

CHAUNCEY BILLUPS

One of the most talented players in Colorado basketball history, Billups helped transform the Buffaloes into an NCAA tournament contender in the two years he played at CU. His hard work, dedication and exceptional basketball skills not only drew the attention of college basketball aficionados, but of professional teams as well. Billups was the No. 3 overall selection of the first round of the NBA Draft in 1997 by the Boston Celtics. As a captain of the Detroit Pistons, Billups led the team to the NBA championship in 2004 earning the NBA Finals Most Valuable Player award by averaging 21 points and 5.2 assists in the five games.
