Postseason Information

The presence of four Big Eight men's basketball institutions in the 1996 NCAA Tournament and two schools in the 1996 NIT marked the 12th straight year (since the NCAA bracket expansion to 64 teams) that at least five conference members have advanced to postseason play. Over that time period, a minimum of three teams have earned NCAA tourney bids annually with a high of six berths in 1992 and 1993. The all-time Big Eight best for postseason entrants is seven in 1992, 1993 and 1995, with one NIT qualifier each in 1992 and 1993, and two in 1995. The league completed the NCAA tourney with a 4-4 mark, and a 6-1 record in the NIT, giving it a 10-5 postseason record in 1996. Since the bracket expansion, the league owns a 71-52 (.577) mark in the tourney, including a 57-25 (.695) tally as the higher seed, 13-26 (.333) as a lower seed and 1-1 (.500) when having the same seed as its opposition.

Nebraska is the 13th Big Eight institution to have reached the NIT semifinals. It joins Colorado (1940) as the only league institutions to have won the postseason NIT. Kansas' appearance in the NCAA "Sweet 16" gives the Big Eight at least once such qualifier in every year since the bracket expansion, with the exception of 1990. Since 1985, Big Eight teams have advanced to the round of 16 a total of 19 times.
