2006 COLORADO FOOTBALL — SEASON ENDING NOTES

RELEASE NUMBER 13 (December 23, 2006)

QUICKLY SPEAKING...

The Colorado Buffaloes completed their 117th season of intercollegiate football with a 2-10 record, finishing fifth in the Big 12 North with a 2-6 record... Though just Colorado's third 10-loss season in its history, the Buffs were in every setback (the 10 were by a combined 112 points; CU's six in 2005 were by 162 and the previous 22 by 472, or 21.5 per setback)... The 37-14 season-ending loss at No. 23 Nebraska marked the 1,100th game in school history, but was CU's 14th in a row to ranked teams... Colorado did not go to a bowl for just the fifth time since 1984, and this was just school's fourth losing season in that time frame (1997, 2000, 2003 and 2006)... PK Mason Crosby garnered a second straight All-American honor.

SEASON POSITIVES

There were many positives in 2006 for the Colorado Buffaloes. A look at some of what stood out that will help set the table for the future:

- Rushing Yards. Colorado rushed for 2,075 yards (172.9 per game), its most since 3,136 in 2002, and its most in any losing since 1974, when the 5-6 Buffs rushed for 2,441 yards. Three players rushed for over 500 yards, just the 10th time in school history that feat was accomplished (TB Hugh Charles, QB Bernard Jackson and TB Mell Holliday combined for 1,968 yards and averaged 4.9 yards per carry).
- Turnover Margin. CU finished the year at plus-8, the best number since a plus-13 in 1993; it also tied for the eighth best single-season figure in school history, behind 1956 (+18), 1967 (+17), 1976 (+16), 1993 (+13), 1992 (+12), 1972 (+11) and 1960 (+10). The +0.67 per game average is 17th in the NCAA.
- → Colorado committed just 16 turnovers, the fewest since 13 in both 1993 and 1989 (which were 11-game seasons); the 16 are thus the third fewest committed by a Buffalo team over the last 50 seasons. CU's last turnover was a fumble lost with 7:55 left in the second quarter of the Kansas State game, meaning the Buffs finished the last 10-plus quarters (157:55) of the season without a turnover (QB Bernard Jackson was not intercepted in his last 66 passes). CU's quarterbacks threw just 8 interceptions, tied for the 13th lowest total in the last 61 seasons (with the 3.1 INT percentage the seventh lowest in school annals).
- → CU had four games with no turnovers, a school season best; the old season high had been three games, which had been done just three times (1956, 1989, 1993).
- → CU allowed 22.3 points per game, the fewest since 1998 (19.1), and the third lowest figure in CU's 11 years in the Big 12 (the other: 18.1 in 1996).
- ➡ Linebacker Play. Junior Jordon Dizon and senior Thaddaeus Washington became the first set of linebackers to both post 100-plus tackles in a season since 1994, when Ted Johnson and Matt Russell accomplished the double-triple.
- → Field Position. Opponents started 56 of 138 drives at or inside their 20 (40.6%), while not up to the figure in 2005 (49.7), the Buffs had a freshman punter compared to a Ray Guy finalist a year ago. P Matthew DiLallo improved as the season progressed, and his 43.7 average was a school frosh best (he was just the third freshman to ever lead the team in punting, something CU's six All-Americans at the position never did).
- → TE Riar Geer. The redshirt freshman tight end became the first frosh, true or redshirt, to lead the Buffaloes for a single season in both receptions and yards, as he finished the year with 24 catches for 261 yards (and 3 TDs). He's just the ninth tight end to lead the team, joining the likes of Jerry Hillebrand, J.V. Cain, Dave Hestera, Jon Embree and Daniel Graham, who was the last to do it in 2001.
- Colorado allowed just six plays from scrimmage of 40 yards or longer (4 pass, 2 rush); that ties the fewest since the 1987 season, when the Buffs surrendered just four (two of each). Over the past 20 years, CU has limited the foe to six three other seasons (1991, 1994, 1995), with the 13 allowed over the last two seasons the third fewest over a two-year span (trailing the 11 over the 1987-88 seasons and 12 over '94 and '95).
- → Second Down Defense. Though opponents did convert at a 47.8 clip on third down, CU's defense shined on second and short; opponents converted just 23 of 53 times when faced with second and four or less (the same figure for the NFL Denver Broncos, a highly regarded defense, is 26-of-43).
- → Penalties. Colorado was flagged for 63 penalties, down from 116 in 2005 and its fewest since 1986, when the Buffs were called for 60 infractions. The 559 penalty yards were the fewest since the '88 team had 535 yards marched off on calls.

WALK-ON INFLUENCE

Six current or former walk-ons made starts for Colorado in 2006, easily the most in recent memory and second to Kansas State (seven) in the Big 12 in 2006. The six, all offensive players, combined to make 13 starts, but all were regulars on either offense and/or special teams: TE Dan Goettsch (4 starts), WR Nick Holz (3), WR Cody Crawford (2), TE Paul Creighton (2), TB Mell Holliday (1) and FB Samson Jagoras (1).

IN THE POLLS

Colorado was not ranked in the Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches polls of November 26, and was not in the preseason (the Buffs received one point in the coaches' ballot); CU was also not in the final 2005 rankings. Last year, the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the November 6 coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. Dating back to the 1989 preseason, CU has been ranked in 185 of the last 292 polls (AP; 64%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). CU has been ranked 292 times in its history, the 21st most all-time. Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (92), trailing Florida (98), Florida State (95) and Michigan (94).

Washington Snares fans' Buffalo Heart Award

The 9th annual Buffalo Heart Award, presented by the "Fans Behind The Bench" was awarded after Colorado's 33-16 win over Iowa State in an informal postgame presentation on the CU sideline to ILB Thaddaeus Washington. The award goes to the senior who the fans, from their own observations, believe has best exemplified heart, grit, determination and desire during their CU career. Washington is the first linebacker and the third defensive player to win the award.

FIRST YEAR COACHING COMPARISON

Dan Hawkins isn't the only coach in Colorado history who struggled in his first season. In fact, for whatever reason, it's more the norm, as going back to Dal Ward's inaugural year (1948, when CU became a member of the Big Seven Conference), only two coaches had winning records with one other a .500 mark out of the 10 who have piloted the Buffs over the last 59 seasons. The winningest coach, Rick Neuheisel (10-2 in 1995) was the only one who was a member of the CU staff as an assistant the previous season (he's also the only one to win his opening game), with the other, Gary Barnett (7-5 in 1999), also previously serving on a Colorado staff between 1984 and 1991. All eight previous coaches before Hawkins suffered greater margins of defeat in their losses, as CU lost its 10 games by an average of 11.2 points this season, matching Ward's six setbacks his first season. A closer look at the first seasons for CU's last 10 head coaches:

SCHEDULE STRENGTH

Through games of December 2, Colorado is playing the nation's 68th toughest schedule nationally (as calculated by the NCAA on cumulative opposition records for the season). Florida leads the pack, as its opponents were combined 81-46 for a 63.8 winning percentage; Michigan (78-47, 62.4), Cincinnati (71-44, 61.7), South Carolina (70-45, 60.9) and Minnesota (70-46, 60.3) round out the top five. CU's opponents were 56-57 (49.6), 74th on the list overall. Texas tops the Big 12 list (10th, 69-47, 59.5), followed by Oklahoma State (12th), Nebraska (25th), Missouri (33rd), Texas Tech (40th), Baylor (44th), Texas A&M (52nd), Oklahoma (58th), CU, Kansas State (71st), Iowa State (75th) and Kansas (96th). Texas' was helped by playing 12-0 Ohio State, and the southern schools aided by playing UT, OU & A&M (29-8).

SIXTY-FOUR PLAYERS LETTER IN 2006

Colorado had 64 players earn letters in 2006, 30 offensive players, 31 defensive players and three special team performers. There are four ways a player can letter: participate in 100 plays (scrimmage snaps plus special teams); possess a special skill—punter/kicker/special teams; be a true freshman who gave up his redshirt year for the benefit of the team (unless injured and can get a medical redshirt); or be a senior in good academic standing. Sophomore S Joel Adams earned his first letter in football, but has two others as an alpine performer on CU's national championship ski team; he's the first player in school history to letter in the football/skiing combo. SENIORS FINALE

The Nebraska game was the career collegiate finale for 23 of CU's 24 seniors. Seventeen are fifth-year seniors, including 10 who were members of the 2002 recruiting class, along with five who walked on as true freshmen that same year. Four hail from the 2003 recruiting class who played as true frosh, with the other four players who transferred in from other institutions. The 24th senior, S Dominique Brooks, is redshirting while complete rehab for knee surgery. The 23 seniors who completed their CU careers in 2006 (letters include those earned for this season):

FORMER CU GREAT NARCISIAN PASSES AWAY

Former letterman Harry Narcisian, one of CU's first real stars when Colorado jumped from the Mountain States Conference into the Big Seven after World War II, passed away in his sleep on December 3 in Boulder. Narcisian, 77, lettered three times in football between 1947 and 1949, and also garnered letters in track.

A quarterback/halfback in the days of two-way football, the 5-10, 172-pounder from Wheat Ridge (Colo.) High School rushed for 894 yards in his career, a figure that still ranks 52nd all-time at CU, averaging just under four yards per carry with eight touchdowns. He also passed for 961 yards and 10 touchdowns in amassing 1,855 yards of total offense overall.

His most prolific season was his junior year in 1948, CU's first in the Big Seven. Though CU was 3-6 overall, the Buffaloes were a surprising 2-3 in league play to finish fourth, as Narcisian had 1,031 yards of total offense, just the third Buff documented at the time to record 1,000 yards in a single season, joining Kayo Lam (1935) and Byron White (1937). He led the team with 510 yards rushing (6 TDs) in Coach Dal Ward's single-wing offense, while also throwing for 521 yards and five scores. His top game came in a 28-14 win over Utah State, when he had 19 carries for 153 yards and two scores.

Narcisian was also the team leader in punt returns that season (12.3 average, with a 69-yard return for a touchdown in a 51-7 win over Kansas State) and kickoff returns (25.7), while making two interceptions, returning one 77 yards for a touchdown against then-Colorado A&M, still the 14th longest such return in school history. He had 1,702 all-purpose yards in his career (894 rush, 581 kickoff return, 227 punt return).

A celebration of his life was held December 15 at Boulder Country Club. Preceded in death by his wife, Madge, he is survived by a brother, Frank (Golden) and children John (Scottsdale, Ariz.), Ann Videan (Mesa, Ariz.) and Paul (of Highlands Ranch) and four grandchildren.

FANTASTIC "RED" FRESHMEN

- > TE Riar Geer led the team in receiving with 24 catches for 261 yards and three touchdowns (all three were team bests). No freshman, true or redshirt, had ever led the Buffs in receiving before Geer did it in 2006, and his 24 receptions were the most by a freshman tight end in school history, besting the 20 by Brody Heffner Liddiard in 1996. (Liddiard holds the yardage record at 288, which Geer fell 27 yards short of tying.)
- ➤ P Matt DiLallo is fourth in the Big 12 behind Baylor's Daniel Sepulveda and 15th in the NCAA with a 43.7 average (he's 2.8 out of the league and NCAA lead, as Sepulveda is tops in both). He's just the third player to have led CU in punting as a freshman, joining Stan Koleski (38.2 in 1973) and Andy Mitchell (38.3 in 1994). DiLallo also rose to the occasion in the Baylor game and out-punted the defending Ray Guy Award winner Sepulveda in both gross (51.8 for four punts, to 49.8 for four) and in net (45.8 to 44.8). DiLallo had two inside-the-20 (one inside-the-10) with a long of 63 with an 11-man rush at the end of regulation. Mitchell's 38.3 average was the best ever posted by a CU freshman before DiLallo bested it by some 5.4 yards.

CROSBY NOW CU'S ALL-TIME LEADING SCORER

When he opted to return to CU for his senior year instead of turning professional early, CU's all-time scoring mark was one of the records PK Mason Crosby had his eyes on. Well, that record is now his: with 76 points on the season (19 FG, 19 PAT), Crosby passed TB Eric Bieniemy into first place on the list with 307 points; Bieniemy scored 254 between 1987 and 1990. Crosby became just the third player to lead the Buffs in scoring three different years; he led the team in 2004 and 2005; Bieniemy did it thrice (1987, 1988, 1990) as did PK Jeremy Aldrich (1997, 1998 & 1999).

Crosby also set one of the more unique records in school history, as with 46 points against Iowa Stat e, he now owns the CU career record for the most points scored against one opponent. The old record had been 42 points, held by Byron White against Utah, John Bayuk against Arizona and J.J. Flannigan versus Kansas State; the record would be less obscure if media guides could be more than 208 pages, but (insert choice word here) NCAA rules limit books to that size (except its own; it's 592 pages). Here's the list of most points scored against one opponent:

Player	Points	Opponent	Seasons	Breakdown
Mason Crosby	46	Iowa State	2003-06	12-13 FG, 10-11 PAT (1-1, 5-6 in 2003; 4-4, 1-1 in 2004; 3-3, 1-1 in 2005; 4-5, 3-3 in 2006)
Byron White	42	Utah	1935-37	6 TD, 3 PAT, 1 FG (0 TD, 0 PAT in 1935; 4 TD, 1 PAT in 1936; 2 TD, 2 PAT, 1 FG in 1937)

JACKSON QUIETLY MADE HISTORY

Junior QB Bernard Jackson quietly made some history in 2006; the often-traveled (in regards to position switches) "B-Jax" finally settled in at his natural and preferred position and showed marked improvement since being handed the keys to the Colorado offense in game two of the season. Always explosive in practices and scrimmages, once he had the chance to show he could do the same in game action, he displayed the same kind of numbers. He had 31 runs of 10 or more yards (three 30-plus, six 20-plus), and 69 of five or longer, both team highs. It all added to 677 rushing yards for the season, the third most ever in a single-year by a CU quarterback. When deducting the number of times and yards sacked, Jackson's true per carry average of 6.6 yards is bested by just one player, Kordell Stewart (7.1 in 1993 with a matching 6.6 in 1994). The top 10 single-season rushing performances by a quarterback in CU history:

Other Jackson Jots:

- > He ended the season with 66 consecutive passes without an interception (just two in his last 112 attempts); that is the 10th longest active streak in the NCAA.
- ➤ His seven touchdowns have covered 76 yards; he has the one 62-yard burst (against Kansas State), but the other six have all been short jaunts;
- ➤ He did not throw his first touchdown pass until his 107th pass of the season; he had seven in his last 113 throws. His quarterback ranking prior to his first TD pass was 85.0 (106-51-4, 561 yards); to finish off the year, it was 120.5 (113-57-3, 738, 7 TDs). Many of Jackson's throws (21) were deliberate throws out of bounds to avoid taking a sack or on broken plays, or his completion percentage would be a bit better.

DIZON THE THIRD DOWN MAN

ILB Jordan Dizon snuck up on a school record in falling just one short of the mark in posting 17 third down stops in 2006, one shy of the record first set by OLB Chad Brown in 1992 and then equaled in 2005 by OLB Brian Iwuh. An under appreciated statistic, one that CU may be the only school to track (starting in 1991 in earnest); Dizon now has 29 in his career. ILB Greg Biekert holds the career record of 47, which he established between 1989 and 1992 (numbers were researched prior to it being tracked for all players); Brown ('89-92) and ILB Matt Russell are tied for second on the list with 45.

BILLINGSLEY MAKES HISTORY

Senior SS J.J. Billingsley made 211 unassisted tackles in his career, as when he had six solo stops at Missouri, he became just the 10th player in school history to record 200 solo tackles. Only two defensive backs had previously broached the plateau, Michael Lewis (225, 1998-2001) and Mickey Pruitt (201, 1984-87); both were also safeties. Lewis (336) and Pruitt (332) rank ninth and 10th all-time in tackles at Colorado, but are positioned 1-2 in tackles by a defensive back. Billingsley finished as the third defensive back on the list with 310, which was good for 12th all-time at CU. He unfortunately suffered a torn meniscus in practice the Tuesday (Oct. 3) following the Missouri game, underwent arthroscopic surgery, and subsequently missed five games (Baylor, Texas Tech, Oklahoma, Kansas, Kansas State) before returning to start in his Folsom Field finale against Iowa State. He posted nine tackles each in his final two games in a CU uniform.

DEFENSE CU'S BEST SINCE 1998

Colorado's defense showed marked improvement last season and was the best statistically since 1998. Well, guess what? The 2006 version was even better, with just a few exceptions. The Buffs' rushing defense continued to be the strong suit, and there was improvement against the pass as the number of long plays allowed was dramatically cut down. The 340.9 yards allowed per game is the lowest since the Buffs surrendered 296.0 in 1998. Here's a look at CU's defensive numbers games every season since that year (final totals for all nine years—reminder, CU does NOT include bowl stats):

SUB-300 BECOMING COMMONPLACE

That CU 1998 team held five opponents to fewer than 300 yards total offense, including a pair of top 15 teams. Between 1999 and 2002, 10 were held below that barrier, and in 2003-04, two didn't reach 300 (in 2004, all gained at least 342, with eight earned 400-plus on the Buffalo "D"). But starting in 2005, the 300 figure has been anything but automatic for the opponent: Colorado has held 10 of its last 24 opponents to under 300 yards total offense, with just five teams picking up over 400 (no team has hit 500 since Texas A&M racked up 532 on Oct. 23, 2004). Five have not reached CCC (that's 300 in roman numerals) this season, with just Arizona State (430), Kansas State (439) and Nebraska (468) topping the CD mark (400).

→ CONSECUTIVE GAMES NOT ALLOWING 500 YARDS TOTAL OFFENSE (Big 12 Schools): Texas Tech 41, Iowa State 39, Colorado 32, Missouri 20, Kansas State 17, Texas A&M 13, Oklahoma 10, Nebraska 8, Kansas 5, Oklahoma State 3, Texas 3, Baylor 1.

BUFFS SPORT NATION'S NO. 28 DEFENSE IN STOPPING THE RUN

Colorado's defense against the run in 2005 was the best in school history. The Buffs allowed 95.3 yards per game, ninth nationally in the regular season (CU finished 11th including the bowl game). That same defense against the run has carried into the 2006 season, as the Buffs are ranked 28th in the nation prior to the bowls, allowing 112.4 yards per game, while allowing just 3.29 yards per rush (24th in the NCAA). The school record for a season had been 114.2, set in 1990 and matched in 1994. Only two other years have the Buffs allowed fewer than 125 per game, when the opponent had 115.5 in both 1965 and 1989. CU allowed between 21 and 40 yards per quarter (allowing between 18 and 29 a year ago), so it all adds up to consistency. Prior to 2005, the Buffs had last finished in the top 20 in rushing defense in 1994, when they were 15th, also the highest a Colorado defense had ever finished against the run until last season. It's another indicator that CU was better than its 2-10 record might have shown:

- → CU has held 13 of its last 25 opponents under 100 yards rushing, dating back to the 2004 Houston Bowl (a 13th, Missouri, had exactly 100, while Iowa State had 102 and Baylor 110). Six of those times the opponent has failed to top 50, including three games in 2006, and just one time has a team put over 200 on the Buffs (Texas in the '05 Big 12 title game). Of the 12 that have topped the century mark, no team has averaged over 4.9 yards per rush, only seven topping 4.0.
- ▶ Inside-the-20 Opponent Rushing: Opponents had 78 rushing attempts in the red zone against the Buffs for a net 155 yards (2.0 per try—and those were all true rushes). Eleven went for losses, 13 for no gain and 14 others for a single yard. In addition, the opponent was 2-of-8 getting the ball into the end zone once it reaches the 1-yard line (one for six rushing, one of two passing).
- → Allowing For Sacks. Deduct 25 sacks for 172 yards, which is applied to rushing in the NCAA, and the true running picture still wasn't the greatest for the enemy: 1,521 yards or 126.8 per game.
- → Opponent Longs. CU has allowed just nine running plays over 20 yards this year (two over 40; the long of 63 was on a broken play by Kansas' Todd Reesing). For the year, 53 percent of opponent rushes (218 of 410) went for two yards or less; dissecting the opponents 410 rushes, you find these play counts: 20-plus: 9. 10-plus: 42. 5-Plus: 121. 2-or-less: 218. Zero: 49. Minus: 72 (includes 25 sacks per NCAA calculation). In 2005, it was almost the exact same set of numbers: just under 52 percent (218 of 422) of rushes against CU gained two or fewer yards.

100 Rushing Yards tough to get against the Buffaloes

CU allowed just two opponents an individual 100-yard rushing game in 2006: Oklahoma's Allen Patrick had 110 yards, but needed 35 carries to get them (3.1 per carry, with 23 rushes for three yards or less), while Nebraska's Brandon Jackson picked up 142 on 34 tries (4.2 per). The last two to do it prior to Patrick and Jackson were Clemson's James Davis (150) in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl, and OU's Adrian Peterson in the 2004 Big 12 Championship game. CU was the 105th school to allow a 100-yard rusher this season; since 1950, there have only been three occasions where CU did not allow a 100-yard rusher over an entire season (1957, 1965, 1967).

- > The Buffs have allowed three 100-yard rushers over the last 25 games (since the start of the 2005 season). In this time frame, only Kansas (one) has allowed fewer in the Big 12 Conference, while all other schools have allowed at least four.
- The Last 100-Yard Opponent To Rush For 100 Yards In Boulder? Kansas State's Alan Webb had 24 carries for 103 yards on Nov. 13, 2004.

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2006

- 0 The number of Colorado turnovers in the season's final 10 quarters;
- 0 The number of opponent turnovers in the season's final 12 quarters;

- 5 The number of Colorado turnovers in the first half this season;
- 5.4 The number of yards Matthew DiLallo averaged over the previous best by any frosh punter in CU history (43.7; Andy Mitchell averaged 38.3 in 1994).
- 21-9 Colorado owns the best intra-division mark over the last five seasons against fellow Big 12 North teams at 21-9.
- 25.0 The conversion percentage for the opponent on 3rd-&-Goal from the Colorado 1 in 2006 (2-of-8).

 - 37 The number of points CU has scored on its first possession in 2006.
- 40.6 Opponents starting 40.6 percent of their drives (56 of 138) either inside or at the 20-yard line for the season; that number was 49.7 in 2005.
- 53 The number of second down plays the opponent has had with just 1 to 4 yards needed for a first down (out of 268).
- 13-57 The raw third down conversion number for opponents on 3rd-and-10 or longer in 2006 (CU was 9-of-52 in similar circumstances).
 - The length of a Mason Crosby field goal attempt in the fourth quarter against Iowa State, the fifth attempt of 60 yards or longer in school history (Crosby has three of the five and the only make from that distance, 60 yards against Iowa State in 2004).
- 71.4 The length in centimeters that Crosby's 65-yard try fell short (less than a yard, about 30 inches).
- 222 Colorado has scored in 222 consecutive games, now the fifth longest active streak in the nation (and the 11th longest of all-time).
- The combined number of career tackles from CU starting linebackers Thaddaeus Washington (335) and Jordon Dizon (268); the most two players simultaneously have had while playing on the same team were 599 by Ted Johnson (409) and Matt Russell (190) at the end of the '94 season.
- The difference in the number of rushing yards gained (2,075) compared to passing (1,422) by Colorado in 2006, the first time since 2002 the Buffs will gain more on the ground than in the air (1,229 edge that season).
- 1100 The Nebraska game to close the season was the 1,100th in Colorado history.
- 1600 The mileage in each direction Ralphie IV traveled to appear at the Georgia game, her first regular season appearance outside of Colorado since 1989.
- 92746 The third largest crowd CU has ever played before, coming at Georgia's Sanford Stadium.

SENIOR ANALYSIS

Colorado had 24 seniors on its 2006 roster, 15 of which were starters or practically co-starters in the rotation or on special teams: SS J.J. Billingsley, TE Paul Creighton, PK Mason Crosby, OG Brian Daniels, C Mark Fenton, TE Dan Goettsch, TB Mell Holliday, WR Nick Holz (holder), DE Alex Ligon, WR Blake Mackey, CB Lorenzo Sims, DE Walter Boye-Doe, CB Terry Washington, ILB Thaddaeus Washington and DE Abraham Wright. OG Jack Tipton served primarily in a back-up role until starting the Iowa State game and QB James Cox had his season cut short after suffering a broken thumb at Kansas. Most of the others had some kind of role, and the last, S Dominique Brooks, is recovering from knee surgery and will redshirt this fall.

GRADUATION STAT(U)S

Three of the 24 seniors on the roster graduated in August: OLB Ben Carpenter (business-finance; he is working on a second major in integrative physiology), WR Nick Holz (communication) and DT Marcus Jones (economics; he is working on a second major in sociology). Six more graduated December 22: TE Paul Creighton (psychology), PK Mason Crosby (communication), C Mark Fenton (political science), DE Alex Ligon (sociology), WR Blake Mackey (communication) and DE Abraham Wright (sociology). Thirteen others are on target for this May: ILB Jason Ackermann (sociology), S J.J. Billingsley (sociology), DE Walter Boye-Doe (business-finance & marketing), QB James Cox (communication), OLB Chad Cusworth (business-management), PK OG Brian Daniels (business-finance), TE Dan Goettsch (sociology), TB Mell Holliday (psychology), CB Lorenzo Sims (sociology), OL Jack Tipton (architecture-planning), CB Terry Washington (ethnic studies), ILB Thaddaeus Washington (sociology) and CB Vance Washington (sociology). S Dominique Brooks (sociology) and OL Bryce MacMartin (chemical engineering) will likely graduate beyond next May, Brooks due to consideration of a possible redshirt and MacMartin because his major requires additional credit hours. In addition, two juniors, OT Tyler Polumbus (business-management) and WR Dusty Sprague (business-management) are in position to graduate in May 2007.

NOTE: Over the last four years (2002-05), CU has had 77 of its 87 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.5 percent (with two of the 10 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while three are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, i.e., Wayne Lucier in '02 or WR Mike Duren in '04), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially a tougher academic schools like Colorado.

100 TACKLE DOUBLE

Junior Jordon Dizon and senior Thaddaeus Washington are Colorado's first pair of players to record 100-plus tackles in a season since 2002, as well as the first pair of 'backers to do it since 1994. They went out in style as a tandem, posting 30 in the loss to Nebraska (Dizon had a career high 19, Washington 11), and earlier had combined for 34 at Oklahoma (when Washington had a career high 19). Dizon and Washington, both preseason candidates for the Butkus Award (neither advanced to the semifinalist stage) ranked 1-2 in tackles for the Buffaloes with 137 and 107, respectively, and became the 19th tandem (one did it twice) to post triple digits in tackles the same season:

Road-sweet-road: Buffs 11th Best in Enemy Stadiums since '88

The Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 19 seasons. CU has been victorious 57 of the last 91 times in enemy stadiums and is 57-35-1 overall away from home (a 61.8 winning percentage). That stands 11th nationally (eighth in raw wins) and third among Big 12 Conference teams in this span; only 11 schools have won 60 percent of their away games in this time frame. During this time frame, CU won a school record 10 straight road games between 1994 and 1996. The Buffaloes own a 46-25-1 mark in their last 71 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—six losses at Nebraska, two at Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor, Iowa State, Oklahoma State and Texas A&M; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 21-23 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (0-4 in 2006). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games, despite some being anything but (i.e., Colorado vs. Texas at Irving for the '01 Big 12 title.)

20TH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's 20th best record over the last 18 seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 142-74-4 record. From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks); that was snapped with a loss to Nebraska late in 2005. The best Division I-A records from the start of 1989 through games of December 2:

THE BUFFALOES IN THE BIG 12

The Big 12 Conference has wrapped its 11th season. Though finishing fifth in the North Division in 2006, the Buffaloes are tied for the second most division titles won with four, just behind Oklahoma's five. Just half of the schools in the conference have won a division title. A closer look:

- ⇒ Big 12 Division Titles (including 2006): Oklahoma 5, Colorado 4, Nebraska 4, Texas 4, Kansas State 3, Texas A&M 2.
- ➡ Big 12 Championship Game Records:
 Oklahoma 4-1, Nebraska 2-2, Texas 2-2, Colorado 1-3, Texas A&M 1-1, Kansas State 1-2.

CU VS. THE BIG 12 NORTH: Colorado owns the best record in intra-division competition going back to the start of the 2001 season against Big 12 North Division rivals, as the Buffaloes are 21-9 in this time frame. Other records in the same span: Nebraska 19-11, Kansas State 18-12, Iowa State 11-19, Missouri 11-19 and Kansas 10-20. The Buffs are 12-3 at home in this stretch, the only losses to Nebraska (2003 & 2005) and Kansas State (this season).

RUSHING TRIFECTA

This was the 10th time in school history that at least three players have rushed for over 500 yards in a single season in Colorado history, and the first time since 2001 (and just the 18th time a trio rushed for 400 each). With the emergence of TB Mell Holliday over the last half of the season (430 yards the last seven games), the Buffaloes had three threats in the backfield including TB Hugh Charles and QB Bernard Jackson. Only two trios have attained 600 yards apiece, in the 1954 and 1970 seasons. Here's a look at all CU teams with a minimum three players with 400 or more rushing yards and what they've done as a trio (the top three in those seasons where there were more than three):

QUARTERBACK-TAILBACK RUSHING

The duos of QB Bernard Jackson and TB Hugh Charles and Jackson and TB Mell Holliday were fairly potent 1-2 punches in 2006, as the trio combined for 1,968 yards this season (see above). When merging the totals of the QB and the top TB, Jackson and either Charles or Holliday posted seven of the top 33 yardage efforts by a quarterback and tailback. CHARLES IS COLORADO'S 48TH TO 1,000

TB Hugh Charles became the 48th player in Colorado history to have rushed for 1,000 or more yards in a career when he surpassed the mark in the Arizona State game. Research indicates that the Buffs are one of the all-time leaders in the number of players who have rushed for 1,000-plus yards for a career. Oklahoma currently tops the list with 64, followed by Nebraska and USC (both 54); three prominent schools never responded with their counts but likely are on the lost. Regardless, CU is among the national leaders in the number of players who have reached the career 1K plateau:

HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS

Dan Hawkins has completed one season as head coach of the Colorado program, his sixth year as a Division I-A head coach, and his 11th season as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 2-10 record at Colorado, along with a 55-21 record in the Division I-A ranks (53-11 at Boise State) and an overall career mark of 94-33-1 including five years at NAIA Willamette (Ore.) College. In his final year at Willamette (1997), his team posted a 13-1 record, falling in the NAIA Championship game, before moving on to Boise State where he was assistant head coach, coaching the tight ends and special teams while coordinating recruiting. When Dirk Koetter left BSU for Arizona State after the 2000 season, Hawkins was promoted to head coach. He took the Broncos to four bowl games in five years, with his 2004 team compiling an 11-0 regular season mark and ascending to No. 10 in the national polls; in the most anticipated non-BCS bowl game to date, Boise dropped a thriller to No. 7 Louisville (44-40). In the modern history of Division I-A football, only three coaches won more games in their first five seasons than Hawkins (53: bested by Bob Pruett, Marshall; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma; and Pete Carroll, USC). Hawk's Handiwork:

	Overall	Home	Road	Neutral	Ranked	Unranked	Non-league	Big 12	Bowls
Hawkins at Colorado	2-10	2- 4	0- 5	0- 1	0- 5	2- 5	0- 4	2- 6	0- 0
Career (NCAA I-A)	55-21	33- 6	21-13	1- 2	2-10	53-11	16-12	3- 6	2- 2

- ♦ Hawkins has been a head coach for 128 games (94-33-1), with that record and 73.8 winning percentage eighth in the nation for active coaches with 100 or more games coached for their career.
- In 11 seasons as a head coach, Hawkins' teams have never been shutout, and had never dropped more than two games in a row in the same season (which happened just three times) until this year and had won at least eight games seven times (10-plus four times).
- ◆ A sample of what Hawkins tells his players: "You're in America, you're going to college, you live in Colorado. You have it better than 90 percent of the people in the world."
- Hawkins has used the term "conflama" when referring to some people's desire for conflict and drama (i.e., the reason someone like Jerry Springer and that lot is even on the air). He references the term when people on the outside of a program choose to look at the negative without choosing to understand why something may very well be the way it is.
- ♦ Hawk on depth charts: "To be honest, we really don't pay too much attention to depth charts, we run a lot of personnel in and out of there at several positions. For example, I view the defensive line like hockey; they're playing in shifts as we want them fresh." As a result, especially on offense at receiver, tight end and in the backfield, CU utilizes different "groupings" as opposed to following a depth chart.
- ♦ Hawk's response about potential for disaster after the 0-3 start: "There's always potential. When you get in your car and get out on the freeway, there's potential for disaster. I knew when I left Boise State there was potential for disaster. That doesn't scare me... there's also the potential for greatness. So you can hide behind the shadow if you want, but that's not living."
- ◆ TBS play-by-play man Ron Thulin on Hawkins' optimism: "His glass isn't half-full, it's overflowing. He's not going to change. He said they are going to keep fighting and doing the little things everyday. I think everyone on our crew was ready to put on a football helmet after talking to this man yesterday. He is excitable and he cares." Chimed in analyst Charles Davis: "I was looking to get taped and get out to practice that day. If you're around him long enough you can't help but be positive."
- ♦ As with many coaches, at the end of practice, the team will run for turnovers, mistakes, missed field goals, etc. One day after PK Mason Crosby missed a kick within his range, Hawk felt a little bad as he wondered to himself, "How many coaches are making their kids run for a missed 64-yard field goal?"
- ♦ Hawkins is one of the 63 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2006 (the sixth straight year he is a voter and the 20th straight year CU's head coach has participated).

HAWKINS AMONG THE BEST

Dan Hawkins has one of top records among all active Division I-A coaches, despite CU's 2-10 mark in 2006. He has the 11th best mark and is listed among some of the top names in the profession. A closer look through games of December 2 (#—has been dismissed as head coach):

THE CLASS OF '06

For 2006, 10 programs hired new head coaches, including Colorado (does not include Northwestern since head coach Randy Walker passed away unexpectedly in July). COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. Upstairs are offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich, defensive coordinator Ron Collins, running backs coach Darian Hagan, graduate assistants Andy Avalos and Joe Bever and technical assistants Mike Babcock and Donnell Leomiti. Head coach Dan Hawkins wears a headset on the sideline, along with linebackers coach Brian Cabral, assistant head coach/offensive line coach Chris Strausser, passing game coordinator/receivers coach Eric Kiesau, secondary coach Greg Brown, defensive line coach Romeo Bandison and special teams/tight ends coach Kent Riddle. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

EXPERIENCE

Colorado's 2006 coaching staff is youthful, yet experienced. The 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 86 seasons in Division I-A (including this season) and have combined to coach in 1,072 games through the 2006 season (with a record of 633-435-4, .594). The aggregate age of the 10 is 400 years, thus making the average age 40.4, one of the younger staffs in the nation. Linebacker coach Brian Cabral is the elder statesman at 50, followed by secondary coach Greg Brown (48); five of the coaches are over 40, including head coach Dan Hawkins (46), with five under, with offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich the youngest (33). Helfrich is the fifth-youngest offensive coordinator in the Division I-A ranks; the only four younger are Major Applewhite, Rice (28), Brian Harsin, Boise State (30), Lane Kiffin, USC (31) and Ramon Flanigan, North Texas (32). OLD-TIMER

Assistant head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. In his 17th season, he is now third all-time in years coached as a full-time member of the staff, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both who assisted for 18 years each. A closer look:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 3. Brian Cabral 17 (1990-current); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 7. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58); 9. Ray Jenkins 10 (1948-57), and Jon Embree 10 (1993-2002).

TBS play-by-play man Ron Thulin had this to say about Cabral: "He's one of the great individuals. Besides being an outstanding football coach he has been the barometer for this football program for the last 17-plus years. He teaches a lot more than just football to these players and that's why Dan Hawkins has kept him on the staff. He's one of the best in the business."

THE SIMULATOR

Coors Field brought "The Humidor" into vogue; could CU be doing the same with "The Simulator?" A computer program from Gridiron Technologies that simulates every play, and aspect for that matter, of the offense tests quarterbacks on their assignments and reads. Coaches monitor the progress through printouts that summarize how the players did. While every offensive player has access to the simulator, offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich finds it particularly valuable for the quarterbacks. Helfrich brought the idea with him from Arizona State, where the program first developed and tested by an ASU alum. Helfrich calls the simulator a hybrid between the standard playbook and videotape.

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001, 2002 and 2004 seasons—when the Buffs won the Big 12 North. The Buffs had advantages of 854-417 (2001), 803-607 (2002) and 574-499 (2004) in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs (in 2006, the opponent had the upper hand at 390-277). And the Buffs have 38 return touchdowns over the last eight seasons (34 regular season, four bowl game), tied for the eighth most in the nation for this span. MASON CROSBY

2005-06 First-team all-american. Three-time all-big 12 Performer

PK Mason Crosby was the consensus All-American placekicker 2005, as the Associated Press, FWAA, The Sporting News and Walter Camp afforded him the honor, with him repeating on the Camp team in 2006. He also became CU's seventh three-time, first-team all-conference performer. He finished as the runner-up for the Lou Groza Award in 2005 (he was snubbed as a finalist in '06... typical award committee politics). He made his debut as a freshman in 2003, but really burst on the scene in 2004 with an assault on the school's field goal records, the crown jewel being a school and Folsom Field record 60-yard kick against Iowa State. He then opened his junior season in grand style on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3), scoring 11 points (3-3 FG, 2-2 PAT) in the 31-28 win over Colorado State. Those included a 48-yard field goal to tie the score at 21-21 with 2:32 left, and a game-winning 47-yard boot with 0:04 on the clock. He is CU's first-ever first-team All-American at placekicker as he rewrote the CU record book in kicking and scoring, setting and/or tying 31 records overall (list follows on page 18). A capsule look at some of Mason's many accomplishments:

- → He set four school records in 2004, to go with his record for points by a freshman (52) he established in 2003. He added four more in 2005, and has positioned himself nicely for many career marks, as he added three alone in the season opener against Montana State. He finished with 30 total, his or shared.
- → He established the CU consecutive field goal made streak with 10 over five games between 2003-04 (ended on a 55-yard try that was wide vs. New Mexico State).
- → The 60-yarder against Iowa State in 2004 was the longest in the NCAA as well as the longest in Division I-A since 1999. It was just the 10th field goal of 60 yards or more in the NCAA since 1988, when tees were no longer allowed; no kicker has made two.
- → His 58-yard field goal at Miami not only preserved CU's scoring streak at 200 games, it is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (see chart on next page). That kick is also tied for the longest in the NCAA in 2005.
- → He had five field goals of 50 yards or longer as a sophomore in 2004, which was not only a CU single season record (several had two), it set a career mark as the old best had been three, by both Dave DeLine and Jim Harper. Including the Houston Bowl, when he had a 54-yarder, he had six 50-plus for the year which led the nation, topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza Award winner (the NCAA single season record is eight).
- → He had five 50-plus yard kicks again in 2005, again tops in the nation, with four coming on the road (58 at Miami; 52 and 50 at Kansas State; 57 at Iowa State).
- → He was 19-of-23 in 2004 in FGs, with the 19 makes covering 725 yards, an average of 38.2 yards per kick (his four misses: 46.3).
- → He was 21-of-28 in 2005 in FGs, with the 21 makes covering 865 yards, an average of 41.2 yards per kick (his seven misses: 44.1).
- → He was 19-of-28 in 2006 in FGs, with the 19 makes covering 772 yards, an average of 40.6 yards per kick (his nine misses: 469 yards, or 52.1).
- → He is 66-of-88 in field goals in his career (71-of-95 including bowls), 36-of-40 inside 40 yards (two of which were blocked) and a most respectable 30-of-48 from 41 yards or longer in the regular season. He finished first at Colorado in career field goals made (66) and scoring (307 points).
- ➡ He has made four field goals in a game four times (Iowa State, Nebraska and UTEP in the Houston Bowl in 2004 and against Iowa State again in 2006).
- → He made four of the 10 longest field goals in the NCAA in 2004 (60, 55, 54, 54), including the only one longer than 50 yards in bowls; his 55-yard kick against CSU in the opener was CU's first from 50-plus yards in 11 seasons. He had three of the six longest in the NCAA in 2005, and the second longest in 2006.
- The average field position for the opponent after his kickoffs the 22, as 137 of his 203 career kicks have gone for touchbacks; 20 of the 62 returned against him were not been brought back beyond the 20; only 11 have gone beyond the 30 and just three beyond the 40 (the first on his 156th career kickoff).
- Perhaps his best kick ever was also in the 2004 Iowa State game--an 87-yard kickoff for a touchback after he had to boot it from the 20-yard line following a penalty. "I didn't even expect that. I was just trying to get it up in the air to give the coverage team time to get down there," Crosby said.
- → He was selected the Big 12 Conference's Special Teams Player-of-the-Week nine times in his career (for the Texas Tech and Iowa State games in 2006; CSU, Miami, Kansas State and Missouri in 2005; Iowa State and Nebraska in '04; and KU in '03). The nine honors are the most ever bestowed on a single player, as he had been tied with three others with seven entering 2006: RB Ricky Williams (Texas, 1996-98), QB Eric Crouch (NU, 1998-2001) and QB Kliff Kingsbury (Texas Tech, 1999-02). Crosby ('05) and Kingsbury ('02) are the only players to be honored at least four times in a season.
- The Groza Award Committee named him one of its three "Stars of the Week" five times (Iowa State in '04; CSU, Miami and K-State in '05, Texas Tech in '06).
- → He finished his career making 57 consecutive PAT kicks (19-of-19 in 2006, 31-of-31 in 2005); that's the second longest streak in school history.
- → ACTIVE NCAA KICKING RANKINGS (includes his Houston and Champs Sports bowl stats, which CU does not include): Field Goals Made (1st/71); FG Attempts (1st/95); FG Made/Game (9th/1.42); FG Accuracy (23rd/74.7); Scoring (7th/326 points).
- Late Game Heroics. Crosby made a name for himself in the clutch, as he was 14-of-18 in the 4th quarter, including 12-of-14 in the final 9½ minutes with nine kicks of 41 yards or longer and seven of them with the score of the game within six points; his only misses were a 63-yard try against Montana State as CU tried to rally in the waning minutes (2 yards short) and a 65-try in a bid to tie the NCAA record without a tee against Iowa State (27-inches short). 	IOWA STATE	33-10	5:22 4Q	65 FGA		tried the longest field goal in school history on his last-ever attempt at home; fell 27 inches short

TAKE THIS ALTITUDE ARGUMENT AND SHOVE IT

To paraphrase the classic Johnny Paycheck song, that is... Crosby's 58-yard field goal at Miami in 2005 (Sept. 24), elevation seven feet, is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (all kicks after 1988 are without one). It tied for the third longest, tee or not, at altitude in college and for the fifth longest when including the National Football League. Seeing how he accomplished something most kickers who kick at lower altitudes historically never do, this should end once and for all the altitude arguments used against CU kickers and punters when it comes to All-America and trophy consideration. (In fact, four of his five 50-plus yard kicks in 2005 came on the road, including a 57-yard boot in horrific wind at Iowa State.) A closer look:

QUOTE: "He is a great kicker. When he came out of high school, you could see he was a really good kicker. He has got that special work ethic; you never have to tell him to go work because he is always driven to get better on his own. When you have that work ethic, talent and desire like he does, then you will be able to succeed. He has got a leg. We'll see him in the NFL; he'll be good enough." - Baltimore Ravens Pro Bowl placekicker Matt Stover, the third-most accurate kicker in NFL history, who coached Mason in high school during summers

CROSBY REPEATS AS SEMIFINALIST FOR GROZA AWARD

CANDIDATE COMPARISON

PK Mason Crosby, the runner-up for the 2005 Lou Groza Award despite having a dominant edge in comparative statistics, was right back in the hunt for the 2006 honor, or so it was thought. On November 2, Crosby was named one of 20 semifinalists for the honor for the second straight year, but three weeks later, he did not advance to the finalist stage. Draw your own conclusion, but Mason was penalized for trying long kicks; his stats were as good or better from 50 yards in as the finalists (the winner, Louisville's Art Carmody, tried all of one kick over 50 yards; Crosby had 14 over 40, the three finalists 16 as a group).

Once again, Crosby was right up there in field goals made (19), average distance for those made (40.6, FIRST nationally) as well as for those missed (52.1, also first in the NCAA). With nine attempts from 50 yards and further out (the most in the NCAA), 32 percent of his kicks came from that distance (six from 58 yards or longer and all nine from 51 or further). Three of his misses were from beyond 60 yards; he had made a 61-yard kick against Colorado State but the Rams were allowed a very late time out due to having 12 men on the field that was granted after he had kicked the ball unbeknownst to all on the field.

Crosby simply was asked to try, and often make, kicks that others would never be sent on the field to attempt.

The below does not including kickoffs, in which Crosby has 28 touchbacks in 46 attempts, with eight of those returned against him not being brought out to the 20. An up-close look at the 20 semifinalists in 2006 through games of December 3 (f—denotes finalist):

The way the three finalists shaped up a year ago (regular season); Crosby's average field goal make was some 41.2 yards; that was just under TEN yards longer than the other two finalists and five yards better than any of the other semifinalists. He was 13-of-18 from 40 yards and longer; in fact, 64 percent of Crosby's attempts and 62 percent of his makes were from 40 yards or longer; the other two finalists were under 35 and 25 percent, respectively. The length of Crosby's average miss is some 44.1 yards, the seventh highest of the 20, so on the rare occasion he has missed, they're not ones most expect kickers to make—except maybe him (F—denotes finalist; W—denotes winner):

BUFFS FAST OUT OF THE GATE

CU's live mascot Ralphie isn't the only one fast out of the gate, the Buffaloes were as well in 2006. Colorado's been fairly dominant on the game's first possession, as the Buffs have outscored the opponent 37-28 on drive number one. In addition, the Buffs out-gained the opponent 532-364 and had 24 first downs to the opponents' 21. CU had four TDs and three field goals on opening drives.

CU tied the school record for the most first possession scores in a season with seven, matching the feat first set in 1989 and also done in 1994, 2001 and 2002 (in the latter, CU scored an eighth time to open a game in the Alamo Bowl versus Wisconsin).

OUCH... THERE'S NO OTHER WORD FOR IT

Colorado may have opened 0-4, but there's plenty of misery around the Big 12 Conference when it came to facing ranked opponents in 2006. In non-league play, the league went a combined 0-9 against top 25 teams. Colorado, as is its standard fare, was the only school to play as many as two, while four faced none. The eight schools that ventured to play ranked foes were outscored 209-99; Colorado had two of the most respectable outings, losing 21-3 to Arizona State (ASU scored a cosmetic touchdown in the final two minutes), and perhaps had the best showing against any ranked team with the 14-13 loss at Georgia. Of course, the latter has to allow for the botched instant replay mess by the Pac-10 that cost Oklahoma a win at Oregon, as the Sooners' 34-33 "loss" is the only other contest besides CU-UGA decided by one score (eight points) or less.

40 Wins over ranked teams seventh best since '89

CU's 40 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season is tied for the seventh most in the nation in this time frame. Florida State has the most with 65, followed by Michigan (57), Florida (56), Ohio State (50), Miami, Fla. (50), Tennessee (48), Colorado (40) and Notre Dame (40). Penn State (38), Nebraska (35) and Alabama and Texas (34 each) round out the top 10. As for the Big 12, after CU, NU and UT, the next schools on this list are Oklahoma (31), Texas A&M (20) and Texas Tech (17). All-time, Colorado's 63 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

Colorado has dropped 14 straight games against ranked opponents, as CU's last win against a ranked team came in 2003, when the Buffs toppled No. 22 Missouri in Boulder, 21-16. CU has lost three straight home games to ranked teams, eight straight in enemy stadiums to the ranked (the last win was at UCLA 31-17 in 2002) and three on neutral ground. CU has now gone winless against a ranked team for three straight years, the first such span since doing so over seven seasons between 1979 and 1985.

CLOCK RULE CHANGE ANALYSIS

It is safe to say that the NCAA Rules Committee change that quickened college football games has not been overly popular. By starting the clock faster on possession changes (and on kickoffs when foot meets ball), original estimates were that each team might lose three or four plays per game. Hmmm... not so. Colorado wound up running 10 fewer plays per game, the opponent almost seven, as the combined total dropped from 142.1 in 2005 to 126.3 this year. CU and the opponent also combined for 51 fewer possessions than a year ago. Here's a summation of game-by-game play counts this season and notes related to other years:

Game	Colorado	Opp.	Total	Notes
Montana State	54	70	124	Only the 11th time fewer than 125 plays were run in last 234 Colorado games.
Colorado State	48	57	105	Fourth fewest plays in a CU game since 1946; two of the three games with fewer took place in '46 (other in '54)
Arizona State	62	74	136	Count aided by 26 incomplete passes, 31 third down plays
Georgia	66	56	122	Georgia's 56 plays tied for the second fewest by an opponent in a win over CU since 1981
Missouri	63	77	140	Season regulation high (would have been fourth lowest by a hair in '05), plus Missouri runs hurry-up offense
Baylor	74	70	144	118 total at end of regulation; 26 run in OT (18 by Baylor, 8 by Colorado)
Texas Tech	65	60	125	Last two games in series (2002-03) averaged 153.5 plays per game
Oklahoma	44	75	119	Matched CU low for fewest plays in a game in last 25 seasons (also had 44 against OU in 2004 Big 12 title loss)
Kansas	70	62	132	Count aided by 29 incomplete passes, 30 third down plays
Kansas State	58	64	122	Teams combine for just 21 possessions
Iowa State	57	59	116	Teams combine for just 19 possessions
Nebraska	54	76	130	Huskers run some no-huddle; 22 incomplete passes in game aid clock stoppages
2006 Totals	715	800	1,515	12-Game Average: 126.3 (Colorado 59.6; Opponent 66.7)
2005 Totals	828	877	1.705	12-Game Average: 142.1 (Colorado 69.0: Opponent 73.1)

- Neither CU nor the opponent had a game with 80 plays; that had happened just one time in the previous 44 seasons (1998).
- ♦ Colorado (135) and opponents (138) combine for 273 total possessions; that number in 2005 was 324 (Colorado 161, Opponents 163).
- The average time of a Colorado game in 2005 took 3 hours and 29 minutes; that dipped to 3 hours and 5 minutes in 2006. The CU-CSU contest lasted all of 2:48, tied for the third shortest since 1990, and there were four sub-three hour games overall.
- Colorado averaged 59.6 plays per game, the fewest run by the Buffaloes since 1963, when they averaged 57.6 plays per game in Eddie Crowder's first year as head coach (10-game season; the fewest in an 11-game campaign was 63.2 in 1967).
- Overall, CU and its opponent ran 125 or fewer plays SEVEN times; that's only three less than the total in the previous 233 games heading into the season.

TURNOVER MARGIN

Colorado finished +0.67 in turnover margin, having committed 16 on the year while forcing 22; that is tied for second in the Big 12 and 17th nationally. It was the best by a CU teams since 1993, when the Buffs were a healthy plus-13 (fourth best in the NCAA). There have been only eight seasons in school history where the number was better than a plus-six: 1951 (+8), 1956 (+18), 1960 (+10), 1967 (+17), 1972 (+11), 1976 (+16), 1989 (+12), 1993 (+13) and now 2006 (+8).

INSTANT REPLAY SUMMARY

In the first year of the implementation in 2005, Colorado had 12 plays reviewed (in six total games), with just two being overturned; this year, 15 were looked at with five outcomes changed (three in favor of CU). Here's the roll call of instant replay situations (where play was stopped for further review) for Colorado games in 2006 (*—denotes coach's challenge):

COACHES CORNER / WITH DAN HAWKINS

Comments from Colorado head coach Dan Hawkins from his final regular season press conference:

ON THE END OF THE 2006 SEASON—"It's kind of like the Monty Python episode where the guy is laying there with no arms and no legs going 'Come back you coward!' That's me. You are never always sure what life's adventures are going to bring you. Some are more glorious and some are more painful. But it was never a frustrating or disappointing thing because you clearly want to win more games but you clearly have a vision for what's supposed to happen, how it's supposed to happen, how it all works, how it all goes together, how that whole thing fits and you just keep pushing forward toward that eventual vision. Sometimes you meet more resistance than you expect. I've always said this job is sometimes like herding squirrels and sometimes three or four get out from under you and that takes you a little bit more time. I think we clearly have a vision for what it looks like and how to get there and I feel very strongly about that."

ON GRADE HE WOULD GIVE THE 2006 SEASON—"F...minus. I'm one of those guys where you can't put makeup over a pimple. When you're 2-10 you're 2-10. I think you face up to that and you own up to that. I think the critical thing is knowing why you're 2-10 and how not to be 2-10 and I think that is important."

ON WHY COLORADO WAS 2-10—"That's a long and complicated formula and to some degree a lot of it is not stuff that you want necessarily in the front page of the paper. So I think a lot of that is behind the doors kind of things. This thing is never linear. It's not like you solve this and then you solve that and you go to that. There are a lot of small things that you have to come to grips with."

ON LEVEL OF COMPETITION IN THE BIG 12 COMPARED TO THE WAC—"You are seeing several teams who either were in the top 25 or flirting with the top 25 and that's different. I think when you look at the lower half of the conference you are seeing in general more speed and more size than you do in the WAC."

ON WHAT HE HAS LEARNED THIS SEASON—"Just ask my therapist. That would be [athletic director] Mike Bohn. I guess one of the reasons that I came here was I knew it was going to be the ultimate challenge in many ways—culturally, socially, athletically, academically. [I knew] that it was going to test me and there certainly was a side of me that really welcomed that because I think there are guys that thrive on that a little bit. I've always been the guy that when people tell me that I can't do something it tends to raise my horns a little bit. As I look at this season I've had to smile a little bit a go 'Okay, you got everything you wanted right here buddy. You got everything you wanted and more.' So even though it can be very painful at times, I think you take a certain amount of pride and determination that you know what's going on, you know how to get out of it—it takes a better man to get out of it. All of those things that you clearly stand for in life and in football you have to stand up and demonstrate as an individual. It's like when I jumped out of the airplane [when he went skydiving with his daughter in the spring]. I didn't really want to do it and my daughter said 'If you don't do it then everything you tell your team doesn't mean anything.' And you're going 'Well, OK I hear you. Touché and let's go.' But I think that our staff stayed very positive through the whole thing, I think our team kept coming back, I think we kept looking for answers, I don't think anybody ever cashed it in, mailed it in. People kept scratching and clawing and looking for solutions and I think there is some merit to that. The reality sometimes in these situations is that you have to go through a little bit of a baptism to maybe really find out what everybody is about. From that standpoint there have been good things. The fans have been great, Mike [Bohn] has been awesome, our staff has been good, our team didn't go in the tank—there are a lot of those things that were great despite not playing the kind of football you want to

ON WHETHER THE SENIORS BECAME 'HIS GUYS'—"To me they were always my guys. I always said that, I always believed that and I always embraced that. A very good group of kids, truly. They kept coming back. [Senior offensive lineman] Brian [Daniels] is a very special guy and he will probably have a chance to play at the next level. He's a smart guy and he is going to be a great credit to the University. All of those guys—I liked coaching them. None of us liked the results but they will be able to write a few short stories here at some point."

ON WHETHER HE HAS BEEN PLEASED WITH HIS TEAM'S STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING—"Well I like the fact that we have a true freshman corner [Jalil Brown] that squats over 600 pounds. Of our true freshmen that [power] cleaned the other day we had more than half the amount of kids that pulled 300 off the ground than we did in the spring on the entire team. Those things mean something in a lot of ways. Not just the shear strength of your team, but you're talking about injuries and confidence and all of that. It's big."

ON HIS PERSPECTIVE OF THE BCS NOW THAT HE IS AT A BCS SCHOOL—"It's kind of like a lot of things in life. There is probably no clear-cut answer to it. Should you have a playoff system? Maybe. A lot of people are advocating for that. We're going to face the same issues. I think it's awesome that everybody has a chance to get in there [BCS bowl game]. What the answer is to solving it, I don't know."

ON THE VOID LEFT BY SENIOR PK MASON CROSBY—"Well for as long as I've coached, you'll probably never find a guy like Mason again. So to try to match somebody up to those standards I don't know if that's always exactly fair. I think Kevin Eberhart is a capable kicker and he is a good player. Unfortunately for him, when he was rolling into Boulder so was Mason. There will be some quality guys that want to walk-on here as well. We will definitely entertain another guy, I don't know whether that will be in the fall or the spring though."

Vertical

Dan Hawkins noted that one thing missing from CU's offense in 2006 that has been prevalent of his past offenses at Boise State was the vertical passing game. "By the end of the season, we'd always be up in the 70s or 80s in the number of pass plays over 20 yards" he said on his radio show on Oct. 18. "I don't want to tell you how many we have this season." Except we have always publicized the count in our stat pages, and he was definitely on mark with his assessment. CU had just 35 total, 18 rushing and 17 passing, the Buffs' fewest overall 20-yard plays since 2000 (38) as well as pass plays of 20 yards or more since 2002 (23, also the last time CU had a quarterback quit the team after the season began). Colorado did have 18 rushing plays of 20 yards or more, and while not an overly large number, it was its most since 2002 and higher than nine of the totals in the 12 season snapshot below. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass
4	76	37	39
	61	11	50
3	64	12	52
7	16	0	27

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION

A running list of major notes and/or accomplishments from the postgame notes of all games in 2006:

Montana State

- ➤ Quickly. The 19-10 loss snapped a 3-game winning streak in season openers for the Buffaloes... Colorado scored in its 211th consecutive game this afternoon, adding to the 13th longest streak of all-time (sixth longest active streak)... Tickets distributed for the game were 45,513, though CU officials estimated around 2,500-3,000 no shows, likely due to the weather... CU has opened 0-2 only two times in its history (117 seasons), last doing so in 2000 and 1986... the 216 yards of total offense were the fewest in a season opener since 1979, when the Buffs had 211 in Chuck Fairbanks' first game at Colorado... the 288 allowed by CU was the fewest since 2001 (Fresno State had 287), the 11th time the last 20 the opponent has failed to reach 300.
- Inaugural Jinx. For whatever reason, CU has now dropped the first game in a new coaches' tenure for the 12th time in the last 13 debuts (dating back to 1935). Small consolation is that two of the most revered coaches in CU history, Eddie Crowder and Bill McCartney, did the same (ironically with rain the day before and of the game, the only two instances of bad weather for a CU coaching debut prior to today).
- First Play of the Year. The 42-yard pass from James Cox to Patrick Williams was the longest first offensive play of the season in Colorado history. The old best was a 31-yard pass from Kordell Stewart to Erik Mitchell against Colorado State in Boulder in the 1992 opener. The 42 yards almost equaled the total of the 13 season opening plays since (50 yards total); the only other one over 20 yards came in 1984 (a Steve Vogel pass to Loy Alexander for 21 yards against Michigan State). —The play decimated the previous best first offensive play under a new head coach, the last eight of which totaled all of 13 yards, the longest being a 4-yard pass from Koy Detmer to Matt Lepsis at Wisconsin in Rick Neuheisel's first game in 1995; defensively, CU forced the third incompletion in the last four coach openers on that side of the ball.
- PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG: 24, 63s; 1-1 PAT; 4 points). He became CU's all-time leading kick scorer in today's game, as he entered the contest tied with Jeremy Aldrich with 231 points; with 235 points, he is now second all-time in overall scoring, trailing only Eric Bieniemy, who scored 254 points between 1987-90. He tied Aldrich for the most field goals in a CU career with 48; the 63-yard attempt in the fourth quarter was also a school record for the longest field goal attempt in school history, besting two previous 62-yard tries: Fred Lima vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater (Sept. 30, 1972) and Ken Culbertson vs. Oklahoma in Boulder, Oct. 22, 1988.

Colorado State

- > Quickly... CU is 0-2 for only the 17th time in its history (117 seasons), last doing so in 2000 and 1986 before this year... Including the last four games of last year, CU has dropped six straight games, the longest losing streak since CU opened 0-7 in 1980... Mason Crosby's 61-yard field goal, wiped out by a late timeout allowed CSU, would have been a school record (he owns the mark with a 60-yard effort).
- > Rushing Defense. Colorado's rushing defense has answered the bell in the first two games, as the opponent has just 65 yards on 69 attempts this season; take out sacks, computed as rushing in the NCAA, and the number is still 128 yards on 60 true rushing attempts, or 2.2 per. It is the third straight year that the Buffs have held their first two opponents under the century mark (and to 100 or less combined: 59 in 2004, 100 in 2005 and 65 this year).
- > Series Stuff. Colorado State snapped a three-game losing streak in the series to make it 57-19-2 in favor of the Buffaloes; the last five games in the series have been decided by a total of 22 points, easily the most contested quintet of games in the 78 year old rivalry and the second closest five-game series run in school history to a 1996-2000 run where five games against Nebraska, all Husker wins, were decided by 15 points.
- > Frosh Long. The 73-yard punt by redshirt freshman Matt DiLallo to open the second quarter was the longest-ever by a CU freshman (true or redshirt) and tied for the 12th longest in school history. It was the longest kick since Nick Pietsch launched a 76-yard effort at Kansas on Oct. 19, 1996.
- > Firsts. TE Dan Goettsch, QB Bernard Jackson, FS Ryan Walters made their first career starts, while TB Kevin Moyd and ILB Jeff Smart saw their first action (both coming on special teams). WR Blake Mackey saw his first action since the 2004 Houston Bowl, as he missed all of last year with a knee injury; Jackson scored his first career TD and WR Nick Holz made his first career catch.
- > Third Down Sacks. There were seven sacks combined on the 25 third down plays (four by CU, three by CSU). In fact, aside from the 32-yard completion from Caleb Haney to Johnny Walker late in the game, the teams gained 29 yards on 24 third down plays.
- > DE Abraham Wright. He had three quarterback sacks, the first three-sack game by a Buffalo since DE Alex Ligon had three against Washington State in Seattle two years ago the same weekend (Sept. 11, 2004).

Arizona State

- > Quickly... Arizona State wins the first-ever meeting between the schools; the rematch is set for next Sept. 8 in Tempe... The honorary captain for CU was Jenny Barringer, a sophomore on the cross country and track team who won the NCAA steeplechase title as a freshman last June... Arizona State had five quarterback sacks in the game, four coming on third down plays.
- > Scoring Streak. Colorado scored in its 213th straight game, adding to the sixth longest active streak in the nation and the 13th longest all-time. Mason Crosby's 29-yard field goal got Colorado on the scoreboard, the 15th time in the streak CU's All-American kicker put the Buffs' first points on the board. The Buffs are one back of 12th on the list, as Arizona scored in 214 straight between 1972 and 1990.
- Lack of Scoring. In Colorado's three games this season, there have been a combined 77 points scored (23 by the Buffs, 54 by the opponent). The 23 by CU is its fewest three games into a year since 1964 (21 points), and the Buffs are still looking for their first second half points of the year.
- > DE Abraham Wright. He had one quarterback sack to up his total to five on the season; he is well on his way to a double digit season in sacks, which if accomplished, would be the first Buff to have 10 or more sacks since Ron Woolfork had 13½ in 1992. He now has 14½ in his career, which is the 12th most in school history.
- > TB Hugh Charles (20-109, 0 TD). He became the 48th player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a career, ending the game with 1,045 yards (44th on the all-time list). It was his fourth career 100-yard game, his first since he rushed for career high 132 yards on 20 carries at Oklahoma State last Oct. 1 (also the first by a Buffalo since that contest).
- > SS J.J. Billingsley had his first interception of the season (the fifth of his career), his first pick since last year's Kansas game; CB Terrence Wheatley had his first interception of the season and the fifth of his career, his first since he snared one against Oklahoma in the 2004 Big 12 Championship game.
- > Both ILB Thaddaeus Washington and S Ryan Walters posted career highs in tackles against Arizona State. Washington had 15 (8 solo) in eclipsing his previous best by one, while Walters had 11, topping his old high of seven.
- PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG: 29, 57wl; 0-0 PAT; 3 points). He had his 65th and 66th career field goal attempts for his career, taking over sole possession of that record (he came in tied with Jeremy Aldrich, who also had 64 between 1996-99. He now has 242 career points, trailing only TB Eric Bieniemy, who scored 254 points between 1987-90. He missed just his third field goal try for his career in the fourth quarter, as he is now 12-of-15; the three misses have come from 50, 63 and 57 yards.
- > Red Zone Rushing Defense. Colorado did a decent job against the run inside its 20, as Arizona State had 10 rushes for 32 yards; the opponent season total for three games this year is now just 52 yards on 27 attempts once cracking the Buff 20.

Georgia

Quickly... Colorado led UGA for 48:00, while UGA led for only the final :46... Colorado gained 159 yards in the first quarter, while Georgia gained 156 in the fourth; the two combined for just 282 their other three quarters combined... CU last held an opponent scoreless through three quarters at Oklahoma State last Oct. 1 in a 34-0 Buffalo win... Mason Crosby's 36-yard field goal in the third quarter marked CU's first points in the second half this season.

- > Slalom. Sophomore S Joel Adams, an alpine skier and member of CU's 2006 NCAA champion ski team, saw his first career action in the game, getting in the kickoff coverage unit on special teams.
- > Offense. Colorado gained 159 yards in the first quarter, easily its best quarter since the Missouri game in 2005, and its 241 yards in the first half exceeded its total offense in any of its first three games this season. CU ran 38 plays for the 241 yards in the first half, including 18 in Georgia territory for 152 yards; UGA ran just three in Buff territory for 3 yards.
- > Rushing Defense. Colorado's rushing defense is the real deal, as UGA had 27 attempts for just 54 yards, the third time in four games that the Buffaloes have held the opponent that total or less in four games. CU has allowed 301 in four games, or 75.3 per... in the red zone, Georgia had just four rushing attempts, three for losses and the Bulldogs a net minus-10 red zone rushing yards in the game; on the year, the opponent has 31 attempts for 42 yards running the ball once crossing the CU 20.
- QB Bernard Jackson. Jackson rushed for a career-high 85 yards, the most by a CU quarterback since Kordell Stewart ran for 143 (on seven carries with 2 TDs) against Notre Dame in the 1995 Fiesta Bowl. Jackson also posted career highs in passing yards (140) and total offense (225).
- > DT George Hypolite. The sophomore had his first career sacks today (2-16), with one causing a fumble on UGA's first second half possession that led to a CU field goal.
- > Third Downs. Colorado averaged just 4.5 yards to go on six first half third down tries, but between holding penalties and a stiffening UGA defense, the Buffs averaged 12.9 yards to go on seven second half attempts (converting on a 3rd-and-6, its only try in the half under 12 yards).

Missouri

- Quickly... This marked the first time in five games that Colorado never held the lead... CU's third quarter touchdown was its first six-pointer after intermission this season... CU is now 6-5 in Big 12 openers... The Buffs have dropped 12 in a row to ranked teams, the longest losing skein against ranked foes since dropping 23 straight between 1978 and 1986... The Buffaloes had a season-high 183 rushing yards in the game; Missouri had allowed 175 total on the season (four games) coming in... Former Buff tight end Joe Klopfenstein was on the sidelines; he is now a rookie with the St. Louis Rams and he made the drive over.
- Firsts: CB Cha'pelle Brown made his first career interception. WR Cody Crawford had his first career reception.
- > S.J.J. Billingsley, with six solo tackles, became just the 10th player in school history to record 200 career unassisted stops, finishing the game with 204. He is on the third defensive back to record 200-plus, joining Michael Lewis (225, 1998-2001) and Mickey Pruitt (201, 1984-87).
- > WR Dusty Sprague (2-85, 0 TD). The junior had a 63-yard reception to open the second half, the longest play of his career—barely. He had a 62-yard touchdown reception last year against Kansas. He had just four catches for 35 yards coming into the game, but with 85 yards today he moved up three notches into 24th place all-time in receiving yards at Colorado (866).

Baylor

- ➤ Quickly... Colorado dropped to 3-4 in overtime games (six of the seven have been in Big 12 conference play), with a 2-2 mark at home; this one marked the first time of the seven any went longer than just a single extra session... CU is 0-6 for only the second time in its history (117 seasons), done previously in 1980 (when the team started 0-7)... The loss is CU's 10th overall, tying the school record done just one other time (1963-64, the last six of '63 and first four of '64)... The loss dropped CU to 17-14 all-time against the Big 12 South (2-10 since 2002)... It was just Baylor's second road win in 41 tries in Big 12 play... The 31 points was a CU season high and the most since Colorado's last win (the 41-12 verdict over Missouri)... CU's fourth quarter touchdown marked the first Buff points in the quarter on the season... The 276 rushing yards last week against Baylor were the 12th most in school history in a loss, but the most since 368 in a 32-30 loss at Oregon in 1986.
- Firsts: TB Mell Holliday scored his first career touchdown (his 32-yard yard run exceeded the total distance of CU's four touchdowns this season—all rushes for a total of 6 combined yards—and CU's last eight dating back to last year's Missouri game—23 yards total for the eight). TE Riar Geer caught his first career touchdown, the first for QB Bernard Jackson as well; it was CU's first in 2006. TB Byron Ellis scored his first career touchdown on the 123rd carry of his career (134th touch including receptions).
- > First Quarter Offense: Colorado gained 117 yards in the first quarter, the third straight game the Buffs exceeded the century mark for the period; CU had 154 at Missouri the previous week after netting 156 Georgia on Sept. 23.
- > Third Down Conversions. Colorado opened the game converting six of its first eight third down tries; the Buffs had gone 5-of-25 in their two previous games combined. CU finished a season best 8-of-17, but were 2-of-9 after halftime.
- > PK Mason Crosby. He missed just his fourth career field goal inside of 41 yards (29-of-33) when he missed the 36-yard attempt in the third quarter; two of the four misses were blocked. It was the second shortest he'd ever missed that wasn't blocked.
- > CB Terrence Wheatley. He had his first multiple in interception game (two) of his career, the first by a Buff since Thaddaeus Washington swiped two at Nebraska on Nov. 26, 2004. His eight career interceptions are now tied for 16th all-time.

Texas Tech

- ➤ Quickly... CU averted its longest losing streak in its 117-year history and earned its 23rd head coach, Dan Hawkins, his first win at the reins of the Buffaloes... The win evened the series with Texas Tech at four wins apiece; the home team has won all eight affairs...Though 1-6, CU has now been outscored by just 26 points this year; today's 24-point margin was the largest in a Colorado game in 2006... CU led 23-0 entering the fourth quarter, marking the first time Texas Tech had been shutout through three quarters since Sept. 29, 1999 in a 58-7 loss at Texas; in concert with that, the Red Raiders ran only three plays in CU territory the first quarters: two for losses (a 4-yard loss by Shannon Woods and Abe Wright's 10-yard sack of Graham Harrell) with the other being an interception by Ryan Walters near the end of third quarter... It was the second time Tech has been held under 10 points twice this season, the first time that's happened since '99... Tech had just 11 plays in the game (out of 60) for over 10 yards, and just three over 20 in length.
- > Firsts: FB Maurice Cantrell had his first career offensive touch, a 20-yard reception for a first down on the opening drive that helped set up a touchdown. WR Jarrell Yates, playing in just his second game, had his first career touch of any kind go for a 29-yard touchdown reception. He is the first CU player to have his first career reception go for a TD since James Kidd did so against Baylor in 1993; Yates saw his first action last week against Baylor on kickoff coverage, assisting on a tackle inside the 20.
- CU wore all black for the first time this season, improving to 16-12-1 in the look, including 2-0 against Texas Tech (outscoring TTU 67-19 in the get up).
- > TB Hugh Charles (17-119, 0 TD). It was the fifth 100-yard game of his career, his second highest total behind the 132 yards he gained at Oklahoma State in 2005.
- > Penalties, Or Lack Thereof: Colorado did not commit a single penalty for just the fourth time in its history, the first time since Sept. 21, 1985 against Ohio State in Boulder.

- PK Mason Crosby (3-3 FG, 56,26,53; 3-3 PAT, 12 points). His 56-yard field goal in the second quarter was the second longest in the NCAA this season, behind only an Alex Serna 58-yard kick for Oregon State versus California in Corvallis on Sept. 30. He now owns six of the eight longest field goals in school history. The first 50-plus yard makes this year, he now has 12 in his career. He tied his own school record for the most 50-plus yard field goals in a game (set against Iowa State in Boulder in 2004 and at Kansas State last year). In addition, five of his seven kickoffs went for touchbacks, and the other two were returned to the 17 and 12, respectively.
- > DE Abraham Wright (1 QBS). He now has nine sacks on the season, giving him 18½ for his career; he's half sack behind three guys tied for seventh with 19: Bill Brundige, Curt Koch and Leonard Renfro.
- > S Ryan Walters. He had the first two interceptions of his career this afternoon, marking the second straight game a Buff has picked off two passes; CB Terrence Wheatley did it last week against Baylor.

Oklahoma

- ➤ Quickly... CU is 1-7 for just the sixth time in its history (1962, 1964, 1979, 1980, 1984 and 2006; CU was also 1-6-1 in 1982, Bill McCartney's first season at Colorado)... CU had scored in the first quarter in every game this season, but OU became the first team to shut CU out in the first half since the Buffs trailed 13-0 at intermission last Sept. 24 (2005) at Miami, Fla. (Colorado has actually scored on its first possession in six of seven games until today, when it was held to its first 3-and-out on the first drive all year); Miami was also the last team to hold CU scoreless through three... Oklahoma ran 10 plays in CU territory on its first possession (a 12-play scoring drive); the previous week, Texas Tech ran five plays all game in plus territory (for a net minus-1 yard); OU gained 151 yards on 55 first/second down plays (2.8), but had 119 on 18 third down tries (6.6)... WR Patrick Williams caught his first pass in five games.
- > Penalties, Or Lack Thereof II: CU's first penalty came with 7:13 left in the first quarter; CU's last penalty had been a pass interference call on the first overtime possession by Baylor, meaning CU went 67:47 between infractions. The seven penalties on Colorado over the course of the Baylor (4), Texas Tech (0) and OU (3) games tied for the fewest flagged on the Buffs in a three-game span since 1966.
- > CU Versus Ranked Teams: CU dropped to 0-4 against ranked teams this season and has lost 13 straight games to Top 25 opponents (which started on Nov. 28, 2003 in Boulder with a 31-22 loss to Nebraska). CU last won on the road against a ranked foe on Sept. 21, 2002 at No. 20 UCLA (31-17), dropping nine in a row against Top 25 teams away from home.
- > CU Versus The Big 12 South: CU finished 1-2 against the Big 12 South, dropping to 18-15 all-time against the division in the regular season; that trails Nebraska (19-12) and Missouri (18-14). CU opened 15-4 against the South in league play but a 3-11 stretch between 2002-06 has dropped CU behind the Huskers and Tigers. CU had posted 2-1 marks the first three times it had the three South counterparts served up in succession (2001, 2002, 2005).
- > PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG: 56wl, 39; 3 points). He is now 11-of-12 in field goals in the final 8½ minutes of games, and his six misses this year have been on the average of 49.8 yards as he remains the premier kicker in the conference and nation.
- --Crosby has now personally extended CU's scoring streak six times, as he scored CU's first (and only points) against Oklahoma both in 2004 and tonight, against Miami, Nebraska and Texas in 2005, and against Arizona State earlier this season. The only other player to do it more than once was Jeremy Bloom, who did it with punt return against Oklahoma ('02 title game) and a reception against Florida State ('03).
- ➤ ILB Thaddaeus Washington had a career-high 19 tackles, giving him 311 for his career, the 13th player in school history to record 300 in a career (he stands 11th all-time). In the process, he passed his position coach, Brian Cabral, who posted 297 between 1974-77. Cabral, who is still tied for 14th place all-time, has now coached seven players ahead of him on CU's all-time charts: Matt Russell, 446; Greg Biekert, 441; Ted Johnson, 409; Chad Brown, 369; Michael Jones, 349; Jason Sykes, 330, and Washington 309).
- > Oklahoma Defense. To say the Sooners have stymied the Buffaloes on offense the last two games would be an understatement. Including the 2004 Big 12 championship game, the Buffs had just eight first downs and 159 yards against OU over the eight quarters (running 44 plays in both games).

Kansas

Quickly... CU is 1-8 for just the seventh time in its history (1962, 1964, 1979, 1980, 1984 and 2006; it won game 10 in '62, '64 and '66)... This was Colorado's 300th game played in its history on artificial surfaces, owning a 177-18-5 record (0-2) this year... CU remains winless on the road in 2006, dropping all four classified away games (CSU was at a neutral site); the Buffs have not gone winless on the road since going 0-5 in 1984 (and have won only one time just twice, in 1998 and 2003). The team has one road tilt remaining, Nov. 24 at Nebraska... Colorado has been outscored by 52 points on the season, with the average margin of defeat being 9.5 points, or 76 total points in the eight losses; 38 of those 76 points have been tallied by the opponent in the final three minutes of either half (14 in the first, 24 in the second)... Speaking of points, CU has 128 in nine games; the Buffs have scored less than 300 in a season just once since 1987 (252 in 2000) and have not put less than 200 points on the board in any year since tallying 172 in 1984... CU led 9-0 in the third quarter; this marked just the 15th time since 1976 that CU could not hold on to a two-score lead (out of 219 occasions)... Kansas' 251 yards in the second half were a season-high for a half against Colorado.

- > Firsts. OT Paul Backowski made his first career start (for Edwin Harrison, still not a full strength from an ankle sprain); WR Blake Mackey started for the first time this season; OLB Brad Jones made his first career interception.
- Return TDs. Ryan Walters' 95-yard fumble return in the fourth quarter was the second longest fumble (as well as miscellaneous) return in CU history, second only to Ben Kelly's 96-yard fumble return, also against Kansas, in Boulder on Sept. 18, 1999. Colorado's last fumble return for a touchdown had been on KU's field, Dominique Brooks' returning one for a score on Nov. 6, 2004, in CU's 30-21 win. Only 23 other plays in CU history (all returns: 15 kickoff, 6 interception, 1 punt, 1 fumble) were longer than Walters' effort. It's also CU's first non-offensive touchdown this season, giving Colorado 38 since 1999, tied for the sixth most nationally in this time frame.
- > QB James Cox. He suffered a broken right thumb in the second quarter and is out for season. He was in for seven plays (CU gained 9 yards on those plays, as Cox was 1-for-5 passing for 12 yards, had a rush for 4 and was sacked once).
- > CB Terrence Wheatley. He had his fifth interception of the season, his ninth for his career, which ties him for 12th all-time at Colorado with Hale Irwin, Jeff Donaldson, Michael Lewis and Clyde Riggins.
- ➤ DE Abraham Wright (1½ QBS). He now has 10½ on the season, the first Buff to record double figures in sacks since Ronnie Woolfork had 13½ in 1992. With 20 career sacks, he is now tied for fifth all-time at Colorado as he passed Bill Brundige, Curt Koch and Leonard Renfro (all with 19) in the game.
- PK Mason Crosby (3-3 FG, 37, 26, 32, 3 points). He improved to 15-of-21 in field goals in 2006, and with 56 points, he has 287 for his career (already CU's all-time leader), he is approaching that rare 300-point barrier. He is 62-of-81 in field goals for his career (67-of-88 including bowls).
- NOTE: A scoring change occurred the Sunday after the game: a 61-yard pass play at the end of the game when QB Bernard Jackson was over the line of scrimmage was correctly changed to a 1-yard rush (accepting the penalty was never an option presented to KU, as time had run out and CU could not have run another play; had time remained, the play would have been wiped out).

Kansas State

Quickly... Coupled with the previous week's loss at Kansas, this marked just the third time in 19 times that CU dropped consecutive games to KU and Kansas State in back to back weeks... CU dropped to 1-9 for just the third time in its history (1980, 1984); the Buffs' only win those years came against its next opponent, Iowa State... TB Mell Holliday had posted Colorado's long rush of the season with his 40-yard third quarter scamper until QB Bernard Jackson scored on a 62-yard jaunt early in the fourth quarter (see below for more on that play)... WR Alvin Barnett had his career long receptions, 32 yards, in the first quarter (his old best was a 19-yard gain at Miami, Fla., in 2005)...ILB Jordon Dizon had one third down stop, giving him 16 on the season as he nears the school record of 18... CU had just 64 yards at halftime and 306 after the break... Kansas State gained a season-high 439 yards against the Buffalo defense; Arizona State had the previous high of 430, the only two 400-plus games against CU this season... KSU was 6-of-6 on third-and-five or less... CU's 370 yards on offense was its third most.

- > CU In All Black. Colorado is now 16-13-1 donning all black uniforms, first wearing the look the day after Thanksgiving in 1987 in a 24-7 loss to Nebraska. This marked the sixth time the Buffs wore all black at home more than once during the same season, as CU did the same in its 30-6 win over Texas Tech on Oct. 14. CU is now 3-2 against K-State in the look.
- Firsts. TE Paul Creighton made his first career start (in the 45th game of his career)...Alex Ligon made his first start of the season, the 17th of his career but his first at defensive tackle (the other 16 were at end)... TE Tyson DeVree caught his first career touchdown pass in a CU uniform, but not his first collegiate one; he had six at Western Michigan (three each in 2003 and 2004).
- > Scoring Streak. CU extended its consecutive game scoring streak to 220, though it marked the just the 20th time the Buffs had to wait until the second half to extend it. It now stands alone as the 11th longest in NCAA history (the sixth longest active streak). The next two schools on the list ahead of CU also have active streaks, Florida State (232) and Florida (225).
- Fourth Down. CU was 1-3 on fourth down, now 2-of-12 on the season; the failed try on the down in the third quarter (after CU used 15 plays to gain 84 yards in 7:31) dropped CU to 0-of-5 on fourth down at the time in the red zone. CU came back with a fourth quarter TD pass on fourth down to jump that number to 1-of-6.
- > QB Bernard Jackson (17-105-2 TD rushing). Jackson enjoyed his first career 100-yard game in the loss. His 62-yard run for a touchdown in the fourth quarter was the longest run by a CU quarterback since Darian Hagan's 71-yard run for a touchdown against Colorado State in Boulder on Sept. 9, 1989 (Hagan also had a non-scoring run of 75 yards to the 1 against Texas five days earlier.
- --Jackson & TB Hugh Charles (12-66) teamed for 171 yards, as the duo now own six of the top 33 efforts in school history for combined rushing yards by a quarterback and tailback. The 171 yards is 28th on the list, as all six entire by the pair are from this season.
- > The win enabled K-State to become bowl-eligible for the first time since it won the Big 12 title in 2003, while the Buffs fell to 1-9 for just the third time in their history, having dropped 13 of their last 14 games.

Iowa State

- ➤ Quickly... The win guaranteed CU will not finish last or tied for last in the Big 12 North; CU has not finished last in conference play outright since 1915 or has shared it since 1984... The first quarter took 31 minutes to play (17 rushes, just two incomplete passes out of 11 tries); the first half took 1:12... The 314 yards in the first half was easily the most by Colorado in a half this season, and surpassed the total in six games... WR Chase McBride had CU's second longest punt return of the year (20 yards in the third quarter); the only other one in double figures was the team long, Stephone Robinson's 36-yard effort against Colorado State... CU scored on its first seven possessions and did not punt until 2:28 remained in the game... CU was a season best 6-of-12 on third downs today, including 3-of-3 in 3rd-and-1 situations.
- > Long Drive: CU's 15-play, 95-yard drive that ate 7:51 off the clock in the second quarter were season highs in all three categories (plays, yards and time).
- > Firsts. TB Mell Holliday made his first career start; he's the sixth walk-on or former walk-on to start a game for Colorado this season... OL Jack Tipton made his first start of the season, the fifth of his career but his first at tackle; his last start came at Kansas State in 2005... DE Maurice Lucas had his first career sack (third quarter)... WRs Alvin Barnett and Patrick Williams had their first career TD catches (Barnett, 26 yards in the first quarter; Williams 39 yards, third quarter).
- > 200/200. Colorado reach 200 yards in both rushing (263) and passing (200), the first time the Buffs have recorded at least 200 in both since the second game of the 2005 season (versus New Mexico State). It's the 34th time CU has accomplished this feat dating back to 1989, and has a 32-2 record in such games. The 463 yards was a season best, topping the 380 against Texas Tech.
- > WR Alvin Barnett (4-77, 1 TD). He had a career-high 77 yards, including 72 yards in the first quarter when he had his first career touchdown (in fact, he had 64 of the yards on CU's opening possession).
- > TB Mell Holliday (18-126, 0 TD). Holliday had a career day in his first-ever start, posting his first career 100-yard rushing game, topping his previous best of 67 yards.
- > QB Bernard Jackson (13-of-19, 200, 2 TD passing; 9-69, 1 TD rushing). Jackson enjoyed his first career 200-yard passing game, and went back-to-back games without an interception for the first time as a starter (he has thrown just two picks in his last 88 attempts). His passer rating for the game (191.6) is easily his career best.

Nebraska

- > Quickly... Colorado finished 2-10 in 2006, just the third 10-loss season in school history (the 1980 and 1984 teams finished 1-10)... Colorado has now dropped 14 straight to ranked teams...The Buffs finished 0-5 on the road, its first winless season away from home since a similar mark in 1984... DL Alex Ligon had his first sack since the middle of the 2004 season, when he was credited with half a sack against Iowa State (his last full sack came when he had three at Washington State earlier that same season)... Colorado gave up a safety for the first time since Oct. 18, 2003, when Kansas State blocked a punt out of the end zone at Manhattan... Nebraska had one play of 40 yards or longer (a 57-yard pass completion), with CU allowing six for the entire year, matching a 20-season low done three other years since the 1987 team only gave up four of that distance... Colorado was outscored 106-40 in the fourth quarter this season (16-0 against Nebraska)... The Memorial Stadium record crowd of 85,800 for the game was the sixth largest crowd CU played before in its history, trailing three crowds at Michigan and one each at Ohio State and Georgia (earlier this season).
- > TB Mell Holliday (8-67, 1 TD). He enjoyed a good return to his home state, scoring his second touchdown of the season, a 45-yard jaunt in the third quarter that was the fifth longest rush against Nebraska this season. Holliday finished the year with 512 yards; with Hugh Charles (779) and Bernard Jackson (677), they became the first Buff trio to all rush for over 500 yards since 2001 and the 10th group to do it in CU history.
- > Lasts. Seniors who were not regular starters over the course of the season who started their Colorado career finale included TE Paul Creighton and DL Alex Ligon.
- > WR Cody Crawford (5-79, 0 TD). He had single game career bests in receptions and yards, and finished the season with 15 grabs for 222 yards (13 for 184 over the last five games).
- > TB Hugh Charles (5-61, 0 TD). His 44-yard run in the first quarter set up a CU touchdown; in the 2005 game, he had a 45-yard run on the first play of the game, which set up Colorado's lone score (a Mason Crosby field goal). A year ago, he had 12 rushes for 78 yards against the Huskers, getting 33 yards on 11 tries after the long run. He finished the season as CU's leading rusher for the second straight season (139 carries for 779 yards.

GAME #1-MONTANA STATE 19, COLORADO 10

BOULDER — Jeff Hastings connected on four field goals, the last a 41-yard effort with just 2:58 remaining to basically end any Colorado rally, as Montana State defeated the Buffaloes 19-10 in the first game for new CU head coach Dan Hawkins.

Montana State, ranked No. 22 in the I-AA national poll, hung around in the first half by playing solid defense and then outscored CU 13-0 after halftime to leave town with the win, its first over a Division I team since 1984. It was Colorado's first-ever game against a non-Division I team since the divisional setup was created in 1978.

Mason Crosby's 24-yard field goal opened the scoring, as not only did he give CU a 3-0 lead, he became Colorado's all-time leading kick scorer in the process. Hastings came back with 35- and 44-yard efforts to give MSU a 6-3 edge a minute into the second quarter. At that point, it seemed to light a fire under the Buffaloes, who answered with a 12-play, 74-yard drive capped by a 1-yard touchdown plunge by quarterback James Cox. CU would take that 10-6 lead into the lockerroom.

It stood to reason that CU would pull away in the second half, but no one told Montana State, as the Bobcats did not allow another first down until 11 minutes remained in the game. In the meantime, Cory Carpenter led MSU on a 7-play, 58-yard drive that ended with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Michael Jefferson, and the Bobcats were ahead to stay at 13-10.

While CU struggled offensively, the defense hung in there with at two goal line stands, stopping MSU on a 4th-and-goal from the 1 the first time and the second time holding the Bobcats to a 19-yard Hastings field goal. That 3-pointer made the score 16-10 with 5:12 to go; on the ensuing kickoff, Stephone Robinson fumbled at the Buff 26 and MSU recovered, setting the stage for Hastings' fourth kick that sealed the unset

CU managed just 12 first downs and 216 yards on offense, its fewest in a season opener since 1979. Montana State, which ran 70 plays, or 16 more than the Buffs, amassed 288, though just 50 came on the ground on 35 tries.

GAME #2—COLORADO 14, COLORADO 10

DENVER — Caleb Hanie ran for one touchdown and passed for another, and it was enough for Colorado State as defense ruled the day in the Rams 14-10 victory over Colorado in the Qwest Rocky Mountain Showdown presented by Dr Pepper.

CU saw its three-game winning streak in the series snapped, though early on it appeared that CSU might be in for a long afternoon after the Buffaloes marched 65 yards with the opening kickoff and took a 7-0 lead just five minutes into the game.

Bernard Jackson, making his first start at quarterback, picked up two first downs on the drive with runs of 10 and 14 yards, and scored the touchdown himself on a 3-yard third down run. Tailback Byron Ellis got Buffs started, as he carried the first two plays for 20 yards to drive the Buffs into CSU territory.

The Rams tied the score two possessions later, as Hanie matched Jackson with a 3-yard scoring run, that effort capping a 71-yard drive. Early in the second quarter, the Buffs converted the only turnover of the game into a Mason Crosby field goal, as his boot from 40 yards out also have CU its last lead of the day at 10-7.

No one knew at the time, but when Hanie hit Kory Sperry with a 5-yard pass in the back of the end zone with 3:48 on the clock, the day's scoring would come to an end. But the Rams made the lead stand in winning for just the 19th time in the 78-game series.

Hanie played the largest role in the win, as he completed his first 14 passes and finished 20-of-23 for 233 yards, with Johnny Walker hauling in 10 of those balls for 158 yards.

CU had it struggles on offense for the second straight game, especially in the second half, when the Buffs earned just two first downs and had 28 yards on offense. Though one score away from tying or taking the lead, Colorado did not cross its 41-yard line on any of if its final three possessions and had just 146 yards for the game. CSU couldn't do a thing running the football, as the Rams had just 15 net rushing yards and had only 248 overall as well.

GAME #3—ARIZONA STATE 21, COLORADO 3

BOULDER — Hugh Charles rushed for 109 yards but was the only real offensive highlight for Colorado as the Buffaloes slowly succumbed to No. 22 Arizona State, 21-3.

ASU quarterback Rudy Carpenter threw for 248 yards and two touchdowns as the Sun Devils overcame two early fumbles and a 3-0 deficit to win the first game ever played between the schools from neighboring states.

Mason Crosby scored the only points on the night for the Buffs after Arizona State turned the ball over on the third play of the game. George Hypolite recovered a Shaun DeWitty fumble at the Arizona State 17, and Crosby nailed a 29-yarder after CU moved the ball just five yards. It was one of four Arizona State turnovers in the game, and the only one Colorado would convert into points.

The Sun Devils bounced back and drove to the Buff 2, but lost possession when Carpenter fumbled the ball on the run and it hit the pylon on its way out of bounds. On their next drive though, the Sun Devils did get the ball into the end zone as Ryan Torain capped a 10-play, 71-yard drive that put ASU ahead for good at 7-3. Carpenter then hooked up with Chis McGaha on an 18-yard TD pass to extend the lead to 14-3 when ASU got the ball back after a CU punt, the score set up by a 48-yard return by Terry Richardson

The schools then stopped each other on the next 15 possessions combined, including the very next drive when CU marched to the ASU 2 where quarterback Bernard Jackson fumbled as he made his way to the goal line with the Sun Devils' Josh Barrett recovering the ball. Carpenter threw his second TD pass, this one to Zach Miller, to close the scoring with 1:33 left after ASU recovered a fumbled punt return try by Charpelle Brown at the Buff 20.

CU could not get untracked for a third straight time on offense, and failed to score in the second half for the third game in a row. The Buff defense held its own, limiting the potent ASU passing attack to just 10 plays of 10 or more yards (and just three of 20 or longer). The Sun Devils had 294 yards at halftime but mustered just 136 after intermission.

GAME #4—GEORGIA 14, COLORADO 13

ATHENS, Ga. — Backup quarterback Joe Cox connected with tight end Martrez Milner on a 20-yard touchdown with just 46 seconds remaining to rally No. 9 Georgia to a 14-13 win over the upset-minded Colorado Buffaloes.

CU, in search of its first win for new head coach Dan Hawkins led the contest for exactly 48 minutes, building a 13-0 lead in silencing the 92,746 in attendance at UGA's Sanford Stadium for most of the afternoon. But once Cox entered the game, the Bulldogs came alive and were finally able to move the ball against a stout Colorado defense.

He took over late in the third quarter and directed UGA deep into CU territory, where the Buffs responded with the first of two fourth down stops inside the red zone. But on the next series, Cox threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Brannan Southerland to get the Bulldogs on the board with 9:11 remaining.

The Buffs had a chance to put the game away on the next series, and seemed to be in business after Bernard Jackson completed a 14-yard pass on third down to Alvin Barnett to the CU 44. But on the next play, tailback Hugh Charles ran hard for nine yards but lost the ball, with Jeff Owns recovering for UGA near midfield.

UGA earned a first down at the CU 18 after just two plays, but the Colorado defense again rose to the challenge. Ryan Walters threw Kregg Lumpkin for a 3-yard loss on 3rd-and-one at the CU 9, followed by Abraham Wright knocking down Cox's pass on fourth down. But UGA forced CU into punting with 2:29 left, setting up the winning scoring drive.

CU had methodically built its lead, getting on the board with 3:14 left in the first quarter on a 26-yard Mason Crosby field goal. Then early in the second quarter, the Buffs put together its most explosive offensive drive of the season, marching 63 yards in just four plays. Jackson hit Dusty Sprague for 16 yards and followed it up with a 28-yard run to the UGA 19. He then completed an 18-yard pass to Hugh Charles who took it down to the 1, where Jackson took it over for a 10-0 lead.

Crosby added a 36-yard field goal early in the third quarter after George Hypolite sacked Georgia starting QB Matthew Stafford, forcing and recovering a fumble at the UGA 19.

Colorado posted season offensive bests in every major category, yards (313), rushing yards (173), passing yards (140), first downs (17) and time of possession (34:09). Defensively, the Buffs limited Georgia to only 54 yards on the ground, but the Bulldogs passed for 230, most in the fourth quarter when making their comeback.

GAME #5—MISSOURI 28, COLORADO 13

Attendance: 57,824 Time: 3:02 Weather: 69 degrees, cloudy skies, 5 mph winds from the NW

(September 30; Columbia, Mo.)

(October 7; Boulder)

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Chase Daniel threw four touchdown passes as he led Missouri to its first 5-0 start in 25 years as the Tigers kept the Colorado Buffaloes winless on the season with a 28-13 victory.

It was another case of coulda-shoulda-woulda for CU, as the Buffs turned in their finest offensive performance of the year, but struggles in the red zone put a damper on their point production. Colorado had just one touchdown on five trips inside the Missouri 20, and scored a total of six points on two field goals the other four times.

Missouri came into the game with the nation's No. 1 ranked defense, but CU shredded the Tigers for 154 yards in the first quarter alone. However, Mizzou rolled up 148 yards of its own in the first stanza as Daniel threw a pair of short touchdown passes to Chase Coffman that sandwiched a 32-yard Mason Crosby field goal for a 14-3 MU lead. Crosby added a 36-yard kick midway through the second quarter to pull CU to within 14-6. But two easy scoring chances deep in Mizzou territory came up empty, as one pass sailed high and another bounced off a facemask.

Late in the first half, CU punter Matt DiLallo couldn't handle a high snap and he was tackled at his own 14, where six plays later Daniel threw his third TD pass, this one to Martin Rucker just 11 seconds before intermission. Down 21-6, many in attendance had CU pegged for dead, but the Buffs went deep on the first play of the second half, as Bernard Jackson connected with Dusty Sprague on a 63-yard pass play to the Tiger 2. A facemask penalty cut that distance in half and Jackson scored himself from a yard out to cut the deficit to 21-13 just 47 seconds into the third quarter.

CU seemingly had thwarted an MU drive about eight minutes later, but the officials both on the field and in the replay booth ruled against an interception by Terrence Wheatley. Mizzou then mounted an 8-play, 52-yard drive capped by Daniel's last TD pass, a 9-yard toss to Jared Perry to close the day's scoring.

Colorado rushed for 183 yards on a Tiger defense that had allowed less than 43 the first four games of the year, and limited a potent MU rushing attack to just 100 yards on 40 tries. But Missouri came up with the big play when needed, usually on third down, as the Tigers converted 11-of-18 times to break the Ruffs spirit

GAME #6—BAYLOR 34, COLORADO 31 (3 OT)

BOULDER — Joe Pawelek's interception in the end zone in the third overtime ended Colorado's hopes for a rally, as well as for its first win of the season, as Baylor defeated the Buffaloes, 34-31. It was the 10th straight loss for CU dating back to 2005, tying the school record for consecutive defeats.

CU tied the game at 17-17 with 4:13 left in regulation on a 9-yard touchdown run by Byron Ellis, as the 12-play, 80-yard drive swung momentum back to the Buffaloes, who stopped the Bears cold on their next series. But Baylor did the same to the Buffs, as CU couldn't move the ball out beyond its 30 in the final two minutes in hopes of setting up a game winning field goal, thus the stage was set for overtime.

Colorado won the overtime toss and elected to play defense, and the Bears struck first, taking six plays to move 25 yards with Paul Mosley scoring his second touchdown of the day in putting BU ahead, 24-17. Colorado answered in four plays, as Bernard Jackson threw his first touchdown pass of the year (and his career), finding Riar Geer in the center of the end zone on the 10-yard play.

In the second extra session, lightning struck for the Buffaloes as Hugh Charles ripped through a big hole on the left side and ran 25 yards for a 31-24 CU lead right in front of the student section. Baylor earned a first down at the CU 13, and after a Mosley run set up a 2nd-and-7, Shawn Bell threw two straight incompletions leading to fourth down. Bell seemingly had forever to find a receiver, and eventually found Trent Shelton by himself for the touchdown to tie the game for the fourth time.

The Bears came back in the third OT and converted a 3rd-and-14 to get the 8-yard line, but the Buff defense stiffened, forcing a 22-yard field goal by Ryan Havens. On CU's first play, Charles was stopped at the line of scrimmage and then Jackson picked up four. Jackson then dropped back and tried to get the ball in the end zone to Tyson DeVree, but Pawelek read the play and picked off the ball, preserving the win for Baylor, just its second in 41 tries on the road in Big 12 play.

GAME #7—COLORADO 30, TEXAS TECH 6

(October 14; Boulder)

BOULDER — Bernard Jackson threw for two touchdowns and ran for a third with All-American Mason Crosby adding three field goals including a couple of long-range bombs as Colorado ended a 10-game losing streak with a dominant 30-6 victory over Texas Tech.

The Buffaloes had a decisive edge in all three phases of the game — offense, defense and special teams — but excelled particularly on defense in shutting down the Red Raiders explosive passing attack. CU limited Tech to 245 yards through the air, 105 below its season average, and a 104.2 rating, over 40 points shy of its number coming in. The Buffaloes pitched a shutout until 9:04 remained in the game, when the Red Raiders got on the board largely due to a 54-yard pass play where CU missed two tackles. Colorado also did not commit a penalty for the fourth time in its history, the first time since Sent. 21. 1985.

CU scored on its first possession for the sixth time in seven games, but this time never looked back. Jackson piloted a five-play, 65-yard drive, capped with a 28-yard TD pass to tight end Riar Geer. The lead grew to 14-0 on the first possession of the second quarter, as Jackson hit a streaking Jarrell Yates in the corner of the end zone from 29 yards out; Jackson had a 35-yard run earlier in the drive. Crosby then added field goals of 56 and 26 yards, the former the second longest in the nation in 2006 and the latter with just five second left before the half to bump the lead up to 20-0.

Crosby connected from 53 yards in the third quarter, set up by a Hugh Charles 35 yard run, and then Jackson closed the scoring on a 1-yard run following a failed Tech onside kick attempt after its score.

Charles finished with 119 yards on the ground, as the Buffs topped 200 yards rushing in consecutive games for the first time since late 2002, with Jackson accounting for 205 yards total offense. Defensively, many players shined for the Buffaloes. Ryan Walters made the first two interceptions of his career, linebacker Jordon Dizon recorded a career-high 16 tackles (11 solo), with end Abraham Wright making a key fourth down sack in the first half when Tech was bidding to slice CU's two-TD lead in half.

Tech had just 276 yards overall, and only 31 rushing on 15 attempts. CU allowed TTU just five plays in plus territory all game, including two for losses one being Wright's sack, and an interception.

GAME #8—OKLAHOMA 24, COLORADO 3

(October 21; Norman, Okla.)

NORMAN — Allen Patrick rushed for 110 yards and a touchdown subbing for injured Heisman candidate Adrian Peterson to lead No. 20 Oklahoma to a 24-3 win over Colorado.

Allen, only the second player to gain 100 yards against the Buffaloes in 21 games, needed 35 carries to get the yards, as CU's linebackers made him earn every one. With the temperature in the 40s all game with stiff winds in the 20-25 mile an hour range all evening, whichever team could establish the run when it was with the wind on offense would have the advantage, and it went to the Sooners.

The Buffaloes were handcuffed from the start on offense; going against the wind in the first quarter, CU had just one first down 26 yards of offense while the Sooners built a 10-0 lead. Paul Thompson and Manuel Johnson hooked up on a three-yard touchdown pass to cap a 12-play, 61-yard effort the first time OU had the ball. OU also used good clock management at the end of the quarter, using two timeouts to assure a field goal attempt with the wind; Garret Hartley connected from 46 yards out with just four seconds left in the stanza and the Sooners had a two-score edge.

That would cap the scoring for the next two quarters. CU had the ball in Sooner territory twice, with Bernard Jackson intercepted by Zach Latimer to end one drive. The other ended with aide of the wind, which blew a Mason Crosby 56-yard field goal attempt wide left. OU had just one real scoring threat in the span, but its first possession of the second half against the wind died on an incomplete fourth down pass at the CU 29.

CU's defense forced OU to punt from its own 20 late in the third quarter, and seemingly would get the ball in great field position to mount a last run at the Sooners. But Stephone Robinson fumbled the punt and the Sooners recovered at their own 46 and proceeded to go 54 yards in 12 plays for the clinching touchdown. The Buffs did get on the board with a 39-yard field goal from Crosby to pull back to within 17-3 with 6:13 left, but OU recovered the onside kick try to squelch the comeback. The Sooners added a cosmetic touchdown with 17 seconds remaining to inflate the final score.

CU had just 113 total yards, running 44 plays to 75 by the Sooners as OU controlled the clock. Thaddaeus Washington recorded a career-high 19 tackles with Jordan Dizon matching his career best with 15 as CU's linebacker play shined in the contest. Washington also added four third down stops.

GAME #9—KANSAS 20, COLORADO 15

(October 28; Lawrence, Kan.)

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Trailing 9-0 at halftime, the Kansas coaches decided to pull the redshirt off quarterback Todd Reesing, and the decision proved to be a good one as the Jayhawks utilized the true freshman's talents in rallying for a 20-15 win over the Colorado Buffaloes.

Three Mason Crosby field goals, from 37, 26 and 32 yards, enabled CU to build a 9-0 lead at halftime. The Jayhawk defense stiffened each time the Buffs approached their goal line, and the turning point may have come on CU's first second half possession. Lionel Harris intercepted Reesing at the Kansas 40 to set CU up with a short field, but KU stopped Bernard Jackson cold on a 4th-and-1 try from its 14 to take over on downs, ending the threat.

Two series later, Kansas got on the board thanks to a pair of big plays. Reesing hit Jake Sharp with a 42-yard pass to the Colorado 34, and after a pass interference penalty on Harris set the 'Hawks up with a first down at the CU 22, Reesing hit Jon Cornish in the flat for what turned into a 22-yard touchdown. With the lead down to 9-7, the Buffs appeared poised to answer, marching to the KU 25. But on third down Jackson was intercepted by Aqib Talib, who returned to pick 59 yards to the CU 24. Four plays later, Reesing took it in from three yards out to give KU the lead it would not relinquish.

Reesing engineered another TD drive on KU's next possession, connecting with Derek Fine on a 5-yard scoring pass producing a 20-9 Jayhawk lead (Kansas inexplicably went for and missed a two-point try). The Buffs moved to their 44 but were intercepted on a halfback pass play, and all KU literally had to do was run out the clock. Driving to the Buff 7, Reesing was hit hard by Brandon Nicolas, with the resulting fumble scooped up by Ryan Walters, who returned it 95 yards for a touchdown. CU's two-point try went in and out of the hands of Alvin Barnett and the KU lead remained at five.

An onside kick try by the Buffs failed, but the defense did hold KU to three plays and out. The Buffs had just 59 seconds and no timeouts to work with and could not earn a first down. A 61-yard pass play at the end of the game was even wiped out as Jackson was over the line of scrimmage, mirroring the way the second half had gone for Colorado.

CU forced four turnovers, but could muster just 256 yards on offense in losing to Kansas for the first time since 2000

GAME #10—KANSAS STATE 34, COLORADO 21

(November 4; Boulder)

BOULDER — Josh Freeman completed 22-of-26 passes for 251 yards and two touchdowns, earning Big 12 Offensive player of the week honors in the process, to lead Kansas State to a 34-21 win over Colorado.

After a scoreless first quarter, Kansas State posted 17 unanswered points in the second to force Colorado to play from behind the remainder of the game. KSU had worked to the three-score lead on the strength of a 10-play, 66-yard touchdown drive, capped by a 15-yard run by Leon Patton, and two significantly shorter drives. The Wildcats moved to a 14-0 lead three plays after recovering a Stephone Robinson fumble at the CU 16, as Yamon Figurs caught a 9-yard TD pass from Freeman. K-State added a Jeff Snodgrass 46-yard field goal with just one second left in the half.

Despite just 64 yards in the first half, CU still put up a fight and had its best offensive half of the season, scoring 21 points while gaining 306 yards after halftime, but it wouldn't be enough. CU couldn't punch it into the end zone on its first possession of the second half, driving from its 14 to a first-and-goal at the KSU 3, where eventually a fourth down run by quarterback Bernard Jackson came up short at the KSU 1.

The next time CU had the ball, the Buffs did crack the scoreboard, marching 64 yards in six plays, highlighted by a 40-yard run by Mell Holliday and a 3-yard touchdown run by Jackson. Snodgrass nailed a 27-yard field goal after a couple of big plays by the Wildcats to run the KSU lead back up to 20-7, and Jackson personally answered right back with a 62-yard run for a score to cut it to 20-14, the closest the Buffs would come. Just 91 seconds later, Jordy Nelson took a Freeman pass and scored on a 74-yard play, 73 of the yards coming after the catch as he eluded no less than three would-be tacklers.

Jackson connected with tight end Tyson DeVree on a fourth down, 1-yard TD pass to close the scoring for the Buffs, but it followed the last KSU score, a Figurs 30-yard run on a reverse that put the Wildcats up by 20. Those plays capped a wild fourth quarter, which saw the teams combine for 31 points and 332 yards.

GAME #11—COLORADO 33, IOWA STATE 16

BOULDER — Bernard Jackson threw two touchdown passes and ran for a third as Colorado concluded its home schedule and sent 23 seniors out with a 33-16 win over lowa State.

Jackson completed 13-of-19 passes for 200 yards and the two scores, the first a 26-yard laser to Alvin Barnett starting a run of seven consecutive drives the Buffs scored on. It was by far Colorado's best offensive game of the year, as CU rolled up a season-high 463 yards on offense.

Mell Holliday rushed for 126 yards, setting up four of the Buff scores in logging a team season-high in single game yards. Two of those were Mason Crosby field goals, as the senior All-American kicked four in the game, the fourth time in his career and the second time against the Cyclones.

With CU jumping to a 30-7 lead after scoring 23 consecutive points one lowa State tied the score at 7-7, one of the most exciting moments of the game came when Crosby attempted a 65-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, but the try came up less than a yard short.

But there was plenty of excitement en route to that moment, as Crosby made kicks of 47, 38, 41 and 42 yards sandwiched around two other CU touchdowns. Jackson scored on a 5-yard run midway through the second quarter to cap a 15-play, 95-yard drive that put the Buffs ahead 17-7. Jackson then threw his second scoring pass, this one to Patrick Williams from 39 yards out after the Buffs took possession on a punt, with that score building the Buffalo lead to 30-7 with 5:06 left in the third quarter.

ISU played the game just three days after learning head coach Dan McCarney was forced to step down at the end of the season. The Cyclones matched CU's first score on their first possession, marching 86 yards in 10 plays with Bret Meyer and Jon Davis hooking up on a 21-yard TD pass. Other than a field goal as the third quarter expired, the only other ISU score came following Crosby's long field goal miss.

GAME #12—NEBRASKA 37, COLORADO 14

Attendance: 85,800 Time: 3:23 Weather: 54 degrees, partly cloudy, 21 mph winds from the north

LINCOLN, Neb. — Zac Taylor threw for 249 yards and two touchdown passes as No. 23 Nebraska had to use a lot of trickery in winning its ninth game of the season as the Cornhuskers ended a disappointing season for Colorado in dispatching the Buffaloes, 37-14.

In a classic "the final score did not indicate how close the game was," the Huskers snapped a 14-14 tie late in the third quarter thanks to a pass interference call on CU on a halfback pass, and then stole any remaining momentum from the Buffaloes with a safety to open the fourth quarter and then a successful field goal fake five minutes into the period that led to a touchdown. When the blitz was over, NU put 16 points on the scoreboard in less than 10 minutes to take control of the game.

After forcing CU to punt on its first possession, NU's Major Culbert got a piece of the ball on Matt DiLallo's kick, the ball rolling 26 yards to set the Huskers up at their own 42. Taylor threw his first TD pass of the day to Terrence Nunn some 10 plays later, the drive aided by an alleged face mask on CU's Abraham Wright which replays showed not to be the case. The call nullified a third down sack and kept the drive alive.

But the Buffaloes bounced right back and marched 75 yards in six plays to tie the score, with Bernard Jackson connecting with Riar Geer on a 14-yard touchdown pass. Nebraska took a 14-7 lead into halftime, as with just over four minutes left in the second quarter, Joe Ganz lined up where the field goal kicker normally would, took the snap, and then hit defensive end Barry Turner with a 29-yard TD throw, as the play totally fooled the Buffs.

Nebraska was driving to open the second half, but Lionel Harris forced Brandon Jackson to fumble at the CU 19, where Thaddaeus Washington recovered and returned it to the 29. Four plays later, Mell Holliday broke free for a 45-yard run that tied the game for the final time, as the Huskers would score the last 23 points of the game, the final seven coming on a cosmetic TD run with just 23 seconds left.

Jordon Dizon had a career-high 19 tackles for the Buffaloes, who saw NU run 76 plays to just their 54.

an M.O. quickly—most punts others fair catch, he prides

Williams possesses a rare combination of speed and athletic ability, and is CU's top legitimate deep threat to stretch opposing defenses. As a true freshman in 2004, he had the misfortune of breaking bones in both of his hands.

He had more than his fair share of surgeries in his career, the latest this past on Oct. 5 after he suffered a torn meniscus two days earlier in a Tuesday practice. He missed the next five games, a rock in the middle of the road in what was otherwise turning out to be a solid senior season following plenty of adversity in his CU career.

McKay was in the hunt for starting honors until briefly sidetracked by an ankle injury late in camp. He has solid coverage skills, and he is definitely a front-runner to be one of CU's starting corners in the future.

Jackson is in the mold of the kind of quarterback who has flourished at Colorado in the past, going back to the days when CU ran the wishbone and I-bone where the OB was an equal threat as a runner and passer. His passing skills were raw prior to this season, but have dramatically improved with the most attention he's received since he first arrived at CU in 2003. He had brief trials at running back, wide receiver and punt returner, always moved in-season instead of the spring, and then usually switched back before he could develop. It was a way the old coaching staff did try to get him on the field so his talent could be utilized.

He was named the starter after CU's second fall scrimmage, but struggled in the opening loss to Montana State. Then football was shoved aside, as his father passed away on Sept. 20 after fighting major health problems the previous five years. He rejoined his teammates the following week but has seen just brief action since (late in the first half versus Texas Tech when Jackson had the wind knocked out of him).

He is one of the fastest players on the team with great instincts. He has seen increased playing time as the season has progressed, and worked his way into the starting lineup on a permanent basis the seventh game (second half) of the season. He had substantial playing time as a junior after transferring from Garden City (Kan.) Community College, when Lorenzo Sims went down with an injury. The Buffs originally recruited him as a running back in 2003. Also leads the team in special teams points, as he excels on many units.

Former CU basketball center and current Indiana Pacer David Harrison helped persuade Sanders to become a Buff. Harrison, also from Nashville, has known Sanders since 1998... During high school, he traveled to South Africa to volunteer at an orphanage.

He was able to study under Ray Guy Award finalist John Torp while redshirting as a true freshman in 2005, and it paid dividends. While still raw in a few areas, he was just the third freshman, true or redshirt, to ever lead the Buffs in punting. His average—43.7—was over five yards better than that of any previous frosh punter in school annals.

Has a great pedigree as his father, Marc, played quarterback for CU in the late 1980s until a knee injury ended his career; the elder

Walters still owns CU's all-time best single-game passing rating (353.3 vs. Kansas State in 1989). In fact, the younger Walters grew up in married housing right next to CU's practice fields. He excelled as a QB in high school, but has adapted to playing free safety, is a fierce hitter, and acknowledges that playing QB helps him to know what the offense is thinking. Considered the team leader in the secondary. He has one of the strongest legs in college football, as evidenced by his 58-yard field goal at Miami in 2005, the longest without a tee at sea level in NCAA history (to go nicely with a 60-yarder in Boulder in 2004). The coaches felt CU can be in field goal range 65 yards on in. As with most kickers, he had a ritual: he'll sometimes hit 40-60 golf balls at the range two days before games and regularly breaks 80 when he plays 18. He struggled to adapt to the fast pace of Division I football upon his arrival in 2005, and had some moderate success after adapting as a sophomore. But he recently has broken out as a junior, and has become one of the quarterbacks' favorite targets, with eight catches the last three games after nabbing 11 in the first eight. Special teams coach Kent Riddle just loves Carpenter. A heady player (3.9 grade point average while earning a double major), he's always in the right place at the right time on coverage units. His cousin (Ricky Manning) was a defensive back at UCLA, while another (DeShawn Stevenson) plays guard for the Utah Jazz; second cousin (Bruce Bowen) is a forward for the San Antonio Spurs. Sims is CU's most physical corner, which makes sense since he is basically a converted safety.

He has had to endure three wrist surgeries in his CU career and will have a fourth after the 2006 season, but he has managed to become one of the premier secondary players in the Big 12. In man coverage, he is rarely thrown at by opposing quarterbacks as he has a knack for the ball, with five interceptions. A sixth at Missouri was disallowed even upon replay, though it sure looked like he did have it.

Ellis runs with more of a bruising style and likes to shoot the ball up the middle. He is majoring in integrative physiology at CU and was 4.0 student in high school; that makes him the perfect back to predict what the defense will do and he's often in the game for his cerebral knowledge of things.

The nickel back in CU's package in obvious passing situations. Impressed the coaches right away in camp and they wanted him on the field in some capacity, as he has also seen time as a return man on punts and kickoffs.

Creighton can play both fullback and tight end, and is a regular on special team units (punt return, kickoff, FG/PAT). Was sidelined early in the season as he was weakened from a nerve injury in his leg/thigh area and didn't fully recover until a month into the season.

Granted he sees action only on the kickoff and punt coverage teams, but he is CU's only two sport athlete outside of the traditional football-track combo; he's an alpine skier on CU's national championship ski team.

Switched from the logiam at inside linebacker to fullback this fall (midway in camp) and has blossomed at his new position, working his way to first-team status by the start of the conference season. In the win over Texas Tech, he was one CU's "secret weapons," catching two passes for 38 yards, both plays setting up CU scores.

He moved to defensive end from inside linebacker as a junior and has really come into his own this season, rallying from a scary moment in CU's second scrimmage to start every game (he landed on his head/neck on a play and was hospitalized overnight). A fierce hitter, his initials WBD could stand for "Weapon of Ball-carrier Destruction.".

A most interesting story as the young man's journey brought him from Omaha's Benson High School to Wayne State (Neb.), where he lettered twice at fullback. He then transferred to Nebraska where he did not make the team as a walk-on (wasn't allowed to try out) and then came west to CU where he made the team and subsequently earned a scholarship. The father of five, including four daughters, he worked this past summer as a welder to help support his family.

He has had the chore of replacing three-year starter Brian Iwuh at outside linebacker, and has stepped in admirably. Though not having the knack, at least yet, of making the spectacular, stand-out kind of play Iwuh was famous for, Jones rather quietly goes about his job and is third on the team in tackles. He had a career-high 10 tackles in the 33-16 win over Iowa State (and had a INT at Kansas).

He started the season opener, as he came out of camp essentially tied for the top spot on the depth chart at free safety with Ryan Walters (and also started against Baylor when Walters was injured). His father, Jacob Burney, is in his fifth year as defensive line coach for the NFL Denver Broncos.

A transfer from Western New Mexico (he was a scholarship player there for two years), he prides himself on going "100 miles an hour" every practice. "It's good if (the other team) think you're a little crazy because it makes them a little intimidated of you." He ended fall camp No. 1 at fullback, and though since supplanted on the depth chart, he still lives by his creed and still sees action special teams.

Ascending up CU's all-time tackles list, he has a nose for where to be on third down; his 17 third down stops in 2006 are one shy of the school record. He became the first true freshman since 1991 and just the sixth-ever to start a season opener at CU in 2004 (the first ILB). He lived up to his nod, racking up 8 tackles, to go with a caused interception, one PBU, a TD save and a third down stop against CSU. His given Hawaiian name, Kainalu (pronounced kye-ah-na-loo) means "ocean wave."

An invited walk-on for the fall of 2002, he patiently waited his turn, earning a scholarship last spring. The coaches wish he was just a freshman or sophomore as they feel he has the potential to be an NFL-caliber tight end, he just needs time. He is a perfectionist, as he is his own worst critic when he doesn't make a play in practice he knows he should have made.

He has seen spot action in 2006, as he's battled through a couple of injuries, but he's back at full speed for the finale at Nebraska. With three seniors on the defensive front, he has a bright future and will likely compete for starting honors in 2007.

A walk-on who has worked hard and as a result has seen his playing time increase to the point where is in the regular receiver rotation. He's also tough, perhaps due to his ancestry; he is a distant relative of Buffalo Bill Cody, and perhaps his genes drew on that as he played the bulk of 2006 with a cracked rib. Once he got on the field, he wasn't going to let something like a little 'ol cracked rib keep him off. How tough is Thaddaeus? He suffered two cracked front teeth early in the Kansas State game and still came back to play; he had a root canal the following Tuesday to help alleviate the pain. He was able to start in his home finale against Iowa State the following Saturday. Hails from the same high school that produced former CU QB Kordell Stewart.

He has a hard luck start to his senior year, sidelined for the bulk of it with knee problems. He returned to action in late October and started the final two home games of his career, though inside at tackle as all his previous starts came at end (with most of his action prior to 2006 also at DE). He had three sacks at Washington State in 2004 and claimed Big 12 Defensive POW honors for his efforts.

An explosive player with great speed, Wright has a knack for getting in the backfield. He was the first player since Ron Woolfork (14 in 1993) to have recorded double figures in quarterback sacks at Colorado (Wright finished with 11½ in 2006). He was been in the top three all season in the NCAA in sacks, as well as in the top 20 in tackles for loss.

He has seen most of his action on special teams, though he did start the Missouri game. He got into the record book as a true freshman in 2005, as he returned an interception 99 yards for a touchdown at Oklahoma St., the second longest play in a school history by a frosh.

He took over in the Georgia game when Mark Fenton went down with an injury, and to his credit, the Buffs didn't miss a beat, as he was prepared. Though he plays a different style, he also brought to the table the mind of a chemical engineer—his major.

His senior year got sidetracked when he suffered a cracked fibula against Georgia; he missed the next six games and ended his hopes to repeat as a Rimington finalist. He first got the attention of the coaching staff during 2002 Alamo Bowl practices, when he had his first extensive look at the center position. All-Big 12 in 2005, he is the latest in CU's long line of all-conference centers.

He applied for the Rhodes Scholarship last spring, but he did not advance in the process, one of the toughest things to accomplish. However, he was one of 17 NFF Scholar-Athletes (winning an $18K postgraduate scholarship) and is a finalist for the Academic Heisman, the Draddy Award. In 2003, he started the most games (9) as a true freshman at CU since Eric Bieniemy started 11 at halfback in 1987.

He is following in the footsteps on Greg Pace, who lettered four years as CU's snapper on special teams; in fact, Pace is a student coach who has helped tutor Drescher on the finer points of snapping. He was recruited specifically for the role and stepped right into it as a true freshman, and has done quite well.

The best of CU's non-starting linemen, he is considered the "swing" guy, as he is capable of playing all four slots at the guard and tackle positions.

He really developed over the course of his redshirt freshman year, and showed he was pretty tough, too. He missed two games in the middle of the 2005 season due to a partially torn hamstring, but came back strong to start the last three games. He has started all but one game as a sophomore, missing the opener with an injury.

LINER NOTES, CONTINUED 76 Harrison was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-Big 12 squad in 2004, and he's been a regular in the starting lineup since. His Edwin Harrison grandfather (Calvin Jones) won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior lineman as a senior at Iowa in 1955; Jones was the first two-time consensus All-American in Iowa history, and his No. 62 was retired by the Hawkeyes. 77 One of the two tallest players on the Buffs at 6-8 (the other is frosh TE Nate Solder), Polumbus is entrenched at tackle and has bulked up some 25 pounds since arriving at CU in 2003. Two members of his family played sports at CU: Father (Tad) lettered in both football and Tyler Polumbus golf (1965-66), and an uncle (Gary Polumbus) lettered three years in golf and twice made it to the NCAA Championships. 78 Has seen a decent amount of action as a true freshman (one of four to play in 2006), though he suffered a concussion against Kansas Jason Brace State and is expected to miss the remainder of the year. But he figures big into CU's future plans up front. 83

A favorite go-to-guy for Joel Klatt in 2004 and 2005, he hasn't had the kind of productivity he experienced those two seasons as his climb on CU's all-time charts has slowed a bit (it's not been his fault). But he is a leader and has still made the big play on occasion in '06.

He played with current Denver Bronco Tony Scheffler at Western Michigan; DeVree transferred to CU in 2005 and was expected to help fill the roles vacated by Joe Klopfenstein and Quinn Sypniewski. He's done that for the most part, especially in the blocking department.

He has seen plenty of action at wide receiver, as he was awarded a scholarship in the spring, but "Popy" (his pickname) has made his

He has seen plenty of action at wide receiver, as he was awarded a scholarship in the spring, but "Pony" (his nickname) has made his bones so-to-speak at the four-year holder for All-American placekicker Mason Crosby. They're pretty close, and their parents often go to dinner together after games.

Quietly goes about his business, but if you look at his stats, lo and behold, he's second on the team in tackles for loss and has done an effective job in stopping the run. He's also a popular interview, as he speaks his mind but not in a flashy way; he's well just well versed.

He has set the school record for most catches by a freshman tight end in history and had the second most total yards as well as he

He has set the school record for most catches by a freshman tight end in history and had the second most total yards as well as he became the first freshman, true or redshirt, to ever lead CU in receiving. He never played tight end until he got to college, but when recruited, he had the frame that made coaches thing "future tight end."

He won the starting job coming out of camp, but struggled a bit in the opener and was replaced by Matthew DiLallo. DiLallo, in turn, had some troubles and Garden punted first against Kansas State. A walk-on, his real future might be competing to replace All-American placekicker Mason Crosby; he's shown he has a pretty strong leg.

Was ticketed to redshirt in 2005, but injuries decimated the DE position in mid-October and the coaches asked if he would give up the redshirt. He played for the first time against Texas in game six, and wound up starting CU's last seven games of the year.

He transferred to Colorado from Notre Dame the first week of school in September 2005; he has said he has no regrets leaving the Irish program which obviously has had a good run under Charlie Weis. He had played very well in the middle and is one of the big reasons CU has played so well against the run this season.

One of just four true freshman to play in 2006, the coaches are really excited about his future. He's seen some spot duty subbing for Jordon Dizon and Thaddaeus Washington (in addition to special teams duties), but with Washington being a senior and Dizon a junior, look for him to roll right into one of those two spots and occupy it for a long time to come. He practices hard and it transfers to games.

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

	All-Time	1989-06	Dan Hawkins
Games	Record	Record	Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5	11-48-2	7-16-1	0-0	5 / Bill McCartney

versus Top 25	66-131-3	40-50-2	0-5	20 / Bill McCartney

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the 11-year old league owns a 27-67 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own eight of those wins. CU is 8-11 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 8-5, Texas 4-6, Kansas State 2-4, Oklahoma 2-2, Baylor 1-3, Iowa State 1-8, Texas Tech 1-8, Kansas 0-2, Oklahoma State 0-4, Missouri 0-5 and Texas A&M 0-9. CU has played 17 of the 87 games, with Nebraska next with 12 (no one else has played10).

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 38-6, Kansas State 36-6, Oklahoma State 29-8, Texas 32-10, Oklahoma 30-11, Missouri 27-11, Texas A&M 29-12, Kansas 25-11, Iowa State 27-12, Texas Tech 29-14, Baylor 20-15 and Colorado 23-19 (remember traditionally CU plays one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Dan Hawkins falls in line with most, if not all, head coaches when it comes to turnovers, and that they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. He has penalties and rewards daily in the practice dependent on the number of turnovers committed or forced. Gary Barnett drilled home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football, which he learned from the legendary Bill McCartney. Statistics back up the argument, as the below will show that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 18 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 20th best overall record:

	Turnovers	Turnovers	Scoring Off Turnovers
	Committed	Forced	+/-	PF	PA	+/-

ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1936 (Nov. 6) Byron White scores 25 points against Utah in Boulder in a 31-7 CU victory; White scored four touchdowns and kicked a PAT to establish a Buff record.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado defeats Nebraska, 36-14, in the first-ever television appearance for the Buffaloes (NBC).
- 1956 The 50th anniversary of CU's first bowl champion team, as the '56 Buffaloes were 7-2-1 in the regular season and defeated Clemson 27-21 in the Orange Bowl.
- 1961 Colorado wins its first Big Eight Conference title, going 7-0 in league play and 9-1 overall before losing to LSU in the Orange Bowl (25-7). Along the way, CU posted key wins over Kansas (20-19, after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), Missouri (7-6) and Nebraska (holding the Cornhuskers to 31 yards of total offense and no first downs).
- 1966 Hale Irwin earns All-Big 8 honors for a second straight year at defensive back and leads CU to a second place finish in the Big 8.
- 1981 The 25th anniversary of the most dramatic comeback in CU history, as the Buffs defeat Oklahoma State 11-10 after trailing 10-3 with a minute left and facing a second-and-14 from its own 4. Steve Vogel connects with Brad Parker for a 9-yard touchdown and then hits Derek Singleton for the 2-point conversion for the win; it was the last time Singleton ever touched the ball, as he fell ill with spinal meningitis the next week and died New Year's Day 1982.
- 1971 Thirty-five years ago, a sophomore-laden CU team opened up with a couple of huge upsets on the road at Louisiana State and Ohio State and went on to finish 10-2 and ranked No. 3 in the nation—the only time one conference has produced the top three schools in a final poll, as Nebraska was ranked No. 1 and Oklahoma No. 2 (the only teams to defeat CU in '71);
- 1976 A 35-28 win at Kansas State creates a three-way tie for the Big 12 title, but CU gets the nod over Oklahoma and Oklahoma State thanks to wins over both; CU goes on to the Orange Bowl where it falls 27-10 to Ohio State.
- 1986 In a game commonly referred to as "The Turning Point," CU's 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska has the nation take notice of the rising Buffalo program; the Buffs rebound from an 0-4 start and play for the Big Eight title (losing to Oklahoma), but earn a berth in the Bluebonnet Bowl;
- 1991 CU claims a third straight Big Eight title, though this one is shared with Nebraska as both are 6-0-1 in league play; the 19-19 tie between the two in Boulder on Nov. 2 is the coldest game in CU history (12 degrees, but the wind chill is minus-8).
- 1996 Matt Russell wins the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, highlighting a 10-2 season in which Koy Detmer became the first (and only) player in school history to pass for over 3,000 yards in a season.
- 2001 CU wins its first Big 12 Conference title, as the Buffs ascend to No. 2 in the final regular season polls but miss out on appearing in the BCS National Championship game by a mere fraction of a point despite ending the year with a 62-36 win over Nebraska and a 39-37 verdict over Texas in the league title game. The Buffs drop a 38-16 decision to No. 3 Oregon in the Fiesta Bowl.

REUNIONS

Three weekends served as reunions for various former CU athletes in 2006:

- > September 15-16: the 30-year reunion of CU's 1976 Big Eight champion football team (six coaches, including head coach Bill Mallory, and 40 players returned);
- > October 6-7 (Living Legends): the annual gathering of those alumni who lettered 50 years ago;
- Cotober 12-14: Hall of Fame Weekend, featuring the induction of this year's class: Bobby Anderson, the late Fred Casotti, Adam Goucher, Bill Marolt, Bill McCartney and CU's first national champion, the 1959 ski team. Anderson was also honored as the fourth CU player to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The 1966 football seniors held their 40th class reunion the same weekend.

2006 NGAA RULES CHANGES

The NCAA Football Rules Committee approved several changes this past February; here's a list of the most significant:

- > Instant Replay. The committee approved one procedure for all institutions and conferences that choose to use instant replay: that is for the replay official in the press box to review all plays on the field and stop the game if a play is on the list of all reviewable plays and has a direct, competitive impact on the game. Each team will also now have one challenge during the game (as the Mountain West has had). If the challenge overturns a call on the field, the coach retains the right to challenge later in the game and is not charged a timeout; if the call is not reversed, the team is charged a timeout and the coach does not have the ability to challenge again in the game. The coach may not challenge a ruling if his team is out of timeouts in either half.
- > Game Clock. To help reduce the length of games, the clock will now start when the foot touches the ball on kickoffs and free kicks (instead of when the return man touches the ball). The clock will also now be started on the ready to play signal on a new possession, instead on the snap of the ball, much as it is now when a team earns a first down.
- Kicking Tee. The kicking tee has been reduced from two inches to one inch as a method of reducing the number of touchbacks.
- > Procedural Fouls on Punts & Kickoffs. The receiving team will now have the option of accepting the penalty after the return or forcing the kicking team to kick again five yards from the original line of scrimmage (should eliminate some re-kicks).

THIS-N-THAT

- > 300. Colorado has a 177-119-5 all-time record in games played on artificial surfaces (0-3 in 2006), as the Buffaloes played their 300th game all-time at Kansas on October 28.
- > 400. Colorado entered 2006 with 395 combined wins in the seven different conferences it has lined up to play football in. Thus, CU is three victories away from 400 all-time wins in conference play, dating back to the Colorado Football Association in the 1890s, but must wait until 2007 to broach the mark.
- ➤ 1100. The Nov. 24 game at Nebraska was the 1,100th in school history; the Huskers were also CU's opponent for the school's 100th game in football annals, as CU defeated NU 6-0 back in 1904, deemed one of the school's biggest wins ever at the time.
- Players Poll. The first-ever Players Top 25 is being conducted this fall with the monthly results released nationwide. Unlike the other polls, the players will not be identified and will be known only to the schools. Colorado agreed to be one of the schools to participate in the experimental balloting; the selected player(s) won't be identified until after the season has concluded.

STARTING STREAKS

OG Brian Daniels owned the longest starting streak on the team at 22 games, with then next longest streak the 13 that OT Tyler Polumbus has started and then 12 by DE Walter Boye-Doe and CB Terrence Wheatley. C Mark Fenton had owned the longest streak at 30 games, dating back to the first game of his sophomore season in 2004, but that streak ended due to the cracked fibula he suffered at Georgia, while DE Abraham Wright had started 22 in a row until sitting out the first series against Kansas State. Daniels owns the most career starts with 44 (he was sidelined for a game with broken ribs early in 2005 or his streak would be continuous), followed by Billingsley (37), ILB Jordon Dizon (34), CB Lorenzo Sims (31) and ILB Thaddaeus Washington (31).

NINETEEN SAW FIRST CU ACTION IN 2006

In 2006, 19 players saw their first action in a Colorado Buffalo uniform. In the season opener against Montana State, 14 players stepped onto the field for the first time in a Colorado uniform, including the only four true freshmen who have played to date: DT Jason Brace, CB Cha'pelle Brown, LS Justin Drescher and ILB Michael Sipili. Last year, 16 saw their first action while 24 did so in both 2004 and 2003. The list of Buffs to hit the field for the first time in 2006 (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (4): DT Jason Brace, *CB Cha'pelle Brown, *LS Justin Drescher, *ILB Michael Sipili

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (6): *OT Paul Backowski, P Matt DiLallo, TE Riar Geer, OL Devin Head, DT Taj Kaynor, *TB Kevin Moyd, ILB Jeff Smart

SOPHOMORES (5): *S Joel Adams, *TE Justin Adams, WR Cody Crawford, *P Isaac Garden, S Terry Wilson

JUNIORS (2): TE Tyson DeVree, FB Samson Jagoras

SENIORS (1): TB Mell Holliday

(The four true frosh who have played for CU is not on the radar nationally; Temple has played 19 and Illinois 16 as 17 schools have played nine or more. Actually, the four CU has played is tied for the 15th fewest nationally; CSU and Wake Forest top that list with none seeing action.)

TWENTY-FOUR MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2006

Twenty-four players made their first career starts in 2006, the third-most over the last 23 seasons (15 offense, nine defense). Eight did so in the season opener against Montana State: S Benjamin Burney, TE Riar Geer, OG Devin Head, DT George Hypolite, FB Samson Jagoras, OLB Brad Jones, DT Brandon Nicolas and WR Patrick Williams. Three more followed in the CSU game in Denver: TE Dan Goettsch, QB Bernard Jackson and FS Ryan Walters; two more versus Arizona State: TE Tyson DeVree and WR Stephone Robinson; and one at Georgia: WR Cody Crawford. In the Big 12 opener at Missouri, CB Cha'pelle Brown, ILB Marcus Burton, C Bryce MacMartin and ILB Michael Sipili trotted on to the field first. Six players started for the first time as conference play continued: FB Maurice Cantrell, S Lionel Harris and WR Nick Holz (versus Baylor); OT Paul Backowski (at Kansas); TE Paul Creighton (against Kansas State) and TB Mell Holliday (Iowa State). In 2005, 11 players made their first career starts in a CU uniform, with all returning this fall. The 24 first-time starters are the most since 1998, when there were 27 first-time starters for the Buffaloes, 17 on offense and 10 on defense. The high came in 1984, when 29 made their first starts (15 on offense). The annual number of first-time starters since 1984:

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

Upperclassmen have started about two-thirds of CU's games in 2006, though seniors account for just over 34 percent of the starts, the third lowest figure the last eight seasons. In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen. That showed the youth of the team, especially since underclassmen also had 41.7 percent of the starts in 2003. Fast-forward to 2005 and 2006, and those underclassmen have accounted for 199 starts the last two seasons. It's historically a cyclical pattern, and that shows up when looking at the breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class since 1999:

2006 Colorado Football: General Notes

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 24 seniors on its roster this season, and history will show that most, if not all NFL teams pass through Boulder or a road site for CU game every season. In 2006, 52 scouts from 26 teams saw the Buffs in person on game day. The 2006 NFL roll call of teams that have seen the Buffaloes: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Miami, Minnesota, New England, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. lets, Oakland, San Francisco, St. Louis, Seattle, Tampa Bay and Tennessee. It's the norm, as in last year, 55 scouts representing 25 NFL teams attended games (49 from 23 did so in 2004), and this decade, all 32 teams have seen CU games in person (289 scouts in the six-year period). Reps from the Colorado Crush (Arena Football League) also routinely attend games in Boulder.

"Outside the nine dots"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- □ Colorado is 75-33 in its last 108 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- □ Colorado is 71-19 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- Colorado is 62-21-1 in its last 84 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- Colorado is 71-17-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (73-53-2 with 50,000-plus);
- Colorado is 513-237-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

A BAKER'S DOZEN OF THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 13 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was one of the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31vard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through 2006, the radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 419 games in his career, including 156 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. SID Dave Plati has worked 321, including the last 279 in a row, while facilities man John Krueger has worked 279 in all (128 straight). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 220 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 266 CU games. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired this past June, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's seen 453 all told). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 112 times in 175 tries, including 18 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 64 percent of the time). CU was 2-of-6 in 2006: 1-of-1 against Texas Tech (field goal), 0-of-2 versus Montana State, 0-of-1 versus Colorado State, 0-1 at Georgia and 1-of-1 versus Iowa State (field goal). In 2005, CU was 4-of-9: the Buffs were 1-for-2 against CSU, including the game winning field goal, 1-of-1 with a first half TD march against New Mexico State, 0-of-1 at Miami, 1-of-1 at OSU (first half field goal), 1-of-1 at Texas (first half TD) and 0-of-1 at Iowa State, versus Nebraska and against Clemson in the bowl. CU was 4-for-5 in 2004, including a second half go-ahead score at Texas A&M and the game winning touchdown versus Kansas State. In 2003, the Buffs scored twice in as many tries in the season opener against Colorado State, registering a TD at the end of the first half and the game-winning score at the end of the game—CU's first in the two-minute drill since 1999. Lo and behold, the Buffs did it again in the offense the following week, putting the game winning score on the board with 2:15 left against UCLA. One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 30 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 205 of 220 times, losing 12 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 19 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses are this season (Kansas, Baylor in three overtimes—CU scored first in OT2—and at Georgia, when the Buffs led 13-0 entering the quarter and lost with just 46 seconds remaining as UGA won, 14-13. In conference play, only Kansas (1984, 2006), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001), Oklahoma State (1997), Texas A&M (2004) and Baylor (2006) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 89 of its last 96 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—and 16 of the last 19). A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).
- In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 29 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The two most recent wins of this variety came against Texas-El Paso in the 2004 Houston Bowl and in the season opener against CSU this season (rallying from 9 and 11 points down, respectively).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 24 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon: to BYU (1988 Freedom Bowl), Stanford (1991), Missouri (1997), Kansas (1998), CSU, Washington and Texas Tech (1999), CSU, Texas A&M and Kansas (2000), Fresno State (2001), CSU and Wisconsin (2002), Washington State, Baylor and Kansas State (2003), Missouri (2004), Iowa State and Nebraska (2005) and five games in 2006. On several occasions, teams used the win over the Buffs to gain national notoriety and/or move into the rankings following the win. The Buffs are 84-22-2 in their last 108 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 115-24-2 in the last 141. The Buffs are 152-74-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-8 in bowls); 106-53-3 in Big 8/12 games (including four league title games) and 46-21-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 26 occasions (and is 20-6 in games when this occurs). It's happened nine times over the last six-plus seasons, three times in 2004: at Texas A&M (TB Bobby Purify/WR Dusty Sprague), versus Kansas State (Purify/WR Ron Monteilh) and at Nebraska (Purify/WR Blake Mackey). In happened three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB's Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 171 of the 2004 CU football media guide (yes, last year's book; thanks again, NCAA).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- → 30+. In its history, Colorado is 287-11-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 205-3 with 35-plus points and 190-2 with 36-plus, 167-1 with 38-plus and 107-0 with 43 or more tallies. The three losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980) and Stanford (41-37 in 1993). Colorado has played 1,110 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- → Colorado is 7-15-1 in its last 23 games against top five teams (dating back to 1989) and is 13-29-2 against top 10 schools and 40-50-2 against all ranked teams in the same time frame.
- → Colorado is 14-5 (in-season) following a loss to a top 10 team since the middle of 1993. That includes one game this year (CU lost 28-13 at Missouri after losing 14-13 at No. 9 Georgia) and two games in 2005 (when CU bested Kansas, 44-13, after falling at No. 2 Texas in October, and the losses at the end to No. 2 Texas in the Big 12 title game and to Clemson in the bowl).
- → Colorado is 92-43-3 in its last 138 league games, and has the 10th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- → Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 101 of its last 220 games, posting a 94-6-1 record. The losses were at Stanford, 41-37 in 1993, to Missouri in Boulder in 1997, 41-31, and twice to Nebraska (in Boulder in 1999, 33-30, in overtime; and 34-32 at Lincoln in 2000) and to Baylor (42-30 in 2003 and 34-31 in 3 OT this year); the tie was a 31-31 affair with Tennessee in the 1990 Disneyland Pigskin Classic. The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 152 of these 220 games, dating to the start of 1989, going 122-28-2 (CU is 20-46-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- → CU has allowed 371 touchdowns in the last 717 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 (dating back to 1988; the other 346 times have yielded 174 field goals as well as 172 non-scores). In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 24% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 48% of the time, which are astonishing numbers. In Dan Hawkins' first year, the opponent penetrated the CU red zone 41 times, with 27 touchdowns, 5 field goals and 9 non-scores.
- ➡ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 83 touchdowns out of 199 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 115 scores overall, meaning 84 non-scores). In 2006, the opponent has 15 scores (9 TD, 6 FG) out of 19 drives started in CU territory; over the last four seasons, CU's allowed just 74 scores (56 TD/18 FG) in 122 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory.
- → CU has topped 400 yards of total offense in 46 of its last 117 contests (once this year, twice in 2005, five times in '04), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 171 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 83 times (49 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 41 of the 171 games since the '93 season opener (24%)... and remember CU has played 72 ranked teams in this span.
- → For years, the mark of a strong Colorado team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. In 2005, CU averaged well over six yards nine games into the year, finishing at 5.7 yards on first down plays; the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - → Colorado averaged 5.5 per first down play in 2006, though over half (181 of 304) of the plays have netted four or less yards. CU had a slight edge in top gains (18-16 on 20-plus, 55-53 on 10-plus) on the down, and CU also had fewer plays with two or less yards (166-141) and of zero gain (75-64).

- → Colorado had seven touchdowns by returns in 2001 (4 interception, 2 punt, 1 fumble), a school record that the 2002 team matched (3 fumble, 2 interception, 2 punt). In 2004, the Buffs had six; dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 38 scores by return in their last 96 games. And since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 59 scores by return in 147 games (52 regular season, seven bowl), or two every five games.
- → 200/200. Colorado reached 200 yards both rushing and passing against Iowa State in 2006 as CU has accomplished the 200 "double-double" 11 times in the last 98 games (and 32 times in the last 171, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 32-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- → Grass. Colorado is 56-46-1 in its last 103 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (53-39 in the last 92, including a 29-17 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999.
- → Artificial Turf. Colorado is 90-30-3 in its last 123 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 57-23-3 in conference games. CU was 0-3 in 2006, but was 2-0 in 2005 and 3-1 in 2004 on artificial surfaces.
- → CU quarterbacks have traditionally taken care of the football, as Buff slingers thrown just 160 interceptions in 5,168 attempts since the start of the 1993 season, an interception rate of just 3.10 percent (or one every 32.3 passes).
- → The Buffs have been an enigma on third down defensively the last four seasons. In 2003, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per) and had just 171 yards on 113 misses (1.5). (For comparison, CU had 660 yards on 59 conversions, 11.2 per, and 222 on 112 misses for 2.0.)
 - --In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions (748 yards total; eight big plays: 40, 38, 37, 33, 24, 22, 21 and 20). On the 124 failures by the opponent, CU has allowed just 180 yards, or 1.5 per try.
 - --In 2006, CU allowed 1,022 yards on the 85 conversions, or 12.0 per; KSU (8 makes, 144 yards) and Baylor (9, 149) did the most damage.
- → Second Down "Conversions." The Colorado defense had some pretty good numbers in an interesting category: opponents were just 70-of-248 earning first downs on second down plays (26.1%); that included a not-so-impressive 23-of-53 on 2nd-and-4 or less (43.4%); by comparison, CU was 73-of-238 overall (30.7%) and 31-of-56 (55/3%).
- → Third Down & 36 Inches. Colorado was 12-of-13 on 3rd-&-1 plays in 2006, but was just 40-of-145 from all other distances (27.6%).
- No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 12-0 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover. In 2005, CU did neither in its 41-20 conquest of Texas A&M, and came back two weeks later and did the same in the 44-13 win over Kansas. CU had last done it in 2001, as it played turnover-free ball twice in allowing no sacks versus San Jose State (51-15) and Nebraska (62-36). In these 12 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 474-207, with only one game decided by less than 17 points (a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993).
- Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 3-of-77 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003 (WSU converted on a 3rd-&-23 and ISU on a 3rd-&-20 in 2004). The CU offense is 5-of-67 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- → Under Dan Hawkins, the Buffs have scored in 30 of 48 quarters (63 percent) and 2 of 3 overtime periods. All told, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 499 of its last 664 quarters (75%). Those numbers included 32 of 48 in 2005.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs have scored in a school record 222 consecutive games (dating back to 1988, the longest streak in the Big 12), last being shutout on November 12, 1988 at Nebraska (7-0). CU has scored in 118 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986 in a game where the Sooners did not attempt a single pass). The Buffs have scored in 87 consecutive road games (113 including neutral sites). The Buffs have scored in 141 straight league games (all 91 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska). CU has scored in 120 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 256 games (all the way back to 1963). CU has been shutout just seven times in its last 453 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only four schools have done it: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan. Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through Dec. 2): Colorado 222, Nebraska 138, Kansas State 127, Texas Tech 116, Oklahoma 106, Kansas 50, Missouri 48, Iowa State 39, Texas A&M 37, Texas 32, Oklahoma State 19, Baylor 14. CU is the last team to shutout both Kansas State (12-0 in 1996) and Oklahoma State (34-0 in 2005).

SCORING STREAKS II

The school record 222 consecutive games in which Colorado has scored is now the fifth longest active streak in the nation; Wake Forest's 30-0 shutout of Florida State ended the Seminoles streak at 232, the ninth longest all-time (see next chart). ANATOMY OF THE SCORING STREAK

Colorado has more often than not extended its scoring streak rather quickly. In the 222-game run, CU has scored on its first possession 89 times, plus another two occasions where it scored on returns on its first touch of the game. The Buffs have scored in the first quarter 155 times during the streak, and had it extended by halftime 202 times. A closer look (*—includes score on a kickoff return to start the 1998 Aloha Bowl and an interception return prior to the first offensive position in the 2002 Alamo Bowl):

Colorado has a 144-74-4 record during the scoring streak, averaging 35.5 points in the wins and 16.2 points in the losses (and 23.5 the four tied games). The Buffs have had only eight occasions where it extended the streak in the fourth quarter. Here's a look at those occasions (*—denotes in Denver):

There have been 15 occasions where Colorado scored just once to continue the streak. PK Mason Crosby by far has played the biggest individual role, personally extending the streak six times, or four more than the only other player do it even twice, WR/KR Jeremy Bloom. A look at these 15 times with one score (*—denotes Orange Bowl; #—denotes Big 12 Championship):

SCORING DUEL JUST 25 MILES APART

Colorado has scored in 222 straight games dating back to 1988; down the road, the NFL Denver Broncos have scored in 227 consecutive contests (as of Dec. 17), the second longest active pro streak which dates back to 1992. Their fiercest rivals inflicted the last shutouts of each: Nebraska and the Raiders (then in L.A.). Combined, the pair has scored in 449 straight games. Many traits are eerily similar; the Broncos have extended it on their first possession 90 times, in the first quarter 150 times and by halftime on 217 occasions, although have had to wait to extend it in the fourth quarter just once.

BIG 12 BOWL TIE-INS ALTERED BEGINNING IN 2006

The Big 12 Conference signed new agreements with the Gator, Sun and Insight bowls, beginning this fall, and ended previous arrangements with the Champs Sports and Fort Worth bowls. The new agreements run through 2009, and the league also re-upped for that same period of time with the bowls it retained relationships with: Fiesta, Cotton, Holiday, Alamo, Independence and Houston. The new Big 12 bowl lineup:

BCS/Tostitos Fiesta (vs. BCS) AT&T Cotton (vs. SEC) Pacific Life Holiday (vs. Pacific 10) MasterCard Alamo (vs. Big 10) *Toyota Gator (vs. ACC) *Vitalis Sun (vs. Pacific 10) Insight (vs. Big 10) Independence (vs. SEC) Ev1.net Houston (vs. Big East)

⁻For the Gator and Sun bowls, the Big 12 is guaranteed a spot each season in one of the bowls, with no more than two appearances in either game over the four years of the contract.

OPPONENTS IN 2006

The 2006 Colorado schedule figured to be one of the toughest in the nation, as for the ninth time in 11 seasons, it boasted the toughest non-conference slate in the Big 12 Conference. Though the Buffs opened with Montana State, their first-ever I-AA opponent, the next three, in order, were comprised of Colorado State in one of the nation's most underrated rivalries, followed by two opponents, both ranked in the preseason, that CU had never played before in Arizona State and Georgia. The Buffs then opened league play on the road for the fourth straight year. Colorado had nine '05 bowl teams on its 2006 schedule, with seven earning berths in '06 (and Montana State advancing to the Division I-AA quarterfinals). All combined to go 82-65 (55.8%; 72-63 taking out games against CU); the records, not including bowl games: Montana State (8-5; finished No. 10 in the I-AA rankings), Colorado State (4-8), Arizona State (6-6), Georgia (8-4), Missouri (8-4), Baylor (4-8), Texas Tech (7-5), Oklahoma (11-2), Kansas (6-6), Kansas State (7-5), Iowa State (4-8) and Nebraska (9-4).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 29 former Colorado Buffaloes on the 2006 National Football League rosters as of December 23. That's second in the Big 12 behind Nebraska (32); Oklahoma has 27, Texas 25, Kansas State 20, Oklahoma State 11, Iowa State 9, Texas Tech 9, Baylor 8, Missouri 7, and Kansas 6. Nationally in 2005, CU was tied for the 17th most players produced—Florida State led with 42, followed by Tennessee (37), Georgia and Ohio State (35); CU was 12th in 2004 with 27, tied for 13th in 2003 with 29, and was 10th in 2002, also with 29. CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was second in 2002 and 2003, and was third in 2000, 2001, 2004 and 2005. Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). AND IN CANADA? Another former Buff is making his living north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage played with the Hamilton Tigercats for the second straight year.

A DECADE WORTH OF NUMBERS: Colorado had 46 players drafted between 1993 and 2002, the seventh most in the nation and second most in the Big 12. Tennessee led the way with 60, followed by Florida State (58), Nebraska (53), Ohio State (52), Florida (48), Miami, Fla. (47) and then Colorado.

NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 19 of 25 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

CU ADDS FIVE HOME-AND-HOME SERIES OVER NEXT 12 SEASONS; 2007, 2009, 2012 & 2013 SCHEDULES COMPLETE

Colorado is working to fill its football schedules over the next decade, and since mid-summer, the Buffaloes have agreed to five home-and-home series with a school from each time zone. The additions have completely filled four of CU's next seven schedules, with one open date left three other years.

In July, Colorado and Miami, Ohio agreed to a home-and-home series that enabled the Buffaloes to complete their 2007 and 2009 schedules. The RedHawks will come to Boulder on September 22, 2007, with the Buffs set to return the game on September 12, 2009 (in Oxford, about 30 miles north of Cincinnati). ESPN has already guaranteed the schools that it will televise the second game. A CU connection with the RedHawks is their athletic director Brad Bates, who was CU's strength and conditioning coach between 1982-84, coming to Boulder with Bill McCartney. It will be the first time the schools will play in football, and just the second game for CU against current Mid-America Conference opponents; the Buffs own a 42-0 win over Kent State in 1977.

On September 16, CU announced home-and-home arrangements with three other schools, all opponents CU has a previous history with in Louisiana State University, the University of Oregon and the University of Utah. Colorado has played the trio a combined 78 times in its history, but there have been no regular season games with any of the three since 1987. Each series has its own special moments and place in school annals.

The CU-LSU series is first up, as the Buffs will travel to Baton Rouge on Sept. 24, 2011, with the Tigers returning the game to Boulder on Sept. 15, 2012. The Buffs and Utes will resume play after a 50-year layoff in their series, as Utah will come to Boulder on Sept. 22, 2012 with Salt Lake City to play host on Sept. 21, 2013. The Oregon series is a bit further out, with Eugene to be the site in 2014 (Sept. 13), with the Ducks' return trip to Boulder set for 2017 (Sept. 16). A closer look:

Colorado-Louisiana State. While LSU leads the all-time series by a 5-1 count, CU's lone victory in the series was most significant. In the 1971 season opener, the unranked and sophomore-laden Buffs traveled to Baton Rouge and upset the No. 9 Tigers, 31-21. That win propelled CU to No. 12 in the polls the following Monday and coach Eddie Crowder's Buffaloes went on to finish 10-2 and No. 3 in the nation. The two first met in the 1962 Orange Bowl, a 25-7 LSU victory, and last played in 1980, when LSU edged the Buffs with a field goal with 35 seconds remaining to escape with a 23-20 verdict.

Colorado-Utah. Other than the 78 games played against in-state rival Colorado State, the 57 games the Buffs have played against the Utes are the second most against any other non-conference school, as CU leads the series, 30-24-3. But the two schools, just 512 miles apart, have not met since 1962 after meeting every year from 1910 through 1958 (and twice in 1943 during World War II). The two first met on Oct. 3, 1903 in Boulder (a 22-0 Colorado win), as Utah was just the third school from outside the state to make a trip to Boulder; CU returned the game the following year, just the second time in Colorado's history that the then Silver & Gold had ever left the state to play a game.

Old-timers will tell you that Utah was CU's first real rival, and after the Utes reeled off nine straight wins between 1925 and 1933 to take a 16-11-1 edge in the series, Utah clearly had staked its claim as the dominant program in the old Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. But behind Kayo Lam and the school's first All-American, Byron White, the newly named Buffaloes won the next four. The Buffs won eight straight from 1951 to 1958 to go up by eight on the Utes, and after a two-year hiatus, the series resumed in 1961 when Utah inflicted a painful 21-12 setback on CU—its only regular season loss in a 9-1 campaign. The last game in the series was on Sept. 22, 1962, a 37-21 Utah win in Salt Lake City; thus the series will resume 50 years to the day of the last meeting. The two schools are fierce ski rivals and have won 14 of the last 24 NCAA titles between them since the sport went coed in 1983.

Colorado-Oregon. The Buffs lead the most-entertaining 15-game series by an 8-7 count, as the two last met in the regular season in 1987 but have squared off in bowl games three times since then. The first meeting was in 1949, a 42-14 Oregon win, signaling the start of five home-and-home agreements between the two, including a fourgame set between 1984 and 1987. The 1979 game, a 33-19 Duck win, was the first for CU coach Chuck Fairbanks and also the first game televised by a then-fledgling television network called ESPN. The 1984 game in Eugene yielded one of the sadder moments in school history, when tight end Ed Reinhardt suffered a near-fatal brain injury and had his life forever changed, but it also stabled a bond between the two schools that remains to this day. In 1985, after the Buffs opened with a win over CSU to match their entire win total the previous season, one of the first early key moments in the success of the Bill McCartney Era occurred. The Buffs owned a 21-17 lead but UO drove inside the CU 10 in the final minute of the game; on a 4th-and-goal from the CU 3, Mickey Pruitt sacked Duck quarterback Chris Miller as time ran out to preserve the win, and the Buffs went on to finish 7-4 and earn a Freedom Bowl berth. The schools met in the 1996 Cotton Bowl (a 38-6 CU win to cap a 10-2 year under first-year coach Rick Neuheisel), in the 1998 Aloha Bowl (Neuheisel's last game as CU coach as the Buffs won a shootout, 51-43), and in the 2002 Fiesta Bowl; in the latter, it was just the sixth postseason match-up of No. 2 (Colorado) versus No. 3 (Oregon) and the Pac-10 champion Ducks got the best in this one, winning 38-16.

Then on November 7, CU and Arizona State jointly announced extending their series after the two met for the first time ever this past September (a 21-3 ASU win in Boulder). The Sun Devils will visit Boulder in 2013, and CU returns that one in 2018, the furthest confirmed game out currently on any CU football schedule. CU returns the game in the current series next September in Tempe. Colorado's immediate future football schedules:

SKED AHEAD

In a quirk that is really just happenstance, Colorado only had one game in 2006 where its opponent played on the road the previous week (Kansas; the Jayhawks were at Baylor before hosting the Buffs on Oct. 28; however, CU was also on the road at Oklahoma). Otherwise, with the exception of the Montana State and Nebraska games (both open the previous week), the other nine opponents played at home before lining up against CU, including the second through fifth opponents who play non-BCS schools (CSU: Weber State; ASU: Nevada; UGA: UAB; MU: Ohio). CU will have back-to-back road games twice in '06, joined by Baylor, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas Tech; Kansas State has none, Oklahoma State actually has three in a row (with an open week after the first one), with the other five schools having back-to-backers away from the confines of home once.

A SCHEDULE FIRST... CU WAS ONE OF THE LAST

When Colorado opened the 2006 season against Montana State (the two last met in 1927 as members of the old Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference) it marked its first game against a non-Division I-A opponent since the current divisional setup was created in 1978. Through 2005, CU had been one of just eight Division I-A schools to play all of its games in its division (no I-AA or II opponents). So the number has dropped by one to seven, with the schools remaining yet to do include Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, USC, UCLA and Washington. There is no non-IA opponent on any future CU schedule at this time.

- > 73 of 119 Division I-A teams play a game outside of Division I-A in 2006 (New Mexico State will play two); 26 of the games were season openers. Northwestern (La.) State (Baylor, Kansas, Mississippi) and SE Louisiana (New Mexico State, Southern Miss, Texas Tech) play the most I-A teams; several are playing two.
- > 11 Big 12 Conference schools had contests against I-AA opponents, regionalized in several instances (i.e., CU-Montana State; ISU-Northern Iowa; Texas-Sam Houston State). Oklahoma was the lone Big 12 team in 2006 not to have a game outside I-A.

USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those games it's lost over the last 18 seasons, as of the 74 losses, 36 have been by eight points or less. Nebraska and Texas (five times), Oklahoma (four) and Kansas State and Missouri (three) are the only ones who have handled the Buffs by nine or more points more than twice since 1989. CU has really been dominated from the start only seven times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU (though CU led in total yardage over 75 percent of the game), 2002 vs. USC, 2004 in the Big 12 title game with Oklahoma, and twice in 2005, both against Texas. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04), Miami and Nebraska ('05) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

CLOSE CALLS USUALLY GOING CU'S WAY

Though 0-4 in close calls in 2006, Colorado is still 11-6 where the final margin has been seven or fewer points, dating back to the start of 2003. That includes the four setbacks this year (CSU, Georgia, Baylor, Kansas), and two games in 2005, the season opening 31-28 victory over Colorado State and a 23-20 win at Kansas State, both thanks to the foot of PK Mason Crosby. And starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, CU is 15-8 in seven point decisions.

NO CREAMPUFFS HERE

Colorado has the 20th best record in college football since the start of 1989 season (142-74-4). Of these 220 games, Colorado has played 92 ranked teams (42%), the fourth most in the nation during this time frame, with another 33 games against teams receiving significant (10 or more) votes. CU is 40-50-2 against ranked teams during this period (including a 13-22 record on the road); CU is also 102-24-2 against unranked teams. The schedule is also consistent: CU has played the fourth most games against ranked teams the last 14 seasons (70 of its last 165 contests), going 3-3 in 1993, 5-1 in 1994, 5-2 in 1995, 2-2 in 1996, 1-5 in 1997, 3-3 in 1998, 2-2 in 1999, 0-5 in 2000, 5-2 in 2001, 2-3 in 2002, 2-3 in 2003, 0-4 in 2004, 0-4 in 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. NOTE: In 1990, CU became only the second team in NCAA history to win the national championship after playing the nation's toughest schedule (opponents won 63% of their games; Penn State was the first to accomplish the feat, in 1982). CU also played the nation's toughest in 1997: opponents won 67% of their games as the Buffs played both co-national champions, Michigan and Nebraska.

CRADLE OF COACHES

There are three current head coaches in Division I college football who have had assistant coaching stints at the University of Colorado, and all three have enjoyed great success. Les Miles had a good run at Oklahoma State and is running the show at LSU (at Colorado between 1982-86); Gregg Brandon is the head man at Bowling Green (1999-2000) while Karl Dorrell has the reins at UCLA (two CU stints: 1992-93, 1995-97). Since Bill McCartney took over the program in 1982, CU has sent many an assistant coach into the head coaching ranks; Gerry DiNardo was the first, as after his CU stint between 1982-89 he went on to coach Vanderbilt, LSU and Indiana. Lou Tepper (CU: 1983-87), head coach at Illinois for five years and is now the head man at Edinboro (Pa.) State; Gary Barnett, who was an assistant at CU from 1984-91 was head coach at Northwestern from 1992-98 and then at CU from 1999 through 2005; Jim Caldwell, Wake Forest (at CU from 1982-84), Steve Logan, East Carolina (1985-86), Rick Neuheisel, at CU and Washington (1994), Bob Simmons, Oklahoma State (1988-94) and Ron Vanderlinden, Maryland (1983-91). All were assistants under McCartney, CU's all-time winningest head coach (93-55-5 between 1982-94). In 2003, Mike Hankwitz, served as Arizona's interim head coach for the last two months of the season; he was at CU for 10 years (1985-94). Tom Cable (1998-99) was head coach for four seasons at Idaho, as he coached under Neuheisel and Barnett. Dorrell is the only one above to coach as an assistant under both McCartney and Neuheisel. In addition, former CU player Pete Shinnick ('88) served seven seasons as head coach at Azusa Pacific and took a new position for 2006 as the head man at North Carolina-Pembroke.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 117th season of competition with an all-time record of 652-412-36 in 1,100 games. CU currently stands 15th on the all-time win list and is 22nd in all-time winning percentage (.609; 20th for those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 282-136-10 in their 83rd season on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 245-212-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are 49-20-1 in their last 70 November games (44-10 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 4-9-1 against NU in turkey month. Colorado is 43-21 in its last 64 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays, and is 47-24-2 in the last 73 October games, when conference play annually comes into full bloom. CU is 5-6 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 2-2-1 in August games in its history.

OVERTIME

Colorado is 3-4 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime:

---Total Yards----

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Nine ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas State in 2002, which came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A&M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No.3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, UCLA and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by LSU and Oklahoma (both 4) and Michigan State and Texas (3 each).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last the 17 seasons, which is the ninth most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Ohio State (11), Miami, Fla. (9), Oklahoma (9) and Nebraska (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu, Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks and ARA Sportsmanship awards (on-field player awards only—if the Draddy Award was included, the Buffs would have one more on each list). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2006 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus got ½ in the trophy count):

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 18 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of the times, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 10 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 17 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2006: Florida State 18, Michigan 18, Ohio State 18, Miami, Fla. 17, Tennessee 17, Nebraska 15, Notre Dame 14, Penn State 14, Colorado 12, Alabama 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll

MOST TOP 5 FINISHES (1989-2005): Florida St. 12, Miami 8, Nebraska 5, COLORADO 4, Ohio St. 4, Oklahoma 4, USC 4, Tennessee 4, Alabama 3, Florida 3, Notre Dame 3.

MOST TOP 10 FINISHES (1989-2005): Florida St. 12, Florida 10, Miami 9, Michigan 8, Nebraska 8, Tennessee 8, Ohio State 7, COLORADO 6, Alabama 6, Kansas St. 6, Oklahoma 5.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

15 OUT OF 18

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, the second longest active streak in the nation behind Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in 2004; since, CU went 0-4 in 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). CU has defeated at least two in nine of the last 13 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 137 of its last 208 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (66 percent). That included seven games this year, 10 games in 2005, nine games in 2004, seven games in 2003, 12 in 2002, 10 games in 2001, plus 7 in 2000, 9 in both 1998 and 1999, 10 in 1996 and 1997. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, 100 of CU's 135 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, an impressive 74 percent (the second most in the Big 12 Conference in that time frame). In addition, CU has had 21 of its last 25 non-conference games televised on a national or regional basis.

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 27 (13-13-1), Texas 22 (7-13-2), Nebraska 13 (8-5), Oklahoma 13 (6-7), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 12 (0-12), Baylor 9 (2-7), Missouri 9 (1-8), Iowa State 9 (1-8), Kansas 6 (0-6), Oklahoma State 5 (0-5) and Kansas State 3 (1-2).

FOLSOM FIELD AGGOLADE The Sports Turf Management Association named Folsom Field as its 2002 "Football Field of the Year," the first time CU has ever earned this prestigious award. Jason DePaepe, CU's athletic turf manager, officially accepted the award in San Antonio. Those who judge the competition were impressed with DePaepe and his staff's aggressive maintenance program, as the field is easily one of the best in college football, if not all sports.

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. And in 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-gamehome winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29 game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

18 OF 22

The Buffs have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 22 years (1985-2006), matched only by a handful of schools across the nation. The exceptions came in 1997, 2000, 2003 and this season; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 17 of the previous 22 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000, 2003 and 2006.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Through the years, there are always a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball. DT John Guydon was the latest to so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY GU AND NOT UG?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

QUARTERBACK HISTORY LESSON

The three-way competition for the starting quarterback job this year was only the fifth real battle in the last 15 years at Colorado. The last time had been in 2003, when walk-on Joel Klatt earned the nod; in 2000, the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter but four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and did not relinquish the role the remainder of the season. In 1998, the first real battle in six years, juniors Mike Moschetti and Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won the job and Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety. Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best example of this came in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 102 players on the 2006 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of September 2) totaled 7,472 inches in height and weighed 23,220 collective pounds, or an average of 6-1½, 228 pounds per player, slightly smaller but heaver that the 2005 average of 6-3, 218, though in line with other figures this decade: 6-2, 223 in 2004; 6-2½, 226 in 2003; 6-2½, 227 in 2002; and 6-2, 227 in both 2000 and 2001). The 7,472 inches translate roughly into 623 feet or 208 yards, the distance of the par-three No. 3 hole at Royal St. George's in England, while the weight of 23,220 pounds slightly exceeds (by 220) pounds the amount allowed to be trucked on most roads in the northeastern United States. Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Cornerbacks	10	5	5-11	186	Quarterbacks	4	2	6-2	208

The most popular letter to begin surnames is the letter B (15), followed by S (13) and H (10); five last names are similar, but none are brothers (Adams, Brown, Jones, Sanders, Washington). There is no "popular" first name (there are three Daniel's); unique ones include Cha'pelle, Dusty, Jalil, Samson, Taj and Thaddaeus.

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (75 percent of the entire roster—76 of 102 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 31, California 30, Texas 14, Hawai'i 4, Florida 2, Iowa 2, Louisiana 2, Michigan 2, Minnesota 2, Nebraska 2, Oklahoma 2, Alabama 1, Arizona 1, Idaho 1, Illinois 1, Kentucky 1, Missouri 1, New York 1, Tennessee 1 and Washington 1. That's 20 states total that produced the make-up of this year's team.

ORIGINAL 2006 TEAM MAKE-UP

THREE SENIORS NAMED 2006 CAPTAINS

Dan Hawkins announced at the conclusion of fall camp that three seniors would serve as team captains for the 2006 season: PK Mason Crosby, OG Brian Daniels and ILB Thaddaeus Washington. "They are obviously very good players and they have the respect of the team," Hawkins said. "They lead by example in the classroom, on the field and in the weight room. The coach can set the tone, but those guys have to carry things out in the trenches."

- > CROSBY is the first placekicker and just the second solely special teams performer to be named a CU team captain, preceded only by another special teams All-American, punter Barry Helton in 1987. Crosby, a two-time All-Big 12 performer and a consensus All-American in 2005, opted to stay at CU for his senior year instead of declaring for the NFL draft and is in position to exit with almost every major scoring record in school history. The '05 Lou Groza Award runner-up also could see his name join the others on the façade at Folsom Field's press box if he earns a third all-conference accolade.
- > DANIELS, a fourth-year senior from Evergreen (Mullen High School), set a school record in 2003 when he made nine starts, the most-ever by a true freshman offensive lineman in CU history. He is bidding to become just the fourth offensive lineman in school annals to start for four seasons; he would join OT Pat Ryan (1984-87), OG Joe Garten (1987-90) and OT Justin Bates (1999-2002).
- > WASHINGTON, a fifth-year senior from Marrero, La., entered the year with 231 career tackles, and like six before him who learned under the guidance of another former CU captain, linebacker coach Brian Cabral, he would surpass his coach's tackle total (Cabral had 297 between 1975-78; Washington passed him in game eight, when he had a career-high19 at Oklahoma). He is bidding to become the first LB to lead CU in tackles in back-to-back year since 1993-94, when Butkus Award runner-up Ted Johnson accomplished the feat.

DEPTH CHART

A note about CU's depth: in-season, depth charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries; also, the coaches use "groupings" at certain positions (i.e. receiver-tight end-tailback-fullback), and often a group enters the game to run a play that does not match the depth.
