● Gauchos Claim Eighth-Straight NCAA Tournament Berth

For the eighth consecutive season and tenth time in program history, UC Santa Barbara will participate in the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship. This year, the Big West Conference champion Gauchos were dealt a No. 11 seed in the East Region by the NCAA Selection Committee and will open tourney play on Saturday March 20 against 6th-seeded Colorado at home in the Thunderdome. The UCSB-Colorado showdown is scheduled to begin 30 minutes after another First Round contest pitting No. 3 Houston against 14th-seeded UW-Green Bay at 6:00 p.m. PST. The winners of each first round contest will meet on Monday, March 22 with a spot in the NCAA Sweet 16 at stake. The NCAA and ESPN will announce the Second Round start time after the tournament field is pared down to 32 teams.

● Gauchos on the Air

UCSB's NCAA Tournament first-round match-up against Colorado will be broadcast live on KTLK 1340 AM with Brock Bowling handling the play-by-play and Kristen Koch serving as color commentator. KCSB 91.9 FM will also broadcast the game with Oskar Garcia and John Burke calling the action. All of Santa Barbara's games in 2003-04 can also be heard live via the internet by pointing your browser to www.ucsbgauchos.com and purchasing the "College Sports Pass". In addition, ESPN and ESPN2, channels 34 and 35 in Santa Barbara respectively, will televise all 63 games of the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament live. Dave Srader (play-by-play) and Krista Blunk (color commentary) will provide the call for Sunday's first round contests from the Thunderdome on ESPN2. Meanwhile, Monday's Second Round action will air on either ESPN or ESPN2, with a decision being made by Sunday, March 21.

● Scouting the Buffaloes, Lady Cougars and Phoenix

Sixth-seeded Colorado travels to Santa Barbara having earned an at-large berth after completing the regular season with a record of 22-7. Most recently, the 16-ranked Buffaloes lost in the first round of the Big 12 Tournament to Oklahoma 63-56 on March 10. CU, led by 6-foot-5 senior center Tera Bjorklund, is 2-1 all-time against Santa Barbara, including an NCAA Second Round victory over the Gauchos in 1993. UCSB won the last meeting between the two schools 83-77 on Dec. 30, 1997 in Boulder, Colo. Houston, seeded third in the East Region, enters the tournament on the heels of its first-ever Conference USA Title. The Lady Cougars defeated TCU 86-75 in the conference championship on March 7 game to earn their first NCAA Tournament berth in 12 years. Coincidentally, UH's last tourney game was played in Santa Barbara, where it lost an 80-69 decision to the Gauchos on March 18, 1992 in the only previous meeting between the two schools. Houston is currently 27-3 overall - the best mark in school history - and is ranked 10th in the nation under ESPN National Coach of the Year Joe Curl. The Lady Cougars are led by senior guard Chandi Jones, Conference USA's Player of the Year. No. 14 seed UW-Green Bay comes to Santa Barbara after winning the Horizon League Tournament. The Phoenix finished the regular season with an overall record of 23-7, despite going more than half the season with just eight healthy players. UWGB will make its third NCAA Tournament appearance in a row, and sixth in the past seven years. UCSB and UW-Green Bay have never met, however the Phoenix were playing at the same sub-regional site when the Gauchos eared first-round victories in both 1997 and 2002.

● UCSB Cruises To Eighth Straight Conference Tournament Victory

After finishing Big West play with a league mark of 17-1, UC Santa Barbara cruised through the Big West Tournament in Anaheim, Calif., and claimed its 22nd and 23rd straight conference tournament wins dating back to 1997. UCSB defeated Long Beach State 74-56 in the semifinals and then trounced Idaho 68-51 to earn its eighth berth in the NCAA Tournament in as many years. The Gauchos never trailed in either contest and out-rebounded LBSU and Idaho by a total of 29 boards while limiting their opponents to a combined 36.3 % shooting from the floor. Offensively, UCSB shot a combined 55.9% and recorded two of the 12 performances in which they made over half their attempts. UC Santa Barbara's dominance was rewarded with senior center Lindsay Taylor claiming her third Big West Tournament MVP award with junior Kristen Mann joining her on the All-Tournament Team. Only one other player in league history has been the recipient of three straight Big West Tournament awards, further establishing Taylor as one of the Big West's all-time greats.

● Six Gauchos Earn Postseason Honors from the Big West

Highlighted by first-team selections for Kristen Mann and Lindsay Taylor, six Gauchos earned postseason honors from the Big West Conference on Monday, March 8. Taylor becomes just the third player in UCSB history to earn All-Big West acclaim all four years of her collegiate career, joining Stacy Clinesmith and Kristi Rohr (1996-2000) in that elite group. Meanwhile Mann, like Taylor, was a first team choice for the second consecutive season. A trio of Gauchos - Mia Fisher, April McDivitt and Brandy Richardson - each garnered honorable mention All-Big West accolades. This is the third year in a row Fisher has been an honorable mention recipient, while Richardson's award is her second-straight. Finally, Jenna Green became the 15th player in UCSB history to earn a spot on the Big West All-Freshman Team. Despite the multitude of honors, this is the first season since 1994-95 that Santa Barbara did not capture at least one of the three major conference awards. Second-place Idaho made a clean sweep, with Emily Faurholt earning Player of the Year honors, Leilani Mitchell being named Freshman of the Year and Mike Divilbiss garnering Coach of the Year recognition. The only other time one school took home all three accolades was 1998, when UCSB had that distinction.

● UCSB's NCAA Tournament History

The Gauchos own a 5-9 overall record in nine previous NCAA Tournament appearances, reaching the second round five times including each of the past two years. Seeded 10th in 2003, UCSB defeated No. 10 Xavier 71-62 before losing a close 72-68 decision at third-seeded Texas Tech. UCSB is also serving as a tourney host for the fourth time, previously welcoming the Big Dance to Santa Barbara in 1992, 1993 and 2000.

● Poll Position

After being ranked in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Top-25 polls for 22 consecutive weeks dating back to Dec. 23, 2002, the Gauchos fell out of each on Dec. 29, 2003. Since then UCSB has sporadically appeared in the "Others Receiving Votes" section of the both polls, including 18 total points this week from the AP. For those who just can't get enough rankings, back in early November the Big West Conference coaches and media members were nearly unanimous and correct in their prediction that UCSB would defend its regular season league title in 2003-04.

● Who are We?

Please use "UC Santa Barbara" as a first reference to the school; no hyphens, commas, nor the words "California" or "Cal" are needed. Afterwards, "UCSB", "Gauchos" and "Santa Barbara" are all acceptable references to our campus by the sea.

● Doozy of a Schedule

In 2003-04 the UCSB pieced together arguably the most ambitious home schedule in school history. The Gauchos hosted two teams - Arizona and Ohio State - that have joined them in this NCAA Tournament, and played at Texas Tech in the Preseason WNIT. Add in a demanding three-game road trip to 2004 postseason participants Florida, Cincinnati and Purdue, and its no surprise that the WBCA/Summerville RPI ranked Santa Barbara's non-conference strength of schedule seventh-toughest nationally on Jan. 1, just prior to the start of Big West play.

● Nichols to Redshirt in 2003-04

Junior forward Autumn Nichols will petition the NCAA for a medical redshirt due to a torn left medial collateral ligament suffered during the Gauchos' third game this season at Texas Tech on Nov. 19. If granted, the transfer from Cowley County (Kan.) Community College will have two full years of eligibility at UCSB beginning in 2004-05. Nichols, a native of Bakersfield, Calif., poured in 10 points and grabbed six rebounds in the Gauchos' season opener vs. San Diego.

● Perkins Leaves the Gauchos

On Monday, Jan. 5 head coach Mark French announced that junior swing player Roshawn Perkins had left the Gauchos due to chronic back pain. The Eagle Rock, Calif., native appeared in 19 games over the past two seasons after previously competing as a sprinter on UCSB's track and field team.

● Francophile

UC Santa Barbara alumnus Mark French is in his 17th season as head coach of the Gauchos and the 25th year of his highly successful career. He currently owns a UCSB record of 357-153 (.700) and an overall mark of 455-268 (.629). Since the 1991-92 campaign, a period spanning 12 years, French's Gauchos have won ten Big West Conference Tournament championships and advanced to ten NCAA Tournaments - including four second rounds - in addition to one Postseason National Invitation Tournament. French is coming off his most decorated season ever in 2002-03, when he was the WBCA District 8 Coach of the Year, a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award, and also earned Big West Coach of the Year honors for the seventh time in his career. He coached his 500th game on the Gaucho sidelines on Feb. 5, 2004, an 86-50 victory over Idaho.

● High-Five

The Gauchos' .820 winning percentage since the start of the 1997-98 campaign places them in some rather elite company. Only Connecticut, Tennessee, Louisiana Tech and Duke have won a higher percentage of their games over the past six-plus seasons than UCSB, which owns a 182-40 record during that span.

● Home is Where the Wins Are

While Santa Barbara's 27-game home winning streak - at the time second-longest in the nation - was snapped on Dec. 28 by Ohio State, the squad has still emerged victorious in 39 of its last 41 contests in the Thunderdome dating back to the 2000-01 season. In 2002-03 UCSB posted an undefeated home record for the first time in school history, going 13-0 in the friendly confines of the 'Dome. Since their run of nine straight Big West regular season titles began in 1995-96, the Gauchos can boast a 107-10 (91.5%) mark in Santa Barbara, with only one of those losses occurring during conference play.

● D-Up

After preventing 112 straight opponents from shooting 50% from the floor - a streak that dated back to 2000 - two teams (Ohio State and Idaho) have done so against the Gauchos this season. Despite the end of that dominating run, defense remains a UCSB trademark as the Gauchos have held 24 of their 31 foes in 2003-04 below 40% shooting (16 of those under 35%). Santa Barbara has made a habit out of taking opponents out of the game early, limiting eight different teams to fewer than 20 first-half points, most recently Cal State Fullerton on March 1.

● Free-Fallin'

While UCSB's free-throw shooting has been inconsistent this season - an 18-for-36 three-game stretch followed by 39-for-50 in the next trio of contests being testament to that - the Gauchos were nearly flawless from the charity stripe during a pair of league victories. Santa Barbara's 18-of-19 (94.7%) effort at Utah State on Jan. 8 ranks as the second-most efficient single-game performance in school history, while its 15-of-16 (93.8%) showing in the regular season finale at Long Beach State tied for fourth-best all-time.

● Board Games

After being out-rebunded by six of their first 12 opponents this season, the Gauchos have re-committed to becoming the beasts on the glass that they were in 2002-03 when they ranked 17th nationally in rebounding margin. UCSB lost the battle of the boards just once over the final 19 regular season contests, and posted a double-digit rebounding cushion in 12 of the 14 most recent games entering the NCAA tourney.

● On Point

Santa Barbara can already claim a pair of one-point victories this season - 71-70 in overtime at Cincinnati on Dec. 16 and 72-71 at Cal State Northridge on Jan. 22. The last time UCSB won twice by the slimmest of margins in the same season was way back in 1989-90.

● Waiting in the Wings

On Nov. 13, 2003 UCSB announced the signing of four high school seniors to National Letters of Intent. Sha'Rae Gibbons (Sacramento, Calif.), Ana Onaindia (Bakersfield, Calif.), Katherine Suderman (San Luis Obispo, Calif.) and Brittanie Taylor-James (Naperville, Ill.) will all join the Gauchos as true freshmen for the 2004-05 season. Gibbons, a 5'7" guard from Valley High School, earned this season's prestigious Wendy's High School Heisman Award as the most outstanding female student-athlete in the state of California, recognizing her excellence in academics, athletics and community service. The reigning Kern County Player of the Year, Onaindia (5'5", G) led North High School to the 2003 CIF Central Section title and is averaging 29 points per game as the Stars await this year's state playoffs. Another All-CIF honoree is the 6'4" Suderman, who plays center for Mission College Prep and is ranked 54th nationally among high school seniors according to All-Star Girl's Report. UCSB's first-ever signee from Illinois, Taylor-James averaged 19.0 points per contest as she recently led Nequa Valley High School to the sectional championship game. The 6'0" forward earned Fourth Team All-State honors in 2002-03.
