MAP AND DIRECTIONS TO PRENTUP FIELD

The Home of Colorado Soccer

To reach Prentup Field from campus, take Colorado Blvd. east through the inter-sections of 28th and 30th Streets. Take your first left (unmarked) on to 33rd Street. After several speed bumps and the University's Day Care Center, take a right into a dirt parking lot. Prentup Field is on the left. From Foothills Parkway, travel west on Colorado, take a right on Innovation Drive and follow that into a dirt parking lot. The field is on the right just past the track complex and ski building.

PRENTUP FIELD INFORMATION

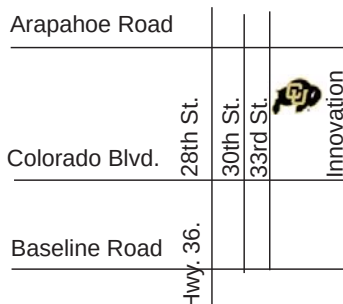

- There is bleacher seating available for approximately 750 people.

- Lawnchairs and outside food and drinks are welcome.

- Alcohol is prohibited within the confines of Prentup Field and nearby Potts Field (track).

- Animals, other than service dogs, are prohibited.

- Admission and parking for regular season games is free of charge.

SPORTS INFORMATION

Colorado's Sports Information Department welcomes and encourages your interest in Colorado Soccer. We will make every effort to meet your needs in covering the Buffs. The sports information office maintains information on all current student-athletes and athletic department staff, as well as historical data on former athletes and Colorado's athletic department in general. The Sports Information office is located in the Balch Fieldhouse Annex on the west side of Folsom Field and opens at 8 a.m. daily.

MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly media releases containing updated team and individual statistics, information on upcoming games, Pac-12 Conference standings and the latest NSCAA Division I poll will be available every Tuesday morning throughout the season. Game notes and roster information can be picked up before every game at the scorer's table at Prentup Field. Copies of the match statistics and postgame release can be emailed to your outlet following each game, home or away.

PRENTUP FIELD

All home games will be played on campus at Prentup Field, located on CU's East Campus at 33rd and Colorado. Admission, and parking in the adjacent lot, are free.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Interview requests should be made directly through the CU Sports Information Department. Please contact Marlee Horn to request access to athletes. Both athletes and staff will be on the field and available to the media following a brief cooling off period at the conclusion of all games. Practices are held on Prentup Field, beginning at 7:30 a.m., with weight training or speed school immediately following at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Practice times may vary. Please contact Marlee if you would like to conduct post- or pre-practice interviews. The coaching staff is generally available in their offices weekdays from 9 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and after practices. Please feel free to call any member of the coaching staff during the day at 303-492-0632, however to contact a student-athlete, we ask that you go through the sports information office.

DURING THE GAME

Statistics are available at halftime and at the end of the game. There are currently no phone lines available at Prentup, but wireless internet access is available for the 2013 season. Please see Marlee Horn at the game for login information.

BUFFS ON THE WEB

For the latest on CU Soccer and all Colorado Athletics: CUBuffs.com. All Colorado soccer information can be viewed through CU's comprehensive website. All the latest information on coaches and players, as well as all box scores, statistics and weekly releases are available.

Pac-12 SERVICES

For conference information, please contact the Pac-12 office at (925) 932-4411. The women's soccer contact is Alex Kaufman. The mailing address is: 1350 Treat Blvd, Suite 500 Walnut Creek, CA 94597. The Pac-12 Conference website is www.pac-12.org.

Headquartered in San Francisco's SOMA district, Pac-12 Networks is the new content and multiplatform media company for the Pac-12 Conference, a leader in collegiate athletics that includes 12 of the most prestigious universities in the world. Pac-12 Networks was created in 2011 to develop and launch one national and six full-time native HD linear networks available to video programming operators, as well as a digital network dedicated solely to the Pac-12. The linear networks televise hundreds of live sporting events annually and provide 24/7 access to Pac-12 teams and universities. Pac-12 Digital encompasses the digital network, mobile, the university websites, social media and innovative digital initiatives across the company.

In its second year, the Pac-12 Networks will televise 58 women's soccer games this season, including five CU games and 40 total conference matches. Women's soccer is the marquee event on the Networks' schedule Friday and Saturday afternoons during the fall, with additional primetime matchups on Monday and Thursday.

2013 COLORADO BUFFALOES

The University of Colorado women's soccer team enters its third season in the Pac-12 Conference and its second under head coach Danny Sanchez. Nine newcomers and 16 returning players will face a schedule that includes four in-state opponents and four opponents who ranked in the NSCAA post-season top 22.

WHO'S RETURNING: The Buffs return 16 players, including 13 letter-winners and eight starters. Four of the team's top five scorers return, led by senior Anne Stuller, who netted eight goals and had two assists last season. Fellow seniors and co-captains Hayley Hughes (two goals and three assists) and Annie Brunner (70 saves and 7.1 shutouts) hope to lead the team to victory in the 2013 season. The team also has a strong young presence. Sophomores Madison Krauser, a member of the Pac-12 Freshman Team, and Emily Paxton combined for a total of 11 points in their first season.

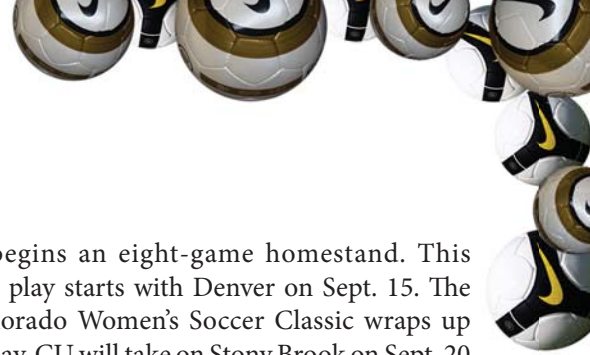

WHO'S GONE: The Buffs bid farewell to nine players, including six seniors, three of whom were starters. Midfielder Amy Barczuk concluded her career at CU by breaking numerous records and earning a place on the All-Pac-12 Second Team. Barczuk has continued her soccer career as a second round draft choice by the Western New York Flash in the inaugural NWSL Draft. Other 2012 senior starters Shaye Marshall and Quinn Krier combined for eight assists in the midfield. Keeper Kayla Millar closed out a career that included helping CU to its first win in the Pac-12. CU also lost two more seniors, Lauren Shaner and Erin Bricker, who provided extra minutes off the bench. Jenna Glad, Courtney Dudley and Elise Romano, who played a combined 386 minutes in their freshmen campaigns, will not be returning this season.

WHO'S NEW: CU welcomes nine newcomers. The group includes seven freshmen and two transfers. Californians lead the pack with four players: Alyssa Herwatt, Hannah Dearborn, Mikaela Kraus and Tori Cooper. Washington follows with two: Sydney Carlson and Brianna Hooks. Three other players expand Buff Nation, becoming the first players from their respective states. Kenzie Tillitt hails from Nevada, Brooke Rice from Wyoming and Alex Huynh from New South Wales, Australia. Cooper and Rice both have two seasons of collegiate experience under their belts, coming to Colorado by way of Georgia and Santa Clara, respectively.

FORWARDS: Anne Stuller leads the attack following a stellar junior season. Stuller led the 2012 Buffs in goals, points, shots, shots on goal and gamewinners. Junior Storie Ledger scored her first collegiate goal in last season's 3-0 shutout of Arizona. Sophomores Emily Paxton and Nikola Machalek made a strong debut, with Paxton scoring against No. 2-ranked Stanford and Machalek scoring in her first collegiate game. Freshmen Hannah Dearborn and Brianna Hooks look to contribute offensively in their first season.

MIDFIELDERS: Colorado's deep midfield boasts four juniors, including two transfers, two sophomores and three freshmen. Though both battled injuries last season, juniors Darcy Jerman (15 starts and one goal) and Carly Bolyard (15 games played) made a strong impression in their second season. Sophomores

Madison Krauser and Olivia Pappalardo began their careers with a bang. Krauser found a spot on the All-Pac-12 Freshman Team after scoring two goals, including gamewinner against Wyoming, and contributing two assists. Pappalardo was only second to Krauser amongst last season's freshmen, with 16 shots and two assists. Transfers Tori Cooper and Brooke Rice and freshmen Sydney Carlson, Alyssa Herwatt and Mikaela Kraus round out the group to work to fill the absence of versatile midfielders Amy Barczuk and Shaye Marshall.

DEFENDERS: Following the Buffs' best defensive season since 2008, boasting eight shutouts and a 1.08 goals-against average, a veteran group of defenders look to continue the trend. Both Hayley Hughes and Lizzy Herzl scored goals last season, but will conclude their Colorado career as members of the backline. Bianca Jones, also an offensive presence last year with two goals, will contribute as a leader in her third season. Heather Ward, who played in 11 games last season, is joined by fellow sophomores Ashley Love and Taylor Thurmond. Aussie Alex Huynh will also join the Buffs defense in her first season.

KEEPERS: Annie Brunner enters her final season with three years' experience as the Buffs' lead keeper. In 20 games in 2012, Brunner played 1,815 minutes, allowed 23 goals and recorded a 1.14 GAA. Her three straight shutouts to start the season was a CU record and helped her to a Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week honor. She once again added her name to the CU season record books and moved up the ranks in the career records, standing in the top five for career shutouts, GAA, saves and wins. She also ended the season ranked in the top 10 in the Pac-12 in shutouts, GAA, saves, saves per game and save percentage. Brunner is joined by senior reserve keeper Betsy Builder and newcomer Kenzie Tillitt.

THE SEASON: Colorado's schedule includes 11 home games, nine non-conference match-ups and five televised games on the Pac-12 Networks.

The Buffs open the season with the Colorado Cup for the third consecutive year, looking for their third consecutive title. CU begins the season against Northern Colorado on Aug. 23, an opponent CU has never allowed a goal against, much less lost to. The Buffs then play host to Colorado College on Aug. 25 in the deciding game of the Cup.

Home games continue against in-state rival Air Force on Aug. 30 and St. Mary's on Sept. 1.

The Buffs then head to the Denver Invitational to take on Alabama on Sept. 6 and the University of Tennessee-Martin on Sept. 8.

Colorado then begins an eight-game homestand. This extended Prentup play starts with Denver on Sept. 15. The Omni Hotels Colorado Women's Soccer Classic wraps up non-conference play. CU will take on Stony Brook on Sept. 20 and UNLV on Sept. 22, while also playing host to Northern Colorado.

CU begins Pac-12 Conference play against 2012 NCAA semifinalists Stanford on Sept. 28. Home conference games continue as the Buffs look for their first wins against Oregon State on Oct. 4 and Oregon on Oct. 6.

The Buffs head out of state for the first time all season to take on Washington State and Washington on Oct. 11 and Oct. 13, respectively. CU concludes the trip in Berkeley, where the Buffs earned their first ever Pac-12 victory, to take on California on Oct. 18.

In their final home games of the season, the Buffs hope for a repeat win against Southern California on Oct. 25 and take on stiff competition against UCLA on Oct. 27.

In the final three-game roadtrip of the season, CU travels to Arizona and Utah. The trip begins on Nov. 1 against Arizona State. Colorado then works for back-to-back shutouts against Arizona on Nov. 3. The Buffs close out the season against conference rival Utah on Nov. 8.

Danny Sanchez enters his second season as the head coach of the University of Colorado women's soccer team. He was named the third head coach in the history of the program on December 19, 2011.

In his first season at Colorado, he coached the Buffs to an 8-8-4 record and several program firsts. The Buffs opened the season with a record-setting three straight shutouts on their way to a 3-0-2 start, marking the first time CU began a season on a five game unbeaten streak.

It took Sanchez just eight games to record five wins with the program, faster than either of his predecessors. The Buffs earned an astounding 6-1-2 non-conference record, their best performance since 2008 and only the sixth time the team won at least six non-conference match-ups.

CU was a defensive force, tying for fourth in the Pac-12 Conference with eight shutouts (also tying for sixth best all-time for the program).

The Buffs improved in conference under Sanchez, not only earning their first ever Pac-12 road win, a 1-0 double overtime battle at USC, but also recording back-to-back Pac-12 road victories when it shutout Arizona 3-0 less than a week later. CU also showed strength against ranked teams, posting goals against then-ranked No. 2 Stanford and No. 3 UCLA.

Sanchez continued to help the Buffs to academic excellence, with eight players earning Pac-12 All-Academic honors and the team earning a National Soccer Coaches Association of America Team Academic Award for averaging a 3.0 grade-point average.

He coached captain Amy Barczuk to a stellar senior season, helping her become just the second Buff to be drafted by a professional team. Barczuk went to the Western New York Flash in the second round of the inaugural National Women's Soccer League Draft.

Sanchez's career spans 18 years with Wyoming, Metro State and Mesa Community College, where he coached both men's and women's programs. He has amassed a 275-68-27 record, including a pair of NCAA Division II National Championships while at Metro State.

In his time away from the Centennial State, Sanchez spent four seasons with the University of Wyoming, compiling a 36-34-11 record. In his final season with the Cowgirls, the team posted a 12-6-4 record, its best in school history, including a 3-1-2 record in Mountain West Conference play for a third-place regular season finish.

After a 0-3 start, Wyoming allowed just 12 goals in its final 19 games, with one of its wins including a 1-0 decision against Colorado in Boulder. In the MWC tournament, the Cowgirls defeated TCU and San Diego State before falling to New Mexico in the championship.

Sanchez gave the Cowgirls their first winning record in four years, going 9-8-3 in his second season with the team. He coached eight All-Mountain West Conference performers and all four of his teams were recognized with the NSCAA Team Academic Award.

Before joining the Cowgirls, Sanchez spent six seasons as the head women's coach at Denver's Metro State College. He posted an impressive 128-11-7 record (a 90.1 winning percentage) with the Roadrunners, where he won Division II national titles in 2004 and 2006 and reached the Final Four in 2002 and the Elite Eight five times. Sanchez and the Roadrunners also claimed five Midwest Region Championships.

At Metro State, the Roadrunners won the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) championship, and advanced to the NCAA Division II Tournament all six seasons he was at the helm. He was also named the RMAC's Coach of the Year all six years. Sanchez was the 2004 NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year, a four-time NSCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year and was named the RMAC's All-Time Top Coach.

In his time at Metro State, the Roadrunners established two of the most impressive records in Division II history: a 59-game unbeaten streak (58-0-1) and 61 consecutive home wins. MSCD produced two Division II National Players of the Year and 14 NSCAA All-Americans in his tenure.

Prior to taking over at Metro, Sanchez served as the head men's and women's soccer coach at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College from 1995-2002. In eight seasons, he led the women's team to a 103-15-5 (.858) overall record and the men to a 96-36-7 (.716) mark, producing 12 All-Americans in that span between the two. The women won four National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Region I Championships and five Arizona Community College Athletic Conference (ACCAC) Championships. In 2001, he was the ACCAC and NJCAA Region I Men's and Women's Coach of the Year, as well as the NSCAA Junior College Central Region Coach of the Year. He also won the NJCAA Region I Women's Coach of the Year award in 1996 and 1999.

Sanchez has also been very active in coaching around the Rocky Mountain region. He has served as a staff coach and licensing instructor for the Colorado State Youth Soccer Association and has worked as a coach for U.S. Youth Soccer Region IV staff. Sanchez holds a United States Soccer Federation (USSF) "A" License, a USSF National Youth License, an NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and a KNVB Dutch Advanced Certificate.

After graduating from Scottsdale's (Ariz.) Coronado High School, where he lettered in soccer, football and baseball, he began his collegiate career at nearby Mesa CC. Later, he transferred to the University of Connecticut and led the Huskies to the 1989 Big East Conference Championship and an NCAA Tournament berth, ranking in the New England Region's top 10 in scoring that season. Following his collegiate career, he played in the Western Soccer League for the Arizona Condors and in the U.S.I.S.L. for the Arizona Cotton.

Sanchez earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Connecticut in 1991. He and wife Beth, a physical education teacher, have two sons, Cole (13) and Drew (10).

ASSISTANT COACHES

Jason Green enters his second year as an assistant soccer coach at the University of Colorado. He serves as the Buffs' goalkeeper director.

In his first season with the Buffs, the team earned an 8-8-4 record and had its best defensive performance since 2007. Colorado began its season with a record-setting three shutouts on its way to eight total, tying for fourth in the Pac-12 Conference and tying sixth best all-time at CU.

Green helped coach keepers Annie Brunner and Kayla Millar to a 1.08 goals-against average, good enough for fifth best in program history. Both keepers shined in the net, with Brunner earning Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week honors at the beginning of the season and Millar earning CU Athlete of the Week honors at its conclusion.

In Green's first season working with Brunner, she improved her stats drastically in every single category. Her GAA when from 1.69 in 2011 to 1.14 in 2012, raising her save percentage of .635 in 2011 up to .753 in 2012 and registering 70 saves in 2012, up from 40 in 2011. Brunner was also more durable, playing in over 550 more minutes than she did in 2011. She also crushed her shutout mark of two (2011), notching eight in 2012.

"Because of Jason's complete understanding of the game, he brings a refreshing perspective to goalkeeping," Brunner said. "Too many coaches these days focus on just the technique of our position and end up losing sight of the bigger picture – keeping the ball out of the net. While those coaches end up criticizing your every move, Jason uniquely understands that with repetition and feedback I'll make the most progress. He offers advice based off his knowledge of field player behavior combined with goalkeeper technique, which together elevate my understanding of the position and help me to perform my best on game day."

Prior to joining the Buffaloes, he was an assistant for Danny Sanchez at the University of Wyoming. In Green's four year tenure at Wyoming, the Cowgirls were 36-34-11. He helped coach 18 Academic All-Mountain West Conference and nine Conference Scholars. In 2011, he helped coach the Cowgirls to a school record 12 wins and the program's first ever spot in the MWC Tournament championship game.

At Wyoming, Green brought the goalkeeping position to a new level, as almost every record was broken while he was overlooking and training the goalkeepers. Under Green's tutelage, Courtney Merkle ended her collegiate career ranked at the top of school season and career record books for GAA and minutes played. Merkle also ranks second all-time in saves.

Green was also on Sanchez's staff at Mesa Community College and the duo has worked together on a number of club teams and summer camps.

He has held two high school head coaching jobs, the first at Skyline High School in Mesa, Ariz., and the second at Chandler (Ariz.) High School. Green was named Region Coach of the Year at both posts and at Chandler his teams won three straight NSCAA National Academic Awards.

In his 15 year coaching career in college, high school and club soccer, Green has coached five state championship teams, six region champions, four district champions and five conference titlists.

He was mentored by Aidan Davison, a former goalkeeper in the English Premier League and the first team coach in the English Premier League.

"Having worked with Jason I have seen firsthand the quality he brings to the program, he has an added dimension of understanding the goalkeeping role and the requirements of the position," Davison said. "Jason is a bright young coach with a big future"

Green holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" License and a USSF National Goalkeeping License. He also has attended the Manchester United Coaches Symposium.

Green started his collegiate playing career at Mesa C.C. under Sanchez, where they were ranked as high as second in the nation. He continued his career at Grand Canyon (Ariz.) University, where he helped lead the team to a No. 2 national ranking and to the championship game of the California Collegiate Athletic Association Tournament.

He earned his bachelor's in physical education from Ottawa (Ariz.) University in 2003 and completed his master's in physical education from Arizona State University in 2008.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Don Trentham enters his second season as an assistant soccer coach at the University of Colorado. Trentham serves as the Buffs' recruiting coordinator and has helped build a dominant defensive presence.

In his first season at CU, the Buffs earned an 8-8-4 record while having their best defensive performance since 2007. The Buffs started the season with a record-setting three shutouts. Their eight total shutouts tied for fourth in the Pac-12 Conference and tied sixth all-time at CU.

Prior to joining the Buffaloes, he spent the 2011 season on Danny Sanchez's staff at the University of Wyoming, helping the Cowgirls to a 12-5-4 record and a spot in the Mountain West Conference Tournament final.

Trentham joined Sanchez's staff after spending nine successful seasons as the head coach at Montana State University Billings (2002-10). He coached the Yellowjackets to an overall record of 85-75-10 and completed five seasons with 10 or more wins.

In 2010 he was named the Great Northwest Athletic Conference Coach of the Year after guiding MSU Billings to its first-ever NCAA tournament bid, where the Yellowjackets defeated Cal State-Los Angeles in the first round. In 2006 he led his team to a No. 1 ranking in the NSCAA/Adidas Regional Poll and No. 8 in the NSCAA/Adidas National Poll.

During his tenure with the Yellowjackets, he coached 31 All-Conference selections, three Academic All-Americans, two GNAC Freshmen of the Year and one NCAA Woman of the Year.

From 2004-08, Trentham also served as the Director of Soccer Programs at MSU Billings. His duties included supervising both men's and women's programs, fundraising and chairing the committee responsible for hiring a men's soccer coach.

Prior to his time with the Yellowjackets, Trentham served as a graduate assistant women's soccer coach at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University in (2001-02). He also served as an assistant men's soccer coach at Embry-Riddle (Fla.) University (1999-2001).

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Trentham also has excellent experience coaching youth soccer. He has been the head girls' coach of the Magic City Soccer Club in Billings since March 2006, leading them to six Montana Youth Soccer State Championships. He has also been heavily involved with Montana ODP and served as a Region IV ODP staff coach in 2004 and 2005.

Trentham holds a USSF National Goalkeeping license, a NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and a USSF "A" license.

He played soccer at Columbia (Mo.) College where he earned his bachelor's degree in education in 1999. Trentham earned his master's degree in education in health and physical education from East Stroudsburg in 2007. Trentham and his wife Jenn have a son, Landon.

SUPPORTING STAFF

Rebekah Patrick is in her first season as the University of Colorado soccer Coordinator of Performance Analysis and Camp Operations. Previously, she worked as a volunteer assistant coach at CU.

Patrick has a wealth of international playing experience and girls' coaching experience to the program. Since 2011, she has been an assistant coach for the Sant Gabriel U-14 girls' team. She travelled to Spain and Sweden for the team's competitions in Sant Gabriel, the Donosti Cup and the Gothia Cup. Before suffering a season-ending ACL injury, Patrick was a key contributor for Sant Gabriel's Superliga team. Patrick also worked as an assistant coach for the Colorado Rapids Women's League and Super 20's.

She has worked as a coach during CU's youth soccer camps since 2011. She also has experience with futbol academy camps at her alma mater, California State University, Fullerton.

Patrick has worked as an assistant coach for many girls' teams including the Orange Junior Soccer Club U-15 and U-17 teams during the 2006-07 season.

Patrick has an amazing playing resume, spanning collegiate, international and Women's Premier Soccer League/USL W-League play.

In international play from 2007-10, Patrick started and played all games for both Euromat L'estartit and Prainsa Zaragoza of the Superliga. She led the latter to the third round of Copa Del Reina and helped coach the team's U-12 girls' team.

Patrick has played for five different WPSL or USL W-League teams. She was a first-team All-Conference selection twice and was named to the W-League team of the week four times during her time with the San Diego Sunwaves, where she made the playoffs, and the Colorado Force.

In 2009, she helped lead the Pali Blues to W-League division and national championships. Previously, she was the team captain of San Diego United where she was an All-Pacific team selection and also helped coach the club's the U-11 team. From 2004-06, she was seventh overall in points (15) with the Las Vegas Tabagators, earning two offensive MVP awards and becoming an All-Stars and first-team Western Division selection.

She began her college career in 2002 at the University of Portland, where she helped the Pilots to a 20-4-2 record, a West Coast Conference championship and a Division I national championship.

Next season, she helped Lassen College (Calif.) to a 23-1 record and a spot in the national championship. She led the state with 83 points (33 goals, 17 assists) and was a NSCAA All-Region and first-team All-American selection.

She finished her collegiate career at California State University, Fullerton. With the Titans, Patrick won back-to-back Big West Conference regular season championships and made an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2005. That year she was also a Big West honorable mention selection.

Patrick holds a USSF "C" license and is fluent in Spanish. She earned her bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cal State Fullerton in 2006.

- What's been your favorite moment at CU?
Beating Cal my freshman year!

SOPHOMORE (2012): Bolyard played in 15 games, making three starts. She took three shots, all in consecutive games against Northwestern, Denver and Cincinnati. She played a season-high 68 minutes against Oregon State (0-2) before a knee injury sidelined her for the remainder of the season.

FRESHMAN (2011): Bolyard was the only freshman to start 18 of her 19 games played. In 1,158 total minutes, she made 22 shots, nine of which were on goal. The highlight of her season came in the very first game, a 5-0 shutout against Colorado College in the Colorado Cup. She helped the Buffs to the win with one assist and the game-winning goal. She was the only freshman to hit a game-winner in the 2011 season. Bolyard played a season-high 110 minutes in the Buffs' 2-2 match against Auburn on September 16.

HIGH SCHOOL: Bolyard was a four-year All-Front Range Conference selection for Monarch High School, earning first team honors as a sophomore (2009) and three second team awards (2008, '10 and '11). As a sophomore she was also second team all-region. During her junior year she was the team's offensive MVP. Bolyard earned all-academic accolades all four years of high school as well. She played midfield/forward under coach Gianna DeSaverio, a former CU soccer player (2007-08). She played for the Arsenal and Pride Predators Club teams. In 2006, her Arsenal team won the Schwan's USA Cup Tournament. In 2007 and '08, her team made it to the Colorado State Cup semi-finals. While she played with the Predators, her team won the league title. She also has Olympic Development Program experience as a member of the state team (2008-10). She was in the Region IV pool in 2008 and '09. Her team was Region IV champions in 2010 after making the finals the two previous years (2008 and '09). She was a national ODP champion in 2010 as she made the Colorado Girls first team. She also lettered in basketball at MHS for two seasons and earned all-academic awards her freshman and sophomore years.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Bolyard is majoring in speech, language and hearing sciences at Colorado.

PERSONAL: She is the only daughter of Rick and Jennifer Bolyard of Louisville, Colo. She has an older brother, Corey, and a younger brother, Colton. When she's not playing soccer, Bolyard enjoys snowboarding, wakeboarding and hanging out with friends. She is a member of the National Honor Society and Girls Group. She hopes to either play soccer professionally or coach after graduation.

JUNIOR (2012): Brunner started every game, playing 1,816 total minutes and allowing 23 goals. The defense-driven season led her to numerous records. She once again added her name to the CU season lists, ranking third with 7.1 shutouts, tying for sixth with eight wins (her second season doing so) and landing at eighth with 70 saves. She also ranked in the top 10 in the Pac-12 in goals-against average (1.14), saves, saves per game (3.5) and save percentage (.753), including a second-ranked shutout total. Brunner began with a bang, earning Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week honors on her way to helping the Buffs to a record-setting three shutouts to start the season. She also moved up in the CU career record books, ranking in the top five in shutouts, GAA, saves and wins.

Brunner continued her role as the lead goalkeeper for the Buffs, starting 14 of the team's 19 games. She had 40 saves, averaging 2.86 per game, which ranked in the top 10 of Pac-12 goalkeepers in 2011. She only allowed 23 goals. She had two shutouts, moving her into sole possession of fourth place on CU's all-time list. Both shutouts happened in the Colorado Cup against Colorado College (5-0) and Northern Colorado (3-0). Her 0.14 shutouts per game average ranked eighth on the Pac-12 list.

FRESHMAN (2010): She secured her spot as CU's starting goalkeeper playing all 20 games and starting 19. She recorded 61 saves allowing just 22 goals in 1,804 minutes giving her a 1.10 goals against average which ranks 10th on CU's single season list. Her 61 saves puts her in 10th on that list as well, and she is tied for sixth with five shutouts and eight wins in her debut season. She earned two player of the week awards (Big 12 Conference and College Soccer 360) after the Buffs beat No. 6 Texas A&M 2-1 in overtime and tied Texas 0-0 in double overtime.

HIGH SCHOOL: She arrived early at CU after graduating from Arvada West High School in December of 2009 and enrolled into CU for the spring 2010 semester. She was a member of her high school's soccer team for two years at left back and then focused on playing club ball for the Colorado Storm Soccer Club under coach Scott Dedycker. She led the Storm to the state championship in 2007, '08, '09 and '10. She also has significant experience at the Olympic Development level and was a member of the ODP State team for four years (2004-07). She was recognized as an academic letterman for four years and received the Masonic Award her junior year.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Brunner is majoring in management in the Leeds School of Business at Colorado.

PERSONAL: She was born January 31, 1992, to Bill and Maggie Brunner. She has two older brothers, Matt and Will. She chose CU because she fell in love with Boulder and the campus. She is a counselor at the Rock Christian Camp and enjoys most outdoor activities, especially fishing, hiking, biking, rock climbing, snowboarding and tennis.

JUNIOR (2012): Herzl found her stride at both ends of the pitch in her junior season. She played in all 20 games, starting all but one, totaling 1,843 minutes. She helped the Buffs defense to eight shutouts, including a record-setting three to start the season. She took three shots, all on goal, and found the back of the net with the game-winner in CU's defense-driven 3-0 victory over Arizona.

SOPHOMORE (2011): Herzl started nine of her 15 games played in 2011. She took four shots, two on goal, in 943 minutes. Two of her shots came against the University of California. The 1-0 win over the Golden Bears on October 21 was the Buffaloes' first conference victory in the Pac-12. Herzl allowed zero goals in her 7:09 spent as the goalkeeper against the University of Utah on November 4.

FRESHMAN (2010): After making the spur-of-the-moment switch from defense, where she's played all of her soccer career, to offense, Herzl's freshman campaign got a lot more interesting. She switched positions during the game against UCLA, and soon after Herzl became a hero when she scored the game-winner to lift the Buffs over No. 10 UCLA 1-0 in double overtime. For a fitting encore, Herzl did the exact same thing in the following game against No. 6 Texas A&M when she scored the game-winner in overtime giving the Buffs their first ever win (2-1) in College Station, Texas.

GETTING TO KNOW LIZZY...

HIGH SCHOOL: Hooks was truly a leader for the Tahoma Bears. She has scored 36 goals in her career, and her 79 assists became a school record. At Tahoma she won three South Puget Sound League North Championships and back-to-back league championships. Hooks continued to improve, from a 19 point, 14-3-2 freshman season to a 58 point, 21-1 senior campaign. That season, she also set the record for most assists with 28. The Bears placed second at the state championship when Hooks was a sophomore and finished third in her final two seasons. Hooks' accolades are nearly endless. She was selected as first-team SPSL North four times, Seattle Times All-Area three times, first-team Tacoma News Tribune All-Area and first-team All-State twice and was a WIAA Team Academic Award winner twice (for athletes with a grade-point average of 3.85 or higher). She was her team's offensive and overall MVP twice a piece, as well as a two-time 4A state MVP. As a senior, she was the SPSL North's Co-MVP and TNT's player of the year. She played two seasons of basketball and ran track, but she also excelled beyond Tahoma. Her crossfire ECNL club team won the state championship in 2011. In ODP, she competed in numerous events and camps, including two Thanksgiving Interregional Events, where she was the leading scorer in 2011. She was named All-Tournament second team at the 2011 and '12 Region IV ODP Championships. She was also invited to the US Youth Soccer National Training Sessions in 2010 and '11.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Hooks intends to major in psychology.

PERSONAL: Brianna Hooks was born in Seattle on Feb. 10, 1995. Her family is no stranger to sports. Her father, Kim Hooks, played baseball at Edmonds Community College, and her mother, Kelly Wirtala, played tennis at Shoreline Community College. Her grandfather, James Hooks, played football at Central Oklahoma before joining the Detroit Lions. She has two younger brothers, Kim and Julius. She hopes to become a sports psychologist. Hooks sang alto in Tahoma's treble choir, where she had a superior score at the state competition. She has taken three years of American Sign Language and hopes to become fully fluent while at CU. She liked the sense of home CU's campus gave her and is excited to avoid the Washington rain.

JUNIOR (2012): Hughes started all 20 games, scored two goals and contributed three assists in her impressive junior campaign. She ranked third on the team in points and assists and entered a five-way tie for sixth most assists by a CU junior. All of Hughes' points helped CU to victories, beginning with assists in the season opener against Northern Colorado (3-0) and the home opener against LIU (2-0). Hughes earned a spot on the DU Invitational All-Tournament Team after leading the Buffs to a 2-1 victory over Cincinnati. She scored once more against Air Force (2-0), and added an assist in the Buffs' 3-0 blanking of Arizona.

SOPHOMORE (2011): She started 17 of 18 games, totaling 1,378 minutes. She tied her 2010 season totals of three goals and 26 shots and increased her shots on goal percentage to .423. She scored two goals to open the season in the Colorado Cup with wins against Colorado College and Northern Colorado, leading her to CU Athlete of the Week honors. Her third goal of the season was the decisive one in CU's 1-0 win against the University of California, the team's first ever conference win in the Pac-12. She was one of two Buffaloes to become a 2011 Pac-12 All-Academic First Team selection.

FRESHMAN (2010):

She was one of three Buffs and the only freshman to start every game in 2010. Hughes finished her first season at Colorado as the team's third leading scorer with three goals and an assist for seven points in 1,760 minutes. Her three goals tied her for ninth on CU's offensive class records for freshmen. She played exceptionally well in the DU Invitational at the beginning of the season and earned herself a spot on the all-tournament team.

GETTING TO KNOW HAYLEY...

- Why did you pick CU? It's beautiful and I love our team

The club won the Surf College Cup in 2011 and was victorious in back-to-back Surf Thanksgiving Cups ('09 and '10) and won three straight Surf Cups (2008-10). Kraus and the Surf were also Cal South National Cup semi-finalists in 2009 and '10.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Kraus is interested in sociology and applied physiology.

PERSONAL: Mikaela Jayne Kraus was born on Oct. 11, 1995 to David and Jennifer Kraus. Her sister, Kendall, plays soccer at Dartmouth. Kraus hopes to work in sports law after graduation. She is of Puerto Rican descent. She enjoys scuba diving, skiing and making homemade ravioli. She volunteers for multiple causes each year. She chose CU because she believes it is the perfect combination of academic and athletic opportunities.

2013 BUFFALOES

Pac-12 Freshman Team

FRESHMAN (2012): Krauser proved to be a standout player in her first season. She was the only freshman to play in and start every game. She ranked second and third on the team in shots (35) and shots on goal (16). She also led all freshmen with six points. Her two assists came in the Buffs' home opener against LIU (2-0) and home closer against Utah (1-1). Krauser was also a force on the road, scoring twice in away games. Her first goal came at Northwestern, keeping the Buffs in the game that ended in a 2-2 tie and helping her to CU Athlete of the Week honors. Her second goal was the game winner at Wyoming, setting the pace for a 2-0 victory. Krauser's superb season also helped her to a spot on the Pac-12 Freshman Team.

SOPHOMORE (2012 at SANTA CLARA): Rice played in 20 games and made four starts as Santa Clara advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament and earned a 12-4-6 record. Rice took 16 shots, half of which were on goal. Her first collegiate goal was the game-winner in the Broncos' 4-2 victory over the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

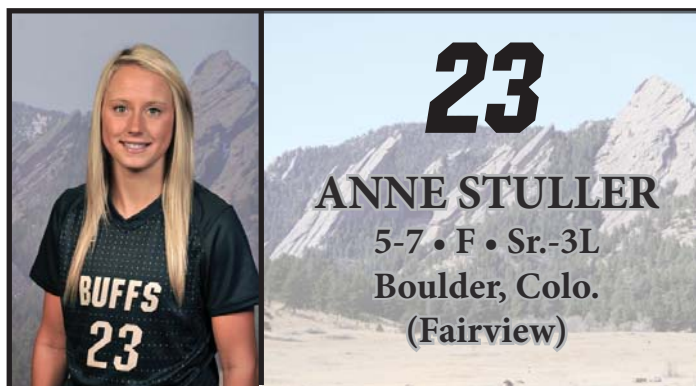

FRESHMAN (2011 at SANTA CLARA): Appeared in six games as a freshman, taking two shots and sending one on goal.

HIGH SCHOOL: Rice had an active prep career. Her Utah Avalanche soccer club won the state championship three years in a row from 2008-10. They were also Surf Cup champions in 2009. She was on the Utah state ODP region pool and team in 2010. Though focusing mostly on a club, Rice made the move to high school soccer her senior season, earning All-State honors. At Jackson Hole, she also participated in two years of track, cross country and basketball (a team which won four straight state championships). She was All-State both seasons with the track team, competing in the 800, 1600 and 3200 meters and taking home an individual state title. She also won team and individual state titles in cross country, where she ran a 19:50 3-mile and earned All-State honors as a freshman.

IN THE CLASSROOM: Rice's intended major is business. She is also interested in journalism.

PERSONAL: Brooke Rice was born in Voorhees, N.J. on Feb. 16, 1993. Her parents Joe and Denise Rice own their own business and created a family of athletes. Joe competed in the 800 meter at Clemson. Rice's sisters have both also played collegiate soccer. Ellie currently plays at Santa Clara and Nicole played at Wyoming under then head coach Danny Sanchez. Rice enjoys cooking, hiking and being with friends. She has volunteered for the Bay Area Women's Sports Initiative (BAWSI) and is a member of the National Honor Society. She chose CU to play soccer for a good team with a good coach in the Pac-12 Conference.

2012 Collegesportsmadness.com All-Pac-12 Second Team

2012 Pac-12 All-Academic Honorable Mention

JUNIOR (2012): Stuller came out as a leader in her junior season. She started every game and led the team with 18 points, 78 shots, 36 shots on goal and three game-winning goals. She scored eight goals and contributed two assists on her way to setting records and earning numerous honors. She scored her first six goals in the first four games, becoming just the third player in CU history to have three multiple goal games in a single season. Her impressive start helped her to Player of the Week nods from the Pac-12 and Soccer News Net, back-to-back CU Athlete of the Week honors and a spot on Soccer America Women's Team of the Week. In her other scoring games, she took four shots total (all on goal) to net against Wyoming (2-0) and California (2-3). Her assists helped the Buffs to victory against Air Force (2-0) and to their first-ever Pac-12 road win, a 1-0 double overtime triumph at USC. In the CU season record books, she ranked fifth for shots attempted and SOG and tied for eighth in goals and game-winning goals. Among CU juniors, she ranked third in shots and tied Nikki Marshall for fourth in goals and fifth in points. She also made her mark in the conference, ranking third in shots and SOG, tying for eighth in goals and tying for ninth in goals per game.

SOPHOMORE (2011): She started 18 of the 19 games she played, earning a spot as one of CU's top performers. She led the team with 49 shots, 22 of which were on goal. Her average of 2.58 shots per game ranked her eighth on the Pac-12 list. She was the Buffaloes' leading scorer, along with Kate Russell, netting four goals and earning nine points in her 1,341 minutes. Her four goals tied her for eighth on CU's all-time list for sophomores, while her 49 shots landed her at fourth. Her first goal was in the team's first game, a 5-0 win against Colorado College. She was the only Buff to score more than once in a game, adding both of the team's goals in a 2-2 tie against Arizona. It took her just two shots to find the net two games later as the Buffs fell 2-1 to Washington State.

GETTING TO KNOW ANNE...

- What's been your favorite moment at CU?
This whole experience has been amazing
- What are you most likely to be doing off the field?
Hanging out outside or with my friends
- What's your goal for after graduation?
To keep exploring and loving life

FRESHMAN (2010): Stuller's freshman campaign had a large bump in the road as she sat out nine games in the middle of the season due to mono. She started six of the 11 games she played in, and she scored one goal, which proved to be a big one, as it was the game winner in Colorado's 2-1 overtime win over Kansas that kept the Buffaloes in contention for the Big 12 Championship tournament. Stuller attempted 16 shots on the season with seven of them on goal.

HIGH SCHOOL: She earned four letters in soccer at Boulder's Fairview High School. She owns school records for most goals in a season (21) and career (50). As a junior and senior, she earned honorable mention ESPN Rise All-America, first-team All-Colorado and first-team All-State (5A) by the Denver Post. A two-time Colorado Class 5A Player of the Year, she was also the Front Range League Player of the Year, first-team All-Front Range League and first-team All-County by the Boulder Daily Camera. As a sophomore, she earned All-Centennial League honors and was named All-Boulder County by the Boulder Daily Camera. She played for the Colorado Storm Soccer Club under coach Scott Dedycker and helped the team to a state championship in 2010 and a championship at the Disney Cup in 2009. She was also a member of the Colorado Olympic Development Program team in 2007-08.

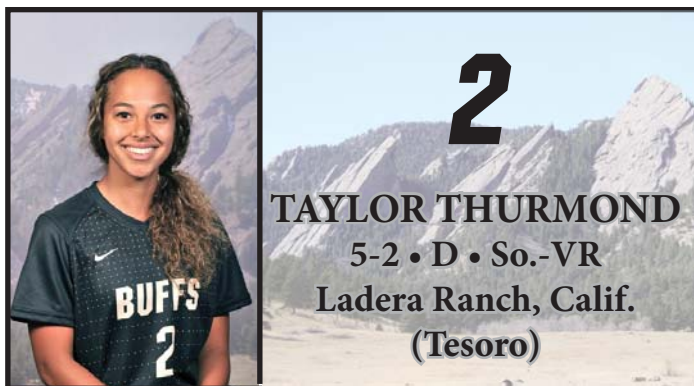

IN THE CLASSROOM: She is a philosophy major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: A Boulder native, she was born November 15, 1991 to Stu and Sue Stuller. She has one brother, Scott who plays football at Western State College. Her mother was a gymnast at Oregon and her father a gymnast at the Wisconsin-Lacrosse. Her aunt, Shawna Baxter, played softball and volleyball at Oregon and her uncle, Clifford Baxter, played football at Idaho State. Her grandfather, Walter Stuller, played minor league baseball while her other grandfather, Bill Baxter, played football at the Idaho. Her hobbies are camping, skiing, cooking and playing Nintendo-64.

2012 IN REVIEW

The University of Colorado women's soccer team proved to be a growing threat under first year head coach Danny Sanchez, posting an 8-8-4 overall, 2-7-2 Pac-12 Conference record.

Colorado began the season with the second annual Colorado Cup, taking on in-state rivals Northern Colorado and Colorado College. On Aug. 17 at Northern Colorado, Annie Stuller helped the Buffaloes to a 2-0 halftime lead, first assisted by Hayley Hughes and then on a solo mission. In her first ever collegiate game, Nikola Machalek, assisted by fellow newcomer Emily Paxton, added the final goal, giving the Buffs a 3-0 win. For the sixth time in as many meetings, the Buffs blanked the Bears. CU concluded the Cup at Colorado College on Aug. 19. After 110 minutes, the game remained scoreless, but a 3-1 goal differential helped the Buffs to their second straight Cup. After helping the Buffs to two consecutive shutouts and grabbing eight saves, Annie Brunner claimed the first Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week honor of the year.

In the Omni Hotels Colorado Women's Soccer Classic, Stuller once again led the Buffs to victory behind two-goal games. In the Aug. 24th home opener against LIU Brooklyn, Stuller's two second-half goals gave the Buffs the win and their record-setting third shutout to start the season. She and Hughes connected in the 50th minute to get the Buffs on the board. Just under four minutes later, Stuller was at it again, scoring with an assist from Madison Krauser. Next up, against Wright State on Aug. 26, Stuller recorded her third two-goal game, joining Nikki Marshall and Katie Griffin as the only Buffs to have three multi-goal games in a single season. She scored in the 27th minute off a Quinn Krier assist and again at the 80 minute mark, assisted by Shaye Marshall. To mark her outstanding performance, Stuller was named the Pac-12 Offensive and Soccer News Net Women's Player of the Week, earned back-to-back CU Athlete of the Week honors and nabbed a place on the Soccer America Women's Team of the Week.

In their first true road test at Northwestern on Sept. 2, the Buffs fell behind 2-0 in the first 16 minutes. In the second half, the Buffs evened the score. First, captain Amy Barczuk notched her first goal of the season with an assist from Krier. Just minutes later, Krauser netted her first goal as a Buff with an assist from Stuller. CU took two shots and two corner kicks in overtime, but neither team was able to score again, ending the game in a 2-2 tie. For the first time in program history, the Buffs were undefeated through their first five games.

CU began the DU Invitational against host Denver on Sept. 7. There, the Buffs suffered their first loss of the season, falling 4-1 to the Pioneers, with their only goal coming off an own goal. Hughes led the way for Colorado in the second match on Sept. 9 against Cincinnati. She scored in the eighth minute, with assists from Brunner and Olivia Pappalardo. The Bearcats evened the score before the halfway mark, but just the fourth own goal in CU history gave the Buffs the 2-1 win. Barczuk and Hughes both earned spots on the All-Tournament team.

In their final non-conference road game, the Buffs took on coach Sanchez's former team. Against Wyoming on Sept. 14, Sanchez marked a milestone at Colorado, taking just eight games to record five wins, the faster than either of his predecessors. Krauser scored in the 16th minute, assisted by Pappalardo, to take the early lead. Stuller added the insurance in the 32nd minute for her seventh goal.

The Buffs concluded non-conference play on Sept. 16 against Air Force. Second-half goals by Darcy Jerman (Krier) and Hughes (Stuller) gave the Buffs a 2-0 win. CU concluded non-conference play with a 6-1-2 record, marking just the sixth time the Buffs won at least six non-conference games.

Colorado opened Pac-12 play with a trip to Oregon on Sept. 21. The Ducks outshot the Buffs 16-13 and picked up seven saves, compared to CU's four, but the Buffs held strong to keep the match scoreless through two overtimes. The 0-0 game was CU's third straight shutout, and sixth through 10 games.

CU next welcomed the Pacific Northwest teams to Prentup Field. The Buffs fell behind early to Washington on Sept. 28. Paxton evened the score in the 82nd minute, assisted by Barczuk, to send the game into extra minutes. Just 32 seconds into overtime, Washington claimed the 2-1 win. Against Washington State on Sept. 30, the game remained scoreless until the 72:41 mark, when WSU took a 1-0 lead that would hold for the win.

Colorado continued its home game play against the Bay Area schools. The Buffs took on California on Oct. 5, hoping for a repeat of their first ever Pac-12 conference win last season. It seemed possible, with the Buffs coming out with two early goals.

2012 IN REVIEW

Barczuk (Krier) and Stuller (unassisted) netted goals in the first 14 minutes. Cal responded in the 23rd minute and tied things up in the 63rd. With the match tied at two, the game headed into overtime. It took just 1:33 for Cal to net its third straight goal to take the 3-2 win. Against defending NCAA Champions and No. 2 ranked Stanford on Oct. 7, the Buffs came out strong. Just 19 seconds before halftime, Paxton scored off a Marshall assist to give CU a 1-0 lead. As the second half edged along, Stanford scored two goals in a 37 second span, leading them to a 2-1 victory.

The Buffs' five-game home-stand came to a conclusion on a rainy Oct. 13 against Oregon State. The Buffs and Beavers both took eight shots, but an aggressive OSU squad netted goals in both halves for a 2-0 win.

CU began a four-game road trip with a visit to the Los Angeles schools. On Oct. 19, the Buffs took on No. 3 ranked UCLA. The Bruins dominated the offense, outshooting the Buffs 19-6, netting goals in the first and second half. Brunner's six saves helped keep the game within reach, and Bianca Jones finally got the Buffs on the board in the 85th minute off of Krier's fifth assist of the season. The 2-1 deficit held until the conclusion, helping the Bruins remain undefeated. CU found an even match-up against Southern California on Oct. 21. USC just edged CU in shots (12-11) and saves (6-5), but the game remained scoreless heading into a second overtime. With just minutes remaining, Barczuk scored her first ever game-winner off a Stuller assist at the 104:42 mark to give Colorado its first conference win of the season, and its first ever Pac-12 road victory.

The Buffs continued their winning ways in Arizona. CU shut out the Arizona Wildcats 3-0 on Oct. 26 behind goals by two defenders and one Buffs' first ever goal. Lizzy Herzl (Marshall) got things rolling in the 19th minute. Just before halftime, Storie Ledger (Hughes) netted her first collegiate goal. In the 79th minute, Jones earned her second goal in three games to lead the Buffs to their biggest conference victory to date, also marking the first time the Buffs notched back-to-back Pac-12 road wins. The Buffs then faced Arizona State on Oct. 28, with the Sun Devils grabbing an early lead. Barczuk evened the score before halftime, a tie that would nearly hold through two overtimes. But ASU was a shooting force, taking 29 shots to Colorado's 18, and with less than 20 seconds remaining in the second overtime, ASU stole away another close game.

The final game of the season on Nov. 2 against Utah was a nail biter. For the eighth time of the season, the game would head into overtime. In the seventh fastest goal in program history, Marshall marked a special Senior Day with her first goal of the season at the 1:55 mark. In the 35th minute, Brunner would go down as the Utes tied the game. Kayla Millar would prove a strong reliever, grabbing up four saves to keep the score tied at 1-1 through two overtimes.

1997 Milestones

- Soccer Buzz online magazine rated Colorado's schedule the third toughest slate in the nation. The schedule consisted of five of the top 17 preseason ranked teams (No. 6 Nebraska, No. 8 Texas A&M, No. 12 Harvard, No. 15 Massachusetts and No. 17 Florida).
- CU's first win of the season came with a 2-1 OT victory over Big 12 rival Iowa State
- In the 3-0 win at Kansas on Sept. 28, CU's three goals mark the most scored for Colorado on the season, the second most goals scored in the program's two-year history.
- CU posted its first win over a ranked team in defeating then-No. 22 Baylor 3-2
- With a 2-1 double overtime win over Texas Tech on Oct. 19, CU clinched a birth in the Big 12 Tournament.
- CU took a 3-2 win over the in-state rival University of Denver on Nov. 2, earning the victory in the first-ever meeting between the two schools.
- Qualified for the Big 12 Conference tournament for the first time with a 5-5 record, securing the fifth place in the conference.
- Colorado placed nine players on the academic all-Big 12 team, the second consecutive year the Buffs have earned more spots than any other school in the conference; First Team: Nina Bjornstad, Heidi Burgett, Amanda Bush, Teri Fildey, Elizabeth Swain, Brita Zoellner; Honorable Mention: Christina Cambra, Maris Dillman, Shawn Kenyon.
- Donna Holyman led the Buffs with six goals, four assists and a total of 16 points on the season.
- Keeper Sloane Cox recorded 133 saves, one shutout and six wins during her first season for Colorado in the net.

1998 Milestones

- Colorado opened the season with a 2-0 loss to 1997 national champion North Carolina in front of a school record 3,000 fans.
- With 36 saves in one weekend, including a school record 19 against BYU on Sept. 11, Sloane Cox became Colorado's career saves leader with 189 (passing Nina Bjornstad who had 158).
- Shawn Kenyon became the first Buff to record 100 shots with No. 100 coming against Utah on Sept. 13.
- CU earned their first ever win in a Big 12 Conference opener with a 3-0 win over Oklahoma on Oct. 2.
- Cox notched the first ever point for a CU goalkeeper with her assist of Jessica Wollow's second goal on Oct. 2 vs. Oklahoma.
- CU ran into its program-worst losing streak with the fifth consecutive loss to Denver 1-0 on Oct. 18.
- With a 6-0 loss to Missouri, the final game of the season, Cox finished her career as the holder of every Colorado goalkeeping record. In addition to her 200th save of the season, Cox also recorded the 333rd save of her career, and had six shutouts.
- Sloane Cox was named to the All-Big 12 second team, the first player in CU soccer history to be named All-Conference.
- Cox was also named Big 12 Athlete of the Week for September 2 (first player in program history to earn the honor) and CU Athlete of the Week for November 1.
- Teri Fildey was named TCI Student Athlete of the Week for September 5.
- Five players were named to the Academic All-Big 12 first team: Fildey, Cartmell, Matassa, Kenyon, Pascoe.
- Melissa Cartmell led the Buffs offense with 50 shots, six goals, two assists and 14 points.
- Assistant coach Kim LeMere was inducted into the University of Hartford's Alumni Hall of Fame on April 17.

1999 Milestones

- Dang Pibulvech, the former head coach at the University of Texas, replaced Kim LeMere on the Colorado coaching staff.
- CU opened the season with a 2-1 come-from-behind win, the first in school history, as well as their first winning record in school history.
- Goalkeeper Danielle Bassett records her first career shutout with the 3-0 win over Alabama Birmingham on Sept. 3.
- CU received back-to-back Athlete of the Week honors in Melissa Cartmell and Lindsey Galas for the weeks ending Aug. 29 and Sept. 5.
- Cartmell ended a five game scoring streak, the longest in school history, against Wyoming on Sept. 5.
- Head coach Austin Daniels recorded his 20th win at Colorado against Wyoming.
- Cartmell became just the second Buffalo to crack the 100 shot barrier against UAB.
- Freshman defender Aimee Bugay was named to the Nike Carolina Classic all-tournament team on Sept. 12 after her stellar efforts against No. 1 North Carolina and No. 2 Duke.
- With a 5-3 record, the best ever in Colorado soccer history, the Buffs earned a spot in the NSCAA poll, taking the No. 8 spot in the Central Region poll.
- CU had their longest home winning streak in history snapped on Oct. 10 by Nebraska, after winning eight in a row and its five game longest winning streak in history snapped against Oklahoma on Oct. 1.
- With a 1-1 tie with No. 25 Baylor on Oct. 24, CU secured a spot in the Big 12 Conference Tournament.
- CU scored a season-high 31 goals.
- Kiefer and Cartmell both broke the single season goal scoring mark, which was six, when Kiefer notched eight goals and Cartmell netted seven.
- Senior Shawn Kenyon became the first player in program history to letter four times and complete all four years of her college eligibility at Colorado.
- The Buffs finished the season with a record of 11-8-1, 4-5-1 in Big 12 regular season play.

2001 Milestones

- Bill Hempen was named head coach of the Colorado Soccer team in June, replacing Austin Daniels.
- Hempen earned his first win at Colorado with the 2-1 decision over Wyoming on Sept. 2.
- Hempen coached his milestone 300th career game vs. Missouri, however the Buffs fell 2-0 in the match.
- Colorado bounced back from a 10 game winless streak with a win over Colorado College 1-0 on Oct. 21. The win also ended a four-game scoreless streak that dated back to Oct. 7 at Oklahoma.
- When Hempen cleared his bench and substituted the entire field late in the first half vs. Kansas, he set a program mark for most players in a game as the Buffs played 24 by the final buzzer.
- Tiffany Booth netted her first career goal to secure CU's first Big 12 Conference victory of the season, a 2-1 win over Texas Tech.
- CU's eight freshmen made more than an immediate impression on the coaching staff as five freshmen scored seven of Colorado's 17 goals on the season and have dished off six of the team's 17 assists.
- Colorado's 2-2 tie against No. 9 Texas A&M was the programs best result vs. a ranked team since a 3-2 win over then-No. 22 Baylor in 1997.
- The Buffs scored 17 goals by 12 different players, the most players to get in the goal column in the program's history.

2002 Milestones

- With 12 true freshmen signing letters or walking on, the freshman class was the largest in the program's seven-year history.
- Freshman Fran Munnelly was named Big 12 Newcomer of the Week Sept. 23.
- As of Oct. 18, Munnelly took the lead as CU's all-time frosh leader in points (13), second in goals (5), assists (3) and shots (47) with at least five games left to play.
- Senior goalkeeper Sara Erskine was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week Oct. 29.

2007 Milestones

- Fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and second straight year playing host to the first and second rounds in Boulder.
- Colorado recorded 10 wins on the season for the sixth straight year.
- Five Buffaloes were named to All-Big 12 Teams.
- Colorado played No. 1 ranked Stanford on Friday, Sept. 21 and the Buffs welcomed a school record 3,128 fans. Head football coach Dan Hawkins and the football team were also in attendance. The record-breaking crowd topped the previous record at Prentup Field by 1,239 people, set last year in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Colorado College. The all-time record, before the Stanford game, was set in 1998 when the Buffs played No. 1 North Carolina in front of an even 3,000 fans at Pleasant View Soccer Complex.
- CU shut out its opponents on 10 different occasions, marking the fourth time in the history of the program that they have recorded nine or more shut-outs in a single season.
- Nikki Marshall's goal against Oklahoma, just 27 seconds into overtime, was the quickest overtime goal in program history, besting the previous mark of 91:06, set by former Buff Melissa Cartmell in 1998, by 39 seconds. Michaela DeJesus' goal in the Utah game came just 52 seconds into the match, going down as the quickest goal in the 11 year history of the program, shattering the previous record of 1:33 set by Jen Almquist vs. Hawai'i in 1996 by 41 seconds.

2009 Milestones

- As the third seed, Colorado made its eighth-straight appearance in the Big 12 Championship.

- Nikki Marshall owns CU's all-time top scoring spot with 93 points off 42 goals and 9 assists in her four years as a Buffalo.

- Marshall tied her previously set CU record of scoring our goals in one match against Oklahoma on Oct. 2.

- The Buffs' eight goals against St. Mary's is the most scored by a CU offense in program history.

- Marshall scored CU's first goal against St. Mary's in just 23 seconds, which is a school record for the quickest goal made. Just one game later, Marshall set another school record after scoring the gamewinner in the 109th minute against Denver to secure a 1-0 double-overtime win for the Buffs. This is the latest goal scored by a Buff since extra time was shortened to 10 minutes a period in 1998.

- Head Coach Bill Hempen tallied his 100th program victory with the 5-1 win over Oklahoma.

2010 Milestones

- Head coach Bill Hempen completed his 10th year as head coach at CU, where he has registered a 110-75-26 record.
- Eighth-seeded Colorado entered the Big 12 postseason tournament for the ninth consecutive year. It was the 12th time in program history that the Buffaloes continued play past the regular season.
- On Sept. 24, The Buffs beat then No. 6-ranked Texas A&M 2-1 in overtime. It was the first time CU beat the Aggies during the regular season.
- Kate Russell contributed the assists in Colorado's 2-1 overtime victory over Washington State. Her two assists in one game tied her in second place on CU's single game record list. Russell's five overall assists put her in a seven-way tie for ninth place on the individual season records list.
- Alex Dohm became only the fourth Buffalo to earn both All-Big 12 Newcomer team and All-Big 12 Second Team honors in the same season.
- 2010 marked the final season for CU in the Big 12 Conference before moving to the Pac-12 in the 2011 season. Colorado was a charter member of the Big 12, which began in 1996, the same year the CU soccer program was formed. CU soccer holds a 60-66-14 all-time record within the conference.

2011 Milestones

- With a 5-0 routing Colorado College and a 3-0 shutout of Northern Colorado to begin the season, the Buffs won the inaugural Colorado Cup.
- 2011 marked the first season for CU in the Pac-12 Conference. Prior to joining the newly formed conference, the Buffs spent 15 years in the Big 12. In their first season in the Pac-12, the Buffs concluded conference play with a 1-9-1 record.
- The Buffs defeated California 1-0 on October 21. It marked the first victory in the Pac-12 for any Colorado team.
- Junior Amy Barczuk was an All-Pac-12 honorable mention and a U.S. Under-23 national training camp and national team selection.
- Bill Hempen stepped down as the head coach of the Colorado women's soccer team at the conclusion of the 2011 season. Under Hempen's tutelage, the Buffs racked up a 114-88-27 record through 11 seasons and made six NCAA appearances. In 2003, (Hempen's third year in the position), he led the Buffs to the Big 12 regular season title and was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year. Hempen coached three All-Americans at CU and helped the program to the biggest single-season turnaround in Big 12 history in just his second season.
- Four wins was the second fewest wins in program history. The fewest was three in Hempen's first season in 2001. Eleven losses also marked the most in a single season for the program.

PRENTUP FIELD

Prentup Field, located on the East Campus of the University of Colorado at Boulder, has been the home of Colorado Soccer since 2003. The field had been the home of the now-obsolete Colorado baseball team before the women's soccer team took over.

Prentup combines the very best of what Boulder has to offer, with beautiful Colorado mountain views and a lush pitch courtesy of CU's turf management team.

The Buffaloes have always enjoyed great home advantages in Boulder. CU formerly played its matches at Pleasant View Soccer Complex in North Boulder. This facility had an award-winning field for CU to play on and nine surrounding fields for training.

During that time, the Buffaloes compiled a home record of 50-28-5, a winning percentage of .633. The Buffs also played host to over 3,000 fans on Sept. 2, 1998, when they hosted then-defending national champion North Carolina.

Upon the arrival of coach Bill Hempen, the Buffs started training at Prentup in the spring of 2002 while it was still a baseball field.

In the spring of 2003, the soccer team was granted exclusive use of Prentup, and work began to re-landscape the field. All remnants of the baseball field except for the outfield fence were razed, and the turf began a major makeover.

THE SCOREBOARD AT PRENTUP FIELD WAS ERECTED IN THE FALL OF 2005.

Prentup Field is now a 160,000 square foot facility that contains a 120x75 yard game field along with a practice area. It is a native soil field and is equipped with an automated irrigation system. When the irrigation was installed and the field was graded in July of 2003, the turf management team produced a playable soccer facility from seed in just 33 days.

Each week, the field is painted and mowed 3-4 times in preparation for matches and practices under the supervision of Ryan Newman, along with a collection of other maintenance practices.

The Buffs trained at Prentup from 2002-04, and finally in the fall of 2004, they played their first-ever match there, defeating Northern Colorado by a score of 3-0 on October 1, 2004. In 2005, Prentup became CU's full time home, with the Buffaloes posting a record of 7-1-0 in their first full season and an all-time mark of 43-13-5.

Capital improvements to the facility are ongoing. An athletic department fund-raising campaign in the summer of 2005 helped raise funds to put in bleachers for 1,200 people, a new scoreboard, nets behind the goals and iron entrance gates adorned with the CU logo into the venue. Additional funds in advance of the 2006 NCAA Tournament added more bleachers, bringing the seating capacity of Prentup Field to 2,000 people.

While there are bleachers for 2,000, fans of CU soccer bring lawn chairs and blankets to sit on as well in the open areas, continuing some of the community feel of Pleasant View at the current home.

In the fall of 2007, Prentup and the Buffs welcomed top-ranked Stanford to Boulder and dropped a 1-0 heartbreaker to the Cardinal in front of a facility record 3,128 fans, shattering the previous record by 1,257 people. Colorado has also had the privilege of hosting back-to-back NCAA Tournament first and second rounds in 2006 and 2007, welcoming 1,871 fans against Colorado College in '06 and 1,843 against No. 2 Portland in '07.

Prentup Field has been home to University of Colorado athletics for almost 40 years, as the venue is named after former CU baseball coach Frank

"Chief" Prentup. The field, formerly known as Varsity Field, was renamed after the former coach in 1978. The complex remained a popular venue until the varsity baseball team was removed in 1980.

The field was used by several different entities within Colorado athletics after 1980. The club baseball team played there, and CU's mascot Ralphie was even known to have taken practice runs there.

The complex is located just west of CU's Potts Field track & field complex and ski building. Amenities for Buffalo soccer fans include concessions, rest rooms and free parking and game programs.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

PAC-12 CONFERENCE, THE CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the conference on the forefront. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV everywhere" rights will allow fans to access coverage outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions," claiming an incredible 127 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including eight in 2012-13. That is an average of over nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 47 of the last 53 years. The only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the conference finished second, and only twice finished third (1998-99 and 2004-05).

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 459 NCAA Championships (309 men's, 150 women's).

The Conference's eight national titles came in the form of five women's and three men's crowns. Five different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the six NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, two were from the Pac-12. No other conference in the country had more than one team win multiple NCAA titles.

Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 32 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 23 occasions, including the last 13-consecutive years. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 150 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second, with 90. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 20 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 15 of the last 24 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 644 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE HISTORY

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back 98 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, USC, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, the University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

In 2003, when Jen Thais said in a preseason press conference that her season goal was, "to make the NCAA Tournament and to be nationally recognized. What I'm hoping... what I'm expecting, is to surprise people," little did she know what kind of impact that prediction would have on the eighth team in Colorado soccer history... and the nation for that matter.

A record breaking season was approached in four phases. Phase I were the preseason exhibition games where the Buffs shutout Northern Colorado 4-0 and Air Force 3-0.

Phase II consisted of CU's non-conference schedule where the Buffs came out virtually unscathed at 7-1. In the season opener, they held defending national champion and then-No. 2 Portland scoreless for 87 minutes before suffering a 1-0 defeat. The Buffs would regroup and close out the remainder of the non-conference season 7-0, beating teams by a 17-2 scoring margin. It was during Phase II that CU picked up its first-ever win against a top-10 ranked opponent when it handed then-No. 9 Denver a 3-0 blanking, just days after the Pioneers had upended Portland.

Enter Phase III... the Big 12 Conference season. The Buffs came away from the '03 season 8-1-1, the crescendo of the season being a 3-1 win over nemesis Nebraska in the season finale for both teams in below freezing temperatures on a pitch covered in ice. Colorado's 25 season points was the fourth highest in league standings history. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Buffs came away with the coach, player and rookie of the year, a first-team All-Big 12 pick, three second-teamers and five of their nine newcomers named to the All-Newcomer team.

With 25 school single-season, class and career records shattered, Colorado entered the final phase of the season, Phase IV... the postseason. They went into the eighth Big 12 Conference Tournament as the No. 1 seed for the first time in program history, and a week later the Buffs entered their first NCAA Tournament as just one of 16 seeded teams.

WHERE THE BUFFALOES ROAM

Current and former Colorado Soccer players hail from 29 different states and three different countries. Colorado boasts the most Buffs as 83 current and former players come from the Centennial State. Littleton, just southwest of Denver, has produced 17 different Buffaloes hailing from Arapahoe, Chatfield, Columbine, Dakota Ridge, Heritage and Mullen high schools. California is the next most populous homestate for the Buffs with 42 players, followed by Illinois with 10.

BUFFS IN THE LEAGUE

The National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) is an eight-team Division-I women's professional soccer league featuring players from Canada, Mexico and U.S. The founding clubs are the Boston Breakers, Chicago Red Stars, FC Kansas City, Portland Thorns FC, Seattle Reign FC, Sky Blue FC, the Washington Spirit and the Western New York Flash. Based in Chicago, the NWSL is supported by the United States Soccer Federation, Canadian Soccer Association and Federation of Mexican Football. The inaugural NWSL draft was held in January 2013. The top four teams at the conclusion of the 22-game season advanced to the playoffs, with a champion named on Aug. 31. The Flash earned the NWSL Shield after winning the regular season with a 10-4-8 record. Barczuk and Marshall met in the inaugural championship game, where Thorns FC defeated the Flash 2-0.

NATIONAL WOMEN'S SOCCER LEAGUE

Amy Barczuk (2009-12): Defender, Western New York Flash

Selected by the Western New York Flash in the second round (the 14th overall pick) of the 2013 NWSL draft
At Colorado: 2012 team captain ... Scored 23 points off 10 goals and three assists ... One of only eight players in program history to start at least 76 of 78 games played ... One of four Buffs to have played in every one of the team's games in her four-year tenure at CU ... Her games started and played rank her ninth and 12th on CU's all-time list ... Her 124 shots attempted ranks 11th all-time ... Two-time all-conference second team selection ... Big 12 All-Newcomer Team ... Gonzaga University All-Tournament Team and CS360 Performer of the Week as a sophomore ... DU Invitational All-Tournament Team and third-team NSCAA All-Pacific Region selection as a senior ... Led the Buffs to their first ever road victory in the Pac-12 Conference

National: 2011 U.S. Women's National Team U-23 Training Camp selection ... member of the U.S. Women's National Team U-23 player pool

About the Flash: Former Buff Nikki Marshall helped lead them to the 2012 Women's Premier Soccer League Elite Championship ... Roster includes two-time Olympic gold medalists Abby Wambach and Carli Lloyd

Nikki Marshall (2006-09): Defender, Portland Thorns FC

Joined Portland for the inaugural NWSL season in 2013, signing as a free agent

At Colorado: Holds 20 program records ... The all-time leading scorer with 42 goals ... Leads the program with 93 points, 18 game-winning goals and 261 shots attempted ... Set class records as a freshman and sophomore with 17 and nine goals, respectively ... Scored the fastest regulation and overtime goals in CU history, taking less than 30 seconds to score against St. Mary's College in 2009 (8-1) and against Oklahoma in 2007 (2-1, OT) ... Ranks in the top 10 in 32 other career, season and single game categories ... Big 12 All-Newcomer Team and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year ... Soccer Buzz and Soccer America Freshman All-American and 2006 Soccer Buzz fourth-team All-American ... Four-time first-team All-Big 12

International: Appeared in numerous training camps and tournaments as a member of the U.S. Women's National Team U-23 player pool from 2009-11 ... Helped the U.S. Women's U-20 National Team to the silver medal at the 2007 Pan American games ... Helped lead the team to the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup championship in 2008, where she was named the Sierra Mist Woman of the Match in the 2-1 championship win over North Korea

Professional: Picked seventh overall in the 2010 Women's Professional Soccer Draft by the Washington Freedom ... Appeared in 25 games as a rookie ... Appeared in six matches with magicJack after the Freedom moved to Florida in 2011 ... Traded to the Boston Breakers in July 2011 ... Member of the 2012 Women's Premier Soccer League Elite Champions Western New York Flash ... MVP of 2012 championship game

About Thorns FC: Thorns players Marshall, Becky Edwards, Nikki Washington and Alex Morgan (a 2012 Olympic gold medalist) won the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup championship in 2008 ... Only NWSL team with Major League Soccer affiliation (Portland Timbers) ... Oregon women's soccer franchise dates back to 2000

Michelle Wenino (2005-08): Defender, Chicago Red Stars

Returned to the Chicago Red Stars as a third round selection in the 2013 NWSL supplemental draft

At Colorado: Ranks fourth in career minutes played at CU, with 7,192 ... Ranks fifth with 81 games started and ties sixth with 86 games played ... First-team All-Big 12 and second-team NSCAA All-Central Region in 2007 ... Started 23 games her freshman season, scoring one goal and contributing one assist ... Scored two goals in the first three games of her sophomore campaign ... Helped the Buffs to 10 shutouts and logged 2,131 minutes (good enough for sixth on the CU season list) as a junior ... Scored three more goals in her final two seasons

Professional: Began her professional career with the Chicago Red Stars in Women's Professional Soccer (WPS) League in 2009 and returned in 2012 in the Women's Premier Soccer League Elite ... Played for the Pali Blues (W-League, 2010) and Sky Blue FC (WPS, 2011) in the U.S. ... Played for SC Freiburg (Bundesliga, 2010) in Germany

About the Red Stars: Franchise was established in 2007 ... Finished the 2011 season with a 10-1 record, coming in second in the WPSL Championship match ... 2012 WPSL Championship runner-up and U.S. Adult Soccer Association's National Women's Cup winner ... Return six players from the 2012 WPSL squad
