(March 13 and 15 matches will be played at MHH in case of inclement weather)

SERIES AGAINST BSU... Colorado leads the all-time series, 5-0, having last played in 2004. Today is the first match up in Boulder since the series started in 1995. CU is 3-0 at Boise State, 2-0 at a neutral site.

CHART CLIMBERS... Senior Franziska Jendrian is currently tied with Jessica Garrow (1997-2000) with 69 career doubles victories. Jendrian has won 44 spring matches and 25 in the fall. This year she has 13 wins on the doubles court, tied with junior teammate Camila Belassi.

SPRING TRIUMPHS... Sophomore Abbie Probert leads the team in dual match victories with five, followed by Belassi and Jendrian with four apiece.

OVERALL WINS... Franziska Jendrian tops the team with 18 victories for the year (78 career). Junior Melisa Esposito (54 career) and Camila Belassi (48 career) have recorded 15 and 14 wins, respectively.

DOUBLES POINT... The Buffaloes have won the doubles point four times this spring helping CU to three team wins after securing the doubles point.

NON-CONFERENCE... After today's match with Boise State, the Buffaloes will travel to Denver to take on the No. 39 Pioneers (Feb. 28). It will be CU's last non-conference tune up before the rigors of Big 12 play beginning March 13 against Oklahoma.

NEWEST ADDITION... For those who have not heard, former tennis standout Gleisy Torres Torres has joined the coaching staff. Torres Torres graduated in May 2008 tied for 10th on the school's all-time victories list (74) and was eighth in doubles (54). She was an eight-time Commissioners Honor Roll recipient, a three-time All-Big 12 academic first team selection, and a two-time ITA Scholar Athlete.
