2012-13 OUTLOOK

Colorado women's basketball knows where it wants to be at the end of the season, it's the same place 300-plus other NCAA Division I women's teams want to be.

But head coach Linda Lappe's third-year Buffaloes aren't concerned about where they want to be five months from now. They are worried about today; what the team is doing on any given day to get better. Then from there the end results should take care of themselves.

"What we have really focused on is doing something that is uncommon," Lappe said. "More so than getting to the NCAA Tournament, which we can't do (today), every day we are working towards that, and that is the ultimate goal, but we have tried to focus on taking it one day at a time and understanding what that takes (to get there)."

As the 2012-13 season begins, Lappe and her staff have the luxury of the most experience they've had in their time on the bench. In her first season, five freshmen and sophomores were part of the regular rotation. Two years later, those five players are now juniors and seniors with a combined 394 games played and 219 starts.

More importantly, beyond the sheer numbers of games, the variety of experience has been wide in range. They've experienced winning tight games; big games at home and on the road. They've beaten ranked teams; they've won win-or-go home contests.

The two with the most experience are Colorado's senior duo of Chucky Jeffery and Meagan Malcolm-Peck, who bring different types of game and leadership to the floor. Jeffery, a 5-10 guard, is a returning All-Pac-12 Conference performer and one of the most dynamic players in team history. She led Colorado in scoring (15.5 ppg), rebounding (8.0 rpg), assists (3.8 apg) and steals (2.3 spg) and is among CU's career leaders in those categories, and then some.

Malcolm-Peck looks to rebound from a year where her numbers were down but her leadership qualities certainly were not. She enters this season CU's active leader in starts (81) and games played (98). Malcolm-Peck averaged 4.3 points and 4.3 rebounds as a junior, but is the unquestioned vocal leader on the team. So much so that she was named captain for this season, shortly after last year ended.

"I feel like we have had great leadership from Meagan so far this year," Lappe said. "She has really set the tone for the rest of our players and done a great job communicating. Anything that comes up, she is sure she is on top of it."

Chucky Jeffery

Meagan's twin sister Brenna Malcolm-Peck is Colorado's third senior. Brenna has played just three games over the past two years, continuing to fight back from chronic knee injuries. Her future playing status remains uncertain, but she continues to be a valuable asset to her teammates.

Colorado's junior twin guards, Ashley and Brittany Wilson, and fellow classmate Rachel Hargis have also benefitted from two solid years of game action. Brittany Wilson was second on the team in scoring, assists and steals as a sophomore and really shined during the Buffaloes postseason run averaging 13.7 points and four rebounds over the final six games.

Ashley Wilson provided a spark of energy off the bench and thrived in that role. She did a lot of the grunt work for the Buffaloes and was particularly crafty on the offensive boards. Despite her 5-8 stature, Ashley Wilson compiled 97 rebounds (2.9 rpg), 43 of which came on the offensive end.

Hargis continues to grow as a solid low-post presence for the Buffaloes. She started the first half of last season, but came off the bench in the second half primarily to give CU a better matchup against finesse Pac-12 teams. Either way, Hargis has contributed positive minutes, especially defensively. She has been one of Colorado's better shot blockers the last two seasons, entering her junior year with 50, good enough for 17th on CU's all-time list.

Even with the experience of veteran players, the Buffaloes will still expect their three sophomores and four freshmen to make a huge impact, greatly improving the depth of the team.

Guard Lexy Kresl set Colorado's freshman record for 3-pointers made last season with 63. Forward Jen Reese led all Pac-12 freshmen in rebounding on a per game basis (6.0) and shot 45 percent from the floor before her season ended nine games early with an injury. Guard/forward Jasmine Sborov came on strong at the end of last season, essentially moving into the starting line-up after Reese went down.

Lexy Kresl

"We are still going to be young but our veterans have all played and that is something we have to utilize in the preseason and as we head into the conference season," Lappe said. "In a lot of ways we are ahead of where we were last year, and I think every year builds on the last, so that's not surprising, we should be ahead of where we were last year."

That depth is more pronounced with a solid group of freshmen, with each bringing something different to the table.

One freshman, not so new, is forward Arielle Roberson. The younger sister of CU men's basketball standout, Andre, Arielle was a redshirt in the CU program last season after developing a torn labrum in her left hip. She was one of the better players out of the state of Texas in 2011, and is hungry to contribute.

Colorado's incoming freshman class was rated as the 27th best in the nation according to ESPN.com HoopGurlz, and that doesn't count Roberson who came in with the 2011 class.

Jamee Swan, a 6-2 forward from Tucson, Ariz., was an honorable mention WBCA All-American and ranked as the eighth best forward in the nation, and 38th best player overall. Lauren Huggins, a 6-1 guard/forward from Littleton, Colo., was also a Top 100 player, ranking as the 11th best wing and 64th best player overall. Kyleesha Weston, a 5-7 guard from Kansas City, Mo., is this staff's first true point guard recruit, coming off a year where she was a finalist for the DiRenna Award, given to the top girls player in the K.C. metro area.

Swan averaged 20.8 points and 12.8 rebounds as a senior and will be a big factor down low for the Buffaloes. Huggins can stretch the court with extensive range. She hit 5-of-6 from 3-point range at the 2012 edition of "The Show" Colorado's annual high school all-star game, earning MVP honors.

Weston averaged 18 points and five assists for Park Hill High School, but more importantly her addition will allow Colorado to have both Jeffery and Brittany Wilson spend more time off the ball, giving the Buffaloes more offensive and defensive options.

"I think fans will be happy to see our freshmen, they have really gotten off to a great start," Lappe said. "I know fans always like to see new faces, and I think we have three really good freshmen that will contribute in their own separate ways."

The key for the Buffaloes will be to continue to build on what they've already accomplished, from previous seasons for the veterans and off season workouts for the whole team.

"We challenged our team over the summer to get better as individuals, our guards to become better ball handlers, our shooters to become more accurate from the outside and the inside, and our post to really work on their low-post game, and I feel like they all did that throughout the summer," Lappe said. "So we have been able to see the biggest progression just on the court."

"Our players have come in every day with the right attitude and work ethic. It has been fun to coach them on individual skills, and not having to worry about if they are going to come in and be ready to go every single day."

If the Buffaloes end up where they want to be five months from now, it will be at home. Colorado will serve as one of eight NCAA Tournament first- and-second round hosts, March 23 & 25 at the Coors Events Center. But there is a lot to do between now and then.

"Our staff has a lot of experience in the NCAA Tournament and we're all on the same page in understanding all the tools needed to get there," Lappe said. "The fact is, it's not easy to get there and just because we are hosting it doesn't mean we are in, we've got a lot of work to do before that."

Chucky Jeffery

Guard • 5-10 • Senior • 3L • Colorado Springs, Colo. (Sierra)

Chucky Jeffery is one of the most dynamic players in the history of Colorado women's basketball, with the ability to do just about anything on the floor. She can score, rebound and defend while running the team from the point position. She has established herself as one of the elite guards in the Pac-12 Conference, and will be looking to lead her team to the next level. Already prominent in the Colorado record books, she enters her senior year ranking sixth in assists (358), ninth in steals (216), 12th in rebounds (667), 16th in blocks (57), 17th in field-goals made (456) and 18th in scoring (1,218), 3-point field goals made (52) and free-throws made (254). Her 20 double-doubles are sixth, 21 double-figure rebounding games rank eighth and her 66 double-digit scoring games rank 16th on CU's career charts.

2011-12 (Junior): Colorado's leader in nearly every major statistical category, averaging 15.5 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 2.3 steals. She was tabbed All-Pac-12 by both the coaches and the media. The coaches also selected Jeffery to the Pac-12 All-Defensive team, a first for a CU women's basketball player in any conference. On the Pac-12 leaderboard, she ranked fourth in assists, fifth in steals, sixth in scoring and defensive rebounds (6.1 drpg), eighth in overall rebounding, 10th in assist-to-turnover ratio (0.8), 12th in field-goal percentage (.445) and 13th in free-throw percentage (.680). She became the 24th player in team history to reach 1,000 career points in the loss at Oregon (2/4) and in the process was the 10th to reach that milestone before her senior year and tied for the ninth fastest overall at 81 games (Tera Bjorklund, 2000-04). On CU's single-season ledger, she ranked fourth in minutes played (1,161), fifth in field-goal attempts (474), seventh in steals (82), eighth in field-goals made (211), ninth in points (541) and rebounds (280) and 11th in assists (133). Her 30 double-figure scoring games in 2011-12 rank sixth on CU's single-season list while her 10 double-doubles were seventh. She holds two of the program's three triple-doubles, recording her second with 12 points, 12 rebounds and a career-high tying 10 assists in the WNIT quarterfinal loss at Oklahoma State (3/25). Jeffery recorded her second straight season with at least 125 assists and 75 steals (eighth instance overall), joining Bridget Turner as the only CU players to do it twice. She averaged 15.8 points and 11.8 rebounds in the Postseason WNIT, and adding in the Pac-12 Tournament, Jeffery had double-doubles in her last three and four of her last six games. She averaged 18 points and 10.5 rebounds in two Pac-12 Tournament games. Jeffery proved to be a clutch player in several of Colorado's 21 wins, and logged the decisive points in back-to-back wins, a jumper at Arizona (1/22) with 17.7 seconds left and two free throws at home against USC (1/26) with 1.2 seconds remaining. Jeffery was named Pac-12 Conference Player of the Week on Dec. 5, after averaging 28 points and 11 rebounds on 64.5 percent from the field in wins over San Francisco (11/30) and Idaho (12/4). She scored a career and team-season high 30 points in the win over Idaho, also nabbing 10 rebounds in that contest. The Idaho game was the last of three-straight double-doubles for Jeffery, a feat matched only by one other guard in CU history (Turner). She was MVP of the Omni Hotels Classic averaging 14 points, 10 rebounds and four assists in wins over Valparaiso (11/25) and Wisconsin (11/26). Her 9-of-10 performance from the field against Denver was the best by a CU player on a minimum 10 attempts since Jackie McFarland was 9-of-10 against CSU Bakersfield on Dec. 28, 2007. On the junior season charts she finished second in assists, third in scoring and fourth in steals and rebounds.

2010-11 (Sophomore): Led Colorado in assists (4.3 apg) and steals (2.5 spg) while ranking second in scoring (13.5 ppg) and rebounding (7.9). She was second in the Big 12 in defensive rebounds (6.0 drpg) while ranking third in steals, fifth in overall rebounding, seventh in assists, 10th in field-goal percentage (.471), 15th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.1), and 16th in scoring. Jeffery teamed with Brittany Spears (8.1 rpg) to give the Buffaloes the best 1-2 rebounding combo in the Big 12 in 2011 at 16 per game. Jeffery totaled 128 assists and 76 steals, marking only the seventh time in team history a player has had at least 125 assists and 75 steals in the same season. She was the sixth different player to achieve that feat and the first since Shelley Sheetz in 1993-94. Her 128 assists were the most by a CU player since Mandy Nightingale had 161 in 2001-02 and 14th overall on CU's single-season list. Her 76 steals ranked seventh on CU's single-season charts. She had six or more steals in four games (Regis, Evansville, Colgate and Kansas) and at least three steals in 14 of 30 games. She had a career and team season-high seven steals in the win over Colgate (12/30). It was the 21st time a Buff has registered seven or more steals in a game, but the first since Damietta Velicica had seven vs. Tulane on December 6, 1997. Jeffery put together one of the season's most memorable individual performances in the championship game of the Omni Hotels Classic against Loyola Chicago (11/27) when she recorded the second triple-double in team history with 10 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists during CU's 65-34 win. She nearly had another with 12 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists in CU's 73-68 win over No. 16/15 Oklahoma (2/23). In all, Jeffery logged nine double-doubles, tying for fourth on the Big 12 charts. Jeffery scored in double-digits in 24 of 30 games played, including a career high 25 against UT-Martin (11/21). She had 10 games of double-digit rebounds, including a season and career high of 13, which she achieved three times in a four game stretch during the nonconference schedule (Loyola, Texas State, Colorado State).

2009-10 (Freshman): Averaged 9.3

points, 5.2 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.0 steals as a first-year Buffalo. She led the Buffaloes in assists, ranked second in rebounding and steals and third in scoring. Her numbers stayed even throughout the year as she averaged 9.3 points, 4.8 rebounds and 3.4 assists during Big 12 games. Jeffery's two steals an outing tied for fourth in the Big 12 and also matched the best among league freshmen. She was also 10th in overall assists on the league charts and ranked 13th in assist-to-turnover ratio (0.8). Among freshmen in the Big 12, she ranked fourth in assists and fifth in scoring. Jeffery earned Big 12 Freshman of the Week honors on Jan. 11 after averaging 15.5 points, 7.5 rebounds, 6.5 assists and 5.0 steals in wins over Yale (1/4) and Missouri (1/9). She dished out a team season-high nine assists against Yale and also recorded one of her three personal-best 19-point performances, hitting all seven shot attempts from the field. She was named to the Omni Hotels Classic All-Tournament team as she averaged 12.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 2.5 steals and shot 61 percent (11-of-16) in the two game set. She scored 14 points in the championship game of the Omni Hotels Classic against Harvard, including the decisive basket on a driving layup with five seconds remaining in the contest. She came off the bench in her collegiate debut, but started in the final 28 games she played in, missing only one contest (Grambling State, 12/30) with a sprained ankle. Logged her first career double-double against No. 6 (AP)/4 (WBCA) Nebraska (1/30) with 14 points and a then career-best 11 rebounds.

High School: Jeffery is a 2009 graduate of Sierra High School. Jeffery averaged 22.1 points, 12.9 rebounds, 4.9 steals, 4.6 assists and 3.0 blocks as a senior leading the Stallions to a 22-3 record and their third consecutive Colorado Springs Metro League title and Class 4A State quarterfinal appearance. She was named to the Denver Post Class 4A All-State first team and repeated as the Colorado Springs Gazette Big Schools Player of the Year. As a junior, she averaged 19.2 points, 11.5 rebounds, 4.6 steals, 3.8 assists and 1.8 blocks leading Sierra to a 22-4 mark. She was a Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 4A All-State second team selection as a junior. Jeffery holds all 14 individual basketball season and career records at Sierra, setting the marks her junior year and then resetting the season marks as a senior. She had 18 double-doubles as a junior and even added one triple double logging 20 points, 10 rebounds and 12 steals in a game against Lincoln High School. Jeffery played in "The Show," in March 2009, Colorado's annual high school all-star game. She played club basketball with the Boulder Rockies in 2007-08. Jeffery also earned two letters in track & field, running the 100 meter dash and hurdles and the 4x100 meter relay. Her favorite high school moments were hitting a game winning shot at Pine Creek her freshman season and her first triple double her sophomore year as she went for 30 points, 10 rebounds and 10 steals against Pueblo South.

Academics: Jeffery is sociology major at Colorado. She earned the Most Improved Student-Athlete Award at the 2012 Academic Banquet, one of three recipients across all 16 of Colorado's varsity sport programs.

Personal: Janeesa "Chucky" Jeffery was born May 8, 1991 in Colorado Springs. She is the daughter of Alana Riley and Alfred Jeffrey, Jr. She has two older sisters, Allea Clayton (23) and Ta'meesha Jeffery (22) and one younger sister, Faleesa (18). Allea was a star point guard in high school and Ta'meesha competed in track & field and cheerleading. Faleesa graduated from high school in 2012, where she participated in basketball, track sprints (200 meters, relays) and long jump. She is a cousin of former Colorado football player Phil Jackson (2000-03). Chucky enjoys rap, drawing and shopping. She would like to play in the WNBA or overseas after college. Chucky played youth football for eight years in Colorado Springs, rising from rookie to heavyweight levels.

GETTING TO KNOW CHUCKY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: My teammates and the atmosphere we create for each other.

Favorite quote: "Hold The Rope."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: When we beat Villanova in the WNIT on a defensive stop by Lexy and I grabbed the rebound as time ran out. Recording my second triple-double at Oklahoma State in the round of 8 in the WNIT.

My dream job is: To play professionally in the WNBA and overseas. Then eventually becoming a coach or sports broadcaster.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Hanging out with my teammates.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why? Family Hustle because T.I. is one my favorite people.

One word to describe me off the court is: Spontaneous

My pregame rituals are: I listen to the same play list each game.

One thing people don't know about me is: I sing all the time (not good, I just love to sing)!

The three things I cannot live without are: Family, Phone, Basketball.

Best talent not related to basketball: Drawing

Pet peeves: I have to squeeze the toothpaste from the very bottom of the tube; I color coordinate almost everything.

Hidden Talents: Rapping

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE? Jen Reese

Background picture on your phone: My mom, sisters, and significant other.

On your iPod right now: A bunch of R&B, Slow jams, and old school songs.

First concert: Scream tour with bow wow and chris brown

A dream vacation for me is: Bora Bora

I wish I knew how to...: Sing better

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Helping individuals that are in need.

A perfect day for me is when: I get enough sleep, eat a good breakfast with bacon, classes go good, practices are productive and we get better, going home eating a good dinner and relaxing.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Gino Auriemma

And I would ask that person: How do I become excellent?

Most memorable moment in sports: Recording my first triple double as a sophomore in high school.

Hobbies: Eating, sleeping, drawing, singing, shopping, bowling, skating

My plans after graduation are: Playing professionally.

My favorite class at CU: Criminology

My hero is: My mother Alana

Advice to young athletes: Always work hard and give your maximum effort to become the best you can be! Push yourself to become a better person in and out of your sport and never lose the passion you have for what you do. The sky isn't the limit... there are footprints on the moon!

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Meagan Malcolm-Peck

Guard/Forward • 6-2 • Senior • 3L • Boulder, Colo. (Horizon)

Meagan Malcolm-Peck brings valuable experience to a young Colorado team. With nearly 100 collegiate games under her belt, she will be counted on to be a floor leader in her final season. A very smart player with an excellent skill set, she is one of Colorado's better mid-to-long range shooters, making it difficult to defend her. Malcolm-Peck is at her best when shooting in rhythm offensively and attacking the boards on both sides of the floor.

Career: Malcolm-Peck enters her senior season ranking 12th in career 3-point field goals (80) and blocked shots (66) on CU's all-time charts.

2011-12 (Junior): Averaged 4.3 points and 4.1 rebounds over 34 games, missing just one (San Francisco, 11/30), due to illness. Maintained her usual spot in the rotation, starting in 33 games, and will enter her senior year with the most games started (81), and played (98), by any current Buffalo. She ranked third on the squad in both offensive rebounds (63) and assists (43). Malcolm-Peck had 13 games with five or more rebounds, recording a season high with nine against UT-Pan American (12/20) and again during the overtime home loss to UCLA (1/29). She scored her 500th career point at California (2/25) on a first-half 3-pointer. Malcolm-Peck made just 20 free throws on the season, but none bigger than the decisive point in the road Pac-12 win against Washington State (1/7). She scored a season-high 12 points in the road win at Colorado State (11/20). She ended her season on a high note, averaging eight points and shot 43 percent from (16). Her 3-point percentage ranked 13th overall on the Big 12 charts, and improved once the league season started. Malcolm-Peck made 40.8 percent (20-of-49) from downtown during the Big 12 schedule, the fifth best mark among conference combatants. She made two or more 3-point field goals in 12 games and hit 50 or percent better in 11 of those contests. Overall, she shot 50 percent or better from behind the arc in 13 outings. Malcolm-Peck played a big role in CU's 66-60 overtime upset win over No. 17/16 Iowa State (1/15). Hobbled by a sore ankle, she scored 10 points on 3-of-4 from the field in an efficient 14 minutes and hit a pair of clutch free throws late in overtime to help seal the win. Malcolm-Peck had three double-doubles, two of which came off the bench. She scored a season-best 16 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in a hard-fought loss to No. 3 Baylor (3/5). Her other double-double off the bench was an 11-point, 10-rebound effort against North Dakota (1/4). She had 10 games of scoring in double-digits.

2009-10 (Freshman): Averaged 5.3 points, 3.7 rebounds, 1.1 blocked shots per game. She led the Buffaloes with 34 blocks, the fifth-best single-season mark by a freshman in team history. Malcolm-Peck ranked third among freshmen in the Big 12 in blocks and ninth overall on the league charts. She started 26 of 30 games, playing nearly 25 minutes per contest. She had a memorable collegiate debut, grabbing a personal-best 11 rebounds against UC Irvine, six of which came on the defensive end. Her 11 boards were the third most in team history by a freshman in her CU debut and the most in 27 years. Malcolm-Peck was named Big 12 Freshman of the Week on Dec. 28 after recording 10 rebounds, four points, four steals, three assists and three blocks against San Jose State (12/22). She was a perfect 4-of-4 from the 3-point arc against Yale (1/4), just one off the school record for 3-pointers without a miss in one game. Registered a career-best 19 points against Yale. She delivered one of the clutch performances of the season at Kansas State (1/20). After making just 7-of-16 free-throw attempts to begin her collegiate career, she sank two attempts with 17 seconds remaining to give CU a four-point lead and eventually a 63-57 road win. Her road magic continued a month later at Missouri (2/23) as she hit the game-winning shot in overtime, a layup with 55 seconds remaining.

High School: Meagan Malcolm-Peck was home schooled, graduating in May 2009. She had an outstanding four-year high school athletic career playing basketball for Horizon High School in Thornton as a junior and senior and ThunderRidge High School in Highlands Ranch as a freshman and sophomore. A 2009 Denver Post Colorado Class 5A All-State first team selection, Malcolm-Peck averaged 18 points and 8.4 rebounds guiding Horizon to a 25-2 record and a spot in the state semifinals. Playing alongside her twin sister and CU teammate Brenna Malcolm-Peck, the Hawks were the No. 1 ranked team in Colorado's largest classification for most of 2009 winning the Front Range League title and the Black Division crown at the Nike Tournament of Champions in Phoenix, where she was named MVP. Malcolm-Peck was a Street & Smith honorable mention All-American, All-Front Range League, All-Metro North Region Player of the Year, ESPN All-Area All-Colorado first team and was a Denver Nuggets All-Star playing in "The Show" with her sister and classmate Chucky Jeffery. Malcolm-Peck averaged 13 points and 8 rebounds as a junior helping the Hawks to a 17-7 record, the Front Range League title and the Class 5A "Sweet 16." She earned honorable mention to the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 5A All-State teams and was a first team All-Front Range Conference and All-Metro North Region pick. Meagan was a second team All-Continental League pick as a sophomore, leading ThunderRidge in scoring at 11 points per game helping her team to an 18-8 mark and an Elite Eight appearance. As a freshman she averaged 5 points and 1.6 rebounds as ThunderRidge was 21-4 and advanced to the Class 5A semis. Meagan is rated the 22nd best forward in the country and 95th overall by ESPN Hoopgurlz and 121st by the All-Star Girls Report. She played on numerous championship teams with her Colorado Elite Club Team which she participated in from eighth through 12th grade. In the summer of 2008 she played with the Blue Star Select Team, traveling to Reze, France, with her sister. She also participated in the Nike All-American camp.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Academics: Malcolm-Peck is majoring in business at Colorado and is interested in teaching and coaching kids. She was named to the Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball second team as a sophomore. In high school, Malcolm-Peck was a member of the Front Range League All-Academic team.

Personal: Meagan Malcolm-Peck was born on October 8, 1990 in Boulder 27 minutes after her twin sister Brenna. She also has one younger sister, Jacqueline (18), who is a senior in high school. She is the daughter of Kirk Peck and Melissa Malcolm-Peck. She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as beating Regis her senior year on their home court. Meagan enjoys traveling and can play the piano.

GETTING TO KNOW MEAGAN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The way we're all a second family to each other, coaching staff included.

Favorite quote: "Excellence is the Result of Caring more than others think is Wise, Risking more than others think is Safe, Dreaming more than others think is Practical, and Expecting more than others think is Possible."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Winning the Omni Classic

My dream job is: Doing something where I can really help people and make an impact on their lives.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Get ice cream on Pearl Street or go to the movies.

One word to describe me off the court is: Happy

My pregame rituals are: Get some shots up, get treatment on whatever hurts, do my hair, change into my game gear, and get on the court to warm up.

One thing people don't know about me is: I can juggle basketballs

The three things I cannot live without are: Family, Friends, and food

My goofy superstition is: I wear my socks on the wrong feet on game day, and if I'm not playing well I put my hair into a bun.

Best talent not related to basketball: Playing the piano.

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be? To be invisible

Pet Peeves: People that chew too loudly or breathe loudly out of their mouths constantly.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE? Lexy Kresl

Background picture on your phone: A picture of Ashley and I at last year's CSU vs. CU football game.

On your iPod right now: A lot of country music.

First concert: Kenny Chesney

A dream vacation for me is: Being on the beach with the people I care about most.

I wish I knew how to...: Play the guitar

A perfect day for me is when: Get a good workout in in the morning, it's a beautiful day outside and friends and I go to a restaurant and sit outside and relax, and maybe go to a movie at night.

Hobbies: Hiking with my dog

My plans after graduation are: Travel and get a job.

My favorite class at CU: Product Strategy

My hero is: My mom

Advice to young athletes: Always give 100% in everything you do- it's worth it. Don't worry about the little things because they won't matter in a couple years. Do what makes you happy, smile, and laugh constantly. Remember, "One thing we know for sure is that we all only have a limited number of days here on earth. So each day we can either find something to complain about or something to be grateful for, it's really up to us."

Brenna Malcolm-Peck

Guard/Forward • 6-2 • Senior • 1L • Boulder, Colo. (Horizon)

Brenna Malcolm-Peck has a great work ethic and pushes herself and her teammates to be their best. She is looking to bounce back from injuries that have forced her to miss one full season and the majority of two others. She has the ability to hit the outside shot while also crashing the boards.

2011-12 (Sophomore): Played in just three games as injuries took a toll on her redshirt sophomore season. She was cleared to play in the fall of 2011, but missed the first seven games recovering from a concussion. Malcolm-Peck made her season debut in the final minute of the Denver game (12/8), her first action since Feb. 27, 2010. She scored her first points in nearly two calendar years, with a pair of free throws against Texas-Pan American (12/20). Malcolm-Peck played her final game against No. 4 Stanford (1/14). She missed the final 19 games of the season with a left knee injury.

2010-11 (Redshirt): Missed the 2010-11 season with a hyper-extended left knee, suffered during preseason workouts. She remained active with the team as she worked through rehabilitation.

2009-10 (Freshman): Played in 14 games as a true freshman, mostly during non conference play. Malcolm-Peck scored 16 points on the season with six rebounds and five assists. She recorded personal bests with six points on 2-of-3 from 3-point range and two assists in the win over Grambling State (12/30). She had four points, including her first career 3-pointer in the win over Denver (12/2). Malcolm-Peck made her collegiate debut against Illinois-Chicago, recording a rebound and an assist.

High School: Malcolm-Peck was home schooled, graduating in May 2009. She had a very successful four-year high school athletic career playing basketball for Horizon High School in Thornton as a junior and senior and ThunderRidge High School in Highlands Ranch as a freshman and sophomore. As a senior she averaged 15 points and four rebounds helping Horizon to a 25-2 record and a spot in the Colorado Class 5A State semifinals. Malcolm-Peck shot 47 percent from the field and 82 percent from the line for the Hawks as she earned honorable mention to the Denver Post Class 5A All-State team. Playing alongside her twin sister and CU teammate Meagan Malcolm-Peck, the Hawks were the No. 1 ranked team in Colorado's largest classification for most of 2009 winning the Front Range League title and the Black Division crown at the Nike Tournament of Champions in Phoenix. Malcolm-Peck was a Street & Smith honorable mention All-American, All-Front Range League, ESPN All-Area All-Colorado first team and was a Denver Nuggets All-Star playing in "The Show" with her sister and classmate Chucky Jeffery. Malcolm-Peck averaged 12 points and 4.5 rebounds as a junior helping the Hawks to a 17-7 record, the Front Range League title and the Class 5A "Sweet 16." As a sophomore she missed the first half of the season but bounced back to average 8.0

points and 2.4 rebounds to help ThunderRidge to an 18-8 mark and an Elite Eight appearance. As a freshman she averaged 5.5 points and 1.7 rebounds as ThunderRidge was 21-4 and advanced to the Class 5A semis. Brenna is rated as the 24th best forward in America and 97th overall by ESPN Hoopgurlz and the 122nd overall player according to the All-Star Girls Report. She played on numerous championship teams with her Colorado Elite Club Team which she participated in from eighth through 12th grade. In the summer of 2008 she played with the Blue Star Select Team, traveling to Reze, France, with her sister. She also participated in the Nike All-American camp.

Academics: Malcolm-Peck is majoring in business at Colorado. She is a team representative to CU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. She was a member of the Front Range League All-Academic team in High School.

Personal: Brenna Malcolm-Peck was born on October 8, 1990 in Boulder 27 minutes before her twin sister Meagan. She also has a second younger sister, Jacqueline (18), who is a senior in high school. She is the daughter of Kirk Peck and Melissa Malcolm-Peck. She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as beating Regis her senior year and making it to the state final four. Brenna enjoys traveling, horseback riding and anything adventurous or outdoors. She plays the piano and likes to write songs.

GETTING TO KNOW BRENNA

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: My amazing teammates.

Favorite quote: Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take but by the moments that take our breath away.

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Being undefeated in preseason.

My dream job is: Something that involves being able to travel.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go to Pearl Street or go hiking with my dog.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Voice so I could meet Blake Shelton.

One word to describe me off the court is: Awesome

One thing people don't know about me is: I have a twin.

The three things I cannot live without are: My family, my friends, and sugar

Best talent not related to basketball: Playing the piano.

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Rachel falling down the stairs with her huge travel bag.

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: To be able to fly!

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Either Jen Reese or Lexy Kresl.

Background picture on your phone: A picture of my sisters and one with my best friend.

On your iPod right now: A lot of country artists.

First concert: Kenny Chesney

I wish I knew how to...: Play the guitar

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To be able to help other people and improve their lives.

A perfect day for me is when: I'm with my family and best friends (including my dog Zoe).

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Jason Aldean

And I would ask that person: To sing me a song.

Hobbies: Watching movies and hanging out with friends or doing anything outdoors.

My plans after graduation are: Travel for as long as I can and then find a job.

My favorite class at CU: My history class.

My hero is: My grandmother and my parents.

Advice to young athletes: You have to work hard but most importantly have fun. Live in the moment and cherish all the memories because time will fly by. You won't remember all the games you lost but you'll always remember the special times you've had with your team.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Rachel Hargis

Center • 6-4 • Junior • 2L • Robinson, Texas (Robinson)

The first signee of the Linda Lappe coaching era, Hargis is a good defender, who understands defensive concepts very well and has the ability to get her hands on the ball. She endured a transition of sorts from the Big 12 to the Pac-12 Conference last year, which on average features a more finesse post player. After a year of adjustment, and now as an upperclassman, Hargis has her sights set on a big season.

Career: One of Colorado's more consistent shot blockers over the past two seasons, she enters her junior season tied with Jenny Roulier (1998-02) for 17th in career blocked shots with 50.

2011-12 (Sophomore): Hargis saw her scoring and rebounding numbers rise slightly in her second year, averaging 3.7 points and 3.2 rebounds per game. She played in all 35 games and started the first 17 before Colorado switched to a smaller, quicker lineup during league play. Hargis had a career night against Texas-Pan American (12/20) at the UTSA Holiday Classic. Playing in her home state, she recorded her first career double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds in 31 minutes against UTPA. She had one other double-digit scoring game, netting 10 in the home loss to California (1/12). Fifteen of her season's 26 blocked shots came during Pac-12 play, ranking 14th in the league in conference only contests. She had nine games with five or more rebounds, including seven in the WNIT win over South Dakota (3/19). Her first collegiate start came in the season opener against Northern Arizona (11/11) where she pitched in a then-personal best nine points on 4-of-7 from the field. She played a career-best 33 minutes in the Omni Classic championship cially on the defensive end. She ranked second on the team in blocked shots with 24, which was also the third best total among freshmen in the Big 12. She stepped it up in that category during league play as 16 of those 24 blocks came during the conference schedule ranking 11th on the overall league charts. Hargis was a sub .500 free-throw shooter on the season (.489), but she made 14 of her last 18 attempts (.778). Hargis ranked fourth on the team with 17 steals. She had a career night against Nebraska netting personal bests with six points and eight rebounds in 26 minutes. Hargis had seven games with five or more rebounds. She recorded a career and team-season high four blocked shots at No. 20/23 Iowa State (2/19).

High School: Hargis is a 2010 graduate of Robinson High School, located just southeast of Waco, Texas. She averaged 14.4 points, 7.1 rebounds and 3.5 blocks per game while shooting 52 percent from the field as a senior, guiding the Rockets to an overall record of 20-12, a second place finish in District 19-3A and a spot in the 3A Region Quarterfinals. Hargis had a story book junior season in 2009 as Robinson went 34-5 and won the Texas 3A state championship. She was named the championship game MVP, scoring 20 points and recording 13 rebounds in the Rockets' 49-33 win over Argyle High School. Hargis was named to the All-State Tournament Team and All-Region Tournament Team. She averaged 10.4 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.2 blocks as a junior, earning Waco Tribune-Herald SuperCenTex First Team honors as well as All-District 19-3A First Team accolades. Hargis was named to the Waco Tribune-Herald's SuperCenTex Second Team as a sophomore and a senior. She was a three-year all-district performer. She played AAU ball with the DFW Elite on the T-Jack Elite squad. Hargis was rated the No. 43 post player in the nation by ESPN.com's HoopGurlz coming out of high school, and she was a 2010 McDonald's All-American Game nominee. She was a four-time academic all-district selection and was also involved in the National Honor Society, volleyball, track & field, Spirit Leading and FCA at Robinson.

Academics: Hargis is undecided on a college major, but is interested in psychology and physical therapy.

Personal: Rachel Marie Hargis was born on March 12, 1992, in San Antonio. She is the daughter Gary and Alicia Hargis. She is one of four children with two older brothers, Matt (25) and Joel (23) and one younger brother, Jordan (19). She says the biggest moment in her high school career was being named MVP after winning the state championship her junior year. Hargis is ambidextrous as she writes left-handed and does almost everything else with her right hand.

GETTING TO KNOW RACHEL

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The team! We have so much fun together and get along great.

Favorite quote: "Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate, it is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light not our darkness that most frightens us."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Beating USC at home!

My dream job is: Being able to do something I love to do every day.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go hiking!

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Real World. I think it would be awesome to live in a house with a bunch of young people in an awesome location.

One phrase to describe me off the court is: Down to earth.

My pregame rituals are: Listening to music really loud in the locker room!

One thing people don't know about me is: That I'm actually left handed but I'm actually ambidextrous and do most things with my right hand.

The three things I cannot live without are: Brownies, my bed, and my car.

My goofy superstition is: I always have to wear the same sports bra and spandex in the games.

Best talent not related to basketball: Line dancing

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: The day Jasmine jumped out of the closet in the lockerroom and scared Jen and we caught it on film.

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: Flying

Pet Peeves: People who are pessimistic

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen

Background picture on your phone: The beach in Port Aransas, Texas

On your iPod right now: Eric Church

First concert: Kevin Folwer (a Texas country artist)

A dream vacation for me is: The Bahamas

I wish I knew how to....: Play the piano

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Travel the world.

A perfect day for me is when: It's spent somewhere near water.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Brad Pitt

And I would ask that person: To take a picture with me

Most memorable moment in sports: Winning the state championship my junior year in high school.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: Julia Roberts would play me and Mila Kunis would play Jasmine and Arielle would be played by Halle Berry.

Hobbies: Horseback riding, hiking, and painting

My plans after graduation are: Not sure yet

My favorite class at CU: Intro to psychology with Dr. King.

My hero is: My mom

Advice to young athletes: Always fight for what you want.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Ashley Wilson

Guard • 5-8 • Junior • 2L • Long Beach, Calif. (Poly)

Ashley Wilson was a critical member of the Colorado rotation as a sophomore, primarily coming off the bench and providing an instant spark. She is an athletic guard who is a good defender and her energy off the bench was an asset for the Buffaloes in 2011-12. Wilson is at her best crashing the boards, where she often out hustles and out muscles bigger and stronger opponents.

2011-12 (Sophomore): Wilson saw her playing time increase nearly four minutes per game from her freshman to sophomore seasons, playing in all but one contest (missed the Creighton game with a concussion). She developed a knack for rebounding, especially on the offensive end. Wilson totalled 97 rebounds on the season (2.9 rpg), with 43 coming on the offensive side. She had five games with five or more rebounds and six games with three or more offensive boards. She established career-bests with five offensive rebounds, and seven total, in the Omni Hotels Classic win over Valparaiso (11/25). She reached double digits in scoring for the first time as a collegian with 13 against Weber State (12/17) and had nine points on four other occasions. Wilson was one of Colorado's more accurate shooters, making 47.8 percent on the season (44-of-92). She started five games, including the season opener against Northern Arizona (11/11) where she scored seven points and dished out a personal-best four assists. Wilson had a strong end to the season as well, averaging 4.7 points and three rebounds while hitting 7-of-13 from the field in the final six games. She made 5-of-7 from the floor over the four WNIT contests. In the quarterfinal against Oklahoma State, she hit all six of her foul shots, netting career highs for both free throws made and attempted.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

2010-11 (Freshman): Wilson played in 30 of 34 games averaging 2.1 points and 1.6 rebounds in just under 12 minutes per game. She had her best night against Texas State (12/1) scoring a career-best 10 points with five rebounds, three assists and one steal. Wilson played double-digit minutes in 18 games, including a personal-best 21 against Texas Tech. She had six games with three or more rebounds, including four against Oklahoma State – all on the offensive end. She grabbed 21 of her season’s 47 rebounds on the offensive end.

High School: Ashley Wilson is a 2010 graduate of Long Beach Poly High School. She played for one of the most storied programs in Southern California, as the Jackrabbits amassed a 131-9 record during her four year career with three California Division I state titles and one runner-up finish. She averaged 7.4 points, 2.9 steals and 2.3 rebounds per game as a senior, receiving all-Moore League acclaim as well as the Coaches Award for 2010, helping the Jackrabbits to the Moore League title and a runner-up state finish. Wilson averaged 6.2 points and shot 48 percent from the field as a junior, helping the Jackrabbits to a 32-3 record in 2008-09 and a fourth consecutive state title. ESPN RISE FAB 50 had Long Beach Poly ranked No. 1 in the nation early in the 2008-09 season, ending at No. 30 while USA Today’s final Super 25 rankings had the Jackrabbits at No. 23. She also ranked third on the team with 88 steals, helping Poly to the Moore League title with a perfect 12-0 mark. As a sophomore, Ashley averaged 6.2 points and 2.2 steals as Poly won its final 22 games to finish 31-2 and a third straight state crown. She contributed to the Poly powerhouse and was voted team co-Newcomer of the Year as freshman in 2007, as the Jackrabbits finished 36-1 and ranked No. 2 in the final USA Today’s Super 25 national rankings. Ashley ranks as the 58th best guard in the nation according to ESPN.com's HoopGurlz.

Academics: Wilson is a sociology as a major at Colorado.

Personal: Ashley Ayanna Wilson was born on February, 28, 1992 in Bellflower, Calif, five minutes before her twin sister Brittany. She is the daughter of Tasha Anderson, who is a counselor in Los Angeles. Besides her twin sister, she has another younger sister, Tyara Dupree (15) and a younger brother, C.J. (3). Ashley would like to be a social worker after college and enjoys writing poetry and listening to music.

GETTING TO KNOW ASHLEY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Everything feels so much like a family.

Favorite quote: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Beating Villanova.

My dream job is: Play professionally.

One word to describe me off the court is: Determined

My pregame rituals are: Call my mother and listen to music.

One thing people don't know about me is: I write poetry.

The three things I cannot live without are: God, My family and basketball

Best talent not related to basketball: Poetry

Favorite Superhero: Batman

Pet Peeves: When people take too long to text back or respond with one word.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen Reese

Background picture on your phone: Family

On your iPod right now: Wale

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Wale, Jay Z or Michael Jordan

And I would ask that person: The things they did and amount of work they put in to become successful.

My plans after graduation are: Go overseas

My favorite class at CU: Drugs in US Society

Advice to young athletes: Never let anyone tell you that you can't do something. Hard work and determination will get you many things in life.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Brittany Wilson

Guard • 5-7 • Junior • 2L • Long Beach, Calif. (Poly)

Brittany Wilson emerged as one of Colorado's best outside threats, increasing her productivity in every category from her freshman to sophomore seasons. She is a tenacious defender, who is not afraid of going up against any player in the country on either side of the court. Her ability to run helped the Buffaloes thrive in transition, either by setting up a teammate or finishing on her own. Her maturity on the court has blossomed, and now as an upper classmen will be counted on to set an example for her younger teammates.

Career: Wilson enters her junior year in 14th place on Colorado's all-time list for 3-point field goals with 70.

2011-12 (Sophomore): She ranked second on the team in several categories including scoring (9.1 ppg), assists (63), steals (47) and 3-point field goals made and attempted (44-of-141). Her 31.2 percent accuracy from downtown was 13th in the Pac-12 while she also ranked 14th in 3-pointers made per game (1.3) and 27th in scoring. Wilson scored in double figures 16 times this season, including in five of six postseason games. She reached 20 points three times, beginning the season with a career-best 22-point effort in the win over Northern Arizona (11/11). Her two other 20-point efforts had a "Southern California" flair for the L.A. native. She scored 21 points, hitting 8-of-15 from the field, in the win over USC (1/26), one of Colorado's most complete games of the season. Wilson also led the Buffaloes with 21 points against Utah (3/7) in the first round of the Pac-12 Tournament, played in front of her hometown crowd at USC's Galen Center. Wilson finished the season strong, averaging 13.7 points, four

2012-13 BUFFALOES

2010-11 (Freshman): Averaged 7.8 points, 3.4 rebounds and 1.8 assists per game. She was second on the team in assists (61), behind Chucky Jeffery and ranked third in scoring behind Jeffery and Brittany Spears. She was one of three Buffaloes – joining Spears and Jeffery — with at least 30 assists and 30 steals. Her 36 total steals ranked fifth among freshmen in the Big 12. Wilson worked her way into Colorado's starting lineup and started 21 of the last 22 games played. She made her first career start in the win over North Dakota (1/4), responding with 15 points with career highs in 3-point field goals (four) and steals (four). She recorded her first career double-double with 12 rebounds and 11 points against Missouri (1/22). Wilson had 12 games in double-digits, including 19, to go along with eight rebounds, in CU's 66-60 overtime upset win over No. 17/16 Iowa State (1/15). Wilson scored a personal-best 22 points at Kansas (2/2). She averaged 10.3 points in Colorado's four Postseason WNIT games.

High School: Brittany Wilson is a 2010 graduate of Long Beach Poly High School. She played for one of the most storied programs in Southern California, as the Jackrabbits amassed a 131-9 record during her four year career with three California Division I state titles and one runner-up finish. Wilson averaged 8.8 points, 2.5 steals and 2.4 assists per game in her senior season at Long Beach Poly as she was named first team all-state, was Co-MVP of the Moore League and was a McDonald's All-America candidate. She lists the biggest moment of her high school career was scoring 27 points against Fontana Summit in the Southern California semifinals, with a broken wrist. Wilson was named to the 2010 Long Beach Press Telegram's Girls Basketball Dream Team. As a junior, she averaged 7.9 points and 3.5 steals, was named to the All-California Interscholastic Federation (CIF)-Southern Section first team and the All-Moore League first team as the Jackrabbits won their fourth-straight California Division I title. ESPN RISE FAB 50 had Long Beach

Poly ranked No. 1 in the nation early in the 2008-09 season, ending at No. 30 while USA Today's final Super 25 rankings had the Jackrabbits at No. 23. She was a two-time All-CIF Southern Section selection and three-time All-Moore League first team pick. As a sophomore, Wilson averaged 4.1 points and 2.3 steals per game, assisting Poly to a No. 2 final national ranking by USA Today's Super 25. She was voted the team co-Newcomer of the Year, along with her sister, as a freshman in 2007 averaging 4.5 points and 1.7 rebounds. Wilson is ranked as the No. 32 shooting guard in the country, according to ESPN.com HoopGurlz.

Academics: Wilson plans to major sociology at Colorado.

Personal: Brittany Briandie Wilson was born on February 28, 1992 in Bellflower, Calif, five minutes after her twin sister Ashley. She is the daughter of Tasha Anderson, who is a counselor in Los Angeles. Besides her twin sister, she has one younger sister, Tyara Dupree (15) and a younger brother C.J. (3). She would like to play in the WNBA or overseas and eventually wants to be a crime scene investigator.

Lexy Kresl

Guard • 5-11 • Sophomore • 1L • Paradise Valley, Ariz. (Shadow Mountain)

Lexy Kresl made a nice transition to the collegiate game, establishing herself as one of the top freshmen in the Pac-12. She has a great stroke and is a fearless shooter from beyond the arc. Kresl will look to develop an all-around game as she aspires to make her mark as one of the top overall shooters in the Pac-12.

Career: After a record-setting freshman season from beyond the arc, Kresl already ranks 16th on CU's all-time list for 3-pointers made with 63.

2011-12 (Freshman): Kresl averaged nine points and led Colorado in 3-pointers made (63) and attempted (198) en route to Pac-12 All-Freshman honors voted on by the media. She earned honorable mention to the coaches' All-Freshman team. Kresl ranked second among Pac-12 freshman in 3-pointers and fifth in scoring. On the overall league charts, she was fifth in 3-pointers made (1.8 3mpg), 12th in 3-point percentage (.318) and 28th in scoring. Her 63 3-pointers were most by a CU freshman breaking the mark of 57 previously held by Brittany Spears (2007-08) and Shelley Sheetz (1991-92). It was the 12th time a CU player has made 60 3-pointers in one season and just the seventh different player to do so. She made a 3-pointer in 31-of-35 games. Kresl scored a career high 20 points on 6-of-7 from downtown in the win over Oregon State (3/3), the top single-game 3-point percentage in the Pac-12 this season. She was named to the UTSA

Classic All-Tournament team, averaging 14.5 points and hitting 50 percent from the field. Kresl topped off the tournament in style by hitting the game-winning 3-point shot at the buzzer against Creighton (12/21). She earned Omni Hotels Classic All-Tournament Team honors, scoring 16 points in the championship game against Wisconsin (11/26) including a team season-best 8-for-8 from the free throw line. She made 36-of-40 free throws on the season, and will carry a string of 17 straight made into the 2012-13 season. Kresl enjoyed a spectacular collegiate debut, tying a school record by hitting five 3-pointers in the first half against Northern Arizona (11/11), finishing with 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting. She registered six straight double-figure scoring games to begin her career, tying Shelley Sheetz for the second most in team history.

GETTING TO KNOW LEXY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The team chemistry! We are a great big family!

Favorite quote: "Storms make trees take deeper roots."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Hitting the '3' to win the game against Creighton during the UTSA Christmas Tournament!

My dream job is: My dream job is to be a physician's assistant...but it changes every day so you never know!

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: My favorite thing to do in Boulder is eat at all of the wonderful restaurants.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: I want to be on Vampire Diaries. I know it's not reality TV but I love that show!

One word to describe me off the court is: Reserved

My pregame rituals are: Eating a good meal, getting some shots up, heating and stretching, and a nap of course!

One thing people don't know about me is: I am a scary movie fanatic!

The three things I cannot live without are: My running shoes, my TV, and my debit card.

My goofy superstition is: I have to make the last shot before the game begins or I will play badly.

Best talent not related to basketball: Shopping!

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Going to the movie "Pitch Perfect" with my team! It was "acahilarious"!

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: To read minds

Pet Peeves: Bad grammar!

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Definitely me!

Background picture on your phone: A picture of my teammates and I.

On your iPod right now: Hunter Hayes

First concert: 'N sync or Britney Spears

A dream vacation for me is: The Bahamas

I wish I knew how to...: Cook yummy things!

A perfect day for me is when: I get to eat and sleep a lot!

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Ian Somerhalder

And I would ask that person: To marry me!

Most memorable moment in sports: Winning the state championship my junior year of high school.

Hobbies: Running, watching movies, going shopping, hiking!

My plans after graduation are: Graduate school

My favorite class at CU: Biology

My hero is: My brother Logan

Advice to young athletes: Hard work beats talent when talent fails to work hard!

HIGH SCHOOL: Lexy Kresl is a 2011 graduate of Shadow Mountain High School in Paradise Valley, Ariz., where she is the program's all-time leading scorer with 2,404 points. She earned consecutive All-Arizona, first-team all-state and regional player of the year accolades and was Arizona's leading scorer her junior and senior years. As a senior, she was a McDonald's All-American nominee after averaging 25 points and 14 rebounds per game. She was named Outstanding Female Athlete of the Year as a senior and earned an Arizona Women's Wendy's Heisman as a junior. During her junior season, Kresl led Shadow Mountain High School to the 2010 Arizona 4AI state title and was named tournament MVP. She was an ESPN Rise All-American after averaging 27 points and 12 rebounds per game. The same year she named Western Sky Player of the Year and earned all tournament honors at the Nike Tournament of Champions. As a sophomore in 2009, she averaged 16 points and seven rebounds, earning all-region honors. Kresl guided Shadow Mountain to a four-year record of 90-27. She played for two Nike Sponsored summer all-star teams, the Gregory Strickling Basketball program (2010-11) and the Arizona Swish (2007-09). Kresl also was a one-year letterwinner for the Shadow Mountain track & field team and recorded a sixth place finish in the state in the 800-meter run.

ACADEMICS: Kresl is an integrative physiology major at CU. She wants to be an orthodontist after she graduates from CU.

PERSONAL: Alexis "Lexy" Kresl was born on July 15, 1993, in Wisconsin to John and Julie Kresl. She has two younger brothers Logan (17) and Colten (13). Logan is a brain cancer survivor, having been diagnosed at age 7 and fought through surgery and chemotherapy treatments. Kresl says he is her inspiration both on and off the court. Her mother played basketball at TCU. She lists her hobbies as running, shopping, listening to music and watching movies.

Jen Reese

Forward • 6-2 • Sophomore • 1L • Clackamas, Ore. (Clackamas)

Jen Reese is a physical power forward who can post up against bigger players as well as knock down the outside shot. Although an injury prematurely ended her freshman season, the foundation has been set for her to be an impact player over the next three years.

2011-12 (Freshman): Reese ranked second on the team in rebounding (6.0 rpg) and fourth in scoring (7.8 ppg) as a first year Buffalo. She led all Pac-12 freshmen in rebounding by average and earned honorable mention to the Pac-12 All-Freshman team voted on by league coaches. Reese played in 25 games and moved into the starting lineup for nine straight before suffering a broken orbital bone underneath her left eye while attempting to take a charge in the opening minutes of the game at No. 2 Stanford (2/23). She had come into her own, leading Colorado in rebounding (or sharing the lead) in six of the last nine games prior to her injury. Reese grabbed a career-best 14 rebounds against UCLA (1/29), the third highest total by a CU player this season. She made her first career start at Arizona, responding with 12 points and a team-high seven rebounds. Logged her first career double-double with 12 points, on 6-of-7 shooting, and 12 rebounds in the win at Washington State (1/7). She had 11 games with seven or more

GETTING TO KNOW JEN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: How our team is so family oriented and that we get along so well together.

Favorite quote: "Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." —Ralph Waldo Emerson

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Having the overall opportunity to play with my teammates and good friends that I will always have in my life.

My dream job is: Is to play in the WNBA or overseas and then become a college coach.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Going out to dinner on Pearl Street with the team.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Real World because I think it would be a great opportunity and a lot of fun.

One word to describe me off the court is: Funny

My pregame rituals are: I always need to make a right hand layup before shooting or anything else.

One thing people don't know about me is: I am a very sarcastic person, but I know when to be serious when needed.

The three things I cannot live without are: Cell phone, coffee, and hair spray

My goofy superstition is: If I don't make my right hand layup before a game or practice it will be a bad day.

Best talent not related to basketball: Comedian

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Jasmine and I turned our beds into one huge king sized bed and watched Netflix all night!

Favorite Superhero: Jumper (From The Movie)

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: To be invisible

Pet Peeves: Slow drivers

Hidden Talents: Not that I am aware of.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Well, I beat Chucky three times once.

Background picture on your phone: My parents and brother.

On your iPod right now: Country music

First concert: 'N sync

A dream vacation for me is: To go to Fiji

I wish I knew how to...: Juggle

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To get a bachelor's degree in communications.

The ideal day for me is: Sleeping in until 12 p.m., going to Starbucks for my iced venti Americano, and then watching Netflix the rest of the day in my bed.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Michael Jordan

And I would ask that person: For a huge hug and picture!

Most memorable moment in sports: Making it to the state championship game my senior year of high school.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: Lauren Conrad would play me and Lexy would be my co-star.

Hobbies: Playing golf, driving, hanging with friends, and texting.

My plans after graduation are: Playing overseas

My favorite class at CU: Group Interaction

My hero is: My parents

Advice to young athletes: Never give up. When things get tough never stop, just keep pushing through. Believe in yourself!

HIGH SCHOOL: Reese is a 2011 graduate of Clackamas (Ore.) High School. A 2011 Parade Magazine All-American, Reese averaged 25 points, 20 rebounds, six assists and five blocks as a senior guiding the Cavaliers to a 27-2 record and a second place state finish, the program's best ever state placing. She became the first player to be named Oregon's Gatorade Girls Basketball Player of the Year on two occasions (2010, '11). Reese led the Three Rivers League in scoring as a senior, helping Clackamas to an undefeated (15-0) conference championship season, and a 25-game win streak along the way. She is a three-time Class 6A first team all-state selection and Three Rivers MVP and a four-time first team all-league selection. A 2011 McDonald's All-American nominee, Reese was the MVP of the state of Oregon and the school's Athlete of the Year. She was Oregon's second leading scorer her junior year (21 ppg) and its third leading scorer her sophomore year (20 ppg). As a freshman, Reese earned second-team all-state honors, averaging 12 points and five rebounds. Reese's teams compiled an overall four-year record of 70-17. She earned a spot in the CHS Hall of Fame before graduation. Reese played club ball with Team Concept from seventh through 12th grades, traveling all over the greater west. Her team took first place in tournaments in Las Vegas, San Diego, Seattle and Memphis.

ACADEMICS: Reese is majoring in communications at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Jen "J" Reese was born on May 19, 1992, in Portland, Ore. She is the daughter of Jeff and Ashley Reese of Happy Valley, Ore. She has one younger brother David, a junior in high school. When she's not playing basketball she enjoys driving her Mustang and hanging out with friends. After graduation she hopes to continue playing in the WNBA or overseas.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Jasmine Sborov

Guard • 6-0 • Sophomore • 1L • Round Rock, Texas (Round Rock)

Jasmine Sborov improved as much during her first season as any Buffalo in recent memory. Her hard work and dedication, paid off with increased playing time during the stretch run. Sborov is a big guard who offensively can get to the rim and also hit the pull up jumper. She is long and physical on the defensive side, helping Colorado become a solid rebounding team with her effort and athleticism.

GETTING TO KNOW JASMINE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The family atmosphere that we have amongst our team. It really helps me (and those who are also from out-of-state) feel more at home here.

Favorite quote: "When you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change." -Wayne Dyer

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Beating USC at home. There was just something about that game that gave me a new perspective on the game, the season, my teammates, and my own game. Winning that game was one of the greatest feelings for me last year.

My dream job is: My dream job is to own my own "Dream Center" in the inner city. This is a place where I can help people who are in need of a job, childcare, clothes, after-school care/tutoring, food, a place to sleep, etc. Helping people is a passion of mine and this is a way I would love to be able to do so.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Drive up Flagstaff and enjoy the view overlooking the city.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Keeping Up With The Kardashians. I don't know what it is about the show that grabs my attention, but I love watching it now!

One word to describe me off the court is: Adventurous

My pregame rituals are: After shoot-around I always go home to shower and (physically) get ready for the game, then I head over to the gym two hours before tipoff, when I get there I usually put my warm ups on and do my hair (I always wear my hair the same for every game), then I go into the training room to get taped and then head out to the court to get my shot warmed up before our real warm up starts.

One thing people don't know about me is: I used to have a British accent when I was little. When I was three we moved to London for my Dad's job for a year. Over there they start kids in school when they're 3-years old. They immediately taught us French and I guess I just picked up the accent that my teachers and classmates had. A year later we moved back to Alabama, so that British accent didn't stick around much longer after that.

The three things I cannot live without are: My Bible, phone, and car

My goofy superstition is: I have to wear my hair the same way for every game.

Best talent not related to basketball: Wake-surfing

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: We have a couple girls on the team who are deathly afraid of haunted houses, and their reactions are always hilarious. We like to give them a hard time about it every time the "haunted house season" comes around.

Favorite Superhero: Cat Woman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: Super-speed

Hidden Talents: I used to high jump really competitively in high school and actually considered going to college for that for a little bit. I also love to wake-surf when I go home to visit family.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen Reese

Background picture on your phone: The Olympic Rings

On your iPod right now: Just about anyone.

First concert: Kirk Franklin

A dream vacation for me is: The Cayman Islands

I wish I knew how to....: Play the piano

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Visit Jerusalem

A perfect day for me is when: I wake up no later than 9:30 a.m., clean my room, get homework/errands done early, workout, have good meals, and end my day feeling productive and not going to bed late.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Angelina Jolie

And I would ask that person: What it's like to have such a diverse family, and what all the places are like that she's traveled to.

Most memorable moment in sports: The first time I ran through the tunnel at Coors Events Center for our first home game. There's something special about running through there on game days.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: Jennifer Lopez would play myself in a movie, and Zoe Saldana would co-star as Arielle.

My plans after graduation are: Going to play overseas.

My favorite class at CU: U.S. Race And Ethnic Relations

My hero is: My mom

Advice to young athletes: Never ever give up on your dreams. Having a dream is the first step to making it a reality.

McDonald's All-American nominee in 2011, Sborov helped the Dragons to the playoffs for the fourth straight season, averaging 15 points and eight rebounds per game. She led the Dragons to a 15-9 mark in 2010 averaging 12 points and eight rebounds, en route to all-district honors. Sborov led her team in blocks and rebounding while averaging 11 points as a sophomore, earning honorable mention to the all-district team. She averaged 11 points and seven rebounds as a freshman, leading Round Rock in blocked shots. She also lettered in track at Round Rock and set the school's high jump record at Regionals in 2010 with a 5 feet, 6 inches mark. She played club basketball with TeamXpress, helping them win a Nike Nationals tournament.

ACADEMICS: Sborov is majoring in sociology at CU. She is also interested in nutrition.

PERSONAL: Jasmine "Jas" Sborov was born on July 30, 1993, in El Paso, Texas. She is the daughter of Jon and Tara Sborov. She has three younger siblings Amber (17), Jordan (14) and Jalen (13). Her mother ran track at UTEP. She enjoys outdoor activities like hiking, biking and camping. When Sborov was younger, she lived in London for a year and says she used to have a British accent and used to speak some French.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Arielle Roberson

Forward • 6-1 • Freshman • RS • San Antonio, Texas (Wagner)

Buffaloes. She will add athleticism and versatility the Colorado lineup.

2011-12 (Redshirt): Sat out the 2011-12 after developing a torn labrum in her left hip during preseason workouts. She underwent successful surgery to repair the tear in December 2011. Roberson has four full years of eligibility remaining.

HIGH SCHOOL: Roberson is a 2011 graduate of Wagner High School in San Antonio where she was a Texas Association of Basketball Coaches (TABC) and Texas Girls Coaches Association (TGCA) All-State pick as a senior. She averaged 18.2 points, 9.7 rebounds, 2.7 assists, three steals and two blocks per game in 2011 while guiding Wagner to a 32-7 record, advancing to the semifinals of the Texas 5A State Tournament. A multiple all-region and all-district performer, Roberson also shot 57 percent from the field and 73 percent from the free-throw line as a senior. A two-time member of the San Antonio Express-News All-City Super Team, Roberson finished her career at Wagner with 1,640 points. She was unanimously chosen as the District 25-5A MVP as a senior and was also a McDonald's All-American nominee and the MVP of the Lone Star Invitational Tournament. Roberson, who played in the TABC Girls All-Star Game in May 2011, was a part of three state tournament teams at Wagner sporting a four-year record of 133-15. Roberson also was a three-year letterwinner in volleyball. She played club basketball with TeamXpress.

ACADEMICS: Roberson is majoring in communications at CU.

PERSONAL: Arielle Roberson, was born Jan. 20, 1993, in Grand Rapids, Mich. She is the daughter of John and Lisa Roberson. She is the fourth of seven Roberson siblings and joins older brother Andre in Boulder, who is a junior for the CU men's basketball team and helped the Buffaloes to the 2012 Pac-12 Tournament title and the NCAA Tournament. Her parents, John (basketball) and Lisa (volleyball), were both student-athletes at New Mexico State University. An older sister Ashlee was a three-year letterwinner at Texas Tech University (2007-10) and played professionally overseas. Older sister Amber wrapped up a four-year volleyball career at the University of Texas in 2011. Her three younger siblings are Anthony (17), Aaliyah (8) and Arianna (6). She would like a chance to play in the WNBA.

GETTING TO KNOW ARIELLE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The PRIDE that we all share as a team and organization!

Favorite quote: Phil 4:13. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Being able to cheer my teammates on as they played their games.

My dream job is: To be in the WNBA!

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Going to the movies.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: If I could pick any reality TV show to be on, it would be Keeping Up With The Kardashians because I love their show!

One word to describe me off the court is: Happy

My pregame rituals are: Just chill out and try to relax before the game.

One thing people don't know about me is: I am the middle child out of seven children!

The three things I cannot live without are: My family, God, and food!

My goofy superstition is: I have to put my right sock or shoe on before I put my left sock or shoe on.

Best talent not related to basketball: I am pretty good at playing volleyball

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Jen's prank wars freshman year.

Favorite Superhero: Cat Woman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: I would want to be invisible

Hidden Talents: I can bake desserts, but nothing too complicated.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Lexy Kresl

Background picture on your phone: A picture of me and my oldest sister Ashlee

On your iPod right now: My family

First concert: Ludacris

A dream vacation for me is: Going to Costa Rica!

I wish I knew how to...: Skateboard

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To go Skydiving!

A perfect day for me is when: I get everything accomplished and I can just relax.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Will Smith

And I would ask that person: What is it like to be Will Smith?

Most memorable moment in sports: My whole senior year in high school. That season was just one of the most fun years I have ever been a part of, so far!

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: I would have Halle Berry play me because I think she is amazing. I also think that Zoe Saldana could play Jasmine Sborov because that is her favorite actress.

Hobbies: I like to watch movies and hang out with my family and friends.

My plans after graduation are: To play in the WNBA and be a sports analyst on ESPN.

My favorite class at CU: Acting for Non-majors

My hero is: My parents!

Advice to young athletes: To always play hard and play the sport you love simply because you love it.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Alexis Atchley

Guard • 5-9 • Freshman • HS • Yorba Linda, Calif. (Yorba Linda)

Alexis "Lexi" Atchley joined the Colorado program as a walk-on in early October, just before the start of fall practice. She had a successful high school career and provides depth at shooting guard for the Buffaloes.

High School: Atchley is a 2012 graduate of Yorba Linda High School, part of the first graduating class of that school located in Yorba Linda, Calif. She was named YLHS's Most Athletic Female for the class of 2012. She was captain of the basketball team her junior and senior year where she led her team to back-to-back Empire League Championships. As a junior, she was named Athlete of the Week by OCVarsity.com and was named Third Team All-County. Her senior year she finished the season averaging 12.4 points and 5.5 rebounds per game. She was voted as the Empire League MVP and was named to the First-Team CIF Division 3AA. Atchley was also captain of the track team her junior and senior years. Her best event was the 300 MH where she was Empire League Champion both her junior and senior year. She played AAU basketball with Cal Swish from 2008-11.

Academics: She intends to major in communications and hopes to do something that involves working with kids.

Personal: Born May 30, 1994, she is the daughter of Mitchell and Stacy Atchley. She has three siblings: Justin (23), Skye (21) and Paris (10). Skye is a senior at the University of Washington where she runs track. Other athletes in the family include her cousin, Kaitlyn Clark, a member of the University of Alabama gymnastics team and the U.S. National Team. Her grandfather, Richard Gudmundson played football for the University of Southern California.

GETTING TO KNOW ALEXUS

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The camaraderie between the players and with the coaching staff.

Favorite quote: "It's not the size of the dog, it's the size of the fight in the dog."

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Lauren Huggins

Guard/Forward • 6-1 • Freshman • HS • Littleton, Colo. (Heritage)

Lauren Huggins is a great shooter with range that extends well beyond the 3-point arc. The sky is the limit for this first Colorado signee of the Linda Lappe era. She provides an outside scoring threat and at 6-foot-1 is a long defender.

High School: A 2012 graduate of Heritage High School in Littleton, Huggins is the first Colorado signee for Linda Lappe's coaching staff. A two-time All-Continental League first team selection, Huggins helped the Eagles to an 18-7 record as a senior and a spot in the Sweet 16 of the Class 5A Colorado State Tournament. She was rated as the 64th best player in the nation and the 11th best wing by ESPN HoopGurlz. She starred at 2012 edition of "The Show" Colorado's annual high school basketball all-star game played at the Pepsi Center. Huggins was named MVP of the contest, scoring a game-high 15 points, hitting on 5-of-6 from 3-point range, in her "Blue" team's 69-48 win. As a junior she averaged 12 points and nearly eight rebounds per game, guiding the Eagles to the 2011 Class 5A Sweet 16.

A two-time honorable mention to the Class 5A All-State team, she played her club basketball with the Boulder Rockies.

Academics: She intends to major in biochemistry at Colorado, and aspires to be a pediatric surgeon.

Personal: Born on March 28, 1994, she is the daughter of Jerry and Tracy Huggins of Littleton. She has two older sisters, Erin, a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines, and Megan a junior at CU.

GETTING TO KNOW LAUREN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The family atmosphere that the team possesses.

Favorite quote: "Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away." - Hilary Cooper

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: Being named the MVP of the Colorado All Star basketball game

My dream job is: Pediatric Surgeon

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Walk around Pearl Street

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Survivor, because it is a show that my dad and I have watched since I was really young, and have always thought it would be fun to be on Survivor.

One word to describe me off the court is: Outgoing

My pregame rituals are: The listen to the same three songs before every game.

One thing people don't know about me is: I still sleep with my baby blanket.

The three things I cannot live without are: My phone, Dr. Pepper, and basketball

My goody superstition is: I have to have my hair straightened before every game.

Best talent not related to basketball: I know the lyrics to pretty much every song.

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Probably the time Chucky told us about the leprechaun she saw when she was younger eating her cupcake!

Favorite Superhero: Superman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: The ability to fly.

Pet Peeves: People who chew their gum loudly and breathe extra heavy for no reason

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Probably Lexy Kresl.

Background picture on your phone: A dog pile consisting on myself, Meagan, Lexy, Jen, and Arielle

On your iPod right now: Chris Brown

First concert: The Black Eyed Peas

A dream vacation for me is: Australia

I wish I knew how to...: Do a backflip

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Raising a family like the one I was raised in.

A perfect day for me is: To be able to sleep into about 9:30, get a morning workout in, and then lay out in the sun, probably on the beach, and just hang out with friends and family.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Kobe Bryant

And I would ask that person: What is the most memorable thing he has experienced.

Most memorable moment in sports: The game winning 3-pointer I hit during the championship game out in the Boo Williams AAU Tournament.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: I think that Tina Fey would play myself in a movie, and have Amy Poehler would play Jen Reese as my co-star.

Hobbies: I enjoy being outside, reading, and being around friends and family.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Jamee Swan

Forward • 6-2 • Freshman • HS • Tucson, Ariz. (Marana)

Jamee Swan is a fiery, passionate forward that will give Colorado a much needed post presence. She is a dynamic rebounder who has the strength to finish down low, but can also move to the outside and play with her face to the basket.

High School: A 2012 graduate of Marana High School in Tucson, where she was highly regarded as the top prospect in the state of Arizona. She was ranked as the eighth best forward in the nation and the 38th best overall player by ESPN HoopGurlz. Swan averaged 20.8 points, 12.8 rebounds, 3.4 blocks and 3.0 steals as a senior, earning All-Southern Arizona, first team All-Division I, and Division I Player of the Year honors from the Tucson Citizen. A 2012 Sporting News honorable mention All-American, she had a double-double in all but one contest with game highs of 42 points and 19 rebounds. Despite missing 10 games of her senior season with an injury, Swan received honorable mention to the WBCA All-America team and was a McDonald's All-America nominee. Swan averaged 19.6 points, 13.4 rebounds, 4.1 blocked shots and 4.1 steals for the Tigers as a junior, earning first team All-Southern Arizona and Southern Arizona 4A1 Player of the Year honors from the Tucson Citizen. She was also the Arizona Daily Star Player of the Year and a member of the Class 4A All-State first team. Swan was a 2009-10 Class 4A All-State performer as a sophomore, averaging 21.5 points, 15.2 rebounds and 6.3 blocks per game. Swan earned a total of 12 varsity letters at Marana, also participating in volleyball and track & field. She was the Arizona 2011 Division II state champion in the shot put. Swan played club basketball with the Arizona Elite team out of Phoenix.

Academics: An open option major, Swan was a three-year member of the Marana High School Student Council and kept a 3.1 GPA.

Personal: Born on Jan. 26, 1994, she is the daughter of Diane Swan. She has one younger brother, Ryan (15) who is a sophomore in high school and plays basketball, football and volleyball. Her mother Diane coached her in high school at Marana.

GETTING TO KNOW JAMEE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: How the team clicks together and how we have each others backs.

Favorite quote: "It's not who I am underneath, but what I do that defines me" — Batman

The best moment from your 2011-12 season: In high school I'd have to say being able to play in my senior night game.

My dream job is: Being a psychiatrist and helping people get through problems in their lives.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Challenge on MTV, it's competitive and I feel like I'd do awesome in all the challenges we'd have to endure.

One word to describe me off the court is: Goofy

My pregame rituals are: Sit and listen to a set playlist of songs that get me fired up, and text my mom that I love her and that I'll talk to her after the game.

One thing people don't know about me is: My ears are different sizes.

The three things I cannot live without are: Music, my family, and my friends.

My goofy superstition is: Never splitting a pole, having to tie both shoes if one gets untied, throwing salt over my shoulder if I spill it.

Best talent not related to basketball: Volleyball

Favorite Superhero: Batman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: The ability to read people's minds

Pet Peeves: I don't really have any.

Hidden Talents: I draw pretty well. I can dance.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Lexy Kresl

Background picture on your phone: Me and my friends having an Oreo eating contest.

On your iPod right now: A lot of country and alternative rock

First concert: U2 Vertigo Tour

A dream vacation for me is: New Zealand

I wish I knew how to...: Play the piano.

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To leave a mark in history, and make the world a better place than when I came.

A perfect day for me is when: I have my friends around and we sit and watch movies all day and hang out together.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: LeBron James

And I would ask that person: How do you deal with all the dumb comments from fans?

Most memorable moment in sports: When I was in the slam dunk contest at the Arizona all-star weekend.

Hobbies: Playing video games, watching movies, eating, and hanging out with friends.

My plans after graduation are: To get a job doing what I love to do.

My favorite class at CU: 21st century leadership.

My hero is: My mom.

Advice to young athletes: Always follow your dream, don't let anyone, including yourself tell you that you can't do it. Push through every second of pain to reach your goals. Adversity only visited the strong but stays with the weak forever, be strong and there is nothing you can't do.

2012-13 BUFFALOES

Kyleesha Weston

Guard • 5-7 • Freshman • HS • Kansas City, Mo. (Park Hill)

Kyleesha Weston is true point guard, filling a valuable need for the Buffaloes. She handles the ball and sees the floor very well, and has good quickness both offensively and defensively.

High School: A 2012 graduate of Park Hill High School, she was a finalist for the DiRenna Award as a senior, given to the top boys and girls high school basketball players in the Kansas City metro area. She averaged 18 points and nearly five assists per game, earning All-Suburban Big 6 Conference and Kansas City Star All-Metro honors. Weston helped the Trojans to a 16-9 record in 2012 and played in the annual HyVee/Pepsi Greater Kansas City Basketball Coaches Association All-Star Challenge in April. As a junior, she averaged 15.4 points, 4.5 rebounds, 4.5 steals and 2.5 assists per game, landing a spot on the all-conference and all-district teams. She had six double-doubles (points and steals) and recorded season game highs with 29 points and 12 steals. Weston played club basketball for the MoKan Eclipse program.

Academics: She intends to major in sports medicine at Colorado and would like to become a physical therapist. Weston lists the passion to stay in sports after college as the influence on her major.

Personal: Born on July 20, 1994, she is the daughter of Kyle Sr. and Lisa Weston of Kansas City, Mo. She has one younger brother, Kyle Jr., who is in the eighth grade. Weston enjoys hanging out with friends and spending time with family. At one time she participated in gymnastics and can do flips. She can also sing and dance.

GETTING TO KNOW KYLEESHA

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Getting to bond with such great people every day whether it be the coaches, my teammates or anyone else associated with the program. They are incredible.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Hang out with my teammates

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Silent Library because it is really funny and makes you control yourself, and you get money for it.

One word to describe me off the court is: Disciplined

My pregame rituals are: I read the pep text that my mom sends me three times because the third time is a charm.

One thing people don't know about me is: I can't tell you because then you will know.

The three things I cannot live without are: My mom, music and shoes

Best talent not related to basketball: Self-Control

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Going to see Pitch Perfect with the team has been the best thing so far. We had a great time and enjoyed the movie and best of all I think it brought us closer together.

Favorite Superhero: Spiderman

If you could have one superhero power, what would it be?: Read minds

Pet Peeves: Arrogant People

Hidden Talents: Dancing, drawing, shopping, and texting.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Meagan Malcolm-Peck

Background picture on your phone: My basketball number

On your iPod right now: Chris Brown

First concert: JoJo

A dream vacation for me is: Any type of cruise

I wish I knew how to....: Tread Water

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To be like my mommy.

A perfect day for me is when: Sleeping until 10:30, then with my mom watch football all day with a big lunch and big dinner. I would rather it not be cold outside and for the sun to be out.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Tamika Catchings

And I would ask that person: How she overcame the challenges she has faced and what has kept her going?

Most memorable moment in sports: Is when my high school team beat St. Joe Central in St. Joe on their senior night/breast cancer awareness game. It was the first time we had beaten them in five years.

Who would play yourself in a movie, and who would co-star as one of your teammates: I would be played by Kyla Pratt and Arielle would play as Sanaa Lathan

Hobbies: Shopping, hanging out with my family and friends, playing all sports, watching football, singing and dancing.

My plans after graduation are: To have a well-paying job that is based off of my major when I decide what that is.

My favorite class at CU: Leadership

My hero is: My Mom

Advice to young athletes: To never give up on your dream, and to do whatever in life you want to pursue. With that you have to give nothing less than 100% to get to that dream, or goal of yours. Don't be afraid to be different.
