BOULDER - They needed maybe 5 extra minutes to get untracked, but once they did the Colorado Buffaloes produced a tantalizing tip-off to the Linda Lappe Era in women's basketball.

CU overran Regis 76-38 Friday night at the Coors Events Center, giving Lappe a victorious debut on the same court where she starred for CU Hall of Fame inductee Ceal Barry before finishing her collegiate eligibility in 2003.

"It's always great to get the first one," Lappe said. "We had some early-game jitters, but that's normal. We picked it up midway through the first half . . . and it started with our defense."

The Buffs' post and transition defense improved as the night went on, and once they settled down, their offense wasn't too shoddy either.

Four Buffs players reached double figures, led by senior Brittany Spears with 20 points. Senior guard Britney Blythe scored a career-high 15 points, including a career-best five three-pointers. Sophomore Chucky Jeffery contributed a double-double - 13 points and 12 rebounds. She also had a game-high six assists and six steals, while sophomore Meagan Malcolm-Peck added 10 points.

Jeffery called her diverse role in the opening-night "real fun . . . it's not too much about scoring for me. I'm big on the assist game now . . . it's good to know I can pass to my teammates and they'll knock down the shot."

Spears said the win "felt good. It always feels good with a win . . . we know we're playing for each other."

That thought will have to stay in their minds as the season unfolds.

Lappe's team opened the season with a sparsely populated bench. She knew academics would sideline senior guard/forward Chelsea Dale for the fall semester and that sophomore guard/forward Brenna Malcolm-Peck's hyper-extended left knee would keep her out of the lineup indefinitely.

But on Friday, top recruit Shae Kelley, an athletic forward from Denver East, informed Lappe she was leaving the program for personal reasons. In the Buffs' 93-62 exhibition tour of Western State a week prior to the opener, Kelley came off the bench to score 22 points on 11-of-14 shooting from the field.

That turned out to be her lone appearance in a CU uniform in the Events Center. As a result, CU suited up eight players to face Regis in Lappe's debut.

"It leaves us in a tough situation," she said. "But our players are great . . . with eight players, everybody has got to contribute. We just have to be in great shape . . . these guys played a lot of minutes. But we work hard all off-season for that. It leads to some great team chemistry; we'll use it as positive."

Lappe said she "wishes Shae the best of luck, but we're focused on our team and getting better every day."

CU opened slowly and frigidly, hitting just one of its first six field goal attempts in the first 4:15 and falling behind 8-2. But after they caught the Rangers at 8-8, the Buffs began to take off.

They went ahead 17-10, then allowed Regis to climb back as close as 17-16 before Blythe & Co. put the hammer down by hitting three consecutive three-pointers. Malcolm-Peck opened the onslaught with a three with 5:55 remaining before halftime, and Blythe followed with back-to-back treys.

For Blythe, a 5-9 senior from Mateo, Calif., her three-pointer with 5:20 left in the half were her first official points since Feb. 14, 2009 at Texas A&M. (She scored nine in CU's exhibition win against Western State.)

Blythe said she "felt good, but I'm not thinking about shooting - unless things are open."

After their 8-8 tie, the Buffs outscored the Rangers 34-9, including a 25-1 run in the first half's final 5:55. The score at intermission: CU 42, Regis 17.

And the Buffs weren't done. They scored the first 13 points of the second half, taking a 55-17 lead with 15:30 to play. The Rangers got their first points of the second half on a three-point play Salina Kuiper with 15:10 remaining, but by then it was 55-20 and CU was looking at a name-your-number opening night.

DENVER - University of Denver's Britteni Rice scored nine of her team-high 19 points from the free-throw line, including six in the closing seconds as the Pioneers edged the University of Colorado 70-69 Tuesday night at Magness Arena.

Brittany Spears led Colorado (1-1) with 24 points and 10 rebounds, her 23rd career double-double. Meagan Malcolm-Peck had 14 points, five rebounds and three double-doubles.

DU (1-1) and Colorado went back-and-forth, 10 ties, 15 lead changes and just six points - two possessions - was the largest margin for either team. But a few costly CU mistakes down the stretch and Denver's ability to capitalize was the difference. Colorado made six of its first eight shots from the field and Spears' third 3-pointer in the first nine minutes gave Colorado a 17-12 lead.

But turnovers hurt the Buffaloes. Denver pressed, giving CU's back court some problems which turned into easy buckets. The Pioneers scored 14 points of 14 first half CU turnovers and led 32-29 at the break.

The Buffaloes continued to keep the Pioneers within reach early in the second half and momentum began to swing when CU amped up the defensive effort and began to return the favor.

"We pressured them," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "We became the aggressors on defense, which is how we need to play the entire game, but it really spurred our run and we were able to get some easy baskets."

After DU held its largest lead of the game at 52-46, CU's defense sparked a 9-0 run. Spears scored first on a put back and after a stop Malcolm-Peck drilled a 3-pointer to pull CU to within one at 52-51. Spears then recorded steals on back-to-back possessions, the first resulting in a coast-to-coast layup and the second ending in a Malcolm-Peck bucket as CU led 55-52 with 5:31 left.

But shortly after, momentum took a swift shift back to Denver. The Buffaloes played 29 seconds of solid defense on the other end and had DU needing to get a shot on rim off an inbound play with just one second left on the shot clock. DU found its leading scorer Kaetlyn Murdoch, but she missed a shot from the elbow. Pioneer Brianna Culberson won a struggle for the rebound with Malcolm-Peck. The CU sophomore was called for a foul, but the setback was compounded by a technical foul call on Spears who batted the ball away in frustration.

Rice made one of two shots, and on the ensuing possession, Murdoch was fouled and made the subsequent free throws to tie the game up at 55 with 4:56 remaining.

The Buffaloes fought to claim a 62-61 with just 2:13 remaining and had the ball but couldn't extend their lead despite having three chances on the same possession. Spears missed two short range jumpers and Malcolm-Peck couldn't quite stick the put back as Rice finally corralled the rebound and was fouled.

She made both foul shots to give DU a 63-62 lead with 1:09 left. Colorado once again had three chances at regaining the lead, but couldn't connect. Rice, once again corralled the rebound, this time off a Malcolm-Peck 3-point attempt, was fouled and sank another pair of free throws with 39 seconds on the clock to put the Pioneers up 65-62.

The Buffaloes were unable to get a quality shot off on the other end. Murdoch, who survived early foul trouble to score 17 points, followed Rice's lead with a pair of free throws to give DU a two-possession lead at 67-62.

"We fought hard," Lappe said. "We could have folded a few times in this game, down five a couple different times, and really fought back. I thought we had a lot of momentum down the stretch, then a couple possessions where things didn't quite go our way and we weren't quite able to bounce back from that."

CU freshman Brittany Wilson made a pair of driving layups to extend the game, but it was not enough. Denver was clutch at the line making 22-of-25 free throws, including 9-of-10 in the final 1:09.

Chucky Jeffery had 10 points and four rebounds. Wilson had nine points and three rebounds.

Colorado returns home to host Santa Clara on Friday, Nov. 19, at 7 p.m. at the Coors Events Center.

BOULDER- History was made at the Coors Events Center Saturday night as sophomore guard Chucky Jeffery secured the second triple-double in University of Colorado women's basketball history.

Led by Jeffery's 10 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists, Colorado defeated Loyola University Chicago, 65-34 in the championship game of the 2010 Omni Hotels Classic.

"It just feels great," Jeffery said. "We had a real good team win, and I knew every time I passed to my teammates, it was going down."

Sandy Bean is the owner of CU's only other triple-double a 19 point, 11-rebound, 10-assist effort against Utah State on Feb. 16, 1979 - 12 years and 3 months before Jeffery was born.

"I didn't know it was just the second one; I thought there were more before that, but that means a lot. I'm just going to keep going and hopefully get three, four, as many more of those that I can get."

Meagan Malcolm-Peck recorded 14 points and 10 rebounds for her first career double-double. A balanced team effort saw five Buffaloes score in double digits as Brittany Spears had 12, Julie Seabrook 10 and Britney Blythe 10.

Jeffery was the Classic's MVP and Spears was named to the All-Tournament team. Also named to the team were Ellen Ayoub (Loyola Chicago), Samantha Heck (Evansville) and Julie Piper (Eastern Washington).

Following a script similar to the previous three home wins were Colorado enjoyed fast starts, the Buffaloes used an early 13-4 run to build a double-digit first half lead. Colorado's run was kicked off by a successful free throw by Jeffery. Brittany Wilson quickly followed sinking her first shot of the night from 3-point range, and Malcolm-Peck and Seabrook scored two more for Colorado as the Buffaloes led 18-10.

On the other end of the court, Seabrook and Wilson drew consecutive charging fouls, to the pleasure of an energetic crowd of 1,676. Jeffery made a layup and Blythe topped off the run with her first three pointer of the night as CU built a 23-10 lead.

The Ramblers closed the Colorado lead to nine at halftime at 25-16, but unlike the previous three games where Colorado couldn't pull away from its opponent, Saturday the Buffaloes never let in.

Loyola stayed even with the Buffaloes for the first six minutes of the second half as an Abby Skube 3-pointer cut CU's lead to 35-26 with 14:10 left. But this time, Colorado responded with 18 straight points over the next five minutes to put the game out of reach.

"I'm really happy with how our team played tonight," head coach Linda Lappe said. "It's the first time that we've played pretty much a complete game, which is important with where we're at. We came out and we did some nice things defensively.

Our defense really spurred our offense, especially in the second half, and we're just happy to win our tournament, and to play well in doing so."

Jeffery, who had already locked up her third double-double of the season early in the second half, recorded her last two assists of the night to complete the triple-double on two consecutive baskets by Seabrook and Malcolm-Peck in the final four minutes.

Malcolm-Peck was fouled on her bucket that gave Jeffery assist No. 10, and proceeded to make the foul shot for good measure as she matched her season high in points.

After trailing by 15 twice, UTM went on a three-point spurt of its own, getting three straight from Megan White, Alecia Weatherly and Jaclissa Haislip to cut CU's lead to 31-25 with 3:15 left in the half. But that was close as the visitors would draw.

The Buffs were outrebounded 19-14 in the first half, but finished the game with a 38-34 advantage on the boards. Lappe said being focused in that area was vital for the Buffs. UTM entered the game with a 46-35 rebounding edge in its three previous games.

"That was one of our keys to the game," she said. "We were more aggressive going to the boards in the second half."

CU outscored UTM 28-24 in the paint and got 18 points off of 19 UTM turnovers. The Buffs committed 17 turnovers but yielded only 10 points off of those.

BOULDER - Five nights after submitting what Coach Linda Lappe called "our most complete game of the season," her Colorado women's basketball team found a suitable way to endure.

CU limited Texas State to 16.7 percent shooting from the field in the first half, 24 percent for the game, and cruised past the Southland Conference visitors, 67-35, Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

Lappe's calls for the Buffaloes to ratchet up their defense for 40 minutes haven't been ignored; they've allowed 34 and 35 points in their two most recent games. It was the first time in school history CU has kept an opponent under 40 points in consecutive games.

"It all started with our defense; we came out and did some really nice things. Our defense in the last two games has been good in spurts . . . but it was a little better (overall) on Saturday," said Lappe, whose team won its sixth consecutive home game (6-1 overall).

In Saturday night's championship game of the Omni Hotels Classic, CU played hard and smart from buzzer to buzzer and routed Loyola-Chicago, 65-34.

And by Wednesday, there had been no noticeable drop-off in the Buffs' intensity, or in sophomore point guard Chucky Jeffery's overall game. Fresh off the second triple-double in school history (10 points, 13 rebounds, 10 assists), Jeffery paced the Buffs Wednesday night with 23 points and 13 rebounds, her fourth double-double of the season and fifth of her career.

"As long as we get a win, I'm happy for everybody on team . . . everybody is contributing and I'm just going with the flow," Jeffery said.

Senior Brittany Spears (12) and freshman Ashley Wilson (10) were the only other CU players in double figures, but each of Lappe's players scored. Wilson, whose points were a career-high, also had five rebounds and two assists as she works her way back from a serious knee/leg injury suffered in her senior year of high school in Long Beach, Calif.

Wilson took a hard fall on a layup in the final minutes and drew an intentional foul. She tweaked her ankle, not her knee, in the collision, but said she felt fine afterwards. "It's taken a long time to come back from the (high school) injury, but I'm making progress," she said. "I like playing with these guys."

The Bobcats (2-3) hadn't won a true road game since Dec. 10, 2006 at UT-Pan American, and the Buffs weren't interested in seeing that streak end in Boulder.

CU's defense was suffocating in the first 10 minutes, allowing Texas State only eight field goal attempts and four points (one field goal, two free throws). The visitors didn't score on consecutive possessions until the 8:30 mark of the first half - and by then the Buffs were up 20-8 and still hungry.

Jeffery said Lappe "never wants us to let up on defense. It sparks everything else, and we put a lot of emphasis on that. In the first half, our defense was good. But in the second half, we laid off a little. Overall, though, I think (the intensity) carried over, definitely."

The Bobcats regularly use a 15-player rotation, but coach Suzanne Fox kept it to 12 in the first half. Lappe, meanwhile, used all available personnel - The Crazy Eight? - and saw her team lead by as much as 23 (32-9) before intermission.

Jeffery's short jumper gave her 14 first-half points and CU its 34-12 halftime lead. After snatching nine rebounds in the opening half, Jeffery got No. 10 with just under 17 minutes remaining, then hit a layup and a converted a three-point play on consecutive possessions to give the Buffs a 41-14 lead - their largest of the night to that point - with 16:18 left.

CU led 45-22 at the second half's half-way point and was never threatened in the final 10 minutes. The Buffs outscored the Bobcats 42-18 in the paint, 10-0 on fast breaks, 13-4 on second-chance points and 20-12 in points off turnovers.

BOULDER - Linda Lappe wanted to see how her Colorado women's basketball team measured up against an opponent from another power conference in Saturday night's Big Ten/Big 12 Challenge.

In the effort and tenacity categories, Lappe liked what she saw - but on the scoreboard, not so much.

Her Buffaloes gamely rallied from an 11-point second-half deficit to take a two-point lead, but the Illini outscored them 8-2 in the final 3:11 and left the Coors Events Center with a 63-59 victory.

Lappe's returning players continued that coming back from a double-digit deficit last season might not have happened.

Although the Illini brought a losing record (3-5) to Boulder, they dealt the Buffs their first home loss of the season. CU (6-2) had three players in double figures, led by Chucky Jeffery's 17. Senior Brittany Spears and junior Julie Seabrook added 15.

The Buffs' already depleted roster shrunk to seven when freshman guard Ashley Wilson suffered a concussion late in Wednesday night's game against Texas State.

To add depth, Lappe looked to CU's volleyball team and found Nikki Lindow, a 6-foot-2 freshman from Centaurus High School. Lindow averaged 17.5 points a game for Centaurus, and when Lappe coached at Metro State, she thought enough of Lindow's ability to recruit her for hoops.

Lindow practiced once with the Buffs this week but did not leave the bench Saturday night. Lappe hopes Wilson can return for the next game, but she must be "symptom free" on Sunday.

After falling behind 6-1 in the first three minutes Saturday night, the Buffs rallied and took their largest lead (15-8) on a 7-0 run with baskets by Seabrook, a three-pointer by Meagan Malcolm-Peck and a pair of free throws by Jeffery.

CU held the lead until Lana Rukavina's layup tied the score at 21-21 with 5:50 left in the half. Thereafter, there were three lead changes, with the Buffs going up by as many as four points (28-24) until Lydia McCully's trey from the right corner cut the Illini's deficit to one.

McCully followed that with another three-pointer and Adrienne GodBold's follow at the buzzer pushed Illinois in front, 32-28.

The Illini's size and aggressiveness gave the Buffs problems early, with the visitors outscoring CU 20-8 in the paint in the first half and 32-24 for the game. The Buffs' lack of depth also took a toll; Illinois' bench outscored CU's 18-5. The Buffs were outrebounded 19-12 in the first half, but came back to hold a 34-33 board advantage at game's end.

McCully opened the second-half scoring with a layup, giving the Illini a six-point lead. They increased went ahead by seven (38-31) on a steal and layup by GodBold before Malcolm-Peck's trey pulled the Buffs to 38-34.

But Rukavina answered with a three-pointer and restored the seven-point Illini advantage. Less than 3 minutes later, it went to 10 (46-36) on a three-point play by Ebomi Mitchell, then 11 (55-46).

The Buffs didn't go belly up. An 11-0 run tied the score at 55-55 with 4 minutes remaining, with Spears' basket completing a fast break and knotting the score.

Half a minute later, Seabrook's two free throws gave CU its first lead (57-55) since late in the first half (28-27). Rukavina matched Seabrook's free shots to tie the score, then Penn hit one of two with 1:48 remaining to put the Illini up 58-57, then banked in a running hook for a 60-57 advantage with 50 seconds left.

When Penn hit another pair from the foul line with 16.4 seconds left, Illinois went ahead 62-57. But Seabrook answered with two free throws with 6.8 seconds to play, pulling the Buffs to 62-59. A free throw by McCully on the next possession gave Illinois its four-point win.

Penn, a 6-2 sophomore, finished with 17 points and a game-high eight rebounds.

LOS ANGELES-Colorado shot a season-low 32 percent and a late 20-2 Southern California run allowed the Trojans to pull away with a 68-54 decision in the opening game of the Women of Troy Tournament Saturday afternoon at the Galen Center.

USC provided a formidable front court, with 6-foot, 5-inch Kari LaPlante, 6-2 Cassie Harberts and 6-1 Christina Marinacci, that didn't allow the Buffaloes to establish their inside game early. Most of CU's shots came from the outside, and while they fell in the first half, the tank ran dry for a key nine-minute stretch in the second.

The Trojans also held the Buffaloes' leading scorer Brittany Spears to a season-low five points. Spears, who entered the game averaging nearly 18 points a contest, scored CU's first four points, but she also picked up two fouls in the first three minutes which sent her to the bench for most of the first half. She was never able to get in rhythm after that, making just 2-of-12 attempts and was held to single digits for the first time this season.

"USC is big and it was tough for us to get into the paint on them," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "I thought we played great for about 32 minutes of this game," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "And then we couldn't score...just didn't do the things we needed to do, and that we had been doing up to that point. It's too bad because we did play a solid 32 minutes, but against good teams you have to play 40."

Despite an off night by Spears, Colorado and USC played a tight first 20 minutes. USC jumped out to a fast start hitting on four of its first six from the field and led 14-6. Long Beach, Calif., native and CU freshman Brittany Wilson scored five consecutive points, including her fourth career 3-pointer to cut the USC lead to 14-11.

Colorado shot 43 percent in the first half and received a spark from senior Chelsea Dale who was playing in her first game after missing the first nine with academic issues. Dale hit her first two 3-point attempts, and the Buffaloes made 5-of-10 from downtown in the first half.

USC countered, but from the free-throw line. The Trojans made 11-of-13 attempts in the first half, compared to just 3-of-3 for CU.

Colorado led 34-33 with 2:00 remaining in the opening period after a Dale 3-pointer and a Chuck Jeffery layup. But the Trojans responded with two consecutive scores to lead 37-34 at the half.

Neither team was shooting the lights out in the opening minutes of the second half. The teams combined to miss 15 of 17 shots, allowing the game to remain tight. Meagan Malcolm-Peck's second 3-pointer of the game closed the gap to 46-44 with 12:34 left in the game.

From there the Trojans started hitting shots, while CU remained cold. USC pulled away with a 20-2 run over the next 9:16. Jackie Gemelos and Ashley Corral hit back-to-back 3-pointers as USC increased its lead to 20 at 66-46 before the Buffaloes cut into the margin in the final minutes.

Colorado made just 7-of-34 in the second 20 minutes (20.6 percent), finishing with a season-low 54 points.

One aspect of CU's game that continued a season-long positive trend was its rebounding. The Buffaloes have outrebounded all 10 opponents this season and held a 44-34 edge over the Trojans. On this night, however the Buffaloes weren't able to use that to their advantage.

"I thought we crashed the offensive glass really well, and we needed too because we were missing a lot of shots," Lappe said. "The problem with our offensive rebounds tonight is we didn't finish very many of them. The rebounding is all heart, all hustle and I thought we did a good job there."

Jeffery led Colorado with 12 points and eight rebounds. Wilson scored 11 points off the bench while Dale finished with 10. Corral and Briana Gilbreath led the Trojans with 14 points each.

LOS ANGELES-Colorado senior Brittany Spears had 22 points and 12 rebounds but cold shooting once again doomed the Buffaloes as the Dayton Flyers captured the Women of Troy Tournament consolation game 70-50 Sunday afternoon at the Galen Center.

The Buffaloes (7-4) shot just 26 percent (18-of-70) and scored a season-low 50 points, falling in consecutive games for the first time this year.

Spears, who notched her fourth double-double of the season, was CU's only player in double digits. She wasn't immune from CU's shooting struggles, hitting only 6-of-23 attempts, and 4-of-14 from 3-point range.

Spears did become the third player in team history to reach 1,700 points and 800 career rebounds, currently standing at 1,716 and 804 respectively.

"We didn't come out ready to go and Dayton took it to us," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "We have to learn from it. We pretty much started and played for 40 minutes how we ended yesterday. We have to be mentally strong enough to bounce back."

Colorado missed its first six shots, including three from 3-point range. Add in three turnovers and Dayton had an 8-0 early lead. Chuck Jeffery got CU on the board with a running jumper at the 15 minute, 28 second mark of the first half.

Dayton extended its lead to 17-2 before the Buffaloes scored again. CU had eight early turnovers and made just 1-of-9 before a Julie Seabrook layup at 11:47.

Spears began to find her shot with a 3-pointer with 9:32 left in the half. She added a pair of free throws after getting fouled on an offensive rebound, cutting the Dayton lead to 19-9. Patricia Lalor then scored six straight points for Dayton to push the Flyer lead back up to 25-9.

The Buffaloes shot just 16 percent in the first half as Dayton led 29-16 at the break.

"I thought we had some great shots on the outside and they didn't fall early and we let that affect us for the rest of the game," Lappe said. "As good as our focus was last Wednesday (against Colorado State) I thought it was equally as bad, this whole weekend and particularly tonight."

Colorado was able to close the gap to single digits by scoring the first five points of the second half. Jeffery scored on a layup in transition and Britney Blythe hit a 3-pointer as the Dayton lead was down to 29-21 with 18:40 left.

Dayton then went on a 9-0 run and kept its lead above double-digits the rest of the way. The Flyers were the first team to outrebound CU this year and did it in dominating fashion, 59-45.

"Dayton was ready," Lappe said. "They outthrust us in every facet of the game, rebounds, turnovers, ripping balls out of our hands. Over the break we've got to get a lot better."

BOULDER - Ready or not, Big 12 Conference play begins this weekend for the Colorado women's basketball team. And in a 67-56 win Tuesday night against North Dakota, CU flirted with both ends of a scary spectrum - ready at times, appearing not even close at others.

No matter; the preview is over.

The Buffaloes play Saturday at Texas A&M, taking a 9-4 non-conference record into their final Big 12 season.

"Bottom line, a win's a win," she said. "We're happy to start off 2011 in the right way . . . but we obviously didn't play very well; we didn't play nearly as well as we're going to have to from here on out to compete in the Big 12."

Replacing sophomore Meagan Malcolm-Peck in the lineup, freshman Brittany Wilson contributed 15 points, including a career-best four three-pointers. One was a 30-footer to close the first half. She also made a career-high four steals.

Wilson's practice effort over the past "three or four weeks" earned her the start, Lappe said. But Lappe also was pleased with Malcolm-Peck coming off the bench to record her second career double-double (11 points, 10 rebounds). She scored all of her points and collected seven of her boards in the second half.

CU finally put away North Dakota with a 15-0 run midway through the second half. Senior Brittany Spears and Malcolm-Peck accounted for 13 of those 15 points, with Spears hitting a pair of three-pointers and Malcolm-Peck knocking down one trey and adding another pair of baskets.

Spears (21) and Malcolm-Peck (11) were two of four Buffs in double-figures. The others were Brittany Wilson (15) and sophomore Chuck Jeffery (11). Spears reached 20 points for the seventh time this season and 36th time in her career.

The Buffs led 41-26 at the half, but it took a 30-foot buzzer-beater by Brittany Wilson to account for that 15-point margin. Otherwise, CU's first-half finish wasn't of the variety that would leave Lappe particularly happy.

Her team had its first-half highlights:

It never trailed and went ahead by as many as 18 on another Brittany Wilson trey at the 8:10 mark.

It held the Fighting Sioux to six points for almost 7 minutes and allowed baskets on back-to-back possessions only once for almost 9 minutes. It limited the visitors to 35.7 percent shooting from the field in the first 20 minutes and forced a dozen turnovers.

But there was also a bundle of Buffs blunders - not what Lappe wanted in the way of a final Big 12 tune-up.

They committed one more first-half turnover (13) than the Fighting Sioux and finished with 27 - one more than North Dakota.

They allowed their 18-point lead to dwindle to a dozen on the next-to-last possession of the half and were threatening to cut it to 10, maybe 9, before a turnover and Brittany Wilson's long trey.

They had six steals - but the Fighting Sioux had eight. CU finished with 11, North Dakota 18.

Can you say better ball security for the Buffs? Lappe could, and she also could say pass the ball with more authority: "Our passes are very, very soft. We don't have any zip . . . we telegraph, we get tunnel vision . . . Sometimes we get tentative; we just have to be confident in our passing."

The second half opened with a CU turnover and a three-pointer by Mallory Youngblut, cutting the Buffs' advantage to 12 (41-29). Youngblut, a senior co-captain who finished with 19, then scored her team's next five points as North Dakota closed to within 44-34.

Shortly thereafter, CU launched its 15-0 run and North Dakota temporarily was on the ropes. But fight remained in the Fighting Sioux; they pulled to 67-56 on another trey by Youngblut in the final 1:10 - cutting what had been a 25-point deficit to 11.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas-Texas A&M sports one of the best defenses in the Big 12 Conference, and it was on full display Saturday. The No. 7 (AP)/5 (WBCA) ranked Aggies forced 27 Colorado turnovers on their way to an 85-57 victory over Colorado at Reed Arena in the league opener for both teams.

"I don't like the score; I hate to lose, but this is a very good basketball team," head coach Linda Lappe said. "This is a team that's going to go a really long way in the NCAA basketball tournament. They are going to do a lot of good things in the Big 12."

Brittany Spears led Colorado with 21 points, as she moved past former CU All-American Shelley Sheetz (1,775 from 1991-95) into fourth on the Buffaloes' all-time scoring list (1,779). She tied a team season-high with five 3-point field goals and also grabbed six rebounds.

Texas A&M (13-1, 1-0), leading the Big 12 in steals and turnover margin, turned CU's 17 first half miscues into 21 points. Colorado (9-5, 0-1) shot just 29 percent in the first 20 minutes and trailed 45-17 at the break.

In contrast the Aggies had just seven turnovers for the game. Texas A&M outscored CU 36-7 in points off turnovers.

Colorado picked up its intensity early in the second half and played the Aggies even. Brittany Wilson, making her second straight start, scored 11 of her 12 points during a 14-6 CU run to open the half and bring the Buffaloes back to within 20 (51-31).

"There aren't a lot of moral victories, but if there is one, then playing them 40-40 in the second half is definitely one," Lappe said. "It just helps us believe that we can play with anybody. Now we have to go back and do that from the start and play that way for 40 minutes."

"We knew that we had to come out and compete because they weren't going to lay down," Wilson said. "A lot of people don't think we are as good as we are, so we have to come out and play with a chip on our shoulder. We have to show everybody that we are ready to play in this conference and we won't finish last."

Danielle Adams, the Big 12's leading scorer countered, scoring the Aggies first nine points of the second half on her way to a team high 18 points.

Sophomore Meagan Malcolm-Peck scored all 10 of her points in the second half as the Buffaloes bounced back to shoot 56 percent in the second half. Sophomore guard Chuck Jeffery just missed a double-double with 10 points and nine rebounds.

Colorado will return to Boulder to host the University of Kansas on Wednesday, Jan. 12, at 7 p.m. The game will be televised live on FSN Rocky Mountain

BOULDER - Sometimes the most satisfying wins are the most improbable.

So how's this for an improbable scenario: Colorado's women's basketball team, coming off a lackluster loss and suddenly minus its second-leading scorer and leading rebounder, takes No. 17/16 Iowa State to overtime and . . . wins?

Improbable never means impossible, and the Buffaloes boldly underscored that Saturday afternoon at the Coors Events Center, surprising the Cyclones, 66-60. CU improved to 10-6, 1-2 in the Big 12 Conference; ISU is 13-4, 1-2.

It was first-year CU Coach Linda Lappe's first league win and her first victory over a ranked opponent and her home state. But as pleased as she was personally, Lappe was ecstatic for her players, who pulled together in the absence of sophomore Chucky Jeffery who suffered a concussion in the loss to Kansas.

"More than great for me, it's great for our players...I'm so glad our players were able to experience something like they did today," Lappe said. "That was fun. I'm so proud of our players and how they responded."

In Jeffery's absence, several Buffs stepped forward - freshman point guard Brittany Wilson foremost among them. Wilson, who plays Jeffery's position, responded with a career-best 19 points, while senior Brittany Spears collected her 28th career double-double (18 points, 12 rebounds). Her defense on ISU's 6-foot-7 Anna Prins was also critical. Prins, who had averaged 16.5 points and 8.5 rebounds in a pair of Big 12 games, finished with four points and three boards.

Then there was late-arriving senior Chelsea Dale, who became eligible for the second semester. Dale added 11 points, including a pair of free throws in overtime that gave the Buffs a 64-60 lead with 42 seconds left.

And CU sophomore Meagan Malcolm-Peck, battling through an ankle ailment that cut her minutes almost in half (27.8 average, 14 on Saturday) added the last of her 10 points on a pair of free throws with 29.2 seconds to play in OT, giving the Buffs a six-point lead and sealing the win.

Dale's pair of late free throws came after Spears was fouled but couldn't shoot because of bloody nose. As Spears went to the bench, Dale said Spears told her, "This is what you do, you make free throws...so I just went up there and knocked them down."

Brittany Wilson said she and Jeffery spoke before the game. "I knew I had to step up," said Wilson, who also recorded career highs in rebounds and field goals made (eight each). "Especially with Chucky out, people thought we couldn't do it."

Lappe said even with her team losing a 12-point advantage in the second half and the game heading into overtime, she looked into her players' eyes in the huddle and liked what she saw.

Despite Jeffery's absence, CU got off to a fast start and led 5-2 on a Brittany Wilson jumper and a three-pointer by Dale. The first half saw four lead changes and three ties before the Buffs pulled away for a 29-22 halftime lead.

Aiding CU in the first 20 minutes were a pair of early fouls called on Prins, who missed her only first-half field goal attempt and collected just one rebound in 9 minutes. The Buffs opened the second half as inspired as they closed the first. With Brittany Wilson scoring 11 of their first 13 points, the Buffs rolled to a 12-point advantage (41-29) before the Cyclones finally began stirring.

A 10-0 run keyed by a pair of three-pointers (Kelsey Harris, Kelsey Bolte) brought ISU to within 43-41 with 12:14 to play. But CU quashed that comeback with a pair of baskets by Malcolm-Peck, the first a layup on a feed from Dale as the shot clock wound down and the second a three-pointer from the left corner.

The Buffs shot back in front 48-41 with 9:11 remaining, but they could be assured the Cyclones weren't done. A basket by Bolte, the Cyclones' leading scorer (16.3 average) and a formidable three-point shooter, pulled ISU to 52-48. But Dale scored off an in-bounds play to push CU back in front by 54-48 with 4:22 left.

From there, it was up to the Buffs to make a final stand. A three-point play by Chelsea Poppens pulled the Cyclones to 54-51, but Spears answered with a trey from the right wing to give CU a 57-51 lead at the 2:23 mark.

After Harris buried a three-pointer to make it 57-54, Dale was off on a three attempt at the other end. ISU called a timeout with 27.9 seconds to play. When the ball was in-bounded, it ended up in Bolte's hands. Her trey attempt bounced on both sides of the rim, then the front, then fell through.

It was 57-57 with 10 seconds to play. With 5.3 seconds left, the ball went to Brittany Wilson, but she was called for a charge. Less than 2 seconds remained for the Cyclones to attempt a court-length pass and shot. It missed and the game was headed for overtime.

Fortunately for the Buffs, it was a good place to be - but not the Cyclones. They got one early field goal in overtime (it was by Prins, who immediately thereafter fouled out) and missed five of six free throws.

It began as an improbable afternoon for the Buffs, but they finished it by celebrating.

STILLWATER, Okla. - Brittany Spears scored a game-high 18 points and grabbed nine rebounds, but cold shooting down the stretch doomed the Buffaloes as Oklahoma State claimed a 58-49 Big 12 Conference win Tuesday evening at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

Facing the second-best scoring defense and field-goal percentage defense team in the Big 12, Oklahoma State (13-4, 1-3 Big 12) held the Buffaloes to a season-low 49 points and just 32 percent from the field.

"We're leaving here disappointed in the loss tonight," said head coach Linda Lappe. "It's back to work for us."

Colorado (10-7, 1-3 Big 12) never led, but despite the cold shooting night the Buffaloes kept it close throughout. CU trailed by 10 with 12:09 left in the game, but fought back to get within 47-46 on a Brittany Wilson 3-pointer with 7:22 remaining.

Three free throws, two by Spears and one by Wilson were all the Buffaloes could manage the rest of the way as the Cowgirls closed on an 11-3 run. Colorado missed its final 13 shots from the field.

CU played its second straight game without starting point guard Chucky Jeffery, who suffered a concussion in the loss to Kansas. She remains listed as day-to-day.

"With the inexperience we have, I don't think we were on the same page," Meagan Malcolm-Peck said. "We were rushed offensively and not sure what to do with that. Although, I think we did a pretty good job without Chucky leading the offense."

Wilson finished with 11 points. Malcolm-Peck, still nursing a sore ankle of her own, came off the bench to pitch in nine points and five rebounds.

Oklahoma State opened the game with seven straight points, before a 3-pointer by Chelsea Dale and a Julie Seabrook layup cut the lead to 7-5.

Shortly after, Seabrook picked up her second foul and the Cowgirls took advantage with 6-foot-6 freshman center Vicky McIntyre scoring six straight points as OSU led 13-5. OSU took its biggest lead of the half when Jenni Bryan connected on a 3-pointer to put the Cowgirls up 19-10 with 7:38 remaining.

Colorado struggled to get into its offense early. The Buffaloes had few shots inside and had 11 first-half turnovers, eight of which came in the first 12 minutes.

Malcolm-Peck ignited the Buffaloes off the bench. She scored seven points during a 10-2 run which cut the deficit to 21-20.

After the under 4-minute timeout, Lakyn Garrison answered with her second 3-pointer of the half, sparking an 8-0 Cowgirls run. Wilson gave the Buffaloes a little momentum heading into the half with a steal and coast-to-coast layup as CU trailed 29-22 at the break.

Spears shrugged off her third foul picked up in the opening seconds of the second half by scoring CU's next 10 points. She hit two straight 3-pointers and had a steal, was fouled and hit the ensuing free throws as OSU led 34-32 with 15:43 left.

Oklahoma State responded with a 12-2 run to take its largest lead of the game at 46-36. Back then came the Buffaloes, who answered with a 10-1 run, culminated with Wilson's 3-pointer, but CU wouldn't draw any closer.

"Spears and I got the rebounds and shot it up there, but there's no point in getting the offensive rebounds if you're not going to make the shots," said Meagan Malcolm-Peck. "We're disappointed that we let up the last four minutes."

McIntyre finished with 14 points, eight rebounds and four blocked shots. Toni Young had 10 points and six boards.

BOULDER - There's a direct correlation here: As the number of games she believes slipped away begins to increase, so does Linda Lappe's frustration. Colorado's first-year women's basketball coach added another to that category Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

After an unfocused first half, her Buffaloes rallied from a nine-point deficit early in the second half and even went ahead by four. Alas, they couldn't sustain their momentum over the final 12 minutes and lost 72-59 to Kansas State.

"We're disappointed," Lappe said afterwards. "We felt like this was a game we needed to have and could have had ... but we let one slip."

Put it down as No. 3 in that dubious category, alongside losses to Kansas and Oklahoma State that drop the Buffs to a frustrating 2-4 in the league (11-8 overall). "Our focus was not that it should have been in the first half," Lappe continued. "We didn't do what we talked about needing to do."

Hoping to capitalize on momentum gained from a weekend win against Missouri, the Buffs knew what was at stake Wednesday: A win would have moved CU into a fifth-place tie with K-State (14-5, 4-2) in the conference standings.

But the Buffs opened as if they were clueless about that or much of anything else. In the first 20 minutes, they committed 13 of their 17 turnovers, resulting in 16 KSU points; had the ball swiped from them seven times; gave up nine second-chance points while scoring none themselves; were outscored 20-6 in the paint; and got three shots, three points, three turnovers and one rebound from their leading scorer, Brittany Spears.

Spears tied Amy Mathern's school record for consecutive starts (112) Wednesday night, but the mark was darkened by the outcome. She committed only one more turnover and finished with 13 points, finally coming to life in the second half when the Buffs made their run to catch and temporarily pass the Wildcats.

In her second game back after missing a pair with a concussion, Chucky Jeffery was the only other CU player in double figures (19). Jeffery, who didn't start, called the loss "just frustrating. We scout these teams to a T. We practice it and to get into a game and not have any focus, it kills everything we practice ... it's frustrating because we know the teams we're losing to we should be beating. We're playing one half and not the other."

The Buffs trailed 30-23 at the half, and that seven-point deficit could have been much worse - all ugly things considered. Spears hit a straightaway trey for CU's first points of the game, but that was her output for the half.

The Buffs' only other lead of the half (8-5) came on a three-pointer by Meagan Malcolm-Peck. Thereafter, the Wildcats launched a 12-0 run and shot ahead 17-8 before the Buffs partially regained their focus and cut their deficit to 26-23 on back-to-back baskets by Brittany Wilson.

But K-State got inside baskets from 6-foot-2 Jalana Childs (17 points, four rebounds) and 6-2 Branshea Brown (four points, 11 rebounds) to close the half and account for the Wildcats' seven-point lead at the break.

It took CU about 6 minutes into the second half to find the gear it needed to compete, but once that happened the Buffs began looking like the team that had disposed of Missouri by 10 points in its last game.

Spears snapped to with consecutive baskets - one a trey - and Britney Blythe followed with a pair of three-pointers to forge a 39-39 tie with 13:30 to play. Less than minute later, Jeffery hit a layup to send the Buffs ahead.

Jeffery's pull-up jumper from the free throw line gave CU a four-point (43-39) lead, but the Buffs couldn't hold it. The Wildcats responded with a 13-2 run, going up 52-45 on a conventional three-point play by Taelor Karr with 7:33 remaining.

They closed to within four points (54-50) with 4:18 to play, but the Wildcats closed them out with an 8-0 run capped by a Brittany Chambers three-pointer - she finished with a game-high 20 - that gave K-State a 12-point advantage, its largest of the night to that point. CU got no closer than seven points before the final buzzer.

AUSTIN, Texas - Whatever Coach Linda Lappe's halftime message was to her Colorado women's basketball team here Sunday, this wasn't the intended result: Texas, leading by only a point at intermission, opened the second half with a 20-6 run and buried the Buffaloes 67-50 at the Frank Erwin Center.

Dropping back-to-back games in the Big 12 Conference for only the second time this season, CU fell to 2-5 in league play and 11-9 overall. Texas, after opening its Big 12 schedule 0-4, won its third consecutive game and improved to 3-4, 14-7.

"I thought we had a great first half," Lappe said. "I thought our defensive intensity was good. We were getting through screens and putting some pressure on them. I thought in the second half (Texas) came out with a different mindset, a different mentality. They were a lot more aggressive ..."

"I felt offensively we came out flat for the whole game, especially right off of halftime. I thought we had some good shots that we just didn't knock down, and let that affect us for the rest of the half. Texas is a nice team and they got after it in the second half, we just didn't quite have enough."

The Buffs lost for the sixth straight time this season away from the Coors Events Center and dropped their 23rd straight road game against Big 12 South opponents. CU senior Brittany Spears set a school record with her 113th consecutive start. She finished with a team-best 16 points, but had to score the Buffs' final nine to reach her total. Spears also hit a pair of three-pointers, becoming the fifth CU player to reach 200 (201) for her career.

Junior Julie Seabrook and sophomore Chucky Jeffery added 10 each for the Buffs, but Seabrook's total included only a free throw in the second half.

Texas was led by freshman Chassidy Fussell's game-high 21. Kathleen Nash added 12 and Yvonne Anderson 10 for the Longhorns, who closed out the Big 12 series with the Buffs holding a 16-4 advantage. Texas defeated CU, which heads for the Pac-12 Conference next season, for the ninth time in Austin.

Despite committing 12 of their 20 turnovers in the first half, the Buffs trailed only 25-24 at intermission and were behind by no more than four points in the first 20 minutes. The single point difference at the break was something of a breakthrough for CU: In their four previous trips here, the Buffs had trailed at the half by an average of 17 points per game.

CU's last lead of the half - and the game, as it turned out - was 24-22, courtesy of a Meagan Malcolm-Peck put-back with 1:09 before intermission.

But the smooth Fussell, the Big 12's leading freshman scorer, canned the second of her three three-pointers to put the Horns back up by a point. The half ended that way - and it was as close as the Buffs would be for the rest of the afternoon.

Lappe said Fussell "did a great job of coming out and getting her shot off and knocking them down. She's got a nice shot, and she's got a great pull up jumper. Stop and pop on a dime, and you don't see that a lot with her accuracy. They did a nice job setting on-ball screens for her, and she came off the on-ball screen ready to score - getting her feet set. She's got a high release. You put a bigger guard on her and she's quick and she's fast. You put a smaller guard on her and she rises above and can shoot over. She can do a lot of different things that cause problems."

When the second half opened, there was Fussell again. She scored nine of Texas' 20 points in the decisive run that quickly increased the Longhorns' lead to double digits and kept them ahead by at least 13 points over the game's final 10 minutes. Their biggest lead was by 23 (64-41) on a basket by Kristen Nash with about 4 minutes remaining.

The Longhorns shot 57 percent from the field in the second half - the best 20-minute percentage by a Buffs opponent this season. CU, meanwhile, shot only 42.3 percent in the second half and 44.7 for the game.

BOULDER - After losing by almost 30 points in its previous game, Colorado needed a bounce-back performance in the worst way. The Buffaloes got it in perhaps the best way possible - a 25-point victory against a Big 12 Conference opponent that has been dominant recently in the series.

CU stunned Nebraska with a decisive early run, quashed the Cornhuskers' attempt at a second-half rally and cruised to a 70-45 win. Snapping a three-game skid this season and a three-game losing streak to the Huskers, the Buffs rebounded impressively from an 81-53 loss at Kansas on Wednesday.

"I thought we played an outstanding game," CU Coach Linda Lappe said. "I really saw an outstanding performance by our team. We came out and kind of had a slow start but changed out mindset after the first three minutes, for the rest of the game. It was an all around team win."

The Buffs improved to 12-10 overall and 3-6 in the Big 12, with their three wins matching last season's league total. CU heads for the Pac-12 Conference next season, NU for the Big Ten. The Buffs visit Lincoln, Neb., for the final time on March 2.

Senior Brittany Spears led CU with 26 points. Lappe said Spears, who reached double figures for the 100th time in her career, "played a very complete game. Offensively she hit her three's and had some nice drives and she hit a couple of pull-up jumpers. She scored in a lot of different ways and she helped move the ball.... She played an all around complete game."

CU sophomore Chuckey Jeffery - returning to the lineup after sitting out the KU loss for academic reasons - barely missed her second triple-double of the season. Jeffery finished with nine points, nine assists and 10 rebounds before leaving the game in the final 2 minutes.

CU finished with an impressive 49.1 shooting percentage (27-for-55) while holding Nebraska to 28.8 percent (17-for-59). The Buffs hit almost half (10) of their 21 three-point attempts, including seven in the first half. The Cornhuskers, meanwhile, never got into their offensive flow and hit only nine of 30 first-half field goal attempts.

The Huskers jumped to a 4-0 lead, but the Buffs responded quickly - and impressively. CU took control with a 24-2 run that produced an 18-point lead (24-6). Shooting 53 percent from the field, the Buffs led by 20 points on three occasions in the first 20 minutes and rolled to a 39-24 lead by intermission, with their first-half total the program's largest in three seasons.

The Buffs had 18 assists on their 27 baskets and outrebounded the Cornhuskers 45-27. Eight of the Buffs' boards were courtesy of freshman Rachel Hargis, who also contributed six points. Both totals were career highs.

Of her team's 18 assists, Lappe said, "Any time you can have that many assists, it means the ball is moving, and everyone is touching it."

Senior Britney Blythe canned three three-pointers in the opening half, including back-to-back treys that helped CU nudge its 20-point lead (30-10). Blythe said her treys weren't taken specifically to open Nebraska out of its zone defense: "It wasn't an objective but I think we just hit open shots. We weren't hesitant at all so once we started hitting it was just going in."

Nebraska, which had beaten CU in 10 of their past 11 meetings, opened the second half with a 9-4 run and pulled to within 10 points twice in the first 9 minutes. Each time, the Buffs responded. After Nebraska had closed to 51-41 on a pair of free throws by Jordan Hooper with 11:25 to play, CU answered with 11 consecutive points - five of them by Spears - and surged ahead 62-41 with 6:14 remaining.

Trailing by 21, the Huskers were done. Just over 4 minutes later, the Buffs took their largest lead of the game - 70-45 - on a three-point play by Spears and closed out the afternoon with a 19-4 run.

BOULDER - Six days after playing what first-year coach Linda Lappe had called their most complete game, the Colorado Buffaloes traveled in a completely different direction on Saturday.

Desperate to break a six-game losing streak, Texas Tech apparently visited the Coors Events Center at the perfect time, rolling over error-prone CU, 72-44.

The Buffs submitted a season low in points and a season high in turnovers, with their 28th missed since 34 at Texas on Jan. 13, 2007. CU's turnover total was four times its number of assists (seven) and almost doubled its made field goals (15).

"We definitely got outplayed for most of the game," Lappe said. "They were physical, they were quick. Our turnovers were obviously a huge part of the game; we just didn't handle the ball like we needed to."

The Buffs dropped to 12-11 overall and 3-7 in the Big 12 Conference, while the Lady Raiders - after opening the season 16-1 - improved to 17-7, 4-6.

Scoring 12 points, senior Brittany Spears was the only CU player to reach double figures. She became only the second Buff player to score 400 points in four consecutive seasons, joining Shelley Sheetz (1991-95). Spears also had 11 rebounds, giving her 30 double-doubles in her career.

Tech, meanwhile, was topped by sophomore Casey Morris with 19. She was one of three Lady Raiders in double figures.

Most of this story was told in the first 20 minutes: At halftime the Buffs' point total exceeded their turnover total by two - 21 to 19 - and the Lady Raiders were up 37-21. Tech was opportunistic, scoring 21 points off those 19 CU miscues, which were the most in a half since the Buffs had the same number against Nevada on Nov. 24, 2006.

"We were throwing bad passes ... just not clicking," CU guard Chuckey Jeffery said. "We just weren't on the same page ... it's hard trying to break a press when everybody isn't on the same page."

CU's already thin roster was reduced to eight by the absence of senior guard Chelsea Dale, who had not received clearance to play after exhibiting concussion symptoms following the 70-45 win over Nebraska on Sunday, Feb. 6.

Not having played since then, the Buffs opened either rusty or out of sorts due to the Lady Raiders' withering pressure.

After falling behind 3-0, the Buffs finally got their first field goal - a three-pointer by Spears - at the 16:29 mark, then got another pair of treys on consecutive possessions to go ahead 9-3.

Then the turnover played, induced by Tech's pressure, hit. Lappe said her team alternated between being "too tentative" and "too passive" against the Lady Raiders' full- and three-quarters court press.

Seven minutes into the first half, CU had committed seven turnovers, with many more to follow. By intermission, the total had reached 19 and - no big surprise - the Buffs trailed by their largest margin of the half, 37-21.

Of CU's eight first-half field goals, five were three-pointers, which among other things was indicative of Tech's defense stifling CU's inside game. The Lady Raiders outscored the Buffs 16-6 in the paint in the first 20 minutes and got 11 points from their bench to the Buffs' three. Tech finished the game with a 28-18 advantage inside and scored 32 points off its opponents 28 miscues.

Tech shot 63.6 percent from the field in the first half, including 75 percent from beyond the three-point arc. CU managed 40 percent (50 percent on its treys), but that was hardly enough to compensate for its turnover total.

Things didn't improve in the second half.

At the 10:00 mark, Tech led 58-29 - and time was just one of many factors working against CU. The Lady Raiders' largest lead was 30 in the final 5:21.

AMES, Iowa - Colorado shot just 27 percent as No. 20 (AP)/23 (WBCA) Iowa State defeated the Buffaloes 71-45 in the final Big 12 Conference regular season matchup between the two teams Saturday night at Hilton Coliseum.

Senior Brittany Spears had 13 points as she moved into second place on CU's all-time scoring list at 1,961.

Colorado (12-13, 3-9 Big 12) made just 13-of-47 from the field, and made only three buckets in the second half, tying a program record-low for a 20 minute period.

"I'm proud of them," head coach Linda Lappe said. "I think it's the hardest we've fought in a long time. It didn't go our way tonight, but they stayed together and they continued to play."

Julie Seabrook had 10 points. Rachel Hargis had five points, six rebounds and four blocks off the bench for the Buffaloes.

The Buffaloes were hindered though foul trouble. ISU was in the bonus by the 13:31 mark and double-bonus before 10 minutes had elapsed. After CU held an early 10-5 lead, Jessica Schnoll hit four straight free throws which ignited a 12-2 ISU run, finished off by a Kelsey Bolte 3-pointer to take a 17-12 lead.

"[When in foul trouble,] you're not sure as a player what you can and cannot do offensively and defensively," Lappe said. "It just takes you out of your rhythm and you have to be tough."

Iowa State upped its lead to six on a couple of occasions, but the Buffaloes stayed close in the first half. Anna Prins hit a 3-pointer to give ISU a 20-14 lead, but Spears answered with a 3-pointer of her own.

Prins hit another jumper after a Chelsea Poppens 3-point play, but Seabrook cut the lead in half with a 3-pointer. Meagan Malcolm-Peck then hit a trey to cut the ISU lead to 29-28.

After trailing only by three at the half, the Buffaloes missed their first eight shots of the second period. Hargis hit a pair of free throws for CU's only points in the first 10 minutes. Seabrook broke the drought with her second 3-pointer of the game with 9:36 remaining.

"I'm sure Iowa State came out and wanted to play better defense [in the second half]," Lappe said. "We couldn't really have an answer for their man to man defense. We weren't screening for each other. We were just cutting without a purpose. It was really tough for our players to get open. They were packing it in the paint and daring us to shoot it on the outside."

Meanwhile, Iowa State opened the half on a 14-2 run and outscored the Buffaloes 40-17 in the final 20 minutes. Iowa State took advantage of Colorado's foul trouble by hitting 22-of-28 free throws. Bolte led all scorers with 17 points. Lauren Mansfield added 13.

"We needed someone to step up and knock down a couple big shots and get a couple stops on the other end as well," Lappe said. "When you can't score you have to keep defending. I told our team when we were down 10 or 11 that it's a stop and a score and another stop and score and it's a totally different ballgame."

BOULDER - How's this for lovely parting gifts? Colorado shocked No. 16/15 Oklahoma 73-68 Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center, ending an eight-game losing streak to the Sooners in the last regular-season meeting between the two Big 12 Conference schools.

Breaking a three-game losing streak, the Buffs improved to 13-13 overall and 4-9 in the league. The Sooners are 19-8, 9-4.

Senior Brittany Spears led CU with 24 points, while sophomore Chuckie Jeffery had a double-double - 12 points, 10 rebounds - and was two assists shy of her second triple-double of the season. Sophomore Meagan Malcolm-Peck added 10 points and eight rebounds.

The Buffs trailed by as many as seven points in the first half, but they kept battling, cutting the deficit to a point (27-26) on a pair of Rachel Hargis free throws with 5:16 left before the break.

But the best was ahead.

CU fell behind 31-26 on a Carlee Roethlisberger layup with 4:51 left in the half, but that would be OU's last field goal of the half. When Spears canned her third trey of the half, the Buffs launched a 13-2 run that carried them to a 39-33 halftime lead.

CU committed 13 first-half turnovers, OU 11. The Sooners were unable to capitalize on the errors, but the Buffs were opportunistic, outscoring the visitors 12-7.

The Buffs hit eight of 17 three pointers (47.1 percent) in the first half and held the Sooners without one. CU also was perfect from the free throw line, hitting all nine attempts.

For the Buffs, the key would be opening the second half with as much energy as they closed the first - and they did what was required. After OU's Aaryn Ellenberger hit a three-pointer to open the second half scoring, CU answered with a 6-1 run and led by eight points twice before OU rallied.

Over the next 1:50, the Sooners outscored the Buffs 6-0 and closed to 47-45 on an acrobatic layup by Robinson. But CU toughened up and pushed its lead back to eight (56-48) before Danielle Robinson responded on consecutive possessions and Morgan Hook hit a three-pointer to pull OU to within 56-55 with 7:15 to play.

The Sooners stayed within one to three points until Spears canned a three from the right corner to put the Buffs up 61-57 with 4:16 remaining. A little over a minute later, Spears encoored from the left wing for a 64-59 lead with 3:06 showing.

After a Robinson layup, Spears took it inside to send the Buffs up 66-61. Britney Blythe's two free throws with 49.6 seconds remaining sent CU ahead 68-61, but Roethlisberger's straightaway three made it 68-64 and stopped Buffs fans from breathing easier.

After the Buffs used their final timeout with 38.3 to play, Spears was tied up on the inbound pass and Robinson scored her 2,000th career point on a layup. CU's lead was down to 68-66 with 27.9 seconds to play.

From there, CU put it away at the free throw line, with Jeffery and Spear going five-of-six in the final 24.1 seconds.

LINCOLN, Neb. - Brittany Spears' record setting career aside, she just wants to keep playing. Wednesday night CU's second all-time leading scorer came up big to ensure that happens.

Spears scored five of her team-high 20 points in the final minute and Julie Seabrook provided the go-ahead bucket as Colorado edged Nebraska 64-61 at the Devaney Center in the final Big 12 Conference game between the two long-time rivals.

"I'm so happy for our players for getting this win," head coach Linda Lappe said. "We told them at the end of the game that we're the hottest team in the Big 12."

Trailing Nebraska by two, Spears hit a baseline 3-pointer to give Colorado a 60-59 lead with 44 seconds remaining. Nebraska's Lindsey Moore, who scored 17 of her game-high 23 points in the second half, answered with a score in the paint to put the Cornhuskers back up by one.

With Nebraska up by one, Lappe took a chance and did not call a time out to formulate a plan with her team. Instead she "gave [her] team the chance to go ahead and attack."

"Basically both teams were pushing to ball," Chucky Jeffery said. "[After the Nebraska bucket,] coach looked at me and said 'go.'"

"We work on that a lot between me and her-the little handoffs inside since she's always driving to the basket," Seabrook said.

Colorado's defense forced a Harleen Sidhu miss and Spears corralled the rebound with 3.7 seconds left. She calmly sank both free throws to put CU up 64-61. Moore's desperation 3-pointer missed the rim and the Buffaloes emerged with their third straight win, second straight on the road.

"I like where our team at right now," Lappe said. "I like where we are mentally right now and I like where our team is physically. We want to keep playing more basketball." The win improved the Buffs record to 15-13 overall securing a .500 record and a potential WNIT invitation.

Colorado will return home to host No. 3/3 Baylor on Saturday, March 5, at 2 p.m. at the Coors Events Center.

BOULDER - Third-ranked Baylor used a 14-0 second-half run to dispose of Colorado, 81-59, Saturday afternoon at the Coors Events Center in the final regular-season game for both teams.

Halting a three-game winning streak by the Buffaloes, the Lady Bears improved to 28-2 overall and 15-1 in the Big 12 Conference - a record number of league victories for Baylor in winning its second regular-season Big 12 title.

The only blemishes on Baylor's record-season record were a one-point loss (65-64) to then-No. 1 Connecticut in mid-November and a 56-45 loss at Texas Tech on Feb. 19.

CU enters next week's Big 12 tournament in Kansas City at 15-14, 6-10 and plays Kansas on Tuesday's first round.

Saturday's game drew 6,102, the largest crowd for a CU women's game since 6,163 attended a CU-Oklahoma State game in February, 2004. Many were drawn by Baylor's 6-foot-8 Brittney Griner, the women's game's most recognizable player - and she didn't disappoint. The sophomore from Houston recorded game highs in points (26) and rebounds (13) in her first and last trip to Boulder.

Senior Brittany Spears, playing her final regular-season game in the Events Center, led CU with 23 points. She entered the afternoon needing 37 to become the school's career leading scorer and received a standing ovation when she left the court with 43.5 seconds to play.

The Buffs played without sophomore Chucky Jeffery, their top rebounder (8.1) and second-leading scorer (13.7). She has been in New York for the last three days attending the funeral of her great grandmother, but is expected to be in the lineup Tuesday.

The absence of Jeffery reduced CU's already thin roster to eight available players. It was the fourth game this season that Jeffery has missed. A concussion kept her out of two January games, a suspension sidelined her for the Kansas contest in February.

Nonetheless, with Jeffery out against then-No. 17 Iowa State on Jan. 15, the Buffs defeated the Cyclones 66-60 in overtime. But the way Saturday's game opened, surprising another ranked opponent seemed very improbable for CU.

The buzz surrounding the introduction of the trio of CU seniors - Spears, Britney Blythe, Chelsea Dale - disappeared after the Buffs missed their first six shots and the Lady Bears raced to a 13-0 lead.

Four consecutive layups and a pair of free throws by Griner pushed Baylor 10-0, and before CU could get a jumper by Spears for its first points, Baylor was up 13-0.

The Events Center crowd undoubtedly believed it was destined to watch things get much worse - and for a while they did.

The Lady Bears rolled to a pair of 20-point leads until the Buffs settled in and got competitive. After Baylor's second 20-point advantage - 30-10 with 7:22 before intermission - CU closed out the half with an 18-4 run and trailed only 34-28 at the break.

During the run, the Buffs got three-pointers from the Wilson sisters (Brittany and Ashley), Blythe and Spears, helping CU "improve" to 31.4 percent from the field (11-of-35) in the first half.

The Buffs' second-half start was little better than the way they opened. With CU missing its first four field goal attempts, Baylor quickly capitalized with a 9-3 run and opened another double-figure lead - 43-31.

The Buffs whittled the deficit to single figures (43-35), but the Lady Bears answered with a 14-0 run to take their largest lead of the afternoon to that point.

With 11:43 to play, CU trailed 57-35, and another rally seemed improbable. In the final 10 minutes, the Lady Bears led by as many as 27 points.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - Brittany Spears took over here Tuesday as Colorado's career scoring leader in women's basketball. But Kansas' takeover moments later upstaged her and made the Buffaloes' stay in the Big 12 Conference's postseason tournament a brief one.

After Spears broke Lisa Van Goor's career scoring record and pulled CU to within two points of KU early in the second half, the Jayhawks broke free with a 26-5 run and eliminated the Buffs, 71-45.

Spears finished with a game-high 21 points and surpassed Van Goor (2,067 points from 1980-85) on CU's all-time women's scoring list. Spears now has 2,075, but the record wasn't foremost in her thoughts after the Buffs endured a frigid shooting afternoon and were sent home.

"I would have rather got the 'W' and scored two points," she said. "That doesn't matter; I just wanted the win."

WNIT First Round Game

BOULDER - Colorado scored 71 points Thursday night but came up short on style points. No matter. UC-Riverside checked in with 62 and immediately checked out of the WNIT.

"I'm happy we got the win, but we were definitely not as sharp as we could have been," said CU Coach Linda Lappe. "It doesn't matter how you do it. You survive and advance and play as many games as you can."

So the Buffs (16-15) survived at the expense of the Highlanders (19-13). Rusty from not having played in nine days and bothered by UC-Riverside's motion offense, CU allowed a 19-point second-half lead to be trimmed to two before regaining its composure and restoring a double-digit advantage in the final 1:36.

Senior Brittany Spears and sophomore Chucky Jeffery each had a double-double to lead the Buffs. Spears scored 18 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, while Jeffery added 19 and 12.

"It feels good...it wasn't the prettiest thing, but it feels good to get a win," said Jeffery, who scored eight of CU last 11 minutes.

On two occasions when the Highlanders had cut the Buffs' lead to two - 58-56 and 60-58 - Jeffery responded with baskets to keep the Big West Conference visitors at bay. Her biggest shot - about a 15-foot jumper - came at the 3:38 mark with the shot clock ticking toward zero.

Full-court pressure helped UC-Riverside cut into CU's 19-point advantage. The Buffs, however, claimed they had seen more troublesome presses in the Big 12 Conference and that they were blame for the bulk of their 21 turnovers.

Lappe pointed to ball-pressure by Highlanders' guard TreShont Nottingham, who had three of her team's 10 steals: "She's very quick and did a nice job...but down the stretch, we did a better job of handling it than early on."

The Buffs held a six-point halftime lead despite hitting only two field goals in the game's first 10 minutes. But they compensated for that 2-for-17 shooting from the field by going five-of-six from the free throw line during that frigid span. The biggest lead the Highlanders could manage during the Buffs' cold snap was 9-5.

Over the half's final 10 minutes, CU heated up enough to forge its six-point lead. A Jeffery jumper at the 9:33 mark pushed the Buffs up 14-13, and CU increased its lead to 28-23 before UC-Riverside pulled to within a point (25-24).

But Spears answered with her third trey of the half, and Jeffery added a layup in the final minute to put the Buffs up 30-24 at the break. Spears finished the half with nine points, Jeffery seven.

CU wound up shooting 44.0 percent from the field (22-of-50) to UC-Riverside's 34.5 percent (20-of-58). The Buffs outscored the Highlanders 49-29 and outscored them 22-18 in the paint and 32-21 off the bench.

CU scored the first five points of the second half - another Spears trey, a Jeffery layup - and took its first double-figure lead, 35-24. But that was merely the beginning.

In the half's first 6:08, the Buffs outscored the Highlanders 18-5 to open their 19-point lead (48-29). UC-Riverside closed to close to 54-45 on a three-pointer by Rheya Nabors, then to 54-47 on a layup by Alyssa Morris with 7:38 to play.

Just over two minutes later, Nottingham's trey brought the Highlanders to 58-54, and a pair of free throws by Morris closed the gap to 58-56 with 4:39 remaining.

Jeffery and Morris traded baskets, keeping CU ahead by a pair (60-58) before the Buffs got back-to-back field goals from Jeffery and Meagan Malcolm-Peck to extend the lead to 64-58 with 3 minutes left.

When Britney Blythe's pair of free throws made it 66-58 with 2:08 to play, the Buffs could breathe easier. CU added five-of-seven free throws in the final 1:48 and was on its way to the second round.

WNIT Second Round Game

BOULDER - Sometimes it all comes together early - or as Linda Lappe reflected, "I told our team they had a nice aura about them...if you believe in that."

Nice aura, good vibe, extra fine juju...whatever. Brittany Spears and the Colorado Buffaloes had something special at the opening tip. They started brilliantly Monday night and finished not far below that, eliminating future Pac-12 opponent California 81-65 in the second round of the WNIT.

Trailblazing by 27 points at halftime, Cal (18-16) attempted a second-half recovery, but never got closer than 14 in the final minute - and by then CU (17-15) was awaiting word on its third-round WNIT opponent. It will be Wyoming on Thursday at 7 p.m. in Laramie.

"We came out of the gates firing and didn't take our foot off the gas pedal for the first half...we never let up," said Lappe, whose team got 19 first-half points from Spears (33 total, a season high).

"I think we all came in focused and ready to play," said Spears, whose point total was only three below her career high set as a sophomore. She also contributed nine rebounds, two assists, two steals and two blocked shots.

In addition to Spears' output, CU got 16 points from Brittany Wilson, 13 from Meagan Malcolm-Peck and 11 from Chucky Jeffery. The Buffs shot 57.4 percent from the field (31-of-54), hit 10-of-22 three-pointers (one below their season high) and out-rebounded the Bears 34-26 - a point of emphasis for Lappe and her staff against a bigger opponent.

And they went hard from the opening whistle, running at every opportunity, racing to a 7-0 lead and putting Cal in a catch-up mode for the next 38 minutes. By halftime, the Buffs were up by 27 and Lappe's chief concern might have been the 19-point second-half lead their team almost squandered in its first-round victory against UC-Riverside. The Highlanders closed to two before the Buffs regrouped for a 71-62 win.

But, as Lappe pointed out, Monday night's game "wasn't the same feel as Riverside...we had a lull in the second half and were back on our heels."

Spears (and others) didn't allow the Buffs to assume that position against the Bears, who got 15 second-half points from scrappy guard Layshia Clarendon but in reality were doomed by intermission.

Just over halfway through the second half, Cal - playing more zone defense after the Buffs shredded a man-to-man - had cut CU's advantage to 59-44 on a layup by Eliza Pierre. On the Bears' next possession, Jeffery blocked another Pierre layup attempt, leading to a three-pointer by Malcolm-Peck that restored the Buffs' lead to 18 (64-46).

Jeffery followed with a conventional three-point play. Spears followed that with a three-pointer (her fourth) from the left corner...and CU was back in front by 22 (68-46) with 9:02 to play. The Buffs weren't about to revisit their first-round lapse against the Highlanders.

Brittany Wilson scored 12 of her 16 points in the first half, hitting all three of her treys in the first 20 minutes.

Cal's starting lineup featured four sophomores and a freshman, with two of the sophomores being heralded posts DeNesha Stallworth (12 points) and Talia Caldwell (11). Both were touted as physical players, but Spears & Co. apparently didn't buy it.

"We play in the Big 12, which is the best conference in the (NCAA)," Spears said. "They're in the Pac-10 right now, and they're good, but they aren't as physical as the teams in the Big 12. We are used to the physicality...it's just another game."

BOULDER - Colorado saw its payback plan for USC (and its 2010-11 basketball season) put on ice Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Center.

CU went for almost 10 1/2 minutes between field goals to start the second half, enabling the Trojans to overcome a five-point deficit and eliminate the Buffaloes 87-70 in the WNIT quarterfinals.

After having won six of its previous eight games, CU ended its season at 18-16 under first-year coach Linda Lappe.

"Well obviously this one kind of hurts," Lappe said. "I'm so proud of our team and what we were able to accomplish this season. It goes far beyond getting to the WNIT and getting 18 wins, and winning three games in the WNIT. It goes way further than just that. It's a credit to our players for believing and responding and continuing to fight and be tough. I'm proud of our seniors and I'm proud of our entire team for everything that we've been able to do; we just didn't have quite enough (Sunday)."

Trailing by 14 points after their uncharacteristic cold spell, the Buffs rallied behind career-leading scorer Brittany Spears to cut the Trojans' lead to 69-62 in the final 3:47. But that was as close as they would get.

Spears, playing her final game at the Events Center, tied her career-high with 36 points. She finished her CU career with a school-record 2,185 points, and with 652 points this season she moved into second place in seasonal scoring at CU.

The Buffs had only one other player in double figures - sophomore Chucky Jeffery with 13.

USC's Ashley Corral, a 5-foot-9 junior guard and the school's career-leading 3-point shooter, missed only one of her eight 3-point attempts and finished with a career-best 32 points. Three of her teammates reached double figures - Jacki Gemelos with 20, and Cassie Harberts and Kari LaPlante with 10 each.

The Trojans (23-12) bashed the Buffs on the boards, out-rebounding them 46-26, and hit 10 of their 13 three-point attempts while CU was 6-for-26 from behind the arc. USC's 87 points was a season high.

"It seemed like every time we started to make a run and needed a stop, we got a stop and then gave them an offensive rebound," Lappe said. "We're a very good rebounding team so for us to get out-rebounded by 20. That hurts and we couldn't overcome that."

The Buffs held the advantage for most of the first half - but never by more than four points. They took the lead for the first time (6-4) on a Brittany Wilson jump shot with 16:51 before intermission, then increased it to 9-5 on Wilson's three-pointer on the next possession.

USC never allowed CU to pull away, reclaiming a one-point advantage (14-13) 4 minutes later. The Trojans' biggest first-half lead was two points on five occasions, but they trailed by two (36-34) at halftime.

USC held a seven-rebound advantage (19-12) in the first 20 minutes and hit the same amount of three-pointers (four) as CU - but in only half as many tries (six). The Buffs committed only three first-half turnovers (nine for the game), while forcing the Trojans into eight (12 total). Both teams ended the half shooting 13-of-28 from the field (46.4 percent), but CU's 10-for-28 shooting in the second half dropped its percentage to 41.1 for the afternoon (23-of-56).

Spears' 16 points led all first-half scorers, while Corral, hitting all four of her field goals (including three treys), had 11 for USC. She was just warming up, while the Buffs were headed for the ice box.

Spears started the second half with a three-pointer, giving CU its largest lead of the afternoon, 39-34. But USC responded with an 8-0 run - Corral capped it with another three - and went ahead 42-39 with 16:47 remaining.

With Spears' trey the only CU field goal in the second half's first 10:11, USC was able to extend its run to 19-8 and went comfortably ahead 53-44 with 11:53 to play. The Buffs finally got their second field goal of the half with 9:49 left on another Spears trey, but by then the Trojans had surged ahead 60-46.
