

HEAD COACH DANNY SANCHEZ

Danny Sanchez became the third head coach in the history of the University of Colorado women's soccer program on December 19, 2011. His career spans 17 years with teams Wyoming, Metro State College (Denver) and Mesa (Ariz.) Community College, where he coached both men's and women's programs.

Sanchez has an overall career record of 267-60-23, including a pair of NCAA Division II National Championships while at Metro State.

The Roadrunners won the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) championship and advanced to the NCAA Division II Tournament all six seasons Sanchez was at the helm.

In his time at Metro State, the Roadrunners established two of the most impressive records in Division II history: a 59-game unbeaten streak (58-0-1) and 61 consecutive home wins. MSC produced two Division II National Players of the Year and 14 NSCAA All-Americans in his tenure.

Sanchez was named the RMAC's Coach of the Year all six years he was with the Roadrunners. He was the 2004 NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year and a four-time National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Midwest Region Coach of the Year. He was also named the RMAC's All-Time Top Coach.

Prior to taking over at Metro, Sanchez served as the head men's and women's soccer coach at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College from 1995-2002.

In eight seasons, he led the women's team to a 103-15-5 (.858) overall record and the men to a 96-36-7 (.716) mark, producing 12 All-Americans in that span between the two.

The women won four National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Region I Championships and five Arizona Community College Athletic Conference (ACCAC) Championships.

In 2001, he was the ACCAC and NJCAA Region I Men's and Women's Coach of the Year, as well as the NSCAA Junior College Central Region Coach of the Year. He also won the NJCAA Region I Women's Coach of the Year award in 1996 and 1999.

"My family and I are excited to join the Colorado Buffaloes family," Sanchez said after his appointment. "This is the opportunity of a lifetime for me professionally, and myself and my staff will do everything we can to make the Buff Nation proud of the soccer program."

In his time away from the Centennial State, Sanchez spent four seasons with the University of Wyoming, compiling a 36-34-11 record. In his final season with the Cowgirls, the team posted a 12-6-4 record, its best in school history, including a 3-1-2 record in Mountain West Conference play for a third-place regular season finish.

After a 0-3 start, Wyoming allowed just 12 goals in its final 19 games, with one of its wins including a 1-0 decision against Colorado in Boulder on August 28. In the MWC tournament, the Cowgirls defeated Boise State and TCU before losing 1-0 to New Mexico in the championship game.

Sanchez gave the Cowgirls their first winning season in four years, going 9-8-3 in just his second year with the team. He coached eight All-Mountain West Conference performers and all four of his teams were recognized by The National Soccer Coaches Association of America for having at least a 3.0 team grade point average.

Before joining the Cowgirls in 2007, Sanchez spent six seasons at Metro State College, where he posted an impressive 128-11-7 record (a 90.1 winning percentage). He led the Roadrunners to Division II national titles in 2004 and 2006 and reached the Final Four in 2002 and the Elite Eight five times. Sanchez and the Roadrunners also claimed five Midwest Region Championships.

Sanchez has served as a staff coach and licensing instructor for the Colorado State Youth Soccer Association and has worked as a coach for U.S. Youth Soccer Region IV staff. He holds a United States Soccer Federation (USSF) "A" License, a USSF National Youth License, an NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and a KNVB Dutch Advanced Certificate.

After graduating from Scottsdale's (Ariz.) Coronado High School, where he lettered in soccer, football and baseball, he began his collegiate career at nearby Mesa Community College.

He later transferred to the University of Connecticut and led the Huskies to the 1989 Big East Conference Championship and an NCAA Tournament berth, ranking in the New England Region's top 10 in scoring that season.

Following his collegiate career, he played in the Western Soccer League for the Arizona Condors and in the U.S.I.S.L. for the Arizona Cotton.

Sanchez earned a bachelor's degree in Economics from Connecticut in 1991. He and wife Beth have two sons, Cole (12) and Drew (9).

ASSISTANT COACHES

Jason Green is in his first year as an assistant soccer coach at the University of Colorado. Prior to joining the Buffaloes, he was an assistant for Danny Sanchez at the University of Wyoming.

In Green's four year tenure at Wyoming, the Cowgirls were 36-34-11. He helped coach 18 Academic All-Mountain West Conference and nine Conference Scholars. In 2011, he helped coach the Cowgirls to a school record 12 wins and the program's first ever spot in the MWC Tournament championship game.

Green was also on Sanchez's staff at Mesa Community College and the duo has worked together on a number of club teams and summer camps.

He has held two high school head coaching jobs, the first at Skyline High School in Mesa, Ariz., and the second at Chandler (Ariz.) High School. Green was named Region Coach of the Year at both posts. At Chandler, his teams won three straight NSCAA National Academic Awards.

In his 14 year coaching career in college, high school and club soccer, Green has coached five state championship teams, six region champions, four district champions and five conference titlists.

Green holds a United States Soccer Federation "B" License and a USSF National Goalkeeping License. He also has attended The Manchester United Coaches Symposium.

Green started his collegiate playing career at Mesa C.C. under Sanchez where they were ranked as high as second in the nation.

He continued his career at Grand Canyon (Ariz.) University, where he helped lead the team to a No. 2 national ranking and to the championship game of the California Athletic Association Tournament.

He earned his bachelor's in physical education from Ottawa (Ariz.) University in 2003 and completed his master's in physical education from Arizona State University in 2008.

Don Trentham is in his first season as an assistant soccer coach at the University of Colorado. Prior to joining the Buffaloes, he spent the 2011 season on Danny Sanchez's staff at the University of Wyoming, helping the Cowgirls to a 12-5-4 record and a spot in the Mountain West Conference Tournament final.

Trentham joined Sanchez's staff after spending nine successful seasons at Montana State University-

Billings (2002-10). He coached the Yellowjackets to an overall record of 85-75-10 and completed five seasons with 10 or more wins.

In 2010 he was named the Great Northwest Athletic Conference Coach of the Year after guiding MSU-Billings to its first-ever NCAA tournament bid, where the Yellowjackets defeated Cal State-Los Angeles in the first round. In 2006 he led his team to a No. 1 ranking in the NSCAA/Adidas Regional Poll and No. 8 in the NSCAA/Adidas National Poll.

During his tenure with the Yellowjackets, he coached 31 All-Conference selections, three Academic All-Americans, two GNAC Freshmen of the Year and one NCAA Woman of the Year.

From 2004-08, Trentham also served as the Director of Soccer Programs at MSU-Billings. His duties included supervising both men's and women's programs, fundraising and chairing the committee responsible for hiring a men's soccer coach.

Prior to his time with the Yellowjackets, Trentham served as a graduate assistant women's soccer coach at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University in (2001-02). He also served as an assistant men's soccer coach at Embry-Riddle (Fla.) University (1999-2001).

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Trentham also has excellent experience coaching youth soccer. He has been the head girls' coach of the Magic City Soccer Club in Billings since March 2006, leading them to six Montana Youth Soccer State Championships. He has also been heavily involved with Montana ODP and served as a Region IV ODP staff coach in 2004 and 2005.

Trentham holds a USSF National Goalkeeping license, a NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and a USSF "A" license.

He played soccer at Columbia (Mo.) College where he earned his bachelor's degree in education in 1999. Trentham earned his master's degree in education in health and physical education from East Stroudsburg in 2007. Trentham and his wife Jenn have a son, Landon.

SUPPORTING STAFF

Rebekah Patrick is in her first season as a volunteer assistant coach for the University of Colorado. Patrick brings a wealth of international playing experience and girls' coaching experience to the Buffalo program.

Patrick currently works as an assistant coach for the Colorado Rapids Women's League and Super 20's. Since 2011, she has been an assistant coach for the Sant Gabriel U-14 girls' team. She will travel to Barcelona and San Sebastian, Spain and Gothenburg, Sweden for the team's upcoming competitions in Sant Gabriel, the Donosti Cup and the Gothia Cup. Before suffering a season-ending ACL injury, Patrick was a key contributor for Sant Gabriel's Superliga team.

Though having played all over the world, Patrick is no stranger to Colorado. She has worked as a coach during CU's youth soccer camps since 2011. She also has experience with futbol academy camps at her alma mater, California State University, Fullerton.

Patrick has worked as an assistant coach for many girls' teams including the Orange Junior Soccer Club U-15 and U-17 teams during the 2006-07 season.

Patrick has an amazing playing resume, spanning collegiate, international and Women's Premier Soccer League/USL W-League play.

In international play from 2007-10, Patrick started and played all games for both Euromat Lestartit and Prainsa Zaragoza of the Superliga. She led the latter to the third round of Copa Del Reina and helped coach the program's U-12 girls' team.

Patrick has played for five different WPSL or USL W-League teams. She was a first-team all-conference selection twice and was named to the W-League team of the week four times during her tenure with the San Diego Sunwaves, where she made the playoffs, and the Colorado Force.

In 2009, she helped lead the Pali Blues to W-League division and national championships. Previously, she was the team captain of San Diego United where she was an All-Pacific team selection. She also helped coach the club's the U-11 team.

From 2004-06, she was seventh overall in points (15) with the Las Vegas Tabagators, earning two offensive MVP awards and becoming an All-Stars and first-team Western Division selection.

She began her college career in 2002 at the University of Portland, where she helped the Pilots to a 20-4-2 record, a West Coast Conference championship and a Division I national championship.

Next season, she helped Lassen College (Calif.) to a 23-1 record and a spot in the national championship. She led the state with 83 points (33 goals, 17 assists) and was a NSCAA all-region and first-team All-American selection.

She finished her collegiate career at California State University, Fullerton. With the Titans, Patrick won back-to-back Big West Conference regular season championships and made a NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2005. That year she also earned Big West honorable mention honors.

Patrick holds a USSF "E" license and is fluent in Spanish. She earned her bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cal State Fullerton in 2006.
