ALL-CENTURY TEAM

The University of Colorado selected an "All-Century Football Team," as public balloting in 1989 tabbed 11 All-Americans among the top 25 selected to the 100-year squad.

Over 6,200 ballots were received in the public selection process, with over 150,000 votes cast from those ballots. Former CU players pared a list of 881 lettermen down to 118, which were in turn presented to the public for the final team selection.

Byron "Whizzer" White, the U.S. Supreme Court Justice who was CU's first All-American (1937), received 5,812 of a possible 6,265 votes. Bobby Anderson, who starred at both quarterback and tailback between 1967 and 1969, was the second leading vote-getter with 5,636, and two-way-star Joe Romig, who led CU to its first outright Big Eight Championship in 1961, was third with 5,145. White (#24), Anderson (#11) and Romig (#67) are the only Buffs to ever have their numbers retired.

One other player topped the 5,000 vote mark, as flashy Cliff Branch, whose name still frequently appears in the CU record book and who played a big part in the Buffs' No. 3 national ranking of 1971, captured 5,111 votes. The player with the fifth most votes, 3,989, was the only active Buff at the time to make the top 25, tailback Eric Bieniemy (a junior in 1989).

Joining White, Anderson and Romig as All-Americans on the century squad were Dick Anderson ('67), Pete Brock ('75), Mark Haynes ('79), Dave Logan ('75), Herb Orvis ('71) and Bob Stransky ('57).

Four players in the early years of CU football made the team, led by Walt Franklin, who played center and end between 1917 and 1921. Back Lee Willard ('21), Judge Hatfield Chilson ('25) and guard Bill McGlone ('26) round out the quartet which represents the formative seasons of CU football, when the team was known as the "Silver and Gold."

Other familiar names on the team include Hale Irwin, who starred at defensive back in the mid-60's but gained his fame on the PGA Tour; John Stearns, another pivotal player of the 1971 team who went on to be a star catcher with the New York Mets; Dave Logan, a veteran of 10-plus NFL seasons and current sportstalk celebrity in Denver; Carroll

John Wooten

John Stearns

Hardy, who played in the early 1950's and is the only man ever to pinch-hit for Ted Williams; and John Wooten, one of the first African-American players at CU who has spent several years in the scouting departments of the NFL Dallas Cowboys and Philadelphia Eagles.

Listed below are the 25 members of the University of Colorado All-Century (1890-1989) Football Team, selected by lettermen and the public over a three-month voting period. Another 28 players were selected to an honorable mention team:

ALL-TIME LETTERMEN

Throughout the years, various standards have been used to determine who has been awarded letters at CU (as well as at every school in the nation, as all set their own criteria). From the 1930s until the late 1970s, letters were awarded based on a player seeing action in at least half of the quarters played by CU in a particular season. In recent times, criteria have ranged from a minimum of 100 plays in a season or possessing a special skill (the Bill McCartney Era) to playing at least one snap in at least one game (Rick Neuheisel Era). Under Gary Barnett, the Buffs returned to the criteria that McCartney first instituted, and Dan Hawkins has similar criteria. In addition, it has been a standing policy since 1982 to award letters to all seniors in the program, regardless of playing time.

Jersey numbers, heights and weights are generally those listed in CU publications (or other sources) in the player's final letter-winning year. Positions are listed in the terminology of the era in which the letterman played; if more than one position is listed, then that player saw substantial game time at those positions. Hometowns are usually the place from which the player came to CU, followed by the high school and any previous institution, be it a junior or senior college.

There are 1,807 known football lettermen at the University of Colorado, but information prior to 1940 is limited at best and thus some holes do exist. The list below was researched and expanded with the help of the late CU athletic historian Fred Casotti in 1999; if you have additional information on yourself or someone on this list, please call the Sports Information Office at 303/492-5626.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS for covering athletic events at the University of Colorado can be obtained by writing the Sports Information Office one week in advance of the scheduled contest. Requests which are approved will either be mailed or left at the will call window (located in the ticket building adjacent to Gate 6, just off Colorado Avenue). Coverage of all CU athletic events dictate approval of press credentials for Colorado media outlets; radio and television stations must cover practice and/or get postgame and postpractice tape on a regular basis to qualify for credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS will be issued only to officially recognized media outlets and/or individuals on special assignment. Only working photographers will be allowed on the sidelines. Photographers must remain outside the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field. A limit of 25 field photo passes will be permitted for members of the media which cover the visiting team. No freelance photographers will be credentialed.

CREDENTIAL, INTERNET, ACCESS and PRACTICE policies in full can be obtained from the SID office.

FAX SERVICE is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Please contact the Sports Information Office either in advance or on the day of the game.

TELEPHONE SERVICES are available through Qwest Communications, but it is advised that you make your arrangements at least one week in advance of the game. To order a phone line, contact Laura Salava with Qwest at 800/301-9220 (FAX: 800/705-3307) for installation. The address of the press box when asked is 2005 Colorado Avenue. Qwest provides a line only; you must make arrangements for your own telephone set. Note: Please check with Sports Information on your telephone needs: there are six ethernet connections, seven courtesy lines in the press box after the game (four available for in-game use), along with wireless Internet access in the pressbox.

VISITING RADIO personnel desiring to broadcast athletic events from the University of Colorado should contact the Sports Information Office at the earliest possible date to request permission to broadcast.

The station is responsible for making its own arrangements with Qwest (Laura Salava, 800/301-9220). Qwest will contact CU for booth assignment. Spotters and/or statisticians are available upon request (please request at least 72 hours before the event).

PRESS BOX SERVICES include play-by-play and statistical highlights at the end of each period. Full statistical facts and figures along with quotes from coaches and players will be available following the contest. The media will be escorted to the locker rooms following the event for postgame interviews. Coach Hawkins' postgame press conference can also be heard over the audio system in the press box for those media members who can't make it down to the lockerroom after the game. An informal luncheon will be served in the press box starting two hours prior to kickoff.

HANDICAP ACCESS is available via elevator to the Folsom Field press box facility at the north end of Balch Fieldhouse.

A "NO SMOKING" POLICY is in effect at Folsom Field, including the press box, to conform with CU policy concerning smoking on campus. Those members of the media who do smoke will be directed to those areas of the stadium where smoking is permitted.

PARKING passes are limited. The media must request parking along with their credentials request. Media outlets covering the University of Colorado on a regular basis will have first priority.

FOLSOM FIELD is located in the University of Colorado campus at the corner of Colorado Avenue and Folsom Street. Driving time from Denver International Airport is approximately 50 minutes via the Denver-Boulder Turnpike (U.S. 36). The Press Box is located on the west side of the stadium, and the entrance for the media is on the west side of the field adjacent to Gate 1. The press box phone numbers are 303/492-5626 and 303/492-3209.
