FOR STARTERS: Colorado is coming off a season-best 62 percent from the field at Texas A&M, last Saturday. It's the first time CU has shot over 60 percent since making .627 against Mercer in 2005-06, and .611 percent against a Big 12 foe since 2002-03 against Texas A&M • Richard Roby is averaging 24.3 ppg., 4.0 rpg., 2.7 apg., in three games against Nebraska at home; he scored 30 points on Jan. 25, 2006 in CU's 81-59 victory • Roby moved into third place on CU's 3-pointers made list (188) passing Kenny Price; Marcus King-Stockton had three blocked shots at Texas A&M moving into 11th place all-time in career blocks (77) • The Buffs placed four players in double figures at A&M and are 4-2 when four or more players net 10+ • CU is 5-1 this season when shooting over 50 percent from the field • Hall, Roby and Cory Higgins have started every game (15) • In his last four games, Roby is averaging 20.3 ppg., 4.3 rpg., 3.0 apg., .529 FG percentage (27-of-51) • After 15 games, CU starters are out-scoring the opponent starters by an average of 52.8-to-42.9 margin; the opponent bench is out-scoring CU by an average of 19-to-12 • CU's 16 rebounds at A&M were the fewest since grabbing 16 against Arkansas State, Mar. 21, 1991 (w, 81-75) • In their last five games, CU is shooting .504 from the field and have a plus 1.6 assist-to-turnover ratio.

CU v. NEBRASKA: The Cornhuskers lead the all-time series 72-68 against the Buffaloes, however are only 22-40 in Boulder • Since the inception of the Big 12, NU leads 13-11, however CU holds a 7-4 advantage and have won five of six since 2002 • In the last two seasons, both schools have defended the home court. In last year's conference finale, CU took a 73-69 winner behind Richard Roby's 23 points. NU's Aleks Maric had 22 points and 12 rebounds.

LAST GAME REVIEW: Colorado shot a season-best 62 percent from the field and Cory Higgins matched a personal-best 15 points, however No. 11/10 Texas A&M scored an 86-69 victory over CU in the Big 12 Conference opener for both schools. The Buffaloes lost their 11th straight Big 12 opener and won just once in a league opener since the inception of the Big 12. The Buffs also shot a school conference record 77.3 percent in the second half (17-of-22). The percentage fell just short of the school record of 78.9 set at Texas Tech back on Dec. 28, 1985 (15-of-19). Higgins led three other CU players in double-figures, in addition to his five rebounds. Richard Roby and Xavier Silas each chipped-in 14 points and Marcus Hall added 12 second half points. Hall also had six assists.

ABOUT NEBRASKA: The Cornhuskers will look for their first road win of the season in three road games (two road losses came at Creighton, 74-62 and Western Kentucky in overtime, 69-62). Nebraska (11-3, 0-1) has won all their games at home and lost to No. 3 Kansas, 79-58 on Saturday to open conference play. NU's Aleks Maric has led his team in scoring seven times this season and scored a team-high 19 points against KU.

6-10, 230 Soph.-1L, Vail, Colo. - - - - 2.5

Non-scholarship student-athlete • Played in two games this season (Colo. Christian, Grambling).

recorded his seven double-digit scoring game with a team-best 15 points at Texas A&M, leading the team in scoring for the first time in his career. Higgins also led CU in rebounding and has led the team in assists three times. He also has 12 3-pointers, ranking fifth overall.

EASY POINTS: In recent years, CU was not a very good free throw shooting team. This year, the Buffaloes are shooting .708 (third in the Big 12). With under two minutes to play in the game, Marcus Hall is a perfect 20-of-20 during that stretch, while the entire team is 39-of-46 (.848 percent).

20+: Richard Roby has a team-best five 20-point games of the season (36th career). He also has seven career double-doubles (two this season: New Orleans and Colorado State). Marcus Hall and Xavier Silas have the 20-point efforts.

CAN'T PASS THROUGH THIS HALL: Senior Marcus Hall's eight steals against Tulsa were the most since Jose Winston had eight for the Buffs in a 67-56 win over St. Mary's on Nov. 11, 1999. It's the second-most steals in a game this season in Division I (Lester Hudson, Tenn.-Martin, 10). The school record for steals in a game is 10 by Jay Humphries against Milwaukee-Wisconsin on Jan. 15, 1983. Hall's 114 career steals puts him in 11th place on the all-time list at CU (teammate Richard Roby is fifth on the all-time list with 160 career swipes).

AK-47 MEET MH-1: The stat sheet will tell you Hall didn't even record a double-double against Tulsa, but that's doesn't explain how close he was to notching the first quadruple-double in NCAA Division I history. Hall shot just 2-of-14 against Tulsa, preventing him from reaching 10 points, usually the easiest stat to fill. Other than that, he was just one teammate's missed lay up and two tipped passes out of bounds away from infamy. A lot of what if's, but Hall is turning into the Andre Kirilenko of college basketball with his ability to fill a stat sheet in several categories. His final line: 4 points, 10 rebounds, 9 assists, 8 steals.

IRON MAN: Marcus Hall ended his streak of 161 consecutive minutes played. From Nov. 29-Dec. 22, Hall played 196 out of 200 possible minutes spanning five games (40 each at Air Force, Stanford, at Wyoming, New Orleans, at Colorado State). For the season, Hall averages the most on the team with 36.1 minutes a game.

REDSHIRT YEAR: Sophomore forward Jermy Williams will be redshirted this season and will return next year with three full years of eligibility. He was academically ineligible for the fall semester. Williams averaged 7.7 points and 4.6 rpg. last season with 18 starts.

CU DURING BIG 12 INCEPTION: After 15 games, CU not only has won more games this season than last, but their field goal percentage matches the 2003-04 season at .464, and ties a team-best spanning over the last 12 years.

3-POINT STREAK: Dating back to the 2001-02 season, CU has made a 3-pointer in 178 consecutive games. Last time they failed to make at least one trey was Jan. 16, 2002 against Iowa State in Boulder. The Buffs won 63-61.

FOUR IN A ROW? - Richard Roby will be looking to become only the third player in school history to lead the team in scoring four consecutive seasons. From 2004-05 (16.0 ppg.), 2005-06 (17.0) through last year (17.3), Roby has made it three straight. Here are the others:

Donnie Boyce	1991-95	4-straight
Shawn Vandiver	*1988-91	3-straight
Emmett Lewis	1975-79	4-straight
Cliff Meely	*1968-71	3-straight
Pat Frink	^1964-65, '66-68
	(3 of 4 years)

CU IN THE PRO WORLD: There is a number of CU basketball members with ties to the professional ranks. From head coach Jeff Bzdelik to the five student-athletes.

Coach Bzdelik: Head Coach of the Denver Nuggets (2002-05);

Casey Crawford: father, Steve played with the Boston Red Sox;

Cory Higgins: father, Rod played in the NBA from 1982-95, currently the general manager of the Charlotte Bobcats;

Richard Roby: half-brother of Kenyon Martin (Denver Nuggets);

Xavier Silas: father, James, played professionally for 10 years, eight years with the San Antonio Spurs;

Dwight Thorne II: cousin Acie Law IV played for the Texas A&M Aggies and great uncle, Ernie Banks played with the Cubs.

BUFF BITS: Richard Roby has tallied double-figures 13 of 15 games, Marcus Hall 12 of 15 games • Over the last two seasons, Xavier Silas has made the most 3-pointers with 61, followed by Roby (58), Hall (24), Levi Knutson (16), Cory Higgins (12) and Dwight Thorne (9) • CU won three straight games, twice for the first time since 2005-06 when they won nine and five straight games on two separate occasions • Hall, Higgins, Knutson and Thorne are the only players with more assists than turnovers • Four times this season, CU has a season-best eight 3-pointers • Senior Marcus King-Stockton did not play at Air Force marking the first time he did not play in a game since his freshman season (Mar. 2 at Nebraska), a string of 66 consecutive games.

TEAM BITS: The Buffs played with only seven players against SMU and Tulsa • The Buffs victory at Moby Arena was CU's first in four years and it snapped Colorado State's 24-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents • CU shot a season-high 33 3-pointers at Wyoming, their most since attempting 34 at Nebraska (Feb. 22, 2006) • For the first time since the 1998-99 season, CU won back-to-back road games (at Denver, at Air Force) • The Buffs win at Air Force ended the Falcons' 38-game home winning streak against non-conference foes • DU's 44 points were the fewest allowed by a CU team since a 71-44 win over Tennessee State on Dec. 19, 2003.

FUN 'n SUN: For the next two seasons the Buffaloes will be making multiple trips to the Hawaiian Islands. Next season, CU will be making their first-ever trip to the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. In 2009-10, CU will play in the Maui Invitational. Hosted by Division II college Chaminade, and sponsored by EA Sports, the Buffaloes will be one of eight schools participating in the 26th edition of the tournament. Joining CU two years from now will be Arizona, Gonzaga, Louisville, Maryland, Vanderbilt, and Wisconsin.

20-20: For the first time this season, Richard Roby fired up 20 shots making nine of them against New Orleans. Over his last four years when Roby has 20 attempts, the Buffaloes win (CU is 5-3). Here's a breakdown from his freshmen year to the present.

vs. New Orleans: 9-for-20, 27 pts., L, 65-67

2006-07 (2-1)

ROSTER CHANGES: In the 2007-08 media guide, senior guard Richard Roby and freshman guard Cory Higgins are listed as #23 and #20, respectively. Both of those numbers are retired (#20 Cliff Meely, 1968-71; #22 by Burdette Haldorson, 1952-55). Roby now wears #23 (the # worn his freshman, sophomore, junior seasons); Higgins has selected #11.

NO NAME JERSEYS: For the first time in many years the 2007-08 Buffaloes will not have their last name on the back of their uniforms. It was an idea always discussed in recent years, but never followed through until head coach Jeff Bzdelik decided that the name on the front is more important than the one on the back.

MEDIA GUIDE CORRECTION: On page 59 of the 2007-08 CU media guide it states that Cory Higgins' father, Rod is the general manager of the Golden State Warriors. In fact, he's the GM with the Charlotte Bobcats.

COACHES SAY: For the second season in a row in Big 12 history, the conference coaches have picked the Buffaloes to finish in 12th place. Last season, the coaches correctly predicted CU for 12th. Here's each season since 1996-97, the predicted finish and the actual placing that CU ended up ...

Mark Turgeon, Texas A&M	April 10, 2007

NATIONAL LETTER OF INTENTS: Head coach Jeff Bzdelik announced the signing of five student-athletes for the 2008-09 season during the NCAA early signing period. They are Javonte Clanton, Austin Dufault, Trey Eckloff, Nate Tomlinson and Toby Veal.

"I couldn't be more pleased with the signing of these five young men," Bzdelik said. "All of them will have a major impact on the future of Colorado Basketball. This is a class filled with quality and depth."

Clanton, a 6-foot, 185-pound guard from Reynoldsburg, Ohio will be a junior-transfer from Blinn Community College (Brenham, Texas). Clanton was one of five candidates for the 20th annual Mr. Ohio Basketball as a senior at Reynoldsburg High School where he averaged 23.1 points and 6.0 assists per game as a senior.

"Javonte brings experience, toughness, and a high skill level to blend in well within the Colorado system," Bzdelik said of the former (AP) Ohio Central District Player of the Year.

Dufault, a 6-8, 210-pound, power forward from Killdeer, N.D. averaged 20 points and eight rebounds per game leading Killdeer High School to 19 wins as a junior. He is rated as a three-star athlete at ScoutHoops.com (33rd overall, power forward).

"Son of a coach, Austin brings a high school basketball IQ and a great shooting touch from long range," Bzdelik said. "His skill and 3.9 grade point average are a perfect fit for the University of Colorado."

Eckloff, a 6-9, 220-pound forward is from Englewood, Colo. Eckloff is three-star prospect by ScoutHoops.com as the 22nd rated center. He averaged eight points, six rebounds, and more than a block shot per game as a junior for Cherry Creek High School.

"Trey is a versatile, young big man who can pass, dribble, and shoot from long range," Bzdelik said. "Trey is also a perfect fit for the Colorado system, and he also excels in the classroom with a 3.9 GPA."

Tomlinson, a 6-2, 180-pound point-guard is from Lee Academy (Maine). The native Australian was a member of Australia's 19-and-under national team this past summer, and is three-star prospect by Rivals.com and Scout.com.

"Nate combines a high basketball IQ with great shooting and passing skills," Bzdelik said. "Both of his parents have a rich basketball background in Australia."

Veal is a 6-7, 210-pound power forward from Savannah, Ga., averaged 19 points and 12 rebounds as a junior at Johnson High School. Another three-star prospect by ScoutHoops.com, he is rated 86th of the top-100 Hoop Scoop prospects and the 32nd power forward overall.

"An explosive athletic rebounder and finisher around the rim," Bzdelik said. "Toby has the potential to be one of the premier rebounders and defenders in the Big 12."

With three scholarship seniors on the current roster, CU will have a youthful presence during the 2008-09 season with one senior (Jermyn Jackson-Wilson), two juniors (Xavier Silas, Dwight Thorne II), four sophomores (Casey Crawford, Cory Higgins, Levi Knutson, Caleb Patterson) and one redshirt sophomore (Jeremy Williams).

CU ASSISTANTS: Joining Coach Bzdelik on his staff is a quartet of the finest basketball minds in the game today.

Steve McClain, Assistant Coach

- 21 years of coaching experience
- Won 157 games in nine years as the head coach at the University of Wyoming; recorded the most regular season victories (60) of any Mountain West Conference head coach
- Four NIT appearances, One NCAA Appearance
- Led Hutchinson to the Junior College 1994 National Championship and earned National JC Coach of the Year honors

Derriek Clark, Assistant Coach

- Bring nine years of coaching experience and his third season with Coach Bzdelik
- Helped direct Air Force to a 50-16 record during his two-years in Colorado Springs
- Assisted USAFA to the 2005-06 NCAA Tournament and 2006-07 NIT Final Four
- As an assistant at Metro State, helped the Roadrunners to a pair of NCAA Division National Championships

Charles Baker, Assistant Coach

- Brings 16 years of coaching expertise
- Returns to the Big 12 Conference after spending six years with Kansas State (2000-06)
- At K-State, helped assemble a trio of Top 25 recruiting classes and assisted the re-cruiting of three consensus Top-100 players
- Only head coaching stint, turned Shorter Junior College into a consistent winner leading his teams to four consecutive Arkansas State Junior College championships, and four-straight 20-win seasons

Jody Bailey, Director of Basketball Operations

- Brings 12 years of coaching experience to Boulder and begins his second year with Coach Bzdelik
- Worked for Marty Blake, NBA Regional Scout, 2004-06
- As an assistant at Kentucky Wesleyan College helped Panthers to a 35-2 record and the NCAA Division II National Championships
- Was a volunteer assistant coach under Hall of Fame coach Denny Crum at Louisville

FTs WHEN IT COUNTS: Last season, Richard Roby was the coolest under pressure at the charity stripe making 84 percent of his shots with 2-5 minutes to play, and 75 percent under two minutes remaining. Here's a look at everyone on the 2007-08 team and their history.

HEAD COACH JEFF BZDELIK

1st Season at Colorado/5th College Season Overall

Jeff Bzdelik, a man synonymous with success on both the professional and college levels in the state of Colorado, was named the 17th men's basketball head coach for the University of Colorado men's basketball program, athletic director Mike Bohn announced April 4, 2007.

Bzdelik (buzz-DEL-ik), 55, comes to Colorado from the United States Air Force Academy, where he guided the Falcons to a 50-16 record (a 75.8 winning percentage) in two seasons from 2005-07. During those two seasons he led the Falcons to a 2005-06 NCAA Tournament and a 2006-07 NIT Final Four appearance.

Bzdelik brings 29 years of coaching experience to the Boulder campus from the collegiate to the professional ranks. He returned to the college game in 2005-06 after 15 seasons as both a coach and scout in the NBA, including two-and-a-half seasons as head coach of the Denver Nuggets.

His two-year win total of 50 victories at the Academy was a school-best in any two-year span of the 51-year history of Air Force basketball, while his 26 victories in 2006-07 was also a school high. He's the only coach to have won at least 24 games in back-to-back seasons. Bzdelik guided the Falcons to a 31-1 home record, including a 15-0 mark in 2005-06 and 16-1 in 2006-07.

In 2005-06, Bzdelik led the Falcons to a 24-7 record and the school's fourth appearance ever in the NCAA Tournament. He also led the Falcons to a 12-4 record and second place finish in the Mountain West Conference. Air Force also capped the season leading the nation for the fourth consecutive season in scoring defense.

Prior to returning to the college ranks with the Air Force Academy, Bzdelik was the Denver Nuggets head coach for two-and-a-half seasons (2002-2005). He was named head coach in August of 2002 after spending one year as a scout for the Nuggets. Bzdelik engineered one of the biggest turnarounds in NBA history during his second season in 2003-04, leading the Nuggets to the playoffs for the first time since 1994-95 while posting a 43-39 record. The 26-game improvement over the previous year was the sixth-best in NBA history.

Bzdelik also became the first coach in league history (since the adoption of an 82-game schedule) to guide a team to the playoffs the year after winning less than 20 games. In his first season, Bzdelik earned NBA-wide praise for Denver's competitiveness, work ethic and never-give-up attitude. Despite having the youngest team in franchise history, Bzdelik's team shattered the franchise record for scoring defense by more than five points per game, giving up only 92.4 per outing. In addition, the Nuggets led the league in turnovers forced (17.1 per game) and had six of the top 12 marks for single-season scoring defense.

Surprisingly to many, he was let go by the Nuggets after just 28 games into the 2004-05 season, with the team off to a 13-15 start. But that decision would eventually become Air Force's and now Colorado's gain.

From 1995-2001, Bzdelik was an assistant coach under Pat Riley in Miami, holding the title of Assistant Coach/Director of Scouting during the final two years. With the Heat, he was responsible for the preparation of all game plans, video coordination and statistical data as well as player development.

In 2000, he was recognized by USA Today as one of the NBA's top five assistant coaches. In the 1998 Pro Basketball issue of Sports Illustrated, he was voted as the NBA's best advance scout by league general managers.

Prior to his tenure with the Heat, Bzdelik spent the 1994-95 season as the lead scout for Riley and the New York Knicks. He also served as an assistant coach with the Washington Bullets from 1988-94 and was Wes Unseld's first assistant in 1993-94. In addition, he coached the Bullets summer league team in 1988 and 1994.

The Illinois native began his coaching career in 1978 at Davidson (N.C.) College. In 1980, he was named an assistant coach at Northwestern University where he spent six seasons and was instrumental in the Wildcats' first NIT appearance in school history.

He then accepted his first head coaching position at the University of Maryland-Baltimore County, one he would handle for two years before moving on to the NBA.

During the 1986-87 season at UMBC, his squad was cited by The Sporting News as having "One of College's Biggest Turnarounds," in the school's inaugural season in Division I. After going just 11-44 the previous two seasons as a Divi-

Bzdelik is a 1976 graduate of the University of Illinois-Chicago, where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned four varsity letters in basketball at UIC and was named team MVP as a senior in 1975-76. He still holds the school record for the best free-throw percentage in one season, shooting 88.1 percent (59-for-67) from the line in 1975-76 and still ranks among UIC's all-time leading scorers.

Bzdelik also spent six years in the Army National Guard during the early to mid 1970s.

He was born December 1, 1952 and graduated from Prospect High School in Mount Prospect, Ill. He is married to the former Nina Bernardzik, who was a standout volleyball player at UIC between 1974-76 and is a member of the Flames' Athletic Hall of Fame. They are the parents of two children, Brett (18) and Courtney (16).

Lobos Hold On, Defeat Buffs, 54-57

BOULDER, Colo. (AP/CU Sports Info.) - J.R. Giddens 18-foot jumper in the corner with 33 seconds remaining helped New Mexico to a 54-47 victory over Colorado, Friday evening at the Coors Events Conference Center.

After Marcus Hall converted a driving layup with 1:04 remaining in the game, cutting the Lobos deficit to 50-47, the UNM countered with Gidden's jump shot as the visitors won their first season-opening road game since the 1979-1980 season.

Buffaloes senior guard Richard Roby, who averaged 17.3 points last season, was nearly shut out for the first time in his career. His only point came on a free throw with 1:16 remaining that pulled Colorado to 50-45.

The Buffs trailed by double digits most of the game but began its run on Xavier Silas' 3-pointer with 2:20 remaining that cut the Lobos' lead to 49-43.

Bzdelik, a former coach of the Denver Nuggets and the Air Force Academy, bolted for Boulder after leading the Falcons to a 50-16 mark in two seasons, including a trip to the NIT Final Four last season. He replaced Ricardo Patton, who was let go after 11 years and a 7-20 season.

It was the largest attended regular season opening game in 26 years of the Coors Events Center.

The Lobos, who beat the Buffs 106-65 last season in Albuquerque, jumped out to an early lead and took a 30-19 cushion into the locker room after closing the first half on a 9-2 run that featured a 3-pointer and two free throws by Wills.

Roby, who ranks seventh on Colorado's all-time scoring list, was one of two Buffaloes starters shut out in the first half. The other was Hall, who redshirted last season and underwent minor thumb surgery last month.

Hall scored all of Colorado's nine points over the first 10:18 of the second half, but his teammates went cold and New Mexico maintained a double-digit lead. Hall then committed charges on back-to-back possessions, one of them wiping off a basket for the Buffs.

Freshman Cory Higgins added 10 points, five rebounds and three steals for Colorado.

Buff's Rattle Florida A&M, 83-59

MADISON, Wis. (AP/CU Sports Info.) - Xavier Silas scored 24 points to lead Colorado to an 83-59 victory over Florida A&M, Thursday in the opening game of the America's Youth Classic.

The sophomore guard was 8-of-11 from the floor and scored 18 points in the first half as the Buffaloes (1-1) opened up a huge lead early and were never seriously threatened. Silas also had a career-best five assists.

Silas' jumper with 10:28 left in the first half gave Colorado a 25-7 lead.

The Rattlers (1-1), the defending Mid-Eastern Atlantic Conference tournament champions, could get no closer than eight points the rest of the way.

Jermyl Jackson-Wilson scored 11 points, while Cory Higgins, Richard Roby and Levi Knutson each added 10 for the Buffaloes.

Marcus Hall added nine points, four rebounds and his four assists, bring his career total to 303. He also collected three steals.

Akini Akini paced Florida A&M with 21 points. The 6-foot-10 senior forward scored eight points during a 20-10 Rattler spurt that cut Colorado's lead to 35-27 just before halftime.

The Buffaloes used an 8-0 run early in the second half to stretch their advantage to 50-33, and the lead remained in double digits.

CU's victory tonight is the first win on a neutral court outside the state of Colorado in the regular season since Dec. 29, 2002 against the University of Loyola-Chicago at the Pepsi Classic (Charlotte, N.C.).

It was the first-ever meeting between the two schools, who are both breaking in new coaches: Eugene Harris at Florida A&M, and former Denver Nuggets head coach Jeff Bzdelik at Colorado.

Badgers Strong At Home, Defeat CU

MADISON, Wis. (AP) - Trevon Hughes scored 18 points as Wisconsin beat Colorado 78-52 in the final game of the America's Youth Classic Saturday night.

The Badgers (4-0) limited backdoor cuts by the up-tempo version of the Princeton-style offense being installed by first-year Buffaloes coach Jeff Bzdelik.

They built an early lead on hot 3-point shooting by Hughes, a sophomore guard who led the Badgers in scoring in three of their first four games of the season. Brian Butch scored 17 points for Wisconsin, and Michael Flowers added 12.

Richard Roby scored 20 to lead Colorado (2-2), while Xavier Silas added 13. Roby was also named to the America's Youth Classic all-tournament team, averaging 15.7 points and 4.7 rebounds per game.

Hughes opened the game with an early 3-pointer from beyond NBA range, and was 3-for-6 from outside the arc in the first half. The Badgers built a double-digit lead in the first six minutes of the game and never were in danger of giving it up.

A 3-pointer by Colorado's Marcus Hall (eight points) cut the Wisconsin lead to 27-16 with 7:33 left in the first half. But the Badgers went on a 12-2 run that included two scores from freshman forward Jon Leuer to take a 39-18 lead with 3:24 left in the half.

Wisconsin was ahead 44-27 at halftime, shooting 56 percent from the floor and hitting 6-of-13 from 3-point range.

Overall, Colorado shot 49% from the field, making 20-of-41 field goals, including 6-of-14 from the three-point line.

Wisconsin was careful on offense, turning the ball over only nine times. Colorado had 19 turnovers.

Bufs Prevail At Home, 78-58

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - Marcus Hall scored 21 points and Richard Roby added 15, leading Colorado to a 78-58 victory over Colorado Christian.

Hall was 4-for-6 on 3-pointers. Roby scored 11 of his points in the second half when Colorado (3-2) blew open the game.

The Buffaloes played without Xavier Silas, who missed the game with a lower left leg contusion. Caleb Patterson and Levi Knutson made their first collegiate starts.

Rory Morgan and Brian Stamer led Colorado Christian (1-2), a Division II program in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, with 13 points. The Cougars have back-to-back road losses.

Colorado Christian made a game of it for about 13 minutes and held a 12-10 lead with 12:43 left in the first half after three straight baskets by Morgan. The game was tied at 22 after a free throw by Stamer with 6:55 left.

Colorado took control to close the first half with a 15-5 run. Knutson buried a 3-pointer with 6:21 left and Hall's layup off a steal put the Buffaloes ahead by five. Colorado scored the last six points of the half, four coming from Cory Higgins, to take a 37-27 lead into intermission.

The Buffaloes shot 56.4 percent from the field and made 31 field goals, their highest since making 59.6 percent of their shots at Texas Tech last season (also made 31 FGs).

CCU got as close as seven points twice in the second half, the last coming when Jordan Long's 3-pointer made it 41-34 with 16:10 left. Roby's trey seconds later increased Colorado's lead by 10 points and began a 13-2 run that included a 3-pointer by Hall to put the Buffaloes ahead 54-36.

Hall's fourth 3-pointer of the game with 4:31 remaining gave Colorado its biggest lead, 68-47. Colorado Christian never got closer than 16 points the rest of the game.

Dwight Thorne scored a pair of career-highs with 13 points and five assists.

CU Ends Falcons' Home Win Streak

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) - Jeff Bzdelik weathered the taunts and jeers, Richard Roby scored a season-high 21 points and Colorado escaped with a 60-50 victory over Air Force on Thursday night in the former coach's return to Clune Arena.

Marcus Hall had 18 points and Cory Higgins added seven as the Buffaloes (5-2) snapped the Falcons' 38-game home winning streak against nonconference foes. Hall played a career-high 40 minutes, while freshman guard Cory Higgins recorded a season-best 5 assists.

"I told our players I've never seen a fan come out of the stands to block a shot or grab a rebound," Bzdelik said. "Embrace the atmosphere, be fearless, have poise and you all have to bond together in a greater way."

The Air Force cadets sat close to the Buffaloes bench and heckled Bzdelik all game. The students donned shirts with a picture of Bzdelik on the front and a giant red "x" through the photo. Bzdelik coached two seasons at Air Force before bolting for the Buffaloes last April.

Reserve Andrew Henke scored 18 points, hitting four 3-pointers, for Air Force and Evan Washington finished with 11. Keith Maren chipped in nine points and seven rebounds.

The Falcons (5-3) never led in the game in part to their struggles at the free throw line, where they finished 7-for-17.

Levi Knutson's two 3-pointers late in the game sealed the Buffaloes' third straight win.

Colorado went into the locker room with what the team thought was a 26-19 lead, but Hall's shot at the buzzer was eventually waved off after officials took a second look on the video monitor.

Cardinal Pulls Away in Second Half, 67-43

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) -Anthony Goods and Lawrence Hill each scored 15 points to lift the Stanford Cardinal to a 67-43 win over Colorado on Sunday as part of the Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series.

The Cardinal (8-1) have now won four straight since a 12-point loss at Siena on Nov. 17.

Colorado (5-3) had its three-game winning streak snapped. The team was led in scoring by Marcus Hall with 16. He also had four assists as he logged 40 minutes for the second straight game. Hall's four assists (322 career) put him ahead of Billy Law (years played 1990-1992) for eighth place on CU's assists list.

Cory Higgins tied a season-high with 10 points and Richard Roby, the Buffaloes' leading scorer, was held to just seven points.

Robin Lopez, the Cardinal's second-leading scorer, didn't score until the 18:48 mark of the second half. He finished with four points and six rebounds. Taj Finger provided a spark off the bench, scoring 11 points, and Hill grabbed a season-high 10 boards.

Colorado was down by three points, 25-22, after Levi Knutson hit a 3-pointer in the closing seconds of the first half.

However, the Cardinal went on a 16-4 run to start the second half to break open the contest.

The Buffaloes were coming off a 60-50 win at Air Force on Thursday night in coach Jeff Bzdelik's emotional return to the academy. Bzdelik bolted from Air Force to Colorado last April. The team had also won back-to-back road games for the first time since the 1998-99 season.

Stanford showed it was comfortable playing at the Buffaloes' slowed-down pace. The Cardinal scored 13 points under their season average.

It was the first meeting between the two schools since the Cardinal's 71-58 win on Nov. 30, 1991. Stanford now leads the all-time series 6-3.

Cowboys Hold On, Defeat Buffs

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) - Brad Jones scored 19 points and Ryan Dermody added 18 to help lift Wyoming to a 73-64 victory over Colorado Saturday.

The Buffaloes (5-4) clawed their way back in the game after being down by 20 points at halftime.

A 14-4 run midway through the second period pulled Colorado within 56-49, and Cory Higgins' 3-pointer with 2:09 remaining cut the Cowboys' lead to 61-55.

Another 3-pointer from Marcus Hall made the score 65-62 with 52 seconds on the clock, but Wyoming (4-3) made its final eight free throws to seal the win.

Jones finished 11-of-11 from the free throw line. Brandon Ewing scored 12 points and dished out a game-high six assists for the Cowboys. Travis Nelson added 12 points and Joseph Taylor pulled down a game-high 12 rebounds.

Marcus Hall led Colorado with 15 points. Richard Roby scored 12, while Levi Knutson added 11.

Dermody hit back-to-back 3-pointers as Wyoming jumped out to a 10-3 lead to open the game. Colorado pulled within 16-15 with 11:15 left in the period, but a 24-5 Wyoming run gave the Cowboys a commanding 40-20 halftime advantage.

Privateers Rally, Edge Buffs, 67-65

BOULDER (AP) - Shaun Reynolds hit a driving layup and free throw with 4.3 seconds left, and Bo McCalebb scored 24 points to lead New Orleans to a 67-65 victory over Colorado.

"We knew they'd be relentless in pursuit, they were 4-0 on the road," CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik said. "They are tough young men and that was evident by them going into NC State and came away with a win. We knew it had to be a wire-to-wire job and we didn't do that—we let up. This team (New Orleans) is too tough both physically and mentally to do what we did tonight and expect to win."

McCalebb hit 8-of-11 shots and scored 20 of his points in the second half. T.J. Worley added 11 points and Reynolds finished with six for New Orleans (6-1).

Richard Roby led Colorado (5-5) with a season-high 27 points and 14 rebounds. The Buffaloes had seven-point leads twice in the second half in losing their third straight.

Roby's put back of his own miss and layup put the Buffaloes ahead 47-40 only to have New Orleans get within 47-46 on McCalebb's jumper with 11:15 remaining. Colorado converted six straight free throws, four by Roby to lead 53-49. But the Privateers answered with a 3-pointer and two free throws by Worley to take a 54-53 edge with 6:11 left.

Baskets by James Parlow and McCalebb put New Orleans ahead 61-57 with 2:35 left. That lead disappeared on a layup by Roby and a 3-pointer by Cory Higgins to put Colorado up 62-61.

Higgins' second 3-pointer gave the Buffaloes their last lead, 65-64 with 39 seconds left. New Orleans quickly pushed the ball up the floor to set up Reynolds' layup and free throw.

Colorado turned the ball over before crossing midcourt after calling two timeouts. CU led 32-26 at intermission as both teams combined for 17 turnovers.

Marcus Hall had a 3-pointer and Roby turned a pass from Hall into a layup as Colorado outscored the Privateers 6-0 in the final 2:15 of the half.

Buff Defeat Rams, 73-70

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) - Marcus King-Stockton hit a layup with 31.3 seconds remaining and Richard Roby finished with 18 points and 10 rebounds, helping Colorado to a 73-70 win over Colorado State on Saturday night.

It was the Buffaloes' first win at Moby Arena in four years. Colorado's victory also snapped the Rams' 24-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents.

Colorado, who had been idle the last 10 days, led by as many as 12 points in the first half.

However, the Rams rallied back to take a 70-68 lead with just over a minute left on Willis Gardner's 3-pointer.

Cory Higgins hit one of two free throws, and then King-Stockton followed with a layup to give the Buffaloes (6-5) a 71-70 lead.

After Colorado State missed a shot, Marcus Hall was fouled and hit both free throws with 11.5 seconds left to extend Colorado's lead to three points.

Gardner's off-balance 3-point attempt with the clock winding down fell short, and the Rams lost their fourth straight game.

Colorado State (5-7) was led in scoring by Marcus Walker, who finished with 17 points. Stuart Creason added 14 and Gardner had 13.

Xavier Silas had 16 points for Colorado, including four 3-pointers. Higgins finished with 13 points, and had a season-best seven assists. Roby finished with his seventh career double-double and second straight this season. He finished with 27 points and 14 rebounds, Dec. 12 against New Orleans.

Colorado coach Jeff Bzdelik is now 5-0 lifetime against the Rams (3-0 at Moby Arena), with four of the wins coming as head coach at Air Force.

CU Wins Third Straight, 63-52 Over SMU

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - Senior guard Marcus Hall scored a game-high 16 points leading three other players in double figures propelling the University of Colorado to a 63-52 home victory over SMU on Friday night.

Senior Richard Roby and sophomore Xavier Silas each added 15 points, in addition to 10 points by Levi Knutson helping CU (8-5) to its third straight victory. All of Roby's 15 points came in the first half.

"We are getting more consistent," said CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik. "We had four players in double-digits, which means that we had good shot distribution. I like that we are sharing the basketball. Our assist to turnover ratio is getting better."

The Buffaloes shot 46 percent from the field against a team that had held their last two opponents below 30 percent shooting.

Alex Malone and Bamba Fall had 11 points for SMU (6-7), while Papa Dia added 10 for the Mustangs.

It was the first meeting between the schools in 28 years. They last played on Dec. 8, 1979 in Dallas with the Buffs holding a 4-1 advantage in the series.

Colorado scored the first six points of the second half, including four from Cory Higgins, to extend its lead to 42-28. SMU missed its first four shots and two free throws by Dia before Malone's rebound basket with 14:20 left made it 42-30. A second put back basket by Malone and his 3-pointer got the Mustangs within 45-37.

Silas scored on a layup with 1:44 to go to make it 58-47, but Fall had a three-point play and two free throws to get the Mustangs within 58-52 with 1:08 remaining. Silas and Hall sealed the game by each hitting two free throws.

Roby had 15 points at halftime on 5-for-7 shooting and three 3-pointers as the Buffaloes turned a 19-17 deficit into a 36-28 lead at the break. Colorado shot 52 percent in the first half.

SMU hurt itself with eight turnovers, three in the last four minutes that led to three layups. The Mustangs were 3-for-10 shooting from beyond the arc in the open-

Tulsa Rallies in Second Half, Defeats CU

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - Richard Roby scored a game-high 27 points and Xavier Silas added 13, however the Tulsa Golden Hurricane shot 63 percent in the second half pulling away for a 81-68 victory over Colorado Monday night in the final tuneup for both schools in non-conference play.

"The lack of depth hurt us," said CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik. "It is very difficult to go seven deep. We lost our legs and that affected our ability to score. We were getting good shots, we just weren't making them and we were a step slow on defense in the second half. We aren't about explanations or excuses so give Tulsa credit. They shot the ball well and in the second half they were a step behind them in everything we did."

Tulsa reserve Glenn Andrews scored 15 of his 17 points in the second half and Ben Uzoh added 15. The Golden Hurricane, who have now won six straight, picked up their first road win of the season. The team entered the game having dropped three in a row away from the Donald W. Reynolds Center.

Tulsa (8-4) trailed 52-49 with 14:20 remaining before going on a 16-2 run behind the hot shooting of Andrews, who accounted for 14 points during the spurt by hitting four 3-pointers and knocking down a mid-range jumper.

The Golden Hurricane built up the lead to as many as 15 points after trailing by seven in the first half. The team hit 9 of 10 free throws over the final 5:11 to secure the win.

Brett McDade had 12 points and Rod Earls and Bishop Wheatley each added nine. Uzoh, the Golden Hurricane's leading scorer, was held to just a basket in the first half before finding his shot in the second half. He entered the game averaging 16.1 points.

CU (8-6) was led in scoring by Richard Roby, who finished with 27 points moving up to fifth place on the school's all-time scoring list, surpassing Emmett Lewis (1976-79).

Marcus Hall had 10 rebounds, nine assists and a career-high eight steals, but only four points. Xavier Silas finished with 13 points and Levi Knutson had 10.

Aggies Defeat Buffs in Big 12 Opener

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) - Colorado shot a season-best 62 percent from the field and Cory Higgins matched a personal-best 15 points, however the No. 11 Texas A&M Aggies scored an 86-69 victory over Colorado in the Big 12 Conference season opener for both schools.

Dominique Kirk scored 15 points and DeAndre Jordan added 14 points and nine rebounds to lead the 11th-ranked Aggies to a win, their eighth straight win by at least 15 points.

The Buffaloes lost their 11th straight Big 12 opener and fell to 8-7 and 0-1 in the conference. They have won just once in a league opener since the inception of the Big 12.

CU shot a season-best 61.7 percent from the field along with a season-low 10 turnovers. The Buffaloes also shot a conference school record 77.3 percent in the second half (17-of-22). The percentage fell just short of the school record of 78.9 set at Texas Tech back on Dec. 28, 1985 (15-of-19).

Higgins led three other CU players in double-figures, in addition to his five rebounds. Richard Roby and Xavier Silas each chipped-in 14 points and Marcus Hall added 12 second half points. Hall also had six assists.

The Aggies (15-1, 1-0) led by 15 points at halftime and built their lead to 61-42 after a layup by Bryan Davis about eight minutes into the second half.

A dunk by Marcus King-Stockton capped a 12-6 run for Colorado and cut A&M's lead to 67-54. Kirk answered the run with a jump shot and a 3-pointer to put the game out of reach.

CU had trouble defending A&M's balanced scoring attack, which featured six players who scored in double figures. Along with Jordan and Kirk, Davis, Josh Carter, Joseph Jones and Donald Sloan all scored at least 10 points.

The Aggies went on an 10-2 run in the first half to take a 13-5 lead. The Buffaloes cut that lead to 16-13 before the Aggies outscored them 20-8 over the next 7 minutes. Texas A&M led 42-27 at halftime on 55.6 shooting from the field with the help of eight 3-pointers.
