Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller (2nd Year at CU, 20-36/8th Year Overall, 111-124)

Assistant Coaches: Tom McConnell, Bethann Shapiro Ord, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Carla Morrow

THE GAME: The University of Colorado hosts the University of Kansas on Saturday, Feb. 24, at 7 p.m., in the Coors Events/Conference Center. It's the Buffaloes' final home game of the 2006-07 season as the team will say goodbye to three seniors, Jasmina Ilic, Anna Nedovic and Courtney Wallace.

BROADCAST: Saturday's game will be televised live by Fox Sports Net Rocky Mountain, with Tim Ring on the play by play and former CU head coach Ceal Barry with the color commentary. All Colorado women's basketball regular and post season games are broadcast live on KKZN AM 760, Boulder's Progressive Talk station. Mike Rice will handle play by play duties with USA Basketball's Carol Callan on the color commentary. Live internet audio can be accessed through Yahoo! Sports.

ABOUT THE BUFFALOES: Colorado is 11-15 overall and tied with Texas and Missouri for eighth place in the Big 12 Conference at 5-9. The Buffaloes remain just one game out of sixth place as Texas Tech and Oklahoma State are at 6-8.

Colorado has won just one of its last five games, three of which have come on the road. The Buffaloes are 10-5 at home in 2006-07 with four of the losses coming to teams ranked in the nation's top 25, including the latest contest, a 75-67 setback against No. 14

Baylor on Feb. 21. CU has secured its best record since 2003-04 when the Buffs finished 22-8, 11-5 in the Big 12, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The Buffs' five Big 12 wins match their totals in the previous two years combined (3-13 in 2005-06 and 2-14 in 2004-05).

Junior forward Jackie McFarland is living up to her All-Big 12 second team status in 2006, and then some. She is averaging 17.9 points and 10.9 rebounds per game, both marks ranking second in the Big 12. McFarland ranks third in NCAA Division I in field-goal percentage (.616) and 11th in rebounding through games of Feb. 18. She has 11 games of shooting 70 percent or better this season.

She is only the seventh player in CU history to register 1,200 points and 700 rebounds in a career and currently ranks in CU's Top 10 in blocked shots, free-throws made and rebounds. She was named Big 12 Player of the Week for the season's opening weekend (Nov. 13) and named to the Coors Classic All-Tournament Team.

McFarland has 16 double-doubles this season, ranking second in the Big 12, and nine in 14 conference games. She has 35 double-doubles and 36 double-digit rebounding games in her career, both of which rank third on CU's all-time list. McFarland has missed five other double-doubles this season by a single point or rebound.

Senior guard/forward Jasmina Ilic is second on the team in scoring at 12.7 points per game. She surpassed the 1,000 point mark during the Texas Tech game, becoming the 21st player in team history to reach the milestone and the 10th fastest (84 games). Ilic also tops the Buffaloes with 44 3-point field goals and an 88.5 percent efficiency from the free-throw stripe, which ranks second in the Big 12. She entered the week 10th in the nation in free-throw percentage at 89.2.

Sophomore center Kara Richards is coming off her second career double-double netting 22 points and 10 rebounds against Baylor. She was 10-of-15 from the field against the Lady Bears and is shooting 59 percent from the floor on the season. Richards would sit second in the Big 12 in field-goal percentage, behind only McFarland, but barely lacks the minimum number of games played to be ranked. However, appearing in CU's final two regular season contests will alleviate that issue, as she will reach the 75 percent minimum (21-of-28 games). She is fourth on the team in scoring (7.2 ppg) and second in rebounding (4.7 rpg) and tops the Buffs in field-goal percentage in Big 12 games at .594.

Junior guard Susie Powers is averaging 4.2 points and 2.2 assists per game and had a stand-out defensive effort against Kansas State while scoring nine points and grabbing six rebounds. She is hitting 41 percent from 3-point range during the Big 12 schedule.

Freshman Whitney Houston has emerged as the team's starting point guard and has stepped up during the Big 12 season. She leads the team in assists at 2.4 per game and overall is third on the team in scoring at 7.8 points per contest. In her first game against Kansas, she had a career-high 25 points.

Colorado is receiving overall strong support from its freshman class. Redshirt freshman guard Bianca Smith is averaging 5.2 points per game and ranks 10th in the Big 12 in 3-point field goal percentage (.353). She has distributed the ball well of late averaging 3.7 assists over her last three games. Guard Candace Rucker is averaging 3.7 points and 2.3 rebounds per game off the bench for the Buffaloes. She had a career-high eight points at Iowa State and had seven against Kansas State on Feb. 14, hitting a pair of free throws with just six seconds remaining in regulation to provide the winning margin. Forward Aija Putnina enjoyed her most extended time in over two months playing 32 minutes off the bench against Kansas, recording five rebounds and career-highs with four blocked shots and two assists.

ABOUT THE JAYHAWKS: Kansas is 9-18 overall and last in the Big 12 at 3-11, but arguments can be made for the Jayhawks as one of the league's hotter teams as the regular season schedule enters its final two games. KU started Big 12 play 0-9 with numerous near-misses. The Jayhawks broke out of their slump with their 70-68 overtime win over CU in Lawrence and followed that up with a last-second 50-49 win over Texas in Austin. Overall KU has won three of its last five and nearly upset defending Big 12 champion Oklahoma on Feb. 21, falling by just six in Lawrence.

The Jayhawks' backcourt duo of senior Shaquina Mosley and freshman Kelly Kohn each average 10.2 points per game and combine to average 7.1 assists per outing. Mosley has been on a roll in the second half of the season averaging 16.5 points, 7.9 rebounds and 5.5 assists over the last 11 games. Forward Taylor McIntosh leads Kansas in rebounding at 5.7 per game. Freshman Danielle McCray averages 9.7 points and 4.5 rebounds per outing.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be the 59th meeting between Colorado and Kansas with the Buffaloes holding on to a 30-28 series lead. Colorado has won 10 of the last 13 matchups, but will be looking to salvage a split in the season series as the Jayhawks topped the Buffaloes in overtime, 70-68, on Feb. 6. Season splits have not been the norm in recent years of this series. The winner of game one has prevailed in game two for seven straight seasons dating back to the last series split in 1999 when both teams won at home. Colorado is 15-9 all-time against Kansas in Boulder and has won six of its last eight by the Flatirons.

Kathy McConnell-Miller is 2-1 in her head coaching career against Kansas, all three games coming with Colorado.

HOME COOKING: The Buffaloes look to continue the momentum they have built at the Coors Events Center this season. Colorado is shooting 44 percent in 15 home games, far better than its 39.7 percent average in 10 road contests. CU is also rebounding better at home, with a margin of 4.9 per game while pulling down just under 40 a contest. On the road, CU is pulling down just 35.5 per game and giving up 38.4 to its opponents. The Buffaloes have been battling turnovers all season long and average over two more on the road (21.9 TOPg) than at home (19.5 TOPg). Rebounds and turnovers have allowed CU opponents to take 10 more shots per game (62-52) on the road than the Buffs, however the CU defense has held opponents to just 38.1 percent from the field on the road, which is better than the 40.1 percent allowed at home.

ON THE OFFENSIVE: Prior to the Texas Tech contest, Colorado was struggling on the offensive boards ranking last in the Big 12, pulling in just 10.75 per game overall and only 7.75 per game in league contests. Against the Lady Raiders, the Buffaloes pulled in 23 offensive rebounds which led to a 22-5 advantage in second-chance points. CU's 23 offensive boards were its most since recording 23 against Bowling Green on Nov. 23, 2001, and its most in league play since grabbing 24 at Iowa State on Feb. 18, 1996.

HISTORIC COMEBACK: Colorado's comeback from a 15-point halftime deficit to win against Kansas State on Jan. 31 is the second-largest margin achieved in team history. The Buffaloes trailed the Wildcats 39-24 at the break before outscoring them 42-16 in the final 20 minutes, including a 23-0 run over a 10:24 span.

Colorado came back from 19 down against the University of Washington on Dec. 21, 1982, at the Guisti Tournament in Portland, Ore. CU trailed 35-16 at halftime before winning 67-65.

A more-recent double-digit halftime deficit overcome was a 12-point margin against the University of Southern California in Los Angeles on Dec. 20, 2003. CU trailed the Trojans 39-27 before prevailing 69-67.

McFARLAND NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT: Jackie McFarland was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VII University Division Women's Basketball first team, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America on Feb. 8.

McFarland, an accounting major who sports a 3.95 grade point average, is an all-district honoree for the second-straight year and is one of three juniors joining two seniors on the five-member first team. She is now eligible for the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team which will be announced on Feb. 27. McFarland was an ESPN The Magazine second-team All-America selection as a sophomore.

A native of Derby, Kan., McFarland is averaging 17.9 points and 10.9 rebounds per game while hitting 61 percent from the field. She leads the Big 12 Conference in field goal percentage and ranked third in NCAA Division I through games of Feb. 18. McFarland ranks second in rebounding and third in scoring in the Big 12.

She is a four-time member of the Dean's List, a 2006 Academic All-Big 12 selection and a team representative for the Student Athlete-Advisory Committee. She is working on a concurrent degree program in the school of business which will allow her to earn her MBA while completing her undergraduate accounting degree.

The District VII University Division is comprised of NCAA Division I schools from the states of Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wyoming.

LUBIN LEAVES BUFFALOES: Junior guard Lauren Lubin has decided to leave the CU women's basketball program, but will remain at the university as a student, head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller announced on Dec. 27.

Lubin, who earned a pair of letters with the Buffaloes, averaged 2.4 points and 2.4 rebounds over 49 career games. She played in five contests for the Buffaloes this winter, recording three steals and two rebounds. Lubin originally walked on in 2004-05 as a freshman, where she played in 16 games before missing the last half of the season with mononucleosis. Lubin earned a scholarship for the 2005-06 campaign, averaging 3.7 points and 3.6 rebounds per game as a sophomore, including a team-best 42.9 percent from 3-point range (12-of-28).

RICHARDS GRANTED MEDICAL HARDSHIP: Center Kara Richards received some good news on Dec. 2 as the Big 12 Conference office granted her a medical hardship for missing the 2005-06 season. Richards season was lost after suffering a Jones fracture – a fracture to the fifth metatarsal – in her left foot on Nov. 15, 2005, just three days before CU's season opening win over Cal State Fullerton. The medical hardship means she returns to sophomore standing for the 2006-07 season and will have two more years of eligibility remaining.

MILESTONE WINS: With a 56-51 win over Colorado State, CU won its 600th women's basketball game and now stands 606-368 in 32-plus seasons. CU's overall .622 winning percentage ranks

STILL IN NEED OF A WIN OVER A RANKED TEAM: Colorado has dropped 22 straight games to ranked teams dating back to January of 2004. The Buffaloes last win over a ranked opponent was a 69-59 decision at No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004. CU was ranked No. 14 at the time. The last time CU was unranked and defeated a ranked opponent was in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament when the Buffaloes knocked off No. 12 North Carolina 86-67.

RECORD HALF FROM "3": Colorado set a school record for 3-point field goals in one half by drilling 10 in the first stanza of the Buffs' 81-67 win over Iowa State on Jan. 10. Bianca Smith's long-range jumper -- her fourth of the half -- with 7 seconds remaining in the period gave CU the record, breaking the previous mark of nine set against the University of Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004. The 13 3-pointers CU had in the game was its most since a similar baker's dozen put up against the University of Northern Colorado on Dec. 29, 2004.

A SUCCESSFUL BEGINNING: Colorado began the Big 12 season 2-0 for the first time since 1996-97. The start also agave the Buffaloes their first two-game league win streak since defeating Oklahoma State and Kansas on Feb. 21 and 24, 2004. Colorado opened the Big 12 season with a 71-59 win over the University of Missouri on Jan. 3. The win was the first for CU in a Big 12 opener since defeating Baylor to begin the 2004 league schedule and the 12-point margin of victory was CU's highest in the league's 11-year history. Colorado is now 5-6 in Big 12 openers and 19-14 overall in conference openers.

HOUSTON GAME CANCELLED: CU's game against the University of Houston that was scheduled for Dec. 30, was cancelled when the Cougars opted not to travel to Boulder for the game due to the winter weather conditions that had spread across the Midwest that weekend. The game is not expected to be rescheduled this sea-fourth all-time among Big 12 Conference teams, trailing only Texas, Texas Tech and Kansas State.

With its 78-65 win over Charlotte in the Coors Classic, Colorado won its 300th game at the Coors Events Conference Center, and now stands at 306-92 (.769) all-time at the facility.

CLIMBING THE 3-POINT LADDER: Jasmina Ilic hit a 3-point field goal against Baylor to increase her career total to 138, good for sixth place on CU's all-time list. She needs 12 to pass Amy Palmer (1992-96) for fifth.

Anna Nedovic had a pair of 3-point field goals against Cal State Bakersfield after sinking just two in the previous 10 games. The pair of treys pushed her career total to 51, tying her with former teammate Emily Waner (2003-04) for 13th on CU's all-time chart.

McFARLAND, ILIC REACH 1,000: Jackie McFarland became the 20th player in CU history to reach 1,000 career points during the loss at South Dakota State on Dec. 13. McFarland hit the milestone on a second-half layup and now stands at 16th on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,253 points through 83 career games (15.1 ppg).

Jasmina Ilic became the 21st player in CU history to 1,000 points, reaching the milestone with a 27-point effort against Texas Tech on Feb. 3. Ilic hit the mark on a second-half bucket and now stands at 20th on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,049 points through 89 career games (11.8 ppg).

Ilic and McFarland are the first pair of teammates to hit the mark in the same season since Britt Hartshorn, Jenny Roulier and Mandy Nightingale hit 1,000 within two weeks of each other in November 2001.

MORE NUMBERS FOR McFARLAND: Jackie McFarland has 35 career double-doubles and 36 double-digit rebounding games, which both rank third on the CU charts. Her 16 double-doubles this season, second-most in the Big 12, is fourth on CU's single-season chart. She began the season with three-straight double-doubles, equalling her output from the 2005-06 season. The only other player in CU history to record three-straight double-doubles to open a season is CU's all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor, who did it in 1982-83.

McFarland is fifth on CU's all-time rebounding list at 729 and is surging up the single-season charts as well. Her 284 rebounds are eighth on CU's single-season leaderboard and needs just 16 become the sixth player in team history with 300 rebounds in one season. Her current 10.9 per game average would rank as the third best mark in team history for a season. McFarland had a career-best 18 rebounds in the last Kansas game, the most by a Buffalo since Scott had 21 at Texas on Feb. 26, 1997.

McFARLAND BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Jackie McFarland was named the Phillips 66 Big 12 Women's Basketball Player of the Week by a media voting panel on Nov. 13 for the opening weekend of games.

This is McFarland's third career weekly honor from the Big 12 as she was twice named the league's Rookie of the Week during the 2004-05 season.

McFarland averaged 22 points, 12 rebounds and two steals while shooting 71 percent from the field (17-of-24) in games against San Francisco and No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt over the weekend.

McFarland had 17 points on 7-of-10 shooting and 12 rebounds in the season-opening 62-56 win over San Francisco. She scored a game-high 27 points and pulled down 12 rebounds along with two assists and three steals against No. 16/15 Vanderbilt. McFarland recorded double-doubles in both games for the 20th and 21st of her career. She had nine points — a 3-pointer and two conventional 3-point plays — in the final minute against VU as Colorado nearly erased a 17-point second half deficit.

COME FROM BEHIND WIN BREAKS LONG DROUGHT: CU's 62-56 win over San Francisco broke a 26-game losing streak when the Buffaloes trailed at halftime dating back to a 56-51 win at Missouri on Jan. 18, 2005. USF led 30-26 at the break, but the Buffs outscored the Dons 36-26 in the second half. Colorado has now won four games this season when trailing at halftime, all at home (USF, Missouri, Kansas State and Texas Tech).

BUFFS IN OPENERS: Colorado is 28-5 (.844) all-time in season openers and a whopping 32-1 (.970) all-time in home openers. The Buffs' lone loss in a season-opening home game was a 77-63 setback to Michigan on Nov. 21, 1999. CU has won seven straight season debuts and 20 of its last 21 with the lone loss in that span coming at Denver on Nov. 19, 1999.

EARLY START: The Nov. 10 start against USF was the third earliest start for the Buffs and the second earliest home game in their 33-year history. CU's earliest start came in season No. 2 as the Buffs dropped an 81-80 decision at Nebraska on Nov. 6, 1976. CU's earliest start at the Coors Events Center is much more recent as the Buffs hosted Oral Roberts in a preseason WNIT game on Nov. 9, 2001, a 78-49 CU win.

BUFFS PICKED 11TH: CU was picked to finish 11th in the annual Big 12 Coaches Preseason Poll. The Buffaloes received 26 points, an improvement from the 14 points received a year ago when the CU was picked to finish last. CU was 9-21 overall in 2005-06 and finished 11th in the Big 12 race with a 3-13 mark.

Defending league champion Oklahoma was picked to repeat its title receiving all 11 possible first place votes for a total of 121 points. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team. Big 12 Southern Division teams dominated the upper half of the poll, taking the top four spots. Texas A&M was picked second with 107 points, followed by Texas (101) and Baylor (94).

Iowa State came in fifth with 68 points, just edging out Nebraska which was picked sixth with 66. Kansas State and Texas Tech tied for seventh with 57 points followed by Missouri (43), Kansas (36), CU (26) and Oklahoma State (16).

TOUGH SCHEDULE: Colorado once again faces a tough schedule with no less than 17 games against 2006 NCAA or WNIT tournament teams. The Buffaloes will host perennial NCAA women's powers Southern California and Vanderbilt during the non-conference season as well as region rival Colorado State. Baylor, Texas Tech and Oklahoma come to Boulder this year out of the Big 12 South along with the Buffs' usual Big 12 North opponents.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 306-92 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.769). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 19 of 29 years including five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94). The Buffaloes are 10-5 at home this season, their best mark since going 14-2 in 2003-04. CU has only three seasons of sub-.500 play in the 28 years of the Coors Events Center.

BUFFS ON TV: Colorado's schedule features nine games that will be televised either regionally or nationally by Fox Sports Net. Two games are part of the Big 12's national package with FSN: Sunday, Jan. 28, at Missouri and Saturday, Feb. 10, at home against Nebraska. FSN Rocky Mountain will televise six CU home games beginning with the regular season opener against San Francisco on Friday, Nov. 10. FSN Midwest will televise CU's game at Kansas State on Wed., Feb. 14.

UP NEXT: Colorado will close out regular season action with a game at Nebraska on Tuesday, Feb. 27, at 6:05 p.m. in Lincoln.

Big 12 Championship Tiebreaker Procedure (Tournament seeds will be announced next Thursday night, March 1 at the conclusion of all games)

Following is the procedure for breaking ties in seeding for the Big 12 Basketball championships (men's and women's). Championship seeds are ranked 1-12 based on conference winning percentage. Ties are only broken for seeding purposes. If two or more teams tie for first in the final regular season rankings, multiple champions are crowned.

(a) If two teams are tied and they are from different divisions, the winner of the game between the two tied teams shall be the higher seed.

(b) If two teams are tied and they are from the same division, the team with an advantage in head-to-head competition shall be the higher seed.

(c) If two teams remain tied, there will be a comparison of overall record against division teams only (10 divisional games).

(d) If two teams remain tied, there will be a *comparison of record against the highest ranked team(s) (based upon Conference winning percentage) in the division and proceeding through in order of divisional finish.

(e) If two teams remain tied, there will be a *comparison of record against the highest ranked team(s) (based upon Conference winning percentage) in the opposite division and proceeding through in order of divisional finish.

(f) If two teams remain tied, the higher seed will be chosen by draw.

(g) If three or more teams are tied, ties among divisional opponents will be broken by using steps (b) through (f) and the head-to-head results will be used to break ties between non-divisional teams. When three or more teams from the same division are tied step (b) will consist of a mini-round robin among those tied teams. At any point during the process of breaking ties among three or more teams that the number of tied teams are reduced to two, head-to-head competition would be used as the primary tiebreaker, followed by steps (c) through (f).

Note: When comparing against the 'highest' ranked team(s) in either division, the comparison will be based upon how tied teams did against all teams in a given placement, rather than a team that wins a tiebreaker at another position. For example, if two teams are tied for fifth and two teams are tied for first, the head-to-head comparison would be how the fifth place teams did against the first place teams combined, and vice versa.

KATHY MCCONNELL-MILLER
HEAD COACH
SECOND SEASON

Kathy McConnell-Miller and her staff experienced a rollercoaster type season in 2005-06. There were record setting wins in the inaugural McConnell-Miller campaign, and there were tough losses as the Buffaloes ended the season at 9-21 and in 11th place in the Big 12 Conference.

But there is plenty of reason to believe that the rollercoaster is on its way back up, and plenty of reason to believe it's not coming back down for some time.

McConnell-Miller, 39, heads into season No. 2 in Boulder with a full calendar year under her belt and a full compliment of players for the first time in three seasons, bolstered by a recruiting class that ranks in the Top 30 in the nation.

A new era at one of the nation's most prestigious women's basketball schools began on April 27, 2005, as McConnell-Miller officially became the sixth head coach in the history of the program, replacing legendary coach Ceal Barry.

Excitement at the base of the Flatirons was felt from day one as McConnell-Miller led the Buffaloes to a 100-71 win over Cal-State Fullerton in her CU coaching debut. The game featured two CU players — Jackie McFarland and Jasmina Ilic — each hitting the 30 point mark and guard Whitney Law breaking a school record with 15 assists. It also marked the most points scored in a coaching debut by active Big 12 coaches — by nearly 20 points.

However, injuries and the overall youth of the Buffaloes — only three upperclassmen saw extensive playing time — would catch up with CU during a tough non-conference campaign, including two losses in overtime, and the always tough Big 12 season.

Despite finishing with 20-plus losses for the second straight season, McConnell-Miller established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in her players. She has continued to groom McFarland and Ilic into two of the top players at their position in the Big 12. McFarland earned All-Big 12 second team honors last season and was also named to the prestigious Academic All-America team. Ilic flourished under the McConnell-Miller system averaging 14.8 points per game including a career and Big 12 season-high 36 points against Nebraska.

McConnell-Miller, who picked up career win No. 100 against Oklahoma State in the 2005-06 home finale on Feb. 26, will look to McFarland and Ilic to improve on last year's efforts, but will have a lot more ammo to work with this season. She will get a chance to see Kara Richards on the court, CU's starting center from 2004-05 who broke a bone in her foot days before the 2005-06 opener and she will also have guards Susie Powers and Bianca Smith, CU redshirts last season.

And then there is the recruiting class. Despite a late start in the recruiting season, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players and claimed an overall No. 29 recruiting class ranking by the All-Star Girls Report. The Buffs claimed one of the top recruits in Colorado — a priority for the McConnell-Miller staff — in Aija Putnina who helped Regis to the Class 4A championship game. CU also grabbed two highly-regarded recruits from Tennessee in Whitney Houston and Candace Rucker, and Courtney Dunn from California.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an Associated Press honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Grentz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Grentz for a total of six years as she went with Grentz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Three McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, two at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (6), Mackenzie (4) and Macie (2).

#1 Whitney Houston
5-5, Freshman, Guard
Memphis, Tenn. (Hillcrest)

with a 35-3 record and delivered the Memphis area its first girls Division 1 basketball state title in 21 years.

#2 Bianca Smith
5-9, Freshman, Guard
Missouri City, Texas

Career:

- Stat out the 2005-06 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program.
- A 2005 graduate of Bellaire High School where she was a four-year letter winner as a guard/forward. She earned District MVP and first team all-district honors as a senior, leading Bellaire to a 36-5 record and averaging 18.5 points and 15.3 rebounds per game.
- She won an AAU national championship with the Houston Elite club program. Smith's high school honors include being named a Houston Girls Athlete of the Week.
- Her step-father Johnnie played football for the University of Houston and the San Francisco 49ers for five years, helping the 49ers to a NFL title in Super Bowl XXIV.
- Her favorite food is Mongolian BBQ and her favorite musician is Jamie Foxx.

This Season:

- After hitting just 4-of-11 free-throw attempts (.364) through 23 games this season, she hit 4-of-5 (.800) against Kansas State, helping the Buffaloes to their first road win of the season.
- Has 11 assists in the last three games after registering just two in the previous eight games.
- Scored a career-high 18 points, including a team season-high five 3-point field goals, in the win over Iowa State on Jan. 10.
- Has the fourth-most 3-point field goals among freshmen in the Big 12 with 30 and ranks 10th on the Big 12 charts in 3-point field-goal percentage (.353).
- Her 30 3-point field goals are the most by a CU freshman since Emily Waner had 51 in 2003-04.

#3 Susie Powers
5-10, Junior, Guard
Centennial, Colo.
(Highlands Ranch/Notre Dame)

- A two-year letterwinner at Notre Dame, playing in 41 games over two seasons and averaging 6.5 minutes per game. Notre Dame was 48-17 with Powers on the roster advancing to a pair of NCAA Tournaments, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2004.

- Part of three Colorado Class 5A state championship teams at Highlands Ranch High School (2000-02) and was the starting point guard when the Falcons were ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2002.
- She averaged 13.6 points and 6.8 assists per game over her prep career including a personal-best 15.7 per game as a senior.

- A two-time Street & Smith's honorable mention All-American and a Parade honorable mention All-American in 2003.

- While at Notre Dame, she was a two-time member of the Big East Academic All-Star Team.

- She hopes to one day teach Spanish in high school and coach girls basketball. She spent a portion of the summer of 2006 volunteering at a pastoral center in San Bartolo, Peru, teaching English and basketball to children.

- If she could pick one reality show to be on it would be American Idol, "Because I definitely would make the bloopers."

- Her favorite non-basketball activity is spending time with family and friends.

This Season:

- Has hit 13-of-32 from 3-point range during conference games (.406) and is 50 percent (17-of-34) from long range at home.
- Has rebounded from a scoreless outing against Kansas by averaging 6.0 points over the last three games and hitting 45 percent from the field (10-of-22) during that span.
- Scored a career-high 12 points, hitting 4-of-5 from downtown, in the win over Iowa State. Had a career-best seven rebounds against Oklahoma.
- Made a pair of free throws against CSU to ice the game with just 11 seconds remaining.
- Scored her first CU points on a 3-pointer against Vanderbilt. Led the Buffs with a team season-high six assists against the No. 16/15 Commodores.

Career:

- Transferred to CU from Notre Dame for the 2005-06 season, sitting the year out as a redshirt.

#12 Anna Nedovic
6-4, Senior, Forward
Ballerup, Denmark (Falkonergaarden)

- Has seven career double-doubles which is tied for 17th on CU's career list.
- Ranked third on the team in rebounding as a junior with 130 and was the only player to start all 30 games.
- As a sophomore, she topped CU and ranked 13th in the Big 12 Conference in rebounding at 6.5 per game.
- A native of Ballerup, Denmark, outside Copenhagen, played her club basketball for BF Copenhagen.
- She was named the Danish Player of the Year in 2002 in the Elite Division after leading her team to the Danish Championship during her first season in the senior league.
- She is fluent in several languages, including Spanish and German.
- Her favorite non-basketball activity is shopping and if she could try any sport other than basketball it would be water polo.

This Season:

- Scored for the first time since the Oklahoma game, netting four points on a field goal and two free throws at Iowa State.
- Played her 100th game in a Buffs' uniform during the Missouri game on Jan. 28.
- Recorded her seventh career double-double, and first this season, with 10 points and 10 rebounds against Cal State Bakersfield.
- Had two 3-point field goals against Cal State Bakersfield, after making just two in the previous 10 games.

Career:

- Tied with Emily Waner (2003-04) for 13th on CU's all-time list for 3-point field goals (51) and is 25th in blocked shots (31).

#13 Courtney Wallace
5-10, Senior, Forward
Colorado Springs, Colo.
(Air Academy/UCCS)

- Transferred from CU-Colorado Springs in the fall of 2004 after playing two seasons with the Mountain Lions.
- Played basketball, softball, soccer and ran track during her prep career at Air Academy.
- Was the team's leading rebounder and second leading scorer for the Cadets her senior season averaging 13 points and seven boards per game.
- As a senior, her .465 hitting percentage during the softball season, was the 10th best in the state.
- If she could be on the cover of any magazine it would be Time.
- If she could try any sport besides basketball it would be hockey.
- Lists her most memorable moment in sports as taking a charge during last year's game at Oklahoma.

This Season:

- Registered a steal against Iowa State as she appeared in her second Big 12 game of the season.
- Recorded her first career field goal on a reverse lay up in the closing seconds of CU's 80-60 win over Nevada.
- Recipient of the team's Practice Player Award last year and earned a scholarship for the 2006-07 academic year.

Career:

- Played in 15 of 30 games as a junior and recorded her first stats with a rebound, field goal attempt and two free-throw attempts against Northern Iowa.

#21 Jasmina Ilic
6-1, Senior, Guard/Forward
Becej, Serbia (Laza Kostic)

This Season:

- Ranks 10th in the nation in free-throw percentage through games of Feb. 18 at .892. Second in the Big 12 in free-throw percentage, seventh in 3-pointers (1.69 3pg) and 14th in scoring (12.7 ppg).
- Had a season-high five assists against Baylor.
- Hit 12-of-13 from the free throw line against Oklahoma, both career highs, and has hit 47 of her last 52 attempts (.904).
- CU's active career leader in 3-point field goals with 138, ranking sixth on CU's all-time list.
- Became the 21st player in team history to reach 1,000 career points during her 27-point effort against Texas Tech. Now 20th on the school's all-time list with 1,049.
- Held scoreless at Kansas State, just her third such game in her last 82 appearances.

Career:

- Ranked 10th in scoring (14.8 ppg), ninth in free-throw percentage (.792) and 3-pointers (1.9 3pg) in the Big 12 in 2005-06.

- Registered the third-highest point total in team history with 36 points against Nebraska on Jan. 4, 2006 -- the best output in the Big 12 for the season.
- She is the first player in team history to score 33 or more points twice in the same season (2005-06).
- Her 34 points against Cal State-Fullerton last season tied for the fifth-best single-mark in team history, along with teammate Jackie McFarland who also put up 34 in that game...
- ...which also marks the first time in team history that two players hit the 30-point mark in the same game
- Averaged a team-best 11.4 points and hit 41.2 percent from 3-point land (28x68) during the Big 12 schedule as a sophomore.
- Ranked ninth in 3-point field goals made per game (1.75) and eighth in 3-point field-goal percentage (.412) during league contests.
- A 2003 graduate of Laza Kostic High School in Novi Sad, Serbia, she holds the school record for points in a game with 68.
- Played with several junior national teams, helping the 1999 contingent to the European Championship in Bulgaria and a second place finish in 2000 in Budapest, Hungary. She was named best player at the 1999 championship in Bulgaria and was the youngest player to ever play for the Serbia senior national team in 2003.
- She is an only child and her parents were both professional athletes in Serbia. Dad Predrag played soccer and mom Verica played handball.
- Would like to have her own reality show one day.
- Her favorite non-basketball activity is sleeping, "I am very good at it!"

#23 Candace Rucker
5-10, Freshman, Guard
Memphis, Tenn. (Northside)

Career:

- A 2006 graduate of Northside High School in Memphis where she earned first team Class AAA All-State, district MVP, all-metro and all-city honors.

- Averaged 19.9 points, six rebounds and four assists per game as she led the Lady Cougars to a 33-3 record, the district title and a spot in the Tennessee Class AAA state quarterfinals.

- She was one of five finalists for the 2006 Memphis Commercial Appeal Player of the Year and is a two-time member of the Commercial Appeal's All-Metro Class AAA team.

- Rucker is an open option major at Colorado, but would like to be a veterinarian.

- She loves to dance and works well with kids and animals.

- She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as making it to the state tournament in 2006.

- Her favorite thing about Colorado basketball is the environment, "I really love the mountains."

- Her pregame rituals include listening to Yo Gotti (a Memphis rapper) and laying down thinking of a game plan.

This Season:

- Set a career high with eight points at Iowa State on 4-of-6 from the field.

- Had seven points at Kansas State and is averaging 5.6 points over the last five games.

- Shooting 66 percent from the free-throw line in Big 12 games after starting the season just 7-of-22 (.318).

- She has made 9-of-10 from the line (.900) in the last two minutes of games, including sinking a pair in both games against Kansas State. In the game at KSU, her two free throws with six seconds left provided the final margin in a 60-58 CU win, the Buffs' first on the road this season.

- Hit 5-of-7 overall from the foul line against Kansas State, both career highs.

- Has at least one steal in 16 of the last 21 games.

#33 Aija Putnina
6-3, Freshman, Forward
Riga, Latvia (Regis HS, Colo.)

Career:

- A 2006 graduate of Regis Jesuit High School in Aurora, Colo. An exchange student from Riga, Latvia, she could play only one season of varsity high school basketball in Colorado. As a senior she averaged 12 points, seven rebounds and two blocks per game helping the Raiders to a 24-4 overall record and a second place finish in the Colorado State Class 4A Tournament.

- Earned All-Continental Conference first team recognition and received honorable mention to the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 4A All-State teams.

- Averaged 16.9 points and 10 rebounds per game to lead the Latvia U18 Junior National Team to a fourth place finish at the 2006 UMCOR U18 European Championship for Women – Division B, in Chieti, Italy. She was sixth in rebounding and seventh in scoring and blocking (1.0 bpg) at the championship.

- In August 2005 she led Latvia to a third place finish at the FIBA U18 European Championship averaging 11.3 points, 7.1 rebounds, 2.5 steals and 2.5 blocks in the eight-game tournament.

- Averaged 18 points and 11 rebounds per game for Latvia at the 2004 U16 European Championships and was the tournament's fourth-highest scorer.

- She aspires to own her own business and to become a basketball coach.

- She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as going to the state championship game.

- Her best talent not related to basketball is taking pictures.

This Season:

- Played 32 minutes against Kansas, her most extended playing time in over two months. Recorded career-highs with four blocked shots and two assists while grabbing five rebounds.
- Ranks third in blocks and sixth in rebounds among freshmen in the Big 12.
- Returned to the lineup against Cal State Bakersfield after missing two games, and most of a third, due to a stress reaction on the third metatarsal of her left foot. The injury was not a fracture, rather a "hot spot" on the bone.
- Averaged 10.5 points, 13.0 rebounds, 1.5 blocks and shooting 44.8 percent (13-of-29) over her first four starts.
- Had four straight-double-digit rebounding games, including back-to-back career-high 14-board outputs against Colorado State and USC. Putnina is the first freshman to record four-straight games with 10 or more rebounds since Erin Scholz had four in a row in 1993-94. Only all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor had more in a row as a freshman, compiling separate streaks of five and six games during her maiden season in 1980-81.
- Recorded back-to-back double-doubles at the Coors Classic, earning All-Tournament honors. She is the first freshman to achieve back-to-back double-doubles since Sabrina Scott did it at the end of the 1999-2000 season and it's only the fourth time since 1993-94 when Erin Scholz did it twice.

#40 Caley Dow
6-2, Sophomore, Forward
Littleton, Colo. (Arapahoe)

CU player to go 10-of-10 or better from the foul line in a single game and only the second freshman. CU All-American Shelly Sheetz was 11-for-11 as a first-year player against Kansas in 1992. The mark also ties for the second best in the Big 12 this season.

- A 2005 graduate of Arapahoe High School where she averaged 17.3 points and 9.3 rebounds as a senior.

- She was selected All-Colorado by both the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News and was named to the Class 5A All-State first team by both publications.

- Was the state's leading rebounder in 2004 and a first team All-Continental League pick, helping the Warriors to a 12-8 record as a junior.

- She has two brothers, Nate and Eric. Eric played basketball at the University of Denver and professionally in Europe.

- Her favorite reality show is Mythbusters, "Have you seen the cool stuff they do?!"

- If she could be on the cover of any magazine it would be National Geographic.

- Her favorite quote is "Serenity Now!" - George Costanza from Seinfeld.

This Season:

- Had a season-high eight points on 4-of-6 from the field off the bench at Kansas State, helping CU to its first road win of the season. Logged a season-best 30 minutes against KSU.

- Averaging 4.0 rebounds over the last three games and has made six of her last 10 shots from the field.

- Recorded three steals against the Wildcats. She had only two steals in her previous 16 games.

- Netted her first 3-point basket of the season at Oklahoma State. Her basket ended a 9-0 CU run that allowed the Buffaloes to nearly erase a 10-point second-half OSU lead.

Career:

- Ranked 19th in the Big 12 in rebounding in league only contests at 5.9 rpg.

- Scored a career-high 15 points against Oregon and was a perfect 10-of-10 from the free-throw line. She is just the seventh

#44 Kara Richards
6-4, Sophomore, Center
Graham, Texas (Graham)

Career:

- Suffered a Jones fracture – a fracture to the fifth meta-tarsal – in her left foot on Nov. 15, 2005, just three days before CU's season opening win over Cal State University-Fullerton, missing the entire season
- Named to the Waco Tribune-Herald's Big 12 Conference All-Freshman team in 2004-05, averaging nine points, 5.3 rebounds, and one block per game for the Buffaloes.
- Ranked third in scoring, and fourth in rebounding and blocked shots among Big 12 freshmen in 2004-05.
- Ranked 10th overall on the Big 12 charts in blocks with 28, the 20th best total in team history and fifth-best by a Buffs freshman.
- Earned Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week honors after her first weekend as a collegian, averaging a team-best 13.5 points at the Nevada Nugget Classic.
- Started the 2004-05 season opener becoming the first true freshman to start in the season opener since Linda Lappe against Denver on Nov. 14, 1998.
- Earned a pair of All-State honors after her junior and senior seasons at Graham High School.
- A Texas Association of Basketball Coaches All-State selection, she was a four-time All-District player at Graham, was named the District Most Valuable Player for District 5-3A as a junior, and was also selected to the 2A- 3A Texas Women's Magazine All-State team.
- "Must See" TV for her is Dog the Bounty Hunter and cartoons.
- Her heroes are her parents and grandparents.

This Season:

- Recorded her second career double-double by netting 22 points and 10 rebounds against Baylor.
- It was her second straight double-digit scoring effort, after being held to single digits in the previous 10 games.
- Would sit second in the Big 12 in field-goal percentage, behind only Jackie McFarland, but barely lacks the minimum number of games played to be ranked. However, appearing in CU's final two regular season contests will alleviate that issue, as she will reach the 75 percent minimum (21-of-28 games).
- Set a career-high with three blocked shots at Texas A&M. Has 16 this season and is 17th on CU's career charts with 44.
- Recorded her first double-double by scoring 11 points and grabbing a personal-best 13 rebounds against Missouri.
- Returned to the CU lineup against Cal State Bakersfield after missing the previous seven games with a fracture to the fourth metatarsal of her left foot. The fracture was on the same foot, but a different bone than the injury that forced her to miss the 2005-06 campaign. Scored 10 points and had four rebounds and four assists against the Roadrunners.
- Has reverted back to sophomore standing in terms of eligibility as she was granted a medical hardship by the Big 12 Conference on Dec. 2.

#45 Jackie McFarland

6-3, Junior, Forward

Derby, Kan. (Derby)

This Season:

- Had a career-high 18 rebounds against Kansas, the most by a CU player since Raegan Scott had 21 against Texas in on Feb. 26, 1997.
- The seventh player in CU history with 1,200 points and 700 rebounds. Currently ranks 16th on the CU career scoring charts at 1,253 and fifth in rebounds (729). Eighth on CU's single-season rebounding list (284) needing 16 to become the sixth player in team history with 300 in one season.
- Ranks third in the NCAA in field-goal percentage and 11th in rebounding through games of Feb. 18. Tops the Big 12 in field-goal percentage and minutes and ranks second in rebounding and scoring. Has shot 70 percent or better in 11 games.
- Named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VII first team for the second-straight season.
- Named Big 12 Player of the Week on Nov. 13, after averaging 22 points, 12 rebounds and shooting 71 percent from the field (17-of-24) during the opening weekend of games. Named to the Coors Classic All-Tournament Team.
- Has 16 double-doubles in 2006-07, second in the Big 12, and fourth all-time at CU. The first player in CU history to register three straight double-doubles at the beginning of the season twice in her career as she also did it in 2005-06.
- The first player in CU women's basketball history to average 20 points and 10 rebounds over the first nine games of a season.

Career:

- Has 35 career double-doubles and 36 double-digit rebounding games, third on CU's all-time list. Sixth on CU's career blocked shots list at 96 and seventh in career free-throws made with 354.

- 2006 All-Big 12 Conference second team selection.
- As a sophomore, ranked fourth in rebounding (9.2 rpg), sixth in scoring (17.2 ppg), eighth in free-throw percentage (.799), ninth in blocks (1.4 bpg) and 10th in field-goal percentage (.514) in the Big 12 Conference.
- Tied with Isabelle Fijalkowski (1994-95) for seventh on CU's single-season scoring list with 516. Just the eighth player in team history with 500 points in a season and the second to record 500 points, 250 rebounds and 50 assists in one season. Recorded the 10th best single-season rebounding total in team history (277).
- Recorded the seventh best single-season scoring average (17.2 ppg) and ninth best rebounding average (9.2 rpg) in team history.
- Fifth on CU's single-season list for free-throws made with 144.
- Tied a school record with eight blocked shots against S. Dakota St., matching Britt Hartshorn who had eight against Nebraska on Jan. 23, 1999.
- Her 34 points against Cal State-Fullerton ties for the sixth-best single-mark in team history, along with teammate Jasmina Ilic who also put up 34 in that game.
- Named to the 2006 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America second team and 2006 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball first team.
- A two-time Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week in 2004-05.
- Led CU in scoring average in 2004-05 (10.0 ppg), the first freshman to do so since Linda Lappe in 1998-99.
- Named to the Kansas City Star and Waco Tribune-Herald All-Big 12 Freshman teams.
- Earned first-team All-State, first-team Class 6A and Ark Valley League MVP honors after averaging 23.3 points, 10.7 rebounds and 2.1 blocks per game as a senior at Derby High School.
- Sports that she would like to try other than basketball would be volleyball and synchornized swimming.

BOULDER - Kara Richards made the most of her return to the hard court.

The 6-foot-4 center, playing in her first official game since March 8, 2005, scored 22 points and grabbed six rebounds to help Colorado to a season-opening 62-56 win over San Francisco Friday night at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Richards, just two points off her career high, hit 8-of-10 from the floor and also had four assists. She was complimented by forward Jackie McFarland who had 17 points and 12 rebounds for her 20th career double-double. Richards missed the 2005-06 after breaking a bone in her foot three days before the season opener. The Buffs (1-0) trailed 30-26 at intermission but rallied to break a 26-game losing streak when trailing at halftime and their first such win since beating Missouri 56-51 on Jan. 18, 2005. The Buffs trailed the Tigers 28-20 in that game. CU shot 71.4 percent in the second stanza (15-of-21) while holding USF to 39.3 percent in the same time frame (11-of-28).

Leading 51-49 with 5:10 remaining in the game, Colorado went on a 9-0 run to pull away. Freshman point guard Whitney Houston started the rally with a lay up and dished out assists on a 3-pointer from junior Susie Powers - her first points in a CU uniform - and a lay up by fellow Memphis native Candace Rucker. Richards finished off the run with her final field goal of the night on a pass from Rucker.

The Rucker-Houston duo combined for 10 points, five assists and three steals off the bench. The freshman played a large portion of the second half with starters Richards, McFarland and Powers.

"I was very pleased with the chemistry between the five of them, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "There was a mutual respect on the floor among all of them. They moved the ball, they made the extra pass, and when they made the mistake, they pumped each other up, and it was exciting to see them."

Friday's game marked the return of Tanya Haave who spent four years as an assistant coach with the Buffaloes under Ceal Barry. Haave is in her first year as head coach of the Dons.

BOULDER - Colorado junior Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 27 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, but No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt held on for an 81-76 decision Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Conference Center.

McFarland, who hit 10-of-14 from the floor, secured her second-straight and 21st career double-double as Colorado (1-1) nearly erased a 17-point second half deficit. She scored 15 of her 27 points in the final 10:35, including her fourth career 3-point field goal followed by two conventional 3-point plays in the last minute.

Vanderbilt (1-0) was led by Carla Thomas who scored 26 points and grabbed seven rebounds and nearly single-handedly built Vanderbilt's 17-point lead in the second half. The Commodores took an eight point lead into the locker room after guard Merideth Marsh hit a half-court shot at the buzzer, for her only points of the game. Thomas then came out and hit her first four shots of the second half as Vanderbilt started the period on a 13-4 run.

The Buffaloes closed to 65-69 with 1:57 to go after a free throw from Whitney Houston. But Caroline Williams calmly hit the last of her four 3-pointers 15 seconds later and Dee Davis buried two free throws to give Vanderbilt breathing room at 74-65.

McFarland's two, conventional three-point plays closed the game to 76-74 with 23 seconds left. Williams and Davis sank two free throws apiece to preserve the win.

"That was probably one of the best things about this afternoon's game," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Down 17, they could've packed it up and they could've folded. It could've gone to a 30-point game."

Senior Jasmina Ilic had eight of her 14 points in the second half and dished out three assists to help the Buffaloes second-half run. Colorado shot 47.5 percent from the field (28-of-59) while the Commodores hit 50 percent (28-of-56). Nearly every category was even between Vanderbilt and CU, with the exception of free throws. Colorado, which made just 10-of-22, two nights earlier against San Francisco, made just 14-of-23 for 61 percent.

Houston had nine points and three assists off the bench. Senior Anna Nedovic and freshman Bianca Smith each pitched in six points.

Colorado game out of the gate on fire hitting five of its first seven shots, building a 13-5 lead. Smith and Ilic each hit a pair of 3-pointers and guard Susie Powers added one of her own. Colorado led for most of the first 13 minutes of play, before Vanderbilt closed the period on a 17-8 run.

Williams finished with 21 points for Vanderbilt while Christina Wirth added 14.

LARAMIE, Wyo. — Justyna Posziemska and Jodi Bolerjack each scored 18 points and Wyoming forced 24 Colorado turnovers as the Cowgirls defeated the Buffaloes 68-49 Tuesday night at the Arena Auditorium in Laramie.

Wyoming moves to 3-1 overall, claiming its third straight win over Colorado which falls to 2-2.

Posziemska and Bolerjack led a 3-point barrage by the Cowgirls who made 11-of-25 (44 percent) from beyond the arc. The duo each had four from downtown while Hanna Zavec had a pair.

Junior Jackie McFarland led Colorado with 22 points and seven rebounds, seeing her consecutive double-double streak stop at three to begin the season. McFarland hit 8-of-11 from the floor and all six free throw attempts.

The Buffaloes shot 52.9 percent from the field in the first half, but only on 17 attempts (9-of-17), a school record low for attempts in one half. Turnovers were the main culprit as the Buffs gave the ball away 15 times in the first 20 minutes as Wyoming built a 31-22 lead.

The Cowgirls outscored CU 22-6 off turnovers.

Colorado closed the lead to five at 39-34 with 14:49 remaining in the game, but the Cowgirls embarked on a 14-3 run over the next five minutes to put the game away.

Jasmina Ilic had 12 points, all in the second half, including a pair of 3-pointers, giving her 101 for her career, the seventh Buff to hit the century mark.

BOULDER — Colorado freshmen Aija Putnina and Whitney Houston each scored 12 points and Jackie McFarland notched her fourth double-double of the season as the Buffaloes defeated Nevada 80-60, Friday at the Coors Events/Conference Center, in the first day of the 20th Annual Coors Classic.

Houston and Putnina made their first career starts Friday night, the first time two freshmen have started in the same game for the Buffs since Kara Richards and Yari Escalera started the final game of the 2004-05 season. Putnina recorded a double-double, registering career highs with 12 points and 13 rebounds. Houston scored 12 points on 5-of-7 from the field to go along with three steals.

McFarland had a game-high 18 points and grabbed 12 rebounds for her fourth double-double in five games this season, and the 23rd of her career, giving her sole possession of third place on CU's all-time list. Jasmina Ilic rounds out CU's double-digit scorers as she pitched in 14 points with five rebounds and three steals.

Nevada made just four of its first 20 shots and ended the half shooting 26.3 percent from the field (10-of-38). The Wolfpack had substantially more field goal attempts than the Buffaloes (38 to 22) because for the second straight game Colorado had problems with turnovers, committing 20 in the first 20 minutes.

Trailing by one at 15-14, Colorado finally got its offense into gear. The Buffaloes scored nine straight to take a 23-15 lead with 4:15 left in the half. Nevada inched back to within four at 27-23, but Susie Powers hit a 3-pointer with just three seconds remaining in the half to give CU a 30-23 lead into the locker room.

Colorado (3-2) opened up a 20-point lead mid-way through the second half thanks to hot shooting and a dominating performance on the boards. The Buffaloes hit 17-of-30 in the second half (56.7 percent) while holding Nevada to just 34.4 percent (11-of-32). Colorado out-rebounded the Wolfpack 31-9 in the second half and its 56 rebounds are the most since the Buffs had 56 against Cal State Fullerton in the 2005-06 season opener.

McFarland was solid in the second half, recording 14 of her points and seven of her rebounds in the final 20 minutes. The top field-goal shooter in the Big 12 so far this year, McFarland hit 6-of-8 from the field and 6-of-9 from the charity stripe.

Colorado was without starting center Kara Richards Friday night and will be for the next 4-to-6 weeks as it was diagnosed late Thursday night that she has a fracture to the fourth metatarsal in her left foot. The injury is to the same foot, but not the same bone that forced her to miss the entire 2005-06 season. Her injury last season was a Jones Fracture, a fracture of the fifth metatarsal.

BOULDER — Junior Jackie McFarland had 19 points and freshman Aija Putnina pulled in a career-high 14 rebounds as a solid defensive effort led the University of Colorado to its 600th win with a 56-51 triumph over Colorado State University Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado improves to 5-2 overall and is off to its best start since the 2003-04 team that started 6-1 and made the program's last NCAA Tournament appearance.

On a night when the Colorado offense was off, the defense picked up the slack. Colorado was limited to just 29.7 percent from the field (19-of-64) but forced 21 Colorado State turnovers and held its own turnovers down. The Buffs turned the ball over just eight times, their lowest single-game total since Jan. 21, 2006, when they had eight in a home loss to Iowa State. CU entered the game giving up 23 turnovers per game.

CU shot the game shooting 49 percent as a team and had actually shot better than 53 percent in its last two games. Wednesday's percentage is the Buffs' lowest in a win since the modern record keeping era began with the 1978-79 season.

The Buffaloes missed their first 10 shots of the game, but the Rams didn't fare much better hitting only 2-of-11 to open the game as CSU led just 4-0, four minutes in. After a timeout, freshman guard Bianca Smith came off the bench to put a spark in the CU offense. Smith hit a pair of 3-pointers over the next 3:25 to give the Buffs a 14-9 lead.

CU increased its edge to eight at halftime (30-22), but CSU fought back with an 11-3 run to open the second half and tie the score at 33-33. Colorado quickly built the lead back up to eight on a 3-pointer from Susie Powers, a driving layup by Whitney Houston and a McFarland bucket off a Houston pass.

Although the Buffaloes never trailed after that point, they could also not extend the lead beyond 10 points. CSU's leading scorer Kelly Jo Mullaney had 12 of her team-high 17 points in the second half and converted three free throws with just 17 seconds left that closed the CU lead to 54-51. Powers, who had fouled Mullaney to give her the three free throws, responded with two of her own that iced the game.

The freshmen tandem of Putnina, Houston and Candace Rucker helped the Buffaloes fend off CSU rallies at every twist and turn. Putnina registered double digit rebounds for the third-straight game and fell just two points shy of a third-straight double-double finishing with eight. Twelve of her 14 rebounds came on the defensive in and she also blocked a pair of shots.

Rucker had six points and two rebounds and was continuously in the hip pocket of the CSU backcourt. She had a big block on a CSU fast break and also came up with a steal in her 18 minutes. Houston added three steals to her five points and three assists.

BOULDER — University of Southern California senior Shay Murphy scored a career-high 33 points and the University of Colorado struggled from the field for the second straight game as the Trojans took a 76-57 decision from the Buffaloes Saturday afternoon at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Murphy was nearly automatic from the floor hitting her first five of the game and finishing 13-of-19 to go along with six steals, five rebounds and four assists.

USC stormed out to a 22-5 lead in the first 11 minutes of the game. While Colorado made only 2-of-19 out of the gate, the Trojans made 10-of-16 (625). Murphy and Morghan Medlock combined for 20 of the Trojans first 22 points, on a combined 8-of-8 from the field.

After hitting 49 percent from the floor in its first six games, Colorado has cooled off in the last two. The Buffaloes hit just 32.2 percent (12-of-59) on Saturday and have made just 31.1 percent (38-of-122) over the last two games.

"I think when you play more experienced teams like USC, it is a lot tougher to come back, but it's not impossible," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We continuously talked about that in the huddles, what we needed to do. I thought we got a little bit impatient with the fact we weren't hitting a lot of shots, and we were stuck on four for so long, and we probably took some shots that were out of character for us. We eventually came out of it for a little bit, but got back into it against a more experienced team; a team that capitalizes on mistakes."

Colorado fought back late in the first half, closing the on a 21-12 run. An Aija Putnina basket with 8:40 left in the first half stopped a streak of 16-straight missed shots over a 9:39 span. Senior Jasmina Ilic scored eight of her season-high 22 points down the stretch as CU cut the Trojans' lead to 34-26 at halftime. Ilic was 3-of-7 from 3-point range has she moved her career trey total to 107.

Despite the late first-period rally, it was more of the same from USC in the second half as the Trojans opened on a 14-4 run with the help of a pair of 3-point field goals by Jamie Hagiya.

"I think it was one of those where we were expecting a situation like Vanderbilt, where we came back from 17 down," Ilic said. "I thought we were going to continue that in the second half, however we didn't come out fully-focused in the first minute and a half and we went down by 15."

Putnina led all players with 14 rebounds, 11 of which came in the first half, giving her four-straight double-digit rebounding performances. It is the best streak by a freshman since Erin Scholz had four in a row in 1993-94.

Junior Jackie McFarland her sixth double-double of the year, and 25th of her career, with 16 points and 11 rebounds.

PORTLAND, Ore. — Eleanor Haring scored a game-high 18 points and the University of Oregon used big runs at the beginning of each half to hold off the University of Colorado 70-60 at the Rose Garden Arena in the 2006 Pape Jam.

Jackie McFarland led Colorado (5-5) with 14 points and 15 rebounds for her seventh double-double of the season, and the 26th of her career. McFarland's 15 rebounds were just one off a career high — she had 16 against Puerto Rico-Mayaguez last December — and her 26th career double-digit rebounding performance, tying former Buff Britt Hartshorn (1998-02) for fourth on CU's all time list.

Oregon (6-1) scored the first 14 points of the game, hitting 7-of-9 from the floor, and opened up a 16-2 lead at the 15:10 mark of the first half. Colorado fought back immediately from long range. Senior Jasmina Ilic scored CU's first seven points, including the 108th 3-pointer of her career, while Bianca Smith and Anna Nedovic also added treys as the Buffaloes answered with an 18-5 run of their own, closing the gap to 20-19 with 7:17 remaining.

The Ducks widened the gap back to nine at the end of the first half. Kaela Chapelaine, entering the game averaging less than four points per contest, had eight of her season-high 16 points in the first 20 minutes, five of which came during Oregon's 11-3 run to end the half.

"In the first half we consistently getting stops and making plays, but we started putting them on the line (in the second half) and we stopped doing what we did to get us back," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I just think it is a sign of youth, not really understanding the game as well as they need to. I am proud of the plays we made, but all of a sudden they started feeling a little good about themselves and stopped doing the things (that brought us back)."

Oregon opened up the second half on a 10-2 run to move its lead back up to 17 points at 41-24. Haring had 12 of her 18 points in the second half and at one point scored seven straight and nine of 11 for the Ducks.

CU fought back again, cutting the Ducks' lead to 60-51 with 3:08 remaining on a 3-point play by Whitney Houston. The freshman guard scored all of her career-high 13 points in the final 5:38 of the contest to spark the Buffs rally.

Oregon held off the last-gasp CU spurt at the free-throw line. The Ducks didn't attempt a foul shot in the first half, but connected on 17-of-20 in the final 20 minutes.

Ilic and Smith both finished with 11 points for the Buffaloes. Houston added four assists and a career-best five rebounds to her totals. Nedovic had five points and a season-high six rebounds.

BROOKINGS, S.D. -- University of Colorado junior Jackie McFarland reached 1,000 career points but a barrage of 3-point field goals by South Dakota State University lifted the Jackrabbits to an 80-58 decision over the Buffaloes Wednesday night at Frost Arena.

Colorado (5-6) dropped its fourth straight while SDSU improved to 8-2.

McFarland became the 20th Colorado player to reach 1,000 points doing so at the 12 minute, 19 second mark of the second half on a lay up. She was fouled by SDSU's Laura Nielsen on the play and sank the free throw for the conventional 3-point play. McFarland ended with 17 points, giving her 1,002 in 68 career games, and nine rebounds.

It was the other type of 3-point play though, that gave the Jackrabbits the edge. SDSU made nine of its first 11 shots from long range and finished 11-of-19 (.579) from beyond the arc. Sophomore Ashlea Muckenhirn, who entered the contest averaging just 5.3 points per game, had a career night hitting all four 3-point attempts and tying a career high with 18 points.

South Dakota State came out firing, hitting its first four 3-point field goals of the contest and 5-of-7 attempts overall to take a 16-12 lead at the 15:22 mark.

A Megan Vogel free throw gave the Jacks a 17-12 lead, but CU senior Jasmina Ilic answered with a 3-pointer, her second of four on the evening to cut the Jacks' lead to 17-15 with 14:46 remaining. Ilic, who finished with a game-high 20 points to go a long with six rebounds, moved into sixth place on CU's all-time 3-point list with 112.

Ilic's surge up the 3-point list was the last good news Colorado had for a while. The Buffaloes went scoreless over the next 8:27 as the Jacks ran off nine straight points for a 26-15 lead. South Dakota State built its lead from the free-throw line. The Jacks outscored the Buffs 15-5 from the charity stripe and led by as much as 20 before taking a 46-27 lead at halftime.

Muckenhirn single-handedly made sure there was no Buffs' comeback. She scored seven of SDSU's first 11 points of the second half as the Jacks opened up a 58-30 lead in the first four minutes of the period. Vogel ended with 11 points and six rebounds while Jennifer Warkentien added 12 points and nine rebounds.

Senior Anna Nedovic had seven points and five rebounds off the bench.

BOULDER — Sophomore center Kara Richards and junior forward Jackie McFarland each recorded double-doubles to pace the University of Colorado to a 71-59 win over the University of Missouri on Wednesday night at the Coors Events Conference Center in the Big 12 Conference opener for both teams.

Colorado improves to 7-6 overall, snapping a three-game losing skid against the Tigers, and in the process registering its largest margin of victory ever in a Big 12 opener. Missouri falls to 12-2.

Richards scored 11 points on a perfect 5-of-5 from the field, and grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds for her first collegiate double-double. McFarland had a game-high 18 points and 11 rebounds for her 27th career double-double and eighth on the season.

Missouri built a 25-15 lead with 8 minutes, 57 seconds remaining in the first half by making nine of its first 15 shot attempts (60 percent). However, the Tigers went ice cold from there making only 11 of their final 48 shots (23 percent).

Colorado took advantage by going on a 43-16 over next 23:05 of the game (the final 8:57 of the first half and the first 14:08 of the second period).

The Tigers held a 31-29 lead at halftime, but the Buffaloes came out strong in the opening minutes of the second period. Junior guard Susie Powers scored all of her career-high seven points in the first three minutes of the half, as CU claimed the lead for good.

Colorado shot 59.1 percent in the second half (13-of-22) while the Tigers made just 23.7 percent (9-of-38) which included 17-straight misses in an 11-minute span and a 1-for-23 streak.

Senior forward Jasmina Ilic scored 10 of her 15 points in the second half while freshman guard Whitney Houston provided a spark off the bench, scoring 11 points on 5-of-9 from the field.

CU led 58-41 with 5:52 remaining in the game, when the Tigers made one last charge. An 11-2 run put the Tigers within eight at 60-52 with 3:33 left, and Tiffany Brooks' foul shots with 1:47 remaining cut the margin down to six at 63-57. The Buffaloes responded by hitting 8-of-10 from the free-throw line in the final two minutes.

BOULDER — The University of Colorado dialed long distance Wednesday night, nailing a season-high 13 3-point field goals in a 81-67 Big 12 Conference victory over Iowa State University at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

The win gives the Buffaloes their first 2-0 start in league play since the inaugural season of the Big 12 in 1996-97 when they started 3-0. CU, 8-6 overall, also snaps a five-game slide against Iowa State (13-3, 1-2 Big 12), and has won two-straight in the Big 12 for the first time since the 2003-04 season.

Starting guards Bianca Smith and Susie Powers combined for 30 points and 9-of-15 from 3-point range. Smith had a personal-best 18 points and a team season-high five 3-pointers (on 10 attempts). Powers, whose career high in points entering the game was seven, hit her first four 3-pointers of the contest, ending at 4-of-5 and 12 points. Powers also added four assists and three steals.

Overall the Buffaloes hit nine of their first 13 attempts building a 25-11 lead in the first 8 minutes, 23 seconds of the contest. Iowa State fought back, closing the CU lead to six at 28-22, but the Buffaloes immediately responded ending the first half on a 20-2 run for a 48-24, their largest halftime lead of the season.

Colorado was 10-of-16 from long range in the first half (62.5 percent) and finished the game 13-of-23 (56.5 percent). Overall the Buffaloes shot 51 percent for the contest (26-of-51) while holding Iowa State to just 32 percent in the first half (8-of-25) and 40.4 percent for the entire game (21-of-52).

Junior Jackie McFarland recorded her 28th career double-double, ninth this season, with 22 points and 14 rebounds. She added a personal-best six assists and was 7-of-9 from the field, giving her nine games this season shooting 70 percent or better. McFarland is 27-of-34 (79.4 percent) in her last four games.

Sophomore center Kara Richards added 14 points, five rebounds and two blocked shots. Richards was 6-of-7 from the field and has made 16 of her last 20 shots since returning to the lineup after missing seven games with a foot injury.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas — Jackie McFarland had her 10th double-double of the season and Jasmina Ilic had 14 points but the No. 17 ranked Texas A&M University's defense was tough throughout the game as the Aggies claimed a 74-58 Big 12 Conference win over the Buffaloes Thursday night at Reed Arena.

Colorado falls to 8-8 overall and 2-2 in Big 12 action while the Aggies move to 13-3 overall, 3-1 in conference play.

McFarland had game highs with 15 points and 13 rebounds and hit 9-of-10 from the free-throw line, but was held to just 3-of-9 from the field, a season-low for the second-best field goal shooter in the nation. Ilic was 4-of-8 from 3-point range with one assist and one steal.

Texas A&M guard A'Quonesia Franklin was one of three Aggies with 13 points, and sparked a 20-8 run with nine points in the first nine minutes of the first half. La Toya Micheaux and Takia Starks also had 13 points for the Aggies.

Colorado had 13 turnovers in the first half and set a school-record low with just 14 field-goal attempts, but despite the low numbers, the Buffaloes were efficient in the attempts they had, making eight for 57 percent.

Freshman Candace Rucker tied a career high with seven points on 3-of-4 from the field in the first 20 minutes, helping the Buffaloes stay close. Her two layups, along with a Ilic 3-pointer led a CU charge that cut the A&M lead to 26-20 with 4:49 remaining.

Thursday's game was originally scheduled for Wednesday (Jan. 17), but icy conditions that have been prominent in the area all week led Texas A&M officials to postpone the game until tonight.

BOULDER — University of Oklahoma All-American Courtney Paris had 26 points and 17 rebounds to rally the No. 7/6 ranked Sooners past the University of Colorado 82-67 in a Big 12 Conference game Saturday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Senior Jasmina Ilic had a season-high 29 points for the Buffaloes, who fall to 8-9 overall and 2-3 in the Big 12. Oklahoma won its 24th straight game against a Big 12 foe, moving to 15-1 overall, 5-0 in league action.

Oklahoma shot 53.6 percent in the first half (15-of-28) and opened the game on a 24-8 run. Colorado fought back behind Ilic's 13 first-half points, cutting the Sooners' lead to eight at halftime (36-28).

Ilic's hot shooting continued early in the second half. She hit two 3-pointers to spark a 14-2 run that gave Colorado a 48-46 lead with 13 minutes, 3 seconds remaining in the game.

The Paris twins took over from there accounting for OU's next 13 points as the Sooners built their lead back up to 10 at 64-54 with just under eight minutes remaining. Courtney, who entered the game hitting just 54 percent from the foul line, hit 9-of-11 attempts in the second half and finished 10-of-13 for the game. Ashley Paris had 12 points, 10 of which came in the second half, eight rebounds and a pair of blocked shots.

Jackie McFarland had 17 points and 14 rebounds for her 11th double-double of the season and the 30th of her career which ranks third on CU's all-time list. Her 11 double-doubles only trail Courtney Paris' 16 in the Big 12.

Junior guard Susie Powers had six points, five assists and a career-high seven rebounds. Freshman Whitney Houston added seven points off the bench.

COLUMBIA, Mo. — University of Missouri senior EeTisha Riddle scored 12 points and the Tigers hit 16-of-19 from the free throw line — all in the second half — to defeat the University of Colorado 61-48 in Big 12 Conference action Sunday afternoon at the Mizzou Arena.

The Buffaloes, 8-11 overall, 2-5 in league play, dropped their fifth straight overall and 10th in a row on the road dating back to last season. Missouri snaps its own four game skid improving to 14-6, 2-5 in the Big 12.

Jackie McFarland led Colorado with 19 points and eight rebounds. Whitney Houston had 10 points off the bench while Kara Richards added six points, nine rebounds and two blocked shots.

Two quick fouls by Riddle forced Missouri to go to its bench early, and it responded. Freshman Jessra Johnson, averaging just under four points per game on the season, had nine in the first half on 4-of-6 from the field.

Colorado led 12-10 with 6:25 remaining when the Tigers went on an 11-2 run. Johnson scored five straight points to spark the rally. Carlynn Savant and Marche Campbell hit consecutive 3-point field goals to give Missouri a 23-14 lead.

The Buffaloes responded with a 6-2 run to close the half. Jasmina Ilic hit a pair of free throws and McFarland scored on a running jumper to cut the lead to 23-18. After Kassie Drew missed a 3-pointer with six seconds left, Houston grabbed the rebound and sprinted the length of the floor, drawing a foul against Campbell with just 1.2 seconds left. She hit both free throws and the Buffaloes trailed just 23-20 at the half.

McFarland and Richards combined for CU's first 10 points of the second half as the Buffaloes retook the lead early. CU held a 37-36 advantage with 9:24 remaining when Riddle was fouled shortly after and hit a pair of foul shots to give the Tigers the lead for good. Blair Hardiek hit a 3-pointer and Riddle added a bucket to spark a 16-4 Missouri run that put the Tigers up 52-41 with 3:10 left in the contest.

Colorado closed the gap back to five at 53-48 when McFarland connected on a 3-pointer — CU's lone 3-pointer of the game (1-of-12) — with 51 seconds remaining. Missouri then iced the game at the line, hitting eight straight, six from Savant, while holding the Buffaloes without a field goal on their final four possessions.

The Buffaloes made just 33.9 percent of their field goals and were held to their lowest point total of the season. CU had 49 point outputs in road losses to the University of Texas and the University of Wyoming.

BOLDER — Jackie McFarland had 19 points and Whitney Houston had a career-high 17 as the University of Colorado rallied from a 15-point halftime deficit to claim a 66-55 Big 12 Conference win over Kansas State University Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

The Buffaloes improve to 9-11 overall and 3-5 in Big 12 action, matching their win totals from the 2005-06 season (9-21, 3-13 Big 12) and also snapping an eight-game losing streak to the Wildcats (15-6, 3-5 Big 12).

Colorado outscored Kansas State 23-0 over a 10-minute, 24-second span of the second half which allowed the Buffaloes to overcome the second-largest halftime deficit to win in team history. None of the current Buffaloes were born the last time CU was victorious when closing halftime deficit that large. Colorado trailed the University of Washington by 19 points (35-16) on Dec. 21, 1982, in Portland, Ore., before coming back to win 67-65.

Kansas State missed 12 straight shots during the CU run and committed six turnovers. The Wildcats shot just 22.2 percent in the second half (6-of-27) while the Buffaloes made 62.5 percent (15-of-24) and outscored KSU 42-16 in the final 20 minutes. KSU's 16 second-half points were the lowest CU has allowed in a half this season.

Colorado had a hard time doing anything right early on. Claire Coggins and Kimberly Dietz combined for 24 first-half points as the Wildcats took a 39-24 lead into the locker room. Colorado made just 38 percent from the field in the first half (8-of-21) and committed 12 turnovers.

A quick Shana Wheeler bucket to open the second half actually gave the Wildcats their largest lead at 41-24. CU whittled the margin down to 10 at 41-31 with 16:00 remaining on two Houston layups and a Susie Powers 3-pointer. The Wildcats responded with a 7-2 run, ending on a Coggins 3-pointer to push the KSU advantage back up to 15 at 48-33 with 13:53 remaining.

Then the fireworks began on the CU side of the court. Houston started the run with a jumper from the free throw line. After KSU guard Shalee Lehning missed a pair of free throws, senior Jasmina Ilic drilled a long 3-pointer to cut the margin to 48-38. Sophomore guard Bianca Smith, who had been held scoreless for the past four games, nailed a 3-pointer from the right elbow. Coggins missed a 3-pointer on the other end which led to a Smith layup that put the Buffs within five at 48-43 with 11:39 left on the clock.

McFarland made consecutive field goals and an Ilic jumper at the 9:15 mark gave the Buffaloes the lead for good at 49-48. Colorado continued to press as Smith connected on her second 3-pointer of the half and McFarland scored four straight points to give the Buffaloes a 56-48 lead with 4:43 remaining.

Dietz ended the drought with a layup of her own at the 3:29 mark of the half to cut the CU lead to six, but the Wildcats would not draw any closer. Coggins led the Wildcats with 19 points while Dietz finished with 16.

McFarland, who had a team-high 11 rebounds, recorded her 13th double-double of the season which ranks fifth on CU's single-season list. She also holds down the fourth spot on the list as she had 14 as a sophomore in 2005-06. McFarland now has 32 career double-doubles, third on CU's career chart.

Houston also had a personal-best seven field goals while tying career highs with 13 field-goal attempts and three steals. Sophomore Hannah Skildum dished out a career-high five assists while adding four points and two rebounds.

LAWRENCE, Kan. – Shaquana Mosley sank a running jumper in the lane with five seconds remaining in overtime to lift the University of Kansas to a 70-68 win over the University of Colorado Saturday night in Allen Fieldhouse.

Mosley had a team-high 20 points to go along with eight rebounds and five assists as the Jayhawks (7-16, 1-9) pick up their first Big 12 Conference win. Colorado (10-12, 4-6) falls to 0-8 away from Boulder this season and has dropped 11 straight on the road dating back to a 77-71 win over the Jayhawks on Feb. 1, 2006.

Freshman guard Whitney Houston had a career-high 25 points for the Buffaloes in a back-and-forth game that saw 12 ties, 12 lead changes and neither team hold a lead of more than five points for the final 33:57.

Kansas led 54-49 when the Buffaloes embarked on an 8-2 run to take a one-point lead with 1:38 left in regulation. Houston hit a pair of short jumpers and fellow freshman Candace Rucker hit two free throws to give Colorado the 57-56 advantage.

KU's Taylor McIntosh put the Jayhawks back on top with a baseline jumper, but CU senior Jasmina Ilic immediately answered with two free throws. After a Danielle McCray miss, Houston connected on a jumper to put the Buffaloes up 61-58 with 44 seconds left. A Rucker foul on KU's next possession allowed Sharita Smith to hit two free throws, cutting the CU lead to 61-60 with 36 seconds remaining.

Houston was fouled off the inbounds play and hit 1-of-2 foul shots as the Buffs held on to a 62-60 advantage. As Kansas looked for a shot to tie, McIntosh lost control of the ball just to the right of the lane. Freshman Aija Putnina, whose solid defensive effort off the bench included five rebounds and a career-high four blocked shots, darted towards the ball in an attempt to steal, but was called for a foul with 19 seconds left. McIntosh sank both shots to tie the game and send it to the extra session.

Kansas, shooting just 64 percent from the free-throw line this season, made 17-of-18 attempts including all 14 shots in the second half and overtime. The Jayhawks also scored 18 points off of 21 Colorado turnovers.

In overtime, Colorado took a two point lead on three separate occasions, only to have Kansas answer. A Jackie McFarland layup gave the Buffaloes a 68-66 lead with 2:29 left but CU wouldn't score again missing three shots and committing a turnover in the final minutes.

McCray tied the game at 68-68 on a basket with 1:39 remaining. Kansas missed three straight shots on the other end with the third rebounded by Houston who attempted to drive in for the go-ahead basket only to be blocked by Mosley, who also rebounded the miss to set up the game winner.

McFarland had 22 points and a career-high 18 rebounds registering her 14th double-double of the season and the 33rd of her career. Her 18 rebounds are the most by a CU player since Raegan Scott had 21 against the University of Texas on Feb. 26, 1997.

Ilic had 12 points and four rebounds while Rucker finished with six points and three rebounds.

BOULDER – Kiera Hardy had 16 points and Chelsea Aubry pitched in 11 to lead No. 21-ranked University of Nebraska over the University of Colorado 54-44 in a Big 12 Conference contest Saturday afternoon at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Colorado (10-13, 4-7 Big 12) was held to its lowest point total of the season and the lowest at home since scoring just 41 against Texas Tech on Jan. 15, 2005. Nebraska (21-4, 9-2 Big 12) wins its fourth straight over the Buffaloes and maintains a tie for first place in the league standings with Texas A&M University.

Junior Jackie McFarland led Colorado with nine points and 13 rebounds. Despite seeing her streak of 38 straight double-digit scoring games come to an end, McFarland became just the 16th player in team history to reach 1,200 points ending the game at 1,203.

Senior Jasmina Ilic, junior Susie Powers and freshman Whitney Houston each had eight points for Colorado, who did not have a player score in double-digits for the first time in 77 games (vs. No. 2 LSU, Nov. 27, 2004).

Nebraska, which never trailed in the game, used a 12-2 run mid-way through the first half to open up a 10-point lead. Colorado shot 31 percent in the first half and scored just 20 points in the period, the Buffs' lowest at home this season.

Colorado opened the second half on a 13-4 run to cut the Nebraska lead down to one. McFarland and sophomore Kara Richards each scored a pair of baskets and Powers hit a 3-pointer during the stretch as CU was within 34-33 with 14:25 left in the game.

Nebraska answered with a 9-0 run to lead 43-33 with 10:35 remaining. Ilic and Bianca Smith hit consecutive 3-pointers to bring the Buffaloes back to within four at 43-39, but the Huskers would hold CU to just two field goals over the final 8:18 of the game.

AMES, Iowa – Jackie McFarland recorded a double-double and Kara Richards had 11 points, but the Iowa State University defense otherwise held the University of Colorado offense in check as the Cyclones defeated the Buffaloes 74-55 Saturday afternoon at Hilton Coliseum.

Colorado (11-14, 5-8 Big 12) shot just 36.4 percent in the contest as the Cyclones used a 17-2 first-half run to build a 13-point halftime lead (36-23).

The Buffaloes made six of their first 10 shots to take an early 16-12 lead, but went ice cold from there sinking only three of their final 16 attempts in the period. Iowa State's Nicky Wieben scored 11 of her game-high 18 points in the final 7 minutes, 48 seconds of the half as the Cyclones (19-7, 7-6 Big 12) shot 50 percent for the game and never let the lead dip below 14 in the second half.

McFarland had 12 points and 11 rebounds but was held to just 4-of-11 from the field as the Cyclones double and triple teamed her most of the afternoon. McFarland, who was held under 50 percent from the field for just the third time this season, registered her 15th double-double of the season, the fourth-best mark in team history.

Richards' 11 points were her most since scoring 14 when the Cyclones visited Boulder in January. In that game, an 81-67 Colorado win, the Buffaloes hit 10 3-point field goals in the first half and shot 51 percent from the floor as a team. On Saturday, CU made just 2-of-12 from downtown and only one after halftime.

Freshman guard Candace Rucker scored a career-high eight points off the bench on 4-of-6 shooting, but the rest of the Colorado back court was just 5-of-22.

Alison Lacey had 13 points and five rebounds for the Cyclones while Lyndsey Medders had nine points, seven rebounds and seven assists.

BOULDER – Colorado's front-court combination of Kara Richards and Jackie McFarland combined for 42 points and 20 rebounds, but No. 14 ranked Baylor managed to hold off the Buffaloes 75-67 in a Big 12 Conference game Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado (11-15, 5-9) has now lost 22 straight games to ranked opponents and falls into a three-way tie for eighth place in the Big 12 standings with Texas and Missouri with two regular season games remaining. Baylor (24-4, 11-3) wins its fifth straight and remains in a first-place tie with Oklahoma and Texas A&M.

Richards tied a season-high with 22 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for her second career double-double. McFarland had 20 points and 10 rebounds for her 16th double-double of the season, second in the Big 12, and the 35th of her career.

Baylor guard Angela Tisdale led the Lady Bears with 18 points, including four 3-point field goals. Bernice Mosby, the Big 12's second leading scorer, had 16 points and 11 rebounds.

The Buffaloes hit six of their first 10 shots of the game and built a seven point lead midway through the first half at 27-20. Tisdale then hit a pair of 3-pointers and led the Bears on a 20-7 run in the final 9 minutes, 15 seconds of the first half, giving Baylor a 37-31 lead at the break.

Richards scored CU's first seven points of the second half as the Buffs whittled away at the Baylor advantage. She converted a traditional 3-point play as Baylor led just 40-38 with 16:25 remaining.

The Buffaloes took a 53-52 lead on a 3-pointer by Jasmina Ilic with 11:20 remaining, but Baylor answered on the other end with a Mosby layup, taking the lead for good. CU scored just six points over the final 8:21 of the contest.

Ilic finished the game with 14 points, five assists and two steals.
