BOULDER - If there were any opening-night nerves, Linda Lappe's Colorado women's basketball team quickly disposed of them. After that, Northern Arizona was disposed of just as easily as CU rolled into the 2011-12 season with an impressive 84-60 win Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffs had three players in double figures, led by sophomore Brittany Wilson with 22 points. Freshman Lexy Kresl tied a school record with five three-pointers in the first half, finishing with 15, and sophomore Chucky Jeffery came off the bench to add 11 points.

CU finished its first game with a 57.1 percent from the field (32-of-56) and was at 66.7 percent from the free throw line (12-of-18). NAU, also opening its season Friday night, was held to 37.5 percent shooting (21-of-56). The Lumberjacks' leading scorer was Amanda Frost with 18.

"I'm pleased with how our team did tonight," Lappe said. "I thought we got a lot better from our game against Regis in a lot of different areas. I thought offensively we moved the ball well and were very balanced in our scoring attack."

Hoping to experiment with her new players and rotations, Lappe couldn't have scripted a better start - and it wasn't just the Buffs racing to a 29-9 advantage midway through the opening half.

Northern Arizona's moment (actually, several seconds) of glory was controlling the opening tip. From there, the Buffs took control. After sophomore Rachel Hargis took a charge on NAU's first possession, she scored on a put-back and CU was off, running and shooting.

Much of that was done by the supremely confident Kresl, who buried five of her six three-point attempts for 15 first-half points. The 5-11 guard from Paradise Valley, Ariz., missed on two second-half treys, but her five rebounds were a team best.

"It was definitely feeling my shot," Kresl said. "I feel really good in the offense. It's also about playing defense though. If you play good defense then you will get the shots you want. If you are patient, then you'll get your shot."

"I thought she came out with a lot of confidence," Lappe added. "I somehow knew she was going to play well against Northern Arizona, she knows a lot of those players. She had a little bit more of a challenge in coming out and making sure her team was successful."

In the first half, Lappe played nine of her 10 players suited up for the opener, with walk-on Esther Lee entering the game in the final minute. Eight of the 10 Buffs scored.

Behind Kresl's shooting, which boosted her team's 59.3 percent field goal accuracy (16-of-27) in the first 20 minutes, the Buffs led 44-20 at the half. Their big lead was 31 points (44-13) on a pair of Brittany Wilson free throws at 3:04 before intermission.

"A good start is important," Brittany Wilson said. We knew that if we didn't bury [Northern Arizona] quick, they have the weapons to come back. When we had the chance to put them away, we did."

The Lumberjacks managed to hit just 29.6 percent (8-of-27) from the field in the first half and didn't score for the game's first 21/2 minutes. From there, the night steadily eroded for the Big Sky Conference member.

After falling behind 26-9, NAU suffered an almost 7 minute drought and found itself looking at a 39-11 deficit after Kresl canned her fourth trey of the half with 4:03 left before halftime.

When Kresl followed immediately with her fifth three-pointer, the Buffs were cruising 42-13 - and Lappe might have been wondering if her team could maintain interest in the final 20 minutes.

No problem...the Buffs outscored the Lumberjacks 10-5 in the second half's first 31/2 minutes and maintained at least a 21-point advantage for the remainder of the night.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas - Chucky Jeffery notched her 11th career double-double and a late spurt allowed Colorado to pull away for a 71-58 road win against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Wednesday night at the American Bank Center.

Jeffery scored 16 of her team-best 19 points in the second half and pulled down a career-high 16 rebounds.

"We went in at the half and said we need to take care of business on the boards, they were getting a lot of offensive rebounds. Coach (Linda) Lappe told me to rebound, so that's what I did," said Jeffery.

The Buffaloes also had 13 points off the bench from freshman Jen Reese on 6-of-9 shooting.

"Whether she is going to score or not, she makes a difference out there. That's how Jen can play every single game; she brings it when we need it," said Colorado head coach Linda Lappe.

The win moves Colorado to 2-0 on the season and also provides the Buffaloes with their fourth straight win on the road dating back to the end of the 2010-11 season. "It takes a lot of toughness and team chemistry to win on the road. You don't do it by having everybody on their own page," said Lappe.

Jessica Jammer had a game-high 22 points to lead the Islanders who fall to 0-2 overall.

C.S. Ashley and Brittany Wilson both scored early layups as the Buffaloes were pushing well in transition to build an 8-2 lead.

Texas A&M-Corpus Christi would cut the lead to 9-8 on a Jammer jumper. The Buffs front court, sporting a considerable size advantage, fell to early foul trouble. Rachel Hargis and Julie Seabrook each picked up two fouls in a two minute span, and sat the majority of the rest of the period on the bench.

After a media timeout, freshman Lexy Kresl scored on a layup which sparked an 11-4 Buffs run. Meagan Malcolm-Peck drilled a 3-pointer at the top of the key, Reese scored on a conventional 3-point play and Kresl scored from deep to put CU up 20-12. Off an A&M-Corpus Christi miss, Jeffery nabbed one of her eight first half rebounds and found Brittany Wilson in the clear for an easy layup, giving CU its largest lead to that point at 22-12.

Jammer kept the Islanders close scoring nine points in the first period including 5-of-7 from the free-throw line. Jammer was Texas A&M-Corpus Christi's best offense as the Islanders were held to 24 percent shooting.

Jeffery hit her lone field goal of the first half with a runner in the key as the Buffaloes led 33-26 at the break.

CU made just one of its first six field goals in the second half and A&M took advantage. Jammer scored six points and a arching baseline jumper gave A&M-CC its first lead at 39-38.

But CU responded well with a 7-0 run. Kresl pushed the tempo enough to get to the free throw line. After tying the score at 39, she missed the second attempt, Jeffery grabbed the initial board and missed her put-back chance, but Seabrook cleaned it up to put the Buffs back up 41-38.

Colorado pushed its lead to eight at 55-47, but the Islanders cut it down to five with 6:29 off 3-point play by Jammer.

That is as close as A&M-Corpus Christi would get as the Buffaloes ended the game with a 17-5 run. Jeffery scored four straight points and after a pair of Trish Amboree free throws, Kresl drilled a 3-pointer to put CU up double-digits for good at 63-52 with 3:43 left.

Brittany Wilson had 10 points and four rebounds. Malcolm-Peck finished with seven points and six rebounds. The Buffaloes, which trailed on the boards for most of the game, finished on the positive end at 53-48.

Myeisha Myles had 10 points and nine rebounds for the Islanders, who shot just 29 percent on the evening.

BOULDER - Colorado had its strongest defensive effort of the season, limiting Valparaiso to 32 points in a 60-32 Buffaloes win in the first round of the 25th Annual Omni Hotels Classic Friday evening at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado at 4-0 and matching its best start since 2000-01, will face Wisconsin in Saturday's championship game at 7:30 p.m. Wisconsin (2-4) held off Montana State 71-61 in Friday's first game. Valparaiso (0-4) will play MSU (3-2) in the consolation game at 5 p.m. on Saturday.

"I thought it was a good win," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "Our defense was outstanding."

Chucky Jeffery led the Buffaloes with another complete stat line. The junior guard had 14 points on 6-of-10 shooting, 9 rebounds, five assists, one block and one steal.

The Buffaloes had a good start for the fourth straight game to open the season, pushing out to an early 17-8 lead. Valparaiso's Ashley Varner kept the Crusaders close early with a pair of 3-pointers. Shaquira Scott hit a jumper at 7:30 to pull Valparaiso to within six at 19-13.

From there the Buffaloes began to run away. Colorado ended the half on a 16-0 run. Jeffery scored the last nine of those points including a long 3-pointer at the first half buzzer to give CU a 35-13 lead at the break.

"We know that every time we come out we have to throw the first punch, we have to be aggressive, we have to play defense hard," Jeffery said. "That's just what we are taught, so we have to emulate that on the floor."

Lexy Kresl scored five straight to open the second half to give CU a 40-13 lead. Scott finally broke Valpo's 10:03 drought with a short jumper with 17:27 remaining. That began a 7-0 Valpo run as CU cooled off over the next three minutes. VU's Tabitha Gerardot converted a conventional 3-point play to bring the Crusaders to within 20 at 40-20 with 14:28 left.

Julie Seabrook ended the Crusader run with a short jumper in the paint. Soon after, Jeffery reentered the game and reenergized the Buffaloes.

CU answered Valpo's 7-0 run with one of its own. Jeffery ignited a fast break that ended in a layup by Jasmine Sborov, her first career points. Jeffery blocked a shot on the other end and the ensuing possession ended in an Ashley Wilson layup. Kresl then put CU up 49-23 with a long 3-pointer with 10 minutes remaining.

All active players contributed in the scoring column. Walk-on freshman guard Esther Lee scored her first five career points, including a late 3-pointer.

Ashley Wilson had a career high seven rebounds as the Buffaloes out rebounded the Crusaders 40-31. CU's defense held Valparaiso to just 26 percent shooting.

"Ashley is an extremely hard worker," Lappe said. "Offensive rebounding is all heart and effort. Every time a shot went up, Ashley was rushing the glass."

Kresl and Brittany Wilson each had 10 points. Rachel Hargis had six points, four rebounds and a career-high three assists.

Varner led Valparaiso with 10 points and seven rebounds. Scott ended with nine points, adding a block and a steal to her line.

BOULDER - Chucky Jeffery recorded her 12th career double-double and Lexy Kresl scored a career-high 16 points to lead the CU women's basketball team to a 58-48 win against Wisconsin in the championship game of CU's Omni Hotels Classic.

The victory pushed the Buffs to 5-0 for the first time since the 2000-01 season and earned them their third consecutive Omni Classic title. Jeffery was named the tournament MVP for the second consecutive year while Kresl, a 5-11 freshman guard, also was selected to the all-tournament team.

Kresl scored 26 points in the two tournament games and has hit at least one three-pointer in every game this season. She was two-of-three from beyond the arc Saturday night and hit all eight of her free throw attempts.

Jeffery, meanwhile, contributed 28 points and collected 20 rebounds in the two Omni games, helping the Buffs dispose of Valparaiso 60-32 on Friday.

Just as they did in the tournament opener, Kresl and Jeffery got help Saturday from sophomore guard Brittany Wilson, who scored 10 points each night and was key coming off the bench in a first-half surge against UW.

The Buffs expected a physical game from the Badgers, and they got it. But CU coach Linda Lappe was pleased with how her team responded in that regard and how it played defense.

"Our defense was key," Lappe said. "We did a great job in the first half of limiting them to 23...and even those shots were rushed; they were not shots they wanted. It helped us win the game."

The Buffs trailed only once against the Badgers (2-0) and held a double-digit lead for the game's final 15:34 in sending the visitors home with a 2-5 record.

CU led 31-23 at the half, but it took a healthy run in the final 4:31 for the Buffs to create some separation. CU led by as many as nine before UW ratcheted up its defense and closed to 19-17 on a pair of free throws by Wurtz at the 6:11 mark.

Just under a minute before that, Wurtz hit another pair of free throws after the Buffs' bench was whistled for a technical foul, apparently after complaining about what appeared to be a shot clock violation by the Badgers.

Lappe said if her lost its confidence "for about two minutes...we regained it and never lost our lead. We stayed up by a decent margin, we responded and ended the half strong."

But the Buffs opened frigidly, hitting just one of their first seven field goal attempts. Less than 5 minutes into the half, Lappe brought Brittany Wilson off the bench for a spark and "B-Wil" furnished it.

Over the next 4 minutes, she contributed a pair of three-pointers and a put back to give CU a 13-4 lead - its biggest before UW responded with an 8-2 run and closed to 15-12 on a three-pointer by Wurtz.

From there, neither team hit a field goal, but the Badgers outscored the Buffs 5-4 at the free throw line - including the two for the "T" - and pulled to 19-17. But CU fashioned a 12-4 run and took its biggest lead of the half (31-21) with 1:27 before intermission.

The Buffs finished the game shooting 33.9 percent from the field (19-of-56), while the Badgers were at 33.3 percent (16-of-48). Both teams scored 20 points off of turnovers, but CU's 24-12 point advantage in the paint was critical.

The Badgers opened the second half with a trey by freshman guard Lindsay Smith, but it would be their only points for the next 3 minutes. In the meantime, the Buffs got baskets from Julie Seabrook, Kresl and Brittany Wilson to take their biggest lead to that point, 37-26.

From there, CU began to pull away, opening a 44-30 advantage on a follow in the lane by freshman post Jen Reese with 12:50 to play. The Buffs led by as many as 16 points before the final whistle.

BOULDER - The University of Colorado women's basketball team moved to 7-0 for the first time since the 1993-94 season, but Sunday afternoon's seventh win might have been more difficult than the Buffaloes expected.

CU finally disposed of Idaho 68-59 at the Coors Events Center, but it took a late spark by junior point guard Chucky Jeffery to keep the Buffs unbeaten.

Jeffery scored seven of her career-best 30 points in the final 2:14 as CU overcame a 59-58 Idaho lead and dropped the Vandals to 2-6. Jeffery, who also collected 10 rebounds Sunday, had registered a then-career-high 26 points Wednesday against San Francisco.

The only other CU player in double figures was freshman post Jen Reese with 10. Idaho got 13 points from Keri Arendse and 12 each from Stacey Barr and Alyssa Charlston.

CU waited until the first half's final 2:43 to begin pulling away, outscoring Idaho 13-4 from that point until intermission to take its biggest lead, 42-33.

The Buffs' run came courtesy of four three-pointers by Meagan Malcolm-Peck, Brittany Wilson and a pair by Jeffery, who finished the half with 18 of her total. Her field goal shooting (7-of-10) carried CU, which with 11:36 before the break had hit just three of 16 from the field (18.8 percent).

And the Vandals, whose most recent loss before coming to Boulder was at home against Pac-12 member Washington (66-49), took advantage. Down by five (7-2) in the first 4 minutes, Idaho rallied to take its first lead (10-9) on a trey by Barr with 11:07 left in the half.

Less than 2 minutes later, CU reclaimed the advantage on a three-point play by Jeffery and held it until Arendse hit a field goal and one of two free throws on the next Vandals possession to go up 24-22. But that was Idaho's last of the half - but not the game.

The Vandals managed a pair of ties at 27-27 and 29-29 before the Buffs launched their three-point barrage to close out the half and take control.

After its frigid start, CU finished the first 20 minutes shooting 16-of-36 (44.4 percent), while holding Idaho to 13-of-35 (37.1 percent). The Buffs also committed eight first-half turnovers, which the Vandals converted into 13 points.

CU opened the second half with a quick pair of turnovers, allowed Arendse a three-pointer and Charlston a pair of free throws. Suddenly, that nine-point halftime lead was cut to 42-38.

Over the next 6:11, the Buffs got treys from Malcolm-Peck and Jeffery and went ahead 50-42. But the Vandals didn't roll over, closing to 53-50 on a three-pointer by Charlston, who then tied the score at 53-53 with a conventional three-point play with 7:46 remaining.

Arendse earned a pair of free throws to push Idaho ahead 55-53 - only CU's second second-half deficit of the season - but Brittany Wilson's three-pointer 30 seconds later pushed the Buffs back in front, 56-55, with 6:04 remaining.

The lead changed hands four times until Jeffery hit both ends of a one-and-one and followed with a jumper, giving CU a five-point cushion (64-59) with 1:23 to play.

An intentional foul sent Brittany Wilson to the free throw line with 58.8 seconds left, and after she hit one of two (65-59) Jeffery hit two of three in the next 15 seconds to put CU up 68-59 and out of danger with 32.3 seconds showing.

BOULDER - The unbeaten University of Colorado women's basketball team rolled past the University of Denver 71-36 Thursday night at the Coors Events Center, running its record to 8-0 for only the third time in school history.

Avengeing a 70-69 loss to the Pioneers last season, the Buffaloes took control late in the first half then steadily pulled away in the second.

Junior point guard Chucky Jeffery overcame a sloppy first half to lead CU with 20 points, while freshman guard Lexy Kresl added 13. Jeffery and Kresl, who keyed the Buffs' early second-half surge, were the only CU players in double figures.

DU, which fell to 6-3, was held to its lowest point total of the season. The Pioneers had defeated three other in-state opponents - Colorado State, Air Force and Northern Colorado.

The Buffs never trailed, but they didn't pull away from the Pioneers until the first half's last 2 minutes.

With DU staying close at 16-13, CU got some consecutive inside points from senior Julie Seabrook, with two of the baskets coming on nice post feeds from freshman Jen Reese.

The last of Seabrook's buckets put the Buffs up 22-17, then it was Jeffery's turn. Her straightaway three-pointer at 1:39 before intermission gave CU a 25-17 advantage, and when DU rushed what coach Erik Johnson hoped would be the final shot of the half, the Buffs got control and Jeffery hit a half-court buzzer beater for a 28-17 advantage.

Jeffery led all first-half scorers with 12 of her total, while no DU player had over four points in the opening half. But Jeffery also committed an uncharacteristic seven first-half turnovers - half of the Buffs' total.

And both teams finished the half with more turnovers than field goals - CU checking in at 14-12 and DU at 10-7.

Senior Kaetlyn Murdoch, the Pioneers' leading scorer (17.0 average) and the Sun Belt Conference's preseason co-player-of-the-year, finished the half with four points and didn't get her first until the 7:51 mark.

If Murdoch, who finished the night with eight points, and DU wanted a surge to start the second half, it didn't happen. Not even close.

CU opened with a trey from the left corner by Kresl, got a jumper in transition from Jeffery, then another three-pointer by Meagan Malcolm-Peck to take its biggest lead to that point - 36-21.

But more Buffs points - this run courtesy of Kresl and Jeffery - were on the way. After Murdoch sank a jumper with 16:28 to play, CU went on an 11-0 run, with Kresl accounting for seven of the points.

Before the Pioneers could score again with 12 1/2 minutes to play, the Buffs were up 47-23 and in control. DU got no closer than 23 points from then until the final horn. CU's biggest lead was by 35 points.

Buff's coach Linda Lappe used all of her players, including sophomore Brenna Malcolm-Peck, who had not played since February 2010 because of injuries.

SAN ANTONIO – Rachel Hargis and Chucky Jeffery each had double-doubles as Colorado defeated Texas-Pan American 67-49 in the first game of the UTSA Holiday Classic Wednesday afternoon at the Convocation Center at the UTSA campus.

Colorado continues its historic start, moving to 10-0 for just the third time ever, and on Tuesday, the Buffaloes did it on defense.

Colorado held UTSA (4-10) to just 31 percent shooting and dominated on the boards. The Buffaloes registered a season-high 54 rebounds, led by career-high 11 from Hargis who also used her considerable size advantage at 6-foot-4, for a personal-best 12 points. It was the first career double-double for Hargis, the Robinson, Texas, native who also registered a season-best three blocked shots.

"It felt nice to be able to come home and perform in front of my family and friends," Hargis said. "To help bring a win to the team is always nice."

For Jeffery it was her fifth double-double of the season as the junior guard had 14 points and 10 rebounds. Lexy Kresl also had 14 points as four Buffaloes scored in double-figures. Freshman Jen Reese had 10.

The defensive tone was set early as the Buffaloes held UTSA to 21 percent in the first half. Hargis also provided the initial offensive spark as she had six quick points. Jeffery capped off a 9-0 run as CU built a 15-5 lead mid-way through the first half.

UTSA's best offensive push of the first half followed as Laquita Garner scored six-straight points and finished off an 8-0 Broncos run with a short jumper, cutting the CU lead to 15-13 with 7 minutes, 5 seconds remaining in the opening frame.

But UTSA didn't hit another field goal the rest of the half and CU responded with an 11-0 sprint which featured scores by five different Buffaloes, including Jeffery and Hargis. Donna Jackson broke the run with two free throws and CU led 26-15 at the break.

"Defensively we stayed focused and steady," head coach Linda Lappe said. "One of our goals coming in was to make them make the mistakes, not for us to make the mistakes. We were solid defensively, especially in the first half."

UTSA crept back into the game early in the second half from the line. The Broncos hit six-straight free throws at one point and a pair from Johnnonda Patterson brought UTSA to within 39-30 with 12:08 left.

Colorado's Julie Seabrook ended that run in strong fashion with a layup and free throw to put CU up by double digits for good. Reese added an and-one of her own the next time down the floor as the Buffaloes extended the lead to 55-39.

Colorado then kept UTSA at bay, with some success from the line of its own. The Buffaloes hit 11-of-13 freebies in the second half, including a pair in the final minute by Brenna Malcolm-Peck, who scored her first points since Dec. 30, 2009.

Brenna's twin sister Meagan was a key figure in CU's best rebounding performance in terms of numbers in four years. Meagan Malcolm-Peck had a season-best nine rebounds with a team-best five on the offensive end. CU had its most rebounds since grabbing 58 at Colorado State on Dec. 1, 2007. Seabrook joined the rebound party with six to go with seven points.

"Any time you can get a win away from your home floor is exciting," Lappe said. "We played solid and did enough to win. We didn't play our best game; didn't shoot the ball particularly well, but I told our team we showed a lot of maturity...let's do what we can do to score and (tonight) it was pounce the ball inside."

Jackson finished with a game-high 16 points for the Broncos.

SAN ANTONIO – Freshman guard Lexy Kresl scored 15 points and hit a 3-point basket at the buzzer to lift Colorado to a 52-49 win over Creighton in the Buffaloes' final game of the UTSA Holiday Classic Wednesday afternoon at the Convocation Center on the UTSA campus.

The win gives CU its second-ever perfect preseason record at 11-0. Only the 1992-93 team, which started 15-0, went into conference play unbeaten.

Kresl, who also matched a personal best with six rebounds, was named to the UTSA Holiday Classic All-Tournament team. She was joined on the team by her classmate, forward Jen Reese, who had a career-high 15 points on 6-of-9 from the field and eight rebounds.

"It feels great," Kresl said. "I'm really proud of Jen stepping up too. I wanted to be an impact player immediately and I'm just glad I've been able to do it."

Creighton's Carli Tritz, UTSA's Ashley Gardner and Texas-Pan American's Donna Jackson rounded out the All-Tournament team.

Tuesday's bout was CU's toughest to date with nine ties and five lead changes. Colorado missed its first seven shots and faced its largest deficit of the season right out of the gate. Creighton's Sarah Nelson opened the game with a 3-pointer and a pair of free throws and Tritz added two freebies as Creighton built a 7-0 lead.

Chucky Jeffery finally put Colorado on the scoreboard with a long jumper at the top of the key at the 15:30 mark. Kresl then hit her first 3-pointer to quickly get CU back to 7-5.

Creighton extended its early lead back to seven as a McKenzie Fujan jumper gave the Bluejays a 12-5 advantage. From there, the Buffaloes started clamping down. Brittany Wilson set off a 7-0 CU run with a 3-pointer. The Buffaloes then tied the game at 12-12 on a Julie Seabrook layup.

In the closing minutes of the first half, Colorado gained its first lead when Kresl scored four straight points. First she tied the game on a coast-to-coast layup and scored on a pull up jumper in transition to give CU a 19-17 lead. The Buffaloes took that same margin into the locker room at 23-21.

Creighton opened the second half in almost carbon copy fashion, a Jordan Garrison 3-pointer sparked a 7-0 run as the Bluejays rebuilt a 28-23 lead.

Colorado answered with a 9-0 run to take a 32-28 lead, but Tritz and the Bluejays were not done. Creighton started to press Colorado, and the Buffaloes struggled with it to the tune of 20 turnovers. Tritz nailed a 3-pointer to give Creighton back the edge and a Nelson floater put the Bluejays up 39-36.

From there it was Reese's turn to shine. The former two-time Oregon Gatorade Player of the Year picked a perfect time for her first career 3-pointer, off an assist from Seabrook. She added another mid-range jumper to cap off a personal 7-0 run for a 41-39 lead with 7:39 remaining.

"Jen stepped up in the second half and hit some key shots," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "She did a good job executing throughout the game."

The Buffaloes extended their lead to 47-41 late, but the Bluejays had one more comeback. Jasmin Corbin hit a 3-pointer with 3:52 left to cut the lead in half. After a Jeffery miss, Tritz cut the lead to one on a beautiful one-motion catch and lay-in off a bullet pass from Fujan.

The score remained 47-46 for the next minute, when Reese gave CU a 3-point lead on a layup off a Jeffery pass. CU regained possession, but couldn't capitalize off missed a Jeffery jumper. Meagan Malcolm-Peck snared the offensive rebound, but a Wilson turnover gave the Bluejays a chance to tie.

And Tritz did just that. She evened the game at 49 with a 3-pointer with 18 seconds left. Colorado had a timeout available, but chose not to use it. Jeffery brought the ball down and dribbled to the right. With nothing open on that end, she came back to the top of the key and found Kresl wide open on the left wing for the game-winner from 25-feet.

Jeffery finished with 13 points, five assists, five rebounds and three steals. Wilson and Seabrook each dished out three assists.

SEATTLE – Washington guard Jazmine Davis scored 21 of her game-high 27 points in the second half to lead the Huskies to a 75-67 Pac-12 Conference win over Colorado Thursday night at Alaska Airlines Arena.

The loss snaps Colorado's 12-game winning streak to start the season (12-1, 1-1 Pac-12) while Washington improves to 9-4, 1-2 in league play.

Chucky Jeffery had 20 points, seven rebounds, four assists and a team season-high six steals. Julie Seabrook tied a career-high with 18 points on 8-of-11 from the field.

Colorado lost the battle of the boards for the first time since the season opener (40-35). Washington also shot 45 percent from the field, scoring 42 points in the paint.

"I think our defense and rebounding let us down," head coach Linda Lappe said. "Washington did a tremendous job, you have to give them a lot of credit. They really crashed the glass and kept us off the boards."

Colorado's transition offense also stalled. The Buffaloes had only seven fast break points in the game, all in the first half. Overall the Buffaloes shot just 39 percent. Combined with the defense and rebounding woes, the recipe was not right for Colorado.

"We really didn't do any of those three," Lappe said. "When we don't do that it's usually going to be a long night."

Seabrook scored 12 of her points in a fast-paced first half which saw the senior from nearby North Vancouver, B.C., hit a pair of 3-pointers as the Buffaloes held a lead as large as five before settling for a 37-35 halftime edge.

But Colorado's lead quickly vanished. Davis scored seven points during a 10-2 Washington run to open the first half as the Huskies built a 45-39 lead.

Colorado fought back to take the lead midway through the second half. Meagan Malcolm-Peck drilled a 3-pointer to cap off an 8-2 run as CU led 55-51 with 10:26 left.

Washington quickly tied the score with back-to-back layups by Mercedes Wetmore and Regina Rogers. A pair of Jeffery free throws gave CU a 57-55 lead with 9:13 left, but consecutive Davis 3-pointers – her only two attempts from that range on the evening – gave Washington the lead for good.

"(Davis) did a good job looking to score," Lappe said. "She was very comfortable; we didn't take her out of her comfort zone at all in the second half. She was a tough player and played extremely well."

Colorado had erased a 10-point second half deficit at Utah in its last game, and nearly came up with a similar effort against Washington. Down by eight (67-59) with 2:30 left, the Buffaloes attempted one last rally. Jeffery was able to buy time by getting to the line, hitting three in the last two minutes to cut the UW lead to 70-65 with just under a minute left.

After a missed Davis free throw, Seabrook converted on a layup on the CU end, and was fouled with 37 seconds left, cutting the Washington lead to one possession at 70-67. But Seabrook missed the free throw and Washington corralled the rebound. CU was forced to foul down the stretch and the Huskies made just enough to hand the Buffaloes their first loss of the season.

"It's a great opportunity to see how we bounce back," Lappe said. "As a coaching staff you never want to lose games, but you want to see how your team will respond. Going on the road is tough, the key is you always want to try and split any time you go on the road. So we have to make sure we are prepared and come ready for Washington State."

PULLMAN, Wash. – Freshman Jen Reese recorded her first career double-double and Colorado fought back from a second half double-digit deficit for the second time in three road games to clip Washington State 57-56 Saturday afternoon at Beasley Coliseum.

Colorado improves to 13-1 overall and 2-1 in Pac-12 play as the Buffaloes hand Washington State its first league loss of the season (9-7, 3-1). The Buffaloes also erased a 10-point second half deficit in their 58-52 win at Utah on Dec. 31.

Reese, who had just six points combined in her first two Pac-12 games, scored 12 points and had a game-high 12 rebounds. The Buffaloes nearly had a double-double trifecta with Chucky Jeffery finishing with 12 points and nine rebounds and Julie Seabrook pitching in 11 points and nine boards.

Washington State's Jazmine Perkins, scored all of her game-high 15 points in the second half as her offensive explosion helped the Cougars build a 46-35 lead with 11:04 left in the game. Perkins scored WSU's first seven points as the Cougars began the period on a 22-12 run.

The Buffaloes had trouble with Washington State's aggressive defensive pressure, committing 22 turnovers, which led to 16 Cougars points. But Colorado was able to stay around by limiting Washington State to 25 percent shooting and by winning the battle on the glass, 53-40.

"We were really interested to see how our team was going to respond," said CU head coach Linda Lappe, whose team was coming off its first loss of the season, Thursday at Washington. "If we were going to let the loss affect us or if we were going to get our swagger back, our confidence back, and get back to playing Colorado basketball."

Shortly after WSU grabbed its big lead, the Buffaloes found an offensive rhythm. Reese found Meagan Malcolm-Peck cutting hard to the basket for the first of 12 straight points scored in the paint for the Buffaloes. Reese had four of her eight second half points during a 14-3 run that tied the game at 49-49 with 5:32. The Buffaloes shot 6-of-10 from the floor during that stretch where they crashed to the rim hard. Two of those misses were put back scores on offensive rebounds from Reese and Ashley Wilson.

The Cougars were able to bounce back. Rosetta Adzasu, who had nine points and six steals, broke the tie with a conventional 3-point play. WSU then made four free throws by three different players to take a 56-50 advantage with 2:35 remaining.

But the Cougars wouldn't score again. Jeffery put back a Malcolm-Peck missed 3-pointer to cut the lead to two. Perkins missed on the other end and Lexy Kresl, held without a 3-pointer for the first time this season, grabbed the offensive board off a Jeffery miss to trim the WSU advantage to 56-54 with 1:22 on the clock.

Perkins missed two free throws for Washington State, giving the Buffaloes a chance to tie. WSU's defense clamped down, forcing a desperation jumper by Kresl as the shot clock ran out, but the freshman guard sank the bucket at the top of the key.

"We stayed composed and really executed down the stretch," Lappe said. "Our shots weren't falling (early), but we were getting good looks all game, but we were finally able to get to the rim and score. Then we did a good job at the defensive end late in the game."

After Brandi Thomas missed a jumper on the other end, Reese found Malcolm-Peck on hard cut similar to the play that started the Colorado rally. Malcolm-Peck was fouled by Adzasu, and made the first free throw to provide the final margin. Malcolm-Peck missed the second and WSU grabbed the rebound. The Cougars elected not to take a timeout and got Perkins a good look from the left elbow which rimmed out as time expired.

"We never give up on ourselves," Reese said. "We stay together as a team and that's what won the game."

BOULDER – Stanford capitalized on Colorado's extended scoring drought and cruised past CU 80-54 Saturday afternoon in Pac-12 Conference women's basketball. The Buffaloes, who went frigid in the second half of Thursday night's loss to California, missed their first 12 shots Saturday at the Coors Events Center and by halftime had made only six of 29 field goal attempts.

It was no way to start against the nation's fourth-ranked women's team, and the Buffs paid for it with their third loss of the season (13-3), their third in Pac-12 play (2-3) and their second straight at home.

The Buffs wound up shooting just 20.7 percent from the field in the first half and 32.8 percent for the game (19-of-58). The Cardinal, meanwhile, finished at 50 percent (29-of-58) and scored 24 points off of the Buffs' 15 turnovers. CU also was outscored 34-18 in the paint.

Winning for the 63rd consecutive time against conference opposition, the Cardinal improved to 15-1 overall and remained unbeaten (6-0) and atop the Pac-12. Stanford's only loss this season was at then-No. 2 Connecticut (68-58) in November.

CU had only two players in double figures – sophomore Brittany Wilson and freshman Jen Reese with 10 each. Junior Chucky Jeffery, the Buffs' leading scorer (17.2), managed only two first-half points – her lowest total since scoring that many last season at Iowa State.

Talented Stanford got the bulk of its points from four of its five starters. The Cardinal, not bothered by the short turnaround and flight over the Rockies after Thursday night's 62-43 win at Utah, got 20 from junior Joslyn Tinkle and 19 each from sophomores Chiney Ogumike and Toni Kokenis. Senior Nnemkadi Ogumike added 15.

The Buffs finished their 13-point loss to Cal on Thursday night by going scoreless in that game's final 7:01 – and unfortunately there was a carryover. On Saturday afternoon, they didn't score against the Cardinal until freshman Jasmine Sborov sank two free throws with 13:01 left before intermission.

And they didn't get their first field goal against Stanford until Sborov hit a short baseline jumper a couple of minutes later. The timeline was ugly; counting the Thursday night drought that stretched into Saturday, CU went 14:09 without any points and 15:25 between field goals.

Before Sborov's basket, the Buffs missed their first 12 shots. They went to their locker room to contemplate these shooting numbers – 6-of-29 from the field (20.7 percent), 1-of-9 from three-point range (11.1 percent) – and a 32-15 halftime deficit. CU's 15 first-half points tied for the program's fifth fewest at home.

Not surprisingly, no Buffs player reached double figures in the first half, and Jeffery scored her only basket 26.2 seconds before the break.

With the Buffs starting frigid and staying that way in the first 20 minutes, the Cardinal still led only 13-9 after a Lexy Kresl three-pointer at the half's 9:15 mark. But at that point, Stanford took off, going on a 17-2 run that left CU staring at a 19-point deficit (30-11) with just under 3 minutes before halftime.

It would have been nice if Stanford came out in front in the second half, but that didn't happen. The Cardinal opened with an 11-3 run and went ahead by 25 (43-18) on a layup by Kokenis with 18:43 to play.

From there, CU's mission was one of trying to finish with respectability. In the final 15:16, the Buffs closed to within 21 (48-27) on a three-pointer by Brittany Wilson, but the Cardinal kept the pressure on and took a 29-point lead (69-40) with 6:18 to play – the largest of the game.

TEMPE, Ariz. – The desert was anything but warm for the Colorado Buffaloes. Colorado endured its lowest scoring and shooting half in team history, and despite a strong effort late, Arizona State claimed a 64-43 Pac-12 Conference decision Thursday at Wells Fargo Arena.

Colorado (13-4, 2-4) shot just 12 percent (3-of-25) and scored nine points in the first 20 minutes as the Buffaloes dropped their third straight game.

Arizona State (12-5, 3-3), which entered the game leading the Pac-12 in scoring defense, held the Buffaloes scoreless for the first 8 minutes, 17 seconds and CU missed its first 15 shots from the field. Freshman Jasmine Sborov was able to get the Buffaloes on the board with 11:43 remaining, by making one of two free throws.

"(Arizona State) pressured the ball very well," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "They denied the wings which we knew they would do and we had trouble getting an entry pass. At the same time we had some shots at the rim and they just didn't fall. When that happens you have to rely on your defense."

Unfortunately on the other end, Arizona State could do no wrong. The Sun Devils hit six of their first eight shots, sprinting out to a 12-0 lead before Sborov's free throw.

Chucky Jeffery scored Colorado's first field goal at the 7:43 mark, but ASU's Kimberly Brandon immediately answered with the first of two early 3-pointers to extend the Sun Devils' lead to 19-4.

Brandon had a spectacular start scoring 16 of her game-high 20 points in the first 20 minutes, shooting 7-of-8 from the field. After Lexy Kresl hit a 3-pointer with 5:03 left in the first half, Brandon made her second long range shot to give ASU a 30-9 advantage. That bomb sparked a 15-0 run to end the half for the Sun Devils who shot 62 percent (18-of-29) in the period and held a 42-9 lead at the break.

"We didn't have our defensive presence as much as we have had, and as much as we needed it," Lappe said. "(Arizona State) felt very comfortable and knocked down shots."

To their credit, the Buffaloes rebounded with a solid second half. Colorado picked up its intensity on defense which led to better offensive opportunities.

CU cooled Arizona State off after the break to the tune of 26 percent from the field. The Buffaloes also forced 11 Sun Devils turnovers and their shooting skyrocketed to 54 percent (14-of-26) over the final 20 minutes.

"We weren't impressed with the first half...we knew we had it within ourselves to do better," sophomore guard Brittany Wilson said. "(In the second half) we had to start somewhere. We had to get focused and play like we knew we could."

"Once we slowed it down and pressed them, and made them feel uncomfortable, (the flow of the game) it flipped into reverse."

Wilson and Jen Reese led the way in the second half. Wilson scored seven points of her eight points in that period, including a 3-pointer in the first possession of the half that set the tone. Reese scored six points, on 3-of-4 from the field, in the second half and had seven of her team-high eight rebounds.

Overall, Colorado outscored Arizona State 34-22 in the second half and trimmed the lead to as low as 17 (56-39) in the final five minutes.

"We were in a different mindset in the second half," Lappe said. "I liked how our team didn't quit. We started to defend and showed a lot of resolve. We kept playing hard and did some good things."

Jeffery was Colorado's high scorer with nine points, but had 12 of CU's 27 turnovers.

BOULDER - Junior Chucky Jeffery hit two free throws with 1.2 seconds to play, pushing the Colorado women's basketball team past Southern California 69-67 on Thursday night at the Coors Events Center.

The win was the Buffaloes' first at home this season in Pac-12 Conference play, improving their overall record to 15-4 and evening their league mark at 4-4.

USC (10-8, 5-3) lost for the first time in four road games this season in conference play. The Trojans had defeated the Buffs twice last season, once in the Women of Troy holiday tournament in LA and 21/2 months later in the WNIT quarterfinals in Boulder. USC's margins of victory were 14 and 17 points.

Jeffery scored 19 points, with sophomore Brittany Wilson hitting a game-best 21. Freshman Jen Reese added 13.

USC also had three players in double figures, led by Christina Marinacci's 17 - 12 in the second half.

Both teams led by as many as four points in a first half that saw seven ties and five lead changes. But by intermission the Buffs trailed by two (35-33) as the Trojans got uncharacteristically hot from the field.

Last in the Pac-12 in field goal percentage (37.5), USC shot 55.6 percent (15-of-27), hitting half of its eight three-point attempts. Senior Briana Gilbreath led USC with 14 first-half points, making six of her eight field goal attempts and both of her tries from behind the arc.

CU stayed close in the first half by scoring 11 points off of eight USC turnovers while committing only five. The Buffs shot 13-of-31 from the field (41.9 percent) and hit only two of their eight three-point attempts.

Their second-half mission should have been to clamp down on the Trojans - and that should have included Marinacci. After scoring five first-half points, the 6-1 junior forward accounted for 10 in the first 41/2 minutes - all of USC's scoring - as the Trojans rolled to an eight-point (44-36) advantage.

But the Buffs stormed back, outscoring the visitors 8-1 and pulling to within a point (45-44) on a conventional three-point play by Reese with 13:53 to play. CU took its first lead (54-53) of the last half on a three-pointer by Brittany Wilson 10:10 remaining - and the back-and-forth began. For the next 61/2 minutes, the lead changed hands six times before Ashley Corral hit a layup, she followed with two free throws to put USC up 65-62 with 2:40 left.

Reese's baseline jumper pulled the Buffs to 65-64, and Jeffery tied the score at 65-65 by hitting one of two free throws with 1:07 remaining.

The Trojans countered with a jump shot in the lane by Cassie Harberts to take a 67-65 advantage, leaving the Buffs 42.6 seconds to respond. After coach Linda Lappe called a timeout, Reese drained a turnaround from the baseline, tying the score at 67-67 and giving USC 29.4 seconds for a final shot at the win.

Trojans coach Michael Cooper, the former Lakers star, called timeout with 25.5 seconds to play. The ball went inside to Briana Gilbreath, but she was tied up and the possession arrow pointed to the Buffs, who had 9 seconds.

Jeffery brought the ball downcourt, appeared to lose the ball at the right baseline, but Briana Gilbreath fouled her with 1.2 seconds to play. Jeffery hit both ends of her one-and-one - and when she intercepted USC's full-court desperation pass on its second in-bounds attempt, this one was over.

BOULDER - Colorado went cold early, late and played sloppily in between, eventually paying with a 62-54 overtime loss to UCLA on Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffaloes slipped to 15-5 overall and 4-5 in the Pac-12 Conference. The Bruins evened their overall record at 10-10 and at 5-4 in the league.

Freshman Lexy Kresl led the Buffs with 15 points, while junior Chucky Jeffery added 14. UCLA's Markel Walker led all scorers with 26 points.

CU opened the game by missing its first 13 shots and finished by making only two field goals in the last 10:25, including overtime. The Buffs also committed 25 turnovers.

The Buffs led only once in the first half, and that one-point advantage (24-23) came courtesy of Jeffery's buzzer beater before intermission. Otherwise, the home team's largest crowd of the season - 5,885 on a State Farm Insurance day - mostly stayed in a holding pattern for 19:59.

That CU enjoyed even that slight advantage at the break was surprising. The Buffs missed their first 13 shots and fell behind 9-2 - their only points coming on a pair of free throws by Meagan Malcolm-Peck. CU didn't get its first basket until Jeffery hit a short jumper in the lane at the 13:26 mark.

Jeffery's "J" brought the Buffs to 9-4 and was followed by a Kresl three-pointer that narrowed the gap to 9-7. But just as quickly, CU fell behind by six (13-7) and didn't pull even until Brittany Wilson's layup made it 19-19 with 2:06 before halftime.

UCLA took a four-point lead (23-19) before Rachel Hargis hit one of two free throws and Jeffery converted a steal into a layup, then hit her jump shot at the buzzer to give CU its one-point lead at intermission.

CU committed 10 first-half turnovers, but UCLA managed only six points from those. Meanwhile, the Buffs scored 12 points off of UCLA's eight errors. The Buffs outrebounded the Bruins 27-20 and had an 8-0 advantage over a UCLA bench that held only three players.

But clearly, a better second-half start was needed by the Buffs - and they got it by opening with a 6-1 surge to take their largest lead of the afternoon to that point. Jeffery accounted for four of that total, scoring on a pair of layups to send CU ahead 30-24 with 16:13 to play.

A layup in transition by Rebekah Gardner brought UCLA to within one (35-34) and her 12-foot jump shot on the next possession gave the Bruins their first lead (36-35) since the first half's last 30 seconds.

CU had just under 10 minutes to figure out UCLA's changing defenses. The Buffs regained the lead (37-36) on a Julie Seabrook layup with 7:46 to play. But Gardner hit one of two free throws and followed with a layup to put UCLA up 39-37, giving her seven consecutive points during a 7-2 Bruins run.

The Buffs forged a 39-39 tie on a Jen Reese jumper, went ahead 41-39 on Jeffery's layup and didn't surrender the lead for the final 5:25. Fouled while attempting a three-pointer from the left wing with 2:07 left, Kresl hit all three free throws to put CU up 46-42.

But UCLA crept back to 46-44 on Thea Lemberger's runner from the right side. With a chance to tie, the Bruins lost the ball on a traveling call with 57 seconds to play. CU called a timeout, but promptly turned it over, allowing Gardner to work the baseline for a layup that tied the score at 46-46 with 7.5 seconds left.

After another timeout, the Buffs committed yet another turnover - their 23rd in regulation - and CU's sloppy afternoon was headed for overtime.

The Bruins outscored the Buffs 9-2 to start the extra period, but CU crept to within 55-51 on a Kresl three-pointer with just over a minute remaining. UCLA put the game away by making seven of eight free throws in the final 50 seconds.

EUGENE, Ore. - Junior guard Chuckey Jeffery scored 18 points and became the 24th player in Colorado history to reach 1,000 for a career, but one prolonged drought gave Oregon a 67-62 decision Thursday afternoon at the Matthew Knight Arena.

The Buffaloes drop their third straight game, falling to 15-7 overall, 4-7 in Pac-12 play. Oregon improves to 13-10, 5-6.

Colorado went 9 minutes, 18 seconds between the end of the first half and beginning of the second half without a field goal, allowing the Ducks to erase a double-digit deficit with a game-changing 18-0 run, including 13 straight to start the second half.

CJ, which led by as much as 13 in the first half, hit just 33 percent in the second half and missed 13 consecutive shots during Oregon's big run.

Jeffery, now with 1,000 points, scored her 1,000th point on a layup with 12:46 in the second half. Lexy Kresl had a career-high 17 points and matched a personal best with five 3-point field goals.

Shots which hadn't been falling for the Buffaloes early in games, started falling Saturday. Oregon native Jen Reese hit her first three shots and Kresl made three early 3-pointers, her third of the half sparked a 7-0 run that opened up a 26-14 lead.

Colorado's defense also did a good job containing Oregon's fast paced offense. The Ducks shot just 35 percent in the first half and also had 10 turnovers. The Ducks best friend in the first half was the foul line, as Oregon was able to convert 7-of-10 attempts while the Buffaloes didn't reach the foul line in the first period.

Brittany Wilson gave Colorado its largest lead of the half on a fast break layup with 2:26 to take a 34-21 advantage. But the Ducks scored five straight to end the half, including a Jasmin Holliday 3-pointer as CU led 34-26 at the break.

The second half belonged to Amanda Johnson. Oregon's leading scorer was held to three points in the first half, but exploded for 23 in the second 20 minutes, including a perfect 10-of-10 from the foul line. At one point the senior forward scored 10 straight points.

"Amanda Johnson is a really nice player, she went at us in the second half," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "We held her to three points in the first half and just did not do a good job on her in the second."

Johnson scored four points during Oregon's 13-0 run to open the half as the Ducks led 39-34 at the 16:35 mark. Jeffery finally broke the run with a pair of free throws, but Johnson answered with a 3-pointer.

Kresl matched Johnson's 3-pointer on the next possession, and the Buffaloes rallied to tie the game at 44-44 after Jeffery sank her layup to give her 1,000 points then followed the milestone shot up with a 3-point bomb.

However, Johnson responded with a 3-pointer of her own that sparked a 16-4 run that gave the Ducks their largest lead of the game at 60-48 with 4:01 remaining.

Colorado made one final furious run scoring 10 straight and pulling to within two at 60-58 on a Kresl 3-pointer. But the Ducks were able to put the game away at the line making 7-of-8 in the final minute.

I thought we did some really nice things in the first half, and I thought we did some really nice things in the second half as well," Lappe said. "We just had that four minute stretch to start the second half where we lost our eight point lead. We just didn't come out at halftime ready to go."

Johnson finished with a game-high 26 points and hit 11-of-12 from the free throw line. The Ducks were able to get to the line often and took full advantage making an impressive 28-of-32. Conversely, CU saw the stripe just five times, making three.

BOULDER - When Chuckey Jeffery set her feet, squared up and buried the game's first shot and her first three-pointer Thursday night, her coach had an inkling good things would follow. Linda Lappe was right.

Behind Jeffery's 21 points and career-high five treys, the Colorado women's basketball team cruised past Arizona 69-59 at the Coors Events Center, winning by its largest margin in Pac-12 Conference play.

"Chuckey, from the opening shot, showed how she was going to play that game...that set the tempo," Lappe said. "She took it with confidence and even if she missed it, she still had the same confidence...she really controlled the game from start to finish."

The Buffs, breaking a three-game losing streak, improved to 16-7 overall and 5-7 in the conference.

Behind 10 first-half points each from Jeffery and Brittany Wilson, the Buffs finished the first 20 minutes strong, then opened the final 20 with the same vigor. It was very close to being a performance with no dead spots, which Lappe called "huge. Our players, hopefully, learn from our mistakes. We came out in the second half really strong - and we haven't done that in a while."

The Buffs' 6-0 run to close the first half gave them a 40-37 lead at intermission, and five straight points to open the second half put them up eight (45-37) before the Wildcats could recover.

Arizona did, closing to 47-45 before CU surged with an 11-2 run - it featured Jeffery contributing a pair of treys - and went up 59-47. The Buffs held a double-digit lead for the 10:22 and sent the Wildcats (13-11, 2-10) to their seventh consecutive loss.

In addition to Jeffery's game-best 21 points, CU got 12 points from Wilson and a career-high 10 from freshman Jasmine Sborov, who also contributed seven rebounds, three assists and a steal.

Jeffery, who made five of her nine three-point attempts, snapped out of a behind-the-arc slump that had seen her make only 3-of-25 tries in the previous seven games.

"When I feel like my shot is good, I get encouraged to hit another one if I'm open," Jeffery said. "So I wasn't going to be hesitant."

Lappe was as pleased with Jeffery's defense as her offense, citing the clamp down job done on Arizona's Davellyn White, whose 10 points were 7.4 below her average. Also key was the Buffs' offensive block work: they outbounded the Wildcats 41-27, snaring 20 offensive boards and outscoring the visitors 21-4 on second-chance points.

Lappe called that "the difference in the game." Her team also converted 20 Wildcats turnovers into 13 points.

The Buffs, 56-54 winners against the Wildcats last month in Tucson, opened by hitting their first three shots - all treys - and went ahead 9-5. The Wildcats finally got in a flow and tied the score at 13-13 and took their first lead at 15-13 a minute later on a layup by Candice Warthen.

From there, the lead changed hands five times before Arizona got seven consecutive points from Shanita Arnold and took its largest lead (31-26) of the half. The Wildcats led for the next 8 minutes, surrendering their advantage when Ashley Wilson hit a layup with 1:48 left before intermission to send the Buffs ahead 38-37.

Another layup by Meagan Malcolm-Peck gave CU its 40-37 halftime lead and marked the Buffs' first 40-point half in Pac-12 play. The Wildcats made only one field goal in the final 6:59 of the first half but wound up shooting 63.6 percent overall (14-of-22) and 71.4 percent from behind the arc (5-of-7) - and that kept them close for awhile.

BOULDER - Colorado rallied late and forced overtime, but the Buffaloes faltered in the extra period and dropped a 61-56 Pac-12 Conference decision to Utah on Saturday at the Coors Events Center.

CJ, which overcame an eight-point deficit in the final 7:09, dropped to 16-9 overall and 5-9 in the Pac-12. Utah improved to 13-12, 6-8.

CU had two players in double figures - Chucky Jeffery with 15 and Julie Seabrook with 10 - while four Utah starters reached double figures. Taryn Wicijowski led all scorers with 16 points before fouling out with just under a minute left in OT. Janita Badon and Iwalani Rodriguez each had 15 for the Utes, while Michelle Plouffe added 13.

The Utes scored the last five points of the first half, overcoming a two-point Buffs advantage to lead 28-25 at intermission. Utah's largest lead of the half was four points, while CU was able to lead by just two on three occasions before surrendering its advantage at the half.

The Buffs had problems in the paint with the 6-3 Utes forward Wicijowski, who hit five of her seven first-half field goal attempts and one of three free throws for 11 points. But point guard Badon also proved difficult to control, slicing inside for most of her eight first-half points.

CU got seven points each in the first 20 minutes from Seabrook and Jeffery, with Seabrook getting all of hers in a 31/2-minute stretch that saw the Buffs rally from a 17-14 deficit to take a 20-19 lead. Then Jeffery connected on five straight points to put CU up 25-23, but Utah closed out the half with five straight.

CU got the first five points of the second half - all courtesy of freshman Lexy Kresl - to take a 30-28 lead. But things quickly went downhill from there, as Utah launched a 12-3 run and took its biggest advantage of the night to that point, 40-33, with 11:29 to play.

The Buffs cut the deficit to four (42-38) on a conventional three-point play by Ashley Wilson with 8 minutes remaining. But Badon negated that on the other end with her own layup and free throw.

And less than a minute later, Rodriguez' three-pointer from the left corner pushed the Utes up 48-40 with 7:09 remaining - but that would be Utah's last field goal in regulation.

Jen Reese hit a layup to make it 48-42, but the Buffs were running out of time. Jeffery and Reese answered, with Jeffery working inside for a layup to pull CU to within 48-44. Reese was fouled while hitting a baseline jumper, but missed her free throw.

Still, with 3:26 left, the Buffs trailed 48-46, and Jeffery tied it at 48-48 with a layup. She, too, was fouled, but she also missed her free throw.

But Kresl didn't, hitting both ends of her one-and-one to give CU a 50-48 edge with 2:04 to play. Rodriguez tied it at 50 with a pair of free throws with 49.8 seconds to play.

Badon scored Utah's first four points in the extra period, Jeffery converted a steal into a layup, then Wicijowski hit one of two free throws to put the Utes up 55-52 with 2:15 remaining.

A pair of foul shots by Reese cut the deficit to 55-54 and the Buffs got a stop and a rebound by Reese at the other end. Sborov layup attempt was thwarted by Wicijowski - but the Utes' forward fouled out on the play, sending Sborov to the line. She hit both free throws, giving CU a 56-55 lead, but Rodriguez' trey from the left corner pushed Utah back in front 58-56. The Buffs called time out with 27.9 seconds to play.

Jeffery took the in-bounds pass, drove the right side but could neither hit the basket nor draw the foul. CU couldn't control the rebound and was forced to foul Plouffe with 16.7 seconds showing.

Plouffe hit both free throws, giving the Utes a 60-56 advantage - and the Buffs turned it over for the final time and once again fouled Plouffe. She hit one of two free throws, giving Utah its 61-56 final advantage.

STANFORD, Calif. - The Stanford sister tandem of Chiney and Nnemkadi Ogumwike accounted for 41 points as the No. 2 ranked Cardinal improved their home court winning streak to 77 games with a 68-46 Pac-12 Conference win over Colorado Thursday evening at Maples Pavilion on the Stanford campus.

Stanford, which clinched its 12th straight conference title one week ago, improves to 25-1 overall and 16-0 in league play. Colorado has dropped three straight and falls to 16-10 overall and 5-10 in the Pac-12.

Chucky Jeffery notched her sixth double-double of the season with 13 points and 13 rebounds. Lexy Kresl and Ashley Wilson each had nine points off the bench for the Buffaloes.

Colorado played a strong first half defensively, limiting Stanford to 32 percent from the field and forced 15 turnovers.

"We wanted to make sure we didn't back down," Colorado coach Linda Lappe said. "We weren't intimidated."

Despite their shooting woes, the Cardinal were able to get to the foul line and capitalized. The Buffaloes were called for 13 fouls in the first 20 minutes which resulted in 13 Stanford free throws. Nine of them alone came from Nnemkadi Ogumwike.

A Wilson layup with 11:12 remaining in the first half gave the Buffaloes a 12-11 lead. Chiney Ogumwike scored on a layup and older sister Nnemkadi hit three free throws to put the Cardinal up by four at 16-12. Jeffery cut Stanford's lead to two with a bucket, but Lindy La Rocque hit a 3-pointer and the Cardinal were able to widen their lead to 26-18 at the half.

Stanford hit their first five shots of the second half to spur a decisive 33-6 run, pushing its lead to 59-24 on pair of Joslyn Tinkle free throws.

Colorado stayed competitive though, getting 29 points from its bench with that crew closing the gap late. Kresl had seven of her nine points in that late run. Jasmine Sborov had six points and Rachel Hargis chipped in five.

Stanford had a sizeable advantage at the line, making 27-of-33 attempts. In contrast, Colorado was 8-of-12 on free-throw attempts.

Nnemkadi Ogumwike finished with 28 points and 11 rebounds. Chiney Ogumwike had 18 points, seven rebounds and three steals.

BOULDER - Squandered opportunities in the final minutes were difficult to overlook, but University of Colorado women's coach Linda Lappe contended her team's 64-62 loss Thursday night to Oregon came earlier.

"No one play, no one shot lost the game," Lappe said. "I can think of several times in second half when we lost the game."

But CU's play in the final 2:14 at the Coors Events Center is hard to ignore. Including two free throws, the Buffaloes missed six shots in that stretch and committed two of their 16 turnovers in the last minute.

With the score tied at 62-62, Brittany Wilson misfired on two free throws with 1:47 to play, then missed a floating jumper in front of the basket at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime. The Ducks got a free throw each from Laura Stanulis and Ariel Thomas in the last 1:32 for the winning margin.

CU dropped its fifth consecutive game and lost for the eighth time in nine games. The Buffs fall to 16-12 overall and 5-12 in the Pac-12 Conference, while Oregon improved to 15-14 and 6-11. The Ducks swept the Buffs, winning 67-62 last month in Eugene.

Aside from three ties, CU led the entire first half, leading by as many as six points on two occasions. But the Buffs led by only two (30-28) at halftime. Once the Ducks passed them (40-38) with just under 14 minutes to play, the Buffs never regained the lead.

Chucky Jeffery inished with a game-best 19 points in 26 minutes. Julie Seabrook added 16 points - two below her career high - and Lexy Kresl had 10 for the Buffs. Oregon had two players in double figures - Amanda Johnson and Deanna Weaver with 11 each - but none of the Ducks who played scoring.

CU limited Oregon, the Pac-12's second-best scoring team (72.6 point average), to nine field goals in 33 first-half attempts (27.3 percent). But the Buffs' early defense was counterbalanced (in a bad way) by their turnovers. Averaging 18 a game in conference play, CU was halfway there by intermission.

With the Buffs up 35-30, Oregon's Danielle Love promptly hit back-to-back treys, giving the Ducks their first lead of the night - 36-35 - with 16:17 remaining.

The Ducks took their largest lead of the game - 48-41 - on a three-pointer by Jordan Loera with 9:27 left. Just under a minute later, Seabrook hit a short jumper and was fouled. Her free throw pulled the Buffs to within four (48-44), and Jeffery followed with a trey from the left wing to close the gap to one (48-47).

Oregon opened a six-point lead (53-47) on a short jumper by Weaver and a three-pointer by Johnson with 6:30 to play. But CU wouldn't go away, closing to within one (53-52) on a Kresl three-pointer, then pulling to within a point again (56-55) on a Kresl layup at the 4:46 mark.

The Buffs twice crept to a point back in the next 2 minutes, then tied the game at 62-62 on a Kresl trey from the right wing with 2:14 left. But at that point, CU's scoring was done.

Lappe liked, for the most part, the way her team attacked Oregon's zone: "I think we executed well at times... I liked that we didn't just take all threes; we got some easy shots inside. Meagan (Malcolm-Peck) and Julie had some nice easy looks. I thought we were more versatile in how we were getting shots."

But, noted Lappe, the Buffs also encountered a second-half cold spell, and "when Lexy got the three to go down (tying the score at 62) it gave us a boost."

CU's chance to take the lead fizzled when Brittany Wilson missed a pair of free throws less than a half minute later. With 3:2 seconds left, CU called a timeout, setting up a final shot, but Brittany Wilson's short runner at the buzzer missed.

Lappe's plan was for someone to drive to the rim, but the Ducks denied Jeffery and Kresl the ball. Lappe said she believed Brittany Wilson "had a decent look; it was a little bit of a floater, we just couldn't get it to go down."

BOULDER - Saturday at the Coors Events Center technically belonged to Julie Seabrook - the University of Colorado women's basketball team's lone senior. By afternoon's end, at a postgame senior celebration, she was more than happy to make room at midcourt for sharpshooting freshman Lexy Kresl.

Veteran and newcomer - Seabrook and Kresl - collaborated nicely to help push CU to a 67-57 Pac-12 Conference win against Oregon State, which had hammered the Buffaloes by 20 points in early February in Corvallis. CU snapped a five-game losing streak and won for only the second time in 10 games.

"It was a great win for our team, our program and for Julie Seabrook," CU coach Linda Lappe said. "I thought everybody stepped up, played well within the system. Everybody played just a little bit better overall. We were outdefending defensively... and offensively things were clicking."

Kresl, who also collected a career-best six rebounds, went several clicks past clicking. She poured in a career-high 20 points on six-of-seven shooting from behind the three-point arc - the top percentage this season in the Pac-12 and the second-best in CU women's hoops history.

Seabrook, meanwhile, posted her first career double-double - 11 points, 10 rebounds - ever in conference play. She capped her home career by contributing 27 points and 18 rebounds in her final two regular-season games.

"It was awesome...I'm kind of lost for words," said Seabrook, a native of North Vancouver, B.C., who was surprised by the game by the signing of the Canadian national anthem. "I did a pretty good job of keeping (her emotions) under wraps. I mean, I'll probably go home and cry later, but whatever."

Winning their final regular-season game, the Buffs improved to 17-12 overall and 6-12 in the league. Oregon State, which blasted CU 65-45 in their first meeting, ended the regular season at 18-11, 9-9.

Oregon State had three players in double figures, topped by Earlysia Marchbanks' 16 points. She also had nine rebounds, eight steals and seven assists. Sage Indendli added 12 - all in the second half - and Ali Gibson scored 10.

The Buffs shot 44.4 percent from the field (12-of-27) in the second half to keep the Beavers at bay. The Buffs finished the game at 41.8 percent from the field (23-of-55) while holding the Beavers to 32.1 percent (18-of-56). CU outrebounded the visitors 46-31, outscored them 30-18 in the paint, 14-4 in fast break points and 25-9 in bench points (20 courtesy of Kresl).

"Everybody made significant contributions," Lappe said. "Any win feels good, especially when you haven't had one for a while...but we kept getting better and better in the last five games."

After an early 7-7 tie, the Buffs put together a 12-2 run capped by Kresl's first trey of the afternoon and took the first of two 10-point leads (19-9).

The Beavers closed to within six (19-13), but Kresl countered with back-to-back three-pointers and pushed the lead back to 10 (25-10) with 2:36 left before intermission. OSU answered with treys by Gibson and Alyssa Martin, cutting CU's halftime advantage to 27-21.

CU never let OSU closer than two points (31-29) in the first 10 minutes of the second half, going back up by six (35-29) on consecutive baskets by Jasmine Sborov and Rachel Hargis. With 8:08 to play, the Buffs pushed their advantage to 10 (44-34) on a conventional three-point play by Meagan Malcolm-Peck, who took a crisp bounce pass from Sborov in transition for a layup and a free throw, followed by another Kresl trey.

That three-pointer - Kresl's fourth of the game on four attempts - capped a 13-5 CU run. But after that shot fell, the Buffs didn't get another field goal for almost 4 minutes, allowing the Beavers to creep to within 47-43 with 4:49 remaining.

CU finally broke the drought (and the Beavers' backs) with back-to-back Kresl three-pointers - the first with 3:51 left, the second just 34 seconds later. The Buffs were ahead 54-43 - their largest margin of the afternoon to that point with just over 3 minutes to play. And they went ahead by 13 with 1:34 left.

LOS ANGELES - California parlayed a fast start with a solid finish Thursday night to hold off Colorado and eliminate the Buffaloes from the Pac-12 Conference women's basketball tournament.

The second-seeded Bears defeated the tenth-seeded Buffs 68-59 at USC's Galen Center, leaving CU's uncertain postseason hopes in the hands of the WNIT selection committee. The Buffs finished their second season under Linda Lappe 18-13, while the Bears improved to 23-8 and moved into the Pac-12 semifinals.

Cal won for the third time against CU, which never led Thursday night and fell behind by as many as 16 points in the first half before bouncing back and at least unsettling the talented Bears.

During regular-season play, Cal defeated CU 68-55 in Boulder and 64-43 in Berkeley. The Buffs advanced to Thursday night's second round via a 55-41 win against No. 7 seed Utah the previous night.

Sophomore guard Brittany Wilson, who led CU with 21 points against Utah, again paced the Buffs with 18 points against Cal. Junior guard Chucky Jeffery added 16 and was the only other CU player in double figures.

Cal had four players in double figures, topped by Laysia Clarendon's 12. Lindsay Sherbert and Talia Caldwell added 11 each, and Reshanda Gray had 10.

The Bears held the Buffs to 37.5 percent shooting from the field in both halves (20-of-56) and outscored them 40-35. The way they started, it seemed reasonable to predict the Buffs would trail at intermission - and they did. But the Bears' 10-0 run to open the game wasn't an indication of how the Buffs would finish the half.

Showing no signs of rust or first-game nerves after their first-round bye, the Bears got six quick inside points from Caldwell and Gray and a pair of free throws from Sherbert to burst in front 10-0 before Jeffery finally hit a layup with 16:20 left before the break.

The Buffs closed to 11-7 - their smallest deficit of the half - before the Bears surged again, this time going on an 18-6 run to open a 16-point (27-11) lead.

CU - particularly Brittany Wilson - wasn't ready for the fork. In her first 3 minutes, she scored nine of her 11 first-half points on three three-pointers. Her first two treys were followed by a Lexy Kresl three-pointer that trimmed Cal's lead to 31-24, and the last one cut Cal's margin to 33-27.

But while "B-Wil" was getting into scoring mode, so was the Bears' Clarendon, who scored her team's last six points of the half and had Cal in front 35-27 at intermission.

The Buffs' energy would stay with them through the break; they outscored the Bears 6-2 to open the second half, creeping to within four (37-33) on a put-back by senior Julie Seabrook.

Cal answered with an inside basket by Gray and a three-pointer by Sherbert and increased its lead to nine (42-33), then went up by double figures (43-33) again on one of two free throws by Sherbert. CU escaped any more immediate damage when Rachel Hargis was called for a flagrant foul under the basket, sending Gray to the line for two free throws.

She missed them both, and Cal didn't score on the accompanying possession. The Buffs stayed with the Bears thereafter, pulling within five (43-38) on a conventional three-point by Hargis with 11:11 remaining.

For the next 61/2 minutes, Cal held an eight-point lead or larger until a put-back by freshman Jasmine Sborov and one of two free throws by Brittany Wilson closed the gap to six (55-49) with 4:14 to play.

CU could get no closer before time ran out. Cal closed it out by hitting nine of 10 free throws in the final 1:16.

BOULDER—The University of Colorado women's basketball team opened the second half on a 18-6 run to put away instate foe Northern Colorado, taking home a 54-42 win in the first round of the 2012 Women's NIT here Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffs (19-13) used a balanced offensive attack and stellar team defense to advance in the tournament for the second straight season. Four Buffaloes scored either nine or 10 points while the Buffs held the Bears (20-12) leading scorer D'Shara Strange to just two points on an 0-of-10 shooting performance.

"At this point of the season, you learn that any win is a good win," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "Even though we didn't play our best we ended up playing good enough to win and you don't take wins for granted."

"It was good to get a win," senior Julie Seabrook said. "Obviously we will work on the stuff we need to work on the rest of this week and get ready for the second round."

UNC's only lead was erased by the Buffaloes one minute into the game, as the Bears took a quick 2-0 lead before the Buffs scored the game's next 11 points over a six minute span. That 11-0 run was spurred by junior Chucky Jeffery, who hit two layups, and Seabrook, who made 3-of-4 from the line.

The Bears then whittled away at the lead the remainder of the first half, getting the game within four points at 15-11 with a Molly Duehn 3-pointer with 8:20 left in the half and keeping it close the remainder of the half. After cutting the CU lead to three at 21-18 with under two minutes remaining, freshman Lexy Kresl sent the Buffs to the locker room on a high note.

She hit her first 3-pointer of the game with just :05 left on the first half clock. It was her first 3-pointer of the game and tied the CU freshman season record of 57 set previously by CU legends Brittany Spears and Shelley Sheetz.

The Buffs took full advantage of Kresl's first-half momentum, opening the second half on that 18-6 run spanning the first 10 minutes of the game with most of the credit going to the defense. Kresl hit her second 3-pointer of the game in that run to set a new CU freshman record. That run gave CU a 42-24 lead but to their credit, the Bears didn't give up.

"We knew they weren't going to go away," Brittany Wilson said. "They want to be the premier school in Colorado just as much as we do. We had to come out and put a dagger in them early. I was proud of the fact that we did that, it says a lot about this team."

"The start of the second half was the key to the game," Lappe said. "We knew we had to come right out of the half and throw the first punch, be aggressive and I thought we did that. I thought we were out-hustled in the first half, so I wanted to change our mentality, step up and be aggressive."

Turning up their own defense, the Bears cut CU's lead to 10 points at 50-40 with 1:20 left, but freshman Jasmine Sborov hit the boards and then hit 4-of-4 free throws in the final minute to keep the game double figures.

Brittany Wilson and Kresl led the way with 10 points while Seabrook and Jeffery added nine apiece. Each of the five CU starters grabbed five or more boards, led by Jeffery's eight.

The Bears forced CU into 27 turnovers with 23 steals in the game while CU recorded 10 steals off of the Bears' 22 turnovers. CU held UNC to a 14-of-53 (26.4 percent) shooting performance, allowing just seven field goals each half.

The Buffs recorded their 19th win of the season, surpassing last year's total of 18 as Lappe is now 37-29 as CU's head coach in the past two seasons.

"We have 19 wins and some have been good and some not so good," Lappe said. "But a win is a win. I'm proud of our team for stepping up and knocking down our free throws, I thought that was a huge positive for us."

The Buffs finished the game shooting 19-of-25 (76 percent) from the line, which included Sborov's four clutch from the charity stripe in the final minute.

BOULDER - The Colorado Buffaloes survived a cat-and-mouse final minute Thursday night to defeat Villanova 48-47 and advance to the quarterfinals of the WNIT.

CU (21-13) will play at Oklahoma State, a former Big 12 Conference adversary, on Sunday (11:30 a.m., MDT).

Chucky Jeffery led the Buffs with her ninth double-double of the season - 19 points and a career-high 17 rebounds. Villanova (19-15) got 16 points from Emily Leer.

The Wildcats played their second game without leading scorer (14.4 points) and rebounder (7.6) Laura Sweeney, a 6-2 junior. She suffered a hand injury in the first-round against American University and did not play at Illinois State.

The first half produced a 16-15 CU lead and very few highlights. CU's 16 first-half points were its second-lowest of the season at home, while Villanova's 15 points were a season low. The 31 points by both teams was the lowest combined since records have been kept in CU women's basketball.

The Buffs led by six (14-8) with 7:09 left before intermission and got only a layup by Brittany Wilson to close out the half and produce the one-point advantage.

Villanova closed the gap with a three-pointer by Lindsay Kimmel, a jumper by Emily Suhey and a layup by Rachel Roberts - and those seven points were enough to bring the Wildcats to within one.

After committing a season-low nine turnovers in their 64-55 win at South Dakota, the Buffs had nine at halftime Thursday night. That number exceeded their made field goals by four (7-of-22). Villanova committed six first-half turnovers - matching its field goal total (6-of-26).

CU had a commanding 25-13 rebounding edge, mainly because Villanova appeared under orders to not crash the boards. The Wildcats' staple - the three-pointer - wasn't working either; they finished the half with just two in nine attempts after averaging nine made per game in Big East Conference play.

Something had to change in the second half, and the Buffs made sure it did. They opened with an 11-2 run to take a 10-point (27-17) advantage when Lexy Kresl hit a three-pointer - CU's first of the game - with 16:40 remaining.

The Buffs moved in front by 11 (29-18) on a Jeffery layup before the Wildcats responded. A three-pointer by Kimmel and a conventional three-point play by Devon Kane reduced the deficit to 29-24 with 14:10 to play, then to 29-26 on a short jumper by Emily Leer.

And at the 11:42 mark, Megan Pearson drained a straightaway three-pointer to tie it at 29-29. Just over a minute later, Kane hit a pair of free throws, capping a 13-0 Villanova run and sending the Wildcats ahead 31-29.

The Buffs had gone 6:34 without a point, but they scored two in quick succession by Jeffery and Ashley Wilson to recapture the lead (33-31). A jumper in the lane by Jasmine Sborov pushed it to 35-31 with 7:40 left and elicited a Villanova timeout.

It did little good, and when Jeffery hit a short jump shot the Buffs had completed an 8-0 run and gone ahead 37-31. But CU couldn't hold that advantage.

Back-to-back baskets by Leer - the second a three-pointer - pulled Villanova to within 41-38 with 3:23 remaining. A layup by Pearson made it 41-40, but that was as close as the Wildcats got.

CU got a layup and a free throw from Jeffery, another lay-in by Julie Seabrook, followed by an acrobatic move in the lane by Jeffery to go ahead 48-44.

But Nova wouldn't roll. Out of a timeout, Leer came off a screen and hit a trey from the top of the key to close to 48-47 with 1:12 to play. Jeffery missed with half a minute remaining, Villanova rebounded and called timeout with 9.3 seconds left.

The Wildcats' final shot was Kane's missed layup from the left side with just over a second to play. Jeffery rebounded. The Buffs had escaped and were headed back to Big 12 country.

STILLWATER, Okla. - Colorado's perimeter shooting was as good as it's been all season. Unfortunately, Oklahoma State's inside game, combined with timely outside shooting of its own, was just a little better.

Colorado drained 15 3-pointers and Chucky Jeffery recorded her second career triple-double but Oklahoma State's inside presence was the difference as the Cowgirls defeated the Buffaloes 78-70 in the quarterfinals of the 2012 WNIT Sunday afternoon at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

Colorado's season ends at 21-14 while OSU (20-12) moves on to host San Diego, 58-47 winners over Washington, on Wednesday in the semifinals.

The Buffaloes hot 47 percent from downtown (15-of-32) tying for the second-most 3-pointers made in school history. Senior Julie Seabrook and sophomore Brittany Wilson each had four and five players hit multiple bombs.

Jeffery ran the offense smoothly, helping the Buffaloes to their best point total since a 77-59 win over Weber State on Dec. 17. She finished with 12 points, 12 rebounds and tied a career high with 10 assists, her second career double-double and third in team history.

But OSU controlled the paint, outscoring the Buffaloes 44-14. Tiffany Bias, who scored a game-high 24 points, did a lot of the damage attacking the basket.

Big 12 Freshman of the Year Liz Donohoe had 20 points and 13 rebounds. Five of her boards came on the offensive glass as the Cowgirls outboarded CU 38-34. Junior Toni Young had 17 points, nine rebounds and four blocks.

OSU hit a scorching 58 percent of their 2-point shots (25-of-43), while CU made just 9-of-33 (27.2 percent) in that same area.

"I loved our effort and fight today," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "Offensively, we haven't scored 70 points in a long time, the problem was defensively we couldn't stop them in the paint or off the drive."

The Cowgirls ran out to an 8-2 lead, but the Buffaloes started firing early and often. Brittany Wilson and Meagan Malcolm-Peck hit back-to-back 3's to pull CU to within 10-8. Ashley Wilson made four of her career-best six free throws to tie the game at 12.

After Seabrook hit a 3-pointer to trim OSU's lead to 16-15, the Cowgirls went on an 8-0 run with the help of layups from Bias and Kendra Suttles.

Oklahoma State had its largest lead of the first half at 36-23 before the Buffs closed the gap. Jeffery scored on consecutive possessions and Malcolm-Peck hit her second 3-pointer of the half as the Cowgirls led 40-33 at the break.

The Buffaloes scored the first five points of the second half, cutting it to 40-38 on Brittany Wilson's third 3-pointer, but OSU quickly extended its lead back to 10 thanks in part to consecutive layups by Bias, Donohoe and Young.

OSU increased its lead to 61-49 with 10:50 left in the game, but then started turning the ball over. The Cowgirls had turnovers on four straight possessions, which left the door open for Colorado, and the Buffaloes took advantage.

Seabrook scored seven straight points to spark a 12-0 run that ended with a Brittany Wilson 3-pointer and a 61-61 game with 6:46 left.

"We started executing our offense and we showed a lot of confidence even when we were down," Lappe said. "You have to love our players' heart and determination, to have the fight within them to make it a game."

As good as Oklahoma State had been inside all day, the Cowgirls received clutch outside shooting when they needed it most. Suttles broke the tie with OSU's first 3-pointer of the day. Donohoe then matched Suttles effort, drilling a 3-pointer to put OSU back up by six.

Lexy Kresl hit the first of her three late 3-pointers, to put the margin at 67-64, but the Buffaloes went cold after that missing their next seven shots. Oklahoma State took advantage with a 10-0 run, finished off by a Bias fastbreak layup.

Seabrook ended her career in style with a team-high 16 points on 6-of-11 from the field. Brittany Wilson finished with 14 points, her four 3-pointers also tying a career high.
