CU 2011 recruiting class analysis: Greg Henderson

By TOM KENSLE |  No CommentsGREG HENDERSON, DB, 5-11, 185, Corona (Calif.) Norco HS

COACH JON EMBREE SAYS: “What jumps out at you is his speed – he can flat, out go. And he has ball skills. If he can’t make the interception he’ll knock it down.”

WHAT YOU MAY NOT KNOW: Recorded seven interceptions as a senior and was ranked the No. 10 cornerback in California by ESPN.

MY TAKE: Another guy that the University of Washington wanted. That’s good enough for me. All-conference in 100 meters is what coaches look for in a cornerback.

CU 2011 recruiting class analysis: Sherrad Harrington

By TOM KENSLE |  No Comments

SHERRAD HARRINGTON, DB, 6-1, 175, Washington (D.C.) Woodson HS

COACH JON EMBREE SAYS: “He’s very physical, plays with great passion. He has a 4.3 gpa (grade point average). This kid will be a team captain one day. He’s a special kid.”

WHAT YOU MAY NOT KNOW: Sherrad lost his father to cancer last year and has done modeling to help pay the rent

MY TAKE: It’s been my experience through three decades of covering college athletics that recruits who are ambitious and outgoing usually make it and contribute. Love that size for a cornerback.
