2004 CU FOOTBALL: GAME 3—NORTH TEXAS

Saturday, September 18 in Boulder (5:05 p.m. MDT; Big 12 PPV)

RELEASE NUMBER 3 (September 13, 2004)

QUICKLY The Colorado Buffaloes (2-0, 0-0 Big 12), with two cardiac finishes on its 2004 resume, return home to face the North Texas Mean Green (0-2, 0-0 Sun Belt) this Saturday, September 18, in a 5:05 p.m. kickoff at Folsom Field... The game will be televised by Big 12 Special Order Sports via pay-per-view, with Drew Goodman (play-by-play), David Diaz-Infante (commentary) and Dave Benz (sidelines) calling the action... Comcast (Denver/Boulder) and Adelphia (Colorado Springs) are on board to carry the game, with satellite dish providers to announce their plans 48 hours prior to the game... CU's first two games have come down to goal-line stands in the final seconds; while true that the Buffs might be two plays away from being 0-2, at the same time, CU has not trailed yet this year in leading for 76:44 out of a possible 120 minutes (64%)... After losing four straight season openers under Gary Barnett, the Buffs are now 2-0 for the second straight year (the 52nd time in school history)... CU has scored 20 or more points in 10 straight games, the most since a 10-game span over 1997-98... CU's website, www.CUBuffs.com features game day updates and live stats for all games, home and road. DEPTH CHART ON PAGE 32

CU-NORTH TEXAS TO FEATURE FIREWORKS Following this Saturday's CU-North Texas football game (5:05 p.m. kickoff), the first-ever fireworks display will take place at Folsom, capping the evening and the special promotion for both the CU campus and city of Boulder communities. Tickets at a special discounted rate of $25 are on sale at all King Soopers stores and TicketsWest outlets.

IN-THE-POLLS CU was unranked in both the Associated Press (media) and USA Today/ESPN (coaches) polls of Sunday, Sept. 12, but received votes in each (coming in at 34th in the AP and 37th in the coaches). The Buffs were last ranked on Sept. 7 of last year, having climbed to No. 17 in both after opening 2-0, and prior to the 47-26 loss to Washington State. Dating back to the preseason 1989 polls, CU has been ranked in 182 of the last 250 polls (AP; 73%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (79), trailing Florida (85), Florida State (85) and Michigan (83).

STAT OF THE WEEK The defense was the epitome of the old saying, "bend but don't break" in the 20-12 win against Washington State. Though the Cougars amassed 402 yards of offense, it took 92 plays to accumulate it (or just 4.4 per play); in fact, it was the fourth fewest yards ever by a CU opponent that ran 90 or more plays in a game. But dissecting the numbers shows that WSU gained 234 of the yards on five pass plays, meaning the other 87 netted just 168 yards, or just 1.93 per attempt. WSU started three drives in CU territory, all ending in no points (a botched field goal try, a fumble and a missed field goal), and the Cougars scored just three points in as many trips inside-the-CU 20. Once the Cougars were operating in CU territory, yards were tough to come by: WSU ran 40 plays for 57 total yards on the Buff side of the 50 (with 47 coming on the last drive, as the first 34 plays had netted just 10 yards). Colorado forced WSU into 23 third down plays, 17 of which where WSU needed six or more yards to convert (the 23 were the most by an opponent since Nebraska had 23 in 1992).

OBSCURER NOTE OF THE WEEK Against Washington State, TB Bobby Purify had a 65-yard touchdown run called back because of a holding penalty well away from the play; in 2001, he had a 78-yard touchdown run wiped out because of a similar situation. Those two plays would have given him 143 additional rushing yards for his career; what difference would that make? He's currently 10th all-time at CU with 2,241 yards; another 143 would already have him holding down No. 7.

since Colorado opened a season by starting the same 11 players on both offense and defense, as it last had occurred in 1993 prior to this season. Injuries may end the short-lived streak at two, but if not, the last time CU started a season with the same starting lineup on both offense and defense the first three games was back in 1989; in fact, the lineup went unaltered for the first games with the initial 22 starters starting 234 of 242 games that season, the most injury-free in CU history.

INJURY UPDATE

The Buffs suffered a few significant injuries in the Washington State game, some due to the artificial surfacing. The injury list as of September 14 and status for North Texas:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status: North Texas
FS	J.J. Billingsley	knee (arthroscopic surgery)	Played about two-thirds of the CSU game as it was sore much of the week	OUT
ILB	Walter Boye-Doe	ankle (sprain)	missed the CSU and WSU games	PROBABLE
DT	Brandon Dabdoub	ankle (sprain)	suffered in WSU game, but played with it	PROBABLE
OLB	Brian Iwuh	ankle (high sprain)	suffered during the WSU game, played only 11 snaps	QUESTIONABLE
TE	Jesse Wallace	knee (sprain)	suffered early against WSU, played just nine snaps	DOUBTFUL

OUT FOR THE SEASON: TB Brandon Caesar (knee), Nick Clement (torn pec muscle), OLB Chad Cusworth (torn ACL), PK J.T. Eberly (torn Achilles), CB Vance Washington (shoulder surgery).

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases only the name, body part, and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY or PROBABLE. Injuries will be updated in-game, post-game, the Sunday or Monday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week. Coach Gary Barnett will discuss injuries one time (Mondays after practice), as will the players.

SCHOLLY ADDS

Five walk-ons now have walk-on status no more, as OL Terrance Barreau, PK J.T. Eberly and SN Greg Pace were placed on full scholarship before or during fall camp, and are now on full scholarship. Joining them on September 1 were ILB Kyle Griffith and FS Tom Hubbard. Eberly suffered a torn Achilles tendon the first day of camp, had surgery on August 19 and is out for the year; a fifth-year senior, he will have to petition the NCAA for a sixth-year if he's so interested.

CAPTAINS

The team selected its captains after the last camp scrimmage on August 27, with the four for the 2004 season being seniors DT Matt McChesney, TB Bobby Purify and OT Sam Wilder and junior QB Joel Klatt. Purify was originally selected as a captain last year, but his year was cut short with a season-ending injury against Washington State the third game of the season; he makes a little history, as he becomes only the fourth player to serve as a Colorado team captain in multiple seasons. The last was linebacker Barry Remington, who was selected by his teammates in both 1985 and 1986; the other two were in the 1890s, as Pat Carney was team captain for the 1891, 1892 and 1893 seasons and Harry Gamble the choice in 1894 and 1896. Klatt is technically the first junior since 2002, when QB Craig Ochs was selected, but he is not officially recognized since he quit the team two games into the season; the last juniors to serve the full season were Ben Kelly in 1999 and Remington in '85. Wilder makes it six straight seasons that an offensive lineman has been selected.

CU vs. NORTH TEXAS It's the first meeting of the schools in football, as the two, just over 650 miles apart, haven't faced off head-to-head that often; the last meeting between the two came in men's basketball, with CU winning 87-71 in Boulder on Dec. 23, 2002. CU coach Gary Barnett is 0-0 against North Texas, while Darrell Dickey is 0-0 against Colorado.

Series Did You Know? — The two schools are tentatively set to play again in Boulder on September 26, 2009.

Conference Comparison — The Buffs are 13-6-1 all-time against current members of the Sun Belt Conference, having lined up across from only Utah State (11-6-1) and Louisiana-Lafayette (2-0). North Texas is 7-51 all-time against the current members of the Big 12 (3-15 since the league was formed in 1996), as the Mean Green have faced all schools from the league with the exception of Colorado and Iowa State. UNT is 4-4 against Texas Tech, 1-2 versus Kansas State, and 1-10 against both Baylor and Oklahoma State to account for the seven wins; it is 0-7 against both UT and A&M, 0-6 versus Oklahoma, 0-3 against Kansas and 0-1 with both Missouri and Nebraska.

CU-NORTH TEXAS BY THE NUMBERS Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia, or lack thereof, in the CU-North Texas series:

- 1 The number of common opponents Colorado and North Texas share in 2004 (Texas);
- 2 The number of common opponents Colorado and North Texas shared in 2003 (Baylor, Oklahoma);
- 34 The number of common opponents Colorado and North Texas share all-time;
- 70-118-4 North Texas' record against those 34 schools CU has also played;
- 321-240-17 Colorado's record against those 34 schools UNT has also played;
- 160 The number of passing yards UNT head coach Darrell Dickey threw for as Kansas State's quarterback in a 24-21 loss at CU in 1981;
- 651 The mileage between Boulder and Denton;

SERIES TRENDS Since this is the first meeting, no series trends obviously exist.

THE SET-UP Having a bye week in the month of September is still a relatively recent concept in college football; while this mark the fifth straight season CU will have an off week in the month, they were virtually unheard of until late last century. That is due likely to two reasons: first, the schedule didn't get going early in September until the late 1970s, and coaches don't like to have a bye right off the bat after playing just one or two games. CU's first September bye came in 1989, and in games preceding idle Saturdays in the month, the Buffs own a 4-4 record. The most notable game was the first, as CU defeated Illinois 38-7 prior to an open week in 1989; quarterback Sal Aunese, stricken with stomach cancer, died the following Saturday night (Sept. 23) after seeing his team win in person for the last time the previous week. CU has won two of the last three times heading into a September Saturday "siesta," losing last year at Florida State after defeating UCLA in 2002 and Kansas in 2001.

UNT LAST WEEK The Mean Green became Florida Atlantic and coach Howard Schnellenberger's second victim in 2004, as one week after FAU won at Hawai'i, it went into Denton and came out with a 20-13 win. Trailing 13-3 to open the fourth quarter, UNT rallied to tie the score with just 1:25 left to play only to see FAU counter with a quick 5-play, 50-yard drive to score the winning TD with 29 seconds remaining. That drive was set up by a 50-yard kickoff return following the tying score, which snapped an eight-game home winning streak for the Mean Green. FAU outgained UNT by 457-281, including edges of 280-165 on the ground and 177-166 through the air. North Texas did not turn the ball over, but star running back Patrick Cobbs was held to 57 yards on 20 carries, one week after Texas held him in check (8 rushes, -1 yard).

IN BUFF HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 18 The Buffaloes own a 6-1-1 record in games played in their history on September 18. That includes a 3-0 mark at Folsom Field, where on the date, the Buffs have outscored the opponent 168-30: in 1954, the Buffs beat Drake, 61-0; in 1971, CU defeated Wyoming, 56-13; and in 1999, Kansas fell victim by 51-17. Other games of note on the date include a 21-7 win at Washington in 1976; a 12-0 win over Washington State in Spokane in 1982, Bill McCartney's first win as head coach of the Buffaloes; and a controversial 41-37 loss at Stanford in 1993, when Dwayne Davis appeared to knock the ball out of the hands of Cardinal tight end Tony Cline as soon as it arrived but he was credited with the catch with just :08 to play. In 1965, Colorado played its last 0-0 tie in its history at Wisconsin, and the '71 game is notable as it marked the first game at Folsom Field with a relatively new product called "Astro-Turf." What was especially significant is that it snowed that morning (over a foot of a classic heavy, wet September snow) and had the field been natural grass, it might have been deemed unplayable.

'04 ANNIVERSARIES The 2004 season marks several anniversaries. Folsom Field celebrates its 80th anniversary season, as it was christened on October 11, 1924 when Colorado defeated Regis, 39-0. It's the 10th anniversary of Colorado's first and only Heisman Trophy, as TB Rashaan Salaam rushed his way to the award by leading the nation in rushing (2,055 yards) and scoring (144 points); CB Chris Hudson won the Thorpe Award that season, QB Kordell Stewart set the Big Eight total offense record, and Bill McCartney resigned after 13 seasons as head coach. One hundred years ago, on October 8, 1904, CU defeated Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0, deemed the school's biggest win at the time as it was one of the first played against a team from outside the state's borders. 2004 also will mark 30 years since CU and Air Force met on the football field (CU won 28-27 at the USAFA), and 70 years since CU's first-ever national statistical champion, as Kayo Lam led the nation in rushing in 1934 with 906 yards. On a sadder note, it will also mark the 20th anniversary of the injury to TE Ed Reinhardt, as a blood clot on his brain burst late in a September 15 game at Oregon. He had surgery that afternoon, was in a coma for a month and endured years of rehabilitation; he lives in Littleton with his parents.

GOAL LINE STANDS AT THE GUN

The Buff defense holding off CSU at the goal line as time expired is fairly rare but not unique in CU history. In 1985, Oregon faced a fourth-and-goal at the CU3 with nine seconds left, but the threat ended when Mickey Pruitt sacked Duck QB Chris Miller as time expired, preserving a 21-17 Colorado win. Throw in the Washington State goal-line defense, and it marks the first time in known CU history that back-to-back games ended in this fashion.

CU-CSU SETS FSN ROCKY RECORD

The CU-Colorado State game on September 4, televised to most of the nation via Fox Sports Net, set an all-time record as the highest rated college sporting event for FSN Rocky Mountain. The game drew an 11.3 rating, translating to more than 158,200 homes in the Denver area, easily topping the previous two bests (8.9, CSU-UCLA in 2002 and 8.4, CU-CSU in 1999). It was also easily the highest rated program on the air in Denver metro between 6 p.m. and Midnight.

THE SCHEDULE

Colorado again played one of the nation's toughest schedules in 2003, as according to the NCAA formula, the Buffs' slate ranked 13th among the 117 Division I-A schools. It's shaping up to be no different in 2004, as CU's schedule has been rated the nation's second-toughest going into the season by The Sporting News.

THIS-N-THAT

- Colorado did not play in a bowl game in 2003, only the fourth time over the last 19 seasons that the Buffs did not go bowling; in fact since 1985, CU is tied for eighth nationally in the most appearances with 15, trailing only Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska (all with 19), Tennessee (18), Miami, Fla. (17) and Ohio State and Penn State (16). Washington is tied with the Buffs at 15.
- Since 1978, CU is one of just nine Division I-A schools to play all of its games in its division (no I-AA or II opponents; '78 is when the current setup came into vogue); joining CU are California, Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, USC, UCLA and Washington.
- Colorado played 10 bowl teams in 2003, tied for the most in the nation (with Illinois and Texas A&M). Of the 11 teams on its 2004 schedule, nine participated in bowl contests last year: all three of CU's non-Big 12 foes were in the postseason (CSU, Washington State and North Texas), as are six league foes on the slate: Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma State and Texas.
- The loss to Nebraska to end 2003 was only the second to a fellow Big 12 North Division team in three seasons, as the Buffs are 13-2 since the start of the 2001 league season against North Division teams (the other loss coming at Kansas State, also in 2003).
- CU played five ranked teams in 2003, marking the fourth straight year (and ninth in the last 11) that it played at least that many.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts two games into the 2004 season (note Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history):

- ⇒ QB ERIK GREENBERG is for 31st in passing yards (737), and is tied for 24th in touchdown passes (6).
- ⇒ FS J.J. BILLINGSLEY is 84th in total tackles (164), and is tied for 43rd in solo tackles (118).
- ⇒ PK MASON CROSBY is 14th in field goals made (11) and is tied for 67th in scoring (69).

ROAD-SWEET-ROAD

The Buffs have enjoyed more a lot of success on the road over the last 16-plus seasons. CU has been victorious 54 of the last 80 times in enemy stadiums and is 62-31-1 dating back to the 1985 season (a 66.5 winning clip). During this time frame, CU won a school record 10 straight road games (between 1994 and 1996), before the streak ended in the '96 regular season finale at Nebraska, 17-12 (it bested the old mark of eight straight set between 1922 and 1924). Over the last 16 seasons, Colorado is 53-25-1 away from home (a 67.7 winning percentage), which stands eighth nationally and second among Big 12 Conference teams in this span. The Buffaloes own a 42-18-1 mark in their last 61 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—five losses at Nebraska, two at Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor, Oklahoma State, Missouri and Texas; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 17-15 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (1-3 in 2003). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games, despite some being anything but (i.e., Colorado vs. Texas at Irving for the '01 Big 12 title.)

EIGHTH BEST SINCE '89

Colorado has the nation's eighth best record over the last 15-plus seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 127-53-4 record. Over the last 19-plus years, Colorado's 155-72-4 mark is 14th nationally, from the time then-coach Bill McCartney reversed CU's fortunes by switching to the wishbone on offense (CU had the 10th best record in the 1990s, 87-29-4, .742, for teams that were Division I-A the entire decade). The best Division I-A records from the start of the 1989 season through games of Sept. 11:

ROSTER CHANGES

There are a few changes from the final spring roster. Six players left the program with the intent of transferring (for assorted reasons): TB Brian Calhoun, DE Chadd Evans, DE Marques Harris, CB Sammy Joseph, OL Del Scales and OL Fredrick Staugh. Three walk-ons also did not return: S Justin Fallhowe, WR Jarrad Jackson and FB James Owens.

Added to the list of incoming recruits was CB Terry Wilson (Chino, Calif.); he was added in the late spring and was recruited by Shawn Simms (his bio does appear in the 2004 media guide). Two others did not qualify academically, S Reggie Foster (Long Beach, Calif.) and DL Chris Todd (Tulsa, Okla.). A third recruit, DE Josh Hunt (Jackson, Mich.) reported but returned home after 10 days in camp for family reasons; he was initially set to return in the spring, but was homesick and decided to transfer to Eastern Michigan.

Four transfers have been added to the team: DB Charlie Aweida (6-0, 180) did not play as a true freshman last year Adams State and played his prep ball at Boulder Fairview; WR Chase McBride, a Broomfield High product who redshirted last fall at Wyoming; ATH Lenny Miles, who prepped at Adams City High School and was on the basketball team as a true freshman at New Mexico last year; and OL Carl Zoellner attended Wisconsin-Milwaukee last year and did not participate in athletics, but played high school ball in Georgetown, Texas with CU sophomore PK Mason Crosby. Zoellner could play this season as UWGB does not sponsor football.

POSITION CHANGES

Only one major change, as redshirt frosh Stephone Robinson moved from wide receiver to cornerback to help create some depth at the position. Junior John Guydon returned to defense, sort of, from the offensive line, where he was listed both at split guard (second) and center (third) following spring practice. However, the coaches plan on practicing as well as utilizing him both ways. He had moved to offense for the spring, as he practiced exclusively at defensive tackle last fall. Since defensive depth in the middle was in bad need of some bolstering, switching Guydon back (or sharing him) made sense since he had previous career game experience at the position.

SECOND CHANCE AT BEING A SENIOR

Two players were injured as fourth-year seniors in 2003 and received medical hardships for the season and return with a second chance at being seniors in 2004. TB Bobby Purify (high ankle sprain) and TE Quinn Sypniewski (turf toe) played less than the NCAA maximum for appealing for a medical redshirt; a third player, DE Marques Harris, would also have been back but will transfer to a yet-to-be decided Division I-AA school. Purify and Sypniewski are believed to be the second and third players in CU history (and definitely since 1978) to be injured as fourth-year seniors and received hardships; in 2001, ILB Jashon Sykes received a special ruling and would have had a second chance at a senior season in 2002 had he not opted for the NFL draft; also in 2001, WR John Minardi played in one game too many and was denied. Three others redshirted their fourth-year senior seasons: ILB Don DeLuzio (suffered torn knee ligaments in August camp in 1987), ILB Alan Chrite (suspension, 1983) and WB Melvin Johnson (academics, 1976).

➤ DID YOU KNOW: Only three players in modern CU history have posted statistics in five different seasons? ILB Barry Remington (1982-86), WR/KR Jo Jo Collins (1984-88) and TB Marlon Barnes (1994-98) all played as true freshmen and suffered in-season ending injuries either their sophomore or junior seasons. Both Purify and Sypniewski can join this select group this fall.

BLOOM DONE

An independent appeals committee upheld an NCAA staff ruling of August 16 that denied a request for reinstatement for CU junior-to-be Jeremy Bloom, thus ending his collegiate football career. A two-time letterman at wide receiver and kick returner, Bloom also is a member of the U.S. Olympic ski team and competes in freestyle moguls. Bloom, the reigning World Cup moguls champion started accepting endorsement money last winter to be able to fund his skiing career, as there are no salaries in the sport, but that action is an NCAA violation and the organization would not make an exception for him. Bloom practiced the first five days with the team (Aug. 9-13), and then joined his U.S. ski teammates for a three-week training camp just outside of Santiago, Chile. He returned to Colorado to watch his former football teammates open the season against CSU, and was recognized between the third and fourth quarters in a final tribute.

THREE AND COUNTING?

CU has not only played but has also hosted at Folsom Field the last three Heisman Trophy winners (all quarterbacks): Eric Crouch (Nebraska, 2001), Carson Palmer (USC, 2002) and Jason White (Oklahoma, 2003). So, if Colorado QB Joel Klatt or TB Bobby Purify should be denied the award, could the '04 winner be on the roster of one of the six teams headed to Boulder: Colorado State, North Texas, Oklahoma State, Iowa State, Texas or Kansas State? (KSU TB Darren Sproles is one of the preseason favorites.)

NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULES

Research by the University of Houston SID office shows that Oregon State has the toughest non-conference schedule in the nation (opponent winning percentage last year was .829, as LSU, Boise State and New Mexico combined to go 34-7). The Buffs rank eighth on the list, as CSU, Washington State and North Texas were a combined 27-12 (.692) last fall. The top 16 (*—includes one I-AA opponent):

OLYMPIANS

The University of Colorado was well represented at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens. One-time CU skier Tyler Hamilton won a gold medal in the individual road time trial, the first U.S. gold in cycling since 1984, as he covered the 29.8 mile course in 57:31.4 in winning by almost 19 seconds. Former CU student Deirdre Demet-Barry also fared well in cycling, as she won a silver medal in the women's individual time trial. Assistant track coach Casey Malone (CU's throws coach and a CSU letterman) placed sixth in the discus. Alan Culpepper finished 12th in the marathon, one of the final events in Athens on August 29. Two other Buffs competed, Shayne Wille-Culpepper (women's 5,000-meter run) and Dathan Ritzenhein (10,000-meter run; he did not finish as he was nursing an injured foot).

HESSLER TO BE HOMECOMING MARSHALL

Former University of Colorado quarterback John Hessler will be this year's honorary homecoming parade marshal on October 9, when the Buffs play host to Oklahoma State. It will be just 10 days shy of one year when a hit-and-run accident on Denver's Interstate 76 placed him in a life-threatening situation and a 33-day coma; not unlike the comeback he engineering against Texas A&M in 1995, doctors initially had little hope that Hessler would survive, and since he awoke, he's continued to make great strides in his attempt to resume a normal life.

STUDENT SEASON TICKETS

Colorado sold out of its 12,000 student season ticket allotment on August 23, the first time since 1992 that the number allocated completely sold out before being broken apart to sell as individual game tickets. Last year, students purchased 11,321 tickets; the all-time high is 14,442 in 1972 (after a 10-2 season with a No. 3 final ranking), with the low of 4,091 coming in 1981 (following a 1-10 year). CU dedicates the third most student season tickets in the Big 12 and is tied for the 16th most in the NCAA. Here's a look at the 2004 student ticket allotments in the Big 12 Conference and from around the nation (% indicates percent of capacity dedicated to students in the conference):

V-BACK

What's a V-Back, you ask? In short, it stands for "versatile" back, which applies to the two players CU lists at VB on the roster, junior Lawrence Vickers and sophomore Daniel Jolly. The two were asked to come up with a name for what they felt they brought to their position, as they had previously been listed No. 1 and 2 at fullback and that sort of "pigeonholed" what they can really do. Since they not only block like fullbacks, run like tailbacks and can play like receivers, "V-Back" fits them perfectly. "We pride ourselves on having a multitude of people who can do numerous things as far as running, catching and blocking," Jolly said. "What's asked of the position is that the players have to be very versatile and fill a number of roles, and we want to excel at each and every one of those," Vickers said. Coach Gary Barnett joked that Vickers liked it because it can also stand for "Vickers-Back."

MISSED IT BY THAT MUCH

Colorado had at least one touchdown pass in 12 consecutive games (every game last year), which was just one away from tying the school record. But alas, CU scored its touchdowns via rushing and return against Colorado State and missed tying the mark of 13 was set between October 28, 1995 and November 9, 1996.

JK-TO-JK

The combination of Joel Klatt to Joe Klopfenstein was good for three touchdowns in 2003. Believe it or not, it was the first time two players with the same initials hooked up on a touchdown pass in CU history (how's that for research?)!

COACH GARY BARNETT

Gary Barnett is in his sixth season as head coach of the Colorado program, and his 15th year as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 36-28 record at Colorado, along with a 71-73-1 record in 12-plus seasons in the Division I-A ranks (the first seven at Northwestern), and has an overall career mark of 76-84-2 including two years at NAIA Fort Lewis (Durango, Colo.). This is his second stint at Colorado, as he was an assistant in Boulder under Bill McCartney for eight years between 1984 and 1991. During that span, CU was 59-34-2 in 95 games, including a 30-5-2 mark the last three years, when CU won three Big Eight titles and the 1990 national championship. Northwestern hired Barnett as head coach on Dec. 18, 1991 to replace Francis Peay, and he would take just four years to turn a dismal program into one of the nation's top teams. Barnett led Northwestern to back-to-back Big Ten championships in 1995 and 1996, earning berths in the Rose and Citrus bowls; he was the national coach of the year for '95 as selected by 18 different organizations. He was the third McCartney assistant to land a head coaching position, following Gerry DiNardo (Vanderbilt) and Lou Tepper (Illinois), both of whom started their careers in 1991. In 2001, he was selected as the Associated Press Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year when he became just the fourth man to ever coach two different teams to the NCAA Most Improved Team title.

♦ Barnett is no stranger to lining up across the sideline from ranked teams. In his 81 games at Northwestern, the Wildcats faced 30 ranked opponents (posting a 9-20-1 record). In his eight years as an assistant at Colorado, the Buffaloes played 34 ranked teams in 95 contests. As CU head coach, he's seen 26 in 64 games (going 11-15); so in his 20 years as Division I-A head or assistant coach, he's coached against 90 ranked opponents in 240 games, better than one in every three (38%).

♦ In an October 2000 Bloomberg Information Service poll of Division I-A head coaches, Gary Barnett ranked sixth in a listing of the best coaches in college football. Eighty-eight (or roughly 72%) of the 114 head coaches responded in the poll, which ranked Penn State's Joe Paterno first (20½ votes) and Florida State's Bobby Bowden second (19). The rest of the top 10 at the time: 3. Bill Snyder, Kansas State (12); 4. Frank Beamer, Virginia Tech (10½); 5. Steve Spurrier, Florida (5½); 6 (tie). Gary Barnett, Colorado, and Barry Alvarez, Wisconsin (3); 8. LaVell Edwards, BYU (2½); 9 (tie). Dennis Erickson, Oregon State, and Lloyd Carr, Michigan (2).

♦ Barnett first got to Colorado in a very matter-of-fact manner. He "road-tripped" from Missouri in the winter of 1971 with a friend, as both were hunting for teaching jobs. He didn't hear anything back from the interviews, and started his coaching career by helping out on Dan Devine's staff at Missouri, his alma mater. He had been selling insurance in Columbia while his wife, Mary, was finishing up her degree. He was soon offered a teaching and assistant coaching position at Air Academy High School in Colorado Springs (at $8,500 a year). He accepted, and he and Mary headed west to begin their love affair with the state of Colorado.

♦ Barnett grew up in the small town of Mexico, Missouri (where his mother returned to live after the family moved to St. Louis when he was in the ninth grade; she still resides there). He used to chase down softballs at the adults' fast-pitch softball games, as every ball turned in was worth a nickel, and three would net him a Coke (at 15 cents), the going rate in the mid-1950s.

♦ Barnett did something extremely rare after he accepted the CU job on January 20, 1999. He made it a goal to meet the parents and families of all players on the CU roster. He pretty much pulled it off, visiting with all but three families of the returning players (all in obscure, hard to reach locations) by the end of the '99 season. He did it to find out more about the players on his team and to talk with the parents about promises that were kept or not met by the previous coaching staff. He says if you get a beat on what kind of environment each player grew up in, which gives a good indication on how you have to deal with each individually.

♦ Barnett figured he would never get a crack at the Colorado job. After Rick Neuheisel emerged as the internal hire following Bill McCartney's surprising retirement in November 1994, Barnett thought that with Rick being so young, the CU job would never even be an option. He was linked to many a job opening, but the only one he ever interviewed for was the Notre Dame position; not the Detroit Lions, Texas Longhorns, Oklahoma Sooners or UCLA Bruins as rumors had led many to believe.

♦ Barnett enjoyed many happy as well as sad moments in his first stop in Boulder between 1984 and 1991. Emotions ran the gamut from winning the national championship (1990) and three Big Eight Conference titles (1989-90-91), along with coaching a Heisman Trophy candidate (Darian Hagan) and a Rhodes Scholarship finalist (Eric McCarty) to dealing with the life-threatening injury to tight end Ed Reinhardt (1984), the death of quarterback Sal Aunese (1989, from stomach cancer) to his own son Clay being seriously injured when he was on the CU sidelines during a game. Another high included Charles S. Johnson being named the MVP of the 1991 Orange Bowl, supplanting the low that he had to replace an injured Hagan in that game. And in his final year at Colorado in 1991, he tutored a young true freshman by the name of Kordell Stewart, who went on to become the Big Eight's all-time total offense leader.

♦ Barnett's top six goals for the CU program each year are listed as: 6) Winning the Big 12 Conference championship; 5) Winning the Big 12 Conference North Division; 4) Winning a bowl game; 3) Have a winning season; 2) To be a relentless team; and 1) Attitude and Chemistry. They are displayed prominently on the wall in the team's main meeting room (which was renamed for Tom McMahon in 2003).

♦ Barnett's first game at Northwestern was against Notre Dame at Chicago's Soldier Field—deemed a neutral site. His first game at CU was against Colorado State at Denver's Mile High Stadium, also a neutral site. How many coaches had their first games with two different schools classified in this manner? Barnett was probably the first—the research would be most time consuming!

♦ Barnett replaced Francis Peay at Northwestern, and other finalists included Earle Bruce (at Colorado State at the time), Paul Schudel and Gary Darnell. The president who hired Barnett at Northwestern, Arnold Weber, was the president of CU when it hired Bill McCartney in 1982. The parallels between McCartney and Barnett number many, right down to the record in their first three years as head coaches: Mac was 7-25-1 at Colorado (1982-84), Barnett 8-24-1 at Northwestern (1992-94), with exactly 10 years separating each, both their first career head coaching jobs.

- ♦ Barnett's active off the field with several charities, most notably the Lupus Foundation and the Colorado ALS Association. Every October, he participates in Boulder's "Walk to d'feet ALS," a fundraiser to combat ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease.
- ♦ Barnett has been a head coach for 145 Division I-A games (71-73-1); he will coach in his 150th on October 23 at Texas A&M. His 12 seasons as a D I-A head coach rank 27th among active coaches, as are his 145 games coached.
- ♦ Barnett is again one of the 61 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2004 (the sixth straight year he is a voter and the 18th straight year CU's head coach has participated).

THE CLASS OF '99 In 1999, 19 programs hired new coaches, including Colorado; 13 remain with those programs. Here's a look at the entire class and their records through games of September 11 (includes bowls; *—denotes first college head coaching job):

COACH "RETRO" Defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz has been given the nickname of "Coach Retro" by the players, as he is now in his second stint at CU. During his first tour between 1985 and 1994, he spent the last seven seasons as CU's defensive coordinator and directed some of the best defenses in school history. Upon his return, he didn't exactly return the Buffs to the 3-4 he succeeded with during those years, but there are enough similarities to merit the throwback term.

EXPERIENCE The 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 154 seasons in Division I-A (includes 13 head coach seasons, 12 by Gary Barnett and one by Mike Hankwitz). The 10 have combined to coach in 1,850 games entering the 2004 campaign. Barnett is the elder statesman at 58, followed by Hankwitz (57) Craig Bray (52) and then Brian Cabral (48); it's believed to be the first time that three 50-plus year olds have been on the Colorado staff. In fact, Barnett's the oldest head football coach in CU history by some four years (Bill McCartney was 54 when he retired in 1994; Dallas Ward's the only other to pilot the Buffs after his 50th birthday as he was 52 when he was not retained after the 1958 season).

EXPERIENCE II Initial research by the University of Maryland SID office and then CU's indicates that the staff trifecta of head coach Gary Barnett, offensive coordinator Shawn Watson and defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz are the 14th most experienced "politburo" in Division I-A (the fourth in the Big 12), when adding up the combined years full-time in the coaching profession. Here's a closer look at those with 70-plus years experience (count includes all seasons as a full-time assistant and/or head coach in the college or pro ranks only):

GAME DAY The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. For 2004, in the box will be offensive coordinator Shawn Watson, tight ends coach John Wristen, secondary coach Craig Bray, defensive line coach Chris Wilson, and graduate assistants Tim Ridder and Hunter Hughes. Head coach Gary Barnett wears a headset on the sideline (he's on with the coordinators), along with defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz, inside linebackers coach Brian Cabral, offensive line coach Dave Borbely, receivers coach Ted Gilmore and running backs coach Shawn Simms. The receivers or running backs shuttle in plays, as sideline signals are an option Barnett won't utilize often.

Watson concentrates on the offensive play calling, while Hankwitz makes the defensive call from the sidelines. Barnett does what he calls, "managing the game," determining if what's called is the best for the long run. He might make the play call in a critical situation (third-and-long, red zone strategizing, etc.).

TOPS In Shawn Watson's first game as offensive coordinator in 2000, CU gained 532 yards against Colorado State, the most ever by a Buff team in its first game with a new offensive pilot. The old record was 530 in 1993 (vs. Texas, Elliot Uzelac's first game). The all-time opponent low in the first game with a new CU defensive coordinator were the 177 yards gained by Fresno State in 1988—Mike Hankwitz' first game as DC (also the third fewest yards ever allowed overall by CU in any season opener).

OLD-TIMER Assistant head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. He is now tied for third all-time in years coached as a full-time member of the staff, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both who assisted for 18 years each, and has pulled even with one his mentors in life, the late Dan Stavely, who coached 15 seasons in two stints. A closer look:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 3. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76), and Brian Cabral 15 (1990-current); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 7. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58); 8. Ray Jenkins 10 (1948-57), Mike Hankwitz 10 (1985-94) and Jon Embree 10 (1993-2002).

WRISTEN ADDS RECRUITING COORDINATOR TITLE TO DUTIES Tight ends coach John Wristen is now officially CU's recruiting coordinator, moving into the role to serve as the main contact for prospect identification and inquiries. The last CU coach to hold the title was Gregg Brandon in 2000; only coaches are permitted to make phone calls and contacts, whereas administrators are not. David Hansburg, the director of football operations, will continue to handle the administrative side of recruiting, including budget and staffing.

50-1-1 That is Colorado's record since 1989 when rushing for 250 or more yards in a game, as the 50th win came last week when the Buffs racked up 255 in the win over Colorado State (and are 73-4-1 dating back to the start of 1985 campaign). CU has outgained its first two opponents on the ground by 302-59, upping its record in the same span to 103-5-3 when putting more rushing yards than the foe into the books.

PURIFY CRACKS TOP 10 Though held to 53 yards by a tough Washington State defense, senior TB Bobby Purify cracked the top 10 list of CU's all-time rushers. He has 2,241 career yards, just one behind No. 9 Lamont Warren (2,242) with No. 8 Lee Rouson (2,296) and No. 7 Bobby Anderson (2,67) positioned just ahead of him. Only two players have gained 3,000 or more career rushing yards at Colorado, with just five eclipsing the 2,500-yard plateau. Purify has also taken care of the ball in his CU career: he has 475 touches (435 rushes, 40 receptions) and has just seven fumbles, including one last Saturday, or one for every 67.9 touches.

50 PLUS Sophomore PK Mason Crosby, just two games into the year, has started an assault on the school's field goal records. His 55-yard field goal in the fourth quarter against Colorado State tied the fourth longest in CU history (as well as the third longest at Folsom Field). Then, against Washington State in Seattle, at about as close to sea level as a stadium can be, he nailed a 52-yarder, the third longest by a Buffalo away from home. His kick against the Rams was the first 50-plus yard field goal made by a Buff since Sept. 25, 1993, when Mitch Berger made a 54-yard kick against Miami, Fla., in Boulder. With his second, he tied five others for the most 50-yard field goals made in a single season at Colorado, joining Fred Lima (1972), Tom Field (1979), Dave DeLine (1984), Jim Harper (1990) and Pat Blotiaux (1992).

ANOTHER SLASH IN THE WORKS? Redshirt freshman QB Bernard Jackson has proved that he makes things happen in practice, and the coaches wanted to find a way to get him on the field. On September 6, they experimented with him at wide receiver, and the trial worked. Though practicing exclusively at receiver to get familiar with the role, he will also remain listed as a quarterback, thus, a QB/WR tag under his position listing. Sound familiar? Former CU signal caller Kordell Stewart became known as slash as a rookie with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1995; he's played both quarterback and receiver in the pros, though he never had a collegiate reception as he played every snap as a quarterback.

RUSHING DEFENSE ONE OF NATION'S BEST Yes, it is early, but make no mistake, one of CU's strong suits is its defensive front seven, and it's showing up in rushing yards allowed. The Buffs have surrendered just 59 in two games, with the 29.5 figure tops in the conference and fourth in the nation. Colorado State had 44 in the opener, with Washington State putting just 15 in the books (the numbers do include sack yardage per NCAA compilation guidelines). Still, it's the first time CU has held the opponent to under 50 yards rushing in two consecutive games since 1958 (Arizona 14 on 26 tries, Iowa State 43 on 46 attempts). Since Colorado joined the Big Seven Conference in 1948, the Buffaloes have led its conference in rushing defense just one time—in 1990, when then (and now again) defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz designed a defense that held opponents to just 114.2 yards per game. The Buffs have finished in the top 20 nationally on just four occasions, the highest in Hank's last year of his first stint in Boulder in 1994, also allowing 114.2 yards per game (which was second in the old Big Eight). Other notes:

- ➔ Opponents have just one rush in double figures this season and just three of seven yards or longer;
- ➔ The last time the opponent had less than 100 back-to-back was in 2002 (Baylor 72, Texas Tech 91);
- ➔ The Buffs have allowed just 2 rushing first downs this year, both by Washington State; that figure, along with the 0 Colorado State earned, are two of the 12 lowest numbers of first downs by rushing the opponent has ever earned against a CU defense.
- ➔ Let's take out the sacks (9 for 66), a muffed field goal (9-yard loss) and one slip for a 6-yard loss, and the CU "D" is still pretty darn good, as opponents have 57 true rushes for 140 yards, or just 2.46 per try.

COACH'S CORNER/WITH GARY BARNETT

General: "We played well as a team. Last week (against Colorado State), our offense carried us, this week, it was our defense. That's just the way the game goes, there is no way of predicting it. I thought our front four did a great job of getting pressure and stopping the run. That enabled us to get more guys in coverage. We allowed a few big plays, but the defense was out there for over 90 snaps. A team like Washington State is going to get its fair share of big plays, but I really thought we kept them to a minimum. When they did get one, other than the long touchdown pass, the defense didn't give in and really hung in there."

On CU's Offensive Woes Against WSU: "I think it really came down to the fact that we just hadn't practiced against that type of speed. But I think that after watching the film, there will be a lot of fundamental mistakes that we can correct. We came in thinking that we really had their scheme down and thought we knew what we needed to do, but we just didn't do it. Once we had that long run (65 yards by Bobby Purify) called back, we never could get back in rhythm with the running game. Our offense was embarrassed, but they will practice hard and get ready for next week."

On Ending A Second Straight Week With A Defensive Stand: "This team has been through a lot, so that just kind of falls in line. We figure that everything is going to be hard for us. Mentally, we have to be ready every play."

On Team Emotion: "Emotion is fine, but it will only carry you so far. It needs to translate into passion, the passion to work hard, be in the right place and make the right play. I'll take passion over emotion any time."

PLAYER QUOTES

Some comments from select players following the win over Washington State:

OLB JOE SANDERS

ON HIS 51-YARD INTERCEPTION RETURN FOR A TOUCHDOWN: "There were two receivers out to my side, and the quarterback had a little three-step drop. He was looking my way the whole time, so I'm just happy that I was able to read what he was going to do and be in the right place at the right time."

TB BOBBY PURIFY

GENERAL: "We weren't on the field too much, and I think we were just trying too hard. We couldn't find any rhythm, and it they really did a good job of getting to the ball quickly. The holding call changed the momentum of the game, but our defense kept us in it."

QB JOEL KLATT

GENERAL: "I'm extremely happy to get out of this game with a win. I give a lot of credit to them for mixing looks and changing fronts, and their secondary is fast. Their defensive front wasn't overly powerful, but they have a lot of speed and that caused a lot of problems for us. I think both defenses deserve a lot of credit."

DIZON MAKING NAME AS A TRUE FROSH

ILB Jordon Dizon, a 6-0, 220-pounder from Kauai, Hawaii, became just the sixth true freshman to start a season opener in Colorado history when he was out there from the get-go against Colorado State. He was the first true frosh inside linebacker to start a season opener, and just the third defender overall. The last player to start the season lid-lifter was OG Clint Moore in 1991 (against Wyoming); others include TB Billy Waddy (1973 at LSU), CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison (both 1980 at UCLA) and HB Eric Bieniemy (1987 vs. Oregon). How did Dizon fare? He tied for the team lead in tackles with eight, led the Buffs in solo stops with six, caused an interception, racked up a touchdown save when he stuffed CSU's Marcus Houston for no gain on second-and-goal from the CU 1 with 30 seconds left in the game; and added a pass deflection, a third down stop and a quarterback pressure. Was he a one-game wonder? Hardly—in game two against Washington State, he came back with 13 tackles, the third most by a true freshman in Colorado history, and had another touchdown save inside the final minute, this time sticking WSU quarterback Alex Brink, forcing a fumble that teammate Matt McChesney recovered to preserve the 20-12 win.

SACK CITY

Colorado racked up eight quarterback sacks in the win over Washington State, upping its season total to a Big 12 Conference best nine. It was the most sacks by the Buffaloes since it set the Big 12 standard of 14 at Missouri on November 4, 2000. That had been the last time one Buff had three sacks in a game, as Drew Wahlroos posted the hat trick against the Tigers; sophomore DE Alex Ligon matched that total with three against the Cougars. Four Buffs had their first career sack against Washington State: OLB Brian Iwuh, DT Vaka Manupuna, CB Lorenzo Sims and DE Abraham Wright, who might have had the most spectacular, as his was a one-arm job.

LOST AT THE END

Perhaps lost late in CU's 27-24 victory over Colorado State was the 61-yard punt that junior John Torp launched to get the Buffs out of a hole at their own 16 yardline with 4:30 left to play. Last year, Torp owned a 42.5 average on 63 punts, but surprisingly, it was a bit lower, 42.1, for 21 punts inside-the-Buff 25. He opened strong, averaging 52.3 for three punts, a number that after just one week lead both the Big 12 Conference as well as the NCAA.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION

A running list of major notes and/or accomplishments the Buffaloes have had in 2004:

Colorado State

- ◆ ATTENDANCE. The 54,954 in attendance established a Folsom Field record, as the sellout crowd bested the previous mark of 54,215 set against Oklahoma on October 25 of last year.
- ◆ BACK IN BLACK: Colorado wore all black uniforms for the 25th time, and now owns a 14-10-1 record in the outfit (snapping a string of three straight losses). CU last donned all black against both Oklahoma and Nebraska last season (complete list later in these notes). It marked the first time that CU wore all black in a season opener, and only second time in a non-conference game (the other was the 38-6 win over Oregon in the Cotton Bowl).
- ◆ TB Bobby Purify. He became the 15th player in Colorado history to run for 2,000 career yards (he entered the game with 1,999, tied for 15th place with the great Carroll Hardy). Purify rushed a career high 26 times for 189 yards, second only to 191 yards he had against the Rams in 2001. It was the sixth 100-plus yard game of his career (tied for 15th most at CU), The 189 yards were the second most rushing yards in a season opener in CU history; Mike Pritchard's 217 vs. Tennessee is the standard.
- ◆ First Score. Colorado last scored on the opening possession of a game just two games earlier, in game 11 of the 2003 season at Iowa State. The last time CU scored on its first possession of the year came in 1998, when Jeremy Aldrich kicked a 34-yard field goal against CSU in Denver to start a 42-14 CU victory. And the last time the Buffs opened the season with a touchdown drive on their first possession was against CSU in 1997, when Herchell Troutman scored from a yard out in CU's 31-21 win, ironically the last time these two teams met on campus (in Boulder).
- ◆ CSU did not earn a rushing first down, only the fifth time in CU history the opponent had zero and just the second time in the last 43 seasons. The only other time since 1961 came against Oklahoma in Boulder in 1999 when CU held the Sooners to none.
- ◆ Other Colorado Firsts: WR Evan Judge (Jr.) had his first career reception (20 yards on and 3rd-and-8 from Joel Klatt); WR Blake Mackey (Soph.) had his first career reception (16 yards on from Joel Klatt); OLB Brian Iwuh (Jr.) had his first career interception, returning it 37 yards for a touchdown; he is the 10th Buffalo in the last 13 seasons to return his first career pick for a touchdown.

Washington State

- ◆ CU held just two teams to one score or less in the first half a year ago: UCLA scored one TD in its 16-14 loss to the Buffs, and Iowa State was shutout in its eventual 44-10 defeat to Colorado. That was matched after two games, as CSU and WSU had just one first half score apiece.
- ◆ Colorado is now 17-3 in the second game of the season since 1985 and is 2-0 for the second straight season and for the 52nd time in its history.
- ◆ Hanging On. Washington State ran 25 plays in plus territory (the 50 on in) for a net nine yards in the first half, and had 40 in the game for 57 yards (with 47 on its last six in plus territory).
- ◆ DE Alex Ligon. He is the first Buffalo to have three sacks in a game since Drew Wahlroos had three against Missouri in Columbia on Nov. 4, 2000. The eight sacks by the Buffaloes (for 60 yards) were the most since that same game, when the Buffs set a Big 12 record with 14 against the Tigers.
- ◆ VB Lawrence Vickers. His recovery of a blocked punt for a touchdown was the first since John Minardi had one four years ago—against Missouri in Columbia on Nov. 4, 200.
- ◆ OLB Joe Sanders. Subbing for the injured Brian Iwuh, he had his first extensive action of his career (he played three snaps in the opener), and in the process became the 11th Colorado player since 1992 to return his first career interception for a touchdown (51 yards). Ironically, Iwuh had become the 10th the previous week versus CSU.
- ◆ FS Tyrone Henderson. He became the first player in Colorado history to record two blocked kicks in the same game, as he got a hand on one punt cutting the distance to 30 yards and blocked a second that led to a touchdown.
- ◆ CU vs. WSU in the State of Washington. The Buffaloes are now 2-0 against the Cougars in their home state, however, the Buffs do not have an offensive touchdown against them. In 1982, Tom Field made four field goals for a 12-0 Colorado win in Spokane (Bill McCartney's first), and this time around, CU scored one special teams touchdown and one defensive score in addition to two Mason Crosby field goals.
- ◆ PK Mason Crosby. He is the first Buff since 2002 to make two 50-plus yard field goals in the same season (Pat Blottiaux made two that year). It's now been done on six occasions in school history, but no player has had as many as three 50-yarders in a single season at Colorado.

TURNAROUND What a difference a year makes, as OT Sam Wilder was thrown to the wolves as a junior, switching to offense two weeks before the season opener. He played admirably, but did surrender team highs of seven quarterback sacks and 27 pressures, really expected of a first-year linemen playing in a conference like the Big 12 for a team that was heavy into passing. Fast-forward to the 2004 season opener against Colorado State, and you find that Wilder did not allow a sack or a pressure, had a touchdown block, performed extremely well in mimicking the line techniques made famous by the just-down-the-road Denver Broncos (including cut blocks), and graded out to 88.4 percent for the game. That was the fifth-highest single game grade awarded in two-plus seasons by offensive line coach Dave Borbely, and was the best OL grade in a season opener in at least a decade.

SPECIAL TEAM PERFORMERS If it seems like the Buffaloes have been particularly active on special teams, the assumption is backed up by the statistics. Through two games, 16 players have earned at least one special team point (11 have two or more), as CB Lorenzo Sims leads the way with five on the strength of four tackles, three solo, and a knockdown block. But the 16 players scoring points after two games are the most since 21 had tallies two games into the 1998 season.

GAME #1—COLORADO 27, COLORADO STATE 24

(September 4; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — Coming in, it seemed impossible to top what happened last year between these two in-state rivals in their 75th meeting, won by Colorado is a classic college football shootout 42-35. CU went ahead with 40 seconds left and CSU's final drive stalled at midfield; this time around, the Buffs held off CSU again, but this time after the Rams had a first and goal at the CU 1 with under a minute remaining en route to a thrilling 27-24 win.

Though Colorado led for 50 minutes and 27 seconds of the game, it certainly appeared that the Rams were going to steal it away with a TD in the final seconds and take their only lead of the night when it counted most. Justin Holland connected with receiver David Anderson for the ninth time in the game on an 11-yard pass that set CSU up with a first down at the CU 1 with time ticking down to the 30 second mark, which is where it stood after Holland spiked the ball to stop the clock.

On second-and-goal, one-time Buffalo Marcus Houston was stuffed for no gain by CU freshman inside linebacker Jordon Dizon. With the Rams out of time outs, CSU head coach Sonny Lubick decided to go for all the marbles, and with the clock running and under 10 seconds to go, a pitch to back Tristan Walker was sniffed out by CU safety J.J. Billingsley, who stopped him at the CU 3 with corner Lorenzo Sims finishing the tackle as time ran out on the Rams.

The Buffs snapped a 17-17 tie with 6:43 remaining, as Mason Crosby drilled a 55-yard field goal right down the middle, with at least 10 yards to spare, to put the Buffs up 20-17. It was the first 50-plus yard field goal by a Colorado player in 11 years, and it served to also fire up the CU defense. On the first play of CSU's next possession, Brian Iwuh picked off a Holland pass and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown and built the Buff lead back up to 27-17.

Colorado raced to a 17-0 lead with 4:44 left in the first half on the strength of first quarter 1-yard touchdown runs by Bobby Purify and Joel Klatt and a 31-yard field goal by Crosby. The Rams got on the board with 23 seconds left before the half on a 1-yard pass from Holland to tight end Matt Bartz, and would finally catch the Buffs with 11:42 left in the fourth quarter after a 1-yard scoring run by Houston and a 26-yard field goal by Jeff Babcock.

The Buffs held the Rams to just 44 yards rushing, though Holland did pierce the CU defense for 403 through the air. CU countered with 255 rushing yards, its most since late in the 2002 season.

GAME #2—COLORADO 20, WASHINGTON STATE 12

(September 11; Seattle, Wash.)

SEATTLE — Two games does not a season make, but 120 minutes into 2004, Colorado benefited from two goal-line stands in the final seconds, this time recovering a fumble at its own 2 to preserve a 20-12 victory over host Washington State at Seattle's Qwest Field.

Holding Colorado State at bay in eerily similar fashion a week earlier, the Cougars were frantically trying to come from 11 down to send the game into overtime, driving 54 yards in eight plays to the CU 4. After quarterback Alex Brink spiked the ball to stop the clock, he tried to score up the middle after being flushed from the pocket. But Jordon Dizon was there to greet him, hitting him square on to force a fumble that Matt McChesney recovered to end the threat and help Colorado to a 2-0 start for the second straight season.

In a game where defense dominated, only one offensive touchdown was recorded, but the Buffaloes gladly took two scores produced by their defense and special teams. The first came with just under seven minutes to play in the third quarter with the teams deadlocked in a 3-3 tie. Faced with a 4th-and-6 from its own 32, Kyle Basler had a second punt blocked by CU free safety Tyrone Henderson; while the first still managed to travel 30 yards, this one went in the other direction, where the Buffs' Lawrence Vickers recovered it in the end zone for the game's first touchdown. In the process, Henderson became the first player in CU history to have two blocks of any kind in the same game.

After WSU regrouped and marched for a field goal to cut the lead to 10-6 and then forced CU to punt early in the fourth quarter, the Cougars drove from their own 12 to midfield. But Joe Sanders, subbing for the injured Brian Iwuh at the "Buff" outside linebacker spot, read Brink's eyes perfectly to steal a pass, racing 51 yards for a touchdown and a 17-6 CU lead.

Not to be thwarted, Brink hit Jason Hill with a 60-yard touchdown pass four plays later to cut the margin back down to 17-12, but that's where it remained when a two-point pass fell incomplete. Special teams then shined again for Colorado, as Terrence Wheatley returned the ensuing kickoff 59 yards, leading to a 41-yard field goal by Mason Crosby that accounted for what would be the day's final points with 4:42 remaining.

Crosby opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 52-yard field goal, which tied for the third longest on the road in school history. The Cougars tied it on a 44-yard boot by Loren Langley three minutes into the second stanza.

The Buffs had just 125 yards of offense, its second lowest total ever in winning a game. Even though WSU had 402, it took 92 plays to amass it, with 234 of the yards coming on just five plays as the teams combined had 77 plays for zero or minus yardage.

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS CU started all upperclassmen in almost every game in 2002, and for the season, juniors and seniors started 93% of the time. But in 12 games in '03, that percentage dropped to 58.3%, and after one game in '04, 30 of 44 are juniors and seniors, or 68.1%. The 2003 numbers were close to those in 2000, which set up CU's '01 Big 12 title run. Going into 2004, 56 players on the roster had seen previous game experience in their careers, with 32 making at least one start (21 had made at least three starts). It's a cyclical pattern, and that shows up when looking at the breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class:

- 2001 starters (13 games): Seniors (102), Juniors (95), Sophomores (83), Freshmen (7: redshirts 7, true 0).

UNDERCLASSMEN ROLE In 2002, when CU finished 9-5 in the school's only ever 14-game season, underclassmen started a total of 23 games (14 sophomore/9 freshmen). Fast-forward to 2003, and that total was surpassed after just four games (25), with the underclassmen start count for the year at 110 (78 sophomore/32 freshmen). In CU's Big 12 championship year in 2001, 90 underclassmen made starts, with the 71 starting in 2000 and 107 in 1999 during the Barnett era. Including the two kicking spots (P, PK), the 2002 numbers remained 23 out of a possible 336 starts (6.5%) by underclassmen; the 2003 numbers jumped to 134 (90 soph/44 frosh) out of 288, or 46.5%. To dates in 2004, 16 of the 44 starters have been underclassmen (36%; 16 of 48 including kickers, or 33.3%).

USUALLY IN 'EM Colorado's usually been in those few games it has lost over the last 15 seasons. Of the 56 losses, 31 have been by eight points or less (including 13 of the 28 losses in the Barnett Era). Teams that have defeated CU by more than eight are Nebraska, Oklahoma and Kansas State (three times), Kansas, Missouri and Texas (twice), Baylor, Colorado State, Florida State, Michigan, Notre Dame, Oregon, Texas Tech, USC and Washington State. CU has really been dominated from the start only four times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU (though CU led in total yardage over 75 percent of the game) and 2002 vs. USC, while K-State ('00), Texas ('01), WSU ('03) and Florida State ('03) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

40 RANK 6TH CU's 40 wins over Associated Press ranked team since the start of the 1989 season are tied for the sixth most in the nation in this span. Florida State has the most with 60, followed by Michigan (50), Florida (49), Miami, Fla. (42), Tennessee (41), Colorado (40), and Ohio State (40). As for the Big 12, after CU, the next schools on this list are Nebraska (32), Texas (26), Texas A&M (25) and Oklahoma (23). (The AP poll is used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

WALK-ON RETURNS Colorado started two different quarterbacks in 2003, both with walk-on roots. Joel Klatt started the first three games before being sidelined with a shoulder sprain, and Erik Greenberg replaced him in the role for Florida State. Both joined the programs as walk-ons; Greenberg earned a scholarship prior to leaving for his Mormon Mission in 2001, while Klatt had walk-on status through 2003 but received a scholarship last January when he was first able to. The previous total of walk-on QBs who had started in school history, at least since 1973, prior to last season had been just one—Scott Kingdom, who made his first start at Iowa State in 1980. In 2003, Klatt and Greenberg teamed for some impressive numbers: 282-of-450 for 3,351 yards and 27 touchdowns (with 13 interceptions). That total was the highest in Colorado history for a single season, as the pair of former walk-ons toppled the old record of 3,338 set in 1996.

CAPITAL RETURNS CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001 and 2002 seasons. The Buffs had an 854-417 edge in 2001 and an 803-607 lead in 2002 in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. In 2003, the opponent held a 599-453 edge, but this year, CU is off to a good start owning a 175-78 edge after two games. Return yards are a staple of the Barnett Era at Colorado, as CU now has 3,604 in the 64 games he has coached, 883 more than the opponent. And the Buffs have 31 return touchdowns over the last five-plus seasons (27 regular season, four bowl game), tied for the fifth most in the nation for this span. THE BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the nine-year old league owns a 21-52 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own eight of those wins. CU is 8-7 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 7-4, Texas 2-5, Kansas State 2-3, Baylor 1-3, Oklahoma 1-0, Kansas 0-2, Oklahoma State 0-3, Missouri 0-5, Iowa State 0-6, Texas Tech 0-6 and Texas A&M 0-8.

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 31-5, Kansas State 29-5, Oklahoma State 23-6, Oklahoma 24-8, Texas 24-9, Texas A&M 23-10, Kansas 19-9, Missouri 20-10, Iowa State 19-10, Texas Tech 22-12, Colorado 19-13 and Baylor 16-12 (remember that traditionally, CU has played one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

SOPHS Sophomores led the Buffaloes in both rushing and passing in 2003, marking the eighth time that has happened in school history. The years: 1947, 1964, 1967, 1971, 1987, 1992, 1995 and 2003.

FROSH EXPERIENCE Colorado had eight true freshmen see regular action (two-deep and specialists), the second highest total in the Big 12 Conference in 2003. Baylor led the way with nine, followed by CU (8), Oklahoma State (6), Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech (all 5). CU, Baylor, ISU, OSU and Tech started the most true frosh—two players.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below is the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2004 Colorado Buffaloes. Twenty-three players are gone that accounted for 749 games played and 321 starts, with the 100 players on the opening day active roster collectively have played in 761 games, with 182 starts, making this the most inexperienced team that Gary Barnett will begin a season with in his six years in Boulder. The 2001 team was the most experienced, as it entered the year with 924 games played with 326 starts; similar numbers were 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). TWENTY-ONE "SEASONED" TO DATE 2004

After just two games, 21 players have been on the field for the very first time as a Colorado Buffalo, 19 of which took the field for the first time in the opener. In 2003, 24 players had their first taste of action in a CU football uniform, including two scholarship kickers making CU likely the first team in the nation in a very long time that had two freshmen scholarship kickers play in the first game of the year. The list (*—mainly special teams duty to date only):

TRUE FRESHMEN (6): DE Alonzo Barrett, TB Hugh Charles, ILB Jordon Dizon, TB Byron Ellis, WR Reggie Joseph, WR *Patrick Williams.

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (7): SS Lionel Harris, QB/WR Bernard Jackson, OL Tyler Polumbus, CB/KR Stephone Robinson, CB Chris Russell,

JUNIORS (3): DT John Guydon, SN *Matt Hammond, FB *Brendan Schaub.

SENIORS (1): OG Terrance Barreau.

SIX FIRST STARTS

In 2003, the fourth most players, 20, since 1984 made their first career starts in a CU uniform in 2003; in 2004, the number appears as it will drop as just six started for the first time in the opener against Colorado State: OG Terrance Barreau, CB Gerett Burl, ILB Jordon Dizon, C Mark Fenton, FS Tyrone Henderson and WR Evan Judge (last year, eight made their first start in the '03 opener). In 2002, 16 players made their first career starts, and the most first starts in recent memory came in 1998, when there were 27 first-time starters for the Buffaloes, 17 on offense and 10 on defense. It was the most since 1984, when 29 made their first starts (15 on offense). The annual number of first-time starters since 1984:

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20) and 2004 (6).

SCOUT WATCH

CU's senior class numbers just 12 this season (and one is out for the season with an injury), but 11 scouts representing 10 NFL teams have already scouted CU: Buffalo, Cleveland, Denver, Green Bay, Indianapolis, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, Oakland, Seattle and Washington. The Colorado Crush of Arena Football was also at the season opener.

STARTING SHUFFLE In 1998, Colorado had a plethora of injuries, and it meant different starting lineups on a weekly basis; it was the start of an incredibly unique streak. That year, CU started 12 different lineups on offense and 11 on defense, or 23 different starting lineups when combining offense and defense for the 12 games, the most in CU history until 1999 and 2000, when CU did not start the same lineup two weeks in succession the entire year. The previous high since 1971 (the start of 11-game seasons) was in 1991, when CU used 13 (seven on offense and six on defense). A closer look:

- ⇒ In 1999, CU started 20 different lineups (12 offense, 8 defense), due to personnel and formations in about half of the instances and to injuries for the rest. The 20 were the second most in team history to the 1998 count. In 2000 and now 2001, the numbers continued to grow.
- ⇒ CU had started different lineups on offense for 41 consecutive games, starting in mid-1997 until the start of 2001. On defense, the Buffs started a different 11 for 30 straight contests until having the same starting lineup in there for games two and three in 2001 (CSU, San Jose State).
- ⇒ CU used 21 different lineups (11 offense, 10 defense) in 2002 and 21 different lineups in 12 games in 2003 (CU started the same 11 on both offense and defense just twice in '03).
- ⇒ In 2004, CU obviously opened with two new 11s, but started the same 22 overall in game two for the first time since 1993. CU has now utilized 124 different starting lineups in its last 77 games, or just 30 under the maximum.

DINOSAURS Through two games in 2004, senior associate AD Jon Burianek has worked 408 CU football games, including a current run of 391 in a row (217 of which are at home; he's seen 428 all told). The radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 383 games in his career, including 123 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts). SID Dave Plati has worked 285, including the last 243 in a row, while facilities man John Krueger has worked 243 in all (93 straight). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 184 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 230 CU games. Gary Barnett has coached in 159 Buffalo games (95 as an assistant), while Mike Hankwitz, in his second tour as a CU assistant, has notched 122. Equipment man Mike Smith has now worked 111 straight, 160 overall including his time as a student manager, grounds crew member and Ralphie runner. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

THEFTS & SCORES HIT 11 CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 11 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. After a two-year hiatus from adding to this list, OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat in 2004 when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Two did it in 2001: sophomore Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while junior Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the Colorado State game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a touchdown against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first career interception in CU's win over Colorado State in 1997, and he returned it 26 yards for a touchdown, which rallied the Buffs into a 14-14 tie a little over a minute into the second half. Barnes became the fourth Buffalo in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a touchdown—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. The only Buff in that time frame whose first career interception didn't go for a score was Damen Wheeler—and it appeared did score against K-State in 1996, but he was called for stepping out of bounds. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

LINER NOTES

Here's the place to look for that one or two sentence quick note on a CU two-deep regular:

- |                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1Stephone Robinson  | Midway through fall camp he was switched to cornerback from wide receiver; he's learning fast, but will crack playing time on special teams first, as he's the prime guy to replace Jeremy Bloom on punt and kickoff returns.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 3Tyrone Henderson   | He was in the mix for a lot of playing time before he became a starter with the knee injury to J.J. Billingsley, as he figured to be the first man in off the bench for the nickel defense. With two blocked punts against Washington State, he became the first Buff ever to block two kicks of any kind in a single game.                                                                                                                                            |
| 4Ron Montellh       | He was the only receiver on the roster (out of 13) who had a collegiate reception coming into the year, and is just one of two seniors at the spot but is the perfect leader. He is very involved in community service off the field, having worked as a volunteer bereavement counselor and with at-risk teens.                                                                                                                                                       |
| 5J.J. Billingsley   | Entered the 2004 season having started the most games (18) and played the most snaps (1,271) of any returning player on defense. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on August 19 to clean up a knee injury and returned to practice just six days later (August 25), but the knee has been sore and has kept his action to a minimum.                                                                                                                                      |
| 8Daniel Jolly       | The short-yardage go-to guy last year (he earned nine first downs on 15 third or fourth down attempts), as well as scoring five TDs in his first 18 carries as a collegian. He has close to tailback speed and will bowl people over.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 9Blake Mackey       | Had an 80-yardreception for a touchdown in the team's final scrimmage, as it appears he's overcome a lower leg injury that hampered him most of 2003. One of the top WR recruits in the nation, a breakout year is possible.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10James Cox         | He was in the mix for the starting job a year ago, but with Klatt firmly planted in the starting role, he worked hard to ascend into the No. 2 spot. He is considered the most pure passer of all the quarterbacks.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 12Akarika Dawn      | He can bounce between the will and mike positions, as he's practiced extensively at both, and played earlier in his career as a strong safety. He speaks fluent Spanish (his fiancé is Colombian).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 13Erik Greenberg    | Tabbed by The Sporting News as one of the top five backup quarterbacks in America... He was slowed during camp after suffering a torn tendon in the pinkie of his throwing hand, but is back to 100 percent.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 14Joel Klatt        | He played two-plus seasons in the San Diego Padres organization (A-ball: 2000, 2001 some of 2002). Some of his teammates back then are approaching stardom, topped by Padres ace Jack Peavy ( 12-5, 2.26 ERA as of Sept. 13 ). Others include Justin Germano (just called up by S.D.), Tagg Bozied (Portland, AAA/Padres) and Josh Barfield (Mobile Bay, AA/Padres). Klatt is only the fourth junior elected captain since 1964 (end of the platoon era).       |
| 16Mason Crosby      | He has to have one of the strongest legs in college football, and he's proven it out of the gate with a 55-yard field goal in the opener (it split the uprights and cleared with 10-12 yards to spare), and then a 52-yarder at sea level in Seattle against WSU. Depending on the conditions, the coaches feel CU can be in field goal range 65 yards on in. As with most kickers, he has a ritual: he hits 40-60 golf balls at the range two days before every game. |
| 17Lawrence Vickers  | The most versatile player on the team, and likely one of the most versatile in all of college football. An all-around weapon, he has good speed, is a solid blocker and has good hands; thus, he's a threat at tailback, fullback and receiver (and so was born the new CU depth chart moniker: V-Back.)                                                                                                                                                               |
| 18Dominique Brooks  | "DB the DB," he's the first letterman to play in the secondary where his initials match the position... The coaches call him "The Voice of Reason," because as Shawn Watson puts it, "He usually has the answers, he calls it like he sees it, and he'll be a natural for television." Only the third player to have a two INT game as a true frosh at CU.                                                                                                             |
| 23Tyler Littlehales | Has worked his way into CU's rotation at wide receiver, but the coaches also love his strong leg which has him second on the depth chart at punter. He punted in high school but only recently started to get more reps in.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 26Terrence Wheatley | One of the fastest players on the team with legit 4.3 speed, he became the first true freshman to start at the cornerback position in seven seasons. Had his spring cut short due to a dislocated wrist but is ready to go.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 27Brian Iwuh        | He was moved to the new position in CU's new defensive scheme—Buff (outside) linebacker—and has adjusted very well. He's constantly the tackles leader in scrimmages, and the 4-3 defense should allow him to prosper. He had a rough 2003, as he lost his stepfather (Oct. 4) and older brother (Oct. 8) both to cancer.                                                                                                                                              |
| 29John Torp         | He had the tough job of replacing '02 Ray Guy Award winner Mark Mariscal last year, and now, he's a candidate himself for the award. He averaged 42.5 per punt a year ago, placing 16 inside-the-20 with only 49% returned.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 31Gerett Burl       | He returned to CU after a one-semester hiatus, and his return was welcomed. A natural cornerback, he's got the "lock-down" trait desired by coaches and constantly makes the heady play.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

| 42Bobby Purify     | He's the 15th player at CU to reach 2,000 career rushing yards, and next up is to join the five who have topped the 2,500 mark... He is quite skilled in sign language, learning it in high school. Uncles' James and Bobby Purify were a big Motown recording duo in the 1960s, including the top 10 Hit, "I'm Your Puppet."                                                                                                                              |
| 44Jordon Dizon     | He became the first true freshman since 1991 and just the sixth-ever to start a season opener at Colorado, the first to do so at inside linebacker. He lived up to his billing, tying for the team lead with 8 tackles, to go with a caused interception, pass broken up, TD save and third down stop against CSU, and came back with 13 tackles against Washington State. His given Hawaiian name, Kainalu (pronounced kye-ah-na-loo) means "ocean wave." |
| 45Quinn Sypniewski | A nagging turf toe suffered in 2002 eventually required surgery last year, ending his true senior year; but with a redshirt year available, he opted to gear toward this season and figures heavily in the tight end rotation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 51Alex Ligon       | Thrown into a more prominent role when Marques Harris was lost for the season in 2003, he responded with consistent play while learning all the nuances. Now seasoned and bigger (up 15 pounds), he is coming into his own; he had three sacks against Washington State, the first Buff to have that many since 2000, and claimed Big 12 defensive player-of-the-week accolades.                                                                           |
| 52Derek Stemrich   | He's missed the last two spring practices due to knee surgeries, and he still is hampered by soreness at times. He can play guard and center, and he'll likely rotate in and out of the lineup to save wear and tear on the knee.                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 58Mark Fenton      | He got the attention of the coaching staff during CU's 2002 Alamo Bowl practices, as that's when he first got an extensive look at the position. CU's had a long line of all-conference centers, and he's just a sophomore.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 59Greg Pace        | He approached long snapping like a financial analyst plots strategies; he started attending special team camps as a prep, and through hard work and dedication, was awarded a scholarship this fall. He plays no other position.                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 60Matt McChesney   | He can and will play both tackle and (rush) end, something he's done most of his CU career. He and fellow D-lineman James Garee lead the team in unique tattoos; their arms are worthy of being classified Picassos.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 66Brian Daniels    | He started the most games—9—as a true freshman at CU since Eric Bieniemy started 11 at halfback in 1987; that number also tied for the fourth most starts by a true frosh in school history.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 73Clint O'Neal     | His weight is hovering around 300, his peak as a Buffalo as he's found it difficult to gain and keep it on. He has been as low as 270 pounds during his CU career, but now that he's bulked up, he could be a force on the O-line.                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 74Sam Wilder       | He had an outstanding year at DT in 2002, but was shifted to offense a week into '03 fall camp. Though he won a starting tackle job just 10 days after making the transition, he still suffered the expected growing pains over the course of the year. But now, a year later, he's one of the anchors of the O-line who should contend for honors.                                                                                                        |
| 78Terrance Barreau | He has proven versatile in practice, shining at both guard and center. He transferred to CU from the U.S. Air Force Academy where he played for Fisher DeBerry; he alluded at a banquet to Barnett that CU was getting a good one.                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 79Gary Moore       | Has played both guard and tackle during his CU career and thus could see time at both. His physique has been completely overhauled, as he's down between 315-320 pounds, some 50-60 pounds lighter than his true freshman year. An accomplished singer, he sang God Bless America the first home game following 9/11.                                                                                                                                      |
| 82James Garee      | Garee weighed 205 when he signed with Colorado in the winter of 2001, and he's progressively bulked up to 265. He was named a starter for the '03 Big 12 opener and has a lock on the spot, as he is an all-Big 12 candidate.                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 82Evan Judge       | He had a tremendous spring, and always seems to have a big play every scrimmage. Originally a walk-on, he was rewarded with a scholarship a year ago and worked hard to crack the starting rotation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 86Jesse Wallace    | He played a lot as a junior after blooming a bit as a sophomore, is now a regular in the rotation and has the confidence of the quarterbacks as he seems to grab on to anything thrown his way.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 89Joe Klopfenstein | "Klop" enjoyed a fine breakout season in '03, and returns as one of the top tight ends in the Big 12 Conference. He runs well, has honed his blocking skills, and has great hands as he is a favorite target of the quarterbacks.                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 93Vaka Manupuna    | Take your pick: blossomed, developed, matured, ripened, come of age. A spot player as a sophomore while coping with his mother's death back in Hawaii, he's battling for a starting spot as a junior and will be in the rotation regardless. He had his first career sack against Washington State.                                                                                                                                                        |
| 98Brandon Dabdoub  | He didn't get a chance to defend his team bench press title (442 pounds in 2003), as he suffered a torn pec muscle in winter conditioning. A second-team freshman Sporting News All-American in 2001, he is interested in Broadcast journalism off the field: he interned this past summer at Fox Sports Net Rocky Mountain in Denver.                                                                                                              |

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 102 times in 155 tries that the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 66 percent of the time). CU opened strong in this area in 2003, as the Buffs scored twice in as many tries in the season opener against Colorado State, registering a TD at the end of the first half and the game-winning score at the end of the game—CU's first in the two-minute drill since 1999. Lo and behold, the Buffs did it again in the offense the following week, putting the game winning score on the board with 2:15 left against UCLA. CU also had a game-tying field goal to send the Kansas game into overtime and overall, was 5-of-8 for 2003. The Buffs were just 1-of-4 in 2002, scoring a TD in the first half against Texas Tech, and were 5-of-9 in 2001 and 6-for-10 in the drill in 2000, when it posted a 3-8 record. One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

STAT SHOTS

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 275-10-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 199-3 with 35-plus points and 184-2 with 36-plus, 160-1 with 38-plus and 105-0 with 43 or more tallies. The three losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980) and Stanford (41-37 in 1993). Colorado has played 1,064 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 7-12-1 in its last 20 games against top five teams (dating back to 1989) and is 13-24-2 against top 10 schools and 40-37-2 against all ranked teams in the same time frame.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 88 of its last 184 games, posting an 82-5-1 record. The losses were at Stanford, 41-37 in 1993, to Missouri in Boulder in 1997, 41-31, and twice to Nebraska (in Boulder in 1999, 33-30, in overtime; and 34-32 at Lincoln in 2000) and at Baylor in 2003 (42-30). The tie was a 31-31 affair with Tennessee in the 1990 Disneyland Pigskin Classic. The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 135 of these 184 games, dating to the start of 1989, going 109-24-2 (CU is 18-29-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed only 293 touchdowns in the last 582 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 (dating back to 1988; the other 289 times have yielded 150 field goals as well as 139 non-scores). In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 25% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 50% of the time, which are astonishing numbers.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 58 touchdowns in 146 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 79 scores overall, meaning 67 non-scores). In 2003, the opponent had 18 scores (14 TDs, 4 FG) out of 32 drives started in plus territory, similar to 2002, when opponents had just 18 scores (14 TD, 4 FG) on 33 drives started inside CU territory, and had 11 TDs in 24 instances in 2001. In '04, opponents are 0-of-3 to date.
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards total offense per game figure in 38 of its last 82 contests (four times in 2003, five times in 2002), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 135 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 74 times (55 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 38 of the 135 games since the '93 season opener (28%)... and remember CU has played 60 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ In 2003, the Buff defense was practically in an all or nothing mode. The opponent ran 866 plays, with 370 going for five yards or more (43%) and 300 for zero or minus yardage (35%). Ironically, it was almost the same for the Buffs: CU ran 887 plays, 346 for five-plus yards (39%) and 321 for zero or minus yards (36%).
- ➔ Colorado had seven touchdowns by returns in 2001 (4 interception, 2 punt, 1 fumble), a school record; but guess what? The 2002 team matched it (3 fumble, 2 interception, 2 punt). In 2004, the Buffs already have three and counting; dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, and including the eight total in 2002 (one came in the bowl), and one in '03, the Buffs have 31 scores by return in their last 60 games. And since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 51 scores by return in 111 games (44 regular season, seven bowl), or one almost every two games.
- ➔ CU has allowed a touchdown pass in 20 straight games, and had had one in 12 straight itself until coming to an end in the opener vs. CSU.
- ➔ 200/200. The last time Colorado rushed and passed for over 200 yards was against Missouri in 2002. The Buffs have accomplished the 200 "double-double" eight times in the last 63 games, and have recorded the feat 29 times in their last 134 games (dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 29-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only eight times in its previous 140 games.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 45-29-1 in its last 75 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (42-22 in the last 64, including an 19-10 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 86-26-3 in its last 115 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 53-19-3 in conference games. CU was 0-2 on artificial surfaces in 2003 but is 1-0 so far in 2004.
- ➔ Colorado has allowed 303 quarterback sacks since the start of the 1993 season (including bowls), with the offensive line responsible for 182 of those (the others were allowed by tight ends/receivers/backs or were coverage sacks). That's 303 sacks allowed for 4,394 pass plays called, or one for every 14.5 pass attempts. And combined with this sack statistic is that fact that CU quarterbacks have thrown just 128 interceptions in 4,091 attempts in the same span, or an interception rate of just 3.13 percent (one every 32.0 passes).
- ➔ The Buffs were an enigma on third down defensively in 2003. While opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per.
- ➔ Quick Strike. Colorado has made a habit of scoring quickly the past two seasons. In 2003, CU had 15 scoring drives, 13 for touchdowns, under 2:00 in length (out of 50 total). In fact, eight of those took under 1:00 and three plays or less, though four covered 77 yards or more. In the season opener against CSU, three were a combined 237 yards in length (80, 77, 80) and took 56, 51 and 52 seconds, respectively (and throw in a fourth drive—the game-winner—that took 1:10 and covered 75 yards). In 2002, the Buffs had 23 out of 54 scoring drives take less than two minutes, including 18 TD marches, with 11 of those drives 56 yards or longer, and 16 of CU's scoring drives were four plays or less. It's completely different to date in '04, as all six scoring drives through two games have taken 3:08 or longer.
- ➔ Colorado is 81-30-3 in its last 114 league games, and has the ninth fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder on Sept. 25, 1993, opponents are just 2-of-59 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 last Sept. 6 (WSU converted on a 3rd-and-23, picking up 24 on a pass play). The CU offense has converted 4-of-46 times when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ CU has scored in 6 of 8 quarters in 2004 after scoring in 33 of 48 quarters in 2003 (and the one OT period), and scored in 39 of 56 quarters in '02 (and in one of two overtime sessions). In the Barnett Era, the Buffs have scored in 180 of 256 quarters (70 percent), as well as in four of five overtime periods. All tolled, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 406 of its last 532 quarters (77%).

SAFELY AHEAD The Buffaloes have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 28 years. Going back to start of the 1976 season (331 games), Colorado has blown a two-or-more score lead only 12 times, losing nine and tying three. Colorado has lost only 15 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses have been to Wisconsin in the Alamo Bowl (losing 31-28 in overtime after leading 28-21 late in the game), to Colorado State in the '02 opener (19-14 after briefly leading 14-13 with 9:39 left), and two games in 2000: to Colorado State in the opener (losing 28-24 after leading 24-14) and at Nebraska (lost 34-32 on a field goal at the final gun after leading 24-21 early in the fourth and 32-31 with 47 seconds left). In conference play, only Kansas (1984), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001) and Oklahoma State (1997) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 27 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came last year against UCLA and Kansas.
- Colorado has won 76 of its last 80 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead (4 in a row); a 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 19-game winning streak in such situations (and one of 26 straight on the road), and two games later, Texas Tech mustered a similar comeback. A streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).

DOMINATION Colorado has only 17 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon: to BYU (1988 Freedom Bowl), Stanford (1991), Missouri (1997), Kansas (1998), CSU, Washington and Texas Tech (1999), CSU, Texas A&M and Kansas (2000), Fresno State (2001), CSU and Wisconsin (2002), and Washington State and Baylor this year. BYU reappeared in the '88 final rankings; Stanford went 7-1 after CU to crack the top 20; in '97, MU almost beat Nebraska the following week and made its way into polls for the first time in 14 seasons; CSU appeared at No. 24 after defeating CU in '99; in '01, Fresno toppled No. 10 Oregon State the next week and zoomed into the rankings; in '02, CSU climbed as high as No. 13; and WSU cracked the polls after its win in Boulder in 2003. The Buffs are 69-14-2 in their last 85 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 100-16-2 in the last 118. The Buffs are 138-54-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (7-7 in bowls); 95-38-3 in Big 8/12 games (including two league title games) and 43-16-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 23 occasions. It's happened six times over the last four seasons, and amazingly, three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TBs Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. Colorado is 18-5 in games when this occurs. A game-by-game look at this unique accomplishment can be found on page 171 of the 2004 CU football media guide.

SPECIAL TEAMS INVITE How important does the coaching staff view special teams? Barnett started this tradition while at Northwestern, and has continued it at CU: the coaches of the four major special team units (punt, punt return, kickoff and kickoff return) personally hand out invitations to the players to attend the inaugural meetings of those units during camp. While some starters appear on all units, all feature traditional role players who have found a home with dedication to special teams work.

IN-SEASON BIRTHDAYS Here's the list of those coaches and players who have birthdays to celebrate during the 2004 season, including camp (*—denotes on a game day):

PLAYING ON SUNDAY There are 26 Colorado Buffaloes on 2004 National Football League opening day rosters (as of Sept. 13); in 2003, CU had 29 players in the NFL, tied for second most in the Big 12 behind Texas A&M (33). Colorado was 13th nationally for the most produced, as Florida and Notre Dame led with 40 (CU was 10th in 2002, also with 29). The Buffs had 31 report to camps this past summer, down from 42 in 2003 (which had led the Big 12 Conference). CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was third in 2000 and 2001 and second in 2002 and 2003. Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). The 2004 list (2R—denotes second-year rookie, *—denotes on practice squad):

AND IN CANADA? For the second straight year, no Buffaloes are playing in the Canadian Football League this summer.

DECADE NUMBERS: Colorado had 46 players drafted between 1993 and 2002, the seventh most in the nation and second most in the Big 12. Tennessee led the way with 60, followed by Florida State (58), Nebraska (53), Ohio State (52), Florida (48), Miami, Fla. (47) and then Colorado.

NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Fauria, Irwin, Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 10 years later.

OL PIPELINE In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 17 of 23 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

THE AVERAGE BUFF The 104 players on the 2004 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of Aug. 29) were 7,646 inches in height and weighed 23,205 pounds, or an average of 6-1½, 223 pounds per player (very similar to last four averages: 6-2¼, 226 in 2003, 6-2¼, 227 in 2002 and 6-2, 227 in both 2000 and 2001). The 7,646 inches translate roughly into 637 feet or 212 yards (or a pro's 8-iron at The International at Castle Pines), while the weight of 23,205 pounds is about the equivalent of 2,774 gallons of water (at room temperature), just a little more than is required to produce four brand new tires (say what?). Here's a look at position-by-position averages; the biggest changes over a year ago are that the fullbacks are eight pounds heavier and two inches taller on average, while the cornerbacks are two inches shorter and seven pounds lighter (LW—denotes lettermen):

The most popular letter to begin surnames are the letters C (12 each), followed by W (10), H (9) and then G and S (8); three last names are similar, but none are brothers (Jones, Sanders, Washington). The most popular first names are DANIEL (Goettsch, Goetz, Jolly, Sanders) and JOHN (Guydon, Martin, Torp). The more unique ones include Akarika, Dusty, McKenzie, Thaddaeus and Vaka.

AROUND THE NATION Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (76 percent of the entire roster—79 of 104 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 39, California 21, Texas 19, Hawai'i 4, Iowa 3, Louisiana 3, Illinois 2, Michigan 2, Tennessee 2, Alabama 1, Arizona 1, Kansas 1, Minnesota 1, Missouri 1, Nebraska 1, Oklahoma 1 and Oregon 1. That's 17 states plus Canada (one player) that produced the make-up of this year's team.

2004 TEAM MAKEUP The 104 players listed on the opening roster as of August 29 breaks down into 12 seniors, 25 juniors, 30 sophomores and 37 freshmen (including 13 redshirt frosh). An expanded breakdown:

SENIOR ANALYSIS Colorado has 12 seniors on its roster, with all but three in the two-deep on the depth chart as the season opens: OG Terrance Barreau, DT Brandon Dabdoub, DL Matt McChesney, WR Ron Monteilh, TB Bobby Purify, OG Derek Stemrich, TE Quinn Sypniewski, TE Jesse Wallace and OT Sam Wilder. WR Mike Duren is in the receiver rotation and might return kicks, while DT McKenzie Tilmon is listed third at nose tackle. The 12th senior, PK J.T. Eberly, is out for the season with a torn Achilles tendon.

GRADUATION STAT(U)S There are 12 seniors on the Colorado roster, one of whom graduated last Friday (August 7): TE Quinn Sypniewski (journalism/news-editorial). Six others are on the course for this December: DT Brandon Dabdoub (communication), WR Mike Duren (communication), PK J.T. Eberly (business/double major in finance and marketing), TB Bobby Purify (sociology), OL Derek Stemrich (architecture) and OT Sam Wilder (economics). Four others are set to march next May: OL Terrance Barreau (business/finance), WR Ron Monteilh (economics), DT Matt McChesney (history) and TE Jesse Wallace (double major in communication and political science). The 12th, DT McKenzie Tilmon (ethnic studies), will likely be done in December '05.

► NOTE: Over the last two years, Colorado has had 51 of its 56 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to a 91.1 percent rate (with three of the five non-grads still in school and looking to all graduate by next May). The 2002 and 2003 rates won't be calculated by the NCAA for a couple of years yet, but don't look for the same numbers; the NCAA doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate (i.e., Wayne Lucier in '02), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. Take for example the most recent figure released, for the '96 freshmen class: CU's figure was 53 percent (10 of 19; four transferred, while four others pursued professional football starting their last semesters. Six of the nine left in good academic standing, meaning they were on course to graduate; and six transfers into the program, five of which graduated, do not count at all. Simply allowing for transfers to count both ways, CU's rate rises to 76 percent).

TOP CONDITIONED BUFFS The top Buffaloes from spring and summer testing; the only test prior to camp was the 300-yard shuttle, as the other results are from the spring (true freshmen won't be tested until next spring):

300-Yard Shuttle: J.J. Billingsley 44.16, Blake Mackey 44.54, Stephone Robinson 44.71, Marcus Gonzales 44.75, Tom Hubbard 44.89.

Bench Press: Brandon Dabdoub 428, Jack Tipton 420, Derek Stemrich 411, Joe Klopfenstein 409, Sam Wilder 399.

40-Yard Dash: Terrence Wheatley 4.38, Blake Mackey 4.39, Vance Washington 4.47 (Jeremy Bloom is a sub 4.4 as well, but did not test).

Power Clean: James Garee 335, Akarika Dawn 330, Joe Klopfenstein 325, five tied at 315.

Vertical Jump: Vance Washington 41-¼, Blake Mackey 39-0, Terrence Wheatley 38, Joe Klopfenstein 36-½.

Champions: Vance Washington (Speed/RB-DB-WR-K/P-QB); Joe Klopfenstein (Explosion/TE-FB-LB-DS); James Garee (Power/OL-DL).

STREAKING Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 17 major schools. The list: 5—Air Force, Missouri; 4—San Jose State; 3—Iowa State, Kansas, Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Colorado State, Iowa, Northeast Louisiana, Notre Dame, Oklahoma State, Oregon State, UCLA, Texas A&M and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by Louisiana State (4) and Michigan State and Oklahoma (3 each).

SCORING STREAKS The Buffs have scored in a school record 186 consecutive games (dating back to 1988, the second longest streak in the Big 12 behind Texas), last being shutout on Nov. 12, 1988 at Nebraska (7-0). CU has scored in 101 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986 in a game where the Sooners did not attempt a single pass). The Buffs have scored in 74 consecutive road games (95 including neutral sites). The Buffs have scored in 116 straight league games (all 66 in Big 12 play, including the 2001 and 2002 title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska). CU has scored in 110 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at home over the course of the last 239 games (all the way back to 1963). CU has been shutout just seven times in its last 418 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only four schools have done it: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan. Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through games of September 11): Texas 280, Colorado 186, Nebraska 104, Kansas State 95, Texas Tech 82, Oklahoma 70, Oklahoma State 41, Kansas 17, Missouri 15, Baylor 6, Iowa State 5, Texas A&M 4. CU was the last team to shutout Kansas State (12-0 in 1996).

SCORING STREAKS II The school record 186 consecutive games in which Colorado has scored is the eighth longest active streak in the nation. The list of the 11 Division I-A schools that have scored in every game since at least the start of the 1993 season, through games of September 11:

OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 62-21 in its last 83 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 62-12 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 55-15-1 in its last 71 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 17-8 since 1986 against teams ranked between Nos. 20 and 25 in the AP poll (8-2 in the last 10; five of the last six);
- ❑ Colorado is 60-9-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (13-2 last 15; 69-42-2 with 50,000-plus);
- ❑ Colorado is 63-24-2 in games where the starting quarterback had the letter "K" in his first or last name (dating to 1992: Kordell Stewart, Duke Tobin, Koy Detmer, Mike Moschetti, Joel Klatt, Erik Greenberg).

SCHEDULE HISTORY CU's 2003 schedule included 10 bowl teams, meaning the Buffs have played 42 bowl teams over the last five seasons. The formula to calculate schedule strength by the NCAA calls for combined record of all opponents, minus wins against non-Division I teams and the results (wins & losses) against the school the research is figured for. Colorado's 12 opponents in 2003 under this formula posted an 84-57 log, a .596 winning percentage, making it the seventh toughest schedule in school history. In fact, CU's last four schedules all rank in the top nine in CU annals, with the 2004 slate more than likely to join them. The 1997 schedule holds down the No. 1 slot (.669), with the 1971 slate second at a .641 percentage. That schedule included national champion Nebraska (13-0), No. 2 Oklahoma (11-1), No. 11 Louisiana State (9-3) and Iowa State (8-4). The 1990 Buffaloes remain one of just two teams (with Penn State in '82) to have won national championships while playing the nation's toughest schedule; opponents that season were 72-43-3 (.623), Colorado's fifth toughest all-time. The 1997 team played eight games against teams with winning records, with all eight having won at least seven games (five with nine-plus wins and four won 10 or more), and seven went to bowls, including the eventual co-national champions, Nebraska (13-0) and Michigan (12-0). CU also faced seven bowl teams in both 2000 and 2001, when it played the NCAA's fourth and second toughest schedules.

OPPONENTS IN 2004 Colorado has nine bowl teams on its 2004 schedule, the third straight year CU has that many on the slate. This year's 11 foes combined for an 87-56 record in 2003, a winning percentage of 60.8; five teams won 10 or more games (Washington State, North Texas, Texas, Kansas State and Nebraska), while only three did not have a winning record (Iowa State, Texas A&M and Kansas). CU's been a mainstay near the top of the toughest schedule standings this century, as the Buffs played the nation's 13th toughest schedule last year, after playing the 12th hardest in 2002, the fourth in 2001 and second in 2000. The roll call of 2004 opponents and their 2003 records: Colorado State (7-6), Washington State (10-3), North Texas (10-3), Missouri (8-5), Oklahoma State (9-4), Iowa State (2-10), Texas A&M (4-8), Texas (10-3), Kansas (6-7), Kansas State (11-4) and Nebraska (10-3).

NO CREAMPUFFS HERE Colorado has the eighth best record in college football since the start of 1989 season (127-53-4). Of these 184 games, Colorado has played 79 ranked teams (43%), the fourth most in the nation during this time frame, with another 24 games against teams receiving significant (10 or more) votes. CU is 40-37-2 against ranked teams during this period (including a 13-15 record on the road); CU is also 87-16-2 against unranked teams. The schedule is also consistent: CU has played the fourth most games against ranked teams the last 10-plus years (59 of its last 134 contests), going 3-3 in 1993, 5-1 in 1994, 5-2 in 1995, 2-2 in 1996, 1-5 in 1997, 3-3 in 1998, 2-2 in 1999, 0-5 in 2000, 5-2 in 2001, 2-3 in 2002 and 2-3 in 2003. NOTE: In 1990, CU became only the second team in NCAA history to win the national championship after playing the nation's toughest schedule (opponents won 63% of their games; Penn State was the first to accomplish the feat, in 1982). CU also played the nation's toughest (it's toughest-ever) in 1997: opponents won 67% of their games.

'03 BOWL TEAMS Research by the Oklahoma SID office shows that the Buffaloes and Sooners have the most 2003 bowl teams on their '04 schedules with nine. Nine other schools will play eight, including Kansas and Texas Tech from the Big 12, along with Arizona, Arizona State, Miami-Fla., North Carolina, Northwestern, Notre Dame and Penn State.

KEY: ◆—Big 12 Conference game; ◆—Mountain West Conference game; ◆—Pacific 10 Conference game; ◆—Sun Belt Conference game.

HISTORICALLY Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 115th season of competition with an all-time record of 637-391-36 in 1,064 games. CU currently stands 15th on the all-time win list and is 21st in all-time winning percentage (.616). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 272-129-10 in 80-plus seasons on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 234-198-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB Colorado is 40-15 in its last 55 games played in September, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule the Buffs annually play, and is 41-16-2 in its last 59 October games. Colorado is 44-16-1 in its last 61 November games, including 15 straight wins between 1991 and 1996; CU is 40-8 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, and is 4-8-1 against NU in turkey month). CU is 5-3 in December games since 1993, and with this year's win over CSU, is 2-2-1 in the only August games in its history.

OVERTIME Colorado became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime:

RANKED “UNDEFEATEDS” FALL AT FOLSOM Nine ranked, undefeated teams have lost their “0” in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas State in 1992, which came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A&M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No.3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last the 14 seasons, which is the seventh most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Miami (9), Nebraska (8) and Oklahoma (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason “hardware” includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu, Ray Guy, Rimington and Hendricks awards. CRADLE OF COACHES There are five current head coaches in Division I college football who have had assistant coaching stints at the University of Colorado. The most obvious is Gary Barnett, who was an assistant at CU from 1984-91 and was head coach at Northwestern from 1992-98. Others include: Gerry DiNardo, Vanderbilt/LSU and now of Indiana (at Colorado from 1982-89); Les Miles, Oklahoma State (1982-86), Gregg Brandon, Bowling Green (1999-2000) and Karl Dorrell, UCLA (1992-93, 1995-97). In 2003, Mike Hankwitz, served as Arizona's interim head coach for the last two months of the season; he was at CU for 10 years (1985-94). Lou Tepper (1983-87) was head coach at Illinois for five years and is now the head man at Edinboro (Pa.) State. All were assistants under Bill McCartney, CU's all-time winningest head coach (93-55-5 between 1982-94). And former Buff OG Peter Shinnick, is a sixth-year head coach at a small college in Minnesota. Five others who assisted under McCartney have also worked as head coaches: Jim Caldwell, Wake Forest (at CU from 1982-84), Steve Logan, East Carolina (1985-86), Rick Neuheisel, at CU and Washington (1994), Bob Simmons, Oklahoma State (1988-94) and Ron Vanderlinden, Maryland (1983-91). Tom Cable (1998-99) was head coach for four seasons at Idaho, as he coached under Rick Neuheisel and Barnett. Dorrell is the only one above to coach as an assistant under both McCartney and Neuheisel.

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 15 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing two of the times, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in 2003). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 10 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 16 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2004: Florida State 16, Michigan 16, Ohio State 16, Miami, Fla. 15, Tennessee 15, Nebraska 14, Notre Dame 13, Penn State 13, Colorado 12, Alabama 12.

CUMULATIVE RANKINGS In the 1990s, the Buffaloes were the Associated Press' consensus No. 10 team, with only Nebraska ranked higher (No. 3) from the Big 12 Conference.

LONG STAY Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll

MOST TOP 5 FINISHES (1989-2003): Florida State 12, Miami 8, Nebraska 5, COLORADO 4, Tennessee 4, Alabama 3, Florida 3, Notre Dame 3, Ohio State 3.

MOST TOP 10 FINISHES (1989-2003): Florida State 12, Florida 10, Miami 9, Michigan 8, Nebraska 8, Tennessee 8, COLORADO 6, Kansas State 6, Ohio State 6, Alabama 5.

AND THE RETURN CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period ('97-98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

15 OUT OF 16 Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, the second longest active streak in the nation behind Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with a vengeance as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). CU has defeated at least two in nine of the last 11 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND Colorado has now had 113 of its last 172 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (65.7 percent). That includes two games this year, seven games in 2003, 12 in 2002, 10 games in 2001, plus 7 in 2000, 9 in both 1998 and 1999, 10 in 1996 and 1997. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, 76 of CU's 99 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, an impressive 77 percent. Nationally, CU is likely in the top 10 in national/regional appearances in this time frame, but official records are not tracked.

CARRYING THE TV TORCH Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the conference some revenue. Here are the counts (and records) of Big 12 schools since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 24 (13-10-1), Texas 20 (6-12-2), Nebraska 12 (8-4), Oklahoma 12 (6-6), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 11 (0-11), Baylor 9 (2-7), Missouri 9 (1-8), Iowa State 7 (0-7), Kansas 6 (0-6), Oklahoma State 5 (0-5) and Kansas State 2 (1-1).

FOLSOM FIELD ACCOLADE The Sports Turf Management Association named Folsom Field as its 2002 "Football Field of the Year," the first time CU has ever earned this prestigious award. Jason DePaepe, CU's athletic turf manager, officially accepted the award in San Antonio. Those who judge the competition were impressed with DePaepe and his staff's aggressive maintenance program, as the field is easily one of the best in college football, if not all sports.

BUFF BLEMISHES Colorado has inflicted a few blemishes on some of the teams who had the best home records in the 1990s. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s (wins in 1991 and 1995 and a tie in 1993). The Buffs added to their mystique by returning to A & M in 2000 and snapping the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started later in the 1996 season (after losses to CU then Texas Tech). And in 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29 game span.

16/19 The Buffs have 16 winning (regular) seasons in the last 19 years, matched only by a handful of schools across the nation. The only exceptions came in 1997, 2000 and 2003; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 15 of the previous 19 years, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000 and last year.

OFFENSE/DEFENSE Through the years, there are always a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball, and DT/OL John Guydon could do both this year. The last to try this was DT Sam Wilder, who caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play (at Missouri in 2000). CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (though a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). In the last 12 years, several Buffs have played on both sides of the ball; in 1998 OG Brad Bedell played some goal-line defense. That's happened often at CU, having one of the O-linemen come over to defense for goal line or short yardage defense—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole and OT Melvin Thomas all did the same in the mid-90s. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was WR Michael Westbrook, who played four snaps at strong safety against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU, NOT UC A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," says CU historian Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four listed above—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO" As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

QUARTERBACK HISTORY LESSON The competition for the starting quarterback job in 2003 was only the fourth real battle in just over a decade at Colorado. The last was in 2000, when the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter on Aug. 27; four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and never relinquished the role. There was no battle for starting quarterback in 1999, as senior Mike Moschetti was entrenched as the starter. However, the battle for the starting job in 1998 was the first in some six years; Moschetti, junior Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won on Aug. 24, when then-head coach Rick Neuheisel named him as the starter (Weisinger subsequently asked for and received a release from his scholarship and transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety). Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that has become a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knappe on occasion after Knappe wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best example of this came just last year in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over for an injured Craig Ochs for the second half of the season, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

CHART-MANIA The below charts offer a look at what Colorado has accomplished over the last 19 football seasons, through all games of 2003 (includes bowls; those schools who have been members of Division I-A all 19 years):
