Colorado's Sports Information Department: The University of Colorado's Sports Information Department welcomes and encourages your interest in Colorado Basketball. We will make every effort to service your needs in covering the Buffs. The Sports Information Office maintains information on all current student-athletes and athletic department staff, as well as historical data on former athletes and Colorado's athletic department in general. The Sports Information Office is located in the Balch Fieldhouse Annex on the west side of Folsom Field.

Media Credentials: Credentials for University of Colorado home women's basketball games can be obtained by emailing, writing or calling the CU Sports Information Office the week prior to the scheduled game. Credentials will be left at the southwest entrance on the main concourse.

Road Game Credentials: Media credentials for Colorado road games can either be requested through CU's or the opponent's women's basketball media relations contact. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed.

Photographers: Photo passes are available for working photographers for officially recognized media outlets, and/or individuals on special assignment. Requests should be addressed in the same manner as media credentials.

Visiting Radio Personnel: Visiting radio personnel desiring to broadcast athletic events from the University of Colorado should contact the Sports Information Office at the earliest possible date to request permission to broadcast. Phone and ISDN lines are available for the opponent radio station next to the opponent bench for all home games.

Media Workroom: A media workroom, located just off the playing floor, through the tunnel and to the right, will be available for use by media before and after games.

Media Services: Game notes containing updated team and individual statistics, information on upcoming games, Pac-12 Conference standings, and the latest AP and WBCA polls will be available one day prior to each non-tournament game throughout the season. Game notes, media guides and roster information, as well as opponent materials can be picked up before every game in the media workroom in the Coors Events Center. Copies of the box score and play-by-play information, as well as postgame quotes, can be emailed to your outlet at the conclusion of each game, home or away.

Photography and Video Services: High-quality photography is available through the Sports Information Office. To request photographs of current CU players and staff, please contact the CU Sports Information Office. Please specify four-color or grayscale, as well as desired resolution and format. For video highlight clips, contact the Pac-12 Conference.

Telephone-Fax: Media desiring a phone line for their own use should contact Campus Telecommunications (303-492-5194) to have a line installed. All other phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. A fax machine is available, also on a first-come, first-serve basis. You may reach an outside line by dialing "8".

Press Row Services: Working media will be provided with full play-by-play and box score statistics at halftime and following the game, along with coach and player quotes following the game. Beverages are available in the media workroom.

Postgame Interview Policies: After a short cooling off period, Colorado head coach Linda Lappe and selected players will be available to the media. All requests for player or coach interviews from either home or visiting teams should be directed to a CU sports information staff member. The Colorado and opponent lockerrooms are closed to the media.

No-Smoking Policy: There is a no-smoking policy to conform to University of Colorado policy concerning smoking on campus in the Coors Events Center. Those members of the media who do smoke will be directed to those areas outside of the arena where smoking is permitted.

Interview Policies

1. Media representatives desiring access to players, coaches and facilities must obtain the consent of the Colorado Sports Information Office and assistant director Troy Andre.
2. All practices are open to the local media, as well as to any member of a national media outlet who is not connected with a future opponent on the team schedule. Visiting media must receive authorization to attend practice through the Sports Information Office, which will in turn seek approval from the Head Coach. Live television shots must be approved by the Sports Information Office and Linda Lappe in advance.
3. Talking is not permitted on the floor and court area of the Coors Events Center while practice is in session unless it is to request a player or coach for an interview through Troy Andre.
4. Basketball players may be interviewed following practice during both the fall and spring semesters. CU players are not to be interviewed prior to any practice unless approved 24 hours in advance by Troy Andre, and this exception is rare. All interviews on game days, prior to tipoff, are at the discretion of Linda Lappe.
5. The lockerroom is closed to the media at all times.
6. The training room, equipment room, and weight room are off-limits at all times to the media. The only exception to this rule is if a special feature involving one of the areas is requested, and approval must be sought in advance from the Sports Information Office and the appropriate department head.
7. Any requests for athletes and coaches on off days will be handled on an individual basis through the Sports Information Office.
8. Road practices are open only to members of the media that cover CU on a regular basis, as well as any members of the national media. Linda Lappe is available for interviews with opponent media based on her personal discretion.
9. It is the request of the University of Colorado women's basketball program that players are not to be called at home, unless permission has been granted by the player herself or through Troy Andre. Though most phone numbers are available through campus information, players are asked to decline interviews when they have been reached at home when that interview has not been approved.

HEAD COACH LINDA LAPPE

Third
Season

When Linda Lappe first came to Colorado as a freshman in the fall of 1998, she joined a basketball program with a proud history, but one that was facing a rebuilding period. Over her five-year career as a player she helped lead the Buffaloes from a time of struggle to the doorstep of the Final Four.

Fourteen years after her initial arrival in Boulder, Lappe is in the middle of guiding a similar building process, this time as the head coach.

Lappe is 39-30 in two seasons as the head women's basketball coach at Colorado, including a pair of appearances in the Postseason WNIT. The 2012-13 season will be her sixth overall as a collegiate head coach, sporting a five-year mark of 89-66 with each season ending with a record of .500 or better.

She has led the Buffaloes to back-to-back winning seasons, and postseason appearances, for the first time since 2003-04. Additionally, Lappe coached CU to its first 20-win season in eight years at 21-14 in 2011-12, the program's first as a member of the Pac-12 Conference.

Her second season couldn't have started any better. Colorado swept its 11-game nonconference regular season schedule and with its first ever Pac-12 win, a 58-52 come-from-behind classic at Utah in the opener, CU equaled the second-best start in school history at 12-0.

Colorado also achieved its first conference tournament win since 2007 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2012 Postseason WNIT for the second straight season.

The prospects remain bright for Lappe's 2012-13 squad. CU returns nine letterwinners and all but one regular contributor from a season ago. She also brings in the 27th ranked recruiting class in the nation, according to ESPN's HoopGurlz.

At 32, she remains the youngest head women's basketball coach at a BCS conference school and at the time of her hire was the third-youngest overall, behind only Jamie Craighead (Sacramento State) and Candace Whittaker (UMKC). Just a couple months after her 30th birthday, she became the second-youngest to be named head coach of the CU women's team. Lappe's mentor, CU Athletic Hall of Fame coach Ceal Barry, was 28 when named on April 12, 1983, exactly 27 years to the date of her own hiring.

Lappe has coached a pair of first-team all-conference performers, one for each league she's coached in. Lapped guided Chucky Jeffery to All-Pac-12 honors in 2011-12 and Brittany Spears to All-Big 12 accolades in 2010-11. Jeffery was also named to the All-Pac-12 Defensive team last season.

Lappe helped mentor Spears, CU's all-time leading scorer, into a 2011 WNBA second round draft pick (No. 19 overall) by the Phoenix Mercury.

Possibly surprising to those outside the program, but not those who played or coached with her previously, Lappe's first year turned heads of outsiders immediately. With an emphasis on team, Lappe helped Colorado's squad thrive. She inherited a team with only six healthy returning players, three of which had limited playing experience. Lappe meshed the returners with three newcomers who all contributed significant minutes.

Picked to finish last in its final season as a member of the Big 12 Conference, Colorado surprised naysayers with a 6-10 record, good enough for an eighth place tie in a league that sent seven teams to the NCAA Tournament. Her first CU team finished 18-16 overall, advancing to the quarterfinals of the 2011 Postseason WNIT.

Lappe was the only rookie NCAA Division I head coach with wins over ranked teams in 2010-11, both wins special in their own way.

The first win was a 66-60 overtime triumph over No. 17 (AP)/16 (ESPN/USA Today/WBCA) ranked Iowa State. The victory provided Lappe with her first Big 12 win and came against her home state school.

Her second win over a ranked opponent provided a different set of circumstances. Needing wins in three of their final four regular season games to ensure postseason eligibility, Lappe's squad didn't waste any time by knocking off No. 16/15 Oklahoma (73-68) in Boulder. The Buffaloes then proceeded to win two straight road games, their first road wins of the season, to clinch their WNIT berth. Lappe became one of three NCAA I rookie head coaches to lead a team into the 2011 postseason, guiding Colorado to wins over UC Riverside, future Pac-12 rival California at home and on the road at Wyoming.

A key contributor as a player for some very prominent Colorado women's basketball teams, Lappe was named the seventh head coach in the program's history by athletic director Mike

Bohn on April 12, 2010, just under a decade removed from her playing career at her alma mater.

Lappe returned full circle to the Buffaloes after a three-year stint as head coach at Metropolitan State College in Denver. She was 50-36 at Metro State, guiding the Roadrunners to top-three finishes and winning records in the Eastern Division of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference in each of her three seasons.

Her 2009-10 squad finished 17-12 overall before ending the season in the RMAC Tournament semifinals against the eventual NCAA Division II national runner up in Fort Lewis (Colo.) College. She had two players earn RMAC All-Eastern Division honors in 2010 in Kristin Valencia and Chelsea Williamson and Valencia was tabbed as the East Division Defensive Player of the Year.

Lappe's 2007-08 Metro State team posted a 19-10 overall record, finished second in the RMAC's East Division and qualified for the conference tournament. Metro State put together a season-high nine-game winning streak during the season and ranked third in the RMAC in scoring defense.

She landed her first head coaching job after four years as an assistant at the NCAA Division I level, three with Drake University (2004-06) and one with Colorado State (2006-07).

Lappe was hired at Colorado State by Jen Warden, a former Colorado assistant who was on the bench with Barry during Lappe's playing career. At CSU, Lappe was the recruiting coordinator and also worked with the Rams' backcourt players.

Lappe began her collegiate coaching career at Drake where she spent three years on Amy Stephens' staff, helping the Bulldogs to a 47-42 mark. She assisted Drake to WNIT appearances in 2004 and 2006 and helped sign a Top 50 class that would go on to help the Bulldogs claim the 2007 Missouri Valley Conference Championship.

A two-year captain and All-Big 12 honorable mention selection, Lappe averaged 7.8 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.0 assists in 115 games from 1998-2003. She helped Colorado to three consecutive NCAA appearances from 2001-03, including an Elite Eight appearance in 2002 and a spot in the Sweet 16 as a senior in 2003.

Lappe averaged 8.4 points and 4.4 rebounds as a senior 2003 while dishing out 96 assists, and shooting 84.3 percent from the free throw line as the Buffaloes finished 24-8 and fourth in the Big 12. She was a finalist for the V Foundation Comeback of the Year award after missing large chunks of her sophomore and redshirt junior years with injuries.

She missed the first 11 games the 2001-02 season, but worked her way back into the lineup for CU's Elite Eight squad averaging 4.6 points and 2.9 rebounds per game against a brutal schedule that included 16 games against ranked teams.

Lappe helped CU to a 22-9 mark in 2000-01 and the team's first NCAA appearance since 1997. She led the Big 12 in free throw percentage at 85.9 percent and tallied seven points and nearly three rebounds per contest.

As a freshman in 1998-99 Lappe was CU's offensive MVP after she led the team in scoring (10.7 ppg), free throws made (91) and percentage (.827), assists (3.8 apg) and steals (1.7 spg) as the Buffs made their first ever postseason WNIT appearance. She played just two games as a sophomore in 1999-2000 before a broken knee cap ended her season.

A three-time first team Academic All-Big 12 honoree, Lappe graduated from CU with her bachelor's degree in business administration in 2002. She is a native of Burlington, Iowa, where she had a stellar prep career. An honorable mention Street & Smith's All-American, she graduated from Winfield High School with prep records in career points (1,987), steals (402), steals in a season (111), steals in a game (10), career assists (652), season assists (208), single game assists (14) and a 110-3 (.974) career record.

She was a first-team Class A (the smallest classification in Iowa) all-state selection from 1996 to 97 and a second-team all-Iowa pick following her freshman year. Her Winfield-Mount Union teams were the Class A state champions in 1995 and 96 and her 1997 team went 28-0 before being upset in the state semifinals, snapping an 80-game win streak. In 2009

Lappe was inducted into the Iowa Girls Basketball Hall of Fame

The daughter of Tom and Jean Lappe, she has two siblings who both played college basketball. Her older brother Burt is a graduate of Northern Iowa, and her younger brother Jake is a graduate of Luther (Iowa) College.

ASSISTANT COACH JONAS CHATTERTONThird
Season

Jonas Chatterton is in his third season as an assistant women's basketball coach at the University of Colorado as he joined Linda Lappe's staff on June 9, 2010. He assists with recruiting, opponent scouting, post play development, offensive and defensive schemes and serves as the program's liaison with marketing and promotions.

He has assisted Colorado to its first back-to-back winning seasons, and postseason appearances since 2003-04. In addition, the Buffaloes enjoyed their first 20-win season in eight years as the 2011-12 squad went 21-14, advancing to the quarterfinals of the 2012 Postseason WNIT.

While grooming Colorado's young post players on the floor, on the recruiting trail he was most valuable in helping the Buffaloes acquire the 27th best recruiting class in the nation in 2012, according to ESPN.com's HoopGurlz.

Chatterton's first season was a memorable one, as he helped coach the Buffaloes into the postseason for the first time in three seasons. Colorado finished the 2010-11 season at 18-16, including wins over a pair of ranked teams, advancing to the quarterfinals of the Postseason WNIT.

He spent eight highly successful seasons as an assistant women's basketball coach at BYU under Jeff Judkins (2001-09). During his eight years in Provo, the Cougars compiled a record of 157-89 (.638), won two Mountain West Conference regular season titles (2006-07), one MWC Tournament crown (2002) and participated in five postseason tournaments, including four NCAA Championships (2003-03, 2006-07).

BYU recorded winning marks in seven of Chatterton's eight seasons, winning 20 or more games three times. The Cougars were 49-16 during their back-to-back MWC title run of 2006-07. The 2005-06 squad spent a majority of the season ranked in the nation's Top 25, recorded the program's best mark in school history at 26-6 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament which was hosted by CU and held at the Pepsi Center in Denver.

During his first year as an assistant coach (2001-02), BYU won the MWC Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in the program's history. In 2002-03 the Cougars also advanced to the NCAA Tournament, losing a first round game in Boulder to Lappe, then a senior, and her Buffaloes who were bound for the Sweet 16.

Before joining BYU, Chatterton spent two years as an assistant men's basketball coach at Westminster College, an NAIA school in Salt Lake City (1998-2000) where he helped revive a program that had been discontinued in 1979.

Chatterton received his bachelor's of science degree from the University of Utah in 2000 where he majored in exercise and sports science. He played one year of basketball for Rocky Mountain College (Mont.) before transferring to Utah.

Prior to arriving in Boulder, Chatterton took one year off from collegiate coaching (2009-10), working as the Director of Sales and Marketing for OrthoRx Inc, a medical supply company in San Diego. He remained involved in basketball as a coach for the Cal Swish Basketball Club of Orange County.

A native of Salt Lake City, Chatterton has a daughter, Josie (10), and he and his wife Cami have a daughter, Celia (3), and a son Hudson (1).

ASSISTANT COACH KELLY RAE FINLEY

First
Season

Kelly Rae Finley is in her first season as an assistant women's basketball coach as she was hired by head coach Linda Lappe on May 18, 2012. She serves as Colorado's recruiting coordinator and also coaches the Buffaloes' forwards.

Finley, 27, joins Colorado after spending four years on the staff at Harvard University (2008-12); the last three as a full-time assistant coach.

The Crimson posted a 75-41 mark in her four seasons in Cambridge including four second place Ivy League finishes – a record of 42-14 - and three Postseason WNIT appearances.

At Harvard, Finley was the recruiting coordinator, signing a class in 2011 that was ranked 31st in the nation by ESPN including the Ivy League's first McDonald's All-American in Temi Fagbenle. She coached 12 All-Ivy League players and coordinated player development with an emphasis on the forward position.

Off the court Finley was Harvard women's basketball's liaison for equipment management, community outreach coordinator and was an active participant at alumni events. She was a Harvard Faculty Affiliate with the Leverett House, an upperclass dorm. Finley also continued her education with graduate studies in organizational leadership & non-profit management through the Harvard University Extension School.

Finley graduated cum laude from Colorado State University in 2008 with her bachelor's degree in human development and family studies. She was a two-year letterwinner for the Rams and was a Mountain West Conference Scholar-Athlete Award winner in 2008. She played one year for Lappe, who was a CSU assistant in 2006-07. Finley began her collegiate career at Northwestern University where she lettered in 2004-05.

She was involved with Boys and Girls Clubs of Fort Collins and Chicago as well as a representative on the Student Athletic Advisory Committee and a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA).

A native of Minneapolis, Finley was a three-year team captain for The Breck School, helping her team to a Minnesota Class 2A State Championship in 2004, runner-up finish in 2003 and a third-place showing in 2002. Her AAU team, the Minnesota Metro Stars won the Nike Showcase championship in Chicago in 2003.

Finley began her coaching career in her native state, as an assistant with her former AAU team from 2005-07. She coached the 12U, 13U and 16U teams, developing game schemes and practice plans while assisting with tournament organization and coordination. Finley also served as the MN Hardball basketball camp director from 2007-08, engaged in all aspects of the organization's functions.

ASSISTANT COACH LATONYA WATSON11th
Season

LaTonya Watson is in her second year of her second tour of duty as an assistant women's basketball coach at the University of Colorado. She coaches the Buffaloes back court players, plus serves as the team liaison with the Herbst Academic Center.

Watson, a Colorado assistant under Ceal Barry from 1996-2005, returned to Boulder and head coach Linda Lappe's staff on May 16, 2011, after serving three years as an assistant coach at American University (2008-11) and three years coaching and teaching in the prep ranks in Georgia.

She assisted Colorado to its first 20-win season in eight years as the 2011-12 Buffaloes finished 21-14, advancing to the quarterfinals of the 2012 Postseason WNIT. Watson's return to Boulder came just in time to assist the Buffaloes into their first year in the Pac-12 Conference. Ironically, Watson's first season at Colorado coincided with the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996.

At American, Watson assisted the Eagles to a three-year record of 63-31 (.670), back-to-back Patriot League regular season titles (2010, '11), consecutive appearances in the league tournament championship game (2010, '11) and repeat appearances in the Postseason WNIT (2009, '10).

Watson coached American's perimeter players while also serving as the recruiting coordinator. She handled many facets of the Eagles' program including opponent scheduling, scouting, recruit travel and organizing community service projects. Watson developed three players to conference honors as the wing positional coach, including two-time all-league selection and 2010 Patriot League Player of the Year Michelle Kirk.

Prior to joining the American staff, Watson spent two years as a math instructor and head girls basketball coach at Chamblee (Ga.) Charter High School (2006-08) and one campaign as a math teacher and assistant varsity girls coach at Meadowcreek High School in Norcross, Ga. (2005-06). At Chamblee, Watson led her team to a two-year record of 34-18. During her two-year tenure, Chamblee increased its number of wins by 17 and Watson helped two players obtain college basketball scholarships. Her team was named the DeKalb County AAA Team of the Month in January 2008.

Watson's first stint with Colorado spanned nine successful seasons, sporting a record of 152-92 and five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2002 Elite Eight. She was the academic liaison on Barry's staff, working closely with the Herbst Academic Center in monitoring and mentoring the academic needs of the program. Watson helped the team achieve a Top 25 ranking on the 1999 WBCA Team Honor Roll. During her coaching tenure 92 percent (22 of 24) of all players graduated.

She helped mentor 10 players who went on to play professionally, but most notably as it pertains to her second term, Watson was on the CU bench during Lappe's five-year playing career (1998-03).

Watson is a 1992 graduate of Eastern Michigan University where she majored in mathematics and minored in English and literature and played point guard for then-head coach Cheryl Getz from 1988-92. A 1992 All-Mid American Conference second team pick, Watson graduated ranking second in assists (446) and seventh in points (1,296) on the school's career lists. She was also a three-time Academic All-MAC selection, a member of the 1989 MAC All-Freshman team and earned honorable mention to the 1991 all-league squad.

She began her coaching career in 1992 as a graduate assistant at EMU. After the 1992-93 season, she coached the girls volleyball, basketball and track teams at Dunbar Middle School in Fort Worth, Texas. In 1995 her responsibilities transferred to Dunbar's high school team where she was an assistant. From August 1995 until her initial hire at CU, she was a high school math teacher at Pioneer High School in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Former WNBA player and All-Southeastern Conference performer Jenni Benningfield is in her first season as the Director of Operations for the Colorado women's basketball program. Her duties include scheduling, team travel, monitoring the budget, community service and facility coordination.

Benningfield joins CU for her first full time role, but has been around the department for a year. She was a volunteer assistant coach with the Buffaloes' volleyball team in 2011, serving as a sports psychology consultant. She was also the head varsity girls basketball coach at Pomona High School in Arvada for the 2011-12 season and in that same role at Nederland (Colo.) High School in 2010-11.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Benningfield was a four-year standout at Vanderbilt University (2000-04) where she helped the Commodores to four NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of SEC Tournament titles (2002, '04). She scored 1,501 points for Vanderbilt, averaging 11 points and 6.3 rebounds in 136 career games. A two-time All-SEC second team selection (2003, '04), Benningfield earned honorable mention to the 2003 Associated Press All-America team as a junior averaging 16.5 points and 7.9 rebounds while shooting 56 percent from the field.

Benningfield was drafted by the Charlotte Sting in the second round of the 2004 WNBA Draft (22nd pick overall). She later signed with the Indiana Fever, where she played the 2005 season. In addition to her WNBA career, she played internationally in Spain (2004-08) and Australia (2008-09).

She earned her Bachelor of Science in human development from Vanderbilt in 2004 and completed her Master of Education in sport psychology and counseling from Boston University in 2010. Benningfield served as a sport psychology consultant at Wheelock College in Boston while working on her master's.

Benningfield is a 2000 graduate of Assumption High School in Louisville, the same school that produced Ceal Barry. She excelled in both volleyball and basketball at Assumption, earning second team All-America honors and a national championship in volleyball while earning Miss Basketball in Kentucky on the hardwood. She was a captain on the 2003 USA silver medal winning basketball team at the Pan-American Games.

TROY ANDRE

Assistant Sports Information Director/Internet Managing Editor

Troy Andre is in his 10th year as CU's assistant sports information director/ internet managing editor, and ninth as women's basketball contact.

Andre maintains CU's official athletic website, CUBuffs.com and was the contact for volleyball for two seasons (2003-04). He was the media coordinator for the 2006 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament First and Second rounds played at the Pepsi Center in Denver.

Prior to CU, he worked for five years at Minnesota-Duluth both as the assistant SID and ticket manager, helping to publicize and promote 14 NCAA Division II sports and two NCAA Division I programs. He was UMD's primary contact for volleyball, women's soccer, men's and women's basketball and baseball; maintained UMD's official website; supervised the office work-study students; and in 2003, coordinated the marketing, promotion and ticket sales for the 2003 Women's Frozen Four.

Andre, 38, graduated in 1996 from the University of Northern Colorado with a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communication with an emphasis in public relations and advertising. He attended graduate school at North Dakota State University, majoring in mass communication, and worked for two years as a graduate assistant in NDSU's sports information office between 1996 and 1998.

At UNC, he worked two years in the Bears' sports information office as a student assistant, and also was a sports reporter for the Greeley Tribune, a job he actually started in high school and held for over five years. He covered the Denver Broncos training camp as a beat reporter for the Tribune, and later would work as a summer intern for the Broncos in 1996 following his senior year in college.

Born December 12, 1973 in Fort Collins, Colo., he graduated from University High School in Greeley, where he lettered in cross country and was also active in statistical work with football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Danielle Driscoll.

DAN DOERFLEIN

Video Coordinator

Dan Doerflein is in his third year as video coordinator for the University of Colorado women's basketball team.

Doerflein, 30, edits and analyzes practice and game film for the Colorado coaching staff, assisting in the creation of scouting reports.

He joined the Buffaloes after spending seven seasons working with the women's basketball program at Brigham Young University. He began as a student assistant at BYU for the 2001-02 season and after a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Washington D.C., he returned to his role from 2004-07 where he primarily worked on conversion defense and player development.

Doerflein was the Cougars' film coordinator from 2007-09, where he was responsible for recording and analyzing game film. After graduating from BYU with his bachelor of science degree in American Studies in 2009, he served as director of operations for the 2009-10 campaign where he was in charge of scheduling, travel, academics and film exchange.

He enjoyed a successful stint on the staff of Jeff Judkins' BYU program. While Doerflein was at BYU the Cougars won two Mountain West Conference regular season titles (2006-07), one MWC Tournament Crown (2002) and participated in three NCAA Tournaments (2002, 2006-07). Doerflein was on the same BYU staff as current Buffaloes assistant Jonas Chatterton, who was an assistant on Judkins' staff from 2001-09.

Doerflein is also a veteran of the youth camps circuit working with sessions at both BYU and the University of Maryland.

Born in Columbia, Md., Doerflein graduated from Grandview High School in Aurora, Colo., in 2001 where he lettered in basketball, baseball and tennis. He is married to the former Lindsay Banks.

KYLE GEDDES

Marketing/Promotions

Kyle Geddes is in his second year as a marketing/promotions coordinator with the CU Athletic Department. Geddes assists in all aspects of marketing and promotions for all 16 of Colorado's varsity sports, with a focus on women's basketball and volleyball.

Prior to joining Colorado, Geddes was a marketing assistant with the University of Maryland Athletic Department where he developed and executed marketing, ticket sales and game production for the Terapins' men's soccer and women's lacrosse teams. His efforts allowed both programs to reach attendance milestones with both also exceeding their ticket revenue goals for the season. While focusing day-to-day on those sports, he also contributed to group ticket sales plans for football and men's and women's basketball.

Geddes spent two years (2008-10) as a marketing graduate assistant in the athletic department at St. John's (N.Y.) University. At St. John's he directed promotional and ticket sales efforts for women's soccer, women's basketball and men's lacrosse. He also implemented game day operations for eight of 16 varsity sports including men's basketball at Madison Square Garden. Geddes also worked for ISP Sports, where he was a promotions team member for the 2009 and 2010 BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament.

He earned his MBA from St. John's in 2010 with a concentration in marketing. Geddes obtained a bachelor's degree in business administration from Notre Dame in 2008, where he was also a four-year sports marketing intern for the Fighting Irish.

A native East Northport, NY, Geddes enjoys playing lacrosse and is an avid NHL and NBA fan.

ROSI HAUBER

Office Manager

Rosi Hauber is in her third year as office manager for the University of Colorado women's basketball team, assisting in virtually every phase of the program's day-to-day operation.

A CU Athletics veteran, Rosi arrived at CU in September 1997, and began a seven-year stint in the athletic director's office in 1998. In 2005 she moved over to the marketing and promotions and licensing area where she also assisted with the Alumni C-Club and the East Stadium Club Seats and Suites.

Rosi earned her diploma from Northeast Iowa Community college and worked at Iowa State University for 13 years before moving to Colorado in 1987. She grew up on her family's farm near Cresco, Iowa.

Rosi resides in Erie, Colo., with Jim Jokumsen and their Shiba Inu (Nami). She enjoys classic cars, travel, playing cards and college sports.

CHRIS HOWLETT

Academic Coordinator

Chris Howlett is in his first year in the Herbst Academic Center as he joined the staff in July 2012.

Howlett serves as the academic coordinator for the women's basketball, men's golf and skiing programs at CU. His primary role is to design and implement objective based academic programming for student-athletes to improve academic success, time management skills, decision making skills, and study skills with the long term goal being graduation, community involvement and career placement.

Prior to his arrival at CU, Howlett served as an athletic academic counselor at Florida Atlantic University from 2008-12. His responsibilities at FAU included the academic oversight of the men's soccer, women's softball, women's golf, and women's volleyball teams. In addition, Howlett served as the department's admissions liaison, textbook coordinator, and Life Skills coordinator.

Howlett attended Western High School in Davie, Fla., where he played baseball and hockey. He earned a bachelor's of business administration degree with a major in management from Florida Atlantic University in 2008. He also received a minor in accounting.

Howlett is originally from Northampton, England and enjoys traveling, playing hockey, and spending time with his wife, Rachel.

BRENT OJA

Assistant Director of Equipment

Brent Oja is in his second year as an assistant director of equipment, joining the athletic department in March 2011. Oja worked with football for a little over one season, and turns his focus to basketball for the first time this year.

Oja, 29, came to Colorado from the University of Virginia, where he had worked the previous three-plus years as an assistant equipment manager. At UVA, he was responsible for all the equipment needs for the men's and women's basketball teams as well as the men's and women's swimming and diving teams. He got his start in the business at Iowa State, where he served one year as an associate for equipment operations for the 2007-08 academic year.

He graduated from the University of Minnesota in 2006 with two degrees, earning a bachelor of science in sports studies and a bachelor of arts in history.

He was born April 8, 1983 in St. Cloud, Minn., and graduated from Melrose Area High School (Melrose, Minn.) where he lettered in football and basketball (his father was his head coach in both) as well as in track and field. His hobbies include reading and watching movies.

CHRIS SHECKLER

Assistant Speed-Strength & Conditioning Coach

Chris Sheckler is in his first year as the assistant speed-strength and conditioning coach for women's basketball and volleyball, joining the Colorado staff in August 2012.

Sheckler, 26, came to CU from Montana State, where he was the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Bobcats for one year (2011-12). While at MSU, Sheckler designed and implemented strength and conditioning programs for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's alpine and nordic skiing, as well as women's golf, while assisting with football. He went to MSU from South Dakota State where he spent two seasons (2009-11) as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He graduated from Dakota Wesleyan University in 2009, where he received a Bachelor's degree in Exercise Science. He earned a Master of Science in Sports Science from South Dakota State in 2011. He also maintains strength and conditioning certifications through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) and USA Weightlifting.

While at Dakota Wesleyan, Sheckler was an NAIA scholar All-American in football, an All-GPAC linebacker and a recipient of the Dakota Wesleyan Matthew D. Smith Award, which is given to the most outstanding senior student-athlete. He also lettered three years in track and field, where he participated in the hammer and indoor weight throws.

He was born August 6, 1986 in Cody, Wyo., and graduated from Rock Springs High School (Rock Springs, Wyo.) where he lettered in football, track and field, and hockey. His hobbies include cycling, hunting, fishing, skiing and snowboarding. He also competes in Olympic weightlifting and the Scottish Highland Games.

JESSICA SOBIE

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Jessica Sobie is in her second year as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Colorado. She primarily works with the women's basketball team and the Colorado Spirit squads.

Prior to joining Colorado, Sobie, 34, spent eight seasons as a member of the athletic training staff at Bradley University in Peoria, Ill. She served as an assistant athletic trainer for the women's basketball and cross country squads and was promoted to associate athletic trainer for women's sports in June 2008.

Sobie provided event coverage for her primary sports plus men's basketball, soccer, volleyball, softball and men's and women's tennis. Along with her sport event coverage, as the associate, she supervised three full time assistants, three graduate assistants and was generally responsible for all women's sports at Bradley.

She was an instructor for a three credit hour course: Health Science Applications for Sport and Exercise, as part of Bradley's Health Science Department. Sobie was a CPR instructor and authorized provider, teaching CPR/AED to all athletic department personnel and athletic training staff.

She served as the medical director for the Missouri Valley Conference Men's and Women's Tennis Championships and a NCAA Men's and Women's Cross Country Regional event. Sobie is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association Board of Certification and licensed by the Illinois State Board of Certification.

Sobie earned her bachelor of arts degree with a double major in athletic training & health and fitness management from Capital University (Ohio) in May 2000. She received her master of science degree from Middle Tennessee State University in May 2003. At MTSU, she served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer, providing support to the women's basketball and soccer teams. Sobie also spent one year as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Southeast Missouri State University (2000-01), covering women's gymnastics.

A native of East Liverpool, Ohio, Jessica Hanson married Eric Sobie on July 23, 2011. She enjoys running, hiking, reading, baking and cooking. She has made two international trips, one a medical mission trip to Guatemala, and the other with Fellowship of Christian Athletes, to Israel for basketball and swimming camps. She is a three-time successful finisher of the Chicago Marathon.

DERIC SWANSON

Director of BuffVision

Deric Swanson is in his 14th year as the Director of BuffVision, coordinating all aspects of production involving the $6 million video board operation for athletics.

Originally housed at Folsom Field, Swanson supervised the transition of BuffVision's operations to the brand new, state-of-the-art studio that opened at the Coors Events Center in August 2012.

Swanson is also a primary liaison between CU Athletics and Pac-12 Enterprises & the Pac-12 Networks.

Swanson, 38, came to CU from the Colorado Avalanche Hockey Club in 1999, where he had worked for a brief time as the manager of game entertainment and video production. He had previously worked three-plus seasons with the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club, first as a stadium camera operator, and then as video production coordinator, including the 1998 Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Coors Field.

In 2003, BuffVision won the Golden Matrix Award for "Best Overall Video Display" in the University Division at the Information Display and Entertainment Association (IDEA) conference in Atlanta. The following year, BuffVision was awarded two distinctions, one for the 2004 Aurora Awards, a Platinum Best of Show statue for In-Game Entertainment Graphics/Design, and a Telly Award for The Buffalo Stampede, CU's coaches' show. In 2006 and 2007, BuffVision won four more Telly Awards for Swanson's production, including two for the "Ralphie on Campus" institutional spot and another for The Buffalo Stampede.

He is a 1996 graduate of Colorado State University, earning his bachelor's degree in technical journalism and broadcasting. He graduated Magna Cum Laude and was recognized as CSU's outstanding graduate in journalism.

He was born May 24, 1974 in Oakland, Calif., and attended two high schools. His father was stationed in the Azores, Portugal, and he spent two years at Lajes High School, where he lettered in football, soccer, volleyball and basketball. After moving to Colorado, he graduated from Liberty High School in Colorado Springs, where he lettered in football. He played volleyball on CSU's club team for three years. In 2012, Swanson completed his third IronMan triathlon in British Columbia, Canada. He is married the former Heather Cohea and the couple has two sons, Gavin (4) and Dane (1).

ERIC PELLONI

Assistant Director of BuffVision

Eric Pelloni is in his seventh season as the assistant director of BuffVision, although he has been involved in CU Athletics for the better part of 13 years.

He assists with the video packages for CU's video display boards and has been on the BuffVision game day crew for 12 seasons. Pelloni also helps coordinate streaming and technical issues between CU Athletics and Pac-12 Enterprises.

When CU Athletics overhauled its official athletic website, CUBuffs.com, in 2003, Pelloni was hired on a part-time basis to create video content and stream live. He has created the majority of the graphic work and assisted in the designing of CUBuffs.com, and has designed several women's basketball media guide covers.

Pelloni was also the associate producer of "The Buffalo Stampede" coaches show which aired weekly on FSN Rocky Mountain until ending with Colorado's transition over to the Pac-12 Networks agreement.

Prior to his full-time appointment at CU, Pelloni worked as a freelance video editor/graphic artist in the Denver area, creating video content for both broadcast and non-broadcast applications for a number of clients including Qwest Communications, Coors, XCEL Energy and the United Way of New York City.

Pelloni graduated from Metropolitan State College of Denver in 1998 and served as an Adjunct Professor at Metro State in 2003-04. He and his wife Gabbie, CU's Director of Operations for Olympic Sports, were married in June 2012.

B.G. BROOKS

Contributing Editor, CUBuffs.com

B.G. Brooks is in his fourth year as contributing editor for CUBuffs.com, joining the University of Colorado athletic department in July 2009.

The veteran reporter provides analytical game coverage and some commentary for football and basketball, writes feature stories and works on special projects and series with a green light to be objective. He is the web site's first on-staff reporter and was seventh full-time reporter with newspaper roots working for a school or conference at the time of his hiring.

Brooks covered CU athletics for the Rocky Mountain News from 1987-2009, most notably football and men's and women's basketball. He wrote thousands of stories until the paper went out of business in February 2009.

He began his career at the Memphis Commercial-Appeal upon graduating from the University of Memphis in 1970. He worked for both the Columbia Daily-Tribune and the Missourian while attending grad school at the University of Missouri before joining the Rocky Mountain News in 1978. His experience includes the full scope, from copy editing and beat reporting (of which he was twice honored as the state's best in 2004 and 2005 by the Colorado AP editors) to time as a columnist as well as sports editor.

He also was a long time voter for many of college football's top awards, including the Heisman Trophy, the Butkus Award and the Doak Walker Award, as well as being an Associated Press Top 25 voter from 1987-2007.

Brooks and his wife Patti have two adult children Kelley, a CU graduate and Brian, a Western State College graduate, and two grandchildren.

MICHELLE WOLCOTT, M.D.

Team Physician

Dr. Michelle Wolcott is in her 10th year as team physician for the University of Colorado women's basketball program.

An orthopedic surgeon, Dr. Wolcott specializes in the management of athletic injuries to the ankle, knee and shoulder. She earned her bachelor of science degree in biology from the University of Utah and graduated from Georgetown University School of Medicine in 1996.

Dr. Wolcott completed her internship and residency in orthopedic surgery at Loyola University Medical Center in Maywood, Ill., in 2001. She also completed a fellowship in sports medicine at the University of Iowa Hospital & Clinics in 2002.

A member of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons and the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine, Dr. Wolcott spends her free time with her son, Henry (2), and daughter Charlotte (born July 2012).

STEPHANIE CHU, D.O.

Team Physician

Dr. Stephanie Chu has served as team physician within CU Athletics since 2008. Working with women's basketball, soccer and volleyball teams at CU, she specializes in primary care sports medicine, with personal interests in women's sports medicine and endurance athletes.

Originally from Westerville, Ohio, Chu earned her undergraduate degree from Miami University in 1999 and her medical degree from the Ohio University College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2003. She completed her Family Medicine residency and Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship at the University of Connecticut in 2008, working with various athletic teams while at UConn.

Currently residing in Denver, Chu is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) and the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine (AMSSM). She spends her free time traveling and volunteering with the nonprofit organization Hope Shines, traveling to Kigali, Rwanda with the organization every summer.

PRESIDENT BRUCE BENSON

Before he became president of the University of Colorado in March 2008, Bruce D. Benson had already made his mark in business, politics, philanthropy, education and civic endeavors.

He founded Benson Mineral Group in 1965, a year after earning a degree in geology from CU. Over his career, he has been involved in a variety of business ventures, including real estate, restaurants and banking.

Three different Colorado governors have named Benson to various education initiatives and governing boards, including the Colorado Commission on Higher Education and the Metro State College Board of Trustees, both of which he chaired. In addition, he co-chaired the P-20 Education Coordinating Council from 2007 until early 2008 and chaired the Governor's Blue Ribbon Panel for Higher Education for the 21st Century from 2001 to 2003.

He has been active in support of his alma mater. He was national chairman of CU's four-campus, $1 Billion Comprehensive Fund-Raising Campaign from 1997-2003. He served as a director on the Coleman Colorado Foundation – Institute for Cognitive Disabilities from 2001-08. He was a board member for CU-Boulder's Center for the American West from 2006-08. Benson also served on the board of directors of the CU Foundation from 1990-96, and was a member of the CU Foundation Development Cabinet from 1992-95. CU awarded him the University Medal in 1999 and the university's Ira C. Rothgerber Award in 2003 (one of two ever awarded). The CU Alumni Association honored him with its Recognition Award in 2001. He also has provided significant philanthropic support to CU.

Benson was also one of the leaders of the 2005 statewide campaign that successfully passed Referendum C, which provided additional funding for education and the state budget. He was elected chairman of the Colorado Republican Party four times, and was the Republican nominee for governor in 1994.

As CU president, Benson leads a system of four campuses: Boulder, Colorado Springs, Denver and the Anschutz Medical Campus. CU serves some 56,000 students and has a $2.7 billion annual budget.

Benson has received many honors recognizing his leadership in a variety of activities, but two are particularly notable: CU in 2004 granted him an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, and in February 2009, he was named to the Colorado Business Hall of Fame.

A native of Chicago, Benson has called Colorado home for nearly five decades. He is married to Marcy Head Benson. He has three adult children and 10 grandchildren.

CHANCELLOR PHIL DISTEFANO

Dr. Philip P. DiStefano is in his fourth year as the Chancellor at the University of Colorado Boulder. Prior to his appointment on May 5, 2009, Dr. DiStefano was the top academic officer at CU-Boulder for eight years as the Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. He served as interim chancellor twice during pivotal times in the university's history.

Dr. DiStefano co-chaired the steering committee for CU-Boulder's visionary strategic plan, Flagship 2030, conceived with campus, community and statewide input, to guide the university for decades to come. Today, Dr. DiStefano is shepherding its implementation as Flagship 2030 moves from vision to reality.

Dr. DiStefano has served CU-Boulder for 37 years. He joined the University of Colorado in 1974 as an Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Instruction at the School of Education. His academic career flourished as he assumed a series of academic and administrative positions, including Professor, Associate Dean, Dean and Vice Chancellor. He was appointed Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs in 2001.

As Chancellor he works closely with students, faculty, staff, alumni, donors, governing officials, and business and community leaders in extending CU's legacy as a preeminent national comprehensive research university.

A first-generation college graduate, Dr. DiStefano earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University and a Master of Arts degree in English Education from West Virginia University. He holds a Doctorate in Humanities Education from Ohio State University, where he served as a teaching and research associate.

He began his educational career as a high school English teacher in Ohio. He has authored and co-authored numerous books and articles on literacy education.

Dr. DiStefano and his wife, Yvonne, have been married for 42 years and are the parents of three grown daughters and a granddaughter.

PROVOST RUSSELL MOORE

Dr. Russell L. Moore has had a long and distinguished career at the University of Colorado Boulder, now serving in the capacity of Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, having assumed the position July 1, 2010.

Dr. Moore also previously served as interim vice chancellor for research from May 2009 to July 2010, and prior to that appointment, he was the associate vice chancellor for research since 2006. Dr. Moore served as chair of kinesiology and applied physiology (now integrative physiology) from 1994 to 2001, and was assistant professor (1984-86), associate professor (1993-96) and full professor (1996-present) in that department.

He holds an adjunct professorship in medicine (cardiology) at the University of Colorado's Anschutz Medical Campus at the University of Colorado Denver.

He was an assistant and associate professor (1986-91) in the departments of medicine, cellular and molecular physiology at the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in Hershey, Pa. He did postdoctoral work at the University of Texas Health Science Center in Dallas (1981-84).

Dr. Moore earned a Bachelor of Science degree in biochemistry from the University of California at Davis in 1976, and a master's degree (1978) and doctorate (1982) in physiology from Washington State University in Pullman, Wash.

FACULTY REP DAVID CLOUGH

Faculty Athletics Representative Dr. David Clough is a national leader in college athletic reforms and represents CU to the Pac-12 Conference and the NCAA. A professor of chemical and biological engineering, Dr. Clough enters his eighth year as the University of Colorado Boulder's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) in March 2012.

Professor Clough reports to Chancellor DiStefano and works closely with the Director of Athletics, Mike Bohn, and the coaches and staff of Athletics to support student-athletes, especially in their academic pursuits. The FAR's duties include oversight of the eligibility certification and compliance functions on the Boulder Campus. He strives to be well known to CU's student-athletes, and he and his wife Sydney are present at many home competitions of CU's sports teams. He also travels with many CU teams to away competitions.

Dr. Clough replaced Chancellor Phil DiStefano, who served as FAR from June 1, 2000 until just shortly after his appointment as interim chancellor for the Boulder campus in 2005. Clough is only the sixth FAR in CU history, joining a prestigious list: Walter Franklin (1947-1948), Warren Thompson (1949-1966), William Baughn (1967-1989), James Corbridge (1989-2000) and DiStefano (2000-2005).

Dr. Clough has had a significant impact on engineering education at CU-Boulder and beyond through career-long efforts to enhance the learning of engineering students. He has pioneered active- and cooperative-learning techniques in the College of Engineering and Applied Science, and in 1989 he originated the concept of the Integrated Teaching and Learning Laboratory. Clough's research has focused on the automated control of chemical and related processes.

He has been involved with student-athlete success for more than 30 years as his relationship with the CU athletic department dates to more than three decades. Throughout his career, Dr. Clough has taken a special interest in engineering student-athletes, long appreciating the combined academic and athletic challenges they face. He played an integral role in the Rhodes Scholarship candidacy of Buff football star Jim Hansen, an Academic All-American who was awarded the Rhodes in 1993.

Dr. Clough received his bachelor's degree from the Case Institute of Technology (now Case Western Reserve University) in 1968 and his master's from CU-Boulder in 1969, both in chemical engineering. He worked as an engineer for E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., Inc., from 1969 to 1972 before returning to CU-Boulder to earn his doctorate in 1975. He joined the faculty of the Department of Chemical Engineering at that time.

He served as the college's associate dean for academic affairs from 1986 to 1992, playing a role in a number of important initiatives, including the Gemmill Engineering Library, the Herbst Humanities Program, and the Integrated Teaching and Learning Laboratory. From 1993 through 1999, he was associate chair of the Department of Chemical Engineering and was responsible for significant improvements to the department's undergraduate advising program.

Known for his willingness to experiment with new educational concepts and technology, Dr. Clough has worked to reform traditional lecture classes into an interactive workshop format that greatly enhances the learning of students. Through these efforts, he has helped to reshape the way engineering is taught. The student-run Engineering Excellence Fund chose Dr. Clough as the first recipient of the Sullivan-Carlson Inspiration in Teaching Award in 1998. He has received numerous teaching and advising awards from nominations by his students over the years. He also has been given the college's Hutchinson Teaching Award and Peters Service Award. He received the first Boulder Faculty Assembly Teaching Award in 1980 and the Boulder Campus Outstanding Advisor Award in 1996. His merit as an educator also has been recognized outside CU. In 1995 the American Society for Engineering Education (Rocky Mountain Section) presented him with its first Outstanding Educator Award.

In April 2000, he received the college's Distinguished Engineering Alumnus Award in the Education category. It recognized his significant impact on engineering education through pioneering the active learning concept for the Integrated Teaching and Learning Laboratory, and in leading the college in changing traditional lecture courses to an active learning format.

In his role as Faculty Athletics Representative, Clough represents CU to the Pac-12 Conference and the NCAA. He provides a liaison between Athletics and the faculty and works to enhance the educational experience of 350 student-athletes. Clough has been active in the Faculty Athletics Representatives Association (FARA) and will become President of FARA in November. In his time as FAR, Dr. Clough has established a reputation for his expertise in the NCAA's Academic Performance Program and the program's statistics tracking the academic progress of student-athletes, the Academic Progress Rate (APR) and the Graduation Success Rate (GSR). He has developed tracking and predictive tools that have been shared with over 100 NCAA Division I institutions.

He and his wife, Sydney, have four grown children, Astrid, William, Rodney and Damon, and four grandchildren. Dr. Clough's father, John W. Clough, was a chemical engineer, and his two brothers are retired engineers. The Clough family established a scholarship endowment in engineering at CU in honor of John Clough, who died in 1994. The family holds a strong belief in giving back to the educational institutions that have benefited its members.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE BOHN

Mike Bohn is now in his eighth year as athletic director at University of Colorado, named just the fifth full-time director in school history on April 13, 2005. In accepting the position, he returned to the surroundings where he starred as a prep athlete before embarking on a journey that would take him all over the western half of the United States and finally back home.

Bohn, 51, came to Colorado from San Diego State University, where he left an indelible imprint in just 18 months as the Aztecs' director of athletics. He agreed to a 5-year contract with the Buffaloes and was rewarded quickly for his initial efforts, as in November 2007 he received an extension through the 2011-12 academic year. Then in August 2011, the Board of Regents and the Chancellor saw fit to extend him another five years into 2017.

He replaced Jack Lengyel, who served as interim athletic director for five months after Dick Tharp stepped down in November 2004 after holding the position since 1996. Tharp had followed three legendary men in CU athletic history, Harry Carlson (1927-65), Eddie Crowder (1965-84) and Bill Marolt (1984-96).

Bohn was the first of the five to be named CU athletic director without having previously worked within the CU system. Carlson and Crowder were coaches upon being named, Marolt returned to CU where he coached for 10 years before leaving for the U.S. Olympic ski team, and Tharp was a university attorney with strong CU-Boulder campus ties. But his ties to Boulder were extensive, growing up here with family and friends always in the area. And as a youth, he worked concessions at Folsom Field, selling soda in the stands while constantly sneaking a look at what was transpiring on the field.

He accomplished a lot in his first 100 days on the job, from branching out into the community with Chancellor Phil DiStefano at town meetings, to implementing the YOUR TEAM and SHOULDER to SHOULDER campaigns to raise significant funds for immediate scholarship and capital project needs. Several other creative ideas, especially in marketing including Ralphie's Kids Roundup and the Pearl Street Stampede the night before home football games, were established to create better ties with CU and area communities.

Those first 100 days were just the beginning, and now over seven years into his service to CU, he has made major improvements in fundraising, improving CU's facilities, most notably the addition of a $10 million practice facility for the basketball and volleyball teams, establishing the Buff Club Cabinet, making huge in-roads in community, media and campus relations, and has worked to balance a budget by making tough but necessary cuts, guaranteeing the future success of Colorado's 16 intercollegiate sports. That count will rise to 17 with the addition of women's lacrosse in 2014.

Perhaps his top "one shining moment" to date took place in the spring of 2010, when he led the university's charge for the Buffaloes to join the Pacific-10 Conference. A very tense period in college athletics, rumors swirling about concerning several schools, he had Colorado's ship steadied throughout and landed CU in a conference that conforms to a perfect fit with its students, alumni and fans on many levels, including academics as well as athletics.

Colorado, along with Utah, joined the league on July 1, 2011, making it the Pac-12.

He has overseen the hiring of 10 head coaches, Jon Embree and Dan Hawkins (football), Tad Boyle and Jeff Bzdelik (men's basketball), Linda Lappe and Kathy McConnell-Miller (women's basketball), Roy Edwards (men's golf), Liz Kritza (volleyball), Danny Sanchez (soccer) and Ann Elliott (lacrosse).

Mile High Sports Magazine selected Bohn as its Sports Person of the Year for 2006, as the publication recognized his efforts in his first year on the job. The same publication cited him as the top athletic director in the state in its 2011 "Best Of" edition. In his time at CU, he has quickly grown into one of the top speakers on college athletics in the region, as he is a popular "get" for service clubs, media groups and others.

Bohn's brief tenure at San Diego State featured many remarkable accomplishments, including the instilling of energy, enthusiasm, accountability and determination into the Aztec staff. Officially named SDSU athletic director on October 6, 2003, his immediate task was to unify the athletic department, the campus and the community of San Diego.

Bohn strategically and steadily restructured the SDSU athletic department with emphasis on fund raising, fiscal responsibility, compliance and academics.

Under his watch, San Diego State set a new single-game attendance record in football when more than 57,000 fans watched the Aztecs' win over Idaho State in the 2004 season opener. The average football attendance of 35,995 in 2004 was the best at the school since 1993, with the increase of 14,369 fans per game marking the third largest attendance jump in the country. The SDSU baseball team also set attendance records under his watch.

He landed the San Diego State position after serving five years as athletic director at the University of Idaho (1999-2003), where he first made his mark as a lead administrator in the area of transformation.

At Idaho, he developed projects for new facilities, increased community and corporate support, and produced balanced budgets for the department after inheriting an operation that had accumulated a deficit of over $1 million.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE BOHN

During his five years in Moscow, he oversaw the transition of the Vandals to the Division I-A ranks from the Big Sky Conference. Under Bohn, Idaho began construction on the Vandal Athletics Center, the first facilities improvement for UI athletics in two decades. He was also the driving force behind a 20-percent increase in the Vandal Scholarship Fund and a $350,000 surge in annual corporate support.

Between Idaho and San Diego State, Bohn hired 12 head coaches in all as well as several administrators.

Bohn prepared for his career goal of becoming a Division I athletic director entirely in the state of Colorado, his adopted "native" state despite being born in Illinois; he moved to Colorado with his family when he was one year old.

His first job in athletic administration came at the Air Force Academy, where he worked for the better part of nine years (1984-92). During his tenure in Colorado Springs, Bohn advanced from an intern to assistant athletic director. He served as executive director of the Blue and Silver Club, as well as other external operations throughout his stay at the academy. He played a major role in the increase of football season ticket sales from 6,000 to 20,000 and implemented a fundraising campaign that generated $16 million for stadium improvements.

DID YOU KNOW? ... Mike Bohn is the first athletic administrator to work at three of the state's Division I-A colleges (CU, Air Force, Colorado State and Denver). Only one coach is thought to have spent time at three schools: Terry Dunn served as assistant basketball coach at AFA (1991-94), CSU (1994-96) and CU (1996-2004). Several high profile people have logged time in at two of the schools; those who spent time at CU and one other include assistant football coaches Kay Dalton (CU/CSU), Chuck Heater (CU/CSU), Tom McMahon (CU/CSU) and Dan Stavelly (CU/DU); track coaches Don Meyers (CU/CSU) and Jerry Quiller (CU/CSU); basketball coaches Jen Warden (CU/CSU) and Linda Lappe (CU/CSU); sports information directors Steve Hatchell (CU/CSU) and Tim Simmons (CU/CSU); gymnastics coach Dan Garcia (CU/DU), golf coaches Eric Hoos and Sammie Chergo (both assistants at CU and then head coaches at DU); assistant women's basketball coach Tanya Haave (CU/DU); trainers Eric Fry (DU/CU), Ed Lochrie (CU/DU) and Nicole Makris (DU/CU); and fundraiser Chris Kiser (CU/CSU).

From 1992 to 1995, Bohn served as Director of Marketing for the College Football Association, where he worked for one of the most respected people in the history of college athletics, Chuck Neinas (the one-time Big Eight Conference commissioner). The CFA, the precursor to the current Bowl Championship Series, consisted of six major football conferences encompassing 67 universities. He created and developed the CFA "Good Works Team" which recognizes significant off-the-field accomplishments in the area of community relations of 11 football student-athletes nationally (a team that is still selected today by the American Football Coaches Association).

Bohn was involved in many facets of the organization's operations, including the administration of a $67 million television package involving ABC, ESPN and ESPN2. He also formulated a blueprint for the promotion and development of the image of college football as a whole.

He then moved on to Colorado State University, where he spent the next three years (1996-98) as an associate athletic director for the Rams. At CSU, he was responsible for all external revenue-producing operations, including ticket sales, fundraising through the Greater Ram Club, licensing, corporate sales, signage, capital campaigns and broadcasting rights fees and special events. He also helped escalate student interest in CSU athletics.

He earned his bachelor's of arts degree from the University of Kansas in 1983, where he was recruited as a quarterback and also played baseball (pitcher-first basemen-outfielder). He then graduated with a master's degree in Sports Administration from Ohio University in 1984. While earning his master's, he worked as a graduate assistant football coach for the Bobcats.

Bohn is a former member of the NCAA Championships Cabinet and the Division I-A Athletics Directors Association Executive Council. During his stay at Idaho, he was a member of the Big West Conference executive committee and served on the University of Idaho executive council.

Born November 16, 1960 in Hinsdale, Ill., he graduated from Boulder High School where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Kim Zeren, and the couple has two grown children, Michaelyn and Brandon.

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

Founded in 1876 at the foot of the Flatirons, 136 years has transformed the University of Colorado from a lone building on a bleak, windswept hill to one of the nation's leading public research institutions. Established in 1861, the University was formally founded in 1876, the year Colorado became a state.

The Boulder campus encompasses almost 800 acres on the main campus, east campus (which includes a research park), Williams Village and the Mountain Research Station north of nearby Nederland (which supports ecology, chemistry and geology). In 1996 the Board of Regents purchased 308 acres of land in unincorporated Boulder County, now informally known as the south campus, in an effort to insure the growth of the University well into the 21st century.

While 30,000 students are educated on the main campus, another 13,000 study at the University of Colorado at Denver, the University of Colorado Anschutz Campus (Aurora) and the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. Nine elected Regents and President Bruce Benson lead the four-campus system, while each campus has a Chancellor who serves as the chief academic and administrative officer. Dr. Phil DiStefano is in his fourth year as the chancellor of the Boulder campus.

Students can enter any of 10 schools and colleges offering more than 2,500 courses in 150 fields, representing a full range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, physical and biological sciences, the fine and performing arts, and the professions. CU-Boulder is regularly ranked among the best of the United States' public universities by the Fiske Guide to Colleges, and a 2010 USA Today/Princeton Review survey rated the University of Colorado as the fifth-best value among American public colleges.

CU-Boulder has played a major role in NASA space programs, designing and building many scientific instruments flown in outer space, and graduated 18 men and women who became astronauts, including the late Jack Swigert, one of the three astronauts in the crippled Apollo 13 mission who made it dock to Earth safely from the moon. When the Hubble Space Telescope was launched in 1990, it was carrying seven major instruments, including a high-resolution spectrograph to study the evolution of stars and designed and built by an international science team led by astronomer Jack Brandt of CU-Boulder. Since Hubble has been up, CU-Boulder faculty and students have been among the top users of Hubble of any institution in the world. CU-Boulder is the only university in the country where undergraduate students have operated a NASA satellite.

The University has produced 19 Rhodes Scholars, five of which were former football student-athletes at CU, with Jim Hansen the most recent recipient in 1992. Faculty member Thomas Cech, a distinguished professor of chemistry and biochemistry, won the 1989 Nobel Prize in chemistry. Other notable alumni include former United States Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, former big band leader Glenn Miller and actors Robert Redford and Chris Meloni, the latter starring for years on Law & Order: Special Victims Unit, and the creators of South Park, Trey Parker and Matt Stone.

If the aphorism, "Somewhere between the Rockies and reality," seems too good to believe, then come for a visit. Start with a walk on the historic Pearl Street Mall, a downtown pedestrian mall that is the ceremonial heart of the city actually that works despite the efforts of its street theatre.

Visitors may be so taken in by the scenery, the mall, Tudors and Victorians they may forget the University that put it all together. From Pearl, Broadway leads directly onto campus where the University of Colorado Museum and the CU Heritage Center, in the original Old Main building, which introduces the University's past and present. The recently completed ATLAS building is one of the most state-of-the-art structures on any college campus.

Take in the fresh mountain air on any part of 100 miles of trails and 30,000 acres of open space. Climb the Flatirons or in Eldorado Canyon State Park. Swim or board sail at the Boulder Reservoir while elite runners sprint around it. Take in a pro sporting event down the road in Denver, just one of 13 cities with teams in all four pro leagues.

Rest assured, like the prophesy of an Arapaho Indian Chief, "If you leave Boulder, you will return."

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

Conference History

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back nearly a century to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland. The original membership consisted of four schools — the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference, essentially replacing Colorado, which left for the Big 7 two years earlier. The PCC continued as a nine-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as commissioner of the Pac-8.

On July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Thomas C. Hansen was named the commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the conference into a modern 12-team league by adding the University of Colorado and the University of Utah. The addition of CU and Utah led to an agreement to equal revenue sharing for the first time in conference history, created two divisions (North and South) for football only, established a football championship game for the first time ever, secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school and established the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, as the Buffaloes were the first domino to fall in a change of the national landscape which, in just one week, saw Nebraska also leave the Big 12 and join the Big 10, Boise State depart the WAC for the Mountain West, TCU jump from the MWC for the Big East, and then on June 17, Utah agreeing to join CU to make it an even dozen in the Pac-12. Big-time rivals for the first half of the last century, the Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Pac-10 teams claimed 258 NCAA titles (130 women's, 128 men's).

At present, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the conference schools are members of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports. CU participates in the MPSF in indoor track and will in women's lacrosse come 2014, and already competes in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association (RMISA) in skiing, which is a coed sport.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.

Conference of Champions

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushers in a new era with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2011.

The Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions"®, claiming an incredible 180 NCAA team titles over the past two decades, including nine in 2010-11, averaging nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 27 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led the nation in NCAA Championships in 45 of the last 51 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of CU and UU, league teams have captured 451 NCAA titles through the 2011-12 season (306 men's, 145 women's), outdistancing the next closest conference by nearly 200.

In each of the last two years (2010-11, 2011-12) the then-Pac-10 and now the Pac-12 has led the country with nine NCAA titles, with men's and women's programs sharing the wealth with five NCAA women's titles and four men's crowns in each of those years.

Including titles previously won by Colorado and Utah, Pac-12 members have won 306 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 89 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12: 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 53 tennis titles, 45 outdoor track & field crowns and 27 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 43 NCAA titles in volleyball, 38 of 42 in water polo, 27 in skiing and 23 swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions, as well, boasting 2,073 individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 30 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 23 occasions, including 2011-12. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 145 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC (second with 88). Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 19 tennis crowns, 14 of the last 22 volleyball titles, 14 of the last 23 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming and diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 642 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

Colorado and Utah have combined to win 15 coed skiing titles, one of three NCAA sports to score championships based on men's and women's results along with fencing and rifle. Combined, the newest Pac-12 entrants added 27 NCAA ski crowns and 148 individual champions to the league's coffers.

In the 2012 London Summer Olympics, athletes who hailed from Pac-12 schools won 45 medals; had the conference been a country, it would have finished fifth.

2012-13 OUTLOOK

Colorado women's basketball knows where it wants to be at the end of the season, it's the same place 300-plus other NCAA Division I women's teams want to be.

But head coach Linda Lappe's third-year Buffaloes aren't concerned about where they want to be five months from now. They are worried about today; what the team is doing on any given day to get better. Then from there the end results should take care of themselves.

"What we have really focused on is doing something that is uncommon," Lappe said. "More so than getting to the NCAA Tournament, which we can't do (today), every day we are working towards that, and that is the ultimate goal, but we have tried to focus on taking it one day at a time and understanding what that takes (to get there)."

As the 2012-13 season begins, Lappe and her staff have the luxury of the most experience they've had in their time on the bench. In her first season, five freshmen and sophomores were part of the regular rotation. Two years later, those five players are now juniors and seniors with a combined 394 games played and 219 starts.

More importantly, beyond the sheer numbers of games, the variety of experience has been wide in range. They've experienced winning tight games; big games at home and on the road. They've beaten ranked teams; they've won win-or-go home contests.

The two with the most experience are Colorado's senior duo of Chucky Jeffery and Meagan Malcolm-Peck, who bring different types of game and leadership to the floor. Jeffery, a 5-10 guard, is a returning All-Pac-12 Conference performer and one of the most dynamic players in team history. She led Colorado in scoring (15.5 ppg), rebounding (8.0 rpg), assists (3.8 apg) and steals (2.3 spg) and is among CU's career leaders in those categories, and then some.

Malcolm-Peck looks to rebound from a year where her numbers were down but her leadership qualities certainly were not. She enters this season CU's active leader in starts (81) and games played (98). Malcolm-Peck averaged 4.3 points and 4.3 rebounds as a junior, but is the unquestioned vocal leader on the team. So much so that she was named captain for this season, shortly after last year ended.

"I feel like we have had great leadership from Meagan so far this year," Lappe said. "She has really set the tone for the rest of our players and done a great job communicating. Anything that comes up, she is sure she is on top of it."

Chucky Jeffery

Meagan's twin sister Brenna Malcolm-Peck is Colorado's third senior. Brenna has played just three games over the past two years, continuing to fight back from chronic knee injuries. Her future playing status remains uncertain, but she continues to be a valuable asset to her teammates.

Colorado's junior twin guards, Ashley and Brittany Wilson, and fellow classmate Rachel Hargis have also benefitted from two solid years of game action. Brittany Wilson was second on the team in scoring, assists and steals as a sophomore and really shined during the Buffaloes postseason run averaging 13.7 points and four rebounds over the final six games.

Ashley Wilson provided a spark of energy off the bench and thrived in that role. She did a lot of the grunt work for the Buffaloes and was particularly crafty on the offensive boards. Despite her 5-8 stature, Ashley Wilson compiled 97 rebounds (2.9 rpg), 43 of which came on the offensive end.

Hargis continues to grow as a solid low-post presence for the Buffaloes. She started the first half of last season, but came off the bench in the second half primarily to give CU a better matchup against finesse Pac-12 teams. Either way, Hargis has contributed positive minutes, especially defensively. She has been one of Colorado's better shot blockers the last two seasons, entering her junior year with 50, good enough for 17th on CU's all-time list.

Even with the experience of veteran players, the Buffaloes will still expect their three sophomores and four freshmen to make a huge impact, greatly improving the depth of the team.

Guard Lexy Kresl set Colorado's freshman record for 3-pointers made last season with 63. Forward Jen Reese led all Pac-12 freshmen in rebounding on a per game basis (6.0) and shot 45 percent from the floor before her season ended nine games early with an injury. Guard/forward Jasmine Sborov came on strong at the end of last season, essentially moving into the starting line-up after Reese went down.

Lexy Kresl

"We are still going to be young but our veterans have all played and that is something we have to utilize in the preseason and as we head into the conference season," Lappe said. "In a lot of ways we are ahead of where we were last year, and I think every year builds on the last, so that's not surprising, we should be ahead of where we were last year."

That depth is more pronounced with a solid group of freshmen, with each brining something different to the table.

One freshman, not so new, is forward Arielle Roberson. The younger sister of CU men's basketball standout, Andre, Arielle was a redshirt in the CU program last season after developing a torn labrum in her left hip. She was one of the better players out of the state of Texas in 2011, and is hungry to contribute.

Colorado's incoming freshman class was rated as the 27th best in the nation according to ESPN.com HoopGurlz, and that doesn't count Roberson who came in with the 2011 class.

Jamee Swan, a 6-2 forward from Tucson, Ariz., was an honorable mention WBCA All-American and ranked as the eighth best forward in the nation, and 38th best player overall. Lauren Huggins, a 6-1 guard/forward from Littleton, Colo., was also a Top 100 player, ranking as the 11th best wing and 64th best player overall. Kyleesha Weston, a 5-7 guard from Kansas City, Mo., is this staff's first true point guard recruit, coming off a year where she was a finalist for the DiRenna Award, given to the top girls player in the K.C. metro area.

Swan averaged 20.8 points and 12.8 rebounds as a senior and will be a big factor down low for the Buffaloes. Huggins can stretch the court with extensive range. She hit 5-of-6 from 3-point range at the 2012 edition of "The Show" Colorado's annual high school all-star game, earning MVP honors.

Weston averaged 18 points and five assists for Park Hill High School, but more importantly her addition will allow Colorado to have both Jeffery and Brittany Wilson spend more time off the ball, giving the Buffaloes more offensive and defensive options.

"I think fans will be happy to see our freshmen, they have really gotten off to a great start," Lappe said. "I know fans always like to see new faces, and I think we have three really good freshmen that will contribute in their own separate ways."

The key for the Buffaloes will be to continue to build on what they've already accomplished, from previous seasons for the veterans and off season workouts for the whole team.

"We challenged our team over the summer to get better as individuals, our guards to become better ball handlers, our shooters to become more accurate from the outside and the inside, and our post to really work on their low-post game, and I feel like they all did that throughout the summer," Lappe said. "So we have been able to see the biggest progression just on the court.

"Our players have come in every day with the right attitude and work ethic. It has been fun to coach them on individual skills, and not having to worry about if they are going to come in and be ready to go every single day."

If the Buffaloes end up where they want to be five months from now, it will be at home. Colorado will serve as one of eight NCAA Tournament first- and-second round hosts, March 23 & 25 at the Coors Events Center. But there is a lot to do between now and then.

"Our staff has a lot of experience in the NCAA Tournament and we're all on the same page in understanding all the tools needed to get there," Lappe said. "The fact is, it's not easy to get there and just because we are hosting it doesn't mean we are in, we've got a lot of work to do before that."

Chucky Jeffery

Guard • 5-10 • Senior • 3L • Colorado Springs, Colo. (Sierra)

Chucky Jeffery is one of the most dynamic players in the history of Colorado women's basketball, with the ability to do just about anything on the floor. She can score, rebound and defend while running the team from the point position. She has established herself as one of the elite guards in the Pac-12 Conference, and will be looking to lead her team to the next level. Already prominent in the Colorado record books, she enters her senior year ranking sixth in assists (358), ninth in steals (216), 12th in rebounds (667), 16th in blocks (57), 17th in field-goals made (456) and 18th in scoring (1,218), 3-point field goals made (52) and free-throws made (254). Her 20 double-doubles are sixth, 21 double-figure rebounding games rank eighth and her 66 double-digit scoring games rank 16th on CU's career charts.

2011-12 (Junior): Colorado's leader in nearly every major statistical category, averaging 15.5 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 2.3 steals. She was tabbed All-Pac-12 by both the coaches and the media. The coaches also selected Jeffery to the Pac-12 All-Defensive team, a first for a CU women's basketball player in any conference. On the Pac-12 leaderboard, she ranked fourth in assists, fifth in steals, sixth in scoring and defensive rebounds (6.1 drpg), eighth in overall rebounding, 10th in assist-to-turnover ratio (0.8), 12th in field-goal percentage (.445) and 13th in free-throw percentage (.680). She became the 24th player in team history to reach 1,000 career points in the loss at Oregon (2/4) and in the process was the 10th to reach that milestone before her senior year and tied for the ninth fastest overall at 81 games (Tera Bjorklund, 2000-04). On CU's single-season ledger, she ranked fourth in minutes played (1,161), fifth in field-goal attempts (474), seventh in steals (82), eighth in field-goals made (211), ninth in points (541) and rebounds (280) and 11th in assists (133). Her 30 double-figure scoring games in 2011-12 rank sixth on CU's single-season list while her 10 double-doubles were seventh. She holds two of the program's three triple-doubles, recording her second with 12 points, 12 rebounds and a career-high tying 10 assists in the WNIT quarterfinal loss at Oklahoma State (3/25). Jeffery recorded her second straight season with at least 125 assists and 75 steals (eighth instance overall), joining Bridget Turner as the only CU players to do it twice. She averaged 15.8 points and 11.8 rebounds in the Postseason WNIT, and adding in the Pac-12 Tournament, Jeffery had double-doubles in her last three and four of her last six games. She averaged 18 points and 10.5 rebounds in two Pac-12 Tournament games. Jeffery proved to be a clutch player in several of Colorado's 21 wins, and logged the decisive points in back-to-back wins, a jumper at Arizona (1/22) with 17.7 seconds left and two free throws at home against USC (1/26) with 1.2 seconds remaining. Jeffery was named Pac-12 Conference Player of the Week on Dec. 5, after averaging 28 points and 11 rebounds on 64.5 percent from the field in wins over San Francisco (11/30) and Idaho (12/4). She scored a career and team-season high 30 points in the win over Idaho, also nabbing 10 rebounds in that contest. The Idaho game was the last of three-straight double-doubles for Jeffery, a feat matched only by one other guard in CU history (Turner). She was MVP of the Omni Hotels Classic averaging 14 points, 10 rebounds and four assists in wins over Valparaiso (11/25) and Wisconsin (11/26). Her 9-of-10 performance from the field against Denver was the best by a CU player on a minimum 10 attempts since Jackie McFarland was 9-of-10 against CSU Bakersfield on Dec. 28, 2007. On the junior season charts she finished second in assists, third in scoring and fourth in steals and rebounds.

2010-11 (Sophomore): Led Colorado in assists (4.3 apg) and steals (2.5 spg) while ranking second in scoring (13.5 ppg) and rebounding (7.9). She was second in the Big 12 in defensive rebounds (6.0 drpg) while ranking third in steals, fifth in overall rebounding, seventh in assists, 10th in field-goal percentage (.471), 15th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.1), and 16th in scoring. Jeffery teamed with Brittany Spears (8.1 rpg) to give the Buffaloes the best 1-2 rebounding combo in the Big 12 in 2011 at 16 per game. Jeffery totaled 128 assists and 76 steals, marking only the seventh time in team history a player has had at least 125 assists and 75 steals in the same season. She was the sixth different player to achieve that feat and the first since Shelley Sheetz in 1993-94. Her 128 assists were the most by a CU player since Mandy Nightingale had 161 in 2001-02 and 14th overall on CU's single-season list. Her 76 steals ranked seventh on CU's single-season charts. She had six or more steals in four games (Regis, Evansville, Colgate and Kansas) and at least three steals in 14 of 30 games. She had a career and team season-high seven steals in the win over Colgate (12/30). It was the 21st

High School: Jeffery is a 2009 graduate of Sierra High School. Jeffery averaged 22.1 points, 12.9 rebounds, 4.9 steals, 4.6 assists and 3.0 blocks as a senior leading the Stallions to a 22-3 record and their third consecutive Colorado Springs Metro League title and Class 4A State quarterfinal appearance. She was named to the Denver Post Class 4A All-State first team and repeated as the Colorado Springs Gazette Big Schools Player of the Year. As a junior, she averaged 19.2 points, 11.5 rebounds, 4.6 steals, 3.8 assists and 1.8 blocks leading Sierra to a 22-4 mark. She was a Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 4A All-State second team selection as a junior. Jeffery holds all 14 individual basketball season and career records at Sierra, setting the marks her junior year and then resetting the season marks as a senior. She had 18 double-doubles as a junior and even added one triple double logging 20 points, 10 rebounds and 12 steals in a game against Lincoln High School. Jeffery played in "The Show," in March 2009, Colorado's annual high school all-star game. She played club basketball with the Boulder Rockies in 2007-08. Jeffery also earned two letters in track & field, running the 100 meter dash and hurdles and the 4x100 meter relay. Her favorite high school moments were hitting a game winning shot at Pine Creek her freshman season and her first triple double her sophomore year as she went for 30 points, 10 rebounds and 10 steals against Pueblo South.

Academics: Jeffery is sociology major at Colorado. She earned the Most Improved Student-Athlete Award at the 2012 Academic Banquet, one of three recipients across all 16 of Colorado's varsity sport programs.

Personal: Janeesa "Chucky" Jeffery was born May 8, 1991 in Colorado Springs. She is the daughter of Alana Riley and Alfred Jeffrey, Jr. She has two older sisters, Allesha Clayton (23) and Ta'meesha Jeffery (22) and one younger sister, Faleesa (18). Allesha was a star point guard in high school and Ta'meesha competed in track & field and cheerleading. Faleesa graduated from high school in 2012, where she participated in basketball, track sprints (200 meters, relays) and long jump. She is a cousin of former Colorado football player Phil Jackson (2000-03). Chucky enjoys rap, drawing and shopping. She would like to play in the WNBA or overseas after college. Chucky played youth football for eight years in Colorado Springs, rising from rookie to heavyweight levels.

GETTING TO KNOW CHUCKY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: My teammates and the atmosphere we create for each other.

Favorite quote: "Hold The Rope."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: When we beat Villanova in the WNIT on a defensive stop by Lexy and I grabbed the rebound as time ran out. Recording my second triple-double at Oklahoma State in the round of 8 in the WNIT.

My dream job is: To play professionally in the WNBA and overseas. Then eventually becoming a coach or sports broadcaster.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Hanging out with my teammates.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why? Family Hustle because T.I. is one my favorite people.

One word to describe me off the court is: Spontaneous

My pregame rituals are: I listen to the same play list each game.

One thing people don't know about me is: I sing all the time (not good, I just love to sing)!

The three things I cannot live without are: Family, Phone, Basketball.

Best talent not related to basketball: Drawing

Pet peeves: I have to squeeze the toothpaste from the very bottom of the tube; I color coordinate almost everything.

Hidden Talents: Rapping

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE? Jen Reese

Background picture on your phone: My mom, sisters, and significant other.

On your iPod right now: A bunch of R&B, Slow jams, and old school songs.

First concert: Scream tour with bow wow and chris brown

A dream vacation for me is: Bora Bora

I wish I knew how to....: Sing better

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Helping individuals that are in need.

A perfect day for me is when: I get enough sleep, eat a good breakfast with bacon, classes go good, practices are productive and we get better, going home eating a good dinner and relaxing.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Gino Auriemma

And I would ask that person: How do I become excellent?

Most memorable moment in sports: Recording my first triple double as a sophomore in high school.

Hobbies: Eating, sleeping, drawing, singing, shopping, bowling, skating

My plans after graduation are: Playing professionally.

My favorite class at CU: Criminology

My hero is: My mother Alana

Advice to young athletes: Always work hard and give your maximum effort to become the best you can be! Push yourself to become a better person in and out of your sport and never lose the passion you have for what you do. The sky isn't the limit... there are footprints on the moon!

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Megan Malcolm-Peck

Guard/Forward • 6-2 • Senior • 3L • Boulder, Colo. (Horizon)

Megan Malcolm-Peck brings valuable experience to a young Colorado team. With nearly 100 collegiate games under her belt, she will be counted on to be a floor leader in her final season. A very smart player with an excellent skill set, she is one of Colorado's better mid-to-long range shooters, making it difficult to defend her. Malcolm-Peck is at her best when shooting in rhythm offensively and attacking the boards on both sides of the floor.

Career: Malcolm-Peck enters her senior season ranking 12th in career 3-point field goals (80) and blocked shots (66) on CU's all-time charts.

2011-12 (Junior): Averaged 4.3 points and 4.1 rebounds over 34 games, missing just one (San Francisco, 11/30), due to illness. Maintained her usual spot in the rotation, starting in 33 games, and will enter her senior year with the most games started (81), and played (98), by any current Buffalo. She ranked third on the squad in both offensive rebounds (63) and assists (43). Malcolm-Peck had 13 games with five or more rebounds, recording a season high with nine against UT-Pan American (12/20) and again during the overtime home loss to UCLA (1/29). She scored her 500th career point at California (2/25) on a first-half 3-pointer. Malcolm-Peck made just 20 free throws on the season, but none bigger than the decisive point in the road Pac-12 win against Washington State (1/7). She scored a season-high 12 points in the road win at Colorado State (11/20). She ended her season on a high note, averaging eight points and shot 43 percent from

(16). Her 3-point percentage ranked 13th overall on the Big 12 charts, and improved once the league season started. Malcolm-Peck made 40.8 percent (20-of-49) from downtown during the Big 12 schedule, the fifth best mark among conference combatants. She made two or more 3-point field goals in 12 games and hit 50 or percent better in 11 of those contests. Overall, she shot 50 percent or better from behind the arc in 13 outings. Malcolm-Peck played a big role in CU's 66-60 overtime upset win over No. 17/16 Iowa State (1/15). Hobbled by a sore ankle, she scored 10 points on 3-of-4 from the field in an efficient 14 minutes and hit a pair of clutch free throws late in overtime to help seal the win. Malcolm-Peck had three double-doubles, two of which came off the bench. She scored a season-best 16 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in a hard-fought loss to No. 3 Baylor (3/5). Her other double-double off the bench was an 11-point, 10-rebound effort against North Dakota (1/4). She had 10 games of scoring in double-digits.

2009-10 (Freshman): Averaged 5.3 points, 3.7 rebounds, 1.1 blocked shots per game. She led the Buffaloes with 34 blocks, the fifth-best single-season mark by a freshman in team history. Malcolm-Peck ranked third among freshmen in the Big 12 in blocks and ninth overall on the league charts. She started 26 of 30 games, playing nearly 25 minutes per contest. She had a memorable collegiate debut, grabbing a personal-best 11 rebounds against UC Irvine, six of which came on the defensive end. Her 11 boards were the third most in team history by a freshman in her CU debut and the most in 27 years. Malcolm-Peck was named Big 12 Freshman of the Week on Dec. 28 after recording 10 rebounds, four points, four steals, three assists and three blocks against San Jose State (12/22). She was a perfect 4-of-4 from the 3-point arc against Yale (1/4), just one off the school record for 3-pointers without a miss in one game. Registered a career-best 19 points against Yale. She delivered one of the clutch performances of the season at Kansas State (1/20). After making just 7-of-16 free-throw attempts to begin her collegiate career, she sank two attempts with 17 seconds remaining to give CU a four-point lead and eventually a 63-57 road win. Her road magic continued a month later at Missouri (2/23) as she hit the game-winning shot in overtime, a layup with 55 seconds remaining.

High School: Meagan Malcolm-Peck was home schooled, graduating in May 2009. She had an outstanding four-year high school athletic career playing basketball for Horizon High School in Thornton as a junior and senior and ThunderRidge High School in Highlands Ranch as a freshman and sophomore. A 2009 Denver Post Colorado Class 5A All-State first team selection, Malcolm-Peck averaged 18 points and 8.4 rebounds guiding Horizon to a 25-2 record and a spot in the state semifinals. Playing alongside her twin sister and CU teammate Brenna Malcolm-Peck, the Hawks were the No. 1 ranked team in Colorado's largest classification for most of 2009 winning the Front Range League title and the Black Division crown at the Nike Tournament of Champions in Phoenix, where she was named MVP. Malcolm-Peck was a Street & Smith honorable mention All-American, All-Front Range League, All-Metro North Region Player of the Year, ESPN All-Area All-Colorado first team and was a Denver Nuggets All-Star playing in "The Show" with her sister and classmate Chucky Jeffery. Malcolm-Peck averaged 13 points and 8 rebounds as a junior helping the Hawks to a 17-7 record, the Front Range League title and the Class 5A "Sweet 16." She earned honorable mention to the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 5A All-State teams and was a first team All-Front Range Conference and All-Metro North Region pick. Meagan was a second team All-Continental League pick as a sophomore, leading ThunderRidge in scoring at 11 points per game helping her team to an 18-8 mark and an Elite Eight appearance. As a freshman she averaged 5 points and 1.6 rebounds as ThunderRidge was 21-4 and advanced to the Class 5A semis. Meagan is rated the 22nd best forward in the country and 95th overall by ESPN Hoopgurlz and 121st by the All-Star Girls Report. She played on numerous championship teams with her Colorado Elite Club Team which she participated in from eighth through 12th grade. In the summer of 2008 she played with the Blue Star Select Team, traveling to Reze, France, with her sister. She also participated in the Nike All-American camp.

Academics: Malcolm-Peck is majoring in business at Colorado and is interested in teaching and coaching kids. She was named to the Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball second team as a sophomore. In high school, Malcolm-Peck was a member of the Front Range League All-Academic team.

Personal: Meagan Malcolm-Peck was born on October 8, 1990 in Boulder 27 minutes after her twin sister Brenna. She also has one younger sister, Jacqueline (18), who is a senior in high school. She is the daughter of Kirk Peck and Melissa Malcolm-Peck. She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as beating Regis her senior year on their home court. Meagan enjoys traveling and can play the piano.

GETTING TO KNOW MEAGAN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The way we're all a second family to each other, coaching staff included.

Favorite quote: "Excellence is the Result of Caring more than others think is Wise, Risking more than others think is Safe, Dreaming more than others think is Practical, and Expecting more than others think is Possible."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Winning the Omni Classic

My dream job is: Doing something where I can really help people and make an impact on their lives.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Get ice cream on Pearl Street or go to the movies.

One word to describe me off the court is: Happy

My pregame rituals are: Get some shots up, get treatment on whatever hurts, do my hair, change into my game gear, and get on the court to warm up.

One thing people don't know about me is: I can juggle basketballs

The three things I cannot live without are: Family, Friends, and food

My goofy superstition is: I wear my socks on the wrong feet on game day, and if I'm not playing well I put my hair into a bun.

Best talent not related to basketball: Playing the piano.

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be? To be invisible

Pet Peeves: People that chew too loudly or breathe loudly out of their mouths constantly.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE? Lexy Kresl

Background picture on your phone: A picture of Ashley and I at last year's CSU vs. CU football game.

First concert: Kenny Chesney

A dream vacation for me is: Being on the beach with the people I care about most.

I wish I knew how to....: Play the guitar

A perfect day for me is when: Get a good workout in in the morning, it's a beautiful day outside and friends and I go to a restaurant and sit outside and relax, and maybe go to a movie at night.

Hobbies: Hiking with my dog

My plans after graduation are: Travel and get a job.

My favorite class at CU: Product Strategy

My hero is: My mom

Advice to young athletes: Always give 100% in everything you do- it's worth it. Don't worry about the little things because they won't matter in a couple years. Do what makes you happy, smile, and laugh constantly. Remember, "One thing we know for sure is that we all only have a limited number of days here on earth. So each day we can either find something to complain about or something to be grateful for, it's really up to us."

Brenna Malcolm-Peck

Guard/Forward • 6-2 • Senior • 1L • Boulder, Colo. (Horizon)

Brenna Malcolm-Peck has a great work ethic and pushes herself and her teammates to be their best. She is looking to bounce back from injuries that have forced her to miss one full season and the majority of two others. She has the ability to hit the outside shot while also crashing the boards.

2011-12 (Sophomore): Played in just three games as injuries took a toll on her redshirt sophomore season. She was cleared to play in the fall of 2011, but missed the first seven games recovering from a concussion. Malcolm-Peck made her season debut in the final minute of the Denver game (12/8), her first action since Feb. 27, 2010. She scored her first points in nearly two calendar years, with a pair of free throws against Texas-Pan American (12/20). Malcolm-Peck played her final game against No. 4 Stanford (1/14). She missed the final 19 games of the season with a left knee injury.

2010-11 (Redshirt): Missed the 2010-11 season with a hyper-extended left knee, suffered during preseason workouts. She remained active with the team as she worked through rehabilitation.

2009-10 (Freshman): Played in 14 games as a true freshman, mostly during non conference play. Malcolm-Peck scored 16 points on the season with six rebounds and five assists. She recorded personal bests with six points on 2-of-3 from 3-point range and two assists in the win over Grambling State (12/30). She had four points, including her first career 3-pointer in the win over Denver (12/2). Malcolm-Peck made her collegiate debut against Illinois-Chicago, recording a rebound and an assist.

High School: Malcolm-Peck was home schooled, graduating in May 2009. She had a very successful four-year high school athletic career playing basketball for Horizon High School in Thornton as a junior and senior and ThunderRidge High School in Highlands Ranch as a freshman and sophomore. As a senior she averaged 15 points and four rebounds helping Horizon to a 25-2 record and a spot in the Colorado Class 5A State semifinals. Malcolm-Peck shot 47 percent from the field and 82 percent from

GETTING TO KNOW BRENNA

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: My amazing teammates.

Favorite quote: Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take but by the moments that take our breath away.

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Being undefeated in preseason.

My dream job is: Something that involves being able to travel.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go to Pearl Street or go hiking with my dog.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Voice so I could meet Blake Shelton.

One word to describe me off the court is: Awesome

One thing people don't know about me is: I have a twin.

The three things I cannot live without are: My family, my friends, and sugar

Best talent not related to basketball: Playing the piano.

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Rachel falling down the stairs with her huge travel bag.

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: To be able to fly!

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Either Jen Reese or Lexy Kresl.

Background picture on your phone: A picture of my sisters and one with my best friend.

First concert: Kenny Chesney

I wish I knew how to...: Play the guitar

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To be able to help other people and improve their lives.

A perfect day for me is when: I'm with my family and best friends (including my dog Zoe).

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Jason Aldean

And I would ask that person: To sing me a song.

Hobbies: Watching movies and hanging out with friends or doing anything outdoors.

My plans after graduation are: Travel for as long as I can and then find a job.

My favorite class at CU: My history class.

My hero is: My grandmother and my parents.

Advice to young athletes: You have to work hard but most importantly have fun. Live in the moment and cherish all the memories because time will fly by. You won't remember all the games you lost but you'll always remember the special times you've had with your team.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Rachel Hargis

Center • 6-4 • Junior • 2L • Robinson, Texas (Robinson)

The first signee of the Linda Lappe coaching era, Hargis is a good defender, who understands defensive concepts very well and has the ability to get her hands on the ball. She endured a transition of sorts from the Big 12 to the Pac-12 Conference last year, which on average features a more finesse post player. After a year of adjustment, and now as an upperclassman, Hargis has her sights set on a big season.

Career: One of Colorado's more consistent shot blockers over the past two seasons, she enters her junior season tied with Jenny Roulier (1998-02) for 17th in career blocked shots with 50.

2011-12 (Sophomore): Hargis saw her scoring and rebounding numbers rise slightly in her second year, averaging 3.7 points and 3.2 rebounds per game. She played in all 35 games and started the first 17 before Colorado switched to a smaller, quicker lineup during league play. Hargis had a career night against Texas-Pan American (12/20) at the UTSA Holiday Classic. Playing in her home state, she recorded her first career double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds in 31 minutes against UTPA. She had one other double-digit scoring game, netting 10 in the home loss to California (1/12). Fifteen of her season's 26 blocked shots came during Pac-12 play, ranking 14th in the league in conference only contests. She had nine games with five or more rebounds, including seven in the WNIT win over South Dakota (3/19). Her first collegiate start came in the season opener against Northern Arizona (11/11) where she pitched in a then-personal best nine points on 4-of-7 from the field. She played a career-best 33 minutes in the Omni Classic championship cially on the defensive end. She ranked second on the team in blocked shots with 24, which was also the third best total among freshmen in the Big 12. She stepped it up in that category during league play as 16 of those 24 blocks came during the conference schedule ranking 11th on the overall league charts. Hargis was a sub .500 free-throw shooter on the season (.489), but she made 14 of her last 18 attempts (.778). Hargis ranked fourth on the team with 17 steals. She had a career night against Nebraska netting personal bests with six points and eight rebounds in 26 minutes. Hargis had seven games with five or more rebounds. She recorded a career and team-season high four blocked shots at No. 20/23 Iowa State (2/19).

High School: Hargis is a 2010 graduate of Robinson High School, located just southeast of Waco, Texas. She averaged 14.4 points, 7.1 rebounds and 3.5 blocks per game while shooting 52 percent from the field as a senior, guiding the Rockets to an overall record of 20-12, a second place finish in District 19-3A and a spot in the 3A Region Quarterfinals. Hargis had a story book junior season in 2009 as Robinson went 34-5 and won the Texas 3A state championship. She was named the championship game MVP, scoring 20 points and recording 13 rebounds in the Rockets' 49-33 win over Argyle High School. Hargis was named to the All-State Tournament Team and All-Region Tournament Team. She averaged 10.4 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.2 blocks as a junior, earning Waco Tribune-Herald SuperCenTex First Team honors as well as All-District 19-3A First Team accolades. Hargis was named to the Waco Tribune-Herald's SuperCenTex Second Team as a sophomore and a senior. She was a three-year all-district performer. She played AAU ball with the DFW Elite on the T-Jack Elite squad. Hargis was rated the No. 43 post player in the nation by ESPN.com's HoopGurlz coming out of high school, and she was a 2010 McDonald's All-American Game nominee. She was a four-time academic all-district selection and was also involved in the National Honor Society, volleyball, track & field, Spirit Leading and FCA at Robinson.

Academics: Hargis is undecided on a college major, but is interested in psychology and physical therapy.

Personal: Rachel Marie Hargis was born on March 12, 1992, in San Antonio. She is the daughter Gary and Alicia Hargis. She is one of four children with two older brothers, Matt (25) and Joel (23) and one younger brother, Jordan (19). She says the biggest moment in her high school career was being named MVP after winning the state championship her junior year. Hargis is ambidextrous as she writes left-handed and does almost everything else with her right hand.

GETTING TO KNOW RACHEL

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The team! We have so much fun together and get along great.

Favorite quote: "Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate, it is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light not our darkness that most frightens us."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Beating USC at home!

My dream job is: Being able to do something I love to do every day.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go hiking!

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Real World. I think it would be awesome to live in a house with a bunch of young people in an awesome location.

One phrase to describe me off the court is: Down to earth.

My pregame rituals are: Listening to music really loud in the locker room!

One thing people don't know about me is: That I'm actually left handed but I'm actually ambidextrous and do most things with my right hand.

The three things I cannot live without are: Brownies, my bed, and my car.

My goofy superstition is: I always have to wear the same sports bra and spandex in the games.

Best talent not related to basketball: Line dancing

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: The day Jasmine jumped out of the closet in the lockerroom and scared Jen and we caught it on film.

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: Flying

Pet Peeves: People who are pessimistic

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen

Background picture on your phone: The beach in Port Aransas, Texas

On your iPod right now: Eric Church

First concert: Kevin Folwer (a Texas country artist)

A dream vacation for me is: The Bahamas

I wish I knew how to....: Play the piano

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Travel the world.

A perfect day for me is when: It's spent somewhere near water.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Brad Pitt

And I would ask that person: To take a picture with me

Most memorable moment in sports: Winning the state championship my junior year in high school.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: Julia Roberts would play me and Mila Kunis would play Jasmine and Arielle would be played by Halle Berry.

Hobbies: Horseback riding, hiking, and painting

My plans after graduation are: Not sure yet

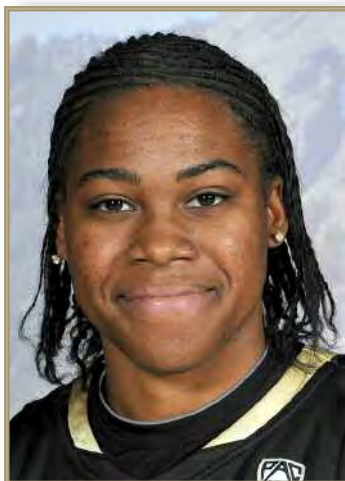

My favorite class at CU: Intro to psychology with Dr. King.

My hero is: My mom

Advice to young athletes: Always fight for what you want.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Ashley Wilson

Guard • 5-8 • Junior • 2L • Long Beach, Calif. (Poly)

Ashley Wilson was a critical member of the Colorado rotation as a sophomore, primarily coming off the bench and providing an instant spark. She is an athletic guard who is a good defender and her energy off the bench was an asset for the Buffaloes in 2011-12. Wilson is at her best crashing the boards, where she often out hustles and out muscles bigger and stronger opponents.

2011-12 (Sophomore): Wilson saw her playing time increase nearly four minutes per game from her freshman to sophomore seasons, playing in all but one contest (missed the Creighton game with a concussion). She developed a knack for rebounding, especially on the offensive end. Wilson totalled 97 rebounds on the season (2.9 rpg), with 43 coming on the offensive side. She had five games with five or more rebounds and six games with three or more offensive boards. She established career-bests with five offensive rebounds, and seven total, in the Omni Hotels Classic win over Valparaiso (11/25). She reached double digits in scoring for the first time as a collegian with 13 against Weber State (12/17) and had nine points on four other occasions. Wilson was one of Colorado's more accurate shooters, making 47.8 percent on the season (44-of-92). She started five games, including the season opener against Northern Arizona (11/11) where she scored seven points and dished out a personal-best four assists. Wilson had a strong end to the season as well, averaging 4.7 points and three rebounds while hitting 7-of-13 from the field in the final six games. She made 5-of-7 from the floor over the four WNIT contests. In the quarterfinal against Oklahoma State, she hit all six of her foul shots, netting career highs for both free throws made and attempted.

2010-11 (Freshman): Wilson played in 30 of 34 games averaging 2.1 points and 1.6 rebounds in just under 12 minutes per game. She had her best night against Texas State (12/1) scoring a career-best 10 points with five rebounds, three assists and one steal. Wilson played double-digit minutes in 18 games, including a personal-best 21 against Texas Tech. She had six games with three or more rebounds, including four against Oklahoma State – all on the offensive end. She grabbed 21 of her season's 47 rebounds on the offensive end.

High School: Ashley Wilson is a 2010 graduate of Long Beach Poly High School. She played for one of the most storied programs in Southern California, as the Jackrabbits amassed a 131-9 record during her four year career with three California Division I state titles and one runner-up finish. She averaged 7.4 points, 2.9 steals and 2.3 rebounds per game as a senior, receiving all-Moore League acclaim as well as the Coaches Award for 2010, helping the Jackrabbits to the Moore League title and a runner-up state finish. Wilson averaged 6.2 points and shot 48 percent from the field as a junior, helping the Jackrabbits to a 32-3 record in 2008-09 and a fourth consecutive state title. ESPN RISE FAB 50 had Long Beach Poly ranked No. 1 in the nation early in the 2008-09 season, ending at No. 30 while USA Today's final Super 25 rankings had the Jackrabbits at No. 23. She also ranked third on the team with 88 steals, helping Poly to the Moore League title with a perfect 12-0 mark. As a sophomore, Ashley averaged 6.2 points and 2.2 steals as Poly won its final 22 games to finish 31-2 and a third straight state crown. She contributed to the Poly powerhouse and was voted team co-Newcomer of the Year as freshman in 2007, as the Jackrabbits finished 36-1 and ranked No. 2 in the final USA Today's Super 25 national rankings. Ashley ranks as the 58th best guard in the nation according to ESPN.com's HoopGurlz.

Academics: Wilson is a sociology as a major at Colorado.

Personal: Ashley Ayanna Wilson was born on February, 28, 1992 in Bellflower, Calif, five minutes before her twin sister Brittany. She is the daughter of Tasha Anderson, who is a counselor in Los Angeles. Besides her twin sister, she has another younger sister, Tyara Dupree (15) and a younger brother, C.J. (3). Ashley would like to be a social worker after college and enjoys writing poetry and listening to music.

GETTING TO KNOW ASHLEY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Everything feels so much like a family.

Favorite quote: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Beating Villanova.

My dream job is: Play professionally.

One word to describe me off the court is: Determined

My pregame rituals are: Call my mother and listen to music.

One thing people don't know about me is: I write poetry.

The three things I cannot live without are: God, My family and basketball

Best talent not related to basketball: Poetry

Favorite Superhero: Batman

Pet Peeves: When people take too long to text back or respond with one word.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen Reese

Background picture on your phone: Family

On your iPod right now: Wale

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Wale, Jay Z or Michael Jordan

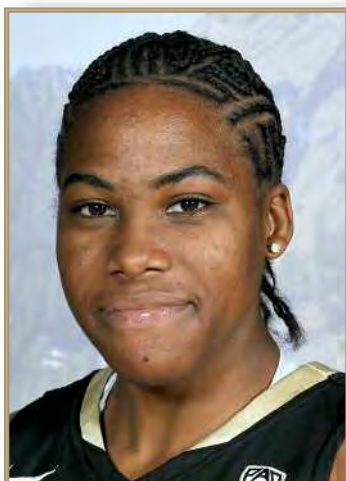

And I would ask that person: The things they did and amount of work they put in to become successful.

My plans after graduation are: Go overseas

My favorite class at CU: Drugs in US Society

Advice to young athletes: Never let anyone tell you that you can't do something. Hard work and determination will get you many things in life.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Brittany Wilson

Guard • 5-7 • Junior • 2L • Long Beach, Calif. (Poly)

Brittany Wilson emerged as one of Colorado's best outside threats, increasing her productivity in every category from her freshman to sophomore seasons. She is a tenacious defender, who is not afraid of going up against any player in the country on either side of the court. Her ability to run helped the Buffaloes thrive in transition, either by setting up a teammate or finishing on her own. Her maturity on the court has blossomed, and now as an upper classmen will be counted on to set an example for her younger teammates.

Career: Wilson enters her junior year in 14th place on Colorado's all-time list for 3-point field goals with 70.

2011-12 (Sophomore): She ranked second on the team in several categories including scoring (9.1 ppg), assists (63), steals (47) and 3-point field goals made and attempted (44-of-141). Her 31.2 percent accuracy from downtown was 13th in the Pac-12 while she also ranked 14th in 3-pointers made per game (1.3) and 27th in scoring. Wilson scored in double figures 16 times this season, including in five of six postseason games. She reached 20 points three times, beginning the season with a career-best 22-point effort in the win over Northern Arizona (11/11). Her two other 20-point efforts had a "Southern California" flair for the L.A. native. She scored 21 points, hitting 8-of-15 from the field, in the win over USC (1/26), one of Colorado's most complete games of the season. Wilson also led the Buffaloes with 21 points against Utah (3/7) in the first round of the Pac-12 Tournament, played in front of her hometown crowd at USC's Galen Center. Wilson finished the season strong, averaging 13.7 points, four

2012-13 BUFFALOES

2010-11 (Freshman): Averaged 7.8 points, 3.4 rebounds and 1.8 assists per game. She was second on the team in assists (61), behind Chucky Jeffery and ranked third in scoring behind Jeffery and Brittany Spears. She was one of three Buffaloes – joining Spears and Jeffery — with at least 30 assists and 30 steals. Her 36 total steals ranked fifth among freshmen in the Big 12. Wilson worked her way into Colorado's starting lineup and started 21 of the last 22 games played. She made her first career start in the win over North Dakota (1/4), responding with 15 points with career highs in 3-point field goals (four) and steals (four). She recorded her first career double-double with 12 rebounds and 11 points against Missouri (1/22). Wilson had 12 games in double-digits, including 19, to go along with eight rebounds, in CU's 66-60 overtime upset win over No. 17/16 Iowa State (1/15). Wilson scored a personal-best 22 points at Kansas (2/2). She averaged 10.3 points in Colorado's four Postseason WNIT games.

High School: Brittany Wilson is a 2010 graduate of Long Beach Poly High School. She played for one of the most storied programs in Southern California, as the Jackrabbits amassed a 131-9 record during her four year career with three California Division I state titles and one runner-up finish. Wilson averaged 8.8 points, 2.5 steals and 2.4 assists per game in her senior season at Long Beach Poly as she was named first team all-state, was Co-MVP of the Moore League and was a McDonald's All-America candidate. She lists the biggest moment of her high school career was scoring 27 points against Fontana Summit in the Southern California semifinals, with a broken wrist. Wilson was named to the 2010 Long Beach Press Telegram's Girls Basketball Dream Team. As a junior, she averaged 7.9 points and 3.5 steals, was named to the All-California Interscholastic Federation (CIF)-Southern Section first team and the All-Moore League first team as the Jackrabbits won their fourth-straight California Division I title. ESPN RISE FAB 50 had Long Beach

Poly ranked No. 1 in the nation early in the 2008-09 season, ending at No. 30 while USA Today's final Super 25 rankings had the Jackrabbits at No. 23. She was a two-time All-CIF Southern Section selection and three-time All-Moore League first team pick. As a sophomore, Wilson averaged 4.1 points and 2.3 steals per game, assisting Poly to a No. 2 final national ranking by USA Today's Super 25. She was voted the team co-Newcomer of the Year, along with her sister, as a freshman in 2007 averaging 4.5 points and 1.7 rebounds. Wilson is ranked as the No. 32 shooting guard in the country, according to ESPN.com HoopGurlz.

Academics: Wilson plans to major sociology at Colorado.

Personal: Brittany Briandie Wilson was born on February 28, 1992 in Bellflower, Calif, five minutes after her twin sister Ashley. She is the daughter of Tasha Anderson, who is a counselor in Los Angeles. Besides her twin sister, she has one younger sister, Tyara Dupree (15) and a younger brother C.J. (3). She would like to play in the WNBA or overseas and eventually wants to be a crime scene investigator.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Lexy Kresl

Guard • 5-11 • Sophomore • 1L • Paradise Valley, Ariz. (Shadow Mountain)

Lexy Kresl made a nice transition to the collegiate game, establishing herself as one of the top freshmen in the Pac-12. She has a great stroke and is a fearless shooter from beyond the arc. Kresl will look to develop an all-around game as she aspires to make her mark as one of the top overall shooters in the Pac-12.

Career: After a record-setting freshman season from beyond the arc, Kresl already ranks 16th on CU's all-time list for 3-pointers made with 63.

2011-12 (Freshman): Kresl averaged nine points and led Colorado in 3-pointers made (63) and attempted (198) en route to Pac-12 All-Freshman honors voted on by the media. She earned honorable mention to the coaches' All-Freshman team. Kresl ranked second among Pac-12 freshman in 3-pointers and fifth in scoring. On the overall league charts, she was fifth in 3-pointers made (1.8 3mpg), 12th in 3-point percentage (.318) and 28th in scoring. Her 63 3-pointers were most by a CU freshman breaking the mark of 57 previously held by Brittany Spears (2007-08) and Shelley Sheetz (1991-92). It was the 12th time a CU player has made 60 3-pointers in one season and just the seventh different player to do so. She made a 3-pointer in 31-of-35 games. Kresl scored a career high 20 points on 6-of-7 from downtown in the win over Oregon State (3/3), the top single-game 3-point percentage in the Pac-12 this season. She was named to the UTSA Classic All-Tournament team, averaging 14.5 points and hitting 50 percent from the field. Kresl topped off the tournament in style by hitting the game-winning 3-point shot at the buzzer against Creighton (12/21). She earned Omni Hotels Classic All-Tournament Team honors, scoring 16 points in the championship game against Wisconsin (11/26) including a team season-best 8-for-8 from the free throw line. She made 36-of-40 free throws on the season, and will carry a string of 17 straight made into the 2012-13 season. Kresl enjoyed a spectacular collegiate debut, tying a school record by hitting five 3-pointers in the first half against Northern Arizona (11/11), finishing with 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting. She registered six straight double-figure scoring games to begin her career, tying Shelley Sheetz for the second most in team history.

GETTING TO KNOW LEXY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The team chemistry! We are a great big family!

Favorite quote: "Storms make trees take deeper roots."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Hitting the '3' to win the game against Creighton during the UTSA Christmas Tournament!

My dream job is: My dream job is to be a physician's assistant...but it changes every day so you never know!

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: My favorite thing to do in Boulder is eat at all of the wonderful restaurants.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: I want to be on Vampire Diaries. I know it's not reality TV but I love that show!

One word to describe me off the court is: Reserved

My pregame rituals are: Eating a good meal, getting some shots up, heating and stretching, and a nap of course!

One thing people don't know about me is: I am a scary movie fanatic!

The three things I cannot live without are: My running shoes, my TV, and my debit card.

My goofy superstition is: I have to make the last shot before the game begins or I will play badly.

Best talent not related to basketball: Shopping!

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Going to the movie "Pitch Perfect" with my team! It was "acahilarious"!

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: To read minds

Pet Peeves: Bad grammar!

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Definitely me!

Background picture on your phone: A picture of my teammates and I.

And I would ask that person: To marry me!

Most memorable moment in sports: Winning the state championship my junior year of high school.

Hobbies: Running, watching movies, going shopping, hiking!

My plans after graduation are: Graduate school

My favorite class at CU: Biology

My hero is: My brother Logan

Advice to young athletes: Hard work beats talent when talent fails to work hard!

HIGH SCHOOL: Lexy Kresl is a 2011 graduate of Shadow Mountain High School in Paradise Valley, Ariz., where she is the program's all-time leading scorer with 2,404 points. She earned consecutive All-Arizona, first-team all-state and regional player of the year accolades and was Arizona's leading scorer her junior and senior years. As a senior, she was a McDonald's All-American nominee after averaging 25 points and 14 rebounds per game. She was named Outstanding Female Athlete of the Year as a senior and earned an Arizona Women's Wendy's Heisman as a junior. During her junior season, Kresl led Shadow Mountain High School to the 2010 Arizona 4AI state title and was named tournament MVP. She was an ESPN Rise All-American after averaging 27 points and 12 rebounds per game. The same year she named Western Sky Player of the Year and earned all tournament honors at the Nike Tournament of Champions. As a sophomore in 2009, she averaged 16 points and seven rebounds, earning all-region honors. Kresl guided Shadow Mountain to a four-year record of 90-27. She played for two Nike Sponsored summer all-star teams, the Gregory Strickling Basketball program (2010-11) and the Arizona Swish (2007-09). Kresl also was a one-year letterwinner for the Shadow Mountain track & field team and recorded a sixth place finish in the state in the 800-meter run.

ACADEMICS: Kresl is an integrative physiology major at CU. She wants to be an orthodontist after she graduates from CU.

PERSONAL: Alexis "Lexy" Kresl was born on July 15, 1993, in Wisconsin to John and Julie Kresl. She has two younger brothers Logan (17) and Colten (13). Logan is a brain cancer survivor, having been diagnosed at age 7 and fought through surgery and chemotherapy treatments. Kresl says he is her inspiration both on and off the court. Her mother played basketball at TCU. She lists her hobbies as running, shopping, listening to music and watching movies.

2011-12 (Freshman): Reese ranked second on the team in rebounding (6.0 rpg) and fourth in scoring (7.8 ppg) as a first year Buffalo. She led all Pac-12 freshmen in rebounding by average and earned honorable mention to the Pac-12 All-Freshman team voted on by league coaches. Reese played in 25 games and moved into the starting lineup for nine straight before suffering a broken orbital bone underneath her left eye while attempting to take a charge in the opening minutes of the game at No. 2 Stanford (2/23). She had come into her own, leading Colorado in rebounding (or sharing the lead) in six of the last nine games prior to her injury. Reese grabbed a career-best 14 rebounds against UCLA (1/29), the third highest total by a CU player this season. She made her first career start at Arizona, responding with 12 points and a team-high seven rebounds. Logged her first career double-double with 12 points, on 6-of-7 shooting, and 12 rebounds in the win at Washington State (1/7). She had 11 games with seven or more rebounds, including four in double-digits. Reese was named to the UTSA Holiday Classic All-Tournament Team, averaging 12.5 points over the two games while shooting 66.7 percent (10-of-15). She had a career-high 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting — including her lone 3-pointer made — in the win over Creighton (12/21). She made her collegiate debut against Northern Arizona scoring eight points on 3-of-6 from the field while grabbing three steals. Reese had 11 games of shooting 50 percent or better, finishing her season at 44.9 percent, which would have ranked among the top 12 in the Pac-12, but fell just short of the minimum number of games played to be ranked in the league leaderboard.

GETTING TO KNOW JEN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: How our team is so family oriented and that we get along so well together.

Favorite quote: "Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." —Ralph Waldo Emerson

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Having the overall opportunity to play with my teammates and good friends that I will always have in my life.

My dream job is: Is to play in the WNBA or overseas and then become a college coach.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Going out to dinner on Pearl Street with the team.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Real World because I think it would be a great opportunity and a lot of fun.

One word to describe me off the court is: Funny

My pregame rituals are: I always need to make a right hand layup before shooting or anything else.

One thing people don't know about me is: I am a very sarcastic person, but I know when to be serious when needed.

The three things I cannot live without are: Cell phone, coffee, and hair spray

My goofy superstition is: If I don't make my right hand layup before a game or practice it will be a bad day.

Best talent not related to basketball: Comedian

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Jasmine and I turned our beds into one huge king sized bed and watched Netflix all night!

Favorite Superhero: Jumper (From The Movie)

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: To be invisible

Pet Peeves: Slow drivers

Hidden Talents: Not that I am aware of.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Well, I beat Chucky three times once.

Background picture on your phone: My parents and brother.

On your iPod right now: Country music

First concert: 'N sync

A dream vacation for me is: To go to Fiji

I wish I knew how to....: Juggle

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To get a bachelor's degree in communications.

The ideal day for me is: Sleeping in until 12 p.m., going to Starbucks for my iced venti Americano, and then watching Netflix the rest of the day in my bed.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Michael Jordan

And I would ask that person: For a huge hug and picture!

Most memorable moment in sports: Making it to the state championship game my senior year of high school.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: Lauren Conrad would play me and Lexy would be my co-star.

Hobbies: Playing golf, driving, hanging with friends, and texting.

My plans after graduation are: Playing overseas

My favorite class at CU: Group Interaction

My hero is: My parents

Advice to young athletes: Never give up. When things get tough never stop, just keep pushing through. Believe in yourself!

HIGH SCHOOL: Reese is a 2011 graduate of Clackamas (Ore.) High School. A 2011 Parade Magazine All-American, Reese averaged 25 points, 20 rebounds, six assists and five blocks as a senior guiding the Cavaliers to a 27-2 record and a second place state finish, the program's best ever state placing. She became the first player to be named Oregon's Gatorade Girls Basketball Player of the Year on two occasions (2010, '11). Reese led the Three Rivers League in scoring as a senior, helping Clackamas to an undefeated (15-0) conference championship season, and a 25-game win streak along the way. She is a three-time Class 6A first team all-state selection and Three Rivers MVP and a four-time first team all-league selection. A 2011 McDonald's All-American nominee, Reese was the MVP of the state of Oregon and the school's Athlete of the Year. She was Oregon's second leading scorer her junior year (21 ppg) and its third leading scorer her sophomore year (20 ppg). As a freshman, Reese earned second-team all-state honors, averaging 12 points and five rebounds. Reese's teams compiled an overall four-year record of 70-17. She earned a spot in the CHS Hall of Fame before graduation. Reese played club ball with Team Concept from seventh through 12th grades, traveling all over the greater west. Her team took first place in tournaments in Las Vegas, San Diego, Seattle and Memphis.

ACADEMICS: Reese is majoring in communications at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Jen "J" Reese was born on May 19, 1992, in Portland, Ore. She is the daughter of Jeff and Ashley Reese of Happy Valley, Ore. She has one younger brother David, a junior in high school. When she's not playing basketball she enjoys driving her Mustang and hanging out with friends. After graduation she hopes to continue playing in the WNBA or overseas.

Jasmine Sborov

Guard • 6-0 • Sophomore • 1L • Round Rock, Texas (Round Rock)

Jasmine Sborov improved as much during her first season as any Buffalo in recent memory. Her hard work and dedication, paid off with increased playing time during the stretch run. Sborov is a big guard who offensively can get to the rim and also hit the pull up jumper. She is long and physical on the defensive side, helping Colorado become a solid rebounding team with her effort and athleticism.

Freshman (2011-12): Pitched in just under three points and three rebounds per games, but the season averages don't tell the story for Sborov's freshman year. She steadily climbed the ladder throughout the season, moving from the end of the bench, to a starter and key contributor in Colorado's postseason run. Sborov started the final nine games of the season, essentially taking the position of classmate Jen Reese who was lost for the season with an eye injury. She scored 84 of her season's 94 points in the final 20 games of the season and 24 of her season's 32 field goals came in the last 15. Sborov began to see extended action in the home game against No. 4 Stanford (1/14) and played double-digit minutes in all but two of the final 20 contests. She shot 47 percent (8-of-17) during CU's WNIT run averaging 5.8 points and 4.3 rebounds. She tied a career-best playing 29 minutes in the third round win over Villanova (3/22). Sborov had a career night in the home win over Arizona

(2/9), setting personal bests with 10 points, on 4-of-6 shooting, with seven rebounds and three assists. She scored her first collegiate points on a layup against Valparaiso (11/25), also logging three blocked shots in that game, the second most by a CU player in a game this season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Sborov is a 2011 graduate of Round Rock (Texas) High School. She was a four-time team MVP, three-time Offensive Player of the Year and two-time first-team all-district 16-5A selection. A

GETTING TO KNOW JASMINE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The family atmosphere that we have amongst our team. It really helps me (and those who are also from out-of-state) feel more at home here.

Favorite quote: "When you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change." -Wayne Dyer

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Beating USC at home. There was just something about that game that gave me a new perspective on the game, the season, my teammates, and my own game. Winning that game was one of the greatest feelings for me last year.

My dream job is: My dream job is to own my own "Dream Center" in the inner city. This is a place where I can help people who are in need of a job, childcare, clothes, after-school care/tutoring, food, a place to sleep, etc. Helping people is a passion of mine and this is a way I would love to be able to do so.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Drive up Flagstaff and enjoy the view overlooking the city.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Keeping Up With The Kardashians. I don't know what it is about the show that grabs my attention, but I love watching it now!

One word to describe me off the court is: Adventurous

My pregame rituals are: After shoot-around I always go home to shower and (physically) get ready for the game, then I head over to the gym two hours before tipoff, when I get there I usually put my warm ups on and do my hair (I always wear my hair the same for every game), then I go into the training room to get taped and then head out to the court to get my shot warmed up before our real warm up starts.

One thing people don't know about me is: I used to have a British accent when I was little. When I was three we moved to London for my Dad's job for a year. Over there they start kids in school when they're 3-years old. They immediately taught us French and I guess I just picked up the accent that my teachers and classmates had. A year later we moved back to Alabama, so that British accent didn't stick around much longer after that.

The three things I cannot live without are: My Bible, phone, and car

My goofy superstition is: I have to wear my hair the same way for every game.

Best talent not related to basketball: Wake-surfing

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: We have a couple girls on the team who are deathly afraid of haunted houses, and their reactions are always hilarious.

We like to give them a hard time about it every time the "haunted house season" comes around.

Favorite Superhero: Cat Woman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: Super-speed

Hidden Talents: I used to high jump really competitively in high school and actually considered going to college for that for a little bit. I also love to wake-surf when I go home to visit family.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen Reese

Background picture on your phone: The Olympic Rings

On your iPod right now: Just about anyone.

First concert: Kirk Franklin

A dream vacation for me is: The Cayman Islands

I wish I knew how to....: Play the piano

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Visit Jerusalem

A perfect day for me is when: I wake up no later than 9:30 a.m., clean my room, get homework/errands done early, workout, have good meals, and end my day feeling productive and not going to bed late.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Angelina Jolie

And I would ask that person: What it's like to have such a diverse family, and what all the places are like that she's traveled to.

Most memorable moment in sports: The first time I ran through the tunnel at Coors Events Center for our first home game. There's something special about running through there on game days.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: Jennifer Lopez would play myself in a movie, and Zoe Saldana would co-star as Arielle.

My plans after graduation are: Going to play overseas.

My favorite class at CU: U.S. Race And Ethnic Relations

My hero is: My mom

Advice to young athletes: Never ever give up on your dreams. Having a dream is the first step to making it a reality.

McDonald's All-American nominee in 2011, Sborov helped the Dragons to the playoffs for the fourth straight season, averaging 15 points and eight rebounds per game. She led the Dragons to a 15-9 mark in 2010 averaging 12 points and eight rebounds, en route to all-district honors. Sborov led her team in blocks and rebounding while averaging 11 points as a sophomore, earning honorable mention to the all-district team. She averaged 11 points and seven rebounds as a freshman, leading Round Rock in blocked shots. She also lettered in track at Round Rock and set the school's high jump record at Regionals in 2010 with a 5 feet, 6 inches mark. She played club basketball with TeamXpress, helping them win a Nike Nationals tournament.

ACADEMICS: Sborov is majoring in sociology at CU. She is also interested in nutrition.

PERSONAL: Jasmine "Jas" Sborov was born on July 30, 1993, in El Paso, Texas. She is the daughter of Jon and Tara Sborov. She has three younger siblings Amber (17), Jordan (14) and Jalen (13). Her mother ran track at UTEP. She enjoys outdoor activities like hiking, biking and camping. When Sborov was younger, she lived in London for a year and says she used to have a British accent and used to speak some French.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Arielle Roberson

Forward • 6-1 • Freshman • RS • San Antonio, Texas (Wagner)

Buffaloes. She will add athleticism and versatility the Colorado lineup.

2011-12 (Redshirt): Sat out the 2011-12 after developing a torn labrum in her left hip during preseason workouts. She underwent successful surgery to repair the tear in December 2011. Roberson has four full years of eligibility remaining.

HIGH SCHOOL: Roberson is a 2011 graduate of Wagner High School in San Antonio where she was a Texas Association of Basketball Coaches (TABC) and Texas Girls Coaches Association (TGCA) All-State pick as a senior. She averaged 18.2 points, 9.7 rebounds, 2.7 assists, three steals and two blocks per game in 2011 while guiding Wagner to a 32-7 record, advancing to the semifinals of the Texas 5A State Tournament. A multiple all-region and all-district performer, Roberson also shot 57 percent from the field and 73 percent from the free-throw line as a senior. A two-time member of the San Antonio Express-News All-City Super Team, Roberson finished her career at Wagner with 1,640 points. She was unanimously chosen as the District 25-5A MVP as a senior and was also a McDonald's All-American nominee and the MVP of the Lone Star Invitational Tournament. Roberson, who played in the TABC Girls All-Star Game in May 2011, was a part of three state tournament teams at Wagner sporting a four-year record of 133-15. Roberson also was a three-year letterwinner in volleyball. She played club basketball with TeamXpress.

ACADEMICS: Roberson is majoring in communications at CU.

PERSONAL: Arielle Roberson, was born Jan. 20, 1993, in Grand Rapids, Mich. She is the daughter of John and Lisa Roberson. She is the fourth of seven Roberson siblings and joins older brother Andre in Boulder, who is a junior for the CU men's basketball team and helped the Buffaloes to the 2012 Pac-12 Tournament title and the NCAA Tournament. Her parents, John (basketball) and Lisa (volleyball), were both student-athletes at New Mexico State University. An older sister Ashlee was a three-year letterwinner at Texas Tech University (2007-10) and played professionally overseas. Older sister Amber wrapped up a four-year volleyball career at the University of Texas in 2011. Her three younger siblings are Anthony (17), Aaliyah (8) and Arianna (6). She would like a chance to play in the WNBA.

Lauren Huggins

Guard/Forward • 6-1 • Freshman • HS • Littleton, Colo. (Heritage)

Lauren Huggins is a great shooter with range that extends well beyond the 3-point arc. The sky is the limit for this first Colorado signee of the Linda Lappe era. She provides an outside scoring threat and at 6-foot-1 is a long defender.

High School: A 2012 graduate of Heritage High School in Littleton, Huggins is the first Colorado signee for Linda Lappe's coaching staff. A two-time All-Continental League first team selection, Huggins helped the Eagles to an 18-7 record as a senior and a spot in the Sweet 16 of the Class 5A Colorado State Tournament. She was rated as the 64th best player in the nation and the 11th best wing by ESPN HoopGurlz. She starred at 2012 edition of "The Show" Colorado's annual high school basketball all-star game played at the Pepsi Center. Huggins was named MVP of the contest, scoring a game-high 15 points, hitting on 5-of-6 from 3-point range, in her "Blue" team's 69-48 win. As a junior she averaged 12 points and nearly eight rebounds per game, guiding the Eagles to the 2011 Class 5A Sweet 16.

A two-time honorable mention to the Class 5A All-State team, she played her club basketball with the Boulder Rockies.

Academics: She intends to major in biochemistry at Colorado, and aspires to be a pediatric surgeon.

Personal: Born on March 28, 1994, she is the daughter of Jerry and Tracy Huggins of Littleton. She has two older sisters, Erin, a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines, and Megan a junior at CU.

GETTING TO KNOW LAUREN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The family atmosphere that the team possesses.

Favorite quote: "Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away." - Hilary Cooper

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Jamee Swan

Forward • 6-2 • Freshman • HS • Tucson, Ariz. (Marana)

Jamee Swan is a fiery, passionate forward that will give Colorado a much needed post presence. She is a dynamic rebounder who has the strength to finish down low, but can also move to the outside and play with her face to the basket.

High School: A 2012 graduate of Marana High School in Tucson, where she was highly regarded as the top prospect in the state of Arizona. She was ranked as the eighth best forward in the nation and the 38th best overall player by ESPN HoopGurlz. Swan averaged 20.8 points, 12.8 rebounds, 3.4 blocks and 3.0 steals as a senior, earning All-Southern Arizona, first team All-Division I, and Division I Player of the Year honors from the Tucson Citizen. A 2012 Sporting News honorable mention All-American, she had a double-double in all but one contest with game highs of 42 points and 19 rebounds. Despite missing 10 games of her senior season with an injury, Swan received honorable mention to the WBCA All-America team and was a McDonald's All-America nominee. Swan averaged 19.6 points, 13.4 rebounds, 4.1 blocked shots and 4.1 steals for the Tigers as a junior, earning first team All-Southern Arizona and Southern Arizona 4A1 Player of the Year honors from the Tucson Citizen. She was also the Arizona Daily Star Player of the Year and a member of the Class 4A All-State first team. Swan was a 2009-10 Class 4A All-State performer as a sophomore, averaging 21.5 points, 15.2 rebounds and 6.3 blocks per game. Swan earned a total of 12 varsity letters at Marana, also participating in volleyball and track & field. She was the Arizona 2011 Division II state champion in the shot put. Swan played club basketball with the Arizona Elite out of Phoenix.

Academics: An open option major, Swan was a three-year member of the Marana High School Student Council and kept a 3.1 GPA.

Personal: Born on Jan. 26, 1994, she is the daughter of Diane Swan. She has one younger brother, Ryan (15) who is a sophomore in high school and plays basketball, football and volleyball. Her mother Diane coached her in high school at Marana.

GETTING TO KNOW JAMEE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: How the team clicks together and how we have each others backs.

Favorite quote: "It's not who I am underneath, but what I do that defines me" — Batman

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: In high school I'd have to say being able to play in my senior night game.

My dream job is: Being a psychiatrist and helping people get through problems in their lives.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Challenge on MTV, it's competitive and I feel like I'd do awesome in all the challenges we'd have to endure.

One word to describe me off the court is: Goofy

My pregame rituals are: Sit and listen to a set playlist of songs that get me fired up, and text my mom that I love her and that I'll talk to her after the game.

One thing people don't know about me is: My ears are different sizes.

The three things I cannot live without are: Music, my family, and my friends.

My goofy superstition is: Never splitting a pole, having to tie both shoes if one gets untied, throwing salt over my shoulder if I spill it.

Best talent not related to basketball: Volleyball

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: The ability to read people's minds

Pet Peeves: I don't really have any.

Hidden Talents: I draw pretty well. I can dance.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Lexy Kresl

First concert: U2 Vertigo Tour

A dream vacation for me is: New Zealand

I wish I knew how to...: Play the piano.

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To leave a mark in history, and make the world a better place than when I came.

A perfect day for me is when: I have my friends around and we sit and watch movies all day and hang out together.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: LeBron James

And I would ask that person: How do you deal with all the dumb comments from fans?

Most memorable moment in sports: When I was in the slam dunk contest at the Arizona all-star weekend.

Hobbies: Playing video games, watching movies, eating, and hanging out with friends.

My plans after graduation are: To get a job doing what I love to do.

My favorite class at CU: 21st century leadership.

My hero is: My mom.

Advice to young athletes: Always follow your dream, don't let anyone, including yourself tell you that you can't do it. Push through every second of pain to reach your goals. Adversity only visited the strong but stays with the weak forever, be strong and there is nothing you can't do.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Kyleesha Weston

Guard • 5-7 • Freshman • HS • Kansas City, Mo. (Park Hill)

Kyleesha Weston is true point guard, filling a valuable need for the Buffaloes. She handles the ball and sees the floor very well, and has good quickness both offensively and defensively.

High School: A 2012 graduate of Park Hill High School, she was a finalist for the DiRenna Award as a senior, given to the top boys and girls high school basketball players in the Kansas City metro area. She averaged 18 points and nearly five assists per game, earning All-Suburban Big 6 Conference and Kansas City Star All-Metro honors. Weston helped the Trojans to a 16-9 record in 2012 and played in the annual HyVee/Pepsi Greater Kansas City Basketball Coaches Association All-Star Challenge in April. As a junior, she averaged 15.4 points, 4.5 rebounds, 4.5 steals and 2.5 assists per game, landing a spot on the all-conference and all-district teams. She had six double-doubles (points and steals) and recorded season game highs with 29 points and 12 steals. Weston played club basketball for the MoKan Eclipse program.

Academics: She intends to major in sports medicine at Colorado and would like to become a physical therapist. Weston lists the passion to stay in sports after college as the influence on her major.

Personal: Born on July 20, 1994, she is the daughter of Kyle Sr. and Lisa Weston of Kansas City, Mo. She has one younger brother, Kyle Jr., who is in the eighth grade. Weston enjoys hanging out with friends and spending time with family. At one time she participated in gymnastics and can do flips. She can also sing and dance.

GETTING TO KNOW KYLEESHA

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Getting to bond with such great people every day whether it be the coaches, my teammates or anyone else associated with the program. They are incredible.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Hang out with my teammates

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Silent Library because it is really funny and makes you control yourself, and you get money for it.

One word to describe me off the court is: Disciplined

My pregame rituals are: I read the pep text that my mom sends me three times because the third time is a charm.

One thing people don't know about me is: I can't tell you because then you will know.

The three things I cannot live without are: My mom, music and shoes

Best talent not related to basketball: Self-Control

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Going to see Pitch Perfect with the team has been the best thing so far. We had a great time and enjoyed the movie and best of all I think it brought us closer together.

Favorite Superhero: Spiderman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: Read minds

Pet Peeves: Arrogant People

Hidden Talents: Dancing, drawing, shopping, and texting.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Meagan Malcolm-Peck

Background picture on your phone: My basketball number

On your iPod right now: Chris Brown

First concert: JoJo

A dream vacation for me is: Any type of cruise

I wish I knew how to....: Tread Water

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To be like my mommy.

A perfect day for me is when: Sleeping until 10:30, then with my mom watch football all day with a big lunch and big dinner. I would rather it not be cold outside and for the sun to be out.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Tamika Catchings

And I would ask that person: How she overcame the challenges she has faced and what has kept her going?

Most memorable moment in sports: Is when my high school team beat St. Joe Central in St. Joe on their senior night/breast cancer awareness game. It was the first time we had beaten them in five years.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: I would be played by Kyla Pratt and Arielle would play as Sanaa Lathan

Hobbies: Shopping, hanging out with my family and friends, playing all sports, watching football, singing and dancing.

My plans after graduation are: To have a well-paying job that is based off of my major when I decide what that is.

My favorite class at CU: Leadership

My hero is: My Mom

Advice to young athletes: To never give up on your dream, and to do whatever in life you want to pursue. With that you have to give nothing less than 100% to get to that dream, or goal of yours. Don't be afraid to be different.

BOULDER - If there were any opening-night nerves, Linda Lappe's Colorado women's basketball team quickly disposed of them. After that, Northern Arizona was disposed of just as easily as CU rolled into the 2011-12 season with an impressive 84-60 win Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffs had three players in double figures, led by sophomore Brittany Wilson with 22 points. Freshman Lexy Kresl tied a school record with five three-pointers in the first half, finishing with 15, and sophomore Chucky Jeffery came off the bench to add 11 points.

CU finished its first game with a 57.1 percent from the field (32-of-56) and was at 66.7 percent from the free throw line (12-of-18). NAU, also opening its season Friday night, was held to 37.5 percent shooting (21-of-56). The Lumberjacks' leading scorer was Amanda Frost with 18.

"I'm pleased with how our team did tonight," Lappe said. "I thought we got a lot better from our game against Regis in a lot of different areas. I thought offensively we moved the ball well and were very balanced in our scoring attack."

Hoping to experiment with her new players and rotations, Lappe couldn't have scripted a better start - and it wasn't just the Buffs racing to a 29-9 advantage midway through the opening half.

Northern Arizona's moment (actually, several seconds) of glory was controlling the opening tip. From there, the Buffs took control. After sophomore Rachel Hargis took a charge on NAU's first possession, she scored on a put-back and CU was off, running and shooting.

Much of that was done by the supremely confident Kresl, who buried five of her first three-point attempts for 15 first-half points. The 5-11 guard from Paradise Valley, Ariz., missed on two second-half treys, but her five rebounds were a team best.

"I was definitely feeling my shot," Kresl said. "I feel really good in the offense. It's also about playing defense though. If you play good defense then you will get the shots you want. If you are patient, then you'll get your shot."

"I thought she came out with a lot of confidence," Lappe added. "I somehow knew she was going to play well against Northern Arizona, she knows a lot of those players. She had a little bit more of a challenge in coming out and making sure her team was successful."

In the first half, Lappe played nine of her 10 players suited up for the opener, with walk-on Esther Lee entering the game in the final minute. Eight of the 10 Buffs scored.

Behind Kresl's shooting, which boosted her team's 59.3 percent field goal accuracy (16-of-27) in the first 20 minutes, the Buffs led 44-20 at the half. Their big lead was 31 points (44-13) on a pair of Brittany Wilson free throws at 3:04 before intermission.

"A good start is important," Brittany Wilson said. We knew that if we didn't bury [Northern Arizona] quick, they have the weapons to come back. When we had the chance to put them away, we did."

The Lumberjacks managed to hit just 29.6 percent (8-of-27) from the field in the first half and didn't score for the game's first 21 minutes. From there, the night steadily eroded for the Big Sky Conference member.

After falling behind 26-9, NAU suffered an almost 7 minute drought and found itself looking at a 39-11 deficit after Kresl canned her fourth trey of the half with 4:03 left before halftime.

When Kresl followed immediately with her fifth three-pointer, the Buffs were cruising 42-13 - and Lappe might have been wondering if her team could maintain interest in the final 20 minutes.

No problem...the Buffs outscored the Lumberjacks 10-5 in the second half's first 31 minutes and maintained at least a 21-point advantage for the remainder of the night.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas - Chuck Jeffery notched her 11th career double-double and a late spurts allowed Colorado to pull away for a 71-58 road win against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Wednesday night at the American Bank Center.

Jeffery scored 16 of her team-best 19 points in the second half and pulled down a career-high 16 rebounds.

"We went in at the half and said we need to take care of business on the boards, they were getting a lot of offensive rebounds. Coach (Linda) Lappe told me to rebound, so that's what I did," said Jeffery.

The Buffaloes also had 13 points off the bench from freshman Jen Reese on 6-of-9 shooting.

"Whether she is going to score or not, she makes a difference out there. That's how Jen can play every single game; she brings it when we need it," said Colorado head coach Linda Lappe.

The win moves Colorado to 2-0 on the season and also provides the Buffaloes with their fourth straight win on the road dating back to the end of the 2010-11 season.

"It takes a lot of toughness and team chemistry to win on the road. You don't do it by having everybody on their own page," said Lappe.

Jessica Jammer had a game-high 22 points to lead the Islanders who fall to 0-2 overall.

CU's Ashley and Brittany Wilson both scored early layups as the Buffaloes were pushing well in transition to build an 8-2 lead.

Texas A&M-Corpus Christi would cut the lead to 9-8 on a Jammer jumper. The Buffs front court, sporting a considerable size advantage, fell to early foul trouble. Rachel Hargis and Julie Seabrook each picked up two fouls in a two minute span, and sat the majority of the rest of the period on the bench.

After a media timeout, freshman Lexy Kresl scored on a layup which sparked an 11-4 Buffs run. Meagan Malcolm-Peck drilled a 3-pointer at the top of the key, Reese scored on a conventional 3-point play and Kresl scored from deep to put CU up 20-12. Off an A&M-Corpus Christi miss, Jeffery nabbed one of her eight first half rebounds and found Brittany Wilson in the clear for an easy layup, giving CU its largest lead to that point at 22-12.

Jammer kept the Islanders close scoring nine points in the first period including 5-of-7 from the free-throw line. Jammer was Texas A&M-Corpus Christi's best offense as the Islanders were held to 24 percent shooting.

Jeffery hit her lone field goal of the first half with a runner in the key as the Buffaloes led 33-26 at the break.

CU made just one of its first six field goals in the second half and A&M took advantage. Jammer scored six points and a arching baseline jumper gave A&M-CC its first lead at 39-38.

But CU responded well with a 7-0 run. Kresl pushed the tempo enough to get to the free throw line. After tying the score at 39, she missed the second attempt, Jeffery grabbed the initial board and missed her put-back chance, but Seabrook cleaned it up to put the Buffs back up 41-38.

Colorado pushed its lead to eight at 55-47, but the Islanders cut it down to five with 6:29 off 3-point play by Jammer.

That is as close as A&M-Corpus Christi would get as the Buffaloes ended the game with a 17-5 run. Jeffery scored four straight points and after a pair of Trish Amboree free throws, Kresl drilled a 3-pointer to put CU up double-digits for good at 63-52 with 3:43 left.

Brittany Wilson had 10 points and four rebounds. Malcolm-Peck finished with seven points and six rebounds. The Buffaloes, which trailed on the boards for most of the game, finished on the positive end at 53-48.

Myeisha Myles had 10 points and nine rebounds for the Islanders, who shot just 29 percent on the evening.

BOULDER - Colorado had its strongest defensive effort of the season, limiting Valparaiso to 32 points in a 60-32 Buffaloes win in the first round of the 25th Annual Omni Hotels Classic Friday evening at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado at 4-0 and matching its best start since 2000-01, will face Wisconsin in Saturday's championship game at 7:30 p.m. Wisconsin (2-4) held off Montana State 71-61 in Friday's first game. Valparaiso (0-4) will play MSU (3-2) in the consolation game at 5 p.m. on Saturday.

"I thought it was a good win," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "Our defense was outstanding."

Chucky Jeffery led the Buffaloes with another complete stat line. The junior guard had 14 points on 6-of-10 shooting, 9 rebounds, five assists, one block and one steal.

The Buffaloes had a good start for the fourth straight game to open the season, pushing out to an early 17-8 lead. Valparaiso's Ashley Varner kept the Crusaders close early with a pair of 3-pointers. Shaquira Scott hit a jumper at 7:30 to pull Valparaiso to within six at 19-13.

From there the Buffaloes began to run away. Colorado ended the half on a 16-0 run. Jeffery scored the last nine of those points including a long 3-pointer at the first half buzzer to give CU a 35-13 lead at the break.

"We know that every time we come out we have to throw the first punch, we have to be aggressive, we have to play defense hard," Jeffery said. "That's just what we are taught, so we have to emulate that on the floor."

Lexy Kresl scored five straight to open the second half to give CU a 40-13 lead. Scott finally broke Valpo's 10-03 drought with a short jumper with 17:27 remaining. That began a 7-0 Valpo run as CU cooled off over the next three minutes. VU's Tabitha Gerardot converted a conventional 3-point play to bring the Crusaders to within 20 at 40-20 with 14:28 left.

Julie Seabrook ended the Crusader run with a short jumper in the paint. Soon after, Jeffery reentered the game and reenergized the Buffaloes.

CU answered Valpo's 7-0 run with one of its own. Jeffery ignited a free break that ended in a layup by Jasmine Sborov, her first career points. Jeffery blocked a shot on the other end and the ensuing possession ended in an Ashley Wilson layup. Kresl then put CU up 49-23 with a long 3-pointer with 10 minutes remaining.

All active players contributed in the scoring column. Walk-on freshman guard Esther Lee scored her first five career points, including a late 3-pointer.

Ashley Wilson had a career high seven rebounds as the Buffaloes out rebounded the Crusaders 40-31. CU's defense held Valparaiso to just 26 percent shooting.

"Ashley is an extremely hard worker," Lappe said. "Offensive rebounding is all heart and effort. Every time a shot went up, Ashley was rushing the glass."

Kresl and Brittany Wilson each had 10 points. Rachel Hargis had six points, four rebounds and a career-high three assists.

Varner led Valparaiso with 10 points and seven rebounds. Scott ended with nine points, adding a block and a steal to her line.

BOULDER - Chucky Jeffery recorded her 12th career double-double and Lexy Kresl scored a career-high 16 points to lead the CU women's basketball team to a 58-48 win against Wisconsin in the championship game of CU's Omni Hotels Classic.

The victory pushed the Buffs to 5-0 for the first time since the 2000-01 season and earned them their third consecutive Omni Classic title. Jeffery was named the tournament MVP for the second consecutive year while Kresl, a 5-11 freshman guard, also was selected to the all-tournament team.

Kresl scored 26 points in the two tournament games and has hit at least one three-point in every game this season. She was two-of-three from beyond the arc Saturday night and hit all eight of her free throw attempts.

Jeffery, meanwhile, contributed 28 points and collected 20 rebounds in the two Omni games, helping the Buffs dispose of Valparaiso 60-32 on Friday.

Just as they did in the tournament opener, Kresl and Jeffery got help Saturday from sophomore guard Brittany Wilson, who scored 10 points each night and was key coming off the bench in a first-half surge against UW.

The Buffs expected a physical game from the Badgers, and they got it. But CU coach Linda Lappe was pleased with how her team responded in that regard and how it played defense.

"Our defense was key," Lappe said. "We did a great job in the first half of limiting them to 23...and even those shots were rushed; they were not shots they wanted. It helped us win the game."

The Buffs trailed only once against the Badgers (2-0) and held a double-digit lead for the game's final 15:34 in sending the visitors home with a 2-5 record.

CU led 31-23 at the half, but it took a healthy run in the final 4:31 for the Buffs to create some separation. CU led by as many as nine before UW rattled up its defense and closed to 19-17 on a pair of free throws by Wurtz at the 6:11 mark.

Just under a minute before that, Wurtz hit another pair of free throws after the Buffs' bench was whistled for a technical foul, apparently after complaining about what appeared to be a shot clock violation by the Badgers.

Lappe said if her lost its composure "for about two minutes...we regained it and never lost our lead. We stayed up by a decent margin, we responded and ended the half strong."

But the Buffs opened frigidly, hitting just one of their first seven field goal attempts. Less than five minutes into the half, Lappe brought Brittany Wilson off the bench for a spark and "B-Wil" furnished it.

Over the next 4 minutes, she contributed a pair of three-pointers and a put back to give CU a 13-4 lead - its biggest before UW responded with an 8-2 run and closed to 15-12 on a three-point by Wurtz.

From there, neither team hit a field goal, but the Badgers outscored the Buffs 5-4 at the free throw line - including the two for the "T" - and pulled to 19-17. But CU fashioned a 12-4 run and took its biggest lead of the half (31-21) with 1:27 before intermission.

The Buffs finished the game shooting 33.9 percent from the field (19-of-56), while the Badgers were at 33.3 percent (16-of-48). Both teams scored 20 points off of turnovers, but CU's 24-12 point advantage in the paint was critical.

The Badgers opened the second half with a trey by freshman guard Lindsay Smith, but it would be their only points for the next 3 minutes. In the meantime, the Buffs got baskets from Julie Seabrook, Kresl and Brittany Wilson to take their biggest lead to that point, 37-26.

From there, CU began to pull away, opening a 44-30 advantage on a follow in the lane by freshman post Jen Reese with 12:50 to play. The Buffs led by as many as 16 points before the final whistle.

BOULDER - The University of Colorado women's basketball team moved to 7-0 for the first time since the 1993-94 season, but Sunday afternoon's seventh win might have been more difficult than the Buffaloes expected.

CU finally disposed of Idaho 68-59 at the Coors Events Center, but it took a late spark by junior point guard Chuck Jeffery to keep the Buffs unbeaten.

Jeffery scored seven of her career-best 30 points in the final 2:14 as CU overcame a 59-58 Idaho lead and dropped the Vandals to 2-6. Jeffery, who also collected 10 rebounds Sunday, had registered a then-career-high 26 points Wednesday against San Francisco.

The only other CU player in double figures was freshman post Jen Reese with 10. Idaho got 13 points from Keri Arendse and 12 each from Stacey Barr and Alyssa Charlston.

CU waited until the first half's final 2:43 to begin pulling away, outscoring Idaho 13-4 from that point until intermission to take its biggest lead, 42-33.

The Buffs' run came courtesy of four three-pointers by Meagan Malcolm-Peck, Brittany Wilson and a pair by Jeffery, who finished the half with 18 of her total. Her field goal shooting (7-of-10) carried CU, which with 11:36 before the break had hit just three of 16 from the field (18.8 percent).

And the Vandals, whose most recent loss before coming to Boulder was at home against Pac-12 member Washington (66-49), took advantage. Down by five (7-2) in the first 4 minutes, Idaho rallied to take its first lead (10-9) on a trey by Barr with 11:07 left in the half.

Less than 2 minutes later, CU reclaimed the advantage on a three-point play by Jeffery and held it until Arendse hit a field goal and one of two free throws on the next Vandals possession to go up 24-22. But that was Idaho's last of the half - but not the game.

The Vandals managed a pair of ties at 27-27 and 29-29 before the Buffs launched their three-point barrage to close out the half and take control.

After its frigid start, CU finished the first 20 minutes shooting 16-of-36 (44.4 percent), while holding Idaho to 13-of-35 (37.1 percent). The Buffs also committed eight first-half turnovers, which the Vandals converted into 13 points.

CU opened the second half with a quick pair of turnovers, allowed Arendse a three-point and Charlston a pair of free throws. Suddenly, that nine-point halftime lead was cut to 42-38.

Over the next 6:11, the Buffs got treys from Malcolm-Peck and Jeffery and went ahead 50-42. But the Vandals didn't roll over, closing to 53-50 on a three-point by Charlston, who then tied the score at 53-53 with a conventional three-point play with 7:46 remaining.

Arendse earned a pair of free throws to push Idaho ahead 55-53 - only CU's second second-half deficit of the season - but Brittany Wilson's three-pointer 30 seconds later pushed the Buffs back in front, 56-55, with 6:04 remaining.

The lead changed hands four times until Jeffery hit both ends of a one-and-one and followed with a jumper, giving CU a five-point cushion (64-59) with 1:23 to play.

An intentional foul sent Brittany Wilson to the free throw line with 58.8 seconds left, and after she hit one of two (65-59) Jeffery hit two of three in the next 15 seconds to put CU up 68-59 and out of danger with 32.3 seconds showing.

BOULDER - The unbeaten University of Colorado women's basketball team rolled past the University of Denver 71-36 Thursday night at the Coors Events Center, running its record to 8-0 for the third time in school history.

Avengeing a 70-69 loss to the Pioneers last season, the Buffaloes took control late in the first half then steadily pulled away in the second.

Junior point guard Chuck Jeffery overcame a sloppy first half to lead CU with 20 points, while freshman guard Lexy Kresl added 13. Jeffery and Kresl, who keyed the Buffs' early second-half surge, were the only CU players in double figures.

DU, which fell to 6-3, was held to its lowest point total of the season. The Pioneers had defeated three other in-state opponents - Colorado State, Air Force and Northern Colorado.

The Buffs never trailed, but they didn't pull away from the Pioneers until the first half's last 2 minutes.

With DU staying close at 16-13, CU got six consecutive inside points from senior Julie Seabrook, with two of the baskets coming on nice post feeds from freshman Jen Reese.

The last of Seabrook's buckets put the Buffs up 22-17, then it was Jeffery's turn. Her straightaway three-pointer at 1:39 before intermission gave CU a 25-17 advantage, and when DU rushed what coach Erik Johnson hoped would be the final shot of the half, the Buffs got control and Jeffery hit a half-court buzzer beater for a 28-17 advantage.

Jeffery led all first-half scorers with 12 of her total, while no DU player had over four points in the opening half. But Jeffery also committed an uncharacteristic seven first-half turnovers - half of the Buffs' total.

And both teams finished the half with more turnovers than field goals - CU checking in at 14-12 and DU at 10-7.

Senior Kaetlyn Murdoch, the Pioneers' leading scorer (17.0 average) and the Sun Belt Conference's preseason co-player-of-the-year, finished the half with four points and didn't get her first until the 7:51 mark.

If Murdoch, who finished the night with eight points, and DU wanted a surge to start the second half, it didn't happen. Not even close.

CU opened with a trey from the left corner by Kresl, got a jumper in transition from Jeffery, then another three-pointer by Meagan Malcolm-Peck to take its biggest lead to that point - 36-21.

But more Buffs points - this run courtesy of Kresl and Jeffery - were on the way. After Murdoch sank a jumper with 16:28 to play, CU went on an 11-0 run, with Kresl accounting for seven of the points.

Before the Pioneers could score again with 12:1/2 minutes to play, the Buffs were up 47-23 and in control. DU got no closer than 23 points from then until the final horn. CU's biggest lead was by 35 points.

Buff's coach Linda Lappe used all of her players, including sophomore Brenna Malcolm-Peck, who had not played since February 2010 because of injuries.

SAN ANTONIO – Rachel Hargis and Chucky Jeffery each had double-doubles as Colorado defeated Texas-Pan American 67-49 in the first game of the UTSA Holiday Classic Wednesday afternoon at the Convocation Center on the UTSA campus.

Colorado continues its historic start, moving to 10-0 for just the third time ever, and on Tuesday, the Buffaloes did it on defense.

Colorado held UTPA (4-10) to just 31 percent shooting and dominated on the boards. The Buffaloes registered a season-high 54 rebounds, led by a career-high 11 from Hargis who also used her considerable size advantage at 6-foot-4, for a personal-best 12 points. It was the first career double-double for Hargis, the Robinson, Texas, native who also registered a season-best three blocked shots.

"It felt nice to be able to come home and perform in front of my family and friends," Hargis said. "To help bring a win to the team is always nice."

For Jeffery it was her fifth double-double of the season as the junior guard had 14 points and 10 rebounds. Lexy Kresl also had 14 points as four Buffaloes scored in double-figures. Freshman Jen Reese had 10.

The defensive tone was set early as the Buffaloes held UTPA to 21 percent in the first half. Hargis also provided the initial offensive spark as she had six quick points. Jeffery capped off a 9-0 run as CU built a 15-5 lead mid-way through the first half.

UTPA's best offensive push of the first half followed as Laquita Garner scored six-straight points and finished off an 8-0 Broncos run with a short jumper, cutting the CU lead to 15-13 with 7 minutes, 5 seconds remaining in the opening frame.

But UTPA didn't hit another field goal the rest of the half and CU responded with an 11-0 sprint which featured scores by five different Buffaloes, including Jeffery and Hargis. Donna Jackson broke the run with two free throws and CU led 26-15 at the break.

"Defensively we stayed focused and steady," head coach Linda Lappe said. "One of our goals coming in was to make them make the mistakes, not for us to make the mistakes. We were solid defensively, especially in the first half."

UTPA crept back into the game early in the second half from the line. The Broncos hit six-straight free throws at one point and a pair from Johnnonda Patterson brought UTPA to within 39-30 with 12:08 left.

Colorado's Julie Seabrook ended that run in strong fashion with a layup and free throw to put CU up by double digits for good. Reese added an and-one of her own the next time down the floor as the Buffaloes extended the lead to 55-39.

Colorado then kept UTPA at bay, with some success from the line of its own. The Buffaloes hit 11-of-13 freebies in the second half, including a pair in the final minute by Brenna Malcom-Peck, who scored her first points since Dec. 30, 2009.

Brenna's twin sister Meagan was a key figure in CU's best rebounding performance in terms of numbers in four years. Meagan Malcom-Peck had a season-best nine rebounds with a team-best five on the offensive end. CU had its most rebounds since grabbing 58 at Colorado State on Dec. 1, 2007. Seabrook joined the rebound party with six to go with seven points.

"Any time you can get a win away from your home floor is exciting," Lappe said. "We played solid and did enough to win. We didn't play our best game; didn't shoot the ball particularly well, but I told our team we showed a lot of maturity...let's do what we can do to score and (tonight) it was pound the ball inside."

Jackson finished with a game-high 16 points for the Broncos.

SAN ANTONIO – Freshman guard Lexy Kresl scored 15 points and hit a 3-point basket at the buzzer to lift Colorado to a 52-49 win over Creighton in the Buffaloes' final game of the UTSA Holiday Classic Wednesday afternoon at the Convocation Center on the UTSA campus.

The win gives CU its second-ever perfect preseason record at 11-0. Only the 1992-93 team, which started 15-0, went into conference play unbeaten.

Kresl, who also matched a personal best with six rebounds, was named to the UTSA Holiday Classic All-Tournament team. She was joined on the team by her classmate, forward Jen Reese, who had a career-high 15 points on 6-of-9 from the field and eight rebounds.

"It feels great," Kresl said. "I'm really proud of Jen stepping up too. I want to be an impact player immediately and I'm just glad I've been able to do it."

Creighton's Carli Tritz, UTSA's Ashley Gardner and Texas-Pan American's Donna Jackson rounded out the All-Tournament team.

Tuesday's bout was CU's toughest to date with nine ties and five lead changes. Colorado missed its first seven shots and faced its largest deficit of the season right out of the gate. Creighton's Sarah Nelson opened the game with a 3-pointer and a pair of free throws and Tritz added two freebies as Creighton built a 7-0 lead.

Chucky Jeffery finally put Colorado on the scoreboard with a long jumper at the top of the key at the 15:30 mark. Kresl then hit her first 3-pointer to quickly get CU back to 7-5.

Creighton extended its early lead back to seven as a McKenzie Fujian jumper gave the Bluejays a 12-5 advantage. From there, the Buffaloes started clamping down. Brittany Wilson set off a 7-0 CU run with a 3-pointer. The Buffaloes then tied the game at 12-12 on a Julie Seabrook layup.

In the closing minutes of the first half, Colorado gained its first lead when Kresl scored four straight points. First she tied the game on a coast-to-coast layup and scored on a pull up jumper in transition to give CU a 19-17 lead. The Buffaloes took that same margin into the locker room at 23-21.

Creighton opened the second half in almost carbon copy fashion, a Jordan Garrison 3-pointer sparked a 7-0 run as the Bluejays rebuilt a 28-23 lead.

Colorado answered with a 9-0 run to take a 32-28 lead, but Tritz and the Bluejays were not done. Creighton started to press Colorado, and the Buffaloes struggled with it to the tune of 20 turnovers. Tritz nailed a 3-pointer to give Creighton back the edge and a Nelson floater put the Bluejays up 39-36.

From there it was Reese's turn to shine. The former two-time Oregon Gatorade Player of the Year picked a perfect time for her first career 3-pointer, off an assist from Seabrook. She added another mid-range jumper to cap off a personal 7 for a 41-39 lead with 7:39 remaining.

"Jen stepped up in the second half and hit some key shots," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "She did a good job executing throughout the game."

The Buffaloes extended their lead to 47-41 late, but the Bluejays had one more comeback. Jasmin Corbin hit a 3-pointer with 3:52 left to cut the lead in half. After a Jeffery miss, Tritz cut the lead to one on a beautiful one-motion catch and lay-in off a bullet pass from Fujian.

The score remained 47-46 for the next minute, when Reese gave CU a 3-point lead on a layup off a Jeffery pass. CU regained possession, but couldn't capitalize off a missed a Jeffery jumper. Meagan Malcom-Peck snared the offensive rebound, but a Wilson turnover gave the Bluejays a chance to tie.

And Tritz did just that. She evened the game at 49 with a 3-pointer with 18 seconds left. Colorado had a timeout available, but chose not to use it. Jeffery brought the ball down and dribbled to the right. With nothing open on that end, she came back to the top of the key and found Kresl wide open on the left wing for the game-winner from 25-feet.

Jeffery finished with 13 points, five assists, five rebounds and three steals. Wilson and Seabrook each dished out three assists.

SEATTLE - Washington guard Jazmine Davis scored 21 of her game-high 27 points in the second half to lead the Huskies to a 75-67 Pac-12 Conference win over Colorado Thursday night at Alaska Airlines Arena.

The loss snaps Colorado's 12-game winning streak to start the season (12-1, 1-1 Pac-12) while Washington improves to 9-4, 1-2 in league play.

Chuckey Jeffery had 20 points, seven rebounds, four assists and a team season-high six steals. Julie Seabrook tied a career-high with 18 points on 8-of-11 from the field.

Colorado lost the battle of the boards for the first time since the season opener (40-35). Washington also shot 45 percent from the field, scoring 42 points in the paint.

"I think our defense and rebounding let us down," head coach Linda Lappe said. "Washington did a tremendous job, you have to give them a lot of credit. They really crashed the glass and kept us off the boards."

Colorado's transition offense also stalled. The Buffaloes had only seven fast break points in the game, all in the first half. Overall the Buffaloes shot just 39 percent. Combined with the defense and rebounding woes, the recipe was not right for Colorado.

"We really didn't do any of those three," Lappe said. "When we don't do that it's usually going to be a long night."

Seabrook scored 12 of her points in a fast-paced first half which saw the senior from nearby North Vancouver, B.C., hit a pair of 3-pointers as the Buffaloes held a lead as large as five before settling for a 37-35 halftime edge.

But Colorado's lead quickly vanished. Davis scored seven points during a 10-2 Washington run to open the first half as the Huskies built a 45-39 lead.

Colorado fought back to take the lead midway through the second half. Meagan Malcolm-Peck drilled a 3-pointer to cap off an 8-2 run as CU led 55-51 with 10:26 left.

Washington quickly tied the score with back-to-back layups by Mercedes Wetmore and Regina Rogers. A pair of Jeffery free throws gave CU a 57-55 lead with 9:13 left, but consecutive Davis 3-pointers - her only two attempts from that range on the evening - gave Washington the lead for good.

"(Davis) did a good job looking to score," Lappe said. "She was very comfortable; we didn't take her out of her comfort zone at all in the second half. She was a tough player and played extremely well."

Colorado had erased a 10-point second half deficit at Utah in its last game, and nearly came up with a similar effort against Washington. Down by eight (67-59) with 2:30 left, the Buffaloes attempted one last rally. Jeffery was able to buy time by getting to the line, hitting three in the last two minutes to cut the UW lead to 70-65 with just under a minute left.

After a missed Davis free throw, Seabrook converted on a layup on the CU end, and was fouled with 37 seconds left, cutting the Washington lead to one possession at 70-67. But Seabrook missed the free throw and Washington corralled the rebound. CU was forced to foul down the stretch and the Huskies made just enough to hand the Buffaloes their first loss of the season.

"It's a great opportunity to see how we bounce back," Lappe said. "As a coaching staff you never want to lose games, but you want to see how your team will respond. Going on the road is tough, the key is you always want to try and split any time you go on the road. So we have to make sure we are prepared and come ready for Washington State."

PULLMAN, Wash. - Freshman Jen Reese recorded her first career double-double and Colorado fought back from a second half double-digit deficit for the second time in three road games to clip Washington State 57-56 Saturday afternoon at Beasley Coliseum.

Colorado improves to 13-1 overall and 2-1 in Pac-12 play as the Buffaloes hand Washington State its first league loss of the season (9-7, 3-1). The Buffaloes also erased a 10-point second half deficit in their 58-52 win at Utah on Dec. 31.

Reese, who had just six points combined in her first two Pac-12 games, scored 12 points and had a game-high 12 rebounds. The Buffaloes nearly had a double-double trifecta with Chuckey Jeffery finishing with 12 points and nine rebounds and Julie Seabrook pitching in 11 points and nine boards.

Washington State's Jazmine Perkins, scored all of her game-high 15 points in the second half as her offensive explosion helped the Cougars build a 46-35 lead with 11:04 left in the game. Perkins scored WSU's first seven points as the Cougars began the period on a 22-12 run.

The Buffaloes had trouble with Washington State's aggressive defensive pressure, committing 22 turnovers, which led to 16 Cougars points. But Colorado was able to stay around by limiting Washington State to 25 percent shooting and by winning the battle on the glass, 53-40.

"We were really interested to see how our team was going to respond," said CU head coach Linda Lappe, whose team was coming off its first loss of the season, Thursday at Washington. "If we were going to let the loss affect us or if we were going to get our swagger back, our confidence back, and get back to playing Colorado basketball."

Shortly after WSU grabbed its big lead, the Buffaloes found an offensive rhythm. Reese found Meagan Malcolm-Peck cutting hard to the basket for the first of 12 straight points scored in the paint for the Buffaloes. Reese had four of her eight second half points during a 14-3 run that tied the game at 49-49 with 5:32.

The Buffaloes shot 6-of-10 from the floor during that stretch where they crashed to the rim hard. Two of those misses were put back scores on offensive rebounds from Reese and Ashley Wilson.

The Cougars were able to bounce back. Rosetta Adzasu, who had nine points and six steals, broke the tie with a conventional 3-point play. WSU then made four free throws by three different players to take a 56-50 advantage with 2:35 remaining.

But the Cougars wouldn't score again. Jeffery put back a Malcolm-Peck missed 3-pointer to cut the lead to two. Perkins missed on the other end and Lexy Kresl, held without a 3-pointer for the first time this season, grabbed the offensive board off a Jeffery miss to trim the WSU advantage to 56-54 with 1:22 on the clock.

Perkins missed two free throws for Washington State, giving the Buffaloes a chance to tie. WSU's defense clamped down, forcing a desperation jumper by Kresl as the shot clock ran out, but the freshman guard sank the bucket at the top of the key.

"We stayed composed and really executed down the stretch," Lappe said. "Our shots weren't falling (early), but we were getting good looks all game, but we were finally able to get to the rim and score. Then we did a good job at the defensive end late in the game."

After Brandi Thomas missed a jumper on the other end, Reese found Malcolm-Peck on hard cut similar to the play that started the Colorado rally. Malcolm-Peck was fouled by Adzasu, and made the first free throw to provide the final margin. Malcolm-Peck missed the second and WSU grabbed the rebound. The Cougars elected not to take a timeout and got Perkins a good look from the left elbow which rimmed out as time expired.

"We never give up on ourselves," Reese said. "We stay together as a team and that's what won the game."

BOULDER – Stanford capitalized on Colorado's extended scoring drought and cruised past CU 80-54 Saturday afternoon in Pac-12 Conference women's basketball. The Buffaloes, who went frigid in the second half of Thursday night's loss to California, missed their first 12 shots Saturday at the Coors Events Center and by halftime had made only six of 29 field goal attempts.

It was no way to start against the nation's fourth-ranked women's team, and the Buffs paid for it with their third loss of the season (13-3), their third in Pac-12 play (2-3) and their second straight at home.

The Buffs wound up shooting just 20.7 percent from the field in the first half and 32.8 percent of the game (19-of-58). The Cardinal, meanwhile, finished at 50 percent (29-of-58) and scored 24 points off of the Buffs' 15 turnovers. CU also was outscored 34-18 in the paint.

Winning for the 63rd consecutive time against conference opposition, the Cardinal improved to 15-1 overall and remained unbeaten (6-0) and atop the Pac-12. Stanford's only loss this season was at then-No. 2 Connecticut (68-58) in November.

CU had only two players in double figures – sophomore Brittany Wilson and freshman Jen Reese with 10 each. Junior Chucky Jeffery, the Buffs' leading scorer (17.2), managed only two first-half points – her lowest total since scoring that many last season at Iowa State.

Talented Stanford got the bulk of its points from four of its five starters. The Cardinal, not bothered by the short turnaround and flight over the Rockies after Thursday night's 62-43 win at Utah, got 20 from junior Joslyn Tinkle and 19 each from sophomores Chiney Ogwumike and Toni Kokenis. Senior Nnemkadi Ogwumike added 15.

The Buffs finished their 13-point loss to Cal on Thursday night by going scoreless in that game's final 7:01 – and unfortunately there was a carryover. On Saturday afternoon, they didn't score against the Cardinal until freshman Jasmine Sborov sank two free throws with 13:01 left before intermission.

And they didn't get their first field goal against Stanford until Sborov hit a short baseline jumper a couple of minutes later. The timeline was ugly; counting the Thursday night drought that stretched into Saturday, CU went 14:09 without any points and 15:25 between field goals.

Before Sborov's basket, the Buffs missed their first 12 shots. They went to their locker room to contemplate these shooting numbers – 6-of-29 from the field (20.7 percent), 1-of-9 from three-point range (11.1 percent) – and a 32-15 halftime deficit. CU's 15 first-half points tied for the program's fifth fewest at home.

Not surprisingly, no Buffs player reached double figures in the first half, and Jeffery scored her only basket 26.2 seconds before the break.

With the Buffs starting frigid and staying that way in the first 20 minutes, the Cardinal still led only 13-9 after a Lexy Kresl three-pointer at the half's 9:15 mark. But at that point, Stanford took off, going on a 17-2 run that left CU staring at a 19-point deficit (30-11) with just under 3 minutes before halftime.

It would have been nice if Stanford came out complacent in the second half, but that didn't happen. The Cardinal opened with an 11-3 run and went ahead by 25 (43-18) on a layup by Kokenis with 18:43 to play.

From there, CU's mission was one of trying to finish with respectability. In the final 15:16, the Buffs closed to within 21 (48-27) on a three-pointer by Brittany Wilson, but the Cardinal kept the pressure on and took a 29-point lead (69-40) with 6:18 to play – the largest of the game.

TEMPE, Ariz. – The desert was anything but warm for the Colorado Buffaloes.

Colorado endured its lowest scoring and shooting half in team history, and despite a strong effort late, Arizona State claimed a 64-43 Pac-12 Conference decision Thursday at Wells Fargo Arena.

Colorado (13-4, 2-4) shot just 12 percent (3-of-25) and scored nine points in the first 20 minutes as the Buffaloes dropped their third straight game.

Arizona State (12-5, 3-3), which entered the game leading the Pac-12 in scoring defense, held the Buffaloes scoreless for the first 8 minutes, 17 seconds and CU missed its first 15 shots from the field. Freshman Jasmine Sborov was able to get the Buffaloes on the board with 11:43 remaining, by making one of two free throws.

"(Arizona State) pressured the ball very well," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "They denied the wings which we knew they would do and we had trouble getting an entry pass. At the same time we had some shots at the rim and they just didn't fall. When that happens you have to rely on your defense."

Unfortunately on the other end, Arizona State could do no wrong. The Sun Devils hit six of their first eight shots, sprinting out to a 12-0 lead before Sborov's free throw.

Chucky Jeffery scored Colorado's first field goal at the 7:43 mark, but ASU's Kimberly Brandon immediately answered with the first of two early 3-pointers to extend the Sun Devils' lead to 19-4.

Brandon had a spectacular start scoring 16 of her game-high 20 points in the first 20 minutes, shooting 7-of-8 from the field. After Lexy Kresl hit a 3-pointer with 5:03 left in the first half, Brandon made her second long range shot to give ASU a 30-9 advantage. That bomb sparked a 15-0 run to end the half for the Sun Devils who shot 62 percent (18-of-29) in the period and held a 42-9 lead at the break.

"We didn't have our defensive presence as much as we have had, and as much as we needed it," Lappe said. "(Arizona State) felt very comfortable and knocked down shots."

To their credit, the Buffaloes rebounded with a solid second half. Colorado picked up its intensity on defense which led to better offensive opportunities.

CU cooled Arizona State off after the break to the tune of 26 percent from the field. The Buffaloes also forced 11 Sun Devils turnovers and their shooting skyrocketed to 54 percent (14-of-26) over the final 20 minutes.

"We weren't impressed with the first half...we knew we had it within ourselves to do better," sophomore guard Brittany Wilson said. "(In the second half) we had to start somewhere. We had to get focused and play like we knew we could."

"Once we slowed it down and pressed them, and made them feel uncomfortable, (the flow of the game) it flipped into reverse."

Wilson and Jen Reese led the way in the second half. Wilson scored seven points of her eight points in that period, including a 3-pointer in the first possession of the half that set the tone. Reese scored six points, on 3-of-4 from the field, in the second half and had seven of her team-high eight rebounds.

Overall, Colorado outscored Arizona State 34-22 in the second half and trimmed the lead to as low as 17 (56-39) in the final five minutes.

"We were in a different mindset in the second half," Lappe said. "I liked how our team didn't quit. We started to defend and showed a lot of resolve. We kept playing hard and did some good things."

Jeffery was Colorado's high scorer with nine points, but had 12 of CU's 27 turnovers.

BOULDER - Junior Chuck Jeffery hit two free throws with 1.2 seconds to play, pushing the Colorado women's basketball team past Southern California 69-67 on Thursday night at the Coors Events Center.

The win was the Buffaloes' first at home this season in Pac-12 Conference play, improving their overall record to 15-4 and evening their league mark at 4-4.

USC (10-8, 5-3) lost for the first time in four road games this season in conference play. The Trojans had defeated the Buffs twice last season, once in the Women of Troy holiday tournament in LA and 21/2 months later in the WNIT quarterfinals in Boulder. USC's margins of victory were 14 and 17 points.

Jeffery scored 19 points, with sophomore Brittany Wilson hitting a game-best 21. Freshman Jen Reese added 13.

USC also had three players in double figures, led by Christina Marinacci's 17 - 12 in the second half.

Both teams led by as many as four points in a first half that saw seven ties and five lead changes. But by intermission the Buffs trailed by two (35-33) as the Trojans got uncharacteristically hot from the field.

Last in the Pac-12 in field goal percentage (37.5), USC shot 55.6 percent (15-of-27), hitting half of its eight three-point attempts. Senior Briana Gilbreath led USC with 14 first-half points, making six of her eight field goal attempts and both of her tries from behind the arc.

CU stayed close in the first half by scoring 11 points off of eight USC turnovers while committing only five. The Buffs shot 13-of-31 from the field (41.9 percent) and hit only two of their eight three-point attempts.

Their second-half mission should have been to clamp down on the Trojans - and that should have included Marinacci. After scoring five first-half points, the 6-1 junior forward accounted for 10 in the first 41/2 minutes - all of USC's scoring - as the Trojans rolled to an eight-point (44-36) advantage.

But the Buffs stormed back, outscoring the visitors 8-1 and pulling to within a point (45-44) on a conventional three-point play by Reese with 13:53 to play. CU took its first lead (54-53) of the last half on a three-pointer by Brittany Wilson 10:10 remaining - and the back-and-forth began. For the next 61/2 minutes, the lead changed hands six times before Ashley Corral hit a layup, she followed with two free throws to put USC up 65-62 with 2:40 left.

Reese's baseline jumper pulled the Buffs to 65-64, and Jeffery tied the score at 65-65 by hitting one of two free throws with 1:07 remaining.

The Trojans countered with a jump shot in the lane by Cassie Harberts to take a 67-65 advantage, leaving the Buffs 42.6 seconds to respond. After coach Linda Lappe called a timeout, Reese drained a turnaround from the baseline, tying the score at 67-67 and giving USC 29.4 seconds for a final shot at the win.

Trojans coach Michael Cooper, the former Lakers star, called timeout with 25.5 seconds to play. The ball went inside to Briana Gilbreath, but she was tied up and the possession arrow pointed to the Buffs, who had 9 seconds.

Jeffery brought the ball downcourt, appeared to lose the ball at the right baseline, but Briana Gilbreath fouled her with 1.2 seconds to play. Jeffery hit both ends of her one-and-one - and when she intercepted USC's full-court desperation pass on its second in-bounds attempt, this one was over.

BOULDER - Colorado went cold early, late and played sloppily in between, eventually paying with a 62-54 overtime loss to UCLA on Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffaloes slipped to 15-5 overall and 4-5 in the Pac-12 Conference. The Bruins evened their overall record at 10-10 and at 5-4 in the league.

Freshman Lexy Kresl led the Buffs with 15 points, while junior Chuck Jeffery added 14. UCLA's Markel Walker led all scorers with 26 points.

CU opened the game by missing its first 13 shots and finished by making only two field goals in the last 10:25, including overtime. The Buffs also committed 25 turnovers.

The Buffs led only once in the first half, and that one-point advantage (24-23) came courtesy of Jeffery's buzzer beater before intermission. Otherwise, the home team's largest crowd of the season - 5,885 on a State Farm Insurance day - mostly stayed in a holding pattern for 19:59.

That CU enjoyed even that slight advantage at the break was surprising. The Buffs missed their first 13 shots and fell behind 9-2 - their only points coming on a pair of free throws by Meagan Malcolm-Peck. CU didn't get its first basket until Jeffery hit a short jumper in the lane at the 13:26 mark.

Jeffery's "3" brought the Buffs to 9-4 and was followed by a Kresl three-pointer that narrowed the gap to 9-7. But just as quickly, CU fell behind by six (13-7) and didn't pull even until Brittany Wilson's layup made it 19-19 with 2:06 before halftime.

UCLA took a four-point lead (23-19) before Rachel Hargis hit one of two free throws and Jeffery converted a steal into a layup, then hit her jump shot at the buzzer to give CU its one-point lead at intermission.

CU committed 10 first-half turnovers, but UCLA managed only six points from them. Meanwhile, the Buffs scored 12 points off of UCLA's eight errors. The Buffs outrebounded the Bruins 27-20 and had an 8-0 advantage over a UCLA bench that held only three players.

But clearly, a better second-half start was needed by the Buffs - and they got it by opening with a 6-1 surge to take their largest lead of the afternoon to that point. Jeffery accounted for four of that total, scoring on a pair of layups to send CU ahead 30-24 with 16:13 to play.

A layup in transition by Rebekah Gardner brought UCLA to within one (35-34) and her 12-foot jump shot on the next possession gave the Bruins their first lead (36-35) since the first half's last 30 seconds.

CU had just under 10 minutes to figure out UCLA's changing defenses. The Buffs regained the lead (37-36) on a Julie Seabrook layup with 7:46 to play. But Gardner hit one of two free throws and followed with a layup to put UCLA up 39-37, giving her seven consecutive points during a 7-2 Bruins run.

The Buffs forged a 39-39 tie on a Jen Reese jumper, went ahead 41-39 on Jeffery's layup and didn't surrender the lead for the final 5:25. Fouled while attempting a three-pointer from the left wing with 2:07 left, Kresl hit all three free throws to put CU up 46-42.

But UCLA crept back to 46-44 on Thea Lemberger's runner from the right side. With a chance to tie, the Bruins lost the ball on a traveling call with 57 seconds to play. CU called a timeout, but promptly turned it over, allowing Gardner to work the baseline for a layup that tied the score at 46-46 with 7.5 seconds left.

After another timeout, the Buffs committed yet another turnover - their 23rd in regulation - and CU's sloppy afternoon was headed for overtime.

The Bruins outscored the Buffs 9-2 to start the extra period, but CU crept to within 55-51 on a Kresl three-pointer with just over a minute remaining. UCLA put the game away by making seven of eight free throws in the final 50 seconds.

EUGENE, Ore. - Junior guard Chuckey Jeffery scored 18 points and became the 24th player in Colorado history to reach 1,000 for a career, but one prolonged drought gave Oregon a 67-62 decision Saturday afternoon at the Matthew Knight Arena.

The Buffaloes drop their third straight game, falling to 15-7 overall, 4-7 in Pac-12 play. Oregon improves to 13-10, 5-6.

Colorado went 9 minutes, 18 seconds between the end of the first half and beginning of the second half without a field goal, allowing the Ducks to erase a double-digit deficit with a game-changing 18-0 run, including 13 straight to start the second half.

CJ, which led by as much as 13 in the first half, hit just 33 percent in the second half and missed 13 consecutive shots during Oregon's big run.

Jeffery, now with 1,010 points, scored her 1,000th point on a layup with 12:46 in the second half. Lexy Kresl had a career-high 17 points and matched a personal best with five 3-point field goals.

Shots which hadn't been falling for the Buffaloes early in games, started falling Saturday. Oregon native Jen Reese hit her first three shots and Kresl made three early 3-pointers, her third of the half sparked a 7-0 run that opened up a 26-14 lead.

Colorado's defense also did a good job containing Oregon's fast paced offense. The Ducks shot just 35 percent in the first half and also had 10 turnovers. The Ducks best friend in the first half was the foul line, as Oregon was able to convert 7-of-10 attempts while the Buffaloes didn't reach the foul line in the first period.

Brittany Wilson gave Colorado its largest lead of the half on a fast break layup with 2:26 to take a 34-21 advantage. But the Ducks scored five straight to end the half, including a Jasmin Holliday 3-pointer as CU led 34-26 at the break.

The second half belonged to Amanda Johnson. Oregon's leading scorer was held to three points in the first half, but exploded for 23 in the second 20 minutes, including a perfect 10-of-10 from the foul line. At one point the senior forward scored 10 straight points.

"Amanda Johnson is a really nice player, she went at us in the second half," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "We held her to three points in the first half and just did not do a good job on her in the second."

Johnson scored four points during Oregon's 13-0 run to open the half as the Ducks led 39-34 at the 16:35 mark. Jeffery finally broke the run with a pair of free throws, but Johnson answered with a 3-pointer.

Kresl matched Johnson's 3-pointer on the next possession, and the Buffaloes rallied to tie the game at 44-44 after Jeffery sank her layup to give her 1,000 points then followed the milestone shot up with a 3-point bomb.

However, Johnson responded with a 3-pointer of her own that sparked a 16-4 run that gave the Ducks their largest lead of the game at 60-48 with 4:01 remaining.

Colorado made one final furious run scoring 10 straight and pulling to within two at 60-58 on a Kresl 3-pointer. But the Ducks were able to put the game away at the line making 7-of-8 in the final minute.

I thought we did some really nice things in the first half, and I thought we did some really nice things in the second half as well," Lappe said. "We just had that four minute stretch to start the second half where we lost our eight point lead. We just didn't come out at halftime ready to go."

Johnson finished with a game-high 26 points and hit 11-of-12 from the free throw line. The Ducks were able to get to the line often and took full advantage making an impressive 28-of-32. Conversely, CU saw the stripe just five times, making three.

BOULDER - When Chuckey Jeffery set her feet, squared up and buried the game's first shot and her first three-pointer Thursday night, her coach had an inkling good things would follow. Linda Lappe was right.

Behind Jeffery's 21 points and career-high five treys, the Colorado women's basketball team cruised past Arizona 69-59 at the Coors Events Center, winning by its largest margin in Pac-12 Conference play.

"Chuckey, from the opening shot, showed how she was going to play that game...that set the tempo," Lappe said. "She took it with confidence and even if she missed it, she still had the same confidence...she really controlled the game from start to finish."

The Buffs, breaking a three-game losing streak, improved to 16-7 overall and 5-7 in the conference.

Behind 10 first-half points each from Jeffery and Brittany Wilson, the Buffs finished the first 20 minutes strong, then opened the final 20 with the same vigor. It was very close to being a performance with no dead spots, which Lappe called "huge. Our players, hopefully, learn from our mistakes. We came out in the second half really strong - and we haven't done that in a while."

The Buffs' 6-0 run to close the first half gave them a 40-37 lead at intermission, and five straight points to open the second half put them up eight (45-37) before the Wildcats could recover.

Arizona did, closing to 47-45 before CU surged with an 11-2 run - it featured Jeffery contributing a pair of treys - and went up 59-47. The Buffs held a double-digit lead for the final 10:22 and sent the Wildcats (13-11, 2-10) to their seventh consecutive loss.

In addition to Jeffery's game-best 21 points, CU got 12 points from Wilson and a career-high 10 from freshman Jasmine Sborov, who also contributed seven rebounds, three assists and a steal.

Jeffery, who made five of her nine three-point attempts, snapped out of a behind-the-arc slump that had seen her make only 3-of-25 tries in the previous seven games.

"When I feel like my shot is good, I get encouraged to hit another one if I'm open," Jeffery said. "So I wasn't going to be hesitant."

Lappe was as pleased with Jeffery's defense as her offense, citing the clamp down job done on Arizona's Davellyn White, whose 10 points were 7.4 below her average. Also key was the Buffs' offensive board work: they outrebounded the Wildcats 41-27, snaring 20 offensive boards and outscoring the visitors 21-4 on second-chance points.

Lappe called that "the difference in the game." Her team also converted 20 Wildcats turnovers into 13 points.

The Buffs, 56-54 winners against the Wildcats last month in Tucson, opened by hitting their first three shots - all treys - and went ahead 9-5. The Wildcats finally got in a flow and tied the score at 13-13 and took their first lead at 15-13 a minute later on a layup by Candice Warthen.

From there, the lead changed hands five times before Arizona got seven consecutive points from Shanita Arnold and took its largest lead (31-26) of the half. The Wildcats led for the next 8 minutes, surrendering their advantage when Ashley Wilson hit a layup with 1:48 left before intermission to send the Buffs ahead 38-37.

Another layup by Meagan Malcolm-Peck gave CU its 40-37 halftime lead and marked the Buffs' first 40-point half in Pac-12 play. The Wildcats made only one field goal in the final 6:59 of the first half but wound up shooting 63.6 percent overall (14-of-22) and 71.4 percent from behind the arc (5-of-7) - and that kept them close for awhile.

BOULDER - Colorado rallied late and forced overtime, but the Buffaloes faltered in the extra period and dropped a 61-56 Pac-12 Conference decision to Utah on Saturday at the Coors Events Center.

CU, which overcame an eight-point deficit in the final 7:09, dropped to 16-9 overall and 5-9 in the Pac-12. Utah improved to 13-12, 6-8.

CU had two players in double figures - Chuckey Jeffery with 15 and Julie Seabrook with 10 - while four Utah starters reached double figures. Taryn Wicijowski led all scorers with 16 points before fouling out with just under a minute left in OT. Janita Badon and Iwalani Rodriguez each had 15 for the Utes, while Michelle Plouffe added 13.

The Utes scored the last five points of the first half, overcoming a two-point Buffs advantage to lead 28-25 at intermission. Utah's largest lead of the half was four points, while CU was able to lead by just two on three occasions before surrendering its advantage at the half.

The Buffs had problems in the paint with the 6-3 Utes forward Wicijowski, who hit five of her seven first-half field goal attempts and one of three free throws for 11 points. But point guard Badon also proved difficult to control, slicing inside for most of her eight first-half points.

CU got seven points each in the first 20 minutes from Seabrook and Jeffery, with Seabrook getting all of hers in a 31/2-minute stretch that saw the Buffs rally from a 17-14 deficit to take a 20-19 lead. Then Jeffery connected on five straight points to put CU up 25-23, but Utah closed out the half with five straight.

CU got the first five points of the second half - all courtesy of freshman Lexy Kresl - to take a 30-28 lead. But things quickly went downhill from there, as Utah launched a 12-3 run and took its biggest advantage of the night to that point, 40-33, with 11:29 to play.

The Buffs cut the deficit to four (42-38) on a conventional three-point play by Ashley Wilson with 8 minutes remaining. But Badon negated that on the other end with her own layup and free throw.

And less than a minute later, Rodriguez' three-pointer from the left corner pushed the Utes up 48-40 with 7:09 remaining - but that would be Utah's last field goal in regulation.

Jen Reese hit a layup to make it 48-42, but the Buffs were running out of time. Jeffery and Reese answered, with Jeffery working inside for a layup to pull CU to within 48-44. Reese was fouled while hitting a baseline jumper, but missed her free throw.

Still, with 3:26 left, the Buffs trailed 48-46, and Jeffery tied it at 48-48 with a layup. She, too, was fouled, but she also missed her free throw.

But Kresl didn't, hitting both ends of her one-and-one to give CU a 50-48 edge with 2:04 to play. Rodriguez tied it at 50 with a pair of free throws with 49.8 seconds to play.

Badon scored Utah's first four points in the extra period, Jeffery converted a steal into a layup, then Wicijowski hit one of two free throws to put the Utes up 55-52 with 2:15 remaining.

A pair of foul shots by Reese cut the deficit to 55-54 and the Buffs got a stop and a rebound by Reese at the other end. Sborov layup attempt was thwarted by Wicijowski - but the Utes' forward fouled out on the play, sending Sborov to the line. She hit both free throws, giving CU a 56-55 lead, but Rodriguez' trey from the left corner pushed Utah back in front 58-56. The Buffs called time out with 27.9 seconds to play.

Jeffery took the in-bounds pass, drove the right side but could neither hit the basket nor draw the foul. CU couldn't control the rebound and was forced to foul Plouffe with 16.7 seconds showing.

Plouffe hit both free throws, giving the Utes a 60-56 advantage - and the Buffs turned it over for the final time and once again fouled Plouffe. She hit one of two free throws, giving Utah its 61-56 final advantage.

STANFORD, Calif. - The Stanford sister tandem of Chiney and Nnemkadi Ogumike accounted for 41 points as the No. 2 ranked Cardinal improved their home court winning streak to 77 games with a 68-46 Pac-12 Conference win over Colorado Thursday evening at Maples Pavilion on the Stanford campus.

Stanford, which clinched its 12th straight conference title one week ago, improves to 25-1 overall and 16-0 in league play. Colorado has dropped three straight and falls to 16-10 overall and 5-10 in the Pac-12.

Chuckey Jeffery notched her sixth double-double of the season with 13 points and 13 rebounds. Lexy Kresl and Ashley Wilson each had nine points off the bench for the Buffaloes.

Colorado played a strong first half defensively, limiting Stanford to 32 percent from the field and forced 15 turnovers.

"We wanted to make sure we didn't back down," Colorado coach Linda Lappe said. "We weren't intimidated."

Despite their shooting woes, the Cardinal were able to get to the foul line and capitalized. The Buffaloes were called for 13 fouls in the first 20 minutes which resulted in 13 Stanford free throws. Nine of them alone came from Nnemkadi Ogumike.

A Wilson layup with 11:12 remaining in the first half gave the Buffaloes a 12-11 lead. Chiney Ogumike scored on a layup and older sister Nnemkadi hit three free throws to put the Cardinal up by four at 16-12. Jeffery cut Stanford's lead to two with a bucket, but Lindy La Rocque hit a 3-pointer and the Cardinal were able to widen their lead to 26-18 at the half.

Stanford hit their first five shots of the second half to spur a decisive 33-6 run, pushing its lead to 59-24 on pair of Joslyn Tinkle free throws.

Colorado stayed competitive though, getting 29 points from its bench with that crew closing the gap late. Kresl had seven of her nine points in that late run. Jasmine Sborov had six points and Rachel Hargis chipped in five.

Stanford had a sizeable advantage at the line, making 27-of-33 attempts. In contrast, Colorado was 8-of-12 on free-throw attempts.

Nnemkadi Ogumike finished with 28 points and 11 rebounds. Chiney Ogumike had 18 points, seven rebounds and three steals.

BOULDER - Squandered opportunities in the final minutes were difficult to overlook, but University of Colorado women's coach Linda Lappe contended her team's 64-62 loss Thursday night to Oregon came earlier.

"No one play, no one shot lost the game," Lappe said. "I can think of several times in second half when we lost the game."

But CU's play in the final 2:14 at the Coors Events Center is hard to ignore. Including two free throws, the Buffaloes missed six shots in that stretch and committed two of their 16 turnovers in the last minute.

With the score tied at 62-62, Brittany Wilson misfired on two free throws with 1:47 to play, then missed a floating jumper in front of the basket at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime. The Ducks got a free throw each from Laura Stanulis and Ariel Thomas in the last 1:32 for the winning margin.

CU dropped its fifth consecutive game and lost for the eighth time in nine games. The Buffs fell to 16-12 overall and 5-12 in the Pac-12 Conference, while Oregon improved to 15-14 and 6-11. The Ducks swept the Buffs, winning 67-62 last month in Eugene.

Aside from three ties, CU led the entire first half, leading by as many as six points on two occasions. But the Buffs led by only two (30-28) at halftime. Once the Ducks passed them (40-38) with just under 14 minutes to play, the Buffs never regained the lead.

Chuck Jeffery finished with a game-best 19 points in 26 minutes. Julie Seabrook added 16 points - two below her career high - and Lexy Kresl had 10 for the Buffs. Oregon had two players in double figures - Amanda Johnson and Deanna Weaver with 11 each - but none of the Ducks who played scored.

CU limited Oregon, the Pac-12's second-best scoring team (72.6 point average), to nine field goals in 33 first-half attempts (27.3 percent). But the Buffs' early defense was counterbalanced (in a bad way) by their turnovers. Averaging 18 a game in conference play, CU was halfway there by intermission.

With the Buffs up 35-30, Oregon's Danielle Love promptly hit back-to-back treys, giving the Ducks their first lead of the night - 36-35 - with 16:17 remaining.

The Ducks took their largest lead of the game - 48-41 - on a three-pointer by Jordan Loera with 9:27 left. Just under a minute later, Seabrook hit a short jumper and was fouled. Her free throw pulled the Buffs to within four (48-44), and Jeffery followed with a trey from the left wing to close the gap to one (48-47).

Oregon opened a six-point lead (53-47) on a short jumper by Weaver and a three-pointer by Johnson with 6:30 to play. But CU wouldn't let go away, closing to within one (53-52) on a Kresl three-pointer, then pulling to within a point again (56-55) on a Kresl layup at the 4:46 mark.

The Buffs twice crept to a point back in the next 2 minutes, then tied the game at 62-62 on a Kresl trey from the right wing with 2:14 left. But at that point, CU's scoring was done.

Lappe liked, for the most part, the way her team attacked Oregon's zone: "I think we executed well at times... I liked that we didn't just take all threes; we got some easy shots inside. Meagan (Malcolm-Peck) and Julie had some nice easy looks. I thought we were more versatile in how we were getting shots."

But, noted Lappe, the Buffs also encountered a second-half cold spell, and "when Lexy got the three to go down (tying the score at 62) it gave us a boost."

CU's chance to take the lead fizzled when Brittany Wilson missed a pair of free throws less than a half minute later. With 3:2 seconds left, CU called a timeout, setting up a final shot, but Brittany Wilson's short runner at the buzzer missed.

Lappe's plan was for someone to drive to the rim, but the Ducks denied Jeffery and Kresl the ball. Lappe said she believed Brittany Wilson "had a decent look; it was a little bit of a floater, but just couldn't get it to go down."

BOULDER - Saturday at the Coors Events Center technically belonged to Julie Seabrook - the University of Colorado women's basketball team's lone senior. By afternoon's end, at a postgame senior celebration, she was more than happy to make room at midcourt for sharpshooting freshman Lexy Kresl.

Veteran and newcomer - Seabrook and Kresl - collaborated nicely to help push CU to a 67-57 Pac-12 Conference win against Oregon State, which had hammered the Buffaloes by 20 points in early February in Corvallis. CU snapped a five-game losing streak and won for only the second time in 10 games.

"It was a great win for our team, our program and for Julie Seabrook," CU coach Linda Lappe said. "I thought everybody stepped up, played well within the system. Everybody played just a little bit better overall. We were outstanding defensively... and offensively things were clicking."

Kresl, who also collected a career-best six rebounds, went several clicks past clicking. She poured in a career-high 20 points on six-of-seven shooting from behind the three-point arc - the top percentage this season in the Pac-12 and the second-best in CU women's hoops history.

Seabrook, meanwhile, posted her first career double-double - 11 points, 10 rebounds - ever in conference play. She capped her home career by contributing 27 points and 18 rebounds in her final two regular-season games.

"It was awesome...I'm kind of lost for words," said Seabrook, a native of North Vancouver, B.C., who was surprised before the game by the signing of the Canadian national anthem. "I did a pretty good job of keeping (her emotions) under wraps. I mean, I'll probably go home and cry later, but whatever."

Winning their final regular-season game, the Buffs improved to 17-12 overall and 6-12 in the league. Oregon State, which blasted CU 65-45 in their first meeting, ended the regular season at 18-11, 9-9.

Oregon State had three players in double figures, topped by Earlysia Marchbanks' 16 points. She also had nine rebounds, eight steals and seven assists. Sage Indendi added 12 - all in the second half - and Ali Gibson scored 10.

The Buffs shot 44.4 percent from the field (12-of-27) in the second half to keep the Beavers at bay. The Buffs finished the game at 41.8 percent from the field (23-of-55) while holding the Beavers to 32.1 percent (18-of-56). CU outrebounded the visitors 46-31, outscored them 30-18 in the paint, 14-4 in fast break points and 25-9 in bench points (20 courtesy of Kresl).

"Everybody made significant contributions," Lappe said. "Any win feels good, especially when you haven't had one for a while...but we kept getting better and better in the last five games."

After an early 7-7 tie, the Buffs put together a 12-2 run capped by Kresl's first trey of the afternoon and took the first of two 10-point leads (19-9).

The Beavers closed to within six (19-13), but Kresl countered with back-to-back three-pointers and pushed the lead back to 10 (25-10) with 2:36 left before intermission. OSU answered with treys by Gibson and Alyssa Martin, cutting CU's halftime advantage to 27-21.

CU never let OSU closer than two points (31-29) in the first 10 minutes of the second half, going back up by six (35-29) on consecutive baskets by Jasmine Sborov and Rachel Hargis. With 8:08 to play, the Buffs pushed their advantage to 10 (44-34) on a conventional three-point play by Meagan Malcolm-Peck, who took a crisp bounce pass from Sborov in transition for a layup and a free throw, followed by another Kresl trey.

That three-pointer - Kresl's fourth of the game on four attempts - capped a 13-5 CU run. But after that shot fell, the Buffs didn't get another field goal for almost 4 minutes, allowing the Beavers to creep to within 47-43 with 4:49 remaining.

CU finally broke the drought (and the Beavers' backs) with back-to-back Kresl three-pointers - the first with 3:51 left, the second just 34 seconds later. The Buffs were ahead 54-43 - their largest margin of the afternoon to that point with just over 3 minutes to play. And they went ahead by 13 with 1:34 left.

LOS ANGELES - California parlayed a fast start with a solid finish Thursday night to hold off Colorado and eliminate the Buffaloes from the Pac-12 Conference women's basketball tournament.

The second-seeded Bears defeated the tenth-seeded Buffs 68-59 at USC's Galen Center, leaving CU's uncertain postseason hopes in the hands of the WNIT selection committee. The Buffs finished their second season under Linda Lappe 18-13, while the Bears improved to 23-8 and moved into the Pac-12 semifinals.

Cal won for the third time against CU, which never led Thursday night and fell behind by as many as 16 points in the first half before bouncing back and at last unsettling the talented Bears.

During regular-season play, Cal defeated CU 68-55 in Boulder and 64-43 in Berkeley. The Buffs advanced to Thursday night's second round via a 55-41 win against No. 7 seed Utah the previous night.

Sophomore guard Brittany Wilson, who led CU with 21 points against Utah, again paced the Buffs with 18 points against Cal. Junior guard Chuck Jeffery added 16 and was the only other CU player in double figures.

Cal had four players in double figures, topped by Layshia Clarendon's 12. Lindsay Sherbert and Talia Caldwell added 11 each, and Reshanda Gray had 10.

The Bears held the Buffs to 37.5 percent shooting from the field in both halves (20-of-56) and outscored them 40-35. The way they started, it seemed reasonable to predict the Buffs would trail at intermission - and they did. But the Bears' 10-0 run to open the game wasn't an indication of how the Buffs would finish the half.

Showing no signs of rust or first-game nerves after their first-round bye, the Bears got six quick inside points from Caldwell and Gray and a pair of free throws from Sherbert to burst in front 10-0 before Jeffery finally hit a layup with 16:20 left before the break.

The Buffs closed to 11-7 - their smallest deficit of the half - before the Bears surged again, this time going on an 18-6 run to open a 16-point (27-11) lead.

CU - particularly Brittany Wilson - wasn't ready for the fork. In the final 3 minutes, she scored nine of her 11 first-half points on three three-pointers. Her first two treys were followed by a Lexy Kresl three-pointer that trimmed Cal's lead to 31-24, and the last one cut Cal's margin to 33-27.

But while "B-Wil" was getting into scoring mode, so was the Bears' Clarendon, who scored her team's last six points of the half and had Cal in front 35-27 at intermission.

The Buffs' energy would stay with them through the break; they outscored the Bears 6-2 to end the second half, creeping to within four (37-33) on a put-back by senior Julie Seabrook.

Cal answered with an inside basket by Gray and a three-pointer by Sherbert and increased its lead to nine (42-33), then went up by double figures (43-33) again on one of two free throws by Sherbert. CU escaped any more immediate damage when Rachel Hargis was called for a flagrant foul under the basket, sending Gray to the line for two free throws.

She missed them both, and Cal didn't score on the accompanying possession. The Buffs stayed with the Bears thereafter, pulling within five (43-38) on a conventional three-point by Hargis with 11:11 remaining.

For the next 6 1/2 minutes, Cal held an eight-point lead or larger until a put-back by freshman Jasmine Sborov and one of two free throws by Brittany Wilson closed the gap to six (55-49) with 4:14 to play.

CU could get no closer before time ran out. Cal closed it out by hitting nine of 10 free throws in the final 1:16.

BOULDER—The University of Colorado women's basketball team opened the second half on a 18-6 run to put away instate foe Northern Colorado, taking home a 54-42 win in the first round of the 2012 Women's NIT here Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffs (19-13) used a balanced offensive attack and stellar team defense to advance in the tournament for the second straight season. Four Buffaloes scored either nine or 10 points while the Buffs held the Bears (20-12) leading scorer D'Shara Strange to just two points on an 0-of-10 shooting performance.

"At this point of the season, you learn that any win is a good win," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "Even though we didn't play our best we ended up playing good enough to win and you don't take wins for granted."

"It was good to get a win," senior Julie Seabrook said. "Obviously we will work on the stuff we need to work on the rest of this week and get ready for the second round."

UNC's only lead was erased by the Buffaloes one minute into the game, as the Bears took a quick 2-0 lead before the Buffs scored the game's next 11 points over a six minute span. That 11-0 run was spurred by junior Chuck Jeffery, who hit two layups, and Seabrook, who made 3-of-4 from the line.

The Bears then whittled away at the lead the remainder of the first half, getting the game within four points at 15-11 with a Molly Duehn 3-pointer with 8:20 left in the half and keeping it close the remainder of the half. After cutting the CU lead to three at 21-18 with under two minutes remaining, freshman Lexy Kresl sent the Buffs to the locker room on a high note.

She hit her first 3-pointer of the game with just :05 left on the first half clock. It was her first 3-pointer of the game and tied the CU freshman season record of 57 set previously by CU legends Brittany Spears and Shelley Sheetz.

The Buffs took full advantage of Kresl's first-half momentum, opening the second half on that 18-6 run spanning the first 10 minutes of the game with most of the credit going to the defense. Kresl hit her second 3-pointer of the game in that run to set a new CU freshman record. That run gave CU a 42-24 lead but to their credit, the Bears didn't give up.

"We knew they weren't going to go away," Brittany Wilson said. "They want to be the premier school in Colorado just as much as we do. We had to come out and put a dagger in them early. I was proud of the fact that we did that, it says a lot about this team."

"The start of the second half was the key to the game," Lappe said. "We knew we had to come right out of the half and throw the first punch, be aggressive and I thought we did that. I thought we were out-hustled in the first half, so I wanted to change our mentality, step up and be aggressive."

Turning up their own defense, the Bears cut CU's lead to 10 points at 50-40 with 1:20 left, but freshman Jasmine Sborov hit the boards and then hit 4-of-4 free throws in the final minute to keep the game double figures.

Brittany Wilson and Kresl led the way with 10 points while Seabrook and Jeffery added nine apiece. Each of the five CU starters grabbed five or more boards, led by Jeffery's eight.

The Bears forced CU into 27 turnovers with 23 steals in the game while CU recorded 10 steals off of the Bears' 22 turnovers. CU held UNC to a 14-of-53 (26.4 percent) shooting performance, allowing just seven field goals each half.

The Buffs recorded their 19th win of the season, surpassing last year's total of 18 as Lappe was now 37-29 as CU's head coach in the past two seasons.

"We have 19 wins and some have been good and some not so good," Lappe said. "But a win is a win. I'm proud of our team for stepping up and knocking down our free throws, I thought that was a huge positive for us."

The Buffs finished the game shooting 19-of-25 (76 percent) from the line, which included Sborov's four clutch from the charity stripe in the final minute.

BOULDER – The Colorado Buffaloes survived a cat-and-mouse final minute Thursday night to defeat Villanova 48-47 and advance to the quarterfinals of the WNIT.

CU (21-13) will play at Oklahoma State, a former Big 12 Conference adversary, on Sunday (11:30 a.m., MDT).

Chucky Jeffery led the Buffs with her ninth double-double of the season – 19 points and a career-high 17 rebounds. Villanova (19-15) got 16 points from Emily Leer.

The Wildcats played their second game without leading scorer (14.4 points) and rebounder (7.6) Laura Sweeney, a 6-2 junior. She suffered a hand injury in the first-round win against American University and did not play at Illinois State.

The first half produced a 16-15 CU lead and very few highlights. CU's 16 first-half points were its second-lowest of the season at home, while Villanova's 15 points were a season low. The 31 points by both teams was the lowest combined since records have been kept in CU women's basketball.

The Buffs led by six (14-8) with 7:09 left before intermission and got only a layup by Brittany Wilson to close out the half and produce the one-point advantage.

Villanova closed the gap with a three-pointer by Lindsay Kimmel, a jumper by Emily Suhey and a layup by Rachel Roberts – and those seven points were enough to bring the Wildcats to within one.

After committing a season-low nine turnovers in their 64-55 win at South Dakota, the Buffs had nine at halftime Thursday night. That number exceeded their made field goals by four (7-of-22). Villanova committed six first-half turnovers – matching its field goal total (6-of-26).

CU had a commanding 25-13 rebounding edge, mainly because Villanova appeared under orders to not crash the boards. The Wildcats' staple – the three-pointer – wasn't working either; they finished the half with just two in nine attempts after averaging nine made per game in Big East Conference play.

Something had to change in the second half, and the Buffs made sure it did. They opened with an 11-2 run to take a 10-point (27-17) advantage when Lexy Kresl hit a three-pointer – CU's first of the game – with 16:40 remaining.

The Buffs moved in front by 11 (29-18) on a Jeffery layup before the Wildcats responded. A three-pointer by Kimmel and a conventional three-point play by Devon Kane reduced the deficit to 29-24 with 14:10 to play, then to 29-26 on a short jumper by Emily Leer.

And at the 11:42 mark, Meagan Pearson drained a straightaway three-pointer to tie it at 29-29. Just over a minute later, Kane hit a pair of free throws, capping a 13-0 Villanova run and sending the Wildcats ahead 31-29.

The Buffs had gone 6:34 without a point, but they scored two in quick succession by Jeffery and Ashley Wilson to recapture the lead (33-31). A jumper in the lane by Jasmine Sborov pushed it to 35-31 with 7:40 left and elicited a Villanova timeout.

It did little good, and when Jeffery hit a short jump shot the Buffs had completed an 8-0 run and gone ahead 37-31. But CU couldn't hold that advantage.

Back-to-back baskets by Leer – the second a three-pointer – pulled Villanova to within 41-38 with 3:23 remaining. A layup by Pearson made it 41-40, but that was as close as the Wildcats got.

CU got a layup and a free throw from Jeffery, another lay-in by Julie Seabrook, followed by an acrobatic move in the lane by Jeffery to go ahead 48-44.

But Nova wouldn't roll. Out of a timeout, Leer came off a screen and hit a trey from the top of the key to close to 48-47 with 1:12 to play. Jeffery missed with half a minute remaining, Villanova rebounded and called timeout with 9.3 seconds left.

The Wildcats' final shot was Kane's missed layup from the left side with just over a second to play. Jeffery rebounded. The Buffs had escaped and were headed back to Big 12 country.

STILLWATER, Okla. – Colorado's perimeter shooting was as good as it's been all season. Unfortunately, Oklahoma State's inside game, combined with timely outside shooting of its own, was just a little better.

Colorado drained 15 3-pointers and Chucky Jeffery recorded her second career triple-double but Oklahoma State's inside presence was the difference as the Cowgirls defeated the Buffaloes 78-70 in the quarterfinals of the 2012 WNIT Sunday afternoon at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

Colorado's season ends at 21-14 while OSU (20-12) moves on to host San Diego, 58-47 winners over Washington, on Wednesday in the semifinals.

The Buffaloes hot 47 percent from downtown (15-of-32) tying for the second-most 3-pointers made in school history. Senior Julie Seabrook and sophomore Brittany Wilson each had four and five players hit multiple bombs.

Jeffery ran the offense smoothly, helping the Buffaloes to their best point total since a 77-59 win over Weber State on Dec. 17. She finished with 12 points, 12 rebounds and tied a career high with 10 assists, her second career double-double and third in team history.

But OSU controlled the paint, outscoring the Buffaloes 44-14. Tiffany Bias, who scored a game-high 24 points, did a lot of the damage attacking the basket.

Big 12 Freshman of the Year Liz Donohoe had 20 points and 13 rebounds. Five of her boards came on the offensive glass as the Cowgirls outrebounded CU 38-34. Junior Toni Young had 17 points, nine rebounds and four blocks.

OSU hit a scorching 58 percent of their 2-point shots (25-of-43), while CU made just 9-of-33 (27.2 percent) in that same area.

"I loved our effort and fight today," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "Offensively, we haven't scored 70 points in a long time, the problem was defensively we couldn't stop them in the paint or off the drive."

The Cowgirls ran out to an 8-2 lead, but the Buffaloes started firing early and often. Brittany Wilson and Meagan Malcolm-Peck hit back-to-back 3's to pull CU to within 10-8. Ashley Wilson made four of her career-best six free throws to tie the game at 12.

After Seabrook hit a 3-pointer to trim OSU's lead to 16-15, the Cowgirls went on an 8-0 run with the help of layups from Bias and Kendra Suttles.

Oklahoma State had its largest lead of the first half at 36-23 before the Buffs closed the gap. Jeffery scored on consecutive possessions and Malcolm-Peck hit her second 3-pointer of the half as the Cowgirls led 40-33 at the break.

The Buffaloes scored the first five points of the second half, cutting it to 40-38 on Brittany Wilson's third 3-pointer, but OSU quickly extended its lead back to 10 thanks in part to consecutive layups by Bias, Donohoe and Young.

OSU increased its lead to 61-49 with 10:50 left in the game, but then started turning the ball over. The Cowgirls had turnovers on four straight possessions, which left the door open for Colorado, and the Buffaloes took advantage.

Seabrook scored seven straight points to spark a 12-0 run that ended with a Brittany Wilson 3-pointer and a 61-61 game with 6:46 left.

"We started executing our offense and we showed a lot of confidence even when we were down," Lappe said. "You have to love our players' heart and determination, to have the fight within them to make it a game."

As good as Oklahoma State had been inside all day, the Cowgirls received clutch outside shooting when they needed it most. Suttles broke the tie with OSU's first 3-pointer of the day. Donohoe then matched Suttles effort, drilling a 3-pointer to put OSU back up by six.

Lexy Kresl hit the first of her three late 3-pointers, to put the margin at 67-64, but the Buffaloes went cold after that missing their next seven shots. Oklahoma State took advantage with a 10-0 run, finished off by a Bias fastbreak layup.

Seabrook ended her career in style with a team-high 16 points on 6-of-11 from the field. Brittany Wilson finished with 14 points, her four 3-pointers also tying a career high.

2011-12 SEASON IN REVIEW

A historic start to a new beginning and a memorable finish highlighted the 2011-12 University of Colorado women's basketball season.

The Buffaloes ushered in the Pac-12 Conference era with a 21-14 overall record; the school's first 20-win season in eight years. Colorado experienced some growing pains in the first league schedule, finishing in 10th place at 6-12, but rebounded to make a run to the quarterfinals of the 2012 Postseason WNIT.

Under second-year head coach Linda Lappe, the Buffaloes couldn't have started the season any better. Colorado swept its 11-game nonconference regular season schedule and equaled the second-best start in school history at 12-0 by defeating Utah, 58-52, in its inaugural Pac-12 game.

Jasmine Sborov

During the preconference run, the Buffaloes won two tournaments: their own Omni Hotels Classic and the UTSA Holiday Classic in San Antonio. The Buffaloes also enjoyed rivalry wins over Colorado State and Denver.

After winning their first 10 games by an average of nearly 20 points a contest, the Buffaloes developed a flair for the dramatic. In the final game of the nonconference schedule against Creighton, neither team led by more than seven and it took a 3-pointer at the buzzer by freshman Lexy Kresl to preserve a 52-49 win over the eventual Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Champions.

Colorado then erased second half double-digit deficits to win two of its first three Pac-12 games. The Buffaloes trailed Utah 48-38 with 10 minutes left, but ended on a 20-4 run, holding the Utes scoreless for the final 8:33 of the contest. After suffering its first loss of the season at Washington, Colorado responded with a 57-56 win at Washington State in which the Buffaloes trailed by 11 midway through the second half before rallying for the road win.

At 13-1, 2-1 in Pac-12 play, the Buffaloes would face their first sustained adversity of the season. Colorado let a double-digit lead slip away against California in the Pac-12 home opener and followed with losses to No. 4 Stanford and at Arizona State.

Colorado regained some of its mojo with back-to-back tight wins. After edging Arizona 56-54 on national television to break its three-game slide, Colorado played one of its most complete games of the season in defeating USC 69-67, exacting revenge on the Trojans who ended CU's season in 2010-11 in the WNIT quarterfinals. Chucky Jeffery accounted for the final points in both wins hitting the go-ahead bucket at Arizona with 17 seconds left and two free throws against USC with under two seconds left.

Just three days after the big USC win, Colorado received its first of several heartbreaks during its worst stretch of the season. The Buffaloes had a late lead at home against UCLA, but the Bruins rallied to tie the game in the final minute and eventually won, 62-54 in overtime. That setback began a stretch where CU lost eight of nine, twice in overtime at home and another pair by two and five points.

While the NCAA Tournament was falling out of reach, Colorado still had plenty to play for. At 16-12, the Buffaloes were already eligible for WNIT play, but needed a strong finish to solidify a spot.

Jen Reese

Not wanting their season to end in the first days of March, the Buffaloes responded. CU broke a five-game losing streak by defeating Oregon State 67-57 on Senior Day. A fitting final regular season home game for Julie Seabrook, who had a double-double, while exacting pay-back for an ugly 20-point loss in Corvallis in early February.

The Buffaloes, who had earned the No. 10 seed in the Pac-12 Tournament, continued their momentum into the postseason with a 55-41 win over No. 7 Utah for their first conference tournament win since 2007. Colorado dropped a hard-fought battle to No. 2 seed and eventual tournament runner up California, 68-59 in the quarterfinals.

Colorado advanced to the WNIT for the second straight season, its first back-to-back postseason appearance of any kind since playing in four straight NCAA Tournaments from 2001 to '04. The Buffaloes won WNIT games against Northern Colorado, South Dakota and Villanova before falling to an inspired Oklahoma State team on the road in the quarterfinals.

Jeffery had an incredible postseason run averaging 15.8 points and 11.8 rebounds during the WNIT. She had double-doubles in the final three games and recorded her second career triple-double, and just the program's third, with 12 points, 12 rebounds and 10 assists at Oklahoma State.

The Buffaloes had the third best rebounding defense (34.4 rpg) and rebounding margin (+5.7 rpg) in the Pac-12 and also ranked fifth in scoring defense (58.4 ppg), field-goal percentage (.396) and offensive rebounds (13.6 orgp).

Overall Jeffery led the Buffaloes at 15.5 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 2.3 steals per game. She was prominent on the Pac-12 leader board, ranking fourth in assists, fifth in steals, sixth in scoring and defensive rebounds (6.1 drpg), eighth in overall rebounding, 10th in assist-to-turnover ratio (0.8), 12th in field-goal percentage (.445) and 13th free-throw percentage (.680).

Jeffery scored in double-figures in 30 of Colorado's 35 games and reached the 20-point mark on eight occasions. She had a team-best 10 double-doubles on the season, tying for seventh in the Pac-12 and also seventh on CU's single-season list. She led or shared the team lead in scoring in 21 contests this season. Jeffery had the second-most assists in a junior season (133) and 11th overall. Her 541 points were the ninth best in team history while she also ranked fourth in minutes played (1,161), seventh in steals (82), eighth in field-goals made (211) and ninth in rebounds (280). Her point total is the third-best by a junior while her rebounds and steals both rank fourth.

Jeffery was the MVP of CU's Omni Hotels Classic and was named Pac-12 Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Dec. 4.

Brittany Wilson

Senior forward Julie Seabrook led Colorado in field goal accuracy at 48.8 percent while also averaging 7.3 points and 5.2 rebounds per game. An honorable mention Academic All-Pac-12 pick, Seabrook played in 120 career games and started the final 69 contests of her career. Her 35 starts this year tied De Celle Thomas (1995-96) for the third-most in one season in a CU uniform. Seabrook closed out her playing career ranking 16th in field-goal percentage at .487. She went out with a bang, leading the Buffaloes with 16 points and tying career-highs with four 3-pointers on six attempts in the WNIT quarterfinal game at Oklahoma State. Seabrook, who ranked seventh in the Pac-12 in field-goal percentage during conference games (.474) shot 50 percent or better in 22 of 35 games, 10 of 18 in league play. She made 81 percent from the line (25-of-31) during conference play.

Sophomore guard Brittany Wilson was second on the team in scoring (9.1 ppg), assists (63), steals (47) and 3-point field goals (44). She was Colorado's leading scorer at the Pac-12 Tournament (19.5 ppg) and averaged 13.7 points on 42 percent shooting during the six-game postseason. Wilson ranked 13th in 3-point percentage (.312), 14th in 3-pointers made (1.3 3mpg) and 27th in scoring on the Pac-12 charts. Brittany's twin sister Ashley Wilson hit 47.8 percent from the field on the season while averaging 3.5 points and 2.9 rebounds per game.

Freshman guard Lexy Kresl ranked third on the team in scoring at 9.0 points per game and led Buffaloes in 3-point field goals (63). On the Pac-12 charts she ranked fifth in 3-pointers made (1.8 3mpg), 12th in 3-point percentage (.318) and 28th in scoring.

CU breaks Cardinal rule

Lady Buffs stop defending champs

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Boulder Bears scored 38 points and Stephanie Mack made the key free throw late in the game as Colorado upset defending national champion Stanford 89-77 Thursday night in a women's NCAA West Regional semifinal.

Colorado used a vicious defense to wear out Stanford in the first.

Stanford 67

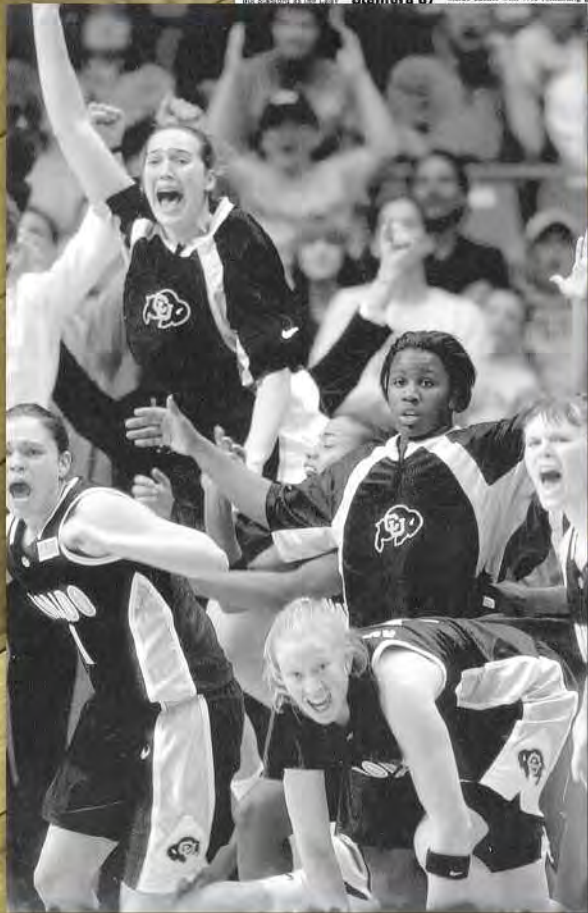

"Our No. 1 game plan was to slow down Stanford," said Colorado coach Oval Berry. "We felt like we needed to keep Stanford between 65 and 70 points."

The Lady Buffs (27-1) will meet Texas Tech (28-7) Saturday in the regional championship, with the winner advancing to the Final Four in Atlanta. Stanford (26-6), which had been averaging 79 points, jumped to a 10-1 lead. The Cardinal was up 39-36 at the half and maintained its edge until 8:30 was left in the game.

That's when Colorado's Jamillah Lang hit a 16-footer to tie the score at 56. Then Mandy Lacey's inside bucket with 7:13 remaining gave the Lady

1,000 POINTS, 1,000 REBOUNDS

Only three players in CU history have recorded 1,000 career rebounds, coincidentally all three are 1,000 point scorers making this 1,000-1,000 double club an exclusive list. Lisa Van Goor (1980-85) ranks first in rebounding with 1,145, and second in scoring at 2,067. Erin Scholz is CU's second-best career rebounder with 1,067 and is sixth in career scoring with 1,621 points from 1993-97. Jackie McFarland is CU's third all-time rebounder with 1,049 and scorer with 1,957 points from 2004-08.

1,000 POINT SCORERS

Just 24 players own membership in CU's 1,000 point club in 38 seasons of Colorado women's basketball. Jeannie Raikes was the first to do so, reaching her 1,000th point on Dec. 20, 1980. Lisa Van Goor was the fastest player to reach 1,000 points, getting there in just 55 games and the first sophomore ever at CU to accomplish the feat. Brittany Spears joined her in 2009, reaching 1,000 in her 63rd game; the final game of her sophomore season. Eight players have reached 1,000 points as juniors: Shelley Sheetz, Tracy Tripp, Erin Carson, Bridget Turner, Erin Scholz, Tera Bjorklund, Jackie McFarland and Chucky Jeffery.

Brittany Spears

Pasadena, Calif. (2007-11)

2,185 Points

ALL-TIME JERSEY NUMBERS

Jersey numbers 12 and 22 are the most frequently issued as each has been worn by 12 Buffaloes. The number 11 is the next most frequently used jersey, by 10 players. Just the number "0" is an eligible number that hasn't been worn and three numbers have been worn by just one player (00, 41, 53).

The years in parentheses next to the names indicate the last season that number was worn and by whom. Current players are in bold.

Mandy Nightingale wore three different jersey numbers, 11 (1998-99), 32 (1999-2000) and 23 (2000-01, 2001-02). She is the only player in CU history to wear three different numbers since numbers were assigned on a permanent basis.

PRESEASON TOURNAMENTS

Colorado is 102-40 since the 1980-81 season in regular season tournaments, including a sparkling 40-10 all-time in its own Omni Hotels Classic which celebrates its 26th year in 2012.

Colorado has won 15 of 24 Omni Hotels Classic titles and has played in every championship game but three as the Buffaloes finished third in 2005 and 2007, and fourth in 2008. The 2006 season brought a one-year change in the tournament, as it followed a true "Classic" format where Colorado and Wyoming played Nevada and Charlotte on consecutive days, primarily because Wyoming and CU had just played each other three days before. The Classic returned to its normal format in 2007, and this season Colorado hosts Auburn, San Diego State and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi over Thanksgiving weekend.

The Buffaloes also have some notable preseason tournament wins outside the Coors Classic. CU won the Preseason WNIT in 1995 defeating New Mexico State, Utah, Texas A&M and Arkansas in the championship. More recently, Colorado claimed the 2003 WBCA Classic title in Boulder by topping Old Dominion and Notre Dame.

Erin Scholz helped Colorado to the 1995 Preseason WNIT championship with a 73-71 win over Arkansas.

Head Coach: Sox Walseth

Assistant Coach: Susan Horner

Record: 28-5 Overall
10-0 Intermountain Conference
(14-0 H, 9-5 A, 5-0 N)

Captain: Michell Irving

Notes: After a four-year hiatus, Sox Walseth, the winningest coach in CU men's basketball history, takes the helm of the women's team. The team responds with the school's first undefeated Intermountain Conference season (10-0). Colorado wins three games by scoring in excess of the century mark. Colorado wins the mid-season Big Eight Tournament, and Region VII Championship. Colorado went on to qualify for the AIAW National Championship Tournament.

Head Coach: Ceal Barry

Assistant Coaches: Karen Morrison, Barb Smith, Jen Tubergen

Record: 27-4 Overall
12-2 Big Eight Conference
(14-0 H, 9-2 A, 4-2 N)

Captains: Mindy Henry, Sherrice King, Amy Mather, Stephanie Mack, Abby Wirfs

Final Ranking: 10/9

Notes: Colorado opened the season with a 15-game win streak, the best start in the program's history. The regular season Big Eight title gave Ceal Barry coach-of-the-year honors. With an at-large selection to the NCAA Tournament, CU advanced to the program's first Sweet 16, and defeated defending national champion Stanford before falling to eventual national champion Texas Tech in the NCAA West Regional Final.

Head Coach: Ceal Barry

Assistant Coaches: Jen Warden, LaTonya Watson, Kim LaLonde

Director of Operations: Kris Livingston

Record: 12-16 Overall
5-11 Big 12 Conference
(8-5 H, 2-9 A, 2-2 N)

Captains: La Shena Graham, Alexis Felts

Notes: Colorado is a preseason nationally ranked team for the sixth straight year. With a convincing 78-65 win over Missouri, Ceal Barry picks up her 300th win since taking over the reins of the Buffs. Seniors Alexis Felts, La Shena Graham and Damietta Velicica graduate as the program's sixth-winningest class with a 91-37 career record. In just her first season, Mel Johnson becomes Colorado's 15th all-time career leader in blocked shots with 29 rejections.

Head Coach: Ceal Barry

Director of Operations: Kris Livingston

Record: 15-14 Overall
7-9 Big 12 Conference
(10-6 Home, 4-7 Road, 1-1 Neutral)

Captains: Shelley Garcia

Notes: Following a one-year hiatus from postseason play, the Buffs were selected to the Women's National Invitation Tournament field with the fourth-youngest team in the nation and advanced to the tournament's second round. Senior Shelley Garcia completed her career as the second-winningest class in CU history with a 110-48 career record in Boulder. Head coach Ceal Barry coached her 600th career game on Feb. 3 at Kansas.

Assistant Coaches: Jen Warden, LaTonya Watson, Kim LaLonde

Director of Operations: Kris Livingston

Record: 10-19 Overall
4-12 Big 12 Conference

Captains: Kami Carmann, Linda Lappe, Jenny Roulter

Notes: The Buffs opened the season with 11 healthy players, and were without a senior for the first time in program history. Coach Ceal Barry won her 400th career game in the first round of the Coors Classic, as the Buffs took the title once again. Sophomore guard Jenny Roulter was named third team All-Big 12 following the season. Roulter and teammate Sabrina Scott were invited to the U.S. R. William Jones Cup Team Trials in Colorado Springs following the season.

Notes: For the first time since 1997, the Buffaloes were selected to the NCAA Tournament after their best record in four seasons. Colorado also upset No. 6 Iowa State at home on Feb. 14, CU's first win over a top 10 team since defeating No. 7 Purdue in 1995. Juniors Mandy Nightingale and Jenny Roulier were named Third Team All-Big 12 Conference following the season. Roulier and freshman Tera Bjorklund were both selected by USA Basketball to represent the United States on the World University Games Team and Junior National Team, respectively. Nightingale and sophomore Sabrina Scott participated on the Big 12 All Star Tour, which was coached by Ceal Barry in August.

Assistant Coaches: LaTonya Watson, Tanya Haave, Matt Daniel

Director of Operations: Kris Livingston

Record: 9-19 Overall

2-14 Big 12 Conference

(5-9 Home, 3-9 Away, 1-1 Neutral)

Captains: Veronica Johns-Richardson, Sarah Lini

Notes: The youth movement was certainly on for the Buffaloes in 2004-05. Over one-third (67.3 percent) of Colorado's scoring in 2004-05 came from freshmen or sophomores, while just over 64 percent of its rebounding from underclassmen. CU's youth showed at times as the team finished below .500 for the first time since the 1999-2000 season. Senior Veronica Johns-Richardson was given honorable mention to the All-Big 12 Conference team averaging 10 points per game and leading the Buffs in assists (85) and steals (59). Jackie McFarland and Kara Richards formed one of the better first-year duos in the Big 12. McFarland was twice named the Big 12 Rookie of the Week and was selected to the All-Big 12 Freshman Team by the Kansas City Star and the Waco Tribune-Herald. Richards earned the Big 12's Rookie of the Week honor in her first weekend as a collegian and was also selected to the Waco Tribune-Herald's All-Big 12 Freshman squad. Senior Sarah Lini and junior Whitney Law were members of the Academic All-Big 12 first team while Johns-Richardson earned second team acclaim. Head coach Ceal Barry retired after 22 seasons on the CU bench, leaving as the school's all-time winningest coach with 427 wins.

Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller

Assistant Coaches: Mike Neighbors, Bethann Shapiro Ord, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Carla Morrow

Record: 9-21 Overall
3-13 Big 12 Conference
(7-9 Home, 1-9 Away, 1-3 Neutral)

Captains: Jasmina Ilic, Whitney Law, Jackie McFarland

Notes: The Kathy McConnell-Miller era at CU began with a bang as the Buffaloes defeated Cal State-Fullerton 100-71 in the season opener. Jasmina Ilic and Jackie McFarland each netted 34 points, marking the first time in team history a pair of teammates scored 30 or more points in one game. Senior Whitney Law dished out a school-record 15 assists as McConnell-Miller claimed her first CU coaching victory. McFarland had one of the best sophomore seasons in team history. She averaged 17.2 points and 9.2 rebounds per game earning second team All-Big 12 Conference honors. McFarland's 516 total points were the second most by a sophomore in team history and seventh overall. Her 277 rebounds were the third best mark by a sophomore and the 10th most overall in Buffs' history. McFarland was also named a second team Academic All-American, the lone sophomore on the three Academic All-America teams. Law and senior Tami Garnett joined McFarland on the Academic All-Big 12 team

NOTES: Colorado battled through one of the toughest schedules in 35 years of women's basketball in 2008-09. The Buffaloes played in 11 games against ranked teams, the second most in team history and played 17 games in 2008-09 against teams that would go on to qualify for postseason play. Sophomore Brittany Spears was named to the All-Big 12 Conference second team. She became just the second player in school history to reach 1,000 points by the end of a sophomore season. Senior Kara Richards was an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick. Freshman guard Alyssa Fressle was named to the 2009 Big 12 All-Rookie team.

Notes: Colorado took advantage of home cooking by winning nine of 10 nonconference games at home en route to a 10-3 nonconference record. The Buffaloes finished second at the Minnesota Subway Classic and won their own Omni Classic at the Coors Events Center. Brittany Spears and Bianca Smith were named to both all-tournament teams while Chucky Jeffery was named to the Omni Classic All-Tournament team. CU's 11 games against ranked teams were the second most in team history, trailing only the 16 played in 2001-02. The Buffaloes played 15 of their 30 games against teams that would advance to either the NCAA or WNIT postseason events. Colorado led the Big 12 and ranked 14th in the nation in free-throw accuracy at 76.1 percent, the third best mark in team history. CU's 229 3-pointers made were the second most on the team's all-time charts. The Buffaloes ranked second in the Big 12 and 18th in NCAA Division I in 3-pointers made at 7.6 per outing. Spears led Colorado in scoring (17.7 ppg), rebounding (7.8 rpg) and steals (2.1 spg), earning honorable mention to the 2010 All-Big 12 Conference team. She is one of only six players in team history to reach 1,500 points and 700 rebounds in a career. Smith was named the 2010 Big 12 Sixth Man Award winner after averaging 12.8 points per game and leading the Big 12 in 3-pointers (2.7 3mpg) and free-throw percentage (.887). She graduates as CU's single-game, season and career leader in 3-point field goals made and attempted. Smith completed her career in 18th place on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,138 points. Sophomores Alyssa Fressle and Julie Seabrook were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Conference Women's Basketball First Team.

Head Coach: Linda Lappe

Assistant Coaches: Jennie Baranczyk, Jonas Chatterton, Johnna Pointer

Director of Operations: Tracy Tripp

Record: 18-16, 6-10 Big 12 (15-6 H, 3-8 A, 0-2 N)

Captains: N/A

Notes: The Linda Lappe era began for Colorado's final season in the Big 12 Conference. Lappe led CU to an 18-16 overall record, advancing to the quarterfinals of the 2011 postseason WNIT. CU finished tied for eighth place in the Big 12 at 6-10, its best league mark since 2007...Lappe was the only rookie NCAA Division I head coach to beat a ranked opponent this season, and her teams achieved it twice, knocking off No. 17/16 Iowa State (also her first conference win) and No. 16/15 Oklahoma. Additionally, Lappe was one of just three NCAA I rookie head coaches to lead her team into postseason play...All-Big 12 first team senior guard/forward Brittany Spears graduated as CU's all-time leading scorer with 2,185 points. She led CU and ranked third in the Big 12 in scoring at 19.2 points per game. She was also first in defensive rebounds (6.0 drpg), third in rebounding (8.1 rpg), fourth in 3-point field goals (2.4 3mpg), fifth in free-throw percentage (.830), 10th in steals (1.8 spg) and 11th in blocked shots (1.2 bpg). Sophomore guard Chucky Jeffery put together one of the season's most memorable individual performances in the championship game of the Omni Classic against Loyola Chicago. Jeffery recorded the second triple-double in team history by totaling 10 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists during CU's 65-34 win...Sophomore Meagan Malcolm-Peck and junior Julie Seabrook were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Conference Women's Basketball Second Team.

COLORADO BASKETBALL MILESTONES

1992-93 Big Eight Champions

January 28, 2004—Russell “Sox” Walseth, the legendary University of Colorado basketball coach who was likely the first and one of only a few to have coached both the men’s and women’s basketball teams at the same NCAA school, passed away after a two-year battle with cancer at the age of 77.

February 24, 2004—A 75-56 home win over Kansas gave Ceal Barry career win No. 500.

Feb. 24, 2005—Head coach Ceal Barry announced she would retire at the end of the season after 22 years on the CU bench. Her 427 wins are the most by any coach in CU history as she led the Buffs to 12 NCAA appearances and 13 20-win seasons.

Apr. 27, 2005—Athletic Director Mike Bohn announced the hiring of Kathy McConnell-Miller to become the sixth head coach in the 31-year history of CU women’s basketball.

November 18, 2006—Colorado defeated Cal State-Fullerton 100-71 in Kathy McConnell-Miller’s coaching debut with the Buffaloes. Jasmina Ilic and Jackie McFarland each had 34 points marking the first time two CU players had scored 30 or more points in a single game. Senior Whitney Law dished out a school-record 15 assists as McConnell-Miller’s team recorded the most points in a coaching debut of active Big 12 coaches.

February 26, 2006—Kathy McConnell-Miller picked up career win No. 100 as the Buffs defeated Oklahoma State 73-62 at the Coors Events Conference Center. Ironically it was against OSU which McConnell-Miller picked her first career head coaching win seven years earlier while at Tulsa.

November 25, 2007—Colorado claimed a 78-65 win over Charlotte in the Coors Classic for Buffaloes’ 300th win at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

November 29, 2007—Colorado defeated in-state rival Colorado State for the 600th win in program history.

March 2, 2007—Junior Jackie McFarland was named to the All Big 12 Conference first team, by a vote of league coaches. She is just the second CU player so honored in the Big 12 era, joining Tera Bjorklund.

March 6, 2007—Jackie McFarland scored a Big 12 Championship first round game record 32 points to lead Colorado to a 71-67 win over Texas Tech, its first Big 12 Tournament win in four seasons. McFarland’s 32 points also tied the best output by a CU player in Big 12 Championship action, matching Tera Bjorklund’s 32 against Oklahoma in the 2003 quarterfinals.

December 9, 2007—Colorado won 62-51 at No. 20(AP)/17(WBCA) Vanderbilt for CU’s first win over the perennial SEC power. Combined with a win over No. 22/21 in their previous outing, the Buffaloes had wins over ranked teams in back-to-back games for the first time since the 2002 NCAA Tournament and also their first win as an unranked team on an ranked opponents home floor in more than a decade.

December 24, 2007—On the heels of seven straight wins, including two over ranked opponents, Colorado cracked the Associated Press Top 25 poll for the first time in four seasons, debuting at No. 25. With the ranking, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women’s history to play for and coach an AP ranked team.

January 9, 2008—Colorado opened the Big 12 season with a 70-58 win at Missouri, giving the Buffaloes their 11th straight win; a streak that ranks seventh in team history. Freshman Brittany Spears scored 24 points

March 24, 2008—Colorado played in its first postseason game in four years, and for just the second time in the postseason WNIT, defeating Gonzaga, 82-68, at the Coors Events Center.

April 2, 2008—Colorado played its first-ever game in the month of April, falling to eventual champion Marquette, 86-72, in the semifinals of the Postseason WNIT in Boulder. The appearance in the semifinals was the deepest postseason tournament run in team history.

March 12, 2009—Brittany Spears scored 23 points in the final game of the season, against Kansas State in the Big 12 Championship, to become the second sophomore in team history to reach 1,000 career points.

March 25, 2010—CU Athletics held a ground breaking ceremony for a basketball/volleyball practice facility adjacent to the north side of the Coors Events Center. The project is the first dramatic change to the Coors Events Center since it opened in 1979 and will add 43,000 square feet of space including two dedicated basketball/volleyball courts and locker rooms for the women’s team.

April 12, 2010—CU alum and former Buffaloes standout Linda Lappe is named the seventh head coach in the program’s 36-year history.

November 12, 2010—Linda Lappe records her first win as Colorado head coach as the Buffaloes shut down Regis 76-38 in the season opener.

January 15, 2011—Linda Lappe gains her first Big 12 win in dramatic fashion, leading Colorado to a 66-60 overtime win over No. 17/16 Iowa State.

February 23, 2011—In their final meeting as long-time conference rivals, Colorado upsets No. 16/15 Oklahoma, 73-68 in Boulder. More significantly, the win sparks a late season three-game winning streak that allows the Buffaloes to climb over .500 and advance to postseason play for just the second time since 2004.

February 26, 2011—Senior Brittany Spears becomes the second player in CU history to reach 2,000 career points on a 3-pointer during the second half of a 63-59 win at Missouri.

March 8, 2011—Brittany Spears scores her 2,068th career point during CU's Big 12 Championship first round game against Kansas to become CU's all-time leading scorer, passing Lisa Van Goor.

In the past 11 seasons, Colorado has appeared on 99 regional or national telecasts and is scheduled for at least another 10 during the 2012-13 season. This year marks a new era in television coverage for the Buffaloes as the Pac-12 Networks, which consists of one national and six regional networks, debuted on Aug. 15, 2012. CU will play nine regular season games on the Pac-12 Networks, and a guaranteed one, and potentially more, during the Pac-12 Tournament, March 7-10, in Seattle. A program-best six regular season games will be televised nationally while three more will be on one of the regional networks. CU's first Pac-12 Tournament game will also be televised nationally, as would any ensuing round through the championship game, which will air Sunday, March 10, on ESPN2. CU also has all games, home and away, broadcast on KKZN 760 or KVCU 1190 AM, featuring play-by-play man Mike Rice and color analyst Carol Callan of USA Basketball.

REGULAR SEASON CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

1989 Big Eight Champions
(14-0)

Basketball, as in life, offers its share of firsts. And the 1988-89 season was no exception. The Buffs would open the pre-season with a 10-3 showing, including the program's first win over Louisiana Tech. The 61-60 win would be Colorado's first over a No. 2 ranked team and Barry would use that win to catapult the Buffs to a 20-game win streak that would come to a halt during the NCAA Tournament. But not before the Buffs would claim the Big Eight Conference's first undefeated regular season (14-0) title, their first tournament title and lay claim to the program's first conference player-of-the-year in Bridget Turner.

Colorado would graduate five seniors and reload with seven newcomers and leave the league's coaches to believe that they couldn't repeat its feats from the previous year. Although the nation's experts pegged the Buffs the No. 4 preseason team in the country, in the preseason Big Eight coaches poll, the Buffs would be picked to finish behind Kansas come March. Well, the exact opposite happened. Colorado would go 12-2 in conference competition and the preseason player-of-the-year would take a seat behind CU senior Jamillah Lang, crowned the 1994 conference queen.

(12-2)

A team little known to anyone outside the conference circles, the Buffs would take the nation by storm as they took a pre-season No. 25 ranking to No. 9 by March. A 15-game win streak to open the season would turn heads as CU was the country's seventh-ranked team when it opened the Big Eight campaign—a convincing 61-33 win over Kansas State in Boulder. The Buffs would live up to their preseason expectations to take the conference title, although few probably thought they would do it so convincingly, outscoring their league opponents by an average of more than 15 points a game.

If the 1989 conference season was a season of firsts, then the '95 campaign was when the Buffs would prove that history can repeat itself, and still provide some firsts. Following a 5-2 start, Colorado would go on a 25-game win streak, including the league's only second unblemished 14-0 conference record. Colorado's 74-71 win at Kansas State in the conference finale would put the seal on the league's only regular season conference three-peat and second straight conference player-of-the-year award winner in Shelley Sheetz. As they did in the 1993 postseason, the '95 Buffs would be the conference's second team to advance to a regional final in NCAA play.

NCAA ACTION

The Buffs have made 12 trips to March Madness, including six straight in the 1990s (one of 15). When Ceal Barry and the Buffs reached the pinnacle as the No. 1 seed in the Midwest Region in 1995, it was a first for Colorado and the Big Eight Conference.

The fans in Boulder came out in full force for the 1995 Midwest Region first and second rounds, selling out the Buffs' games against Holy Cross and Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) with a then-NCAA record 11,072 for each contest.

From 1993 to 1997, Colorado had one of the more impressive NCAA Tournament runs going 10-5 and advancing to three Sweet 16s and two Elite Eight rounds.

In fact, the Buffs were only one of 10 schools to advance to at least four Sweet 16s in that span and one of 11 to advance to the elite round of eight.

The NCAA Tournament will return to the Coors Events Center for the first time since 2003 as Colorado will play host to first and second round games of the Women's Championship, March 23 & 25, 2013. This will be the 12th different season that Colorado has hosted one or more rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship, including 1992 where the Buffaloes hosted a first round session as well as the Midwest Regional.

CU has hosted two NCAA tournaments at the Pepsi Center in Denver; the 2001 Midwest Regional and 2006 first and second round games.

Longest Home Conference Streak: 31 (Jan. 25, 1992, through Feb. 2, 1996)

Since 1979, the Coors Events Center on the southwest edge of the Boulder main campus has been home to Colorado women's basketball. It is the home of the NCAA's eighth-longest all-time home court win streak, the Big Eight Conference's longest home league streak and home to five undefeated home seasons.

The most dramatic changes in the 32-year history of the Coors Events Center have taken place in the last four years, culminating with the dedication of a 43,000 square foot practice facility in August 2011.

CU made the commitment to enhance the basketball program by reconfiguring the second level of the Coors Events Center for a basketball operations center. The headquarters for Colorado Basketball, completed in April 2008, allows the Buffs' coaches, student-athletes and staff more convenient access to the playing floor, practice gym, locker rooms, weight room and sports medicine facilities within the Events Center.

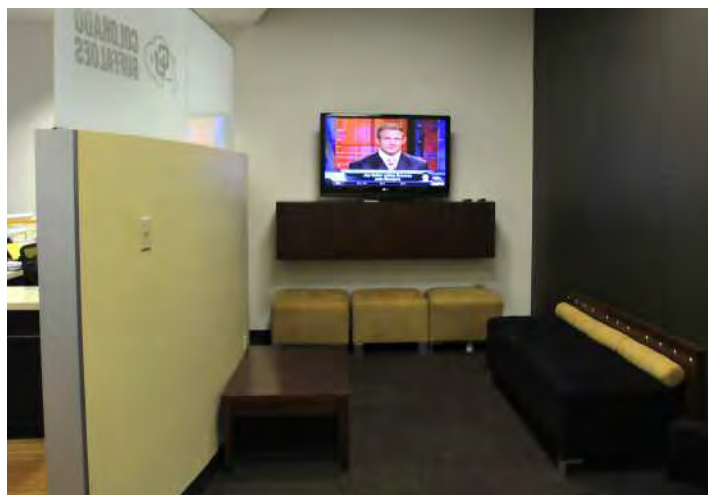

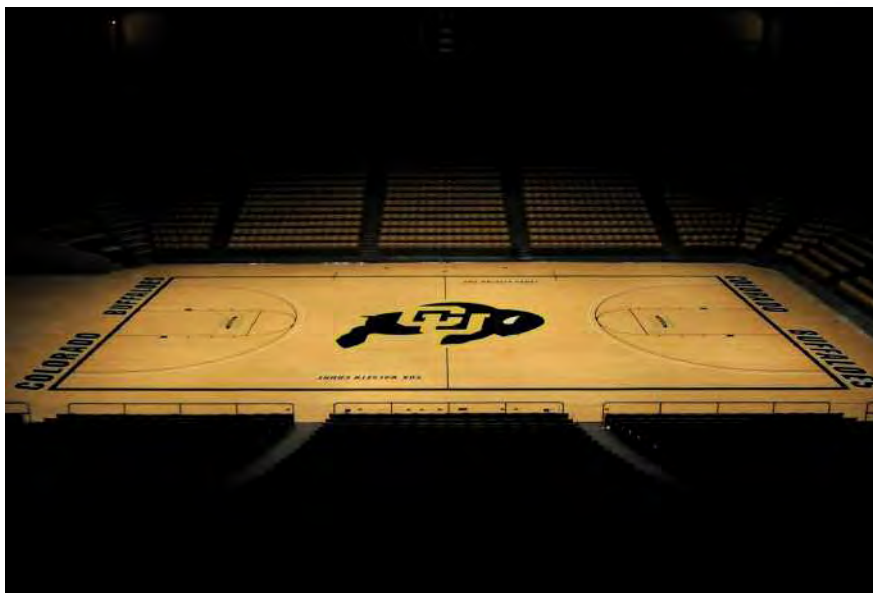

COORS EVENTS CENTER

During the summer of 2008 the Coors Events Center underwent a $200,000 "Floor Lift" as a permanent maple surface was installed. The high grade maple gives the floor and almost white appearance and features the signature Buffalo on Sox Walseth Court.

The $10.8 million practice facility, built from private funding, opened in August 2011 adding two full basketball/volleyball courts, a new women's basketball locker room and additional coaches offices and meeting rooms. The facility is attached to the north side of the Coors Events Center and allows CU basketball and volleyball student-athletes greater access and teams better flexibility in practice and workout scheduling.

The structure matches the campus architectural Charles Klauder theme, a northern Italian, rural Tuscany influence, with varicolored sandstone and red-tiled roofs to match the other 200-plus buildings on the CU-Boulder campus.

The practice facility was given LEED Platinum Certification, the highest possible by the internationally recognized system developed by the US Green Building Council. As of the summer 2011, 557 buildings in the world have achieved it, 473 in the US. Of the 473 in the US, only 31 other buildings in all of higher education nationwide have met the standard, and this is the second athletic facility beside Florida's west stadium expansion.

The Coors Events Center is within walking distance from all points of campus, and parking for Colorado basketball games is free to the public in the parking garage located just north of the arena. The southwest entrance faces the majestic flatirons, the mountains located west of campus, providing Colorado fans with one of most beautiful views in all of collegiate athletics when they arrive to the game. Coors has hosted its share of concerts. Bob Dylan, Jack Ingram and Juice Newton are just some of the artists who have taken the stage in the Events Center, providing an indoor venue for CU students and Boulder residents equipped to attract some of the best entertainers in the World.

COLORADO TRADITIONS

School Colors

The official colors of CU are silver and gold. According to the book Glory Colorado, these colors were adopted by the class of 1888, as a symbol of the mineral wealth of this state. But in 1921, as football became more popular, there were complaints from the students that silver and gold did not look good on football jerseys. In fact, silver and gold ended up looking like dirty gray and dark yellow. It wasn't until 1959 that the football team changed its jerseys to black with yellow. And although the football team seems to have set the trend with its color choice, CU still has the official colors of silver and gold.

CU, not UC

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas-KU, Missouri-MU, Nebraska-NU and Oklahoma-OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four listed above, but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

Buffaloes

The buffalo first appeared in 1934, three weeks after a contest to select an official school nickname by the Silver and Gold newspaper had come to an end and "Buffaloes" was the winning entry. The nickname was officially bestowed upon the school's teams at halftime of the Homecoming game against Utah. For the final game of the '34 season, some students paid $25 to rent a buffalo calf mascot along with a real cowboy as his keeper. It took the cowboy and four students to keep the calf under control on the sidelines, a 7-0 win over the University of Denver on Thanksgiving Day.

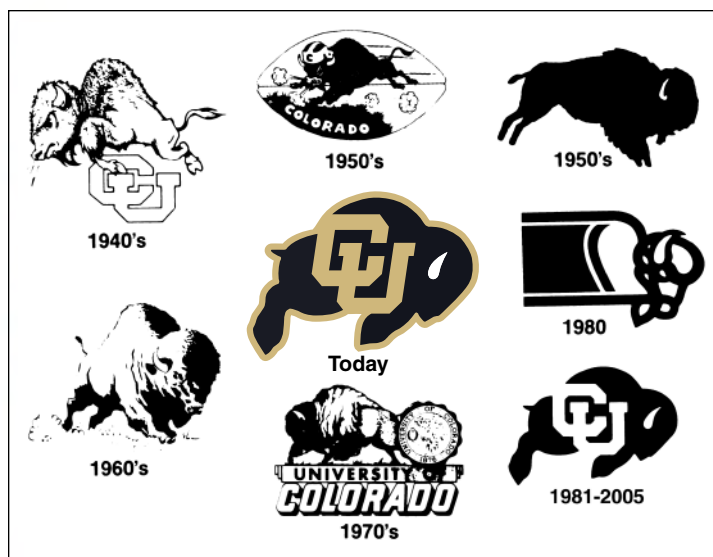

Prior to 1934, CU athletic teams usually were referred to as the "Silver and Gold", but other nicknames teams were sometimes called included Silver Helmets, Yellow Jackets, Hornets, Arapahoes, Big Horns, Grizzlies and Frontiersmen. The campus newspaper announced the contest in the fall of 1934, with a $5 prize to go to the author of the winning selection. Claude Bates of New Madrid, Mo., and James Proffitt of Cincinnati, Ohio, were co-winners for the prize as both submitted Buffaloes as their entry. Athletic Director Harry Carlson, graduate manager Walter Franklin and Kenneth Bundy of the Silver and Gold were the judges. Through the years, synonyms which quickly came into use included "Bison", "Buffs", "Thundering Herd", "Stampeding Herd", "Golden Avalanche", and "Golden Buffaloes".

CU Fight Song

Fight CU down the field,
CU must win
Fight, fight for victory
CU knows no defeat
We'll roll up a mighty score
Never give in Shoulder to shoulder
We will fight, fight
Fight, fight, fight!

Alma Mater

Hail, all hail our alma mater
Ever will our hearts be true
You will live with us forever
Loyal will we be to you
We sing forever your praises
Evermore our love renew
Pledge our whole devotion to you
Dear old CU.

CU ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

The University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1998 to recognize outstanding individual and team accomplishments and to preserve the heritage and tradition of the CU Athletic Department.

Appropriately, one of CU's most distinguished alumni, former United States Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, was the lone member inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 1998.

The CU Athletic Hall of Fame includes 47 individuals and one team. CU women's basketball is represented by five individuals, four players and one coach. The players are Lisa Van Goor (1999), Shelley Sheetz (2004), Tera Bjorklund (2010) and Bridget Turner (2010). Former head coach Ceal Barry was also inducted in 2010.

An additional 12 CU greats will be inducted in November, 2012.
