CU men's and women's hoops signees earn honors

By TOM KENSLE |  No Comments

For their first full-cycle recruiting efforts, Colorado basketball coaches Tad Boyle and Linda Lappe deserve props for signing players receiving national recognition.

Two Boyle signees from Southern Californian made Rivals.com's final national top 150: No. 134 Damiene Cain, a 6-foot-7, 230-pound power forward at Harvard Westlake HS in North Hollywood, and No. 146 Spencer Dinwiddie, a 6-4 point guard at Taft HS in Woodland Hills. Both signed in November and will be incoming freshmen this fall.

One of Lappe's November signees made the prestigious women's Parade All-America team that will be in the May 15 issue: 6-2 forward Jen Reese of Clackamas, Ore.

Parade is an insert to the Sunday Denver Post.
