MAP AND DIRECTIONS TO PRENTUP FIELD The Home of Colorado Soccer

To reach Prentup Field from campus, take Colorado Blvd. east through the intersections of 28th and 30th Streets. Take your first left (unmarked) on to 33rd Street. After several speed bumps and the University's Day Care Center, take a right into a dirt parking lot. Prentup Field is on the left. From Foothills Parkway, travel west on Colorado, take a right on Innovation Drive and follow that into a dirt parking lot. The field is on the right just past the track complex and ski building.

SPORTS INFORMATION

Colorado's Sports Information Department welcomes and encourages your interest in Colorado Soccer. We will make every effort to meet your needs in covering the Buffs. The sports information office maintains information on all current student-athletes and athletic department staff, as well as historical data on former athletes and Colorado's athletic department in general. The Sports Information office is located in the Balch Fieldhouse Annex on the west side of Folsom Field and opens at 8 a.m. daily. Assistant Sports Information Director Allie Musso is located in Gate 2 of Folsom Field.

MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly media releases containing updated team and individual statistics, information on upcoming games, Big 12 Conference standings and the latest NSCAA Division I poll will be available every Tuesday morning throughout the season. Game notes, media guides and roster information can be picked up before every game at the scorer's table at Prentup Field. Copies of the match statistics and postgame release can be emailed to your outlet following each game, home or away.

PRENTUP FIELD

All home games will be played on campus at Prentup Field, located on CU's East Campus at 33rd and Colorado. Admission, and parking in the adjacent lot, are free.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Interview requests should be made directly through the CU Sports Information Department. Please contact Lindsay Lew to request access to athletes. Both athletes and staff will be on the field and available to the media following a brief cooling off period at the conclusion of all games. Buff practices are held on Prentup Field, from 8:00 a.m. to approximately 9:30 a.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays and approximately 7:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. on Wednesdays. Players and coaches may speak with the media after practice. The coaching staff is generally available in their offices weekdays from 9 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and after practices. Practice times may vary. Please feel free to call any member of the coaching staff during the day at 303-492-0632, however to contact a student-athlete, we ask that you go through the sports information office.

DURING THE GAME

Statistics are available at halftime and at the end of the game. There are currently no phone lines available at Prentup, but wireless internet access is available for the 2008 season. Please see Allie Musso at the game for login information.

BUFFS ON THE WEB

For the latest on CU Soccer and all Colorado Athletics: CUBuffs.com. All Colorado soccer information can be viewed through CU's comprehensive website. All the latest information on coaches and players, as well as all box scores, statistics and weekly releases are available.

BIG 12 SERVICES

For conference information, please contact the Big 12 office at 469-524-1000. The women's soccer contact is Katie Davis. The mailing address is: 400 East John Carpenter Freeway Irving, Texas 75062. The Big 12 Conference website is www.big12sports.com.

Colorado Seniors

The University of Colorado soccer team will feature a decidedly different look this season, as CU head coach Bill Hempen moves forward after graduating two seniors and losing 11 letterwinners total from last year. Despite the losses, the cupboard was not left completely bare for Hempen and his staff; six veteran seniors and a host of solid underclassmen will anchor CU this season.

WHAT RETURNS

Colorado returns 13 letterwinners from a year ago and nine starters from last year's squad. There will be an experienced player in every level of the lineup for Hempen, with all of his minutes at goalkeeper returning and seven other starters back in Boulder.

The majority of offense returns as 84.6 percent of the goals scored (22-26), 70.8 percent of its assists (17-24) and 77.7 percent of its shot takers (213-274) will resume competition this fall. Individually, CU's leading scorer, All-Big 12 First Team selection, and U-20 national team player Nikki Marshall will be back (20 points) along with Gianna DeSaverio (12 points), Alex Cousins (8 points), and five other Buffs with goals a year ago.

Also returning from regular appearances in the starting lineup a year ago are First Team All-Big 12 and First Team NSCAA All-Region defender Michelle Wenino, Big 12 All-Newcomer Kym Lowry, and the two-header monster in goal of Kirstin Radlinski and Kara Linder. Wenino started every game in 2007 and led the Buffs in minutes played with 2,018, while Lowry started and played in all but one game, which she was forced to miss due to a concussion. Radlinski and Linder saw action in 16 and 12 games, respectively, and the two helped CU record 10 shutouts on the season.

WHAT DOESN'T

The Buffs lose 11 letterwinners from 2007 but just one regular starter in Michaela DeJesus. Two seniors graduated in Brittany Dornseif and Allison Kidd, both of which were seasoned veterans and part-time starters during their respective tenures. Also leaving the team were 12 non-starters; freshmen Kaylee Boryla, Julia Burnett, Jaclyn Cardarelli, Cortney Charlesworth, Heidi Daugherty, Brooke Hickerson, Maddie Kawa, Amanda Raley, Lauren Sandford, and Natalie Weeks, sophomore Jess Quador and junior Genna Gorman.

WHAT'S NEW

Hempen will welcome 9 new faces this season in the form of eight freshmen and one transfer. A former All-PAC 10 performer, junior midfielder Kelly Menachof, returns home to Colorado after playing at California for two years. CU has had great success with homebound transfers as current seniors Amber Bettenhausen and DeSaverio transferred from Wake Forest and Arizona, respectively, and former Colorado prep standouts Kathryn Grandinetti and Jessica Keller were immediate impact players upon their returns to Boulder in the fall of 2003 after stints at Kentucky and Miami, respectively.

The nine remaining newcomers are all freshmen and hail from seven different states. The group includes: Kelly Butler (Naperville, Ill.), Caroline Danneberg (Englewood, Colo.), Kassidy Fitzpatrick (Pleasanton, Calif.), Hannah Marsala (Alamo, Calif.), Heidi Mayer (Ft. Collins, Colo.), Kelci Newlin (Aurora, Colo.), Kate Russell (Longmont, Colo.) and Maggi Steury (Aurora, Colo.).

THE FORWARDS

The Buffs' front line will sport a somewhat new look in 2008 after losing CU's second-leading scorer Michaela DeJesus and part-time starter Allison Kidd. The Buffs' leading scorer in 2007, forward turned defender Nikki Marshall will be exclusively part of CU's attack this year, as opposed to playing primarily in the defense as she did for the majority of the 2007 season. She will be partnered with senior Gianna DeSaverio, who was CU's second leading scorer in '07 with five goals and two assists, for 12 points. Also figuring into the mix at forward will be sophomores Mel Hicks and Amanda Foulk. Foulk will be moved from her spot in the midfield to a role up top in order to utilize her speed, while Hicks looks to use her size and experience to build on her one goal and three assist effort from a year ago.

THE MIDFIELD

CU will bring back all of its primary midfielders who saw action a year ago as seniors Amber Bettenhausen, Alex Cousins and Nikki Keller return to hold down the fort in the center. Both Cousins and Keller started all 22 games last season, while Bettenhausen saw action in all 22, but did not become a regular in the starting lineup until the last third of the season. The remaining returning midfielder is junior Ailly Goodman who saw action in just 12 contests last season, but after a successful and productive spring, she will have the opportunity to become one of CU's central midfielders in 2008. Junior transfer Kelly Menachof is a new face to this year's roster, but after enrolling in CU last winter, she was able to play with the Buffs in the spring season where she saw significant playing time as a regular starter, adding stability to the attacking midfielder position, which will help her maintain a starting role throughout the 2008 season.

Joining the veterans in the midfield will be freshmen Kelly Butler, Caroline Danneberg, Kassidy Fitzpatrick, and Kate Russell, each with the opportunity and ability to challenge the returners for positions in Hempen's starting lineup.

THE DEFENSE

The heart of the defense returns from last season in the form of All-Big 12 First Team and NSCAA All-Central Region Second Team selection, senior Michelle Wenino. Arguably the best player during the 2007 season, Wenino led the Buffs in 10 shutouts on the year, while logging a team-high 2,018 minutes, only coming out of the game due to brief injuries.

Wenino is joined by sophomore Kym Lowry, who returns as the only other defender from last season to have started all 21 games that she played in, only missing one due to a concussion. Lowry stepped up for the Buffaloes as a freshman last season, earning a spot on the All-Big 12 Newcomer team for her efforts in the backfield. Veterans Tobie Rippey, Taryn Vitacca and Mary White all saw action in the lineup for Hempen on defense last season, while Kelly Ross returns after redshirting her sophomore year due to a knee injury that she suffered in preseason.

Newcomers Hannah Marsala, Heidi Mayer, Kelci Newlin and Maggi Steury will also try to crack the code and battle for playing time in the deepest area of CU's roster.

THE KEEPERS

Senior Kirstin Radlinski and junior Kara Linder will continue to battle it out for the starting job this season. Last year, Radlinski got the initial nod to start the season, but Linder worked her way back into the lineup towards the end of the year and solidified her spot for the rest of '07. Radlinski posted a record of 5-5-3, including five shutouts and a goals against average of 1.51, while Linder finished with 12 appearances, a record of 5-3-1, a Big 12 leading .036 GAA average, and four shutouts.

Last season is over, and the duo will each start training camp this fall with a clean slate and a shot at the starting job. One of them will have to win the job in 2008, and it will not be based on their performances in 2007.

THE SCHEDULE

The 2008 schedule for the Buffaloes will feature eight teams that participated in the 2007 NCAA Tournament (Denver, Florida, Memphis, James Madison, Texas A&M, Texas, Oklahoma State, and Missouri).

The Buffs season will kick off on Saturday, August 16 with an exhibition match at Air Force. The regular season opener will be Friday, August 22 as CU plays host to Florida, who advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the 2007 NCAA Tournament. The Buffs will then face in-state rivals Denver on Sunday, Aug. 24.

CU will open Big 12 play prematurely this season, traveling to Lubbock, Texas to face the Texas Tech Red Raiders on Aug. 29. The Buffs will return home and face San Francisco and James Madison on Aug. 31 and Sep. 7, respectively. Following that weekend the Buffaloes will take their first bona fide road trip, traveling to Mississippi and Memphis on Sept. 12 and 14.

CU will return home to host the Colorado Soccer Classic, hosting Denver, Gonzaga, and Fresno State. CU will face Gonzaga and Fresno State on Sept. 19 and 21 to close out non-conference play.

The Buffs will then dive into the 2008 Big 12 season, hosting Oklahoma on Friday, Sept. 26 and will be followed by a match against Oklahoma State on Sept. 28. CU then travels to face Missouri and Kansas on Oct. 3 and 5, with the hopes of two victories as both teams beat the Buffs a year ago. On Oct. 10 and 12, Colorado will host Texas and Baylor. The Buffs last faced Texas in the first round of the Big 12 Tournament, where they played to a 0-0 tie, but the Longhorns advanced to the semifinals by way of penalty kicks.

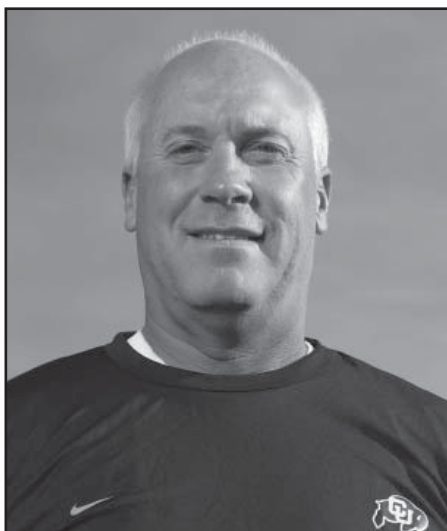

After a three-game road trip against Nebraska, Iowa State, and Drake, the Buffs will close out the regular season on Senior Day, playing host to Texas A&M on Sunday, Oct. 26. That will be followed by the Big 12 Tournament, which will be played Nov. 5, 7, and 9 at Blossom Athletic Complex in San Antonio, Texas.

Colorado Freshmen

HEAD COACH BILL HEMPEN

After seven seasons in Boulder, head coach Bill Hempen has produced a team that battles for the Big 12 Conference championship year in and year out.

When he arrived in Boulder in the summer of 2001, he found himself inheriting a team that though close, had yet to put together a winning Big 12 season. He started to put the pieces in place that would make Colorado Soccer a success.

It then took just two seasons to orchestrate the biggest single-season turnaround in CU and Big 12 history, and one of the best in the nation when his 2002 squad went 10-8-2 and finished fifth in the league just a year after his first team struggled at 3-11-1 to finish 10th.

It would take just one more year to turn naysayers into believers as the Buffs went from 10th to first with the program's first conference title, a 15-4-1 record, nine shutouts, a 14-match unbeaten streak, the school's first national ranking in the sport, a Big 12 Coach of the Year title for Hempen and the program's first NCAA Tournament bid in 2003.

While Hempen took a leap of faith to leave a Duke program that he started in 1988, he credits others that leapt along with him for bringing Colorado its first conference crown in 2003.

Along with the efforts of his assistant coaches, he credits 2003 Big 12 Player of the Year Fran Munnelly's commitment to come to CU during that 3-11-1 season, "She must have seen my passion and commitment to make it work here. My track record, the locale and University was good enough for her to come here."

Since his arrival in Boulder during the summer of 2001, Colorado soccer has reinvented itself.

He won his 50th game at CU when the Buffs topped UNC 3-0 on Oct. 10, 2005, and coached his milestone 350th game on Oct. 17, 2004 and the record breaking 7-0 shutout against Texas Tech gave the 17-year veteran his milestone 200th career victory.

He is among the all-time winningest coaches in NCAA Division I women's soccer history, with 241 career wins, good for 19th on the active list.

"What this means is that I've been doing this a long time," said Hempen after the match. "It's really an honor and a tribute to all the kids that have put up with me over the years and to my first team at Duke (1988) who also contributed to this."

As the program enters its 13th season, one need only look at Hempen's leadership when charting its future. Since his arrival, the Buffs have gone 79-51-19 (.608) overall and 35-27-8 (.565) in Big 12 Conference play. Included in five top-five league finishes is the 2003 Big 12 Championship and that season's player, rookie and coach of the year in addition to 20 player appearances on All-Big 12 teams. Colorado has claimed 11 spots on all-region teams, and boasts a three time All-American in Fran Munnelly, who was also named to the Big 12 10th Anniversary team in 2005. Hempen has coached the Buffaloes to five-straight NCAA appearances, including a program-best appearance in the NCAA Sweet Sixteen in 2006.

In the classroom, 54 players have been named to Academic All-Big 12 teams while the 2003 squad won the athletic department's most improved honor for a team as its aggregate grade point average rose .44 from the previous academic year. In 2005, senior goalkeeper Jessie Keller was named a CoSIDA District VII Academic All-Region Soccer Team member, the first in CU history.

When hired on June 5, 2001, Bill Hempen came to Boulder with eight NCAA Tournament Appearances, three ACC Coach of the Year honors, 1992 National Soccer Coaches Association of America National Coach of the Year recognition, and one of the winningest programs during the last decade under his belt.

He came to Colorado from Duke, where he had been the Blue Devils' head coach since the program's inception in 1988.

He led the Blue Devils to eight appearances in the NCAA Tournament and had a career record of 162-100-16 (.676) in Durham. He was the NSCAA National Coach of the Year in 1992, and was also named Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year three times (1992, 1994 and 1997) while directing Duke to the 16th most wins in the country (124) in the 1990s.

Hempen's Duke teams finished the season ranked in the national polls nine times with their highest finish coming in 1994, a No. 4 ranking following Duke's first ACC regular season title and a win over 13-time national champion North Carolina to snap the Tar Heels' 101-game unbeaten streak.

The 1992 season was among Hempen's finest, as he led his team to a school-record 17 wins and a berth in the national championship game in its first trip to the NCAA tournament. Since then, Duke teams have advanced to the NCAA tournament every season sans 1998.

In his 13 seasons at Duke, he coached nine All-Americans, 34 All-ACC players, seven Academic All-ACC selections and three players that played professionally in the WUSA.

He also has significant experience with the United States Soccer Federation's Olympic Development Program, specifically in Region III and as the head coach of Colorado's state ODP Program.

Born June 6, 1958 in St. Louis, Hempen graduated from Bishop DeBourg High School before attending Meramec Community College in St. Louis where he split time in goal for Meramec's 1976 Junior College National Championship and 1977 Runner-Up teams.

He continued his collegiate career as a two-year letterwinner in goal at the University of Evansville for the 1978 and '79 seasons compiling a 22-11-6 mark in that span. He graduated from Evansville in 1981 with a degree in Health/Physical Education. The New Jersey Americans of the American Soccer League drafted Hempen in 1980.

Hempen got his start in the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at Northeast Louisiana before assuming full-time assistant duties at Centenary College in Shreveport, La., where he served three years prior to his start at Duke.

He was an assistant coach on the Blue Devil men's team from 1986-1991, compiling a 78-36-7 overall record and 16-16-4 ACC slate. In those six seasons Duke advanced to three NCAA Tournaments, winning the NCAA Championship in '86 with a 1-0 victory over Akron in Seattle.

He married then-Duke assistant coach and 1990 Colorado graduate Stephanie Poncher in 1999. The couple has an 8-year-old daughter, Emma, and a 6-year-old son, Lucas.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH PAUL HOGAN

The constant of Bill Hempen's tenure at Colorado has been the presence of associate head coach Paul Hogan. Hogan has been Hempen's right hand man since his arrival prior to the 2001 season.

Paul Hogan is in his eighth season at Colorado, his third as associate head coach as he was promoted August 22, 2006.

During his time in Boulder, Colorado has won the 2003 Big 12 Championship, appeared in four NCAA tournaments and have earned five top-five league finishes.

In addition to his duties as assistant coach on the Boulder campus, Hogan is also in his sixth season coaching the Colorado ODP teams.

Prior to his arrival in Boulder, Hogan spent three seasons at Allegheny College where he guided the Gators to a 35-16-7 (.686) overall record and 17-6-2 (.739) North Coast Athletic Conference mark while producing 16 All-NCAC players.

His three Gator teams finished no lower than third in the final NCAC standings and his 1999 squad won a school record six conference games, matched by the 2000 team, earning Hogan conference coach of the year accolades and Allegheny NCAC Newcomer and Offensive Player of the Year postseason honors.

Hogan made the leap to head coach in April 1998 from Duke where he was an assistant for the 1996 and '97 seasons. He assisted the Blue Devils to a two-year record of 28-11. In 1997, Duke finished 15-5-0, 4-2-0 in Atlantic Coast Conference action and won the ACC tournament championship. Over his two seasons, Hogan helped coach three All-Americans and 11 All-ACC selections.

Previously, Hogan spent one season contributing at his alma mater as a volunteer, the University of Charleston (W.V.). He helped Charleston to a 17-3 record and an NCAA Division II playoff berth in 1995.

Hogan graduated from Charleston in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in sports science. There, he was a three-time All-West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference selection at goalkeeper. He earned All-South Region honors from the National Soccer Coaches Association in both 1993 and 1994, and led the Golden Eagles to WVIAC championships in 1992 and 1994.

Born August 22, 1972, the Monroe, N.Y. native is a 1990 graduate of Washingtonville High School. He is the oldest of two and his younger sister Nancy also played soccer at Elon College in North Carolina. In what little free time he has, Hogan likes to golf.

He married former Colorado assistant coach Alli Hunt this past May.

ASSISTANT COACH TRACY CHAO

Tracy Chao will begin her first season as assistant coach for the Buffaloes. Chao comes to CU from Northern Colorado where she was an assistant coach for three years under head coach Tim Barrera.

Chao was a standout player at Wake Forest University under head coach Tony DaLuz, and helped lead the nationally ranked Demon Deacons to a 49-31-6 record and four-straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1999-2002.

The defender turned goalkeeper earned MVP honors as a sophomore and became the first ACC goalkeeper to ever shutout the eventual 2000 National Champions, North Carolina. For her efforts in the 1-0 win over UNC, Chao was named to Soccer America's Team of the Week and was also crowned ACC Player of the Week on Oct. 30, 2000. Chao returned to back to the defense as a junior to wrap up her playing tenure with Wake Forest.

Chao was a member of the W-League's Carolina Dynamo from 2000-02 and once residing in Colorado, she served as the team captain for both the Mile High Edge in 2006 and the Ft. Collins Force in 2007.

A Raleigh, N.C. native, Tracy Chao was born on Aug. 10, 1981 in Raleigh. Prior to playing at Wake Forest, she captained her club team, the '81 CASL Raleigh Spartan Spirit, which she led to the 1993 and 1996 state championships.

A starter on the North Carolina State Select team, Chao participated in the Olympic Development Program from 1995-98 and was a member of the Region III Pool team in 1997. In prep play, the all-state defender was named Region 6 Player of the Year, Tri-Seven Conference Player of the Year, and was a three-time all-region and all-conference selection at Wake Forest Rolesville High School.

A 2003 recipient of the Brian Surette Soccer Writer's Award, Chao graduated from Wake Forest University with a bachelor's degree in sociology and holds a master's degree in sport administration from the University of Northern Colorado.

Her hobbies include playing golf and snowboarding.

James Hardy
Assistant Speed-Strength & Conditioning Coach
Second Season

James Hodges Hardy II is in his second year as a member of the University of Colorado strength and conditioning staff. Hardy joined the staff in August of 2007 and will work with the soccer, volleyball, skiing and football programs at CU. He comes to the Buffs after spending two years at Auburn University as a graduate assistant in the Tiger's strength and conditioning department. Hardy received his master's degree in biomechanics from AU in 2006. His certifications include CSCS and CSCCa. Hardy was the assistant strength coach at Christopher Newport University from 2004-05. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from CNU in 2003. Hardy was born on December 5, 1981 in Danville, Va. He graduated from Lafayette High School in 2000 and lettered in soccer. Hardy's hobbies include fishing and surfing.

Yolanda Hinton
Assistant Athletic Trainer
Third Season

Yolanda Hinton is in her third year as an assistant athletic trainer, as she joined the program in August of 2006. Hinton came to Colorado from Kent State University where she was the graduate assistant athletic trainer for Football and Baseball. While at Kent State she earned a master's degree in Exercise, Leisure and Sport. She is a 2003 graduate of Grand Valley State University in Michigan, where she earned her bachelor's degree in Physical Education, with an emphasis in Athletic Training. While at Grand Valley, Yolanda served as co-head athletic training student for the 2003 Division II National Championship football team. Hinton became a Certified Athletic Trainer in 2004, and is a current member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association. Born December 10, 1980 in Lansing, Mich., she graduated from Lansing Everett (Mich.) High School in 1999. Her hobbies include reading, listening to music and working out.

Allie Musso
Assistant Sports Information Director
Second Season

Allie Musso is in her second year as an assistant sports information director, as she joined the program in August of 2007. Musso is no stranger to the CU athletic department as she spent four years as a student assistant in the sports information office. She served as the primary student for women's soccer all four years and worked with men's basketball for three years. She graduated from CU with a degree in communication in May of 2007. Musso was the first woman to be named Senior Student Assistant in the SID office, and was just the second woman to work four years in the office as a student. In the spring of her senior year she was named the winner of the athletic department's student support services academic award. She also did a stint in the spring of her junior year as a walkon goalkeeper for Bill Hempen's squad when his netminder corps was depleted. Born November 1, 1985 in Alameda, Calif., she graduated from Alameda High School in 2003. Her hobbies include playing softball, indoor soccer and watching baseball.

Erin Cunningham
Academic Coordinator
Third Season

Erin Cunningham is in her third year as the assistant director for academic and career development in the office of academic support. Cunningham, 30, earned her degree in psychology in 2000 and her master's degree in speech communication in 2002, both from Colorado State. She was a four-year letterwinner in on the cross country and track teams at CSU and competed in the NCAA Cross Country National Championship. Cunningham won the Western Athletic Conference Scholar Athlete Award from 1997-98 and received the Mountain West Conference Scholar Athlete Award 1999-2001. Prior to joining the athletic department, Cunningham was a professional academic counselor at CU. Born Oct. 12, 1977, in Boulder, Colo., she lettered in cross country, basketball and track & field at Boulder High School, where Cunningham graduated in 1996.

Jason DePaepe
Athletic Turf Manager
Eighth Season

Jason DePaepe is in his eighth season as Athletic Turf Manager at the University of Colorado, as he was promoted to the position in February 2001. He previously worked one season as the assistant turf manager after joining the CU staff in June 2000. DePaepe is responsible for all maintenance, renovation, upkeep and painting and design of Folsom Field as well as the football practice fields located just north of Boulder Creek and Prentup Field. The Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA) honored DePaepe and his staff in January 2003, when the organization recognized Folsom Field's turf with the Football Field of the Year Award for the college/university division. STMA has over 2,400 members, so the award, especially in just the fourth season since Folsom returned to natural grass, was quite an honor. He came to CU from the Baltimore Ravens, where he was the assistant field manager for a year. Prior to that, he was employed at Iowa State, where he graduated from in 1999 with bachelor's degree in horticulture and turf grass management. He worked two years at ISU as a student turf manager. Born May 4, 1974 in Minot, N.D., he graduated from Waterloo (Iowa) West, where he lettered in baseball and basketball. His hobbies include playing golf and basketball.

Ryan Newman
Associate Turf Manager
Seventh Season

Ryan Newman is in his seventh season as Associate Turf Manager at the University of Colorado. The Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA) honored Newman and his staff in January 2003, when the organization recognized Folsom Field's turf with the Football Field of the Year Award for the college/university division. Prior to working at CU, Newman was a student assistant turf manager at Iowa State University, where he graduated with a major in Turfgrass Management in 2002. He worked for two years for the Sioux City Explorers Baseball Club as the Head Groundskeeper. Newman and his staff at Lewis and Clark Park received the Northern League Field of the Year Award in 1999 and 2000. Newman lettered three years as a pitcher in baseball at Morningside College, a Division II school in Sioux City, Iowa. Born March 11, 1979 in Sioux City, Iowa, he graduated from Sioux City East, where he lettered in baseball and football. His hobbies include playing sports and camping.

Third Season

Eric Pelloni is in his third season as the Assistant Director of BuffVision, although he has been involved in CU Athletics for the better part of seven years. Pelloni is the associate producer of "The Buffalo Stampede" coaches show which airs weekly on Fox Sports Net Rocky Mountain. He assists with the video packages for CU's video display boards and has been on the BuffVision game day crew for seven seasons. When CU Athletics overhauled its official athletic website, CUBuffs.com, in 2003, Pelloni was hired on a part-time basis to create video content and stream live events for The Stampede Online subscription service. He has also created the majority of the graphic work and assisted in the designing of CUBuffs.com. Prior to his full-time appointment at CU, Pelloni worked as a freelance video editor/graphic artist in the Denver area, creating video content for both broadcast and non-broadcast applications for a number of clients including Qwest Communications, Coors, XCEL Energy and the United Way of New York City. Pelloni graduated from Metropolitan State College of Denver in 1998 and served as an Adjunct Professor at Metro State in 2003-04.

2007 FIRST TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12

HEMPEN ON BETTENHAUSEN: We expect amber to build on what she did last fall. She proved to be a very good player late in the season and we will look to her to carry that into this year.

JUNIOR (2007): After redshirting her first year at Colorado to rehabilitate from a knee injury that she suffered prior to the 2006 season, she quickly became an important part of the midfield, seeing significant action in all of CU's 22 games. Bettenhausen earned eight starts in her first season as a Buffalo, becoming a regular in the starting lineup late in the season during Big 12 play and finished the year starting in six-straight games at midfield. She recorded a game-high three points in the 3-2 win over Baylor as she scored the first goal and dished out an assist on the game-tying goal. Bettenhausen was one of three Buffs to be named to the 2007 Academic All-Big 12 First Team.

AT WAKE FOREST: Played in 14 games and earned one start, scoring one goal for two points. Closed the season with four shots, and knocked in her first career goal against Davidson. Took one shot against Florida State and made her first start against Maryland. Tore her ACL in the spring of her freshman year and did not play as a sophomore. As a freshman, Bettenhausen was a teammate of former CU assistant coach Alli Hunt, who was a senior.

IN THE CLASSROOM:

A two-time Dean's List selection at Wake Forest, Bettenhausen is a business major with an emphasis in finance and real estate at Colorado and a three-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll member. Bettenhausen received an award from the Multicultural Affairs department at CU for academic achievement and she was also one of three Buffaloes to be named to the 2007 Academic All-Big 12 First Team.

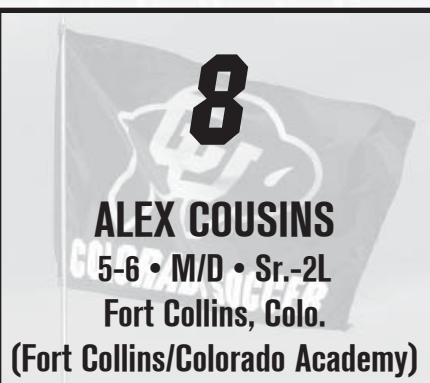

HIGH SCHOOL: Bettenhausen was a four-year letterwinner for Northwood H.S., and also earned three letters in track. She earned All-Pacific Coast League first team honors as a junior, helping her Timberwolves team to the PCL Championship. She played club soccer for the Southern California Blues, West Coast FC, Southern California United and Irvine Strikers. A multi-sport athlete at Northwood, Bettenhausen also lettered track her senior year, running in the CIF championships as a member of the 4x100 team.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 15, 1986 in Newport Beach, Calif., Amber is the daughter of Paul & Jean Bettenhausen. She has one brother, Nathan, who attends law school at Loyola in Los Angeles, Calif.

HEMPEN ON COUSINS: We expect big things from Alex this year. She just loves to play soccer and since this is her last year, we might just see the best that Alex has to offer.

JUNIOR (2007): Cousins proved to be an integral part of the midfield, finishing the season as the third-leading scorer with three goals and two assists, for eight points. She was crowned Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week and named to the Soccer Buzz Team of the Week after scoring the equalizer in the overtime win against Oklahoma (2-1) and recording the game-winning goal two days later to defeat then-No. 25 Oklahoma State, 1-0. Cousins started every game for the Buffs and logged the third-highest number of minutes on the season with 1,921. Her eight points moved her to 11th on CU's all-time career points list and her two assists moved her into sixth overall in career assists.

SOPHOMORE (2006): Was the second-leading scorer for the Buffs with five goals and seven assists on the year. Cousins was also a First Team Academic All-Big 12 selection, one of four Buffs to earn academic accolades. She scored the game-tying goal against Texas on Nov. 5 in CU's 1-1 tie with the Longhorns in the championship game. She saw action in all 24 games and started all but one, playing 2,078 minutes on the season. Cousins led Colorado in assists with seven, the second-highest single season total in school history. Her 17 total points were the 13th highest single season total in CU history, and her five goals were good for 16th all time.

FRESHMAN (2005): Cousins started 12 of 24 games as a freshman, playing mostly in the midfield but also seeing time up top. She managed 30 shots on the season, including eight on goal in 1,169 minutes of play. She scored her first career goal in the Big 12 Championship game against Texas A&M, tying the game off a cross from Laura Munnely at the 63:40 mark.

HIGH SCHOOL: A four-year letterwinner, following her junior and senior seasons Cousins was named the team's most valuable player, first-team all-Northern Conference in '04, and first-team all-Front Range in '05. Rocky Mountain News All-Colorado, first-team all-state and the Denver Post's 5A Player of the Year after leading the state in assists as a junior. She was all-Colorado and first-team all state both seasons. The Lambkins were the 2003 and 2004 Northern Conference Champions and the 2004 and 2005 5A state runners-up. Cousins played club ball for the Colorado Girls Soccer Academy which was the State Cup runners-up in 2004.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Cousins graduated with a 3.9 gpa and was FCHS's Student of the Year in '05. She was Colorado High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Academic Team Champion and first-team Academic All-State performer from 2003-05 and was Fort Collins' CU Junior of the Year. An environmental science major at Colorado, Cousins has earned recognition on both the Fall and Spring Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll since she arrived at CU and was able to maintain a GPA between 3.00-3.49 as a freshman during the Fall soccer season.

PERSONAL: Alexis Kayn Cousins was born May 16, 1987 in Fort Collins, Colo. She is the youngest of Marc and Sherry Cousins' three children. She has two older brothers, Zack (25) and Jake (23). An artist, her mediums are painting and drawing. She also makes jewelry, enjoys mountain biking and climbing. Her volunteer work includes driving for Meals On Wheels, SART (Sexual Assault Resource Team) and RAPP (Raising Awareness of Personal Power).

HEMPEN ON DeSAVERIO: Gianna was a fantastic addition to the program last fall. Her determination is what sets her apart from many of her teammates and we hope that they follow her lead as she enters her senior year.

JUNIOR (2007): DeSaverio made an immediate impact the minute she stepped on the field for the Buffaloes, seeing action in all 22 games, earning 16 starts. She was the second-leading scorer with five goals and two assists for 12 points. She scored her first goal in a Colorado uniform against Utah and got on the board again with the final goal in the 2-0 win over Wyoming. She recorded two game-winning goals, one of which coming in the 3-2 win over Baylor and the second coming in the NCAA First Round win against Hawaii. DeSaverio finished the season as the second leading scorer in six statistical categories for the Buffs: points (12), goals (five), game winning goals (two), shots (38), shot percentage (.132), and shots on goal (22).

AT ARIZONA: Was named First Team All-PAC 10 as a sophomore, leading Arizona with six goals and four assists in 20 appearances. Was also an Honorable Mention Academic All-Pac 10 performer. As a freshman, DeSaverio played in all 22 games, earning one start, as a forward. Placed 10 of her 16 shot attempts on goal, putting three in the net. Recorded her first career assist in 2-1 upset over Princeton and netted her first career goal in 4-0 victory over Penn. Scored a goal and earned an assist in 3-0 win over Oregon State and scored Arizona's lone goal in a 2-1 overtime loss at Washington State.

HIGH SCHOOL: Graduated from Chatfield Senior High School where she played for coach Cindy Cannon. A team captain her junior and senior seasons, DeSaverio was named the team's MVP both years. She was a four time All-Jeffco pick, and also earned all-city honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. She was All-Jeffco District her junior and senior years. Earned all-region and all-state accolades her junior and senior seasons. DeSaverio was named 2004 Player of the Year, 2004 and 2005 Colorado Player of the Year and was named MVP of the state game in her junior season. She received Gatorade's Girls' Soccer Player of the Year award for Colorado. She holds school records for most goals scored by a freshman, career assists and goals scored at Chatfield, where her team was the 2002 State runner-ups, 2003 league champions and 2004 state champions. DeSaverio competed on the Colorado Rush Club team for coach Tim Schulz and they were state champions in 2002, 2003 and 2004 and National Champions in 2006.

IN THE CLASSROOM: DeSaverio is a biology and anthropology major at Colorado, as well as a two-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection.

PERSONAL: Born Gianna Marie DeSaverio on Jan. 10, 1987, she is the daughter of Albert and Janet DeSaverio. She has two older brothers, Dominic and Anthony.

AMANDA FOULK

5-4 • F • So.-1L

Broomfield, Colo.

(Broomfield/Fort Collins Arsenal)

HEMPEN ON FOULK: Amanda is going to be moved to the forward position to give her more of an opportunity to use her speed and run at the defense.

FRESHMAN (2007): Foulk played in 17 of CU's 22 matches, earning her first career start against Drake, where she played a career-high 60 minutes. Foulk dished out two assists on the season, both coming in the 4-0 win over Utah early in the year.

HIGH SCHOOL: Foulk was a four-year letterwinner at Broomfield high school. As a junior she helped the Eagles to a 16-2-2 record overall with 15 goals and 10 assists en route to 4A First Team All-State, All-Region and Northern League All-Conference honors in the first state championship for the program. As a sophomore, BHS went 16-2-1 with Foulk chipping in 11 goals and nine assists, taking home First Team All-Conference honors and Honorable Mention All-State. Her freshman year team at Broomfield was 15-4-1, with Foulk scoring 15 goals and dishing out five assists, earning First Team All-Conference honors. On the club side she played for the Fort Collins Arsenal, where her team finished as 2006 State Cup runners-up.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Foulk is a pre-journalism major at Colorado and is interested in advertising as well. She was an Academic All-State performer at Broomfield High School was named to the honor roll all four years.

ALLY GOODMAN

5-3 • M • Jr.-2L

Cherry Hills, Colo.

(Cherry Creek/Real Colorado)

HEMPEN ON GOODMAN: Ally has a real chance at being one of our central midfielders. Her spring was outstanding and she had an opportunity to play almost every minute of every spring competition, which really gave her a lot of confidence, as well as her teammates confidence in her.

SOPHOMORE (2007): Saw action in 12 of CU's 22 games and recorded her second career start against Fairfield, playing a season-high 34 minutes in the match. Goodman logged a career-high 164 minutes and managed one shot on the year.

FRESHMAN (2006): Goodman saw action in 14 of CU's 24 games, and started against Wyoming following CU's double-overtime draw with Nebraska. She managed two shots, one on goal, in the second game of the season vs. Alabama, where she also played a season high 42 minutes. Goodman played 160 minutes on the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Was a four-year letterwinner in her high school career, spending her first two years at Smoky Hill before transferring to Cherry Creek for her junior and senior seasons. At Smoky Hill, she lettered twice under coach Randy Freeman, winning two Centennial League championships with records of 14-3-0 as a sophomore and 12-3-1 as a freshman. At Cherry Creek, the Bruins won the 2005 Centennial League championship with a record of 12-2-3. Her club team, Real Colorado National, was a two-time State Cup champion. They won the title in 2003-04 and 2004-05, advancing to the championship game in Region IV in 2005 under coaches Lorne Donaldson and Jared Spires. While at Smoky Hill, she also ran cross country for two years, lettering twice, and lettered in basketball as a sophomore.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Goodman is sociology and communication major at Colorado and a two-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection.

PERSONAL: Allyson Candace Goodman was born July 5, 1988 in Denver. She is the daughter of Curtis and Pam Goodman. She has three siblings and comes from a family with two sets of twins. Her twin brother, Aric, is a kicker for the Colorado football team. She has two younger sisters, twins Maddie and Renee, who are 17. Her hobbies include playing tennis, listening to music and throwing the football around with her brother.

 Federal Way, Wash.
 (Thomas Jefferson/Washington Premiere)

18
KELLIS JOHNSON
 5-8 • GK • Jr.-2L
 San Anselmo, Calif.
 (Marin Catholic)

HEMPEN ON HICKS: Mel could be a force in our attack and a target player upfront if she chooses to be this season. Our hope is that she makes the right choice.

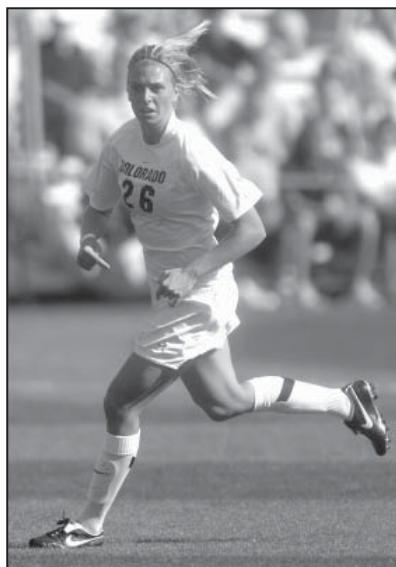

FRESHMAN (2007): Hicks finished her freshman campaign with one goal and three assists after seeing action in all 22 games, including nine starts. Her first career goal came in CU's NCAA first round match against Hawai'i, helping the Buffs advance to the second round. Hicks recorded two assists in the 4-0 win over Nebraska, tying her for first in the Big 12 for most assists in a single game, a record which she went on to hold for the remainder of the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hicks was a four-time letterwinner at Thomas Jefferson High School. As a senior, she scored 13 goals with seven assists and earned First Team All-League and All-State honors as her Raider team went 12-5-2. She was also a First Team All-League and Second Team All-State selection as a junior, scoring 23 goals and five assists, and was named the SPSL Player of the Year. Hicks was the team's leading scorer and Most Valuable Player as a senior and as a sophomore. Thomas Jefferson was 48-20-7 with Hicks on the pitch, and she finished her high school career with 58 goals and 16 assists. A two-sport athlete for the Raiders, Hicks was also lettered three years with the track team posting a 61.0 400m, 2:26 800m, and 5:25 mile. Hicks was also a member of the Washington Premier FC team that advanced to the 2004 and 2005 Washington State Cup Semifinals and were 2006 runner-ups. Hicks played on Washington's State Olympic Development team in 2003 and 2005.

IN THE CLASSROOM:

A four-year honor society member and Vice President of TJHS Letter club, Hicks is a Business Marketing major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Melissa "Mel" Hicks was born on Sept. 23, 1988 in Seattle, Wash. She is the daughter of Jim and Kim Hicks and the older sister of Spencer (16). Her father, Jim, played basketball at South Dakota School of Mines and Technology. Her hobbies include playing the guitar and snowboarding and she enjoys writing and composing songs on the guitar and piano.

HEMPEN ON JOHNSON: We are looking forward to seeing how Kellis has prepared herself for the fall to further challenge Kara Linder and Kirstin Radlinski for playing opportunities.

SOPHOMORE (2007):

Continued to battle with fellow netminders Kara Linder and Kirstin Radlinski but saw no action in her sophomore campaign. Has seen time in both of her spring seasons and has not allowed a goal.

FRESHMAN (2006):

Saw no action as a freshman as CU was very deep at the goalkeeper position with Kara Linder and Kirstin Radlinski splitting time in the back.

HIGH SCHOOL:

Johnson was a two-time letterwinner for Marin Catholic Preparatory. As a senior, Johnson recorded 21 shutouts, 52 saves and only allowed four goals by her in 23 games. Johnson led her team to an NCS and MCAL Championship in 2006 and earned first team all-league honors as well as the Wildcats sportsmanship award. As a junior, Johnson helped her team to a 22-1-2 record and was a second team all-league selection and earned the coaches award as the Wildcats finished as finalists in the NCS Championship game. In that season, she recorded 22 shutouts and only allowed four goals. Johnson was a member of the Bay Oaks club team under former University of California at Berkeley head coach, Kevin Boyd.

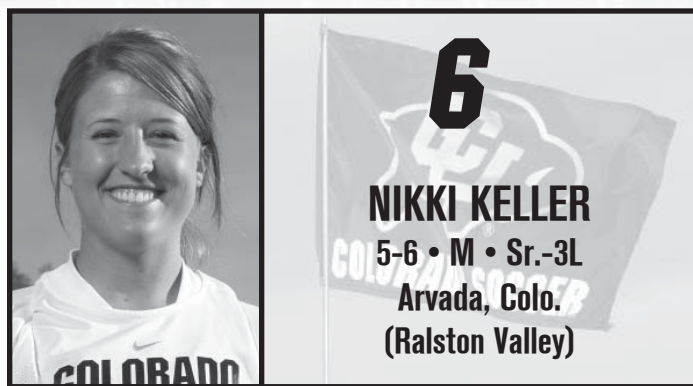

IN THE CLASSROOM: Johnson was named to the Distinguished Scholastic Team as a junior and senior and also received a Certificate of Excellence in Art and a Medal of Excellence in Library Media as a senior. Johnson is majoring in studio arts with a focus on ceramics and is also interested in pursuing a degree in advertising.

PERSONAL: Kellis Ann Johnson was born on June 30, 1988 in Greenbrae, Calif. She is the daughter of Geoff and Laura Johnson and the younger sister of James (31). Her hobbies include ceramics, working on her Jeep, and listening to music. Johnson was a member of the Marin Catholic "200 Club" as she accomplished over 200 hours of community service.

2005 BIG 12 ALL-NEWCOMER TEAM
2006 BIG 12 ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM
2007 SECOND TEAM ALL-BIG 12

HEMPEN ON KELLER: Nikki was outstanding as a junior and if she keeps that up, she will only get better as a senior. Her game has become more complete as she has progressed through the program and we are looking forward to good things from her, maybe not statistically, but certainly in consistency.

JUNIOR (2007): Keller started all 22 games for the Buffaloes on the season and finished the year with one goal and two assists in a career-high 1,901 minutes of action. Keller's lone goal in her junior campaign proved to be the gamewinner in CU's 4-0 win over Nebraska. After seeing occasional action as a forward during her first two years as a Buff, Keller made the permanent move to midfield where she remains as an integral part of CU's everyday lineup. Keller's two assists on the season bumped her up to a tie for seventh on Colorado's all-time career assists chart with nine. Her presence and consistency in the midfield allowed her to pick up her second career All-Big 12 honor as she was named to the All-Big 12 second team.

SOPHOMORE (2006): Saw action in all 24 games, starting 23, playing mostly at outside midfield but occasionally seeing spot duty at forward. Keller scored three goals on the season, the first in CU's second game of the year against Alabama. She also scored against Wyoming after coming off the bench in that game following CU's double overtime draw at Nebraska, and scored CU's lone goal against Kansas in the Big 12 Tournament. Keller dished out a trio of assists, with two against Clemson and also the gametying assist in CU's come-from-behind win over A&M in the Big 12 Tournament. She saw 1,882 minutes of action, with 36 shots, 11 on goal.

FRESHMAN (2005): Keller started 20 of CU's 24 games in her first year, scoring four goals and notching four assists, good for 12 points and tied with Allison Kidd as CU's third leading scorer. She notched two game winning goals, against Pittsburgh and Iowa State. Her goal vs. Pitt was the first of her career, and came at the 83:11 mark. She managed a career high four shots on four different occasions and posted 42 on the year, 22 of which were on goal.

HIGH SCHOOL: Keller and the Ralston Valley Mustangs won four straight Jeffco League Championships and reached the 4A state quarterfinal rounds in 2002 and '04 and semifinal play in 2003. Keller was a second-team all-Jeffco performer as a freshman and first-team all-conference and second-team all-state as a sophomore, junior and senior. A three-sport athlete at Ralston Valley, Keller was a four-year letterwinner of the Mustangs' 4x100 and 4x200-m relay teams and has run the open 100 and 200 distances. On the track she was a second-team all-conference runner as a freshman, and first team as a sophomore, junior and senior. She also ran cross country as a freshman. Keller played her club ball for the Colorado Girls Soccer Academy, and coach James Harris. She was also recruited by Illinois and Denver.

IN THE CLASSROOM: A four-year academic letterwinner in high school, Keller is an Integrative Physiology major at CU and the community service representative for the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

PERSONAL: The daughter of Jeff and Pamela Keller, Nikki was born Jan. 30, 1987 in Wheat Ridge Colo. She is the twin sister of Jessi who plays soccer at the University of Denver, where she too wears the number 6. The two have a younger brother, TJ, who will be a sophomore at Metro State in Denver. William Keller, her fraternal grandfather, played basketball at Colorado State in the 50s before transferring to CU and graduating in 1957. Her hobbies include snowboarding and her favorite mountain is Keystone.

KARA LINDER
5-9 • GK • Jr.-2L
Lincoln, Neb.
(Lincoln East)

BIG 12 NEWCOMER OF THE WEEK (AUG. 28, 2006)

HEMPEN ON LINDER: Kara can set herself up to be our number one goalkeeper if she continues to progress the way she did as a sophomore.

SOPHOMORE (2007): Saw action in 12 of CU's 22 games and picked up nine starts on the year, including a four-game stretch early in the season where she didn't let in a single goal. Linder led all Big 12 goalkeepers with a conference-low 0.36 goals against average and the conference-high .900 save percentage on the season, allowing only three goals all year. She finished the season with four shutouts and was also at the top of the Big 12 leaderboard with 0.33 shutouts per game. Linder grabbed a career-high 27 saves and owned a 5-3-1 record in her sophomore campaign. Her 2007 stats moved her to the top of the CU career charts for goals against average, with a program-low 0.72.

FRESHMAN (2006): Linder started her freshman year off in style, dueling NSCAA All-Region goalkeeper Tyler Griffin to a scoreless shutout in the first game of the season, posting five saves in 110 minutes of action. She then backed that up with 57 minutes of scoreless action against Alabama, feat that earned her Big 12 Newcomer of the Week honors. Linder started the first eight games of the season and saw action in 12 total games, positing a goals against average of 1.08 and grabbing 26 saves in the process. She owned a record of 6-2-1, earning two solo shutouts and another three shared with Kirstin Radlinski.

HIGH SCHOOL: Linder helped her Lincoln East Spartans dominate Nebraska Class A prep soccer during her four year career. With 11 shutouts as a senior, Linder holds LEHS record for career shutouts with 39 and finished her high school campaign with a 51-7 record, allowing only 27 goals, with a 0.46 goals against average. A senior captain for the Spartans, she was named to the All-Nebraska Team, Super State first team, Class A All-State first team, All-Heartland Conference first team and the All-City first team. As a junior she captained the Spartans to the Class A State Championship with a record of 14-3, earning Academic All-State, Academic All-Heartland Conference, All-Nebraska Team, Super State first-team, Class A All-State first-team, All-Heartland Conference first-team and All-City first-team honors. Her sophomore year LEHS went 17-0 en route to the state championship, a season which saw her set the school record for shutouts with 13. Thanks to those efforts in net, she was named to the All-City first-team, the Super State second-team and the Class A first-team All-State. As a freshman, the Spartans went 16-3, were state finalists and won the Lincoln City Championship. On the club and Olympic Development side, Linder has been a member of the Nebraska State ODP team the last four years (2002-05) and the 2005 Nebraska/Iowa team. She was a member of the club team Sparta Velocity that has won five consecutive Nebraska State Championships (2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006) under coach Lindsey Ingram, and Linder was a guest player for the Colorado Girls Soccer Academy in 2005.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Linder is Integrative Physiology major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Kara Lena Linder was born April 12, 1988 in Lincoln, Neb. She is the daughter of Mike and Denise Linder. She has a younger brother, Luke, who is 17 years old.

KYM LOWRY
5-5 • D • So.-1L
Vancouver, Wash.
(Evergreen/Washington Premiere)

2007 BIG 12 ALL-NEWCOMER TEAM

HEMPEN ON LOWRY: After a great freshman year, hopefully Kym won't wake up and realize where she is, but rather keep playing the way she knows how to, with the confidence of a veteran.

FRESHMAN (2007): Lowry started all 21 games that she played in, missing only one game due to a concussion. She led all freshmen in minutes played with 1,834 and finished the season with one goal and two assists. She dished out both of her assists in the 3-2 win over Baylor, tying her for first in the Big 12 for the most assists in one game with fellow teammate Mel Hicks, a record they went on to hold for the remainder of the season. Lowry's solid defensive efforts landed her a spot on the Big 12 All-Newcomer team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Lowry was a four-year letterwinner at Evergreen High School for coach Keenan Burris. The Plainsmen were the district champions in 2006 and were the first team in school history to get to the state quarterfinals. She earned First Team All-Greater St. Helen's League honors all four years and was named the defensive player of the year as a senior. Lowry was also a First Team All-Region choice, the team captain and MVP and First Team All-State as a senior. She was a four-time All-Region selection team captain from her sophomore through senior years. She was a two-time Washington ODP state team and regional camp participant, and also played a year on the Oregon state team and advanced to regional camp that year as well. Her club team, the Washington Premiere FC, made the state finals two times and were also Harvest Cup champions.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Lowry plans on a career in physical therapy and will likely major in integrative physiology at CU and is also interested in athletic training. She was a three year Scholar Athlete selection her sophomore through senior years.

PERSONAL: Kymberly Cristina Lowry was born May 4, 1989 in Vancouver, Wash., and is the daughter of Brad Lowry and Cristina Taylor. She has an older brother, Matthew (19) who wrestles at University of Wyoming, and a younger brother Nathan (15) who is also a wrestler. Her hobbies include snowboarding, water sports and hanging out with friends, and she has spent time volunteering with the Special Olympics.

HEMPEN ON MARSHALL: Nikki will be exclusively part of our attack this year as she continues to develop her overall game while simultaneously completing with the U.S. National Team. We are going to get everything that we can out of Nikki Marshall and she will be more than willing to give it.

SOPHOMORE (2007): Marshall led the Buffs in scoring for the second-straight year as she finished the season with nine goals and two assists for 20 points. She ranked second in the Big 12 in points (13) and goals (six) tallied in conference games. Marshall opened the Buffs' season with both goals in the 2-0 win against Denver and then the gamewinner against Utah in CU's home-opener. After being shutout for eight-straight games, Marshall rebounded with another multi-goal effort against Nebraska and the gamewinner against Iowa State two days later, earning her Soccer Buzz Team of the Week, Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week and CU Athlete of the Week honors. She followed up that weekend with goals in the next three games, giving her a season-high four-game scoring streak. Marshall's final goal proved to be the gamewinner in the 2-1 overtime win against Oklahoma to keep the Buffs in contention for the Big 12 Tournament. She finished the season at the top of six statistical categories for the Buffaloes: points (20), goals (nine), game winning goals (four), shots (45), shot percentage (.200), and shots on goal (26). A pre-season All-Big 12 and Soccer America All-America selection, Marshall was named to the All-Big 12 First Team for the second year in a row and earned NSCAA First Team All-Central Region honors for the first time in her career. Marshall's 20 points on the season moved her into fourth overall on the career points chart (57) and her nine goals tied her for third in career goals (26).

U.S. SOCCER (2008): Spent the month of June with the U-20 National Team at the CONCACAF qualifying tournament in Puebla, Mexico. Despite dropping the championship game to Canada, Marshall and the U.S. earned a berth to the 2008 FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup after a 4-0 victory over Costa Rica in the semifinals. In February, Marshall and Team USA won three straight matches and the championship of the Four Nations Tournament in La Serena, Chile, with victories over England, Norway and Chile. She has played every minute for the U.S. team as a defender and wore No. 4.

U.S. SOCCER (2007): Following her amazing freshman year, Marshall was invited to training camp in January of 2007 with the U-21 National Team on Jan. 6-13, and followed that up with an invite to the U-20 National Team camp Feb. 4-11. In June, Marshall made the U-20 WNT squad that traveled to Rio De Janeiro, Brazil for the 2007 Pan American Games. Team USA opened the tournament with three straight victories against Paraguay, Panama, and Argentina before falling to Mexico. They faced Canada in the semifinal match and picked up the 2-1 victory to send them to the finals against Brazil. Their tremendous run ended in the gold medal match as the young Americans fell to the full Brazilian Women's National Team, 5-0, in front of a massive crowd of almost 70,000 fans.

FRESHMAN (2006): Marshall posted the most prolific offensive season in CU history in her first year in Boulder, scoring a school record 17 goals and three assists for 37 points, two of her 17 school records. She was the Big 12's leading scorer, becoming just the second freshman to lead the Big 12 in goals scored in conference history. She was named Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, the third Buffalo to do so, joining Fran Munnelly (2002) and Katie Griffin (2003). Among her 17 goals were a school record seven gamewinners. She opened her freshman season with two scoreless games at Vanderbilt, but her debut at Prentup Field was historic. She netted four goals in the first 49 minutes of the game against Clemson, setting a school record for goals and points in a game. She added another two days later against Mississippi, and then netted goals at BYU and Utah to give her a school record four straight games with a goal. She added assists against Denver and Oklahoma to give her six games in a row with a point, another CU record. She scored her next goal on the road at Nebraska, followed by one at home against Texas, and then posted a repeat of her school record with goals against Iowa State, Texas Tech and Baylor and a pair of them at Kansas to close out the regular season. She was shutout in the Big 12 rematch with KU, but bounced back with the gametying and gamewinning goals in CU's thrilling double-overtime upset of No. 9 Texas A&M in the Big 12 semifinals. She wrapped up her season of scoring with the gamewinner in the second round of the NCAA Tournament against Denver. Marshall also set school records with two 10-shot games (at Nebraska, vs. Texas A&M) and averaged 1.54 points per game in her first season of college soccer. Her year was the most decorated in CU soccer history, as she was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week five times, to a media team of the week three times, she was named National Player of the Week by Soccer Times, a first in school history, as well as being the only freshman named First Team All-Big 12 in 2006. Marshall earned Newcomer of the Year from the Big 12 and Soccer Buzz Central Region, and was also a First Team All-Region selection by Soccer Buzz. The NSCAA named her Second Team All-Region, while Soccer Buzz named her a Fourth Team All-American and a First Team Freshman All-American.

HIGH SCHOOL: Marshall had a highly-decorated prep career as a soccer, track and softball athlete. She graduated as the leading goal scorer in Skyline High School history, as she led the team in scoring all four years. After scoring an impressive 23 goals and dishing out 10 assists as a senior, Marshall wrapped up her prep career with 100 goals and 38 assists in high school play. While leading the Falcons to a 10-3-4 record, Marshall was named the 2006 Northern Conference player of the year, the all-region soccer player of the year for 2006, and the Skyline Falcon of the Year. She was a member of the 2005 Colorado State Cup Championship team. Marshall received an academic letter and was a three-time selection to the All-Northern Conference. She was named All-State her sophomore, junior and senior year as well as being named the Longmont Times-Call Soccer player of the year all three years. She also earned All-State honors in track (100m, 400m relay and long jump) as a junior, and was a state champion in the 800 medley her senior year.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Marshall is a sociology major at CU.

PERSONAL: Nicole Sue Marshall was born June 2, 1988 in Thornton, Colo. She is the daughter of Mike and Kelly Marshall and has a younger sister, Shaye (16). She is a passionate snowboarder and enjoys working at church camps and helping run soccer clinics for elementary school children.

2007 SECOND TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12

HEMPEN ON RADLINSKI: We are hoping that Kirstin returns to the form that made her a starter early in the 2007 season, with the hopes of making our goalkeeper situation more solid than it is. Expect to see her in the goal throughout the season.

JUNIOR (2007): Saw action in 16 of the Buffs' 22 games and posted 11 starts. She recorded a career-high five solo shutouts and picked up 53 saves in 1,313 minutes of play. Her five shutouts ranked her fifth overall in the Big 12. Radlinski now sits at No. 2 in the CU career charts in both wins (17) and shutouts (12).

SOPHOMORE (2006): Radlinski started her second year at Colorado backing up freshman Kara Linder in net, but by the middle of the Big 12 campaign she had won the starting job. She saw action in 20 games, starting 14, and posted three solo shutouts on the season, sharing another three with Linder. Radlinski owned a 1.09 goals against average and posted 68 saves in 1,483 minutes of play.

FRESHMAN (2005): Radlinski entered the season as backup to incumbent goalkeeper Jessie Keller, but was soon thrust into the fray when Keller broke her ankle against Kansas on Senior Day, Colorado's final home game of the season. The freshman responded with four shutouts and a goals against average of 0.92, the best in the Big 12. She had a .816 save percentage, grabbing 40 saves in her 11 appearances. She also shared three shutouts with Keller in her 880:21 minutes of play.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a freshman Radlinski set nine El Dorado school records, including shutouts (15) in guiding the Golden Hawks to the Empire League title that year and Century League crown as a sophomore and junior. With Radlinski in goal, El Dorado had a 52-22-6 record, advancing to the second round of CIF play in 2002, the quarterfinals in '03 and semifinals in '04. She also holds prep marks for single season (177) and career (345) saves and had a 1.06 goals against average as a junior as well as El Dorado's Female Athlete of the Year as a senior. She was a first-team all-league player for four years and all-CIF for three. Radlinski played her club ball for Irvine's ISC Strikers premier team, the 2003 Pleasanton and 2004 Score-By-The-Shore tournament winners. She was the club's only keeper for six years. A two-sport athlete, she played on El Dorado's girls varsity tennis team as a member of the No. 1 doubles tandem since her sophomore year, and was named all-Century League as a sophomore, junior and senior and made the CIF tournament her sophomore and senior years.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Radlinski was a league scholar-athlete and a member of the honor roll in high school and has continued to excel at CU. An English major and philosophy minor, Radlinski maintained a 3.00-3.49 as a freshman in-season during the Fall of 2005 and has been recognized for her hard work since she arrived at CU, being named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll every semester. Radlinski will serve as president for the Student Athletic Advisory Committee (SAAC) for 2008-09.

PERSONAL: Kirstin Lynda Radlinski was born Aug. 28, 1987 in Fullerton, Calif. She is the daughter of Marc and Birgit Radlinski and the younger sister of Peter (29) and Alexander (25). Her hobbies include playing tennis and volunteering.

Glenwood Springs, Colo.

(Glenwood Springs/Glenwood Springs Club)

KELLY ROSS

5-7 • D • Jr.-1L

Superior, Colo.

(Monarch)

HEMPEN ON RIPPY: Tobie brings competitiveness to a defensive position that I am trying to harness. Tobie plays on the edge and if she can fine tune her game, she could be an unsung hero as a defender this year.

SOPHOMORE (2007): Rippey saw action in just one game in her first season as a Buffalo. She entered the game as a substitute early in the season against Fairfield and played 19 minutes at defender in CU's 1-1 tie with the Stags.

HIGH SCHOOL: Rippey was a four-year letterwinner under head coach Linda Flohr at Glenwood Springs high school and a four-time First Team All-Conference selection. She played for Glenwood Springs Soccer Club and helped lead the team to back-to-back league championships in 2004 and 2005 under coach Brad Jordan. Rippey took a year off from playing soccer after high school and joined the Buffs as a sophomore.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Rippey, a four-year honor roll student in high school, is currently a finance major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Tobie Rippey, born May 2, 1988 in Glenwood Springs, Colo., is the daughter of John and Cyndie Rippey. She has two older sisters, Brieanne (24) and Brittney (21) and an older brother, Levi (26) who played soccer at Washington University.

HEMPEN ON ROSS: If the spring season was any indication of what Kelly will be like in the fall, she will be welcomed back with open arms as one of our defenders. She did quite well on her rehab and doesn't seem to have missed a step.

SOPHOMORE (2007): Sat out her sophomore campaign due to a knee injury prior to the season.

FRESHMAN (2006): After beginning the season as a role player coming off the bench, Ross worked her way into the starting lineup for the first time against Nebraska on Sept. 29. She then got the nod the next game against Wyoming and after coming off the bench against Texas A&M and Texas, she finished the season starting the final 11 games. Playing outside defender in the back three anchored by Laura Munnely, Ross developed into a 90-minute player by season's end, playing complete games in CU's last nine games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Ross was a four-time letterwinner at Monarch High School. She earned first-team all conference honors as a sophomore, junior and senior and was honorable mention as a freshman. She was also a member of the Arvada Edge Club Team where she led her team to first-place finishes in the Dallas Cup in 2004, Mile High Soccer Fest in 2003, Sandia Cup, Colorado Rush Tournament and Riverside Invitational in 2002. Ross considered attending Regis, Northern Colorado and Drury prior to choosing Colorado.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Ross is an international affairs major and a political science minor at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Kelly Aletha Ross was born Sept. 23, 1987 in Boulder, Colo. She is the daughter of Wally Ross and Barbara Todd and has a twin brother, Ben (20). Her hobbies include snowboarding, as well as playing ping-pong and bocce ball. She often volunteers with the athletic department, participating in a number of community service events, including Buffalo Hugs.

TARYN VITACCA

5-8 • D • So.-1L

Sandy, Utah

(Juan Diego Catholic/Utah Avalanche)

HEMPEN ON VITACCA: With a year under Taryn's belt, I think she can challenge one of our defenders to be a candidate in our four-defender formation.

FRESHMAN (2007): Saw action in 12 of CU's 22 games and started three-consecutive games towards the end of the season against Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma, as one of CU's defenders.

HIGH SCHOOL: Vitacca was a four-year letterwinner at Juan Diego Catholic High School for coach Jamie Schock. Vitacca led her team to a 3A State Championship in 2006 and a semifinal finish in 2006. As the varsity team captain, she earned First Team All-State honors in 2006 and Second Team honors in 2004 and 2005. Vitacca was a member of the Utah Avalanche '88 club team that won seven straight state championships from 2000-06. She also helped lead the Avalanche to the Regional finals in 2006 and semifinals in 2005. Vitacca was a member of the Junior Olympic Development team in 2002, state in 2003-06 and was called to the Region IV Camp in 2003, 2004 and 2005.

IN THE CLASSROOM: The Editor-in-Chief of her high school newspaper, Vitacca hopes to major in communication at CU.

PERSONAL: Taryn Jae Vitacca was born on July 19, 1989 in Salt Lake City, Utah. She is the daughter of Roco and Jennifer Vitacca. She is the younger sister of Kara (20) who is currently a junior on the soccer team at Northern Arizona University. She enjoys skiing and reading.

MARY WHITE

5-9 • D • Jr.-2L

Highlands Ranch, Colo.

(Mountain Vista)

2007 FIRST TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12

THIS SEASON: White will have an opportunity to prove that she's back from her injury as she progresses through preseason, with the hope that she returns to the form that got her to CU in the first place.

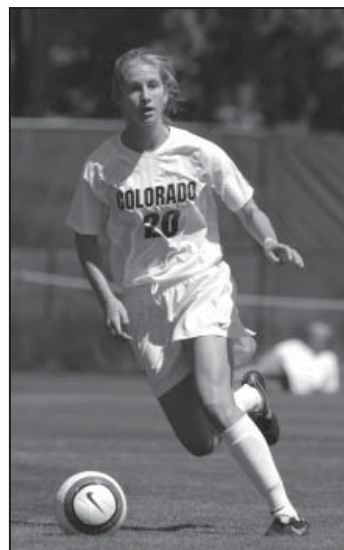

SOPHOMORE (2007): White started seven of the 12 games that she appeared in for the Buffaloes during her sophomore campaign, serving as one of the first defensive reserves off the bench.

FRESHMAN (2006): White saw action in 22 games in her first year at CU, starting the first 12 before coming off the bench for her final 10 appearances. Was a significant contributor in the defense, playing almost every minute while in the starting role. Was one of seven freshmen to earn multiple starting nods.

HIGH SCHOOL: White has been a champion in both club and high school soccer in the past four years. Her Mountain Vista High School Golden Eagles squad won the 2005 5A State Championship, while her Real Colorado club side has won the state cup championship three times (2002, 2004, 2005). The 2005 Real state cup team were also Region IV finalists under coach Lorne Donaldson. White has been a four-year letterwinner under coach Theresa Echtermeyer at Mountain Vista, serving as team captain for the past three years and earning offensive MVP honors as a sophomore. After leading the Golden Eagles to a 15-2-2 record and a State semi-final finish, White earned first team All-League and second team All-State honors. As a freshman, sophomore and junior, she was been a Continental League Honorable Mention selection for the Golden Eagles.

IN THE CLASSROOM: White is planning on majoring in English at CU, but is also interested in journalism. She is a member of the National Honor Society and has earned four academic letters in addition to earning a National English Merit Award. She pulled off a perfect 4.0 in her first semester at CU.

PERSONAL: Mary Shannon White was born Sept. 26, 1987 in Columbus, Miss. She is the daughter of Ben and Kim White, and has two younger sisters in Emily (18) and Susannah (14). She has made two mission trips to West Virginia and also is a Link Leader and is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

2006 FIRST TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12

2007 FIRST TEAM ALL-BIG 12

2007 NSCAA SECOND TEAM ALL-CENTRAL REGION

THIS SEASON: Wenino was arguably the best player during the 2007 season and she is ready to be recognized as one of the top players in the Big 12 Conference no matter where she plays on the field in her senior campaign.

JUNIOR (2007): Wenino's junior campaign proved to be her most prolific season to date as she was the rock of the defense, leading the Buffs in 10 shutouts on the year. Wenino's lone goal on the season snapped a four-game scoreless and winless streak as the Buffaloes held off Drake for the 1-0 win. She logged a team-high 2,018 minutes on the season, only coming out of the game due to brief injuries. Wenino's solid performance in the backfield landed her a spot on the All-Big 12 First Team and NSCAA All-Central Region Second Team for the first time in her career.

SOPHOMORE (2006): Got her second season at CU off to a great start, scoring goals in two of CU's first three games. She posted two against Alabama in the second game of the season and also scored the first goal against Clemson on Sept. 1. Wenino saw action in just 16 games due to a knee injury suffered against Wyoming that kept her either out of action or in a limited role until the Nov. 8 NCAA contest against Colorado College. She started 13 games, and played 1,113 minutes on the season.

FRESHMAN (2005): Wenino stepped in as a freshman and made an immediate impact on the defense, starting 23 of CU's 24 games at defender. She had a goal and an assist on the season for three points. She had seven shots on the season, four of which were on goal. Wenino logged 11 complete games on the year, and played over 45 minutes in all but the overtime loss at Oklahoma.

HIGH SCHOOL: Wenino played four seasons at Smoky Hill for coaches Randy Freeman and Betsy Sprafka. The Buffaloes were the 2003 Centennial League Champions. She is a Colorado Girls Soccer Academy teammate of CU classmate Alex Cousins who were members of the 2004 State Cup runners-up team. Wenino was a Tulsa (Okla.) All-Tournament team member in 2004 and received the Fair Play Award in '00 State Cup play. She was first-team Centennial league as a senior and second-team as a junior and was named MVP for Smoky Hill as a senior. A four-sport, and 15-time letterwinner, she received the SHHS Athlete of the Year with Honors award in 2005. Wenino also ran track (200-800m distances) and cross country as a member of the 2002, '03 and '04 5A state championship teams that finished second at nationals in 2004 in Portland, Ore. She was also a point guard on the Buffaloes' basketball team (for former CU assistant coach Ron Burgin) that won the 2002 Centennial League Championship. Off the pitch she was second-team all-league in basketball as a junior and senior, and first-team all-city and all-region in cross country her sophomore through senior seasons.

IN THE CLASSROOM: An academic honor roll student all four years at Smoky Hill, she also received the all-school grade point average award the past eight semesters for carrying a better than 3.75 grade point average.

PERSONAL: Born May 3, 1987 in Aurora, Colo., Michelle Lynn Wenino is the daughter of Pat and Sherri Wenino. She has two older brothers, Brian (27) and Brad (25).

KELLY BUTLER
 5-7 • M/D • Fr.-HS
 Naperville, Ill.
 (Neuqua Valley/Chicago Magic)

HEMPEN ON BUTLER: Kelly is a very strong and very fast left-sided baller. She has a blue collar, Midwest mentality that is right down my alley.

HIGH SCHOOL: Butler was a two-year letterwinner for the Neuqua Valley High School girl's soccer team. Prior to her senior campaign, Butler was named as one of the top-three best Illinois soccer players for the graduating class of 2008 by the Chicago Sun Times. As a junior she was named First Team Upstate Eight All-Conference, First Team All-Area, and First Team All-State by Chicago Tribune and Chicago Sun Times. She was a member of the All-District Tournament Team, All-Region Tournament Team, First Team All-City and Second Team All-State as a freshman. As a sophomore, Butler took a year off from high school soccer to focus on her club team, the Chicago Magic, year-round. As a captain, Butler led the Magic to seven State Championships and Regional Qualifiers from 2003-08. The 2005 and 2006 SYL National Champion was named Most Valuable Player of SYL Nationals in 2005 and was named to the SYL North American Finals Team. A current member of the 88/89 Regional ODP team, Butler was on the Illinois State team in 2003, the Kentucky State team in 2005, and back on the Illinois State team from 2005-08. A four-year member of the Region II team and pool from 2004-08, she sat out of high school sorry her senior year to focus on club.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Butler will be majoring in psychology at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Kelly Butler was born on November 22, 1989 and is the daughter of Brian and Laura Butler of Naperville, Ill. She has four siblings, Courtney (21), Jenny (16), John (14) and Jamie (13). Her sister, Courtney is a gymnast at the University of Denver. Butler enjoys playing soccer, listening to music and shopping. She chose Colorado because she loved everything about it and it was her favorite of all the schools that she visited.

CAROLINE DANNEBERG
 5-8 • M/D • Fr.-HS
 Englewood, Colo.
 (Cherry Creek/Littleton United)

HEMPEN ON DANNEBERG: We really wanted Caroline from the start but she wanted to keep her options open and look into other schools. As she kept looking, all the arrows seemed to be pointing back to CU. It was very exciting when she gave me a call and asked if she could still be a Buff. I've known Caroline since she was a freshman in high school through the ODP Program and I knew four years ago that I wanted her to play for me, so we're happy to have her.

HIGH SCHOOL: Danneberg was a four-year letterwinner at Cherry Creek High School under head coach David Paynter. She earned Second Team All-League honors as a sophomore and junior and was named First Team All-League and All-Colorado as a senior. In her senior campaign, Danneberg led the Bruins to a 15-2-2 record as she netted 15 goals and had seven assists. Danneberg played for the Littleton United club team and attended the State and Regional ODP camps in 2005.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Danneberg is an open-option major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Caroline Page Danneberg was born on Dec. 1, 1989 and is the daughter of Bill and Linda Danneberg of Englewood, Colo. She has one older sister, Calley, who is a junior at TCU, and two younger brothers, Hogan (16) and Parker (14). Danneberg enjoys swimming and running and she chose Colorado because of the school and the atmosphere.

KASSIDY FITZPATRICK
 5-7 • M • Fr.-HS
 Pleasanton, Calif.
 (Amador Valley/Marin FC)

HEMPEN ON FITZPATRICK: Kassidy is a dynamic midfielder out of northern California. She brings skill and tactical awareness into the central midfield.

HIGH SCHOOL: Fitzpatrick lettered four years in soccer for the Amador Valley High School Dons under head coach Bill Coupe. A three-year team captain, Fitzpatrick was a three-time First Team All-League selection and was Honorable Mention as a freshman. Fitzpatrick played club ball for Marin FC and led her team to a 2007 State Championship. She also participated in the ODP program for three years and was a member of the State team for two years and the Regional team once.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Fitzpatrick plans to major in psychology at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Kassidy Fitzpatrick was born on April 23, 1990 and is the daughter of Timothy and Elaine Fitzpatrick of Pleasanton, Calif. She has two sisters, Katrina (20) and Kaitlyn (15). Katrina is an accomplished singer and Kaitlyn, a sophomore in high school, is a National Team soccer player. Her father played collegiate soccer at USF and was a member of a semi-pro team. Fitzpatrick chose Colorado because it's a beautiful place and she likes what the academic program has to offer as a student athlete.

HANNAH MARSALA
 5-6 • D • Fr.-HS
 Alamo, Calif.
 (Monte Vista/Mustang Fury)

HEMPEN ON MARSALA: Hannah is a little defender out of northern California that will bring a very competitive edge to our program.

HIGH SCHOOL: Marsala lettered four years at Monte Vista and helped lead them to four-straight EBAL League Championships, including a North Coast Section Championship her freshman year. Marsala earned First Team All-League honors as a junior and senior. Marsala was a member of the Mustang Blast and Mustang Fury club teams, claiming a State Championship with both of them, the most recent with the Blast in 2007. Marsala was an ODP State team member from 2003-06 and made the regional pool in 2005.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Marsala is an open-option major at Colorado, but she is interested in business.

PERSONAL: Hannah Joanne Marsala was born on February 7, 1990. She is the daughter of John and Diane Marsala of Alamo, Calif. and has one sister, Jenna (22).

HEIDI MAYER
 5-6 • D • Fr.-HS
 Ft. Collins, Colo.
 (Rocky Mountain)

HEMPEN ON MAYER: Heidi is coming in under the radar much like Michelle Wenino did. If Heidi can sneak on the scene as much as Michelle has for us, she is going to have herself a nice little career under the Buffs.

HIGH SCHOOL: Mayer was a four-year varsity letterwinner for the Rocky Mountain Lobo's under head coach Ron Clark. Mayer was a Second Team All-Conference selection as a junior and a First Team selection as a senior. The senior captain also earned Honorable Mention All-State honors while leading the Lobo's to a 17-1-1 record before their season ended in the State semifinals. Mayer was also a First Team Academic All-State selection as a junior and senior and the recipient of the Heart of the Lobo Award her senior year.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Mayer is an open-option major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Heidi Marie Mayer was born on July 21, 1990 and is the daughter of Dave and Denise Mayer of Fort Collins, Colo. She has one younger sister, Nikki (15). In the classroom, Mayer is a member of the National Honor Society and she plans to major in English at CU. She enjoys soccer, hiking and writing and chose Colorado because she fell in love with the soccer program, the campus, and the city of Boulder.

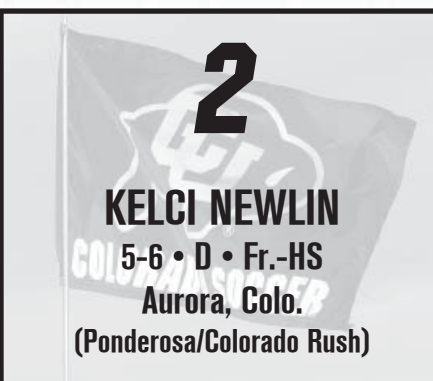

HEMPEN ON MENACHOF: Kelly is a great addition to this team. We wanted her out of high school when she chose to go to CAL. I wished her luck out there, but from my standpoint obviously I knew that if she ever changed her mind I'd still want her. She remembered that and brought it up in her note to me when she was considering come back home. She is one of the top kids to come out of this state and to have her come home and play is a bonus for the Buffs.

AT CALIFORNIA: Menachof stood out as one of the top freshmen in the Pac-10 in 2006 as she was named to the first ever Pac-10 All-Freshman team. She netted three goals in her freshman campaign and was named CAL Freshman of the Year. As a sophomore, she played in 14 games and finished the season with one goal and one assist.

HIGH SCHOOL: Menachof lettered four years at Arapahoe High School and was a three-time First Team All-League selection. She was Second Team All-State in 2003 and 2004 and was a First Team All-State selection as a senior in 2005. Menachof was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2003 Colorado State Championship game after netting three goals and an assist for Colorado Academy. At the Olympic Development level, Menachof competed for the Region IV team in 2004 and attended ODP national camps. She played for the Colorado ODP team for two years and attended regional camps each year. Her club team, Real 89, won the Colorado State Championship five times and a Regional Title once. Menachof was the 2005 State Cup MVP after leading her team in goals and assists in the same season.

IN THE CLASSROOM: A First Team All-PAC 10 Academic selection at California, Menachof is majoring in integrative physiology at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Kelly Menachof was born on Oct. 3, 1988 in San Francisco, Calif. and is the daughter of Michael and Kathleen Menachof of Castle Rock, Colo. Her hobbies include snowboarding, longboarding, and playing video games.

HEMPEN ON NEWLIN: Kelci is another local product from the Rush soccer club that will compete for a spot as a starter on defense.

HIGH SCHOOL: A two-year team captain, Newlin lettered all four years at Ponderosa High School under head coach Jim Engles. Newlin was a Second Team All-League selection as a junior and was an honorable mention pick as a sophomore. As a member of the Colorado Rush club team with fellow Buff Kate Russell, she helped lead her team to a 9-0-1 record in 2007, the same year they were crowned State Champions. Newlin and the Rush were Regional and National Champions in 2008 after taking first in the Disney Showcase. She was a member of the Colorado ODP team from 2005-07 and made it to Regional camp in 2006 and 2007.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Newlin is an open-option major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Kelci Brianne Newlin was born on July 21, 1990 and is the daughter of Russ and Tina Newlin. She has one sister, Brenna (15), who is a freshman in high school and plays tennis. Newlin chose Colorado because she feels that the coaching and the team are strong and united and she is confident that they can push her toward success.

KATE RUSSELL
 5-7 • M • Fr.-HS
 Longmont, Colo.
 (Silver Creek/Colorado Rush)

24
MAGGI STEURY
 5-7 • D • Fr.-HS
 Carmel, Ind.
 (Neuqua Valley/Carmel United)

HEMPEN ON RUSSELL: Kate is a local girl out of Longmont. She has played and been highly successful with the Colorado Rush soccer club. With her drive to go and find a way to push the ball forward, she will provide a strong presence in the midfield.

HIGH SCHOOL: Russell was a four-year letterwinner at Silver Creek High School under coach Sara Friend. As a team captain in her senior campaign, Russell let her prep team to the State Championships in 2008. She was named First Team All-Conference all four years and is a three-time First Team All-State selection. Russell played club ball for the Colorado Rush and helped lead her team to seven state championships from 2001-08 and she was named Colorado State Cup MVP in 2002. Russell, along with fellow Buff Kelci Newlin, led the Rush to the 2008 Regional and National Championships. Russell was a member of the Colorado State ODP team from 2003-06 and made the Region IV pool in 2006. A multi-sport athlete, Russell also lettered two years in basketball and one year in track.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Russell is an open-option major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Kathryn Elizabeth Russell was born on October 17, 1989 and is the daughter of Gordon and Lynne Russell. She has two older brothers, Dave (28) and Matt (25). Her grandmother, Helen Forstner, was an All-American hockey player, an All-Eastern Lacrosse Player and is in the NYU Hall of Fame. Russell chose Colorado because the coaches are wonderful, the players are nice and hardworking and she likes how the program continues to grow.

HEMPEN ON STEURY: Maggi comes from a club that produces pretty decent players. She's a Midwest gal and those kids are not too pampered and they know what it's like to work for everything. I look forward to her bringing that mentality to the program as well.

HIGH SCHOOL: Steury lettered two years for the Carmel High School Greyhounds. She earned First Team All-District and Honorable Mention All-State honors in her senior campaign and went on to lead the Greyhounds to the Indiana High School Regional Championship that same year. Steury was a member of the Carmel United Soccer Club, which ranked in the Top-10 nationally for girl's soccer clubs. As the team captain, she helped the Crusaders to State Championship titles in 2001, 2004 and 2007.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Steury is an open-option major at CU.

PERSONAL: Maggi Keenan Steury was born on May 22, 1990 and is the daughter of Kent Steury and Kelli and Richard Huntley. She is the younger sister of four brothers, Klark (20), K.C. (23), Matt (26), and Jason (28). Her grandfather, Tal Keenan, played football for Taylor University in Indiana and her aunt Traci Young played tennis at Ohio University. Steury chose Colorado because she wanted to go somewhere away from home and she looks forward to playing in the Big 12 Conference.

2007 IN REVIEW

Coming off one of the best seasons in program history, the University of Colorado soccer team wrapped up the 2007 season with a 10-8-4 overall record and a 5-5 Big 12 mark after battling some of the toughest teams in the country. The Buffs finished the regular season in seventh place in the highly competitive Big 12 Conference, and they nearly advanced to the semifinals of the Big 12 Tournament after playing Texas to a 0-0 tie at the end of regulation and two overtime periods. The Buffs eventually fell to the Longhorns in a shootout, but given the strong history of the Colorado program, CU received their fifth straight NCAA Tournament bid where they played host for the second year in a row at Prentup Field.

CU opened the 2007 season just down the road at the DU Invitational where they faced in-state rival, Denver. Ranked No. 14 to start the year, the Buffs got off to a solid start taking a 2-0 win over Denver, with both goals coming from 2006 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and 2007 Pre-Season All-Big 12 selection, forward Nikki Marshall. The Buffs faced Fairfield two days later, but they were unable to capitalize on a number of opportunities against the Stags and the two teams played to a 1-1 tie. Marshall and defender Michelle Wenino were All-Tournament selections after their respective performances on the weekend.

Colorado opened their home slate in record fashion, topping Utah by a score of 4-2, thanks to a plethora of first half goals. Buff freshman Michaela DeJesus got things started early, scoring the quickest goal in program history just 52 seconds into the match, shattering the previous record by 41 seconds. Junior Gianna DeSaverio, Marshall, and senior Allison Kidd all added goals in the first half, helping lead CU to the win. The Buffs wrapped up the weekend with their second tie of the season against Brigham Young, as the two teams lacked their normal offensive production and played to a scoreless draw.

With a four-game unbeaten streak under their belts, the Buffs traveled to Charlottesville, Va. for the Nike Virginia Soccer Classic where they faced No. 10 Virginia and unranked New Mexico. Unable to find the back of the net for the second straight game, CU dropped a 4-0 decision to Virginia and recorded their first loss of the season. The Buffaloes tried to regroup and rebound against New Mexico, but they were once again unable to score and played the Lobos to a 0-0 draw after two overtime periods. The scoreless tie marked the third-straight game the Buffs went without a goal and the first time in program history that CU had tied three of the first five games of the season.

Colorado returned home to host the sixth annual Colorado Soccer Classic where they welcomed Denver, Drake and No. 1 Stanford University to Prentup Field. Looking to break their three-game scoreless streak, the Buffs dropped a 1-0 heartbreaker to the top-ranked Cardinal in front of an all-time school record crowd of 3,110 people. Winless in their last five games, CU finally broke their four-game scoreless streak with a 1-0 win over Drake two days later on a Wenino golden goal seven minutes into overtime to close out the tournament.

The Buffs hit the road after a two-game home stand to face the Wyoming Cowgirls in their last nonconference game of the year. Thanks to goals from juniors Alex Cousins and DeSaverio, CU claimed the 2-0 road victory, recording their fifth shutout on the season, before heading into Big 12 Conference play.

CU would open the conference season at home, playing host to the Texas Tech Red Raiders. Despite statistically dominating against TTU, Colorado dropped 1-0 to the Red Raiders and fell to 3-9 in Big 12 Conference openers since the program's inception in 1996.

The Buffaloes rebounded from the loss with another stellar offensive first half performance against Nebraska, as they blanked the Huskers 4-0 and claimed their sixth shutout of the season. Junior midfielder Nikki Keller and freshman defender Kym Lowry both scored their first goals of the year, while Marshall recorded her second two-goal game of the season. Freshmen DeJesus and Mel Hicks both dished out two assists in the win, putting them atop the Big 12 Conference stats for most assists in a single game, a record which they went on to hold the entire season.

CU wrapped up the home stand against Iowa State, who came into the game riding a six game unbeaten streak. Marshall scored her sixth goal of the season and third in the last two games, picking up her third gamewinner as the Buffs held off the Cyclones for the 1-0 win. Due to her offensive efforts over the weekend, Marshall was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week, CU Athlete of the Week, and was selected to the Soccer Buzz Elite Team of the Week.

After two home shutout wins, Colorado headed to Texas to face Baylor and No. 5 Texas A&M. CU took the early 1-0 lead against Baylor on junior transfer Amber Bettenhausen's first career goal, but the Bears were quick to respond with one of their own just two minutes later to tie the game. BU came out at half time with high intensity and they took the lead in the 78th minute on a one-on-one with CU keeper Kara Linder, who, coming into the match, had not yet given up a goal all season. Baylor's lead was short-lived, however, as Marshall scored the gametying goal, marking the third game in a row that the reigning Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week had scored at least one goal. CU's persistent effort continued from the gametying momentum as DeSaverio delivered the gamewinner less than four minutes later for her third goal of the season as CU went on to beat Baylor in come-from-behind fashion, 3-2.

The Buffs continued south to College Station to take on No. 5 Texas A&M. With only one win against the Aggies in program history, CU came into the match fired up and determined for an upset. The Buffs took a two-goal lead into halftime on conversions from Kidd and Marshall in the 28th and 43rd minute, respectively. Marshall's goal marked her eighth score on the season and her fourth consecutive game with a goal, tying her own school record in that category. A&M came out very aggressive in the second half, looking to get back on track and they managed to respond with four second half goals, putting the final score at 4-2, handing the Buffs their third conference loss.

The Buffs returned to Boulder for their final regular season home stand, playing host to Kansas and No. 16 Missouri. In another scoreless effort from CU, the Buffaloes dropped their second straight conference match 2-0 to Kansas, despite dominating the final statistics. Just two days later, looking to celebrate Senior Day on a high note, the Buffs were unable to get on the board again in the physical battle against Missouri, as they dropped a 2-0 decision to the Tigers.

With three straight conference losses in a row, the pressure was on the Buffs to win their remaining games in order to have a chance to advance to the Big 12 Conference Tournament. CU hit the road to face Oklahoma and No. 25 Oklahoma State, desperate for a pair of wins. In the match against Oklahoma, the Sooners took the 1-0 lead early in the second half, but the Buffs responded late in the game with Cousins' second goal of the season, sending the match into overtime. Colorado came out fired up in extra time and proved their determination to win as Marshall would need just 27 seconds to net her fourth gamewinning goal of the season to give CU the 2-1 victory, marking the quickest overtime goal in school history.

Fresh off the grueling overtime win against Oklahoma, Colorado did what they had to do against No. 25 Oklahoma State as Cousins netted her second goal in as many games to give Colorado the 1-0 win over the Cowgirls. In response to her performance, Cousins was named to the Soccer Buzz Team of the Week and was crowned Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in her career.

CU packed their bags and headed back to Texas to wrap up the regular season against No. 12 Texas. Despite an early first half lead, thanks to a DeSaverio goal two minutes into the game, the Longhorns would respond with four goals and take the 4-1 win to close out the season.

Despite the loss against Texas, Colorado took seventh in the Big 12 Conference and advanced to the first round of the Big 12 Tournament in San Antonio where they faced Texas for the second-straight game. Colorado and Texas were seeded No. 7 and No. 2 in the tournament, respectively, and the Buffs were not going to repeat what had happened to them just a week before. CU and UT played to a 0-0 tie at the end of regulation, with Colorado dominating the offensive statistics. While both teams had close opportunities to end the game in extra time, the match was eventually forced into a shootout. The Longhorns won the shootout 4-2 and advanced to the semifinals of the Big 12 Tournament. With the shootout tie, Colorado picked up its eighth shutout of the year and Linder recorded her third shutout of the season. The tie also marked the fourth straight overtime game for CU in the Big 12 Tournament, with three of them ending in penalty kicks.

Following the completion of the Big 12 season, Colorado had five players recognized on the All-Big 12 Conference soccer teams. For the second time in school history, CU had two players recognized on the All-Big 12 first team in Marshall and Wenino, while Keller was named to the second team. Freshmen Lowry and DeJesus were named to the Big 12 All-Newcomer Team.

The Buffs earned their sixth-straight appearance in the 2007 NCAA Soccer Tournament, and were also selected as one of 16 hosts for the first and second round games. Playing host to local rival Denver, as well as Hawai'i and No. 2 Portland, Colorado was matched up with Hawai'i in the first round.

Excited and ready to be playing at home, Colorado shutout Hawai'i 2-0 on goals from DeSaverio and Hicks, advancing the Buffs to the second round for the third-straight season. With the shutout win, the Buffs finished with nine shutouts on the year, just the fourth time in program history that CU has recorded nine or more shutouts in a single season.

Their second round match up against No. 2 Portland was, unlike the first round, a wire-to-wire battle and the Buffs saw their season come to an end as the Pilots advanced to the Sweet Sixteen after claiming the 1-0 win. Portland got on the board in the 61st minute and CU was unable to respond with a goal of their own, as their offense was greatly limited due to the solid Pilot defense.

At the conclusion of the season, two Buffs earned regional honors for their outstanding play. Marshall earned first team National Soccer Coaches Association of America All-Central Region honors, while Wenino was named to the second team.

PRENTUP FIELD

Prentup Field, located on the East Campus of the University of Colorado at Boulder, has been the home of Colorado Soccer since 2003. The field had been the home of the now-defunct Colorado baseball team before the women's soccer team took over.

Prentup combines the very best of what Boulder has to offer, with beautiful Colorado mountain views and a lush pitch courtesy of CU's turf management team.

The Buffaloes have always enjoyed great home advantages in Boulder. CU formerly played its matches at Pleasant View Soccer Complex in North Boulder. This facility had an award-winning match field for CU to play on and nine surrounding fields for training.

During that time, the Buffaloes compiled a home record of 49-28-4, a winning percentage of .646. The Buffs also played host to over 3,000 fans on Sept. 2, 1998 when they hosted then-defending national champion North Carolina.

Upon the arrival of coach Bill Hempen, the Buffs started training at Prentup in the spring of 2002 while it was still a baseball field.

In the spring of 2003, the soccer team was granted exclusive use of Prentup, and work began to re-landscape the field. All remnants of the baseball field except for the outfield fence were razed, and the turf began a major makeover.

Prentup Field is now a 160,000 square foot facility that contains a 120x75 yard game field along with a practice area. It is a native soil field and is equipped with an automated irrigation system. When the irrigation was installed and the field was graded in July of 2003, the turf management team produced a playable soccer facility from seed in just 33 days.

The scoreboard at Prentup Field was erected in the fall of 2005.

Each week, the field is painted and mowed 3-4 times in preparation for matches and practices under the supervision of Ryan Newman, along with a collection of other maintenance practices.

The Buffs trained at Prentup from 2002-04, and finally in the fall of 2004, they played their first-ever match there, defeating Northern Colorado by a score of 3-0 on October 1, 2004. In 2005, Prentup became CU's full time home, with the Buffaloes posting a record of 7-1-0 in their first full season and an all-time mark of 23-7-1.

Capital improvements to the facility are ongoing. An athletic department fund-raising campaign in the summer of 2005 helped raise funds to put in bleachers for 1,200 people, a new scoreboard, nets behind the goals and iron entrance gates adorned with the CU logo into the venue. Additional funds in advance of the 2006 NCAA Tournament added more bleachers, bringing the seating capacity of Prentup Field to 2,000 people.

While there are bleachers for 2,000, fans of CU soccer bring lawn chairs and blankets to sit on as well in the open areas, continuing some of the community feel of Pleasant View at the current home.

In the fall of 2007, Prentup and the Buffs welcomed top-ranked Stanford to Boulder and dropped a 1-0 heartbreaker to the Cardinal in front of a facility record 3,128 fans, shattering the previous record by 1,257 people. Colorado has also had the privilege of hosting back-to-back NCAA Tournament first and second rounds in 2006 and 2007, welcoming 1,871 fans against Colorado College in '06 and 1,843 against No. 2 Portland in '07.

Prentup Field has been home to University of Colorado athletics for almost 40 years, as the venue is named after former CU baseball coach Frank "Chief" Prentup. The field, formerly known as Varsity Field, was renamed after the former coach in 1978. The complex remained a popular venue until the varsity baseball team was removed in 1980.

PRENTUP FIELD

The field was used by several different entities within Colorado athletics after 1980. The club baseball team played there, and CU's mascot Ralphie was even known to have taken practice runs there.

The complex is located just west of CU's Potts Field track & field complex and ski building. Amenities for Buffalo soccer fans include concessions, rest rooms and free parking and game programs.

1997 Milestones

- Soccer Buzz online magazine rated Colorado's schedule the third toughest slate in the nation. The schedule consisted of five of the top 17 preseason ranked teams (No. 6 Nebraska, No. 8 Texas A&M, No. 12 Harvard, No. 15 Massachusetts and No. 17 Florida).
- CU's first win of the season came with a 2-1 OT victory over Big 12 rival Iowa State
- In the 3-0 win at Kansas on Sept. 28, CU's three goals mark the most scored for Colorado on the season, the second most goals scored in the program's two-year history.
- CU posted its first win over a ranked team in defeating then-No. 25 Baylor 3-2
- With a 2-1 double overtime win over Texas Tech on Oct. 19, CU clinched a birth in the Big 12 Tournament.
- CU took a 3-2 win over the in-state rival University of Denver on Nov. 2, earning the victory in the first-ever meeting between the two schools.
- Qualified for the Big 12 Conference tournament for the first time with a 5-5 record, securing the fifth place in the conference.
- Colorado placed nine players on the academic all-Big 12 team, the second consecutive year the Buffs have earned more spots than any other school in the conference; First Team: Nina Bjornstad, Heidi Burgett, Amanda Bush, Teri Fildey, Elizabeth Swain, Brita Zoellner; Honorable Mention: Christina Cambra, Maris Dillman, Shawn Kenyon.
- Donna Holyman led the Buffs with six goals, four assists and a total of 16 points on the season.
- Keeper Sloane Cox recorded 133 saves, one shutout and six wins during her first season for Colorado in the net.

1998 Milestones

- Colorado opened the season with a 2-0 loss to 1997 national champion North Carolina in front of a school record 3,000 fans.
- With 36 saves in one weekend, including a school record 19 against BYU on Sept. 11, Sloane Cox became Colorado's career saves leader with 189 (passing Nina Bjornstad who had 158).
- Shawn Kenyon became the first Buff to record 100 shots with No. 100 coming against Utah on Sept. 13.
- CU earned their first ever win in a Big 12 Conference opener with a 3-0 win over Oklahoma on Oct. 2.
- Cox notched the first ever point for a CU goalkeeper with her assist of Jessica Wollow's second goal on Oct. 2 vs. Oklahoma.
- CU ran into its program-worst losing streak with the fifth consecutive loss to Denver 1-0 on Oct. 18.
- With a 6-0 loss to Missouri, the final game of the season, Cox finished her career as the holder of every Colorado goalkeeping record. In addition to her 200th save of the season, Cox also recorded the 333rd save of her career, and had six shutouts.
- Sloane Cox was named to the All-Big 12 second team, the first player in CU soccer history to be named All-Conference.
- Cox was also named Big 12 Athlete of the Week for September 2 (first player in program history to earn the honor) and CU Athlete of the Week for November 1.
- Teri Fildey was named TCI Student Athlete of the Week for September 5.
- Five players were named to the Academic All-Big 12 first team: Fildey, Cartmell, Matassa, Kenyon, Pascoe.
- Melissa Cartmell led the Buffs offense with 50 shots, six goals, two assists and 14 points.
- Assistant coach Kim LeMere was inducted into the University of Hartford's Alumni Hall of Fame on April 17.

1999 Milestones

- Dang Pibulvech, the former head coach at the University of Texas, replaced Kim LeMere on the Colorado coaching staff.
- CU opened the season with a 2-1 come-from-behind win, the first in school history, as well as their first winning record in school history.
- Goalkeeper Danielle Bassett records her first career shutout with the 3-0 win over Alabama Birmingham on Sept. 3.
- CU received back-to-back Athlete of the Week honors in Melissa Cartmell and Lindsey Galas for the weeks ending Aug. 29 and Sept. 5.
- Cartmell ended a five game scoring streak, the longest in school history, against Wyoming on Sept. 5.
- Head coach Austin Daniels recorded his 20th win at Colorado against Wyoming.
- Cartmell became just the second Buffalo to crack the 100 shot barrier against UAB.
- Freshman defender Aimee Bugay was named to the Nike Carolina Classic all-tournament team on Sept. 12 after her stellar efforts against No. 1 North Carolina and No. 20 Duke.
- With a 5-3 record, the best ever in Colorado soccer history, the Buffs earned a spot in the NSCAA poll, taking the No. 8 spot in the Central Region poll.
- CU had their longest home winning streak in history snapped on Oct. 10 by Nebraska, after winning eight in a row and its five game longest winning streak in history snapped against Oklahoma on Oct. 1.
- With a 1-1 tie with No. 25 Baylor on Oct. 24, CU secured a spot in the Big 12 Conference Tournament.
- CU scored a season-high 31 goals.
- Kiefer and Cartmell both broke the single season goal scoring mark, which was six, when Kiefer notched eight goals and Cartmell netted seven.
- Senior Shawn Kenyon became the first player in program history to letter four times and complete all four years of her college eligibility at Colorado.
- The Buffs finished the season with a record of 11-8-1, 4-5-1 in Big 12 regular season play.

2001 Milestones

- Bill Hempen was named head coach of the Colorado Soccer team in June, replacing Austin Daniels.
- Hempen earned his first win at Colorado with the 2-1 decision over Wyoming on Sept. 2.
- Hempen coached his milestone 300th career game vs. Missouri, however the Buffs fell 2-0 in the match.
- Colorado bounced back from a 10 game winless streak with a win over Colorado College 1-0 on Oct. 21. The win also ended a four-game scoreless streak that dated back to Oct. 7 at Oklahoma.
- When Hempen cleared his bench and substituted the entire field late in the first half vs. Kansas, he set a program mark for most players in a game as the Buffs played 24 by the final buzzer.
- Tiffany Booth netted her first career goal to secure CU's first Big 12 Conference victory of the season, a 2-1 win over Texas Tech.
- CU's eight freshmen made more than an immediate impression on the coaching staff as five freshmen scored seven of Colorado's 17 goals on the season and have dished off six of the team's 17 assists.
- Colorado's 2-2 tie against No. 9 Texas A&M was the programs best result vs. a ranked team since a 3-2 win over then-No. 22 Baylor in 1997.
- The Buffs scored 17 goals by 12 different players, the most players to get in the goal column in the program's history.

2002 Milestones

- With 12 true freshmen signing letters or walking on, the freshman class was the largest in the program's seven-year history.
- Freshman Fran Munnelly was named Big 12 Newcomer of the Week Sept. 23.
- As of Oct. 18, Munnelly took the lead as CU's all-time frosh leader in points (13), second in goals (5), assists (3) and shots (47) with at least five games left to play.
- Senior goalkeeper Sara Erskine was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week Oct. 29.
- Colorado cracked into the NSCAA/adidas Central Region Rankings for the third time in program history at No. 10.
- CU extended the school record unbeaten streak to six games with the win over Oklahoma State on Oct. 27.
- Freshman defender Ashlie Mihalcin was named to the Soccer America Team of the Week
- The Buffs finished the season with a 9-7-2/4-4-2 Big 12 record and advanced to their fourth Big 12 Conference Tournament.
- Head coach Bill Hempen and his squad orchestrated the Big 12's single greatest single season improvement as they were sitting at 1-7-2 overall last year.
- Munnelly was the first player in program history to be named First Team All-Big 12 and Big 12 Rookie of the Year as well as being named to the Big 12 All-Newcomer team. Senior defender Aimee Bugay was named to the conference's second team.
- CU landed six players on the Academic All-Big 12 Team. First Team: Meghan Swanzy, Emily Barnes, Regan Howard, Alyssa Burgess, Jen Thais; Second Team: Heather Hawkins.
- Munnelly netted a school record seventh goal in the first-ever postseason win at the Big 12 Tournament on Nov. 7.
- Munnelly was named to the 2002 NSCAA Division I All-Central team and was tabbed a freshman All-American and second-team all-region. Bugay was a third-team all-region pick and head coach Hempen earned Region Coach of the Year Runner-Up by Soccer Buzz Magazine.

2007 Milestones

- Fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and second straight year playing host to the first and second rounds in Boulder.
- Colorado recorded 10 wins on the season for the sixth straight year.
- Five Buffaloes were named to All-Big 12 Teams.
- Colorado played No. 1 ranked Stanford on Friday, Sept. 21 and the Buffs welcomed a school record 3,128 fans. Head football coach Dan Hawkins and the football team were also in attendance. The record-breaking crowd topped the previous record at Prentup Field by 1,239 people, set last year in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Colorado College. The all-time record, before the Stanford game, was set in 1998 when the Buffs played No. 1 North Carolina in front of an even 3,000 fans at Pleasant View Soccer Complex.
- CU shut out its opponents on 10 different occasions, marking the fourth time in the history of the program that they have recorded nine or more shutouts in a single season.
- Nikki Marshall's goal against Oklahoma, just 27 seconds into overtime, was the quickest overtime goal in program history, besting the previous mark of 91:06, set by former Buff Melissa Cartmel in 1998, by 39 seconds. Michaela DeJesus' goal in the Utah game came just 52 seconds into the match, going down as the quickest goal in the 11 year history of the program, shattering the previous record of 1:33 set by Jen Almquist vs. Hawai'i in 1996 by 41 seconds.

WHERE THE BUFFALOES ROAM

Current and former Colorado Soccer players hail from 26 different states and three different countries. Colorado boasts the most Buffs as 67 current and former players come from the Centennial State. The most productive hometown? Littleton, just southwest of Denver, has produced 15 different Buffaloes hailing from Arapahoe, Chatfield, Columbine, Heritage and Mullen high schools. California is the next most populous homestate for the Buffs with 33 players, followed by Washington and Illinois with six.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

In 2003, when Jen Thais said in a preseason press conference that her season goal was, "to make the NCAA Tournament and to be nationally recognized. What I'm hoping... what I'm expecting, is to surprise people," little did she know what kind of impact that prediction would have on the eighth team in Colorado soccer history... and the nation for that matter.

A record breaking season was approached in four phases. Phase I were the preseason exhibition games where the Buffs shutout Northern Colorado 4-0 and Air Force 3-0.

Phase II consisted of CU's non-conference schedule where the Buffs came out virtually unscathed at 7-1. In the season opener, they held defending national champion and then-No. 2 Portland scoreless for 87 minutes before suffering a 1-0 defeat. The Buffs would regroup and close out the remainder of the non-conference season 7-0, beating teams by a 17-2 scoring margin. It was during Phase II that CU picked up its first-ever win against a top-10 ranked opponent when it handed then-No. 9 Denver a 3-0 blanking, just days after the Pioneers had upended Portland.

Enter Phase III... the Big 12 Conference season. The Buffs came away from the '03 season 8-1-1, the crescendo of the season being a 3-1 win over nemesis Nebraska in the season finale for both teams in below freezing temperatures on a pitch covered in ice. Colorado's 25 season points was the fourth highest in league standings history. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Buffs came away with the coach, player and rookie of the year, a first-team All-Big 12 pick, three second-teamers and five of their nine newcomers named to the All-Newcomer team.

With 25 school single-season, class and career records shattered, Colorado entered the final phase of the season, Phase IV... the postseason. They went into the eighth Big 12 Conference Tournament as the No. 1 seed for the first time in program history, and a week later the Buffs entered their first NCAA Tournament as just one of 16 seeded teams.
