SAN FRANCISCO -- Colorado senior Derek Tolan opened the fall men's golf season with one-over 143 to take fourth place after two rounds of the San Francisco Intercollegiate on Monday.

The Buffs head into today's final round in fourth place, trailing first-place California by 15 strokes.

Tolan trails California's George Gandranata and Michael Jensen, who are tied for the lead, by two strokes for the lead at The Olympic Club's Lake Course, a 6,833-yard, par-71 layout.

Also for CU, senior Patrick Grady is tied for 14th with a 145. Freshman Kevin Kring shot a 147. Junior Luke Symons had a 149 and junior Justin Bardgett had a 150.
