess Wilson was named to CBSSports.com Preseason All-America first team and the SI.COM Preseason All-America second team.

TUEL NAMED TO DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD AND JOHNNY UNITAS AWARD WATCH LISTS: Senior quarterback Jeff Tuel was named to The Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award® watch list. The Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award is presented annually to the nation's best college quarterback and is the oldest and most prestigious national quarterback award. Coming off an impressive sophomore campaign, Tuel appeared in three games while battling through injuries last season. As a sophomore in 2010, Tuel threw for 2,780 yards and 18 touchdowns while starting all 12 games.

FURNEY NAMED TO LOU GROZA AWARD WATCH LIST: Junior kicker Andrew Furney was named to The Lou Groza Award watch. Furney was named one of 20 semifinalists to the same award during the 2011 campaign. Last season, Furney was 14-of-16 in field goal attempts to post the best field goal percentage in WSU single-season history. He recorded a season-long of 51 and was 5-for-5 from 40+ yards.

LONG NAMED TO THREE PRESEASON WATCH LISTS: Senior linebacker Travis Long was named to preseason watch lists for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (Top Defensive Player), Butkus Award (Top Linebacker) and Rotary Lombardi Award (Top Lineman or Linebacker). Long enters the 2012 season having started all 36 games of his Cougar career. He is a three-time all-conference selection, earning second-team All-Pac-12 honors in 2011. Last season he led WSU with four sacks, collected 12 tackles-for-loss, which ranked fifth in the Pac-12, and had 42 total tackles from his defensive end position.

WILSON NAMED TO MAXWELL AWARD AND BILETNIKOFF AWARD WATCH LISTS: Junior wide receiver Marquess Wilson has been named to the preseason watch lists for the annual Maxwell Award, given to the nation's top collegiate football player, and the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver. Wilson enters the 2012 season coming off back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. In 2011 he set WSU single-season records with 82 receptions and 1,388 receiving yards and tied for second-most in a season with 12 touchdown receptions. Wilson led the Pac-12 in receiving yards per game at 115.7 and earned Yahoo! Sports All-America second team and Sports Illustrated All-America honorable mention honors.

WILSON SETS SINGLE-SEASON RECORDS: Wide receiver Marquess Wilson 223-yard performance against Arizona State last season pushed him past Brandon Gibson (1,180 yards in 2007) as the school's all-time single-season receiving leader. Wilson ended the 2011 season with 1,388 yards on 82 catches while averaging 115.7 yards per game. Those numbers put him sixth nationally in receiving yards per game (first in the Pac-12), while he is tied for 17th in catches. His 82 receptions surpassed WSU's previous single-season leader Nakoa McElrath (2001) by 10. Against ASU Wilson became the second Cougar with multiple 1,000-yard season, joining current NFL receiver Jason Hill, who had 1,007 and 1,097 receiving yards in 2004 and 2005.

FOUR IN A ROW FOR HORTON: Junior cornerback Damante Horton's interception at Oregon last season marked his fourth-straight game with an interception and the first four of his career. Horton's pick against the Ducks was taken back 76 yards for a touchdown, the sixth-longest interception return for a score in school history. Horton's four interceptions leads the Pac-12. The last time a Cougar intercepted a pass in four consecutive games occurred when Jason David picked off passes in five straight during the 2002 season, when he finished the year with seven and helped the Cougs earn a trip to the Rose Bowl.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING, COUGS WERE MUCH IMPROVED: In 2011, WSU's offense and defense finished far ahead of the past two seasons. Below is a breakdown of the offense and defense for the past three seasons following 10 games of each campaign. National ranking in parentheses:

Total Offense	422.42 (33)	323.09 (96)	256.36 (119)
Total Defense	409.58 (82)	457.55 (115)	516.64 (120)
Scoring Offense	29.83 (45)	18.82 (109)	13.09 (119)
Scoring Defense	31.75 (95)	35.91 (111)	39.27 (118)

40TH ANNIVERSARY OF MARTIN STADIUM: The 2012 Cougars football season marks the 40-year anniversary of Martin Stadium. In April 1970, a fire destroyed the south stands and press box of then-Rogers Field. For the next two seasons, the WSU football team played its home games at Joe Albi Stadium in Spokane. In the interim, a one-million dollar fund drive began after the decision was made to rebuild the stands rather than relocate or build an entirely new stadium. WSU launched a two-phase renovation plan that created a two-tiered structure that held 17,500, replacing the old seating capacity of 10,000 and increasing to 30,000. Dan Martin, a Los Angeles businessman, gave $250,000 to the project with the stipulation the stadium be renamed after his father, Clarence D. Martin, governor of Washington state from 1933-40. Although the look and amenities have changed, Martin Stadium has been the home of the Washington State Cougars since 1972. The $80 million Cougar Football Project, which began in Nov., 2011, replaces the old press box on the south stands with a new structure that includes a new press box, club seats, loge boxes, luxury suites and a club room.

HALLIDAY NAMED PAC-12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Quarterback Connor Halliday was named the Bank of the West Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week after coming off the bench to throw for 494 yards and four touchdowns in the Cougars' 37-27 win over Arizona State in 2001. His passing total was the second-highest in school history and shattered the previous freshman mark of 385 yards, held by Drew Bledsoe. Halliday's 494 yards also marked the highest total by a Pac-12 quarterback this season, the 10th-best passing total in conference history and the most yards ever thrown by a conference freshman.

COUGARS GARNER ALL-PAC-12 ACCOLADES IN 2011: Linebacker Travis Long and wide receiver Marquess Wilson each earned second-team All-Pac-12 honors in 2011. Offensive linemen John Fullington and cornerback Damante Horton each received honorable mention recognition. Long picked up all-conference honors for the third consecutive season after making 42 tackles, 31 solo including a team-best 12 tackles-for-loss, good for a tie for fifth in the conference. The Spokane native started all 12 games and also led the Cougs with four sacks. Wilson picked up his second career all-conference accolade after setting WSU single-season records for receptions (82) and receiving yards (1,388) while tying Jason Hill for the second most touchdown catches with 12. The Tulare, Calif. native posted six 100-yard performances and was the only player in the conference to eclipse the 200-yard twice (236 - at San Diego State, 223 - Arizona State). Wilson led the conference in receiving yards per game (115.7), was second in touchdowns and receiving yards, and was third in catches. Fullington earned his first career all-conference honor after starting all 12 games at left guard as a sophomore while Horton earned his first career all-conference honor after tying for the conference lead with four interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. The junior also finished with 31 tackles, three pass break ups and two forced fumbles.

WILLIAM "LONE STAR" DIETZ SELECTED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME: Former Washington State football coach William "Lone Star" Dietz was selected to the College Football Hall of Fame 2012 Divisional Class by the National Football Foundation in May. With a lengthy career spanning many schools and decades, William "Lone Star" Dietz provided a foundation for football success at many universities across the nation. He served as the head coach for 19 seasons at seven institutions and enjoyed a distinguished career as an assistant coach, helping College Football Hall of Fame coach Pop Warner prepare Stanford for two Rose Bowl appearances. Truly a legend in his own time, "Lone Star" Dietz had a fantastic career as Washington State's football coach from 1915-17. His teams posted a 17-2-1 record with 15 shutouts. In his inaugural year, he guided WSC (Washington State College) to the Rose Bowl and a 14-0 shutout of Ivy League foe Brown. That team was 7-0 and allowed just one touchdown and one field goal all year. A year later, WSC was 4-2 and his 1917 team finished 6-0-1 while yielding three points to opponents, a field goal in the second game of the season.

COLORADO DEF. WASHINGTON STATE, 20-12

SEATTLE - Lawrence Vickers recovered a blocked punt in the end zone, Joe Sanders returned an interception for a score and Colorado made a late goal line stand for a second straight week to earn an ugly 20-12 victory over Washington State in 2004. The Buffaloes (2-0) escaped, no question. Washington State (1-1) gained 416 total yards to 117 for Colorado, but the Cougars couldn't overcome a handful of special-teams blunders. Sanders stepped in front of a pass by Washington State reserve Alex Brink - sophomore starter Josh Swogger was benched after an awful day - and returned it 51 yards to put the Buffaloes ahead 17-6 with 9:13 to play. Brink, a freshman, recovered by throwing a 60-yard TD strike to Jason Hill, pulling the Cougars to 17-12 with 8:04 to go. Brink's attempt on a two-point try was broken up by Tyrone Henderson, whose block punt led to the TD by Vickers. Just when the Cougars seemed ready to rebound, Colorado's Terrence Wheatley returned the ensuing kickoff 59 yards. That set up Mason Crosby's 41-yard field goal, giving the Buffaloes a 20-12 lead with 4:42 on the clock. Washington State got a final chance, taking over at its own 44 with 1:13 to play. Brink threw a 40-yard completion to Hill to move the ball to the 5, then fumbled at the 2 while scrambling for the goal line. Colorado's Jordan Dizon forced the fumble and Matt McChesney recovered. Last week, J.J. Billingsley made a game-saving tackle as time expired as the Buffaloes beat rival Colorado State. This week, it was tied 3-3 after two sloppy quarters. The Cougars had one fumble, six punts, several dropped passes, two missed field goal attempts and a bobbled snap on another field goal try. The Buffaloes punted five times and fumbled twice. Each team committed six penalties. It wasn't any better after the break, hinging the outcome on whichever team could gather some first downs or generate some kind of a big play - offense, defense or special teams. Tyrone Henderson burst up the middle to block a punt by Washington State's Kyle Basler midway through the third quarter. The ball went 25 yards in the other direction, with Vickers dropping on it at the goal line to make it 10-3. The Cougars answered, getting an interception by Jeremy Bohannon to set up a 35-yard field goal by Loren Langley. While both offenses struggled, some of that had to do with each team's defense. Colorado's Bobby Purify, who had 189 yards rushing in last week's win over Colorado State, was held to 53 yards rushing. Hill had six catches for 206 yards and a TD. Swogger was 6-of-27 for 77 yards. In the second half, he completed only one of six throws. Brink, meanwhile, completed 12-of-23 passes for 251 with one touchdown and one interception. Colorado's Joel Klatt was 12-of-24 for 78 yards with one interception.

WASHINGTON STATE DEF. COLORADO, 31-27

BOULDER, Colo. - Marquess Wilson sped past two defenders and hauled in a 63-yard touchdown pass from Marshall Lobbestael with 1:10 left to lead Washington State to a stunning 31-27 comeback win over Colorado last season. The Buffaloes (1-4, 0-1) were primed for a win in their Pac-12 debut before surrendering two touchdowns in the final 2 1/2 minutes. Colorado had thwarted Washington State's high-powered aerial attack most of the afternoon with a patchwork secondary that included two converted offensive players. Lobbestael threw for 376 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Cougars (3-1, 1-0) to just their second road win in four years under coach Paul Wulff. The Buffaloes led 27-17 with 5:11 left after Rodney Stewart's 1-yard TD run, which he set up with a 52-yard scamper to the Washington State 21. Lobbestael led Washington State 77 yards in seven plays, hitting Isiah Barton from 19 yards out with 2:35 left to pull the Cougars within a field goal. With three timeouts remaining, Wulff elected to forgo a risky onside kick, and the strategy paid off when the Cougars forced a punt and got the ball back with 1:50 left. This time, they needed just 40 seconds to cover 90 yards. Bottled up for much of the afternoon - 58 yards on five catches - Wilson sped past cornerback Greg Henderson and safety Anthony Perkins and was wide open as he hauled in the pass and raced into the end zone. The Buffs had one more chance, but receiver Paul Richardson was stripped of the ball by cornerback Damante Horton after a 23-yard gain and linebacker C.J. Mizell recovered for Washington State at its 39 with just under a minute left. Tyler Hansen threw touchdown passes of 9 yards to Richardson and 4 yards to Toney Clemons, the latter giving Colorado a 20-10 lead in the third quarter. Lobbestael responded with an 11-yard TD strike to fullback Jared Byers to keep it close. Will Oliver's third field goal, a 48-yarder as the first half expired, gave Colorado a 13-10 halftime lead. It came just 16 seconds after Andrew Furney tied the game with a 28-yarder following Hansen's first interception in 133 passes.

HEAD COACH JON EMBREE

Second Season at Colorado
3-13 Career Record
Colorado, '87

Jon Embree is in his second year as head football coach at the University of Colorado. He was named the school's 24th full-time head football coach in program history on December 6, 2010, returning home to the state where he starred as a player in both high school and college as well as where he got his start in coaching. Though this is his first head coaching position on any level, he brought 18 years of coaching experience to the CU program. That includes 10 seasons (1993-2002) as an assistant on the Colorado staff under three different head coaches, Bill McCartney (1993-94), Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) and Gary Barnett (1999-2002). A stalwart tight end for the Buffaloes in the mid-1980s, Embree returned to his alma mater from the NFL's Washington Redskins, where he was in the process of completing his first season as tight ends coach under former Denver Bronco coach Mike Shanahan.

MIKE LEACH

Head Coach

First Season

Washington State University announced Nov. 30, 2011 that Mike Leach has been named the Cougars' head football coach.

"I asked athletic director Bill Moos to select the best head football coach in the country and I am convinced that he has done exactly that," said WSU President Elson S. Floyd.

"This is an exciting day for Washington State University and Cougar football," said Moos. "I have spoken about the need to re-energize our fan base and take Cougar football to the next level. I believe the hiring of Mike Leach accomplishes both of those goals. His credentials speak for themselves."

Leach brings a proven record of winning to Pullman. In 10 seasons as a head coach, all at Texas Tech (2000-09) his program earned 10 bowl bids. In addition, the Susanville, Calif., native who was raised in Cody, Wyo., recorded a school-record 84 victories during his tenure.

Leading the most prolific passing offense in the country, Leach received three national coach of the year awards in 2008 - the Woody Hayes Award, Howie Long/Fieldturf Coach of the Year, and George Munger Award. His offense spreads the field with his exciting brand of football and guided Texas Tech to six NCAA passing titles and three total offense titles during his 10 seasons in Lubbock. Leach's offense produced school records in nearly every passing category in 2000, his first season with the Red Raiders, but surpassed those numbers in each of his next nine seasons.

During Leach's time in Lubbock, Texas, the Red Raiders increased their yards per game by more than 150 and averaged nearly 20 points more per outing. In the passing game, Texas Tech threw for about 300 yards more per game in the decade Leach was at the helm.

Leach led Texas Tech to one of the most memorable seasons in school history in 2008 as the team set a program record with 11 regular-season wins en route to an 11-2 record. The win total tied the mark, set previously by the 1953 and 1973 Red Raider squads. Numerous accolades poured in from across the country as an unprecedented four players earned first-team All-America status, in addition to Leach's three coach of the year honors. Quarterback Graham Harrell, offensive tackle Rylan Reed and offensive guard Brandon Carter each garnered first-team honors, while wide receiver Michael Crabtree was honored as a unanimous consensus All-American for the second-straight season.

On the field in 2008, the Red Raiders led the nation in passing for the sixth time in Leach's ten seasons and ranked among the top five in total offense. Harrell finished his storied career second on the NCAA career passing yardage list with 15,793 yards. Harrell also broke the career NCAA passing touchdowns mark with 134.

The Texas Tech program has established itself as one of the nation's leading producers of productive quarterbacks since the 2000 season. Harrell threw for 4,555 yards in his debut as the starter in 2006 and became the sixth player and third Red Raider in NCAA history to throw for 5,000 yards in a season with his 5,705-yard effort in 2007 and 5,111 yards last season. He also is the third quarterback under Leach to win nine games in a season and the first Red Raider in history to win 11 in a regular season. Former quarterback Kliff Kingsbury in 2002 and Cody Hodges in 2005 each posted nine-win seasons during their careers, while 2003 and 2004 signal callers B.J. Symons and Sonny Cumbie each won eight games in their respective seasons as the starter.

The Red Raiders improved their total offensive numbers from 324.8 yards per game to 531.0 yards per game since Leach's arrival. Leach's first nine seasons at Tech rank as the top nine all-time in total offense, while scoring went from 23 points per game in 1999 to a school-record 43.8 points in 2008. The most significant increase was in the passing game, where the Red Raiders averaged 475.3 yards per game in 2008 compared to 175.4 yards in 1999.

The running game flourished under Leach as well. Former Red Raider Taurean Henderson holds the NCAA career record for receptions by a running back. The Red Raiders' 28 total rushing scores in 2008 were the most for a Tech team since the 1993 team scored 30. Despite Tech's offense revolving around the pass, Leach did a tremendous job of incorporating the running back position into the mix. Henderson finished his career with 303 receptions, which ranks first in NCAA history among running backs and fourth overall.

The Red Raiders were not known solely for their play on the scoring side of the ball. The Texas Tech defense also flourished during Leach's 10 seasons. Texas Tech held opponents without an offensive touchdown a dozen times under Leach, including seven shutouts. Three of the whitewashes came in 2000 when the Red Raiders tied for the national lead.

The play of the special teams also improved with each season. Former placekicker Alex Trlica holds the NCAA record with 233 career extra points and another record for extra points made without a miss. He finished with 377 career points, which ranks among the top 10 in NCAA history among kickers. While leading the Red Raiders to 76 wins in his nine seasons, Leach is the only coach in school history to lead ten teams to bowl games.

Although Leach's presence was felt throughout the team, it also was beneficial for the players individually. In addition to picking up the Sammy Baugh Trophy in 2007, Harrell was the recipient of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame's Post-Graduate Scholarship and was one of 15 players selected as a candidate for the prestigious Draddy Award, the academic Heisman. Harrell also ranked fourth in the 2008 Heisman voting, while Crabtree was fifth. Symons was the second Tech quarterback to receive The Touchdown Club of Columbus' Sammy Baugh Trophy (Kingsbury in 2002).

Kingsbury, a 2002 All-Big 12 first-team quarterback and sixth-round draft pick of the New England Patriots, led the Big 12 Conference in several passing categories during his final three seasons and was a Heisman Trophy candidate in 2002. He also was named the Verizon Academic All-American of the Year for football and was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

In 2004, inside receiver Trey Haverty became Tech's first Associated Press All-American since Montae Reagor in 1998, when he was selected to the third team. Free safety Dwayne Slay earned first-team All-America honors from Sports Illustrated in 2005, marking the first in seven seasons. Slay was one of the country's most punishing tacklers that year and led the conference and finished second nationally with eight forced fumbles.

Leach has coached several players who have gone on to the NFL. While at Tech, 18 players have been drafted and 21 others have signed free agent contracts. In the spring of 2009, four players were selected among the first four rounds of the NFL Draft, marking the most successful draft for Texas Tech in the Leach era. Crabtree became the highest draft pick at No. 10, since Gabe Rivera in 1983. Crabtree, selected by the San Francisco 49ers, is the highest drafted Tech receiver since Dave Parks went No. 1 overall in 1964.

Safety Darcel McBath was selected by the Denver Broncos in the second round, while offensive lineman Louis Vasquez was taken in the third by San Diego. Defensive end Brandon Williams went to the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth.

The program made strides academically as well under Leach. During his 10 years, Tech was recognized as one of the nation's top institutions for consistently being above a 70 percent graduation rate, according to the American Football Coaches Association.

Prior to coming on board at Texas Tech, Leach, in just one season at Oklahoma, directed a Sooner offense that went from one of the worst in the Big 12 Conference to one of the best. Under Leach's tutelage, Josh Heupel was named 1999 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year. For his efforts, Leach was nominated for the 1999 Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country.

Leach guided an Oklahoma offense that went from 11th in the Big 12 in 1998 to first in 1999 and 101st in the nation to 11th. In just one year, OU's total offense numbers improved from 293.3 to 427.2 yards per game.

The rise in passing and scoring offense categories is just as impressive. Oklahoma went from last to first in the Big 12 in passing offense in one year, from 107th in the country to ninth. Under Leach, the Sooners improved from 109.9 yards passing per game to 321.7 yards per game.

In 1998, Oklahoma was last in the Big 12 and 101st in the country in scoring offense at 16.7 points per game. In 1999, the Sooners improved to second in the league and eighth in the country in scoring at 36.8 points per game, an increase of just over 20 points per game.

Under Leach, the Oklahoma offense set six Big 12 Conference and 17 OU records. The Sooners were one of only two schools in the nation to have six players with 20 or more receptions in 1999.

Prior to joining Bob Stoops' Oklahoma staff, Leach served as offensive coordinator for Hal Mumme at the University of Kentucky and Valdosta (Ga.) State University. For two years at Kentucky under Mumme, Leach coached the Kentucky "Air Raid" offense that was one of the most explosive in Southeastern Conference history. Under Mumme and Leach, the Kentucky offense set six NCAA records, 41 Southeastern Conference records and 116 school records in 22 games.

Leach's Kentucky offense featured the talented Tim Couch, who passed for 4,275 yards and 34 touchdowns as a senior and was the top pick of the 1999 NFL Draft.

Named 1996 Division II Offensive Coordinator of the Year by American Football Quarterly magazine, Leach helped Mumme lead Valdosta State to a 40-17-1 record. The 1993 Blazer offense smashed 66 school records, 22 conference records and seven national records. In 1994, Valdosta State advanced to the Division II playoffs with Leach's offense shattering 80 school records, 35 conference records and seven more national marks.

Leach and Mumme first teamed up at Iowa Wesleyan College in 1989. From 1989 to 1991 Leach served as offensive coordinator and line coach for an offense that led the NAIA in passing yardage one season and finished second the other two. Iowa Wesleyan quarterbacks passed for more than 11,000 yards in Leach's three seasons and broke 26 national records.

Leach also has made coaching stops in Pori, Finland, where he served as a head coach in the European Football League (1989), as well as one-year stints at College of the Desert (1988) and Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1987).

After graduating with honors from BYU in 1983, Leach earned a master's degree from the U.S. Sports Academy and his law degree from Pepperdine University, where he graduated in the top one-third of his class.

The oldest of six siblings, Leach and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of four children; Janeen, Kim, Cody and Kiersten.

2012 GAME RECAPS

WASHINGTON STATE AT BYU

Aug. 30, 2012 • LaVell Edwards Stadium • Att.: 57,045 • TV: ESPN

PROVO, Utah — Riley Nelson threw for two touchdowns and third-string quarterback Taysom Hill added another on his first collegiate pass as Brigham Young beat Washington State 30-6 on Thursday night to spoil Mike Leach's return to coaching. Washington State finished with 224 yards total offense. Washington State came out passing as expected, with Tuel starting 8 of 9. But his 10th pass was intercepted by Uona Kaveinga, and the momentum shifted to BYU before a "white-out" crowd. It was Leach's coaching debut for WSU, coaching against his alma mater. Leach never played football at BYU, but he gained inspiration for his spread passing attack from LaVell Edwards, for whom BYU's stadium is named. At one point in pre-game interviews, Leach said his team looked more like BYU of old than BYU. The BYU Cougars rolled up 426 yards offense, nearly twice that of Washington State. Andrew Furney's 47-yard field goal put Washington State on the board with 10:42 left in the second quarter and he added a 41-yarder just before halftime after a TD pass to Marquess Wilson was nullified by holding. BYU found one way to keep Leach's offense off the field - long drives. BYU's three first-half scoring drives were all 10 plays or longer, the third going for 16 and capped by Riley Stephenson's 28-yard field goal. BYU's defense, meanwhile, played up to its billing, holding Washington State to just 3 yards rushing in the first half, and limiting Tuel to 108 yards passing.

EASTERN WASHINGTON AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 8, 2012 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 33,548 • TV: Pac-12 Networks (Washington)

PULLMAN, Wash. — Jeff Tuel threw a pair of touchdown passes to Isiah Myers as Washington State hung on to beat Eastern Washington 24-20 on Saturday in the home debut of Cougars coach Mike Leach. Washington State (1-1), which lost at BYU in the season opener, also unveiled a $65 million upgrade of Martin Stadium in front of the first sellout crowd here since 2007. Eastern Washington (1-1), an FCS power coming off a victory over Idaho of the FBS, kept it close behind a pair of touchdown receptions by Brandon Kaufman. This was the first meeting since 1908 between the two programs, located 60 miles apart. Washington State scored first when Tuel connected with Myers in the back of the end zone on a 2-yard scoring pass with 5:42 left in the first quarter. Eastern replied on the next series when quarterback Kyle Padron hit Kaufman with a 93-yard touchdown pass to tie the score. But Washington State drove 75 yards on its next series, with Carl Winston rushing over from the 1 to take a 14-7 lead. Winston's 27-yard run was the key play of the drive. Eastern Washington drove 80 yards on its next series, half coming on a reception by Zack Gehring, before Jordan Talley ran over from the 5 to tie the score at 14 early in the second quarter. Washington State's Cyrus Coen intercepted a scrambling Padron and ran the ball down to Eastern's 17. On the first play, Tuel passed 17 yards to Myers for a touchdown that put WSU up 21-14. A 60-yard field goal by WSU's Andrew Furney as time expired gave the Cougars a 24-14 halftime lead. It was the second longest field goal in team history after Jason Hanson's 62-yarder against UNLV in 1991. The Eagles went on a penalty-filled 99-yard drive late in the fourth quarter that ended with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Padron to Kaufman. The extra point was blocked to leave WSU with a 24-20 lead with 2:17 remaining. Washington State recovered the onside kick, had two touchdown plays called back because of penalties, and had to punt. Eastern got a last chance with 1:29 left from its 17, but could not score. Washington State has never lost in 17 games against teams from the FCS. Eastern Washington is 8-21 against FBS teams.

2012 GAME RECAPS

WASHINGTON STATE AT UNLV

Sept. 14, 2012 • Sam Boyd Stadium • Att.: 17,015 • TV: ESPN

LAS VEGAS — Backup quarterback Connor Halliday threw four first-half touchdown passes to help Washington State beat UNLV 35-27. Starting in place of the injured Jeff Tuel, Halliday threw two touchdown passes to Marquess Wilson, and also teamed with Gabe Marks and Isiah Myers on first-half scoring strikes. Halliday completed 26 of 45 passes for 378 yards and had two interceptions. Washington State (2-1) held off UNLV (0-3) after the Rebels regained possession with 40 seconds left in the game. UNLV was unable to advance past the Washington State 42. Marks led the Cougars with six catches for 126 yards, and Wilson had five receptions for 110 yards. Nick Sherry completed 33 of 49 passes for 351 yards and three touchdowns for UNLV. He also threw an interception. Marcus Sullivan had six catches for 136 yards and two touchdowns. Washington State took a 7-0 lead when Halliday threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Wilson with 8:17 left in the first quarter. The eight-play, 70-yard drive was highlighted by a 47-yard pass from Halliday to Marks that put the ball on UNLV's 4-yard line. The Cougars increased their lead to 14-0 with 4:25 left in the first quarter, when Myers caught an 18-yard TD pass from Halliday. The drive was set up by Tyree Toomer's interception for the Cougars. UNLV cut the Cougars' lead to 14-7 when Sullivan caught a 37-yard TD pass from Sherry with 2:36 remaining in the first quarter. The second quarter featured three long TDs. Marks caught a 52-yard pass that made it 21-7. After a field goal made it a 11-point game, Wilson caught an 81-yard TD pass with 5:27 left in the period. Just 13 seconds later, Sullivan caught his second TD pass from Sherry - this one for 75 yards - to cut the Cougars' lead to 28-17. Following a scoreless third quarter, Leon Brooks completed an 88-yard drive by running three yards for a touchdown with 14:07 in the fourth quarter, giving the Cougars a 35-20 lead. The Rebels made it a one-possession game in favor of the Cougars at 35-27 when Sherry threw a four-yard TD pass to Jake Phillips with 1:44 left in the fourth quarter.
