UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

Founded in 1876 at the foot of the Flatirons, 136 years has transformed the University of Colorado from a lone building on a bleak, windswept hill to one of the nation's leading public research institutions. Established in 1861, the University was formally founded in 1876, the year Colorado became a state.

The Boulder campus encompasses almost 800 acres on the main campus, east campus (which includes a research park), Williams Village and the Mountain Research Station north of nearby Nederland (which supports ecology, chemistry and geology). In 1996 the Board of Regents purchased 308 acres of land in unincorporated Boulder County, now informally known as the south campus, in an effort to insure the growth of the University well into the 21st century.

While 30,000 students are educated on the main campus, another 13,000 study at the University of Colorado at Denver, the University of Colorado Anschutz Campus (Aurora) and the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. Nine elected Regents and President Bruce Benson lead the four-campus system, while each campus has a Chancellor who serves as the chief academic and administrative officer. Dr. Phil DiStefano is in his fourth year as the chancellor of the Boulder campus.

Students can enter any of 10 schools and colleges offering more than 2,500 courses in 150 fields, representing a full range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, physical and biological sciences, the fine and performing arts, and the professions. CU-Boulder is regularly ranked among the best of the United States' public universities by the Fiske Guide to Colleges, and a 2010 USA Today/Princeton Review survey rated the University of Colorado as the fifth-best value among American public colleges.

CU-Boulder has played a major role in NASA space programs, designing and building many scientific instruments flown in outer space, and graduated 18 men and women who became astronauts, including the late Jack Swigert, one of the three astronauts in the crippled Apollo 13 mission who made it dock to Earth safely from the moon. When the Hubble Space Telescope was launched in 1990, it was carrying seven major instruments, including a high-resolution spectrograph to study the evolution of stars and designed and built by an international science team led by astronomer Jack Brandt of CU-Boulder. Since Hubble has been up, CU-Boulder faculty and students have been among the top users of Hubble of any institution in the world. CU-Boulder is the only university in the country where undergraduate students have operated a NASA satellite.

The University has produced 19 Rhodes Scholars, five of which were former football student-athletes at CU, with Jim Hansen the most recent recipient in 1992. Faculty member Thomas Cech, a distinguished professor of chemistry and biochemistry, won the 1989 Nobel Prize in chemistry. Other notable alumni include former United States Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, former big band leader Glenn Miller and actors Robert Redford and Chris Meloni, the latter starring for years on Law & Order: Special Victims Unit, and the creators of South Park, Trey Parker and Matt Stone.

If the aphorism, "Somewhere between the Rockies and reality," seems too good to believe, then come for a visit. Start with a walk on the historic Pearl Street Mall, a downtown pedestrian mall that is the ceremonial heart of the city actually that works despite the efforts of its street theatre.

Visitors may be so taken in by the scenery, the mall, Tudors and Victorians they may forget the University that put it all together. From Pearl, Broadway leads directly onto campus where the University of Colorado Museum and the CU Heritage Center, in the original Old Main building, which introduces the University's past and present. The recently completed ATLAS building is one of the most state-of-the-art structures on any college campus.

Take in the fresh mountain air on any part of 100 miles of trails and 30,000 acres of open space. Climb the Flatirons or in Eldorado Canyon State Park. Swim or board sail at the Boulder Reservoir while elite runners sprint around it. Take in a pro sporting event down the road in Denver, just one of 13 cities with teams in all four pro leagues.

Rest assured, like the prophesy of an Arapaho Indian Chief, "If you leave Boulder, you will return."

HEAD COACH ROY EDWARDS

Roy Edwards is now in his seventh season as head coach of the University of Colorado men's golf team, having been named to the position on July 14, 2006, following in the footsteps of the only two coaches the program had ever known over a span of six decades.

Edwards, 36, is just the third full-time men's golf coach in Buffalo history. He came to CU with an impressive pedigree, joining the Buffaloes from his alma mater, the University of Kansas, where he had served as the assistant for both the men's and women's programs for the previous four years (2002-06). He held the same position at Vanderbilt University for a year prior to returning to KU.

Edwards replaced the late Mark Simpson, who passed away from complications due to lung cancer in December 2005. Simpson had held the post since 1977, when he followed in the footsteps of his college head coach, Les Fowler. Fowler took over as player-coach in 1948 and remained on board until Simpson, his assistant, replaced him. Thus, Edwards is only the program's third full-time head coach since 1948.

"Coach Fowler and Coach Simpson have built an extremely proud legacy at the University of Colorado," Edwards said when he was hired. "It's a privilege to follow them at CU, which is truly one of the great institutions in the world and it is an honor to be named its head men's golf coach."

Edwards is faced with the most daunting task in CU golf history: with the Buffaloes joining the Pacific-10 Conference on July 1, 2011, making it the Pac-12, Colorado is now a member of the most prestigious men's golf conference in the nation. As many as seven schools have regularly occupied the top 30 over the last several seasons. But he is up to the challenge and the program is positioned to join the nation's elite.

It took less than three years for Edwards to put his stamp on the CU golf program, perhaps in no bigger way than completing the dream of his two predecessors. One of the few major golf programs in the nation without its own true home golf course and facilities, Edwards played an integral part in working with Colorado alum Steve Kerr in the latter's acquisition of Vista Ridge Golf Club in Erie in early 2009. The club officially became Colorado National Golf Club in March of that year and now serves as the official home for the university's men's and women's golf teams. In 2012, construction was completed on a state-of-the-art practice facility at the course that matches any in the nation.

He also initiated the Colorado Partners program, a group that quickly grew to over 100 members who contribute financially to augment the school's golf budget, and established the Colorado Golf Day which is an annual celebration and fundraiser for CU golf.

On the course, the team has enjoyed success and endured some struggles but has continually shown promise. In 2011-12, his sixth season, the Buffs stormed out of the gate to win its first two fall tournaments, their own Mark Simpson Invitational and Air Force's Miranda Invitational; the victories propelled CU to an early No. 10 national ranking. The team successfully navigated its way through its first season in the ultra-competitive Pac-12 Conference, finishing eighth in a league championship that featured eight teams ranked in the top 30. The Buffs just missed qualifying for the NCAA championships but junior Derek Fribbs was selected to play as an individual.

The 2009-10 and 2010-11 teams, his fourth and fifth, respectively, had their moments but did not advance to the postseason, though Justin Bardgett qualified individually in 2010. The Buffs finished ninth and 10th in their last two appearances in the Big 12 Conference meet. The disappointments only created more resolve in the program and thus the turnaround in year six.

His third Buffalo team (2008-09) sported one of the nation's dynamic duos in Patrick Grady and Derek Tolan, as each won two tournaments and combined for 14 top 10 finishes. But the team was also balanced as a whole, with 32 top 20 performances posted by seven different golfers, and recorded a 74.06 stroke average, second lowest in school history (topped only by 73.77 in 2003-04). The Buffs posted 11 top 10 finishes in major tournaments, the second-most in school history that included a record-tying seven in the top five, and highlighted by a 34-stroke win in the DU-Ron Moore and three runner-up finishes in the USF Olympic Club, Western Intercollegiate and its own CU-Stevenson Ranch Invitational.

In earning a fourth straight trip to the NCAA's, in the Big 12 Championships, the Buffs posted their best conference finish in 28 years when they took second place; it tied for the largest improvement from one season to another in Big 12 history after finishing 10th in 2008 (CU moved from 11th to 3rd from 1997 to 1998 as did Missouri on one occasion). The Buffs were in the hunt for the title until the back nine of the fourth and final round, when Oklahoma State finally was able to get some distance and eventually won by 14 shots.

His second team, in 2007-08, became just the third in school history to win two major tournaments in the same season, as the Buffs won the Louisiana Classics and the Ohio State Kepler Intercollegiate. The Buffs finished 10th in the Big 12 meet, which moved to a 72-hole format for the first time, and was again invited to the NCAA's, placing 18th in the Central Regional. Junior Derek Tolan was one of two individuals to advance out of the regional into the finals, the first Buff to do so since 1993.

Edwards' first CU team (2006-07) had moderate success, and finished 11th in the Big 12 Championships; while that was disappointing, his team did something that neither Fowler's or Simpson's did, qualify for the NCAA Championships (though in fairness, more teams are invited today than when they coached, but it still was an impressive accomplishment). The team placed 20th in the NCAA Central Regional.

At Kansas, he was heavily involved in recruiting and the day-to-day functions for both the men's and women's teams, managed the Jayhawks' Birdie Club and was the main contact for both golf camps. A KU graduate, he returned to his alma mater in August 2002 as the assistant coach for both the men's and women's programs and further developed all the skills necessary to one day become a head coach. Among his many duties were coordinating and managing a $1 million-plus fundraising campaign for KU's golf practice facility and establishing an annual booster club program.

During his time at Kansas, he was one of three finalists for the Golf Coaches Association of America Assistant Coach of the Year in 2004 and helped coach six first-team All-Big 12 players (five men, one woman) and four Academic All-Americans. He started his coaching career as a volunteer/graduate assistant in 1998, working three years in that capacity before moving on to Vanderbilt for his first full-time assistant coaching position. During this time, he was also the Junior Golf Director for the Kansas Golf Association, running all activities for over 600 junior members of the KGA.

He was the assistant for both the men's and women's teams at Vanderbilt for the 2001-02 season. He was a part of history as both teams experienced two of the best seasons in the programs' existence the year he was a part of the program. He had a hand in coaching a pair of first-team All-Southeastern Conference players, including Brandt Snedeker, a first-team All-American, the 2007 PGA Tour Rookie of the Year and current star on the Tour.

Between KU and Vanderbilt, he coached five players who attained some level of All-American status, ranging from first-team to honorable mention.

A three-year member of the Jayhawk golf team, he lettered as a senior under legendary and long-time coach Ross Randall and earned his bachelor's of science degree in business administration from Kansas in 2000. Simultaneously while finishing his degree, he worked as a volunteer assistant coach for the men's team. His career playing highlights include being named the PGA Midwest Section Player of the Year in 1995 and the Heart of America Four-Ball champion in 1997. As a student, he was also heavily involved on KU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and held several leadership roles on campus.

Simpson and Randall were good friends, and their teams would cross paths during the regular season four or five on the average before the league championships. Not including his year at Vanderbilt, Edwards was with the Jayhawks for 56 tournaments as a player or assistant coach since 1996 that the two schools were in the same field, aiding his familiarity with the CU program.

Born October 14, 1976 in Kansas City, Mo., but truly a native of Hutchinson, Kan., he was a four-year letterman in golf at Hutchinson (Kan.) High School under legendary Kansas high school coach Rusty Hilst, one of his early mentors in the game. His hobbies include playing golf, cooking and traveling, and he was also an Eagle Scout in high school. His father, R.A., is a distinguished KU alum who was awarded the 2002 Fred Ellsworth Medallion for "unique and significant service to the university" (which two grandparents also earned). An uncle, Ray Evans, is recognized as one of the greatest athletes in KU history, as he was a two-time All-American in basketball (1942-43) and was KU's first football All-American after returning from World War II in 1947.

Edwards is married to the former Shelly Bonfantine of Albuquerque, N.M., as they wed on July 7, 2007 (07-07-07); she is a former golfer at the University of New Mexico. They are the parents of two sons, Ashton Ross (4) and Luke Leo (1).

ASSISTANT COACH JON LEVY

Jon Levy is in his second year as the assistant coach of the University of Colorado men's golf team, joining the program on September 6, 2011, from the Golf Channel.

Levy, 36, has an impressive resume which includes experience in golf, coaching, marketing and communications. He has been a head coach at two junior colleges in Arizona, coaching one to a NJCAA national championship, possibly making him the only assistant coach in Division I who has led a program to a national title.

Prior to coming to CU, he worked for a year as the associate editor at the Golf Channel for the organization's website, where he had duties as both an editor and a writer. He also was the director of communications for the Gateway Tour, based in Scottsdale, Ariz., for three years (2007-10), where he handled all media relations, writing, communication and public relations functions. In his last year with the Gateway Tour, he also served as the head coach at Paradise Valley Community College.

Following his playing career, Levy went into teaching in the Phoenix area. Soon after relocating there, he was named head coach at Scottsdale Community College, traditionally one of the winningest junior college programs in men's golf. During his tenure, SCC won four Arizona Community College Athletic Conference (ACCAC) titles, and in his final year there, the Fighting Artichokes won the 2007 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) championship. He was named the NJCAA National Coach of the Year for the 2006-07 season.

He graduated in 1998 from Iowa State University with a degree in Speech Communication and minor in German. He was four-year letterman on the golf team for the Cyclones under coaches Dale Anderson and Jamie Bermel, and was captain his senior year. He was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 member.

After graduation, he competed twice in PGA Tour Qualifying and won two mini-tour events in five years playing on various professional circuits through the United States and Canada.

He was born August 22, 1976 in Princeton, N.J., and graduated from Groves High School (Birmingham, Mich.) where he lettered in golf and skiing. His hobbies include running, skiing, fishing and anything outdoors. In 1999 as a young professional out of school, he was in a NIKE television advertisement with Tiger Woods (called the Driving Range: he is the golfer next to Woods in the blue and white striped shirt; see it here: www.youtube.com/watch?v=qvK1K2tmJU8).

THE GOLDEN BUFFALOES

JASON BURSTYN

6-0, 170, Sr., 3L, Miami, Fla. (Palmetto)

College—This Season (Sr.): He enjoyed quite a fall, leading the team in stroke average with a 71.65 figure, the fourth best fall average in school history. He owned a minus-.06 stroke count in relation to par, which was the 45th best figure in the nation. He won his first two tournaments of his collegiate career, claiming the individual Ballyneal Challenge (4-under 138) and then winning the Air Force Falcon Invitational (9-under 207, opening and closing with rounds of 68 with a 71 in-between). He also tied for seventh in the New Mexico Tucker (+1, 217) and led the team with nine subpar rounds, five in the 60s. All 17 of his rounds were between 68 and 76, and with 252 out of 306 holes played scoring par or better (four eagles, 50 birdies, 197 pars), that 82.4 percent figure was a team best. Nationally, his first round scoring average (69.5) was fourth, his greens-in-regulation percentage (73.9) was 18th, his par-4 scoring norm (4.02) was 39th, his five eagles tied for the second-most and his ham-and-egg ratio of 12/2 tied for 12th.

2011-12 (Jr.): He played in all 11 tournaments and enjoyed a breakout season, posting a career season best 73.79 stroke average, good for fourth on the team, as were his 82 birdies; his 383 pars out of 612 overall played and nine subpar rounds were both second most on the squad. He owned a 73.27 opening round average, second best on the Buffs, a number skewed by one bad round (82) at the New Mexico Tucker, otherwise it was 72.40 for the other 10 meets, which would have been the team high. He posted CU's top individual finish in the Pac-12 Championships, finishing 26th with a 77-72-71-72—292 (+4) scorecard. After opening with a 5-over 77 and bogeying his first two holes of the second round, he played his last 52 holes at 3-under par and went on to lead the team with 47 pars, 16th most in the field, and tied for the second most birdies (11) and fewest bogeys (13). The 292 score was the third best ever posted by a Buff in a 72-hole conference championship. His spring stroke norm was 73.82, third best by a Buffalo, as 21 of the 22 rounds for the semester fell between 67 and 78. He tied for 17th in the Wyoming Cowboy Classic, his top placing for the spring, with a 69-72-67—208 scorecard (-2). He played in all four fall events, averaging 73.75 strokes per the 12 rounds and topped by a ninth-place tie in CU's own Mark Simpson Invitational to open the year (70-73-70—213; -3). That was his best overall performance in the fall, though he did log two rounds in the 60s to open tournaments, a 3-under 69 at the AFA Miranda and a 4-under 67 at the Alister Mackenzie. He dropped both matches in the Colorado Cup, a Ryder Cup-style dual against Colorado State. In the fall, he led the team in fairways hit (78.0 percent) with his 72.0 first round scoring average was the third best on the team.

2010-11 (Soph.): He finished third on the team in scoring average (74.77), with his 74.67 spring average second best. He played 30 total rounds, including eight as an individual as 18 of his other 22 counted toward team scoring. He had the best second round scoring average on the team at 74.30, with all but two rounds between 71 and 75; he averaged 75.0 for the first and final round. His top finish was a runner-up effort in the Front Range Individual (71-71—142 at AFA's Eisenhower Blue), which was just prior to his best showing in a major tournament when he tied for 13th at the Bandon Dunes Championship (76-71-74—221). After playing in just two fall events, he appeared in eight of the nine in the spring, when he opened with his best round for the year, a 1-under 69 in the Battle at the Beach; his 218 total (+8) led the team. He ranked 45th nationally in fairways hit percentage for the season (75.7 percent), and was 79th in the nation in the fall with a par-5 scoring average of 4.67. His final Golfweek national individual ranking was No. 470, second best on the team.

2009-10 (Fr.-RS): He saw action in 10 tournaments, five in the spring and five fall, including three as an individual in the latter. He owned a 75.9 stroke average for the season, sixth-best on the team, with his 74.88 spring figure the fourth-best. He earned his way on to the travel squad for the season opener, where he tied for 90th in the New Mexico Tucker Invitational (235, +19). He tied for 81st without his rounds counting toward CU's team score in Air Force Falcon Invitational, highlighted by a second round 71, and tied for 86th in UCLA's Collegiate at CordeValle, where he did count for the team. His best fall finish was his best season effort, a tie for fourth in the Colorado State Individual (71-78—149). In the spring, he had three top 40 showings, topped by a tie for 30th in the Big 12 Championships (73-70-79-75—297, +9), where he had a team-high 11 birdies and finished sixth among the 15 freshmen competing. He also tied for 36th at the Oregon Duck Invitational (223, +7) and for 38th at the Texas A&M Aggie Invitational (221, +5), his best 54-hole tournament of the year in stroke count in relation to par.

2008-09 (Fr.): Redshirted; did not see any tournament competition but competed in all team practices.

High School—He prepped at the city's Palmetto High School, lettering three times under coach Mike Klekotka, and was selected to the 2005, 2006 and 2007 Miami Herald All-Dade County golf teams in the talent rich area. Owned an even par high school scoring average (36.0 for nine holes). He was the school's No. 1 golfer his sophomore through senior years. He was the district champion as a junior, the regional runner-up as a sophomore, and was inducted into the Palmetto Senior High Hall of Fame as a senior, when he was the Westminster champion.

Other—2012: He tied for 29th overall but was the second low amateur in the Colorado Open, turning in a 71-71-68-71—281 (-3) performance. He tied for 12th overall and was the low amateur in the MLGT Golf Tour's second "Major" of the season at PGA National in West Palm Beach, Fla. (71-68—139; -5). He won the qualifying round for the 2012 Florida Amateur with a career-best 63. 2011: Tied for 31st in the Florida Amateur (72-74-74-75—295, +11). 2010: Finished fourth in local U.S. Amateur Qualifying in Plantation, Fla. (66-75—141); he was the second alternate out of the region for the national event. 2008: Finished third in the FCWT (Future Collegians World Tour) Boys Invitational at TPC Sawgrass, recording a 78-71—149 scorecard. He tied for 11th in the FCWT Doral Classic (69-72-81—222, +9); he was one shot out of the lead after recording one of just two rounds in 60s the first day of the tournament. 2007: He had four top 20 finishes in FWCT competition, the top one a runner-up effort at the Innisbrook Open (74-70-72—216). He also tied for ninth in the Inverrary Classic (74-75—149), tied for 16th in the TPC Sawgrass as well as in the Boys' National Championship at the PGA National Golf Club (Champions course). He also had a fourth place finish at the 2007 AJGA Midwest Players Championship (-4 at Hawthorne Woods). Other Years: He posted an eighth place finish at the 2006 AJGA Fidelity Investments Junior at Trump National, and tied for 43rd in the Boys' National Championship (72 made the cut out of the 156-man field), one of higher finishes by a high school sophomore. He had a fifth-place performance (-3) at the 2005 Press Thornton Future Masters and a seventh place showing (70-71-75—216; E) at the 2005 FCWT Boys' 13-15 National Championship. The latter was one of three top 10 and five top 20 efforts the 2004-05 FCWT season; his top finish was fifth in the Doral Silver.

Best Career Round In Competition—63 (-9; Florida Amateur Qualifier, May 2010, Lago Mar CC, Plantation, Fla.)

Academics—He is majoring in Business Management at Colorado.

TYLER ENGEL

5-11, 160, Fr., RS, Castle Pines, Colo. (Regis)

College—This Season (Fr.-RS): He played in three fall tournaments, placing fourth in the Ballyneal Challenge, an individual tournament where he turned in a 72-74—146 effort (+2), and then in two others where his rounds did not count toward CU's team scoring. He tied for 31st in the Air Force Miranda Invitational (221, +5) and then placed 74th in CU's Mark Simpson Invitational, where he recorded a 3-under 69 in the second round as his first round in the 60s as a collegian.

2011-12 (Fr.): The coaching staff decided to redshirt him in his true freshman season, though he still competed in all team practices and tournament qualifiers.

High School—He became the first Regis golfer to play in four state high school championship meets (with two top seven finishes), and he also was a four-time, first-team All-League performer and led the team in stroke average four times. That included a 71.2 average his senior year, when he was the team captain and helped Regis win the Colorado 5A State team title. He earned first-team All-State honors as a sophomore and junior on the golf course, and was Academic All-State his sophomore through senior years. Those accomplishments earned him Wall of Fame honors at Regis. Under coach Craig Rogers, Regis also was the 5A regional champion in 2007, 2008 and 2009, when Engel has stroke averages of 73, 72 and 71.5., respectively. He also lettered one year in baseball (third baseman).

Other—2011: Finished 134th in the Trans-Miss at Kansas City Country Club (84-76—160). He played in the Western Junior (Beverly CC, Chicago) but missed the cut. 2010: He placed second in the AJGA (American Junior Golf Association) Aspen Golf Classic with a 72-68-74—214 (-2) score, trailing only future teammate David Oraee in the event. 2009: He placed 32nd in the Junior World Championship (78-74-77-76—305) and finishing second in the tournament's qualifier (70-74—144). Other Years: His background includes several top 10 finishes on the AJGA, FCWT and IJGT junior summer circuits since the age of 13.

Best Career Round In Competition—65 (-5; 2009 5A Colorado State Regionals, Meadow Hills GC, Aurora, Colo.)

Academics—He is majoring in Business (Accounting) at Colorado. A first-team Academic All-State team member as a senior, he was an Honor Roll student throughout high school, attaining the Highest level as a sophomore and junior and the High level as a freshman and senior. He also scored an impressive 31 on the ACT.

Personal—He was born June 10, 1992 in Buffalo, N.Y. His hobbies include snowboarding. Father (Robert) played college football at Notre Dame and Niagara.

DEREK FRIBBS

6-0, 160, Sr., 3L, Castle Rock, Colo. (Douglas County)

College—This Season (Sr.): He played in all six four tournaments and finished second on the team in stroke average with a 72.64 figure. After tying for fifth in the Ballyneal Challenge (a match between CU and Air Force players), he was on fire in the first two major tournaments, tying for third in the Air Force Miranda Invitational (211, -5) and placing third outright in CU's Mark Simpson Invitational (207, -9); he had five subpar rounds between the two meets, including four in a row, one shy of the school record. Both efforts represented his best 54-hole scores in relation to par to date entering the spring season. All 17 of his fall rounds fell between 67 and 77, and his 72.17 average for the final round was a team best. He led the team in birdies (80, the eighth most in the nation), and along with four eagles, that have him 64 subpar holes out of 306, or 20.9 percent, another team best (and 31st nationally).

2011-12 (Jr.): His 73.71 stroke average was third best on the team, and he owned the second best mid-round average of 73.25; his 100 birdies led the team as did his 10 subpar rounds. Though the team did not qualify (controversial in its own right), he played as an individual in the NCAA Championships, tying for 64th in the Bowling Green (Ky.) Regional with a 75-79-81—235 scorecard; he was a last minute replacement for an injured golfer and left for Kentucky the day after U.S. Open qualifying. He had three solid top 25 performances in the spring, opening with three consecutive 71s for 213 (-3) at Hawai'i-Hilo's Amer Ari Invitational, tying him for 23rd; he tied for 15th at the Bandon Dunes Championship (220, +7, which included a second round 68) and tied for 17th in the Wyoming Cowboy Classic (208, -2, featuring a final round 66). He saw action in three fall tournaments, recording a 73.89 stroke average for nine rounds; that was bloated by rough performance (+22) in the New Mexico Tucker, as he was under par in his first tournaments. He opened the year tying for 15th in CU's Mark Simpson Invitational (215, -1), which included his collegiate career best score of 65 in the second round, also matching his personal competitive best. He followed that up with his best 54-hole score in relation to par at the time, turning in a 73-69-70—212 (-4) scorecard in tying for eighth in the Air Force-Miranda Invitational. For the fall, he tied for 14th in the nation in average putts per round (28.7) and was eighth in putts on greens in regulation (1.73). In the individual Golfweek rankings, he finished 383rd, the highest of any of the team's non-seniors.

2010-11 (Soph.): He finished fourth on the team in stroke average with a 74.91 mark in playing the third most rounds (35), also tying for the team lead in par rounds or better (11, five subpar and six even rounds). His 73.83 final round average was a team best, with five rounds of par or better, including one of two 68s he recorded on the season. He posted the team's best score in four tournaments, including a win in the Front Range Individual where he turned in a 68-72—140 (-4) effort combined at Air Force's Eisenhower Blue and Colorado National GC. That was his lone top 20 finish for the year, but he had four tournaments where he finished between 21st and 27th, three of which came out of the chute at the start of the season. In fact, his fall stroke average of 73.33 for 12 rounds was second best on the team, with all dozen of the rounds between 68 and 76. He opened the spring with his best tournament in relation to par for the year (and for his career up to that point), turning in an even-par 216 at the Hawai'i-Hilo Invitational. His other top score in the spring came at the Wyoming Cowboy Classic in Scottsdale, where he turned in a 1-over 217. He ranked 38th nationally in fairways hit percentage for the season (76.3 percent; he was 24th in the fall after landing in the 138 in 168 drives, or 82.1 percent of the time).

2009-10 (Fr.): He enjoyed a solid freshman season, finishing fourth on the team in stroke average with a 75.19 mark for 36 rounds, the fifth-most by a freshman in school history; 31 of those counted toward team scoring. He earned his way on to the travel squad for all eight spring events and participated in 12 of CU's 13 for the year. His top finish was a tie for 28th at the Oregon Duck Invitational (223, +5), where he also had his season-best score in relation to par. At the Big 12 Championships, he tied for 36th with a 73-74-77-76—300 scorecard, but within that third round 77, he set what is believed to be a school record for the most improvement between nines: he turned at 45 but mounted an impressive comeback, scoring five birdies on the front nine in posting a 32, the low nine hole score of the day and tied for the fourth lowest nine in the tournament at Whispering Pines GC (Trinity, Texas). He participated in four of CU's five major fall tournaments, as well as in the inaugural State of Colorado Cup. He was fifth on the team in stroke average for the fall (75.27). He had one top 50 finish (tied for 50th at Air Force), but had at least one par or subpar round in three of the four meets. In the Cup matches against CSU, he was 0-2, dropping a decision in the two-man Four Ball matches and fell 1 up to Riley Arp in single play.

High School—He was selected as the 2008 Colorado Player of the Year by both the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post, garnering All-

Colorado honors from each following an outstanding senior season. He owned a 71.2 stroke average as a senior, with the crown jewel of 15 high school tournament victories coming his last time out when he won the state's 5A championship. In recording a 73-69—142 in the state meet on the Air Force Academy's Eisenhower Blue Course, he won the title by six strokes and also led Douglas Country to the state championship. He had several scores in the 60s for the year, including a 64 and a 65. He owned a 72.3 stroke average as a junior, 74.8 as a sophomore and a 75.6 as a freshman, as he earned four letters. He tied for second in the state meet as a sophomore (73-71—144 at Pinehurst CC in Denver), three strokes out of the lead, and tied for 18th as a junior at Collindale GC in Fort Collins. DCHS's most valuable player as a senior, he was a three-time, first-team All-League selection (sophomore through senior seasons; second-team as a freshman), and was also first-team All-State as a sophomore.

Other—2012: He tied for seventh in the Colorado Golf Association Stroke Play Championship at Fort Collins Country Club (77-68-69-73—287, +7), four strokes back of the top spot. He finished third in U.S. Open Local Qualifying (36-33—69) at Collindale Golf Club in Fort Collins, advancing to Sectionals, where he tied for 32nd (73-75—148, +4) at the Village Links of Glen Ellyn (Ill.). He tied for 30th in the CGA Public Links Championship at Highland Meadows GC (214, +1), though his final round 68 was the 10th best round of the day. He tied for 42nd overall but was the sixth low amateur in the Colorado Open, turning in an even-par (71-72-70-71—284) performance. 2011: He was the runner-up in the CGA's Public Links Championship at Buffalo Run GC (69-66-76—211, -5); he would have been in a playoff but his group was controversially cited for slow play at the end of the final round and all were assessed a 1-stroke penalty, costing him a chance to win. He reached the semifinals of the CGA Match Play Championships, defeating future teammate John Ahern in the quarters (2 and 1) before falling 2-up to Michael Lee. He tied for fifth in the U.S. Open Qualifier at The Heritage at Westmoor (Westminster) with an even-par 72; after playoff tiebreakers, he was the second alternate to advance to Sectionals. He also won the Hyland Hills Invitational and tied for ninth in Colorado Open Qualifier No. 4, with a 1-under 70 at Legacy Ridge to make it in the tournament. 2010: Tied for seventh in the CGA Two-Man Team Championship, partnering with Ryan Boshoven for a 69-71—140 score, six out of the lead. He tied for 15th in the CGA Stroke Play Championships with a 72-76-68-69—285 (+5) scorecard at Boulder Country Club; after making the cut at the cutline, his 137 total over the last 36 holes was fourth best in the field. He tied for 31st in the Trans-Mississippi Championship at Denver Country Club (71-74-72—217; +7). 2009: He won the CGA Junior Match Play title, winning all six matches including the championship match over David Oraee, 2 and 1, at Spring Valley Golf Club in Elizabeth; he was seeded 42nd in the field after the stroke play competition and played just three of 35 holes over par in the title pairing. He had reached the quarterfinals in the CGA State Match Play Championship (before bowing out on the 17th hole). He tied for 19th in the CGA Stroke Play Championships at Lakewood CC (73-73-70-73—289, +5). He tied for eighth with his dad (Mark) in the CGA Father-Son at Cougar Canyon in Trinidad (145, +1). 2008: Reached the round of 16 in the junior state match play, and qualified for the match play portion of the CGA Match Play Championship in being named a CGA Junior All-Star. 2007: Won the AJGA Medicus Preseason Junior at Albuquerque by two shots (66-74—140) and finished in the top 20 in all four he participated in.

Best Career Round In Competition—65 (-7; September 2008, Cherry Creek Invitational, Buffalo Run GC; -7, September 2011, CU-Mark Simpson Invitational).

Academics—He is majoring in Sociology at Colorado.

Personal—He was born August 23, 1990 in Aspen, Colo. Hobbies include skiing and most sports; he was Douglas County's outstanding physical education student for 2008-09. A cousin, Travis Sandersfeld, lettered four years as a defensive back on CU's football team from 2008-11.

JOHNNY HAYES

5-10, 165, Jr., TR, Cape Elizabeth, Maine (Cape Elizabeth/Towson)

College—This Season (Jr.): He played in two fall tournaments as an individual, making a solid debut with a ninth place finish in the CU-Mark Simpson Invitational. He was tied for second after the first two rounds (67-71—138), scoring two eagles on the day in his first competitive collegiate rounds in two years; he shot a final round 73 to finish at 5-under 211 on a course on which he had practiced only a couple of times. He tied for 53rd in the New Mexico Tucker Invitational (230, +14) in his other fall action. He joined the team the second week of school after playing well in walk-on qualifying. He transferred to CU in the fall of 2011, but had the desire to once again play college golf after playing a season-and-a-half at Towson University.

At Towson (2009-10/2010-11; Fr./Soph.)—He lettered as a freshman at Towson (Md.) University under coach Brian Yaniger, playing in 11 of the team's 13 events; he played four of six fall events as a sophomore before transferring closer to home to attend the University of Southern Maine for the spring semester. He was a candidate for the Colonial Athletic Association Rookie of the Year honor as a freshman, when he averaged 75.3 strokes per round (fourth-best on the team including a 73.9 mark for the fall). He had four top 30 and eight top 40 finishes on the year, with his best a tie for 22nd at both the George Washington Invitational and the Princeton Invitational; of his 31 rounds as a frosh, 25 of them were 77s or better. He played in the Southeast Regional as a freshman, finishing 53rd (80-69-73—222), the second best team effort with his second round 69 his best individual score for the year. As a sophomore, he had his best performance at TU, tying for sixth in Austin Peay State's F&M Bank Intercollegiate with a 10-under 206 effort (68-68-70).

High School—He lettered four times in golf, winning the Maine Class B state title his senior year. He led Cape Elizabeth to the 2006 and 2008 state championships and earned All-State honors his sophomore through senior seasons, being named the state's MVP for the latter. He also was a three-time letterman in lacrosse (attack), earning All-State honors as a junior and senior.

Other—2012: He won the Maine Amateur Match Play Championship in Vassalboro (winning the title match with a 6 and 4 result after shooting a 30 on the front nine). He finished fifth in the New England Amateur held in Falmouth, Maine (76-68-76-68—288, +4), and also tied for fifth in the Maine Amateur at Sunday River. 2009: Named honorable mention FCWT All-American team.

PHILIP JUEL-BERG

5-8, 150, Fr., HS, Vedbaek, Denmark (HHX Knord Lyngby)

College—This Season (Fr.): He competed in all six fall tournaments as a true freshman, opening with an outstanding debut in the Ballyneal Challenge, where he finished second with a 70-69—139 (3-under) scorecard. The second round 69, the only one in the 60s, was quite a feat since the average score was a 77 and it was the first time he ever played the course. Other top performances included tying for 14th in the Air Force Invitational (217, +1) and for 27th in CU's Mark Simpson Invitational (216, E). His 73.53 stroke average for the fall was the fifth best by a freshman in school history, with his four eagles and 51 birdies tied for sixth and 45th, respectively, in the nation. The last signee of the 2012 recruiting class (signing in July), he came to CU after amassing an impressive European amateur resume.

High School—There are no high school sports per se in Denmark, as students compete on club teams in their preferred sports. He was a member of the Sollerod Golf Club, competing against other area club teams for three weeks out of the year, with the rest of the year set aside for individual competition.

Other—2012: He finished third in the Maage Trophy in Holbaek, Denmark (72-66-65—203, or 7-under); fifth in the Denmark Match Play National Championship; and sixth in the Team Rudersdal Open (70-70-72—212). 2011: He was fourth in the Maage Trophy (68-69-71—209) and placed eighth in the Danish International Amateur Championship (76-77-73-74—300). 2010: he was third in the Denmark Match Play and ninth in two major events: the Sir Henry Cooper (one of the largest under-18 European tournaments), where was two-under par with a 72-70-74-70—286 (-2) and in the Saab/Belgium International, where his final round 5-under 67 was the lowest in the field and propelled him to the top 10 finish with a 4-over 292 score.

Best Career Round In Competition—65 (-5: 2012 Maage Trophy, Holbaek GC, Holbaek, Denmark; -7: 2011 Kroghens Match, Sollerod, Denmark)

Academics—He is majoring in Economics at Colorado.

Personal—He was born February 18, 1992 in Copenhagen. His hobbies include most sports, particularly soccer; he played throughout primary school (equivalent to elementary school in America) and until he was 15. He also enjoys listening to music and actions movies in general. Vedbaek is a suburb of Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark, the nation's largest city which is located on the eastern shore of the island of Zealand, separated from Sweden by the strait of Oresund. When he enrolled at Colorado, it was just the second time he had ever come to America; the first was on a family vacation when he was a child.

KRAIG McLEOD

5-11, 165, Fr., HS, Pebble Beach, Calif. (Carmel)

College—This Season (Fr.): One of three true freshmen on the team, plans call for him to redshirt this season. He will practice and participate in all qualifying events for the team. He comes to CU following an impressive high school and junior amateur career.

High School—He was a four-time, first-team All-Mission Trail League performer who was also selected as the league's most valuable player his freshman and senior seasons (and was a three-time team MVP). As a senior, he tied for first in the Northern California Boys' Championship (state qualifier), carding a 4-under 68 (five birdies, one bogey) and then tied for 12th in the California state meet at San Gabriel Country Club (2-over 73). He averaged just over 35 strokes per nine holes as a senior (after averaging 36 as a junior, 37 as a sophomore and 35 as a freshman). He was 32nd in the Northern California Boys' Championship as freshman (4-over 76) but then improved to a 20th place showing in the state meet (5-over 77), helping Carmel to a sixth place finish.

Other—2011: He posted a pair of top 10 finishes on the California state amateur circuit: he claimed fifth in the Palo Alto City Amateur (72-69—141) and seventh in the Salinas Valley Amateur (73-69—142). 2010: He was the runner-up in the FCWT Coyote Creek Open in San Jose (73-68—141), and in his final AJGA event, the Midwest Junior Players Championship, he took fourth with a 71-69-72—212 scorecard.

2009: He won two amateur meets, the NGGA Pajaro Valley Classic Fall Championship (69-73—142) and the AJGA Mexican Golf Federation Junior Open (73-72-71—216). 2008: One of his first top amateur results came as a 15-year old when he recorded three straight 70s (210; -6) to win the AJGA Junior All-Star in Lubbock, Texas.

Best Career Round In Competition—68 (-4; on three occasions; 2010 FCWT Coyote Creek Open in San Jose, Calif.; 2010 AJGA Virginia Event; 2012 California state qualifier at Butte Creek)

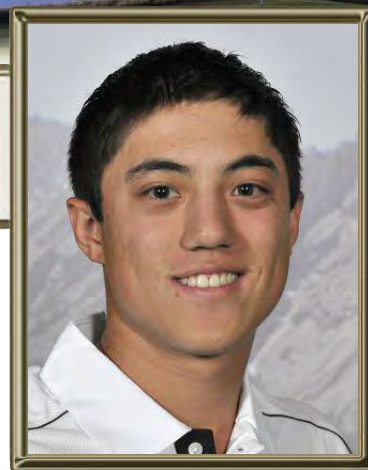

Academics—He is undecided on his major at Colorado. An honor roll member all four years in high school.

Personal—He was born July 4, 1993 in Kirkland, Wash. His hobbies include skateboard and snowboarding. Father (Kraig) played college tennis at the University of Puget Sound, and an older sister, Lauren, was a tennis player at UC-Santa Barbara.

DAVID ORAEE

5-11, 165, Soph., 1L, Greeley, Colo. (Greeley West)

College—This Season (Soph.): He played in all six fall tournaments, posting the first three top 10 finishes of his career, topped by a third place effort right out of the chute in the Ballyneal Challenge (72-73—145, +3). He tied for seventh in both the CU-Mark Simpson Invitational (210, -6) and the New Mexico Tucker Invitational (217, +1), two meets that were held three days apart. He was also tied for seventh after two rounds of the fall finale, the Alister Mackenzie Invitational, after carding his back-to-back best rounds in college (67, 69) before tying for 26th after a final round 78 (214, +1). His 72.76 stroke average for the fall was third best on the team, bolstered by 53 birdies, second-most on the Buffs and tied for 31st in the country. Nationally, he tied for 28th in fairways hit (77.0 percent) and was 22nd in greens in regulation (73.5).

2011-12 (Fr.): As a true freshman, he played in all 11 regular season tournaments (the 34 rounds being the seventh most played by a freshman at CU), with his 74.50 stroke average the fourth freshman best in school history. He led the team in eagles (5), with 79 birdies and 365 pars, meaning he shot par or better on 73.4 percent of his holes. He recorded a 74-70-76-73—293 (+5) scorecard in the Pac-12 Championships, tying him for 27th overall and for sixth among the 20-plus freshmen competing; it was CU's second best score in the event and his best effort of the spring. The 293 was the best 72-hole score ever recorded by a CU freshman in any tournament and tied for the fourth best by a golfer in any class for a conference championship. For a true frosh playing under pressure in his first collegiate championship, he had a solid tournament with 11 birdies and 46 pars, the 57 holes of par or better the second most by a Buff, with just 14 bogeys and one double to round out his effort. He also had a solid effort in the Oregon Duck Invitational, tying for 38th (225, +9) and at the Bandon Dunes Championship, where he tied for 44th (226, +13). In the first round of the Alister Mackenzie Invitational to close the fall, he shot a 4-under 67, tying the school record for the low gross score by a freshman previously set by three others – and then matched it again in the spring with a 3-under 67 in the first round of the Wyoming Cowboy Classic in Scottsdale. He played in all four tournaments (one as an individual) and in the State of Colorado Cup. After an auspicious start with an 81 in CU's Mark Simpson Invitational, he came back with five straight par rounds or better, eventually tying for 47th in the Simpson (81-70-72—223, +7); he then had a strong performance in the Air Force-Miranda Invitational, as his 71-71-72—214 scorecard tied him for 12th. He was 1-1 in the Colorado Cup, winning his single match (4 and 3 versus Steve Sorenson), but lost the four ball match (2 and 1). In the final fall tournament, he recorded his collegiate best round of 67 in the Alister Mackenzie in Fairfax, Calif., eventually tying for 52nd.

High School—As a senior, he was both the All-Colorado and the 5A Front Range Player of the Year, when he owned a 70.0 stroke average. He won the Colorado 5A high school individual title at Aurora's Valley Country Club, with his 70-72—

142 (-2) scorecard good for a one-shot win; he was the only player under par in the first round and was 3-over at the turn in the second before blistering the back nine with a 33 score to clinch the win. He was the first four-year All-State selection from Weld County, the Class 4A Northern Region Player of the Year twice, and Greeley West's first 5A state champion in any sport. In lettering four times at Greeley West, his stroke average was 71.72 as a freshman (with a low round 65 that included a hole-in-one) and then 71 or lower the next three years. A four-year letterman in golf for coach Larry Brinz, he captained the team his sophomore through senior seasons. He also lettered twice in basketball.

Other—2012: He was the co-medalist in the stroke play qualifying for the Colorado Golf Association Match Play Championship (69, -3) and became the No. 2 seed, though lost in the second round. He tied for 15th in the CGA Stroke Play Championship at Fort Collins Country Club (76-67-77-70—290, +10). He finished fourth in U.S. Open Local Qualifying (38-32—70) at Collindale Golf Club in Fort Collins, advancing to Sectionals, where he tied for 44th (78-74—152, +8) at Lakeside Country Club in Houston. He tied for eighth in the Colorado Golf Association's Public Links Championship at Highland Meadows GC (206, -7). In CU's Casotti Classic, a legitimate play-your-own ball event for media and guests, he shot the lowest score in the 18 years of the tournament, an 8-under 64 (32-32) at Pelican Lakes Golf Club in Windsor. 2011: Reached the round of 32 in his first CGA Match Play Championship (at Bear Creek GC). 2010: He won the AJGA (American Junior Golf Association) Aspen Golf Classic with a 74-69-69—212 (-4) score. 2009: He set the national record for the largest margin of victory in an AJGA event when he won by 18 strokes in the AJGA Junior All-Star in Aspen (he posted a 66-64-70—200 scorecard, the 8-under 64 being a tournament record; the old mark had been 15 strokes. He tied for second in the U.S. Junior Amateur Qualifier at Boomerang Links in Greeley (69-70—139). Other Years: He was a six-time CJGA All-Star and a two-time Junior America's Cup team member.

BEAU SCHOOLCRAFT

5-9, 170, Sr., 1L, Englewood, Colo. (Kent Denver/UCLA)

College—This Season (Sr.): He played in all six fall tournaments, logging a 73.88 stroke average which was fifth best on the team, while his 72.83 final round average was Colorado's second best. He had three top 20 performances, headed by a tie for 13th in the New Mexico Tucker Invitational, where after an opening 77 he bounced back with rounds of 72 and 71 for a 220 total (+4). He tied for 20th in CU's Mark Simpson Invitational, turning in a 72-73-69—214 (-2) effort in defending the title he had won as a junior. He was also fifth in the Ballyneal Challenge, an individual tournament that saw CU compete with Air Force. For the fall national rankings, he tied for 28th in fairways hit (77.0 percent) and 45th in greens hit in regulation (70.6 percent).

2011-12 (Jr.): He played in all 11 tournaments in finishing with a 73.47 stroke average, second on the team. He had the best middle round scoring figure of 72.25, with his fall 68.75 also the team's high mark. He led CU with five rounds in the 60s, was second on the team in birdies with 97 (his 43 in the fall were a team best) and his 11 holes worse than a bogey (out of 612) were a team low. He owned a 72.67 stroke average for the fall, with that number the 15th best average for a fall season in school history (though third on the team). He entered the season without competing in a college tournament for nearly two years, but made a statement in his return by winning CU's Mark Simpson Invitational. Playing as an individual, he recorded a 66-66-73—205 scorecard, tying for medalist honors; his 36-hole total of 132 as well as his 11-under par 205 effort both tied school records for a par-72 course. His top spring effort was a tie for third in the Wyoming Cowboy Classic, in which he stood at 131 after two rounds (-9; 64-67) before he closed with an even-par 70 for a 201 score, a CU all-time best on a par-70 track. His other top effort came at the Bandon Dunes Championship, where he recorded a 75-73-72—220 scorecard (+7) which tied him for 15th. He played in his second league tournament, now the Pac-12 Championships as opposed to the Pacific-10 when he was a freshman; he shaved 27 strokes off that score with a 301 (+13) total that tied him for 47th. Also in the fall, he was 1-1 in Colorado Cup matches against Colorado State.

2010-11: He redshirted after transferring to CU from UCLA during the summer; he actively participated in team qualifying events throughout the year.

At UCLA (2008-09/2009-10; Fr./Soph)

—He saw action in just two fall tournaments as a sophomore, with a 78.0 stroke average; but was a near regular as a true freshman when he made eight starts and played 24 rounds. That year, his top efforts were 23rd place ties at the Bill Cullum Invitational (73-75-76—224; +8) and at the CordeValle Classic (72-73-75—220; +6). He had two rounds under par as a frosh, a 70 (-1) at the USC Invitational and a 71 (-1) at the Match Play Championship.

High School—A two-sport, seven-time letterwinner at Kent Denver, earning three varsity letters as a center in hockey for Coach Dave Labette and four letters in golf for Coach Bob Austin. In golf, he led the Sun Devils to a pair of state championships and won the individual state title as a senior. He posted a 69-68—137 (-5) scorecard in winning the state championship at the Broadlands Golf Club. A four-time All-Metro League and two-time All-State selection as well as the 2008 Colorado Player of the Year his senior year. As a senior, he averaged a school-record 69.3 strokes per round. In hockey, he scored 13 goals with 12 assists in 13 games as a senior when he earned All-State honors. He also played lacrosse in high school.

Other—2011: He tied for 31st in the Southwestern Amateur (El Paso, Texas), with a 73-70-70-78—291 (+3) scorecard. Tied for 49th in the Rice Planters Amateur (Mt. Pleasant, S.C.) with a 79-70-71-73—293 (+5) effort. 2010: He cruised to medalist honors in the U.S. Amateur Sectional Qualifying at the Broadmoor Golf Club's West Course, turning in a 73-65—138 (-2) scorecard to win by seven shots. In the stroke play qualifier for the event at Chambers Bay/University Place, Wash., he shot 80-75—155 (+13), tying for 155th in the 312-man field (he missed the cut by six strokes). He played in the Colorado Open, but was 4-over after 36 and missed the cut by four strokes. He tied for 83rd in the Trans-Mississippi Championship at Denver Country Club (73-79-78—230; +20). 2007: He recorded three top 15 results in major junior events: he tied for sixth at the Fidelity Investments Junior Championship (66-73-76—215); he tied for 10th at the OSSO Junior at

ROSS THORNTON

6-3, 180, Fr., HS, Leawood, Kan. (Blue Valley North)

College—This Season (Fr.): He is competing as a true freshman, as he played in two fall tournaments as an individual (his rounds did not count toward CU's team scoring). He tied for 80th in his first collegiate meet, the Air Force-Gene Miranda Invitational (236, +20); he bounced right back with his best round of the fall, a 2-over 74 in the first round of CU's Mark Simpson Invitational, but his second round effort was disqualified when he signed an incorrect scorecard.

High School—A four-time letterman under coach Susan O'Dell, he posted four top 12 finishes in the Kansas 6A state tournament: third as a senior, 12th as a junior, seventh as a sophomore and sixth as a freshman. He led Blue Valley North to the 6A state championship his senior season when he owned a 72 stroke average; BVN was the state runner-up both his freshman and sophomore seasons. He earned first-team All-Eastern Kansas League (EKL) honors as junior and senior, when he also garnered honorable mention All-Metro accolades. He earned honorable mention All-Sun honors as freshman and junior (an all-area team), with first-team honors as a junior. He shaved two strokes off his average every year, posting a 78 norm as a freshman, then 76 as a sophomore, 74 as a junior and finally the 72 his senior year. He also lettered three times in basketball (power forward), averaging nine points and six rebounds as a senior; he set the school record for single-season free throw percent (88 percent) as a senior. He earned second-team All-EKL honors as a senior, when he was a team captain; he was an honorable mention performer as a junior.

Other—2012: He finished 26th in the Watson Challenge (70-74-78—222, +6; Indian Hills CC, Kansas City); he was tied for sixth after the first round, in which host Tom Watson shot a 72. 2011: He was named the 2011 Kansas City Golf Association Junior Player of the Year. He qualified for and competed in the USGA Junior Amateur in Bremerton, Wash., where he tied for 20th in the stroke play (72-75), but lost his first round match. He tied for third in the Kansas Junior Amateur (71-68-66—205), tied for sixth in the Kansas City Amateur (71-71-73—215) and tied for 16th in the AJGA Bass Pro Shops/Payne Stewart Classic (72-73-76—221).

Best Career Round In Competition—66 (-4; 2011 Kansas Junior Amateur, Salina Municipal, Salina, Kan.)

Academics—He is majoring in Business (Finance) at Colorado. He had an impressive academic record in high school, owning a weighted 4.1 grade point average that included both advanced placement and college courses. He was on the Principal's Honor Roll throughout high school, was a member of the National Honor Society and scored a 32 on the ACT.

Personal—He was born October 6, 1993 in Kansas City, Kan. His hobbies include playing basketball and going to his favorite family lake. Growing up in and around the Kansas City area, he had the opportunity to get to know PGA/Champions Tour Star Tom Watson.

DREW TRUJILLO

5-10, 175, Fr., RS, Montrose, Colo. (Montrose)

College—This Season (Fr.-RS): He played in two fall tournaments, tying for 14th in the Ballyneal Challenge, an individual tournament, and 35th in the CU-Mark Simpson Invitational (71-72-75—218, where his rounds did not count toward CU's team scoring). He scored 14 birdies in his 90 holes.

2011-12 (Fr.) —The coaching staff decided to redshirt him in his true freshman season, though he still competed in all team practices and tournament qualifiers.

High School—He lettered three times in golf under coach Angelo DeJulio, placing 10th in the state meet as a senior after claiming runner-up honors as a junior (with a 6-under 138 total that included a 66 in the first round). As a senior, he captured regional champion honors ahead of the state meet. He earned first-team All-Southwestern Conference honors his sophomore through senior years, and was a first-team All-State and All-Colorado performer as a junior (honorable mention as a senior). He owns the Montrose record for individual wins (four) as well as the number of consecutive tournaments using his score (32). He placed in the top 10 in every tournament he appeared in as junior and senior and had 30-plus career top 10 efforts as a prep. He also lettered twice in baseball (catcher/designated hitter) as a freshman and sophomore.

Other—2012: He tied for third in the Colorado Golf Association's Western Chapter Championship at Battlement Mesa GC in Parachute, four strokes out of first 73-70—143 (-1). 2011: He qualified for the U.S. Amateur, shooting a 67-69—136 at Heritage Eagle Bend, finishing second overall and three out of the lead. Then in late August in the rain-plagued main event with a 315-man field, he tied for 260th at Blue Mound G&CC in Erin Hills, Wis., with a 77-76—153 (+11). He finished second in the CGA Western Chapter Championship at Tiara Rado GC in Grand Junction, three out of the lead with a 69-70—139 (-3) effort. He reached the round of 32 in his first CGA Match Play Championship (at Bear Creek GC). He tied for 63rd in the Western Junior (Beverly CC, Chicago), carding a 74-79-78-77—308 (+20). He shot the course record of 63 (31-32; 9-under) at his home course, The Links at Cobble Creek, in a non-tournament round. 2010: He finished 11th in the AJGA (American Junior Golf Association) Aspen Golf Classic. Other Years: He also fared well in AJGA, FCWT and IJCT summer competitions, including a win in the 2010 FCWT event at TPC Las Vegas and a runner-up effort in the 2009 FCWT event at The Ridge at Castle Pines. He also tied for second in the 2010 Rocky Mountain Open and finished fifth in July's CGA Western Chapter.

Best Career Round In Competition— 66 (-6; October 2009, Colorado State 4A High School Championship, Highlands Ranch GC)

Academics—He is majoring in Business (Management) at Colorado. He was a member of Montrose's Honor Roll all eight semesters in high school, when he garnered Academic All-State accolades on three occasions (he graduated with a 3.93 grade point average).

Personal— He was born July 22, 1993 in Colorado Springs. His hobbies include fly-fishing, hiking and working out. Father (Mike) played baseball at Northern Colorado, and pitched five years in the major leagues (Boston, Seattle, Detroit).

YEAR-BY-YEAR TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Since 1947-48, when CU joined the Big Seven Conference and lists those major tournaments CU is known to have played in (results are complete since 1976-77; any previously discovered results also included). Team scores are low four or five golfers, unless listed in round-by-round cumulative form, i.e., 380/764/—1134; tournament name is most recent, i.e., Stanford's "The Nelson" at one time was called the Stanford Fall Invitational and the Stanford Shootout; underline indicates break between fall and spring season; RMIGA one-day meets and dual results prior to 1980 are not included; (B)—indicates "B" or JV team entered by Colorado.

COLORADO HALL OF FAME

In 1989, the University of Colorado inaugurated a "Golf Hall of Fame," inducting four former players at a ceremony prior to start of The International at Castle Pines Golf Club. Periodically, those who have made a significant contribution to the University of Colorado golf program will be inducted into this select group.

THE INAUGURAL INDUCTEES

DALE DOUGLASS, Fort Morgan, Colo.

Dale lettered three seasons at CU (1956 through 1959), graduating in 1959. Following a successful collegiate career in the days of dual matches rather than tournaments, he went on to blossom as a professional golfer on the PGA Tour, winning three tournaments. Since he turned 50, he has taken the PGA Senior Tour by storm, with 12 victories as well as several runnerup finishes. Dale is known by his peers as one of the finest gentlemen of the game and by his friends as an all around nice guy.

LES FOWLER, Boulder, Colo.

Les is truly one of the state of Colorado's golf legends. He was first a player at CU as an undergraduate starting in 1946, then a player-coach and then the head coach, all the while building solid political and real estate careers. He was CU's golf coach for 30 years—the second longest coaching stint in CU history—and on a volunteer basis without compensation. Les was personally rewarded in that he coached many golfers on to great careers in the sport, most notably Dale Douglass and Hale Irwin. He remained one of the state's top senior golfers for over two decades, and won dozens of state tournaments in his career.

HALE IRWIN, Boulder, Colo.

Hale enjoyed two great careers at the University of Colorado. He was a three-year letterman at defensive back in football (an all-Big Eight selection in 1966 and 1967), and spent three seasons as the number one golfer for Coach Les Fowler (1965 through 1967). In his junior year, he set the school's season stroke average record (72.04), which stood for 38 years. He won three tournaments as a senior, ending with a bang: he ended his collegiate career by claiming medalist honors in both the Big Eight and NCAA Championships. He went on to become one of the most respected players and fiercest competitors on the PGA Tour, in addition to having a fabulous career which has seen Hale win 20 Tour events, including the U.S. Open on three occasions (1974, 1979, 1990). He has won 41 events on the Champions Tour, was the Rookie-of-the Year in 1995, is the only player on any PGA Tour to have won the same event five straight years (Turtle Bay) and has surpassed $30 million in overall career earnings ($24 million-plus on the Champions Tour).

STEVE JONES, Yuma, Colo.

Steve lettered four years at CU (1978 through 1981), and during that time he rewrote the Buff record book. As Coach Mark Simpson's first recruit, he won two college tournaments and posted nine top-five finishes to go with a school record 21 top-10 placings. He broke Hale Irwin's career stroke average mark with a 73.7 norm for 141 rounds, with his 73.3 average his senior year remaining a school best. Since graduating from CU, he has become one of the bright young stars of the PGA Tour, winning eight tournaments, including the 1996 U.S. Open, and became golf's 99th millionaire. He also won the 1988 Colorado Open. He is now competing on the Champions Tour as he is now healthy after battling assorted injuries for the past few years.

SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT FUND

Petry

Douglass

Fowler

The University of Colorado men's golf team currently has three endowed scholarships, as the interest from those endowments go directly to funding scholarships of current CU golf team members.

The Nick Petry Scholarship is in the name of the late CU golf letterman (1939-40), and was begun in 1991.

The Dale Douglass Scholarship is in the name of CU's first real star on the PGA Tour (and current Senior Tour member) as he lettered as a Buff between 1956 and 1959.

The Les Fowler Scholarship is in the name of the late CU golfer and longtime coach (1948-77) and state legislator. It was created in 2003.

SPECIAL MOMENTS

Two University of Colorado Golf Hall of Fame members pose at the 1992 induction: PGA and Senior Tour great Hale Irwin (left) with the founder of The International and long-time CU supporter, Jack Vickers.

CU GOLF HISTORY & TRADITION

The game of golf migrated to the United States from Europe, and was introduced at the college level around 1850. As the sport became popular, proponents sought out the warmer climates where it could thrive year-round. And as golf popularity grew, it spread to the larger cities where there was a desire for outdoor recreation, but the financial burden of building and maintaining a golf course was rather great.

Several eastern universities were among the earliest institutions to entertain the game of golf as a "club." As this relatively new sport enticed athletes of all ages to allot their recreation time to it, cities began to select acreage specifically as sites for future golf courses. Around this time, the late 1800s, several universities were endowed with funds that permitted their own private courses. Golf fell in line with most other sports at the time, which originated as clubs at American colleges.

In 1901, a group of professors and students formed a club for golf at the University of Colorado, but were without any real local place to play until 1917, when the city of Boulder built a nine-hole course on the north side of town. This course featured "buffalo" grass, sand greens and a "pasture-pool," complete with gophers. College enthusiasts were invited to join the local "divot diggers," and so golf took off in Boulder Valley. Denver already had the Denver Country Club and Cherry Hills, so Boulder was growing up in this area.

Golf was one of the last minor sports to become a varsity program, attaining that status in 1912. CU initiated a golf team that year, and original opponents included Denver University, Colorado College and Greeley State Teachers College (now Northern Colorado). World War I had delayed many of the college level sport programs, and the program resumed play in 1920 under Joe Mills, who had coached football the previous two seasons.

Golf at CU underwent a reorganization in 1924, with the first varsity match a challenge between two DU football players (who were caddies at Denver C.C.) and two CU football seniors, who kidded their opponents about the "sissy-game." They learned during the summer at a cost of 50 cents per round. Walt Franklin and Burke bought three clubs and six golf balls from a shop on Denver's Larimer Street to play the match, but there is no record of who actually won. But competitive golf had finally arrived on the CU campus.

Prior to World War II, team captains often served as player-coaches. But since 1948, the University of Colorado has had only two coaches, Les Fowler (1948-76) and Mark Simpson (1976-current). Fowler, an accomplished player himself, led CU into the Big Seven Conference in 1948, finishing second in the league meet as a senior player-coach. It marked the beginning of the modern era of Colorado golf.

It took the youthful Fowler just six years to bring the first championship to Boulder. In 1954, Keith Alexander shot a 216 for 54 holes, powering the Buffs to the league title. The following year, Fowler's team did it again, although the Buffs had to share the spotlight as 1955 Big Seven champions with Oklahoma.

When Oklahoma State became the eighth school to enter the conference, a dynasty of unequalled magnitude resulted. The Cowboys have proceeded to win every Big Eight tournament since 1958-with only three exceptions. In 1968 the Bison surprised the Grier Jones-led Okie Staters by shaving 35 strokes off the previous year's winning total to upset the defending champs and interrupt the Cowboys' dominant hold. (Missouri won in 1984 and Oklahoma in 1992.)

That 1968 win surprised many a CU golf follower because the Buffs had just lost their all-time best golfer to graduation-Hale Irwin. Irwin, a two-sport star who captained the football team as a senior defensive back, won the individual league title in 1966 by three strokes to pace the Buffs to a second-place finish. He was also co-champion in the rain-shortened, 36-hole tourney the following year with OSU's Jones.

But it was that final year of Irwin's which brought prominence to Colorado golf. The current pro standout won the 70th annual NCAA Championships over such future touring luminaries as Johnny Miller, Hubert Green, Jerry Heard and Rick Massengale.

Irwin continues to be an authoritative force with the PGA. He is just one of a handful of players who have won over $8 million on the Tour. He was won over 30 major tournaments, including the U.S. Open three times (1974, 1979, 1990), between the PGA and Senior PGA tours.

The 1992-93 Buffaloes, featuring among others, future pros Jonathan Kaye and Scott Petersen and two-time Big Eight champion Bobby Kalinowski.

DID YOU KNOW?... that former CU golfer Jonathan Kaye owns the PGA Tour record for the most improvement from one round to the next? At the 1999 Bob Hope Classic he shot a second round 83 but came back with a 62 in the third round. The 21 stroke improvement is a PGA record.

Irwin, though, wasn't the first CU golfer to make it big on the pro tour. Dale Douglass, a 1959 graduate, also made his professional mark after college.

Douglass rarely lost an individual match throughout his collegiate career and was one of the Big Eight's top stars his senior year, finishing fifth in the league championships. As a professional, Douglass' best year was 1969 when he won both the Azalea and Kemper Opens. The two-time president of the Tournament Players Association also won the 1970 Phoenix Open. Most recently, Douglass has made it big on the PGA Seniors Tour, becoming one of its top money winners.

For several years in the Big Eight, the Colorado golf team played second fiddle to Oklahoma State as a powerful foe. After suffering poor finishes in 1973 and 1974, Mark Simpson joined with the legendary Les Fowler to lead the Buffs to a third place in '75 and second in '76. Simpson then took over the reins of the program in January, 1977, and would lead the Buffs to 11 NCAA tournament appearances and 13 first-division finishes in conference action, including a trio of runnerup efforts.

Simpson's first star recruit, Steve Jones, also has made it big on the PGA Tour, winning three tournaments in 1989 alone and the 1996 U.S. Open.

Simpson has coached seven all-Americans and 15 all-conference players.

In 1994 another Simpson recruit, Bobby Kalinowski, joined Irwin as a two-time Big Eight champion.

In 1996, one of the most powerful collegiate golf conferences was born out of the formation of the Big 12 Conference, which consisted of all members of the old Big Eight and four members of the disbanded Southwest Conference. The conference has averaged five teams in the Top 25 since its inception, with Colorado often included in that mix.

CU returned to the NCAA Championship finals in 1999 after a five-year absence in stunning fashion. In the NCAA Central Regional on the Ohio State campus, the Buffs pulled off the second largest rally in the 11-year history of the regional format. CU climbed from 18th to 10th place on the final day, and then won a playoff on the first hole against Kent State to advance to the national finals.

The Buffaloes returned as a regular member of the nation's Top 50 during the 1999-2000 season, and have climbed as high as No. 10 in the polls over the last decade. In 2001-02, the Buffs had one of their best years in tying for 14th in the NCAA Championship Finals. The 2003-04 team won the Western Intercollegiate, the first team win in four years, and set a school record for stroke average both overall (73.77) and the spring (73.71).

Colorado has appeared in the NCAA Finals 15 times and in the Championships 27 times overall; on 14 other occasions, CU has been represented by at least one individual.

Backlund NCAA Golf Medalist

Buff Ace Fires 137 For Record

By RALPH MOORE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLORADO SPRINGS, June 24 (UPI)—Merle Backlund, University of Colorado golfer, yesterday shot a record-breaking 137 in the final round of the NCAA golf tournament at Colorado Springs. Backlund's score was the lowest ever in the history of the tournament, which was held at the University of Colorado Springs. Backlund's record-breaking score of 137 in the final round of the NCAA golf tournament at Colorado Springs. The first individual national title in Colorado golf history, as the late Merle Backlund was the medalist in the 1953 NCAA meet.

Tragedy hit the program in 2005, as on December 5, Simpson passed away after a valiant yearlong battle against cancer. Ironically, he would coach the Buffaloes for the exact same amount of time as Fowler, his predecessor and coach. The duo combined to coach 58 seasons for the school. The legacy the two created was one the administration looked to continue when Roy Edwards was named just the third full-time head coach in CU history.

In Edward's third season, he coached the Buffaloes to a second place finish in the Big 12—CU's first runner-up conference finish since Simpson's teams did so in 1979, 1980 and 1981.

Hale Irwin and Steve Jones came back to Boulder in 1997 and put on a clinic for the current Buffalo team.

THE BUFFS AND THE U.S. OPEN

Did you know that Colorado, Ohio State, Stanford and Wake Forest have produced the most United States Open winners in history? The Buffaloes, Buckeyes, Cardinal and Demon Deacons have had their respective alums win four titles—for Colorado, Hale Irwin has won three (1974, 1979, 1990) and Steve Jones one (1996). The trophy in 1974 is pictured at right.

CU was the only school in the 1990s to boast two winners (Irwin in '90, Jones in '96), and was also the only school to produce two in the 1970s (Irwin in '74 and '79).

In 1999, junior-to-be Matt Call became the first Buffalo to play in the U.S. Open while still attending CU when he advanced through the two stages of local and sectional qualifying. In 2002, CU senior Ben Portie earned a spot in the same fashion in the Open just three weeks after playing his final collegiate round. That same year, future Buffalo Derek Tolan qualified and played as a 16-year-old.

BUFFALO GREATS

A look at some of the greats in Colorado golf history, including conference champions, multiple record holders and major tournament winners, and/or those who have made their mark professionally.

At Colorado (1953-56): The first Buffalo to win Big 7 Conference medalist honors when he won with a 216 score in the 1954 meet, he helped Colorado to the team title, its first Big 7 crown in golf. Emerging as CU's No. 1 golfer as a sophomore in the spring of 1954, he was the first and remains the only soph in school history to win a conference medalist honors. By tying for 10th in 1955 and eighth in 1956 in the league meet, he became the first (and to date, still one of just five) CU players to have recorded three top 10 finishes in the conference championships. He is believed to have compiled a 25-10-2 record in dual match play, a pretty impressive figure for a No. 1 man, and led CU to the NCAA Championships in both 1954 and 1955.

KEITH ALEXANDER

At Colorado (1950-53): Colorado's first national champion in golf, as he won NCAA medalist honors in 1953 at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs, when he recorded a 69-68—137 scorecard for a then-NCAA record 7-under par; it was in the day when the field was pared to the low 64 after medal play, and despite losing in the first round of match play, he became only CU's fourth national champion in its athletic history at the time (joining three track performers: Gil Cruter, Dave Bolen and Warren Bateman). The 137 was a record at the time as well, besting the old mark of 138 set by a most familiar name in 1950: Wake Forest's Arnold Palmer. In the Big 7 Championships, he finished ninth as a sophomore and third as a senior.

MERLE BACKLUND

At Colorado (1978-82): The first and to date only golfer in Colorado history to play in four NCAA Championships, as he went individually as a freshman in 1979 (also a first and only) and as a senior in 1982 and with the full Buff contingent in 1980 and 1981. He finished second in the 1979 Big 8 Championships, to date the highest finish ever by a Colorado freshman in a conference championship meet. He tied for 5th in the 1981 event and for seventh in the '82 affair, making him one of just five Buffs to have recorded three top 10 finishes in league championship play. His third place finish at the 1978 Falcon Invitational would stand as the best by a CU freshman in his first meet for 21 years. The summer after he completed his CU eligibility, he pulled off the rare sweep in winning both the Colorado State Stroke and Match Play championships. He was a third-team All-American in both 1981 and 1982.

RICK CRAMER

Professionally: He played briefly on the PGA Tour but did play several seasons on some of the other pro tours, and is currently involved in administration and operations for the Gateway Tour Series in the Phoenix area.

At Colorado (1956-59): Owned a career stroke average of 74.11 as a Buff, playing in an era where dual matches were the norm and tournaments were the exception. He posted three top 10 finishes in the Big Seven/Eight Championships, tying for eighth as a freshman in the '56 Big 7 meet, and taking seventh and fifth in the '58 and '59 Big 8 tests, respectively; he was the second Buff (and still one of just five) to record three top 10 finishes in conference championship play.

DALE DOUGLASS

Professionally: A member of the Champions Tour since he turned 50 in 1986, he had 11 victories on what was formerly known as the Senior Tour. He became just the fifth player in history to play in 500 tournaments when he reached the mark in 2003. He starred on the PGA Tour after turning pro in 1960, winning three events. Now more or less retired, he won just under $7.5 million on the Champions Tour and over $9 million as a professional. He has played in 600 Champions Tour events, with 151 top 10 finishes along with 283 in the top 25.

At Colorado (1994-99): He led the team in stroke average all four of his playing seasons, one of just two Buffs to do so (with Steve Jones), but they weren't in consecutive years as he redshirted after his true junior season. He led the Buffs at the 1995 NCAA Central Regional in 1995, tying for 14th, and played in one other NCAA meet (in 1999 as a senior). He played 133 rounds, and with 127 counting toward team scoring, he set the school record for percentage counted (95.5). He had a career stroke average of 74.34, and he had 11 top 10 and 22 top 20 finishes in his career. Over the course of his career, he was the top Buffalo scorer in 27 tournaments, the most in school history.

KNUT EKJORD

At Colorado (1945-76): He tied for fourth in the first Big 7 Conference championship meet Colorado ever played in, as he recorded a 147 score for 36 holes in the 1948 meet. Following his graduation, he would coach the Buffaloes on a volunteer basis for a total of 29 seasons, actually starting as a player-coach his senior year. His top players out of over 125 that played for him included Hale Irwin, Dale Douglass, John Hamer, Gary Polumbus, Larry McAtee, Bill Musselman, Tom Woodard, Mark Crabtree and the man who succeeded him as head coach, Mark Simpson. His teams won three conference titles and reached the NCAA Championships seven times, with the 1968 team posting the school's best ever national finish when it tied for eighth. He was a district manager in the insurance business, and active in Boulder politics as a city councilman and state representative and state senator. Though he never played professionally, he was one of the states top amateur golfers for four decades, including senior golf, and is a member of the state of Colorado Golf Hall of Fame. He passed away on February 8, 2003 at the age of 78 in Boulder.

LES FOWLER

At Colorado (2004-09): He finished 14th in the most rounds played (113) at Colorado, finishing 16th in career stroke average (74.45), ninth in top 5 finishes (7), sixth in top 10 finishes (12) and ninth in top 20 efforts (18). As a senior, he was the Co-Male Athlete of the Year at Colorado for all sports (with teammate Derek Tolan), he played in all 13 tournaments, with two wins, five top 5, eight top 10 and 10 top 20 finishes. He earned PING All-Region honors and was an honorable mention All-American, finishing as the No. 46 ranked player in the nation (Golfweek). He recorded a 71.98 stroke average for the season, the third best in school history (and his 71.32 average during the spring the second best, just .02 off the record). His outstanding spring was topped by his victory in CU's Stevinson Ranch Invitational, where he cruised to the win with an 8-under par 208 score. His top fall highlight was his first career collegiate win, when a 67-69-68—204 scorecard earned him medalist honors at Denver's Ron Moore Invitational at Green Valley Ranch GC in Denver. The 12-under par effort matched John Lindberg's school record for the most strokes under par that he set in the 1989 BYU Classic. He was named the Golfweek National Player-of-the-Week for the week ending Sept. 22 after he won the DU-Ron Moore invite, and in the process was believed to be the first player in CU history to be afforded such an honor. He turned pro following his senior year, and won the Adams Tour's Coca-Cola Wal-Mart Open (in Louisiana) in March 2010.

PATRICK GRADY

At Colorado (1961-64): He helped CU to a tie for 18th in the 1964 NCAA Championships, tying for 36th individually (73-78—151), the same year he tied for fifth in the Big Eight Championships (73-71-71—215), as he led the Buffs to a third place finish. Dual meets were more the norm for his day, and as a senior, he posted one of the best dual marks in school history, going 14-2 on the year, with a low round of 68.

After CU: He opted not to pursue a professional career, but took the state of Colorado by storm in the amateur ranks. He owns 10 CGA state titles, including four individual championships (1969 and 1970 Stroke Play; 1992 and 1996 Senior Stroke Play). He was the state amateur of the year in 1969, is one of only three players to ever win back-to-back stroke play titles, and was inducted into the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame in 2002.

JOHN HAMER

At Colorado (1964-67): The 1967 NCAA individual champion, winning by two strokes with a 2-under par 286 score, an effort that saw him post a 65 in the third round which included a hole-in-one. The all-time CU leader in tournaments won (4), he also racked up two medalist honors in Big 8 Conference play, winning the 1966 title outright and sharing the '67 crown when he was a first-team All-American. His 72.04 stroke average as a junior still reigns as a CU single-season best, as are his eight rounds in the 60s that year, and he is one of just five players to have led the Buffs in average three or more seasons. He earned a combined six letters in football and golf; after playing quarterback as a sophomore, he became a two-time first-team all-Big Eight selection at weak side safety 1965 and 1966, making nine interceptions (in 1989, he was selected to the 25-member All-Century Football Team for CU's first 100 years of football). He was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 1986 and CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002 (in the school's fourth class).

HALE IRWIN

Professionally: The all-time money winner on the Champions (Senior) Tour with $26.6 million in earnings (and he has over a $6 million advantage over No. 2 Gil Morgan). He won 20 times on the PGA Tour, including three U.S. Opens (1974, 1979, 1990); had 45 Champion Tour wins through 2012, including two U.S. Senior Open crowns (1998, 2000); and 18 other professional wins including international play. Entering 2013, he has made the cut in an incredible 398 of 402 Champions Tour events, with 209 top 10 finishes: in addition to the 45 wins, he has 43 runner-up finishes and 23 third place efforts, or 111 top three performances. His son, Steve, also played for the Buffs from 1994-97, and the two won the 2003 Father-Son Challenge. Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1992, he is also very active in his own golf course design company.

At Colorado (1977-81): He set numerous school records during his CU career, in which he became the first and only player in school history to record four top 10 finishes in the conference championship meet (two thirds and two sevenths in four Big 8 title meets). A second-team All-American as a senior in 1980-81, when he had nine top 10 finishes and ten top 20 efforts, which are both still school bests. Over the course of his career, he had 19 top 10 and 26 top 20 finishes, both CU records, and was the top Buffalo scorer in 23 tournaments, tied for the second most in school history. He is the only player in Buff annals to lead the team in stroke average for four consecutive seasons, and one of just two to do it four times overall.

Professionally: He has over $6.5 million in career earnings on the PGA Tour (he became the sports' 99th millionaire when he topped that figure), winning eight times, none bigger than his 1996 U.S. Open title. He captured that event on the last hole on Sunday, his pinnacle achievement that season which earned him the Tour's Comeback Player of the Year honor. His win in the 1997 Phoenix Open was landmark, as his 11-shot victory was accomplished by scoring the third lowest 72-hole score in PGA history at the time (a 26-under 258). He was the medalist in the 1986 Tour Qualifying School, finally making it to the big time on a permanent basis in 1987. He was inducted into the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame in 1997, CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012 and into the state of Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2013. Unfortunately, he estimates he has lost a third of his professional career due to assorted injuries, but is healthy again and is now playing on the Champions Tour (with over $300,000 in career earnings on that circuit).

STEVE JONES

At Colorado (1976-81): During his CU career, he played the second most rounds in school history when he teed it up for 18 holes 152 times. But in 1981, in his last Big 8 Conference championship meet, the three rounds he recorded there were most memorable as he ended a 14-year run by Oklahoma State golfers in claiming medalist honors with a 211 score. His 41 rounds during the 1976-77 season still stand as the most ever in a single year by a Colorado freshman. He earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior in 1981.

TERRY KAHL

At Colorado (1991-94): He became the ninth (and to date, last) player to win back-to-back Big 7, Big 8 and/or 12 Conference medalist honors when he captured both the 1993 and 1994 Big 8 Championships. He joined Hale Irwin as the lone Buffaloes to accomplish the back-to-back feat. His 72.62 stroke average as a senior in 1993-94 was the best in CU history by a senior at the time; his 144 career rounds are tied for the third most by a Buff, with a career stroke average of 73.97. He is tied for the most top five finishes in CU history (11), ranks second in top 20 finishes with 25 and fourth in top 10 efforts with 14. A third-team All-American his junior season in 1993 and a second-team performer as a senior in '94, when he recorded a school record six top five finishes.

BOBBY KALINOWSKI

At Colorado (1990-93): He joined the Buff team after spending his freshman year at Phoenix Community College, and formed quite a CU trio with Scott Petersen and Bobby Kalinowski. As a junior in 1992, he won the PING-Arizona Intercollegiate in style, as he defeated Phil Mickelson on the first playoff hole; he was also the co-medalist at the '93 Air Force Falcon Invitational as a senior, making him one of eight players in school history to win multiple major tournaments. One of six players in school annals to record a 65 (or better) round in competition when he shot 31-34 in the 1990 Wyoming Invitational; the 31 on the front tied the second best single 9-hole score in Buff history as well. He owned a career stroke average of 74.98 with eight top 10 and 13 top 20 finishes in his Colorado career.

JONATHAN KAYE

Professionally: Now taking a break from playing on the PGA Tour (sidelined in 2010 with injuries), he has over $10.5 million in earnings through 2012. He broke through for his first Tour win in 2003 when he won the Buick Classic in Harrison, N.Y., and won the FBR Open in 2004. He played on and off on the Tour, mainly due to a rotator cuff injury, but tied for second in the 1998 Qualifying School and had been a regular starting in 1999; that year at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, his 21-stroke improvement from round one to two (83-62) set the PGA Tour improvement mark. To date, he has made the cut in 193 of 318 events, with 66 top 25 finishes (31 top 10), with eight runner-up showings.

At Colorado (1972-73): He played just one season of golf, joining the team his senior year. He led the team in stroke average with a 74.00 norm for 16 rounds, posting three top 10 finishes which included a victory in the Galveston Island Intercollegiate, where he won with a 1-over par 289 score.

GEORGE KELLEY

After CU: He is the owner/general manager of Stevinson Ranch Golf Club (Stevinson, Calif.), and has played a key role in the tournament the Buffaloes hosted annually from 1999 through 2009 on one of California's top public courses. After graduating from CU in 1973, he played three years as a touring pro on the European, Asian and Australian tours. After his playing days, he became a real estate broker with an eye on golf, brokering several large scale golf course deals, and in the early 1990s, he set forth to build the highly acclaimed Stevinson Ranch on family owned land in central California. He is often a guest lecturer and is active in the National Golf Course Owners Association.

At Colorado (1986-89): His 73.65 career stroke average is the third best in CU history (it set the record at the time), the second best for a player with 100-plus rounds; his 71.15 stroke average the fall of his junior season still ranks as the best for the fall portion of a season at Colorado, while he is tied for the most wins (4) and top five finishes (11) in a CU career (he is second in top 10 efforts with 18 and fourth in top 20 finishes with 23). He set, and still owns, the Colorado records for low score for 36, 54 and 72 holes, all set during his junior season: a pair of 66s for a 132 at the Robertson Homes Invitational set the two round mark; a final round 72 in that meet for a 204 set the 54-hole standard; and his 284 score earlier that same fall in the New Mexico Tucker Invitational established the four round best. And for his career, he was the top Buffalo scorer in 23 tournaments, tied for the second most in school history. He was a second-team All-American as a senior in 1989 after being an honorable mention choice as a sophomore.

JOHN LINDBERG

At Colorado (2002-06): He tied for the third most rounds played in Colorado history, 144, including three GCAA Match Play Championship rounds. His career stroke average of 73.54 ranked third all-time for the Buffaloes, behind only one-time teammate Kane Webber (72.90) and Scott Petersen (74.37); it was the second best figure for 100-plus rounds other than Webber. He set the school record for low single round (63), as well as the most under par (-8) for 18 holes. By holding both the low gross score and most-under-par records for a single round, he became the first player to solely own both marks since Hale Irwin did so between 1967 and 1981. For his career, he had 13 top 10 tournament finishes, including a school record six straight during the course of his senior season, and 20 top 20 finishes. He was named CU's Male Athlete of the Year for all sports at the school's annual CUSPY (CU Sports Performers of the Year) Awards for 2005-06, when he also earned honorable mention All-America honors. He was two-time PING/GCAA All-Central Region selection and was just the second CU player to earn All-Big 12 and All-Big 12 Tournament Team honors in the same season when he did so as a senior.

EDWARD McGLASSON

At Colorado (1967-69): As a senior in 1968, he earned first-team All-America honors, the last CU player to do so. He was the No. 1 man on the Buffalo team that posted the school's best-ever finish at the NCAA Championships, as he led the Buff to an eighth-place tie in the meet at Las Cruces, N.M. He tied for eighth individually (70-72-75-74—291), to date the third best individual finish in the NCAA's by a University of Colorado golfer. He led the team in stroke average as a senior (73.80), when he finished second in the Big 8 Championships with a 212 score, falling to Oklahoma State's Grier Jones by two shots; however, he was one of three Buffs to finish in the top four in leading Colorado to the Big 8 title, its last conference crown to date.

BILL MUSSELMAN

At Colorado (1991-93): As a senior, he earned honorable mention All-America honors, when he was a second-team All-Big 8 performer. He led the team in stroke average both as a senior (73.5) and as a junior (73.4), one of only eight players in school history to do so for multiple seasons. He set a mark for the lowest CU career stroke average for 50 or more rounds with a 73.47 for 77 rounds, a mark that stood through 2003. His senior year, he won the John Burns Intercollegiate (Honolulu) and the Fresno State Lexus Classic, and he posted eight top 5, nine top 10 and 15 top 20 finishes in his career. An honorable mention All-American his senior year (1993). Prior to transferring back to the state where he starred as a prep (at Englewood's Cherry Creek High School), he lettered twice at the University of Tulsa in 1989 and 1990.

SCOTT PETERSEN

Professionally: A member of the Nationwide Tour since 2000, as well as in 1996; he played on the Canadian Tour from 1997-99. He has came up just short several times in his bid for his PGA Tour card, but has won over $540,000 as a pro, including wins at the 1997 Infiniti Championship, the 1999 Samsung CPGA Championship and the 2000 Colorado Open.

At Colorado (1997-2002): Playing as CU's No. 1 man over the course of his entire senior season, he completed his career with a 73.89 stroke average, fifth-best all-time at Colorado (at the time), with his 106 career rounds tying for the 13th most. As a senior, he led CU with a 72.46 average, the second best number in Colorado history at the time. His spring stroke average of 72.44 set a school record, and was the first Buff under 73 in the spring since Steve Jones did so in 1980. He became the fifth CU player to post a season stroke average under 73, putting him impressive company with Dale Douglass, Irwin, John Lindberg and Bobby Kalinowski. He also led the team in top 10 finishes (4), top 20 finishes (8), rounds in the 60s (5), subpar rounds (12), first round average (71.15), middle round average (72.79), final round average (73.50), and in rounds counting toward team scoring (38 of 39, or 97.4 percent). He tied for 33rd in the NCAA Championships (66-72-75-73—286), becoming the first Buff since Irwin to lead at any point of the finals after his 5-under par 66 in the first round. He won the 2002 sectional qualifier for the U.S. Open, shooting rounds of 68-67—135 and earned the right to play in the U.S. Open on the famous Bethpage Black course in Farmingdale, N.Y. (though he missed the cut). He turned professional immediately following the qualifier, and went out and won his first professional tournament (Green Mountain Open, Killington, Vt.) the following weekend, winning $10,000 as a tune-up for the Open. After a two-year stint as CU's assistant coach, he is now the head pro at Sterling Country Club.

BEN PORTIE

At Colorado (1968-2005): Student, Athlete, Facilities Manager, Administrator, Assistant Coach, Head Coach. Simpson held all those roles over nearly four decades as a Buffalo, until cancer claimed him early at the age of 55 on December 5, 2005. He had a modest playing career at CU, earning three letters, but would make his mark as one of the top coaches in the collegiate game. On January 12, 2005, he was inducted into the Golf Coaches Association of America Hall of Fame. Simpson had replaced his own coach, the legendary Les Fowler, in January 1977, and would coach the Buffs for 29 years, the exact length Fowler had done so. He presided over 421 events as head coach, the fifth most for any sport in school history. He was most proud of the fact that 119 of the 129 players he brought into the program (92.2 percent) graduated with a degree from CU. He was the 1981 Big Eight Conference and NCAA District Five coach of the year, when CU finished second in the league and 11th in the nation. He was named the co-Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year in 2000, as his Buffaloes finished third in the league meet and were ranked in the nation's Top 25 for most of the year. He was also a finalist for induction into the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame in 2002, and in 2004, the organization recognized him for his contributions to the sport and honored him with its Lifetime Achievement Award. Simpson's teams went to the NCAA's 15 times in his tenure. Under his tutelage, Colorado produced seven different All-Americans who combined for 13 accolades (Jones, Tom Woodard, Terry Kahl, Rick Cramer, John Lindberg, Bobby Kalinowski and Kane Webber), in addition to 10 all-Big Eight and four all-Big 12 golfers and 15 All-America Scholars. He was also heavily involved in collegiate golf administration, and served two-and-a-half years as GCAA president (2000-2002) and spent a decade in different positions with the organization.

MARK SIMPSON

At Colorado (2005-09): He finished third in the most rounds played (151) at Colorado, and was 13th in career stroke average (74.19). He tied for second in both the most top 10 finishes (18) and top 20 efforts (26) in school history (he was 11th with five top five performances). He has had 89.8 percent of his career rounds count toward team scoring (132 of 147; does not include four solo rounds), a figure which ranked fifth in school history. He became just the fifth CU player to have qualified to play in four NCAA Championships, joining Rick Cramer (1979-82), Bob Kalinowski (1991-94), Matt Zions (1999-2002) and Kane Webber (2000-04). As a senior, he was selected as the Male Career Athletic Achievement Award winner for all sports, and the co-Male Athlete of the Year (with teammate Patrick Grady) at the school's annual CUSPY celebration (CU Sports Performers of the Year). An honorable mention All-American by Golfweek (one of 20) and the GCAA (one of 33), he also earned PING All-Central Region honors, All-Big 12 honors and All-Big 12 Tournament Team accolades. He finished as the No. 43 ranked player in the nation by both GolfStat and Golfweek. He became the 10th player in school history to win two career tournaments, claiming both in the fall semester, and in doing so set a school record for the lowest stroke average (71.00) for the fall in CU annals. He opened up his senior year by earning co-medalist honors in San Francisco's Olympic Club Intercollegiate, and three weeks later again snared co-medalist at New Mexico's Tucker Invitational. In-between, he placed second in DU's Ron Moore Invitational, posting his career best for the most under par in a tournament (205, -11). In the spring, he had four top 20 finishes, highlighted by a tie for second in the Western Intercollegiate (213, +3). He turned pro following his senior year and promptly went out and won the San Juan Open in his third tournament as a professional, and then captured the Colorado Open.

DEREK TOLAN

At Colorado (2000-04): A third third-team All-American as a senior, when he had three wins, six top 10 finishes (11 top 20) and a conference-runner-up 71.46 average that established a new CU single-season school record (just three strokes over par for the year). His first collegiate win came in the Western Intercollegiate (206, -4); three weeks later, he won again, claiming the Purdue Invitational (206, -10); and a month after that, he won The Maxwell in a playoff to become one of just 19 golfers for the year to win three or more times. His 71.35 stroke average in the spring decimated the previous record, and for the year, he led the team in 23 (of 24) statistical categories. He played the fifth most rounds in school history (144) on his way to a 72.90 career stroke average, which bested the old mark by over half a stroke. He also ranked fourth in top five finishes (10), fourth in top 10 efforts (15), first in top 20 finishes (27) and first in 54-hole tournament scores of 220 or better (29). At the 2004 CUSPY's (CU Sports Performers of the Year Awards banquet), he was selected as the Male Career Athletic Achievement Award recipient.

KANE WEBBER

Professionally: He is competing on the European and Asian tours and in several regional professional tournaments.

At Colorado (1974-77): Nicknamed the "Human 2-Iron" for his svelte 6-foot-3 frame, believed to be the first African-American to play varsity golf at Colorado. He led the Buffs in stroke average as a junior ('75-76) with a 76.27 figure for 30 rounds. He often played his best in the Big Eight Championships, tying for fifth as junior in 1976 and was sixth as a senior a year later, when he earned an individual berth in the NCAA Championships and was awarded honorable mention All-America honors. He became the sixth player in program history to twice be named first-team all-conference, garnering the nod in 1976 and 1977 and joining Keith Alexander, Dale Douglass, Hale Irwin, Larry McAtee and Jim English as two-time recipients.

TOM WOODARD

Professionally: He competed for two-and-a-half years on the PGA Tour after his collegiate days, and qualified for two U.S. Opens and a PGA Championship. He was twice selected as the Colorado PGA Section Player of the Year, won a national professional tournament in 1979 on the United Golfers Association Tour and still owns the low round at Denver's popular City Park Golf Course, an 11-under par 61 he shot in 1988. Since becoming a club professional in 1986, he has made an impact all around the Denver metro area: he served as head professional at City Park (1987-89), Littleton Golf Club (1990), South Suburban (1991-95) and at Buffalo Run (where he was the first head pro in 1996); he was director of golf for the City of Denver from 1997-2006 (overseeing six courses), and has been the general manager and director of golf at Foothills Park & Recreation District in Denver since 2006. He co-founded The First Tee of Denver, was inducted into the National Black Golfers Hall of Fame in 2012 and will be inducted into the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame this June.

LATE CU COACH SIMPSON INDUCTED INTO COACHES HALL

NEW ORLEANS (January 12, 2005) — University of Colorado men's golf coach Mark Simpson was inducted into the Golf Coaches Association of America Hall of Fame, the first CU coach to earn the exclusive honor.

"I'm completely honored and humbled that the committee would consider my coaching career worthy of this honor," Simpson said in opening his induction speech. "I'd like to thank the person who nominated me, but I don't know who that is."

"About three months ago, I was having breakfast with a friend, and about three-fourths of the way through it he said, 'You know, Simpson, you have a great job.' I said, 'Yeah, I like it.' Then about two weeks later at lunch with another friend, he says to me, 'You really do have a dream job.'"

"I got to thinking and I truly realized that I do have a dream job," Simpson said. "One, I get the special privilege to work with young 17- and 18-year olds and help mold them as people and golfers; two, I love the University of Colorado and no matter what you've heard about CU these last months, ninety-eight percent of what some perceive about us just isn't true. It is truly a special place, and I'm fortunate enough to coach at my alma mater. And three, I get to coach and teach the game of golf."

"My dream job has lasted 29 years," he continued. "There is so much to be thankful for and people to thank. God. The University of Colorado, as (the athletic director) Eddie Crowder took a chance and named me as head coach when I was just 26 years old. All of the players who I've been blessed to coach and watch mature during my time at CU. My peers. The GCAA; I've been to Japan, Scotland, England, Ireland and all over the United States thanks to the GCAA."

Simpson closed by acknowledging that when he was a young coach, he would listen to advise of those who had been in the profession for a long time. He gave a bit of advice for younger coaches in the audience.

"If you want to be a great coach, one of the qualities you have to have is that you must relate to your players," he said. "Use relate as an acronym: the R is for respect; the E for edify, or to build up your players; the L for listen, as in truly listen to them; the A for authentic, be the real person you are; the T for time, and wisely spend the same amount of time with each of your players and in several areas; and the second E for expectations, for as a coach, it is extremely important to pass on your expectations of them."

"One of the quests we have is to prepare them for life, and the greatest thing I can hear is when they return years later and tell of the appreciation for what they learned from me, but more importantly, from their experiences at the University of Colorado."

In attendance at the event were members of Simpson's immediate family, his mother Martha, Anne Kelly, CU women's golf coach; Mark Crabtree, the head coach at Louisville who was one of Simpson's first players; and Eric Hoos, a former CU assistant and current head coach at Denver.

CU's Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations, David Plati, a long-time friend and colleague of Simpson, presented him for induction. Some highlights of his presentation:

"I've been CU's SID since 1984; five years earlier, as a freshman in the office, I was handed the men's golf beat. After being named SID, I wasn't about to give it up, in part due to my love for the game as well as for the sheer enjoyment I have had working with Coach Simpson and the golf team for what has now been almost 26 years. I'm probably the only SID he even remembers handling his sport..."

"Mark's induction is two-fold, one for his longevity as a respected coach, as well as for all the work he has done on behalf of college golf. He has truly thrived on being involved on the administrative side of things, and the game is better for his contributions."

"Mark is truly one of the good guys. Ask most everyone who has ever met him. I can say for fact that 'Stretch,' one of his nicknames, is truly one of the all-time most popular figures both at the University of Colorado as well as in Colorado golf circles, which honored him last September with the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame's Lifetime Achievement Award."

"Mark has all the qualities one seeks in a college coach, some of which include:

"Humility. Mark has never been above learning and evolving as a coach. He will tell you that when he started out, he wanted all his players to like him. After a few years, he learned they didn't want a friend; they wanted to be coached and to be mentored."

"Disciplinarian. After all, we are talking about a man who left Jonathan Kaye home from the 1993 Central Regional. To this day, he will tell you it was one of, if not the, toughest decisions he has ever had to make."

"Compassion: A freshman, Charlie Luther, hit his first collegiate drive off the then-called women's tee markers with the ball landing several feet behind the tee box. The poor kid was even holding his pose, having no idea where the ball went until he heard the thud behind him. "Sims" comforted him with the line, "Don't worry Charlie, even Bo Jackson lost yardage on his first college carry."

"But he also traveled the 14 hours both to and from Australia to help comfort one of his players after his father passed away. He was on hand when that player, Kane Webber, shot a 59 a day after the funeral in a family tournament played to honor his dad."

"Part-Time Nutritionist. Mark has purchased over 10,000 bananas for players to snack on during their rounds... something about the potassium I believe. Mark also thrives on finding the best Mexican food restaurant in a town so he can showcase his knowledge of the Spanish language, and loves the Louisiana Classics as he has turned many a young meat-and-potatoes golfer on to crawfish."

"Respect. How many U.S. Open winners openly thank their college golf coach publicly within minutes after victory? That's what Steve Jones did in 1996, as well as several more times in the days afterward."

"And Good Fortune. Mark offered the same Steve Jones, his first top recruit, a full ride back in the summer of 1977 after Jones shot a 72 after a morning 86 at one of Colorado's tougher courses, Hiwan in Evergreen. He would soon learn that a full scholarship back then was seldom ever offered and it ate up almost all of his allotted aid for the year. But it would be worth it."

"In a recent interview, Mark summed up what he thought was the best thing about the game of golf. He said, 'The greatest thing is that it teaches maturity in the sense that you can't blame anybody or anything for your failures, you can only point the finger at yourself.'"

COLORADO NATIONAL GOLF CLUB

The Official Home of the Buffaloes

Les Fowler had a dream. Mark Simpson had the same one.

The two head golf coaches at Colorado, each for 29 years between 1948 and 2006, longed for the University of Colorado to have its own golf course.

Enter Steve Kerr and current CU head coaches, Roy Edwards (men) and Anne Kelly (women). Kerr graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Denver and was one of Fowler's last recruits, playing under both coaches as Simpson took over in the middle of his Buffalo career.

A long-time supporter of CU's golf teams, Kerr remained close with Simpson through the years and saw his daughter Erin become one of CU's first real stars of its fledgling women's program. She graduated from CU in 2003 as the school's all-time leader in stroke average and is now playing professionally.

To say that Kerr wanted to give something back to the program he loves and cherishes would be an understatement. In addition to the financial contributions through the years he has made to both programs, on March 2, 2009, it became official: the Buffaloes finally would have a golf course and facility to call its very own thanks to him.

Located in Erie and formerly known as Vista Ridge Golf Club, Kerr's purchase of the entire operation and subsequent licensing agreement with his alma mater has created Colorado National Golf Club, which will now provide Colorado's men's and women's programs with one of the finest arrangements in all of college golf.

Kerr floated the idea of purchasing and/or developing land in or around Boulder to build the school a course, but that became unrealistic due to several factors. Edwards and Kelly then suggested models in place at Texas A & M and the University of Washington, where local courses were purchased and then for all intents and purposes were basically donated back to the schools for their privileged use without any of the financial responsibility or liability for owning or operating the course.

Kerr liked the idea and as it became more of a reality, athletic director Mike Bohn and former CU chancellor Bud Peterson became integral players to make CNGC happen. Knowing Vista Ridge was attainable, Kerr worked to acquire the property to set everything in motion by the end of 2008. The club officially had its grand opening under the new name on May 2, 2009, with CU legends Hale Irwin and Steve Jones in attendance to celebrate the event.

CNGC and the school signed a long-term licensing agreement for it to be the exclusive home golf course of the CU men's and women's golf programs and will utilize the primary athletic mark and a newly created secondary logo in all branding efforts. The club features CU memorabilia from all sports, highlighted by CU Golf All-America Awards and already has plaques on display, as well as Simpson's last golf bag he maintained as head coach.

The club has incorporated the CU brand in many ways, including adorning the President's Room with donated keepsakes and memorabilia from the greatest golfers to ever play for the Buffaloes, including Irwin, Jones and Jonathan Kaye, as well as tributes to former coaches Fowler and Simpson. Golf carts are emblazoned with the CU logo, with 11 others representing each school rival in the Pac-12 Conference.

In 2012, the George Boedecker Jr. Golf Facility, a 5,500-square foot state-of-the art indoor practice facility was completed, giving CU's golf teams one of the premier winter homes in all of college golf (when Colorado's often mild winter weather along the Front Range doesn't cooperate, of course).

The course remains open for public play as well as tournament play, both amateur and for charity. CNGC has already hosted several top amateur tournaments, including both a men's and women's NCAA regional.

Matt Schalk is the club's director of golf and general manager, with Jason Dumler the head professional; both are native Boulderites and Schalk at one time served as a volunteer assistant coach for the Buffs. The championship configuration of CNGC is 7,676 yards with a par-72 layout, though there are six tee boxes, the shortest all the way down to 4,790 yards with four in-between providing every golfer to play in his or her own comfort zone. CNGC is located at 2700 Vista Parkway (Colorado Highway 7), about two miles west of Interstate 25.
