

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Jamee Swan

Forward • 6-2 • Senior • 3L • Marana, Ariz. (Marana)

Coming off her most consistent season, Jamee Swan has moved into the upper echelon of front court players in the Pac-12. She is a fiery, passionate forward that gives Colorado a solid post presence. She is a dynamic rebounder who has the strength to finish down low, but can also move to the outside and play with her face to the basket.

Career: Colorado's active leader in scoring, rebounding and blocked shots. She enters her senior year ranking sixth in blocks (126), 14th in double-doubles (10) and 17th in rebounds (577) on CU's all-time lists. With 866 points she is well on pace to become the 28th member of CU's 1,000 point club.

2014-15 (Junior): Earned honorable mention to the 2015 All-Pac-12 Conference team after leading Colorado in scoring (13.2 ppg), rebounding (7.9 rpg) and blocked shots (1.9 bpg). Her 62 blocked shots rank fifth on Colorado's single-season list. She shot 46.7 percent on the season and also led the Buffaloes in free throws made (101) and attempted (141) while ranking third in assists (60). Swan scored in double-figures a team-best 22 times including six of her last eight and 12 of her last 15. Swan also led the team with eight double-doubles and 10 double-digit rebounding games. In the Pac-12 Swan ranked second in blocks, fourth in offensive rebounds (3.2 orpg), sixth in overall rebounding, 12th in defensive rebounds (4.8 drpg), 13th in scoring and 15th in field goal percentage. She had three games with five blocks, standing as both career and team season highs (Long Beach State, USC and Washington State). Against Long Beach State (12/30), she established a career and team season high with 15 rebounds. Swan had 43 percent of Colorado's blocked shots as the Buffaloes total of 144 blocks is the fourth most in one season in team history. Swan reached the 20-point mark on five occasions, including a career-best 28-point performance at Washington State (1/25) a game in which she also set a personal best with 12 field goals made. She had a great overall weekend in the Pacific Northwest, scoring 22 points, 11 rebounds and a career-best six assists at Washington (1/23). Swan averaged 13.3 points, 8.3 rebounds and 2.3 blocks during the Pac-12 Tournament. She had 15 points, five rebounds and four blocks in the first round win over USC (3/5). The next night she had 18 points, a game-high 13 rebounds, and two blocks in Colorado's upset win over No. 8/9 and top seeded Oregon State in the quarterfinals.

2013-14 (Sophomore): Led Colorado in both field-goal percentage (.505) and blocked shots (36) while ranking third in rebounding (5.3 rpg). On the Pac-12

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Conference leaderboard, Swan was fifth in field-goal percentage, eighth in blocks (1.1 bpg) and 15th in offensive rebounds (2.4 orpg). She had 12 double-figure scoring games, and shot particularly well in those outings (76-of-128, 59.4 when in double figures). She shot 50 percent or better in 10 of those instances, including a 7-of-9 effort resulting in 16 points in the WNIT win over TCU (3/19). Swan netted a career-high 25 points in just 18 minutes in the home loss to Washington (2/14), hitting 9-of-12 from the field and 7-of-10 from the free-throw line. That career-best night was the middle game of a three-game stretch where she scored 53 points in just 54 minutes (at Oregon, Washington, Washington State). Swan recorded her second career double-double with 20 points and a career-best 13 rebounds against No. 4 ranked Stanford (1/12). She had one other double-digit rebounding game, pulling down 10 in the Pac-12 Tournament first round win over UCLA (3/6). She had a memorable homecoming in Colorado's come-from-behind overtime win at Arizona (2/23). Swan scored 18 points, grabbed seven rebounds and recorded a career- and team season-high six steals against the Wildcats. She also hit a short jumper with 0.9 seconds remaining which sent the game into overtime. Swan was only one of two Buffs (with Rachel Hargis) to appear in all 34 games. She logged eight starts, mostly coming in the early portion of the Pac-12 season.

2012-13 (Freshman): Swan led Colorado in field-goal accuracy at 45.5 percent (66-of-145) and ranked second in blocks (28) and fourth in rebounding (4.5 rpg). Her success from the field actually improved to 48.1 percent (39-of-81) during Pac-12 play and she was the team's third-best rebounder during the league schedule (4.6 rpg). Swan appeared in all 32 games and logged one start which came in the second contest of her career. In that game at UMKC (11/18), she scored 14 points on 6-of-9 from the field with three rebounds. Swan wasn't intimidated by the nation's best. At No. 6/6 Stanford (1/27) she

GETTING TO KNOW JAMEE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Having 11 sisters

Favorite quote: "Keep moving forward" - Walt Disney

The best moment from your 2014-15 season: Beating OSU in the Pac-12 Tournament

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Walk down Pearl Street.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Amazing Race with my mom because we watched it a lot growing up.

One word to describe me off the court is: Goofy

My pregame rituals are: Take a nap, listen to music, get taped and sit alone.

One thing people don't know about me is: My ears are different sizes

The three things I cannot live without are: Movies, friends, internet

Best talent not related to basketball: Eating more food than the average bear

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: When me and ZBF [Zoe Beard-Fails] hid in Jen Reese's Room and scared her in Iowa.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Volleyball

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Tony Parker

Your all-time 'Starting 5': Larry Bird, Scotty Pippen, Michael Jordan, Kareem Abdul Jabbar, Wilt Chamberlain

Do you have any hidden talents?: I can lick my nose, and make the Chewbacca noise

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Lauren Huggins

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: When I was 2, my mom would take me to her practices

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: J. Cole, Kanye, Fetty Wap, Frank Oceans, G-Eazy, Justin Bieber, Kid Ink, Zedd, Kyle, Keith Urban, Ke$ha, and many more

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Denver Broncos and Oklahoma City Thunder

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: "Keep movin' forward"

I wish I knew how to...: Play the piano

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: "Be the very best that no one ever was" -Pokemon

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: Communicating

If I could meet any famous person it would be: J.Cole

And I would ask that person: What motivated him to keep going and pursue his dreams, even when life got him way down?

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My mom because she has done everything she can to put me and my brother through school.

My plans after graduation are: Hopefully play basketball overseas and in the WNBA

My favorite class at CU: Sign language with Willy

My hero is: My mommy

Advice to young athletes: Never stop chasing your dreams. If you want something to change don't wait for it to do it. "Unless someone like you cares an awful lot, nothing is going to get better, its' not" - The Lorax by Dr. Seuss

Lauren Huggins

Guard/Forward • 6-2 • Junior • 3L • Littleton, Colo. (Heritage)

Lauren Huggins progressed nicely in her second full season, asserting herself as one of the premier 3-point shooters in the Pac-12. She has range that extends well beyond the 3-point arc. The first Colorado signee of the Linda Lappe era, she provides the back court with a fantastic scoring option from long distance. Continuing the development of her all-around game will be key for Huggins to build upon as she enters her junior season.

Career: Ranks 15th in career 3-pointers with 83 and 16th in 3-point attempts at 222.

2014-15 (Sophomore): A regular in the rotation, she played in all 32 games averaging 4.5 points and 1.6 rebounds. Huggins was second on the team with 43 3-pointers and hit 38.4 percent from long range, ranking 11th in the Pac-12. Her percentage tied Annan Wilson (1989-90) for the 19th best single-season performance in team history (based on a minimum of 50 attempts). She made 14 of her final 28 from 3-point range including 7-of-13 over her final four contests. All but two of her season's field goals came from beyond the 3-point arc. Huggins scored a season-high 12 points, hitting 4-of-7 from 3-point range, in the double overtime win over Colorado State (11/29). Three of her 3-pointers came during the overtime sessions; two in the final minute of the first overtime, including one with 1.7 seconds left to force double overtime. Huggins had a nearly identical outing in her next game scoring 12 points on 4-of-7 shooting against San Jose State (12/5). She totaled four games scoring in double figures, the last coming in CU's Pac-12 Tournament win over USC (3/5) where she had 11 points, hitting all three 3-point attempts. Huggins scored the final point in Colorado's upset win over No. 8/9 ranked and top seeded Oregon State in the Pac-12 quarterfinals. After the Beavers made a shot to close CU's lead to two points, Huggins controlled the inbounds pass and hit a free throw to provide the final margin.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

2013-14 (Freshman - Medical Hardship): Appeared in 26 games, all-off the bench, and ranked second on the team with 36 3-point field goals. Huggins was Colorado's most accurate long-range shooter, hitting on 36.4 percent beyond the arc, a mark good enough to rank 11th in the Pac-12 Conference. She scored a career-high 16 points in the win over Alcorn State (11/15), hitting a team season-best five 3-pointers. Huggins matched that output later in the season, during the home win over Arizona (1/24), she made 5-of-8 from downtown, finishing with 15 points. She had a good all-around game against Iowa (11/20), scoring nine points, on 3-of-6 from 3-point range, with a personal-best five rebounds to go with two assists and two steals. During that stretch of Alcorn State, Iowa and at New Mexico (11/23), Huggins made 12-of-24 (.500) from downtown. She had nine games with at least two 3-pointers and hit one in each of Colorado's five postseason contests, making 7-of-13 during that run (.538).

2012-13 (Freshman): Huggins played in five games, averaging 2.4 points and 1.2 rebound in 6.0 minutes per game. She scored all 12 of her season's points on 3-pointers, connecting on 4-of-11 from downtown (.364). Her most extended time came against Colorado State (12/5) where she played 17 minutes and recorded six points, three rebounds, one steal and one blocked shot. Shortly after that game was when she was diagnosed with a stress fracture in her right leg that ultimately ended her season. She was granted a medical hardship by the NCAA in the Summer of 2013.

High School: A 2012 graduate of Heritage High School in Littleton, Huggins is the first Colorado signee for Linda Lappe's coaching staff. A two-time All-Continental League first team selection, Huggins helped the Eagles to an 18-7 record as a senior and a spot in the Sweet 16 of the Class 5A Colorado State Tournament. She was rated as the 64th best player in the nation and the 11th best wing by ESPN HoopGurlz. She starred at 2012 edition of "The Show" Colorado's annual high school basketball all-star game played at the Pepsi Center. Huggins was named MVP of the contest, scoring a game-high 15 points, hitting on 5-of-6 from 3-point range, in her "Blue" team's 69-48 win. As a junior she averaged 12 points and nearly eight rebounds per game, guiding the Eagles to the 2011 Class 5A Sweet 16. A two-time honorable mention to the Class 5A All-State team, she played her club basketball with the Boulder Rockies.

Academics: Huggins is majoring in integrative physiology at CU. She earned honorable mention to the 2014 Pac-12 Women's Basketball All-Academic team.

Personal: Born on March 28, 1994, she is the daughter of Jerry and Tracy Huggins of Littleton. She has two older sisters, Erin, a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines, and Megan a senior at CU.

GETTING TO KNOW LAUREN

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: Getting to represent my home state and represent what Colorado Basketball is all about.

Favorite quote: "The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy." - Martin Luther King Jr.

The best moment from your 2014-15 season: Beating Oregon State (who was ranked #1 in the conference) in the Pac-12 Tournament.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Hike the Flatirons

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: Survivor, because growing up, my dad and I would watch it every Wednesday and I think that the concept behind it is very cool.

One word to describe me off the court is: Spontaneous

My pregame rituals are: Before I hook my music up to spread the wealth of my musical insight, I like to listen to the same five songs before every game.

One thing people don't know about me is: That I still sleep with my baby blanket and every time we travel, I take it with me.

The three things I cannot live without are: Wi-Fi, double stuffed Oreos, and my family

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else.: Bri Watts battle through plenty of adversity and continue to have a positive attitude and outlook every day.

Best talent not related to basketball: Knowing all the words to almost every song.

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: We like to pull little pranks on each other, especially when we are on the road, such as stealing the other room's remote to change the channels on the TV when they have no idea, or hiding in each other's rooms after meals and jumping out and scaring each other.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Volleyball

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Kobe Bryant

Your all-time 'Starting 5': Michael Jordan, Larry Bird, Kobe Bryant, Maya Moore, Elena Delle Donne

Do you have any hidden talents?: As much as I wish I did, I can't claim any secret talents.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: I would

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: I started playing basketball when I was four years old. My dad put a basketball in my hands, taught me how to shoot, and the rest is history.

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: Future and Drake

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Denver Broncos

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most: Philippians 4:13

I wish I knew how to...: Sing

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: To raise a family

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: How to apply mental toughness in all other aspects of my life as well as keeping a competitive mindset in all situations of my life.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Michael Jordan

And I would ask that person: What was it like to be the best in the world at one point in his life and is he proud of the legacy that he left.

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Zoe C [Correal] and Brecca [Thomas] have dance routines to specific songs that have clearly been well rehearsed. Some of them are good while others are. . . interesting to say the least.

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: The most inspirational person in my life would be my grandfather who has had Type I diabetes for 50+ years but has never allowed that to change his lifestyle. He continues to take river floats, climb mountains and live life to the fullest.

My plans after graduation are: Continue to go to school to become a Physical Therapist

My favorite class at CU: Human Anatomy Lab

My hero is: My dad

Advice to young athletes: Don't let anyone tell you that your dreams are unrealistic and work hard for what you want.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Zoe Beard-Fails

Forward • 6-1 • Junior • 2L • Herndon, Va.
(Georgetown Day {Wash. D.C.})

Zoe Beard-Fails is a strong and competitive forward who has the ability to score on the inside with a variety of post moves, but can also step outside and hit from 3-point range. Colorado's third Virginia native, Beard-Fails showed she can play well in a crowded post area, winning plenty of 50-50 balls and converting in traffic.

2014-15 (Sophomore): Saw action in 31 games, averaging 3.5 points and 2.7 rebounds. Beard-Fails was second on the team in blocked shots with 16. She logged seven starts, five of them coming in December & January as the nonconference schedule ended and Pac-12 slate began. Beard-Fails had a career-night in one of those starts, scoring 14 points and grabbing eight rebounds in the nonconference finale against Long Beach State (12/30). She also played a career-most 31 minutes in that game, hitting 7-of-13 from the field. She did well from the line hitting just under 71 percent (36-of-51). In the Preseason WNIT quarterfinal against Western Kentucky (11/17) she established personal bests with eight free throws on 10 attempts. Beard-Fails was a perfect 6-of-6 from the charity stripe in the win over Wyoming (12/21).

2013-14 (Freshman): Played in 27 games as a first-year Buffalo, averaging just under three points per outing. She shot well on limited opportunities, hitting 52.8 percent from the field (28-of-53) as most of her offense came directly off the blocks. Her time on the court increased considerably down the stretch playing in 18 of the last 19 games including the final 10. She scored a career-best 10 points on 5-of-6 shooting in just nine minutes in the regular season finale

High School: Beard-Fails is a 2013 graduate of Georgetown Day School in Washington D.C. She averaged 17 points and 10 rebounds as a senior, guiding the Mighty Hoppers to a runner up finish at the District of Columbia Interscholastic Athletic Association (DCIAA) state championship. She owns school single-game records for points (42), rebounds (27), free-throws made (22) and free-throws attempted (24). Beard-Fails was a 2013 Washington Post "All-Met" Third Team selection and named to the Independent School League All-Conference team. Additionally, she claimed the Alain-Ciaco Sportsmanship Award and was a McDonald's All-America nominee. She averaged 26 points and nearly 18 rebounds as a sophomore for Georgetown Day in 2010-11, earning fourth team All-Met honors from the Washington Post. Beard-Fails played her freshman season at South Lakes High School in Reston, Va., where she averaged 16 points and 7 rebounds, earning first team all-district and second team all-region honors. CU was able to bring Beard-Fails from the east coast in part because she already knew current Buffaloes assistants LaTonya Watson, from her days at American University, and Kelly Rae Finley from her tenure at Harvard. Beard-Fails was rated the 51st forward in the nation by ESPN.com's Hoop Gurlz. She played club ball with the Boo Williams program, participating on the team that was the 2011 Nike National runner-up. Beard-Fails' club experience also extended to national tournaments and camps at Michigan, Duke, Stanford and Tennessee. She participated in the USA U-16 Trials in 2011.

Academics: Beard-Fails is an advertising major at Colorado and earned honorable mention to the 2015 Pac-12 Women's Basketball All-Academic team. Following her freshman year, she spent time with three different women in journalism, to learn about their careers. First was former Buffalo and Denver Fox 31 sports reporter/anchor Kami Carmann.

Haley Smith

Guard/Forward • 6-2 • Junior 2L • Sammamish, Wash. (Skyline)

Haley Smith is a strong, athletic wing who can elevate over smaller players with a nice true jump shot. She took her game to the next level between her freshman and sophomore seasons. Working tirelessly on her shot, she became a dangerous outside scoring threat that nicely complimented the development of her all-around game. Just the second Washington native in program history, Smith is an outstanding student as well and has all the right tools to become a team leader over the next two years.

2014-15 (Sophomore): Started all 32 games on the wing averaging 9.5 points and 5.4 rebounds per game. Smith led Colorado and ranked ninth in the Pac-12 in field goal percentage (.472). She hit 88 percent from the line (51-of-58) but fell just below the minimum number of attempts to be ranked on the league leaderboard. That number was good enough though for the ninth best single-season mark in team history (minimum 50 attempts). Smith was a perfect 11-for-11 from the free throw line in the home win over Utah (1/14). Both numbers represent career highs for Smith with the 11 free throws made tying for the team season high along with Jen Reese (11-of-13) and Lexy Kresl (11-of-16). Smith's 11-for-11 outing also ties for Colorado's fourth best single game performance for free throws made with out a miss. That outing was part of a larger four game stretch where she made 20 straight free throws. Smith made 91.9 percent (34-of-37) from the foul line against Pac-12 opponents. She recorded her first career double-double in the overtime win over San Jose State (12/5) with 24 points and 12 rebounds. Those were career-best numbers as was her 10-of-14 performance from the field. Smith scored in double-digits in 13 games, including a Pac-12 high 19 points in the home loss to UCLA (1/11). She had 16 points against USC in the first round of the Pac-12 Tournament, hitting 6-of-10 from the field and a perfect 4-of-4 from the free throw line. Smith averaged 10.7 points on 57 percent shooting during the Pac-12 Tournament. She was third on the team in rebounding, grabbing at least five rebounds in 24 of 32 games.

2013-14 (Freshman): Averaged 3.5 points, 2.3 rebounds and just over one assist as a first year Buffalo. She was thrust into a starting role during the early part of the Pac-12 Conference season, once junior Jasmine Sborov was lost for the season with a foot injury. Smith started the final 20 games of the season and saw her numbers increase to 4.9 points, 3.1 rebounds and 1.3 assists in that role. Her all-around game picked up piece-by-piece as the season went along. Her first career start came against defending Pac-12 champion and No. 4 ranked Stanford (1/12), and while her numbers were minimal, two points in 17 minutes, Smith began a foundation to build on. One week later, in front of her home town team, she grabbed seven rebounds and made her first career 3-pointer at Washington (1/19). She just missed a double-double by scoring eight points and grabbing a personal-best eight rebounds in the home win over Utah (2/2). Smith registered career numbers in the home win over UCLA (2/28), scoring 11 points on 5-of-10 shooting and matched her personal best with eight rebounds. Smith averaged 6.6 points over five postseason games. She put on a gutsy performance in the Pac-12 Tournament quarterfinal loss to No. 4/3 Stanford (3/7). Battling flu-like symptoms, she recorded her second career double-digit game with 10 points, hitting 5-of-7 from the field, along with three rebounds and a pair of assists in 20 minutes.

High School: Smith is a 2013 graduate of Skyline High School. She averaged 12 points and nine rebounds, guiding the Spartans to a 20-7 record and a spot in the 2013 Washington 4A Girls State Tournament quarterfinals. Smith was named KingCo 4A MVP, earned second team all-state and was named to the Seattle Times All-Star team. She was a Washington Gatorade Player of the Year nominee and participated in the Washington 4A vs. 3A All-Star Game and the Washington vs. Oregon All-Star Game. As a junior, she averaged right around seven points, five rebounds, two assists and two steals per game. Smith was an All-KingCo 4A Second Team selection as a sophomore, averaging eight points and six rebounds. She had a successful club career playing with the Tree of Hope program which won the 2012 Fila Sixty-Four Tournament title. ESPN.com's HoopGurlz listed her as the top prospect in the state of Washington and the 20th ranked wing in the nation. Along with her four-year basketball career, Smith lettered three times in cross country and twice in track & field.

Academics: Smith is majoring in Mechanical Engineering with a focus on Biomedical Engineering at Colorado and has a Chancellor's Achievement Scholarship. She earned honorable mention to the 2015 Pac-12 Women's Basketball All-Academic team. She was named to the Dean's List for the 2014 Spring term. In high school she was a National Achievement Scholarship finalist and a National Qualifier in Washington's DECA competition.

Personal: Born Haley Smith on June 17, 1995, in Sammamish, Wash., she is the daughter of David and Judy Smith. She has one younger brother, Hugh, who is a freshman at Washington. Smith lists the biggest moment of her high school career as being named the 2013 KingCo MVP and going to the state tournament. After college she would like to become a biomedical engineer. In high school she went on a two week trip with 20 other biology students and a teacher from her school to Ecuador where the class went to the Santa Lucia Cloud Forest and helped researchers study mammals, birds, and carbon levels of trees in the Andes.

GETTING TO KNOW HALEY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The sense of family it brings. I have 11 girls who love me for me and would do anything for me, which not everyone gets.

Favorite quote: "Hard work beats talent when talent fails to work hard."

The best moment from your 2014-15 season: Beating Oregon State in the Pac-12 tournament and our team rushing the court.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go find a new hike to try out.

One word to describe me off the court is: Focused

My pregame rituals are: Watching "my show" for the season on Netflix, then listening to music and visualizing the game.

The three things I cannot live without are: The outdoors, books, and my family

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: When Bri pranked me and Brittany Wilson by stealing our TV remote

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Soccer

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Candace Parker

Do you have any hidden talents?: I can solve a Rubik's cube.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Lauren Huggins

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: My parents got me started by signing me up to play at the YMCA

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: Fetty Wap, Dave Matthews, and a bit of country

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Seattle Seahawks

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: Maximum effort

I wish I knew how to...: Ski

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Hike on the Pacific Crest Trail

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: That failure is not always a bad thing. It allows you to learn and grow, and a person who has never failed probably doesn't know a lot.

My plans after graduation are: To get a master's degree in biomechanical engineering

My favorite class at CU: Mechanics of Solids

Advice to young athletes: Keep working at your sport. Even if you think you might be behind other players, or not as fast, or not as big, continue to work on those skills and be a great team player. Those things can be just as or more important than height and strength.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Bri Watts

Center • 6-2 • Junior • 2L • Fresno, Calif. (Clovis West)

Bri Watts provides a physical presence down low for the Buffaloes and will be able to hold her own against some of the most aggressive and physical players in the Pac-12. As a post, she has great hands and feet and will only continue to get better. The first commit of the 2013 class, Watts is a steady player who enjoys the physical play down on the low block and will contribute to the strong depth of the Colorado front line.

2014-15 (Sophomore): Saw her first game action, playing in 18 contests and averaging just under five minutes per game. She made her collegiate debut in the Preseason WNIT opener against North Dakota (11/15) registering three blocked shots and two rebounds. Watts scored her first collegiate points two nights later against Western Kentucky (11/17) finishing with a field goal and free throw. Her biggest scoring night came against Missouri State (11/28) in the opening round of the Omni Classic where she had five points on 2-of-4 shooting along with three rebounds. Watts appeared in the final six games of the season and had a rebound in each one of Colorado's three Pac-12 Tournament games.

2013-14 (Freshman): Did not appear in a game, but was a full participant in practice and was a valuable member of the scout team as the Buffaloes prepared for upcoming opponents.

High School: Watts is a 2013 graduate of Clovis West High School. She averaged nearly seven points a game, helping the Golden Eagles to a 23-6 record and a perfect 10-0 mark in the Tri-Rivers League.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Her team won the CIF Division I Central Section title, earning a spot in the state championships. Following her senior year, Watts participated in the North vs. South All-Star Game and City vs. County All-Star contest, playing on the winning team on both occasions. Watts played just her senior year at Clovis West, transferring from rival Buchanan. She averaged nearly six points and just over six rebounds per game for Buchanan as a junior, contributing to the Bears' 18-9 record and a spot in the CIF Central Section Division I semifinals. Her transfer to Clovis West, which lost to Buchanan in the section quarterfinals in 2012, was partially a family move and partially a style of play change to a program which featured the post. Watts participated in the 2011 USA Basketball Women's U16 National Team Trials.

Academics: Watts is an open option major at Colorado.

Personal: Born Briana Nicole Watts on January 25, 1995, in Sacramento, Calif., she is the daughter of Walter and Rachel Watts. Her father played basketball at the University of Utah for the late Rick Majerus (1988-91) and was the second leading scorer and rebounder on the Utes' 1991 Sweet 16 Team. Walter also played professional football and baseball. She has an older brother, Walter, who played offensive line for Utah's football team from 2007-10, a younger sister, Alexis and two younger brothers, LeJuan and DeSean. She enjoys spending time with family.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Zoe Correal

Center • 6-4 • Sophomore • 1L • San Francisco, Calif. (Salesian)

Zoe Correal is a true center who can get up and down the floor quickly and gives Colorado another big presence in the post. She looks forward to playing defense against the other "bigs" in the Pac-12 while continuing to develop her offensive game. Correal gained enough experience in her first year that she's confident heading into her second season.

2014-15 (Freshman): Appeared in 31 games averaging just under two points per game while grabbing two rebounds an outing. Her playing time grew as the season progressed. She played double-digit minutes in 14 games, with nine coming in the final 11 games of the season. Correal averaged 4.3 rebounds over the final three regular season games while hitting 56 percent from the field. On the season she shot a solid 55 percent, hitting on 24 of 44 attempts. Her first extended minutes came in the Omni Classic win over Missouri State (11/28) where she pulled down a personal-best eight rebounds. Correal made a solid Pac-12 debut. After playing just 10 minutes combined in the last four nonconferene games, she scored six points on 3-of-6 from the field at No. 15/15 Stanford in the league season opener. Correal stepped in during crunch time against No. 11/11 Arizona State. After Jamee Swan went down with an injury, Correal responded with four points, four rebounds and a blocked shot in nine minutes against the Sun Devils. She had another solid game in the rematch, blocking a career-high three shots in a personal best 22 minutes against ASU (3/1). Correal scored a career-best seven points on 3-of-5 shooting with five rebounds on Senior Day against Oregon (2/22).

High School: Correal is a 2014 graduate of Salesian High School, located in the Bay Area suburb of Richmond, Calif. She helped the Pride to three straight NorCal championships, two in Division IV (2012, '13) and a third in the Open Division (2014). Correal's Salesian teams enjoyed a record of 90-20 during that span. She averaged 11.2 points and 8.2 rebounds as a senior, earning All-Tri-Country Rock League and Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team honors, as Salesian finished 30-7, and the runner up in the 2014 CIF Open Division state championship. Correal was a second team Cal-Hi Sports Division IV All-State selection in 2013, averaging 9.4 points and 7.6 rebounds as the Pride finished 29-8 and captured their second straight NorCal Division IV title. She pitched in 3.5 points and 4.0 rebounds per game on Salesian's 2012 North Coast Section and NorCal Division IV championship squad. Correal was a two-time recipient of the state's Sportsmanship Award. Rated as the No. 46 post player in the nation by ESPN HoopGurlz, Correal also played for the CA Ballaz club program.

Academics: Correal is a psychology major at Colorado.

Personal: Born Zoe Angelique Correal on August 11, 1996, in San Francisco, she is the daughter of Zef and Maia Correal. She has three younger sisters, Amara, Nia and Vega. She lists the birth of her youngest sister, Vega, born in March 2013, as one of the happiest days of her life. Her hobbies are basketball and writing. She enjoys writing short stories and poetry in her spare time. She has a distant Colorado connection, great uncle Joe Barry Carroll, a Denver East High School graduate who was the top pick in the 1980 NBA draft and a 10-year league veteran, mostly with the Golden State Warriors.

GETTING TO KNOW ZOE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The competitiveness; every day is a new opportunity to compete and win, and that is very exciting.

Favorite quote: "What will be, will be"

The best moment from your 2014-15 season: Beating OSU in the Pac-12 Tournament

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Hang out at the 29th street mall or on Pearl St.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Voice, so I can be on Christina's team.

One word to describe me off the court is: Funny

My pregame rituals are: Watch an episode of one of my shows.

One thing people don't know about me is: If I told you then everyone would know.

The three things I cannot live without are: My family, friends, and God

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else: Everyone waking up for 6 a.m. workout to support their teammates even when they didn't have to.

Best talent not related to basketball: I can tell excellent jokes.

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: Earlier in this preseason we played pranks on the coaches, and watching their reactions when they saw their offices "decorated" with pictures, sticky notes, and cups filled with water was really funny.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Volleyball

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Tim Duncan

Your all-time 'Starting 5': Tim Duncan, Derrick Rose, Steph Curry, DeAndre Jordan, Lisa Lesley

Do you have any hidden talents?: I can read Kenzie's mind while she reads minds.

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Kennedy Leonard

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: I first played basketball in the 8th grade and my parents got me started on the sport.

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: J. Cole, Drake, Chris Brown

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Golden State Warriors

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: Just one more

I wish I knew how to....: Dance

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Success enough to where I can take care of my family.

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: Time management, there are many things that need to get taken care of day to day and the only way to do that is to manage your time properly.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: J. Cole

And I would ask that person: Will you marry me?

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Jamee Swan wanted to be a Pokemon master when she was a kid.

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My parents are very inspirational, because they did not grow up with much and the built everything they have from the ground up. I strive to be just like them.

My plans after graduation are: Hopefully go to graduate school and earn a master's degree in psychology

My favorite class at CU: Social Psychology

My hero is: My Mom

Advice to young athletes: Just take everything one day at a time and try not to get overwhelmed, you are capable of doing great things that's why you're here.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Brecca Thomas

Guard • 5-5 • Sophomore • 1L • Stafford, Texas (The Kinkaid School)

Brecca Thomas is a point guard that plays with a lot of heart and energy. She brings a tremendous skill set; being able to score, facilitate the offense and play defense. A true student of the game and playing at an elite level in the state of Texas, Thomas gained a lot of valuable experience as a first-year player.

2014-15 (Freshman): Saw the most consistent time of all first-year Buffaloes, playing in 32 games with four starts at point guard, averaging 3.3 points and 1.3 assists. Thomas answered the call in her first big test as a starter. With senior Lexy Kresl sitting out to rest an injury, Thomas made her first start against region rival Wyoming (12/21). She had nine points, three rebounds and two assists in 26 minutes against the Cowgirls. Thomas also logged a pair of starts with Kresl in the home games with Washington State (2/13) and Washington (2/15) as the Buffaloes went to a smaller, quicker lineup. She set a career high in points with 11 in the home win over Utah (1/14), hitting a perfect 4-of-4 from the free throw line. She worked on developing her shooting touch throughout the season, and it showed during conference play. Thomas made 33 percent from 3-point range during Pac-12 games (9-of-27) and also made 86 percent from the line during that same time frame (12-of-14).

High School: Thomas is a 2014 graduate of The Kinkaid School in Houston. She was a four-year All-South Zone and All-Southwest Preparatory Conference Division I performer for the Falcons. Thomas scored 2,204 points during her career while dishing out 544 assists and 438 steals, averaging out to 17.4 points, 4.3 assists and 3.4 steals per outing. As a senior in 2014, she averaged 18.6 points, 5.0 assists, 3.5 steals and 3.4 rebounds helping Kinkaid to a 22-7 record and a third place SPC finish. Thomas helped to lead Kinkaid to back-to-back SPC Championships in 2012 and '13. As a junior, Thomas averaged 20.6 points, 5.5 assists and 3.5 steals guiding the Falcons to a 28-5 record. She hit 47 percent from the field and was even more accurate from 3-point range, shooting 51 percent (72-of-141). Thomas averaged 17.3 points, 4.2 steals and 3.8 assists as a sophomore as the Falcons finished 31-3, setting a school record for wins and claiming their first of two straight SPC crowns. A McDonald's All-American nominee, she was ranked as the 25th best point guard in the nation by ESPN HoopGurlz. Thomas played in the TABC All-Star game, was the MVP of the Westbury Christian Rotary Tournament and on the All-Tournament team for the HISD Tournament. Thomas also lettered twice in track & field, participating in the 100 meters, shot put and triple jump, and in softball where she played center field. She played club basketball for the DFW Elite program.

Academics: Thomas is an open option major at Colorado, planning to pursue her degree in Communication and Advertising with a minor in Business.

Personal: Born Brecca Thomas on November 14, 1996, she is the daughter of Carl Sr., and Alvirita Thomas. She has an older brother, Carl Jr., who was a swimmer at Ouchita Baptist University. She would like to compete in basketball at the professional level or would be interested in becoming a community relations manager or a marketing consultant. She enjoys swimming, rock climbing, collecting playing cards and boxing. Her favorite event while in high school was when her team would go Thanksgiving shopping for less fortunate families.

My plans after graduation are: Travel

My favorite class at CU: Communication Strategy

Advice to young athletes: Play multiple sports in high school! It helps you to be in more situations that test you and make you better. You are also able to improve in things that one sport can't provide.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Makenzie Ellis

Forward • 6-2 • Freshman • HS • Tulsa, Okla. (Booker T. Washington)

due to injury, she's ready to get back on the floor for the Buffaloes.

High School: Ellis is a 2015 graduate of Booker T. Washington High School in Tulsa. Ellis had a knee injury that forced her to sit out the 2015 high school season, but despite that was a 2015 McDonald's All-America nominee. Ellis was also an Elite 8 in Oklahoma and Vype Top 100 honoree. She averaged 12.2 points and 6.6 rebounds as a junior in 2013-14, guiding Booker T. Washington to a 22-5 record. She earned honorable mention to the Tulsa World's All-State team – which spans all classifications – as the Hornets fell just one game short of the 2014 state tournament. Ellis was the lone sophomore starter on Booker T. Washington's 2013 Class 6A State Championship team. She earned All-State Tournament first team honors as well as regular season MVP awards for the Jenks Invitational, Lady Jag Classic and Super 5. She's ranked as the 98th best player in the country by ESPN HoopGurlz, and 15th at her position. Ellis was also selected for the USA Women's U17 National Team Trials in 2014.

She played AAU basketball for the Nike Cy-Fair Elite in 2014 and the Oklahoma Ballerz in 2013..

Academics: Ellis is interested in Integrative Physiology as a major at Colorado.

Personal: Born on Jan. 27, 1997, in San Mateo, Calif., she is the daughter of Matney and Christine Ellis. She has a younger sister, Savannah, who is a junior in high school and also plays basketball. After college, Ellis would like to play in the WNBA or overseas, or go into physical therapy. She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as winning the state championship and singing the school hymn all together as a team and school.

GETTING TO KNOW MAKENZIE

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The pride and tradition.

Favorite quote: "Tough times don't last, but tough people do."
-Unknown

The best moment from your 2014-15 season: Help lead my team to a winning season from the sidelines.

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Go hiking in the mountains.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Voice, so I can meet Adam Levine.

One word to describe me off the court is: Honest

My pregame rituals are: Power nap and listen to music.

One thing people don't know about me is: I turned orange when I was a baby because I ate too much squash and carrots.

The three things I cannot live without are: God. Family. Basketball.

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else: Watching a teammate that feels terrible and is sick, but pushes through and plays for their team.

Best talent not related to basketball: Eating.

Advice to young athletes: Never give up on your dreams, no matter what. When people tell you that you can't do it, prove them wrong, because one day they will be sitting in the stands watching you wishing that they put in the effort that you did.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Kennedy Leonard

Guard • 5-8 • Freshman • HS • Southlake, Texas (Carroll)

Kennedy Leonard is a smooth, quick and fast point guard who sees the floor as good as anybody in the nation. Her ability to get the ball to the right player at the right time is unmatched and her unselfishness makes her very fun to play with and to watch.

High School: Leonard is a 2015 graduate of Carroll Senior High School in Southlake, Texas. She led Carroll to a 26-7 record and undefeated District 7-6A season (12-0) by averaging 17.2 points, 7.5 assists, 6.4 rebounds and 3.7 steals per game as a senior. She was named the District MVP for the second straight season and claimed her fourth consecutive All-District First Team honor. Leonard was also named the 2015 Dallas Fort-Worth Star-Telegram Super Team Player of the Year. Leonard holds the Carroll school record for assists with 921 and is also in the top three in scoring, rebounds and steals for the Lady Dragons. A two-time team captain, she is a 2015 McDonald's All-American nominee and was invited to play in the Texas Girls Coaches Association (TGCA) All-Start Game. Leonard is a four-time Dallas Morning News All-Area first team performer and also a two-time member of the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches and Morning News All-State teams. She is ranked as the 40th best player in the nation, and the ninth best point guard, by ProspectsNation.com. Leonard played club ball with the Cy Fair Nike Elites, compiling a 40-2 record as the starting point guard and helping that program to a No.

1 ranking and the Nike National Championship in 2013.

Academics: Leonard is undecided on a major at Colorado but is interested in coaching.

Personal: Born on Sept. 27, 1996 in Hackensack, N.J., she is the daughter of Kyle and Lyndsey Leonard. She has two older sisters, Taylor, who is a lawyer, and MacKenzie, a junior at Missouri who is also studying to be a lawyer. Her parents are Colorado State graduates, with her mom, a native of Scotland, a swimmer for the Rams. She enjoys fishing, painting and adventuring.

GETTING TO KNOW KENNEDY

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: The atmosphere. We are a family away from our real families. My teammates light up my day every day and I'm so thankful for them.

Favorite quote: "Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others."

The best moment from your 2014-15 season: Winning games!

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Going exploring all over Boulder and all in the mountains and just being able to look at the mountains every day.

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: House Hunters! I love HGTV a lot. Any show on that channel, I would be happy to be on!

One word to describe me off the court is: Silly

My pregame rituals are: Praying during the national anthem, listening to good pump up music, and getting ready to win!

One thing people don't know about me is: I love to play soccer in the free time we have!

The three things I cannot live without are: God, my family (including Cadbury), and my team

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else.: No specific person, but everyone on the team pushing each other every day to go the hardest they can and be the best they can be is inspiring. Always having each other's back, it's a good thing.

Best talent not related to basketball: Playing soccer

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: When we all went ice skating and roller blading together on a Saturday night and had so much fun.

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Soccer

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Jamie Carey

Your all-time 'Starting 5': Michael Jordan, Alexis Robinson, Derrick Rose, Bri Watts, Shaq

Do you have any hidden talents?: I am really good at cooking and baking!

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Lauren Huggins

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: When I was 4, and by my dad!

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: Drake

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Denver Broncos

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: Prove them wrong
I wish I knew how to...: Do a cartwheel

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: Living out my dreams, and accomplishing my goals.

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: Competition. Always go your hardest and good things will happen.

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Peyton Manning

And I would ask that person: What makes him such a good person!

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Bri Watts and Alexis Robinson are the most sarcastically funny people you'll ever meet.

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: My mom. She has been through so much, and she always has a positive attitude. She inspires me every day to be a better person. And I can't thank her enough for that.

My plans after graduation are: To go pro playing basketball

My favorite class at CU: ETHN with Professor Withycombe

My hero is: My family, and every member of it. My dad, he has come up from nothing and made so many things possible for me and I am forever grateful for him

Advice to young athletes: To always keep going. At times, life gets hard but it is nothing compared to the joy and happiness that comes from persevering. There is always a light at the end of whatever tunnel you are going through and you are never, never alone.

2015-16 BUFFALOES

Alexis Robinson

Guard • 5-10 • Freshman • HS • Ashland, Ky. (Ashland Blazer)

Alexis Robinson is a quick and athletic combo guard who can really defend, has a tremendous mid-range game, and is a true triple threat player. She is skilled, a very hard worker and extremely competitive; a great recipe for an emerging star for Colorado.

High School: Robinson is a 2015 graduate of Paul G. Blazer High School in Ashland, Ky. She capped off her storied four-year prep career by leading Ashland Blazer to its fourth consecutive Kentucky Region 16 championship. She averaged 14.8 points, 7.3 rebounds and 4.3 assists as a senior to help guide the Kittens to a 26-7 overall record and pulling off just the second four-peat in Region 16 since 1975. Robinson earned Region 16 Tournament MVP honors each of her four seasons. She was the 2015 Kentucky Association of Basketball Coaches Region 16 Player of the Year and a finalist for the Miss Kentucky Basketball award. Robinson led Ashland to four state tournaments, highlighted by a semifinals appearance in 2014. She is a two-time Area Player of the Year and a two-time member of the Lexington Herald Leader All-State team. Robinson is the school's all-time leader in assists (643) and steals (300) while ranking second in career blocks (219) and third in points (1,855). She was rated by ESPN HoopGurlz as the 91st best player in the nation and 21st guard. She played club basketball with the Kentucky Premier EYBL team and was a Ohio/Kentucky All-Star and an Indiana Junior All-Star.

Academics: Robinson is undecided on a major at Colorado but is interested in becoming a dietitian and owning her own gym.

Personal: Born on April 2, 1997, she is the daughter of Matt and Mary Robinson. She has three younger siblings, MyKasa (15), DeVaunte (14) and Khia (8). She enjoys fishing and shopping.

GETTING TO KNOW ALEXIS

My favorite thing about Colorado Basketball is: My teammates. They are my family away from my family! They help me get through the tough times!

Favorite quote: "Life's short, buy the shoes"

The best moment from your 2014-15 season: Bus rides with my teammates!

Favorite thing to do in Boulder: Staying up late on the weekends with my teammates, eating pizza, and watching movies with my buddies!

If you could pick one reality TV show to be on what would it be and why?: The Chrisley's Know Best, because they're hilarious and they dress nice!

One word to describe me off the court is: Funny

My pregame rituals are: Praying!

One thing people don't know about me is: I want to be a model!

The three things I cannot live without are: God, my family, and my friends

The most inspiring thing I've seen a teammate go through or do for someone else.: There has been no specific person, but my teammates inspire me every day!

Best talent not related to basketball: Shopping

Favorite story about a teammate or yourself with your teammates: When we all went roller blading, it was the best night!!

If I could play one other sport in college it would be: Volleyball!

If I could have a shot to play 1-on-1 against anyone in the world it would be: Skylar Diggins!

Your all-time 'Starting 5': Kennedy Leonard, Michael Jordan, Alexis Robinson, Mykasa Robinson, Alexis Brewer

Do you have any hidden talents?: I can shop till I drop!

Between your teammates, who would win at a game of HORSE?: Lauren Huggins

When did you first play basketball, who got you started on the sport?: When I was around 5 years old, my dad!

Who would we find on your iPod right now?: Drake!

What is your favorite professional sports team?: Soccer!

What phrase, saying, theme or situation motivates you the most.: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me"

I wish I knew how to....: Do a perfect smoky eye with my make-up!

One thing I want to accomplish in my life would be: A successful womsn!

Best 'non-athletic' skill that competing in basketball has taught you: How to be a good friend off the court!

If I could meet any famous person it would be: Niykee Heaton

And I would ask that person: What make up she uses, and where she buys her clothes!

One thing about a teammate they may not want everyone to know, but EVERYONE should know: Bri Watts and Kennedy Leonard are the funniest people I know!

Most Inspirational Person In Your Life and Why: God, he gives me strength to get through every day!

My plans after graduation are: Find a successful job!

My favorite class at CU: Race, and Ethnicity!

My hero is: My sister Mykasa!

Advice to young athletes: Be extremely mental prepared, and make sure you're in shape! And get very close with your teammates!
