College soccer Buffs let 2-0 lead melt away, fall to A&M

Camera staff report
Monday, October 15, 2007

COLLEGE STATION — The Colorado soccer team saw a 2-0 lead over No. 5 Texas A&M melt away Sunday, as the Aggies responded with four second-half goals to take a 4-2 win.

Allison Kidd gave the Buffs the lead with a goal in the 28th minute, coming after the Buffs had just missed on a couple of earlier chances.

CU then bumped the lead to 2-0 when Nikki Keller sent a pass to Nikki Marshall, who split two defenders, then beat Aggie goalie Kristin Arnold with a shot to the lower left corner of the goal.

Marshall's goal was her eighty of the season, and also gave her at least one goal in four consecutive games, tying her CU record in that department.

The 2-0 lead, though, didn't hold after the half.

The Aggies cut the lead in the 66th minute on a goal from Melissa Garey, then tied the game four minutes later on a score from Ashlee Pistorius.

In the 73rd minute, A&M took the lead on a corner kick sent in by Pistorius. The crossed ball found the head of Amber Gnatzig in the middle of the pack, headed the ball in to the goal. The Aggies scored one more goal, from Rachel Shipley, putting the final score at 4-2.

The Buffs will return to Big 12 action next weekend in Boulder, as they take on Kansas on Friday at 3 p.m. and Missouri on Sunday at noon. Senior Day will be held before the Missouri game, with the Buffaloes honoring seniors Brittany Dornseif and Allison Kidd.
