THREE MWC TEAMS RANKED IN TOP 25 POLLS

Three Mountain West teams are currently ranked in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' Top-25 polls. BYU is the MWC's highest-ranked team at No. 7 in the AP poll and ninth in the Coaches' poll. TCU is 15th in both polls, while Utah is No. 16 in the Coaches' and 18th in the AP. BYU has appeared in the polls for 23 weeks in a row, followed by Utah at 19 straight and TCU at 13 consecutive weeks. The MWC has had three teams ranked in the top 25 polls for 13 consecutive weeks.

BYU's No. 7 and No. 9 rankings in the polls mark the earliest entrance into the top 10 by an MWC team in league history. Prior to this year, the earliest an MWC team entered the top 10 in both polls was in Week 5 (Sept. 28) of the 2008 season when BYU was No. 7 in the Coaches' poll and No. 8 in the AP. The Cougars' No. 7 ranking in the AP poll is the program's highest AP ranking since finishing the 1996 season at No. 5.

The Mountain West has three teams ranked in the top 20 of both polls. Only the Big 12 and SEC, with four apiece, have more teams in the top 20 of both polls than the MWC.

UTAH HOLDS NATION'S LONGEST ACTIVE WIN STREAK

No. 18/16 Utah defeated San Jose State last week 24-14 and extended the nation's longest active win streak to 16 games. Dating back to the 2007 Poinsettia Bowl victory over Navy, the Utes have won 16 consecutive games, and 23 of their last 24 contests.

TCU DEFENSE STARTING WHERE IT LEFT OFF

In 2008, the TCU defense led the nation in fewest yards allowed per game (217.8) and ranked second in sacks with 43. In the season opener at Virginia, the Horned Frogs didn't allowed the Cavaliers into the red zone and held them to 177 yards of total offense, 82 of which came in the final 4:39 of the game. TCU also collected eight sacks in the game, with eight different players credited for at least one-half sack. The eight sacks in a single game are currently the most by a team in the NCAA this season.

SACK STREAKS

Three Mountain West teams are currently riding consecutive game streaks with at least one sack entering the third week of the 2009 season. TCU has recorded at least one sack in each of the last 25 games, including eight at Virginia last week. Air Force extended its consecutive games with a sack streak to 10 with one at Minnesota, while New Mexico is at seven in a row after posting four sacks against Tulsa.

INTERCEPTION STREAKS

Four Mountain West teams are currently riding consecutive games streaks with at least one interception. Utah has recorded at least one interception in six straight games, while San Diego State's streak is at four. Colorado State and Wyoming have each picked off at least one pass in each of the last three contests.

UNDER 20

TCU has limited nine consecutive opponents, and 14 of the last 15 overall, to less than 20 points. The current nine-game streak is the longest in the country (Cal, Iowa, South Florida and Tennessee all tied for second with 5).

THE MWC IN WEEK 2

- Mountain West Conference defenses totaled 27 sacks on the weekend, an average of 3.0 per team.

THREE NEW HEAD COACHES JOIN MWC RANKS IN 2009

The Mountain West has three new head football coaches in 2009, including two who will be taking charge of a program for the first time in their coaching careers. New Mexico will be under the direction of first-year head coach Mike Locksley, who recently completed a four-year stint as the offensive coordinator at Illinois. Locksley, a 17-year veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks, spent two years as an assistant at Florida and six as an assistant at Maryland prior to joining the Illini program. Brady Hoke, who was at Ball State for six years, took over at San Diego State after guiding the Cardinals to their best campaigns in program history, collecting a school-record 12 wins and completing an undefeated Mid-American Conference schedule with an 8-0 mark in 2008. Prior to taking the reins at Ball State, Hoke spent eight years as an assistant at Michigan and six years as an assistant at Oregon State. Wyoming will also be under the guidance of a first-year head coach as Dave Christensen took control of the Cowboy program. Christensen has served as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Missouri since 2001, following a nine-year stint as an assistant at Toledo.

DID YOU KNOW...

Only four of the nine MWC institutions have won the Conference football title. BYU, Colorado State and Utah shared the 1999 crown. BYU won the 2001, 2006 and 2007 titles, while Colorado State won championships in 2000 and 2002. Utah claimed its own crowns in 2003, 2004 and 2008, while TCU captured the league's top spot in 2005. The league champion has been undefeated in MWC play on six occasions, including each of the last five years.

TCU PICKED TO WIN 2009 MWC TITLE

TCU was predicted to capture the 2009 Mountain West Conference football title in a poll of media members. The Horned Frogs finished second in the MWC in 2008, compiling a 7-1 mark against league opponents en route to an 11-2 overall record and a seventh-place ranking in both the final Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls. TCU returns four starters from a defensive unit that led the nation in rushing defense while ranking second in scoring defense in 2008. The Horned Frogs are led by all-MWC performers Jerry Hughes (DE), Jeremy Kerley (PR/KR), Rafael Priest (DB) and Marshall Newhouse (OT). Seven starters return on offense for TCU, which ranked among the top 25 nationally in scoring and rushing offense a year ago. The Frogs garnered 15 first-place votes and had a total of 207 points.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

- 0 SDSU has not allowed a sack in each of the team's first two games of 2009 and in each of the last five outings overall. The Aztecs are one of six teams in the country that has not allowed a sack this season (Louisville, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Temple, West Virginia).
- 0 BYU freshman punter Riley Stephenson did not punt in Saturday's game at Tulane, marking the first time a BYU punter has not taken the field since a 56-34 win over Colorado State on Nov. 1, 2001.
- 1 Brady Hoke became the first San Diego State head coach to win his first home game since Ted Tollner in 1994.
- 1 Wyoming freshman DB Ghaali Muhammad scored a touchdown on a blocked punt by fellow frosh DB Luke Ruff last week against Texas. Muhammad's touchdown marked the Cowboys' first blocked punt returned for points since Sept. 4, 2004 vs. Appalachian State. Ruff's blocked punt also marks the second for the Pokes in as many contests.
- 2 Air Force senior DL Ben Garland recorded his second QB sack of the season at Minnesota. He currently has nine career sacks, including at least one in each of the last four games.
- 3 Only three teams chosen by the league media in the preseason have gone on to win the Conference title (BYU-1999, CSU-2002, Utah-2004).
- 3 San Diego State WR Vincent Brown recorded his third straight 100-plus yard receiving game with a six-catch, 142-yard performance against Southern Utah. He posted 139 yards last week against UCLA and 119 yards vs. UNLV in the 2008 season finale.
- 3 BYU QB Max Hall has passed for 300 yards in three straight games, dating back to the Dec. 12, 2008 loss vs. Arizona. The MWC record for most consecutive 300-yard passing games is four, set by BYU's John Beck from Nov. 9, 2006 to Dec. 22, 2006.
- 3 Aztec LB Luke Laolagi has an interception in each of his last three outings, including the 2008 finale with UNLV.
- 4 San Diego State had four sacks in the win over Southern Utah. The Aztecs had three sacks last week vs. UCLA, giving them seven on the season. A year ago, SDSU recorded only 13 sacks in 12 outings.
- 4 The BYU defense has held its opponents scoreless in four of eight quarters played in 2009. BYU didn't allow Tulane to score a point in the first, third or fourth quarters of its game last Saturday, and also held Oklahoma scoreless during the third quarter of the season opener in Arlington, Texas. BYU has only allowed one touchdown in 2009, which came in the first quarter of last week's contest against the Sooners.
- 5 San Diego State recorded its third, fourth and fifth interceptions of 2009 in the game against Southern Utah. The Aztecs only had nine interceptions in all of 2008, including a season-high three vs. Idaho.
- 5 San Diego State registered its first safety in five years in the first quarter against Southern Utah. The Aztecs' last safety came against New Mexico on Oct. 23, 2004 (a 19-9 SDSU loss).
- 5 Colorado State has won five games in a row for the first time since a six-game streak from Oct. 12-Nov. 23, 2002.
- 6 New Mexico has lost six straight games, the longest drought since a six-game slide in 1998-99. The Lobos have also dropped five in a row on the road.
- 6 In Steve Fairchild's tenure, Colorado State holds a perfect 6-0 record when leading after three quarters.
- 6 Entering this week's game at Oregon, Utah is 6-2 against the Pac-10 with wins over California (2003), then-No. 19 Oregon (2003), Arizona (2004 and 2005), then-No. 11 UCLA (2007) and Oregon State (2008). Head coach Kyle Whittingham is 3-2 against the Pac-10 at the helm of the Utes.
- 8 Eight of the nine head coaches in the Mountain West Conference are in their first head coaching job at the Football Bowl Subdivision level. San Diego State's Brady Hoke is the only one of the nine to have previously served as the head coach at an FBS institution (Ball State).
- 11 UNLV's Omar Clayton has passed for a least one touchdown in 11 consecutive games, dating back to August 30, 2008.
- 17 TCU is 53-1 under head coach Gary Patterson when allowing 17 points or less.
- 17 Since the BCS was formed in 1998, Utah has more wins against automatic-qualifying BCS institutions (17) than any other team from a non-automatic qualifying conference. TCU and Navy are next with 16 apiece, followed by BYU (15) and Fresno State (14).
- 50 Wyoming threw the ball 50 times against Texas, which is the most since the Pokes attempted 50 passes in a double-overtime loss to Syracuse on Sept. 30, 2006.
- 74 Gary Patterson notched his 74th career victory as TCU's head coach, tying him with Abe Martin (74-64-7, 1953-66) for second place on the Frogs' all-time chart. Patterson is 74-27 in his ninth season. Dutch Meyer ranks first at TCU in victories with a mark of 109-79-13 (1934-52).
- 92 New Mexico senior LB Tray Hardaway returned a fumble 92 yards for a TD in the fourth quarter against Tulsa. The last Lobo to return a fumble for a score was DE Jaymar Latchison (28 yards) against San Diego State on Oct. 8, 2008.
- 105 Colorado State held Colorado to 29 total rushing yards. It was the first time in 105 games the Rams have held an opponent to 29 yards or less rushing yards (Oct. 28, 2000, at San Diego State-26).
- 111 Aztec junior RB Brandon Sullivan logged a career-high 111 yards rushing on a career-high 24 carries vs. Southern Utah. Sullivan's previous highs were 70 yards against UNLV in 2007 and 15 carries against Cal Poly in 2008. It is the first 100-yard rushing game of his career and first for an Aztec since Atiyah Henderson had 177 yards vs. CSU in 2008.

GAME NOTES

Utah's 24-14 win over San Jose State gives the Utes 16 consecutive victories, tying for second-longest win streak in school history. The Utes won 18 games from Nov. 1, 2003 to Sept. 10, 2005. Utah racked up 499 total yards vs. SJSU, led by QB Terrance Cain's second straight 200-yard passing game (248 total yards). The Utes earned 499+ yards only twice last season, vs. San Diego State (11/15/08) and Colorado State (10/18/08). Oregon revenged its season-opening loss with a 38-36 win over Purdue to give head coach Chip Kelly his first career victory. The Ducks earned 356 total yards, compared to just 152 yards of offense in its first game vs. Boise State this season.

THE SERIES - Oregon leads, 17-8.

Half of Utah's wins vs. Oregon have come in Eugene, where the Utes have a 4-9 record. The Ducks have won three of the last four contests, with the last meeting resulting in a 17-13 Utah win on Oct. 3, 2003, in Salt Lake City. Utah is 51-89-3 all-time vs. the Pac-10, but 8-7 since joining the MWC in 1999.

Albuquerque, N.M.
5:30 p.m. MT - CBS C HD

Tom Hart (PBP), Aaron Taylor (analyst)

GAME NOTES

Air Force and New Mexico are both coming off losses to Minnesota and Tulsa, respectively. The Falcons were leading after three quarters but allowed 17 straight Minnesota points in the fourth at the opening of the new TCF Bank Stadium. Sophomore QB Tim Jefferson threw the first touchdown in the new stadium's history, connecting on a 37-yard pass to Kevin Fogler. Jefferson completed 10 passes for 125 yards, while Asher Clark rushed for 90 yards in the loss. Senior LB Tray Hardaway scored the Lobos' only touchdown, a 92-yard scoring run after recovering a Tulsa fumble. New Mexico amassed only 171 yards of total offense in the 44-10 loss.

THE SERIES - Air Force leads 16-10.

The series is tied 7-7 in Albuquerque, with the Lobos winning the last contest in New Mexico, 34-31, in 2007. The three-point contest was the smallest margin of victory since three consecutive games were decided by three points or less in 1991 (UNM, 34-32), 1992 (AFA, 33-32) and 1995 (AFA, 27-24). Last season, Air Force earned a 23-10 home win to become bowl eligible. The Falcons have won four of the last five meetings.

2009 MOUNTAIN WEST BOWLS

MWC BOWL SYNOPSIS

The Mountain West Conference has agreements to send five teams to bowl games in 2009. Since 1999, the MWC has posted a 21-15 bowl record and has twice captured the Bowl Challenge Cup. Since the league's inception, eight of the nine MWC members have participated in and won a bowl game. Entering the 2009 season, Utah owns the nation's longest active bowl win streak with eight consecutive victories.

Unless an MWC team qualifies for a BCS bowl game, the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas has the first selection of MWC teams, followed by the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettita Bowl with the second selection. The Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl and New Mexico Bowls have the third and fourth selections, respectively, but in no particular order. The Roady's Humanitarian Bowl will selected fifth.

2009-10 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

ABOUT THE BCS

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game arrangement for postseason college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other games. The bowl games participating in the BCS are the Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl. In addition, the BCS National Championship Game will be played at one of the four bowl sites.

BCS STANDINGS

Since the 2000 regular season, the BCS Standings have been compiled by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. The Standings include three components: USA Today Coaches Poll, Harris Interactive College Football Poll and an average of six computer rankings. Each component will count one-third toward a team's overall BCS score. All three components shall be added together and averaged for a team's ranking in the BCS Standings. The team with the highest average shall rank first in the BCS Standings.

MWC AND THE BCS

The champion of the Mountain West Conference (along with champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference, the Sun Belt Conference or the Western Athletic Conference) will earn an automatic berth in a BCS bowl game if either:

- A. Such team is ranked in the top 12 of the final BCS Standings, or,
- B. Such team is ranked in the top 16 of the final BCS Standings and its ranking in the final BCS Standings is higher than that of a champion of a conference that has an annual automatic berth in one of the BCS bowls.

No more than one such team from a non-automatic-qualifying conference shall earn an automatic berth in any year. If two or more teams from those conferences satisfy the provisions for an automatic berth, then the team with the highest finish in the final BCS Standings will receive the automatic berth, and the remaining team or teams will be considered for at-large selection if it meets the criteria.

If there are fewer than 10 automatic qualifiers, then the bowls will select at-large participants to fill the remaining berths. An at-large team is any Football Bowl

Subdivision team that is bowl-eligible and meets the following requirements:

- A. Has won at least nine regular-season games, and
- B. Is among the top 14 teams in the final BCS Standings.

No more than two teams from a conference may be selected, regardless of whether they are automatic qualifiers or at-large selections, unless two non-champions from the same conference are ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the final BCS Standings.

STANDARDS FOR FUTURE BCS AUTOMATIC QUALIFICATION

The champions of the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences will have annual automatic qualification for a BCS game through the 2013 regular season, based on mathematical standards of performance during the 2004-2007 regular seasons.

The 2008-2011 regular seasons will be evaluated under the same standards to determine if other conferences will have annual automatic qualification for the games after the 2012 and 2013 regular seasons. The champions of no more than seven conferences will have annual automatic berths.

If the BCS continues under the same or similar format, conferences will be evaluated on their performances during the 2010-2013 regular seasons to determine which conferences will have automatic qualification for the bowls that will conclude the 2014-2017 regular seasons.

The evaluation data includes the following for each conference (1) the ranking of the highest-ranked team in the final BCS standings each year, (2) the final regular-season rankings of all conference teams in the computer rankings used by the BCS each year and (3) the number of teams in the top 25 of the final BCS standings each year. Conference agreements with bowls will continue. The Pac-10 and Big Ten champions will host the Rose Bowl if their teams are not in the BCS national championship game. Likewise, the Southeastern Conference champion will host the Sugar Bowl, ACC champion will host the Orange Bowl and Big 12 champion will host the Fiesta Bowl.
