2014-15 (RS-Junior): Transfer from Providence College • Per NCAA transfer rules, Fortune will sit out the 2014-15 season • Selected the Buffaloes over LSU and Valparaiso • Will have two years of eligibility remaining with the Buffaloes • Coach Boyle says: "We're extremely excited about Josh and what he brings to our program. "He's a guy who is battled tested in the BIG EAST for two years, played a lot minutes and played in a lot of big games. To bring a player like that into your program, only helps us. The fact that Josh sits out a year, I think is a good thing . . . it will allow him time to grow and develop parts of his game that he needs to work on, and it will give him a year to get use to our system what we expect and what we're all about. He can shoot the ball, shoot it from deep, which is something our team needs. Three-point shooting is one of the areas we probably under-performed last year, so Josh really helps us."

Texas — among a loaded class in the Lone Star State that had three prospects sign with Kentucky.

Academics: Open Option major in CU's College of Arts and Sciences.

Personal: Born July 26, 1995 • Son of David and Shonda Thomas • On selecting CU, "Going up there (to visit Boulder), I didn't know what to expect. Everything about Colorado was perfect. At first, I didn't even think Colorado would have been where I would choose to go. But once I got out there, it completely turned my impression about it. I loved everything about it. The players made me feel like family. The coaching staff was just real up front and I trust them. They won the Pac-12 (in 2012) and you can tell the fans really show them a lot of love. It is just real fun to be around it and I wanted to be a part of that." • Wore jersey number 13 in high school and was a member of the National Honors Society.

CU scouting report: A pass-first, very unselfish type of point guard who already has international basketball experience (USA Basketball, three-on-three competition in Indonesia with FIBA's USA team) gained through summer travels • Tremendous first step and ball-handling skills • A very good on-ball defender with great anticipation.

Boyle's take: "He's got a good basketball body, but he's a little slight right now and knows he's going to spend some time in the weight room. I love that he can get wherever he wants to go on the court. Plus, he's got lots of experience — more than the typical incoming freshman. I expect him to have an impact right away. In fact, I'm counting on it."

Academics: Is an Open Option major in Colorado's College of Arts and Sciences.

Personal: Born Dec. 8, 1995 in Denver, Colo. • Son of Darryl and Lori Collier • Youngest of four siblings (Darryl Jr., Daye, Candice) • Played on the same AAU team (Kansas City Run GMC) as fellow CU teammate Tory Miller • Also played with Ronnie Harrell (Creighton) and AAU teammate Connor Frankamp (University of Kansas) • Lists winning state championship at the Coors Events Center during his senior year and playing for Team USA U-16 as his biggest moments of prep career • Verbally committed to the Buffs on May 7, 2013 • Wore jersey number 24 in high school.

New Hampton Prep [N.H.]

New Hampton Prep [N.H.]: Three-time All-Conference and was an all-state selection his senior year • Averaged nine points a game during the 2013-14 season at New Hampton Prep (N.H.) • Member of the New England Prep School (NEPSAC) AAA Athletic Conference runner-up basketball team (scored 14 points in title game) • Led New Hampton with 21 points and 12 rebounds in the semifinals against St. Thomas More • Also had a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds in the quarterfinals • Helped New Hampton finish with a 22-8 record • Averaged 12.3 points, 6.0 rebounds and shot 58.7 percent from the field during 2012-13 his junior season at New Hampton • Played on the same AAU team (Kansas City Run GMC) as fellow CU signee Dominique Collier • Committed to CU on Oct. 19, 2013.

CU scouting report: Big, wide-bodied player who is physically ready to compete at the next level • Roster is well-stocked with runners, jumpers and finesse-type players — and Miller also can play with finesse, but he's best as an enforcer type • Good hands, long arms make him a capable shot blocker; plays bigger than 6-9 • What makes him special is his big body, his ability to use to his advantage on defense and his ability to lower his center of gravity, making him difficult to move.

Coach Boyle's take: "Tory gives us a wide presence that we haven't had since I've been here. He's a skilled player and very competitive. With his body type and strength, he can finish down low with contact. He doesn't look like he would be a good jumper, but he is. Plus, he's 19 years old now and will bring an age and maturity level to us that's a little further along than you'd find in a typical freshman. He's got all the physical tools necessary to be a very good Pac-12 player and he understands what it means to be successful."

Academics: Intended major is pre-med.

Personal: Born March 20, 1995 in Kansas City, Kan. • Son of Bryant Miller Sr. and Sherri Stewart • Comes from a large family of three older brothers, Nicholas, Sean, Justin; older sister, Crystal; younger sister, Kelsey • Lists graduating from New Hampton Prep as his biggest moment of prep career • Career aspirations include becoming a doctor or teacher after graduating college • Selected jersey No. 14 to wear at CU because that was his number at New Hampton Prep • Joins fellow New Hampton Prep teammate Josh Repine on the CU roster.
