COLORADO BASKETBALL HISTORY

Colorado native Tad Boyle made the most of his "dream job" in his first year on the University of Colorado campus guiding the Buffaloes to a school-record 24 victories in 2010-11. In addition to setting the standard of the most successful season ever by a CU head coach, Boyle capped the season with a trip to the World's Most Famous Arena - Madison Square Garden, and a National Invitation Tournament semifinal appearance.

Named the 18th head coach in CU men's basketball history (on April 19, 2010), Boyle, 48, also etched his name among the school's great coaches becoming first head coach in 20 years to win his coaching debut; becoming the first CU coach since H.B. Lee (1950-51) to win his first two conference games in his first year, in addition to becoming the first Buff head coach since Henry Iba (1933-34) to win his first three conference games.

Boyle, 48, joined the Colorado staff from the University of Northern Colorado, where he led the Bears to a 56-66 record (.459 winning percentage) over the previous four seasons. The 2009-10 season was a breakout season for Boyle's Bears as they finished second in the Big Sky Conference with a 25-8 record (.758 winning percentage) and Boyle was named as the NABC Division I All-District Coach of the Year along with the Big Sky Coach of the Year. Boyle brings 15 years of coaching experience to Boulder.

"This is it (my dream job), there's no doubt," Boyle said. "I remember talking with (former Texas A&M head coach) Mark Turgeon once when he asked me where I wanted to be in 10 years, and I said the head coach at the University of Colorado. This is a destination job. I'm humbled and honored."

From 2007-10 the program was led by Jeff Bzdelik, who came from the United States Air Force Academy, led the Buffaloes to a 36-58 (.383) record. His best season was his last in Boulder, a 15-16 mark and 6-10 in the Big 12 in 2009-10. Over his three seasons with the Buffs, Bzdelik experienced a series of near-misses, losing 27 single-digit games, 18 of those in the Big 12. The 27 losses were an average of 4.6 points.

Entering the 2011-2012 season, the Buffalo program boasts a winning record of 1,152-1,102

(.511) in 110 years of existence and 108 of actual playing (1942-44 not played due to WWII).

A program first known as the Silver and Gold, won its first game back on Jan. 10, 1902 defeating State Prep School, 34-10. That game marked the beginning of what was to become an outstanding tradition of basketball at CU.

Although there have been many changes over the years from that first victory, the Silver and Gold became known as the Buffaloes in 1934, after CU students rented a buffalo calf for the final football game that year. Colorado has been a member of five conferences, joining the Rocky Mountain Conference in 1909, and then the Mountain States in 1937. The Buffs became a member of the Big Seven Conference in 1947, which became the Big Eight in 1958, and now are a member of the Big 12 Conference as teams from the Big Eight and Southwest Conferences merged in the 1996-97 season.

Another major change in Colorado basketball came in 1979, when the team moved into the Colorado Events/Conference Center with its spacious seating capacity of 11,076 (entering the 2010-11 season, capacity is 11,043 and called the Coors Events Center). The facility was renamed the Coors Events/Conference Center in 1990, in honor of a donation made by Coors to the campus. Many names and faces have helped make Colorado basketball special. There have been those, however, whose contributions stand out.

A total of 18 coaches have guided the Buffs to victory, but none more so than past leaders

Forrest B. "Frosty" Cox, H.B. Lee, Russell "Sox" Walseth, and Ricardo Patton. The first coach to make a solid presence on the coaching sideline was Cox, who spent 13 years roaming the Balch Fieldhouse from 1936-50. Cox collected a 147- 89 (.623) record with his 1937-38 team reaching the championship game of the National Invitation Tournament before falling to Temple. While at the helm, Cox's teams won four Mountain States Conference (MSC) titles and he concluded his CU career with the best won-lost percentage (.623) of any CU coach of more than one season.

Some of CU basketball's finest moments were orchestrated by Lee from 1951-56. Lee took control of the CU squad in 1950, and in four short seasons he guided the Buffs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in eight years (1953-54). During that season, the Buffaloes established themselves as a contender defeating NCAA runner-up Kansas on Feb. 2 (70-62).

The following year (1954-55), CU performed a feat not familiar in present day basketball, sweeping the Jayhawks in the season series, a feat only accomplished four other times (1948-49, 1958-59, 1961-62, 1962-63). Colorado made its only trip to the Final Four falling to San Francisco in the semifinals, however redeeming themselves in the third place game, defeating Iowa. That season saw Lee's squad win a then-school-best 19 games and secure a pair of Big 7 titles (one shared). From 1957-76, basketball was under the direction of Walseth. His 261 wins are the most by any coach in school basketball history. Walseth led the Buffs to back-to-back Big Eight Conference titles in 1961-62 and 1962-63, and both teams reached the NCAA second round before being eliminated by Cincinnati.

Walseth also engineered six Big 8 placings were his teams finished third or better in the conference, including three first place tallies (one shared). During the 1968-69 season, Walseth's team won a then-school best 21 games and during his tenure won 14 or more games in a season, 11 times. His teams also had 13 winning seasons. Today, CU now plays on the "Sox Walseth Floor" in the Coors Events Center, a tribute to Walseth's success as a Buff.

Coaches are not solely responsible for the success of each season, and the Buffs have had a wealth of outstanding talent on the hardwood in its proud past. Outstanding Buff performers range from Jack Harvey, CU's first All-American; to Burdette Haldorson, who led CU to consecutive Big Seven titles in 1953-54 and 1954-55; Cliff Meely; Scott Wedman; Jay Humphries to Chauncey Billups, CU's highest NBA Draftee (drafted third overall in the first round of the 1997 NBA Draft by the Boston Celtics).

The "Big Burd," as Haldorson was called, won the league scoring race in both championship seasons, netting 21.3 and 23.9 points per game, respectively. After Colorado finished third in the 1955 NCAA Tournament, Haldorson was selected to the AAU All-America team. His 13.8 rebounds per game that year is still a CU single season record. He also owns the record for most rebounds in a game, pulling down 31 in a 1952 effort against Oklahoma.

Meely became another familiar name to CU fans and opponents from 1968 to 1971. The sensational center-forward is CU's second all-time rebounder (971 boards, 12.1 avg.). In addition, Meely held a number of Big Eight scoring marks when his collegiate career ended in 1971. He was named an All-American for his performance during his senior campaign in which he pumped in an average of 28.0 points and hauled in 11.9 rebounds per game. A seven-point, 25-rebound outing against Oklahoma was one highlight of that milestone season. That 1971 season capped a highly successful college career for Meely, as he led the Buffs to the conference title in 1968-69.

The next Buff to make an impact was Wedman, a sharp-shooting forward from 1971-74. Wedman came to CU from Denver's Mullen High School and led the team in scoring and rebounding for two years, field goal percentage three years, and free throw percentage one year. Before leaving Colorado, Wedman was firmly established in the school record books.

His numbers placed him seventh in career scoring, sixth in rebounding, and he was the eighth leading field goal shooter in CU history at that time. After enjoying a successful 12-year stint in the NBA, Wedman concluded his professional career in 1987 with the Boston Celtics.

Arguably the best and most exciting Buff of the 1980s was guard Jay Humphries from 1981-84. While running the offense, Humphries became the school's all-time assist leader (562) and finished fourth in scoring (1,306 points, 11.7 avg.). His specialty, however, was defensive play. He finished as the Buffs' all-time leader in steals with 309 for a 2.8 average per game, and led the nation in hefts during the 1982-83 campaign with 115.

BUFF BITS

Colorado is just one of just 12 schools to have ever qualified for the NCAA Tournament and the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in the same year, as the Buffaloes made dual appearances in 1940, becoming the first school to ever do that. That year, CU won the NIT and finished fourth in the NCAA West Region. The other schools that have matches this feat are: Arizona (1951), Bradley (1950), Brigham Young (1951), City College of New York (which won both tournaments in 1950), Dayton (1952), Duquesne (1952), Kentucky (1949), North Carolina State (1951), St. John's (1951 and 1952), St. Louis University (1952), and Utah (1944).

CU closed out the 1980s and began a new decade of Buffalo basketball with two greats, Shaun Vandiver and Stevie Wise. Both Vandiver and Wise were instrumental in the school's run through the 1991 National Invitation Tournament, CU's first post-season appearance since making the NCAA Tourney in 1969. And before it was over, the Buffaloes had played to a standing room only crowd in the Coors Events Center, cut down the nets there after defeating Arkansas State to advance to the NIT's Final Four in New York City, and eventually finished third in the tournament.

Vandiver, a 6-10 center, a transfer to CU in 1988 after leading Hutchinson CC to the junior college national championship, worked his way up the Buff charts with an excellent shooting touch and a desire to hit the boards. He finished his three-year career in Boulder as the Buffs' all-time leader in field goal percentage (.574, 750-of-1307), as well as their No. 2 all-time scorer (1,876 points) and rebounder (962 boards). He currently stands third on the field goal percentage and rebounding list, and fifth in scoring.

Wise too, left his mark in the CU record books. Coming to Boulder as a guard in 1987, he managed to suit up for 119 games in a Colorado uniform, the fifth-most. Like Vandiver, he too loved to shoot, and is one of the Buffs' all-time three-point specialists, holding several of CU's three-point shooting marks. Wise also finished his career as the No. 3 scorer (1,727 points) and sits in sixth today. Wise still ranks among the top nine in career minutes (4th), steals (t-4th) and assists (7th).

Donnie Boyce marked the onset of the 1990s, as the Maywood, Ill., product took CU and the Big Eight by storm. After four incredible seasons in Boulder, Boyce walked away as the then-all-time leading scorer (1,995 points) in school history and led the Buffs to an NIT bid at the end of his senior season, 1994-95. He became the first Buff (and second overall) to lead the team in scoring all four years. His 1,995 career points is now third overall.

Boyce, however, never enjoyed postseason play, as he suffered a broken leg that ended his collegiate career during CU's game with Oklahoma in the opening round of the 1995 Big Eight Tournament. Nonetheless, Boyce was drafted by the Atlanta Hawks with the 42nd pick in the second round of the 1995 NBA Draft. With numerous school records in tow, Boyce is remembered as one of the best players in CU history.

Billups continued CU's tradition of great players as he made his mark early in his career. In only his fourth game as a freshman, Billups posted the first triple-double in CU history. His 24-point, 11-assist, 11-rebound game against George Mason was a harbinger of great things to come for the 6-3 product from George Washington High School in Denver.

As a sophomore, Billups would lead Colorado to its first NCAA appearance (1996-97) in 28 years and earn many postseason accolades, including first-team All-Big 12 honors and first-team All-America kudos from Basketball Weekly. In two years, Billups scored over 1,000 points, becoming the 20th player in CU history to accomplish that feat.

The next great point-guard, Jaquay Walls, guided CU toward back-to-back 18 win seasons, both of which brought NIT invitations. A college transfer who made his impact immediately, Walls was named honorable mention All-Big 12 and to the All-Newcomer team in his junior season. As a senior, he was twice named Big 12 Player of the Week and had a 42-point performance against Iowa State, which became the Big 12 season high, all-time conference record, as well as the top scoring performance by a Buff at the Coors Events Center. His 15 overtime points in that game was also an NCAA record. That spring, he was selected by the Indiana Pacers in the NBA Draft.

David Harrison

Continuing the powerful scoring tradition, Jamahl Mosley ended a four-year CU career as the 13th highest scorer ever for the Buffs finishing with 1,171 points (21st today). He brought many accolades to himself and the Colorado program including Academic All-Big 12 as a freshman, All-Big 12 and named to the AP's All-Improved team as a junior, and as a senior, received numerous accolades as the Buffs' veteran leader. CU saw another dominant player emerge on the Boulder campus.

Seven-footer David Harrison made his presence felt during the 2001-02 season being named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team and leading the Buffaloes in scoring (13.9 ppg.). The only other players in CU history to stand over seven feet are Frank Wilcox (1955-56) and current sophomore Ben Mills. Harrison also rewrote the CU record book in field goal percentage finishing the season with a stellar 63.8 percentage from the field and third nationally, in addition to making his name synonymous with the CU blocked shot record lists.

With a school-record 106 swats during the 2002-03 season and shattering the previous mark of 73, Harrison became the first player in school history and in the Big 12 Conference to record a pair of triple-doubles (31 points, 17 rebounds, 10 blocked shots against Stetson; and 20 points, 11 blocks, 10 rebounds versus Nebraska).

Also during this span, Stephane Pelle emerged as another dominant player in CU basketball. Pelle, a four-year standout, was the first CU player in 11 years to average a double-double during the 2001-02 campaign. Averaging 12.8 points and 10.8 rebounds per game, Pelle was named to the Big 12 All-Underrated team.

His season double in points and rebounds remains the only double-double spanning nearly 10 years (entering the 2011-12 season).

In 2002-03, CU enjoyed one its finest seasons to date, capping it with a NCAA Tournament berth for the first time since 1996-97. With 20 victories on the season, another feat only accomplished twice before by Patton in 1996-97 (22-10) and Sox Walseth in 1968-69 (21-7), the Buffaloes also upset four nationally ranked teams — all at home for the first-time ever.

Individually, the Buffaloes received four All-Big 12 honors with Michel Morandais (second team) along with Pelle earning conference third-team. Morandais and Harrison also were named to the Big 12's specialty teams as two of the conference's most-improved players. Pelle capped his four-year career with 1,367 points and 1,054 rebounds becoming the first CU men's basketball player to secure both 1,000 plateaus. He also became CU's all-time rebounding leader and seventh overall scorer (today he's 10th).

During the 2003-04 campaign, CU won 18 games for the fifth time under Patton and earning its third NIT berth in eight years. More impressively, the Buffaloes won 10 conference games, the most since recording 11 back in 1996-97 and earning the number four seed at the Big 12 Tournament in Dallas. Harrison also broke the school record for blocks in a career (225) and would on go to rewrite the blocked shot record book despite playing only three years and opting for the 2004 NBA Draft (29th overall, first round, Indiana Pacers).

Other outstanding performances came from Blair Wilson breaking the CU career record for 3-pointers made (257). Earlier in the season, Wilson played "in the zone" draining six treys against Iowa State. In that game, Wilson set or tied four school records against the Cyclones making his first six 3-pointers without a miss (CU Record); tying a half record (6), tying for 3s made in a conference half, and tying consecutive 3-pointers made.

Morandais became the 21st player in CU history to score over 1,000 points in his career. He finished seventh overall with 1,428 (today he's ninth). Wilson reached the 1,000-point plateau and finished with 1,253 points (17th today). Harrison rounded out the 1,000-point scorers finishing with 1,317 and is now 13th entering the 2011-12 season.

USA Today/Coaches Poll

Jan. 30-Feb. 5, 2006 No. 25

Feb. 6-12, 2006 No. 25

A near upset at the Big 12 Tournament highlighted a not-so popular 14-16 record in 2004-05. After upsetting No. 6 seed Texas, 81-69 in the first round of the conference tournament, the No. 11 seed Buffaloes became the first school in the nine-year history of the Big 12 to pull off the improbable upset. CU again played beyond its expectations narrowly upsetting eventual conference champion Oklahoma State, 87-85 in the quarterfinals.

The Buffaloes also saw the arrival of freshman Richard Roby in 2004-05 as he would become the first freshman since Billups (1995-96) to lead CU in scoring with 16 points per game and net over double-digits 26 times in 30 games. He also recorded a pair of Phillips 66/Big 12 Rookie of the Week honors and became only the fourth CU player ever to make seven 3-pointers in a game, twice.

The 2005-06 Buffaloes won 20 games for the 11th time in their history en route to the National Invitational Tournament, with 14 of those coming at the Events Center tying the 2002-03 season for most-ever. The Buffs also re-wrote the school's 3-point record for made (240) and attempts (701), and Roby became the first CU player since 2003-04 and only the fourth player since 1996-97 to be named All-Big 12 first team. CU also reached the national stage by being ranked in back-to-back ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Polls, a school first since the 1996-97 campaign.

The 2006-07 season would not be one of its best seasons to reflect on, a 7-20 record and a 3-13 mark in the Big 12, school lows since the 1993-94 campaign. Entering his final year of his contract, coach Patton closed out his 11th full year of coaching with a school-record eight freshmen, the most on a team at one time, since 1993-94. However, it did see some positive headlines on the court.

Roby led the team in scoring for the third-straight year (17.3 ppg.), while senior guard Dominique Coleman became the first guard since Donnie Boyce in 1994-95 to lead CU in rebounding. Coleman grabbed 185 boards and averaged 6.9 caroms a game. One of the team highlights was the upset victory over No. 12/14 Oklahoma State. It marked the fifth straight season a CU team defeated a nationally ranked opponent at home.

In 2007-08, Richard Roby set the school scoring record becoming the first male player to eclipse the 2,000-point barrier netting 2,001 points. He would go on to set numerous school records over his outstanding four-year career. The Buffaloes became the first team in Big 12 history as the No. 12 seed in its post-season tournament to beat a No. 5 seed (Baylor).

Roby also became the second Buff in its history to lead the team in scoring all four years (Boyce was the other).

During the 2008-09, CU saw sophomore guard Cory Higgins become one of only 13 players nationally to lead or finish second on his team in five major statistical categories (points, rebounds, assists, steals, blocked shots). He also ranked nationally in a trio of categories (steals, FT%, scoring).

In 2009-10, the Buffs provided a duel offensive punch with Higgins and super freshman Alec Burks. Higgins, garnered his second straight All-Big 12 third team honor, while Burks performed a CU first in the Buffs Big 12 history becoming the first Boulder athlete to earn conference freshman of the year honors.

Higgins and Burks each scored 587 and 512 points, respectively becoming the first tandem to net over 500 points in the same season since the 1990-91 campaign. Burks would also lead the team in rebounding, only the second freshman since Matt Bullard (6.4, 1985-86). Burks was also named to a number of post-season teams including the Big 12 All-Rookie Team, CollegeInsider.com All-America Freshman Team, 2009-10 Basketball Times' All-

Freshman first team, CU Sports Performers of the Year (CUSPY) Male Freshman of the Year, Sporting News Magazine All-Freshman second team.

Burks also became the first CU freshman to surpass 500 points in a single-season (512). He ranked fourth nationally of all freshmen in points per game (17.1) and field goal percentage (53.8).

Higgins moved up on the school's all-time scoring list (ninth overall) with 1,391 career points. He led the Big 12-only in steals for the second straight year (2.1).

As a team, CU ranked third nationally in FT% (76.6) and for the first time led the Big 12 from the charity stripe. CU also ranked 21st nationally in 3-point percentage, 26th in FG percentage, 30th in steals. The 47.3 field goal percentage tied for 10th in school history, was also the highest from any CU team since 1989-90 (47.9) and the 409 turnovers committed, was a team low over 30 games played in a season since the stat first kept in 1977-78.

The 2010-11 saw a season unlike no other in quite some time for Buffalo Basketball. With Boyle running the bench as the 18th coach in school history, CU also won a school-record 18 home games at the Coors Events Center and achieved their highest Big 12 finish (t-5th) since 2005-06.

Statistically, CU ranked first in the Big 12 and fifth nationally in free throw percentage (77.8). Boyle's efficient attack also ranked 12th nationally in scoring (79.6 ppg) and 19th nationally in field goal percentage (47.3).

Other team records set:

- Four attendance marks: most sellouts a season (5); all games (140,284); conference total (78,472); conference average (9,809).
- Most games played in a season (38)
- Most minutes (7,675).
- Points scored in a season (3,025) — a school first over 3,000 points.
- FGs Made (1,058) — a school first over 1,000 made field goals.
- Most rebounds (1,367)
- Field Goal Attempts (2,237)
- Free Throws Made (679)
- Free Throw Attempts (873)

Cory Higgins

- Free Throw Percentage (77.8).
- A school-first, seven players to make at least 100 field goals in a season.
- Number of times with single-digit turnovers in a game (13).
- Most players with over 1,000 minutes played in a season (4).
- Tied school record for most 90 or more points in a season (8).
- Won three Big 12 road games for the first time since 1996-97 season.
- Defeated NCAA Tournament Teams: Kansas State (three times), Texas and Missouri.

Individually, the Buffs were lead by sophomore guard Alec Burks, who subsequently left early to enter the NBA Draft, became CU's second-ever lottery pick and selected No. 12 overall by the Utah Jazz.

Burks would score a single-season school record 779 points, in addition setting the school mark for most free throws made (249) and attempts (302) in a single-season. He would also become the first player at CU to score over 770 points, 240 rebounds, 100 assists in same season.

A Top-20 Wooden Award finalist and unanimous Big 12 Conference first team selection, Burks was 18th nationally in scoring with 20.5 points per game. He would also become the only Big 12 Conference player to rank in the top-12 in the conference-only games in points (20.0; 2nd), rebounds (7.6; 1-3rd), and assists (2.8; 12th).

Burks also became the only second CU player in history to average over 20 points, 6 rebounds, and 2.5 assists per game for a season (20.5 ppg., 6.5 rpg., 2.9 apg.), joining Donnie Boyce, who averaged 22.4 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.5 assists in the 1993-94 season.

And for the first time in the 15-year Big 12 Championship history, the Buffs advanced to the conference semifinals where Burks became the first CU player to be named to the all-tourney team. Later in the season, the Grandview, Mo. native would be named to the NIT All-Tournament Team (97 points in four games, 24.3 ppg.).

The 2010-11 team was not comprised by one individual, but a cast of others who led to the Buffs success throughout the season. Cory Higgins would end his stellar four-year career tying the school mark for most points in a career (2,001) tying former teammate

Richard Roby, who starred in Boulder from 2004-08. Higgins was a three-time third team conference selection, also set a number of school records also becoming the career leader in minutes (4,478), games (132), starts (131), and single-season minutes played (1,222) set in 2010-11.

Higgins would also become the first CU player male or female to score over 2,000 points, 500 rebounds, 300 assists, and 150 steals during his collegiate career.

Sharp-shooter Levi Knutson ended his career making the fifth most treys (81) in a season during CU's NIT run. The Littleton, Colo. native set the single-season mark for 3-point efficiency (47.4 percent) and notched his name among long-range shooting greats finishing third overall with a career 39.3 career percentage.

Andre Roberson also made his presence felt during his initial season setting the freshman rebounding (297) and blocked shot (42) records. Roberson also became the first freshman to lead any CU team in rebounds, steals (51), and blocks. The feat among the Big 12 was a rarity, as Roberson became only the fourth conference player to accomplish it. Averaging 7.8 rebounds per game (100th nationally), Roberson also tied for fifth nationally in freshman rebounding (only player with zero starts).

The 2011-12 season welcomed a new addition to the Coors Events Center since the building first opened in 1979. The brand new basketball and volleyball practice facility resides directly adjacent to the north side of Events Center.

The facility is 43,000 square feet of space featuring two basketball/volleyball courts; women's basketball locker rooms; and volleyball coaches' offices costing $10.8 million, funded from private funds.

Each practice court is 11,000 square feet, and both mimic the playing surface in the Coors Events Center exactly, down to the lines and logos. The structure will match the campus architectural Charles Klaunder theme, a northern Italian, rural Tuscany influence, with varicolored sandstone and red-tiled roofs to match the other 200-plus buildings on the CU-Boulder campus.

Mar. 14, 2008 — Richard Roby scores 18 points becoming the school's all-time leading scorer with 2,001 points. He also grabs 10 rebounds for his 11th career double-double.

Apr. 19, 2010 — Tad Boyle becomes the 18th men's basketball head coach in the school's history.

Jan. 15, 2011 — Tad Boyle became the first CU head coach to win his first three conference games since Henry Iba (1933-34). Boyle would later win 24 games, the most ever in school history, in addition to winning a school-best 18 home games.

Feb. 26, 2011 — CU rallies from a 22-point second half deficit — the second largest deficit in school history to stun No. 5/5 Texas, 91-89 at the Coors Events Center. The Buffs scored 58 points and shot 58.1 percent in the second half. Alec Burks scored 33 points.

Mar. 10, 2011 — The Buffs swept NCAA Tournament bound Kansas State in all three meetings they played against one another during the season.

Mar. 11, 2011 — CU plays three games in three days falling to eventual conference champion Kansas in the Big 12 Championships semifinal round. It's the first time the Buffs advanced the semifinals in the 15-year history of the tournament. Alec Burks becomes the first CU player to be named to the all-tournament team.

Mar. 26, 2011 — The Buffs playing in their ninth NIT appearance, advanced to the NIT semifinals for the first time since 1990-91 falling to Alabama, 62-61 at Madison Square Garden. Cory Higgins scored 13 points tying the all-time school mark for career points (2,001) and Alec Burks was named to the all-tournament team.

RUSSELL “SOX” WALSETH

Legendary CU Basketball Coach Was One Of School’s Most Popular Figures

Russell “Sox” Walseth, the legendary University of Colorado basketball coach who was likely the first and one of only a few to have coached both the men’s and women’s basketball teams at the same NCAA school, passed away on Wednesday, Jan. 28, 2004. He was 77.

A player, coach and administrator, his time at CU spanned 38 years, starting as an athlete in the 1940s when he lettered a combined six times in both basketball and baseball.

Taking over the reins of the men’s program for the 1956-57 season, Walseth proceeded to coach the next 20 Buffalo teams. The winningest coach in CU men’s basketball history with a 261-245 record, the Buffs won three Big Eight titles under his direction, in 1961-62, 1962-63 and 1968-69. He was the Big Eight Conference coach of the year on five occasions, and his most prominent players included Ken Charlton, Jim Davis, Cliff Meely, Scott Wedman and Dave Logan.

All three of his Big Eight champion teams represented the conference in the NCAA regional tournaments (in those days, only one school could advance from a conference). Eventual NCAA champion Cincinnati eliminated the Buffs in the first two appearances, while his third tourney team may have represented his best coaching job in his tenure as he piloted a sophomore-dominated team to the league title and an NCAA berth.

He retired from coaching for the first time in the spring of 1976 and remained on in an administrative position with the athletic department. But four years later (1980), and CU hit with budget woes, then athletic director Eddie Crowder asked him if he would come out of retirement to help the program to which he had devoted much of his adult life. Sox answered that call and would coach the CU women’s team between 1980-83, then known as the “Lady Buffs,” compiling an impressive 77-21 record. That mark included an incredible 43-0 record at home, and once again, he earned coach of the year accolades.

The basketball floor at the Coors Events/Conference Center is named after him. In 1998, he was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame, and four years later in 2002, he was a member of the fourth class inducted into the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame.

Sox (the origin of that nickname was always unknown to him, but he had it since childhood) was born April 6, 1926 in Aberdeen, S.D. He was an all-state performer in basketball at Pierre High School, where he graduated in 1944.

He spent two years in the Navy’s V-5 and V-12 programs during which he began college, attending Carroll College in Helena, Mont. The Navy moved him to Colorado in the fall of 1945 and he was a regular on the basketball team in his first year at CU while still in the Navy program.

After his discharge, he stayed on at Colorado, playing guard with the reputation as a brilliant floor leader during the 1946-47 and 1947-48 seasons. He lettered three years as a shortstop for coach Frank Prentup on the baseball team, and would also try his hand in the minor leagues, spending two seasons with Victoria (B.C.), a member of the B League.

Perhaps his greatest game as a collegian occurred during his first year at Colorado when the Buffaloes made an early season tour that took them to New York’s Madison Square Garden. Accounts at the time referred to his performance as, “Cool and crafty beyond his years, Walseth was unruffled at playing for the first time in the nation’s top arena against one of the country’s top teams, NYU.” Though CU lost 66-52, Walseth led all scorers in the game with 20 points.

- CU’s all-time leader in victories with 261
- Likely the first and only a few to coach both the men’s and women’s basketball teams at the same school
- CU won three Big Eight titles under his direction
- Coached 20 different CU teams from 1957-1976
- Coached the CU women from 1980-83 and was an impressive 77-21, including 43-0 at home
- Coors Events Center basketball floor was named after him in 1996
- 1998 inductee of the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame
- 2002 Inductee of the CU Athletic Hall of Fame

After his graduation from CU in the spring of 1948, he remained with the school as head freshman basketball coach while he worked toward a Master's degree in Education. He spent five seasons in this capacity, three years under his college coach, Forrest B. "Frosty" Cox, and two with H.B. "Bebe" Lee.

With that experience along with his Master's from Colorado, he left Boulder to become head basketball coach at Arvin High School in Bakersfield, Calif., in 1954. After one year there, he was named head coach at South Dakota State College and quickly reshaped that school's cage fortunes. In his first year there (1954-55), his team forged a 14-11 mark, but the following year the Jackrabbits fashioned a 17-7 record in winning the North Central Conference crown and went on to play in the NAIA national tournament.

Walseth had the combined outstanding qualities of two fine coaches in Cox and Lee, and those along with his excellent background combined with a solid blend of youth and fire made him the easy choice to succeed Lee as CU's coach prior to the 1956-57 season.

Walseth is the fifth CU icon to pass away since the turn of the century, as the Buffalo family also lost long-time athletic staff members Fred Casotti (2001) and Les Fowler and Dan Stavely (both in 2003) and the school's first All-American and former U.S. Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White (in 2002).

He was preceded in death by his first wife of more than 40 years, the former Eleanor "Ellie" Hahn, and is survived by his current wife, Joan, sons Joe and Nick, daughter Cynthia and four grandchildren.

NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAMS

2002-03 NCAA Tournament Team

The 2002-2003 season was one of the most successful campaigns in Colorado history. Standards were set high as the team returned five of their top six scorers from a year ago. Rarely in athletic competition can a team live up to the expectations of the media, and the fans; but the Buffs were able to not only meet expectations, but surpass them. CU finished the season 20-12, the third time in school history that a 20 win season had been accomplished. That included a nearly perfect record at home, as they went 14-1 on Sox Walseth Court. The game of the year came on January 22nd when the Buffs were able to topple the #6 ranked Kansas Jayhawks; a feat not accomplished since 1991. Sophomore David Harrison had a breakout year, setting several school records. Harrison broke, and then re-broke the record for blocked shots in a game when he recorded 10 against Stetson, and then 11 at home against Nebraska. Harrison also added two triple-doubles that year against Stetson and Nebraska.

1996-97 NCAA Tournament Team

The Buffs were back. Not since the late 1960s had CU basketball made the NCAA tournament, or had an AP top 25 ranking. Both of those droughts ended during '96-'97 season, as Colorado made it back to the big dance. Led by sophomore phenom Chauncey Billups, the Buffs stormed to a 22-10 record. Conference play did not change their winnings ways, as they went 11-5 in the Big Twelve. The 22 wins, along with their 11 Big Twelve victories each are school records. With their stellar record, the Buffs were able to break the AP Poll and receive a #24 national ranking. This was the first time since the 1968-1969 season that CU had been ranked in the top 25. The season was highlighted by two upsets, as the Buffs were able to defeat #20 ranked Texas Tech, and then exactly one week later topple the #8 ranked Cyclones of Iowa State. Chauncey Billups turned in one of the best seasons ever by a Buffalo. Billups finished the season with 555 total points, the first time a sophomore had scored that many points since Cliff Meely put up 667 points during the '68-'69 season. Electing for the NBA draft, Billups left Colorado after his sophomore year, but not after becoming the 23rd all time scorer in school history in just two years.

1968-69 NCAA Tournament Team

Coming off an uninspiring 9-16 overall record the previous year, Colorado was looking for a way to get the program back on track. A 3-11 conference record had coach Sox Walseth reeling. The Buffs were in need of a spark plug; and they found it in Cliff Meely. Never in school history had a first year player given the program a jolt in the way Meely was able to do in the 1968-1969 season. The Buffs tore through the season, finishing with a 21-7 mark and an 11-4 conference schedule. That record included a perfect 11-0 on home court. The 21 wins marked at the time, a school record for wins in a season. Colorado earned a #18 national ranking for their success, the first time the Buffs were able to crack the top 25 since 1963. This success was fueled by the inspiring play of Cliff Meely. Meely finished the season with 667 points, the most ever by a sophomore and 4th all time for any class. His ability to score was complimented by superb rebounding. Meely finished the '68-'69 campaign with 337 rebounds. This mark is also the most by any sophomore, and ranks 2nd all time in CU history.

1962-63 NCAA Tournament Team

The 1962-1963 season opened with all eyes on the Buffs. Coming off an impressive 19 win campaign and NCAA tournament berth the year before, Colorado was receiving national attention. Coach Sox Walseth knew his team was under the microscope from the very beginning. Some critics thought a team who was not used to being in the spotlight would crumble under the pressure; these Buffaloes proved them wrong. CU stormed through the season, accumulating a 19-7 record while going 11-3 in conference play. It was the second year in a row that Colorado had gone 19-7 overall. A perfect home record and a #10 national ranking helped to keep Boulder in a basketball induced frenzy. The previous year had ended with CU having 499 wins as a program, and they seized first opportunity they had during the '62-'63 campaign to reach that milestone. December 3rd 1962 saw CU defeat Wichita State 79-69 in double overtime, the 500th win of the programs illustrious history. Senior Ken Charlton paced the Buffs in scoring for the season. En route to an All-American selection, the 5th in CU's history, Charlton put up 514 points and 214 rebounds. His point total was well above the rest of the team, outpacing the 2nd best scorer, Jim Davis, by 154 points. Charlton currently ranks 10th all time on the career scoring list.

1961-62 NCAA Tournament Team

A 19 win season was something the Colorado Buffaloes had seen only once in their history. The last time they won 19 games (in 1955), was the last time CU received a bid to play in the NCAA tournament. With that goal in their heads, Sox Walseth and his Buffs marched to a 19-7 record, and a near perfect 13-1 mark in conference play. The #9 ranked Buffaloes finished the regular season on a torrid pace, winning 14 of their 15 final games. The one loss was their one conference loss as well, falling at Kansas State. That span included a 12 game winning streak, as CU decimated their Big 8 opponents. The #9 national ranking was, and continues to be the highest position CU has ever had with the AP polls. Colorado scorers were paced by junior forward Ken Charlton, who finished the season with 498 points and 216 rebounds. Charlton was the only member of the team to record 400 points and 200 rebounds. One of the great storylines of the season was the play of senior forward Wilky Gilmore. Gilmore was the only member of the team to play in all 26 contests, as he accumulated 330 points and 163 rebounds. Gilmore left the program as the 2nd all time leading scorer in CU history with 1026 career points. He currently ranks 22nd.

1954-55 NCAA Tournament Team (Final Four Team)

It was a season of first for the Buffaloes. The year marked the first time in school history the Buffs were offered an invitation to the NCAA national tournament. Once they arrived, the success they had during the big dance is unmatched in school history to this day. Advancing to the national semifinals, they were eventually defeated by San Francisco. CU won the consolation game 2 days later, to finish the season as the #3 team in the country. The season also saw the first time Colorado could put the number 19 in the win column. They finished with a 19-6 overall record, going 11-1 in tournament play. Their one blemish in Big Seven play came while playing at rival Nebraska. The season opened with a bang, as CU set a school scoring record as they took down Brigham Young by a score of 88-66. Colorado had an amazing winning streak during the season, capturing 15 of 16 games spanning from December to March. A #15 national ranking was also given to the Buffs during the regular season, which marked the first time in school history that CU had broken the AP top 25 poll. The '54-'55 Buffs were blessed to have the single most dominating rebounder in the history of Colorado. Senior Burdette Haldorson tore apart record after record, many of which are still standing today. His accomplishments were highlighted by a 21 rebound effort against Oklahoma, and later a 22 rebound game against Nebraska. His season mark of 346 rebounds is still the school record, as his single season rebounds/game average. He stands 6th on the career list, with 711 rebounds. He also knew how to put the ball in the basket; his 1125 career points was the best in school history when he left. He currently stands 18th on the all time list.

Under the direction of coach H.B. Lee, the Buffs finished the season with a less than stellar 10-10 regular season mark. It was their inspired 10-2 Big Seven record, however, that helped the Buffs reach the NCAA tournament for the 4th time in school history. Colorado started their season losing 7 in a row. Fans and the media had already stuck the proverbial fork in the Buff's season. After a loss at home to Iowa State though, a fire was lit under the Buffs, and they went flying to finish out the season. They won 11 of their next 13 games to storm back into tournament contention. That win streak was highlighted by a home win against the defending champion Kansas Jayhawks, along with road wins against contenders Iowa State, Nebraska, and Oklahoma. At season's end, the impressive winning streak was not enough to ensure an NCAA berth. The selection was eventually made when Colorado's name was literally pulled out of a hat. Talk about luck of the draw. CU was paced by junior center Burdette Haldorson. The 6'7 center led the team with 367 points and 199 rebounds. At the time, Haldorson's average of 9 rebounds per game tied him for the all time high with Frank Gompert.

1945-46 NCAA Tournament Team

One of the youngest CU teams to ever make the NCAA tournament came in the 1945-1946 season. The Buffs did not have one senior to help coach Forrest Cox direct the untested youth. Thankfully for Coach Cox, and for Buffs fans, they didn't need one. Colorado battled their way to a 12-6 overall record, and a 9-3 Mountain States Conference record. The season was highlighted by a 5 game win streak during the heart of the schedule. During that span they were able to defeat conference foes Denver, Colorado State, Utah, and Brigham Young. The inexperienced Buffs were lead by center Hank Knocke. The sophomore transfer exploded out of the gates: scoring 49 points in his first four games as a Buffalo. With a sturdy 6'4 frame, Knocke was able to control the area under the basket, and maintain CU's distinction as a force to be reckoned with. Knocke's season was highlighted by two 26 point efforts; once against Utah State, and again just two weeks later against Denver. At the time, those stood as the 3rd and 4th all time single game scoring records. The Buffs ended their season with a consolation victory over the University of Baylor.

1941-42 NCAA Tournament Team

Very little could stop Colorado in their march towards their second all time appearance in the NCAA tournament. The Buffs decimated their competition, going 15-1 in the regular season. Behind the direction of head coach Forrest B. Cox, CU's explosive attack and stingy defensive work won them their first 14 games in as many attempts. The Buffs finally lost their first game of the seas on March 3rd, a 39-40 loss to conference foe Wyoming. A perfect 6-0 home record had the fans in Boulder excited; and their 9-1 away record had the rest of the nation trembling. Colorado would eventually finish their season 16-2, as they took down Kansas in the NCAA western regional semifinals. They would later bow out to Stanford in the regional finals. Their stellar play helped the Buffs capture their 4th Mountain States Conference title in 5 years. Two All-American players helped to pace CU during this dominating season: Robert Doll and Leason McCloud. Robert Doll was the big play man for the Buffs. His imposing presence down in the paint allowed him to out rebound all of his opponents. Doll would later go on to play for the Boston Celtics in the NBA. Doll was supplemented by the stellar play of McCloud. The leading scorer on the team, McCloud was seen by coach Cox as the Buffs "go to guy". McCloud's inspired 19 point performance was the turning factor in Colorado's first round victory against Kansas.

1939-1940 NCAA and NIT Team

Coming off of an impressive NIT tournament championship, Colorado was invited to play in the NCAA tournament for the first time in school history. Under the direction of coach Forrest Cox, the Buffs had compiled an impressive 17-2 record previous to the NCAA tournament. This included a near perfect 11-1 record in conference play, a flawless 8-0 home performance, and a mid-season 12 game winning streak. Although CU had to bow out after the first round of the tournament, they did not end the season without some hardware to show. They had earlier defeated Duquesne University for the NIT championship. A 52-37 romping of the University of Denver had given the Buffs their 3rd straight Mountain States Conference title. Colorado was lead by Jack Harvey: a two time All-American selection. Over a two year span, CU went 31-8 with Jack Harvey wearing the silver and gold. Harvey was a dominating presence in the defensive end of the court; as well as being the catalyst in an explosive fast break offense. Harvey is Colorado's only two-time All-America selection.

NIT TEAMS

2010-11 NIT Team

In Tad Boyle's first season as Colorado's head coach, the Buffs won a school-record 24 games (14 losses) in reaching the NIT semifinals at Madison Square Garden. Considered by most analysts to have been the NCAA Tournament's biggest snub, CU made the most of their NIT appearance by winning three straight games before ultimately falling to Alabama in the semis. Led by senior Cory Higgins, who tied Richard Roby for CU's all-time career scoring title (2,001 points), and All-Big 12 unanimous first team selection Alec Burks, the Buffs boasted a potent offensive attack that ranked 12th nationally in scoring (79.6 ppg) and 5th nationally in free throw percentage (77.8 percent). Burks set a CU record for most points in a season with 779, surpassing Cliff Meely's mark that stood for 40 years. The season marked the first time that the Buffs had six players record over 100 made field goals in a season (Burks 251, Higgins 200, Levi Knutson 158, Marcus Relphorhe 148, Austin Dufault 104, Andre Roberson 101). Roberson set a CU freshmen record by recording 297 rebounds for the season, and also became the first freshman in school history to lead the team in rebounds, steals (51) and blocks (42). Knutson was honored with the co-Big 12 Sixth Man of the Year Award.

2005-06 NIT Team

Led by a veteran roster of 10 seniors and an All-Big 12 first team selection, in sophomore Richard Roby, the Buffs tallied a 20-10 overall record to earn the school's eighth NIT berth. Coach Ricardo Patton's club ran off to one of the best starts in the program's history, with a 10-1 record before conference play. The season marked the first time three players had made over 50 3-pointers in a season (Roby 63, Andy Osborn 53, Chris Copeland 50). CU became nationally ranked for the first time since the 1996-97 season, coming in at No. 25 team in the country by the USA Today/Coaches' Poll for two straight weeks (Jan. 30-Feb. 12), and tied the school record for home wins in a season, with 14.

2003-04 NIT Team

Colorado won 18 games for the fifth time under coach Ricardo Patton, including 10 in conference play, the most since recording 11 back in the 1996-97 season, and earned a number four seed in the Big 12 Tournament in Dallas. The trio of David Harrison, Blair Wilson, and Michel Morandais each surpassed the 1,000 points in a career mark, en route to the Buffaloes' third NIT berth during Patton's eight years as head coach. Harrison would break the CU record for blocks in a career with a three-block performance against Utah. Harrison went on to block 85 shots during the season and after only three years in a CU uniform, would hold every blocked shot record category. Wilson also broke a bundle of records during the season, as the senior made six treys in a game against Iowa State to break or tie four school records, most notably the school record for career 3-pointers. The Buffaloes ended the year with an over-time loss in the NIT tournament to Oregon 72-77.

1999-2000 NIT Team

The Buffaloes marched out to an 11-5 pre-conference record to start out the 1999-00 season, led by senior guard Jaquay Walls' 17-point scoring average and Jamahl Mosley and Stephane Pelle's control of the paint, with 7.1 and 6.9 rebounds per game, respectively. On December 3 in Hawaii's Rainbow Classic, Colorado defeated Gonzaga 81-77, making it the Buffs' third straight victory over 1999 NCAA Tournament teams. In what many CU fans believe to be the best game at the Coors Events Center, CU came from behind to defeat Iowa State 102-90 in overtime. Walls scored a NCAA-record 15 points in the overtime, on his way to an astounding 42-point performance. At regular season's end the Buffs were invited to play in the NIT, only to fall in the first round to Southern Illinois 92-94. The invitation marked the third time in four years the Buffs had played in post-season tournaments.

1998-99 NIT Team

No photo taken

Colorado opened the 1998-99 campaign with a 9-3, where it would see five Buff players average double digits in scoring over the season. By the year's end, many Colorado players had established themselves as some of the elite in the Big 12. Junior Jaquay Walls was named to the All-Big 12 All-Underrated Team, as well as earning All-Big 12 Honorable Mention status. Senior guard Kenny Price was named to the All-Big 12 Third team, while also ranking third in the conference in points per game. Price's nine three-pointers in a Big 12 second round game against Texas would set a single game record, breaking his mark of eight from the year before. With his nine treys, Price would bring his total for the year to 97, the highest single-season total in CU history. In March, Colorado was selected to the NIT, marking the second time in three years that the Buffs made a post-season appearance. CU defeated first round opponent Pepperdine 65-61 in the tournament's opening round, before losing to intrastate rival Colorado State 76-86 in the second round. Price's nine three-pointers in a Big 12 second round game against Texas would set a single game record, breaking his mark of eight from the year before. With his nine treys, Price would bring his total for the year to 97, the highest single-season total in CU history.

1994-95 NIT Team

Colorado started off the 1994-95 season with a 10-3 record, including a convincing win of the Mile High Classic. The Buffs beat Eastern Washington and Hofstra by a combined 39 points for CU's fifth consecutive victory of their home tournament. On January 7 in Boulder, the Buffs ended their 16-game losing streak against ranked teams, when they defeated No. 16 Iowa State 71-57, forcing a school record 31 turnovers by the opponent. After throwing down a fast break dunk, senior guard Donnie Boyce surpassed Cliff Meely (1967-71) to become Colorado's all-time leading scorer, finishing his illustrious career with 1,995 points. Boyce remains the only Colorado player to lead his team in scoring for four consecutive years. On January 17 against Texas-San Antonio, senior Ted Allen blocked five shots to become CU's all-time leader in blocks, finishing with 53 on the year. At the season's end, Colorado qualified for the NIT, for only the second invitation to post-season play in 25 years and the first since the 1900-91 season. The Buffs finished the year with an above .500 winning percentage, for the first time since coach Joe Harrington's debut season with the team.

1990-91 NIT Team

The inside-outside combination of Shaun Vandiver and Steve Wise led the way for the Buffaloes in the 1990-91 season, where the duo combined for an average 41 points per game. The Buffs scored a school record 124 points, twice, in pre-conference match-ups against Central Connecticut State and Tennessee State, both ending in CU victories. Colorado ended a 22-year post-season drought by receiving an invitation to play in the NIT tournament. The Buffaloes beat Michigan (71-64), Wyoming (83-75), Arkansas State (81-75), and Massachusetts (98-91) en route to a third place finish. Vandiver finished the year with a 21.2-point scoring average and 10 rebounds per game, which was good enough to earn the senior center first team All-Big Eight honors, and a spot on the NIT All-Tournament team. Colorado finished the season with a 19-14 record, the team's best in 21 seasons.

1939-1940 NCAA and NIT Team

The 1939-40 edition of the Buffaloes tallied one of the best records in school history, finishing the year at 17-4. The team, led by coach Forrest Cox, dominated the Mountain States Conference with a conference record of 11-1, the sole loss coming from Utah State 29-31. Colorado qualified for the 1940 NIT in New York City, beating DePaul 52-37 and Duquesne 51-40. The Buffaloes then went on to participate in the NCAA tournament, losing close games to Southern California (32-38) and Rice (56-60 OT). CU remains the only team in NCAA history to play in both the NIT and the NCAA post season tournaments.

Head Coach: Forrest B. Cox. Numerical Order: Jack Harvey #3, Gene Grove #4, Bob Doll #5, Don Hendricks #6, Don Thurman #7, Leason McCloud #8, Bill Cates #9, George Hamburg #10, Dick Emery #12, Paul Schmidt #14, Martin Trotsky #15, John Musgrove #16, Jim Hickey #17, Dick Merrill #18.

1937-38 NIT Team

The Colorado men's basketball program earned its first post season berth in the 1937-38 season, under the direction of third-year head coach Forrest Cox, in which the Buffs went undefeated at home during the season. 1938 featured the debut of the Mountain States Conference, in which the Buffaloes stacked up a record of 10-2 in conference play. Colorado went on to the NIT in New York City, where the Buffs edged out New York University 48-47 in their first game, before succumbing to Temple University by a score of 34-60, turning in a 15-6 record on the season.

Balch Fieldhouse was the home floor for the Buffaloes during the 1937-38 season.

ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

Jack Harvey
1939 & 1940

In his back-to-back All-America campaigns, Jack Harvey led the Buffs to two conference championships and a trip to the NCAA Tournament in his senior season. During those two years, CU posted an amazing 31-8 mark and received recognition as the No. 1 team in the land. Known for his tough defense, Harvey proved to be key in numerous Buff victories. He was also an outstanding ball-handler for a big man and was a key component in the CU fast break. A solid All-Conference performer, Harvey is the only CU cager to be selected twice as an All-American.

Robert Doll
1942

Bob Doll was the big-play man for coach Frosty Cox's 1941-42 Big Seven Championship squad. Doll, along with fellow All-American Leason McCloud helped lead CU to a 16-2 record and the NCAA Western Tournament finals as a senior. Known as an outstanding rebounder, Doll controlled the paint in many CU wins. He was also renowned for his shooting prowess, finishing second to McCloud in scoring. An unanimous All-Big Seven selection, Doll was selected to All-America teams by Look, Pic and Time magazines. He was also tabbed as MVP of New York's Metropolitan Tournament as a sophomore and was a huge factor in CU's three conference titles in a four-year span. After graduation, Doll went on to play for the Boston Celtics.

Jim Willcoxon
1939

Known for his defense, Jim Willcoxon continued Coach Frosty Cox's tradition of talented cagers. Willcoxon helped anchor the 1937-38 and 1938-39 Big Seven Championship teams with tough play on the defensive end. He also led the Buffs to national prominence with strong showings on East Coast road trips. His hard-nosed style of play earned him both All-Big Seven and All-America honors as a senior.

Leason McCloud
1942

The leading scorer for the 1942 Big Seven Champion Buffs, Leason McCloud was Coach Frosty Cox's "go-to guy." Known for his silky-smooth shot, McCloud was also a great passer and rebounder. McCloud was key in CU's NCAA Western Tournament semifinal win over Kansas, pacing the Buffs with 19 points. His play caught the attention of national media and he joined fellow Buff Bob Doll on the Look, Pic and Time magazines' All-America squads and was a unanimous All-Big Seven selection.

Burdette Haldorson 1955

Burdette Haldorson was virtually unstoppable in 1955. Prior to the season, Coach H.B. Lee said, "We'll be just as good as Haldorson. We need the big man to play well for us." And play well he did, leading CU to a conference championship and a third-place finish in the National Collegiate Tournament. The big man led the Big Seven in scoring at 23.9 points per game and set what still stands as a CU record with an amazing 346 boards on the year. For his efforts, the Amateur Athletic Union tabbed Haldorson a first-team All-American. Haldorson's talents were nationally recognized, as the standout was selected to the 1956 and 1960 U.S. Olympic teams. Upon graduation, Haldorson turned down a $7,000 contract with the NBA's St. Louis franchise. He did continue playing, however, and led amateur powerhouse Phillips 66 to a National Industrial Basketball League title. Haldorson joined Cliff Meely as the only two Buffs to have their jerseys retired in 1994, and was named to the CU Hall of Fame in 1999.

Cliff Meely 1971

In 1971, Cliff Meely was a scoring machine. He tallied a then-CU record 729 points and set a Big Eight record with 427 points in conference. Coach Sox Walseth said of Meely, "He is the most complete player I have ever coached." Known for his quickness and agility, Meely could play any position on the floor. He was named to several All-America teams as a junior and senior and played in numerous all-star games after graduation. Meely went on to play in over 300 games in the NBA for the Houston Rockets and the Los Angeles Lakers.

Ken Charlton 1963

Ranking No.12 on CU's all-time scoring charts, Ken Charlton battled through a history of knee problems to lead Colorado to two Big Eight titles and in 1963, Charlton was named an All-American by the United States Basketball Writers Association and Look magazine. Along with his penchant for scoring, Charlton was also a force inside, ranking in the top 10 on the CU rebounding charts with 671 career caroms (No. 11 at CU). He also succeeded in the classroom and was named an Academic All-American in 1963 as well. Buff Coach Sox Walseth said of Charlton's play, "On a leg and a half, he's better than anyone else in the Big Eight." Charlton was elected to the CU Hall of Fame in 2010.

Chauncey Billups 1997

One of CU's top perimeter threats in hoops history, Chauncey Billups graced the CU campus for two seasons before departing for the NBA. As a sophomore in 1997, Billups was named a first-team All-American by Basketball News, becoming the eighth All-American in Colorado history. Known for his playmaking skills and ability to penetrate, Billups also led the Buffs to their first NCAA Tournament in over two decades, where CU topped perennial-power Indiana in the opening round. Billups went on to be the third pick in the NBA draft by the Boston Celtics. In 2004, Billups helped lead the Detroit Pistons to the NBA title, in addition was named The NBA Finals Most Valuable Player.

David Harrison 2003-04 AP Honorable Mention

The seven foot, 250-pound big man performed his best season-to-date leading the Buffaloes in scoring (17.1 ppg.) and shooting an impressive 63.1 percentage from the field. His mark from the field led the Big 12 Conference and more impressively was third nationally. What turned out to be his third and final season in Boulder (opted for the NBA draft, first round No. 29, Indiana), Harrison would go on to break the CU block shot record (225) and eclipsed the 1,000-point barrier (1,317 pts.). Harrison helped the Buffs to the 2002-03 NCAA Tournament and a 2003-04 NIT. Harrison holds or shares every blocked shot record in school history.

Shaun Vandiver 1989-90 UPI Honorable Mention

The 1989-90 season for the junior center was the second of three seasons in Boulder. During the 1989-90 campaign, Shaun Vandiver led the team in scoring (22.3 ppg.), rebounding (11.2 rpg.), blocks (36), and field goal percentage (59.3). His 668 points during the season became the most scored by a CU big man (second all-time), in addition leading the Big Eight in scoring. At the conference postseason tournament, Vandiver earned most valuable player honors after he helped the Buffs upset Missouri and Oklahoma State in back-to-back games, becoming the first eighth seed to advance to the title game. Vandiver scored 75 points (then-sixth best for points) and 41 rebounds during the three-game span.

Jay Humphries 1982-83, 1983-84 AP Honorable Mention

Arguably the best and most exciting Buff of the 1980s, Jay Humphries became the school's all-time leader in assists (562) and steals (309). He finished his stellar career averaging five assists and 2.8 steals per game. On the scoreboard, Humphries became the then-eighth all-time scorer (1,306 points, 11.7 ppg.). His specialty, however, was defensive play leading the nation in thefts during the 1982-83 season with 115, which remains a school record for a season. His 101 steals during the 1983-84 campaign, ranks second on the CU list. Humphries also holds the second (174) and third (173) season assists totals, in addition to the school mark in assists in a conference game (14), and double-figure assist games for a career with eight.

Alec Burks 2010-11 AP Honorable Mention

An electrifying guard for two years in Boulder, Burks showcased on a nightly basis he was something special in a Buffs uniform. The holder of numerous school records in just two years, Burks holds the freshman (512) and sophomore (779) scoring records for those seasons. His career 19.0 points per game average ranks third all-time behind CU greats, Cliff Meely (24.3) and Shaun Vandiver (20.6). Named to the Big 12 Conference and NIT All-Tournament teams, Burks was also a conference unanimous first team selection, in addition being named a finalist (top 20) for John R. Wooden list in 2010-11. Burks scored a career-best 36 points (w/ personal-high 12 field goals) in an upset win over No. 9/8 Missouri (Jan. 8, 2011). He's the 18th player in school history to score that many in single game and the 36-point performance was the third highest at the Coors Events Center.

HISTORY

CHAUNCEY BILLUPS

One of the most talented players in Colorado basketball history, Billups helped transform the Buffaloes into an NCAA tournament contender in the two years he played at CU. His hard work, dedication and exceptional basketball skills not only drew the attention of college basketball aficionados, but of professional teams as well. Billups was the No. 3 overall selection of the first round of the NBA Draft in 1997 by the Boston Celtics. As a captain of the Detroit Pistons, Billups led the team to the NBA championship in 2004 earning the NBA Finals Most Valuable Player award by averaging 21 points and 5.2 assists in the five games.

NBA

- ▶ third pick in the 1997 NBA draft (Boston Celtics)
- ▶ helped lead the Detroit Pistons to the 2004 NBA title
- ▶ named the Most Valuable Player for the NBA Finals, averaging 21 points and 5.2 assists in five games
- ▶ helped lead Nuggets to a franchise-best 54 wins, the most since moving to the NBA
- ▶ ranks fifth in 3-Pointers Made (1,735 as Oct. 2011)
- ▶ ranks fourth in 3-Point Goal Attempts (4,462 as Oct. 2011)
- ▶ ranks fifth in Free Throw Percentage in NBA history (.894 as Oct. 2011)

Olympics

- ▶ selected to be a part of Team USA that competed at the 2007 FIBA Americas Championship, a qualifying tournament for the Beijing Olympics
- ▶ played for USA Basketball's Men's 22-and-under team against the Dream Team III during the summer of 1996
- ▶ played at the 1995 Olympic Festival in Denver, competing for the North team that won the gold medal
- ▶ played for Team USA at 2010 FIBA Summer World Championships in Turkey (9-0, Gold Medal)

Colorado

- ▶ led the Buffs to their first NCAA Tournament in over two decades, where CU topped perennial power Indiana in the opening round of the 1997 tournament
- ▶ as a sophomore was named a first-team All-American by Basketball News, becoming the eighth All-American in Colorado history; named first team All-Big 12 by the league coaches and Associated Press in 1996-97
- ▶ in two seasons in Boulder, averaged 18.5 points, 5.6 rebounds, 5.1 assists in 55 games; also connected on 120 3-pointers and shot .857 (306-for-357) from the free throw line
- ▶ set a then-CU freshman record (465 points) and currently holds record with 143 freshman assists

George Washington High School

- ▶ named Mr. Colorado Basketball three times and in 1995 was a McDonald's High School All-American
- ▶ averaged 23.8 ppg. during his four-years
- ▶ holds the school record in scoring average by a freshman (17.9 ppg.)
- ▶ remains first player at CU to score over 1,000 career points in only two seasons
- ▶ second fastest player to record 500 points scored in only 28 games played

BUFFS IN THE PROS

Chauncey Billups

Boston Celtics, 1997-98 • Toronto Raptors, 1997-98 • Denver Nuggets, 1998-2000
• Minnesota Timberwolves, 2000-02 • Detroit Pistons, 2002-08 • Denver Nuggets, 2008-11
• New York Knicks, 2011-present

One of the most talented players in Colorado basketball history, Chauncey Billups helped transform the Buffaloes into an NCAA tournament contender in the two years he played in Boulder. His hard work, dedication and exceptional basketball skills not only drew the attention of college basketball aficionados, but of professional teams as well. Billups was the No. 3 overall selection of the first round of the NBA Draft in 1997 by the Boston Celtics. As a captain of the Detroit Pistons, he led the team to the NBA championship in 2004 earning the NBA Finals Most Valuable Player award honors by averaging 21 points and 5.2 assists in the five games.

NBA

- Five-time NBA All-Star (2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010).
- helped lead the Nuggets to a franchise-best 54 wins in 2008-09, the most since moving to the NBA.
- ranks fourth all-time in NBA 3-point attempts (4,462).
- ranks fifth all-time in NBA free throw percentage (.894).
- ranks fifth in 3-pointers made (1,735).
- NBA Champion (2004) • NBA Finals MVP (2004).
- Five-time NBA All-Star (2006–2010)
- All-NBA Second Team (2006)
- Two-time All-NBA Third Team (2007, 2009).
- Two-time NBA All-Defensive Second Team (2005–2006) • J. Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award (2008)
- NBA Sportsmanship Award (2009).

Colorado

- led the Buffs to their first NCAA Tournament in over two decades, where CU topped perennial power Indiana in the opening round of the 1997 tournament.
- as a sophomore was named a first-team All-American by The Basketball News, becoming the eighth All-American in Colorado history; named 1996-97 All-Big 12 first team by the league coaches and Associated Press.
- In two seasons in Boulder, averaged 18.5 points, 5.6 rebounds, 5.1 assists in 55 games; also connected on 120 3-pointers and shot .857 (306-for-357) from the free throw line.
- set a then-CU freshman record (465 points) and currently holds freshman record with 143 assists.

Chauncey Billups became CU's first-ever lottery pick in the 1997 NBA Draft.

Donnie Boyce finished his four-year career as CU's all-time leading scorer, however his promising NBA career was cut short by a broken leg.

Donnie Boyce

Atlanta Hawks, 1995 • San Antonio Spurs, 1996-97

Ranking third all-time on Colorado's all-time leading scorer, Donnie Boyce completed his collegiate career in 1994-95 with 1,995 career points. However, Boyce's career ended prematurely when he broke his leg during the first half of CU's 1995 Big Eight Tournament game against Oklahoma. During his career in Boulder, Boyce was named All-Conference three times, twice on the league's first team. Boyce also held school records for games started (107), field goals attempted (1,648), free throws made (480) and free throws attempted (721). In four consecutive seasons (1991-95), Boyce led the Buffaloes in scoring, and led the Big Eight in scoring (league games only) as a junior (26.8 ppg). A gifted player on all levels, Boyce will be remembered as one of the greatest players in CU and Big Eight history.

Matt Bullard

Matt Bullard

Houston Rockets, 1990-1994, 1996-98 • Atlanta Hawks, 1995-96

As a freshman, Matt Bullard was named to All-Freshman team and was honorable mention All-Big Eight. The next year he led the team in both scoring (16.6 ppg) and rebounding (9.3). He finished the 1986 season ranked 18th in the country in field goal percentage. Bullard joined the Rockets as a free agent in 1990, and was a member of Houston's 1994 NBA Championship team. He is the third-leading three-point shooter in franchise history.

Alec Burks

Utah Jazz, 2011-present

An electrifying guard for two years in Boulder, Burks showcased on a nightly basis he was something special in a Buffs uniform. The holder of numerous school records in just two years, Burks holds the freshman (512) and sophomore (779) scoring records for those seasons. His career 19.0 points per game average ranks third all-time behind CU greats, Cliff Meely (24.3) and Shaun Vandiver (20.6). Named to the Big 12 Conference and NIT All-Tournament teams, Burks was also a conference unanimous first team selection, in addition being named a finalist (top 20) for John R. Wooden list in 2010-11. Burks scored a career-best 36 points (w/ personal-high 12 field goals) in an upset win over No. 9/8 Missouri (Jan. 8, 2011). He's the 18th player in school history to score that many in single game and the 36-point performance was the third highest at the Coors Events Center.

Alec Burks became CU's second lottery pick in the 2011 NBA Draft.

Jim Creighton

Atlanta Hawks, 1975-76

After playing in the shadows of Cliff Meely for two years, Jim Creighton came into his own during his junior and senior seasons. He quickly became a stalwart performer for the Buffs. Not big for a center (6-7, 190), Creighton played much bigger with his great jumping ability. Following an excellent senior season, he was named to the NCAA's District V All-Star squad. Creighton enjoyed a one-year stint with the Atlanta Hawks. Used primarily for his defensive ability, he played in 32 games, averaging one point and 1.4 boards per game.

Jim Davis

St. Louis/Atlanta Hawks, 1967-72 • Houston Rockets, 1972 • Detroit Pistons, 1972-75

Jim Davis guided Colorado to two Big Eight championships during a brilliant three-year career. During that time, Davis emerged as one of the school's all-time top rebounders (863 boards) and scorers (1,110 points). In addition to being a fine rebounder and scorer, Davis was also known for his defensive skills. As a professional ball player, Davis played for three different clubs, St. Louis/Atlanta, Houston and Detroit. His most successful seasons were spent with St. Louis/Atlanta as he averaged 7.9 points per game and totaled 1,484 career boards.

Robert Doll

St. Louis Bombers, 1946-48 • Boston Celtics, 1948-50

One of the key players for Coach Forrest "Frosty" Cox's 1941-42 Big Seven championship squad, Robert "Ichabod" Doll was known for his aggressive defense as he was named a unanimous first-team All-Conference player following his senior season. That same year, he also garnered All-America honors in Look, Pic and Time magazines. In 1940, Doll led the Buffaloes to bids in both the NCAA Tournament and NIT. He was named the NIT Most Valuable Player after averaging 15.5 points per game. Two years later, Doll was named a consensus second team All-American and led Colorado to its first Final Four. Doll played professionally for two years with the St. Louis Bombers 1946, then joined the Boston Celtics as a free agent. During his two-year stint with the Celtics, Doll averaged 8.4 points and 1.4 assists per game during his pro career.

Pat Frink

Cincinnati Royals, 1968-69

Known as an excellent shooter, Pat Frink finished his career at Colorado as the second leading scorer in Buff basketball history at that time (1,288 points). He accomplished that feat even though he missed the 1966 season due to a knee injury. Frink was also chosen as a member of the second-team academic All-America squad in 1968. After graduation, Frink went on to play professionally with the Cincinnati Royals for one season. While a member of the ABA team, he played in 48 games and averaged 2.6 points per game.

Pat Frink currently ranks No. 16 on CU's all-time scoring list.

Chuck Gardner

Denver Rockets, 1967-68

Chuck Gardner led the Buffs his senior year in scoring (20.2 ppg), rebounding (9.8 rpg), field goal percentage (.524) and free throw percentage (.650). A two-time All-Big Eight selection, Gardner was also chosen as a scholastic All-American his senior season. His excellent touch around the basket and dangerous hook shot enabled him to be an outstanding inside scorer. Although he only played one year professionally, he did record some notable marks with the ABA's Denver Rockets. In 42 games, he averaged 4.7 points and 3.2 boards per game.

David Harrison

Indiana Pacers, 2004-08

David Harrison had his best season with the Buffs during his junior year leading the Buffaloes in scoring (17.1 ppg.) and shooting an impressive 63.1 percentage from the field. The seven-foot, 250-pound presence led the Big 12 Conference in field goal percentage and more impressively was third nationally. What turned out to be his third and final season in Boulder (opted for the NBA draft), Harrison was drafted No. 29 of the first round by Indiana. In four seasons with the Pacers he averaged 5.0 points, 2.9 rebound a game, and shooting 53 percent from the field. Although his NBA career would not produce the numbers he performed in college, Harrison is currently the CU blocked shot record holder (225) and eclipsed the 1,000-point barrier (1,317 pts.). Harrison holds or shares every blocked shot record in school history and helped the Buffs to the 2002-03 NCAA Tournament and a 2003-04 NIT appearance.

In three years at CU, David Harrison holds all of the school's blocked shot records. He's the only player in school history to have a pair of triple-doubles.

Jay Humphries

Phoenix Suns, 1984-88 • Milwaukee Bucks, 1988-92 • Utah Jazz, 1992-1995

Jay Humphries had an outstanding career at CU, as he was elected twice for both All-America and All-Conference honors. Humphries is the current all-time leader in both steals (309) and assists (586), evidence of both his great quickness and ball handling abilities. Humphries finished his career with the Utah Jazz, after spending four seasons with Phoenix and four with Milwaukee. He reached two milestones in 1992-93, tallying his 4,000th assist and 8,000th point. He averaged a career-high 15.3 points per game in 1989-90, and never averaged under 7.5 points per game. Humphries joined the Jazz on draft day '92, when he was traded from Milwaukee to Utah.

Jay Humphries, CU's all-time steals leader and two-time All-American, scored almost 9,000 points in his 11-year NBA career.

Cliff Meely

Houston Rockets, 1971-76 • Los Angeles Lakers, 1976

One of two players in Colorado basketball history to have his jersey number retired (20), Cliff Meely was named an All-American following the 1970-71 season. Meely was truly a graceful performer who could shoot from anywhere on the court. He finished his career at CU possessing eight Big Eight Conference marks and 16 school records, including at the time CU's all-time scoring record (1,940 points). He still owns the school mark averaging 24.3 points per game. Meely transferred to CU as a junior college All-American from Northeastern JC. While there, he scored 40 or more points on five separate occasions. Meely played in more than 300 professional games over six seasons with the NBA's Houston Rockets and Los Angeles Lakers. He averaged 8.7 points and 5.6 boards per game throughout his career with the Rockets, only playing in 20 games with the Lakers at the end of the 1975-76 season.

Cliff Meely scored over 2,500 points in his NBA career with the Houston Rockets and L.A. Lakers.

Alex Stivrins

Seattle SuperSonics, 1985-86 • Phoenix Suns, 1992-93 • Atlanta Hawks, 1992-93
• Los Angeles Clippers, 1992-93 • Milwaukee Bucks, 1992-93

Alex Stivrins led Colorado in rebounding both years he was a Buff, and finished sixth in the country in 1985. He finished his collegiate career at CU with averages of 13.9 points and 10.4 rebounds per game. His first year in the NBA was spent with the Seattle SuperSonics, in 1985-86. Following that he played in both the CBA and the Italian League before returning to the NBA ranks in 1992-93. That season, he had stints with four different teams.

Alex Stivrins ranked 18th in career rebounding (583) and 46th in scoring (777 pts.) at CU.

Scott Wedman

Scott Wedman

Kansas City Kings, 1975-81 • Cleveland Cavaliers, 1981-82 • Boston Celtics, 1982-87

Scott Wedman provided the backbone for CU basketball in the early '70s. Head Coach Sox Walseth called Wedman "one of the best we've ever had here." With his great touch, he was smooth as silk with the ball, and was also a big factor on the boards. Wedman's outstanding play earned him All-Big Eight honors in both his junior and senior seasons. Wedman began his professional career with the NBA's Kansas City franchise, where he played for six seasons. While there, he averaged 17.4 points per game and 6.0 rebounds in 466 games. He was traded to Cleveland for the '81-82 season and then was sent to Boston where he averaged 5.6 points per game in 301 contests.

Chuck Williams

Denver Nuggets, 1971-72, 1975-76 (ABA); 1976-77 (NBA) • Kentucky Colonels, 1972-75 • Buffalo Braves, 1977-78

A floor leader, Chuck Williams was known for his precision passing, slashing drives to the basket and his tenacious defense. He possessed exceptional quickness and speed. Following a serious knee injury his junior year, he rebounded his final campaign to have an excellent season. Williams began his professional basketball career with Denver. He played in 163 games with the Nuggets franchise during two different stints in both the ABA and NBA, and had a scoring average of 9.8 points per game. He also played for three years with the ABA's Kentucky Colonels and finished his career with the Buffalo Braves.

HALDORSON NAISMITH HALL OF FAME

Burdette "Burdie" Haldorson, one of the early stars in the history of the University of Colorado men's basketball program, was inducted along with his teammates from the 1960 United States Olympic team into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. The 2010 class was inducted on August 13 in Springfield, Mass.

That 1960 team brought home the gold medal from Rome and also featured Jerry West (West Virginia), Oscar Robertson (Cincinnati), Jerry Lucas (Ohio State) and Walt Bellamy (Indiana). The 12-man squad cruised to an 8-0 record, the average winning margin a gaudy 42.4 points. The team beat Brazil, 90-63, to clinch the gold after disposing of the USSR (81-57) and host Italy (112-81) leading up to the gold medal contest.

The 1992 "Dream Team" also will be inducted, along with Karl Malone and Scottie Pippen, among others. The 1960 and 1992 squads are generally considered the top two men's basketball teams in U.S. Olympic history.

They will become the seventh and eighth teams that the Hall is inducting, the first Olympic ones, joining others that include the Harlem Globetrotters, the original Celtics, and the 1966 Texas Western team that shattered the race barrier when it beat Kentucky to win the NCAA title. Members of inducted teams go into the Hall as a full group, not as individuals.

"I don't really know that much about it yet, but it will be a real honor to go into the Hall with the group of players that was on that team," Haldorson said from his winter home in Scottsdale, Ariz. "There were 12 guys, and all but two of us went into the NBA. I was one of those two, and I had invitations to turn pro as well, but I was basically ending my career. Some of those guys were outright stars, and I really believe Jerry West and Oscar Robertson would be stars in the game today."

"I've run into Oscar and Jerry a few times, but we all really went our own directions, so most of us haven't really seen each other since we parted ways that summer," he added. "We've never had a reunion so we kind of lost track of each other, but I can't think of a better way to finally get us all together again."

Haldorson averaged 2.9 points and 4.3 rebounds per game on the '60 team, and also won a gold medal as a member of the '56 team, when he averaged 8.6 points per contest. With Haldorson as a team member, the United States went 16-0 in the two Olympic games.

Haldorson's uniform, No. 22, is one of just two retired basketball jerseys in CU history. He left quite an imprint in the school's basketball annals, and the 6-foot-7 Austin, Minn., native still holds four school rebounding records some five-plus decades after his CU playing days, including the most in a half (21), game (31) and season (346).

As a senior in 1954-55, he led the Buffs to the Big Seven Conference title by averaging 23.9 points per game, and was named a first-team All-American. CU eventually went on to finish third in the nation, losing in the Final Four to eventual champion San Francisco and the legendary Bill Russell.

He averaged 15.0 points and 9.5 rebounds for his CU career, and was the first of only eight players to this day to score at least 1,100 points and record 700 or more rebounds. He was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in the school's second class in 1999; he previously had been inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame, the first with ties to CU's basketball programs, in 1977.

Haldorson went on to have a brilliant career in the National Industrial Basketball League as a member of the Phillips 66ers, the team entry for Phillips 66, who then hired him after his career. He then moved to Colorado Springs to form his own gas and oil distribution business.

HALL OF FAME

Don Branby

- Three-Sport Letterman (Football, Basketball, Baseball)
- Football First-Team All-American
- CU Record Holder (Fumble Recoveries)
- Longtime college and professional coach

Don Branby was one of the last three-sport lettermen in Colorado history, as he earned nine in all playing football, basketball and baseball. His top honor was being named an Associated Press All-American in football in 1952, when he set what are still CU records with seven fumble recoveries and nine takeaways. Published reports at the time said he had at least 20 tackles in a 21-21 tie with Oklahoma, the Sooners' lone blemish in their famous Big 7 Conference run. He was just the sixth CU player to be invited to play in a postseason all-star game when he appeared in the 1953 East-West Shrine Game. A seventh round draft pick by the New York Giants in the 1953 Draft (the 79th player selected overall), he went on. After his playing days, he went into coaching in college at Montana State, and then in the Canadian Football League with the British Columbia Lions and the Ottawa Roughriders. In basketball, he scored 165 points in 45 career games in primarily a reserve role, though he led the Buffaloes in free throw percentage in 1951-52, making a then unheard of 39-of-48 tries (81.3%). In baseball, he played first base, third base and in the outfield; his 16 runs batted in were the third most on the team his senior year. He also spent four years in the Air Force, playing service football in which he also earned high accolades.

Ken Charlton

- 1963 All-American & Academic All-American
- Two-time All-Big 8 Selection
- Inducted into CU Hall of Fame in 1999

Ken Charlton was a member of back-to-back Big 8 Conference titles and two straight NCAA tournament appearances under the late Sox Walseth. Often going out and scoring 20-plus points a day or two after having his knees drained of excess fluid, Charlton was CU's all-time leading scorer at the time of his graduation with 1,352 points in just three seasons. Walseth often referred to him as, "the finest offensive player I ever coached."

Ranking 11th on CU's all-time scoring chart, Charlton was named an All-American by the United States Basketball Writers Association and Look magazine. Along with his penchant for scoring, he was also a force inside, ranking in the top 10 on the CU rebounding charts with 671 career caroms (he's 11th today). He also succeeded in the classroom and was named a 1963 Academic All-American.

Charlton's 514 points scored during the 1961-62 season still ranks 19th today for most points tallied in a single season. He owns a pair of 35-point efforts at Kansas (Jan. 5, 1963), and at Missouri (Mar. 5, 1962) that still rank among the top-20 scoring games in school history. Walseth said of Charlton's play, "On a leg and a half, he's better than anyone else in the Big Eight."

Burdette Haldorson

- 1955 All-American
- 1955 Final Four Participant
- 1956 & 1960 U.S. Olympian
- Retired Number (No. 22)

Burdette Haldorson, No. 22 is one of just two retired basketball jerseys in CU history, left quite an imprint in the school's basketball annals. The 6-7, 210-pound Austin, Minn., native still holds four school rebounding records some five decades after his CU playing days, including the most in a half (21), game (31) and season (346). As a senior in 1954-55, he led the Buffs to the Big Seven title by averaging 23.9 points per game, and was also named as a first-team All-American. CU eventually went on to finish third in the nation, losing at the Final Four to eventual champion San Francisco and the legendary Bill Russell. Haldorson earned two gold medals in 1956 and 1960 as a member of the U.S. Olympic team, went on to have a brilliant career in the National Industrial Basketball League as a member of the Phillips 66ers, the team entry for Phillips 66, who then hired him after his career. He then moved to Colorado Springs to form his own gas and oil distribution business. In August 2010, Haldorson and his 1960 United States Olympic teammates were inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

Billy Lewis

- First African-American Varsity Basketball Player at CU
- Three-Time Basketball Letterwinner
- Cleared 6-6 3/4 as a High Jumper
- Voted Commissioner of the ASUC by the Student Body

The first African-American varsity basketball player at Colorado (and the first to letter), enrolling at CU in September 1956; at that time, freshmen were ineligible to play and he thus made his debut in the 1957-58 season. As with his football counterparts, though treated well in Boulder, he often had to endure harsh racism on the road in pre-Civil Rights America and thus blazed the trail for all those who would follow him to CU. The 6-3 forward played in 67 career games, scoring 244 points and grabbing 197 rebounds in lettering three times. His best season on the court was his junior year, when he averaged 5.9 points per game with a career-high 21 against Nebraska.

In 1959, after the basketball season was complete, he decided to come back out for track in his specialty, the high jump; he cleared 6-6 3/4 and finished second in the CU Invitational (to Wyoming's Jerry Lane, who jumped an inch higher) which topped his previous personal best of 6-2 as a senior at Denver's Manual High School, where he was coached by CU great and Hall of Fame member Gil Cruter. Just as important if not more so were his contributions as a student leader, becoming the first African-American elected by the student body as commissioner of the ASUC (Associated Students of the University of Colorado); he led a delegation of students and testified on the resolutions against discrimination in housing and employment practices and headed the SFHD, Students For Human Dignity, two of many causes he championed that helped change CU in a positive way forever.

Upon his graduation from CU in 1960, he clerked for a Denver judge, and after marrying fellow CU grad JoKatherine Holliman (the first African American woman on CU's homecoming court), they relocated to Washington D.C. where he would work for Colorado senator Peter Dominic in 1963 and 1964 while earning his Juris Doctor of Law degree from Howard University. In '64, he was recruited by IBM and took a position as the first African-American corporate attorney at the company's headquarters in Armonk, N.Y., and returned to Colorado two years later (1966) to be the junior counsel for IBM in its Niwot offices. He almost made a successful bid to become a state representative in 1968 against Tom Bastien, but lost by just 100 votes; he then opened a private law practice in Denver with partner Morris Cole.

Dave Logan

- 1975 First Team All-American (Sporting News)
- 1974 Playboy Preseason All-American
- Averaged 14.1 Points in 58 Basketball Games
- Drafted by Three Professional Leagues (NFL, NBA, MLB)

A first-team All-American as a senior in 1975 as selected by The Sporting News and a Playboy Preseason All-American prior to his junior season, the lone Buff to ever make the squad as a non-senior. Logan caught 68 passes for 1,078 yards in his CU career, numbers that both ranked second at the time of his graduation and remain in the top 20 all-time. He led the Buffs in receiving in both 1974 and 1975, after finishing second to the late J.V. Cain as a sophomore in 1973.

A two-sport star at CU (he also lettered in basketball, averaging 14.1 points in 58 career games), Logan is one of a handful to ever be drafted in three sports: he was a third round pick by Cleveland in the 1976 NFL Draft (65th overall); the Kansas City Kings nabbed him in the ninth round of the '76 NBA Draft; and the Cincinnati Reds had drafted him as an infielder and pitcher in the 19th round of baseball's June draft out of high school (longtime MLB outfielder Dave Winfield was also drafted in three). He played in 119 NFL games with Cleveland (1976-83) and Denver (1984) catching 263 passes for 4,250 yards and 24 touchdowns in his pro career. Logan settled back home in Colorado where he starred as a prep. He is a longtime participant in the radio sports talk scene in Denver, and was the radio play-by-play voice of the Denver Broncos after several years as the color analyst. He also worked several CU football games for KCNC-TV in the 1990s as the color commentator.

Cliff Meely

- First-Team All-American
- Three-Time All-Big Eight Performer
- Set 16 Colorado and 8 Big Eight Conference Records
- Six-year National Basketball Association Veteran
- Retired Number (No. 22)

In exiting CU following his senior year with all the scoring records and as the runner-up in all the rebounding marks, some three-plus decades later Cliff Meely still holds the mark for single game (47), season (729) scoring, and is third in career points (1,940) and second in rebounds (971). His name remains either at or near the top in over a dozen statistical categories, and he still owns the two top single season scoring averages in CU history: 28.0 as a senior in 1970-71 and 23.8 as a sophomore in 1968-69. The 12.1 rebounds per game average for his career remains one of the top numbers ever posted collegiately.

Meely led Colorado to the Big Eight title in 1968-69, as the Buffaloes were 21-7 with a 10-4 mark in league play. A three-time All-Big Eight team member, he earned first-team All-America honors as a senior, and set 16 school and eight conference records during his career. Additionally, Meely's 24.3 points per game scoring average is still a school record. Meely was a leader on the Buffs' last Big Eight Conference title team. Overall, the Buffs won 49 games during his time on the CU campus under late coach Russell "Sox" Walseth, the fourth most over any three-year span in CU history, with his jersey number (20) just one of two retired in CU annals. Meely went on to play six seasons in the National Basketball Association with the Houston Rockets and Los Angeles Lakers.

In 1995-96, Meely was named to the Associated Press' all-time Big Eight Conference Basketball first team. Along with Meely, the-late Wayman Tisdale (Oklahoma), Danny Manning (Kansas) Jo Jo White (Kansas State), and Rolando Blackman (Kansas State) were named to the team. In addition the conference honor, Meely also earned the NCAA's Silver Anniversary Award presented to six former collegiate athletes who have gained recognition or done great work in their postgraduate careers.

Russell "Sox" Walseth

- Six letters at Colorado in basketball and baseball
- Winningest coach in CU men's basketball history
- Six-time conference Coach of the Year
- First to coach the men's and women's program at the same school

A player and long-time basketball coach at Colorado, Russell "Sox" Walseth was likely the first and one of just a few to have coached both the men's and women's program at the same NCAA school. His time at CU spanned 38 years, starting as an athlete in the 1940s when he lettered in both basketball and baseball. He then worked as the head freshman coach for five years (three under his coach, Frosty Cox, and two under H.B. Lee); after two years as head coach at South Dakota State, he replaced Lee for the 1956-57 season and would proceed to coach 20 Buffalo teams. The winningest coach in CU men's basketball history, posting a 261-245 record, the Buffs won three Big Eight titles under his direction, in 1961-62, 1962-63 and 1968-69. He was the Big Eight Conference coach of the year on five occasions, and his star players included Ken Charlton, Jim Davis, Cliff Meely and Scott Wedman. He then coached the women's team from 1980-83, then known as the "Lady Buffs," compiling an impressive 77-21 record. That mark included an incredible 43-0 record at home, and once again, he earned coach of the year accolades. The basketball floor at the Coors Events/Conference Center is named after him, and he is a member of the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame.
