COORS EVENTS/CONFERENCE CENTER

The University of Colorado Coors Events/Conference Center has been the home of Colorado volleyball since 1988. The Center was originally called the CU Events/Conference Center, but was renamed in September 1990 in honor of a $5 million gift from the Adolph Coors Foundation. The Events Center is named after the Coors family in recognition of this gift and their generous support of the university.

The Events Center combines modern facilities with beauty, comfort and flexibility. The Center's versatility provides an ideal location for sporting events, educational conferences, seminars, meetings, conventions, concerts, trade shows and a myriad of other activities. It is truly multi-purpose in nature and design.

Located just north of the Kittredge student housing complex on the Boulder campus, the CECC seats 11,064 and offers the Buffaloes a great home court advantage. CU has a 214-97 home record in their 23 years with a 209-84 mark at the CECC (Matches in 1986 and most of 1987 were played in the Balch Fieldhouse). Colorado has recorded at least 10 home wins in a season in 15 of the past 21 seasons including a perfect 14-0 mark in 1993. CU has ranked nationally in attendance in 13 of the past 15 seasons, including a No. 19 ranking in 1989 and 20th in 1999.

There are three levels to the Events Center. The arena floor occupies 8,000 square feet. The CU men's and women's basketball operations offices are on the second level along with a weight room for the basketball and volleyball teams. The concourse level contains the main entrances, concession areas, ticket offices and a first-aid room.

The $7.7-million facility was financed by a combination of funds. State legislative appropriation, federal grants, private contributions and university funds all played a major part in the facility's construction revenue.

The CECC is within walking distance from all points of campus, and parking for Colorado volleyball matches is free to the public in the parking garage located just north of the arena. The southwest entrance faces the majestic flatirons, the mountains located west of campus, providing Colorado fans with one of most beautiful views in all of collegiate athletics when they arrive to the game.

Other events taking place at Coors include concerts and commencement for the fall semester. Bob Dylan, Jack Ingram and Juice Newton are just some of the artists who have taken the stage in the Events Center, providing an indoor venue for CU students and Boulder residents equipped to attract some of the best entertainers in the World.
