FOR STARTERS (individual): Richard Roby enters the Baylor game in third place on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,890 career points and fifth on the Big 12 all-time list. Roby trails Cliff Meely by 50 points for second place and Donnie Boyce by 105 points, who hails at the top. With at least five games left in the season (four conference games, one tournament game), Roby needs to average 21.0 ppg. to tie Boyce • Marcus King-Stockton tied a career-best four blocked shots at Missouri. On the season, he has a personal-best 33 ranking seventh all-time in that category with 95 • Roby has 99 career games (out of 113) in scoring double figures • Three players have started every game (Roby, Hall, Higgins) with 26. If all three continue the trend, it will be the first time since 1984-85 that three players started the entire season. Roby is the last freshman to start every game in a season (30, 2004-05) • Hall has a career-best 99 rebounds, 44 steals, 43 3-pointers in a single-season • Roby and Hall (22nd overall w/ 1,067 pts.) are the first CU 1,000-point tandem since 2003-04 when the Buffs had four players over 1k (Stephane Pelle, Michel Morandais, David Harrison, Blair Wilson) • Roby ranks first all-time with 110 career starts • Hall ranks first in conference-only FG percentage (.541) • For the first time in school history five players have at least 20 made 3-pointers in a season: Marcus Hall (43), Richard Roby (39), Levi Knutson (24), Cory Higgins (23) and Xavier Silas (20).

FOR STARTERS (team): CU did not attempt a single free throw at Mizzou last Saturday. It's the fewest in a game since the Buffs went 0-for-1 at Iowa State on Jan. 14, 1987.

the field, their second time over 60 percent in Big 12 play (61.7% at Texas A&M).

CU vs. BAYLOR: Colorado leads the head-to-head series 13-7 dating back to 1946 and hold a 9-4 edge in Big 12 play. Baylor took a 97-83 winner in Waco last Jan. 30, however, the Buffs have won five of the last seven games since 2002. CU is 6-0 (5-0 in conference play) at the Coors Events Center against the Bears.

LAST GAME REVIEW: Marcus Hall scored a game-high 17 points and Richard Roby added 14, however the Missouri Tigers held on for 60-53 victory. Colorado was held without a free-throw attempt for the first time in school history. The Buffaloes have lost nine of 10 and have lost 19 straight conference road games, including an 0-6 record this season.

Colorado was whistled for just 12 fouls and Missouri 11, with the Tigers going 4-for-9 from the line. Reserve Leo Lyons had 10 rebounds and seven points for Missouri, which recovered after squandering all but two points of an 18-point cushion at 40-22 early in the second half. Colorado cut the gap to 50-48 when Roby scored from the baseline with 4:02 to go, but Missouri scored eight of the next 10 points.

RISING FROSH: Aside from Hall and Roby dominating the headlines, freshman Cory Higgins looks to have a bright future in black and gold. In his 12 Big 12 Conference games, Higgins ranks first from the free throw line (.824) and in steals (16); second in rebounding at 4.5 rpg., third in scoring 9.6 ppg., and 3-pointers (13).

In 10 wins: Roby: 17.0 ppg., 6.7 rpg.;; Hall: 14.4 ppg., 3.1 rpg., 3.4 apg.;; Silas 10.7 ppg., 3.9 rpg.

HALL or ROBY: Through 26 games, Richard Roby and Marcus Hall have led the majority of games in scoring. Roby has led 13 times (one shared), Hall 10 times (one shared). Cory Higgins has done it in back-to-back games (at Texas A&M, Nebraska). Xavier Silas (24 pts. vs. Florida A&M) has performed it once. In his 13 games, Roby averages 20.4 ppg., while Hall is 17.8 ppg. over his 10 games.

3rd ALL-TIME & CLIMBING: Richard Roby enters tonight's game in third place with 1,890 career points. Roby trails Cliff Meely for second place just 50 points away. Roby is 105 points from Donnie Boyce, who hails at the top. With at least five games left in the season, Roby needs to average 19.8 ppg. to tie Boyce.

1. Donnie Boyce 1,995 18.8 1991-95
2. Cliff Meely *1,940 24.3 1969-71
3. Richard Roby 1,890 16.7 20004-pre.

* played three years

FT SHOOTING: In recent years, CU was not a very good free throw shooting team. This year, the Buffaloes are shooting almost 70 percent (.695), a feat only accomplished once in the last 12 years (2000-01, .715).

FOUR IN A ROW? - Richard Roby is on the verge of becoming only the third player in school history to lead the team in scoring four consecutive seasons. From 2004-05 (16.0 ppg.), 2005-06 (17.0) through last year (17.3), Roby has made it three straight. Here are the others:

Donnie Boyce	1991-95	4-straight
Shawn Vandiver	*1988-91	3-straight
Emmett Lewis	1975-79	4-straight
Cliff Meely	*1968-71	3-straight
Pat Frink	^1964-65, '66-68	(3 of 4 years)

* - Played only three years

^ - did not play 1965-66 season

IRON MAN: Marcus Hall has six games this season playing all 40 minutes. Hall ranks second in the Big 12 Conference behind Martin Zeno of Texas Tech, who has nine 40-minute games (6 conference and 3 non-conference). Hall has three straight Big 12 games (KU, at OSU, OU) and three straight non-conference games (at Air Force, Stanford, at Wyoming).

CU AOW: Richard Roby has four honors during the 2007-08 season tying him for fourth all-time in single-year Athlete of the Week honors. Roby has 11 honors his career. Roby's 11 career honors moves him out of a tie with Shaun Vandiver for the most career honors for men's basketball players and into a tie for second place on the all-time list with current track and cross country standout Jenny Barringer. Adam Goucher, a former track and cross country standout holds the record with 14.

BUFF BITS: Hall's consecutive playing streak ended at 163:58 dating back to the Iowa State game on Jan. 29. It's his second consecutive streak of 160 minutes. Hall played 161 consecutive minutes from Nov. 29-Dec. 22 • Richard Roby's streak of 15 consecutive games of double figures came to an end at KU (his longest string of games during his four-year career) • Levi Knutson scored eight points off the bench vs. OU matching his Big 12 high set in home win over Nebraska • Cory Higgins had a season-best five steals, four in the first half at Iowa State. His five steals were a CU high in the 12-year conference history vs. the Cyclones • Roby's season-best 14 rebounds against Mizzou tied his output of 14 boards earlier this season against New Orleans; his 13 defensive vs. Missouri was a career-high • Richard Roby has tallied double-figures 23 of 26 games, Marcus Hall 19 of 26 games • Hall, Higgins and Roby have started every game (26) • Hall, Higgins, Knutson and Thorne II are the only players with more assists than turnovers • For the first time in school history, CU beat both Oklahoma and Nebraska at home in football AND basketball in the same year • Commissioners Honor Roll (3.0 or better): Freshman Levi Knutson (business), Redshirt sophomore Casey Crawford (political science) • Jermyl Jackson-Wilson was named one of 12 Big 12 Conference student-athletes to the 2007-08 Winter Sports Good Works Team in February.

CU DURING BIG 12 INCEPTION: After 26 games, CU not only has won more games this season than last, but their 3-point field goal percentage, free throw shooting and limiting their turnovers per game rank near the top over the last 12 years.

3-POINT STREAK: Dating back to the 2001-02 season, CU has made a 3-pointer in 189 consecutive games. Last time they failed to make at least one trey was Jan. 16, 2002 against Iowa State in Boulder. The Buffs won 63-61.

REDSHIRT YEAR: Sophomore forward Jeremy Williams will be redshirted this season and will return next year with three full years of eligibility. He was academically ineligible for the fall semester. Williams averaged 7.7 points and 4.6 rpg. last season with 18 starts.

FUN 'n SUN: For the next two seasons the Buffaloes will be making multiple trips to the Hawaiian Islands. Next season, CU will be making their first-ever trip to the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. In 2009-10, CU will play in the Maui Invitational. Hosted by Division II college Chaminade, and sponsored by EA Sports, the Buffaloes will be one of eight schools participating in the 26th edition of the tournament. Joining CU two years from now will be Arizona, Gonzaga, Louisville, Maryland, Vanderbilt, and Wisconsin.

CU IN THE PRO WORLD: There is a number of CU basketball members with ties to the professional ranks. From head coach Jeff Bzdelik to the five student-athletes.

Coach Bzdelik: Head Coach of the Denver Nuggets (2002-05);

Casey Crawford: father, Steve played with the Boston Red Sox;

Cory Higgins: father, Rod played in the NBA from 1982-95, currently the general manager of the Charlotte Bobcats;

Richard Roby: half-brother of Kenyon Martin (Denver Nuggets);

Xavier Silas: father, James, played professionally for 10 years, eight years with the San Antonio Spurs;

Dwight Thorne II: cousin, Acie Law IV played for the Texas A&M Aggies and great uncle, Ernie Banks played with the Cubs.

TEAM BITS: CU is 1-4 when wearing their gold uniforms • CU scored only 45 points at Kansas, matching their fewest scored against KU at Allen Fieldhouse since Feb. 15, 1992 (82-45) • Against KU (Feb. 2), the Buffaloes converted a season-high nine 3-pointers. The pervious mark was eight three other occasions • Since 1954-55, the Cyclones tied three others for fewest points scored in the first half against CU (15 points) • CU committed a season-low 10 turnovers at Texas A&M and Nebraska • CU shot a season-best 62 percent from the field at Texas A&M. It's the first time CU has shot over 60 percent since making .627 against Mercer in 2005-06, and .611 percent against a Big 12 foe since 2002-03 against Texas A&M. In the same game, the Buffs shot a school second-best from the field in the second half (.773) • CU's 16 rebounds at A&M were the fewest since grabbing 16 against Arkansas State, Mar. 21, 1991 (w, 81-75) • The Buffs played with only seven players against SMU and Tulsa • The Buffs victory at Moby Arena was CU's first in four years and it snapped Colorado State's 24-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents • CU shot a season-high 33 3-pointers at Wyoming, their most since attempting 34 at Nebraska (Feb. 22, 2006) • For the first time since the 1998-99 season, CU won back-to-back road games (at Denver, at Air Force) • The Buffs win at Air Force ended the Falcons' 38-game home winning streak against non-conference foes • CU's 44 points were the fewest allowed by a CU team since a 71-44 win over Tennessee State on Dec. 19, 2003 • CU won three straight games, twice for the first time since 2005-06 when they won nine and five straight games on two separate occasions.

ROSTER CHANGES: In the 2007-08 media guide, senior guard Richard Roby and freshman guard Cory Higgins are listed as #20 and #22, respectively. Both of those numbers are retired (#20 Cliff Meely, 1968-71; #22 by Burdette Haldorson, 1952-55). Roby now wears #23 (the # worn he wore his freshman, sophomore, junior seasons); Higgins has selected #11.

NO NAME JERSEYS: For the first time in many years the 2007-08 Buffaloes will not have their last name on the back of their uniforms. It was an idea always discussed in recent years, but never followed through until head coach Jeff Bzdelik decided that the name on the front is more important than the one on the back.

MEDIA GUIDE CORRECTION: On page 59 of the 2007-08 CU media guide it states that Cory Higgins' father, Rod is the general manager of the Golden State Warriors. In fact, he's the GM with the Charlotte Bobcats.

NATIONAL LETTER OF INTENTS: Head coach Jeff Bzdelik announced the signing of five student-athletes for the 2008-09 season during the NCAA early signing period. They are Javonte Clanton, Austin Dufault, Trey Eckloff, Nate Tomlinson and Toby Veal.

"I couldn't be more pleased with the signing of these five young men," Bzdelik said. "All of them will have a major impact on the future of Colorado Basketball. This is a class filled with quality and depth."

HEAD COACH JEFF BZDELIK

1st Season at Colorado/5th College Season Overall

Jeff Bzdelik, a man synonymous with success on both the professional and college levels in the state of Colorado, was named the 17th men's basketball head coach for the University of Colorado men's basketball program, athletic director Mike Bohn announced April 4, 2007.

Bzdelik (buzz-DEL-ik), 55, comes to Colorado from the United States Air Force Academy, where he guided the Falcons to a 50-16 record (a 75.8 winning percentage) in two seasons from 2005-07. During those two seasons he led the Falcons to a 2005-06 NCAA Tournament and a 2006-07 NIT Final Four appearance.

Bzdelik brings 29 years of coaching experience to the Boulder campus from the collegiate to the professional ranks. He returned to the college game in 2005-06 after 15 seasons as both a coach and scout in the NBA, including two-and-a-half seasons as head coach of the Denver Nuggets.

His two-year win total of 50 victories at the Academy was a school-best in any two-year span of the 51-year history of Air Force basketball, while his 26 victories in 2006-07 was also a school high. He's the only coach to have won at least 24 games in back-to-back seasons. Bzdelik guided the Falcons to a 31-1 home record, including a 15-0 mark in 2005-06 and 16-1 in 2006-07.

In 2005-06, Bzdelik led the Falcons to a 24-7 record and the school's fourth appearance ever in the NCAA Tournament. He also led the Falcons to a 12-4 record and second place finish in the Mountain West Conference. Air Force also capped the season leading the nation for the fourth consecutive season in scoring defense.

Prior to returning to the college ranks with the Air Force Academy, Bzdelik was the Denver Nuggets head coach for two-and-a-half seasons (2002-2005). He was named head coach in August of 2002 after spending one year as a scout for the Nuggets. Bzdelik engineered one of the biggest turnarounds in NBA history during his second season in 2003-04, leading the Nuggets to the playoffs for the first time since 1994-95 while posting a 43-39 record. The 26-game improvement over the previous year was the sixth-best in NBA history.

Bzdelik also became the first coach in league history (since the adoption of an 82-game schedule) to guide a team to the playoffs the year after winning less than 20 games. In his first season, Bzdelik earned NBA-wide praise for Denver's competitiveness, work ethic and never-give-up attitude. Despite having the youngest team in franchise history, Bzdelik's team shattered the franchise record for scoring defense by more than five points per game, giving up only 92.4 per outing. In addition, the Nuggets led the league in turnovers forced (17.1 per game) and had six of the top 12 marks for single-season scoring defense.

Surprisingly to many, he was let go by the Nuggets after just 28 games into the 2004-05 season, with the team off to a 13-15 start. But that decision would eventually become Air Force's and now Colorado's gain.

From 1995-2001, Bzdelik was an assistant coach under Pat Riley in Miami, holding the title of Assistant Coach/Director of Scouting during the final two years. With the Heat, he was responsible for the preparation of all game plans, video coordination and statistical data as well as player development.

In 2000, he was recognized by USA Today as one of the NBA's top five assistant coaches. In the 1998 Pro Basketball issue of Sports Illustrated, he was voted as the NBA's best advance scout by league general managers.

Prior to his tenure with the Heat, Bzdelik spent the 1994-95 season as the lead scout for Riley and the New York Knicks. He also served as an assistant coach with the Washington Bullets from 1988-94 and was Wes Unseld's first assistant in 1993-94. In addition, he coached the Bullets summer league team in 1988 and 1994.

The Illinois native began his coaching career in 1978 at Davidson (N.C.) College. In 1980, he was named an assistant coach at Northwestern University where he spent six seasons and was instrumental in the Wildcats' first NIT appearance in school history.

He then accepted his first head coaching position at the University of Maryland-Baltimore County, one he would handle for two years before moving on to the NBA.

During the 1986-87 season at UMBC, his squad was cited by The Sporting News as having "One of College's Biggest Turnarounds," in the school's inaugural season in Division I. After going just 11-44 the previous two seasons as a Divi-

Bzdelik is a 1976 graduate of the University of Illinois-Chicago, where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned four varsity letters in basketball at UIC and was named team MVP as a senior in 1975-76. He still holds the school record for the best free-throw percentage in one season, shooting 88.1 percent (59-for-67) from the line in 1975-76 and still ranks among UIC's all-time leading scorers.

Bzdelik also spent six years in the Army National Guard during the early to mid 1970s.

He was born December 1, 1952 and graduated from Prospect High School in Mount Prospect, Ill. He is married to the former Nina Bernardzik, who was a standout volleyball player at UIC between 1974-76 and is a member of the Flames' Athletic Hall of Fame. They are the parents of two children, Brett (18) and Courtney (16).

2007-08 Notes (senior): Looks to become only the third player in school history to lead team in scoring all four years and first player since Donnie Boyce (1991-95) to accomplish that feat (the other: Emmett Lewis, 1975-79).

Please turn to page 4 to see where Roby ranks all-time in numerous categories

- Tied for third all-time on CU's all-time scoring list (1890)
- Team leader in points, rebounds, FG made, 3-pt.%, FT%
- Second all-time in points scored among guards
- Six career 30+ point games
- Nine 20+ point efforts this season
- Has a trio of 27-point games with two double-doubles
- Leads the team in scoring 14 times (one shared)
- has nine career double-doubles, four this season (CU is 7-2)
- grabbed 14 rebounds, twice this season (Mizzou, New Orleans)
- career-high 39 minutes against at Oklahoma State and at home vs. Mizzou

LOBOS DEFEAT BUFFS IN OPENER

BOULDER (AP/CU Sports Info.) - J.R. Giddens 18-foot jumper in the corner with 33 seconds remaining helped New Mexico to a 54-47 victory over Colorado, Friday evening at the Coors Events Conference Center.

After Marcus Hall converted a driving layup with 1:04 remaining in the game, cutting the Lobos deficit to 50-47, the UNM countered with Giddens' jump shot as the visitors won their first season-opening road game since the 1979-1980 season.

Buffaloes senior guard Richard Roby, who averaged 17.3 points last season, was nearly shut out for the first time in his career. His only point came on a free throw with 1:16 remaining that pulled Colorado to 50-45.

The Buffs trailed by double digits most of the game but began its run on Xavier Silas' 3-pointer with 2:20 remaining that cut the Lobos' lead to 49-43.

Bzdelik, a former coach of the Denver Nuggets and the Air Force Academy, bolted for Boulder after leading the Falcons to a 50-16 mark in two seasons, including a trip to the NIT Final Four last season. He replaced Ricardo Patton, who was let go after 11 years and a 7-20 season.

It was the largest attended regular season opening game in 26 years of the Coors Events Center.

The Lobos, who beat the Buffs 106-65 last season in Albuquerque, jumped out to an early lead and took a 30-19 cushion into the locker room after closing the first half on a 9-2 run that featured a 3-pointer and two free throws by Wills.

Roby, who ranks seventh on Colorado's all-time scoring list, was one of two Buffaloes starters shut out in the first half. The other was Hall, who redshirted last season and underwent minor thumb surgery last month.

Hall scored all of Colorado's nine points over the first 10:18 of the second half, but his teammates went cold and New Mexico maintained a double-digit lead. Hall then committed charges on back-to-back possessions, one of them wiping off a basket for the Buffs.

Freshman Cory Higgins added 10 points, five rebounds and three steals for Colorado.

BUFFS RATTLE FLORIDA A&M, 83-59

MADISON, Wis. (AP/CU Sports Info.) - Xavier Silas scored 24 points to lead Colorado to an 83-59 victory over Florida A&M, Thursday in the opening game of the America's Youth Classic.

The sophomore guard was 8-of-11 from the floor and scored 18 points in the first half as the Buffaloes (1-1) opened up a huge lead early and were never seriously threatened. Silas also had a career-best five assists.

Silas' jumper with 10:28 left in the first half gave Colorado a 25-7 lead.

The Rattlers (1-1), the defending Mid-Eastern Atlantic Conference tournament champions, could get no closer than eight points the rest of the way.

Jermyl Jackson-Wilson scored 11 points, while Cory Higgins, Richard Roby and Levi Knutson each added 10 for the Buffaloes.

Marcus Hall added nine points, four rebounds and his four assists, bring his career total to 303. He also collected three steals.

Akini Akini paced Florida A&M with 21 points. The 6-foot-10 senior forward scored eight points during a 20-10 Rattler spurt that cut Colorado's lead to 35-27 just before halftime.

The Buffaloes used an 8-0 run early in the second half to stretch their advantage to 50-33, and the lead remained in double digits.

CU's victory tonight is the first win on a neutral court outside the state of Colorado in the regular season since Dec. 29, 2002 against the University of Loyola-Chicago at the Pepsi Classic (Charlotte, N.C.).

It was the first-ever meeting between the two schools, who are both breaking in new coaches: Eugene Harris at Florida A&M, and former Denver Nuggets head coach Jeff Bzdelik at Colorado.

CU PULLS AWAY, DEFEAT TIGERS

MADISON, Wis. (AP) - Richard Roby scored a game-high 17 points as Colorado beat Savannah State 58-43 in the America's Youth Classic tournament on Friday.

Roby was 6-for-9 from the field as Colorado (2-1) continued to rebound from a season-opening loss to New Mexico. Joseph Flegler scored 14 to lead Savannah State (2-3).

Flegler hit a jumper and a 3-pointer as Savannah State went on a 7-1 run to cut Colorado's lead to 42-37 with just over five minutes left in the game.

But Colorado pulled away with hot 3-point shooting, as Marcus Hall hit from outside to put Colorado ahead 45-37 with 4:17 remaining and Levi Knutson hit a pair of 3-pointers in the final three minutes. Knutson scored 12 for the Buffaloes and Hall added 10. Jermyl Jackson-Wilson had five assists and a team-high 13 rebounds for Colorado.

Savannah State's top three scorers on Friday - Flegler, Chris Linton and Anthony Jones - shot a combined 12-for-34 as Savannah State shot 27 percent from the floor. Linton had 10 points and 13 rebounds.

Savannah State led 13-12 after a jumper by Anthony Jones at the 10:46 mark in the first half. But Colorado went on a 13-3 run near the end of the first half and took a 25-16 lead into halftime.

Roby had nine points on 3-of-4 shooting at half-time. Colorado was 1-for-7 from 3-point range in the first half.

BADGERS STRONG AT HOME, BEAT CU

MADISON, Wis. (AP) - Trevon Hughes scored 18 points as Wisconsin beat Colorado 78-52 in the final game of the America's Youth Classic Saturday night.

The Badgers (4-0) limited backdoor cuts by the up-tempo version of the Princeton-style offense being installed by first-year Buffaloes coach Jeff Bzdelik.

They built an early lead on hot 3-point shooting by Hughes, a sophomore guard who led the Badgers in scoring in three of their first four games of the season. Brian Butch scored 17 points for Wisconsin, and Michael Flowers added 12.

Richard Roby scored 20 to lead Colorado (2-2), while Xavier Silas added 13. Roby was also named to the America's Youth Classic all-tournament team, averaging 15.7 points and 4.7 rebounds per game.

Hughes opened the game with an early 3-pointer from beyond NBA range, and was 3-for-6 from outside the arc in the first half. The Badgers built a double-digit lead in the first six minutes of the game and never were in danger of giving it up.

A 3-pointer by Colorado's Marcus Hall (eight points) cut the Wisconsin lead to 27-16 with 7:33 left in the first half. But the Badgers went on a 12-2 run that included two scores from freshman forward Jon Leuer to take a 39-18 lead with 3:24 left in the half.

Wisconsin was ahead 44-27 at halftime, shooting 56 percent from the floor and hitting 6-of-13 from 3-point range.

Overall, Colorado shot 49% from the field, making 20-of-41 field goals, including 6-of-14 from the three-point line.

Wisconsin was careful on offense, turning the ball over only nine times. Colorado had 19 turnovers.

BUFFS PREVAIL AT HOME, 78-58

BOULDER (AP) - Marcus Hall scored 21 points and Richard Roby added 18, leading Colorado to a 78-58 victory over Colorado Christian.

Hall was 4-for-6 on 3-pointers. Roby scored 11 of his points in the second half when Colorado (3-2) blew open the game.

The Buffaloes played without Xavier Silas, who missed the game with a lower left leg contusion. Caleb Patterson and Levi Knutson made their first collegiate starts.

Rory Morgan and Brian Stamer led Colorado Christian (1-2), a Division II program in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, with 13 points. The Cougars have back-to-back road losses.

Colorado Christian made a game of it for about 13 minutes and held a 12-10 lead with 12:43 left in the first half after three straight baskets by Morgan. The game was tied at 22 after a free throw by Stamer with 6:55 left.

Colorado took control to close the first half with a 15-5 run. Knutson buried a 3-pointer with 6:21 left and Hall's layup off a steal put the Buffaloes ahead by five. Colorado scored the last six points of the half, four coming from Cory Higgins, to take a 37-27 lead into intermission.

The Buffaloes shot 56.4 percent from the field and made 31 field goals, their highest since making 59.6 percent of their shots at Texas Tech last season (also made 31 FGs).

CCU got as close as seven points twice in the second half, the last coming when Jordan Long's 3-pointer made it 41-34 with 16:10 left. Roby's trey seconds later increased Colorado's lead by 10 points and began a 13-2 run that included a 3-pointer by Hall to put the Buffaloes ahead 54-36.

Hall's fourth 3-pointer of the game with 4:31 remaining gave Colorado its biggest lead, 68-47. Colorado Christian never got closer than 16 points the rest of the game.

Dwight Thorne scored a pair of career-highs with 13 points and five assists.

CU ENDS FALCONS' WIN STREAK

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) - Jeff Bzdelik weathered the taunts and jeers, Richard Roby scored a season-high 21 points and Colorado escaped with a 60-50 victory over Air Force on Thursday night in the former coach's return to Clune Arena.

Marcus Hall had 18 points and Cory Higgins added seven as the Buffaloes (5-2) snapped the Falcons' 38-game home winning streak against nonconference foes. Hall played a career-high 40 minutes, while freshman guard Cory Higgins recorded a season-best 5 assists.

"I told our players I've never seen a fan come out of the stands to block a shot or grab a rebound," Bzdelik said. "Embrace the atmosphere, be fearless, have poise and you all have to bond together in a greater way."

The Air Force cadets sat close to the Buffaloes bench and heckled Bzdelik all game. The students donned shirts with a picture of Bzdelik on the front and a giant red "x" through the photo. Bzdelik coached two seasons at Air Force before bolting for the Buffaloes last April.

Reserve Andrew Henke scored 18 points, hitting four 3-pointers, for Air Force and Evan Washington finished with 11. Keith Maren chipped in nine points and seven rebounds.

The Falcons (5-3) never led in the game in part to their struggles at the free throw line, where they finished 7-for-17.

Levi Knutson's two 3-pointers late in the game sealed the Buffaloes' third straight win.

Colorado went into the locker room with what the team thought was a 26-19 lead, but Hall's shot at the buzzer was eventually waved off after officials took a second look on the video monitor.

CARDINAL TOO MUCH FOR BUFFS

BOULDER (AP) - Anthony Goods and Lawrence Hill each scored 15 points to lift the Stanford Cardinal to a 67-43 win over Colorado part of the Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series.

The Cardinal (8-1) have now won four straight since a 12-point loss at Siena on Nov. 17.

Colorado (5-3) had its three-game winning streak snapped. The team was led in scoring by Marcus Hill with 16. He also had four assists as he logged 40 minutes for the second straight game. Hill's four assists (322 career) put him ahead of Billy Law (years played 1990-1992) for eighth place on CU's assists list.

Cory Higgins tied a season-high with 10 points and Richard Roby, the Buffaloes' leading scorer, was held to just seven points.

Robin Lopez, the Cardinal's second-leading scorer, didn't score until the 18:48 mark of the second half. He finished with four points and six rebounds. Taj Finger provided a spark off the bench, scoring 11 points, and Hill grabbed a season-high 10 boards.

Colorado was down by three points, 25-22, after Levi Knutson hit a 3-pointer in the closing seconds of the first half.

However, the Cardinal went on a 16-4 run to start the second half to break open the contest.

The Buffaloes were coming off a 60-50 win at Air Force on Thursday night in coach Jeff Bzdelik's emotional return to the academy. Bzdelik bolted from Air Force to Colorado last April. The team had also won back-to-back road games for the first time since the 1998-99 season.

Stanford showed it was comfortable playing at the Buffaloes' slowed-down pace. The Cardinal scored 13 points under their season average.

It was the first meeting between the two schools since the Cardinal's 71-58 win on Nov. 30, 1991. Stanford now leads the all-time series 6-3.

PRIVATEERS EDGE BUFFS, 67-65

BOULDER (AP) - Shaun Reynolds hit a driving layup and free throw with 4.3 seconds left, and Bo McCaleb scored 24 points to lead New Orleans to a 67-65 victory over Colorado.

"We knew they'd be relentless in pursuit, they were 4-0 on the road," CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik said. "They are tough young men and that was evident by them going into NC State and came away with a win. We knew it had to be a wire-to-wire job and we didn't do that—we let up. This team (New Orleans) is so tough both physically and mentally to do what we did tonight and expect to win."

McCaleb hit 8-of-11 shots and scored 20 of his points in the second half. T.J. Worley added 11 points and Reynolds finished with six for New Orleans (6-1).

Richard Roby led Colorado (5-5) with a season-high 27 points and 14 rebounds. The Buffaloes had seven-point leads twice in the second half in losing their third straight.

Roby's put back of his own miss and layup put the Buffaloes ahead 47-40 only to have New Orleans get within 47-46 on McCaleb's jumper with 11:15 remaining. Colorado converted six straight free throws, four by Roby to lead 53-49. But the Privateers answered with a 3-pointer and two free throws by Worley to take a 54-53 edge with 6:11 left.

Baskets by James Parlow and McCaleb put New Orleans ahead 61-57 with 2:35 left. That lead disappeared on a layup by Roby and a 3-pointer by Cory Higgins to put Colorado up 62-61.

Higgins' second 3-pointer gave the Buffaloes their last lead, 65-64 with 39 seconds left. New Orleans quickly pushed the ball up the floor to set up Reynolds' layup and free throw.

Colorado turned the ball over before crossing midcourt after calling two timeouts. CU led 32-26 at intermission as both teams combined for 17 turnovers.

Marcus Hall had a 3-pointer and Roby turned a pass from Hall into a layup as Colorado outscored the Privateers 6-0 in the final 2:15 of the half.

BUFFS DEFEAT RAMS, 73-70

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) - Marcus King-Stockton hit a layup with 31.3 seconds remaining and Richard Roby finished with 18 points and 10 rebounds, helping Colorado to a 73-70 win over Colorado State on Saturday night.

It was the Buffaloes' first win at Moby Arena in four years. Colorado's victory also snapped the Rams' 24-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents.

Colorado, who had been idle the last 10 days, led by as many as 12 points in the first half.

However, the Rams rallied back to take a 70-68 lead with just over a minute left on Willis Gardner's 3-pointer.

Cory Higgins hit one of two free throws, and then King-Stockton followed with a layup to give the Buffaloes (6-5) a 71-70 lead.

After Colorado State missed a shot, Marcus Hall was fouled and hit both free throws with 11.5 seconds left to extend Colorado's lead to three points.

Gardner's off-balance 3-point attempt with the clock winding down fell short, and the Rams lost their fourth straight game.

Colorado State (5-7) was led in scoring by Marcus Walker, who finished with 17 points. Stuart Creason added 14 and Gardner had 13.

Xavier Silas had 16 points for Colorado, including four 3-pointers. Higgins finished with 13 points, and had a season-best seven assists. Roby finished with his seventh career double-double and second straight this season. He finished with 27 points and 14 rebounds, Dec. 12 against New Orleans.

Colorado coach Jeff Bzdelik is now 5-0 lifetime against the Rams (3-0 at Moby Arena), with four of the wins coming as head coach at Air Force.

HALL LEADS CU FOR THIRD STRAIGHT BOULDER (AP) - Senior guard Marcus Hall scored a game-high 16 points leading three other players in double figures propelling the University of Colorado to a 63-52 home victory over SMU on Friday night.

Senior Richard Roby and sophomore Xavier Silas each added 15 points, in addition to 10 points by Levi Knutson helping CU (8-5) to its third straight victory. All of Roby's 15 points came in the first half.

"We are getting more consistent," said CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik. "We had four players in double-digits, which means that we had good shot distribution. I like that we are sharing the basketball. Our assist to turnover ratio is getting better."

The Buffaloes shot 46 percent from the field against a team that had held their last two opponents below 30 percent shooting.

Alex Malone and Bamba Fall had 11 points for SMU (6-7), while Papa Dia added 10 for the Mustangs.

It was the first meeting between the schools in 28 years. They last played on Dec. 8, 1979 in Dallas with the Buffs holding a 4-1 advantage in the series.

Colorado scored the first six points of the second half, including four from Cory Higgins, to extend its lead to 42-28. SMU missed its first four shots and two free throws by Dia before Malone's rebound basket with 14:20 left made it 42-30. A second put back basket by Malone and his 3-pointer got the Mustangs within 45-37.

Silas scored on a layup with 1:44 to go to make it 58-47, but Fall had a three-point play and two free throws to get the Mustangs within 58-52 with 1:08 remaining. Silas and Hall sealed the game by each hitting two free throws.

Roby had 15 points at halftime on 5-for-7 shooting and three 3-pointers as the Buffaloes turned a 19-17 deficit into a 36-28 lead at the break. Colorado shot 52 percent in the first half.

SMU hurt itself with eight turnovers, three in the last four minutes that led to three layups. The Mustangs were 3-for-10 shooting from beyond the arc in the high 27 points and Xavier Silas added 13, however the Tulsa Golden Hurricane shot 63 percent in the second half pulling away for a 81-68 victory over Colorado Monday night in the final tuneup for both schools in non-conference play.

"The lack of depth hurt us," said CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik. "It is very difficult to go seven deep. We lost our legs and that affected our ability to score. We were getting good shots, we just weren't making them and we were a step slow on defense in the second half. We aren't about explanations or excuses so give Tulsa credit. They shot the ball well and in the second half they were a step behind them in everything we did."

Tulsa reserve Glenn Andrews scored 15 of his 17 points in the second half and Ben Uzoh added 15. The Golden Hurricane, who have now won six straight, picked up their first road win of the season. The team entered the game having dropped three in a row away from the Donald W. Reynolds Center.

Tulsa (8-4) trailed 52-49 with 14:20 remaining before going on a 16-2 run behind the hot shooting of Andrews, who accounted for 14 points during the spurt by hitting four 3-pointers and knocking down a mid-range jumper.

The Golden Hurricane built up the lead to as many as 15 points after trailing by seven in the first half. The team hit 9 of 10 free throws over the final 5:11 to secure the win.

Brett McDade had 12 points and Rod Earls and Bishop Wheatley each added nine. Uzoh, the Golden Hurricane's leading scorer, was held to just a basket in the first half before finding his shot in the second half. He entered the game averaging 16.1 points.

CU (8-6) was led in scoring by Richard Roby, who finished with 27 points moving up to fifth place on the school's all-time scoring list, surpassing Emmett Lewis (1976-79).

Marcus Hall had 10 rebounds, nine assists and a career-high eight steals, but only four points. Xavier Silas finished with 13 points and Levi Knutson had 10.

AGGIES DEFEAT CU IN BIG 12 OPENER COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) - Colorado shot a season-best 62 percent from the field and Cory Higgins matched a personal-best 15 points, however the No. 11 Texas A&M Aggies scored an 86-69 victory over Colorado in the Big 12 Conference season opener for both schools.

Dominique Kirk scored 15 points and DeAndre Jordan added 14 points and nine rebounds to lead the 11th-ranked Aggies to a win, their eighth straight win by at least 15 points.

The Buffaloes lost their 11th straight Big 12 opener and fell to 8-7 and 0-1 in the conference. They have won just once in a league opener since the inception of the Big 12.

CU shot a season-best 61.7 percent from the field along with a season-low 10 turnovers. The Buffaloes also shot a conference school record 77.3 percent in the second half (17-of-22). The percentage fell just short of the school record of 78.9 set at Texas Tech back on Dec. 28, 1985 (15-of-19).

Higgins led three other CU players in double-figures, in addition to his five rebounds. Richard Roby and Xavier Silas each chipped-in 14 points and Marcus Hall added 12 second half points. Hall also had six assists.

The Aggies (15-1, 1-0) led by 15 points at halftime and built their lead to 61-42 after a layup by Bryan Davis about eight minutes into the second half.

A dunk by Marcus King-Stockton capped a 12-6 run for Colorado and cut A&M's lead to 67-54. Kirk answered the run with a jump shot and a 3-pointer to put the game out of reach.

CU had trouble defending A&M's balanced scoring attack, which featured six players who scored in double figures. Along with Jordan and Kirk, Davis, Josh Carter, Joseph Jones and Donald Sloan all scored at least 10 points.</

BUFFS WIN BIG 12 HOME OPENER

BOULDER (AP) - University of Colorado freshman guard Cory Higgins scored a team-high 13 points and Richard Roby added 12 points and 10 rebounds to lead Colorado to a 55-51 win over Nebraska Tuesday night.

It was CU's ninth win of the season and it evened their conference mark at one.

Xavier Silas nearly recorded his first double-double scoring eight points and grabbing nine rebounds, while Marcus King-Stockton started his second straight game for the Buffs, tallied a career-high three steals with two blocks.

It was the lowest scoring game between these two schools in nearly 28 years since Nebraska won 53-44 on Jan. 19, 1980.

CU (9-7, 1-1 Big 12) ended its two-game losing streak as the Buffaloes held the Cornhuskers to a season-low 51 points.

Cookie Miller led Nebraska (11-4, 0-2) with 18 points. Aleks Maric had 14 points and nine rebounds for the Cornhuskers who lost back-to-back games after winning six straight.

The Buffaloes kept to their winning ways against Nebraska, winning their sixth of their last seven over their rivals.

Roby, who averaged 24 points a game against NU in three home games, recorded his eighth career double-double improving CU 7-1 when he performs that feat. Higgins led CU in scoring for the second straight game, also equaled his season-best six rebounds.

Defenses dominated the first half. Colorado led 25-22 after shooting 32 percent from the field while the Cornhuskers were slightly better at 33 percent.

Roby converted a free throw and an off balance jump shot in the final 1:15 of the first half for the difference.

'HORNS HOLD ON, DEFEAT BUFFS

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Richard Roby scored a team-high 18 points and Xavier Silas added 15, but the No. 19 Texas Longhorns came back in the second half to score a 69-67 victory over Colorado.

Colorado (9-8, 1-2 Big 12), led the game 37-28 at half-time. The Buffs went 7-of-13 from the floor in the first half.

Roby's 18 points moved him into fourth place for Colorado all-time scoring. Cory Higgins grabbed a career-high eight rebounds and Dwight Thorne scored two 3-pointers, a personal best.

Texas (14-3, 1-1) struggled to score in the first half after wingman Damion James, the Longhorns most consistent scorer of late, went to the bench six minutes in with his second foul.

"The competitive spirit was there," said CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik on the AM-760 post-game show. "We need to rebound better and cash in when we have opportunities at the rim or free throw line. You can learn from wins and losses, we just need to get a little better. They really got into us and we got out of our offense a little bit."

D.J. Augustin scored 25 points for Texas and A.J. Abrams finished with 17 points and four 3-pointers. Texas trailed 41-28 early in the second half before Abrams hit a 3-pointer, then converted a 3-point play. The Longhorns took the lead behind a 24-6 run.

Even with Texas' big rally, Colorado almost came back at the end. Texas nearly wasted the effort when the offense went into a late funk. Connor Atchley's 3-point play with 4:25 to play put Texas up 69-59 but it was the Longhorns' last basket of the game.

A jumper by Roby and a layup by Marcus Hall cut the lead to four. Colorado's last chance came when the Buffaloes forced a shot clock violation with 18 seconds left. Roby's tip-in at the buzzer closed the gap to two points.

K-STATE TOO MUCH FOR BUFFS

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby scored a team-high 27 points, the sixth time that he has scored over the 20-point barrier this season, however Kansas State's Michael Beasley countered with 26 of his game-high 29 points in the second half to lead the Wildcats to a 72-56 conference win at the Coors Events Center, Wednesday night.

Beasley was 9-for-15 shooting in the second half in addition to grabbing a game-high 13 rebounds. Bill Walker added 18 points for Kansas State (13-4, 3-0 Big 12) which won for the fourth straight time.

Cory Higgins added 10 points for Colorado (9-9, 1-3), which hurt itself by hitting only 17-of-31 free throws. CU was led on the boards by Roby, who finished with a team-high nine boards.

The Buffaloes got within 34-30 after scoring the first six points of the second half. But Beasley gave Kansas State some breathing room, 37-30, with his first field goal of the game on a two-fisted jam off a steal with 16:20 remaining.

The Wildcats led 45-33 after baskets by Walker and Beasley and 53-38 after Beasley's two free throws. Higgins' layup and a 3-pointer by Xavier Silas cut it to 53-43 with 8:08 to play, but Kansas State went up 64-47 as Beasley scored nine of his team's next 11 points.

Foul trouble limited Beasley to 10 minutes and three points in the first half, but he contributed three free throws in a 15-0 run that put Kansas State up 27-13 with 8:54 left. Roby had eight points the rest of the half as Colorado reduced the gap to 34-26 at halftime.

Another difference in the game came on the boards, where Kansas State out-rebounded the Buffs by a 41-30 margin, only the second time CU has been out-rebounded by 10 or more this season (Stanford).

MISSOURI RALLYS IN SECOND HALF

BOULDER (AP) - Marcus Hall scored a season-high 28 points and Richard Roby added 13, however the Missouri Tigers grabbed the lead late in the second half and came out victorious with a 66-62 win over Colorado, Saturday afternoon.

Leo Lyons scored 16 of his 22 points in the second half and Missouri overcame a 13-point deficit over the final 10 minutes.

The Tigers (12-8, 2-3), who snapped a three-game losing streak and a five-game road skid, never led in the first 38 minutes. Then, Matt Lawrence set up in the left corner and swished a 3-pointer that gave Missouri a 61-60 lead with 2 minutes left.

Colorado fared better from the field, sinking 20-of-44 compared to Missouri's 25-of-58.

DeMarre Carroll missed the front end of a 1-and-1 with 34 seconds left and on the next Buffs' possession, but Stefhon Hannah stole it and laid it in for a 65-62 lead.

Xavier Silas missed a 3-pointer for the tie and Hannah, who scored 11 of his 13 points after half-time, sank a free throw for the final margin.

Hall scored 20 first-half points as the Buffs (9-10, 1-4) built a 34-24 halftime lead, one they would stretch to 50-37 halfway through the second half. The Tigers reeled off eight straight points to cap a 13-3 spurt that pulled them to 53-50 with 6 1/2 minutes remaining, and they kept chipping away until Lawrence's 3-pointer put them ahead for good. Lawrence finished with nine points.

Roby scored his ninth double-double of the season, grabbing 14 boards and 13 points. The Buffs outbounded the taller Tigers, 33-32.

Hall scored 20 points in the first half on 8-of-9 shooting, including 4-of-5 from three-point range.

BUFFS FALL AT ISU

AMES, Iowa (AP) - Richard Roby scored a game-high 13 points and Marcus Hall added nine points and nine rebounds, but the Iowa State Cyclones took the lead in the second half, running to a 57-41 victory over Colorado, Tuesday night.

Craig Brackins and Jiri Hubalek each scored 10 points for Iowa State.

Reserve guard Sean Haluska added a career-high nine points for the Cyclones (13-8, 3-3 Big 12), who held Colorado to a season low for points. Freshman Cory Higgins snagged a career-high five steals.

Iowa State's ninth straight win at home came at a price. Wesley Johnson, the Cyclones' leading scorer, is out indefinitely, according to Iowa State coach Greg McDermott. Johnson missed the first four games of the season with a bone bruise in his left foot. McDermott said that Johnson appeared to re-aggravate that injury when he came down on a Colorado player's foot.

The Buffs held the Cyclones to a season-low 15 points in the first half.

Iowa State struggled against Colorado's press, which allowed the Buffaloes to jump out to an early lead. Things only got worse for the Cyclones after Johnson headed to the locker room, as they went scoreless over the final 4:44 of the first half. The Buffaloes took a 22-15 lead into the break on a jumper by Roby just before the buzzer.

The Cyclones pulled away from Colorado (9-11, 1-5) down the stretch. Haluska hit a 3 and Diante Garrett hit a layup - drawing Richard Roby's fifth foul in the process - to help Iowa State jump ahead 47-39 with 4:04 left. Colorado had just 19 points in the second half, on 5-of-21 shooting from the field. Iowa State has now beaten Colorado in 16 of their last 17 meetings in Ames.

COWBOYS HOLD ON, EDGE CU

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Richard Roby scored a game-high 22 points and Marcus Hall added 12, however the Cowboys ran to a 64-63 victory.

James Anderson scored 16 points, helping Oklahoma State ended a six-game losing streak - it's longest in more than two decades.

Oklahoma State (11-11, 2-6 Big 12) won for the 21st time in its last 22 home games against Colorado (9-13, 1-7) in a matchup of teams that entered tied for last place in the conference.

Until this season, the Cowboys hadn't lost six straight games since the 1986-87 season.

Roby set a school record with his 106th career start, breaking a mark set by Donnie Boyce from 1991 to 1995.

Colorado rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to tie the game at 36-36 on two free throws by Roby with 10:13 left. But Terrel Harris started a 9-0 Oklahoma State run with two free throws with 9:06 left. He capped the spurt with a dunk that followed a steal and pass by Byron Eaton and put the Cowboys up 45-36 with 6:05 left.

Cory Higgins pulled CU within 49-46 with a 3-pointer from the corner with 2:56 left. Marcus Dove and Eaton each hit a pair of free throws for Oklahoma State to make it 53-46.

The Buffaloes chipped away at its deficit after that but came no closer than one point when Hall launched a half-court heave at the buzzer. Just before that, Eaton had made two free throws with 1.2 seconds left.

Colorado went 5-of-20 from the field in the first half and made just 4-of-10 free throws. The Buffaloes didn't hit double figures in the scoring column until 15 minutes into the game.

Hall scored 12 points, raising his career total to 1,008. He is the 25th player in school history to score 1,000 points or more in his career. Higgins added 11 points for the Buffs.

BUFFS ROLL OVER SOONERS, 72-58

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby and Marcus Hall each scored 19 points helping Colorado snap a six-game slide with a 72-58 win over Oklahoma on Saturday.

The Buffaloes (10-13, 2-7 Big 12) led by as many as 14 points early in the second half and then withstood a late Oklahoma charge, sending the Sooners to their third straight loss.

Colorado hit 20-of-33 from the field (61%) while the Sooners managed 24-of-60 (40%).

"We executed really well today, and we were consistent," said CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik. "I think that we handled their zone well, and had some good looks. We set good screens and executed our back doors. The shot distribution was also good, and that gave us good balance. I saw a lot of improvement out there today."

Hall played all 40 minutes for the sixth time this season. He also had three assists and three steals.

The Sooners (15-8, 3-5) were led in scoring by freshman Blake Griffin with 25 points, two points shy of tying his career high set against Kansas State on Jan. 12. He also had five assists and five rebounds. Tony Crocker added nine points, all on 3-pointers, while Taylor Griffin and David Godbold each added eight points.

Colorado put two defenders on Blake Griffin to try to slow him down, but the play didn't work. Griffin got free anyway, helping the Sooners dominate inside. Oklahoma outscored Colorado 36-18 in the paint. The Buffaloes were outrebounded on the offensive glass 17-3 by the Sooners.

Roby scored 11 of his 19 points in the second half. He has now scored in double figures in 15 straight games. Roby also moved to within 28 points of passing Shaun Vandiver for third place on the Buffaloes' all-time scoring list.

Colorado has now beaten the Sooners three straight times at Coors Events Center. However, Oklahoma still has won 43 of the last 49 meetings, and 22 straight against Colorado in Norman, Okla.

STRONG SECOND HALF LIFTS TTU

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby scored a game-high 25 points and Cory Higgins added 12, however Texas Tech shot 72 percent in the second half to push the Red Raiders to a 87-69 victory.

"I don't think I've ever had a team play that poorly defensively," said CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik. "First of all, give Texas Tech great credit, they respected the game and they played the game the way it's supposed to be played. They moved without the ball extremely hard and well. They looked for one another. They out-ran us. Defensively, they stayed disciplined to the game plan. But give credit to Texas Tech because they taught us a great lesson in how to play."

Alan Voskuil and John Roberson both scored 20 points for Texas Tech.

The Red Raiders (14-11, 5-6 Big 12) improved to 2-3 since Pat Knight inherited the program from his father, Bobby Knight, after the Hall of Fame coach stepped down earlier this month.

Roby's 25 points tied him with Shaun Vandiver for third place on the Buffaloes' all-time scoring list with 1,876 points. Roby is 119 points away from tying Donnie Boyce, the school's scoring leader. Roby also grabbed a team-high nine rebounds.

Xavier Silas added nine points and seven rebounds for the Buffaloes (10-15, 2-9).

The Red Raiders led 35-32 at halftime and increased it to 21 points on a shot by Roberson with 7:31 remaining. The Buffaloes sliced the lead down to 11 before Texas Tech closed the game out to snap a two-game losing streak in Boulder.

Martin Zeno finished with 14 points and Damir Suljagic had 13 points and 10 rebounds.

MIZZOU DEFENDS HOME COURT, 60-53

COLUMBIA, MO. (AP) - Marcus Hall scored a game-high 17 points and Richard Roby added 14, however the Missouri Tigers ran to a 60-53 victory.

Keon Lawrence scored 16 points for Missouri.

Colorado was held without a free-throw attempt for the first time in school history. The Buffaloes have lost nine of 10 and have lost 19 straight conference road games, including an 0-6 record this season.

Colorado was whistled for just 12 fouls and Missouri 11, with the Tigers going 4-for-9 from the line. Reserve Leo Lyons had 10 rebounds and seven points for Missouri, which recovered after squandering all but two points of an 18-point cushion at 40-22 early in the second half. Colorado cut the gap to 50-48 when Roby scored from the baseline with 4:02 to go, but Missouri scored eight of the next 10 points.

Darryl Butterfield added eight points from the bench, Jason Horton and Marshall Brown had six each and Justin Safford five.

Colorado played a man short a day after sophomore guard Xavier Silas was dismissed from the team for undisclosed reasons. Silas was the third-leading scorer with a 9.7-point average and started most of the season, although he had been a reserve the previous five games.

Colorado led 10-2 after the first 5:17, getting four points each from Roby and Hall while holding Missouri to one basket in its first 10 shots, with four blocked shots by Marcus King-Stockton. King-Stockton tied a career-high in blocked shots.

The Tigers got big contributions from their bench the rest of the half, with Butterfield getting seven points and Marshall Brown six for a 32-20 lead. Butterfield totaled three points in his previous four games.
