

THE STAFF

HEAD COACH KATHY McCONNELL-MILLER

*Fifth
Season*

When Kathy McConnell-Miller took over the University of Colorado program four years ago, there's no question the Buffaloes were rebuilding and the team was a work in progress.

In four seasons at Colorado, there is no question that McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes have made progress and the program is heading in the right direction.

McConnell-Miller, 41, sports a 52-71 record in her four seasons at Colorado and is 143-159 overall in 10 seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach.

Injuries, graduation and playing in the nation's premier women's basketball conference, the Big 12, hampered the progress her teams had built her first three seasons in 2008-09 as the Buffaloes struggled to an 11-18 mark and a 12th place finish in league play. But returning nine contributing players and adding the 32nd best recruiting class in the nation has the Buffaloes pointing in the right direction once again.

The 2009-10 season will mark the first year in which the Buffaloes are comprised completely of players coach McConnell-Miller brought to campus. She fared well with the players inherited from legendary CU head coach Ceal Barry, but she has also excelled in bringing in her own players. McConnell-Miller, and her staff, who from day one have established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in their players, have been committed to keeping Colorado's best players home, and have certainly succeeded on that front.

For three straight seasons, Colorado has landed at least one of the state's premier prep stars, beginning in 2007 with Aija Putnina, who contributed two solid seasons for the Buffaloes, including the 2008 WNIT run, before returning to her native Latvia to pursue a professional career. In 2008, the Buffaloes landed the consensus Colorado Player of the Year Alyssa Fressle out of Highlands Ranch, who made an immediate contribution and was rewarded with a spot on the Big 12 All-Rookie Team.

CU hit the state jackpot in 2009 with three All-Colorado caliber players; twins Meagan and Brenna Malcolm-Peck, Boulder natives who played at Horizon High School, and Chucky Jeffery, one of the top Class 4A players in 2009 for Sierra High School in Colorado Springs. The regional additions of Kailah Bailey and Melissa MacFarlane, both of Omaha, Neb., have given the Buffaloes their third Top 40 class in the last four years.

In 2006, Colorado had the No. 29 ranked class according to the All-Star Girls Report. What was remarkable about the class of 2006 is McConnell-Miller and her staff didn't even have the chance to start on the recruiting trail until April when they arrived in Boulder. Despite that late start, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players, including Whitney Houston and Putnina who made significant contributions in their first two seasons.

Her first three seasons at Colorado were marked by significant improvement each year. From a nine-win season her first year in Boulder, to a 13-17 mark in 2006-07, in 2007-08 she guided the Buffaloes to a 19-15 record and the team's first winning season and postseason berth since the 2003-04 campaign.

McConnell-Miller experienced quite a few firsts during CU's memorable 2007-08 season. She led Colorado to its first Associated Press national ranking in four seasons, peaking at No. 23, and in the process became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to coach and play for an AP ranked team.

McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes beat three ranked teams in 2007-08 – another first in four years – and finished ninth in the tough Big 12 Conference at 5-11. With a league-record eight Big 12 teams advancing to the NCAA Tournament, CU gained the conference's automatic bid into the WNIT where the Buffaloes proceeded to advance to the semifinals before falling to eventual tournament champion Marquette. It was CU's first ever appearance in the semifinals of a postseason event and for McConnell-Miller, she claimed the first three postseason wins of her head coaching career (3-3).

The signs of progress were also evident in her second season, 2006-07, when the Buffaloes finished tied for seventh in the Big 12 at 6-10. CU's six league wins in 2006-07 were more than the previous two years combined (3-13 in 2005-06 and 2-14 in 2004-05) and the Buffs won their first Big 12 Tournament game since 2003.

McConnell-Miller, who officially became the sixth head coach in the history of CU women's basketball on April 27, 2005, presided over the development of Jackie McFarland, one of the top players in the Big 12 from 2004-08. McFarland was a two-time AP honorable mention All-American and three-time All-Big 12 selection including back-to-back first team honors in 2007 and 2008. All-league selections are nothing new to McConnell-Miller as she has had at least one first or second team all-conference performer in each of her 10 seasons as a collegiate head coach. The latest in her run of all-star caliber players is junior Brittany Spears who last season became just the second player in team history to reach 1,000 points by the end of her sophomore year.

The Buffaloes have also had academic success in the McConnell-Miller era. In her three seasons, McConnell-Miller has coached 12 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team members and helped guide McFarland to three ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors, including first team acclaim in 2007-08.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an AP honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Grentz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Grentz for a total of six years as she went with Grentz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

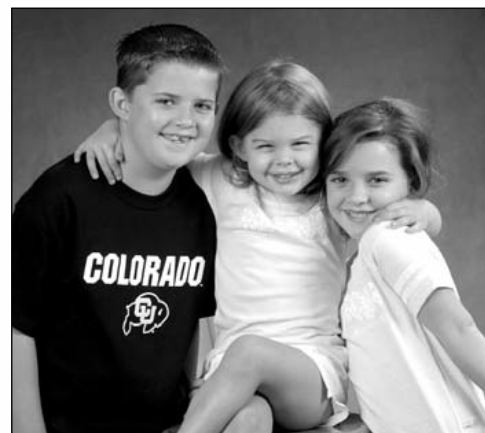

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Four McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, three at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio is currently the head coach of Duquesne University and was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (9), Mackenzie (8) and Macie (4).

ASSISTANT COACH PATRICK HARRINGTONThird
Season

Patrick Harrington is in his third season as assistant women's basketball coach, having been named to the post on Sept. 12, 2007.

With a professional resume that touches just about every region in the United States, Harrington, 46, is the co-recruiting coordinator and assists in opponent scouting for the Buffaloes and with camps and clinics. His recruiting efforts paid off as the Buffaloes signed the No. 32 rated class according to ESPN.com's HoopGirLz.

Before arriving in Boulder, Harrington spent two seasons as an assistant women's basketball coach at Oregon State University where he focused on recruiting, scheduling, on court teaching and game preparation during his stint with the Beavers. He joined a program that went just 6-23 in 2004-05, and helped coach the Beavers to a 16-15 mark in 2005-06 and a berth in the postseason WNIT. The 10 game swing in the win column tied for the best among all BCS Division schools in 2006. In 2007 he coached Casey Nash to the Pac-10 Conference scoring title (20 ppg) as she earned first team All Pac-10 honors.

"Patrick is an outstanding fit for our staff," McConnell-Miller said. "He is a relentless recruiter who enhances not only our national but international opportunities. His years of experience allow us, as a Big 12 staff, to grow in player development, opponent scouting and game preparation."

Prior to joining Oregon State, Harrington served four seasons as an assistant men's basketball coach at the University of New Orleans. He was the Privateers' recruiting coordinator and participated in practice planning, game strategies, scouting and player development. He recruited one of the most celebrated players in UNO history, bringing Bo McCalebb to campus. McCalebb would become the all-time leading scorer in UNO and Sun Belt Conference history and ranks 21st on the NCAA all-time charts. McCalebb had a tryout with the NBA's Sacramento Kings and is currently playing in Europe with the Serbian Club Partizan. Harrington also recruited Hector Romero who gained SBC Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year honors. Harrington enjoyed three consecutive winning seasons at UNO and was rated among the "Top 5 Assistant Coaches at a Mid Major" by Hoopscooponline.com

Harrington's NCAA Division I coaching experience began in 1997 at the University of Texas-Pan American where he spent two seasons as an assistant men's coach. His recruiting efforts aided the rebuilding of the UTPA program and resulted in their first ever nationally ranked recruiting class. Harrington established, marketed and directed the head coaches' weekly television show and also guided the program's summer basketball camp, fall coaches clinic and the Junior Bronc Program.

Harrington joined the coaching staff at Southern Utah University for the 2000-01 season, which happened to be one of the most memorable seasons in Thunderbirds' NCAA Division I history. He aided in game preparation, scouting and recruiting as SUU went 25-6 overall, won the Mid-Continent Conference title and earned the program's first NCAA Tournament berth.

He spent the 1996-97 season as head men's basketball coach at Newbury College in Brookline, Mass, for a team that was ranked in the NJCAA Top 10 and finished with an overall record of 23-6. While at Newbury, he was also an assistant athletic director where he was directly responsible for overseeing the athletic department's work-study program and assisted the admissions department with financial aid issues, career counseling and college job fairs.

Harrington's coaching career started in the high school ranks, as he was an assistant boys basketball coach at South Boston High School from 1994-96. During his time with South Boston, the team won back-to-back Division I State and Boston City championships compiling an overall record of 49-2 during that span.

A native of Boston, Harrington earned his bachelor's degree in elementary education from Rollins College (Fla.) in 1986 where he lettered in basketball. He was an all-state honorable mention performer in high school and a four-time all-league player who helped his team to the New England Class C title. After graduation from Rollins, he enjoyed a successful career in real estate and development before entering the coaching ranks.

Harrington, and his wife, Lori, have three children – daughters Kelly and Katherine and a son, Patrick II.

ASSISTANT COACH TOM McCONNELL

Fourth
Season

Tom McConnell, a veteran of the collegiate and high school coaching ranks for nearly 20 years, is in his fourth season as an assistant women's basketball coach at Colorado, joining the program on June 29, 2006. A fantastic X's and O's coach, his primary responsibilities include opponent scouting, player development, game day preparation and planning and scheduling.

McConnell, 50, returned to the collegiate coaching ranks in 2006 after a seven year hiatus. After leaving his position of head men's basketball coach at St. Francis (Pa.) University following the 1998-99 season, McConnell became the Director of Youth and Campus Ministry for the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown (Pa.). He returned to coaching in 2004, while keeping his position with the Diocese, serving two seasons as head boys basketball coach at Bishop Guilfoyle High School in Altoona. In 2006, his final season, he guided the Marauders to an overall record of 19-10 and an 11-3 mark in Mountain Athletic Conference action.

The older brother of CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller, Tom spent seven seasons as the head men's basketball coach at St. Francis (1992-99), where he is tied for second on the school's all-time list for wins with 85. His most successful season came in 1997-98 when he directed the Red Flash to a 17-10 mark for their first winning campaign in seven years. His 1997-98 effort still stands today as the most wins in one season at St. Francis since 1991-92.

McConnell's head coaching appointment at St. Francis was his second tour of duty with the school as he was an assistant coach in 1984-85. Between stints at St. Francis, McConnell spent one season as an assistant at Wake Forest University (1985-86), three years at Marquette University (1986-89) and three seasons at the University of Dayton (1989-92).

In his first season at Dayton, he helped the Flyers to a 22-10 record, the Midwestern Collegiate Conference title and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. The 12th seeded Flyers upset the fifth seed University of Illinois 88-86 in the first round and fell to eventual Final Four participant University of Arkansas in the second round, 86-84.

"I think he brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our staff," McConnell-Miller said. "He has been so good for the game and has always been one of my mentors and someone I've always looked up to. To me he is a great fit for our staff and for our needs. Obviously I'm familiar with what he has done throughout his career."

Prior to joining the collegiate ranks full time, he served as boys head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at Canon-McMillan High School in Canonsburg, Pa., and as a volunteer assistant men's coach at the University of Pittsburgh in 1982-83.

McConnell was the head coach for the Pittsburgh Women's AAU Basketball Team that won the 1984 national championship and featured his sister Suzie McConnell Serio, an All-American at Penn State, a two-time United States Olympian, former head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA and current head women's coach at Duquesne.

He was the director of the Steal City Basketball Day Camp from 1981-87 and has served as the director of The Word and the Rock Basketball Camp since 1999 and Camp Zacchaeus since 2000.

McConnell earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Point Park College in 1984. He played two seasons at Davidson College (1980-82), serving as team co-captain as a senior, and two at Butler County (Pa.) Community College (1978-80) where he earned an associate's degree in 1980. He helped Butler to the 1979-80 Skyline Athletic Conference title and was coached there by Tom Beckett, currently the Athletic Director at Yale.

The oldest of eight children, he is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship. He is one of four McConnell's presently in the coaching ranks, three at the college level and one in the high school ranks.

Born on Nov. 15, 1959, McConnell and his wife Lisa have six children: Tommy (26), Ashley (24), Sean (22), Luke (20) and twins Christopher and Mary Grace (13).

ASSISTANT COACH AISHA VEASLEYFifth
Season

Aisha Veasley, the longest tenured assistant coach on the CU staff, begins her fifth season at Colorado as she continues to put her mark on the Buffaloes program through recruiting and player development both on and off the court.

Veasley, who is in her ninth season on a Kathy McConnell-Miller led staff, is the co-recruiting coordinator, assists with post development and is the team's liaison with life skills and student athlete issues.

Veasley, 32, has been a key component in bringing in three top 40 recruiting classes to Boulder, in the last four seasons, including the No. 32 class in 2009 according to ESPN HoopGirlz.

Colorado's commitment to keep instate players at home is as evident as ever as the Buffaloes signed three players from within the state boundaries. Twin sisters Meagan and Brenna Malcolm-Peck, Boulder natives who played at Horizon High School, join Chucky Jeffery, the top player out of the Colorado Springs Area. Regional additions of Kailah Bailey and Melissa MacFarlane, both of Omaha, Neb., accent CU's nationally recognized class.

In 2006, the Buffs had the No. 29 ranked class, signing five top 150 players, a feat even more impressive considering the staff did not arrive on campus until well after the recruiting season had started. The Buffs claimed one of the top recruits in Colorado — a priority for the McConnell-Miller staff — in Aija Putnina who helped Regis to the Class 4A championship game.

On the court, Veasley assists in post development, she helped develop the skills of one of the Big 12 Conference's best front court players in recent history, in three-time All-Big 12 selection Jackie McFarland (2004-08) and continues to groom current rising stars such as Brittany Spears, Julie Seabrook and the Malcolm-Peck sisters.

Veasley returned to coaching at the collegiate level in 2005 after a two-year stint in private business, joining a Colorado staff she was more than familiar with as she was a part of CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller's original staff at the University of Tulsa in 1999.

"Aisha is an outstanding recruiter. Her strength is her ability to build great relationships with the players, coaches and families. In addition to recruiting she will assist with on court coaching, player development and opponent scouting. Aisha brings such energy and enthusiasm to our staff and our program. She is one of the brightest young coaches in our game."

Alongside McConnell-Miller, Veasley helped to build Tulsa from a perennial cellar dweller to a competitive presence in the Western Athletic Conference. Prior to the staff's arrival in 1999-00, Tulsa had just 21 total wins in the previous three seasons and only 81 in the 14-year history of the program, which was discontinued from 1987-96. In 1999-00, Tulsa won 14 games and recorded a team-best fourth place finish in the WAC at 9-5. The Tulsa staff was rewarded accordingly in the postseason as McConnell-Miller was named WAC Coach of the Year.

In all Veasley was a part of 53 wins at Tulsa and saw numerous other firsts during her tenure. She helped coach the Golden Hurricane's first All-WAC first team performer in Leela Farr in 2001-02 and Allison Curtin who earned honorable mention to the Associated Press All-America team and was TU's first WNBA draft pick going to the Houston Comets in the first round with the 12th overall pick in 2003.

Veasley was promoted to a full-time recruiting position for the 2001-02 season. In addition to her coaching duties, which focused on post player development, she was responsible for evaluating recruits, monitored student-athlete affairs for the program, was in charge of the Golden Hurricane travel arrangements and served as the team's community service coordinator.

Veasley left Tulsa in the summer of 2003 to pursue other professional interests. She was the assistant coach and a player for the Everyone's Internet exhibition team out of Houston in 2003 where she was responsible for post player development, coordination of team travel and budget management for team travel and player salaries. Additionally, Veasley worked as a sales consultant for David Powers Homes in Houston before joining the CU staff.

A native of Los Angeles, Veasley was a four-year letterwinner at UCLA from 1994-98. She served as team captain during the 1997-98 season helping the Bruins to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Veasley earned the UCLA Coaches Award in 1998 and was the team's Most Inspirational Player award winner in 1997.

She earned her bachelor's degree in history with a specialization in business from UCLA in 1999. Veasley served as an assistant coach at her prep alma mater, Valley Christian High School, for the 1998-99 season. Her younger sister Jamila graduated from UCLA in 2004 and played for seasons for the Bruins at forward (2000-04). Her younger brother Sean is a senior on the track & field team at Utah State.

TRACY TRIPP, DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Second
Season

Former CU women's basketball standout Tracy Tripp is in her second year as Director of Basketball Operations as she joined the program on Aug. 1, 2008. Her duties include film exchange, team travel, monitoring the budget, community service and facility coordination.

A native of Fort Collins, Colo., Tripp was a four-year letterwinner for the Buffaloes from 1985-89 and remains prominent on CU's career charts. She is the eighth leading scorer in team history with 1,574 career points and ranks third in minutes played (3,960), fourth in field-goals made (654) and assists (443) and 10th in steals (174) on the school's all-time lists. Tripp's 38-point scoring effort against Oklahoma State on Feb. 4, 1987, is tied for the school single-game record and she also holds single-game marks for field-goals made and attempted (17-for-32 against OSU) and field-goal percentage (11-of-11 against Wyoming on Dec. 2, 1986). She was a key figure on CU's initial NCAA Tournament team in 1988, averaging 12.5 points and nearly four assists per game as a junior.

A 1987 second team All-Big Eight Conference selection, and three-time Academic All-Big Eight pick, Tripp is also a two-time Colorado Sportswoman of the Year. Her first honor came as a prep following her senior year at Fort Collins High School in 1985, and the second after her senior season at CU.

Tripp graduated with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and earned her teaching certificate from Colorado in 1990.

"We are very pleased to be able to bring Tracy back to CU," McConnell-Miller said. "She brings great experience to our staff and she will be a key asset for us in reaching out to our alumni as well as the community."

Tripp spent 13 seasons (1995-08) as an assistant women's basketball coach at the University of Denver, and was promoted to associate head coach for the 2007-08 season. She assisted the Pioneer's transition from NCAA Division II to NCAA I in 1998 and just four seasons later, helped guide DU into the 2001 NCAA Tournament.

Considered an excellent teacher of the game, Tripp was responsible for the development of both guard and post play, scouting of opponents, in-game strategy, and served as the camp director for all summer camps. Tripp's other duties included recruiting, alumni relations and academic support. She was responsible for the development of DU's most notable center, Misa Pavlickova, the 2001 Sun

Belt Conference Player of the Year, the 24th overall pick of the 2001 WNBA Draft and a member of the 2004 Czech Republic Olympic team, as well as other numerous all-conference players.

Prior to Denver, Tripp spent one season as an assistant coach at San Diego State (1994-95), helping the Aztecs to the Western Athletic Conference title and earn a berth in the NCAA Tournament. She also spent one season (1993-94) as an assistant basketball and volleyball coach at Western State College.

Before embarking on her collegiate coaching career, Tripp served as head girls basketball coach at Boulder's Fairview High from 1990-93, leading Knights to three-straight Class 5A state tournaments and an overall record of 54-18. Tripp also taught physical education, health and science during her tenure.

2009-10 BUFFALOES

Bianca Smith

5-9 • Senior • Guard • Missouri City, Texas (Bellaire)

One of the most dangerous deep threats in the Big 12, Bianca Smith has a sweet stroke keyed by a quick release and a no fear attitude when the defensive pressure is on. Only one CU player, Kate Fagan, has made more 3-pointers in a two-year span than Smith's 143 from 2007-09 (Fagan had 149 from 2002-04). Smith enters her senior year fifth on CU's career charts for 3-pointers made (175) and attempted (474) and is on pace to join the 1,000 point club, entering the season with 753. She originally signed with the University of Tulsa, but decided to come to Colorado after Kathy McConnell-Miller and her staff arrived in Boulder.

2008-09 (Junior-Redshirt): Named one of three captains for the 2008-09 season, Smith averaged 9.2 points and 4.1 rebounds, starting all 29 games. She was CU's top 3-point shooter and also ranked among the best in the Big 12 Conference. Smith nailed 63 of 165 attempts from downtown, both team highs. She was second in the Big 12 in 3-point accuracy at 38.2 percent and her 2.2 3-pointers per game ranked third among all league players. Smith had one of the most memorable stretches in team history in January making 20-of-33 (.606) over a four-game span. During that four-game run, Smith twice tied the school record for 3-pointers made in a game (7) and in one half (5), a feat she actually accomplished once as a sophomore as well. After making 5-of-8 from 3-point range against No. 3 (AP)/2 (WBCA) ranked Oklahoma (1/21), Smith achieved the first of her record nights by hitting 7-of-11 at Missouri (1/24), scoring a season-high 25 points. Two games later, she virtually duplicated her performance draining 7-of-10 against Nebraska (1/31), finishing with 21 points in front of a national television audience. It was the seventh time a CU player has made seven 3-pointers in one game, with Smith doing it three of those occasions. In all Smith had five games with five or more 3-pointers and made 50 percent or better in nine contests including a 6-for-7 performance at Hawaii, a career best in terms of accuracy. She was named to the Paradise Classic All-Tournament team after averaging 14 points and five rebounds while shooting 50 percent from the field (10-of-20). She was third on the team in rebounding at 4.1 per game, a substantial improvement from her career 1.7 average entering her junior year. Smith had six or more rebounds in nine games including a career high 12 – all defensive – against Arkansas-Pine Bluff (12/2), her first career double-digit rebounding total.

2007-08 (Sophomore-Redshirt): Smith ranked third on the team in scoring at just a tad under 10 points per game. She established new single-season school records by hitting 80 3-point field goals on 217 attempts. Her 80 3-pointers broke Kate Fagan's old mark of 79 set in 2003-04. Her 257 attempts were well ahead of Mandy Nightingale's previous record of 191 set in 2001-02. Only one CU player – former All-American Shelley Sheetz – made more 3-pointers in her first two seasons than Smith's 112 (Sheetz had 128 from 1991-93). Smith tied three different school 3-point records and scored a career-best 26 points during CU's 67-52 win over her home state school Texas (2/16). She tied school marks for 3-pointers made in one game with seven and also 3-pointers made and attempted in one half by hitting 5-of-9 in the first 20 minutes. Smith ranked fourth in the Big 12 in 3-pointers made (2.4 mpg) and in 3-point percentage (.369). She earned Big 12 Conference Player of the Week honors on Dec.

2009-10 BUFFALOES

10 after averaging 19 points on 57 percent shooting in back-to-back wins over ranked opponents. Smith had 16 points with four 3-pointers and three assists in CU's 69-55 win over No. 22(AP)/21(WBCA) Wyoming (12/5). She backed up that performance with a then-career high 22 points with four 3-pointers and three rebounds in the Buffaloes' 62-51 win at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt (12/9). CU's Most Improved Player Award winner, Smith was also solid from the free-throw line making a team-best 85.7 percent on the season.

2006-07 (Freshman-Redshirt): Smith was one of just five CU players that participated in all 30 games in 2006-07. She ranked 14th in the Big 12 in 3-point field goal accuracy at 34.8 percent (32-of-92) and her 32 3-pointers were the sixth most by a freshman in the Big 12, and the most at CU since Emily Waner had 51 in 2003-04. She scored a career-high 18 points on a team-season best five 3-point field goals in the home win over Iowa State (1/10). Overall Smith ranked fifth on the team in scoring at 5.1 points per game and was also fifth in assists with 35. She made 13 starts as a first year player and became increasingly more accurate from the free throw stripe as the season moved along. After hitting just 4-of-11 (.364) through the first 23 games of the season, she hit 12 of her last 13 (.923) including four straight in the closing minutes of CU's home win over Kansas (2/24).

2005-06 (Freshman): Smith sat out the 2005-06 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program. She participated in practice and conditioning all season and helped the Buffs prepare for opponents as a scout player.

High School: Smith is a 2005 graduate of Bellaire High School where she was a four-year letter winner as a guard/forward. She earned District MVP and first team all-district honors as a senior, leading Bellaire to a 36-5 record and averaging 18.5 points and 15.3 rebounds per game. Over her four-year prep career, Bellaire was a whopping 114-23. Smith averaged 15.2

points and 10.7 rebounds per game as a junior and averaged 12 points over her first two seasons. She won an AAU national championship with the Houston Elite club program. Smith's high school honors include being named a Houston Girls Athlete of the Week.

Academics: Smith is a double major in marketing and sociology at Colorado and is on track to graduate with her degree in May 2010. She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as being accepted into the CU School of Business.

Personal: Bianca Ivy Smith was born July 25, 1987, in Houston. She is the daughter of Nina and Johnnie Jackson of Houston and Irvin Smith of Marietta, Ga. She has one step sister, Heather. Her step-father Johnnie played football for the University of Houston and the San Francisco 49ers for five years, helping the 49ers to a NFL title in Super Bowl XXIV. Her hobbies include playing the guitar and she hopes to own her own sports franchise or business some day.

GETTING TO KNOW BIANCA

My favorite thing about Colorado basketball is: The great experiences I have with my teammates.

Favorite quote: Never Quit, Never Give Up, ALWAYS find the Key!!!

The best moment from your 2008-09 season: Beating Nebraska by two home.

My dream job is: To become a collegiate head coach.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Walk down Pearl Street.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: I would be on Big Brother because me and CDUNN (Courtney Dunn) have the perfect plan and could definitely win!!!

One word to describe me off the court is: Hilarious

My pregame rituals are: Praying and listening to music.

One thing people don't know about me is: I'm a national chess champion.

"Must See" TV for me is: Law and Order SVU, Grey's Anatomy, Desperate Housewives, Brothers and Sisters

Most memorable moment at Coors Events Center: When Megan Malcolm-Peck hit her half court shot before coach Hardy did..CLASSIC lol!

The three things I cannot live without are: Music, basketball, family

My goofy superstition is: I always have to wear black socks during games.

When I'm not playing basketball I'm most likely: Listening to music, talking on the phone, hanging out with my teammates.

Best talent not related to basketball: Singing and playing chess

Sport that I would like to try other than basketball: Swimming

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Singing with Courtney and Whitney in the living room of my apartment. We seriously need to be on American Idol or some singing competition because we would win!!!

Favorite Boulder restaurant: The Rio

Favorite musician: Donnell Jones

Last book I read: The Secret

Favorite candy or snack: Sour Patch Kids

A dream vacation for me is: Tahiti

Favorite movie: Love Jones

If I could meet any famous person it would be: LeBron James

And I would ask that person: How did you become so great?

Most memorable moment in sports: Hitting seven 3's in the Nebraska game last season at home and we won by two points.

A perfect day for me is when: I am able to wake up.

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To become a great coach.

Favorite basketball road trip: Nebraska

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: Vivica Fox would play me and Gabrielle Union would play Courtney Dunn.

Hobbies: Talking on the phone, playing video games, singing with Courtney.

My favorite class at CU: Personal Financial Planning with Susan Morely.

My plans after graduation are: Play basketball overseas

My hero is: My mother

Advice to young athletes: Never quit, never give up, always find the key.

2009-10 BUFFALOES

Brittany Spears #22

6-1 • Junior • Forward • Pasadena, Calif. (Pasadena/Notre Dame Prep {Mass.})

Brittany Spears is making her mark as one of the most exciting and dynamic players in the Big 12 Conference and will certainly be a candidate for a variety of in-season and postseason honors. Her all-around game allows the Buffaloes to be creative in their match ups with opponents. She can handle the ball, has great range, can create her own shot and is CU's best defensive player. Spears is just the second player in team history – joining CU Athletic Hall of Famer Lisa Van Goor – to reach 1,000 career points by the end of her sophomore season. Overall she's the 22nd Buff to reach 1,000, and the second fastest (63 games), entering her junior year with 1,002. Spears is already on CU's career lists for blocked shots (8th with 85), 3-point field goals made (9th with 101) and attempted (8th with 310) and rebounds (20th with 486).

2008-09 (Sophomore): Spears led Colorado by averaging 18.3 points, 7.8 rebounds, 1.9 steals and 1.1 blocked shots per game as she was named to the 2009 All-Big 12 Conference second team. There was no sophomore slump for Spears as she ranked among the Big 12's best in most statistical categories. She ranked second in minutes (35.4 mpg), third in scoring, fourth in defensive rebounds (6.0 drpg), seventh in overall rebounding, eighth in steals and 3-point percentage (.328), ninth in blocks, 10th in field-goal percentage (.434), 12th in 3-pointers made (1.5 3pg), and 14th in free-throw percentage (.721). Her numbers in conference only contests were equally as impressive as she ranked third in scoring (17.5 ppg), steals (2.3 spg) and defensive rebounds (6.4 drpg), seventh in overall rebounding (7.8 rpg) and ninth in blocks (1.1 bpg). Spears' 18.3 point average stands as the sixth-best single-season mark in team history and her 530 points rank as the ninth. Her 199 field goals rank 12th on CU's single-season chart. She is the fifth player in CU history to score 400 points in her first two seasons in Boulder and the fourth to do it in freshman-sophomore campaigns (Debbie Descano scored 400 as a junior and senior after transferring to CU after her sophomore year). Spears had 12 games with 20 or more points and logged eight double-doubles, five of which came during Big 12 play. She had the highest individual scoring output in the Big 12 in 2008-09, notching 36 against UMass in the first round of the Coors Classic, a Classic record and tying for the third best total in team history (Jasmina Ilic also had 36 against Nebraska on Jan. 4, 2006). She was named the MVP of the Paradise Classic averaging 16 points, seven rebounds and three blocks over the two game tournament. She averaged 26 points in the two games of the Coors Classic, earning All-Tournament honors. Spears was a true "Iron Woman" as her 35.4 minutes per game were the sixth most in one season for the Buffaloes. She played all 40 minutes in a three-game stretch starting with the game at Missouri (1/24), becoming the first player to play 40 or more in three straight since Mandy Nightingale in 2000. In all she played 172 consecutive minutes over five games (Oklahoma on 1/21 to Kansas on 2/4). She played all 40 minutes in six games and at least 37 minutes in nine others. She was named the team's Offensive Player of the Year and Lisa Van Goor Rebounding Award winner.

2007-08 (Freshman): Spears had one of the greatest freshman seasons in team history, starting in all 34 games, ranking second on the team in scoring at 13.9 points per game and rebounding at 7.6 per contest behind All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland. She was named to the All-Big 12 Rookie team – a first for a CU player in the three year existence of the team which is voted on by league coaches – and earned honorable mention to the All-Big 12 squad. Spears was named Big 12 Rookie of the Week four times in the regular season, becoming the first CU player to earn four Big 12 weekly honors in the same season. She was the first player in team history to record 50 assists, 50 blocks and 50 steals in the same season and just the second to reach 40 in all categories (Raegan Scott did it in 1995-96 and 1996-97). Spears is the fourth different player, and second freshman, in team history to accomplish 450 points and 250 rebounds. She is second in scoring (472), tied with Erin Scholz (1993-94) for second in blocks (52), third in rebounds (259) and fifth in steals (57) on CU's all-time freshman charts. On CU's overall single-season ledger her numbers tied for sixth in minutes (1,118), seventh in blocks, 11th in 3-pointers (57), 17th in points and 18th in rebounds. Spears was first among freshmen in the Big 12 in scoring, rebounding and blocks and was second in steals (1.7 spg), third in free-throw percentage (.817) and fourth in assists (1.9 apg). Overall she was fourth in defensive rebounds (5.8 rpg), seventh in blocks, eighth in overall rebounding, ninth in 3-point percentage (.312), 11th in 3-pointers made (1.7 3mpg) and field-goal percentage (.425) and 13th in steals and points. She had seven double-doubles as a freshman, with the last coming in a 22-point, 10-rebound effort against Gonzaga in the second round of the postseason WNIT. Spears averaged 16.5 points and 7.8 rebounds during WNIT play. She scored a career-high 24 points in her Big 12 debut at Missouri (1/9). It was the second-best output by a Buff in her conference opener, trailing only the 25 scored by CU Athletic Hall of Famer Shelley Sheetz at Nebraska in 1992. She started her collegiate career off with a bang, scoring 15 points to go with seven rebounds and five steals at San Francisco (11/16). She was named the team's Rookie of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year. She was also cited as CU Athletics' Female Rookie of the Year at the annual CUSPY Awards.

High School: Spears was a 2006 graduate of Pasadena High School and spent the 2006-07 academic year at Notre Dame Prep School in Fitchburg, Mass. She was a two-time Pacific League and Pasadena Star-News Player of the Year for Pasadena High School. A 2006 All-CIF Southern Section Division I-A first team pick, Spears averaged 23 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists as a senior guiding Pasadena to its first league title since 1991 and a spot in the CIF Southern Section semifinals.

2009-10 BUFFALOES

She averaged 24.3 points, 12.0 rebounds and 3.9 blocks per game as a junior, leading the Pacific League in scoring and blocked shots and ranked third scoring and fifth in blocks in the CIF Southern Section. Spears helped the Bulldogs to an overall record of 22-9 and a second place showing in the Pacific League at 8-2. Pasadena advanced to the quarterfinals of the CIF Southern Section Division IIAA Tournament.

Academics: Spears is sociology major at Colorado.

Courtney Dunn

#34

6-4 • Senior • Center • Berkeley, Calif. (St. Mary's)

Courtney Dunn has the rare combination of size and athleticism and uses that to create tremendous match-up problems with her ability to score from beyond the arc as well as with her back to the basket. Standing 6-4, she can drill the three in transition or take it the length of the floor. Courtney sees the floor like a guard and as a high basketball IQ from playing on one of the most well traveled AAU programs on the West Coast (East Bay Xplosion). Dunn is a junior in eligibility, but a senior in school and is expecting to graduate with her class this spring.

2008-09 (Sophomore-Redshirt): Appeared in 25 games for the Buffaloes, averaging just under 10 minutes per contest. She scored 40 points on the season with nine of her 13 field goals coming from beyond the 3-point arc. Played a season-best 22 minutes in the home game against Missouri (2/28) pitching in five points, four rebounds and two assists. Netted her season high of six points in each of the season's first two games, against UCF (11/16) and Colorado State (11/19), hitting a pair of 3-pointers in each contest. She had nine blocked shots on the season, ranking third on the team.

2007-08 (Freshman-Redshirt): Played in 23 games as a redshirt freshman, solidifying Colorado's depth in the low post. She averaged 2.3 points and just under two rebounds a game while playing key minutes in big games. One of her strongest performances came in Colorado's 62-51 win at No. 20(AP)/17(WBCA) Vanderbilt where she scored five points and grabbed five rebounds in 13 minutes against one of the Southeastern Conference's best post players in Liz Sherwood. Dunn played a big supporting role in CU's 59-41 win over Kansas scoring a career-high nine points on 4-of-5 from the field with five rebounds. The five rebounds tied a season best, a mark she reached six different times and three of those instances came against ranked teams: Vanderbilt, No. 19/16 Texas A&M (1/16) and No. 10/10 Oklahoma (2/9).

2006-07 (Freshman): Dunn sat out the 2006-07 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program. She participated in practice and conditioning all season and helped the Buffs prepare for opponents as a scout player.

2009-10 BUFFALOES

Whitney Houston

5-5 • Junior • Guard • Memphis, Tenn. (Hillcrest)

Whitney Houston was expecting to be CU's starting point guard last season, building on the momentum of a strong finish to her sophomore year, but a knee injury derailed those plans. She was able to redshirt and is ready to lead the Buffaloes in 2009-10. Houston is one of the quickest players on the team, giving her the ability to get the ball down the floor and the Buffaloes into their offense. She has also drastically improved her shot and shooting range, giving the Buffaloes an added scoring weapon.

2008-09 (Redshirt): Houston used her redshirt season after tearing the anterior cruciate ligament in her left knee on Sept. 24 during team individual workouts. She had successful surgery in October and was able to rehabilitate the knee throughout the season. Despite missing the season, Houston continued to be active in her community. She helped at an annual fund raiser for the Emergency Family Assistance Association (EFFA) and also taught basketball skills to area youth at the National Girls & Women in Sport Day (2/7) as well as making several speaking engagements, sharing her life experience while being a student-athlete at CU. For her efforts, she received the team's Community Service Award at the annual team banquet.

2007-08 (Sophomore): Houston was CU's leader in scoring and assists among those players who primarily came off the bench. She did start the first four games of the season, but came off the bench in her final 26 contests. After a somewhat slow start, she picked up momentum during the Big 12 season and carried it through the Postseason WNIT. Houston averaged 6.5 points and two assists while shooting 38 percent from the field and 80 percent from the line over the final 15 games of the season. She increased her scoring to 9.5 points in the four WNIT games while dishing out two assists per contest. Houston scored a season-high 13 points in the fourth round game against TCU, a 96-90 overtime Buffs win, and made some big baskets down the stretch. She banked in a 24-foot 3-point bucket as the shot clock expired to give CU a 72-74 lead with 1:45 left in regulation and hit a short jumper in the paint with 4.8 seconds remaining that gave CU a 76-74 lead before TCU sent it to overtime. Her long 3-pointer was one of 15 on the season on 46 attempts (.326) displaying her improving outside shot as she made just one 3-pointer in 16 attempts in 29 games as a freshman. She twice had three 3-pointers in one game and had two on two other occasions. Houston was named the team's "Sixth Man" award winner for 2008.

2006-07 (Freshman): Houston, who earned the team's Most Improved Player Award as a freshman, emerged as a viable offensive threat in the second half of the season. She had a hand in running the Buffaloes' offense for much of the season and moved into the starting lineup at point guard for the final 11 games. Houston was third on the

She also led the team in assists with 64, the first freshman to do so since Linda Lappe did it in 1998-99, and was fourth in steals with 25. She ranked fifth in assists (2.2 apg), eighth in scoring (7.9 ppg) and 12th in steals (0.9) among all Big 12 freshmen in 2007. Houston had at least two assists in 17 of her 29 games, including a personal-best and team season-high six against Charlotte (12/25). She also claimed the team season-high for field goals made in one game as she poured in 11 en route to a career-best 25 point performance at Kansas (2/6), a game in which she also had six rebounds, three assists and two steals.

High School: Houston is a 2006 graduate of Hillcrest High School where she led the Lady Vikings to the Tennessee Class AA state title as a senior. She was the state tournament MVP as Hillcrest finished with a 35-3 record and delivered the Memphis area its first girls Division 1 basketball state title in 21 years. Houston was a Miss Basketball finalist in Tennessee, averaging 19 points, six assists and three rebounds per game as a senior. She was a Class AA All-State first team selection and also earned Class AA All-Metro and District MVP honors. Houston was a four-time member of the Memphis Commercial Appeal's Best of the Preps/All-Metro Class A-AA team and was one of five finalists for the overall girls basketball Best of the Preps award as a junior and senior. As a junior Houston was an all-district, all-regional and an honorable mention all-state pick who averaged 17 points, nine assists and three steals per game leading Hillcrest to a 29-6 overall record and the District 16-AA and Region 8-AA titles. An adidas All-American, she ranked as the No. 62 point guard in the country by All-Star Girls Report in 2006. Houston also participated in softball, volleyball and track while in high school. In softball she was a Best of the Preps/All-Metro selection in 2005.

Academics: Houston is a women's studies major at Colorado. She was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll for the 2008 spring semester.

Personal: Whitney Christina Houston was born August 7, 1988, in Memphis. She is the daughter of Cynthia and the late Larry Houston. She is one of 10 children joining Pamela, Keithra Patton, Elbony, Larry, Christopher, Josh, David and Cameron; one sister Cyntresia is deceased. She lists the biggest moments of her career as being inducted into the Honor Society and winning the state championship. Houston can play the drums, and she can sing and would like to pursue a singing career. Singing is a talent she has proved by performing the National Anthem on several occasions for the Buffaloes. She performed well in those games where she has sung the National Anthem and played, averaging 11.3 points and hitting 68 percent from the field (15-of-22) – she also sang during her redshirt year. She first learned how to play basketball when she was 10 years old from her uncle Philemon Jones. Her favorite coaches during her high school career were Reginald Johnson and John Terrell. She loves God and keeps her family first. She is dedicating this season to her father, who passed in December 2008, her grandfather Bishop I.G. Jones, who passed in April 2009, her grandmother and a friend; a former high school teammate who was killed in a car accident. Her grandmother passed in January 2008, and Houston promised her that she would have great seasons during her time at CU and that she would make it to the WNBA.

Kelly Jo Mullaney #32

5-8 • Junior • Guard • Minneapolis, Minn. (The Breck School/Colorado State)

Kelly Jo Mullaney is a scrappy, sharp-shooting guard that saw considerable time at both the 1 and 2 spots in her first season of eligibility at Colorado. A part-time starter a year ago, Mullaney's range and versatility allow the CU coaching staff to choose from a variety of back court options.

2008-09 (Sophomore-Redshirt): Mullaney averaged 5.3 points and 1.4 assists in 28 games as a first-year Buffalo. She started in half of those contests (14), splitting those starts evenly between the first seven and last seven games of the season. Mullaney was CU's most accurate all-around shooter hitting 44 percent from the field (third on the team) and 77 percent from the free-throw line (second on the team). Mullaney reached double digits in scoring five times, including a 14-point effort against her former team, Colorado State (11/19) where she also dished out a career best six assists. Her biggest offensive night came at No. 25 (AP)/24 (WBCA) Iowa State (2/7) where she scored 20 points on 8-of-11 from the field, including a perfect 4-of-4 from 3-point range. She averaged 8.0 points over the final seven games of the season.

2007-08 (Sophomore): Mullaney sat out the 2007-08 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program per NCAA transfer rules after playing her initial collegiate campaign up the road at Colorado State. She participated in practice and conditioning all season and helped the Buffs prepare for opponents as a scout player.

2006-07 (Colorado State): Mullaney played in 13 games

Britney Blythe

5-9 • Junior • Guard • San Mateo, Calif. (St. Ignatius Prep)

Britney Blythe is a true point guard who really sees the floor well. She gained valuable experience last season as a part-time starter. She comes from a great basketball background and has a high basketball I.Q. as far as understanding offensive and defensive philosophy. She's a floor leader who gives the Buffaloes good depth at the point guard position.

2008-09 (Sophomore): Blythe played in 27 games and started at point guard in 15 straight contests spanning the last half of the nonconference schedule and the beginning of the Big 12 Conference season. She averaged 2.1 points and 1.3 assists per game and collected 11 steals. Blythe played her best basketball during the ultra competitive Big 12 schedule, scoring 36 of her season's 57 points during the conference regular season. She had a career night in the league opener against No. 6 (AP)/5 (WBCA) ranked Baylor scoring a personal best 12 points on 4-of-6 from the field – all from 3-point range. She made her first four 3-point attempts against the Bears after making just 1-of-12 from downtown prior to the Baylor game.

2007-08 (Freshman): Played in 21 games as a first-year Buffalo, averaging just under two points per game. Had a memorable collegiate debut by scoring 11 points and adding two assists and two steals at San Francisco, about five miles where she played in high school at St. Ignatius Prep. She was a perfect 4-of-4 from the line in that game and made a solid 70.6 percent of her free throws on the season (12-of-17). Played a key role in Colorado's 59-41 win over Kansas (1/22) scoring eight

6-1 • Junior • Guard/Forward • Palos Verdes Estates, Calif. (Palos Verdes)

Chelsea Dale is a pure shooter who has great range. She also has a knack for taking care of other players on the floor. She can step up when she needs to and become a complimentary player when she needs to. Dale will be looking to make a fast start, as an ankle injury forced her to miss the first part of her sophomore campaign.

2008-09 (Sophomore): Contributed the majority of her minutes during the last quarter of the season playing in seven of the final eight games. She missed the first seven games of the season recovering from a September surgery to stabilize the ligaments in her right ankle. Dale, who played in a total of 11 games, saw her most extended time by playing a career-high 14 minutes at No. 12 (AP)/8 (WBCA) Texas A&M (2/14), pulling down a personal-best three rebounds. She scored her lone field goal of the season with a scooping layup as she drove through the lane against Missouri (2/28).

2007-08 (Freshman): Saw action in 12 games as a true freshman, totaling 12 points, two rebounds and one assist on the season. Made her collegiate debut in the season-opening win at San Francisco (11/16) and scored her first collegiate points with a 3-point field goal against Texas Southern (12/14). In fact, she made both 3-point field goals she attempted as a freshman, also drilling a long-range jumper against Southern Utah (12/28). She also made both free throw shots she attempted this season, hitting both in the

5-10 • Sophomore • Guard • Highlands Ranch, Colo. (Highlands Ranch)

Widely regarded as the top girls high school basketball player in the state of Colorado in 2008, Alyssa Fressle was thrown right into the Buffaloes rotation as a first-year player. Despite some rough moments, thoroughly expected for a true freshman playing in the nation's premier conference, Fressle held her own and emerged as one of the top first-year players in the Big 12 in 2009. She brings a strong work ethic, mental toughness and a commitment to excellence to the Buffaloes team. Primarily a guard who can play any of the back court positions on the floor. She has the ability to score a lot of points and do so in a variety of ways, whether it's from the outside, off the dribble or in transition.

She was Colorado's leader in assists with 99, the most by a freshman since Linda Lappe had 110 in 1999. Overall on the Big 12 charts she ranked ninth in assists, 10th in steals and 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio (0.9). Fressle was named the Big 12 Rookie of the Week during the final weekend of the regular season by averaging 11 points, 2.5 assists, 2.5 steals and two rebounds while hitting 50 percent from the field in games against Nebraska and No. 21 (AP) Kansas State. She scored in double digits in 12 games, including a personal best 19 against Drexel (11/29). Fressle had five or more assists eight times and held the team's top single-game mark of eight, which she accomplished on three occasions. Despite being a true freshman, Fressle was called upon to play straight up against some of the nation's best backcourt players, including Andrea Riley of Oklahoma State and Shalee Lehning of Kansas State. Fressle recorded 52 steals on the year, ranking second on the team and also had 11 blocked shots, the third best on the team and most by a backcourt player. She was named the team's Rookie of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year. She was also cited as CU Athletics' Female Rookie of the Year at the annual CUSPY Awards.

High School: Fressle is a 2008 graduate of Highlands Ranch High School where she played for one of the most storied programs in recent Colorado history. She helped the Falcons to three straight Class 5A State Championships (2006-08) and was named the Colorado Player of the Year by both the Denver Post and the Rocky Mountain News in 2008. The Colorado Gatorade Player of the Year in 2008, Fressle was a fourth team Parade All-American, nominated to the

Kailah Bailey

#42

6-0 • Freshman • Forward • Omaha, Neb. (Central)

Kailah Bailey is an athletic forward with a knack for rebounding. She is aggressive, scrappy and has the ability to make plays on the defensive end. She is a welcome addition in a position of need for the Buffaloes and looks to contribute from day one.

High School: Bailey is a 2009 graduate of Omaha Central High School. She was the last member of CU's recruiting class to sign, doing so in April. She was listed as the ninth best available unsigned player for 2009 according to the Collegiate Girls Basketball Report. The report also ranked her as the 31st best power forward in the nation. She received honorable mention to the 2007 Nebraska Class A All-State team as a sophomore for Omaha Central and was a three-time letterwinner. Bailey was injured early in her junior season and did not play basketball as a senior in 2009. A versatile athlete, Bailey also excelled on the track for the Eagles, earning a pair of letters. She was a state qualifier in the high jump, 200 meters and the 400-meter relay in 2007 and set the school record in the high jump at 5-3. She played club basketball with the Cornhusker Shooting Stars and the Midwest Trailblazers. Her favorite high school basketball moment was when her team beat the No. 1 team in the state her sophomore year.

Academics: Bailey plans to major in Integrative Physiology at Colorado. She would like to be an athletic trainer at either a high school or college. Bailey is a member of the National Honor Society and was on the honor roll. Her senior year she was an African-American Academic Achievement Award winner.

Personal: Kailah Krystal Bailey was born June 29, 1991 in Long Island, N.Y. She is the daughter of Karl and Opal Bailey. Bailey has one younger brother, Karsten, who is in the seventh grade. Her father Karl competed in track & field at Queens College. Bailey enjoys singing and writing and has a deep love for music. She has played the saxophone since fifth grade and when she reached high school she played in the marching band and sang in the choir as well as competing in athletics. (First name pronounced: Kay-luh)

OUTLOOK

Colorado head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller hit more road blocks than she and her Buffaloes had expected in 2008-09.

McConnell-Miller knew she was losing one of the best players in school history in All-American forward Jackie McFarland, and it would be a challenge to replace her as the Buffaloes attempted to build on a 19-win season. But the challenge became even more daunting in the offseason when she lost two additional starters. Junior-to-be Aija Putnina decided to return to Europe to play professionally over the summer and just weeks before fall practice, the Buffaloes lost their starting point guard, Whitney Houston, who suffered a season-ending knee injury.

Whitney Houston

such strong relationships without ever picking up a basketball," McConnell-Miller said. "It is a group of some really strong returners as far as personalities and experience, with a mix of young energetic freshmen."

This will be the first season the Buffaloes' roster is comprised entirely of players brought in by McConnell-Miller as she begins her fifth year at Colorado. She plans to put an electrifying team out on the floor, loaded with offensive weapons.

Colorado returns four of its top five scorers from 2008-09 and that doesn't include the addition of Houston, who has averaged 6.1 points and nearly two assists over her first two seasons. Junior guard/forward Brittany Spears returns as one of the most dynamic players in the Big 12. She led Colorado by averaging 18.3 points, 7.8 rebounds, 1.9 steals and 1.1 blocks per game as she was named to the All-Big 12 Conference second team. She topped the 1,000 career points barrier at the end of last season, becoming just the second player in CU history to reach that mark in her sophomore season.

Spears has emerged into a leader and go-to player, but she is by no means Colorado's only weapon. Guard Bianca Smith, CU's lone senior in eligibility, is one of the top 3-point shooters in the Big 12 and has repeatedly shown she can light it up in an instant. Twice last season she set school records for 3-pointers made in one half (5) and one game (7) and she ranked in the top three of the Big 12 in both 3-point field goals made and percentage.

After the loss of Houston, Colorado featured four guards who all were playing their first significant minutes in a Buffaloes uniform. Alyssa Fressle, regarded as the top prep player to come out of These factors, combined with playing in the nation's premier women's basketball conference, the Big 12, led to the Buffaloes struggling to an 11-18 mark and a last place league finish. But optimism has returned at Colorado. Houston is back, highlighting a back court that is deep and experienced. Add in a Top 40 recruiting class, and the Buffaloes have the makings of an exciting season.

"I am probably as excited as I've been to start a season and coming into a season with a particular group that over the past six months I have grown to absolutely love and build

Colorado in 2008, started the majority of the season as a true freshman. She responded by averaging 7.7 points and a team-best 3.4 assists per game, en route to a spot on the Big 12 All-Rookie team. Junior Kelly Jo Mullaney played her first games for CU after transferring from Colorado State 2007, and averaged 5.3 points per game. She split starting time at point guard with Britney Blythe, who started 15 games as a sophomore. Junior Chelsea Dale, a sharp shooting guard/forward, saw her first extensive playing time at the tail end of the 2008-09 campaign.

All had some expected struggles, but their experience adds a ton of depth to the CU backcourt. Houston's return will be big as she is one of the fastest players on the team. Her ability to break the press and get the Buffaloes into their offense was sorely missed last season.

"Our strength is in our backcourt," McConnell-Miller said. "I think if you ask any of our players, any would attest that our guards have the most experience right now and we are going to rely heavily on our guards to make sure the ball is being taken care of, to make sure we are playing the tempo and the style of play we need to play and we are featuring our strengths."

With the strength definitely in the back court, for the first time in the tenure of McConnell-Miller there is less experience on the front line. Junior Courtney Dunn and sophomore Julie Seabrook are CU's only returning front-line players. Both played limited minutes last year behind fifth-year senior Kara Richards.

Smith and Spears both played significant minutes in the front court last year, along with Dunn and Seabrook. Those four are still logically in the mix, but help is on the way too.

Colorado is excited about its incoming freshman class, rated the No. 32 class in the country by ESPN.com's HoopGirlz. Three in-state signees headline CU's biggest freshman group since 2006. Boulder natives and twin sisters Brenna and Meagan Malcolm-Peck, a pair of 6-foot, 2-inch guard/forwards, had great careers at Horizon High School, guiding the Hawks to the Class 5A state semifinals. Janeesa "Chucky" Jeffery, a 5-10 guard, is the two-time Colorado Springs Gazette Big School Girls Player of the Year, helping Class 4A Sierra High school to three consecutive league titles and the 2009 state quarterfinals.

The Buffaloes will also bring in a pair of Omaha natives who fill immediate needs. Kailah Bailey, a 6-0 forward, is a defensive minded player with a knack for rebounding, a spot of concern for the Buffaloes last season. CU also brings in Melissa MacFarlane, a 6-7 post player who will be the tallest player in school history, helping CU's need in the low post.

"We are fourteen strong, and I would say one of our strengths this year would be our depth," McConnell-Miller said. "We can go deeper into our bench than ever before."

BOULDER - Brittany Spears had a game-high 23 points to lead Colorado to an 86-59 win over UCF Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Center in the season opener for both teams.

Spears, just one off her career high of 24 points, set last season against Missouri, was 9-of-17 from the field with three 3-pointers and added eight rebounds and five steals.

She scored 15 of CU's first 21 points as the Buffaloes built a 21-11 lead in the first 8:09 of the game. Spears totaled 18 points in the first half, a career-high for one period, as Colorado led 41-28 after the first 20 minutes.

The Buffaloes pressured UCF into 31 turnovers and held the Knights to just 34 percent from the field.

"It felt nice to be out there playing someone other than the (male) practice players," Spears said.

Colorado struggled from the free-throw line, making just 16 of 26 attempts and was outrebounded 52-35, but it was an overall good start for a team debuting a new starting back court. True freshman guard Alyssa Fressle fought off two early fouls to finish with 10 points, three rebounds and four steals. Sophomore point guard Kelly Jo Mullaney, making her official CU debut, had two points, three rebounds and one assist, but overall handled the UCF pressure well.

"I thought I could have done a little better," Fressle said. "I think (the early fouls) may have shaken me up a little, but that's just something to learn from."

Colorado's front court, the topic of much discussion during the off season, had a productive afternoon. Fifth-year senior center Kara Richards had 13 points on 5-of-6 from the field with seven rebounds and two blocked shots. Freshman Julie Seabrook came off the bench to score five points and four rebounds while Courtney Dunn had six points on a pair of 3-pointers.

"The stat line on Kara is what we see every day in practice," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "She's got the heart of a lion and the work ethic of a Division I athlete. For us to be able to go forward and continue to do what we want to do, Kara's a huge key to that. Her consistency is going to be a major factor."

The Buffaloes fell into a little foul trouble in the second half with Richards picking up her fourth foul with 16:27 remaining and Spears notching her fourth with 13:56 left, but the Buffaloes didn't miss a beat.

Junior guard Bianca Smith took over from that point as the Buffaloes pulled away and led by as much as 33 late in the game. Smith had 14 of her 16 points in the second half, tied a personal best with six rebounds and added two assists and two steals. Senior guard/forward Hannah Skildum added nine points, a game-high five assists, three rebounds and two blocks.

"It was a tough opening game," McConnell-Miller said. "When you think about the time we had to prepare from October to November 16, just their (UCF) style of play was difficult to prepare for. I was proud of our girls."

Emma Cannon led UCF with 19 points and 17 rebounds. Aisha Patrick also logged a double-double for the Knights finishing with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

BOULDER - Senior center Kara Richards scored a career high 25 points and grabbed eight rebounds to vault Colorado to a 93-63 win over in-state rival Colorado State Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center. Brittany Spears matched her own personal best with 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for her eighth career double-double as the Buffaloes move to 2-0 for the first time since the 2003-04 season.

Colorado used an 11-0 run to open the second half to pull away from the Rams (0-2). The Buffaloes shot 57 percent in the second period, outscoring Colorado State 51-28.

Richards dominated the inside in her best all around game in a Colorado uniform. She was 8-of-12 from the field and a perfect 9-of-9 from the free-throw line.

"I became a little bit more aggressive," Richards said. "I started calling for the ball more. As a post, the only way I'm going to have a good game is if the guards get me the ball and we have guards that can all do that."

Richards reached 20 points for the fifth time in her career and surpassed her previous career best of 24 points set twice in her freshman year in 2005 (vs. Manhattan and Iowa State).

The teams played a tight and entertaining first half. Spears hit her first five shots from the floor and scored 10 of CU's first 12 points, and the Buffaloes hit a solid 49 percent from the floor in the first 20 minutes (16-of-33). But the Rams stayed within striking distance. Although the Buffaloes never trailed in the game, Colorado State stayed within three to eight points throughout the first 20 minutes. CSU's Kandy Beemer and Bonnie Barbee each hit a pair of 3-pointers as CU's lead at halftime was just 42-35.

CSU cooled off considerably in the second half hitting just 29 percent (11-of-38) from the field. Richards also went to work, scoring 18 of her 25 points and grabbing six of her eight rebounds in the final 20 minutes.

"It started on the defensive end, but initially we just went right inside and just tried to establish a presence," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I thought Kara [Richards] really dominated on the interior, she was phenomenal. I think the adjustments defensively gave this team the extra bounce, the extra step that they needed. I think the adjustments were big; not necessarily what I said, but what they did."

Coming off a poor performance from the free throw line against UCF in its season opener, making just 16 of 26, Colorado responded in a big way by making its first 17 free-throw attempts of the game and finishing 22-of-24 from the line. The 17 straight made to start the game were CU's best since its school record 19-of-19 performance against Nebraska on Feb. 7, 1987.

Facing her former team, sophomore guard Kelly Jo Mullaney scored 14 points and dished out six assists. The Buffaloes had a well rounded game from junior Bianca Smith who had nine points and a career-high eight rebounds.

Richards wasn't the only CU frontcourt player to have success on the courts Wednesday. Freshman Julie Seabrook had nine points on 4-of-5 shooting and five rebounds while sophomore center Courtney Dunn had six points and four rebounds.

Beemer finished with 15 points and four assists to lead Colorado State while Barbee pitched in 13.

BOULDER - Colorado sophomore Brittany Spears scored a career-high and Coors Classic record 36 points, but UMass rallied from a late eight-point deficit to hand the Buffaloes a 70-62 loss in the first round of the 22nd Annual Coors Classic, Friday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

The loss puts Colorado (2-2) in Saturday's consolation game against Drexel (2-3) at 5 p.m. MST. Minnesota (5-1) defeated Drexel 74-50 in Friday's early game and will play UMass (3-2) in the championship game at 7:30 p.m. MST.

Spears' 36 points tied for the third best total in team history, matching Jasmina Ilic's total against Nebraska on Jan. 4, 2006, and just two off the school record of 38 held by current Director of Operations Tracy Tripp against Oklahoma State on Feb. 4, 1987 and Susan Horner against Weber State on Mar. 10, 1979.

Spears also set career-highs in field goals made (12) and attempted (25) and free throws made (9) and attempted (11). Her 25 field goal attempts tied a Coors Classic record.

Despite Spears' record night, Colorado struggled as whole from the field. The Buffaloes shot just 36 percent overall (22-of-61) and just 25 percent from 3-point range (7-of-28). UMass' zone defense caused some trouble for CU and led to rushed shots.

"When teams sit in zone, we have four shooters on the floor," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We took shots too fast, and took dumb shots. UMass took advantage. We weren't taxing them defensively and didn't play on both ends of the floor."

Colorado trailed for nearly all of the first 27 minutes of the game, but took its first lead since the opening seconds at 50-48 on an Alyssa Fressle 3-point field goal that capped a 10-2 CU run with 13:07 remaining in the game.

Tied at 52 with 9:21 remaining, Colorado looked like it was beginning to pull away as the Buffs scored eight straight on a Spears layup and back-to-back 3-pointers by Spears and Bianca Smith.

UMass made the final and most important push though, outscoring Colorado 18-2 over the final 6:57 of the game. CU missed 7-of-8 down the stretch, gaining only a Spears layup which came with just 42 seconds remaining to end a string of 15 straight points by the Minutewomen.

"I wish we could play that game over again," Spears said. "We need to play better defense. We need more ball pressure and to use more time on offense. We are just rushing shots. We have to believe in each other."

UMass forward Teya Wright recorded a double-double with 24 points and 13 rebounds. Guards Kim Benton and Stefanie Gerardot each scored 12 points and were combined 7-of-15 from 3-point range. The Minutewomen made 11 3-pointers, hitting 39 percent from downtown.

Fressle finished with 11 points, six rebounds and four steals. Smith had nine points and six rebounds. Spears added nine rebounds and four assists to her strong statline.

"We are in a similar position to where we were a year ago," McConnell-Miller said. "The sign of a really good team is one that is able to put the last possession, the last game behind them. That's what we have to do."

BOULDER - Drexel forward Gabriela Marginean scored 26 of her game-high 32 points in the second half to lead Drexel to a 67-63 win over Colorado in the consolation game of the 22nd Annual Coors Classic Saturday at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado (2-3), which dropped both games of its Classic for the first time in team history, fell for the second straight night after holding a late second half lead.

The Buffaloes led 56-49 with 6:33 remaining in the game when Drexel went on a 12-3 run over the next 2:11. Marginean made six consecutive free throws during that stretch and was a perfect 12-of-12 from the line during the game, tying a Coors Classic record and setting a mark for a CU opponent.

After CU's Brittany Spears tied the score at 61 with a pair of free throws, Marginean responded with a jumper to give the Dragons a 63-61 lead with 2:10 remaining.

Both teams traded missed shots and with 33 seconds remaining, Spears scored on a layup to tie the score at 63. Once again Marginean responded, giving the Dragons a 2-point lead with 17 seconds left. The Buffaloes never got the chance for a last shot to tie or win. Marginean, who added eight rebounds, closed out the game with a steal in the CU backcourt and went coast-to-coast for a layup and her 12th straight point.

Colorado led UMass 60-52 with just under seven minutes left on Friday before the Minutewomen ended the game on an 18-2 run.

Colorado freshman Alyssa Fressle had the best game of her young career in a losing effort. She scored a career-high 19 points on 8-of-14 from the floor, and scored in just about every way - 3-pointers, short jumpers, and layups in transition. Fressle filled out the box score nicely with four rebounds, three assists, three steals and topped it off with a blocked shot.

Senior Hannah Skildum finished with 10 points on 4-of-7 from the field, her first game in double-digits since last year's Coors Classic game against Siena (11). Senior Kara Richards had 12 points and four rebounds before fouling out with 4:48 remaining in the contest.

Spears, who was named to the five-player All-Tournament team, had 16 points and nine rebounds. She finished the weekend with Classic records for points (36) and field goals (12) in one game (both against UMass) and a 2-game record for field goals attempted (40).

Drexel kept the game close early at the line. The Dragons, who ranked second in NCAA Division I in free-throw percentage last year, hit their first 11 free throws and finished 12-of-14 for the first half. The problem facing Drexel was free throws were the only shots going down in the first half. The Buffaloes held Drexel to just four field goals - one off CU's opponent record for one half - and none over the final 12:51 of the first half.

The drought allowed Colorado to close the half on a 20-6 run and take a 29-21 advantage into the locker room, led by Fressle who scored 12 points in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado led by as many as 13 early in the second half (40-27) before Drexel chipped away at the CU lead. The Dragons shot 53 percent in the second half (16-of-30) and 88.5 percent from the free throw line for the game (23-of-26).

Drexel guard Jasmina Rosseel finished with 10 points and six rebounds. Andrea Peterson chipped in nine points and six rebounds.

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. – Colorado was limited to a school record low 13 first half points and never recovered as Seton Hall claimed a 77-40 decision Tuesday evening at Walsh Gymnasium.

Colorado (3-4) trailed 43-13 at halftime in a period filled with missed shots and mistakes. The Buffaloes shot just 19 percent in the first half (5-of-27) and committed 12 turnovers.

Colorado missed its first six shots and added four turnovers as Seton Hall scored the first 11 points of the game. The Buffaloes didn't score until junior Bianca Smith hit a 3-pointer at the 15:08 mark of the first half.

Seton Hall (6-1) kept right on trucking along. The Pirates made 7-of-9 to open the game and 63 percent overall in the first half (17-of-27).

The Buffaloes, who have lost nine straight road games dating back to last season, struggled with Seton Hall's pressure defense and never could get into a rhythm. Most of CU's 12 first-half turnovers came on errand passes and the Pirates took advantage, outscoring the Buffaloes 16-2 off turnovers in the first 20 minutes.

"The caliber of (opponent) and the youth of our team is contributing to the outcome of these games, but right now we're looking like we don't have a solid point guard," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Not that Kelly Jo (Mullaney) isn't a solid player or Britney Blythe isn't a solid point guard, but we're just not getting into (our offense) right now, we're totally on our heels half the time."

Seton Hall's defense held Colorado's top two scorers, Brittany Spears and Kara Richards, to just one point in the first half – a Spears' free throw. The duo was a combined 0-of-12 from the field, several of the misses coming from point-blank range.

CU's 13 first half points eclipsed the previous low of 14 for a first half, done twice, and most recently at Pacific on Nov. 18, 2004. It's the second lowest total regardless of half, trailing only the 10 scored in the second half of a game against Texas Tech on Jan. 17, 1998.

Spears finished with a team-high 13 points, most coming at the tail end of the second half. Britney Blythe scored a season-high seven points and had three rebounds off the bench while sophomore-center Courtney Dunn had five points and three rebounds.

The Buffaloes fared better in the second half, scoring 27 points and hitting 43 percent, but it took a Kelly Jo Mullaney jumper in the key with one second remaining to get Colorado to 40, tying for the 10th lowest total in team history and the lowest since an 86-40 loss at Baylor on Feb. 22, 2006.

"It got away from us early. If we would have put forth the energy and execution that we did in the last 14 minutes, it's a different game," McConnell-Miller said. "(Seton Hall) got hot early and it gave them a little confidence. We looked so stiff and so methodical on open layups and shots. Seton Hall noticed it, the sign of an experienced team and a team that really wants it, and they attacked and came at us good."

Seton Hall dominated the front court, outrebounding the Buffaloes 52-24 and outscoring them in the paint 34-8. The Pirates were led by Noteisha Womack who recorded a double-double with 12 points and seven rebounds. Ebonie Williams and Nicole Emery each had 16 points for Seton Hall. Kandice Green had eight points and 10 rebounds off the bench.

BOULDER – Bianca Smith scored 21 points, nailing six 3-pointers to lead Colorado to a 71-49 win over UMKC Saturday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Smith, who had been hitting just 24.5 percent from 3-point range through seven games (12-of-49) hit her first four attempts and finished the night 6-of-8 from long range, the most accurate night from downtown in her career.

"That's hard work paying off," Smith said. "I've been in the gym shooting night in and night out."

Colorado (4-4) sprinted out to a 22-6 lead thanks to Smith's four first half 3-pointers. On the defensive end, the Buffaloes forced 12 UMKC turnovers in the first seven minutes of the game accounting for 12 points.

But after Smith's fourth 3-pointer at the 10:09 mark, the Buffaloes went cold for the rest of the half. CU missed its next nine shots, sinking only two free throws until Brittany Spears connected on a 3-pointer with 27 seconds remaining before halftime.

Once Colorado's shots stopped falling, UMKC (4-7) was able to climb back into the game. Chazny Morris and Heather Davis hit back-to-back 3-pointers to spark a 17-1 UMKC run during CU's shooting slump and a Davis layup with 42 seconds left tied the game at 24.

Spears' 3-pointer allowed the Buffaloes to take a 27-26 lead at halftime, but UMKC came right back in the second and led 33-29 with 16:50 remaining. Needing a spark, Smith hit her fifth 3-pointer and after a Spears steal, Kara Richards connected on a layup as CU retook the lead at 34-33.

After a Morris 3-point play briefly put UMKC back on top, the Buffaloes took over. Spears scored the next four points to give CU the lead for good as the Buffaloes outscored the Kangaroos 37-13 over the final 15:21 of the contest.

With Smith providing the first half fireworks, Spears and Richards stepped up to put the game away in the second half. Richards, who had three fouls in the first eight minutes of the game, scored 10 of her 15 points and grabbed six of her eight rebounds in the second period. Spears scored 12 of her 19 points in the second 20 minutes.

"It was a tale of two halves," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "The difference in the game was Kara being on the floor in the second half. We need to emphasize her being on the floor for us to be successful."

Spears added seven rebounds, three assists and three steals to her totals. Sophomore point guard Britney Blythe, making her first career start, added seven points and dished out a career-best five assists with no turnovers.

Morris led UMKC with a game-high 23 points and 10 rebounds.

BOULDER — Freshman Julie Seabrook had a big night off the bench, recording career highs with 12 points and 13 rebounds to lift Colorado to a 73-57 victory over Idaho State Tuesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Seabrook, replacing senior Kara Richards who fell into early foul trouble, recorded her first double-double in a season-best 27 minutes.

With the win, Colorado (6-4) records its first three-game winning streak of the season while moving to two games above .500 for the first time since opening the season with two wins.

Seabrook's double-double off the bench was key, but it was a team effort that led the Buffs to victory.

Four other Buffaloes also scored in double digits—the first time Colorado has had five players score in double digits this season. Sophomore Brittany Spears and Richards each tallied a team-high 14 points, Richards doing so in only 15 minutes of floor time. Spears also recorded her third double-double this season grabbing 13 rebounds. Junior Bianca Smith contributed 12 points, nine of which came from behind the 3-point line. Freshman Alyssa Fressle added 11 points of her own.

"I am happy with the balanced scoring," CU coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Most important was the rebounding, assist-to-turnover ratio, and balanced scoring — all were positives for us."

The Buffaloes started and ended the game strong, never allowing the Bengals to take the lead in the game, but the Bengals gave the Buffs a scare early in the second half when they cut the Buffs' lead to only five.

Colorado showed Idaho State (3-10) that it meant business early with a layup from Richards only 15 seconds into the game. A 7-0 run gave Colorado a 19-8 lead at the 13:21 mark. Smith dished out back-to-back treys and Richards added two consecutive buckets from the paint as the Buffs began to pull away.

Richards, who scored more than half of the Buffs' first 19 points, recorded her second foul at the 9:56 mark, and that's when it was Seabrook's turn to step up and take over for Richards under the basket.

"I was happy to come in and fill Kara's shoes and step-up," Seabrook said. It didn't take much time for Seabrook to make her presence known. Not long after fellow freshman Fressle put up three layups in a row, Seabrook kept the freshmen frenzy going by sinking two free throws and putting up a layup of her own. After yet another 3-pointer by Smith, Seabrook grabbed a rebound off a Fressle miss and scored on the put back to put the Buffs up 34-21 with 4:09 left in the first.

Colorado entered the second half with a 13-point cushion (39-26), but the Buffaloes soon saw their lead dwindle as the Bengals started out the second half just as quick as the Buffs had started out the first with a layup by Idaho State junior Oana Iacovita 17 seconds in.

Over the next 3:47, the Bengals went on 6-0 run as the Buffs shot 0-for-7 from the field during that span. The Bengals seemed to have the momentum as they came within just five points of the Buffs lead, but fouls would hurt Idaho State as Colorado recorded 17 of its 34 second-half points off of free throws. Colorado shot 17-for-28 from the line in the second.

Those 17 free throws proved key in helping Colorado regain a steady lead, as the Buffs finished the game with a 16-point advantage.

Three players led Idaho State by scoring in double digits. Freshman Sheila Adams and Colorado native, senior Kara Lambert, both came off the bench to contribute 25 combined points. Adams scored a career-high 15 points, including three baskets from behind the arc. Senior Michelle Grohs added another 13 points for the Bengals.

HONOLULU — Alyssa Fressle scored 16 points and dished out seven assists to lead Colorado to a 63-55 win over Pepperdine Saturday in the first game of the 2008 Paradise Classic at the Stan Sheriff Center on the University of Hawaii campus.

Colorado (7-4) wins its fourth-straight overall and ends a streak of 10 losses in a row away from Boulder dating back to January 2008.

Brittany Spears led all scorers with 18 points and eight rebounds. Kara Richards had 16 points and seven rebounds.

"Our last two games on the road we didn't play Colorado Basketball and we know we're so much better than that," Fressle said. "Being in Hawaii its great not just off the court, but to also prove that we can win on the road."

Fressle, just three points and one assist off her career high, keyed big moments in each half for Colorado. She scored the first five points of a 7-0 run that gave Colorado its first lead at 14-12 in the first half and had big shots in the second as Pepperdine tried to close the gap.

Pepperdine led early 12-7 when Fressle made a baseline jumper to cut the lead to three. After a missed 3-point attempt by Pepperdine's Nakeya Isabell, Spears got the low rebound and immediately found Fressle on the break for the layup. Isabell fouled Fressle, who hit the free throw to tie the game at 12. The foul was costly for the Waves as it was Isabell's second and starting center and leading scorer Miranda Ayim was already on the bench with two of her own.

The Buffaloes took advantage with their best defensive half of the season. Pepperdine scored just one basket over the final 9:36 of the first half and the 17 points scored by the Waves was the lowest half total for a CU opponent this year. Richards scored eight straight points and Fressle hit a couple free throws as the Buffs extended their lead to nine at the half, 26-17.

"We played a very good Pepperdine team today," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We had to work hard and grind that one out. (Ayim and Isabell) got into foul trouble early and our players responded on the defensive end, challenging shots. It was a great team effort."

It was Spears' turn early in the second half as the sophomore scored 10 of CU's first 12 points as the Buffaloes built a 14-point lead (38-24) with 16:15 remaining. But Ayim and Isabell returned to the lineup and kept the game close. Ayim scored 11 of her team-high 15 points in the second half as the Waves cut the CU lead down to 48-44 with 6:44 left.

Richards and Bianca Smith each hit layups to put Colorado back up by eight, but the Waves chipped back to a 5-point deficit at 52-47 with 4:28 remaining. After Spears hit a jumper, Pepperdine answered with a Jazmine Jackson free throw.

Pepperdine, pressuring the Colorado back court all day to the tune of 20 turnovers, looked to get the ball back late again as the Buffaloes were struggling to get a shot off. But Fressle came through one final time, as a 24-foot 3-pointer to beat the shot clock gave the Buffaloes some breathing room at 57-48 just 2:49 left in the game.

Just five players scored for the Buffaloes as Kelly Jo Mullaney had eight off the Bench and Smith finished with five. Colorado had its best overall shooting performance of the season hitting 56.3 percent from the field (27-of-48) while holding Pepperdine to just 37.7 percent for the game (23-of-61).

"Alyssa and Brittany are two players we know we can go to and handle the pressure and make plays," McConnell-Miller said. They have both really made the transition to understanding defensive concepts, stopping scorers and they know what we are trying to accomplish. We saw some great effort on the defensive end and a better understanding of what we are trying to do."

BOULDER- Colorado sophomore Britney Blythe netted a career-high 12 points off of a career-best four 3-pointers, but it was not enough to lift the Buffaloes as they fell to No. 6 (AP)/5 (WBCA) ranked Baylor, 63-50, at the Coors Events/Conference Center Saturday afternoon.

The game was much closer than the final score read as the Buffs (8-5, 0-1 Big 12) trailed the Lady Bears (13-1, 1-0 Big 12) by only two points (50-48) with 7 minutes, 11 seconds remaining in both teams' first conference game of the season. Up until that point, the score had been tied eight times and the lead had changed six times.

But the Lady Bears pulled away in the last 6:52 of the game, going on a 13-2 run.

Right from the get-go, the game would prove to be very intense, and the speed of play quick, for both teams. In the first 4:16 of the game, the Buffs jumped ahead to a 10-6 lead off back-to-back jumpers by junior Bianca Smith and sophomore Brittany Spears, followed by Blythe's first try of the night and another 3-pointer from Spears.

Colorado went into halftime trailing Baylor 35-28, but came out on fire after the half as they went on a 14-1 run over 5:57 to open the second half. Spears started this run with a layup 21 seconds into the half. That's when Blythe went into action nailing three consecutive 3-pointers and earning a standing ovation from the announced crowd of 3,273. Up until today's game, Blythe was only 5-for-33 from behind the arc in her career and 1-for-12 on the season. But she changed those numbers today as she went 4-for-6 from 3-point range, totals also serving as career highs for both 3-point shots and overall from the floor.

Smith followed Blythe's impressive performance with a 3-pointer of her own to give the Buffaloes their biggest lead of the game (42-37), but that's when the tables turned and Baylor followed solid Colorado play with a 12-2 run of their own over the next 3:32. This run brought Baylor ahead 49-44 with less than 10 minutes remaining in the game and the Lady Bears would hold onto this lead until the final buzzer sounded.

The Buffaloes recorded six steals, two blocks, and forced 15 Baylor turnovers on the night, but their strong effort was not enough to stop the explosiveness down low of the Lady Bears who, led by junior Danielle Wilson (16 points), outscored CU 44-14 in the paint, including 18 second chance points and 14 points off fast breaks.

"Baylor's best offense is on second chance opportunities. A lot of their looks are not on what they ran, but on broken plays and missed shots," said CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller. "We're not a front court team and that's where (Baylor) gets their points—in the paint."

Richards finished with a career-high and team season-high 15 rebounds and added nine points. Spears had a team-high 14 points and had six rebounds and two steals. Fressle had eight points, four rebounds and two assists.

Despite the outcome of the game, neither McConnell-Miller nor her players were upset with the team's effort. And they will look for the mental toughness the team showed against Baylor to carry them into the next stretch of games as they take on three more Big 12 South teams, all of which are currently ranked both in the Associated Press and WBCA Coaches polls

STILLWATER, Okla. — A long scoring drought cost Colorado in its season-opener against Baylor and another prolonged drought was the deciding factor again, but this time a lot earlier.

Colorado didn't score for the final 7 minutes, 49 seconds of the first half which allowed No. 22 (AP & WBCA) ranked Oklahoma State to finish the period on a 19-0 run as the Cowgirls claimed a 79-43 decision in a Big 12 Conference game Wednesday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

The Buffaloes (8-6, 0-2) shot just 28 percent in the first half (7-of-25), missing their final seven shots and committing six turnovers. CU had twice as many turnovers (14) as field goals in the period which resulted in 15 points for the Cowgirls.

Oklahoma State (12-3, 1-1 Big 12) meanwhile made 51 percent in the first half and an Andrea Riley 3-pointer to open the second to actually extended the Cowgirl run to 22-0 before Brittany Spears finally ended the Buffaloes drought with a 3-pointer with 17:57 remaining.

Colorado's top two scorers — Spears and Kara Richards — were held to a combined 20 points on 8-of-29 from the floor. Despite a season-low in field goal percentage, Richards (4-of-12) was CU's bright spot on the low post equaling a career-high with 15 rebounds, which she initially set Saturday against Baylor. She added nine points.

Spears led Colorado with 11 points, eight of which came in the second half, and recorded six rebounds, two blocks and two steals.

Oklahoma State scored the first eight points of the game as Riley and Taylor Hardeman each hit 3-pointers. Alyssa Fressle responded for CU with a 3-pointer of her own and a Richards layup settled the Buffaloes down at the start.

The Cowgirls, who made 7-of-11 from the field out of the gate, built their lead up to 17-9 but the Buffaloes were able to claw back. Spears scored her first jumper at 9:47 to cut the OSU lead to 21-15, but Tegan Cunningham cashed in on a turn-around jumper and scored a transition bucket after a CU turnover to give OSU a 10 point advantage.

The transition game served Oklahoma State well. Led by the All-American candidate Riley, the Cowgirls outscored CU 20-4 on the break. Riley recorded her fifth double-double of the season with 18 points and 12 assists. Kristin Hernandez was the game's high-scorer with 19 off the bench for OSU.

Fressle, who finished with nine points, scored at 7:49 on a baseline jumper to cut Oklahoma State's lead to 25-17, but that would be it for the Buffaloes for the half. Hernandez hit back-to-back 3-pointers out of the 8:00 media time out as OSU began its run.

Julie Seabrook had four points and five rebounds off the bench. Bianca Smith and Britney Blythe each had five points.

BOULDER - Colorado sank a season-high 10 buckets from behind the 3-point arc, but it wasn't enough to stop the powerhouse No. 3 (AP)/2 (WBCA) ranked Oklahoma Sooners as the Buffaloes dropped their fourth straight Big 12 Conference game, 72-58, at the Coors Events/Conference Center Wednesday night.

With the loss, Colorado falls to 8-8, 0-4 in the Big 12 while Oklahoma improves to 15-2 and remains atop the league standings undefeated at 4-0.

This marks the Buffaloes first ever 0-4 start to conference play. Oklahoma was the fourth straight ranked Big 12 Southern Division opponent that Colorado has faced to open its league schedule.

"We knew coming in what a tough stretch this was going to be," said CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller. "A lot of teams at this point could have fallen apart and lost their confidence, but there isn't a player on this team that is headed in that direction. We need to get better as a team as a result of these four games."

Despite the final outcome, Colorado held their own against Oklahoma in the first half thanks to consistent 3-point shooting (5-for-8, 62.5 percent) and solid defensive play, including six combined steals from Alyssa Fressle and Brittany Spears. The Buffs defense forced 17 Oklahoma turnovers, 11 of which came in the first half.

Colorado was neck-in-neck with the Sooners throughout the first half. Bianca Smith started the Buffaloes off with back-to-back 3-pointers to put her team up 6-2 just 2 minutes, 53 seconds into the game. CU achieved its biggest lead of the game—7 points (12-5)—after Fressle sank a jumper at the 14:07 mark, but the Sooners followed with a 10-0 run in less than two minutes, edging ahead of the Buffs 17-13 with 9:04 left in the half.

The Buffaloes hit the locker room at halftime tied with the Sooners 28-28 after Spears hit a trey with 38 seconds remaining on the clock.

"At halftime we really felt like we could play with this team," said Spears. "We had a confidence that we could win this game."

But being tied with Colorado was not good enough for the Sooners; so they stepped up at the beginning of the second half to pull away from the Buffs.

Oklahoma stormed to their biggest lead of the game, a 16-point margin (51-35) 7:55 into the second half after a 20-2 run over 5:37.

CU battled back, outscoring OU by six points over the next 3:33, to put themselves within 10 points with just over eight minutes remaining. But the Buffaloes just could not catch the Sooners as they held on to a double-digit lead throughout the rest of the game.

Spears led the Buffaloes with 21 points, including four 3-pointers, tying a career high, six rebounds and four steals. Smith added 15 points on 5-for-8 shooting behind the arc. Fressle tallied 12 points, four steals, and a block.

Four Oklahoma players scored in double digits. All-American Courtney Paris led her team with 19 points, 14 rebounds, and four blocks. Freshman Whitney Hand contributed 13 points, while Danielle Robinson and Ashley Paris added 10 points of their own.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Colorado junior Bianca Smith had a season-high 25 points and tied a school record with seven 3-pointers to lead the Buffaloes to a 61-56 win over Missouri in a Big 12 Conference contest at Mizzou Arena.

Smith hit 7-of-11 from downtown, tying a single-game record that has been achieved a total of six times by four players. Smith, who also hit seven 3-pointers in a win against Texas last year, had five rebounds, four assists and hit a pair of free throws with 7 seconds remaining to ice the game as the Buffaloes (9-8, 1-4 Big 12) claimed their first Big 12 win of the year.

Senior Kara Richards had 15 points on 6-of-8 from the field to go along with nine rebounds. Sophomore Brittany Spears recorded 11 points and a game-high 13 rebounds for her fifth double-double of the season.

Colorado led by as much as 11 in the second half, but the Tigers (10-8, 1-4) clawed their way back on the shoulders of RaeShara Brown and Jessa Johnson. Brown, who had a team high 17 points, hit a free throw with 6:39 left to put Missouri back to within four at 54-50.

After nearly four minutes of scoreless action, which included a combined nine missed field goals and three turnovers by both teams, Smith tied the record with 3-point No. 7 to give CU a 57-50 lead with 2:58 on the clock. Johnson, who ended with 14 points and six rebounds, scored twice for Missouri in the final minutes, including a short jumper which cut the lead to 59-54 with 1:24 left. Richards corralled Alyssa Fressle missed shot and was fouled by Shakara Jones on her way back up, but she missed both free throws. Brown took advantage on the other end scoring in the lane to make it a one possession game, 57-54, with 0:44 left.

Sophomore point guard Britney Blythe, who had two points, three assists and two steals, missed a jumper just inside the free-throw line with the shot clock nearing zero, and -07 left in the contest, but Fressle pulled in the clutch offensive rebound. After Fressle cleared the ball, Brown was forced to foul Smith, who hit both free throws to clinch CU's third straight win over Missouri and third in five total trips to Mizzou Arena.

"I'm really proud of them right now," said Kathy McConnell-Miller, who picked up her 50th win as CU's head coach. "I thought we got a little careless at times in the second half, but we maintained our composure. We told them not to get too high or too low and not to get too excited when (Missouri) makes a run because these things happen."

"I think what you saw was the maturity of this team. Even with (the losses in) the first four games, I promised them we were getting better. We were composed and very passionate tonight against an extremely tough opponent. It was a real confidence booster."

Colorado, which has been prone to falling behind on the road early, did so once again as a 14-4 run gave the Tigers an 18-8 lead at the 13:18 mark of the first half. However, Saturday night the Buffaloes had an answer.

Richards scored 10 of CU's first 17 points, hitting 5-of-5 from the field, and a layup at 8:53 cut the Missouri lead to 20-17. But Richards picked up her second foul on the ensuing Missouri possession and sat for the rest of the half. That's when Smith took over.

Smith hit four 3-pointers after Richards went out of the game as the Buffaloes closed the half on an 18-9 run. After missing her first attempt in the opening minutes, she made her next five in the period, tying the school record for 3-pointers made in one half, a mark she also achieved in last year's Texas game and shares with Kate Fagan and Shelley Sheetz.

BOULDER—Brittany Spears connected on a baseline layup with five seconds remaining in the game to complete a furious Colorado comeback as the Buffaloes beat the Nebraska Cornhuskers 75-73 Saturday afternoon at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

The game was full of runs by both teams. The Buffaloes scored the first five points, but the Cornhuskers responded with an 18-3 run to open a 10-point lead. Bianca Smith scored a 3-pointer for Colorado with Spears right behind her with another two to get the Buffs within five (18-13) with 11:55 remaining in the first half.

Spears led the Buffs with 25 points and nine rebounds while Smith added another 21 points, all of which came from beyond the arc as she matched her school record seven three pointers in the game. It is the second time this season that Smith has scored over 20 and the seventh time for Spears.

Nebraska went on another 7-0 run to build a 12-point lead when once again Smith gave the momentum back to the Buffs. She hit three of her five first half 3-pointers in a one minute span to allow Colorado to crawl back to within six at 28-22.

Nebraska's Cory Montgomery, who had a team-high 24 points and nine rebounds, had an answer to Smith, hitting a 3-pointer of her own to spark the Huskers on a 14-4 run for a 42-28 lead with just under two minutes left.

Despite committing 18 first half turnovers which led to 19 Nebraska points, the Buffaloes narrowed the gap to eight at halftime when Kelly Jo Mullaney drove the length of the court for a layup as the buzzer sounded.

The Buffs came out in the second half looking like a different team. CU cut its turnovers down to eight in the second half and wasted no time, cutting the deficit down to three with a 7-2 run to open the half.

"Most importantly they started to take care of the basketball," head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "[They] had the confidence that we could win."

Nebraska built its lead back up to eight (50-42), but when Smith hit her record-tying seventh 3-pointer at 12:03, it tied the score at 58 and neither team would build a lead of more than three the rest of the contest.

Moments later, Kara Richards scored on a layup to give CU the lead at 62-61, their first since an 8-6 advantage early in the first half.

From the 10-minute mark on, the lead changed six times with two ties thrown in. The Buffaloes held onto the lead for two minutes before the Cornhuskers tied it up at 68 with 4:45 remaining.

That didn't stop the Buffs from answering right back as Mullaney gave CU a 70-68 lead on a jumper with the shot clock winding down. After a Yvonne Turner free throw, Spears gave CU a 72-69 lead on a layup at the other end.

Montgomery hit a pair of free throws to pull Nebraska to within one and the Huskers regained the lead at 73-72 as Turner converted a steal into a bucket on the other end with only 1:20 remaining.

With 49 seconds left in the game, Spears went to the line to tie the game up 73-73. A turnover by Turner on the other end gave Colorado the ball to set up Spears' game winner.

Colorado shot 55 percent in the game, its best mark this season in the Big 12 and second-best percentage of the season.

Richards finished with 14 points and six rebounds while Mullaney had 10 points and four rebounds off the bench.

Dominique Kelley had 16 points while Turner had nine points, seven assists and four steals.

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Kara Richards scored 17 points and grabbed seven rebounds for Colorado but a big Kansas run in the first half was the difference in a 65-54 Jayhawks win in Big 12 Conference action Wednesday night at Allen Fieldhouse.

Kansas (13-7, 2-5 Big 12) rallied for a 21-4 run over the last eight minutes of the first half as the Buffaloes (10-10, 2-6 Big 12) dropped their third straight in Lawrence.

Sophomore Brittany Spears had 10 points and seven rebounds but struggled from the field, along with the rest of the Buffaloes in the first half, missing all seven of her shots in the first 20 minutes. Colorado shot just 29 percent (7-of-24) in the first period and made just 3-of-15 inside the 3-point arc.

Danielle McCray had a game-high 24 points with six rebounds and four assists for Kansas. Sade Morris had 13 points and Aishah Sutherland scored 12 off the bench, hitting 6-of-8 from the field.

Foul trouble hampered the Buffaloes as well. Three Colorado starters Richards, Alyssa Fressle and Spears each had two fouls and Richards was on the bench for the majority of KU's first half run.

Colorado jumped out front early, making its first four 3-point attempts, one each by Fressle, Bianca Smith, Britney Blythe and Courtney Dunn as the Buffaloes led 14-11 at the 8:15 mark.

From there Kansas began to heat up, after making just 5-of-13 to start the game, Kansas made 9-of-14 to close the half. The Jayhawks shot 53 percent overall on the night.

After Dunn's 3-pointer, Morris scored on a layup and Nicolette Smith gave Kansas its first lead at 16-14. Blythe nailed a jumper to tie the game, but KU guard Kelly Kohn came off the bench to hit back-to-back 3-pointers which gave Kansas a 24-16 lead with 3:33 remaining.

Dunn answered with a layup off a Spears pass at the 3:09 mark, but that was it for the Buffaloes as Kansas closed half on an 8-0 run.

Kansas led by as much as 15 in the second half, but Colorado made a late run to keep the game close. Spears and Richards scored 25 of their combined 27 points in the second half and a 10-2 run fueled by the duo cut the Kansas lead to 55-48 with just 4:34 left.

Colorado was much better in the second half from the field, hitting 60 percent (15-of-25).

But Kansas answered every threat from there and its lead never dipped below seven. McCray scored the Jayhawks' final six points to close out the game. Kansas kept pace with CU's shooting, hitting 54 percent of its own in the second half (14-of-26).

BOULDER - A valiant comeback effort from an 18-point first half deficit by Colorado fell just short against No. 21/23 Iowa State as the Cyclones held on for a 53-47 Big 12 Conference win on Saturday afternoon at the Coors/Events Conference Center.

Iowa State wins its fifth straight, improving to 18-4, 6-2 in Big 12 play. Colorado falls to 10-11, 2-7.

The game started out with back and forth scoring and the Buffaloes led by one at the 18:44 mark after a 3-pointer from Alyssa Fressle, but the Cyclones outscored CU 22-5 over the next 8:47 to take command.

The Buffs struggled in the first half against the Cyclones' defense, committing 10 turnovers which led to 14 Iowa State points. The Cyclones capped off their run with eight straight points and led 24-8 mid-way through the first half.

Colorado regained some momentum before halftime. The Buffaloes closed the first half on a 9-0 run of their own. Brittany Spears contributed seven of the nine points while Fressle added another two to close the half 31-22.

"It takes a great deal to overcome that kind of deficit. If you look at in pieces it is actually a doable task," Coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We talked about going into the half and outscoring them by eight from this point on. If you look at it as coming back from 18 points, it looks like a much larger deficit than it really is."

The Buffs came out of the locker room for the second half with a new found energy. Colorado wasted no time in cutting the spread to five in the first 3:14 of the second period. Fressle, who

COLLEGE STATION, Texas –The weather was warm in South Texas Saturday, approaching the mid 60's, but the shooting on the Reed Arena floor was anything but for Colorado.

The Buffaloes shot just 30 percent from the field as No. 8 (AP)/12 (WBCA) Texas A&M opened up a big early lead en route to a 79-50 Big 12 Conference victory.

Colorado (10-12, 2-8 Big 12) drops its third straight game overall and 17th straight on the road against a Big 12 Southern Division foe, Texas A&M (19-5, 7-4 Big 12) rebounds from a loss at Texas Tech earlier in the week for its 10th win at home in 11 tries this season.

Sophomore Brittany Spears had a game-high 25 points and recorded her second straight double-double by adding 10 rebounds, but she was Colorado's only player to reach double-digits. Senior Kara Richards had seven points and seven rebounds while Kelly Jo Mullaney had six points off the bench.

Unable to get its inside game established early, Colorado went to the outside but made just one of its first 12 field goal attempts, a Spears drive and layup, as Texas A&M built a 20-4 lead in the first 10 minutes.

The Buffaloes fell into foul trouble as well. Starting guard Alyssa Fressle had three early fouls and was held to just two points on 1-of-6 from the field before fouling out with 9:25 left. Junior Bianca Smith, the Big 12's second leading 3-point shooter, was nearly shut out, missing her first four shots, three from downtown, before hitting a 3-pointer in the closing minutes for her only points.

Colorado made just 17-of-56 from the floor on the afternoon and made just 8-of-28 (.286) in the first half. Texas A&M meanwhile shot 44 percent in the first half, hitting on 15-of-34. Danielle Gant scored all 12 of her points in the first half as the Aggies led 38-16 at the break.

Even Spears was not immune to CU's shooting bug. Despite scoring 10 of CU's 16 first-half points, was 5-of-15 from the floor in the first period and finished the game with nine field goals on a career-high 26 attempts.

A 9-0 run early in the second half gave the Buffaloes some life. With Texas A&M leading 50-24 with 15:52 remaining in the game, Spears scored on a layup and hit a 3-pointer following an Aggie turnover. CU freshman Julie Seabrook hit a pair of free throws and Mullaney scored a driving bucket after an A&M miss to cut the Aggies' lead to 50-33 with 13:32 left.

Attempting to cut the lead down even further, Colorado missed its next four shots. Texas A&M then regrouped and put the game away. Sydney Colson broke A&M's scoring drought and Takia Starks scored six straight as the Aggies answered CU's spurt with a 9-0 run of their own.

"I don't think (Colorado) quit once," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "There wasn't one possession (that they did). I thought they played really hard. We were just outmatched. If we can take what we learn from this game and get better for our next opponent which is Kansas. If they show up on Monday with Colorado on their chest, they have responded. They have put this game behind and we have grown in areas that we needed to grow."

Texas A&M had four players score in double-digits led by Tanisha Smith who had a double-double off the bench, finishing with 15 points and 10 rebounds. Tyra White had 12 and Starks ended with 11.

Seabrook had a personal Big 12 high six rebounds off the bench. Sophomore Chelsea Dale pulled in three rebounds in a career-most 14 minutes. Texas A&M out-rebounded Colorado 50-32.

BOULDER – Four Colorado players scored in double digits to lift the Buffaloes to a 69-62 win over Kansas in a Big 12 Conference battle Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

With tonight's victory, Colorado redeems itself after a 65-54 loss to the Jayhawks in Lawrence two weeks ago. The Buffaloes (11-12, 3-8) now pull ahead of Kansas (13-11, 2-9) in Big 12 play and remain in a tie for ninth place with Missouri, a 52-43 winner over No. 16 Kansas State on Wednesday.

Junior Bianca Smith and sophomore Brittany Spears each knocked down a game-high 18 points. Smith shot 4-for-6 from 3-point range and contributed three steals and an assist. Spears also tallied seven rebounds, three steals, and a block. Sophomore guard Kelly Jo Mullaney, who started for the first time in 15 games, gave the Buffs great intensity and hustle on the floor.

CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller was very happy with Mullaney's performance: "The sets we run with her in, we were able to push the ball. A lot of our points early on were off transition offense. I'm definitely happy with what Kelly Jo brought today," she said.

Mullaney saw 38 minutes of playing time and added a personal Big 12-best 13 points, an assist, and a steal.

Senior center Kara Richards recorded her first double-double of the season and the third of her career with 10 points and 10 rebounds on the night. Richards also logged a season-high three steals.

It was an intense game right from the get-go. CU jumped out to top first after a Smith steal set up Mullaney and freshman Alyssa Fressle for a fastbreak give-and-go which ended with a three-point play after Mullaney was fouled on her layup and netted the basket and the extra point. CU outscored the Jayhawks 10-2 to open the game.

The Buffs jumped ahead to as much as a 12-point lead in the first half, but the Jayhawks shut the Buffs out for 6 minutes and 35 seconds. Kansas came within one point of Colorado's lead on this run, but the Buffs stayed on top until half, entering the locker room with a 31-28 margin.

CU held onto its lead in the second half until the 8:53 mark when Jayhawk Nicolette Smith shot a trey from downtown giving Kansas a 50-48 lead, its first of the game.

The game was back-and-forth over the next 7:20 and no team held more than a four-point lead. The Buffs and Jayhawks were tied with just over two minutes left, but successful free throw shooting allowed CU to pull ahead as the team went 9-for-10 from the charity stripe to close out the game.

Senior Hannah Skildum gave the Buffs a spark off the bench tonight, contributing four points, two rebounds, an assist, a steal, and a career-high three blocks in 14 minutes of play.

With tonight's performance, Spears became the fifth player in CU history to score 400 points in each of her first two seasons and only the fourth to do it as an underclassman.

Smith led Kansas with a team-high 15 points, Krysten Boogaard added 13, and Danielle McCray and Sade Morris contributed 11 and 10 points respectively

AMES, Iowa. — Senior Kara Richards had 21 points and 10 rebounds, but hot Iowa State shooting led to a 76-63 win for the No. 25 (AP)/24 (WBCA) ranked Cyclones over Colorado in Big 12 Conference action Wednesday night at Hilton Coliseum.

Colorado (11-14, 3-10) dropped its sixth straight against Iowa State (20-7, 8-5) who had been coming off a sub-par shooting performance, making just 27 percent from the field and only 3-of-16 from 3-point range in their last game, a 58-47 loss at Kansas on Sunday.

Wednesday the Cyclones were 10-of-20 from 3-point range, led by Kelsey Botte who was 5-of-6 from downtown and finished with a game-high 23 points.

Iowa State also took full advantage of its trips to the foul line. The Cyclones hit 24 straight free-throw attempts before missing their last two. By contrast, the Buffaloes took just seven shots from the charity stripe, making five.

Kelly Jo Mullaney scored a career-high 20 points, 17 of which came in the first half, on 8-of-11 from the field. She hit all four 3-point attempts, also a career high.

Botte hit her first three 3-point attempts to help the Cyclones build an early 14-8 lead. Mullaney then went on a tear. The sophomore guard hit her first seven attempts from the field, including three 3-pointers. She scored 13 in a row to lead the Buffaloes back and when Richards connected on a layup with 6:12 left, Colorado took its first lead of the game at 25-24.

Alison Lacey and Ashley Arlen answered with back-to-back 3-pointers and Iowa State went on an 8-0 run to take a 32-25 advantage. Richards brought the Buffs back to within five at halftime, 36-31, scoring CU's last eight points of the period.

Brittany Spears scored the first four points of the second half to cut the Iowa State lead to one (36-35), but Iowa State broke open the game with a 14-1 run over the next four minutes. Colorado got the lead back down to 10 at 52-42 after consecutive 3-pointers by Bianca Smith and Alyssa Fressle, but Lacey hit a 3-pointer to spark a 21-9 ISU run.

Fressle had eight points and tied a career-high and team season high with eight assists. The Cyclones held Spears, CU's leading scorer, to just eight points on 3-of-10 from the field.

Lacey had 20 points for the Cyclones, including 10-of-10 from the free-throw line. Nicky Wieben had 19 points and two blocks.

BOULDER- The University of Colorado women's basketball team fell behind early and was never able to gain the lead as they dropped their third straight game, losing to the University of Missouri 66-55 at the Coors Events/Conference Center Saturday afternoon.

Colorado drops into last place in the Big 12 at 3-11, 11-15 overall. Missouri improves to 13-14, 4-10.

"This was a very disappointing game," CU Head Coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We started flat and I thought we finished flat...From start to finish they played with more energy than we did."

The Tigers are among the league leaders in turnover margin and Colorado found this out first hand as MU scored 32 of its points off 23 CU turnovers.

Sophomore Brittany Spears put up a game-high 26 points and senior Kara Richards recorded her third double-double in the past four games with 12 points and 10 rebounds, but their efforts just were not enough to dent Missouri's lead.

Mizzou caught the Buffs off guard as they stormed to a 13-2 lead less than five minutes into the game. During this run, the Tigers forced five Colorado turnovers, netting 11 of their 13 points off CU giveaways—two of which came from MU steals.

Not only did Colorado have trouble hanging onto the ball, but the Buffaloes also had a hard time getting their shots to fall. They made only one of their first five attempts, a jumper by sophomore Kelly Jo Mullaney at the 17:38 mark.

Spears helped the Buffs narrow the gap, as she led her team on a 7-0 run in the last 1:45 to close out the half. First she threaded a perfect pass to Courtney Dunn who broke free under the basket for a layup. Spears followed this with a deep 3-pointer and then a driving layup with nine seconds left in the half.

When the halftime buzzer sounded, the Buffs only trailed by four (33-29).

But the second half didn't go Colorado's way as they shot only 32 percent from the field (8-for-25) and 25 percent from behind the 3-point arc (3-for-12) during the last 20 minutes.

Mizzou out-rebounded CU 35-31 on the game, including 14 offensive rebounds—11 of which came in the last 8:16.

"We just didn't dig enough or get the rebounds," McConnell-Miller said. "They had too many second and third opportunities in the last two minutes."

Junior Jessa Johnson led the Tigers with 19 points. Three other players also finished in double digits: Alyssa Hollins (14), RaeShara Brown (14), and Shakara Jones (12).

BOULDER - Kansas State senior guard Shalee Lehning had a triple double as the No. 21 (WBCA) Wildcats defeated Colorado 71-61 Saturday afternoon at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

With the loss, Colorado (11-17, 3-13 Big 12) will be the No. 12 seed in the upcoming Big 12 Conference Championship and will play a first round game on Thursday, March 12, at 12:30 p.m. MST at the COX Convention Center in Oklahoma City.

Lehning had 16 points, 12 assists and 11 rebounds for her first triple-double in Big 12 play.

Senior center Kara Richards, in her final home game, led CU with 19 points and eight rebounds. Sophomore Brittany Spears had 18 points and seven rebounds.

Kansas State (23-6, 10-6 Big 12) shot 48 percent in the first half and made 5-of-9 from 3-point range as the Wildcats built a 14-point lead in the first half.

Colorado was able to erase that deficit by the end of the half as the Buffaloes went on a 19-5 run to close the period. Spears scored six points during the run and Kelly Jo Mullaney added five points, including a 3-pointer with 2:17 remaining in the half to cut the KSU lead to 35-30.

Spears then stole the ball in the backcourt and laid it in to cut the lead to three. After Ashley Sweat hit a pair of free throws, Spears answered with another layup. The Buffaloes got a defensive stop and completed the comeback when Bianca Smith was fouled by Sweat on a 3-point attempt and sank all three free-throws for a 37-37 deadlock at the half.

However, the Wildcats did not let the Buffs' comeback shake them. In the second half, Kansas State came out tough and ready to play, scoring the first six points and pushing the lead back up to double digits in the first six minutes with an 18-6 run.

Lehning scored six points and dished out another two assists on that run to break the game open.

"The difference in the game was Shalee Lehning," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said, "I think 12 assists is exceptional. You feel like you have them figured out, but she finds a way. When she comes out with a triple double like that it's hard to combat. They're a great team, but we need to play better."

Marties Gipson had a game-high 21 points for Kansas State and grabbed eight rebounds. Sweat finished with 13 points and six rebounds.

Freshman guard Alyssa Fressle added 10 points and three steals for Colorado.

OKLAHOMA CITY - No. 22 (AP)/21 (WBCA) Kansas State made the most of second opportunities and takeaways to claim a 68-51 win over Colorado in the first round of the 2009 Big 12 Championship tournament at the COX Convention Center.

The 12th seeded Buffaloes end their season at 11-18, losing their last six and nine of their last 10. No. 5 seed Kansas State moves on to face No. 4 Texas A&M in the quarterfinal round Friday afternoon.

Sophomore Brittany Spears scored 23 points and senior center Kara Richards had 22, but that was it for the Colorado offense as the other 10 players who entered the game accounted for just six points.

"I don't think you are going to be very good with only two people scoring," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We have needed more scorers all year. We have not had a consistent third scorer and teams have changed the way they play us."

Kansas State held a 32-21 edge on the boards and grabbed 17 on the offensive end which resulted in 15 Wildcat points. Colorado also committed 17 turnovers which led to 19 Wildcat points.

Spears became the 22nd player in CU history to reach 1,000 points, reaching the milestone on a 3-pointer late in the game. She is the second-quickest to reach 1,000 in team history (63 games) and only the second sophomore to do it, joining Lisa Van Goor.

Kansas State overcame a cold start to quickly build a double-digit lead, with the Wildcats holding a 36-19 halftime advantage.

The Wildcats missed their first four shots, but made 10 of their next 14 to go ahead 24-8 on a layup by Sweat with 9:45 left in the half. Kansas State pushed its lead to 19 on a buzzer-beating jumper by Kelsey Nelson.

Colorado had 11 turnovers in the half, negating a solid effort by the 6-foot-4 Richards, who went 5 of 7 from the field and scored 11 of the Buffs' 17 points.

Despite implementing traps and presses on defense, Colorado came no closer than 15 points in the second half. Colorado pulled within 48-33 on a free throw by Richards with 11 minutes left, but Shalee Lehning answered with a 3-pointer, Ashley Sweat followed with a driving layup and Marties Gipson added two free throws to extend Kansas State's lead to 22 points.

Sweat finished with 19 points. Kari Kincaid and Gipson each had 14.

2008-09 SEASON IN REVIEW

Colorado battled through one of the toughest schedules in 35 years of women's basketball in 2008-09. The Buffaloes played in 11 games against ranked teams, the second most in team history and played 17 games in 2008-09 against teams that would go on to qualify for NCAA or WNIT postseason play.

The Buffaloes were 8-5 during the nonconference portion of their schedule, highlighted with wins over Colorado State and 2009 NCAA participant UCF and by capturing the 2009 Paradise Classic tournament title in Honolulu. Colorado defeated Pepperdine and Hawaii on back-to-back afternoons to win the tournament.

Playing in the nation's toughest conference was no more evident than the opening stretch of the 2009 league schedule. CU played four straight games against ranked teams to open the conference season including home games against regular season champion Oklahoma and tournament champion Baylor.

The Buffaloes picked up their first Big 12 win of the season on the road against Missouri and claimed home wins over Nebraska and Kansas during the league season. CU's 75-73 win over Nebraska was a thrilling nationally televised affair in which the Buffaloes rebounded from a 14-point deficit to win in the final seconds.

Colorado completed its 35th season of women's basketball with an overall record of 11-18 and a 12th place finish in the Big 12 Conference at 3-13.

Sophomore guard/forward Brittany Spears led Colorado and ranked third overall in the Big 12 in scoring at 18.3 points per game, the sixth best single-season scoring average in team history. She became just the second CU player to reach 1,000 career points as a sophomore, joining CU Athletic Hall of Famer Lisa Van Goor, and her 530 points this season were the ninth most in team history.

Spears had 12 games with 20 or more points and logged eight double-doubles, five of which came during Big 12 play. She had the highest individual scoring output in the Big 12 in 2008-09, notching 36 against UMass in the first round of the Coors Classic, a Classic record and tying for the third best total in team history (Jasmina Ilic scored 36 against Nebraska on Jan. 4, 2006). Spears ranked second in the Big 12 in minutes (35.4 mpg), seventh in overall rebounding (7.8 rpg), eighth in steals (1.9 spg) and in 3-point percentage (.328), ninth in blocks (1.1 bpg), 10th in field-goal percentage (.434), 12th in 3-pointers made (1.5 3mpg) and 14th in free-throw percentage (.721).

Kara Richards

Senior center Kara Richards led the Big 12 in field-goal accuracy at 57.7 percent (153-of-265) while ranking second on the team in scoring (13.5 ppg) and rebounding (7.1 rpg). Over the final six games she is averaged a team-best 20.2 points per contest while shooting 60.8 percent from the field (48-of-79). She ranked 10th in rebounding and scoring in the final Big 12 standings. She had three of her five career double-doubles in the last seven games, including a 12-point, 10-rebound effort against Missouri. Richards had five double-digit rebounding efforts this year, all coming during Big 12 games including back-to-back games of 15 rebounds to start the conference season. Richards was named to the Paradise Classic All-Tournament team averaging 14 points and seven rebounds while hitting 71 percent from the field (12-of-17). Richards eclipsed the 20 point mark six times, and four times in the final six games.

Bianca Smith

Junior guard Bianca Smith was third on the team in scoring at 9.2 points per contest and was Colorado's leading 3-point shooter with 63 on the season, ranking third in the Big 12 (2.2 3mpg). Smith had one of the most memorable stretches in team history in January making 20-of-33 (.606) over a four-game span. During that four game run, Smith twice tied the school record for 3-pointers made in a game (7) and in one half (5). She had five games of 5-plus 3-pointers this season and hit 50 percent or better from 3-point range in nine games. Named to the Paradise Classic All-Tournament team, Smith had a game-high 23 points against Hawaii on 6-of-7 from 3-point range, a personal best from downtown in terms of accuracy.

True freshman guard Alyssa Fressle gave the Buffaloes good all-around play. Fressle led all Big 12 freshmen in steals (1.8 spg), assists (3.4 apg) and minutes (30.9 mpg) and was third in scoring at 7.7 per game. Overall in the conference rankings she was ninth in assists, 10th in steals and 11th assist-to-turnover ratio (0.9).

Spears was named to the All-Big 12 Conference second team while Richards was an honorable mention selection. Fressle was named to the All-Big 12 Rookie Team. Richards and senior Hannah Skildum were named to the Academic All-Big 12 team.

Spears earned team Offensive Player of the Year honors while Fressle was named Defensive Player of the Year and the Rookie of the Year. Richards was the recipient of the Most Improved Player and Ultimate Team awards. Skildum earned the "Sixth-Man" Award and the Crystal Ford Adams Scholar-Athlete Award. Whitney Houston earned the team's Community Service Award while Chelsea Dale earned the Practice Player Award.

A black and white action shot from a basketball game. In the foreground, a player wearing a white jersey with 'COLORADO' and the number '1' is dribbling the ball with her right hand. She is looking intently towards the left. Behind her, a player in a dark jersey with 'KANSAS' and the number '45' is attempting to defend. The background is slightly blurred, showing spectators in the stands. The basketball has the 'Rawlings' logo visible.

1,000 POINT SCORERS

Just 22 players own membership in CU's 1,000 point club in 35 seasons of Colorado women's basketball. Jeannie Raikes was the first to do so, reaching her 1,000th point on Dec. 20, 1980. Lisa Van Goor was the fastest player to reach 1,000 points, getting there in just 55 games and the first sophomore ever at CU to accomplish the feat. Current CU standout Brittany Spears joined her last season, reaching 1,000 in her 63rd game; the final game of her sophomore season. Seven players have reached 1,000 points as juniors: Shelley Sheetz, Tracy Tripp, Erin Carson, Bridget Turner, Erin Scholz, Tera Bjorklund and Jackie McFarland.

Lisa Van Goor

Yankton, S.D. (1980-83, 85)

2,067 Points

1,000th point scored on January 23, 1982 against Utah, her 55th career game at CU. The first sophomore ever to reach 1,000 points in CU history.

1,000 POINTS, 1,000 REBOUNDS

Only three players in CU history have recorded 1,000 career rebounds, coincidentally all three are 1,000 point scorers making this 1,000-1,000 double club an exclusive list. Lisa Van Goor ranks first in both categories scoring 2,067 points and grabbing 1,145 rebounds from 1980-85. Erin Scholz is CU's second-best career rebounder with 1,067 and is fifth in career scoring with 1,621 points from 1993-97. Jackie McFarland is CU's third all-time rebounder with 1,049 and second all-time scorer with 1,957 points from 2004-08.

Card sharks: CU in West final

CU gives Stanford defensive lesson

New Stanford knows what Colorado Buffs coach Fran Smith doesn't just Saturday. The Colorado Lady Buffs' defense is second in none.

"It's never as good as any team," Smith said in the wake of CIF's 8-0-4 NCAA Tournament second-round win over the Grizzlies in the Sports Center. Thursday night in Menlo Park, Calif., the Lady Buffs gave Stanford a defensive lesson the Cardinal won't forget for a long time.

As a result, there will be a new memory: national champion in 1992 and Stanford won't be in the Final Four for the first time in four years.

Colorado coach Vicki Spencer said if her team could not take the lightening Cardinal to halftime in any game, the Lady Buffs would make it to Saturday night's West Regional final. She was prophetic: Stanford scored 40 points and led by 24 in the eighth, the largest win in the 18 years Colorado has been playing women's basketball.

The Lady Buff defense was as tight as the lead of 20 minutes at the second end, after Stanford had gone alone 34-0.

From that point until the Cardinal hit

Mack deflates with clutch free throws

Colorado staff report

STANFORD, Mont. — Stephanie Mack, with her poise, was dramatically remembered in the highlight reel by history for the Colorado Lady Buffs.

As were Jennifer Smith and Jennifer Lutz who came through with big shots and baskets in CU's 40-0 triumph over Stanford Thursday night in the West regional semifinals. But with the game on the line, it was second star Stephanie Mack stepped in for the 10th time in the final 10th and converted one of the clutch free throws to help send CU to the national quarterfinal championship game.

CU's Lady Buffs, coached by

Fran Smith, defeated Stanford 40-0 in the second half and Mack, through the best basketball CU coach, stepped in 12 of 12 foul shots for the game and the all-around 8 of 10 clutch free throws to help send CU to the national quarterfinal championship game.

Shoots scores 28; Lady Buffs knock off West's top seed

STANFORD, Mont. — The Colorado Lady Buffs took their team back strongly as a power in women's basketball. They took the night they showed it to the rest of the nation.

CU, which made its first visit to the Sweet 16 since 1987, defeated the second-ranked Stanford Cardinal 40-0 in the West Regional semifinals at the Sports Center in Stanford, Calif.

The Lady Buffs will try to reach the Final Four in the quarterfinals on Saturday at 9 p.m. Much may say "This is the best game I've ever seen."

Stanford leading 18-0 to start the game and 14-0 at the end of the first half.

The first thing we wanted to do was show Stanford," Lady Buff head coach Fran Smith said. "We didn't want the score to be 18-0. Our goal was to hold them down 18 and 14 points, but that is not good with surprise we play."

She was one of a coach's choices to hold in the game. Our kids did a great job of sticking to our game plan even when we were in a hole.

After a sleepless night of calling it the best game I've ever seen, he was leaving the "sports of hell" to the CU student who was in the hallways. CU scored in within 30 to 35 minutes.

Colorado's 80-67 win over No. 6 Stanford on March 25, 1993, put the Buffaloes in the first of their three Elite Eight appearances.

^Conference Tournament

Colorado's 69-55 win over Wyoming on Dec. 5, 2007, gave the Buffs their first win over a ranked opponent in four seasons.

A black and white action photograph of a basketball game. A player in a light-colored jersey with 'BUFFALOES' and the number '2' is jumping high, holding a basketball with both hands above her head, preparing to shoot. She is looking upwards. A defender in a light-colored jersey with 'WILDCATS' and the number '4' is also jumping, reaching up with her right arm extended towards the shooter's hands in an attempt to block the shot. The background shows a blurred crowd of spectators in bleachers.

CU breaks Cardinal rule

Lady Buffs stop defending champs

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Sherry Sheets scored 18 points and Stephanie Mack made the key free throw to lead Colorado to its first victory in the game as Colorado broke the Cardinal rule of defending champs.

RULE: Lady Buffs too tough

Any Mather grabbed two key offensive rebounds on one possession for Colorado and passed the second time to Sheets, who nailed a 3-pointer for a 64-61 lead with 3:06 remaining.

"I was thinking she better make that shot after all that," said Mather.

On the next possession, Sheets hit a jumper to give Colorado a 5-point lead.

"Stanford is a great team with their tradition and all, but we just played with a lot of heart and believed in ourselves," Sheets said.

Stanford was forced to foul, and Colorado hit 14 of 16 free throws in the last two minutes. Stephanie Mack connected on 9 of 10 during that stretch and

COLORADO 80, STANFORD 67

COLORADO (10-1) defeated Stanford (10-1) 80-67 in the first round of the Elite Eight tournament. Colorado's victory ended Stanford's 10-game winning streak. Colorado's victory was the first since 1987. Colorado's victory was the first since 1987.

finished with 12 points.

For the game, Colorado hit 29 of 36 from the line, while Stanford was 9 of 16.

Henry and Lang each scored 15 points each for Colorado.

Val Whiting led Stanford with 21 points and 11 rebounds, while Molly Goodenbour added 13 points, Christy Hedges 11 and Rachel Hemmer 10.

TEXAS TECH 87, USC 67

Sheryl Swoopes scored 32 points on her 21st birthday in leading Southwest Conference champion Texas Tech to its seasonal victory over Southern California.

Swoopes, who entered the game averaging nearly 27 points and 9 rebounds, also had 11 boards in Tech's victory.

REGULAR SEASON CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

1989 Big Eight Champions
(14-0)

Basketball, as in life, offers its share of firsts. And the 1988-89 season was no exception. The Buffs would open the pre-season with a 10-3 showing, including the program's first win over Louisiana Tech. The 61-60 win would be Colorado's first over a No. 2 ranked team and Barry would use that win to catapult the Buffs to a 20-game win streak that would come to a halt during the NCAA Tournament. But not before the Buffs would claim the Big Eight Conference's first undefeated regular season (14-0) title, their first tournament title and lay claim to the program's first conference player-of-the-year in Bridget Turner.

1994 Big Eight Champions
(12-2)

Colorado would graduate five seniors and reload with seven newcomers and leave the league's coaches to believe that they couldn't repeat its feats from the previous year. Although the nation's experts pegged the Buffs the No. 4 preseason team in the country, in the preseason Big Eight coaches poll, the Buffs would be picked to finish behind Kansas come March. Well, the exact opposite happened. Colorado would go 12-2 in conference competition and the preseason player-of-the-year would take a seat behind CU senior Jamillah Lang, crowned the 1994 conference queen.

1993 Big Eight Champions
(12-2)

A team little known to anyone outside the conference circles, the Buffs would take the nation by storm as they took a pre-season No. 25 ranking to No. 9 by March. A 15-game win streak to open the season would turn heads as CU was the country's seventh-ranked team when it opened the Big Eight campaign—a convincing 61-33 win over Kansas State in Boulder. The Buffs would live up to their preseason expectations to take the conference title, although few probably thought they would do it so convincingly, outscoring their league opponents by an average of more than 15 points a game.

1995 Big Eight Champions
(14-0)

If the 1989 conference season was a season of firsts, then the '95 campaign was when the Buffs would prove that history can repeat itself, and still provide some firsts. Following a 5-2 start, Colorado would go on a 25-game win streak, including the league's only second unblemished 14-0 conference record. Colorado's 74-71 win at Kansas State in the conference finale would put the seal on the league's only regular season conference three-peat and second straight conference player-of-the-year award winner in Shelley Sheetz. As they did in the 1993 postseason, the '95 Buffs would be the conference's second team to advance to a regional final in NCAA play.

NCAA ACTION

Bufs step on Heels

CU women roll to Sweet 16 as Buffs' 34-point burst steamrolls North Carolina

The Buffs have made 12 trips to March Madness, including six straight in the 1990s (one of 15). When Ceal Barry and the Buffs reached the pinnacle as the No. 1 seed in the Midwest Region in 1995, it was a first for Colorado and the Big Eight Conference.

The fans in Boulder came out in full force for the 1995 Midwest Region first and second rounds, selling out the Buffs' games against Holy Cross and Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) with a then-NCAA record 11,072 for each contest.

From 1993 to 1997, Colorado had one of the more impressive NCAA Tournament runs going 10-5 and advancing to three Sweet 16s and two Elite Eight rounds.

In fact, the Buffs were only one of 10 schools to advance to at least four Sweet 16s in that span and one of 11 to advance to the elite round of eight.

Colorado has played host to one or more rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship in 11 different seasons including 1992 where the Buffaloes hosted a first round session as well as the Midwest Regional. CU has hosted two NCAA tournaments at the Pepsi Center in Denver; the 2001 Midwest Regional and 2006 first and second round games.
