Colorado's Sports Information Department: The University of Colorado's Sports Information Department welcomes and encourages your interest in Colorado Basketball. We will make every effort to service your needs in covering the Buffs. The Sports Information Office maintains information on all current student-athletes and athletic department staff, as well as historical data on former athletes and Colorado's athletic department in general. The Sports Information Office is located in the Balch Fieldhouse Annex on the west side of Folsom Field.

Media Credentials: Credentials for University of Colorado home women's basketball games can be obtained by emailing, writing or calling the CU Sports Information Office the week prior to the scheduled game. Credentials will be left at the street level entrance to the practice facility off Regent Drive.

Road Game Credentials: Media credentials for Colorado road games can either be requested through CU's or the opponent's women's basketball media relations contact. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed.

Photographers: Photo passes are available for working photographers for officially recognized media outlets, and/or individuals on special assignment. Requests should be addressed in the same manner as media credentials.

Visiting Radio Personnel: Visiting radio personnel desiring to broadcast athletic events from the University of Colorado should contact the Sports Information Office at the earliest possible date to request permission to broadcast. Phone and ISDN lines are available for the opponent radio station next to the opponent bench for all home games.

Media Workroom: A media workroom, located just off the playing floor, through the tunnel and to the right, will be available for use by media before and after games.

Media Services: Game notes containing updated team and individual statistics, information on upcoming games, Pac-12 Conference standings, and the latest AP and WBCA polls will be available one day prior to each non-tournament game throughout the season. Game notes, media guides and roster information, as well as opponent materials can be picked up before every game in the media workroom in the Coors Events Center. Copies of the box score and play-by-play information, as well as postgame quotes, can be emailed to your outlet at the conclusion of each game, home or away.

Photography and Video Services: High-quality photography is available through the Sports Information Office. To request photographs of current CU players and staff, please contact the CU Sports Information Office. Please specify four-color or grayscale, as well as desired resolution and format. For video highlight clips, contact the Pac-12 Conference.

Telephone-Fax: Media desiring a phone line for their own use should contact Campus Telecommunications (303-492-5194) to have a line installed. All other phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. A fax machine is available, also on a first-come, first-serve basis. You may reach an outside line by dialing "8".

Press Row Services: Working media will be provided with full play-by-play and box score statistics at halftime and following the game, along with coach and player quotes following the game. Beverages are available in the media workroom.

Postgame Interview Policies: After a short cooling off period, Colorado head coach Linda Lappe and selected players will be available to the media. All requests for player or coach interviews from either home or visiting teams should be directed to a CU sports information staff member. The Colorado and opponent lockerrooms are closed to the media.

No-Smoking Policy: There is a no-smoking policy to conform to University of Colorado policy concerning smoking on campus in the Coors Events Center. Those members of the media who do smoke will be directed to those areas outside of the arena where smoking is permitted.

Interview Policies

1. Media representatives desiring access to players, coaches and facilities must obtain the consent of the Colorado Sports Information Office and assistant director Troy Andre.
2. All practices are open to the local media, as well as to any member of a national media outlet who is not connected with a future opponent on the team schedule. Visiting media must receive authorization to attend practice through the Sports Information Office, which will in turn seek approval from the Head Coach. Live television shots must be approved by the Sports Information Office and Linda Lappe in advance.
3. Talking is not permitted on the floor and court area of the Coors Events Center while practice is in session unless it is to request a player or coach for an interview through Troy Andre.
4. Basketball players may be interviewed following practice during both the fall and spring semesters. CU players are not to be interviewed prior to any practice unless approved 24 hours in advance by Troy Andre, and this exception is rare. All interviews on game days, prior to tipoff, are at the discretion of Linda Lappe.
5. The lockerroom is closed to the media at all times.
6. The training room, equipment room, and weight room are off-limits at all times to the media. The only exception to this rule is if a special feature involving one of the areas is requested, and approval must be sought in advance from the Sports Information Office and the appropriate department head.
7. Any requests for athletes and coaches on off days will be handled on an individual basis through the Sports Information Office.
8. Road practices are open only to members of the media that cover CU on a regular basis, as well as any members of the national media. Linda Lappe is available for interviews with opponent media based on her personal discretion.
9. It is the request of the University of Colorado women's basketball program that players are not to be called at home, unless permission has been granted by the player herself or through Troy Andre. Though most phone numbers are available through campus information, players are asked to decline interviews when they have been reached at home when that interview has not been approved.

HEAD COACH LINDA LAPPE

Fifth
Season

When Linda Lappe first came to Colorado as a freshman in the fall of 1998, she joined a basketball program with a proud history, but facing a rebuilding period. Over her five-year career as a player she helped lead the Buffaloes from a time of struggle to the doorstep of the Final Four.

In the spring of 2010, Lappe returned to Boulder, finding the Colorado program in a similar mode of rebuilding as she had when she arrived a decade earlier. But as she did as a player, her desire to return the Buffaloes back to prominence wouldn't be denied.

Now four years into her reign as head coach of her alma mater, Lappe is proving once again to be a catalyst in the revival of Colorado basketball.

Lappe is 83-52 at Colorado, and in just four short seasons, ranks second in all-time coaching wins for the program. She has guided the Buffaloes to four-straight postseason berths: the 2013 NCAA Tournament and three Postseason WNIT appearances (2011-12, '14). The 2014-15 season will be her eighth overall as a collegiate head coach, sporting a seven-year mark of 133-88 with each season ending with a record of .500 or better.

She has led the Buffaloes to four-straight winning seasons, and postseason appearances, for the first time since 2000-04. Additionally, Colorado's NCAA Tournament appearance in 2013 was its first since 2004.

Lappe brought Colorado back into the Associated Press national rankings for 25 straight weeks spanning parts of the last two seasons, from Dec. 17, 2012, to Jan. 13, 2014. Her team reached as high as No. 11 in the AP poll and No. 14 in the USA Today Sports coaches' poll during the 2013-14 nonconference schedule.

Bolstered by a statement-making upset win over then No. 8-ranked and eventual national runner-up Louisville, Lappe helped Colorado to its first AP Top 25 ranking since 2008, debuting at No. 25 on Dec. 17, 2012. With the initial ranking, Lappe became the eighth NCAA Division I women's basketball coach to play for an AP ranked team and then return to lead that same program back into the AP poll. Overall she was the 31st person to coach and play for an AP ranked women's team.

She picked up her 100th collegiate coaching win, and 50th at Colorado, with an 84-39 victory over New Mexico on Dec. 29, 2012. That win also clinched the Buffaloes' second-straight perfect nonconference regular season record (11-0). Colorado would extend its preseason success into 2013-14, winning its first nine games and establishing a 33-game nonconference regular season win streak which ended only after dropping a competitive 69-62 decision by No. 7 ranked Louisville on the road in December 2013.

Lappe led Colorado to a 19-15 record in 2013-14, advancing to the third round of the Postseason WNIT. After a 9-0 start led the Buffaloes to a No. 11 AP national ranking, Colorado was hit by the injury bug, and a slow start to Pac-12 play. However, as in previous years, the Buffaloes found momentum late in the season, winning five of their final eight games through a fourth-straight postseason appearance.

In her third season, Lappe led Colorado to a 25-7 mark and a fourth place finish in the Pac-12 at 13-5, its most overall wins since 1995-96 and league wins since 1994-95.

When the Buffaloes heard their name called on NCAA Selection Monday, she became one of eight head coaches to play for and coach the same program in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament as Colorado was invited to the Big Dance for the 13th time in program history.

Lappe has coached a pair of first-team all-conference performers, one for each league she's coached in. Lapped guided Chucky Jeffery to back-to-back All-Pac-12 honors in 2012 & '13 and Brittany Spears to All-Big 12 accolades in 2010-11.

Colorado's 2012-13 individual awards were plentiful to say the least. Arielle Roberson was named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year, while earning honorable mention to both the All-Pac-12 and league All-Defensive teams. Brittany Wilson earned All-Pac-12 Defensive honors while Jeffery and Rachel Hargis were given honorable mention along with Roberson.

Lappe helped mentor Spears, CU's all-time leading scorer, into a 2011 WNBA second round draft pick (No. 19 overall) by the Phoenix Mercury. Two years later, her team celebrated Jeffery being selected by the Minnesota Lynx in the second round (No. 24 overall) of the 2013 WNBA Draft. Jeffery would go on to play 17 games for the New York Liberty spanning the 2013 and '14 seasons.

Her staff has also been successful on the recruiting trail with four strong classes, including the 27th ranked recruiting class in the nation in 2013, according to ESPN's HoopGurlz.

Her second season (2011-12) couldn't have started any better. Colorado swept its 11-game nonconference regular season schedule and with its first ever Pac-12 win, a 58-52 come-from-behind classic at Utah in the opener, CU equaled the second-best start in school history at 12-0.

Colorado also achieved its first conference tournament win since 2007 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2012 Postseason WNIT for the second straight season.

At the time of her hire, Lappe, now 34, was the youngest head women's basketball coach at a BCS conference school, behind only Jamie Craighead (Sacramento State) and Candace Whittaker (UMKC). Just a couple months after her 30th birthday, she became the second-youngest to be named head coach of the CU women's team. Lappe's mentor, CU Athletic Hall of Fame coach Ceal Barry, was 28 when named on April 12, 1983, exactly 27 years to the date of her own hiring.

Possibly surprising to those outside the program, but not those who played or coached with her previously, Lappe's first year turned heads of outsiders immediately. With an emphasis on team, Lappe helped Colorado's squad thrive. She inherited a team with only six healthy returning players, three of which had limited playing experience. Lappe meshed the returners with three newcomers who all contributed significant minutes.

Picked to finish last in its final season as a member of the Big 12 Conference, Colorado surprised naysayers with a 6-10 record, good enough for an eighth place tie in a league that sent seven teams to the NCAA Tournament. Her first CU team finished 18-16 overall, advancing to the quarterfinals of the 2011 Postseason WNIT.

Lappe was the only rookie NCAA Division I head coach with wins over ranked teams in 2010-11, both wins special in their own way.

The first win was a 66-60 overtime triumph over No. 17 (AP)/16 (ESPN/USA Today/WBCA) ranked Iowa State. The victory provided Lappe with her first Big 12 win and came against her home state school.

Her second win over a ranked opponent provided a different set of circumstances. Needing wins in three of their final four regular season games to ensure postseason eligibility, Lappe's squad didn't waste any time by knocking off No. 16/15 Oklahoma (73-68) in Boulder. The Buffaloes then proceeded to win two straight road games, their first road wins of the season, to clinch their WNIT berth. Lappe became one of three NCAA I rookie head coaches to lead a team into the 2011 postseason, guiding Colorado to wins over UC Riverside, future Pac-12 rival California at home and on the road at Wyoming.

A key contributor as a player for some very prominent Colorado women's basketball teams, Lappe was named the seventh head coach in the program's history by then-athletic director Mike Bohn on April 12, 2010, just under a decade removed from her playing career at her alma mater.

Lappe returned full circle to the Buffaloes after a three-year stint as head coach at Metropolitan State College in Denver. She was 50-36 at Metro State, guiding the Roadrunners to top-three finishes and winning records in the Eastern Division of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference in each of her three seasons.

Her 2009-10 squad finished 17-12 overall before ending the season in the RMAC Tournament semifinals against the eventual NCAA Division II national runner up in Fort Lewis (Colo.) College. She had two players earn RMAC All-Eastern Division honors in 2010 in Kristin Valencia and Chelsea Williamson and Valencia was tabbed as the East Division Defensive Player of the Year.

Lappe's 2007-08 Metro State team posted a 19-10 overall record, finished second in the RMAC's East Division and qualified for the conference tournament. Metro State put together a season-high nine-game winning streak during the season and ranked third in the RMAC in scoring defense.

She landed her first head coaching job after four years as an assistant at the NCAA Division I level, three with Drake University (2004-06) and one with Colorado State (2006-07).

Lappe was hired at Colorado State by Jen Warden, a former Colorado assistant who was on the bench with Barry during Lappe's playing career. At CSU, Lappe was the recruiting coordinator and also worked with the Rams' backcourt players.

Lappe began her collegiate coaching career at Drake where she spent three years on Amy Stephens' staff, helping the Bulldogs to a 47-42 mark. She assisted Drake to WNIT appearances in 2004 and 2006 and helped sign a Top 50 class that would go on to help the Bulldogs claim the 2007 Missouri Valley Conference Championship.

A two-year captain and All-Big 12 honorable mention selection, Lappe averaged 7.8 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.0 assists in 115 games from 1998-2003. She helped Colorado to three consecutive NCAA appearances from 2001-03, including an Elite Eight appearance in 2002 and a spot in the Sweet 16 as a senior in 2003.

Lappe averaged 8.4 points and 4.4 rebounds as a senior 2003 while dishing out 96 assists, and shooting 84.3 percent from the free throw line as the Buffaloes finished 24-8 and fourth in the Big 12. She was a finalist for the V Foundation

Comeback of the Year award after missing large chunks of her sophomore and redshirt junior years with injuries.

She missed the first 11 games the 2001-02 season, but worked her way back into the lineup for CU's Elite Eight squad averaging 4.6 points and 2.9 rebounds per game against a brutal schedule that included 16 games against ranked teams.

Lappe helped CU to a 22-9 mark in 2000-01 and the team's first NCAA appearance since 1997. She led the Big 12 in free throw percentage at 85.9 percent and tallied seven points and nearly three rebounds per contest.

As a freshman in 1998-99 Lappe was CU's offensive MVP after she led the team in scoring (10.7 ppg), free throws made (91) and percentage (.827), assists (3.8 apg) and steals (1.7 spg) as the Buffs made their first ever postseason WNIT appearance. She played just two games as a sophomore in 1999-2000 before a broken knee cap ended her season.

A three-time first team Academic All-Big 12 honoree, Lappe graduated from CU with her bachelor's degree in business administration in 2002. She is a native of Morning Sun, Iowa, where she had a stellar prep career. An honorable mention Street & Smith's All-American, she graduated from Winfield-Mount Union High School with prep records in career points (1,987), steals (402), steals in a season (111), steals in a game (10), career assists (652), season assists (208), single game assists (14) and a 110-3 (.974) career record.

She was a first-team Class A (the smallest classification in Iowa) all-state selection from 1996 to 98 and a second-team all-Iowa pick following her freshman year. Her Winfield-Mount Union teams were the Class A state champions in 1995 and 96 and her 1997 team went 28-0 before being upset in the state semifinals, snapping an 80-game win streak. Her 1998 Winfield-Mount Union team would also return to the state finals. In 2009 Lappe was inducted into the Iowa Girls Basketball Hall of Fame.

The daughter of Tom and Jean Lappe, she has two siblings who both played college basketball. Her older brother Burt is a graduate of Northern Iowa, and her younger brother Jake is a graduate of Luther (Iowa) College.

Jenni Benningfield is in her first season as an assistant coach for the CU women's basketball team and third overall.

Benningfield served the last two seasons as the director of operations for the Buffaloes' program. With the addition of Jamie Carey in June 2014, Colorado now has two former WNBA veterans on its coaching staff.

In her two seasons as director of operations, Benningfield handled a variety of duties including scheduling and team travel, monitoring the budget and coordinating community service efforts. She was also co-director for Colorado's summer basketball camps.

During her first season she took on the task of organizing Colorado's 10-day tour of Italy which took place in August 2013.

Before joining the women's basketball staff, she was a volunteer assistant coach with the Buffaloes' volleyball team in 2011, serving as a sports psychology consultant. She was also the head varsity girls basketball coach at Pomona High School in Arvada for the 2011-12 season and in that same role at Nederland (Colo.) High School in 2010-11.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Benningfield was a four-year standout at Vanderbilt University (2000-04) where she helped the Commodores to four NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of SEC Tournament titles (2002, '04). She scored 1,501 points for Vanderbilt, averaging 11 points and 6.3 rebounds in 136 career games. A two-time All-SEC second team selection (2003, '04), Benningfield earned honorable mention to the 2003 Associated Press All-America team as a junior averaging 16.5 points and 7.9 rebounds while shooting 56 percent from the field.

Benningfield was drafted by the Charlotte Sting in the second round of the 2004 WNBA Draft (22nd pick overall). She later signed with the Indiana Fever, where she played the 2005 season. In addition to her WNBA career, she played internationally in Spain (2004-08) and Australia (2008-09).

She earned her Bachelor of Science in Human Development from Vanderbilt in 2004 and completed her Master of Education in Sport Psychology and Counseling from Boston University in 2010. Benningfield served as a sport psychology consultant at Wheelock College in Boston while working on her master's.

Benningfield is a 2000 graduate of Assumption High School in Louisville, the same school that produced Ceal Barry. She excelled in both volleyball and basketball at Assumption, earning second team All-America honors and a national championship in volleyball while earning Miss Basketball in Kentucky on the hardwood. She was a captain on the 2003 USA silver medal winning basketball team at the Pan-American Games.

ASSISTANT COACH JAMIE CAREYFirst
Season

Former WNBA point guard and USA Basketball administrator Jamie Carey is in her first season as an assistant women's basketball coach at the University of Colorado, joining the program on June 16, 2014.

Carey joins Colorado after four years with USA Basketball as the assistant women's national team director. She worked with all levels of the national team program, helping the organization identify coaches and athletes for participation. Carey assisted with organizing logistics for trials, training camps and international competitions, supported the athletes and staff on site internationally and assisted with practice for all national teams.

While working with USA Basketball, Carey was a three-year head girls basketball coach at Sand Creek High School in Colorado Springs (2011-14), guiding the program to a 62-16 record, three Colorado Class 4A Great 8 State appearances and a pair of Pikes Peak Athletic Conference titles. She was the Pikes Peak Athletic Conference Coach of the Year this past season and the Colorado Springs Area Coach of the Year in 2012.

Carey's high school coaching career included two seasons at Legacy High School in Broomfield (2008-10), helping the team to a Colorado Class 5A runner up finish in 2010. Her five year high school coaching record is an impressive 106-25 (.809).

One of the top point guards in the nation, Carey was drafted by the Phoenix Mercury with the 31st overall pick in the 2005 WNBA Draft. She would later sign as a free agent with the Connecticut Sun, where she enjoyed a four-year career on some very successful teams. Connecticut played in the postseason all four years during Carey's time there, including the 2005 WNBA Finals.

Her collegiate career was a well-documented achievement over adversity. The 1999 Ms. Colorado Basketball out of Horizon High School, Carey signed to play at Stanford where she was the 2000 Pac-10 Conference Freshman of the year, a member of the Pac-12 All-Freshman team and named to several Freshman All-America squads.

However concussions sidelined her career at Stanford for the next two seasons. Carey resumed her career at the University of Texas in 2002 where she was a two-time All-Big 12 Conference selection and helped the Longhorns to the 2003 Women's Final Four. She was a finalist for several national awards over her final two seasons including the Wade Trophy, Naismith Award and Nancy Lieberman National Point Guard of the Year in 2004 and 2005.

Carey won the Jim Valvano Comeback Player of the Year Award in 2004 and received numerous off the court accolades. As a senior in 2005 she was named the NCAA Woman of the Year and earned the Big 12's Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarship. Carey was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 pick and named to the 2005 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team.

Carey helped the 1998 USA World Youth Games Team to a bronze medal and the 2003 USA Pan American Games Team to a silver medal. She also played for the USA in the 2007 Women's National Team College Tour, and she served on the USA Basketball Developmental National Team Committee.

Carey earned a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from Texas in 2004 and completed her Masters of Education in Sport Management in 2006. She was Valedictorian of her graduating class at Horizon in 1999 where she was also a WBCA High School All-American and Colorado's Gatorade Player of the Year.

ASSISTANT COACH KELLY RAE FINLEY

Third
Season

Kelly Rae Finley is in her third season as an assistant women's basketball coach as she was hired by head coach Linda Lappe on May 18, 2012. She serves as Colorado's recruiting coordinator and also coaches the wing position.

Finley has helped Colorado to winning records and post season berths in each of her two seasons on the Buffaloes' bench enjoying a 2-to-1 success ratio with a two-year record of 44-22. Colorado was 19-15 overall in 2013-14, advancing to the third round of the postseason WNIT.

Her first season in Boulder turned out to be a terrific one as Colorado participated in its first NCAA Tournament since 2004. The Buffaloes were 25-7 in 2012-13 and finished fourth in the Pac-12 Conference at 13-5. Additionally, Colorado enjoyed its first national ranking since 2007-08, reaching as high as No 18 in the Associated Press and WBCA Coaches Polls.

As the recruiting coordinator, she's helped Colorado to establish a strong foothold not only in the Pac-12 footprint, but nationally and worldwide. Her first recruiting class in 2013 hit a pair of Pac-12 states in Washington and California, while reaching out to Virginia. Class number two hit California once again, while revisiting Texas, historically an important area for Colorado recruiting, and the Buffaloes' first international recruit in six years.

Finley, 29, arrived at Colorado after four years on the staff at Harvard University (2008-12); the last three as a full-time assistant coach. The Crimson posted a 75-41 mark in her four seasons in Cambridge including four second place Ivy League finishes – a record of 42-14 – and three Postseason WNIT appearances.

At Harvard, Finley was the recruiting coordinator, signing a class in 2011 that was ranked 31st in the nation by ESPN including the Ivy League's first McDonald's All-American in Temi Fagbenle. She coached 12 All-Ivy League players and coordinated player development with an emphasis on the forward position.

Off the court Finley was Harvard women's basketball's liaison for equipment management, community outreach coordinator and was an active participant at alumni events. She was a Harvard Faculty Affiliate with the Leverett House, an upperclass dorm. Finley also continued her education with graduate studies in organizational leadership & non-profit management through the Harvard University Extension School.

Finley graduated cum laude from Colorado State University in 2008 with her bachelor's degree in human development and family studies. She was a two-year letterwinner for the Rams and was a Mountain West Conference Scholar-Athlete Award winner in 2008. She played one year for Lappe, who was a CSU assistant in 2006-07. Finley began her collegiate career at

A native of Minneapolis, Finley was a three-year team captain for The Breck School, helping her team to a Minnesota Class 2A State Championship in 2004, runner-up finish in 2003 and a third-place showing in 2002. Her AAU team, the Minnesota Metro Stars won the Nike Showcase championship in Chicago in 2003.

Finley began her coaching career in her native state, as an assistant with her former AAU team from 2005-07. She coached the 12U, 13U and 16U teams, developing game schemes and practice plans while assisting with tournament organization and coordination. Finley also served as the MN Hardball basketball camp director from 2007-08, engaged in all aspects of the organization's functions.

BASKETBALL SUPPORT STAFFMIRIAM RUTZENDirector of Operations

Miriam Rutzen is in her first season as director of operations for the Colorado women's basketball program.

A native of Biggsville, Ill., Rutzen was a four-year standout at forward at Harvard (2009-13), ranking among the program's career top-10 in blocked shots and games played. She was a two-time recipient of Harvard's Best Defensive Player Award (2010-11, '11-12), helping the Crimson to a pair of second place Ivy League finishes and two Postseason WNIT berths

Rutzen received her A.B. degree in Psychology from Harvard in 2013 along with a secondary degree in sociology. She spent the last academic year as an IEP Specialist for the West Central School District in her hometown of Biggsville, providing writing services and tutoring to a quadriplegic senior student. While working for the West Central School District, Rutzen served as the 6th grade girls basketball coach and a volunteer assistant varsity softball coach.

Rutzen has been heavily involved in Colorado's summer camps for both boys and girls over the past three summers. She was a commissioner over seven coaches for middle school age divisions at the girls' Individual Camps and was the director for the boys' Little Dribblers Camp, managing 10 coaches over 100 boys, ages 5-8.

JULIAN ASSIBEYVideo Coordinator

Julian Assibey is in his first year as videon coordinator for the Colorado women's basketball program.

Assibey comes to Boulder after spending the past three seasons as an assistant coach at Merrimack College in North Andover, Mass. He helped the Warriors to a 12-win turnaround from 2011-12 to 2012-13 when Merrimack finished 17-12 and advanced to the Northeast-10 Conference semifinals.

Colorado is not foreign to Assibey who started his career on Lappe's first Metro State College of Denver staff. He was an assistant for two seasons (2007-09), helping the Roadrunners to a third place Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference finish in 2007-08 and a fifth place showing in 2008-09.

Assibey returned to his alma mater, William Penn (Iowa), for one season (2009-10) and spent one season back in Colorado at Western State (2010-11) before joining the Merrimack staff.

A native of Downey, Calif., Assibey was a four year letterwinner at William Penn, and is among the school's top five in career steals. He received his bachelor's degree in Sports Administration and Strength & Conditioning in 2005 and followed that up with a master's degree in Coaching and Athletic Administration from Concordia University (Mass.) in 2013.

BASKETBALL SUPPORT STAFF

TROY ANDRE

Assistant Sports Information Director/ Internet Managing Editor

Troy Andre is in his 12th year as CU's assistant sports information director/internet managing editor, and 11th as women's basketball contact.

Andre maintains CU's official athletic website, CUBuffs.com and was the contact for volleyball for two seasons (2003-04). In March of 2012, he served as the Media Coordinator for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament in Boulder. It was his second go-around in that role as he also headed media operations for the 2006 event at the Pepsi Center in Denver.

Prior to CU, he worked for five years at Minnesota-Duluth both as the assistant SID and ticket manager, helping to publicize and promote 14 NCAA Division II sports and two NCAA Division I programs. He was UMD's primary contact for volleyball, women's soccer, men's and women's basketball and baseball; maintained UMD's official website; supervised the office work-study students; and in 2003, coordinated the marketing, promotion and ticket sales for the 2003 Women's Frozen Four.

Andre, 40, graduated in 1996 from the University of Northern Colorado with a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communication with an emphasis in public relations and advertising. He attended graduate school at North Dakota State University, majoring in mass communication, and worked for two years as a graduate assistant in NDSU's sports information office between 1996 and 1998.

At UNC, he worked two years in the Bears' sports information office as a student assistant, and also was a sports reporter for the Greeley Tribune, a job he actually started in high school and held for over five years. He covered the Denver Broncos training camp as a beat reporter for the Tribune, and later would work as a summer intern for the Broncos in 1996 following his senior year in college.

Born December 12, 1973 in Fort Collins, Colo., he graduated from University High School in Greeley, where he lettered in cross country and was also active in statistical work with football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Danielle Driscoll.

HEATHER CLAPP

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Heather Clapp is in her first year as an Assistant Athletic Trainer with the University of Colorado Sports Medicine program. In addition to leading the needs for the CU women's basketball team, she also covers the Buffaloes' nationally prominent cheer squad.

Clapp joins Colorado after four years at the University of Northern Colorado (2010-14). She was an assistant athletic trainer for the Bears working with the women's basketball and men's and women's tennis teams her final three years. Clapp was promoted to a full time position in 2011 after serving as an intern for UNC for the 2010-11 season, covering track & field and cross country.

She earned her bachelors of science degree in Sport & Exercise Science/Athletic Training from UNC in 2008. Clapp received her masters of education in Sport Management from Wichita State University in 2010, working two seasons with the Shockers' NCAA Tournament volleyball team.

A native of Broomfield, Colo., Clapp graduated from Legacy High School in 2004 where she competed in cross country and track & field.

KYLE GEDDES

Marketing/Promotions

Kyle Geddes is in his fourth year as a marketing/promotions coordinator with the CU Athletic Department. Geddes assists in all aspects of marketing and promotions for all 17 of Colorado's varsity sports, with a focus on women's basketball and volleyball.

Prior to joining Colorado, Geddes was a marketing assistant with the University of Maryland Athletic Department where he developed and executed marketing, ticket sales and game production for the Terrapins' men's soccer and women's lacrosse teams. His efforts allowed both programs to reach attendance milestones with both also exceeding their ticket revenue goals for the season. While focusing day-to-day on those sports, he also contributed to group ticket sales plans for football and men's and women's basketball.

Geddes spent two years (2008-10) as a marketing graduate assistant in the athletic department at St. John's (N.Y.) University. At St. John's he directed promotional and ticket sales efforts for women's soccer, women's basketball and men's lacrosse. He also implemented game day operations for eight of 16 varsity sports including men's basketball at Madison Square Garden. Geddes also worked for ISP Sports, where he was a promotions team member for the 2009 and 2010 BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament.

He earned his MBA from St. John's in 2010 with a concentration in marketing. Geddes obtained a bachelor's degree in marketing from Notre Dame in 2008, where he was also a four-year sports marketing intern for the Fighting Irish.

A native East Northport, NY, Geddes enjoys playing lacrosse and is an avid NHL and NBA fan.

ROSI HAUBER

Office Manager

Rosi Hauber is in her fifth year as office manager for the University of Colorado women's basketball team, assisting in virtually every phase of the program's day-to-day operation.

A CU Athletics veteran, Rosi arrived at CU in September 1997, and began a seven-year stint in the athletic director's office in 1998. In 2005 she moved over to the marketing and promotions and licensing area where she also assisted with the Alumni C-Club and the East Stadium Club Seats and Suites.

Rosi earned her diploma from Northeast Iowa Community college and worked at Iowa State University for 13 years before moving to Colorado in 1987. She grew up on her family's farm near Cresco, Iowa.

Rosi resides in Erie, Colo., with Jim Jokumsen and their Shiba Inu (Dora). She enjoys classic cars, travel, playing cards and college sports.

CHRIS HOWLETT

Academic Coordinator

Chris Howlett is in his third year in the Herbst Academic Center as he joined the staff in July 2012.

Howlett serves as the academic coordinator for the women's basketball, men's golf and skiing programs at CU. His primary role is to design and implement objective based academic programming for student-athletes to improve academic success, time management skills, decision making skills, and study skills with the long term goal being graduation, community involvement and career placement.

Prior to his arrival at CU, Howlett served as an athletic academic counselor at Florida Atlantic University from 2008-12. His responsibilities at FAU included the academic oversight of the men's soccer, women's softball, women's golf, and women's volleyball teams. In addition, Howlett served as the department's admissions liaison, textbook coordinator, and Life Skills coordinator.

Howlett attended Western High School in Davie, Fla., where he played baseball and hockey. He earned a bachelor's of business administration degree with a major in management, and minor in accounting, from Florida Atlantic University in 2008. To further his education and enhance his leadership and management skills, Howlett is currently pursuing a Graduate Certificate in Leadership and Management through the Lockheed Martin Engineering Management Program at the University of Colorado.

Howlett is originally from Northampton, England and enjoys traveling, playing hockey, and spending time with his wife, Rachel.

CHRIS SHECKLER

Assistant Director of Sports Performance

Chris Sheckler is in his third year as the assistant director of sports performance for women's basketball and volleyball, joining the Colorado staff in August 2012.

Sheckler, 28, came to CU from Montana State, where he was the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Bobcats for one year (2011-12). While at MSU, Sheckler designed and implemented strength and conditioning programs for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's alpine and nordic skiing, as well as women's golf, while assisting with football. He went to MSU from South Dakota State where he spent two seasons (2009-11) as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He graduated from Dakota Wesleyan University in 2009, where he received a Bachelor's degree in Exercise Science. He earned a Master of Science in Sports Science from South Dakota State in 2011. He also maintains strength and conditioning certifications through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) and USA Weightlifting.

While at Dakota Wesleyan, Sheckler was an NAIA scholar All-American in football, an All-GPAC linebacker and a recipient of the Dakota Wesleyan Matthew D. Smith Award, which is given to the most outstanding senior student-athlete. He also lettered three years in track and field, where he participated in the hammer and indoor weight throws.

He was born August 6, 1986 in Cody, Wyo., and graduated from Rock

Springs High School (Rock Springs, Wyo.) where he lettered in football, track and field, and hockey. His hobbies include cycling, hunting, fishing, skiing and snowboarding. He also competes in Olympic weightlifting and the Scottish Highland Games.

DERIC SWANSON

Executive Director of BuffVision

Deric Swanson is in his 16th year as the Executive Director of BuffVision, coordinating all aspects of production involving the video display boards at Folsom Field and the Coors Events Center, both recently upgraded to a near $10 million operation for both facilities combined.

Swanson, 40, is considered one of the best in his field and came to CU from the National Hockey League's Colorado Avalanche, where he had worked for a brief time as the manager of game entertainment and video production. He had previously worked three-plus seasons with the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club, first as a stadium camera operator, and then as video production coordinator, including the 1998 Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Coors Field.

In 2003, BuffVision won the Golden Matrix Award for "Best Overall Video Display" in the University Division at the Information Display and Entertainment Association (IDEA) conference in Atlanta.

The following year, BuffVision was awarded two distinctions, one for the 2004 Aurora Awards, a Platinum Best of Show statue for In-Game Entertainment Graphics/Design, and a Telly Award for The Buffalo Stampede, CU's coaches' show. In 2006 and 2007, BuffVision won three more Telly Awards for Swanson's production, including two for the "Ralphie on Campus" institutional spot and another for The Buffalo Stampede, and in 2013 earned another Telly for a production involving CU's Men's Basketball team and the Navy Seals.

He is a 1996 graduate of Colorado State University, earning his bachelor's degree in technical journalism and broadcasting. He graduated Magna Cum Laude and was recognized as CSU's outstanding graduate in journalism.

He was born May 24, 1974 in Oakland, Calif., and attended two high schools. His father was stationed in the Azores, Portugal, and he spent two years at Lajes High School, where he lettered in football, soccer, volleyball and basketball. After moving to Colorado, he graduated from Liberty High School in Colorado Springs, where he lettered in football. He played volleyball on CSU's club team for three years. Swanson has also competed in eight IronMan events, including a personal best of 11 hours and 29 minutes in Phoenix, Ariz., in 2009.

He is married the former Heather Cohea and the couple has two sons, Gavin (6) and Dane (3).

ERIC PELLONI

Assistant Director of BuffVision

Eric Pelloni is in his ninth season as the assistant director of BuffVision, although he has been involved in CU Athletics for the better part of 15 years.

He assists with the video packages for CU's video display boards and has been on the BuffVision game day crew for 14 seasons. Pelloni also helps coordinate streaming and technical issues between CU Athletics and Pac-12 Enterprises.

BASKETBALL SUPPORT STAFF

When CU Athletics overhauled its official athletic website, CUBuffs.com, in 2003, Pelloni was hired on a part-time basis to create video content and stream live. He has created the majority of the graphic work and assisted in the designing of CUBuffs.com, and has designed several women's basketball media guide covers.

Pelloni was also the associate producer of "The Buffalo Stampede" coaches show which aired weekly on FSN Rocky Mountain until ending with Colorado's transition over to the Pac-12 Networks agreement.

Prior to his full-time appointment at CU, Pelloni worked as a freelance video editor/graphic artist in the Denver area, creating video content for both broadcast and non-broadcast applications for a number of clients including Qwest Communications, Coors, XCEL Energy and the United Way of New York City.

Pelloni graduated from Metropolitan State College of Denver in 1998 and served as an Adjunct Professor at Metro State in 2003-04. He and his wife Gabbie, CU's Director of Operations for Olympic Sports, have a son, E.J.

B.G. BROOKS

Contributing Editor, CUBuffs.com

B.G. Brooks is in his sixth year as contributing editor for CUBuffs.com, joining the University of Colorado athletic department in July 2009.

The veteran reporter provides analytical game coverage and some commentary for football and basketball, writes feature stories and works on special projects and series with a green light to be objective. He is the web site's first on-staff reporter and was seventh full-time reporter with newspaper roots working for a school or conference at the time of his hiring.

Brooks covered CU athletics for the Rocky Mountain News from 1987-2009, most notably football and men's and women's basketball. He wrote thousands of stories until the paper went out of business in February 2009.

He began his career at the Memphis Commercial-Appeal upon graduating from the University of Memphis in 1970. He worked for both the Columbia Daily-Tribune and the Missourian while attending grad school at the University of Missouri before joining the Rocky Mountain News in 1978. His experience includes the full scope, from copy editing and beat reporting (of which he was twice honored as the state's best in 2004 and 2005 by the Colorado AP editors) to time as a columnist as well as sports editor.

He also was a long time voter for many of college football's top awards, including the Heisman Trophy, the Butkus Award and the Doak Walker Award, as well as being an Associated Press Top 25 voter from 1987-2007.

Brooks and his wife Patti have two adult children Kelley, a CU graduate and Brian, a Western State College graduate, and two grandchildren.

MICHELLE WOLCOTT

Team Physician

Dr. Michelle Wolcott is in her 12th year as team physician for the University of Colorado women's basketball program.

An orthopedic surgeon, Dr. Wolcott specializes in the management of athletic injuries to the ankle, knee and shoulder. She earned her bachelor of science degree in biology from the University of Utah and graduated from Georgetown University School of Medicine in 1996.

Dr. Wolcott completed her internship and residency in orthopedic surgery at Loyola University Medical Center in Maywood, Ill., in 2001. She also completed a fellowship in sports medicine at the University of Iowa Hospital & Clinics in 2002.

A member of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons and the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine, Dr. Wolcott spends her free time her son, Henry (4), and daughter Charlotte (2).

STEPHANIE CHU, D.O.

Team Physician

Dr. Stephanie Chu has served as team physician within CU Athletics since 2008. Working with women's basketball, soccer and volleyball teams at CU, she specializes in primary care sports medicine, with personal interests in women's sports medicine and endurance athletes.

Originally from Westerville, Ohio, Chu earned her undergraduate degree from Miami University in 1999 and her medical degree from the Ohio University College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2003. She completed her Family Medicine residency and Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship at the University of Connecticut in 2008, working with various athletic teams while at UConn.

Currently residing in Denver, Chu is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) and the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine (AMSSM). She spends her free time traveling and volunteering with the nonprofit organization Hope Shines, traveling to Kigali, Rwanda with the organization every summer.

PRESIDENT BRUCE BENSON

Bruce D. Benson was named the 22nd president of the University of Colorado in March 2008, after already making his mark in business, politics, philanthropy, education and civic endeavors. In his seventh year heading the entire CU system, he is now the longest-serving CU president in more than half a century.

Since taking the helm of his alma mater, Benson has enhanced CU's standing as one of the nation's leading public universities, advancing the economy, health and culture of Colorado and beyond.

During Benson's tenure, CU's research funding has reached record levels (including the most recent, $774 million in 2012-13), supporting the university's research strengths in biotechnology, health care, energy, and aerospace engineering, among others. He has led efforts to promote cross-campus collaboration that have resulted in cooperative academic programs and research initiatives, most notably CU's Biofrontiers Institute, led by Nobel laureate Tom Cech.

CU has seen its five best fundraising years (including a record $258.8 million in 2012-13) under his leadership. Benson and his wife, Marcy, chaired CU's $1.5 billion Creating Futures fundraising campaign, which exceeded its goal in November 2013. The campaign, the largest in university history, supported scholarships, academic enhancements (endowed faculty positions, programs), research projects and capital improvements across CU's campuses.

Benson has guided efforts to successfully institute operational efficiencies, cut bureaucracy and improve business practices at the university. CU has secured legislation in the Colorado General Assembly that has allowed it to save millions annually in areas such as procurement, insurance and construction. He has also established a number of public-private partnerships to make the university more entrepreneurial and meet the needs of businesses in Colorado and across the country.

He oversees a system with four campuses (Boulder, Colorado Springs, Denver, Anschutz Medical Campus in Aurora) with some 58,000 students (a total of 66,000 students pursue courses for credit). CU has some 27,000 employees. The university's annual budget is $3.1 billion.

Before becoming CU's president, Benson had already made his mark in business, politics, philanthropy, education and civic endeavors. He founded Benson Mineral Group in 1965, a year after earning his bachelor's degree in Geology from CU. Throughout his business career, he has also been involved in banking, real estate, cable television and restaurants.

He has consistently been active in a variety of educational, civic and political endeavors. He was the Republican nominee for Colorado governor in 1994. Benson has received many honors recognizing his leadership in a variety of endeavors, but two are particularly notable: CU in 2004 granted him an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, and in February 2009 he was named to the Colorado Business Hall of Fame.

He was born July 4, 1938, in Chicago, and Benson has three children and 10 grandchildren. His wife, the former Marcy Head, has also dedicated herself to public life, from serving presidents of the United States to volunteering at leadership levels in health care, education, the arts and civic activities. She worked in a variety of capacities for presidents Ronald Reagan and George H.W. Bush and is an active community leader among her many lifetime accomplishments.

CHANCELLOR PHIL DISTEFANO

Dr. Philip P. DiStefano is in his sixth year as the Chancellor at the University of Colorado Boulder.

Prior to his appointment on May 5, 2009, Dr. DiStefano was the top academic officer at CU-Boulder for eight years as the Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. He served as interim chancellor twice during pivotal times in the university's history.

Dr. DiStefano co-chaired the steering committee for CU-Boulder's visionary strategic plan, Flagship 2030, conceived with campus, community and statewide input, to guide the university for decades to come. Today, Dr. DiStefano is shepherding its implementation as Flagship 2030 has moved from vision to reality.

Dr. DiStefano has served CU-Boulder for 39 years. He joined the University of Colorado in 1974 as an Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Instruction at the School of Education. His academic career flourished as he assumed a series of academic and administrative positions, including Professor, Associate Dean, Dean and Vice Chancellor. He was appointed Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs in 2001.

As Chancellor he works closely with students, faculty, staff, alumni, donors, governing officials, and business and community leaders in extending CU's legacy as a preeminent national comprehensive research university.

A first-generation college graduate, Dr. DiStefano earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University and a Master of Arts degree in English Education from West Virginia University. He holds a Doctorate in Humanities Education from Ohio State University, where he served as a teaching and research associate.

He began his educational career as a high school English teacher in Ohio. He has authored and co-authored numerous books and articles on literacy education.

Dr. DiStefano and his wife, Yvonne, have been married for 45 years and are the parents of three grown daughters and two granddaughters.

PROVOST RUSSELL MOORE

Dr. Russell L. Moore has had a long and distinguished career at the University of Colorado Boulder, now serving in the capacity of Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, having assumed the position July 1, 2010.

Dr. Moore also previously served as interim vice chancellor for research from May 2009 to July 2010, and prior to that appointment, he was the associate vice chancellor for research since 2006. Dr. Moore served as chair of kinesiology and applied physiology (now integrative physiology) from 1994 to 2001, and was assistant professor (1984-86), associate professor (1993-96) and full professor (1996-present) in that department.

He holds an adjunct professorship in medicine (cardiology) at the University of Colorado's Anschutz Medical Campus at the University of Colorado Denver.

He was an assistant and associate professor (1986-91) in the departments of medicine, cellular and molecular physiology at the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in Hershey, Pa. He did postdoctoral work at the University of Texas Health Science Center in Dallas (1981-84).

Dr. Moore earned a Bachelor of Science degree in biochemistry from the University of California at Davis in 1976, and a master's degree (1978) and doctorate (1982) in physiology from Washington State University in Pullman, Wash.

FACULTY REP DAVID CLOUGH

Faculty Athletics Representative Dr. David Clough is a national leader in college athletic reforms and represents CU to the Pac-12 Conference and the NCAA. A professor of chemical and biological engineering, Dr. Clough enters his 10th year as the University of Colorado Boulder's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR), as he assumed the role in March 2005.

Professor Clough reports to Chancellor DiStefano and works closely with the Director of Athletics, Rick George, and the coaches and staff of Athletics to support student-athletes, especially in their academic pursuits. The FAR's duties include oversight of the eligibility certification and compliance functions on the Boulder Campus. He strives to be well known to CU's student-athletes, and he and his wife Sydney are present at many home competitions of CU's sports teams. He also travels with many CU teams to away competitions.

Dr. Clough replaced Chancellor Phil DiStefano, who served as FAR from June 1, 2000 until just shortly after his appointment as interim chancellor for the Boulder campus in 2005. Clough is only the sixth FAR in CU history, joining a prestigious list: Walter Franklin (1947-1948), Warren Thompson (1949-1966), William Baughn (1967-1989), James Corbridge (1989-2000) and DiStefano (2000-2005).

Dr. Clough has had a significant impact on engineering education at CU-Boulder and beyond through career-long efforts to enhance the learning of engineering students. He has pioneered active- and cooperative-learning techniques in the College of Engineering and Applied Science, and in 1989 he originated the concept of the Integrated Teaching and Learning Laboratory. Clough's research has focused on the automated control of chemical and related processes.

He has been involved with student-athlete success for more than 30 years as his relationship with the CU athletic department dates to more than three decades. Throughout his career, Dr. Clough has taken a special interest in engineering student-athletes, long appreciating the combined academic and athletic challenges they face. He played an integral role in the Rhodes Scholarship candidacy of Buff football star Jim Hansen, an Academic All-American who was awarded the Rhodes in 1993.

Dr. Clough received his bachelor's degree from the Case Institute of Technology (now Case Western Reserve University) in 1968 and his master's from CU-Boulder in 1969, both in chemical engineering. He worked as an engineer for E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., Inc., from 1969 to 1972 before returning to CU-Boulder to earn his doctorate in 1975. He joined the faculty of the Department of Chemical Engineering at that time.

He served as the college's associate dean for academic affairs from 1986 to 1992, playing a role in a number of important initiatives, including the Gemmill Engineering Library, the Herbst Humanities Program, and the Integrated Teaching and Learning Laboratory. From 1993 through 1999, he was associate chair of the Department of Chemical Engineering and was responsible for significant improvements to the department's undergraduate advising program.

Known for his willingness to experiment with new educational concepts and technology, Dr. Clough has worked to reform traditional lecture classes into an interactive workshop format that greatly enhances the learning of students. Through these efforts, he has helped to reshape the way engineering is taught. The student-run Engineering Excellence Fund chose Dr. Clough as the first recipient of the Sullivan-Carlson Inspiration in Teaching Award in 1998. He has received numerous teaching and advising awards from nominations by his students over the years. He also has been given the college's Hutchinson Teaching Award and Peters Service Award. He received the first Boulder Faculty Assembly Teaching Award in 1980 and the Boulder Campus Outstanding Advisor Award in 1996. His merit as an educator also has been recognized outside CU. In 1995 the American Society for Engineering Education (Rocky Mountain Section) presented him with its first Outstanding Educator Award.

In April 2000, he received the college's Distinguished Engineering Alumnus Award in the Education category. It recognized his significant impact on engineering education through pioneering the active learning concept for the Integrated Teaching and Learning Laboratory, and in leading the college in changing traditional lecture courses to an active learning format.

In his role as Faculty Athletics Representative, Clough represents CU to the Pac-12 Conference and the NCAA. He provides a liaison between Athletics and the faculty and works to enhance the educational experience of 350 student-athletes. Clough has been active in the Faculty Athletics Representatives Association (FARA) and will become President of FARA in November. In his time as FAR, Dr. Clough has established a reputation for his expertise in the NCAA's Academic Performance Program and the program's statistics tracking the academic progress of student-athletes, the Academic Progress Rate (APR) and the Graduation Success Rate (GSR). He has developed tracking and predictive tools that have been shared with over 100 NCAA Division I institutions.

He and his wife, Sydney, have four grown children, Astrid, William, Rodney and Damon, and four grandchildren. Dr. Clough's father, John W. Clough, was a chemical engineer, and his two brothers are retired engineers. The Clough family established a scholarship endowment in engineering at CU in honor of John Clough, who died in 1994. The family holds a strong belief in giving back to the educational institutions that have benefited its members.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR RICK GEORGE

Rick George was introduced as just the sixth full-time athletic director in University of Colorado history on July 17, 2013, returning to Boulder where he helped play a role in the school's first and only national championship in football some 23 years earlier.

George, 54, came to Colorado from the Texas Rangers baseball club of the American League, where he was named chief operating officer on October 5, 2010 with a promotion to president of business operations this past February.

He agreed to a 5-year contract at CU, and he officially started on the job on August 12, 2013.

His list of first-year achievements were many, but none more significant than shepherding through a $143 Athletic Complex Expansion from creation through fruition, gaining approval from the Board of Regents and then raising over one-third of the estimated cost to initiate construction, which began May 12, 2014. The project is the core of the Sustainable Excellence Initiative (SEI), the jewel of which will be a long-awaited indoor practice facility.

George implemented the department's first-ever comprehensive strategic plan, which will map CU's immediate and long range purpose and goals. He also redesigned the management teams (without coming in and eliminating or forcing out longtime staff just for the sake of it like others have done), made tough budget decisions that reduced deficits he inherited, and canvassed the state, region and nation in both friend- and fundraising.

Near the end of his first year, he was recognized by CU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee as its choice for Staff Member of the Year; no token award, the group acknowledged his attendance at most home athletic events, regular meetings with team captains of all programs to interact with them and receive their feedback, and willingness to meet with any student-athlete and that his door is always open to them.

George brings the most diverse background to the position than any before him at Colorado: all five others had extensive and primarily exclusive college athletic histories, the only exceptions being when Marolt left CU after 10 years as ski coach to lead the U.S. Olympic ski team before returning, and Tharp, who was a university attorney with strong CU-Boulder campus ties. While George began and worked in the college athletic world for the first half of his professional career, he stepped outside that box for the second half.

George is just the sixth full-time athletic director in Colorado history, following in the footsteps of Harry Carlson (1927-65), Eddie Crowder (1965-84), Bill Marolt (1984-96), Dick Tharp (1996-2004) and Mike Bohn (2005-13). Two others have bridged directors in interim capacities, Jack Lengyel (six months between Tharp and Bohn) and Ceal Barry (two months between Bohn and George).

George was with the Rangers for less than three years, but saw the team win two American League championships and compile a 243-176 record (.580 winning percentage) during his time there, second-best in the major leagues during that time frame. As the COO, he worked closely with team president and CEO, baseball Hall-of-Famer Nolan Ryan, and was responsible for all facets of the Rangers' business operations, including oversight of all sales and marketing efforts, broadcast and communications, ticket and suite sales, naming rights, etc., in addition to overseeing the finance, human resource and operations departments.

Among his many accomplishments with the Rangers was a comprehensive branding study that successfully rebranded the ball club, and an implementation of a new ticketing strategy that over the course of three seasons increased ticket revenues by over $30 million. The club's attendance saw an increase of 40 percent from the 2010 season to nearly 3.5 million in 2012, second in the American League (behind the New York Yankees) and third in the majors. The 2013 numbers were on pace to exceed the 3 million mark again when he left the franchise for CU.

Prior to joining the Rangers, George served as executive vice president and chief of operations for the PGA TOUR for two-and-a-half years (beginning in June 2008). While with the TOUR, he worked with the corporate marketing department in renewing sponsorships and creating new events. He also oversaw the Tournament Business Affairs division that worked with Tournaments to increase tournament revenue.

He also worked for the PGA TOUR as president of the Champions Tour from 2003-08, and as the executive vice president for championship management his last three years there. His major accomplishments included increasing revenues and sponsorships and the development of strategic plans, the latter including a vision and mission statement as well as core values. The Champions Tour had grown to a minimum 29 events with over $55 million in prize money when he left for the PGA TOUR.

From 1998-2003, George served as President and CEO of the Fore!Kids Foundation, a 501c3 organization that raised money for children's charities via golf-related events, where he led rebranding and organizational efforts that resulted in increases in charitable giving to the Foundation.

George's first week on the job ... in 1987.

Rick and granddaughter Harper at ESPN's Basketball Game Day (February 2014).

At the collegiate level, George worked in three major conferences (Big Ten, Big 8, Southeastern) in football operations, beginning with his alma mater, the University of Illinois, as football recruiting coordinator (1983-87).

He graduated from Illinois in 1982 with a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Arts & Sciences Individual Study that had an emphasis on Sports Communication and Journalism. He was a four-year letterman at cornerback for the Illini, playing in 44 straight games and starting in 27 games in all, as he played two years each under coaches Gary Moeller and Mike White. He was a two-time recipient of the school's Bruce Capel Award, given for dedication and courage to honor Capel who lost his life serving his country in Vietnam; George received the honor for his junior and senior seasons.

Upon his graduation, White named him the assistant director for player personnel for the Illini, and a year later (1983), he assumed the all sports recruiting coordinator. In March 1984, George took over the recruiting chores solely for football, with his first class ranked No. 1 in the nation by the recruiting services with all in the top 20; he coordinated five classes in all at Illinois when the call came to take him out west to Colorado.

On March 2, 1987, Bill McCartney hired him as Colorado's football recruiting coordinator. Two-and-a-half years later (Dec. 21, 1989), George was promoted to assistant athletic director for football operations, not coincidentally after the Buffaloes finished the regular season with an 11-0 record and the school's first-ever No. 1 national ranking in the polls. CU lost to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl and would finish No. 4, but came back to go 11-1-1 in 1990, this time defeating the Irish in the Orange Bowl to earn consensus national champion honors.

Shortly thereafter, he left the Buffaloes for Vanderbilt University, where he was reunited with former CU offensive coordinator Gerry Rick George is overseeing the $153 million facility upgrade to Folsom Field that is scheduled to be completed in the fall of 2015 and will benefit all CU Student Athletes.

DiNardo, who was named the Commodores' head coach a year earlier. In eight years at Vanderbilt (1991-98), he also served as associate athletic director for external operations in conjunction with overseeing the football program. This was where George first expanded his professional role outside of solely football, as he had oversight over all external departments, particularly in the area of managing budgets and developing marketing and promotional strategies for all sports.

George was born April 3, 1960 in Woodstock, Ill., and graduated from Collinsville (Ill.) High School, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Nancy Green, and the couple has two grown daughters, Jenni Reed (husband Tom) and Christi, and one granddaughter (Harper).

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

Founded in 1876 at the foot of the Flatirons, 138 years has transformed the University of Colorado from a lone building on a bleak, windswept hill to one of the nation's leading public research institutions. Established in 1861, the University was formally founded in 1876, the year Colorado became a state.

The Boulder campus encompasses almost 800 acres on the main campus, east campus (which includes a research park), Williams Village and the Mountain Research Station north of nearby Nederland (which supports ecology, chemistry and geology). In 1996 the Board of Regents purchased 308 acres of land in unincorporated Boulder County, now informally known as the south campus, in an effort to insure the growth of the University well into the 21st century.

While almost 30,000 students are educated on the main campus, another 13,000 study at the University of Colorado at Denver, the University of Colorado Anschutz Campus (Aurora) and the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. Nine elected Regents and President Bruce Benson lead the four-campus system, while each campus has a Chancellor who serves as the chief academic and administrative officer. Dr. Phil DiStefano is in his sixth year as the chancellor of the Boulder campus.

Students can enter any of 10 schools and colleges offering more than 2,500 courses in 150 fields, representing a full range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, physical and biological sciences, the fine and performing arts, and the professions. CU-Boulder is regularly ranked among the best of the United States' public universities by the Fiske Guide to Colleges, and a 2010 USA Today/Princeton Review survey rated the University of Colorado as the fifth-best value among American public colleges. CU was recently ranked as the No. 33 university in the world by the Times Higher Education.

CU-Boulder has played a major role in NASA space programs, designing and building many scientific instruments flown in outer space, and graduated 18 men and women who became astronauts, including the late Jack Swigert, one of the three astronauts in the crippled Apollo 13 mission who made it dock to Earth safely from the moon. When the Hubble Space Telescope was launched in 1990, it was carrying seven major instruments, including a high-resolution spectrograph to study the evolution of stars and designed and built by an international science team led by astronomer Jack Brandt of CU-Boulder. Since Hubble has been up, CU-Boulder faculty and students have been among the top users of Hubble of any institution in the world. CU-Boulder is the only university in the country where undergraduate students have operated a NASA satellite.

The University has produced 19 Rhodes Scholars, five of which were former football student-athletes at CU, with Jim Hansen the most recent recipient in 1992. Faculty member Thomas Cech, a distinguished professor of chemistry and biochemistry, won the 1989 Nobel Prize in chemistry. Other notable alumni include former United States Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, former big band leader Glenn Miller and actors Robert Redford and Chris Meloni, the latter starring for years on Law & Order: Special Victims Unit, and the creators of South Park, Trey Parker and Matt Stone.

If the aphorism, "Somewhere between the Rockies and reality," seems too good to believe, then come for a visit. Start with a walk on the historic Pearl Street Mall, a downtown pedestrian mall that is the ceremonial heart of the city actually that works despite the efforts of its street theatre.

Visitors may be so taken in by the scenery, the mall, Tudors and Victorians they may forget the University that put it all together. From Pearl, Broadway leads directly onto campus where the University of Colorado Museum and the CU Heritage Center, in the original Old Main building, which introduces the University's past and present. The recently completed ATLAS building is one of the most state-of-the-art structures on any college campus.

Take in the fresh mountain air on any part of 100 miles of trails and 30,000 acres of open space. Climb the Flatirons or in Eldorado Canyon State Park. Swim or board sail at the Boulder Reservoir while elite runners sprint around it. Take in a pro sporting event down the road in Denver, just one of 13 cities with teams in all four pro leagues.

Rest assured, like the prophesy of an Arapaho Indian Chief, "If you leave Boulder, you will return."

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

Conference History

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back 99 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland. The original membership consisted of four schools — the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference, essentially replacing Colorado, which left for the Big 7 two years earlier. The PCC continued as a nine-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as commissioner of the Pac-8.

On July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Thomas C. Hansen was named the commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the conference into a modern 12-team league by adding the University of Colorado and the University of Utah. The addition of CU and Utah led to an agreement to equal revenue sharing for the first time in conference history, created two divisions (North and South) for football only, established a football championship game for the first time ever, secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school and established the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, as the Buffaloes were the first domino to fall in a change of the national landscape which, in just one week, saw Nebraska also leave the Big 12 and join the Big 10, Boise State depart the WAC for the Mountain West, TCU jump from the MWC for the Big East, and then on June 17, Utah agreeing to join CU to make it an even dozen in the Pac-12. Big-time rivals for the first half of the last century, the Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Pac-10 teams claimed 258 NCAA titles (130 women's, 128 men's).

Pac-12 Commissioner Larry Scott

At present, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the conference schools are members of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports. CU participates in the MPSF in indoor track and now in women's lacrosse and has competed since 1950 in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association (RMISA) in skiing, which is a coed sport.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco.

Conference of Champions

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

The Pac-12 launched its China Initiative in 2011 as a way to proactively promote the Conference and member institutions through student-athlete exchanges and sport. In its first three years, Pac-12 student-athletes have enjoyed unique cultural and athletic experiences in China, and the Conference has gained significant brand exposure for the future and set a foundation for growth.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions ®," claiming an incredible 137 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including 10 in 2013-14. That is an average of over nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 48 of the last 54 years. The only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third (1998-99 and 2004-05).

For the ninth-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so seven times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 469 NCAA Championships (287 men's, 154 women's, 28 coed).

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Pac-12 student-athletes over the years have won 2,123 individual crowns (1,459 men's 664 women's).

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 32 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 23 occasions, including 13-consecutive years from 2000-2013. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 150 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second, with 90. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 20 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 15 of the last 24 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 664 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

2013-14 REVIEW

In 2013-14, the Pac-12 Conference's 10 national titles came in the form of six men's and four women's crowns. Six different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the seven NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12. No other conference in the country had more than one team win multiple NCAA titles.

Oregon was one of three teams in the country to win three NCAA titles this academic season, its first time doing so. The Ducks took home the hardware in men's outdoor track & field, the program's first team title in the sport since 1984, and swept the men's and women's indoor national championships. An additional four teams in the country had two NCAA titles, including USC and UCLA. The Trojans continue to dominate the sports of men's water polo and men's tennis, winning a sixth-straight title in the pool and a fifth in six years on the court. The Bruins won the conference's third-ever women's soccer title and the program's first, while also taking home the women's tennis crown.

But it was the Buffaloes who kicked off the year for the conference winning its fourth NCAA men's cross country title. California was first in men's swimming, the program's third national championship in four years, and Stanford won its third women's water polo crown in four years, extending the school's streak of at least one NCAA team championship to 38 consecutive years.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2013-14. Of the 22 sports it sponsors, 19 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 79 of a possible 100 teams into the postseason (79.4 percent), while the women sent 83 of a possible 115 teams (72.2 percent).

Mads Stroem was the NCAA 20-kilometer freestyle champion as a freshman in 2014.

CU claimed its fourth NCAA men's cross country title in 2013.

2014-15 OUTLOOK

Every new season brings its own unique set of challenges. A year ago Colorado was coming off an NCAA Tournament berth, but injuries and some heart-breaking near misses left the Buffaloes just short of making a return trip to the Big Dance, although a fourth straight winning season (19-15) and a modest run in the Postseason WNIT set a foundation to build upon.

Colorado will be able to rely on a solid senior class that has played a lot of minutes as well as some talented younger players. The bulk of this program has experienced a good level of success, with all returners playing in some sort of postseason play over the last three years.

"We need to have the commitment to continue to work on our individual game on the offensive side, and our overall strength and fitness," head coach Linda Lappe said. "I feel like we're a really strong team right now, just looking at us in the weight room, and I really think that will translate onto the court as we begin practice.

"We need to improve our leadership and our defense. Normally, we're a good defensive team, but that wasn't the case at times last year. We need to have that leadership on the floor in those late game situations, to execute plays, and to get stops on the defensive end."

Colorado has already been presented with one significant challenge. Junior forward Arielle Roberson, last year's leading scorer and rebounder, will miss the season with a torn ACL in her left knee suffered in a routine drill during individual workouts just a week before the start of fall practice.

While her contributions will certainly be missed the Buffaloes have good depth in the front court and will look to a number of players to fill that void.

"Anytime there is an injury there is an opportunity for another player to step up," Lappe said. "We'll have the time with practice for players to seize that opportunity."

Junior Jamee Swan could have a big year for Colorado and her play will be critical even more so with the loss of Roberson. Swan led Colorado in both field-goal percentage (.505) and blocked shots (36) while ranking third in rebounding (5.3 rpg). She had flashes of dominance, including a 25-point outburst against Washington, and a 20-point, 13-rebound effort against No. 4 Stanford.

"Jamee is going to be key for us," Lappe said. "She's already played a major role for us and now as a junior, she needs to continue to evolve into a bigger inside presence. We're going to rely on our rebounding and athleticism at the rim."

Senior forward Jen Reese was second in scoring and rebounding for the Buffaloes before missing the final seven games with a shoulder injury. She finished just a fraction behind Roberson for the scoring lead at 12 per game while hitting 48 percent from the field and pulling down nearly six rebounds per contest.

Sophomore forward Zoe Beard-Fails has entered fall practice in great shape. She had spurts of success in limited time as a freshman, and has improved her strength and quickness in the offseason.

Jamee Swan

A pair of newcomers will add depth, especially if the Buffaloes show a big lineup. Sophomore center Bri Watts, didn't play in a game last year, but a year of conditioning and practice with the program should help. Freshman center Zoe Correal averaged 11.2 points and 8.2 rebounds for her Salesian High School team that made it to the state title game in California's top division.

"(Zoe Correal) has been impressive with her ability to learn and also compete," Lappe said. "She never quits and does everything at 110 percent. We still need to work with her on her skill set, but our fans will enjoy seeing her resolve to get things done."

Colorado's other early season storyline comes in the back court, specifically at the point guard position. The Buffaloes are excited about the prospects of true freshman Brecca Thomas, who had a storied career at The Kinkaid School in the Houston area, but also realize the transition at that position from high school to the Pac-12 is a tough one. Fortunately, senior Lexy Kresl will be able to help ease that process.

Though, naturally, more of a shooting guard, Kresl has played plenty of minutes at the point for Colorado, with a good deal of success. Kresl had an outstanding nonconference season as a junior; she was named the MVP of the Omni Classic, averaging 15.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists. She also had fantastic game in one of the nation's toughest venues, scoring 17 points with eight rebounds at No. 7 Louisville.

The growth in her all-around game is what has been the most beneficial to the Buffaloes. She led Colorado in assists and was third in steals as a junior. And, let's not forget, she can shoot. Kresl enters her senior year 10th in career 3-pointers with 124 and is a career 84 percent shooter from the free throw line.

Lexy Kresl

All this allows the Buffaloes to be patient with Thomas, although the ideal situation may be to have them on the court at the same time. Thomas was a four-year All-South Zone and All-South Preparatory Conference selection, helping her team to a pair of SPC championships. She averaged 18.6 points, 5.0 assists, 3.5 steals and 3.4 rebounds for The Kinkaid School as a senior and was ranked the 25th best point guard in the nation by ESPN HoopGurlz.

"Brecca will have to have a lot of reps from the get go and I've really liked what I've seen so far from her and what she's been able to do," Lappe said. "She becomes more prepared every single day. The good thing for her is we have Lexy who played a lot at the point for us last year and can be in that spot as well, but the best thing for Lexy and our team is to be able to utilize her at the 2-guard a lot more."

The backcourt is strong and has the ability to extend the floor with numerous players. Colorado is eagerly anticipating the return of senior Jasmine Sborov who really started to come into her own last year during the preseason before a foot injury abruptly ended her season prematurely after 14 games.

Sborov had averaged 7.8 points and 4.6 rebounds prior to her injury and was beginning to showcase the hard work she had put in on her shot in the previous offseason. She had extended her game past the 3-point line, hitting a solid 37 percent from beyond the arc. Sborov also shot 72 percent from the free line and iced road games against Colorado State and Wyoming from the stripe.

"Jas has made tremendous strides in her career, from the time she was a freshman to now," Lappe said. "I know she's looking forward to being out there with her teammates and really playing for them."

When Sborov went down, someone had to take her place. Much like the Buffaloes will have to do with Roberson's absence, someone had to step up and last year it was Haley Smith, then a true freshman. Despite some natural bumps, Smith got better and better as the season went along pitching just under three points and four rebounds per game. Now a year later, her experience makes Colorado that much deeper on the wing.

"Haley is a prime example of a player that stepped into a role that was void once another player was injured," Lappe said. "Haley was able to step in and be that wing for us that was just steady. When you think of Haley, she's someone that is tough, consistent and we're going to rely on those same things this year with a little additional load on her shoulders to score and defend multiple positions."

Colorado's guard play also benefits from long-range shooter Lauren Huggins, who ranked among the Pac-12's most accurate 3-point shooters last year, hitting on 36 percent. Sophomore Desiree Harris will also give Colorado minutes; a smart, quick, off-guard that can shoot from outside and also drive into the lane to either score or distribute.

Possibly the 'X-Factor' for the Buffaloes is freshman guard Alina Hartmann, from Bamberg, Germany; Colorado's first European player in six years. Hartmann is a veteran of several very successful German junior national teams, including the U20 team that placed first at the 2014 European Championships for Women this past August, where she averaged 8.2 points, 3.8 rebounds and 2.0 assists. She played club basketball for DJK Brose Bamberg in the German 1st Division, averaging 9.8 points and 5.2 rebounds while hitting 43 percent from the field in 22 games in 2013-14.

"Alina played with her German National team this summer, came in here and raised the standard in a lot of ways," Lappe said. "She's in fantastic shape, the best of our freshmen, and competes with our returners for that title. Alina has such a high level of intensity, has a great sense of urgency and is a sponge in what she's told, although sometimes she doesn't really understand it, she watches, and is very perceptive, and imitates whatever she sees in front of her on the floor and will do exactly what we are trying to get done."

Colorado has a challenging nonconference schedule, especially on the road. The Buffaloes will see both the SEC (at Missouri) at Big Ten (at Iowa) with potential games with perennial power Penn State or defending Big 12 Champion West Virginia in the Postseason WNIT. Colorado has its early Pac-12 work cut out for them, starting with a road trip to defending Pac-12 Champion Stanford and California. Five of the Buffaloes' first eight Pac-12 games are on the road, but similar to two years ago, Colorado has six of its final 10 at home, hopefully providing the momentum for another postseason run.

Lexy Kresl

Guard • 5-11 • Senior • 3L • Paradise Valley, Ariz. (Shadow Mountain)

Lexy Kresl has already made a mark on the CU history books with her 3-point shooting efforts, but an improved defensive presence and all-around game is what has pleased the Colorado coaching staff. She's a versatile guard who can no doubt rip the nets, but she knows the offense enough to run the point and is big and quick enough to play out on the wing.

Career: Colorado's top active 3-point shooter as she ranks 10th on the team's all-time list for 3-pointers made (124) and attempted (419). She has made a 3-pointer in 71 of 95 games played and has 33 career outings with two or more 3-pointers. Kresl is one of two Buffaloes (joining Jen Reese) that have a shot at reaching 1,000 career points this season. She enters her final collegiate campaign with 738.

2013-14 (Junior): Topped Colorado in assists (3.1 apg) and free-throw percentage (.841) while ranking third in both steals (1.1 spg) and 3-point field goals made (27). Kresl ranked third in the Pac-12 Conference in free-throw percentage, holding the top stop for a good portion of the season. She was also 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.2) and 12th in assists on the league charts. Her 84.1 percent mark from the charity stripe ranks 19th on Colorado's single-season list. She came out of the gate strong, primarily playing the point guard position, starting the first 16 games of the season. Kresl was named MVP of the Omni Hotels Classic averaging 15.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists in wins over South Alabama (11/29) and Rice (11/30). She scored 12 points, dished out a career-high six assists, and nabbed seven rebounds in the first round win over South Alabama. In the championship game she scored a season-best 19 points on 7-of-14 shooting, with five rebounds, four assists and three steals. She hit double figures in scoring 10 times, including a 17-point effort in a 69-62 loss at No. 7 ranked Louisville. A leg injury set her back in the middle of the Pac-12 season, forcing her to miss three games (Arizona, Arizona State at Utah), but rallied to finish strong in the postseason. Kresl averaged 9.0 points, 4.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists off the bench in Colorado's five postseason contests. In the first round Pac-12 Tournament win over UCLA, Kresl scored 14 points, including a perfect 6-of-6 from the free-throw line, grabbed six rebounds and dished out three assists.

2014-15 BUFFALOES

2012-13 (Sophomore): Led Colorado in 3-point shooting for the second-straight season connecting on 34 from long range. She ranked 14th in the Pac-12 in 3-pointers made per game at 1.2. She hit 32 percent from downtown during the conference season (17-of-54) ranking 15th in the Pac-12 in league-only games. On the season she averaged 6.0 points, 2.7 rebounds and 1.3 steals per game. Her 38 steals ranked third on the team and she led the team on seven different occasions. Kresl tied a personal-best with 20 points in the win over New Mexico (12/29). In that game she tied a school record for 3-pointers made without a miss, hitting on all five attempts from beyond the arc. She actually hit six in a row over two games, making her only attempt in the win over Utah Valley (12/22). She also matched a career-best with seven field-goals made against New Mexico. Kresl scored in double-digits four times, the other three coming during the Pac-12 schedule. Kresl had season-highs of seven rebounds in back-to-back games, at home against Arizona (1/20) and at No. 7/7 ranked California (1/25). She was starting to pick up momentum late in the season, averaging 9.0 points and 2.3 steals over a four game stretch before a shoulder injury forced her to miss three games.

2011-12 (Freshman): Kresl averaged nine points and led Colorado in 3-pointers made (63) and attempted (198) en route to Pac-12 All-Freshman honors voted on by the media. She earned honorable mention to the coaches' All-Freshman team. Kresl ranked second among Pac-12 freshman in 3-pointers and fifth in scoring. On the overall league charts, she was fifth in 3-pointers made (1.8 3mpg), 12th in 3-point percentage (.318) and 28th in scoring. Her 63 3-pointers were most by a CU freshman breaking the mark of 57 previously held by Brittany Spears (2007-08) and Shelley Sheetz (1991-92). It was the 12th time a CU player has made 60 3-pointers in one season and just the seventh different player to do so. She made a 3-pointer in 31-of-35 games. Kresl scored a career high 20 points on 6-of-7 from downtown in the win over Oregon State (3/3), the top single-game 3-point percentage in the Pac-12 this season. She was named to the UTSA Classic All-Tournament team, averaging 14.5 points and hitting 50 percent from the field. Kresl topped off the tournament in style by hitting the game-winning 3-point shot at the buzzer against Creighton (12/21). She earned Omni Hotels Classic All-Tournament Team honors, scoring 16 points in the championship game against Wisconsin (11/26) including a team season-best 8-for-8 from the free throw line. She made 36-of-40 free throws on the season, and will carry a string of 17 straight made into the 2012-13 season. Kresl enjoyed a spectacular collegiate debut, tying a school record by hitting five 3-pointers in the first half against Northern Arizona (11/11), finishing with 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting. She registered six straight double-figure scoring games to begin her career, tying Shelley Sheetz for the second most in team history.

HIGH SCHOOL: Lexy Kresl is a 2011 graduate of Shadow Mountain High School in Paradise Valley, Ariz., where she is the program's all-time leading scorer with 2,404 points. She earned consecutive All-Arizona, first-team all-state and regional player of the year accolades and was Arizona's leading scorer her junior and senior years. As a senior, she was a McDonald's All-American nominee after averaging 25 points and 14 rebounds per game. She was named Outstanding Female Athlete of the Year as a senior and earned an Arizona Women's Wendy's Heisman as a junior. During her junior season, Kresl led Shadow Mountain High School to the 2010 Arizona 4AI state title and was named tournament MVP. She was an ESPN Rise All-American after averaging 27 points and 12 rebounds per game. The same year she named Western Sky Player of the Year and earned all-tournament honors at the Nike Tournament of Champions. As a sophomore in 2009, she averaged 16 points and seven rebounds, earning all-region honors. Kresl guided Shadow Mountain to a four-year record of 90-27. She played for two Nike Sponsored summer all-star teams, the Gregory Strickling Basketball program (2010-11) and the Arizona Swish (2007-09). Kresl also was a one-year letterwinner for the Shadow Mountain track & field team and recorded a sixth place finish in the state in the 800-meter run.

ACADEMICS: Kresl is an integrative physiology major at CU and aspires to be a physician's assistant. She was named to the 2014 Pac-12 Women's Basketball All-Academic First Team, the Buffaloes' initial member of that five-person squad. Kresl was a second team All-Academic pick in 2013 and, as a sophomore, the only underclassman out of the 10 student-athletes that made one of the All-Academic squads. She holds a 3.62 GPA through the Summer 2014 term. She hopes to attend Colorado's nationally recognized PA school after completing her undergraduate degree. In the summer of 2014, Kresl did an observational and research based internship at Palo Verde Cancer Center and Mosharrafa Plastic Surgery in the Phoenix area.

PERSONAL: Alexis "Lexy" Kresl was born on July 15, 1993, in Wisconsin to John and Julie Kresl. She has two younger brothers Logan (19) and Colten (15). Logan is a brain cancer survivor, having been diagnosed at age 7 and fought through surgery and chemotherapy treatments. Kresl says he is her inspiration both on and off the court. The story of their bond was chronicled by ESPNW.com during Breast Cancer Awareness month in February 2013. Her mother played basketball at TCU. She lists her hobbies as running, shopping, listening to music and watching movies.

GETTING TO KNOW LEXY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Gaining lifetime friends!

Favorite quote: "You may defeat me, but I will not be defeated."

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: Going to Italy as a team over the summer.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Anything outdoors! Hiking, walking down Pearl Street; whatever!

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Bachelor... I mean do I need a reason?

One word to describe me off the court is: BUSY

My pregame rituals are: Taking a nice relaxing nap.

One thing people don't know about me is: I was born in Wisconsin.

The three things I cannot live without are: Chapstick, Laptop, Credit Card

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else: Push through injuries and illness because they are dedicated to the team.

Best talent not related to basketball: Shopping

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Trekking through a snowstorm for coffee while in Oregon last year.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Golf or Cross Country

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Kevin Durant

Your all-time 'Starting 5': Michael Jordan, Jen Reese, LeBron James, Larry Bird, Steph Curry

Do you have any hidden talents?: Singing in the shower

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen Reese

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: Age 4, my mom

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: I don't have an iPod, but Sam Smith.

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Green Bay Packers — Go PACK Go!

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: It's not what you're going through, it's what you're going to.

I wish I knew how to: Do a backflip

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Inspire others

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: How to work well with others.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Ellen DeGeneres

And I would ask that person: To have me on her show!

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Jen is from Pluto... seriously

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My brother Logan because he has overcome more adversity than anyone I know.

My plans after graduation are: PA school

My favorite class at CU: Anatomy

My hero is: My dad!

Advice to young athletes: Sports can teach you a lot more about life than you think so take it all in!

2014-15 BUFFALOES

Jen Reese

Forward • 6-2 • Senior • 3L • Clackamas, Ore. (Clackamas)

Jen Reese compliments a solid Colorado front line with her ability to play physical down low and knock down the outside shot. She has a nice soft touch on her stroke and has displayed range out towards the 3-point arc. Reese proved to be a clutch player in many pressure situations for the Buffaloes during her successful career and will be out to finish off her Colorado career in style.

Career: Reese should hit a pair of significant CU milestones in her senior season. She enters the season needing 213 points to join the Buffaloes' 1,000-point club, a figure well below her season outputs the last two years. There are 25 members of Colorado's 1,000 point club and Reese is the closest of current Buffs that have a chance to reach that mark this season. She is just 36 rebounds away from 500, and 57 from cracking CU's career top 20.

2013-14 (Junior): Received honorable mention to the All-Pac-12 Conference team as voted on by league coaches despite missing the final seven games of the season with a broken bone in her shoulder. Reese was second on the team in scoring at an even 12.0 points of game, just being edged out by teammate Arielle Roberson for the season lead by .03. She was also second on the team in rebounding (5.8 rpg), free-throw percentage (.744) and field-goal accuracy (.483). After trading off starting and bench roles during the nonconference schedule, she settled into a starting position during the Pac-12 slate, starting in her final 13 games. Reese scored in double-digits in 17 of 27 contests and logged a pair of double-doubles. Her first double-dip of the season included 14 points and a career-high-matching 14 rebounds in a 69-62 loss at No. 7 ranked Louisville (12/21). The second came in her home state as she scored 18 points and pulled down 13 rebounds in an 81-75 win at Oregon (2/10). Reese had a memorable weekend in the home series with the Arizona schools. She averaged 22 points and 7.5 rebounds on 55 percent from the field and 91 percent from the free throw line in the games against Arizona (1/24) and Arizona State (1/26). She matched her career-best scoring output with 22 points in each game and set career highs for field goals (9), field-goal attempts (18) and minutes played (36) against the Sun Devils. Earlier in the season she was named to the Omni Classic All-Tournament Team after averaging 14.5 points and 7.0 rebounds while hitting 69 percent from the field (11-of-16) in wins over South Alabama (11/29) and Rice (11/30). On the Pac-12 leaderboard, Reese ranked sixth in field-goal percentage, eighth in free-throw percentage and 21st in scoring.

She also extended her shot beyond 3-point range, hitting eight of career 11 3-pointers during her junior campaign. Reese shot 50 percent or better in more than half her games (14) and a blistering 60 percent or higher in 12 of those contests.

2012-13 (Sophomore): Reese made a successful return from a freshman year eye injury, playing in all 32 games. One of the top bench players in the league, she earned honorable mention to the coach's All-Pac-12 team. She was third on the team in scoring (8.4 ppg) and rebounding (4.9 rpg) while hitting 42.5 percent from the field and a team-best 80.6 percent from the foul line. She was especially sharp from the foul line during conference play, sinking 85.3 percent (29-of-34) including a string of 17 straight. Reese scored a career-high 22 points in the comeback win at Arizona State (1/18), where the Buffaloes trailed by as much as 12 in the second half before claiming a 71-63 win. Against the Sun Devils she was 7-of-10 from the floor and recorded a personal and team season-best 8-for-8 from the free-throw stripe. She was especially sharp in the desert that weekend, netting 15 points and six rebounds against Arizona (1/20), tying a career best with seven field-goals made in each contest. She narrowly missed her second career double-double with 14 points and a season-high nine rebounds in the Omni Hotels championship game win over San Diego State (11/24). Her biggest single rebound however came in the final seconds of CU's 70-66 upset over No. 8/8 Louisville (12/14). With Colorado up by two and 11 seconds remaining, Brittany Wilson missed a pair of free throws, but on the second one Reese grabbed the offensive rebound and scored on the put-back to preserve the final margin. On the season she scored in double digits 14 times and led the team in scoring on four occasions. Reese made her only start of the season, for an injured Rachel Hargis, in the NCAA Tournament game against Kansas (3/23).

2011-12 (Freshman): Reese ranked second on the team in rebounding (6.0 rpg) and fourth in scoring (7.8 ppg) as a first year Buffalo. She led all Pac-12 freshmen in rebounding by average and earned honorable mention to the Pac-12 All-Freshman team voted on by league coaches. Reese played in 25 games and moved into the starting lineup for nine straight before suffering a broken orbital bone underneath her left eye while attempting to take a charge in the opening minutes of the game at No. 2 Stanford (2/23). She had come into her own, leading Colorado in rebounding (or sharing the lead) in six of the last nine games prior to her injury. Reese grabbed a career-best 14 rebounds against UCLA (1/29), the third highest total by a CU player this season. She made her first career start at Arizona, responding with 12 points and a team-high seven rebounds. Logged her first career double-double with 12 points, on 6-of-7 shooting, and 12 rebounds in the win at Washington State (1/7). She had 11 games with seven or more rebounds, including four in double-digits. Reese was named to the UTSA Holiday Classic All-Tournament Team, averaging 12.5 points over the two games while shooting 66.7 percent (10-of-15). She had a career-high 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting — including her lone 3-pointer made— in the win over Creighton (12/21). She made her collegiate debut against Northern Arizona scoring eight points on 3-of-6 from the field while grabbing three steals. Reese had 11 games of shooting 50 percent or better, finishing her season at 44.9 percent, which would have ranked among the top 12 in the Pac-12, but fell just short of the minimum number of games played to be ranked in the league leaderboard.

HIGH SCHOOL: Reese is a 2011 graduate of Clackamas (Ore.) High School. A 2011 Parade Magazine All-American, Reese averaged 25 points, 20 rebounds, six assists and five blocks as a senior guiding the Cavaliers to a 27-2 record and a second place state finish, the program's best ever state placing. She became the first player to be named Oregon's Gatorade Girls Basketball Player of the Year on two occasions (2010, '11). Reese led the Three Rivers League in scoring as a senior, helping Clackamas to an undefeated (15-0) conference championship season, and a 25-game win streak along the way. She is a three-time Class 6A first team all-state selection and Three Rivers MVP and a four-time first team all-league selection. A 2011 McDonald's All-American nominee, Reese was the MVP of the state of Oregon and the school's Athlete of the Year. She was Oregon's second leading scorer her junior year (21 ppg) and its third leading scorer her sophomore year (20 ppg). As a freshman, Reese earned second-team all-state honors, averaging 12 points and five rebounds. Reese's teams compiled an overall four-year record of 70-17. She earned a spot in the CHS Hall of Fame before graduation. Reese played club ball with Team Concept from seventh through 12th grades, traveling all over the greater west. Her team took first place in tournaments in Las Vegas, San Diego, Seattle and Memphis.

ACADEMICS: Reese is majoring in communication at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Jen "J" Reese was born on May 19, 1992, in Portland, Ore. She is the daughter of Jeff and Ashley Reese of Happy Valley, Ore. She has one younger brother David, who is a freshman offensive lineman at Montana. When she's not playing basketball she enjoys hanging out with friends. After graduation she hopes to continue playing overseas and become a coach.

GETTING TO KNOW JEN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The ever lasting friendships.

Favorite quote: "I hated every minute of training, but I said don't quit. Suffer now and live the rest of your life as a champion." -Muhammad Ali

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: Traveling all over Italy with my teammates.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Watching Netflix

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Bachelorette because it would be amazing to travel everywhere with attractive guys.

One word to describe me off the court is: Crazy

My pregame rituals are: Making a right hand layup before any other shot and I have to make it

One thing people don't know about me is: I'm a professional Netflix watcher

The three things I cannot live without are: Hair Spray, Starbucks, Cell Phone

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else: Pushing through adversity

Best talent not related to basketball: Cooking

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Beating Louisville

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Golf

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Blake Griffin

Your all-time 'Starting 5': Blake Griffin, LaMarcus Aldridge, Kevin Durant, Kevin Love, Michael Jordan

Do you have any hidden talents?: I'm a pretty good cook and a professional TV series watcher.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Me

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: Dribbled at 2 years, and my dad

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: Country

What is your favorite professional sports team?: LA Clippers

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: You're a winner!

I wish I knew how to....: Sing

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Being a successful person overall.

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: Pushing through in difficult times.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Melissa McCarthy

And I would ask that person: Will you be my best friend?

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Lexy can meow exactly like the snail Gary in the TV show Spongebob. It's very odd.

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My brother for always pushing me to be better as well as watching him succeed in his life thus far.

My plans after graduation are: Overseas and then become a coach

My favorite class at CU: Sports studies class

My hero is: My parents

Advice to young athletes: Control the things you can control and never let people tell you you're not good enough for anything.

Jasmine Sborov

Guard • 5-11 • Senior • 3L • Round Rock, Texas (Round Rock)

Jasmine Sborov has developed into a versatile back court player for Colorado, with the ability to play a number of roles. She is a big guard who offensively can get to the rim and also hit the pull up jumper. She is long and physical on the defensive side, helping Colorado become a solid rebounding team with her effort and athleticism. Her all around ability began to emerge before last season was cut short by injury, and could be one of the on-and-off the court leaders.

Junior (2013-14): Had an outstanding to the beginning of her junior season, averaging 7.8 points and 4.6 rebounds over the first 14 games. She worked hard on her outside shot during the offseason and it began to pay dividends, hitting on 10-of-27 from 3-point range, a very respectable 37 percent. Sborov also came up clutch for the Buffaloes in a pair of early road games. In the season-opening 63-59 win at Colorado State (11/12) her career-best 13-point effort was highlighted by sinking two free throws with 27 seconds remaining to help the Buffaloes maintain a crucial 3-point lead. In another "regional rivalry" game, Sborov iced the contest against Wyoming (12/4) by hitting another pair of free throws, this time with :05 left on the clock to provide the final 63-59 margin. Sborov made 72.4 percent from the free-throw stripe in her abbreviated season, a stark contrast from being a 53 percent free throw shooter in her first two seasons. She scored in double-digits in seven contests, after having just three such efforts in her first 63 games, including an 11-point outing at UCLA (1/5) where she played a career-high 33 minutes and matched a personal-best with four field goals. She logged her first double-double with 12 points and a career-high 10 rebounds against Southern Utah (12/29). Sborov had upped her rebounding numbers to 7.0 over her final four games.

Following CU's last-minute 57-55 loss to No. 19

California (1/10), she missed the final 20 games of the season with a broken bone in her right foot.

Sophomore (2012-13): Sborov averaged 2.8 points, 3.2 rebounds and 1.3 assists, appearing in 30 of 32 contests. She logged a total of 10 starts, six coming during the nonconference schedule and four more at the tail end of the Pac-12 season. Sborov was third on the team in assists with 38. She dished out a career-best four in the home win over Oregon (2/10). The Ducks proved to bring the best out in Sborov as she scored eight in both games of the series, a personal-best during Pac-12 games. She scored a career-high 11 points, hitting 5-of-9 from the field, and grabbed six rebounds in the road win at Illinois (12/1). In that game she also set career marks for field goals made and attempted. Sborov corralled a personal-best eight rebounds in just 19 minutes at UMKC (11/18). She had two double-digit scoring games on the season, the other coming with 10 points against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi (11/23) in the first round of the Omni Hotels Classic. She had 14 games with four or more rebounds, including five against Kansas (3/23) in the NCAA Tournament.

Freshman (2011-12): Pitched in just under three points and three rebounds per games, but the season averages don't tell the story for Sborov's freshman year. She steadily climbed the ladder throughout the season, moving from the end of the bench, to a starter and key contributor in Colorado's postseason run. Sborov started the final nine games of the season, essentially taking the position of classmate Jen Reese who was lost for the season with an eye injury. She scored 84 of her season's 94 points in the final 20 games of the season and 24 of her season's 32 field goals came in the last 15. Sborov began to see extended action in the home game against No. 4 Stanford (1/14) and played double-digit minutes in all but two of the final 20 contests. She shot 47 percent (8-of-17) during CU's WNIT run averaging 5.8 points and 4.3 rebounds. She tied a career-best playing 29 minutes in the third round win over Villanova (3/22). Sborov had a career night in the home win over Arizona (2/9), setting personal bests with 10 points, on 4-of-6 shooting, with seven rebounds and three assists. She scored her first collegiate points on a layup against Valparaiso (11/25), also logging three blocked shots in that game, the second most by a CU player in a game this season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Sborov is a 2011 graduate of Round Rock (Texas) High School. She was a was a four-time team MVP, three-time Offensive Player of the Year and two-time first-team all-district 16-5A selection. A McDonald's All-American nominee in 2011, Sborov helped the Dragons to the playoffs for the fourth straight season, averaging 15 points and eight rebounds per game. She led the Dragons to a 15-9 mark in 2010 averaging 12 points and eight rebounds, en route to all-district honors. Sborov led her team in blocks and rebounding while averaging 11 points as a sophomore, earning honorable mention to the all-district team. She averaged 11 points and seven rebounds as a freshman, leading Round Rock in blocked shots. She also lettered in track at Round Rock and set the school's high jump record at Regionals in 2010 with a 5 feet, 6 inches mark. She played club basketball with TeamXpress, helping them win a Nike Nationals tournament.

ACADEMICS: Sborov is majoring in sociology at Colorado and working on an Ethnic Studies and Sport Certificate.

PERSONAL: Jasmine "Jas" Sborov was born on July 30, 1993, in El Paso, Texas. She is the daughter of Jon and Tara Sborov. She has three younger siblings Amber (19), Jordan (16) and Jalen (15). Her mother ran track at UTEP. She enjoys outdoor activities like hiking, biking and camping. When Sborov was younger, she lived in London for a year and says she used to have a British accent and used to speak some French.

2014-15 BUFFALOES

GETTING TO KNOW JASMINE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Is being able to be a part of bringing a winning tradition back to our program.

Favorite quote: "Nobody cares how much you know, unless they know how much you care." - Theodore Roosevelt

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: The Iowa game at home. That was our first big game of the season, there were tons of fans here, and the atmosphere was so energetic. We could feel it on the court, and it showed through the way we played.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be: The Voice.

My pregame rituals are: After shoot around I always go home and take a shower so that I can feel awake and refreshed for the game. I relax at home for a little bit while I get my mind ready to play.

One thing people don't know about me is: I have a kitten who fetches and sits on command!

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else.: Watching Ashley Wilson last year struggle with all of her injuries during her senior year was one of the most inspiring things I've ever seen a teammate go through. She was hurting worse than any of us on the court, and yet she managed to pouch through it mentally and lead our team.

Best talent not related to basketball: Water skiing

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: My sophomore year Jen and I were walking back to our dorm late at night (across from the lacrosse fields) and we noticed a really tall dark figure bounding across the fields. We both saw it at the same time and got scared because it was seriously jumping probably 5 feet in the air. We looked at each other and took off running back to our dorms for safety because we were convinced it was an alien! Come to find out it was just some guy on pogo stilts messing around on the field. Whoops! Better safe than sorry.)

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Track and Field

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Lisa Leslie- I know there's a big position difference, but she was my basketball idol when I was little.

Your all-time 'Starting 5': I'll take our starting 5 over anyone's!

Do you have any hidden talents?: I LOVE water sports!

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen Reese

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: I was probably about 7 when I first started playing basketball. My dad is the one who got me started.

What is your favorite professional sports team?: I'm a born and raised Dallas Cowboys fan.

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: "I don't want to spend my whole life asking, what if I had given everything instead of going through the motions?"

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: I want to travel all over Europe

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: To do everything, no matter what it is, with a purpose.

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Lexy can imitate the voice of Gary the snail from Soggebob so perfectly it's kind of scary how identical her imitation is.

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My mom is definitely one of the most inspirational people in my life. She went back to and graduated from nursing school while still having four kids in the house. I admire her for doing that so much because I know how hard that was for her to do while taking care of us kids. Whenever I am overwhelmed by school work I always think about her and how she managed to get all of her work done, get good grades, and raise the four of us. That's inspiring.

My plans after graduation are: Either go play overseas or get a GA position somewhere so I can work on a masters while learning how to be a coach.

My favorite class at CU: Nutrition

My hero is: Again, my mom is definitely one of my heroes

Advice to young athletes: "When the world says "give up", hope whispers "try one more time." I absolutely love and truly am encouraged by this saying. I think it is so true and fitting for young athletes trying to find their place in the sports world. Not only do I think this is encouraging for athletes, but everyone. I constantly remind myself of this when I'm going through something that I don't think I'm going to be able to accomplish.

2014-15 BUFFALOES

Arielle Roberson

Forward • 6-1 • Junior • 2L • San Antonio, Texas (Wagner)

Arielle Roberson had entered the fall as strong as ever, having a full offseason of work outs after the previous two were slowed by injury rehabilitation. Unfortunately the injury bug bit again, however, as she fell victim to a torn ACL in her left knee during individual drills just one week before the beginning of fall practice. She will miss the 2014-15 season. Roberson was the last signee in Colorado's Class of 2011, waiting until the NCAA's normal signing period (April 2011) to pick the Buffaloes.

Career: Ranks 19th in career blocked shots with 57. She is 14th in career double-doubles with 10 and also 14th in double-figure rebounding games at 14. Her 464 career rebounds are the fourth best for a freshman/sophomore combined in team history.

2013-14 (Sophomore): Roberson led Colorado in scoring (12.0 ppg) and rebounding (8.3 rpg) while ranking second in blocked shots (1.0 bpg) and third in field-goal percentage (.458). She earned honorable mention to both the coaches All-Pac-12 Conference and All-Defensive teams. On the Pac-12 leaderboard, Roberson ranked fifth in offensive rebounds (3.4 orgp), ninth in blocks, overall rebounds and field-goal percentage, 14th in defensive rebounds (4.9 drpg) and 20th in scoring. Roberson had a team-high seven double-doubles, including a stretch of three straight (at Wyoming, Illinois, Denver) and four out of five during preseason action. During the first part of that stretch, she earned Pac-12 Player of the Week honors (12/9) averaging 15 points and 11 rebounds while hitting 48 percent from the field during wins at Wyoming (12/4) and Illinois (12/7). She then put in a third-straight outstanding effort with a season-high 22 points along with 10 rebounds against Denver (12/12). In that contest Roberson recorded career-highs by hitting 13-of-17 from the free-throw line; the 17 attempts tying for the second-most in team history. In five postseason games, Roberson shot

56 percent while averaging 10.2 points, 9.4 rebounds and 2.0 blocks. She had a monster game in the Pac-12 Tournament quarterfinal loss to No. 4/3 ranked Stanford (3/7). Roberson pulled down a career-high 17 rebounds; the most ever by a Buffalo in a postseason conference tournament game, tying the third-best overall postseason mark and tying for the 11th best overall single-game performance. Her rebounding efforts were strong the entire season, especially on the offensive end. Roberson's 109 offensive rebounds are the fourth-most by a Buff since the 1987-88 season (when the stat was first charted on a regular basis). Her 266 overall rebounds tied for 18th on CU's single-season list while her 8.3 per game average ranks 14th best in the team annals. Roberson scored in double digits in 19 of 32 games, hitting the 20-point mark on three occasions. She started 31 of 32 contests, coming off the bench in the Omni Hotels Classic championship game against Rice (11/30) after missing the previous two contests with a concussion she sustained in the win over Iowa (11/20). She flirted with a triple-double in that game against the Hawkeyes, scoring 17 points with nine rebounds and a career-best six assists. While her scoring numbers stayed virtually even from her freshman-to-sophomore seasons, Roberson increased her rebounds by more than two per game and her assists by one per contest.

2012-13 (Freshman): The 2013 Pac-12 Freshman of the Year as voted on by league coaches, Roberson averaged 12.1 points and 6.2 rebounds per game. Her Freshman of the Year honor was the first of its kind for the Buffaloes in any conference. She led Colorado in free-throws made and attempted (97-of-142), ranked second in scoring and rebounding, third in blocked shots (24) and fourth in steals (32). Both the Pac-12 coaches and media members named her to their respective all-freshman teams. Roberson earned honorable mention to the overall Pac-12 All-Conference team as well as its all-defensive squad. She was touted as a third team Freshman All-American by FullCourtPress.com. Roberson ranked seventh in offensive rebounds, 16th in overall rebounds and 17th in scoring on the Pac-12 leaderboard. She dominated the Pac-12's Freshman of the Week honor. In its inaugural season, Roberson won five, including the very first, after recording 16 points, six rebounds and five steals in her collegiate debut against Idaho (11/11). Her five steals were the most by a CU player in her collegiate debut since Brittany Spears had five in 2007. Her five weekly conference awards in one season are the most by any Buffalo in the Big 12, Pac-12 era (since 1996-97). Roberson was the MVP of the Omni Hotels Classic, the first CU freshman to win that honor, averaging 16.5 points and 7.5 rebounds over the two-game series. She scored a career-high 25 points to lead Colorado in the win at Illinois (12/1), nailing a clutch 3-pointer in the final minute to put the game away. Roberson hit 41.2 percent from 3-point range, the ninth-best single season mark in team history with a minimum of 50 attempts (21-of-51). She caught fire at the tail end of the season, making 13 of her last 25 (.520). She scored in double-digits 23 times, including the first 13 games which set a school record to start a CU career. Roberson led the Buffaloes in scoring on 10 occasions. She started in 31 of 32 games, coming off the bench against UMKC (11/18) and in that game she scored 23 points on 9-of-12 from the field. Her 23 points off the bench were the second most, and her nine field goals the most, for any Buffalo in the last 10 seasons. Roberson had three double-doubles, all of which came in the final seven games of the season, including an 11-point, 12-rebound performance against Kansas (3/23) in the NCAA Tournament. Her first double-double was a 17-point and personal-best 13-rebound effort against Washington State (2/22). The WSU game was her first of two on the season where she grabbed eight offensive rebounds; the other was her second double-double, a 10-point, 11-rebound performance in the overtime win at Oregon State in the regular season finale (3/3). She averaged 12.8 points and 8.5 rebounds over the final eight games.

2011-12 (Redshirt): Sat out the 2011-12 season after developing a torn labrum in her left hip during preseason workouts. She underwent successful surgery to repair the tear in December 2011.

HIGH SCHOOL: Roberson is a 2011 graduate of Wagner High School in San Antonio where she was a Texas Association of Basketball Coaches (TABC) and Texas Girls Coaches Association (TGCA) All-State pick as a senior. She averaged 18.2 points, 9.7 rebounds, 2.7 assists, three steals and two blocks per game in 2011 while guiding Wagner to a 32-7 record, advancing to the semifinals of the Texas 5A State Tournament. A multiple all-region and all-district performer, Roberson also shot 57 percent from the field and 73 percent from the free-throw line as a senior. A two-time member of the San Antonio Express-News All-City Super Team, Roberson finished her career at Wagner with 1,640 points. She was unanimously chosen as the District 25-5A MVP as a senior and was also a McDonald's All-American nominee and the MVP of the Lone Star Invitational Tournament. Roberson, who played in the TABC Girls All-Star Game in May 2011, was a part of three state tournament teams at Wagner sporting a four-year record of 133-15. Roberson also was a three-year letterwinner in volleyball. She played club basketball with TeamXpress.

ACADEMICS: Roberson is majoring in Communication at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Arielle Roberson, was born Jan. 20, 1993, in Grand Rapids, Mich. She is the daughter of John and Lisa Roberson. Her parents, John (basketball) and Lisa (volleyball), were both student-athletes at New Mexico State University. She is the fourth of seven Roberson siblings. Older brother Andre, who starred for three seasons with the Buffaloes (2010-13), is in his second year with the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder after being selected by the Minnesota Timberwolves with the 26th pick of the first round in the 2013 NBA Draft (he was dealt to the Thunder on a draft day trade). Two older sisters competed in NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletics and are currently playing overseas in their respective sports. Ashlee was a three-year letterwinner in basketball at Texas Tech University (2007-10) and Amber played volleyball at the University of Texas (2008-11). A younger brother, Anthony, is a sophomore basketball player at Weatherford (Texas) Junior College. Her two youngest siblings are in grade school, Aaliyah (10) and Arianna (8). She would like a chance to play in the WNBA.

GETTING TO KNOW ARIELLE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Getting to experience growth together as people and as basketball players.

Favorite quote: "Work hard in silence and let success make the noise"

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: Getting to play in such intense arenas such as Louisville and UTEP.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go to the movies

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be?: Wipe Out

One word to describe me off the court is: Happy

My pregame rituals are: To shower then do my hair and then be the first or one of the first people on the floor to warm up for shooting.

One thing people don't know about me is: I am very cheesy!

The three things I cannot live without are: God, Family, Food

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else.: Ashley Wilson played through full body cramps just because we needed her to guard a team's best player.

Best talent not related to basketball: Calming babies down

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Freshman year, all of us freshman and Ashley and Brittany Wilson were all bored so we went to Chucky's house and played monopoly for about 5 hours. We were seriously addicted to that game that night.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Volleyball

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Maya Moore

Do you have any hidden talents?: No hidden talents.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: My parents and siblings did. It was something we all did. I first played in second grade, in a church league.

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: Alicia Keys and Beyonce

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Oklahoma City Thunder, Detroit Pistons, San Antonio Spurs

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: Knowing that I don't do it for myself and that I have others who count on me.

I wish I knew how to...: Do a backflip

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: That any moment is precious and we should cherish our time that we are given.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Pat Summit

And I would ask that person: How did she get so dog-gone good at coaching!

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Lexy and Haley are very book smart but sometimes lacks street smarts. It is actually very funny.

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My mom. She went through a ton of hard times in her life and manages to balance out her time for all of us. She works hard and still shows all of her kids and our dad how much she loves us all.

My plans after graduation are: WNBA, sports sideline reporter

My favorite class at CU: Education and Society

My hero is: My family

Advice to young athletes: Never give up and always push to be all you can be and do only what you want to do. Find what makes you happiest and excel.

2014-15 BUFFALOES

Jamee Swan

Forward • 6-2 • Junior • 2L • Marana, Ariz. (Marana)

Swan is a fiery, passionate forward that gives Colorado a solid post presence. She is a dynamic rebounder who has the strength to finish down low, but can also move to the outside and play with her face to the basket. Consistency will be key for Swan as she continues to grow into an upperclassman.

Career: Colorado's active career leader in blocked shots, she is 15th on the Buffaloes' all-time list with 64.

2013-14 (Sophomore): Led Colorado in both field-goal percentage (.505) and blocked shots (36) while ranking third in rebounding (5.3 rpg). On the Pac-12 Conference leaderboard, Swan was fifth in field-goal percentage, eighth in blocks (1.1 bpg) and 15th in offensive rebounds (2.4 orgp). She had 12 double-figure scoring games, and shot particularly well in those outings (76-of-128, 59.4 when in double figures). She shot 50 percent or better in 10 of those instances, including a 7-of-9 effort resulting in 16 points in the WNIT win over TCU (3/19). Swan netted a career-high 25 points in just 18 minutes in the home loss to Washington (2/14), hitting 9-of-12 from the field and 7-of-10 from the free-throw line. That career-best night was the middle game of a three-sent the game into overtime. Swan was only one of two Buffs (with Rachel Hargis) to appear in all 34 games. She logged eight starts, mostly coming in the early portion of the Pac-12 season.

2012-13 (Freshman): Swan led Colorado in field-goal accuracy at 45.5 percent (66-of-145) and ranked second in blocks (28) and fourth in rebounding (4.5 rpg). Her success from the field actually improved to 48.1 percent (39-of-81) during Pac-12 play and she was the team's third-best rebounder during the league schedule (4.6 rpg). Swan appeared in all 32 games and logged one start which came in the second contest of her career. In that game at UMKC (11/18), she scored 14 points on 6-of-9 from the field with three rebounds. Swan wasn't intimidated by the nation's best. At No. 6/6 Stanford (1/27) she scored 14 points while recording a personal-best 7-of-9 performance from the field. She had an outstanding Pac-12 Tournament, averaging 10.5 points, 8.0 rebounds and 2.0 blocks in games against Washington (3/8) and No. 4/4 ranked Stanford (3/9). Swan recorded her first career double-double with a personal-best 15 points to go along with 10 rebounds in the Pac-12 quarterfinal win over Washington. In all she scored in double-digits five times and grabbed double-digit rebounds on two occasions. Swan grabbed a career-best 11 rebounds in the home win over Utah (1/8), narrowly missing a double-double with eight points. She had a career-best four blocked shots in the NCAA Tournament game against Kansas (3/23).

High School: A 2012 graduate of Marana High School near Tucson, where she was highly regarded as the top prospect in the state of Arizona. She was ranked as the eighth best forward in the nation and the 38th best overall player by ESPN HoopGurlz.

2014-15 BUFFALOES

Swan averaged 20.8 points, 12.8 rebounds, 3.4 blocks and 3.0 steals as a senior, earning All-Southern Arizona, first team All-Division I, and Division I Player of the Year honors from the Tucson Citizen. A 2012 Sporting News honorable mention All-American, she had a double-double in all but one contest with game highs of 42 points and 19 rebounds. Despite missing 10 games of her senior season with an injury, Swan received honorable mention to the WBCA All-America team and was a McDonald's All-America nominee. Swan averaged 19.6 points, 13.4 rebounds, 4.1 blocked shots and 4.1 steals for the Tigers as a junior, earning first team All-Southern Arizona and Southern Arizona 4A1 Player of the Year honors from the Tucson Citizen. She was also the Arizona Daily Star Player of the Year and a member of the Class 4A All-State first team. Swan was a 2009-10 Class 4A All-State performer as a sophomore, averaging 21.5 points, 15.2 rebounds and 6.3 blocks per game. Swan earned a total of 12 varsity letters at Marana, also participating in volleyball and track & field. She was the Arizona 2011 Division II state champion in the shot put. Swan played club basketball with the Arizona Elite out of Phoenix.

Academics: Swan is majoring in communication at CU. She was a three-year member of the Marana High School Student Council and kept a 3.1 GPA.

Personal: Born on Jan. 26, 1994, she is the daughter of Diane Swan. She has one younger brother, Ryan (17) who is a senior in high school and plays basketball. Her mother Diane coached her in high school at Marana.

GETTING TO KNOW JAMEE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Being a part of a program that is focused on going the extra mile.

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: Getting the opportunity to play in front of a sold out Arena in El Paso, Texas.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Drive to the top of the mountain and look at the city lights at night.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Amazing race with my mom. Because you get to travel the world and do fun but challenging activities all over the world.

One word to describe me off the court is: Aggressive

My pregame rituals are: Take a nap and listen to music.

The three things I cannot live without are: My family, iPhone, Netflix

Best talent not related to basketball: I'm good at most sports.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Volleyball or track

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Michael Jordan

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Lexy

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: I've been in a gym since day 2 but i first played in a game at age 4 or 5, my family.

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: Anything from 2chainz to Luke Bryan

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Denver Broncos

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: Keep moving forward -Walt Disney

I wish I knew how to....: Play the piano

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To be happy.

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: How to communicate with people.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Khloe Kardashians

And I would ask that person: How she continues to be positive and be the best person she can be, even though she is frowned upon because of her family name

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My mom, she's been my back bone since day one. Single mother, with 2 kids, always working, but me and my brother still got everything we wanted.

My plans after graduation are: Continue playing basketball for as long as I can.

My favorite class at CU: Sign Language

Advice to young athletes: There will always be that voice in your head telling you, you can't do it, don't ever listen to that voice and keep moving forward.

Lauren Huggins

Guard/Forward • 6-2 • Sophomore • 2L • Littleton, Colo. (Heritage)

Lauren Huggins is set to build on a season where she finally was able to achieve some consistency on the floor. After an injury-limiting rookie year, she was able to fit into being a key-part in Colorado's back court rotation. She is a great shooter with range that extends well beyond the 3-point arc. The first Colorado signee of the Linda Lappe era, she provides the back court with a fantastic scoring option from long distance.

12 of her season's points on 3-pointers, connecting on 4-of-11 from downtown (.364). Her most extended time came against Colorado State (12/5) where she played 17 minutes and recorded six points, three rebounds, one steal and one blocked shot. Shortly after that game was when she was diagnosed with a stress fracture in her right leg that ultimately ended her season. She was granted a medical hardship by the NCAA in the Summer of 2013.

High School: A 2012 graduate of Heritage High School in Littleton, Huggins is the first Colorado signee for Linda Lappe's coaching staff. A two-time All-Continental League first team selection, Huggins helped the Eagles to an 18-7 record as a senior and a spot in the Sweet 16 of the Class 5A Colorado State Tournament. She was rated as the 64th best player in the nation and the 11th best wing by ESPN HoopGurlz. She starred at 2012 edition of "The Show" Colorado's annual high school basketball all-star game played at the Pepsi Center. Huggins was named MVP of the contest, scoring a game-high 15 points, hitting on 5-of-6 from 3-point range, in her "Blue" team's 69-48 win. As a junior she averaged 12 points and nearly eight rebounds per game, guiding the Eagles to the 2011 Class 5A Sweet 16. A two-time honorable mention to the Class 5A All-State team, she played her club basketball with the Boulder Rockies.

Academics: Huggins is majoring in integrative physiology at CU. She earned honorable mention to the 2014 Pac-12 Women's Basketball All-Academic team.

Personal: Born on March 28, 1994, she is the daughter of Jerry and Tracy Huggins of Littleton. She has two older sisters, Erin, a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines, and Megan a senior at CU.

2014-15 BUFFALOES

GETTING TO KNOW LAUREN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Getting to play with a great group of teammates, under a fantastic group of coaches in order to work back to restoring the legacy and pride of Colorado Basketball.

Favorite quote: "The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy." - Martin Luther King Jr.

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: Being able to play against UTEP in front of 10,000 plus people during the WNIT.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Shop on Pearl Street and hike the Flatirons.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Survivor. My dad and I have been watching it since I was little, and it seemed like a cool concept to find a way to win and compete in challenges with strangers as well as survive in the wilderness of a foreign country!

One word to describe me off the court is: Goofy

My pregame rituals are: Listen to the same set playlist on my own, then share the wealth with my teammates by playing music over our sound system to get everyone else pumped up as well.

One thing people don't know about me is: In the morning, I like to brush my teeth in the shower.

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else.: Arielle Roberson undergo a variety of injuries and somehow still have a smile on her face and a positive attitude about everything.

Best talent not related to basketball: Knowing every word to almost every song.. Call me A-Z lyrics!

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: While we were in Italy, a group of us decided to wander around Venice.. Long story short we got lost. Very lost. But in the time it took us to find our way back to our hotel, we were able to share stories about our pasts, laugh, and make new memories that will never be forgotten.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Golf

Do you have any hidden talents?: I like to dance to but that doesn't necessarily mean it's a hidden talent or that I'm good at it.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: If not me, I think Jen would give me a run for my money!

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: When I was four years old, and my dad was the first to put a ball in my hands

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: A very, VERY eclectic mix

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Denver Broncos

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: Philippians 4:13

I wish I knew how to...: Sing.. Well.

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To travel to all 7 continents.

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: How to properly communicate and accomplish tasks while experiencing adversity

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Jen Reese claims to be from Pluto.

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My grandfather. He has had Type 1 diabetes for 58 years of his life, and rather than letting that set him back, he has lived, and is still living life to the fullest. He does not use his disease as a crutch, rather embraces it and is still doing what he loves whether it be climbing 14ers, rafting down major rivers, or hunting. Nothing holds him back.

My plans after graduation are: Attend medical school

My favorite class at CU: Anatomy Lab

My hero is: My Grandfather

Advice to young athletes: Work hard for what you want, never let anyone tell you that you are not good enough to pursue your dreams, and never let anyone stand in the way of you achieving your dreams and goals.

2014-15 BUFFALOES

Zoe Beard-Fails

Forward • 6-1 • Sophomore • 1L • Herndon, Va.
(Georgetown Day {Washington D.C.})

Zoe Beard-Fails is a strong and competitive forward who has the ability to score on the inside with a variety of post moves, but can also step outside and hit from 3-point range. She earned valuable time as a true freshman, especially down the stretch of Colorado's postseason run. Colorado's third Virginia native, Beard-Fails showed she can play well in a crowded post area, winning plenty of 50-50 balls and converting in traffic.

2013-14 (Freshman): Played in 27 games as a first-year Buffalo, averaging just under three points per outing. She shot well on limited opportunities, hitting 52.8 percent from the field (28-of-53) as most of her offense came directly off the blocks. Her time on the court increased considerably down the stretch playing in 18 of the last 19 games including the final 10. She scored a career-best 10 points on 5-of-6 shooting in just nine minutes in the regular season finale against USC (3/2). Beard-Fails scored just over half (17) of her points during the Pac-12 season (33) in the final five regular season games. She took that momentum into the postseason, with several solid performances. Beard-Fails established personal bests hitting 5-of-6 from the free-throw line in the Pac-12 Tournament first round win over UCLA (3/6). Against TCU in the first round of the WNIT (3/19) she tied for the team lead in rebounds with six, a personal-best. In the second round against win over Southern Utah (3/22) Beard-Fails recorded three blocked shots, accounting for her season total.

High School: Beard-Fails is a 2013 graduate of Georgetown Day School in Washington D.C. She averaged 17 points and 10 rebounds as a senior, guiding the Mighty Hoppers to a runner up finish at the District of Columbia Interscholastic Athletic Association (DCIAA) state championship. She owns school single-game records for points (42), rebounds (27), free-throws made (22) and free-throws attempted (24). Beard-Fails was a 2013 Washington Post "All-Met" Third Team selection and named to the Independent School League All-Conference team. Additionally, she claimed the Alain-Ciaco Sportsmanship Award and was a McDonald's All-America nominee. She averaged 26 points and nearly 18 rebounds as a sophomore for Georgetown Day in 2010-11, earning fourth team All-Met honors from the Washington Post. Beard-Fails played her freshman season at South Lakes High School in Reston, Va., where she averaged 16 points and 7 rebounds, earning first team all-district and second team all-region honors. CU was able to bring Beard-Fails from the east coast in part because she already knew current Buffaloes assistants LaTonya Watson, from her days at American University, and Kelly Rae Finley from her tenure at Harvard. Beard-Fails was rated the 51st forward in the nation by ESPN.com's Hoop Gurlz. She played club ball with the Boo Williams program, participating on the team that was the 2011 Nike National runner-up. Beard-Fails' club experience also extended to national tournaments and camps at Michigan, Duke, Stanford and Tennessee. She participated in the USA U-16 Trials in 2011.

Academics: Beard-Fails is an advertising major at Colorado and had a busy summer vacation. Following her freshman year, she spent time with three different women in journalism, to learn about their careers. First was former Buffalo and Denver Fox 31 sports reporter/anchor Kami Carmann. Next she shadowed Nicole Jones, a former Virginia Tech basketball player and director of marketing for a real estate company in Washington, D.C. Finally, she observed Deidre Dyer, Fashion Editor of The Fader Magazine in New York City. She was the recipient of the Dean's Student Award as a senior at Georgetown Day and was the commencement speaker at her high school graduation.

Personal: Born on June 3, 1995, in Fairfax, Va., she is the daughter of Stephen Fails and Anne Beard. She has two older siblings, Michael Fails and Briana Fails. She enjoys volunteering with Special Olympics programs. Beard-Fails has had over 30 pets during her life including a Boa Constrictor, Sugar Gliders (similar to a flying squirrel), two Moluccan Cockatoos and many more. She lists the biggest moment of her high school career was playing in the DCIAA State Championships at the Verizon Center in Washington D.C.

Desiree Harris

Guard • 5-8 • Sophomore • 1L • Oakland, Calif. (St. Joseph Notre Dame)

Desiree Harris is a smart, athletic combo guard who can get to the rim off the dribble as well as hit the 3-pointer. She is a high-character student-athlete with a tremendous work ethic. The Colorado staff likes her ability to defend both guard positions. She had a chance to learn from an experienced group as a freshman and looks to increase her playing time.

2013-14 (Freshman): Harris appeared in 15 contests, averaging just a little under five minutes played per game as she was able to learn and grow behind a deep and experienced Colorado back court. She scored one field goal on the season, but it was a memorable one. She converted on a layup driving through the Arizona defense during Colorado's rally from a 16-point deficit halftime to win in overtime. In that Arizona game she also played a career-high 13 minutes. Harris scored her first collegiate points by hitting a pair of free throws in her first Pac-12 Conference appearance at Washington State (1/19). The bulk of her games played came at the tail end of the season as she became more acclimated to the college game. Harris saw action in 10 of the final 12 contests including 4-of-5 postseason games. She registered a career-best three rebounds in the Postseason WNIT opener against TCU (3/19).

High School: Harris is a 2013 graduate of St. Joseph Notre Dame High School in Alameda, Calif. She averaged 15 points and six rebounds as a senior, earning first team All-Tri-County Athletic League honors. A CIF All-North Coast Section Division V Second Team selection as a junior, Harris averaged 23.5 points, 7.0 rebounds, 2.9 steals and 2.7 assists, helping the Pilots to a 24-11 record and the North Coast Section championship. She scored 35 points and had eight rebounds and four assists in a Division V NorCal quarterfinal game. Harris was a two-time All-Bay Shore Athletic League selection (St. Joseph Notre Dame switched leagues prior to her senior year), earning second team honors as a junior and first team accolades as a sophomore. She averaged 16 points and five rebounds as a sophomore, helping the Pilots to a 24-9 mark and the first of consecutive Division V North Coast Section titles.

Academics: Harris is a Political Science major at Colorado and made the Dean's List for the 2013 fall semester. In the summer of 2014 she was an intern for Nancy Skinner, a member of the California State Assembly, representing California's 15th State Assembly district. In high school, Harris ranked in the Top 10 of her class and was a four-year North Coast Section Scholar-Athlete. As a senior she received recognition for Outstanding Achievement in AP Government, and as a sophomore she was commended with the CIF's "Pursuing Victory With Honor" character award.

Personal: Born Desiree Raylene Harris on September 9, 1995, in Hayward, Calif., she is the daughter of Gregory Harris and Shirley Tucker-Harris. She has one younger brother, Kevin, who is a junior in high school and plays basketball. Harris lists the biggest moment of her high school career as National Signing Day when she signed with Colorado at a ceremony in front of her family, friends, teachers, coaches and the principal. She enjoys reading, playing video games and creating videos and slideshows. Harris spent two years as the layout editor and graphic designer for her school's literary magazine, PRISMS. Last year some of her poems were published in PRISMS, making her a member of the Star Society of Creative Writers and one of her poems won second place in a competition.

GETTING TO KNOW DESIREE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The family feeling. I love how much everyone truly loves and cares for one another.

Favorite quote: "Whether you think you can or whether you think you can't, you're right"

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: Scoring a crucial layup and my first field goal during our remarkable comeback in Arizona.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: I like going hiking or walking and just marveling at how beautiful the Flatirons are and how blessed I am to live in such a nice place.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: I would pick Keeping Up With the Kardashians because it seems like they have a lot of fun and there's less drama than other reality shows.

One word to describe me off the court is: Creative

My pregame rituals are: Reading and listening to music

One thing people don't know about me is: I'm a Justin Bieber fan.

Haley Smith

Guard/Forward • 6-1 • Sophomore • 1L • Sammamish, Wash. (Skyline)

Haley Smith's introduction into college basketball came a little quicker than her peers. Injuries played a role in Smith learning the ropes of the Pac-12 by fire. She persevered through the growing pains and is ready to take the next step in her development. She is a strong, athletic wing who can elevate over smaller players with a nice true jump shot. Just the second Washington native in program history, Smith is an outstanding student as well and has all the right tools to have a successful career in a Colorado uniform.

2013-14 (Freshman): Averaged 3.5 points, 2.3 rebounds and just over one assist as a first year Buffalo. She was thrust into a starting role during the early part of the Pac-12 Conference season, once junior Jasmine Sborov was lost for the season with a foot injury. Smith started the final 20 games of the season and saw her numbers increase to 4.9 points, 3.1 rebounds and 1.3 assists in that role. Her all-around game picked up piece-by-piece as the season went along. Her first career start came against defending Pac-12 champion and No. 4 ranked Stanford (1/12), and while her numbers were minimal, two points in 17 minutes, Smith began a foundation to build on. One week later, in front of her home town team, she grabbed seven rebounds and made her first career 3-pointer at Washington (1/19). She just missed a double-double by scoring eight points and grabbing a personal-best eight rebounds in the home win over Utah (2/2). Smith registered career numbers in the home win over UCLA (2/28), scoring 11 points on 5-of-10 shooting and matched her personal best with eight rebounds. Smith averaged 6.6 points over five postseason games. She put on a gutsy performance in the Pac-12 Tournament quarterfinal loss to No. 4/3 Stanford (3/7). Battling flu-like symptoms, she recorded her second career double-digit game with 10 points, hitting 5-of-7 from the field, along with three rebounds and a pair of assists in 20 minutes.

High School: Smith is a 2013 graduate of Skyline High School. She averaged 12 points and nine rebounds, guiding the Spartans to a 20-7 record and a spot in the 2013 Washington 4A Girls State Tournament quarterfinals. Smith was named KingCo 4A MVP, earned second team all-state and was named to the Seattle Times All-Star team. She was a Washington Gatorade Player of the Year nominee and participated in the Washington 4A vs. 3A All-Star Game and the Washington vs. Oregon All-Star Game. As a junior, she averaged right around seven points, five rebounds, two assists and two steals per game. Smith was an All-KingCo 4A Second Team selection as a sophomore, averaging eight points and six rebounds. She had a successful club career playing with the Tree of Hope program which won the 2012 Fila Sixty-Four Tournament title. ESPN.com's HoopGurlz listed her as the top prospect in the state of Washington and the 20th ranked wing in the nation. Along with her four-year basketball career, Smith lettered three times in cross country and twice in track & field.

Academics: Smith is majoring in Mechanical Engineering with a focus on Biomedical Engineering at Colorado and has a Chancellor's Achievement Scholarship. She was named to the Dean's List for the 2014 Spring term. In high school she was a National Achievement Scholarship finalist and a National Qualifier in Washington's DECA competition.

Personal: Born Haley Smith on June 17, 1995, in Sammamish, Wash., she is the daughter of David and Judy Smith. She has one younger brother, Hugh, who is a senior in high school and plays baseball. Smith lists the biggest moment of her high school career as being named the 2013 KingCo MVP and going to the state tournament. After college she would like to become a biomedical engineer. In high school she went on a two week trip with 20 other biology students and a teacher from her school to Ecuador where the class went to the Santa Lucia Cloud Forest and helped researchers study mammals, birds, and carbon levels of trees in the Andes.

GETTING TO KNOW HALEY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The family feel. I love how we are all united in the fact that we have one collective goal, despite the fact that we come from all walks of life.

Favorite quote: "Hard work beats talent when talent fails to work hard"

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: Having our game plan for Stanford work to near perfection in the first half of our game against them in the Pac-12 Tournament.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go on hikes in the Flatirons.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: I don't think I would want to be on one actually.

One word to describe me off the court is: Active

My pregame rituals are: Listening to music and relaxing in the locker room.

One thing people don't know about me is: I had never moved before I came to Colorado.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Track and Cross Country

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Candace Parker

Do you have any hidden talents?: I can solve a Rubik's cube

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen Reese

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: I started when I was about 4 and my parents got me started at the YMCA

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Seattle Seahawks

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To travel the world and see other cultures.

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: How to communicate effectively and directly.

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: When the band leaves the drum set out during the season Jasmine takes it upon herself to play it for them.

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My dad, because he was able to overcome tough circumstances in his childhood and become very successful in what he does.

My plans after graduation are: Go to graduate school and get my Master's.

My favorite class at CU: Engineering Projects

My hero is: My mom

Advice to young athletes: Work on your skills outside of your teams practice, because just going to practice isn't enough to really get good.

2014-15 BUFFALOES

Bri Watts

down on the low block and will contribute to the strong depth of the Colorado front line.

2013-14 (Freshman): Did not appear in a game, but was a full participant in practice and was a valuable member of the scout team as the Buffaloes prepared for upcoming opponents.

High School: Watts is a 2013 graduate of Clovis West High School. She averaged nearly seven points a game, helping the Golden Eagles to a 23-6 record and a perfect 10-0 mark in the Tri-Rivers League. Her team won the CIF Division I Central Section title, earning a spot in the state championships. Following her senior year, Watts participated in the North vs. South All-Star Game and City vs. County All-Star contest, playing on the winning team on both occasions. Watts played just her senior year at Clovis West, transferring from rival Buchanan. She averaged nearly six points and just over six rebounds per game for Buchanan as a junior, contributing to the Bears' 18-9 record and a spot in the CIF Central Section Division I semifinals. Her transfer to Clovis West, which lost to Buchanan in the section quarterfinals in 2012, was partially a family move and partially a style of play change to a program which featured the post. Watts participated in the 2011 USA Basketball Women's U16 National Team Trials.

Academics: Watts is an open option major at Colorado.

Personal: Born Briana Nicole Watts on January 25, 1995, in Sacramento, Calif., she is the daughter of Walter and Rachel Watts. Her father played basketball at the University of Utah for the late Rick Majerus (1988-91) and was the second leading scorer and rebounder on the Utes' 1991 Sweet 16 Team. Walter also played professional football and baseball. She has an older brother, Walter, who played offensive line for Utah's football team from 2007-10, a younger sister, Alexis and two younger brothers, LeJuan and DeSean. She enjoys spending time with family.

Zoe Correal

Center • 6-4 • Freshman • HS • San Francisco, Calif. (Salesian)

High School: Correal is a 2014 graduate of Salesian High School, located in the Bay Area suburb of Richmond, Calif. She helped the Pride to three straight NorCal championships, two in Division IV (2012, '13) and a third in the Open Division (2014). Correal's Salesian teams enjoyed a record of 90-20 during that span. She averaged 11.2 points and 8.2 rebounds as a senior, earning All-Tri-Country Rock League and Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team honors, as Salesian finished 30-7, and the runner up in the 2014 CIF Open Division state championship. Correal was a second team Cal-Hi Sports Division IV All-State selection in 2013, averaging 9.4 points and 7.6 rebounds as the Pride finished 29-8 and captured their second straight NorCal Division IV title. She pitched in 3.5 points and 4.0 rebounds per game on Salesian's 2012 North Coast Section and NorCal Division IV championship squad. Correal was a two-time recipient of the state's Sportsmanship Award. Rated as the No. 46 post player in the nation by ESPN HoopGurlz, Correal also played for the CA Ballaz club program.

Academics: Correal is a psychology major at Colorado.

Personal: Born Zoe Angelique Correal on August 11, 1996, in San Francisco, she is the daughter of Zef and Maia Correal. She has three younger sisters, Amara, Nia and Vega. She lists the birth of her youngest sister, Vega, born in March 2013, as one of the happiest days of her life. Her hobbies are basketball and writing. She enjoys writing short stories and poetry in her spare time. She has a distant Colorado connection, great uncle Joe Barry Carroll, a Denver East High School graduate who was the top pick in the 1980 NBA draft and a 10-year league veteran, mostly with the Golden State Warriors.

GETTING TO KNOW ZOE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The opportunity to play at a high level.

Favorite quote: "And so it goes." Kurt Vonnegut

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go to pearl street and hang out with friends.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Hell's Kitchen. I enjoy making food and I've always wanted to meet Gordon Ramsay.

One word to describe me off the court is: Creative

My pregame rituals are: To take a nap / just chill with my teammates.

One thing people don't know about me is: I enjoy many of the arts such as theatre and creative writing.

The three things I cannot live without are: God, family, and friends

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else.: As soon as one of our teammates got injured our first instinct was to pray.

Best talent not related to basketball: Creative writing

Alina Hartmann

Guard/Forward • 6-0 • Freshman • HS • Bamberg, Germany
(Kaiser-Heinrich-Gymnasium)

Alina Hartmann is the latest addition to the Colorado Buffaloes, signing on in April 2014. She plays with an up tempo style which fits the team very well. Hartmann also brings a wealth of international experience from her national teams. She'll be the 15th international player to suit up for the Buffaloes; the 11th from Europe and first from Germany.

Club Basketball: Hartmann is a 2014 graduate of Kaiser-Heinrich-Gymnasium in Bamberg. Her basketball upbringing has come on the club circuit and international play as the high school level is not played in Germany. She played for DJK Brose Bamberg, a club team which competes in the 1st German Division. In 22 games for Bamberg in 2013-14 she averaged 9.8 points and 5.2 rebounds while hitting 42.5 percent from the field. Hartmann led Bamberg with 29 3-point field-goals, hitting a solid 42.6 percent beyond the arc, and ranked second on the team in rebounds and third in scoring. She averaged 7.7 points for Bamberg in both the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons.

German National Team: A veteran of Germany's junior national basketball program, Hartmann averaged 8.2 points, 3.8 rebounds and 2.0 assists to help her team to a first place showing at the 2014 U20 European Championship for Women Division B in Sofia, Bulgaria, with an 8-1 record. She scored 14 points on 6-of-10 shooting against Bosnia and Herzegovina, in a 68-50 win that ensured Germany a promotion into the A Division for the U20 tournament. Hartmann played in six games for her country which placed 10th at the 2013 U18 European Championships, Division B, in Miskolc, Hungary. She starred for Germany's gold medal winning team at the 2011 U16 European Championships, Division B, in Arad, Romania. Hartmann averaged 10.4 points, 7.2 rebounds and 2.0 steals as team Germany swept the competition with a 9-0 mark. Hartmann scored 18 points on 46.7 percent from the field (7-of-15) and grabbed seven rebounds in a 71-64 semifinal win over Bulgaria; a win which earned Germany, along with fellow finalist England, a promotion into the A Division. In the gold medal game, Hartmann had nine points and seven rebounds in a 66-63 win over England. She was also on Germany's U16 European Championships team in 2010, appearing in five games. Hartmann was invited to practice with Germany's senior national team this past summer.

Academics: Hartmann is an International Affairs major at Colorado and is also interested in Communication.

Personal: Born Alina Hartmann on October 23, 1995, she is the daughter of Roland and Brigit Hartmann. She has one sister, Anika (14). She is working on her fifth language here at Colorado, taking Spanish. Hartmann has already learned English, Latin, Greek and her native language of German. She enjoys reading, watching movies and meeting with friends.

GETTING TO KNOW ALINA

Favorite quote: "I always wanted to be a basketball player. Nothing more and nothing less." - Dirk Nowitzki

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: Winning the U20 European Championship with team Germany in Sofia, Bulgaria

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Trying out as many restaurants as possible

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: I'd rather watch a reality show than be in it

My pregame rituals are: Listening to my pregame playlist

One thing people don't know about me is: I learned 4 different languages besides German (Latin, Greek, English, now Spanish)

The three things I cannot live without are: My phone, books, German chocolate

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Soccer

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Dirk Nowitzki

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: When I was 6, my dad

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Bayern München (German soccer team)

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: "Opportunities don't happen, you create them."

2014-15 BUFFALOES

Brecca Thomas

Guard • 5-5 • Freshman • HS • Stafford, Texas (The Kinkaid School)

Brecca Thomas is a point guard that plays with a lot of heart and energy. She will help immediately, bringing in a tremendous skill set; being able to score, facilitate the offense and play defense. A true student of the game and playing at an elite level in the state of Texas, Thomas is ready to explode onto the scene for Colorado.

High School: Thomas is a 2014 graduate of The Kinkaid School in Houston. She was a four-year All-South Zone and All-Southwest Preparatory Conference Division I performer for the Falcons. Thomas scored 2,204 points during her career while dishing out 544 assists and 438 steals, averaging out to 17.4 points, 4.3 assists and 3.4 steals per outing. As a senior in 2014, she averaged 18.6 points, 5.0 assists, 3.5 steals and 3.4 rebounds helping Kinkaid to a 22-7 record and a third place SPC finish. Thomas helped to lead Kinkaid to back-to-back SPC Championships in 2012 and '13. As a junior, Thomas averaged 20.6 points, 5.5 assists and 3.5 steals guiding the Falcons to a 28-5 record. She hit 47 percent from the field and was even more accurate from 3-point range, shooting 51 percent (72-of-141). Thomas averaged 17.3 points, 4.2 steals and 3.8 assists as a sophomore as the Falcons finished 31-3, setting a school record for wins and claiming their first of two straight SPC crowns. A McDonald's All-American nominee, she was ranked as the 25th best point guard in the nation by ESPN HoopGurlz. Thomas played in the TABC All-Star game, was the MVP of the Westbury Christian Rotary Tournament and on the All-Tournament team for the HISD Tournament. Thomas also lettered twice in track & field, participating in the 100 meters, shot put and triple jump, and in softball where she played center field. She played club basketball for the DFW Elite program.

Academics: Thomas is an open option major at Colorado, planning to pursue her degree in Communication and Advertising with a minor in Business.

Personal: Born Brecca Thomas on November 14, 1996, she is the daughter of Carl Sr., and Alvirita Thomas. She has an older brother, Carl Jr., who was a swimmer at Ouchita Baptist University. She would like to compete in basketball at the professional level or would be interested in becoming a community relations manager or a marketing consultant. She enjoys swimming, rock climbing, collecting playing cards and boxing. Her favorite event while in high school was when her team would go Thanksgiving shopping for less fortunate families.

GETTING TO KNOW BRECCA

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: That Buffs Are One, 100 percent of the time.

Favorite quote: "I've got a dream that's worth more than my sleep." - Eric Thomas

The best moment from your 2013-14 season: In high school, going Thanksgiving shopping as a team for a less fortunate family.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Spend time with the team and go to the movies.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: American Ninja Warrior because it is inspiring to watch and it would be amazing to be that fit and attack the challenges.

My pregame rituals are: To pray

The three things I cannot live without are: The Bible, family, and Honey Nut Cheerios

Best talent not related to basketball: Shower singer

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Tennis

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Kobe Bryant

Your all-time 'Starting 5': Michael Jordan, Kobe Bryant, Derrick Rose, Dirk Nowitzki, and Marc Gasol

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Jen Reese

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: When I was about four years old. My uncle got me started on the sport.

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: Beyonce, Drake, Jason Aldean, Nicki Minaj, Al Green, Florida Georgia Line, Blake Shelton

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Los Angeles Lakers

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: "Remember your purpose."

I wish I knew how to....: Skateboard

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Fulfilling my purpose

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: Team work makes the Dream work.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Ronda Rousey

And I would ask that person: What drives you every day?

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My parents because they never cease to amaze me.

My hero is: My brother

Advice to young athletes: Never focus on the outcome/results. Enjoy the process and climb.

FORT COLLINS – In the post-Chucky Jeffery era, even though the Colorado women's basketball team might still be in search of a specific go-to player, the No. 17 Buffs made a significant opening-night discovery.

They had talked about having each other's backs, and when crunch time arrived against their in-state rival Tuesday night, they backed each other up. CU withstood a late Colorado State comeback and escaped with a 63-59 win in its 2013-14 season opener at Moby Arena.

"We stuck together and that's a major accomplishment," said forward Arielle Roberson, whose layup with 6:43 left was the Buffs' last field goal of the night. "One of the things we talked about was having each other's backs. I think we had that, especially down the stretch."

CU led by as many as 13 twice in the final 10 minutes, including 59-46 on Roberson's final basket. But the Rams outscored the Buffs 13-1 during that span and pulled to within 60-59 on a basket by Elin Nystrom with 2:15 to play.

CSU had an opportunity to go ahead on a possession in the final minute, but Roberson stole the ball with 51 seconds left. Jasmine Sborov hit two free throws with 27 seconds showing, giving her a career-high 13 points and putting the Buffs ahead 62-59.

After Buffs center Rachel Hargis blocked Elin Gustavsson at the other end, Brittany Wilson hit one of two free throws with 2.4 seconds remaining – and the resilient Rams were done.

The versatile Sborov, who has seen her role undergo alterations in each season of her college career, said hitting the two late free throws "felt good, I'm not going to lie. It was really comforting to know my teammates and coaches trust me with those shots."

The Rams' late 13-1 run included a pair of free throws by Caitlin Duffy following a technical foul called on CU coach Linda Lappe. Duffy, who had hit a three-pointer on the previous possession, sank both free throws and pulled the Rams to 60-57 with 2:30 to play. CSU closed to within one on Nystrom's basket but could get no closer.

Lappe called her team's victory "gutsy," adding, "We found a way to win, which is really important. First game of the year, on the road against your rival ... CSU is a good team. We got stops when we needed to, got rebounds and made free throws when we needed to."

And there are areas that obviously need improvement. The Rams turned the Buffs' 19 turnovers into 15 points and outscored the visitors 28-24 in the paint. Gustavsson scored a game-high 21 points and got assistance from Duffy with 13 and Sam Martin with 10.

CU benefited from balanced scoring from its five starters, with Roberson and Sborov each scoring 13. Reese added eight points and guard Lexy Kresl grabbed a career-high nine rebounds, with four points and four assists.

The Buffs opened the night by hitting four of their first eight field goal attempts and went ahead 10-4 before cooling off. When the cold touches arrived, they lingered; CU went 0-for-7 from the field during a 6:18 stretch and CSU took advantage.

The Rams overtook the Buffs 11-10 at on a Martin three-pointer and increased their lead to as many as four (22-18) just under 5 minutes later.

With about 5 minutes left before halftime, CU appeared to at least temporarily solve its turnover (10 for the half) and shooting problems and launched a 13-0 run that opened a nine-point lead.

Suddenly, the Buffs were up 31-22, although by halftime the Rams had trimmed that lead to 33-27.

The second half started as the Sborov show. The 6-0 junior scored CU's first six points of the half on two field goals and a pair of free throws, jump-starting an 11-5 run that sent the Buffs up to 44 (44-32). They led by as many as 13 points twice in the final half before the Rams launched their comeback and put a large opening-night scare into the visitors.

BOULDER – Four nights after breathing a sigh of relief following a four-point win at Colorado State, the No. 17 Colorado women's basketball team hardly was forced to take a deep breath in its 2013-14 home opener.

CU cruised past overmatched Alcorn State 83-33 Friday night at the Coors Events Center, winning its sixth consecutive home opener and its 38th in 40 tries.

Alcorn State became CU's 26th consecutive non-conference regular-season victim. Buffs coach Linda Lappe won her 66th game at CU, the third-most wins in program history behind Ceal Barry (427) and Russell "Sox" Walseth (77).

CU led 42-14 at halftime and was up by as many as 50 in the final minute. The Lady Braves led once, 2-0, before being left behind.

Lappe used 11 players, and each of them scored. CU's bench outscored Alcorn State's 45-10.

"We had a lot of players play a lot of minutes and really played together well on the offensive and defensive ends," Lappe said. "Anytime you have as many players as we did play significant minutes and share the ball and score and defend, it's a good thing. I think our depth this year will be one of the keys in how we do as we go through the season. I liked what we saw tonight in terms of that."

CU got a game- and career-high 16 points from redshirt freshman reserve guard Lauren Huggins, who hit five of her 10 three-point attempts. Junior guard Jasmine Sborov added 10 points, with junior forward Jen Reese and junior guard Lexy Kresl finishing with nine points each.

Included in Kresl's total was a second-half trey that was the 100th of her CU career. She also went above 500 career points (501).

The 6-1 Huggins is shooting precisely the way she does in practices, Lappe said: "She's getting her feet squared to the rim...she's got deep range and she's 6-1, 6-2 with a high release. That makes her hard to guard. That's her role on the team and she knows it."

The Buffs had trouble at CSU finding offensive consistency, which was a point of emphasis in practices leading to Friday night. Said Kresl: "We went over it a lot the past two days (and) kind of figured out some of the areas we struggled in against CSU. I think we put together a more complete offensive game."

The Buffs shot 42.3 percent (11-of-26) from the field in the first 20 minutes, but only outscored the Lady Braves 6-2 in the paint. CU built its first-half lead largely on turnovers, getting 16 points off of Alcorn State's 13 first-half errors.

CU wasn't bad on the defensive end, either, holding Alcorn State to 19 percent from the field (10-of-53), forcing the visitors into 20 turnovers that were converted into 28 points and making 12 steals.

"Thus far this season Colorado is the best defense we've seen," Alcorn State coach Tanya Edwards said. "They're definitely on target to be one of the better defensive teams."

The Buffs also outperformed the Lady Braves 41-28, but Lappe knows when Iowa comes calling and later when Pac-12 play begins, the difficulties inside will increase as the bodies become bigger and more athletic.

"The one thing I'm a little displeased about is our rebounding," she said. "That's something that has to get a lot better as we go forward."

The Lady Braves scored the game's first basket, took a 2-0 lead, and watched as the Buffs missed three shots on their first possession. And those were the night's highlights for Alcorn State.

From there, CU hit five of its next seven shots – including a pair of three-pointers – and went up 14-2 before the visitors scored again. The Buffs built their lead to 21 (27-6) on three free throws by Kresl, who was hacked on a three-point try, then to 27 (36-9) on a Huggins try with 4:14 left in the half.

CU closed out the first half with six consecutive free throws – four by Rachel Hargis, two by freshman Zoe Beard-Fails – and went to the locker room with a 28-point lead (42-14).

ALBUQUERQUE – The popular question around the University of Colorado women's basketball team this past off season is who would step up and take over the scoring punch from all Pac-12 Conference guard Chuckie Jeffery.

The early returns on the answer? Everybody.

No. 16 (AP)/20 (USAT) Colorado had five players in double-digits led by Jen Reese's 18 points as the Buffaloes ran away with an 85-53 decision over New Mexico Saturday afternoon at The Pit.

Reese, a 6-2 junior forward, hit 7-of-10 from the field and drilled two early 3-pointers for the second best scoring output of her career. She received the starting nod for Arielle Roberson, who missed Saturday's game with a concussion.

Lexy Kresl had 13 points, Lauren Huggins had 12 connecting on 4-of-7 from 3-point range. Jasmine Sborov had 11, all in the first half. Jamee Swan came off the bench to add a season-best 10 points.

The Buffaloes, who have hit 80-plus in their last three games, scored their most points in a true road game, in regulation, since a 101-56 decision at TCU on Dec. 7, 1993. The win was also the 28th straight for Colorado during regular season nonconference play.

Colorado was efficient on offense hitting a season-high 56 percent from the field. The Buffaloes were just as potent from the 3-point line, making 10-of-18 attempts.

"We did play really well," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "I liked our versatility and the way we played together on the offensive side. We moved the ball, moved ourselves, we had nice action towards, nice action away. When you have that many players that can drive, that can score, that can pass and see the open player, you become a very tough team to guard."

It was outside early and often for the Buffaloes. After spotting New Mexico an early 7-3 lead Sborov scored six straight, including a 3-pointer that tied the game at 9-9. Ashley Wilson gave CU its first lead at 12-9 on her first 3-pointer of the year at 14:45 of the first half.

Wilson's bucket ended up being the first of three straight possessions that ended in Colorado 3-pointers. Huggins followed Wilson's with her first of the game and Reese connected on her second the next time down the court.

Minutes later Sborov drilled another 3-pointer to cap of a 20-6 run that gave Colorado a 29-15 lead at 8:17 of the first period. The Buffaloes made 8-of-12 from downtown in the first half alone.

The Buffaloes also distributed the ball well once again, dishing out 19 assists, led by Kresl with five.

"When we move the ball, if we get paint touches, we are pretty hard to stop," Reese said. "Everyone on the floor is so versatile that we can score in so many different ways."

New Mexico was led by Sara Halasz who nearly single-handedly kept the Lobos in the game in the first half. The senior guard scored 12 of her 16 points in the first half as the Buffaloes held onto a 42-28 lead at the break.

New Mexico pulled within 12 early in the second half, at 48-36 three minutes in, but the depth of Colorado began to break through. As much success as Colorado had from long range in the first half, the Buffaloes attacked the basket in the second.

Reese had her two early 3-pointers, but changed gears going 4-of-6 from the field in the second half for 10 points closer to the basket including a couple free throws. Swan had eight of her 10 points in the final frame. Kresl and Wilson both had success driving in the lane as well.

The Buffaloes also clamped down defensively. After allowing the Lobos to shoot 44 percent in the first half, New Mexico made just 35 percent in the second as the Buffaloes closed out the contest with a 26-11 run over the final 12:16.

BOULDER - Colorado's offense continued to click as the No. 14/19 ranked Buffaloes sprinted past South Alabama, 94-61 in the first round of the Omni Hotels Classic Friday evening at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado (5-0) will play Rice (4-4) in Saturday's championship game, set for 7:30 p.m. at the Coors Events Center. Rice squeaked by Samford 57-52 in the opener. South Alabama (0-5) will play Samford (1-4) in Saturday's consolation at 5 p.m.

Colorado had five players score in double-digits for the third straight game and hit at least 80 points for the fourth consecutive contest, and 90 for the second time this year.

Jen Reese and Jamee Swan tied for lead scoring honors with 16 points apiece. Lexy Kresl had 12 points, seven rebounds and a career-high six assists. Rachel Hargis had 11 and Lauren Huggins had 10.

"It was another night with really good balance," head coach Linda Lappe said. "Offensively, we moved the ball well. We had a lot of different players contribute; we scored on the inside, we scored on the outside. I really like the flow of some of the things we're doing offensively."

Colorado's balanced shine once again as all 10 players that played scored, in fact that was achieved less than 10 minutes into the contest. Kresl scored 11 of her 12 points in the first half and keyed the Buffaloes fast start, drilling a 3-pointer that gave Colorado an early 11-2 lead.

South Alabama stayed close early on the heels of Rachel Cumbo, who hit two early 3-pointers, the second pulling the Jaguars to within six at 22-16 at the 11:10 mark of the first half.

But Kresl countered with a 3-pointer which sparked a 10-0 run. Ashley Wilson scored on a put back of a Brittany Wilson miss to double-up the Jaguars at 32-16.

From there the Buffaloes continued to roll. Colorado hit 57 percent in the first half alone en route to a 53-27 lead at the break, its most halftime points since putting up 53 against Southern Utah in 2009.

The Buffaloes dominated in the paint outscoring the Jaguars 40-14. The trio of Reese, Hargis and Swan were a combined 15-of-24 from the field. They also got it done at the foul line, making 12-of-13 combined, including a career-best 7-of-8 from Hargis.

Swan's 16 points were a career high and came in a variety of ways, she had put back on offensive rebounds, mid-range jumpers and even a steal and coast-to-coast lay-in. She finished 7-of-10 from the field and grabbed eight boards, leading the Buffaloes in rebounding for the second straight contest.

"It was pretty even, it just came down to who wanted it more," Swan said. "They were good on the inside and strong, but again, it came down to who wanted it more."

Colorado as a team was outstanding from the line sinking 83 percent (20-of-24).

"We keep working on that every day," Hargis said. "It was nice to get some fouls and get to the line."

Reese was 6-of-8 from the field and pulled down seven rebounds. Ashley Wilson finished with six points, six rebounds and tied a personal best with four assists.

Colorado ended up at 52 percent for the game (34-of-65) and dished out 19 assists. The Buffaloes also enjoyed a 42-28 edge on the boards.

Cumbo had a game-high 19 points for South Alabama while Jennifer Johnson scored 18 off the bench.

BOULDER - No. 14/19 ranked Colorado used a late 14-0 rally to pull away from Rice and claim the 2013 Omni Hotels Classic championship, 75-58, Saturday night at the Coors Events Center.

Junior guard Lexy Kresl scored 19 points and recorded five rebounds, four assists and three steals to earn Classic MVP honors. Classmate Jen Reese was also named to the All-Tournament team after scoring 13 points and grabbing seven rebounds.

Rice guard Megan Shafer hit a 3-pointer with 12:06 remaining in the game to pull Rice within four at 49-45.

But Colorado, 6-0, reeled off the next 14 points. Kresl made a nice pass to Reese in traffic on a fast break to put Colorado back up by double-digits at 56-45. Lauren Huggins then put back a Reese miss the next time down the floor to add to the rally.

The Wilson twins capped off the run. Brittany Wilson hit her second 3-pointer of the game and her sister Ashley Wilson caught the Owls defense sleeping for an open drive to the basket and layup to give the Buffaloes a 63-45 advantage.

"I like the way that our team bared down and got a certain level of toughness at about the eleven-minute mark in the second half," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "That was really where the game changed. We started defending, we started rebounding and that allowed us to run and transition to score."

Rice guard Jessica Kuster, scored eight of her game-high 30 points to close the Colorado lead to 64-56 with 3:56 left. But the Buffaloes held off the Owls by staying aggressive. Arielle Roberson scored on a layup and Kresl scored four straight points to put the game away.

"That was a really fun game for our team and for our staff," Lappe said. "We did not play our best, and we still found a way to win."

Kuster, who struggled from the field against Samford in Friday's opener, hitting only 1-of-9, couldn't miss early on Saturday. She scored Rice's first seven points and a traditional 3-point play tied the game at 7-7.

Colorado responded with 10 straight including 3-pointers from Brittany Wilson and Huggins and took a 17-7 lead on a Kresl layup.

Turnovers hurt the Buffaloes early and Rice cashed in. Colorado gave it up 10 times in the first 20 minutes which accounted for 11 Rice points.

But the Buffaloes shot 45 percent in the first half, allowing them to stay just ahead of the Owls. Reese hit a layup with 4:57 remaining to give Colorado a 27-17 advantage.

Rice then closed the half on a flurry behind Kuster. The All-Conference USA guard led the Owls on a 12-6 run, including a buzzer-beating 3-pointer off a mad scramble in the final minutes. Kresl missed a layup with eight seconds left which sent players sprawling for the rebound. Jasmine Goodwine eventually controlled it, shot it over to Christal Porter who got the ball to Kuster in time for her 3-pointer from the top of the key sent CU to the locker room with just a 33-29 lead.

"They were tough, and (Kuster) is a great player," Lappe said. "We tried everybody on her in terms of guarding her, and she found a way to make things happen for them."

Kuster scored her team's first three points of the second half and cut CU's lead to its smallest margin at 35-32 at the 19:02 mark. The Buffaloes countered with a 10-4 run capped off by four straight points by Kresl for a 47-36 lead.

Then all of a sudden Rice couldn't miss from downtown. After making just 1-of-3 from deep in the first half, the Owls hit 3-pointers on three consecutive possessions for a 9-2 run that ended with Shafer's 3-pointer and the four-point margin before Colorado's big second half run.

Kuster, who set a tournament record for free-throws made and attempted over the two-games (23-of-29) joined South Alabama's Jennifer Johnson and Samford's Keke Fletcher on the all-tournament team. Samford defeated South Alabama 70-49 in Saturday's consolation game.

BOULDER – Strange afternoon of hoops in Boulder, but strange was good. The No. 11 Colorado women remained unbeaten with a 79-56 win over Illinois, but it was anything but business as usual in the Coors Events Center.

For starters, the Buffs (8-0) and Illini (5-5) had their pregame warm-up time shortened due to the aftermath of the CU's men's last-second upset of No. 6 Kansas. That game started at 1:20 p.m., with the women's contest scheduled to begin just after 5 p.m. But it took longer than anticipated to clear the CEC court after it was stormed by CU students and fans following the electrifying 75-72 win.

Then, with 8:30 left in the first half of the women's contest and the Buffs up 27-20, alarms sounded in the CEC. Play continued, but after a couple of possessions, the court and stands were cleared. A sprinkler head had burst in the loading dock area of the Events Center, triggering the alarms and stopping play for 20 minutes. Players went to their locker rooms, fans went to the building's upper concourses.

Meanwhile, second-year Illinois coach Matt Bollant might have known what he was missing. He was ill and remained at his Boulder hotel, which made associate head coach Mike Divilbiss the head man for the afternoon.

"There's not much you can say in that situation," Divilbiss said of the delay. "We're a young team and it's just one of those things – you just have to learn to get past the environment."

Once back on the court, Illinois guard Amber Moore got a quick score but the Buffaloes quickly went up by double-digits for the first time on a three-pointer by Jen Reese (16 points) and a jumper by Rachel Hargis (12) for a 32-22 lead.

Forward Jacqui Grant (game-high 20) helped keep Illinois close. When the Illini cooled off from the outside, they started going in and the 6-3 freshman scored four of her 15 first-half points on a run that cut Colorado's lead to 40-35.

But Lauren Huggins hit another 3-pointer and Hargis matched an Illinois score with a layup of her own to give the Buffaloes a 45-37 halftime advantage.

Reese hit her first three field goals of the second half as the Buffs built their lead to 20. A Jasmine Sborov trey and a soft Hargis layup pushed CU in front 62-42. But Illinois increased its press, contributing to the Buffs' 20 turnovers, and crept to within 14 (62-48).

CU finally settled down as Sborov (10) hit a three-pointer at the 7:56 mark to push the lead back to 17 and the Illini were done.

"I thought it was a great win for our team," CU coach Linda Lappe said, acknowledging Illinois' athleticism, quickness and different defensive looks. "There were a lot of different obstacles and adversities through the game – not having the normal warm up time, having a fire alarm... I liked how we came out of being in the locker room for 15 minutes and got back into it. So, there were a lot of positives to take out of it."

Once again, the Buffs' balance was apparent. Four players, topped by Arielle Roberson's 17, reached double figures and 10 players scored. The Buffs outrebounded the Illini 51-30 and held the visitors to 30.8 percent shooting. In addition to her seven points, senior guard Brittany Wilson set career highs in assists (eight) and rebounds (13) and tied a career-best with three blocked shots.

CU committed 21 turnovers to Illinois' 14, but Wilson said there the Illini's average of forcing 26, the Buffs will take their 21 and move on. "You don't want to have 21 turnovers a game," she said, "but we won, so hey."

Reese, who sat out the Wyoming game on Wednesday night with concussion symptoms and a broken nose, said her fast start "was good to get the confidence up. Even if I did miss it, it's short memory. But it was good to come back and it felt good."

BOULDER – A respectable night on offense and a 22-point win might appease many college basketball coaches, but don't count Colorado's Linda Lappe among them.

Although her unbeaten No. 11-ranked Buffaloes put away the University of Denver 83-61 on Thursday night for the program's 33rd straight regular-season non-conference win, Lappe left the Coors Events Center disgruntled about the Pioneers' point total.

"I'm not happy with giving up 61 points," Lappe said, crediting DU with their strategy in attacking the Buffs as much as her team's hot-and-cold defensive effort. "Our sense of urgency and intensity (on defense) have to get better."

Offensively, that's a different, more upbeat story. The Buffs (9-0) hit 80 points for the fifth time this season and continue to cruise behind balance like they haven't enjoyed in recent years. Four players reached double figures on Thursday night, with eight of the 10 players Lappe employed entering the scoring column.

Arielle Roberson's 22 points were a game high, and her 10 rebounds constituted a third consecutive double-double and sixth of her career. She was backed by Jen Reese (18), Lexy Kresl (13) and Brittany Wilson (12). Kresl also tied a career high with six assists.

"It felt good," Roberson said of her overall game. "I mean, it's finals week and I'm just trying to relieve some stress in some type of way. This is the only way I really know how. I just went out there and played my game, and my teammates were great."

Roberson hit 13 of 17 free throws – both career highs – with her 17 attempts one shy of the school record. For the night, the Buffs hit 25 of 32 foul shots, while the Pioneers were 8-of-18.

Reese might have believed she was done wearing protective masks, but she's back in one after suffering a broken nose a couple of days before the Buffs' trip to Wyoming on Dec. 4. A broken orbital bone required Reese to wear protective goggles all of last season.

"I can't catch a break on my face, apparently," she said, adding that she is scheduled to ditch this mask by the end of this month. "It's a hassle, obviously, just like the goggles were. But I have to protect my face right now."

Reese had eight rebounds to go with her 18 points and was one of four Buffs with six or more boards. CU outrebounded DU 49-35 and outscored DU 36-18 in the paint. The Buffs also collected 23 second-chance points to the Pioneers' five. CU shot 44.3 percent from the field while holding DU to 37.1 percent.

The Buffs held behind 17-12 with 12:10 left before halftime but finally got untracked with a 20-3 run that helped put them ahead 32-20 and in command for the rest of the night. The Pioneers (1-8) lost for their sixth consecutive game.

"There were moments where we definitely let them have anything they wanted like easy transition buckets," Roberson said. "But I don't think we ever lost confidence and thought the game wasn't ours. We just knew we had to settle and buckle down."

The Buffs did both in their 20-3 spurt, and as sporadic as it was for the night Lappe credited her defense for hitting the ignition in that run.

"It's amazing how that happened," she said. "We started playing defense and getting aggressive. We got our hands in passing lanes, not giving up angles on drives, stayed between them and the basket and communicated. We had a different level of defense in that period of time and what that led to was fast and easy baskets on our end."

After that brief defensive flurry, the Buffs led 47-32 at the half. They outscored the visitors 11-4 in the first 5 minutes of the second half and went up by as many as 26 points before the final buzzer. The Pioneers got no closer than 14 in the last 12 minutes.

BOULDER — If Sunday afternoon was a tune-up for Pac-12 Conference play, the No. 12 Colorado women's team likely left the Coors Events Center knowing the fine-tuning isn't finished.

But putting into practice what they had emphasized recently in practice, the Buffaloes showed if they continue to grind they can succeed. Applying the brakes to stubborn Southern Utah Sunday in the last 8 minutes, the Buffs finally put away the Thunderbirds 75-59 and now can turn their full attention to the Pac-12.

Although CU did enough against Southern Utah to claim its 10th non-conference win (10-1), the Buffs often had difficulty getting in synch offensively and let a 14-point second half lead dwindle to two with 8:09 to play.

But that was as close as the Thunderbirds (7-3) would get. After Carl Moreland hit a pair of free throws to bring Southern Utah to 54-52, the Buffs launched a 19-2 run to take a 19-point lead (73-54) with 1:24 remaining.

Outscored 21-7 over the final 8:09, the T-Birds were toast.

"Overall, I liked how we responded to the last three days of practice," CU coach Linda Lappe said, noting the Buffs had focused on rebounding, tighter defense and setting screens. "I saw all three things improve."

Most apparent, according to guard Jasmine Sborov, was the defensive factor: "To be honest, it didn't really feel like the score was that close leading up to the two-point deficit. . . we looked at scoreboard and we were like, 'All right, we need to get down, get some stops and just extend our lead.' I think that's one negative thing with this game — we were up and then we were down and we were up and we let them get closer. We didn't step on their throats and just keep going."

Not until they needed to, anyway. During the decisive 8-minute surge, Arielle Roberson scored seven of her team-best 18 points while Ashley Wilson, who finished with career highs in points (14) and assists (5), contributed four points. Roberson added 14 rebounds for her fourth double-double in five games and seventh of her career.

Down by 12 points at halftime, the Thunderbirds crept to within four before the Buffs answered with a 12-2 run to take what appeared to be a comfortable 50-36 lead. Not so. The visitors kept competing, climbing back to within 54-52 before CU delivered its final answer.

"We relaxed instead of keeping our foot on the gas," Wilson said. "They play hard (but) we responded every single time; it shows what kind of team we have."

CU also got double-figure scoring from Jen Reese (11) and Sborov (12), who also recorded her first career double-double with a career-high 10 rebounds.

Desiree Jackson led Southern Utah with 21 points and was her team's only player in double figures.

"Slow start" doesn't come close to describing what the Buffs overcame to eventually pull away and take a 36-24 halftime lead. Just under 9 minutes into the first half, CU had one more turnover (five) than baskets (four) but still led 10-7.

But after Moreland, a 6-1 senior forward from Broomfield, tied the score at 13-13 on a 3-pointer, CU made its move. Over the next 6 minutes, the Buffs outscored the Thunderbirds 17-6 to take their first double-digit advantage (30-19) on a basket by Ashley Wilson.

Southern Utah rallied briefly, closing to within six points (30-24) before CU used a 6-0 run — four free throws by Roberson, a layup by Jamee Swan, who made her second career start — to establish its 12-point halftime advantage. But the T-Birds quickly cut into that, forced the Buffs to make a run, then the whole process was repeated.

Neither team shot impressively from the field — CU checked in at 37.9 percent, Southern Utah at 34.0 — and between them the Buffs and Thunderbirds committed 45 turnovers (CU 21, Southern Utah 24). And long-range accuracy was lacking: the teams were a combined 2-of-26 from beyond the arc, with each getting one try in 13 attempts.

LOS ANGELES — Southern California held No. 12 Colorado scoreless over the final four minutes here Friday night, as the Trojans scored the final 13 points of the game to defeat the Buffaloes, 55-45.

USC blocked 10 shots and held Colorado to just 28 percent shooting in holding the Buffs to their season low in points in handling CU its second loss in its last three games, both on the road. It was just CU's second loss to an unranked team in the last 36 games over the past two seasons.

Colorado overcame a horrific start in which it missed its first dozen shots and 16 of its first 17 to rally from 12-point half-deficit to take small leads in the second half. The game's first time came early after intermission, as buckets by Lexy Kresl and Jen Reese knotted the score at 24; a soon after 10-4 run gave Colorado its big lead of the night at 34-30 with 14:06 to play.

But the Buffs would endure nearly a six-and-a-half minute stretch without a field goal, though USC could only muster a 7-1 advantage in that window to take a 37-35 edge with 8:57 left. CU then countered with a 10-5 run to go up 45-42 with 4:01 remaining.

For CU, it was basically the "Wilson Show," as the twins, senior guards Ashley and Brittany from nearby Long Beach, combined to score 25 of Colorado's points. Brittany scored CU's last field goal at the 4:54 mark and finished with 13 points, while Ashley converted two free throws for the last Colorado points with 4:01 on the clock to end with 12.

Cassie Harberts led the Trojans with 19 points, seven coming down the stretch. She made two free throws that put the Trojans ahead for good, 46-45, with 3:08 remaining, and grabbed an offensive rebound and converted a layup for a 48-45 lead with 2:20 to go.

Brianna Barrett's layup in traffic with 48 seconds left made it a two-score game at 50-45, and 15 seconds later, Harberts sunk another pair of free throws to all but seal the win for USC. Colorado (10-2, 0-1 Pac-12) came up empty on its last eight possessions.

USC (9-5, 2-0), which opened the week and Pac-12 play with a 56-54 win at rival UCLA on Monday, snapped a 16-game losing streak against ranked teams. "We'll learn from this, and we'll be fine," CU coach Linda Lappe said. "We have a great group of seniors that provides us with great leadership. This was one of those games where we just didn't play well in numerous spurts, especially the last eight to 10 minutes."

Colorado didn't get on the board until there was 13:23 remaining in the first half, when Brittany Wilson's floater from the lane got a friendly bounce and dropped through. The Buffs missed their first 12 shots before that one fell, but trailed only 9-2 at that point; USC was just 1-of-5 from the field with four turnovers and built the lead converting all six of its early free throw attempts. The Trojans also blocked five of CU's first dozen field goal tries.

USC built the lead up to 12 on two occasions, the last following a Cassie Harbert layup to make it 17-5 with 9:05 left in the half. Those were CU's largest deficits of the season, as previously the Buffaloes had yet to trail in double figures, trailing the most at Wyoming when the Cowgirls led at nine at one point.

It was then the Trojan's turn to get cold; USC failed to score on its next 12 possessions, missing 11 field goals and turning it over three times, and Colorado used the 6:23 scoring drought to climb back into the game. The Buffs reeled off the next 10 points to pull to within 17-15, with Ashley Wilson scoring five of the points in the run.

CU would close the half on a 15-8 spree overall to cut the USC lead to 23-20 at intermission. While CU opened just 1-of-17 from the floor, it made six of its last 16 shots, while the Trojans weren't clicking any better, finishing the half 7-of-27. Ashley Wilson had seven of CU's points for the half, topping her season average of 6.1 coming into the game in just the first 20 minutes.

BOULDER – California never stopped grinding, Colorado couldn't step up with a stop. It was the recipe for a gut-wrenching, frustrating Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

Outscoring CU 14-2 in the final 4:08, No. 19 Cal rallied from a 10-point deficit to edge No. 17 CU, 57-55.

If the Buffs left their home court Friday night feeling they had been taken advantage of, it was justified. It was also mostly self-inflicted. CU (11-3, 1-2) held a 10-point halftime lead, led by 10 with just over 4 minutes to play and still couldn't finish what was shaping up to be a milestone Pac-12 win. Cal (11-3, 3-0) wouldn't allow it.

"We just didn't play to win necessarily...they were the aggressors and we didn't buck up to that challenge," said Arielle Roberson, who rebounded from a subpar West Coast trip last weekend with a game-high 21 points – including 11 during a 15-6 run that opened a 50-40 CU advantage with 5:55 to play.

But after Jen Reese hit a jumper to put the Buffs up by 10 for a second time, they failed to hit a field goal in the final 4:08. Roberson's two free throws were CU's only points in that span.

The Bears, led by Reshanda Gray (15) and Brittany Boyd (13), never considered going away. After CU called a timeout with 25 seconds remaining – 22 on the shot clock – Roberson was fouled and went to the free throw line with 16.2 seconds showing. She hit both, putting the Buffs up 55-54, prompting a Cal timeout with 12.1 seconds to play.

Afure Jemerigbe drove the right baseline and scored to give Cal a 56-55 lead with 6 seconds left. Head coach Linda Lappe set up a play for Roberson, but Jamee Swan's side-court inbound pass was stolen by Courtney Range, who was fouled by Roberson and hit one of two free throws at the 2.9 second mark.

Lexy Kresl's half-court fling at the buzzer bounded off the back iron and the Buffs' night of late frustration was complete.

Employing full-court pressure to begin the second half, the Bears forced the Buffs into nine turnovers in the final 20 minutes and converted CU's 16 errors into 16 points. Cal also outscored CU 36-34 in the paint, outrebounded the Buffs 40-39 and limited them to 37.5 percent from the field. The Bears shot only 39.7 percent, but they were at 45.5 percent (15-of-33) in the second half.

CU's biggest lead of the first half – 28-18 – came courtesy of a 10-4 run and a nearly 8-minute lockdown of the Cal offense. With 7:44 left before intermission, Mikayla Lyles hit a 3-pointer to bring the Bears to within 18-17, but that would be Cal's last field goal of the half.

In the first 2 minutes of the second half, it was Cal's turn to turn up the 'D'. Opening with full-court pressure, the Bears disrupted the Buffs offensive rhythm just enough to force three turnovers and outscored them 10-2 to pull to within 30-28 on a conventional three-point play by Gray with 17:08 to play.

Over the next 5 1/2 minutes, Cal cut CU's lead to one on two occasions, but after the Bears had closed to 35-34 the Buffs answered with an 8-0 surge on three baskets by Roberson and one by Rachel Hargis to go up 43-34 with 9:40 to play.

And Roberson wasn't finished. After scoring in the paint, she backed up for a trey that opened a 10-point CU lead (50-40) with just under 6 minutes to play. But the Bears wouldn't roll. They cut the deficit to five (53-48) on a three-point play by Gennifer Brandon with 3:33 left, got a fast break layup by Gray to pull to 53-50, then crept to 53-52 on a jumper by Boyd at the 2:07 mark.

A turnover caused by Cal's full-court pressure followed a CU timeout, and Courtney Range sank two free throws to give Cal a 54-53 lead – its first since 12-11 – with 1:59 left. Roberson's pair of free throws gave the Buffs a 55-54 lead and their fans hope, but a stop at the other end was needed – and it didn't happen.

BOULDER – The Colorado Buffaloes battled gallantly on Sunday afternoon to find the edge their coach said they lacked, but finding it against Stanford's Chiney Ogumike and the No. 4 Cardinal presented a different problem altogether.

No. 17 CU cut a 19-point second-half deficit to seven in the final minute before finally succumbing 87-77 at the Coors Events Center. On Friday night, the Buffs (11-4, 1-3) were edged 57-55 by No. 19 California, and CU coach Linda Lappe challenged her team to play with more toughness.

The Buffs did that on Sunday, but they struggled to find an answer for the Cardinal's Ogumike, who scored 34 points and collected 16 rebounds. The Stanford All-American scored 20 of her total in the first half, when the Cardinal (15-1, 4-0) rolled to a 55-38 lead.

Ogumike got first-half help from freshman Karlte Samuelson, who scored 17 of her career-high 19 points in the opening half. Samuelson, who arrived in Boulder with a 3.8 point average, hitting five of her eight first-half 3-point attempts and both of her free throw tries.

CU was without junior guard Jasmine Sborov, who was on crutches after being diagnosed with a broken bone in her foot.

The Buffs got a career-best performance from sophomore forward Jamee Swan, who had team highs in points (20) and rebounds (13). Also scoring in double figures were Arielle Roberson (19), Brittany Wilson (15) and Lexy Kresl (10).

The Cardinal held a 19-point lead on two occasions early in the second half, but the Buffs refused to roll. They cut the deficit to 82-73 on a 3-pointer by Lauren Huggins, then to 82-75 on two free throws by Wilson with 1:02 to play.

But that was as close they got to the Cardinal, now 6-0 against the Buffs since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011.

The Buffs stayed with the Cardinal for the game's first 2:47, but after a 6-6 tie, Stanford began pulling away behind the 3-point shooting of Samuelson. After Ogumike broke the tie with a trey, senior guard Sara James hit a three, giving the Cardinal a 12-6 lead.

And Stanford was off and bombing.
 Less than 2 minutes later, Samuelson drained threes on consecutive possessions, pushing the Cardinal ahead 20-11 with 14:32 left before intermission. Stanford led by as many as 18 (46-28) before ending the half on – what else? – a Samuelson trey at the buzzer that gave her team a commanding 55-38 advantage.

Stanford, which normally shoots 47.9 percent from long range, was 8-of-15 (53 percent) from behind the arc, accounting for most of the damage as CU gave up its highest first-half total of the season and the most since 2006.

The Buffs entered the game allowing only 59 points a game and 57 in Pac-12 play. If CU was to have a chance at catching up, its defense would have to tighten dramatically.

An early second-half basket by Ogumike gave the Cardinal its biggest lead – 59-40 – before the Buffs finally ratcheted up their 'D. It helped when Ogumike went to the bench briefly with three fouls at the 15-minute mark, and CU took advantage.

A 7-0 run on back-to-back baskets from Brittany Wilson and a three-point play by Swan pulled the Buffs to within 11 points (63-52) with 13:03 left. Stanford answered with an 8-0 run – six of the points by Ogumike – and went back in front by 19 (71-52) with just under 9 minutes to play.

But CU wasn't done. Runs of 5-0 and 6-0 pulled the Buffs back to within seven points before the Cardinal finally closed it out.

PULLMAN, Wash. – Colorado held Washington State without a field goal over the final 6 minutes, 9 seconds, but couldn't take advantage of the opportunity as the Cougars stayed unbeaten in Pac-12 Conference play with a 70-60 win over the No. 21/20 ranked Buffaloes Friday night at Beasley Coliseum.

Jen Reese led Colorado (11-5, 1-4) with 15 points but battled foul trouble, eventually fouling out with 3:22 left.

Washington State's Dawnyelle Awa hit a 3-pointer to give the Cougars their biggest lead at 60-50 with 6:18 left. WSU (5-0, 11-6) didn't score from the floor again, but was able to get to the free-throw line hitting 10 foul shots.

All Colorado could do was match on the scoreboard. The Buffaloes shot just 32 percent in the second half, but even more costly, only 11-of-23 from the foul line.

Colorado got as close as five at 64-59 after a pair of Ashley Wilson free throws with 2:27 left, but the Buffaloes missed two 3-pointers and had a pair of turnovers on the next four possessions as the Cougars iced the game at the line.

Arielle Roberson had 13 points, eight rebounds and four assists. Wilson had six points and four rebounds.

Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley led Washington State with 17 points each.

BOULDER – Needing a win and an accompanying dose of confidence, the Colorado Buffaloes grabbed both Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

Powered by the solid mid-range shooting of Jen Reese and reserve Lauren Huggins' rediscovered long-ball accuracy, CU disposed of Arizona 68-47 to snap a four-game Pac-12 Conference losing streak.

"It's great to be back on the winning track," CU coach Linda Lappe said. "You take the game or be taken...tonight we took the game and we have to continue to do that."

Reese, a junior from Clackamas, Ore., tied her career high with 22 points, hitting a career-best eight field goals in 13 attempts. Huggins, a redshirt freshman from Littleton, tied her career high by hitting five of her nine 3-point attempts for 15 points – one below her season and career highs. Huggins had been 2-of-16 from beyond the arc in the previous six Pac-12 games.

For Huggins, regaining focus and her long-distance shooting touch started with early week meetings involving her teammates and Lappe. Huggins said her teammates expressing their belief in her got her back on track: "My teammates said, 'Shoot the ball, kid, that's what you need to do.'"

Lappe said players – maybe more so with shooters – often "forget their roles" during the course of a season. Lappe told Huggins "to keep it simple...don't put the ball on the floor, be ready to catch it, slow down your mind and be a shooter."

Huggins, who scored a career-high 16 points in November against Alcorn State, obviously did what her coach wanted. But Lappe saw another facet of Huggins' game that was equally locked in – her defense, which Lappe said usually ignites Huggins at the other end. "I thought her defense was solid – the best it's been," Lappe said.

"Solid" also has been Reese's calling card. "She's a really special player," Lappe said, comparing her to former NBA star Larry Bird in that while both might be missing the "wow" factor in their jumping ability and overall athleticism, both can be quietly spectacular in their results.

Reese and Huggins got scoring assistance from Brittany Wilson, who added 12 points and was the only other CU player to reach double figures. Arizona's Candace Warthen led her team with 14 points.

After a 14-2 run, the Buffs led by as many as 12 points (20-8) in Friday night's first half and were up 29-22 at intermission. The Wildcats' last first-half lead was 6-4 – and it would be their last of the night.

Reese supplied most of CU's early offense, scoring eight of the first 11 points on two field goals and four free throws. She finished the half with 12 points and was the only Buffs player in double figures. During its 14-2 run, CU got a pair of 3-pointers from Huggins – and more were coming.

The Buffs were outbounded 23-17 in the first half, but capitalized on a dozen Wildcats turnovers while committing only four. CU ended the night with a 33-32 board edge and pressured Arizona into 20 turnovers. Both teams shot 33.3 percent from the field in the opening half, but the Buffs finished the night at 50 percent (24-of-48) while keeping the Wildcats at 34.6 percent.

A fast second-half start would greatly benefit the Buffs – and they came close enough. After Arizona got the first four points of the half, CU scored the next seven and restored a double-digit lead (36-26) with just over 16 minutes remaining.

Reese factored in that run, too, hitting a pair of free throws. Then it was Huggins' turn to supply the offense. After Arizona's Kama Griffiths hit a 3-pointer, Huggins answered with a pair to push the Buffs ahead 42-31 with 14:12 to play.

When CU pushed ahead by 23 (60-37) on back-to-back treys by Huggins and Brittany Wilson with 7:20 left, all that was undecided was the winning margin.

BOULDER – Colorado stayed with No. 14 Arizona State for the better part of 40 minutes Sunday at the Coors Events Center. Unfortunately for the Buffaloes, the final half minute was no time to come undone.

Getting a pair of free throws from Adrienne Thomas with 4.4 seconds to play, the Sun Devils edged the Buffs 68-66.

With the score tied at 66-66, CU coach Linda Lappe called timeout with 21 seconds to play to set her final strategy. It didn't go as planned: Brittany Wilson lost her dribble, ASU got the loose ball and Thomas was fouled with 4.4 seconds to play.

After Thomas hit both free throws, Wilson lost the ball coming up court, recovered, but could manage only a three-quarter court heave that only added to CU's afternoon of frustration.

Jen Reese, who matched her career high with 22 points for a second straight game, said she believed the Buffs were focused coming out of their timeout when the score was tied at 66. "But we should have gotten a shot up," she added. "We didn't finish...they were fouled and hit their free throws."

Aiding Reese in the scoring column were Brittany and Ashley Wilson with 12 points each and Jamee Swan with 10.

CU outbounded ASU 42-35 and hit 20-of-23 free throws – including 11-of-11 in the first half. ASU led by 10 points in the first half before CU regained its shooting touch and made the afternoon competitive in the second half.

From the 15:05 mark until 7:23 before intermission, they dropped from 75 percent shooting to 35 percent – going one for 12 and watching the Sun Devils launch a 12-0 run. That surge enabled ASU to take a double-digit lead – 24-14 – and appear to be in control.

But CU wasn't ready to roll. If their shooting touches from the field occasionally went icy, it was a different story at the free throw line. The Buffs were perfect at the foul line, hitting all of 11 of their attempts – which kept them in the game. By halftime their field goal percentage was a humbling 30.3 (10-of-33), while the Sun Devils checked in at 42.9 percent (12-of-28).

After Mann scored consecutive baskets to open the second half scoring and push ASU ahead 38-31, Reese – her nine field goals were a career high – hit a put-back to open a 6-0 run that pulled the Buffs to within 38-37. It was the closest CU had been since 13-12.

The Buffs got their first lead since 12-11 on a layup by Roberson that sent them up 39-38 with 15:16 remaining. CU matched its largest lead to that point – three points at 43-40 – on back-to-back baskets by Reese.

But Promise Amukamara matched Reese's two buckets, giving ASU a 44-43 advantage and promising a back-and-forth final 10 minutes – if the Buffs didn't encounter another Ice Age. They didn't, and even a five-point ASU lead (52-47) didn't deter them.

The Buffs lost their perfection from the foul line when Ashley Wilson finally missed the first of two with 8:58 to play. But "A-Wil" hit the second attempt, followed with two more on the next possession and tied the score at 52-52.

Neither team led by more than two over the final 8 minutes, with CU taking a two-point advantage (66-64) on a three-point play by Ashley Wilson with 2:51 left.

With the Buffs leading 66-65, Reese missed a foul line jumper with 45 seconds left ASU called a timeout with 41.9 seconds to play. Fouled by Brittany Wilson on a loose ball battle, Kelsey Moos hit one of two free throws to tie the score at 66-66 at the 28.5-second mark.

Reese controlled the rebound on Moos' miss and it was CU's turn for a timeout to set its final strategy in the last 21.1 seconds. If both of the Buffs' final possessions went bust, the Sun Devils have been there and conquered that.

BOULDER — Linda Lappe's scouting report for Sunday's Pac-12 Conference game against Utah didn't change much — if at all — from last Wednesday night's encounter in Salt Lake City. It didn't need to.

Colorado's coach was more focused on what her team didn't do than most anything Utah did — and fine-tuning her team was the right approach. Lappe's Buffs clamped down defensively, made a few offensive tweaks and dispatched the Utes 61-45 at the Coors Events Center.

"It was good to get that win," Lappe said. "I thought our players stepped up and did some good things on the defensive end and in rebounding."

Winning for only the second time in their past eight games, the Buffs (13-8, 3-7) scored the afternoon's first points and never trailed thereafter. CU led 33-16 at halftime, by as many as 20 points early in the second half, and allowed the Utes (10-11, 3-7) no closer than 13 for the rest of the game.

"D" was key for the Buffs, who had shot below 40 percent from the field in nine of their previous 11 games. While Sunday's shooting percentage didn't climb above 40 (35.8), CU held Utah to a frigid 25.9 percent — well below the 38.8 the Utes shot in Wednesday night's 58-55 win.

In that game, CU's Arielle Roberson and Jen Reese combined for only nine points. By halftime Sunday, Roberson-Reese had 16 between them — Roberson with nine, Reese with seven. Reese didn't score in the second half, but Roberson doubled her first-half productivity and finished as the game's high scorer (18).

Brittany Wilson added 10 points for CU, seven of them in the second half. Freshmen Haley Smith contributed eight points and eight rebounds, matching Roberson's board total.

Utah had one player in double figures — guard Danielle Rodriguez with 11. Forward Michelle Plouffe, the Utes' high scorer (14) in Wednesday's game, went 1-for-10 from the field Sunday and finished with 7 points.

The Buffs raced to a 33-16 halftime lead, finally ending a long 3-point drought and getting an impressive first-half finish from freshman Zoe Beard-Fails.

After missing the last 13 trey attempts — a span of 88:33 or two-plus games — CU got a 3-pointer from Reese to take a 5-2 lead. Roberson closed the Buffs' first-half scoring with a straightaway triple from the top of the key.

CU finished the half 2-of-6 from beyond the arc and got one of its top 3-point shooters — junior guard Lexy Kresl — back on the court. Kresl, out for the previous three games with a lower leg injury, played 4 first-half minutes but did not attempt a shot. But with 6:45 to play in the game, she knocked down a critical trey to send CU ahead 50-31. The Buffs finished 3-of-11 from behind the arc.

Beard-Fails, who had scored six points in the previous nine Pac-12 games, matched that total in final 2:38 of Sunday's first half. The 6-2 Beard-Fails, of Herndon, Va., followed a pair of free throws with two inside baskets as the Buffs stretched their advantage to 30-16.

Half a minute later, Roberson drained her 3-pointer, giving CU its 17-point lead at the break. The Buffs owned a healthy 27-12 rebounding edge after the first 20 minutes (51-35 for the game), but they committed 11 turnovers (17 for the game) which the Utes converted into 11 first-half points — the key number in keeping Utah as close as it was after one half. The plus-15 board advantage was the Buffs' biggest in a half this season.

CU shot 42.9 percent in the opening half and went into the second half wanting that stat to hold up. It didn't, but the Buffs compensated on the defensive end. They kept their intensity up to open the final 20 minutes, opened a pair of 20-point leads and kept the Utes playing catch up for the remainder of the game.

CORVALLIS, Ore. — The Colorado Buffaloes cut a 10-point second-half Oregon State lead to three on two occasions but couldn't complete their comeback, losing 75-63 here Saturday afternoon at Gill Coliseum.

The Buffs (13-9 overall, 3-8 Pac-12) stayed with the Beavers for most of the first half but couldn't keep up with the home team to start the final 20 minutes. OSU (14-9, 6-5) outscored CU 10-5 to open the second half and the Buffs never caught up when their offense went stagnant in the final 16 minutes.

Nonetheless, CU coach Linda Lappe said her team could have salvaged the afternoon had its defense stayed as solid as it was for most of the opening half. The Beavers hit 60 percent from the field (15-of-25) in the second half.

"We were on pace to hold them under 60 points, which would have won us the game," Lappe said. "I'm not impressed with our defense right now. It's what we should be all about...we have to be more defensive minded so we can grind out games and win."

Saturday's game was originally scheduled to played Friday night, but it was pushed back a day because of a winter storm in the area. Then Saturday's tip time also was pushed back an hour.

With the exception of trips to the free throw line and free throws made, the statistics showed an even contest. Both teams made 25 field goals, collected 38 rebounds and hit four 3-pointers. But OSU made 21-of-28 free throws — including 14-of-16 in the first half — while CU went 9-for-16 from the foul line.

Four Beavers players reached double figures in scoring, topped by point guard Sydney Wiese 20. Forward Deven Hunter added 18 points and nine rebounds, while guard Ali Gibson added 12 points and center Ruth Hamblin 11 points.

The Buffs, who have lost seven of their past nine games, had three players in double figures, led by Arielle Roberson (12), Jen Reese and Brittany Wilson contributed 10 each, but OSU held Reese scoreless in the second half.

The Beavers hit five of six free throws in the first half's final 48.3 seconds to take a 36-13 lead at the break. Wiese, who led all first-half scorers with 12 points, hit three of her four foul shots to give OSU its five-point advantage — the largest for either team in the first 20 minutes.

The Buffs were competent at the foul line, but they simply didn't get there enough in the first half. And when they reached the stripe in the second half, they had trouble converting. Roberson hit only one of her seven free throw attempts.

Reese led CU with 10 first-half points, going four of five from the field. But she missed all six of her second-half field goal attempts.

The score was tied four times in the first half — the last at 31-31 — with 13 lead changes. CU's last lead was 29-28 on Reese's pair of free throws.
 Oregon State, which had been averaging 80-plus points a game at home and 73.1 overall (fourth in the Pac-12), opened the second half with a 10-5 run and took its largest lead — 46-36 — only 4 minutes into the final 20.

CU kept chiseling away at OSU's lead, and when Ashley Wilson hit a 3-pointer from the left wing near the 11-minute mark the Buffs were only back by three points — 55-52. A Lexy Kresl layup kept CU's deficit at three — 57-54 — with 6:50 to play but the Buffs could make no closer.

A quick 5-0 run courtesy of a layup by Hunter and a Gabriella Hanson triple pushed the Beavers' lead to 62-54. But empty possession after empty possession awaited the Buffs; they didn't get their next basket until Ashley Wilson hit a jumper in the lane with 2:20 remaining — a span of 4:27 without a field goal.

In the meantime, CU had problems getting stops and OSU built its biggest lead — 11 points twice — until Hanson hit one of two free throws in the final 10 seconds to put the Beavers up by their final 12-point margin.

BOULDER – Colorado's Jamee Swan and Ashley Wilson hit career high points on Friday night, but a business-as-usual performance by Washington's backcourt trumped them and the Buffaloes.

While Swan (25 points) and Wilson (15) were scoring career highs and Wilson was collecting her first career double-double with 10 rebounds, UW guards Kelsey Plum and Jazmine Davis were combining for 49 points to push the Huskies past the Buffs 87-80 at the Coors Events Center.

It wasn't anything the Buffs hadn't seen before – and they didn't have many answers then either. In UW's 81-71 Pac-12 Conference win last month in Seattle, they combined for 55 points, with Plum getting 35 and Davis 20.

On Friday night, Plum scored 25, Davis 24. They entered the game as the nation's No. 2 top scoring backcourt, averaging 38.9 points.

"Washington's two guards were outstanding...they torched us," said CU coach Linda Lappe. "They pretty much did whatever they wanted to do...Davis carried them in first half (with 14 points), Plum came alive in the second (with 18)."

Still, even with Plum-Davis running mostly unchecked, the Buffs (14-10, 4-9) stayed in contention, cutting a 10-point Huskies lead to three twice in the final 1:16 but failing to take the rally any further.

After tying the score at 60-60 on a Swan put-back with 8:57 remaining, a 10-0 run pushed UW ahead by 10 (70-60). CU first closed to within three (81-78) on Jen Reese's first four points of the night, then got to within three again (83-80) on a basket by Arielle Roberson, who finished with 14 points and nine rebounds.

But three points back was as close as the Buffs would get, and Wilson said the game was lost by CU's inability to "get those crucial stops, whether it was keeping them from scoring or getting a defensive rebound...It all comes down to the same thing: we make a push and tie the game and then we have a mental lapse where we don't get that stop or defensive rebound."

CU jumped to a 9-2 lead but UW recovered quickly with an 11-2 run and took its first lead on a Plum 3-pointer with 15:01 left before intermission. Davis followed with trey on the Huskies' next possession, giving them their largest advantage (16-11) of the first half.

The Huskies took a 49-43 to open the second half, getting back-to-back treys by Davis and Talia Walton, the latter hitting her triple with 16:38 left in the game. The Buffs fought back, closing to 51-50 on a 3-pointer by Lexy Kresl with just over 13 minutes remaining.

But the Huskies answered with a 6-0 run on consecutive conventional three-point plays by Plum and Chantel Osahor to open a seven-point advantage – 57-50 – with 12:19 to play.

If CU was to make a move, it would have to be soon. Ashley Wilson and Swan made two free throws each to pull the Buffs to within 57-54. After Swan scored consecutive baskets to tie the score at 60-60, the Huskies got 3-pointers from Osahor – only her second in five games – and Mercedes Wetmore and two free throws each from Katie Collier and Plum to pull ahead 70-60.

It was UW's largest lead of the night, but a runner by Plum in the lane put CU behind 11 (75-64) just over a minute later. The Buffs pulled to within five (76-71) on a trey by Ashley Wilson, then seven (81-74) on a triple by Kresl with 1:16 left.

Reese got her first points of the night on a jumper to bring CU to 81-76 with 1:06 remaining, then hit a pair of free throws 3 seconds later to cut the deficit to 81-78. A layup by Roberson made it 83-80 but the Huskies closed it out with four free throws by Aminah Williams in the final 22 seconds.

BOULDER – Another chance at a close-game breakthrough eluded the Colorado women's basketball team Sunday afternoon. Following what has become a painfully familiar script, CU faltered in the final 5 minutes and lost 80-77 to Washington State at the Coors Events Center.

"Well, it seems a little bit like déjà vu," said head coach Linda Lappe, whose team lost its fourth Pac-12 Conference game this season by three or fewer points.

Lappe predicted the Buffs for competing throughout and staying close enough to win but again lamented their inability to "make key stops, free throws, passes and shots down the stretch that would have helped us."

After trailing by as many as nine points midway through the second half, CU (14-11, 4-10) rallied to tie the score at 71-71. But the Buffs clanked four of their next five free throws, not hitting one until Ashley Wilson converted a pair with 2:52 to play, then sank one of two to put CU up 75-73 with 2:17 remaining.

From there until the final buzzer, the Buffs got only a field goal by Jen Reese in the last 2 seconds that made it a two-point (79-77) game. After one of two foul shots by WSU's Shalie Dheensaw with 1.1 seconds left put WSU (14-12, 8-6) up 80-77, Reese threw a three-quarter court length pass to Jamee Swan, who caught the ball then passed to Wilson instead of shooting. Time expired before Wilson could attempt a shot.

Lappe said Reese's long pass went a step or two too deep, forcing Swan inside the 3-point circle – thus Swan's decision to kick it back to Wilson. Reese said the play was designed for Swan to catch-and-shoot, but added, "If there was more time, Ashley could have shot the ball. The pass was there; she had it."

Swan, again coming off the bench, and Reese led the Buffs with 19 points each, while Ashley Wilson added 12.

The Buffs had problems with Washington's backcourt of Kelsey Plum (25 points) and Jazmine Davis (24) in an 87-80 loss on Thursday night. This was part of Lappe's déjà vu: On Sunday, CU surrendered 42 combined points to WSU guards Tia Presley (32) and Lia Galdeira (10).

Presley got 22 of her total in the first half, then picked up eight more points in the first 4:55 of the second half. She didn't get her 32nd point until hitting a layup with 1:27 to play, putting the Cougars up 77-75.

The Buffs trailed 44-40 at halftime, surrendering a 25-22 lead taken on a 3-pointer by Robertson with 8:37 left before the break. But CU didn't get another field goal for nearly 4 minutes, and during that time WSU was building its largest lead of the half – 34-25 – with Presley scoring eight of her 22 first-half points.

The Cougars outscored the Buffs 7-2 to open the half, with Presley scoring consecutive baskets to kick off that run. WSU again stretched its lead to nine – 51-42 – on a traditional three-point play by Sage Romberg (14 points, 12 rebounds).

By the 10-minute mark the Buffs still trailed by seven – 64-57 – but they were about to make their move. With Reese getting four points in a 6-0 run and freshman Zoe Beard-Fails scoring on a put-back, CU pulled within 64-63 with 9:07 remaining.

The Buffs finally tied the Cougars at 71-71 when Swan hit both ends of a one-and-one with 4:23 left. On the previous possession, with 5:51 to play, Swan scored what would be CU's next-to-last field goal – the last being Reese's jumper with 2 seconds left.

After Ashley Wilson hit one of two free throws to give CU its 75-73 lead with 2:17 left, WSU got four free throws from Galdeira, Presley's layup and one of two foul shots from Dheensaw to account for its 80 points.

The Cougars were up 80-77 and the Buffs needed a nearly full-court pass and full-blown miracle to force overtime. They got the first but not the second.

TEMPE, Ariz. – The close games have not been kind to Colorado.

The Buffaloes had their opportunities late to knock off No. 20 Arizona State Friday night, but like too many times this season, CU fell just short.

Colorado couldn't cash in on late possessions and Arizona State's Deja Mann hit a pair of free throws with four seconds left to clinch a 55-51 win for the Sun Devils Friday night at Wells Fargo Arena in Tempe.

Jen Reese led Colorado (14-12, 4-11 Pac-12) with 18 points. Lexy Kresl added 11. Eleven of Colorado's 12 losses have come by 10 points or less.

CU played well defensively for most of the game with a zone meant to keep ASU out of the lane. The Buffaloes succeeded in doing that, but lapses down the stretch allowed Arizona State to find some open shots from long range instead.

"Our defense was solid for the most part, we should have held them under 50 points," head coach Linda Lappe said. "We had a few too many mental breakdowns (defending) against players when we knew what they were trying to do."

One of those was Katie Hempen who led Arizona State with 13 points. Hempen was 3-of-4 from long range, including two key buckets late in the second half.

It was a defensive night from the start. Arizona State made Colorado's offense work for everything early. The Buffaloes missed their first 10 shots, and other than a pair of early Reese free throws, the Buffs were scoreless until Haley Smith broke the drought on a reverse layup at the 12:48 mark.

Despite the scoreless streak, Colorado kept Arizona State in check by playing a solid zone defense. ASU had only put up five points on the board to that point and when Smith took an ASU miss coast-to-coast it gave CU a 6-5 lead.

The Buffaloes found some success attacking the basket and after missing 10 straight from the field made their next seven attempts.

"That's how we got going offensively tonight, attacking the basket after stops," Lappe said. "Our defense led to our offense at the start of the game."

Following suit, Kresl scored on a reverse layup and jumpers by Reese and Wilson helped Colorado take a 19-16 lead. But the Buffs didn't score again, the Sun Devils finished the half on a 6-0 run to take a 22-19 lead into the lockerroom.

Offensively for Colorado, Reese hit 8-of-12 from the field and had 12 of her points in the second half when Colorado's offense found some rhythm.

Reese scored the first four points out of halftime but ASU answered with back-to-back scores from Kelsey Moos and Sophie Brunner.

Arizona State increased its lead to six at 34-28 when the Buffaloes went on a 7-0 run capped off by an Arielle Robertson 3-pointer. ASU recaptured the lead thanks to 3-pointers by Arneica Hawkins and Brunner, giving ASU a 42-38 lead.

A Reese layup and a 3-pointer by Ashley Wilson returned the lead to Colorado, 43-42 with just 6:56 remaining. Arizona State started to find the open spot from deep. With the Buffaloes up 45-43 after a Kresl layup, Hempen put ASU back up by one on a long 3-pointer.

Reese hit another short range shot, but ASU once again answered from deep as Elisha Davis gave ASU a 49-47 lead at the 3:06 mark.

Reese hit a short jumper that tied the game at 49-49 with just under two minutes left. The Buffaloes got a stop on the other end, but Wilson missed a contested layup with 1:13 remaining.

The miss allowed Arizona State to run in transition. Moos was able to get behind the CU defense and put the Sun Devils (21-6, 10-5) up for good on a layup.

Colorado had a turnover on its next possession and was forced to foul. Hempen hit both free throws for a 53-49 lead with 33 seconds remaining.

Robertson's basket cut the lead to 53-51 with 23 seconds left, and the Buffaloes caught a break when Moos missed the front end of a one-on-one with 21 seconds left, giving the Buffaloes one last shot.

The ASU defense tightened though and forced Robertson into a tough shot in the lane in traffic. It fell short leading to Mann's clinching free throws.

BOULDER – Colorado's defense came through again, only allowing UCLA 12 second half points on 3-for-25 shooting as the Buffaloes cruised to a 62-42 victory on Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

Last weekend, the Buffs held Arizona to 10 points in the second half and earned an overtime victory in Tucson after trailing by 20.

The 12 points surrendered ties for the 3rd fewest second half points scored by an opponent in Colorado school history.

"The last four halves felt like we're getting back to who we are and what Colorado women's basketball is all about," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "Really, how our defense led to our offense that was key."

Colorado (16-12, 6-11 Pac-12) put the pressure on UCLA from the get-go, forcing UCLA into 11 misses by intermission, and scored 18 points off 19 Bruins' turnovers by the games end.

Arielle Roberson notched her second consecutive double-double (sixth of the season) scoring 14 points and grabbing 10 rebounds to lead the Buffaloes, Haley Smith also tallied a career-high 11 points.

The effort from Smith was much needed as Jen Reese, the Buffaloes second-leading scorer, went down hard after taking a charge with 33 seconds remaining in the first half, sustaining a shoulder injury that sidelined her for the remainder of the game.

"It was definitely needed, and I'm really proud of her," Roberson said of Smith's performance. "Tonight she was very confident and it was great to see, and it was great to feel, it gave us all confidence in her and she had confidence in us. She helped us big time."

UCLA (12-17, 6-11 Pac-12) was led by Antoney Nyningifa with 12 points and Thea Lemberger who scored 11. Nyningifa scored eight first half points, and Lemberger seven, respectively.

"I've been saying it for about 3-4 weeks now that we're getting better," Lappe said. "Even though other people couldn't see it, I could see it...Now we're starting to get that edge that we didn't have. We feel like the season is not over and we want to play well as we go down the stretch here."

Colorado trailed 30-27 at halftime but began the second period on a 12-2 run capped off by a Smith layup giving the Buffaloes a 39-32 advantage with 11:52 remaining. UCLA made just one of its first 18 shots to start the half, and the Bruins never found a groove.

Nyningifa cut the lead to four on a 3-point play with 7:53 remaining and it appeared UCLA could fight their way back. But, Colorado had other plans and buried the Bruins with a 16-0 run highlighted by a Jamee Swan layup off the fast break and a Roberson and-one play that gave Colorado a 55-39 lead. Ashley Wilson completed the run with a pair of free throws.

The Buffaloes largest lead of the game came with the final points as Smith hit a free throw with 26 seconds remaining to give CU its 20-point margin of victory.

Unlike the final 20 minutes, the first half featured seven lead changes and three ties as the Buffs and Bruins battled to earn the upper hand. Both teams can expect to see each other in the first round of the Pac-12 tournament starting March 6 in Seattle.

The bracket won't be officially released until Sunday night, however with only one game remaining and the same conference record for both schools, the Buffs and Bruins will make up the No. 8 vs. No. 9 matchup. It will be the third time this season the two teams have faced each other as Colorado won 61-59 on January 5th at Pauley Pavilion.

"We just have to take it one game at a time and for now," said Swan who finished with 14 points on 6-of-9 shooting. "We're focused on Sunday, and as soon as we get into the Pac-12 tournament, we'll focus on [UCLA]."

BOULDER – The Colorado women's basketball team erased a 12-point halftime deficit, even took a one-point lead in the final 2 minutes, but couldn't close out Southern California Sunday in a 66-59 Pac-12 Conference loss.

CU (16-13, 6-12) honored seniors Rachel Hargis and the Wilson twins – Ashley and Brittany – before and after the afternoon game at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffaloes got 25 points from the Wilson sisters – 15 from Brittany, 10 from Ashley – and 10 each from freshman Zoe Beard-Fails and sophomore Jamee Swan. Hargis added six.

USC (18-12, 11-7) defeated CU 55-45 in the conference opener and swept the season series. The Trojans were led by Ariya Crook's 18 points and Cassie Harberts' 14. Crook hit a layup and four free throws in the final five seconds after the Buffs had taken a 59-58 lead – their first since 6-5.

The Buffs were without junior forward Jen Reese on Sunday and will be for this week's Pac-12 Conference Tournament in Seattle and any further postseason play. Reese, who was averaging 12 points and 5.8 rebounds a game, suffered a broken bone in her left shoulder near the conclusion of the first half in Friday night's 62-42 win against UCLA.

The Buffs stayed close for the first 41/2 minutes Sunday, but after a 10-10 tie the Trojans put together an 18-4 run and took a 14-point lead (28-14) that CU could reduce by only two (34-22) at intermission.

Shooting problems from the field and the free throw line plagued the Buffs in the first 20 minutes. They hit only nine of their 24 field goal attempts (37.5 percent) and were just 4-of-13 (30.8 percent) from the foul line. No CU player could manage more than four points in the first half, and 13 turnovers that accounted for 15 Trojans points compounded the Buffs' first-half difficulties.

CU got the same number of points from 14 USC turnovers, but the Trojans hit 10 of their 21 field goal attempts (47.6 percent) and were 11-of-16 from the foul line (68.8 percent).

CU had held its past two opponents to a combined five field goals in the second half of each game, allowing 22 total points to Arizona and UCLA in winning both games. And if the Buffs were to extend their winning streak to three games, another defensive lock down would be needed in Sunday's second half. An upturn on offense might help, too.

CU got both, holding USC without a field goal in the first 6:00 and outscoring the Trojans 14-2 to tie the score at 36-36 on a put-back by Beard-Fails. Brittany Wilson contributed six of the 114 points in CU's early second-half run.

USC broke the tie with a 3-pointer by Brianna Barrett, then hit five of six free throws – three by Harberts – to go up 44-38. And when Crook drained a trey from the left wing, the Trojans pushed their advantage to 47-38.

But CU cut into that nine-point deficit with two Brittany Wilson free throws, a layup by Swan on a nice feed from Arielle Roberson, then two Swan foul shots, pulling to 49-44 with 8:48 remaining. But a 3-pointer from the top of the key by Desiree Bradley gave USC a 52-44 lead.

The Trojans maintained an eight- or six-point edge until Ashley Wilson hit a layup and Hargis added a foul-line jumper after Wilson's missed free throw to cut USC's lead to 56-54. Swan's up-and-under layup tied the score at 56-56 with 2:38 left.

Harberts broke the tie (58-56) with two free throws, but Brittany Wilson converted a conventional three-point play with a layup and a foul shot, giving CU a 59-58 lead with 1:21 to play. But a pair of free throws and a layup by Crook pushed the Trojans ahead 62-59, followed by two more foul shots by Alexyz Vaioletama and another pair by Crook sealed it for USC.

SEATTLE – Friday's first half gave the Colorado women's basketball team hope, but Stanford quickly took it away in the second half and eliminated the Buffaloes 69-54 in the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 Conference Tournament.

Down two points at halftime in KeyArena, top-seeded Stanford used a 16-2 second-half run to take control and move into Saturday's semifinal round.

Ninth-seeded CU ended its season at 17-14, while Stanford improved to 29-2. The Cardinal defeated the Buffs 87-77 in Boulder in mid-January in their only previous meeting this season.

Senior guard Brittany Wilson led CU with 16 points, while freshman Haley Smith added 10. Held to five points in the first half, Chiney Ogwumike finished with 19 and added 11 rebounds for her 23rd double-double of the season and her seventh in Pac-12 Tournament play – tying her sister Nnemkadi for the most in tournament history.

Stanford senior Mikaela Ruef also contributed a double-double – 10 points, 16 rebounds – while freshman guard Lili Thompson scored 16 points – half of them during the Cardinal's game-turning run in the second half. Junior Bonnie Samuelson contributed 15 points, hitting three of her eight 3-point attempts.

CU played the nation's No. 4 team even – and then some – in the first half, leading by as many as six points (10-4) in the first 6 minutes and by two (23-21) at intermission.

Stanford's 21 first-half points were its fewest this season – five less than at No. 1 Connecticut in a 76-57 loss on Nov. 11, 2013. And the Cardinal's 24.1 first-half shooting percentage also was a season low, coming in under the 32.3 percent at Texas on Nov. 23, 2013.

As they did in their first-round win against UCLA, the Buffs rediscovered their long-range shooting touches for a second consecutive game. CU shot 50 percent (8-of-16) from beyond the arc in its 76-65 first-round win over UCLA, a dramatic improvement over the 10 percent (3-of-30) combined in the Buffs' last three regular-season games.

Brittany Wilson opened the afternoon's scoring with a trey from the top of the key and closed the first-half scoring with another from the left wing to give CU its two-point edge at the break. She accounted for three of the Buffs' four first-half 3-pointers, with Lauren Huggins – fresh onto the court with the shot clock winding down – hitting the other to give CU its 10-4 advantage.

With 11 points, Brittany Wilson topped both teams in the opening half. No Stanford player reached double figures, with Ogwumike (27.0 ppg, 12.1 rpg) limited to five points and six boards.

Despite two of their post players – freshman Zoe Beard-Fails and senior Rachel Hargis – having their first-half minutes limited by three fouls each, the Buffs bested the physical Cardinal on the boards (25-20).

But if the Cardinal was sluggish in the first half, no one expected it to carry far into the second half – and it didn't.

With the Buffs up 28-27, Ogwumike hit only her third trey of the season – the last was at Colorado in mid-January – to push the Cardinal ahead 30-28. Stanford's launch sequence already was underway; beginning with one of three free throws by Amber Orrange with 17:59 to play, the Cardinal outscored the Buffs 16-2 over the next 4:41 to go up 41-30.

Thompson scored eight points during Stanford's rally, including a 3-pointer and an "and-one" three-point play that was followed by a Bonnie Samuelson trey. The Cardinal hit just one of its 10 3-pointers in the first 20 minutes, but the second half would be different.

A trey by Samuelson just over the 10-minute mark increased Stanford's lead to 53-36, and CU never trimmed its deficit to single digits thereafter. Still, the Buffs scrapped, closing to 13 (67-54) in the final minute and having a chance to pull within 10 when a three-point attempt by Lexy Kresl rimmed out with 30 seconds to play.

BOULDER - It took the Buffs nearly six minutes to knock off the rust of a 12-day layoff. They then spent the game's final 34 minutes rediscovering a level of efficiency that had been lost for the better part of the season, as they defeated the TCU Horned Frogs 78-71 in the first round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament at the Coors Events Center on Wednesday.

Trailing 19-11 with 14:01 left in the first half, the Buffs suddenly switched into a different gear as they finished the half on a 32-11 run that also saw them shoot a resounding 55 percent from the field over that span. They then fought off a furious Horned Frogs rally in the game's final few minutes and now will advance to the second round of the WNIT where they will play the winner of Thursday night's Colorado State-Southern Utah game.

"We're extremely excited to have our season continue," said head coach Linda Lappe. "It was also good to get back into the flow of things and get that rust off. We really came out and started attacking their zone, which was a huge key and we got some easy baskets off of that."

One of the team's best offensive performances of the season was sparked by a bench that outscored its opponents' 36-3. Jamee Swan provided the biggest boost off that bench as her 16 points paced an offensive unit that struggled to find its way in the game's opening minutes. Trailing by eight at that tedious point early in the game, the Buffs bench proceeded to score 15 of the team's next 20 points and help turn a deficit into 31-24 lead in just over eight minutes. By the end of the half that surge of momentum had translated into a 43-30 halftime lead.

With 16:59 remaining, the Buffs' lead had ballooned to as much as 17 (47-30). But, before the Buffs even began to breathe a sigh of relief, the Horned Frogs went on a 24-7 run of their own, ignited by an effective full-court press defense, that ultimately culminated in a 59-59 tie with just over five minutes to play.

"TCU's a good team," said Lappe. "They're quick, they're athletic and they can cause a lot of problems with their pressure. We wanted to make stronger and better cuts through the center of their defense. I think we handled it pretty well but we didn't do a good job in letting them back in the game, but I did like our composure when that happened."

After an offensive lull allowed the Horned Frogs back into the game, CU went more than six minutes without a field goal at one point in the second half. It was a renewed level of defensive tenacity that eventually helped them win it.

TCU guard Zahna Medley's short jump shot tied the game at the 5:10 mark. Two Haley Smith free throws then helped CU regain a 61-59 lead on the ensuing possession. Facing the most critical juncture in the game, Lexy Kresl swiped a TCU pass, one of 22 turnovers they forced in the game. The steal led to a fast break layup by Arielle Roberson at the other end that gave the Buffs a four point lead, and the game's momentum had officially swung for the final time.

After a timeout and two TCU free throws, it was only fitting that Swan would take center stage once again as she had done all night. Swan converted three times in the paint on the next four CU possessions and the Buffs once again had a double digit lead.

"Everybody comes to play and I wouldn't have been able to do it without the passes or the looks that I got from my teammates," said Swan. "You can't do it by yourself. As a team as a whole, I wouldn't be able to do it without them."

Swan wasn't the only Buff who had a big night offensively. Roberson, who pulled down a career-high 17 rebounds 12 days ago against Stanford, scored a team-high 18 points on Wednesday.

"I think we did a really good job moving the ball," said Roberson. "We could basically get anything we wanted. I think we had it in the post all night, and I think our guards also could shoot as much as they wanted. So, I think it was just a matter of your mentality and if you're going to attack them or fall back on your heels and more often than not we were able to attack them."

BOULDER - April approaches and the Colorado women's basketball team plays on. Arielle Roberson's second-half scoring and her team's overall shot blocking carried CU past Southern Utah 79-68 on Saturday night and into the third round of the WNIT.

Roberson opened the second half with a 3-pointer, launching the Buffaloes on a 17-5 run that produced their largest lead of the game - 45-26. Held scoreless in the first half, Roberson finished with a team-high 15 points, collected 11 rebounds for her seventh double-double of the season, and added a career-best five of CU's 14 blocked shots - the second-most in team history.

"That was a tough team we played," CU coach Linda Lappe said. "Southern Utah does so many good things...we had a tough time scoring in first half. Their defense was stingy, but I really liked the way we opened the second half; we had a different level of energy."

The Buffs (19-14) defeated the Thunderbirds (23-10) for the second time this season, claiming a 75-59 win in their final non-conference game on Dec. 29, also at the Coors Events Center.

CU closed Saturday night's first half with a 12-5 run that produced a 28-21 lead at intermission. Then, the Buffs opened the final 20 minutes with a 17-5 surge to begin pulling away. They Buffs led by as many as 19 points but the T-Birds, who never led, closed to within nine points twice in the final 3 minutes. CU hit seven of 10 free throws in the final 1:23 to put the game out of reach.

Roberson said she opened the game "timid...I was just going through the motions. It was just a mindset." She took only two first-half shots, which she said drew a halftime admonishment from associate head coach Jonas Chatterton.

"Coach Jonas was saying 'shoot the ball,'" Roberson recalled, and in the second half she did. Roberson hit six of her eight field goal attempts. "I just hit the switch," she said. "In the second half I decided to be myself again and just go out there, be aggressive and play."

But Roberson had plenty of help. Rachel Hargis tied a career high with 12 points and contributed four steals, while Lexy Kresl added 12 points, six rebounds and four assists. Brittany Wilson was CU's fourth double-figure scorer with 11 points, while her twin sister Ashley added eight points.

The Buffs went up 6-0 on consecutive 3-pointers by Brittany Wilson and held the lead until the T-birds went to Carl Moreland, a senior from Broomfield. She scored six straight points to put SUU into a 16-16 tie with 5:42 left before half.

But that deadlock served as a launch point for the Buffs. They closed the half with a 12-5 run and led 28-21 at intermission, with a catch-and-shoot 3-pointer by Kresl on an in-bounds play at the shot clock buzzer highlighting the surge.

Moreland, meanwhile, got the T-Birds' final five points of the half, giving her 11 straight. She finished with a game-high 17.

Roberson had three first-half blocks and got her fourth - setting a career high - in the first minute of the second half. Lappe attributed her team's 14 blocks to "great help-side" defense.

After Roberson's try to open the second-half scoring, Hargis scored on a left-handed spin move and the Buffs were up 33-21, prompting a Southern Utah timeout with 18:22 to play. When the Buffs got one of two free throws from Ashley Wilson and a jumper from Roberson, their lead jumped to 15 (36-21) and the T-Birds were on the ropes.

In scoring 51 second-half points, the Buffs shot 60.7 percent (17-of-28) from the field and finished at 47.9 percent (23-of-48) for the game. The T-Birds scored 27 points off of the Buffs' 24 turnovers, but CU limited the visitors to 34.5 percent shooting (19-of-55) and held a 21-8 advantage in second-chance points.

That the Buffs are still playing is a large bonus for seniors such as Hargis and the Wilson sisters. "It's always great to be able to continue to play when other teams are going home and other careers are done," Hargis said. "We want to play as long as we can; it's an awesome feeling."

2013-14 SEASON IN REVIEW

The 2013-14 season was one of ups and downs for the Colorado women's basketball team, but the one constant was that the expectation and tradition of winning has returned.

Colorado was 19-15 overall, logging its fourth-straight winning season and postseason tournament trip. The Buffaloes survived a bumpy Pac-12 Conference schedule, tying for ninth at 6-12, to make a run to the "Sweet 16" of the Postseason WNIT.

Preseason expectations were certainly plentiful. Both the media and coaches picked Colorado to finish third in the Pac-12 and the Buffs entered the season ranked No. 19 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Sports Coaches polls.

The Buffaloes stormed out of the gate winning nine straight, building on a 33-game nonconference regular season winning streak that had spanned back to 2010-11. During that stretch Colorado also claimed its fifth straight Omni Hotels Classic championship, and 17th overall, by defeating South Alabama, 94-61, in the first round and Rice, 75-58 in the title clash.

The Omni Classic wins, which put Colorado at 6-0, vaulted the Buffaloes to No. 11 in the AP poll where they stayed for three weeks. Home wins over Illinois and Denver and a road victory at Wyoming moved Colorado to 9-0, lifting its Coaches' poll ranking to No. 14 and setting up a showdown with No. 7 ranked Louisville.

Colorado battled in this road contest between two top 11 ranked teams. But in the end, the 2013 NCAA runner ups were able to pull out a 69-62 decision, putting an end to the Buffaloes' 33-game nonconference winning streak.

In what has apparently become a tradition, Colorado's Pac-12 schedule was heavy loaded at the beginning. The Buffaloes played four of their first six on the road, and the two home games against the consensus No. 1-2 preseason picks in the league race.

Colorado split the opening weekend, falling at USC 55-45 but rebounded for a 61-59 win at UCLA. While playing solid at times, the Buffaloes weren't consistent enough in home losses to No. 19 California and No. 4 Stanford.

At this point of the season two themes began to emerge. One, the Buffaloes were in every game, but just unable to finish consistently; 13 of Colorado's 15 losses were by 10 points or less. The second, injuries would begin to take their toll.

Several players missed multiple games with injuries. Colorado had 10 different starting lineups in 2013-14 and no five started more than seven games together. The Buffaloes were the only team in the Pac-12 not to have at least one player start every game and only two – Rachel Hargis and Jamee Swan – played in all 34. The Buffaloes lost starting wing Jasmine Sborov for the second half of the season, and played without Jen Reese, the team's second leading scorer and rebounder, for the final postseason run.

After falling to 1-5 in the Pac-12, the Buffaloes fell out of the national rankings after 25 straight weeks. Colorado rebounded with home wins over Arizona and Utah and a nice road win over Oregon to go an even 3-3 over the next six. But then the Buffaloes dropped three straight, including a 55-51 setback at No. 20 Arizona State.

Following that loss to the Sun Devils it appeared the season may spiral out of control. At 14-12, and 4-11 in the Pac-12, Colorado found itself down 20 points late in the first half at last place Arizona. But the Buffaloes dug deep and embarked on one of the greatest comebacks in team history.

Colorado had trimmed Arizona's lead to 16, 39-23, at halftime. The Buffaloes then outscored Arizona 26-10 in the second half, holding the Wildcats to just two field goals, and 10 percent shooting (2-of-20), eventually winning 61-56 in overtime. The 16-point halftime deficit overcome to win is the second largest in team history and the 20-point comeback is believed to be the best overall.

In what has become a trademark over the last four seasons under head coach Linda Lappe, the Buffs finished strong, winning five of their last eight culminating in a Round of 16 WNIT appearance.

After defeating Arizona, Colorado claimed a pair dominant wins over UCLA in the span of a week. The first was a 62-42 home win, where the Buffaloes' defense nearly matched their record performance against the Wildcats, holding the Bruins to 12 second-half points and 12 percent shooting (3-of-25).

Colorado met UCLA again in the first round of the Pac-12 Tournament. The No. 9 seeded Buffaloes had the offensive side working this time. Brittany Wilson had 17 points and twin sister

Jen Reese

Jamee Swan

Ashley Wilson had a career-high 16 as Colorado dispatched the No. 8 seed Bruins, 76-65, giving the Buffaloes one Pac-12 Tournament win in all three seasons they've been a member of the league.

Taking advantage of a 12-day break between games, Colorado came out well rested and strong in a first round WNIT win over TCU, 78-71. Colorado then defeated Southern Utah in a regular season rematch, this time 79-68 in round No. 2.

The postseason run came to an end in the Round of 16 at UTEP. Colorado fell behind by 13 points early in the first half, but managed to climb back to take a brief lead late in the game. The Miners though, behind a program record crowd of 8,234, held on for a 68-60 decision, eventually advancing to the championship game.

Sophomore forward Arielle Roberson led Colorado in scoring (12.0 ppg) and rebounding (8.3 rpg) while ranking second in blocks (33) and third in field-goal percentage (.458). On the Pac-12 leaderboard Roberson ranked fifth in offensive rebounds (3.4 orpg), ninth in overall rebounding, blocks and field-goal percentage, 14th in defensive rebounds (4.9 drpg) and 20th in scoring.

An honorable mention All-Pac-12 selection, Roberson had a team-best seven double-doubles on the season four of which occurred within the final five nonconference games. She recorded three straight double-doubles (Wyoming-Illinois-Denver), becoming the first Buff to do that since Chucky Jeffery had three in a row from Feb. 3-Feb. 10, 2013 (at USC, vs. Oregon State, vs. Oregon). Roberson was named the Pac-12 Player of the Week for Dec. 2-8 averaging 15 points and 11 rebounds while hitting 48 percent from the field in the wins over Wyoming and Illinois.

Junior forward Jen Reese was second on the team in scoring and rebounding, finishing just a fraction of a point behind Roberson at 12.0 points per game while pulling down 5.8 rebounds. An honorable mention selection to the 2014 All-Pac-12 team, Reese was sixth in the league in field goal accuracy at 48.3 percent while also ranking eighth in free-throw percentage (.744) and 21st in scoring. She scored in double figures in 17 of her 27 games before missing the final seven with a broken bone in her left shoulder. Reese had a pair of double-doubles, including an 18-point, 13-rebound effort in the win at Oregon. She matched her career high of 22 points twice this season, coming in back-to-back home games against the Arizona schools in January.

Senior guard Brittany Wilson led the team in steals (42) while ranking second in assists (93) and third in scoring (10.8 ppg). She joined twin sister Ashley as the two leading scorers in postseason play (11.0 ppg) and led the way for the Buffaloes during the Pac-12 Tournament averaging 16.5 points over the two games. On the overall Pac-12 charts she was 11th in free-throw percentage (.735), 13th in assists and 25th in scoring. Wilson had Colorado's top individual scoring effort of the season, putting in a career-high 26 points in the win over Iowa.

Sophomore forward Jamee Swan topped Colorado in both field-goal percentage and blocked shots. She also ranked high on the Pac-12 charts in those two categories, coming in at fifth in field-goal accuracy at 50.5 percent and eighth in blocks at 1.1 per outing.

Senior guard Ashley Wilson finished her career in style. Serving as the team captain, she recorded career-high numbers in every category. Wilson averaged 7.6 points, 4.2 rebounds, just under two assists per game and was second on the team in steals with 38. Ten of her 12 career double-figure scoring games came this season, including seven of the final 11 contests down the stretch — Wilson only had two double-figure scoring games in her first 97 career outings. She shot 73.1 percent from the free-throw line as a senior, ranking 12th in the Pac-12. Wilson persevered through numerous injuries throughout her career, still appearing in 121 career games tying for 20th on CU's all-time charts.

Junior guard Lexy Kresl led Colorado in assists (3.1 apg) and free-throw percentage (.841) while ranking third in both steals (1.1 spg) and 3-point field goals (27). Kresl ranked third in the Pac-12 in free-throw accuracy at 84.1 percent (69-of-82) while ranking 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.2) and 12th in assists. Her free-throw performance also ranks 19th on CU's single-season list.

1,000 POINTS, 1,000 REBOUNDS

Only three players in CU history have recorded 1,000 career rebounds, coincidentally all three are 1,000 point scorers making this 1,000-1,000 double club an exclusive list. Lisa Van Goor (1980-85) ranks first in rebounding with 1,145, and second in scoring at 2,067. Erin Scholz is CU's second-best career rebounder with 1,067 and is seventh in career scoring with 1,621 points from 1993-97. Jackie McFarland is CU's third all-time rebounder with 1,049 and scorer with 1,957 points from 2004-08.

CU breaks Cardinal rule

Lady Buffs stop defending champs

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Betty Benji scored 28 points and Stephanie Mack made the key free throw late in the game as Colorado upset defending national champion Stanford 84-79 Thursday night in a women's NCAA West Regional semifinal.

Colorado 80
Stanford 67

"Our No. 1 game plan was to slow down Stanford," said Colorado coach Cal Berry. "We did like we needed to keep Stanford between 60 and 70 points."

"The Lady Buffs (15-3) will meet Texas Tech (26-2) Saturday in the regional championship, with the winner advancing to the Final Four in Atlanta, Ga. (26-4), which had been averaging 79 points, jumped in a hot lead. The Cardinal was up 16-10 at the half and maintained its edge until 2:30 was left in the game."

That's when Colorado's Jamillah Long hit a 15-footer to tie the score at 16. Then Mandy Barry's inside basket with 1:53 remaining gave the Lady

By John Henderson
Missoula, Mont. (AP) — Cheryl Burrows has been the greatest player in the history of the Lady Buffs. She has been the only player to score 1,000 points. She has been the only player to lead the team in scoring for three consecutive years. She has been the only player to lead the team in scoring for three consecutive years. She has been the only player to lead the team in scoring for three consecutive years.

Considering the Lady Buffs (15-3) have played in the last four NCAA Tournaments and reached the 1991 Sweet Sixteen, it's no surprise that the team is looking to make a deep run in the 1992 tournament. The team is looking to make a deep run in the 1992 tournament. The team is looking to make a deep run in the 1992 tournament.

1,000 POINT SCORERS

Just 25 players own membership in CU's 1,000 point club in 40 seasons of Colorado women's basketball. Jeannie Raikes was the first to do so, reaching her 1,000th point on Dec. 20, 1980. Lisa Van Goor was the fastest player to reach 1,000 points, getting there in just 55 games and the first sophomore ever at CU to accomplish the feat. Brittany Spears joined her in 2009, reaching 1,000 in her 63rd game; the final game of her sophomore season. Eight players have reached 1,000 points as juniors: Shelley Sheetz, Tracy Tripp, Erin Carson, Bridget Turner, Erin Scholz, Tera Bjorklund, Jackie McFarland and Chucky Jeffery.

Brittany Spears

Pasadena, Calif. (2007-11)

2,185 Points

ALL-TIME JERSEY NUMBERS

Jersey number 22 is the most frequently issued now worn by 13 Buffaloes. The number 12 is the next most frequently used jersey, by 12 players. Just the number "0" is an eligible number that hasn't been worn and three numbers have been worn by just one player (00, 41, 53).

The years in parentheses next to the names indicate the last season that number was worn and by whom. Current players are in bold.

Mandy Nightingale wore three different jersey numbers, 11 (1998-99), 32 (1999-2000) and 23 (2000-01, 2001-02). She is the only player in CU history to wear three different numbers since numbers were assigned on a permanent basis.

PRESEASON TOURNAMENTS

Colorado is 106-40 since the 1980-81 season in regular season tournaments, including a sparkling 44-10 all-time in its own Omni Hotels Classic which celebrates its 28th year in 2014.

Colorado has won 17 of 26 Omni Hotels Classic titles and has played in every championship game but three as the Buffaloes finished third in 2005 and 2007, and fourth in 2008. The 2006 season brought a one-year change in the tournament, as it followed a true "Classic" format where Colorado and Wyoming played Nevada and Charlotte on consecutive days, primarily because Wyoming and CU had just played each other three days before. The Classic returned to its normal format in 2007, and this season Colorado hosts Colorado State, Missouri State and TCU over Thanksgiving weekend.

The Buffaloes also have some notable preseason tournament wins outside the Coors Classic. CU won the Preseason WNIT in 1995 defeating New Mexico State, Utah, Texas A&M and Arkansas in the championship. More recently, Colorado claimed the 2003 WBCA Classic title in Boulder by topping Old Dominion and Notre Dame.

Erin Scholz helped Colorado to the 1995 Preseason WNIT championship with a 73-71 win over Arkansas.

Head Coach: Sox Walseth

Assistant Coach: Susan Horner

Record: 28-5 Overall
10-0 Intermountain Conference
(14-0 H, 9-5 A, 5-0 N)

Captain: Michell Irving

Notes: After a four-year hiatus, Sox Walseth, the winningest coach in CU men's basketball history, takes the helm of the women's team. The team responds with the school's first undefeated Intermountain Conference season (10-0). Colorado wins three games by scoring in excess of the century mark. Colorado wins the mid-season Big Eight Tournament, and Region VII Championship. Colorado went on to qualify for the AIAW National Championship Tournament.

Head Coach: Ceal Barry

Assistant Coaches: Beth Burns, Julie Hoehing

Record: 14-14 Overall
6-8 Big Eight Conference
(8-4 H, 4-7 A, 2-3 N)

Captains: Julie Moore, Liz Lampros

Notes: Colorado connected on 38 free throws against Oklahoma, establishing a new Big Eight free throws made record. Sophomore Tracy Tripp's 38 points against Oklahoma State tied a single game school record. The Buffs were the top free throw shooting team in the nation at the end of the season (517-682/.758)

Head Coach: Ceal Barry

Assistant Coaches: Jen Warden, LaTonya Watson, Kim LaLonde

Director of Operations: Kris Livingston

Record: 12-16 Overall
5-11 Big 12 Conference
(8-5 H, 2-9 A, 2-2 N)

Captains: La Shena Graham, Alexis Felts

Notes: Colorado is a preseason nationally ranked team for the sixth straight year. With a convincing 78-65 win over Missouri, Ceal Barry picks up her 300th win since taking over the reins of the Buffs. Seniors Alexis Felts, La Shena Graham and Damietta Velicica graduate as the program's sixth-winningest class with a 91-37 career record. In just her first season, Mel Johnson becomes Colorado's 15th all-time career leader in blocked shots with 29 rejections.

7-9 Big 12 Conference

Captains: Shelley Garcia

Notes: Following a one-year hiatus from postseason play, the Buffs were selected to the Women's National Invitation Tournament field with the fourth-youngest team in the nation and advanced to the tournament's second round. Senior Shelley Garcia completed her career as the second-winningest class in CU history with a 110-48 career record in Boulder. Head coach Ceal Barry coached her 600th career game on Feb. 3 at Kansas.

Head Coach: Ceal Barry

Director of Operations: Kris Livingston

Record: 10-19 Overall
4-12 Big 12 Conference

Captains: Kami Carmann, Linda Lappe, Jenny Roulter

Notes: The Buffs opened the season with 11 healthy players, and were without a senior for the first time in program history. Coach Ceal Barry won her 400th career game in the first round of the Coors Classic, as the Buffs took the title once again. Sophomore guard Jenny Roulter was named third team All-Big 12 following the season. Roulter and teammate Sabrina Scott were invited to the U.S. R. William Jones Cup Team Trials in Colorado Springs following the season.

Head Coach: Ceal Barry

Director of Operations: Kris Livingston

Record: 22-9 Overall
11-5 Big 12 Conference
(12-3 Home, 6-5 Away, 4-1 Neutral)

Captain: Kami Carmann

Final Ranking: 20/23

Notes: For the first time since 1997, the Buffaloes were selected to the NCAA Tournament after their best record in four seasons. Colorado also upset No. 6 Iowa State at home on Feb. 14, CU's first win over a top 10 team since defeating No. 7 Purdue in 1995. Juniors Mandy Nightingale and Jenny Roulier were named Third Team All-Big 12 Conference following the season. Roulier and freshman Tera Bjorklund were both selected by USA Basketball to represent the United States on the World University Games Team and Junior National Team, respectively. Nightingale and sophomore Sabrina Scott participated on the Big 12 All Star Tour, which was coached by Ceal Barry in August.

Assistant Coaches: LaTonya Watson, Tanya Haave, Jim Jabir

Director of Operations: Kris Livingston

Record: 24-8 Overall
11-5 Big 12 Conference
(13-3 Home, 9-3 Away, 2-2 Neutral)

Captains: Linda Lappe, Sabrina Scott, Diana Spencer

Final WBCA Ranking: 19

Notes: Colorado's 2002-03 squad became the third in a row to earn an NCAA Tournament berth and second in a row to advance to the Sweet 16 with their 86-67 win over No. 12 North Carolina in Boulder. Junior Tera Bjorklund became the 19th member overall and sixth junior, first since Erin Scholz in 1996, to join the 1,000 point club. Kate Fagan set the Big 12 and CU record for consecutive free throws made with 44. Bjorklund became the first Colorado player to earn First Team All-Big 12 honors since the formation of the league in 1996.

Captains: Veronica Johns-Richardson, Sarah Lini

Notes: The youth movement was certainly on for the Buffaloes in 2004-05. Over one-third (67.3 percent) of Colorado's scoring in 2004-05 came from freshmen or sophomores, while just over 64 percent of its rebounding from underclassmen. CU's youth showed at times as the team finished below .500 for the first time since the 1999-2000 season. Senior Veronica Johns-Richardson was given honorable mention to the All-Big 12 Conference team averaging 10 points per game and leading the Buffs in assists (85) and steals (59). Jackie McFarland and Kara Richards formed one of the better first-year duos in the Big 12. McFarland was twice named the Big 12 Rookie of the Week and was selected to the All-Big 12 Freshman Team by the Kansas City Star and the Waco Tribune-Herald. Richards earned the Big 12's Rookie of the Week honor in her first weekend as a collegian and was also selected to the Waco Tribune-Herald's All-Big 12 Freshman squad. Senior Sarah Lini and junior Whitney Law were members of the Academic All-Big 12 first team while Johns-Richardson earned second team acclaim. Head coach Ceal Barry retired after 22 seasons on the CU bench, leaving as the school's all-time winningest coach with 427 wins.

Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller

Assistant Coaches: Mike Neighbors, Bethann Shapiro Ord, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Carla Morrow

Record: 9-21 Overall
 3-13 Big 12 Conference
 (7-9 Home, 1-9 Away, 1-3 Neutral)

Captains: Jasmina Ilic, Whitney Law, Jackie McFarland

Notes: The Kathy McConnell-Miller era at CU began with a bang as the Buffaloes defeated Cal State-Fullerton 100-71 in the season opener. Jasmina Ilic and Jackie McFarland each netted 34 points, marking the first time in team history a pair of teammates scored 30 or more points in one game. Senior Whitney Law dished out a school-record 15 assists as McConnell-Miller claimed her first CU coaching victory. McFarland had one of the best sophomore seasons in team history. She averaged 17.2 points and 9.2 rebounds per game earning second team All-Big 12 Conference honors. McFarland's 516 total points were the second most by a sophomore in team history and seventh overall. Her 277 rebounds were the third best mark by a sophomore and the 10th most overall in Buffs' history. McFarland was also named a second team Academic All-American, the lone sophomore on the three Academic All-America teams. Law and senior Tami Garnett joined McFarland on the Academic All-Big 12 team

Director of Operations: Carla Morrow

Record: 13-17 Overall
6-10 Big 12 Conference
(11-5 Home, 1-10 Away, 1-2 Neutral)

Captains: Jasmina Ilic, Jackie McFarland, Susie Powers

Notes: Colorado finished the 2006-07 season at 13-17 overall and tied with Texas and Texas Tech for seventh place in the Big 12 Conference at 6-10. CU's six Big 12 wins were one more than its totals in the previous two years combined (3-13 in 2005-06 and 2-14 in 2004-05) and the best overall record since the 2003-04 season when the Buffs finished 22-8, 11-5 in the Big 12, and advanced to the program's last NCAA Tournament. Junior forward Jackie McFarland made headlines by being named to the 2007 All-Big 12 Conference first team and earning honorable mention to the Associated Press All-America team. McFarland, who became the fifth player in team history to record 1,300 points and 700 rebounds, led the Big 12 and ranked third in the nation in field goal percentage (.605) and was second in the Big 12 in scoring and rebounding. Senior Jasmina Ilic earned honorable mention to the All-Big 12 team and joined McFarland on CU's 1,000 point scoring list. Ilic finished her CU career sixth on the all-time 3-point field goals list and is 19th in scoring.

Record: 11-18, 3-13 Big 12
(8-8 H, 2-9 A, 1-1 N)

Captains: Kara Richards, Hannah Skildum, Bianca Smith

NOTES: Colorado battled through one of the toughest schedules in 35 years of women's basketball in 2008-09. The Buffaloes played in 11 games against ranked teams, the second most in team history and played 17 games in 2008-09 against teams that would go on to qualify for postseason play. Sophomore Brittany Spears was named to the All-Big 12 Conference second team. She became just the second player in school history to reach 1,000 points by the end of a sophomore season. Senior Kara Richards was an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick. Freshman guard Alyssa Fressle was named to the 2009 Big 12 All-Rookie team.

Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller

Assistant Coaches: Patrick Harrington, Tom McConnell, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Tracy Tripp

Record: 13-17, 3-13 Big 12 (10-8 H, 2-8 A, 1-1 N)

Captains: Whitney Houston, Bianca Smith, Brittany Spears

Notes: Colorado took advantage of home cooking by winning nine of 10 nonconference games at home en route to a 10-3 nonconference record. The Buffaloes finished second at the Minnesota Subway Classic and won their own Omni Classic at the Coors Events Center. Brittany Spears and Bianca Smith were named to both all-tournament teams while Chucky Jeffery was named to the Omni Classic All-Tournament team. CU's 11 games against ranked teams were the second most in team history, trailing only the 16 played in 2001-02. The Buffaloes played 15 of their 30 games against teams that would advance to either the NCAA or WNIT postseason events. Colorado led the Big 12 and ranked 14th in the nation in free-throw accuracy at 76.1 percent, the third best mark in team history. CU's 229 3-pointers made were the second most on the team's all-time charts. The Buffaloes ranked second in the Big 12 and 18th in NCAA Division I in 3-pointers made at 7.6 per outing. Spears led Colorado in scoring (17.7 ppg), rebounding (7.8 rpg) and steals (2.1 spg), earning honorable mention to the 2010 All-Big 12 Conference team. She is one of only six players in team history to reach 1,500 points and 700 rebounds in a career. Smith was named the 2010 Big 12 Sixth Man Award winner after averaging 12.8 points per game and leading the Big 12 in 3-pointers (2.7 3mpg) and free-throw percentage (.887). She graduates as CU's single-game, season and career leader in 3-point field goals made and attempted. Smith completed her career in 18th place on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,138 points. Sophomores Alyssa Fressle and Julie Seabrook were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Conference Women's Basketball First Team.

Head Coach: Linda Lappe

Assistant Coaches: Jennie Baranczyk, Jonas Chatterton, Johnna Pointer

Director of Operations: Tracy Tripp

Record: 18-16, 6-10 Big 12 (15-6 H, 3-8 A, 0-2 N)

Captains: N/A

Notes: The Linda Lappe era began for Colorado's final season in the Big 12 Conference. Lappe led CU to an 18-16 overall record, advancing to the quarterfinals of the 2011 postseason WNIT. CU finished tied for eighth place in the Big 12 at 6-10, its best league mark since 2007...Lappe was the only rookie NCAA Division I head coach to beat a ranked opponent this season, and her teams achieved it twice, knocking off No. 17/16 Iowa State (also her first conference win) and No. 16/15 Oklahoma. Additionally, Lappe was one of just three NCAA I rookie head coaches to lead her team into postseason play...All-Big 12 first team senior guard/forward Brittany Spears graduated as CU's all-time leading scorer with 2,185 points. She led CU and ranked third in the Big 12 in scoring at 19.2 points per game. She was also first in defensive rebounds (6.0 drpg), third in rebounding (8.1 rpg), fourth in 3-point field goals (2.4 3mpg), fifth in free-throw percentage (.830), 10th in steals (1.8 spg) and 11th in blocked shots (1.2 bpg). Sophomore guard Chucky Jeffery put together one of the season's most memorable individual performances in the championship game of the Omni Classic against Loyola Chicago. Jeffery recorded the second triple-double in team history by totaling 10 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists during CU's 65-34 win...Sophomore Meagan Malcolm-Peck and junior Julie Seabrook were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Conference Women's Basketball Second Team.

Head Coach: Linda Lappe

Assistant Coaches: Jennie Baranczyk, Jonas Chatterton, LaTonya Watson

Captain: Julie Seabrook

Record: 21-14, 6-12 Pac-12 (12-6 H, 6-7 A, 3-1 N)

Notes: The Buffaloes ushered in the Pac-12 Conference era with a 21-14 overall record, the school's first 20-win season in eight years...Under second-year head coach Linda Lappe, Colorado swept its 11-game nonconference regular season schedule and equaled the second-best start in school history at 12-0 by defeating Utah, 58-52, in its inaugural Pac-12 game...The Buffaloes won their first conference tournament game since 2007 with a 55-41 win over Utah in the first round of the Pac-12 Tournament...Colorado advanced to the WNIT for the second straight season, its first back-to-back postseason appearance of any kind since playing in four straight NCAA Tournaments from 2001 to '04. Junior guard Chuckie Jeffery had an incredible postseason run averaging 15.8 points and 11.8 rebounds during the WNIT. She had double-doubles in the final three games and recorded her second career triple-double, and just the program's third, with 12 points, 12 rebounds and 10 assists at Oklahoma State...Jeffery earned All-Pac-12 honors and was named to the league's All-Defensive Team. Lexy Kresl was voted to the All-Freshman team by the media while she and Jen Reese earned honorable mention to the coach's All-Freshman squad. Senior forward Julie Seabrook earned honorable mention to the Academic All-Pac-12 team.

Head Coach: Linda Lappe

Assistant Coaches: Jonas Chatterton, Kelly Rae Finley, LaTonya Watson

Director of Operations: Jenni Benningfield

Captain: Meagan Malcolm-Peck

Record: 25-7, 13-5 Pac-12 (15-3 H, 9-3 A, 1-1 N)

Notes: Colorado's 25 wins were its most since 1995-96 (26-9) while its 24 regular season wins are the most since the 1994-95 squad won 24 en route to a school-record 30-3 finish. The Buffaloes registered a perfect preseason schedule for the second straight year including a win over then-No. 8 ranked Louisville. That win, which put Colorado at 9-0, helped propel the Buffaloes into the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2008. Colorado's 13 conference wins were the third most in team history, trailing only the program's two undefeated Big Eight teams (14-0) in 1989 and 1995. Capping of an outstanding regular season, Colorado was awarded the No. 5 seed in the Norfolk Region of the 2013 NCAA Tournament. Senior guard Chucky Jeffery earned honorable mention to the AP All-America team, while also claiming

*Final Poll

Poll Notes and Streaks

Colorado was ranked in 75 straight polls from the final poll of the 1991-92 season (Mar. 15, 1992) to Dec. 9, 1996.

Of those 75 polls, 49 weeks were spent among the nation's top-10 teams.

Colorado was ranked in 25 consecutive AP polls from Dec. 17, 2012 to Jan. 13, 2014, the third longest streak in team history (30 from 2001-02).

Colorado has appeared in 183 AP polls, ranking third among Pac-12 schools.

In the past 13 seasons, Colorado has appeared on 128 regional or national telecasts and is scheduled for another 12 during the 2014-15 regular season. This will be the third year of the Pac-12 Networks, which consists of one national and six regional networks. Colorado had a school-record 16 games televised in 2013-14, which included two postseason contests. The Pac-12 Networks will once again televise the opening three rounds of the Pac-12 Tournament, March 5-8, in Seattle, giving the Buffaloes at least one more televised game and potentially more as the team advances through the bracket. ESPN is scheduled to pick up the Pac-12 Championship game on Sunday, March 8. CU also has all games, home and away, broadcast on KKZN 760 or KVCU 1190 AM, featuring play-by-play man Corey Lopez and color analyst Carol Callan of USA Basketball.

#-The WNBA Elite Draft, held in Feb. 1997 prior to the inaugural season, was for players who had competed professionally in other leagues, mostly international.

ELITE EIGHT TEAMS

1992-93 (27-4)

Colorado's first Elite Eight team won the 1993 Big Eight championship and earned an at large berth to the NCAA Tournament, claiming the No. 4 seed in the West Region. After a first round bye, the Buffaloes defeated No. 5 seed UC Santa Barbara in Boulder, 81-54, to gain a spot in the West Region in Missoula, Mont. Colorado upset No. 1 seed and defending national champion Stanford 80-67 in the regional semifinal. Eventual national champion Texas Tech ended CU's Final Four bid with a 79-54 decision in the regional final.

1994-95 (30-3)

After sweeping the Big Eight regular season and tournament titles, Colorado received the league's first ever No. 1 NCAA Tournament seed, holding that spot in the Midwest Region. The Buffaloes entered the NCAA Tournament ranked a program-best No. 2 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll and riding a 22-game win streak which would grow to a school-record 25 in a row during the championship. Colorado cruised to opening round wins over Holy Cross (83-49) and Southwest Missouri State (78-34) in Boulder before embarking on its third straight trip to regionals. Colorado took care of George Washington 77-61 in the Sweet 16 in Des Moines, Iowa, before falling in a heartbreaker to Georgia in the regional final, 82-79.

2001-02 (24-10)

The Buffaloes sported one of the toughest schedules in the country, playing games against 16 ranked opponents, but still managed to place third in the ever-tough Big 12 Conference. Colorado didn't let an early exit from the Big 12 Championship deter its run to a third NCAA Elite Eight. The Buffaloes were the No. 3 seed in the West and took advantage of their home floor for opening round wins over Southern (88-61) and LSU (69-58). Boise, Idaho, was the site for the West Regional where Colorado knocked of No. 2 seed and future conference rival Stanford, 62-59, to advance to the program's third Elite Eight. Top seed and eventual national runner-up Oklahoma ended Colorado's run, 94-60, in the finals.

SWEET 161993-94*1993-94 (27-5)

Sandwiched in between two Elite Eight appearances, the 1994 Big Eight Champions had a successful run in their own right. Ranked in the Top 10 for nearly the entire season, Colorado earned an at-large bid to the 1994 NCAA Tournament as the No. 3 seed in the West Region as the field grew from 48 to 64 teams. The Buffaloes hosted first- and second-round games for the third straight season, gaining a trip to Stanford and the regional semifinals with wins over Marquette (77-74) and Oregon (92-71). No. 2 seed Stanford had the Buffaloes on its own floor for the Sweet 16 game, and in revenge for the year before, took a 78-62 decision.

As the Big Eight grew into the Big 12, Colorado continued its prominence on a national stage. The Buffaloes won the inaugural Big 12 Tournament championship after placing third in the regular season. Colorado earned the No. 2 seed in the Midwest Region and took care of business in first- and second-round games in Boulder, claiming wins over Marshall (69-49) and Stephen F. Austin (66-57). Iowa City played host to the Midwest Regionals, where Colorado ran into a tough Tennessee squad, 75-67 in the Sweet 16.

A format change in the NCAA Tournament gave the Buffaloes the unique opportunity to host the NCAA Tournament despite being a lower seed. As the No. 6 seed in the Midwest Region, Colorado took full advantage by defeating BYU in the first round, 84-45, and then shocking No. 3 seed and heavily favored North Carolina, 86-67, to gain the program's sixth trip to the regional round. The Buffaloes traveled to Knoxville, Tenn., to face No. 2 Villanova in a rematch of the Coors Classic Championship game earlier that season. However, like in the Coors Classic, Villanova had a little more at the end, squeaking out a 53-51 win over the Buffaloes.

NCAA TEAMS

1987-88 (21-11)

Colorado's first NCAA Tournament team. The Buffaloes finished 8-6 in the Big Eight and earned a berth to the big dance after a runner-up showing at the Big Eight Tournament. The No. 7 seed in the West, Colorado won its first ever NCAA Tournament game, 78-72, over No. 10 seed Eastern Illinois in Long Beach, Calif. Host and No. 2 seed Long Beach State ended Colorado's first tournament appearance with a 103-64 second round victory.

1988-89 (27-4)

Colorado swept the Big Eight regular season (14-0) and won its first conference tournament championship. The Buffaloes received the No. 3 seed in the West and a first round bye. Colorado also served as a host site for the first time but fell in its first NCAA game at the Coors Events Center, 84-74, to No. 6 seed UNLV.

1991-92 (22-9)

After a two-year break, the Buffaloes returned to the NCAA Tournament, earning the Big Eight's automatic bid following their second tournament championship in four years. The No. 7 seed in the Midwest Region, Colorado fell in a first round game to No. 10 Southern Illinois, 84-80, in overtime in Boulder. While an early exit was not what the team had expected, this would prove to be the first in a fantastic run of six-straight NCAA Tournaments for the Buffaloes, including two Elite Eights.

NCAA TEAMS

1995-96 (26-9)

As difficult as it would be to follow a 30-3 season and a No. 2 national ranking, the 1996 team held its own by winning the Preseason WNIT Tournament. Led by a new generation of Buffaloes, Colorado won its fourth and the final Big Eight Conference Tournament before the league would become the Big 12. Colorado earned the No. 3 seed in the West and defeated Tulane 83-75 in a first-round game in Boulder before falling to No. 6 seed Auburn, 68-61, in the second round.

After a three-year hiatus, Colorado returned to the NCAA Tournament; which would be its first of four straight. The Midwest's No. 6 seed, this year marked the first NCAA Tournament since CU's inaugural appearance in 1988 where the Buffaloes played first- and second-round games away from Boulder. Nashville was the locale for Colorado, which claimed a 98-78 first round win over Siena, before falling to the host and No. 3 seed Vanderbilt Commodores, 65-59, in the second round.

2003-04 (22-8)

Ceal Barry's 12th and final NCAA Tournament team was put in the opposite position of the year before, being a higher-seeded team playing on a lower seeds home floor. Like the year before, Colorado was the No. 6 seed, but this time in the East Region and forced to face No. 11 UC Santa Barbara in a true road game. Colorado fell to USCB, 76-49, in that first round contest.

Colorado had its best season in nearly a decade, placing fourth in the Pac-12 (13-5) and advancing to its 13th NCAA Tournament and first since 2004. Prior to the beginning of the season, the Buffaloes knew they would host first- and second-round games at the Coors Events Center. Colorado earned the No. 5 seed in the Norfolk Region. Former Big 12 rival Kansas, which had made the Sweet 16 the year before, had a disappointing regular season but caught fire late to sneak in as a No. 12 seed. The Jayhawks had the momentum and defeated the Buffaloes 67-52 in the first round before eventually knocking off No. 4 seed South Carolina en route to the Sweet 16.

NCAA ACTION

The Buffs have made 13 trips to March Madness, including six straight in the 1990s (one of 15). When Ceal Barry and the Buffs reached the pinnacle as the No. 1 seed in the Midwest Region in 1995, it was a first for Colorado and the Big Eight Conference.

The fans in Boulder came out in full force for the 1995 Midwest Region first and second rounds, selling out the Buffs' games against Holy Cross and Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) with a then-NCAA record 11,072 for each contest.

From 1993 to 1997, Colorado had one of the more impressive NCAA Tournament runs going 10-5 and advancing to three Sweet 16s and two Elite Eight rounds.

In fact, the Buffs were only one of 10 schools to advance to at least four Sweet 16s in that span and one of 11 to advance to the elite round of eight.

The Coors Events Center has hosted one or more rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament in 12 different seasons, including 1992 where the Buffaloes hosted a first round session as well as the Midwest Regional. Most recently, the Coors Events Center was a first- and second-round site for the Norfolk Regional in 2013, hosting Colorado, South Carolina, Kansas and South Dakota State.

CU has hosted two NCAA tournaments at the Pepsi Center in Denver; the 2001 Midwest Regional and 2006 first and second round games.

REGULAR SEASON CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

1989 Big Eight Champions
(14-0)

Basketball, as in life, offers its share of firsts. And the 1988-89 season was no exception. The Buffs would open the pre-season with a 10-3 showing, including the program's first win over Louisiana Tech. The 61-60 win would be Colorado's first over a No. 2 ranked team and Barry would use that win to catapult the Buffs to a 20-game win streak that would come to a halt during the NCAA Tournament. But not before the Buffs would claim the Big Eight Conference's first undefeated regular season (14-0) title, their first tournament title and lay claim to the program's first conference player-of-the-year in Bridget Turner.

Colorado would graduate five seniors and reload with seven newcomers and leave the league's coaches to believe that they couldn't repeat its feats from the previous year. Although the nation's experts pegged the Buffs the No. 4 preseason team in the country, in the preseason Big Eight coaches poll, the Buffs would be picked to finish behind Kansas come March. Well, the exact opposite happened. Colorado would go 12-2 in conference competition and the preseason player-of-the-year would take a seat behind CU senior Jamillah Lang, crowned the 1994 conference queen.

(12-2)

A team little known to anyone outside the conference circles, the Buffs would take the nation by storm as they took a pre-season No. 25 ranking to No. 9 by March. A 15-game win streak to open the season would turn heads as CU was the country's seventh-ranked team when it opened the Big Eight campaign—a convincing 61-33 win over Kansas State in Boulder. The Buffs would live up to their preseason expectations to take the conference title, although few probably thought they would do it so convincingly, outscoring their league opponents by an average of more than 15 points a game.

If the 1989 conference season was a season of firsts, then the '95 campaign was when the Buffs would prove that history can repeat itself, and still provide some firsts. Following a 5-2 start, Colorado would go on a 25-game win streak, including the league's only second unblemished 14-0 conference record. Colorado's 74-71 win at Kansas State in the conference finale would put the seal on the league's only regular season conference three-peat and second straight conference player-of-the-year award winner in Shelley Sheetz. As they did in the 1993 postseason, the '95 Buffs would be the conference's second team to advance to a regional final in NCAA play.

CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONSHIPS1989 Big Eight

Colorado's first conference tournament championship was icing on the cake of a dominant regular season where the Buffaloes swept the Big Eight (14-0). Having finished as runner up two of the previous three years, Colorado finally broke through in the championship game, and in dramatic fashion, needing double overtime to defeat Oklahoma State 98-92. Big Eight Player of the Year Bridget Turner took home Tournament MVP honors.

1992 Big Eight

Colorado started the 1992 Big Eight season at 0-3, but rallied to win 14 straight; 11 to finish the regular season and three more to capture its second tournament championship. Big Eight Newcomer of the Year Shelley Sheetz earned Tournament MVP honors leading the Buffaloes to wins over Kansas State (79-27), Nebraska (74-66) and Kansas (70-53). Colorado returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since its last Big Eight Tournament title team in 1989.

1995 Big Eight

Arguably the best women's basketball team in program history. Led by Player of the Year Shelley Sheetz and Newcomer of the Year Isabelle Fijalkowski, Colorado swept through the Big Eight regular season and tournament. That string of 17 wins was part of a larger 25-game win streak that vaulted the Buffaloes to the No. 2 national ranking and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Sheetz, earning her second Tournament MVP, led CU to wins over Iowa State (73-38), Oklahoma State (76-58) and Kansas (61-45) in the title game.

1996 Big Eight

Kansas put an end to Colorado's string of three-straight Big Eight regular season titles, but the Buffaloes would get the last laugh in more ways than one. After wins over Oklahoma (76-60) and Oklahoma State (69-59), Colorado upended Kansas (75-47) for its second-straight tournament title. What made this win even more special was it was the final tournament for the Big Eight as both the Buffaloes and Jayhawks would begin Big 12 Conference play that next season.

1997 Big 12

A new conference, but similar results for Colorado, as the old Big Eight and four Southwest Conference schools made up the new Big 12. Colorado finished third in its first Big 12 regular season, earning a No. 3 seed and first round bye. Sporting a roster full of players with plenty of "tournament time" experience, Colorado stormed past Iowa State (56-39), Texas (64-50) and Kansas State (54-44) to claim the inaugural Big 12 Tournament Championship and the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Longest Home Win Streak: 53 (Feb. 20, 1980, through Nov. 19, 1983)

Longest Home Conference Streak: 31 (Jan. 25, 1992, through Feb. 2, 1996)

Since 1979, the Coors Events Center on the southwest edge of the Boulder main campus has been home to Colorado women's basketball. It is the home of the NCAA's eighth-longest all-time home court win streak, the Big Eight Conference's longest home league streak and home to five undefeated home seasons.

The most dramatic changes in the 32-year history of the Coors Events Center have taken place in the last four years, culminating with the dedication of a 43,000 square foot practice facility in August 2011.

CU made the commitment to enhance the basketball program by reconfiguring the second level of the Coors Events Center for a basketball operations center. The headquarters for Colorado Basketball, completed in April 2008, allows the Buffs' coaches, student-athletes and staff more convenient access to the playing floor, practice gym, locker rooms, weight room and sports medicine facilities within the Events Center.

COORS EVENTS CENTER

During the summer of 2008 the Coors Events Center underwent a $200,000 "Floor Lift" as a permanent maple surface was installed. The high grade maple gives the floor and almost white appearance and features the signature Buffalo on Sox Walseth Court.

The $10.8 million practice facility, built from private funding, opened in August 2011 adding two full basketball/volleyball courts, a new women's basketball locker room and additional coaches offices and meeting rooms. The facility is attached to the north side of the Coors Events Center and allows CU basketball and volleyball student-athletes greater access and teams better flexibility in practice and workout scheduling.

The structure matches the campus architectural Charles Klauder theme, a northern Italian, rural Tuscany influence, with varicolored sandstone and red-tiled roofs to match the other 200-plus buildings on the CU-Boulder campus.

The practice facility was given LEED Platinum Certification, the highest possible by the internationally recognized system developed by the US Green Building Council. As of the summer 2011, 557 buildings in the world have achieved it, 473 in the US. Of the 473 in the US, only 31 other buildings in all of higher education nationwide have met the standard, and this is the second athletic facility beside Florida's west stadium expansion.

The Coors Events Center is within walking distance from all points of campus, and parking for Colorado basketball games is free to the public in the parking garage located just north of the arena. The southwest entrance faces the majestic flatirons, the mountains located west of campus, providing Colorado fans with one of most beautiful views in all of collegiate athletics when they arrive to the game. Coors has hosted its share of concerts. Bob Dylan, Jack Ingram and Juice Newton are just some of the artists who have taken the stage in the Events Center, providing an indoor venue for CU students and Boulder residents equipped to attract some of the best entertainers in the World.

COLORADO BASKETBALL MILESTONES

March 19, 1898—Miss Longon (of East Denver) organizes a team and is elected captain. The first girls' basketball game is played at the University and Denver East High School defeats the University, 21-9.

1902 Team

March 14, 1902—University defeats Agricultural College, 47-8.

January 17, 1975—A 57-54 win over Weber State, in the season-opener in Boulder, gives the program its first win. It also marks Colorado's first varsity game and first as a member of the Intermountain Conference.

March 20, 1978—Maureen "Rene" Portland is named Colorado's third head women's basketball coach.

May 11, 1979—Corky O'Rourke (Most Valuable Player Award), Sue Horner (Senior and Leadership Award), Lizz Brugger (Coach's Award) and Kim Scheidt (Most Improved Player Award) are honored at the first University of Colorado women's sports banquet.

May 25, 1979—The Big Eight Conference voted to sponsor championship events for women in 10 sports on a one-year trial basis.

July 11, 1979—Rene Portland named coordinator of women's athletics at CU.

November 16, 1979—The Buffs play their first game in the Coors Events/Conference Center, and christen the arena with a 112-48 win over in-state rival Colorado State.

December 16, 1980—After a 7-0 start on the season, Colorado is ranked in the Associated Press for the first time in the program's history. The Buffs are ranked 20th and celebrate with a 134-33 win over Fort Carson.

June 14, 1980—Sox Walseth, after a 20-year career with the CU men's team, is named Colorado's fourth women's basketball coach.

January 15, 1983—Colorado's first game as a member of the Big Eight Conference. The Buffs lose at Kansas State, 59-75.

March 11, 1983—With four rebounds in the first half against Kansas State, Lisa Van Goor becomes the first Colorado basketball player, male or female, to grab 1,000 rebounds. She reached the milestone in only her third season.

April 12, 1983—Ceal Barry was named Colorado's fifth head coach in program history.

February 23, 1985—Fifth-year senior Lisa Van Goor scores 19 points against Kansas State to become the first basketball player in Colorado history, male or female, to eclipse the 2,000-point career mark, passing Cliff Meely's 1,940 points. She also became the first CU player to score 2,000 points and grab 1,000 boards.

February 25, 1989—Colorado beats Kansas, 70-51, in Lawrence, to become the first Big Eight Conference team to register an undefeated (14-0) conference record.

March 28, 1989—A crowd of 11,199 fans pack the Coors Events/Conference Center to watch No. 9 Colorado play then-No. 16 UNLV in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. It is the largest crowd to watch a women's basketball game in Boulder.

November 24, 1992—Colorado is ranked in the preseason AP poll for the first time in the program's history. The Buffs enter the 1992-93 season as the nation's 25th-ranked team.

March 20, 1993—An 81-74 win over UC-Santa Barbara in the second round of the NCAA Tournament catapults the Buffs into the Sweet 16 for the first time in the program's history. Colorado would go on to beat defending national champion Stanford, 80-67, in the regional semifinal before falling to eventual national champion Texas Tech, 79-54, in the regional final.

April 16, 1993—After 19 seasons as the Lady Buffs, head coach Ceal Barry announces that the team will be referred to as the Buffaloes, dropping the moniker, Lady.

February 25, 1994—The Big 12 Conference is formed when Baylor, Texas A&M, Texas and Texas Tech merge with existing Big Eight Conference schools Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, to create one of the most formidable women's basketball conferences in the country.

February 26, 1995—Colorado escapes a last second shot and beats Kansas State, 74-71, in Manhattan, to become only the second team in Big Eight history to have an undefeated (14-0) league season.

March 13, 1995—Colorado is voted the second-ranked team in the country in the final Associated Press poll of the 1994-95 season. It is the highest ranking in the program's and Rene Portland's 1979-80 team was Colorado's first to be nationally ranked.

November 17, 1997—Eisha Bohman, Britt Hartshorn, Mandy Nightingale, Linda Lappe and Jenny Roulier sign National Letters of Intent to attend Colorado. The class of 2002 is Barry's second-straight top-10 recruiting class.

February 25, 1998—With a 78-65 win over Missouri, Ceal Barry earns her 300th win at Colorado.

March 14, 1999—Shelley Garcia's collegiate career comes to a close as a member of the second winningest class in CU history (110-48). Ceal Barry coaches 400th game at Colorado.

November 26, 1999—Colorado defeats Wright State 76-49, earning head coach Ceal Barry her 400th career victory.

January 18, 2000—Ceal Barry coaches her 500th game at Colorado, becoming just the fourth person in CU history to coach that many games, meets or matches.

January 22, 2001—Buffs earn first national ranking since the 1997-98 season, checking in at No. 25 in the Associated Press Poll.

March 11, 2001—Colorado earns its ninth bid to the NCAA Tournament, first since 1997. They will face Siena in a first round game at Vanderbilt University.

November 9, 2001—Britt Hartshorn becomes the 16th 1,000 point scorer for Colorado and the first for CU since 1997 with four points against Oral Roberts. She would be joined later in that month by classmates Jenny Roulier (Nov. 11) and Mandy Nightingale (Nov. 23), making the trio the first in CU history to reach the 1,000 point mark not only in the same month, but also in the same season.

February 3, 2002—On the strength of a 40-foot three pointer by Mandy Nightingale, Colorado defeats No. 12 Texas Tech in Lubbock in overtime, giving CU its first-ever road win with over 10,000 fans in attendance.

March 23, 2002—Randie Wirt hits two free throws with eight seconds left to clinch a Colorado upset over No. 2 seed and No. 5 ranked Stanford in the West Regional Semifinal, sending the third-seeded Buffaloes to their first Elite Eight since 1995.

January 26, 2003—Tera Bjorklund becomes the 19th player in CU history to score 1,000 points, and just the sixth junior to do so, seventh non-senior.

November 28, 2003—Ceal Barry won her 400th game as CU's head coach as the Buffaloes defeated Idaho State 95-65 in the first round of the 17th annual Coors Classic.

January 28, 2004—Russell "Sox" Walseth, the legendary University of Colorado basketball coach who was likely the first and one of only a few to have coached both the men's and women's basketball teams at the same NCAA school, passed away after a two-year battle with cancer at the age of 77.

February 24, 2004—A 75-56 home win over Kansas gave Ceal Barry career win No. 500.

Feb. 24, 2005—Head coach Ceal Barry announced she would retire at the end of the season after 22 years on the CU bench. Her 427 wins are the most by any coach in CU history as she led the Buffs to 12 NCAA appearances and 13 20-win seasons.

Apr. 27, 2005—Athletic Director Mike Bohn announced the hiring of Kathy McConnell-Miller to become the sixth head coach in the 31-year history of CU women's basketball.

Sox Walseth's 1982 team not only set or tied 30 school records, but was also Colorado's most dominant in NCAA season stats.

CU celebrates another NCAA Tournament win.

1992-93 Big Eight Champions

November 18, 2006—Colorado defeated Cal State-Fullerton 100-71 in Kathy McConnell-Miller's coaching debut with the Buffaloes. Jasmina Ilic and Jackie McFarland each had 34 points marking the first time two CU players had scored 30 or more points in a single game. Senior Whitney Law dished out a school-record 15 assists as McConnell-Miller's team recorded the most points in a coaching debut of active Big 12 coaches.

February 26, 2006—Kathy McConnell-Miller picked up career win No. 100 as the Buffs defeated Oklahoma State 73-62 at the Coors Events Conference Center. Ironically it was against OSU which McConnell-Miller picked her first career head coaching win seven years earlier while at Tulsa.

November 25, 2007—Colorado claimed a 78-65 win over Charlotte in the Coors Classic for Buffaloes' 300th win at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

November 29, 2007—Colorado defeated in-state rival Colorado State for the 600th win in program history.

March 2, 2007—Junior Jackie McFarland was named to the All Big 12 Conference first team, by a vote of league coaches. She is just the second CU player so honored in the Big 12 era, joining Tera Bjorklund.

March 6, 2007—Jackie McFarland scored a Big 12 Championship first round game record 32 points to lead Colorado to a 71-67 win over Texas Tech, its first Big 12 Tournament win in four seasons. McFarland's 32 points also tied the best output by a CU player in Big 12 Championship action, matching Tera Bjorklund's 32 against Oklahoma in the 2003 quarterfinals.

December 9, 2007—Colorado won 62-51 at No. 20(AP)/17(WBCA) Vanderbilt for CU's first win over the perennial SEC power. Combined with a win over No. 22/21 in their previous outing, the Buffaloes had wins over ranked teams in back-to-back games for the first time since the 2002 NCAA Tournament and also their first win as an unranked team on an ranked opponents home floor in more than a decade.

December 24, 2007—On the heels of seven straight wins, including two over ranked opponents, Colorado cracked the Associated Press Top 25 poll for the first time in four seasons, debuting at No. 25. With the ranking, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to play for and coach an AP ranked team.

January 9, 2008—Colorado opened the Big 12 season with a 70-58 win at Missouri, giving the Buffaloes their 11th straight win; a streak that ranks seventh in team history. Freshman Brittany Spears scored 24 points against the Tigers, the second most in team history by a freshman in her first league game.

March 24, 2008—Colorado played in its first postseason game in four years, and for just the second time in the postseason WNIT, defeating Gonzaga, 82-68, at the Coors Events Center.

April 2, 2008—Colorado played its first-ever game in the month of April, falling to eventual champion Marquette, 86-72, in the semifinals of the Postseason WNIT in Boulder. The appearance in the semifinals was the deepest postseason tournament run in team history.

March 12, 2009—Brittany Spears scored 23 points in the final game of the season, against Kansas State in the Big 12 Championship, to become the second sophomore in team history to reach 1,000 career points.

March 25, 2010—CU Athletics held a ground breaking ceremony for a basketball/volleyball practice facility adjacent to the north side of the Coors Events Center. The project is the first dramatic change to the Coors Events Center since it opened in 1979 and will add 43,000 square feet of space including two dedicated basketball/volleyball courts and locker rooms for the women's team.

April 12, 2010—CU alum and former Buffaloes standout Linda Lappe is named the seventh head coach in the program's 36-year history.

November 12, 2010—Linda Lappe records her first win as Colorado head coach as the Buffaloes shut down Regis 76-38 in the season opener.

January 15, 2011—Linda Lappe gains her first Big 12 win in dramatic fashion, leading Colorado to a 66-60 overtime win over No. 17/16 Iowa State.

February 23, 2011—In their final meeting as long-time conference rivals, Colorado upsets No. 16/15 Oklahoma, 73-68 in Boulder. More significantly, the win sparks a late season three-game winning streak that allows the Buffaloes to climb over .500 and advance to postseason play for just the second time since 2004.

February 26, 2011—Senior Brittany Spears becomes the second player in CU history to reach 2,000 career points on a 3-pointer during the second half of a 63-59 win at Missouri.

March 8, 2011—Brittany Spears scores her 2,068th career point during CU's Big 12 Championship first round game against Kansas to become CU's all-time leading scorer, passing Lisa Van Goor.

July 1, 2011—Colorado becomes a member of the Pac-12 Conference joining Utah as the league grows from 10 to 12 teams.

August 20, 2011—Colorado Athletics officially dedicates its new 43,000 square foot basketball and volleyball practice facility.

December 21, 2011—Freshman Lexy Kresl hit a 3-pointer at the buzzer to give Colorado a 52-49 win over Creighton in the final game of the UTSA Holiday Classic. The win preserved the Buffaloes second-ever perfect nonconference record (11-0), joining the 1992-93 team which won all 12 regular season non-league contests.

December 31, 2011—Colorado won its first Pac-12 Conference game with a dramatic come-from-behind 58-52 win at Utah in Salt Lake City. The Buffaloes trailed by 10 late in the second half before finishing the game on a 20-4 run. The win also allowed Colorado to match its second-best start in team history at 12-0.

COLORADO BASKETBALL MILESTONES

March 25, 2012—Chucky Jeffery recorded her second career triple-double, and just the third in team history, with 12 points, 12 rebounds in 10 assists at Oklahoma State in the quarterfinals of the Postseason WNIT. The Buffaloes dropped a competitive 78-70 decision to the eventual tournament champions.

Dec. 14, 2012—Colorado upsets No. 8 and eventual NCAA runner-up Louisville 70-66 at the Coors Events Center, giving the Buffaloes their 14th win over a Top 10 opponent and first since 2002. Three days later, Colorado would crack the AP Top 25 for the first time since 2007-08. The ranking also made head coach Linda Lappe the eighth woman to play for an AP ranked team and then return to coach her alma mater to an AP ranking.

Dec. 29, 2012—Colorado's 84-39 win over New Mexico clinched the program's second straight undefeated non-conference season (11-0) and extended the team's non-conference regular season winning streak to 24 games.

Mar. 8, 2013—Colorado defeats Washington 70-59 in the Pac-12 Tournament, advancing the Buffaloes to a league tournament semifinal round for the first time since 2003. The win was also the Buffaloes 10th straight overall, combining with the 11-game preseason win streak, it marked the first time in team history Colorado had two winning streaks of 10 or more games in the same season.

Mar. 18, 2013—For the first time in nearly a decade, Colorado's name was called on Selection Monday as the Buffaloes received their 14th NCAA Tournament bid. The Buffaloes were given the No. 5 seed in the Norfolk Region of the NCAA Tournament. Colorado hosted Kansas, South Carolina and South Dakota State in First- and Second-Round games at the Coors Events Center.

Julie Seabrook scored 17 points to lift Colorado to a win in its first ever Pac-12 game, a 58-52 decision at Utah on Dec. 31, 2011.

CU ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

The University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1998 to recognize outstanding individual and team accomplishments and to preserve the heritage and tradition of the CU Athletic Department.

Appropriately, one of CU's most distinguished alumni, former United States Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, was the lone member inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 1998.

The CU Athletic Hall of Fame includes 59 individuals and one team. CU women's basketball is represented by five individuals, four players and one coach. The players are Lisa Van Goor (1999), Shelley Sheetz (2004), Tera Bjorklund (2010) and Bridget Turner (2010). Former head coach Ceal Barry was also inducted in 2010.
