BOULDER, Colo., Mar. - Colorado's search for a successor to Bebe Lee as head basketball coach has boiled down to three men. Two - Russell "Sox" Walseth of South Dakota State and Dan Kahler of Arkansas City, Kan. junior college - have already visited the Boulder campus for interviews with Athletic Director Harry Carlson.

The third - Steve Belko of Idaho State - will be interviewed here as soon as his 1956 season ends. Belko's team met Seattle in a playoff for an NCAA regional tournament berth Monday night.

Carlson indicated he would probably make his selection sometime next week. "We have three fine candidates under consideration and I feel that any of the three would do an excellent job," he commented Monday.
