QUICKLY...The No. 14/13 University of Colorado Buffaloes (20-5, 9-4 Big 12) will attempt to win game No. 500 for head coach Ceal Barry this Tuesday, Feb. 24 at 7 p.m. when they take on the University of Kansas Jayhawks. Tuesday night is Senior Night, as the Buffaloes pay respects to their own "Fab Four" of Maria Billingsley, Tera Bjorklund, Kate Fagan and Randie Wirt at their final home game of the season. The game will be carried live on the radio on KKZN 760 AM with Tim Smile on play-by-play and Jan Whitbeck on color analysis.

FAN APPRECIATION NIGHT...Tuesday night is Fan Appreciation Night, with all game tickets costing just $1 and all gameday merchandise selling for 50% off.

SCOUTING THE BUFFALOES...Colorado returns eight letterwinners and welcomes five newcomers this season. Among the eight letterwinners are three returning starters in Big 12 Player of the Year candidate Tera Bjorklund, Kate Fagan and Maria Billingsley. Bjorklund is a consensus semifinalist for every major national player of the year award, including the Wade Trophy, Wooden Award and Naismith Award, and is the second-leading scorer in the Big 12 Conference. She's averaging a career-best 19.0 points per game and a career-best 7.7 rpg. CU's starting off-guard, Kate Fagan, shoots 44.7% from beyond the arc at 67-150 this season. Randie Wirt gets the nod at power forward and is CU's leading rebounder at 7.7 per game with five double-doubles this season. The point guard spot has been split between senior Maria Billingsley (2.2 ppg, 1.5 rpg) and CU's fifth-leading scorer this season, freshman Emily Waner (7.5 ppg, 25.3 mpg).

SENIORS SENIORS, SENIORS ARE THE BEST...This class has been a part of four consecutive 20-win seasons and have amassed a record of 90-32 in their four seasons. They've been to three NCAA tournaments and are likely headed for number four, advancing to an Elite Eight and Sweet 16 the past two. They have scored 3,468 points, which is good for fifth on the chart with enough games to go that they'll probably wrap up third behind the classes of 1989 and 2002.

SHE'S NUMBER TWO, AND THAT AIN'T BAD...With her third point in the Oklahoma State game, senior Tera Bjorklund became the second all-time leading scorer in CU history, finishing the game with 1,791 points. Barring the most remarkable postseason statistically speaking in the history of basketball (about 30 points per game the rest of the way), the No. 1 spot held by Lisa Van Goor at 2,067 points is likely out of reach as it's 276 points away. Bjorklund reached the mark in just 122 games, catching Sheetz in five less games than the former Kodak All-American used to reach her mark of 1,775 (in 127 games), and did so averaging almost 10 minutes less per game (33.5 to 24.4) to date. Bjorklund reached the mark in 1223 field goal and 582 free throw attempts to Sheetz's 1367 field goal attempts (including 661 three point attempts) and 501 free throw attempts.

SCOUTING KANSAS...The Jayhawks are coming off a 69-63 loss to Texas A&M on Saturday night. KU is led by Crystal Kemp, who averages 13.2 ppg and 5.5 rpg at the forward spot. She is joined in double figures by Aquanita Burras and her 10.3 ppg, 5.8 rpg. The leading rebounder for the Jayhawks is Lauren Ervin at 6.8 per game. The Jayhawks are under the direction of Lynette Woodard, who is the interim head coach for KU since Jayhawk matriarch Marian Washington is on leave.

LAST TIME OUT...Tera Bjorklund had 18 points and 16 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the season to lead No. 13 Colorado to a 72-57 victory over Oklahoma State on Saturday. Oklahoma State's Nina Stone fell on a drive to the basket in the first half and had to be taken off the court on a stretcher. She scored 12 points in the first 14 minutes before being injured. X-rays on Stone's neck were negative. Randie Wirt and Kate Fagan each scored 16 points and Veronica Johns-Richardson added 12 for Colorado (20-5, 9-4 Big 12), which had lost two in a row. Trisha Skibbe scored 19 points to lead the Cowgirls (8-17, 3-11). The teams were tied 37-all at the half and at 52 with 8:54 to play before the Buffs went on an 11-0 run, capitalizing on three Oklahoma State turnovers to put the game out of reach.

FEELING THE LOVE...The Buffs are ranked No. 14 in the latest Associated Press Poll and No. 13 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll from last week. The new poll is due out Tuesday.

FEELING THE LOVE, PART II...All three of the National Player of the Year lists have been cut down to 20, and Tera Bjorklund has made all three of the cuts. The Wooden Award, Wade Trophy and Naismith Award all announced their top 20 candidates respectively with CU's center of attention making all their lists.

SMARTY PANTS...Senior forward Randie Wirt was named to the District VII Academic All-America Team as selected by the Collegiate Sports Information Directors of America. She is CU's first Academic All-District selection ever.

NOTING THE KANSAS SERIES

CU vs. KANSAS...Colorado and Kansas have met 52 times, with the Buffaloes holding a slight edge overall at 27-25, and a home edge 13-8 in Boulder, trailing 11-12 in Lawrence and 3-5 on neutral floors. Colorado seniors Tera Bjorklund and Randie Wirt have never lost to Kansas in seven games, but Kate Fagan has, twice during her true freshman season when KU won three-straight games against CU.

MAKING CONNECTIONS...Colorado's Maria Billingsley has connections with a few Jayhawks. First is fellow Swede Leila Menguc, who is a senior guard at KU. Then there's Aquanita Burras, who was a teammate of Billingsley at Central Arizona College before both opted for the Big 12. Burras is from Colorado as well.

LAST TIME OUT...Emily Waner had 12 points - all on 4-of-6 shooting from beyond the arc - and Kate Fagan added 12 to lead No. 15 Colorado off Kansas 59-49 Tuesday night. Colorado (13-2, 2-1 Big 12) used a 12-4 run to a 32-22 lead early in the second half. Waner capped the run with a 3-pointer. After Colorado led 48-33, Kansas began its comeback. The Jayhawks (8-6, 1-2) had a 12-2 run highlighted by a 3-pointer from Erica Hallman that cut the lead to eight. Hallman hit a free-throw after a basket by Crystal Kemp, cutting the Buffs' lead to 50-45. Fagan hit a 3-pointer on Colorado's next possession. Kansas got back within six points, but a basket by Fagan and two free throws by Randie Wirt sealed the victory.

CAREER NUMBERS VS KANSAS...As is the case with most opponents, Tera Bjorklund has the best numbers against the Jayhawks, averaging 11.2 ppg in seven appearances and three starts. Kate Fagan has 10.4 a game in six appearances and three starts. Bjorklund has double figures in four of the seven games vs. KU.

CHASING SHELLY... Two of CU's seniors have been chasing Shelley Sheetz this year and one of them finally caught her. Tera Bjorklund passed Sheetz for second all-time leading scorer, and Kate Fagan has 67 three-pointers, just four behind the single season school mark of 71, set by Sheetz and Jenny Roulter.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG DOGS... Historically, the Buffs are 47-83 against ranked opponents, and are 27-22 at home in the same scenario. With CU's win over Notre Dame in the second game of the season, the Buffaloes have wins over ranked opponents in 14-consecutive seasons. Colorado's biggest win ever over a ranked team came when unranked CU upset No. 16 Florida 98-62 in Boulder on Dec. 22, 2000, a 32-point win.

DIFFERENCE MAKERS... It seems that the difference maker for CU in games won vs. games lost is the elusive third-leading scorer. When Colorado has three or more players score in double figures, they are 18-2 this season and were 23-1 last season. Which means CU is 2-10 over the past two seasons when two or less players score in double figures. Colorado's two leading scorers, Tera Bjorklund and Kate Fagan, are averaging double figures in wins (20.3, 14.2) and Bjorklund in losses (13.8). However, in Colorado's 20 wins, Randie Wirt is the Buffs' third leading scorer with 10.8 ppg.

D'ING IT UP... They lost, but there were bright spots on the defensive end. In the first half, CU held UT to 18 points, the fourth-fewest points in a half by a Texas team ever. It was less than half their first-half average of 37.8, and it was by far their lowest single half total this season, as their previous low was 29. Also the 51 points by UT tied for the sixth fewest ever allowed by a ranked team.

COLORADO UPSETS... In the 29 seasons of Colorado basketball, the Buffaloes have achieved upsets over 29 opponents. Colorado's most recent upset was November 15, 2003, 67-63 in overtime against No. 15 Notre Dame in Boulder.

DIAPER BRIGADE... Colorado started two freshmen, Emily Waner and Anna Nedovic, at Oklahoma. It marked the first time CU had started multiple freshmen since the trio of Mandy Nightingale, Linda Lappe and Britt Hartshorn got the nod multiple times in 1998-98.

BUFF ON A WIRE... CU has had its fair share of close wins this year en route to the second-best start in school history. On the season, CU is 5-0 in games decided by 2-5 points, and CU is 2-0 in two point games.

DO I MAKE YOU RANDIE BABY YEAH?... Oh Austin. Senior forward Randie Wirt has stepped it up a notch this season overall, but especially in Big 12 play, averaging 10.0 ppg and a team-high 8.4 rpg in conference play. She's posted five double-doubles, to bring her career total to six. She's shooting 52.2% from the floor against conference opponents, as well as 87.8% from the free throw line.

JUST PUT SOME WINDEX ON IT... All-American Tera Bjorklund has made improvements in almost every facet of her game, but this season her most notable improvement has been in rebounding. After averaging 6.8 last season, she's up to 7.7 a game this year. She had a new single game career high with 15 at Kansas.

CHICKS DIG THE LONG BALL... Against Buffalo, Colorado set a new school record with 16 three pointers. With five different Buffs contributing to the mark (Fagan, Waner, Howard, Johns-Richardson and Nedovic) that included a new single half record of nine (second half). Fagan tied her own individual school record with seven, which she also tied previously this season vs. Harvard. They are hitting an average of 6.0 three's per game and shooting .373 as a team from downtown. Waner leads the Big 12 Conference in three point shooting with her 45.1% stroke.

SIMPLY...EN FUEGO... In extending its lead from 39-38 to 64-50 in the second half against Texas A&M, Colorado made 12-of-14 field goal attempts (85.7%; the Buffs made 15 of their last 18 shots in the game, 83.3%); that helped the Buffs to a season-best 60.4% shooting (29-of-48) from the floor. It marks the first time CU has shot over 60% in a game since clicking at 61.4% in an 86-65 win over LSU on Dec. 29, 2001.

MAKING THEIR OWN HISTORY... Colorado's nine game winning streak earlier this season was the best the Buffs had since 1994-95 when CU won 25 consecutive games. Since then, the Buffs have had three different eight game winning streaks: 1996-97 (loss to Tennessee in the NCAA Tournament), 2001-02 (loss at Iowa State) and 2002-03 (loss at Kansas State).

ROAD WARRIORS... Colorado's Big 12 opening night win at No. 24 Baylor was Colorado's first over a ranked team in a road game since beating No. 13 Texas Tech 74-69 on Feb. 3, 2002. It was CU's eighth win in school history against a ranked team on the road. CU is 4-2 this year on the road in Big 12 action and 6-3 overall.

BLOWN AWAY... The Buffalo game marked the third time in school history that Colorado had won three straight games by 30 or more points. In addition to that run (71-39 over Wyoming, 80-45 over Syracuse and 98-47 Saturday over Buffalo), it also happened in 2001-02 (83-44 over San Diego, 96-44 over Bowling Green and 88-58 over Houston) and in 1980-81 (86-39 over Winnipeg, 83-49 over Utah and 134-33 over Fort Carson).

THE BUFFALOES REPRESENT... Colorado is a combined 23-2 over the past two seasons in non-conference play. CU's two losses were at No. 11 Minnesota and at home to Villanova in the 2002 Coors Classic. That's not the best in school history, however as CU went 21-1 in non-conference play from 1992-93 to 1993-94. The 1992-93 squad was undefeated in non-conference play, so the lone loss was in the fall of 1993, an 86-82 overtime loss at No. 1 Tennessee.

WANER FROM WAY BACK... Freshman guard Emily Waner hasn't had much trouble hitting from downtown early in her career. She is currently 47-109 on the season for 43.1%. That's the second-most three's ever for a Colorado freshman, passing Mandy Nightingale (46-120, 38.3%) and trailing just Shelley Sheetz (57-157, 36.3%).

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS... Colorado is 56-2 in its last 58 games against unranked teams, dating back to the 2000-01 season. The losses were both last season to Villanova in the Coors Classic and at Missouri on Feb. 2.

COMEBACK KIDS... The CU comeback over Notre Dame after trailing 12-0 was the biggest deficit the Buffs have overcome since trailing Texas by 16 points on Feb. 19, 2000, and coming back to win the game 79-75. The Buffs scored 53 second half points in that one to come from behind led by Sabrina Scott with 24 points and 13 boards. Since then the Buffs have come from behind with a double-digit deficit to win three more times...first vs. Harvard at Minnesota when they trailed by as many as 15 and won by four, 85-81. Again it happened at CSU, when the Buffs trailed by 10 and won by seven, 81-74, and lastly vs. USC, trailing 12 at halftime and winning 69-67.

IS IT A CLUB IF YOU'RE THE ONLY MEMBER?...CU head coach Ceal Barry became the first coach in CU history to reach 400 wins with the Buff win over Idaho State. She currently boasts 499 total career wins, leaving her just one from joining the 500 club. She's already the winningest women's basketball coach in CU history, and she's coached more games, events and matches in a single sport than any other coach in CU history. Here's how she stacks up against other CU head honchos:

Name	Sport	Years	Events	Wins	Losses	Ties	Pct.
Ceal Barry	W. Basketball	21	636	416	220	--	.655
Frank Potts	Track & Field	41	616	--	--	--	--
Sox Walseth	M. Basketball	20	506	261	245	--	.513

Bill McCartney	Football	13	153	93	55	5	.624

WHAT'S COOLER THAN BEIN COOL?...She's more than just a witty former intern for Conan O'Brien: she's a dang good ball player too! Kate Fagan is having a solid senior season, averaging 13.2 ppg in 25 games. She's shooting 44.7% from beyond the arc with 67 threes on the season so far, in addition to 56-63 from the free throw line for a league-leading 88.9%.

AMBER IS THE COLOR OF YOUR ENERGY...Sophomore Amber Metoyer has made leaps and bounds in her second season, averaging 6.2 ppg and 5.2 rpg. She recorded the first double-double of her career against Washington with 16 points and 12 rebounds in 26 minutes off the bench. She also got her first career start at USC.

GO AHEAD AND MOVE THE THREE POINT LINE BACK...The experimental 9-inch distancing of the three point line clearly wasn't a problem for the Buffaloes. Colorado was 12-for-25 from beyond arc in its opener, tying the CU school record for three's in a game, set twice (Jan. 13, 1999 vs. Iowa State and March 22, 2003 vs. BYU in the NCAA Tournament). Emily Waner (5), Kate Fagan (4) and Anna Nedovic (2) all helped the cause.

CHARGE!!!...Kate Fagan led the Buffs last year in charges taken, and is on the right track again this year with 24. She's taken at least one in 21 of 25 games this season.

NOT EXACTLY MARGINAL....In wins, the Buffs have an average scoring margin of +15.2, with an overall scoring margin of +8.2 per game.

LOST IN TRANSLATION...It's not a problem for Colorado, as between the 13 Buffaloes there are 10 different languages in the CU lockerroom. English, Swedish, Danish, Serbian, French, German, Spanish, Norwegian, American Sign Language, Hungarian.

YOUNG GUN...Emily Waner received her first career start at Minnesota, becoming the first true frosh since Randie Wirt to start a game for Colorado. She got her first home start against California.

CENTURY CLUB...It was a big weekend for Tera Bjorklund and Randie Wirt back home in Minnesota. Bjorklund played her 100th game as a Buffalo against Harvard, while Randie Wirt notched her 100th game against Minnesota on Sunday. Kate Fagan joined the club in the game against Southern California.

HALFTIME TURNAROUNDS...It must have been some speech. Against Notre Dame, the Buffs allowed the Fighting Irish to open up a 12-0 lead. The Buffs used their stifling defense to get back in the game, and the result was an 18-point Irish second half. That ties for the seventh-fewest second half points for a CU opponent in program history.

THAT IS SO UNCOOL...Whitney Law became the first Buffalo in five years to suffer a season-ending ACL injury when she tore her anterior cruciate and medial collateral and meniscus (that's ACL and MCL and cartilage to you and me) against Minnesota at the Subway Classic. It's truly crummy for Law because she just finished sitting out a year after transferring from Georgia. Look at it this way: now she can maybe get a master's degree too.

DAZZLING DEBUT...Freshman Emily Waner wasted no time making an impact in a CU uniform, scoring a game high 17 points in the win over ODU. The 17 points are the third-most ever for a freshman in a debut (25, Lisa Van Goor; 19, Jamillah Lang; 17, Erin Scholz) and fifth most in a debut at CU. She made her first two buckets on her first two shots, both threes, one from the right baseline and one from the left. All told, she logged 31 minutes and finished 6-11 from the floor.

THERE MUST BE SOMETHING IN THE WATER...After Waner christened her kicks with a three on her first shot, classmate Anna Nedovic wasn't about to be outdone. Her first shot as a Buff: a three, nothing but net. Also not to be shown up was sophomore transfer Whitney Law, who made her first shot at CU...wait for it...a three. Four games later freshman Leslie Howard scored her first career bucket. Yeah, it was a three.

WADE WATCH, WADE WATCH...Not the same ring to it as Wayne's World. Eh. Well anyways, the WBCA has launched a website to follow the progress of this year's Wade Trophy Watch List types, of which Tera Bjorklund is one. It can be found at: <http://www.wbca.org/wadetrophyintro.asp>.

FOLLOWING IN THE FOOTSTEPS...Coach Ceal Barry has a few of her former players in the coaching ranks this season. Former CU assistant Jen Warden is in her second season at Boise State University after working at Colorado for 10+ seasons. Also head coaching is Raegan Scott-Pebbley at Utah State University, which will start play this season for the first time since 1987. Lastly, there are four former Buffs that are assistant coaches: Linda Lappe (Drake), Benita Martin (Colorado State), Tracy Tripp (Denver) and Shelley Sheetz (San Diego).

CLIMBING THE CHARTS...Tera Bjorklund has made quick work of CU's statistical charts as a Buffalo. Last season, her 592 points were the most ever by a junior, and the fourth most ever by a Buff in a single season. Her single season average of 18.5 in 2002-03 was the third-best in school history. She's now second with 1,791 career points and has only Lisa Van Goor ahead of her with 2,067.

TOUGH OPENERS...The Buffs kicked off this season with their toughest early slate in school history, tipping off against four-consecutive NCAA Tournament participants from last season. The Buffs last opened with back-to-back NCAA teams in 1994-95, when they played Stephen F. Austin and San Diego State, both wins. The last time CU had three NCAA teams in the first four games was 1989-90, when they faced Providence, Illinois State and LSU in games 2, 3 and 4 that year. CU went 1-2 in those contests. This season also marked the first time in school history that CU opened the season with two games within the first four against teams in the Top 25.

WORLD TRAVELERS...Kate Fagan and Tera Bjorklund represented CU, the Big 12 and the United States on the USA Basketball World University Games this summer, which also doubled as the Big 12 All-Star team. The dynamic duo traveled to Daegu, South Korea with the rest of the All-Stars for three weeks in August.

PICKING FIGHTS WITH THE BIG DOGS...Colorado's schedule is once again a tough one, with the Buffs facing 10 2003 NCAA tournament teams. The Big 12 offers one of the toughest schedules in the nation, as five members played in the NCAA a season ago, with Texas Tech making the Sweet 16 and Texas making the Final Four. The Buffs' opponents that danced last year: Old Dominion, Notre Dame, Harvard, Minnesota, Washington, Kansas State (twice), Texas, Oklahoma and Texas Tech. The Buffs will also take on WNIT participants Missouri, Baylor and Colorado State.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF...For the second this season, Colorado had a game in which the Buffs forced at least 30 turnovers. This season CU first did it against No. 5 Notre Dame, forcing the Irish to giveaway the ball 30 times, scoring 31 points on the freebies. The second time was against Cal, forcing 30 TO's again, scoring 21 points off of them.

EVERYBODY'S ALL-AMERICAN...It took three years and 24.7 ppg in the 2003 NCAA Tournament, but the powers-that-be are sitting up and taking notice of Colorado's center of attention, senior Tera Bjorklund. After a selection to the All-Big 12 First Team last year, as well as the Big 12 All-Tournament team, she's been picked as a preseason All-American by the John R. Wooden Award and is on the watch list for the Wade Trophy as well. Her honors campaign website "The T In Team" is up and running for all the latest Tera news and information at <http://buffs.colorado.edu/tera/index.shtml>.

Y3K Club...There are now 19 players that are members of Colorado Basketball's 1,000 point club. What follows is a breakdown of Colorado's 19 1,000 point scorers, their current totals, and when they got there:

CROWD CONTROL...CU has had success in the games with large groups of people present. Naturally, more of that success has come at home, where the Buffs are 18-10 with crowds of 5,500+. On the road, CU is 17-19 with 4,400+ fans, but 2-9 when there are 10,000 or more fans in the opposition's arena (it must be noted that on 10 of those 11 occasions, the opponent was ranked). Take those 11 away, and CU holds their own at 13-8. The Buffs have proved themselves in front of a really big crowd, winning their first game ever in a visiting arena with 10,000+ with their OT win over Texas Tech in front of 13,123 fans in 2001-02, the biggest crowd CU has won in front of on the road. The win over Iowa State last season was in front of 10,222.

TO THE LEFT, TO THE LEFT...Colorado has six players, half the roster, that are left-handed! But not all of them shoot with their left hand. CU's lefties: Tera Bjorklund, Maria Billingsley, Cecily Jones, Sarah Lini, Whitney Law and Veronica Johns-Richardson. Just for measure, we'll include that assistant coach Tanya Haave is also a left-hander. That's pretty remarkable considering that statistics state that just 1 in 10 people are left-handed.

CU IN OT...With the win over Notre Dame in extra time on Nov. 15 of this season, Colorado moved to 15-15 in overtime games with a mark of 9-12 in road overtime games. The Buffs have played in overtime in back-to-back-to-back seasons. Five of CU's last six overtime games have been on the road, including double OT at Iowa State in 1997. CU is 4-1 in those last five road OT contests. Prior to the Notre Dame win on Nov. 15, the Buffs had not been taken to OT at home since the 1996 NCAA Tournament, when they lost to Auburn 68-61 on St. Patrick's Day.

CATCHING A LEGEND...Now in her 21st season at CU, Ceal Barry has now passed the late Russell "Sox" Walseth for the basketball record for a coach with the most seasons with an individual team. Walseth coached the CU men from 1957-76 for 20 seasons, then joined the women's team for a stint from 1980-83 for a total of 23 seasons between the two teams, the longest overall tenure for a CU basketball coach. Barry also just passed Walseth for the second-most games coached at Colorado. She's got 636, Sox had 604.

HALL OF FAMER...Colorado assistant coach and former Evergreen High School prep standout Tanya Haave was recently voted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame, one of the highest honors in the state. Her classmates include Patrick Roy, Terrell Davis and Bill Hanzlik.

HOME SWEET HOME...The Buffs are 318-90 (.781) at home all-time, with an even more impressive record at the Coors Events/Conference Center, turning in a record of 283-69 (.806). Under head coach Ceal Barry the Buffs are 231-68 (.774) at the CECC. CU has turned in six undefeated seasons at home in 29 seasons, including three consecutive years from 1980-83. Most recently the Buffs were perfect at home in 1993-94 when they went 13-0 at the CECC, 27-5 overall. Colorado owns the seventh-longest home winning streak in NCAA history, going for 53-straight during the early 80s.

THE BUFFALO STAMPEDE...Coach Ceal Barry's television show airs on Fox Sports Net on Saturday mornings at 9:30 a.m. Hosted by Chuck Garfien, the show incorporates all of CU's athletic department and is filmed on location in and around Boulder and is produced by BuffVision, the partnership that brings us the fantastic video boards at Folsom Field.

OH CAPTAINS, MY CAPTAINS...Tera Bjorklund, Kate Fagan and Randie Wirt have been selected as the captains of the CU squad for the 2003-04 season. This marks the first time since 1999-2000 that the Buffs have rookie captains.

MOVE OVER BRIDGET JONES...Because the witty Kate Fagan has assumed official duties as CU's online diary writer for her second year. The Fagan Files, a feature on CU's website, will chronicle the season as experienced by Fagan, a fifth-year senior who has seen both the individual and collective ups and downs in her tenure thus far and has become one of the go-to players in Ceal Barry's starting lineup this year.

LOVE AND MARRIAGE...Buff guard Maria Billingsley is the atypical women's college basketball player. Why? She's 24, she's a native of Sweden and she's married. The former Maria Eriksson was married in December 2001 to Brent Billingsley, a former rodeo champion and graduate of Northern Arizona. She's also the oldest player on the CU roster and the only player NOT born in the 80's.

SHOWTIME...Colorado is scheduled to make a minimum of five regional or national television appearances this season, with the possibility of additional television if the Buffs advance in tournament play. Colorado is 2-2 this season on television (USC, W; Kansas State, L; Missouri, W; at Kansas State, L)

2010...Colorado has won at least 20 games in a season 16 times in its history (29 seasons) and 12 times in Ceal Barry's 20-year tenure. The Buffs have also had at least 10 wins in the Big 12 four times in seven seasons.

THE WANER WAY...Well-adjusted? You be the judge. When asked what the biggest adjustment from high school to college has been, the Colorado native had this to say: "Time management and having the ability to address all the responsibilities you face daily. You have to budget your time to make sure you are prepared for everything. That means being mentally prepared for class, mentally and physically prepared for practice and disciplined enough to maintain good nutrition through all of that. Eat right, drink enough water during the day, and make sure you take the time throughout the day to get some homework done whenever the opportunity presents itself."

THE SECOND COMING OF KORDELL...I'VE GOT YOUR SLASH...Former Buff quarterback Kordell Stewart made a name for himself early in his NFL career as "Slash" since he was playing a little quarterback/wide receiver/running back. Well you can call Amber Metoyer the new Slash as she's playing some small forward/power forward/center. When CU backup center Cecily Jones went down with a partially torn ACL on Nov. 2, Coach Barry inserted Metoyer in at the post and liked her so much, she played there in the exhibition against South Dakota State. When the matchup is there, be looking for the 5-10 Metoyer to bang bodies in the post.

FOREIGN LEGION...Colorado boasts four players from over there, three hail from what is technically Scandinavia. Maria Billingsley is a native of Sweden, Jasmina Ilic from Serbia, and Sarah Lini and Anna Nedovic come from Denmark. The four represent the most non-Americans on a CU roster ever.

BARRY SIGNS TWO PREPS TO LETTERS OF INTENT...Ceal Barry announced the signing of two high school seniors to Letters of Intent on Monday. Kara Richards, a 6-4 center from Graham, Texas and Jackie McFarland, a 6-3 forward from Derby, Kan. McFarland's sister Jessica plays at Kansas State.
