

CU football

CU Buffs' Ryan Miller invited to East-West Shrine Game

By Kyle Ringo Camera Sports Writer
Boulder Daily Camera

Posted:12/16/2011 06:53:46 PM MST

Colorado senior guard Ryan Miller has been invited to participate in the East-West Shrine game Jan. 21, in St. Petersburg, Fla., CU sports information director Dave Plati said.

Quarterback Tyler Hansen also could play in the game. He is currently the first alternate quarterback for the game and would participate if one of the other invited quarterbacks cannot play or chooses not to.

Kevin McDermond, a spokesman for the Under Armour Senior Bowl, said that postseason all-star game played each year in Mobile, Ala., is just beginning to announce its rosters and send out invitations to players. Former Buffs Nate Solder and Jalil Brown played in the senior bowl last year.

Running back Rodney Stewart, wide receiver Toney Clemons, guard Ethan Adkins and defensive end/linebacker Josh Hartigan could also be in line for invitations to any of the all-star games this season.

A new all-star game, the AstroTurf NFLPA Collegiate Bowl, sponsored by the NFL Players Association, will be held in Carson, Calif., also on Jan. 21. Organizers of that game will consider inviting some juniors to fill the 100 roster spots.

Close Window

Send To Printer