2009 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL

GAME NO. 3 — WYOMING COWBOYS

September 19 / 1:40 p.m. MDT / Folsom Field, Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 3 (September 15, 2009) FOX COLLEGE SPORTS-CENTRAL (Regional) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

QUICKLY SPEAKING...

The Colorado Buffaloes (0-2, 0-0 Big 12) will be the second-to-last team to play on a Saturday in 2009, and will be looking to pick up their first win of the young season when the Wyoming Cowboys (1-1, 0-0 MWC) visit Boulder on Saturday, Sept. 19, for a 1:40 p.m. MDT kickoff at Folsom Field ... The game will be televised regionally on Fox College Sports Central with Sean Farnham (play-by-play), Yogi Roth (analysis) and Samantha Steele (sideline reporter) to call the action ... Saturday is Legacy Day at Folsom Field (see next note) ... The 54-38 loss to Toledo was just the second in CU history when the Buffs scored at least 38 points (171-2); the only other game where CU scored more was on Oct. 4, 1980 in an 82-42 loss to Oklahoma ... CU and Wyoming were members of the Rocky Mountain Athletic and the Mountain States conferences the first half of last century; since CU departed for the Big Seven in 1948, this will be just the sixth meeting between the two schools, only 2½ hours and 111 miles apart (and just 90 "as the crow flies") ... Visit CUBuffs.com/gameday as your one stop for everything, including live stats for all games.

SEPTEMBER 19 IS LEGACY DAY

Through the years, the department has received feedback from alumni and letterwinners alike about coming up with ways to recognize those teams and students prior to the last quarter century. As it goes, the more recent accomplishments usually come to mind, with those who toiled decades ago sometimes forgotten. This Saturday against Wyoming, CU will pay homage to an era that first put the school on the national football map: the 1930s.

The football team will don the jersey of that era, gold in color with black numbers, along with silver pants. That decade, CU had two players lead the nation in rushing, Kayo Lam (1935) and Byron White (1937); White led the country in several categories that 1937 season and was named the school's first All-American in football. The field will also be reminiscent of how it appeared over 50 years ago, especially in the lettering and the end zone design.

This year also marks the sesquicentennial, or 150th anniversary of the city of Boulder and the field will be marked to acknowledge so. At halftime, the university will salute several former members of the Board of Regents; courtesy of long-time university friend and supporter, Stephen Tebo, those regents who will return to campus will be shuttled around the field in one of Tebo's vintage classic cars from his personal collection.

To close the halftime ceremonies will be a salute to senior Jenny Barringer, likely the most celebrated female student-athlete in school history. She will be presented with her award for being selected as the Honda Track & Field Athlete of the Year.

The concept was coordinated with NIKE, which designed and produced the special uniforms, which were provided to the university as a part of NIKE's annual support package. The throwback jersey is currently for sale at the CU Bookstore and the Dick's Sporting Goods outlet at Flatirons Crossing Mall, and is also available on-line at CUBuffs.com.

STAT OF THE WEEK

To say big plays have hurt the Buffaloes would be an understatement. A young defense has already given up more than its fair share of long plays in 2009, but therein lies some good news as well. CU has allowed exactly 1,000 yards in its first two games, on 128 plays (7.8 per); that includes 16 plays of 20 yards or more (9 pass/7 rush), half of those for 40 or more. Those 16 plays have accounted for a whopping 676 of the 1,000 yards; when adding in eight other plays of 10 yards or more, the count rises to 788 yards. So just under 19 percent of the opponent plays (24) have accounted for 79 percent of the yards, meaning the other 104 plays have netted just 212 yards (98 for 224 when accounting for six kneeldowns, or just 2.3 yards per play). So if and when the coaches solve the big play issues, the appearance is that this could wind up being a pretty good defense.

TWO SAD ANNIVERSARIES COMING UP

It doesn't seem like this kind of time has passed, but on Sept. 15, it will have been 25 years since tight end Ed Reinhardt suffered a life-threatening brain injury on what seemed just like an ordinary tackle late in a 27-20 loss at Oregon. Ed never fully recovered, but thanks to a very devoted family, has been living as close to a normal life as possible. On Sept. 23, it will be the 20th anniversary of the passing of quarterback Sal Aunese, who succumbed due to complications from stomach cancer; he had been diagnosed five months earlier. Tom Friend and ESPN are putting the finishing touches on a major update to the story, centered around Sal's son, T.C. McCartney, who is a quarterback at LSU under head coach (and former CU assistant) Les Miles. It is set to air this Saturday morning then again throughout the week.

OBSCURE NOTES OF THE WEEK

- ➔ Here's a weird one: September 11 in CU history recently has been good for blocking kicks. The only two known instances in school annals where one player had multiple blocked kicks occurred on that date, and in this decade, with both getting their paws on two opposing punts. In 2004, Tyrone Henderson blocked a pair of punts against Washington State in Seattle, and this year, Douglas Rippy did the same at Toledo.
- ➔ Colorado is tied for the nation's lead in red zone offense, scoring at a 100 percent clip (8-of-8); that's tied for the fifth most penetrations of the opponent 20 (31 teams are perfect; Pittsburgh and Texas lead at 11-of-11). The Buffs have scored touchdowns in all six of their goal-to-go situations.
- ➔ Another indicator that the CU defense just needs some tweaking is the fact that the Buffs have more plays of 10 yards or more (26-24) as well as five-plus yards (57-50) than the opponent.

TOP CU COMEBACKS FROM SEASON OPENING LOSSES

Colorado has had to rebound from a tough opening loss many times, and in several instances, recovered to have outstanding, if not championship seasons. The top six CU rallies from an opening day loss, including 1986, CU's best recovery from a multiple loss start:

2002 (0-1)Colorado State 19, Colorado 14 in Denver

Buffs win nine of next 11, repeat as Big 12 North Division champions and return to the league's championship game.

2001 (0-1)Fresno State 24, Colorado 22 in Boulder

Buffs win 10 of next 11, including a 62-36 thrashing of No. 2 (BCS #1) Nebraska to win the Big 12 North and avenge the only loss in that span by beating Texas in a rematch in the Big 12 Championship game. Despite having two losses, CU is .005 shy of the No. 2 BCS ranking and just misses playing Miami in the Rose Bowl. CU rose to No. 2 in both the AP and Coaches final regular season polls.

1990 (0-0-1)Tennessee 31, Colorado 31 at Anaheim (Disneyland Pigskin Classic)

Though a tie, the players will tell you felt like a loss. CU was No. 5 in the preseason polls after coming off an 11-1 season where it played for the national championship. The Buffs led No. 8 Tennessee 31-17 in the fourth quarter, but basically had to hang on for the tie. The team started 1-1-1 on the season, but went on to win its last 10 and claim both the Big 8 and national titles.

1986 (0-4)Colorado State 23, Colorado 7 in Boulder

In this case, one loss became four, as the Buffs lose the next three by a combined eight points; CU thus opened 0-4 after being the national comeback darlings in 1985. However, CU rebounds and goes 6-1 in league play, the 11th best rally in NCAA history for a team that opened 0-4 and played Oklahoma for the conference title in November.

1976 (0-1)Texas Tech 24, Colorado 7 at Lubbock

The offense was stagnant with 208 yards; the defense allowed just 186 but was doomed by two big Tech plays and turnovers (CU threw five interceptions). Buffs win eight of next 10, win the Big 8 title and play Ohio State in the Orange Bowl.

1956 (0-1)Oregon 35, Colorado 0 in Boulder

Unranked Oregon shuts CU out at Folsom, and has 444 yards of offense to just 102 by the Buffs. CU picks itself up, goes 7-1-1 the rest of the way, with the only loss to #1 Oklahoma (27-19) and then posts the first bowl win in program history, 27-21 over Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

MCKNIGHT ON THE VERGE OF HISTORY

Junior Scotty McKnight has caught a pass in every game he has played in as a Colorado Buffalo—26 regular season plus the one bowl game for a total of 27. The school record for the most consecutive games with at least one reception is 27, set by Charles E. Johnson between 1991 and 1993; McKnight's 26 are thus closing in on the record (CU records do not include bowl games; if it did, Johnson's record would be 29).

Nationally, McKnight is among the leaders as well; here's the list going through games of September 12 as compiled by the Central Michigan SID office (these include postseason): Bryan Anderson, Central Michigan 42; Naaman Roosevelt, Buffalo 40; Duke Calhoun, Memphis 39; Dennis Pitta, BYU 32; Brandon LaFell, LSU 30; Antonio Brown, Central Michigan 29; Eric Decker, Minnesota 28; Toren Dixon, Rice 28; Scotty McKnight, Colorado 27; Delashaun Dean, Arizona 27; Jeff Moturi, UTEP 26; Kerry Meier, Kansas, 25; Jermaine Gresham, Oklahoma 25; Philip Livas, Louisiana Tech 25.

REDEMPTION

PK Aric Goodman, who set the dubious school record of eight straight field goal misses last season, has opened up 2009 with a vengeance. His eight kickoffs (not counting three onside tries), have all reached the end zone and the average opponent starting yardline is the 20, despite seven being returned. He scored CU's first points of the year when he nailed a career-best 54-yard field goal against Colorado State. That kick was one of a dozen on opening weekend that went for 50 yards or longer. The longest Division I-A/FBS field goals through September 12:

59 Carson Wiggs, Purdue vs. Toledo, Sept. 5
 57 Philip Welch, Wisconsin vs. Fresno State, Sept. 12
54 Aric Goodman, CU vs. Colorado St., Sept. 6
 54 Nate Whitaker, Stanford at Wake Forest, Sept. 12
 53 Matt Szymanski, SMU vs. Stephen F. Austin, Sept. 5

53 Blair Walsh, Georgia at Oklahoma State, Sept. 5
 52 Dustin Hopkins, Florida State vs. Miami, Sept. 7
 52 Aaron Pettreg, Ohio State vs. Navy, Sept. 5
 50 on nine occasions

ESPINOZA CREDITED WITH NUMBER 100

WR Jason Espinoza enjoyed a career game at Toledo, hauling in eight passes for 109 yards and a touchdown; WR Scotty McKnight also topped the century mark (11-114), but Espinoza reached the plateau first and thus is officially credited with the school's 100th 100-yard receiving game in its history. It marked the first time CU had two 100-yard receivers in the same game since Oct. 4, 2003 at Baylor (Derek McCoy 6-171, D.J. Hackett 4-143) and the 12th time overall that has happened in CU annals. The first was recently unearthed: Jim Haley caught three passes for 108 yards and a touchdown against Colorado State on Nov. 25, 1930; the next was Frank McGlone versus Northern Colorado on Nov. 18, 1933; he caught two passes, both for touchdowns for 109 yards. It was 13 years until the next one (John Zisch at BYU). McKnight now has two career 100-yard games and Espinoza one; McKnight registered in his first game (vs. CSU, Sept 1, 2007; 8-106, 1 TD).

SCOTT RAMBLES INTO RECORD BOOK

Sophomore TB Darrell Scott has been solid returning kickoffs, overcome a bruised knee to record 290 all-purpose yards against Toledo on Sept. 11. He had eight kickoff returns for 204 yards, the latter a school record (while tying the mark for the most returns), while rushing for 85 yards and picking up another yard on a pass reception. A quick look at what he accomplished:

YOUNG BUT NOT SO YOUNG

It's been rare when Colorado hasn't had at least one senior in its two-deep on its offensive line or at least one senior starter. The last time the latter happened was in 1998, when two different units of non-seniors started a combined five games and crushed Oregon in the Aloha Bowl, 51-43 (it was 44-14 at one point). The last time that a senior did not start at least one game on the offensive line was in 1982, Bill McCartney's first season as head coach. In 2009, CU has no senior offensive linemen on its roster; should it remain so, it'll be the first time in known CU history that has happened (Mac's '82 team had one senior OL, Mark Hasart). A look at senior-less starting offensive lines since 1978, when records are available:

Season	LT	LG	C	RG	RT	Notes

RECRUIT & ROSTER UPDATE

Three of CU's 19 recruits from last February did not qualify per NCAA standards and were thus not able to join the program: QB Josh Moten, DT Edward Nuckols and OL Shaun Simon. All could still wind up as Buffaloes, but need to go the junior college route first to do so. CU did add WR Will Jefferson as a scholarship recruit just prior to the start of fall camp (literally, he signed two days before). Three freshmen have cracked the two-deep in the first depth chart of the season, Jefferson, DT Nate Bonsu and DE Forrest West. DE Nick Kasa might have been in position to had he not suffered a knee injury midway through camp. PK/P Zach Grossnickle is running third at punter entering the season, but it is likely he will be ticketed for a redshirt season along with the other 13 members of the class. Kasa is rehabbing the injury at present without undergoing surgery; a decision on if he will have it will depend on his progress.

TRUE FROSH WATCH

Three true freshmen played in the opener as expected against Colorado State, but none started the game. DT Nate Bonsu, WR Will Jefferson and DE Forrest West all played against Colorado State, and had they started, were in line to become the first player at their respective position in Buff annals to ever start the season opener. Here are the six known true freshmen in CU history thrown in the fray from play one:

TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming) and ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State).

Freshman (true or redshirt) accounted for 95 starts over the last two seasons, the most in any two-year period in CU history; three redshirt frosh have started both games this season to up that total to 101.

Speaking of youthful overall, CU started 12 underclassmen (nine sophomores, three redshirt frosh) at Toledo, after starting 11 against Colorado State. The 12 is the second most nationally, topped only by Rice, which started 13 at Texas Tech on Sept. 12 (12 sophomores, one redshirt freshman). Virginia has started 11 and Missouri and Texas A&M 10 in games to date.

DIVERSE SCHEDULE

Colorado has played at least one team from every FBS Conference this decade, matched only by Cincinnati, Georgia, Navy, Southern Miss and Syracuse. Four of the six have a leg up on CU and UGA, they've also played an independent. Here's a look at CU's opponents from 2000 through 2008 (no additions to the list in 2009):

ACC: Clemson, Florida State, Miami-Fla.

Big East: West Virginia

Big 10: Wisconsin

Big 12: All other 11

Conference USA: UTEP

Independents: none

Mid-American: Miami-Ohio

Mountain West: Colorado State, San Diego State

Pac-10: Arizona State, Oregon, UCLA, USC,

Washington, Washington State

SEC: Alabama, Georgia

Sun Belt: North Texas

WAC: Fresno State, New Mexico State, San Jose State

HEAD COACHES & COACHING A POSITION

CU head coach Dan Hawkins is coaching the receivers this season, grooming defensive technical intern Ashley Ambrose to take over in 2010. Hawk is the first Buff head coach to take over the chores of a specific position (other than special teams) since Rick Neuheisel coached the quarterbacks from 1995-97. It's pretty rare: only three have really done it at Colorado, and Hawk is the lone BCS head coach and one of just six overall doing it this year; take a look:

Colorado			NCAA (2009)
2009	Dan Hawkins	Receivers	Ball State	Stan Parrish	Quarterbacks
1995-97	Rick Neuheisel	Quarterbacks	Colorado	Dan Hawkins	Receivers
1993	Bill McCartney	Quarterbacks	Kent State	Doug Martin	Quarterbacks
			Nevada	Chris Ault	Quarterbacks
			San Diego State	Brady Hoke	Defensive Line
			Texas Tech	Mike Leach	Quarterbacks
			Utah State	Gary Andersen	Defensive Tackles

Before the birth of the coordinator in the late 1960s, head coaches usually handled those chores on one or both sides of the ball; the last head coach to also serve as a coordinator was McCartney, when he was over the offense in his first season (1982).

INJURY UPDATE

The Buffs came through Toledo in fairly good shape, with a concussion and a knee bruise that topped the injury list. The coaches hope to regain the services of ILB Shaun Mohler and TB Rodney Stewart this week against Wyoming. The injury list as of September 15:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Wyoming
WR	Cody Hawkins	concussion	suffered on CU's last play of the Toledo game when he was victim of helmet-to-helmet hit	PROBABLE
DE	Nick Kasa	knee	sprained (MCL tear) in practice (Aug. 17), rehabbing without surgery at present	OUT (3-5 weeks)
ILB	Shaun Mohler	concussion	suffered at some point in Colorado State game; was not cleared for Toledo game	DAY-TO-DAY

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

A 265-POUND LINEBACKER?

Not to mention a father for the second time ... Senior ILB Marcus Burton actually does check in at 265 pounds, making him the heaviest inside or outside linebacker in school history (and by 10 pounds). And since he's got around 18 percent body fat, he's also fast, with 4.7 speed in the 40. Marcus and his wife, Krislen, welcomed their second child into the world Sept. 6 as Noah Alanea Christopher Burton was born at 9:59 a.m. at Boulder Community Hospital. They already have another son, Tysen, 2. But now, back to the heaviest linebackers to don a CU uniform (*—now weighs 240, but played at 250 earlier in career):

SERIES HISTORY—CU VS. WYOMING

It's the first meeting between the two schools connected via US 287 in 12 seasons, and just the sixth since the two parted ways back in 1948 when the Buffs left the Mountain States Conference and joined the then-Big Seven Conference. Colorado leads the all-time series by a 23-2-1 count, winning the first 11 in the series and taking 11 of the last 12 dating back to 1935. The Buffs lead 17-2-1 in Boulder, while owning a 6-0 edge in Laramie. NOTE: The 1997 win was later forfeited, but CU follows the NCAA Statistics policy of not adjusting series or coaches records for forfeits (wins or losses). Dan Hawkins is 2-0 against Wyoming, both wins coming when he was head coach at Boise State (35-13 in 2002 and 33-17 in 2003).

SERIES DID YOU KNOW — Wyoming was the first opponent to visit Folsom Field after the stadium floor was outfitted with its first application of AstroTurf back in 1971. It was a good thing, as there was a September snowstorm the previous evening and school officials said it was possible the game could have been cancelled had it not been for the artificial surface. UW was also the first opponent at Folsom upon the completion of the Dal Ward Center in 1991.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — There weren't many of the standard 5- or 10-year anniversary in the series to choose from (just two), so let's flash back 70 years to a 27-7 Colorado win in Laramie in 1939, the next-to-last time the two played north of the state lines. The 1940 Coloradan yearbook account cites that, "At Wyoming, two alternating Colorado teams led by (Paul) McClung, (Leo) Stasica, (Ray) Jenkins and (John) Pudlik wore down the Punchers' defense to cop a 27-7 win." The Punchers? Here's a look at all the previous scores in the CU-Wyoming series (26 games):

CU-WYOMING BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia in the Colorado-Wyoming series:

- 19 The most points the losing team has ever scored in the series (18 of 26 times the winner has held the opponent under 10);
- 26 The number of meetings in football, only five of which have occurred in the last 61 seasons;
- 99 The length of a Ben Kelly kickoff return that shaved the Cowboy lead to 19-17 with four minutes left in the 1997 game in Boulder;
- 111 The number of miles (by car) between Boulder and Laramie.

CONFERENCE CALL

- ➔ Colorado is 139-56-7 all-time versus Mountain West Conference schools (202 games), playing only members of its own Big 12 Conference more (496 games). In addition to the 23-2-1 mark against Wyoming, CU is 59-20-2 versus Colorado State, 12-4 versus Air Force, 8-3-1 against BYU, 6-3 versus New Mexico, 1-0 against San Diego State, 30-24-3 against Utah. CU last played two Mountain West teams in the same season in 2002 (CSU, SDSU) and 1997 (CSU, Wyoming).
- ➔ Wyoming is 15-57-1 all-time versus Big 12 Conference schools: 1-3 vs. Baylor, 2-23-1 vs. Colorado, 3-1 vs. Iowa State, 1-4-1 vs. Kansas, 4-4 vs. Kansas State, 0-5 vs. Nebraska, 0-2 vs. Oklahoma, 1-7 vs. Oklahoma State, 0-3 vs. Texas, 0-3 vs. Texas A&M and 3-2 vs. Texas Tech.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 19

Colorado is 4-2 all-time on September 19, having first played on the date in 1953 after college football moved up the start date of the season to the third weekend of September in 1950. Highlighted games on the date: 1953—Homer Jenkins threw two touchdown passes to Gary Knafelc, with Emerson Wilson rushing 14 times for 87 yards, including what proved to be the game-winning points on a 41-yard run off right tackle in the third quarter in a 21-20 win at Washington. Jenkins also intercepted a pass and returned a punt to set up the clinching points. 1959—In the debut of Sonny Grandelius as CU's head coach, the Buffs fall at home to Washington, 21-12. After spotting the Huskies a 7-0 lead, Gale Weidner returned an interception 94 yards to cut the margin to 7-6. UW scored two touchdowns zero seconds apart in the third quarter: after a 53-yard march to go up 14-6, the ensuing kickoff bounced into the end zone where Washington's Chuck Allen raced down to recover it and give his team a 15-point lead. Weidner led the Buffs on an 81-yard drive in the final minutes, passing for 80 of them before Don Maurer scored from a yard out to account for the final score. 1970—Indiana had rolled out AstroTurf for its home opener, and apparently were making excuses for getting drubbed in the snow a year earlier in Boulder. But three Dave Haney field goals, combined with five forced Hoosier turnovers (three interceptions) and Ward Walsh's running (21 carries for a career best 126 yards), the Buffs never trailed in winning, 16-9. Jim Bratten's 9-yard TD pass to Marv Whitaker opened the scoring, and the defense took over from there, with Phil Irwin, Pat Murphy and John Stearns all recording 13 tackles. 1981—The Buffs were less than four minutes away from winning their first two games of the year since 1978, leading Washington State 10-0 late in the fourth quarter. But the Cougars tackled punter Art Woods and scored five plays later, advancing their own fumble into the end zone, and then blocked a Woods punt with 1:43 left, as Paul Sorenson scooped up the ball and raced 43 yards for the winning score and a 14-10 WSU win. Derek Singleton (17-82), Lee Rouison (15-77) and Willie Beebe (12-62) led a balanced CU running attack but to no avail. 1992—Koy Detmer entered the game in the second half and rallied Colorado from a 17-0 deficit to a 21-20 win against Minnesota in the Metrodome. CU struggled on offense all night, but the Gophers were done in by their own errors, as the Buffs made four interceptions, two by Chris Hudson. Minnesota led 7-0 at the half after recovering a blocked punt in the end zone. Detmer threw TD passes to Michael Westbrook and Charles Johnson, sandwiched around a 31-yard Dwayne Davis interception return for a score. Pat Blottiaux's extra point after the Detmer-to-Johnson score put CU up by one with 12:02 remaining, and the Buffs held off the Gophers twice down the stretch, including watching a 55-yard field goal try in the waning seconds sail wide right. 1998—The No. 15 Buffaloes defeated a feisty Utah State team, 25-6, in a defensive contest Folsom Field had not witnessed in a long time. CU outgained USU 230-141, with the teams combining for 13 rushing yards (which did include 110 in sack yardage charged against rushing). Mike Moschetti completed 18-of-28 passes for 222 yards and two touchdowns, both to Darrin Chiaverini and the second of which put the Buffs up 23-6 midway in the third quarter. How ugly was this one? There were a combined 26 penalties, 18 punts, 13 sacks and five turnovers.

SEPTEMBER 19 COLORADO MVP: Koy Detmer. The coaches took off his redshirt year in the third game of the 1992 season, and he responded by completing 11-of-18 passes for 184 and two touchdowns in a 21-20 win at Minnesota.

WYOMING NOTES

Wyoming is 1-1 overall, coming off a 41-10 loss against No. 2 Texas under first year head coach Dave Christensen. The Cowboys hosted the Longhorns in what school officials called the biggest home game in program history. Wyoming led the Longhorns 10-6 with 1:32 left in the first half before Texas scored to make the halftime score 13-10; Texas slowly pulled away and outscored Wyoming 28-0 in the second half. The Cowboys opened the year with a 29-22 win over Weber State, which gave Colorado State fits last week, losing 24-23 when the Rams recovered a fumble deep inside their own territory in the waning seconds.

- ➡ Wyoming head coach Dave Christensen is in his first season at the reins of the Cowboys, owning a 1-1 record. This will be the second straight week that the Buffs will face a coordinator who coached in the Big 12 and also played Colorado in 2008. Last week, the Buffs faced Tim Beckman, former Oklahoma State defensive coordinator. Christensen was the offensive coordinator at Missouri from 2001-08.
- ➡ Wyoming is coming off a 41-10 loss at home against No. 2 Texas. Wyoming held a 10-6 lead late in the first half before Wyoming rattled off 35 straight points over the 31-plus minutes of the game. Texas QB Colt McCoy was 30-of-47 passing for 337 yards and three touchdowns with one interception. The Cowboys did hold McCoy to more incompletions than normal, as it was just the third time McCoy had 17 or more in a game. Two Wyoming quarterbacks saw action in the game with Robert Benjamin leading the way hitting 16-of-38 passes for 120 yards and also leading the ground attack with 12 carries for 53 yards. After scoring two touchdowns in the season opener against Weber State, RB Darius Terry was held to just 18 yards on seven carries by the Longhorn defense.
- ➡ The lone Wyoming touchdown against Texas came when Ghaali Muhammad returned a blocked punt six yards for a score near the end of the first half, which gave Wyoming a 10-6 lead at the time.

TOUGH ... LITERALLY

Colorado lost 121 games due to injury or illness in 2008, with all but 11 of those 121 by players who figured in either the two-deep or prominently on special teams. The Buffs were a bit shorthanded as Hawkins & Staff continue to rebuild the CU roster, with 20 on the inactive roster by season's end (11 injured, five ineligible, four transfers), not including 16 freshmen ticketed for a redshirt season. Here are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 20 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost	Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost
2009	2	3	150	2.0	3	88	3.4	2002	13	139	1118	12.4	80	572	14.0
2008	12	121	1008	12.0	110	528	20.8	2003	12	74	876	8.4	58	528	11.0
1998	11	101	864	11.7	89	484	18.4	1997	11	51	770	6.6	41	484	8.5
2000	11	101	880	11.5	82	484	16.9

Dating back to 1987, only seven times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08).

THREE SENIORS SERVING AS 2009 CAPTAINS

Senior linebackers Marcus Burton and Jeff Smart along with senior tight end Riar Geer were selected as team captains by their University of Colorado teammates at the end of August camp (Aug. 23). All are fifth-year seniors, three-year lettermen and were at the top of the depth chart at their respective positions enter fall camp. Burton is a 6-0, 265-pound linebacker from Channelview, Texas; Geer is a 6-4, 250 pounder from Fruita-Monument High School in Grand Junction, and Smart is a 6-0, 225-pound linebacker from Boulder High School.

"The leadership throughout this team is really outstanding, so it says something special for these three to be selected by their peers to be at the top of that list," Hawkins said, noting that all players, not just seniors, were eligible to be selected. "All three of these guys have grown and developed their way into being in this position, so it's a well-earned reward on their parts and will handle the responsibilities that come with it well."

Smart is the first CU captain from Boulder since linebacker Barry Remington served in the capacity as both a junior and senior for the 1985 and 1986 seasons. He was a graduate of Fairview High; the last two from Boulder High were linebacker Phil Irwin (1970) and All-America tailback Bobby Anderson (1969). Irwin's son, Heath, also played at BHS and was an offensive guard as a senior in 1996 and served as a captain on occasion when they were appointed each game between 1995 and 1997.

A former walk-on, Smart is the first named captain since 2007, when R.J. Brown earned the distinction; Joel Klatt (QB, 2004 & 2005) and Steve Beck (S, 1986) are the only other one-time walk-ons to be selected as (season-long) team captains in program history.

Geer is the first from Grand Junction to be named a Buff captain since tackle Jerry McClurg served as a senior in 1964; he attended Grand Junction High. Since then, two others from the state's Western Slope have been so honored, defensive end Mike Pruett (Delta High School, 1969) and offensive tackle Matt Miller (Durango High School, 1978).

Burton's selection marks the sixth straight year a player with Texas high school roots will serve as a Colorado captain, as he follows Sam Wilder (OT, 2004), Lawrence Vickers (FB, 2005), Mason Crosby (PK, 2006), Hugh Charles (TB, 2007), Terrence Wheatley (CB, 2007) and Patrick Williams (WR, 2008).

DAVIS HANGS 'EM UP

Citing issues with his surgically repaired knee, sophomore PK Jameson Davis decided to end his football career on August 31. He had been struggling with constant soreness in his knee and never fully returned to the player he was prior to the injury. He made 1-of-3 field goals as a true freshman in 2008, after selecting to attend Colorado after serving his Mormon mission. He was CU's No. 1 kickoff man, with 46 total; 31 were returned and 15 went for touchbacks; he had five inside-the-20 and a very respectable 26 inside-the-25.

TUFTS IN GRAD SCHOOL, SIGNS ON AS RALPHIE HANDLER

Sean Tufts, who lettered four years at linebacker (2000-03), is back at CU in its MBA program. But he will also be back on the football field, as just the second football player-turned-Ralphie Handler (OG Chad Hammond did the same in 1996 after his career ended due to a back injury). Senior DT Tyler Sale was a two-year Ralphie Handler before joining the team last year as a walk on, the first handler-to-player. "This is a good fit for me," Tufts said. "It's a way to stay involved in the athletic program, get with guys and teach them some of the lessons I've learned." In the opener against Colorado State, he didn't run with her, but was one the handlers stationed to help steer her on the turn toward her trailer, which is fairly dicey duty.

TRUE FRESHMAN TRIFECTA

In 2008, Colorado was the only school in the nation to have three freshmen (and in CU's case, all are true freshmen) finish as the top three in any major statistical category. Looking at the school's top three rushers, you will find TB Rodney Stewart (622 yards), TB Darrell Scott (343) and QB Tyler Hansen (261). The Stewart-Scott combo adds to 965 yards, second only in CU "two-frosh" rushing to the 1991 total of 1,131 yards by the combo of TB Lamont Warren (830) and TB Kent Kahl (301). The 2008 trio of Stewart, Scott and Hansen have combined for 1,226 rushing yards, and in "three-frosh" rushing, they also finished second, on the heels of the 1991 group of Warren, Kahl and QB Kordell Stewart (177 yards), which totaled 1,275 yards between them.

HAWKINS RISING UP THE CHARTS

QB Cody Hawkins was one of 16 freshman starting quarterbacks in the nation in 2007 (8 at BCS schools), and threw for 2,693 yards, just the fifth 2,500-yard season in school history (the total tied for the third most a season at CU). He set all the major passing and total offense records for a true freshman, and also set a record for attempts in a season by any class. Hawkins placed high on the other single season lists as well, such as attempts, completions and total offense. His 19 touchdown passes were the fourth most in a single season (record: 22, Koy Detmer in 1996), while his 15 interceptions tied for the second most in a single year (record: 16, John Hessler in 1997, followed by 15, Joel Klatt 2004). The interception count was a bit skewed—seven were by deflection. As is sometimes the case after a solid freshman year, a sophomore slump can set in. While some numbers are down, that can be traced to a youthful CU offensive line; he's cut his interceptions by over 50 percent and has just three fewer TD passes than last season.

- He is in the top 10 in every major passing category (and in the top 5 in the top four: yards (5,163), TD passes (41), attempts (848) and completions (474).
- Red Zone. He has a 32-to-3 career ratio of touchdowns to interceptions in the red zone (5-to-0 in 2009 after 11-to-2 in 2008; one pick really could have also been scored a catch and a fumble, as a KU defender ripped the ball away from Cody Crawford after an apparent catch).
- The 40-On-In. Once the Buffs reach the opponent's 40-yard line, Hawkins was fairly deadly last season. He completed 55-of-91 passes for 564 yards, with 16 touchdowns and three interceptions. That worked out to a passer rating of 163.91 from the opponent 40- on-in for CU's sophomore signal caller. (In rallying CU to the win over Iowa State, he was 10-of-12 for 81 yards and 4 TDs, a rating of 250.03.) In 2009, he is 17-of-37 for 157 yards (5 TD/1 INT; 120.8).
- He had his career game when it came to passer rating with a figure of 179.95 in the 28-24 come-from-behind win over Iowa State. But looking inside the numbers, once CU crossed midfield, he was even more deadly: he completed 11 of 13 passes for 91 yards and four touchdowns, which worked to a rating of 244.96 (and it was even higher from the 40-on-in, at 250.03).
- Speaking of ratings, his career rating is a modest 116.39; however, he has been hurried/pressured 144 times, 11 of which were intercepted, both numbers being rather high due to playing behind a young and/or patchwork offensive line at times. His rating when not pressured? It jumps to 143.32.

HANSEN JUST THE ELEVENTH

When he appeared late in the first quarter against Kansas State on October 18, QB Tyler Hansen became just the 11th true freshman to see action in a game for Colorado since 1972, the year freshmen were once again eligible to play. At this point, Hansen is ticketed to redshirt in 2009, meaning another true freshman could very well join this list at some point this season (CU's other three quarterbacks other than starter Cody Hawkins are all true frosh). Here's a look at the group Hansen joined and how they fared; game number indicates how far into the season the player made his debut (Colorado is 9-2 in games when a true frosh made his Buffalo debut):

The most interesting of the above might be the first listed; in 1977, CU traveled three quarterbacks to Ames, and the first two, Jeff Knappe and Pete Cyphers, both went down with injuries and Lillo took over for the last 11:40 of the game and helped preserve a 12-7 Colorado win. It was the only action of his career at quarterback as he redshirted in 1978, and then played free safety his sophomore through senior seasons. NOTE: In 1984, Mark Hatcher was originally a quarterback but was moved to tailback where he saw action for seven games; he returned to quarterback in 1985 in CU's switch to the wishbone offense.

And in 1986, Bill McCartney opened up the competition at quarterback after the fifth game of the year, and true frosh Marc Walters (father of current Buff Ryan) appeared for the first time in game seven (Nebraska), and started the season finale at Kansas State when CU needed the win to secure a Bluebonnet Bowl bid.

AND JUST THE FIFTH Hansen started the next game at Missouri on October 25, becoming just the fifth true freshman to start a game at quarterback for the Buffaloes (and just the eight freshman overall when three redshirts are included). Here's how he compared with the four before him:

CornerbacksBROWN RECORDS KNOWN SCHOOL FIRST

CB Cha'pelle Brown's 27-yard interception return for a touchdown that provided the winning points in CU's 31-24 win over Eastern Washington last year marked a first in school history: never before had the Buffs used a defensive score in the fourth quarter as the decisive play to come-from-behind or break a tie for a win.

- ➡ Then there's CB Jimmy Smith. He intercepted a pitch on a Nebraska fake field goal try and raced 58 yards for a touchdown, the second year in a row he put six on the board against the Huskers. As a freshman in 2007, he returned an interception 31 yards for score. One wisecracker walked by him at CU's spring game and asked him, "Shouldn't you be at Nebraska's spring game right now returned a blocked field goal for a touchdown?"

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. Dating back to the 1989 preseason, CU has been ranked in 185 of the last 328 polls (AP; 57%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 23rd most all-time (Michigan State in 22nd with 303, Pittsburgh is 24th with 282). Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (101), trailing Florida (111), Florida State (102) and Ohio State (102), while being tied with Michigan.

42 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS EIGHTH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 42 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season is the eighth most in the nation in this time frame (20 seasons). Florida State has the most with 68, followed by Florida (65), Michigan (60), Ohio State (57), Miami, Fla. (52), Southern Cal (51), Tennessee (51), Colorado (42), Penn State (42), Texas (42), Alabama (41), Notre Dame (40), Oklahoma (39) and Nebraska (36); as for the Big 12, after CU, UT, OU and NU, the next schools on this list are Texas A&M (29) and Texas Tech (22). All-time, Colorado's 65 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado's last win over a ranked team was over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT); its last over a top 10/top 5 team was the 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007. CU has lost nine straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win at UCLA 31-17 in 2002.

- 12 Colorado ran its streak to 12 consecutive makes on fourth down tries in the CSU game before finally being stopped (school record).
- 12-12 Colorado was 2-of-2 in the red zone against Colorado State, thus are now 12-of-12 (8 TDs/4 FGs) when crackling the 20 in Dan Hawkins' four season-opening games.

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001, 2002 and 2004 seasons—when the Buffs won the Big 12 North. The Buffs had advantages of 854-417 (2001), 803-607 (2002) and 574-499 (2004) in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs (in 2006, the opponent had the upper hand at 390-277, but for 2007, CU had 677 and owned a 269-yard edge on the enemy); CU had a hefty 518-323 edge in 2008. And the Buffs have 44 return and/or non-offensive touchdowns over the last 10 seasons (40 regular season, four bowl game), tied for the 14th most in the nation for this span. The Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 21 seasons. CU has been victorious 59 of the last 104 times in enemy stadiums with a 59-44-1 overall road record (a 57.2 winning percentage) since the start of the 1988 season. That stands 13th nationally (tied for 11th in raw wins) and third among Big 12 Conference teams in this span; only 11 schools have won 60 percent of their away games in this time frame. The Buffaloes own a 48-30-1 mark in their last 79 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—seven losses at Nebraska, four at Kansas State and Missouri, three at Kansas, two at Iowa State and Texas A&M, Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor and Oklahoma State; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 23-29 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (0-4 in 2008). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games and includes games of September 5:

From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks). HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS

Dan Hawkins is now in his fourth season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, his ninth overall as a FBS/Division I-A head coach and 15th as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 13-26 record at Colorado, along with a 66-37 record in the Division I-A ranks (53-11 at Boise State) and an overall career mark of 105-49-1 including five years at NAIA Willamette (Ore.) College. In his final year at Willamette (1997), his team posted a 13-1 record, falling in the NAIA Championship game, before he moved on to Boise State where he was assistant head coach under Dirk Koetter. At BSU, he coached the tight ends and special teams while coordinating recruiting; when Koetter left BSU for Arizona State after the 2000 season, Hawkins was promoted to head coach. He took the Broncos to four bowl games in five years, with his 2004 team compiling an 11-0 regular season mark and ascending to No. 10 in the national polls; in the most anticipated non-BCS bowl game to date, Boise dropped a thriller to No. 7 Louisville, 44-40. In the modern history of Division I-A football, only three coaches won more games in their first five seasons than Hawkins (53, bested by Bob Pruett, Marshall; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma; and Pete Carroll, USC). Hawk's Handiwork:

- ♦ Hawkins & Bye Weeks. Hawkins is 8-2 in games following bye weeks, not including bowls (2-2 at Colorado, 6-0 at Boise State). At Colorado, the 2-2 mark includes a 1-2 mark against Nebraska, and a win over West Virginia in 2008.
- ♦ Hawkins has been a head coach for 155 games (105-49-1), with that record and 68.1 winning percentage the 16th best in the nation for active coaches with five or more seasons coached.
- ♦ In 15 seasons as a head coach, Hawkins' teams have been shutout just once, coming in his 149th game at the hands of Missouri (58-0). He had never dropped more than two games in a row in the same season (which happened just three times) until his first season at CU and won at least eight games seven times (10-plus four times).
- ♦ Hawkins tells his players: "You're in America, you're going to college, you live in Colorado. You have it better than 90 percent of the people in the world."
- ♦ Hawkins has used the term "conflama" when referring to some people's desire for conflict and drama (the reason someone like Jerry Springer and that lot is even on the air). He references it when people on the outside of a program choose to look at the negative without choosing to understand why something may very well be the way it is.
- ♦ Hawk on depth charts: "To be honest, we really don't pay too much attention to depth charts, we run a lot of personnel in and out of there at several positions. For example, I view the defensive line like hockey; they're playing in shifts as we want them fresh." As a result, especially on offense at receiver, tight end and in the backfield, CU utilizes different "groupings" as opposed to following a depth chart.
 - ♦ Hawk on the vertical passing game: "I love the long pass. As I've come along in this game, I've learned you've got to pound it and launch it."
 - ♦ Hawkins believes the four most important positions on a football team are the offensive and defensive lines, quarterback and cornerback.
 - ♦ Hawk's philosophy on big wins, like CU's 27-24 over No. 3 OU in 2007: "You enjoy it on Saturday, but come Sunday, it's in the vapor trail."
 - ♦ One of his beliefs is, "Once is a mistake; twice is a behavior." He applies it to football, whether for things on or off the field, and to life.
 - ♦ Hawk's response about potential for disaster after the 0-3 start in 2006: "There's always potential. When you get in your car and get out on the freeway, there's potential for disaster. I knew when I left Boise State there was potential for disaster. That doesn't scare me... there's also the potential for greatness. So you can hide behind the shadow if you want, but that's not living."
- ♦ Versus' Ron Thulin on Hawkins' optimism: "His glass isn't half-full, it's overflowing. He's not going to change. He said they are going to keep fighting and doing the little things everyday. I think everyone on our crew was ready to put on a football helmet after talking to this man yesterday. He is excitable and he cares." Chimed in analyst
- ♦ As with many coaches, at the end of practice, the team will run for turnovers, mistakes, missed field goals, etc. One day in 2006 after PK Mason Crosby missed a kick within his range, Hawk felt a little bad as he wondered to himself, "How many coaches are making their kids run for a missed 64-yard field goal?"
- ♦ Hawkins was one of the 60 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2008 (the eighth straight year he was a voter and the 22nd straight year CU's head coach has participated).

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. Upstairs are offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau, secondary coach Greg Brown, outside linebackers coach Bob Foster, graduate assistants Paul Creighton and Skyler Fulton and technical assistants Brad Bedell and Ashley Ambrose. Head coach Dan Hawkins wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Ron Collins, linebackers coach Brian Cabral, offensive line coach Denver Johnson, running backs coach Darian Hagan, defensive line coach Romeo Bandison and special teams/tight ends coach Kent Riddle. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

Associate head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. Entering his 20th full-time season, he is now the longest tenured assistant coach in Colorado all sports history. A closer look at the top eight in football:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Brian Cabral 19 (1990-current); 2. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 8. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58).

Versus' Ron Thulin said about Cabral: "He's one of the great individuals. Besides being an outstanding football coach he has been the barometer for this football program for the last two decades. He teaches a lot more than just football to these players and that's why Dan Hawkins kept him on the staff. He's one of the best in the business."

HAWKINS, CU AGREE TO CONTRACT EXTENSION

In 2008, the University of Colorado extended Dan Hawkins contract through the 2012 season, athletic director Mike Bohn announced October 7. Hawkins was named the 23rd head football coach in Colorado history on December 16, 2005, and originally signed a five-year, $4.25 million contract that was effective January 1, 2006, through December 31, 2010, not including incentive compensation for academic progress, student citizenship and community outreach, along with various performance incentives ranging from rewarding bowl appearances to winning conference and national championships.

The new contract was effective as of July 1, 2008 and runs through January 31, 2013, with the guaranteed compensation package for fiscal year 2008-09 to include base salary ($174,720); radio, television and public appearances ($514,500); sponsorship support ($210,000); and football camps ($52,500) for a total of $951,720, prior to performance incentives. Those incentives includes academic progress toward graduation of football program athletes; meeting performance objectives in the area of player welfare and development; development of football program outreach; participation in the Big 12 Conference championship game; league and national titles and bowl participation and wins; and competitive success, e.g., if he is named the conference or national coach of the year.

EXPERIENCE

Colorado's 2009 coaching staff is youthful, yet experienced. Through September 11, the 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 105 seasons in Division I-A and have combined to coach in 1,164 games (with a record of 642-509-13, .557). The aggregate age of the 10 is 468 years, thus making the average age 46.8; outside linebacker coach Bob Foster is the elder statesman at 68, followed by associate head coach Brian Cabral (53) and secondary coach Greg Brown (51). five of the coaches are 40 or older, including head coach Dan Hawkins (48), and five under, with offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau the youngest (36). Kiesau is the 10th youngest coordinator in the Division I-A/FBS ranks, the seventh most youthful on the offensive side; a closer look:

FOURTH ALMOST ALWAYS A WINNER

Dan Hawkins will become the 11th head coach in CU history to coach at least four seasons this fall. The 10 coaches who previously reached year number four generally had winning teams, with eight posting winning records and a ninth going .500; the 10th? That was the 1938 team coached by Bunny Oakes that had to replace Mr. Everything, Byron "Whizzer" White, and it still managed to go 3-4-1. On two other occasions when coaches were asked to rebuild the program, Eddie Crowder had his first winning season in his third year (going 6-2-2 in 1965), following that up with a 7-3 campaign his fourth year, while Bill McCartney enjoyed his first winning year in his fourth season at the helm.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 113 players on the 2009 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of August 31 and including those walk-ons set to join the team after the first game) totaled 8,273 inches in height and weighed 25,805 collective pounds, or an average of 6-1½, 228 pounds per player (within a half inch and 3 pounds of the average number each of the last six seasons). The 8,273 inches translate roughly into 689 feet or 230 yards, about the average distance of a par-three hole on the PGA Tour, while the weight of 25,805 pounds is the equivalent of 103,220 quarter-pounders at McDonald's. Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position (Seniors)	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position (Seniors)	Players	LW	Height	Weight

At six of the 14 positions, CU has no seniors, most notably on the offensive line; three others have just one set to graduate.

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 64 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including 23 quarterbacks and six active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Dan Hawkins and his oldest son, Cody.

The most famous and perhaps best head coach father (HCF) and quarterback son (QBS) tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career). The most famous "near-miss" happened at Stanford, where John Elway played quarterback from 1979-82 and his father, Jack, took over as head coach from 1984-88. And at Marshall, when they were a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

STARTING FROSH. Cody started the first game of his redshirt frosh year, which made him the ninth known son at the time to start at quarterback for his head coach father in I-A/FBS history, and just the third freshman to do so. Kevin Sweeney started the first two games of his true freshman season at Fresno State in 1982, but was injured in the second game and granted a medical hardship for the season; he came back to start as a redshirt frosh through his senior season. Tim Sale started all 11 games of his true frosh year at Minnesota in 1980; he lettered that year, but played sparingly thereafter. There are two other active HCF-QBS combos, at North Texas where Riley Dodge is starting this season as a redshirt frosh, playing for his father, Todd; and at Arkansas, where Nick Petrino is a reserve for his father, Bobby (upping the count to 11 quarterbacks, four of which were freshmen). While this is the first time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

QUARTERBACK BATTLES OVER THE LAST THE QB BATTLE

The competition for the starting quarterback job this year is really just the seventh real battle in the last 18 years at Colorado, though the fourth time in the last seven seasons (the other times the incumbent was either entrenched or had little competition). Cody Hawkins battled Tyler Hansen this season, with Hawkins pulling ahead a bit the second half of camp with the plan now to redshirt Hansen if possible; Hawkins also beat out Nick Nelson and Matt Ballenger for the nod in 2007. There was a three-way competition for the job in 2006 among James Cox, the initial winner, Bernard Jackson (who would start games two through 12) and Brian White (who quit after the first game). The last time had been in 2003, when walk-on Joel Klatt earned the nod; in 2000, the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter but four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and did not relinquish the role the remainder of the season. In 1998, the first real battle in six years, juniors Mike Moschetti and Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won the job and Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety. Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91, taking over for the dying Sal Aunese after he was diagnosed with stomach cancer in March 1989.

AND MORE— In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knappe on occasion after Knappe wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best examples of this came in the 1991 Orange Bowl, when Johnson replaced an injured Hagan in the second half and earned MVP honors in leading CU to a 10-9 win over Notre Dame which paved the way for Colorado to be named the consensus national champion, and in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

How did the quarterbacks compare in the six main scrimmages (three each in the spring and fall)? Pretty darn close; take a look:

Quarterback	PASSING							RUSHING
	Att-Com-Int	Pct.	Yds	TD	Long	Sacked	Rating	Att	Yds	Avg.	TD	Long
Cody Hawkins	118-75-1	63.6	1,001	11	50	11/60	163.89	7	27	3.9	0	15
Tyler Hansen	88-53-1	60.2	746	7	70t	16/99	155.41	19	123	6.5	1	23

The two combined for an 18-to-2 touchdown-to-interception ratio, one any coaching staff in the country would love to have one playing for real starts.

2009 SCHEDULE FACTOIDS

- There are 78 games involving 119 FBS teams in week one of the college football season and the Buffaloes are playing in the third-to-last game of the week. The Buffs play in the later of two Sunday games, preceding two Monday games. Additionally, Florida International is the only school with an opening-weekend bye.
- The Buffs will also have the fourth-shortest amount of time between contests from the first to second weeks. Florida State opens against Miami, Fla. (6 p.m. MT Monday, Sept. 7) and then hosts Jacksonville State (4 p.m. MT Saturday, Sept. 12), giving the Seminoles four days, 22 hours between games. Rutgers opens with Cincinnati (2 p.m. MT Monday, Sept. 7) and then hosts Howard (1:30 p.m. MT Saturday, Sept. 12), giving Scarlet Knights four days, 23-and-a-half hours. Clemson opens its season at home against Middle Tennessee State (4 p.m. MT Saturday, Sept. 4) before playing at Georgia Tech (5:30 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 10), giving the Tigers five days, one-and-a-half hours between games. The Buffs will have five days and two hours, opening at 5 p.m. MT Sunday before traveling to Toledo for a 7 p.m. MT kickoff against the Rockets.
- The Buffs arguably have the shortest week when factoring travel into the situation. Clemson, Colorado, Florida State and Rutgers all open at home, but Florida State and Rutgers will also remain home in week two while Clemson will travel just 105 miles from Clemson, S.C. to Atlanta to face the Yellow Jackets. The Buffs will travel 1,137 miles from Boulder to Toledo, Ohio.
- Additionally, the Buffs are the only school in the country that plays each of the first three weeks of the season without having a Saturday game until the third weekend on Sept. 19. Miami, Fla. opens its season Monday, Sept. 7 and then has a bye week before playing on Thursday, Sept. 17, meaning the Hurricanes are the only team waiting longer to play on a Saturday during 2009 (Sept. 26) and they are the only other team in the FBS to open with two non-Saturday games. Eastern Kentucky (Thursday), Ole Miss (Sunday) and Utah State (Thursday) both open with non-Saturday tilts and all have bye weeks before holding their first Saturday games on Sept. 19 like the Buffs.
- The 28 days that Colorado has between home games (Sept. 19/Wyoming;-Oct. 17/Kansas) ties for the eighth-longest span between home games in 2009. UAB has 37 days (Oct. 1-Nov. 7), Hawai'i goes 36 days (Sept. 4-Oct. 10), while Arizona (Sept. 12-Oct. 17), Georgia (Oct. 3-Nov. 7), Middle Tennessee State (Sept. 12-Oct. 17), SMU (Sept. 5-Oct. 10) and Washington State (Oct. 10-Nov. 14) all have 35-day windows.

TRENDS1985-2009

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 181-109-4, the 23rd best record nationally in this span). In these 294 games spanning 25 seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Dan Hawkins, as with most head coaches, believes that when it comes to turnovers, that they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. He has penalties and rewards daily in the practice dependent on the number of turnovers committed or forced. Former CU coach Gary Barnett drilled home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football, which he learned from the legendary Bill McCartney. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 21 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 22nd best overall record:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
153 WINS	256	384	+128	1,271	521	+750
HAWKINS ERA (13 WINS)	21	27	+ 6	73	65	+ 8

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 129 times in 201 tries, including 22 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the “two-minute offense” drill since 1988; that’s 64 percent of the time. The Buffs are 3-of-4 in the drill in 2009, with a late score against CSU and two late TDs at Toledo. In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half). The Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006: 1-of-1 against Texas Tech (field goal), 0-of-2 versus Montana State, 0-of-1 versus Colorado State, 0-1 at Georgia and 1-of-1 versus Iowa State (field goal). Thus, in the Dan Hawkins Era, Colorado is 19-of-32 in the drill (59.4 percent). One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU’s scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 33 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 211 of 230 times, losing 16 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 20 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were in 2008 (Nebraska, when the Huskers scored 10 points in the final 1:43), and in 2006 (Kansas, Baylor in three overtimes—CU scored first in OT2—and at Georgia, when the Buffs led 13-0 entering the quarter and lost with just 46 seconds remaining as UGA won, 14-13). In conference play, only Kansas (1984, 2006), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2008), Oklahoma State (1997), Texas A&M (2004) and Baylor (2006) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

➤ Colorado has won 95 of its last 105 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—and 22 of the last 28. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).

In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 33 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came this year against Iowa State (won 28-24 after trailing 24-13 with 9:14 left) and versus Eastern Washington (won 31-24 after being down 24-17). In 2007 CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 33 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon. On several occasions, teams used the win over the Buffs to gain national notoriety and/or move into the rankings following the win. The Buffs are 94-31-2 in their last 127 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 125-33-2 in the last 160. The Buffs are 163-89-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-9 in bowls); 112-63-3 in Big 8/12 games (including four league title games) and 51-26-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 27 occasions (and are 21-6 in games when this occurs). It’s happened seven times this decade, most recently at Baylor in 2007 (TB High Charles 109 yards, and WR Josh Smith 103). It hadn’t happened since 2004, when it occurred thrice: at Texas A&M (TB Bobby Purify/WR Dusty Sprague), versus Kansas State (Purify/WR Ron Monteilh) and at Nebraska (Purify/WR Blake Mackey). In happened three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB’s Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 34 of the 2009 CU History & Records supplement.

STARTING STREAKS

ILB Jeff Smart owns the longest starting streak on the team at 24 games, followed by CB Cha'pelle Brown (17) and OT Nate Solder (15). CU is still rather young, but this also is a result of what Dan Hawkins thinks of depth charts; he prefers the term contributors, so whatever play they want to run to open a game could feature virtually anyone that fits a particular play or scheme.

TEN PLAYERS MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS SO FAR IN 2009

Eight players made their first career starts in the season opener against CSU, four each on offense and defense. OLB B.J. Beatty, DT Curtis Cunningham, DT Will Pericak and SS Ray Polk started the game on defense, while OG Ethan Adkins, WR Jason Espinoza, OT Bryce Givens and C Mike Iltis lined up for the first play on offense. Polk replaced Patrick Mahnke, who suffered a sprained ankle in the previous Friday's practice. And Pericak became the first freshman, true or redshirt, to start a season opener at defensive tackle in CU history. Two others followed at Toledo, as ILB Bryan Stengel and OLB Doug Rippy were in on the defense's first play. Over the last 25 seasons, CU has had as few as six players (1994) and as many as 29 (1984, 15 on offense) make their first career starts in a single year. The high on a single side of the ball came in 1998, when 17 of 27 new starters were on offense. Here are the annual numbers of first-time starters since 1984:

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11), 2006 (24), 2007 (18), 2008 (15), 2009 (10).

FIFTEEN SEE FIRST CU ACTION IN 2008

Thirteen players saw their first collegiate action in the season opener against Colorado State (19 did so in 2008), though 11 of the 13 saw significant action from scrimmage as opposed to special teams. Four true freshmen were among the 11, DT Nate Bonsu, WR Will Jefferson, CB Paul Vigo and DE Forrest West. Two others played for the first time at Toledo. Here's the breakdown by class of those players seeing their first CU action in 2009 (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (4): DT Nate Bonsu, WR Will Jefferson, CB *Paul Vigo, DE Forrest West

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (7): WR Dustin Ebner, CB *Vince Ewing, OT Bryce Givens, *Jon Major, DT Will Pericak, S Ray Polk, OLB Douglas Rippy

JUNIORS (1): WR Andre Simmons.

Recent counts of players seeing their first action at Colorado by season: 30 (2008), 28 (2007), 19 (2006), 16 (2005), 24 (2004) and 24 (2003).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

Upperclassmen started about 61 percent of CU's games in 2008, down a bit from two-thirds in both 2006 and 2007, though seniors accounted for 40 percent of the '08 starts, up from 31 percent the previous year, which was the third lowest figure over a 9-year span. In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen. That showed the youth of the team, especially since underclassmen also had 41.7 percent of the starts in 2003. Fast-forward to 2006-07, Dan Hawkins' first two seasons where underclassmen accounted for 179 starts over the two years, or 33 percent. Over the course of the 2007 and 2008 seasons, 95 freshmen made starts, the most in any two-year period in school history (the old mark was 54 on two occasions, last in 1999-2000). It's historically a cyclical pattern, showing up in breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class since 1999:

Season	G	SR	JR	SO	FR (RS-True)	UpperCl%	Fr-Pct.
1999	12	115	42	86	21 (20-1)	59.5	8.0

TWENTY-THREE SKIDOO

Colorado is one of just 23 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list:

GRADUATION STAT(US)

Two of CU's 17 seniors in 2009 have already earned their degrees: CB Ben Burney (Film Studies) and TB/WR Kevin Moyd (Accounting & Management). Ten are on schedule to pick up the sheepskin in December: FB Trace Adams (Communication), Patrick Devenny (Marketing), P Matt DiLallo (Integrative Marketing), SN Justin Drescher (Finance), TE Riar Geer (History), DT Taj Kaynor (Sociology), DT Tyler Sale (Environmental Engineering), TE Devin Shanahan (Economics), ILB Jeff Smart (Sociology) and TE Luke Walters (Geography). Three are on schedule for May graduation, FB Jake Behrens (Finance & Accounting), ILB Marcus Burton (Ethnic Studies) and ILB Bryan Stengel (Integrative Physiology). ILB Shaun Mohler (Sociology) and CB Cha'pelle Brown (Sociology) are looking at no earlier than next summer to wrap up.

► NOTE: Over the last seven years (2002-08), CU has had 120 of its 143 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 84 percent (with nine of the 23 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while six are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, i.e., Wayne Lucier ('02), WR Mike Duren ('04), TE Tyson DeVree, FB Samson Jagoras and WR Chase McBride (all '07), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado.

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (73 percent of the entire roster—82 of 113 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 51, California 25, Texas 6, Florida 4, Arizona 3, Hawai'i 3, Idaho 3, Ohio 3, Tennessee 3, Connecticut 1, Georgia 1, Illinois 1, Indiana 1, Louisiana 1, Missouri 1, Nebraska 1, Nevada 1, New Jersey 1, Pennsylvania 1, South Carolina 1 and Washington, D.C. 1. That's 20 states total along with the District of Columbia that has produced the make-up of this year's team. Last year, Army had the most states represented with 37.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until a 58-0 loss at Missouri on October 25, CU's first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska.

► CU has scored in 131 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986), and has scored in 130 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 270 games (all the way back to 1963).

► CU has been shutout just eight times in its last 480 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only five schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Missouri.

► Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through September 12): Nebraska 166, Kansas State 154, Texas Tech 144, Oklahoma 136, Missouri 79, Kansas 78, Iowa State 65, Texas A&M 64, Texas 61, Oklahoma State 48, Baylor 24, Colorado 6. CU is the last team to shutout both Kansas State (12-0 in 1996) and Oklahoma State (34-0 in 2005).

242 WAS HISTORIC

Colorado's 242-game scoring streak ranks as the ninth longest in Division I-A college history; of the top 16 all-time, nine were started in the 1980s while the other five began in the 1970s. Here's that list, through Sept. 12: (*—329 games including I-AA games prior to joining I-A in 1992):

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 294-13-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 209-4 with 35-plus points and 194-3 with 36-plus, 171-2 with 38-plus and 109-0 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993) and Toledo (54-38 this year). Colorado has played 1,127 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 98-53-3 in its last 154 league games, and has the 11th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 110 of its last 247 games, posting a 101-8-1 record. The most recent losses were to Toledo this year (54-38) and at Nebraska to close 2008 (40-31). The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 167 of these 247 games dating to the start of 1989, going 131-34-2 (CU is 22-55-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed 427 touchdowns in the 809 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 dating back to 1988; the other 382 times has yielded 202 field goals as well as 180 non-scores. In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 24% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 48% of the time, solid defensive numbers.
 - ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the opponent has penetrated the CU red zone 134 times, with 83 touchdowns, 34 field goals and 17 non-scores.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 104 touchdowns out of 254 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 152 scores overall, meaning 102 non-scores). Over the last six seasons, CU's allowed just 111 scores (79 TD/32 FG) in 176 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory (18 scores out of 24 times in 2008, and just 10 TDs).
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards of total offense in 53 of its last 144 contests (once in 2009; eight times in the Hawkins Era), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 198 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 89 times (45 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 43 of the 196 games since the '93 season opener (23%)... and note that CU has played 80 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. The last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Colorado averaged 5.3 per first down play in 2007, but was inconsistent, gaining five or more yards just 149 times in 382 tries while being held to two yards or fewer 173 times. The average was 5.5 in Hawkins' first year. That dipped to a modest 4.4 yards in 2008; since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979
 - ➔ Through two games in '09, the Buffs are averaging 5.13 yards on first down, including 5.9 when rushing the ball.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 44 scores by return in the last 124 games (three last year with season highs of seven in 2001 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 65 scores by return in 173 games (58 regular season, seven bowl), or two every five games.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 13 times in the last 123 games (and 34 times in the last 196, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 34-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 65-56-1 in its last 122 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (62-49 in the last 111, including a 36-24 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 92-36-3 in its last 131 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 59-27-3 mark in conference games. CU is 0-1 on the fake stuff in 2009; the Buffs are 2-9 on it under Hawkins.
- ➔ CU quarterbacks have traditionally taken care of the football, as Buff slingers have thrown just 195 interceptions in 6,149 attempts since the start of the 1993 season, an interception rate of just 3.17 percent (or one every 31.5 passes).
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. In 2003, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per). In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions, but jumped to 12.0 in 2006 (1,022 yards on the 85 conversions).
 - ➔ The trend continued in '07, as opponents had 838 yards on 60 makes (14.0 per), and just 130 on 113 misses (1.1). In '08, opponents had 643 yards on its' 66 makes (9.7 per), and just 78 on the 102 misses (0.8)
 - ➔ Through 2 games in '09, opponents have 231 yards on its' 10 makes (23.1 per), and just 13 on the 19 misses (0.7).
- ➔ Second Down Conversions. In the fifth year of tracking this statistic, trends basically show great success in converting on second down in wins as opposed to losses, whereas often on third down it doesn't seem to translate as much (2009 numbers on page 6 of the stat sheet; 2008 show below to prove trend):

Second Down:
 2008 WINS (5)—Colorado: 41-of-125, 32.8%; Opponent 29-of-111, 26.1%.
 2008 LOSSES (7)—Colorado: 41-of-155, 26.5%; Opponent 68-of-166, 41.0%.

Third Down:
 2008 WINS (5)—Colorado: 35-of-77, 45.5%; Opponent 23-of-73, 31.5%.
 2008 LOSSES (7)—Colorado: 33-of-104, 31.7%; Opponent 43-of-95, 45.3%.
- ➔ Third Down & 36 Inches. Under Hawkins, CU is 39-of-49 on 3rd-&-1 (79.6%), including 1-of-1 this year. Colorado was 12-of-13 on 3rd-&-1 plays in 2006, and was a bit subpar in 2007 (11-of-17) before rallying to go 15-of-18 in 2008.
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-0 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover. The latest occurrence of this was in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. It also happened twice in 2005, when CU did it in a three-game span (in a 41-20 conquest of Texas A & M and a 44-13 win over Kansas). Those were the first times since 2001, when CU also did it twice (San Jose State and Nebraska). In these 14 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 570-284, with only three games decided by less than 17 points (a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 3-of-87 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003 (WSU converted on a 3rd-&-23 and ISU on a 3rd-&-20 in 2004). The CU offense is 5-of-81 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the Buffs have scored in 96 of 156 quarters (62 percent) and 4 of 5 overtime periods. All told, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 565 of 808 quarters (70%). Those numbers include 25 of 48 quarters in 2008 (after 35 of 52 quarters in 2007).

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 17 seniors on its roster in 2009, and history proved again most, if not all NFL teams pass through Boulder or a road site for CU game every season. In 2009, 12 scouts from 10 teams have so far witnessed the Buffs in person, visiting from Arizona, Baltimore, Buffalo, Cleveland, Denver, Houston, Jacksonville, New Orleans, San Francisco and Tampa Bay. Dating back to 2000, all 32 teams have seen multiple CU games in person (374 scouts in the decade-long period).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 83-45 in its last 128 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 73-23 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 66-28-1 in its last 95 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 76-24-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (79-62-2 with 50,000-plus);
- ❑ Colorado is 522-243-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was by redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win in 2007. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Two games into 2009, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 446 CU games in his career, including 183 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. SID Dave Plati has worked 348, including the last 306 (dating to the '83 finale), while facilities man John Krueger has worked 300 in all (a string of 144 straight ended last season). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 247 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 293 CU games. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 21 former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as September 13 (opening weekend). There were 23 on the rosters at the end of the 2008 season (28 in 2007). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last 21 years of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th, ironically with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 (when it was 19th). CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was second in 2002 and 2003, and was third seven other seasons (including 2004 through 2007). Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). The active list (♣—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; 2R—denotes second-year rookie; i—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured status; club still owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

AND IN CANADA? Three former Buffs are making livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his sixth year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats and TB Hugh Charles is in his second with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders. DE Gabe Nyenhuis is also with Saskatchewan, but is on the practice squad.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Several former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state. Here's the list of six who head prep programs: Dave Logan (Mullen), Mike Marquez (Northglenn), Bill Mondt (Eaton), Tom Tesone (Bishop Machebeuf), Ron Woolfork (Denver East) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 22 of 29 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

CLOCK RULE CHANGES

The third major change in how college football is timed did not have as big an effect in games involving CU in 2008 as they did in 2006, but the number of scrimmage and total plays remain down from 2007. While not large in number, scrimmage plays were 4.1 per game and total plays by both to 3.7, CU did run a no huddle offense last season as compared to other years. Thus, we'll chart again in 2009 with the Buffs returning to a regular tempo offense; note the big drop in plays, both overall (152) and from scrimmage (123), in the '09 opener versus CSU. The average game time was down 16 minutes between 2007 and 2008 (3:15 from 3:30), and is the second lowest in the seven years examined below. Here's a look at some regular season numbers over the last six seasons to compare; the NCAA rules committee started tinkering with the clock for the 2006 season and has changed them for each season since:

Season	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-09 Record	Dan Hawkins Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-49-2	8-17-1	1-1	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-85-3	14-30-2	1-3	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-106-3	20-39-2	1-7	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	68-137-3	42-56-2	2-11	20 / Bill McCartney

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the 12-year old league owns a 37-79 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own nine of those wins. CU is 9-12 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 8-6, Texas 7-6, Missouri 3-5, Oklahoma 3-5, Kansas State 2-5, Kansas 1-3, Baylor 1-5, Oklahoma State 1-6, Iowa State 1-8, Texas Tech 1-9 and Texas A&M 0-9. CU has played 20 of the 116 games, with Nebraska next with 14 followed by Texas (13).

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 46-8, Texas 44-10, Kansas State 42-10, Oklahoma State 37-12, Missouri 39-11, Kansas 36-12, Oklahoma 39-14, Texas Tech 40-15, Texas A&M 35-16, Iowa State 31-18, Baylor 26-18 and Colorado 28-25 (remember traditionally CU plays one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

BUFFALO ROUNDUP BECOMING TRADITION

The 2007 Colorado Buffaloes started two new traditions that caught on. First was upon the team's arrival at Folsom Field prior to home games, instead of the busses just pulling up and unloading the team at the Dal Ward Center, the team is dropped off at Libby Hall off of Colorado Avenue (approximately 2 hours and 20 minutes prior to kickoff). At that point, the Buffalo Roundup commences; the team walks over to the stadium through the plaza area between Folsom and the MCDB (biology) building, touching the bronze buffalo along the way and accompanied by the pep band. They then enter the stadium at Gate 1 and proceed to the lockerrooms to get dressed for the game. The initial Buffalo Round was prior to the Florida State game, and that same night the fans were asked to wear black for the national TV audience and it gave the stadium a unique look. It was so popular the West Virginia was selected to be 2008's blackout game.

THE VERTICAL GAME

Dan Hawkins noted that one thing missing from CU's offense his first season in 2006 that was prevalent of his past offenses at Boise State was the vertical passing game. "By the end of the season, we'd always be up in the 70s or 80s in the number of pass plays over 20 yards," he said. He was definitely on mark with his assessment. In 2006, CU had just 35 total, 18 rushing and 17 passing, the Buffs' fewest overall 20-yard plays since 2000 (38) as well as pass plays of 20 yards or more since 2002 (23, also the last time CU had a quarterback quit the team after the season began). Colorado did have 18 rushing plays of 20 yards or more, and while not an overly large number, it was its most since 2002 and higher than nine of the totals in the 13 season snapshot below. In 2007, CU had 58 plays of 20 yards or longer (66 percent more than in 2006, more than doubling the pass play count). But in 2008, the Buffs went the other direction, with just 34 plays of 20 yards or more through 11 games, reflective of the troubles CU has had on offense when it comes to consistency. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass
1994	76	37	39	1998	40	11	29	2002	58	35	23	2006	35	18	17
1995	61	11	50	1999	57	12	45	2003	47	5	42	2007	58	18	40
1996	64	12	52	2000	38	8	30	2004	48	13	35	2008	40	8	32
1997	46	9	37	2001	58	21	37	2005	54	16	38	2009	8	1	7

ZIMMER HONORED WITH CHRIS SCHENKEL AWARD

The longtime voice of the Buffaloes, Larry Zimmer, was honored during CU's season opener as this year's recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award. The Schenkel Award is named in honor of its first recipient, the long-time play-by-play man for ABC Sports, who's life-long commitment to excellence in broadcasting and longstanding association with The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame reflect the achievements and spirit the award embodies. It seeks to recognize a sports broadcaster who enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution, and to recognize broadcasters with direct ties to college and universities rather than strictly national broadcasters. Zimmer is the 15th recipient of the award, begun in 1996 when the inaugural one was presented to its namesake. "It is certainly the highlight of my career because it recognizes two of the things that I love the most, and that's broadcasting college football and my association with the University of Colorado through the years and all the people I've met," Zimmer said. The NFF's president and CEO Steve Hatchell, CU AD Mike Bohn, former Big 8 commissioner Chuck Neinas and Colorado governor Bill Ritter presented him with the honor at the first quarter break of the CSU game. The official national presentation will be at the NFF's annual dinner in December.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals.

According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process.

A major contributor to this initiative is Eco-Products, who supplies compostable food service items to the stadium. Made from plant starch materials, the cups, plates and cutlery turns back into soil in as little as 45-90 days in CU's composting facility. The Eco-Products' educational team is stationed at the trash, recycling and composting bins during CU games to bring awareness to the effort and help attendees properly dispose of their waste. Eco-Products is the nation's largest supplier of compostable items made from renewable resources.

ANOTHER CHANCE OR TWO VERSUS THE TOP FIVE IN '09?

Marking the 40th anniversary of CU's first win ever against a team classified as a top 5 opponent, there are five Big 12 teams in the nation's preseason top 25, three in the top 10, four on CU's regular season schedule as of now. The Buffs are 12-49-1 all-time versus the top five (0-10 vs. No. 1; 2-14 vs. No. 2; 6-11 vs. No. 3; 2-6-1 vs. No. 4; 2-8 vs. No. 5); though are 8-16 since 1989. When assigning those 12 wins (if a player was injured and his replacement led the team to the win, the replacement gets the credit), there's a three-way tie for the lead with two. The nine quarterbacks who have piloted CU to wins over top five programs (Associated Press poll):

2009 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).
- 1909 The 100th anniversary of CU's 6-0 team, the first of three in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. CU squeezes by the State Prep School and an Alumni squad, both by 3-0 scores, but follow those up with routs over Colorado A&M (57-0) and New Mexico (53-0) before closing with road wins over Colorado College (9-0) and Colorado Mines (16-0).
- 1924 (Oct. 11) The 85th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State.
- 1934 (Nov. 10) The 75th anniversary of CU's 7-6 win over Utah, snapping a nine-game losing streak at the time against its conference archrival. It's the first game that the school is known as the "Buffaloes" following a contest in the school newspaper to come up with a permanent nickname. In the 7-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day, the foundation for future Ralphie's is laid down when students rent a buffalo calf and more or less control it on the sidelines during the win.
- 1949 (Oct. 29) The 60th anniversary of the most wackiest game in CU history when it comes to weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.
- 1954 The 55th anniversary of one of the most prolific rushing offenses in Colorado history, the unit averaging 316 yards per game, ranking third in the nation. John Bayuk (824 yards), Frank Bernardi (668), Carroll Hardy (642), Homer Jenkins (446) and Emerson Wilson (419) combine to average 6.8 yards per carry and 31 touchdowns in CU's 7-2-1 season.
- 1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players and the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time. Bobby Anderson is moved from quarterback to tailback the third game of the season and goes on to earn All-America honors. On Oct. 25, the Buffs topple No. 5 Missouri, 31-24 in Boulder, the Tigers' lone conference loss of the year.
- 1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-4, but won nine of the last 10 by an average margin of 19 points.
- 1979 (Sept. 8) The 30th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.
- 1984 (Sept. 15) The 25th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver, despite CU's new two-tight offense being revealed by the Denver Post in one of those weak "public's right to know" defenses. CU is never the same after the injury and fights its way through a 1-10 season.
- 1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer. His replacement, Darian Hagan, leads the team to the first of three straight undefeated seasons in Big 8 conference play and finishes fifth for the Heisman Trophy. The season is defined with back-to-back wins at Oklahoma (20-3) and then over No. 3 Nebraska (27-21).
- 1994 The 15th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.
- 1999 The 10th anniversary of Gary Barnett returning to head the program where he spent nine seasons as an assistant (1983-91); along the way, CU defeats at least one ranked opponent for a 12th straight season, plays in and wins its first overtime game in its history (46-39 over Missouri) and a monster bowl win (62-36 over Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl) extends CU's bowl winning streak to a nation's best six games.
- 2004 (Oct. 16) Hard to believe it's been five years since Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60 yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State. And 10 years after "The Catch," Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh hook up for the exact same distance—64 yards—with five seconds left to give CU a 38-31 win over Kansas State. Colorado, 1-4 in league play entering November, rallies to win the Big 12 North Division.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes will begin their 120th season of competition having played 1,127 games with an all-time record of 663-428-36. CU currently stands 17th on the all-time win list and is 23rd in all-time winning percentage (.604; 21st for those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 289-142-10 in their 86th season on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 251-222-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

CU is 48-26 in its last 74 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history. Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are 49-29-2 in their last 80 October games, when conference play annually comes into full bloom. The Buffs are 51-25-1 in its last 77 November games (45-15 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-10-1 against NU in turkey month). CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls.

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-4 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Ten ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Oklahoma this season, as the Sooners rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback to the Buffs. That was the first time since 2002, when Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 12 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, Texas Tech, UCLA and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by LSU, Oklahoma and Texas (all 4) and Florida State, Kansas, Michigan State and Missouri (3 each).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 19 seasons, which is the 11th most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Ohio State (12), Oklahoma (10), Miami, Fla. (9), and Florida State, Nebraska and Texas (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2008 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 21 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of those occasions, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 17 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 21 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2009: Ohio State 21, Florida State 20, Michigan 19, Tennessee 19, Florida 18, Miami, Fla. 17, Nebraska 17, Oklahoma 17, Penn State 17, Texas 17, Notre Dame 15, Alabama 14, Auburn 14, Georgia 13, LSU 13, Virginia Tech 13, Colorado 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). The 143 consecutive polls still ranks as the seventh longest all-time in college football history. In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-'98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

17 OUT OF 21

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, behind only Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. CU snapped that streak with a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007, and with the 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008, it's now 17 out of 21 years defeating at least one ranked program. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). The Buffs have defeated at least two in nine of the last 15 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 160 of its last 235 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (68 percent), including the first two games this season and 10 games in 2008. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, and not including pay-per-view, 123 of CU's 162 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, which is an impressive 76 percent (the second most in the Big 12 Conference in this time frame). In addition, CU has had 29 of its last 35 non-conference games televised on a national or regional basis. ANNUAL TV APPEARANCES SINCE INCEPTION OF THE BIG 12 (123): 1996 (10), 1997 (10), 1998 (9), 1999 (9), 2000 (7), 2001 (10), 2002 (12), 2003 (7), 2004 (9), 2005 (10), 2006 (7), 2007 (11), 2008 (10), 2009 (2).

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. It's starting to get a bit better, but CU and UT still blaze the trail. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 28 (14-13-1), Texas 23 (8-13-2), Oklahoma 15 (7-8), Nebraska 14 (8-6), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 12 (0-12), Baylor 11 (2-9), Missouri 10 (2-8), Iowa State 9 (1-8), Oklahoma State 7 (1-6), Kansas 7 (0-7) and Kansas State 4 (1-3).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

18 OF 24

The Buffs have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 24 years (1985-2008), matched only by a handful of schools across the nation (6-6 records do not count). The exceptions came in 1997, 2000, 2003 and 2007; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 18 of these 24 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000, 2003, 2006 and 2008.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Will Anthony Wright be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. Last year, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's last two annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom didn't happen, the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the third most attending in 2009. CU has now had five occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. The national average worked to 12,996 in 2008 and 14,407 in 2009. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history

In Hawk's first two years, the spring game attracted 6,400 (2006, cloudy skies, temperature in the low 50s, very windy) and 5,800 last year (perfect weather, 60 degrees, clear skies, just a bit windy at times).

OPPONENTS IN 2009

Colorado's 2009 opponents combined for an 82-70 record in 2008 (53.9%), with two teams winning double figure games and three others all going 9-4. Two others were above .500 to give CU seven teams with winning records on its' 2009 slate. All seven of those schools went to bowl games, and they collectively posted a 6-1 record. CU will play four teams with new head coaches (Toledo, Wyoming, Kansas State, Iowa State). The Buffaloes will play two non-league games away from home (Toledo, West Virginia) for the first time since 1994 (Michigan, Texas), and will be playing two regular season games in the eastern time zone for the first time in their history.

OPPONENTS WERE CORRALLED

Colorado allowed just five plays from scrimmage of 40 yards or longer in 2006 (three pass, two rush); those were the fewest since the 1987 season, when the Buffs surrendered just four (two rush, two pass). In 2007, CU was doing as well, but with Missouri having three of that length and Iowa State one, CU wound up allowing 11. Over the past 20 years, CU has limited the foe to six three times (1991, 1994, 1995) and to seven seven times (last: 2005). The 12 allowed over the 2005 and 2006 tied the second fewest over a two-year span (11 over the 1987-88 seasons; 12 previously in the '94 and '95 campaigns). The seven allowed in '05 were reduced from 14 in 2003 and 15 in 2004, as opponents had piled up 70 plays of 40 yards or longer from 1999-2004 after allowing just 83 between 1987 and 1998. The three-year total from 2005-07 was thus just 23, the lowest for any three-year span since this stat can be tracked.

➤ 2008: CU allowed 11 plays over 40 yards, seven rushes but just four passes.

➤ 2009: CU has already allowed 8 plays over 40 yards, six passes and two rushes.

CU-CSU NINTH TOP FSN-ROCKY MOUNTAIN BROADCAST; SECOND HIGHEST RATED COLLEGE GAME ON NETWORK

FSN Rocky Mountain delivered the ninth-highest-rated live event in the network's history recording an 11.5 rating during Sunday's Colorado-Colorado State football game. It also is the second-highest-rated college football telecast on FSN Rocky Mountain, behind the 2008 CU-CSU game which registered a 12.3 rating. The high-rating for the annual in-state rivalry game comes less than two weeks after the network recorded its highest-rated Colorado Rockies telecast (9.7 on Aug. 25).

According to FSN's analysis of Nielsen Media Research data, Sunday's telecast generated an 11.5 rating/24 share in the Denver DMA with an average of nearly 175,000 households tuned in to the Rams 23-17 win over the Buffaloes. It was the highest-rated program through the duration of the game (5:00 p.m. — 8:45 p.m. MT) beating such programs as the 5:00 p.m. local affiliate newscasts on NBC, CBS and ABC, "60 Minutes" (6:00 p.m. — 7:00 p.m.) on CBS and "Spiderman 2" (6:30 p.m. — 9:00 p.m.) on KDVR (FOX 31). The game peaked at a 13.0 rating/24 share (More than 195,000 households) during the 8:15 p.m. — 8:30 p.m. quarter hour.

The CU-CSU PREGAME REPORT presented by Toyota recorded a 7.4 rating and the postgame report followed the game with a 3.2 rating. The pregame report rating is 54 percent higher than the 2008 CU-CSU PREGAME REPORT. The Colorado versus Colorado State football game now owns five spots on FSN Rocky Mountain's list of Top 10 highest-rated college football telecasts. USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those games it's lost over the last 20 seasons, as of the 90 losses, 42 have been by eight points or less. Nebraska and Texas (six times), Missouri (five), Kansas State and Oklahoma (four) and Kansas, Florida State and Oklahoma State (twice) are the only ones who have handled the Buffs by nine or more points more than twice since 1989. CU has really been dominated from the start only eight times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU, 2002 vs. USC, 2004 in the Big 12 title game with Oklahoma, twice in 2005, both against Texas, Missouri (2008) and Toledo this year. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04), Miami and Nebraska ('05) and Texas ('08) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

CLOSE CALLS USUALLY GOING CU'S WAY

Colorado was 3-2 in 2008 and is 17-11 dating back to the start of the 2003 season when the final margin has been seven or fewer points. These "close calls" include a 6-9 record in the Dan Hawkins Era. Starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, which helped propel Colorado to the Big 12 title, the Buffaloes are 21-13 in seven-point or less decisions.

GAME #1—COLORADO STATE 23, COLORADO 17SEPTEMBER 6 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Colorado State stunned Colorado for 20 first-half points and held on to defeat the Buffaloes 23-17 in just the second-ever Sunday night game at Folsom Field before a near-sellout crowd of 53,168 and a national television audience on FSN.

The Rams got things going from the opening gun, marching 80 yards to take a 7-0 lead on the game's first drive. CSU's Grant Stucker hit John Mosure on a 57-yard pass play to set up Mosure's one-yard run just over three minutes into the contest.

The Buffs had some glimpses of life in the first half but hit a wall when center Mike Itlis limped off the field. Cody Hawkins was then intercepted by Elijah-Blu Smith on a pass that caromed off of Scotty McKnight.

CSU converted the turnover into a 14-0 lead when Stucker found Mosure again, this time with a 14-yard scoring pass. The Rams converted on a pair of key third down plays on the drive, the second of which was the touchdown. CSU's big play mentality hit again when Stucker hooked up with Ryan Gardner for a 43-yard completion to the CU 4-yard line, setting up a Ben DeLine field goal to push the lead to 17-0 early in the second quarter.

The Buffs got on the scoreboard by getting a career-long 54-yard field goal from Aric Goodman to pull within 17-3. Ben Burney set up the score with an interception. CSU answered just before intermission by positioning DeLine for a 45-yard field with five seconds left that restored the Rams' 17-point lead at 20-3 at the break.

Hawkins opened the second half by completing a 44-yard bomb to Andre Simmons – his first CU catch – that set up the Buffs at the nine-yard line. From there, Brian Lockridge took a pitch right and went into the end zone untouched to cut the deficit to 20-10 less than two minutes into the second half.

Hawkins again found his passing touch on the next drive, moving the Buffs to the Rams' 18-yard line where McKnight caught a pass before an apparent helmet-to-helmet hit. Initially called down by contact, the play was overturned and ruled a fumble.

CU's defense kept the Buffs in the game. After a pair of three-and-outs, Jeff Smart came up with a critical interception but the Buffs weren't able to take advantage before CSU got a 45-yard pass from Stucker to Rashaun Greer down to the Buffs 4-yard line. The CU defense held at that point and CSU got its final points of the game, leading 23-10 with 8:58 to play.

The Buffs got the ball back with less than four minutes remaining. McKnight, suffering from a concussion, came back in the game to draw a big pass interference penalty before catching a 3-yard touchdown pass from Hawkins two plays later, pulling CU to within 23-17 with 1:57 left to play.

But the Buffs had burned all three timeouts and when CSU's Dion Morton recovered the on-sides kick at midfield, the Rams were able to run out the clock.

This was the final game on either school's campus for a decade, as the schools announced earlier in the week a 10-year contract to move the game back to Denver's Invesco Field beginning in 2010.

Playing from behind, the Buffs managed just 68 yards from their four-horsed running back stable. Hawkins finished 24-of-40 for 222 yards and one touchdown with his favorite target being Riar Geer, who had six receptions for 65 yards. The Buffs were just 3-of-14 on third down and were out-gained by CSU 376-to-251 in total offense. Stewart led the Buffs ground game, picking up 38 yards on six carries.

GAME NOTES

TB Darrell Scott rushed for 1 yard on CU's first play of the year, the 48th time in the last 60 years that the Buffaloes called a rushing play to open the season ... C Mike Itlis, seeing his first career action, left the game midway through the first quarter with an ankle injury; his replacement, Keenan Stevens, had not played since 2007, when he saw the only snaps of his career (10) vs. Miami-Ohio ... WR Scotty McKnight extended his streak to 25 straight regular season games with at least one reception; the record is 27 by Charles E. Johnson (1991-93; does not include bowls). He also had his 10th career TD reception, the 13th player in CU history to catch at least 10 ... TB Brian Lockridge's 9-yard TD run in the third quarter was his second career score; it was his first trip to the end zone since a 43-yard run against Miami-Ohio on Sept. 22, 2007 ... CSU outgained CU by 265-63 in the first half, but the Buffs came out and reversed the trend in the third quarter (111-26); CU outscored the Rams 7-0 in the period—last year, opponents jumped the Buffs for a 103-55 edge in the quarter ... CSU was 3-of-4 on third down in the first quarter, then went 0-of-10 the rest of the game (though it snuck in a fourth down conversion along the way) ... Colorado is 0-of-9 on onside kicks after trying one after its last score, last recovering one versus Nebraska on Nov. 26, 1999 ... This was CSU's first win in Boulder since dealing CU a 23-7 setback on the exact same date in the '86 opener ... The 12-yard pass from Cody Hawkins to Scotty McKnight on 4th-and-5 in the second quarter was CU's 12th consecutive conversion on fourth down dating back to the last five games of 2008; CU made its final 11 tries last year in finishing 18-of-25 for the season (the streak ended in the third quarter when Demetrius Sumler was stopped for no gain on a 4th-and-1).

GAME #2—TOLEDO 54, COLORADO 38SEPTEMBER 11 (GLASS BOWL, TOLEDO, OHIO)

TOLEDO, Ohio—Toledo started fast, which is what Colorado intended to do. But by the time the Buffaloes got untracked, their skirmish with the Rockets nearly was over. CU trailed 23-3 at halftime and 37-24 after three quarters before finally succumbing 54-38, dropping to 0-2 on the season in the process.

The long night — the game required 3:48 to complete — was a defensive coordinator's nightmare. The teams combined for 1,075 yards and 92 points (the most ever scored at Toledo's Glass Bowl) in front of 20,082.

Cody Hawkins was knocked woozy at the goal line while scoring the Buffs' final touchdown, a 12-yard run with 1:53 to play. He threw for 356 yards and four touchdowns, but was forced to throw a school record 64 passes (30 completions) and was intercepted three times.

Toledo quarterback Aaron Opelt accounted for 428 yards in total offense (319 passing, 109 rushing), and threw for four touchdowns and ran for two more. He directed the Rocket offense to 624 yards of total offense, 305 of it on the ground. The Rockets had two 100-yard rushers in Opelt (who topped the century mark on just eight carries) and Dajuane Collins (20-160).

Building a 30-3 lead early in the third quarter, the Rockets scored on five of their first six possessions, burning the Buffs deep in what looked like a little déjà vu of five days earlier against Colorado State at Folsom Field. Toledo drove 62 yards in six plays to take a 27-point lead before the Buffs finally answered a Toledo score. Hawkins engineered a six-play, 66-yard march, capped by a 4-yard toss to Scotty McKnight, making the score 30-10.

Opelt & Co. retaliated with a quick 77-yard march, Opelt hitting tight end Tom Burzine with a 23-yard scoring pass. The Buffs finally got a spurt, scoring twice in 20 seconds to pull within 37-24.

After Hawkins hit Jason Espinoza in the end zone to cap 13-play, 60-yard march, Travis Sandersfeld forced a fumble that Jimmy Smith recovered on the ensuing kickoff and then Hawkins hit tight end Riar Geer two plays later to pull CU with two scores. The quarter ended with Toledo facing a 3rd-and-6 from its own 39, and a CU stop might have completely swung momentum to the Buffalo sideline.

But Opelt found a gap on a quarterback sneak and raced 61 yards up the gut to put the Rockets back up by 20 on the first play of the fourth quarter, deflating CU's comeback attempt, and they still weren't satisfied. Collins' 23-yard run with 8:41 to play shot the Rockets ahead 51-24, and Alex Steigerwald added a 43-yard field for a 30 point (54-24) lead with just over 4 minutes remaining.

The Buffs scored twice in the final 2:56, with Hawkins finding Pat Devenny for an 18-yard score. After CU recovered the onside kick, Hawkins scored but was almost knocked out by an illegal hit. Toledo recovered the next onside attempt and ran the clock out.

CU's lone real bright spot in the opening half was Darrell Scott, who carried 12 times for 85 yards. He didn't have a second-half carry as the Buffs shifted to catch-up mode once again through the air. CU ran 18 times in the first half, just twice in the second, Hawkins' TD run and a run on a fake punt by Matt DiLallo. The other "attempts" included two sacks and a muffed center exchange. Aric Goodman accounted for the only score in the opening half, a 32-yard field goal early in the second quarter, though he would miss a 47-yard attempt wide right two series later.

Several records fell for the Buffs, including Scott's 204 yards on eight kickoff returns, breaking Josh Smith's record of 193 yards set just last November at Nebraska. Hawkins set or tied career highs in attempts, yardage, completions, touchdowns and interceptions. McKnight (11 receptions, 114 yards) and Espinoza (eight receptions, 109 yards) both hit the 100-yard receiving mark, becoming 12th pair to accomplish the feat at CU.

GAME NOTES

The official start time was 9:07 p.m.; it turned out to be the second latest kick in school history (9:09, 1991 Blockbuster Bowl); the end time of 12:55 a.m. was the latest ending by a single minute (12:54 a.m., '91 Blockbuster Bowl vs. Alabama) ... At 3:48, it tied for the fifth longest game in CU history (fourth regulation) ... Colorado is now 1-2 in regular season Friday night games played in its history; the other two occurred in 1964 (lost 21-0 at USC) and 1975 (won 23-10 at Miami-Fla.) ... It was just the third game CU ever played in the state of Ohio (1-2) ... CU is also now 7-20 all-time in games played in the Eastern Time Zone, now dropping seven straight; the last win was at Michigan in 1994 (yes, "The Catch") CU is now 5-3 on September 11 and 17-6-1 on the road at non-BCS schools since it joined the Big Seven (nee: Big 8, Big 12) for the 1948 season ... This was the second most points (38) that CU has scored in losing a game (to an 82-42 loss to Oklahoma on Oct. 4, 1980) ... McKnight caught a pass for the 26th straight game, one shy of the school record ... CU had been 0-for-9 on onside kick tries before Jeff Smart recovering one in the fourth quarter; the last successful attempt came against Nebraska in Boulder on Nov. 26, 1999 ... This was just CU's third loss (26-3) when its average field position is its own 40 or better since 1989 (CU 41).

DEPTH CHART

A note about CU's depth: in-season, depth charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries; also, the coaches often use "groupings" at certain positions (i.e. receiver-tight end-tailback-fullback), and often a group enters the game to run a play that does not match the depth.

OFFENSE

(Multiple)

Note: Only 10 positions listed on offense; at the WR position, players switch back-and-forth between the traditional X and Z positions, thus all are grouped together. List the top two in "starting" positions if need be.
